REPORTS

SECTION H

EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

To all my brothers and sisters who are engaged with me in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world: I bid you greetings, grace, and welcome to the 2011 session of the Oklahoma Annual Conference. For 168 years, we have gathered in this fashion, celebrating our work of ministry and missions. We come from all 77 counties in Oklahoma and represent 528 congregations, involving over 235,000 disciples who call themselves United Methodists!

What an awesome thought to know that we are the living witnesses of a spiritual movement that began with John Wesley in England, was organized in America in 1784, and officially established in 1844 in Indian Territory. Long before Oklahoma statehood, the Native Americans, mostly Creek and Cherokee who were relocated to this territory from the south and eastern United States, included Christians of the Methodist faith. Because they began sharing their faith and building churches when they arrived, we United Methodists continue that ministry here today. The Indian Mission Conference, our predecessor, held its first annual conference at Riley's Chapel, near Tahlequah, in 1844. We give to God the glory, honor, and praise for bringing that spiritual movement this far. I think these words from a 1749 hymn by Charles Wesley sum up my feelings about the distance we have covered:

“And are we yet alive, and see each other's face? Glory and thanks to Jesus give for his almighty grace! What troubles have we seen, what mighty conflicts past, fightings without and fears within since we assembled last! Yet out of all the Lord hath brought us by his love; and still he doth his help afford and hides our life above.”

Let us pray:

O gracious and most loving God, by whose wisdom we were created, by whose mercy we were redeemed, and by whose providence we are governed; we come before you at the opening session of this annual conference to thank you for our predecessors, heroes of our faith, who suffered much and made great sacrifices in achieving our right to be here today. In their absence, stir up within us the gift of a vigorous faith that we may become true as they were true; that we may be loyal as they were loyal; and that we may serve you in such a way that the generations to come will also follow in the faith. These things we ask in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. AMEN.

One of the great passages of Scripture is the 11th chapter of Hebrews. The verses talk about the faith of God's chosen people and how that faith sustained them during difficult times. Perhaps the most familiar line is: “Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.” Verses that follow tell us what was accomplished through faith by Abel, Enoch, Noah, and Abraham. But it is that eighth verse of the 11th chapter that speaks to me in this moment. Eugene Peterson translates it as: “By an act of faith, Abraham said yes to God's call to travel to an unknown place that would become his home. When he left he had no idea where he was going.”

We left our comfortable places on Tuesday night, May 27, 2008, at First United Methodist Church in Tulsa. We acted in faith as we adopted what we called The Strategic Plan. Two years earlier, our leaders—both clergy and lay—had begun meeting regularly to discuss hopes, dreams, and visions for our Oklahoma Conference. All agreed that we could not stay in our familiar places of ministry, for we would continue to diminish and decline in membership and effectiveness if we did. So the leadership brought to that 2008 Annual Conference a plan to build new churches and revitalize existing ones; to, hopefully, move us forward.

In our Journal, the minutes of that evening record: “We had roundtable conversation, and the Strategic Plan was adopted.” What those minutes could not capture were the indisputable, affirmative vote by delegates who declared yes to the Plan, and the uneasiness and anxiety that came with that act. The inquiries following the gathering were numerous. Will the Strategic Plan address all the questions about our future? No, it won't.

Will the Strategic Plan lessen or remove the fears that so often rise to the surface when we talk about change? No, it doesn't.

Put simply, the Plan enables us to leave behind the mediocrity and ineffectiveness of the past. That night, like Abraham, we said yes to God, and by faith we began moving away from our comfort zones, not knowing exactly where the Plan would take us.

That was three years ago! Today I can report that 350 of our churches have either adopted the Strategic Plan or embraced ministries and programming that give them opportunity to thrive. Let me share a few examples of churches, from very small to very large in membership, that have shown exemplary progress, of congregations transformed by their renewed commitment to serve Christ in special ways:

- A few months ago, the Dacoma congregation in the Enid District was preparing to close its doors. Worshipping 15 to 30 people each Sunday, the church found itself in a very difficult predicament. Dacoma was crumbling upon itself, its people gathering in a facility that was literally uninhabitable.... BUT...today that congregation has been revitalized! A new building is taking shape; the people of that church have reclaimed it for Christian witness and have underwritten the construction cost. Each Tuesday, the Dacoma congregation feeds about 80 people from the community, and once the new building is completed, numbers and faith surely will grow.
- In tiny Nardin, a small community near the border with Kansas, the United Methodist Church is welcoming more than a 120 worshippers each week, an astounding statistic when you consider the official census records 40 people living in the unincorporated township.
- At our church in Lexington, fewer than 40 people worship each week, but the Oklahoma Food Bank recently designated that church's food pantry as a model for establishing other food pantries throughout the state.
- This week, in addition to Lexington, the Oklahoma chapter of the United Methodist Rural Fellowship will present awards for outstanding ministries to Checotah, Wesley in Muskogee, Southern Hills in Tulsa, Mount Zion in El Reno, and Cleora.
- St. Paul's members in Tulsa have just finished a major renovation, in order to better accommodate their ministry of feeding the poor and homeless in their community.
- Lost Creek in the Stillwater District has the reputation of being one of the most active mission congregations in our conference, but in addition to that distinction they have reached out to the Ripley and Agra churches and transformed them and brought them back to life.
- At Church of the Servant in Oklahoma City, more than 1,000 volunteers worked in shifts on a Sunday morning in April. Together they packed 144,000 meals for schools and orphanages in other countries. They also have a goal to distribute 1,000 infant car seats to Oklahomans who can't afford them.
- And in Tulsa, Asbury United Methodist Church recently completed a massive campaign to purchase 22,000 Bibles for use by Christians in the Congo, at a total cost of $272,000.

My list could grow long, because a great number of churches are doing phenomenal work throughout this annual conference. Whatever their size, they are united in building bridges to the future, creating opportunities for ministry to take place wherever there is need. Deep in my heart, I believe all our churches, regardless of location or number of members, can do the same.

As Oklahoma's Strategic Plan has been developing, the wider Church also has been planning action. In 2009, the denomination's Council of Bishops and The Connectional Table commissioned a team to gather data and make recommendations on reordering of the life of our Church for greater effectiveness. That two-year assignment resulted in The Call to Action Report, released in the fall. It concluded that four key areas drive a congregation's vitality. Listen to what they are.

1. The development of small groups and programs. Small groups include study, fellowship, and service. Programs include classes and other activities. In our high-vitality churches, you will find a great number of small groups. And, regardless of size, those churches with programs for children and youth most often prosper.
2. Effective lay leadership. In strong churches, vital personal faith is demonstrated and leadership is shared. Individuals rotate in and out of offices.
3. Worship is the third key driver of vitality. Somehow we must get to the place where words such as traditional, contemporary and blended don't threaten us. In his book "The Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations," Bishop Schnase writes, "Vibrant, fruitful, growing churches offer Passionate Worship that connects people to God and to one another."
4. Fourth, clergy leadership that is focused on developing, coaching, and mentoring lay leadership is crucial. The pastor must influence the actions and behaviors of others through the conduct of his/her life, serving as a role model and servant leader. The pastor also must move the congregation forward to set and achieve goals and inspire the people through preaching. Also considered within this area is length of appointment. Tenure is important to long-term success.

Oklahomans, our Strategic Plan was approved three years before the Call to Action Report was completed! That report almost mirrors what we said we must do to move forward in Oklahoma. My dear brothers and sisters, we KNOW what we need to do! This is our time to achieve the goals we've set, to take up our stakes and move out into places where we have not been, to make disciples of Jesus Christ by committing ourselves to ministry that is relevant and vital.

The winds of change are swirling all around us. God is transforming the Church of the 21st century! And I believe God will do so with us or without us! But I also believe God is offering us the opportunity to be involved in that transformation. We can be co-workers with God in shaping the future of our denomination and our Conference. I call on every delegate in this room: Go back to your respective congregations determined to address these questions:

1. Do we have a plan for ministry in our local church? If so, what is that plan? If not, what are we prepared to do to develop one?
2. Are we building bridges to the future in our personal lives, our church, and our community?
3. Do we reach out to others? Do we welcome strangers? Do we invite them to return?
4. What do we want our legacy to be?

I pray that you are beginning to understand the urgency for each church for building important and necessary links to the future. My fervent hope is that you glean ideas from the exemplary work of other congregations; that you employ the best practices of other vital congregations in the work of your local church; that you call upon the Ministry Teams and staff of our Conference to go to your church and assist in developing ways to build bridges to the future. Resources and expertise to help you are already in place; you only need to ask.

I rely so much on the expertise and resources of exceptional United Methodists who help me in this massive task of leading our Conference into the future. I extend my deep appreciation to the Cabinet members for their unwavering support, and to those in the Extended Cabinet: Craig Stinson, Brian Bakeman, Bill Junk, and Joe Harris. These are the people I rely on to help me in this massive task of leading us into the future. I am deeply indebted to the Conference staff and to all the Ministry Teams and their leaders, who do such outstanding jobs. And most of all, I want to express my sincere love and appreciation to my wife, Dee, who stands beside me on both good days and in challenging times.

Like Abraham, we do not know the destination of our journey. The only certainty about our movement forward is the uncertainty of it. It will not be easy. We will experience bright days with rainbow-laden possibilities. There will be other times we encounter difficulties and setbacks. Yet, as we model Abraham's faithfulness, we will recommit our "yes" to God's call, leaving those places of ease and comfort that we have occupied too long and moving out into God's great unknown. And I know God will meet us there.

Let me tell you a personal story, from my journey this year, that confirms this. During the Bishop's Retreats, something happened that changed the way I view my work as a United Methodist bishop.

In one session, as we discussed the work of John Wesley, Pastor Sharon Capron was interpreting through sign language. I noticed that each time the word "Methodist" was spoken, she rubbed her hands together vigorously. I was intrigued. Later, she explained to me that the motion, or sign, is used for "Methodist" because it means "enthusiasm or excitement"—for which early Methodists were well known! But soon after I learned that, I discovered the same motion also is used to sign the words "anxiety or fear." The same sign can be used for the words "anxiety or fear."

The context determines how you interpret the word. It was a God moment for me!

I realize we United Methodists have choices in how we will move the church forward. We can go out from this place excited and enthusiastic, involved and engaged in letting the world know there is a Savior who loves and cares for all people. Or, we can go out from here anxious and fearful about what the future will bring.

I choose to go out energized by God's plan and presence, sometimes not knowing where God is leading, but reassured that as I move out in faith, the joys of traveling with God will sustain me.

I can't fully describe for all of you how much I have enjoyed these 6 ½ years of the journey. My joy and enthusiasm for this job and my desire to represent you with dignity and integrity have not diminished. I invite you to travel with me, to faithfully go where we have not been, to continue to say "yes" to God's great possibilities. And, best of all, "God is with us!"

4. AUTHORIZED CHANGES

Internal budgets related to the Annual Conference Council, ministry teams and departments (line item amounts printed elsewhere in the Journal) within the totals listed above are binding unless changed by authorization of the body by whom those budgets were approved. Entities empowered to authorize such changes are as follows: Annual Conference Council, Mission and Service Ministry Team, Discipleship Ministry Team, Leadership Development Ministry Team, Department of Congregational Development, and Department of Communications.

5. THE 2012 CONFERENCE DECIMAL PLAN

The Council recommends that all 2012 Apportionments shall be distributed annually to the local churches on the basis of each church's decimal, calculated as follows:

A. Each local church's decimal shall be based on the church's expenditures as reported to the Annual Conference and recorded in the Statistical Tables of the Journal, or as corrected and certified by the District Superintendent and reported to the Council on Finance and Administration.

B. Each local church's total for Current Program Expense, Other Operating Expense, and all Staff Compensation (including diaconal ministers and clergy) for the years 2008, 2009, and 2010 shall be divided by the Annual Conference total of those same items for the same three years. (The columns 64, 65b, 66c, 67c, 68c, 69, 70, 71 and 72 for 2008 and columns 53, 54a, 55a, 56a, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61a, and 62a for 2009 and 2010.)

C. For those congregations that anchor a new church start approved by the Cabinet and have a clergy appointed to undertake the task, will have amounts listed in columns 54b, 55b, 56b, 61b, and 62b deducted from their expenses in 2009 and 2010 above.

D. Churches who make donations to new church starts and/or church revitalization may show those donations on line 48 so that they are not included in their Apportionment calculations.

E. The resulting decimal for each church shall be multiplied by the amount of each Apportionment approved by the Annual Conference as the budget for the year.

F. The amount so determined shall be distributed to each local church as its share of the Apportionments to be presented to each charge, but not made subject to acceptance. It is requested that each Apportionment as apportioned shall be included in full in each local church budget, reflecting a commitment to the worldwide mission of The United Methodist Church. Local churches who so desire may include ministerial support items, designated on the Apportionment sheet by an asterisk (*), in the clergy support section of their budget. Interpretative information about the Apportionments will be available to laity and clergy.

6. SALARIES, ALLOWANCES, AND EXPENSES

The following amounts shall be the total remuneration for each of the named offices. In each case, utility costs and other housing costs shall be included in the calculation of the gross compensation and set apart by resolution of the Council on Finance and Administration.

Moving expenses for district superintendents and other conference executives shall be paid from the Ministers' Moving Fund according to the guidelines in effect at the time of the move. No additional expenses in connection with a move or change of appointment shall be paid from Annual Conference Funds.

A. It is recommended that the 2012 gross compensation for each district superintendent shall be 150% of the 2012 Conference Average Compensation as determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, rounded to the nearest $100, plus $3,000 in an accountable expense reimbursement account. Business travel will be reimbursed at the standard IRS business mileage rate. All compensation and expense reimbursements shall be paid from the District Superintendents' Fund.

B. 8. PROCEDURE FOR RESPONDING TO REQUESTS FOR COMPLIANCE WITH DISCIPLINE ¶613.20

The Oklahoma Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration advises conference boards, agencies, committees, commissions and councils of all restrictions in The Book of Discipline on the use of funds and sends compliance requests.

The Council hereby designates its Executive Committee to deal with requests for clarification of compliance with Discipline ¶613.20 which prohibits any board, agency, committee, commission or council from giving United Methodist funds to any gay caucus or group, or otherwise using such funds to promote the acceptance of homosexuality.

The Executive Committee is convened if and when a request is received asking for clarification of an action of any entity receiving Annual Conference funds that is thought to be out of compliance with ¶613.20. CF&A then informs the entity that a request for an opinion was received and requests from the entity all materials relevant to the inquiry. The members of the Executive Committee will review the materials provided and may ask for information or input from the entity in complicated cases.

Following its deliberations, the Executive Committee makes its determination and the opinion is shared with all interested parties. Any appeals may be made to the full Council on Finance and Administration, whose decision shall be final.

Possible outcomes:

- A) Determination that funds were not or will not be used in violation of ¶613.20.
- B) Determination that funds were or may be used in violation of ¶613.20. In such event, the Council retains the right to request return or withholding of Annual Conference funds.

9. ANNUAL AUDIT

Finley and Cook, P.L.L.C., certified public accountants, have audited the books of the Conference Treasurer for the year 2010.

10. CENTRAL TREASURY

The Council on Finance and Administration would urge this Annual Conference to reiterate and emphasize its support of the directive given by previous Annual Conferences to consolidate conference financial operations under a central treasury where practical under prudent business practices.

11. INFORMATION IN JOURNAL

Information concerning clergy salaries, housing allowances, and accountable expense reimbursement amounts can be found in the statistical tables in the Conference Journal.

12. REGULAR REMITTANCES

The Council strongly recommends each local church make a determined effort to remit Apportionments in equal monthly installments to provide for the support of our outreach ministries each month of the year. One-hundred percent participation in Apportionments is defined as remittance in full of each apportioned item.

13. SPECIAL ASSESSMENT (NOT AN APPORTIONMENT) FOR CONFERENCE MINISTRY CENTER

The October 1999 Special Session of the Annual Conference adopted a Special Assessment through 2012 for each local church for the construction of the new Ministry Center. The remaining payoff for 2012 will be calculated based on the remaining balance.

14. FUNDING FOR THE SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY AT OKLAHOMA CITY UNIVERSITY

In 2007, the Oklahoma Annual Conference approved a special 5-year assessment to provide "seed money" for the seminary. The $1,100,000 will be assessed to each local congregation using the Conference decimal plan. This amount will be communicated each year to the local congregations.

Annual Funding Amount:

16. STANDARD MILEAGE RATE

The mileage rate for volunteers attending meetings and participating in Annual Conference ministries and administration shall be the IRS charitable mileage rate. [That amount is presently fourteen (14) cents per mile.]

17. BUDGET AND ACCOUNTING MODIFICATIONS

We authorize the treasurer to adapt a modified cash basis of accounting (rather than accrual basis). We also authorized a unified budget for the Conference Ministry Center.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

The 2008 Book of Discipline defines the purpose of the Commission on Equitable Compensation in ¶625.2 as “to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the Annual Conference by:

- (A) recommending conference standards for pastoral support;
- (B) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and
- (C) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to District Superintendents and Committees on Staff-Pastor-Parish Relations.”

The demands the Church and churches require of the clergy as just, proper, and necessary are exceedingly great and becoming more exacting all the time.

Educational requirements include the course of study, or seminary beyond college, and a probationary period with continuing education.

Personal qualifications call for the highest integrity.

Equitable ministerial compensation requires the highest priority be given to the claims on the pastor and family by the congregations as salary and other support items are set.

I. ADMINISTRATION OF COMPENSATION

A. SUPPLEMENTAL FUNDS

The order of deacon should receive the minimum compensation according to Schedule of Minimum Compensation. Payment of all compensation is the responsibility of the salary-paying unit. The order of deacon has no claim on the Equitable Compensation Fund.

Salary supplementation by the Commission is through the Equitable Compensation Fund and the Ministers’ Moving Expense Fund.

The Oklahoma Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation seeks to accomplish the following as its purpose:

To set adequate and reasonable salary and compensation standards for clergy and other people providing pastoral leadership to local churches;

To encourage specific churches that would benefit from full-time clergy in their growth and development;

To support full-time clergy for ethnic ministry churches in Oklahoma (¶625.6 in the 2008 Book of Discipline); and

To assist churches to progress toward complete support of their pastoral leadership and to encourage alternative plans for churches or charges unable to achieve this.

In order to fulfill these purposes, the Commission will administer the Equitable Compensation Fund under four sets of standards: Minimum Compensation, Exceptional Assistance, Missional Support, and New Church Start Assistance. Pastoral support funds will be paid to the church along with a specified amount to be used by the church to pay the portion of the pension related to the salary support. The Commission on Equitable Compensation encourages cooperative and cooperating parishes in order to facilitate ministry and provide pastoral support. All applications for Equitable Compensation Support shall be received by the Conference office by December 15th. Failure to do so will make the church ineligible to receive any Equitable Compensation funds effective January 1st. The total amount requested by the Cabinet on December 15th shall not exceed the amount budgeted for the coming year. Failure to turn in the Annual Audit for the previous year by August 1st will result in termination of Equitable Compensation funds January 1st of the subsequent year.

1. Minimum Compensation

a. Requirements Necessary to Qualify for Minimum Compensation Support

1. No two churches within 20 miles of each other will be allowed to share in the minimum compensation plan unless they combine to form a circuit.
2. A pastor who is gainfully employed in any occupation other than the ministry shall not share in the minimum compensation provisions. To qualify, a pastor must serve full-time and live on the charge. (Exceptions to the requirement that pastors live on the charge may be approved by the Commission on Equitable Compensation if recommended by the Cabinet.)
3. The charge shall increase its portion of pastoral salary and pension support a minimum of (5%) five percent each calendar year. If a charge does not increase by a minimum of five percent, the Cabinet must support the claim to the Commission on Equitable Compensation.

4. In no case can a charge qualify for minimum compensation support if the churches of the charge decrease the pastoral support below that of 2011.
5. The schedule listed below will be paid, provided all allocated funds are sufficient; if not, all claims shall be paid on a pro rata basis.
6. The charge should pay at least one-half of the minimum compensation for the classification of their pastor (b.1 and 2), provided that no charge shall pay less than $12,000 for the year 2012. New churches may be exempted from this rule and raise the $12,000 minimum from outside sources for a limit of five (5) years from the foundation of the charge or the inception of the revitalization.
7. Each church in the charge must pay pension on all base compensation paid by that local church.
8. No charge shall receive both minimum compensation support and any other salary supplement at the same time.
9. In order that a charge may qualify for minimum compensation, it is necessary that the district superintendent report the eligibility of the charge and pastor on the form approved by the Commission on Equitable Compensation to the chair of the Commission, who will then authorize the Conference Treasurer to make payments.
10. In no case shall the amount paid to a charge for a full-time pastor or seminary student who is a member of the Annual Conference be less than the minimum which, with housing provided by the charge, will qualify for participation in the Comprehensive Protection Plan. Any supplemental amount needed may be paid from the Equitable Compensation Fund as a special benefit.

b. Schedule of Minimum Compensation—Effective January 1, 2012

There are two classifications of ministers listed: Conference Members and Local Pastors. No others are eligible for minimum salary support.

1. Full-time Associate, Provisional, and Full-Connection Members living on the charge shall receive $33,587, plus $2,400 for each additional church.
2. Full-time Local Pastors living on the charge shall receive $30,365, plus $2,400 for each additional church.

c. Requirements Necessary to Qualify for the Minimum Compensation “Incentive Plan”

1. The objective of this plan, as with all minimum compensation support, is to strengthen the work of the local church. The goal of this plan is to allow and encourage local churches to increase pastoral support, allowing the pastor in the appointment to receive the benefit of increased income from the local church without losing support from the Equitable Compensation Fund.
2. Pastoral support increases by the local church during the tenure of one pastor shall be added to the total allowable income for the pastor during the duration of the appointment relationship of that pastor with that church. In the event the church’s portion of the pastor’s salary reaches or exceeds the minimum compensation, the Conference portion must be negotiated with the Commission on an annual basis. In no case shall the combined support exceed the Conference Average Compensation.
3. Whenever a change in pastoral appointment occurs, or at the end of the Incentive Plan Agreement, the charge is to maintain the then-existing level of pastoral support. At such time, calculation of equitable support payment shall be adjusted so total compensation is correct for the pastor’s classification.
4. In order for a plan to be in effect in any charge, the Incentive Plan Application Form of the Commission on Equitable Compensation shall be submitted by the district superintendent after Bishop and Cabinet approval to the chair of the Commission, who will then authorize the Conference Treasurer to make payments.

d. Requirements Necessary to Qualify for Exceptional Assistance

1. The Bishop and the Cabinet must agree that Exceptional Assistance is warranted and needed.
2. The Bishop and the Cabinet must agree on the duration and the initial amount of Exceptional Assistance.
3. Assistance cannot continue for more than four years.
4. The initial amount may continue for up to two years and then decrease over the remaining years.

5. In order for a charge to qualify for Exceptional Assistance, it is necessary that the district superintendent submit the request for assistance on the form approved by the Commission on Equitable Compensation after Bishop and Cabinet approval to the chair of the Commission, who will then authorize the Conference Treasurer to make payments.

e. Requirements Necessary to Qualify for Missional Support

1. Only situations identified by the Bishop and the Cabinet shall qualify for support from this source of funding.
2. Pastoral support funding may be provided for persons appointed or assigned to missional settings without regard to the requirements for Minimum Compensation Support.
3. Such funding shall continue so long as the Bishop and the Cabinet agree that Missional Support is needed.
4. In order for a charge to qualify for Missional Support, it is necessary that the district superintendent submit the request for support on the form approved by the Commission on Equitable Compensation after Bishop and Cabinet approval to the chair of the Commission, who will then authorize the Conference Treasurer to make payments.
5. The total amount allocated as Missional Support shall not exceed 60% of the total amount budgeted for salary support.

f. Requirements Necessary to Qualify for New Church Start Assistance

1. Bishop and the Cabinet must agree that New Church Start assistance is warranted and needed.
2. The Bishop and the Cabinet must agree on the duration and the initial amount of New Church Start assistance.
3. Assistance cannot continue for more than four years.
4. The initial amount may continue for up to two years and then decrease over the remaining years.
5. In order for a charge to qualify for New Church Start assistance, it is necessary that the district superintendent submit the request for assistance on the form approved by the Commission on Equitable Compensation after Bishop and Cabinet approval to the chair of the Commission, who will then authorize the Conference Treasurer to make payments.

B. MINISTERS' MOVING EXPENSE FUND

The primary spiritual leadership role within The United Methodist Church comes from the appointment of itinerating clergy leadership. To function at its best, the bishop needs the ability to appoint the best person to lead and serve a local church. Understanding that clergy are sent where needed, the Ministers' Moving Expense Fund is designed to help reimburse part of the moving expense for the itinerating clergy to move from one appointment within the Conference to another.

