About This Issue . . .

■ The Great Bicentennial Grand Arch Council, August 12-15, 1976 is the feature story for the Fall Issue. Presented here are only some of the photographs and happenings of the meeting. The 1976 GAC is now history, but to many the memories and new friendships made there live still today. The GAC story begins on page 1. Highlights of the meeting are found on page 10.

■ The new Executive Board officers elected at the August Grand Arch Council are presented beginning on page 12. These men have been selected by the Brotherhood to lead the Fraternity for the next two years.

■ Our chapter at Vanderbilt University is now over 75 years old. Its story is found on pages 16-17 and makes interesting reading. One of their grandest supporters was the late H. Fort Flowers and his role is related in this feature.

■ Financial Highlights for the past two years are presented on page 18. Costs of operation continue to rise, making it more difficult for the Fraternity to stay within its income and at the same time provide the needed services to its membership. This article shows some of the programs and the income so vital to the Fraternity.

■ The chapter newsletters, followed by colony and alumni newsletters, begin on page 20. Most of the chapter reports indicate the beginning of the new school year and the eagerness with which the chapters are approaching their tasks.

■ The usual features From Here . . . and There and In Chapter Eternal appear in the Fall issue on pages 19 and 44, respectively. These are followed in turn by Chapter Rush Chairmen and Phi Psi Luncheons and the Fraternity Directory.

■ Bits N' Pieces is moved to the outside back cover this issue. This feature tells of happenings on the chapter and alumni levels of the Fraternity throughout the United States.—Tony B. Whittington, Editor

The Great Bicentennial Grand Arch Council

Washington, D.C.

Photos by Tony B. Whittington

"DON'T sell us short, proclaimed President Tom James, Texas '48, as the 58th Grand Arch Council of Phi Kappa Psi commenced in Washington, D.C. He continued "Not dead, not dead Phi Kappa Psi, but alive and well, growing and going. No great institution persists in perpetuity, not even for 125 years, unless it is grounded in the solid idealism embodied in the Phi Kappa Psi Creed. So don't sell us short."

With these words setting the tone for the August 12-15 biennial meeting of the Fraternity, the most recent GAC was called to order Thursday, August 12 at the Twin Bridges Marriott Hotel, Arlington, Virginia.

Following a day of registration, attending to last minute details and the meeting of old and new friends, the first official function of the GAC was "A Washington Welcome," Wednesday evening in the Persian Room. The informal gathering featured entertainment, refreshments and old-fashioned fellowship.

The next morning saw everyone, well almost everyone, in attendance at the formal opening ceremonies in the hotel's Commonwealth Room. Chris Weber, Pennsylvania State '70, a resident of Washington, D.C., gave the official welcome to the assembled delegation on behalf of the 1976 GAC Host Committee. Executive Director Ralph D. (Dud) Daniel, Arizona '47, called the roll and found 16 chapters not responding to the initial roll call. Ten chapters later responded, making only six chapters that did not register for the GAC. The Rev. Edward Tate Sr., Virginia '33, gave the invocation.

Grand Arch Council Officers

Attorney General Wayne W. Wilson, Michigan State '59, administered the oath of office to the permanent GAC officers. The officers were:

- SWGP Tom James, Texas '48
- SWVGP J. Kenneth Potter, Ohio Wesleyan '51
- SWP Robert W. Chamberlain, Arizona State '62
- SWAG Philip H. Davidson III, Arizona '59
- SWBG Burdell W. Baker, Indiana '20
- SWSG Hyatt (Pat) Eby, Swarthmore '12
- SWPhu .. Thomas C. McCammon, Mankato State '69
 - John C. Palladino, Monmouth '74

President's Report

President James read the Phi Kappa Psi Creed which was adopted at the 1964 GAC in Denver, Colo. He said, "This great Fraternity is on the move. Although to many outside the fraternity system, and unfortunately some within, the mental concept of the fraternity is still that of a social organization with a good party on Saturday night, a keg, and a band." He then added that no great institution survives without solid idealism as we have embodied in our Creed.

"What we are about is not only improvement of ourselves, the improvement of our Brothers, the improvement of our chapters, the improvement of our college institutions, but we are about the improvement of the quality of life.

"We don't need a big band or a big bottle to sell Phi Kappa Psi to the new men entering the universities and colleges on the campuses around this great country.

"What we do need are people who understand the creed, the idealism, and are able to communicate that. Your generation, you, the undergraduates, have rejected so many of the plastic superficial values that have been presented to you. Doesn't it also make sense then that this next entering freshman class, as well as the members of the sophomore, the junior and certainly the senior class, would seize with enthusiasm and excitement the rich principles and ideals spelled out in the Creed of Phi Kappa Psi?"

President James went on to say that two things prevent the Fraternity from doing that job and doing it well. "The first," he cited, "is that great sacred cow known as 'Rush Week.'" He added that the rush week procedure is, in his opinion, ineffective and expensive as a recruiting program. Brother James said, "Our Fraternity is about the creed and the idealism, and in the rush week atmosphere, we have no opportunity to present that. That is presented in a one-to-one, man-to-man exchange of communication regarding the ideals of the rushee and the ideals of the Fraternity." He cited the success of open rush in our successes at the University of Montana and at Purdue University.

The second problem he addressed in his report is the question of education. "Somehow we have the idea that once we have crammed enough information into our heads or in the heads of our pledges so that they can pass the pledge exam, that their education is over.

"There is an indication that that is not true. This year, in response to the demands and the mandates of the GAC, we have the new manual. It doesn't say 'Pledge Manual,' it says 'The Manual.'"

He told the assembled group that the very concept of fraternity is found in the educational program. When he saw chapters who suddenly found themselves with an almost vacant house or confronted with financial disaster, he saw that the chapter's educational program had left a lot undone. When he saw Brothers go inactive in their junior or senior years because they really didn't have the time for the Fraternity, again, the chapter had failed in its education.

In summarizing he said, "So it is the principles and concepts of our Fraternity that makes it strong. It's the idealism that keeps it alive and well. And I can think of few times when that is more applicable than today.

"I think the fraternities have a grand opportunity, and I wish them well. But I have to admit I am a bit more selfish than that. I want us in Phi Kappa Psi to grasp these golden years and continue to move forward.

"If we together seize the opportunity, then we will look back on these years as great years and look forward to a future filled with excitement and accomplishment."

The Ninth Annual Silver Bowl Award for outstanding Phi Psi ladies was presented to Elma Letterman by Tom James.

Ernest Garbe presented the runner-up award of the New York City Alumni Association for outstanding chapter publications to Missouri Alpha.

Executive Director Ralph D. (Dud) Daniel presents certificates of appreciation to former staffers Michael S. Wittern, J. Carter Noonan and Robert A. Wolter.

Ruddick C. Lawrence, Secretary-Treasurer of the Endowment Fund presented a special award to Hyatt (Pat) Eby in recognition of his dedicated work for the Fraternity and the Fund.

Nebraska Beta at Creighton University won the Ralph R. Haney Financial Excellence Award.

The California Eta delegation, the chapter with the most man-miles travelled to get to the GAC, were given new Phi Psi T-shirts for their travel and attendance efforts.

Programs Keep Everyone Busy

Besides the general sessions, there was much more to keep everyone busy. Each night District Caucuses were held throughout the hotel complex. These meetings were informal meetings in which district members could discuss common areas of concern and could become better acquainted with each other.

Friday, August 13, was the day for workshops. There were six concurrent sessions, and each workshop was repeated once to allow a broader attendance. The workshops began at 9:00 a.m. and ended at 11:45 a.m.

Ladies Program

This year's Ladies Program was true to the theme of "The Great Bicentennial GAC." Thursday lunch was held in the Joint-Committee Room of the U.S. Capitol Building. This had been preceded by a tour of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. All the ladies were up quite early Thursday morning for a special tour of the White House followed by a tour of the Air and Space Museum of the Smithsonian Institution. Friday's activities were highlighted by a tour of Arlington, Virginia. The joint-host committee for the women consisted of Mrs. John F. (Mary) Murphy, Mrs. Chris (B. J.) Weber, Mrs. Larry (Joanna) Winn Jr., and Mrs. Robert W. (Joanna) Chamberlain Jr. The honorary chairman was Mrs. Gordon S. (Elma) Letterman.

Friday Awards Luncheon

The Biennial Awards Luncheon of the Fraternity convened in the Persian Room of the Twin-Bridges Marriott on Friday, August 13. Vice President J. Kenneth Potter presided over the assembled Phi Psis, their ladies and guests. During the afternoon's activities, the following presentations were made:

The Ohio Lambda Award for the Most Improved Chapter was presented by Kent Christopher Owen, Indiana '58, to Oregon Alpha at Oregon State University.

The ninth Silver Bowl Award was presented to Elma Letterman by President Tom James. Mrs. Letterman is the wife of Dr. Gordon Letterman, grandson of Founder William Henry Letterman. Their son, Gordon, West Virginia '72, attended his first GAC at the age of nine months. The Ladies Appreciation Award was presented to one of the truly great Phi Psi ladies.

Past President Winston R. Tate, Kansas '18, presented the Edward H. Knight Award to the member present who had attended the most GACs. This year's winner was Walter Lee Sheppard Jr., Cornell '29, who has attended 23 Grand Arch Councils.

The Edward H. Knight Award of Indiana Gamma to the Outstanding Alumnus was presented to Frank Crist, Johns Hopkins '35. Brother Crist had been very active in the re-organization and re-colonization of the chapter at Johns Hopkins.

The Outstanding Solon E. Summerfield Scholar Award was presented for the first time by Endowment Fund Trustee Robert R. Elliott, Ohio Wesleyan '35. The first place winner was Steven Conner Ramsey, Brown '73, who received a check for $1000. The first runner-up was Mark James Riley, Wittenberg '73, who received a check for $500; second runner-up was Richard J. Vinegar, North Carolina '73, who was given a check for $300. Each winner also received a special plaque.

A special award from the Endowment Fund was presented to Hyatt (Pat) Eby, Swarthmore '12, by Endowment Fund Trustee Ruddick C. Lawrence, Washington '31. Brother Lawrence cited Eby's work on the publicity for the Summerfield Scholars each year and for his community work throughout the years. Brother Eby has been a Phi Psi for 64 years.

The Ralph R. Haney Financial Excellence Award went to Nebraska Beta at Creighton University. The most honorable mention went to Pennsylvania Gamma at Bucknell. Other honorable mentions went to North Carolina Alpha, Duke; Pennsylvania Alpha, Washington and Jefferson; California Epsilon, UCLA; Ohio Iota, Akron; and Ohio Delta, Ohio State.

The Edgar Fahs Smith Award was presented by the editor of THE SHIELD and went to Nestor Barrero, UCLA '75. This honor goes to THE SHIELD correspondent who demonstrated during the past two years a cooperative spirit and journalistic newsletters and photographs. Edgar Fahs Smith, Pennsylvania 1877, was the first editor of THE SHIELD.

The New York Alumni Association awards plaques to chapters who have produced the best series of alumni newsletters, rush booklets, directories, and the like. The Atlanta Alumni Association was commended for their new directory. No rush booklets were submitted. Iowa Beta, Iowa State University, won the award for the outstanding publication. Missouri Alpha was the runner-up.

Executive Director Ralph D. (Dud) Daniel, Arizona '47, presented certificates of appreciation to former members of the Fraternity staff—J. Carter Noonan III, Texas Tech '73; Michael S. Wittern, Mankato State '69, and Robert A. Wolter, Iowa State '71.

New Members Join Order of S.C.

The Order of The S.C. marked its 28th biennial meeting dinner and initiation by inducting six new members at the Washington, D.C. GAC. Those receiving membership were: J. Kenneth Potter, Ohio Wesleyan '51; Earl W. Friend Jr., Washington & Jefferson, '60; Stephen D. McWhorter, West Virginia '60; Robert M. Danielson, Oregon '61; J. Vickers Hill, Mississippi '61; and Thomas C. McCammon, Man-kato State '63.

The SC was founded at the Minneapolis GAC in 1920 by three members. Of the 17 charter members, none survive today. One hundred and sixty-nine Phi Psis have been initiated. Of that number, 60 are living.

1976 Grand Arch Council Committee

Behind each successful person or organization there is usually a group of people who are responsible for the success. In our case, it was the Host Committee led by Co-Chairmen Neil W. Sanders, Bowling Green '60 and J. Christopher Weber, Pennsylvania State '70. Assisting them as members of the Committee were David T. Bryant, Texas '43; Frank H. Crist, Johns Hopkins '35; Scott L. Hulick, Eastern New Mexico '69; John F. (Jack) Murphy, Arizona '48; and the Hon. Larry Winn Jr., Kansas '38. The Honorary Chairman for the 58th GAC was Dr. Gordon S. Leterman, Missouri '38.

Two other certificates were presented to Brothers in the "volunteer" sector, upon which the Fraternity depends so much. Maurice J. Warnock, Oregon '23, ended his six-year term as a trustee for the Endowment Fund and Richard T. Baker, Ohio State '36, ended his term as a trustee for the Permanent Fund.

The chapter which had the most man-miles, California Eta at California Poly, San Luis Obispo, to get to Washington, D.C., was recognized by Vice President Potter. The members were given the new Fraternity T-shirts for their efforts.

The last award at the luncheon was presented by the Atlanta Alumni Association to President James in commemoration of his term in office.

Officers Elected

Following hours of speech making, campaigning, and balloting, new officers of the Fraternity were elected: J. Kenneth Potter, Ohio Wesleyan '51, President; Robert W. (Sandy) Chamberlain, Arizona State '62, Vice President; John K. Boyd III, Kansas '59, Treasurer; and David F. Hull Jr., Louisiana State '66, Secretary. These officers form the Executive Board, joining the six Archons in composing the Executive Council.

GAC Banquet

To many, the highlight of the entire GAC was the Saturday evening Banquet. Symposiarch Kent Christopher Owen, Indiana '58, opened the evening's activities at 8:20 p.m. in the Persian Ballroom. Interwoven throughout the evening were the introductions of almost everyone in attendance at the GAC; well, some said there were a lot of introductions.

One of the special guests of the banquet was Charles (Buddy) Rogers, Kansas '23. Brother Rogers spoke to the gathering and later sang the "Phi Psi Rag." Tom James offered his thoughts on leaving the high office of the Fraternity and J. Kenneth Potter addressed the group on his feelings of the office and of things to come during the next two years.

Memorial Service

The traditional Memorial Service in remembrance of those departed was held in the Chesapeake Ballroom on Sunday morning, August 15. Past President

Webb M. Mize spoke the address to the assembled Brothers. He said, "It is appropriate that we reverently give expression to those recently received into our Chapter Eternal for what they did and our appreciation for what they were." Among those who have died during the last biennium are: H. Fort Flowers, William Atkins Williams Jr., Newton E. Torble, Gen. Lawrence H. Whiting, David M. Gilbert III and Richard (Tiny) Braugher. Brother Mize added that all those deceased cannot be memorialized at this time, but that each departed Brother has left his mark somewhere and in some way.

Attendance Figures

The Washington GAC attendance, with 353, was the largest since the 1968 GAC at Indianapolis, when 359 registered. The 57th GAC in New Orleans August 21-25, 1974, recorded 291 in attendance. The 59th GAC will be held in Kansas City, Mo., at the Crown Center Hotel, August 9-13, 1978.

What the GAC Did

J. Carter Noonan delivers a committee report to a general session of the Grand Arch Council.

■ Elected Philip M. Cornelius, Indiana '25, as a trustee of the Endowment Fund, Phi Kappa Psi, Inc. The term will be for six years.

■ Made minor changes to the Constitution and By-Laws including changing the title of Executive Secretary to "Executive Director."

Through the various committee reports, the following recommendations were made:

■ That a standard program of Fraternity Education be developed to strengthen and unify our fraternal bonds nationally.

■ That chapters be encouraged in timely and proper maintenance of financial records, and to promote interaction with its house corporation.

■ That a standard computerized accounting and billing system be made available to all chapters, and this system be reviewed prior to the 1978 GAC.

■ That the Fraternity continue an aggressive program of extension.

■ That Chapters, Alumni Associations and Clubs take a more active role in extension.

■ That the following colleges and universities be placed on the Fraternity's accredited list:

- University of Georgia, Athens, Georgia
- University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico
- University of Wisconsin at LaCrosse, Wisconsin
- Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, Virginia

- University of Northern Iowa, Cedar Falls, Iowa
- University of South Dakota, Vermillion, South Dakota
- University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, North Dakota
- University of California at Irvine, California
- University of California at Davis, California
- University of Massachusetts, Amherst, Massachusetts
- University of Texas at Arlington, Texas
- University of Vermont, Burlington, Vermont
- Baylor University, Waco, Texas
- University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, Arkansas
- Ball State University, Muncie, Indiana
- College of Charleston, Charleston, South Carolina
- Clemson University, Clemson, South Carolina
- Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, Kentucky
- Hope College, Holland, Michigan
- University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho
- Idaho State University, Pocatello, Idaho
- University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky
- University of Maine, Orono, Maine
- Texas A & M, College Station, Texas
- Tulane University, New Orleans, Louisiana
- Pan American University, Edinburg, Texas
- Western Kentucky University, Bowling Green, Kentucky
- Angelo State University, San Angelo, Texas
- Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, Texas
- Madison College, Harrisonburg, Virginia
- Old Dominion College, Norfolk, Virginia
- West Texas State University, Canyon, Texas
- Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Executive Director Dud Daniel and President Tom James discuss the business at hand during a general session.

Furman University, Greenville, South Carolina
 Mississippi State University, Starkville, Mississippi
 Washington State University, Pullman, Washington
 Western Maryland University, Westminster, Maryland
 New Mexico Highlands, Las Vegas, New Mexico
 University of Nevada at Las Vegas, Nevada
 San Diego State University, San Diego, California
 Georgia Southern College, Statesboro, Georgia
 Pacific University, Forest Grove, Oregon
 Chico State, Chico, California
 Fresno State, Fresno, California
 Long Beach State, Long Beach, California
 Humboldt State, Humboldt, California
 Illinois State University, Normal, Illinois
 Louisiana Tech, Ruston, Louisiana
 New Mexico State University at Las Cruces, New Mexico

Note: In addition, all institutions formerly hosting a chapter are included on the Accredited List.

- That implementation of the Tutors-In-Residence program continue, with possible enlargement and evaluation included.
- That scholarship be given high priority in Fraternity education.
- That publicity be given at the chapter and Fraternity level of Brothers' scholastic achievements.

- That the search for "lost" Brothers continue.
- That each chapter should obtain and review their House Corporation articles and by-laws, in the presence of the chapter advisor and a corporation member.
- That house corporations should be responsible for: insurance, taxes, maintenance, mortgage and a building fund.
- That chapters undertake an objective self-evaluation of their programs.
- That an annual survey be developed for chapters, seeking successful rush programs.
- That the Endowment Fund trustees be encouraged to provide a new publication that would further stimulate the interest and prestige of the Solon E. Summerfield Awards on the chapter level, and provide a booklet that would include criteria, photos, and bibliography of the awards.
- That an annual Community Service Week be designated.
- That chapters and colonies place more emphasis on alumni relations.
- That greater usage be made of the Gold, Silver and Bronze Council awards.
- That the $250 fine levied against the four chapters failing to register for the 1976 GAC be sustained.

The Grand Arch Council registration book records those attending the Fraternity's biennial meetings.

New Executive

Look back to our heritage. Look ahead to our future, but don't stagnate in the present. The present and the future are predicated on the past, without which we wouldn't be Phi Kappa Psi about to celebrate our 125th Birthday. The present never really is and the future won't be unless we are moving.

With the dynamic Tom James years creating the mood and the atmosphere of the united mid-1970's, we are moving. The task, and the joy, of the leadership of Phi Kappa Psi having been generously bestowed upon me, I greet you Brothers, Alumni and Undergraduates. It is a pleasure to be able to make my covenant to you: I shall dedicate my time and efforts to the Fraternity; I will lead or I will follow according to the role deemed most effective in each individual situation; I will communicate with you, solicit your efforts and talents, enlist your support both personal and financial, and exhort you to keep the Fraternal Bond of Phi Kappa Psi aglow in your life each day.

The Executive Board and Executive Council will each have met in separate meetings by the time this greeting is published. Our appointed officers will have been confirmed and set to work. Our Archons will have their respective District Educational Leadership Conferences scheduled and planned. Our Executive staff will long since have been at work, and will know that they are a team together and a team with the Executive Council. All of your officers and staff are in place and working. We are your leadership team, but we are only part of the greater Phi Kappa Psi brotherhood. Now, what about you? Have you responded recently to your Fraternity? Can we count on your efforts and support—undergraduates and alumni?

No honor, no expression of confidence, no call of duty, no investiture with responsibility has meant more to me or has ever moved me more deeply. You have invested me with this high office, not politically sought or coveted by me. I will try with all of my effort, dedication and whatever my talents to merit this distinctive honor and responsibility. I shall hope to convey my response to this investiture through my stewardship to the office, to my Brothers and to the Fraternity.

Phi Kappa Psi provides a unique opportunity for men to contribute to the development and maturity of a college generation who are seeking support. We are a social organization founded on idealism as expressed in the Ritual and the Creed. We need each member's active participation in our affairs if we are to achieve anywhere near the greatness that is ours.

This Fraternity enjoys alumni support to a greater extent than nearly any of our contemporary rivals. In terms of numbers and dollar support, more than 4,800 alumni contributed $83,000 to the Fraternity last year. And this does not include the thousands of dollars contributed at the local chapter and colony level.

Hundreds of alumni hours are donated each year to the undergraduates. Phi Psis have proved selfless in repaying the value derived from their college fraternal association by returning to their chapters as advisors, consultants, and committee members. They willingly provide counsel to insure that the undergraduate experience is the best possible.

We need more assistance. We have chapters that must be stabilized, physical plants that need to be renovated, alumni associations to be revitalized, and educational programs to be implemented.

President Ken Potter is a man of commitment whose leadership was enthusiastically endorsed by the GAC in Washington. I look forward to working with him and the Executive Council in the pursuit of our common goals. Undergraduate and alumni Brothers will be called upon to serve their Fraternity in a variety of capacities, and hard work is the commitment we need to progress.

Our accomplishments are our proud tradition. We have served the cause of brotherhood for 125 years on an expanding network of college and university campuses. The commitment we made is a lifelong one. Your GAC delegates and Executive Council members are spirited, dedicated, and positive. We look forward to joining you in furthering the good purpose of Phi Kappa Psi.

When our President, Ken Potter, requested that I write a few comments for THE SHIELD, I realized how difficult it might be to briefly express my thoughts about the opportunity that has been afforded me as your elected officer.

The essence of my feelings calls to mind a quote from Albert Schweitzer, "I don't know what your destiny will be, but one thing I know: the ones among you who will be really happy are those who will have found how to serve."

I perceive a true spirit of service on the Executive Board and I look forward to and am excited about the opportunity of serving you with this capable team under Ken's leadership.

Our Fraternity has grown in its 124 years into a $370,000 annual business with assets exceeding $1,800,000. All these monies represent personal alumni contributions, initiation and pledge fees from ourselves and those who came before us, and income from our endowment and trust funds.

With these incomes and assets, the Executive Council is charged with the responsibility of providing basic services to our chapters, colonies, their related house corporations, and alumni associations.

There are three general areas I feel are important today: It has long been recognized that one of the best ways to improve our cash flow is through expansion—expansion of both the number of members in our chapters, and also the number of chapters. This must be done, however, sensibly and with a great deal of care to assure that we maintain our Phi Psi traditions of quality and high ideals.

Secondly, our growth over the last several years has placed a burden on our available space in the Cleveland Headquarters. It is now a necessity to consider a move to larger facilities and to begin funding the expenses of such a move.

Thirdly, a re-evaluation of our emergency assistance loan policies is now beginning with the objective of assuring prompt repayment of these loans so as to increase the funds to other chapters.

Let me assure you that we have a healthy, viable and expanding Fraternity and that all my efforts on the Fraternity's behalf will be directed toward assuring that we maintain this internal strength.

Wayne W. Wilson

Attorney General since 1974

Having been given the honor of being appointed Attorney General by the Executive Council, it is again my pleasure to be able to serve the Fraternity, and especially under our new President, J. Kenneth Potter. I am here to serve the Fraternity and its members. Therefore, do not hesitate to call upon me for any help.

In the course of my travels for the Fraternity, I am continually asked, "What does the Attorney General do?" To let you know what service I provide the Fraternity, I will try to answer that question.

The office of Attorney General is created in the By-Laws. He is appointed by the Executive Council and must be an Attorney. His job is to be legal advisor to the Fraternity and to interpret the Constitution, By-Laws and Rules of the Fraternity and of the Chapters, Councils, and Alumni Associations. The request for an interpretation may be made by any Brother or Organization. The decision of the Attorney General shall be final for all parties. Whenever the Executive Council shall adopt one of his decisions as an Official Opinion, then that Opinion shall have the force and effect of a By-Law until repealed. The Attorney General is to notify all Organizations whenever an opinion is adopted and periodically he is to publish a Digest of these opinions. (A Digest was just published in 1975.) Your Attorney General is also the Parliamentarian for the Fraternity and its various Councils. As a result of these functions, he is required by the Fraternity Law to attend all meetings of the Executive Board, Executive Council, and Grand Arch Council.

Your Attorney General is happy to be part of the current administration since he feels that Phi Kappa Psi is going to do nothing but move.

Seventy-Five Years at Vanderbilt

William D. Stuart Jr., Vanderbilt '75

The Spring initiates for Tennessee Delta pose for their official Phi Kappa Psi portrait.

AROUND 3:30 A.M., October 27, 1955, VGP Durwood Bradley of the Tennessee Delta chapter at Vanderbilt returned from a date to the Fraternity house at 2016 Terrace Place. Smelling smoke upon entering the front door, he began to arouse the six Brothers sleeping in the house. Bradley was just in time as he and four other Brothers were barely able to escape uninjured before a fire ignited a gas line and sent flames racing through the three-story structure. A sixth Brother was overcome by smoke and had to be carried from the house.

Nashville firemen fought the blaze for two hours before the fire was extinguished, but by that time the interior was ravaged and almost all the furniture lay in cinders. Later investigation placed the blame on faulty wiring in the basement or on an unsafe boiler. One small area that was left relatively undamaged was the second floor library, formerly the room of Uncle Frank Smith, Tennessee Delta's resident advisor and friend from 1916 to 1946. As if his presence was still aiding the chapter he befriended for so long, the Charter, ritual and scrapbooks kept in the room were not harmed. Other favors for which Deltans were grateful were the fact that the mortgage had long been paid off and the insurance had been raised a year previously to cover the current value of the home.

Nevertheless, the dwelling that had sheltered the fraternity experiences of Tennessee Delta for some fifty years was gone. Designed by Caleb Motz, a Brother initiated in 1903, the grand old home with its magnificent ballroom had stood for years as the only house at Vandy, built to be a fraternity house. Now it lay in ruins. This tragedy forced the Brothers to live in three rented houses over the next ten years. As the group moved like gypsies, plans for a new house gradually crystallized.

During these troubled times, the fraternal bonds the Deltans shared grew stronger and stronger. At last a certain active alumnus stepped forward to advise and aid the chapter, as he had so faithfully done many times in the past. This Brother was H. Fort Flowers, '09, surely one of the most devoted and loyal Phi Psis who ever lived. At his death in 1975, Brother Flowers had attended 25 GAC's, and he remained as ardent a fraternity supporter at his passing as any enthusiastic freshman pledge.

Having amassed a fortune by way of various inventions, Brother Flowers, through a foundation, assisted the chapter in purchasing a new lot and financing a permanent chapter home. In the early sixties, with his support, a most desirable corner lot on Vandy's fraternity row was purchased. After numerous frustrating delays, the new house was finally constructed on that site under the university guidelines which require that all houses should sleep only the top six officers. The Brotherhood moved into the new location at 103 Kensington Place in the fall of 1965. Ten years of difficult and trying times had passed, but these had been times filled with rewarding fraternity experiences.

This chapter house, the newest and most expensive at Vanderbilt, was financed partly through a loan from the H. Fort Flowers Foundation. Final repayment of the principal and interest of the loan, which amounted to $45,000, was to be accomplished on or before July 1 of 1975. An intensive fund-raising drive was launched in 1974 by the Nashville Alumni Association to secure the $15,000 that then remained of the debt.

At this time, a second Brother came to the aid of the chapter with another admirable example of brotherly generosity. James W. Stewart, '46, at the outset remaining anonymous, offered to match all donations up to $7,500. Brother Stewart was moved to make this gift in honor of his son, James W. Stewart Jr., '70, who had been tragically killed in a car-train wreck in 1973.

To spur the drive along, a "One Percenter Club" was established by the Alumni Association to consist of those who donated $75 or more to the house fund. Sixty Brothers from all eras joined the club through their gifts, and 105 Brothers answered the plea for assistance with varying amounts so that by July, 1975, the goal was easily reached.

The debt to the Foundation was thus paid in full, and the Foundation, continuing their generosity, donated that money to the Vanderbilt engineering school for scholarships. The paying off of the house note makes Tennessee Delta the only fraternity at Vanderbilt to own her own house and land. All others rent university housing. This situation provides a bedrock-strong financial base upon which all chapter activities are built.

A year later in 1976, the 75th anniversary of the founding of Phi Psi at Vanderbilt finds the chapter in excellent health spiritually as well as financially. The move to the new quarters in 1965 signaled the beginning of one of the strongest and most stable periods in the group's history. The chapter's highly organized and selective rush system continues to attract talented pledge classes which keep the Chapter's membership around 80 when the freshman class is initiated each spring. As Vanderbilt's student body has grown more geographically diverse over the years, so have the classes of Phi Psi. Twenty-five states were represented in the 1975-76 chapter membership.

Formal freshman rush at Vandy takes place in January of each year, while upperclassmen and transfers may take a bid at the end of September. This system is the result of a 1970 compromise between the Greeks who desired September freshman rush and a university committee which proposed sophomore rush. This compromise was engineered by the Phi Psi representatives to the Interfraternity Council. The change did not cause a drop in membership so feared at the time by the campus Greeks, and the percentage of fraternity men at Vanderbilt is holding steady at just under 50 percent.

The pledge program leading to initiation for these classes has been refined over the years to consist of a meaningful series of experiences lasting the maximum of five weeks allowed by the administration. This relatively short period compresses the pledging experience beyond what most other chapters know, so it represents a challenge to educate the pledges to Phi Psi and to the fraternity way of life in that time.

In its program, the chapter strives to base each requirement of the pledges on a constructive, positive justification. The hour-a-day at the house is the core of the pledge education system at Tennessee Delta. This time is used to allow the pledges to get to know the Brothers better and to acquaint the pledges to fraternity academics. Weekly tests on the material and work sessions to clean the house, as well as a pledge project are used to enhance the theme of pledge unity and brotherhood.

The strength of the chapter as a whole continues to be the diversity of the individual interests outside the Fraternity. Recent years have seen Tennessee Delta win the positions on campus of student body president, editor of the annual, presidents of all four classes, as well as the presidencies of several academic and extracurricular organizations.

The campus singing competition, the Athenian Sing, currently seems to be one of the chapter's favorite activities. Phi Psi, having won four years in a row with medleys from Broadway hits such as Cabaret, Paint Your Wagon, and Fiddler on the Roof almost owns the first place trophy. Deltans have also done well in the Sigma Nu Quiz Bowl, winning two first and two second places. Also, the Phi Psis have recently been in contention in all of the interfraternity sports.

The academics of the chapter have recently risen to rest among the top of the 15 fraternities at Vandy, but that has not stopped the Brothers from leading a social life considered among the most prestigious of the traditionally high-living Vandy Greeks. Theme parties are popular at Vanderbilt, and although the famous "Apache Dancers" party is no longer held, the chapter has replaced it with a casino-type Twenties party.

The actual 75th anniversary celebration is currently in the planning stages and will be held on or near Founders Day in February. At that time a complete chapter directory and a 75-year history will be available to all Brothers.

Fiscal Years 1975 and 1976

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

AS A supplement to the Annual Report offered in the Summer, 1976, issue of THE SHIELD, presented here are the financial highlights of the Fraternity's operations for the fiscal years ended May 31, 1975 and 1976. The fiscal year of the Fraternity, ending as it does, makes it necessary to offer this report separately, rather than in the review of the statistical record of the Fraternity when the usual overview and commentary on the state of Phi Kappa Psi are made.

Costs of operation continue to rise, making it more difficult for the Fraternity to stay within its income, although a $4,000 surplus for fiscal year 1976 was shown. Ordinarily, by combining a year in which the Grand Arch Council is held with a non-convention year, a surplus for the biennium can be shown. This is not so with the current biennium where we record an $11,000 loss. The surplus for the 1972-73 biennium was $85,000, and for 1973-74 $43,000, so that if the present programs are to continue, new forms of revenue must be found.

Undergraduate membership income (initiation and pledge fees) amounted to $136,000, while income from alumni support and investments accounted for $224,000. Miscellaneous and income from sale of inventories ($13,000) made up the balance. Undergraduate income accounts for less than 37 per cent of the revenue, down from 40 per cent a year ago, and alumni and investment income represent about 62 per cent of the total income.

The Fraternity's educational foundation, the Endowment Fund of Phi Kappa Psi, Inc., increased its total assets from $261,000 to $274,000 during the year, a gain of $13,000, compared to $31,000 a year ago, or an increase of $43,000 for the biennium. Loans to students increased from $58,000 to $68,000 for the year. Revenue in excess of expenses was $14,000 for 1976, compared to $31,000 in 1975. Grants and awards made during the year totaled $12,000. Newly created programs, which include the Outstanding Summerfield Scholar Awards and Tutors-in-Residence, will be reflected in the current year's operation.—RDD

FROM HERE . . . AND THERE

THOMAS A. MCEACHERN JR., Virginia '25, has been elected to honorary membership to The Order of the Coif at the University of Virginia Law School. Brother McEachern was recognized for his long-time interest and service to the Law School. He retired from Commonwealth Gas Corporation in New York as its legal council in 1971. He resides now in Charlottesville, Va. He was president of his chapter during 1928-29.

HARRY T. KAUFMANN, Colgate '26, has been presented the 1976 Award for Community Service by the South Jersey Public Relations Association. This year, he served as Citizenship Chairman and had the responsibility of coordinating the ceremonies for U.S. Citizenship for 68 candidates in Haddonfield.

KENNETH B. MACLOGAN, Columbia '29, has recently retired as an accountant with the Washington State Dept. of Social and Health Services. Most of his career was as an accountant and administrator in industry, except for 11 years as a Methodist minister in Kansas and Washington. He took retired status in that area in 1974.

WALTER LEE SHEPPARD JR., Cornell '29, is heading new consulting corporation specializing in chemically resistant masonry. C.C.R.M., Inc. is located in Havertown, Penn. Brother Sheppard is a registered professional engineer (Delaware and California) and has had experience since 1938 in the material selection design and installation of chemically resistant brick.

DAVID K. EASLICK, Michigan '40, has been named as recipient of the 1976 B'nai B'rith International Humanitarian Award for "distinguished and enduring contributions of a humanitarian nature." Brother Easlock is the current president of Michigan Bell Telephone Company and formerly served as vice-president of Indiana Bell. Past awards have been presented to the late U.S. Chief Justice Earl Warren and to David Ben-Gurion.

KENT FRIZZELL, Northwestern '48, has left the position of Under Secretary of the Interior to become the director of the national energy law and policy institute of Tulsa, Okla.

FALL, 1976

Robert D. Southerland

ROBERT D. SOUTHERLAND, Texas Tech '58, has recently been promoted to senior vice president and trust officer in charge of the installment loan department for the Commercial Bank & Trust Co., Midland, Texas. Brother Southerland is a 1971 graduate of the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking at SMU. He currently is an instructor of banking at Midland College. He and his family reside in Midland, Texas.

JAMES W. SINCLAIR, Gettysburg '63, has been promoted to the position of central division sales manager of PERMACEL, a division of Johnson and Johnson. Brother Sinclair joined the firm in 1971 following five years on active duty with the Marine Corps. He resides currently in Fort Wayne, Ind.

MICHAEL A. LANE, Texas '65, has been promoted from field sales engineer to manager—market planning and development of energy at ITT, Cannon Electric Div., Santa Ana, Calif.

CHARLES L. PARKER, Wabash '66, has graduated from the Indiana University Medical School and is in his third year of residency in OB/Gyn in New Bern, North Carolina.

John T. Kemper

JOHN T. KEMPER, Wabash '69, was commissioned June 24 as an Ensign in the United States Navy Reserve and currently is on active duty in Georgia. He was formerly with City Securities Corp. in Indianapolis as a sales representative.

A. FRANK KLAM, Texas '69, has been promoted to division landman for Anadarko Production Company's Houston Division. He is responsible for all of the firm's land activities in New Mexico, Louisiana and Mississippi.

JOHN SCHNIEDER JR., Southwestern Louisiana '69, has been elected City Councilman for Lafayette, La. He has also been Police Juror for Lafayette Parish.

RICHARD KURY, Akron '70, has been promoted to the position of vice president for institutional advancement at Siena Heights College, Adrian, Mich. Brother Kury's duties will include the directing of corporate development, planned and deferred giving, foundations and public relations.

JAMES D. MCKNIGHT, Wittenberg '72, has been recently graduated from the Vermont Law School, South Royalton. Brother McKnight served as a clerk for two Vermont law firms and worked on the State District Court Judge's Judiciary Committee.

KARL D. GERICKE, Ashland '73, is employed as a sales representative for Congoleum Corporation, Resident Flooring Division. He is traveling in Iowa and Illinois.

The JOHN HENRY FRIZZELL (Amherst '98) Award, named in honor of Pennsylvania Lambda's founder and long time advisor, went to RICHARD C. IMBROGNO of Pennsylvania State University. This made the eleventh time that the annual $300 award was presented. Mr. Imbrogno, a senior majoring in political science, was selected on the basis of scholarship, activities and need by a committee of the Pennsylvania Lambda Educational Foundation.

University of Alabama Fall Rush

The Brothers of Alabama Alpha spent the summer months separated but involved in rush for the Fall semester. The rush activities were consummated with our summer rush party the weekend of August 30, which included skiing, swimming and a farm party. Everyone enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Fall rush activities sponsored by the university have ended and the Brothers have pledged 12 men. They are: Sidney Camp and Harry Katapodis, Atlanta; Mike Taft, Birmingham; Bob Lewis, Moulton; Scott Plumb, Duncanville; John Bierchen, Clearwater, Fla.; Bob McLamb, Scott AFB, Ill.; Dave Ekland, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Paul Bader, Cheshire, Conn.; Dayn Beam, Huntsville; B. B. Boles, Milton, Fla.; Dan Ricker, Falls Church, Va.

Formal rush was concluded with our annual Squeal Night Party. This party helped introduce our pledges to the University. They all seemed to have a great time as did the undergraduates and alumni in attendance.

Congratulations go to Dennis Cameron who was recently married, and the chapter expresses its thanks to Chapter Consultants Jack Harris and Carl Bennett for their help in rush.

Allegheny College Distinguished Sportsmen

Pennsylvania Beta, coming off of a very successful year, is now eagerly anticipating the start of the 1976-77 school year. During the spring term, the Brothers topped off a long effort by once again becoming the best academic chapter on campus. Leading the academic resurgence were Jack Hoey, Edwin Tompkins, Andrew Muffley, Tony Grace, Jay Bolan and Mike Young. Jack Hoey won the Doane Award, Allegheny College's highest award for academic achievement.

Pennsylvania Beta also had two Brothers who distinguished themselves in sports. Jack Hoey and John Nilsen, in intramural track and field, won the shotput and discus, respectively, setting new records with their efforts.

Pennsylvania Beta is now looking forward to the fall term. Rush has just started and everyone is anticipating a good year. Also, the chapter football team under the direction of William Janes has just started its training. In addition to intramural football, the team will be playing, as a part of rush, the various freshmen teams.

Planning has begun for the Phi Psi 500, held on October 9. The 500, a tri-cycle race, is an annual campus-wide event for charity. Pennsylvania Beta's Homecoming will be held the weekend of October 16. All alumni are encouraged to come to the Alumni-Brother Party planned for that weekend.

Thomas D. Reardon and Keith M. Schultz of Pittsburgh, Robert W. Blevins of Leechburg, and Thomas A. McCaffrey of Martinsville, N.J., were initiated into the chapter on May 23.

Richard Abel and Jay Bolan attended the GAC for the chapter and its alumni this past summer. They sat on the Committee for Alumni Affairs and Public Relations and the Committee for Chapter House Corporations, respectively.

Arizona State University New Resident Advisor

The sky is the limit for Arizona Beta from now on. Over the summer we received a loan from the Fraternity. With it, we bought carpets, furniture, drapes, and building supplies to rejuvenate our house. Six Brothers were very instrumental in doing the majority of the work over the summer. They are: Tim Jones, Joe Lopez, David Jorgensen, Ed Switaj, Pat May, and Chris Gliniak. The rest of the Brothers greatly appreciate their efforts. We are proud to have one of the nicest fraternity houses at Arizona State University.

For the first month of school we have been organizing ourselves, and planning activities for the semester. We are working on philanthropies, intramurals, and sorority exchanges. We are concentrating efforts at the moment on the Phi Psi 500. At our 500 last year, we received plenty of support from other Greeks on campus. We expect the same support this year in making the 500 second only to Greek Week as the largest Greek event at Arizona State.

In September we were visited by the California Epsilon and California Eta chapters. We enjoyed them and hope that they had a good time with us.

We are proud to announce that Randy Donant, Director of Fraternity Education, is our new Resident Advisor. We expect him to be a big help in educating the 11 men we pledged this fall. All in all it looks like a banner year for Arizona Beta.

Ashland College Tenth Anniversary

The Brotherhood thanks all of the alumni who made this summer's Alumni Weekend such a success. A special thanks goes out to Jerry Dunlap, Al Vild, and Rick Lynch for a job well done in organizing the first of hopefully many of these summer Alumni Weekends. The weekend was kicked off by the reacquaintance by many of our charter members. Old memories and good times were shared by such charter members as: Karl Jenkins, Fred Visci, Gary Kula, Kent Evans, Ron Power, Ralph Thauvette, Michael Vanni, Pete Jagoda, John Wolfram, Gary Olsen, Ed Schauf, Frank Gamble, Robert Visci, Mark Miller, Jim Stauffer, Randy Smith, and Ron Heitz.

The following evening Helen B. Smith, the former housemother of our Chapter, was honored at a testimonial dinner at the Fraternity house. Phi Psi alumni who attended the dinner came from the states of New York, California, Virginia, Arizona, Tennessee and various parts of Ohio.

Shortly before classes ended second semester, new officers were elected to lead our Chapter through our upcoming fall semester. Our new officers are: James Lull, GP; John Fry, VGP; Steve Gaber, AG; John Ferguson, P; William Waterman, BG; Pat Crahan, Phu; Bill Gaydos, Hod; Al Shoemake, SG; and Jesse Irwin, Hi. Also elected to positions were: Jay Della Villa, songleader; Joe Pfalzgraf, house president; and Jim Clark, steward.

The Brothers are starting to formulate plans for Homecoming Weekend of October 30. It promises to be a weekend that will be a memorable experience for those in attendance. We are looking forward to seeing many alumni back for this event.

This year holds promise for the Phi Psis in the intramurals here at A.C. Behind the outstanding leadership of Ron Babbkoff, this season should once again put the chapter on top.

Ohio Theta has a number of Brothers participating in fall sports. John Fry and Kim Kerchner round out the Phi Psi football players. Tim Benjamin is involved in soccer here at A.C.

As a final note to alumni, remember Homecoming and please feel free to drop by the house anytime you are in the area.

Auburn University Social-Service Cup

Our officers for fall quarter are Stephen Diah Burns, GP; Richard Kent Reece, VGP; Jeff Alan Foshee, P; Robert Van Bell, Assistant P; Michael Lee Nash, AG; Gordon Alan Lowrey, BG; John Wallace McBurney, SG; Thomas Raymond Yoli, Hod; Huey Jackson Davis Jr., Phu; and Orlando Salvador Moron, Hi.

During Spring quarter Clifford Robert Chambers, Auburn, joined our chapter as an associate member. Also, on April 4, 1976, John Wallace McBurney, Opelika; Thomas Raymond Yoli, Montgomery; and Huey Jackson Davis Jr., Vestavia Hills, were initiated.

In spring our chapter was the recipient of the Ralph Brown Draughon Social-Service Cup, considered by many the most distinguished award presented by the Auburn University Interfraternity Council. The cup is presented annually to the chapter best exemplifying its ideals. Furthermore, we were number one among all campus groups in spirit for the year.

In addition, Alabama Beta distinguished itself scholastically last year with the associate members being number one overall and the chapter being number three among the 28 fraternities here at Auburn.

The spirit of service was flowing as we spent a day at the Holy Trinity Convent providing manpower where it was needed. Moreover, our Third Annual Phi Psi Clothes Drive was again very successful.

The social life at Auburn was not lacking as we had a House Party at Panama City, Fla. We also had a tremendous Parents Day Banquet after an exciting

A-Day football game. Traditionally, we concluded the quarter with our end of the quarter bash.

Finally, we would like to report that negotiations were closed on our new house located on 231 South Gay Street. We would like to wish everyone a successful year.

MICHAEL LEE NASH, Correspondent

Bowling Green New Year

With great expectations, the Brothers of Ohio Zeta have begun another academic year at Bowling Green. Always an academic leader on campus, the Brothers were awarded a plaque honoring them as having the highest grade point average of any fraternity on campus for the 1975-76 school year.

Last spring also saw the election of new officers. Those elected were: Greg Steyer, GP; Gary Schnacke, VGP; Chris Goldsmith, P; Jack Eckley, AG; Mark Entrup, BG; Dave Roberts, Hi; and Byron Willford, Phu. Due to attrition, the post of Phu will be filled in the fall election.

October 16 marked the date for this year's annual homecoming festivities. This event is generally the biggest social event of the year for Ohio Zeta. During the afternoon, Brothers and their dates attended the homecoming game between Bowling Green and rival Kent State. Then, that evening, dinner was served at the Sheraton Inn located in Toledo. The evening was a memorable one. However, homecoming is not the only social activity of the quarter. Several sorority teas and warm-ups are also planned. And, several brotherhood trips to Bowling Green's out-of-town football games are scheduled.

Fall quarter also finds intramural activities in full swing. We are participating this year in football, soccer, tennis, handball, and hockey. Although not a perennial power, Ohio Zeta generally fields strong teams in soccer and hockey.

The new year has brought several changes to the Chapter. Ohio Zeta alumnus John Ulrich has been elected to the post of chapter advisor. John has been instrumental in the past in guiding the Chapter and we look forward to his continued efforts for our betterment. Elected as faculty advisor was another alumnus, James Schindler. "Jamie," is an instructor in marketing at the University. Like John, we wish Jamie the best of luck in his new position. Both Jamie and John are past presidents of Ohio Zeta.

Ohio Zeta recently welcomed four more men to the mysteries of the Fraternity. They are, M. Reg Laughlin, Zanesville; Scott R. Thomas, Findlay; Andrew P. Smith, Fairview Park; and Richard M. Ogden, Chagrin Falls.

Representing Bowling Green at the Grand Arch Council this summer were President Greg Steyer and chapter advisor, John Ulrich. At the Washington, D.C., conference they gained valuable insight into the workings of the Fraternity and came back to Bowling Green with many excellent ideas of which some have already been implemented.

And, as this is being written, we are in the middle of a very successful fall rush. Attendance at rush has been markedly up over previous years and we are looking forward to a strong pledge class, and an exciting and productive year at Ohio Zeta.

Brown University Active in Sports

The Brothers and pledges are very active this year in team sports. Kevin Crook, John Andersen, David Field, Peter Eident, Paul Michalko, Philip Budinger, Mark Epstein, Richard Galvin, Alan Thompson, and Thomas Thurow are all on the Bruin varsity football team. Paul Obermeyer, Raymond Martin, Michael Lombardo, Stephen Dickstein, Jay Abraham, Stephen Kurtz, and Eric Chilton are members of the "number-four-nationally-ranked" varsity soccer team. Timothy Driscoll is serving his fourth term as manager of that same team. John Burnham is the Commodore of the University Yacht Club. He, Richard Hayden, and Reed Baer are members of the Brown sailing team. David Wise, Ross Greenburg, Anthony Fiorillo, and Steve McCormick play rugby for Brown's nationally-ranked team. Thomas Conboy, GP, is the president of the Brown Key Club, and Hal Tovin, Hod, is the president of the Bruin Club. Hal is also a very active member of the Undergraduate Council of Students, the newly-reorganized body of student government at Brown.

Congratulations are in order for a recently graduated chapter member, Steven C. Ramsey, who earned the over-all, national Solon E. Summerfield Award. The membership of Rhode Island Alpha also thanks all of the generous Brown alumni who donated over two hundred dollars to their chapter over the summer in response to our newsletter publication. Other noteworthy news on campus is that everyone here is eagerly anticipating the January arrival of University president-elect Howard Swearer, a 44-year-old political scientist and current president of Carlton College in Northfield, Minn.

Bucknell University House Renovation

Quixotically speaking, Pennsylvania Gamma has effectuated a veritable social millenium. The brotherhood has manifested a strong sense of cohesiveness while accentuating the development of individualism. A rapport of this quality can only promise greatness for the future.

Phi Psi men have engrossed themselves in college government and activities. Terrence O'Connor and John Gherlein are respective president and vice president of the Interfraternity Council. Their wisdom and insight are an asset to the organization. Herodotus Purcell and Ward Rafferty hold two of ten positions on the university senate.

Of late, Phi Psis have academic recognition, the quest has been rewarded. Robertib Carter and Robert Miller were presented the William T. Grier Award for supereminence in the language of Latin.

Let it be stated, the Ice Machine Cometh!

Renovation of the house, both external and internal has been a high priority for the Brothers of Penn Gamma. Two terraces of trees and evergreen bushes were constructed at the apexical borders of the Phi Psi green. Similarly, the penetralia of the homestead have shown considerable improvement, resulting directly from the assimilation of additional latex. The dining room was the highlight of the effort as it was fully painted and antiqued. A more rustic appearance now greets the hungry peddlers.

Despite a ruthless and relentless rain-storm, formal rush got off to a solid start.

Rush Chairmen Tom Salamone and Cal Slemph have devised what looks to be a creative and rewarding rush program.

Homecoming Weekend, September 18, was an entertaining and highly enjoyable time. The rage was Ensign Walsh's 1976 Veal Cutless Supreme, a tantalizing car indeed. Vic Menghetti, our pride and joy, represented the students as Homecoming Host.

In our last report, Phi Psi was inching up in quest of the Pangburn intramural sports trophy. In the final outcome Phi Psi won, earning the award for the fifth consecutive year. Thus far, only the soccer competition has been initiated. Pennsylvania Gamma has risen to the occasion defeating many formidable teams. Sporting a strong defense, the team has tallied four shutouts and only three losses.

Phi Psi men have become increasingly involved in intercollegiate athletics. Playing on Bucknell's stellar soccer team are Mark Schiowitz, Peter Dorsey, Ira Newman and Gumbart Elliot. A nationally ranked team is anticipated. The game of rugby continues to infatuate Phi Psis. Such notorious athletes as Gerard Purcell, Chris Karabin, Robert Lisp, Craig Fravel, Kurt Krevitz and Gary Cummings contribute to the team's success. The team is captained by Tom Heinen, an individual of intellectual omniscience and athletic stoutness. The aquatic domain finds Jimbo Hessler, a talented swimmer, playing water polo.

Phi Psi men have continued their longstanding tradition of community involvement and interaction. David Dempsey heads the Big Brother-Big Sister program in the Lewisburg area. This mode of sharing is integral to the children and is a social asset to the community. For Halloween Pennsylvania Gamma will be contributing its resources and enthusiasm to assist the March of Dimes in constructing and modeling a haunted house. No doubt spooking will be a main attraction.

Alas, we must part. Until we meet again.

Butler University Chapter House Fund Raising

Significant progress has been made toward the provision of a chapter house for the Brothers of Indiana Zeta and we are preparing to begin our fund raising efforts. The approved house plans call for a three-story house with 16 two-man rooms and a spacious living and dining area. The facade is enhanced by four majestic pillars and full length windows. A brochure explaining our fund raising activities is now available and can be obtained by writing the Brothers of Indiana Zeta at Butler University, Box 9, Indianapolis, Ind. 46208.

Fortunately, by mid-semester this fall, ten of our 35 members should be residing in a University owned lodge previously occupied by the Alpha Phi sorority. This will still leave approximately 12 of us in the men's dormitory, however, and the remainder living in apartments in town.

Despite these extreme inconveniences and physical disunity, we are still superior academically. Again last semester we won the Sigma Chi scholarship trophy, awarded annually to the men's housing unit with the highest grade point average. This stretches our record to 14 consecutive semesters—as many semesters as we have been on campus. Our spring pledges again had the distinction of the highest pledge class grade point average.

Three outstanding men were initiated last May, bringing the total number of men initiated at Indiana Zeta to 80. These three were: Kevin Gueldenhaar, Pontiac, Ill.; L. W. Kelly Sieben, Dover, N.J.; and Kevin Tully, Vienna, Va.

Three of last year's freshmen, Charley Shirley, Tom Harris, and Kelly Sieben were elected as president, vice president, and treasurer, respectively, of Phi Eta Sigma, the freshman men's honor fraternity.

Additional activities the Brothers of Indiana Zeta were involved in last spring include Spring Sing in which we shared second place with the Alpha Chi Omega Sorority. Our annual trip to King's Island amusement park on April 24, socials with the Kappa Kappa Gamma and Alpha Chi Omega sororities, and a picnic provided for a socially active spring.

Election of officers was held September 15, and the results are as follows: James Coleman, GP; Douglas Pollack, VGP; Charles Shirley, AG; Jeffrey Fehn, P; M. Shane Rummel, BG; Thomas Harris, SG; Kevin Gueldenhaar, Phu; Ralph Berry, Hod; John Zietlow, Hi.

Rush went well and we took a pledge class of eight. They are: Todd Bryant, Goshen; Scott Cummings and Bruce Schram, Indianapolis; Dave Daly, Winchester; Marsh Davis, Dyer; Gene Hollenberg, Ft. Wayne; Brett Neff, Goshen; and Maarten Wilbers, Voorschoten, Netherlands. We are proud of these men and can expect them to maintain the high standards of Indiana Zeta. We sincerely hope that this is the last pledge class that must reside in the dorm.

Social activities this fall include winning the tug-of-war and cider chugging contest during festivities at the annual Kappa Sigma Sadie Hawkins Day and winning the bike race at the Tau Kappa Epsilon Fall Festival.

Again, the undergraduate Brothers of Indiana Zeta appreciate the efforts of our alumni and house corporation for bringing us still closer to finally gaining a chapter house.

CHARLEY SHIRLEY, Correspondent

The proposed chapter house for Indiana Zeta at Butler is presented here for review. A major fund-raising campaign is underway for the house.

UCLA 26 Pledges

The Brothers of Cal Ep enter the fall quarter with great expectations for a tremendous year. The chapter has been strengthened by the initiation of four fine men from last winter's pledge class. The new Brothers are: Bill Moylan, Clark Dubreuil, Dallas von Pohlmann, and Vic Ramirez.

We elected new officers at the end of last year and positive effects have already been felt. The new officers include: Chuck Barsam, GP; Dave Kay, VGP; Dan Shugart, AG; Jim McCarty, P; Dave Jarrett, BG; Larry Sharp, SG; Dallas von Pohlmann, Phu; Larry Lincoln, Hi; Ben Graham, Hod.

Brother Barsam had a tough act to follow in replacing graduating GP Tim Moore but we are confident Chuck will continue the tradition of fine leadership. Two new committees have been instituted to improve the chapter. The house refurbishing committee has worked with the house corporation to replace the ancient furniture in the living room with new couches and to get badly needed dining room furniture. The Brothers have also re-landscaped the back yard and have re-decorated the chapter room and bar area as well as the rest of the house.

The new fund-raising committee has made it possible to purchase a new color TV which arrived in time for rush week.

The Brothers staged a productive summer and fall rush which netted Phi Psi the strongest pledge class at UCLA. The 26-man class is the largest at Cal Ep in years and includes: Brian Levy and Rick Davis, Woodland Hills; Randy MacDougall, Newport Beach; Howard Weisenfeld and Jeff Wallack, Studio City; Paul Simon, Steve Palmieri, and Mike Robinson, Irvine; John Courtney and Martin Courtney, Northridge; Greg Lampert, Cypress; Mike Gunning, Thousand Oaks; Tim Hayes and Mike McLaughlin, Costa Mesa; Dave Shatz, La Crescenta; Bob Raphael, Westminster; Rod Perez, Brea; Brad Livingston, Arcadia; Danny Potter, Huntington Beach; Bob Weaver, Palo Alto; Greg Swanson, Placentia; Dave Eckard, Livermore; Vince Moore and Alan Nierob, Beverly Hills; Mike Weitz, San Rafael; and Steve Mann, Los Angeles. Pledge MacDougall is the stepson of Cal Ep Brother Robert Alshuler and Pledge Greg Swanson is the son of Brother Charles Swanson (Illinois Alpha). Congratulations to rush chairman Will Klatter for conducting such a successful rush and a special thanks to alumni Brothers Willis Morrison and Richard Bardwil for their efforts in aiding our summer rush.

Cal Ep is proud of its past AG, Nestor Barrero, who at the GAC was awarded the Edgar Fahs Smith Award as the Best Chapter Corresponding Secretary.

The "summer Brothers" of Cal Ep gladly played host to over 50 visiting Brothers this summer from chapters from Arizona to Rhode Island. Any Brothers visiting Los Angeles are urged to stop in and experience Cal Ep hospitality. We would also like to thank the Brothers of Arizona Beta for putting up with us during our visit for the UCLA-ASU football game.

Alumni relations are continuing to improve and the committee is in the process of finalizing plans for functions in the coming year. Again we urge any alumni in the area to come by the chapter and share the pride that exists in California Epsilon.

Socially, we are having an extremely active quarter with exchanges with the Chi Omegas, Pi Phis, Thetas, and Kappas along with our annual Halloween and Christmas parties heading the social calendar. Yes, all is going very well at Cal Ep.

California State Poly Tenth Anniversary

On May 29, 1976, Cal Eta installed seven young men into the ranks of Phi Kappa Psi. We are proud to welcome William Frederickson, Randy Zorkocy, Biff Pietro, Craig Elferdink, Dave Long, Donald Foge and Randy Gordon.

Sports were again a success story for the Cal Etans. In basketball, we completed our season with a 7-0 record, extending our record for three years to 21-0. In track, the cindermen compiled over 150 points, 70 points more than any other fraternity in the Greek Week Olympics. With wins in basketball and track and fair showings in football and baseball, Phi Psi was able to finish second in All Sports.

In April, Cal Eta held its second Annual Easter Egg Hunt for the children of San Luis Obispo. The Brothers hard-boiled, colored, and hid more than 200 dozen eggs and watched as 500 local children searched them out.

Leading Cal Eta this fall are Mark Shorba, GP; Mike Butala, VGP; Frank Dugan, P; Tim Mayeda, BG; Ken Pederson, AG; Dorian McKelvy, SG; Gerry Mendelovitz, Phu; Dave Turnipseed, Hod; Jim Rogers, Pledge Educator; and Bill Miyawaki and Tom O'Hern, Rush Chairmen. Brothers are involved with many clubs and committees on campus. Allyne Browne is chairman of Week of Welcome, Cal Poly's new student orientation program, Jim Rogers is chairman of Poly Royal, Bob Stabler is assistant chairman of Homecoming.

On April 23, Cal Eta celebrated 10 years of belonging to Phi Kappa Psi with a midnight meeting at the Methodist Church in San Luis Obispo. One hundred and fifty of Cal Eta's 250 Brothers attended to witness 35 of her 48 charter members receive a 10-year pin. This was also the date of Cal Poly's 43rd Poly Royal.

In June, Cal Eta was saddened by the death of John Stone. The Gold Coast Alumni Association has changed its scholarship award to the John Stone Scholarship Award, which is a $50.00 scholarship given once a quarter to the Brother with the highest grade point average.

Cal Eta's house corporation, after investigating several houses, has started escrow on 1303 Garden Street, the home of Cal Eta for the past 10 years. All paperwork is in process now and should be completed by the first of this coming year.

On Aug. 6, 1976, eight Cal Etans and two Cal Thetans left San Luis Obispo in a 27-foot motor home—destination the GAC in Washington, D.C. After five days the group finally made it to Washington safely. The Cal Etans enjoyed the four days in D.C. and their trip home. They thank all the Brothers who entertained them on their many stops at chapter houses across the nation.

Cal Eta congratulates District VI and John Ciccarelli on having traveled over 3,000 miles and still have 100 percent representation at the GAC.

We hope all chapters and colonies have a most successful school year.

JOHN BARRY, Correspondent

California State University Northridge New Pledges Inspire

Spurred by the spirit which took seven Cal Thetans to the 1976 GAC, the Brothers of this chapter are firmly ensconced in what promises to be the most rewarding rush in Cal Theta history. As of this report, the chapter stands upon a solid base of 11 pledges with one week of rush remaining. They are Jim Gardner, Ken Kottenbach, Gary Matansky, Vern Preston, Cliff Rayman, Bernie Richards, Jeff Ross, Wynn Schimmel, Steve Sherwood, John Soukup, and Neal Spellman.

Rush Chairman Lee Whitney attributes this fall's success to the consistently excellent contributions of the entire chapter, particularly the efforts of Mark Morgan, Mark Labash, and Ron LaVine, who spent endless hours boiling down lists of names and manning the phones.

The confidence permeating Cal Theta traces back to last April's Phi Psi 500, in which $516.26 was raised and donated to Easter Seals. Women from all but one of CSUN's sororities competed on the most grueling course ever designed, highlighted by a four-foot-deep mud hole.

Encouraged by the success of the 500, seven Brothers journeyed cross-country to attend the GAC: District VI Archon John Ciccarelli, Mark Morgan, Jay Babchuck, Murray Berg, Scott Muravnick, Lee Whitney, and charter member Bruce Kirk.

GP Mitch Cohen hopes the momentum that has carried Cal Theta into the fall will continue to take the chapter closer to its goals of a 50-man active body and ownership of a house.

He has able officers to aid him: VGP, Dave Deick; P, Randy Michel; AG, Lee Whitney; BG, Rich Rosenman; SG, Rich Bergman; Hod, Dan Humfreville; Phu, Scott Muravnick; and Hi, Ron LaVine.

Pledge Educator John Atkisson calls the new Alpha Rho pledge class the "most deluxe crew" to come along since the renowned Alpha Lambda class. Brother Atkisson promises a tough, enjoyable program that will teach the Rhos to be good actives.

According to Coach Randy Michel's outlook for football, Cal Theta will field a small but quick team featuring Bob Haddad at quarterback, Dave Blackwell at halfback, and a line of Paul Newnham, Greg Hamlin, and Neal Spellman.

Historian Rich Bergman has begun compiling photos, memorabilia, and artifacts for a presentation at Cal Theta's tenth anniversary celebration in June, 1977.

Bob Rapport has moved into the world of professional sports, serving as assistant director of communications for the Los Angeles Skyhawks of the American Soccer League.

Due credit must be given Housing Chairman Dave Friedrich '75 for keeping the house in its present condition through rush.

LEE WHITNEY, Correspondent

Colgate University Alumni Relations

As the Fall semester begins, New York Epsilon is ready for another productive year. The house underwent a major cleaning and as individual rooms shape up, the general outlook among the Brothers seems very good. The game room received a new paint job as well as new paneling from the pledge squad last spring and the tap room is, at this writing, getting a new ceiling in addition to a general overhaul in preparation for what we hope will be an excellent rush.

The 35 new Brothers are adding a vitality of spirit promising to produce a chapter unequalled on the campus.

Elections have resulted in a strong governing board: Richard Duell, GP; Jack Rogowski, VGP; Dudley Olcott, P; and Robert Bakemeier, BG. With the utilization of a new committee system (whereby each Brother is required to be a member of a committee) every Brother will be an integral part of the house machinery.

In sports, our intramural teams are looking forward to a strong performance and almost total participation. Coming close to capturing the all-sports award, the chapter placed second on campus last year and has its eye on the number-one position for the coming year.

A major portion of our energies are being funneled towards improving our alumni relations. Col. Whit Williams '42 and Ron Joyce '66 of the Alumni Corporation spoke recently to the Brothers. The discussion brought out a desire to fortify relations with our alumni Brothers. We hope in the future to have more alumni visit the house.

With homecoming weekend not far off (October 8-10), we cordially invite all alumni to come back, see the house, and attend what we hope will be an excellent cocktail party in their honor.

Finally, in the social arena, we recently had two successful parties (necessitated by an unusually large class of '80) for the freshmen women, extending Phi Psi's excellent reputation to all members of the Colgate community.

University of Colorado Reception for EC

At Colorado Alpha the surf is up, the wind is offshore, and the boys are cruising into another season of general Boulder-ness.

Putting together a super-human effort, and firing retrorockets powered by plenty of cases of Coors, the Brothers achieved, in one Labor Day weekend, the building of a railroad-tie planter in the front yard, featuring a stone and railroad-tie walkway, the painting of all halls, and the living room, the paneling of the rec room, and the general cleaning up of a lot of summer refuse.

Refinancing has been the big word at Colorado Alpha this year, as the Fraternity has guaranteed a new loan on the house. This removes a large burden from our previous creditor, Brother Bill Thornburg.

The Executive Council was in Denver recently and we enjoyed a cruising cocktail party with President J. Kenneth Potter, Executive Director Ralph Daniel, and the rest of the Executive Board of Phi Kappa Psi. Our thanks to those men whose good faith in our Chapter is responsible for the refinancing.

We regret to inform those who know Helen Eberharter that she broke her hip this summer. At last notice, however, she was coming along fine, healing well ahead of schedule, and as always, was the same feisty Helen, anxious to get back on the dance-floor. Any donations to Helen's retirement fund (after 29 years of cooking for us she deserves it) may be sent to her in care of the chapter.

Intramurals have begun, with Phi Psi winning from the outset, and defending their all-school titles in football, and volleyball, and hoping to improve to a title in soccer after making the playoffs last year.

All systems look go for the Phi Psis to blast off into another year of good karma in Boulder, and as always, we welcome at any time the visits of any Brothers in the area.

The SHIELD OF PHI KAPPA PSI

Cornell University NCAA Champs

New York Alpha Chapter returned to Cornell last month with high hopes for another great year. These hopes were immediately fulfilled as initiation, always the first order of business in the fall, was a resounding success. All the Brothers, both old and new, agreed that this year's initiation was rich in tradition, meaning, and just plain fun!

Tradition and fun were also the themes behind the annual Phi Psi Freshman Tea. It was tradition in that, as usual, the Tea was the first fraternity party at Cornell this year. And, of course, it was fun, thanks to the hard work of Social Chairmen Dave Voigt and Tim Houck. Brothers Voigt and Houck have planned a rigorous social schedule which includes Homecoming weekend (October 15, 16, 17) and Fall Weekend, the date of which had not been decided at press time.

Rush is by far the most important event of the fall for the brotherhood, and Rush Chairman Warren Allderige vows that this year's rush will be just as fruitful as those of previous years. Ably assisted by sophomores Jack Petti and Jack Ryan and by Joe Marletta, a junior, Brother Allderige hopes to create the type of psyche that has netted our chapter at least twenty pledges in each of the last four years.

Naturally, all Cornellians are proud of their lacrosse team which defeated Maryland in May to capture the NCAA title. We at New York Alpha congratulate Coach Richie Moran for winning his second national championship since coming to Cornell, and would also like to honor four of our Brothers who played on the championship team: Frank Muehleman, George Lau, John Griffin, and Greg Raschdorf.

Elections were held in May for this semester's house officers. Serving New York Alpha this fall are: John Paul, GP; Lou Minella, VGP; Frank Muehleman, P; Dan Lynn, AG; Jeff Allchin, BG; Tom Kirchmaier, SG; Vic Acquisti, Hi; Hammon Buck, Hod; and Steve Mermey and Joe Marletta, Phu. Congratulations are also in order for George Lau, steward, and Pete Eareckson, house manager.

With the spirit of the brotherhood already rising, we at New York Alpha are confident that this fall will be the start of another great year for Phi Psi at Cornell.

Creighton University Renewing Old Ties

With the initiation of our spring pledge class, the ranks of our active Brothers has increased to 83. Thirty-seven new Nebraska Betans were initiated into the mysteries of our brotherhood. They are: Raymond Annis, Joliet, Ill.; Mike Atkinson, San Francisco, Calif.; Thomas Bolt, Belleville, Ill.; Rick Bordwell, Duane Nielson, and Al Shimon, Pocahontas, Iowa; Steve Bruckner, Lincoln; Carlos Bujosa, Houston, Tex.; Brian Choyeske and Thomas Kirsch, Omaha; Brian Driscoll, Hauppauge, N.Y.; Carl Boraiko, Randy Castegnaro, and Rick Donnelly, Rockford, Ill.; Steve Dudek and Robert Powers, Milwaukee, Wis.; Brad Frantzen, Aurora, Ill.; Paul Garner, Prairie Village, Kan.; Tom Gass, Boise, Idaho; Richard Giannini, Albuquerque, N.M.; John Gilbert and James Landon, Peoria, Ill.; Frank Grilli, Northport, N.Y.; Pat Hall, Carroll, Iowa; James Hougas, Morris, Ill.; James LaFave, St. Paul, Minn.; Steve Ludford, La Salle, Ill.; Curtis Mock, Billings, Mont.; Harry Monroe, St. Louis, Mo.; Thomas Myers, Smith Center, Kan.; Paul Piana, Rock Springs, Wyo.; Kevin Radde, Dundee, Ill.; Luke Seifert, Little Falls, Minn.; Richard Stanely, Cummings, Ia.; Mark Welter, Des Moines, Ia.; and Robert Wilson, Fountain, Colo. Also initiated during an activation ceremony on Sept. 2 were Steve Voorhees of St. Louis, Mo., and Michael Fee of Santa Maria, Calif. We welcome our new Brothers, and congratulate spring pledge trainer Chuck McKenney for his fine direction and leadership.

