The United Methodist Church

2012 Journal

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

SECTION E

DAILY PROCEEDINGS
The Forty-Fifth Session of The Oklahoma Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church
May 27–30, 2012

FIRST DAY - SUNDAY, MAY 27

Executive Sessions

Lay members met in the Boston Avenue UMC sanctuary in Tulsa at 3:30 p.m., while clergy members met in the First UMC Sanctuary at 4 p.m. The report of the Board of Ordained Ministry was presented and approved at the clergy session. (See Section F – The Business of the Annual Conference.)

Memorial Service and Holy Communion – 7:00 p.m.

Under the leadership of Bishop Robert E. Hayes Jr., the 2012 Oklahoma Annual Conference began with the Memorial Service and Holy Communion in the sanctuary of Boston Avenue UMC. The pre-worship “Big Sing” was led by John Bell of the Church of Scotland. Mouzon Biggs was preacher for the service. Afterward, a reception honoring Mouzon and Gayle Biggs and families of the deceased was held in Jubilee Hall. (See Section J – Memoirs.)

SECOND DAY - MONDAY, MAY 28

General Session – 8:30 a.m.

Bishop Hayes officially opened the business meeting in the Sanctuary of Boston Avenue UMC.

Episcopal Address – Bishop Robert E. Hayes Jr. (See Episcopal Address in Section H – Reports.)

Laity Address – Judy Benson, Conference lay leader. Benson spoke of many fruitful congregations making a difference for Jesus Christ throughout our state. Benson told of the benefits of supporting ministry partnerships, particularly clergy-lay ministry partnerships. She urged delegates to be leaders who make things happen.

Conference Associate Lay Leaders Herschel Beard and Chuck Stewart presented Benson with a Cross & Flame statue for her eight years of service as conference lay leader. They announced the creation of The Judy Benson Scholarship for Leadership and Spiritual Formation in her honor.

Report on Vital Congregations – Craig Stinson. The mission of the Strategic Plan is to take ordinary people and make them world-changing disciples of Jesus Christ. Stinson reported significant progress in all three areas of the plan: Growing Fruitful Congregations, Raising Up New Spiritual Leaders, and Making Missional Connections.

Organization of the Annual Conference – Joseph Harris was nominated and elected as conference secretary. Brian Bakeman was nominated and elected as conference treasurer and conference statistician.

Conference Secretary Harris made the following motions, and they were adopted.

1. The printed program shall be the official program of the 2012 session of The Oklahoma Annual Conference, subject to necessary additions and adjustments.

2. The minutes of the daily sessions, as prepared by the secretarial staff and reviewed by the Oklahoma Conference Department of Communications, shall be the official record of the conference.

3. The bar of the conference for voting, debate, discussion, and other official business of the annual conference session shall be restricted to the main floor of the sanctuary, without any seating division between laity and clergy.

4. All material included in the packets, and materials so related and distributed at registration, shall be considered in the hands of the conference members at the opening session so that action concerning them may be taken after 24 hours have passed in any cases where such time interval is required.

5. The following persons shall be elected as assistant secretaries: Claudean Harrison, Jeremy Jones, Kyle Kiner, Sheri Lashley, Stephen Lashley, Jan Polson, Marsha Purtell, and Valerie Steele.

6. The conference shall be organized under the Rules of the 2011 Conference Journal.

Annual Conference Council – Donna Heldermon, Myrtle Clingenpeel, Sam Powers. (See Section H – Reports.) Clingenpeel spoke of the continuing work with the Ministry Audit Teams. Powers told of the new areas of ministry, including the Academy of Part Time Local Pastors and the Office of Missions. He announced that Saint Paul School of Theology at Oklahoma City University will become an Apportionment line item instead of a special assessment, to assure accountability. Heldermon submitted the report for approval. It was approved.

Woodward District Lay Leader Mark Gray was Bishop Hayes' assistant for the morning session.

Teaching Time – Bob L. Blackburn, executive director of the Oklahoma Historical Society. Blackburn said the Methodist ethos has influenced his family for generations. A relative was one of the first circuit-riders. Growing up, he learned the values we should all live by. He also learned the cost of not living by those values: hate, fear, and exploitation.

General Session – 2 p.m.

Conference Associate Lay Leader Chuck Stewart was Bishop Hayes' assistant for the beginning of this session.

Mission and Service Ministry Team – Tom Hoffmann. (See Section H – Reports.) The Woodworth Estate Committee has distributed hundreds of thousands of dollars this year, thanks to the donations of the Woodworth family years ago. Their generosity is still affecting lives and ministries in our conference today.

Hoffman announced Jeremy Basset's new role as director of the new Office of Mission. A detailed plan will be presented at the next Annual Conference. Goals include working to better connect mission to advocacy to empower local churches to help those in need in their communities, being more intentional in finding new ways for young adults to be involved in missions, and learning better ways to align the Christian vocation with professional vocations.

Carlos Ramirez will be the new conference coordinator of Hispanic/Latino Ministry, to help develop ethnic ministries across the conference.

Volunteers In Mission – Jeremy Basset. (See Section H – Reports.) VIM ministry continues to thrive through Disaster Response work, by developing curriculum to train youth pastors and Wesley Foundation staff, and from the appointment of David Stephenson as our Bolivian mission interpreter and liaison.

Richard Norman told of the realities and challenges that arise after an initial disaster, when people want to help but can do more harm by not knowing the real needs of the victims at that time. Much planning has been done to maximize effectiveness in the appropriate places.

Basset spoke of the fourfold focus for disaster response: preparation, response, recovery, and mitigation. People are needed who can respond immediately to a disaster. People who want to help but who are not immediately available can direct contributions through their local churches.

Stephenson invited Oklahoma United Methodist congregations to develop partnerships with our Methodist counterparts in Bolivia.

Basset spoke of another ministry in the Holy Land, and introduced GBGM missionary Kristen Brown who shared the emotional, moving experience of visiting Palestine and Israel and meeting Christians whose ancestors were the first followers of Christ. Brown invited conference members to make a life-changing mission trip, to walk where Jesus walked and meet the people of Palestine and Israel.

Basset presented the VIM report for adoption. It was adopted.

Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries – Stan Basler and friends. (See Section H – Reports.) Basler presented a video showing the programs and services available at Exodus House, Redemption Churches, and New Day Camp.

Many participants spoke about the positive changes that have taken place in their lives through the CJAMM programs, by learning about Jesus' love. They expressed their thanks to the Oklahoma Conference for the support.

Basler presented Steve Byrd with a plaque in appreciation of 20 years of service to CJAMM programs.

Basler read a document from the Board of Directors, asking the Governance Committee to review the current corporate structure and related operations of the agency. They were asked to make recommendations for any necessary revisions to ensure the continued successful mission of CJAMM. They observed that the present structure is outdated and recommended the bylaws be revised to be consistent with present and future needs of its operation. The Board of Directors unanimously accepted the recommendations. Revisions can only be made through complete consultation and ratification or approval by the Annual Conference. The Board seeks to inform the conference of its intentions and seeks the conference's understanding and prayers. This document was submitted by Richard Wansley, chairperson of the Governance Committee.

Addiction Ministries – Annette Harper and friends. (See Section H – Reports.) Addiction Ministries is celebrating 30 years of ministry in the conference. Harper introduced Jack Turner, who spoke of dealing with his wife, who was addicted to alcohol. Turner spoke of his frustration after not receiving useful help from his minister. After receiving help through Alcoholics Anonymous, his wife was able to maintain sobriety. Turner then talked with his new minister about the great need for helping people dealing with addictions. This started conversation about creating programs for that purpose. The Board of Church & Society donated money to the conference to train ministers in: the disease concept of chemical dependency, its recognition, and techniques and programs for intervention. The Addiction Ministry's Summer School on Chemical Dependency now educates Oklahomans as well as concerned people from other states and countries.

Cookson Hills Center – Meri Whitaker. (See Section H – Reports.) Meri Whitaker presented the bishop with a jar for coins to "Make Change." Oklahoma leads the nation in number of hungry people. In Cherokee, Adair, and Sequoyah counties, where Cookson Hills Center serves, 38 percent of children go to be hungry — some every night.

Whitaker thanked the conference for all the prayers and support over the years and asked for continued prayers and financial support to feed God's sheep.

All-Star Awards – Karen Distefano presented awards to more than 30 churches. One of the criteria to receive a star is to promote the Six Special Sundays, and another is Missionary Support. Rachel Barnett from GBGM announced that the Oklahoma Conference has the highest church participation in designated giving. Eighty-four percent of Oklahoma churches gave to the UM Advance in 2011; other conferences average 50 percent.

Lawton District Associate Lay Leader Dana McIlhane was Bishop Hayes' assistant after the break.

Restore Hope Ministries – Jeff Jaynes. (See Section H – Reports.) Jaynes gave thanks to the conference for helping repair the agency's roof that was damaged after a snowstorm last winter. Jaynes spoke of the families who avoid becoming homeless with help from Restore Hope. Please continue to restore hope to your neighbors in need, he urged.

Church and Society – Kirt Moelling. (See Section H – Reports.) Adam Shahan spoke of educating laity and clergy about the Social Principles, through the Re-Ignite Workshops.

Environmental Coalition Chairperson Mark Davies reported on the value of the coalition in caring for creation. But we have not done enough, Davies said. For the sake of our children, may we find the wisdom and courage to create a more sustainable world.

Moelling announced there will be a Social Justice Retreat at Canyon Camp on April 19-20, 2013.

Lydia Patterson Institute – Socorro de Anda, David Burris. (See Section H – Reports.)

President de Anda is grateful for the support from our conference. LPI has been serving underprivileged young people for more than 100 years. De Anda reported that scholarships valued at $1.4 million were awarded to this year's class of 51 seniors, who are on their way to college.

Retirement and Nursing Home Association – Steve Dickey. (See Section H – Reports.) Dickey, of Oklahoma Methodist Manor in Tulsa, and John Harned, of Epworth Villa in Oklahoma City, represented the retirement and nursing homes in Oklahoma. Dickey thanked the conference for the Senior Living Ministry offering and shared a video highlighting the services provided for residents.

Crestwood expansion will open this June at Oklahoma Methodist Manor. Epworth Villa is taking on a remodeling and expansion in OKC, and the Ranch will be opening in Stillwater in the future.

Oklahoma City University – Jennifer Long, Robert Henry. (See Section H – Reports.) Long thanked the conference for the generous support to OCU. This year Wimberly School of Religion celebrated its 30-year anniversary. In 2011 United Methodist students received more than $5.6 million in scholarships.

President Henry values the relationship with the conference and Bishop and Mrs. Hayes. Henry presented Dee Hayes with her diploma, since she had been unable to attend the May commencement ceremony.

Henry said OCU freshman enrollment is up 17 percent, freshman retention is up 7 percent, and more than 47 percent of faculty and staff are generously supporting the campus development campaign. Meinders School of Business has established a new master's program in energy. The Kramer School of Nursing enrolled 494 students in Spring 2012 and is expecting a 100 percent increase in enrollment for next year's class.

The newly remodeled fifth floor of the Dulaney-Browne Library includes collections of Native American memorabilia and major Methodist memorabilia.

With 2011-12 championships in wrestling, women's basketball and cheerleading, and men's golf, OCU now holds 46 national athletic championships.

Heritage vignette video – A video was shown highlighting important moments in the conference's past: the 1939 merger of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Protestant Church, forming the Methodist Church, and the 1968 merger of the Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren church to form The United Methodist Church.

Wellness Committee – Jim Jones lifted up awareness about wellness at Annual Conference by giving away T-shirts and promoting the blood drive and Wellness Screening.

Service of Retirement and Commissioning – 7 p.m.

The pre-worship concert was performed by the Broken Arrow UMC Choir. Mouzon Biggs was preacher for the service, followed by a reception honoring those newly retired and newly commissioned.

THIRD DAY - TUESDAY, MAY 29

Bishop Hayes started the session with prayer for those in our conference experiencing illness, death, and struggles in their daily lives.

The bishop introduced Kirsten Schiska from Fairview as his assistant for the session.

Introduction of legislation not in packet - Craig Stinson. Standing Rules report was distributed to the floor of the conference.

Discipleship Ministry Team – Greg Tener, James Graham. (See Section H – Reports.) Tener described the ministries for which DMT is responsible. Graham spoke of working on and trying to hold down budgets. Bob Pierson spoke of working through the evangelism task force to make disciples of Jesus Christ. One program that group is developing is “Home for Christmas.” Training will be available in Tulsa and OKC this June. Bishop Hayes encouraged churches to get involved in this program.

Mark McAdow introduced Harry Denman Evangelism Award recipients: laywoman Pat Chambers of Claremore First UMC, and Mark Foster, pastor of Edmond Acts 2 UMC.

Tener introduced CREDO, a new curriculum for churches with confirmation classes of five people or fewer. It is available through Cokesbury.

Camp and Retreat Ministries video. (See Section H – Reports.) This year Camps experienced frozen pipes, flooding, and drought that caused many cancellations, revenue losses, and increased funding for repairs. Oklahoma United Methodists came through to help, volunteering their time and making monetary contributions for repairs and building new cabins and facilities.

Plaques were presented to Kathy Coit for her service and to Ed Coy Light for his service and leadership.

Academy for Spiritual Formation video. (See Section H – Reports.) The 5-Day Academy for Spiritual Formation will be held Nov. 5-10, 2012.

Discipleship for Small Membership Churches – Diana Northcutt. (See Section H – Reports.) Churches are asked to join with their youth workers in a national covenant agreement. The church pledges to fulfill this set of seven promises: pray and spiritually support the youth workers; give them space for retreat and reflection; provide ongoing training and development; give them at least one full day of rest per week; share responsibility; strive to be an excellent employer; and celebrate and appreciate.

Each youth worker promises to: pray for the church, leaders, and community; make personal spiritual growth a priority; commit to continued learning; take one day off each week and also vacation; ask for help and share youth ministry; strive to be an excellent employee; and celebrate the church’s investment in youth ministry.

Youth Ministries – Megan Shewey. (See Section H – Reports.) Shewey reported that youth ministries are alive and thriving. CCYM is comprised of four ministries: Youth Service Fund, Missions, Communications, and CYME. A mission will be held in Tulsa this fall, and more opportunities will be available in the year to come.

CCYM is asking the conference, “What does worship mean to you?”

Young Adult Council video. (See Section H – Reports.) Adam Shahan and Andy Henson spoke of the needs of young adult clergy and laity in our conference. Their goal is to engage young adults outside the church. An executive team will be created to help the council.

Campus Ministry – Jim Hill. (See Section H – Reports.) Campus Ministries is striving to make more disciples and younger disciples. Hill introduced the campus ministers of the conference. There are a number of campus ministries in our conference that are church-based. They are sources of new leadership in the churches.

A challenge faced by campus ministries is a perception among college students that campus ministry is “like church...boring.” Wesley Foundations have great food, open ideas, loving fellowships, provide opportunities to share life experiences, celebrate Jesus, and offer a home away from home for many college students.

Rural/Small-Membership Churches video. (See Section H – Reports.) The commission provides resources and is a voice for small and rural churches. They finished their fifth ministry season of Project Noel in 2011, with 70 churches participating.

Judy Benson and Chuck Stewart celebrated the rich histories of churches that are officially closing this year. They are: Roff UMC, Ardmore District; Rocky UMC, Clinton District; Savanna UMC, McAlester District; Honor Heights UMC, Muskogee District; and Harvard Avenue UMC, Tulsa District.

Bishop Hayes prayed for the churches’ members and communities.

Bishop Hayes presented the following resolutions for approval. (See Section I – Resolutions.)
 Resolution for Discontinuance of the Roff UMC in Ardmore District. It was approved.
 Resolution for Discontinuance of the Rocky UMC in Clinton District. It was approved.
 Resolution for Discontinuance of the Savanna UMC in McAlester District. It was approved.
 Resolution for Discontinuance of the Honor Heights UMC in Muskogee District. It was approved.
 Resolution for Discontinuance of the Harvard Avenue UMC in Tulsa District. It was approved.

Department of Congregational Development – Chris Tiger, Craig Stinson. (See Section H – Reports.) Stinson spoke of the Native Methodist churches that gave birth to new-church starts that became the Oklahoma Conference. We need to find ways to make disciples where the people are.

Our four newest churches report 442 professions of faith. We are reaching new disciples through CrossTimbers UMC, Edmond Chinese International UMC, Connect UMC, and Summit UMC.

The conference has invested $600,000 to launch these churches. Already, contributions from those congregations to the Conference Apportionment have totaled more than $1 million.

Christ UMC in Oklahoma City was restarted this year with the help of Semaj Vanzant, who spoke of changing its culture and challenges that congregation faces.

Efforts to start a new church on Highway 75 South in Tulsa are coming to fruition with the appointment of clergywoman Heather Scherer.

Stinson introduced Carlos Ramirez, who has been working on a plan for Hispanic Ministries and who will be associate director of the Office of Mission.

The report was presented for adoption. It was approved.

Pension and Health Benefits – Mouzon Biggs. (See Section H – Reports.)

Phil Ware recommended, and the conference approved:

1. The 2013 Past Service Annuity Rate and Funding (PSR) be set at $617.

2. The rate for Surviving Spouses be set at 75 percent of the PSR.

3. Our unfunded liability for pre-1982 years of service be amortized over a nine-year period, with projected payout in 2021.

Ware recommended $50,000 per year for one year be sent from the Pension Fund Crusade to the Central Conference Pension Initiative. It was approved.

Ware recommended approval of Disciplinary Question 91. It was approved.

Biggs stressed the importance of being healthy, and reported that the conference has saved $1.25 million by changing to Blue Cross Blue Shield.

Biggs recommended the following Health Benefits Plan changes. They were approved.

- The Special Rate on the Monthly Premium Rate Schedule has increased from $34,999 or less to $42,999 or less, and will include all housing.

- Effective Jan. 1, 2012, only Local Pastors who have completed Course of Study are eligible to receive retiree health benefits.

Rick Kelly presented the following recommendations. They were approved.

- Active participants will see a 2 percent increase in health premiums for 2013.

- Retirees will see a 2 percent increase in health premiums for 2013.

- In-network office visit co-pay is $30, while out-of-network has increased to $50.

- Apportionments will increase 2 percent for 2013.

- The total Out-of-Pocket in-network expenses for an individual has increased from $2,400 to $2,750. The same increase applies to all areas of out-of-pocket amounts after the deductible is met.

Rick Kelly presented the Flexible Benefit Plan, including the IRS ruling change. It was approved.

Kelly presented the Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA). It was approved.

Jim Jones expressed the importance of annual health screenings. The Wellness Committee was created to raise awareness of health care issues.

Equitable Compensation – Bruce Brotherton. (See Section H – Reports.) Changes to the Schedule of Minimum Compensation were approved.

The Ministers Moving Expense Fund, with no changes, was presented. It was approved.

The report in its entirety was presented for adoption. It was approved.

Carl Young, president of the national United Methodist Men Foundation, presented an award honoring William C. “Bill” Mason, a retired clergyman, as a fellow in the Society of John Wesley.

Gary Peluso of Phillips Theological Seminary, Tulsa, thanked the conference for its relationship and support.

General Session – 2 p.m.

Bishop Hayes introduced Jimmy Willis from Walters as his assistant for the session.

Project Transformation video. (See Section H – Reports.) In Summer 2011, a total of 451 children attended these eight-week literacy-based day camps at locations in Bartlesville, Muskogee, Oklahoma City, and Tulsa. There were more than 191 volunteers, and 48 AmeriCorps staff.

United Methodist Women video. (See Section H – Reports.) UMW is organized for mission to work with God, bearing the faith seed for sowing.

United Methodist Men video. (See Section H – Reports.) UMM is working to establishing lines of communications between local churches, the districts, and the conference.

Special Appeals Offering video – Community Food Bank of Eastern Oklahoma services 24 counties food programs, volunteers, and donations. This organization is one of the recipients of the Annual Conference Offering.

Circle of Care – Lissa Wright, Don Batson. (See Section H – Reports.) Batson told how Methodist Children’s Home, the predecessor of Circle of Care, was created 95 years ago. Mark Howard spoke of changes to the organization’s care model, thus increasing the number of children served and decreasing the cost. The Independent Living Program is the model for similar systems in Oklahoma. Three years since its inception, 100 percent of the young people assisted by the program graduated from high school or college.

Austin, a resident of Boy’s Ranch, shared his story of being raised by an abusive single mother and dealing with resulting anger issues. He began fighting, abusing drugs, and was arrested. Sent to Boy’s Ranch, he found acceptance and a good family atmosphere. He reported he has been sober for a year and half and has renewed his relationship with God. He would like to attend Oklahoma City University and become a motivational speaker.

Julie McDonald, director of Pearl’s Hope, introduced Trisha, who told of the loss of her daughter and boyfriend in an accident. She struggled with grief for two years, began using drugs, could not work, and lost her home. Her prayers for help were answered when she found Pearl’s Hope, she said, and she is getting her life back on track with God’s help through Pearl’s Hope.

Tod Bryant told about the need for foster homes in Oklahoma. Every day in county youth shelters, there are many neglected and abused children who need loving homes. Circle of Care has established an emergency foster care program, seeking short-term placement for children age 5 and younger. There is a great need for emergency foster parents, Bryant emphasized. Local churches also can provide support in several ways for these special parents.

Leadership Development Ministry Team video. (See Section H – Reports.)

Quadrennial elections of officers for conference boards, committees, and commissions will be held at St. Luke’s UMC in Oklahoma City on June 23rd.

Board of Laity – Judy Benson, Frank Denney, Chuck Stewart. (See Section H – Reports.) The Board of Laity is working to educate and engage people about the conference Strategic Plan. Benson recognized churches from each district that are working to grow fruitful congregations.

Opal Delancy spoke of her experiences with Single-Parent Family Gathering camps, which started in 2009. The camps brings together families who share the same structure and struggles, she said, and have been a blessing. Bishop Hayes signed copies of his book “Strength for the Journey” to give to single parents.

Donna Heldermon spoke of recruiting leaders and offering leadership training events. Jennifer Sorrels attended Young Adult Retreat camp, for 18- to 25-year-olds, where they can explore their place in the world and strengthen their faith.

Herschel Beard spoke of ministry partnerships. Claudean Harrison is a graduate of Seminary Lite, an educational ministry partnership between Saint Paul School of Theology at OCU and the conference.

Stephen Lashley announced the upcoming groundbreaking service at Bridgeview UMC in Norman and presented Bishop Hayes with a shovel, inviting him to attend the ceremony.

Saint Paul School of Theology at OCU – Elaine Robinson, Myron McCoy. (See Section H – Reports.) Devon Krause, a Master of Divinity student, presented a video of life in seminary. President McCoy expressed he is grateful for Saint Paul’s partnership with the Oklahoma Conference. He spoke about the vision for “SPST@OCU”: Collaboration is essential, the seminary must go out to the churches, and educating lay and clergy leaders.

Dean Elaine Robinson gave thanks for shared ministry with the Oklahoma Conference. SPST@OCU is graduating its second class in August. Among other programs are: LEAD, an ongoing series of workshops available for clergy in the Oklahoma Conference and OIMC; Course of Study; and Seminary Lite for laity.

An endowment campaign will be launched, called “Vital Churches, Visionary Leaders.”

Commission on Religion & Race – Glenn Harris. (See Section H – Reports.) Oklahoma CORR will host the third South Central Jurisdictional CORR Gathering on July 21. The event will focus on the book “The New Jim Crow,” by Michelle Alexander.

Bishop Hayes introduced Alex Ramsey from Claremore as his assistant for the session.

The Oklahoma United Methodist Foundation – Bill Junk. (See Section H – Reports.) Junk thanked the bishop for his support of the Foundation.

He introduced a video showing the incredible, important work of the Foundation that supports programs such as Pearl’s Hope, which was established by an estate gift managed through the Foundation.

The Jim Egan Legacy Award was presented to Paul and Ann Milburn, members of St. Paul’s UMC in Shawnee. The Milburns challenged all United Methodists to support Neighborhood Services Organization’s capital campaign.

Lay Speaking Ministries – Pat Parvin. The seventh biannual conference will be held in October. By General Conference action, the name “Lay Speaking Ministries” will change to “Lay Servant Ministries,” effective Jan. 1, 2013.

Parvin reported 132 youths have taken the basic Lay Speaking Ministry course, and 47 have taken the advanced course.

Sharri Hiller will be the new Lay Speaking Ministries director.

Board of Ordained Ministry – Michael Burkett. (See Section H – Reports.) Burkett celebrated the accomplishments of the board over the past four years. Among those, the board hired an assistant for ministerial services.

There were 54 clergy commissioned and 62 ordained this quadrennium. There were 120 people who attended Local Pastor’s Licensing School.

The names of clergy to be commissioned at this conference as elders were read. The names of clergy approved to be ordained as elders or deacons were read. (See Certification of Ordination.)

Brittany Stanley received a Professional Certificate in Specialized Ministry, during a service of recognition led by Bishop Hayes.

Report from General Conference – Judy Benson, Linda Harker. They introduced a video showing highlights of the 2012 General Conference. Oklahoma’s delegation poured over 1,200 petitions submitted by United Methodists from around the world. Each delegate served on one of 13 legislative committees.

Service of Ordination – 7 p.m.

The pre-worship concert was performed by the Boston Avenue Sanctuary Choir. The service was in Boston Avenue's sanctuary was led by Bishop Hayes. A reception was held in Jubilee Hall honoring Bishop and Mrs. Dee Hayes and those newly ordained. (See Certification of Ordination.)

FOURTH DAY - WEDNESDAY, MAY 30General Session – 8:30 a.m.

Bishop Hayes introduced Janita Graves from the Wesley Foundation at Oklahoma State University as his assistant for this session.

Department of Communications - Shari Goodwin, Joe Harris. (See Section H – Reports.) In a video, Goodwin demonstrated some of the many communication tools available in the conference.

There have been hundreds of people watching this conference via Internet live streaming. Live streaming also will be available to view the South Central Jurisdictional (SCJ) Conference in July; with a high-speed Internet connection, you can watch the conference from wherever you are.

Harris encouraged participation in the Stop Hunger Now hands-on mission during the SCJ Conference. He also invited everyone to attend the consecration service in person, to celebrate the newly elected bishops.

At the 2013 Annual Conference, the department plans to provide USB flash drives that contain the printed materials and videos of that conference, to use with computer laptops and other mobile devices during conference and to take home to share in local churches.

Bishop Hayes expressed his appreciation for the vital help he receives from Harris as the Assistant to the Bishop.

Committee on the Status and Role of Women video – Pam Cottrill. (See Section H – Reports.) COSROW recognizes women, lay and clergy, who are living out the Strategic Plan in their various ministries. Cottrill announced the reinstatement of the Francis E. Willard Award, and presented the 2012 honor to Gary Holdeman.

Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference – David Wilson. Bishop Hayes expressed his appreciation to Wilson for his assistance with OIMC. Wilson spoke of the challenging year in our sister conference. One OIMC partnership effort this year, with the congregation from Kingsport, Tenn., brought volunteers and funds to build the new facility for Chihowa UMC in Durant. Another partnership opportunity is co-hosting the upcoming SCJ Conference with the Oklahoma Conference.

OIMC received about $104,000 from the Oklahoma Conference through Apportionments in 2011.

The OIMC churches are advocating for return of Bishop Hayes for another quadrennium as leader of the Oklahoma Area.

Wilson thanked the conference for prayers and support of his episcopal candidacy in the South Central Jurisdiction. Robert Rose requested the conference lift up prayers for Wilson in that journey. Bishop Hayes led the conference in a prayer of support.

Treasurer's Report – Brian Bakeman. (See Section H – Reports.) Bakeman thanked the churches and individuals who are faithful with their tithes and offerings, due in part to the witness in ministry by our episcopal leader.

Bakeman recommended approval of the audit. It was approved.

Oklahoma Conference chaplains under appointment were introduced. Bishop Hayes expressed his appreciation for their service and lifted them in prayer.

South Central Jurisdiction – David Severe. (See Section H – Reports.) The 2012 South Central Jurisdictional Conference will be held in July in Oklahoma City and hosted by the OIMC and the Oklahoma Conference. The theme for the conference is "Woven Together for Transformation."

Forty-four years have passed since Oklahomans last hosted the SCJ Conference. That was in 1968 in Oklahoma City. Severe invited everyone to take the opportunity to attend this conference.

Committee on Nominations – Darrell Cates. (See Section C – Boards, Councils, Commission.) Cates announced changes to be made to the nominations listed in the Pre-Conference Workbook.

Cates presented the report. It was approved.

Cates also presented an enabling motion for conference staff to make editorial changes regarding clergy appointments. It was approved.

Joe Harris discussed the SCJ Pool nominations process and its categories. There can be 15-45 people nominated to serve at the jurisdictional and general church levels. Due to their election as General/Jurisdictional Conference delegates, 44 people are already in the pool.

A motion was made and seconded to limit nominations to the 44 delegates already in the pool. It was approved.

Archives and History video. (See Section H – Reports.) Christina Wolf told of the many improvements to the facility on the fifth floor of the Dulaney-Browne Library on the OCU campus. It is a repository for the historical records of both the OIMC and Oklahoma Conferences. The improvements were made possible by donations from the Oklahoma Conference.

An update was given for the Annual Conference OKVIM Disaster Response Kit Campaign. As of this morning, more than 1,000 UMCOR kits have been collected at the designated truck in the Boston Avenue parking lot.

Bishop Hayes introduced Conference Associate Lay Leader Don Kim as his assistant this session.

George Warren sang a song written especially for Bishop Hayes: “I’ve Been Every Place, Church.”

Episcopacy Committee – Mouzon Biggs. The committee is responsible for the episcopal residence and recently made some needed improvements to the residence; more work will continue in June.

The committee voted unanimously to request that Bishop and Dee Hayes be reassigned by the SCJ Conference as our episcopal family for the next quadrennium. It was recommended that the conference affirm that request. It was done.

Biggs commended Bishop Hayes for attending General Conference, Annual Conference, and OIMC’s Annual Conference while dealing with his own health issues. Biggs led a prayer of healing for Bishop Hayes and noted the bishop will soon undergo treatment at M.D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston.

Bishop Hayes expressed thanks, for both himself and Dee, for the support of the conference.

Conference Board of Trustees – Mark Brown. (See Section H – Reports.) Brown presented the report and moved that the actions taken by the trustees be received by the conference. They were approved.

Charles Hull presented the Ministry Protection Committee report. The committee contracted with another property and risk insurance provider after the previous provider increased the premium rates in 2011. He explained the conference has experienced a high number of claims due to fire, wind, hail, and tornadoes in 2007 and following years. The decision was made to leave PACT and switch to CFR Risk Management, whose president is Trey Biggs.

Brown moved for the approval of the report as a whole, including the Ministry Protection Committee segment. It was approved.

Standing Rules Report – Robert Rose. (See Section K – Standing Rules and Structure.) Rose presented the report, including changes in an amendment to the report, for approval. It was approved.

The corrected report is printed in this Journal.

A video was presented showing annual conference delegates performing hands-on mission service at multiple sites in Tulsa during the noon break on Tuesday.

Wellness Committee giveaway – Jim Jones. He reiterated the importance of donating blood and undergoing regular health screenings. Prevention is key to a healthy life, he said.

General Session – 2 p.m.

Bishop Hayes introduced Conference Chancellor John Ray Green of Duncan to the conference and expressed thanks for Green's help.

Council on Finance and Administration – Tom Harrison. (See Section H – Reports.) Harrison presented the report for approval. It was approved.

Harrison presented the 2013 Annual Conference Budget for approval. It was approved.

Bill Moorer inquired about the phase-out of budgeted funding for the Oklahoma Conference of Churches. Moorer requested continued support of the Oklahoma Conference of Churches, an ecumenical organization, from the Oklahoma Conference.

Bishop Hayes introduced as his assistant for the session Mary Ann Smith, secretary of the Board of Laity and the leader of Global Outreach for Tulsa Asbury UMC for 25 years. Smith will be retiring this year, and Hayes thanked her for her service.

Motion to receive printed reports – Joe Harris moved that any printed reports not yet acted upon be accepted in the official record of the conference. It was approved.

Harris expressed his thanks to the assistant secretaries, tellers, and GNTV Media Ministry for making the conference run smoothly. Harris also expressed special thanks to members of his staff, Amelia Ballew, Holly McCray, Nyla Wallin, and Alicia Galyon.

Invitation to 2013 Annual Conference site – Bob Long expressed his appreciation to Mouzon Biggs and Boston Avenue UMC staff for its longtime record of hospitality and service in hosting the Annual Conference every two years.

Robert Henry and Bob Long offered to host the 2013 Annual Conference in Oklahoma City at St. Luke's UMC and Oklahoma City University. The invitation was accepted.

Bishop Hayes extended special thanks to all the staff of Boston Avenue Church for their courtesy during the conference.

Service of Sending Forth

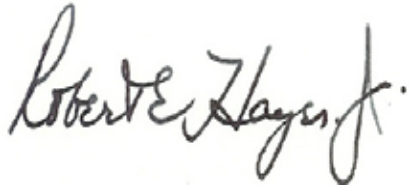

The service was led by Judy Benson, and music was provided by the Sand Springs UMC choir. Bishop Hayes delivered the message, and the Cabinet members read the changes in clergy appointments.

Oklahoma Annual Conference

REPORTS

EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

To the people called United Methodists from across the great State of Oklahoma, and to all our visitors and friends: In the words of the Apostle Paul, “Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.” (I Corinthians 1:3)

I start this address with a sincere and heartfelt thank-you for all your calls, prayers, cards, thoughts, prayer shawls—all your expressions of concern these last few weeks. How reassuring and comforting it is to know that, all across Oklahoma, Dee and I are being lifted in prayer by congregations and individuals.

As I wrote in a recent Contact article, I was diagnosed with prostate cancer on April 6. After learning this, I asked my doctors here in Oklahoma City to allow me to travel to M.D. Anderson Hospital in Houston, Texas, to undergo testing to determine how advanced the cancer is, and to decide on the best treatment. After two weeks of tests and consultations, I learned the cancer was detected quite early in its development, and it has not spread to any other parts of my body. After this Annual Conference and the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference, I will return to M.D. Anderson for robotic surgery. I am told this procedure offers a very high rate of cure—85 percent and even better. Recovery time will be minimal, and by early July I hope to return to my office to prepare for our Jurisdictional Conference that will be held here in Oklahoma City. Dr. Logothetis, the head of that hospital’s department that deals with prostate cancers, called my tumor “boring,” explaining that “boring” is good.

I want to thank Dr. Don Kim, my physician and our South Oklahoma City District lay leader, who alerted me to this problem during my yearly physical exam, and Dr. John Ross, my urologist and the brother of one of our clergy in the Conference, who skillfully guided me through the next steps in this process. I also want to thank the dozens of men who shared with me their own experiences with this very common disease and who gave me a word of hope and encouragement. I choose to go very public with this because I want my experience to provide a teaching moment, especially for all our male pastors. Take advantage of what medical knowledge can do for you. Physical health is so important as we work to offer spiritual healing. We should remain aware of that and be good stewards of our bodies. Again, thank you for being the family that is loving me through this time.

Now reflect with me on a moment that, for me, will be forever suspended in time. It occurred in Corpus Christi, Texas, on a hot, steamy evening in July 2004. The Jurisdictional Episcopacy Committee, the people who are responsible for the placement of bishops, had just completed making assignments for four newly elected bishops, myself among them. The committee spokesperson stood before the South Central Jurisdictional Conference delegates and announced where each bishop would be sent. I heard: “Robert Hayes, the Oklahoma Area.” I realized suddenly that those five words would forever change the course of my life and my ministry. It is a night I will never forget.

Fast-forward to this moment now, as I stand before you with a tremendous sense of gratitude and thanksgiving, near the end of my second term as bishop and episcopal leader of the Oklahoma Area of The United Methodist Church. In eight years, so much has happened. We have been through deep valleys of economic uncertainty and natural disasters, and we’ve said farewell to pioneers of our faith. Yet we’ve also found ourselves standing on mountaintops! We’ve laughed together, cried together, and accomplished some wonderful things together. In the midst of all, we have stood firm and been the faithful people of God. Using hymn lyrics written by Charles Wesley, I can truly say that as a people we are blessed to “see each other’s face” as we usher in this 169th session of the Oklahoma Annual Conference.

Our theme for this Annual Conference is: “Celebrate the Plan.” We gather here to celebrate the continuing progress in our churches and ministries since Oklahoma’s Strategic Plan was adopted, right here in Tulsa, in 2008. We also are honoring the significant role this historic Boston Avenue Church has filled for us many, many years, with its dedicated, outstanding ministry of hospitality during our days together. Let’s express our gratitude to Boston Avenue for the marvelous way they welcome and care for us every other year!

I have watched this Annual Conference grow into an intimate and unique fellowship—a family, I believe—made stronger by the challenges and opportunities that we have shared as we have sought to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. I have experienced firsthand your love and support for me and Dee, and I pray that you've felt our love in return. It is a privilege to serve you! Most of my days with you have been filled with enthusiasm, excitement and joy. And when dark clouds of adversity hung over my head, your prayers and unconditional caring provided the silver lining and the fresh winds that blew those clouds away. These two four-year terms have exceeded everything I could have imagined.

Now before anyone comes to the conclusion that these words may in some way seem a parting commentary, let me reassure you. This is not a “swan song,” not a farewell speech! Just like pastors, presiding bishops are a part of our Church's itinerate system; at the end of four years, bishops are either reassigned or moved to another conference. Along with our conference representatives on the Jurisdictional Episcopacy Committee, I am requesting reassignment to Oklahoma. Please, hear me clearly; we've done everything possible to remain here for a third term, through 2016. It is with confidence and optimism that we pray God will do the rest.

This is how I see it. In “The Book of Bible Lists,” H.L. Willmington writes that the number eight is “the new beginning number.” Genesis 7:13 records that eight people were saved from the Flood. The Jewish rite of inclusion into the religious community is always performed on the eighth day. In John 20:26, we read that the Apostle Thomas saw Jesus eight days after the resurrection.

If eight represents a new beginning, I interpret that as a sign that the end of my eighth year is simply a new beginning!

And so, let us begin! When General Conference convened in Florida, in late April, I had high hopes that crucial gathering would result in clear directives about how the Church is structured and how we address vital issues confronting our denomination. Much valuable time went into preparation and planning, sparked by the Call to Action in 2010, a rally cry for change.

But, without belaboring the point, major change did not happen at the General Conference, and delegates and leaders left Tampa looking for answers to the question, “Where do we go from here?”