With that understanding, the Ministers' Moving Expense Fund will reimburse elders, associate members, local pastors, and "to be supplied" pastors who are serving local congregations or Oklahoma Conference institutions according to the following schedule:

SCHEDULE – Effective January 1, 2012

1. Payments from the Ministers’ Moving Expense Fund shall be as follows:
 - a. Only pastors under appointment and living on the charge, or serving the Annual Conference in a connectional relationship, or in an Oklahoma Conference institution will be eligible to receive payment.
 - b. For pastors moving from one appointment to another, payments shall be made at the rate of $1,900 plus $1 per mile. In the case of a clergy couple, if the appointment for each is changed and involves moving books and equipment into separate church studies, there shall be an additional payment of $200 per couple.
 - c. For the first move of a pastor to begin active service under appointment in the Oklahoma Conference, payment shall be made at the rate of $1,900 plus $1 per mile. For persons coming from out of state, the mileage will be calculated from the Conference border to the appointment.
 - d. For the following, the payment shall be $1,900:
 - 1) A pastor who is retiring or granted disability leave, if a change of residence is required;
 - 2) A pastor who is appointed to sabbatical leave, if a change of residence is required;
 - 3) A pastor returning to active appointment status from sabbatical leave, leave of absence, or suspension, if a change of residence is required. If a minister retires from sabbatical leave, no additional payment will be made.
 - e. No payment shall be made to a pastor who:
 - 1) Is appointed to attend a school, college, or seminary;
 - 2) Is moving to another annual conference;
 - 3) Is going on leave of absence or under suspension.
 - f. Pastors who move appointments but do not move residences shall receive a stipend of $200.
 - g. When a retired pastor is appointed as a supply pastor and a change of residence is required, that pastor shall receive ½ of the basic allowance plus mileage, and will receive the remaining ½ of the current basic allowance plus mileage at the end of the appointment. An exception to this rule occurs when a retired pastor accepts a subsequent appointment immediately following and is required to change residences again. In such a case, that pastor will receive the full basic allowance plus mileage. After this appointment or when the pastor goes back into retirement, the pastor will receive the other ½ of the current basic allowance rate plus mileage.
 - h. In the case of the death of a pastor while in active service, the spouse (or individual responsible for removing personal property, if there is no surviving spouse) shall be given a grant of $2,500 immediately if the home has been provided by the church or agency and a change of residence is required.
 - i. Payments shall be made directly to pastors at the close of the annual conference, or as soon thereafter as possible. Certification of appointment changes shall be made by the Cabinet to the Conference Treasurer as early as practicable. The Treasurer shall determine the mileage of each move using an Internet map service, such as MapQuest.com. When changes occur between sessions of the annual conference, the Cabinet shall certify the changes to the Conference Treasurer, who shall determine the amount of payment and issue checks as quickly as possible to the pastors involved.
2. The Commission recommends that the local church receiving a new pastor make additional reimbursement toward the cost of moving expenses that are not covered by the Annual Conference moving allowance.
3. Each minister shall make his/her own moving arrangements.
4. When the decision of a local church or agency makes it necessary for a pastor to change residences without changing appointments, the move shall be the responsibility of the local church or agency.
5. Status of Ministers’ Moving Expense Fund:

Fund Balance January 1, 2010.....	$131,255
Receipts from churches.....	$153,758
Disbursements.....	$180,087
Fund Balance December 31, 2010.....	$104,926

II. PARSONAGE STANDARDS

Note: See the 2008 Book of Discipline, Paragraphs 2532.4, 2543.3b, 2543.4d, and others as applicable.

A. Clergy Housing Standards Policy of The Oklahoma Annual Conference

1. Discipline Requirements and Assigned Responsibilities for Clergy Housing

- a. The Church Council shall: “review the recommendation of the committee on pastor-parish relations regarding provision of adequate housing for the pastor(s), and report the same to the charge conference for approval. Housing provisions shall comply with the annual conference housing policy and parsonage standards. Housing shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration.” (Discipline 2008 ¶252.4e)
- b. The Committee on Staff-Parish Relations shall: ...“consult on matters pertaining... to housing (which may be a church-owned parsonage or housing allowance in lieu of parsonage if in compliance with the policy of the annual conference), and other practical matters affecting the work and families of the pastor and staff. The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor’s family. The chairperson of the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees, and the Pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance.” (Discipline 2008 ¶258.16)
- c. The Board of Trustees will be directed by the Charge Conference with respect to the purchase, sale, mortgage, encumbrance, construction, repairing, remodeling, and maintenance of any and all property of the local church. (Discipline 2008 ¶ 2534-2543) (Note: See The Book of Discipline 2008 Paragraphs 2532.4, 2543.3b, 2543.4d.)

2. Joint Responsibilities of Churches and Clergy for Parsonage Maintenance

- a. A home expresses character and the condition of the parsonage reflects on the relationship between the clergy family and the church. Happy is the pastor who can be proud of his/her church for the kind of parsonage provided for his/her use. Happy is the church whose parsonage family cares for the house provided for them as good stewards.
- b. The chairperson of the Staff-Parish Relations Committee, along with the chairperson of the Trustees and the pastor, shall make an annual review of church-owned clergy housing within two months prior to Charge Conference, giving special attention to maintenance and updating needs, as well as creating a timeline of when those needs will be fulfilled. The annual review of the church-owned clergy housing will be included in an annual report to the Charge Conference and the district superintendent.
- c. Thirty days prior to the time a pastoral change occurs involving a church-owned parsonage, the local church Board of Trustees shall make a thorough review of the parsonage, and provide detailed notes regarding the condition of the physical property, grounds, furnishings, needed repairs and updates, and the plans to implement needed repairs and updates. These notes shall be provided to the incoming pastor for review prior to occupancy. This Trustees’ report, including exceptions thereto, will provide basis for determining what constitutes ordinary wear and tear at the time of a succeeding pastoral change.
- d. If excessive damages to church-owned and clergy-occupied housing are evident, beyond that incurred with normal wear and tear, the outgoing clergy family shall be responsible for costs of damages. A list of the damages and cost of the repair will be presented to the district superintendent, who will work with the local church and the outgoing clergy family to recover costs for repair.

In the event of a conflict concerning any issues, said issues should be presented to the district superintendent and the Church Location and Building Committee, by any of the parties involved, i.e.: trustees, SPRC, Parsonage Committee, outgoing and incoming clergy, for resolution.

This policy applies also to district parsonages, with responsibility for implementation belonging to the District Committee on Superintendency and District Trustees and the Bishop. This policy also applies to conference executive housing, with responsibility for implementation belonging to the Executive Committee on Housing and the Bishop.

- e. Two percent of the cost of replacement of parsonage and furnishings shall be included each year in the local church's annual budget. This policy also applies to district parsonages and conference executive housing. Churches should retain any unused funds to apply toward unforeseen emergencies.

3. Guidelines for Parsonage Maintenance

- a. Interior and exterior inspections of the parsonage shall be done annually for maintenance needs. These needs are the responsibility of the local church. Annual responsibilities include:
 - 1) Cleaning windows and storm windows inside and out
 - 2) Cleaning the guttering
 - 3) Checking the heating and cooling system—air ducts shall be cleaned prior to the arrival of a new parsonage family.
 - 4) Cleaning the chimney
 - 5) Termite and pest control inspections—if corrective measures are needed, taken without delay and with professional treatments. The local church assumes the cost for these services. (Suggestion: Scheduling the annual responsibilities for April or May would also meet many requirements for churches receiving new parsonage families following Annual Conference.)
- b. Local Boards of Trustees, Staff-Parish Relations Committees or the designated Parsonage Committee shall initiate the replacement of church-owned furniture, appliances, window treatments, carpets, etc. when they observe it is needed, rather than waiting for the family to ask. However, the clergy family should ask if it is not done. When the items are to be replaced, the parsonage family should make selections in consultation with the committees assuming responsibility for clergy housing.
- c. Major renovation, repair and replacement shall be done by the church as they are needed, taking into consideration the church's financial situation. The pastor, not the church, shall be responsible for correcting extreme or unusual damage, beyond normal wear and tear, to the parsonage and its furnishings. Changes of interior decorating shall be done with the mutual consent of the church and clergy family. If an appointment change has been made, the incoming family should be consulted regarding their decorating choices.
- d. An inventory of the church-owned furnishings and appliances, with notes taken of the dates of purchase, the original costs, where items were purchased, all warranties for purchased items, and condition of each item shall be compiled and updated annually by the Staff-Parish Relations Committee and the Board of Trustees or designated Parsonage Committee in consultation with the clergy family.
- e. A current inventory reflecting replacement needs shall be included in the budget annually and replacements accomplished promptly.

Before building, see:

2. The book, "Parsonage Planning Congregational Development", National Program Division/General Board of Global Ministries, copyright 1985 by the Office of Architecture, National Program Division, General Board of Global Ministries, The United Methodist Church. It has valuable insights and helps in preparation for building a new parsonage.

3. Newly Purchased Parsonages

In the event of a newly purchased parsonage, all minimum required standards for clergy housing must be met, and it is recommended that churches move toward newly constructed standards.

4. Other Recommendations

The following recommendations are merely guidelines for helping congregations discern ways to develop a positive environment for clergy families. Please remember the following are not requirements for existing parsonages, but rather will enhance parsonage life. Congregations undoubtedly will have additional recommendations to make. Congregations are encouraged to go beyond the following suggestions and become true advocates for their parsonage families.

- a. Provide a freezer.
- b. Provide a microwave oven.
- c. Provide a safe room.
- d. Provide large bedroom closets, allowing for 60" per person, as well as additional closet space, for clothing and storage. The more storage space allowed, the easier it will be for parsonage families to live without clutter and time spent in finding space

- for everything. Double or walk-in closets are especially helpful.
- e. Provide a utility room for the washer and dryer rather than having it in the garage or the kitchen. A separate space is much more efficient. Also, provide extra-large capacity washers and dryers. This is especially helpful for families with small children.
 - f. Provide a family room separate from the living room so that entertaining can take place, especially for church functions, without interfering with the needs and daily activities of other family members.
 - g. Provide two full baths. This helps the daily schedules of families considerably.
 - h. Provide a two-car garage if at all possible. This helps maintain the quality of cars which saves money in the long run.
 - i. Make as much of the parsonage as possible accessible to those with disabilities. Include a ramp with a slope not exceeding 1 to 12 degrees, an exterior door which permits 28" clear width when open, and a telephone within 48" of the floor.
 - j. Avoid faddish styles and extreme approaches to decorating the parsonages. These can become outdated more quickly than the time it takes to wear them out. It is difficult to convince a congregation to change these outdated styles when the product is still usable. It is suggested that congregations stay with neutral colors and allow residents to personalize with their own touches. Congregations would do well to encourage parsonage families to paint and wallpaper in the home, understanding that if the resident who follows chooses not to keep the changes, the outgoing family will help restore the parsonage to a neutral color or coordinate with the congregation so that the new residents can choose their preferences. This will take cooperation and time in an already packed time schedule, but will be helpful to all concerned. Personal touches should be chosen so as to lessen the cost and time needed to restore to a neutral color for the new resident. Stay away from dark colors such as black or bold flowers, etc.
 - k. Provide a fourth bedroom of equal size to be used as each family needs, such as guest room, playroom, study, etc.

C. Conference Housing Committee

The Conference Clergy Housing Committee shall be a committee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation. This committee shall review policies, standards and guidelines regarding clergy housing at least once every quadrennium, receive annual reports and check lists from the District Board of Church Location and Building regarding the implementation of the standards and recommendations for needed changes, and make a report to the annual conference each year regarding improvements and needs. This Committee will also assist clergy families in transition to owning their own personal furnishings. This committee is to be made up of at least two members from each District Board of Church Location and Building (one clergy and one laity), the president of the Clergy Spouse Fellowship, the chairperson of the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the chairperson of the Covenant Family Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry (or equivalent), and a Cabinet representative.

D. Clergy Housing Responsibilities of the District Board of Church Location and Building

In addition to the responsibilities described in The Book of Discipline 2008 (§2518) the following responsibilities, pertaining to clergy housing, are recommended:

- The District Board of Church Location and Building shall, to assure fairness, be the hearing body for disputes regarding accountability and implementation of Conference Parsonage Standards.
- The District Board of Church Location and Building shall annually provide a list of improvements made and outstanding needs of parsonages in their district to the Conference Clergy Housing Committee.
- The District Board of Church Location and Building shall, along with the district superintendent, be advocates for maintaining the high quality of parsonage standards in the district as defined in the Conference Housing Policy.
- Where possible and appropriate, the Board shall seek materials and volunteer labor to assure compliance with the parsonage standards and policies of the Oklahoma Annual Conference.

E. Office Space for Clergy

Most churches provide a furnished office or study in the church. If an office is not provided, the church/charge is responsible for parsonage office furnishings.

III. GUIDELINES FOR VACATIONS, DAYS OFF, AND CONTINUING EDUCATION

We believe that it is essential for the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee and the pastor to negotiate together an agreement as to the pastor's vacation, days off, and Continuing Education. Such an agreement should be made during the pastor's first month at a new charge and be reviewed annually thereafter. We offer the following guidelines as a basis for such negotiations:

A. Vacations

The church recognizes that regular days off and vacations are important for the effectiveness of pastors, and for their physical, mental, and spiritual health. Therefore, full-time pastors shall receive 4 weeks of paid vacation, which includes four Sundays. These days may be taken consecutively or on separate occasions. The dates should be coordinated with and approved by the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee. Pastors who are working on their Course of Study and attending seminary for one month during the summer must realize the burden this may put on their church. We recommend they receive two weeks of vacation (one Sunday), in addition to the time away for Course of Study. The pulpit funds should be provided by the church, but the minister is responsible for arrangements.

B. Days Off

We strongly recommend each pastor receive two days off per week and encourage a two-day schedule (equivalent of Saturday-Sunday weekends). We recognize, however, the demands of the ministry often make it difficult for a pastor to take off two days consecutively. It is, therefore, very important for the pastor and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee to come to an understanding as to days off and compensatory time off.

C. Continuing Formation and Spiritual Growth

The United Methodist Church requires all pastors to receive three Continuing Education Units (3 CEUs = 30 classroom hours) per year. The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee must understand this is a requirement and allow the pastor to be absent in order to satisfy it (normally this will not involve a Sunday). However, frequent or extended absences of the pastor must be approved by the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee. The pastor and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should be familiar with ¶351 of the 2008 Book of Discipline, which outlines: 1) the importance of continuing formation and spiritual growth; 2) allowance for leaves of at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium; 3) that a clergy member may request a formational and spiritual growth leave of up to six months, while continuing to hold a pastoral appointment—if the clergy member has held full-time appointments for at least five years; 4) financial arrangements for such leave; 5) pastors shall be asked by the district superintendent in the charge conference to report on their programs of continuing education, formation, and spiritual growth for the past year and their plans for the coming year. The superintendent shall also ask the local church to describe its provision for time and financial support for the pastor's program of continuing formation and spiritual growth; 6) clergy in appointments beyond the local church shall give evidence in the annual reports of their continuing formation and spiritual growth program and future plans.

D. Responsibilities within the United Methodist Connection

Pastor-Parish Relations Committees should be aware that pastors are not only appointed to serve local churches, but also have responsibilities within the connection: in camps, in the district, in the annual conference, in the life of the orders, and occasionally in the general church. Refer to ¶s 339, 340, 341, and 342 of the 2008 Book of Discipline for further duties of a pastor.

- Promote distinctive United Methodist emphases and traditions through a ministry of memory that recognizes and celebrates historically significant people, events, and sites in the Oklahoma Conference;
- Support the collection, preservation, and public presentation of Conference records and other historically significant materials, which are archived and maintained in OCU's Dulaney-Browne Library;
- Provide services to churches and historians to help them collect their official records and record, preserve, and celebrate their history.

During the 2010-11 year, the Commission has developed programs and implemented significant initiatives:

- Launched a website (http://www.okumc.org/Archives_History) to help promote the history and heritage of United Methodism in the Oklahoma Conference and the world, and to publicize archival services, historical programs, and other resources available to individuals and churches.
- Contacted churches in the Conference to confirm names and update addresses of church historians; Beginning in Spring 2011 the Commission will communicate regularly with church historians and pastors, and an additional communication initiative will include articles in the conference publication Contact.
- In partnership with the Oklahoma United Methodist Historical Society, initiated a pilot program for recording the oral history of churches, conducted a training workshop, interviewed members of selected churches, and produced a video to help promote oral history in churches.

- Commission members voted to endorse the renovation and upgrading of OCU's library facilities that house the archives of the Oklahoma Conference and then made a presentation to the Council on Finance & Administration, which approved financial support for OCU's enhancement of its archival facilities. Renovations were completed and the Archives Reading Room of the Dulaney-Browne Library reopened on April 11, 2011, during National Library Week.

On July 21-24, 2011, the quadrennial Historical Convocation of the General Commission on Archives and History and the United Methodist Historical Society will be held in Oklahoma. It will be jointly hosted by the Commissions on Archives and History of both the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference and the Oklahoma Conference.

This commission has invested many hours and resources in planning, preparation, and promotion of this significant event, and commission members encourage participation in the convocation events. Registration runs through June 1, and for more information contact archivist Christina Wolf, at 405-208-5919.

MINISTRY PROTECTION COMMITTEE

There have been many changes within the Oklahoma Conference Insurance and Risk Management Plan since the last Annual Conference.

In October of last year, the Property and Casualty Trust (PACT) switched reinsurance companies on the different lines of coverage within the program. Zurich North American Insurance Co. was the reinsurance company on all lines of coverage that PACT provided. Now the following companies have replaced Zurich.

Property/General Liability/Crime	QBE Insurance Co.
Automobile	Progressive
Workers Compensation	Liberty Mutual
Directors & Officers/Employment Practices	Chubb
Boiler	Hartford Steam Boiler
Umbrella	Great American

This change brought some complications with the billings being delayed as well as changes to the property deductible.

Due to the severity and frequency of claims for the Oklahoma Conference over the last four years (we had a 200% loss ratio), Zurich was going to apply a large rate increase on the property insurance premium for 2011. PACT found QBE to take on the risk and keep the property rate the same as 2010– but QBE also was going to require a 2% deductible on all wind and hail property claims. This could pose quite a burden on all of the churches within the Conference insurance plan. After much hard work and number-crunching by the Ministry Protection Committee, QBE agreed to a flat deductible for all property claims. Formerly the deductible was $1,000, but now it will be $1,500, $2,500, or $5,000, based upon the total value of the church’s property (all buildings and contents). Local churches have received letters stating the amount of their new deductibles.

The final significant change for PACT, of which the Oklahoma Conference is a current owner, is that the corporation (PACT) will change from a group captive to a single parent captive and will be owned by GCFA. The new corporation will switch domiciles from Washington, D.C., to Vermont and will be able to start issuing its own policies effective October 1, 2011. The Oklahoma Conference will be a preferred stockholder in the new corporation.

These improvements will help keep the Oklahoma Conference in a position to be able to provide the best available coverages at the competitive rate for all churches within the conference.

AGENCY EMERGENCY/CAPITAL FUND COMMITTEE

The Agency Emergency/Capital funds are used to provide assistance to agencies of the Annual Conference that have property emergencies or opportunities. Most of the requests are for emergency repairs but we also help the agencies with new building opportunities and expansions. The presence of this fund means that the agencies of the Conference are not required to accumulate and maintain excessive reserves in order to deal with emergencies and opportunities and can, instead, devote more of their resources to programming than they would otherwise be able to do.

The Agency Emergency/Capital Fund committee understands itself to be a source of last appeal for funds for the agencies of the annual conference. When an agency has secured all possible funds to meet an emergency or opportunity but is lacking in sufficient money to complete its project, it may appropriately appeal to the AECF for consideration. Only Annual Conference Agencies are eligible to apply which includes the Campus Ministries, and all Campus Ministry requests must have the approval of the Standing Committee on Campus Ministry before they are considered by the committee.

BOARD OF PENSION & HEALTH BENEFITS INC.
 Report No. 2

FOR INFORMATION: Our Health Benefits program operates in a financially conservative manner while, at the same time, trying to meet the needs of our participants. We believe that our participants also are increasingly conservative in the demands that they make on the plan assets.

1. Active participants will see a 6% increase in health premiums for 2012.
2. Retirees will see a 6% increase in health premiums for 2012.
3. Office visits are $30 for in-network, while out-of-network has increased to $50.
4. Apportionments will increase 3% for 2012.
5. The special rate is now $34,999 or less to the regular rate of $35,000 or more.

We have established this plan to keep faith with our churches and participants who clearly understand that we intend to collect only what we need to pay expenses.

The Oklahoma Conference Health Benefit Plan is a self-funded medical and prescription plan for eligible active clergy, retired clergy, lay employees and surviving spouses. The Health Benefit Plan is not a form of entitlement and it should be noted that The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits Inc., with the approval of Annual Conference, reserves the right to amend or possibly eliminate both the active and retiree plan of benefits.

THE 2011 PLAN: The Oklahoma Conference Health Benefit Plan includes:

- A. A self-funded medical plan for active clergy and lay employees, eligible retirees and surviving spouses under 65 years of age, administered by BlueCross BlueShield.
- B. Kempton Group will continue our eligibility, Flexible Benefit Plan and HRA.
- C. A Medicare Supplement Plan, The Hartford, for eligible retired clergy, surviving spouses, those who qualify for disability and are on Medicare, and retired lay employees age 65 and older. All must be enrolled in Medicare Parts A & B.
- D. Drugs or medicines prescribed by a physician or practitioner may be filled at any pharmacy in the MaxCare Retail Pharmacy network.
- E. Group term life insurance with Aetna Life Insurance Co. for active and retired clergy who are participants in the Conference Health Benefit Plan.
- F. Funding for the Plan in the year 2012 is to come from participant premiums, operating funds, and an Apportionment to the churches based upon the prevailing Conference decimal.
- G. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is authorized to make substantive changes in the Health Benefit Plan between Annual Conference sessions when such changes are necessary to properly manage the Plan as printed on page 239 in the 2000 Oklahoma Conference Journal.
- H. All clergy members (Full, Provisional, and Associate) of the Oklahoma Annual Conference and Full-Time Local Pastors who are appointed full-time and who are participating in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP) shall participate in the Ministers' Health Benefits Plan, subject to the provisions of the plan, and all churches that have pastors under appointment shall pay the Apportionment for the Health Benefits fund as a Ministerial Support item. Those clergy members who qualify for health insurance through military retirement or other government agencies may request approval from the Board of Pension and Health Benefits to opt out of the Conference Health Benefit Plan. Decisions will be made on a case-by-case basis.

SELF-FUNDED MEDICAL PLAN FOR ACTIVE CLERGY AND LAY EMPLOYEES:

1. Eligibility and Enrollment: Enrollment in the Oklahoma Conference Health Benefit Plan is executed through the Conference Treasurer's Office. Clergy must enroll within 31 days of becoming eligible (Standing Rules, IV. Financial, 4.). All other eligible employees and their dependents have 31 days, after they become eligible, to enroll. If you or your dependents are not enrolled within 31 days of the date you become eligible, you will not be able to enroll until January 1 of the next plan year.
 - A. Those who are eligible for enrollment in the Group Health Plan are as follows:
 1. Clergy who are members of the Oklahoma Annual Conference (elders and deacons, associate and provisional), full-time local pastors under appointment and enrolled in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP), ordained clergy appointed under the provisions of Par. 346.1 or 346.2 of the 2008 Book of Discipline and their eligible dependents. Also, members appointed to attend school or those who receive their first appointment with pension benefit after having a special appointment without pension benefit and their eligible dependents.
 2. Diaconal ministers under appointment serving at least thirty hours a week in local churches, institutions, or agencies of this Annual Conference qualify for enrollment as lay employees.
 3. Clergy couples qualified for enrollment as ministers must decide which one will

- enroll as the primary participant carrying medical insurance for all dependents, including the spouse. If both are licensed local pastors or ordained and serving full-time under appointment in the Oklahoma Conference, both shall be enrolled in the Life Insurance portion with $50,000 death benefits; however, the spouse who is covered as the dependent will not be eligible to collect the dependent life insurance amount in addition to the clergy benefit amount. The premium rate for a clergy couple is based on the total compensation of the higher-paid minister.
4. Clergy appointed as “Less Than Full-Time” and all part-time local pastors who are enrolled in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP) and certified by their District Superintendent as living on the charge and working a minimum of thirty (30) hours per week on their pastoral duties may enroll, provided they are licensed, ordained, or serving under the provisions of Par. 346.1 or 346.2 of the 2008 Book of Discipline.
 5. Full-time lay employees of a local church, institution, or agency of this Annual Conference certified by their executive officer to the Conference Treasurer’s Office as working thirty (30) hours per week and as making at least the minimum wage per hour may enroll in the Medical Plan.
 6. Retired Clergy Members of this Annual Conference, age 62 or older, or with at least 30 years of service, and their eligible dependents, who have been enrolled in the Minister’s Health Benefit Plan for five (5) years immediately prior to retirement may continue as participants in the Plan. Clergy who have retired with 20 years of service, and their eligible dependents, who have been participants in the group for five (5) years immediately prior to retirement may continue in the Plan for up to 18 months at the lay rate.
 7. Retired Lay Employees of a local church, or an institution or approved agency of this Annual Conference that sponsors this Plan for lay employees. In order for a retired lay employee, and their eligible dependents, to be eligible to participate they must be at least age sixty (60) with five (5) or more years of continuous participation in the Conference Health Benefit Plan immediately prior to retirement.
 8. Surviving Spouses who were participants in the Oklahoma United Methodist Health Benefits Plan at the time of the death of their spouses are eligible for continuous coverage in the Plan. A surviving spouse may maintain coverage in this Plan, unless he/she obtains medical coverage from another provider.
 9. Divorced spouses are eligible for continuous coverage in the Group Plan at the Lay Employee rates until (a) they obtain medical coverage from another provider, (b) they remarry, or (c) two years have elapsed following the date of the divorce, whichever occurs first. If the divorced spouse is totally and permanently disabled at the time of the divorce, coverage will be continued indefinitely beyond the two-year period provided such spouse remains totally disabled, does not remarry, nor obtains group coverage elsewhere. If the disabled spouse is under 65 and not on Medicare, he/she will continue at the lay employee rate for those under 65. If the disabled spouse is 65 and over and on Medicare, he/she may continue on the plan at the retired lay rate for those over 65.
- B. You must enroll within the first thirty-one (31) days after becoming eligible. Claims related to pre-existing conditions are limited to $5,000 for the first year of participation unless you have credible coverage.
 - C. After the initial thirty-one (31) days, those eligible for enrollment may apply for coverage but will be required to wait until January 1 of the next plan year before coverage can begin. Special Enrollment Provisions may allow for enrollment exceptions.
 - D. If an eligible participant has coverage under another plan, then loses that coverage, they may then enroll, under the Special Enrollment Provisions only, in the Conference Group Plan. Otherwise, they must wait until January 1 of the next plan year to enroll.
 - E. When a participant terminates employment with the Conference or a qualifying agency, or otherwise becomes ineligible for coverage under this Plan, he/she may continue in the Plan for up to 18 months at the lay rate.

