an initiative of Ausrose Promotions

The rose Rae Dungan was bred by George Dawson at his property in Bunyip during his period of retirement and released in 1971. Named after the surgeon who replaced both of Dawson's hips the rose has stood the test of time and is still in some catalogues. The blooms are yellow blend pink with strong fragrance and an average diameter of 11 cm. The bushes are upright with the green foliage being in the vicinity of 160 cm in height and 120 cm wide. This rose is along with many Australian bred roses in the Victorian State Rose Garden at Werribee.