I am disappointed, but not dismayed. I believe the Council of Bishops and other general-church entities in the coming months will speak to many of the issues that went unaddressed. However, as your bishop, I will not delay longer.

I choose to press forward and speak to Oklahoma's own issues of great concern.

Whatever term of service I have with you here in Oklahoma is too valuable for me to wait on the General Church to speak to our specific needs. With confidence and boldness, we must step out in faith to address our challenges—and then wait for the denomination to catch up with us!

We adopted our Strategic Plan in 2008; it was two years later that the Call to Action was introduced to the denomination. The Call to Action actually affirmed work well under way in Oklahoma, because we already were engaging in conversations about church vitality, starting new churches, ministering to young adults, and training and equipping a new generation of spiritual leaders—both clergy and lay. In case you haven't noticed, Oklahoma has always been several steps ahead of the General Church, and this is not the time to cease doing so!

What the Call to Action attempted to do was to alert us to the fact that the General Church is on an unsustainable path both economically and administratively, and if serious changes are not implemented, we will find ourselves out of touch with the future needs of the denomination. What I gleaned from the Call to Action was the undeniable need for the Oklahoma Conference to make a serious and detailed attempt to speak to pressing issues that prevent us from achieving our desired destiny. I truly believe that the future of our denomination lies in the local church, and since an overwhelming number of our churches have now adopted a strategic plan, the next logical next step is for us to align the resources of our conference to complement what has already happened over the last four years.

In simple terms, we must put our money where we are most productive.

What this means, my brothers and sisters, is we must take care of our own house and not wait for the General Church to do it for us. Our Strategic Plan is a marvelous tool that addresses church vitality, the need for new churches, and preparing spiritual leaders, but there must be another component that works hand in hand with it, and that component is fiscal responsibility and reform within the Conference itself.

Let us have clarity about this point: The Oklahoma Conference has a lot of sacred cows that need to be put out to pasture. We need to take a fresh look at how we do ministry, from how we budget and spend our money, to how we apportion our churches.

What are those ministries and programs that do the most for God's glory? What ministries and programs have the least impact, need to be run independently, perhaps be eliminated altogether? Is it time again to look at the structure of our Oklahoma Conference? Are 12 districts enough, too many, or too few? What programs do we need to overhaul in order to strengthen our churches, whatever their size, so every congregation understands and lives out its vital purpose in the community and the world? Are our Conference resources aligned in such a way to ensure the continuation of planting new churches that reach underserved populations, especially ethnic communities, which seem more challenging? Are we properly synchronized to work with the different Ministry Teams and the Board of Ordained Ministry to produce effective programs and prepare clergy and lay leadership for transforming service in the next five, 10, or 20 years?

Yes, there are more questions than answers, but I believe we must start seeking the answers now in order to be in the places where God wants us to be within the next few years. We must and we will be more fiscally responsible and accountable, and what that means is a lot of things will be examined and evaluated, and many changes will be recommended.

To that end, I will conduct a series of meetings with several groups within the Conference, and, by the beginning of September, I will name a task force to orchestrate plans in a way similar to how we developed our Strategic Plan. We may or may not want to hire a consultant or specialist to assist us. We may want to hold a series of town-hall meetings in every district, gathering ideas and suggestions.

As we prepare to begin this process, there are two books I suggest as resources for us to read. One is Lovett Weem's book titled "Focus," and the other is Bishop Schnase's book "Remember the Future." I have ordered 1,700 copies of Bishop Schnase's book, and they will be here by Tuesday.

Whatever our process, we must undertake this work with integrity and honesty, and void of self-interest and hidden agendas.

I pray that at our 2013 Annual Conference, in Oklahoma City, we can secure consensus on a few basic, fundamental changes, and that each year after that we move onto more difficult challenges that confront us. By 2016, I hope our Conference will be a model of efficiency and effectiveness, a golden standard for all other annual conferences.

This may frighten some and disturb others, but for eight years I have worked hard to earn your trust and confidence. Now it is time for me to use whatever measure of faith you have in me to produce the greatest good for our Conference. My promise to you is that, at the end of this process, everything accomplished will be to the glory of God and for the building of God's Kingdom here in Oklahoma.

There is much to do, but with your support and prayers, and the assurance that God is with us, there is nothing we cannot do! So, let us begin!

Bishop Robert E. Hayes Jr.

LAITY ADDRESS“CELEBRATE THE PLAN”

Celebrate the Plan? Can we celebrate Growing Fruitful Congregations? Can we celebrate Promoting Ministry Partnerships? Can we celebrate Equipping Spiritual Leaders?

Yes, we can! There is a reason we’re called the Sooner State, and it has nothing to do with crazy OU fans. Oklahomans have a reputation for getting there early and being out front. Oklahoma United Methodists were out front and cutting-edge with God’s plan that we celebrate today, three years before the General Church began its Call to Action, which focuses on Fruitful Congregations and leadership.

We know leadership is one of the keys and, frankly, our leadership in the Oklahoma Area is phenomenal in Bishop Hayes! He is set apart among leaders. He is a visionary. I love his practicality, intentionality, and interpersonal relationality. I know relationality is really not a word – but don’t you think it describes Bishop Hayes? Personality and relationships.

In large part because of his leadership, praise God, today we are in the position to “celebrate the plan,” a plan that is not status quo but one that is on the move. However, as wonderful as Bishop Hayes is, if Oklahoma laity and clergy were not responding to God’s call we wouldn’t have much to celebrate. So today we celebrate you, your churches, your laity and, as Ephesians 3: 20-21 says, God’s ability to work through you for God’s honor and glory!

Over the past eight years, I’ve observed Oklahoma United Methodist clergy to be dedicated, hardworking, hopeful most of the time, and pretty incredible.

Over the past eight years, I’ve observed the laity of Oklahoma to be pretty incredible also. The people who have been a part of the Laity Team are remarkable, and I’d like to introduce that team to you. Please stand and stay standing if my question applies to you over the past eight years.

- If you are serving on the Board of Laity team now or over the past eight years;
- If you are have been a director of Lay Speaking Ministries, been a certified lay speaker, or taught in one of the training events;
- If you’ve served as a Lay Leader of your church;
- If you’ve participated in any of the 16 Local Church Leaders Workshops.
- The Oklahoma United Methodist Foundation is one of our special partners, so if you attended Stewardship Focus Day, Imagine No Malaria Thunder Games, or Financial Peace University.
- If you’ve participated in Seminary Lite at OCU Saint Paul’s;
- If you were a member of the Leadership Oklahoma United Methodist team;
- If you participated in the Cooperative School of Christian Mission;
- If you were a part of a Young Adult Retreat, Single Parent Family Gathering, or one of the early years’ Small Church Events;
- If you are an Eagle Scout or have a troop of Scouts or other youth-serving groups that meet in your church;
- If you’ve helped with a potato drop, given a “Strength for Service” devotional book for an American service hero, or other UMM outreach;
- If you attended Next Step workshops;
- If you attended Lay Leader Focus Days;
- If you represent your church as lay member;
- If you are a clergy person who values and works with your lay leader.

These people are all part of the Laity Team – the team whose goal is to grow spiritual leaders equipped to help their local church families transform their communities and world by making disciples for Jesus Christ.

Our very special Ministry Partners are Craig Stinson and his staff; Joe Harris and the Communications Department; Brian Bakeman and his staff; and, of course, Bishop Hayes, the biggest cheerleader for laity. We are thankful for you all. Today we celebrate what God has done and continues to do through you.

But we are not finished. Our mission is not complete.

As long as there are thousands of homeless in shelters and abandoned buildings and students in high school who are homeless, living in cars or with friends, trying to get an education so they can get out of their situation, we are not finished...

As long as we have 7,300 confirmed cases of child abuse, with 51 deaths in a year, 82 percent under age 2, we are not finished...

As long as poverty for those under 18 continues to increase each year, we are not finished...

As long as we have 16,000 cases involving abuse, neglect, and exploitation of the elderly, we are not finished...

As long as every 9 seconds a woman in the U.S. is assaulted or beaten, we are not finished...

As long as 39 percent of Oklahomans do not even pretend to have a religious affiliation, including your neighbors and mine, we are not finished.

Laity and clergy, in every town in Oklahoma, we are not finished!

Hear the words of Haggai 2:1-7. I truly believe this parallels The United Methodist Church today.

“This temple will end up better than it started out.” (Feel free to substitute Conference or your church for temple)

The word of God came through the prophet Haggai:

“Is there anyone here who saw the temple the way it used to be, all glorious? And what do you see now? Not much, right? So get to work.”

God is speaking.

Get to work, high priest!

Get to work, all you people!

God is speaking: Yes, get to work! For I am with you! I’m living and breathing among you right now. Don’t be timid. Don’t hold back! This temple is going to end up far better than it started out, a glorious beginning but an even more glorious finish, a place in which I will hand out wholeness and holiness.

We are not finished!

Judy Benson, Conference Lay Leader

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICESCOUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

The Council on Finance and Administration, after prayerful and serious study, submits the following report:

1. SPECIAL DAYS:

The following special days are recommended to be observed by the local churches through publicity, services of worship, and offerings. (Many churches include these offerings as part of the local church budget.)

The World Communion Sunday offering is divided among Crusade Scholarships, Ethnic Minority Scholarships, and the Ethnic Minority In-Service Training Program.
- K. United Methodist Student Day.....November 24, 2013
This offering is used for United Methodist Scholarships and the United Methodist Student Loan Fund.

2. SPECIAL SOLICITATION OF FUNDS:

The Council recommends that agencies and institutions listed herewith be authorized to solicit for programs, current expenses, and endowment funds. Any new capital projects such as new buildings, purchase of land, expansion of existing facilities, etc., that might potentially obligate the Annual Conference shall be brought to CF&A for approval before solicitation of funds begins. CF&A recommends that the following agencies and institutions be granted permission to solicit funds within the above restrictions: United Methodist Circle of Care, Inc.; Trustees of Camps and Conferences; Oklahoma United Methodist Prison Ministry (CJAMM); Campus Ministries; The Oklahoma United Methodist Retirement Facilities; Oklahoma City University; Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits; Restore Hope Ministries; Skyline Urban Ministry; Cookson Hills Center; Congregational Development; Addiction Ministries; Volunteers in Mission; Emergency Crisis Fund for Clergy Covenant Families; District Boards of Missions; The Oklahoma United Methodist Foundation; Hispanic Ministries; and Project Transformation.

The Council recommends that only the above listed agencies be authorized by the Annual Conference to solicit funds on a continuing basis.

Any other conference-wide appeal or campaign for funds that is requested between sessions of the Annual Conference must be authorized by a joint session of the Council on Finance and Administration and the Annual Conference Cabinet.

* The MINISTERIAL SUPPORT items must be paid in an amount proportional to the amount paid on the pastor's support, as required in Paragraphs 622, 639.4, and 817.3 of the 2008 Book of Discipline. If the pastor is paid 100% of salary and support, then these items must be paid 100%.

 The apportionment for Saint Paul Seminary at OCU is for five years, ending in 2017.

4. AUTHORIZED CHANGES

Internal budgets related to the Annual Conference Council, ministry teams, and departments (line item amounts printed elsewhere in the Journal) within the totals listed above are binding unless changed by authorization of the body by whom those budgets were approved. Entities empowered to authorize such changes are as follows: Annual Conference Council, Mission and Service Ministry Team, Discipleship Ministry Team, Leadership Development Ministry Team, Department of Congregational Development, and Department of Communications.

5. THE 2013 CONFERENCE DECIMAL PLAN

The Council recommends that all 2013 Apportionments shall be distributed annually to the local churches on the basis of each church's decimal, calculated as follows:

- A. Each local church's decimal shall be based on the church's expenditures as reported to the Annual Conference and recorded in the Statistical Tables of the Journal, or as corrected and certified by the District Superintendent and reported to the Council on Finance and Administration.
- B. Each local church's total for Current Program Expense, Other Operating Expense, and all Staff Compensation (including diaconal ministers and clergy) for the years 2009, 2010, and 2011 shall be divided by the Annual Conference total of those same items for the same three years. (Columns 53, 54a, 55a, 56a, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61a, and 62a for 2009, 2010, and 2011.)
- C. Congregations that anchor a new church start approved by the Cabinet and have a clergy appointed to undertake the task will have amounts listed in columns 54b, 55b, 56b, 61b, and 62b deducted from their expenses in 2009, 2010, and 2011 above.
- D. Churches who make donations to new church starts and/or church revitalization may show those donations on line 48 so that they are not included in their Apportionment calculations.
- E. The resulting decimal for each church shall be multiplied by the amount of each Apportionment approved by the Annual Conference as the budget for the year.
- F. The amount so determined shall be distributed to each local church as its share of the Apportionments to be presented to each charge, but not made subject to acceptance. It is requested that each Apportionment as apportioned shall be included in full in each local church budget, reflecting a commitment to the worldwide mission of The United Methodist Church. Local churches who so desire may include ministerial support items, designated on the Apportionment sheet by an asterisk (*), in the clergy support section of their budget. Interpretative information about the Apportionments will be available to laity and clergy.

6. SALARIES, ALLOWANCES, AND EXPENSES

The following amounts shall be the total remuneration for each of the named offices. In each case, utility costs and other housing costs shall be included in the calculation of the gross compensation and set apart by resolution of the Council on Finance and Administration.

Moving expenses for district superintendents and other conference executives shall be paid from the Ministers' Moving Fund according to the guidelines in effect at the time of the move. No additional expenses in connection with a move or change of appointment shall be paid from Annual Conference Funds.

- A. It is recommended that the 2013 gross compensation for each district superintendent shall be 150% of the 2013 Conference Average Compensation as determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, rounded to the nearest $100, plus $3,000 in an accountable expense reimbursement account. Business travel will be reimbursed at the standard IRS business mileage rate. All compensation and expense reimbursements shall be paid from the District Superintendents' Fund.

- B. It is recommended that the 2013 gross compensation for the Director of Connectional Ministries shall be 150% of the 2013 Conference Average Compensation as determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, rounded to the nearest $100, plus $6,600 in an accountable expense reimbursement account. An additional $15,300 shall be included as a housing allowance. Business travel will be reimbursed at the standard IRS business mileage rate. All compensation and expense reimbursements shall be paid from the budget of the Annual Conference Council.
- C. It is recommended that the 2013 salary for the Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services shall be 150% of the 2013 Conference Average Compensation as determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, rounded to the nearest $100, plus $6,600 in an accountable expense reimbursement account. An additional $15,300 shall be included as a housing allowance. Business travel will be reimbursed at the standard IRS business mileage rate. Salary and expense reimbursements shall be paid from the budget of the Conference Treasurer.
- D. It is recommended that the 2013 gross compensation for the Director of Communications/Administrative Assistant to the Bishop shall be 150% of the 2013 Conference Average Compensation as determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, rounded to the nearest $100, plus $6,600 in an accountable expense reimbursement account. An additional $15,300 shall be included as a housing allowance. Business travel will be reimbursed at the standard IRS business mileage rate. Salary and expense reimbursements shall be paid from the budget of the Department of Communications.

7. HOLIDAYS

The following holidays shall be observed by Conference Ministry Center staff: New Year's Day, Martin Luther King Day, Good Friday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving and the day after, Christmas, and one floating holiday on a date determined each year.

8. PROCEDURE FOR RESPONDING TO REQUESTS FOR COMPLIANCE WITH DISCIPLINE ¶613.20

The Oklahoma Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration advises conference boards, agencies, committees, commissions, and councils of all restrictions in The Book of Discipline on the use of funds and sends compliance requests.

The Council hereby designates its Executive Committee to deal with requests for clarification of compliance with Discipline ¶613.20, which prohibits any board, agency, committee, commission, or council from giving United Methodist funds to any gay caucus or group, or otherwise using such funds to promote the acceptance of homosexuality.

The Executive Committee is convened if and when a request is received asking for clarification of an action of any entity receiving Annual Conference funds that is thought to be out of compliance with ¶613.20. CF&A then informs the entity that a request for an opinion was received and requests from the entity all materials relevant to the inquiry. The members of the Executive Committee will review the materials provided and may ask for information or input from the entity in complicated cases.

Following its deliberations, the Executive Committee makes its determination and the opinion is shared with all interested parties. Any appeals may be made to the full Council on Finance and Administration, whose decision shall be final.

Possible outcomes:

- A) Determination that funds were not or will not be used in violation of ¶613.20.
- B) Determination that funds were or may be used in violation of ¶613.20. In such event, the Council retains the right to request return or withholding of Annual Conference funds.

9. ANNUAL AUDIT

Finley and Cook, P.L.L.C., certified public accountants, have audited the books of the Conference Treasurer for the year 2011.

10. CENTRAL TREASURY

The Council on Finance and Administration would urge this Annual Conference to reiterate and emphasize its support of the directive given by previous Annual Conferences to consolidate conference financial operations under a central treasury where practical under prudent business practices.

11. INFORMATION IN JOURNAL

Information concerning clergy salaries, housing allowances, and accountable expense reimbursement amounts can be found in the statistical tables in the Conference Journal.

12. REGULAR REMITTANCES

The Council strongly recommends each local church make a determined effort to remit Apportionments in equal monthly installments to provide for the support of our outreach ministries each month of the year. One-hundred-percent participation in Apportionments is defined as remittance in full of each apportioned item.

13. CERTIFIED CHURCH BUSINESS ADMINISTRATORS

Brian Bakeman, Deacon	Philip Greenwald, Deacon
Conference Treasurer	Oklahoma City, St. Luke's UMC

14. STANDARD MILEAGE RATE

The mileage rate for volunteers attending meetings and participating in Annual Conference ministries and administration shall be the IRS charitable mileage rate. [That amount is presently fourteen (14) cents per mile.]

15. BUDGET AND ACCOUNTING MODIFICATIONS

We authorize the treasurer to adapt a modified cash basis of accounting (rather than accrual basis). We also authorized a unified budget for the Conference Ministry Center.

16. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES OF THE AUDIT REVIEW COMMITTEE

Audit Review Committee Chairperson, Connie Gibson

PURPOSE:

The purpose of the Audit Review Committee is to receive and review: the audit report on the Oklahoma Conference financial records; audit reports or other financial information from all conference agencies; audit reports or other financial information from all agencies, institutions, and organizations receiving financial support from the Annual Conference; and audit reports or other financial information from all districts or district agencies within the Annual Conference.

Based upon these reviews, the Audit Review Committee will make recommendations, as appropriate, to the Council on Finance and Administration.

FUNCTIONS:

The Audit Review Committee shall: ensure the financial records of the Oklahoma Annual Conference for the preceding fiscal year are audited by a certified public accountant within 150 days after the close of the conference fiscal year; receive, review, and report the audit to the Council on Finance and Administration and the Annual Conference; require and review each year audit reports or other financial information from all conference agencies; require and review each year audit reports or other financial information from all agencies, institutions, and organizations receiving any financial support from the Oklahoma Annual Conference; and require and review each year audit reports or other financial information on all funds received or administered by districts or district agencies.

MEMBERSHIP:

The Chairperson of the Audit Review Committee shall be elected by the Council on Finance and Administration from the members of the Council. At least half of the members of the Audit Review Committee shall be persons who are not members of the Council on Finance and Administration, who are chosen for their expertise in areas related to the work of the Audit Review Committee.

MEETINGS:

The Chairperson will call meetings as needed to review financial reports and information received or to review and refine the audit review process, including the information to be provided for review.

PROCEDURES/RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Audit Review Committee, in consultation with the Council on Finance and Administration, is responsible for engaging the certified public accountant to perform the annual audit of the financial records of the Oklahoma Annual Conference. The letter of engagement should be executed by the September meeting of the Council on Finance and Administration (or by the closest meeting date to September prior to year-end).

The Conference Treasurer's Office will maintain a current mailing list of all entities whose audit reports or financial information are subject to review by the Audit Review Committee.

The Conference Treasurer's Office will be the permanent depository of all information and files related to the work of the Audit Review Committee, including all audit reports or other financial information received, documentation of the audit review, and all correspondence regarding the audit review and/or receipt of information.

By the end of the first quarter of each year, the Chairperson of the Audit Review Committee will email or mail a letter to every entity subject to audit review, indicating the requirement to submit an Audit Report and Audit Report Supplement to the Conference Treasurer no later than August 1st.

After the audit reports and other financial information are received, the Audit Review Committee will meet at the Conference Office and will complete the audit reviews on-site. All reviews should be completed prior to the January meeting of the Council on Finance and Administration (or the closest meeting date to January after the end of the year). Any exceptions or requests for additional information should be resolved to the extent possible by the March meeting of the Council on Finance and Administration (or the closest meeting date to March prior to May).

The Chairperson of the Audit Review Committee will report to the Council on Finance and Administration a summary of the Audit Review Committee's work and any specific recommendations for further investigation or action that may be warranted as a result of the audit reviews.

The Audit Review Committee will support the work of the Annual Conference Council, by providing the results of the Committee's audit review to the Annual Conference Council for all entities subject to a Ministry Audit.

The audit review process and the information required for review will be evaluated each year.

2011 REPORT ON VITAL CONGREGATIONS

(A statistical report)

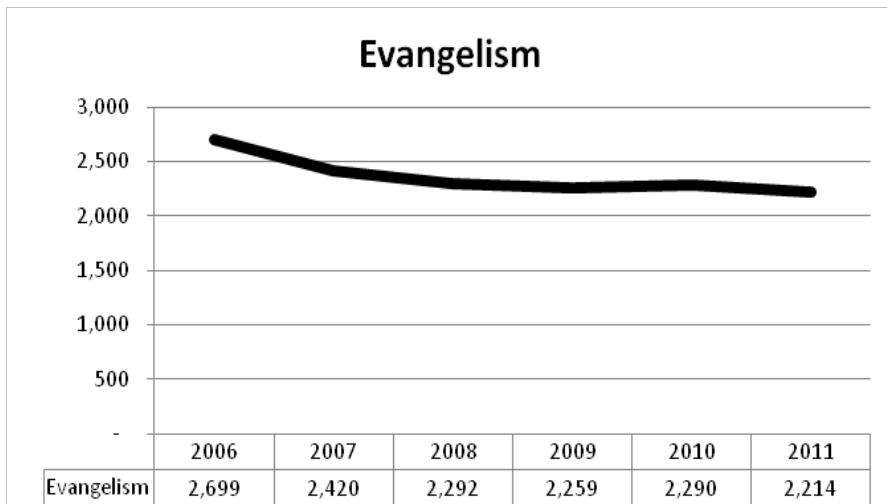

Every year we report our local church statistics and try to compare them to last year. This year, in response to a report on vital congregations, we are going to report using the metrics that GCF&A has developed in an attempt to better visualize how our churches are doing. They have come up with five areas of measurement based on the past five years. I have added a sixth one to measure the total expenditures by all the churches in the conference.

Brian Bakeman, conference statistician

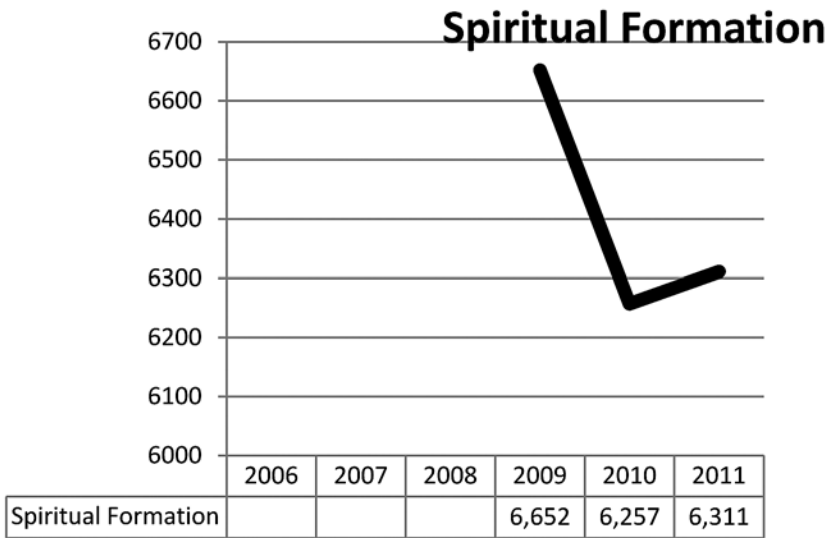

WORSHIP MEASURES THE AVERAGE WORSHIP ATTENDANCE OF ALL CHURCHES.

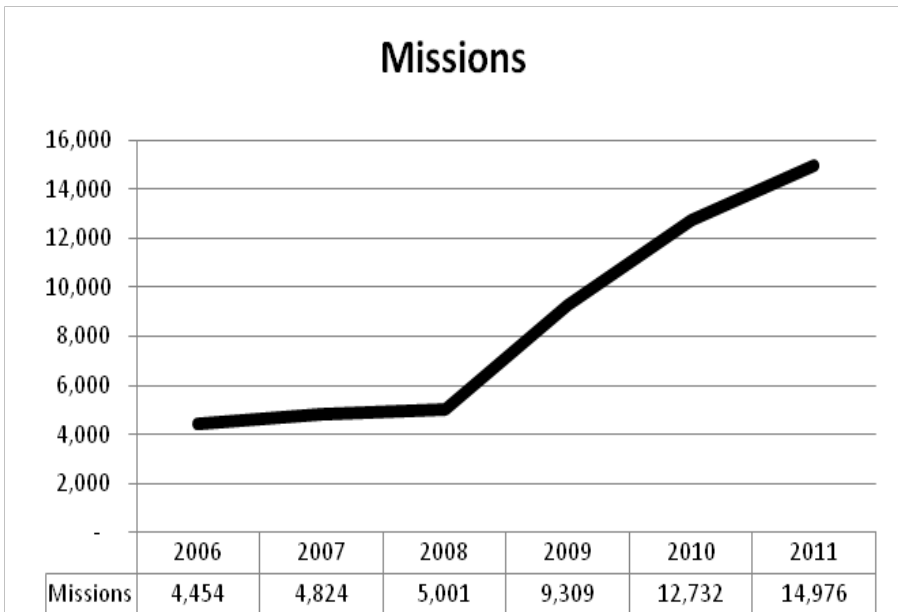

EVANGELISM MEASURES THE NUMBER OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE JOINED THE CHURCH BY PROFESSION OF FAITH.

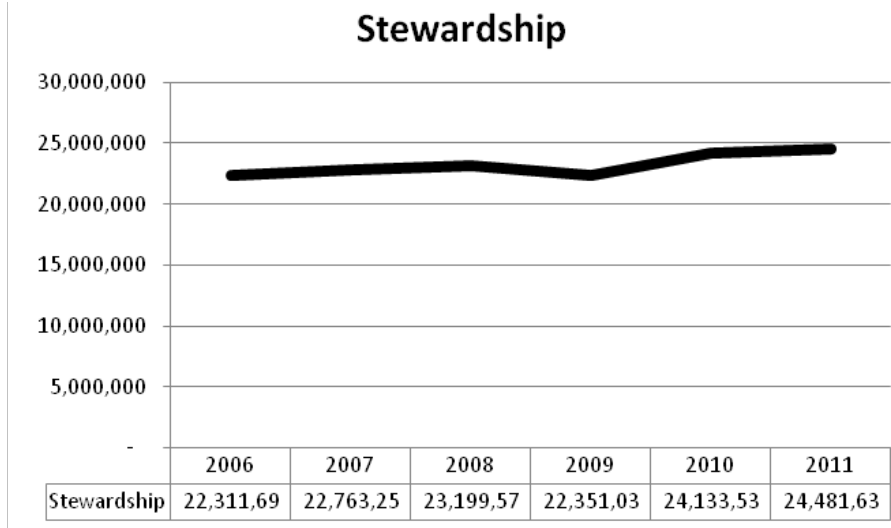

SPIRITUAL FORMATION MEASURES THE NUMBER OF SMALL GROUPS, SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES, AND BIBLE STUDIES.

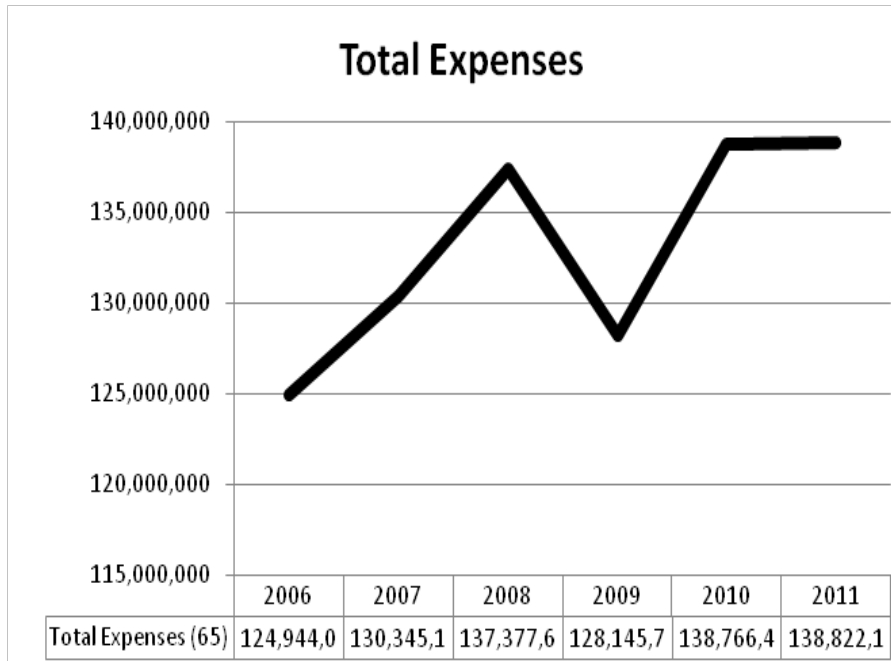

MISSIONS MEASURES THE NUMBER OF PEOPLE FROM CONGREGATIONS ENGAGED IN LOCAL, NATIONAL, AND INTERNATIONAL MISSION/OUTREACH MINISTRIES.

STEWARDSHIP MEASURES THE TOTAL AMOUNT GIVEN BY CONGREGATIONS TO OTHER ORGANIZATIONS FOR THE SUPPORT OF BENEVOLENT AND CHARITABLE MINISTRIES (INCLUDES APPORTIONMENTS PAID, SUPPORT FOR ALL UNITED METHODIST ORGANIZATIONS, AND NON-UNITED METHODIST ORGANIZATIONS ACTIVE IN WORK SUCH AS ADVOCACY, EDUCATION, HEALTH, JUSTICE, MERCY, OUTREACH, AND WELFARE ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD).

TOTAL CONGREGATIONAL EXPENSES FOR OPERATIONS, MISSIONS, BUILDING, AND PROGRAMMING.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

The 2008 Book of Discipline defines the purpose of the Commission on Equitable Compensation in ¶625.2 as “to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the Annual Conference by:

- (A) recommending conference standards for pastoral support;
- (B) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and
- (C) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to District Superintendents and Committees on Staff-Pastor-Parish Relations.”

The demands the Church and churches require of the clergy as just, proper, and necessary are exceedingly great and becoming more exacting all the time.

Educational requirements include the course of study, or seminary beyond college, and a probationary period with continuing education.

Personal qualifications call for the highest integrity.

Equitable ministerial compensation requires the highest priority be given to the claims on the pastor and family by the congregations as salary and other support items are set.

I. ADMINISTRATION OF COMPENSATION

A. Supplemental Funds

The order of deacon should receive the minimum compensation according to Schedule of Minimum Compensation. Payment of all compensation is the responsibility of the salary-paying unit. The order of deacon has no claim on the Equitable Compensation Fund.

Salary supplementation by the Commission is through the Equitable Compensation Fund and the Ministers’ Moving Expense Fund.

The Oklahoma Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation seeks to accomplish the following as its purpose:

To set adequate and reasonable salary and compensation standards for clergy and other people providing pastoral leadership to local churches;

To encourage specific churches that would benefit from full-time clergy in their growth and development;

To support full-time clergy for ethnic ministry churches in Oklahoma (¶625.6 in the 2008 Book of Discipline); and

To assist churches to progress toward complete support of their pastoral leadership and to encourage alternative plans for churches or charges unable to achieve this.

In order to fulfill these purposes, the Commission will administer the Equitable Compensation Fund under four sets of standards: Minimum Compensation, Exceptional Assistance, Missional Support, and New Church Start Assistance. Pastoral support funds will be paid to the church along with a specified amount to be used by the church to pay the portion of the pension related to the salary support. The Commission on Equitable Compensation encourages cooperative and cooperating parishes in order to facilitate ministry and provide pastoral support. All applications for Equitable Compensation Support shall be received by the Conference office by December 15th. Failure to do so will make the church ineligible to receive any Equitable Compensation funds effective January 1st. The total amount requested by the Cabinet on December 15th shall not exceed the amount budgeted for the coming year. Failure to turn in the Annual Audit for the previous year by August 1st will result in termination of Equitable Compensation funds January 1st of the subsequent year.

1. Minimum Compensation

a. Requirements Necessary to Qualify for Minimum Compensation Support

- 1. No two churches within 20 miles of each other will be allowed to share in the minimum compensation plan unless they combine to form a circuit.
- 2. A pastor who is gainfully employed in any occupation other than the ministry shall not share in the minimum compensation provisions. To qualify, a pastor must serve full-time and live on the charge. (Exceptions to the requirement that pastors live on the charge may be approved by the Commission on Equitable Compensation if recommended by the Cabinet.)
- 3. The charge shall increase its portion of pastoral salary and pension support a minimum of (5%) five percent each calendar year. If a charge does not increase by a minimum of five percent, the Cabinet must support the claim to the Commission on Equitable Compensation.
- 4. In no case can a charge qualify for minimum compensation support if the - churches of the charge decrease the pastoral support below that of 2012.

5. The schedule listed below will be paid, provided all allocated funds are sufficient; if not, all claims shall be paid on a pro rata basis.
 6. The charge should pay at least one-half of the minimum compensation for the classification of their pastor (B. 1 and 2), provided that no charge shall pay less than $12,000 for the year 2013. New churches may be exempted from this rule and raise the $12,000 minimum from outside sources for a limit of five (5) years from the foundation of the charge or the inception of the revitalization.
 7. Each church in the charge must pay pension on all base compensation paid by that local church.
 8. No charge shall receive both minimum compensation support and any other salary supplement at the same time.
 9. In order that a charge may qualify for minimum compensation, it is necessary that the district superintendent report the eligibility of the charge and pastor on the form approved by the Commission on Equitable Compensation to the chair of the Commission, who will then authorize the Conference Treasurer to make payments.
 10. In no case shall the amount paid to a charge for a full-time pastor or seminary student who is a member of the Annual Conference be less than the minimum which, with housing provided by the charge, will qualify for participation in the Comprehensive Protection Plan. Any supplemental amount needed may be paid from the Equitable Compensation Fund as a special benefit.
- b. Schedule of Minimum Compensation—Effective January 1, 2013
- There are two classifications of ministers listed: Conference Members and Local Pastors. No others are eligible for minimum salary support.
1. Full-time Associate, Provisional, and Full-Connection Members living on the charge shall receive $34,259 plus $2,400 for each additional church.
 2. Full-time Local Pastors living on the charge shall receive $30,657, plus $2,400 for each additional church.
- c. Requirements Necessary to Qualify for the Minimum Compensation “Incentive Plan”
1. The objective of this plan, as with all minimum compensation support, is to strengthen the work of the local church. The goal of this plan is to allow and encourage local churches to increase pastoral support, allowing the pastor in the appointment to receive the benefit of increased income from the local church without losing support from the Equitable Compensation Fund.
 2. Pastoral support increases by the local church during the tenure of one pastor shall be added to the total allowable income for the pastor during the duration of the appointment relationship of that pastor with that church. In the event the church’s portion of the pastor’s salary reaches or exceeds the minimum compensation, the Conference portion must be negotiated with the Commission on an annual basis. In no case shall the combined support exceed the Conference Average Compensation.
 3. Whenever a change in pastoral appointment occurs, or at the end of the Incentive Plan Agreement, the charge is to maintain the then-existing level of pastoral support. At such time, calculation of equitable support payment shall be adjusted so total compensation is correct for the pastor’s classification.
 4. In order for a plan to be in effect in any charge, the Incentive Plan Application Form of the Commission on Equitable Compensation shall be submitted by the district superintendent after Bishop and Cabinet approval to the chair of the Commission, who will then authorize the Conference Treasurer to make payments.
- d. Requirements Necessary to Qualify for Exceptional Assistance
1. The Bishop and the Cabinet must agree that Exceptional Assistance is warranted and needed.
 2. The Bishop and the Cabinet must agree on the duration and the initial amount of Exceptional Assistance.
 3. Assistance cannot continue for more than four years.

4. The initial amount may continue for up to two years and then decrease over the remaining years.
5. In order for a charge to qualify for Exceptional Assistance, it is necessary that the district superintendent submit the request for assistance on the form approved by the Commission on Equitable Compensation after Bishop and Cabinet approval to the chair of the Commission, who will then authorize the Conference Treasurer to make payments.

e. Requirements Necessary to Qualify for Missional Support

1. Only situations identified by the Bishop and the Cabinet shall qualify for support from this source of funding.
2. Pastoral support funding may be provided for persons appointed or assigned to missional settings without regard to the requirements for Minimum Compensation Support.
3. Such funding shall continue so long as the Bishop and the Cabinet agree that Missional Support is needed.
4. In order for a charge to qualify for Missional Support, it is necessary that the district superintendent submit the request for support on the form approved by the Commission on Equitable Compensation after Bishop and Cabinet approval to the chair of the Commission, who will then authorize the Conference Treasurer to make payments.
5. The total amount allocated as Missional Support shall not exceed 60% of the total amount budgeted for salary support.

f. Requirements Necessary to Qualify for New Church Start Assistance

1. Bishop and the Cabinet must agree that New Church Start assistance is warranted and needed.
2. The Bishop and the Cabinet must agree on the duration and the initial amount of New Church Start assistance.
3. Assistance cannot continue for more than four years.
4. The initial amount may continue for up to two years and then decrease over the remaining years.
5. In order for a charge to qualify for New Church Start assistance, it is necessary that the district superintendent submit the request for assistance on the form approved by the Commission on Equitable Compensation after Bishop and Cabinet approval to the chair of the Commission, who will then authorize the Conference Treasurer to make payments.

B. Ministers' Moving Expense Fund

The primary spiritual leadership role within The United Methodist Church comes from the appointment of itinerating clergy leadership. To function at its best, the bishop needs the ability to appoint the best person to lead and serve a local church. Understanding that clergy are sent where needed, the Ministers' Moving Expense Fund is designed to help reimburse part of the moving expense for the itinerating clergy to move from one appointment within the Conference to another.

