If you have never been to Dallas, chances are good you have some impressions of what the city is like.

If you watch the "Dallas" television show, you might think Dallas is a city where wheeler-dealers, dressed in three-piece suits, boots, and cowboy hats make multi-million dollar deals in expensive rooftop restaurants.

If you have studied the Old West, in your mind, Dallas still may be an outpost on the edge of the frontier where cattle raisers, cotton farmers, and oil drillers come to sell their commodities and kick up their heels. If you read the business pages, you know Dallas is a city with business savvy and a modern skyline to match. It is the financial capitol of the Southwest.

If you like fine clothes and unique merchandise, no doubt you have heard of Nieman-Marcus and other stores that make Dallas a shopping mecca with more square feet of shopping per capita than any other city in the United States.

So which of these is the real Dallas? All of these. From big city glitz and glamour to laid-back western charm, Dallas is a city where diversity is a code for living and variety truly is the spice of life.

It is difficult to advise visitors where to begin their tour of the city, but perhaps a logical place is the location of Bryan's Original Trading Post. Nestled in the western end of downtown amid skir-mishing glass skyscrapers and old brick warehouses is the Dallas Historical Plaza. The centerpiece of the plaza is a one-room log cabin, believed to be one of a kind and a terrazzo map of Dallas County as it looked in 1846. The plaza is ringed by county administrative buildings dating to the turn of the century.

Response to College Termed 'Overwhelming'

The 1987 Leadership College in Oxford, Ohio attracted 440 individuals, including 378 undergraduates from 142 chapters and 9 colonies. There were also 28 chapter advisers in attendance.

The 1987 Leadership College in Oxford, Ohio brought together members from all across the United States and Canada to learn more about fraternity, leadership skills, and the great traditions on which Phi Delta Theta was founded.

The response to the Leadership College was overwhelming.

The college format has replaced the former Chapter Officers' and Advisers' Conference programs that were held throughout the academic year on weekends at a variety of campus locations. There were 440 individuals involved with the leadership seminars and sessions on the campus of Miami University on August 5-9.

The participants included 378 undergraduates from 142 chapters and 9 colonies. There were 28 chapter advisers in attendance, as well as 28 faculty members and several alumni visitors.

Opening Session

The Leadership College officially began with an opening session in Hall Auditorium. Several officials welcomed the Phis, including Miami University President Dr. Paul Pearson, Oxford Mayor David P. Roberts, and General Council President C. T. "Tal" Bray (South Florida '65). Mayor Roberts also read a proclamation declaring August 2-8, 1987 as Phi Delta Theta Week in Oxford. Following the singing of the Star-Spangled Banner and O! Canada, the College faculty and staff were introduced. When the session had concluded, the undergraduates adjourned to the first of five chapter meetings that had been scheduled throughout the College.

The chapter meeting concept involved the assignment of representatives into chapters of 25 men with a College faculty member serving as an adviser. The chapters selected officers, established an agenda, and performed ritual at each meeting.

The meetings provided an excellent forum to discuss the various issues raised in the seminars and general sessions of the College. Areas such as leadership skills, alumni relations, pledge education, scholarship programming, risk management, alcohol responsibilities, etc. were discussed in the chapter meetings. Several undergraduates commented that this concept was "the best part of the program because it allowed the members a chance to openly discuss concerns and identify solutions."

Throughout the College, a Chapter Advisers Program was held under the direction of Brother C. T. "Tal" Bray. In addition, several special interest groups met, including the initiation team, wardens committee, and chorus.

Thursday Morning

The morning began with the "Fun Run" that was coordinated and held every morning by Executive Vice President Robert J. Miller (New Mexico '50). The activities continued with all undergraduates gathered in Hall Auditorium for a presentation on Miami University by John D. Millett (DePauw '33).

A walking tour of the university included the representatives touring the Founders' Room in Elliott Hall where the Founders signed the Bond in 1848. The tour concluded with a visit to General Headquarters and the David D. Banta Memorial Library.

The afternoon began with the first of four sessions where 11 different seminars were presented by the College faculty. The faculty was well prepared for its one and one-half hour seminar topic. A variety of presentation techniques was used by the faculty to create diversity and maintain interest.

The topics were Presidents Workshop, Career Planning, Alcohol Responsibilities, Fund Raising, Formal Rush, Alumni Relations, Using Chapter Advisers Effectively, Retreat Planning, Legal Issues, Leadership Skills, and Treasurers Workshop.

Later during the day, the representatives reconvened in Hall Auditorium for presentations on legal liabilities by Robert E. Manley, and Dave Westol of Theta Chi Fraternity presented his inspiring and thought-provoking scenario of Hazing on Trial. The presentation by Manley focused on legal liability, specifically as it relates to fraternity chapters. Information was also presented on the responsibilities of individuals in chapters to minimize risk. Westol's presentation on hazing was description of a fraternity chapter which engaged in hazing activities that resulted in a death of a young man which ultimately led to the ramifications of hazing in a courtroom. The presentation generated a great deal of worthwhile discussion in the chapter meetings throughout the College.

Seminars

The program continued on Friday morning with another round of 11 different seminars conducted by the College faculty. The topics for the second round were Presidents Workshop, Chapter Ritual, Chapter Publications, Chapter and University Relations, Informal Rush, Kitchen Management, House Corporations, Alumni Relations, Skills, Pledge Programming, and Treasurers Workshop.

Following the seminars, the undergraduates met for another general session and a presentation on the spiritual meaning of Phi Delta Theta by General Council Reporter Father David Turner (Minnesota '70). A slide show was presented by Brother Turner that provided insight into the spiritual aspect of our Fraternity and the meaning it has for us as members of Phi Delta Theta. After another chapter meeting, the undergraduates again participated in a third round of 11 different seminars. The topics were Presidents Workshop, Hazing Issues, Public Relations, Menu Planning, Social Event Planning, Dealing with Conflict, Community Service, Sexual Harassment, Leadership Skills, Communication Skills, and Scholarship Programming.

The evening events included an initiation ceremony performed under the direction of Brother Robert J. Miller. Representatives from several chapters participated in the ceremony that included both a model opening and closing of a chapter meeting in accordance with the ritual ceremonies.

The evening concluded with the presentation of various awards. General Council Member-at-Large Frank H. Abernathy, Jr. (Richmond '60) introduced several award presenters during the evening. #### Saturday Morning

The fourth and final round of seminars was presented on Saturday morning. The topics were Presidents Workshop, Working with employees, Risk Management, IFC/Panhellenic Relations, Membership Education, Program Planning, Chapter Standards, Substance Abuse Education, Scholarship Programming, Fraternity Awards, and Pledge Programming.

Following the sessions, the undergraduates met in Hall Auditorium for a business meeting under the direction of Bray. Bray outlined the Fraternity's Strategic Plan for the current biennium, as well as for the next five years. A report was also given by Palmer Fund Trustee Philip M. Young (Allegheny '48) on the activities of the Foundation and procedures to secure loans for house corporations. Once the meeting adjourned the undergraduates enjoyed an afternoon of relaxation and recreation before the Leadership College Banquet.

College Banquet

The keynote speaker for the banquet was Dennis Yablonsky (Cincinnati '75) who spoke about his fraternity experiences in relation to his success in business as CEO and President of Cincom Systems. He offered several suggestions on personal leadership skills and an overview of his philosophy of leadership. He also challenged the undergraduates to take back one or two very specific ideas from the College and apply them in their respective chapters.

The awards presented at the banquet included the Educational Foundation Scholarships; the Kansas City Trophy to the Western Maryland chapter, with Emporia State, Ashland, and Southwestern chapters named as honorable mention; the Founders Trophy to the chapter at Eastern Kentucky with the GMI-EMI and North Dakota chapters named as honorable mention; and the Harvard Trophy to the chapter at Mississippi with the Florida, Miami University, and Texas Tech chapters named as honorable mention.

A slide show was presented by Chris Shrader (Miami '82) and David Haggard (Cincinnati '90) that highlighted the activities of the College. Finally, Brother Bray closed the banquet and College with a challenge to the undergraduates that they "transmit the Fraternity to those who may follow after, not only, not less, but greater than it was transmitted to them."

The Leadership College Dean, Dr. Edward Whipple (Hanover '74) made possible the Leadership College experience as it was he who suggested this concept to the General Council one year earlier. Brother Whipple is already working on a program for another leadership College during the summer of 1989. For those who participated in the 1987 Leadership College, it was a great learning experience, one that will be remembered throughout a person's lifetime. ■

Thompson Wins Adviser Award

Ralph J. Thompson (Eastern Kentucky '69) is the 1986-87 recipient of the Samuel V. Stone Chapter Adviser of the Year Award. He is the adviser at Eastern Kentucky.

ROBERT A. BIGGS
Georgia Southern '76
Director of Chapter Services

The 1986-87 recipient of the Samuel V. Stone Chapter Adviser of the Year Award is Brother Ralph J. Thompson (Eastern Kentucky '69) from Eastern Kentucky University.

Brother Thompson was the faculty adviser of Alpha Chi Iota (local fraternity) and became an alumnus of Phi Delta Theta after the installation of Alpha Chi Iota in 1969 when a charter was granted.

Ralph has served as chapter adviser for 18 years and has also served as a house corporation member. He has been recognized in the past by Phi Delta Theta and been named a runner-up to the Samuel V. Stone Adviser Award. He has also been recognized by the EKU Greek community, been named Outstanding Fraternity Chapter Adviser, and honored as the Outstanding Teacher in the College of Mathematical and Behavior Science.

"Doc," as he is called by chapter members, has maintained an active role in the promotion of good scholarship for Kentucky Theta. He has had excellent results since the chapter has had the highest grade point average on campus of all fraternities for 30 of 36 semesters since the chapter's inception in 1969. He is in attendance at all chapter meetings and regularly helps the officers in their responsibilities. He is a keynote speaker for rush events and is one of the chapter's main rushers and attends all functions. He also maintains close contact with alumni and holds several functions in his home for the alumni and undergraduates.

Brother Thompson has also been very active within the Greek community. He attends most, if not all, of the Greek Week events, other Greek activities, and all intramural games, and works with the university administrators.

Ralph is a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Richmond, the American Chemical Society, and Sigma XI (a scientific society dedicated to the promotion of science research). He has attended Phi Delta Theta Conventions and chapter adviser workshops in the past. It has been said that Doc is the backbone of the chapter and the instigator of many academic and spiritual events throughout the year.

The charter president of Kentucky Theta, Steven W. Okeson, has said of Doc, "He has been an ongoing asset to our Fraternity. As president of the local fraternity, then turning into a Phi Delta colony and consequently the first chapter president of Kentucky Theta, I knew Dr. Thompson very well and worked with him continually throughout our inception. He was a man who did not ask for how much there was to accomplish but took charge and made sure all things got done. He surely allowed no obstacles to obscure our goals from this great International Fraternity."

A recent past president, Rick Muterspaw, has said of Ralph, "For the past 18 years the chapter of Phi Delta Theta at Eastern Kentucky University has been steadily uplifted and guided by the helping hand of Dr. Ralph J. Thompson. Always exemplifying the three principles upon which Phi Delta Theta was founded, he participates in attending nearly every meeting, rush function, and major event."

Being recognized as the Outstanding Chapter Adviser of the Year for 1986-87 entitles Brother Thompson and his wife, Elizabeth, to be the guests of the General Fraternity at the next convention in Dallas, Texas. There are many distinguished alumni in Phi Delta Theta who also deserve special recognition and appreciation because of their involvement as chapter adviser. In addition to recognizing one alumnus as Adviser of the Year, other outstanding advisers are named as runners-up to this award.

Special commendation goes to the following excellent advisers: John Score - Texas Gamma - Southwestern University - four years, Roger Heineken - Kansas Epsilon - Emporia State University - 5 years, and Booth Malone - Alabama Beta - Auburn University - 2 years. On behalf of the General Fraternity, we owe these men, as well as every chapter adviser, our appreciation for their dedication and hard work in this most important volunteer position. ■

ALUMNI NEWS

FORT LAUDERDALE

The annual golf outing on Aug. 16 was a tremendous success. Twenty-nine players teed up the ball on an extremely "hot" afternoon. The winning team — Nick Malegni (Florida State '83), Gregg Pangerl (Florida State '79), Don Bruschi (Florida State '78), and "Phikeia" Pat Brown. Other winners: "Phikeia" Pat Brown won two "closest to the pins," David Doumar (Florida State '79) won a "longest drive," Tom Raiford (Florida State '80), won a "longest drive." Dick Clery (Idaho '61), Hank Kline (Franklin '34), Mike Singer (Florida State '84), Steve Rose (Florida State '83), and Scott Watson all won door prizes.

Scott was especially happy to win the engraved tray and shot glass set donated by Bob Moore (Illinois '39). We again thank our other donors — Bob Muller (Miami-Ohio '23), Fred Stribling (Tampa '80), Phil Drake (Florida '58), and Tom Wheelan (Iowa '83)...and a big "thank you" to David Doumar for organizing another great golf outing!

At the June monthly meeting of the Fort Lauderdale Alumni Club, Dwight Rogers, Jr. (Florida '38) attempted to "bribe" Bob Hoysgaard (Wisconsin '63) into becoming "President-for-Life"... aka Baby Doc. The "bribe" was in the form of a generous gift... a bronze plaque with the Phi Delta Theta Coat-of-Arms which was made in 1910. The plaque had previously been given to Dwight over 30 years ago (September 27, 1957) by Dr. David R. Walsh (Syracuse '12).

Walsh, a retired chiropractor, died in Fort Lauderdale on April 22, 1961. He was a graduate of Syracuse University and was active in musical circles there having composed "The Saltine Warrior," a University

PALM BEACH COUNTY

On July 11th the Palm Beach County Alumni Association went "all out" hosting a first class rush party for area seniors scheduled to attend college this fall. The Sportsman's Lodge in West Palm Beach catered an "All American Cookout" in the finest sense.

There were Golden Legionaires (Paul Bennett), just plain good ole alumni like Dean Barclay, active brothers from around the state, Rushees going to schools all over the state, and coed friends from several chapters.

Without question, everyone, and that especially includes the Alumni who attended, left happy that they were there. Actives from all over the State showed up. Members of the Florida International University Phi Delt Colony drove up from Miami. Four Brothers and Little Sisters from the University of Central Florida, and 15 Brothers and Little Sisters from the University of Florida drove down from Orlando and Gainesville.

Once the crowd got settled in, Hank Massey and Fred Beasley were made team captains for the volleyball games. As the games developed, jungle rules were employed and everyone developed a good appetite.

After everyone had their fill of the "All American Cookout," there was a short program. Paul Bennett told the rushees and actives some history about Phi Delt. Harry Massey, "Phi-of-the-Year '75," shared with us his post-graduate involvement with the fraternity. Jamie Hunley, president of Florida Kappa, and Sam Coniglo, president of Florida Iota Colony, updated the crowd on their chapters' activities. Fred Beasley, representing Florida State, offered amnesty to those rushees attending University of Florida. Powell Brown, Florida Alpha rush

FORT LAUDERDALE: Bob Hoysgaard (Wisconsin '63) was presented a plaque by Dwight Rogers, Jr. (Florida '38) at the club's Golf Outing. The plaque had been given to Rogers 30 years earlier.

FORT LAUDERDALE: Raffle winners included Dick Clery (Idaho '61), Hank Kline (Franklin '34), David Doumar (Florida State '79), Scott Watson (Florida '82), Mike Singer (Florida State '84) and Steve Rose (Florida State '83).

PHILADELPHIA

The Phi Delta Theta Alumni Club of Philadelphia and vicinity joined with the brothers of the Pennsylvania Zeta Chapter of Phi Delta Theta located on the University of Pennsylvania to host a Founders' Day at Philadelphia's Exclusive and Fashionable Club.

During the Founders' Day Dinner, Jesse R. Pebley, president of the Philadelphia Alumni Club, and Thomas Dempsey, president of the Zeta Chapter, awarded the "Phi of the Year" award to Douglas A. Alexander, who has become prominent in finance and industry by Reality Development Corp. located in Philadelphia.

At the Founders' Day Dinner, the Golden Legion of the Phi Delta Theta and silver anniversary pins were also awarded.

Both presidents, Pebley and Dempsey commented that the dinner was a great success due largely to the joint efforts of both the members of the Alumni Club and the Pennsylvania Zeta Chapter.

PITTSBURGH

The annual golf outing of the Pittsburgh Alumni Club was held on June 17, 1987, at the Champion Lakes Golf Club in Bolivar, PA (7 miles north of Ligonier on PA 711).

The golf outing was another outstanding event with 56 golfers of which 24 were members of Phi Delta Theta — the highest ever. We had sunshine for the ninth straight year.

Low gross for the outing was Rick Ban, (Ohio '72) with an 81. Bill Leonard (Penn State '53) was low net for the second straight year with a 72. Jim Dunn, guest of J. Howard Womsley (Dickinson '57) tied for low net with a 72.

Bill Leonard was also closest to the pin on #3. Curt Ellenberg, guest of J. Womsley was closest to the pin on #7 and had the longest drive on #15. Dr. Harry Sanford, guest of John Geis (Purdue '53) was closest to the pin on #11. Bernie Dusenberry (Allegheny '43) was closest to pin on #14 and Glenn Bock (Kent State '58) had longest putt on #9. Dave Landis, guest of Bill Wrenshall (W&J '41) was closest to the pin on #16 and Bob DiTommaso, also a guest of Bill Wrenshall, had the longest putt on #18. Our oldest golfer, H. G. Womsley, father of J. Howard Womsley, was celebrating his eighty-second birthday on this date. Jack Cosgrove (Penn State '38) presented him with a picture of Joe Paterno.

Golf was followed with a fantastic steak dinner and prizes were awarded with John Geis presiding. Every golfer received one golf ball to replace the balls driven into the lakes.

The next Golf Outing is scheduled at the same place on June 15, 1988. Contact Geis at (412) 621-6941 Office or (412) 367-2443 Home.

SANTA CLARA VALLEY

The Santa Clara Valley chapter held its most recent meeting Sept. 1, 1987. At this meeting we decided on a calendar of events that will interest all alumni young and old.

Due to popular demand we reinstated our monthly luncheons. Beginning in September they will be held the first Wednesday of every month at Harry's Hof Brau on Saratoga Ave. in San Jose.

The first tailgate party of the year was held Oct. 10 at Spartan Stadium when San Jose State plays New Mexico State. Craig Chaney has volunteered to organize this homecoming party promising plenty of fun, food, and drink for all.

Do you feel lucky? On Oct. 17 the Santa Clara Valley Alumni Club went to the Sierra Nevada mountains to beautiful Lake Tahoe. We chartered a bus and left early that morning and returned late that same night.

The next Alumni Club meeting was Nov. 10 at the home of Mike Tognotti, our current president. Meetings begin at 7 p.m. and end no later than 8:30 p.m.

We're going back to our roots! The next Founders' Day will be March 24, 1988 at the Los Gatos Lodge. After not appearing there for the last two years we've decided to return. Paul Parenti has volunteered to chair this event and if his enthusiasm is any indication of what's in store for us then we will enjoy a wonderful evening.

There is one undergraduate vs alumni event held every year that for all intent and purpose is for the bragging rights of this chapter, and that is the Annual Flag Football Game. Our sports director Bob Bastian tells me this game will take place in November and he promises to have a brand new game plan. The oddsmakers tell me the undergraduates are favored by a 5-2 margin.

Any questions or comments regarding the Santa Clara Valley Alumni Club should be directed to Mike Tognotti at 408-866-8674.

The Alumni Club would like to extend its sincerest congratulations to Jerry McKinney who was married Oct. 4, 1987.—Mike Paoletti

PITTSBURGH: John Geis (Purdue '53), golf chairman, and Bill Wrenshall (Washington & Jefferson '41) visit following the Pittsburgh Alumni Club's Golf Outing.

PITTSBURGH: H. G. Womsley, the oldest golfer, is congratulated by his son, J. Howard Womsley (Dickinson '57) following the Pittsburgh Alumni Club's Golf Outing.

WEST TEXAS STATE: The active chapter at West Texas and the Amarillo Alumni Club held their fifth annual active-alumni golf tournament on May 2. The tournament was followed by a hamburger cookout at the golf course.

Fraternity Recognized For Service

BY CLINE YOUNG
Public Relations Commissioner

The 1986-87 academic year was a tremendous success for Phi Delta Theta in the areas of community service, philanthropy and public relations.

In January of 1987, Phi Delta Theta was awarded the prestigious C-Flag, an accolade presented by the President's Citation Program For Private Sector Initiatives, for its outstanding and continued community service programs. The flag is prominently displayed at General Headquarters in Oxford, Ohio.

This award represents a growing public awareness for the outstanding contributions made by Phi Delta chapters internationally in their efforts with community service. Further, it illuminates the tireless efforts of brothers Howard Young, Lothar Vasholz, Ted Maragos, Brian Dunn and of course Stan Brown who originated the program in 1955.

Particularly appropriate in 1987 was the initiation of the Stan Brown Trophy, awarded to the chapter with the most outstanding single community service event. This year's recipient was Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Massachusetts Gamma.

The brothers hand-made over 500 wooden toys and distributed them to local hospitals for children. Once again they received national attention as their story was published in newspapers all over the country.

Honorable mention awards were given to DePauw University (Indiana Beta) for their work with the Special Olympics and the University of Cincinnati (Ohio Theta) for their support of a student who was paralyzed.

