

BUILDING SUPPORT IN CONGRESS

LETTER CARRIERS ARE DELIVERING THE MESSAGE IN WASHINGTON

As we all know, Congress has a great deal of power over us and our employer, the U.S. Postal Service (USPS). But every member of Congress who seeks to abolish our collective-bargaining rights, cut our pay or limit our health and retirement benefits faces numerous lawmakers who seek to protect letter carriers, stabilize USPS and ensure that we continue to provide the public services relied upon by American households and businesses.

Our base of support is growing, because of the hard work of letter carriers in building and maintaining relationships. The attacks come and go, but letter carriers persevere.

For example, in 2018, the White House convened a special postal task force. Among many harmful proposals in the task force's report, it specifically called for heavy cuts to delivery service and for an end to the right of letter carriers and other postal employees to negotiate pay, benefits and working conditions through a union, among other ill-conceived proposals. It also praised privatized postal systems overseas.

In response, both the House of Representatives and the Senate introduced resolutions calling for the Postal Service to remain an independent establishment of the federal government, rebuking the call for privatization. Those resolutions have garnered a bipartisan majority in both the House and Senate over the last two Congresses.

In addition, White House budget proposals continue to come and go every year—with recent ones calling for drastic changes to the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS), including increased employee contributions, elimination of cost-of-living adjustments (COLAs), elimination of annuity supplements for those under 62, reducing the Thrift Savings Plan's G-fund interest rate, and the basing of annuities on workers' highest average annual salary over five years (high-5) instead of over the highest three years (high-3).

Congress continues to reject these ideas when setting budget priorities each year. Congress's refusal to incorporate these cuts is directly attributable to the constant chorus of opposition communicated to lawmakers by NALC members and the coordinated efforts with the federal-postal community. This active defense is yet another victory worth celebrating, but it also can be used for offense.

As the second session of the 116th Congress begins, NALC continues to build upon successes. NALC's four priority resolutions not only achieved a majority of support in their respective chambers, but now have more co-sponsors signed on to them than ever before:

- House Resolution 23, calling for continued door delivery, had 257 co-sponsors (204 Democrat, 53 Republican)* at press time.
- House Resolution 33 and Senate Resolution 99, calling for USPS to remain a public agency and not be subject to privatization, had 267 House co-sponsors (224 Democrat, 43 Republican)* and 53 Senate co-sponsors (43 Democrat, 8 Republican, 2 Independent), respectively, at press time.
- House Resolution 54, calling for continued six-day mail delivery, had 291 co-sponsors (216 Democrat, 75 Republican)* at press time.
- House Resolution 60, calling for a restoration of service standards, had 203 co-sponsors (176 Democrat, 27 Republican)* at press time.

*Rep. Jeff Van Drew (R-NJ) changed parties from Democrat to Republican, which has not been reflected on congress.gov.

The high level of support for these priority resolutions is not our only accomplishment; the 116th Congress also saw the introduction of one of the most significant pieces of postal legislation in years.

Repealing the mandate to pre-fund retiree health is at the top of NALC's legislative agenda. The mandate, which no other agency or company faces, is responsible for 90 percent of the financial losses incurred by the Postal Service since 2007.

The USPS Fairness Act (H.R. 2382), introduced in April 2019 by Reps. Peter DeFazio (D-OR), Tom Reed (R-NY), Xochitl Torres Small (D-NM) and Brian Fitzpatrick (R-PA), would repeal the mandate that USPS pre-fund decades' worth of health benefits for its future retirees, enacted through the Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act (PAEA) of 2006. The legislation is now heading to the House floor, and a Senate companion bill introduced by Sens. Steve Daines (R-MT) and Brian Schatz (D-HI) as S. 2965 is gaining traction.

"The momentum on repeal is a monumental achievement and would not have been possible without supportive members of Congress who are educated on our issues by our letter carrier activists," NALC President Fredric Rolando said. "Getting this important legislation to the finish line is not guaranteed in the 116th Congress, which is why we will continue laying the groundwork for its success in the near future. That will require more education and more relationship building, which LCPF allows us to do in Washington and in congressional districts around the country."

We have the power

Ultimately, Congress will decide whether to promote beneficial legislation and defend letter carriers and the Postal Service against attacks. That is why NALC's year-round engagement of letter carrier activists from across the country, who educate lawmakers on both sides of the aisle on the value of USPS to all Americans, is pivotal. The work they do in lawmakers' home states and districts is the foundation of NALC's ongoing legislative and political efforts.