For the fourth year in a row the All-University Intramural Sports Trophy has been won by Nebraska Beta. This trophy goes to that group at Creighton which garners the most points in intramural activities. Our Phi Psi I teams were all victorious in their Fraternity League competition. Special Recognition goes to John Lawless and Pat Sampair in football, Mike Storck and Mark Gentile in basketball, and to Chris Geha and Paul Schleier for their first place finish in golf. Already it looks as if we're well on our way to a fifth consecutive title. Our cross-country team, led by Mike Atkinson, won the fall event.

This fall's activities are in the competent hands of our recently elected officers: William Creighton, GP; David Fontana, VGP; Michael Groom, AG; Kelly Rieinan, BG; Tom Kirsch, SG; Pat Mulroney, Hod; Brian Galvin, Hi; and Bill Simpson, Phu. Pat Fitzpatrick and Bob Pintauro were our representatives to the GAC along with Archon Rich Nelson. They have brought back much to the chapter concerning pledge education and the ritual.

Selected as head resident advisor for the coming year was Bill Nelson. Dominic Frecentese, Mark Mackey, and Jeff Modica were also selected to the resident staff. Those elected to the Creighton Student Board of Governors include Terry Carr, Bob Gallagher, and Mike Groom. Scholastically the chapter has maintained a 3.025, the highest on campus.

Our annual Formal was the highlight of our social calendar with nearly 85 Brothers, including alumni and their dates attending the festivities. During the evening Ted Wentzel received the Solon E. Summerfield Award, and Russ Endo was named the Phi Psi of the Year. This award goes to the individual who best exemplifies leadership, initiative, and dedication. Our thanks to Chairmen Kirk McCarville and Bill Whitley for a night that won't be soon forgotten. Social Chairman Bill Collins is well underway planning for the coming semester. Such events as a halfway to St. Patrick's Day party and our traditional Luau are on schedule, and we invite all alumni to come and participate in sport and a pork dinner.

In community service we have continued our work with area handicapped children, and many Brothers are serving as tutors in city day care centers. We were also able to aid the Red Cross in their spring blood drive. Our fund raising projects were highly successful with a total of $1500 being earned for making phone calls for the President Ford Committee, and by winning a campus-wide contest sponsored by the Miller Brewing Co.

With the revival of the Phi Psightings, our chapter newsletter, we were able to renew many lost ties with our alumni. We wish to thank them for their tremendous response to the newsletter and invite them to drop by the house. Tom Herr, Lodge Chairman, and many Brothers have recently spent long hard hours working on the facade of the lodge. They have done an exceptional job this summer on the exterior.

Although the co-ed dorm situation has separated many of us on campus, we look to the coming fall term with much optimism. This positive attitude results not only from our very fruitful spring semester, but from a strong sense of enthusiasm and cohesiveness. It is this close bond of brotherhood that we experience at Nebraska Beta that has allowed us to make Phi Kappa Psi such a strong association at Creighton.

DePauw University Retaining Number One Spot

The onslaught of another academic year finds the men of Indiana Alpha working hard to retain their number one spot on the DePauw campus. The chapter this fall has men in several campus organizations, including Campus Board, Junior Board, Senior Board, the Community Concerns Committee, and Academic Council. Blake Turner is serving as Union Board President, as well as GP of the chapter.

On Sunday, September 12, 18 men were taken under the wing of Pledge Trainer Rick Mills. The new pledges are Jim Adams, Barrington, Ill.; Andy Booz, Wilmington, Del.; Tom Emison, Minnetonka, Minn.; Doug Everard, Bloomfield Hills, Mich.; Dave Grall, St. Joseph, Mich.; Steve Harris, Warsaw; Bob Hofstatter, Bryan, Ohio; Dan Kinsey, Garrett; John Mason, Danville, Ill.; Jeff Porritt, St. Joseph, Mich.; Andy Rieth, Goshen; John Roberts, De Kalb, Ill.; Gerry Roth, LaPorte; Bill Schlotz, Minnetonka, Minn.; Brian Sweeney, Hinsdale, Ill.; Gray Tweedy, Knightstown; and Rick Wain-scott, Frankfort.

In sports, IM football coach Doug McFarlan has his players putting it all together for another excellent season, while netmen Dave Hull and Blake Turner have been beasts on the IM tennis courts. Doug Conner and Bill Schlotz will be representing DePauw in varsity golf.

Socially, the chapter is also faring quite well with the Harvest Hop, already past, a great success. At this event, Phi Psis and their dates enjoyed a hayride and a dance at a nearby farm. The return of familiar faces for Old Gold weekend, October 7-8, reinforced the strong ties between the undergraduates and alumni.

Sophomores Steve Smith and Nick Tzakis, from New Hartford, N.Y., and Lake Forest, Ill., respectively, are scheduled to be candidates for initiation in mid-October.

Attending the Grand Arch Council in Washington this summer were Pete Prowitt and Ward Neff, who found the experience both stimulating and helpful.

All in all, Phi Psi at DePauw is continuing to grow and prosper in all phases of campus life.

Dickinson College Bright Future Ahead

The Brothers of Penn Zeta are proud to announce that all 16 of our spring pledges have returned to us this year as Brothers. The initiation which took place last April in Miller Hall of Gettysburg College was an impressive and inspirational event which will be long remembered. Election of officers also took place last spring and the Brothers who will lead us this semester are: Jeff Cadoux, GP; Robert Koehler, VGP; Clarence Hall, P; James Melson, AG; James Derrick, BG; Guy Holcombe and John McDonald, SG; James Ducharme, Hod; Steve Schmidt, Phu; and Dan Sunderland, Hi.

On the athletic front, our intramural softball team finished a strong second last spring and with many players returning the prospects for a title this year are better than ever. The intramural football team is in the process of putting together a solid squad. Seven Brothers will be making key contributions to a strong soccer team, and another takes the long road of cross-country. Scholastic achievement is another area in which Penn Zeta remains active. Steve Joseph, our Summerfield Scholar, was initiated into Phi Beta Kappa last April.

A major factor in the recent success of Penn Zeta has been an increased emphasis in the field of alumni relations. With the much appreciated help of our alumni, major improvements have been made to our chapter house. Five alumni in key administrative positions in the college have been especially helpful. Sam Banks, President; George Shuman Jr., Vice-President; Ronald Doernbach, Registrar; Robert A. Barr Jr., Dean of Educational Services; and Dr. Benjamin James have given freely of their time and talents in assisting the Brothers in many varied ways. In keeping with the spirit of improved alumni relations, we are planning major events on Homecoming and on Founders Day.

Under the leadership of Rush Chairman Robert Koehler, our rush program is in full swing. We will be pledging three men this fall. They are Jeff Joseph, Millville, N.J.; George Joseph, North Huntington; and Matt Murphy, Rye, N.Y.

Penn Zeta is experiencing a period of growth and increased strength, thanks to the effort of both undergraduate Brothers and alumni. It is our belief that hard work plus commitment to the ideals of brotherhood is the formula making our recent success possible.

Duke University Celebrity Auction

North Carolina Alpha begins the fall semester proud of its past achievements and confident of success in its future efforts.

Final preparations are being made for our second annual Celebrity Auction on October first to raise money for cancer and leukemia research here at Duke. Working under the direction of auction co-chairmen Tray Dunaway and Robert Fishman, North Carolina Alpha has contacted over 500 national figures requesting autographed items associated with these celebrities. As a result, we have received hundreds of responses, including items from President and Mrs. Ford, Ted Kennedy, George McGovern, Billy Graham, Joe Namath, Bob Hope, and Billy Kilmer. Other received articles include numerous autographed television scripts, equipment from over a dozen national sports teams, and several autographed and framed Peter Max prints. This year we hope to double our 1975 auction receipts by raising over $5000 through the sale of these items.

Individual Brothers have also distinguished themselves in other campus activities. John Watt, Jim Whitaker, and Floyd Rowley are currently serving as president, vice president, and social chairman, respectively, of the Duke University Marching Band. Rich Willis is president of Chess Club. Phi Psi leadership is also evident in the Duke University student government, where individual Brothers are serving on the Judicial Board, the Publications Board, and the Academic Standards Committee.

Other Brothers won honors at this summer's GAC in Washington, D.C. Ricky Vinegar placed third in the competition for the Outstanding Solon E. Summerfield Award. Before his graduation, Ricky was very active in the Fraternity, a fine scholar, and speaker of the Duke University Student Government. David Kapnick won an honorable mention in the Ralph Haney Award for his accurate and concise financial reports during his term as P.

Serving North Carolina Alpha this fall as officers are: Tray Dunaway, GP; Chris Mellott, VGP; Eddie Kay, P; Floyd Rowley, AP; Dave Boyd, AG; Rob Fishman, BG; Bill Frank, SG; Rich Mason, Hod; George Miller, Phu; Steve Krohn, Hi.

Plans are being finalized for Duke's October 23 homecoming game against Maryland. Scheduled events for all Brothers and alumni include a wild party the night before the game, a pre-game picnic, and a post-game banquet Saturday night.

With a strong brotherhood and an exciting social calendar, North Carolina Alpha anticipates a rewarding and promising year.

Eastern New Mexico University New House Construction Began

Plans for a new chapter house were eagerly under way during the spring semester, and after a number of setbacks during the summer months construction finally began on September 13. The house will consist of three interconnected wings, housing, chapter room, and kitchen, and a multi-purpose or party room. The three wings will be connected to form an upside-down "U" with a large courtyard closing off the front of the house. The design is that of a Spanish villa to fit in with the southwestern culture of the area. With the completion of the house the Brothers feel that this will add prestige to the Fraternity in the fact that we will have the first house built solely for a fraternity on our campus.

Six men were initiated last spring. They are Eric Lester, Ernest Ornales, Martin Quintana, Paul Kaplan, Corey Westbrook, and Steve Young. Five of our new initiates have returned to New Mexico Alpha this fall. Brother Ernie Ornales has transferred to the University of Iowa. He plans to take part in the affairs of Iowa Alpha. Congratulations to our new initiates and best of luck to Brother Ornales as he joins our Brothers at Iowa Alpha.

Our officers for the fall semester are Steve F. Grover III, GP; Lester Pierce, VGP; Chuck Abbott, AG; Steve Young, BG; Thom Chapman, P; Eric Lester, SG; Martin Quintana, Phu; Paul Kaplan, Hod; and Corey Westbrook, Hi. Kermit Shumard is pledge educator.

In rush this fall it was like going back to colony status. We have had to do without a chapter house for the first time since any of the present undergraduates have been with New Mexico Alpha. It was a new challenge and the Brothers responded well. Nine men have pledged our chapter, not because of a nice house, or big parties, but because they believed in what Phi Kappa Psi stands for and what our chapter has to offer. These men are Kevin Dagget and Mike Quintana, Espinola; Mickey McGee, Gary Olinger, and Jack Rathgaber, Alamogordo; Edwin Apodoca, Santa Rosa; Gus Galvez, Grants; Duncan Fitzgerald, New York, N.Y.; and Phillip Dubois, Matawasa, Maine. We wish these men the best as they strive to become Brothers in Phi Kappa Psi.

Steven F. Grover III was the recipient of the Interfraternity Council scholarship award for high scholarship and outstanding service to the Greek community. Brother Grover was also the IFC treasurer last spring.

An alumnus, Fred Schumpert, is in the Roosevelt County sheriff's race running on the Republican ticket. Fred is constantly campaigning while holding down his job with campus security as a patrolman. Fred says he is eagerly awaiting the general election because as he puts it, "Politicking is becoming quite tiring." "Appreciate your vote," is a common phrase around NM Alpha now. All of us wish Brother Schumpert the best.

Franklin and Marshall College Seeks Fall Pledges

Several noteworthy items occurred last spring after our last newsletter was written. We are glad to announce the initiation last April of Mark D. Burd, Trenton, N.J. Later in the spring, Pennsylvania Eta participated in the annual March of Dimes Walkathon, having the distinction of raising more money than any other fraternity. Rick Oestrike walked the 15 mile course for the chapter, while Ed Fanning and Mark Burd manned checkpoints along the Walkathon route.

At the close of last year, we elected officers for the fall semester, including John C. Calhoun, GP; Hallett German, VGP; David F. Stephan, P; and Harry A. Jacobowitz, AG and BG. In addition, Mark D. Burd was appointed Rush Chairman.

Upon returning to F and M, the Brothers of Penn Eta moved quickly into action. We assisted our landlord by painting the front porch and fire escapes, thus completing the new exterior paint job.

Meanwhile, we were starting an aggressive fall rush program. The Brothers were on campus, meeting freshmen even before the start of Freshman Orientation. As of now, the third week, rush is progressing well. So far, we have taken one pledge, sophomore Robert W. Solomon, New York City. Now we are looking forward to a visit from a chapter consultant who will help us with our rush program.

On the other hand, we continue to be hampered by the fact that we do not own the chapter house. To facilitate the repurchase of the house, the chapter has organized a house fund. Rick Oestrike, a recent alumnus, was appointed as trustee. Begun with contributions from undergraduates, the fund has already received donations from a number of alumni. The fund has the express purpose of helping to defray the cost of buying back the house.

The recently reactivated local chapter of Zeta Beta Tau is currently involved in a legal battle over the zoning of its tentative chapter house. A local court ruled in ZBT's favor during the summer, but a coalition of neighbors have appealed the decision.

The most important development on campus recently was the opening of the long-awaited College Center last May. The four-floor building serves as the hub of student activity at F and M.

The Brothers of Penn Eta look forward to attracting more pledges this fall, at the same time that our position in the house continues to prove a problem. We look forward optimistically to resolving the situation in our favor.

Gettysburg College Homecoming Plans

With the fall semester now in full swing, the Brothers of Pennsylvania Epsilon are looking forward to a productive year of fraternal and scholastic achievement at Gettysburg College. The success of last spring's 120th anniversary celebration, which saw many alumni back at the house, was very encouraging to all the Brothers present. Homecoming on Nov. 5 and 6 will hopefully see even more "alumni Brothers" and their families back at the "Burg."

Rush Chairman David Czuba is working diligently with the brotherhood to help produce a quality pledge class for this February.

The Brothers are also pleased to announce Gregory P. Harbaugh '71, as our new alumnus advisor. Greg is currently doing graduate work at the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Gettysburg.

The officers for the remainder of the semester are: Steve Shrader, GP; Chris Mihok, VGP; Richard Edwards, AG; Jack Howard, BG; Wilton J. Gates III, P; Tom Tillet, SG; Dale Yingst, Hod; Dan Priga, Phu; Jeff Barber, Hi.

The Brothers of Penn Epsilon look forward to continued alumni involvement and hope to hear from many Brothers this year.

University of Illinois Samoa Party

Illinois Delta made a strong showing at the 58th GAC held in Washington, D.C., being represented by six undergraduates and four alumni, in addition to Archon Bob Dudley. Those attending had an excellent time and learned a great deal in practical areas such as rush and Fraternity education. They also came away from the GAC with a deeper understanding of the word "Brotherhood."

The social year here at Illinois was ushered in by the beat of bongo drums and the natives' cry of "Give Me Samoa." Phi Psis and their dates indulged in the splendor of the south seas without leaving home as "Old 911" underwent its third annual transformation into a tropical paradise for the Labor Day weekend festivities. The Samoa party, under the auspices of social chairman David H. Fullerton, was a tremendous success with the cooperation of the prevailing tropical weather.

Congratulations to our new initiates! August 30, 1976 marked the initiation ceremony for the following men: Kurt Hoff, Calumet City; Mercer Miller, Downers Grove; Kris Bachtell, Park Forest; Dan Vera, Plainfield; Peter Bowen, Arlington Heights; Mike Osowski, Chicago; Pat O'Keefe, Mike Corry, Oak Park; Gerry Mitchell, Harvey; Luke Lohmeyer, Woodstock; Rob Reifsnnyder, Terre Haute, Ind.; Bob Lietz, Staunton.

Last spring's formal rush, coordinated by Doug Smith, netted Illinois Delta a very fine group of young men. The pledge class includes: Bill Acheson, John Hanratty, Champaign; Paul Davis, Chicago Heights; Pat Kelly, Glenview; Dave Lyons, Kenilworth; Richard Mihm, Danville; Scott Murray, Chicago; Ted Niemann, Quincy; and Todd Salen, Olympia Fields. Ted Niemann joins his brother at Illinois Delta and Bill Acheson and Richard Mihm follow their fathers, James Acheson '52 and Robert Mihm '54.

In intramurals Phi Psis once again look tough! Both the football and soccer teams are undefeated so far this season and we anticipate a return to the playoffs in both sports. The football team has a great deal of returning talent in addition to being supplemented by new initiates, Gerry Mitchell at quarterback, and Luke Lohmeyer at defensive line. The soccer team, led by fullback David H. Fullerton and forward Rich Niemann, is also receiving a new supply of younger talent in sophomore Dan Vera and pledges Dave Lyons and Ted Niemann. In basketball, the entire starting line-up from last year's playoff team is returning so the prospects look equally hopeful there. The pledge football team took a step in the right direction by defeating Sigma Chi in overtime in their first game.

Rush Chairmen Scott Swanson and Rob Halliday are busy preparing the chapter for the first fall formal rush at the U of I campus. The format will be a little different from the traditional spring formal rush, with a more casual atmosphere.

Based on last year's success, the annual Alumni Reunion will once again take place on Homecoming weekend, October 30. The Brothers at Illinois Delta extend a special invitation to all alumni in hopes that they will try to attend the game and the activities afterward, which are being planned by James "Shadow" Okonski.

DOUG WILLIAMS, Correspondent

Indiana University Busy Beginning

After an eventful summer consisting of rush function activities, house improvements, and the initiation of a new chapter scholarship, the members of Indiana Beta are once again preparing for the activities of the upcoming school year.

The spirit of brotherhood began on a high note this fall, as the Betan members traveled to the White River for a weekend canoe trip. The overnight trip provided an excellent time for fellowship, and setting goals for the chapter and the Fraternity.

A total of 84 men are now living in the house, including the 19 new faces of the 1976-77 fall pledge class. Members of this class include: Steven Beckman, Jasper; Brian Hudson, John Fenn, Kokomo; Cary Umemura, Jeff Gaither, Bruce Torrence, Tom Lewis, Indianapolis; John Bowker, West Lafayette; Jeff Brown, Brazil; Dan Cox, Monticello; Don Etchinson, Elwood; Mike Herran, Huntington; Frank LaPierre, South Bend; Doug Moody, Marion; Randy Porter, Muncie; Paul Rau, Columbus; Bill Reichard, Valparaiso; Pete Scudder, Ft. Wayne; and Bill Voor, Mishawaka. This promising fall class will be under the guidance of Pledge Trainer Doug Pond, Disciplinarian Kevin Baker, and Pledge Educator Bill Mohr.

The first few weeks of school have also proven to be eventful for the soon to be initiated spring pledge class. Through such projects as a campus car wash, serenades, and a "Casino Night" dance, these future Brothers have displayed the spirit and initiative indicative of Phi Kappa Psi members. The young men belonging to this class are: R. Craig Anderson, Michael Chestnut, Scott Brizius, Jay Covington, Bradford Cross, Scott Gilreath, Edwin Hawes, Daniel Lysohir, Todd Schorr, Glenn Seger, Mike Chadima, Paul Schneider, and Mark Wetzel.

Over the summer months, a project was completed in which the guest rooms were converted into the Indiana "Big Red" room and conference room. These rooms provide new dimensions in entertainment and business activities for the house.

Also this summer, the Ross Hazeltine Scholarship for Indiana Beta members was initiated. The scholarship, donated by the late Brother Hazeltine (Indiana Beta '35), provides the payment of room and board for an entire school year for the recipients. The scholarships are awarded to each member in the sophomore, junior, and senior class who has the highest scholastic average (based on the previous school year).

With this early product of accomplishment and strong brotherhood, the members of Indiana Beta look forward to yet another year as one of IU's leaders on campus.

JIM STEVENS, Correspondent

Indiana University of Pa. House Improvements

Classes are into full swing, and so are all of the Brothers at Pennsylvania Nu.

The 20 Brothers living in the chapter house this semester returned to find that much work had been done over the summer under the guidance of Dave Haddad. Much of the house had been painted, and also some fine pieces of furniture had been brought in for the chapter's use. This, in conjunction with some hard work by all of the Brothers as they moved in, and the remodeling work Ken Almes is doing on the first floor bathroom, has the house really shaping up.

With a new school year comes a new intramural season, and this year a lot of new Phi Psi gridders, under the leadership of sixth year veteran quarterback Bob Arch, take the field in hopes of bettering last year's exciting second place finish in flag football. The Brothers are also preparing for other sports, such as co-ed volleyball and wrestling. All in all, we are looking forward to another fine intramural season.

Homecoming this year should be another big success. We here at Pennsylvania Nu are looking forward to a record breaking crowd of returning alumni.

Although formal rush has not officially begun yet, Dave Franzi and Terry Appolonia are already working hard and making plans for formal rush.

Also this semester, we here at Pennsylvania Nu are working in conjunction with one of the local merchants on a charity project.

Officers for the upcoming semester are as follows: Dave Haddad, GP; Don Houchins, VGP; Kevin Liszewski, P; Jeff Getkin, AG; Dave Alfera, BG; Bill Stutz, SG; Terry Appolonia, Hod; Bill Debrason, Phu; and Dennis Rittenhouse, Hi. Under the leadership of these men and some fine committee chairmen, the Pennsylvania Nu chapter of Phi Kappa Psi looks forward to an exciting and successful semester.

Iowa State University Starts the Year Right

Iowa Beta has started things off with a productive rush week and summer rush program. Thanks to the effort of Rush Chairman Dave Daulton, we have pledged 19 young men to date. They are: George Allbee, Rodney I. Ruddick, Charles B. Hager, Reed A. Burt, and Daniel L. Kapoun, Marshalltown; Kevin J. Becker, Des Moines; Bruce L. Braley, Brooklyn; Robert W. Carter, Burlington; Randall L. Good, Boxholm; Donald H. Haase and Thomas J. Roth, Davenport; Michael L. Holmes and Brian K. McMasters, Ames; John R. Jordan, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Rick D. Kinseth, Belmond; Michael R. Marr, Muscatine; Randall Minear, West Des Moines; Steve R. Mostrom, Story City; and Timothy J. Newberry, Cedar Falls.

Last spring, we initiated eight more young men into the mysteries of Phi Kappa Psi. These new initiates are: Jeffrey Lorenzen, Davenport; Samuel Hoffmann, Muscatine; James Martin, La Grange, Ill.; Ted Batchelder, Omaha, Neb.; Stephen Webster, Stillman Valley, Ill.; Ken Hartsock, Fairfax; Gregory Foell, Charles DeKovic III, and Gary Stayskel, Ames.

In conjunction with Gamma Phi Beta, we produced a float for Iowa State's Veishea celebration. The float, with the theme "Light—the Idea That Set the World Aglow," depicted Professor Von Drake and Jiminy Cricket discovering the light bulb. Using animation for the first time and also having our first motorized float, we had high hopes for a first place finish. But, due to a very unfortunate accident which knocked out our power system, we had to settle for a second place in our division.

Fall quarter finds us very busy. We are managing to mix a little social action with all the booking we have to do. Fall also brings us lawn display competition for Homecoming. This year we are combining with the girls of Alpha Gamma Delta to produce what we hope to be our second straight win and our third in the last four years' competition.

MARK H. RAISBECK, Correspondent

Johns Hopkins University Big Plans for Rush

The Brothers at Maryland Alpha started the Fall '76 semester off with much enthusiasm and big plans, hoping to get many initiates. Our new officers are: Scott Lauter, GP; Jamie Schnitzer, VGP; Mahmoud Mustafa, P; James Scheller, AG, Phu; Kevin Little, BG; Siniti Oneda, SG, Hi; and Dave Roth, Hod.

John Poole, as rush chairman, will direct what we think will be a successful year. To get things started, we are having a Welcoming Party for the freshmen in early September. We are also organizing a Phi Psi Freshmen Tennis Tournament, thanks to the talent of Kevin Little who is second seat on the varsity team. Also on the calendar for this fall are: a retreat for the Brothers, Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners, a Roman Orgy, and a Halloween Party. We also hope to have a good showing in intramurals this year.

The renovation of our chapter house continues, as we finish what has been an uphill battle. The great work we have done has even been acclaimed in one of Baltimore's newspapers. We had a work crew in early September and wiped out all housing code violations. We would appreciate donations of furniture, rugs, or lamps to improve our House—these items are really needed.

Meanwhile, all Brothers have been busy with school activities. Harvey Soldan is chairman of Freshman Advising; Rich Nomady is studying abroad (in Bologna, Italy) this year; Rik Torgerson is vice-president of the Young Democrats; and also, two Brothers, Scott Lauter and Phil Gilly, made the Dean's List last semester.

JAMES SCHELLER, Correspondent

Kansas Alpha New Pledges

The 1976-77 school year at Kansas Alpha began on a successful note with the initiation of three new Brothers into the ranks of the country's second largest Phi Psi Chapter. On August 11 we were honored to initiate James Muelberger, Matthew Foerschler, and Wesley Fielder, all from the Kansas City area.

With the combined efforts of Jim Parker and Louis Osborn we have 24 new pledges. They include Marc Anthony, David Atchley, Michael Dick, Brian Hardy, Jeffery Howard, Ronald Johnson, Chris Link, Randall Madsen, and Michael Panethere, all from the Kansas City area; Kevin Chambers, Kevin Corley, and Chris Van Vleet from Garden City; Brian Gernant and David Wilson from Geneseo, Ill.; Ron Allen, Sabetha, Michael Church, Colona, Ill.; Scott Corbett and Mike Bradley, Wichita; David Duncan, Lake Quivira; Leonard Rewerts, Leoti; Dolph Simons III, Lawrence; Tom Sizemore and David Taylor, St. Louis, Mo.; and Mark Toebben, Ralston, Neb.

Scholastically, we are returning from a fine spring semester. With the help of the superb capabilities of Tom Scott, Charles Weathers, and Jim Orr, all of whom achieved a 4.0 GPA, our overall house GPA was just under a 3.0. This is well above the K.U. all-men's average as well as the all fraternity average. We also congratulate Steve Salanski and Ralph Munyan on their acceptance into the S.I.L. as sophomore honoraries along with Jim Orr who was admitted as a junior honorary member into the Owl Society.

Thanks to the hard work and devotion of Don Wilson, our social calendar is going to keep us quite busy this year. Our first party, "Yell-In," was quite successful and we are looking forward to many more fantastic parties to come. Our intramural football team, led by Mike Gunter, is awfully strong this year and we are anticipating a victorious season.

Our officers this fall are: Win Wilhelmson, GP; George Kerdolff, VGP; Kevin Parks, P; Brian Jones, AG; Steve Salanski, BG; Steve Baker, Phu; Rob Munyan, Hi; Jim Parker and Louis Osborn, Rush Chairmen; Don Wilson, Social Chairman; and Jim Orr, Scholarship Chairman.

In Kansas Alpha's strive for academic excellence, a vast majority of our graduating seniors have decided to further their scholastic ambitions. Rick Lind and Alan Metzger are pursuing law degrees; Mike Chambers is studying theology at Cambridge, England; Rick Bales is studying religion in France; and Jim Saffels is studying Manpower Management here at K.U. Furthermore, Charles Weathers, a junior, is on a scholarship in the field of English at the University of Bordeaux in France. Our other graduating seniors have joined society's working class. To all of them we wish the best of luck, knowing that they will become outstanding alumni of Phi Psi and Kansas Alpha.

We also thank all of our great alumni who attended our Centennial celebration last fall, and helped make it such a tremendous success. A special thanks also goes to John Boyd, Kansas Alpha '59, who put together the Centennial festivities and who was also elected Fraternity Treasurer at the GAC in Washington, August 11-15.

Lafayette College Great Expectations

Penn Theta begins this semester with our largest, and possibly most unified brotherhood in recent years. We are strong not only in numbers, but in mind and Phi Psi spirit. The house is looking better on the inside, due to many elaborate improvements to rooms by our Brothers over the summer. It should soon be looking better on the outside, too, as we are expecting a new paint job in the spring.

Our strengthened brotherhood is anticipating to do well in IM football and cross-country, as we are preparing for both with renewed vigor and enthusiasm. We are also looking forward to a strong rush, with the help and cooperation of our alumni as well as our undergraduates. The Brothers of Penn Theta wish the best of luck to all chapters for the coming semester.

Mankato State College Eight Attend GAC

Minnesota Gamma proudly announces the pledging of six men after a strong summer rush. We are planning fall rush and expect an excellent class. Pledged are: Jim Flood, Minneapolis; Steve Dubbs and Rick Berbigler, Edina; Shawn Mullarky, St. Paul; Andy Richardson, Chaska; Wade Wallen, Bloomington.

At the beginning of the summer we elected new officers: Daniel Burns, GP; Jim VanValkenberg, VGP; Kevin Mullarky, AG; Steven Lubbert, BG; Peter Johnson, P; David Kramer, SG; Mark Holms, Hod; William Quant, Phu; and Perry Brinkman, Hi.

The 1976 GAC held in Washington, D.C., this summer was a memorable experience for the eight Brothers who attended from Minnesota Gamma. Those who attended were: Thomas McCammon, Gary Abrams, Mark Gruss, David Fish, Neil Ballard, Brad Anderson, William Dubbs, and Daniel Burns. The Brothers who attended the GAC for the first time said that after going to the 1976 GAC they would never miss another. This GAC was of special importance to alumnus Thomas McCammon. It was his seventh consecutive GAC and he was initiated into the Order of SC. The Brothers of Minnesota Gamma congratulate Tom (Toss) for his achievement and thank him for the hard work he has put into our Fraternity.

Memphis State University Successful Fall Rush

Summer has finally ended and fall has officially begun at Memphis State. This fall semester is starting off with a bang at Tennessee Zeta. The Brothers have been hard at work for the past two months on rush and we are proud to announce the pledging of nine men. They are: Larry Campbell, Jeff Crass, Charles Mann, Scott McClure, David McCreary, John Moore, Harvey Reese, and Ray Riley all from Memphis and Randy Merrick of Huntingdon.

The Brothers have not only been working vigorously toward rush but are also preparing for our annual Phi Psi 500, which will be held this spring. We would greatly appreciate any suggestions or ideas from Brothers living around the Memphis area or other chapters. The past Phi Psi 500, $2,800 was raised and hopefully an even larger amount this year.

New chapter officers were elected during the summer for the fall semester. They are: Brian Weisfeld, GP; Robert W. Shelby, VGP; Allen Lee, AG; Phil Ruleman, P; Albert Chow, BG; David Hooper, SG; Jim Norvell, Hod; Jim Owens, Phu; and Jim Covington, Hi. Tennessee Zeta with the aid and guidance from these new officers hopes to make Phi Psi the key to the Greek system on the Memphis State campus.

We would like to congratulate three very fine Brothers. They are: George W. Mullins Jr. who recently graduated and is now working for the Internal Revenue Service, Stewart Joe who was married this summer and Mark Marshall soon to be wed in October. We wish them much happiness and good fortune in their new endeavors.

Although the summer months have passed and schoolish thoughts once again enter our minds, the Brothers of Tennessee Zeta take this opportunity to thank all the Brothers from other chapters who dropped in on their way to the GAC. We also extend an invitation to all Brothers in the area to come by and visit with us.

Miami University Eventful Semester

Miami University opened its doors early this year because of the transition from quarters to semesters.

Some activities planned for the year include a 50 hour tennis marathon with all proceeds benefiting the American Cancer Society. Coordinator Brad Osborne has assured us of a successful campaign. Also included on the agenda is a general community clean-up. Ideas such as washing the storefront windows of Oxford's merchants, shoveling the snow from our neighbors' driveways, and painting garages have been discussed.

Our social calendar is quite full for the coming months. A square dance with Gamma Phi Beta is set for September 17. Also planned is a Hawaiian luau featuring a roasted pig. The social highlight of the first semester, however, will be the Winter Formal at Hueston Woods State Park in December.

Greek Week at Miami begins September 24, with a kick-off dance. The competition will be tough, but the Phi Psis should stand the challenge. Fielding a strong puddle-pull team led by Roy Pignatiello and coach Mark Grenell, we should do well in this prestigious event. Steve Hines, the 1975 champion of the Delta Chi Marathon, will return in classic form to defend his title for the chapter. Also John Busemeyer, superb golfer from Cincinnati, should strengthen our chances in the Sigma Nu Golf Tourney.

Miami University is scheduled to open its new ice rink on October 25. The rink comes equipped with two sheets of ice, lounge, fireplace, and plenty of room for parties. Also intramural play, student skating, and interfraternity leagues will be offered. This new facility should be an enjoyable and useful asset for the University and community as well.

With the many upcoming activities and our new ice arena opening soon, we at Ohio Lambda are looking forward to a most prosperous semester.

Michigan State University A New Look

The lazy days of summer drew quickly to a close for the Brothers of Michigan Beta as preparations began for one of the busiest fall semesters ever! The brotherhood returned in full force with new Brothers, officers, and furnishings.

Michigan Beta is proud to announce the initiation of 14: David Berlin, Freehold, N.J.; Michael Boyd, Marshall; William Davis, Warren; David Dudd, Constantine; Blair Halperin, Fair Lawn, N.J.; Richard Jewel, Lansing; Paul Marchisoto, Kings Park, N.J.; Gregory Merchun, Craig Morford, Greenville; Michael Morris, Flushing; Chuck Peters, Farmington Hills; Leroy Prelesnik, Grand Haven; James Richardson, Cadillac; and Robert Tompkins, Hackensack, N.J.

The new year also brought new officers: Frank Barry, GP; Mike Jansky, VGP; Kevin Riley, AG; Mark Johnson, BG; Alan Sekol, P; Michael O'Connor, SG; Daniel Kelly, Phu; and Patrick Patton, Hi.

Something not so new is our domination of fraternity football. Even with the school's probation for recruiting violations, we feel that the Phi Psi coaches have more talent than ever. Graduation took only one starter, so the '76 season should yield even more impressive trophies. Michigan Beta looks forward to a successful year in ALL intramural sports.

We wish Geoff Hansen the best of luck with his continued education at N.Y.C. Geoff's accomplishments in the house cannot be numbered and were all appreciated. With Geoff as rush chairman last year we initiated 28 new Brothers, a complete turnaround from previous years. Geoff will be missed greatly, but we hope that he will visit us as often as possible.

The Brothers are all behind Dave White, our new rush chairman. Business cards were sent to a number of high school seniors last year and we have received calls from over 35 of them. With this kind of results, we are all looking forward to an active and rewarding rush.

Michigan Beta welcomes any and all Phi Psis passing through East Lansing to stop by and meet the Brothers and see the many improvements made on our house. With this must go very special thanks to our Corporation Board for understanding and approving these necessary improvements on our house.

KEVIN R. RILEY, Correspondent

University of Minnesota Active Year Ahead

This fall we are happy to welcome 10 new pledges as a result of a very successful rush. Our new pledges are: Dan Benson, New Brighton; Randy Brehmer, Rochester; Jeff East, Toronto, Ont.; Lynn Ellis, Westport, Conn.; Tom Hamre, St. Paul; Scott Peterson, Minneapolis; Stephen Robb, Rochester; Bryan Sandager, Stillwater; John Scheil, Rockford, Ill.; Bryan Stitt, Edina. We are looking forward to an active year with our new pledges.

Homecoming preparations are now underway. We are paired with Kappa Alpha Theta and we are anticipating a great turnout from our alumni during Homecoming activities.

Our chapter is becoming very active in IFC affairs. We are very proud to announce that Jay Story, a past president of the chapter, was elected IFC vice president. Involvement like this gives added support to the fact that we are among the top fraternities on campus.

GLENN NORDEHN, Correspondent

University of Mississippi Roaring Start

Mississippi Alpha got off to an excellent start this year with our most successful rush program in six years. Thirty-four men have pledged themselves to the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi and are now proudly wearing their pledge pins around campus. They are: Keith Parish, Doug Amacker, David Pickle, Natchez; Paul Binger, Millington, Tenn.; Sam Martin, Eric Donahoe, Brandon; Dean Douglas, Floyds Knobs, Ind.; Bill Finch, Columbus; John Franetovich, Bel Air, Md.; Greg Gibson, Steve Lee, Don Magee, Jeff Gilbert, Jackson; Bill Grant, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mark Howle, Union; Jay Knight, Jacksonville, Fla.; Jerry Lammons, Yazoo City; James McDaniel, Jonesboro, Ark.; Mike McLarty, New Albany; Keith McNatt, Holly Springs; Danny Phillips, Oxford; Steve Robbins, New Albany; Steve Roberts, Biloxi; James Rossetti, Shaw; Cody Sanders, Nettleton; Paul Scott, Hernando; Clark Sturdivant, Tupelo; Norval Sykes, Senatobia; John Tolar, Billy Fry, Bryan Byer, Britt Thompson, Memphis, Tenn.; and Joe Wysor, Arlington, Va.

These men are being led in their learning of Phi Psi by Pledge Educator Lawrence Perkins.

The active chapter has once again begun to discharge the business of the Fraternity and is doing so under the competent leadership of the fall officers. They are: Tom Branyan, GP; Harvey Hudspeth, VGP; Eddie Aune, P; Jimmy Knight, VP; Bob Schnitzius, BG; Les Kerr, AG; Lawrence Perkins, SG; John Winograd, Hod; Hale Freeland, Hi; Mac McKinney, Phu.

Among the first orders of business this fall was the initiation of five men into the Fraternity. The new initiates here at Mississippi Alpha are: Rush Hicks, Statesboro, Ga.; Jim Dilley, Oxford; Wes Keller, Biloxi; David Moynihan, Jackson; Mark Bedingfield, Atlanta, Ga.

We are proud to have these men as Brothers of Phi Kappa Psi.

Following tradition, Mississippi Alpha is well represented in the activities of the University. Mike Greer is serving his second year as an Ole Miss cheerleader. He is now head cheerleader and this year he led the Rebel cheerleaders to top honors at cheerleader clinic.

In student government, Tom Kesler represents Phi Psi as chairman of the ASB Elections Commission. Brother Kesler operates his Associated Student Body committee with efficiency and we are proud of his accomplishments. Serving the University as members of the Student Welcoming Committee were Brothers Hal Greer and Lynn Loden.

Phi Psis in the Campus Senate include pledges Keith McNatt and Eric Donahoe. They represent their respective dorms. Norval Sykes represents Mississippi Alpha by singing in The Group, a University touring troupe.

Mississippi Alpha is off to a fine start this fall and we are looking forward to the upcoming Ole Miss Homecoming. Many Alumni are expected to visit us for a steer roast on the Friday night before the October 9 celebration. Following the game will be a party with a top regional band, Mainsqueeze.

So Mississippi Alpha is off to a roaring start this fall. We are looking forward to a profitable and fulfilling year.

University of Missouri Successful Spring

Springtime was very successful for Missouri Alpha in many different ways. On April 3 a Mo-Alpha team of Pat O'Brien, Steve O'Rourke, John Horton, Greg Abbott, and Mark Mottaz dethroned the reigning Sigma Nu championship team in the fraternity division of the 25th annual Delta Upsilon Campus Town Races. Sigma Nu had held a 14-year stranglehold on the title before we upset them this year. The day was especially enjoyable with our first Moms Weekend. We greeted our Moms with a tea and luncheon at noon, followed by tours of the campus and a special night at the bowling alleys.

For the second year in a row we teamed up with the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority in the Greek Sing Competition. A lot of hard practice mixed with a bit of merry-making earned us a second place finish for the second straight year.

On April 24, Missouri Alpha initiated a pledge into our brotherhood whose initiation was long overdue—44 years overdue. John N. Booth, a pledge in 1932, was finally initiated. Mr. Booth was unable to be initiated in 1932 because of the financial difficulties of the era. His initiation was the main event of our third annual Chapter Day. In attendance for Brother Booth's initiation was Ken Potter, then Fraternity vice president, and Carl Bennett, chapter consultant.

Our chapter elections were held before the summer break. The new officers are: Mark Rider, GP; Doug Coombs, VGP; Dave Manco, P; Tom Fitzgerald, AG; Rick Bien, BG; Art Schopp, Hod; Bill Tracy, Phu; and Blake Parrish, Hi. A special congratulations go to all of them.

We entered the summer vacation with a strong rush program. A number of parties were held in both Kansas City and St. Louis, bringing support from both Brothers and Alumni. The annual Columbia weekend of July 8, reunited everyone for a memorable time. By the time school had started, we had pledged 21 good men. Their enthusiasm is being well received by all the Brothers.

One of the summer highlights for Brothers Mark Rider, Steve O'Rourke, and Pat O'Brien was the GAC held in Washington, D.C. They returned with a broadened sense of brotherhood and a great deal of new ideas.

School started with a chapter of 57 strong. We immediately set to work on improving the house by featuring pledge-active house jobs. A special thanks goes to Brother Ken Jackson for his outstanding construction of a new waterfall in our sunken garden.

Entering into the school year has us looking forward to many coming events. Dad's Weekend is scheduled for September 10, while plans are still in the making for Parents Weekend. We especially look forward to our Phi Psi "500" which is planned for September 25. It promises to be one of the most enjoyable we have ever had.

We hope to see as many of our Alumni as possible throughout the entire year. Missouri Alpha wishes all its Brothers across the nation a happy and successful school year.

TOM FITZGERALD, Correspondent

Monmouth College Soccer Team

New Jersey Beta is again looking forward to another excellent year, one devoted to growth and achievement.

Last semester for the second consecutive year we received the award for having the highest grade point average among fraternities and sororities. We also received an award for our achievements in intramural sports.

In athletics New Jersey Beta is proud to have Jeff Luthman, Dave Van Why, Richard Contardi, Bob Patton, and John Chiappone, captain, playing for the Monmouth College soccer team. Bob Patton is organizing an intramural football team which appears to be very good this season. Last semester in softball we made it all the way to the semi-finals, but unfortunately lost to an independent team. Against other fraternity teams we were 4 and 1.

House improvement projects this semester include the leveling of our parking lot and finishing construction on our front porch.

Our alumni association sponsored another fishing trip September 25 for both alumni and undergraduates, and it was again a success.

New officers for the fall of 1976 are: John Chiappone, GP; Jeff Durken, VGP; Wayne Francis, AG; Dave Van Why, BG; Frank Montagna, P; Barry Horowitz, SG; Jeff Luthman, Hi; and Gary Pallzone, Phu.

New Jersey Beta wishes all other Phi Psis good luck during the year.

WAYNE FRANCIS, Correspondent

University of Montana Promising Quarter

Chapter activities were limited in the summer of '76, except for the trip to the GAC in Washington, D.C., by GP Greg Olson. Greg brought back many useful ideas and suggestions that will surely help our growing chapter a great deal.

With the coming of fall quarter we see many promising areas of excitement and interest. Fall rush has begun and at the time of this writing, six men are expected to be pledged in early October.

Last year's very successful Halloween party will again happen at Montana Alpha on October 29. Also planned by the chapter is the lighting of the "M" here at the University. This will take place on the evening of the 16th in coordination with this year's Homecoming activities.

Due to our increasing desire for house beautification and other worthwhile projects, we are looking hard for ways to improve our monetary position. This task will be undertaken in October with the cutting of firewood in the forests around Missoula to be sold to the community.

Many members of our chapter are also successfully involved in outside endeavors. Scott Alexander represents the students of the University on the Central Board of student government. Scott has also headed an extremely successful new athletic booster organization and is involved in many other community projects. Serving as the director of the campus entertainment organization called Program Council is Rick Schneider. Rick is busy attracting musical and cultural programs to the University. Dan Sullivan is presently co-captain and starting offensive tackle for the University's football team while Dave Fawcett, Steve Huntington, and John Roys will be competing on the varsity track team this season.

STEVE HUNTINGTON, Correspondent

University of Nebraska Well Represented on Campus

The men of Nebraska Alpha are anticipating a prosperous year after a very successful rush headed by our rush chairman, Jim Dennell. The pledges for 1976 are: Brad Bolton, John Dennell, Bob Dickerson, Mark Fjeld, Eric Ford, John Keefe, Steve Mainelli, John McCann, Dan Reeder, John Sinovich, Omaha; Randy Florell, Rick Haase, Brian Kolscheen, Holdrege; Gregg Erickson, Hampton; Mike Jones, Columbus; Kelly Kile, Upland; Dave Pape, Grand Island; Mike Peterson, Minden; Jim Schonewise, Beatrice; and Ted Simpson, Atlantic, Iowa.

John Minnick is this year's pledge trainer, and he has many things planned for the pledges, including a Halloween Party for orphans with the pledges from Pi Beta Phi.

We held initiations on Monday, September 13, for the following new Brothers: Ted Rehmann and Jim Finocchiaro, Omaha, and Jon Large, Lincoln. Congratulations to these new members.

We have many new officers in the chapter. They are: Scott Hess, GP; Gregg Shaffer, VGP; Rich Hovendick, AG; Tom Forst, BG; Jon Hedges, SG; Don Gutchewsky, Phu; and Greg Elston, Hi.

Many parties are scheduled for this first semester. One of them is the annual Shipwreck party, held in December. This has been traditionally one of the biggest and best events on campus.

On September 18, our Brothers from Creighton University in Omaha, will be coming to Lincoln for a softball game and party afterwards.

Nebraska Alpha also has a full athletic program set up this year. Many people are participating in almost every sport offered.

We are also well represented by fellow Brothers in numerous campus activities. Rick Haase and Randy Florell are on the freshman football team, Jon Hedges and Jim Schone-wise play for the band, Terry Shield and Jim Finocchiaro are on the varsity baseball team, John Hess is rowing for crew, Mike Herman is on the Judicial Board of the IFC, Dave Regier is a trainer for varsity athletics, and Kevin Van Renan is a Homecoming king candidate.

We at Nebraska Alpha look forward to a beneficial year for all members and a year that will keep us busy.

Northwestern University Harlow Stevens Initiated

Spring rush at Illinois Alpha culminated last May 23, with the initiation of Paul Foszcz and Ray Byrne, both of Chicago, and Harlow Stevens of Evanston. Harlow Stevens' initiation was unique in that his pledge training occurred neither at Northwestern nor last spring, but at the University of Michigan over 30 years ago during the Depression. For financial reasons, he was not initiated while in college. In recent years, however, Stevens' devotion to Phi Psi was reaffirmed when his son became a member (and eventually GP) at Indiana Gamma at Wabash College. During these years, Stevens Sr. and his wife became involved in assisting in the affairs of their son's chapter. After meeting Executive Director Dud Daniel, it was suggested that Stevens might still consider formal initiation into Phi Kappa Psi. A proposal to this effect was put forth before the Executive Council. Stevens was offered the option of initiation at either Illinois Alpha or Indiana Gamma. Having completed graduate work at Northwestern and living in the immediate area, he decided to initiate at Northwestern. Brother Stevens has been an associate professor at Wright College in Chicago for nine years, and is also vice president of the American Association of Teachers of French.

Athletically, Illinois Alpha again displayed its intramural prowess by capturing the 16" softball championship. Excellent fielding and hitting was provided by team members Gary and Forrest Didier, Guy DeBoo, Craig Moeller, Mike McInyre, Mike Collins, Paul Jadin, and George Good. Of the four years 16" softball has been played at Northwestern, Phi Psi has lost only two games while winning three championships.

This fall, Phi Psi is well represented on Northwestern's varsity track team—particularly through the efforts of co-captains Jim Brown and Scott Williams. We also anticipate the beginning of the intramural football season; our chances should be enhanced by the return of several starting players.

Graduate school and marriage seem to occupy the lives of several of our recent alumni. Married over the summer were former GPs Mike Collins, Mark Hill, Steve Morgan, and Jim Budd. Mike and Mark are residing and working in St. Louis and Milwaukee, respectively; Jim is attending medical school and Steve will enter law school this fall. Recent graduates also continuing their education include Bill Fleming, Gary Les, Ron Sobon, Scott Wiedeman, and Bob Wood.

This fall's chapter officers include: Paul Jadin, GP; Dreux Dwyer, VGP; Steven Michel, P; Eric Schulte, AG; George Good, BG; Dale Feldman, SG; Paul Foszcz, Hod; John Horan, Phu; and Mark Goddard, Hi. Mike Alex, organizer of Northwestern's successful first all campus Greek Week last May, is currently vice president of the Interfraternity council and is involved in campus-wide "new student week" activities.

Our fall social calendar should help alleviate the "back to school blues" experienced by many. Major events will include our annual Homecoming reception and dinner, Thanksgiving dinner, and several theme oriented house parties.

Pre-Rush Week housework just having been completed as of September 17, we begin Rush Week with both chapter house and spirits in excellent condition. Looking forward to an enjoyable and successful fall season, the men of Illinois Alpha wish the same for all the Brothers of Phi Kappa Psi.

ERIC F. SCHULTE, Correspondent

Ohio State University Machetanz Returns to Campus

The pre-season polls are out and the Ohio State Buckeyes are on top again.

Recent Illinois Alpha initiates include Harlow Stevens, Ray Byrne and Paul Foszez.

This includes not only the varsity football team, but also the Ohio Delta Phi Psis. With the school year starting, Ohio Delta looks forward to being among the leaders in Fraternity life again.

Spring quarter was closed out on two high points. First, we initiated nine new Brothers. The new initiates are: Joseph Travis Bost, Bolivar; Jonathan Dwain Burgess, Columbus; Glen Thomas Chutsky, Wayne, N.J.; Jay Robert Fuller and Sanford Lenn Phillips, Sandusky; Nicholas Joseph Furillo, Broadview; Paul Eugene Keller, Brecksville; Nark Andrew Stephenson, Caledonia; and Richard Eugene Strouth, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Secondly, on June 9, Fred and Sara Machetanz returned and a reception was held in their honor. Fred is an artist and has written and illustrated many books on Alaska. He has also been appointed a Distinguished Associate of Art by the University of Alaska. Together, he and Sara have done films for the Encyclopedia Britannica and Walt Disney. It was indeed a treat for all Phi Psis to get a chance to visit with such a super artist.

In intramurals, we finished fifth out of 20 houses in the scarlet division. The soccer team, captained by Bill Boger and Dave Sullivan, placed third. However, with the new season upon us we hope to improve greatly.

The Brothers would like to thank the alumnus who donated the money for the carpeting in the card room. His identity is unknown to us and we invite him to come and see the carpeting he donated. This would also give us a chance to thank our mysterious alumnus.

Two major events are on schedule for the Buckeyes. First, we will have a canoeing retreat in October and at the end of the quarter our annual mock Christmas party. The retreat is a new experience for us and we are looking forward to it. The Christmas party, held around Thanksgiving, should be better than ever with 32 Brothers here to prepare for it.

Also, the Brothers invite all the alumni back for homecoming on Oct. 22. We hope they come by early and have one of Mary's famous brunches and see another prize-winning float.

JIM INNOCENZI, Correspondent

Ohio Wesleyan University Financial Stability

Ohio Alpha falls into Autumn with a splash of Cardinal Red and Hunter Green, which then quietly fade into the realization of two months of open rush. During this rush, our chapter finds itself competing with 11 other fraternities. J. Edward Thompson, rush chairman, is in the midst of picking up the pace on a program which needs real pace in such competitive surroundings. Indeed, Ohio Alpha is surrounded and yet stands on an island of academic excellence, financial stability, and athletic resilience.

Our financial stability is due to the toils of Peter Quincy Kaestle, who, on the foundations of his predecessors, has helped build Ohio Alpha into the strongest chapter in the country, barring one. The house operates on a housing corporation budget of $22,000, and a fall term social fund of $8,000. Kaestle will be followed in office by Scott Brown.

Academic honors are held by many Brothers: Scott Brown and Richard J. Parsons are members of Phi Society. Brother Parsons and Richard Pera are members of the history department honorary society, Phi Alpha Theta. Larry Hinkle is on the religion department's student board. Joseph Angel, co-rush chairman, is in the OWU Choral Arts Society. Members of the Dean's List include: T. Christopher Blinn, Scott Brown, Douglas Reed, and R. J. Parsons.

Athletically, Ohio Alpha members participate on many varsity teams. Ed Thompson, hopefully, will be promoted from the JV roster of the Lacrosse to the Varsity, which finished third in the nation in the NCAA Division III. Steve Allen, Jaybo Francis, Andy Dunn, and Steve Gardner are members of the varsity soccer team. Jim Giarrusso and Petier Van Munching are co-captains of the men's volleyball club team. Peter Harnois is the co-captain of the varsity swim team, and Bruce Firehoch and George Sehringer are members of the team. Ken Walker, Ohio Conference singles champ in 1975 and 1976, Chip Dyer and Larry Hinkle comprise half of the OWU tennis squad. John Green is the sole member of the football team, playing guard for the Battling Bishops. Lindy Lindberg and M. D. DeAngelis are the coordinators of the first annual Ross Temp Golf Tournament here in Delaware.

This term we honor Alumnus Ken Potter. . . . At this time one must give great retrospective thought as to past summers and springs of fruitfulness. One such memory springs immediately to mind in this autumn of our Bicentennial Year 1976. This memory is to Ken Potter, Ohio Alpha 1951. At this time we the Brothers of Ohio Alpha extend our sincere best wishes to the new President of our Fraternity, Ken Potter. We all wish good luck in your new post and we are sure that you will do a fine job. We also look forward to your visit this year. Congratulations, also, to Joseph Costabile, who gave the nominating speech at the national convention in Washington, D.C., for Brother Potter.

This October we should like to remember the Brothers who graduated last June. The souls of these men shall always flicker in our minds like the occasional flame in a bed of hardwood coals. Men like Ted Munsell, now studying law at Case Western Reserve University, Jeff Foerster and Michael Thompson, studying dentistry and medicine, respectively. Brother Henry Watras is now an Ensign in the United States Navy. He is head of Naval Operations in Pensacola, Florida. Five-year Brother Todd Shrier is working on a better environment in oil research off the coast of Mozambique. We will always remember these men and others as having had a profound effect on the minds and bodies of those men who remain behind. Go on alumni, like politician Rod Rahe, in the strength of mind, spirit, body, and soul.

The greatness of Ohio Alpha resounds in the minds of the many who have stepped into its revered halls. Ohio Alpha has visited many other Phi Psi chapters, and to them we give our thanks. We hope that other chapters will feel free to visit Ohio Alpha in the near future.

DAVID B. WILSON, Correspondent

University of Oklahoma Chapter Grows

As the Big Red rolls on the field again, we continue to rebuild our membership. We all feel that Phi Psi will return as the number one fraternity on the campus of the number one football team, Oklahoma.

After some hard rushing and many parties, we are proud of our new pledge class, which consists of men ranging from a self-proclaimed psychic to outstanding artists.

Our 17 pledges are: Paul Haslet, Paul Cheng, Cordell Woods, Dill Rowland, Bob Moore, Floyd Cranmore, Eric Brunner, Tony Roesch, Tim Gallup, John Bonvloier, Steve Cypert, John Lewis, Dan Sav, Slade Henson, Steve Ogntook, Bob Mallik, and Doug Kimbrough.

We have also initiated six outstanding new Brothers: Bob Stansbury, Lindsey; David Larsen, Las Vegas, Nev.; George Russell, Charlottesville, Va.; Cecil Berger, Norman; Tony Holden, Tulsa; and Bill Edwards, Clairmore.

Our chapter consultant, John Burke, has given us tremendous help in his past couple of visits. He has improved our rush system and has helped strengthen our chapter as a whole.

In the first annual DG (Delta Gamma) Anchor Splash, Phi Psi managed a fourth among 22 fraternities, of which most are larger. As a chapter we are present in many campus activities, and as individuals we are everywhere. Examples of our campus activities range from ROTC to Model United Nations and include baseball, football, Ruf-Neks, and the Pride of Oklahoma Band.

We are a small chapter of 22 men now, but with our 17 pledges and good plans for spring rush, we will grow.

JOHN C. WRIGHT, Correspondent

Oklahoma State University Tenth Year on OSU Campus

Oklahoma Beta begins its tenth year on the OSU campus with enthusiasm and many goals for the new year. We plan to remain active in intramural sports, community projects, and of course the ever popular Phi Psi 500. We also hope to keep our standard of academics after placing second on campus last year.

We welcome 14 new pledges: Kevin Kanaly, Mark Jones, Ervin Warren, Dennis Morgan, Kelly Green, Mark Triska, Scott Riddel, Oklahoma City; Richard Nelson, Jerry Moore, Rick Schmigle, Stan Rickner, Ron Dyer, Tulsa; Robert Thomson, Midwest City; and Chuck Zwiacher, Putman City. We also welcome back spring semester pledges Kevin Corbett and Barry Traverse, Oklahoma City; Dan Mooney and Duane Higgins, Tulsa.

We would like to give special thanks to Jeff Rhodes, Chris Kunc, Larry Roach, and Rick Kunc, Wabash, for their help in summer rush. We invite all Brothers to stop by and see us during our tenth year.

JOHNNY R. SANDERS JR., Correspondent

University of Oregon Most Improved Chapter

The Brothers of Oregon Alpha arrived Sept. 11 to ready the house for rush week. We are looking forward to another successful rush and Rush Chairman Bill Clark has everybody excited about getting the best pledges. To those alumni who sent us recommendations, we appreciate your help.

Local alumni support and the Executive Council have helped us finish most of the needed house repairs. Some of the summer live-outs took a sledge hammer to those old leaking showers. The new shower room is a great improvement. And thanks to Mike Gerot, the lawns and shrub beds are coming along impressively. The St. Bernard, Baron, seems quite happy with all the work that has been done.

Mike Garvey will be hosting an alumni function on Oct. 1 in Portland. We are hoping for a lot of Phi Psis to join the undergraduates in a great evening.

One of our more scholastic members managed to graduate in three years and is exploring the mysteries of M.I.T. We want to wish Mark Smith luck.

One of the highlights so far has been the return of our cook from his summer adventures in Europe, Jack Stoddard. Having the best fraternity cook on any campus, we are looking forward to another year of great eating.

Stephen Beard, Steve Harris and Jeff Danielson all attended the GAC and were all thrilled at the awards luncheon, when the Oxford Alumni Association named Oregon Alpha as the most improved chapter in the system. It would take much time to thank everyone who helped make this possible, but we will strive to make sure we deserve the award.

We hope our Brothers, alumni and undergraduates alike, will stop by and see us this year.

Oregon State University New Pledges

The biggest step yet in the rebuilding effort at Oregon Beta came September 28, when 10 men pledged. They are: Jeffrey Mark Warner, Estacada; Raymond Earl Jim, The Dalles; Danial Linus Brockamp, Philomath; Steve Finn, and Keith Duane Cunningham, Salem; Serge Alexandre, Mill Valley, Calif.; Stephen Lloyd Tedesco, Klamath Falls; Michael Wayne Cady, Ashland; John Warren Riche, Walnut Creek, Calif.; and William Wesley Finzer, Portland.

We now have a strong foundation and expect to be one of the leading fraternities by the end of the year.

Most of the credit should go to Ken Schwartz '74, the fast talking rush chairman who always knows what to say to the right people at the right times. Ken and Ty Higgs '75, spent most of the summer rushing and getting the house ready. They both did a remarkable job considering what they were up against.

Now that we are back in the house, the alumni have been very generous and helpful. Special thanks go to John Seal '50, Don McNeil '48, Neal Eberlein '60, Glen Rosenberg '48, the supervising committee and Alumni House Corporation Board. Without their help we never would have gotten off the ground.

One of the activities we are planning this year is a "Bounce-A-Thon" (an old Rhode Island Beta tradition) from Eugene to Corvallis, ending at Gill Coliseum during the OSU U of O basketball game. There will be four basketballs going at all times over a distance of 60 miles. We will donate the contributions to a charity in the area.

Pennsylvania State University Campus Successes

Pennsylvania Lambdans are looking forward to a socially and academically active fall term. Phi Psi at Penn State maintains a highly reputable name in every aspect of the college experience and accepts the challenge of furthering that prestige.

Spring term ended with the initiation of four new Brothers: Daniel Wolfe, Buffalo, N.Y.; Gerald Kozak, Duquesne; John J. Repcheck Jr., Upper St. Clair; John Headden VI, Monroeville. Their contributions are already being applied to house activities.

Five men will serve their pledgeship to Phi Kappa Psi during fall term: Howard Welsh, Wexford; Drew Fenton, Latrobe; Guy Howland, Ithaca, N.Y.; Christopher Coffin, Berkeley Heights, N.J.; Kenneth Smith, Mountainside, N.J. These Penn Staters would be a welcome to any fraternity and we are proud that they have accepted the ideals of Phi Psi.

Leadership for fall term will be provided by Robert Riegel, GP; Robert Buly, VGP; Scott Harman, P; Donald Miller, AG; Todd Currie, BG; Thomas Twardzik, SG; Allen Dreibelbis, Hi; Thomas Zebrak, Hod; and Gregg Zaffaroni, Phu.

Traditionally, Phi Psi has placed men in top positions in campus organizations and this year is no different. The post of President of the Interfraternity Council is filled by Tom Conroy. He is joined in his office by Gene Riechers, Secretary-Treasurer, and John Mierley, Social Chairman. We are well represented in the Fraternity Purchasing Association by Scott Harman, one of six undergraduates on the Board of Directors. Assumption of responsibility is a typical example of the Penn Lambdan emphasis of campus involvement.

We can also boast of Tom Twardzik's membership on Penn State's Cheerleading Squad. Tom survived the intense competion of tryouts to fill in the shoes of the last Phi Psi cheerleader, Wally Harber-son.

Penn Lambdans experienced such a successful spring term that we will be hard pressed, but anxious to try, to match it. The Phi Psi 500 raised a record $6000 which was donated to the Centre County Day Care Center. In Greek competition we teamed with Alpha Chi Omega Sorority to cop the overall first place trophy for Spring Week. Undefeated volleyball and soccer teams suffered tough losses in the playoffs, but still kept us near the top of intramurals. The only mar on our Spring slate was a slight drop in our academic ranking; however, we are confident of rebounding back into the top 10 of Penn State's 49 fraternities.

Thanks to the House Corporation, we are happy to report that the lodge underwent electrical renovations in the way of new wiring and installation of fluorescent lights. The Corporation is now looking into further improvements that can be made on our 50-year-old house.

A diversified social calendar insures that the fall term isn't all study and no play. The upcoming weeks are highlighted with socials, happy hours, tailgates, and the Fall Fling.

With the arrival of Fall, we would like to remind alumni of Homecoming. All Brothers are urged to stop by the lodge if they are in the State College area around October 16. Preparations have already commenced to rekindle the fond memories of collegiate days as Phi Psis. We are looking forward to a weekend of reminiscing about the past and the reassurance of Phi Psi's solid future at Penn State.

Purdue University Early Start on Rush

The Brothers at Indiana Delta like to dance and we have started our fall semester doing just that. Our disco parties are perfect for welcoming friends back to school, and it has allowed for an early start to our rush program as we meet and party with prospective rushees. We have been especially concerned and busy with rush, as in the span of the one school year since our recolonization, we are already just nine short of having a full house once again.

We now introduce our spring pledge class of 15: Robert Walsh, Moraga, Calif.; Marvin Richardson, Jeffery Elsworth, Anderson; James Dolaway, La-Porte; Bill Vonachen, Holliston, Mass.; Dennis O'Brien, Pelham, N.Y.; Michael Skersick, Louis Ninios, Rochester, N.Y.; John Cox, Barry Churbock, Muncie; Gregory Tilley, Kokomo; Matt Norman, Royal Church, Valparaiso; Mark Danly, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; Mark Holloway, Evansville. The pledges are now planning a Halloween party for underprivileged children to be held at the house as one activity of the many for their pledgeship.

A Rhode Island Block Party, proving once again, that Phi Psi does things in a big way. This year's party attracted over 3,000 people.

Intramural softball has just gotten underway. We look forward to having another super season as nearly everyone from the team last year has returned. Once the softball season is over we'll be ready for basketball.

Academically, we are still slowly climbing, having now reached the eleventh top position out of the 43 fraternities on the Purdue campus.

We begin this semester with new officers. Congratulations go to: Greg Cook, GP; Mark Lawson, VGP; Scott Haag, AG; Rick Curbock, BG; Alan Leewood, P; Chip Fell, SG; Kent Copeland, Hod; Larry Dusing, Phu; and Terry Flynn, Hi.

We expect the semester to be another fun-filled and active one for us all. Already planned are such functions as trade dinners, a hayride, and a square dance. We again have special activities planned for Homecoming when we again get the chance to meet and get to know so many of the Brothers who lived here before us.

SCOTT HAAG, Correspondent

University of Rhode Island Blockbuster Block Party

We, the Brothers of Rhode Island Beta, have already demonstrated what Phi Psi can make out of a spring semester, and we are hoping to duplicate, if not surpass, ourselves with our fall semester.

A highlight of our spring calendar was the annual Greek Week competition, in which we, despite some harsh judging, tallied a second place in fraternity division, missing first place by a mere 100 points. We were pleased with ourselves both in this and in our successfully staged blood drive which was our community project. Our sorority partners, Delta Zeta, surely contributed to our inspiration.

Spring Weekend festivities, organized with the expertise of social chairmen John Goding and Joe Capaldi, were climaxed by our Rose Formal, during which Karen Merlino, Alpha Xi Delta, and sister of Joe Merlino, was named Phi Psi Sweetheart.

A pat on the back goes to Allan Chiulli, rush chairman, who made our spring rush one of the most productive in recent years. Those rushed and chosen as pledges were: John Bailey, Buffalo, N.Y.; John Partington, Bristol; John Prince, Portsmouth; John Rhodes, Long Island, N.Y.; and David Singer, Barrington.

Our fall semester is already heading toward a full social calendar. Once again, Phi Psi will lead the social scene, thanks to Chuck Cavaretta and the many Brothers and pledges who devoted their time and energy toward our blockbuster Block Party, in which we hosted an estimated 3,000 persons.

At a lengthy yet productive chapter meeting, the fall semester slate of officers was elected: Chuck Cavaretta, GP; Hal Zick, VGP; Dave Gorgone, AG; Jake Cannon, BG; Rick Mollicone, P; Steve Verkade, SG; Jim Cunha, Hod; Pete Larson, Phu; Rich Hubli, Hi; and Angelo Mazzarella, assistant P.

Comprising the Governing Board, in addition to the VGP are: Bill Englund, house manager; Dave Leaver, steward; rush chairmen Bob Ferri and Carl DiSanto; as well as Bruce Millard, pledge master; and Bob Goulet, member-at-large.

Bartender Tom Leach is sure to prove himself a master in his trade.

On the sports scene, Walt Augustyn and Estes Benson are wearing the URI football colors, and John Goding, Bruce Millard, Bob Campbell, and pledge John Bailey are adding their talents to the URI rugby team.

Finally, we here at RI Beta are delighted to welcome Bob Hunter, a transfer from Gettysburg College and Penn Epsilon. Bob promises to be a credit both as a Brother and friend.

DAVID J. GORGONE, Correspondent

Rider College Working Hard

The Brothers of New Jersey Alpha welcomed 11 neophytes last semester who will be initiated this fall. They are Gary J. Ginter, younger brother of our new president Stephen Ginter and member of Rider's varsity soccer team, from Allentown, Pa.; Nicholas D. Stephen, another varsity member of the soccer team from Trenton; Patrick Trainor, a member of the varsity soccer and golf teams, Barrington; Raymond Conover, Freehold; Daniel Hickey, Bloomfield; Russell Grifo, a member of both the soccer and wrestling teams from Bangor, Pa.; Randy Petrino, Cedar Grove; William L. Heins III, varsity member of the soccer team and Dean's List scholar with a 3.25 grade point average last semester, Willingboro; David Morse from Holmdel; David Krolk from Sayerville; James Wiener, Atlantic City.

Elections were held last semester for this year's officers. Stephen Ginter was elected President; David Ginfida, Vice President; Mark Grossman, Treasurer; Louis Harbrecht, Corresponding Secretary; Gary Higley, Recording Secretary; Brian Plushanski and Leonard Schwartz, Co-Rush Chairmen; Michael Tolman, Sergeant-at-Arms; Michael Ayars and Terrence Leach, Co-Social Chairmen; Steve Silver, Historian; John Milana, Athletic Chairman; Clyde Closson, Steward; Donald Glasson, Chaplain; and Michael Kloss, Rituals Chairman.

Possibly our most outstanding achievement of last semester was winning the interfraternity service project trophy for exceptional community service. We earned this coveted award by aiding the Lawrence Township Police Department in patrolling the streets of Lawrenceville last Halloween, receiving praise from both Lawrenceville's mayor and police chief, and conducting an Easter Egg hunt for the youngsters of Lawrenceville last spring.

Last semester also saw Phi Psi initiate a faculty/administration relations program by holding a dinner for more than 20 professors and administrators. We received letters of thanks from Rider's three top deans praising Phi Psi for hospitality and foresightedness in trying to improve fraternity/college relations.

Three Brothers made the dean's list last semester. Ronald Loder with a 3.28 grade point average in accounting, neophyte Bill Heins with a 3.25 average in business, and John Milana topping all with a perfect 4.0 in accounting.

Last spring semester, though not the most glorious athletic season we ever enjoyed, did see Phi Psi win the interfraternity jai alai championship with the team of Terrence Leach and Michael Ayars. The co-captain of Rider's swim team, Clyde Closson, set a new pool record in the 50-yard freestyle with a sizzling 22.1, while Donald Glasson took first place in the three-mile run in a meet against St. Josephs College.

Last semester's Inish was held at Tame-ment Country Club in the Pocono Mountains. Everyone had a ball. Greek Week festivities saw Phi Psi run away with first place finishes in the two-man tricycle race, with the team of Pat Trainor and Mark Grossman, and four-man potato sack race with the team of Robert Florio, Michael DiSilvio, Donald Glasson and Michael Kloss.