The Lubbock Trophy was given to the University of Arkansas, who has won the award twice in the last three years. This trophy, which signifies ongoing success in commu-ity service and philanthropy, is awarded based on creativity, scope of impact and degree of chapter involvement. Arkansas Alpha had over 20 projects dedicated to philanthropic and community assistance.

The runner-up for the award was General Motors Institute who created fund-raising projects ranging from car washes and balloon sales to participation in a dance marathon. They were also heavily involved with the Big Brothers organization.

Phi Delta Theta also awards the Paul C. Beam Trophy, which for the first time signified the single most outstanding philanthropic event. Kansas Alpha, with its perennial basketball tournament, raised over $15,000 for Lou Gehrig's Disease, ALS. Kansas Alpha has many times been recognized for its success in both community service and philanthropic endeavors, especially where the ALS society is concerned.

Fraternity teams from all over the State of Kansas come to compete in the tournament. Southern Methodist University, the runner-up, was equally as successful, as the brothers raised over $10,000 from a casino party and donated the money to the university.

Over 20 other chapters were awarded citations for their outstanding contributions to the community. It is estimated that over 75,000 man hours and close to $100,000 were contributed by our chapters nationwide. When you realize the workloads involved in athletics, academics and social events, it becomes obvious that community relations are foremost with our brothers. Over 70% of the Phi Delta chapters were active in a community service project and more than 50% of those participated in at least two projects.

Phi Delta Theta continues to lead the way in promoting a positive public image through its work in community service and philanthropic activities. We thank our tireless undergraduates and leaders who have made this possible.

GETTYSBURG: This at Gettysburg College assist in moving a local hospital thrift store as part of the chapter's community service activities.

Ninety-two Reach New Club Levels

With the 1987 fund-raising campaign passing the halfway point, 92 brothers have reached new club levels in cumulative contributions. A Council Associate is a brother who contributes, or has contributed in his name, an accumulation of $1,000. A John Wolfe Lindley Associate has contributed a total of $2,500, and a John McMillan Wilson Associate is the designation for a $5,000 donor.

Contributions to the Foundation are tax deductible and are used to enlarge the endowment for member services, including scholarships which totaled over $60,000, all of which are being put to good use during the current academic year.

Verlin Jenkins Honored By Ohio Epsilon Chapter

BY JIM WARNER

"There was greatness in Verlin P. Jenkins. He was a devoted brother to all. Few men have had the opportunity and willingness to touch the lives of others as he did. Fewer yet have done so much with his enthusiasm. Verlin was a man of compassion and courage and we shall miss him. Mr. Phi Ohio Epsilon 1980".

So reads the bronze plaque that hangs in the great room of the Phi Delt house, Ohio Epsilon, at the University of Akron. The plaque is a fine tribute to a wonderful brother and seemed most appropriate when Dan Moldea wrote it in 1980, but Verlin was deserving of a more enduring memorial. A group of alumni committed themselves to continuing the tradition of excellence for Phi Delta Theta that Verlin lived by. Their solution was a Phi Delt scholarship for the undergraduate members of Ohio Epsilon in Verlin's honor.

Over the past seven years, the Jenkins scholarship has grown in many ways and has set the precedent for several additional scholarship funds. Brothers Paul Martin, Fred Martin, Pete Demming and Don Demkee have established scholarships for Phi Deltas. Currently, the Phi Delt scholarship funds have almost a quarter of a million dollars ($250,000) on account.

The University of Akron holds the funding for our scholarships and collectively refers to them as the "Phi Delt Umbrella." They have openly admitted that the entire matter has definitely developed into one of the most pleasant surprises the Greek system has offered the University in many a year. The money generated by our investment is awarded by a five member scholarship committee to deserving undergraduates. This fall, nine brothers will receive scholarships as a result of efforts on campus. In addition, each brother who had a GPA above the all-fraternity GPA will receive a voucher for $100 toward books this fall. All this is possible because the brothers of Ohio Epsilon are continuing the "tradition of excellence" set for us by Verlin Jenkins. ■

The Dallas Alumni Club Award, donated by the club, will be presented for the first time during the 1988 convention in Dallas. The award is to be presented annually to the undergraduate chapter which best promotes the teachings of the Bond among alumni.

Chapters will be furnished criteria and information on how to apply later this year.

Iowa Delta recently celebrated its 25th anniversary. The chapter, which is located at Drake University in Des Moines Iowa, observed the silver anniversary during the Drake Relays, the nationally known track and field event.

Included in the weekend events was an initiation ceremony for three members of the Phi Delta Theta colony which preceded Iowa Delta. The members were never activated because they graduated before the colony received its charter in 1961. The initiation was followed by a brunch for alumni and their families. Present was Frank Abernathy, who presented the chapter with a silver anniversary certificate. Later an open house was thrown in honor of the chapter's twenty-five years of existence for both alumni and current members.

The weekend was highlighted when the float that was entered in the Drake Relays parade by the chapter captured first place for the third consecutive year. A total of over 75 alumni and their families attended the events, and many contributed to the alumni club and capital improvement fund.

COUNCIL RETREAT: During the General Council retreat meeting in Taos, New Mexico, members were the guests at a reception hosted by Clark B. Funk (New Mexico '51). The group included President Tal Bray, Executive Vice President Bob Miller, Treasurer Billy Stitt, Director of Alumni Services Rusty Richardson, Member-at-Large Frank Abernathy, Reporter David Turner and the host, Clark Funk.

Gary Jacobson and John Hillkirk, (Allegheny '78), XEROX: American Samurai. The behind the scenes story of how a corporate giant beat the Japanese at their own game, 1986, 338 pp. Macmillan Publishing Company, New York, New York. Given by author.

In XEROX: American Samurai, we learn how one courageous American company managed on its own — without benefit of federal bailout or protective tariff — to successfully combat the "Japanese challenge." It is a dramatic story about vital lessons for everyone concerned about our country's ability to preserve its economic supremacy.

Veteran journalists and longtime Xerox observers Gary Jacobson and John Hillkirk brilliantly explore the front lines of one of today's most fiercely contested international battlegrounds — the world wide copier industry. They expose the inner workings of multi-million-dollar corporate giants both here and in Japan, vying on every continent to capture a larger share of this growing market that already involves the making of billions of copies daily.

XEROX: American Samurai tells the story of the people who are putting Xerox's new strategy into action. Through firsthand accounts of closed-door conferences at Xerox and behind-the-scenes operations of Japan's new super-factories, this is the riveting account of how top management of Xerox mustered the strength to battle the competition.

Gary Jacobson and John Hillkirk first broke the news of Xerox's comeback, a development neglected by most business observers. Now, they go beyond the headlines to tell the full, rough-and-tumble story.

Competitive Edge. How Xerox turned the tables on the Japanese by making the philosophy of Dantotsu, Japanese for "best of the best," the cornerstone of their own worldwide resurgence.

New Leadership. The new Xerox in action, on a swing through Europe with Wayland Hicks, chief of the copier division, as he preaches the hard-driving Xerox gospel of success.

"Can do" American style. How Xerox's experience in fending off the Japanese brings to light ten uniquely American techniques that can turn any business around.

Shattered myths. A rare inside view of ten Japanese factories that dispels the myths about Japan's industrial supremacy and reveals the true secrets behind their success.

Above all, XEROX: American Samurai is much more than a business book: It is a fascinating tale of people and their will to win. It is a book that every American will want to read.

R. Gerald McMurtry, (Centre '29) and Mark E. Neely, Jr. THE INSANITY FILE. The Case of Mary Todd Lincoln, 1986, 204 pp. Southern Illinois University Press, Carbondale and Edwardsville, Illinois. Given by authors.

In 1875 Robert Todd Lincoln caused his mother, Mary Todd Lincoln, to be committed to an insane asylum. Based on newly discovered manuscript materials, this book seeks to explain how and why.

In these documents — marked by Robert Todd Lincoln as the "MTL Insanity File" — exists the only definitive record of the tragic story of Mary Todd Lincoln's insanity trial. The book that results from these letters and documents addresses several areas of controversy in the life of the widow of Abraham Lincoln: the extent of her illness, the fairness of her trial, and the motives of those who had her committed for treatment. Related issues include the status of women under the law as well as the legal and medical treatment of insanity.

Speculating on the reasons for her mental condition, the authors note that Mrs. Lincoln suffered an extraordinary amount of tragedy in a relatively few years. Three of her four sons died very young, and Abraham Lincoln was assassinated. After the death of her son Willie she maintained a darkly rigorous mourning for nearly three years, prompting the president to warn her that excessive woe might force him to send her to "that large white house on the hill yonder," the government hospital for the insane.

Mrs. Lincoln also suffered anxiety about money, charting an exceptionally erratic financial course. She had spent lavishly during her husband's presidency and at his death found herself deeply in debt. She had purchased trunkful of drapes to hang over phantom windows, 84 pairs of kid gloves in less than a month, and $3,200 worth of jewelry in the three months preceding Lincoln's assassination. She followed the same erratic course for the rest of her life, creating in herself a tremendous anxiety. She occasionally feared that people were trying to kill her, and in 1873 she told her doctor that an Indian spirit was removing wires from her eyes and bones from her cheeks.

Her son assembled an army of lawyers and medical experts who would swear in court that Mrs. Lincoln was insane. The jury found her insane and in need of treatment in an asylum. Whether the verdict was correct or not, the trial made Mary Lincoln desperate. Within hours of the verdict she would attempt suicide. In a few months she would contemplate murder. Since then every aspect of the trial has been criticized — from the defense attorney to the laws in force at the time. Neely and McMurtry deal with the trial, the commitment of Mary Todd Lincoln, her release, and her second trial. An appendix features letters and fragments by Mrs. Lincoln from the "Insanity File." The book is illustrated by 25 photographs.

Gus Schrader (Iowa '46). Lute-Lute-Lute, 1981, 125 pp. Jostens/American Yearbook Company, Topeka, Kansas. Given by author.

This book captures all of the color, the pageantry, and the excitement of Big Ten basketball, chronicling the Iowa basketball team under the leadership of Robert "Lute" Olson.

The book begins as follows: "With two decades to go in the 20th Century, there arose on the prairie between the Missouri and Mississippi Rivers a race of people known as Hawkeye Basketball Zealots.

Anthropologists studying specimens from this order discovered their speech was frequently punctuated by cries of 'Lute! Lute! Lute!'

Many of them — 13,365 at a time — packed a 50-year-old athletic warren to applaud this man's basketball teams, while uncoupled other thousands watched the spectacles on television.

So great became the clamor for tickets and seats that the most wealthy and/or avid of these zealots chipped in their money to erect a new arena that would seat 15,000 for watching the Hawkeyes.

Olson's first seven seasons were exciting, rewarding ones, featuring Big Ten Championship contenders, NCAA tournaments and crowd-pleasing favorites like Dan Frost, Bruce "Sky" King, Scotty Thompson, All-American Ronnie Lester and Kevin Boyle.

Through it all, the silver-haired cynosure — a 6-4 man named Robert Luther 'Lute' Olson — seemed to be the most serene individual of the lot."

The Phis at the University of Central Florida have decided to get every Brother and Phikeia involved in community service by contacting their local Boy Scout Troop and making their services and expertise available to help the Scouts attain merit badges. The Brothers can assist the Scout on their own time in a field where they excel. It not only helps the Scouts achieve but is rewarding and fun for the actives and pledges.

The Phis at the University of Central Florida have challenged another fraternity on campus to beat their G.P.A. The winner for the semester will be the guests at a function to be hosted by the chapter that did not win. Also, they are urging the U.C.F. fraternities to donate $10 to a jackpot fund to be won at the end of the semester by the chapter with the highest G.P.A.

MINNESOTA ALPHA HOUSE: (Top) After over 35 years, Minnesota Alpha at the University of Minnesota has moved next door to a significantly larger house which will greatly enhance the live-in capacity for the chapter.

AKRON: (Middle) Phis at Ohio Epsilon on the University of Akron campus are beginning their second year in a newly renovated chapter house provided by chapter alumni.

ILLINOIS ETA HOUSE RENOVATION: (Below) Illinois Eta alumni are currently conducting a fund raising campaign to renovate its 65-year-old house on the Illinois campus. The house has long been considered one of the most beautiful on the campus.

New Appointments

Newly appointed chapter advisers since June 10, 1987, include Gary E. Nelson, Adviser at Kansas State; Glenn A. Goza, Adviser at Nevada; Dr. W. F. Glidden, Adviser at California Tech Colony; Kenneth M. Ogorek, Adviser at Wabash; R. Scott Taylor, Adviser at Oregon; William C. Hatter, Adviser at Western Kentucky; and Ronald J. Garon, Adviser at Rutgers Colony.

Illinois Eta's chapter house has long been considered one of the most beautiful on the University of Illinois campus. Recently, however, the years have been wearing on the 65-year-old building. The House Association has begun ambitious fund raising and renovation plans which will bring the house back to its former splendor.

Numerous electrical, mechanical, and structural deficiencies and code violations have been identified throughout the physical plant. Plans call for remedy of these violations, along with extensive cosmetic remodeling in all public areas, study areas, and bedrooms.

The new campaign's goal will be well over $500,000. An earlier fund raising effort, the "Going for 100" campaign, raised approximately $70,000 in pledges and $30,000 in paid contributions. The success of this effort encouraged the House Association to plan a large campaign to fully meet the needs of the chapter house.

The alumni, ably assisted by the undergraduate chapter, are pursuing the campaign in earnest. A Chicago firm is providing professional fund raising counsel, and the House Association has hired Robert Madayag ('86) as full time campaign coordinator.

Eta alumni have responded to the campaign with enthusiasm. Many said they plan to help the chapter in order to honor the value gained during their own undergraduate experience. "Each generation of actives chooses the next group of Phis," said Bob Balsley ('57). "Likewise, each generation of alumni must sustain the chapter by doing what the undergrads can't: providing needed support for the physical plant. A successful chapter is a partnership." Said Dick Leighton ('49), "Phi Delta Theta is a life-long commitment."

After over 35 years in our present location, Minnesota Alpha is moving next door to significantly larger quarters in the recently renovated house at the corner of 10th Avenue and 4th Street.

The move has been undertaken to create added live-in capacity which will greatly enhance the economies of scale needed to run a fraternity house in today's economy.

An open house is being planned in conjunction with Homecoming.

THE GOLDEN LEGION

Fraternity To Honor 1937-1938 Initiates

Each year the members of Phi Delta Theta take time to recognize the newly eligible members of the Golden Legion. The Golden Legion is a special group of Phis who were initiated into the Fraternity 50 years ago. The following list represents all living members who were initiated between July 1, 1937 and June 30, 1938. The Fraternity does not have a valid mailing address for those alumni designated by an asterisk. Any information on these missing brothers should be sent to the Phi Delta Theta Headquarters.

VERMONT: The Phi Delt at the University of Vermont celebrate following the announcement that they were named the "Most Outstanding Fraternity" on campus for 1986-87.

CORRECTION

In the Fall '87 issue Matthew Meldorf (Chicago '87) was incorrectly identified as the winner of the H. Sterg O'Dell Scholarship (page 158). The winner was William H. Courter (Iowa '88). Meldorf was the winner of the Lloyd I. Volckening Award.

Galante Wins Harmon-Rice

BY DR. JOHN DAVIS, JR.
(Washburn '37)
Scroll Sports Editor

Dan Galante (Lawrence '87), a four-time All-Midwest Conference defensive lineman and an Associated Press first team Little All-American, tallied 32 ballot points to edge Greg Horne (Arkansas '87) and Jon Pinnick (Hanover '87) for the 1987 Harmon-Rice award. Horne had 28 points and Pinnick gathered 25.

Galante, a Pizza Hut two-time All-American in 1985 and 1986, had career statistics of 371 tackles, 38 sacks, 6 fumble recoveries — who of which were for touchdowns, and 2 blocked punts.

He had a double major in the Classics and in history winding up with a 3.51 GPA. He received the Wisconsin Latin Award in 1984; the Cunningham Prize in Greek in 1985; and the Paul Bacon Prize in Latin for 1986 and 1987. He won the Iden C. Champion Cup for excellence in scholarship, athletics, college spirit and loyalty for 1987. He was on the Sports Information Director's Academic All-American second team in 1986 plus held four different chapter positions in his career.

Horne, whose father, Mike, was a member of Arkansas Alpha from 1962-64, was the nation's leading punter with a 47.2 average on 49 punts, the highest in Southwest Conference and in Arkansas school history. In his career, he punted 180 times for an even 8,000 yards. As a field goal kicker he had 29 field goals and 50 extra points.

He graduated with a 3.00 GPA in business administration and twice was named to the Dean's Honor List. In addition, he was a member of the Academic All-Southwest Conference team. He was named to Sigma Iota Epsilon, the management honor fraternity, Phi Beta Lambda, and the Blue Key Honor Society. He belonged to the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the Baptist Student Union. His chapter activities included Big Brothers-Big Sisters, working in a community service project for muscular dystrophy and working as football coach for the chapter in a football fund raiser against the Sigma Chis. The event raised $10,000 for the Fayetteville United Way.

Pinnick was not only a two-time NAIA All-American but also a two-time NAIA Academic All-American. He set five NAIA national records including 91 career touchdowns and 326 yards passing per game. He was voted the "Outstanding Player of the Game" in the playoffs when he threw for 554 yards and a career total of 9,438 yards to make him the all-time fraternity total offense leader.

His top academic performance was the Dean's Honor List in the fall term of 1986-87 with a 3.67 GPA and in the winter 1986-87 term with a 3.53 GPA. He received the alumni association's Scholar-Athlete Award, the Fathers Association Scholar-Athlete Award and the Senior Male Outstanding Athlete Award. He also served as an IFC member.

Completing the top five in the balloting was Aaron Walker (Washburn '87), fourth with 20 points. He was an All CSIC and All-Phi second team selection plus an NAIA Academic All-American. He graduated with a 3.19 in biology.

Fifth with 14 points was Clark Hunt (SMU '87), a four-year letterman and four-year captain of the soccer team. He was valedictorian of the 1987 graduating class at SMU with a 3.99 GPA and a Presidential Scholarship recipient of tuition all four years.

A pair of new and unusual factors occurred this year. The top five in the balloting brought the highest GPA's in the 30-year history of the award (3.99-3.53-3.52-3.19-3.00). The format of the committee was broadened to include the guest voting of two province presidents. Each subsequent year two new province presidents will be selected to participate in the annual voting.

This year's brings sadness as Harold J. "Gus" Schrader (Iowa '26) is retiring after a 45-year sports writing career with the Cedar Rapids Gazette and a 22-year stint on the Harmon-Rice committee. He was appointed in August, 1965. Every Scroll reader sends a very sincere "thanks" for a great professional job to the fraternity.

Behymer also coordinates the NAIA substance abuse program and is the national office liaison for the NAIA Division II Football program. ■

Completing the top three in the balloting from a group of 18 players submitted were another pair of senior infielders. Second was Seth Bendian (Gettysburg '87), second baseman and captain who led his team through 31 games with a .369 average, 20 of 23 stolen bases plus All-Middle Atlantic Conference honors. In third was Erik Albright (Duke '87), second baseman, who through a 41-game season batted .305.

In conclusion it might be noted Hanover had 11 Phis on their baseball team with three on the Trautman ballot of which two were sophomores. One of the sophomores through 40 games batted .321 and pitched occasionally for a 7-2 record including a no-hitter. Watch Hanover in the future. ■

Downtown Dallas is an interesting blend of old and new, and it is only a short walk from the Historical Plaza to the 72-story InterFirst Tower, Dallas' tallest landmark, or to one of Dallas' most unique landmarks, the Union Tower. From the top of the 50-story Geodesic Dome, one gets a breathtaking view of downtown; the surrounding city; and on clear days, downtown Fort Worth, 30 miles to the west.

Deep in the heart of downtown, surrounded on all sides by towering office buildings and concrete, is a triangular park known as Thanksgiving square. The park, dedicated to meditation and thanksgiving is dominated by a tower chapel and three carillon bells. Waterfalls, bubbling streams, grassy lawns, and an abundance of shade make the park a popular brown-bag lunch site for business people and a welcome resting place for tourists.

More than 30 stores, restaurants, and an ice skating rink can be found under one roof at the Plaza of the Americas Office and Hotel Complex. The Plaza of the Americas is connected to other office buildings in the northeast area of downtown by overhead protective walkways.

Visitors to Dallas could easily spend a full day exploring the downtown area, but to do so would do injustice to all other worthwhile things to see and do in the city.

For instance, visitors who like to keep their touring on a historical vein will not want to leave town without visiting Old City Park. On this site are some 36 restored buildings, objects, and live interruptive activities that tell the story of Dallas and North Central Texas between 1840 and 1910.

Also in the area is a Farmers' Market, a municipally-owned market where farmers sell fresh produce, flowers, plants, baked goods, and arts and crafts.

If you like museums, then Dallas has plenty. The Dallas Museum of Art, located in the Arts District area of downtown, has a world class collection of paintings, sculpture, and decorative arts.

Southeast of downtown is Fair Park, home of the State Fair of Texas, and the location of several fine museums, musical entertainment at the Fair Park Music Hall, restaurants, the Cotton Bowl, and picnic areas.

Ever since J.R. and the Ewing clan stormed into Dallas almost a decade ago, the first thing many tourists want to know is: "Is there really a South Fork Ranch?" Well, yes there is. The ranch is located about 25 miles north of downtown off U.S. 75.