"Congress is the Postal Service's de facto board of directors—535 people who have enormous power over our jobs and our future," President Rolando said. "Not only do they have near-total control over the Postal Service, they also legislate many of our benefits, including retirement and health care, and set the bounds of our collective-bargaining rights."

Lawmakers are willing to listen to a workforce that is consistently rated as the most trustworthy in all of the federal government, with a 90 percent public favorability rating. They learn about the unmatched services we provide. They learn about our daily acts of heroism and humanitarianism on our routes in their communities. They learn that what is good for the Postal Service and its employees is good for their constituents and the American people as a whole.

As for those who are unwilling to listen, refuse to learn and do not support us, the power held over jobs isn't a one-way street. Every two years, each seat in the House and one-third of Senate seats are up for grabs. Letter carriers need lawmakers in those seats who support letter carriers and are committed to maintaining a strong and innovative Postal Service.

The power of LCPF

We want to continue helping to elect House and Senate candidates who will protect the interests of letter carriers, but we cannot do it without your help. Federal law prohibits union dues from being used to support candidates for political office, so NALC relies 100 percent on voluntary member contributions to the Letter Carrier Political Fund (LCPF). LCPF may accept contributions only from NALC members and family members. With letter carrier help, we have the opportunity to build the electoral and legislative power required to ensure that decisions affecting letter carriers' lives are made with our best interests in mind.

Through the LCPF, we are able to amplify our voices every two years and send a strong message to lawmakers seeking reelection and candidates who seek to join the halls of Congress—we support those who support us, regardless of political party. Those who seek to destroy our rights and dismantle our employer need not apply.

LCPF is NALC's non-partisan political action committee (PAC), which is authorized to accept voluntary political donations from NALC members. Using these collective funds, NALC can amplify our message on Capitol Hill, promote our priorities and identify those who will champion letter carrier issues in Congress.

In the 2018 midterm elections for the 116th Congress, a wave of pro-worker candidates from both parties, in addition to reliable incumbent allies—Democratic and Republican alike—were elected or re-elected to Congress. Because of LCPF, NALC was able to help most of these campaigns, and we can see the results that this help has brought us.

How LCPF works

LCPF builds NALC's clout on Capitol Hill in various ways. It provides direct support to candidates' campaigns, giving them resources they need to communicate with voters, and devotes resources to working get-out-the-vote efforts. This vital effort involves direct member engagement through coordinated work with our brothers and sisters in the labor movement. LCPF also offers communications, education and regular outreach throughout the election cycle to our members so they are well-informed about everything they need to know about their states, such as voter registration, early-voting/absentee/vote by mail, candidates, issues and policies.

As we draw near a presidential election this November, LCPF will devote the necessary resources to ensure that the next leader in the White House is one who supports letter carriers and can hear our voices loud and clear.

Elections are important, have consequences and are very expensive. The Center for Responsive Politics estimates that nearly $6.8 billion was spent in 2016 on federal elected offices (including $2.7 billion on the presidential election alone).

It takes a lot of money for a candidate to campaign for office and the table of any given candidate's financial backers can be very broad and have a wide range of issues on which they want support. They can range from labor unions to environmental groups, from defense contractors to health care companies, or from agricultural interests to billionaires with pet projects. Many of these people and organizations have very deep pockets and are difficult to compete with. LCPF is a small yet effective piece of the puzzle and ensures that letter carriers are at the table, as opposed to being on the menu. To be there, we need to rely, as all unions do, on our power in numbers, and we need all of our members there with us to make a difference.

How to support LCPF

The easiest way to support LCPF is to sign up for automatic withdrawal of a small amount from your paycheck each pay period through PostalEASE.

"Most of our supporters use automatic payroll deductions, and it works well for them and for the Political Fund," Rolando said. "It spaces the total donation across the year—you won't even notice it—and it gives LCPF a steady source of income and the ability to plan how to best use the funds."

Both career carriers and city carrier assistants (CCAs) may sign up for LCPF donations through payroll deduction. CCAs must sign up again following a five-day break in service, and former CCAs who have converted to career status must sign up again following their conversion.

Active or retired letter carriers also can easily arrange for automatic deductions from a bank account or annuity.

NALC members have the option of making one-time contributions, or supplementing their automatic donations, by writing a check to the Letter Carrier Political Fund.

To sign up or get more information on how to donate, visit nalc.org/pac.