With that understanding, the Ministers' Moving Expense Fund will reimburse elders, associate members, local pastors, and "to be supplied" pastors who are serving local congregations or Oklahoma Conference institutions according to the following schedule:

SCHEDULE – Effective January 1, 2013

1. Payments from the Ministers' Moving Expense Fund shall be as follows:
 - a. Only pastors under appointment and living on the charge, or serving the Annual Conference in a connexional relationship, or in an Oklahoma Conference institution will be eligible to receive payment.
 - b. For pastors moving from one appointment to another, payments shall be made at the rate of $1,900 plus $1 per mile. In the case of a clergy couple, if the appointment for each is changed and involves moving books and equipment into separate church studies, there shall be an additional payment of $200 per couple.
 - c. For the first move of a pastor to begin active service under appointment in the Oklahoma Conference, payment shall be made at the rate of $1,900 plus $1 per mile. For persons coming from out of state, the mileage will be calculated from the Conference border to the appointment.
 - d. For the following, the payment shall be $1,900:
 - 1) A pastor who is retiring or granted disability leave, if a change of residence is required;
 - 2) A pastor who is appointed to sabbatical leave, if a change of residence is required;
 - 3) A pastor returning to active appointment status from sabbatical leave, leave of absence, or suspension, if a change of residence is required. If a minister retires from sabbatical leave, no additional payment will be made.
 - e. No payment shall be made to a pastor who:
 - 1) Is appointed to attend a school, college, or seminary;
 - 2) Is moving to another annual conference;
 - 3) Is going on leave of absence or under suspension.
 - f. Pastors who move appointments but do not move residences shall receive a stipend of $200.
 - g. A retired pastor who is appointed as a supply pastor and a change of residence is required shall receive ½ of the basic allowance plus mileage, and will receive the remaining ½ of the current basic allowance plus mileage at the end of their appointment. An exception to this rule is when a retired pastor accepts a subsequent appointment immediately following and is required to change residences again will receive the full basic allowance plus mileage. After this appointment or when the pastor goes back into retirement the pastor will receive the other ½ of the current basic allowance rate plus mileage
 - h. In the case of the death of a pastor while in active service, the spouse (or individual responsible for removing personal property, if there is no surviving spouse) shall be given a grant of $2,500 immediately if the home has been provided by the church or agency and a change of residence is required. If no change of residence is required, the spouse (or individual responsible for removing personal property, if there is no surviving spouse), shall receive a stipend of $200 to clear out any office space or equipment.
 - i. Payments shall be made directly to pastors at the close of the annual conference, or as soon thereafter as possible. Certification of appointment changes shall be made by the Cabinet to the Conference Treasurer as early as practicable. The Treasurer shall determine the mileage of each move using an Internet map service, such as MapQuest.com. When changes occur between sessions of the annual conference, the Cabinet shall certify the changes to the Conference Treasurer, who shall determine the amount of payment and issue checks as quickly as possible to the pastors involved.
2. The Commission recommends that the local church receiving a new pastor make additional reimbursement toward the cost of moving expenses that are not covered by the Annual Conference moving allowance.
3. Each minister shall make his/her own moving arrangements.
4. When the decision of a local church or agency makes it necessary for a pastor to change residences without changing appointments, the move shall be the responsibility of the local church or agency.
5. Status of Ministers' Moving Expense Fund:

Fund Balance January 1, 2011	$104,926
Receipts from churches	$157,279
Disbursements	$164,146
Fund Balance December 31, 2011	$98,062

II. Parsonage Standards

Note: See the 2008 Book of Discipline, Paragraphs 2532.4, 2543.3b, 2543.4d, and others as applicable.

A. Clergy Housing Standards Policy of The Oklahoma Annual Conference

1. Discipline Requirements and Assigned Responsibilities for Clergy Housing

- a. The Church Council shall: “review the recommendation of the committee on pastor-parish relations regarding provision of adequate housing for the pastor(s), and report the same to the charge conference for approval. Housing provisions shall comply with the annual conference housing policy and parsonage standards. Housing shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration.” (Discipline 2008 ¶252.4e)
- b. The Committee on Staff-Parish Relations shall: ...“consult on matters pertaining... to housing (which may be a church-owned parsonage or housing allowance in lieu of parsonage if in compliance with the policy of the annual conference), and other practical matters affecting the work and families of the pastor and staff. The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor’s family. The chairperson of the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees, and the Pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance.” (Discipline 2008 ¶258.16)
- c. The Board of Trustees will be directed by the Charge Conference with respect to the purchase, sale, mortgage, encumbrance, construction, repairing, remodeling, and maintenance of any and all property of the local church. (Discipline 2008 ¶2534-2543) (Note: See The Book of Discipline 2008 Paragraphs 2532.4, 2543.3b, 2543.4d.)

2. Joint Responsibilities of Churches and Clergy for Parsonage Maintenance

- a. A home expresses character and the condition of the parsonage reflects on the relationship between the clergy family and the church. Happy is the pastor who can be proud of his/her church for the kind of parsonage provided for his/her use. Happy is the church whose parsonage family cares for the house provided for them as good stewards.
- b. The chairperson of the Staff-Parish Relations Committee, along with the chairperson of the Trustees and the pastor, shall make an annual review of church-owned clergy housing within two months prior to Charge Conference, giving special attention to maintenance and updating needs, as well as creating a timeline of when those needs will be fulfilled. The annual review of the church-owned clergy housing will be included in an annual report to the Charge Conference and the district superintendent.
- c. Thirty days prior to the time a pastoral change occurs involving a church-owned parsonage, the local church Board of Trustees shall make a thorough review of the parsonage, and provide detailed notes regarding the condition of the physical property, grounds, furnishings, needed repairs and updates, and the plans to implement needed repairs and updates. These notes shall be provided to the incoming pastor for review prior to occupancy. This Trustees’ report, including exceptions thereto, will provide basis for determining what constitutes ordinary wear and tear at the time of a succeeding pastoral change.
- d. If excessive damages to church-owned and clergy-occupied housing are evident, beyond that incurred with normal wear and tear, the outgoing clergy family shall be responsible for costs of damages. A list of the damages and cost of the repair will be presented to the district superintendent, who will work with the local church and the outgoing clergy family to recover costs for repair.

In the event of a conflict concerning any issues, said issues should be presented to the district superintendent and the Church Location and Building Committee, by any of the parties involved, i.e.: trustees, SPRC, Parsonage Committee, outgoing and incoming clergy, for resolution.

This policy applies also to district parsonages, with responsibility for implementation belonging to the District Committee on Superintendency and District Trustees and the Bishop. This policy also applies to conference executive housing, with responsibility for implementation belonging to the Executive Committee on Housing and the Bishop.

- e. Two percent of the cost of replacement of parsonage and furnishings shall be included each year in the local church's annual budget. This policy also applies to district parsonages and conference executive housing. Churches should retain any unused funds to apply toward unforeseen emergencies.
- 3. Guidelines for Parsonage Maintenance
- a. Interior and exterior inspections of the parsonage shall be done annually for maintenance needs. These needs are the responsibility of the local church. Annual responsibilities include:
- 1) Cleaning windows and storm windows inside and out
 - 2) Cleaning the guttering
 - 3) Checking the heating and cooling system—Air ducts shall be cleaned prior to the arrival of a new parsonage family.
 - 4) Cleaning the chimney
 - 5) Termite and pest control inspections—if corrective measures are needed, taken without delay and with professional treatments. The local church assumes the cost for these services. (Suggestion: Scheduling the annual responsibilities for April or May would also meet many requirements for churches receiving new parsonage families following Annual Conference.)
- b. Local Boards of Trustees, Staff-Parish Relations Committees or the designated Parsonage Committee shall initiate the replacement of church-owned furniture, appliances, window treatments, carpets, etc. when they observe it is needed, rather than waiting for the family to ask. However, the clergy family should ask if it is not done. When the items are to be replaced, the parsonage family should make selections in consultation with the committees assuming responsibility for clergy housing.
- c. Major renovation, repair and replacement shall be done by the church as they are needed, taking into consideration the church's financial situation. The pastor, not the church, shall be responsible for correcting extreme or unusual damage, beyond normal wear and tear, to the parsonage and its furnishings. Changes of interior decorating shall be done with the mutual consent of the church and clergy family. If an appointment change has been made, the incoming family should be consulted regarding their decorating choices.
- d. An inventory of the church-owned furnishings and appliances, with notes taken of the dates of purchase, the original costs, where items were purchased, all warranties for purchased items, and condition of each item shall be compiled and updated annually by the Staff-Parish Relations Committee and the Board of Trustees or designated Parsonage Committee in consultation with the clergy family.
- e. A current inventory reflecting replacement needs shall be included in the budget annually and replacements accomplished promptly.
- f. Parsonage Lawn
- 1) Lawn landscaping, maintenance, and care involving trees, shrubs, fertilizing, and sprinkler systems are the responsibility of the church.
 - 2) Many churches provide parsonage lawn care in conjunction with church lawn services. If this is not the case, the church shall provide and maintain a power lawn mower appropriate to lawn size and other tools required to maintain the lawn with ease. Mutual arrangements between pastors and churches for lawn care shall be made to best benefit each and to assist with any extenuating circumstances.
- g. When a church-owned parsonage is equipped with unusual appurtenances, such as a swimming pool, the church shall be responsible for maintenance.
- h. The church shall carefully evaluate the overall security of the building and grounds. Attention shall be paid to screens, secure windows, window and door locks, gates and alarm systems. This shall include fire prevention measures such as an adequate number of smoke detectors, carbon monoxide detectors, fire extinguishers, escape ladders and a fire escape plan. When possible, an annual inspection shall be made by the fire department and other utility companies.
- i. Before a new parsonage family moves into the parsonage, the church shall be responsible for:
- 1) Cleaning: gutters, ducts, drapery, carpets, windows and storm windows inside and out
 - 2) Chimney sweeping
 - 3) Professional exterminating for pests and termites
 - 4) Re-caulking bathrooms, kitchen, and other tile areas

- 5) All mechanical equipment, plumbing, and appliances to be in proper working order
- 6) ALL lights and lamps to have working bulbs
- j. In case of a long-term pastorate, the above items shall be taken care of periodically.
- k. The church (trustees/parsonage committees) shall consult with incoming families on the following items:
 - 1) Lock replacements: Replacement costs are the responsibility of the church. The number of keys is to be limited to the Trustees chairperson, although other keys may be shared upon mutual agreement of the church and parsonage family.
 - 2) Carpet cleaning: Would the incoming family prefer the carpets to be cleaned prior to arrival, or at a later date chosen by the family?
 - 3) Decorating choices: The incoming family shall be consulted about decorating choices, especially regarding wall paint. For a minor cost, freshly painted walls in their chosen shades can welcome a new parsonage family in a major way!

4. Guidelines for Pets in the Parsonage:

If pets are kept inside the parsonage, the following guidelines shall be met:

- a. The church trustees shall be kept informed of any pet inside or outside the parsonage.
- b. All damages incurred by any pet shall be the responsibility of the pastor.
- c. Professional flea and tick management is required. The parsonage family shall be responsible for the cost.
- d. If pets are kept inside, the parsonage family shall make an extra effort to thoroughly clean the parsonage to eliminate any evidence of pets having been present, which includes fleas, ticks, pet hair, pet dander, stains, excrements, etc.
- e. Damage to the parsonage incurred by pets is the pastor's responsibility and shall be reported to the Trustees and assessed. Payment should be immediate, but no later than moving day.
- f. In the event of a conflict concerning any of the above itemized guidelines, said issues shall be presented to the district superintendent and the District Board of Church Location and Building by any of the parties involved, i.e.: Trustees, SPRC, Parsonage Committee, outgoing and incoming clergy, for resolution.

5. Guidelines for Smoking

All parsonages shall be smoke- and tobacco-free. Any use of tobacco inside the parsonage is prohibited but outside is allowed.

6. Parsonage Furniture

The clergy family shall be responsible for furniture for the following rooms: the family room, up to 3 bedrooms, and the kitchen eating area. These rooms will be furnished at the pastor's discretion and expense. If a parsonage has a formal living room and dining room, IN ADDITION to a family room and a kitchen eating area, the furniture for the formal living room and dining room shall be provided by the church/charge.

7. Utilities for Clergy Housing

All deposits for utilities shall be maintained in the name of the church when possible. The utility allowance can be a part of the pastor's compensation plan. (Utilities include: electric, gas, water, Internet, basic cable, phone and waste management.) In the event that the utility allowance is part of the pastor's compensation plan the utilities shall be paid in a timely manner.

8. Recommendations for Parsonage Insurance

Insurance of real and personal property is the responsibility of the owner of the property. Clergy families shall secure their own personal insurance.

9. Recommendations for Keeping Accurate Inventory of Property

- a. Inventory of parsonage church-owned furnishings shall be made annually.
- b. An information notebook shall include:
 - 1) For each appliance: operating instructions or manuals
 - 2) Repair instructions: Service personnel to call, which church member to contact. It is understood that service calls and repairs of major appliances owned by the church shall be paid for by the church.

- 3) Information about location and/or care of the following items:
 - a. Sprinkler systems
 - b. Turn-off valves for gas and outside and inside water
 - c. Meters
 - d. Fuse or switch boxes, circuit breakers, and main switch (labeled properly)
 - e. Size and change intervals for heating and cooling filters
 - f. Perennial plants for all seasons
 - g. Any unusual appliances, equipment, alarm systems, or household peculiarities (such as attic doors)
 - h. Attic storage capabilities—do and don'ts for storing items
 - i. Sewer clean-outs
 - j. Phone numbers to call for emergencies: police, fire, ambulance, insurance co., plumbers, utilities and other services
 - k. Established church policies for periodic cleaning of carpets, drapes, and especially vent cleaning
 - l. List of businesses that are United Methodist-related and/or able/dependable: stores, shopping malls, pharmacies, medical personnel, schools, etc.

10. Cleaning Responsibilities for the Exiting Clergy Families

The following checklist shall be filled out by the clergy family exiting the parsonage after all items listed have been completed. Two days prior to the family's departure, the checklist shall be given to the chairperson of the Staff-Parish Relations Committee for a final inspection of the parsonage. A verification report indicating that all standards have been met by the exiting family shall be sent to both the district superintendent receiving the clergy family and the one releasing the clergy family. If there are items of cleanliness remaining to be completed, arrangements shall be made with the district superintendent, the congregation, and the exiting clergy family before the new clergy family moves into the parsonage.

- Dust around ceiling, corners, door moldings, window sills, and ceiling fans
- Wash all light globes in ceiling fans, ceiling lights, and lamps
- Clean all baseboards, moving furniture from walls
- Wipe out all drawers, cabinets, shelves, and counters
- Clean mirrors
- Dust and polish all furniture
- Clean light switch plates
- Wipe down walls in bathrooms and kitchens
- Clean floors. Vacuum if carpets are not being cleaned until later.
- Clean all appliances—stove, oven, microwave, refrigerator, dishwasher, etc.
- Polish/"liquid gold" all woodwork
- Wash painted-wood cabinets
- Clean garage and storage buildings on parsonage property
- Remove all trash and other recyclable/disposable items
- Empty all trash/garbage cans
- Clean fireplace area

As a reminder from part III, item I, the church receiving a new pastor shall be responsible for the following:

- Cleaning: gutters*, ducts* (vents and filters), drapery and window treatments, carpets, windows* and storm windows* inside and out
- Chimney sweeping*
- Professional exterminating for pests and termites*
- Re-caulking bathrooms, kitchen, and other tile areas
- All mechanical equipment, plumbing, and appliances to be in proper working order*
- All lights and lamps to have working bulbs
- Mow, trim, and edge yard. Clear all sidewalks and porches.

*Items also listed under Annual Maintenance requirements at III A.

B. Required Standards for Clergy Housing1. Minimum Required Standards for Clergy Housing

It is the goal that the following standards be met by June 1, 2013, at all parsonages.

- Plumbing, heating, and electrical systems that meet the State of Oklahoma building codes.
- A safe, dependable water supply.
- A leak-proof roof.
- Glass in all windows; all windows in operating condition.
- All utilities available and secured in the name of the church, when possible, to ensure uninterrupted service during a change of pastors. (Utilities include: electric, gas, water, Internet, basic cable, phone, and waste management.)
- Either a septic tank in good working condition, with adequate drainage area on the property, or access to a public sewer system.
- A system that provides drainage away from the home.
- Two or more outside spigots as a source of water for lawn and planting maintenance.
- Storage space for tools, lawn mower, and seasonal articles. This may be non-vehicle space in a garage or separate storage building.
- A standard-sized energy-efficient washer and dryer.
- Window treatments (curtains, draperies, or mini-blinds) throughout the house to assure privacy.
- Adequate yard space with safe play area for small children.
- An energy-efficient refrigerator with a freezer.
- Excellence in the general physical condition and decoration of the home, both inside and out.
- Guttering on the roof.
- A screen and storm window, or double-pane windows, for every operating window.
- Weather stripping at all exterior doors, including thresholds.
- Basement walls that are waterproof, if the parsonage has a basement.
- Energy-efficient central heating and cooling systems, which may include heat pump systems.
- A garage or covered carport. Garages shall have automatic garage door openers.
- High-grade tile, linoleum, carpeting, or hardwood flooring throughout the house.
- A garbage disposal, if water system permits.
- An energy-efficient automatic dishwasher.
- A vented kitchen range.
- Sufficient fencing and shrubbery to provide for the privacy of the parsonage family and safety for children and pets.
- Removal of trees that threaten house foundation, driveway, or walks.
- Landscaping plants that enhance the attractiveness of the home and are of easy maintenance.
- Smoke/carbon monoxide alarms near sleeping and other appropriate areas throughout the house.
- Fire extinguisher accessible to cooking areas.
- Deadbolt locks on all outside doors.
- Hand railings on all stairs.
- Outdoor safety lighting.
- Fire-retardant window treatments throughout the house.
- Safety grab bars appropriately located in bath areas.

2. Newly Constructed Parsonages

In the event of a newly constructed parsonage, all of the Minimum Required Standards shall be met in addition to the following standards:

- Insulated exterior walls and ceiling; insulated floors (if wood suspended above ground); insulated glass, screens, and entries with storm doors.
- Substantial bulk storage space provided in a floored attic or in a storage closet accessible from the garage or covered carport.
- Adequate space ventilation in attic and under floor (if suspended).

- Exhaust fans installed in each bathroom.
- Doorbells installed at each entrance.
- A ground-floor bedroom and full bath in a two-story parsonage.
- Full bath to meet the needs of those with disabilities
- Complete access for persons with disabilities, including a ramp with a slope not exceeding 1 to 12 degrees, an exterior door which permits 28" clear width when open, and a telephone within 48" of the floor.
- It is recommended that the parsonage living area contain 1,800-2,200 sq. ft. that shall include at least the following areas: formal living room and formal dining room or living/dining room combinations.
- Master bedroom with a full bath. (furnished by the pastor at the pastor's discretion and expense)
- Two additional bedrooms. (furnished by the pastor at the pastor's discretion and expense) Double or walk-in closets.
- Bathrooms: (2) Full bath in master bedroom and second full bath (accessible to visitors).
- Family Room (furnished by the pastor at the pastor's discretion and expense) shall have option of closing off room from entertaining area of the house while still being accessible to kitchen and bedroom areas.
- Kitchen worktop space of 10'-14'.
- Informal Eating Area (furnished by pastor at pastor's discretion and expense.)
- Utility Room—Extra-large capacity washer and dryer.
- Closets—Additional closets for linens, extra clothing, cleaning supplies, etc.
- Study—If no study is provided at the church, an additional room for study with adequate bookshelves; furnishings and necessary office equipment shall be provided, as needed.

2. The book, Parsonage Planning Congregational Development, National Program Division/General Board of Global Ministries, copyright 1985 by the Office of Architecture, National Program Division, General Board of Global Ministries, The United Methodist Church. It has valuable insights and helps in preparation for building a new parsonage.

3. Newly Purchased Parsonages

In the event of a newly purchased parsonage, all minimum required standards for clergy housing must be met, and it is recommended that churches move toward newly constructed standards.

4. Other Recommendations

The following recommendations are merely guidelines for helping congregations discern ways to develop a positive environment for clergy families. Please remember the following are not requirements for existing parsonages, but rather will enhance parsonage life.

Congregations undoubtedly will have additional recommendations to make.

Congregations are encouraged to go beyond the following suggestions and become true advocates for their parsonage families.

- a. Provide a freezer.
- b. Provide a microwave oven.
- c. Provide a safe room.
- d. Provide large bedroom closets, allowing for 60" per person, as well as additional closet space, for clothing and storage. The more storage space allowed, the easier it will be for parsonage families to live without clutter and time spent in finding space for everything. Double or walk-in closets are especially helpful.
- e. Provide a utility room for the washer and dryer rather than having it in the garage or the kitchen. A separate space is much more efficient. Also, provide extra-large capacity washers and dryers. This is especially helpful for families with small children.
- f. Provide a family room separate from the living room so that entertaining can take place, especially for church functions, without interfering with the needs and daily activities of other family members.

- g. Provide two full baths. This helps the daily schedules of families considerably.
- h. Provide a two-car garage if at all possible. This helps maintain the quality of cars which saves money in the long run.
- i. Make as much of the parsonage as possible accessible to those with disabilities. Include a ramp with a slope not exceeding 1 foot rise to 12 linear feet, an exterior door which permits 28" clear width when open, and a telephone within 48" of the floor.
- j. Avoid faddish styles and extreme approaches to decorating the parsonages. These can become outdated more quickly than the time it takes to wear them out. It is difficult to convince a congregation to change these outdated styles when the product is still usable. It is suggested that congregations stay with neutral colors and allow residents to personalize with their own touches.
 Congregations would do well to encourage parsonage families to paint and wallpaper in the home, understanding that if the resident who follows chooses not to keep the changes, the outgoing family will help restore the parsonage to a neutral color or coordinate with the congregation so that the new residents can choose their preferences. This will take cooperation and time in an already packed time schedule, but will be helpful to all concerned.
 Personal touches should be chosen so as to lessen the cost and time needed to restore to a neutral color for the new resident. Stay away from dark colors such as black or bold flowers, etc.
- k. Provide a fourth bedroom of equal size to be used as each family needs, such as guest room, playroom, study, etc.

C. Conference Housing Committee

The Conference Clergy Housing Committee shall be a committee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation. This committee shall review policies, standards, and guidelines regarding clergy housing at least once every quadrennium, receive annual reports and check lists from the District Board of Church Location and Building regarding the implementation of the standards and recommendations for needed changes, and make a report to the annual conference each year regarding improvements and needs. This Committee will also assist clergy families in transition to owning their own personal furnishings. This committee is to be made up of at least two members from each District Board of Church Location and Building (one clergy and one laity), the president of the Clergy Spouse Fellowship, the chairperson of the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the chairperson of the Covenant Family Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry (or equivalent), and a Cabinet representative.

D. Clergy Housing Responsibilities of the District Board of Church Location and Building

In addition to the responsibilities described in The Book of Discipline 2008 (§2518), the following responsibilities, pertaining to clergy housing, are recommended:

- The District Board of Church Location and Building shall, to assure fairness, be the hearing body for disputes regarding accountability and implementation of Conference Parsonage Standards.
- The District Board of Church Location and Building shall annually provide a list of improvements made and outstanding needs of parsonages in their district to the Conference Clergy Housing Committee.
- The District Board of Church Location and Building shall, along with the district superintendent, be advocates for maintaining the high quality of parsonage standards in the district as defined in the Conference Housing Policy.
- Where possible and appropriate, the Board shall seek materials and volunteer labor to assure compliance with the parsonage standards and policies of the Oklahoma Annual Conference.

E. Office Space for Clergy

Most churches provide a furnished office or study in the church. If an office is not provided, the church/charge is responsible for parsonage office furnishings.

III. GUIDELINES FOR VACATIONS, DAYS OFF, AND CONTINUING EDUCATION

We believe that it is essential for the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee and the pastor to negotiate together an agreement as to the pastor's vacation, days off, and Continuing Education. Such an agreement should be made during the pastor's first month at a new charge and be reviewed annually thereafter. We offer the following guidelines as a basis for such negotiations:

A. Vacations

The church recognizes that regular days off and vacations are important for the effectiveness of pastors, and for their physical, mental, and spiritual health. Therefore, full-time pastors shall receive 4 weeks of paid vacation, which includes four Sundays. These days may be taken consecutively or on separate occasions. The dates should be coordinated with and approved by the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee. Pastors who are working on their Course of Study and attending seminary for one month during the summer must realize the burden this may put on their church. We recommend they receive two weeks of vacation (one Sunday), in addition to the time away for Course of Study. The pulpit funds should be provided by the church, but the minister is responsible for arrangements.

B. Days Off

We strongly recommend each pastor receive two days off per week and encourage a two-day schedule (equivalent of Saturday-Sunday weekends). We recognize, however, the demands of the ministry often make it difficult for a pastor to take off two days consecutively. It is, therefore, very important for the pastor and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee to come to an understanding as to days off and compensatory time off.

C. Continuing Formation and Spiritual Growth

The United Methodist Church requires all pastors to receive three Continuing Education Units (3 CEUs = 30 classroom hours) per year. The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee must understand this is a requirement and allow the pastor to be absent in order to satisfy it (normally this will not involve a Sunday). However, frequent or extended absences of the pastor must be approved by the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee. The pastor and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should be familiar with ¶351 of the 2008 Book of Discipline, which outlines: 1) the importance of continuing formation and spiritual growth; 2) allowance for leaves of at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium; 3) that a clergy member may request a formational and spiritual growth leave of up to six months, while continuing to hold a pastoral appointment—if the clergy member has held full-time appointments for at least five years; 4) financial arrangements for such leave; 5) pastors shall be asked by the district superintendent in the charge conference to report on their programs of continuing education, formation, and spiritual growth for the past year and their plans for the coming year. The superintendent shall also ask the local church to describe its provision for time and financial support for the pastor's program of continuing formation and spiritual growth; 6) clergy in appointments beyond the local church shall give evidence in the annual reports of their continuing formation and spiritual growth program and future plans.

D. Responsibilities within the United Methodist Connection

Pastor-Parish Relations Committees should be aware that pastors are not only appointed to serve local churches, but also have responsibilities within the connection: in camps, in the district, in the annual conference, in the life of the orders, and occasionally in the general church. Refer to ¶s 339, 340, 341, and 342 of the 2008 Book of Discipline for further duties of a pastor.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

http://www.okumc.org/Archives_History

Guided by its mission statement adopted in 2011, the Commission on Archives & History's priority programs and activities in 2011-2012 included:

“Promote the history and heritage of United Methodism in the Oklahoma Conference and its predecessor conferences”

- With its peers in the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference, the Commission in July 2011 co-hosted the quadrennial Historical Convocation of the General Commission on Archives & History and the United Methodist Historical Society.
- Initiated a closer working relationship with the Oklahoma United Methodist Historical Society, including a joint commission-board of directors meeting and identification of joint program objectives.
- Endorsed and provided writing support for a Department of Communications publication on the history of Oklahoma Methodism, to be presented to participants of the South Central Jurisdictional Conference in Oklahoma City in July 2012 and to readers of Contact. Commission members wrote several of the articles included in the publication, utilizing research documents in the Conference Archives at Oklahoma City University's library.
- Initiated the “Voices of Oklahoma United Methodism” oral history project with a video interview of William B. Oden, retired United Methodist bishop.
- Emphasizing its ministry of memory mandate, the Commission continued to promote the identification and official recognition of historic sites in the Conference.
- Through its webpage on the Conference website, the Commission provided information on Oklahoma Methodism and links to other online resources.

“Support the collection, preservation, and presentation of historical records and materials”

- The Conference Archives, located on the fifth floor of OCU's Dulaney-Browne Library, house the official records and historical documents of Oklahoma Methodism. Conference archivist Christina Wolf and her staff annually provide hundreds of hours assisting researchers and responding to requests for information on genealogy, local church histories, and general United Methodist history; they also support research efforts of local churches.
- Initiated discussions with the Oklahoma Historical Society to archive and preserve digital recordings of oral interviews and make them available for research and public use at the Oklahoma History Center and also in the Conference Archives on the OCU campus.

“Help local churches collect, preserve, and celebrate their history and heritage”

- Oral history initiative: purchased and made available video equipment to help record interviews with current and past conference leaders and with members of local churches; presented sessions on oral history at Re-Ignite Workshops (Local Church Leaders Workshops); hosted a conference-wide workshop on oral history.
- Presented sessions at Re-Ignite Workshops on responsibilities and opportunities for recording and preserving local-church reports and historical documents and provided information and resources on celebrating local-church milestones and other important events.
- Communicated information on the history and heritage of Oklahoma Methodism to local churches and individuals via electronic newsletters and the Commission's webpage on the Conference website.

OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC.

GUIDELINES

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The Book of Discipline requires that the Board of Trustees elect annually its officers. In order to align with the Conference election of new members of the Trustees, the annual election of officers shall occur at the first meeting following Annual Conference.

The officers to be elected each year are: Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, Secretary, and Treasurer.

CHURCH ABANDONMENT PROCESS

The Conference Board of Trustees shall work with the District Superintendent concerning the abandonment of any local church located within that district in accordance with the current Book of Discipline. When properties from the sale of a church are located in an urban center with a population of 50,000 or more, the proceeds of the sale must be used for new and/or existing ministries within urban transitional communities consistent with the Conference's urban ministry strategic plan.

In addition, 10 percent of the net sale proceeds, after the costs and fees, will be retained by the Conference Board of Trustees.

OIL AND MINERAL INTERESTS

It is the policy of the Oklahoma Conference Board of Trustees to retain all oil, gas, and mineral interests of any property sold by the Conference. In order to facilitate the process of entering into oil and gas leases, division orders, and other non-sale mineral interest arrangements, the Chairperson and Secretary of The Board of Trustees of the Oklahoma Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, Inc., are authorized to continue the process of executing oil and gas leases before submitting them to the Board for ratification at the next convenient/possible scheduled meeting of the Board. This authorization shall continue until expressly terminated by the Board.

RECORDS

All property records shall be kept in the office of the assistant to the Conference Treasurer. Legal papers and the corporate papers shall be kept in the bank lock box for the Conference, with a copy in the Treasurer's Office.

It shall be the responsibility of the Board of Trustees' Secretary to record each transaction that has been approved each year to be published as part of the annual report to the Conference. A copy of the current guidelines and policies is to be published each year as well.

MINISTRY PROTECTION COMMITTEE

The General Council for Finance and Administration (GCFA) formed the United Methodist Property and Casualty Trust (PACT) in 2005. Oklahoma was one of the early conference members. While there were the normal start-up issues, things seemed to work well through 2005 and 2006.

In 2007 and later, we began experiencing larger claims due to fire, wind, and hail claims and tornadoes and, consequently, problems began to escalate within the PACT program for Oklahoma. In order to keep the program on a sound financial basis, we adjusted the coverages and deductibles. PACT shopped the marketplace and determined that it would be best for the program if we changed companies and established minimum coverage limits. Between 2005 and 2011, claims have been over $20,414,391, based on $10,012,478 in premiums, which means that for every $1 we paid out in premiums, we received $2.04 in benefits.

We knew that rates would increase based on high claims we experienced between 2007 and 2010. The Conference Program Administrator asked the insurance companies for accurate billings and copies of the Master Policy in January 2010, but did not receive them. On June 7, 2011, we met with Irene Howard, President of PACT, in Oklahoma City, and she presented a Ministry Resource and Service Plan to us. It called for premium allocations and draft coverages to be submitted to us not later than August 1, 2011. A draft coverage booklet and billings were to be received by us not later than September 1, 2011. The PACT Plan called for binders confirming coverage being provided to us not later than September 15, 2011, and policies with an effective date of October 1, 2011, were to be issued and received by us not later than October 31, 2011. None of these timelines were met.

One month after our meeting with Irene Howard, on July 12, 2011, we were notified by PACT that renewal rates would double on October 1, 2011, and deductibles went out the roof. Needless to say, the Ministry Protection Committee started shopping the markets for new coverage immediately. In September, the Board of Trustees voted to accept a proposal from CFR Risk Management of Tulsa, Oklahoma, as the best option available to us at the time.

Throughout the past several years, changes in the insurance company coverages and billing methods took place. The companies included Gallagher, Church Insurance Agency Corp. (CIAC), Zurich, QBE, Progressive, and Praetorian, among others. The reason for the large number of companies and continuous program changes was due to the large number of claims, and the fact that the insurance companies were evaluating their losses, trying to remain solvent and profitable, and deciding what changes were required in order for the program to remain viable, based on our claims history.

The Ministry Protection Committee is studying the situation all churches face in the areas of workers’ compensation and property and liability coverages. One possibility offers lower rates, lower deductible amounts, deductible limit choices including a low choice for smaller churches, and relieving the Annual Conference of the expense and exposure to “buy down” deductibles. The Ministry Protection Committee is continuing to monitor the changing insurance marketplace and will present the best solution we are able to find for our Oklahoma Conference churches, as soon as that information is available to us.

Remember, local churches purchasing coverage outside PACT are required to provide their District Superintendents with a copy of their policies’ declaration pages at their annual charge conference. Below are the limits that we recommend for all churches:

Property	Replacement Cost
Sexual Misconduct.....	$1,000,000
General Liability	1,000,000
Crime.....	100,000
Workers’ Compensation - Employers’ Liability	1,000,000
Directors’ and Officers’ Liability.....	1,000,000
Automobile	1,000,000
Excess Liability Coverage	5,000,000

Charles Hull, chairperson

AGENCY EMERGENCY/CAPITAL FUND COMMITTEE

The Agency Emergency/Capital funds are used to provide assistance to agencies of the Annual Conference that have property emergencies or opportunities. Most of the requests are for emergency repairs, but we also help the agencies with new building opportunities and expansions as well. The presence of this fund means that the agencies of the Conference are not required to accumulate and maintain excessive reserves in order to deal with emergencies and opportunities and can, instead, devote more of their resources to programming than they would otherwise be able to do.

The Agency Emergency/Capital Fund committee understands itself to be a source of last appeal for funds for the agencies of the annual conference. When an agency has secured all possible funds to meet an emergency or opportunity but is lacking in sufficient money to complete its project, it may appropriately appeal to the AECF for consideration. Only Annual Conference Agencies are eligible to apply, which includes the Campus Ministries, and all Campus Ministry requests must have the approval of the Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry before they are considered by the committee.

The 2011 requests and amounts were:

BOARD OF PENSION & HEALTH BENEFITS, INC.
REPORT NO. 1

PART A: Requiring action by the Annual Conference

The Conference Board of Pension & Health Benefits, Inc. recommends the following:

1. Participation in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan & the Comprehensive Protection Plan
Therefore Be It Resolved:

- A. That in 2013 the Oklahoma Annual Conference participate in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP) as adopted by the 2008 General Conference. The 2 components of CRSP are the Defined Benefit (DB) and the Defined Contribution (DC). The Defined Benefit (DB) will be funded at 12% of the pastor's total base compensation plus housing allowance or parsonage factor of 25% of total base compensation up to the Denominational Average Compensation. The Defined Contribution (DC) will be funded at 3% of the pastor's total base compensation plus housing allowance or parsonage factor of 25% of total base compensation with no maximum; and
- B. The credited years of service under the Defined Benefit (DB) will be based on quarter increments for all clergy. The quarter increments will be based on hours worked per week: Full-time - 30 or more, 3/4 - 21 to 29, 1/2 - 11 to 20, and 1/4 - 10 or less; and
- C. That in 2013 the Oklahoma Annual Conference continues to participate in the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) at 3% of the pastor's total base compensation plus the housing factor of 25% of total base compensation or the actual housing allowance up to two times the Denominational Average Compensation; and
- D. That eligible clergy on sabbatical or transitional leave shall continue to participate in CPP for 1 year; and
- E. That eligible clergy on Incapacity, Personal, Family, or Involuntary Leave or appointed to less than full-time or who are receiving a total base compensation plus housing allowance or parsonage factor of 25% of the total base compensation that is less than 60% of the Denominational Average Compensation may continue to participate in CPP at his/her own cost for 1 year; and
- F. That in 2013 the Oklahoma Conference of The United Methodist Church will bill the local churches and participating ministries for a combined bill for pension benefits for all clergy including Full & Provisional Deacons; and
- G. That in 2013 the Oklahoma Conference of The United Methodist Church will bill the local churches and participating ministries for the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) program.
- H. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Inc. is authorized to make changes in the pension plan funding between Annual Conference sessions when such changes are necessary to properly fund the plan.

2. Local Church and Participating Ministries' Obligation to Make Pension Plan Contributions for Their Pastor(s) Pension Benefits have been legally determined to be deferred compensation.

(This resolution shall be a part of the stated business of every Charge Conference and is to be read in the presence of the members of the Charge Conference)

Therefore Be It Resolved:

- A. That the local church or participating ministry does hereby accept the full ethical, moral and legal responsibility for the payment in full of pension obligations (CRSP-DB, CRSP-DC, and CPP, if enrolled) for the pastor appointed to the local church or participating ministry; and

- B. That the local church or participating ministry will pay the pension obligation by the 1st of each month; and
- C. That the local church or participating ministry understands that failure to pay the pension obligation in full will be reported to the Bishop and Cabinet by the Treasurer’s Office on a regular basis.

3. Past Service Annuity Rate and Funding:

Past Service is that service rendered prior to January 1, 1982, by Ordained Clergy members and Full-Time Local Pastors, which has been approved for pension credit. Funding for past service pension credit is provided by income from pension endowment funds and the Pension Fund Crusade account.

Therefore Be It Resolved:

- A. That the 2013 Past Service Annuity Rate (PSR) for pre-1982 approved service rendered by Ordained Ministers and Full-Time Local Pastors be set at $617.00.
- B. That the rate for Surviving Spouses be set at 75% of the PSR.
That our unfunded liability for pre-1982 years of service be amortized over a 9-year period with a projected payout in 2021.

4. Rental/Housing Allowance for Retired or Disabled Ministers of The Oklahoma Conference:

Whereas, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergypersons”); and

Whereas, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of the gross compensation; and

Whereas, pensions or other amounts paid to retired and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to retired and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

Whereas, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Oklahoma Annual Conference as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for retired and disabled Clergypersons who are members of this Conference;

Therefore Be It Resolved:

- A. An amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received during the year of 2013 by each retired or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Oklahoma Conference at the time of his or her retirement or last service be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson;
- B. This rental/housing allowance shall apply to each Clergyperson who in 2013 receives retirement plan or disability plan benefits described below; and
- C. The pension payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be any pension or disability payments, whether paid by a plan sponsored by this Conference or the Church, by a commercial annuity company, or otherwise, that results from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that a retired or disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, Annual Conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, a plan, annuity, or fund for such retired or disabled Clergyperson’s pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE:

The amount of rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergy person's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergy person's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergy person to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

5. Payment of Health Insurance Premiums by Retired Ministers and Surviving Spouses: Therefore Be It Resolved:

That all Retired Ministers and Surviving Spouses who are participating in the Conference Health Insurance Plan may have their insurance premiums automatically drafted from their personal bank accounts by the Oklahoma Conference Treasurer's Office or withheld from their pension checks each month by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits and payment made to the Oklahoma Conference Health Insurance Fund on their behalf.