Between downtown and South Fork lies a world of things to do. Large regional malls such as North Park, The Galleria, and Valley Review offer the utmost in shopping with most major stores represented, including Blommingdale's, Macy's, Marshall Field's, Tiffany's, and, of course, Nieman's.

Of course, Dallas has an abundance of restaurants serving every kind of cuisine imaginable, from local favorites like Tex-Mex, barbecue, and chili to exotic foods from all over the world. Night life is plenty as well, including country-western dance halls, jazz clubs, showrooms, comedy clubs, regional theatre, opera, ballet, and symphony.

Recreational activities abound in the Dallas area. Within 30 miles of downtown can be found Six Flags Over Dallas theme park, Wet and Wild water park, and International Wildlife Park. And, depending upon the season, you can see professional football, basketball, baseball, tennis, golf, and rodeo.

With all this to offer and more, Dallas is a very proud city, proud of its progressive cosmopolitan image, and proud of its rich and colorful history. Members of the Dallas Phi Delta Theta Alumni Club look forward to welcoming you to the city they love. They are also ready to show brother Phis what they have known all along — Dallas is an exciting and wonderful place to visit.

AT&T's Robert Allen Supports World Trade

AT&T's President Robert Allen (Wabash '57) believes that there is nothing wrong with the American economy and that our fundamental goal should be a balance of world trade.

AT&T President Robert E. Allen (Wabash '57) believes that a strong and growing Japanese economy is in the best interest of the United States. And the reverse is true, as well, he says.

"The fundamental objective of world trade," Allen told the World Affairs Council in Los Angeles recently, "is mutual benefit and mutual growth."

"Protectionism, on the other hand," Allen said, "serves to corrode relationships among nations, even among allies, and in the long run, leads to dangerous discord."

Allen's concerns about world trade reflect his responsibilities as AT&T's chief operating officer and second in command to Board Chairman James E. Olson (North Dakota '50). (See Scroll cover story, Fall, 1987).

The AT&T president — who was Phi Delt house president in his junior year at Wabash — spends much of his time these days seeing to the growth and enhancement of AT&T's presence in the international market for moving and managing information.

For Allen, it has meant increasingly more time on the overseas travel circuit, as well as longer hours and challenges as demanding as any he has faced. But the AT&T veteran, who became company president in 1986 after high-level service in several Bell operating companies and at AT&T itself, is no stranger to work.

The Value of Hard Work

"I've been working since I was eight years old," he said, reeling off a list of jobs that began with delivering newspapers and included lawn work, auto repair and clothing store clerk in New Castle, Indiana.

Allen was born in Joplin, Mo. His father was a manager in the J.J. Newberry chain of retail stores, which meant several moves for the family during Allen's childhood. He spent his formative years in New Castle, where his father, leaving Newberry after 21 years, joined his mother in running a children's clothing store they had purchased earlier.

"They taught me the value of hard work, the obligation, really, to earn your own way in the world," Allen said.

Allen won a Perfect Circle Co. scholarship to Wabash, where he played varsity football and basketball, and found time for campus jobs. One involved groundskeeping at the athletic field. A standout end on the football team, he was somewhat less a groundskeeper and on one occasion, painful to recall, that fact cost Wabash a victory over Heidelberg, then first in the small college rankings.

"I was playing defense," he remembered. "It was 0-0 and late in the game I had a chance to intercept deep in Heidelberg territory. There was no one between me and the goal, but as I started toward the ball, I tripped in a pothole on the field that I had worked on the afternoon before. They wound up beating us 7-6."

At Wabash, Allen majored in political science and economics, and though today he spends his working days helping run one of the world's largest companies, he maintains the love of books and the arts he cultivated on the Crawfordsville, Indiana, campus. "I still love to read," he says.

Neither has time diluted his affection for Wabash. "I usually get back three or four times a year for trustee meetings," he said. In 1984, he was awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree by Wabash.

Beginning A Career

Already married and a brand-new father, he began his career at Indiana Bell Telephone when he was graduated from Wabash in June 1957. The telephone company is the only organization he has ever worked for. Over the years, he has had assignments at Bell of Pennsylvania, Illinois Bell and Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone, which he headed in 1981.

Allen had been designated to head one of the regional telephone companies created in the break-up of the Bell System in 1984, but he was called to AT&T to become executive vice president and chief financial officer before the break occurred.

"It's a different world," Allen says about the telephone business today. "Things move much more quickly because of the way that communications technology has exploded, and, of course, the restructuring of the industry in 1984 has caused a lot of change, too."

Allen says that AT&T's number one priority is to become more competitive in markets that are new or newly opened to competition. It's the gospel he preaches at company plants and business locations around the country. "We've made tremendous progress," he said, "but we're not sitting still; we're dead serious about meeting the challenges before us."

Along with Olson and the AT&T executive team, Allen is directing the implementation of a three-part strategic plan for AT&T's new market environment.

It focuses on the company's core business (long distance service, telephone equipment, etc.) data networking (the processing and movement of computerized information) and the international market.

International Arm

The international arm of the business reports up through the executive ranks to Allen. He has, in addition, taken on personal responsibility for the AT&T strategic liaison with Olivetti, the Italian electronics giant that produces AT&T's popular personal computers.

Allen with other top AT&T executives have individually "adopted" key countries, keeping up to date on who's who and what's happening and serving as expert within the company on their particular selection. He has chosen Korea, a choice that Allen says "has kept me pretty busy lately."

Nonetheless, he's looking forward to joining the Korea Business Council when it begins operations soon. Allen agrees with the general view that Korea is "the new Japan." And he also agrees that the Pacific Rim countries are emerging as key members of the trade Triad — America, Western Europe and the Pacific.

The Rim countries and the developing difficulties in world trade are much on Allen's mind these days. "When I hear the international marketplace spoken of in terms of war and protectionism these days, it gives me great pause," he says.

"That kind of talk feeds the notion that trade is a zero-sum game. And it ignores, for example, the fundamental objective of trade — which is mutual benefit and mutual growth among countries. A fundamentally strong and growing Japan, for example, is in the interests of the United States — and so is the reverse."

America's Economic Future

America's problems — the growing disparity between imports and exports — really rise in America itself, according to Allen. "We are a nation of debt addicts, consuming more than we produce and fueling it all with borrowed money. What we need to do is get our economic house in order and to reduce the budget deficit."

There's nothing wrong with the American economy, says Allen, who serves on the Manufacturers' Hanover Trust and Bristol-Myers boards and meets regularly with other business leaders and experts from the government and academic sectors. "We're seeing slow, but steady growth that characterizes a stable, solidly grounded economy," Allen said.

"What we have to do to get a handle on this balance of trade problem," he continued, "is to stimulate investment and enhance productivity. And the way to do that is to cut consumption. It won't be easy, but it has to be done."

Despite his busy schedule, Allen finds time to keep up with his reading, and golfs, swims and jogs besides. Allen and his wife, Betty, a DePauw graduate, have two sons and three daughters. The Allen home in Short Hills, N.J., is a few minutes from AT&T's suburban complex in Basking Ridge, where the world traveler Bob Allen spends much of his time. ■

Sutcliffe Captures Gehrig Award

Chicago Cubs' pitcher Rick Sutcliffe, 18-10 this past season with a last-place team, is the 1987 winner of the Lou Gehrig Memorial Award.

Winning the National League Cy Young Award in 1984 was a considerable achievement for Rick Sutcliffe. But the big, redbearded Chicago Cubs pitcher comes off every year as a major achiever in the game of real life.

From a modest beginning visiting children's hospitals when he was with the Cleveland Indians, Sutcliffe has become a force in Chicago's social and charitable circles helping make life easier for hundreds of needy, disabled and disadvantaged youngsters through the Rick Sutcliffe Foundation.

The humanitarian pitcher was a runaway winner in the voting for Phi Delta Theta's Lou Gehrig Memorial Award.

Sutcliffe launched the foundation after his 1984 efforts helped the Cubs win the National League Western Division and put him among the top salaried players in baseball. He has endowed the foundation with $100,000 in each of the last three years and hopes to have other support lined up when his playing days are over.

"I felt that I was being paid by the Cubs, supported by the fans," he explained. "I felt I should be sharing my good fortune with less fortunate people in the community."

The most obvious of the foundation's dispersal of funds is providing 10 annual college scholarships for youngsters who otherwise did not have the means to continue their education. But the project goes far beyond that.

"I'm honored to be given an award recognizing more than athletic achievement," Sutcliffe said. "Lou Gehrig was a symbol of the good, clean aspects of baseball. I'm honored to be in the company of so many fine former winners."

The pitcher's grand plan for the future includes development of a $3.1 million Christian Youth Camp and Special Olympics facility. The 300-acre site for the facility in Fremont, Mo. has been selected and he hopes to solicit support through church groups in the Kansas City area, where he grew up and still resides.

"I guess you could say this started in Cleveland when I went to the children's hospitals in the area," he explained. Athletes seem able to provide comfort and motivation for those kids.

"Once I got involved, I saw how important it was to get them working hard at therapy. I wanted to give them a goal. I started out handing IOU's. I promised that when they were well enough to come to a game, I'd accept the IOU to provide tickets for themselves, mothers and fathers and brothers and sisters.

"Some of them never got well, but I made good on my IOU's for the kids who did. I still visit hospitals both in Chicago and some cities on the road."

He was giving support to several Chicago area charities before he set up the foundation, which provides 50 tickets to every Cubs home game to social organizations and boys clubs.

"Setting up competition for the scholarships has been very rewarding," he says. "The grant is $2,000 per year and we monitor their progress. If they maintain grades, we renew it until they achieve their four-year degree."

Sutcliffe is actively involved in supporting innovative education and was involved in the Gateway to Learning Center. He made his own contribution of $10,000 to that ghetto project.

He influenced several of his Chicago teammates who live in the area to get involved in shelters and food pantries.

Sutcliffe, who turns 32 in June, was drafted out of high school by the Los Angeles Dodgers and spent five seasons in their minor league organization before coming up to the majors to stay in 1979. He had a 17-10 record that year.

Traded to the Cleveland Indians in 1982, he had two fine years for that team (14-8 and 17-11) but made it plain he wanted out of Cleveland going into the 1984 season. Because he could declare free agency after the season was over, the Indians traded him to the Cubs on June 13.

He was spectacular from that point on, posting a 16-1 record as the Cubs won their first championship since 1945. Overall he was 20-6 counting his decisions in Cleveland before the trade.

He encountered shoulder problems in 1985 and fell to 8-8 and had more problems in '86. But he bounced back this past season with an 18-10 record. The kids in Chicago hope he keeps winning for years to come. ■

California Nu Installed

California Nu at the California Polytechnic State University in San Luis Obispo, CA was installed on Nov. 7, 1987 as the 201st charter granted

BY LEONARD A. PENZO II

"We did it!"

With those words, in front of almost 100 brothers and guests, Steve Hall raised the coveted charter that was bestowed upon the California Nu chapter of Phi Delta Theta, installed at the California Polytechnic State University in San Luis Obispo on Nov. 7, 1987. It was the 201st charter granted by Phi Delta Theta since 1848.

The ceremonies were conducted by brothers J.W. Stitt II, treasurer of the General Council; Rusty Richardson, director of alumni services; and Stan Gilson, president of the Omicron West Province.

The roots of the California Nu chapter can be traced back to the Spring of 1986 when Hall originally contacted Phi Delta Theta and expressed a desire to start a chapter at Cal Poly. On Sept. 23, 1986, chapter consultant Scott Cain III met with Hall ('88), Dan Ghiorso ('89), Ed Lopez ('89), Felipe Alvarez ('88), Matt Davies ('90), Ray Fieldhouse ('88), and Len Penzo ('88).

At the meeting plans were laid out for colonization. These men then recruited a total of 15 more members and colony status was granted on Nov. 15, 1986. The Spring 1987 rush allowed the colony to obtain seven more men to bring the colony up to 29 members.

On Friday evening Nov. 6 the 29 colony members were initiated into Phi Delta Theta. Initiation of the members of California Nu was held at the Odd Fellows Hall in San Luis Obispo. Brothers Stitt, Richardson and Gilson officiated the ceremony. In addition to the seven colony members noted earlier, the following men were initiated: Glenn Hanlon ('90); Mike Hirahara ('89); Mike

CALIFORNIA NU: The new initiates and the installation team pause following the installation of California Nu. They include: Front Row—Brendan Smith, Topher Gaylord, Matt Davies, Larry Moir, Dave Sharp, Doug Ito, Rick Nicolas, Albert Roa, Mark Azevedo, Eddie Dolendo; Second Row—Rusty Richardson, Dan Alvarez, Rob McInnes, Stan Gilson, Steve Hall, J.W. Stitt, Chris Geiler, Andrew Kawahara, Brett Viera, Chad Wilson; Third Row—Steve Seward, Charles Hall, Eric Pfeiffer, Scott Battenburg, Jaime Luckman, Reid Stevens, Len Penzo, Bret Kingsbury, Glenn Hanlon, Dan Ghiorso, Erwin Mercado, Steve Caswell, Dave Benham, Ed Lopez, Tony Woo, Mike Hirahara; Back Row—Pat Oates, Marc Petersen, Mike Mackechnie, Franklin Burris, Ray Fieldhouse and Jim Barnhardt.

The initiation and installation ceremonies were assisted by brothers from the California Gamma, Zeta, Eta, Iota, Lambda, and Mu chapters as well as by chapter consultant Rob McInnes (Dalhousie '84). Brother Hirahara noted that the extraordinary feeling of brotherhood between the chapters in attendance "was one of the many highlights of the weekend that I'll never forget."

Phikeia Eddie Dolendo ('90) saved the day by stepping in as a last minute replacement for the church organist at the installation ceremony. "I never played a church organ before," said Eddie, who plays piano, "but when Steve (Hall) asked me if I would give it a shot, I agreed. It was a lot of fun!"

During the past year the colony has become the fastest growing fraternity of the 18 on campus. The Fall 1987 rush saw the addition of 14 Phikeias. Members of California Nu have been elected to the student Senate and have participated in the community's Good Neighbor Day. In addition, the chapter continues to help sponsor a "Topsy Taxi" program that offers free taxi rides to any student or community member too intoxicated to drive home.

Overall, in the past year, life as a Phi Delt has brought many good times and memories to the brothers of California Nu. Brother Dave Benham exclaimed, "I had very high expectations of what I was going to put in to, as well as what I would get out of, being a part of Phi Delta Theta. I am truly happy to say that I have received much more out of the fraternity than I ever imagined."

Brother Scott Battenburg summed it up best for the new brothers of the Cal Nu chapter when he said, "We're all proud to be Phis." ■

RECENT ADDITIONS TO THE

DAVID D. BANTA LIBRARY

Tom Watson, Jr. (Florida '41). Don't Bet On It, 1987, Regal Books, Ventura, California, Publisher.

Author Tom Watson, Jr. of Miami raises serious questions about the wisdom of America's rapid legalization of gambling enterprises in his sixth book titled Don't Bet On It, published recently by Regal Books, Ventura, California.

WATSON

He is currently working on a novel based on the life of King David and tentatively titled David's Wars. Brother Watson and his wife, Diane, recently completed a visit to Israel to gather historical, geographical and cultural data for his new book.

Don't Bet On It is a well researched and thoroughly documented expose of the power, money and often organized criminal initiative behind the proliferation of gambling schemes in this country. It explores the dangers associated with the widespread move toward government funding through state lotteries, calling for a reduction in the cost of government instead of questionable new devices for pumping more money into government coffers. Two enlightening chapters on compulsive gambling provide a chilling glimpse of the way addiction to wagering destroys millions of American lives each year.

Brother Watson gives first-hand accounts of the ways casinos, bookies, lotteries, pari-mutuels and even church bingo parlors are luring Americans into a futile courtship with "Lady Luck" in which "the possibility of winning overshadows the probability of losing."

The native Floridian whose father and two brothers were Phi is author of a devotional book titled The Will of My Father, a biography titled The Little General, a teen-age sex education book titled

Sex is a Four-Letter Word, a self-help book titled How To Be Happy No Matter What and a marriage book titled The Do-it-yourself Guide to Making a Good Marriage Even Better. He is a frequent contributor to the Rotarian magazine.

Tom Watson, Jr. (Florida '41). How To Be Happy No Matter What, 1982, 160 pp. Regal Books, Ventura, California. Publisher.

Are Christians supposed to always be happy? Being happy "no matter what" sounds a little bit impossible, but there is a book in the Bible that says it can be done. That book is called Philippians and it was written by Paul the Apostle, a man who had plenty of practice in facing trouble, suffering, frustration — you name it, he went through it. In fact he wrote his letter to the Philippian Christians from a Roman prison, a place that would make any state penitentiary sound like a country club. But Paul had the real secret to being happy — knowing and living with Jesus Christ.

It's all there in Philippians and more — spelled out in a readable, interesting way by Author Tom Watson, Jr., who has had broad experience as a layman, pastor, missionary, writer, radio broadcast-ter and youth worker. As you go through Philippians with Tom Watson you will discover how to be happy no matter what!

PHIS IN SPORTS

Indiana Phis Contribute to Pan Am Games

Several Phi Delts from Indiana Alpha contributed greatly to the Tenth Pan American Games held Aug. 7-23 in Indianapolis. These games were the largest international multi-sporting event held in the world during this past year.

Several brothers recently completed extensive planning work with the Tenth Pan American Games held August 7-23, 1987, in Indianapolis, Indiana. These games were the largest international multi-sporting event held in the world during this past year. The Pan American Games rank second only to the Olympics in size and scope. Four brothers, all from Indiana Alpha, served in specific roles in planning for the Pan American Games. Three were involved in security planning, and the fourth was assigned to the Games and Venues Division.

Security for the Pan American Games was a combined effort of federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies and PAX/Indianapolis (the Local Organizing Committee). The security organization was patterned after the successful 1984 Olympic security structure. Security for the Games included the development of the Pan American Games Law Enforcement Council (PAGLEC), which was a conglomeration of professional law enforcement agencies, including the Indiana State Police, the Indianapolis Police Department, the Marion County Sheriff's Department, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the United States Secret Service, the Department of Public Safety and PAX/Indianapolis.

Fifteen subcommittees also were formed to handle the myriad of individual functions which fall under the security umbrella. The security subcommittees included Accreditation, Air Support, Bombs/EOD, Communications, Media/Community Relations, Crime Prevention, Criminal Justice, Dignitary Protection, Emergency Response, Intelligence, International Entry, In-Transit Security, Pan American Village Security, Traffic Control, Training and Venue/Vital Point Security.

A network of existing intelligence agencies were developed to identify, investigate and deter possible security threats which might occur during the Games. This network included the Central Intelligence Agency, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the United States Department of Defense. Professional security at the Pan American Village was augmented by volunteer security assistants. This program recruited college students receiving course credits for participation in the program and amounted to approximately 750 additional security members.

Phi Delt Bradford A. Queisser (Indiana '85), age 24, served as the Administrative Assistant to the Chairman of the Interagency Security Planning Committee (ISPC). This committee was responsible for the overall coordination and development of security for the Games. Brad's other responsibilities included managing office administration for the Indiana State Police Department and its respective administrative support staff and coordination with the PAGLEC and the Interagency Security Planning Committee (ISPC). Planning for this event allowed Brad to travel to similar events such as the Caribbean Games in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. Brad served over two years in his capacity.

Jerry R. Miller (Indiana '70), age 38, served as a member of the Integrated Planning Group. This group was responsible for carrying out the policy and planning objectives of the ISPC. Jerry's responsibilities included development of manpower scheduling for the Indiana State Police responsibilities. The State Police responsibilities included both athletes' villages, Opening Ceremony, and several sports venues and specialized management centers. Jerry also coordinated overtime and per diem criteria in support of assigned personnel. He joined the Pan American Games staff in March 1987.

Phis at Michigan are in the process of establishing a scholarship in the name of Navy Cmdr. Phillip Craig (Michigan '63). He was shot down over North Vietnam on July 4, 1967 and had been listed as missing in action until April 22, 1987 when the Pentagon announced that he had been identified.

His remains were returned to the United States and were laid to rest by his family on May 2 in Hornell, New York.

OMISSION

Michael P. Maley (Indiana '88), age 22, originally served as an intern during the spring semester of his junior year. After a successful conclusion of his internship, he was asked to remain and was consequently hired as a planning assistant to the chairman of the ISPC. Michael's responsibilities included administrative planning for the Indiana State Police Department. He was responsible for several administrative functions including request logs for congressional monies through the United States Department of Defense and the planning and operation of the distribution warehouse.

Brad A. Smith (Indiana '88), age 22, served as an intern during the spring semester of his junior year. After a similar successful conclusion, Brad was requested to remain throughout the conclusion of the Pan American Games. He worked in the Games and Venues Division which was responsible for planning and coordinating the individual sporting events in each of their subsequent venue locations. The Pan American Games had more sporting events than the Los Angeles Olympics and had twenty-three select sites throughout the State of Indiana. Brad was primarily involved in the planning for the Indianapolis Hoosier Dome and Convention Center in respect to the specific sporting events held at that particular venue.

The Tenth Pan American Games included thirty-eight Western Hemispheric nations and over 6,500 athletes, coaches and officials. PAX/Indianapolis, the not-for-profit corporation, included 150 full-time volunteer, intern and loaned executive staff members and additionally maintained 35,000 volunteers during the operational phase of the games.