- F. When a minister is on Incapacity Leave, his/her insurance coverage will continue uninterrupted, at the special rate, provided such minister has been a participant in the plan prior to going on Incapacity Leave.
- G. When a minister takes a Leave of Absence or is placed on Leave of Absence, he/she may continue in the Plan for up to 18 months at the lay rate.
- H. When a clergy member is on Transitional Leave, he/she may continue in the Plan for up to 18 months at the clergy rate.
- I. When clergy are granted a sabbatical leave or are appointed to attend school, his/her insurance coverage may continue at the clergy rate provided premiums are paid.
- J. When a clergy member is in the Extension Ministry (sponsored by an external source other than a contributor to the Oklahoma Conference) he/she may continue in the Plan at the lay rate.
- K. Children/dependents are eligible to be enrolled at the same time the clergy or lay employee enrolls. Children may also be enrolled at birth or at the point of adoption; however, unless they are enrolled within thirty-one (31) days after birth/adoption they are not covered and cannot be added until January 1 of the next plan year. The following children may be covered as dependents: (1) an unmarried child under age 19 who is chiefly dependent upon the employee for support, (2) an unmarried child age nineteen (19) or older but under age 26 if such child is a high school student or a full-time student at an accredited university, college or trade school, and chiefly dependent upon the employee for support, or (3) an unmarried child age nineteen (19) or older who is incapable of self-sustaining employment and dependent upon the employee for support due to a mental or physical illness or handicap. A natural child who does not reside with the employee may be covered under this plan if the employee can demonstrate a legal obligation to provide medical coverage to such child/children. In the case of an adopted child, coverage will take effect on the date the adoption is final or the date the child is placed in the employee's home, whichever first occurs.
The term "dependent" does not include an employee, a member of any armed forces (except if an active duty member for thirty (30) days or less per year), or any person who has permanent residence outside the USA.
- L. It is the responsibility of the participant to notify the Treasurer's Office of any change in the eligibility and/or enrollment of any member of his/her family. This includes dependents who are no longer eligible for coverage and the enrollment of newborn babies within thirty-one (31) days following the date of birth.

2. Effective Date and Conditions of Coverage:

Your coverage will take effect on the later of:

- A. Your eligibility date; or
- B. The first day of the month following the return of your signed enrollment form to the Benefits Office.

3. Comprehensive Medical Benefits:

Covered medical expenses means the usual, customary, and reasonable (UCR) expenses incurred by or on behalf of a covered person for the hospital or other medical services that meet the following criteria:

- A. Ordered by a physician
- B. Medically necessary for the treatment of the illness or injury
- C. Not of a luxury or personal nature, and
- D. Not excluded under Exclusions and Limitations sections of the Plan

4. Preferred Provider Organizations (PPO):

This Plan provides network benefits for active participants through Blue Cross Blue Shield.

RATES & METHOD OF PAYMENT:

1. The rates for clergy and surviving spouses of clergy are supplemented by an Apportionment to the churches that covers approximately one-half the cost of their premiums.
2. The rates for lay employees represent the “full rate.” Since the Group Insurance Apportionment does not supplement lay employee rates, it is recommended that the salary-paying unit pay at least half the lay rate for all lay employees enrolled in our Group Plan.
3. The monthly rates for participants are to be paid to the Conference Treasurer’s office by the local church/agency treasurer by the first of each month in which the premiums are due. The grace period payment can be no longer than the end of the month for which the premium is due. Non-payment of premiums by this deadline will result in termination from the Health Benefits Plan.
4. At present there are two rate categories for active clergy. The Special Rate is for ministers whose gross compensation for appointment purposes is $34,999 or less. The Regular Rate is for all ministers whose gross compensation for appointment purposes is $35,000 or above. There are two exceptions:

BOARD OF PENSION & HEALTH BENEFITS INC.Report No. 3*FLEXIBLE BENEFIT PLAN (CAFETERIA PLAN)*REQUIRING ACTION:

The Health Benefits Committee recommends that the Oklahoma Annual Conference continue the Cafeteria Plan as set up under section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code and in accordance with all other applicable regulations and federal and state laws for the period January 1, 2012, through December 31, 2012.

The Flexible Benefit Plan will continue to offer flexible benefits elected in advance by each participant by reduction of compensation, including the following options of payment with pretax dollars:

- 1) Premiums for the Oklahoma Conference Health Benefit Plan;
- 2) Qualified medical expenses not covered in the Health Benefit Plan (such as deductibles, co-insurance payments, vision expenses, hearing expenses, and dental expenses) by monthly reimbursement, up to an annual limit of $5,000; and
- 3) Qualified dependent care expenses by monthly reimbursements, up to an annual limit of $5,000.

Eligible participants include the following:

- 1) Full and Provisional Elders and Deacons, transitional deacons, associate members, ministers serving under the provisions of ¶ 346.1 or 346.2, and local pastors of the Oklahoma Annual Conference who are appointed full-time; and

- 2) Clergy appointed “Less Than Full Time,” and all other local pastors of the Oklahoma Annual Conference working a minimum of twenty (20) hours per week and one thousand (1,000) hours per year, and earning at least minimum wage on their pastoral duties; and
- 3) Lay employees of a local church, institution, or agency of the Oklahoma Annual Conference certified by their supervisors as working twenty (20) hours per week and one thousand (1,000) hours per year, and earning at least minimum wage.

An election form must be returned to the Conference Treasurer’s Office within 31 days of eligibility, and a new election form must be completed and returned to the Conference Treasurer’s Office by November 23 every year. If a person fails to return a completed election form on or before the specified due date for any Plan year, he/she shall be deemed to have elected cash compensation in lieu of such optional benefit regardless of the election during the previous year.

A participant may revoke a benefit election for the balance of a Plan year and file a new election only if he/she has not terminated employment and both the revocation and the new election are on account and consistent with a qualified change in status.

The local church or agency treasurer will remit to the Oklahoma Annual Conference Treasurer’s Office all monthly flexible benefits elected by their participants by the first of each month. The grace period for late payment can be no longer than the end of the month for which the payment is due. Non-payment of elected flexible benefits will mean that the flexible benefits for the year will be invalidated.

Deposits of funds from salary reductions are to be made to the Conference Treasury and qualified medical and dependent care expenses are to be withdrawn therefrom. The plan will be funded through unused deposits only.

Participation in the Cafeteria Plan terminates when a person ceases to be an employee. A terminated participant may only submit and be reimbursed for medical services or expenses that are dated prior to the date of termination.

GRACE PERIOD—If you have not spent all the money in your Health Flexible Spending Account or Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account by the end of the Plan Year, you may continue to incur claims for expenses during the “Grace Period.” The “Grace Period” extends 2 1/2 months after the end of the Plan Year, during which time you can continue to incur claims and use up all amounts remaining in your Flexible Spending Account. You must submit claims no later than 30 days after the end of the Grace Period. However, if you terminate employment during the Plan Year, you must submit your claims within 90 days after your termination of employment.

HEALTH REIMBURSEMENT ARRANGEMENT (HRA)

For Information: In 2007 and 2008, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits Inc. arranged an HRA (Health Reimbursement Arrangement) with Kempton Group Inc., our self-insured Third Party Administrator. All insurance participants enrolled in the Active Healthcare Benefit Plan December 1, 2006, and December 1, 2007, were allowed to participate in the HRA plan. Each individual participant acquired funds that will remain in the participant’s account until the participant uses all funds or terminates employment with the Oklahoma Conference of The United Methodist Church. Only the employer can contribute to an HRA.

A unique feature of any HRA is the ability to rollover the unused amount at year-end. The rollover dollars may be used for covered medical services in subsequent years while enrolled in the plan. This rollover feature permits you to accumulate money for future health care needs.

If you participate in the Flexible Savings Account (FSA), when your FSA funds are depleted then your HRA funds will be dispersed. No HRA funds were dispersed in 2009-2011.

REQUIRING ACTION:

The Health Benefits Committee recommends that the Oklahoma Annual Conference discontinue funding the Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA) as set up under the HRA guidelines of the Internal Revenue Code and in accordance with all other applicable regulations and federal and state laws for the period January 1, 2012, through December 31, 2012. An HRA is an IRS-approved tax-favored benefit that reimburses employees for qualified medical care expenses not reimbursed by an employer's health plan. HRAs are funded solely through employer contributions.

The HRA offers benefits contributed by the Board of Pension and Health Benefits including the following options of reimbursement:

Qualified medical expenses not covered in the Health Benefit Plan (such as deductibles, co-payments, co-insurance, prescription drugs, vision expenses, hearing expenses, and dental expenses) will be reimbursed.

Eligible participants include the following:

- 1) Full and Provisional Elders and Deacons, transitional deacons, associate members, ministers serving under the provisions of ¶ 346.1 or 346.2, and local pastors of the Oklahoma Annual Conference who are appointed full-time;
- 2) Clergy appointed "Full Time" and all other local pastors of the Oklahoma Annual Conference working a minimum of thirty (30) hours per week; and
- 3) Lay employees of a local church, institution, or agency of the Oklahoma Annual Conference certified by their supervisors as working thirty (30) hours per week.
- 4) If you were an active enrollee in the Oklahoma Conference of The United Methodist Church Health Benefits Plan on December 1, 2006, and December 1, 2007, and you are an active enrollee in the Health Benefits Plan, you will be allowed to participate in the Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA) Plan. There was no additional funding for 2009 or 2010.

As long as you remain with the Oklahoma Conference, the rollover dollars will stay in your account for future healthcare needs. Additional contributions, if over the age of 65, will not be received by retirees.

Participation in the HRA Plan terminates when a person ceases to be an employee. A terminated participant may only submit and be reimbursed for medical services or expenses that are dated prior to the date of termination. Reimbursements for 2011 claims are only distributed 30 days into 2012. Those who terminate the Health Insurance Plan may receive HRA funds up to 30 days after termination as long as the receipts are dated prior to termination date.

Those on incapacity leave will continue to have the funds available as long as they participate in the Health Insurance Plan.

Those on leave of absence, transitional leave, sabbatical leave or extension ministry will continue to have the funds available as long as they are on the Health Insurance Plan. If anyone in any of the previously mentioned groups terminates, HRA funds will terminate as terminated employees stated above.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE COUNCIL

The Annual Conference Council (ACC) incorporated Web and call conferencing in addition to on-campus meetings as a fundamental part of our communications strategy.

In 2010, five ACC teams conducted program audits of 15 Oklahoma Conference-apportioned ministries, with requests to three ministries for programming and/or financial accountability improvements for continued funding by the Oklahoma Conference. The recommendation for discontinuation of Apportionment funding for one Conference-apportioned ministry was made by the ACC this past year.

The ACC Management Team functions as the personnel team for the ACC staff. Commendations for exceptional efforts and recommendations for programming and/or fund accounting changes were made as part of their reviews.

To further facilitate our 2009 commitment to reduce the length of the annual conference each May, the ACC joined with the Communications Department in requesting pre-recorded video reports for that conference by the various committees, agencies, and others, in lieu of in-person reporting at the podium.

Your Annual Conference Council, in support of our mission to actively endorse practices that ensure the good stewardship of Conference and church resources, has approved and has submitted for Annual Conference consideration the recommendation that all future annual conference gatherings be held in a single strategic location, that location being Oklahoma City, and the OCU campus being our primary meeting facility.

This report is submitted on behalf of the members of the Annual Conference Committee and the ACC Management Team by the tri-chairs of the ACC.

DISCIPLESHIP MINISTRY TEAM

The Discipleship Ministry Team (DMT) continues to assist churches, districts, and the Conference in living out the ministry of reaching new people who reflect the diversity of age and ethnic heritage. The Team offers opportunities to strengthen individual congregations as well as supports the ministry that one church cannot do alone.

At the same time, the DMT is challenged and challenges other ministries to move beyond maintenance of the status quo and toward a new future for ministry. To that end, the Team has continued to target mid-size churches by hosting workshops and training events that meet their specific needs. Alice Mann of the Alban Institute returned to the Conference and discussed “Multiplying Leadership.” This was a great follow-up to her previous visit regarding managing transitions.

For larger churches, Susan Beaumont, also of Alban Institute, led “Stepping Up to Supervision,” a retreat for senior pastors and Staff-Parish Relations chairpersons. Participants received information on staff job descriptions and evaluations. This event will be of great value to pastors and SPRCs for many years.

The focus for small-membership churches and discipleship came through a week-long tour. Over the course of six consecutive days, in six areas of the Conference, almost 300 participants spent time reflecting on the importance of small churches for ministry today. Each church has a unique gift or gifts that can be used for the gospel of Christ. Due to the great success of this event, another will be held later this year; it will focus on worship and music in smaller churches.

Finally, the ministry of outreach and evangelism continues to be promoted through training events throughout the state. Some have been held in conjunction with the Local Church Leader Workshops. This ongoing focus on evangelism will continue in the upcoming year.

The DMT continues to support camping, Oklahoma City University, and Higher Education & Campus Ministries. The Board of Higher Education & Campus Ministry is currently exploring how our Conference might be more effective in reaching college students at campuses where United Methodist student centers do not exist.

I want to thank James Graham, Cydni Tillery, Craig Stinson, and Diana Northcutt for their leadership with the DMT; and, especially, I thank Ann Browning and Aly Shahan for their assistance along this journey.

COUNCIL ON OLDER ADULT MINISTRY

In 2010 our major conference-wide training event was “Fully Alive, Fully Mature.” Our speaker was Dr. Richard Gentzler, director of the Center on Aging and Older Adult Ministries of the General Board of Discipleship. A total of 98 persons from across the conference attended the two-day event.

After that successful event, two regional trainings are being held in 2011. The second event will be in Checotah on Thursday, October 6, at First UMC. “A New Frontier: Boomers or Bust” addresses the fact that the oldest Baby Boomers are turning 65 during 2011. Missy Buchanan, author and UM Reporter columnist on “Aging Well,” will be the speaker. The Council continues to offer training sessions at Local Church Leaders Workshops when the local planning teams agree.

The Council provides three Senior Adult Retreats each year at conference camps and retreat centers. Remaining dates for 2011 are Sept. 20-22 at Canyon Camp and Oct. 25-27 at Cross Point. Spring retreats at Egan are usually in April. The retreats provide a venue for spiritual growth, fellowship with other seniors, and a chance for sharing ideas between church members about how they minister to this growing demographic in our local churches.

New initiatives include work on training materials for local church nursing facility ministry, in partnership with Dennis Pendleton (chaplain at Epworth Villa), and potential future events on “How to Not Have to Go to a Nursing Home” and “Training for Caregivers of Dementia Patients.”

CAMP AND RETREAT MINISTRY

<http://www.okumc.org/camps>

With the purpose statement, “To provide spiritual experiences to deepen the Christian commitment of persons of all ages, draw them closer to Jesus, and inspire them to live in deeper faith in their daily lives,” as its guide, Oklahoma United Methodist Camps supports our Conference with evangelism and leadership training for children, youths, and adults. We appreciate the continued support by the churches in our Conference for our facilities and programs.

In 2010, we had the largest Conference and District camping programs in our history, with 5,765 campers. Improvements to our sites remain a priority as funds are available. We have had two laypersons step up to help raise funds for some specific projects.

The Program Committee of our Board of Trustees is planning new events at our campsites in the next few years. Many of these will fill open dates in the non-summer seasons. Along with our traditional summer camps, Single-Parent Family Camps are a success, and we are planning a Senior Adult University in October 2011.

Volunteers remain central to the success of our summer camps! We appreciate their dedication to provide quality leadership and resources. We urge your help in identifying new volunteers who love to work with our campers and are willing to donate their time. In order to provide a safe environment for both our campers and leaders, we pledge to follow the Safe Sanctuary policies, which include security screening of all volunteers.

2011 AMOUNT $255,500

2012 REQUEST $260,500

We welcome a new director this summer at Camp Egan. We pray you will use all three United Methodist camps—Camp Egan, Canyon Camp, and Cross Point Camp—as places to grow your congregations. These are great places to hold your church retreats, youth retreats, and planning retreats. We can help with planning and leadership for your events.

We continue to welcome receipt of our donors’ pledges, and we encourage others to become donors to this meaningful ministry. We need your help to meet a matching grant for Canyon cabins and to raise funds for Health Clinics at all three sites. We also request your help identifying groups within the Church as well as not-for-profit organizations that might use our facilities.

Our dedicated camp staff is ready, willing, and able to meet the needs of campers and to provide hospitality and leadership for your church, district, and Conference events.

CAMPUS MINISTRY REPORTS

http://www.okumc.org/campus_ministry

CONFERENCE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Our college campuses are, without a doubt, a most fertile field for our United Methodist investment. By the time college students become juniors, only 25.4 percent say they worship frequently, while 37.5 percent report that they never worship. Reputable estimates report that college students are one of the most secular, unchurched populations in our society.

In response to this challenge, the Oklahoma Conference of The United Methodist Church has an aggressive network of campus ministries that is a model for the nation. There are 15 campus ministry centers plus four local church sponsored ministries that receive connection and support from Oklahoma churches through the Conference Campus Ministry Apportionment.

United Methodist campus ministry in Oklahoma can be proud that:

- 5,381 students have connected with Oklahoma UM campus ministries;
- 1,691 students each week, on average, attend events at campus ministries;
- 757 students each week, on average, worship at campus ministry services (including celebrating the Eucharist for most);
- 798 students each week, on average, participate in spiritual formation groups;
- 19,177 hours of service are provided by volunteers who work with campus ministry;
- 188 students are leaders working in our campus ministries; and
- 99 students are identified as having received a call into full-time Christian service (not all will be ordained, but many will).

One of the outcomes of campus ministry is missional commitment. While the campus is itself a mission site, students, boards, and faculty reach out in mission to others. Last year mission teams were in Honduras; Rio Bravo and also Colon-Queretaro, Mexico; Kansas City; Fayetteville, Ark.; Brothers & Sisters of Charity, in Arkansas; and San Antonio.

In addition, they were involved in the following mission programs:

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| • Mentoring at an elementary school | • Adopt-a-Highway program |
| • Campus clean-up program | • Campus Thanksgiving dinner |
| • Big Event day of service | • Serving at soup kitchen |
| • MLK Day of Service | • Christmas meal to international students |
| • Service at NSO | • Prison ministry/Kairos |
| • Make a Difference Day | • Habitat for Humanity |
| • Service at food bank | • Service at Skyline |
| • Miracle Clean Up Day | • Storm clean-up |
| • Stocking for Salvation Army | • Furniture Fest |
| • Stepping Stones | |

During the next five years, some of our goals are:

- Expand the network of Conference- or local church-supported ministries to Oklahoma colleges and universities to make disciples of Jesus Christ.
- Identify operational and financial guidelines for effective leadership and support of local boards.
- Increase the impact of our campus ministries through additional creative organizational structures and funding processes for Oklahoma campus ministries.
- Recognize and explain the value of the Campus Ministry Apportionment dollar in increasing the number of students and graduates who become active, growing Christian disciples and leaders in the life and ministry of The United Methodist Church, its congregations, and beyond.

The 24 members of this Conference board are proud of the excellence in quantity and quality ministry being accomplished by our Church on our college campuses. (See the following individual reports.) We respect the responsibilities the Annual Conference has entrusted to us. We pledge to you to do all that is in our power to ensure resources are used wisely to reach this college generation. Thank you for your prayers and support.

CAMERON CAMPUS MINISTRY

Cameron University—Lawton

This past year in Lawton, the Wesley Foundation/Cameron Campus Ministry (CCM) has seen a number of exciting events and major transitions in the structure and witness of this ecumenical ministry.

On June 1, the Personnel Committee requested the appointment of clergy couple Galeda and Montie Jones.

Some of the new developments include:

- Enlisting a new student leadership team of seven student interns, student hosts, and Student Leadership Members who planned and led the ministries of the fall semester.
- A number of area pastors from the 33 covenanting congregations were guest preachers for the weekly Wednesday evening worship.
- Expanding the ministries to the ever-growing international student community at Cameron University.
- Providing a panel/forum during the first month of the fall semester. Five ministers from the covenanting congregations, representing five denominations, explored students' questions about religious faith, biblical study and interpretation, and issues of biblical and social justice.
- Presenting three praise-band concerts in the CCM Center, featuring bands from the area and state.
- Expanding the number of churches hosting the Thursday "Loaves and Fishes" free lunch, served weekly.
- Initiating a new United Methodist Student Movement group, with special emphasis in the development of programming ministries drawn from the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.
- Increasing the relationship with the 33 covenanting congregations.
- Sending out Interpretation Teams to recruit new partner congregations.
- Hosting the Oklahoma Conference TEAM (Teach, Encourage, Advocate, Motivate) laity leadership class in November, with the CCM Praise Band providing worship leadership, and sharing information about the campus ministries of the Oklahoma Conference.
- More than 800 people participated in CCM's 27th Annual Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday event, including 400 students in a day of service, more than 200 in a packed afternoon workshop, an essay and poetry contest, and a sellout crowd of 270 at an evening campus/community banquet. Nationally respected guest speaker was Dr. Lamont Hill of Columbia University.
- A local Board of Directors Training Event, led by Conference Treasurer Brian Bakeman, focused on financial accountability and structure. More than 25 board members attended, from the Wesley Foundation of Lawton and Cameron Campus Ministry.
- A faculty discussion group meets regularly at the CCM Center.
- A Long Range Planning Task Force is exploring the recognized need to enlarge the CCM Center and is making plans for five, 10, and 20 years in the future.
- United Methodist Women and other church women's groups hosted a Kitchen Shower to replace and upgrade the cooking and food preparation equipment used for the meals prepared each week at the center.

The ministries of Lawton WF/CCM are expanding, and by the grace of God will continue to reach more young people, more diverse people, and more new leaders for the Church.

UNITED CAMPUS MINISTRY

East Central University—Ada

This past year at United Campus Ministry has been very, very busy! More people have come into the building in the last two semesters than I have ever seen. And not only have people been coming in, but also we've been having some great opportunities to minister to people one-on-one.

Along with worship, lunch, and Bible study, we have started new programs such as Dave Ramsey's "Foundations for Life and Money" and a coffee-shop night. In the next year we are going to be exploring other new ways we can be reaching out to college students. Our leadership team is excited about thinking "outside the box," and one of our biggest goals is to get beyond our walls and have a major presence on campus.

We are tremendously grateful for the support we receive from the Conference and all of our supporting churches. Without the backing and help of wonderful congregations, we simply would not be enabled to do the work God is calling us to do. We look forward to a continued partnership in the future!

Kel Penny, campus minister

UNITED CAMPUS MINISTRY Eastern Oklahoma State—Wilburton

"Little by little" is a phrase that floats around the United Ministries in Wilburton. It is a mantra of sorts, reminding us to be patient with ourselves and with each other. The past eight months, it also has been a good reminder to trust God to work in God's own time. Little by little, we have begun finding new ways of connecting with students on Eastern's campus, embracing the challenges of a large commuter campus, large non-traditional student population, and the high turnover rate of a two-year school.

In addition to a weekly lunch and prayer time with students, we have begun a monthly international student meal and culture night. We are beginning work with a student veterans group, are continuing to support a weekly Fellowship of Christian Athletes meeting, and are hosting fall/spring mission encounters.

We are also connecting our campus ministry to the churches of our district through Fifth Sunday campus ministry advocacy days, broadening our campus ministry board, and shifting our identity from an ecumenical ministry to a United Methodist campus ministry. Through partnership with other UM campus ministries, we also are acting as a bridge for our students to campus ministries beyond their two years at Eastern and to the Church.

It is our hope in all these ways that we are connecting our students and faculty to Christ and the Church, as well as the Church to students and faculty. We thank you for working alongside us to this point, and we invite to continue the journey with us.

April Coates, campus minister

WESLEY FOUNDATION Langston University—Langston

The Wesley Foundation at Langston thanks all of you for your support. It has been a busy and satisfying year for us. We have had more than 1,500 students, community residents, and church members participate in our programming.

Through your donations we have been able to have worship, Bible studies, and other activities that brought people to Christ. Eight of them were baptized this year. We named our baptistry in memory of Travis Chubbuck. He was an outstanding young man in the church community; he helped develop the vision for the Wesley Center building and helped present that vision to the Bi-District Board. He was killed in a car accident a few years ago, but his work continues through our ministry.

We feel good about what most students say about us. Our ministry keeps students connected to their faith during the college experience, a time when some opt to skip worship or Bible studies, reports show.

We attend different churches each Sunday. This acquaints students with people from different backgrounds. At a historically black college, it means a lot to worship the one God with people from other races and backgrounds. It feels good to know that God is the same for us all.

Thank you for the love you bring to us, the growth you bring to us, and guidance. Thank you for your donations.

Cecelia Brooks, campus minister
Terry Conerly, student chairperson

WESLEY FOUNDATION
Oklahoma City University

There are a lot of exciting things happening in Religious Life on the campus of Oklahoma City University. We reached out to the world through our Nothing But Nets fundraising campaign and held a successful Alternative Gift Market, which raised money for more than 20 charities. We are also preparing for our Mission Trip with UCO in the spring. Students embrace the call to serve others by raising money for Positive Tomorrows, serving as Big Brothers and Big Sisters, and participating in Habitat for Humanity. They donate clothing, work for Project Transformation, serve on Conference committees, and offer themselves in service to the Church and the world.

Why do they do all of these things? The students at OCU embrace the call to be servant leaders. Our Wesley Leadership team has worked hard to offer a prayer group, social events, and mission opportunities for the campus. We are offering a new United Methodist church plant, Connect, a place for a college Bible study. We are working to organize the third annual “Love not Hate” day on the campus to support unity as we celebrate our diversity. Delta Alpha Chi, our Men’s Christian service fraternity, and Kappa Phi, our Women’s Christian organization, continue to lead the campus in service, worship, and spiritual growth activities. Spirituality studies, Bible studies, and Sabbath opportunities abound at the OCU Wesley Center.

Evensong Worship every Monday night and Chapel Services each Thursday afternoon offer a variety of worship styles for students, staff, and faculty. Wednesday at the Wesley continues to reach out to students through our free lunch, jungle pong games, and Bible study. With more than 200 people attending, we now find it hard to cook for so many in our tiny kitchen.

We dream of the day when a Wesley Center building will begin its construction on the Oklahoma City University campus. We have the plans and the land; we need funding. All of the activities listed above take place in three rooms in the lower level of the Chapel. We are running out of space! If you are willing to help us, or know someone who is, please let me know.