6. Persons Applying For Disability Benefits: Therefore Be It Resolved:

That persons applying for disability benefits will have up to ninety (90) days after cabinet notification to the Conference Benefits Officer to provide required documentation of stated incapacity leave to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. During the time that the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits is acting on the request for disability benefits, but not to exceed a period of ninety (90) days, the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, Inc. will provide disability benefits. A special appeal for extended disability benefits may be made to the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Inc. by the applicant if the ninety-day deadline cannot be met.

7. Approve $50,000 per year for 1 year from the Pension Fund Crusade to the Central Conference Pension Initiative.

8. Disciplinary Question 91: The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Inc. recommends:

- A. The service record of Randall Wade be corrected to reflect that of a Provisional Elder in 1996.
- B. The service record of Randall Wade be corrected to reflect that of an Elder in Full Connection in 2001.
- C. The service record of Larry Bauman be corrected to reflect that of a Provisional Elder serving the Delaware Charge in 1987.
- D. The service record of Lynn Brack be corrected to reflect that of a Provisional Elder in 1996.
- E. The service record of Lynn Brack be corrected to reflect that of an Elder in Full Connection in 2001.

PART B: Status of Pension Accounts & Unfunded Past Service Liability

The Pension Fund Crusade Account had a balance of $17,032,161 as of January 1, 2012. This represents a decrease in the Pension Fund Crusade Account of $3,311,795 from one year ago. The total minimum cash flow requirement at the end of 2011 was $2,351,494, which was paid from the principal and interest of the Pension Fund Crusade Account and interest from endowment funds.

As of January 1, 2012, reserves in the Pension Fund Crusade Account at the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits exceeded our Unfunded Past Service Liability by $2,006,045. The funding plan for the Unfunded Past Service Liability and the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits' opinion is available upon request from the Conference Treasurer's Office.

REPORT NO. 2

FOR INFORMATION: Our Health Benefits program operates in a financially conservative manner while, at the same time, trying to meet the needs of our participants. We believe that our participants also are increasingly conservative in the demands that they make on the plan assets.

1. Active participants will see a 2% increase in health premiums for 2013.
2. Retirees will see a 2% increase in health premiums for 2013.
3. Office visit co-pays are $30 for in-network, while out-of-network has increased to $50.
4. Apportionments will increase 2% for 2013.

5. The special rate shown on page 290 has increased from $34,999 or less to $42,999 or less and will include all housing (parsonage or housing allowance) as designated billable compensation on Pastors Compensation Worksheet page 1 part 4.
6. Retiree benefits for Local Pastors are only for those who have completed their course of study effective January 1, 2013.
7. The in-network out-of-pocket deductible amount for an individual has increased from $2,400 to $2,750. The same increase applies to all areas of out-of-pocket amounts after the deductible is met.

We have established this plan to keep faith with our churches and participants who clearly understand that we intend to collect only what we need to pay expenses.

The Oklahoma Conference Health Benefits Plan is a self-funded medical and prescription plan for eligible active clergy, retired clergy, local pastors, lay employees, and surviving spouses. The Health Benefits Plan is not a form of entitlement, and it should be noted that the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits Inc., with the approval of Annual Conference, reserves the right to amend or possibly eliminate both the active and retiree plans of benefits.

THE 2013 PLAN: The Oklahoma Conference Health Benefits Plan includes:

- A. A self-funded medical plan for active clergy, local pastors, lay employees, eligible retirees, and surviving spouses under 65 years of age, administered by BlueCross BlueShield.
- B. Kempton Group will continue to administer our eligibility, Flexible Benefit Plan and HRA.
- C. A Medicare Supplement Plan, The Hartford, for eligible retired clergy, local pastors, surviving spouses, those who qualify for disability and are on Medicare, and retired lay employees age 65 and older. All must be enrolled in Medicare Parts A & B.
- D. Drugs or medicines prescribed by a physician or practitioner may be filled at any pharmacy in the MaxCare Retail Pharmacy network.
- E. Group term life insurance with Aetna Life Insurance Co. for active and retired clergy who are participants in the Conference Health Benefits Plan.
- F. Funding for the Plan in the year 2013 is to come from participant premiums, operating funds, and an apportionment to the churches based upon the prevailing Conference decimal.
- G. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is authorized to make substantive changes in the Health Benefits Plan between Annual Conference sessions when such changes are necessary to properly manage this Plan.
- H. All clergy members (Full, Provisional, and Associate) of the Oklahoma Annual Conference and Local Pastors who are appointed full-time and who are participating in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP) shall participate in the Ministers' Health Benefits Plan, subject to the provisions of the plan, and all churches that have pastors under appointment shall pay the apportionment for the Health Benefits fund as a Ministerial Support item. Those clergy members who qualify for health insurance through military retirement or other government agencies may request approval from the Board of Pension and Health Benefits to opt out of the Conference Health Benefits Plan. Decisions will be made on a case-by-case basis.

SELF-FUNDED MEDICAL PLAN FOR ACTIVE AND RETIRED CLERGY, LOCAL PASTORS, AND LAITY:

1. Eligibility and Enrollment: Enrollment in the Oklahoma Conference Health Benefits Plan is executed through the Conference Treasurer's Office. Clergy must enroll within 31 days of becoming eligible (Standing Rules, IV. Financial, 4.). All other employees and their dependents have 31 days after they become eligible, to enroll. If you or your dependents are not enrolled within 31 days of the date you become eligible, you will not be able to enroll until January 1 of the next plan year.

- A. Those who are eligible for enrollment in the Group Health Plan are as follows:
1. Clergy who are members of the Oklahoma Annual Conference (elders and deacons, associate and provisional), full-time local pastors under appointment and enrolled in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP), ordained clergy appointed under the provisions of Par. 346.1 or 346.2 of the 2008 Book of Discipline, and their eligible dependents. Also, members appointed to attend school or those who receive their first appointment with pension benefit after having a special appointment without pension benefit and their eligible dependents.
 2. Diaconal ministers under appointment serving at least thirty hours a week in local churches, institutions, or agencies of this Annual Conference qualify for enrollment as lay employees.
 3. Clergy couples and Local Pastor couples qualified for enrollment as ministers must decide which one will enroll as the primary participant, carrying medical insurance for all dependents, including the spouse. If both are licensed local pastors or ordained and serving full-time under appointment in the Oklahoma Conference, both shall be enrolled in the Life Insurance portion with $50,000 death benefits; however, the spouse who is covered as the dependent will not be eligible to collect the dependent life insurance amount in addition to the clergy benefit amount. The premium rate for a clergy couple is based on the total compensation of the higher-paid clergy member.
 4. Clergy appointed as “Less Than Full-Time” and all part-time local pastors who are enrolled in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP) and certified by their District Superintendent as living on the charge and working a minimum of thirty (30) hours per week on their pastoral duties may enroll, provided they are licensed, ordained, or serving under the provisions of Par. 346.1 or 346.2 of the 2008 Book of Discipline.
 5. Full-time lay employees of a local church, institution, or agency of this Annual Conference certified by their executive officer to the Conference Treasurer’s Office as working thirty (30) hours a week and as making at least the minimum wage per hour may enroll in the Medical Plan.
 6. Retired Clergy and Local Pastors (who have completed Course of Study) of this Annual Conference, age 62 or older or with at least 30 years of service, and their eligible dependents, who have been enrolled in the Ministers’ Health Benefits Plan for five (5) years immediately prior to retirement may continue as participants in the Plan. Clergy who have retired with 20 years of service, and their eligible dependents, which have been participants in the group for five (5) years immediately prior to retirement may continue in the Plan for up to 18 months at the lay rate.
 7. Retired Lay Employees of a local church, or an institution or approved agency of this Annual Conference that sponsors this Plan for lay employees. In order for a retired lay employee, and their eligible dependents, to be eligible to participate they must be at least age sixty (60) with five (5) or more years of continuous participation in the Conference Health Benefits Plan immediately prior to retirement.
 8. Surviving Spouses of clergy and local pastors who were participants in the Oklahoma United Methodist Health Benefits Plan at the time of the death of their spouse are eligible for continuous coverage in the Plan. A surviving spouse may maintain coverage in this Plan, unless the spouse obtains medical coverage from another provider. If the surviving spouse is under 65 and on Medicare, coverage will continue at the over 65 Medicare rate.
 9. Divorced spouses of clergy and local pastors are eligible for continuous coverage in the Group Plan at the Lay Employee rates until (a) they obtain medical coverage from another provider, (b) they remarry, or (c) two years have elapsed following the date of the divorce, whichever occurs first. If the divorced spouse is totally and permanently disabled at the time of the divorce, coverage will be continued indefinitely beyond the two-year period, provided such spouse remains totally disabled, does not remarry, or obtain group coverage elsewhere. If the disabled spouse is under 65 and not on Medicare, the spouse will continue at the lay employee rate for under 65. If the disabled spouse is on Medicare, the spouse may continue on the plan at the retired lay rate over age 65.

- B. You must enroll within the first thirty-one (31) days after becoming eligible. Claims related to pre-existing conditions are limited to $5,000 for the first year of participation unless you have credible coverage.
- C. After the initial thirty-one (31) days, those eligible for enrollment may apply for coverage but will be required to wait until January 1 of the next plan year before coverage can begin. Special Enrollment Provisions may allow for enrollment exceptions.
- D. If an eligible participant has coverage under another plan, then loses that coverage, the participant may then enroll, under the Special Enrollment Provisions only, in the Conference Group Plan. Otherwise, the participant must wait until January 1 of the next plan year to enroll.
- E. When a participant terminates employment with the Conference or a qualifying agency, or otherwise becomes ineligible for coverage under this Plan, he/she may continue in the Plan for up to 18 months at the lay rate.
- F. When a minister is on Disability Leave, his/her insurance coverage will continue uninterrupted, at the special rate, provided such minister has been a participant in the plan prior to going on Disability Leave.
- G. When a minister takes a Leave of Absence or is placed on Leave of Absence, he/she may continue in the Plan for up to 18 months at the lay rate.
- H. When a clergy member or local pastor is on Transitional Leave, he/she may continue in the Plan for up to 18 months at the clergy rate.
- I. When clergy or local pastors are granted a sabbatical leave or are appointed to attend school, his/her insurance coverage may continue at the clergy rate, provided premiums are paid.
- J. When a clergy or local pastor member is in the Extension Ministry (sponsored by an external source other than a contributor to the Oklahoma Conference) he/she may continue in the Plan at the lay rate.
- K. Children/dependents are eligible to be enrolled at the same time the clergy or lay employee enrolls. Children may also be enrolled at birth or at the point of adoption; however, unless they are enrolled within thirty-one (31) days after birth/adoption, they are not covered and cannot be added until January 1 of the next plan year.
The following children may be covered as dependents: (1) an unmarried child under age 19 who is chiefly dependent upon the employee for support, (2) an unmarried child age nineteen (19) or older but under age 26 if such child is a high school student or a full-time student at an accredited university, college, or trade school, and chiefly dependent upon the employee for support, or (3) an unmarried child age nineteen (19) or older who is incapable of self-sustaining employment and dependent upon the employee for support due to a mental or physical illness or handicap. A natural child who does not reside with the employee may be covered under this plan if the employee can demonstrate a legal obligation to provide medical coverage to such child/children. In the case of an adopted child, coverage will take effect on the date the adoption is final or the date the child is placed in the employee's home, whichever first occurs. The term "dependent" does not include an employee, a member of any armed forces (except if an active-duty member for thirty (30) days or less per year), or any person who has permanent residence outside the U.S.A.
- L. It is the responsibility of the participant to notify the Treasurer's Office of any change in the eligibility and/or enrollment of any member of his/her family. This includes dependents that are no longer eligible for coverage and the enrollment of newborn babies within thirty-one (31) days following the date of birth.

2. Effective Date and Conditions of Coverage:

Your coverage will take effect on the later of:

- A. Your eligibility date, or on the
- B. First day of the month following the return of your signed enrollment form to the Benefits Office.

3. Comprehensive Medical Benefits:

Covered medical expenses means the usual, customary, and reasonable (UCR) expenses incurred by or on behalf of a covered person for the hospital or other medical services that meet the following criteria:

- A. Ordered by a physician;
- B. Medically necessary for the treatment of the illness or injury;
- C. Not of a luxury or personal nature; and
- D. Not excluded under Exclusions and Limitations sections of the Plan.

4. Preferred Provider Organizations: (PPO):

This Plan provides network benefits for active participants through BlueCross Blue Shield.

MaxCare RX – Pharmacy Providers of Oklahoma

Prescription drugs are not subject to the deductible or out-of-pocket coinsurance.

- Prilosec: Available for FREE over-the-counter, with prescription from your physician for a 42-day supply. (Prescription must say “OTC Prilosec.”)

Do you take Lipitor, Crestor, Vytorin, or another brand-name medication to help lower your cholesterol? Ask your doctor if switching to a generic such as Simvastatin, Pravastatin, or Lovastatin is right for you.

- Claritin: Available over-the-counter for $15, with prescription from your physician for a 30-day supply. (Generic: Claritin/Loratadine, with prescription from your physician for a 30-day supply, is $10.) (Prescription must say “OTC Claritin or OTC loratadine.”)

Definitions:

- Generic Drug - Drug with general name; a drug sold or dispensed under a name that is not protected by a trademark. (The use of generics offers the greatest savings to both the members and the Conference.)
- Multi-Source Brand - Brand name chosen even though a generic is available.
- Single-Source Brand - Brand drug that is currently only available from one manufacturer.
- NTE - Not to exceed

2013 Prescription Drug Plan

Multi-Source or Single-Source Brand – NTE $40.00	Multi-Source or Single-Source Brand – NTE $100.00
Specialty drugs: Biotech medications etc.	$150.00 monthly

“Member pays the copayment amount unless the full cost of the prescription is less than the copayment, then the member pays only the cost of the prescription.”

Rates and Method of Payment:

1. The rates for clergy, local pastors, and surviving spouses of clergy or local pastors are supplemented by an apportionment to the churches that covers approximately one-half the cost of their premiums.
2. The rates for lay employees represent the “full rate.” Since the Group Insurance apportionment does not supplement lay employee rates, it is recommended that the salary-paying unit pay at least half the lay rate for all lay employees enrolled in our Group Plan.
3. The monthly rates for participants are to be paid to the Conference Treasurer’s Office by the local church/agency treasurer the first of each month in which the premiums are due. The grace period payment can be no longer than the end of the month for which the premium is due. Non-payment of premiums by this deadline will result in termination from the Health Benefits Plan.
4. At present there are two rate categories for active clergy:
 - The Special Rate is $42,999 or less and will include all housing (parsonage or housing allowance) as designated billable compensation on Pastors Compensation Worksheet page 1 part 4.
 - The Regular Rate is for all clergy whose compensation for appointment purposes is $43,000 or above. There are two exceptions:
 - a. Those on Disability Leave are to be on the Special Rate
 - b. Those receiving Minimum Compensation support
5. Retired Clergy and Laity are on the rates listed specifically for them on page 290.

REPORT NO. 3
Flexible Benefit Plan (Cafeteria Plan)

Requiring Action:

The Health Benefits Committee recommends that the Oklahoma Annual Conference continue the Cafeteria Plan as set up under section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code and in accordance with all other applicable regulations and federal and state laws for the period January 1, 2013, through December 31, 2013.

The Flexible Benefit Plan will continue to offer flexible benefits elected in advance by each participant by reduction of compensation, including the following options of payment with pre-tax dollars:

- 1) Premiums for the Oklahoma Conference Health Benefits Plan;
- 2) Qualified medical expenses not covered in the Health Benefits Plan (such as deductibles, co-insurance payments, vision expenses, hearing expenses, and dental expenses) by monthly reimbursement, up to an annual limit of $2,500; and
- 3) Qualified dependent care expenses by monthly reimbursements, up to an annual limit of $5,000.

Eligible participants include the following:

- 1) Full and Provisional Elders and Deacons, transitional deacons, associate members, ministers serving under the provisions of ¶346.1 or 346.2, and full-time local pastors of the Oklahoma Annual Conference who are appointed full-time; and
- 2) Clergy appointed “Less Than Full Time,” and all other local pastors of the Oklahoma Annual Conference working a minimum of twenty (20) hours per week and one thousand (1,000) hours per year, and earning at least minimum wage on their pastoral duties; and
- 3) Lay employees of a local church, or institution or agency of the Oklahoma Annual Conference, certified by their supervisors as working twenty (20) hours per week and one thousand (1,000) hours per year, and earning at least minimum wage.

An election form must be returned to the Conference Treasurer’s Office within 31 days of eligibility, and a new election form must be completed and returned to the Conference Treasurers office by November 23, every year. If a person fails to return a completed election form on or before the specified due date for any Plan Year, that person shall be deemed to have elected cash compensation in lieu of such optional benefit regardless of their election during the previous year.

A participant may revoke a benefit election for the balance of a Plan Year and file a new election only if he/she has not terminated employment and both the revocation and the new election are on account and consistent with a qualified change in status.

The local church or agency treasurer will remit to the Oklahoma Annual Conference Treasurer’s Office all monthly flexible benefits elected by their participants by the first of each month. The grace period for late payment can be no longer than the end of the month for which the payment is due. Non-payment of elected flexible benefits will mean that the flexible benefits for the year will be invalidated.

Deposits of funds from salary reductions are to be made to the Conference Treasury, and qualified medical and dependent care expenses are to be withdrawn therefrom.

The plan will be funded through unused deposits only.

Participation in the Cafeteria Plan terminates when a person ceases to be an employee. A terminated participant may only submit and be reimbursed for medical services or expenses that are dated prior to the date of termination.

GRACE PERIOD—If you have not spent all the money in your Health Flexible Spending Account or Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account by the end of the Plan Year, you may continue to incur claims for expenses during the “Grace Period.” The “Grace Period” extends

2 and 1/2 months after the end of the Plan Year, during which time you can continue to incur claims and use up all amounts remaining in your Flexible Spending Account. You must submit claims no later than 30 days after the end of the Grace Period. However, if you terminate employment during the Plan Year, you must submit your claims within 90 days after your termination of employment.

REPORT NO. 4

Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA)

For information: In 2007 and 2008, The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits Inc. arranged an HRA (Health Reimbursement Arrangement) with Kempton Group Inc., our self-insured Third-Party Administrator. All insurance participants enrolled in the Active Health Benefits Plan December 1, 2006, and December 1, 2007, were allowed to participate in the HRA plan. Each individual participant acquired funds that will remain in the participant's account until the participant uses all funds or terminates employment with the Oklahoma Conference of The United Methodist Church. Only the employer can contribute to an HRA.

A unique feature of any HRA is the ability to rollover the unused amount at year-end. The rollover dollars may be used for covered medical services in subsequent years while enrolled in the plan. This rollover feature permits you to accumulate money for future health care needs.

If you participate in the Flexible Savings Account (FSA), when your FSA funds are depleted then your HRA funds will be dispersed. No HRA funds were dispersed in 2009-2012.

Requiring Action:

The Health Benefits Committee recommends that the Oklahoma Annual Conference discontinue funding the Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA) as set up under the HRA guidelines of the Internal Revenue Code and in accordance with all other applicable regulations and federal and state laws for the period January 1, 2013, through December 31, 2013. An HRA is an IRS-approved tax-favored benefit that reimburses employees for qualified medical care expenses not reimbursed by an employer's health plan. HRAs are funded solely through employer contributions.

The HRA offers benefits contributed by the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, including the following options of reimbursement:

Qualified medical expenses not covered in the Health Benefits Plan (such as deductibles, co-payments, co-insurance, prescription drugs, vision expenses, hearing expenses, and dental expenses) will be reimbursed.

Eligible participants include the following:

- 1) Full and Provisional Elders and Deacons, transitional deacons, associate members, ministers serving under the provisions of ¶346.1 or 346.2, and full-time local pastors of the Oklahoma Annual Conference who are appointed full-time; and
- 2) Clergy appointed "Full Time," and all other local pastors of the Oklahoma Annual Conference working a minimum of thirty (30) hours per week; and
- 3) Lay employees of a local church, or institution or agency of the Oklahoma Annual Conference, certified by their supervisors as working thirty (30) hours per week.
- 4) If you were an active enrollee in the Oklahoma Conference of The United Methodist Church Health Benefits Plan on December 1, 2006, and December 1, 2007, and you are an active enrollee in the Health Benefits Plan, you will be allowed to participate in the Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA) Plan. There was no additional funding for 2009-2012.

As long as you remain with the Oklahoma Conference, the rollover dollars will stay in your account for future healthcare needs. Additional contributions, if over the age of 65, will not be received by retirees.

Participation in the HRA Plan terminates when a person ceases to be an employee. A terminated participant may only submit and be reimbursed for medical services or expenses that are dated prior to the date of termination. Reimbursements for 2012 claims are only distributed 30 days into 2013. Those who terminate the Health Insurance Plan may receive HRA funds up to 30 days after termination as long as the receipts are dated prior to termination date.

Those on incapacity leave will continue to have the funds available as long as they participate in the Health Insurance Plan.

Those on leave of absence, transitional leave, sabbatical leave, or extension ministry will continue to have the funds available as long as they are on the Health Insurance Plan. If a person in any of the previously mentioned groups terminates employment, HRA funds will terminate as terminated employees, stated above.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE COUNCIL

This past year your Annual Conference Council (ACC) continued to utilize Web and call conferencing in addition to on-campus meetings as a fundamental part of our group communications process. The ACC audit teams conducted stewardship audits of all the Conference-apportioned ministries, with recommendations to several of the ministries on ways to identify and secure program funding outside the Apportionment process.

As part of the ACC Management Team's responsibility as the Staff-Parish Relations Committee arm for the full ACC, staff reviews were held in Fall 2011 for all members of the Conference ministry staff. We wish to recognize and commend the ACC staff for excellent leadership and contribution to the ministry goals of the Conference. Specifically we commend the directors for Volunteers In Mission and Camp & Retreat Ministries for adding fundraising as an area of responsibility to the job descriptions of their ministry director reports.

We were gratified to see our recommendation for better stewardship of Conference staff and participant time implemented at the 2011 Annual Conference through the widespread use of video reporting, which shortened our conference by one day, and with the acceptance of our recommendation for changing the location of the Annual Conference to a single place of residence in Oklahoma City starting in 2013.

Our proposed ACC budget, which includes continuation of funding for an additional five years in support of Saint Paul seminary at Oklahoma City University, remains within the guidelines of the Council on Finance & Administration, which call for limiting an increase to less than 2 percent. Total proposed increase to the ACC budget is $100,500.

This report is submitted on behalf of the members of the Annual Conference Council and the Annual Conference Management Team by the tri-chairs of the ACC.

DISCIPLESHIP MINISTRY TEAM

The Discipleship Ministry Team (DMT) is continually focused on supporting local congregations and ministries as they live out the mission of The United Methodist Church: "To make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." Our goal is that, through the support of resources, teaching events, finances, and prayer, local congregations are revitalized and re-energized for the task before each one of us.

Throughout this quadrennium, there has been a strong emphasis on methods of outreach and discipleship, leadership development, ministries for and with persons of all ages and settings, and spiritual/faith formation. The board has upheld longstanding support of a variety of conference entities—Oklahoma City University, Camp and Retreat Ministries, and Campus Ministry and Higher Education. On the following pages and throughout the days of Annual Conference, you will read and hear about lives being transformed, relationships being formed, and disciples being made.

Along with supporting effective ministries of the Oklahoma Conference, the DMT also is committed to reducing Apportionment requests by eliminating funding for ministries that are inactive or duplicative in nature. We continually seek to utilize the Apportionments wisely and efficiently.

It is a privilege to chair the DMT and to work alongside many good friends. I especially thank James Graham, Cydni Tillery, and Diana Northcutt for their work with the team.

OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES COUNCIL

In 2011 the Council held two training events, titled “A New Frontier: Boomers or Bust,” addressing the fact that the oldest members of the U.S. baby-boom generation turned age 65 during 2011. Missy Buchanan, author and UM Reporter columnist on “Aging Well,” was an excellent leader. The events were held in Enid and Checotah to provide training in areas of the Conference we had not previously targeted. Unfortunately, attendance at both was quite low, so future events will be in the Tulsa and Oklahoma City metro areas.

The Council offered training sessions at Re-Ignite (Local Church Leaders) Workshops. These reach a broad audience. We plan to provide sessions again next year in those districts that request them.

The Council sponsors three Senior Adult Retreats each year at the Oklahoma Conference camps. Remaining dates for 2012 are Sept. 4-6 at Canyon, and at Cross Point probably during October. Spring retreats at Egan are usually in April. The retreats provide a venue for spiritual growth, fellowship with other seniors, and a chance for sharing ideas between church members about how they minister to this growing demographic in our local churches.

The Council plans additional trainings and distribution of material to those across the Conference who lead or are interested in older adult ministries.

The Oklahoma Conference will be represented by two Council members at a national training in Nashville on Sept. 20-22. The purpose of the event is to strengthen the ministry of each annual conference’s Older Adult Council. We expect new initiatives to grow out of the event as best practices from across the denomination are examined.

CAMP AND RETREAT MINISTRY

www.okumc.org/camps

With the purpose statement, “To provide spiritual experiences to deepen the Christian commitment of persons of all ages, draw them closer to Jesus, and inspire them to live in deeper faith in their daily lives,” as its guide, Oklahoma United Methodist Camps supports our Conference with evangelism and leadership training for our children, youths, and adults. Support of the local churches in our annual conference is always our goal, and we appreciate their continued support of our facilities and programs.

The year 2011 provided many challenges for camp ministry. Those started with flooding at Hardt Lodge, caused by broken pipes at Canyon Camp, and continued with flooding at Camp Egan that has closed down Egan Lodge. The year then turned hot and dry, causing many broken air conditioners and pipes and reduced attendance numbers. However, through it all, our dedicated staff and volunteers provided safe and meaningful ministry to all who dared to camp in the heat.

The Program Committee of our Board of Trustees continues to plan new events for United Methodists and others in Oklahoma. Be sure to check out the following events in 2012: Senior Adult Summit, Grand Camp (for grandparents with grandchildren), Under the Stars, Life After High School (for high school graduates) and our two revamped Senior High Trek camps.

Volunteers remain central to the success of our summer camps! We appreciate their dedication to provide quality leadership and resources. We ask your help in identifying new volunteers who love to work with campers, who are willing to donate their time, and who are willing to submit to our security screening procedures. To provide a safe environment for both our campers and leaders, we pledge to follow Safe Sanctuary policies.

2012 AMOUNT—$250,500
2013 REQUEST—$258,000

We are grateful to Paul Milburn of Shawnee for the challenge grant and to the many donors, mostly in western Oklahoma, who helped us meet and even exceed that challenge for two new cabins at Canyon. These will be completed later in 2012.

We also appreciate major donations to Cross Point Camp, for new cabins and facility remodeling, and to Egan for a new medical station. We are still seeking help for these projects. We continue to ask our donors to fulfill their pledges and encourage others to become donors to this meaningful ministry.

Our dedicated camp staff is ready, willing, and able to meet the needs of campers and to provide hospitality and leadership for your church, district, and Conference events.

We say a big thank-you to Kathy Coit as she retires, for her years of service to children's camping and coordinating the security screenings. As Ed Coy-Light comes to the end of his leadership tenure with the Trustees, including his service as chairman, the board also expresses its gratitude to him.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Barna research shows 77 percent of those who make a decision for Christ in the United States do so before the age of 21.

There are more than 4,000 colleges and universities in the United States, with an estimated enrollment of 20 million students.

The U.S. college campus is the ripest mission field in the United States today. The potential reaches internationally as well, due to the foreign-exchange opportunity on our campuses today. [From "Tulsa Oilman," a website of The Church of Christ]

While some parts of the church (other denominations and areas of the UMC) have all but abandoned the college campus, we of the Oklahoma Conference of The United Methodist Church have embraced the challenge and held firm in our support of this vital mission ministry. Our Conference-supported Wesley Foundations, ecumenical campus ministries, and local church-sponsored ministries are our representatives to this fertile mission field. In the next few pages, you will read about the successes and challenges faced by your outposts on the college campus.

The Annual Conference Board of Higher Education & Campus Ministry (ACBHECM) is the administrative arm of the Conference that provides support and oversight to our collegiate ministries. Guided by our Five-Year Plan, 2011-12 saw the ACBHECM working in the following areas:

Emphasis on Quality and Effectiveness of Ministry—We on the Board want our ministries to be very high quality and effective. We discovered there was no clear-cut, objective standard for what a campus ministry must be doing to foster quality and effective ministry. With this in mind, we developed and refined a set of standards, based on the "5 Practices of Fruitful Congregations." The standards are tailored to fit the varying sizes and types of ministries we have in the Oklahoma Conference. They also have the flexibility to recognize the different settings in which the ministries are based.

Accountability to Encourage Quality—We on the Board recognize the Conference has a tremendous financial investment in campus ministry. We embrace the challenge to be accountable for the resources that we oversee. We have streamlined the evaluation process to eliminate redundancy and to help us gather the information necessary to get an accurate picture of what is going on at each campus. By having a liaison that works directly with each campus in the evaluation process, we hope to provide better feedback to the campuses. We also began a new round of on-site consultations to help the Board get a firsthand perspective on each ministry. This process will take three years.

Funding for Quality—We are in the process of instituting a program where we will reward campuses for very high-quality, meritorious ministry. We are looking at offering innovation grants to promote new ministries and merit funding after evaluation to reward existing high-quality programs. These funding changes will be done in a way that rewards merit without punishing other ministries.

Training for Quality—In Spring 2012, we offered a training event for the boards of each campus ministry. While the content of the conference was fairly straightforward, the method of delivery was rather unique. Because we wanted both to get as many board members as possible involved and to hold down costs, we held the training event in front of a live audience and also made it available via Internet streaming. This allowed campuses far from Oklahoma City to hold board meetings to view the training via the Internet. This was a very successful first attempt and will, we think, serve as a model for future events.

Returning to Quality—While we would love to say that every ministry we oversee is running perfectly, we know that isn't always the case. Unlike the local church, which has a high level of continuity, campus ministries are highly volatile and can go into steep decline quickly. This year, the ACBHECM has worked closely with two campus ministries to help them return to quality ministry. At one, we worked with that campus ministry's board, the designated church pastor, and the district superintendent to help a Wesley Foundation return to a model of ministry that was very successful in the past. While success is not guaranteed, that ministry is moving in the right direction. The Board's work with another Wesley Foundation has just begun. In this case, we are exploring models of ministry beyond the typical "campus minister/Wesley Foundation building" model. We believe something very innovative will come out of this situation.

Extending Quality—We recognize there are many college campuses where we in The United Methodist Church are not present. In Spring 2012, we targeted five campuses where we want to plant new ministries. We are encouraging local churches to start church-sponsored ministries to these campuses as a way for them to answer the call to mission in their own neighborhoods. The new Apportionment money that the Board oversees will go to pay start-up costs for these ministries, and each year we plan to have at least two new ministries up and running.

The 21 members of the ACBHECM are dedicated to our mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ on college campuses in Oklahoma for the transformation of the world. But we recognize that we are the behind-the-scenes support team. The heroes are the men and women who serve as campus ministers. We challenge you to get to know your local campus ministry, to see how you and your church can help bring the love and grace of Jesus Christ to college students near you.

LAWTON WESLEY FOUNDATION/CAMERON CAMPUS MINISTRY

Cameron University - Lawton

The Lawton Wesley Foundation at Cameron University is continuing in a strong fashion in the development of our ministries to the campus community and the United Methodist (UM) connection with the churches of the Lawton District and the Oklahoma Conference.

One of the major goals of this past year for the Wesley Foundation was to strengthen our UM presence on campus and with the local churches of the district and Conference through the presence of the campus ministers and board members, plus through employment of a student intern/ambassador. This person recruited students for the Wesley Foundation and participated as a representative volunteer in ministries of the district and Conference. This outreach exceeded the goal and will be continued for the coming year.

A second major goal was to strengthen the presence of the Wesley Foundation and Lawton District clergy and laity in the ecumenical ministry of Cameron Campus Ministry (CCM). The UM students and UM board/local church members have become a major presence in the midst of the events and functions co-sponsored by CCM and the Wesley Foundation. Although we are not in a numerical contest with the other eight denominations that support CCM, the vast majority of its board members and member churches are United Methodist.

A third major goal was the addition of a stronger UM influence in the programming offered through the ecumenical center. This has been accomplished through the utilization of more UM pastors in worship events for students and more UM board members in direct contact with students and faculty in both coincidental and designated settings. For example, the faculty discussion group completed the material in Adam Hamilton's book "Confronting the Controversies" over a period of eight weeks in Fall 2011 and will study additional UM-influenced series in the future.

A fourth major goal was strengthening the Wesley Foundation's board and committee structure. This has been accomplished by the addition of four new and well-functioning committees in accordance with the guidelines of the Oklahoma Conference.

In Christ's Spirit, commensurate with our calling as disciples of Christ, the United Methodists of the Lawton District, including students, faculty, churches, UMMen's and Women's groups, and ministers both lay and clergy, are supporting and implementing a growth of witness to the campus community, the city of Lawton, and the area of Lawton. Thank you for your continued support.

UNITED CAMPUS MINISTRY
East Central University - Ada

The past year at United Campus Ministry has been exciting as we have seen significant growth in our ministry. Last fall our leadership team expanded as we welcomed a large class of incoming freshman and also brought in a solid core of upperclassmen. In the past semester we started two new small groups, a group that does monthly missions, another group that does sports, while seeing our main programming grow and expand at the same time. Some of the biggest signs of fruitfulness have come through seeing lives being changed. Our ministry has seen at least five people break free from the bondage of drug use and abuse. We have seen several students stop drinking to excess and had a small group of guys come together and make a pact to quit smoking.

Our goals for 2012 reflect the growth of the last year. We are continuing to expand our programming while taking on new forms of ministering to the community and college campus. We recently started a ministry that calls people to awareness of poverty across the world and to raise money for an orphanage in Haiti, where one of our students served during a two-month mission trip. There also has been growth within the community of campus ministers; various faith groups are working together to reach out to the campus. The United Campus Ministry joined with the Baptist Student Union to present a "Week of Prayer," and all the campus ministries came together last semester to offer a campus-wide worship service.

In all of this, we really feel the hand of God upon our ministry. God is pouring out His blessings upon us. Many of these blessings we see in the lives that we touch and the change that is affected for the Kingdom. Other blessings come from the people of our supporting United Methodist churches and the annual conference support. We thank everyone for their love, their prayers, and their support of our ministry now and into the future.

What a privilege it is to serve college students on your behalf in the southeastern corner of our Conference!

Each student holds the common desire to grow his or her opportunities in life. We meet them there, in this part of their stories, hoping that each might grow in relationship with Christ and in ministry to the world.

Beyond graduation, we work to help our students connect with other campus ministries if they are continuing on to larger schools. Additionally, we work with all our graduates to help them plug back into local churches as leading laity. We work tirelessly by the power of the Holy Spirit to help create disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the Church and the world.

April Coates, campus minister

WESLEY FOUNDATION
Langston University - Langston

Service, service, service has made this a great year for the Wesley Foundation at Langston. Since the last Annual Conference, 12 people have accepted Christ as their personal Savior as a result of the worship, Bible study, and other programming offered through this campus ministry. Three of those were baptized at the Wesley center. Others chose to receive that sacrament in their hometowns, where their families could be a part. Two of those were United Methodist. We feel deflated that they don't celebrate the sacrament with us; however, we also receive thanks from the parents.

How must a parent feel when the college-aged child arrives home and says one of the first things that young person wants is to be baptized? How must it feel when that young person wants to lead a Bible study for children or other young adults during a holiday break? How does it feel when a student feels self-assured enough to pull out a Bible and hymnal and go to work in a church, articulating the word of God?

Each year fewer of our students come into our program as Christians. That seems to be a national trend. However, the trend opens the door for more new Christians to come into the fold on college campuses. For Wesley Foundations, that means more young adults find the means of grace and places to worship in The United Methodist Church.

Cecelia Brooks, campus minister

WESLEY FOUNDATION

Oklahoma City University - Oklahoma City

At Oklahoma City University we believe in combining head and heart when it comes to making disciples for the transformation of the world. The Wesley Center at OCU offers students an opportunity to learn through Bible studies, spirituality groups, hands-on mission events, and close connection with the great professors. We nourish our faith through worship, prayer, retreats, small groups, monthly mission opportunities, and fellowship. But campus ministry is more than just a multitude of things to do for our spiritual and personal growth.

Campus ministry is about offering students a pastoral presence as they walk through a transformative part of their lives. These young men and women are finding out who they are, who they will become, and we remind them to follow the blessed nudging of their Creator. At a time when they are naturally focused on their own lives, we challenge them to deepen their relationships with Christ and to go and serve others. I am often amazed at the amount of pastoral care that takes place in the university setting. On average there are more than 20 pastoral-care appointments in a 10-week period, not including the everyday drop-ins. These students need our time and attention as they struggle to become the people God has called them to be. It is an honor to guide them with the love of Christ.

Thank you for your support of Campus Ministry. Thank you to Bishop Hayes for speaking with the students at OCU about ministry. Thank you to the many people who have been supporting our dream of having a Wesley Center building on the campus of OCU. We still have a long way to go, so if you are willing to help us or know someone who is, please let me know.

Jennifer J. Long, director of Religious Life/campus minister

WESLEY FOUNDATION

Northeastern Oklahoma A&M University - Miami

What a great year this has been for Wesley Student Center in Miami! There has been large growth in the number of students involved. We report 136 distinct students feel at home here.

They appreciate that the center does not use paper plates, plastic cups, and plastic utensils. We are as environmentally friendly as possible.

Many of our students did not grow up attending church, and now the seed has been planted as we discuss equality for all and love for Christ. All students are welcome. We have both traditional and non-traditional students in attendance; GED students as well as those who play sports, work in theater and in music; and engineers and nurses. We also have a mixture of ethnic groups.