Members of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity played a critical role in the success of the planning and operation of the Tenth Pan American Games in Indianapolis. ■

Team Paced By Unanimous Picks

Both the first team offensive and defensive backfields were unanimous choices in this year's All-Phi Football balloting for the first time in 40 years. Both large and small colleges and universities are combined in the voting.

The other two are Tom Polacek (Washington-St. Louis '88) and wide-receiver Mike Luker (Hanover '89). Polacek, chapter president, had 1,090 yards rushing with a single game high of 232. Luker had 91 catches for 1,253 yards.

The defensive backfield consists of Mark Vincent (SMU-Georgia '88), Marty Kaiser (Wabash '88) and Steve Jung (Lawrence '88).

The second team offensive backfield is paced by three quarterbacks — John Stollenwreck (SMU-Missouri '90), Jeff Cesarone (Western Kentucky '88) and Gary Just (Lawrence '89). Stollenwreck had super passing and rushing games against Syracuse and Nebraska and starred in a 17-13 narrow loss to No. 1 Oklahoma.

Cesarone had 8,404 career passing yards and 8 career games with over 300 yards passing. Just, an All-Midwest Conference selection, threw for 582 yards.

The fourth member is Bill McNamara (Lawrence '88), an All-Midwest Conference choice, who had 2,124 yards passing last year and 1,570 this year. He was also on the All-Phi Basketball team last year.

Senior Discus Toss Paced By DeGroot

Edward B. (Burt) DeGroot (Stanford '31), San Clemente, CA, this past summer at the age of 80 won the American record in the discus — twice.

In July at the National Seniors Olympics in St. Louis, he broke the American best for the 80-84 Age Group of 88' 4" by throwing 90' 4". Two weeks later, he improved that mark with a toss of 91' 4" at The Track Athletic Congress Masters Championships in Eugene, OR for competition 40 and older by age groups.

At Stanford, DeGroot was top pole vaulter from 1929-32 clearing 13' 6" when the world's record was 14' 1" in the days of bamboo poles and sawdust landing pits.

After getting a Masters Degree in Education from Stanford, he coached in California, Kansas and Hawaii. Joining the Army in 1941, he became a physical education director at March Air Force Base, retiring 20 years later to coach and subsequently become dean of student activities at Santa Monica College.

In the early 1960's, DeGroot coached Santa Monica to four consecutive National Volleyball Championships beating UCLA to win the last two titles. This led to a position as manager of the US Volleyball Team for the 1971 Pan American Games in Cali, Columbia. ■

Fee Increase Discussion Dominates Officers Meet

The General Council will recommend increasing both the pledge initiation fee and the general initiation fee at this summer's General Convention.

Money dominated the General Officers Conference in Atlanta, Feb. 20-21.

An increase in fees will be recommended to the General Convention this summer in Dallas as a result of recommendations by the general officers following a full discussion at the Atlanta meeting.

"We are going to show a deficit operation for the biennium at the summer convention," said J. W. Bill Stitt, treasurer of the General Council, in his report to the officers.

"We failed to get an increase at the '86 Convention and we are going to pay for it," he stated. "This time we have got to build a better case with the delegates. We can not continue to live off reserves."

Earlier, Tal Bray GC president, outlined some of the critical needs of the fraternity in regard to services, staff and space.

"We are presently understaffed to handle the growth in our chapters," he said. "We are increasing chapters at a rate of three per year and could grow to as many as 200 chapters by 1998. But we have not increased the size of our staff."

By way of comparison, Bray pointed out that (1) Phi Delta Theta is the fourth largest fraternity in terms of initiates (171,000), (2) ninth out of ten in the ratio of chapters to professional staff (1 to 22) among the larger fraternities and (3) 49th in a list of 51 in four-year costs to members. (The figures were supplied by the Fraternity Executives Association.)

Jackson Named Gardner Winner

Donald L. Jackson (Indiana '60), a partner in the law firm of Bingham, Summers, & Spilman in Indianapolis, is the 1987 "Phi of the Year."

Donald L. Jackson (Indiana '60), nominated by the Indiana Alpha chapter, has been selected to receive the Raymond L. Gardner Award as "Phi of the Year" for 1987. Monte C. Johnson (Kansas '59) and Frank J. Becker (Kansas '58) have been named runners-up for the award.

This award was established by the Seattle Alumni Club in honor of Raymond L. Gardner (Washington '18). Brother Gardner was a Seattle civic and business leader who served as chapter adviser for Washington Alpha, province president, and, finally, a member of the General Council from 1952 to 1956 when he retired due to ill health. The award is given annually to an alumnus for his contribution to Phi Delta Theta, higher education, and community life and honors those alumni who have brought prestige to the Fraternity through their activities.

Donald L. Jackson was initiated into the Fraternity on April 11, 1957. His involvement in Fraternity affairs has continued since its initiation. As an undergraduate, Don served as both chapter president and president of the Indiana University Interfraternity Council.

Immediately following his graduation from the Indiana University School of Law in 1966, Don became involved as a director of the Indiana Alpha Student Scholarship Foundation. He was elected to the presidency of the foundation in 1969 and continues to hold that position today. During this approximate 20-year term on the housing corporation board, Don has made several innovative changes to improve the structure and organization of the chapter house. A few of his innovations have included a senior discount system, a scholarship program to reward undergraduates for academic achievement, a graduate scholarship program, housing contracts, and creation of a weight room, bike room, and computer room in the chapter house.

Brother Jackson's activities are by no means limited to Phi Delta Theta. His alma mater has also benefited from his support and involvement. Don is a life member of the Indiana University Alumni Association and has served on its Board of Directors since 1981. Brother Jackson has also been recognized by the university as a member of the Hoosier Hundred and the Well House Society. In addition to these involvements, Don has served as chairman of the Board of Visitors for the Indiana University-Indianapolis Law School.

Beyond all of his involvements with Phi Delta Theta and Indiana University, Don has still been able to find the time for a wide variety of other community and civic involvements. These involvements have included serving on the Advisory Board of Washington Township, director and president of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association and Foundation, the Advisory Council to Junior Achievement of Central Indiana, the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce, a Republican precinct committeeman, the Meridian-Kessler Neighborhood Association, the Indianapolis Downtown Kiwanis Club, Columbia Club, Wichita Club, Indianapolis Athletic Club, and Director of the Oceanana Beach Association.

Professionally, Don is a partner in the law firm of Bingham, Summers, & Spilman. Don has held numerous positions in the Indianapolis Bar Association, the Indiana State Bar Association, and the American Bar Association. He has also contributed several articles to the Indiana Law Review.

Don and his wife have two children. Don's oldest son has just completed his term as president of the Indiana Alpha chapter and was the recipient of the Arthur R. Priest Award this past year.

Frank J. Becker

Frank J. Becker is the chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Becker Corporation, the largest petroleum carrier in Kansas. Brother Becker is also chairman of the board and CEO of the First National Bank and Trust Company located in El Dorado, Kansas.

His fraternity involvements have included serving as a member of the Kansas Alpha Alumni Corporation, the Kansas Alpha New House Committee, and the Wichita Alumni Club. Frank Becker's involvement in higher education has included serving as chairman of the Board of Regents for the State of Kansas, chairman of the Greater University Fund, president of the Kansas Alumni Association, and Endowment Association. He has also been involved with the St. Lawrence Catholic Center, the Butler County Community Junior College, and Conception Seminary College.

Brother Becker has also been involved with numerous business, civic, and community-related activities throughout the State of Kansas.

Monte C. Johnson

Monte C. Johnson, also from Kansas Alpha, has been a longtime supporter of both the chapter and the University of Kansas. Johnson has served the university as public relations director, assistant athletic director, academic counselor, business manager, and most recently as athletic director.

Since stepping down from that position in 1987, Monte has been dedicating himself to a 2.5 million dollar fund-raising project for a new Kansas Alpha chapter house. This is certainly not his first fund-raising effort. In the past, Monte has conducted successful fund-raising campaigns for the Salvation Army in Wichita, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and the Friends University Board which provides money for small colleges. A columnist for the Kansas City Star/Times described Monte the following way: "The training of a businessman, background of a college athlete and administrator, connections of an alumnus who has been active in the school's programs, and almost limitless capacity for work."

Brothers Jackson, Becker, and Johnson are all to be commended for their unselfish devotion and donation of their time and energies as they continue to exemplify the teachings of the Bond. ■

VISIT WITH THE VICE PRESIDENT: Dr. Eslie Asbury (Cincinnati '18), retired surgeon and well known horse breeder visits with Vice President George Bush at a luncheon in Naples, Florida. Bush was a classmate of both Asbury's sons in high school.

Retired Cincinnati Surgeon Impacts Horse Racing Arena

Dr. Eslie Asbury (Cincinnati '18) has made a major impact in the fields of medicine and thoroughbred horse racing and has just completed his fifth book.

By anyone's standards Dr. Eslie Asbury (Cincinnati '18) is a truly remarkable individual.

He has made a major impact in the fields of medicine and thoroughbred horse racing, and has also been active in sports and as a writer.

At the age of 91 he has recently written his 5th book, Not Under Oath. His book consists of anecdotes about his days at Mayo Clinic; about his Kentucky Derby winner — Determine; about his days in Cincinnati as a surgeon — 55 years. It also contains excerpts of a number of papers he has written for delivery before Cincinnati's prestigious Literary Club, an organization which has included several former U.S. presidents as its members.

His wife, Mary Knight Asbury, died in 1986. She was a famous ophthalmologist who founded the Eye Pathological Lab at Mayo Clinic and another at the University of Cincinnati Medical Center.

Early Life

He was born in a log cabin in Nicholas County, Kentucky, the son of a country doctor. He finished first in his high school class and went to Cincinnati on a Fleischmann scholarship. While at Cincinnati he pledged and was initiated into Phi Delta Theta in 1914.

"Phi Delta Theta was a constructive influence in my college life," he said. "The older members were in loco parentis. They kept a check on our scholastic, athletic and social activities. Fraternities serve a great purpose to undergraduates."

After graduating, Asbury attended the medical school at UC where he met Mary, the only woman in a class of forty. Times were hard and their courtship lasted six years before they were finally wed in 1922.

After graduating from UC's Medical School, he made up his mind he was going to go to the Mayo Clinic and "be one of the best." Another one of his passions almost got in the way.

Baseball vs. Medicine

He was playing third base for a minor league team called the Rochester (Minnesota) Black Sox. The other infielders were former major leaguers — Risberg Gandil and Ciotte. These were the former Chicago White Sox who had scandalized baseball by throwing the 1919 World Series to the Reds.

He remembers facing the legendary Satchel Paige — without distinction. Joe McCarthy, later the great manager of the Yankees and Red Sox, offered Asbury a spot on his minor league team but following a talk with Dr. William Mayo, co-founder of the Mayo Clinic, the decision was made to stick to medicine.

He returned to Cincinnati following his Mayo training and quickly gained a reputation as being a skilled surgeon. Patients came from everywhere.

He served as chief of staff at the Good Samaritan Hospital and chairman of the advisory board of the University of Cincinnati Medical Center, for 10 years.

Later, he served as president and founder of the American Association for the Surgery of Trauma and then founder and president of the Northern Society of Clinical Surgery.

Asbury received the honorary degree of Doctor of Science from the University of Cincinnati, a Founder's Award from Xavier University and an honorary degree, Doctor of Science, from the University of Kentucky.

Horse Breeding

In the 1930s, Asbury purchased Forest Retreat, which was built by Kentucky Gov. Thomas Metcalfe in 1814, and named by Henry Clay.

Since then his farm has gained an international reputation for horse breeding. The highlight had to be 1954 when Determine won the Kentucky Derby.

Determine's mother was born with a cleft palate, fatal to a horse since it cannot suckle. Asbury improvised a surgical procedure that repaired the flaw and saved the horse's life.

In 1936 he helped found Keeneland Race Track, where he served for many years as a director. He became the first Kentuckian elected to the Jockey Club. He has served on the board of the Grayson Foundation for Equine Research, and was founder and president of the Ohio Valley Thoroughbred Club.

In all, Forest Retreat has produced fifty stakes winners. It is now run by Asbury's son, Dr. Taylor Asbury.

Other Interests

His activities were not solely devoted to medicine and horse breeding however. In addition to his stint as a professional baseball player he also was captain of the University of Cincinnati basketball team. He mentions that he scored the fewest points in the history of the university. He was a back guard and, in those days, was not permitted to cross the center line.

He was a par golfer. Now his handicap is 20 "on the front tees."

This remarkable gentleman also got involved in politics, supporting the late senator Robert A. Taft, Sr.

As a writer he has produced over 200 papers and has written six books. Not Under Oath sells for $25 and can be obtained from the Cincinnati Historical Society, which gets all proceeds.

His son, Dr. Arthur Asbury (Cincinnati-Kentucky '50) is listed in "Who's Who in America."

It is quite a family. But he is quite a guy. ■

Former Diplomat Employs Writing, Photography Skills

J. Y. Bryan (Chicago '29), former diplomat, photographer and author has visited 56 countries and has used his camera to help explain culture and humanity.

J. Y. Bryan (Chicago '29) has been around the world five times, visited 56 countries and, as he puts it, "kept my cameras and pencils busy."

The former diplomat, photographer and author has seen plenty of the international scene during his 20 years of service in the diplomatic corps and has used his camera to transport countless appearances in some 28 countries.

One of his most recent books, Cameras in the Quest for Meaning, "is an agent of thought and feeling, of vision probing beyond what is shown to what is implied or can be inferred from what is shown."

The book's concept is not simply as Bryan says, "this is what Iran's like or this is what Malaysia is like — no this is what humanity in this world is like, and it is extremely varied and endlessly interesting and full of illusions and let's try to get behind some of the illusions and not forget our common humanity."

Foreign Service

His tours of duty included Egypt, India, Iran, Pakistan, and the Philippines. He served as cultural attache and executive director of the Iran-American Society (IAS) from 1956 to 1958, a period of goodwill and cooperation between Iran and the United States.

Bryan speaks fondly of the joint efforts of the U.S. government and Iranians in the public and private sectors to raise funds to build a new IAS cultural center.

In reviewing the book Ellen Estilai says "The author was aware of a basic conflict between his roles of diplomat and photographer. In photography, he explained, 'you want to see the life before you, not modify it any way; whereas in cultural affairs, you're really attempting to stimulate an interchange between two countries which are probably in need of a great deal more mutual understanding (which) you're there to encourage.'"

Bryan retired from the foreign service in 1968 and settled down to a life of teaching extension courses in photography at the University of California for the next 12 years.

His career came full cycle. After receiving B.A. and M.A. degrees from Arizona and his Ph.D from Iowa he became head of the journalism department at the University of Maryland in 1948. Later he would enter the foreign service.

Stories and Articles

Bryan's stories and articles have appeared in many periodicals, including The Atlantic Monthly, Arizona Quarterly and The Southwest Review.

He spent considerable time in Texas and Mexico doing research for his first novel published in 1963, Come to the Bower. It was reissued by the Literary Guild and Doubleday Book Club in 1986 for the Texas Sesquicentennial celebration.

He was the recipient of the Texas Institute of Letters' award for best fiction of 1963 and also received the Summerfield Roberts Award as the most authentic account about life in Texas during the years of the Texas Republic.

One of his tales about pioneer times in Texas, "Frontier Vigil," was awarded the T.I.L. prize as best short story of 1974.

Early Career

Bryan was born in Peoria, IL in 1907. He left home at the age of 16 and went to Chicago where he learned "that it is possible for awhile to live cheerfully on little daily food."

He worked his way through high school and enrolled in the University of Chicago. He scraped up enough money to enter the university and held a number of odd jobs while a student. He won a scholarship after his first year and then pledged Phi Delta Theta.

At the end of the second year he was sent home with what was misdiagnosed as tuberculosis. After recovery under Dr. Leroy S. Peters in Albuquerque, N.M. he went to the University of Arizona on a scholarship and completed his degree.

Prolonged experience with doctors, hospitals and medicines became another good source of influence in his early writing ("For Each of Us" in Best American Short Stories of 1942 and remained one afterward (e.g. "Frontier Vigil"). Its effect is prominent in Beyond Bounds.

With his short stories beginning to appear in various literary magazines he became an instructor in English at Maryland and completed work for the doctorate in English at Iowa.

His younger brother, Carter R. Bryan (California '36), now deceased, became one of his successors as professor and head of journalism at Maryland while Bryan was in the foreign service.

He met his wife, Margaret Gardner, while at Arizona. She accompanied him in his foreign service travels. They have four children and five grandchildren.

"We are enjoying an active, interesting retirement after 55 years of partnership in marriage." ■

Wise Honored For Directing Skills

Robert Wise (Franklin '36), Academy-Award winning director and former president of the Directors Guild of America, was recently presented with the D.W. Griffith Award for outstanding achievement and lifetime contributions to film.

It is a fitting addition to his distinguished career, which includes Academy Awards and Directors Guild Awards for "West Side Story" in 1961 (co-directed with Jerome Robbins) and "The Sound of Music" in 1965. He has directed 38 films ranging from "I Want to Live" to "The Sand Pebbles," "Run Silent, Run Deep," "The Body Snatchers" and "Executive Suite."

Wise served as president of the DGA from 1971 to 1975, was given an Honorary Lifetime Membership in 1983 and was the first recipient of the Robert B. Aldrich Award in 1984. More recently, he served as chairman of the Golden Jubilee committee that organized the celebration of the Guild's 50th anniversary in 1986.

Although he favors the personal drama and has ranged through the whole spectrum of film subject matter, he has occasionally been attracted over four decades to the movie of massive dimensions, notably "The Sand Pebbles," "The Andromeda Strain", and "The Hindenburg".

Oscar Winning Films

Wise became a double Oscar winner twice, both as "Best Director" and as a producer of the year's "Best Picture" for two films that have become recognized as all-time classics, "West Side Story" and "The Sound of Music". The former captured 10 Academy Awards in all, and "The Sound of Music", a winner of five Oscars, became one of the top box-office successes in film history. Wise also received the Academy's prestigious Irving G. Thalberg Award.

He was born September 10, 1914, in Winchester, Indiana, the son of a meat packer. As a youngster, he became a movie fan, sitting in the dime matinees Saturday after Saturday. From this early interest stemmed his desire to become a part of the magic he saw on the screen, and later the creative urge that launched his directorial career.

Another interest during his schooling was in journalism, but the depression's effect on his father's business prevented him from continuing his studies at Franklin College in Indiana and took him to Hollywood.

There he was able to get a job as messenger in the RKO Studio's film editing department, with help from his older brother, David, then an accountant with the studio. He soon was fascinated by the way movies were cut and patched together, and before long he was being given opportunities to try his hand at the art. After nine months, he was made an apprentice sound effects editor and later a music editor.

Wise recalls one period when he worked over a moviola for a 72-hour stretch with only two hours sleep, to help get George Stevens' "Alice Adams" ready for a sneak preview.

At another time, he pulled out thousands of feet of film shot in the South Seas for a movie later abandoned, and with sound effects cutter, T. K. Woods, spent hours putting together a 10-minute short subject. It brought Wise's first film credit and a $500 bonus from the pleased studio.

Promotions

After a period of time Wise was promoted to assistant film editor and finally in 1938 became a film editor. Important editing assignments gradually came his way, including one with Orson Welles on the famous "Citizen Kane." The skill and imagination Wise demonstrated led him to Welles' "The Magnificent Ambersons," and to an unexpected opportunity. While Welles was doing a film in South America as part of the U.S. Government's good neighbor policy, it was discovered from previews that "Ambersons" needed some added scenes to be filmed in order to make the picture play as it should for audiences. In Welles' absence, the studio assigned the young editor to direct the scenes.

Wise then began bombarding studio executives with requests to direct. In 1943, he was editing "Curse of the Cat People" when its director, far behind schedule, was removed. Wise was given the job, the movie became a hit and he was established as a director.

For the next few years, he brought something more than routine treatment to otherwise routine "B" pictures. Then, in 1947, he and producer Theron Warth did such a good job of preparing "Blood on the Moon" that its budget was increased and pressure began to have a better-known director do the picture. RKO Studio production chief Dore Schary insisted Wise be retained, however, and when "Blood on the Moon" became a critical and financial success, he was established as a top-flight director.

Among his other film since have been "The Desert Rats," "Tribute to a Bad Man," "So Big," "Helen of Troy," "This Could Be The Night," "Until They Sail," "Two for the Seesaw," "Two People," and "Star Trek-The Motion Picture," his 38th film.

Wise was recently appointed a vice-chairman of the Board of Trustees of the American Film Institute and has accepted the position of chairman of the A.F.I.'s CENTER FOR ADVANCED FILM STUDIES in Los Angeles. ■

Florida Kappa Installed As 202nd Chapter

The Florida Kappa colony at Florida International University became the 202nd chapter of Phi Delta Theta on Jan. 9 in Miami.

BY MIGUEL A. FERNANDEZ

The Florida Kappa Colony, of Chi South Province, was installed as the 202nd chapter of Phi Delta Theta International Fraternity on Jan. 9.

Florida Kappa is located at the Florida International University, otherwise known as the State University of Florida at Miami. The installation was held at the beautiful and historic Trinity Cathedral, established in 1896 in Miami, Florida. The ceremonies were attended by the 31 newly initiated Phis, family members, representatives of the other Greek organizations on campus, as well as university officials and alumni from the Palm Beach, Fort Lauderdale, St. Petersburg and Miami Alumni clubs.