We take very seriously the call to make disciples for the transformation of the world. After writing multiple letters of recommendation to seminaries this year, working through the Ministry Inquiry Process book with students, and watching the young adults of today give their time and energy as leaders in the church, I am very confident for the future of The United Methodist Church.

Thank you for the chance to serve in this hope-filled ministry!

Jennifer J. Long, campus minister

WESLEY FOUNDATION
Northeastern Oklahoma A & M University—Miami

Wesley Student Center in Miami has a mission to help students know that, wherever they are in their Christian walk, they are welcome here. There is acceptance for persons of different cultures, walks of life, and age. All are welcome.

Delicious hot lunches are served on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and Friday is leftovers day, when students fix for themselves and each other. The students are so appreciative of the meals served and the welcome atmosphere that they bring their friends. A devotion or homily is given at each meal. Students lead the grace before meals.

We are encouraged that the Bartlesville District United Methodist Women will have two food drives this year, to gather donations to our food pantry. Miami-First UMC also has two food drives per year that aid us, and Wyandotte UMC/Sycamore Chapel held a food drive for us at Christmas. Thank you to these groups for their generosity.

The Board of Directors has a yearly fundraiser, a chili feed in spring, and the Miami church held a fundraiser last fall. These are essential in helping to fund the programs of this Foundation.

Our vision is to continue to share the gospel with students, to demonstrate Christ’s acceptance and love of all, and to encourage students to continue their faith journey throughout their lives. We also will continue to feed the body as well as the soul.

We continue to recycle as well as buy products that will not harm or destroy the environment.

This is written with a deep sense of gratitude and appreciation for the Oklahoma Conference and the Bartlesville District for supporting this ministry to students. Thank you!

A big thank-you also goes to the Conference Board of Higher Education & Campus Ministry for mentoring and encouraging me in the ministry at Miami Wesley Student Center.

Cathie Pasco, campus ministry director

WESLEY FOUNDATION

Northern Oklahoma College—Tonkawa

The Wesley Foundation at Northern Oklahoma College in Tonkawa is making disciples, creating leaders, and transforming lives through a variety of programming and ministries. As we minister to and with students at NOC, we are constantly reminded that many of our students did not grow up in a church. Just as they are using college as a place to form their own personal identity, they are using the Wesley Foundation to create their Christian identity.

The director often asks students what they are going to “do” with their baptisms. This question, of course, has to do with the internal component of making disciples of Jesus Christ. Much of our programming is designed to help students deepen and strengthen their faith. Bible studies, Wednesday night discussions, and Thursday lunches—which all include fellowship and Christian conversation—are some of the tools we have used this past year. Our first late-night breakfast feed on the Monday of finals week was a huge success in the fall semester!

As with many ministries, we also have felt the budget cuts but have tried to do the most with what we have. This spring, we switched our noon Thursday meal to a late-night evening meal, hoping we would reach out to more students on campus. We have not been disappointed with this transition. It has been well received by students, and we now have more students at our weekly meal. We also continue with our biannual cookout at the center of campus, providing food and information about our weekly events.

During the past year we continued to form relationships with NOC students, so they may in turn form relationships with other Wesley Foundations when they leave NOC’s two-year program and go to other educational institutions. The NOC Wesley Foundation continues to be a unique model for campus ministry, especially as it relates to our relationship with Oklahoma State University. The relationships that we build with students in Tonkawa are helping us reconnect with those students when they come to Stillwater.

We appreciate the support of many churches and individuals who support our ministry with prayers, service, and financial gifts.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

Northwestern Oklahoma State University—Alva

Campus ministry = flexibility and change. With the ever-changing students who come through our campus ministry, we learn that what worked one year doesn’t always work another. On the other hand, we sometimes are able to reintroduce something that once worked.

During Fall 2010, we reintroduced Breakfast and Communion. Students are willing to wake up extra early one morning a month to fill their bodies with physical nourishment and then share in the Lord’s Supper (or, in this instance, breakfast) to give them spiritual nourishment. The camaraderie of those who are willing to share in this early morning experience gives new dimension. Since not all of our students are raised in the United Methodist tradition, it is especially meaningful to welcome everyone to share in the sacraments.

The Wesley House at Alva encourages and fosters the atmosphere of a welcoming, comfortable place to be. We feel that if you are welcomed, no matter what your theological beliefs, you will be willing to learn more about Christ and the United Methodist traditions.

Fun is also another word for campus ministry! Students enjoy being with each other, whether watching movies, playing games, having a party, eating a meal, or having Bible study. Any time students can be together, they will be learning from each other.

Deb Corr, campus ministry director

UNITED METHODIST STUDENT CENTER

Oklahoma Panhandle State University—Goodwell

The United Methodist Student Center in Goodwell continues to reach out in Christian love to the students on the campus of Oklahoma Panhandle State University. The leadership team is continually reaching out to new students, nurturing both new believers and the faithful by helping them to develop consistent spiritual disciplines. The team's passion for the spirituality of the students is evidenced in our small groups, prayer, passionate worship, and Bible studies, as well as modeling Christianity in daily living.

Last year began with nine students participating in the Campus Ministry Leadership Retreat at Cross Point. These students returned to campus with a renewed determination to share what they had learned. Social justice became forefront in the minds of many. We brought the issue of poverty to light with a hunger banquet, and ministry to the area food bank and homeless shelter flourished. The year ended with Project Noel and providing 100 children with presents for Christmas. The year 2011 holds promise for continuing established ministries and growing our leadership base through discipleship training.

The board of directors, students, and I appreciate the support of the Oklahoma Conference. Your prayers, encouragement, and financial support are vital to this ministry.

Jacki Banks, campus minister

WESLEY FOUNDATION

Oklahoma State University—Stillwater

For the Wesley Foundation at OSU, our mission is to make disciples for Jesus Christ, create leaders for the church, and offer life-transforming experiences. This last year has been a successful one, although we have experienced financial struggles. We appreciate the continued support of the Board of Higher Education & Campus Ministry, the Oklahoma Conference, the Stillwater District, and the many churches and individuals that support our ministry with prayers, service, and financial gifts.

Administratively, the most exciting change at the OSU Wesley is our new statewide board structure. Since our students come from every county in Oklahoma, every U.S. state, and many countries across the world, we thought it important to have a wider representation of board members. After months of recruiting, we now have a board with members from churches across our conference. Included on the board are pastors, Foundation alumni, and a host of OSU supporters from United Methodist churches and supporting congregations. They meet twice per year, with additional conference calls throughout the year to stay in touch. So far, this is working quite well, and we are anticipating many great things from these great leaders.

In an effort to reach new students for Christ, we started a Sunday morning worship experience called Metanoia. It has proved to be a successful venture. We meet in a small setting in the Foundation building. Services include the Sacrament of Holy Communion, live music, and a time of sharing. This more intimate setting works well for many students. We also have found that many United Methodist students are used to attending worship on Sunday morning.

Our various ministries to international students continue to be something of which we are quite proud. We have students from many countries who find the Wesley to be an inviting place to explore their faith, ask tough questions, and make new friends. A flagship ministry continues to be our free meal on Tuesdays at noon. We also have many Bible studies, special-interest classes (including cooking classes and Financial Peace University), and the only college UMW unit in the state.

Please visit our website (www.wesleyosu.org) to keep up with all of the exciting events at the OSU Wesley.

WESLEY CENTER

Southeastern Oklahoma State University—Durant

Consider these comments from students.

"It's the only 'church-like' place (where) I have ever felt comfortable."—Joey

"I am more accepted here than other campus ministries."—Steven

"It's the only worship place (where) I feel like I belong."—Kristy

"It's the only place where I'm not persecuted for my beliefs."—April

If not for the Wesley Center at Southeastern Oklahoma State University in Durant...Joey WOULD NOT be comfortable in a Christian community. Steven WOULD NOT be accepted at a campus ministry. Kristy WOULD NOT have a place to belong. April WOULD NOT have a place where she isn't persecuted for her beliefs.

They are why we have a Wesley Center. They—and 57 others like them—have been welcomed, loved, and grown at Wesley Center. While statistics indicate that over 66 percent of students walk away from the Christian faith during college, students are choosing faith at Wesley Center.

They are why 211 individuals, 11 groups, 10 churches, the Ardmore District, and the Oklahoma Conference worked together to raise more than $150,000 and why 108 people volunteered time (including 45 Wesley Center students) to build a new facility last year. A total of 150 students, alumni, former directors, and friends gathered April 18, 2010, and Bishop Robert Hayes led a worship service, consecrating the building to God's mission.

They are why we prayed God would make the much-needed adjacent property available as well—and saw the prayer answered when the property owner walked in one day a year later.

Wesley Center is the only mainline campus ministry at Southeastern, the only place where all may partake in Holy Communion, the only place where a gospel of grace is preached and unconditional love is available. Wesley Center's unique voice and presence is vital to the Southeastern campus.

I believe in this mission to reach young adults, like those above, with the love of Christ. They are why I'm a Wesley director, why I love serving through campus ministry.

These students are the current and future leaders of our churches and communities. They are worth the investment of our best ministry. Thank you to all of you who have offered prayers, gifts, and time on their behalf. You have impacted Wesley, our campus, our students—and thus our world—more than you realize.

Gloria McGee-Denton, campus minister

WESLEY FOUNDATION

Southwestern Oklahoma State University—Weatherford

The year 2010 had several exciting highlights for the ministry of The Wesley at Southwestern (SWOSU). The students of The Wesley found ways to reach out to others through service, learned more about others and God through Bible study, and learned they truly are the hands of the ministry as we worked to bring more students into our group.

In February 2010 a small group traveled to Altus to help clean up homes after a devastating ice storm. It was exciting for this mission to be included in the VIM Share magazine. For the Spring Break Mission Trip in March, another group, with 15 participants from The Wesley and a large group of youths and adults from Weatherford-First UMC, went to Mount Sequoyah retreat center at Fayetteville, Ark. It was a great time to interact with an intergenerational group.

A truly high point in our year was hosting a Lawton District youth group. They made us their mission destination—painting, cleaning, and working at the SWOSU farm. With more than 78 students and adult volunteers, the ministry of The Wesley was truly blessed!

During the fall semester 2010, our Bible study group members looked at world religions. Through the study they learned more about people of other faiths and asked good and difficult questions. The students also were able to see how we Christians can learn from other religions while still maintaining our identity. Each week the group ended with partaking in Holy Communion.

Throughout the year the theme was empowering students to lead the ministry. This meant difficult times when programs seemed to fail, growing periods with lots of excitement, and growing pains as new people brought new dynamics. As the Spring 2011 semester begins, the ministry continues in a building phase, as new faces have been noted.

In 2011, The Wesley continues to reach out to our campus by starting a worship band, participating in a schoolwide 24/7 semester of prayer coordinated by several campus ministries, and working to strengthen our men's and women's ministries. We also are excited about our summer mission trip to Alaska in June. All the while, we are working to help our students grow in their faith and leadership.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

University of Central Oklahoma—Edmond

What does it mean to be a campus ministry in the current age? I think that is a question that has many answers.

First, we are the church incarnate on the college campus. Second, we are a community of individuals who are exploring, struggling, and learning more about our faith. Third, we are the Church now as well as the Church of the future.

One of our students, Sara, wrote this reflection on the Wesley Foundation at UCO, “Some days we are a loud group of barefoot people playing volleyball in the front yard, and other days we are a small group of close friends crying for one another, praying, and holding the one that is hurting. No matter what is going on, though, I know God is there, and I know I would be completely lost without it.”

Maggie writes, “This Wesley is more than a building and more than a group of people. It has become a family. I am confident in saying that without this group of people and without the guidance from Leslie that I have received, I don’t know where I would be today. I do know that my relationship with God would still be rocky or, worse, be non-existent. I am thankful every day for this place and what it has done for me. I can never be thankful enough.”

Theirs are two voices of many who have been blessed by the presence of a United Methodist campus ministry. Your gifts, your prayers, your support make possible this and many other campus ministries. Thank you for all you do. I see every day how valuable such a place is on the college campus.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

University of Oklahoma—Norman

For more than 200 years, the people called Methodists have been committed to the task of making disciples of Jesus Christ. We do this through a variety of means, which include supporting numerous missional entities with Apportionment money. Your faithful Apportionment giving has enabled us to be committed to making disciples of Jesus Christ on the campus of the University of Oklahoma in Norman.

Discipleship training has always been a key component of our ministry and will continue to define who we are at the OU Wesley. In Fall 2010, we had a great student discipleship team, made solely of student volunteers. These young men and women met as a group for Bible study and accountability, but they also met regularly in one-on-one discipleship with staff members. In addition, these young people gave their time to meet one-on-one with other students to pray, read the Gospel, and have accountability time. Many who were discipled by these student leaders will serve on our discipleship team next school year, as we continue to minister to the OU campus and train a new generation of leaders for God’s Kingdom.

Each individual on our discipleship team will be equipped and then expected to be in an active discipleship relationship with someone who has never had a relationship with Jesus Christ. If 20 young people train 20 new disciples this school year, we will have 40 people who can train 40 disciples in 2011-12, so that in 2012-13 we will have 80, and onward goes this process. This is the same model established by the first-century church, the same model John Wesley used, and the same one that needs to define our denomination for years to come.

Part of being committed to discipleship is having a balanced ministry with a place for every student regardless of where they are in their faith journey. We fulfilled this in 2010 by leading more than 20 separate small groups—Bible studies and accountability groups, fellowship groups, mission groups, musical groups, and others. It’s also important to have one large corporate gathering to bring the entire body together, and we do this every Tuesday evening at worship. In 2010 we had more than 400 distinct students attend worship and celebrate Communion; of those students, almost 250 were involved in small groups.

Our commitment to the Oklahoma Conference is to continue being good stewards of the resources with which we are blessed and to continue building a ministry that focuses on making disciples and training up young people to serve the Church when they graduate. Thank you for your faithful support and for being partners with us in ministry at OU.

NORMAN CHINESE FELLOWSHIP

Thank you all for your consistent support and prayers. It has been a privilege and joy to serve God through the Wesley Foundation at the University of Oklahoma. I am always grateful for our wonderful teamwork. Thanks be to God for His indescribable gifts in the past year!

In 2010, we had 45 students attending the ESL/TOEFL (English as a Second Language & Test of English as a Foreign Language) class.

We had more than 50 students involved in the Friday Bible study.

Three professions of faith.

About 25 new students attended the fall semester welcoming party.

We have 18 people involved in Tuesday evening worship.

This spring semester, we have been serving many Chinese-speaking people (the majority of them have never before heard of the Gospel) through English conversation class, TOEFL tutoring class, Tuesday evening worship, and our Friday Bible study.

As a Church and Community Worker through our denomination's General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM), I am called to help initiate, strengthen, and support ministries to the spiritual, physical, emotional, and social needs of people. With thanks to the United Methodist Women from McFarlin UMC, we were able to provide women in need and their precious newborns with 1,300 diapers, 800 wipes, and many bottles of baby lotion, baby wash, baby shampoo, and other baby supplies.

For continuous education, I attended the first convocation sponsored by the National Federation of Asian American United Methodists, in July 2010 at San Jose, CA. Also, I attended missionary training at Stony Point, N.Y., in October and was commissioned that same month as a GBGM Church and Community Worker.

In the coming year, we will continue to make disciples of Jesus Christ. We will witness by word and deed among those who haven't heard or heeded the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We will sustain and enlarge that ministry of outreach, with pastoral care and lay visitation to the troubled, sick, and homebound among us. We will strengthen our engagement with the students and adults through our ESL program on Tuesday evenings. We will continue our support of women and children—meeting the needs of the women, offering language aid and spiritual nurture.

NATURAL CHURCH DEVELOPMENT STEERING COMMITTEE

Natural Church Development (NCD) is a way to help churches fulfill the goals of their strategic plans. NCD affirms, after extensive research, that there are eight basic characteristics of a healthy church. Those are: empowering leadership, gift-based ministry, passionate spirituality, effective structures, inspirational worship, holistic small groups, need-oriented evangelism, and loving relationships. The program, planning, and training provide churches a clear way to become healthy and strong.

The NCD Committee of the Oklahoma Conference has provided training for coaches and Conference leaders. Currently, there are 66 people trained as coaches, including eight district superintendents. NCD also is seeking to identify churches in every district that have gone through the program to provide examples of how churches using this plan develop strength and health. The coaches are linked together in support groups.

During 2011, we'll be offering new training in the Conference. Called "Transform One," it focuses on concepts of I—we—they. This three-phase training is valuable not only in strengthening church health through the NCD principles, but also in general understating of leadership in a church.

- The First Phase focuses on I—one life changed through personal transformation. How has God shaped you to make a difference?
- The Second Phase focuses on WE—transforming one church through corporate transformation. How has God equipped your church to change the world?
- The Third Phase focuses on THEY—transforming one neighborhood through community transformation.

How will your church offer ministry and influence the values of your neighborhood?

If you're interested in knowing more about NCD, contact a member of the Steering Committee, listed below. To obtain materials, contact ChurchSmart Resources or my office at bpierson@leadershipnexus.net.

OKLAHOMA CITY UNIVERSITY

<http://www.okcu.edu>

This year has been one of transition for Oklahoma City University. During the OCU report at the 2010 Annual Conference, we were privileged to introduce the president designate of the university, Robert H. Henry. Now President Henry has taken the helm here at OCU and is committed to building on the great foundation that was in place. He, like the university, is dedicated to helping produce students who are steeped in the liberal arts and who understand themselves to be servant leaders. We are blessed that Tom McDaniel, who offered such inspired leadership for nine years, continues to serve as chancellor of the university.

Of course, we are pleased to once again host the business portions of the Annual Conference. It is always a privilege for us to do so, as we believe this gives the delegates a firsthand view of what is happening at your United Methodist university in Oklahoma.

While you are on campus, be sure to see the new addition to the Kramer School of Nursing. We are delighted that the enrollment of our nursing school has grown to the point that a new building was needed. The new facility was opened in time to accommodate the nursing students during the Spring 2011 semester. We also are pleased to let you know the Devon Boathouse, which is the home of the OCU rowing teams, is now completed. This beautiful facility, in a prime location along the banks of the Oklahoma River, is a world-class training center for athletes.

Of particular interest to the people of the Oklahoma Conference will be the recently completed renovation of the OCU archives, which are located on the fifth floor of the Dulaney-Browne Library on campus. In addition to housing OCU's archival materials, those of the Oklahoma Conference and the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference also are cared for in this facility. Staff vacated the space for many months, working in temporary settings, so that the complete renovation, including many improvements needed to assure the preservation of these priceless materials, could be made. During your time on the OCU campus for the Annual Conference, we would love for you to take a tour of this space. The Library will be closed on Memorial Day, but will be open on Tuesday and Wednesday of the conference.

Finally, be sure to look at the plans for the new Wesley Center, which will become the hub for Student Religious Life activities on the OCU campus. This has been a long-held dream of our students—a dream that we plan to turn into reality.

DISCIPLESHIP MINISTRIES FOR THE SMALL-MEMBERSHIP CHURCH

Many small-membership churches are struggling to find ways to become vital, healthy congregations across the state. Regardless of the size of a congregation, sustainability is one of the major issues that face churches today. In 2011-12, this office will begin to look at the following issues that concern the Church today:

• Tipping points for churches: what does this mean, where and when will change happen to strengthen a church.

• What are the characteristics of “vital congregations” for smaller-membership churches?

• To help smaller congregations understand their important role in “The Action Plan.”

• To make available training in “Link2Lead” and other demographic tools through the Conference office. To show congregations how this can help them in their plans for the present and in the future.

• To continue to help smaller churches that are working on their visioning or strategic plan.

This past year several congregations participated in “ReConnecting: A Wesleyan Guide for the Renewal of Our Congregation,” by Rob Weber. Every church that participated recommended this study for others, and study participants in one church wished that the entire congregation would have participated in the study and that they might repeat it.

Safe Sanctuaries training continues to evolve. In September there was a Conference-wide training event to prepare district representatives as facilitators for future training in their districts/churches. A new resource called “Cyber Safety for Families,” by Paul O’Briant, is highly recommended and available for your church to provide information for congregations to keep families safer in regards to Internet and social media use.

“Small Churches are the Right Size ... and Different” was a great success in November. We had 274 participants, with 84 churches represented, at these regional events that reached across our state. In Fall 2011 our goal is to repeat this, with the focus this time on “Vital Worship and Music in Smaller Churches.” I encourage your churches to watch for this and participate when it comes to your region.

I am pleased to announce that, in 2010, the Youth Workers Academy was accredited by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (GBHEM) to be a paraprofessional certification site. At this time there is only one other annual conference that can offer this certification. This program, which is co-sponsored by OCU, continues to grow, and we encourage all churches to use this as a training ground for their youth workers, both paid and volunteer.

In March 2011, the youth department co-sponsored YouTheology with Saint Paul’s School of Theology in Oklahoma for the first time. This is another opportunity for training our adult workers with youth. We hope this will become an annual event for continuing education for youth workers.

COMMISSION ON THE RURAL/SMALLER MEMBERSHIP CHURCH

http://www.okumc.org/Small_Church_Commission

Around every corner in Oklahoma is yet another amazing story about a God-led ministry in a small UM church. It is because of these stories and churches that our commission continues to serve our Conference, and this past year has been one of seeking new ways to collect and share those stories.

With this in mind, our commission members are now making themselves available to visit churches—to hear, share, and celebrate the ministries of God in each place. We also have been preparing a DVD highlighting a number of churches, and we plan to make this DVD available soon. It is our hope that this DVD will not only be an opportunity to celebrate the work of the featured churches but also will be used as idea-starters for some churches, as a challenge to other churches to try something new, and as a preface for celebration by all churches as they see that ministries are happening all across the state and the Kingdom of God is growing.

In addition to that project, our commission spent time looking at our existing ministries and helping them grow and improve. For instance, we developed some new policies for Project Noel, and thus we entered the Christmas season more prepared than ever before and ready for this important ministry. Overall, the season went very smoothly, and we were able to provide items for almost 100 churches to distribute. Reports of how children, families, churches, and communities experienced God through the giving and receiving of gifts continue to come in every day, and we proud to be able to help make that possible in our Conference.

We also continued to provide funds for scholarships to attend training events, grants for churches, and hymnals on CDs. In Spring 2010, we hosted an Effective Ministry workshop and helped to sponsor another training event. Further, we have recently begun work on a Conference award program.

Overall, it has been a very busy and successful year for our commission, and we look forward to all future opportunities we have to serve the small and rural churches in Oklahoma.

ACADEMY FOR SPIRITUAL FORMATION

The community of laity and clergy who gathered at camp in October were embraced in a rhythm of morning, evening, and night prayer and worship, and a pattern of conversation and silence, celebration and renewal.

Our two excellent faculty for the week taught with passion and spirit. Elaine Heath led us in considering evangelism and Christian community from an ancient yet renewed perspective that is both deeply contemplative and profoundly relevant to our time, based on the early Christian hymn found in Philippians 2 about Christ's kenosis, or self-emptying. Ray Buckley led us in exploring "When God Changes Your Name," through the history, stories, and wisdom of American Indian peoples and the Gospel as experienced and lived from these perspectives.

As often happens at Academy sessions, those two streams of input were Spirit-weaved and profoundly soul-nourishing and challenging.

We hope to offer another Five-Day Academy for Spiritual Formation in 2012.

Kathy Leithner, leadership team member

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY COUNCIL

The Young Adult Ministry Council (YAMC) continues to make strides toward involving the church in ministry to and among more young people, as our Strategic Plan orients us.

During the past year, a major event, in the planning stages for two years, came to fruition and exceeded our expectations. The Shane Claiborne speaking tour was achieved with co-sponsorship and collaboration with the Conference's Youth Ministries. The total count of participants at the four venues in the Oklahoma City metropolitan area was approximately 800 people, and Shane's message of hope and community engagement reached beyond the Church.

In August 2010, we sponsored a Conference-wide mission service trip to Rio Bravo, Mexico. Eight people from across the Conference attended and, as with our 2008 mission in Mexico, the benefits of mission work were both given and received by the participants.

We continue to find a great degree of interest in mission work among the 100-plus constituents of the YAMC. In 2011, we plan to sponsor two mission opportunities: one in Mexico, and one as a mission exchange with the YAMC of the Holston Conference in eastern Tennessee. In the latter, we hope to make connections with one of the strongest YAMC networks in the denomination. We will host the Holston participants while they work in the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference and, in turn, the Holston YAMC will host our participants for work in the Red Bird Missionary Conference. We hope this may generate new applications for the connectionalism that is a major strength of our denomination.

As always, we look for ways to continue to develop young adult leadership in our Conference by sponsoring participants at various meetings and retreats around the country. In February 2011 we sent one Young Adult to a General Board of Discipleship workshop in Las Vegas. In September 2010 we organized a contingent of 15 people who, benefitting through the Discipleship Ministry Team's Worship Area, attended a fantastic worship music conference in Waco, Texas.

In 2011, we have set aside funds to help Young Adults who are taking part in the Bishop's Tour of the Holy Land, which we believe will undergird the ministry of those who attend for their whole lives. With your help, we are identifying new leaders and leadership resources/training opportunities, and bringing them together. We believe this is a vibrant area of the Church that continues to grow and strengthen. Thank you for supporting this ministry with your Apportionments, your participation, your Strategic Plan focus and direction, and with your prayers.

Remember, Jesus was a young adult.

YOUTH MINISTRY

<http://www.okumc.org/youth>

The Oklahoma Conference Council on Youth Ministry has made great progress this year.

We have gained ground on implementing an additional fundraiser during the year for the Youth Service Fund, instead of having only one.

We have made it a point to increase the Conference-wide mission days per year from one to two or three.

Natalie Price and I attended the South Central Jurisdiction youth meeting and made tremendous ground in making sure that the Oklahoma Conference was heard and that the Jurisdiction was on the right track.

Our most important activity has been working on a plan that is my passion: to unite the districts by making sure each has a District Council on Youth Ministry. Alex Ramsey and I are in the implementation process of this, and we are attending a Lawton District youth rally on March 26 to promote Oklahoma Conference events.