Our Board of Directors feels a deep love for Wesley Foundations and financially supports and actively works for the ministry's success. In Spring 2011 the board sponsored a Shrove Tuesday pancake lunch as a fundraiser. In Fall 2011, Miami UMC, our sponsoring church, held an Oktoberfest in early November as another fundraiser.

My joy is working with college students and watching them grow toward being the persons God intends them to be. We greatly appreciate the Oklahoma Conference and Bartlesville District support for this ministry as we grow. We will continue to touch the lives of many students, giving them hope and love to deepen their Christian faith, as they become tomorrow's leaders in our churches and communities.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

Northeastern State University - Tahlequah

The Wesley Foundation at Northeastern State University in Tahlequah is a small but thriving ministry. We have weekly lunches, Bible studies, worship, fellowship, and mission service. Our Bible studies have changed from one large group to several small groups. We have connected with the local church and have retired professors and clergy who are willing to come in and teach Bible studies. We also have student-led Bible studies throughout the semester. Our worship service also has evolved, and we have asked our Designated Church Clergy to offer Communion for us on a monthly basis. This also enables us to continue to strengthen and grow the relationship with the local church. We attend weekly worship services and participate in other ministries of the local church as well as those at the Wesley. Change is apparent and constantly happening at The Wesley Foundation in Tahlequah!

What is the Wesley House at NWOSU?

Welcoming describes the atmosphere at the Wesley House. Everyone is welcome to attend and join all our activities.

Encouraging. All students are encouraged to step out of their comfort zones and participate in "Dinner & A Devo" by either preparing a meal or sharing a devotion for their peers. This has become contagious; students now encourage others to participate by offering to help one another.

Study. Yes, at college you have to study. The Wesley House is open 24/7, with quiet spaces and wireless Internet access. We even have a computer for student use in case they don't have their own laptops.

Loving, lounging, loafing. Everyone needs to take out some time for R&R, and the Wesley House is a great place to relax and get away from the dorms.

Energy-packed. College students have lots of energy, and we use that for many mission endeavors including Adopt-a-Highway, Habitat for Humanity, Halloween, caroling, and fundraising to provide Christmas gifts for a deserving family.

Why do we love the Oklahoma Conference? Because, without your support, we couldn't do as many of these activities.

Home away from home. Everyone likes to go home because of the unconditional love there. That is the feeling we strive for at the Wesley House.

Opportunities to grow... spiritually, emotionally, personally, and missionally.

Utilized. The Wesley House is used by more than our students. An Alcoholics Anonymous group meets in our building twice weekly. Family gatherings, sororities, youth groups, and several local organizations have used our building, too.

Seeking. Questions of faith do not end when students graduate from high school. Oftentimes one's faith is called into question more than ever. No question or topic is taboo.

Eventually students must leave. With God's help, we hope to have prepared them to be productive members of a local United Methodist congregation that will continue their discipleship in Jesus Christ.

Deb Corr, campus ministry director

UNITED METHODIST STUDENT CENTER
Oklahoma Panhandle State University - Goodwell

The United Methodist Student Center (UMSC) at Oklahoma Panhandle State University is creating leaders, making disciples, and transforming lives through a variety of ministries. Each week the interns join the director to pray to come in contact with and recognize students who did not grow up in church. As these students are realizing who they are as people, we hope to be a part of who they become as Christians.

Our programs are designed to help students deepen and strengthen their faith. To accomplish this goal, we have several mission opportunities, student- and director-led Bible study opportunities, pizza and worship, Morning Prayer, and Christian fellowship and conversation. Each week United Methodist churches in the Panhandle bring enough food to feed 200 students. Our Free Lunch program is a good time to build relationships with the students and bring them into the UMSC community. The interns have taken on their role as Christian leaders in the campus community, and students turn to them frequently for guidance and insight. Because the interns are passionate about sharing their faith, many students have come to know Christ. Three students who left the church during high school have professed their faith this year. Since many of our students do not attend church on Sunday mornings, the center has become their place of worship on Thursday nights.

Planning for our 2012-13 year, we have high expectations for our Holy Land mission trip. As this trip approaches, several fundraising opportunities will support this. We are thankful for a board that cares about the students and activities of the student center, and I am thankful for the opportunity to serve this wonderful ministry.

Jacki Banks, campus minister

WESLEY FOUNDATION
Oklahoma State University - Stillwater

Greetings in the name of Christ and from this holy mission community! It is an incredible joy to serve The United Methodist Church in campus ministry at Oklahoma State University. I would be remiss if I did not begin this report by thanking the churches of the Oklahoma Conference for their prayers and support. Our ministry is richer because of the local church.

OSU is a dynamic, constantly changing environment. To be in ministry in this location, as in all major-university locations, is to be engaged in a constantly swinging pendulum of social, cultural, political, and religious dialogue. Campus ministry requires more of the Church than Bible studies, worship services, and a few social gatherings. Campus ministry requires a deep involvement in the burgeoning intellectual and spiritual lives of young adults. The Wesley Foundation at OSU is the type of community deeply involved in the forming of hearts and minds to become better disciples of Jesus Christ.

One of the big joys we are celebrating this year is the decision of our Board of Directors to become involved in a comprehensive plan to build a new Wesley Foundation facility at OSU. We are excited about the possibilities and extended ministry opportunities that will be developed in this new facility. We already have initiated two of those. First, we have begun a Sunday Morning Worshipping Community of College Students. Secondly, our new facility space will offer the opportunity for students to live together in intentional Christian communities. Currently we have one small community (of young men) who have chosen to live together under a specific covenant that will be launched in August 2012.

Our ministry, like our university, is dynamic, and we are blessed to be serving the Church in such a wonderful place. GO COWBOYS!

Michael Bartley, campus minister

WESLEY CENTER

Southwestern Oklahoma State University - Durant

"I'm Presbyterian, and the Wesley is a place I feel comfortable and where I don't feel like I'm 'weird' or looked down upon." This is the goal of the Wesley Center at Durant. We take the Church's slogan, "Open hearts—Open minds—Open doors," to heart. Every person who walks through the doors of the Wesley is welcome regardless of where they are on their journey. We stress that God's grace is abundant and available for all. That is why we practice Holy Communion on a weekly basis.

Our free lunch has grown in leaps in bounds and we continue not only to serve students on campus, but also the wider community. We never turn away anyone who is hungry, whether the meal is a hot lunch or a peanut butter-and-jelly sandwich. NO ONE GOES AWAY HUNGRY.

Our students continue to grow in their faith and their walk with Christ. They are committed to being the hands and feet of Christ. In Fall 2011 we connected with Skyline Urban Ministry and spent time sorting items at the ministry's clothes closet in Oklahoma City. This project resonated with several students, who then organized a clothing drive, collecting clothes from students on campus as well as from the community to donate to Skyline. In October we participated in "Take Back the Night," a domestic violence awareness walk, sponsored by Southeastern Oklahoma State University's Office of Violence Prevention. In April 2012 the Wesley Center will participate in Relay for Life for the fourth consecutive year.

We are looking forward to our trip to Nicaragua in 2013. In preparation for this, the students have agreed to sponsor two children from the local Fundacion El Samaritano. Our weekly tithing goes to this project.

We visit churches on a regular basis, to share the ministry and vision of the Wesley Center. Some students volunteer to work with youth groups at churches in the area. We were honored in November to host the Ardmore District Youth Rally, at which a youth from our district made the commitment to be a Christ follower. The Wesley Center is making disciples for the transformation of the world on the campus of Southeastern and throughout the world.

We know the support of our local churches, Ardmore District, the Oklahoma Conference, and the Board of Higher Education make all this possible. On behalf of the Wesley Center, thank you for your prayers and financial support throughout the year. We look forward to working with you in the coming year.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

Southwestern Oklahoma State University - Weatherford

The Wesley Foundation at SWOSU has had a great year of ministry! The Spring 2011 semester started with several growth spurts. Several students started meeting with the pastor for one-on-one discipleship, which helped them grow in their faith and in their leadership skills. We participated for the first time in the jurisdiction-wide All-Wesley Retreat at Cross Point Camp. Our Kappa Phi women's group doubled from four members to eight. We started intentionally exploring worship possibilities for the SWOSU community; we held conversations and prayed for gifted student leaders, and some of our Wesley students began learning worship songs. We also began reaching out to youth groups in Clinton District by visiting churches and sharing the importance of campus ministry for college-bound young people. The 2010-11 school year concluded with our mission trip to Alaska in June. Although small in number, the group had a great time and was blessed to serve Homer UMC in several ways.

The Fall 2011 semester started with great excitement. During the summer we successfully recruited two great worship leaders, and so we started offering worship in August. Our worshipping community that semester grew to average 17 students, and it has seen steady growth into 2012. Our Kappa Phi group again doubled, from eight to 17 members. We continued to reach out to our campus through weekly lunch, which reached more than 140 distinct people throughout the semester and averaged 33 per week in attendance. Also there were visits to churches in the district, a great retreat shared with students from NWOSU and OPSU, and one student attended Exploration 2011 as she listens for God's direction in her life.

We know God has great things in store for us in 2012. Our student leaders are growing ever more committed, and the number who have been trained to lead is also expanding. They take seriously their faith and their willingness to share their love for the Wesley. We see continued growth on the horizon, both as our students grow in their faith, and as more people come to know Wesley as their community of faith.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

University of Central Oklahoma - Edmond

The Wesley Foundation at UCO is reaching out to students and sharing our love for God and for one another as we make new disciples of Jesus Christ while enriching our own faith.

Students at the Wesley have been working together to open hearts, minds, and doors to reach out to more students on this campus. As a campus ministry, we make sure that, as soon as we begin a new semester, we have representatives of the Wesley Foundation welcome new students. Life on campus can be simultaneously overwhelming and lonely. The Wesley Foundation provides students a home away from home. Students involved in the ministries we offer here are engaged in living out their faith as they reach out to their fellow classmates.

Forming relationships with every person we meet is a model of the Christian life. We do this through our open invitation to every student on campus to our weekly activities and also through our service at the Boys Ranch, Habitat for Humanity, and service in home health and hospice facilities, just to mention a few.

As Christ's followers, we are challenged to reach out to other students and share our love for God and for others through a wide variety of events. One of our United Methodist students invited a Muslim student to worship at our weekly service, and the Muslim student shared with me that he was humbled by the invitation from a classmate who knew that he was inviting someone who was not a Christian. While we have no idea how the Holy Spirit will transform this Muslim student's life, we believe it is through forming relationships with those who do not know Christ that we will witness our faith to others.

As campus ministry helps students learn what it means to be disciples, we are thrilled that students lead most of our programming activities here at the Wesley Foundation, such as worship, Bible studies, and local mission trips. Most recently students both led and served at a local food bank as they donated their time and energy in a project for those among us who are hungry. This campus ministry is indeed "making disciples, transforming lives, and creating leaders."

Our vision for next year is to continue sharing the gospel with all students at UCO while we also reach out to others in the community through mission opportunities. Everything we do here at the Wesley Foundation is possible because of your faithful support. Please continue praying for us and investing in the lives of college students as you support United Methodist-affiliated campus ministries.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

University of Oklahoma - Norman

For more than 200 years, the people called Methodists have been committed to the task of making disciples of Jesus Christ. Your faithful Apportionment giving has enabled us to be committed to making disciples of Jesus Christ on the campus of the University of Oklahoma in Norman.

One of our core values and a key way that we create and train disciples is through student leadership. We believe that we have been entrusted with a precious commodity at the OU Wesley: the future of The United Methodist Church. We are doing everything in our power to give young people ample opportunities to be in leadership. In this 2011-12 school year, we have a 35-member student leadership team. Each leader helps oversee one part of our ministry: small groups, missions, evangelism and outreach, worship, etc. Additionally he/she meets regularly with a staff member for one-on-one discipleship and accountability.

Empowering the students to be in leadership enables us to have an active ministry that reaches hundreds of students at all faith levels and helps them in their spiritual journeys. In 2011, we had nearly 600 students involved in small groups or worship! We offered 20 small groups that included Bible study and accountability groups, fellowship groups, mission groups, musical groups, book studies, and others. We formed a new mission partnership with Asbury UMC in Oklahoma City, helping with a weekly outreach to inner-city children. Our students also raised and donated more than $10,000 to various United Methodist mission entities.

Our commitment to the Oklahoma Conference is to continue being good stewards of the resources with which we are blessed and to continue building a ministry that focuses on making disciples and training up young people to serve the local church when they graduate. Thank you for your faithful support and for being partners with us in ministry at OU.

NORMAN CHINESE FELLOWSHIP

Norman

Thanks be to God for His indescribable gifts in the past year!

- Hosting the international student orientation breakfast, which drew 400 students at the University of Oklahoma, in Spring and Fall 2011

- Providing 45 students a class in English as a Second Language/TOEFL and related assistance
- 80 distinct students involved in Friday Bible study and Tuesday worship
- Eight professions of faith

Here's a testimony by Yue Cao, a Chinese student:

"I was an atheist when I was in China. My friend brought me to the Wesley in February 2011, and I felt very sad because my ex-boyfriend broke up with me at that time. Pastor Fuxia's praying for me made me feel well. I would like to learn more from God in the church, so I come to the Wesley almost every week. In addition, I think the people who believe God are very nice and kind and humble. I found that they are humble and placid like all of you.

"Every week I could learn something from the Bible and some beautiful songs about Jesus. After studying the Bible, I know I should be thankful to God because he gave us much unconditional love and patience. Christ died for us on the cross to save us. A few months ago, I nearly missed an important TOEFL test. I prepared and waited for a very long time, but I couldn't get registered for the test. I was very sad, and I asked Pastor Fuxia to pray for me about this. An amazing thing happened to me: I got a chance to take the test on the very morning of the test day, and the better thing was that I passed the test! I have to say that I enjoy more peace since I've known Jesus. When I'm lonely and helpless, I remind myself that someone is accompanying and loving me forever. That is God.

"The church is like a home where we can get everlasting love from God. As an international student, I'm very homesick. Two months ago, my dear grandma was ill, and she was nearly to die. I felt very desperate; the only thing I can do is to pray for her. After my praying, my grandma got better and better.

"I always miss my family; I have no relatives here. Every Friday, Pastor Fuxia cooks chicken soup with vegetables for us. It's delicious, and we all feel warm because of the Chinese taste. In addition, I have many good friends at the church, and that makes me happy. In September, I went to the Wesley retreat with many students at the Wesley. I had a lot of fun, and I think it's a memorable experience in my life.

"Jesus brought me many wonderful things, such as peace, mercy, and many good friends. He made me learn how to love others and how to build our confidence in him and so on. Thanks be to God for bringing us together. God bless you all."

WESLEY FOUNDATION

University of Tulsa - Tulsa

Thank you for helping make 2011 an abundant year of ministry at TU Wesley. College students, who are making critical choices about their beliefs, careers, and relationships, will be our local and world leaders soon. Please take the time to give the gift of prayer this year for students making these choices and for the Wesley ministry at TU.

TU Wesley is a student-led ministry, with the focus on student missionaries leading campus Bible studies, spirit-filled service and outreach events, and discipling each other, with the guidance and teaching of the staff.

Some highlights of the year have been: hosting a spring 24/7 prayer tent on Sharp Plaza; weekly deliveries for the Kendall Whittier food bank; regularly serving between 90 and 120 students at Friday Noon Lunch; reading/discussing C.S. Lewis literature; student-led worship, which was moved to Fridays in fall and Thursdays in spring; student leaders offering a variety of worship experiences so that other students experience God's presence; weekly discipleship Bible studies both inside and outside of TU Wesley; the gift of a Second Saturday work team, from Tulsa's Asbury UMC, which spruced up the building; Thanksgiving potluck; International Student Ministries communicating the love of Jesus to the mission field at TU; and, of course, the burning embers of Jungle Pong, always awaiting students' discovery of this game of skill and chance.

God has blessed us with students and student leaders, our Wesley Board of Directors, the Oklahoma Conference, Tulsa District, local churches, Sunday School classes, United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, golfers, golf sponsors, alumni, and families who care for the students at TU and the ministry of Wesley. We are blessed to see how the body of Christ supports TU Wesley. Thank you for your gifts, prayers, and service for the Kingdom.

OKLAHOMA CITY UNIVERSITY

www.okcu.edu

As Oklahoma's only United Methodist university, we are grateful for our relationship to the Church. In turn, we are working very hard to continue to strengthen that relationship. We are particularly pleased to report that the percentage of United Methodist students enrolled at Oklahoma City University has increased from 15 percent to 20 percent over the last five years. These students not only are active in all facets of student life here at OCU, but also they are some of our best recruiters as they share their positive experiences with younger students in their home churches.

We continue to offer special scholarship assistance to our clergy and their dependents in both the Oklahoma Conference and the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference. We feel this also has helped increase our enrollment of United Methodist students; when clergy members (or their dependents) have great experiences at OCU, they are more likely to steer students our way from their congregations.

We are particularly excited to have the opportunity to host the Jurisdictional Youth Ministry Organization (JYMO) in July 2012. This is a gathering of United Methodist youths from across the South Central Jurisdiction. We are expecting more than 200 of them to be on the OCU campus in July. By meeting here, these young people will be able to observe at least a portion of the South Central Jurisdictional Conference, which will be held in downtown Oklahoma City. As you can imagine, we are treating each of these youths, who are strong leaders in their respective annual conferences, as prospective students.

This spring, OCU celebrated a significant milestone with the 30th anniversary of the Wimberly School of Religion. A banquet attracted many alumni and friends of Wimberly. The celebration was coupled with the Martha Jean Lemon Lectures, which featured Bishop Robert E. Hayes Jr. and Dr. Amy Oden, a former OCU professor and now the dean of Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C. The Wimberly School of Religion's contributions to the Oklahoma Conference are significant. OCU and Wimberly are committed to providing trained leadership for the Church and were delighted to learn this past year that the Oklahoma Conference leads the denomination in the number of young clergypersons serving churches.

Beginning in 2013, the Annual Conference will meet on the OCU campus on an annual basis. Many of you will be on our campus prior to that. Whenever you are here, be sure to note the beautiful, towering spire with its cross now atop the Bishop W. Angie Smith Chapel, replacing the original that was damaged by high winds. And although you will not be able to see it, the name of Dorothy Graham has been lovingly inscribed on the cross—an appropriate tribute to one who gave so generously of herself to OCU.

DISCIPLESHIP MINISTRIES FOR THE SMALL-MEMBERSHIP CHURCH

Many small-membership churches across the state are struggling with being vital, healthy congregations. Regardless of size, sustainability is one of the major challenges facing churches today. In 2012-13 this office will continue to look at these related issues:

- Tipping points for churches. What does this mean? Where and when will change happen to strengthen the local church?
- What are the characteristics, what do “vital congregations” look like among smaller-membership churches?
- Help smaller congregations understand their important role in “The Action Plan.”
- Help smaller churches work on their strategic plans.

Safe Sanctuaries training continues to evolve. All churches now should have the DVD produced by this office and the ability to do their own training. We have placed on the website a generic Safe Sanctuary training model for any church to use. On Sept. 1, 2011, the Conference contracted with the Trak 1 company to perform security screenings; this switch allows the process to be 100-percent paperless.

The Fall 2011 events, “From A Mustard Seed: Vital Worship and Music in Smaller Churches,” were a great success. We had 304 participants, with 80 churches represented, at sessions across our state. In Fall 2012 our goal is to repeat this program. I encourage you to watch for this and participate when it comes to your region.

The Youth Workers Academy reported its first class at maximum attendance. And we were pleased when the first out-of-state participant registered to attend our academy. We encourage volunteer and part-time youth ministers to consider the advantages of this training for them personally and for their churches. This program is co-sponsored by Oklahoma City University, and OCU faculty teach many of the classes.

In March 2012, the Youth department co-sponsored YouTheology with Saint Paul School of Theology. Mark DeVries, author of “Family-Based Youth Ministry” and “Sustainable Youth Ministry,” was keynote speaker. Bishop Hayes preached in the opening worship, and numerous workshops were held in this Continuing Education event for youth directors across the state.

EVANGELISM TASK GROUP

Members of the Evangelism Task Group have worked together with the Discipleship Ministry Team and other leaders of the Oklahoma Conference to develop a major emphasis on evangelism that can be used not only this year but in following years. The following is a summary of the Evangelism Program for 2012:

1. We will provide training throughout the year for local churches on how to do effective evangelism.
2. We ask that every local church do at least one major emphasis on evangelism during the annual conference year. For this we will provide many resources that are proven and useable.
3. We ask every local church to have an emphasis on evangelism during Christmas 2012 and beyond Christmas, using the program “Home for Christmas” as a model.
4. The Evangelism Task Group is developing an evangelism award that will be given annually to all local churches that meet certain criteria for effectiveness in evangelism. This award will be made available to small and larger churches in making new disciples of Christ each year.
5. The Evangelism Task Group recommends that each local church hold a major emphasis on prayer for evangelism or for making new disciples of Jesus Christ. The Evangelism Task Group will present resources to implement that emphasis on prayer and evangelism.

NATURAL CHURCH DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

The Natural Church Development Committee seeks to provide resources, training, and excellent coaching for any church in Oklahoma that desires to implement Natural Church Development as a means to fulfill that local church’s strategic plan and goals.

Natural Church Development is one of the most proven tools to help a local church. The program identifies standards of effectiveness for local churches, provides the means for a church to assess itself in light of those standards, and offers a strategy for a local church to do the planning necessary to correct problems and plan a positive future.

A total of 61 people in Oklahoma have been extensively trained as program coaches. Those coaches are available to any church in the Oklahoma Conference that would like help in using Natural Church Development. For more information on coaches, contact Connie Gibson.

Steering committee members are:

David Burris	David Wiggs	James Graham
Darrell Cates	Gary Holdeman	Terry Koehn
Chuck Horton	Linda Harker	Allen Schneider
Dan Pulver	Chuck Nordean	Scott Rodgers
Bob Pierson	Connie Gibson

COMMISSION ON RURAL/SMALLER MEMBERSHIP CHURCH

www.okumc.org/small_church-commission

As a commission, it is our job is to represent the smaller and rural churches of the Conference. This responsibility takes on many forms but ultimately involves (1) being a voice on the Conference level for these churches and (2) providing resources and opportunities for them. With this in mind, we continue to offer ministry grants for local churches. These grants have been used to start a number of new ministries across our Conference and have helped local churches reach others for Christ. We also continue to offer continuing-education scholarships for clergy and laity who need financial assistance in order to attend training events or workshops. During this past year, we developed an application form, which is now available on the Conference Website, to assist those who want to apply for these scholarships. Another of our programs, Project Noel, has finished its fifth ministry season. For Christmas 2011, we had about 70 churches participate, and they distributed books, toys, batteries, and much more to children and families across our state. One change we made this year in Project Noel was to ask participating churches to help us at the central distribution warehouse. Some 12 churches agreed to help. Each worked one afternoon in the warehouse, providing much-needed assistance for our warehouse coordinators. Further, we continue to offer CDs to local churches of The United Methodist Hymnal and The Faith We Sing, and we hope to someday offer Worship and Song on CD as well. We are looking at new resources that we may be able to provide in the future to the churches we represent. It is a joy to represent the majority of the churches of our Conference.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

As we approach the next “Five-Day Academy for Spiritual Formation,” Nov. 5-10 at Canyon Camp, we are anticipating a rich time of exploration, spiritual growth, and conversation as well as time to sink roots into deeper prayer and discipleship.

A typical day at the academy includes morning, evening, and night prayer services; faculty presentations; periods of silence for prayer and contemplation; time for conversation; recreation; and rest.

Our faculty at the academy this fall will be William P. Brown and Kathryn Damiano. Bill Brown is professor of Old Testament Literature, Language, and Exegesis at Columbia Seminary and author of “The Seven Pillars of Creation.” His topic in November will be “The Spirituality of Wonder.”

Kathryn Damiano is a Quaker, life-long contemplative, retreat leader, spiritual director, and co-founder of “The School of the Spirit.” Her topic will be “Discernment as a Way of Life.”

The Five-Day Academy is a program of Upper Room Ministries and is for both laity and clergy. Scholarships are available for Oklahoma United Methodists.

Five-Day Academy retreat leader and team: Kathy Leithner, Diana Northcutt, Victor McCullough, Cindy Mayes, and Katrina McBride.

“Shepherds Retreats” are held four times a year at Turtle Rock Farm Retreat Center. These are 24-hour spiritual renewal retreats for clergy and lay.

The contact person for these retreats is Susan Ross at Pawnee UMC. You’ll also find information at Turtle Rock Farm’s website, <http://turtlerockfarmretreat.com>.

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRIES COUNCIL

Grace and peace to you in the name of Christ.

In 2011 and the first half of 2012, the Council on Young Adult Ministries began creating a vision for our future. We have begun restructuring, with an effort to have representation from every district and with the creation of an executive team. This executive team will help co-chairpersons Andy Henson, laity, and Adam Shahan, clergy, coordinate our conference and jurisdictional efforts.

Our emphases in the coming years are centered on the desire to increase participation on the council; to increase fellowship, worship, and networking among our young adults; to engage in a period of short-term missions within our own conference; and to engage in advocacy and develop a list of ideas and issues that are important to young adults both inside and outside our local churches.

On March 31, our council went to Penn Avenue Redemption UMC in Oklahoma City. We installed irrigation pipes, rolled out sod, and did other landscaping for the church. After working outside, we gathered in the sanctuary for a time of worship, then heard from Adam Leathers.

At the Re-Ignite Workshops in January and February, in addition to classes about young adult ministries, we had several young adult clergy and laity teach classes about issues and ideas important to them. In every district, among the classes with highest attendance were those taught by young adults.

Finally, we have developed a concrete plan for subdividing into regional small groups, enabling us to meet more frequently. This is encouraged by The Book of Discipline and is a way to ease burdens of time and travel. Regional small groups will meet four times a year, and the council as a whole will meet twice a year, with our time together emphasizing worship, mission, and training young adult leaders.

We are living in a time when “professing membership” does not mean to emerging young adults what it meant for previous generations; where young adults do not seek out churches in order to find a network of friends or a place for their children, but instead desire an outlet for their creativity and a praxis-oriented faith; where some of the issues facing our country and Church are viewed differently by young adults than by other generations. These issues, while difficult, cannot be ignored. The future of young adult participation in the Church depends on paying attention to and critically engaging these realities. In doing this, and in re-imagining the Church’s interaction with young adults, we are setting ourselves up for a bright and hopeful future.

YOUTH MINISTRIES

www.okumc.org/youth

The Oklahoma Conference Council on Youth Ministries (CCYM) is growing by leaps and bounds!

Our annual leadership camp, C.Y.M.E., was very successful this past summer. So many youth have begun attending the camp that we had to set criteria for participation. Sign-up is limited to four youths per church; an exception is any youth may attend who has participated in at least half of CCYM-sponsored events. We are thrilled to be partnering with OCU’s Religion Department to write this year’s curriculum and coordinate worship services. If you would like to be an adult leader or nominate a youth to attend, contact our adult co-chairperson, Adam Brinson.

At the CCYM Youth Summit, guest presenter Lily Lewin blessed us with a powerful workshop on prayer and prayer stations. We had record-breaking attendance at this event.

Also, our CCYM meetings have been moved to the United Methodist Ministry Center, in Oklahoma City, from Edmond-Acts 2 United Methodist Church, to accommodate our growing numbers.

Those numbers also mean more districts are represented, making it possible to take more steps in achieving our goal of an active youth council in each district. These councils boost communication among youths in the Conference and provide opportunities for youths within a district to interact more through district-sponsored events such as the 30-Hour Famine or Jam4Jesus.

CCYM is experiencing an exciting time of growth and improvement. Because of this, we are able to do more mission work, fundraisers, and outreach to glorify God, and are able to encourage more youths to become active leaders in their churches, districts, and the Conference.

If you have questions or would like further information, email me at mlshewey@gmail.com, or contact Brinson at 580-227-7090 or umcprogramdirector@att.net.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT MINISTRY TEAM

The mission of the Leadership Development Ministry Team (LDMT) is to develop ways to train, nurture, and involve clergy and laity as servant leaders in the life of the Church and beyond, for the purpose of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

The Leadership Development Ministry Team: Board of Ordained Ministry, Board of Laity, Commission on Religion & Race, and Commission on the Status & Role of Women.

LDMT and the Board of Laity continue to work together in developing programs and workshops for both clergy and laity.

Local Church Leaders Workshops have undergone a name change and are now known as “Re-Ignite Workshops.” The passion and hard work of Re-Ignite Workshops Coordinator Aly Shahan are appreciated as she accomplishes the task of helping each district provide a premier learning experience while maintaining its identity.

The Leadership Development Ministry Team continues to develop new relationships with other Conference ministry groups. Discipleship Ministries for the Small-Membership Church invited LDMT to co-sponsor “Music and Worship in the Small-Membership Church” at six sites during one week in Fall 2011.

LDMT continues to support the Single-Parent Family Gatherings offered through the Camps ministries. These unique retreats for single parents and their children are opportunities for the family to grow closer to each other and God. Moms, dads, sons, daughters, grandparents, and grandchildren have an awesome time together, while volunteer “angels” are always close by. We offer our prayers and support to new deans this year: Norm Wasson, dean for the Camp Egan event, and Aly Shahan, dean for the Cross Point Camp retreat. We express thanks for the financial support this year from individuals and churches in North/South OKC and Bartlesville Districts, which collected special offerings at their Re-ignite Workshops for these retreats. Every dollar donated helps reduce the cost for families to attend.

LDMT is excited to be a part of the ongoing LEAD seminars for clergy. In Fall 2009, conversations began on the topic of helping pastors with the “nuts and bolts” of ministry. The Leadership Development Ministry Team and Conference Treasurer Brian Bakeman convened a planning group. As a result, the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference, Oklahoma City University, Saint Paul School of Theology, and the Oklahoma United Methodist Foundation partnered to present seminars that address spiritual and administrative issues faced by part-time local pastors, student pastors, full-time local pastors, and elders in their church appointments. Topics for LEAD I are: personal financial management, corporate/church financial management, and conflict management. The LEAD II seminar focuses on personal and corporate/church stewardship and leading the laity. The LEAD III sessions focus on personal and corporate accountability, and leading church staff. Our goal is to continue offering three seminars each year, on topics that rotate through a three-year cycle. These seminars are designed to help participants obtain practical skills and knowledge beyond their educational preparations for ministry. We strive to make it possible for any clergy to attend. The seminars are held on the OCU campus.

LDMT continues to identify opportunities, challenges, and creative ways to do things we can't accomplish on our own. Through collaboration with the Oklahoma United Methodist Foundation, OCU, Saint Paul School of Theology, and many other Conference Ministry Teams and groups, these opportunities are accomplished.

The Leadership Development Ministry Team is a committed group of ministries that in the coming year will continue to focus on equipping servant leaders who make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The Oklahoma Conference Commission on Religion & Race (OCORR) of The United Methodist Church recognizes the Conference theme from last year, "The Plan: A Bridge to the Future," and this year's theme, "Celebrating the Plan," as two valuable opportunities for building "right relationships" within the Body of Christ.

Thus, on July 21—immediately following the 2012 South Central Jurisdictional Conference—OCORR will host the third SCJ Commission on Religion & Race Chair Gathering. The event—"A Christian Approach to The New Jim Crow: What's Next? Rethink, Take Action, Live the Solution"—will focus on the book "The New Jim Crow" by author Michelle Alexander.

OCORR will offer workshops (i.e. "White Privilege," "Mass Incarceration") to help heighten awareness regarding the unjust and inhumane practices of racism throughout our nation. The United States has the highest documented incarceration rate in the world (Wikipedia.org). This one-day event begins the process of social conscience development. It will help equip church leaders for cross-cultural, inclusive, and multicultural ministry. "Right relationships" become essential tools for building a multicultural Body of Christ.

COMMISSION ON STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The Oklahoma Conference COSROW strives to uphold the mission of the General Commission on the Status & Role of Women, which is to challenge The UMC at all levels to work for full and equal participation of women in the total life of the denomination, including ordination of women, equal access to policy-making, and recognition that Jesus Christ calls men and women alike to salvation, liberation, discipleship, and service in church and society.

At the 2011 Annual Conference, COSROW held a breakfast honoring the newly ordained and commissioned clergywomen. Each of these honorees was presented with a commemorative gift recognizing her calling and ministry. Charla Gwartney was the featured speaker. She shared a moving witness of her experience as a female pastor. During the eight years in her appointment at Choctaw UMC, average worship attendance has increased 94 percent, from 121 to 235.

We celebrated several landmarks for women in ministry during 2011. Linda Harker was appointed as senior pastor at McFarlin UMC, Norman, becoming the first clergywoman to lead a church that large, based on worship attendance, in the history of the Oklahoma Conference. She also was elected first during the clergy balloting for General Conference delegates, becoming the first clergywoman to achieve that honor. Frankye Johnson was the first African-American clergywoman to be elected by her peers and appointed by the bishop as dean of the Cabinet. And Donna Dodson was appointed as new Enid District superintendent. We also celebrate that 50 percent of churches in the Enid District are led by women as senior pastors.

Currently, 29 percent of the active clergy in the Conference are women. As reported in the 2011 Conference Journal, women chair 21 percent of Conference boards, councils, commissions, and committees; and 26 percent chair Conference boards of trustees. Among our district lay leaders, 42 percent are women. No women are listed as chairpersons of any district Committees on Ordained Ministry or district Boards of Church Location & Building.

COSROW held lunches for United Methodist female students at Saint Paul School of Theology at Oklahoma City University and at Phillips Theological Seminary, Tulsa. At the lunches, members of COSROW shared information about the commission, answered questions, encouraged, and supported these women. COSROW also gave book scholarships to female seminary students.

We have reinstated the Frances E. Willard Award that recognizes an outstanding woman in ministry. The recipient will be announced at the Annual Conference. COSROW also is working to establish a presence at CYME camp, to talk with girls who may be hearing calls to ministry.

COSROW again will present gifts to the women being commissioned and ordained at the Annual Conference. These women will be helping lead one of the morning devotional times.

COSROW is “Celebrating the Plan” by recognizing and affirming the many women, clergy and laity, throughout the Oklahoma Conference who are serving God through a wide range of ministries.

BOARD OF LAITY

“Celebrate the Plan”—The Board of Laity celebrates our many local churches that have effective Strategic Plans and that continually work to progress further in their Plans and ministries, which leads to more vital congregations! Spirit-filled laity living and leading in ministry are an important part of the plan for sharing God’s love in local churches, communities, the Oklahoma Conference, and the world. Our efforts are focused on encouraging and equipping those Spirit-filled laity leaders to be involved in every aspect of effective plans for their churches in ministry to the world. The following are examples:

- Seminary Lite, a joint effort by the Board of Laity and Saint Paul School of Theology at Oklahoma City University, has registered 237 people for four Saturday sessions, as of this report’s writing. Participants, inspired by excellent professors, gained deeper knowledge while growing in their faith.
- Celebrating “It Worked for Us” ministries in each district continues, with those efforts shared online at okumc.org. Joanne Kurklin is chairperson.
- Lay Leader Handbook (available online at okumc.org). A total of 500 DVDs have been distributed to laity leaders.
- The Board presented three classes in the Re-Ignite Workshops (Local Church Leaders Workshops): “Making a Difference—Starting a New Ministry,” “Lay Leaders Nuts and Bolts,” and “It Worked for Us” sharing ministry ideas.
- General/Jurisdictional Conferences lay delegate election process was reviewed.
- The Board worked with the Oklahoma United Methodist Foundation (OKUMF) in promoting OKC Thunder Basketball “Imagine No Malaria Night.”
- Spring and Fall newsletters were mailed to churches’ lay leaders and lay delegates to the Annual Conference.
- Ministry Sunday, informally named “Moving Sunday,” celebrates the ministries of local churches for incoming or returning pastors. Resources are online at okumc.org.
- Laity Sunday and other special Sundays are observed, including Scouting Sunday, Children’s Sabbath, Youth Sunday, United Methodist Women’s Sunday, and Christian Family Month.
- Networking—Through the members of our Board, we network with entities on mutual passions. Among those are Chuck Stewart (Leadership Development Ministry Team), Mark Springer (Stewardship/OKUMF), Josh Pulver (Young Adults/Families), Sharri Hiller (Camps/Youth), Judy Horne (Spiritual Growth), Barbara Perry (Discipleship Ministry Team), Mary Ann Smith (Missions), Gary Gilpin (Addiction Ministries), Claudean Harrison (United Methodist Rural Fellowship), Herschel Beard and Donna Heldermon (Annual Conference Council), Myrna Moore (Senior Adults), Bruce Ewing (Saint Paul School), and 12 effective district lay leaders and their associates.

We “Celebrate the Plan” through UMMen, UMWomen, Youth, Scouting, Lay Speakers, Young Adults/Young Families, and Senior Adults:

- More than 900 Certified Lay Speakers, adults and youths, are equipped and serving. Conference Director Pat Parvin and the district coordinators lead in offering training opportunities across the Conference. Parvin also has given excellent leadership the past two years as president of the National Association for Conference Directors of Lay Speaking Ministries.

- Youth-Serving Ministries, led by Virginia Williams for the Conference and by district coordinators, reinforces youth outreach as churches open their doors to Girl Scouts, Camp Fire USA, 4-H, Big Brothers Big Sisters, and Boy Scouts. Check out www.praypub.org.
- United Methodist Women, led by Conference President Kathy Caldron, are the conscience of the Church for touching the lives of women and children in poverty. You are invited to grow by attending the Schools of Christian Mission, July 27-29 (weekend) or July 29 (one-day), both held at Oklahoma City University. The Schools are for all ages and genders.
- United Methodist Men, led by Conference President William Chisoe, involve men in ministry and champion the “Strength for Service Fund” on behalf of our nation’s heroes. They are organizing district leadership.
- The Youths of our Conference inspire their local churches as they serve in mission, outreach, VIM, evangelism, camps, and Youth Force.
- We celebrate six youths and young adults who are serving as part of the Oklahoma Delegation to the 2012 General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
- Consider sponsoring a young person to attend a camp or one of these special events this summer:
 - Single-Parent Family Gathering—Aug. 10-12 Camp Egan, June 22-24 Canyon Camp, June 22-24 Cross Point
 - Young Adult Retreat—May 18-20 at Cross Point

The Board of Laity celebrates the success of the Conference Plan and the laity across Oklahoma who utilize their Strategic Plans as vehicles for their church families to better make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

RE-IGNITE WORKSHOPS (Local Church Leaders)

www.okumc.org/lclw

2012 has been a year of changes for our Local Church Leaders Workshops. The first and most obvious change has been the renaming of the workshops. It will be a slow transition from “Local Church Leaders Workshops” to our new “Re-Ignite Workshops.” In the past, these workshops have been offered to and geared toward church leaders, committee chairpersons, staff members, etc., and the class choices reflected this. The material offered was mostly for training and information. This year we took our first steps to intentionally change that. Our goal is for these workshops to no longer be solely workshops for leaders, but workshops for all laity. While the same leader training classes will still be offered, we also want to have classes for laity who may be interested only in missions, in how to grow their own spirituality, or even in what it means to be a United Methodist. We want these workshops to be a time to Re-Connect, Re-Engage and Re-Ignite for all laity in our Oklahoma Conference.

