Letter Carrier
Political Fund

MAIL TAKES ALL OF US

Every letter carrier knows that, for better or worse, Congress has its hands in the postal business. Congress initiates policies that affect our collective-bargaining rights, health care and retirement benefits, as well as the operation of the Postal Service, just as we saw with the passage of the Postal Service Reform Act. That's why the members elected to Congress matter and profoundly affect our jobs as letter carriers and our futures as retirees.

NALC works hard to ensure that our voices are heard in Washington, DC. The primary way we do so is through our political action committee (PAC), the Letter Carrier Political Fund (LCPF). LCPF stands up for letter carriers in Washington, helps deliver our message, and supports letter carrier-friendly candidates across party lines.

"Thanks to contributions to LCPF, NALC is fortunate to have a respected voice in Washington," NALC President Brian L. Renfroe said. "However, there is room, and a real need, to grow our PAC. Increasing participation in LCPF is the key to advancing our legislative agenda."

While 93 percent of letter carriers voluntarily join NALC, only 10 percent of NALC members give to LCPF, and contributions dipped last cycle, likely due to the COVID-19 pandemic. NALC has achieved many significant gains with the participation of these nearly 30,000 members, but much more could be accomplished with additional members giving to LCPF.

"I know, and have seen time and time again, that NALC is not a 10 percent union," President Renfroe said. "NALC members give 100 percent to their jobs, communities and union efforts. This is evident each year during the Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive, at branch and regional meetings nationwide, and when thousands of our members gather at our national conventions and beyond. To make our voice louder and more influential on Capitol Hill, it is essential that we put this same effort into our legislative program. That starts with contributing to LCPF."

Successes and the challenges ahead

NALC saw great success with the diverse candidates we supported through LCPF in the 2022

midterm elections. Of the 313 candidates supported by LCPF, an astounding 95 percent were re-elected, and 84 percent of the challengers we supported were victorious in their races.

As always, LCPF supported candidates based on their records and commitments to supporting our legislative priorities and other postal and labor issues we espouse. The candidates were 69 percent Democratic and 31 percent Republican.

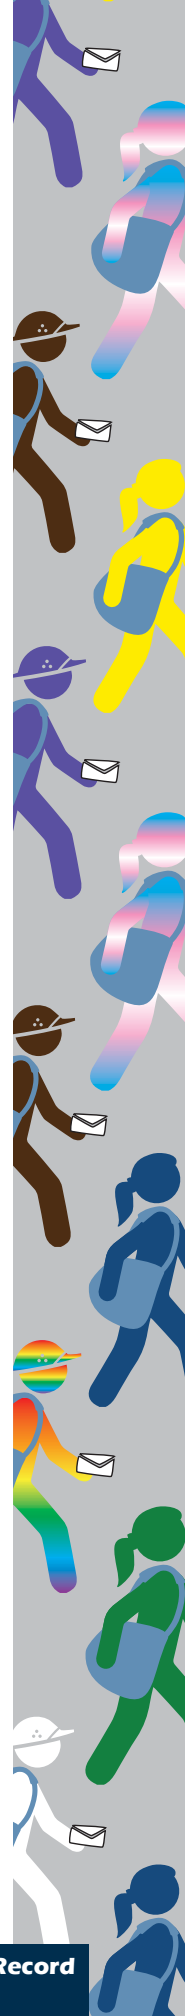

More specifically, in House races, 68 percent of the candidates we supported were Democrats and 32 percent were Republicans. In Senate campaigns, 87 percent were Democrats, while 13 percent were Republicans.

"Over the years, LCPF has become increasingly bipartisan," President Renfroe said. "This has been and will continue to be our strength. While it may at times be difficult to look beyond personal differences with your representatives, I encourage all NALC members to keep our goals top of mind. We achieve these goals by partnering with lawmakers who will stand with letter carriers."

Undoubtedly, the most recent and historic win for letter carriers was the enactment of the Postal Service Reform Act last year. This law benefits letter carriers, all postal employees, and every American who relies on the Postal Service. It strengthened USPS in many ways. Most importantly, it ended the pre-funding requirement for retiree health care that had saddled the Postal Service with billions of dollars in payments owed to the U.S. Treasury each year, and enshrined six-day delivery permanently into law. Free from this unfair and unaffordable mandate, USPS is building for the future and is now on the path to financial solvency.