A big goal is to double the attendance at the Conference's Youth Summit in September. For more information, e-mail me at: mpatrick9376@gmail.com.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT MINISTRY TEAM

The mission of the Leadership Development Ministry Team (LDMT) is to develop ways to train, nurture, and involve clergy and laity as servant leaders in the life of the church and beyond, for the purpose of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

LDMT relates directly to these ministry groups: Board of Ordained Ministry, Board of Laity, Commission on Religion and Race, and Commission on the Status and Role of Women.

LDMT and the Board of Laity continue to work together in developing programs and workshops for both clergy and laity. Local Church Leaders Workshops continue to exceed all expectations for attendance and class excellence.

LDMT also continues to develop new relationships with other Conference ministry groups.

Discipleship Ministries for the Small-Membership Church invited LDMT to be a co-sponsor of "Small Churches are the Right Size ... and Different," held at six sites on six dates last fall. LDMT is excited to be invited again as a co-sponsor for this program in Fall 2011, with the focus of "Music and Worship in the Small-Membership Church."

LDMT continues to support the Single-Parent Family Gatherings. This unique retreat experience for single parents and their children is an opportunity for the family to grow closer to each other and God. Moms, dads, sons, daughters, grandparents, and grandchildren have an awesome time together as a family, while volunteer "angels" are always close by. In 2011 the retreats will be offered at Camp Egan, Cross Point Camp, and Canyon Camp.

LDMT is excited to be a part of the LEAD seminars for clergy. In the fall of 2009, conversations began on the topic of helping pastors with the “nuts and bolts” of practical ministry. The Leadership Development Ministry Team and Oklahoma Conference Treasurer Brian Bakeman initiated a planning group. Joined by the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference, Oklahoma City University, Saint Paul School of Theology, and the Oklahoma United Methodist Foundation, the group began designing a series of seminars to address issues that full and part-time Local Pastors, Student Pastors, and Elders face as spiritual and administrative leaders in their churches.

The first LEAD Seminar took place on Oct. 8-9, 2010, with 72 pastors in attendance. Topics included personal financial management, corporate/church financial management, and conflict management, led by a group of exceptional presenters: Mike Wiley, Ron Shaw, Monica Swink, and Robert Martin. The evaluations from this event were very positive.

The second LEAD Seminar was Feb. 18-19, 2011, focusing on personal and corporate/church stewardship, and leading the laity. The third seminar will be April 29-30, 2011, looking at personal and corporate accountability, and leading staff.

Our plan is to offer three seminars each year, with topics that rotate through a three-year cycle. These seminars are designed to help participants obtain practical skills and knowledge not gained during their formal educational preparation for ministry. Also a goal for these seminars is to make attendance affordable for any clergy. Registration is $50, and housing and other financial assistance is available for those who travel more than 75 miles to attend the events, held at OCU.

LDMT and its ministry groups participated in Ministerial Recruitment Summit 2010, along with other Conference entities. This was an opportunity to identify opportunities, challenges, and roles that each group will have in the future as we nurture calls to ministry.

The Leadership Development Ministry Team is a committed group of ministries that in the coming year will continue to focus on equipping servant leaders that make Disciples for Jesus Christ, for the transformation of the world!

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

“Article V. Racial Justice—The United Methodist Church proclaims the value of each person as a unique child of God and commits itself to the healing and wholeness of all persons. The United Methodist Church recognizes that the sin of racism has been destructive to its unity throughout its history. Racism continues to cause painful division and marginalization. The United Methodist Church shall confront and seek to eliminate racism, whether in organizations or in individuals, in every facet of its life and in society at large...” (The Book of Discipline 2008, Constitution, Paragraph 4, pg. 22)

Charged to conduct and produce monitoring reviews of the Oklahoma Annual Conference to help evaluate and ensure its progress in enabling racial/ethnic empowerment and achieving racial/ethnic inclusiveness, the Commission on Religion and Race (CORR) introduced new techniques in 2010 that helped to provide a more accurate ethnic analysis of conference delegates. The inclusion of a CORR identification card upon registration guarantees an accurate ethnic count. The ID process is now under consideration with the General Commission on Religion and Race.

CORR has and continues to sponsor workshops designed to encourage open, honest dialogue regarding racism.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS FOR 2010:

March 6—Faith forum, titled “Overcoming Racism in the Body of Christ,” held in the atrium of the Wanda Bass Music Hall at Oklahoma City University. The agenda spoke to how racism is manifested in our churches, our successes, and challenges ahead.

Presentation by CORR at the 2010 Oklahoma Conference of the first Bishop Robert E. Hayes Jr. Racial Unity Award, presented to Bishop Hayes for his outstanding leadership accomplishments and his ability to bring greater understanding and unity between ethnic groups, teaching us how to love God and one another.

Sept. 10-11—CORR Membership/Leadership Training Retreat, held at Canyon Camp, was facilitated by the Rev. Myungim Kim, Annual Conference coordinator for the General CORR, from Washington, D.C. The retreat training helped prepare interested candidates for CORR membership.

UPCOMING 2011:

March 5—First program in the new Chemical Dependency Leadership Competencies Luncheon Series, facilitated by the Conference’s Addiction Ministries, in cooperation with CORR.

March 6-8—Eighth Annual UMOJA-UNITY Praise Community Concert.

CORR has generated productive conversations with diverse audiences from varying economic backgrounds regarding their racial experiences. The acknowledgement and understanding of racism has helped participants begin the reconciliation process. The ultimate effort to diversify leadership and cultural wisdom in churches, conferences, agencies, and institutions must be intentional and forward-looking if we are to reap the plentiful harvest of potential that God has placed in our midst. CORR values your input and welcomes your willingness of participation. Grace be with you.

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

At the 2010 Annual Conference, COSROW held a breakfast honoring the newly ordained and commissioned women of the Oklahoma Conference. Each of these honorees was presented with a commemorative gift recognizing her calling and ministry. Bert Potts was the featured speaker. She delivered a dynamic message highlighting some of the joys and challenges she has experienced in her many years of pastoral leadership.

In the fall, COSROW sent out a survey to all appointed women in the Conference to gather a more personal account of the Status and Role of Women in the Oklahoma Conference. The women were asked the following questions:

As a woman clergy person, what is the most affirming experience you have had in your ministry setting? Do you feel this signifies an overall positive change for women clergy in general?

What was the most challenging situation you have encountered as a female member of the Oklahoma Conference?

Do you find areas in your ministry setting which appear to be resistant to change for female clergy? What are they?

Please share any additional anecdotes you may have from your ministry as a female clergy that you feel will assist COSROW in assessing the status and role of women in the Oklahoma Conference.

From the responses, members of COSROW prepared a video that will be shown as its report for Annual Conference. It is hoped this video will complement the following statistical information in reporting on the current status and role of women in our Conference.

Women pastored three of the eight churches that reported the highest percent attendance increase from 2004 to 2009, with one of these churches reporting a 400 percent increase.

As reported in the 2010 Conference Journal, women make up 34 percent of the chairpersons of Conference Boards, Councils, and Committees; and 35 percent of the chairpersons of Conference Boards of Trustees. Among our District Lay Leaders, 42 percent are women. No women are listed as chairing any of the District Committees on Ordained Ministry or District Boards of Church Location and Building.

COSROW sent a representative to attend GCSRW/GCORR New Monitoring Tools Training in Houston in February, in hopes of providing more constructive and comprehensive data toward intentional, invitational inclusivity for our Conference.

COSROW also provided scholarships that helped 14 women from Oklahoma to attend Wade in the Water, the South Central Jurisdiction Clergywomen's Consultation in New Orleans in March.

COSROW plans to support and promote women delegates to the upcoming Jurisdictional Conference, to be held in Oklahoma City in 2012.

At the 2011 Annual Conference, COSROW will again hold a breakfast to honor the newly ordained and commissioned women. This event is set for 7 a.m. Tuesday, May 31. Everyone is invited to attend the breakfast in Watson Lounge of OCU's Angie Smith Chapel and hear an inspirational speaker.

BOARD OF LAITY

We believe that Spirit-filled laity living and leading in ministry are an integral part of building a bridge to the future in churches, communities, and the Oklahoma Conference. Our efforts are focused on encouraging and equipping laity leaders to be on the front line, building and being the bridge in the ways they are called by God. The following are examples.

Save Oct. 10, 2011, to participate in a special event to help you with your church's possibilities. Vance Ross, an acclaimed national speaker, will lead the day in Oklahoma City.

- Ministry Sunday ("Moving Sunday")—Churches celebrate their ministries for new or returning pastors. Resources online at okumc.org.
- Other special Sunday observances, including Scouting Sunday, Children's Sabbath, Youth Sunday, United Methodist Women's Sunday and Christian Family Month.

Bridges of ministry are evident through UMMen, UMW, Youth, Scouting, Lay Speakers, Young Adults/Young Families, and Senior Adults.

More than 900 Certified Lay Speakers, both adults and youths, are equipped and serving. Director Pat Parvin, along with district coordinators, leads in offering training opportunities across the Conference.

Youth-Serving Ministries, led by Virginia Williams and district coordinators, reinforce youth outreach as churches open their doors to Girl Scouts, CampFire USA, 4-H, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, and Boy Scouts. At 100 years strong, Boy Scouts continues to grow through churches' sponsorships. Check out www.praypub.org.

United Methodist Women, with President Kathy Caldron, are the conscience of the Church for touching the lives of women and children in poverty. We encourage everyone to attend the Schools of Christian Mission, July 22-25, 2011, at OCU.

United Methodist Men, with William Chissoe as new president, lead in involving men in ministry and champion the "Strength for Service" project on behalf of our nation's heroes in uniform.

The youths of our Conference inspire their churches as they serve in mission, outreach, VIM, evangelism, camps, and Youth Force.

We are inspired by the bridges our young adults, young families, and senior adults represent. Consider sponsoring your members to one of the following events in 2011:

- Single-Parent Family Gathering—Aug. 12-14 at Camp Egan, June 10-12 at Canyon Camp, June 24-26 at Cross Point Camp. Organized by Andre Stravlo.
- Young Adult Retreat—Cross Point, July 29-31.
- Senior Adult Retreat—Canyon, Sept. 20-22.

The Board of Laity is a committed, working board and as such will continue to focus on assisting and equipping laity in their churches to be bridges in making disciples for Jesus Christ!

LOCAL CHURCH LEADERS WORKSHOPS

<http://www.okumc.org/lclw>

The Oklahoma Conference is one of very few annual conferences that offer Local Church Leaders Workshops. Conference, district, and, most importantly, local church support makes it possible to continue offering these training opportunities. The workshops are organized by the Conference, but are planned and hosted by the districts and churches.

The Local Church Leaders Workshops are one-day events, held at churches within the districts, from January into March. At each workshop, churches' leaders are invited to attend two or three classes that relate to or offer training in specific ministries or committee roles.

At the 2011 workshops, the classes that drew the highest attendance were: "Judaism, Christianity, Islam—and Peace," taught by John Starkey; "Servant Leadership," taught by the Board of Laity; and "What Every Member Should Know About Poverty," taught by George Warren. This shows that the people of our Conference are yearning to serve and to be in ministry outside the walls of their church buildings.

The second tier of classes with the most attendance were: "Prayer and Your Personality," taught by Cindy Mayes; "Who, Me, Evangelism?" taught by Frank Denney; "Passionate Evangelism," taught by Randy Scrapper; "Coping with Conflict in Community," taught by Dianne Kovacs Peters; and "Spiritual Practices from the Celtic Christians," taught by Rodney Newman and Adam Shahan. I believe this confirms that the leaders of our churches are searching for ways to strengthen and renew their spiritual lives, both personally and corporately.

My goal for future workshops is to offer a wider variety of classes, so not only newly elected officers will be able to receive training, but also all members of churches will have an opportunity to learn, share new ideas, be served, and be fed spiritually.

The involvement of each church's clergy is imperative. The majority of people said they attended the workshops because their pastors encouraged them to go. If we have support from each clergy person, I know we will increase attendance at the workshops—if the pastor is interested and passionate, the congregation will be interested and passionate.

I extend a special thank-you to the churches who hosted the workshops this year: Weatherford, OKC-St. Luke's, Wagoner, Tulsa-Boston Avenue, Claremore-First, Woodward-First, Lawton-Centenary, Enid-First, Ardmore-First, McAlester-First, and Stillwater-First. Because of their generous service, many people in our Oklahoma Conference not only are feeling better equipped to be leaders in their churches, but also they had an opportunity to experience genuine hospitality. They now feel inspired to be a part of God's mission through ministry.

Another thank-you goes to Bishop Hayes, who was able to attend seven workshops! His excitement and involvement makes such a difference in the environment and spirit of these events. His attendance shows these leaders that they are important and treasured. What a blessing to have a bishop who takes time out to be so engaged in the local churches' events!

MISSION AND SERVICE MINISTRY TEAM

The Mission and Service Ministry Team (MSMT) exists to connect the local church to God's mission in the world. We are called to be a resource, assisting each church in its call to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

MSMT is made up of several representative and outreach ministries. Some of these are the Circle of Care, Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries, Volunteers In Mission, Cookson Hills Center, Skyline Ministries, Restore Hope, Neighborhood Services Organization, Project Transformation, Addiction Ministries, the Board of Church and Society, and ecumenical and interfaith ministries.

We also relate to Oklahoma United Methodist continuing care retirement communities and nursing homes, the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference, the Rio Grande Conference, the Lydia Patterson Institute in El Paso, the Bishop's Children and Health Initiatives, the Bolivia/Oklahoma Partnership, the Russia Initiative, and other emerging mission initiatives. We faithfully administrate the Woodworth Estate Fund.

Each of our ministry areas has stories to tell. However, here are three highlights of the general work of the MSMT:

- At the 2011 Annual Conference, we will announce the first recipients of the All-Star Church

Recognition and Award program. This new program affirms the foundation of connectional missions by recognizing participation in the Six Special Sundays, the Advance (including UMCOR), and the General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM) Covenant Relationship program (connecting churches with field missionaries). Beyond this, the All-Star program also awards the creative efforts of churches in mission. What is the Spirit asking of you? There are so many ways to be in mission! Contact us for more information on how your church can participate in the All-Star Church Recognition and Award Program. All the necessary information also can be found online at the Conference website.

- We are working toward new, creative partnerships with GBGM, especially in the task of sending out missionaries. To this end we celebrate the new journeys of Fuxia Wang and Kristen Brown. We hope many of your churches will partner with them in their new missional work.
- We have been challenged to strengthen our interfaith and ecumenical partnerships in creative ways, and we continue our process of discernment in this arena. We covet your ideas and suggestions.

One of our district superintendents, Darrel Cates of McAlester, summarizes the work of the MSMT this way: "MSMT's goals are to resource and empower every local church to be mission-impassioned, because we believe mission-impassioned churches are healthier and better able to fulfill our mandate."

We hope you will allow our passion for mission to join with yours. How can we help?

ADDICTION MINISTRIES<http://www.addictionministries.org>

The Addiction Ministries is “following the plan: faithfully witnessing and being a transforming presence,” providing a holistic approach of education, prevention, recovery support, and advocacy. By equipping and resourcing our faith communities to gracefully and spiritually cradle the hurts and pains of the whole, we empower our churches to be the “transforming presence” that God has called us to be.

The Addiction Ministries recognizes that “meeting people where they are” is best done by our churches. Healthy congregations equipped with the knowledge and tools as well as the passion and enthusiasm can “Be the Church.” Empowering our congregations to address addiction in a healthy manner is our main priority.

With education, prevention, recovery, and advocacy programs, the Addiction Ministries provides guidance, leadership, and resources for the Oklahoma Conference. Our educational presentations have several venues through our 12-day Summer School on Chemical Dependency and our One-Day Seminars. In partnership with Faith Partners Inc., we train church teams to: lay a firm foundation, discern the needs within their own faith communities, and become healthy first instead of responding out of desperation or frustration. We provide resources for all ages, and we advocate for social justice in systemic healing.

Within the past few years, the Oklahoma Addiction Ministries has been recognized for its excellence in addiction awareness and education for clergy and laity alike. Our Summer School on Chemical Dependency has become a model for several annual conferences and other groups: Georgia, Kansas, North Carolina, the European Board, and the African Task Force on Substance Abuse. We represent the South Central Jurisdiction, as well as the Oklahoma Conference, to several agencies of the General Board of Global Ministries.

This past year the Addiction Ministries, along with the United Methodist Ministry Center, was awarded “Outstanding Partnering Agency” by the Oklahoma Crystal Darkness Coalition. We have a strong relationship with the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse (ODMHSA) and, as the director of Addiction Ministries, I am an active member of the ODMHSA Interfaith Council.

For specific areas of concentration, training opportunities, and valuable resources, log onto our website (<http://www.addictionministries.org>) or call 405-530-2010.

Our plan for transformation is to educate and advocate on the dangers of addiction. Our journey is to guide and run alongside our churches in their response to addiction. Our destination is to strive to be “alive” in God’s New Creation.

Annette Harper, director

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETYhttp://www.okumc.org/church_society

Your Conference Board of Church and Society has been active in the last year. We continue to educate on, advocate for, and raise awareness of The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church and the issues addressed therein, particularly when they speak to issues and events within the Oklahoma Conference. Our board—along with the Environmental Coalition and the Peace with Justice coordinator—is active in the annual and general conferences, doing our part to represent you and to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Our accomplished and upcoming ministries include:

Continuing to grow and develop UM-CAN, the United Methodist Constituent-Advocate Network. We have more than 100 participants across the Conference, and United Methodist outreach to the state Capitol continues to increase. Our laity and clergy more than ever have access to advocate on issues important to them in our state.

Adam Shahan was sent to Washington, D.C., for the General Board of Church & Society’s Young Clergy Conference. There, he presented our Conference’s struggles with predatory gambling and the ever-increasing number of incarcerated females.

On March 11-12 of this year, our board and Peace with Justice co-sponsored a social holiness retreat at Canyon Camp, featuring Dr. Tony Campolo; Jim Winkler, general secretary of the General Board of Church and Society (GBCS); and Neal Christie, assistant executive secretary for Education, Nurture, and Outreach for GBCS. Bishop Hayes joined us and led worship.

The Environmental Coalition is closer than ever to “green church” standards that can be achieved by both large and small congregations. Also, the coalition continues to educate and advocate for smart-grid technology in homes, which helps both the environment and low-income households.

We were able to teach the Social Principles and Social Principles pedagogy, along with widening our UM-CAN efforts, at six of the 10 Local Church Leaders Workshops.

Our local-church emphasis, shared by the General Board, has put copies of the Social Principles in the hands of more than 1,500 people this year, and more local churches are reporting the creation of their own Church & Society committees.

Finally, members of our board have engaged in efforts with leaders at the state Capitol, the Oklahoma Conference, districts, churches, and across denominational borders to bring the hopeful message of Christ to the disenfranchised and marginalized. We have prayed with families of the deported, sang and broken bread with prisoners, fought against the death penalty and practices that harm our planet, and taught the Social Principles with passion and purpose.

We are doing justice, loving kindness, and walking humbly with our God, reaching more people, and doing our part to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

BOLIVIA/OKLAHOMA METHODIST AYLLU

<http://www.bokp.org>

The Jilakata of the Ayllu (The Council of the Methodist/Oklahoma Community) are a group of 11 Oklahoma lay and clergy persons who have each been to Bolivia an average of eight times, are committed to leading the work of one area of mission, and have made a significant financial contribution to that mission. The members are:

Susan Waite – Women’s Missions

Tonya Ford – Children’s C.E.

Lewis Thompson – Medical Clinics

Doug Valley – John Wesley Center

Rusty Williams – Local Pastor Training

David Stephenson – Mission Interpreter

Leslie Long – Children’s C.E.

Don Crawley – Medical Clinics

Julie Guy – Engineers In Action

Linda Allen – Translation and Communication

Michael Bartley – Young Adult Ministry

The Bolivia/Oklahoma Methodist Ayllu is pushing toward a new paradigm in mission: interdependence and partnership. There is an increasing awareness of the impact that the Evangelical Methodist Church of Bolivia (IEMB) has had on the Oklahoma Conference. The IEMB was the birthplace of the Oklahoma VIM movement. It has led to the creation of two medical clinics in Oklahoma and transformed the lives of many Oklahoma United Methodists.

With the full-time appointment of David Stephenson as the mission interpreter of the Bolivia/Oklahoma Ayllu, this partnership is growing dramatically. The IEMB is helping Oklahoma congregations learn more about the importance of missions in their church growth and providing an outlet for their strategic plans.

Interdependence and partnership involves greater numbers of VIM teams, both first-time and, especially, repeat trips. (We will have 10 VIM trips to Bolivia in 2011.) It involves getting all aspects of a congregation involved in the Bolivian mission, not just a few “VIMers.” And it can raise the self-identity of a congregation as a mission-church by pointing to their work in Bolivia.

Among the missions and projects of the Jilakata for calendar year 2011 are:

- Raising $100,000 for the Bolivian Pastors’ Endowment Fund. (The fund totaled $214,786 on Dec. 31, 2010.) Funds will be raised through a 36-hour fast on April 14-16, with matching funds from the Woodworth Estate.
- $30,000 for construction of the Good News church in La Paz. Funds raised through the Annual Conference Offering.
- $55,000 to construct the first-ever nursing home in Bolivia, through a grant from the Petree Foundation and a matching grant from Moody UMC in Texas.
- Strengthening the seven Methodist medical clinics through a $25,000 family grant and VIM teams.
- Providing $10,000-$20,000 for producing and printing Children’s Christian Education materials for all IEMB churches and children. Funds raised from Vacation Bible Schools and Children’s Sunday School mission offerings.
- Begin fundraising for a $50,000 Women’s Center in El Alto. Funding through chapters of United Methodist Women and other women’s groups.

- Repair and improve the John Wesley Center. Funding from congregations.
- 10 VIM teams doing church construction and medical work
- Exploring Local Lay Pastor training
- Exploring connections between the young adults of Bolivia and Oklahoma
- And we continue to work with the autonomous Oklahoma non-profit group “Engineers In Action” (www.engineersinaction.org), with 17 water, sanitation, and irrigation projects throughout Bolivia.

COOKSON HILLS CENTER

<http://www.cooksonhillscenter.com>

Mother Teresa once said, “A life not spent serving others is a life not worth living.” The mission of Cookson Hills Center is to serve the low-income people of Cherokee, Adair, and Sequoyah Counties. I am confident that the staff and volunteers, who worked tirelessly the past year, have accomplished a sense of a life worth living.

We continue to offer programs for all ages. Our daycare was expanded with the influx of several school-age children. The Cherokee Nation granted us funds to purchase some equipment, which was really appreciated. Our children and youth programs continue to serve children who experience voids in their lives because of the effects of poverty. We hosted a Pennsylvania group that led a week of Vacation Bible School, and then we took our children and youths to camp. The senior citizen nutrition program draws lots of people from all over this community and provides hot, nutritious meals for those who otherwise might not get one. We started a young-adult program, and it is beginning to draw those who need some support at that life stage.

The cottage industries have grown. Embroidery and silk screening are always busy, and the mat makers never get caught up. We added two new industries:

- Brand Name Clothing has contracted with us to sort and repair jewelry for them, and two more people in our community now have jobs.
- During a period of three weeks, we were given six kilns from five separate sources. That is a message! They began arriving while a licensed electrician was visiting, and he wired a building to accommodate these kilns. We are now producing Communion chalices and plates with an Indian flare. God is good!

We hosted 25 VIM teams from all over the United States, and they completed 30 projects, from floors to roofs and from decks to ramps.

The health resource center has had a good year. We hosted free dental clinics, eye clinics, a health fair, Alcoholics Anonymous and Overeaters Anonymous meetings, and programs on cancer awareness, addiction, and the elderly. We have partnered with a mental health agency to provide anger management, individual counseling, and parenting classes.

Cookson Hills Center was the site chosen in 2010 for the meeting of the National Advisory Committee on Church and Community Ministry, and we welcomed people from the denomination’s General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM), who spent more than a week here, learning about us and meeting. Our director, Meri Whitaker, is a GBGM Church and Community Worker. It was a wonderful experience, and we made some wonderful contacts.

We then packed our bags and headed for St. Louis, Mo., and the United Methodist Women’s quadrennial Assembly. Cookson Hills Center provided a booth there, which brought some wonderful attention to the mission. Denise Rowell, a member of the center’s staff, was invited to sing and share her story at the Assembly, and she was warmly received.

Tool Tyme came again in late 2010, and we worked and played with more than 130 women and men as we began to prepare the center for Christmas. The Christmas Store served more than 257 families, and we know it was appreciated by many who have been affected by the U.S. economic downturn.

We grieved the death of our friend and supporter, former Cherokee Chief Wilma Mankiller. Our thoughts and prayers continue for her family.

We continue to serve the God who makes our lives worth living, and we appreciate the partnership we have with The United Methodist Church.

Meri Whitaker, missionary

CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND MERCY MINISTRIES

<http://www.cjamm.org>

CJAMM had a financially challenging 2010. The good news is we finished the year solvent. For 2011 our goal is replenish savings. We anticipate receiving some grant funds that were not available last year.

In 2010, we achieved joint planning meetings with design teams for both New Day Camps. We anticipate reaching our goal of greater continuity in the two camp experiences. Both camps accommodated slightly fewer children this year, but the experience was of much higher quality. United Methodist churches again totaled more than one-third of the participating Oklahoma churches in Project Angel Tree (a Christmas ministry to children with incarcerated parents). And I presented a workshop about children of incarcerated parents, at the “Peace for the World’s Children” conference in Lake Junaluska, N.C.

Penn Avenue Redemption UMC recently held a full-day visioning meeting; more than 20 people were in attendance. The Oklahoma City congregation paid in full all starred Apportionment items—a significant step in its coming-of-age as a church. And the number of former prisoners serving as volunteers is now around 30 percent. The church’s Redemption Kids program is featured in the Human Relations Day promotional materials generated by the General Board of Church and Society.

CJAMM also has been represented in new efforts in Oklahoma City and Tulsa to establish diversion programs for female offenders. The goal is to keep offending mothers out of prison.