Looking ahead, large scale renovations are planned for our house. With financial assistance from the school a new bartop and stools will be purchased along with new dining tables and chairs. Also a new exercise room is planned and a "face-lift" for the outside of the house.

The Brothers of New Jersey Alpha are working hard to make this fall semester better than ever.

University of South Carolina Scholarship Award Winner

Achievement and dedication have made the spring and fall semesters memorable at South Carolina Alpha.

The chapter is prepared for the work ahead under the leadership of our new officers: Robert W. Knudsen Jr., GP; Connor M. Harrison, VGP; William D. Schill, P; J. David Steele, AG; Douglas J. Cornforth, BG; George E. Rickles III, SG and Hod; Christopher G. Toffali, Phu; Michael E. Fletcher, Hi; Gregory L. Anderson, Pledge Educator and Assistant P.

By uniting our talents in hard work we were able to win first place for the Greek Week service project and place third overall in Greek Week competition. Many thanks go to Rick Funk for his hard work as chairman of Greek Week. We are also very proud of John Benson on being elected president of IFC for the 1976-77 school year.

We are also very delighted to receive four new members into the chapter: Leon I. Smith III, Fairfield, Va.; E. David Schneider, Columbia; Robert H. Henderson, Greenville; Mike Capen, Darlington.

The best part of the spring semester was learning that we had won the scholarship award among the 16 fraternities on campus. It is really great to have the scholarship award back home after having it elude us for the past several years.

With much hard work and dedication by all the Brothers, we were able to have a successful summer and fall rush in which we pledged nine very fine young men: Kenette Westbrook Davis, Charlotte, N.C.; Guy Maple, Cayce; David Carroll Pearson, Aiken; John Bishop Nims, Sumter; William Lee Edens Jr., Malvern, Pa.; Eric Stuart Sadow, Trotwood, Ohio; Thomas Ashley Limehouse, Summerville; Jon-Frederick Luther Simmel, Philadelphia, Pa.; and Vincent Price, Greenville.

We congratulate A. C. Flora III for winning the James W. Scott Outstanding Alumni Award. A. C. Flora was instrumental in helping to reorganize the Columbia Alumni Club. We wish the Alumni Club much success and thank them for the valuable help they have given the chapter.

Also, we give a special thanks to Flynn Brantley, South Carolina '72, Tommy Dail, South Carolina '72, Smith Harrison, South Carolina '72, and A. C. Flora, South Carolina '72, for their great help to the chapter during rush.

University of Southern California 50th Anniversary

On February 19, 1977, Cal Delta will celebrate its 50th anniversary as one of the strongest west coast chapters of District VI. Since our founding and installation here on the University of Southern California campus, Phi Psi has held herself in the highest of esteem for half a century. This is only the beginning of what promises to be a long and fruitful existence for our beloved Chapter.

Plans are being made and alumni are being contacted in regard to the large formal dinner accompanying the festivities centered around the Chapter. Founders Day falls on a Saturday this year, and all prominent men of Cal Delta will be on hand for our annual dinner at Taix restaurant. After dinner there will be a grand get together at the fraternity house for all of Cal Delta's loyal Brothers. The large formal dinner will take place some time after Founders Day, and should prove to be the social event of the season featuring numerous guest speakers and personalities. Alumni, keep your eyes open for our future mailings regarding this great event.

Fall rush has tentatively drawn to a close, and at press time, California Delta is proud to announce its 14 pledges for the fall semester. They are: Greg Bert, Joe Boylin, Bob Church, Lou Cohen, Brent Enright, Bill Herrick, Greg Kavorkian, Frank Occhipinti, Lars Olsen, Ken Penton, Jeff Phillips, Joe Sweeney, Dave Williams and Rick Wittwer. They are all courteous gentlemen and we are proud to have them as a part of Phi Psi.

Sports are always a large part of the Fraternity, and this year is no exception. After a strong third place finish last year in the overall standings, the campus fraternity newspaper has picked Phi Psi as a strong contender to win the Iron Man trophy this year, having lost only two seniors to graduation. The first sport held was the IFC Tennis Singles, always a big point getter for the start of the year. Each house entered four players in the single elimination tournament, and after the first four rounds of play, the Phi Psis find themselves with Peter Bach, Bill Badham, Greg Benson and pledge Rick Wittwer still in contention going into the quarter-finals. One more win in each bracket will result in a four-way tie for first between all Phi Psis, something that no other group has ever accomplished.

Our sorority girl calendar has been another great success this year, thanks to all alumni who contributed to its completion. Our next alumni newsletter will be appearing in a matter of weeks, and all communication should be directed to our corresponding secretary regarding our great 50 year reunion and celebration.

University of Southwestern Louisiana Greek Week Honors

The fall semester at Louisiana Beta is once again abundant with activities consisting of chapter elections, seven home football games, preparation for homecoming, and house improvements. The highlight for this semester started early with the pledging of 30 men.

Late last spring semester during Greek Week festivities, Phi Psi received the Most Improved Chapter Award and once again the Outstanding Scholarship Award. We were able to maintain a 2.61 average.

Brothers Jacques Lassiange and Kirk Boudreaux were both elected to the Student Government Association. Jacques Lassiange is the President of the College of Education, and Kirk Boudreaux is one of the College of Commerce senators to the SGA. Brother Kermit Rogers was elected the President of Blue Key. This makes two Phi Psis in a row President of Blue Key. Brother Paul Meyers has recently been appointed Area Director for District IV-D.

Our newest initiates are William D. Best Jr., Lafayette, and Michael Soileau, Washington. These two men are really hard workers and are doing well.

The officers for the fall 1976 semester are: Michael Fouquier, GP; Jacques Lassiange, VGP; James Maraist, AG; Dan Johnson, BG; Kirk Boudreaux, P; Jim Hodges, SG; Tom Sarradet, Hi and Hod; Andy Bienvenu, Phu; and Brent Sonnier, pledge educator.

With a little more than three months left in the semester we will be busy with homecoming, rush, and the preparation for the Phi Psi 500. So, Louisiana Beta will be kept very busy this semester.

JAMES MARAIST, Correspondent

Southwest Texas State University Summer Reunion

Following a summer of work on our chapter house, which included repainting the interior, we held our summer reunion. Many alumni and Brothers attended a barbeque and a dance on July 24. We have 34 Brothers returning for the fall semester. The new officers are: Steve Hughes, GP; James E. Thompson, VGP; Philip B. Tinker, P; Michael J. Talburt, AG; R. David Truly, BG; Daniel A. Law, SG; James C. Bode, Hod; V. John Hermansen, Phi; Charles S. Johnson, Hi. J. Robert Tyler is the new treasurer of the Interfraternity Council. Our chapter is currently publishing an all-Greek phone directory as a money-making project. On September 1, over 1,000 students attended our All-Campus Party. The enrollment for the fall semester is an all-time high of 13,652 students making SWTSU the sixth largest university in Texas.

Syracuse University Chancellor's Cup Awarded

The Brothers at New York Beta are proud to announce the acquisition of the Chancellor's Cup, an award annually given by the University's administration to the most outstanding fraternity. The banquet given in our honor, highlighted by the presentation of the trophy by Chancellor Eggers, was a tremendous way to cap the year's events.

Another very satisfying area this past year was our second place overall finish in the Intramural Athletic Division. Inspired by our Intramural Chairman, Joe Catalano, we surged from a ninth place standing at Christmas, barely missing first place at the end. Rob Harris helped our dark horse skiing team to place very high in a demanding field. In street hockey, a new sport added to the Intramural season, Phi Psi rode into the play-offs on the brilliant play of goalie Dave Houlihan.

New York Beta encourages Brothers to participate in University and community affairs, and this year several Brothers carried the Phi Psi name into these areas. Dave Webb enthusiastically took on the role of Muscular Dystrophy Dance Marathon coordinator, a fund-raising event which is campus-wide. If you happened to miss Dave presenting a check for $44,000 dollars to Jerry Lewis on national TV, then you also missed seeing him give the Phi Psi recognition sign to fellow Brothers around the country. Dave's dedicated efforts were indicated by the tremendous sum of money raised to such a worthy cause. In another charitable area, Rob Harris spent many long hours as Troop Leader for a mentally retarded Boy Scout troop. Phi Psi was also well represented on the intercollegiate athletic front by Clem Murray, co-captain and goalie for the nationally ranked SU lacrosse team. Clem played brilliantly throughout the season, and was awarded the MVP trophy at the end of the season for his sport.

In the spring semester, 13 Brothers were initiated, bringing our enrollment of undergraduate Brothers to 52, making Phi Psi the largest fraternity on the SU campus. The initiates include: Dick Driscoll, Joe Kearney, DeWitt; Gary Heflich, Guilderland; Hersch Gornbein, Niagara Falls; Mike Duchene, Peeksville; Bob Thompson, Clarence Center; Paul Podolsky, Woodmere; Walt Longo, Pelham Manor; Wayne Caputo, Bloomfield, N.J.; Bill Kalista, Moodus, Conn.; Tim Kurz, Yardley, Pa.; Holt McChord, New Canaan, Conn.; and Greg Wooster, Hamburg.

The newly elected officers are: Dave Houlihan, GP; Bill Chalanick, VGP; Mike Imobersteg, AG; Kevin Fayle, BG; John Hess, P; Bob Yamulla, SG; Joe Alloway, Hi; Joe Kearney, Hod; and Wayne Caputo, Phu. These officers are determined to lead New York Beta to a successful defense of the Chancellors Cup.

The University of Texas Fall Means Football

We at Texas Alpha are proud to boast the initiation of two new Brothers from our Spring pledge class, making a total of six newly initiated Brothers. Initiated on September 13, were Robert DeLee Bones of Austin and Russell James Kempton of Bettendorf, Iowa.

The Fall semester is also highlighted by another very successful rush campaign. Rush captain Byran Muecke did a great job in recruiting a group of young men with the talents and enthusiasm to maintain the Phi Psi tradition on campus. A total of two juniors and ten freshmen accepted bids at the closing of formal Rush Week with 15 strong possibilities for Open Rush. We are proud to announce that our Fall pledge class will include the following men: Thomas Enoch Boyd Jr., West Texas City; John Richard Burnell, Seabrook; Kelly Essar Fish, Midland; Donald Griffith, Wichita Falls; James Brian Huber, Darien, Conn.; Arnold (Chip) Benjamin Johnson III, Houston; Sherman Paine Mcdaniel Jr., Houston; Charles Vastine Rice, LaMarque; Scott Sokol, Texas City; Jeffery Orham Taner, Houston; Kenneth Charles Tresiear, LaMarque; and John Pollan Wilkerson, Grandview.

Fall in Texas means football and this great tradition will be carried on by our strong intramural teams. Texas Alpha is anticipated to surpass all other fraternities in football, tennis, handball, and volleyball decoration program recently, thanks to the efforts of the Brothers who are living in the house this year. Many of us decided that the rooms could use some brightening up, and the new paint, carpet, and shelves have certainly done the job. Continuing with our house improvement program, we are finishing the remodeling of a portion of our basement that is being converted into a game room. We were very fortunate in receiving the donation of a pool table, a ping-pong table and a couch to coordinate with the new decor. The surrounding yards have also seen some new improvements with the planting of new shrubs and indoor flower boxes.

Any alumnus who did not receive the Alumni Directory or knows of any corrections to be made, please contact University Publishing Corporation, Post Office Box 1311, Bloomington, Indiana 47401.

At the last meeting of the previous semester, this year's officers were installed. They are as follows: Dan Wilkerson, GP; Dale Wommack, VGP; Frank Holaday, P; Walter Tippin, AG; Russell Pruitt, BG; and Lloyd Segler, Social Chairman.

We wholeheartedly thank the alumni who have so generously helped us, both financially and with Summer Rush, in the past year. The chapter has undergone many changes in the recent years, and we hope to ride the renewed interest in the Greek system to a new era of financial stability.

We earnestly solicit Rush recommendations from any alumni. Please send the names of prospective University of Texas students to Byran Muecke, 2401 Longview, Austin, Texas 78705.

WALTER TIPPIN, Correspondent

Texas Tech University ELC Host

The Brothers of Texas Beta enthusiastically started the academic year in August with the pre-initiation events and initiation ceremonies. Through the diligent efforts of the pledges, the lodge was completely renovated. The proud new Brothers of Phi Kappa Psi are: Roy Braswell, Charles Bumpass, M. C. Carrington, Jim Hayward, Mike Farmer, Ken Larkin, Roy Lewis, and Jim Vernon.

Our chapter is currently planning events for Dads' Day, October 23, and Homecoming, November 13. All parents, alumni, and Brothers are welcome and encouraged to attend. Then on October 29, a new tradition will be started at Texas Tech when Texas Beta holds the first annual Phi Psi Phiesta. Phiesta will be an ALL University Dance with a union of good friends, live music, and good times. Many Brothers from Texas Alpha will be in Lubbock that weekend for the Big Game.

Texas Beta has been selected to be the host for District V's ELC November 5-7. Our chapter is looking forward to welcoming Brothers from our District and promise them not only a profitable weekend, but also an enjoyable one.

Intramurals got off to a successful start when Texas Beta defeated last year's All-University champions in football. All of the Brothers are fired up for a winning season in football, softball, swimming, bowling, and soccer.

The University of Toledo Fall Rush

With a new school year beginning, the Brothers of Ohio Eta have 26 active members and are ready to rebuild. The Brothers have elected: James J. Shortridge, GP; Richard F. Gerken, VGP; Timothy J. Zale, P; Mark T. Tappen, AG; Ronald W. Helfrich, BG; Ronald M. Portaro, HI; Dennis C. Acuna, Hod; Bruce W. Scott, Phu; and Lawrence C. Brach, SG.

Last spring, when the regular school year ended, the Brothers of Ohio Eta were well represented in UT's summer activities. Serving as a Student Advisor during the Freshmen Advising-Registration Program was Mark Tappen. Larry Pickett, Jim Shortridge, and Tim Zale were Freshmen Camp counselors. This exposure to and chance to meet several incoming freshmen will help Ohio Eta during rush.

Our fall rush program is well on its way to being a success. Several meetings were held this summer to make plans for parties, discuss rush procedures, and to get names of prospective rushees. Each weekend during the rush is booked solid as far as the Phi Psis are concerned. We will have parties at our house, as well as mixers at UT's Student Union. Our fall rush calendar includes a before-school welcome to freshmen on September 18, a Coors party after UT's first home football game on September 25, a TGIF during the afternoon of October 1, and a taco party on October 2.

To psyche up for rush and the coming school year, the Brothers packed up their gear and spent September 11, 12, and 13 at Randy Gensler's cottage in Lake James, Ind. During the day we swam, skied, went scuba diving, and played football. At night we discussed and finalized many plans for rush.

Congratulations to Dave Krieger, initiated into the Ohio Eta on Wednesday, September 15.

MARK T. TAPPEN, Correspondent

Vanderbilt University New Chapter Advisor

Bringing the news of Tennessee Delta up to date, we are pleased to recognize the previously unreported officers for the fall semester: Howard Ives Parks, GP; Kenneth Gerald Moore, VGP; Earle Plain Martin III, P; William D. Stuart Jr., AG; James Elton Kropp, House Manager; Gregory Howard Hoveland, Pledge Educator. As this semester begins these Brothers, as well as committee chairmen, are holding organizational meetings, and are laying the foundation for another strong, prosperous year at Tennessee Delta.

At the first regular meeting in September, the chapter elected Brother Tony Springman, Vanderbilt '75, as the new chapter advisor. Brother Springman was selected from a list of several distinguished alumni. Since his graduation, Tony has maintained a very close relationship with the undergraduate chapter.

We are pleased to report that the newly formed House Corporation is operating without any major problems. The active chapter owes a great deal to the dedicated alumni who have worked many long hours to insure future Phi Psis a strong financial base.

On the athletic scene, the intramural football team seems destined to enjoy another winning season. Many newly initiated sophomores have plugged holes that prevented a championship team last season. Also, other IM teams are promising to show winning form.

At this writing, the Chapter is preparing itself for upperclass rush and hopes to be able to report another successful program with the next writing of this article.

University of Virginia Active Fall

Virginia Alpha is again preparing for a successful rush this fall, aided by the presence of 13 new Brothers: Steven W. Blaine, Christian K. Latimer, Vienna; Raymond J. Boland, Alexandria; Scott A. Claybrook, Robert S. Holt, Nashville, Tenn.; John T. Cook, Lynchburg; Michael F. and Thomas J. Egan, Chevy Chase, Md.; Robert H. Graham, Sterling; Michael C. Neely, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Robert E. Nelson, Fairfax; Robert E. Offtender, Bethesda, Md.; and Mark W. Pitts, Fredericksburg. These Brothers recently completed a successful work week during which a considerable number of improvements were made on the house.

Rush has gotten off to a fast start as UVA's Homecoming was celebrated with parties over the weekend. If the size and intensity of these festivities are any indication, Virginia Alpha will once again enjoy a productive rush.

Phi Psi, as usual, is active in University sports programs. Tom Watkins is currently playing on the "A" side of Virginia's rugby team, and Chris Latimer has recently begun his second year on the varsity lacrosse team. Matt Bacharach is looking forward to his fourth season as a letterman on the 'Hoos wrestling squad, and is planning to earn All-ACC honors for the third time. Ed Offtender is staying on top of his game in preparation for his second year on Virginia's golf team, while Jay Stone is keeping track of all University sports activities in his capacity as co-sports editor of The Cavalier Daily, Virginia's student newspaper.

The chapter is also a very active participant in intramural sports this fall, fielding a strong football team, which demolished its opponent last week by a score of 40-0. Brothers are also faring well in squash, volleyball, horseshoes, tennis, and basketball.

An alumni luncheon is scheduled tentatively for a weekend in November. Virginia Alpha alumni should watch their mailboxes for details as plans are finalized.

Officers elected for the duration of this school year are as follows: GP Reese Owens; VGP Matt Bacharach; P Tommy Calk; AG Andy Claybrook; and BG Michael Neely.

ANDY CLAYBROOK, Correspondent

Wabash College Successful Rush

Indiana Gamma ended the spring semester with a grade-point average of over 3.0 and a rank of fourth place in intramural standings. While not disappointed with these figures, we have begun this semester determined to do better.

Returning from summer recess, we found ourselves to be a mere 32 in number. However, under the dauntless direction of Rush Chairman John Downing and the inspired efforts of all, we pledged a sufficient 23 freshmen. Pledged are: Thomas Andrew Brandes, Waukegan, Ill.; Eddie Lee Carden, Scott Edward Marschand, Galveston; Thomas Michael Charlebois, Gregory Kent Heuman, Indianapolis; Bruce David Cook, Anderson; Brian Kelly Dickson, Fort Wayne; Brian Keith Dinges, Schererville; Albert John Eaton, Black Oak, Ill.; Timothy Ray Grimm, Evansville; Robert Scott McFarland, Muncie; Steven John Neumann, Brett Alan Stephens, Highland; David Lee Overmyer, Cuernavaca, Mexico; Wilbur Edward Peak, New Albany; Jeffry Charles Plasterer, Richmond; Kevin Eugene Ring, Marion, Ohio; John Arthur Ritter, Terre Haute; Christopher Allen Roscher, Crawfordsville; Greg Frederick Sands, Columbus, Ohio; Jeffery John Skalik, Hobart; Gordon Hamilton Thrall, Arlington, Va.; Charles Wesley White, Linden. They are well into their pledge program under the tutelage of John Downing, pledge trainer; Bernhard Hoff, pledge educator; Eric Brandt, songmaster; and Michael O'Quinn, house manager.

Chapter officers for this term are: Rade R. Kljajic, GP; Patrick E. Kunc, VGP; James Brandon Griffis, P; Jacob B. van Kretschmar, AG; Ralph E. Tedeschi, BG; Donald D. Popma, SG; Michael F. O'Quinn, Hod; Michael J. Kapitan, Phu; Sean S. Butler, Hi. We recently elected William J. Zajdel our Chapter Advisor and Benjamin Kessler, John Gerard, and Charles Tramel our Honorary Chapter Advisors. Our Faculty Advisor for the third consecutive year is Dr. Don Herring, chairman of the Wabash English department.

Two Brothers are studying abroad this semester. David Manula is studying music and biology in Vienna, while Patrick Hale is studying economics in London.

Our sincere gratitude to Dr. Robert Mauser ('48) and Gordon Peters ('49) for their efforts in making this year's rush a success.

University of Washington Mini ELC

Last May, Washington Alpha Chapter was the scene of a mini ELC. This Northwest leadership conference was the first of its kind for northwest chapters. Attending from other chapters were Brothers from Oregon Alpha and Oregon Beta. Coordinating the conference were Alan Billingsley, and John Ciccarelli, the District VI Archon from California Theta. The conference dealt with all aspects of chapter government and organization. Ideas were exchanged and different methods evaluated. Special guests who attended were Guy L. Minardi, chapter consultant, and SWGP, Tom James. The scholarship chair controversy was also dealt with and resolved. The decision was that the chair would be in the possession of Oregon Alpha and Washington Alpha. The chair will alternate every year between the two chapters with Washington having it this past year and Oregon holding it in 1977. On its transaction the two chapters will get together for some good old Phi Psi hospitality. The mini ELC was a great success and has made a good start on strengthening the northwest Phi Psi chapters.

The spring of '76 brought us seven new initiates. Our new Brothers are: Gene Hoxie, Seattle; Brent Smith, Tonasket; Dale Hackney, Bellevue; Bill Barrett, Aspen, Colo.; Blair Cunningham, Anchorage, Alaska; Mike Alfieri, Mercer Island; and Fred Kimbarowicz, Kirkland.

Last spring also brought new officers: Dennis Schreckendgust, GP; Mike Bloom, VGP; Brian Geppert, AG; Peter Jackson, P; Dale Hackney, BG; Gilbert Salvador, SG; Doug Greiert, Hod; Kelly Crisler, Phu; and Rick Noeltner, Hi. Rex Nequette was elected house manager; Mark Wise, pledge trainer; and Alan Billingsley and Don Greiert, rush chairman. Congratulations to Summerfield award winner Jim Lockett.

Washington & Jefferson Highest Sports Participation

After receiving the Highest Varsity Participation Award at Washington & Jefferson College's All-Sports Banquet last May (not to mention the last 10 years running) Phi Kappa Psi at W&J again establishes itself as the chapter to beat with 18 of us playing varsity football and two participating in lacrosse.

Intramurals are always a big part of chapter life and this year proves no different. Coach Nicholas Karazsia returns 12 "lettermen" for the always tough intramural football team. On the tennis courts John Bucholtz, Rich Pinelli, Nick Karazsia and Jeff Wentz will attempt to bring the net title to Phi Psi.

After numerous fund raising events the Brothers are in the midst of redecorating our Green Room, including the purchase of a new color television set.

Jeff Wentz and John Noble returned from this summer's GAC and reported to the brotherhood a wealth of new ideas from their meetings with representatives of other chapters.

With Homecoming approaching, the Phi Psis look forward to meeting all of our alumni. We are all spending boundless energies in our fall rush program to maintain our strong chapter here at W&J.

Washington and Lee University Spirited Fall

The Brothers of Virginia Beta have started the 1976-77 year with great enthusiasm and high expectations. As our major interest focuses on rush, John Berley and Maynard McCorkle, senior rush chairmen, are diligently working toward a super pledge class. After an enormous fall cleaning and painting, the "Psi lodge" is tops on campus.

Scholastically, the chapter hopes to repeat its strong standing in the accumulative grade point average race among fraternities. Ted Hissey led all to our third place finish last year with a perfect 4.0 average. Also, senior Paul Larkin was initiated into Phi Beta Kappa, while Bob Florenza and Jerry Maatman were inducted into Phi Eta Sigma, an honor fraternity recognizing scholarship among freshmen.

In campus affairs, John Berley is the chairman of the Student Activities Board for the 1976-77 academic year. Tim Hendry is also on the executive board of the SAB, serving as its treasurer. John Kingston is again heard on the air waves as sports editor of WLUR, the school radio station.

As in the classroom and around campus, the Brothers are excelling on the athletic fields. Quarterback Ted Hissey, three year lettermen Sal Abbruzzese and Steve Dibiagio, and Bob Sczencinski, Bill Frear, and Bob Williams lead the football team. Co-captain Jeff Barr spearheads the soccer team, while co-captain Paul Thomson and Henry Harstian pace the cross-country team. In addition, Dave Leunig, Mike Wenke, Bob Florenza, Pat Dennis, and Mickey Knapp are training for defense of their league title in the upcoming basketball season.

The officers for the new year are: Bob Carpentier, GP; Ed Johnson, VGP; Tom Morvill, BG; Jerry Maatman, AG; and John Buckthal, P.

West Virginia University Alumni Dinner for Homecoming

After coming back from a very successful year, the Brothers of West Virginia Alpha look forward to another dynamic term. Our new officers are: Jeffrey Tennant, GP; Timothy Whalen, VGP; Patrick Whalen, AG; Scott Wilcher, BG; J. Douglas Mundy, P; Stephen Jenkins, Hi; Brian Hall, Mark Calabrese, SG; Michael Hopkins, Phu; and Dale Ruben, Hod; we hope to inspire the chapter with the necessary leadership needed.

Eighteen men were joined in the bonds of Phi Kappa Psi on August 28, 1976. Those newest Brothers are: Steve Cook, Jeff Furr, Michael Goff, Stephen Harper, Charleston; Dean Schwartz, Stephen Wilson, Parkersburg; Glenn Galko, Chuck Haller, Pittsburgh, Pa.; David Faris, Bridgeport; Jeffery Wendell, Cameron; Jeffery George, Elizabeth; Timothy Cool, Morgantown; Craig Krummich, New Martinsville; Robert Spears Jr., Point Pleasant; Joseph Constante, Smithtown; James Burns, Bricktown, N.J.; John Gimalis, Glastonbury, Conn.; and Michael Aldish, Muncy, Pa.

Due to the excellent work of Rush Chairman Tim Whalen, Phi Psis gained 31 pledges. They are: Richard Furbee, Timothy Greene, David Randolph, Rodney Swoger, Richard Tetrick, Robert Welch, Clarksburg; Robert Dinsmore, Edwin Gansor, Douglas Lothes, Ralph Massullo, Karl Sommer, J. Robert Weaver, Morgantown; Cecil Heyman, Thomas Mendenhall, Wheeling; David Hanna, Scott Morris, New Martinsville; Michael Ludwig, Stephen Ludwig, Ripley; Anthony Thomas, P. Kevin Tuckwiller, Lewisburg; David Weekley, Bridgeport; Jeff Tarr, Wellsburg; Alan White, Parkersburg; Stephen Arters, Charleston; James Burkhardt, Huntington; Mark Hoffman, Ravenswood; William Boss, Bruce Duchene, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Lee Pyles, Bridgeville, Pa.; Stephen Spencer, Bethesda, Md.; and William O'Connor, Saddle River, N.J.

As always, West Virginia Alpha extends an invitation to all Brothers—whether they desire a bed, a meal, or simply the warmth of true brotherhood.

Wittenberg University Football Team Is Strong

Another summer has ended and the Brothers of Ohio Beta have returned to the campus and the challenge of another school year. The house is filled to capacity, and should be on firm financial ground.

Our intramural football team is preparing to capture its 16th straight championship. With only a few starters from last year's undefeated squad missing, repeat seems imminent, according to mentor Vernon Neunamaker.

Mike Drenan, currently house president, is a starter at defensive tackle on Wittenberg's football team. Mike lettered on last year's NCAA Division III champions. Jamie Brugler is also a student coach, tutoring the offensive line.

Scott Wolfanger, Ken Kendall, and Doug Beckman are participating on the soccer team. Scott, a goalie, was last year's MVP on the squad. Don Beck, a starter last year, is out for the season with a knee injury.

Two recent graduates, Milt Thompson and Mark Riley, are now enrolled in law school. This past summer Milt was elected to the first team All-American baseball team for Division III schools. Milt starred as a designated hitter. He now attends Indiana University. Mark, the Solon E. Summerfield Award winner, is doing his studying at Capital University in Columbus.

Last spring, Brother Richard Keller married the former Marie Krause in a ceremony performed in Wittenberg's Weaver Chapel. The Brothers of Ohio Beta extend their heartiest congratulations and best wishes to the Kellers, now residents of Cincinnati.

Colonies

University of Arizona Great Expectations

The Arizona Alpha Colony, located at 1449 N. Cherry Ave. in Tucson, has already begun preparation for our long awaited chartering ceremony.

Chapter Consultant Guy Minardi visited our colony September 2-6. Chartering plans claimed most of the attention during his visit. He sectioned the project into different categories that included: finances, fraternity education, membership, alumni relations, and social functions. Chartering committee chairman, Dave Evans, has delegated each respective category to a subcommittee for preparation.

Current colony officers are as follows: Richard Christ, GP; Michael Molina, VGP; Stanley Kiebus, P; Philip D. Evans, AG; Michael Belcher, BG; Les Muchmore, SG; James Mortland, Hod; Terry Lorenz, Phu; and Thomas Dunklee, Hi.

Our '76 fall pledge class consists of eight members: Steve Cox, Sierra Vista; Chauncey Hill, Wichenburg; Don Kriz, Yorkville, Ill.; Chris Brown, Isadore Chifano, Steve Fowler, Louis Michael Hoffman, Winfred Wang, Tucson. The pledge class has already initiated two projects. They delivered a rose to each sorority as a symbol of friendship. They have also planned a community service project on September 25, in which they will do repair work, painting, and other odd jobs at the United Ways School.

We feel we have started the '76 school year with a record we can be proud of. This same pride is evident in the excitement and enthusiasm already generated by chartering plans. With the help of our Phi Psi alumni, the chartering ceremonies should be a grand success.

LOUIS HOFFMAN, Correspondent

University of California, Berkeley New Beginning

In the spring of 1976, 12 men set out on the challenging road to revive and charter the California Gamma Colony. Despite the absence of most of the members in the summer break, Kimball Koch of Berkeley and Peter Harvey of Garden Grove, along with alumni support from Dennis Jones, Terry Horn, Carl Stoney, and Art Bradley, undertook the task of securing a house for the new colony. By mid-September we secured the house, although a temporary one for a year. The house is located on the corner of Durant and Bowditch and we invite all alumni to come by and see us. We are grateful to the members of California Eta for their help in fixing up the house.

The other new colony members are Mike Aczon, Sandy Boyd, Lars Enevoldsen, Gary Goldstein, David Hutchinson, Bob Kimball, Matt Lorence, Hugh Mac-

Innes, Harry Thompson, and Blake Yeaman. By means of a well executed rush program directed by Chapter Consultant Guy Minardi, we obtained nine fine pledges toward our chartering date of February 19, all of them knowing the challenge ahead.

Our new pledges are Greg Sawdey, Steve Eichenlaub, Clark Danielson, Ernie Beernick, Greg Thompson, Bob Bleicher, Roger Snell, Gordon Cann and Jim Renee. Informal rushing continues to bring fine men to inquire about the new colony on campus. We intend to be active in team intramurals and look forward to the day when our colony is chartered.

PETER HARVEY, Correspondent

University of Florida Highest GPA

Florida Beta Colony is in the midst of its first fall rush program. It is a comprehensive program which tries to help new students in a strange environment to meet people.

We are proud to report that Phi Psi had the highest grade point average of any fraternity at the University of Florida last spring. The colony will receive custody of a trophy which goes to the top scholastic fraternity on campus each quarter.

Plans are also being made for a Homecoming Banquet November 20, at the University Golf Club. UF's football opponent for homecoming will be Rice University. Brothers who are interested in attending should contact Alumni Relations Chairman Steve Favaloro.

The Executive Council has approved Florida Beta's advisors. Our chapter advisor is Dr. Jerry Steinberg, Tennessee Delta, an environmental engineer and instructor at Santa Fe Community College in Gainesville. Our faculty advisor is Robert Denson, assistant dean of student services.

We would like to thank all the alumni who have contributed to our house corporation, which is now recognized by the state of Florida.

Finally, we welcome Carl Bennett, who has replaced Bob Wolter as chapter consultant for our region. Carl has been a great help to us as we implement our rush program and we look forward to working with him in the future.

GARRY MATLOW, Correspondent

The University of Georgia New House

Georgia Alpha has obtained a strong brotherhood of 28 men and hopes to gain a charter in November. We are no longer the smallest fraternity at the University of Georgia. This growth and the honor of holding the highest grade point average for three consecutive quarters has improved campus recognition of the colony to new view. The fraternity average was 3.08 last spring quarter.

Brothers of Georgia Alpha wish to extend their sincere gratitude to the Atlanta Alumni Association for obtaining a house for the colony. The Phi Psi house is an old Victorian house at 398 S. Milledge Avenue in Athens. A domed turret accentuates the house's uniqueness. Inside solid oak paneling gives the front entrance a warm glow highlighted by a massive fireplace and mirror.

Activities of note have been our victories over Alpha Gamma Rho and Alpha Phi Alpha in softball intramural last spring. Fall quarter, brothers plan to participate in football intramurals. Georgia Alpha was represented at the GAC in Washington last August. Phi Psi entered "Buford the Bear" in Alpha Phi Omega's annual Beauty and the Beast contest, a local charity drive.

Georgia Alpha hopes to gain 20 pledges with fall rush beginning September 19, 1976. Our new campus location and revitalized house are promising rushing tactics. We feel we have a better future to offer rushees since we're the only colony on campus. Georgia Alpha solicits your recommendations of unique men to build an upcoming fraternity.

Congratulations to Bob Wolter, former Chapter Consultant, on his new position as IFC advisor to fraternities at the University of Georgia.

CHIP BAILEY, Correspondent

University of New Mexico Membership of 12

After a summer of intensive rushing, Phi Psi at U.N.M. has recruited seven pledges. At this time we have a membership of twelve.

Seven members currently live in the Chapter House, with expectations of filling it to capacity next semester.

We are participating in football intramurals this year for the first time and are planning to participate in most other intramural events.

On September 10, we had a barbecue with Alpha Delta Pi sorority and had a great time. On September 26, we had an Open House for our parents, which we all enjoyed.

We are working on rush to recruit more men into the Chapter before formal rush starts.

University of Pennsylvania Entering First Full Year

The Pennsylvania Iota Colony has begun its first full academic year at the University. Since our last correspondence many optimistic things have happened to our colony. On May 2, 1976, we initiated nine new men in a ceremony held at the old Phi Psi house on our campus. On June 11, 1976, we moved into a recently renovated nine bedroom house at 3934 Spruce St., currently housing 14 brothers and feeding 15 full time. Throughout the summer the house was made suitable for our needs with only two brothers living in the house for the summer. At this moment the brothers are putting the finishing touches on the house. Also during the summer we were able to send both a letter of introduction to all Phi Psis in the Philadelphia area and a letter of welcoming to over 1,000 freshmen planning to attend Penn. Lastly, Brothers Baker, Friedman, and Levine were able to attend the GAC in Washington.

Currently we are looking forward to an eventful afternoon on Sunday, September 19, when we are hosting an alumni housewarming cocktail party. We are all anxious to meet and spend an enjoyable afternoon with all the Phi Psis in the Philadelphia area.

On the road to becoming a chapter, Penn Iota has fulfilled 8 of the 10 requirements. To date, we have a chapter advisor and a very interested faculty advisor, adequate and competitive housing, a legal alumni corporation, sound financial position, a GPA above the AMA, approval by Penn and the IFC, attendance at the GAC, and an active alumni association.

We urge all to make a note of our new address and to stop by and see us at your convenience.

DONALD BARBER JR., Correspondent

Virginia Polytechnic Institute Chapter Installation Soon

Spring Quarter was marked by many accomplishments for our colony. We initiated ten brothers into the colony in two separate pledge classes. The new members are: Rick Cooley, Craig Dill, Don Fletcher, Cliff Frohn, Dave Murphy, Bill Slade, Sandy Smith, Dave Stump, Peter Vacchi, and Alan Wilson. During spring quarter we also held elections for the coming year. Our officers for this year are: Alan Livingstone, president; William Reedy, vice president; Kenneth Roller, treasurer; Richard Hartman, recording secretary; Alan Wilson, corresponding secretary.

We have obtained a house for this year and we hope this will provide us with a good place for social events and meetings. We have rented the house for a year and will have six brothers residing there during this school year. Our social activities during spring quarter included a picnic at the Cascades which turned out to be a very successful outing, an overnight campout at a Greek Weekend celebration, and numerous get-togethers at local establishments. Our money-making projects included a sub sale and a car wash and both were financially successful.

Our last school year was one of tremendous progress for our colony. We have grown from an original colony of 14 brothers to our present 30 brothers. We now have a house and are ready for our second year at Virginia Tech. We are busy planning for our Fall chartering which is scheduled for November 13, 1976. We held our first rush of the year at the house and received a very fine turnout. Our first meeting went well and it looks like we can look forward to a very successful and productive year.

University of Wisconsin Back After 37 Years

On Thursday evening, October 7, ten eager men were initiated into the Wisconsin Alpha Colony of Phi Kappa Psi. After a 37-year absence from the Wisconsin campus, Phi Psi is about to resume her accustomed preeminence in Madison.

Those initiated at the Grace Episcopal Church by Chapter Consultants John Burke and Carl Bennett were: Dave Keating, Elm Grove; Bob Pingry, Chris Hanzieski, Steve Marcus, Milwaukee; David Zach, Monroe; James Beyer, Madison; Don Jacobs, Beloit; Brian Wallace, Merrifield; Dave Linsmeier, Brookfield; and Kevin Flaherty, Neenah.

The colony's future is bright. The first pledge class promises to double our numbers. Our chapter advisor, Paul Apyan (Miami '72), is finding time amidst his medical studies to help us with our growing pains. Also, we have plans underway for a full social and philanthropic semester.

We are eager to hear from Phi Psis across the country, and particularly from our erstwhile Wisconsin Alphan forbears.

BOB PINGRY, Correspondent

Alumni Associations and Clubs

Chicago Alumni Association

Those who missed the 16th Annual Closed Invitational Golf Tournament missed the finest outing yet. Through the efforts of Fred Goss, our president, the tournament was held at Lake Geneva Country Club, Lake Geneva, Wis. and was followed by a steak fry at Fred's home on the shores of the lake. A perfect day, an excellent golf course all to ourselves, and a beautiful sit-down dinner with our wives, provided a back-drop for a fine performance by everyone. Warren Olson, Illinois, was outstanding in his orange and white outfit and certainly captured the best-dressed award.

Champion golfer for 1976 was Herb Jones, Illinois, carding an 85. Herb took home the Settergren Low-Gross Trophy as well as other selections from the prize table. Herb also has the privilege of selecting the date and the place of next year's tournament. He had better choose carefully since there was a tie for low gross runner-up with both Dave Coolidge, Northwestern, and Tom Whiting, Purdue, turning in 87's.

Plan now to attend our Founders Day Banquet here in Chicago. It will be held on February 19, which is a Saturday. The place will be announced. The best way to be included in all the notices is to send a $2.00 check for your dues to the treasurer, Thomas Whiting, American Mart Corporation, 666 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Ill. 60611.

Recommend rushees to the chapters. If you have a rushee and don't know how to get to the chapter, call your Secretary at 726-1300.

FRANK S. WHITING JR., Correspondent

Northern California Alumni Association

The Northern California Alumni Association has been very active in helping the recolonization of the California Gamma Chapter at the University of California-Berkeley. With the help of Guy Minardi, the chapter consultant, and local alumni, the colony added nine pledges during the Fall Formal Rush Week and we hope to add more pledges as the quarter progresses. This brings the grand total to 20 members and we are on time for reinstatement of the charter by Founders Day 1977. (See the California Gamma Colony newsletter for more details.)

Also, we are looking forward to the recolonization of the Stanford chapter. If there are any alumni who would like to help re-establish either the Stanford or the University of California-Berkeley chapters, please write: Guy Minardi c/o The Executive Offices of Phi Kappa Psi, 1940 East Sixth Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44114.

With the start of the football season, we hope that all of the Phi Psis in the Bay Area will stop by the California Gamma Colony house (on the corner of Durant and Bowditch in Berkeley) either before or after any of the home games. We are already looking forward to the Big Game luncheon, at the University Club in San Francisco (the corner of Powell and California streets) at 11:00 on the Friday before the Cal-Stanford game (November 19). If you have not attended this fantastic Phi Psi function you should plan to this year. We hope that any Phi Psis in the area would also join us at our monthly luncheon on the first Friday of the month at the Leopard Cafe (140 Front Street, San Francisco). This would be an ideal opportunity for the newcomers in the area to meet other fellow Phi Psis and enjoy the brotherly spirit over a beer or a martini. See you there.

DENNIS L. JONES, Correspondent

Northridge Alumni Association

June 3, 1976 marked the first anniversary of the Northridge Alumni Association. We thank all the Brothers, both alumni and undergraduates, for their continued support this past year. It is the goal of the association to provide alumni involvement for all Brothers in the San Fernando Valley.

The Northridge Alumni Association also supports its local chapter, California Theta, in various activities. Plans are being formulated for the chapter's 10th year reunion next spring. Our meetings are held monthly, on the first Tuesday, at Howard Johnsons Restaurant in Northridge from 7:30-9:00 p.m.

We are looking forward to a great year and hope to see many new Brothers join the association.

JOHN CICCARELLI and GARRETT STOVER,

Omaha Alumni Association

The yearly tornado held off for 24 hours, so the Omaha Phi Psi Summerfest was held in perfect weather on June 25. With excellent planning, the golf tournament was a success, the food and libation at the picnic were tasty and ample while the mixture of the crowd (about 75) was great. It appeared that all, from rushee to "old alum," enjoyed the evening and, more importantly, each other.

President Tom Hoarty (Creighton) planned the snacks, Sam Amato (Creighton), the Cranes (Penn State), the Fosters (Iowa) and the Urbans (Northwestern) presented the picnic fare while the Rhors (Creighton) provided the dessert. Everyone provided the fun at the ping-pong or pool tables, dart board or outside on the lawn. The best beer mug contest, judged by Dick Shugrue (Nebraska) and Paul LaPuzza (Creighton) was won by Dick Sykora while the lucky winner of a bottle of champagne was Mrs. Seminara. Dave Batchelder (Iowa State) announced the following winners in the golf tournament (most were Creighton people): Medalist—Mark Weber, longest drive—Pat Fahey, longest putt—Dave Batchelder, closest to the pin in one—Craig Chidley, closest to the pin in two—Mark Weber, highest score—Ron Cavataio, "E for effort"—Dr. John Seminara, and worst hole—Ted Urban (as per usual)!

Remember, keep your eyes peeled for potential rushees and let us send their names to the chapters. If we are vigilant and the chapters cooperative, we can truly help each other in the manner for which our Fraternity was founded.

TED URBAN, Correspondent

Oxford Alumni Association

On May 22, the Oxford Alumni Association held its very first business meeting to elect officers and set plans for the coming year. Carl Bennett, Jerry Weygandt, Jeff King, and John Noelcke were entrusted with the Association's operations. Thus far, the year has exceeded even our high expectations.

We look forward with considerable anticipation to the coming school year. The OAA will be coordinating weekly luncheons in Cincinnati and Dayton, sponsoring an exciting Founders Day Celebration on Miami's campus, printing a Directory, and of course revelling in copious quantities of fellowship with the Brothers of the Ohio Lambda and Beta chapters.

The Oxford Alumni Association extends its best wishes to Brothers Jim Ulrich, Bungi McArthur, Bill Zimmer, Steve Clark, and Erik Bush, all of whom have recently affixed that ultimate Phi Psi Sweetheart Pin to their new brides. And congratulations go also to Brothers Tom Ulrich and Larry Larson, who have recently been appointed to Area Directorships in Ohio.

If you're a Phi Psi and live in Southwestern Ohio, Eastern Indiana, or Northern Kentucky, let us hear from you!

CARL H. BENNETT, Correspondent

Rhode Island Alumni Association

Each month of the summer we have met, in July for the famed Pop-Top Open golf tournament, and in August for the annual barbecue.

Homecoming is important, since we will see the next meeting of the Alumni House Corporation, and elect new officers to succeed President Don Brien, Vice President Walt Dias, Treasurer Tom Linhares, Social Chairman David Lopes, and as secretary, Yours Truly.

Also, we look forward to seeing Ho Ballou, Cornell '16, who usually manages to drop in for our Homecomings. Greetings from us to Phi Psi's ambassador to the world!

Softball had the sweet smell of success this year for the senior citizens of RI Beta. We beat the undergrads fair and square in about 14 innings. Now Dave Lopes is getting the stage set for the annual Chateau De Ville dinner and theater evening in Cranston.

If any alumni of any Phi Psi chapter are in New England, come on down to 4 Fraternity Circle, Kingston, and join us.

RICK BOOTH, Correspondent

Rockford Alumni Association

The rejuvenation of the Rockford Alumni Association is underway. New officers are taking an active roll in this rebuilding program and need your help. Phi Psis in the northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin area should contact Bob Ross-Shannon at 398-4188. Help us bring our membership lists up to date and get acquainted.

This summer we held our first pot luck picnic. It was a great success with about 40 Brothers and their wives attending and sharing the good times and excellent food. The picnic was held at Walnut Creek Farm which is the home of Fred Bushnell Jr. Brother Bushnell is part of a true Phi Psi legacy. His father is a Phi Psi, his brother, his two sons, a nephew, and a few I am sure we missed.

We are looking forward to Founders Day and our largest turnout ever. With new colonies all around us as well as active chapters, Founders Day 1977, should be a big event. It is important that you let the Association know your whereabouts so that you will be notified of future plans. This year, Founders Day will be highlighted by a Silver Awards Program.

The Rockford Association was represented this year at GAC, which is one more indication of our new enthusiasm.

JAMES S. ADAMS, Indiana '17, an industrialist, investment banker, and active supporter of humanitarian endeavors, died in July at Palm Beach, Fla., where he retired a year ago.

Brother Adams joined Albert and Mary Lasker, Elmer Bobst and others in 1944 in establishing the American Cancer Society. He served as chairman of the society's executive, research and legislative committees.

In 1969, Brother Adams became president of Research to Prevent Blindness, and in 1973 was the first American to receive the Helen Keller International Award for promoting medical research to prevent blindness.

He was a member of the board of the Indiana University Foundation for many years and liberal in his gifts to the university, especially for the fine arts. He provided the panelling and furnishings for the library in the Indiana Beta chapter house. I.U. conferred the honorary LL.D. on him in 1954.

After three years with George L. Dyer Co., New York, he became in turn assistant to the president of Johns-Manville, vice president and general manager of Benton and Bowles, executive vice president of Colgate, Palmolive Pect, and president of Standard Brands before becoming a general partner in the investment firm of Lazard Freres & Co. in 1948. He served as special consultant to the War Production Board in World War II, and received the Medal for Merit. Iran conferred on him its Imperial Medal.

EDWARD C. VON TRESS, Indiana '17, who after a long career in magazine publishing returned to his alma mater to help raise funds, died at Bloomington, Ind. on July 4. Since his return to Bloomington in 1964 he had been active as an adviser to Indiana Beta and an officer and member of its house association board.

As an administrative associate of the Indiana University Foundation he had major responsibility in important campaigns for the School of Journalism, School of Business, and the Medical Center at Indianapolis. He had served as national president of the I.U. Alumni Association in 1951-52 and as treasurer, 1969-75. The University had conferred on him its Distinguished Alumni Service Medal and the "I" Men's Association had awarded the Zora Clevenger Medal for outstanding service to I.U. athletics.

Born at Monroe City, Ind., Sept. 4, 1899, Brother Von Tress developed an interest in people accompanying his father, a country doctor, on his rounds. He was an all-state forward on the Vincennes High School basketball team and won letters in football and basketball at I.U. His college course was interrupted by service as a second lieutenant in World War I.

On graduation from I.U., Brother Von Tress became advertising manager for Showers Bros., Bloomington furniture manufacturers. There he shared with Bro. Robert Hamilton, Ind. Beta '09, responsibility for one of the earliest company publications in Indiana. For a year he was advertising manager for Capitol Radio Supplies, Indianapolis, and then returned to I.U. as alumni secretary for two years.

After three years as manager of travel advertising for The Chicago Herald-Examiner, he joined the sales staff of Curtis Publishing Co. He was one of the creators of Holiday Magazine, serving first as advertising manager and then as manager. He went on to become director of advertising for all Curtis publications, first as vice president and then as senior vice president, retiring in 1963. During World War II he was chief of the magazine section of the War Production Board.

Surviving are his widow, Zelia; a son, David E., Ind. Beta '53; a daughter; and seven grandchildren.

HARRY H. HOWIE, Iowa State '18, of Crystal Lake, Ill., died June 5, 1976.

JOSEPH C. SHOVLIN, Wittenberg '18, Springfield, Ohio philanthropist died June 29, 1976, at age 76. Brother Shoulin retired as president of Bauer Bros., a pulp-paper machinery and equipment manufacturing plant, in 1968. It was one of the largest firms of its kind in the nation with a subsidiary in Canada.

A man who dedicated his energies to his community, Brother Shoumlin guided Mercy Medical Center from its beginning 28 years ago, through a remodeling and expansion in 1966, up through the present. He was its only chairman of the board. He was responsible for the construction of Catholic Central High School of Springfield, and contributed to Wittenberg University, which recently named its Center for Lifelong Learning in his honor.

He also headed the Ohio Information Committee (OIC), was director of the National Association of Manufacturers, and was president of the Foremanship Foundation. He was chosen outstanding citizen of the state by the Ohio Department of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in 1958.

Brother Shoumlin will be long remembered for his "tree farm" as he called it, 480 acres where he planted more than 200,000 trees, and where he had his residence.

He is survived by his widow, Georgeann; three sons, Raphael J., Daniel R., Ohio State '48, and John; one daughter; a stepson; and one grandson. His brother, Daniel R., Wittenberg '08, preceded him in death.

J. BART WALTHER, Columbia '19, died on April 17, 1976 in Pleasantville, N.Y. He was 75. Brother Walther was associated with York & Sawyer, Architects in New York City until his retirement in 1970.

PHI PSI Luncheons

One of the distinctive features of being a Phi Psi is how the bonds of brotherhood are maintained after leaving the college campus. Often, the prime vehicle for sustaining those friendships is the Alumni Association. Listed below are the times and locations of the Fraternity's Alumni Association meetings. Check for the association nearest you and attend their next meeting. You will enjoy seeing familiar faces and will become active in "Something of Value."

Steven C. Ramsey

Ramsey Is Named Outstanding Summerfield Scholar

Steven C. Ramsey, Brown '73, was named the first ever Outstanding Solon E. Summerfield Scholar at the 53th Grand Arch Council, August 13, in Washington, D.C. Brother Ramsey is currently employed in Washington, D.C. as an engineer for the U.S. Navy.

In all, three Outstanding Summerfield Awards were presented at the Fraternity's Awards Luncheon. Brother Ramsey took the first prize and a check for $1,000, while Mark J. Riley, Wittenberg '73, was first runner-up with $500 and Steve J. Vinegar, Duke '73, was second runner-up with a check for $300. The checks were given without restrictions or conditions with respect to the recipient's use of the award.

The awards will be given annually with all the recipients of the Summerfield Scholar Awards automatically eligible for one of the three Outstanding Awards.

The selection of the Outstanding Award winners is made by a Scholarship Awards Committee appointed by the Trustees of the Endowment Fund. The criteria for selection for the honors include scholarship, qualities of leadership and service to the recipient's respective college or university.

Tutors-in-Residence Program Announced

The Endowment Fund of Phi Kappa Psi has announced a new program—the Tutors-in-Residence—which can benefit undergraduate chapters in their scholarship and leadership efforts.

The program, through fellowships, assists Phi Psi graduate students to work with individual chapters while attending graduate school at the host's institution. The host chapter will provide, at its own cost, room and board for the Tutor-in-Residence while the Endowment Fund provides up to $1,500 for each fellowship. Only four fellowships will be available each year.

The primary role of the Tutor-in-Residence is to serve as an educational and academic resource for the individual Brothers and the entire chapter. His initiative and energy are to be directed toward that goal. The tutor will also be responsible for monitoring the chapter management and operation.

Maryland Alpha Improves House

Peace has been declared on Canterbury Road in Baltimore between Maryland Alpha at Johns Hopkins University, and local homeowners, who over two years ago fought to have the Greek letter organization banned from the neighborhood.

In a report recently published in the Baltimore Sun, it was announced that the price was over $13,000 in house repairs and a concerted campaign by the members to win the favor of their neighbors. Reports say that the campaign seems to have worked, for the chapter, while still not the street's most popular resident, has quieted most objections to its presence.

When Maryland Alpha moved into the house in 1974, they followed another fraternity who had left the house in rather poor condition. The chapter, in addition to the PR campaign with the neighbors, faced over 200-odd housing code violations.

After receiving assistance from the Fraternity, the members of Maryland Alpha did most of the work themselves and brought the house up to an acceptable standard. Neighbors came by while work was under way, both out of curiosity and also to wish them well, reported Herbert Loveless, chapter advisor. He also said that the chapter now has a measure of acceptance that its predecessor did not enjoy.

A Baltimore city councilman who lives near the house said that the change is appreciated. "They held an open house so we could see the improvements, and the place looks a lot better. They seem to be good neighbors."

What is a Chapter Consultant?

The position of Chapter Consultant is open to any Brother who has recently graduated and can meet special leadership qualifications. It is a position of responsibility and requires an understanding of sound chapter operations, an interest in meeting and working with people, and a desire to help better the Phi Kappa Psi fraternal experience in colleges and universities across the United States.

The work is demanding, exciting and challenging, but also rewarding. He travels thousands of miles a year and meets hundreds of people. If there are those in your chapter who are interested, they should seek more information by writing: RALPH D. DANIEL, Executive Director, Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, 1940 East Sixth Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44114.

John W. Oswald Building Dedicated At University of Kentucky

The University of Kentucky's Lexington Technical Institute dedicated its new John W. Oswald Building in September.

Brother Oswald, DePauw '35, former president of the University of Kentucky, is currently the president of The Pennsylvania State University.

The new building, which opened for classes this fall, houses 33 laboratories, 14 class rooms, a 200-seat auditorium, 7 conference rooms, a library and faculty and administrative offices.

1978 Grand Arch Council to Be Held in Kansas City

The 59th Grand Arch Council of Phi Kappa Psi will be held August 9-13, 1978 at the Crown Center Hotel, Kansas City, Missouri. John J. Ziegelemeyer Jr., Kansas '70, has been named host chairman for the biennial meeting of the Fraternity.

Your Chapter Consultant

Thomas E. Kraemer III

Thomas E. Kraemer III, Penn State '72, has been named to a Chapter Consultant position, joining the Executive Staff in June, 1976. Tom, as an undergraduate, received a degree in Architecture, and has had the benefit of five years experience with Pennsylvania Lambda.

On campus, he enjoyed working for a year as a Big Brother through a campus buddy program. He also helped in altering the University's Spring Week celebration, being appointed chairman of that activity by the IFC.

As a member of Phi Kappa Psi, he has had the opportunity of serving in some capacity on all of the Chapter's committees, and enjoyed a year term of office as Correspondent. Tom has also been honored by Penn Lambda, being recently named a Summerfield Scholar.

Campus Building Named for Helmke at IU-Fort Wayne

The library-learning center at the Indiana University-Fort Wayne campus was recently renamed the Walter E. Helmke Library in honor of Walter Helmke, Indiana '21. Helmke, a Fort Wayne native, died of a heart attack in February. A 1925 graduate of Indiana University Law School, he was a member of the I.U. Board of Trustees from 1954 to 1956 and had served on the I.U.-Purdue Foundation since 1958. He wrote the articles of incorporation for the foundation and purchase of the first tracts for the campus.

A Message From the President . . .

HAPPY 125th Birthday Phi Kappa Psi! What a tremendous way to kick off 1977 with our February Founders Day. It is a pleasure to present this report to you on the state of the Fraternity.

We start our 125th year with two exciting new Chapters—Virginia Zeta at Virginia Polytechnic and State University and Georgia Alpha at the University of Georgia. It was a privilege to install these two Chapters, and I extend the best wishes of a proud Fraternity to them.

Your Executive Council had a very significant fall meeting. The appointed officers were confirmed and a major decision was made at that meeting. The E.C. voted to permit the Fraternity to proceed with the purchase of an historic property in Indianapolis with the prospect of moving the Executive Office from Cleveland to Indianapolis. The property for which we are negotiating is adjacent to the James Whitcomb Riley home in Lockerbie Square. You will be kept fully informed of the details and the progress of this project, and how you may participate in it, as it develops.

The G.A.C. story for 1976 in Washington, D.C. cannot be complete without including an event of the first day. On the afternoon of registration day, a large number of Brothers and guests made a pilgrimage to the National Cathedral in Washington. President Tom James placed a wreath from the Fraternity at the tomb of Brother Woodrow Wilson. President James and Mystagogue Walter Lee Sheppard Jr. made impressive remarks at the ceremony in keeping with the solemnity of the occasion.

Four of the Districts held fall E.L.C. meetings. The other two Districts will hold their E.L.C. in the spring. The Executive staff has lost the services of Guy Minardi to his own major pursuits for the future. Our thanks and best wishes go with Brother Minardi.

The Extension program of the Fraternity moves with "Great Gusto." Welcome to the new Colony at the University of California—Davis. We project that we may install as many as three Colonies into the Fraternity in the spring. Assistant Executive Director Gary Angstadt has given this whole exciting program high priority among his other responsibilities.

Phi Kappa Psi was represented at the Fraternity Bicentennial celebration in Williamsburg, Virginia in early December. Past President and N.I.C. Board member Phil Cornelius, Mystagogue and author of the Commission Report on the Future of Fraternities Kent C. Owen, Executive Director Ralph "Dud" Daniel and your President were in attendance.

Many exciting 125th Founders Days are planned and announced. We wait with eagerness for all the reports of these events from coast to coast. It is our hope for every Brother to have the opportunity to attend a Founders Day in whatever part of the country he may live.

I propose 125 toasts to our grand old Phi Kappa Psi!

Jerry Colangelo

Jerry Colangelo

AS Phoenix soared from the ashes to the heights of basketball respectability last season, no one found the flight more satisfying than Jerry Colangelo, Illinois '59, the man who had personally nurtured the Suns from their infant status as a 1968 expansion team to their emergence as contenders for the NBA Championship in 1976.

Colangelo has come a long way from the brash 28-year-old who took over the fledgling Phoenix franchise eight years ago.

"Our goal from the very beginning was to bring a championship caliber team to the Valley of the Sun," says Colangelo.

"Sure, we've made mistakes, but I think our franchise is becoming one of the most stable in the NBA. We're on the right track. We've got a strong organization, a great coaching staff and the right blend of talent and character among our players."

Certainly, Jerry has come an even further distance from the old Italian neighborhood they call "Hungry Hill" in South Chicago Heights where he was born and raised. An outstanding athlete at Bloom Township High School, Colangelo pitched on the same prep staff as former Yankee Jim Bouton. Jerry's boyhood ambition was to be a left-handed pitcher for his hometown Chicago Cubs, but a broken bone in his pitching hand forced him to turn his full enthusiasm to basketball, where he became an All-State guard.

He enrolled at Kansas, where Wilt Chamberlain was expected to lead the Jayhawks to the national title. When Chamberlain decided to forego his final year at Kansas to join the Harlem Globetrotters, Colangelo transferred to Illinois where he pledged Illinois Delta and captained the basketball team in his senior year, and was selected to the All-Big Ten team.

Following his graduation, Colangelo did a playing stint in AAU basketball, another with the North American Basketball League, before going to work in the sales promotions business with Dick Klein. Colangelo's big opportunity came when Klein brought the NBA Bulls to Chicago and Jerry joined the front office staff. Two years later Colangelo was on his way to Phoenix to become the youngest general manager in pro sports.

As the first major professional sports franchise in the State of Arizona, the Suns brought unmatched national exposure and attention to Phoenix through national television and media coverage.

Jerry has said, "A community doesn't owe anything to a professional sports franchise, it's up to that franchise to go out and earn their respect."

With the indefatigable Colangelo serving as catalyst, the Suns' organization has become a respected member of the Phoenix community, cooperating with thousands of local companies, groups and charitable organizations and utilizing local goods and services.

Since arriving in the Valley back in 1968, Colangelo has been a model citizen, and has served as the President of the Valley Big Brothers organization. He is an active member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, a group dedicated to the promotion of Phoenix through sports. In 1971 he was honored by the Phoenix Jaycees as one of the three outstanding young men in Phoenix. He has been honored by the City of Phoenix, the Phoenix Press Box Association, the Boys Clubs of Phoenix, and the Boy Scouts for his tireless service to the community.

"The whole thing is like a dream. But it's the kind of dream that doesn't disappoint you when it comes true."

Phoenix enjoyed remarkable early success under their young GM, making the playoffs in only their second year and forging 48 and 49 win marks in the next two seasons. But those seasons were followed by a period of coaching instability, some trades that didn't wash, and some disappointing records.

The Suns' appearance in last spring's NBA Finals was the culmination of three years of re-building work by Colangelo that began with the hiring of John MacLeod as coach. That was followed by a series of trades and drafts that cleaned house and got the Suns turned around. He acquired Keith Erickson for Connie Hawkins; for Neal Walk Colangelo acquired Curtis Perry, Dennis Awtrey, Nate Hawthorne and a first round pick that later became Ricky Sobers. In a key deal, the enigmatic Charlie Scott went to the Celtics for Paul Westphal. Alvan Adams came in the 1975 draft and Garfield Heard came from Buffalo for John Shumate. The final ingredient was the signing of former NBA and ABA head coach, Al Bianchi as Assistant Coach.

Each deal was accompanied by more than its fair share of criticism, but Colangelo doggedly stuck to his convictions and the Suns slowly, inexorably began their ascent.

"This franchise has been my life," Colangelo says, "I'm just glad that Dick Bloch had the confidence to ride with me through the bad times because you rarely get a chance to make a comeback in this business either in coaching or management. I did and I am very grateful."

Among his peers in the National Basketball Association, Colangelo's eight seasons as General Manager of the Suns give him the second longest tenancy in the league, and this past July his fellow executives voted Jerry the NBA "Executive of the Year," capping one of the most remarkable re-building programs ever in pro basketball.

Phi Psi Installs Chapter At Virginia Tech

By Bill Reedy, Virginia Tech '76

Burruss Hall and the Drill Field provide the setting for the marching of the Corps of Cadets, one of the oldest and most valued Virginia Tech traditions.

IN 1862, the Morrill Land Grant Act became law. The Act provided land to every state and required that proceeds from the sale of this land be used to establish at least one university within each state. The State of Virginia utilized these proceeds to expand the failing Preston and Olin Institute in Blacksburg, a southwestern Virginia community, and renamed this expanded institution the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College at Blacksburg. On October 1, 1872, the first session of Virginia's new land grant university began, with a constituency of 43 students, a president, two faculty members, a librarian and the single building of the former Preston and Olin Institute.

In 1970, the Virginia State Legislature renamed the University as Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, to reflect the wide range of instruction offered at the University. Today, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University enrolls over 19,000 undergraduate students. Twenty-nine major academic buildings and 6,000 acres of farm, wood, and mineral land constitute the University's property. This rapidly growing university community has fostered the Virginia Zeta Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi. With equal expectations for growth of their chapter, the brothers of the Virginia Zeta Colony petitioned Phi Kappa Psi for their charter and on November 13, 1976, the Chapter was installed.

Virginia Zeta Colony was founded on October 19, 1975, with the initiation of 13 colony brothers. This was the culmination of efforts by D. David Ostroth, Allegheny '65, and the Fraternity headquarters to establish a colony at Virginia Tech. After a three-week organizational period the colony elected its first officers. Arthur M. Turner was the first colony President and guided the colony through its efforts to meet its goal of chartering. Four pledge classes were initiated bringing the colony's membership to 33. A house was obtained and the colony's finances steadily improved. As the 1975-76 school year drew to a close most of the goals for chartering had been met. Alan Livingstone was elected as the second president and began to guide the colony into the final months of the chartering drive.

On August 2, 1976, the Executive Council approved the charter grant for Virginia Zeta Chapter. November 13, 1976, was set for the formal ceremony and the colony began the planning and organizing of the chartering.

In its brief history, Virginia Zeta has become known on campus as a group of outstanding men. Many campus leaders are Brothers and each new rush attracts more and more leaders to the Phi Psi banner. Virginia Zeta and Phi Psi have become a unique, shining experience in brotherhood for the Virginia Tech campus.

The weekend of November 12, 13, and 14, was a very special time for the Brothers of Virginia Zeta as several events marked the beginning of Phi Kappa Psi's newest chapter. Friday evening a reception was held at the chapter house which was attended by many of the national officers, Brothers from other chapters and local alumni. On Saturday morning, President J. Kenneth Potter, Ohio Wesleyan '51, formally established the Virginia Zeta Chapter in the induction ceremony held at the Blacksburg Baptist Church. That evening the chartering was commemorated by a banquet held at the Red Lion Sheraton Inn in Blacksburg. In addition to the many Phi Psi guests in attendance, Mr. Lon K. Savage, Dr. David Hill, and Mr. Jim McBride represented the University in welcoming the new chapter to Virginia Tech. The first chapter meeting was held at the chapter house on Sunday morning presided over by President Potter and Executive Director Dud Daniel, Arizona '47.

The chapter expresses its sincere appreciation to Guy Minardi, Rhode Island '72, Bob Wolter, Iowa State '71, Carl Bennett, Miami '72, and Jack Harris, Alabama '71, for their immense help in forming the original colony and seeing it through to chartering. And foremost, the Brothers of Virginia Zeta thank Dave Ostroth, chapter advisor, whose time, advice and dedication has been a major factor in the success of the chapter.

California Delta Celebrates 50th Anniversary

By Armando Acosta, Southern California '75
Owen Guenthard, Southern California '57
Jim Perley, California State-Northridge '72

The ZKE Fraternity soon became established as a leader on the USC campus. Its fine athletic tradition drew many high school athletes, and as the years went along, many great names further enhanced the reputation of the ZKE Fraternity. As ZKE grew in membership, as well as reputation, the fraternity's members realized the need and advantages of a national affiliation; and, in 1922, they petitioned the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity to grant them a charter. However, it was not until 1926 that the Fraternity was to grant

A dedicated Brother and Chapter Advisor for nearly 40 years. The late Ralph R. Haney, Southern California '27, posed during the dedication of the Cal Delta's Ralph R. Haney Library.

ON February 19, 1977, California Delta will celebrate its 50th year as a Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi on the campus of the University of Southern California. The University of Southern California, based in downtown Los Angeles, is the oldest major independent, coeducational and non-sectarian university in the West. Since its installation as a Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi, California Delta has demonstrated continued growth and success in all areas of endeavor over the years.

Early History

The early history of the Chapter at the University of Southern California began in 1912 as a mutual effort to organize a campus living group. At that time, the El Ciervo Club was organized to serve as an on campus fraternal group. In 1913, upon the suggestion of University of Southern California President, George Finley Bovard (Indiana Alpha '77), the El Ciervo Club became the Zeta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

ZKE's request to colonize under the banner of Phi Kappa Psi. Due to the many successful and formative years as the El Ciervo Club and ZKE, it was not long before the colony became the California Delta Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi. The event took place on February 19, 1927, a date which also marked the 75th Anniversary of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

To better meet the challenge of starting a new chapter, 100 alumni of the previous organizations were initiated into membership, as well as the active chapter. All in one moment, the new chapter had its traditions, its history, and a mature alumni group for guidance. This was to be of vital importance to the chapter's future growth and success in the years ahead. Prominent among the many men who helped achieve this goal were: Morgan B. Cox Sr., who chronicled the chapter's history and guided the completion of the petition papers; A. C. (Tom) Platt, who, as a 50-year-old undergraduate, aided in organizing a successful house fund program; and Ralph R. Haney, who served as Chapter Advisor for nearly 40 years. These men, together with many other dedicated alumni, molded the organization that was to assure the continued success of California Delta at USC.

First Permanent House

After installation in 1927, plans were already being made to build a permanent chapter house, specifically designed for and to reflect the character and integrity of the chapter members. After struggling through

World War II, during which the fraternal ranks were sorely thinned, California Delta was finally stable enough to make definite plans for a permanent location. On February 22, 1947, California Delta's dream became a reality, for on this date, the chapter began breaking ground on the site which was to become the first house on "The Row," a row eventually labeled by the Los Angeles Times as the "largest and most established in the nation."

By 1948, Phi Psi became the Greek leader at the University of Southern California, with the Brothers starring on the varsity football team, and tennis teams. Also, Cal Delta remained in the forefront of student leadership by having elected from its ranks three student body presidents from 1948-50. However, one of Cal Delta's finer accomplishments was consistently tough intramural teams. Phi Kappa Psi was the only chapter to retire the Iron Man Trophy—honoring the undisputed leader of Greek sports—for a three year period. This feat was accomplished twice.

The Sixties and Seventies

The sixties became an extension of the fifties with Phi Kappa Psi remaining at the forefront of the Greek system. Again, during this period, Phi Psi again retired the Iron Man Trophy, and also dominated student leadership with a number of Brothers working in student government and on the staff of the campus newspaper, The Daily Trojan. But, the sixties, above all, stands as a memorial to a dedicated Brother and Chapter Advisor, Ralph R. Haney (Cal Delta '27). From 1966-68, Brother Haney served the Fraternity as its President, and continued to dedicate himself to the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi until his death in 1970. The Ralph R. Haney Library, located within the Chapter house, commemorates his lasting accomplishments and dedication.

The seventies has been an era of re-birth for Cal Delta. After its ranks slowly began to dwindle during the period of student unrest, California Delta has again moved to the forefront of accomplishment at USC. Intramural sports are again dominated by Phi Psi, with winning performances on the tennis courts, and on the football field this last Fall. During this period Cal Delta has revitalized its ranks by maintaining a strong and vital membership of 55 men, and has also remained a leader on campus with representation on the varsity tennis team, the varsity lacrosse team, The Daily Trojan, the Dean's Council on Business Affairs, and the Interfraternity Council. But, most importantly, Cal Delta's alumni remained close to the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi by consistently supporting the Chapter and the Fraternity. And it is to this end that we will celebrate, in grand style, our 50th Anniversary.