Many districts this year took a giant step and also offered classes for youths and children in their workshops. These were classes for youth and for children to attend! It is imperative that youths and children feel they are essential and treasured members of our local churches, our districts, and our Conference. How can we expect them to feel that way if we constantly put them aside to play games while adults benefit from training? The classes this year for youths and for children offered material in which they are interested and were taught by people experienced in working with those age groups. The Muskogee District reported 150 youths attended; worship at the Enid District workshop was led entirely by youths and children; the children of the North and South Oklahoma City Districts put together 125 “Compassion Kits” (including food, toothbrush, deodorant, etc.) to hand out to those in need. Wow! Look at the impact made by the involvement of youths and children. Imagine where we can be if we continue this effort!

I would like to say a special thank-you to Bishop Hayes! He sees the importance of and continually supports the local churches. His involvement makes a difference in the environment and spirit of the workshops, and we feel truly blessed to have a bishop so engaged in our Re-Ignite Workshops.

We look forward to your participation next year!

MISSION AND SERVICE MINISTRY TEAM

The Mission & Service Ministry Team (MSMT) exists to connect the local church to God’s mission in the world. We are called to be a resource, assisting the local church in its call to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

MSMT is made up of several outreach ministries. These include the Circle of Care, Criminal Justice & Mercy Ministries, Volunteers In Mission, Cookson Hills Center, Skyline Ministries, Restore Hope, Neighborhood Services Organization, Project Transformation, Addiction Ministries, the Board of Church & Society, and ecumenical and interfaith ministries.

We also relate to United Methodist continuing-care retirement communities and nursing homes, the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference, the Rio Grande Conference, the Lydia Patterson Institute in El Paso, the Bolivia/Oklahoma Partnership, and overseas initiatives. We faithfully administrate the Woodworth Estate Fund.

However, our focus is always to support the local church in its missional task. Here are two examples of this:

- This is the second year of the All-Star Church Recognition Program. This program celebrates local-church faithfulness in supporting United Methodist missions through the Six Special Sundays, the Advance and UMCOR, and the Covenant Relationship program (connecting local churches with GBGM missionaries). The All-Star program also recognizes creative, grassroots efforts of local churches in mission. What is the Spirit doing through your church? Tell us, and let us celebrate with you.
- The MSMT is working creatively with the GBGM (General Board of Global Ministries) in the task of calling up, sending out, and receiving missionaries. To this end we celebrate Fuxia Wang in her ministry to Chinese families residing in Oklahoma. Also, we rejoice that Kristen Brown has started her ministry in Palestine. Back in Oklahoma, Karen Distefano, our Conference secretary of Global Ministries, coordinated three mission tours around the state to introduce local churches to the mission field right in their backyards. This included introducing many to the great work of GBGM Church and Community Workers Meri Whitaker and Donna Pewo.

It’s obvious, however, that all these works—as good as they are—are not enough. To be faithful to our task of assisting the mission of the local church, much more is needed. Therefore, in 2012 and beyond, we are launching a major initiative that will equip the MSMT and the Oklahoma Conference to provide significant missional resources to and through the local church. You will hear more about this exciting venture. Meanwhile, please be in prayer with us that the MSMT will never settle for anything less than the making of disciples for the transformation of the world.

ADDICTION MINISTRIES www.addictionministries.org

Happy Birthday, Addiction Ministries!

Join us in celebrating 30 years of service to the Oklahoma Conference, in growing healthy, fruitful, and missional congregations addressing addiction ministry.

The Addiction Ministries’ programming is affordable, statewide, inclusive, and engages spiritual leadership at the local-church level. We understand that leadership involves clergy, church staff, leading church laity, dedicated lay volunteers, and community partners.

Education: Addiction Ministries offers a variety of educational opportunities that equip clergy and laity to respond to addiction in their midst, creating healthier environments for discipleship growth for the whole congregation. Our educational opportunities include:

- Summer School on Chemical Dependency:
A 12-day experiential learning lab on the campus of Oklahoma City University. Three-day module units (segments within the Summer School).
- One-Day Seminar Series:
Part I—The Disease, The Denial, The Doing
Offers factual information, examines the denial that accompanies addiction, and shows how the local church can be proactive.
Part II—Surviving Addiction: Yours, Mine, & Ours
Family roles are explored, using Family Systems Theory, and the effects on society and the local church are studied.
Part III—HOW: The REST of the Story
Honesty, Openness, and Willingness: Explores the spiritual principles of AA and the similarities to John Wesley's Quadrilateral.

Prevention: Every dollar ($1) spent on prevention programming in the United States saves nine dollars ($9) on treatment. Many lives can be saved with prevention programming; as we know in Christ, every one matters. Programming:

- Fatal Vision Goggles;
- True Friends;
- Parenting for Prevention;
- Older Adults Awareness;
- Gambling;
- See It, Say It; etc.

Faith Partners: Local-church Faith Partner Teams provide programming and services relating to addiction: making disciples, rejoicing in recovery, empowering the laity, speaking out for justice, and creating safe environments. Addiction Ministries holds Faith Partners Leadership Training and Team Training each year to develop these local-church lay teams.

Advocacy: Addiction Ministries strives to be accountable to the faith tradition of social justice and to provide factual, current, and relevant information through our website, Facebook postings, and email communications. We share information from health care professionals via email. We address systemic issues related to substance abuse and behavioral addictions.

Recovery Support: The ministry encourages a holistic approach through treatment, family, school, recovery groups, employers, and the church. We encourage radical hospitality. Within the last year, several churches have embraced Celebrate Recovery, AI-Anon, AA, Alateen, Gamblers Anonymous, and other 12-step groups.

The fruits of our love and labor are not easily measured, but we see them daily as we experience God's grace. We encourage walks alongside to comfort, to listen, and to rejoice in sharing the love of Jesus Christ.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

www.okumc.org/church_society

Your Conference Board of Church & Society has continued the work of Jesus Christ this past year and looks to march toward greater social justice in our state in the future. Under our Disciplinary mandate to educate United Methodists on our Social Principles and to advocate (and provide opportunities for advocacy) thereon, we continue to work and make strides.

Efforts in education have included board members presenting on the Social Principles and advocacy skills at Re-Ignite Workshops (Local Church Leaders Workshops) across the Conference. Presentations were made in at least six districts. (Some districts did not invite us to present.) In addition, Social Principles booklets were given to all United Methodist legislators (see below), and were mailed to all people who signed up as UMCAN advocates (see below). After the success of our 2011 Social Holiness Retreat, plans are under way for a similar event in 2013. Watch for more details!

On the advocacy front, we continue our efforts to further develop our United Methodist Constituent-Advocate Network (UMCAN) as a means of empowering United Methodists from all over the state to advocate for social justice in line with our Social Principles and their own faith understanding. More than 100 United Methodists from every corner of the state have signed on! We continue to try to monitor legislation, which is difficult for an all-volunteer board, and to send out informational UMCAN ALERTS that urge advocacy on specific issues. In the same vein, the Board of Church & Society, along with Bishop Hayes, sponsored our annual United Methodist Legislators Luncheon at the state Capitol on Feb. 8, 2012. Fifteen legislators joined the Bishop, full Cabinet, and Church & Society representatives. We thanked our legislators for their service, offered our assistance to them, and reminded them of their faith and their Church's social justice teachings as they form public policy in our state.

Church & Society also has been actively engaged in supporting ecumenical and other cooperative efforts to network and shape public policy in line with the Kingdom of God. We have supported and teamed with the Oklahoma Conference of Churches (OCC) in efforts to create a network for the 16 member communions of OCC to rally around social justice themes in our state. We also have supported and teamed with the Oklahoma Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty, a cause championed in our Social Principles. We hope to continue and expand these cooperative efforts in the future.

Through these efforts and more, the Board of Church & Society helps "make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." World transformation in line with the Kingdom of God is the stated mission of United Methodism. Therefore, may we all join the old prophet in saying, "Let justice roll down like waters and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream."

BOLIVIA/OKLAHOMA METHODIST AYLLU

The Jilakata of the Bolivia/Oklahoma Methodist Ayllu

(The Council of the Bolivia/Oklahoma Methodist Community)

www.bokp.org

We're pushing for a new paradigm in missions: "Ayllu" (Partnership/Interdependence/Community), with our longtime missions partner, the Evangelical Methodist Church in Bolivia (IEMB). This includes Volunteers In Mission (VIM) but goes beyond it toward real "Ayllu." Here are updates on some of our newer, most crucial projects. All are ongoing.

1. Building a "Home for the Orphaned Grandparents," Methodist widows/widowers whose children have died or emigrated and have not been in contact for years. These elderly live on 90 cents a day. There are virtually no nursing homes in all of Bolivia.
2. Lawton District has committed to send two VIM teams a year to build a church in the remote town of Cobija, located in the Amazon jungle.
3. Opening a medical clinic in Caypayqui, one of the most remote mountain villages. Any medical care is a six- to eight-hour walk from there.
4. Strengthened seven existing Methodist medical clinics with VIM teams' service, support for nurses salaries and training, medicines, and seven motorcycles so nurses can make visits in neighboring communities.
5. Raised more than $35,000 for the Bolivian Pastor's Endowment Fund, which now stands at more than $200,000 and which has provided more than $10,000 in salary support.
6. Oklahoma United Methodist children raised funds to create and print Bolivian Sunday School materials through mission offerings in Sunday School and Vacation Bible Schools.
7. Started the construction of a Women's Center, mainly funded by the sale of crafts and by the support of United Methodist Women.
8. In 2012, a total of 11 VIM teams are scheduled to serve in Bolivia, including Medical, Church Construction, Music, and Women's Encounter teams. We're developing an Engineering VIM team for 2013 to work on water issues.

9. We work with the autonomous, Oklahoma nonprofit Engineers In Action (EIA), founded through this partnership. EIA is bringing clean water, sanitation, and irrigation to more than 40,000 people. (www.engineersinaction.org),
10. Enabled these Bolivians to travel to Oklahoma to speak on the Bolivian Methodist understanding of the Gospel: Pastor Modesto Mamani, member of the Executive Committee of the IEMB; Excellency Eugenio Poma, Bolivian ambassador to Denmark and former Methodist bishop; and Joe Alvarez and Afnan Agramont, engineers.

The Jilakata of the Ayllu are a group of Oklahoma laity and clergy who have been to Bolivia an average of eight times per person, are committed to leading one area of mission, and have made a significant financial contribution to that mission. The members are: Leslie Long, Tonya Ford, Don Crawley, Lewis Thompson, Julie Guy, Doug Valley, Linda Allen, Ken Baden, Michael Bartley, and Susan Waite.

The ministry is led by clergyman David Stephenson, appointed by the bishops of Oklahoma and Bolivia to work full-time on this Ayllu. The position is solely supported by donations from local churches and individuals.

www.cooksonhillscenter.com

I love to jokingly tell people that the United Methodists have two seasons: Christmas and Annual Conference. We have just passed through Christmas, and once again it is time to think about Annual Conference.

The 2011 Christmas Store went very well. We served 260 families, a total of 1,149 individuals. We had 141 hard-working participants for Tool Tyme, in addition to the staff and volunteers from the community; I have enclosed a list of what was accomplished on this single Saturday. Then the elders from the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference came on opening day for the Christmas Store, to wrap gifts and carry groceries. Two volunteers from Pennsylvania spent three weeks with us. The Christmas Store is a gigantic effort, and it was great to have so many here to help.

The statistics are in; Oklahoma and Arkansas are tied as the states with the most people who suffer from hunger. And the tri-county area we serve leads the nation in hunger needs. We provide several programs where people are fed as part of our ministry. Our senior citizen nutrition program, children's program, day care, the Pack-N-Snack after-school take-home food program—all help us feed hungry children and elderly. This year we qualified for aid through the Community Food Bank of Eastern Oklahoma. Every two months, an 18-wheeler loaded with food arrives, and free groceries are provided to 125 families. We rotate the supplies among a list of families because the demand is so great.

We continue to partner with Blue Sky Behavioral Health Inc. for mental health services related to substance abuse. The provider “loans” us a certified alcohol and drug counselor weekly, providing individual counseling and teaching classes that help people with substance abuse problems get their lives back. Also, a physician comes every Monday to answer questions, give talks, and help people manage their health care. Oklahoma City University has initiated a program of sending a medical team to us annually, to give physicals and to study some of the challenges of rural health care.

About 18 months ago, we were given six kilns from five locations for potential pottery enterprises. We began to pour Communion chalices designed with Native American flair. The chalices have been a big success; we have a backlog of orders.

Our children and youth programs are going extremely well. The day care is operating at capacity. Our children's program is well attended, and our youth group went on a mission trip in Summer 2011 to the Clinton Indian Church and Community Center, staffed by Donna Pewo, a United Methodist church and community worker with the General Board of Global Ministries. The youths taught Vacation Bible School.

We are still raising money for a new Ministry Center on our campus. This has proven to be extremely difficult due to the state of the U.S. economy. We are halfway to the goal.

We will host about 20 Volunteers In Mission teams this year, from Texas, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Kansas, Nebraska, and Arkansas. Our teams will be led by a volunteer from Pennsylvania, because our center's VIM coordinator sustained injuries in a vehicle accident.

We are so proud to be a part of The United Methodist Church, and we want to be doing what God calls us to do. We hope that our partnership is one you cherish as well and that your continued prayers and support will be with us throughout 2012 and into 2013.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND MERCY MINISTRIES

CJAMM enters 2012 with gratitude and jubilation for a solvent 2011. We were able to carry over some funds into 2012, although only a meager amount.

Last year was a year of new beginnings for our staff. Adam Leathers began working as assistant pastor at OKC-Penn Avenue Redemption Church. He preaches in the Sunday afternoon services and assists me on Thursday evenings. He remains director of New Day Camp Too. Darlene Lorenz has become case manager at Exodus House-Tulsa. She performed well as facilities manager for a couple of years and was promoted to case manager. Rick Forthman was appointed pastor at Lawton's Aldersgate Redemption UMC. He is doing a great job as pastor and leader. He is active in the Lawton community as well as the Lawton District churches.

I was pleased to serve this past year on the state's Task Force for Children with Incarcerated Parents. The task force was created by the legislature and focused considerable attention on children we have served for many years at New Day Camps and Redemption Kids.

Paul McDowell was appointed CJAMM director for the Ardmore District this year. Unfortunately, since the Redemption Church effort was terminated at Warren Memorial UMC, the operation of that ministry remains suspended. However, volunteers are leading a class at the Ardmore Community Correction Center, and Rev. McDowell is leading a Bible study on center.

Our Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon was held again at OKC-First UMC. State Sen. Constance Johnson, a tireless advocate for criminal justice and correction reform, was the speaker.

I was privileged to lead workshops at The International Conference for Restorative Justice in Halifax, Nova Scotia, and the Third National Conference on Restorative Justice in Raleigh, N.C. In both places, the workshop was "Redemption Church as a Restorative Process."

A new private correctional center for women has opened in Enid. Pastor Jim Jones and a number of members of Christ UMC in Enid have taken the Department of Corrections volunteer training. They are transporting women to church. One has joined the church. They will be inviting and transporting them to Wednesday evening activities as well.

Operation Hope had an amazing banquet fundraiser in October. More than $40,000 was raised for that ministry.

In 2011, New Covenant UMC of Edmond adopted two apartments at Exodus House-Oklahoma City. Seminole-First UMC also has adopted an apartment there. All the Exodus House-Tulsa apartments have been adopted by local church groups.

We look forward to a productive year of making disciples in and out of prison.

CIRCLE OF CARE

www.circleofcare.org

With each year passed, we tend to look back in regret at goals not quite accomplished, and we too often look forward with some anxiety that something unknown, and therefore feared, might block our progress. I prefer the motto "Let us not look back in anger or forward in fear, but around in awareness." I ask that we look back at 2011 with thanks for the opportunity to serve, that we celebrate our accomplishments and those of our children, and that we look forward to the coming year with anticipation of further serving His cause in serving His children.

Among the highlights of 2011:

In Residential, we:

- Maintained 91 percent utilization, serving 37 children at the United Methodist Children's Home and United Methodist Boys Ranch.
- Maintained 99 percent utilization on campus in our Independent Living Program, serving 58 youths, with an additional 56 youths served in the community.
- Continued to grow in the number of youths graduating from high school, college, or vocational school.
- Our youth compiled 3,382 hours of community service.

At Pearl's Hope, we:

- Served 14 women with 29 children in 2011.
- A total of 62 percent successfully completed and left the program.
- Finalized a renovation plan for Lyons Cottage and conducted an energy assessment for the entire campus.

In Child SHARE, we:

- Served 555 children, averaging 293 children per day in our homes.
- Completed 64 adoptions into "Forever Homes" in 2011, bringing our total to 296 since inception of the program.
- Now also are serving foster families through cooperative ministries in Lawton, Ponca City, Enid, Elk City, and Grove. The numbers of children served in those five cities are not included in previous figures.
- Holsinger Home, Enid, continued to serve a full house of six children throughout 2011.
- Our Emergency Foster Home program served 50 children ages five or younger, and we have been given approval to expand into the Tulsa area.
- Foster/Adoptive Home Study program continues to grow in District Two.

Local churches contributed 97 percent in Apportionment support to Circle of Care in 2011. We continue to be blessed with such strong support. Despite the tough economy, Circle of Care increased the number of children and youths supported by each of our programs.

As you can see, we have many, many blessings for which to be thankful. Too often, we hear that each day brings another challenge. Let us remember that, in the Oklahoma Conference of The United Methodist Church and its many ministries, each day also brings a blessing. Thank you for all you do for our children, and may God's grace continue to bless you as it does this ministry.

CENTRAL OKLAHOMA UNITED METHODIST RETIREMENT FACILITY, INC.

Epworth Villa - Oklahoma City
www.epworthvilla.com

With a strategic road map in place, 2012 began with a sense of momentum and excitement for the Epworth Villa retirement community in north Oklahoma City.

Our strategic plan includes four main goals: (1) Create an exceptional resident experience, (2) Create a high-performing team, (3) Drive financial strength and strategic growth, and (4) Develop premier programs and services.

To create an exceptional resident experience, we will expand and remodel the campus. Phase One includes the construction of a new building that will be home to approximately 118 residents in assisted-living households, with underground parking. A second building will be constructed with 36 independent-living apartments and underground parking. We plan to break ground on Phase One in June 2012 and complete in July 2013. Phase Two will be the remodeling of the former assisted-living building to create an area for rehabilitative therapy for residents and non-residents and for long-term nursing care. Phase Three will be the remodeling of the nursing center to create a “main street” concept, which will include informal dining venues, bank, spa, dry cleaners, and other amenities.

To create a high-performing team, we will focus on using various programs that create excitement and meaning in our employees’ daily work and develop employees who are in supervisory positions.

To drive financial strength and growth, we will build on the financial success of 2011 by maintaining high occupancy and increasing resident satisfaction. We will expand our services to Stillwater by building a Continuing Care Retirement Community there with independent living, assisted living, memory care, and long-term and skilled nursing care, with ground breaking scheduled in 2013.

To develop premier programs and services, we will continue to provide quality services by adhering to the high standards of CARF-CCAC, the accrediting organization for the senior living industry; and EAGLE, the accrediting program of the United Methodist Association. We will look for ways to better utilize technology in our expansion efforts outlined above.

There will be renewed focus on philanthropy in 2012. We plan to raise $5 million of the funds necessary for the expansion and remodeling of Epworth Villa through the “Home For Life” campaign launched earlier this year.

With the support and encouragement of Bishop Hayes, members of United Methodist churches in Oklahoma are being asked to support the United Methodist-related senior living communities in Oklahoma—The Commons, Enid; Oklahoma Methodist Manor, Tulsa; The United Methodist Retirement and Health Care Center, Clinton; and Epworth Villa—through an offering on Mother’s Day, May 13. The money collected will go toward benevolence to those in need at the four communities.

To learn more about Epworth Villa, visit our website or visit us at 14901 N. Pennsylvania Ave., Oklahoma City.

THE UNITED METHODIST RETIREMENT & HEALTH CARE CENTER INC. OF CLINTON

The United Methodist Retirement & Health Care Center Inc. of Clinton is currently preparing for the 2012-13 school year. Yes, that’s right, school year.

We are partnering with the Clinton Public Schools to provide a pre-kindergarten “classroom” located within our Alzheimer’s Living Center. The pre-K students not only will have their regular classroom activities within the center but also will be interacting with our residents as well as having recess on our grounds.

We are excited to participate in this intergenerational, early-childhood program. The life experiences our residents have to share and the joy and enthusiasm of the children will be beneficial to all.

The playground equipment has been ordered, and we are looking forward to the new school year!

OKLAHOMA METHODIST MANOR www.ommtulsa.org

Oklahoma Methodist Manor in Tulsa serves nearly 300 persons “in the spirit of Christ” offering various lifestyle options, including private residences (six Lakeside Homes, 42 Patio Homes, 33 Villas, 27 Felt House apartments, 41 assisted-living apartments in the Holliman Living Center, and 82 accommodations in the Health Care Households).

During 2011 the Health Center underwent a complete renovation that has created separate living rooms, dining rooms, and kitchens in each of the six households. In addition, each household has a patio or balcony and a large sunroom. A spacious garden with a prayer labyrinth is also right outside the door. Each household is served by a team of versatile caregivers who personalize the care provided to every resident.

The Spann Wellness Center is also under construction and is set to open in April 2012. It will include a heated salt-water pool, an indoor walking track, strength and conditioning equipment, and ample classroom space. The new wellness programs center will help us realize the goal of promoting whole-person wellness.

Crestwood is a major expansion of the community that will add 103 new residences featuring a wide variety of affordable floor plans. Crestwood also offers underground parking, two restaurants, and large common spaces. Construction is nearly complete, and the first new members will move to the community in June 2012.

Oklahoma Methodist Manor realized a number of other accomplishments in 2011:

- During the year, 136 members lived in the Patio Homes, Lakeside Homes, and Villas.
- Nursing care and rehabilitation were provided to 154 individuals, with 72 short-term residents returning home after rehabilitation.
- The Holliman Living Center served 59 members.
- In 2011, a total of 20 people benefitted from the Supplemental Aid Fund, which helps those in the Health Center who have outlived their financial resources. Charitable care totaled more than $250,000.
- For the sixth consecutive year, the Manor was recognized in July by Oklahoma Magazine as among “The Best of the Best” in continuous care facilities.
- OMM continued its affiliation agreement with the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine, Department of Family Medicine. Physicians in their second and third year of the Family Residency Program receive specialized training in gerontology in the Health Center.
- The Marketing and Maintenance Teams completed 20 renovations and new settlements on Villas, Patio Homes, and Lakeside Homes, and six new members moved into the Felt House during 2011.
- The OMM Marketing Team reached 90 reservations for Crestwood.
- In March, The Oklahoma Association of Homes and Services for the Aging (OKAHSAs) recognized Gail Runnels as Trustee of the Year for 2011. The award recognizes an individual serving on the governing board of an OKAHSAs-member community whose contributions have made a positive financial impact for the community, furthered the mission of the organization, and provided direction for the future of the organization.
- The OMM Dining Staff served more than 225,000 meals in 2011. In addition, successful special events were held for New Year’s Eve, Super Bowl Sunday, Valentine’s Day, St. Patrick’s Day, Easter, Mother’s Day, the Fourth of July, Thanksgiving, and Christmas. The renovation of the kitchen was completed in a seamless fashion.
- Katie Cox joined the staff in February as director of Wellness. Since then 10 new wellness classes have been started, involving more than 500 participants a month. The classes have been attended by both current and future members of the OMM community. In August, 57 people underwent the Senior Fitness Test. The subsequent retest demonstrated that 54.6 percent of the group improved and 12.1 percent stayed the same.
- In June, Dub Ambrose joined the staff as full-time chaplain. A Spiritual Life Council has been formed, made up of 11 members from five churches (Will Rogers UMC, Redeemer Covenant, Asbury UMC, Tulsa First Baptist, and Boston Avenue UMC). A “Thanksgiving and Farewell Memorial” ritual was developed involving the caregivers, friends, and family members present at the time of death of loved ones. Campus residents, members, and staff continued The Manor Prayer Chain for OMM residents, members, and employees.
- Christmas gifts were provided for about 60 residents in the Health Center through the kindness and generosity of friends at Boston Avenue UMC, Tulsa First UMC, Asbury UMC, and OMM.

Oklahoma Methodist Manor is grateful for the love and support provided by individuals and churches from across the Oklahoma Conference. Your kindness and generosity enable us to achieve our mission of serving seniors “in the spirit of Christ...”

The past year brought new blessings to Project Transformation, including new staff, new financial donors, and the program's expansion into a new community. Project Transformation is thrilled to have expanded camp programming to Muskogee in Summer 2011. That was the program's first expansion into a new community since Summer 2008. Hosted at St. Paul's, the program was facilitated by six AmeriCorps members, who resided at Bacone College during the eight weeks of camp. The Muskogee community has shown overwhelming support for Project Transformation's ministry, and program staff is greatly encouraged by this new partnership.

During Summer 2011, Project Transformation camps operated at eight church sites: Chapel Hill, Moore-First, and Sunny Lane, in the Oklahoma City metro; Grace, Southern Hills, and Wesley, in Tulsa; First United Methodist in Bartlesville; and the new site, St. Paul's in Muskogee. The camps were facilitated by 48 college-age AmeriCorps members, who were recruited from colleges and universities in Oklahoma and other states. Furthermore, Project Transformation's Partner Church volunteers contributed 10,497 hours to read and work with 451 children at the sites. As a result, 92 percent of the young campers were able to improve or remain at their age-appropriate reading levels during the summer. In addition to the one-on-one reading, volunteers served 34,055 meals to the children, during their 30 days of camp, and chaperoned field trips to the Oklahoma City Zoo, Science Museum Oklahoma, the Oklahoma Aquarium, and the Five Civilized Tribes Museum.

The program was supported financially by several major donors, including: The Boeing Co., The George Kaiser Family Foundation, The Wegener Foundation, OGE Foundation, and Sonic Restaurants Inc. Furthermore, Project Transformation received a donation of more than 1,000 new books through a First Book grant.

RESTORE HOPE MINISTRIES INC.

www.restorehope.org

Our mission in Tulsa is to "restore families in financial crisis to economic and spiritual vitality." We live this out through person-to-person connections with families in need as they seek relief from the crises they face. We do this primarily in three ways: homelessness prevention, hunger reduction, and emotional/spiritual nurture. In addition, we have several special programs that seek to bring added light in a dark time.

Program Summary

Homelessness prevention: Restore Hope's Homeless Prevention Initiative provides rent assistance for individuals and families at risk of homelessness. The initiative offers rent assistance to those who can document recent, sudden losses of income and face eviction. Last year we provided $350,640 in rent assistance and other financial aid to prevent eviction for 3,885 people.

Hunger reduction: In Tulsa County, 30 percent of households with children are categorized as undernourished, something Restore Hope is committed to change. Last year, we distributed 416,000 pounds of food to fight hunger and feed our neighbors in need. This equates to $550,356 in Food Assistance for 8,884 families.

Emotional and spiritual nurture: When a crisis strikes, economic or otherwise, more than a person's physical well-being is impacted. The crisis itself is emotionally damaging, and the fact that the person must seek aid extracts an even greater toll on one's sense of worth. Restore Hope addresses these needs through daily chapel services, volunteer prayer counselors, and chapel staff. Last year our staff and volunteers had prayer/counseling sessions with 5,774 clients and gave out 329 Bibles.

Special events:

$113,700 in school supplies for 2,842 students

$47,400 in food for Thanksgiving baskets for 632 families

$52,163 in Christmas gifts for 318 people

Total Income: $1,713,288

Expenses: $1,501,055

As you may know, 2011 was a time of transition at Restore Hope. February snowstorms caused our warehouse roof to collapse. While devastating, that gave us an opportunity to expand our warehouse's capacity and create a bigger, stronger facility. April brought the retirement of Lawrence Johnson, our executive director for 25 years. Rev. Johnson gave much to this ministry; his work, with the help of many partners, led us to where we are today. In June we welcomed a new executive director, Jeff Jaynes, and we look forward to a future of great possibilities as we continue work to help build up the Kingdom of God and restore hope to families in need.

SKYLINE URBAN MINISTRY

www.skylineurbanministry.org

Skyline's mission is to impact lives, empower those in need, and address the roots of poverty in Oklahoma with the love of Christ. Skyline also believes it is just as important to give others a place to serve as they hear Jesus say, "Feed my sheep."

To administer our nine programs requires more than 1,000 volunteers from dozens of United Methodist churches in central Oklahoma and other parts of the state. Volunteers are the lifeblood of our ministry; without them, ministry could not happen.

In 2011, more than 1,216 volunteers logged a total of 15,489 volunteer hours in all areas of our ministry: Clothes Closet, Community Cupboard, Community Charity Eye Clinic, Alive in Christ on Saturday Night, Clothes for Kids, and Christmas Grace, to name a few. Those volunteer hours are valued at more than $264,091.

Demand for services to our clients has increased at least 27 percent across the board, in all areas of ministry. In 2011, the Community Cupboard provided food for 7,113 family units, representing 18,059 people. Prime Timers provided more than 11,598 meals to senior citizens, and the Clothes Closet provided clothing for more than 2,742 families. Clothes for Kids provided new school uniforms and school supplies for 1,129 students. The Eye Clinic provided exams for 886 people and manufactured 651 pairs of glasses, of which 82 were free glasses for children.

Our Jets programs continue to empower elementary-school youngsters to deal with troubling times in inner-city schools of Oklahoma City. In 2011, leaders reported 417 volunteer hours at the four Jets sites; eight students volunteered from Oklahoma City University, 15 from the Junior League, 11 from the Regional Food Bank, and six from UM churches and neighborhoods.

There are new site directors at each of Skyline's facilities. Their visioning and skills have given Skyline a fresh look.

Skyline's goals for 2012 are to continue to serve those who live in the margins. We also look to improve in the area of messaging, marketing, and development. God continues to have big plans for Skyline Urban Ministry. Skyline continues to work diligently to be the hands and feet of Jesus Christ to those in need and to be a place to serve for those who have the desire to serve.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

www.gbgm-umc.org/ok-umw

This has been a busy year for the Oklahoma Conference United Methodist Women. In the last half of 2011, the OK Cooperative School of Christian Mission went well, followed by the Mother-Child Retreat at Camp Egan, Annual Meeting in Shawnee, and workdays at Cookson Hills Center and Neighborhood Services Organization. Already this spring we have attended Day at the Legislature and the Spiritual Growth Retreat. Next on our calendar is the South Central Jurisdiction UMW Quadrennial Meeting in Abilene, Texas. The Oklahoma Conference UMW leadership is sponsoring bus transportation to Abilene, beginning at Miami, Okla., with stops in Tulsa, Oklahoma City, and Lawton.

In August, the Women's Division is sponsoring an event at Duke University by and for young women. We are excited for the opportunity this will provide to local members.

All of our activities, from bake sales to food banks, raking leaves to sorting clothes, tutoring to childcare, reflect our commitment to the UMW PURPOSE:

The organized unit of United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

The members of the Oklahoma Conference United Methodist Women strive to "Walk with Wholeness," this year's theme, putting FAITH, HOPE, and LOVE into ACTION on behalf of women, children, and youths around the world.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

In January 2011, when I accepted the position of president, there were obstacles to overcome. The executive committee was inactive; there were few lines of communication within the districts, and none between the districts and conference; and I had only local church experience. Less than one-half of our 12 districts had a president.

The theme around which our revitalization efforts are centered is from Proverbs 27:17, "As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another." The emphasis being that iron must come into contact with iron in order for any sharpening to take place.

Consequently, connecting churches within the district and the districts with each other has been the major thrust of our efforts so far. Establishing leadership in each district is also an essential part of the connectional process. We have reconstituted the Conference executive committee, and now have presidents in eight districts and one sub-district. We are also beginning to make progress in reestablishing lines of communication between the districts and the Conference.

As I traveled the Conference in 2011, I found that there were many UMM groups active in ministry, but very few were aware of what any of the others were doing. The opportunity for iron to sharpen iron was mainly occurring at the local church level.

Much work remains in connecting and strengthening the UMM organization at the local church, district, and Conference levels, but we are gradually forming a base from which this vital growth can occur. In 2012, we hope to continue to build on what we achieved in 2011. As our connections continue to expand, we expect to see more district, regional, and Conference events, so that even more men will be reached. Through the efforts and cooperation of the leaders, and with the help of God's Spirit, UMM will continue to grow across the Conference and impact the lives of men.

OKLAHOMA VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

The purpose of the Oklahoma Conference Volunteers In Mission (OKVIM) is "to share the love of Christ, in ways that make a Christian difference."

This past year saw the adoption by the Annual Conference of an important policy document that sets out best practices for short-term missions under the auspices of our Conference. This has become necessary because of liability issues related to this ministry as well as the litigious nature of our society. However, far more than mere protection, the policy document seeks to set a high standard of mission practice so that the time, effort, and resources spent on mission can be maximized in transforming and growing disciples.

The OKVIM continues to invest time in ensuring the safety of our teams by encouraging them to work in close partnerships with people on the ground and also by providing the best insurance and support while out of state or out of the country. While travel can never be guaranteed to be totally safe, OKVIM's record over almost 25 years is a testimony to the strong systems, excellent training, and deep commitment of our team leaders to ensure the best outcomes for each team on mission. While we do have a clear plan for worst-case scenarios, we prepare for the best expression of mission possible, and this shows in the ways the Oklahoma Conference and its churches support this vital ministry.

OKVIM's Disaster Response work, under the very capable leadership of Richard Norman, is beginning to show the fruit of relationships that have been built over the past few years in the Disaster Response community, among both state and ecumenical partners. We are now well positioned to put our resources in the appropriate places, with maximum effectiveness, and look forward to our churches joining in to build another strong component to our work together.

OKVIM also is focusing a lot of effort on encouraging young adults into this ministry. We are developing a curriculum to train youth pastors and Wesley Foundation staff in effective short-term missions and are exploring new ways to engage this generation in significant short-term and longer-term mission opportunities.

The ministry is bearing rich fruit from the appointment of David Stephenson as our Bolivian mission interpreter and liaison. His work has both solidified and increased this most significant partnership in our Conference and has resulted in an ever-expanding number and variety of mission opportunities in Bolivia and also in visits of significant leaders of the Bolivian Church to Oklahoma.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

Our Communications staff is busy preparing for the upcoming South Central Jurisdictional Conference along with their usual work for our Oklahoma Conference. Communications board members have been more involved than ever before. All efforts focus on supporting our Conference's Strategic Plan. Highlights from the year include:

- 2012 General and Jurisdictional Conferences

Director of Communications Joseph Harris is co-chairing the local planning committee for the Jurisdictional Conference, along with David Wilson from the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference (OIMC). That committee is now in final preparations for hosting this quadrennial conference that has not been held in Oklahoma since 1968. Anyone interested in volunteering to assist this group at the conference is invited to email jharris@okumc.org.

The Jurisdictional Conference will be held July 18-21 at the Cox Convention Center in downtown Oklahoma City. Witness the election of new bishops and track other Jurisdictional business via Internet live streaming. Use the link on our okumc.org website!

General Conference, in late April-early May, also was available via live streaming. Our Communications office will receive a customized DVD, including Bishop Hayes' sermon from the General Conference, to share after our Annual Conference. Details available soon!

Both staff and board members were involved in scripting a video that highlights Oklahoma Methodist history in an engaging way. The video follows the Jurisdictional Conference theme, "Woven Together for Transformation."

The next edition of Contact, the Magazine will be available in July for Jurisdictional Conference delegates and readers of the Contact newspaper. The magazine will look back in time in Oklahoma, with stories drawn from both conferences.

- Training

Communications board members attended a communications training event in July at the United Methodist Ministry Center. The staff did an excellent job of hosting; it was most beneficial. Board members then facilitated similar communications classes at most Re-Ignite Workshops.

- Audiovisuals

Video reports continue to make Annual Conference more engaging and help the conference run more efficiently.

A new Apportionment DVD helps Oklahoma United Methodists understand and take pride in our Conference and denominational ministries. A supplemental interactive booklet is available to use with the DVD.

- Web technology

Live streaming will be available again during Annual Conference. This is especially helpful for those who cannot attend in person, allowing them through high-speed Internet access, in real time, to see their loved ones ordained or commissioned, worship with Annual Conference delegates, and be updated on Conference business.

As use of smartphones and electronic tablets grows, we are working to make our websites “mobile-friendly.” The okumc.org site has a mobile Web app interface with features such as people search, news, events, and a church locator.

- Contact

Many Oklahoma United Methodists rely on the Contact newspaper for news of our Conference. Beginning in June, the $15 individual subscription fee can be paid online. Thanks to our relationship with UMR Communications, each print issue also includes news of the denomination.

- And also

Our Conference churches and ministries have received national exposure recently. Both the United Methodist News Service and the United Methodist Reporter have reprinted several Oklahoma Conference Contact stories.

Our Media Library has purchased several new DVD resources, including current UMWomen studies.

In addition to directing Communications and assisting and representing Bishop Hayes, Rev. Dr. Harris is responsible for the Conference Journal. He chairs the Communications Committee for the General Board of Higher Education & Ministry, is secretary of the General Commission on Religion & Race, and serves on the Africa University Development Committee and Asbury Seminary Board of Trustees.

The board truly appreciates the good work of our Communications staff this year.

DEPARTMENT OF CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

www.okumc.org/congregational_development

The Oklahoma Conference Department of Congregational Development continues to focus on starting new United Methodist churches in Oklahoma. Our newest congregations are highlighted here for you.

In June 2008 Chris Dodson was appointed to start a new church in southeast Moore, with the assistance of First UMC in Moore. This congregation, Cross Timbers, now averages about 100 in worship. They are becoming more financially independent, with offerings totaling more than $90,000 in 2011. In 2012 Cross Timbers is taking on more responsibilities by forming various committees from within the membership for Finance, Trustees, SPRC, etc. This congregation is primarily young families, so the church has a strong children’s ministry and a growing youth ministry, which organizes the monthly mission/service activity for Cross Timbers.