"As a union, our strength is in our numbers," Rolando said. "Thanks to LCPF donors, NALC has an essential tool for standing up for all of us in Washington, DC. I urge every letter carrier to add his or her name to the list of LCPF supporters to make our success in protecting our jobs, our employer and our rights even greater." PR

COMPLIANCE 101

Increasing PAC participation without breaking any rules

NALC members help the effort to elect pro-letter carrier candidates by encouraging fellow carriers to make contributions to the Letter Carrier Political Fund. By recruiting active and retired NALC members to become PAC contributors, we ensure that those who are elected to represent us in Washington will be champions for letter carriers and the issues that matter most to us.

Whether you are a seasoned PAC recruiter or planning your first fundraising event, the tips below address some of the most important rules that govern LCPF. If you have any questions or concerns, NALC's Department of Legislative and Political Affairs can help make sure that you comply with the appropriate regulations—and that we continue to build up this crucial tool.

Who can give?

- NALC members
- Staffers employed by NALC
- Immediate family members of the above

Letter carriers and the Hatch Act

NALC encourages all members to be engaged in a wide range of political activities to advance the letter carrier agenda.

But...it is important to keep in mind that all active letter carriers, career and non-career alike, are federal employees, and so your political activities are governed by the Hatch Act—including online activities that involve social media (for example, Facebook and Twitter) as well as e-mail.

In general: Be off the clock, out of uniform (and out of government vehicles) and away from the workplace whenever you engage in any partisan political activity. And, make sure that the activity is in a permissible category.

If you have questions or concerns that are not covered here, do not hesitate to contact the Office of Special Counsel by e-mail at hatchact@osc.gov or by phone at 800-85-HATCH before engaging in any related activities.

How do I solicit contributions?

Legally, there are required disclosures. Before engaging with an NALC member—whether at a meeting with other members or in a one-on-one conversation with a non-contributor at an appropriate time and place—all solicitations should begin with the following disclosure printed below. It may be provided in print or read aloud.

By making a contribution to the Letter Carrier Political Fund, you are doing so voluntarily with the understanding that your contribution is not a condition of membership in the National Association of Letter Carriers or of employment by the Postal Service, nor is it part of union dues. You have a right to refuse to contribute without any reprisal. The Letter Carrier Political Fund will use the money it receives to contribute to candidates for federal office and undertake other political spending as permitted by law. Your selection shall remain in full force and effect until canceled. Contributions to the Letter Carrier Political Fund are not deductible for federal income tax purposes. Federal law prohibits the Letter Carrier Political Fund from soliciting contributions from individuals who are not NALC members, executive and administrative staff or their families. Any contribution received from such an individual will be refunded to that contributor. Federal law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 per calendar year. Any guideline amount is merely a suggestion, and an individual is free to contribute more or less than the guideline suggests, and the union will not favor or disadvantage anyone by reason of the amount of their contribution or their decision not to contribute.

The best way to educate another member about the importance of LCPF is through a one-on-one conversation. The following are permissible ways of soliciting—with the solicitation language included, of course.

- ✓ Flyers
- ✓ Mailers
- ✓ Emails
- ✓ Newsletters
- ✓ By phone
- ✓ In person
- ✗ 50/50 raffles may violate the law in your state and NALC advises against them.

How do I actually contribute?

- PostalEASE
- Electronic Funds Transfer
- Office of Personnel Management (OPM) annuity
- Check*
- Cash*

*Specific processes apply. Please contact the NALC Department of Legislative and Political Affairs for more information on the above methods and on where and when it is appropriate to solicit non-contributors.

EACH DONATION MATTERS

Listed below are the 2019 donors to the Letter Carrier Political Fund. The list is sorted first by state, then branch, then alphabetically. Each state and branch is shown with the percentage of NALC members who donated and the average donation amount.

Some donors choose to give by authorizing a deduction of a few dollars from each paycheck to go directly to the Political Fund each pay period. Others give with automatic deductions from a retirement annuity or from a bank account. Most of the funds the Political Fund receives each year come from automatic donations. It's the easiest way to give and it provides a steady source of support.

Donations may also come in the form of one-time gifts by cash or check.

In this list, the total amount given by a donor last year, including automatic deductions and any additional one-time donations, is listed with each donor's name.

If you aren't already a supporter of the Letter Carrier Political Fund, please go to nalc.org/pac to learn how to set up automatic contributions or use one of the forms starting on page 20.

"My thanks goes out to all the generous donors to the Letter Carrier Political Fund in 2019," NALC President Fredric Rolando said. "I urge every NALC member to follow in their footsteps and give in 2020."