The installation was presided over by C.T. "Tal" Bray, president of the General Council. Others participating included the province presidents of Chi North and Chi South, Ed Hopper and James McCarthy, Fort Lauderdale Alumni club president Bob Hoysgaard, Dean Hoffman of Tampa, and the director of chapter services, Bob Biggs.

Of the 31 new Phis of Florida Kappa, three men, Donald Lee, Dean Hoffman III, and Elliot Rabin deserve special mention for their strong dedication and personal belief in Phi Delta Theta. Brothers Lee and Hoffman were called to the service of our country during World War II and the Vietnam war respectively. This happened before the two men could be initiated into the Bond. Therefore these men have been Phikeias for 44 and 15 years respectively.

Brothers Lee and Hoffman were initiated after the long wait on January 8th with the founders of Florida Kappa. Likewise, on that special date, Elliot Rabin, the father of the Florida Kappa colony coordinator, Evan Rabin, was also initiated. By doing so, Brother Rabin exhibited an ideal understanding, not only for Phi Delta Theta, but for his son's devotion and love for the fraternity.

The other initiated Phis were Andy Upbin, Joe Alamo, Scott Ironside, Joe Infantino, Steve Confessore, Kenny Paige, Gino Littlestone, Barry Abes, Pete McGill, Ralph Del Rio, Mike Blakemore, Efrain Lopez, Rich Semel, Scott Bruning, Matt Carrick, Ernie Acosta, Jamie Hundley, Artie Nauman, Terrence Knowles, Miguel Fernandez, Paul Lirette, Brian Moody, Robert Walden, Russ Copley, Keith Stewart, Jon Moss, Rick Law, and Alex Roman. The transfer Phis of the Florida Kappa were also on hand to coordinate the initiation. These men are Evan Rabin (Utah Alpha), Ralph Patino (Florida Alpha), Victor Lopez (Florida Alpha), and Bob Diaz (Florida Zeta).

The brothers of Florida Kappa are a very active part of F.I.U. in all aspects of university life. Brothers hold positions on the yearbook staff, major concert committee, Board of Governors, V.P. of the Greek Council, student government comptroller as well as various SGA senators. Almost every brother is also a member of some student organization. Florida Kappa is also the leader of all university intramural sporting events, talent shows, and various Greek competitions.

Florida Kappa is looking forward to a very prosperous growth in the university as well as the community.

Florida Kappa's address is P.O. Box 650931, Miami, Florida 33265-0931, (305) 553-8761, Jamie Hundley, president. ■

FLORIDA KAPPA: Don Lee (FIU '88), who was initiated after having pledged at Ohio State in 1944, visits with Tal Bray, president of the General Council, Jamie Hundley (FIU '89) and Ralph Delrio (FIU '89).

PALM BEACH DELEGATION: Members of the Palm Beach Alumni Club present at the Florida Kappa installation were Dale Hedrick, Harold "Dean" Barclay, H. Richard Walker, Paul H. Bennett and Lane Exley.

Delta Colony Installed at N.C. State

North Carolina Delta colony was installed at North Carolina State University on Nov. 20, 1987.

The ceremonies were held at the University Faculty Club in Raleigh. Four alumni and 49 colony members participated in the ceremonies.

John A. Poole (North Carolina '65), chairman of the Survey Commission, inducted the group of 49 men. Also present to direct the ceremonies and show support were Dr. Garrett Briggs (SMU '53), Mac Boxley (North Carolina '64) and chapter consultant Andy Carr (Ohio '87).

The members of the colony are already participating in many activities of the IFC at North Carolina State. Community service projects, fund raising activities and Phi Delt alumni support functions are in the planning stages for the spring semester.

Swann Successful In Acting, Law

Why would any young person leave the largest law firm in St. Louis where he was an associate member to pursue an acting career with all its pitfalls?

Frank Swann (Illinois '34) didn't figure it was that big a gamble. After all, he had a degree and could always return to the practice of law.

So, he left the law firm in 1938 and took a small part in Katherine Cornell's new play "Herod and Marianne." After that he signed to do the male lead in George Abbott's "Primrose Path", in New York. A scout from 20th Century Fox saw him and a movie career was launched.

He flew to Los Angeles to play the love interest with Arlene Whelan in the last picture Shirley Temple made for Fox. It was entitled "Young People." Upon completion, he was cast with John Wayne and Marlene Dietrich in "The Seven Singers." Thereafter, he appeared with the Ritz Brothers and the Andrews Sisters as an Argentine gaucho in the movie "Argentine Nights."

So, the gamble paid off. Yes and no.

Interruption
World War II interrupted his act-

bia Pictures for two years, and at R.K.O. for another.

In 1948 he decided to open his own practice in Beverly Hills, where he practiced until 1962 when he became vice president and general counsel of Gibraltar Savings and Loan, a large association with 52 branches and $15 billion dollars in assets. In the ensuing years, he became a member of the board of directors of two large corporations listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

In 1975 he left Gibraltar and opened his own practice again, this time in Century City in Los Angeles. In 1982 he retired and moved with his wife to the island of Maui, where they built a 4,000 square foot house, with an 180° view of the ocean.

He and Nan have three sons, two of whom have graduated from college, and the third is still in school. His son Bruce ('84) was a Phi Delt at UCLA.

It would seem that Frank Swann has enjoyed the best of both worlds. ■

FORT LAUDERDALE

On Jan. 22, Vincent R. Martinelli (Florida State '61) presented a slide presentation to the students, staff and administration of Florida Ocean Sciences Institute depicting his exploration through Nepal and Tibet.

The Fort Lauderdale Alumni Club has adopted FOSI as a community service project and has received favorable press coverage as a result. The Fort Lauderdale Tribune reported on March 2 that "Phi Delta Theta, is changing the animal house image of fraternities by lending FOSI moral and financial support. 'We wanted a hands-on project,' said Bob Hoysgaard, Phi Delt president. 'After researching several possibilities, we decided on FOSI.'

"Thus far, since October of 1987, the Phis have donated $1,400, part of which went for a Christmas party with dinner and gifts. One member has donated wetsuits and the fraternity has participated in several fund-raising events. They are now looking for any marine equipment and a boat to donate.

"Members also use their business contacts to help locate jobs for the graduating FOSI members. 'This is a perfect community service project for us,' said Hoysgaard. 'We fit hand in hand.'"

Earlier, in December, the club contributed $200 to the Twig House in Fort Lauderdale. The Twig House is a children's rehabilitative service.

On a lighter note, the Phis once again defeated Sigma Chi in their third annual softball game 18-5. The Phis have won all three years. The game was played Feb. 20 at George English Park.

Rick Woulfe was the winning pitcher. Shortstop Don Dillon, outfielder Curtis Kuramoto and outfielder David Fee had four hits apiece for the Phis. Gregg Pangerl and Jamie Meehan added three hits each. "It was a fairly close game up until the sixth inning," said Meehan. It was 8-5 going into the inning.

HOUSTON

The Phi Delta Theta Alumni Club of Houston held their annual Christmas party Dec. 6 at the Manor House of The Houstonian complex. Approximately 50 brothers were in attendance sharing the holiday spirit.

David Frazier (Texas '79) and Peter B. Hall (Texas '78) led the group in a rousing round of Christmas carols enjoyed by all, and set the tone for the upcoming holiday season. Numerous activities for the alumni club are planned for the upcoming year. For details, please contact Basil MacDonald, 713/654-7380.—Basil A. MacDonald

THE WINNERS: The Fort Lauderdale Phi Deltas once again defeated the Sigma Chis, this time 18-5, in their annual softball contest on Feb. 20, 1988.

ONTARIO ALPHA

Fifteen alumni of Ontario Alpha made the seventh annual trip to Buffalo to see the Bills play and eat chicken wings at the Anchor Bar. This year was especially memorable as it was the first time in seven years we have seen Buffalo win (27-0) over Miami).

Of the original group that started this tradition, brothers, David "Chaz" Yakiminschak (Toronto '83), Robert Schnurr (Toronto '85), Peter Schnurr (Toronto '83) and Tony Armstrong (Toronto '82) have attended for

OREGON ALPHA

Members of Oregon Alpha from the 1950s convened for a reunion in Eugene during the August 14-16 weekend. The group was composed of those members who had lived in the house at any time during the decade of the 1950s. Neither wives nor children were included at the reunion.

The plans for the event started during the summer of 1986. The chapter secured a print-out of the alumnus and their addresses from Phi Delta Theta Headquarters. A letter was sent to those chapter alumni that currently resided outside of Oregon to inquire if they would travel to a reunion. A positive response set further plans in motion.

A summer date in 1987 was selected and hotel accommodations negotiated. In order to allow time for family vacation plans, a letter outlining the plans and costs for the weekend were mailed to all the suitable alumni in January, 1987. The acceptance checks began flowing to the organizers. Two more letters soliciting attendance were distributed prior to the gathering. Current addresses were found for about 170 of the Phis. Eighty-four attended. Alumni traveled from Columbus, Ohio, Denver, Seattle, Los Angeles, etc.

The weekend started with a reception Friday night. Films of 1954 football highlights and 1955 House Dance parties were available on VCR. Athletic competitions in golf, 10K run, basketball, and tennis took place on Saturday. A tour bus was provided Saturday afternoon to take the group to favored watering holes of the period, "Max Robinson's" and "Tiny's Tavern."

The bus's last stop was the Phi Delt chapter house, which had been opened by the chapter president. Saturday night featured a reception and dinner. The speakers were the former football coach, Len Casanova, and former Dean of Men, Dr. Ray Hawk. Following the dinner, a group of four Phi alumni provided a Dixieland Jam session. The current U. of Oregon football coach, Rich Brooks (Oregon Beta '63), and present Athletic Director, Bill Byrne, both attended the reception. The festivities concluded Sunday morning with an informal brunch.

Highlights of the weekend included a meaningful benediction by Rev. Paul Tucharhardt, a superb job as master of ceremonies at the Saturday evening dinner by Bill Landers, and a hilarious presentation of the "All-Time Greatest Phi Award" by Cal Callaway. Those in attendance melted in with one another, as if there had been no separation of time or distance. It was a remarkable display of brotherhood. Our system of selection for pledging new members was not sophisticated, but it was successful in choosing young men that had the ability to enjoy one another. It had taken diverse groups and remolded them for an exceptional three- or four-year period.

ST. PETERSBURG BEACH ALUMNI CLUB

The 1987-1988 social season for the St. Petersburg Beach Alumni Club members and their ladies went into full swing beginning with the installation of officers' banquet in September. Brother Dean Hoffman (Dickinson '41) administered the oaths of office to Clyde Railsback (LSU '41), president; Robert Morgan (Auburn '37), vice president; Richard Davis (Union '35), secretary; Gray Morgan (Georgia Tech '34), treasurer; Gerard Novario (Ohio '43), reporter; Thomas Martin (Indiana University '35), chaplain; Edward Hopper (Akron '65), historian; and Fred Houser, Jr. (North Carolina '50), warden.

Considering that some of the members had not yet returned from their northern summer seclusion, there was nevertheless a good turnout at the beautiful Breckenridge Resort Hotel located on the Gulf of Mexico at St. Petersburg Beach.

A tribute was given to brother Dean Hoffman — as outgoing reporter, as a past president, and as a charter member of the club — for his unselfish dedication of service over these many years and for his guidance in furthering the growth and development of the club and its membership. Dean, even though relinquishing some of the duties and responsibilities he has undertaken over the years and well deserving "retirement" from these duties, will still continue to be an integral and important part of the club. His past experience will be called upon quite frequently. We owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to Dean for his never-ending enthusiasm toward Phi Delta Theta. We thank you, Dean!

Following the oaths of officers, the outgoing president, Jerry Novario, presented the incoming president, Clyde Railsback, with the gavel and butt. During this solemn occasion a few words were said about the importance and tradition attached to the gavel. A few comments were then made by the outgoing president regarding his tenure in office. The incoming president then presented the outgoing president with a plaque in recognition of his services during the prior year.

Through the tireless efforts of brother Gray Morgan, who made all of the arrangements, the annual yuletide feast took place on Dec. 17, with an exceptionally large turnout at the Pass-A-Grille Yacht Club. It was most evident that the total membership had now returned to settle down to enjoy the climate, for which we are grateful, and for which we can sit back and reflect "this is what it's all about."

Members, wives, friends and guests enjoyed a succulent prime rib of beef au jus, flaming baked Alaska dinner such as only the Yacht Club can provide. This has always been one of our most enjoyable get-togethers, since it brings together brother Phis from as many different geographical areas as there are Phis, renewing lasting friendships which so represent the fellowship existing in our club. It is most evident that "it's influence extends over a life."

We welcomed brother Wendell Howard Green (Indiana '39) and his lovely wife, Evelyn, to join us and share in our yuletide feast and to join us also as a new member of our alumni club. Brother Green resides across the bay (Tampa), and he has chosen to commute in order to become associated with the St. Petersburg Beach Alumni Club. We were honored with his presence and again thank Dean Hoffman, who was instrumental toward making brother Green and his wife feel right at home. It now appears that brother Norman Beardsley (Colgate '24), who resides in Safety Harbor, may no longer claim the title of being the active member who resides the furthest from the club now that brother Green has joined us. We do have membership extending as far north as New Hampshire, Minnesota, Ohio, Rhode Island and other points East; needless to say, they make some, but not all, of our functions.

We are looking forward to our annual

Founders' Day banquet and Golden Legion ceremony to be held Feb. 26, 1988, at the Lakewood Country Club, St. Petersburg, followed on April 22, 1988, with our annual dinner/dance boat cruise on the "Captain Anderson" cruising on Boca Ciega Bay. Interspersed with this schedule of events are our bi-monthly luncheon meetings at the Pass-A-Grille Yacht Club, all of which will wind up our business-social season for 1987-1988—Gerard Novario

OREGON ALPHA: Oregon Alpha alumni initiated from 1946 through 1959 attended a reunion at the Valley River Inn in Eugene the weekend of Aug. 14-16.

RETIREMENT PARTY: George Teeder, Jr. (Florida '48) is congratulated upon his retirement as sixth circuit court judge for Broward County (Florida) by his wife, Sue, Jeannie Harris and Hugh Harris (Florida '49) at the retirement party. Teeder was named judge in December, 1960. His father, George Teeder, Sr. was named Broward Circuit Court Judge in 1929 and continued to hear cases through 1962. Thus, there has been a Teeder at the court house for the past 58 years. That ended March 1, 1988.

Wrestling Coach Overcomes Major Adversities

John Reese (Penn State '51) is ranked among the elite of wrestling coaches with over 400 career wins at tiny Wilkes College in Wilkes-Barre, PA, a small NCAA Division I school. This has occurred in spite of a glaring problem . . . no wrestling room and no weight room, a factor that is considered a near necessity for many high school programs.

These conditions might have driven a less dedicated coach to find another line of work but in coaching the Colonels to 403 wins as of this semester in his illustrious 35-year tenure is a fact that all Scroll readers can marvel and appreciate.

Two of the area high school coaches who were tutored by John Reese and whose schools have excellent facilities say it is unbelievable that he can compete at the NCAA Division I level without a wrestling room and with no weight room.

The facilities have been the same over the past 38 years as they practice against the wall at one end of the gym at the same time as basketball practice. He would be having wrestling eliminations and basketball players would come flying through on the mats.

Brother Reese guided the Colonels to an NCAA Division title in 1973 and last year established a school record of 21 wins. The school is planning to build a new gym in the next few years and 58-year-old Brother Reese who is also Wilkes' athletic director intends to be around to christen it.

This writer suggests and hopes they will name it Reese Gymnasium . . . can you recall a college wrestling coach at Oklahoma State, Oklahoma, Iowa, Iowa State, Arizona State or Penn State all boasting super wrestling programs but lacking a living coach with 403 career victories under very, very limited facilities. (As told to Dr. Davis, Scroll Sports Editor by Brother Charlie Reif (Minnesota '34) Emeritus Professor of Biology at Wilkes College.) ■

SPORTS SHORTS

DR. DONALD R. ERNST (Penn State '33) has been inducted into the West Shore Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame on Dec. 5 at New Cumberland, PA. He was inducted for outstanding endeavor and accomplishments in Master Track Meets in the Dashes and Race Walking. . . WEBB EW BANK (Miami-Ohio '28), the winning coach in two of the most memorable professional football games of all time, was honored last year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation as its 1987 "Distinguished American." EW BANK is now retired and living in Oxford, OH. He guided the Baltimore Colts to the famous 23-17 overtime victory over the New York Giants in the 1958 championship game and was at the helm of the American Football League Champion New York Jets when they pulled a stunning 16-7 upset win over the NFL's Colts in the 1968 Super Bowl. . .

STEVE TASKER (Northwestern '84) was selected by USA Today as the Most Valuable Player on Special Teams in the American Football Conference. He is also a wide receiver and kick returner for Buffalo. He blocked a punt for a safety against Denver, partially blocked three other punts and forced Dave Jennings of the Jets to run from punt formation. Against Miami, he caused a kick-off return fumble which led to a touchdown. He had 20 tackles on kick coverage, cause three fumbles and returned 11 kickoffs for a 17.9 average. . .

MIKE LUKER (Hanover '88) has been selected on the NAIA Division II's All-America team as a first team offensive wide receiver. . . Every member of the Centre College varsity basketball team for 1987-88 is a member of Phi Delta Theta. . .

TOM DAVIS (Duke '44), called by some the most "underrated player in Duke football history," was inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in May. His school records of 28 touchdowns and 168 points in a single season have endured for 43 years, as has his 79-yard punt. He also compiled a .407 career batting average in three seasons. . .

GORDON WILSON (Miami-Ohio '26), who earned three letters as a running back from 1924-26 at Miami, has been inducted into Miami's Athletic Hall of Fame. He also earned two letters as a catcher in baseball. He served as team captain in football in 1926 and was selected first team All-Buckeye Conference. For 38 years he served on Miami's English faculty until his retirement in 1972. He achieved the rank of full professor in 1960 and became professor emeritus in 1972. . . DON S. STONE (North Dakota '65) has developed a golf board game that was introduced in Winnipeg, Canada on Dec. 23, 1987. The game is currently being reviewed in the United States. He is looking for distributors and can be reached at 8 Chatham Place, Winnipeg, Manitoba R3T 4A4.

One of the eleven new members of the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame is BOB CHAPPIUS (Michigan '47) an All-American halfback in 1947. The new honorees will be formally inducted Dec. 6, 1988 at the foundation's annual awards banquet. That year Phi Delta Theta had three of the four unanimous All-American backfield selection, besides CHAPPIUS were RAY EVANS (Kansas '47) and DOAK WALKER (SMU '47). . .

The 1987-88 All-Phi basketball team is composed of eight players paced by a quartet of unanimous selections by the board.

They include Davie Steiner (McGill '90), Danny Johnson (Centre '89), Bo Wyenanot (Centre '89) and Casey Lee (Ohio Wesleyan '88).

Steiner was the Redman's leading scorer with 522 points and a 19.3 scoring average. He also nabbed 92 rebounds. Johnson had 412 points for a 17.2 scoring average plus 140 rebounds while Wyenanot had 365 points for a 15.2 score average and 163 rebounds. Lee finished strong in the second half of the season and had a 9.8 scoring average plus 131 rebounds and 56 assists for the North Coast Conference champions and the second ranked team in NCAA Division III.

Others scoring ballot points to make the honorary squad of eight were Paul Brousseau (McGill '90), with a 13.6 scoring average and a team-leading rebound total of 137; Shawn Koerner (Lawrence '89), with a 13.4 scoring average plus 66 rebounds; Mike Yates (Centre '89), with an 11.0 scoring average and 90 rebounds; and Bob Blackwood (Central Florida '90), with an 8.9 scoring average and 73 rebounds, 57 assists and a team-high 40 steals.

The cage future of the All-Phi teams appears strong as seven of the eight honorary selections are underclassmen plus another trio of performers pressing them who are also underclassmen. They include Seam Snaith (Allegheny '89) who had a 6.0 average with an 18-4 team; Tim Brack (Centre '89), who had a 7.0 average plus 57 rebounds; and Kevin O'Commell (Washington-St. Louis '89), who led the Bears in assists with 122. Brack made the All-Phi team last year. ■

APPOINTMENTS - MEETINGS - ANNOUNCEMENTS

Liability Insurance Woes Linger

Liability insurance for the general fraternity, its volunteers and its chapters will cost each chapter $63 per man in 1988-89.

This announcement was made by Rusty Richardson, director of alumni affairs, to the general officers assembled for the General Officers Conference in Atlanta on Feb. 20-21.

The computation is based on the number of undergraduates in the fraternity as reported on each chapter's Fall Roster Status Change report.

The coverage provides for one million dollars per occurrence with a five million dollar umbrella. It is written with the New Hampshire Insurance Group through the Harris and Company Associates of Louisville.

Considerable discussion followed this report. Richardson indicated that there have been claims awarded against the fraternity in the past year, but no major lawsuit. He emphasized the need for all chapters to reread and follow the NIC "Resolution on Alcohol" endorsed by the General Council.

That resolution, in part, states that "the possession, use, sale and/or consumption of alcoholic beverages on the premises of any chapter or at any entertainment or function of any chapter shall be in compliance with all applicable laws."

The greatest portion of the meeting was devoted to a discussion of the General Council's Strategic Plan (see related story on Inside Front Cover). That discussion occupied the afternoon of Feb. 20.

