

Rev. Paul Fleck

An ordained Elder, Rev. Paul Fleck serves as the Executive Director of New York Justice for Our Neighbors, an immigration legal services ministry of the UMC. Prior to that he served two different Churches successively between 2010-2018. During his secular career he worked as an attorney in Texas, and which included land use and real estate litigation matters. His experience with “Church law” or the Discipline of the UMC, includes both preparation of numerous briefs before the Judicial Council and service on the General Conference’s Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision at both the 2016 and 2019 General Conferences.