In June 2010 two pastors were appointed to begin churches in Edmond.

- Adam Ricks is the pastor of Connect UMC, which launched in Fall 2011. This congregation has been assisted by Edmond-Acts 2 UMC, which sent out about 30 of its members to help in this new-church start. Attendance is in the 100-120 range, and the future looks bright for this new church start.

- Allen Buck is the pastor of Summit UMC and has received assistance from OKC-Chapel Hill UMC. This congregation launched officially on Jan. 15, and attendance is averaging about 80. The future looks bright for this new church, too.

In addition to these newest church starts, Congregational Development is assisting with a “restart.” Christ UMC in Oklahoma City has been given an opportunity to restart under the leadership of Semaj VanZant, who began his ministry there on Christmas Day 2011. Changes are under way to make Christ UMC a vital, growing church, reaching its community for Christ. Grant assistance from Congregational Development is provided through the Apportionment for Racial Ethnic Churches.

Other ethnic groups that receive assistance from Congregational Development include: two Chinese churches, four Korean churches, and four Hispanic churches. In 2011 a major effort to review our work among Hispanics was led by Carlos Ramirez. Plans are under way to receive matching grants from the denomination’s Path One and National Hispanic Ministry Plan, which will enable our Conference to renew its efforts to be more effective in reaching the fastest-growing population group in Oklahoma. We are excited about these new developments for our Hispanic Ministry.

We are hopeful that we will be able to start more congregations each year. We are thankful for the support of the Council on Finance & Administration, which has supported increases to the Apportionment for new-church starts. We are able to sustain starting one new church every year and a new ethnic church every two or three years. Our desire is to have existing churches step up to help these new churches flourish. We are thankful for those who already have taken this step: Moore-First, Edmond-Acts 2, and OKC-Chapel Hill. We are particularly in need of more churches that will serve as anchor churches for new-church starts. We hope your church will become a part of this vital movement. New churches are essential in our Strategic Plan to reach new people, younger people, and more diverse people for Jesus Christ.

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

It is my pleasure to submit this report to the bishop and members of the Conference, with great appreciation for your love, support, and prayers as we work together to do God’s work on the border between the U.S. and Mexico.

In El Paso, Texas, Lydia Patterson Institute truly represents the connectionalism proclaimed by The United Methodist Church. Together with every member of this Conference and beyond, we have entered the 99th year of ministry with underprivileged young people on the border.

Life on the border is a daily challenge. Our students have lived through some horrifying experiences. Some have lost family members, including one or both parents, due to violence. Assaults, kidnappings, and death occur on the streets where they live. The character of our students is such that, in spite of all, they still smile. They face situations with courage and faith. They remain focused on their school, and they constantly thank Lydia Patterson and The United Methodist Church for bringing them hope and a place of refuge, a place where they feel safe. They are grateful for the spiritual encouragement they receive here, and point to Lydia Patterson as their means for survival. Their common goal is to graduate and go to college. And thanks to the support of our United Methodist colleges and universities, 95 percent of our students reach that dream. Last year, United Methodist colleges and universities awarded more than $1 million in scholarships to our students.

After two years of declines in enrollment because of the violence and economy across the border, we recovered in student numbers this year. With so many parents out of work, we doubled the number of work scholarships in order to keep students in school. At times like these, the faith of our supporters becomes most evident. We are thankful to United Methodist individuals and churches that went beyond contributing their Apportionments and also provided scholarships to save our students. Many in your conference were among those who made the difference, and we are extremely grateful.

The work of Lydia Patterson goes beyond providing a good education. We are intentional about preparing leaders for the Church and forming disciples for Jesus Christ and the transformation of the world. Our lay ministry program has grown from five students to 95 this year. Students continue to serve churches locally and throughout the jurisdiction. Many are in seminary; others are moving through the process for ordination; and some are youth leaders, Bible teachers, choir directors, and small-church ministers. Through this program, we hope to comply with the needs of the Church as well as change the lives of many, including ours.

The support of our United Methodist friends is evident in the recognition of our work. At times that is expressed in visits to our campus. Last summer we hosted the 40th anniversary of MARCHA (Methodists Associated Representing the Cause of Hispanic Americans), which returned to celebrate in the place where the organization was born. We also were honored by the visit of the College of Bishops, which affirmed its support. Work teams, mission groups, individuals, and everyone who comes to share a meal with us is a new spark of hope for our students.

We soon will be celebrating our centennial anniversary. Among the numerous events planned for the year 2013 is the publishing of Lydia Patterson Institute's history. As a guiding light and beacon among the missions of The United Methodist Church, it is only right that Lydia Patterson's past be properly recorded. Plans also are in place to launch a capital campaign to rebuild our campus and place Lydia Patterson among those ministries of The United Methodist Church that will continue God's work for another 100 years. As we approach this memorable date, we offer our words of gratitude and ask for your continued prayers for the safety of our students and continued success of our ministry.

The Year 2011 was one of recovery for Mount Sequoyah Retreat and Conference Center. The future is bright due to great support from the various annual conferences served by the Center.

In 2011, Mount Sequoyah was host to more than 11,000 guests. The Center became: a meeting place for visiting University of Arkansas parents, a destination for increasing numbers of United Methodists, and a retreat for groups from other denominations. Use by secular groups also increased. The Center partnered with the City of Fayetteville in its sustainability projects and received in excess of $170,000 in loans, at 1 percent per annum, which will be paid by projected energy savings. Retreat and Conference registration software was purchased, and staff trained on its use and capabilities.

In November 2011, Executive Directors John and Sheri Altland submitted their resignations to pursue other opportunities. Lamar Pettus, a trustee of Mount Sequoyah and chairperson of the Board of Trustees of the Arkansas Conference, is serving as interim executive director. With the financial assistance of the Arkansas Methodist Foundation, The Alban Institute conducted an evaluation of operations and worked with the Mount Sequoyah board on adopting a strategic plan and evaluating its mission statement.

Programming and the focus for 2012 indicate Mount Sequoyah will have an exciting year, financially its best in years. The way we operate and our programming focus is changing. While continuing to seek conferences and retreats primarily targeted at religious organizations and secular groups, we are building programs specifically designed to attract young families with children.

Church leaders envisioned Mount Sequoyah as a retreat filled with the laughter and yells of young people, and we want to make the Mountain a place where that happens regularly—an affordable vacation site where young families can bring their children, experience the nature of God's creation, and grow together in Christ.

The Center also will host a supervisors' training program, housing 20 guests for a 45-week period and generating income for operations.

All areas of operations are being analyzed. Programs with a history of financial losses are being eliminated or redesigned, and programming is projected to generate a positive cash flow in 2012. The Center has a new caterer, and the dining hall will return a positive cash flow to offset the costs of its maintenance, insurance, and utilities. Facility use fees are under review, and increases have been initiated in some areas. Even with the increased fees, Mount Sequoyah has faced some scheduling problems due to growing attendance at events. Recently we were unable to accommodate all groups when more than one was scheduled to meet on our Mountain. Local architects and general contractors have volunteered to provide assistance in determining significant maintenance requirements and the costs for the renovation and restoration of old buildings that continue to serve but are in desperate need of attention.

A full-time development and marketing director has been hired, and a new executive director is expected to be hired by June 1.

Mount Sequoyah will not turn away from its heritage or purpose. Mount Sequoyah emphasizes Christian hospitality, and it is the board and staff's goal that all who visit this mountain will experience the love of Jesus Christ and the spiritual renewal and growth that accompany such encounters. By our actions, our words, our deeds, and our prayers, Mount Sequoyah desires that all of the expected 12,000 visitors in 2012, especially any who have never heard the good news of Jesus Christ, leave this place aware of the Spirit of the mountain and staff who serve them. We at Mount Sequoyah refer to this as Christian love and hospitality.

Our prayer is for wisdom for our new leadership and the board in its stewardship role, and for God to use the Mountain to ignite revival within this area, this jurisdiction, and God's world.

Your suggestions are appreciated, and your prayers are requested.

Lamar Pettus, interim executive director

THE OKLAHOMA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION INC.

www.okumf.org

The Oklahoma United Methodist Foundation strives to support the ministry of local United Methodist churches, ministries, and institutions. We do this through encouraging stewardship, fostering planned giving, promoting endowment formation, and managing funds and assets to strengthen and enhance the important work of Christ's Church.

We are grateful for our donors and their faithfulness to our United Methodist Church.

In April, we celebrated our donors at our annual Cross & Flame Legacy Society luncheons in Oklahoma City and Tulsa. We are thankful for those who give their resources to ensure and enrich the ministries of our Conference now and in the future.

The Foundation had the unique opportunity to partner with the Oklahoma City Thunder basketball team to present the OKC Thunder "Nothing But Nets Night" in early April 2011. We sold more than 500 tickets for the professional basketball game to Oklahoma United Methodists and raised $10,000 for the Nothing But Nets campaign to provide bed nets to children and families in Africa. The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation matched the amount raised to provide even more nets! Thank you to everyone who participated and helped support this great cause.

We hosted Stewardship Focus Day in Oklahoma City in August, featuring guest speaker Clif Christopher. More than 200 clergy and laity attended to learn more about stewardship in the local church. It was a great event that helped empower clergy and church leaders to better lead their congregations financially.

The Foundation continues to encourage and support churches offering Financial Peace University and EQUIP, our program helping churches better address debt and financial literacy. We believe it is of vital importance to honor God not only by tithing, but also with all of our financial resources. EQUIP uses Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University to help our churches and congregations become debt-free and learn the importance of financial freedom.

Our investment committee continues to work diligently in monitoring our portfolio asset allocations and investment returns. Our investment philosophy focuses on long-term, conservative strategies we feel have the best opportunity to meet the funding needs of all the ministries we support and serve.

Our planned giving staff helped implement a Wills Emphasis Program in several districts during the year. The program encourages our congregations to establish a will or an estate plan. The program addresses how to include the church in your will and the benefits of a proper plan.

We want to thank Annual Conference delegates, each of our donors, and our Board of Trustees for their support. Because of faithful donors who have given so generously in the past, the ministries of our Conference are made more effective and vibrant. Endowments create long-term viability for our ministries and, simply stated, many would not exist today without the generosity and foresight of donors many years ago.

NEIGHBORHOOD SERVICES ORGANIZATION

www.nso-mi.org

In 1920, a group of Methodist women joined together to help Oklahoma City’s poorest families. Today, Neighborhood Services Organization (NSO) helps some 72,000 people a year. Our mission is to be a faith-based organization serving the at-risk and homeless population by providing housing solutions and teaching skills to transform lives.

As NSO approaches the end of its first century of service, we have experienced tremendous growth and seem to be perched on an edge of a new era of service in the name of Christ for the homeless and at-risk in central Oklahoma.

Some of the accomplishments in 2011 include:

- Through leveraging a combination of private and public support, NSO was able to create an aftercare follow-up program for our transitional living programs (TLPs). We now are able to measure and track the success of clients as they leave our TLPs as well as provide guidance and support as needed. This is a vital program for which we have pursued funding for several years.
- NSO hired its first communications and public relations director, which immediately increased our public exposure in the media as well as improving the quality of all our internal and external communications.
- NSO had a record amount of media exposure in 2011. Stories appeared in several local periodicals, the newspaper, and in television coverage.
- We completed and implemented the use of a donor database, which formalizes our giving records and ensures we are conducting timely stewardship activities.

The year 2011 was an award-winning one for NSO and its staff:

- The permanent supportive housing program for adults with mental illnesses, Palo Duro II, received an Apex Award from the Oklahoma Housing Financial Agency.
- CEO Stacey Ninness was recognized as an “Oklahoma Achiever Under 40” by the Oklahoma Journal Record.
- The “Hungry Man Race,” NSO’s first public fundraising event, was held in May and raised some $15,000. In addition, the event raised awareness of the organization and attracted many new volunteers and supporters.
- One-hundred percent of the apartments in our TLP programs for women and children have been adopted by corporations or groups. These groups paint and decorate apartments before families move in, saving NSO money while providing lovely homes for families in crisis.
- The NSO Dental Clinic continues to receive generous support from Delta Dental of the Oklahoma Oral Health Foundation and other private donors. There is tremendous support for expanding the services provided by this low-cost clinic.
- Our board of directors continues work on the next five-year strategic plan for NSO, which includes unparalleled growth for our organization and services.
- We recently upgraded our phone lines to help eliminate busy signals encountered by the public.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Southern Methodist University - Dallas, Texas

www.smu.edu/perkins.aspx

Perkins marked centennial celebrations of the university's 1911 founding and 1915 opening with the publication in 2011 of "Perkins School of Theology: A Centennial History," by Joseph L. Allen, professor emeritus of Ethics.

In addition to celebrating a distinguished past, Perkins is moving toward a bright future. Effective student recruitment coupled with the lowest attrition rate in more than a decade has led to double-digit annual growth in enrollment. United Methodists comprise 77 percent of our M.Div. cohort. Ten annual conferences in the South Central Jurisdiction provided funds, which were matched by the Perkins Prothro Foundation, to create endowments for students from their annual conferences. Resulting Perkins Annual Conference Endowment (PACE) grants from earnings on those endowments continue to provide financial aid annually. Twenty-seven United Methodist annual conferences are represented in our student body, plus five UMC-related conferences: Indonesia, Kenya, Korea, Malaysia, and Singapore.

Dr. Brad Braxton was appointed Lois Craddock Perkins Professor of Homiletics and is the first African-American to hold an endowed chair at SMU, effective June 2012. Dr. Heidi Anne Miller, assistant professor of Christian Worship, and Dr. Linn Marie Tonstad, assistant professor of Christian Theology, joined Perkins in 2011. Dr. Pablo Andiñach, professor of Old Testament at ISEDET in Buenos Aires and a distinguished Methodist leader in Argentina, is a visiting professor.

Alyce M. McKenzie was promoted to the George W. and Nell Ayers LeVan Endowed Chair of Preaching and Worship, named a recipient of SMU's 2011 Altshuler Distinguished Teaching Professor Award, and elected 2012 president of the Academy of Homiletics.

Bruce D. Marshall was appointed to the Edward and Emma Lehman Chair in Christian Doctrine. Marshall also became director of the Graduate Program in Religious Studies, combining the resources of Perkins and the department of religious studies in SMU's Dedman College for students who pursue the Ph.D.

Dr. Hugo Magallanes was appointed director of the Center for the Study of Latino/a Christianity and Religion at Perkins.

Perkins recognized retirements of David Maldonado Jr., Marjorie Procter-Smith, and Charles M. Wood, who serves on the United Methodist General Conference.

William B. Lawrence, dean and professor of American Church History

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY, DALLAS TEXASwww.smu.edu

As SMU celebrates the centennial of its founding in 1911 by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and its opening in 1915, the university continues to rise in national prominence. Highlights of the past year follow.

SMU's total Fall 2011 enrollment was 10,982, including 6,221 undergraduates and 4,761 graduate students. The ethnic minority enrollment made up 22.9 percent of the student body. The fall enrollment included a record number of 1,119 international students from 89 countries. Perkins School of Theology experienced an 11 percent enrollment increase, including students from 14 annual conferences.

SMU's external awards for research and sponsored projects have increased significantly. During 2010-11, SMU received $21.6 million for research and sponsored projects, up from $16.5 million in 2008-09. In 2011 the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching raised SMU's classification to a research university with "high research activity."

"SMU Unbridled: The Second Century Campaign," launched in 2008, is the largest fund-raising effort in the university's history, with a goal of $750 million. At campaign midpoint in 2012, gifts totaling $574 million are providing funds for 231 scholarships; 22 endowed academic positions; 15 academic program endowments, including support for two schools and one academic department; and 16 new or renovated facilities.

SMU will break ground in April 2012 for a new Residential Commons complex of five buildings to house an additional 1,250 students on campus. This will enable SMU to implement a sophomore residency requirement.

A new Ph.D. program in art history, established in 2011, brings to 26 the fields offering doctorates at SMU. Among new academic programs, the Embrey Human Rights Program offers one of only five human rights majors in the nation.

A new general education curriculum for undergraduates, to be implemented in Fall 2012, is designed to prepare students for the demands of an increasingly interconnected global society, with renewed emphasis on ethics and courses with service-earning components.

The George W. Bush Presidential Center, scheduled for completion in 2013, consists of a library, museum, and independent institute. The Bush Institute already has begun programming, with symposia on subjects including education, energy, literacy, and economic opportunity for Afghan women. In 2011 the institute was instrumental in bringing to the campus His Holiness the Dalai Lama to receive an honorary degree, present a public lecture, and interact with SMU and high school students.

SMU's centennial events in 2011 included a symposium on "The University and the City: Higher Education and the Common Good," at which Perkins Dean William B. Lawrence presented a concluding summary.

SMU treasures its United Methodist heritage, and we ask for your continued prayers and support.

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Oklahoma City University -

As we approach the end of our fourth year of educating leaders to make disciples for Jesus Christ, renew the Church, and transform the world, Saint Paul School of Theology at Oklahoma City University has become thoroughly woven into the life of the Oklahoma Conference. Our mission is to educate lay and clergy leaders to strengthen local congregations here in Oklahoma, and we have worked systematically to fulfill that calling.

This year we launched "Seminary Lite: Theological Education for the Laity" in partnership with the Board of Laity. Each class session has averaged 50 attendees, and the response has been very positive. By providing courses in New Testament, Old Testament, Christian Theology, United Methodist Heritage, Church History, and Worship we are helping to deepen faith and further leadership education for laity.

This year we began to offer the Course of Study curriculum in Oklahoma City for part-time local pastors, and we are working to receive approval from the General Board of Higher Education & Ministry so we can offer it to full-time local pastors as well.

This year we continued our collaborative work on the LEAD seminars for clergy and are now in the process of planning how to expand our leadership offerings to other annual conferences, as well as to add other components to the ongoing seminars. The LEAD seminars are a collaborative educational project of the Oklahoma Area of The United Methodist Church, OCU, and Saint Paul.

This year we continued the development of our Native American Ministries Program. We have hired Bishop Steven Charleston (Episcopal Church and a member of the Choctaw Nation) to serve two years as Visiting Professor of Native American Ministries, funded by the Henry Luce Foundation. We also received a grant from the General Commission on Religion & Race for a Native American mentoring program to help increase Native candidates for ministry and for doctoral programs in theology.

Finally, in August 2011 we graduated our first class of Master of Divinity students. All five are in the ordination process in Oklahoma. We anticipate graduating another five students in August 2012. Our enrollment remains just under 40 students in the Master of Divinity degree program.

Saint Paul School of Theology at OCU is proud to serve the churches of Oklahoma and celebrates what we have done together these past four years. Thank you for your generous support, Oklahoma. We are your seminary!

Kansas City Campus -

Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary of The United Methodist Church that educates leaders to make disciples for Jesus Christ, renew the Church, and transform the world. We are one institution with two campuses, a free-standing seminary campus in Kansas City and a university partnership seminary on the campus of Oklahoma City University.

During the 2011-12 academic year, 184 students from 14 annual conferences and seven countries were enrolled in degree programs at Saint Paul School of Theology in Kansas City. Thirty-six students were enrolled in the Master of Divinity program at Saint Paul at OCU. The Course of Study School served 297 students at Kansas City and Springfield, Mo., and at Oklahoma City.

The Resurrection Scholars program was founded on a partnership between Saint Paul School of Theology in Kansas City and the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection (COR) in Leawood, Kan. A class was taught by Saint Paul faculty and COR pastors, with special presentations from church staff on topics such as church leadership, stewardship, evangelism, governance, pastoral care, and discipleship. In addition, a small group of students completed a 10-hour-minimum weekly internship at COR, working in multiple areas of congregational life. The students were also assigned a pastoral mentor, had classes with Pastor Adam Hamilton, and met as a group each week to process the experience.

A Doctor of Ministry cohort track focusing on Revitalizing Congregations began in January 2012. The track relates directly to the United Methodist Council of Bishops' initiatives (the "Four Foci") for the Church. The Wesleyan Strategies for the Missional Church D.Min. track will begin January 2013. Lead faculty include Dr. Henry H. Knight III, Dr. Robert Martin, and Dr. F. Douglas Powe Jr. In addition to the lead faculty, students will learn from pastors from some of today's most dynamic Wesleyan congregations.

The seminary will honor the Class of 1962 as its first 50-year class during its 51st Commencement Convocation in May. Bishop Teresa Snorton, the first female bishop elected by the CME Church, will speak.

The Saint Paul YouTheology program, funded primarily by Lilly Endowment Inc., is a program for high school youths to explore their faith and calling through worship, service, study, travel, and a mentoring relationship. Several YouTheology graduates have become Saint Paul Master of Divinity students. In 2012, a Master of Divinity student who as a high school senior was part of the seminary's first group of YouTheologians will graduate from Saint Paul School of Theology.

The trustees, faculty, staff, and students of Saint Paul thank you for your interest, prayers and support.

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

<http://scj.umportal.org>

We are anticipating the arrival of United Methodist lay and clergy delegates from eight states for the South Central Jurisdictional Conference, in Oklahoma City on July 18-21. The Oklahoma and Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference Host Committee has been hard at work to make delegates' time here comfortable and the tasks easy to accomplish.

The conference will officially open on Wednesday evening with the Communion and Memorial Service, to be held at OKC-St. Luke's UMC. Prior to that service, several jurisdictional committees will be meeting, beginning on Monday.

In business sessions at the Cox Convention Center downtown, we will hear reports of the work of the jurisdiction and elect three bishops for the Church. The Consecration Service for new bishops will be at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at St. Luke's, as the conclusion of the conference.

If you wish to attend you may register by going to <http://scj.umportal.org> and clicking on 2012 Jurisdictional Conference.

REV. MARK S. BARNETT

Rev. Mark S. Barnett, 50, of Midwest City, Okla., died Nov. 9, 2011. He was senior pastor of Wickline United Methodist Church at the time of his death.

Mark was born Jan. 20, 1961, in El Paso, Texas, to Beverly and the late Rev. Marcus Barnett. He earned a bachelor's in education/vocal performance at East Central University and his divinity degree from Phillips Theological Seminary. He was a member of the National Phi Kappa Tau and National Sigma Theta Epsilon Christian Men's fraternities.

He and Linda Dicus married on June 2, 1990.

Rev. Barnett began his ministry career in 1989 as youth minister at Perry UMC. He then was appointed as the first campus ministry director at Oklahoma City University, where he served for five years. He pastored Hinton UMC for eight years, before his appointment to Wickline. He was ordained in 1993.

Among his Church leadership, Barnett was an Oklahoma Conference clergy mentor; OKC-North District Board of Ministry member; and Camps dean, counselor, and curriculum writer. He led many mission teams.

In the Midwest City/Del City community, he was a motivational speaker and led community prayer services. He was a member of the Tinker/Mid-Del Family YMCA Board of Directors, chaired the YMCA Strong Kids Campaign, and was honored as YMCA Volunteer of the Year 2007-08. He also was honored as Volunteer of the Year for the Midwest City Chamber of Commerce in 2006.

Survivors include his wife of 21 years, Linda; daughters Taylor and Brenden; and honorary son Joe Nett.

His life was celebrated Nov. 12 at Wickline UMC.

REV. DWIGHT DARRAH

Rev. Dr. Dwight D. Darrah, 84, of Bartlesville, Okla., died March 26, 2012. His ministry career extended more than half a century.

Dwight was born in Oklahoma City on March 31, 1927, and grew up in Clinton. He attended the University of Oklahoma, and graduated from Oklahoma City University and Boston University. He served in the U.S. Army. OCU recognized him with a Doctor of Divinity degree in 1982.

On Aug. 15, 1951, in Okeene, he married Carolina "Becky" Beckloff. She predeceased him in 2011.

His first appointment was in 1947. He was ordained in 1955. He served twice as a district superintendent, leading the former Altus and Ada Districts. He was pastor at El Reno-Ellison Avenue, Laverne, Hinton, Harrison Memorial and Lake Churches in Tulsa, Kingfisher, OKC-Mayfair Heights, Tulsa-St. Paul's, Muskogee-St. Paul, and Bartlesville-East Cross.

In the 1970s, he was the superintendent of the Oklahoma United Methodist Children's Home in Tahlequah and the Frances E. Willard Home for Girls in Tulsa.

He had been pastor emeritus at East Cross since his retirement in 1992. He also worked then as a literacy tutor, minister of pastoral care, and law firm clerk. He was an avid reader.

Survivors include three children, David and Mark Darrah and Linda Darrah Reynolds, and two grandsons.

Memorial service was held March 31 at Boston Avenue Church, Tulsa, officiated by Revs. Charles Stewart of Altus and Eva Marie Campbell of Tulsa. Arrangements were by Stanley's Funeral Home, Tulsa.

REV. HARDIE MACK HIGGINS

Rev. Hardie Mack Higgins, age 67, of Cedar Hill, Texas, died Jan. 23, 2012.

Hardie was born Sept. 8, 1944, in Blackwell, Okla., to Jack and Lenore Higgins. As a young enlisted soldier, he served two deployments in Vietnam. Two decades later, he became a U.S. Army chaplain.

He attended Northern Oklahoma College and graduated from Northwestern Oklahoma University in 1982. In 1983 he earned a divinity degree from Phillips seminary, and he was ordained a United Methodist elder in 1985.

Rev. Higgins pastored at Jefferson, Renfrow, and Copan churches in Oklahoma between 1978 and 1984.

He became an active-duty chaplain in 1984. Before retiring as a lieutenant colonel in 2005, his chaplaincy included service in Kuwait during Desert Storm and in Iraq. He also served in Germany, Korea, and Guantanamo. He received the Legion of Merit, two Bronze Stars, four Meritorious Service Medals, three Army Commendation Medals, the Joint Service Achievement Medal, two Army Achievement Medals, and other awards.

In 2006 he earned a doctorate from Grace Theological Seminary. At the time of his death, he was studying Global Leadership in a doctoral program at Dallas Baptist University.

Survivors include his wife, Younghee Higgins; son Christopher Higgins; daughter Leslie Sykes; and a grandson.

Service was Jan. 27 at Blackwell UMC, officiated by Revs. James Hollifield and Pam Cottrill. Burial, with military honors, was at Blackwell Cemetery. Directing was Roberts and Son Funeral Home.

REV. HAROLD HONNOLD

Rev. Harold A. Honnold, age 93, of Enid, Okla., died Jan. 17, 2012.

Harold was born July 14, 1918, in Sand Springs, Okla., to Wilbur and Lula Jane (Lewis) Honnold. He received a bachelor's degree from Phillips University, Enid, and obtained a divinity degree from Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, Dallas.

He married Fay Shelton on July 16, 1944, in Dallas.

He was ordained in 1945. He served as a pastor for more than 41 years, retiring in 1985. Churches he served were Harrah, Kaw City, Hunter, Newkirk, Ryan, Carter Avenue in Ardmore, Geary, Chelsea, Atoka, Hagler Memorial in Tulsa, Wynnewood, Wetumka, OKC-Otterbein, OKC-St. Paul's, Rose Hill in Tulsa, Jones, Okeene, and Waukomis. After retiring to Enid, he continued to pastor at churches in that area. He performed weddings and funerals until July 2011.

Survivors include daughter Mary Fay McCumber, two grandsons, and a great-granddaughter. His wife predeceased him.

Graveside service was Jan. 20 at Waukomis Cemetery, with Rev. Larry McCumber officiating, under the direction of Brown-Cummings Funeral Home.

REV. KENNETH HOWARD

Rev. Kenneth Weldon Howard, 82, of Cathedral City, Calif., died July 30, 2011.

He was born on April 20, 1929, on his grandfather's ranch near Spanish Fort, Texas, to Robert and Ada Howard. He was age 2 when his family moved to Waurika, Okla.

A graduate of Southern Methodist University and Duke Divinity School, he did post-graduate study at Cambridge University, England, and Melbourne University, Australia.

His ministry career extended from 1951 to 1991, mostly in Oklahoma and also South Carolina. He was ordained in 1955. He was director of United Methodist Cooperative Ministries (now Restore Hope Ministries) in Tulsa for more than eight years. Also in Oklahoma, he served Lambuth and Penn Avenue churches in Oklahoma City; Grove; Harrah; Stroud; Vinita/Big Cabin; and in Tulsa: Memorial Drive, Harvard Avenue, and at Boston Avenue, where he was an associate pastor.

He was a member of the Oklahoma Conference boards for Ordained Ministry, Church & Society, and Frances Willard Home.

Loving to travel, he had visited 92 countries and gone around the world twice. He conducted preaching missions in Brazil and Malaysia, led Holy Land tours, and taught English in China with Global Volunteers.

He retired to Palm Springs, Calif., in 1995. He was a founding member of the Stonewall Democrats, FrontRunners, Metropolitan Community Church, and Sunday Night Live of Palm Springs United Methodist Church.

Survivors include his partner, Bill Gray; his children, Mark, Kevin, and Meredith Howard and Shannon Howard-Bravo; six grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren; and Elizabeth Howard, to whom he was married for 33 years.

Memorial service was Sept. 17 at Tulsa-Boston Avenue UMC, officiated by Rev. Bill Crowell, with interment at the church's columbarium.

REV. DENNIS CARLTON JONES

Rev. Dennis Carlton Jones, 65, of Skiatook, Okla., died Sept. 27, 2011.

Dennis was born March 28, 1946, in Oklahoma City, to Henry and Lucile (Minton) Jones. He was a graduate of the University of Central Oklahoma and Phillips Theological Seminary. A U.S. Army veteran, he served during the Vietnam War.

Dennis Jones married Cherlyn Hannaford on June 10, 1967.

He began his ministry in 1979 and was the founding pastor of Claremore-St. Andrew's. He was ordained in 1983. He also served at Ochelata, Kremlin, Davis, Mount Zion near El Reno, Sentinel/Rocky, Lawton Heights, and Yale/Maramec. He was assigned to Honorable Location in 2002 and to Honorable Location Retired in 2008.

Survivors include his wife, daughters Rachael Jones and Christina Bertwell, and four grandchildren.

Service was Oct. 1 at Skiatook-First UMC, officiated by Rev. Norm Wasson, with burial at Osage Garden Cemetery, directed by Peters-Stumpff Funeral Home.

REV. WESLEY ROBERT KIMBALL

Rev. Wesley Robert Kimball, age 86, of Sherman, Texas, died Dec. 25, 2011. At the time of his death, he was serving his seventh year as pastor of Wesley United Methodist Church in Hugo.

Wes was born March 31, 1925, in Fairview, Okla., to William and Anna (Price) Kimball. He grew up on his family's homestead south of Seiling.

He married Shirley I. Reed on Dec. 5, 1964.

He held degrees from Phillips University at Enid, Miami (Ohio) University, and United Theological Seminary, and did further graduate study at five other schools, including Perkins School of Theology.

Rev. Kimball received his license to preach in 1948, was ordained as a deacon in 1955, as an elder in 1977, and officially retired in 1987. He also served in the West Ohio and North Texas Conferences. In Oklahoma he also pastored at Marshall, Yewed/Prairie Valley, Sulphur-St. Paul, Gene Autry, Martha, Lawton-Sullivan Village, and Quinton. He also spoke and led revivals in those three states as well as in Louisiana, West Virginia, and Alaska.

His military service also was extensive, with commissions in both the Army and Air Force. He enlisted in 1943 and served during World War II and the Korean War. After 33 years with the military, including work as an auxiliary chaplain, he retired as an Air Force lieutenant colonel in 1981. He also served 30 years in the Air Force Civil Service.

He held a number of civilian and military honors, including three humanitarian awards from the Greater Hugo Area Chamber of Commerce. He established Sharing Hope in Hugo Inc. and had been president of the Hugo Ministerial Alliance and administrator of its Benevolence Fund.

At the time of his death, he also was president of Kimball Construction Co. and president/board chairman of Kimball Land & Cattle Co.

Survivors include his wife of 47 years; daughter Anna Allen; sons John, Edward, William, and David Kimball; eight grandchildren and one stepgranddaughter, nine great-grandchildren, and eight great-great-grandchildren.

Service was Dec. 28 at Wesley UMC, Hugo. Burial with full military honors was at Fort Sill National Cemetery. Directing was Miller & Miller Funeral Home, Hugo.

REV. LAWSON GERALD LEE

Rev. Lawson Gerald Lee, age 93, of Enid, Okla., died Nov. 23, 2011. His ministry career stretched from Oklahoma and Louisiana to Peru and Uruguay.

He was born May 9, 1918, in Homestead, Okla., to George and Cecille (Smith) Lee. He was valedictorian of both grade school and high school at Homestead, and excelled in athletics. At age 15, he made and played his own violin. He later built electric organs for three churches.

He attended NWU, SMU, and USC. Rev. Lee was ordained in 1945.

In Oklahoma, Rev. Lee served at Keyes, Mutual, Enid-Grand Avenue, Catoosa, Lawton-St. Paul's, and Cleo Springs, officially retiring in 1983. He also ministered at Arnett and Kremlin. In Louisiana, he pastored churches in New Orleans and Logansport.

In Lima, Peru, he was the national director for Church World Service. He helped guide rebuilding after a 1970 earthquake in that country. In Uruguay, he served 21 years, establishing and building churches; his assignments included district superintendent as well as executive secretary/national head of the Methodist Church of Uruguay.

In Enid, he managed Root Real Estate-Century 21. His skills included carpentry; he built his house and others. Among his hobbies were photo restoration, writing and making books, painting, and collecting stamps.

Survivors include his wife, Elsa E. Martinez, and his daughter, Susana Rivera.

Service was Nov. 28 at Enid Cemetery Chapel, officiated by Rev. Grayson Lucky, with arrangements by Brown-Cummings Funeral Home.

REV. ROBERT LEONARD MAJORS & LAWANDA MAJORS

In 2011, both Rev. Robert Leonard Majors and his wife, Lawanda, joined the Church Eternal. Their marriage spanned 60 years. They met while attending Oklahoma City University and married on Sept. 2, 1951.

Robert was born Dec. 27, 1928, and died at age 82 on Dec. 9, 2011, in Oklahoma City. His parents were Louie and Gladys Majors.

His clergy career included service as McAlester District superintendent.

He first pastored at Wanette/Trousdale in 1950. He was ordained in 1955. He also served Moore-First, OKC-Wickline, Chickasha-Epworth, Sapulpa-First, Tahlequah, Watonga, OKC-Second, Marietta, Blair, Grant/Fort Towson, and Jones. He officially retired in 1997.

Only days before his death, he was participating in church life at Moore-First and Moore-New Life.

Lawanda was born April 18, 1927, in Altus and died at age 84 on Oct. 25, 2011, in Oklahoma City. Her parents were Ben and Vaud Brown. In college, she was a double major, in vocal music and secretarial science. She directed choirs in churches where her husband pastored, and she was an acclaimed soloist. She worked as a secretary at Perkins School of Theology and a number of churches.

Survivors include their son, Robleigh Majors, and a grandson.

Service for Mrs. Majors was Oct. 31, and for Rev. Majors, Dec. 14. Both funerals were at Moore-First UMC, with burial at Altus. Arrangements were by John M. Ireland Funeral Home & Chapel, Moore.

REV. JENE MILLER

Rev. Dr. Walter Jene Miller, 86, of Arnett, Okla., died May 17, 2011.

Jene was one of twin sons born to Raymond and Nono Miller on Oct. 25, 1924, in Hollis, Okla.

He knew from an early age that he was bound for the ministry. At 18, he enlisted in the Army. Because he was licensed to preach, played piano, and typed, he qualified as a chaplain's assistant. During World War II, he served that role in Europe, including in the Normandy Invasion.

He met Gloria F. Swanson through the Wesley Foundation while studying at the University of Oklahoma, preaching at Washington UMC, and serving as youth director at Purcell. They married in 1948.

He earned a B.A. in English at OU and master's degrees at East Texas State University and Southern Methodist University. His doctoral work was done at National Christian University of Missouri.

In 1951, he began his ministry career in the North Texas Conference. His first Oklahoma appointment was in 1954 at Bartlesville and Barnsdall, and he was ordained as an elder that year. He also served East Cross and Limestone churches in Bartlesville, OKC-Britton, Blackwell, OKC-Linwood, Edmond-First, Altus-Grace, Snyder/Mountain Park, and Kingston. After retirement, he was pastor at Arnett, 1994-2007.

Miller also was a campus minister at OU, and he directed Skyline Urban Ministry and TEEM (The Education & Employment Ministry) in Oklahoma City.

He advocated against prejudice and was active in the U.S. civil rights movement. He was one of the creators of the "Gridiron" show at the Annual Conference. Shortly before his death, he delivered the baccalaureate address at Arnett High School.

Survivors include his wife of 63 years, daughters Nona Clifton and Karen Miller Ballard, and two grandsons.

Service was June 2 at the Arnett High School Auditorium. Graveside service was at Hollis. Arrangements were by Shaw Funeral Home, Arnett.

REV. MARY LOU BRANSCUM MILLIS

Rev. Mary Lou Branscum Millis, 79, of Muskogee, Okla., died Sept. 2, 2011. She was the first female elder ordained in the Oklahoma Conference.

Mary Lou was born Aug. 22, 1932, in Vian, Okla., to H.W. and Hattie (Moss) Branscum. She graduated from Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University. She was ordained as a deacon in 1966 and as an elder in 1969. She served churches between 1967 and 1975, when she was assigned to Honorable Location.

In a 2006 newspaper interview, she said a friend had urged her to consider a career in the Church rather than work as an educator. She recalled that her father worried she might not be accepted as a clergy member, and “my mother was kind of proud of it.”

Her first appointment was to Fletcher. She also served at Tulsa-Trinity, Okmulgee-Butler Memorial, and Bartlesville-First.

When Rev. Branscum married Lawrence Millis, a Muskogee optometrist, in the 1970s, she became a full-time homemaker. He predeceased her.

Survivors include her sister Peggy Rosenberg; nephews Jack, Richard, and Alan Rosenberg; and niece Terri Gogel.

Private service was held Sept. 3 at Garden of Memories in Vian.

REV. CHARLES HOLT RICHARDSON

Rev. Charles Holt Richardson, age 82, of Tulsa, Okla., died Dec. 7, 2011.

Charles was born Nov. 4, 1929, in Ray City, Okla., to Holt and Ida Mae (Teague) Richardson. He graduated from Coffee Junior College in 1949, Southern Methodist University in 1951, and Duke Divinity School in 1954. He received an honorary doctorate from Oklahoma City University.

He was ordained as an elder in 1955. His ministry career included service as superintendent of the Oklahoma City South District and as executive director at Oklahoma Methodist Manor in Tulsa.