Schedule of Events

On February 18, 1977, California Delta will kick off its celebration with the traditional Founders Day get-together coordinated by the Southern California Alumni Association. A number of notables will be present at the evening banquet in honor of the Fraternity's founding. But, this event is only the beginning.

On April 23, 1977, California Delta will call on its Brothers to re-unite at the Chapter house for a little reminiscing and cocktails. That evening will be set aside for a huge dinner/dance at the Grand Ballroom of the Queen Mary in Long Beach. Keynote speakers, noted guests, and Fraternity officers will be present to share in the festivities honoring our 50th Year. Therefore, it is in this spirit, that we call on all the Brothers of California Delta, past and present, to gather together and re-tie the bond of Fraternal brotherhood once again for old Phi Kappa Psi.

The current Brothers and pledges of California Delta stand in front of the Phi Psi house at the University of Southern California.

FOUNDERS DAY 1977

February 19, 1977 125 Years

February 19, 1977 marks the 125th birthday of Phi Kappa Psi. It is indeed a proud day for all Phi Psis that their Fraternity has the strength and wisdom to merit such an honor. Listed below are the Founders Day celebrations known to the Executive Offices at press time. We know that there are hundreds more celebrations planned that were not known. So check with your chapter, or the chapter nearest you, or even your Alumni Association for the date and time of YOUR Founders Day event. Let's all wish PHI KAPPA PSI a Happy Birthday and wish her many, many more to come.

The Story of the Fraternity Bicentennial

By William Pittman, Former Editor
The Delta of Sigma Nu

The Past and Future

IN THE 200 years since the founding of the nation, the college fraternity system has grown from a single, small literary society at the College of William and Mary to encompass 4,550 chapters of national and international fraternity organizations with nearly 2.7 million living members.

Fraternity men could easily be content to celebrate that growth in this 200th anniversary of the founding of the fraternity system, as a measure of the system's contribution to collegiate life since the founding of the first Greek-letter college fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa.

It can be documented that the fraternity system has enriched the system of higher education in North America, adding measurably to the social fibre of the institutions where fraternities have been welcome; contributing significantly to the growth and maturation of its members; providing early leadership opportunities for those who have become the movers and shakers in our society, and offering alternative lifestyles as well as living quarters for large numbers of students.

To celebrate the past without scanning the future would be to deny the leadership role that fraternity men have traditionally assumed in a wide variety of endeavors, continuing the lessons of leadership learned on campus in adult roles in city, state, province and national leadership responsibilities. It is not by accident that a very high percentage of the elected government officials are members of college fraternities, or that the chief executives of many of the Fortune magazine 500 largest corporations are also fraternity alumni.

Phenomenal growth of the fraternity system, particularly since 1941, clearly indicates a basic desire for fraternal association. It demonstrates as well that the system will endure.

Dramatic shifts in the direction of our society which have become apparent in the last two decades—the rise of minorities and the growth of urban-centered universities, open enrollment and a nearly universal drive for higher education—indicate some new directions for the college fraternity system as well.

That's what the members of the American College Fraternity Bicentennial Commission have been studying in the months of the fraternity Bicentennial Year. The Commission, which included four members of Phi Kappa Psi and another who co-authored the Commission's report, is a joint cooperative effort of Indiana University, the Fraternity Executives Association, and endorsed by the National Interfraternity Conference, met in two special task force groups including college presidents, fraternity presidents, vice-presidents of student personnel, fraternity alumni of distinction, general fraternity presidents, undergraduate members and fraternity professionals to try to divine a futures approach to the American College Fraternity system.

The close cooperation of Indiana University, the Fraternity Executives Association, financial assistance from fraternities, their educational foundations, Indiana University Foundation, and the Lilly Endowment, Indianapolis, all made possible the ambitious undertaking.

The summer meetings of the Commission, held on the campus of Indiana University, focused the attention of Commission members on the contributions of the fraternity system to campus environment; personal growth and development of members; the contributions made by fraternities to the sense of institutional community; and the effect of fraternity membership on academic and cultural growth of the members.

Williamsburg Meeting

Then, the Commission members journeyed to Williamsburg, site of the founding of Phi Beta Kappa, for a two-day conference, Nov. 29-30, 1976, at the College of William and Mary to refine the statements of fraternity future as a result of the work of the Commission and its Steering Committee.

The Apollo Room of the Raleigh Tavern in Williamsburg, Va. was an important meeting place for Virginia patriots at the time of the American Revolution.

Senator Margaret Chase Smith (Sigma Kappa), right, receives Interfraternity Research and Advisory Council's Achievement Award from Polly Freear (Phi Mu), IRAC president. Senator Smith addressed the Interfraternity Day luncheon in Williamsburg, Virginia in celebration of the 200th anniversary of the founding of fraternity.

A synopsis report, based on the meetings in July, was presented in Williamsburg to members of the Fraternity Executives Association and to representatives attending the four interfraternity conference celebrations. The Commission paper was written by Kent Christopher Owen, Indiana '58, and his wife, Delta Gamma Suzann Mitten Owen.

"The work of this Commission points the way to a more complete partnership between a dynamic modern fraternity system and changing institutions of higher education in the next quarter century," Dr. Herman B Wells, Indiana University chancellor and Committee General Chairman, said.

"Now it is up to fraternity leaders, both in college and as alumni, to put the conclusions of the commission to use," he said. Dr. Wells is a former national president of Sigma Nu Fraternity and a long-time counselor to the fraternity system.

Denying the intention to produce a "master plan" the Commission attacked instead the process of change as it applies to a chief educational concern: What can be done to enable each student to realize his or her human potentiality?

The Commission recognized that the college fraternity has been one of the most durable of institutions in American higher education, though not always the most constructive and responsible influence.

Given that durability, the Commission assured the college fraternity would survive into the year 2000 mutated, however, by increasing demands for a humanizing agency in a technological society.

The Commission defined as critical fraternity issues of the next quarter century:

1. How well it can foster the personal development of each of its members.
2. How well it can accommodate a more diverse membership.

Senator John Tower (Kappa Sigma), right, featured speaker at the Interfraternity Day banquet in Williamsburg, accepts his Achievement Award from IRAC president Polly Freear and vice president George Patterson (Acacia). Senator Tower also received the Distinguished Service Award from the Fraternity Executives Association.

3. How well it can adapt itself to whatever changes may come about in the academic community.

4. How well it can involve its alumni in the life of the chapter.

5. How well it can transmit its heritage of ideals, values and principles.

6. How well it can carry out its ethic of service.

7. How well it can sustain itself without having to rely on a chapter house as the center of activities.

Although the Commission foresees the college fraternity, generally, as being strong and vital in the year 2000 it predicts as well as a number of challenges that will test the powers of the system to adapt.

Financial and governmental restraints will encroach upon the fraternity's powers of initiative, though somewhat indirectly. A more direct challenge may be the fraternity's ability to adapt to a more diverse student clientele.

Honors programs and schools of continuing education already have extended the college years from adolescence to middle age, and this open-ended approach to higher education will expand.

With this open-endedness comes a decline in on-campus residence and the rise of the huge chapter house as a burden rather than an asset. Chapters of the future may be lodged in apartment-type complexes with a diverse membership which for some may include women.

Educational technology will permit the chapter to become, if it likes, an adjunct to formal as well as extracurricular education—truly living-learning centers.

Most importantly, the Commission sees the fraternity as a bastion of education, an alternative to career training, as the importance of liberal arts decline and higher education orients itself to work rather than learning.

The college fraternity is seen by the Commission as being largely conservative and tied to a traditional value system. From this perception is derived asset of positive assumptions for the future:

1. Fraternities will generally be strong and vital in 2000.

2. Fraternities will be able to adapt themselves effectively to major changes in both higher education and in society at large.

3. Fraternities will continue to maintain some definite relationship with academic institutions.

4. Fraternities will continue to affirm their essential principles and traditions.

5. Fraternities will continue to be self-governing groups.

6. Fraternities will center their activities in some physical locus at an institution, but not necessarily a chapter house.

7. Fraternities will continue to attract superior and outstanding persons.

8. Fraternities will increasingly receive support through involvement of their alumni.

9. Fraternities will continue to provide important experiences in leadership training.

10. Fraternities will continue to serve as important agencies of personal development.

11. Fraternities will strengthen their identities as communities of shared values.

12. Fraternities will continue their commitment to the ethic of service.

13. Fraternities will gradually become more diverse in membership.

14. Fraternities will continue to base their existence on the lessons of their rituals.

Four Phi Psis were Commission members and took part in input portion of the Commission's work. The members were Ralph D. Daniel, Executive Director; Ray Hawk, Vice President for Administration and Finance, University of Oregon; Dr. John W. Oswald, President, Pennsylvania State University; and Past President Philip M. Cornelius, Indiana '25.

AREA DIRECTOR PROGRAM

IN the spring of 1971, the Executive Council directed the creation of an Area Director Program. The primary purpose of the program was to establish local, interested, appointed representatives of the Executive Council who would be able to maintain direct communication with the chapters and alumni associations.

Area Directors have been appointed by the President for duties within each of the six Districts of the Fraternity. These alumni members are responsible for the supervision and advisement of not more than five chapters and/or colonies within their district. Area Directors maintain frequent and regular liaison with the chapter advisors, and the presidents of chapters, house corporations and alumni associations.

Ideally, Area Directors make at least one visitation to each of their area chapters during each school year. They also visit each alumni association annually. During chapter visitations, they offer counsel and advice and report any problems, shortcomings or danger signals of their chapters to the Executive Council.

The purpose of this feature is to introduce some of the current Area Directors and to let them tell what they feel about their position.

H. Cushman (Ho) Ballou, Cornell '16, lives in Bronxville, N.Y. and is responsible for Cornell, Syracuse and Colgate University chapters. He has visited all three of his chapters this fall. He states that he feels his work is to help keep the Fraternity together.

William A. Bowers, Rhode Island '66, resides in Wakefield, Rhode Island and supervises Brown University and the University of Rhode Island chapters. "More than anything else I have enjoyed the area director program because it has been a continuation of my undergraduate days and because the continued contact with the undergraduates has helped keep me young in mind and spirit. The program has a great future if developed properly. It will enable the Fraternity to keep an accurate pulse on each chapter and assist in keeping the Fraternity healthy. Chapters will also have more visible contact with 'The Fraternity.'"

Larry B. Larson, Miami '72, resides in Columbus, Ohio and visits chapters at Wittenberg and Miami University. "Many chapters are looking for objective viewpoints and opinions that are relevant to their own particular situation and problems. An Area Director can get involved with several chapters on their level, with their problems and be totally objective."

Paul Myers, Southwestern Louisiana '73, lives in New Orleans. He is the Area Director for chapters at Louisiana State University, Southwest Louisiana University and the Tulane University Colony. "The program gives me the opportunity to continue to serve the Fraternity beyond monetary contribution. I am able to use my past experience in a joint effort."

Robert A. Wolter, Iowa State '71, resides in Watkinsville, Georgia and has the responsibility for the University of Georgia and the University of Florida chapters. He is a former chapter consultant. "I don't see the Area Director program ever replacing the traveling professional staff, but it should be able to reduce it, keep the same level of contact with the chapters and result in a good savings for the Fraternity."

John V. Ciccarelli, California State at Northridge '72, lives in Northridge, Calif. and is the Area Director for the chapters at California State at Northridge and California Poly. Currently he is also an Archon of the Fraternity. "I feel that the Area Director program is a fantastic opportunity to increase chapter activity and provide helpful counseling to our chapters."

H. William Mutz, Indiana '73, resides in Columbus, Ind. The chapters he visits are at DePauw University and Indiana University. "I most enjoy the opportunity to be able to keep "in touch" with undergraduate chapters without being committed to a high level of involvement. This is the balance our fraternity system needs, in my opinion, at the national level. It is only through practical levels of voluntary service that a quality level of administration will be achieved.

Frank S. Whiting Jr., Illinois '42, resides in Geneva, Ill. and is the Area Director for Northwestern University, the University of Illinois and Valparaiso University chapters. "This program is one of the most valuable as it provides constant, adult help to chapters at a low cost. These are experienced advisors that recognize symptoms and have solutions to offer and are able to be a constant factor wherein the undergraduates change every year.

Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity

December 15, 1976

Dear Brothers in Phi Kappa Psi,

It is my pleasure to serve you as Director of Alumni Affairs. Although I have recently been President of the Atlanta Alumni Association for three years and have been heavily involved in the founding of Georgia Alpha Chapter, I have a lot to learn about the many Phi Psi alumni activities throughout the country.

I ask for your support and cooperation during the next two years. We have the opportunity to make great strides in the development of alumni participation in our Fraternity through alumni associations, clubs and our chapters. The extent of our success will depend on you and me.

We have many things to accomplish.

Our first goal is to celebrate our 125th anniversary on February 19th with a huge turnout of Phi Psis at Founders Day functions. Every chapter and association should conduct the biggest and best celebration possible. Every Phi Psi who is near a chapter or association should make a special effort to be a part of the 125th anniversary of Phi Kappa Psi.

Our second goal will be to update our alumni activity information files. Tim Heup, Assistant Director of Alumni Affairs, and I will be contacting chapters, colonies, associations, clubs, officers, area directors and staff to gather information on alumni activities.

Our third, and most important, goal will be to develop a Fraternity Policy pertaining to the role of alumni within the Fraternity on an individual and group basis. Although many Phi Psis participate in Fraternity activities, the vast majority of alumni do not put Phi Kappa Psi on their list of priorities. Why don't they? We must try to find the answer and provide the means for them to spend a part of their time with their Fraternity and realize meaningful benefits. Remember - once a Phi Psi, always a Phi Psi. If the Fraternity provides a meaningful experience for its members during college, shouldn't it also provide a meaningful experience for its members after their college days?

Objectives of alumni programs in our associations, clubs and chapters need to be reviewed. In order to develop an effective Alumni Policy and Alumni Program for the Fraternity, we would like comments and suggestions from anyone reading this letter. Send them to: Bert Fridlin, 929 Todd Road NE, Atlanta, GA 30306. Let us hear from you soon.

Phi Kappa Psi can mean more to each of us. If Phi Kappa Psi can become and remain an active part of the life of each Phi Psi alumnus, programs will evolve which will provide undergraduates with more Phi Psi experiences to look forward to when they leave college. Let's all work for the time when Phi Psis graduate from college, but don't graduate from Phi Kappa Psi.

Fraternally,

Bert Fridlin
Director of Alumni Affairs

A Decade at Oklahoma State Oklahoma Beta 1967-1977

By Johnny R. Sanders Jr., Oklahoma State '75

ON APRIL 8, 1967, Oklahoma Beta at Oklahoma State University was installed as the 71st active chapter of Phi Kappa Psi with the initiation of 31 charter members. This year marks the tenth anniversary of the chapter installation, and the hopes of many more years to come.

Oklahoma Beta Colony was established in September, 1965, by Colonizer Bruce F. Dearborn, Washington '65. In January of 1966 the colony was formally recognized by the Interfraternity Council. At this time the colony had five pledges as well as its colonizer, and by the end of the spring semester the number had grown to 12. This small group of men had high goals as they proved by placing second scholastically among all men's living groups, a position that is still held by the Oklahoma Beta Chapter.

During the summer of 1966, the colony worked hard at rush and learning the high ideals of the Fraternity, as they held several rush parties and five of them attended the ELC-GAC in Carlisle and Bedford Springs, Pa. Their efforts paid off as the colony grew to a membership of 12 initiates and 15 pledges.

Finally on April 8, 1967, the installation ceremonies conducted by the late Past President Ralph R. Haney, USC '27, climaxed the colony's dreams. This didn't put an end to the hard work of the charter members, because they knew that it would take a lot more effort to keep the chapter alive.

As of the fall semester 1976, Oklahoma Beta has grown from the original 31 charter members to a total of 152 initiates and 14 pledges. There are presently 44 men living in the house, and with a good spring rush we hope to have ten more pledges. With the increase in membership in the ten-year history of Oklahoma Beta, there has been no decrease in pride and brotherhood within the chapter. The chapter members still stress scholastic achievement, and above all, the willingness to be gentlemen.

The Phi Psi 500 was initiated at Oklahoma Beta in 1969, and has been held annually except for 1971, due to lack of funds. Campus interest has grown steadily since that time with a marked improvement when Steve Sandstrum '72 decided to allow all female living groups to enter the race, giving the whole campus a part in the activities. Since then the annual attendance of 3,000 students, as well as press coverage from several state newspapers and television stations, makes the 500 the highlight of social events on the OSU campus.

Oklahoma Beta's chapter house at the time of installation was at 324 S. Duck St. in Stillwater. This is where the chapter lived until the fall of 1974, when the chapter purchased its present house at 308 South Hester. This move was made due to rising rent and the need for expansion. Since that time the old house has been turned into the new home of the Stillwater Frontier Savings and Loan Co. There are few Brothers left in the chapter who lived at the old chapter house, but the traditions and feelings of brotherhood transferred on to the new house.

Oklahoma State University, a land grant college, was founded in 1890 under the provisions of the Morrill Act. Oklahoma State was originally named Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College, until 1957 when it became a full-fledged university. In 1967 OSU had a total enrollment of 16,000. Since then the University has grown to a total of 21,000 students for the fall semester 1976, making it the largest college in Oklahoma.

The ten-year celebration will begin on Friday, April 8, 1977, with the registration of all visiting Brothers starting at 1:00 till 7:00 p.m., followed by an informal dinner. Starting at 8:00 o'clock Saturday morning there will be several sports competitions for all who wish to participate, then there will be some free time for all of the alumni to get reacquainted with the University. A formal banquet will be at 6:00 o'clock Saturday night, with a reception to be held afterwards at the chapter house. Sunday we will attend church services, and return to the chapter house for a chapter meeting. Through this ten-year celebration we want everyone to know that April 8, 1967, is a date that has not been forgotten.

Towering over the entire Oklahoma State University is the Library. Today's enrollment is 21,000 students, making it the largest institution of higher education in Oklahoma.

PLEDGESHIP IS A TWO-WAY AVENUE

By Kent Christopher Owen, Indiana '58

Pledgeship—its nature, general practices, Fraternity policies, NIC resolutions—is a popular topic of conversation. Recently Indiana Beta reaffirmed the principles of pledgeship. What follows is a statement of that affirmation.

PHI KAPPA PSI believes that pledgeship should foster the development of each pledge's character and ability through a process of learning that will prepare him for initiation into the Fraternity and acceptance of the full responsibilities of brotherhood. Just as each pledge obligates himself to earn his membership in the Fraternity through the fulfillment of certain requirements, for membership is a privilege and not a right, the members of the chapter obligate themselves to create and sustain an environment in which each pledge can develop as fully and well as he is capable of doing—morally, ethically, spiritually, intellectually, emotionally, physically, and academically. According to this shared obligation, the excellence of the chapter is measured in relation to the quality of the lives of the men who become its members and the values that their experiences within the Fraternity have taught them to cherish and uphold. Conversely, the chapter that fails to bring out the very best that is within its members, because it has failed to create an environment that fosters such development, violates the principles of the Fraternity and is not worthy of its support.

Taken as a class, the pledges must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the members of the chapter that they have learned the lessons of unity, loyalty, and duty; that they are able to cooperate with one another for the greater good of the whole class; and that they have achieved fellowship in preparation for the more demanding duties of brotherhood. The pledges must earn the privilege of initiation through academic accomplishment, maintenance of the chapter house, participation in the governance of the class and in the social, athletic, and general activities of the chapter, respect for the members of the chapter, knowledge of the history and traditions of the chapter and the Fraternity, proper conduct and manners, and strength of character and personality. Throughout their pledgeship they must strive to prove themselves worthy of being initiated into the Fraternity, and in turn they have the right to expect that the members of the chapter will treat them fairly and sensibly, working to further the pledges' best interests as individuals and as a class.

The members of the chapter must respect the individuality of each pledge and concern themselves with his development and well-being; respect for human dignity and the sanctity of the individual is essential. These precepts are not, however, at odds with the institution of a firm, thorough, demanding, and challenging pledgeship that is designed to enable a pledge to develop into a Brother. Too often, so-called "progressive" pledgeships betray a lack of systematic planning, discipline, or concern for the pledges themselves; fraternity members are content to let pledges assume the responsibilities of membership before the pledges have proved themselves ready to do so. Whether this is the result of negligence, indifference, or folly, it casually confers a privilege that is undeserved and unappreciated. Hence the "progressive" or "permissive" pledgeship is often worse than a bad pledgeship, for it is the same as no pledgeship at all. If pledgeship is to have meaning, it must prepare the men who experience it through a series of well-planned lessons and activities for their eventual initiation into the Fraternity.

Effective Learning

The principle of learning theory that underlies the most desirable mode of pledge training is that of positive reinforcement. In brief, it assumes that effective learning comes about through the tasks that, when completed successfully, are rewarded so that the learner is encouraged to progress toward his goal. The more clearly the learner understands why the goal is of value to him, the more readily he will perform the tasks properly; when the learner fails to do what is expected of him, the reward is withheld until he can do whatever it takes to make up for his shortcomings. Eventually, through a process of trial and error the learner makes the necessary corrections and proceeds on course, taking on the next challenge and overcoming the next set of obstacles. This is, at least, the ideal model.

Negative reinforcement inflicts punishment on the learner who fails, on the assumption that pain, not pleasure, is the more efficient stimulus. Before long the goal itself and whatever reward it may bring with it are both associated in the learner's experience with punishment and pain, and in a real sense the very absence of pain becomes a peculiar kind of negative reward. Both forms of conditioning procedures are the products of behavioral psychology, which may work satisfactorily with white rats and other laboratory animals that can be experimented with in controlled circumstances. Pledgeship, on the contrary, deals with human beings, who are generally somewhat more intelligent, sensitive, and imaginative than other animals. Because pledges are by definition human beings, the use of such behavioral methods is at best manipulative and at worst dehumanizing. Nonetheless, the basic approach of rewarding rather than punishing the pledge is well established in the psychology of motivation and in common sense conduct of human affairs.

“. . . the excellence of the chapter is measured in relation to the quality of the lives of the men who become its members and the values that their experiences within the Fraternity have taught them to cherish and uphold.”

This approach can be applied effectively and humanely to any existing pledge training program without having to overhaul it completely. The essential factor is one of emphasis on the positive aspects of human development. Specifically, work sessions that involve the whole pledge class and improve the condition of the chapter house can build morale and accomplish something of tangible value. Community service projects are also worth undertaking, if they are entered into because of real significance of the service that they are intended to accomplish, and not because they may result in some flimsy form of public relations. Study sessions that enable a pledge to establish a proper routine can be beneficial, unless a study table becomes merely a form of punishment that keeps the pledge from learning how to study on his own. Line-ups supervised by the pledge trainer and the governing board can also be useful if the sessions do not degenerate into bogus sensitivity training or transactional analysis groups, neither of which should be attempted by amateurs, and probably not at all. There is seldom little to be gained from shouting down or reaming out pledges for their mistakes, real or imagined; this is the martinet's way of imposing discipline, and it is the mistaken practice of an insecure, immature person who supposes that it is the best way to gain respect or to assert his authority.

Fraternity Education should involve much more than the rote learning of names, places, dates, and random items of history and lore. Pledges should be encouraged to study and investigate the Fraternity's past and present; they should examine and discuss the Fraternity Manual, THE SHIELD, the Fraternity history, and the Creed. They should consider the real values of the chapter and the Fraternity, not merely as these are expressed on paper, but as they are borne out in the lives of its members, undergraduates and alumni alike. Unless the pledges come to understand the spirit as well as the letter of the Fraternity, they will remain merely literal-minded and incurious about the significance of the Fraternity. The best way to stimulate their curiosity is through the enthusiasm of members who have learned the real value of such knowledge and are able to communicate their discoveries to the pledges.

Most important, the chapter is engaged in educating its pledges through the examples that its individual members set for them. The only true way to learn to become a Brother is by emulating the conduct of the members of the chapter, who, it is to be hoped, are worthy of emulation. Nowhere is this relationship any more vital than between fraternity father and son, for the experienced active must teach the newcomer the ropes. However skillful the pledge trainer may be in working out a comprehensive program of training and education, and however thorough a governing board may be in disciplining a pledge class, the crucial element in the whole process of the pledge's development is the role played by the fraternity father. If he is sympathetic, supportive, firm, and concerned, he can have the greatest positive effective on the pledge. If you treat a man as less than he is, you stunt his growth as a person. If you treat a man as the person he is capable of becoming, you enable him to fulfill himself. If actives are too busy, selfish, or indifferent to assume this responsibility, they have shirked their obligation to the chapter, the Fraternity, and, worst yet, to the pledges themselves.

Overall, the matters of pledge training and fraternity education have to do with perpetuating the life of the chapter and the fraternity through the thoughtful and well-managed instruction of young men who want to become members and Brothers. As such, the process is no less than the constant renewal of the Fraternity's very life; how that process is planned and carried out is of the utmost importance, for it may be the most significant activity that the chapter engages in. It is no small task to accept the responsibility for helping young men develop themselves as well as they possibly can. Anyone who is not ready or able to recognize the seriousness of the task, its difficulty, and the importance of its consequences is unfit to undertake it. Those who are manly and humane enough to accept the responsibility are truly worthy of being called "Brothers."

University of Akron Relaxing After Fall

We at Ohio Iota are relaxing now that we ended the fall quarter by cheering our Akron U. Zips to the Division II NCAA finals. Our alumni party of October 30 was a crashing success. We saw a lot of old faces and everyone had a great time.

We elected new officers: Steve Bresson, GP, Tom Billman, VGP, Dan Sumser, P, Don Moreley, AG.

We are looking forward to a big 125th year celebration this Founders Day. Once more we will dedicate ourselves to the principles passed down to us from William Henry Letterman and Charles Page Thomas Moore. On this anniversary let us all rededicate ourselves to the principles of brotherhood and community service that have made Phi Kappa Psi great.

Everyone passing through Akron is invited to stop at our house at 284 Wheeler and share our brotherly hospitality.

DON MORELEY, Correspondent

University of Alabama Homecoming Success

Alabama Alpha has just come off of a very successful fall semester, and now eagerly anticipates the start of the spring semester.

Officers elected for the spring semester are: Lee C. Alison, GP; R. Terry Holley, VGP; Gordon T. Carter, P; David R. Gunter, AG; John M. Bierchen, BG; Robin R. Renken, SG; Barry T. Leath, Phu; Robert P. McLamb, Hi; David E. Ekland, Hod.

Sports for the semester are concluded and Alabama Alpha made strong showings in bowling and volleyball, finishing first and second, respectively, in these sports on campus.

Homecoming was again very successful. We celebrated a win over Louisville with a band party, the entertainment provided by "Luw and Haight." The Birmingham Alumni Association also threw a party in Birmingham following the LSU game. Everyone had a great time at these parties.

We were also active in community affairs this semester. We held our annual Halloween party for the children at Partlow State School. This is done each year with the Delta Zeta Sorority and as usual was a big success.

Initiation was held on October 31, with 11 being initiated. Those initiated were: Harry N. Katapodis and Sidney L. Camp Jr., Atlanta; James M. Taft, Birmingham; Robert G. Lewis, Moulton; John M. Bierchen, Clearwater, Fla.; Robert P. McLamb, Scott AFB, Ill.; David E. Ekland, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Paul M. Bader, Cheshire, Conn.; Dayn T. Beam, Huntsville; B. B. Boles III, Milton, Fla.; and Daniel Ricker III, Falls Church, Va. Also initiated on December 12, were Melvin W. Cooper and Carroll C. Serman. Harry Katapodis was named outstanding pledge.

Plans are now being made for the spring formal and the redneck party. Also plans are being formulated in conjunction with the Birmingham Alumni Association for Founders Day which will celebrate the Fraternity's 125th year.

Allegheny College Academic Excellence

First term at Allegheny College is better known as the "Rush Term" by the Brothers of Penn Beta. During this term there is nothing more important to the chapter than the thought of rush. However, despite this knowledge, rush got off to a slow start this year. Fortunately, an extremely successful Homecoming inspired the Brothers into a fervor of activity and rush finished with a strong upswing at the end of term. It is hoped that the chapter's inspiration will be rewarded by a large pledge class at the start of second term.

Penn Beta, unfortunately, did not fare as well in sports during the first term. The chapter suffered defeats in football, golf, volleyball, and cross country. It is hoped that these losses can be recouped by strong showings in basketball, swimming, and wrestling during second term.

If Penn Beta was wiped off the field of battle, it at least appears to have held onto its academic position. The chapter, which captured the first spot in academic excellence in the Allegheny Greek system at the end of last year, appears to have held onto it with a determined first term effort in that area.

Arizona State University Alive and Well

A new look greeted the Phi Psis when they returned to the Arizona Beta Chapter at Arizona State University this fall. The new look was in the form of carpets, drapes, paint, and furniture provided by a loan from the Fraternity. Brothers at Arizona Beta did most of the work, thus saving money for future endeavors. Arizona Beta set five goals for the 1976 fall semester: getting a good pledge class; continuing to uphold scholarship; starting good alumni relations; running a successful Phi Psi 500; having success in the intramural program. In other words, we wanted to make Phi Kappa Psi one of the best fraternities on campus.

First, we knew we needed a strong pledge class to replace our graduated seniors. We had numerous rush functions, and the result was pledging nine men: Kevin Brovsky, Ken Deutsch, Denver, Colo.; Robert English, Palos Verdes, Calif.; James Gustavson, Gary Miller, Los Angeles, Calif.; Kevin Lay, Randy Wilkins, Scottsdale; Michael Ryan, Warwick, R.I.; Dan Starck, Woodstock, Ill.; Steve Labar, Clinton, Md. Under the direction of Pledge Educator Randy Bolen, the pledges have shown good spirit all semester. They had a successful walkout, and they have done numerous things for the Brothers. The pledges took their test for initiation on December 2, and their initiation will be January 16. We hope to have ten new pledges for the spring semester.

In the 1976 fall semester, Phi Kappa Psi ranked seventh academically out of the 19 fraternities at A.S.U. Two Brothers, Kim Goetz and Bill Ramstack, had perfect 4.0 averages. We have an active scholarship committee, and we hope to improve our ranking in 1977.

When we discovered that many alumni in Phoenix did not realize that Arizona Beta existed, we decided something needed to be done. We, therefore, had a buffet dinner at the house and invited every local alumnus we knew of. Our speaker was Brother Jerry Colangelo, the general manager of the Phoenix Suns Basketball club. In the coming year we plan to have more activities with the alumni such as picnics and softball games. Our relations with the Arizona Alpha Colony at the University of Arizona have never been better. Over Thanksgiving, Alpha invited us down for the A.S.U.-U. of A. football game. They had a party for us, and we played the first annual Turkey Bowl: a football game with Alpha vs Beta. Alpha pulled the first one out 31-25. We are looking forward to having them here for Founders Day in February.

Our 1976 Phi Psi 500 tricycle race was very successful, and it was a good time for all. We started organization in August, and the race was held on October 9. Seven of the 11 sororities at Arizona State participated in a queen contest, spirit contest, and the race itself. Jeri Sims, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and daughter of Dean Sims, Kansas '42, won the queen contest. Gamma Phi Beta won the race, and Alpha Phi won the overall sweepstakes. By participation alone, our 500 was the most successful Greek event on campus in the fall semester.

Arizona Beta completely turned around her intramural program this past semester. Last year we did not make the playoffs in any sport. This past semester we made the playoffs in volleyball, tennis singles, tennis doubles, three man basketball, and football. With five man basketball and swimming coming up in the spring semester, we should have the highest ranking we have ever had at A.S.U.

As the fall semester ends so do the officers' terms. The present officers are: Mike Dill, GP; Charles Saint, VGP; Jon Dowling, AG; Joe Lopez, P; and Randy Bolen, SG. We will hold elections January 23. We are looking forward to a fine spring semester to match the one we had in the fall.

Ashland College President's Cup Winners

The Ohio Theta Chapter at Ashland College has, for the second time in three years, captured the President's Cup in a fierce race for the coveted trophy. This annual award is presented by the president of Ashland College, Dr. Glenn Clayton, and awarded to the fraternity which truly displays the standards of fraternal life. The panel of faculty and administration who chose Phi Psi based their decision on four areas of achievements: scholastics, community and campus service, and intramurals. The Brothers at Ohio Theta are extremely proud to be recognized as the number one fraternity and hope to retain the trophy in the upcoming year.

On September 21, 1976, eight men were initiated into our chapter. They are: Alfonso Estrada, Torreon, Mexico; Bill Hansen, Mt. Clemens, Mich.; Scott Hanna, Cleveland; Scott Winchester, Geneva; Chuck Vickowski, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Don Cottle, Buffalo, N.Y.; Jeff Anderson, North Olmsted; and Tom Loss, Sylvania.

This fall semester, Ohio Theta had a successful fall rush as a result of the combined efforts of Chris Fehring, membership chairman, and Fred Zurn and Pat Crahan, pledge trainers. Four pledges were pinned on October 5. They are: Todd Aman, Ithaca, N.Y.; Tim Holloman and Jeff Seruset, Pittsburgh, Pa.; John Lane, Chatham, N.J.

The Brothers enjoyed an unforgettable Homecoming weekend. On October 29, there was an informal party at the house and the following day the Brothers traveled to the Cleveland Marriott Inn for a semi-formal affair. Both the Brothers and alumni agreed that it was an excellent weekend.

Once again, Phi Kappa Psi received the title of Greek Week Champions. This is the third consecutive year Ohio Theta has won the IFC sponsored event. Without the combined efforts of the brotherhood, this achievement could not have been accomplished.

On November 20, we held our annual Thanksgiving canned food drive for the underprivileged families of Ashland County. Over 1,500 cans were collected and distributed among the needy.

Ohio Theta's spring election results are thus: John Fry, GP; Bill Waterman, VGP; Bill Gaydos, AG; Tim Benjamin, P; Ron Babkoff, SG; Scott Hanna, Hod; Rich Erdlitz, Phu; and Jesse Irwin, Hi. We thank all the old officers for their excellent guidance last semester.

Bob Baird, a senior from Zanesville, was the recipient of the Solon E. Summerfield Award. We are very proud of Bob Baird for his scholastic achievements and his contributions to the Chapter and the campus.

Among Ohio Theta, there are a number of Brothers participating in winter and spring sports. Scott McGill, Jesse Irwin, Mike Arnold, Ron Babkoff, and Jay DellaVilla are in wrestling; Rich Steineman in basketball; Marc and Chris Fehring in track; and Mike Graham in tennis. Rich Erdlitz, John Madden, and Bill Gaydos, all of whom made All Mid-West honors, will join Al Shoemake, Dan and Dave Mercier, Bill Hansen, and Bill Searles in the upcoming lacrosse season.

Our alumni will be notified as to the festivities planned for the Founders Day observance.

Auburn University New House

New officers elected to lead our chapter through winter and spring quarters are: Richard Kent Reece, GP; Steven Cline Gammage, VGP; Michael Lee Nash, P; John Wallace McBurney, AG; Michael Edward Jernigan, BG; John McLemore Dozier Jr., SG; Huey Jackson Davis Jr., Hod; Steven Robert Krause, Phu; and Peter Michael Hofmann, Hi.

With respect to membership, two men were initiated October 18, 1976: Peter Michael Hofmann, Huntsville, and Clifford Robert Chambers, Auburn. In addition, we gained four associate members. They are James Calvin Peeples, Talladega; Bryan Edward Oliver, Birmingham;

The members of Alabama Beta at Auburn have a new house. It is located at 231 South Gay Street, Auburn.

James Melton Locke, Gulf Breeze, Fla.; and James Ferris Peavey, Wetumpka.

In the academic area, Daniel John Adomitis and Steven Robert Krause were inducted into the Phi Kappa Phi honor society for being in the top five per cent of their class.

Service again was on the forefront of fall activities as Alabama Beta assisted with the Auburn Hunger Awareness Food Drive and provided manpower to assist with the swine flu vaccinations in the Auburn community.

Parties were abundant this fall as we broke in our new house. We had a fabulous creek bank party followed with a disco party. We peaked as the champagne flowed at the Club Phi Psi Burlesque party. Finally, we coasted out of the quarter with our end of the quarter bash.

We moved into a new house this fall and have worked hard on renovating it. The new house provides us with the extra room we have needed. We thank those alumni who have provided assistance in helping us fix up the house. Major plans ahead for the house are to rework the plumbing, to build a fire escape, and to clear the back lot behind the house.

Finally, we congratulate John Wallace McBurney, who was elected our Solon E. Summerfield award winner. We wish the best of luck and success in the future to Georgia Alpha.

Bowling Green State University House Improvements

With fall quarter now over, the men of Ohio Zeta can look back on some very successful endeavors. Highlighting the quarter was the addition of some much needed house furnishings. With money from the parents fund, we now have two new leather chairs. The gameroom also received some new additions. Replacing the old bumper pool table is a new regulation foosball table. And, with some extra money from the house improvement fund, we also purchased an electronic television game which includes handball, hockey, and tennis. All these additions have provided much enjoyment and relaxation for the men of Ohio Zeta.

As in the past, Ohio Zeta provided food baskets for needy families at Christmas and Thanksgiving. Along the lines of community involvement, we are beginning the selection process for this year's scholarship recipient. We hope to increase the amount of the scholarship given to a Bowling Green High School male student—last year the scholarship went to Chris Jackson in the amount of $250.

During the last regularly scheduled chapter meeting for fall quarter, election of officers was held. Those elected are: Greg Steyer, GP; Chris Goldsmith, VGP; Jack Eckley, AG; Dave Smercina, P; Mark Entrup, BG; Dick Kaverman, SG; Scott Thomas, Hod; Reg Laughlin, Phu; and Dave Shoup, Hi.

Added to the rolls of Ohio Zeta is new initiate David Smith of Mansfield.

The winner of this year's Solon E. Summerfield award is William J. Gregg. Bill is a past president and the initiator of many service projects undertaken by the chapter, the most notable being the Ohio Zeta Scholarship. Bill is a member of Antean society and Phi Eta Sigma. He is a political science major hoping to go into law.

Labeled as one of the most improved in fraternity intramurals at Bowling Green, the Phi Psis have had some very good showings in fall intramurals. This year's soccer team placed third in its division. The football team came in second this year; and, the hockey team, although not yet up to the caliber of the nationally ranked BGSU varsity team, placed first in its division. However, we were narrowly defeated in the play-offs. Winter sports will focus on basketball as we are fielding an A and B team this year.

Chris Goldsmith and Mike Mainwold attended the ELC this fall and came back with some interesting ideas for rush. Hopefully, many of these will be used for the upcoming quarter's rush.

After a long absence, the alumni newsletter, the Phi Psi Falcon, has come back into existence. Gary Welch is the alumni chairman and has gotten the program moving again. A special thanks goes to alumnus Haldon C. Dick for his efforts and help in getting the presses rolling again. The paper is to be a quarterly publication containing information on the chapter members, past and present. It will serve as a vital link between the undergraduate members of the chapter and the alumni.

Much of winter quarter will be devoted to preparation for the Miss BGSU Scholarship Pageant. The pageant is affiliated with the Miss America Pageant and this will be the second year we have sponsored it. Mark Davis will again direct the affair. Miss Chris Collier, a former contestant, will be this year's producer. The sale of ads for this current program has begun and applications are now being accepted for entry into the pageant. Last year Miss Becky Bohlman, a member of Delta Gamma Sorority, was crowned from a field of 12 contestants. The pageant is open to any BGSU coed.

Winter quarter also promises to be a busy one socially, as several teas and warm-ups are already planned. A semi-formal winter party will also be held.

Entering winter quarter, the men of Ohio Zeta hope to build on the strong foundation laid during the past quarter. We are looking forward to Founders Day and hope to see many alumni back in Bowling Green!

Bucknell University Community Projects

The Brothers of Pennsylvania Gamma closed the month of November and opened the Christmas season with the formal pledging of 22 men. Those pledged include: Chris Ambler, Bethesda, Md.; David Bardaglio, Suffield, Conn.; David Benson, Shaker Hts., Ohio; Richard Ciecuch, Oyster Bay, N.Y.; William Crane, Princeton, N.J.; Mathew Fraser, Winchester; Charles Frazier, Williamsport; Kent Guernsey, Rye, N.Y.; Jeff Johnson, Marlton, N.J.; James Kingman, Simsbury, Conn.; Scott Kozack, St. Cloud, France; Dominic Mandia, King of Prussia; Jamie Marsh, West Hartford, Conn.; Robert Novich, Frankfort, West Germany; Steve Prato, Alpine, N.J.; Mike Smith, Oakmont; William Sykes, Rochester, N.Y.; Richard Tauberman, River Edge, N.J.; Blake Wilson, Collinsville, Conn.; Richard Wilson, West Hampton, N.Y.; Edward Willet, Syosset, N.Y.; Thomas Souther, Oyster Bay, N.J.

Pledge cochairmen Craig Fravel and Rick Thompson have the full support and effort of the brotherhood. This year's pledge program promises to be a tough one. Events that are certain to be on the schedule are Shipwreck, and pledge activities.

With the succulent aroma of Christmas dinner and the maddening rush of final exams coming to a close, it is fun to reminisce about this past semester's social events. The Halloween party was a complete success and was attended by most of the campus. The drinks and music were plentiful, as the PKP Shark-bite competition was held at this particular party for the third consecutive year. Tabulations for the winner of this contest are still coming in. The Christmas formal party was attended by many beautiful women and as is traditional the food was abundant. A large tree was secured by the senior class and the Brothers decorated the house in a manner very befitting the season.

This semester was a particularly unique one for PKP in the way of student government. Election for ABS officers was held on December 8, with the top four positions up for grabs. By the end of the day, it had been determined that Phi Psi had won three of the places. Gerald Purcell took top honors, president, by beating his nearest opponent by a 2 to 1 margin. Joining Gerald were Ward Rafferty, vice president and Mark Schiowitz, treasurer.

Pennsylvania Gamma was also heavily involved in many community projects. Laurens Maclure helped plan and run "Scary Days" which was Phi Psi's answer to that great movie, "Don't Look Down in the Basement." This project had the dual effect of raising a large quantity of money for the Kidney Foundation and provided many of the Brothers the opportunity to revert back to their childhood. Senior Dave Dempsey is finishing up a long career in the Big Brother program, which was started last year by Bucknell. Dave is the leader of the project this year.

Phi Psi is going for its sixth consecutive intramural sports championship behind the leadership of our inspirational sports chairman, Tom Salamone. Heading the list of accomplishments was the swim team which took first place in a dramatic fashion. Members of the team are Ward Rafferty, Rick Thompson, Steve Vitorini and Captain Jimbo Hessler. The soccer team placed a respectable second and promises to be very tough in the future. The tennis team is in the finals, but because of the weather, this competition will not be concluded until spring.

Murf O'Connor is the Solon E. Summerfield award winner for Pennsylvania Gamma and is a man most deserving of it. Others deserving recognition are Tibbs Carter, who won an award in Latin and Burt Krevitz, who won his second consecutive Hoover Award.

We extend an open invitation to all alumni to visit our house during Founders Day, which is on February 21, or any other time that they are in the area.

Butler University Progress in Permanent Housing

The Indiana Zeta Chapter has finally been given temporary headquarters in a University-owned lodge made available to us the beginning of the second semester. Unfortunately, quarters are cramped and only 10 of our 35 members can reside there, with the remainder either living in town or in the men's residence hall.

Continued positive progress has been made in fund-raising for a permanent chapter house which has been slowed by numerous state and local regulations and red tape. Nevertheless, the chapter continues to be optimistic and appreciative of the efforts of our alumni.

The chapter, paired with Delta Delta Delta sorority, won the annual Geneva Stunts skits competition for the second time in three years. Ralph Berry and Peter Sims wrote and directed this successful production.

In addition to our normal high academics, the Brothers proved that we could do more than study! Twice last fall, we won interfraternity tug-of-wars and took second place in the Homecoming house decorating contest. Members of the chapter raked leaves in nearby neighborhoods and donated the money earned to charitable causes. Our annual autumn serenade of the Delta Gamma sorority proceeded without major difficulties. Special thanks go to those who made it all possible. A Halloween costume party with Alpha Chi Omega sorority was a smashing success. Our fall social calendar culminated with our annual "Turkey Trot" arranged and supervised by Tom Harris, held at the Marriott Inn. We hosted a banquet and a formal dance following.

A chapter Bible study led by John Zietlow, chapter chaplain, was met with high attendance—nearly 40 percent of all the Brothers at times—and was deeply appreciated by the chapter.

As the basketball season returns, Jeff Fehn and Doug Pollock, star centers of the Bulldogs, have been leading scorers in several games.

In hopes of increasing our campus participation and involvement, we are sponsoring the Miss Butler pageant, a franchise of the Miss Indiana and Miss America Pageants. The production, directed and coordinated by Jim Kerr, will be held in Clowes Memorial Hall Friday, February 25.

Besides the activities involved with the upcoming Miss Butler pageant, Jim Kerr has involved himself extensively, academically and socially, at Butler. His numerous contributions to the chapter and campus have resulted in his being chosen as the chapter's Summerfield Scholar for 1977.

The Brothers who attended the ELC were impressed with what they heard and learned and led the chapter to a cautious reevaluation of our rush and pledge program. Additional help and suggestions of our Chapter Consultant Tom Kraemer, has led to chapter reevaluation of our committee system and plans to restructure it are being considered.

Since the last report, we have pledged one more outstanding man, William Weber of Middletown, N.J.

Again, our heartfelt appreciation goes to those who have finally made it possible for us to have a residence, even though it is only temporary. Even greater appreciation goes for those who continue to strive to make a permanent chapter house a reality.

UCLA New Chapter Consultant

The highlight of this or any winter quarter at Cal Ep is the initiation of the fall pledge class. The 22 man group initiated January 15 is the largest group of new initiates at Cal Ep in a decade. It includes: Brian Levy and Rick Davis, Woodland Hills; Randy MacDougall, Newport Beach; Howard Weisenfeld and Jeff Wallack, Studio City; Paul Simon, Steve Palmieri and Mike Robinson, Irvine; John Courtney and Martin Courtney, Northridge; Greg Lampert, Cypress; Mike Gunning, Thousand Oaks; Tim Hayes, Costa Mesa; Mike McLaughlin, Torrance; Dave Shatz, La Crescenta; Bob Raphael, Westminster; Brad Livingston, Arcadia; Greg Swanson, Placentia; Dave Eckard, Livermore; Alan Nierob, Beverly Hills; Mike Weitz, San Rafael; and Steve Mann, Los Angeles.

This initiation brings the active membership of the chapter to 60, which was one of our major goals when we began rebuilding Cal Ep two years ago.

We look forward to celebrating the 125th Anniversary Founders Day on February 19, with the undergraduate chapters at USC and Cal State Northridge and the area alumni.

We are glad to have two alumni from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, Jeff Dunn and Doug Jones, take us up on our standing invitation for all alumni to stop by and join in our activities.

Officers for the remainder of the school year were elected in November. Rick Buck, our 1976-77 Solon E. Summerfield Award winner, was elected GP. Other officers include: Joe Manisco, VGP; Dan Shugart, AG; Jim McCarty, P; Tom Patton, BG; Phil Kramer and Ben Graham, SG; Tony Gialketsis, Phu; Gary Donnahoo, Hod; Rocky Wagonhurst, Hi.

We are proud to have contributed to the Fraternity a new chapter consultant, Tim Moore '75, a former GP of our chapter.

Another active social quarter includes exchanges with the Tri-Deltas and Alpha Phis, our annual pre-Mardi Gras party, one of the biggest parties on the row, ice-skating and Disneyland excursions, and the annual Phi Psi Pajamarino.

Athletically, fall quarter was both rewarding and disappointing. We had our best football season in recent years but lost in the first round of the playoffs. The Phi Psi volleyball team was untouchable until the semi-finals of the fraternity playoffs when our top-seeded team was upset. Despite the disappointments, we made a strong showing in the fall.

Through it all, Cal Ep has kept progressing smoothly.

California State University— Northridge Busy Fall

The mood at California Theta is one of active participation, a result of a most successful fall semester. The Brothers are truly indebted to Pledge Educators John Atkisson, Lee Whitney, and Richard Rosenman for their efforts in creating a strong and united pledge class. There is little doubt that the men we initiated the evening of December fourth will allow us to realize our brightest hopes for the future.

Among the new initiates to the brotherhood are Vern Preston, awarded "Best Pledge," Jeff Ross, Marc Borowitz, Jim Gardner, Cliff Raymen, Ken Kottenbach, Steve Sherwood, John Soukup, Gary Matanky, and Wynn Schimmel. There is a strong belief that the new Brothers will generate the needed enthusiasm for the undertakings of the Fraternity that are so vital to its well-being on and off campus. We're glad they are now aboard.

Cal Theta can be found with dominant influence in many campus affairs. Mark Morgan served this past semester in the honored position of Interfraternity Council president, heading a body of Greek system members from most fraternities on campus. Jim Perley was appointed as the new Chapter Advisor for California Delta at the home of the mighty Trojans at USC. Lee Whitney served as a lead reporter for the Daily Sundial, Cal State Northridge's daily news publication. And even the local airwaves were graced with the talents of Tom Hansen and Dan Humfreville who maintained the morning radio "rock-auria" with their efforts at KCSN-FM, the University radio station.

For the new semester, there will be the exhausting task of a spring rush to encounter under the leadership of Ron La Vine. And with the guidance of the new slate of elected officers including GP Mitch Cohen, VGP Lee Whitney, P Paul Newnham, AG Dan Humfreville, BG Ron LaVine, SG Rich Rosenman, Hod Dave Friedrich, Phu Scott Muravnick, and Hi Dave Deick, things look generally deluxe.

The newly elected treasurer for Cal Theta, Paul Newnham, has nearly single-handedly turned the chapter treasury around from what was at best, a confusing stack of bound papers and red lines. He has managed to put the entire financial structure of the chapter back into sound organized form and out of debt. It was an exceptional task undertaken with great labor and without immediate reward. The Brothers are truly grateful.

The upcoming Phi Psi 500 races in April and the more immediate Founders Day when District Six Archon and resident Brother John Ciccarella has promised us a visit from President Kenneth Potter, all promise to be a high point for the year. We anxiously await the arrival of both.

California Polytechnic State University Hosted District VI ELC

The 1976 school year has started out well for Cal Eta. Due to the efforts of Co-rush Chairmen Bill Miyawaki and Tom O'Hern, we are proud to announce the initiation of our 22nd national pledge class. Members are: Eric Brown, Concord; John Clay, Long Beach; Kenneth Herich, Hawthorne; Ernest Hook, Daniel Vordale, and Ronald Tressen, Newport Beach; Craig Maynard, Orinda; Donald Murphy, La Habra; Phillip Pagliara, Agoura; and David Sweet, Stockton.

Interfraternity football proved successful for Cal Eta this fall. Behind the leadership of coaches Bruce Holler, Matt Gentile, and Tim Mayeda, Cal Eta strove to a strong second place finish in league play.

Homecoming was a very special time for us at Cal Poly. We celebrated with many of our alumni at a Ramos-fizz breakfast, barbeque, and dance. It was enjoyable and rewarding for all involved.

Cal Eta was proud to host the District VI ELC/DC on November 13 and 14. Keeping in line with this year's theme, "Get It Together," District VI Phi Psis worked hard at accomplishing such goals as better chapter communications and chapter administration.

With the loss of Randy Donant to Arizona State graduate school and Arizona Beta for a year, we were left without a faculty advisor. However, Brother William Hicks, Cal Epsilon, has stepped forward to act as our interim faculty advisor.

Brother Jim Rogers has been elected as chairman of Cal Poly's annual Poly Royal. We are all proud of Brother Rogers and the many other Phi Psis in on-campus activities.

We are still in the process of trying to secure a permanent residence for Cal Eta. With the tireless work of GP Mark Shorba and chapter advisor Hal Rosewall and the Housing Corporation, we are confident of finding a home by the end of the school year.

Case Western Reserve University Chapter Hall Remodeling

Ohio Epsilon has been working to put together our Founders Day celebration. As usual, we are sponsoring it jointly with the Cleveland Alumni Association. The banquet will be held February 18, beginning at 5:30 p.m. at the chapter house. President J. Kenneth Potter will be our guest speaker and as an added attraction, we will show the multi-media slide presentation that was shown at the GAC banquet. We hope that many of the Brothers who are in the Cleveland area will be able to attend.

We are completely remodeling our chapter hall and giving the rest of the house a sorely needed sprucing up. With a little luck, we will have it all completed before Founders Day.

The chapter is doing well in intramural competition this year. The bowling team is embroiled in a tight race for the lead and two Brothers are in the quarterfinals of the racquetball tournament. We are looking forward to having a strong basketball squad with the addition of some much needed height.

The Brothers at Ohio Epsilon also plan to attend as many of the new chapter installations that take place this semester as is possible. We demonstrated our willingness to travel great distances to have a good time when Brothers Melson, Sorensen, Gillis, and Goodding went to Athens, Ga. in November to attend the installation of Georgia Alpha.

We are proud to announce the initiation of five new Brothers. They are Tom Broderick, Louisville, Ky.; Don Farris, Freedom, Pa.; Keith Gillis, Youngstown; Jim Goodding, Boxford, Mass.; and Jim McCord Jr., Wilmington, Del.

This past semester, the chapter took its

University of Colorado News from Colorado

Colorado Alpha has again asserted itself in intramural sports. The football team took its second straight all-school title, fighting back from a 14-0 deficit in the first half to soundly trounce the buggers 26-14. The team was awesome and there were too many standouts to list here. When the boys put it together there was simply no stopping them as the team's 11-0 record clearly shows.

The soccer and volleyball teams both won their respective league titles, qualifying them for all-school competition, but losing in the early rounds. Oh well, not so bad; three league wins and one championship in three sports with 17 people. Pretty fair actually.

As all you Brothers out there know, the spring semester this year will see, on February 4, the 125th anniversary of Phi Kappa Psi. That's a long time for a set of fine principles to continue, and to be built upon in that continuance by all the present and past Brothers of Phi Psi. On that date Colorado Alpha will expect a large turnout for a fine meal, cocktails, and a good time. Our old friend Helen Eberharter will be present, and rumor has it she may even consent to mixing up a few batches of her infamous homemade cinnamon rolls. Anyway, the point is that we are looking forward to a great time and hope to see all the Brothers who might be in the Boulder area at the time.

As far as individual achievements go: Tom Whiting has been collecting photographs of various government officials in his continuing effort to have his business questionnaire published. Glenn "Stinto" Misar completed a record study binge in the last week of school, typing an incredible 80 pages in a couple of days. Don MacLean successfully sold all of his logs, and his interest in a condominium at Vail to Larry Brown, coach of the Denver Nuggets. Tom Milner has been teaching wrestling to the Kappas across the street. The list is tedious, and too long to give but a hint of the activities of the Brothers at Colorado Alpha.

Don't forget to stop by if you're in the area, or feel free to call us for Colorado ski reports if you're planning a trip out here. Hopefully it will snow someday. Hope everyone had a good holiday and fall semester. Back to the grindstone!

Cornell University Enjoyable Semester

The Brothers of New York Alpha are coming to the end of a most enjoyable semester. After arriving in late August for an exciting and eventful initiation, Brothers old and new began the job of preparing the house for another year. Under the direction of House Manager Pete Eareckson, the work was finished quickly, giving Social Chairmen Dave Voigt and Tim Houck the opportunity to start Cornell's social festivities with the annual Freshman Tea. The social department, with the help of Steward George Lau, continued its fine planning and as a result we experienced tremendous enthusiasm from undergraduates and alumni alike for both Homecoming and Fall Weekends.

As for rush, Chairman Warren Allderige and his committee of Joe Marletta, Jack Petti, and Jack Ryan, report that we had an outstanding fall. New York Alpha is rushing its usual strong contingent of Cornell freshmen and the Brothers are anxiously awaiting the spring formal rush so we can begin work with our new pledges.

Intramurals thus far have been disappointing. Although Coach Dave Dunn has put together a number of strong teams, the Broom Stick Polo team has been our only successful competitor. The football team, surely in the running for the campus title after winning five straight, was disqualified due to an unknown technicality. After an intense battle, the chapter bladesmen succumbed to a strong opposing six.

A number of Brothers have become active in the campus government. Sophomores Greg Strub and Jack Ryan were appointed to the student finance commission. Dan Lynn, the representative of eight fraternities on the Interfraternity Council, put in many hours helping plan the annual IFC party sponsored by Puerto Rican Rums and Penthouse.

New York Alpha had strong representation in fall athletics at Cornell. Joe Hoover, a junior, was a linebacker on the Big Red Football squad. Sophomore John Tillapaugh was our representative on the JV soccer team. Our water polo players, sophomores Bob Eisenbrown and John Skudin have already begun their rigorous spring training program for the swim team. On the Cornell crew team were former GP John Paul and sophomore Greg Strub.

The brotherhood will be returning to the Hill next semester with the same enthusiasm and energy shown thus far. We hope to see more alumni back next spring to share with us, and help perpetuate our tremendous spirit.

Creighton University Our Pursuit Continues

The highlight of a very active fall semester came with the opening of the Kiewit Physical Fitness Center on the Creighton Campus. The Center, a gift of Peter and Evelyn Kiewit, houses five multi-purpose courts for basketball, tennis, or volleyball, four handball courts, and a competitive indoor pool. Opening ceremonies saw the Brothers of Nebraska Beta demonstrate the numerous activities that can be enjoyed at the Center.

Athletically, our Phi Psi One's softball team, boasting an 11-0 record, went all the way to claim the University Championship. Our congratulations to the team and to Pat Mulrone, Bob Pintauro, and Ken Rech. A veteran football squad helped to propel the Phi Psis to the Fraternity League Championship. Brothers Jim Beck and Mark Welter were named to All University Selections. We anxiously await the upcoming basketball season in which our prospects look bright for a fifth consecutive All University Trophy.

Academically, we are proud to report that the Betans have maintained the highest grade point average over all the Fraternities on campus. We are especially proud to report the selection of Brothers Dominic Frecentese and Robert Gallagher to the Alpha Sigma Nu National Jesuit Honor Society. This is the highest honor that Creighton University can bestow upon one of its students. Among those headed to professional school next year are Bill Creighton, Bill Nelson, Mark Weinhold, and Kevin Christiansen. We wish these Brothers luck in their future academic pursuits.

Nebraska Beta can expect further leadership this spring from her newly elected officers: Mark Mackey, GP; Bill Whitley, VGP; Dominic Frecentese, BG; Mark McKinzie, P; Todd Malouf, Hi; Bob Pintauro, Hod; and Mark Wienhold, Phu.

During an outstanding social semester, Chairman Bill Collins made sure that there was never a dull moment. Some highlights included our Las Vegas Party, after which John Gilbert and Gary Healy found themselves bound for Vegas. Our eleventh birthday celebration reunited many of our alumni and actives for an evening of merriment and brotherhood. Alumni take note! Our 125th Celebration will soon be with us and we are planning a mystery party to mark the occasion. Also our annual Phi Psi Formal will be held on March 26 and we invite all our alumni and all Brothers in the area to attend. Archon Rich Nelson has completed the second edition of the revived Phi Psighting, and we are encouraged by the great response we've received from our alumni.

Continual improvements have been made on the interior of the house, and new lodge chairman Frank Grilli and Jeff Modica led an avid fall clean up crew over break. Special recognition goes to Brother Mike Atkinson for the spectacular job he has accomplished this semester in community service. Nebraska Beta has been working hard under his leadership on the Siena House, a home for children and transients. Work also took place with our annual fall blood drive, the Thanksgiving Food drive, and a Halloween Party at the House for children from the Siena House.

The Brothers of Nebraska Beta wish to thank the Brothers of Texas Beta for an outstanding job they accomplished in their hosting of the ELC. We also thank Bill Whitley on his formation and organization of the Phi Kappa Psi Marching Kazoo Band. Be watching for the Band when Creighton hosts Marquette.

Proud of our past successes and with a promising spring semester before us, we at Nebraska Beta are thankful for the valuable and rewarding experiences we have gained as we continue to pursue the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi.

DePauw University Fine Semester

With the first academic semester completed, the men of Indiana Alpha are back on the DePauw campus and hard at work again. Seniors Randy Roth and Matt Neff were selected by the University to study in San Francisco with a State Superior Court Judge, while others occupied themselves working on the floor of the Chicago Board of Trade, and seeing the sights in New York City.

In intramural sports, the chapter leads in total points with basketball having just begun and intramural swimming rolling around soon. The volleyball team completed its second undefeated season to clinch the title for the second straight year. In varsity sports, Carl Mehlhope completed another successful season in DPU soccer, and Phi Psis Gary Kriebel, Steve Smith, John Mason, Jeff Porritt, and Andy Booz are the main supports of the swimming team.

As happens almost every year, the vast majority of the junior class has gone off on study programs in Greece and Germany for second semester studies. Coming back from first semester programs are seniors Mike Sellers and Kevin Williams, and junior Brian Deutch. Senior Matt Neff of West Lafayette has been named the chapter's Summerfield Scholar. Matt is an English major with emphasis on literature, and is interested in a career in law.

The annual Christmas House Dance, put on by the pledge class on December 4, was a great success. A waterfall, evergreen forest, and pond disguised The Rockpile for the weekend—the last fling for everyone before the horrors of finals. Social committee co-chairmen Mike Fitzgerald and Rick Mills are already making plans for the spring social calendar.

On the academic scene, the first semester placed Phi Psis in the running for top academic honors—although this will not be announced until later in the semester. Several Phi Psis won academic honors, including Blake Turner (Gold Key), Mike Sellers (Gold Key), and Matt Neff (Gold Key and Mortar board).

The Educational Leadership Conference was held at DePauw in November, with Peter Prowitt and John Irwin sharing the preparation tasks.

The past semester was indeed a fine one for the men of Indiana Alpha, but we refuse to rest on our laurels. Phi Psi at DePauw will continue to grow and prosper through the efforts of its loyal alumni, cooperative parents, and tireless undergraduates.

Dickinson College Still Going Strong

This fall has witnessed the continued growth and prosperity of Penn Zeta. A very successful rush program, headed by James R. Derrick Jr., has yielded 16 spring pledges to date. In addition to a fine rush season, we also were fortunate in pledging and initiating six outstanding men this fall. The new Brothers, who were initiated on December 5, 1976, are: Bruce Alder, Upper Montclair, N.J.; Randy Chiocca, Wayne, N.J.; George Joseph, No. Huntington; Jeffrey Joseph, Millville, N.J.; Matthew Murphy, Rye, N.Y.; and Larry Neves, Bethesda, Md.

Elections for the spring semester resulted in several Brothers receiving positions of leadership. While the other officers remained the same, the new officers are: Clay Railey, VGP; George Shore, BG; Peter Vogel, Hod; Larry Neves, Phu; and John Macdonald, Hi.

On the athletic front, seven Brothers received varsity letters. Six of the letters were earned by members of the soccer team, which recorded the most wins in the College's history. The other letter was earned in cross-country. Individual honors were awarded to Ed Traub, who was elected to the second team, all Middle Atlantic Conference, for his outstanding accomplishments on the soccer field. In addition to athletic honors, the Brothers of Penn Zeta are also active in positions of campus leadership. Clay Railey is doing a fine job as the editor of the yearbook, while Ed Traub has assumed the position of vice president of the Interfraternity Council.

Alumni relations continue to play a major role in sustaining the prosperity of the chapter. Under the leadership of George Shuman Jr., our house corporation is in the process of being re-activated in response to new housing regulations proposed by the College. A special effort is being made to insure a good turnout for our Founders Day events. The weekend's festivities will include a cocktail party on February 18, followed by a live band on February 19. Because this is such an important event in our Fraternity's history, it is our sincere desire that any Brother who is in the area should feel free to come and join in the celebration. In this 125th year of our Fraternity's existence, may we all re-dedicate ourselves to the ideals upon which Phi Kappa Psi was founded.

Duke University President Potter Visits

The boundless level of enthusiasm and fraternal devotion currently existing at North Carolina Alpha is an expression of our efforts to build and maintain our strong, active chapter.

Evidence of such enthusiasm was demonstrated in the tremendous success of our Celebrity Auction in October. Through the leadership of auction co-chairmen Robert Fishman and Tray Dunaway and the efforts of all North Carolina Alpha Brothers, this activity produced almost $5,000 via the sale of personal items collected from celebrities in the course of the past year. This money was donated in the name of the late Dr. Robert S. Rankin, Duke '34, to the Duke University Hospital to be used for cancer research. Plans are already being made for our 1977 auction.

The highlight of this semester, however, was the visit of Fraternity President Ken Potter to N.C. Alpha during Duke's homecoming weekend in October. Potter, the guest speaker at our Alumni Affairs Banquet that weekend, gave us a greater appreciation of our ties to the national Fraternity and helped facilitate the notable success of that weekend. Included in this success was the university recognition that we received for our immense homecoming float, depicting a Duke Blue Devil beating the shell off of a Maryland Terrapin. Among the alumni present at the banquet were: Dr. Larry Peterson, Charlie Dahl, Roger "Boomer" Pond, Chich Beninati, and Chaz Umberger. Many other alumni of N.C. Alpha, too many to list here, were also present for the weekend. Special thanks are extended to all active alumni for their continued support and honest interest in the chapter.

In other chapter news, our Christmas party for local underprivileged children was a cheerful and warmly appreciated event. Also helping facilitate our experience of the holiday spirits was our presentation of humorous Christmas gifts between Brothers and our Harry Buff Party, named for our retiring housekeeper, at which we broke-out the Christmas cheer and other solvents. Chapter improvements include a new bar and the creation of a thriving little sister program. In campus affairs, J. Bailey is teaching a university house-course on police enforcement and Zac Isaac has been elected acting president of the Duke Arabian Nights Club. The Brothers have also been very active in intramurals, excelling in football, golf, and basketball competition.

Our 1976 Rush activities promise to provide us with remarkable results. Rush has been notably successful this fall due to increased effort and the improved Phi Psi campus relationships that have resulted from our accelerated social and leadership functions. Our pledge program has also been revised to accommodate the products of formal pledging, which is in January. Our Pledge Formal/Founders Day party is on March 19. It is with this spirit of optimism and innovation that N.C. Alpha looks forward to future good times.

Franklin and Marshall College New Members

Pennsylvania Eta completed one of its most successful fall rushes in November, with the initiation of a sophomore pledge and the pledging of three freshmen. We received valuable assistance from Chapter Consultant Jack W. Harris.

We initiated our newest member, Robert W. Solomon, Brooklyn, N.Y., on November 14. Five days later, George E. Cooke, River Edge, N.J.; Gregory M. French, Cooperstown, N.Y.; and Eugene D. Milener, Oneonta, N.Y., were pledged. We tentatively plan to initiate them on Founders Day as part of our Founders Day ceremonies. We will continue this year's rush after the January break. We have several additional prospects.

In recent elections we chose the following officers for the spring semester: Mark D. Burd, GP; Robert W. Solomon, VGP and AG; Harry A. Jacobowitz, P, BG, and SG; John C. Calhoun, Hod and Phu; and David F. Stephan, Hi. Hallett German will be in Harrisburg next semester as part of an urban interdisciplinary program.

The Athletes in Action East Wrestling team has established its headquarters in our chapter house. The AIA is affiliated with the nationwide Campus Crusade for Christ organization.

University of Georgia New Chapter

As of November 20, Georgia Alpha is proud to belong to the Phi Psi clan. Brothers have toiled many grueling hours for that day. We were pleased to be honored with so many distinguished guests and all enjoyed the weekend of festivities. A reception for Phi Psis and guests was the first of the activities of Chartering weekend. On Saturday November 20, induction ceremonies highlighted the exciting events. Afterwards, Phi Psis and ladies celebrated at a grand banquet and evening party. Ned Stacey supplied the entertainment for the party with his disco Time Machine. Sunday Open House was held for parents and campus dignitaries. Georgia Alpha Brothers wish to thank all those so kind to shower us with gifts.

Fall quarter the new chapter elected new officers. Our officers are: GP, Steve Couch; VGP, Billy Harper; P, Mike Reeves; AG, Chip Bailey; BG, Hal Cook; SG, Kevin Hancock; Phu, Brian Fosgate; Hod, John Sillesky; Hi, Sam Witherspoon. Athletically fall quarter, Phi Psi recorded an undefeated season in volleyball and ping-pong. We placed second in tennis and football (4-1-0). Georgia Alpha also placed in swimming events. Active competition in intramurals has put us at the top of all fraternities for overall point standings in sports. Brothers look forward to a rewarding season in winter intramurals.

Georgia Alpha participated in many campus fund-raising drives fall quarter, sponsored by other Greeks and university organizations. Some of these drives included IFC's Leukemia Drive and Tri Delta sorority's March of Dimes Drive. We also had a car wash to help pay for chartering banquet.

Plans for winter quarter's rush have been scheduled and our goal is to gain twelve pledges. We offer a new Greek experience to pledges and strive to select sharp, well-rounded young men for our chapter. Quality is our foremost goal in pledging and our strong brotherhood of 30 members reflects this quality.

University of Illinois Campus Leadership

The fall semester of 1976 has been a particularly good one for Illinois Delta. Our social program was second to none, highlighted by several sorority exchanges, the pledge dance, Homecoming, and several after-hours parties. Our intramural teams were consistently among the top and enjoyed strong support from the entire chapter.

Phi Psis have continued to show leadership in campus activities, holding various positions in University organizations. Brothers representing Phi Kappa Psi in the Interfraternity Council are: James Neckopolus, vice president; Jonathan Groesbeck, rush chairman; Paul Presney, program evaluations chairman; Bob Dudley, executive board, and Wain Smith, rush counselor. Other Phi Psis active in extracurricular functions include Tom Vicari, senior manager, Star Course; David Cornes, captain, sailing team; Willis Matthews, president, Illini ski club; and varsity athletes Mark Signorelli, hockey, and Bruce Heitzinger, football.