Officer Reports

That morning the officers heard a series of reports from Council members and general officers.

John Poole, chairman of the Survey Commission, reported that Phi Delta Theta has 166 chapters in 42 states and 6 Canadian provinces. There have been seven new chapters installed this biennium and there are also seven colonies.

Dick Galloway, chairman of the Palmer Fund, stated that there was $2.5 million in the fund with $1,665,000 loaned to 52 chapters. The average loan is $35,000. Interest rates are 8% for a first mortgage and 6% for a second mortgage.

The Educational Foundation has recently moved to a calendar year according to Roger Cerne, trustee. He indicated that all contributions to the fraternity are now placed in the Foundation, thus making them all tax-deductible.

Last year the annual fund campaign raised $528,342 from 8,945 donors. This is compared with $529,942 from 9,100 donors in 1986.

He reported that the Foundation has $2.7 million in total assets and experienced a $300,000 drop in assets last quarter due to the stock market plunge.

In 1988 the Foundation has voted to allocate interest earnings in the following areas: Consultants — $12,700; Banta Library — $7,300; Salaries — $17,000; Scholarships — $65,000; and brochure — $4,600. The brochure has already been produced and distributed.

He emphasized the fact that 13 "named funds" have been established by gifts of $363,000. A "named fund" requires a minimum gift of $25,000.

The goal for 1988 is to raise $600,000 from 10,000 donors and to provide increased support for the consultant program and the Leadership College.

Ritual Study

Sunday morning Fr. David Turner lead a discussion on the fraternity ritual. Oliver Samuel, chairman of the ritual committee, discussed the results of a questionnaire sent to all chapters regarding use of the ritual.

Turner reported that the committee was developing an opening and closing ceremony to be used by pledge classes and colonies. He then described some major changes being considered in the second and third acts of the initiation ceremony.

John Dudack, chairman of the General Council nominating committee, announced that nine individuals have currently announced their intention to run for the council at the Dallas Convention.

J.W. "Bill" Stitt will run for president. Frank Abernathy and Fr. Turner will run for re-election to the Council. Al Glover, Arby Dickert, Stan Gilson, Mark Hobson, Ed Whipple and Tom Holling will run for election to the Council for the first time.

Other Reports

Other reports during the conference included:

- Whipple reporting on the Leadership College conducted last summer and the upcoming one scheduled for the Dallas Convention.

- Turner reporting on a new program being considered by the Council called the "Certified Volunteer Education Program" whereby a volunteer could receive this designation after completion of experiences, study modules and exams.

- Stan Brown reporting on his work as housing commissioner.

- Stitt, treasurer of the Council, giving the financial report as of Dec. 31, 1987 (see story on Inside Front Cover).

- Bob Biggs, director of chapter services, reporting on plans for the Dallas Convention.

- Fred Dunn, province president, discussing the need for AIDS education programs within the fraternity.

- Cline Young, public relations commissioner, reporting on public relations activity within the fraternity and community service activity.

- Bill Dean, editor of The Scroll, reporting on the finances and content of the magazine. ■

Fraternity Receives Citation

Phi Delta Theta has qualified for the first level of recognition in the President's Citation Program for Private Sector Initiatives. Phi Delta Theta now can fly the red, white, and blue "C-Flag" (the program's symbol) which states, "We can and we care."

The Citation Program, developed in 1984 by the White House Office of Private Sector Initiatives, annually recognizes organizations making extraordinary contributions to their communities and encourages other businesses and associates to develop similar volunteer programs. As President Reagan has remarked, "Only by working together and finding some private solutions to public problems, can we restore the strong balance needed for the future health of our nation."

Phi Delta Theta is now eligible to be considered for the top 100 awards and citations to be presented by President Reagan at the White House Rose Garden next spring. Programs that are chosen exemplify exceptional volunteer/community outreach efforts.

WHITE AWARD: Oliver Samuel, province president of Mu West Province, presents the General Fraternity with a trophy featuring a bust of William Allen White on behalf of the chapters of Mu West. The trophy will be given to the winner of the Outstanding Alumni Newsletter.

FLAG: Congressman Donald E. "Buz" Lukens presents "C-Flag" to Bob Biggs, director of chapter services.

Florida Alpha Phis Share Unique Distinction

Florida Alpha Phi Delt's point with justifiable pride to the fact that two of its members are members of the state's University System Board of Regents. The unique thing about it is that one of those members is an undergraduate student.

Ed Scales (Florida '88) was appointed by Florida Governor Martinez to serve on the board last August. In 1977 the Florida Legislature expanded the board by adding to its membership a student from one of the universities.

Florida's university system is the fifth largest in the nation with nine campuses, 150,000 students, some 8,500 faculty members and a budget of $1.4 billion.

Dillon Joins Phi Delt Staff

Jeffrey Alan Dillon (Kearney State '87) joined the fraternity staff in January as a chapter consultant and has been visiting chapters this spring.

DILLION

He graduated from Kearney State in Nebraska with a B.S. in organizational speech communications. In the Nebraska Beta chapter he held the positions of IFC representative, house manager (two terms), steward, social chairman, historian and president. He was treasurer of the Interfraternity Council.

The chapter named him "Active of the Year" for 1986-87. He was also nominated to attend two General Conventions.

The new consultant was born and raised in Grand Island, NE and earned 80% of his college expenses through summer employment and part-time jobs while attending Kearney. His interests include traveling, photography, sports and fishing. ■

The other Phi on the board is J. Hyatt Brown (Florida '59) of Daytona Beach. He is a former member and speaker of the Florida House of Representatives. He was appointed to the board in 1982.

Scales is a senior telecommunications major at Florida with a 3.61 grade point average. He is the director of student lobbying and has served one term on the Florida Student Senate. In Florida Alpha he has served as scholarship chairman, chairman of the executive board and vice president.

SCALES

He also finds time to be the "mike man" for the cheerleading squad at Florida for varsity football and basketball. In addition he is a member of Blue Key and the Campus Communications, Inc. Board of Directors.

He has won several scholarships including the Harold E. Fellows $1,000 Broadcasting Scholarship and the $1,000 Florida Academic Scholarship, which he has won four times.

He has worked at a Gainesville television station and as an announcer for five Florida radio stations. In addition, he has served as a Senate Page for Florida Senate President Curtis Peterson.

Brown was first elected to the Florida House in 1972 and was subsequently reelected. He was elected speaker from 1978-80 and was named "Most Effective Member of the House in 1977 and 1978."

In Daytona Beach he was a past president of the Area Chamber of Commerce and is a Shriner as well as being a member of Kiwanis. ■

Colorado Gamma Returns To Colorado State

BY RICH GROKOPF
BRETT PETERSEN
BENJAMIN MOMENT

Colorado Gamma chapter of Phi Delta Theta was reinstated at Colorado State University in Fort Collins, Colorado, on Feb. 6, 1988.

Father David Turner (Minnesota '70), General Council, Robert A. Biggs (Georgia Southern '76), director of Chapter services, directed the ceremonies. On Friday, Feb. 5, 1988, all 33 Colony members were initiated into Phi Delta Theta.

The charter, which had originally been granted to Colorado Gamma in 1920, was lost in 1974 due to the strong anti-fraternity sentiment of that era. However, with the guidance of our advisor Erik Nilsson, Province President Larry Anderson, and the original interest group, we were determined to see the charter returned. It is that determination, combined with hard work, which has created a strong Phi Delt chapter out of a Colony in little over a year.

The interest group was started by Brian Stevenson, George Randhawa, and Benjamin R. Moment. The first group consisted of 19 men just prior to the Christmas of 1986. In January of 1987 only eight of these men returned. But on Feb. 28, the interest group expanded to 28. A second rush was started in late March and we recruited five more men, and in fall of '87 we added another eight men.

Initiation for the men of Colorado Gamma was held at the John XXIII church in Fort Collins, Colorado. The new initiates are: Rex Morford, Tim Galloway, Benjamin R. Moment, Brian Stephenson, Greg Robleck, George Randhawa, Mark Pojar, Vance Stillman, Greg Nelson, Mark Nixon, Craig Edwards, John Payne, Thomas Hall, Chris Tensen, Jim Rominger, Eric Semp, Chris Hedlund, Steve Krusko, Doug Pojar, Allen Nielson, Brett Petersen, Jon Morris, Ken Abalos, Chris Zanon, Doug Yee, Steve Mandell, Sidney Jefferson, Rich Groskopf, Mark Hanson, Paul Hickman, Lane Palmer, Tim Goscha, and Scott Vincent. Advisor, Erik Nilsson.

Approximately 200 parents, alumni, University officials, and presidents and vice presidents of fellow greek societies at CSU were in attendance.

The highlight of the ceremony included a reenactment of the original founding of the fraternity. With Turner directing the service, other Phi Delt alumni represented the six founding fathers.

In the midst of the ceremony, the brothers and current Phikeia's rose from their seats and serenaded the audience with melodic renditions of, "Phi Delta Theta! We Will Always Be True", and "Tell Me Why" that would have left the six founders themselves very proud. Following our singing came the climax; our president, Tim Galloway, handed Colorado Gamma's returned charter by Turner. This, in turn, was followed by joyous cheering and hearty congratulatory handshakes.

Later that morning the brothers, alumni, parents, and other invitees attended a reception at our newly acquired house which featured a delicious buffet. In addition, a golden legion ceremony was held for brother Harold Werner (Colorado State '37).

The future for Phi Delta Theta at Colorado State looks very bright. We recently purchased one of the finest, if not the finest houses on campus. The Spring Rush has brought us 18 outstanding Phikeias. The entire greek system at CSU is astonished with the Phi Delt and realize that the brothers in the bond are a formidable force. We ourselves are assured that our Charter will never again be lost. ■

Leadership For A Lifetime

BY ROBERT J. MILLER, PRESIDENT
Phi Delta Theta Educational Foundation

During the 1987 campaign year just ended, 8,945 persons made a total of 9,648 gifts as a means of expressing much needed support for various educational programs. In doing so, these brothers and friends of the Fraternity helped sponsor the Fraternity's chapter consultant visitation program, the scholarships which are awarded to deserving undergraduate members of the Fraternity, the Phi Delta Theta Leadership College and the David D. Banta Memorial Library.

Forty scholarships, totaling $70,950, were awarded this year, bringing the lifetime total of awards to 506 scholarships, representing over half a million dollars.

The chapter consultant program received 10 percent of its operating cost from the Foundation, while approximately 20 percent of the Leadership College expense was funded with a grant from the Foundation. The entire operating cost of the David D. Banta Memorial Library is assumed by the income from the Foundation investments.

When the final curtain fell on 1987 gifts, the total dollar value was approximately $1,600 short of the 1986 campaign. This was thought by many to be a moral victory in light of the 1986 amendment to the U. S. tax law.

The Founders Club

The year 1987 was a banner year for Phi Delta Theta in the form of three newly-installed members of the Founders Club, namely, P. Nicholas McDaniel (Westminster '43), Marvin J. Perry (Maryland '53) and Elliott A. Johnson (Chicago '27).

For his gift to the Foundation, Brother McDaniel chose a charitable remainder unitrust, the first gift of this type reported to the Foundation trustees. This plan calls for income from the trust to be paid to Brother McDaniel during his lifetime and, upon his death, the principal of the trust will be awarded to the Foundation. This being an irrevocable trust, it qualifies for Founders Club recognition.

Brother McDaniel was initiated by the Missouri Beta chapter at Westminster College where he graduated in 1943. He later attended the Pacific Coast Banking School and graduated from the Harvard-Hawaii Advance Management School in 1963. He was employed by the Bank of Hawaii from 1947 until his retirement in 1984. He has served as treasurer of the Hawaii chapter of the American Red Cross, chairman of the board of the Hawaii Heart Association, a member of Civil Service Commission, a director of Ducks Unlimited and has been actively involved in golf, serving as a director of the Oahu Country Club and the Wailae Country Club. He has been recognized as a Sentinel of the Columns by Westminster College and was presented with a certificate of recognition by the U. S. Golf Association, both in 1986.

Perry is an initiate of the University of Maryland chapter, where he graduated in 1952. He served as a field secretary (now chapter consultant) on the General Headquarters staff from 1953 to 1955. He then became a manufacturers representative, specializing in sales to the United States Government and located his office in Washington, D.C. In the intervening years, he has served as president of Delta Province for the Fraternity and is currently a trustee of the Educational Foundation.

When he was not busy in his profession traveling to countries all around the world, he found time to serve as president of his chapter's house corporation, president of the Washington, D.C. Alumni Club and president of the University of Maryland Terrapin Club. He currently serves as a trustee for the University of Maryland Foundation. In his trade, he has been recognized as one of the top three representatives in the country. Marv's recognition in the Founders Club is based on a paid-up life insurance policy he presented to the Foundation.

Johnson was initiated by the Illinois Beta chapter on January 17, 1925. He helped revive the Houston Phi Delta Theta Alumni Club many years ago and is credited with keeping it alive through the World War II years and has served as its president on two occasions. His club has recognized him as the "Phi of the Year." Many years ago, he committed the Golden Legion ceremony to memory and is called on annually to conduct the ritual and present the awards to candidates in the Houston area. He was recognized by the general fraternity in 1980, when he was presented the "Ray Gardner Award" recognizing him as the Fraternity's outstanding alumnus for that year.

PERRY

Brother Johnson has been active in higher education, serving on the board of trustees of three colleges and universities. In greater Houston, he has been interested in the American Petroleum Institute, the Better Business Bureau, the Boy Scouts of America, the Profit-sharing Council of America and the Houston Association of Credit Men, to name a few, all of which he served as a board member. Elliott spent most of his Houston life with Schlumberger Well Surveying Corporation, from which he retired in 1968. He currently practices law, runs his ranch and continues to serve on the boards of several business, financial and civic institutions.

Named Fund

Gifts of $25,000 or more are named as the donor requests. The Foundation is indebted to the family of the late J. Willard Marriott (Utah '25) for making a challenge gift equal to the amount of money contributed by the undergraduate and alumni brothers of Utah Alpha (University of Utah) during 1986.

Through a special effort of the Utah brothers, a total of $25,645 was raised and that sum was matched by the Marriott family during the 1987 campaign year. This enabled the Foundation to establish the J. Willard Marriott named fund in recognition of a devoted brother who retained an interest in his fraternity throughout life.

Memorial Gifts

Again this year, memorial gifts played a significant role in the fund-raising program. When such gifts are received, they are acknowledged to the donor and recognition of the gift is forwarded to the family of the deceased. A gift in memory of a member or close friend of the Fraternity serves as a lasting testimonial.

Matching Gifts

Many companies participate in a matching gift program. Contributions given by current or retired employees or directors and/or their spouses, which meet the specific guidelines established by the individual company, will be matched at least one-to-one. Matching gifts are added to the contributions of the individual in determining gift level recognition. A partial list of corporate matching gift programs is displayed with this article.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: One of the most visited programs of the fraternity is its community service activities. Over $1,200 was raised by Phi Deltas at Eastern Kentucky for the ALS Association last September. The chapter sponsored its first annual golf scramble in Louisville at the Bobby Nichols Golf Course.

INSTALLATION: How sweet it is! Newly initiated brothers at Marshall University display their new charter designating their chapter as West Virginia Beta. Phi Delta Theta only attempts to locate on quality campuses where chances are very good that the chapter can grow and develop.

Chapter Services Staffing

John Poole, chairman of the Survey Commission, pointed out that the fraternity desperately needs a staff person to handle growth and retention of chapters. This duty is now handled by Bob Biggs, director of chapter services. "This does not give him the proper amount of time to do his job with chapters and our consultants," said Poole.

The strategic plan developed by the Council calls for a new position, assistant director of chapter services.

Business Concerns

Rusty Richardson, director of alumni services, also pointed out the need for additional staffing. "The alumni program is stagnant," he said. "We need to actively develop new alumni clubs. This will generate more active support for chapters.

GENERAL CONVENTION
INCOME AND EXPENSES FOR 1988
INCOME:
$125 x 4 installments x 165 chapters/colonies	$ 82,500
Registration fees	$ 27,000
Total Income	$109,500
EXPENSES:
Projected expenses for 1988
Convention	$155,000
Net cost to General Fraternity	$ 45,500

"This points up the need for someone to handle things like the computer program and the liability insurance program." Both of these areas have been assigned to Richardson and they have taken so much of his time that he has not had enough time to devote to alumni affairs.

The strategic plan also asks for a position to be called the director of business affairs.

Space Needs

"The fraternity also has a critical need for more space, but we have little ability to expand in our present facility," stated Bob Miller, executive vice president.

Miller suggested three alternatives:

- 1—expand our present facility
- 2—rent or purchase space near-by
- 3—sell the present facility and build a new facility

"In order to expand our present facility we would need to get a variance from the City of Oxford to provide fewer parking spaces than is currently required," he said. "Our best bet might be to secure adjacent property if it becomes available."

Again, the strategic plan recommends expanding the current headquarters building.

The officers agreed that fee increases were needed. Possible increases considered were pledge fees, initiation fees, and the possible implementation of annual dues along with increased charges for the Convention Fund and the Leadership College. The intent of the last two increases would simply be to make income match expenses. ■

Three Honored At General Convention

A Legion of Merit medal was awarded to Dr. W. H. Sterg O'Dell (Iowa '40) and Legion of Honor designations were given to Elden T. Smith (Iowa Wesleyan '32) and Dr. Charles E. Wicks (Willamette '47) at the Grand Banquet of the Dallas Convention this summer.

The following introductory remarks were made by President Tal Bray prior to making the presentations to each Phi:

Dr. W. H. Sterg O'Dell

March 3, 1940 was the date this brother was initiated into the Iowa Beta chapter at the University of Iowa. He also received his master's degree at this institution and was awarded a Ph.D from Harvard University in 1949.

Following four years as a high school instructor, he became a member of the English department at Massachusetts Institute of Technology and also served as professor of English and Dean of the College at Colorado College. He has also served as a visiting professor of English at Roberts College in Istanbul, Turkey.

In 1956, this brother joined the English department at Drexel University, where he taught literature and language until he retired in 1970 in order to travel and write.

He holds numerous memberships in various academic, technical and social organizations. He is an authority on certain types of dogs and is frequently called upon to lecture and judge at the most important dog shows.

He is known by his friends as a very agreeable and self-efacing scholar of a very high order — a warm and thoughtful person, who works quietly behind the scenes.

This brother is responsible for financing a program of placing a computer for the use of the members in the chapter at Iowa Beta.

A named scholarship in his honor is presented by the Phi Delta Theta Educational Foundation each year to a member of Iowa Beta.

He is also a member of the select group of Phis belonging to the Phi Delta Theta Educational Foundation Founders Club.

While this brother and his wife prefer anonymity in their acts of generosity, we wish, on this occasion, to publicly convey on him the Phi Delta Theta Legion of Merit. Brothers, may I present Brother W. H. Sterg O'Dell.

Elden T. Smith

Initiated on February 16, 1929, as Bond #461, by the Ohio Beta chapter at Ohio Wesleyan University, this Phi served Phi Delta Theta in a number of positions:

President, Sigma Province, 1954-56; Scholarship Commissioner, 1958-62; Member-at-Large, General Council, 1962-64; Reporter, General Council, 1964-68; and Survey Commissioner, 1969-74.

In addition, he served as president of the fraternity Scholarship Association and the Ohio Association of Student Personnel Administrators. He is also a member of Omicron Delta Kappa and Delta Sigma Rho.

Following 20 years on the faculty at Bowling Green State University, six years as Dean of Students, he returned to his Alma Mater (Ohio Wesleyan) as Provost, was named vice president for academic affairs that same year and was elected the 11th president in June 1962.

It was during his presidency at Ohio Wesleyan University that this brother was elected to the General Council and served unselfishly in that capacity for several years.

This brother has gained a respect and admiration for competence during his years of service both at the university and fraternity levels.

He and his lovely wife, Betty, who is now deceased, attended many Phi Delta Theta conventions

General Officers Meeting

The general officers met on Thursday morning prior to the opening of the Convention for updates and a review of the Convention itself.

Bob Biggs (Georgia Southern '76), director of chapter services who was this year's Convention manager, went over the entire Convention calendar. He reported that the fraternity expected 166 chapters to be represented with 550 delegates and visitors attending.

C. Tal Bray (South Florida '65), President of the GC, covered the General Council election process and Fr. David Turner (Minnesota '70), GC Reporter, gave a progress report on activities of the Council during the Biennium. The highlight of that report was the fact that 11 new chapters had been established at Southern Indiana, California-Riverside, Marshall, California Polytechnic State University, Florida International, West Chester University, Colorado State, the University of Victoria, California State-Chico, Rutgers, and Kent State.

Also highlighted was the new Leadership College conducted at general headquarters in the summer of 1987 and the development of a strategic long-range plan for the fraternity.

Proposed code changes were discussed by Jim Holmes (Arizona '51), chairman of the Code committee.

Stitt, GC treasurer, passed out copies of the quarterly financial report and a projected financial report as of the end of this biennium (June 30, 1988). He also passed out and discussed fact sheets relative to the fee increase proposals.

Opening Session

President Bray delivered a brief address at the opening session on Thursday night. He expressed thanks to the Dallas Alumni Club and especially its president, Mike Gaylor (Texas Tech '81). He also thanked Phi from Fort Worth, Arlington, Texas Zeta at TCU, Texas Kappa at UT-Arlington and Texas Delta at SMU.