He served appointments at OKC-Grace, Durant, Tulsa-Boston Avenue, Mangum, Sulphur, Mooreland, and Norman-Goodrich. He was an associate at Asbury in Tulsa when he retired in 1997.

Survivors include his wife of 26 years, Anna Arnold Richardson; children Beth, Charlie, and Thomas, and three grandchildren; stepchildren Trish Deal and Amy Caudle, and five stepgrandchildren. He was predeceased by his wife Margaret Wilson Richardson and a stepson, Mike Barnes.

Memorial service was Dec. 9 at Tulsa-Asbury UMC.

REV. ROY ROWLAN

Rev. Roy C. Rowlan, age 96, of Canute, Okla., died Nov. 27, 2011. He served almost a half-century as a pastor.

Roy was born Dec. 2, 1914, on the family farm near Canute, to Orvel and Iva (Kimmel) Rowlan. He married Ella Jane Bogle on July 18, 1937.

At Canute High School, he was valedictorian of the Class of 1932, and he was licensed to preach that same year. A 1938 graduate of Oklahoma City University, he was later honored as a Distinguished Alumnus. In 1941, he earned his master's at Southern Methodist University and began preaching at Butler. He was ordained in 1943.

The United Methodist Church

2012 Journal

STANDING RULES AND STRUCTURE OF THE OKLAHOMA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

STANDING RULES

I. ORGANIZATION

A. ANNUAL CONFERENCE

1. In accordance with The Book of Discipline (§ 32) the Annual Conference shall include the following lay members in order to equalize lay and clergy representation: the lay leaders; the District Lay Leaders, Conference presidents of United Methodist Men and United Methodist Women; laypersons who hold any of the following offices; director of Communications, Conference treasurer, United Methodist Foundation president, Circle of Care director, president of Oklahoma City University, Adult chair(s) of the Conference Council on Youth Ministry, the director of Connectional Ministries; and co-chairpersons of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry; lay chairpersons of Annual Conference councils, boards, commissions, committees; the lay members from Oklahoma who serve on General Church boards and agencies, lay delegates for the current General Conference; president of the conference youth organization; chairperson of the Oklahoma United Methodist Student Movement; and two active young church members from each district, one who is between ages twelve (12) and seventeen (17) and one who is between ages eighteen (18) and (30). Each charge served by more than one clergy shall be entitled to as many lay members as there are clergy members. Lay members shall have been members of The United Methodist Church for two (2) years prior to election and shall have been active participants in The United Methodist Church at least four years prior to election (The Book of Discipline, ¶ 602.4).

Should the total number of lay members, both elected and ex-officio, still be fewer than the number of clergy members, the difference shall be proportionately distributed among the districts. That proportion shall be based on the total number of pastoral charges, in each district, which have two or more churches. District Superintendents shall assign these additional openings to be filled by members elected by churches otherwise without lay representation.

2. At the first session of the Annual Conference following a General Conference, the lay and clergy members shall elect a Secretary and a Statistician to serve for the quadrennium. The Secretary shall nominate Assistant Secretaries for election.

3. A Pre-Conference Workbook shall be edited, published, and mailed to the members at least fifteen (15) days prior to convening the Annual Conference. The Director of Connectional Ministries shall produce the workbook in cooperation with the Council on Finance and Administration.

4. The Treasurer shall be elected at the first Annual Conference session following the General Conference and in accordance with the provisions of The Book of Discipline.

5. The fiscal and programming year of the Annual Conference shall be January 1 to December 31.

6. The Cabinet, Treasurer, and Statistician will establish a deadline each year for delivery of all Local Church year-end reports to the offices of the Treasurer and Statistician. The method and manner of gathering this information shall be the responsibility of each district's superintendent. Reports shall be made in the format prescribed by the Treasurer and the Statistician.

7. Each district's superintendent shall, by January 31, deliver a list to the Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services that reports who are the Lay Members and Alternate Lay Members of the Annual Conference.

8. District Superintendents shall furnish to the Director of Communications copies of obituaries for clergy members, their spouses, and diaconal ministers, to be printed in the Memorial Worship Bulletin and the Journal.

9. District Superintendents shall report immediately the death of any person with a claim on the Conference, as listed in the Journal, to the Treasurer or Pension Benefits Officer.

10. There shall be an Agenda Committee to plan and arrange the agenda for the Annual Conference session. The committee members shall be: the presiding bishop (who shall chair the committee), dean of the Cabinet, host pastor and host District Superintendent(s) for the approaching session, Conference Secretary, Director of Connectional Ministries, Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services, Director of Communications/Assistant to the Bishop, Conference Lay Leader, and others as may be necessary to plan the session.

B. DISTRICT CONFERENCE

1. A District Conference shall be held annually on call of the superintendent. It shall be composed of these people from within that district: all clergy, (elders, deacons, provisional members, associate members, retired, supernumerary, and local pastors); the deaconesses and home missionaries; diaconal ministers; the lay leaders from each church; the presidents of United Methodist Women and United Methodist Men from each church; the district trustees; the District Lay Leader and any associate District Lay Leaders; the lay member(s) of the Annual Conference from each charge; the district president of United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, and Youth Ministries Council; the district representatives to the Conference Council on Youth Ministries; the chairperson(s) of the United Methodist Student Movement or its equivalent within the district; the district mission secretary; the district communications officer, the district representative to the Conference Department of Congregational Development, the district chairpersons of Mission and Service, Discipleship Ministries, Leadership Development Ministries, stewardship and finance, and age-level coordinators; the district Camps representative, and other as determined by the District Conference or Annual Conference.

2. There may be a District Council or equivalent leadership structure in each district, with its membership determined by the District Conference. The District Conference shall also determine what other entities are needed to do the work of the district, taking care to fulfill the mandates of The Book of Discipline. Vacancies in the membership of the District Council may be filled by the District Superintendent in consultation with the District Nominations Committee.

C. GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL ELECTIONS

1. It is the intention of the Oklahoma Annual Conference that the Conference nominate and elect a diverse delegation, laity and clergy. Diversity of race, age, ethnicity, and gender strengthen the delegation and invigorate and empower the Church.

2. Elections of Clergy Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference shall be by secret ballot, without nomination.

3. At the Annual Conference Session preceding an election year, the Board of Laity shall provide voting guidelines in the Pre-Conference Workbook.

4. By December 15, the Conference Secretary shall provide to each district's superintendent a list of ex-officio members and the number of equalization members for that district, as well as a reminder to superintendents to send out meeting notices.

5. The election of Lay Delegates to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference shall include steps that identify and provide information about qualified nominees, including:

A. The Standing Rule on Lay Elections

1. Rationale of the Standing Rule

The District Nominating Assembly is key to inclusiveness in nominating Lay Delegates to stand for election to General and Jurisdictional Conferences. This assembly designates up to ten (10) nominees for consideration by the Annual Conference regardless of the number of Lay Delegates to be elected by Annual Conference. This assembly is called by the District Superintendent—in consultation with the District Lay Leader—and must meet during January of the election year. It is a “representative assembly.”

2. Avoiding manipulation of the process

The District Nominating Assembly is limited to lay members and alternate lay members of the Annual Conference, any laypersons who is elected district officer, chairperson, president, coordinator or committee member of a district function, as described in I.B.1 (District Conference) and any layperson who serves on a Conference, Jurisdictional or General Board, Commission or Committee, provided that the lay person is a resident of that District and would meet the requirements to be considered for nomination. This will assure fair process and prevent ineligible persons from voting on the district’s nominees. A bar shall be established by the District Superintendent, separating those eligible to vote from those present to observe the assembly.

3. Credentials

It is the District Superintendent’s responsibility, with the assistance of the District lay leader, to invite to the assembly the lay representatives. The District Superintendent shall conduct a credentials check at the assembly, to ensure the voting eligibility of participants. If this step is omitted, then the meeting is an invitation to problems. Invitations sent by the District Superintendent and District Lay Leader also shall be carefully written and addressed to conform with this Standing Rule.

B. Preparations for the District Nominating Assembly

1. Proper mailing list

The District Superintendent shall receive from the Conference Secretary an accurate mailing list of all lay representatives as noted in C.5.A.2 above.

2. Scheduling time and place of meeting

This January meeting shall be held no later than the middle of that month. Thus, if severe winter weather causes postponement, the meeting can be rescheduled for a later date in that same month.

This meeting should not be scheduled at the same time as the Local Church Leader Workshop. Scheduling any district meeting jointly with this Nominating Assembly appears to extend invitations to people ineligible to participate and injects potential error and controversy in this very important process. This assembly occurs only once every four years in a district’s schedule and deserves careful consideration and compliance with this Standing Rule.

3. District Lay Leader Preparation for the Nominating Assembly

The District Lay Leader is to assist the District Superintendent in preparing the letter inviting participants to this assembly. They should set a January date and a convenient location for all participants. The letter should be mailed no later than Dec. 15, to provide sufficient advance notice. The letter should contain an outline of the process, signed by the District Superintendent and District Lay Leader. A reminder notice should be sent in late December or early January.

C. District Nominating Assembly Agenda and Procedure

1. Attendee roster

A roster shall be available to collect the signatures of the participants and each person’s official capacity as a lay member/alternate lay member or district representative.

2. Prayer for meeting

The District Superintendent will remind the participants at the assembly of the meeting’s serious purposes and will pray for the Holy Spirit’s guidance in the deliberations.

3. Requirements and considerations for nominees

a. The District Superintendent will furnish information that describes the necessary qualifications for nominees as required by the Book of Discipline. For example: According to the Book of Discipline (§36 Article V), nominees are required to possess two (2) years of membership and four (4) years of active participation in a church in this Conference.

b. A copy of this Standing Rule should be available for inspection by those attending the assembly.

c. All nominees must be willing and available to attend several delegation meetings in addition to the General/Jurisdictional Conference to which they are elected, including:

aa. The first delegation meeting immediately follows adjournment of the Annual Conference Session in Oklahoma City. The delegation will elect a chairperson and co-chairperson at that time. Other officers will be elected later.

bb. There will be six (6) or more delegation meetings, in Tulsa and Oklahoma City, beginning in the summer of the year of election, and continuing on a monthly or bimonthly basis through the time of the General Conference and up to the Jurisdictional Conference.

cc. During the same calendar year designated for the General/Jurisdictional Conferences, nominees must be available for a maximum of twelve (12) consecutive days in spring to attend the General Conference, and for five (5) or six (6) consecutive days in summer to attend the South Central Jurisdictional Conference.

4. Instructions for the District Nominating Assembly

a. The District Superintendent shall open the meeting for nominations from the floor only. Names of potential delegates shall be displayed clearly for all participants. Self nominations are permitted. Only persons residing in the district may be nominated.

b. The District Superintendent shall determine the order for presentation of biographical sketches. Each participant who makes a nomination will present a biographical sketch of the nominee, with specific information on that person's experience, current role, activities, and likelihood of attendance at all meetings of the delegation and of the conference(s).

5. Selection of nominees

After all nominations, comments, and discussions are completed, the credentialed voters in the assembly must make decisions and select nominees. If fewer than ten (10) people are nominated, a show of hands is a suitable method of election. If there are more than ten (10) potential nominees, a written ballot should be taken, to establish the ten (10) nominees and preserve the integrity of the process.

6. If possible, at least three (3) reserve nominees also should be selected by the assembly, to take the place of any nominee who is or becomes unable to serve. The District Lay Leader will replace a nominee whose name is thus withdrawn with a reserve nominee, in order of election.

D. Procedures Following the District Nominating Assembly

1. The District Lay Leader shall send a letter to each nominee, requesting confirmation of that person's willingness to stand for election (and serve if elected) and also completion and submission of the Lay Nominee Form and an accompanying photo. If the form and photo are not received within two (2) weeks after the assembly, the District Lay Leader will personally contact the nominee to obtain these materials.

2. The Lay Nominee Form and photo must be received no later than February 21 by the District Superintendent, in order to submit them no later than February 28 to the United Methodist Ministry Center, for reproduction in the "Lay Nominees Booklet".

E. Procedures at Annual Conference relating to potential nominees not in the "Lay Nominees Booklet"

1. Only those people identified in the "Lay Nominees Booklet" will be introduced at the election-year Annual Conference Laity Session.

2. Other than the "Lay Nominees Booklet", no additional biographical information may be presented, by direct or indirect reference, prior to the Annual Conference Session or from the floor. Pursuant to the Discipline, election and balloting shall occur without any oral or written nominations, speeches, or debates. Printed materials shall neither be distributed at the door nor on the floor of the Annual Conference Session on behalf of any nominee or write-in candidate. Buttons, badges, or other campaign material are also prohibited. Each nominee shall be given a badge or ribbon, indicating his or her status as a nominee, to wear during the Annual Conference Session.

3. The presiding bishop is asked to directly reprimand any effort at nominating, campaigning, speeches, or distribution of materials at the door or on the floor.

4. Upon receiving five (5) or more votes in balloting, any person who has not previously submitted a Lay Nominee Form must immediately obtain one from the Conference Lay Leader, complete the form, and return it before the next ballot is taken. Copies will not be duplicated for distribution unless the nominee does so at his or her expense.

F. Balloting for Lay Delegates shall be open to all eligible lay persons.

G. When the results of the first lay ballot are announced, a printed list of those results shall be furnished to each lay member. That list will show the sixty (60) laypersons with the highest vote totals, in descending order of votes received, and the total votes for each of them.

H. When the results of the first clergy ballot are announced, a printed list of those results shall be furnished to each clergy member. That list will show the sixty (60) clergypersons with the highest vote totals, in descending order of votes received, and the total votes for each of them.

I. After announcing and distributing the first balloting results for lay and clergy, the presiding bishop shall not read the names and number of those receiving five (5) or fewer votes on any subsequent ballot.

D. PROCEDURES (Annual Conference Session)

1. Roll call shall be by registration.

2. Each Annual Conference Session shall determine its Standing Rules in keeping with the Book of Discipline (§ 605), and shall otherwise be governed by Robert's Rules of Order.

3. Each report in the Pre-Conference Workbook (Reports of Boards and Committees) shall be in two sections. Section "A" shall succinctly explain matters requiring action by the Annual Conference. Section "B" shall include general information not requiring action.

4. The Conference Secretary shall be authorized to edit and prepare for publication the minutes of the Annual Conference. The Conference Secretary is responsible for the publication and distribution of the Journal, in accordance with the Book of Discipline (§ 606).

5. Reports and papers not in the hands of the Conference Secretary within fifteen (15) days after the final day of the Annual Conference shall be excluded from the Journal.

6. Motions that request funds not included in the proposed budget submitted by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration shall be referred first to that council for its consideration and recommendation. Absent a favorable recommendation by that council, such a motion shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Annual Conference for approval.

7. All action items in the Pre-Conference Workbook or in the Legislative Packet shall be considered in the hands of the Body-available to be acted upon at any time.

8. Any motion or resolution not in the Pre-Conference Workbook or the Legislative Packet shall not be considered by the Body until that item lays on the table for 24 hours. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Body is required to suspend this rule.

9. Any motion or petition submitted by an individual or church to the Annual Conference Session must be received by March 1 for consideration. Such a proposal shall be referred first to the appropriate Conference council, board, or committee assigned to related matters. If that group denies the motion or petition, the Annual Conference may be asked to suspend and permit the petition to be heard. If the rules are suspended by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote, the petition shall lay on the table for 24 hours before being considered. The Conference group that originally denied the motion or petition shall present the group's recommendation when that item reaches the floor. This rule does not apply to motions properly before the Annual Conference (those from the Pre-Conference Workbook, the Legislative Packet, or recommended for approval by an agency of the Annual Conference).

10. If an action is approved by the Annual Conference, it shall be the responsibility of the Annual Conference Council, the Council on Finance and Administration, or the Conference Secretary—unless otherwise assigned by the Annual Conference—to monitor for assurance of compliance with that decision. The monitoring group shall report its findings to the Annual Conference.

II. CONFERENCE NOMINATING PROCEDURES

A. LEADERSHIP

1. There shall be a Conference Committee on Nominations consisting of the following: each district's superintendent and lay leader (or designee); the Conference Lay Leader, the Conference presidents of the United Methodist Men and United Methodist Women, and representatives from Religion and Race, Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW), and Young Adult Ministry Council; a youth chosen by the CCYM, and two (2) at-large clergy and lay members to insure balance of representation. The Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services, Director of Connectional Ministries, and Director of Communications/Assistant to the Bishop shall be ex-officio, with voice but not vote.

2. The chairperson of the Committee on Nominations shall be named by the bishop and may be clergy or laity. The boards, commissions, ministry teams, departments, and committees shall elect their officers within thirty (30) days after the first Annual Conference Session that follows a General Conference. Election of officers shall be preceded by a time of orientation about the work of the entity. The election shall be conducted by persons named by the Bishop, and shall be by secret ballot, following nominations from the floor. Organizing the entities and appointing any needed additional leaders, who serve for the quadrennium, shall take place no later than thirty (30) days following the elections. Vacancies that occur among an entity's elected officers during the year shall be filled through election by that entity and affirmed by the next Annual Conference.

3. Prior to August 1 of each calendar year, all Annual Conference entities shall submit their planned dates for the next calendar year to the Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services, Director of Connectional Ministries, and Director of Communications/Assistant to the Bishop, who shall coordinate all dates and, as possible, eliminate conflicting meeting times. Written notices of these meetings shall then be provided to each member of each entity. An online Conference Calendar may be developed and used as an official Annual Conference Calendar, published in the Website of the Annual Conference.

B. DISTRICT NOMINATING COMMITTEE

1. Each district shall have a nominating committee consisting of an appropriate number of people to represent the geographic areas of the district, along with the District Superintendent and the District Lay Leader. Each District Conference shall set the number and make-up of its Nominating Committee. The committee shall be responsible for screening nominations coming from local churches and from any other source involving people from the district. Care shall be given to ascertain that those who are nominated have shown leadership in their local churches and are growing Christians.

2. The tenure of each District Lay Leader shall be the same as members of Conference entities (see section III. TENURE ON CONFERENCE ENTITIES, 1. Tenure.)

3. No nomination from the District Nominating Committee shall be considered by the Conference Committee on Nominations unless accompanied by the nominee's full address, including mail, phone, and, where possible, fax and e-mail. Prior to Annual Conference action on any nominations the District Nominations Committee shall ascertain a person's willingness to be named for service in a specific area, and shall affirm this to the Conference Committee on Nominations chairperson.

C. NOMINATIONS POOL

1. Each local church shall consider those who have gifts for ministry beyond that congregation—whether in the nominations structure, or in short-term ministry on a task group or project team.

The Conference Ministry Nominations Pool database shall be maintained and accessible through the Annual Conference Council office. This database shall be updated regularly and shall be available to all areas of leadership in the Annual Conference, to select potential participants in ministry endeavors, including task groups and project teams.

2. To the greatest extent possible, Disciplinary requirements shall be followed regarding balance in membership of Conference ministry teams, departments, boards, commissions, councils, committees, and other agencies. It is the intention of the Oklahoma Annual Conference that there shall be racial and ethnic representation in the membership of all these groups. In valuing and practicing diversity in the composition of all these groups, we invigorate and empower the church. Ethnic and age diversity of the membership of these programming and operational bodies of the church is critical to the future of United Methodism in Oklahoma. Following District Nominating Committee meetings each District Superintendent shall forward to the Conference Committee on Nominations chairperson the names of the qualified persons of racial and ethnic diversity who have been nominated. From that list, and other suitable sources, the Conference Committee on Nominations may make additional nominations to help fulfill this intention.

3. The Conference Secretary shall inform the chair of the Committee on Nominations of all conference members serving on General Conference boards.

4. No person shall serve concurrently as an elected member of more than one Annual Conference ministry team, department, board, council, or commission at one time, except for the Board of Laity, boards of trustees, and ex-officio representatives on boards, commissions, and committees. Ex-officio membership shall not be subject to this limitation. It is urged that leadership positions be filled so the number of positions held by any one person be minimized. Membership on these ministry teams, boards, councils, and commissions shall be subject to the "one-entity" rule: MINISTRY TEAMS (Discipleship, Leadership Development, and Mission & Service); BOARDS (Ordained Ministry, Pensions & Health Benefits, Criminal Justice & Mercy Ministries, Church and Society, Higher Education & Campus Ministry and Trustees); COUNCILS

(Finance & Administration, Annual Conference Council and Older Adult Ministry Council); COMMISSIONS (Archives & History, Equitable Compensation, Religion & Race, Status & Role of Women and Commission on Rural/Smaller Membership Church); and DEPARTMENTS (Congregational Development and Communications). At-Large members of these two departments shall fall under the one-entity rule. Additional members representing districts, or because of special expertise in these areas, shall not be subject to the one-entity rule.

Membership on the Council on Finance & Administration is limited still further by The Book of Discipline so that no person may serve on that Council who is also a member of any other conference agency that receives funds from the Conference budget. It shall be the responsibility of the Conference Committee on Nominations to make sure this rule is obeyed, absolutely and without exception.

In addition to membership on a ministry team, department, board, council or commission, a person may be elected to membership on no more than one Conference standing committee. The following standing committees are exceptions to the one entity rule: Courtesies & Resolutions, Episcopacy, Episcopal Housing, Investigation, Journal, Agency Emergency/Capital Fund, and Clergy Housing. Only those bodies created and elected by the Annual Conference shall be subject to the “one entity, one committee” rule. Task groups, project teams committees, sub-committees, and departments created by Conference ministry teams, departments, boards, councils, commissions, and committees shall be exempt from this rule, and may be selected by the parent body rather than the Annual Conference.

When the Annual Conference creates and elects a new body, the resolution or other action creating the body shall specify whether or not it is subject to the “one-entity, one committee” and tenure rules.

III. TENURE ON CONFERENCE ENTITIES

1. Tenure. Election to Conference entities, unless otherwise stated, shall be for four years. Unless otherwise provided in the Book of Discipline, no person shall serve more than eight (8) consecutive years on the same entity. A person whose term has expired shall be eligible for re-election to the same entity after four full years have passed. Terms of office and membership on Conference entities, unless otherwise provided, shall begin upon election. The term of office for a member of the Conference Committee on Nominations shall extend until a successor is elected by the District Conference.

2. Membership Termination. Membership is terminated if a member becomes a District Superintendent (unless chosen as a Cabinet representative) or moves outside the Conference on a permanent basis. Membership may be terminated for failure to attend at least one meeting over a period of one year, providing the member has been properly notified about time and place of meetings.

3. Accuracy in Tenure Reporting. The Conference Committee on Nominations will be responsible for accurate accounting and reporting the years served by individuals to the Conference secretary for inclusion in the Conference Journal, in order to ensure compliance with the tenure rule. For each person named, the report shall indicate the year of election to the Conference entity and the member’s district.

4. Cabinet Representation. From its membership, the Cabinet may designate representatives to Conference boards, commissions, committees, or agencies, who shall serve as liaisons between the Cabinet and the respective body. The Cabinet representative shall have floor privileges within that group, be a member of the Executive Committee, and have voting rights as authorized by the Discipline or the group.

IV. FINANCIAL

1. The Conference Secretary and Conference Statistician shall, on recommendation of the Conference Council on Finance & Administration, receive honorariums, paid from the Conference's budgeted funds.
2. All Conference funds, along with the approved reporting form, shall be sent to the Conference Treasurer. Funds for district work or promotion, district missions, or district parsonages shall be sent to the appropriate treasurers.
3. All boards, councils and agencies which have members of the Oklahoma Annual Conference under appointment beyond the local church shall be required to pay monthly to the Clergy Retirement Security Plan, at the rate established by the Board of Pensions and approved by the Annual Conference.
4. All clergy members (Full, Provisional and Associate) of the Oklahoma Annual Conference, and full-time Local Pastors who are appointed full-time and who are participating in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan shall participate in the Ministers' Health Benefits Plan, subject to the provisions of the plan. All churches that have pastors under appointment shall pay the Apportionment for the Health Benefits fund as a Ministerial Support item.
5. The Conference is directed to rent a safety deposit box for the safekeeping of all legal and valuable documents of the Annual Conference. This includes legal documents of the boards, trustees, and other agencies of the Conference. A permanent index is to be on file in the office of the presiding bishop.
6. At least annually, the Council on Finance & Administration shall review and report to the Annual Conference the disbursements of funds according to budgets approved by the Annual Conference. The council also shall receive and review annually and make available quadrennially a consolidated statement of assets and liabilities of all Conference-related boards, agencies and institutions including trusts and endowment funds.
7. By December 15, each District Superintendent shall furnish to the Conference Treasurer a report on the pastoral compensation for each pastoral charge as approved by the charge conference.
8. Each District Superintendent shall send to the Conference Statistician, no later than January 10, a report on the number, value and indebtedness on the district parsonage and all other property owned or partially owned by The United Methodist Church within the bounds of the district, if these items have not otherwise been reported.
9. All organizations, agencies, and institutions of the Annual Conference that are related to programming must submit their financial requests for review and approval by the appropriate program entity to which they are assigned. All program budgets must then be submitted to the Annual Conference Council for review and approval before forwarding to the Council on Finance & Administration. This process does not preclude requests to meet with the CF&A by representatives of those entities. Upon invitation of the CF&A, any entity with financial requests may do so to support its request. All entities shall have the right to appeal to the Annual Conference directly for support of their work.

V. CONFERENCE HOUSING COMMITTEE

The Conference Clergy Housing Committee shall be a subcommittee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation. At least once every four years, this subcommittee shall review policies, standards and guidelines regarding clergy housing. It also shall receive annual reports and check lists from the District Committee on Church Location and Building concerning implementation of standards and recommendations for changes, and it shall report to each Annual Conference about improvements and needs. The clergy housing standards policy shall be printed in each Journal. This subcommittee will be made up of at least two (2) members from each District Committee on Church Location and Building (one clergy and one laity), the president of the Clergy Spouse Fellowship, the chairperson of the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the chairperson of the Covenant Family Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry (or equivalent), and a Cabinet representative. It is not subject to the one-entity rule.

VI. SEXUAL ETHICS POLICY

Statement of Policy. Church Professionals of the Oklahoma Annual Conference shall not engage in sexual abuse, sexual harassment or sexual misconduct.

Theological Foundation. All persons are created by God. God intends all persons to have worth and dignity in their relationships. We are one connected body, and when one part of the body is injured physically, emotionally or spiritually, the entire body is rendered less than God intended. Misconduct of a sexual nature of any kind violates a person's wholeness and is an unjust use of status and power and a sinful behavior against God and one another. The Scripture witnesses to a God who brings about justice, mercy and grace. The Church is called to express God's love in concrete actions of compassion and healing for all God's people.

Definitions

1. Sexual Abuse: Sexual abuse means unwanted physical conduct of a sexual nature, sexual contact or sexualized behavior and may include, by example, touching, fondling, other physical contact and sexual relations.
2. Sexual Harassment: Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender.
3. Sexual Misconduct: Sexual misconduct means a chargeable offense within the meaning of The Book of Discipline (§ 2702).
4. Church Professional: A Church Professional shall include Full, Associate and Provisional ministerial members of the Annual Conference, ordained Deacons, and Elders, Diaconal

Ministers and Local Pastors, in both the effective and retired relationships, and other persons serving the Conference or any local church under appointment of the bishop or under the supervision of the District Superintendent, including persons keeping their membership in another annual conference or in another denomination and persons holding orders issued by these annual conferences while on Honorable or Administrative Location.

Implementation. Church Professionals and local churches of the Annual Conference shall be provided a copy of this policy and shall be offered training information to assist in the understanding and implementation of this policy. This policy shall be published annually in the Oklahoma Annual Conference Journal.

Making a Complaint. Persons who have knowledge of possible violations of this policy by a church professional may report the same to any church professional, any District Superintendent, or the bishop. Upon any complaint, the Conference will take action in accordance with the provisions of the current Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

Local Church Policies. The Annual Conference recommends that local churches adopt a local church sexual harassment policy.

Attendance. Any person under appointment/assignment in Oklahoma Annual Conference must attend one Sexual Ethics In The Workplace Seminar as specified by the resident bishop, no less than once every four years.

VII. THE STANDING RULES, STRUCTURE AND POLICY REVIEW COMMITTEE

1. The Committee on Standing Rules, Structure and Policy Review shall review annually the Standing Rules for appropriate updating and shall review and recommend to the Annual Conference all submissions for changes in the Standing Rules.
2. A permanent record of all existing policies of the Annual Conference shall be maintained by the Standing Rules, Structure and Policy Review Committee. It shall be the responsibility of this committee to recommend the deletion of obsolete policies to the Annual Conference.
3. Changes in the Standing Rules may be made by the Annual Conference upon recommendation of, or following consideration by, the Standing Rules Committee.
4. The Standing Rules, or any of the items in the Standing Rules, may be amended, substituted, or deleted by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference. Any such action must be presented in writing to delegates at least 24 hours prior to voting on the matter at a regular session of the Annual Conference.
5. Wherever the Book of Discipline is referred to in these rules, the references are to the 2008 Book of Discipline. After the publication of a new Book of Discipline, the Conference Secretary shall inform the Committee on Standing Rules of any changes required due to General Conference action.

Robert Rose, chair

STRUCTURE OF THE OKLAHOMA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

ANNUAL CONFERENCE COUNCIL. There shall be an Annual Conference Council to coordinate the ministries of the Oklahoma Annual Conference.

Membership:

Fifteen (15) lay and fifteen (15) clergy at-large members, (nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations).

Ex-Officio with vote: the bishop, one District Superintendent, the Conference lay leader, the Conference chancellor.

The chair or designee from:

Ex-Officio with voice but without vote: Representative from the Council on Finance & Administration, President of Circle of Care, President (or designee) of Oklahoma City University, Director of Connectional Ministries, Conference Secretary, Conference Treasurer, Director of Communications, and ACC Staff.

Duties:

1. Recommend a unified budget to the Council on Finance and Administration.
2. Set the Annual Conference Calendar.
3. Approve job descriptions for the Conference program staff.
4. Recommend goals and program priorities to the Annual Conference.
5. Carry out decisions made by the Annual Conference relating to program ministries.
6. Fulfill the Disciplinary requirements related to Conference programming.
7. Facilitate the relationship between the Annual Conference and the General Church.
8. Appoint a Visioning Team to carry out the functions of futuring, research and evaluation.

MINISTRY TEAMS. There shall be three Ministry Teams: Discipleship, Mission & Service, and Leadership Development, described as follows.

DISCIPLESHIP MINISTRY TEAM. There shall be a Discipleship Ministry Team that will target these areas: spiritual formation and academy ministries; training for evangelism; Confirmation training; Kairos Ministries; marriage ministries, human sexuality training; Covenant Care Ministries; Christian education and vacation Bible school training; promotion of Disciple Bible Study; camping ministries; age-level and family life ministries; the Conference Council on Youth Ministries; the Conference Council of Adult Workers with Youth; Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry; Young Adult Ministry Council; Older Adult Ministry Council; and training and resources for worship.

To this ministry team shall be assigned all Disciplinary responsibilities formerly assigned to: Discipleship; The Board of Education; The Board of Evangelism; The Commission on Worship; the Departments of Youth, Children, Adults, and Family Life.

Membership: The Conference Committee on Nominations shall name and the Annual Conference shall elect fifteen (15) clergy and fifteen (15) lay members. Annual Conference Council Staff may also serve, as ex-officio without vote, as their responsibilities coincide with those of this team.

Project Teams and Task Groups. Project teams or task groups for specific work may be formed, comprised of people with expertise or special interest in areas related to these assigned responsibilities. Participants in these bodies may come from within or beyond this Ministry Team's membership. Each of these bodies shall report to and be accountable to the ministry group that established it.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT MINISTRY TEAM. There shall be a Leadership Development Ministry Team that will develop programs and policies for all aspects of leadership development as assigned by the Annual Conference, requested by the local churches, or fashioned in its own processes. The team will seek to initiate, coordinate, and respond to the leadership development opportunities and needs of the local churches, districts and Annual Conference.

Membership: The Conference Committee on Nominations shall nominate and the Annual Conference shall elect fifteen (15) clergy and fifteen (15) lay members. These additional groups shall relate to this team and provide representation: Commission on Religion and Race; Commission on the Status and Role of Women; Board of Ordained Ministry; Board of Laity; and The Recruitment Team. Annual Conference Council Staff may also serve, as ex-officio without vote, as their responsibilities coincide with those of this team.

Project Teams and Task Groups. Project teams or task groups for specific work may be formed, comprised of people with expertise or special interest in areas related to these assigned responsibilities. Participants in these bodies may come from within or beyond this Ministry Team's membership. Each of these bodies shall report to and be accountable to the ministry group that established it.

MISSION AND SERVICE MINISTRY TEAM. There shall be a Mission and Service Ministry Team that will target these areas: poverty & disease; Christian social concerns; cultural and language ministries; global ministries and mission; health and welfare concerns; urban ministries; and Native American relationships.

Related to this Ministry Team, and reporting to the Annual Conference via this team, will be the following entities: Board of Church & Society; Chemical Dependency Ministries; Criminal Justice & Mercy Ministries; Circle of Care; Cookson Hills Center; Neighborhood Services Organization; Oklahoma United Methodist Retirement Facilities; Oklahoma Conference of Churches; Project Transformation; Restore Hope Ministries; Skyline Urban Ministry; Volunteers In Mission; and Woodworth Estate Committee.

The Mission & Service Ministry Team shall elect from their membership a person to serve as The Conference Mission Secretary. To this Ministry Team shall be assigned all the Disciplinary responsibilities formerly assigned to the Boards of Global Ministries (§ 632.4), and the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns (§642).

According to the stipulations of the will establishing the Woodworth Estate Committee, the Mission & Service Ministry Team (as the successor to the Conference Board of Missions) shall name the members of that committee.

Membership: The Conference Committee on Nominations shall nominate and the Annual Conference shall elect fifteen (15) clergy and fifteen (15) lay members. A representative of the Conference United Methodist Women shall serve with voice and vote. Representatives from each of the entities named in the preceding paragraphs and the Annual Conference Council staff may serve, as ex-officio without vote, as their responsibilities coincide with those of this team.

Project Teams and Task Groups. Project teams or task groups for specific work may be formed, comprised of people with expertise or special interest in areas related to these assigned responsibilities. Participants in these bodies may come from within or beyond this Ministry Team's membership. Each of these bodies shall report to and be accountable to the ministry group that established it.

DEPARTMENTS. There shall be two Departments: Communications and Congregational Development, described as follows.

COMMUNICATIONS. There shall be a Department of Communications that shall be responsible for the communication and public relations needs of the Annual Conference and all its entities. It shall develop a two-way method of communication that allows local churches to give feedback to the various Conference units and facilitates the communication needs of the Conference, districts, and local churches.

Membership: The Conference Committee on Nominations shall nominate and the Annual Conference shall elect twelve (12) people, and the District Superintendents shall name twelve (12) district communication coordinators. The director may also name additional members who bring specific expertise to this department. The Communications Department shall be exempt from the Standing Rules concerning membership on boards, commissions, and committees.

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT. There shall be a Department of Congregational Development to resource the local churches in their growth, facilitate new church starts in cooperation with the Cabinet, and provide resources and programs for revitalization. This department shall provide research information on demographics, lifestyle concerns, emerging cultural conditions, and on potential new church starts, relocations, and mergers.

The department shall include the work of the Racial Ethnic Coordinating Committee, Commission on Strengthening the Black Church in the 21st Century, Hispanic Ministries Committee, and Commission on Rural/Smaller Membership Church.

Membership: The Conference Committee on Nominations shall nominate and the Annual Conference shall elect twelve (12) people, and the District Superintendents shall each name a district representative who shall also become a member of the District Board of Church Location and Building. The director may also name additional members who bring specific expertise to this department.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS: There shall be an Annual Conference Committee on Nominations that shall have the following responsibilities.

1. Promote, in every congregation, the opportunity for lay and clergy service beyond the local church.
2. Provide appropriate information and processes for potential leaders from the local churches to discern their gifts and leadership strengths and offer their services beyond the local church.
3. Direct the collection of and maintaining of an adequate pool of potential leaders from local churches to thus supply a continuous resource to groups that seek people to be involved in project teams, task forces and other work of the Conference.
4. Develop a Leadership Database, managed by the Annual Conference Council staff in the United Methodist Ministry Center, and made available to all Conference areas with leadership needs.
5. Work to maintain a full complement of leaders in all areas of Conference life by annually monitoring the attendance and participation records of Conference entities in order to maintain strength and vitality of leadership across the Church, and make nominations for vacancies where needed.
6. Work in cooperation with the Leadership Development Ministry Team and the Annual Conference Council to offer and promote appropriate training for leaders.

7. Prepare the annual and quadrennial nomination lists and present them to the Annual Conference for action.
8. Follow the Disciplinary requirements for ethnic, age, and gender balances in each area, insofar as possible.

Membership:

The Committee on Nominations shall be composed of the following:

- Each District Superintendent and District Lay Leader
- Conference Lay Leader
- Conference president of the United Methodist Women
- Conference president of the United Methodist Men
- One youth chosen by the CCYM
- Representative from Commission on the Status & Role of Women
- Representative from Commission on Religion & Race
- Representative from Young Adult Ministry Council
- Two (2) clergy and two (2) lay persons at-large, to ensure balance of representation
- Chairperson, named by the bishop
- Secretary, chosen by the committee

Ex-officio with voice but without vote:

- Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services
- Director of Connectional Ministries
- Director of Communications/Assistant to the Bishop

THE COMMITTEE ON STANDING RULES, STRUCTURE, AND POLICY REVIEW:

The responsibilities of the committee will be:

- Propose to the Annual Conference rules of order needed to enable the Conference to appropriately do its work.
- Receive proposals for structure or rules changes from all groups in the Conference and when appropriate propose those changes for adoption.
- Review all new or revised Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws proposed by Conference entities for comment and recommendation before being submitted to the Annual Conference. This committee may report its findings on such items to the Annual Conference prior to consideration of those items by the Annual Conference.
- Study the Standing Rules to discern any adjustments, changes, or additions necessary for the work of the Conference.

Membership:

- Six (6) lay persons
- Six (6) clergy persons
- Chairperson(s) of the Annual Conference Council
- Director of the Annual Conference Council, with voice but without vote
- Conference Secretary, with voice but without vote
- Conference Treasurer, with voice but without vote
- Conference Lay Leader
- A Cabinet representative

TO CORRECT NAMES AND ADDRESSES

All personnel of the Conference whose names and addresses appear in the Journal should always communicate any changes to the Conference secretary. The only exception to this policy is at the time of ministerial appointment. Your assistance will ensure that both the Conference secretary and the Conference Office have the accurate addresses and telephone numbers for all persons who are related to the Annual Conference.