Graduation rates increased this past year for both Oklahoma City Exodus House and Tulsa Exodus House. The quality of our staff and program is responsible for these gains.

Operation Hope in Tulsa was the subject of a television news story. We have added two other transitional housing ministries to Operation Hope; both are operated by Tulsa Exodus House graduates and Tulsa Redemption Church members. All the Exodus House staff positions, both in Oklahoma City and Tulsa, are filled by Redemption Church members who are former prisoners.

Ardmore Redemption Church is seeking a new home. Its tenure at Warren Memorial UMC ended Dec. 31, 2010. We were blessed to be there for a number of years and to have the dedicated service of clergyman Everisto Chikanga, who has returned to his native Zimbabwe. Volunteer leadership is being provided by Sam and Louise Gaddis of Ardmore-First, and pastoral leadership is being provided by Paul McDowell. Ardmore-First has provided temporary meeting space and financial support.

Under the leadership of clergywoman Becky Baxter Ballou, Lawton-Aldersgate Redemption Church is providing the intensive re-entry program of the Oklahoma Department of Corrections to Lawton area inmates.

Laura Pitman, the deputy director of Female Offenders and Volunteers for the state Department of Corrections (DOC), was the speaker at the CJAMM Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon, held at OKC-First UMC. Many of our Tulsa volunteers have been trained by DOC to present victim impact training at Redemption Church.

CIRCLE OF CARE

<http://www.circleofcare.org>

In December 2010, Oklahoma United Methodist Circle of Care was named Organization of the Year by the United Methodist Association of Healthcare Ministries (UMA). This is a national honor, as UMA represents 388 member agencies with more than 354,000 employees.

Circle of Care was also the recipient of a number of individual awards in 2010. Best Practices Coordinator Cindy Ventrella received OK Care’s George Parlier Award, board member Barbara Wright received OK Care’s Humanitarian of the Year award, John and Carla Meeks received the OK Care Certified Child Care Worker award, Lisa and John Beavers were named Area One Foster Parents of the Year, and Laura Strain was Washington County Foster Parent of the Year.

Among the other highlights of 2010:

Total utilization rate for our residential programs was 96 percent.

Our David O. Beal Independent Living and aftercare program served 46 college students in 2010—a huge increase from four in 2006. In addition, the program included another 14 youth who are still in high school but intend to continue their education after graduation. We also follow 54 children who have returned to their homes or their home communities.

Child SHARE averaged 290 children per day in 153 foster homes and 68 adoptive homes. More than 200 children have been adopted by the Child SHARE families since the program's inception.

Our newest foster programs continued to grow. We served seven infants for 178 days in emergency foster care (with several new emergency foster families awaiting approval). We also completed 36 home studies for prospective foster/adoptive families.

Since opening in the fall of 2008, Pearl's Hope in Tulsa has served 40 homeless women with 85 children.

Churches contributed 98 percent in Apportionment support to Circle of Care. We continue to be blessed with such strong support. Despite the tough economy, Circle of Care increased the number of children and youth supported by each of our programs.

As you can see, we have many, many blessings for which to be thankful. Too often, we hear that each day brings another challenge. Let us remember that, in the Oklahoma Conference of The United Methodist Church and its many ministries, each day also brings a blessing. Thank you for all you do for our children, and may God's grace continue to bless you as it does this ministry.

HEALTH AND WELFARE AGENCY REPORTS

CENTRAL OKLAHOMA UNITED METHODIST RETIREMENT FACILITY INC. (Epworth Villa), Oklahoma City <http://www.epworthvilla.com>

Work began in 2010 on the creation of a strategic plan for Epworth Villa retirement community, including the development of new mission and purpose statements. Our mission is "To develop premier, wellness-based campuses and expanded community outreach." Our purpose is "Enhancing lives so people thrive."

Our goals are focused on five areas: Wellness & Culture, Outreach & Expansion, Quality & Compliance, Physical Improvements, and Finance. These five goal areas have corresponding committees made up of staff, residents, and Board members who will work together to reach our strategic objectives.

Epworth Villa, in north Oklahoma City, expanded its services to its residents and the greater community by purchasing Quality Life Hospice in July 2010.

In 2011, we are working toward adding home health services, which will be provided by Quality Life.

Our outreach to the community in 2010 included hosting the AARP Driver Safety Program; sponsoring and participating in the Alzheimer's Association Memory Walk; continuing to provide assistance to residents who have outlived their financial resources in order for them to continue to reside at Epworth Villa; serving as a clinical site for nursing and wellness students; providing resident volunteers internally and in the greater community; providing a space for LifeLine Screenings, Parkinson's Support Group meetings, and Alzheimer's Support Group meetings; collecting soda can tops for the Ronald McDonald House; conducting biannual clothing drives for Skyline Urban Ministry; providing Thanksgiving dinner for our neighborhood firefighters; providing meals for a Meals On Wheels program through two churches; conducting fundraisers for various not-for-profit organizations; and helping to put together care packages for troops overseas.

Residents of Epworth Villa volunteered 14,549 hours of their time inside and outside our community in 2010.

In September, we celebrated our 20th anniversary of providing a superior quality of life for older adults in a Christian environment by hosting several events, which brought many new friends to our community.

Bob Benson submitted his resignation in September 2010, and John C. Harned was hired in December as the president/CEO after a national search. John has a deep passion for serving senior adults and will lead Epworth Villa as we work toward culture change and person-centered care. Angela York joined Epworth Villa in December 2010 as vice president of Operations and has begun the process of changing the culture of our nursing program from an institutional model to a more home-like model by using the Eden Alternative concept. Harry Birdwell joined Epworth Villa in January 2011 as vice president of Development and Marketing.

To learn more about Epworth Villa and what it has to offer, visit our website at www.epworthvilla.com or in person at 14901 N. Pennsylvania Ave. in Oklahoma City.

OKLAHOMA METHODIST MANOR TULSA, OKLAHOMA <http://www.ommtulsa.org>

In the spirit of Christ, the mission of Oklahoma Methodist Manor (OMM) is to improve the quality of life for seniors by providing housing, nutrition, and health care services that meet the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of each member.

The Manor offers nearly 300 persons various lifestyle options, including private residences (six Lakeside Homes, 42 Patio Homes, 33 Villas, and 27 Felt House apartments); 41 assisted-living apartments in the Holliman Living Center; and 84 accommodations in the Skilled Licensed Health Center at OMM.

The Manor Volunteer Partners (MVPs), begun in 2008, continues to play a vital role in life at Oklahoma Methodist Manor. Nearly 100 MVPs provide volunteer services in a variety of places, including visiting in the Health Center, staffing the Gathering Shop and the Bargain Basement Thrift Shop, running the recycling program, and delivering meals to members experiencing temporary illness. Many MVPs come from area United Methodist churches and discover their volunteer experience to be rewarding and a way of expressing their faith through action.

The Manor provides compassionate, long-term health care in the name of Christ. This includes a commitment to continue extending care when someone outlives financial resources and requires state aid (Medicaid). The financial support provided by United Methodist churches across Oklahoma enables us to assure there will be room at Oklahoma Methodist Manor for residents with adverse financial circumstances. The Supplemental Aid Fund is one source of support for these individuals and, in 2010, 15 people benefited from the fund. Recipients received an average of $8,800 in assistance. Over the past seven years, the Supplemental Aid Fund has served 121 people. In 2010, Oklahoma Methodist Manor provided supplemental aid funding and benevolent care totaling $131,338.

Oklahoma Methodist Manor realized a number of other accomplishments in 2010:

During the year, 130 members lived in the Patio Homes, Lakeside Homes, and Villas.

The Health Center provided nursing care and rehabilitation to 233 individuals, with 146 short-term residents returning home after rehabilitation.

The Holliman Living Center served 66 members. New carpeting was installed in all common areas.

For the fifth consecutive year, the Manor was recognized by Oklahoma Magazine as among "The Best of the Best" in continuous-care facilities.

OMM continued its affiliation agreement with the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine, Department of Family Medicine. This agreement allows physicians in their second and third years of the Family Residency Program to provide medical services to residents in the Health Center, under the supervision of Dr. Arvid Lade, medical director.

As part of OMM's journey of culture change, more than 100 staff members have participated in PersonFirst™ training since its inception. The goal of the training is to teach participants to work together to further develop a feeling of community throughout the OMM campus.

The Marketing and Maintenance Teams completed renovations that enabled 20 new members to move into various Villas, Patio Homes, and Lakeside Homes. Another seven new members moved into the Felt House residences.

CRESTWOOD at Oklahoma Methodist Manor achieved reservations for 88 out of 103 residences.

Bishop Robert Hayes Jr. spoke at the kickoff for the public phase of the LifeTimes Capital Campaign, on June 27, 2010.

Renovation of the Health Center began with a ceremonial demolition of the nurses' station on Nov. 18, 2010.

A $35 million construction loan was secured on Nov. 29, 2010, to finance construction of the Crestwood apartments.

Mayor Dewey Bartlett Jr. presided over the Crestwood groundbreaking on Dec. 2, 2010.

Members of five UM churches in the Tulsa District were invited to provide Christmas gifts for 83 residents in the Health Center and Holliman Assisted Living Center.

Throughout the year, numerous individuals and Sunday school classes provided support for projects to benefit the residents of the OMM community.

Youth groups have performed service projects, and both youths and adults have provided special programs for residential living members as well as assisted living and Health Center residents.

Clark Millsbaugh was recognized by The Oklahoma Association of Homes and Services for the Aging with the 2010 Community Service Award. The award honored Clark's collaboration with Oklahoma Methodist Manor in promoting Certified Nurse Aide training among residents in the Eugene Field Community.

The kindness and generosity of 285 individuals and eight Foundations enabled the campaign to surpass its goal and to raise $8.5 million in support of the Health Center Renovation, Memory Support, and The Spann Wellness Center.

Oklahoma Methodist Manor is grateful for the love and support provided by individuals and churches from across the Oklahoma Conference. Your kindness and generosity enable us to achieve our mission of serving seniors "In the spirit of Christ..."

PROJECT TRANSFORMATION

As we live into our mission of improving childhood literacy in economically challenged neighborhoods, Project Transformation (PT) continues to transform the lives of all involved with this ministry. In the summer of 2010, we were honored to have 462 children enrolled for our reading programs in Oklahoma City, Tulsa, and Bartlesville, with 416 children attending regularly. We are pleased to report that 92 percent of campers who regularly attended Project Transformation in 2010 either improved or sustained their reading levels through the summer!

Lindsey Bryan, our executive director, completed her first year and has done a phenomenal job overseeing the program and raising funds. Though the economy has made fundraising more of a challenge, we still received $138,584 from Americorps, and a total of $58,000 from The George Kaiser Foundation, The Hille Foundation, Petree Foundation, Mission & Service Ministry Team, Sonic Restaurants, Wengener Foundation, and OKACAA Inc.

PT continues to have an impact on the young men and women who spend their summer working as college interns with our campers. For many of these students, this is a profound and eye-opening experience, often their first exposure to low-income communities. These students leave with new appreciation and awareness for the needs of the communities and renewed hearts for service.

In 2010 we were blessed with 1,091 volunteers, serving 10,412 hours at eight churches. In Tulsa, Southern Hills, Aldersgate, and Grace were site churches; First UMC and Oak Park in Bartlesville; and in Oklahoma City, area camps were hosted by Sunny Lane, Chapel Hill, and Moore-First.

2011 is bringing several exciting changes, including expanding to St. Paul's in Muskogee. One of our Tulsa sites will be moving to Wesley UMC, which will be our first site on Tulsa's north side.

In addition to these new sites, our returning sites for 2011 are: First UMC in Bartlesville; Southern Hills and Grace in Tulsa; and Sunny Lane, Chapel Hill, and Moore First in the Oklahoma City area. We are also moving our training week from the Boy's Ranch in Gore to Camp Loughridge in Tulsa.

The mix of children, college students, and church volunteers continues to make Project Transformation one of the most intergenerational ministries in the life of the Church. As we seek to expand and grow to make a difference in the lives of more of Oklahoma's children and their families, we will seek new funding sources in an effort to expand our capacity for ministry.

SKYLINE URBAN MINISTRY
<http://www.skylineurbanministry.org>

Skyline serves those in need with the love of Christ. Skyline believes it is equally important that we minister to all those who want to serve others. It is just as important to give others a place to serve as it is to serve. Doing all we do requires the involvement of large numbers of volunteers from dozens of United Methodist churches in central Oklahoma and other parts of the state.

Volunteers are the lifeblood of our ministry; without them, ministry could not happen. In 2010, a total of 696-plus volunteers logged a total of 14,748 volunteer hours in all areas of our ministry: Clothes Closet, Community Cupboard, Eyeglass Clinic, Alive in Christ on Saturday Night, Clothes for Kids, and Christmas Grace, just to name a few. These volunteer hours are valued at over $248,003. Demand for services to our clients has increased 20 percent in all areas of ministry. In 2010, the Community Cupboard provided food for 7,168 family units, representing 17,206 people. Prime Timers provided more than 15,000 meals to senior citizens, and the Clothes Closet provided clothing for 3,612-plus families. Clothes for Kids provided new school uniforms and school supplies for 1,500 kids. The Eye Clinic provided eye exams for 765 adults and manufactured 583 pairs of glasses, 84 of which were free glasses for children.

Our Jets programs are flourishing under the guidance of the education director, Della Pickens. Some of the students at Oklahoma City University have been volunteering with the Jets programs. There are new site directors at each of the locations. Their visioning and application of new skills have given Skyline a fresh look.

Our Mission Statement, “Mobilizing people of faith to empower the healing of the broken and those in need,” reflects that we continue to serve as a role model to congregations as they seek to serve among the poor in their own communities. Skyline’s goals for 2011 are lofty, but we serve a big God who has big plans for Skyline Urban Ministry. Skyline continues to work diligently to be the hands and feet of Jesus Christ to those in need and to be a place to serve for those who have the desire to serve.

OKLAHOMA VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

<http://www.okvim.org>

The purpose of the Oklahoma Conference Volunteers In Mission (OKVIM) is “to share the love of Christ in ways that make a Christian difference.”

This purpose is clearly and wonderfully lived out in the experiences of thousands of Oklahoma United Methodists who serve each year under the banner of OKVIM. The stories of returning missionaries underline the role that personal faith plays in each mission, and how it continues to contribute to their growth in discipleship. We attempt to capture these stories in the twice-yearly journal, SHARE, comprised of stories written by and about missionaries from all across the state. So-called “ordinary” believers are showing that, under the movement of the Holy Spirit, we can all do extraordinary things for the Kingdom of God!

The ongoing transition of the management of teams by team leaders and not the OKVIM office continues, with much success. The staff of OKVIM remains ready to assist any team leader who requests help, and works especially closely with newly trained team leaders. Now, however, team leaders with the active support of their local church are managing the vast majority of our teams. This has enhanced the understanding that mission is primarily the work of the local church!

A further step in this transition is the proposal to be offered to the Annual Conference that is appended below this report. The proposal both defines the parameters of what is and is not a Short-term Mission team under the auspices of our Oklahoma Conference, and the duties of all involved. While largely technical in nature, the intent of the document is to hold us all to the highest possible standards in conducting mission, thereby ensuring that any liability is minimized.

Your OKVIM office is also responsible for the Disaster Response work of the Oklahoma Conference. After giving much thought to how this ministry can be most effective, it became clear how to proceed once we were able to see how to engage this ministry through the life of the local church. While Disaster Response requires clear planning and coordination at the center (i.e. a conference-related point person and steering committee), a congregational-based model is being developed that will enable each congregation (or cluster of congregations) in our Conference to provide an effective ministry for their church(es) and community. An outline document of what this can look like will be presented to the 2011 Annual Conference.

International travel is clearly becoming more demanding and expensive; the situation on the Mexican border with the USA continues to be challenging; and a slow-to-rebound U.S. economy presents its own issues when churches and individuals allocate their resources. However, OKVIM deeply believes that mission is not an optional extra but, instead, is definitive of the work of the local church. Therefore, it is exciting to witness the ongoing faithfulness of so many to this particular expression of our shared mission, from local to national to global!

OKVIM POLICIES, PROCEDURES AND GUIDELINES REGARDING STMS

A. In General

The following is a brief, summarized outline of OKLAHOMA VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION (“OKVIM”) policies, procedures and guidelines regarding SHORT-TERM MISSIONS (“STM”). It is the intent that these policies provide guidance to member churches of the OKLAHOMA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH (“Conference”) and their congregations when undertaking and planning STMs.

B. OKVIM’s Role

Typically, OKVIM’s role in the STM process in Oklahoma is:

- To facilitate STMs for Conference churches and their congregants;
- To train, and upon successful completion of training, certify STM Team Leaders;
- To provide a list and current information on possible STM sites to Conference churches and their congregants;
- To serve as a liaison between those persons seeking to serve on teams and certified OKVIM Team Leaders;
- To use its best efforts to maximize the STM experience by resourcing Team Leaders in the preparation of their teams for mission service, and reflection (and communicating accomplishments) upon their return from the STM; and
- To facilitate securing insurance coverage for all persons on a registered STM.

OKVIM DOES NOT provide permission for churches to undertake mission, nor does OKVIM mandate Conference churches or their congregants where to serve or what to do on the STM. This decision, at all times, remains left to the Conference churches themselves and between them and their partners in the proposed STM.

C. STMs Defined

To help OKVIM fulfill its roles and to ensure the protection of the Conference, its churches, and their respective congregants who serve in STM, it is critical to define what does and does not constitute a STM. For the purposes of this policy, STMs include two (2) or more persons, one of whom is affiliated with a Conference church or its congregation and whose proposed mission trip meets one of the following criteria:

- Any mission outside of the State of Oklahoma whereby any member of the mission team is required to, or elects to, stay overnight (after 12:00 a.m.); OR
- Any mission inside the State of Oklahoma whereby any member of the mission team is required to, or elects to, stay overnight (after 12:00 a.m.) more than two (2) nights; OR
- Any mission designated by the Director of OKVIM, in writing, as requiring registration with OKVIM.

Missions that ARE NOT STMs include:

- Any mission inside or outside of the State of Oklahoma where no member of the mission team is required to, or elects to, stay overnight (after 12:00 a.m.) [All mission work completed by midnight];
- Any mission inside the State of Oklahoma whereby the mission team is required to, or elects to, stay overnight (after 12:00 a.m.) two (2) nights or fewer [i.e. weekend project]; and/or
- Any mission designated by the Director of OKVIM, in writing, as not a STM requiring registration with OKVIM.
- IF A MISSION TRIP QUALIFIES AS A STM AS ABOVE DEFINED, THE CONFERENCE CHURCH AND ITS LEADERSHIP SHALL ENSURE THAT THE PROPOSED MISSION TEAM “REGISTER” AS FURTHER SPECIFIED IN THIS POLICY.

D. Policy and Procedures for STMs within the Oklahoma Annual Conference

1. ALL STMs must register through the OKVIM office.
 - a. OKVIM will assist any proposed STM team in selecting an appropriate mission site.
 - b. If the proposed STM team has served or is serving a mission project already approved by the General Board of Global Ministries (the global mission agency of The United Methodist Church) and/or OKVIM, nothing more will be required.
 - c. If the mission project selected by the team and/or Conference church is not on the OKVIM list, it will be required that evidence is shown that an invitation has been extended by an entity in the area of intended service (i.e. that this mission is a partnership in mission).
 - d. It is strongly encouraged that all teams make themselves aware of and sensitive to the work of our Methodist family in the area in which they will be serving.
2. The Team Leader shall be trained and certified by OKVIM BEFORE being allowed to lead any mission team.
 - a. All Team Leader training shall be done in person for the initial certification.
 - b. Thereafter, the Team Leader will be recertified every four (4) years or such earlier period as OKVIM’s Director requires.
 - c. This recertification can be done online if Team Leaders have led at least one team during that four (4) year period; if not, they will be required to attend again in person.
 - d. Those who have received training prior to 2006 will be asked to attend training again in person by the end of 2012 because of substantial changes in organizational issues since that time, especially as it pertains to forms, insurance, and Safe Sanctuary issues.
3. All Team Leaders will be required to undergo background checks and show Safe Sanctuary certification.
4. No STM will be considered as being an official Conference / OKVIM team unless the above is fully complied with PRIOR to departure.
 - a. TEAMS NOT considered official BY OKVIM WILL NOT BE COVERED BY CONFERENCE OR OKVIM INSURANCE (domestic or international).
 - b. Such teams, and the Conference churches they represent, will bear the full liability themselves.
5. The minimum requirement of ALL OKVIM Team Leaders is as follows:
 - a. To complete fully and send in a Team Registration Form (mail, fax, or email shall suffice).
 - b. Complete and send in the Team Leaders’ Checklist as contained in the OKVIM Team Leaders’ Training Manual.
 - c. Complete and send in the Team Leaders’ Reflection Form as contained in the same manual upon completion of their STM mission.
6. All first-time Team Leaders will work through the OKVIM office in all the arrangements for their team, unless they can show that they are:
 - a. Assisted by an Oklahoma Conference church with staff who have been determined by OKVIM to have experience in such arrangements; or
 - b. Assisted by an OKVIM certified and experienced Team Leader who will be accompanying them on the team as well as helping in their arrangements.
7. All other Team Leaders may, if they so request, ask the OKVIM office to assist them in the arrangements for their team, but are not obligated to do so.
8. Team Leaders who work through the OKVIM office to arrange their team’s logistics will pay the team arrangement fee.
9. Team Leaders who do the work themselves will only pay the registration fee.

E. Policy and Procedures for GBGM Individual Volunteers

1. For the purposes of this policy, “GBGM Individual Volunteers” are individuals who are trained, certified, and assigned by the General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM).
2. GBGM Individual Volunteers are required to undergo background checks and show Safe Sanctuary certification.

F. This policy shall take effect January 1, 2012.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

What a year it has been in Communications! Technological advances continue at an ever-increasing pace, and our staff has done a wonderful job of using available tools to effectively communicate our Church's story throughout Oklahoma.

For the 2011 Annual Conference:

- Use of video reports has tripled! Ministry reports will be enhanced by the use of about 30 videos this year, resulting in sufficient time for voting in spite of a shortened conference schedule, and providing great tools to share information with churches throughout the year about various Conference ministries. Many of these reports will be used in a new Apportionment video to be developed later in the year.
- Audio statements by lay nominees for General/Jurisdictional Conferences are posted on the Conference website (www.okumc.org), allowing voters to hear directly from those nominees and be better informed.
- Voting will be faster and easier, thanks to a digital voting process that gives instant results. This will enable General/Jurisdictional Conference delegate elections to take place in one day, giving more time to focus on the Oklahoma Conference's ongoing missions and ministries.
- Live streaming will enable people everywhere to participate in Annual Conference via the Internet. Families and friends can watch loved ones being ordained, wherever they may be. (After watching the live streaming of the 2010 conference, one viewer reported he was so impressed that he joined a United Methodist congregation.)
- Our Facebook Fan Page, "Oklahoma United Methodist Communications," will provide timely updates during the voting process and other news summaries as the annual conference continues. This tool has provided a great way to communicate important Oklahoma Conference news throughout the year.

During the past year:

- Stories of God's work throughout our Conference and denomination were shared through 17 issues of the Contact newspaper, in partnership with The United Methodist Reporter. Our newspaper advances the Conference Strategic Plan by sharing ideas and success stories from churches.
- Contact, the Magazine won first-place honors in the United Methodist Association of Communicators' annual national competition and highlighted the personal faith stories of Oklahoma women, children, and youths. Several of these stories were carried nationwide by United Methodist News Service.
- Web conferencing enabled even more groups (including the Cabinet) to effectively meet without the time and expense of traveling across the state.
- Increasing use of Flip cameras has simplified video uploads to OKVideo. Click that link at www.okumc.org and find videos to educate and inspire ... share videos from your church activities, too!
- New graphic logos were created for our United Methodist Ministry Center and the 2012 Jurisdictional Conference.
- Twenty-two new DVD resources became available, including this year's UMW study, in the Media Library. Contact our office to arrange free check-out. To explore all the library's resources, click "Media Library" on the homepage.
- An online training course for Pastor-Parish Relations Committee members (current and prospective) is now available on the Conference website. This is the second e-course to be offered online; training for trustees is also available.
- A Web app (application) for smart-phone viewing of Conference news was created. To load it, look for "Mobile" on the homepage, www.okumc.org.
- Dr. Joe Harris, our director, serves as secretary for the General Commission on Religion and Race, chairs the Communications Committee for the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry Foundation, serves on the Africa University Development Committee, and chairs the community life committee of the Asbury Theological Seminary Board of Trustees. In addition, he has represented and assisted Bishop Hayes as needed and is responsible for the Conference Journal and all voting at Annual Conference.

In the coming year:

- The Conference website will include a comprehensive listing of all Conference training events,

- a resource page for churches, and detailed maps of districts.
- Live streaming will be expanded to other Conference events.
- Training will be offered for churches' communicators, and new e-courses will enhance churches' ministries.
- Online videos featuring Bishop Hayes will invite and inspire church members to participate with him in the 2011-12 Evangelism Initiative. The first video is already posted at www.okumc.org.
- A new DVD will provide valuable information about the ministries supported by your Apportionment giving.
- All United Methodists can enjoy Contact and The UM Reporter in print; a subscription is just $15 per year. And you can sign up online to receive, via e-mail, the free e-newsletter Contact Digest. Call 405-530-2075 or subscribe through the Conference website's "News" link.

As we approach the 2012 General/Jurisdictional Conferences:

With Dr. Joseph Harris co-chairing the Host Committee, we are working hard to prepare for the Jurisdictional Conference, in July 2012 at the Cox Convention Center in downtown Oklahoma City. A video, following the theme "Woven Together for Transformation," will highlight the histories of the Oklahoma Indian Missionary and Oklahoma Conferences.

Related stories will be published regularly, enabling all Oklahoma United Methodists to be informed about global United Methodist issues and interests.

Watch for volunteer hosting opportunities!

DEPARTMENT OF CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

http://www.okumc.org/congregational_development

In recent years, the Oklahoma Conference Department of Congregational Development has focused on its responsibility of starting new United Methodist churches. The most recent wave of new-church starts illustrates this in the following ways.