But our work in Washington is far from over. The tasks ahead will not be easy. Our legislative priorities will face significant challenges, and to continue to see results, it will be necessary to strengthen our PAC.

While the 12-year fight for postal reform was far from easy, the bipartisan reform bill Congress passed last year was highly popular across the country and across party lines because the Postal

IT TAKES ALL OF US

Service benefits every state and congressional district in the United States. This goodwill toward the Post Office boosted our lobbying efforts. The next phase of our agenda won't have the same universal appeal—we will need to toughen up before we enter the ring.

At the top of NALC's legislative agenda is the Social Security Fairness Act (SSFA), which would repeal the Government Pension Offset and the Windfall Elimination Provision. These two parts of Social Security law unfairly reduce or sometimes eliminate Social Security benefits for millions of federal annuitants, including letter carriers enrolled in the Civil Service Retirement System, which was later replaced by the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS).

Another priority is the Federal Retirement Fairness Act (FRFA). This legislation would allow certain federal and postal employees to make catch-up retirement contributions for time spent as non-career employees, including time many letter carriers spent employed as casuals, transitional employees or city carrier assistants (CCAs). The years employed as a non-career employee are not creditable under FERS.

"These bills are about much more than dollars and cents," Renfroe said. "They are central to bringing justice for letter carriers and other postal and federal workers regarding their pay and benefits."

Compared to postal reform, these bills will be a harder sell in Congress. They are more likely to face opposition from anti-union activists and budget hawks. And even if NALC builds support for these bills among rank-and-file members of Congress, passing them will require enough momentum to push back against reluctant congressional leaders who control the legislative calendar. At the same time, we must protect the gains we have made from assaults by extremist legislators, who would like to dismantle them by privatizing the Postal Service, cutting our benefits or ending our collective-bargaining rights.

NALC will have to take a different approach to advance these key pieces of legislation. We will undoubtedly need more hands-on activism at all levels to garner support in Congress. This can happen only with increased support for LCPF.

"NALC is committed to working with every member of Congress to enact SSFA and FRFA," President Renfroe said. "We must ensure that they know how these bills affect letter carriers and their future."

LCPF is a force multiplier

It is important for letter carriers to understand the main goals and functions of our PAC. Political fundraising is heavily regulated by federal law. Union dues cannot be used for political action committee contributions, so LCPF relies solely on voluntary contributions from our members. Thanks to the political fund, we have a voice in the decisions Congress makes that affect our jobs, and our lives.

LCPF is a vital tool for amplifying our message on Capitol Hill, promoting our priorities and identifying those who will serve as champions for letter carrier issues in Congress. LCPF supports candidates in both parties, as well as independents, who support us and our issues. It builds NALC's clout on Capitol Hill in several ways.

First, LCPF directly supports candidates' campaigns by providing the resources they need to communicate with voters. It takes a good deal of money for a candidate to run a successful campaign for office—modern campaign techniques for reaching voters can cost a campaign millions of dollars. In fact, more than $8 billion was spent during the 2022 midterm elections, and that figure is bound to go up each election cycle.

Most candidates rely on their allies for help. LCPF ensures that our friends running for office get the support they need. If they didn't get our support, the forces in Congress that want to take away everything we've earned—our health care, our pensions, our collective-bargaining rights—would likely prevail because their allies, primarily corporations and wealthy individuals, have deep pockets. As last year's midterm election demonstrated, every race and every vote counts. With razor-thin margins and widening divisions in Congress, we must work for every inch of ground.

Second, LCPF devotes resources to get-out-the-vote efforts. This vital effort involves direct member-engagement through coordinated work with our brothers and sisters in the labor movement. As part of these efforts, letter carriers reach out to labor voters to urge them to vote for pro-worker candidates and to help them with needs such as registering to vote, finding their precincts or voting by mail.

Third, the political fund supports communications, education and regular outreach throughout the election cycle to our members, so they are well informed about voter registration, early voting, absentee voting and voting by mail, candidates, issues, and policies in their states. Led by five legislative and political organizers at the regional level and hundreds of letter carrier congressional liaisons who monitor individual members of Congress and educate them—with the backing of all NALC members who participate in our grassroots efforts—the outreach program gets results because LCPF sets the stage.