This fall we at Illinois Delta were honored by the appearance of several University figures as evening guests, including University President John Corbally, and former U of I Football Coach Ray Eliot.

The Educational Leadership Conference for District III, held at Indiana Alpha, DePauw University, was a valuable experience for all Brothers participating. Many ideas were exchanged which should be beneficial to every chapter. Illinois Deltans attending the ELC were Jeff Roggensack, VGP; Mark Sauer, P; Dean Lindreth, Hi; Dave Smith, Kurt Hoff, and Rob Reifsnnyder.

The support of Illinois Delta alumni was clearly shown at a very successful Homecoming reunion, the weekend of October 30. Many alumni returned to "Old 911" to take part in the weekend activities, including Dan Senese '65, who traveled all the way from New Jersey, and Walt Molo '47, who was named our Outstanding Alumnus of the year.

A mid-semester initiation ceremony marked the beginning of the brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi for these three men: John Kurgan and Dave Herrmann of Glenview, and Pat Koehler of Blue Island.

Our annual Christmas Party for handicapped children of the area was held December 9. The children enjoyed making Christmas tree ornaments and delighted at the appearance of Santa Claus (Kurt Hoff) along with several of his helpers.

Rush recommendations from alumni are always appreciated and are often very helpful to our rush program. Please direct recommendations to Luke Lohmeyer, formal rush chairman for the spring of 1977.

Indiana University Spirits Are Up

In this day and age of high prices and unemployment, we Brothers at Indiana University have enjoyed a prosperous semester as have many of our fine established businesses. Where the success of a thriving business is attributed to its ambitious employees, the success of this past semester must be attributed to the enthusiasm and diversity within the chapter. Numerous activities have given rise to many opportunities where the combined spirits of the brotherhood have spelled "success."

Many thanks to The Rev. J. Steve McWhorter whose presence as guest speaker at the initiation banquet of the 1976 spring class provided the entire brotherhood with an atmosphere of charitable love and compassion. September 25 was indeed a special day for the 13 new initiates. They are: Jay Covington, Evans-ton; Mark Wetzel, West Lafayette; Mike Chadina, Cedar Rapids; Dan Lysohir, South Bend; Craig Anderson, Marion; Paul Schneider, Flossmoor; Scott Brizius, Scott Gilreath, Glenn Seger, Evansville; Brad Cross, Kokomo; Todd Schorr, Ed Hawes, Columbus; and Mike Chestnut, Bloomington. The shoes of the new initiates are presently being filled by 19 pledges whose future is strikingly promising.

We are proud to announce the recently elected officers for the upcoming term: Greg Himes, GP; Kevin Turner, VGP; Kevin Baker, P; Glenn Seger, AG; Craig Anderson, BG; Tom Mitro, SG; Jay Covington, Hod; Scott Frenndt, Phu; and Wes Umemura, Hi.

Coinciding with the presently elected officers of the chapter, we also have officers around campus. Bob Lindsey is president of the Student Athletic Board. Brad Griffith works with Bob on the steering committee. Currently representing Phi Kappa Psi on the Indiana University Student Foundation are Tim Tuerff and Tim Allwein. Brian Clarke is head lobbyist for the Indiana University Student Association. Howard May sat in on the Judicial Board.

Homecoming with the Gamma Phi Beta sorority was blessed with beautiful weather and a near first place. We finished with a first place in the new "best-use-of-color" award and received a much welcomed second place over all. Scott Brizius organized a splendid Parents Weekend but due to weather conditions the crowd was limited to only a few. Halloween brought out the ghost and goblins as well as the singing Phi Psis. Under the organization of Jack Israel and the leadership of Greg Himes, our annual serenade proved profitable once again. As well as contributing the proceeds of the serenade to UNICEF, the song group has contributed its talent to the Indiana University Student Foundation and many sororities.

As an innovation this year, we co-sponsored a fund raising bicycle race for the United Way with the Indiana Memorial Union. There were five different classed races, ranging from novice to class I. Due to the efforts of Howard May, the race was a huge success and will be continued next year. Howard, a veteran "Little 500" bike rider finished second in the class III race.

The intramural program is quite extensive on campus. We are currently enjoying a well organized intramural program set up by Scott Force. A few of our accomplishments have been a first place in wrestling by Howard May and a top showing by the bowling team.

We regret to announce the death of highly respected Eddie Von Tress '17, this past summer, whose dedication to the Fraternity will always be remembered. In honor of the outstanding brotherhood of Ed and his close friend Burdell W. Baker, our recently finished Big Red Room has been dedicated in their names. October 23 was designated "Burdie Baker" Day. Brother Baker was presented with a plaque as a token of our appreciation. And the Big Red Room was officially named in honor of Burdell and Eddie.

There's truth to the fact that we Betans are tops socially on campus. Our Christmas open house welcomed many visitors and distinguished guests from all parts of campus. With finals behind us and the New Year to look forward to, the enthusiasm around the house is at peak level. We are all anxious to carry this high spirited level into next semester's activities in hopes of continuation of growth in brotherhood and individuality.

Indiana University of Pennsylvania Plans Set for 500

As we here at IUP prepare to close out another semester, we find ourselves in the midst of a long hard winter. Along with finals, the Brothers have found many other projects to keep themselves busy. Included in these projects are the laying of new carpet in the chapter house living room, and the purchasing of a second water heater to be installed over vacation by Alumnus Jack Getkin.

Elections were held a few weeks ago, and our spring semester officers are: Glen Grimm, GP; Terry Apolonia, VGP; Kevin Liszewski, P; Jeff Getkin, AG; Dave Alfera, BG; Bill Stutz, SG; Tim Case, Hod; Rick Peltz, Hi; and Marv Hudson, Phu.

Also last week, we were privileged to have Jack Harris, chapter consultant, with us for a visit. Jack spent some time with us last spring, and so he already knew many of the older Brothers, and met many of the newer Brothers, too.

Speaking of new Brothers, here at Penn Nu we now have 14 new Brothers. They are: Jeff Bishop, Brian Coologhan, Dan Deacon, Marv Hudson, Dan Gagich, Ken Jones, Mark Krysecic, Dave Rothrock, Randy Tony, Hal Wadding, Brian Walsh, Craig Weaver, Tom Williamson, and Rick Zielinski. These men are a welcome addition to our chapter.

Intramural sports have not been going so well lately. Our bowlers, after having defeated the IUP Profs (last year's defending champions), lost to another team in the semifinals. Also two of our pocket billiards players were injured in our annual Turkey Bowl football game between the alumni and the undergraduates. Craig Weaver, our star shooter, suffered a broken leg, and Joe Munley smashed a knuckle. There is hope yet, though; our co-ed badminton team, led by John Miller, is making a strong bid for the playoffs. The Brothers have also already begun practicing for volleyball next semester.

Plans are being made already by Dave Haddad and Dave Stemmler for next semester's Phi Psi 500. Last year's 500, our first ever, was very successful, and this year, we hope to double the amount of money raised.

We thank this semester's sweetheart, Connie Meade for the many contributions she made to our chapter and its programs. Also, thanks to Dave Haddad for his past year of service as chapter president. To him goes much of the credit for one of our most successful years here at Penn Nu.

JEFFREY W. GETKIN, Correspondent

The University of Iowa Great Expectations

The Brothers of Iowa Alpha will return to Iowa City on January 10 with great expectations for the spring semester. Early in the term we will activate our latest pledge class—one of the largest ever. The 24 men who will learn the secrets and mysteries of Phi Kappa Psi are: Scott Stern, Kirk Mellecker, Scott Erwood, Brent Erwood, Mark Lancial, Tim Kenney, Charles Jensen, James Bartlett, John Lepeltak, Ray Bening, Charles Cutler, and Pat Keough, Des Moines; William Smith, Ron Sams, and Phil Armstrong, Grinnell; Nigel Burch, Essex, England; Steve Osgood, Indianapolis, Ind.; Elliot Lunning, Burlington; John Lichty, Milwaukee, Wis.; Mike Reisner, Highland Park, Ill.; Matt Anderson, Iowa City; Mike Eilbeck, Hubbard; Brad Hargitt, Omaha, Neb.; and Jeff Cilek, Twin Falls, Idaho. We thank Lee Hook for doing such a great job as summer rush chairman.

Early next semester the chapter will hold elections for the spring semester officers. Finishing a year of service to Iowa Alpha are Richard Zussman, GP; and Robert Dorweiler, P. The officers finishing a semester of work are Steve Rosenberg, AG; Joe Schemmel, BG; and M. Craig Baker, VGP. We thank these Brothers for guiding us through a successful fall.

Several academic honors have been won by Iowa Alpha since last report. We had the highest grade point of any fraternity on campus during the fall, 1975 semester and the second highest during the spring, 1976 semester. Results from the recently completed term have not yet been determined but we have high expectations. Also, three new initiates, Scott Kelley, Steve Rosenberg, and Eric Randolph were elected to Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honor society last spring and David Noble (1975) was honored for having the highest grade point on the varsity swimming team.

Several Brothers and one pledge are involved in varsity intercollegiate athletics here at Iowa. These Hawkeyes are Doug Peckumn, baseball; Dave Noble, swimming; Nigel Burch, golf; and Rick Zussman and Jim Houghton, tennis. Last season Brother Zussman was named to the All-Big Ten tennis team and this year Zussman and Jim Houghton are co-captains of the team.

Once again, Iowa Alpha is very competitive in the social fraternity intramural program. In swimming, Jim Bartlett and Mike Reisner each won an All-University individual title in leading us to the team social fraternity championship. Jim Houghton came through brilliantly in winning two social fraternity titles—racketball and badminton. In football we came in second place. The championship game was intensely contested and ultimately was halted due to rough play. We are anxiously awaiting next semester as we are in a heated race for the overall social fraternity championship.

On April 1, 1976, our chapter initiated 17 men. These new initiates are: Robert Phillip Dorweiler, Steven Joel Rosenberg, Eric Alan Randolph, Scott Streater Kelley, John William Kunkle, Michael James Newland, Brad Lee Winterbottom, Douglas Gene Peckumn, David Jerome Harvey, James William Glaser, Kevin Leslie Elliott, James William Mailander, Joseph Louis Schemmel, Dennis Martin Boeke, Larry Tee Donovan, Thomas Edward Hurney, and Merle Craig Baker.

We express our sincere hope that any Brothers who are passing through Iowa City will stop at 363 North Riverside Drive and be our guests.

STEVE ROSENBERG, Correspondent

Iowa State University Busy Winter Planned

Winter quarter began on a successful note as 18 new Brothers were initiated into the Iowa Beta Chapter. Inspiration week was followed by the ceremonies and a party that was very well attended by both undergraduates and the alumni of Iowa Beta. The new initiates are: Brian K. McMasters, Michael L. Holmes, Ames; Kevin D. Becker, Des Moines; Randall L. Good, Boxholm; Steve R. Mostrom, Story City; Rodney L. Ruddick, George S. Allbee, Daniel L. Kapaun, Reid A. Burt, Charles B. Hager, Marshalltown; Thomas J. Roth, Don H. Haase, Davenport; Bruce

L. Braley, Brooklyn; Michael R. Marr, Muscatine; Robert W. Carter, Burlington; John R. Jordan, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Timothy J. Newberry, Cedar Falls; and Randall L. Minear, West Des Moines. Included in this group are three new initiates who have followed their brothers into Phi Kappa Psi, Randy Good, Dan Kapoun, and Kevin Becker.

Also during fall quarter's informal rush program, we pledged three fine young men. They are: Thomas Still, West Des Moines; Douglas Collins, Oswego, Ill.; and Jeffrey Feste, Sioux City.

A memorial fund has been established here at Iowa Beta in the memory of Joseph Steven Kimmel III, undergraduate member, who died August 23, 1976, in a diving accident. The proceeds for the fund will be used to construct a sign with the letters Phi Kappa Psi and the House address for the chapter. All donations for this sign are completely voluntary. We hope to have the memorial sign by the end of the 1976-77 school year.

We are also in the process of planning the remodeling of our kitchen and dining area. We hope to be able to purchase, through donations, a new dishwashing system, refrigerator, cutting and cooking table, kitchen cabinets, a new lighting system, and a new floor. Bids are being looked at and we hope to have final plans ready by the end of spring quarter. These additions will be an invaluable rush asset.

The weekend of October 30, we held our annual Alumni Weekend. The weekend was highlighted by a football victory over rival Kansas State. A party was held that evening with a buffet dinner. The weekend was especially successful in that we had a huge turnout of alumni for the event. All the alumni donations for the weekend were put into the kitchen remodeling fund.

This year, we instituted a new part of Alumni Weekend. We gave out 50-year Golden Council membership certificates to all our 50-year alumni. This was in appreciation of their loyalty and service to Phi Kappa Psi over those years. We plan to have a similar presentation next year for all the Brothers who were initiated in 1927.

Our fall house party this year was a fifties party. The Brothers, the pledges, and their dates all dug around for just the right costumes for a fifties hop. The evening was highlighted by the nostalgic music, the atmosphere, and the punch, which is a house specialty.

We are now anticipating our winter formal, scheduled for January 29. The ballroom and a floor of rooms have been reserved at the Sheraton Inn of Des Moines, where the champagne dinner, the dance, and the post parties will be held.

Plans for spring quarter include the construction of a float for Iowa State's annual VEISHEA festivities. We will build a float with the Delta Zeta Sorority.

Johns Hopkins University Ready for Rush

With rush occurring next semester, Maryland Alpha is in an excellent position. We have about 30 prospective pledges (freshmen cannot pledge until their second semester) and one junior who has pledged: Chris Brooks of Bethesda, Md., a Naval Academy transfer student. Much of our good fortune is due to the fact that we had several successful parties and particularly to the new Phi Psi tennis tournament, which was run by Kevin Little (who is on the varsity tennis team). To our knowledge, no fraternity has done this before at Hopkins and it was a smashing success, attracting over 25 freshmen. Our Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner parties were attended by many freshmen, and acclaimed by them to be a success. Also, our welcoming party for freshmen filled up the house and all present had a good time.

Maryland Alpha had several successful teams in intramural competition. We won the coveted Fraternity Bed Race—in which a bed is equipped with rollers and has to be pushed through a tortuous path full of obstacles. We also finished intramural bowling with the league's highest individual game—Kevin Little bowled a 211—and we came in third overall in interfraternity competition. In pool, Mahmoud Mustafa finished third out of 21 contestants.

A new Interfraternity Commission has been organized to oversee all interfraternity operations, and to promote the good will of all fraternities on campus. On Founders Day, we will get together with the District of Columbia Alumni Association to salute Phi Psi after 125 years of Fraternity.

University of Kansas The Alpha Review

As were the cycles of the seasons, so were the cycles of chapter, community, and academic activities at Kansas Alpha this fall. Once school had begun we held our traditional Yell-In ceremony after the Washington State football game on September 11. Our Yell-In party was held that evening and there was much jubilation from our infant Brothers on their official pledging. November 6 was the date of the District V ELC. Texas Beta was the host chapter and Win Wilhelmsen, Tom Fields, and Bob Meyer attended. November 19, we initiated Jeff Steimer into Phi Kappa Psi. Brother Steimer is from Overland Park, and a graduate of Shawnee Mission South High School. Also in the month of November we elected a new slate of officers: Jim Orr, GP; Brian Jones, VGP; Bob Meyer, AG; Steve Hamous, BG; Kevin Parks, P; Rob Munyan, Hi; Mike Gunter, Phu; Tom Fields, Historian; Jim Muelberger and Kevin White, rush chairmen; Randy Manis, IFC representative; Steve Salanski, scholarship chairman; and Dave McGuire, social chairman.

We commend former president, Win Wilhelmsen, and the previous officers for all the hard work they have done in the past year. Their efforts have resulted in many improvements for the chapter.

Activities toward service to our community this past fall include the "KU on Wheels" program conducted for the elderly. The chapter provided transportation for people who were in need of assistance in getting to and from the grocery store, doctor, etc. On December 4, we conducted a food drive for the needy and the less fortunate of the community. The Brothers collected 1,500 donations from area residents and these donations were made into food baskets by the Salvation Army. These baskets were then distributed to families for the Yuletide holiday. Community projects for this spring will include another food drive and a Charity Calendar. The calendar will be produced by the chapter and advertising will be collected for revenue. These proceeds will be donated to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. The calendar will be distributed to the KU Greek community and the freshman orientation program this summer.

Academically, the chapter is well above the KU all-men's GPA. We are just under a 3.0 which is also well above the all-fraternity average. Some of the fine individuals contributing to this are: Tom Scott, who has been accepted by the KU Medical School and is this year's Summerfield Scholar from Kansas Alpha. Brother Scott also has received a Summerfield Scholarship from Kansas University; Jim Orr, Kevin Parks, and Jim Muelberger are members of the junior men's honorary Owl Society; and Ralph Munyan and Steve Salanski are members of SIL, an honorary sophomore society. Academics are not the only activities that Brothers and pledges become involved with in campus life. Many are involved in offices, committees, and programs throughout the University.

The fall semester was quite eventful and we, the Brothers of Kansas Alpha, hope for continued success in our varied pursuits. We also are deeply appreciative of the conscientious alumni who continue to support both the chapter and the Fraternity and we hope to see many of you at the Founders Day banquet on February 18, commemorating our Fraternity's 125th anniversary.

BOB MEYER, Correspondent

Kent State University Quarter Ends Well

The Brothers of Ohio Kappa will begin the new quarter on an up note. A flurry of activity at the end of November was very profitable rush-wise and the chapter now has four men waiting to be pledged.

On the sports scene, the volleyball team made it to the first round of playoffs before going down to defeat. Athletic chairman Harry Jacob expects the basketball team to benefit from this experience. Phi Psi again had three players on the Kent State varsity soccer team. Jacob and Paul Weinstein were joined by pledge John Brusso of Cuyahoga Falls. Included in KSU's 5-7-2 record was a 10-1 victory over neighboring Ashland College; whose starting goalie, Tim Benjamin, is a Phi Psi.

On campus, Ohio Kappa is once again involved with the university community; Jacob in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Treasurer Craig Miller in Delta Nu Alpha, the national transportation honorary, VGP Ed Beacon at the university airport, AG Marvin Stearns in IFC and the campus newspaper, the Daily Kent Stater, and pledge John Brusso is a member of the KSU symphonic band.

Plans are going smoothly for Founders Day as well as for our sixth chapter birthday in May and the Phi Psi 500 sometime in April.

Lafayette College Strength and Diversity

The past semester has been highlighted by our largest brotherhood (38) in recent years. Perhaps our greatest strength is a tremendous diversity in the interests of our members, providing our chapter with a variety of ideas and influences. This, and a strong bond among our Brothers, has provided a rewarding semester for all.

The fall has been marked by a vigorous, though somewhat frustrating rush. This has been due to a drop in male freshmen, caused by a slightly smaller class, and a greater number of coeds (we all must take the bad with the good), this year. In any event, through the hard work of Rush Chairman Steve Prevoznak, who did such an excellent job last year (19 pledges), and the rest of the brotherhood, we have been pleased with our success in the rush.

A high point of our social season was our Homecoming celebration. We were all pleased by the amount of alumni able to attend. It was marked by the presentation of a token of our appreciation to 15-year president of our alumni board, Boyer Veitch, upon his retirement. Our new president is William Craig.

We of Penn Theta are all excited about the house improvements being planned and undertaken this semester. Thanks to our most generous alumni, we are having general renovations done, and in the spring, the house will once again become "The Old Gray Barn" with a new coat of paint. The undergraduates have chipped in their share, with the purchase of a new television, tape system, and piano.

On the IM sports scene, after a disappointing football schedule, fielding a small team, the fall season was peaked by Dan Glickenhau's win in cross-country. The winter season has been one of great success. Our racketball team, with Lawrence Raiss playing singles, and David Keeble joining him for doubles, finished with two second places. A basketball team in the playoffs, an undefeated bowling team, and good showings in pool and ping-pong, have been other bright spots. We are also proud of our varsity athletes: Christopher Sevi, a fullback on the football team, and Roger Volz, a fencing team leader in épée (letter winner as a freshman last year), and one of the best in his division.

Penn Theta currently ranks eighth, of 17 fraternities, on campus, scholastically.

SCOTT FITZPATRICK, Correspondent

Boyer Veitch, Lafayette '51 (center), was presented with a token of appreciation following 15 years as president of the Pennsylvania Theta's Alumni Board. He is flanked by William Craig (left), new Board president and Douglas Hintz, chapter president.

Miami University Greek Week

As final exams become very prevalent in everyone's mind, we think back and reminisce about the past semester. It was an enjoyable time and a great deal was accomplished.

Our tennis marathon netted more than $300 for the American Cancer Society. It was very successful, not only in monetary terms, but also in bringing the student body together for a common purpose. Hopefully, this charitable endeavor can be continued in the future.

Greek Week at Miami University is always an exciting function and this year was not out of tune. Phi Psi finished third overall out of 25 fraternities, while capturing a second in the Phi Delta Theta swim meet and a second in the Sigma Nu golf tourney. Scott Veil and Chuck Schubert led the swimmers grabbing a first, two seconds, and a third individually, and the Phi Psis set a new intramural record in the freestyle relay. Also Greg Grimme and Jack Busemeyer led a strong team to the Hueston Woods golf course where they proceeded to finish a mere two strokes behind the front-running Fijis.

A number of personal achievements were realized in the fall semester. Steve Hines was inducted into Phi Beta Kappa, joining Dan Conway in that capacity. Tom Malone and Bill Ulrich were chosen as members of Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Also a number of Phi Psis were inducted into the Miami University Student Foundation. They include Scott Veil, Steve Conlin, and Bill Ulrich who will be joining other Phi Psis involved in this organization.

The Phi Psis fared well in interfraternity sports during the semester. The football team, with the coaching of Roy Pignatiello, finished at three wins and two losses, improving greatly over last year. Also the bowling team set yearly records for high team series and high team game. These achievements, coupled with our fine showing in Greek Week, have placed us in seventh position for the all-sports trophy.

Looking toward next semester, the social calendar includes the second annual Fly Me Party with Delta Gamma. It was a great success last year and should be even better in 1977. Also included is the Phi Psi Wrong party and our spring formal at Hueston Woods. Another important event will be rush which begins January 24 and continues for two weeks. This year we plan to expand our pledge class somewhat, but still retain the quality of men we have had in the past.

The Brothers at Ohio Lambda are looking forward to another rewarding and fulfilling semester and to uphold the fine tradition of Phi Kappa Psi.

University of Minnesota Future Events

Winter quarter will be a busy one with many activities and much planning for future events.

First in our list of activities is Greek Week. We are paired with Gamma Phi Beta this year. The combination of our chapter and this sorority gives us a great pool of talent to draw from for the various Greek Week events. Many of the new initiates are getting very involved in this activity.

Founders Day this year is hoped to be as big a success as last year's. One of the main reasons for the recent success of our chapter has been alumni support. Founders Day gives everyone a chance to see the interest and commitment many of our alumni have for the Fraternity. With the combination of growing support from alumni and growing involvement by undergraduates, continued success is inevitable.

Campus Carni, the spring quarter all-Greek activity at the University of Minnesota, is near. This activity requires great effort. Therefore, planning is already underway. This year we are paired with Pi Beta Phi for Campus Carni. In past years large amounts of money has been raised for charity as a result of the efforts put into this event.

Jay Story, a past chapter president, is the winner of the Summerfield Scholar award. Jay has been a very active member of the chapter as well as an active person in other campus activities at the University of Minnesota.

University of Mississippi Campus Involvement

Mississippi Alpha has completed another semester with the participation of many of its Brothers in campus and fraternity functions. We are looking forward to initiation ceremonies to be held on Founders Day, February 19. We are planning to have our annual alumni-initiation banquet coincide with the celebration on Founders Day. Several Brothers attended the chartering ceremonies of Georgia Alpha on November 20. Those attending were: Lawrence Perkins, Eddie Aune, Gus Jones, and Archon Tom Kesler, who officiated as Hod at the ceremonies.

Input from the national Fraternity is very important to the Brothers of Mississippi Alpha. We illustrated this with the attendance of many undergraduates and alumni of the chapter to this past summer's Grand Arch Council. The list includes Thomas W. Branyan '75, Jim Brooks '42 (a member of SC), James D. Henderson '66, J. Vickers Hill '61 (inducted into order of SC), John Hudson '69, Harvey Hudspeth '75, Archon Thomas Kesler '74, W. Lynn Loden '75, Past President Webb M. Mize '30 (a member of SC), Walter Murphy '33, F. A. Schurtz Jr. '62.

Campus involvement is also important here. Mike Greer has been elected treasurer of the senior class of 1977. Brother Greer has also been chosen for Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Harvey Hudspeth has been elected to serve as treasurer of the Interfraternity Council. Hale Free-land and Jimmy Knight have been picked to serve on the Committee of 100. This participation in campus affairs is steadily pushing the reputation of Phi Kappa Psi up at Ole Miss and bringing us closer together as a chapter.

The potential for further growth of Mississippi Alpha is here. The chapter is working together to accomplish many goals on campus and within the Fraternity. The officers for the spring semester are: Harry Hudspeth, GP; Les Kerr, VGP; Eddie Aune, P; Jimmy Knight, Asst. P; Sherrod McCall, AG; Rush Hicks, BG; Gus Jones, SG; Jim Dilley, Hod; Mac McKinney, Hi; and David Monihan, Phu.

SHERROD MCCALL, Correspondent

Monmouth College Successful Fall Semester

New officers for spring, 1977 are: Jeffrey J. Durkin, GP; Wayne Francis, VGP; Nelson C. Mateo, AG; Dean Bleachman, BG; Mark R. McKeever, P; John Chiappone, SG; Jay Leve, Hi; and Paul Gianone, Phu. Congratulations and good luck to the new officers in the upcoming semester. Congratulations are also extended to John Palladino for being named to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities and receiving the Summerfield Award, and to Jeff Luthman for being appointed captain of the Monmouth College varsity soccer team.

On November 15, our fall pledge class members were inducted: Bob Monsterrat, Gary J. Shain, Charlie O'Gorman, Brian Rose, Frank Veronsky, Jay Leve, Brian McKeever, Larry Berke, and Steve Sheer.

In intramural football, we had a disappointing season but high hopes are set for a successful basketball season. The bowling team is on its way to another fine season with the help of seniors John Palladino, John Chiappone, Jeff Durkin, and Dave Van Why.

Social Chairman John Palladino is busy planning Spring Weekend. The tentative dates are April 23 and 24, with the formal being held on the 23rd. He is also planning the annual Founders Day party.

NELSON C. MATEO, Correspondent

University of Nebraska Alumni Relations Strengthening

We at Nebraska Alpha are hoping to strengthen alumni relations with several activities planned by our Alumni Relations representative Michael Herman. Our chapter hosted a cocktail party for alumni Brothers and their wives after the University of Nebraska Homecoming victory. We are also planning a newsletter for alumni and parents to be sent out early in the second semester.

During the Homecoming festivities, the Phi Psis were represented in the Homecoming king elections by Kevin Van Renan, who was runner-up. Our chapter and Kappa Alpha Theta sorority built a Homecoming display that received honorable mention.

Elections for the second semester were held November 27. The new officers are: Mike Flynn, GP; Steve Braye, VGP; Jim Finocchiaro, P; Rich Hovendick, AG; Jon Large, BG; Jon Hedges, SG; Greg Elston, Hi; and Joe Piccolo, Phu. Ron Nelson is house and grounds manager, and Jim Dennell is our social chairman.

The annual Phi Psi Shipwreck party was held December 4. Hard work by all Brothers resulted in an extremely successful party. Radio personality Eddie Hudson from WOW Radio in Omaha was a DJ for us at the party.

Formal pledging was held on September 26. The pledges picked their pledge dads, who then took their new pledge sons out that night for a steak dinner.

We are doing well in intramural sports. In intramural football, both the active "A" team and the pledge "C" team made it to the second round of the finals before being eliminated.

During open rush in the first semester, we pledged Tim Martin of Lincoln. Tim is the owner of a four-month-old Saint Bernard puppy named Sam that the chapter adopted as a mascot. Sam quickly got into the swing of campus life by escorting Mulligan, the cocker spaniel mascot of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, to our Shipwreck party.

For a philanthropy project, our chapter participated in Honey Sunday. This involved going door to door selling honey, the profits going to benefit retarded citizens. The Phi Psis raised over $600. The pledges also sponsored a Halloween party for orphans with the pledge class of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, and rang bells for the Salvation Army.

Overall, the Nebraska Alpha Chapter has had a productive and busy first semester and is looking for an equal, if not better, second semester.

RICHARD HOVENDICK, Correspondent

Northwestern University Successful Fall

With the approaching 125th Anniversary Founders Day celebration, special plans are being made for events involving alumni as well as current chapter members. These activities will serve to increase our awareness of and pride in the traditions and brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi.

A strong pledge class, intramural record, and social calendar have combined to culminate in an excellent fall quarter for the Brothers of Illinois Alpha. A well organized rush week effort headed by Doug Mogle resulted in the pledging of the following: Scott Ariens, Milwaukee, Wis.; John Blim, Kansas City, Kans.; Pete Gennuso, Elk Grove; Kevin Hanrahan, Potomac, Md.; Mike Hitchcock, Western Springs; Rick Jadin, Green Bay, Wis.; Gordon Jennings, Arlington Heights; Pete Kindrachuck, Wheaton; Steve Marner, Cincinnati, Ohio; David Millbern, North Miami Beach, Fla.; Jon Newcomb, Granite City; Mike Purnell, Des Moines, Iowa; Hugh Walborn, Muskegon, Mich.; and David Wolff, Hendersonville, N.C. Enthusiastic as well as diversified in interests and abilities, the pledge class members are nearing the completion of their training and education under the capable direction of Dave Brown, this fall's pledge trainer.

In response to the needs of a close friend of our cook of over 16 years, many of the Brothers recently volunteered to donate blood platelets, a vital and necessary component of blood. In an effort to obtain an even greater number of new and potential donors, senior Bob Brehm organized a campus-wide blood platelet drive in conjunction with a local hospital. We are not only proud of our efforts to procure new donors, but also of the fact that we were instrumental in publicizing the relatively little-known need and procedure for obtaining this vital blood component.

Athletically, we are proud of our successes in this fall's intramural football competition. Phi Psi gained recognition through the outstanding efforts of both Team I and Team II; each went undefeated in regular season play to win its respective league championship and earn valuable points toward attaining the Greek Intramural Sweepstakes trophy. Teams I and II were led by excellent quarterback plays from Forrest Didier and John Horan, respectively. Three Team I starters, Bob Brehm, Gary Didier and Forrest Didier, were named to intramural all-star teams. The season was marked by high spirits and fine play from all involved.

This fall's social calendar has also been successful thus far through the efforts and innovations of social chairmen Rick Snyder and John Bowers. Functions have shifted away from the numerous band parties held in the past to several theme oriented parties and exchanges. Highlights have included Homecoming dinner and dance, an in-house pledge formal, and most recently, a Christmas tree-trimming party.

We are also proud to acknowledge and congratulate this year's Illinois Alpha recipient of the Solon E. Summerfield Award, Dreux Dwyer. Dreux, currently VGP, plans to study medicine after graduation this spring. Recognition is also due to Mike Alex, who was recently reelected vice president of the Interfraternity Council.

Finally, in anticipation of the 125th Anniversary Founders Day celebration, the Brothers of Illinois Alpha extend our sincerest and best wishes to all the Brothers of Phi Kappa Psi.

Ohio State University Eventful Quarter

For Ohio Deltans, this autumn quarter was an eventful one. We are proud to announce that we had 15 new initiates. They are: James Thacker, David Musachia, Alan Seffens, Steven Dobbs, Craig Stone, Edson Wilson, William Vogelgasang, Thomas Daugherty, Thomas Parke, Mike Aukerman, Jeffery Meisner, Charles Beeson, Stuart Davis, Richard Havriliack, and Cheis Valahos.

Along with these initiates, we had two distinguished guests this quarter, one from politics and one from the world of entertainment. In October, Chalmers P. Wylie, U.S. Representative from Ohio, visited the chapter. Later on in the month we had a visit from Playboy's Miss November, Patti Mcguire. The Mcguire visit was a promotional trip for Playboy magazine and they provided us with a band and free beer. As it turned out, Ohio State Phi Psis received some free publicity.

For the first time ever, Ohio State crowned a Homecoming king along with a queen in this year's festivities, and Mike Detzel, a senior from Avon Lake, was one of the five finalists. Although Mike didn't get the award, he is still "King George" as far as Phi Psis are concerned.

Ohio Delta's float at Homecoming was also one of the best floats built with "Enchanted Castle" being the largest of all the floats. The Brothers all enjoyed building the castle with the Chi Omegas.

Another big event this quarter was the annual Christmas party. Along with the old favorites of Mom Vogt's hot buttered rum and the decoration of the tree, we had a gift exchange for the first time. Needless to say there were many surprises.

In athletics, Bill Boger was a starter for the Buckeye soccer team and helped lead them to a successful season. In intramural athletics, all three of our football teams made it into the playoffs. They were all successful and our number one team made it into the semi-finals before they were eliminated. Our bowling team also made it into the playoffs again this quarter.

Looking ahead to next quarter, our number one basketball team is the favorite to win the Ohio State intramural basketball title for the third year in a row.

Next quarter should be exciting for the Brothers as they look forward to getting together with the alumni on Founders Day. On this, the 125th anniversary of the Fraternity, a very special visitor, our national President Ken Potter will be in attendance. We look forward to seeing you.

JIM INNOCENZI, Correspondent

U.S. Representative Chalmers P. Wylie (third from right) chats with Ohio State alumni, undergraduates and Housemother Mom Vogt after a dinner at the Phi Psi house.

The University of Oklahoma Santa Visits

Elections were held and our new spring officers are David Larsen, GP; John Wright, VGP; Steve Holder, AG; Carlos Elwell, BG; George Russell, SG; Brian Sullivan, P; Ed Kurtz, Hod; Tony Holden, Phu; and Tom Hauptman, Hi.

Our third annual Christmas Party with the Oklahoma Beta Chapter served as an initiation party for 16 new Brothers. Our new initiates are Tom Linihan, Adair; Bob Moore, Ft. Sheridan, Ill.; Tony Roesch, Northridge, Calif.; John Bonvouloir, Orleans, Vt.; John Lewis, Norman; Dan Wellner, Steve Ongtooguk, Oklahoma City; Dan Say, Tulsa; Bill Rowland, Eric Bruner, Claremore; Slade Hanson, Riverside, Conn.; Steve Cypert, Ardmore; Floyd Cranmore, Coleman; and Bob Mallek, Hinsdale, Ill.

Spring rush is underway with chairman Tony Say at the controls. Any recommendations of rushees by alumni for spring or summer will be greatly appreciated. Our first rush function for spring was held jointly with the Alpha Phi Sorority as a Christmas party for underprivileged children. Robert Hutton, dressed as Santa, arrived in the backyard of the Alpha Phis in a helicopter. I don't know who was more excited—the Alpha Phis, the children, or us.

Our deep appreciation goes to all the alumni who have given donations. I am happy to report we are now in sound financial shape.

In appreciation, our Founders Day Ball is planned for February 19 in Oklahoma City. It will be a dinner-dance, and we are looking forward to a good alumni turn out. If anyone has any questions, feel free to contact us at 405-321-9568.

Oklahoma State University Ten Year Celebration

Oklahoma Beta has remained active. We held a canned food drive for the needy families through the Stillwater Mission. We also held our annual Phi Psi 500 which was a big success as over 3,000 students watched Alpha Chi Omega Trike on to victory. We have also remained active in intramural sports, winning our league in volleyball, and with Mark Mihura and Jim Austin finishing third in table tennis doubles. We also finished strong in other sports, giving us a present position of eighth out of 24 fraternities.

We thank the Brothers of Oklahoma Alpha for again hosting the Christmas formal. Besides the formal we have held the Phi Psi 500 and "Bar Room Brawl" parties. We welcome five new Brothers to our chapter: Dan Mooney, a junior; sophomores John Wilson, Kevin Corbett, Barry Traverse, all of Oklahoma City; and Duane Higgins, a Tulsa sophomore. We also welcome Kurt Cunningham, our newest pledge.

We urge all Alumni to attend the Ten-Year Celebration Ceremonies.

Oregon State University Getting Back Into Things

Fall term is coming to an end and most of the goals we set at the beginning of the term have been met. Fall term was a learning experience for us in getting organized and running things in a smooth fashion. We pledged one more man, James Tilton from Wrightsville, N.C. on November 15.

We have been trying to get involved in many school activities and let people know we are back on the OSU campus. The two dances we had were very successful and we plan other functions for winter term. Our big activity of fall term was the first annual Phi Psi car smash. People were given 30 seconds to smash an old car donated by a junk yard. We charged 25¢ per person to smash the car with a sledge hammer. Later in the day we extended the 30 seconds to five minutes, which helped sales tremendously. Also Brother Neil Bloom did a commercial on the radio to let people know about the smash. The car smash would have taken in quite a bit of money except for the fact we broke five hammers. After deducting the cost for them we wound up donating $20 to the charity (Meals on Wheels).

Except for the loss to UCLA in football, Homecoming went very well for us. Many alumni came to our house after the game for a delicious steak dinner, followed by the second annual Phi Psi pool tournament, won by pledge John Riche.

We are making plans for Founders Day which will be held here in February. Hopefully, we'll get quite a crowd here. It should be lots of fun for everyone.

We have a special new person living at the house now. Our Resident Advisors, Bill and Lori Warfield, became the proud parents of a 5 lb. 3 oz. baby girl, Virginia Anne. We are all very happy for them.

NEIL BLOOM, Correspondent

Pennsylvania State University On Going Tradition

Pennsylvania Lambdans began winter term on a sad note with the death of our beloved founder, John Henry Frizzell. Brother Frizzell dedicated his life to Phi Kappa Psi and was an inspiration to everyone who met him. Though he passed away on October 30, 1976, John Henry will continue to be a motivational force to all Penn Lambdans—present and future—to carry on the proud traditions and beliefs of Phi Kappa Psi.

The chapter welcomed four new men into our brotherhood this fall: Howard Welsh, Wexford; Guy Howland, Ithaca, N.Y.; Christopher Coffin, Berkeley Heights, N.J.; and Kenneth Smith, Mountainside, N.J. The chapter can look forward to many contributions from these new Phi Psis.

A successful fall rush culminated with the introduction of seven new pledges: R. Lawrence Campolongo, State College;

James Gil and Gregory Laderer, Pittsburgh; Leonard Muscelli, Springfield; Robert Myers, Greensburg; Martin Remmey, Huntingdon Valley; F. Matthew Rhodes, Emmaus. Under the direction of winter term's VGP Thomas Conroy, they have begun preparing themselves to become Brothers.

In search of future pledge classes, Jim Myers was selected as our new rush chairman. Rush parties and dinners have been planned to let the Brothers meet prospective pledges.

A diverse social calendar has been set up by our social chairman, Bill Donley. In addition to house parties and socials with Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, and Alpha Sigma Alpha sororities, our traditional Christmas and Wine and Cheese parties will highlight the term. We have also set aside February 4, 5 and 6 for the annual Fathers Weekend. We also encourage alumni to return for any guaranteed fun weekend.

We were privileged to hold the District II Educational Leadership Conference the weekend of November 12, 13 and 14. Although attendance was poor, those present received worthwhile information which can be applied to their chapters. Special thanks go to Chapter Consultant Tom Kraemer whose ideas and work made the ELC a success.

Penn Lambda's recent rise in the academic standings will most likely progress, thanks to the incentive provided by our newly inaugurated Arthur Texter Memorial Scholarships. Two $150 scholarships will be awarded each term to the Brother with the highest grade point average and to the one with the greatest increase in his average from the previous term. The initial winners were Jack Repcheck (highest GPA) and Mike Conti (most improved). We are looking forward to continued placement in the top 10 of Penn State's academically ranked fraternities.

Congratulations are in order for John Hummel, the winner of the 1976-77 Solon E. Summerfield Award. In addition, the following Brothers were recognized by campus organizations for their achievements: Thomas Conroy, Lion's Paw and Parmi Nous (honorary senior leadership societies); Gene Riechers, Parmi Nous and Omicron Delta Kappa (honorary activities fraternity); Bob Riegel, Tau Beta Pi (honorary engineering fraternity); and Brother Hummel, Phi Eta Sigma (honorary freshmen society). Special recognition is directed toward Brothers Conroy and Riechers for their nomination into Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Although our intramural football and basketball teams experienced up and down seasons, we optimistically look for championships from our league-leading bowling team and our racketball players. We are also expecting good results from our swim team which made it to the semifinals last year.

The lodge has been improved through painting of the interior and repairs to the roof and furniture. A renovations committee has been instituted for the purpose of soliciting help for major repairs. In the meantime, minor mending will be handled by undergraduates.

As the school year rolls by, Penn Lambdans are making strides forward—proud of our past and confident of our future. In the memory of John Henry Frizzell, we appreciate our organization for what it is . . . a brotherhood.

DONALD G. MILLER, Correspondent

Purdue University Chapter Still Improving

The fall semester was a good one and it looks like the spring is going to be even better. Both the Brothers and the pledges are getting more active in various organizations across campus. Also, we have moved up to 9th place academically out of 45 fraternities.

There are 12 new Brothers at the house. They are: John Arthur Hillaert, Mishawaka; Marvin Ray Richardson, Jeffery D. Elsworth, Anderson; Dennis Richard O'Brien, Pelham, N.Y.; Robert Francis Walsh III, Moraga, Calif.; Royal Earl Church, Matthew Jay Norman, Valparaiso; Gregory Gene Tilley, Kokomo; Michael Charles Skersick, Louis Peter Ninios, Rochester; Mark George Danly, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; and James David Dolaway, LaPorte. As pledges, this group held a Halloween party with the pledges of Kappa Alpha Theta. Good times were shared by all.

Educator Marv Richardson and trainer Mark Lawson are busy revamping the pledge program. They are working with a fine new pledge class consisting of: Barry John Churbock, Muncie; Michael Wayne Hammonds, Rushville; Mark Alan Holloway, Evansville; Mark Jonathon Messmer, Kenneth Eugene Newton, Connersville; Robert Arthur Rakestraw, Evanston, Ill.; Ray Alan Scher, Huntington; Mark Robert Shull, Westlake, Ohio; Frank William Vonachen, Holliston, Mass.

Spring rush chairman Greg Cook plans to rush hard early in the semester for ten pledges. This will finally put our house at capacity. We have come a long way since our recolonization two years ago.

Phi Psi is again in the top ten this year in fraternity athletics due to everyone's participation. We are keyed up about our spring basketball team, particularly because of our flashy new uniforms. The pledges are participating in a basketball tourney and are talented enough to go all the way.

Big plans are made for this spring. Of course, we are hoping to have a chance at winning the P.U. Grand Prix go-cart race. We are also looking forward to an alumni banquet in April.

Congratulations to C. Wesley Shook, Purdue '49, on being elected to the West Lafayette city council.

New officers are Mike Haney, GP; Marv Richardson, VGP; Al Leewood, P; Jim Dolaway, AG; Cary Marston, BG; Jeff Elsworth, SG; Mike Skersick, Phu; Lou Ninios, Hod; and Rick Churbock, Hi.

We are losing two Brothers, Mike Elzroth, married on Jan. 2, and Steve Keck, to be married this summer.

JAMES DOLAWAY, Correspondent

The Fall 1976 pledge class of Oregon Beta pose for their portrait.

University of Rhode Island Fall Rush

The biggest news at Rhode Island Beta is the result of fall rush. Under the direction of Rush Chairmen Bob Ferri and Carl DiSanto, the brotherhood was able to place first in the number of new pledges among the fraternities. The 31 new pledges are: Don Berndt, Port Jefferson, N.Y.; Bill Cunha, Larry Ginsberg, Rumford; Bob DonFrancesco, Cranston; Neal Fitzpatrick, Commack, N.Y.; John Hardiman, Gerry Horn, John Ryan, Chip Slattery, Dave Smith, Rocco Sammartino, Warwick; Tony Horton, Trumbull, Conn.; Russell Jeffrey, Steven Angelone, Providence; Bob Kuvent, Portland, Maine; John LaCross, Al McGregor, East Providence; Lance Magnusen, Wellesley, Mass.; John Mase, Trumbull, Conn.; Steve Murphy, Newington, Conn.; Paul McBride, Portsmouth; Alan Nahabedian, Wayland, Mass.; Scott Nelson, Wakefield; Jason Osborn, Hebron, Conn.; Dennis Parente, Bill Potter, Cranston; Rich Routhier, Central Falls; Pete Schult, Dix Hills, N.Y.; Greg Smith, Madison, N.J.; Henry Zinno, Providence; and Steve DiComitis, Pawtucket.

We received a visit this semester from Chapter Consultant, Jack Harris. Jack seemed to enjoy his stay at Rhode Island Beta, and seemed pleased with our chapter.

Homecoming was quite a success, even though the Rams were clobbered by BU. Thanks go to Richard Mollicone for securing the Valley Country Club for our celebration, and to Steve Macchioni for hiring the band.

Thanks are also in store for Dave Leaver, house and lawn chairman, who led in the fight to beautify our front lawn. With Steve Verkade's material, and Dave Leaver's know-how, the landscaping is now complete and looks great.

Unfortunately, this semester was touched by tragedy. Dave Phillips, a Brother of Rhode Island Beta, drowned on November 20. Dave was a clown and a joker, and his antics always delighted the brotherhood while he was here with us. He was a true friend and Brother, and he will always be sadly missed by us all.

We are proud to welcome the following new Brothers into our chapter: Jonathan Bailey, John Partington, John Prince, John Rhodes, and David Singer. These men were initiated on November 19, and we are glad to call them Brothers.

The brotherhood proudly announces six new officers which were elected at our last meeting. They are: Steward, Dave Leaver; House Manager, Rich Hubli; Treasurer, Roland Galvanin; Rush Chairman, Carl DiSanto; and Social Chairmen, Bob Ferri and Richard Mollicone. The brotherhood is confident that these new officers will excel in their offices.

Rider College Top Honors

The Brothers of New Jersey Alpha welcomed 11 neophytes this semester who will be initiated this spring. They are: Kevin Doran, captain of Rider's varsity soccer team, Spring Lake; Ron Wagner, a member of the varsity soccer team, Renton, Wash.; Bob Dunn, also a soccer player, Salisbury, Maryland; Ray English, another soccer player, Neptune; Bill Payne, a soccer team member, Long Branch; Doug Applegate, Lakewood; Tom Nagle, Bricktown; Bryan Stone, Howell; Jeff Wyatt, Audubon; Bill Hernandez, Belmar; and Joe Amilio, Trenton.

Elections were held for next semester's officers. Mark Grossman was elected President, David Ginfrida was reelected Vice President, Bill Erdman was voted Treasurer, David Newnan Recording Secretary, Gary Ginter Sergeant-at-Arms, Joe Cacchione Rituals Chairman, and Mike DiSilvio Chaplain. Also Steve Silver was elected the new Vice President of the Intrafraternity Council.

This semester Phi Kappa Psi walked away with Rider's top Homecoming honors. The team of Phi Psi and Zeta Tau Alpha sorority won the All-around Homecoming trophy with our team's King and Queen candidates.

Lou Harbrecht and Kathy Paige, being chosen the Homecoming royal couple of Rider College.

Phi Psi held its second faculty/administration dinner this semester. It was attended by more than ten teachers and administrators and continued Phi Psi's effort at maintaining cordial relations with all members of the college community. This semester also saw the revival of our alumni newsletter, "The Extension." Bob Boderman and George Demos put out the first alumni newsletter in two years, attempting to keep alumni Brothers involved.

Phi Psi won the intramural pool championship this semester with the team of Joe Cacchione, Mike Ayars and Dan Rucki. Neophyte Kevin Doran was elected captain of Rider's soccer team and former Phi Psi president, Steve Ginter, was voted the most improved soccer player of this season by his teammates. Swimming star Clyde Closson was again elected co-captain of Rider's swim team and in a trial meet against Monmouth College took three first place finishes.

House improvements kept pace with the building of a new bar top and the addition of an exercise room. Further improvements to the bar and new dining room furniture are expected to follow next semester.

This fall was a satisfying one for New Jersey Alpha and we are expecting spring '77 to be even better.

What's so special about the 1978 Grand Arch Council? Kansas City's Crown Center Hotel.

The 1978 GAC is scheduled in Kansas City, at the incomparable Crown Center Hotel. Which is why you shouldn't miss it.

The hotel is only a small part of the entire Crown Center complex, which has been called a "city within a city." And, a "downtown suburb." It's a myriad of restaurants, cafes, shops, boutiques, cocktail bars, and various other cultural and entertainment facilities.

Just think. If you planned on staying at the Crown Center Hotel between August 9th and 13th, 1978, you could see just about everything the Crown Center complex has to offer.

And you could take in a very interesting and informative convention, too. The 1978 Phi Kappa Psi Grand Arch Council.

It's a great way to support your Fraternity. Make plans to attend now.

For further information, contact the Phi Psi Executive Office, 1940 East 6th Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44114.

University of Southwestern Louisiana Progress on Greek Row

This past fall was filled with excitement. Louisiana Beta placed in the Miller Beer recycling contest, our varsity football team had its best season in 50 years, and IFC got a vote of confidence about Greek Row.

The administration at Southwestern Louisiana gave the okay on Greek Row. Both the sororities and the fraternities will be making the move and we are hoping that we will be one of the first fraternities on Greek Row. Greek Row has been discussed for many years, and this is the first time that anything has been done in the positive direction.

Jim Hodges has recently been elected vice president of Roteract Club. Kirk Boudreaux had a surprise and was elected treasurer of IFC. Barney Barnett has recently placed first in a wrestling tournament in Atlanta, Ga.

The officers for the spring semester are: Robert Bender, GP; Brent Sonnier, VGP; James Maraist, AG; Calvin Humble, BG; Kirk Boudreaux, P; Jim Hodges, SG; Tom Sarradet, Hod; Terry Blanchard, Hi; Billy Best, Phu; Jacques Lasseigne, Pledge Educator.

As soon as open rush started, Pat Mangano pledged Louisiana Beta. We are proud to have him among us.

This spring there are so many activities going on, we will be busy again. We have Founders Day, Spring Formal, and the Phi Psi 500. The Spring Formal will be March 12, at Evangeline Downs. The week of the 12th will be "Super Frog Week" with a "Super Frog" party on March 10. The following month will be the Phi Psi 500. Since most of us are veterans of the "Phi Psi 500," we are looking forward to it.

With activation coming soon, we are looking forward to the pledges experiencing the brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi. All in all, the coming spring semester for Louisiana Beta should be exciting and prosperous.

Southwest Texas State University Largest on Campus

Texas Gamma is now the largest fraternity at our university. On November 29, the ten fall pledges were initiated. They are: Jim Boyd, Gary Oliverio, San Antonio; Mark Brooker, Odessa; Mahlon Gremillion, Spring; Carl Deal, George Harrington III, Cliff Moore, Richard Slenker, Houston; Mark Turney, Santa Anna; and Rick Zapp, Sugarland. Our chapter now has 44 Brothers with only two Brothers leaving at the end of the fall semester. Our house was completely renovated this semester, and a chandelier was added just in time for Homecoming. President Ken Potter flew down to be the guest speaker at a pre-game luncheon.

Following the football victory, the alumni and undergraduates attended a dance to celebrate our most successful semester ever. Newly elected officers are: James E. Thompson, GP; James C. Bode, VGP; Robert F. Dube, BG; Carl H. Deal, Hod; and Richard H. Battle, Hi. Officers retaining their positions are: Philip B. Tinker, P; Michael J. Talburt, AG; Daniel A. Law, SG; and V. John Hermansen, Phu. Winner of the Solon E. Summerfield Award was Philip Tinker, our treasurer. The important job of Interfraternity Council treasurer was retained by J. Robert Tyler. Our chapter is looking forward to a large alumni attendance for the 125th Anniversary Founders Day Celebration, February 19, and the continued growth of Texas Gamma during the spring semester.

Syracuse University Dedication to Charity

The fall semester for the Brothers of New York Beta was a trying one, but we await the spring semester confident in the strength of our brotherhood.

In October, Chris Rahe died suddenly. We attended the funeral in Connecticut and have provided for an award in Chris' name. The Chris Rahe Award will be presented annually to that Brother of New York Beta who best exemplifies the spirit of gentlemanly conduct and athletic excellence that Chris so superbly demonstrated in his life.

New York Beta continued her dedication to charity by organizing the second annual Phi Psi Halloween party. It was a great success as over $400 was raised for the American Cancer Society. We also sponsored a Christmas party for underprivileged children, complete with Santa and toys, while our chapter continues to support a girl in Appalachia through the Save the Children Fund.

With the fall intramural season complete, we currently hold first place in the fraternity division. Phi Psi fielded playoff teams in bowling, ping-pong, floor hockey, and won the fraternity championship in cross-country behind the first place finish of Joe Kearney. Our victories in intramurals are a source of pride as nearly every Brother participates in intramural sports. New York Beta also claims three Brothers who play varsity sports. Joe Kearney and Rich Hare are members of the track team and Hersch Gornbein is a varsity wrestler.

Officers for the spring semester are: Joe Catalano, GP; Dick Driscoll, VGP; Bob Thompson, AG; Rich Hare, BG; John Hess, P; Bob Yamulla, SG; Chip

Stoll, Hi; Mike Kroft, Hod; Hersch Gornbein, Phu.

New York Beta's plans for the future include retaining the Chancellor's Cup, awarded annually by the University's administration to the most outstanding fraternity. We also host the District II ELC-DCs March 4-6 and Solon Summerfield scholar Jim Neri is editing an alumni newsletter.

The University of Texas Winter Report

At the close of the fall semester of 1976, the Brothers at Texas Alpha elected new officers for the spring semester. Directing us through this semester are: Kevin Dale Wommack, GP; Russell Cody Pruitt, VGP; Russell James Kempton, AG; Glen Hunter Jones, BG; Brent Alan Floyd, P; Charles Robert Swofford, Social Chairman; and Nathaniel Scott Norman, Pledge Educator.

Rush and pledge programs have been reorganized for the spring semester. Under these programs we should have another fine pledge class this spring. Last year's spring pledge class was second on campus in size. Rush chairman Bryan Muecke and his committee produced this new program for our future Brothers. Any alumni support for these programs is deeply appreciated. Forward any information concerning rush to Bryan Muecke, 2401 Longview, Austin, Texas 78705.

On December 4, Texas Alpha held its annual Christmas formal at the House finishing a successful fall social calendar. The formal was highlighted by the return of many alumni. Also on the social calendar were mixers with Alpha Phi, Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Xi Delta, and Sigma Delta Tau sororities. Match parties were held with Alpha Phi and Alpha Xi Delta. A western party with Texas Gamma and an after-game party with Oklahoma Alpha following the traditional Texas-Oklahoma game in Dallas marked the inter-chapter social calendar this fall.

Texas Alpha's intramural program has sported successful teams so far this year and should rank in the top ten after the fall semester. The football team went 4-2 and placed second behind the fraternity division champs. John Spangle, who quarterbacked the football team to its best record in the past few years, encored with a second place finish in golf singles. The A&B volleyball teams each placed second in their divisions, barely missing the play-offs. Pledge Donald Griffith made the semi-finals in table tennis. Everyone in the chapter is excited about our basketball team which has a very good chance of capturing the fraternity championships and the university crown. With good talent and an average height of 6'4", we should have a good team, reports coach Rusty Kempton.

The Brothers and pledges are looking forward to holding the ELC this spring and hope that all the chapters in District IV will be in attendance.

The chapter donated 25 Christmas trees to the Austin State Hospital and gave food to the needy for Thanksgiving as charity projects this fall.

The Brothers and pledges at Texas Alpha are looking forward to a fine Founders Day to celebrate 125 years of brotherhood in Phi Kappa Psi and cordially invite their alumni and other Phi Psis in the state of Texas to attend.

RUSSELL J. KEMPTON, Correspondent

Texas Tech University ELC Host

The Texas Beta Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi has had an event-filled calendar this fall semester, and is looking forward to a busy spring.

The first Phi Psi Phandango was held in October. This all-university event allowed students to take a break from their studies, as two bands were provided for dancing. The evening was capped off by the election of the 1976 Phi Psi Phandango Darlin'. It was very successful, and we feel it will be a great project for our chapter in the future.

Early in November we were fortunate to host the Educational Leadership Conference of our district. It was a very informative and educational experience for our chapter, and allowed us to meet other Phi Psis from many other campuses.

In December we held our annual Phi Kappa Psi Food Drive. With the help of our campus' Greek and service organizations, we collected over 5,200 pounds of food, which was distributed to needy families of Lubbock.

The Phi Psis were active in almost all intramural sports. For the second year in a row, members of the bowling team took a first in their division. Phi Psis also showed their interest in competitive sports through participation in football, soccer, water polo, volleyball, and swimming.

Several of our Brothers had outstanding accomplishments this semester. Charles Smith was selected for listing in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. John Galbraith was chosen to be a member of Alpha Zeta, an honorary agriculture society; and Rick Saigling pledged Phi Alpha Theta, a history honorary society. Rick Wardroup was accepted to the Texas Tech Law School, and Al Poerner was placed on the intramural protest board.

We also selected new officers this semester. They are David Underwood, GP; Charles Smith, VGP; Curtis Clark, Pledge Trainer; John Galbraith, BG; Mike Forster, Phu; Jim Vernon, AG; David Salmon, Hod; Charles Bumpass, Hi; and

James Riggen and Rick Saigling are continuing as P and SG, respectively.

The Phi Psi Little 500 is in the planning for spring. There has been a good response from the sororities and we hope to make it an annual spring event.

We look forward to a successful rush in February.

The University of Toledo Homecoming Reps

The Brothers of Ohio Eta have elected new officers for the winter quarter: Paul R. Stresen, GP; Dennis C. Acuna, VGP; Timothy J. Zale, P; Mark T. Tappen, AG; Ronald W. Helfrich, BG; Kevin M. Corrigan, Hi; Gary M. Garvin, Hod; Richard H. Williams, Phu; and James J. Shortridge, SG.

The chapter has pledged four this quarter: John Manore, Dan Dessum, and Tim Samples, Toledo, and Gil Laterza, Fremont. They are well into the pledge program set up by Denny Acuna, pledge trainer for the fall pledge class. Mark Tappen is the assistant pledge trainer. On Friday, December 10, our pledges and the pledges of Pi Beta Phi Sorority held a party for the active Brothers and sisters.

Phi Kappa Psi was well represented in the Homecoming festivities at UT in October. Jim Shortridge was the parade chairman, and we co-sponsored a float with Delta Delta Delta Sorority.

With school over until January, we are concentrating on house improvements. Mike Mears, a resident of the house, is completely remodeling his second floor bedroom. This room now has two levels. The lower level will be used as a living room, complete with a bar, and the upper level will be used as a bedroom. Denny Acuna, Rick Williams, and Mark Phillips have also remodeled their rooms. The pledges, as their house project, are remodeling the game room. In the planning stages now are the retiling of the upstairs kitchen and the bathrooms. A general house clean-up will be scheduled before school resumes in January.

Congratulations to Jimbo Shortridge who was selected the Solon E. Summerfield Award winner of Ohio Eta.

A special note to Michigan Beta—Ohio Eta plans a special trip to East Lansing—we look forward to it with great pleasure.

Good luck and success to all Chapters this winter.

Vanderbilt University 75th Anniversary

Tennessee Delta is pleased to report the initiation of Brothers Hugh Tucker and William Earl Zweifel bringing the total chapter enrollment to 874. The chapter is currently preparing for spring rush and hopes to be able to report another successful effort with the next publication.

At the last regular chapter meeting the following were elected to spring offices: John Shaw, GP; Malcolm Smith, VGP; Mark Strickler, P; Rudy Moeller, AG; Sam Marable, BG; Sid Wright, Phu; Baxter Gorden, Hod; Terry Palmberg, Hi; Bill Landon, House Manager; Alec Wyeth, Pledge Educator; Hugh Tucker, Assistant P; Gorden Wright, Assistant P; Bill Zweifel, Assistant VGP.

Tennessee Delta is currently making plans to celebrate its 75th anniversary on February 20. All interested alumni please make plans to attend this special occasion.

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University Beginning as a Chapter

Fall quarter was a time of major accomplishment for the Virginia Zeta Chapter. Our biggest and most important event in our history took place on November 13, 1976, when we were officially installed as a chapter of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

Our Chapter has accomplished a lot so far this year. We added a total of six new Brothers during our fall rush and these men as well as our previously initiated Brothers became charter members of Virginia Zeta. The Brothers initiated fall quarter are Michael Everett Harris, Steven Shane Lympany, Thomas Edward Surratte, Robert Dale Vaughan, John Daniel Maine, and Brian Vance Wilson. Our Brothers initiated so far number 36 and presently we have 30 who are active. Since our chartering we have elected three new officers. They are Zane Scott, Hi; Kevin Tritle, Phu; and Steve Anderson, Hod. Our winter rush, engineered by our rush chairman Bob Rector, was very successful and we hope to initiate some new brothers this quarter.

One of our big moments during fall quarter came during Homecoming weekend when our entrant for Homecoming attendant won the title. This helped to spread our name and we are now becoming better known on campus. During fall quarter we participated in basketball and volleyball intramurals. Although our records were not outstanding, we all had a good time and are looking forward to some better teams in the future. Winter quarter we will participate in flickerball and water polo intramurals and we hope to do well in these.

Leadership has always been a strong point in our chapter and since we are now official members of the IFC we are now able to compete for the IFC leadership trophy. Fall quarter we came in second, having several Brothers in leadership positions. Brothers Scott, Dill, and Wagner are on the Residence Hall Federation Executive Board. Brothers Fulton, Rou-dabush, Rector, Powers, and Smith are resident advisors and Alan Livingstone is a hall chairman for the Residence Hall Federation. Several Brothers also won honors during our fall quarter. John Maine, Greg Fulton, and Zane Scott were selected for Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Kenneth Roller won an American Farmers Degree from the Future Farmers of America, Bill Reedy was inducted into Pi Sigma Alpha Political Science Honor Fraternity and John Maine was inducted into the Phi Kappa Phi and Omicron Delta Kappa honoraries.

Our chapter house has now received a good amount of fixing-up since acquiring it and our basement party room has been repainted and redecorated. We held several parties last quarter and one this quarter and they have all been successful. We are now working on several money making projects and are planning to sponsor a celebrity auction in the spring to help benefit a worthwhile charity in the area. We are proud and happy to be a chapter of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity and we extend an open invitation to any Brother to come and visit our chapter.

Wabash College DePauw Weekend

The results of recent elections for next semester's officers are: Patrick E. Kunc, GP; Christopher K. Beebe, VGP; James B. Griffis, P; Jacob B. van Kretschmar, AG; Sean S. Butler, BG; D. Deane Popma, SG; Michael F. O'Quinn, Phu; Patrick Hale, Hod; and Bryan J. Williams, Hi.

The pledge program continues to function smoothly. On the Friday of a work-weekend before Homecoming, the freshmen had their walkout. However, any work not done during the weekend was completed during the following week.

Wabash College's Homecoming was October 23. The Wabash football team, boasting Brothers Kunc and O'Quinn and Pledges Carden, Marschand, and Ring among its ranks, beat St. Joseph's Pumas. Ben Kessler '71 donated a pig which was roasted on the front lawn and served in the evening. That night, the chapter had a dance in its Great Hall.

DePauw weekend, highlighted by the classic Monon Bell Game between Wabash and DePauw, was November 13. The Wabash Little Giants drove the "Dannies" into the ground. It had been three years since Wabash had held "The Bell." That evening, alumni, undergraduates and pledges with their wives and sweethearts enjoyed the annual pledge dance. This year the theme was "Bourbon Street."

Pat Hale returns to Wabash from London next semester as Rade Kljajic and Charles Turnbull go there for a semester of study. Kljajic will be studying at Oxford while Turnbull will be at the University of London. David Mamula will continue to study music and biology in Vienna next semester. John Watkins is going to Heidelberg, Germany, to study German.

Our first attempts in many years at a second semester rush are proving fruitful.

After a slow start, our standings in intramural competition are showing some improvement.

Our first semester has gone well. We hope that our second semester here will be even better.

JACOB VAN KRETSCHMAR, Correspondent

University of Washington Rush Planned for Spring

A high pledge class attrition rate combined with many graduating seniors have created low membership and a veil of low moral this past quarter.

The goal for winter quarter is to organize a second pledge class. To aid in this, our social program has been incorporated into rush. This plan specifies that no organized social event shall take place unless rushees are present. Events planned are a fire party dance and a date function with a rushee in January, snow innertubing and a roaring 20's dance in February, and numerous exchanges throughout the quarter.

Officers ushering in winter quarter are: Kevin Austin, GP; Dale Hackney, VGP; Brian Geppert, AG; Peter Jackson, P; Keene Crews, BG; Gilbert Salvador, SG; Mark Borys, Phu; Marty Wyckoff, Hi; Fred Kimborowicz, Hod; and Gregg Taylor, House Manager. Congratulations to Summerfield award winner Mark Wise.

Founders Day celebration will be on February 17, at the College Club. Guest speaker will be Seattle Police Chief Hansen.

Washington and Jefferson Brothers Cap Honors

It has been a hectic first semester for the Brothers of Pennsylvania Alpha. Recalling some highlights: despite a somewhat disappointing 6-3 record (if such a thing is possible) many Phi Psis have distinguished themselves with outstanding individual performances on the gridiron by being selected to the President's Athletic Conference All-PAC football squad. Junior Tud Cuneo repeated his selection at first team defensive tackle; junior John Noble and senior Albert Cuneo made the second team defensive team at defensive end and linebacker, respectively. Vinnie Richmond made the honorable mention list at defensive end. Looking at the current winter varsity scene, seniors Larry Parker at 150 and Angelo Morasczyk at 142 join juniors Robert Daschbach at 126, Gerry Cerrone at 150, and John Noble at 177 in the starting line-up of Washington and Jefferson's varsity wrestling team. Senior Tom Drakeley, a returning letterman, looks forward to a point productive season on the varsity basketball team.

On the intramural fields, the Phi Psi football seven reached the semi-finals before being eliminated and finished with a 6-3 slate. Last year's runner-up Phi Psi basketball squad should again rank among the league's toughest teams. The intramural wrestling line-up returns four individual champs and should again cinch the title. The racquetball squad went through the regular season undefeated only to be upset in the play-offs.

Athletics were not the only area in which Phi Psis shine. Gary Silverman was selected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. William Grey Treesler copped numerous individual trophies and awards during the past intercollegiate debate season. And last, but certainly not least, Robert J. Somplatsky was selected by the Brothers as this year's Solon E. Summerfield Award winner for outstanding leadership and scholarship.

Rush has been progressing quite well since September and the Brothers look forward to another outstanding pledge class for February.

To commemorate a truly historic occasion—the 125th anniversary of the Founding of our Fraternity—the Brothers of the Mother Chapter are planning extensive festivities to celebrate this memorable day. In conjunction with the February 19, 1977, holiday, the Brothers are planning formal induction of last year's pledge class along with a formal pledging ceremony for this year's pledges. The ceremonies will be held in the Washington and Jefferson College Chapel and all of the alumni from the chapter will be invited to aid in the inductions and subsequent celebrations. This will also give us a chance to show off the redecorating of our chapter room and living room, done over the Christmas break. We also would like to take this opportunity to invite all Phi Psis to stop in and get to know the Brothers who are Pennsylvania Alpha.

Washington and Lee University Records 22 Pledges

The Brothers of Virginia Beta are proud of their new pledge class. The 22 new men are: Jay Blumberg, Boonton, N.J.; Boyd Breeding, Lynchburg; Scott Caddell, Owings Mill, Md.; Dick Calcemmo, Villanova, Pa.; Arthur Caltrider, Reisterstown, Md.; Chip Childs, Casanova; Douglass Dorsey, Englewood, Colo.; Steven Hollowell, Jenkintown, Pa.; John Hamilton, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Paul Hendry, Darien, Conn.; Mark Klaus, Dave Myers, Marc Ottinger, William Matthai, Baltimore, Md.; Roman Kupecky, Lincoln Park, N.J.; Martin Piccoli, Somerset, N.J.; Doug Pinotti, Williamsburg, Hugh Robinson, Lutherville, Md.; Steven Siani, Bryn Mawr, Pa.; John Stout, Kingston, N.Y.; Steven Tumen, Cincinnati, Ohio; and Gregg Walker, Anchorage, Ky.

In October, the chapter initiated four men from last year's pledge class. They are: Dave Leunig, Louisville, Ky.; Robert Marvin, Rhinebeck, N.Y.; Tom Morville, Newton, N.J.; and Randy Sacks, Chevy Chase, Md.

Fall term at Washington and Lee was filled with a variety of social events. Our Homecoming costume-grain party was a particular success. The pledge banquet this year featured steaks and champagne. We would like to express our thanks to Roy Steinheimer (Kansas Alpha), Dean of the Washington and Lee Law School, and Frank Parsons (Virginia Beta), assistant to the President at W and L, for their presence at the banquet.

With our new pledges augmenting the strong sports teams, the Brothers have entered the intramural competition with enthusiasm. Strong finishes were recorded in golf and tennis, while the football team fought its way to the playoffs. On the intercollegiate level, co-captain Jeff Barr was selected to the all-Old Dominion Athletic Conference soccer team. Ted Hissey and Steve Dibiagio were chosen to the all-ODAC football squad. With the early season already in full swing, Dave Leunig, Bob Florenza, Pat Dennis, and Mike Wenke have led the Generals basketball team to a 5-1 mark. Dennis leads all scorers with a better than 20 points per game average.

On campus, freshman pledge Dave Meyers was elected president of the freshman class. John Berley continues to put in long hours as head of the Student Activities Board, and Mickey Knapp, our Solon Summerfield Award winner, directs IM's and the Minority Affairs Committee.

The newly elected officers are: Jerry Maatman, GP; Andy Fitzgerald, VGP; Bob Florenza, P; Paul Dougherty, AG; and Tom Morville, BG.