He reflected on his ten years on the General Council and asked 26 chapter delegates to stand. Those 26 chapters had been added during his years as a GC member.

Bray talked about the Strategic long-range plan being reviewed by the Council and the general officers. "Some of these plans have become reality while others are still a dream," he said.

He mentioned that the Council had developed 13 specific goals to be reached in the plan. He touched on

GENERAL COUNCIL: (Clockwise from upper left) C. Tal Bray (South Florida '65), outgoing president of the General Council, receives a briefing from Robert J. Miller (New Mexico '50), executive vice president. Other council members include J. W. (Bill) Stitt (Mississippi '54), newly elected GC president, Fr. David Turner (Minnesota '70), and Frank Abernathy (Richmond '60).

FORMER GC PRESIDENTS: Tal Bray (South Florida '65) (standing far right), outgoing GC President, visits with former GC Presidents. They include SITTING—Emmett J. Junge (Nebraska '26), Stan Brown (Nebraska-UCLA '36), Howard E. Young (Southwestern Texas '46), Lothar A. Vasholz (Colorado '52), and Douglas M. Phillips (New Mexico '49); STANDING—T. the accomplishments of the Council during the biennium.

"I am impressed by the work of our volunteers," he said. "We need to remember as we look toward our 15th decade that the real importance of our fraternity is in words, feelings and ideas — those things that represent the teachings of our Bond."

He acknowledged lessons he had learned from departed brothers Hal Minnich, John Harding, Verlin Jenkins and Warren Smith.

"By 1990, whether we like it or not we will have grown to 200 plus chapters with 120 plus alumni clubs," he said. In a direct reference to the fee increases proposed at the Convention he stated that the fraternity must be willing to move forward.

"We rank 49th out of 50 fraternities in four-year cost of membership," he said. "We need to expand our headquarters staff to provide necessary services. We will present a projected operating deficit of $42,000 for this biennium to the Convention. When we decide what to do about the Code changes calling for fee increases we must ask 'What is best for Phi Delta Theta?'" he concluded.

At the beginning of the session past presidents of the General Council were introduced. They included Emmett J. Junge (Nebraska '26), 1948-50; Stanly D. Brown (Nebraska-UCLA '36), 1966-68; Howard E. Young (Southwestern Texas '46), 1968-70; Lothar A. Vasholz (Colorado '52), 1974-76; Douglas M. Phillips (New Mexico '49), 1976-78; T. Glen Cary (Texas Tech '56), 1978-80; Bruce F. Thompson (Minnesota '49), 1980-82; and Dr. Charles E. Wicks (Willamette '47), 1982-84.

Also introduced was Dr. Eldon T. Smith (Ohio Wesleyan '32), a GC member from 1962 to 1966.

The current council members were also introduced followed by the singing of The Star Spangled Banner and O'Canada, led by a chorus from Texas Kappa. They also sang the Doxology and Eternal Praise.

George Atwell (Maryland '55) gave the invocation.

Following Bray's remarks, Gaylor, the Dallas Alumni Club president, for each candidate be given a total of seven minutes to speak. These recommendations were adopted.

Dick Galloway (Akron '63), chairman of the Palmer Foundation, reported that there was currently $2.6 million in the fund with $1.7 million in 54 outstanding loans to 52 chapters. He said that six new loans had been given this year with 11 pending. The Foundation has voted to raise the maximum loan from $75,000 to $100,000 on both first and second mortgage loans. Interest rates remain 6% on second mortgage loans and 8% on first mortgage loans.

Bray announced that Bruce Thompson and David Norman (SMU '89) had been appointed parliamentarians of the Convention. He presented a gift of General Council robes in memory of Martha Bray (his deceased mother), Hal Minnich, John Harding, Verlin Jenkins and Warren Smith.

Code Changes

Most of the Code changes took place at the Friday morning session. Jim Holmes (Arizona '51), chairman of the Code Committee, introduced various committee members who placed the proposed changes before the Convention.

After a lengthy debate and the defeat of three proposed amendments, the delegates passed the proposed fee changes by a vote of 182 to 34. The changes raise the pledge fee from $20 to $50 and the initiation fee from $100 to $175.

Another change which would have given the General Council the power to determine on an annual basis by July 1 a fee adjustment not to exceed five percent of both fees was tabled.

The delegates then voted to raise the $125 semi-annual cap on charges to the chapters for delegate expenses to the Convention to $250 by a vote of 179 to 15. They voted to raise the semi-annual $60 cap on expenses charged the chapter for delegates to attend the Leadership School to $100 by a vote of 181 to 13.

By a unanimous vote the delegates added the Canadian Scholarship Foundation delegate to the list

Bob Fitzpatrick (Maryland '58), Convention warden, explained the work of the Wardens Committee and asked for cooperation from all delegates.

The candidates for the General Council were introduced just prior to the closing of the session.

Earlier the delegates heard several committee reports. Bob Heister (Pittsburgh '76), chairman of the committee on credentials, reported that his committee had met with ten delinquent chapters and recommended that they be seated at the Convention. The recommendation was adopted.

Weldon Schaefer (Texas Tech '59), chairman of the procedures committee, reported that his committee recommended that delegates must vote for all unfilled vacancies on each ballot in the General Council election and that a candidate must receive 50% of the vote to be elected. They also recommended that nominators of voting delegates at the Convention and made the change effective immediately.

A motion to make changes to Section 106 dealing with officers' expenses to the Convention was tabled, as was a change to Section 125.2 to create an Educational Foundation representative in each chapter.

The only change that was defeated was a proposal to allow chapters to incorporate with the written consent of the General Council. Although the vote was 121 to 51 in favor it lacked the necessary three-fourths vote to pass.

Free Enterprise Luncheon

Former Texas Congressman Jim Collins (SMU '37) was presented the Nance-Millett Award by Bray at the Free Enterprise Luncheon Friday at noon.

The award, given by Dr. John D. Millett (DePauw '33) and the late James J. Nance (Ohio Wesleyan '23), honors an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the free enterprise system.

Collins reflected on his 50 years in the fraternity. "Phi Delta Theta has been an absolute inspiration to my life from the very beginning," he said.

He urged the delegates to develop a code of life. "Draw up a blueprint," he said. "Learn from the past, live in the present and build for the future. Too much emphasis is placed on living in the present."

ACTIVITY: There was plenty of activity scheduled for the ladies (top) who attended the convention. On June 17 the Dallas Alumni Club arranged for all delegates and visitors to attend the Mesquite Rodeo in Mesquite, TX (middle). Mike Gaylor (Texas Tech '80) (right) was in charge of the host committee of the Dallas Alumni Club.

He told the gathering that success in business is not achieved by just being lucky. It takes dedication and hard work. He illustrated his point by describing the careers of two highly successful Dallas businessmen — Trammel Crow and H. Ross Perot.

"Know your business from the ground up," he said. "Then, be a

Collins is currently the president of Consolidated Industries, Inc., which is active in timber and cattle.

Ameritech Prosperes Under Weiss

When the breakup of AT&T took place in 1984 analysts generally yawned at Ameritech (American Information Technologies Corporation), the Chicago-based parent of the Bell companies serving Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and Wisconsin.

They aren't yawning anymore.

The primary reason is the leadership of William L. Weiss (Penn State '51), chairman and CEO. Ameritech began by solidly out-performing her competitors and turned in the highest return on equity and earning per share of any of the seven regional Bell firms the first year following divestiture.

Decentralizing

The Weiss style is one of decentralizing authority, easier said than done in a company of 75,000 employees. "People don't go off in any way they please," he said. "There is a carefully managed balance that emphasizes innovation."

He meets monthly with the presidents of the five operating companies and twice a year sits down with them and other Ameritech officers for several days to review policy.

He is viewed by those inside and outside the company as a "nice guy who is also a very good businessman." Insiders describe him as a patient listener who weighs everything, makes a decision and then goes on to the next problem or concern.

An industry veteran says, "He is tough but fair and I like that. He sets targets. His companies have had continuous bond upgrades, he's met earning objectives, and demonstrated nice dividend growth." (The Wall Street Transcript 6-16-86). As a result of his leadership The Wall Street Transcript named him as winner of the top Gold Medal Award in the telephone utilities industry for 1984 and followed that with its 1985 Silver Award.

Conservative Approach

Crain's Chicago Business (4-8-85) credited Ameritech's initial success to its conservative new business direction. "Instead of getting involved in business ventures outside the phone business as many other Bell Companies did, Ameritech concentrated on what it does best — phone service."

"By resisting the siren call of businesses outside telecommunications, Ameritech has positioned itself for long-term growth in high-margin segments of its core business, without cutting off its chances to enter new fields at a later — and more profitable — date," the Chicago business publication stated.

Weiss grew up in western Pennsylvania where his father was a partner in a grocery store. He attended Penn State where he became a member of Phi Delta Theta.

WEISS

Early Career

He began his career in 1951 when he joined Bell of Pennsylvania. He rose through that company's management ranks, becoming a vice president in 1973. He was named vice president of operations for Wisconsin Telephone (now Wisconsin Bell) in 1976, president of Indiana Bell in 1978 and president and chief executive officer of Illinois Bell in 1981. He was appointed chairman and chief executive officer of Illinois Bell in 1982, and served in that capacity as chairman and CEO-designate of Ameritech until the divestiture on Jan. 1, 1984.

He was named as a 1984 "Achiever" by USA Today and was added to Financial World's CEO Honor Roll that same year. Penn State named him a Distinguished Alumnus for 1986.

He serves on the boards of such corporate giants as Quaker Oats, USG and Continental Illinois.

Ameritech is widely viewed as one of the most progressive holding companies, especially in terms of competition and cost-based pricing, all of which add the weight of credibility to Weiss's stances. (Communications Week, 12-14-87).

Illinois Bell Telephone Co. and Indiana Bell Telephone Co. were the first to tailor rate high-end centrex services to specific customers and Ameritech was the first to implement a workable rate structure for local measured service. In the Chicago metropolitan area, residences and businesses pay only for the phone service they use—no more, no less. (Communication Week, 12-14-87.)

Critic of Regulation

Weiss has been a constant critic of U.S. District Judge Harold H. Greene's decision to maintain the business restrictions the divestiture agreement places on the Bell companies. He regularly takes federal regulators to task in public speeches because he feels the courtroom is not an effective place to understand and create policies that deal with the issues.

But then, he also criticized AT&T for centralizing authority and taking decision-making far away from customers.

Fortunately, he has done a lot more at Ameritech than talk.

Weiss is a trustee of a number of institutions, including the Committee for Economic Development, Northwestern University, Museum of Science and Industry, Chicago Symphony Orchestra and Lyric Opera of Chicago. He is chairman of the Commercial Club of Chicago's Information Industry Council, a director of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations and a member of the Business Roundtable and the Conference Board.

He served two years as a U.S. Air Force officer. He and his wife, Jo, live in Chicago, and have three grown children. ■

GREEN VALLEY

The Phi Delta Theta Alumni Club of Green Valley, Arizona, held its Founders Day Dinner March 8 at the Country Club of Green Valley with 59 members and guests present — a record attendance.

Steve Emerine, director of publication services for the University of Arizona, was the guest speaker. Four members received their Golden Legion awards: Norman P. Dunlap (Iowa Gamma '38), Frank N. Warren (Kansas '38), Charles J. Ogara (Arizona '40) and Robert W. Stabler (UCLA '40).

We were also honored to have the alumni chapter's eldest member present at the dinner, Charles A. (Buck) Rowe (Gettysburg '19). "Buck" began his career as a flier in World War I with the U.S. Navy. His career was featured in the alumni section of the March 1956 edition of the Scroll.

Robert Stabler, one of the Golden Legion recipients, is a veteran television and motion picture producer. In 1948 Stabler met the film cowboy, William Boyd — "Hopalong Cassidy". He became general manager of Boyd's Enterprises and converted the old "Hoppy" movies to the television medium. They were an instant hit. He was also involved in the production of "Gunsmoke", "Have Gun Will Travel" and "Death Valley Days".

We continue to grow — we now have a roster of 32 members.—Ralph D. Doubler
HOUSTON

The Phi Delta Theta Alumni Club of Houston held their annual Founder's Day Party on February 24. The site of the function was the prestigious Houston Country Club.

This year's Founder's Day Party was very special because Phi Delta Theta's Executive Vice President Robert J. Miller was on hand to make a special presentation to honor Elliott Johnson. Johnson was initiated into Illinois Beta in January of 1925. He has been a very loyal supporter of the Fraternity over the years and was honored as the International Phi of the Year in 1980. Miller presented Johnson with a painting of the Phi Delta Theta founding site at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio.

A ceremony followed honoring the Golden Legion and Silver Legion inductees. Allen H. Carruth (Texas '38) and Jacob J. Eige (Westminster '38) were honored for 50 years of membership. For details about upcoming alumni functions, please contact Basil A. MacDonald at 713/654-3780.

LUBBOCK

Lubbock's Alumni Club held a very successful Founders Day on April 20 featuring Tal Bray, president of the General Council. The event attracted 33 alumni and 75 undergraduates.

In his address, Bray gave an overview of Phi Delta Theta internationally stating that we now have 166 chapters across the U.S. and in Canada. He said that more than 173,000 have signed the bond and emphasized the three cardinal principles on which

He quoted Robert Morrison: "To do what ought to be done but that would not have been done unless I did it, I thought to be my duty." The quote summarizes how Phi Delta live life and excel beyond the average.

Doug Talley, chapter president, gave a state of the chapter report in which he summarized the scholarship, religious and community service areas of the fraternity.

Neb Brooks (Oklahoma '31) was inducted in a ceremony conducted by Bill Dean, chapter adviser. The event was put together by Roy Grimes and Ritchie Thornton, alumni secretary.

MACON, GA

On March 4, the revitalized Macon, Georgia, Phi Delta Theta Alumni Chapter held an outstanding Founders Day Banquet.

After two years of inactivity, the Macon alumni club was reactivated by its new president, R. C. Souder (Mercer '40), in January of this year. Other officers elected at the time were Sam Jones (Georgia Tech '66), vice president and president-elect; Lee Wood, treasurer; and Jack Holliday (Georgia Tech '44), secretary. The main purpose of the reorganization was to have a good Founders Day Banquet to get Phi Deltas in the middle part of the state back together at a function. The result was beyond expectations. Hoping for 80 or 90 people, we had an attendance of 160.

The dinner was held at Rosewood, a local restaurant. Speaker of the evening was Bob Steed, (Mercer '58), Chairman of Mercer's Board of Trustees, a partner in the Atlanta law firm of King and Spalding, author of several books, and a newspaper columnist.

HOUSTON: Elliott Johnson (Chicago '27) (center) was presented a Founders Club portrait by Bob Miller, executive vice president, at the Houston Founders Day while Dr. Fred Garrett (Kansas State '57), Mark Hobson (S. F. Austin '77), Howard Young (Southwestern-Texas '45), Basil MacDonald (Texas '81) and John W. Worsham (Texas '51) observe.

MACON: Tom Flournoy presented Golden Legion certificates to Billy Geeslin, Ed Claxton, Dr. John M. Martin, Dr. Walter M. Watts, Bill Adams, Joseph R. Struby, Lee Wood, Jr., and Leon H. Garfield (all Mercer '38 except Claxton who was Georgia '38) at the Macon Alumni Club Founders Day.

A highlight of the evening was the presentation of Golden Legion certificates to eight men who were initiated into Phi Delta Theta Fraternity in 1938. Seven were initiated into the Mercer Chapter, Georgia Gamma. They are: Lee Wood, Jr. and Bill Adams, both of Macon; Leon Garfield, III of Monroe, Louisiana; Joe Struby of Millbrook, Alabama; Billy Geeslin of Longboat Key, Florida; Dr. Walter Watts, Jr. of Ashville, North Carolina; and Dr. John M. Martin of Augusta, GA. The eighth recipient was Ed Claxton of Dublin who was initiated fifty years ago in Georgia Alpha Chapter of the University of Georgia.

Six additional brothers who are already members of the Phi Delta Theta Golden Legion were recognized. Particular recognition was given to Nelson D. Mallery, who celebrated his 100th birthday this past year. He is the oldest living initiate of Georgia Gamma Chapter at Mercer, being initiated in September 1905.

John Jackson, executive vice president of the Atlanta Club, brought his wife Sue and showed plans for the remodeling of the Georgia Delta House at Georgia Tech.

MACON: Bob Steed, chairman of Mercer's board of trustees, was the featured speaker at the Macon Founders Day dinner.

NASHVILLE

On April 6, the Nashville Alumni Club observed Founders Day at the University Club on the campus of Vanderbilt University. As always, it was a packed house with over 130 alumni and undergraduates enjoying a fine evening.

After an excellent meal, President Bill Estes (Vanderbilt '55) welcomed everyone to the banquet and noted that 22 various chapters were represented. Bill then called upon Jack Braden (Vanderbilt '63), Eta South Province President, to give an update on the status of the chapters within the province.

OREGON ALPHA

The 12th reunion of the Oregon Alpha alumni attracted 55 Phis and sweethearts. Plans are already underway for the next reunion scheduled for June 18, 19 and 20, 1989.

The program consisted of a Sunday evening dinner, a golf outing on Monday followed by another dinner and a brunch the following day. The Monday evening dinner was especially enjoyable with a great deal of nostalgia as George Weber showed the group slides and movies of prior meetings. After dinner we sang some of the old songs "we love so well." Maxine Hammond and George Weber operated a small piano which sparked the festivities.

Using the formula devised by Bob Hunter and his committee whereby an Oregon Alpha alumnus is eligible 50 years after initiation, those initiated in 1939 will be invited to join our group for the 1989 meeting—George Chamberlain

It should be noted that Coach Woody has a number of Washington U. Phis on his club, including some of the All-Phi Football team this year.

ST. PETERSBURG BEACH

The St. Pete Beach Alumni Club had it's Founders Day Banquet on Feb. 26 at the beautiful Lakewood Country Club in St. Petersburg.

We had the largest turnout in the past 22 years inducting into the Golden Legion six brothers including John C. Bushman, Carroll T. Eddie, Wendell H. Green, Robert G. Hill, Jack Garza Howe, and Clyde Webb Railsback. We were honored to have Tal Bray, president of the general council as our principal speaker. Brother Bray brought us up to date on the present and future of our great fraternity as well as touching on some of our past. He left us on the note that the future was very bright for Phi Delta Theta and that this past year for himself has been quite an experience, one he'll never forget.

We also had Scott Baughan, a Phi senior now attending Eckerd College and a transferee from the University of South Florida. Eckerd College is located in St. Petersburg only a short distance from where our alumni functions take place. We have high hopes of eventually establishing a colony at Eckerd College with Scott spearheading it in it's initial phases with encouragement from Brother Edward Hopper, president Chi-South Province.

As we wound down our 1987-88 year, our last social function took place on the pleasure craft "The Captain Anderson" including a dinner/dance cruise on Boca Ceiga Bay (translated from the Spanish settlers, "Blind Mouth") on April 22. Dinner was chosen from five entrees. We had our largest turnout, ever, thanks to our brother Lyman (Bud) Cherry and his lovely wife, Jeanne for making all of the arrangements and providing us with a spectacular evening for this most popular and gala event.

A slate of officers, some new and some old, were nominated and elected at our meeting on May 13 to carry on next year beginning with our officers installation banquet to be held on September 30, 1988 at the Breckenridge Resort Hotel, St. Petersburg Beach, FL. Brother Robert A. Morgan, will assume the office of president and brother Walter Pearson, will take over as vice president. In addition, brother Pearson will be kept busy, not only with Phi Delta Theta, but also as secretary and district youth exchange officer of the Rotary.

We would like to extend a special invitation to all those Phis who are now residing in our area and would welcome them to come join us in our luncheons the last Friday of the odd numbered months, except when held in October, held at the Pass-A-Grille Yacht Club, St. Petersburg Beach and other social functions as listed in our schedule of events for 1988-89.—Gerard L. Novario nesday evening March 9. State Representative Tom Drage (Florida State '70) was the featured speaker.

Tom not only shared some of the "lighter" moments of his undergraduate days, but also emphasized to the active brothers from Florida Gamma how the fraternity experience relates to business and professional life. With the busy legislative season getting ready to start up, we appreciate Brother Drage taking time out to join our Founder's Day celebration.

The Golden Legion ceremony was the highlight of the evening featuring a South-eastern Conference twosome. Brothers John White (Georgia '41) and Ford Thompson (Florida '41) were presented their Golden Legionnaire certificates. Both of these gentlemen have been assets to the local community and Phi Delta Theta. It was an honor for our club to present these awards.

Yes, there are more than two alumni clubs in Florida. The Fort Lauderdale and Palm Beach Clubs should be congratulated for their strong organization and active participation. We would like nothing better than to pattern our group after the fine example shown by these two clubs. If, however, the Fort Lauderdale gang ever gets tired of beating up on the poor old Sigma Chis, we would be more than happy to provide a softball lesson or two.

The Tallahassee Alumni Club meets for lunch the first Friday of each month. Call Dave Hunter (904) 877-3249 for location details next time you are in the state capital.—Brian Hadar

TULSA

C. J. "Pete" Silas (Georgia Tech '53), chairman of the board and CEO of Phillips Petroleum Company, was the featured speaker at the Tulsa Alumni Club's April 28th luncheon at the Summitt Club in the Fourth National Bank Building.