Chris Dodson was appointed in June 2008 to start a new church in southeast Moore, and the new CrossTimbers UMC held its first worship service on Palm Sunday 2009. The anchor church assisting CrossTimbers in this venture is First UMC of Moore. The new church is currently averaging about 100 in worship, Professions of Faith total 20 people, and active participants include 132 committed adults and 42 children.

In June 2010, two pastors were appointed to begin churches in Edmond. They are Adam Ricks, who receives assistance from anchor church Edmond-Acts 2, and Allen Buck, whose anchor church is OKC-Chapel Hill. Both of these new-church plants are in the "preview stage," where gatherings are held at least monthly with those who have shown interest in a new-church start, usually through contacts made by Adam or Allen.

At the first preview events, Adam Ricks reported more than 200 people attended that gathering for Connect UMC. While some of these were people from Acts 2 showing their support, Adam reported that 80 were not from Acts 2 and that 40 people from Acts 2 are committed to be a part of this new church.

Allen Buck reported there were 81 present at the first preview service for Summit UMC. In addition, Allen reported that a ministry for special-needs children is under way, after he was approached by families seeking a church where they can worship with their special-needs children.

Additional preview services and fellowship events will be held until the first weekly worship services are launched, most likely in the fall of 2011. We think both of our 2010 church plants are doing well, and we are encouraged by the prospects of reaching new people, younger people, and more diverse people for Jesus Christ.

The Department of Congregational Development is also responsible for many churches that are serving ethnic populations. We have a significant presence among the Chinese community in the Oklahoma City metropolitan area, with two congregations established in Edmond and Norman. In the 2010 Journal, Edmond Chinese International UMC, under the leadership of Puong Lau, reports five Professions of Faith and 102 members, with an average weekly attendance of 136. Fuxia Wang, who was recently appointed as a Church and Community Worker through the General Board of Global Ministries, has developed a ministry that reaches 55 people in Norman, with an average weekly attendance of 28.

Our presence in the Korean community is reflected by four Korean churches in Lawton, Oklahoma City, Enid, and Tulsa. They report in the 2010 Journal that they received a combined total of 10 on Profession of Faith and have a combined total of 323 members, with a combined total average weekly attendance of 274.

Our Department also has significant work among the Hispanic community, with four faith communities in Laverne, Heavener, Oklahoma City, and Tulsa. Our Hispanic Committee, under the direction of Chairman Carlos Ramirez, is seeking new ways to minister among our Hispanic communities so we will be more effective in reaching this growing population in Oklahoma.

Our Department also gives scholarship support for potential new-church planters to attend the New Church Leadership Institute held at Mount Sequoyah. We have had 31 promising pastors, two district superintendents, and nine board members attend this training the last few years. We also provide coaches for our new-church pastors, to assist them on the journey of starting a new church.

In addition, our Department provides a church demographic tool called Percept, offered to every church in the Oklahoma Conference.

The Department of Congregational Development is appreciative of the support of the Council on Finance & Administration, which has approved an increase in funding for new-church starts. This amount of funding allows us to support, on an ongoing basis, one new-church start per year.

We are also appreciative of funds that we now receive from the former Racial Ethnic Coordinating Committee. This funding allows us to support more new fellowships/churches among the various racial ethnic groups in our state.

We are hopeful that, through the training and assessment received by those who attend the New Church Leaders Institute, our Cabinet will have a pool of candidates to choose from when starting new churches. With the assistance of anchor churches and other churches that would like to join in this vital movement, we are planning to start at least one new church per year. New churches are essential in our Strategic Plan to reach new people, younger people, and more diverse people for Jesus Christ.

AGENCIES AND TRUSTEE/DIRECTOR REPORTS

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

<http://www.lydiapattersoninstitute.org>

It is my privilege to submit this report to you and to bring greetings and a word of appreciation for the support, prayers, and commitment to the ministry of Lydia Patterson Institute at El Paso, Texas.

Life on the border becomes more difficult by the moment. Lydia Patterson has become more than a place where students receive a strong education and leaders are formed. Today, Lydia Patterson is also a safe haven for students crossing the border, looking for safety from the violence and unrest that plagues the city of Juarez, Mexico.

Although we have been able to maintain our enrollment in the past two years, we have seen a decline from the past years. The reason is obvious. Parents have lost their jobs; consequently, we have had to provide more scholarships than ever before. Parents who might have had a small business, perhaps a taco stand or other modest way of making a living, have had to close down due to threats that they must pay the mob or risk their lives. People are murdered daily. More than 4,000 lives were reported lost last year as the result of the violence across the border. Students at Lydia Patterson have been directly affected. Many have lost parents or other family members. We have buried several former students and comforted many victims of kidnapping.

In 1913, Lydia Patterson opened its doors for the first time to minister to the young children of families crossing the border and fleeing a revolution in Mexico. Families were looking for a safe place for their children and escaping the unrest in our neighboring country. Mrs. Lydia Patterson recognized the need for ministry to these displaced children and began her work in an impoverished neighborhood in El Paso. Almost 100 years later, Lydia Patterson is again serving as a refuge to young children against the threat of daily violence and bloodshed.

Many of our students make a two-hour trip daily to Lydia Patterson. They ride two or more buses from their homes to downtown Juarez. They then cross the international bridge on foot and walk the eight blocks to Lydia Patterson.

One student, when asked about her sentiments as she made this daily trip, stated that she was in fear. She prayed and said that, when she set foot on the American side, she could breathe easily again.

Another student, interviewed by a local TV channel for a special on the work of Lydia Patterson, talked about his fears as well. He talked about the emptiness during the holidays as his family mourned the loss of members who had died due to the violence. He also stated that he prayed a lot, then smiled and said that he still had hope.

Lydia Patterson is more committed than ever to bringing hope to its students. The school continues to equip students with that which can remove them from such a hostile environment: a good education. The spiritual life on our campus strengthens their hope for a future free of threats and injustice. Through our Student Lay Ministry Program, we continue to form leaders for the Church. Students are serving internships in United Methodist churches throughout the United States. Students are graduating from seminaries, and others are making their way to a life in ministry.

In spite of all the challenges, 100 percent of our graduating seniors the last two years have gone on to college. Lydia Patterson Institute, its administrators, faculty, and staff strongly believe the fate of its students is at the heart of our ministry.

I invite you to visit our new Web page and learn about how you are already a part of this ministry by virtue of your relationship to your church, the Oklahoma Conference, and the South Central Jurisdiction. I encourage you to visit our campus in El Paso and personally experience the life of ministry with direct interaction with our students.

We welcome work teams, mission groups, agency meetings, and personal visits. In great contrast to Juarez, by national standards El Paso is the safest city of its size in which to live. We hope to see you here soon, and please keep our students in your daily prayers.

MOUNT SEQUOYAH CONFERENCE AND RETREAT CENTER

Fayetteville, AR

<http://www.mountsequoyah.org>

What was accomplished and celebrated at Mount Sequoyah in 2010?

- A fresh look for the campus at Fayetteville, Ark., was accomplished by rebuilding the roadbeds and walking paths.
- A new “Friends of the Mountain” giving program resulted in increased private donations and new donors.
- A fantastic revision of the website has been done. We are truly a click away at: www.mountsequoyah.org.

It has been quite a year... the toughest year economically in the past six years. We have experienced facility use decrease of 26 percent from projected budget expectations, and 18 percent less facility income than in 2009. God continues to bless the ministries of Mount Sequoyah. Facility revenue expectations have already improved for 2011.

What is occurring in 2011 and 2012?

- New Church Leadership Institute (NCLI)
- New Church Pastor Assessment, Boot Camp, Senior Track & Basic Track
- Epworth League Institute
- Small Church Leadership Institute
- Military Kids Operation
- Intergenerational Ministry Summit
- SCJ Parish Nursing
- iGo Green Famcation Caring for Creation
- Interim Ministers Training Phases 1 & 2
- UM Studies School
- SCJ Disaster Response Academy
- Older Adult Ministry
- Addiction Response: focus on older adult prescription abuse and gambling

Where do you, your congregation, your district, your conference, and your jurisdiction fit into this ministry? Mount Sequoyah continues to be that place of “tranquility above the city,” a conference and retreat center for visioning work by The United Methodist Church and others. The center is a place to inspire our minds, claim our calling, and renew our spirits while training leaders in coaching skills and other proven ways to effectively meet leadership challenges. We offer learning methods to motivate and inspire congregations to be better disciples, offer spiritual direction, and share best practices from across the South Central Jurisdiction.

OKLAHOMA CONFERENCE OF CHURCHES

<http://www.okchurches.org>

The Oklahoma Conference of Churches (OCC) connects, motivates, and empowers the witness of Christian communities and individuals throughout Oklahoma on issues of faith and social justice. OCC is comprised of 16 denominations, including the Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church / Oklahoma Missionary Conference.

Day at the Legislature

OCC's best-known and most successful program is the “Day at the Legislature.” This program was held, for the 28th time, on Feb. 14, 2011, at the State Capitol. Keynote speakers David Blatt (director, Oklahoma Policy Institute) and Janet Barresi (Oklahoma State Superintendent of Public Instruction) respectively addressed poverty and education in Oklahoma.

IMPACT

Poverty and Education are two of the five issues on which OCC's IMPACT Committee has written theological statements. The other issues are Immigration, Criminal Justice and Corrections, and the Environment. IMPACT monitors legislation on these issues and, where appropriate, engages in some response.

At the “Day at the Legislature,” Stan Basler summarized the bills IMPACT is tracking. The Heads of Communion group, which includes Bishop Robert Hayes Jr., is working on ways in which the churches can co-operate more closely to address relevant issues connected with such legislation.

Worship

OCC conducted two ecumenical worship services in connection with The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity in 2011: Tulsa (Jan. 23) and Oklahoma City (Jan. 25).

Cooperation

OCC's Aging Ministry Committee and Rural Community Care Committee are currently developing new initiatives to facilitate cooperation among participating denominations and local congregations in programs of worship, education, and action that enrich the lives of the elderly and those in disadvantaged rural communities.

Religions United

OCC also brings together people from different religious traditions to learn about each other and to engage in collaborative action. The Religions United Committee is conducting a Peace Conference in the spring and a fall Youth Tour of houses of worship.

Network of Representatives

OCC is currently pursuing funding options to enable the establishment of a Social Justice Witness Representatives Network. The ultimate goal is to have one representative in each of the 1,250 local congregations in Oklahoma that belong to the OCC's 16 constituent denominations, with an initial goal of at least 200 representatives by the end of 2011. Regional cluster meetings will be held in 2011 throughout Oklahoma to recruit and train volunteer representatives.

National Workshop on Christian Unity

OCC is privileged to have been asked to host the National Workshop on Christian Unity in Oklahoma City in 2012. The NWCU is a huge event with hundreds of ecumenists coming from all over North America and elsewhere to hear world-renowned keynote speakers and to participate in workshops.

THE OKLAHOMA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION INC.

<http://www.okumf.org>

The Oklahoma United Methodist Foundation serves Oklahoma United Methodist congregations, institutions, and ministries by encouraging stewardship, fostering planned giving, promoting endowment formation, and managing funds and assets to strengthen and support the important work of Christ's Church.

The Foundation's investment committee continues to work diligently in monitoring our portfolio asset allocations and investment returns. Our investment philosophy focuses on long-term, conservative strategies we feel have the best opportunity to meet the funding needs of all the ministries we support and serve.

In 2010 we offered two trainings for Equip, our newest program helping churches better address debt and financial literacy. The program uses Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University (FPU) to help our churches and congregations become debt-free and learn the importance of financial freedom. We had more than 50 churches attend the training and more than 1,000 families take part in FPU classes at their United Methodist churches last year.

More than 30 churches are currently participating in our Planting Seeds program. Planting Seeds is a quarterly promotional program helping churches grow and promote their permanent endowment fund. We believe Planting Seeds will help our churches increase awareness about their permanent endowment fund as well as help educate church members about planned and estate giving.

Glenn and Ronnie Cox of Bartlesville received the 2010 Jim Egan Legacy Award. Glenn has served as a Foundation trustee for more than 20 years and chaired the Board of Trustees for five years during that time. He and Ronnie generously give their time and resources to many organizations in the Bartlesville community as well as to Central Methodist University in Fayette, Mo.; the Foundation's Trustees Endowment Fund; and their local church. The Jim Egan Legacy Award honors persons who exemplify the generosity and dedication to United Methodist causes as shown by the late Jim Egan.

Cara Nicklas joined our Board of Trustees in October as a member of the investment committee. Cara is a member of St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Oklahoma City.

We are also pleased to announce our newest staff member: Dale Levy of Bartlesville. Dale will work with churches in the eastern part of the state to implement a wills and legacies emphasis in the local church.

We want to thank Annual Conference delegates and each of our donors and trustees for their support. Because of the faithful donors who have given so generously in the past, the ministries of our Conference are made more effective and vibrant. Endowments create long-term viability for our ministries and, simply stated, many would not exist today without the generosity and foresight of donors many years ago.

NEIGHBORHOOD SERVICES ORGANIZATION

<http://www.nso-mi.org>

In 1920, a group of Methodist women joined together to help Oklahoma City's poorest families. Today, Neighborhood Services Organization (NSO) helps some 72,000 people a year. Our mission is to be a faith-based organization serving the at risk and homeless population by providing housing solutions and teaching skills to transform lives.

Our 90th year, 2010, was a banner year. New initiatives helped us expand capacity and prepare us for our second century of service. Highlights follow:

- NSO had the grand opening of Palo Duro II, a $1.4 million project, consisting of permanent assistive living apartments for 14 homeless adults with mental illnesses.
- NSO secured a record number of grants from private and public funders, thus expanding our support base.
- One of those grants allowed NSO to purchase and begin using a database to better track and organize our volunteers and donors.
- The Delta Dental of Oklahoma Oral Health Foundation expanded its sponsorship of our Low-Cost Dental Clinic.
- Another grant paid for uniform and durable furniture for the Carolyn Williams Transitional Living Center, a home for young men who have aged out of foster care or are otherwise homeless.
- NSO's new partnership with the University of Oklahoma Dental College allowed us to begin offering free dental screenings at our Low-Cost Dental Clinic. Screenings receive media coverage, increasing the public exposure of NSO.
- Another new grant from the City allowed NSO to provide an emergency 90-day shelter program within the Carolyn Williams Center.
- Executive Director Stacey Ninness was named an Oklahoma City "40 Under 40" from OKCBiz Magazine.
- Response Magazine for United Methodist Women featured an article about the Palo Duro program.
- Leadership OKC's Leadership Action Program selected NSO as the project its members most wanted to help by volunteering to help organize the OKC Hungryman Marathon.

As we enter the new year, NSO is poised for even more growth, such as:

- In preparation for a capital campaign, we have worked with an architect to complete the conceptual phase of a new building, as our current building is nearly 100 years old and is suffering structural damage from a new highway under construction a few yards away.
- The NSO Board of Directors and constituents are completing a new strategic plan, setting a path for reaching new goals and initiatives.
- NSO's first fundraising event will take place in May 2011. The OKC Hungryman Marathon will pull together area restaurants that will serve food to marathon relay teams across the city.
- With an anticipated grant from the City of Oklahoma City through HUD, NSO will be able to implement a formal follow-up program for our transitional living residents.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

at Southern Methodist University, Dallas

<http://www.smu.edu/perkins.aspx>

A. Major accomplishments

Perkins School of Theology is "a community devoted to theological study and to teaching in the service of the church of Jesus Christ ... to prepare women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry" (Perkins Catalog).

A vital affirmation of our mission occurred in 2010, when the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) renewed our accreditation for another 10 years.

B. Opportunities, plans, and challenges

1. Faculty. We are committed to enhancing diversity.
 - At the rank of associate professor, we have achieved gender equity, with exactly the same number of women as men ranked as tenured associate professors;
 - Among our tenured professors, approximately one-third are identified as ethnic minority or non-white—which means that, in ethnicity, the faculty is leading the diversification of the school even more rapidly than the student body.
2. Facilities. New construction and extensive renovations have made Perkins' facilities fully accessible and LEED-certified. With sufficient pledges on hand to cover construction and renovation costs, the critical task of collecting the dollars pledged continues.
3. Formative scholarship. Approximately one-third of all SMU doctoral degrees in Spring 2010 went to students from the Graduate Program in Religious Studies (GPRS). This cooperative program of Perkins and SMU's Dedman College has long been the highest-rated Ph.D. program at SMU.

A strategic goal is to secure permanent endowments to support adequate GPRS student stipends.

Other events of note in the GPRS:

- Perkins is now a charter member of the Hispanic Theological Initiative Consortium.
 - The GPRS welcomed its first doctoral candidate funded through a Luce grant to the Center for the Study of Latino/a Christianity and Religions.
4. Finances. In 2010-12, each unit of SMU must absorb significant budget reductions. The first of those three years included a cut of about 2.2 percent. We expect similar cuts in each of the next two years, resulting in total reductions of about 6.7 percent.
 5. Enrollment. Recent ATS data indicate that total enrollment for the M.Div. degree has declined by about 5 percent. Nevertheless, in the fall of 2010 we recruited an entering master's class 27 percent larger than the one in 2009. Additionally, counting persons enrolled in our Singapore cohort, we have 15 new D.Min. students this year. We will need the commitment of our friends and partners to the ongoing task of recruiting outstanding students.

C. Conclusion

While challenges remain, the state of our school is strong. We are deeply appreciative of our partners throughout the connection who continue to support and strengthen us in our mission.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

Dallas, Texas

<http://www.smu.edu>

As Southern Methodist University in Dallas celebrates the centennial of its founding in 1911 by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and its opening in 1915, the university continues to rise in national prominence.

Highlights of the past year:

SMU's total Fall 2010 enrollment was 10,938, including 6,192 undergraduates, 3,372 graduate students, and 1,374 professional (theology and law) students. Ethnic minority enrollment makes up 22.6 percent of the student body.

"SMU Unbridled: The Second Century Campaign," launched in 2008, is the largest fund-raising effort in the university's history, with a goal of $750 million. Gifts to date have exceeded $464 million, providing funds for 211 new scholarships; 17 new endowed academic positions; 12 new institutes, centers, and other academic initiatives; support for two schools and one academic department; and 13 new or renovated facilities.

SMU's Dallas campus has grown to 90 buildings and 230 acres. In 2010, SMU dedicated the new Caruth Hall, in the Bobby B. Lyle School of Engineering, and the Annette Caldwell Simmons Hall, home of the Annette Caldwell Simmons School of Education and Human Development. Construction has begun on the George W. Bush Presidential Center, consisting of a library, museum, and independent institute. The Center is expected to open in early 2013.

The new Hunter and Stephanie Hunt Institute for Engineering and Humanity, in Bobby B. Lyle School of Engineering, pairs technological innovation with business collaboration to improve conditions for the global poor.

The Embrey Human Rights Program is one of the fastest growing programs at SMU, with 179 students working toward a human rights minor. An important component of the program is travel to worldwide sites of major human rights abuses.

News of Perkins School of Theology at SMU:

SMU's Graduate Program in Religious Studies is ranked in the top 10 of doctoral programs in theology and religion in North America.

Enrollment of students seeking master's degrees in Perkins is up in 2010-11, with the entering class 27 percent larger than the previous year.

In 2010, Perkins celebrated the 50th anniversary of its Master of Sacred Music program, with alumni gathering on campus from across the country and beyond.

Through a new Doctor of Ministry program in cooperation with Trinity Theological Seminary in Singapore, Perkins faculty will teach in Singapore and students from that region will study at Perkins.

The denomination's General Board of Higher Education awarded a grant to Perkins to expand its theological training for Latin American pastors in the Methodist tradition.

SMU treasures its Methodist heritage. We ask your continued prayers and support as the university moves forward in the coming year.

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Oklahoma City University
2501 N Blackwelder
Oklahoma City OK 73106

Kansas City Campus
5123 East Truman Rd
Kansas City MO 64127

Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary of The United Methodist Church, with two campuses: a freestanding seminary campus in Kansas City, Mo., and a university partnership seminary on the campus of Oklahoma City University.

During the 2010-11 academic year, 42 students were enrolled in the Master of Divinity program at Saint Paul at OCU, including students from Arkansas and Kansas. Course of Study classes are scheduled to begin at the OCU campus in the fall of 2011. At Saint Paul in Kansas City, 214 students from 26 annual conferences, 24 denominations, and seven countries were enrolled in degree programs.

Saint Paul at OCU will celebrate its first commencement convocation in August 2011. The first graduating class of Master of Divinity students will be hooded in a special ceremony on Aug. 19 in the Bishop W. Angie Smith Chapel on the OCU campus, with Bishop Robert E. Hayes Jr. preaching. Each graduate will have completed 90 hours of study.

In December 2010, Saint Paul at OCU hosted a gentle roast of Bishop Hayes to raise funds for the "Bishop Robert E. Hayes Jr. Seminary Scholarship." Through the generosity of many in the Oklahoma Area, the event raised some $65,000 to support Oklahoma students who are attending Saint Paul at OCU.

Saint Paul at OCU held its first LEAD seminar in October 2010, its second LEAD seminar in February 2011, and completed the third in the series in April 2011. All were held on the OCU campus. The seminars covered topics to improve and strengthen ministerial leadership and were well attended. LEAD is a collaborative educational project of the Oklahoma Area of The United Methodist Church, OCU, the Oklahoma United Methodist Foundation, and Saint Paul.

A Doctor of Ministry cohort track focusing on Revitalizing Congregations is slated to begin in Kansas City in January 2012. It will focus on biblical preaching, vibrant and meaningful worship, visionary leadership, diverse communities, social justice, and contextual ministry. The D.Min. track relates directly to the United Methodist Council of Bishops initiatives (the “Four Foci”) for the Church. Admissions are ongoing, and applications can be obtained online.

Saint Paul School of Theology is grateful for your support and prayers as we educate leaders to make disciples for Jesus Christ, renew the church, and transform the world!

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

<http://scj.umportal.org>

The 19th session of the South Central Jurisdictional Conference will begin on Wednesday evening, July 18, 2012, in Oklahoma City.

The conference will actually span July 17 through 21, with committee meetings on the 17th and 18th, and the opening worship and memorial service on the evening of the 18th at St. Luke’s UMC in Oklahoma City. Delegates and alternates are expected ... visitors are welcome.

There will be 256 delegates, plus alternates, from the eight states (15 annual conferences) that comprise the South Central Jurisdiction. The number of delegates will be 40 fewer than in 2008, due to additional delegates assigned to the Central Conferences (outside the U.S.). That means it will take 154 votes, if all delegates are present and voting, and all ballots are valid, to elect a new bishop.

The Jurisdictional Conference will be held near the Bricktown area of Oklahoma City, a great place for family fun. The location also will provide ample eating venues for delegates and friends.

The Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference and the Oklahoma Conference, co-hosts of the Jurisdictional Conference, along with Bishop Robert Hayes Jr., resident bishop, invite you to be in Oklahoma City in July 2012.

We thank you for your continued support of these jurisdictional entities: Lydia Patterson Institute, Mount Sequoyah Conference and Retreat Center, the Wesley Foundation at Southern Methodist University, and the Jurisdictional Administrative Office.

BOARD OF CHURCH & SOCIETY

RESOLUTION FOR A CALL TO CIVILITY

WHEREAS, Call to Civility: "Civility is more than a rule for polite conduct. It is a way of life formed around values that unite rather than divide." These words of Will Rogers are no less true today than when he said them during the Great Depression. In today's highly polarized cultural environment, incivility has become systemic, spreading corrosively like a cancer in our communities, our nation, and the body politic. As persons of faith it is our individual as well as corporate responsibility to call for and to embody the civility reflective of the Gospel values that unite us.

THEREFORE, we call upon all United Methodists, clergy and laity, to act as agents of peace, tolerance, and mutual respect for all persons, while still encouraging and participating in vigorous and passionate dialogue about issues. Further, every United Methodist is called upon to challenge with civility, meekness, humility and love, those persons and media that promote hate, fear, misinformation, and lies. Civility is the currency of civilization, of community. Civility is not an issue of ideology or political affiliation; it is an issue at the core of our Gospel faith.

Oklahoma Annual Conference

STANDING RULES AND STRUCTURE OF THE OKLAHOMA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

STANDING RULES

I. ORGANIZATION

A. ANNUAL CONFERENCE

1. In accordance with The Book of Discipline (§ 32) the Annual Conference shall include the following lay members in order to equalize lay and clergy representation: the lay leaders; the District Lay Leaders, Conference presidents of United Methodist Men and United Methodist Women; laypersons who hold any of the following offices; director of Communications, Conference treasurer, United Methodist Foundation president, Circle of Care director, president of Oklahoma City University, Adult chair(s) of the Conference Council on Youth Ministry, the director of Connectional Ministries; and co-chairpersons of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry; lay chairpersons of Annual Conference councils, boards, commissions, committees; the lay members from Oklahoma who serve on General Church boards and agencies, lay delegates for the current General Conference; president of the conference youth organization; chairperson of the Oklahoma United Methodist Student Movement; and two active young church members from each district, one who is between ages twelve (12) and seventeen (17) and one who is between ages eighteen (18) and (30). Each charge served by more than one clergy shall be entitled to as many lay members as there are clergy members. Lay members shall have been members of The United Methodist Church for two (2) years prior to election and shall have been active participants in The United Methodist Church at least four years prior to election (The Book of Discipline, ¶ 602.4).

Should the total number of lay members, both elected and ex-officio, still be fewer than the number of clergy members, the difference shall be proportionately distributed among the districts. That proportion shall be based on the total number of pastoral charges, in each district, which have two or more churches. District Superintendents shall assign these additional openings to be filled by members elected by churches otherwise without lay representation.

2. At the first session of the Annual Conference following a General Conference, the lay and clergy members shall elect a Secretary and a Statistician to serve for the quadrennium. The Secretary shall nominate Assistant Secretaries for election.

3. A Pre-Conference Workbook shall be edited, published, and mailed to the members at least fifteen (15) days prior to convening the Annual Conference. The Director of Connectional Ministries shall produce the workbook in cooperation with the Council on Finance and Administration.