“LCPF relies on letter carrier donors to function, but our power lies in our numbers—we need LCPF to thrive, not just function,” Renfroe said. “As our legislative program steadily grows, the union needs all of our members backing LCPF to make a real difference.”

But Renfroe stressed that participation by as many members as possible, at any level, is the key to our success: “The amount you give doesn’t matter—it’s unity that counts. Participating in LCPF at any level will make a lasting impact for you and all letter carriers,” he said.

Every donor, at any level, is recognized each year in the special February issue of The Postal Record. In this issue, the list of last year’s LCPF supporters begins on page 25. If your name isn’t on the list, please consider joining the effort using one of the forms beginning on page 21.

How to give to LCPF

The easiest way to support LCPF is to sign up for payroll deduction through PostalEASE, which most LCPF supporters do. Payroll deduction makes supporting the LCPF easy and affordable. This also allows the LCPF to plan strategically, based on steady, consistent support.

Career carriers and CCAs may sign up for LCPF donations through payroll deduction. However, CCAs must sign up again following a five-day break in service, and former CCAs who have converted to career status must sign up again following their conversion.

Active or retired letter carriers also can easily arrange for automatic deductions from a bank account or, for retired carriers, from their annuities.

NALC members have the option of making a one-time contribution, or supplementing their automatic donations, by writing a check to the Letter Carrier Political Fund.

To sign up or get more information on how to donate, visit nalc.org/pac.

“We have enormous untapped potential in our members,” Renfroe said. “The sky is the limit and we need to reach higher. I urge every single member of NALC to support LCPF this year so our union can support you even better.” PR

By making a contribution to the Letter Carrier Political Fund, you are doing so voluntarily with the understanding that your contribution is not a condition of membership in the National Association of Letter Carriers or of employment by the Postal Service, nor is it part of union dues. You have a right to refuse to contribute without any reprisal. The Letter Carrier Political Fund will use the money it receives to contribute to candidates for federal office and undertake other political spending as permitted by law. Your selection shall remain in full force and effect until canceled. Contributions to the Letter Carrier Political Fund are not deductible for federal income tax purposes. Federal law prohibits the Letter Carrier Political Fund from soliciting contributions from individuals who are not NALC members, executive and administrative staff or their families. Any contribution received from such an individual will be refunded to that contributor. Federal law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 per calendar year. Any guideline amount is merely a suggestion, and an individual is free to contribute more or less than the guideline suggests and the union will not favor or disadvantage anyone by reason of the amount of his or her contribution or decision not to contribute.

NALC is fortunate that 93 percent of letter carriers choose to join our union. We have a history of successful organizing because our 290,000 active and retired members know our union delivers results that improve our jobs.

Many external factors affect our jobs as letter carriers, the main one being what occurs in the halls of Congress. Our elected federal officials have a say in the Postal Service's operations as well as our health care and retirement benefits.

Through our political action committee (PAC), the Letter Carrier Political Fund (LCPF), NALC has a voice in Washington; however, that voice could be much louder.

Currently, only 10 percent of NALC members give to the LCPF. With these contributions, NALC has worked to get pro-letter carrier candidates from both parties elected, participated in get-out-the-vote efforts nationwide and, most importantly, used our influence to help get postal reform enacted last year.

We have accomplished a lot with only 10 percent of members contributing. Imagine all we could achieve if every NALC member contributed even a small amount to the LCPF.

If the 93 percent of letter carriers who choose to be members of our union also decided to contribute to our PAC, NALC would undoubtedly have one of the most influential political voices on Capitol Hill. With an increase in contributors, our influence would grow and pave the way for the passage of our priority legislation.

Letter carriers know how to deliver. If we all contribute to the LCPF, we can deliver a loud and clear message to Congress: Letter carriers' voices matter and must be heard when legislation affecting our work and families is considered.

If you are already a contributor to the LCPF, I would like to thank you for your commitment to propelling NALC's legislative agenda forward.

If you haven't signed up to contribute yet, I encourage you to do so as soon as possible. No matter the size of your contribution, it will make a difference for you and our brothers and sisters.

In solidarity,

Brian L. Renfroe
President