West Virginia University Initiation Planned for Founders Day

The weekend of February 19 promises to be very eventful. Initiation will be held following the West Virginia-Notre Dame basketball game. There will also be a special chapel service for the commemoration of the 125th anniversary of the founding of the Fraternity. It is hoped that many alumni will be present for this occasion.

Homecoming activities at West Virginia University were held the weekend of October 23. The Phi Psis, along with the sisters of Alpha Xi Delta won the float competition. Friday evening an alumni cocktail party was held with many returning Brothers and their wives in attendance. A pre-game luncheon was held on Saturday followed by a party after the game. We were very glad to see such a good turnout and are looking forward to an even better homecoming next year.

Intramurally, the Phi Psis remain on top again. At the end of first semester we had a substantial number of points to boast the number one spot. We are looking forward to this semester in anticipation of a fifth straight intramural cup award.

Elections were held in early December to select the leaders for the spring semester. Chosen were Timothy Miller, GP; Gregory Veach, VGP; John Giamalis, BG; John Morris, Hi; Mark Starcher, Phu; and Charles Haslebacher, Hod. The fraternity is sure to have continued success under their able leadership.

The Christmas chapel service was on the night of December 9. The sisters of Delta Gamma attended the very colorful service. Chaplain Steve Jenkins deserves credit for a very well organized program.

Kim Craig, a finance major from Clarksburg, was the recipient of the Solon E. Summerfield Award. Kim was selected for the award on the basis of his leadership to the fraternity, while at the same time maintaining a high scholastic standing.

Other Brothers deserving mention are William "Sky" King, John Morris, Patrick Whalen, and Grant Zech who were recently initiated into Fi Batar Cappar.

As always, West Virginia Alpha extends a hearty invitation to all Brothers—whether they desire a bed, a meal, or simply the warmth of true brotherhood.

PATRICK D. WHALEN, Correspondent

Wittenberg University Winter Approaches

With the winter term approaching, new officers were elected to prepare for the coming year. New officers are: Dick Bittner, GP; Doug Beckman, VGP; Bob McGonigle, P; Bob Mitchell, Assistant P; John Ballinger, Phu; Dave Mabry, Hod; Jamie Brugler and Chris Beal, SG; Kurt St. Clair, Hi.

New rush chairman Dave Mabry and his committee have been working diligently getting ready for winter term rush, and they are confident that Ohio Beta will once again have a fine selection of pledges.

We are proud of our men who are participating in varsity athletics this year. Mike Drenan started at defensive tackle for the Ohio Conference champion Wittenberg Tigers, and recently was selected as first-team all-conference defensive tackle. Scott Wolfanger and Doug Beckman lettered for the soccer team, with Ken Kendall also seeing action. Kurt St. Clair, Jeff Shipman, Bob Schmidt, Gary Tilt, and Andy Brandt all played on the newly formed rugby team this fall, and are anxiously awaiting the spring season.

Homecoming was a success as many alumni returned to Buckeye Beta. Also, we teamed up with the Gamma Phi Beta sorority to capture first place in the Homecoming float competition.

Colonies

University of Arizona Major Goal

Arizona Alpha Colony has one major goal on its mind—chartering. Six new brothers have increased the colony's membership to 22, making the colony stronger and the tentative chartering date of March 26, 1977, seem that much closer. Chapter Consultant Guy Minardi visited with the colony from December 1, through December 6, and aided the colony in its preparation for the big day.

The first fellowship weekend between Arizona Alpha Colony and Arizona Beta Chapter at Tempe took place on November 27 and 28. The turkey bowl in which Alpha opposed Beta in a flag football game was the highlight of the weekend. In an exciting offensive game, Alpha came from behind to defeat Beta by a score of 31 to 25. The evening following the game, Arizona Beta gained its revenge. Brothers from both cities attended the University of Arizona-Arizona State University football game, in which ASU emerged victorious.

Arizona Alpha members also plan to spend Founders Day with their brothers from Tempe. This event is scheduled to take place at the Arizona Beta home.

December 4, the colony participated in the 126-mile relay from the ASU campus to the UA campus. Thirteen brothers, including Chapter Consultant Guy Minardi, ran the marathon, alternating at half mile intervals. They completed the race in just under 14 hours.

Interfraternity council participation has been one of the Colony's strongpoints this year. This is evident by the positions currently held by Phi Psis. Tom Oxnam was elected IFC president, and Rick Christ, Scott Hiitt and Lou Hoffman all hold committee chairmanships.

New officers were elected for the second semester and they are: Mike Molina, GP; Tom Dunklee, VGP; Steve Fowler, P; Louis Michael Hoffman, BG; Chauncey Hill, Hod; Greg Smith, Phu; and Tom Oxnam, Hi.

Arizona Alpha plans to continue working, building towards that all important chartering date.

LOU HOFFMAN, Correspondent

University of California, Berkeley Cal Gamma Is Back!

Rushing and the renovation of our house will be the major activities of the California Gamma Colony for the rest of the year. Our main goal is chartering, and we hope to achieve that on April 15, 1977. Everyone has been working hard, believing that we will be able to reach this goal.

To keep up with the national news, Blake Yeaman and Gary Goldstein attended the GAC this past summer. Then to get ideas for our colony, Blake, Gary, and Peter Harvey attended the ELC.

Good colony officers are essential when a colony is striving for a charter, and ours have worked far beyond what was expected of them. They are: Peter Harvey, GP; Matt Lorence, VGP; Greg Sawdey, AG; Harold Thompson, BG; Blake Yeaman, P, Hi; Lars Enevoldsen, Phu; Sandy Boyd, Hod; Mike Aczon, SG; Hugh MacInnis, House Manager; Kim Koch, Steward. We are proud of them all.

A quick list of our members will show how far we have come in the past year. Actives: Mike Aczon, Harold Thompson, Peter Harvey, Blake Yeaman, Kim Koch, Hugh MacInnis, Matt Lorence, Sandy Boyd, Lars Enevoldsen, Gary Goldstein. The pledges are: Gordon Cann, Steve Eichenlaub, Bob Bleicher, Mark Ney, Keith Taylor, Roger Snell, Ernie Beerink, Clark Danielson, Greg Thompson, Jim Rinne, Greg Sawdey, Bob Marshall, Declan Hoban.

It has been a busy year for our members. Harold Thompson is a Yell Leader, and is responsible for the enthusiasm at all of the sporting events at the school. Peter Harvey works at the NASA Satellite Research and Space Sciences Lab as a programmer. Blake Yeaman is on the wrestling team, and Keith Taylor is on the basketball and track teams.

As a colony we have also been very active. Many of our members played on the intramural football team and had a lot of fun. The pledge class has met all of the sororities and the entire house has had several exchanges.

Finally, we thank everyone who has helped us. Without the aid we have received, our Colony would never have gotten off the ground. All alumni should definitely stop by when in the area. The brothers would like to meet you all.

GREGORY PAUL SAWDEY, Correspondent

University of California-Davis Newest Colony

The Cal Iota Colony of Phi Kappa Psi was officially born on October 28, 1976 at the Davis campus of the University of California. Eight members were initiated that night, and two more have since joined our numbers. As of now, we are: Roy March, GP; Thomas Engberg, VGP; Lon Burford, AG; Michael Rizza, BG; David Woods; P; Mark Bryggman, Phu;

Gordon Havard, Hod; David Hutchinson, Hi; Rob Marani, and Jerry Short.

Our small numbers and relative newness to the Davis campus have by no means been an obstacle to us, as we have already achieved an excellent reputation. Our image as a gentlemen's fraternity is a novel one here, and it is serving us well.

Being new, we obviously have a tremendous amount of work to do, but we are not lacking in enthusiasm. Our first major objective, of course, is to build our membership, and we have planned an extensive dorm storming program placed high on our agenda for the beginning of January. As of now, our plans for Founders Day are revolving around a joint celebration with the Cal Gamma colony at UC Berkeley. In the spring we are staging our first annual Spring Lamb Bar-b-que, which should be a giant event. All alumni are being invited, as well as the Davis campus and community in general. Also this spring, we are planning a semi-formal dinner party and dance, as well as a possible Davis version of the Phi Psi 500. Tours of the California wine country, and excursions to San Francisco are a few of the activities we have planned.

We thank the chapters which have written to welcome our colony to the Phi Psi brotherhood. They have done much to encourage us and have made us feel very much a real part of this Fraternity. We are extremely proud to call ourselves Phi Psis.

University of Florida Colony Grows

Fall rush at the University of Florida netted six new pledges for Phi Kappa Psi. They are: Donald Roy Auray, Westport, Conn.; Arthur Blake Harper and Henry Retting, Miami; Larry Light, Gainesville; David Mayper, Hollywood; and Robert Wagner, Edgerton, Wis. These men bring our total to 23. Our goal date for chartering is April 2, 1977.

Phi Psis in Florida are invited to our Founders Day celebration on Saturday, February 19. Those who attended last Founders Day or this past Homecoming will especially want to make their reservations right away.

Congratulations are in order for Harry Light, who was recently selected to be the new chief justice of the University of Florida traffic court. On a campus with 28,000 students, this is a very important position.

We also congratulate Steve Favaloro, Florida Beta's Summerfield Scholar for 1976. Steve is a junior advertising major who plans to attend law school.

University of New Mexico Alumni Contact Wanted

At semester's end, the colony brothers of New Mexico Beta are looking forward eagerly to a fine spring rush. The initiation of our seven man pledge class in November brings our active membership to 12. Spring rush looks profitable, as we already have three men lined up to pledge.

We participated actively in football and volleyball intramurals this semester. We had no tremendous success in these areas, but we feel that we will be very competitive in the upcoming semester's intramurals.

Our colony grade point this semester should be high enough to put us in the running for the university's scholarship award.

We recently held mid-year elections. These new officers were inducted at our last official meeting of the fall semester: Alan May, GP; Tom Dietz, VGP; David Lillie, P; Steve Cubra, AG; Mark Lillie, BG; Mark Danford, Hod-Phu; and Mark Lamborn, SG-Hi.

We realize what an essential role our alumni in the Albuquerque area must play in the acquisition of our charter. We are working to get in touch with all of our approximately 55 alumni in this vicinity to stir up some interest in the formation of an Albuquerque Alumni Association. We have a Founders Day celebration being planned to officially begin our drive for alumni association organization. If, at this reading, we have missed any alumni in this area, PLEASE contact us at 247-4543. We really want to get everyone together.

University of Pennsylvania Seeking Rush Ideas

Phi Kappa Psi at the University of Pennsylvania is continuing its first semester as a colony. This semester has seen two major party functions at the semester's beginning which were used to bring the name of Phi Kappa Psi to the lips of all. Both parties were amazingly successful for us and we obtained many names of freshmen who were interested in us and the colony. This being our first semester of active rush we were in a position of wondering just how to go about it. Because of this, we of course made a few mistakes which we hastily corrected. We did this by asking other fraternities on our campus questions about their rush programs. Even though we were a "rival" group they were quite helpful to us.

Because of this, we now have a solid core of students for our pledge class. We have now entered our second part of our rush program which is fraternity education, and the appropriate committee has taken over the reins for this. This will involve not only our pledges, but also ourselves since we haven't gone through this either. Our rush program has been one of having a few major parties coupled with a weekly Monday Night football viewing on our color T.V. (donated by the alumni), and a cocktail/mixer hour every Wednesday night.

We are also asking our other brother chapters to submit to us their ideas which they have used for their rush programs, so as to help keep our program on a high note.

Again, we are asking for names of possible Phi Psi material now attending or who will be attending the University so we can contact them. We are also planning for a Founders Day weekend of festivities to be held in conjunction with other chapters in the Philadelphia area and our alumni next semester. All interested alumni please contact us at the colony house.

Alumni Associations and Clubs

Atlanta Alumni Association

For more than two years the Atlanta Alumni Association has worked on ONE major project. Establish a Phi Psi chapter in the state of Georgia. Our goal is now accomplished. On November 20, 1976, the Georgia Alpha Chapter at the University of Georgia was installed. All those who participated were very proud of the members of our newest chapter. They are hard workers and deserve our continued support and interest.

As part of our goal to establish Georgia Alpha, a house was rented to serve as a fraternity house. Many of our alumni, along with the chapter members, helped in the renovation of the house. To those who joined in the work we extend a sincere thank you. Uppermost, though, are the thoughts we have for those who made a contribution of money and material to renovate and furnish the house. Without their help the house would not have been complete. To these Brothers we are all indebted.

Plans are underway for Founders Day, a celebration of our Fraternity's 125th year since founding. Mark the weekend of February 19 on your calendar. This should be more than just another Founders Day, so plan to attend. You will be getting more details in the mail shortly.

EDWARD E. TATE JR., Correspondent

Chicago Alumni Association

Founders Day will be celebrated this year with a banquet on Friday, February 18. Since it is the 125th anniversary of the founding of Phi Kappa Psi, we shall attempt to have a fine program and a memorable reunion of old friends and Brothers. Take a moment now and think of who you would like to see at dinner again. How about your roommate at college? Make a list of three or four Brothers and call them. Plan to meet at the Founders Day banquet. It will be worthwhile.

While you are thinking about it, figure back and see if you might be eligible for the Silver Council of Phi Kappa Psi. Brothers who have been initiated for 25 years or more and are in good standing will be invited into the Silver Council at the banquet. Please let us know ahead of time so that you can be included in the program. If by any chance when you count back you come up with 50 years since your initiation, the Golden Council of Phi Kappa Psi will welcome you. The same rules apply and we need to know in time to make the necessary arrangements.

Our closest local chapters have been invited to send undergraduate representatives who will share with us what is going on at Northwestern, Valparaiso and Illinois—you might ask about the pledge walk out at Illinois. It was spectacular. There is a Phi Psi colony at Madison, working to get Wisconsin Alpha back to life. There are even some stirrings in the long-dormant situation with Wisconsin Gamma at Beloit.

News and notices go to all members of the Chicago Alumni Association in good standing. Dues are $2.00 a year and enable us to use first-class mail. Your check should be sent to Thomas C. Whiting, Treasurer, Chicago Alumni Association, American Mart Corporation, 666 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

Columbia, South Carolina Alumni Club

The South Carolina Alumni Club underwent a great deal of evaluation during 1975, and with the injection of new ideas, the Columbia Alumni Association was formed. Much diligent work went into the realization of this goal and without the help of the recent graduates of the South Carolina Alpha Chapter and its undergraduate members we would not have come so far so fast.

The organization came about after establishing monthly luncheons in August, a steering committee in October, and finally petitioning for association status in December. During Founders Day celebrations in conjunction with South Carolina Alpha the announcement of association status is to be made.

One of the first social events to be scheduled was the first annual Christmas dropin held at the apartment of Frank McGwier. This function was enjoyed by one and all. Vast amounts of eggnog, cheese, and other party food were consumed.

Our luncheons have become a monthly function on the last Wednesday of every month at the Townhouse restaurant, located at 1615 Gervais St. Any alumnus is welcome to attend the luncheons which start at noon.

Correspondence concerning the alumni association should be directed to P.O. Box 1403, West Columbia, S.C. 29169.

Northern California Alumni Association

The main highlight of the fall quarter was the Cal-Stanford Big Game Luncheon, held at the University Club in San Francisco. It was a welcome change to see the undergraduates at this luncheon after a five-year absence. There were about 30 alumni and 25 undergraduates from California and University of California at Davis—both new colonies. Carl Stoney Jr. was the master of ceremonies and presented an unbiased view of the epic event. However, any of the Phi Psis who followed the prediction of Derry Cook were severely disappointed when Stanford scored the winning touchdown with less than a minute remaining in the game. For any of the alumni who missed this fantastic luncheon, you should mark in on your calendars for next year. It is always held at the University Club in San Francisco on the Friday before the Cal-Stanford game. There will be a Founders Day celebration marking the 125th anniversary of our Fraternity at the Cal Gamma Colony house in Berkeley. The cocktail party will be held on Saturday February 19. The house is located at the corner of Durant and Bowditch. For further details, please contact Denny Jones 798-2970 (office) or 676-3080 (home) or phone the Cal Gamma house 848-9260. We encourage all alumni in the area to attend the Alumni lunch which is held at The Leopard Cafe (140 Front Street, San Francisco) on the first Friday of the month.

Omaha Alumni Association

So far this has been a banner year for our group. We had a fine turnout at the summer picnic and duplicated our success with a rousing, well attended "Day-After Thanksgiving" party at Sam Amato's Delicatessen in Cedarknoll in Omaha. Everyone went wild over the food, the libations were ample and there was a nice blending of young and old members. Most were from Creighton, but a few Nebraska U. Phi Psis came in to drown their sorrows over the football game results that afternoon. Iowa Staters were present too, and were also unhappy about the NU-OU score. Tom Hoarty, our president, and Sam Amato, our host, are to be congratulated for planning and presenting a great party. Over 75 people attended with Squire McGuire traveling the farthest—coming in from Wisconsin!

Our next affair is to be the Founders Day Banquet, February 18, 1977, at the usual restaurant, "Venice Inn." Fraternity's Vice-President Sandy Chamberlain, steaks, cocktail hours and wine are all on tap. All area Phi Psis please mark this date on your calendar so that you can be present to honor our founders. John Crane, Penn State, will do his customary job of nominating next year's officers and we will all exercise our voting rights to pick good men to keep our association alive, healthy and growing. We will get a report from the Chapters in our region and can ask the Archon about Fraternity conditions in our District. A full and fun night.

We thank the Creighton chapter for their gracious invitation to a champagne and hors d'oeuvres birthday party commemorating their founding. Many of our alumni attended this party and reported that the chapter was a gracious host. We hope to continue fine undergraduate-alumni relations by having fine attendance at the Founders Day Banquet—so alumni and current Phi Psis let's plan to be together February 18!

Congratulations to all our new chapters.

THEODORE J. URBAN, Correspondent

Southern California Alumni Association

The Southern California Alumni Association consists of alumni in the Los Angeles and Orange County metropolitan areas. The association, as it does every year, is planning a large Founders Day Celebration to which all alumni and active members in the area are invited. We generally have a large turnout which includes active chapter members from USC, UCLA and California State University at Northridge in addition to local alumni.

Brothers in the area should make it a point to attend. The celebration will be held on February 18, 1977 at a place to be determined. Interested Brothers who are not on the association's mailing list should contact the Brothers listed below for current details.

In addition, the association holds luncheon meetings on the last Thursday of the months of January, March, April, May, June, September, and October at Taix Restaurant, 1911 West Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, commencing at approximately 12 noon. All undergraduates or alumni members are more than welcome to attend the luncheons and partake of the good time. Anyone in need of further information regarding either the Founders Day banquet or monthly meetings should contact either Mark Gibello at (213) 625-7941 or Rick Lyman or Mike Matthias at (213) 620-0300.

RICHARD W. LYMAN JR., Correspondent

St. Louis Alumni Association

The St. Louis Alumni Association will be celebrating Founders Day on Friday, February 25, this year, at the Breckenridge Pavilion Hotel. It portends to be a jovial occasion—and who knows? Maybe the "Cockroach Who Ate Cincinnati" will make another appearance! Even if he doesn't, the Missouri Alpha choir will, and as always, we can expect a superlative performance.

Our annual Christmas cocktail party was very successful as we were once again joined by St. Louis area undergraduates home for semester break. Many thanks to Brother John Chulick, who hosted a party in August for which we had an excellent turnout, and plenty of wining and dining as a result of Brother Rick Curtis' gourmet barbequeing.

Brother Gump, by the way, decided to follow Jim Naylor's lead by getting engaged shortly after Jim tied the knot in October.

It seems St. Louis has established a monotony on matrimony of late, but I'm sure our Kansas City Brothers can't hold out forever. Who would take a bet on Brother Houcek being next?

John Henry Frizzell Dies at 95

John Henry Frizzell
Amherst '98

John Henry Frizzell, Amherst '98, chaplain emeritus and professor emeritus of public speaking at the Pennsylvania State University, died on Saturday, October 30, at his home in State College, Penn.

Born in Easthampton, Mass., Brother Frizzell was a graduate of Williston Academy and he received his bachelor of arts degree from Amherst in 1902 and the master of arts degree from Penn State in 1912. He later studied at the University of Pennsylvania.

He pledged Mass. Alpha at Amherst in June 1897 and was initiated Oct. 14, 1898. During the four years in the chapter, he held every office except G.P. He once remarked about Phi Psi, "Aside from my family, the Fraternity is the biggest thing in my life. I get no payment out of it. Lots of kudos, yes. But I have had the inner satisfaction of doing the best I could."

He joined the Penn State faculty in 1902 as an instructor in rhetoric and oratory, was named assistant professor of English in 1912, and later associate professor of English. He resigned in 1920 to become principal of the High School for Boys in Reading and from 1923 until 1926 served as field secretary of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

Returning to Penn State in 1926, he was named associate professor of public speaking, was promoted to professor in 1930, and when the Department of Speech was organized in 1935, was named head of the department, continuing in this position until his retirement in 1948.

He was appointed chaplain of the University in 1928 and served until 1948 during which time compulsory chapel attendance by students was discontinued. From his work as chaplain came two books, "Chapel Prayer Book" and "For Days of Crisis." He continued writing a brief daily prayer, published for many years on the front page of the Centre Daily Times, State College newspaper. He wrote over 7,000 prayers.

In 1910, Brother Frizzell founded the Eastern Public Speaking Conference, which is the parent organization of the national Speech Association of America. He helped to found the Pennsylvania Debating League and served as president in 1932. This later became the Debating Association of Pennsylvania Colleges, of which he was executive secretary. He was founder and first president of the Pennsylvania Speech Association and the Speech Round Table of the Pennsylvania State Education Association.

In 1932, he established the Speech Clinic at Penn State.

From 1903 to 1912 and 1926 to 1930, he was debate coach and he continued as director of debating until his retirement. He was sponsor of Delta Sigma Rho, debating honorary. In 1905, he published

"Notes on Public Speaking," which was one of the first texts on public speaking.

Professor Frizzell was a member of the original Board of Freshmen Advisors, organized in 1908, and he continued as advisor to students in speech and religion until his retirement.

From 1926 to 1946 he was an active member and officer of the Penn State Christian Association and a member of the Penn State in China Committee.

He served for many years as an advisor to both the Penn State Collegian, student newspaper, and Penn State Froth, humor magazine. He was a director and treasurer for many years of Penn State Thespians.

Active in the affairs of Phi Kappa Psi, he worked for the installation of a chapter at Penn State beginning in 1905 until its installation in 1912. He attended the 1906, 1910 and 1912 GAC's in the support of Pennsylvania Lambda. He served, either formally or informally, as Chapter Advisor to Pennsylvania Lambda for over 50 years.

He attended his first Grand Arch Council in 1902 and his last in 1966. Over this span, he attended a total of 11 GAC's. He was initiated into the Order of SC in 1954. He was made Mystagogue in 1952 and served until 1966. He served as Mystagogue Emeritus until his death.

A son, John Strangford, now deceased, was also a Phi Psi, Penn State '28.

In 1965, the Pennsylvania Lambda Educational Foundation of Phi Kappa Psi established the John Henry Frizzell Award in his honor.

Professor Frizzell was a member of two scholastic honor societies: Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Eta Sigma.

In Chapter Eternal "Lest We Forget"

RICHARD C. PATTERSON, Purdue '03, died on August 30, 1976, at the age of 96.

EDWIN M. LAVINO, Pennsylvania '05, prominent shipper and importer, died July 8, 1976, in Philadelphia. He was 90. As honorary board chairman and retired president of E. J. Lavino & Co., Brother Lavino directed the firm's interests in mines in South Africa, Cuba, and North Carolina. The company also was a major manufacturer of refractories, ferromanganese and manganese dioxide. He was at one time the director of the Girard Bank, Lehigh Railroad, and Luzerne Products.

He was mayor of Longport, Pa. from 1921 to 1943, president of the board of trustees of the Lawrenceville School from 1947 to 1963, and was a trustee of Germantown Academy and president of the board of the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, Longport.

He is survived by a daughter, a son, and eight grandchildren.

A member of the Episcopal Church since 1905, he began the first organized church work among Episcopal students of the State College community. These students became the oldest chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrews in continuous existence. He was a lay reader in the Episcopal Church since 1905. His many years as a vestryman of St. Andrews Episcopal Church in State College was a direct outgrowth of the work begun by the student chapter of the Brotherhood and materially assisted through the Diocese of Harrisburg in raising funds for the erection of the Church.

Through Phi Psi, he met his first wife, May Newell Reynolds, sister of a fraternity brother from Stockport-on-Hudson, New York. They were married in 1906 and had three children, Marjorie, John and Rensselaer. In 1960, six years after May's death, John Henry married Bertha Jackson Watkins in the Eisenhower Chapel on Penn State's campus. She, Marjorie and Rensselaer are the only survivors.

FREDERICK G. SMITH, Syracuse '05, died on September 11, 1976 at Johnstown, Pa. He was a member of the Order of the S.C. and had attended nine GACs.

CLARENCE S. DIKE, Colgate '08, died July 1, 1976. He taught English at Atlantic City (N.J.) High School for 42 years, the last ten as head of the department.

Survivors include his widow and two sons.

GEORGE HILL, Kansas '08, died on October 1, 1976 at Paola, Kansas.

EDWIN L. STRANDBERG, Washington '14, of Seattle, died November 13. He was one of the founding members of Washington Alpha. Brother Standberg was a retired structural engineer and a member of the Engineers Club of Seattle and the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Surviving are a daughter, Willamay, and a Brother, Arthur, Washington '15.

Vernon F. Tinsley

VERNON F. TINSLEY, Columbia '51, a former Des Moines architect of Clearwater, Fla., died July 19, 1976 at Estes Park, Colo. at age 86. Brother Tinsley began his practice in 1923 and retired in 1953.

He was a member of the Order of the S.C. and had attended seven GACs.

He is survived by his widow, a daughter, and a son, John H. Tinsley, Iowa State '52.

FRANK S. KELLY JR., Minnesota '16, died September 30, 1976 in Seattle. He was a veteran of WWI, first serving with the French Army, later with the American Expeditionary Force. He was awarded the Croix De Guerre with three clusters from Marshal Phillippe Petain. At the University of Minnesota he was captain of the track team. Before retirement, he was engaged in the banking business for 50 years in Chicago.

He was one of six brothers who were Phi Psis. Surviving are three brothers, Edward E. Kelly; Louis J., Michigan '25; and Paul T., Michigan '27.

RAYMOND A. PHELPS, Beloit '16, died Sept. 1, 1976 in Boca Raton, Fla. A retired advertising executive, Brother Phelps had been associated with Earle Ludgin Advertising Agency in Chicago and was the former advertising manager of the Ozite Corp. in the Merchandise Mart.

Surviving are his widow, a daughter, and a brother.

KENT ANDREW BUCHANAN, Illinois '17, died November 12, 1975 at the age of 70 in Bucyrus, Ohio. Brother Buchanan earned his Bachelor of Science degree in education from Harvard University, LL.B. and juris doctor degrees from Yale Law School. He was the deputy attorney general, State of Ohio in 1938. He served as special consultant for Union Trust Bank in Cleveland.

He is survived by his widow.

THADDEUS C. (TED) MOONEY, Illinois '18, died September 27, 1976 in Champaign, at the age of 76. Brother Mooney was very active both as an undergraduate and as an alumnus of Illinois Delta. He served on the board of directors of the U. of I. Association of Phi Kappa Psi for over 30 years, and was its president for eight years.

He was active in community affairs and was chairman of the Illinois Public Aid Advisory Board. He was a charter member of the board of Mercy Hospital's School of Nursing.

He is survived by his wife, Adelaide, a son, four brothers and a sister.

HAROLD B. WARE, Allegheny '18, died on October 8, 1976 at age 77. He had worked for 39 years as a teacher in the Media school district until his retirement in 1964. He was a WWI veteran and received both graduate and undergraduate degrees at Allegheny.

ANSON WALKER PERKINS, Wisconsin '21, died in November, 1976, at the age of 78. He was one of the few surviving members of the 1928 Byrd expedition to the South Pole. Brother Perkins left his insurance job in 1928 and joined Adm. Richard E. Byrd's polar expedition group as a shiphand. The expedition set out from New York in a wooden ship built for whaling in 1885, and arrived at the Ross Ice Shelf in Antarctica on Christmas Day, 1928. Byrd and three men left their home base in a Ford Tri-motor airplane and crossed the polar ice caps in a circular route over the South Pole. A flag was dropped to indicate the pole and the first flight over the pole on Nov. 29, 1929. The group returned to a hero's welcome in New York City. When it disbanded, Perkins returned to the insurance business.

DR. THOMAS LYMAN MEADOR, Oregon '23, died September 26, 1976 in Portland. Brother Meador was a graduate of the Oregon Medical School and attended Yale University. He was the retired chief health officer for the City of Portland, where he began work in 1939. He retired in 1966. He was instrumental in starting three preventive health clinics in Portland and founded the Suicide Prevention Center.

Surviving are two sons, two sisters, a brother and one grandchild.

WALTER C. GUMAER, Colgate '26, an executive with the New York Telephone Co. for 41 years, died August 24, 1976. While an undergraduate, he had been a vice president of his class. He began his career with the telephone company in 1929 and rose to division sales manager and personnel director, retiring in 1972.

Surviving are his wife, daughter and three grandchildren.

CLIFFORD P. HOUGLAND, Iowa State '26, a retired engineer and retired Navy Commander died May 20, 1976 at the age of 67 in McLean, Va.

He is survived by his wife, Betty, and three children.

W. HERB SCHUH, Washington '28, died on November 10, 1976.

HERBERT L. SPENCER, Nebraska '28, died on August 9, 1976, following a short illness.

STEPHEN JOHN PYLE, Swarthmore '29, died October 28, 1976, the apparent victim of a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

He is survived by his widow and seven children.

JAMES P. MCCLINTOCK, Iowa '32, died August 26, 1976, at University Hospital, Columbus, Ohio. He was the former president of the Sunray Stove Manufacturing Co. and recently had engaged in the practice of private management consulting. He was serving on the U.S. President's Committee of Defense Executive Reserve at the time of his death.

His survivors include his widow, and three daughters.

WILLIAM F. NAGEL JR., Allegheny '33, of Solana Beach, Calif., died January 17. A former U.S. Steel executive, he and his wife had lived in California since his retirement.

He is survived by his wife, a son and a grandson.

MARK W. BOWSER, Wittenberg '35, died at Lima, Ohio on September 7, 1976.

He is survived by his widow, three children, two grandchildren, and one brother.

ROBERT L. FINCH, Southern California '37, died on July 4, 1976.

STEPHEN G. LAX, Swarthmore '38, died on October 3, 1976, from a series of illnesses brought on by acute leukemia. He had been the Chairman of the Board of Managers for Swarthmore since 1971. He was a graduate of the Harvard Law School and founder of SGL Industries.

BRUCE M. BROWER, Colorado '41, died on September 26, 1976. He was a senior vice president at Winters National Bank and Trust, Dayton, Ohio.

He is survived by his wife and two daughters.

DANIEL J. BUSTRAAN, LaFayette '44, died at his home in Corning, New York in October, 1976. He was a design engineer with Corning Glass Works.

Surviving are his widow, a son, a daughter, his father and a sister.

FRANKLYN MARION CHANDLER, Oregon State '48, died Oct. 3, 1976 of a heart attack. He was a charter member of Oregon Beta and a president of that chapter. He retired in 1972 from the Hood River Railroad as a company officer and auditor.

He is survived by his wife, Gretta, two children and two grandchildren.

DONALD D. NOBLE, Nebraska '50, died on June 15, 1976, at age 44. As an undergraduate, he was president of his chapter and Archon of District V. A graduate of the College of Pharmacy, University of Nebraska. He was the owner of Noble Pharmacy in Holdrege and served for the past seven years on the Nebraska State Board of Examiners in Pharmacy. He also assisted in the planning of the new Comprehensive Health System for Nebraska.

He is survived by his widow, Barbara, and three sons.

DR. R. BRUCE MILLION, Indiana '51, died October 26 at Bloomington, Ind. He had practiced optometry at Frankfort, Ind., where he was a member of Rotary, the Moose, the Elks, and the Presbyterian Church.

Survivors include his parents and a brother, Rodney, Indiana '52.

DAVID R. PHILLIPS, Rhode Island '72, died November 21, 1976 as a result of drowning. He had been reported missing for three days before divers recovered his body about 50 feet offshore in Galilee Harbor, Rhode Island.

In addition to his mother and father, he is survived by a brother and sister.

JOSEPH S. KIMMELL III, Iowa State '73, was killed in a diving mishap on the Mississippi River in Davenport, Iowa, August 22, 1976. He was a senior mechanical engineering major at Iowa State and had held various offices in Iowa Beta.

He is survived by his parents, two sisters and a grandmother.

George L. Earnshaw, Swarthmore '19, hero of 1929 World Series.

GEORGE L. EARNSHAW, Swarthmore '19, a 20-game winner with Connie Mack's American League pennant-winning teams in 1929-31, died December 1, 1976 in a Little Rock, Ark., hospital. He was 76.

The right-handed pitcher got his start in baseball with the Baltimore Orioles and another Phi Psi, John M. Ogden, Swarthmore '15. He moved to Philadelphia in 1928 and finished that year with a 7-7 record. His record for 1929 was 24-8, 22-13 the following year and was 21-7 in 1932.

He was 1-1 in the 1929 World Series won by the Athletics. They repeated as world champion in 1930, as Brother Earnshaw pitched 25 innings and allowed only two runs while winning two games. He was 1-2 in the 1931 World Series that the St. Louis Cardinals won in seven games.

In the 1929 Series, he lost a pitching battle to the Chicago Cubs' Guy Bush, 3-1, striking out 10 and giving up only six hits.

He was sold to the Chicago White Sox after winning eight games in 1933. He was later a pitching coach for the Phillies.

Born in New York, Brother Earnshaw was raised in Upper Monclair, N.J. He moved to Hot Springs, Ark., in 1952 and was director of personnel with Dierks Forests, which is now Weyerhaeuser. He retired in 1962.

He was a gunnery officer on the aircraft carrier Yorktown in World War II and received the Bronze Star.

He is survived by his wife, one son and two daughters.

PHI PSI Luncheons

One of the distinctive features of being a Phi Psi is how the bonds of brotherhood are maintained after leaving the college campus. Often, the prime vehicle for sustaining those friendships is the Alumni Association. Listed below are the times and locations of the Fraternity's Alumni Association meetings. Check for the association nearest you and attend their next meeting. You will enjoy seeing familiar faces and will become active in "Something of Value."

THE NATIONAL INTERFRATERNITY CONFERENCE BOARD OF DIRECTORS—1977

Proof Positive That Fraternity Membership Is Increasing

Ever think much about the graffiti on the class-room desk tops? William E. Koch, an associate professor of English and folklore at Kansas State University, is an expert. He has recently completed his latest study on the topic. His interest is in the humor and as a folklorist rather than in the psychological aspects. His findings, reported in a UPI article, show that 63 per cent of the samples he examined were either humorous or serious, 32 per cent were either pornographic or erotic and five per cent were religious. Some of the researcher's favorites are: "Eat garbage, 10 million flies can't be wrong," "Superman wears pantyhose," "The older you get—the better you were," and "Oedipus, call your mother." He also reports the number of fraternity and sorority carvings have increased since his first study in 1972!

Enrollment Drops for the First Time in 25 Years

Earliest reports indicate college enrollment has declined this fall for the first time since 1951. The initial findings of Garland G. Parker, executive director for enrollment policy and educational research at the University of Cincinnati, show a drop of one per cent from last year's high. Total projected 1976 enrollment is 11,126,000, down from 11,200,000 in 1975-76. Earlier estimates indicated a four per cent increase could be expected.

Fraternities Back at SUNY

After being banned for 23 years, national fraternities and sororities are legal on the 30 campuses of the State University of New York system as the result of a November trustees' vote.

The trustees said that discrimination and exclusivity, factors which originally prompted the ban, were no longer prevalent. SUNY fraternities and sororities will be required to sign non-discrimination pledges.

On some SUNY campuses, which have developed strong local Greek organizations, memberships are debating the advantages and disadvantages of affiliating with national organizations.

It's a Small World

Not long ago, our Cleveland Office received a photograph and this letter. We thought we'd pass it along. "I went to work for a company called Russell Coil Company located in Brea, Calif. It happened on the first day at the job. I was chatting with the older gentlemen in the picture. We got talking about college and fraternities when I mentioned the fact that I was in a fraternity. He had asked me which one and I said, "Phi Kappa Psi." What blew me out was when he shook my hand and sure enough he was a Phi Psi also.

"The other gentleman is also a Phi Psi. He works for GE and is one of Russell Coil's main suppliers.

"Well ever since we all found out what we had in common, you would think we had all known each other for years. By the way, Brother Cozens is one of Phi Psi's 'Lost Brothers.' It's nice to see that even after graduation we still care about each other."

John Kemper Named Fraternity Historian

John T. Kemper, Wabash '69, was appointed the Fraternity Historian during the Fall. He has begun work on two major projects for the Fraternity. He has started preparation for the production of a supplemental volume to the Centennial History covering the period 1952 through 1977. Current plans call for the book to follow the same format as the Centennial History with emphasis on readability while providing a ready reference to the last quarter century. The minutes of the Grand Arch Councils and the Executive Council will be reviewed along with THE SHIELD and various Fraternity records. Contributions and suggestions are welcome.

His second project is to evaluate the current collection of historical material in the Fraternity's archives making recommendations regarding its use, storage and preservation. Part of this work is directed at soliciting gifts or loans of items of potentially historic interest to the Fraternity. This program was given a much appreciated kick off recently when Virginia Beta presented its charter to Executive Director Ralph D. (Dud) Daniel. This charter, granted in 1855, was hand lettered by Thomas Cochran Campbell and is the oldest Phi Kappa Psi Charter in existence. While documents, photographs, publications and other memorabilia from the nineteenth century are most sought after, similar items from more recent years are welcome. Any type of historical material may be sent to Brother Kemper in care of the Executive Director.

HISTORIC INDIANAPOLIS LANDMARK PURCHASED FOR FRATERNITY HEADQUARTERS

A Message From the President . . .

FOUNDERS DAYS filled the month of February and will go on into late fall as Chapters and alumni meet on Chapter anniversaries and university homecomings. "Great," "The best in the last 20 years," "Our chapter's first real Founders Day and I can't believe the feeling . . . the Brotherhood," "This put it all together again for the chapter and the alumni," "The sun shines bright in Columbus today for Phi Kappa Psi," are among the thousands of enthusiastic responses to Founders Day 1977.

Your President was honored to be able to accept invitations to Founders Days across the country. I started at Colorado Alpha; the next week found me at Oregon Beta which hosted the Oregon Phi Psis; the next week I celebrated with the Clevelanders at Ohio Epsilon and the West Virginians at West Virginia Alpha; the last weekend of the month found me in Columbus celebrating with Ohio Alpha, Ohio Delta and Ohio Lambda at Ohio Delta. In addition, my business has taken me to several cities where I have visited and been hosted at Minnesota Beta, Mississippi Alpha and Arizona Beta. It has been great!

Are we growing? You bet! We now have new Colonies at Beloit College—Wisconsin Gamma reborn, Swarthmore College—Pennsylvania Kappa reborn and Tulane University—Louisiana Gamma.

New chapters? Yes Brothers! This spring saw the chartering of Arizona Alpha at the University of Arizona. This grand chapter is back in the proud heritage of its past and its dynamic present. The fall of 1977 will bring three more chapters into the Fraternity's membership: Florida Beta at the University of Florida; California Gamma, University of California, Berkeley; and Pennsylvania Iota, University of Pennsylvania. The addition of these chapters is eagerly awaited.

Activity? Almost more than we can handle. The Quarter Century Commission has met to again give its attention to the Fraternity and our needs to the end of the century. Appointed Officers are meeting and working. Public Relations officers are about to give birth to a fine new publication for programming this area of need. The Endowment Trustees will have some exciting news for us in the near future. The Permanent Fund Trustees are giving valued time and counsel in the area of finance for our new Executive Office Building in Indianapolis. Dud's Executive Staff is so busy in the background and in chapter service that we can only keep up with them from good reports.

Alumni? Great involvement! Renewed alumni interest and work are a real asset. Their often unrecognized work keeps us alive and strong. House Corporations do an outstanding job in chapter house management. Alumni Associations and Clubs are stirring again. Chapter alumni organizations are identifying themselves again with the undergraduate Chapter.

Alumni support? A new record! The 1976 alumni support year saw an outstanding response in the amount of $92,000.00. We have set a higher budget goal for alumni support in 1977, and we have done it with the confidence that our alumni will again rise to the challenge of financial support. How about $1.00 for each year of our life. Add a few dollars to your contributions and we can make it to $125,000.00 to celebrate this milestone.

Your Executive Council exhorts you to join the "active" team of the Fraternity to help guarantee our future. We have no doubts about our future, but that is our challenge to success. Each member of the Fraternity, whether in a colony, a chapter, on the E.C. or Executive staff, or one of our thousands of alumni, has a significant role to play.

Your Fraternity is alive, well and growing. We hope that each Brother is on board to be a part of the continuing joy that is Phi Kappa Psi.

The Installation of Georgia Alpha

GEORGIA Alpha of Phi Kappa Psi was installed November 20 at the University of Georgia and became Phi Psi's 77th chapter.

The installation team consisted of J. Kenneth Potter, Robert W. (Sandy) Chamberlain Jr., David F. Hull Jr., Ralph D. (Dud) Daniel, Gary B. Angstadt, Thomas L. Kesler, Carl H. Bennett, Timothy J. Heup, and W. A. (Bert) Fridlin.

Colony brothers welcomed Phi Psis from across the nation at an informal reception Friday evening before the installation. The party was held in the colony's newly refurbished and glowing victorian mansion at 398 South Milledge Avenue in Athens.

Installation was held at the lovely Young Harris Methodist Church on Athens' Prince Avenue, known as Georgia's street of white columns.

After the ceremony, during which 30 colony brothers were welcomed into Phi Kappa Psi, a banquet was held in the elegant Old Georgian Hotel, with 104 members, guests, and dates attending. After the dinner, President Ken Potter gave a very inspiring speech, and Fraternity paraphernalia were received by chapter president Robert L. Puechl and other Brothers. Several toasts were presented throughout the evening, and messages of good will were read. The celebrants then returned to the Phi Psi house for a post-installation party.

The Brothers held their model chapter meeting Sunday morning, and had an open house that afternoon. Several university dignitaries attended the open house to extend their congratulations.

Phi Kappa Psi is not brand new to the University of Georgia. In 1883, the Grand Chapter at D.C. Alpha approved the petition for the chartering of Georgia Alpha. There were four names on the charter, two Brothers, William Archibald McClean (Pa. Epsilon '78) and Henry McAlpin (D.C. Alpha '83), and two pledges, Joseph E. Gallagher and William P. Flanders. Unfortunately, the communication system during that time was extremely slow, and during the waiting period the two pledges were lost due to deaths in their families and another who had pledged in the meantime transferred to another university. The two Brothers received word that the petition had been approved in May of 1883 (They had sent the petition to the G.C. the previous November), but they were graduating from the Law Department that June. They decided in the Fraternity's best interest to disband Georgia Alpha instead of risking its development with untried neophytes. Even though the members of Georgia Alpha were not initiated, the charter was granted and Georgia Alpha did exist before the re-establishment of the chapter in 1976.

The University of Georgia, established in 1785, is the oldest state chartered university in the United States. Classes were first conducted in 1801.

The first classes were held under the towering oak trees on a gentle slope above the Oconee River. While classes were being held out-of-doors, the college's first building was constructed. It was a log hut measuring 20 x 20 feet, and it cost less than $200.

Old College, an austere brick edifice copied directly from Connecticut Hall at Yale University (Georgia's first chancellor was a Yalie), was opened in 1805. Today it is beautifully preserved and houses university administration offices.

Attendance during the University's first years ranged between 30 and 40 male students. Women were not permitted to enter the university until 1918. Georgia's first commencement was held in 1804, when 10 students were graduated with the Bachelor of Arts degree.

The University's face has changed infinitely since those placid early days on the hill above the Oconee. But the flavor of ante-bellum days remains. To walk past the old white-columned chapel, which Yankees are said to have used for target practice in 1866, is to tread the path used by Alexander Stephens, vice-president of the Confederacy, and by Henry W. Grady, who would become editor of the Atlanta Constitution during Reconstruction and become forever the voice of the New South. Other men connected with the university are Crawford W. Long, a general practitioner honored in the U.S. Hall of Fame for his discovery and first use of ether as an anesthetic; Brigadier General Thomas R. R. Cobb, writer of the Newly initiated Brothers and their dates relax following a busy weekend of ceremonies and receptions.

Georgia Code and distinguished confederate leader; his brother Howell, also a general, who served as Secretary of the Treasury under President Buchanan; and J. H. Lumpkin, first chief justice of the Georgia Supreme Court.

Many of these men lived in the fine old white-columned mansions which give Athens the title, The Classic City.

Fraternities and sororities have preserved many of these gracious mansions. Notable among them are the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house, built in 1842. SAE was the first Greek fraternity to be established at UGA, formed in 1866, when the dust had scarcely settled after Sherman's March to the Sea. On Milledge Avenue, surrounding the Queen Anne style Phi Psi house, are the ante-bellum Kappa Alpha Theta house, the Phi Mu and Alpha Delta Pi houses, the Alpha Gamma Delta house, and the later houses of many other Greek organizations.

The Phi Psi house, formerly the J. H. Fleming home, a unique turreted structure, was built about 1893, and for many years served as an apartment house. The Phi Psi colony brothers took the 7000 square feet of floor space and converted the old mansion into a warm, liveable home. Brothers live together in apartment-style suites. The major rooms on the first floor are for social occasions. Easily the home's most striking feature is the cavernous entrance hall, paneled in golden oak, with its polished floor, red carpets, and gleaming chandelier. When Georgia Alpha took possession of the house, the entrance was painted white, and Brothers, working with alumni, stripped every trace of paint from the old wood. Brothers and alumni worked side by side for many weeks to repaint, replaster, and generally clean and refurbish the entire house. At the same time, Brothers were upholding number one rankings in academics and fall sports, and holding fall rush.

Indianapolis to Be Location Of Fraternity Headquarters

YOU can add another date to the list of Phi Psi historic events—February 1, 1977. On that day, the Fraternity purchased an historic circa 1860 home in Indianapolis' famous Lockerbie Square to serve as the Fraternity's national headquarters. The Lockerbie Square area will be especially interesting for Phi Kappa Psi, for the neighborhood and our building are on the National Register of Historic Landmarks, enjoying the historical legacy left by the Hoosier poet James Whitcomb Riley, DePauw '83. The Riley home, adjacent to our building, has been maintained since 1922 as a museum, an accurate representation of Victorian architecture and decor viewed by thousands of people who visit the home each year. Now Phi Psis will enjoy a tour of their Headquarters building as well!

Historic Neighborhood

Lockerbie Square is a six-block residential area within walking distance of downtown Indianapolis, and is a developing community now as it must have been 75-100 years ago. Although there are still several vacant and boarded up houses that have been allowed to deteriorate, there are a substantial number of new home owners who are working to bring this historical community back to life. The cost of restoring this building will be less than half that of new construction, and Phi Psi will enjoy Indiana's special tax considerations for fraternities and so will pay no property or state sales taxes.

The Indiana state legislature, in an effort to protect the historical aspects of the Square, passed an ordinance specifying the time period to the years 1890-1910. Gas lights, cobble stone and brick streets, underground power and communications services, all of these are the immediate goals for this old-time neighborhood.

Headquarters Building

The new Fraternity headquarters building is a two-story, red brick structure with a full basement and large attic. Restoration plans allow for maximum Fraternity office space needs, a field staff living quarters, and large areas for historic display. Our challenge is to build an efficient Headquarters facility that will be a credit to Phi Kappa Psi, and at the same time will reflect the special historic nature of the Fraternity and of Lockerbie Square.

Visiting Phi Psis will enter the Headquarters building from Lockerbie Street. The first floor will contain the Founders Room, a large living room/receptionist area with fireplaces at each end. Also on the first floor are three offices, a dining room/office, a mail room, a men's room and a powder room, and a complete kitchen. A stairway leads from the first floor to a full basement which will include storage space and rooms for future Fraternity office expansion.

The second floor will house the Woodrow Wilson Library, a spacious room with fireplaces to be used as a board room and an area reserved for interesting Fraternity artifacts. This floor also includes two offices, an Archives room, and a field staff quarters with a living room, two bedrooms and large bath. A stairway in the Archives room leads to the 34' x 34' attic that will serve as a "Brothers only" room for special esoteric display.

Victorian Furniture Donations Made Tax Deductible

The Lockerbie Square project is an exciting one for Phi Kappa Psi, for after nearly 50 years of renting office space the new building will be the first Phi Psi has ever maintained as a Headquarters site. Authenticity is the goal in restoration, so every Brother is encouraged to donate Victorian (1830-1880) furniture to the project. All gifts of authentic Victorian furniture are tax deductible, and should be shipped to:

Cornelius Printing Co.
Indianapolis, Indiana 46201

Phi Psis across the country will be asked to lend financial support for the move to Indianapolis. Anyone desiring further information should contact: Gary B. Angstadt, Assistant Executive Director, Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, 1940 East Sixth Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44114, telephone 216/781-1852.

1977 Summerfield Scholars

THE 1977 SOLON E. SUMMERFIELD SCHOLARS have been named in 71 Phi Psi chapters. The outstanding scholar-leaders are selected by their chapters and the honor includes a $100 grant and an official certificate.

The Endowment Fund of Phi Kappa Psi has presented the awards every year since 1960 from the income of a sizable trust fund bequeathed to the Fraternity by the late Solon E. Summerfield, Kansas '99.

This year's Summerfield Scholars are presented on this and the following two pages. From this group, a special committee of the Endowment Fund will select three Outstanding Summerfield Scholars to be announced later in the year. Those selected will receive cash awards. The Outstanding Summerfield Award winner will be presented with $1,000 and the first and second runners-up will receive $500 and $300, respectively.

Appointed

Those Who Take

Deputy
Attorney
General

REGINALD S. (REG) HAMEL, Duke '52, was president of North Carolina Alpha as an undergraduate. He spent several years with the U.S. Army and the National Security Agency as a Vietnamese Linguist. He received his J.D. from Wake Forest in 1962 and spent a year as research assistant to Associate Justice Higgins in the Supreme Court of North Carolina. Brother Hamel is currently in the general practice of law and is the senior member of the law firm of Hamel, Hamel & Pearce, P.A. in Charlotte, N.C.

Deputy
General

PAUL J. LAPUZZA, Creighton '66, was a charter member of the Omaha Area Alumni Association and is a past president of that group. Additionally, he serves as one of several chapter advisors to Nebraska Beta and as co-counsel to their house corporation. He is a U.S. Army reservist and is in the private practice of law in his own firm in Omaha where he and his wife reside.

Deputy
General

GEORGE W. HUMPHRIES, Oregon '50, has been an Area Director of District VI-C since the program was founded. Following graduation from college, two years in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean conflict, Brother Humphries obtained his Juris Doctor from the University of Denver, College of Law in 1959. He has attended five GACs and has been appointed a Deputy Attorney General since 1974. He is currently in private general law practice as a partner in the firm of Crane, Humphries & Croft in Glendale, Calif.

Deputy
General

G. KENT YOWELL, Colorado '46, comes from a family of three other Phi Psis. He has served the Fraternity in the past as Director of Extension and is currently a Permanent Fund Trustee, having been appointed this past GAC in Washington, D.C. As an undergraduate, he was instrumental in reactivating Colorado Alpha following World War II. He is a member of the Order of the S.C. Presently Brother Yowell is in the general practice of law in the Chicago area and a partner in the firm of Littlejohn, Glass & Yowell.

Deputy
General

TAYLOR H. OBOLD, Ohio Wesleyan '52, was president of his chapter during his senior year. He is an attorney and is head of the litigation department for Hiscock, Lee, Rogers, Henley and Barclay in Syracuse, New York. He is a past president of the Onondaga County Bar Association. He and his family reside in Fayetteville, New York.

Deputy
General

TRACY E. STAFFORD, Florida '67, has previously served Phi Kappa Psi as Archon of District IV. He is a charter member of Florida Beta and is currently engaged in the private practice of law in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. He also is serving as president of the Wilton Manors City Council, a suburban community adjacent to Fort Lauderdale.

Director of House Corporations

ROBERT H. GEORGE, Michigan State '54, is charged with the coordination of the chapter house corporations throughout the nation. He has held the position since 1972. Brother George was one of the petitioners when Michigan Beta was chartered in 1954 and served as chapter president twice. He is a member of the Order of the S.C. and has attended nine GACs. He is employed by the General Motors Corporation, Corporate Product Planning Group, North American Operation, near Warren, Michigan.

Director of
Relations

ROBERT W. BLAKE, Indiana '42, has served the Fraternity as Director of Extension, chapter advisor to Indiana Zeta, House Corporation director for Indiana Zeta and Indiana Beta, and a member of the Fraternity Headquarters Building Committee. He has attended four Grand Arch Councils. His prime objective is to coordinate the publishing of a Public Relations manual for the undergraduate chapters. Brother Blake is currently in his 25th year as a realtor in Indianapolis, Ind.

Assistant Director of
Relations

L. HYATT (PAT) EBY, Swarthmore '12, has long served the Fraternity in a variety of ways. Annually, he coordinates the news releases for the Solon E. Summerfield Scholars and periodically has chaired the Publications Committee. Still active in the advertising industry and other interests, he was recently reelected as president of the United Home Owners Associations of Bloomfield Township, Inc. (Mich.). A special award from the Endowment Fund was presented to Brother Eby at the 1976 GAC in honor of his service to the Fraternity. The 1976 meeting was his 13th consecutive GAC. He is a member of the Order of the S.C.

Director of Alumni Affairs

WILLIAM A. (BERT) FRIDLIN, Purdue '59, was one of the alumni founders of Georgia Alpha and is vice president of their house corporation. He was president of the Atlanta Alumni Association 1973-1975 and was their Outstanding Alumnus in 1976. He was the chairman of the Alumni Affairs Subcommittee of the 1976 Grand Arch Council in Washington, D.C. Among the goals he has set include an increase in alumni participation in Fraternity affairs and an improvement in the communications between alumni. He is self-employed in the engraving business in Atlanta, Ga.

Officers

Assistant Director of Alumni Affairs

TIM HEUP, South Carolina '72, has been the secretary of the Atlanta Alumni Association and is its current president. He has also been the Fraternity's Assistant Director of Extension and Chairman of the Committee on Extension at the 1976 GAC in Washington, D.C. He was a colony member of South Carolina Alpha where he served as chaplain, pledge educator, corresponding secretary and vice-president. Brother Heup is kept busy as the Director of Personnel for the 225-bed Griffin-Spalding County Hospital in Griffin, Ga. In addition, he is pursuing an M.B.A. degree at Georgia State University in Atlanta.

Mystagogue

KENT CHRISTOPHER OWEN, Indiana '58, was appointed to his current position on the Executive Council in 1976. Previously, he had served as Scholarship Director, Director of Fraternity Education, and Archon of District IV. He has also been an Area Director and chapter advisor to Indiana Beta. He is the co-author with the late John Henry Frizzell of "The Creed of Phi Kappa Psi" and with his wife of "Toward the Year 2000: Perspectives on the American Fraternity Movement," the official report of the American College Fraternity Bicentennial Commission. He and his family reside in Bloomington, Ind. He is a member of the Order of the S.C.

Editor of THE SHIELD

TONY B. WHITTINGTON, Texas Tech '60, is in his third year as Editor of the Fraternity's journal. Using his background of advertising, public relations and higher education, he enjoys mixing them while editing THE SHIELD. Since his return to Lubbock following active duty with the U.S. Air Force, where he saw duty in Vietnam, he has been chapter advisor and faculty advisor to Texas Beta, as well as president of the Texas South Plains Alumni Association. Brother Whittington is on the Board of Directors, College Fraternity Editor's Association. A residential administrator, he is employed by Texas Tech University.

Director of Chapter Finance

JOHN W. DICKINSON, Michigan State '65, has held his post since 1974. Previously, he was Assistant Director of Chapter Finance, an Area Director and treasurer of the Detroit Alumni Association. He has attended all six GACs since his initiation and has chaired or assisted several committees and also presented workshops in chapter finance at regional ELCs and GACs. Brother Dickinson teaches high school English at Clawson, Mich. and was recently elected to the Ferndale (Mich.) Board of Education.

Housing Study Committee

JAMES C. NOONAN, Missouri '47, is a real estate investor and consultant in Houston, and has two sons who are initiates of Texas Beta. Active in community affairs, Brother Noonan is or has been a board member on a number of businesses and civic organizations. He was a candidate for the 22nd District of Texas and a member of the Finance Committee of the Westheimer Independent School District. The Housing Study Committee is investigating ways to finance real estate for the expansion program of the Fraternity.

Coordinator for Area Directors

EARL W. FRIEND JR., Washington & Jefferson '60, is the first person to be appointed to this position. His primary duties include obtaining Area Directors, and insuring the efficiency of the program is maintained. He was named an Area Director in 1972 and was voted membership to the Order of the S.C. in 1976 in Washington, D.C. He earned an M.A. and a Ph.D. at Johns Hopkins University in Chemistry and while there served as advisor to the Maryland Alpha chapter and president of their house corporation. An engineer, he is employed with Catalytic, Inc., an engineering/construction firm located in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Director of Fraternity Education

CHARLES D. UMBERGER JR., Duke '70, is a former Field Secretary for the Fraternity following his graduation from Duke. He has recently received an M.B.A. from University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill and has been the chapter advisor to North Carolina Alpha since 1973. He hopes to utilize the experience gained as being a Field Secretary in his current role. His goals for Fraternity education include refining the workshop programs and standardizing final examinations for pledge education.

Chaplain

STEPHEN DEXTER MCWHORTER, West Virginia '60, is Rector of The Church of the Redeemer, Pittsburgh, Pa. and previously was the Episcopal Chaplain at Marshall University, Huntington, W. Va. He is also the chairman of the Committee on Screening for the Commission on Ministry. Brother McWhorter has attended seven Grand Arch Councils and is a member of the Order of the S.C. He received his education at West Virginia University, University of Mississippi and the Episcopal Divinity School, Cambridge, Mass.

Historian

JOHN KEMPER, Wabash '69, has served the Fraternity as an Area Director and Assistant Director of Extension and is a past-president of the Indianapolis Alumni Association. He was appointed Historian in 1976 and has begun preparation for a 25-year supplement to the "Centennial History." His second project is to access the Fraternity's extensive collection of historical material. Brother Kemper is currently on active duty with the U.S. Navy and is the Supply Officer of the "Ulysses S. Grant," a fleet ballistic missile submarine home ported in Charleston, South Carolina.

Assistant Director for Conferences

JAMES A. PERLEY, California State-Northridge '72, is presently serving as Resident Advisor to California Delta chapter, while working on a master's degree in public administration at the University of Southern California. He is a former chapter president at California Theta and Conference Director in 1975. He is also a co-founder of the Northridge Alumni Association.

Director of Scholarship

NEIL B. BALLARD, Mankato State '71, was a commissioned officer in the U.S. Navy following graduation and had tour of duty in the Vietnam area. Following his release from active duty, he accepted a National Institute of Health Fellowship to study at Colorado State University where he received his Master's and Ph.D. Currently he is on the faculty at Mankato State and has been the faculty advisor for Minnesota Gamma since 1971. Brother Ballard has attended two Grand Arch Councils and two ELCs.

Assistant Director of Chapter Finance

J. SMITH HARRISON, JR. South Carolina '72, a charter member of South Carolina Alpha, has been an active Phi Psi. While living in Atlanta, he took active part in the activities of the Atlanta Alumni Association. He is currently serving as an advisor to South Carolina Alpha.

'Arizona Beta Shines on'

'Fifteen Years in the Valley of the Sun'

By Stephen B. LaBar, Arizona State '77

THIS year Arizona Beta is celebrating its fifteenth year at Arizona State University. During these years, the chapter has experienced many growing pains in becoming one of the best chapters on campus.

History

Beginning with the 1960 GAC, Phi Kappa Psi started to colonize prospective new chapters, rather than having independent groups petition for their charters. Arizona State and Florida State were the first tests of this new system.

Arizona Beta was first seriously envisioned in the mind of Richard A. Nickey, Arizona '58, past District Six Archon and GP of his chapter. He presented a plea for a chapter at Arizona State University to the Arizona Alumni Association meeting on Founders Day in 1960. The President of the Alumni Assoc., James N. Watbasse, Arizona '51, appointed a committee to explore the possibilities.

In January of 1961 two juniors from Washington Alpha, Bob Clampett and Robert W. (Sandy) Chamberlain (currently Fraternity Vice President and our chapter advisor) and a handful of alumni, Dick Siegler, Jack Cate, Jack Glidwell, Bill Swanson, Bob Bohannon and Jim Smith, laid the ground-work for Arizona Beta. Arizona State was ready for Phi Psi, and in September of 1961, Phi Psi colonized. During their one year as a colony, the 32 members accumulated two scholarship trophies, one Greek Games Championship, and a Homecoming King trophy. These plaques and trophies adorned the fireplace of their new house at 1120 McAllister Ave.

On December 15, 1962, the Arizona Beta Colony at A.S.U. became the 62nd chapter of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity. The long awaited charter was presented by then Fraternity President Dr. Louis D. Corson to colonizers Bob Clampett and Sandy Chamberlain. Ceremonies were held at the Westward Ho Hotel in Phoenix.

Arizona Beta continued to grow and in 1963 moved into a house on the University's "Old Row" at 418 Adelphi Dr. where we still reside. Over the next six years, Phi Kappa Psi remained one of the most influential chapters on campus with major contributions in scholarship, IFC, intramurals, and leadership. The annual Phi Psi 500, next to Greek Week, became the biggest Greek activity on the Arizona State Campus.

During the period from 1970 to 1972, Arizona Beta nearly folded because of poor rush participation and other factors. Most of the savings built up during the first eight years were depleted. The future looked grim. At one point there were less than five resident actives. Then in 1972, the GAC was held in Phoenix and with the help of the national delegates during the fall rush they were able to get a large pledge class. From this class we got a new start. With four strong pledge classes in the last four years, Arizona Beta is back on its feet and running at full steam.

A new look greeted the Phi Psis when they returned to the chapter house this fall, in the form of carpets, drapes, paint, and furniture provided by a loan from the Fraternity. We started out with a strong pledge class and ten of them were initiated in January. For the Fall semester scholarship, Phi Kappa Psi ranked 7th out of the 19 fraternities at A.S.U. Two Brothers, Kim Goetz and Bill Ramstack, had perfect 4.0 averages.

Our 1976 Phi Psi 500, held October 9, was very successful and very enjoyable. Seven of the 11 sororities participated in a Queen contest, Spirit contest and the race itself. Jeri Sims, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and daughter of Dean Sims, Kansas '42, won the Queen contest. Gamma Phi Beta won the race and Alpha Phi won the overall Sweepstakes. By participation alone, our 500 was the most successful Greek event on campus in the fall semester.

The Founders Day Banquet was held in Phoenix at the top of the First National Bank Building on the 25th floor. We were joined by a large delegation from the Arizona Alpha Colony and many alumni. Our guest speaker was Dean Sims, Kansas '42. He was introduced by Randy Donant, California at Santa Barbara '64, currently our resident advisor and Fraternity Director of Membership. Alumni President Ralph Weekly was the Master of Ceremonies.

Arizona Beta, now in its fifteenth year at A.S.U., pledges its support to Arizona Alpha Colony at the University of Arizona. We look forward to your chartering.

California Theta Celebrates 10th Anniversary

By Jim Perley, California State—Northridge '72
John Ciccarelli, California State—Northridge '72

ON June 17, 1977, California Theta will celebrate the 10th year of its founding as a Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi. Since its installation, California Theta has remained a constant reminder of what a group of dedicated Brothers can accomplish on a commuter campus. For despite the struggles of the past few years, Cal Theta continues to shine as both a leader on campus, and in District VI.

In the Fall of 1956, the San Fernando Valley campus of Los Angeles State College officially opened its doors. Of the first 600 students, eight Korean War veterans saw the need for an organization to supplement scholastic endeavors, and to provide social and service functions. On December 10, 1956, Pi Mu Alpha was formed, the first social fraternity on the San Fernando Valley campus.

In 1958, when San Fernando Valley State College was incorporated, the brothers changed the name of the fraternity to Kappa Delta Psi, having discovered that the previous name was similar to that of a national music fraternity. The Kappas soon distinguished themselves as the undisputed leaders at the college having been responsible for founding the Interfraternity Council, the Alumni Association, and the Intramural Sports program. Scholastically, the Kappas ranked high. It was the first fraternity to retire the IFC Scholarship Trophy, winning it three semesters in a row.

By the summer of 1965, the brothers saw the need for a national affiliation. Under the guidance of Fred Berson (Cal Theta '67), and after a thorough search, a petition was submitted in December, 1965, to the Executive Council of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, and it was promptly approved. Because of the high standards of leadership and scholarship maintained by the brothers, California Theta became the 73rd Phi Psi Chapter on June 17, 1967.

California Theta managed to maintain a strong and viable membership until the early 1970's when the era of student unrest caused a near disastrous drop in the Greek membership rolls. However, when the campus was renamed California State University, Northridge in 1972, a new spirit began to generate at Cal Theta. During this period, 12 dedicated Brothers put together the best spring rush in more than two years. The efforts made to refurbish the chapter house, and promote the Phi Psi 500—the largest and most well attended event of the Cal-State Northridge campus that semester—resulted in an enthusiastic membership drive in which the chapter grew from 12 to 35 members in a one year period.

Since that time, Cal Theta has stabilized its membership to a present total of 45 men, and has again moved to the forefront of accomplishment at not only the Cal-State Northridge campus, but in District VI as well. California Theta is the only chapter in the District to have had come from within its ranks, two Archons, a Chapter Consultant, and an Assistant Director. Also, the chapter has maintained itself as an active leader on campus by having a number of Brothers involved in the Interfraternity Council, including a recent president of that organization; the Daily Sundial; KCSN-FM, the University radio station; and student government. Its intramural teams, including the Champion IFC Basketball team, have remained strong in all sports. But most of all, the chapter is a leader in its university and community relations program, culminating every Spring with the Phi Psi 500. Last year, nearly $600.00 was raised for Easter Seals during Phi Psi 500 week.

Schedule of Events

On June 25, 1977, the California Theta Chapter will celebrate its 10th year by holding a dinner dance in the Gold Room of the Biltmore Hotel in downtown Los Angeles. Fraternity Vice President, Robert W. (Sandy) Chamberlain will be the keynote speaker that evening. Of course, the evening would not be complete without the many who passed through the ranks of Phi Psi at Cal Theta, and it is to this end, that we call on all the Brothers of California Theta to gather together once again, and renew the spirited flame of Fraternal brotherhood.

University of Alabama John F. Ramsey Honored

Alabama Alpha started off spring semester on a good note with the pledging of three men: Rich Ernst, Sparta, N.J.; Gary Ely, Huntsville; and Joe Matzek, Independence, Ohio.

On the weekend of February 19 and 20, we celebrated the 125th Anniversary of Phi Kappa Psi at the Sheraton Hotel in Birmingham. On the 19th, El Cee provided the entertainment at our Spring Formal. All the alumni and actives in attendance had a great time. Our Founders Day banquet the next morning was also a great success, as we were joined by many alumni and several of the Brothers from Alabama Beta. John F. Ramsey gave a very interesting and motivating speech on Fraternity history. Dr. Ramsey, who is retiring this semester from the history department at the University, was presented a plaque by the Brothers for his tremendous contributions to Alabama Alpha and the University of Alabama. We all deeply appreciate Dr. Ramsey and his great support for Phi Psi. An award for "superior accomplishments in teaching and research in history" was also recently named in honor of Dr. Ramsey. Named Outstanding Alumnus of the year was Jay Masingill for his contributions as Chapter Advisor to Alabama Alpha.

So far this spring sports have gone well, as we finished second in both swimming and ping-pong. Softball, tennis, golf, horseshoes, and ping-pong remain for the rest of the semester, and we expect to field strong teams in these sports.

We have also made plans for two big rush weekends this spring. On April 2, we will have our annual Redneck Party, and on April 15 will be our Casino Party and Lake Party.

Once again we invite any Brother in the area to visit us at the house. Also we congratulate Robin Renken who was chosen as our Solon E. Summerfield award winner.

Allegheny College New Pledges

The Brothers of Pennsylvania Beta have just completed a successful rush term by pledging 20 men. They are Thomas John Haffley, Mark Vincent Allen, Pittsburgh; Manuel Alexander Alvarez, Brentwood, N.Y.; Kevin Scott Baker, Andrew Duncan Dyszlewski, James Frederick Guenther, Timothy Patrick Loftus, Erie; David Hunter Bower, William S. Carson, Wellsboro; James Wickersham Grant, Barrington, R.I.; Walter A. Griffin, Stillwater, Minn.; Richard Ian Lack, Peekskill, N.Y.; Mark Anthony McNoble, Forest Hills, N.Y.; Leonard Paul Nichols, Shaker Heights, Ohio; Daniel Bruce Oakley, Scotch Plains, N.J.; Cliff Edward Schlessinger, Long Island, N.Y.; Robert Martin Sincavich, Wheeling, W.Va.; Karl William Steinkraus, Penfield, N.Y.; Eric John Swan, Broadalbin, N.Y.; and Roger Owen Wilcox, Tolland, Conn.

Socially, last term was a good one for the Brothers. While it was freezing outside, the camaraderie of the Brothers kept it warm inside. The Pledge Formal was held on February 12, and with all those pledges, it was certainly a big success. In addition, there was a big impromptu party in January when the college was closed for two days because of the severe sub-zero weather.

Planning for next term has already started. With the melting of all of our snow and the reappearance of the sun, many softball gloves and golf clubs can be seen around the house. It is hoped that with all this early practice the softball and golf teams will be able to surpass their records of last year. Furthermore, planning has begun for our annual spring Polynesian Party, which will be held during the last weekend of May. Any alumni interested in coming are encouraged to contact the Brothers so that we can finish our planning.