He spoke about OPEC and his outlook for the oil industry. Our next function will be our annual golf tournament at Southern Hills Country Club.—D. Dan McAdams

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Founders Day '88 for The Metropolitan Washington, D.C. Alumni Club was held at The Army-Navy Country Club on 21 April. Over 90 Phis and guests joined for a great evening of fraternity and good times. We especially enjoyed having Frank Abernathy, member-at-large of the General Council, and Bob Fitzpatrick, President of Gamma South Province, at our Head Table.

Jim Courter (Colgate '63), congressman from New Jersey's 12th District, was our principal speaker. He did an outstanding job of blending his Phi Delt experiences with today's challenges in the Congress. Jim was introduced by Mickey East (Colgate '63), Dean of the School of International Affairs at George Washington University — and Jim's college roommate during undergrad Phi days! We had some great one-liners between our guest speaker and introducer during the evening's program!

Asa Bates (Williams '38) conducted the Golden Legion Ceremony for inductees Lloyd Church (West Virginia '38), former President of our alumni club; Larry Edwards (Miami-Ohio '40); and Harold McCann (West Virginia '38). These three Phis have been active in our club so it was good to honor them and hear their remembrances of earlier days in Phi Delta Theta.

We presented the first Carl Scheid Appreciation Award to Brother Courter. Assisting in this inaugural ceremony was Mary Scheid, Carl's widow, and a great supporter of our club's work.

Rogers discuss the current situation and future outlook for NATO. Brother Rogers (Kansas State '43) was joined during a reception preceding the luncheon by Jerry Felmley (Illinois '54), D.C. club president, Asa Bates (Davidson '38), past D.C. club president, and Dave Beeder (Illinois '52), Washington bureau chief of the Omaha World-Herald.

Ohio Lambda At Kent State Re-Installed

BY FELIX OTERO, JR.

The Ohio Lambda Chapter of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity was re-instated at Kent State University on Saturday, April 30.

A crowd of approximately 75 alumni, family and friends gathered at the Newman Center to see Frank Abernathy present Kevin Gross with the Charter. Kevin summed up everyone's feelings about initiation and installation by saying "This is what we've worked so hard for."

Initiation took place the preceding evening at the United Methodist Church of Kent. Abernathy and Bob Biggs, Director of Chapter Services, actives and alumni from Akron University, Case Western Reserve, University of Pittsburg, and the University of Ontario participated and witnessed the ceremony. Ohio Lambda had previously been a chapter at Kent, but due to the difficulties at Kent in 1970, Phi Delta Theta Fraternity left the campus, along with most of the other Greek organizations. Membership at Ohio Lambda dissipated as did that of other fraternities as a result of the turmoil.

In the Spring of 1987, Gross, a brother from the University of Richmond, Virginia began to reorganize Phi Delta Theta in Dunbar Hall, a residence hall at Kent State University. On May 4, 1987, we were recognized as a colony by Phi Delta Theta and Kent State University Inter-Fraternity Council.

Fall Semester began the work to fulfill requirements needed for re-installation. We acquired our house at 323 E. College Street, and began working on improving it.

Our Fall 1987 Colony Pledge Class had seven members while Spring 1988 had 15 members. In all 34 new initiates and two actives currently make up Ohio Lambda. The brothers are as follows: Erik Andryszak, Robert Barthelman, David Bollenbacher, William Boschert, Shawn Boysko, Rene Bradshaw, Jeffrey Bukala, Jim Davis, Jeffrey

Diday, Gregory Elliot, Michael Ferrante, Stephen A. Fowler, Sean Gorby, Eric Gorze, Kevin Gross, John Hemmeter, Jim Jacobsen, Jim Jamieson, Michael Janowick, Douglas Koenig, Mark Koenig, Thomas Kondash, Paul Kosubinsky, David Lembo, Emmanuel Likakis, David Leichty, Charles Mayer, Randy Mellon, Felix Otero, Thomas Persinger, Christian Phillips, Pat Picciano, Michael Pies, Kevin Scherry, Timothy Strickland, and Scott Valore.

After the installation, the newly activated brothers hosted a luncheon to honor Gross and Felix Otero for their leadership and to show our appreciation to Rob Eberly, our colony adviser, for his help and guidance. After the banquet everyone was invited back to the Ohio Lambda house so the newly activated members could meet the alumni that attended the initiation and installation. There was also a special toast for colony member Joseph H. Perez, who fell victim to Acute Leukemia and passed away over Christmas break.

We have worked hard to make it this far and with the dedication and support of the brothers and alumni, we not only will have the best, but biggest chapter at Kent State University. ■

Three New Province Presidents Appointed

Three new province presidents have recently been appointed by the General Council and approved by their respective chapters. They include Ronald J. Garon (Tampa '80), Beta Province; Kenneth P. Walz (Duke '60), Sigma North Province; and Ronald G. Smith (Puget Sound '85), Pi North Province.

Beta now includes the states of New York and New Jersey. Sigma North encompasses the state of Michigan. Pi North includes the chapters located in western Washington, British Columbia and Alberta.

Garon is currently the training coordinator for AT&T in Piscataway, New Jersey. He graduated from Tampa in 1980 where he was a charter member of the Florida Theta chapter.

Following graduation he worked with the Peace Corps overseas. Upon his return he was employed by AT&T. During this past year he served as the colony coordinator and chapter adviser for New Jersey Alpha. He is single and lives in Highland Park, New Jersey.

Walz graduated from Duke with a BBA and received his law degree from the University of Michigan in 1964. He was very involved in the North Carolina Alpha chapter and was also active on campus in varsity athletics and student activities.

He is the senior partner in a law firm in Big Rapids, MI. He has been active in his community serving as the vice president of the Chamber of Commerce in Big Rapids, involved with the Jaycees and church activities. He is married and has two children.

Smith graduated from Puget Sound with a BA in business administration. He was active in his chapter and held the offices of president, rush chairman, social chairman and secretary.

He was also very involved in campus organizations, including student government, IFC, Alpha Kappa Psi Business Fraternity and College Entrepreneurs. He is currently an operations unit supervisor for Allstate Insurance in Seattle.

He is responsible for the hiring, training and development of Allstate employees. He is active in his community, being involved with Junior Achievement, and other civic organizations. He is single.

MISSOURI ALPHA FIRE: A fire at the Missouri Alpha house on April 21 did $700,000 in damages and forced the evacuation of 90 residents. No one was injured.

Fire Damages Missouri House

A fire extensively damaged the Phi Delta Theta house on the University of Missouri campus on April 21, forcing the evacuation of 90 residents. There were no injuries.

The fire, thought to be caused by fireworks, all but demolished the house, causing more than $700,000 in damages. It hit just a week before final exams and resulted in the loss of notes and textbooks for many members. The University provided dormitory housing for the remaining two weeks of the semester.

It also left most of the residents without clothes. Other fraternities and sororities offered food and clothing to Phi Deltas until other arrangements could be made.

The Columbia, MO Fire Department investigators told the Associated Press they thought the fire was caused by unspent bottle rockets that were left smoldering near one of the house's hollow support columns and exploded sometime before 5 a.m.

DAVID D. BANTA LIBRARY

William B. Thiel (Chicago '50). Motivation, 1988, 72 pp. National Association of Secondary School Principals, Reston, Virginia. Author.

Nearly everyone who works with youth decries insufficient motivation. A student who is unmotivated is not only a source of frustration, but is seen to be wasteful of talent and potential.

Today, more than ever, teachers, administrators, and school staff members are challenged to analyze, translate, and apply findings from educational research to situations in the school and classroom and to close the gap between research and practice. Educators have learned far more about improving instruction than they are putting into practice (Duckett, 1986). Motivation is one area that should be addressed in greater depth. Generally, student motivation to learn can be increased and sustained if:

1. Administrators and teachers can identify and subsequently influence the local dynamics that affect motivation and learning

2. Teachers can learn and practice skills that enhance motivational dynamics, student performance, teacher effectiveness, and their own sense of satisfaction

3. Students learn self-management and self-improvement skills that affect their motivation to learn

4. Students, staff members, and parents, through teamwork and a problem-solving approach, help all students benefit from attempts to enhance their potential to learn and achieve

5. Educators can invite, foster, and encourage each student to be interested, involved, and attend to learning tasks and activities

6. Educators help students who have learning difficulties to address their academic skill deficiencies, motivational enhancements, and self-improvement skills

This monograph, we hope, will help practitioners improve student motivation to learn by helping teachers and students to recognize and overcome the obstacles to student motivation.

James M. Woodman, (New Mexico '53). Megagods: The Mysterious Giants of our Past, 1987, 156 pp. Picket Books, New York, New York. Purchase.

Explorer Jim Woodman takes you to the farthest reaches of the Americas in a trek to remote mystery sites, where monumental art conceals incredible secrets. What lost civilizations built these giant sculptures—and why?

From California's Mojave Desert to the high Andean wilds of Southern Patagonia, here are the America's most enduring enigmas: mystery cities, ancient megaliths, legendary megagods and massive sculptures visible only from the air. You are there with Jim Woodman, viewing the grandeur of the 167-foot Mojave Cave...soaring above a Peruvian Desert to explore miles of "invisible" sculpture below...uncovering the tunnels and landing fields of the ancient Incas. You'll visit a secret city of giants in Peru, and the Valley of the Dinosaurs, a lost world in the desert of Chile. You'll discover wonders stranger than the Sphinx, larger than the pyramids, and find tantalizing clues left by their creators.

New Appointments

Newly appointed chapter advisers since March 15, 1988 include W. Scott Kellison, Nevada; David E. Stevens, Cincinnati; F. Jerome Watson, Southwest Texas State; George R. Porosky, Akron; Scott J. Stewart, Calif. at San Diego; Timothy B. Russell, Butler; Frank W. L. Huskey, Georgia College; Curtis D. Parvin, Univ. of Calif.-Irvine; William L. Farmer, Randolph-Macon; Lucien E. Evans, U.C.-Riverside; John R. Green, Iowa State; and Paul S. Petrovich, Univ. of Calif.-Davis.

Ralph Kelly Morton was born in Bedford, N.S. He graduated from Dalhousie University in Arts and Law and won an I.O.D.E. scholarship to study journalism in Britain. He started as a reporter for the Halifax Herald and later joined the Canadian Press where he won distinction for his coverage of the Moose River mine disaster. Next he served as Canadian Press correspondent in Boston, then as Managing Editor of The Protestant, an anti-fascist magazine.

As news editor of The Associated Press World Service in New York, he developed the global news distributing system which today reaches 116 countries. In 1945, he was appointed AP Chief of Bureau, South-west Pacific, covering stories in the Philippines, New Guinea, Indonesia, Australia and New Zealand.

In 1954, he returned to Canada from New York and with his journalistic wife Ruth, founded The Dartmouth Free Press. He wrote several radio plays for the CBC, and served as Editor of Hansard, modernizing the reporting system of the Nova Scotia Legislature. He has lectured in journalism at Columbia University and the University of King's College.

These personal and professional memoirs are, quite simply, a good read. Kelly's life as a weekly newspaper publisher was but the latest step in a 30 year journalistic career that has taken him around the world. His writing talents — a gentle but pointed sense of humour, an ear for dialogue, a knowledge of the recent past and a nearly total recall of it, his ability to tell a tale, quickly and succinctly.

JOSS

Mayde "Mom" Joss, beloved housemother for Illinois Alpha at Northwestern University for 30 years from 1945 to 1975, passed away Nov. 2, 1987. Chicago area alumni and the active chapter have established a memorial fund in her name for house improvements.

Thirty Educational Foundation

The Phi Delta Theta Educational Foundation awarded 30 scholarships worth $58,500 in 1987.

George A. Pollock (Florida '89) won the $2,500 Arthur R. Priest Award. Twenty-seven scholarships worth $2,000 each were awarded to Phi across the country. Two more $1,000 awards were given.

"Much greater community service was displayed by the individual applicants this year," stated J. Don Mason (Miami-Ohio '35) a trustee of the Educational Foundation.

"They worked in hospitals as wheel chair helpers; they read to the blind; they adopted grandparents on a regular basis; they arranged Thanksgiving dinner for the needy; they participated in national, charitable drives; and a host of other humanitarian endeavors."

It is the goal of the Educational Foundation trustees to increase the worth of the Foundation to better than three million dollars so that various educational programs, currently underwritten by the general fraternity may be sponsored by the Foundation.

McNamara Captures Harmon-Rice

BY DR. JOHN DAVIS, JR.
(Washburn '38)
Scroll Sports Editor

Bill McNamara (Lawrence '88) has won the 1987-88 Harmon-Rice Trophy by scoring first on four of the seven ballots submitted by the Award Panel.

He is the first winner in history to compete in three sports. Not only did he letter in three sports but he was an All-Midwest Conference quarterback in football, an All-Midwest Conference second baseman in baseball and a basketball performer selected to the All-Phi Basketball team.

Wisconsin Beta at Lawrence thus becomes the only chapter in the 31-year history of the award to contribute two consecutive winners. Last year's award went to Dan Galante (Lawrence '87), a four-time All-Midwest Conference lineman and two-time Little All-American football-scholar.

McNamara was the pledge educator this year along with being a Freshman Hall Counselor. In football he passed for 1,570 yards and had a 55.4% completion mark. In baseball he hit .359 and was voted by his teammates as "The Most Valuable Player." In basketball he scored 153 points in 22 games for a 6.9 average with 70 assists.

He also maintained a 3 pt. grade average.

Glenn Trammell (Kansas '89) finished second with 19 points. He is a backstroke swimmer with international and Olympic potential. For three consecutive years he has been his team's high scorer in the Big 8 Conference Meet as well as being named his team's "Outstanding Swimmer" for three consecutive years.

He has been named an All-American swimmer the past two years. As a freshman he ranked 25th in the world at the 100-meter backstroke. He moved up to 15th as a sophomore and 10th last year. He has made the Olympic Trials qualifying time and was selected to the U.S. Pre-Olympic swim squad. At the Mission Vejo International Meet early in June, he placed third in the 100-meter backstroke in 59.97. He carried a 3.2 grade point average last year.

Bo Wyenandt (Centre '89) finished third with 16 points. He was a unanimous All-College Athletic Conference basketball selection. He serves his chapter as chaplain and was very active in the chapter's Cerebral Palsy charity fund-raiser that raised $8,000 each of the past three years. He carries a 3.43 grade average with a double major in economics and biology.

He is a member of the Economics Society, Pre-Med Society and is a peer counselor for incoming freshmen.

Completing the top five in the balloting were Douglas Davis (Mankato '89), a swimmer who scored 13 points, and Scott Dockter (Virginia '89), a tennis player with 10 ballot points. ■

Convention Coverage

the SMU chapter followed by a formal initiation ceremony given by members of the UT-Arlington chapter. A formal closing was performed by members of the TCU chapter.

The Code Committee then came back to the Convention to take care of unfinished business. A change in Section 106 was passed that would authorize reimbursement for Convention expenses for all General Council members, past General Council presidents, province presidents, and any other officer so designated by the General Council. The impact of this change was to remove a long list of officer titles that tend to change over a period of time. It was passed unanimously.

A new chapter office, "Educational/Scholarship Foundation Representative," was also added by a vote of 175 to 16.

A final housekeeping change took a dollar amount out of Section 104 that deals with allocation of initiation fees to the Palmer Fund and the Contingency Fund of the General Fund.

At this point, it was announced that Abernathy, Ambrose and Whipple had been elected to the GC and that a second ballot would be required with Gilson, Turner, Glover and Holling as candidates.

John Poole (North Carolina '65) reported on the work of the Survey Commission. He indicated that of 14 colonies created during the biennium, nine had received charters and three were still in colony status. Those three are at Whitman, North Carolina State and Marquette.

Roger Cerne (Case-Western '63) reported on the work of the Educational Foundation. All contributions to the annual fund now go to the Foundation and are tax-deductible. Last year $528,342 was given by 8,945. The Foundation now has $3 million in assets with 15 named funds of $10,000 to $25,000 or more. In 1988 he indicated that the Foundation goals would be to secure $600,000 from 10,000 donors.

Bray announced before the morning adjournment that a third ballot would have to be taken with Gilson, Holling and Turner as candidates.

Following the noon awards luncheon the Convention was called back into session to cast a fourth ballot for the General Council. The delegates were asked to choose between Holling and Gilson.

The afternoon session was handled by Cline Young (Vanderbilt '77), public relations commissioner and chairman of the AIDS Task Force, who introduced Dr. Robert Wirag, director of the University of Texas Student Health Center. Dr. Wirag presented a slide presentation entitled "AIDS, Oh Brother!"

He discussed very frankly and openly the major concerns regarding AIDS on the college campus and answered questions from the delegates.

The final announcement of the session was that Holling had been elected to the last spot on the General Council.

Grand Banquet

Awards to outstanding chapters, the Legion of Merit and Legion of Honor presentations and the traditional Golden Legion ceremony highlighted the Grand Banquet on Saturday evening.

Cary conducted the Golden Legion ceremony inducting Scott Crowley (Iowa State '40) and Edward Hjorth (DePauw '34).

Frank Abernathy presented ten year service plaques to Fitzpatrick and Bob Roberts (Ball State '74) and Cerne (Case '63) recognized Marvin Perry (Maryland '52) for a gift of $10,000 to the Educational Foundation making him a member of the Founders Club.

Following these presentations Bray installed the new General Council. Stitt, in turn, presented Bray with a Phi Delta Theta chair in appreciation of his work as president. Stitt's son, John C. (Mississippi '88) pinned his father with the president's badge.

The dinner was concluded with songs by the Texas Kappa Chorus and a slide presentation "The Memories" which pictured activities of the Convention. It was produced by Chris Shrader (Miami-Ohio '82).

Memorial Service

A memorial service to remember those who had served the fraternity and had passed away since the last Convention was conducted on Sunday morning under the direction of Bray and Fr. Turner.

Those memorialized included C. Clark Bledsoe (Westminster '30),

Pollock Receives Priest Award

George Pollock, Jr. (Florida '89) is the 1987-88 Arthur R. Priest Award winner and will receive a $2,500 scholarship from the Phi Delta Theta Educational Foundation to help finance his senior year at Florida.

He just completed a term as chapter president at Florida Alpha and his chapter's performance at the General Convention in Dallas this past summer indicates he did an outstanding job.

Florida Alpha won the Harvard Trophy and the Paul C. Beam Trophy for the best community service day along with being named a Gold Star Chapter. The chapter also received a Scholarship Award for being first in grades on their campus and also won the General Headquarters Trophy for reporting.

Pollock also served his chapter as treasurer in 1987 where he managed an annual budget of $350,000.

He is a voting member of the House Corporation and also has served as assistant chairman of activities. He was president of his pledge class in the spring, 1986.

He oversaw his chapter's participation in Greek Week and was president of Slugfest, a boxing tournament to benefit the Boys Club of Alachua County, FL.

He also has been a member and treasurer of the Florida Cicerones (official host and hostesses of the University of Florida) and was the director of special events for Students Against M.S.

The Priest winner is a member of Mortar Board, Omicron Delta Kappa, Order of Omega, Savant Leadership Honorary and was given a Presidential Recognition Award in 1987. He was on the President's List in 1985 and has been on the Dean's list three times. He has also been selected to Alpha Lambda Delta and Golden Key.

In his nomination letter his chapter stated that "As a leader, no brother in recent memory parallels George's style or success. We believe his superior ability stems from the fact that he leads with the most effective, morally sound manner possible — George leads by example. George encourages sound learning in the chapter by being a scholar himself . . . George encourages friendship among brothers by always taking the time to listen and talk with every brother in the chapter, whether it is convenient for him or not.

"Finally, George encourages moral rectitude in the chapter by setting for himself standards of which even the founders of Phi Delta Theta would be proud." ■ over the years. He has a son, Hugh, an attorney, a member of Wisconsin Beta, and a daughter, Cheryl.

Upon his retirement, he moved to Florida, where he now lives.

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I present the Legion of Honor to brother Elden T. Smith.

Dr. Charles E. Wicks

This brother was initiated as Bond #42 of the Oregon Gamma chapter on January 3, 1947. He and his two brothers were all charter members of the chapter at Willamette University. As an undergraduate, he transferred to Oregon State, where he received his degree in 1950.

In 1954, he returned to Oregon State as an instructor, after receiving his Master of Science and Ph.D

degrees from Carnegie Mellon Institute.

He continues as head of the School of Engineering, where he has been selected by students as the most outstanding teacher and adviser and by the alumni as the most inspirational teacher, among many other awards.

He is in demand as a lecturer throughout the United States and foreign countries, Mexico, Canada and China to name a few. He is also a consultant to several major chemical, metallurgical and oil companies.

Despite his many professional commitments, this brother has found time to serve Phi Delta Theta with distinction. He became a chapter adviser of the Oregon Beta chapter at Oregon State in 1960 and in 1963, was appointed Pi South Province president, serving the Oregon area. In 1970, he was named to the survey commission (where he served for six years), when he was elected to the General Council. His service on the General Council consisted of Member-at-Large 1976-78, reporter 1978-80, treasurer 1980-82 and president 1982-84.

Since the completion of his tenure as a member of the General Council, he has continued to be of service in an advisory capacity to the fraternity.

He and his lovely wife, Miriam, an active alumnae of Delta Gamma, have been in attendance at many conventions. They are the parents of two sons, Ken and Roger and a daughter, Julie.

Brothers, it is an honor and privilege to present the Legion of Honor to brother Charles E. Wicks. ■