4. The Treasurer shall be elected at the first Annual Conference session following the General Conference and in accordance with the provisions of The Book of Discipline.

5. The fiscal and programming year of the Annual Conference shall be January 1 to December 31.

6. The Cabinet, Treasurer, and Statistician will establish a deadline each year for delivery of all Local Church year-end reports to the offices of the Treasurer and Statistician. The method and manner of gathering this information shall be the responsibility of each district's superintendent. Reports shall be made in the format prescribed by the Treasurer and the Statistician.

7. Each district's superintendent shall, by January 31, deliver a list to the Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services that reports who are the Lay Members and Alternate Lay Members of the Annual Conference.

8. District Superintendents shall furnish to the Director of Communications copies of obituaries for clergy members, their spouses, and diaconal ministers, to be printed in the Memorial Worship Bulletin and the Journal.

9. District Superintendents shall report immediately the death of any person with a claim on the Conference, as listed in the Journal, to the Treasurer or Pension Benefits Officer.

10. There shall be an Agenda Committee to plan and arrange the agenda for the Annual Conference session. The committee members shall be: the presiding bishop (who shall chair the committee), dean of the Cabinet, host pastor and host District Superintendent(s) for the approaching session, Conference Secretary, Director of Connectional Ministries, Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services, Director of Communications/Assistant to the Bishop, Conference Lay Leader, and others as may be necessary to plan the session.

B. DISTRICT CONFERENCE

1. A District Conference shall be held annually on call of the superintendent. It shall be composed of these people from within that district: all clergy, (elders, deacons, provisional members, associate members, retired, supernumerary, and local pastors); the deaconesses and home missionaries; diaconal ministers; the lay leaders from each church; the presidents of United Methodist Women and United Methodist Men from each church; the district trustees; the District Lay Leader and any associate District Lay Leaders; the lay member(s) of the Annual Conference from each charge; the district president of United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, and Youth Ministries Council; the district representatives to the Conference Council on Youth Ministries; the chairperson(s) of the United Methodist Student Movement or its equivalent within the district; the district mission secretary; the district communications officer, the district representative to the Conference Department of Congregational Development, the district chairpersons of Mission and Service, Discipleship Ministries, Leadership Development Ministries, stewardship and finance, and age-level coordinators; the district Camps representative, and other as determined by the District Conference or Annual Conference.

2. There may be a District Council or equivalent leadership structure in each district, with its membership determined by the District Conference. The District Conference shall also determine what other entities are needed to do the work of the district, taking care to fulfill the mandates of The Book of Discipline. Vacancies in the membership of the District Council may be filled by the District Superintendent in consultation with the District Nominations Committee.

C. GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL ELECTIONS

1. It is the intention of the Oklahoma Annual Conference that the Conference nominate and elect a diverse delegation, laity and clergy. Diversity of race, age, ethnicity, and gender strengthen the delegation and invigorate and empower the Church.

2. Elections of Clergy Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference shall be by secret ballot, without nomination.

3. At the Annual Conference Session preceding an election year, the Board of Laity shall provide voting guidelines in its report, for approval by that conference.

4. By December 15, the Conference Secretary shall provide to each district's superintendent a list of ex-officio members and the number of equalization members for that district, as well as a reminder to superintendents to send out meeting notices.

5. The election of Lay Delegates to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference shall include steps that identify and provide information about qualified nominees, including:

A. The Standing Rule on Lay Elections

1. Rationale of the Standing Rule

The District Nominating Assembly is key to inclusiveness in nominating Lay Delegates to stand for election to General and Jurisdictional Conferences. This assembly designates up to ten (10) nominees for consideration by the Annual Conference. This assembly is called by the District Superintendent—in consultation with the District Lay Leader—and must meet during January of the election year. It is a “representative assembly.” The participants must be lay members/alternate members of the Annual Conference, plus any layperson who is an elected district officer, chairperson, president, or coordinator of a district function, as described in I.B.1 (District Conference). This provision presumes there are leaders in the district structure who are familiar with prospective nominees. It is the District Superintendent’s responsibility, with the assistance of the District Lay Leader, to invite to the assembly the lay members/alternate lay members of the Annual Conference and the district representatives, as noted. To assure fair consideration of each potential nominee, those who cast votes at the District Nominating Assembly shall be limited to lay members/alternate lay members of the Annual Conference and properly recognized district representatives, as noted above.

2. Avoiding manipulation of the process

If the District Nominating Assembly is limited to lay members, alternate lay members, and other district representatives, this will assure fair process and prevent ineligible persons from voting on the district’s nominees. A bar shall be established by the District Superintendent, separating those eligible to vote from those present to observe the assembly.

3. Credentials

The District Superintendent shall conduct a credentials check at the assembly, to ensure the voting eligibility of participants. If this step is omitted, then the meeting is an invitation to problems. Invitations sent by the District Superintendent and District Lay Leader also shall be carefully written and addressed to conform with this Standing Rule.

B. Preparations for the District Nominating Assembly

1. Proper mailing list

The District Superintendent must have an accurate mailing list of all lay members/alternate lay members of the Annual Conference and district representatives.

2. Scheduling time and place of meeting

This January meeting shall be held no later than the middle of that month. Thus, if severe winter weather causes postponement, the meeting can be rescheduled for a later date in that same month.

This meeting should not be scheduled at the same time as the Local Church Leader Workshop. Scheduling any district meeting jointly with this Nominating Assembly appears to extend invitations to people ineligible to participate and injects potential error and controversy in this very important process. This assembly occurs only once every four years in a district’s schedule and deserves careful consideration and compliance with this Standing Rule.

3. District Lay Leader Preparation for the Nominating Assembly

The District Lay Leader should assist the District Superintendent in preparing the letter inviting participants to this assembly. They should set a January date and a convenient location for all participants. The letter should be mailed no later than Dec. 15, to provide sufficient advance notice. The letter should contain an outline of the process, signed by the District Superintendent and District Lay Leader. A reminder notice should be sent in late December or early January.

C. District Nominating Assembly Agenda and Procedure

1. Attendee roster

A roster shall be available to collect the signatures of the participants and to designate each one's official capacity as a lay member/alternate lay member or district representative.

2. Prayer for meeting

The District Superintendent will remind the participants at the assembly of the meeting's serious purposes and will pray for the Holy Spirit's guidance in the deliberations.

3. Requirements and considerations for nominees

a. The District Superintendent will furnish information that describes the necessary qualifications for nominees as required by the Book of Discipline. For example: According to the Book of Discipline (§36 Article V), nominees are required to possess two (2) years of membership and four (4) years of active participation in a church in this Conference.

b. A copy of this Standing Rule should be available for inspection by those attending the assembly.

c. All nominees must be willing and available to attend several delegation meetings in addition to the General/Jurisdictional Conference to which they are elected, including:

aa. The first delegation meeting immediately follows adjournment of the Annual Conference Session in Oklahoma City. The delegation will elect a chairperson and co-chairperson at that time. Other officers will be elected later.

bb. There will be six (6) or more delegation meetings, in Tulsa and Oklahoma City, beginning in the summer of the year of election, and continuing on a monthly or bimonthly basis through the time of the General Conference and up to the Jurisdictional Conference.

cc. During the same calendar year designated for the General/Jurisdictional Conferences, nominees must be available for a maximum of twelve (12) consecutive days in spring to attend the General Conference, and for five (5) or six (6) consecutive days in summer to attend the South Central Jurisdictional Conference.

4. Instructions for the District Nominating Assembly

a. The District Superintendent shall open the meeting for nominations from the floor only, and names of potential delegates shall be displayed clearly for all participants.

b. The District Superintendent shall determine the order for presentation of biographical sketches. Each participant who makes a nomination will present a biographical sketch of the nominee, with specific information on that person's experience, current role, activities, and likelihood of attendance at all meetings of the delegation and of the conference(s).

5. Selection of nominees

After all nominations, comments, and discussions are completed, the credentialed voters in the assembly must make decisions and select nominees. If fewer than ten (10) people are nominated, a show of hands is a suitable method of election. If there are more than ten (10) potential nominees, a written ballot should be taken, to establish the ten (10) nominees and preserve the integrity of the process.

6. If possible, at least three (3) reserve nominees also should be selected by the assembly, to take the place of any nominee who is or becomes unable to serve. The District Lay Leader will replace a nominee whose name is thus withdrawn with a reserve nominee, in order of election.

D. Procedures Following the District Nominating Assembly

1. The District Lay Leader shall send a letter to each nominee, requesting confirmation of that person's willingness to stand for election (and serve if elected) and also completion and submission of the Lay Nominee Form and an accompanying photo. If the form and photo are not received within two (2) weeks after the assembly, the District Lay Leader will personally contact the nominee to obtain these materials.

2. The Lay Nominee Form and photo must be received no later than February 21 by the District Superintendent, in order to submit them no later than February 28 to the United Methodist Ministry Center, for reproduction in the "Lay Nominees Booklet".

E. Procedures at Annual Conference relating to potential nominees not in the “Lay Nominees Booklet”

1. Only those people identified in the “Lay Nominees Booklet” will be introduced at the election-year Annual Conference Laity Session.

2. Other than the “Lay Nominees Booklet”, no additional biographical information may be presented, by direct or indirect reference, prior to the Annual Conference Session or from the floor. Pursuant to the Discipline, election and balloting shall occur without any oral or written nominations, speeches, or debates. Printed materials shall neither be distributed at the door nor on the floor of the Annual Conference Session on behalf of any nominee or write-in candidate. Buttons, badges, or other campaign material are also prohibited. Each nominee shall be given a badge or ribbon, indicating his or her status as a nominee, to wear during the Annual Conference Session.

3. The presiding bishop is asked to directly reprimand any effort at nominating, campaigning, speeches, or distribution of materials at the door or on the floor.

4. Upon receiving five (5) or more votes in balloting, any person who has not previously submitted a Lay Nominee Form must immediately obtain one from the Conference Lay Leader, complete the form, and return it before the next ballot is taken. Copies will not be duplicated for distribution unless the nominee does so at his or her expense.

F. Balloting for Lay Delegates shall be open to all eligible lay persons.

G. When the results of the first lay ballot are announced, a printed list of those results shall be furnished to each lay member. That list will show the sixty (60) laypersons with the highest vote totals, in descending order of votes received, and the total votes for each of them.

H. When the results of the first clergy ballot are announced, a printed list of those results shall be furnished to each clergy member. That list will show the sixty (60) clergypersons with the highest vote totals, in descending order of votes received, and the total votes for each of them.

I. After announcing and distributing the first balloting results for lay and clergy, the presiding bishop shall not read the names and number of those receiving five (5) or fewer votes on any subsequent ballot.

D. PROCEDURES (Annual Conference Session)

1. Roll call shall be by registration.

2. Each Annual Conference Session shall determine its Standing Rules in keeping with the Book of Discipline (§ 605), and shall otherwise be governed by Robert's Rules of Order.

3. Each report in the Pre-Conference Workbook (Reports of Boards and Committees) shall be in two sections. Section “A” shall succinctly explain matters requiring action by the Annual Conference. Section “B” shall include general information not requiring action.

4. The Conference Secretary shall be authorized to edit and prepare for publication the minutes of the Annual Conference. The Conference Secretary is responsible for the publication and distribution of the Journal, in accordance with the Book of Discipline (§ 606).

5. Reports and papers not in the hands of the Conference Secretary within fifteen (15) days after the final day of the Annual Conference shall be excluded from the Journal.

6. Motions that request funds not included in the proposed budget submitted by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration shall be referred first to that council for its consideration and recommendation. Absent a favorable recommendation by that council, such a motion shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Annual Conference for approval.
7. All action items in the Pre-Conference Workbook or in the Legislative Packet shall be considered in the hands of the Body—available to be acted upon at any time.
8. Any motion or resolution not in the Pre-Conference Workbook or the Legislative Packet shall not be considered by the Body until that item lays on the table for 24 hours. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Body is required to suspend this rule.
9. Any motion or petition submitted by an individual or church to the Annual Conference Session must be received by March 1 for consideration. Such a proposal shall be referred first to the appropriate Conference council, board, or committee assigned to related matters. If that group denies the motion or petition, the Annual Conference may be asked to suspend and permit the petition to be heard. If the rules are suspended by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote, the petition shall lay on the table for 24 hours before being considered. The Conference group that originally denied the motion or petition shall present the group's recommendation when that item reaches the floor. This rule does not apply to motions properly before the Annual Conference (those from the Pre-Conference Workbook, the Legislative Packet, or recommended for approval by an agency of the Annual Conference).
10. If an action is approved by the Annual Conference, it shall be the responsibility of the Annual Conference Council, the Council on Finance and Administration, or the Conference Secretary—unless otherwise assigned by the Annual Conference—to monitor for assurance of compliance with that decision. The monitoring group shall report its findings to the Annual Conference.

II. CONFERENCE NOMINATING PROCEDURES

A. QUADRENNIAL LEADERSHIP

1. There shall be a Conference Committee on Nominations consisting of the following: each district's superintendent and lay leader (or designee); the Conference Lay Leader, the Conference presidents of the United Methodist Men and United Methodist Women, and representatives from Religion and Race, Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW), and Young Adult Ministry Council; a youth chosen by the CCYM, and two (2) at-large clergy and lay members to insure balance of representation. The Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services, Director of Connectional Ministries, and Director of Communications/Assistant to the Bishop shall be ex-officio, with voice but not vote.
2. The chairperson of the Committee on Nominations shall be named by the bishop and may be clergy or laity. The quadrennial boards, commissions, ministry teams, departments, and committees shall elect their officers within thirty (30) days after the first Annual Conference Session that follows a General Conference. Election of officers shall be preceded by a time of orientation about the work of the entity. The election shall be conducted by a District Superintendent, or their designee, and shall be by secret ballot, following nominations from the floor. Organizing the entities and appointing any needed additional leaders, who serve for the quadrennium, shall take place no later than thirty (30) days following the elections. Vacancies that occur among an entity's elected officers during the quadrennium shall be filled through election by that entity and affirmed by the next Annual Conference.

3. Prior to August 1 of each calendar year, all Annual Conference entities shall submit their planned dates for the next calendar year to the Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services, Director of Connectional Ministries, and Director of Communications/Assistant to the Bishop, who shall coordinate all dates and, as possible, eliminate conflicting meeting times. Written notices of these meetings shall then be provided to each member of each entity. An online Conference Calendar may be developed and used as an official Annual Conference Calendar, published in the Website of the Annual Conference.

B. DISTRICT NOMINATING COMMITTEE

1. Each district shall have a nominating committee consisting of an appropriate number of people to represent the geographic areas of the district, along with the District Superintendent and the District Lay Leader. Each District Conference shall set the number and make-up of its Nominating Committee. The committee shall be responsible for screening nominations coming from local churches and from any other source involving people from the district. Care shall be given to ascertain that those who are nominated have shown leadership in their local churches and are growing Christians.

2. The tenure of each District Lay Leader shall be the same as members of Conference entities (see section III. TENURE ON CONFERENCE ENTITIES, 1. Tenure.)

3. No nomination from the District Nominating Committee shall be considered by the Conference Committee on Nominations unless accompanied by the nominee's full address, including mail, phone, and, where possible, fax and e-mail. Prior to Annual Conference action on any nominations the District Nominations Committee shall ascertain a person's willingness to be named for service in a specific area, and shall affirm this to the Conference Committee on Nominations chairperson.

C. NOMINATIONS POOL

1. Each local church shall consider those who have gifts for ministry beyond that congregation—whether in the quadrennial nominations structure, or in short-term ministry on a task group or project team.

The Conference Ministry Nominations Pool database shall be maintained and accessible through the Annual Conference Council office. This database shall be updated regularly and shall be available to all areas of leadership in the Annual Conference, to select potential participants in ministry endeavors, including task groups and project teams.

2. To the greatest extent possible, Disciplinary requirements shall be followed regarding balance in membership of Conference ministry teams, departments, boards, commissions, councils, committees, and other agencies. It is the intention of the Oklahoma Annual Conference that there shall be racial and ethnic representation in the membership of all these groups. In valuing and practicing diversity in the composition of all these groups, we invigorate and empower the church. Ethnic and age diversity of the membership of these programming and operational bodies of the church is critical to the future of United Methodism in Oklahoma. Following District Nominating Committee meetings each District Superintendent shall forward to the Conference Committee on Nominations chairperson the names of the qualified persons of racial and ethnic diversity who have been nominated. From that list, and other suitable sources, the Conference Committee on Nominations may make additional nominations to help fulfill this intention.

3. The Conference Secretary shall inform the chair of the Committee on Nominations of all conference members serving on General Conference boards.

4. No person shall serve concurrently as an elected member of more than one Annual Conference ministry team, department, board, council, or commission at one time, except for the Board of Laity, boards of trustees, and ex-officio representatives on boards, commissions, and committees. Ex-officio membership shall not be subject to this limitation. It is urged that leadership positions be filled so the number of positions held by any one person be minimized.

Membership on these ministry teams, boards, councils, and commissions shall be subject to the “one-entity” rule: MINISTRY TEAMS (Discipleship, Leadership Development, and Mission & Service); BOARDS (Ordained Ministry, Pensions & Health Benefits and Criminal Justice & Mercy Ministries); COUNCILS (Finance & Administration and Annual Conference Council); COMMISSIONS (Archives & History, Equitable Compensation, Religion & Race, Status & Role of Women and Commission on Rural/Smaller Membership Church); and DEPARTMENTS (Congregational Development and Communications). At-Large members of these two departments shall fall under the one-entity rule. Additional members representing districts, or because of special expertise in these areas, shall not be subject to the one-entity rule.

Membership on the Council on Finance & Administration is limited still further by The Book of Discipline so that no person may serve on that Council who is also a member of any other conference agency that receives funds from the Conference budget. It shall be the responsibility of the Conference Committee on Nominations to make sure this rule is obeyed, absolutely and without exception.

In addition to membership on a ministry team, department, board, council or commission, a person may be elected to membership on no more than one Conference standing committee. The following standing committees are exceptions to the one entity rule: Courtesies & Resolutions, Episcopacy, Episcopal Housing, Investigation, Journal, Agency Emergency/Capital Fund, and Clergy Housing. Only those bodies created and elected by the Annual Conference shall be subject to the “one entity, one committee” rule. Task groups, project teams committees, sub-committees, and departments created by Conference ministry teams, departments, boards, councils, commissions, and committees shall be exempt from this rule, and may be selected by the parent body rather than the Annual Conference.

When the Annual Conference creates and elects a new body, the resolution or other action creating the body shall specify whether or not it is subject to the “one-entity, one committee” and tenure rules.

III. TENURE ON CONFERENCE ENTITIES

1. Tenure. Election to Conference entities, unless otherwise stated, shall be for one quadrennium or the balance of a quadrennium. Unless otherwise provided in the Book of Discipline, no person shall serve more than eight (8) consecutive years on the same entity unless he/she was elected to serve a partial term. In such case, that person could serve up to eleven (11) years. A person whose term has expired shall be eligible for re-election to the same quadrennial entity after one full quadrennium has passed. Terms of office and membership on Conference entities, unless otherwise provided, shall begin upon election. The term of office for a member of the Conference Committee on Nominations shall extend until a successor is elected by the District Conference.

2. Membership Termination. Membership is terminated if a member becomes a District Superintendent (unless chosen as a Cabinet representative) or moves outside the Conference on a permanent basis. Membership may be terminated for failure to attend at least one meeting over a period of one year, providing the member has been properly notified about time and place of meetings.

3. Accuracy in Tenure Reporting. The Conference Committee on Nominations will be responsible for accurate accounting and reporting the years served by individuals to the Conference secretary for inclusion in the Conference Journal, in order to ensure compliance with the tenure rule. For each person named, the report shall indicate the year of election to the Conference entity and the member's district.

4. Cabinet Representation. From its membership, the Cabinet may designate representatives to Conference boards, commissions, committees, or agencies, who shall serve as liaisons between the Cabinet and the respective body. The Cabinet representative shall have floor privileges within that group, be a member of the Executive Committee, and have voting rights as authorized by the Discipline or the group.

IV. FINANCIAL

1. The Conference Secretary and Conference Statistician shall, on recommendation of the Conference Council on Finance & Administration, receive honorariums, paid from the Conference's budgeted funds.

2. All Conference funds, along with the approved reporting form, shall be sent to the Conference Treasurer. Funds for district work or promotion, district missions, or district parsonages shall be sent to the appropriate treasurers.

3. All boards, councils and agencies which have members of the Oklahoma Annual Conference under appointment beyond the local church shall be required to pay monthly to the Clergy Retirement Security Plan, at the rate established by the Board of Pensions and approved by the Annual Conference.

4. All clergy members (Full, Provisional and Associate) of the Oklahoma Annual Conference, and full-time Local Pastors who are appointed full-time and who are participating in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan shall participate in the Ministers' Health Benefits Plan, subject to the provisions of the plan. All churches that have pastors under appointment shall pay the Apportionment for the Health Benefits fund as a Ministerial Support item.

5. The Conference Secretary is directed to rent a safety deposit box for the safekeeping of all legal and valuable documents of the Annual Conference. This includes legal documents of the boards, trustees, and other agencies of the Conference. A permanent index is to be on file in the office of the presiding bishop.

6. At least annually, the Council on Finance & Administration shall review and report to the Annual Conference the disbursements of funds according to budgets approved by the Annual Conference. The council also shall receive and review annually and make available quadrennially a consolidated statement of assets and liabilities of all Conference-related boards, agencies and institutions including trusts and endowment funds.

7. By December 15, each District Superintendent shall furnish to the Conference Treasurer a report on the pastoral compensation for each pastoral charge as approved by the charge conference.

8. Each District Superintendent shall send to the Conference Statistician, no later than January 10, a report on the number, value and indebtedness on the district parsonage and all other property owned or partially owned by The United Methodist Church within the bounds of the district, if these items have not otherwise been reported.

9. All organizations, agencies, and institutions of the Annual Conference that are related to programming must submit their financial requests for review and approval by the appropriate program entity to which they are assigned. All program budgets must then be submitted to the Annual Conference Council for review and approval before forwarding to the Council on Finance & Administration. This process does not preclude requests to meet with the CF&A by representatives of those entities. Upon invitation of the CF&A, any entity with financial requests may do so to support its request. All entities shall have the right to appeal to the Annual Conference directly for support of their work.

V. CONFERENCE HOUSING COMMITTEE

The Conference Clergy Housing Committee shall be a subcommittee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation. At least quadrennially, this subcommittee shall review policies, standards and guidelines regarding clergy housing. It also shall receive annual reports and check lists from the District Committee on Church Location and Building concerning implementation of standards and recommendations for changes, and it shall report to each Annual Conference about improvements and needs. The clergy housing standards policy shall be printed in each Journal. This subcommittee will be made up of at least two (2) members from each District Committee on Church Location and Building (one clergy and one laity), the president of the Clergy Spouse Fellowship, the chairperson of the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the chairperson of the Covenant Family Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry (or equivalent), and a Cabinet representative. It is not subject to the one-entity rule.

VI. SEXUAL ETHICS POLICY

Statement of Policy. Church Professionals of the Oklahoma Annual Conference shall not engage in sexual abuse, sexual harassment or sexual misconduct.

Theological Foundation. All persons are created by God. God intends all persons to have worth and dignity in their relationships. We are one connected body, and when one part of the body is injured physically, emotionally or spiritually, the entire body is rendered less than God intended. Misconduct of a sexual nature of any kind violates a person's wholeness and is an unjust use of status and power and a sinful behavior against God and one another. The Scripture witnesses to a God who brings about justice, mercy and grace. The Church is called to express God's love in concrete actions of compassion and healing for all God's people.

Definitions

1. Sexual Abuse: Sexual abuse means unwanted physical conduct of a sexual nature, sexual contact or sexualized behavior and may include, by example, touching, fondling, other physical contact and sexual relations.
2. Sexual Harassment: Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender.
3. Sexual Misconduct: Sexual misconduct means a chargeable offense within the meaning of The Book of Discipline (§ 2702).
4. Church Professional: A Church Professional shall include Full, Associate and Provisional ministerial members of the Annual Conference, ordained Deacons, and Elders, Diaconal

Ministers and Local Pastors, in both the effective and retired relationships, and other persons serving the Conference or any local church under appointment of the bishop or under the supervision of the District Superintendent, including persons keeping their membership in another annual conference or in another denomination and persons holding orders issued by these annual conferences while on Honorable or Administrative Location.

Implementation. Church Professionals and local churches of the Annual Conference shall be provided a copy of this policy and shall be offered training information to assist in the understanding and implementation of this policy. This policy shall be published annually in the Oklahoma Annual Conference Journal.

Making a Complaint. Persons who have knowledge of possible violations of this policy by a church professional may report the same to any church professional, any District Superintendent, or the bishop. Upon any complaint, the Conference will take action in accordance with the provisions of the current Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

Local Church Policies. The Annual Conference recommends that local churches adopt a local church sexual harassment policy.

Attendance. Any person under appointment/assignment in Oklahoma Annual Conference must attend one Sexual Ethics In The Workplace Seminar as specified by the resident bishop, no less than once a quadrennium.

VII. THE STANDING RULES, STRUCTURE AND POLICY REVIEW COMMITTEE

1. The Committee on Standing Rules, Structure and Policy Review shall review annually the Standing Rules for appropriate updating and shall review and recommend to the Annual Conference all submissions for changes in the Standing Rules.
2. A permanent record of all existing policies of the Annual Conference shall be maintained by the Standing Rules, Structure and Policy Review Committee. It shall be the responsibility of this committee to recommend the deletion of obsolete policies to the Annual Conference.
3. Changes in the Standing Rules may be made by the Annual Conference upon recommendation of, or following consideration by, the Standing Rules Committee.
4. The Standing Rules, or any of the items in the Standing Rules, may be amended, substituted, or deleted by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference. Any such action must be presented in writing to delegates at least 24 hours prior to voting on the matter at a regular session of the Annual Conference.
5. Wherever the Book of Discipline is referred to in these rules, the references are to the 2008 Book of Discipline. After the quadrennial publication of a new Book of Discipline, the Conference Secretary shall inform the Committee on Standing Rules of any changes required due to General Conference action.