We also thank the Brothers of Pennsylvania Nu, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, for returning our "missing," antique, bronze Phi and Psis.

BLAKE K. BAXTER, Correspondent

University of Arizona Parents Alumni Day

The spring semester has provided much enjoyment for the Arizona Alpha chapter. An afternoon tea with the sorority Housemothers on February 21, and a parents-alumni day on March 6, were two such events. Of course, the March 26 chartering was to be the biggest event in the colony's history.

It was announced at the parents-alumni day, that alumni had secured housing for the colony next fall. Brothers Dan Gooder and Dave Grant were instrumental in completing the negotiations for the old Phi Mu house. The structure, located on 1775 First St. has a living capacity of 48 men, and should provide a great Phi Psi home.

Twenty-five Brothers and pledges traveled to Phoenix on February 18, and enjoyed a Founders Day banquet with the Arizona Beta chapter. The banquet was held in the Arizona Club in the First National Bank Building. Following the banquet all alumni, undergraduates, and pledges watched a new film on Phi Psi.

New spring pledges are Linus Keating, Inglewood, Calif.; Mark Mednansky, Mike Mednansky, and Thomas Pantera, Phoenix; Elias Molina and Izzie Schifano, Tucson; David Ratner, Brooklyn, N.Y.; and John Smart, Morris Plains, N.J.

Ashland College Growth Imminent

Ohio Theta is continuing to be the strongest Fraternity on campus, as is evidenced in our possession of the President's Cup. On January 30, we pinned 15 new pledges and they are currently meeting the demands necessary to become Phi Psis. The pledges are: Kevin Cottle, Buffalo, N.Y.; Mark Caplan, Livingston, N.J.; Harry Shaw, Solon; Marc Downing, Findlay; John Drake, Worthington; Mike Savage, Parma; Gary Crandall, Warren; Brian Garverick, Mansfield; Tim Gergel, Willoughby Hills; Dave Graham, Zanesville; Earl Linder, Berea; Bruce Moss, Charlotte, N.C.; Tim Poole, Rocky River; Tim Rhode, Huron; and Fred Shipman, Huntingdon Valley, Pa. Pledge trainer Jerry Whetstone and assistants Bob Fletcher and John Ferguson are doing a fine job in nurturing the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi in these 15 young men. Jon Anthony, pledge educator, is making sure they are informed of the history and current information dealing with our Fraternity.

We are proud to announce five new initiates. On February 14, Mike

Graham, Zanesville; Tim Holoman, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Greg Lawida, Buffalo, N.Y.; Ken Lay, Toledo; and Marc Stevens, Worthington were inducted into the Fraternity.

We are gaining scholastic growth also, with 30 per cent of the Brothers receiving scholarship awards. We congratulate Scott McGill for having the highest average for fall semester. We also recognize Pat Crahan for his nomination into Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

In athletics, Rich Stieneman has led the basketball team to a great season. Rich held a 60 per cent average from the floor which led the Eagles to the Division III, NCAA playoff tournament. Our 14 Brothers participating in varsity lacrosse were quite surprised when the vacant coaching spot was filled by alumnus Jeff Dunning (1974). All the players are grateful to Jeff for all he has done for the team.

Auburn University Century Club Awards

During winter quarter our chapter received the results of fall quarter scholarship. Out of the 32 fraternities on campus we ranked third highest in grade point average, as more than one-quarter of our membership earned over a 2.95 GPA on a three point scale.

On January 29, we celebrated the birth of our chapter with our third Annual Birthday Party. We were honored by the presence of many alumni and guests. Special guests included Peter Sakas, a graduate of Northwestern and a Brother of Illinois Alpha.

In addition, Century Club awards were presented to Richard E. Gade, David L. Cook, James S. Stinson Jr., and Sanders L. Dix. The Century Club is an award presented by our chapter to Phi Psi alumni for meritorious support of our chapter.

On January 27 and 28, we continued our efforts at increasing our membership. Rush parties were held on these nights and the turn-out of rushees was good. Thanks to our hard work we were joined by three new associate members: Michael Wade Caldwell, Birmingham; James Lamar Pitner, Mobile; and Steven Eric Likos, Huntsville.

Our membership would like to express their most sincere appreciation to Alabama Alpha and the Birmingham Alumni Association for inviting us to their Founders Day Celebration on February 20. We had an excellent time as we broadened our understanding of Phi Kappa Psi.

In intramurals this quarter, we continued to have a great time. In contrast to other quarters, though, we have begun to win regularly, as we made it to the playoffs in racquetball and bowling. We were pleased to initiate James Calvin Peeples III on January 23, bringing us to 48 initiates in three years.

Finally, we express our best wishes to Arizona Alpha on their installation.

Bowling Green State University High Grades

As thoughts of Northwest Ohio's coldest and whitest winter fade into the past, the men of Ohio Zeta look with great anticipation to the coming spring quarter at Bowling Green.

Fraternity grade point averages for fall quarter were released and showed that Ohio Zeta had placed third out of 26 fraternities. Although accustomed to being in first place, we were still well ahead of the all men's average on campus and are working hard at regaining the top spot.

Founders Day was celebrated on February 19. The day was started off with a get together at the chapter house. Many alumni were at the house and enjoyed a cash bar and Mom Diefenthaler's famous cheese ball. Later, we went to a local banquet room for drinks and dinner. Charles R. Brown, a former National Fraternity Treasurer, was the guest speaker. He talked on pledging and rush and on the importance of a strong alumni relations committee. Entertainment was provided during dinner, but the highlight was afterwards when a hastily composed barber shop quartet performed. The evening proved very enjoyable and educational. We wish to thank all the alumni for coming back and hope to see you soon.

Winter quarter brought many individual honors. Former President Bill Gregg was initiated into Pi Sigma Alpha, the political science honorary. Bill has also been accepted at several law schools. Congratulations also go to Gary Schnacke. Gary, a sophomore, was tapped into Alpha Lambda Delta, and Phi Eta Sigma. Both are freshmen honoraries. President Greg Steyer became a member of Golden Torch. He is also a member of the Antean Society. Steve Rabold has also been admitted to several outstanding law schools. Congratulations are in order for all these men.

Bucknell University Founders Day

Warm weather and thoughts of getting reacquainted with the great outdoors after the worst winter in history seem to be of main concern for most Brothers of Pennsylvania Gamma. Roofing has become popular again after a long battle with the cold and as is customary for this time of year, many golf balls were seen heading for numerous windowpanes. Of course, warm weather also means the Phi Psi 500 and other activities which beg for alumni participation.

Founders Day was indeed a special day for the Brothers of this chapter. Among the events that occurred was a guest appearance by Dennis O'Brien who is the new President of the University. Ironically enough, it was Mr. O'Brien's birthday so a cake was made commemorating both occasions. The formal ceremonies included memorial services for Bob Taylor, who was a member of the corporation and unfortunately passed away several months ago. In perhaps the most important part of the night, Bob Hunter stepped down as president of the corporation, to be replaced by Porter Wagner. Mr. Hunter was presented a plaque by the house in recognition of his 25 years of devoted service to the corporation. On top of all this, Harold Densburger added one of his famous meals to complete a perfect night.

Excellence in the field of education is certainly evident with many senior Brothers. John Gherlein, Bill Ofrichter, Hank Wright and Larry Crossett will continue their careers in graduate school. Also worth mentioning is the return of Brothers Klemens and Wright from London, where they participated in the Semester Abroad Program. Junior Kevin Hessler has taken their place and will be back for this year's fall term.

Butler University Temporary Housing

Indiana Zeta now has temporary housing for ten of our 33 members in a University-owned house. The move into the house occurred during winter break through greatly appreciated efforts of our alumni and several chapter members. We also welcome our new Housemother, Mrs. Helen Long. Plans for a permanent house still loom in the future as well as in the minds of the remaining 23 non-resident Brothers.

Election for the following offices was held at the beginning of the semester: GP Doug Pollock; VGP Ralph Berry; P Roger Hurlbut; BG Tom Harris; SG Shane Rummel; Hod Brad Schumacher; Phu Kevin Gueldenhaar; Hi Kelly Sieben. Doug Pollock, as well as the newly appointed committee chairmen, has strived to enact complete reconstruction of our committee system as had been advised by our chapter consultant.

Initiation was held on February 13, for the following men: Scott Cummings, Indianapolis; Todd Bryant and Brett Neff, Goshen; Dave Daly, Winchester; Marsh Davis, Dyer; Gene Hollenberg, Ft. Wayne; Bill Weber, Middletown, N.J.; Maarten Wilbers, Voorschoten, Netherlands. After the ceremony a reception was held for the new initiates and local alumni attending the initiation. We welcome the new members as an invaluable addition to the chapter.

Again, heartfelt thanks go to all those Brothers, both alumni and active, who were responsible for the preparations and furnishing of the house during winter break and who made it possible for us to have a location on campus.

UCLA Mardi Gras

Spring at UCLA and Cal Ep brings warm weather, a wide assortment of outdoor activities and Mardi Gras, the student-run fund-raising carnival. We are an important part of the Mardi Gras with our "House of Horrors."

The winter quarter was marked by our continued growth as we added six young men who are expected to be initiated in early April. They are: Gary Arcemont, Santa Ana; Steve Bishop, Arcadia; Scott Kafesjian, Irvine; Vince Moore, Beverly Hills; Rich Reed, San Leandro; and Rick Wittenberg, Los Angeles.

The active quarter just past was highlighted by another enjoyable Founders Day celebration with area alumni and the undergraduate chapters from Cal State—Northridge, Cal Poly—San Luis Obispo, and USC.

It also set the stage for the always hectic spring quarter featuring the annual Viva Zapata party. This is one of the row's largest parties and is an elaborate day/night, pool and band party.

All Phi Psis in the area are encouraged to stop by UCLA's Mardi Gras in mid-May to share Cal Ep pride in the House of Horrors, traditionally the best booth on the field.

We were happy to contribute to the District VI Easter Seals fund-raising drive. We also welcome the return to our district of the Arizona Alpha Chapter at the U of A on March 26.

We continued to make a solid showing in athletics the past quarter, reaching the semi-finals in both basketball and rugby and by taking third in fraternity bowling.

As we enter spring, Cal Ep is looking to properly cap off a tremendous year.

California Poly Active Winter Quarter

February 12, 1977, saw six new Brothers installed into the ranks of California Eta. We are proud to introduce Ernest Hook, Kenneth Herich, Ronald Tressen, John Clay, Eric Brown, and Phillip Pagliara.

Along with installation, winter quarter was an active sports period also. Cal Eta's team won the IFC bowling championship for the second quarter in a row. However, we lost two games to place second in IFC basketball. This was very disappointing as these were our first two losses in four years. Cal Eta also placed first in handball and third in tennis. Spring sports are now in progress and Cal Eta looks to strong teams in baseball, track, wrestling, volleyball, and bowling. If we can place in the top two in baseball and track, and show in the others, we can take the IFC all-sports trophy.

Under the direction of GP Rick Garza, Cal Eta continues to strive for excellence with Rob Johnson, VGP; Randy Zorkocy, BG; Bill Fredrickson, P; Biff Pietro, Phu; Dave Long, Hod; Mike Butula, PE; and many other Brothers in leadership roles. Cal Eta is going strong.

If you are ever in the area, stop by and enjoy the fresh country air of San Luis Obispo. Best wishes for a prosperous summer.

California State—Northridge Tenth Anniversary

There is an excited anticipation of the events on the horizon here at Cal Theta. Our spring semester is well underway sustained by the pledgship of three energetic gentlemen. Dan Demurie, Ron Goldberg, and Neil Spellman are the latest "acceptors" of the noble rights of installation into the successful Phi Kappa Psi pledge program. The brotherhood is keeping close tabs on their progress to insure the proper fraternal rearing prior to initiation in May.

Of more immediate concern though, is the development of plans for Cal Theta's celebration of our Tenth Anniversary on the Cal State—Northridge campus. We hope that any of you who are available the third week in June will come and celebrate our achievement with us.

By the time this article reaches you, we will have staged another record-breaking Phi Psi 500. Set for March 28 this year, it is promising to be another success story for the public relations drive of the brotherhood. This year, the 500 program has been streamlined and trimmed of any unnecessary burden to the effectiveness of the program. We were fortunate in obtaining the services of popular Los Angeles DJ Charlie Tuna for our Queen Judging Contest. And as in the past, Cal Theta will be earmarking all proceeds for the Easter Seals campaign in greater Los Angeles to assist in their campaign against disease. Our goal is $500.

Socially, Cal Theta has realized a most rewarding year. The climax of our efforts this semester will be a sunset cruise May 7 around the port of Los Angeles. The accompanying on-board dinner banquet and moonlight dance promise to be a true dazzler.

We are all very proud here at Northridge, and if it's true as they say that time is a measure of success, we shall be satisfied to let the day of June 17, 1977, when Cal Theta turns ten years old, speak for itself.

Case Western Reserve University New Members

Spring semester at Ohio Epsilon began with the initiation of the five men who had pledged in the fall and the addition of 11 new pledges. The members of our spring pledge class are Frank Androski, Brian Dzedziak, Phil Freshour, Barry Fuhrmann, K. C. Green, Ed Harry, Tom Holland, Jeff Lexa, Bernie McCafferty, Romeo Solano, and Dennis Stalter.

We are proud to announce that plans have been finalized and work has begun on the remodeling of the Donnell chapter hall. The new hall will give us a permanent, members-only, meeting room, a lounge and a game room. The renovation is being done by the Brothers themselves and should be completed by the fall.

One of the highlights of the spring is the third annual alumni party and the attendant alumni-active basketball game and other festivities. Also in the works is an outdoor party to be co-sponsored by the four fraternities in the quad. Last semester's quad party, which was attended by over 1000 people, was a huge success and hopefully this success can be repeated.

Ohio Epsilon has been active and successful in intramurals with a third place finish in basketball and a good showing in wrestling, including a second place in the heavyweight division. The bowling team is still battling to finish in first place and the softball team should improve upon last year's finish.

Colgate University Going Strong

Spring 1977 finds New York Epsilon in a good state of mind. The long winter is coming to an end, a strong, ambitious pledge class of 21 will be initiated on April 6, and the chapter is really shaping up. Officers Robert Bakemeier, P; David Fraser, VGP; and Mark Gavens, BG, are very able assistants in helping Richard Duell, GP, organize the chapter, physically, financially, and morally.

In terms of the University, the chapter is maintaining its respectable position. A current third place intramural standing has excited the Brothers into an effort to win the trophy that eluded us by a few points last year. Kevin Faley, our sophomore representative on the varsity basketball team, got some much deserved playing time toward the end of the season and hopes are high for the next two seasons. Junior Robbie Hamilton was the team's leading forward. Tom Lynette, sophomore on the varsity hockey squad, was injured early, destroying his chance for an expected strong season.

January at New York Epsilon was especially exciting as the relaxed Colgate atmosphere prompted the Brothers to sponsor the first Annual "Phi Psi Party Week." It was the success of the month, with all of Colgate there, and certainly a beneficial effect on rush was felt.

The alumni corporation has met with the chapter officers several times. Plans are being developed for big activities, culminating with Homecoming weekend in the fall, when Colgate and Rutgers will play their much anticipated rematch in football.

Spring is in the air, with summer just around the corner. New York Epsilon has had a good year, and as the majority of Brothers presently in the chapter house are planning to live here next year, a tight group will return to keep the chapter going strong.

University of Colorado House Improvements

The Phi Psis in Colorado are enjoying the beautiful weather and welcome all alumni and undergraduate members to drop by. With fraternal and human effort, we have managed to turn our basement into a comfortable television room with a beautiful attached bar and entertainment room. Our front lawn has been modernized. A strong ranch style fence has been constructed to fit the needs of additional seating space. Landscape Engineer Glenn Jones has created a pleasant atmosphere in which we all can enjoy the scenery.

All of us are becoming professional cooks! Kent Walker organized six independent cooking units with two or three members to each unit. Each unit is assigned to a specific day of the week. Therefore, what we make is what we eat. Fine quality and variety of food are served from family recipes. We are the best fed Phi Psis.

Our Founders Day dinner was a smashing success and we express our sincere thanks to all of you who attended. Even the President of Phi Kappa Psi, Ken Potter, appreciated the dinner. We were pleased our retired cook and Housemother Helen Eberharter, was able to join us in this celebration. Next year we hope more alumni will visit us on Founders Day.

If Tom Miller, activities chairman, puts on any more muscle, we'll be producing a superman series.

A true Kansas boy, Phil Field, pledge chairman, has been working the pledges into shape—all nine of them.

Lee Walker won the Mr. Phi Psi title from our chapter and he may receive a title in the U.S. volley ball championship.

Sean Darnell will be entering the field of forestry.

Tom Whiting, a studious person, graduates in International Business.

Cornell University Busy Spring

Once again, New York Alpha has received an outstanding pledge class. Rush Chairman Warren Alderige and his assistants performed an exceptional job and we all can be very proud of the new class. Comprising the class are: Cornelius Colao, DeWitt; Shaun Eisenhaur, Hanover, Pa.; Thomas Festa, Nyack; Samuel Fisher, Hamburg; Robert Ford, Huntington; Irving Gerstein, Croton; Arnie Goldman, Shaker Heights, Ohio; Thomas Helling, Franklin Square; Alex Hodge, Wayne, N.J.; David Jones, Unadilla; Jeff Marshall, Avon, Conn.; Edward Pride, East Falmouth, Mass.; Dietmar Schott, Bronxville; Dave Scoco and Geoffrey Snyder, Cherry Hill, N.J.; Scott Sepsey, Columbus, Ohio; Michael Sinesi, Waban, Mass.; John Tassone, Rochester; Thomas Tourje, Victor; Richard White, Ithaca; and Keith Wilson, Falls Church, Va.

Newly elected Social Chairman Rich Chmielinski, and veteran Tim Houck have provided the Brothers with a busy and exciting social calendar. It started with the pledge party and IFC weekend. At the IFC weekend the house was jammed to the walls with actives and alumni alike. Yet to come are such activities as sorority exchange dinners, and spring and Parents weekends. The chairmen tell us that tentative plans are now underway for a pool party with one of the Cornell sororities.

Four Brothers were recently chosen to the highly respected Sphinx Head senior honorary. Congratulations are due James Allchin, Robert Merkle, Andrew Heller, and John Paul. Appointment to the honorary is based on contributions to the Cornell community, academically, athletically and socially.

Creighton University Kazoo Band

The second academic semester marched in at Nebraska Beta to the unique sounds of the Phi Kappa Psi Marching Kazoo Band. The Band, organized last November, was selected to represent Creighton University as the half-time entertainment for the televised Creighton-Marquette basketball game. The Band's performance was just one highlight of our Phi Psi Parents weekend. More than 40 parents were able to join with their sons for a weekend of parties and a chance to make many new friends.

After an enthusiastic rush, 23 men became pledged to Phi Kappa Psi; they are: Tom Adams, West Hempstead, N.Y.; James Bruckner, Lincoln; Kevin Casey, Brothers of Nebraska Beta Marching Kazoo Band perform at the halftime ceremonies of the Creighton-Marquette basketball game.

In the academic realm, Nebraska Beta continues to maintain its high academic standing on the Creighton campus. We are also proud to report the selections of Bob Gallagher, Mike Groom, Bill Nelson, and Bob Stuijbergen to represent Creighton in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Brother Gallagher was also selected as this year's Solon E. Summerfield Scholar by the chapter.

DePauw University The Spirit Continues

The spirit of Indiana Alpha is once again being felt at DePauw. Currently we find Phi Psis involved in various campus activities including Campus Board President Jim Barrett; Union Board President Blake Turner; Junior Board President Randy Romero; Senior Board, Community Concerns, Academic Council, WGRE radio station, and The DePauw, student newspaper, led by editor Doug McFarlan. The Brothers are also integral parts of varsity athletics as wrestlers Dave Grant and M.V.P. Jim Adams completed a successful season as did five members of the swim team: Andy Booz, John Mason, Jeff Porritt, Steve Smith, and M.V.P. Gary Kriebel. Spring finds Doug Conner and Bill Schlotz returning to the greens with the golf team, while last season's rookie of the year, Lynn Brown, hurls for the baseball team.

The Brothers welcome fall initiates Steve Smith, New Hartford, N.Y.; and Nick Tzakis, Lake Forest, Ill.; followed by the February 12 initiation of Andy Booz, Wilmington, Del.; Tom Bowser, Andy Rieth, Goshen; Doug Everard, Bloomfield Hills, Mich.; Dave Grall, Jeff Porritt, St. Joseph, Mich.; Steve Harris, Warsaw; Dan Kinsey, Garrett; John Mason, Danville, Ill.; John Roberts, DeKalb, Ill.; Gerry Roth, LaPorte; Bill Schlotz, Minnetonka, Minn.; Gray Tweedy, Knightstown; and Rick Wainscott, Frankfort. Congratulations to Pledge of the Year, Andy Rieth.

win, GP; Rick Mills, VGP; Jeff Bernacchi, P; Gary Krievell, AG; Bill Schlotz, BG; Nick Tzakis, SG; Steve Harris, Hod; Jeff Porritt, Phu; and John Roberts, Hi.

The Brothers of Indiana Alpha also extend a hearty welcome to alumni for a symposium May 21, and greet all in the bonds of Phi Kappa Psi.

Dickinson College Bigger and Better

The pattern of increased growth and prosperity which Pennsylvania Zeta has enjoyed over the past two years continues into this spring season. Under the leadership of Pledge Master Michael Sivy, 18 men are in the process of undertaking the long road to brotherhood. Our spring pledges are: John Atkinson, State College; Brian Cadoux, Westport, Conn.; Richard Cohn, Philadelphia; Eric Ewert, Watchung, N.J.; Jeffrey Flock, Westport, Conn.; William Hudson, Hershey; Earle Jameson, Akron; Robert Jenkins, Ridgefield, Conn.; David Johnston, Shipperville; Stephen McCurrie, Kearny, N.J.; Demas Moyer, Elizabethtown; Mark Packel, Dresher; Joseph Morris, Chris Paul, Marc Stein, Coatesville; Charles Powell, Radnor; Michael Slotterback, Dannville; and Michael Supinka, Homer City.

In addition to the hard work of the actives, Penn Zeta's recent prosperity owes much to the support of our alumni. Founders Day festivities were a great success thanks to alumni participation. Personal letters from the present chapter members to many recent alumni did much to insure a good turnout. Once again, it became clearly evident that a chapter consists not only of her undergraduate members but also of active and concerned alumni. One such alumnus, Dr. Benjamin James, was recently inducted into Dickinson College's Sports Hall of Fame. The induction ceremony was meaningful and inspirational due to the support which Dr. James received from the chapter members. The fine relationships which continue to develop between undergraduates and alumni help to remind us that the fraternal experience truly spans a lifetime.

Duke University Expanded Brotherhood

North Carolina Alpha continues to strengthen and extend the nature of its activities and fraternal associations.

The most significant aspect of this expansion is our large and enthusiastic pledge class. As a result of the coordinated efforts of Rush Co-chairmen Jim Whitaker and David Wertz, our very successful rush program produced 27 pledges for this semester's pledging activities. Currently enjoying the unique and educational rigors of pledging are: Doug Arnold, Steve Ash, Ron Barsanti, Dave Breedon, Rick Gaskins, Mike Glover, Joe

Individual Brothers have recently distinguished themselves in campus athletics and academics. Mike Owens and Chris Mellott have been initiated into Phi Beta Kappa. Larry Otto is now a member of Delta Phi Alpha, the German language honor society. Pledge Winter is a participant on the Duke track team. Jim Bruyette and Larry Otto are members of the Duke golf and swimming teams, respectively. Our intramural volleyball team participated in play-off games after surviving a schedule of fierce competition.

Work has already begun in preparation for our Third Celebrity Auction for cancer research next fall. Auction coordinator Robert Fishman hopes to exceed last year's record proceeds of $5000. Plans are also being formalized for the publication of an alumni directory next September. Our post-finals exodus to Myrtle Beach, S.C., May 1-6 also is enthusiastically anticipated.

Eastern New Mexico University Membership Increase

On December 10, 1976, the membership of New Mexico Alpha increased with the initiation of eight: Mickey McGee, Jack Rathgeber, Gus Galvez, Gary Olinger, Edwin Apodaca, Kevin Daggett, Duncan Fitzgerald, and Mike Quintana. Also, returning to the chapter is Bill Clarke who has just finished four years in the Navy. With the addition of these nine men, our membership has increased significantly.

Our chapter has pledged four so far this semester. They are Charlie Gallegos, Keith Monaghan, Sam Medina, and Simon Kihleng. Officers for the spring semester are: Lester Pierce, GP; Brad Marsh, VGP; Chuck Abbott, AG; Steve Young, P; Kermit Shumard, BG; Jack Rathgeber, SG; Thom Chapman, Hod; Cory Westbrook, Phu; and Ed Cummings, Hi.

We at New Mexico Alpha are proud of our current climb in scholarship by placing second among all fraternities.

The Founders Day celebration was a great success. Friday night was spent welcoming back our alumni, and at midnight we got a wild notion and called the Brothers of Tennessee Zeta to wish them a happy 125th. Saturday afternoon was spent playing a friendly game of softball with the Sigma Chis and the evening followed with a dinner and a party at the chapter house. All in all, it was a very enjoyable weekend for everyone concerned.

Franklin and Marshall College Surpasses Scholarship Record

Scholarship continues to hold an important position at Penn Eta. The Brothers surpassed their consistent record of academic excellence this past fall, when the chapter earned a semester grade point average of 3.35 out of a possible 4.0, the highest of any fraternity at F and M in the past several years. Also, Harry A. Jacobowitz, a junior history major from Pittsburgh, Pa., joined the Phi Alpha Theta History Honor Society in February.

In ceremonies on February 12, three freshmen were initiated into the mysteries of Phi Kappa Psi: George E. Cooke, River Edge, N.J.; Gregory McN. French, Cooperstown, N.Y.; and Eugene D. Milener, Oneonta, N.Y.

The chapter also changed a few of its officers, as Greg French became Phu, Gene Milener, Rush Chairman, and John C. Calhoun, Social Chairman.

With most of our members in the classes of '79 and '80, the chapter has a good capacity for growth. Hoping to strengthen our ranks this spring, we have widened our contacts with the freshman class. We plan to exert a major effort this semester with the aid of our Brothers from other chapters in this region.

This activity has not prevented us from fulfilling our role in the interfraternity world. The Brothers of Penn Eta showed their spirit in March, by working with eight other fraternities in the IFC-sponsored Rockathon at a local shopping mall to raise money for the March of Dimes. The 28 hour Rockathon set a new record for the most people rocking for the longest time. The event raised a total of $2,600 for the worthy cause.

Gettysburg College Intensive Rush

This past fall saw Pennsylvania Epsilon involved in its most intensive rush program recently. The program was climaxed by a tremendous effort by all the Brothers during the traditional rush week. We took the largest class on campus, consisting of 25 fine men. Included in their numbers are members of the swimming, track, wrestling, and football teams as well as several freshman class leaders. Our brotherhood will number more than 50 when next fall rolls around. This is a far cry from some past years when Phi Psis were an endangered species at Gettysburg.

On the athletic front Phi Psi is having success on the intramural level. The basketball team went undefeated during the regular season before losing in the playoffs. The team is young and should provide winning teams for the years to come. The badminton team took second in this year's tournament while the volleyball squad was off to a fast start, winning their first three matches.

Miller Hall 1882

The first Chapter house erected in the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, and the first college fraternity house in the state of Pennsylvania.

Miller Hall, constructed during the year 1882 through 1884, is the oldest standing fraternity house in the United States. As Brothers in the bonds of Phi Kappa Psi, it is ours, to maintain and respect, in the fulfillment of what our Fraternity stands for.

Miller Hall is still used for our meetings and initiation ceremonies of Pennsylvania Epsilon and other chapters. We have a great deal of pride in all that she stands for and the part she has played in the growth of Phi Kappa Psi. Yet Miller Hall stands for more than a rich tradition of brotherhood. It stands for a continuing commitment to the future well being of everyone within our fellowship.

It is the hope of every Brother who has been affiliated with Miller Hall, and what it has stood for, that it may once again possess its nineteenth century charm.

After nearly a century of continued use and faithful service to our Fraternity, it is in grave need of repair. Due to the complexity of this project, it is one that should be undertaken by every active Phi Psi in the country.

A fund has been established to raise the sum of approximately $28,000 that will be needed. This restoration will reinforce the foundation, replace the floor and restore the interior to its original decor.

It is only through the united effort of Brothers within our Fraternity that this goal can become a reality. No donation is too small and all will be greatly appreciated.

THE MILLER HALL RESTORATION COMMITTEE

Those contributing in excess of $100 will receive a framed drawing of Miller Hall.

Those contributing $500 or more will have their names engraved on a plaque within Miller Hall with the completion of the project.

"Miller Hall Restoration Fund" and sent to:

*Miller Hall Restoration Committee

Gettysburg, Pa. 17325*

On the intercollegiate level Phi Psi is again well represented. Two swimmers, Brother Landy Askew and Pledge Jeff Cuddeback, recently qualified for the National Division III Championships. Askew is a member of the record breaking relay team while Cuddeback broke five school records enroute to qualifying in seven events.

The recent release of the academic and athletic standing by the college has provided much excitement. We now rank second in academics and third in athletics. Both of these rankings are huge improvements over the past few years.

The highlight of this spring will be our second annual Anniversary Weekend. The date will be April 22 through 24. Both golf and tennis tournaments are planned. The weekend will be topped off by a banquet dinner at a local restaurant. A large turnout of alumni is anticipated to help Penn Epsilon celebrate our 122nd anniversary.

University of Illinois Continued Excellence

Spring semester has found Illinois Deltans busy in all areas of college life. Phi Psis are showing continued excellence in campus leadership, intramurals, social functions, and are enjoying another smooth semester of internal chapter affairs.

Illinois Deltans are making a special effort to recognize the importance of initiation by making the initiation evening a very special and memorable event. Starting a new tradition with the January 21 initiation of the fall of '76 pledge class, the initiation ceremony was held at a local church and was followed by a banquet to celebrate the initiation. Illinois Deltans were honored by the presence of Mystagogue Kent Christopher Owen who participated in the ceremony and shared with us his feelings as Mystagogue on the meaning of being a Phi Psi. Also adding to the evening was the presence of the fathers of three of the initiates who were also Phi Psis of Illinois Delta. James Acheson, James Lyons, and Robert Mihm were able to watch their sons join the Brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi. The young men who were initiated that evening were: Pat Kelly, Glenview; Dave Kennedy, Winnetka; Todd Salen, Olympia Fields; Scott Murray, Chicago; Dave Lyons, Kenilworth; Ted Niemann, Quincy; Tom Norton, Clifton; Bill Acheson, Champaign; Tom Murphy, Moline; and Rich Mihm, Danville. Ted Niemann was given the honor of being chosen as the outstanding pledge of the new initiate's pledge class.

Plans are being finalized for the second annual Phi Psi Golf Classic to be held in late April. We are looking forward to a good alumni showing for the prestigious tournament.

Indiana University New Pledges Program

With the guidance of Tom C. Bigley Jr., the president of our Housing Corporation, K. C. Owen, our former chapter advisor, and an appointed committee within the house, we have totally rewritten our pledgeship program. This was by no means done on an individual basis with the weight bearing on only one man's shoulders, but rather every Brother within the house played an active role. As a result of this cohesive brotherhood action, we were able to initiate 16 well deserving pledges into the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

Although February 5, 1977, was iced with ten inches of frozen snow on the ground, 16 new initiates and 65 Brothers kept warm with the "initiation joy" and stood on the front lawn yelling, "high, high, high, Phi Kappa Psi, live ever, die never, Phi Kappa Psi." We extend a warm welcome to these Brothers: Stephan A. Beckman, Jasper; John W. Bowker, West Lafayette; Jeffrey D. Brown, Brazil; Daniel K. Cox, Monticello; Don E. Etchison, Cicero; John C. Fenn Jr., E. Brian Hudson, Kokomo; Jeffrey R. Gaiher, Indianapolis; S. Michael Herran, Huntington; Frank S. LaPierre, South Bend; Douglas C. Moody, Marion; Randall K. Porter, Muncie; Paul E. Rau, Columbus; Bill W. Reichard, Valparaiso; Bruce H. Torrance, Lebanon; Bill E. Voor III, Mishawaka.

When revising our pledgeship program, we found it necessary to use a more vigorous and selective rush procedure. This has led to an intensive interest in our rush system by the whole chapter and has resulted in the pledging of nine promising men. These new pledges are: James Bliquant, West Lafayette; Michael Scott Davidson, Marion; David Dobberly, Lafayette; Michael McEnany, New Canaan, Conn.; Kevin Meeks, Ft. Wayne; Anders Pogorzelski, Orono; Scott Teets, Carmel; Keith Watana-be, Griffith; Brian Wonder, Carlisle Banks.

Indiana University of Pennsylvania Spring Is Here

It looks like spring has finally arrived here at Indiana, Pennsylvania. The Brothers here at Pennsylvania Nu, though they are working hard, are also finding it very easy to busy themselves with something other than their studies.

We were very successful once again this semester in rush, thanks to Terry Appolonias. We now have nine new pledges: Dave Bodge, Scott Derrington, Dave Harper, Dave Hiller, Paul Kirby, Fred Kuscavage, Gary Sheftick, Mike Stutz, and Nick Yackanicz. We believe these men will be a fine addition to our chapter.

At the same time, however, we must bid farewell to 12 seniors who will be graduating in May: Ross Butch, Dave Franzi, Jeff Getkin, Tim Groves, Dave Haddad, Jack Hawthorne, Don Heiser, Don Houchins, Mike John, John Miller, Denny Puko, and Mike Welsh. We thank these men for all their contributions in the last four years, and wish them the best of luck in the future.

Intramural sports is the big news this semester. The Phi Psi Volleyball team captured the championship on March 9, 1977. This is the first intramural championship ever won by a team from our chapter. Also this semester, the Phi Psi ping-pong team made it to the quarterfinals before being eliminated by a tough opponent. We are third in the all-points race at this writing, and we are looking forward to some strong finishes in these remaining spring sports: swimming, water polo, soccer, and softball.

With all this activity, we here at Pennsylvania Nu would like to extend to all our Brothers nationwide, a wish for an enjoyable spring and a prosperous summer. May you all enjoy these two seasons in the best of health.

University of Iowa High Grades

The spring semester began at Iowa Alpha with a flurry of activity. Early in January, following a week long initiation program, 23 men were inducted. Founders Day was celebrated with the deep respect the 125-year-old organization deserves. Early in March, our spring formal was held. A large crowd of over 80 truly enjoyed the festive atmosphere.

On the domestic scene, a new slate of officers was elected in January. Congratulations go to Charles Taylor, GP; Doug Peckum, VGP; and Joseph Schemmel, P; whose leadership should make for a productive year. Among the new proposals is a bolstering of current alumni-undergraduate relations.

Academically, Iowa Alpha ranked second in fraternity GPA on campus, only .02 of a point from the top. Academics continued to be an integral part of the pledge education as this fall's pledge class posted the best grades of any pledge class on campus. Several pledges received invitations to join Phi Eta Sigma, the freshman honor fraternity.

On the athletic fields, important contributions continue to be made by Phi Psis. This winter, David Noble helped the Iowa swim team to its highest Big Ten finish in ten years. Rick Zussman and Jim Houghton will co-captain this spring's Iowa tennis team. New initiate Nigel Burch, a veteran of two British Opens, is expected to pace Iowa's golf team.

The men of Iowa Alpha are anticipating a strong, successful summer and fall rush program. Rush Chairman Brad Winterbottom has given us a jump on the field by the spring pledging of Kent Gluekmann, Rock Island, Ill., to be a member of our fall pledge class. Brad would appreciate any recommendations.

House improvements have been restricted due to a lack of funds, but plans for the summer include installation of smoke detectors on all floors, and replastering of the second and third floors.

CHARLES JENSEN, Correspondent

Iowa State University House Improvements

We opened spring quarter with two new pledges. They are Pierre Begin and Lance Lorfeld; both are from Davenport.

As spring brought new people to the house, two Brothers departed. J. Brent Harl and Sam Hoffmann migrated to the Arizona State University campus to continue their education.

Our kitchen remodeling plan is almost finished. With the aid of committee head Keith Kirchner, our corporation board has explored costs and possible alternatives. It is hoped that a new, complete kitchen will be ready by 1978-79.

Viesha, one of the largest student-run activities in the U.S. has been in the planning stage for a long time at ISU. The Brothers of Iowa Beta, like almost everyone on campus, are anxiously awaiting this year's Viesha celebration. The Phi Psis are in the process of building a float for the annual Viesha parade with the help of Delta Zeta sorority. We hope to place high in the competition. A myriad of other activities are planned for Viesha week. Along with Viesha, a University sponsored Greek Week will be held.

The famous Phi Psi pool is in the process of being filled and the anticipation of a cool dip has all of the Brothers excited.

Johns Hopkins University An Excellent Rush

Maryland Alpha has had a very successful spring semester. We held three large rush parties during the Hopkins traditional "rush period." A private dinner for Brothers and prospective freshmen complete with a Beer Tasting Contest were enjoyed by all, along with a tennis party which was held at a local court. A cocktail party was also held during the rush period. Overall, this rush was the most successful Maryland Alpha has had in many years. Nineteen fine freshmen have pledged: Sun Chen, Larchmont, N.Y.; Dave Powell, Iowa City, Ia.; Howard Fine, Stratford, N.J.; Michael Mont, New York, N.Y.; Ronald Emeson, Denver, Colo.; Larry Rothenberg, Valley Stream, N.Y.; Charles Abrams, Melrose Park, Pa.; Barry Michelson, Miami Beach, Fla.; Stephen Brady, Greensburg, Pa.; Harlan Friedman, Gaithersburg; Robert Klein, Swampscott, Mass.; Christopher Bartlett, Hampden, Mass.; Adam Garden, Neil Schwartzman, Brooklyn, N.Y.; W. Blair Okta, Montclair, N.J.; Ted Stewart, Montgomery, Ala.; Daniel Kingsbury, Wilton, Conn.; Christopher Nicostri, Huntington, N.Y.; and Dana Waterman, Narragansett, R.I. Chris Brooks, who pledged last semester, was initiated into Phi Kappa Psi on February 5.

We plan to continue this excellent performance through the rest of this semester. Among the things planned are: Barbecues after selected home lacrosse games (March 19 and April 9) for pledges and Brothers; a pledge planned and operated party; the annual Alumni Cocktail Party after the lacrosse game on "Homecoming Day" (May 7); and a big formal party for Brothers, the new initiates and dates also on May 7. Also, Maryland Alpha will take part in the Hopkins "Spring Fair"—we will have a food booth and show a movie. These will help to raise funds along with a possible car wash.

University of Kansas The Alpha Review

noW lissen this hear ledder iz goin ta half sum noos in tit sew dont glancet thru tit n'a hurry cawz yuz liaball ta miz the "ett-ett" reely bush gab.

With one semester of the academic year under our belts and the second one well under way, it is with pleasure and relief that we announce that the chapter weathered the winter in great shape. Kansas Alpha would like to introduce the following men pledged in January: John Marshall of Overland Park and Timothy Pollart of Kirkwood, Mo. February 12 was the initiation date for 13 men from the fall pledge class. The new initiates into the mysteries of the Fraternity are: Jeff Howard, Chip Anthony, Overland Park; Rob Atkinson, Boiling Springs, Pa.; Kevin Chambers, Garden City; Mike Church, Colona, Ill.; Mike Dick, Prairie Village; Dave Duncan, Lake Quivirria; Brian Gernant, Dave Wilson, Geneseo, Ill.; Chris Link, Kansas City; Leonard Rewerts, Leoti; Tom Sizemore, St. Louis, Mo.; and Mark Toebben, Ralston, Neb.

Academics remain the number one priority of the Brothers and pledges. The chapter's overall GPA for the fall semester was 2.75 and earned us the scholarship award from the K.C. Alumni Association. Three Brothers had GPA's of 4.0 (Jim Orr, junior; Steve Salanski, sophomore; and Dave Duncan, freshman) and 20 others were over a 3.0 GPA. Several seniors are looking ahead to graduate school next fall. Dave Barber will be at Washburn Law School, Tom Scott in the K.U. Medical School and Doug Schulte received acceptance to the University of Washington graduate school for mathematics.

Service projects this semester included a fund-raising drive for the Heart Fund with the Chi Omega sorority and a Charity Calendar fund-raising drive for The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Lafayette College A Productive Winter

The winter season was a productive one for the Brothers of Pennsylvania Theta. After a slow start, our efforts at rush were rewarded with an excellent group of 12 pledges. We are all grateful to Rush Chairman Stephen Prevoznak, for his hard work and dedication. In his two years at the position the chapter has added 31 initiates to our roll. This year's pledges are: Thomas Baionno, Kendall Park, N.J.; Bruce Buckle (Pledge President), Montoursville, Pa.; Francis Cullen, Waretown, N.J.; James Hindenach, Fairfield, Conn.; Kenneth Koch, New Monmouth, N.J.; Steven Kwasney, South River, N.J.; James Lillie, Moorestown, N.J.; Andrew Prieto, Flushing, N.J.; Leonidas Rasis, North Brunswick, N.J.; Robert Wetjen, Leonardo, N.J.; Samuel Wyckoff, Keyport, N.J.; Steven Zuckerman, East Hills, N.Y. This year's Pledge Chairman is Charles Lindsay, '79.

At the end of the winter season we found ourselves a surprising second in the intramural sports standings, this being among 21 groups competing. The level has been achieved through consistently good showings in almost every sport, and numerous scrappy performances in an underdog position. Of our varsity athletes, sophomore Ed Volz was honored, at the end of this year's season, in being named co-captain of the fencing team. Ed, a two-time letter winner, was top épée man and a team leader, this past season. A sour note, sophomore Chris Sevi, a fullback on the football team, fractured his ankle in a skiing accident recently. Fortunately, he is expected to be ready for spring practice. Sophomore lacrosse player Mike McDonough, a letter winner last year, is currently preparing for this year's schedule. Pledges presently active in a varsity sport are Frank Cullen and Tom Baionno, baseball, and Ken Koch, lacrosse.

Louisiana State University Strong Rush Program

Under the leadership of two chapter consultants, Tom Kraemer and

Carl Bennett, Louisiana Alpha's rush program is off to an excellent start. As a result of their early efforts and with the hard work of the Brothers, we picked up eight fine pledges in the early weeks of the spring semester: Duane Shafer, Hammond; Mark Hamby, Atlanta, Ga.; John Esquiville, Tommy Lacombe, Phil Oubre, New Orleans; Dale Hall, Baton Rouge; Mark Andrews, Rustin; Billy McKee, Houston. Under the leadership of our new rush chairman, Greg Pagan, we hope to be as successful for the remainder of the semester.

We had initiation on Saturday, February 19, for the following new Brothers: Ray Thompson, Baton Rouge; Joe Copia, Shreveport. Congratulations men!

We have new officers for the spring. They are: Craig Epling, GP; Kirk Betz, VGP; Greg Pagan, AG; Jerry Norwood, BG; Greg Pagan, SG; Mike Weil, Phu; Jack Clegg, Hi.

In January, Jack Clegg was elected to Who's Who Among Campus Greeks and Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Congratulations to him for such an honor. Jack is also retiring from his successful, two-semester position as Interfraternity Council President.

Louisiana Alpha would like to urge any alumni in the area to stop by and meet all the new Brothers. We hope to strengthen our alumni relations.

Socially, this semester has its share of activities. Our formal is to be held with Louisiana Beta, March 12. Throughout the semester we have several TGIF's with different sororities on campus. Also this semester we will be having our annual South Sea Island party.

Memphis State University New Phi Psi 500

The Brothers of Tennessee Zeta are off to a good start this spring. The new officers for this semester are: GP, Phil Ruleman; VGP, Jim Norvell; AG, Wes Shelby; BG, Dave Phillips; and P, Dave Hooper. Since the last newsletter we have initiated two more men into the brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi. They are Harvey Reese and Tim Gilliland. We also have four pledges this spring who are progressing very well.

Founders Day was held at the chapter house for the first time this year. Many alumni came and everyone involved had a good time. Special thanks go to Jay Butler who served up a good meal and to Jim Covington who supplied the plates and glasses.

Six Brothers traveled to Texas Alpha in Austin for the ELC this year. All involved learned many things and we hope to apply many of these in the future. "Spud," better known to the Brothers in Austin as "Tex," sends a special hello to all.

The Phi Psi 500 is looking like it is going to be a huge success again this year. Six sororities are involved. Instead of a straight-a-way track like last year, we have changed to an obstacle course. We wish all sororities the best of luck.

A special reminder to all alumni in this area. An alumni newsletter is being formed with news just about the alumni. If you have anything that you would like to see printed in it please send it to Jim Norvell in care of the chapter house. The first copy should be out around the first week of April. Again, please drop by the Fraternity house when you have time. We would like to keep in touch.

Miami University A Successful Rush

For Ohio Lambda the first half of spring semester has been a very busy time. On returning from winter break we prepared for rush, which took place in the last week of January and the first week of February. This year's rush was quite successful, as we pledged 23 fine individuals: Jim Hickey, Aurora; Al Schinagle, Chagrin Falls; George Johnson and Mike Rupers, Cincinnati; Bob Bachtel and Tom Oakley, Columbus; Jim McGrath, Cleveland; Craig Herman, Bryan; Bill Lawrence, Kalamazoo, Mich.; Bruce Short and Carry Armstrong, Toledo; Al Huber, West Carrollton; Dave Barklow and Steve Fredericks, Chicago, Ill.; Blaine Strock, Memphis, Tenn.; Nick Yaksich, Rockville, Md.; John Spencer, Neldesville; Greg Clements, Springfield; Jack Sawyer, Valparaiso, Ind.; Chan Chee Keong, Malaya; John Newland, Richmond, Ind.; and Dave Smith, West Carrollton.

The week following rush, elections were held with Steven T. Conlin, GP; Tom Sauer, VGP; Tony Elsass, P; Jim Hermiller, AG; Scott Veil, BG; Shawn Higgins, Hod; Gary Scanlan, Hi; and Tim McGinnis, Phu.

After elections the next event was Founders Day weekend. We traveled to Columbus, and celebrated the occasion with the Brothers of Ohio Delta and Ohio Alpha. Organized by Ohio Delta, the weekend activities included an impressive afternoon banquet.

Also, during the past weeks the chapter athletic teams have been doing very well. Led by the bruising sophomore forward, Jeff Sloan, the basketball team finished the season with a 3-2 record. With the addition of Bruce Short, Steve Fredericks, and Jack Sawyer, the hockey team was able to end the season with a four game winning streak.

Looking ahead, there are many more events coming up. April 14, at Hueston Woods, we will have our spring formal. In late April, Brad Osborne has planned an alumni weekend, which will include a golf tournament and a banquet. Finally, in early May both school and an exciting year for Ohio Lambda will come to an end.

Michigan State University Greek Activities

Because the chapter has been so busy, winter term came and went quickly.

Rush party was held at the MSUnion Ballroom at the beginning of the term, with more than 150 people in attendance. It was one of our best rush parties in years.

Exchange dinners were held weekly throughout the term thanks to the excellent planning of our social chairman, Kevin Riley. Exchange dinners were held with: Zeta Tau Alpha, Delta Gamma, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Chi Omega, Sigma Kappa, Kappa Delta, Phi Mu, and Pi Beta Phi.

Greek Sing is coming up soon and the Phi Psis will be singing with Alpha Chi Omega this year. Many hours of work have already gone into the show by our Greek Sing committee, Paul Marchisotto, Dick Jewell, Dan Kelly, and Dave White. All the proceeds from Greek Sing go to charity.

Shortly after Greek Sing is Greek Week. This year the Phi Psis have the distinction of having two members on the Greek Week Steering Committee. Dave White is the advertising manager and Tom Nelson is the graphics coordinator. Both Dave and Tom are advertising majors.

On March 4, three men were initiated into the mysteries of Phi Kappa Psi. They are John Stoll, John Corrigan, and Mark Martin. All three are good men who have a lot to contribute to Phi Kappa Psi. With the addition of these three men, active chapter membership has once again risen above 50.

Finally, new chapter officers were elected February 14. They are: Pat Patton, GP; Bruce Mays, VGP; Dave White, AG; Mark Johnson, BG; Dan Kelly, SG; Bob Thompkins, Phu; Lee Prelesnik, Hi; Paul Marchisotto, Member at large; Bruce VandenBerg, IFC representative; and Tom Ennis, rush chairman.

University of Minnesota Founders Day Banquet

The Brothers of Minnesota Beta celebrated Founders Day by reviving an old tradition of a banquet at the Minneapolis Athletic Club. The banquet was well attended.

We hope another of our traditions will be in the form of a chapter-alumni newspaper that will feature many articles on what many of our alumni are doing. Our first issue was completed in time to get the word out to our alumni about the Founders Day banquet. Jay Story, our Public Relations Committee Chairman, is to be commended for his fine effort in what is sure to be a strong line of communication between the chapter and the alumni.

A fund drive has been implemented at Minnesota Beta to take care of some badly needed repairs. One important recipient will be our grand piano which has been in the house for many years and needs to be refurbished.

President Ken Potter was the guest speaker at the 1977 Greek Developmental Workshop held here March 5. We were happy to receive him as our guest for a few hours. It was a proud occasion for all of us here at Minnesota Beta.

Our social calendar for last term was adequately filled. We had a great time during Greek Week with Gamma Phi Beta. Presently we are turning our attention to Campus Carni, an annual all-Greek charity fund-raising event. Being paired with Pi Beta Phi, we are striving for a first place trophy.

Brothers Bill Derrick, Bill Johnson and Jay Story were honored with Senior Recognition Awards, given by the Greek Week committee to those who have done an outstanding job within the Greek system.

Our chapter has been consistently active in intramurals. This term one of our basketball teams made it to the All-U Playoffs. This spring, with outstanding track, tennis and softball teams, we intend to do very well in intramural sports.

STEVE ROBB, Correspondent

University of Mississippi Greek Workshop

Founders Day held special significance for Mississippi Alpha this year. We initiated 22 men on the 125th anniversary of our Fraternity. The new initiates are: Eric Donahoe, Dean Douglas, Keith Parish, James Rossetti, Bryan Beyer, Jerry Lammons, Clark Sturdivant, Billy Fry, Danny Phillips, Joe Wysor, Jeff Gilbert, Bill Grant, Sam Martin, Steve Roberts, Keith McNatt, John Tolar, Mark Howle, Greg Gibson, David Pickle, Bill Finch, Steve Lee, and Cody Sanders.

At the conclusion of initiation an Initiation-Founders Day banquet was held. John Hudson, one of our most beloved and active alumni, served as Symposiarch. Judge William Anderson, a prominent judge in this area and a Brother of Mississippi Alpha, told of the early days of our chapter. Of the new initiates, Eric Donahoe received the Model Pledge Award and Billy Fry received the Scholarship Pledge Award. Graduating senior Mike Greer received the Solon E. Summerfield Award. The banquet was followed by a rousing party at our house.

The Brothers were especially pleased when the IFC Greek Week Committee announced that President J. Kenneth Potter would conduct a Greek workshop on campus. We were pleased to have President Potter as our guest for the weekend of March 12. In his workshop, Brother Potter discussed such topics as: leadership, what makes a number one chapter, rush and pledge programs. The entire Greek committee at Ole Miss benefitted from President Potter's visit and our chapter was especially honored to host such a distinguished Brother. Greek Week was climaxed by Brother Les Kerr's winning the Greek god contest.

University of Missouri Campus Leaders

Missouri Alpha started the winter semester on the right foot with the initiation of 16. Jim Gall, Independence; Ken Underhill, Mark and Mike Kienzle, and Joe Whelan, St. Louis; Norm Finbloom, Jeff Abbott, and Frank Sprich, Chesterfield; Joel Poor, Clayton; Pat Platter, Joplin; Bill Bailey, St. Joseph; Jim Earley, Cape Girardeau; Mike Pennington, Pleasant Hill; Buddy Gillespie, Jefferson City; Wally Lampertz, Louisville, Ky.; and Mark Hellwig, Monroe, Mich., comprised one of the largest initiate classes at Missouri Alpha in the last ten years. Just as one pledge class finished its duties, there were six new pledges for this semester: Kirk Proffer, Jackson; Lonnie West, Rolla; Doran Hoskins, St. Louis; Greg Thompson, Kearney; Steve Wunderlich, Chesterfield; and Pat Donnelly, Annandale, Va.

Missouri Alpha's strong base of young faces and new Brothers have mixed with the old to make a successful year so far for us. Jef Akers, Jay Kohoutek, Mike Pennington, and Mike Kienzle grabbed the intramural golf championship with a course and intramural record setting 301 team score. Jef Akers was also the tournament medalist. New initiates Jim Gall and Mark Hellwig are wearing Missouri football black and gold this spring and plan to continue next fall, the coach staff willing.

Phi Psis are cropping up all over campus here at Mizzou as well. At Halloween time, Missouri Alpha joined with Alpha Chi Omega and Kappa Delta to raise $400 for cystic fibrosis while putting on a "Spook House" in our chapter house. Campus politics are an active interest at Mo Alpha. Doug Coombs was recently elected to the business and public administration student council and Rick Bien is chairman of the student government board of election commissioners. Roy Kline and Doug Coombs are also new initiates in Delta Sigma Pi Business and Service Fraternity. Buddy Gillespie helps cheer on Mizzou Tiger athletes as a University cheerleader.

Monmouth College Eventful Semester

This spring semester, under the direction of Rush Chairman Jeff Luthman, we have recruited seven pledges. Best of luck is extended to these fine men and we hope they will eventually attain the goals provided for in our pledge program.

Athletically, our softball team should have another successful season with the help of veterans Frank Montagna, Arthur Klehm, and John Chiappone. In bowling we are in first place and we have high hopes of holding on to it for the remainder of the season. Our past basketball season was not the greatest in our history but we are still in our rebuilding years.

On our social calendar we have our Spring Weekend coming up with the spring formal on April 22, followed by our annual picnic on the 23rd. Our Founders Day Party was a real success with everybody having a great time. Many thanks are in line for John Palladino, social chairman, who has done an excellent job coordinating our social events this past year.

Finally, we the undergraduates of New Jersey Beta congratulate all local and national Brothers who will be graduating this year: John Chiappone, John Palladino, Frank Montagna, George David Van Why, and Arthur Klehm. These fine men have been a great asset to the chapter and to the surrounding community.

Have a safe and happy summer.

University of Montana First Rush

Winter quarter is nearly over and the Brothers of Montana Alpha are looking forward to spring break and the upcoming quarter. We are preparing for Formal Rush March 30 through April 2, the first that we will be participating in at the University of Montana. Hopes are that the new method will enable us to meet more prospective pledges.

Congratulations are in order for several men who were elected into positions of the student government on campus. Steve Huntington will be the business manager for the school during the next year. Scott Alexander was elected to a second term on Central Board, an advisory group of students. Pledges Dean Mansfield and Greg Oliphant were elected vice president and central board member, respectively.

The UM track team boasts Phi Psis Dave Fawcett and John Roys, who should represent us well this season. Dennis Daneke, Gene Bilodeau, John Rietman, Greg Olson, and John Morton are all members of the Montana Rugby Club, and are looking forward to another exciting season.

A few of the events we have planned for spring include the Phi Psi 500, which should be a success again this year. We are also trying to organize a disco party to help raise money for a needy organization. Another event we are looking forward to is the Theta Cups, which we hopefully will repeat as the winners. Spring quarter should be another growing period for Montana Alpha and we all have high expectations.

University of Nebraska Initiation Spotlights Spring Semester

Initiation ceremonies were held for 13 pledges on February 26, followed by a banquet that evening at the Legionnaire's Club here in Lincoln. The new Brothers are: Tim Martin, John Sinovich, Steve Mainelli, Bob Dickerson, Mark Fjeld, Rick Haase, Jim Schonewise, Brad Bolton, Gregg Ericksen, Dave Pape, Mike Jones, Ted Simpson, Randy Florell.

An outstanding number of alumni were present at the Initiation Banquet, and helped to make it very successful. A special thanks to all alumni who attended the banquet. We enjoyed the speech made by Gene Conley, Nebraska Alpha '47, our main speaker for the evening. The following awards were given out: Mike Herman, outstanding active; Steve Mainelli, outstanding pledge; Richard Armstrong, outstanding alumnus for his help with rush; Adrian Fiala, outstanding alumnus; and Harvey McCray for his help with the newsletter. A special award was given to John Minnick, Pledge Trainer, by the pledge class in recognition of his outstanding performance as pledge trainer.

We celebrated our Fraternity's 125th birthday in Omaha with our Brothers from Nebraska Beta of Creighton University. Robert Chamberlain, Vice President of the Fraternity, was our featured speaker for the evening.

We made many improvements on our chapter house during "Help Week." The upstairs hallways were painted and re-carpeted, and we remodeled and paneled a room on the first floor to be used as a study room.

Our first newsletter in recent years was sent out in the middle of February, thanks to the hard work of Mike Herman and alumnus Harvey McCray.

Northwestern University Kent Buell Honored

Winter quarter at Illinois Alpha got off to a good start with the induction of 14 new initiates on January 16, 1977. The new Brothers are: Scott Ariens, Milwaukee, Wis.; Pete Genuso, Elk Grove Village; John Blim, Kansas City, Kans.; Kevin Hanrahan, Potomac, Md.; Mike Hitchcock, Western Springs; Ricky Jadin, Green Bay, Wis.; Gordon Jennings, Arlington Heights; Pete Kindrachuk, Wheaton; Steve Marrer, Cincinnati, Ohio; David Millbern, North Miami Beach, Fla.;

New initiates of Illinois Alpha at Northwestern University pose for the Phi Psi photographer.

Jon Newcomb, Granite City; Mike Purnell, Des Moines, Iowa; Hugh Walborn, Muskegon, Mich. and David Wolff, Hendersonville, N.C. We are proud to congratulate these new members of Phi Kappa Psi.

In honor of the 125th Anniversary Founders Day celebration, we held a formal dinner in our chapter house, attended by several local alumni and faculty members. During the dinner, we honored one alumnus in particular for his dedicated service over the years. Kent H. Buell was awarded a plaque as an expression of our appreciation for his unselfish devotion to Illinois Alpha and the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi.

Our social calendar has consisted of exchanges with other fraternities and sororities, an open band party, and a ski trip to Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. This spring, we anticipate the return of several traditionally favorite social functions, and in particular we are looking forward to our "formal," to be held sometime in May.

Finally, elections held on January 24 resulted in the following persons being selected to office: Dreux Dwyer, GP; Gregg Zoltek, VGP; John Horan, BG; Coe Rost, assistant P; Pete Genuso, Phu; Pete Kindrachuk, Hod; and Scott Ariens, Hi. Pat Daugherty was elected Spring Rush Chairman, and more recently, John Horan was elected Spring Pledge Trainer.

Ohio State University Founders Day Weekend

Winter quarter found new and exciting changes for Ohio Delta. First of all, we congratulate the six new initiates from our winter pledge class: Brad Beatley, Indian Lake; Michael Cohen, Owings Mill, Md.; Chuch Havener, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Steve Straub, Indianapolis, Ind.; Dan Wojta, Columbus; and Michael Rump, Westlake.

Ohio State celebrated Phi Psi's 125th anniversary in style along with Miami and Ohio Wesleyan. The weekend started Friday night with a beer party for the undergrads at the chapter house. Ken Potter, Fraternity president, was there to start us on our 125 toasts to Phi Psi. Saturday a luncheon was held at the Columbus Athletic Club. This proved to be a memorable display of spirit and brotherhood as the 200 undergrads and alumni joined in songs after a fine speech by Brother Potter.

We elected our chapter officers for the 1977-78 school year. They are: Nick Furillo, GP; Dave Mussachia, 1st VGP; Andy Norris, 2nd VGP; Joe Bost, P; Chuck Beeson, BG; Steve Williams, AG; Thom Parke, Hod; Tom McClain, Phu; Brad Wenrick, Hi; and Craig Stone, SG.

Several individual achievements should be mentioned. Mitch Fields, our Summerfield Award winner, will start this summer at the Ohio State College of Medicine. Greg "Bull" Romano was given the "Attitude Award" by his teammates on the varsity basketball team. Chris Hostetler was elected to the Interfraternity Judicial Board.

The chapter wishes to thank Fred Machetanz for the print of his "Eighty Winters" given to us this fall. The contributions Brother Machetanz has made to the beauty of the house are deeply appreciated.

STEVEN R. WILLIAMS, Correspondent

The University of Oklahoma Phi Psi 500

Oklahoma Alpha has gained five new pledges under the direction of Carlos Elwell, rush chairman. These pledges are: Tod Weldeck, Delmon Habor, Norman; Phil Richards, Tim Kincaid, and Eric Farley, Tulsa. We celebrated Founders Day with a disco party at the house.

Our spring rush party for high school seniors is planned for April 1 and 2. We have sent out 500 invitations and have received many back already.

Our annual "Phi Psi 500" is scheduled for April 22 and 23. All the proceeds are going to Diabetes again this year; we have set a goal of $25,000 net. It will be held in one of Oklahoma City's largest shopping malls, Crossroads, on Saturday, with a campus-wide street party in front of our house Friday night.

We have two softball teams in the intramural program this spring, as well as competitors in wrestling, swimming, racketball, track and field, and tennis.

STEVE HOLDER, Correspondent

Oklahoma State University Ten Year Celebration

Oklahoma Beta celebrated the 125th anniversary of Phi Kappa Psi with the initiation of nine new Brothers: Kevin Kanaly, Kelly Green, Mark Jones, Oklahoma City; Jerry Moore, Rick Schmigle, Stan Rickner, Richard Nelson, Tulsa; Chuck Zwiacher, Putnam City; and Robert Thomson, Midwest City.

We urge all alumni to join us on April 22-24 in the celebration of the 10th anniversary of our chapter installation. The highlight of the ceremony will be the annual Jacqueminot Rose Ball to be held at the Holiday Inn in Stillwater. Besides the ten-year celebration we plan to have a service project in Chandler, Oklahoma.

Remaining active on campus, Oklahoma Beta has hosted several chili con queso parties with different sororities and are planning to participate in Spring Sing, a Sing competition among all living groups on campus, with the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. We have also been active in intramural sports, placing first in our league in basketball. Brothers Chris Kunc and Chuck Zwiacher placed in the wrestling tournament, and our softball team shows promise which should place us high among fraternities.

A special thanks to the Parents Club for their donation of curtains and a new tile floor for our kitchen.

University of Oregon Varied Spring Activities

Winter term at Oregon Alpha featured everything from the bizarre activities of dribbling a basketball behind a U-Haul truck for 45 miles, to the serious matter of holding over a fall pledge class.

This rapidly growing chapter, now in its second year in the house after suspending operations in 1971, made another step toward placing a brighter light on its name on January 22. On that sunny, 60-degree Saturday, 40 Oregon Alphas teamed with members from Oregon Beta in the First Annual Phi Psi Dribble to raise money for the American Red Cross Disaster Relief Fund.

On the financial side of things, we're still in debt for the improvements we made on the house two summers ago. We made some gain, however, with two all-campus parties early in the term. No windows were broken, no stomachs were pumped, and no lawsuits were filed as everyone had a great time and we cleared over $800. In addition, over 200 alumni contributed $4,002.63 in 1976 to help our cause.

Furthermore, 13 members of the fall pledge class had their initiation postponed until April. In mid-April, the initiates will be: Mike Helmuth, West Lafayette, Ind.; Reid Martin, Yakima, Wash.; Kevin Robertson, Scott Robertson, Eugene; Phil Clark, Waldport; Russ Fleming, Portland; Tom Bowen, San Francisco, Calif.; Dave Eaton, Eugene; Fritz Kieckhefer, Kentfield, Calif.; Marc Russell, Ashland; and Jeff Jose, Woodland Hills, Calif.

This winter, we've pledged three new members during informal rush, and they will be initiated at a future date. They are: Rob Grove, Portland; Phil Swaim, Phoenix, Ariz.; and Tom Stoker, Eugene.

Founders Day '77 was held February 12, and the following corporation officers were elected: President, Bob Danielson, '61; Vice President, Roger Rutan, '66; Secretary, Leon Meekoms, '69; Treasurer, Gary Bartel, '63; Directors, Jim Dotten, '66; Robert Miller, '67; Stanley Esselstrom, '41; and William Bloodworth, '41.

Oregon State University Phi Psi Dribble

Winter term started with the initiation of eight men into the brotherhood of Oregon Beta, Phi Kappa Psi. These men are Steve Tedesco, Klamath Falls; James Tilton, Wrightsville Beach, N.C.; Steve Finn, Salem; Bill Finzer, Portland; Mike Cady, Ashland; Ray Jim, The Dalles; John Riche, Fresno, Calif.; and Serge Alexandre, Mill Valley, Calif.

Our biggest activity was the Phi Psi Dribble, which we did in conjunction with the Brothers at Oregon Alpha. The Dribble was a fund-raising event, similar to one done by Rhode Island Beta. Three basketballs were kept bouncing by the members of the houses over the 50 miles of highway between Eugene and Corvallis. We collected money from people on the street as well as previously obtaining pledges from local businesses. We donated the proceeds to the local Red Cross chapter. We highly recommend this kind of inter-chapter activity as a Fraternity building experience and a rivalry breaker.

Also at the beginning of the term we elected new officers. Some of them are Ken Schwartz, GP; Dan Sause, VGP; George Emmerson, P; Russ Logerwell, AG; Karl Ashenbrenner, BG; James Tilton, Hod; Ray Jim, Hi; John Riche, Phu; and Mike Weeks, Summer Rush Chairman.

This spring the Brothers of Oregon Beta will be running at full speed with rush activities, studying, and the Phi Psi Sandblast on the agenda. The Sandblast is our annual house dance at the Oregon coast.

We give hearty congratulations to Arizona Alpha on its recent installation, adding to the size and spirit of the Phi Psi chapters in District VI. Welcome back. We also thank our Chapter Consultant, Tim Moore, for his recent visit.

RUSSELL M. LOGERWELL, Correspondent

Pennsylvania State University Anticipation

Spring is upon us in Happy Valley and Penn Lambda begins the term with seven fine pledges: Tom Klueber and Kirk Sutton, Pittsburgh; Mike Diehl, Waymart; Dan Bombalski, Natrona Heights; Joe Maiale, Reading; Phil Garda, Vandergrift; John Blair, Leechburg. Already involved in chapter activities, these men are sure to be a valuable asset.

Founders Day '77 served as the initiation day for our most recent pledge class. Under the guidance of Pledge Trainer Tom Conroy, seven new Brothers were welcomed into Phi Kappa Psi: Larry Campolongo, State College; Bob Myers, Greensburg; Greg Laderer and Jim Gil, Upper St. Clair; Lenny Muscelli, Springfield; Martin Remmey, Huntingdon Valley; and Matt Rhodes, Emmaus. In addition, Mark Thomas returned to Penn Lambda to finish pledging and to be initiated after a year's absence.

We are proud of our continued scholastic achievements. Thanks to the work of Brothers such as winter term's Arthur Texture Memorial Scholarship winners Paul Weagraff (highest GPA) and Jerry Kozak (most improved), we still maintain a cumulative average well above the all University average.

Spring term at Penn Lambda also is Phi Psi 500 time. This year's chairman, Kevin Farquhar, has set a goal of $10,000 for the 1977 "500." With the Brothers already hard at work and Franco Harris as master of ceremonies, April 23 will surely mark the date of our most successful "500"

Chapter leadership is being provided by: John Hummel, GP; Mike Conley, VGP; Ken Smith, P; Don Miller, AG; Scott McQuiston, BG; Tom Twardzik, SG; Dan Wolfe, Hod; Jerry Kozak, Phu; and Jack Repcheck, Hi.

We thank our Corporation for their aid in our drive for house improvements. With their financial assistance, we are insulating the attic, purchasing storm windows, acquiring new heating fixtures, plus making more needed repairs.

DONALD G. MILLER, Correspondent

Purdue University Alumni Contact

Although the temperature dipped way down, the spirits of the Phi Psis at Purdue didn't falter. Our efforts are being thrust in several directions as a lot of time and energy are being used to continue the betterment of our chapter.

Our first priority is to regain alumni contact. We've worked hard in the last two years to build the chapter up and we are proud of our work. We realize that we alone aren't Indiana Delta; we realize that this chapter has helped build many great men. Yet, with almost no alumni contact, we tend to forget about all the contributions others have made.

We are proud of what we have; but help us be proud of our history. Think back—how much did Phi Kappa Psi mean to you while you were in school? To us, it is not just a home; it is a way of life.

Nine pledges were initiated in February. They are: Frank William Vonachen, Holliston, Mass.; Mark Jonathan Messmer and Kenneth Eugene Newton, Connersville; Robert Arthur Rakestraw, Evanston, Ill.; Barry John Churbock, Muncie; Mark Robert Shull, Westlake, Ohio; Michael Wayne Hammonds, Rushville; Mark Alan Holloway, Evansville; and Raymond Alan Scher, Huntington. As pledges, they worked hard and obtained fine results from our new education program. For their pledge project, they revitalized the Bum Room and it does look nice!

At this writing, rush is still continuing. Twelve very fine young men have accepted their bids and we plan to add a few more before starting the group.

In sports, we continue to make the playoffs in almost every sport in which we participate. Our basketball team made it to the final four before being defeated by the eventual winner.

Our first pledge dance was a real success as nearly the entire chapter attended and had a good time. Now plans are being made for an entertaining Mothers Weekend.

University of Rhode Island Successful Bounce-a-Thon for Cancer

The Brothers and pledges of Rhode Island Beta made an excellent contribution to the American Cancer Society again this year. Under the direction of Co-chairmen John Goding and Paul Barry, $2,500 was raised through on and off campus contributions, and especially through our annual Bounce-a-Thon. Despite the harsh weather, the Brothers and pledges managed to dribble basketballs 40 miles to the Providence Civic Center, where we were greeted by the Mayor of Providence, Vincent A. Cianci. Our Bounce-a-Thon again proved to be a success, though URI lost the close basketball game to Providence College.

We also selected new officers for the spring 1977 semester. They are Walter Augustyn, GP; John Goding, VGP; John R. Partington Jr., AG; Jim Cunha, BG; Steve Verkade, SG; Robert Hunter, Hod; Einar Gudjohnsen, Hi; John Rhodes, Phu.

We were proud to welcome Robert

Campbell into our chapter at his initiation on January 19, 1977.

Rhode Island Beta thanks New York Beta for its hospitality in this spring's District I ELC. We accomplished much in our meetings, and left with the feeling of a weekend well spent. If the Brothers at Syracuse University can ever learn to play foosball, let us know and we will have a rematch!

This spring the University of Rhode Island will see a number of Phi Psis on the playing field. Rugby players are Roland Galvanin, Bruce Millard, Jamie Gilman, and Jon Bailey; Crew, John Rhodes; and Lacrosse, Dave Singer. The brotherhood wishes the best of luck to these athletes.

Rider College Faculty Dinner

The Brothers of New Jersey Alpha have accepted 11 new pledges this spring semester. They are: Art Harris, Steve Ciavarella, Gary Fisch, Mike Feldman, Chico Staudt, Bob Hamor, Alan Cosentino, Irv Silverstein, George Flefher, Steve Schmier, and Ralph Materia. Pledge Fisch is the present Student Government President of Rider, while Feldman is now a Student Senator and Materia is Vice-President of the Association of Commuting Students. With only 14 Brothers graduating this semester and several others waiting to live in the house already, New Jersey Alpha is stronger now than at anytime in the past four years.

Phi Psi held its third annual faculty-administration dinner this March, which over 20 faculty members and college officials attended, including Rider College President Frank N. Elliott. The Brothers again received much praise from all who came, noting the fine food and hospitality.

In intramural sports Phi Psi walked away with the first place ping-pong trophy and has rosy prospects for the upcoming softball season. Individually, Brother Bob Florio took a second place finish in both the Lafayette Invitational and Philadelphia Metropolitan wrestling tournaments and Brother Clyde Closson, co-captain of Rider's swim team, set a new pool record in the 50-yard freestyle with a sizzling 21.8. He also came in second in the same event at the East Coast Conference Championships.

All in all this spring semester has an excellent start for the Brothers of New Jersey Alpha.

The University of South Carolina Scholarship Award

For the second consecutive semester the Brothers have managed to win the fraternity scholarship award with an average of 2.9 out of a possible 4.0. The pledges ranked first and the actives ranked second to combine for the overall first place win.

The spring semester has been going very well under the leadership of our new officers: Gary Matson, GP; Connor Harrison, VGP; Leon Smith, P; David Steele, AG; Vincent Price, BG; Eric Sadow, SG; John Benson, Hi; Mike Fletcher, Hod; Tom Limehouse, Phu; and David Schneider, Pledge Educator.

Our Founders Day Banquet was held two weeks late because of school closing to save energy during the cold weather. It was well celebrated by all of the actives and alumni in attendance. At the banquet Thomas A. Dail was awarded the James W. Scott Outstanding Alumnus Award for his outstanding service to the chapter in the past year. The Solon E. Summerfield Award was given to John E. Benson, a past GP and current president of the IFC on campus. John has also been nominated for IFC Man of the Year, an award we are all sure he will win.

We congratulate the Columbia Alumni Club on obtaining Association status this spring. The help they have given the chapter cannot be measured. All of the Brothers are deeply grateful.

University of Southern California House Improvements

Continuing with academic pursuits, the Brothers of California Delta have had an active spring calendar in celebrating the chapter's 50th anniversary and the 125th anniversary of the Fraternity.

On February 11, we initiated 11 new members to the brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi. They are: Greg Bert, Joseph Boylan, Bob Church, Lou Cohen, Brent Enright, Bill Herrick, Frank Occhipinti, Lars Olson, Ken Penton, Jeff Phillips and Joe Sweeney.

Spring rush was successful, netting the house six new pledges: James Arnett, Steve Carter, Glen Farkus, Bill Howard, John Richardson, and Bruce Sherman. The new pledges set house membership up to 51 members for the spring semester.

Our new officers for spring include: Anthony Cigliano, GP; Bill Buckner, VGP; Alan Ruben, P; Wayne Walley, AG; Armando Acosta, BG; Dave Prickett, SG; Brent Enright, Hod; Bob O'Gorman, Phu; and Bill Badham, Hi.

Spring social events include the annual Phi Psi 500, scheduled for May 13, during the university's Greek Week. Brother Craig Watkins is chairman of the event, which always proves to be a highlight of the spring semester on the Row.

Physically, the chapter house appearance has been improved greatly thanks to new carpeting donated by the Phi Psi Mothers' Club for the downstairs living room. That, coupled with the mounting of two shields and numerous pictures from California Delta's past, gives the house a true fraternity atmosphere.

At the Southern California Alumni Association Founders Day Dinner on February 18, Peter Bach was named the chapter's Summerfield Award winner. Brother Bach graciously donated the $100 award to the house's general fund.

University of Southwestern Louisiana New Members and Pledges

January 21, Louisiana Beta activated 11 hard workers. The new Brothers are Michael Kleiman, Metairie; Jeffrey McCowen and Randel Groninger, Slidell; Kurt Schneider, John Scopes III, Thomas Galloway Jr., and Michael Dillingham, Lafayette; Thomas Smith, John Jones III, and Hamilton Clay, New Orleans; David Bergeron, Scott. We are proud to have these men join our brotherhood.

The second week of school IFC held spring rush. We were very lucky and got ten hard working pledges. The pledges for the spring are: Jimmy Guillory, John Grimsley, Tommy Hays, and Wendell Raborn, Lafayette; Rob Colwell, Broken Arrow, Okla.; Jorge Gutierrez, Valenria, Venezuela; Jerry Juneau and Mike Stangno, Metairie; Pat Mangan, Leonardo, N.J.; Tony Segura, Delcambre. These men have been working very hard and showing to be promising future actives.

Founders Day this year was simply great. We had Louisiana State Senator Edgar Mouton as our guest speaker. The banquet was held at Oakbourne Country Club here in Lafayette. Senator Mouton spoke on the subject of our participation in the government, and how we could either help or destroy it.

Terry Blanchard, Mark Williams, Jack Scopes, and Social Affiliate Jay Duco were on the winning team of the 1st annual Trivia Bowl. The Trivia Bowl is just like the old television game show the "GE College Bowl."

April 24 we are having our sixth annual "Phi Psi 500." Already all the sororities and dorms are getting excited. Our "500" consists of girls' tricycle races, men's bicycle race, and a mystery event. Since most of us are veterans of the "500," we are looking forward to it.

Syracuse University Our Strong Band

Our Founders Day banquet in February was a most enjoyable celebration of our Fraternity's 125th birthday. James Neri received the Founders Day Cup, an annual award to a New York Beta Brother for his contributions to the chapter and the University. Guest speaker Father Charles Borgognoni delighted those in attendance with his stories of past Syracuse football glory. We particularly enjoyed the company of those alumni who attended, including Rev. Bob Cobb, Dr. Don McCuen, Bob Sennett, Jim Brewer, Harlan Andrews, Dick Dower, Johnny Powers, Bob Dempson, and Jeff Chick. We look forward to seeing these Brothers again and any Brother is welcome and encouraged to stop by 113 College Place any time.

New York Beta was proud to host the District I ELC/DC in March. We thank the chapters that attended, and especially thank Walter Lee Sheppard, New York Alpha, former Fraternity Mystagogue, for his company and informative workshop on Fraternity Ritual. We capped off the weekend with a banquet at the Hotel Syracuse followed by a party at the house.

Our Strong Band, the New York Beta newsletter, was a smashing success. James Neri edited a five-page publication which included news of current chapter status and a section on alumni. We welcome any information alumni have concerning themselves and other Brothers which can be printed in the next issue.

University of Tennessee Anticipating Active Spring

Anticipating an active spring, we, the Brothers of Tennessee Epsilon, are looking forward to a very rewarding spring quarter. We've already begun planning an extensive rush program. Our chapter is small and winter put a financial burden on our activities, so we are shooting for a goal of at least five pledges.

Two of our pledges, initiated this quarter, have proven to be two fine additions to our chapter—Drew McElroy and Boyd Venable. They were particularly valuable in remodeling our basement. A new room is now available which is soon to be occupied by one of our new initiates. Hopefully we will be able to do some more work on the house to make it more suitable for expansion.

A very successful dinner was held to celebrate Founders Day. Barbecued chicken, bread, potatoes, and salad comprised an excellent meal. Afterward a crowded party complemented the evening.

As for sports, we competed in basketball, played lots of ping-pong, but most of our Brothers concentrated on scholastics. One of our members, Andy Stuart, received academic recognition from Phi Kappa Psi. We are anticipating victory in softball intramurals in the spring.

We sincerely invite all Phi Psis to stop by and visit us this year if on their way through Knoxville.

University of Texas Austin Founders Day

Spring semester began at Texas Alpha with the initiation of seven new Brothers into Phi Kappa Psi. They are: Thomas Enoch Boyd, Kenneth Charles Treaccer, LaMarque; Kelly Esson Fish, Midland; Donald Langston Griffith, Wichita Falls; James Daryl Howell, Jeffery Orhan Taner, Houston; and John Pollen Wilkerson, Grandview.

Texas Alpha celebrated Phi Kappa Psi's 125th Anniversary on February 19, at the house with the return of many alumni. It began with a morning cocktail hour followed by a buffet and a speech by alumnus Floyd Saxon. Awards given out to active Brothers were: Ben Stinnett Award as the outstanding pledge to John Wilkerson. For displaying loyalty, scholarship and character for the Fraternity, Dan Wilkerson was given the Reggie Grob award. Frank Holiday received the George Eliot award for having displayed love and honor for the Fraternity and University. The day was topped off with a match with the Alpha Phis, many alumni attending the party.

Texas Alpha hosted the District IV Educational Leadership Conference March 5 and 6 at the chapter house and the Villa Capri Hotel. Due to the hard work of Dan Wilkerson and the other Brothers, the ELC was a success with everyone learning about the Fraternity. It was a successful weekend and included workshops, discussion groups, a banquet and a party with many of the chapters in our district attending.

Officers for the remainder of the year are: Kevin Dale Wommack, GP; Russell Cody Pruitt, VGP; Russell James Kempton, AG; Brent Alan Floyd, P; Glen Hunter Jones III, BG; Robert McDonnell Gray, SG; Kenneth Charles Treaccer, Hi; Jeffery Orhan Taner, Phu; James Daryl Howell, Hod; Charles Robert Swofford, Social Chairman; and Nathaniel Scott Norman, Pledge Educator.

We have three pledges for the spring with the addition of a few more anticipated. New pledges are: James DePew, Austin; Ricky Miller and Charlie Davis, San Antonio.

RUSSELL J. KEMPTON, Correspondent

Texas Tech University Bill Collins Honored

On February 24, we celebrated Founders Day. For his outstanding work for our school and Fraternity, we honored Bill Collins, Texas Tech '53, an outgoing Texas Tech regent.

Rush is over and we have 14 new pledges: Don Baumann, Corpus Christi; Mark Dove, Hurst; Donnie Duncan, Rand Selly, Dallas; Gary Hatsell, Lovington; Jeff Howell, Bridgeport; Rod Ishael, Chicago, Ill.; Jerry Simmons, Hobbs, N.M.; Junior Stelzer, Post; Saber Thaxton, Lovington, N.M.; Mark Coleman, Hobbs, N.M.; Craig Zahn, Jim Stewart, and Mark Zahn, Lubbock.

April will be a busy month for the Brothers of Texas Beta. On April 2, we will be participating with the Thetas in Sing Song, which we have won two years in a row. This year we are doing "A Chorus Line." On the weekend of April 9, the pledges are going to Mexico for the pledge retreat. The Spring Formal is on April 23. We hope to see many alumni. Mixers and parties are also planned for the remainder of the semester.

Several of our Brothers had outstanding accomplishments this semester. Charlie Smith was accepted to the Houston Medical School, Roy Braswell was accepted to the Southwest Medical School in Dallas, and Dan Synder was accepted to the Texas Tech School of Law. John Galbraith was a member of the National Plant Identification Championship Team. Our chapter had the highest grade point average of the fraternities on the Tech campus this fall.

University of Toledo Strong in Sports

As the end of winter quarter approaches, the Brothers of Ohio Eta look back and realize what a productive, although hectic quarter it's been. While activating four new Brothers and taking in six super pledges, Ohio Eta has been in steady competition on campus in sports, academics, and rush.

To our four new Brothers we say congratulations and welcome to Phi Kappa Psi. The new initiates are: John Manore, Dan Dessum, Tim Samples, Toledo; and Gil Laterza, Fremont. We also have six pledges from this quarter: Keith Toothaker, Terry Clawson, Scott Williams, and Kevin Feeney, Toledo; Mike Smith, Whitehouse; and Jim Eckhardt, Sylvania.

We are proud to have two Brothers involved in the freshman advising and orientation programs. They are: Mark Tappen, who is involved in the freshman advising and registration program; and Jim Shortridge, who is director of freshman camp.

We have made a consistently strong showing in all our sports events. In basketball and in bowling we placed third after being edged out by extremely small margins. In swimming we placed a strong second. We also had two Brothers, Randy Gensler and John Manore, make it to the finals in wrestling. We are already gearing up for next quarter's interfraternity competition. With softball, volleyball, track and golf coming up fast, the Brothers of Ohio Eta are looking forward to an even more exciting and rewarding spring quarter.

In closing, Ohio Eta welcomes the Arizona Alpha Chapter on its installation into the Brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi. Good luck to all chapters this quarter, and if you just happen to be in Florida during spring break, look for Ohio Eta. We'll be there!

Vanderbilt University Rewarding Spring

The men of Tennessee Delta are pleased to announce the initiation of our spring, 1977 pledge class. Our newest Brothers are: Mark D. Aune, Florence, Ala.; Brett A. Barrett, Potomac, Md.; Bryd L. Bonner, Sulphur Springs, Tex.; James D. Camp, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; Steven S. Cobb, C. William K. Hurst, Charles P. Marsh, and David W. McCoy, Louisville, Ky.; John A. Dille, Norman, Okla.; J. Steven Harris, Metairie, La.; Charles E. Hawkins, Rome, Ga.; Peter R. Hicks, New Haven, Conn.; Jeff R. Hooper, McLean, Va.; John H. Hudson, Clarksville; David L. Love, Little Rock, Ark.; John E. Martin, David H. Meaden, Houston, Tex.; and B. Webb Wallace, Gideon, Mo. As usual, our pledges represent a broad, national group that we have found invaluable to our Fraternal experience. We are pleased to have them as Brothers.

The spring of this year has been exceptionally rewarding for the Phi Psis at Vanderbilt, with Founders Day being no exception. This was our 75th Founders Day, and we marked it with the unveiling of a 75-year history and directory of our chapter as written by Brothers Byron Cain and Mark Browning. The Fraternity's Secretary, David F. Hull Jr., joined us for the cocktail reception and luncheon that capped our weekend's activities, which had included a Casino Party and a dance.

The rush committee is aggressively preparing for the summer, with rush functions being planned for Dallas, Louisville, Little Rock, Jackson, Indianapolis, Nashville, and Atlanta. Rush Chairmen J. French Hill and David McClary may be contacted for recommendations either through our chapter address or at their home address listed in this issue of THE SHIELD. Interested Brothers and alumni are urged to contact the chapter if they wish to lend a hand.

University of Virginia New Officers

Brothers in office: GP Matthew Bacharach; VGP Scott Rainey; Hi Skip Garrett; and Phu Reese Owens. In addition to the new officers, our chapter is fortunate to count among its membership the following pledges: Jeff Beck, Paul Blakely, John Buchanan, Taz Coffey, Pat McCarty, Tom McLeod, Fritz Mehler, Dave Skelly, and Jay Speer. Virginia Alpha is currently in the process of conducting a spring rush which will likely add several names to the above list.

Both Brothers and pledges have been quite busy this semester making somewhat costly improvements on the house in order to bring us within the fire code suddenly enforced by the Charlottesville Fire Marshal. In addition, the appearance of the interior of the house has been improved by the construction of new furniture and by new paint in several places.

As usual, our chapter is active in both intramural and varsity sports. This past winter and spring, we have fielded entries in intramural bowling, lacrosse, soccer, racquetball, softball, cross-country, water polo, tennis, and golf, among other sports. Once again, Matt Bacharach had an outstanding wrestling season, finishing second in the Atlantic Coast Conference and playing a key role in Virginia's first-place finish in the team standings. Also, Tom Watkins is again participating on the "A" side of Virginia's rugby team, as is Ed Offerdinger on the University's golf squad.

ANDY CLAYBROOK, Correspondent

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University Winter Quarter

Winter quarter went moderately well for our chapter. We initiated three new Brothers. They are Matthew Cochrane, Thomas Jayne, and Scott LeGrys. Our GP, Alan Livingstone, resigned in order to become the Residence Hall Facilities Chairman and our VGP, Bill Reedy, was elected as our new GP. Sandy Smith was elected VGP to take over Bill's former position. Our BG, Mike Harris, is currently running for SGA senator.

During winter quarter we participated in the Delta Gamma Anchor Splash, a sorority sponsored swimming event designed to raise money for charity. We did fairly well in it and all who participated in it had a good time. One of our Brothers, Tom Surrat, and a friend of his took first place in the IFC Greek Variety Show, and took the $150 first prize. To celebrate the 125th anniversary of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity we traveled to Washington & Lee University at Lexington, Va., for a party celebration with Virginia Beta.

Spring quarter we plan to get more involved in intramural athletics. We will participate in men's softball as well as having teams in soccer and co-rec softball. Our spring rush is about to begin and we are using a slightly different approach this quarter in order to secure a larger pledge class.

Winter quarter gave us a chance to look at our problems and shortcomings and helped us recognize our strengths. Immediately after returning from break we held a goal-setting session and discussed our future and what our goals should be. The mood was very optimistic and we are looking forward to a very productive spring quarter.

Wabash College New Members

Despite the extremes of this winter, classes at Wabash were cancelled once, the only cancellation in 17 years.

On January 31, we initiated 19 freshmen and one sophomore into our brotherhood. The new Brothers are: Thomas Andrew Brandes, Thomas Michael Charlebois, Bruce David Cook, Brian Kelly Dickson, Brian Keith Dinges, Timothy Ray Grimm, Gregory Kent Heumann, Scott Edward Marschand, Robert Scott McFarland, Steven John Neumann, David Lowell Overmeyer, Wilbur Earl Peak, Jeffery Charles Plasterer, Kevin Eugene Ring, John Arthur Ritter, Christopher Allen Roscher, Jeffery John Skalik, Brett Allan Stephens, Gordon Hamilton Thrall (Best Pledge), and Charles Wesley White III. In spite of the weather, one alumnus, Brother Zajdel '72, did make it from the University of Illinois to attend the ceremonies and banquet.

Our first second-semester rush in many years proved fruitful with the pledging of Mark Kevin Fiddler from New Richmond, Ind. With losses due to transfers and overseas study, house membership now stands at 48.

On the varsity sports scene, Brothers Cook, Dinges, and Marschand are on the baseball team while John Downing, Rob Mikesell, and Charles White are on the track team. John Ritter is playing tennis and Pat Hale, who returned from last semester's study in England, wrestled for Wabash. Brother Mikesell, having run from November to February, made Wabash's 1000-Mile Club.

Our standing in intramural sports has improved with our performance in pool, table tennis, bowling, basketball, and wrestling.

Four Brothers are now studying overseas: Rade Kljajic at Oxford, England, Charles Turnbull at the University of London, John Watkins in Heidelberg, Germany, and David Mamula in Vienna, Austria.

The death of Andrew S. Murduck in an automobile accident on March 8 has been a grievous shock to all of us.

University of Washington Chapter in Upswing

Inspiration would have been an appropriate description of this year's Founders Day banquet. Approximately 125 Phi Psis gathered at the College Club to greet old and new Brothers, enjoy a good meal, and hear Police Chief Hansen speak. Behind alumni award winner and alumni association president Jeff Sheri, there has been a revival of the Washington Alpha graduates. It was reflected at the banquet and it hasn't dimmed since.

The chapter population has increased as the newly elected Rush Chairman, Dave Reeves, and some involved Brothers have pledged five men. Pledging were Brian Schols, Burlington; Nolan Defiesta and Joe Gurtiza, Wapato; George Johnson, Edmonds; and Lonnie Bristol, Bel-lingham.

The winter rush-social program was an absolute success as the Phi Psis are already expecting an exchange with a sorority for spring quarter. Refusing to let things up, an all Greek boogie has been scheduled at the Phi Psi house for the first weekend in April. Social Chairman Blair Cunningham has promised an even better program this quarter.

Crew was introduced as a new sport this spring along with the regular activities of softball and soccer, and it guarantees to be an interesting season behind experienced coxswain, Steve Egplin.

Things are definitely on the up-swing at Washington and spring quarter assures to perpetuate this growing trend.

BRIAN GEPPERT, Correspondent

Washington & Jefferson College Athletic Scene

Pennsylvania Alpha is very proud to announce that after a most successful rush, 20 outstanding young men have been pledged to Phi Kappa Psi at Washington & Jefferson College. They are: Bernard Bercik, Pittsburgh; John Burns, Waynesburg; Michael Clawges, Youngstown, Ohio; James Davis, Johnstown; Louis Emeterio, Claysville; Gregory Glusica, Scott Kennedy, James McClure, Uniontown; Kevin Gmitter, Dunwoody, Ga.; Lawrence Hunt, Elizabeth; Kenneth Klein, Charleroi; Daniel Koshute, Windber; Joseph Labuda, Smock; Edward McCracken, Jeannette; Dennis Prewitt, Goshen, Ohio; Alan Ridenour, Apollo; Gary Sams, Washington; Lawrence Saxon, North Huntingdon; James Shephard, Beaver Falls; and Scott Stickel, Murrysville.

New officers were also elected to serve until March, 1978. They include: Gary Silverman, GP; Harold Merritt, VGP; John Bucholtz, AG; Mark Scinico, BG; Dan Glusica, Phu; Jeff Lauff, Hod; Sam

Gary Silverman, newly elected GP, was elected President of W&J's Interfraternity Council for the 1977-78 term and some of his duties will include overseeing the policies and activities of fraternities at W&J.

House improvements are coming along with the finishing touches being put on our chapter room and living room.

JOHN R. BUCHOLTZ, Correspondent

Washington & Lee University High Grades

The winter term has proven a successful one for the Brothers of Virginia Beta, academically, athletically and socially.

Phi Psi ranked third among the University's 15 fraternities in overall grade point average. President Gerry Maatman is applying for a Rhodes scholarship, and Treasurer Bob Forlenza joined the ranks of Phi Beta Kappa.

Athletically, Phi Psi men dominated the winter sports scene. The nation's fourth ranked Division III basketball team is led by four Brothers, Forlenza, Dave Leunig, Mike Wenke, and Pat Dennis. Dennis was named the Old Dominion Athletic Conference Player of the Year and is hoping for All-American accolades. The team made an NCAA Tournament appearance earlier in the month.

This winter has been a busy one socially at the Psi Lodge. The highlight of our social schedule was a party on Founders Day for the newly installed Virginia Zeta Chapter at Virginia Tech. The Brothers of Virginia Beta extend a friendly welcome to the new Brothers at VPI. Numerous other keg and combo parties have filled our active social calendar. In addition, the renowned Fancy Dress Ball was under the guidance of John Berley, co-chairman of the Student Activities Board, and Tim Hendry, treasurer of that body.

Recently, 20 men were initiated into the mysteries of our Fraternity. They are: Bill Matthai, Dave Meyers, Mark Klaus, Scott Caddell and Marc Ottinger, Baltimore, Md.; Steve Tumen, Cincinnati, Ohio; Art Caltrider, Reisterstown, Md.; Paul Hendry, Darien, Conn.; Marty Piccoli, Somerset, N.J.; Steve Hollowell, Maple Glen, Pa.; Doug Pinotti, Williamsburg; John Hamilton, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Chip Childs, Casanova; Steve Siana, Bryn Mawr, Pa.; John Stout, Kingston, N.Y.; Gregg Walker, Louisville, Ky.; Hugh Robinson, Luthersville, Md.; Rich Allen, Springfield, Pa.; Boyd Breeding, Lynchburg, and Duke Cancelmo, Villanova, Pa.

West Virginia University Ken Potter Visits Chapter

On February 19, West Virginia Alpha held its initiation ceremonies for the Fall '76 pledge class. Initiation was held at 10:00 a.m., followed by luncheon at the Holiday Inn. Our chapter was very honored to have President Kenneth Potter as the guest speaker. Brother Potter spoke to Brothers and alumni about the meaning of being a Phi Psi. Everyone enjoyed both his talk and presence at the luncheon. After the luncheon everyone went to the Coliseum to watch the Mountaineers trounce Notre Dame in a basketball game. And as usual, the night ended with a party attended by both Brothers and alumni.

The 22 men who joined the Brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi on this memorable day were Robert William Dinsmore, Edwin Daniel Gansor, Karl William Sommer, John Robert Weaver, Morgantown; Richard Wesley Furbee, Richard Wilson Tetrick, Robert Simpson Welch, Clarksburg; Cecil Eugene Heyman, Thomas Thieroff Mendenhall, Wheeling; David Allan Hanna, Scott Alan Morris, New Martinsville; Michael Watts Ludwig, Steven Charles Ludwig, Ripley; Anthony Charles Thomas III, Phillip Kevin Tuckwiller, Lewisburg; Stephen Lewis Arters, Charleston; James Edwin Burkhardt, Huntington; Mark Steven Hoffman, Ravenswood; William Joseph Boss, Bruce Edward Duchene, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Lee Alan Pyles, Bridgeville, Pa.; and Stephen Spencer, Bethesda, Md.

As for intramurals, the Phi Psis just captured first place in All-Fraternity basketball. The way things look now, we should have a clear shot at winning the intramural cup again this year. Other sports coming up are softball and wrestling. Due credit for our success this year in intramurals should go to Intramural Director Dave Pill.

Aside from intramurals, our own Rick Gallagher pitched the opening game for the West Virginia University baseball team on their southern trip. Also, coming up on May 29, is the West Virginia Power Weightlifting Championship in New Martinsville. Brother Jeff Furr is entered in the 198-pound class.

Wittenberg University Spring Term

Ohio Beta has just activated a strong pledge class of 16. The activation ceremony was highlighted by the presence of Jim Walter Sr. The new actives are Dave Swann, Bedford; Dave Bova, Toledo; Christopher Campbell, Jack Purcell, Rochester, N.Y.; Bob Walther, Chester, N.J.; Dave Saurerman, Philadelphia, Pa.; Jeff Nesbitt, Northbrook, Ill.; Jeff Klaehn, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Joshua Brown, Lexington, James Walter Jr., Akron; Tim Sulken, Upper Arlington; Bob McColum, Wayne, Pa.; Trey Thrasher, East Aurora, N.Y.; Chris Harling, Wayne, Ill.;

Wade LaForce, Lorain; Dave Brandriss, Pittsford, N.Y.

The chapter is presently looking into sponsoring a Phi Psi 500 this spring. The goal of the project will be to serve the surrounding community. All funds raised will go to charity.

The Wittenberg baseball team is well supported by four Phi Psis. Jamie Brugler, Bob Michael, Doug Beckman and Bob McCollum are all playing for Wittenberg's baseball team.

The elected officers for this spring are Dick Bittner, GP; Doug Beckman, VGP; Jeff Shipman, SG; Bob Schmidt, BG; Gary Crist, Hi; Dave Mabry, Hod; Bill Bernhard, Phu; and the Jamie Brugler-Chris Beal team as Historians.

Colonies

Beloit College Back Again

Wisconsin Gamma is proud to be back and resume its 89-year tradition at Beloit College. After six years of inactivity the Phi Psis are on campus and ready to continue a past record of achievement and service. Thirteen freshmen have thus far been initiated into the colony.

Recent elections have been held and new officers installed. Those elected include: Kevin Morris, GP; James Kelly, VGP; Richard Montgomery, AG-BG; and Kirk Jacobson, P.

The Beloit administration has announced its decision to provide housing (in what was once the SAE house) beginning this spring. We hope to be able to renovate and furnish the house through gifts collected via the Alumni Corporation, who will be launching a fund-raising effort soon. Members of the Corporation are: John Lind, a major force in the rebirth of the Phi Psis and heading the drive, John Schmid, Chet Otis, Plato Leason, and Ted Perring.

The Phi Psis have already demonstrated their academic prowess among the Greeks by attaining a 3.0 average, the highest on campus. We are proud to have as our faculty advisor and scholarship director, Dr. Warner E. Mills, Professor of Government. Dr. Mills' commitment to Phi Kappa Psi is reflected by his enthusiasm in his role.

One of our colony's service projects this term includes the formation of a student security patrol. The Phi Psis have been instrumental in the creation of the patrol and its success as a Greek project.

Wisconsin Gamma will start the presses rolling once again by publishing its annual newsletter, The Drocer. The letter will be completed this spring and sent out by summer. The purpose of The Drocer is to acquaint the alumni with the new members as well as current activities of the Fraternity and college.

University of California at Davis Busy Calendar

Winter quarter here at Davis has been a time of reputation building for Cal Iota. We owe a special thanks to our social chairman, Rob Marani, who has kept us involved with a full calendar, giving our name more recognition on campus. Weekly exchanges and dinner parties have been just a few of his successful events.

February 19, we joined the Cal Gamblers in Berkeley for the Founders Day celebration. The cocktail party and prime rib dinner made for a fantastic evening, which was highlighted by our honored guest speaker, Mr. Ralph "Dud" Daniel.

Five new rushees have joined our program this month, and they will be initiated next quarter. Chartering is drawing closer. Our expansion program thus far has been purposely conservative, because we want to make sure that the gentleman's reputation and tradition we are building will be carried on after us. At Davis, the name of Phi Kappa Psi is an honored one.

University of Florida ELC Host

Florida Beta Colony moves closer to chartering with the addition of four new brothers and seven new pledges. The new brothers are Larry Light, Robert Wagner, David Mayper, and Donald Roye Auray. The new pledges are Richard Heard, Christopher McQuigg, David Forrest, Mark Neumaier, Joe Pieso, Jim Giordano, and Julio Quintana.

We look forward to hosting the University of Florida's first ELC in April. ELC chairman Garry Matlow is working with Chapter Consultant Carl Bennett on the event.

Elections were held in January and the colony elected the second president in its two-year history. New officers are: Richard Wayne, GP; Jon Kurtis, VGP; Karl Kern, P; Garry Matlow, AG-BG; Larry Light, SG; Steve Calef, Hod; Doug Young, Phu; and John Leighton, Hi.

Florida Beta is pursuing its goal of academic superiority. Out of Florida's 30 fraternities, Phi Psi was second in scholastics last quarter and first the quarter before.

Our House committee is looking into several housing possibilities for next fall, giving us hope that the Phi Psi house will be seen on campus once again next fall.

University of New Mexico Public Service

With Spring semester more than half over, we have accomplished several of our goals for this term. The major concern was for alumni contact. We had a Founders Day party on February 19, to which we invited all of our 50-60 alumni in the Albuquerque area. We would like to thank all those who attended. If there are any alumni whom we have failed to contact since then, please call us at 243-0261 and speak to any one of the brothers if you are interested in helping us attain our charter in any way.

At the present time, we are in the midst of a full scale public service project. We are having a book drive that will culminate at the end of March. All the books we collect will be donated to local hospitals and nursing homes. This project should do well to get some exposure for our chapter.

We were visited by four members of Ohio Theta at Ashland. Although our house is small, we always welcome visitors from other chapters. If you are in the Albuquerque area, please feel free to stop by and stay for the night. We are located at 1829 Sigma Chi Rd., on the UNM campus.

University of Pennsylvania Good Year for Colony

So far, 1977 has been a good year for Pennsylvania Iota colony. On March 9, the brothers proudly initiated two fine men: Keith Neisenbaum of Abington, Pa., and Stephen Segrave-Daly of Shavertown, Pa. This initiation was a part of our continuing pledge program, in which we are actively rushing 15 men. As a new colony, part of our pledge program involves creating an awareness of Phi Kappa Psi on campus. To this end, we have plastered the Penn campus with "Phi Psi" posters on several occasions. As a result, our parties—two disco parties and a beer-tasting party—have been very well attended and well received.

Elections were held on March 2. Officers for this year are as follows: Richard Fry, president; William Ziegler, vice president; Arthur Levine, treasurer; Joseph King, corresponding secretary; Robert Baker, recording secretary; Jeffrey Evans, historian; Richard Lobron, messenger; David Schlecker, sergeant-at-arms; and Peter Friedman, chaplain. In February, our Founders Day dinner was held at the Union League of Philadelphia. Several brothers from Penn, as well as several from neighboring schools, attended.

In sports, Penn Iota's intramural basketball team roared to a 7-1, second place finish in the division. Plans are underway for floor hockey and softball in the spring. If our intramural program and our rush program both continue to go well, this should be a very enjoyable season for Penn Iota.

Alumni Associations and Clubs

Atlanta Alumni Association

The Association celebrated Founders Day Friday, February 18, with 67 Phi Psis attending. Georgia Alpha brought everyone up to date on the state of the newly installed Chapter. They displayed a number of their awards and gifts for all to see. Tim Heup presented a collage of Alumni Association memorabilia.

The Association celebrated not only the 125th birthday of the Fraternity but other anniversaries as well. Fred W. Board, Missouri '25, and Marshall G. Lamison, Allegheny '26, were presented recognition pins and certificates for 50 years as members of Phi Kappa Psi. An additional 35 Phi Psis were recognized for 25 years of membership in the Fraternity.

Plans are underway for the annual pool party at John Bair's sometime in early June. Hope to see you there. But remember, the association exists for each Brother's benefit. Contact one of the officers and let him know how you feel the Association can better serve you and Phi Kappa Psi.

New officers of the Association were elected at the banquet to serve until next year: Timothy J. Heup, S.C. Alpha, President; H. Dyar Burttram, Ala. Alpha, Vice President; Edward E. Tate, Jr., S.C. Alpha, Treasurer; James V. Waldo, Pa. Beta, Secretary. Also elected were members of the governing board. They are: John R. Donnell Jr., Ohio Epsilon; Bert Fridlin, Ind. Delta; Richard E. Reiter, Ind. Epsilon; Bud Russell, Ala. Alpha; Donald F. Stair, Ohio Alpha.

Chicago Alumni Association

Silver Council memberships were awarded at the Founders Day Banquet to Don LaMorticella, Jerry Piper, Bob Doehler, Tom Lunak, and John Kerr. The Silver Council is open to Brothers in good standing who have been initiated for 25 years or more. If you think you are eligible, let us know and we'll get it in the works.

A highlight of the evening was a stint of story-telling by Jim White of Northwestern, who managed to get us laughing to the point of tears. That hasn't happened often lately and what better place than the Founders Day Banquet, celebrating the 125th anniversary of the founding of Phi Kappa Psi.

A new addition to the list of your officers is Paul Coulis of Indiana Beta, elected as fourth Vice President. Other officers were returned to office.

Defending golf champion, Herb Jones, indicated that the annual golf outing would most likely be in July and there is a possibility that it will take place at Lake

Geneva Country Club. As you may recall, the outing last year was played there and it was perfect. Host Fred Goss arranged weather, golf course, luncheon and dinner.

If you have questions, call your secretary, Frank Whiting, at RA 6-1300.

If you have money, send $2.00 dues to Tom Whiting, Treasurer, c/o American Mart Corp., 666 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

If you have furniture, get it to the chapter at Valparaiso.

If you have rush prospects, send their names and addresses to the chapters—Do it NOW.

Columbia Alumni Association

This year the Alumni of South Carolina had the chance to celebrate the founding of our Fraternity on two consecutive week-ends, mostly due to the University's closing.

On February 19 a few of the Columbia area Alumni gathered together to celebrate the founding of our Fraternity. First we went to Labrasca's Italian House for pizzas and beer, and some good old reminiscing and planning for the future. Later we all piled into cars and made our way to one of Columbia's better known pubs, Slagger's, for a round of toasts to good old Phi Kappa Psi.

The following weekend, February 26, both the Columbia Alumni Association and S.C. Alpha celebrated Founders Day in rare style. On Saturday at 6:00 p.m., all active members of the chapter and their guests, joined by the Alumni and their guests toasted to Phi Kappa Psi—its past, present, and future. After all the rounds of toasting and talking we all adjourned to Swain's Restaurant for a banquet and dance. When all had arrived and were seated, Brother Gary Matson, President of the S.C. Alpha Chapter, introduced the master of ceremonies for the evening, Brother John Benson. John made brief remarks followed by an introduction of the head table. Brother Earl Friend led us in the singing of "Noble Fraternity," after an invocation by Brother Richard Styron. The dinner included a four-layer birthday cake for Phi Kappa Psi. There was presentation of the annual Solon E. Summerfield Award to John Benson, the James Scott Outstanding Alumnus Award to Thomas A. Dail, and the award for the farthest distance traveled to Edward Tate Jr., of the Atlanta Association.

Frank McGwier announced that we, the former Columbia Alumni Club, had received Association status. The following slate of candidates was presented and accepted: President, Frank McGwier; Vice-President, Smith Harrison; Secretary, Richard Styron; Treasurer, A. C. Fora III; and non-officers of the board of directors—Thomas Dail, Flynn Brantley and Davey Schneider. The keynote speaker was Tim Heup. Tim's talk was full of inspiration and some admonitions to all, while recalling many old and new glories of the chapter and Fraternity at large.

RICHARD STYRON, Correspondent

Detroit Alumni Association

On February 22, 70 Phi Kappa Psi alumni, undergraduates and pledges met at the Management Education Center of Michigan State University in Troy, Mich. to celebrate Founders Day. The Michigan Betans were out in force, 30 to be exact, helping the alumni to celebrate. After dinner Jack Klein welcomed everyone, substituting for Robert Colter. Bob's father, also a Phi Psi, had died on Sunday and Bob was attending the funeral.

Wayne Wilson, the Fraternity attorney general and a Detroit alumnus member reported on the state of the Fraternity and was followed by newly elected Michigan Beta GP, Pat Patton, reporting on the chapter's achievements and its goals. Ken Wright, a prime mover in trying to reestablish the Michigan Alpha chapter, told of his activities and frustrations in this effort.

Jack Klein was again awarded the Detroit Alumni Association golf trophy as a result of his low score at the Lincoln Hills golf outing in July. Ten-year recognition pins and Bronze Council memberships were awarded to Patrick Ronayne, James Anderson, Randall Rinna, James Forkner, David Adams, Dennis Anderson, Gerald Grossi, and Steven Langford.

The new Detroit Alumni Association officers were then introduced: Robert Colter will serve another term as president, Jack Klein will serve as vice-president, John Rexford will serve again as treasurer and Robert Riess will serve as secretary.

After the dinner and formal program, slides and a short movie of past Detroit Alumni outings were shown. These were followed by Michigan Beta presenting slides on their activities over the past year.

District of Columbia Alumni Association

Fifteen Brothers assembled at the Army and Navy Club to celebrate the 125th anniversary of the founding of the Fraternity on February 18, 1977. We were especially honored to have with us Dr. Gordon Letterman, the grandson of the co-founder of the Fraternity. We were also very pleased to have with us Mr. Frank Crist, chapter advisor to Maryland Alpha. The beginning of Spring Rush prevented the attendance of any active members from that Chapter.

Officers elected for the coming year are: President, John F. Murphy, Ariz. Alpha, '48; Vice President, George E. Bitner, Ohio Alpha, '58; and Secretary-Treasurer, David T. Bryant, Texas Alpha, '43.

The members of the Board of Governors for the coming year are: Franklin Alan, Purdue '59, George R. Herrman, Chicago '34, and George W. Shanks, Chicago '64.

Those in attendance were, of course, disappointed that more of the more than 1,000 alumni in the area did not join us. The officers and Board have pledged themselves to do their utmost to increase participation during the coming year. Suggestions are always welcome and may be telephoned to David T. Bryant: Office, 703/573-7010, or home, 703/780-6512.

Northridge Alumni Association

California Theta will celebrate its tenth anniversary as an active chapter on June 17.

Vice President Sandy Chamberlain will speak at a reunion banquet June 18 at the Los Angeles Biltmore Hotel.

The reunion weekend was organized by the Northridge Alumni Association in conjunction with the chapter's undergraduates. All Phi Psis are welcome.

The alumni wish to express their thanks to Dud Daniel for dropping by California Theta following a Founders Day banquet in downtown Los Angeles.

The Northridge Alumni Association meets at 7:30 p.m. on the first Tuesday of each month at the Howard Johnson restaurant on Reseda Blvd. in Northridge.

JOHN V. CICCARELLI, Correspondent

Omaha Alumni Association

February 18, 1977, was a successful day for our Association. One of our biggest turnouts occurred at our Founders Day Banquet to hear the Fraternity's Vice President, Sandy Chamberlain, speak to us and recharge our fraternal batteries. Sandy did a great job and many fine comments about his talk were heard.

A brief undemocratic election was held and Dr. Richard Shugrue (Nebraska), was elected president; Dave Batchelder (Iowa State), vice president; Col. Urban Rohr (Creighton), treasurer, and Ted Urban (Northwestern), secretary. Two excellent reports concerning the state of our Nebraska chapters—Nebraska University (Lincoln) and Creighton, were given. It was gratifying for the alumni present to hear of the fine progress made at both schools and also pleasant for us to meet such great gentlemen who people our local chapters. The quality of the undergraduates certainly impressed us and makes it easy for us to do one of our important Alumni Association functions—recommend a rushee! Area Phi Psis, it should be easy to support such men, and our association hopes you will show your support in a monetary manner every now and then (like regularly!).

We thank Ted Foster (Iowa) for donating a vacuum cleaner for Creighton's lodge—it was needed.

Our next function will be the Stag Golf Tournament and Couples Picnic this summer. I will send an announcement to all for whom I have an address about the times and places. I categorically refuse to "win" the shortest drive award again this year! The picnic was great and well attended last year; let's try for a new attendance record this year.

Tom Hoarty (Creighton) did a fine job as president last year and deserves hearty congratulations. He received much cooperation from a great many Brothers. It is help like this that keeps an association strong.

Congratulations to our revived Arizona Chapter.

Pittsburgh Alumni Association

The Pittsburgh Alumni Association held its annual Founders Day celebration on February 18, at the University Club. A total of 34 Brothers attended including 22 alumni and 12 undergraduates.

President Bill Bates reviewed the association's activities for the past year and encouraged everyone to attend our monthly luncheons. The undergraduates from Washington & Jefferson (Penn Alpha), Allegheny (Penn Beta), and Indiana (Penn Nu) were asked to give a brief report on their chapter activities. The reports were quite optimistic, each chapter having concluded a very successful rush period.

Bill Hazlett gave a lively talk on the GAC held last August. The association expressed its deep appreciation to Bill for his loyal service both as GAC representative and a Past President of the association (several times over).

The current officers were re-elected by acclamation. They are: President, Bill Bates, Penn Eta; Vice President, Barry

Leonard, Ohio Alpha; Secretary, Jim Snediker, Ohio Epsilon; Treasurer, Bob Dyer, Penn Nu.

The meeting was closed with the singing of "Noble Fraternity." Many Brothers remained for further conversations and to watch filmed highlights of some of the Pittsburgh Steelers' most exciting games. A good time was had by all.

JIM SNEDIKER, Correspondent

Rockford Alumni Association

The Greater Rockford Phi Psis are on the move. Thirty of the native Brothers, representing 11 different chapters, gathered at the Rockford Country Club February 17, to celebrate Founders Day.

Aside from the expected good fellowship, we were pleased to hear John Lind, Beloit '66, explain the progress being made in the colonization of the Wisconsin Gamma Chapter at Beloit College.

To date, eight freshmen have indicated a desire to colonize. If all goes well, this time next year, we should once again have an active chapter living in their own quarters on the Beloit College campus.

The Rockford Phi Psis have eagerly pledged their support of the Beloit endeavor.

We look forward to the warmer time this summer when we can once again meet for our annual picnic.

We thank Dr. Bob Ross-Shannon, De Pauw '46, for a job well done this past year and look forward to the stewardship of Gale Miller, Beloit '49, for the coming year.

What's so special about the 1978 Grand Arch Council? Kansas City's Crown Center Hotel.

The 1978 GAC is scheduled in Kansas City, at the incomparable Crown Center Hotel. Which is why you shouldn't miss it.

The hotel is only a small part of the entire Crown Center complex, which has been called a "city within a city." And, a "downtown suburb." It's a myriad of restaurants, cafes, shops, boutiques, cocktail bars, and various other cultural and entertainment facilities.

Just think. If you planned on staying at the Crown Center Hotel between August 9th and 13th, 1978, you could see just about everything the Crown Center complex has to offer.

And you could take in a very interesting and informative convention, too. The 1978 Phi Kappa Psi Grand Arch Council.

It's a great way to support your Fraternity. Make plans to attend now.

For further information, contact the Phi Psi Executive Office, 1940 East 6th Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44114.

Bits N' Pieces

Driscoll Named New York Alpha's Man of the Year

J. Joseph Driscoll Jr.

J. Joseph Driscoll Jr., Cornell '44, has been named as the tenth recipient of New York Alpha's "Man of the Year" at the fall dinner of the New York Alpha Board of Trustees. According to spokesman H. Cushman (Ho) Ballou, Cornell '20, the purpose of the award is to honor Cornell alumni for their accomplishments at Cornell and their achievements since graduation. Indeed Driscoll has distinguished himself in both areas. As an undergraduate, he was president of his chapter and has since been president and secretary of their alumni association. He has been a member of the University Council and Council Administrative Board. Additionally, he has been the president, Cornell Association of Class Officers, Alumni Association, Graduate School of Business & Public Administration. He holds an AB and MBA. Currently he is the Manager of Office Services for the Scott Paper Company in Philadelphia. Previously, he was with the Andrew Jergens Company in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Fraternity Archives Receive Historic Items

Recent additions to the Fraternity's Archives were given to President Ken Potter at the Founders Day Banquet in Columbus, Ohio. F. G. (Gris) Campbell, Ohio Wesleyan '22, presented Potter with a satin program menu for a providence banquet held in Delaware, Ohio in 1887. Later, Campbell sent to Fraternity Headquarters several old SHIELDS, an 1882 convention photo and some old confidential Phi Psi quizzes dated October 1, 1906. The items were the possessions of the late William O. Semens, Ohio Wesleyan '10. Semens was a prominent Delaware dentist and was one of a long line of Phi Psis.

Alumni Director Seeks Information

Bert Fridlin, our Director of Alumni Affairs, wants to gather information about our alumni clubs and associations. If anyone knowing about alumni club activities in these cities (Albuquerque, N.M.; Baltimore, Md.; Boston, Mass.; Great Falls, Mont.; Greensboro, N.C.; Harrisburg, Pa.; Knoxville, Tenn.; New Orleans, La.; Orlando, Fla.; and Sarasota, Fla.) would like to assist Bert by answering a survey, please contact him at 929 Todd Road NE, Atlanta, Ga. 30306.

Did you know that more than 100 Phi Psi alumni live in each of these cities (Austin, Tex.; Fort Wayne, Ind.; Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; Lancaster, Pa.; Louisville, Ky.; Rochester, N.Y.; Wichita, Kan.; and Wilmington, Del.) and there are no alumni associations? If you are interested in forming an alumni group, please contact Bert at once.

Jacqueminot Rose Has Unique History

A rose is a rose, or is it? In the case of the Fraternity's official flower, the Jacqueminot rose, it has a history dating back to the mid-1800's. The rose is accepted as being a chance seedling: a child of the open air, raised from an outdoor pollination made in the garden at Montpelier by a French amateur raiser of high aims but unscientific practices, one Monsieur Roussel. It is listed as being "probably a seedling" of the old semi-double China rose, Gloire des Rosomanes, itself being brought out in 1825. Roussel died before he could market the rose and left it in his will to his gardener, one Rousselet. Monsieur Rousselet took it to Paris and called it General Jacqueminot after one of Napoleon's commanders at Waterloo, a cavalryman who broke his own sword rather than disarm his soldiers.

General Jacqueminot, long-stemmed, 26 petals, clear red, came on to the market in 1853; stayed in the Rose Society's select lists for 53 years. The old rose is still under propagation in some nurseries today. According to research, through the dominating influence of Crimson Glory, one of the rose's ultimate progeny, there are over 1,000 "Jacqueminots" in known cultivation past or present.

Timothy Moore

Timothy A. Moore, U.C.L.A. '75, has been appointed Chapter Consultant for the Fraternity's Executive Staff. Tim is a recent graduate of U.C.L.A. where he received a B.A. in History with special emphasis placed on the colonial and pre-civil war eras.

Tim was very instrumental in California Epsilon's recent reorganization, during which time he served the Chapter in many areas. He was elected treasurer, vice president, house manager and president. Tim also took an active part in the committee system, serving as chairman of the finance, alumni relations, and governing committees.

Co-curricular activities played an important role in his college career. Tim was a member of IFC, U.C.L.A. House Staff, and the award winning Mardi Gras committee. The event is the largest student run charity event in the country.

Tim grew up in Cupertino, California, in the northern part of the state, and is a native of Tucson, Arizona.

Miller Hall once again graces the back cover, this time the brotherhood of Pennsylvania Epsilon at Gettysburg College is included. Miller Hall is the oldest standing fraternity house in the United States and after nearly a century of continued use and faithful service, it is in grave need of repair. Information on the fund-raising project is found in the newsletter section of this issue.

The Year in Review

Growth, Retention Quality of Life

By Ralph D. Daniel, Arizona '47
Executive Director

Ralph D. (Dud) Daniel

GROWTH has marked the year under review. Growth in numbers and size of chapters, and in numbers of initiates. This is not news in itself. Phi Kappa Psi and the fraternity system continued to experience growth even during the chaotic period of the protest movement on the American college campus in the late 1960s and the early 1970s. The good news is that the annual submissions of chapter AGs, on which this report is substantially based, show a good retention of members, retention toward graduation and a longer undergraduate fraternity experience.

There are hallmarks by which successful chapters can be judged. One is the retention rate, the number of initiates who continue in the chapter to graduation. Federal government studies show that students who are members of national fraternities have a higher rate of graduation than those of local fraternities or non-fraternity students. We would like to think that Phi Kappa Psi chapters work toward this goal of retention, and that a high percentage of those pledged complete their pledgedship, and continue in the chapter until they are successfully graduated. Our reports would indicate that this is true.

Another indicator of a successful chapter is the quality of life it offers its members. Regrettably, many of the standards and traditions that gave chapter house living that agreeable and pleasant quality many remember, was lost during the tumult of the protest years. The Fraternity in the last biennium has emphasized a return to standards, to the development of a good quality of life in our chapters. There is a renewed interest on the part of the current undergraduate to implement some of those things which give grace to living. I am happy to report slow, but steady progress in this area, and our Chapter Consultants will continue to stress quality of life as they make their rounds of the chapters and colonies.

OVERVIEW

Phi Psi Marks 125th Year

Phi Kappa Psi, founded February 19, 1852, at old Jefferson College in the Western Hills of Pennsylvania, is in its 125th year, following by only one year the 200th anniversary of the fraternity system and the bicentennial of the nation. No special hoopla marked this milestone of the Fraternity's birth, other than some rousing and well attended Founders Day celebrations by many alumni associations and chapters. The only 125th anniversary project planned is the publication of a new Grand Catalogue. This new membership directory, being readied by Marquis Who's Who, will be distributed in December, 1977. It will be the first directory published by the Fraternity since 1939 and will include listings alphabetically, geographically, and by chapter.

25 Years Ago

In 1952, when the Fraternity marked its centennial, it had 56 chapters, a total membership of 39,425 initiates, and 2,164 undergraduates in the chapters. There were 1,014 new initiates reported.

Phi Kappa Psi Today

The annual report is here presented for the 125th time, embracing the usual and required statistical and general information. The first such report was presented in 1853 when only two chapters comprised the Fraternity. At the turn of the century, the 48th annual report recorded the total number of initiates for the year at 223, a chapter strength of 38, and a total membership of 8,481. We believe the 1976-77 report reflects continued progress—78 chapters and nine colonies, total initiated membership of 68,749, 3,661 undergraduates in the chapters and colonies, and 1,174 initiates for the year.

Fraternities Today

The American fraternity movement is today represented at 625 of the more than 2,000 academic institutions, embracing more than 4,600 chapters, with fraternity membership ranging from five percent of the student population in some large universities to 75 percent or higher in several small colleges. The total living membership is more than 2,700,000. Adding the women's fraternities—over 2,300 chapters and 1,600,000 members—the Greeks represent a truly significant force in our society.

MEMBERSHIP

New Initiates

One thousand one hundred seventy-four new initiates, including nine transfers, were added to the growing list of members of Phi Kappa Psi during the past year. This total compares to 1,141 a year ago, a gain of 26 initiates and seven transfers, an increase of three.

Three Chapters Installed

Virginia Zeta at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University at Blacksburg, was installed on November 13, 1976 (THE SHIELD, Winter, 1977). This was followed by the chartering of Georgia Alpha at the University of Georgia, Athens, on November 20, 1976 (THE SHIELD, Spring, 1977). This gave Phi Kappa Psi its 76th and 77th active chapter. On March 26, 1977, Arizona Alpha at the University of Arizona, Tucson, was rechartered, returning a fine chapter founded in 1947 to the active list after an absence of 15 years (see page 148). The Fraternity has installed five new chapters in the last biennium. They include those just named, and the two reported a year ago, Maryland Alpha at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, a rechartering of a chapter founded in 1879, and Montana Alpha at the University of Montana, Missoula.

Preceding the Grand Arch Council in Washington, D.C., President Tom James led a delegation to the Washington Cathedral to pay honor at the tomb of President Woodrow Wilson, Virginia '83.

Colonies

There are nine colonies in operation at this time, working toward meeting the requirements for receiving chapter charters. This is one more than a year ago and represents the addition of four new colonies, Wisconsin Gamma at Beloit College, Beloit (chartered in 1881 and suspended in 1970), California Iota at the University of California, Davis, Pennsylvania Kappa at Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pa. (chartered in 1889 and suspended in 1963), and Louisiana Gamma at Tulane University, New Orleans. A tenth colony will be organized this fall at the University of Wyoming, Laramie, giving the Fraternity another foothold in the Rocky Mountain states.

Missouri Beta Charter Suspended

Missouri Beta Chapter at Westminster College, Fulton, Mo., chartered in 1960, was suspended Oct. 16, 1976. The chapter had ceased normal operations following the separation from the chapter of most of its undergraduate members after efforts by both the alumni and the Fraternity to maintain a viable and representative chapter had failed.

Phi Psi banners fly high. Indeed, chapter banners are displayed for all to see at the Washington, D.C., Grand Arch Council according to tradition. As new chapters are installed, they are presented with their own banner for display.

Rhode Island Alpha to Be Reorganized

Rhode Island Alpha Chapter at Brown University, Providence, will be reorganized this fall as a result of the abandonment of the chapter by its current undergraduate members.

California Beta Chapter at Stanford University, Palo Alto, was reorganized during the last academic year after a brief period of inactivity. Continued progress is expected.

Warning Flags Still Fly for Some

Four chapters which continue with low membership give cause for concern and will receive special assistance in the next academic year. These are Ohio Iota at Akron; Ohio Kappa, Kent State; Pennsylvania Eta, Franklin and Marshall; and New York Gamma, Columbia.

Initiates

As reported above, the chapters initiated or transferred 1,174 men during the 1976-77 period. There were no chapters reporting 40 or more initiates, although West Virginia Alpha at West Virginia recorded 54, and New York Epsilon at Colgate claimed 43 initiates a year ago. There were eight chapters with 30 or more initiates, including New York Epsilon. West Virginia Alpha reported 18.

Numbers in Chapters

West Virginia at West Virginia University and Nebraska Beta at Creighton University with 113 members each lead all others in undergraduate strength at February 28, 1977. Six chapters recorded membership in the 80s: Illinois Delta, Illinois (87); New York Alpha, Cornell (87); Indiana Beta, Indiana (85); Ohio Alpha, Ohio Wesleyan (84); Rhode Island Beta, Rhode Island (83); and Tennessee Delta, Vanderbilt (81).

Four chapters reported 70 to 79 members: Ohio Delta, Ohio State (75); Pennsylvania Gamma, Bucknell (72); New York Epsilon, Colgate (71); and Washington Alpha, Washington (70).

Eleven chapters claimed 60 to 69 members, and 13 had 50 to 59. There were only four chapters with less than ten members reported. Please see page 137 for the complete statistics on the membership of each chapter and colony.

Pledges

This year, the Fraternity's 78 chapters pledged a total of 1,414, compared to 1,528 a year ago. This represents a decrease of 114. Two years ago, pledges totaled 1,415. Based on the number pledged, the retention rate through initiation is up despite the decline in the total pledges. Fraternity law provides that pledgeship terminates 1) upon initiation into the Fraternity, or 2) upon expiration of two semesters or three quarter final grade reporting periods from date of pledging.

1500 Club Still Exclusive

Indiana Beta Chapter at Indiana University and Kansas Alpha Chapter at the University of Kansas are still the only two members of the exclusive 1500 Club, composed of those chapters claiming 1,500 or more members. Indiana Beta, with 1,858 initiates, has been a member since 1966, and Kansas Alpha joined in 1976, and now claims 1,519. New York Epsilon at Colgate University will be eligible for membership probably in 1978, as it has chalked-up 1,465 initiates since its founding in 1887.

Virginia Beta Joins 1000 Club

Virginia Beta at Washington and Lee University is the newest member of the 1000 Club, consisting of those chapters boasting 1,000 to 1,499 initiates. It went from 992 to 1,003 in its consecutive membership roll during the year under review. Victor Leland Mitchell, inducted Jan. 31, 1976, became Virginia Beta's 1,000th initiate.

District II Has Largest Chapters

District II, comprising 16 chapters, reported the largest total membership, with 770. This was followed by District V with 682 members and 13 chapters. District III, consisting of 12 chapters, however, had the largest average membership per chapter, with 54.2. District IV, with 13 chapters had the smallest total membership, 441, and the lowest average chapter size, 33.9.

Significant is that for the fifth year in a row, average chapter membership for all chapters has increased steadily from 35.4, to 38.1, to 39.4, to 40.8, and for 1977 a good increase to 46.9.

Phi Psi Among 20 Largest Fraternities

Phi Kappa Psi continues to rank 18th among the 20 largest college fraternities in total numbers of initiates. This rank has remained constant since 1969 when the Fraternity went from 17th to 18th place as a result of the merger or amalgamation of Zeta Beta Tau with several other national fraternities.

Since its founding in 1852, Phi Kappa Psi has initiated 68,749 through the spring of 1977, on which the figures for the 20 largest American college fraternities are based. Sigma Alpha Epsilon, with headquarters in Evanston, Ill., and founded in 1856, remains the largest with 167,735 initiates. Phi Sigma Kappa, founded in 1873, with headquarters in Drexel Hill, Pa., ranks 20th with 55,692 initiates.

Tau Kappa Epsilon is the largest fraternity in numbers of active chapters with 304. Lambda Chi Alpha follows with 201. Sigma Phi Epsilon, with 197 chapters, is third, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon is fourth with 184. Phi Kappa Psi, with 78, has the fewest chapters among the 20 largest fraternities.

Among the 20 largest fraternities, there have been 781 new chapters installed in the last ten years, 312 in five years, and 84 in the 1976-77 year alone. The 20 fraternities in the listing reported a total loss of 32 chapters during the year, which represents a gain of 52.

HOUSING

The total value of the 48 houses owned by chapter house corporations of the Fraternity (including land valued at $1,706,120) totaled $8,569,701, compared to $8,084,624 a year ago, an increase of $485,077. Mortgages decreased by $206,550, to $1,102,165. Mortgages totaled $1,308,715 a year ago.

Of the 78 chapters, 48 own houses, 14 occupy houses owned by the college or university, 11 rent homes privately, three are provided dormitory sections (Rhode Island Alpha at Brown, North Carolina Alpha at Duke, and South Carolina Alpha at South Carolina) by the universities. Two chapters (Nebraska Beta at Creighton and Texas Beta at Texas Tech) occupy lodges.

Of the nine colonies, one has a house owned by its housing corporation, five rent privately, one rents from the college, and two are not presently housed.

Beds for 2,680

Phi Psi chapters provided 2,680 bed spaces for students, 58 more than a year ago. New housing for Virginia Zeta, Georgia Alpha, and Arizona Alpha accounts for the increase even with the loss of Missouri Beta's 50 beds for students. Chapter owned and privately rented housing accounted for 1,957 beds, and 723 bed spaces were provided by colleges and universities in houses or dormitories restricted to fraternities.

The Bicentennial of the fraternity system was celebrated in Williamsburg, Va. in November, 1976. Shown here at the meeting are National Interfraternity Conference Executive Director Jack Anson, Phi Psi's President Ken Potter and Executive Director Dud Daniel.

Charles (Buddy) Rogers, Kansas '23, and Executive Director Ralph D. Daniel chat during the formal banquet at last summer's Grand Arch Council in Washington, D.C. Brother Rogers is currently the National Chairman of the Fraternity's Development Board.

Executive Council Announces National Development Program

On June 18, 1977, the Executive Council, meeting in New Orleans, created the Phi Kappa Psi National Development Board. The purpose of the National Development Board is to organize support for a Development Program for the Fraternity's many financial responsibilities.

The Program's initial objective is $550,000 to purchase, renovate, and furnish Phi Kappa Psi's national headquarters: The Heritage House, and expand the resources of the Endowment Fund to provide greater educational opportunities for graduate and undergraduate students.

Charles (Buddy) Rogers, Kansas '23, has accepted the position of National Chairman of the Development Board. Brother Rogers is well known for his movie and musical careers and for his continuing support of the Fraternity.

The fund-raising effort has been named "The Heritage Project: a home and a future." Contributions will be given to the Endowment Fund which means gifts will be tax deductible. Pledges can be made for three years.

A further objective of the Development Program will be to increase the communication and fellowship among the Brothers, by providing them with knowledge and activities that will stimulate the spirit of Brotherhood that is the core of Phi Kappa Psi.

EXECUTIVE OFFICES

HQ Will Move to Indianapolis

Since 1930, a few months more than 47 years, the Fraternity has leased space in the same building in Cleveland, Ohio, to house its headquarters. With a currently increasing need and an anticipated future growth, Indianapolis, Ind., has been selected as the location of the new headquarters, and an historic landmark building purchased to house the headquarters and archives (THE SHIELD, Spring, 1977). The building, now undergoing restoration, is in Lockerbie Square, a landmark area in downtown Indianapolis, combining the best of the old and new, blending a friendly community with a residential atmosphere. The headquarters, "Heritage House," will be part of the city's historic, civic, and cultural development. The headquarters will continue to function in Cleveland until the move to Indianapolis early in January, 1978.

Staff Appointments

During the year, the Executive Director announced the appointment of Thomas E. Kraemer III, Penn State '72, of Newton Square, Pa., as a Chapter Consultant effective June 16, 1976 and of Timothy A. Moore, UCLA '75, of Cupertino, Calif., Jan. 5, 1977. Two others have been named Chapter Consultants effective with the 1977-78 academic year and will report for duty this summer. They are John F. Hummel Jr., Penn State '74, of Rochester, Pa., employed effective July 18, 1977, and Harry A. Light, a founder of Florida Beta Colony at the University of Florida, who lives in Tavernier, Fla., will begin work Sept. 12, 1977.

Continuing his outstanding service to the Fraternity as a Chapter Consultant is John W. Harris Jr., Alabama '71, of Russellville, Ala., who has served since Feb. 10, 1976. Two veteran riders of the Red and Green have completed their tours of duty and have the grateful thanks of the Fraternity for their work. Carl H. Bennett, Miami '72, of New Springfield, Ohio, and John A. Burke, Miami '72, of Medina, Ohio, who joined the staff Sept. 15, 1975, left June 15, 1977, to pursue further education at the University of Florida and Miami University, respectively.

Chapter Visits

During the 1976-77 academic year, the Fraternity's five Chapter Consultants conducted 195 visits to chapters and colonies of Phi Kappa Psi, compared to 125 a year ago when only four consultants were traveling for the greater part of the year. Some of these included extended visits in cases of chapters with special problems. In addition, three new colonies were organized, two chapters restructured, and many visits were made to colleges and universities with respect to new chapter development. The Chapter Consultant is an important communications and public relations source providing continuity between the Executive Offices, Executive Council, and the chapters and alumni groups. It is one of the general Fraternity's most important and necessary services.

ACADEMIC HONORS

We pay honor, as in past years, to those undergraduates who have excelled in scholarship and leadership during the year. Phi Kappa Psi through its heritage and ideals is never content with mediocrity, and salutes those who have brought distinction to themselves and honor to their Fraternity.

In addition to those listed below, memberships were reported in numerous national and local honor and recognition societies, as well as those named Solon E. Summerfield Scholars in the Phi Kappa Psi Endowment Fund annual program (The Shield, Spring, 1977). We list only a few of those societies familiar to most readers.

Phi Beta Kappa (Scholarship)

Bruce L. Fernandez, Southern California; Alan L. Hinderliter, Illinois; David S. Mathews and Robert M. Neff, DePauw; Daniel J. Broughton, Wabash; Thomas E. Scott, Kansas; Jay Story and William Johnson, Minnesota; A. Michael Imobersteg, Syracuse; Christopher Mellott and Michael A. Owens, Duke; Steven Hines, Miami; and Robert Florence, Washington and Lee.

Phi Eta Sigma (Freshman Scholarship)

Philip R. Meisinger, Douglas P. Williams, James M. Neckopulos, Kurt W. Hoff and Paul E. Presney II, Illinois; Blair A. Rieth, William J. Schlotz and Robert G. Tweedy, DePauw; Mark Broady and Fred Osborn, Indiana; Mark J. Messmer, Dennis R. O'Brien, Marvin R. Richardson, and Robert F. Wash III, Purdue; Timothy G. Kenney, Brent C. Erwood, James H. Bartlett, and Charles F. Jensen, Iowa; Jacques N. Lasseigne Jr. and Michael Kleiman, Southwestern Louisiana; William N. Fry and James T. Rossetti, Mississippi; William W. Vogelgesang, Ohio State; Kevin P. Kanaly, Mark A. Jones, Charles K. Greer, and Jerry D. Moore, Oklahoma State; John F. Hummel Jr. and Howard D. Welsh, Pennsylvania State; and Robert C. Rogers, Washington and Lee.

Phi Kappa Phi (Scholarship)

Daniel J. Adomitis and Steven R. Krause, Auburn; Jacques N. Lasseigne Jr., Southwestern Louisiana; William Johnson and Jay Story, Minnesota; Harvey G. Hudspeth and James M. Dilley, Mississippi; James Allchin, Cornell; James Neri, A. Michael Imobersteg, and David King, Syracuse; and Stephen D. Eustis, Rhode Island.

HOUSE MOTHERS/ RESIDENT ADVISORS

Eighteen chapters are served by House Mothers or Resident Advisors, one less than reported for 1975-76. In 1968, nine years ago, 32 Phi Psi chapters were served by gracious Housemothers alone. We now include the resident advisor as this continues to be a growing trend. The Tutors-in-Residence program of the Endowment Fund (where tuition scholarship grants are provided graduate students) should provide further impetus to the resident counselor concept. Those graduate students interested in the Tutors-in-Residence program are urged to write the Executive Director of the Fraternity for details.

MEETINGS

The Great Bicentennial GAC

The 58th Grand Arch Council met in Washington, D.C., at the Marriott Twin Bridges Hotel, August 11-15, 1976, with then President Tom James, Texas '48, presiding (THE SHIELD, Fall, 1976). A total of 317 members and guests registered and enjoyed the business and social agenda tied into the celebration of the country's 200th anniversary in the Nation's Capital.

1977-78 District Councils Educational Leadership Conferences

Six regional District Councils and Educational Leadership Conferences will be held during the 1977-78 academic year. The purposes of the DC/ELCs is to act upon the business of the Districts, elect Archons, and to participate in seminars or workshops on chapter programming, management, and leadership. Here is the schedule and names of host chapters:

District I—Oct. 14-16, 1977	New Jersey Beta Monmouth College
District II—Sept. 30-Oct. 2, 1977	West Virginia Alpha West Virginia University
District III—Oct. 28-30, 1977	Illinois Delta University of Illinois
District IV—Oct. 7-9, 1977	Mississippi Alpha University of Mississippi
District V—Sept. 30-Oct. 2, 1977	Missouri Alpha University of Missouri
District VI—Nov. 11-13, 1977	California Gamma University of California, Berkeley

The Executive Board

The Executive Board of the Fraternity, composed of the four senior officers—the President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary, met twice during the year, on Sept. 18-19, 1976, at the Marriott Hotel, Denver, Colo., and May 21, 1977, at the Stapleton Hotel, Denver, Colo.

The Executive Council

The Executive Council, composed of four alumni (the senior officers) and six undergraduates (Archons) elected for two-year terms, serves as the chief governing body of the Fraternity between meetings of the Grand Arch Council. The EC held two meetings in this report year, one at the Drake Hotel, Chicago, Ill., Oct. 16-17, 1976, and the other at the Hotel Marie Antoinette, New Orleans, La., June 17-18, 1977.

Quarter Century Commission

The Quarter Century Commission chaired by Past President Robert E. Leber, Gettysburg '46, held its ninth meeting March 19, 1977, at the Sheraton Hopkins Hotel, Cleveland, Ohio. The Commission is charged with the study and review of the purposes, resources, and organizational structure of the Fraternity; to clarify the priorities of the Fraternity; and to provide a guide for growth for the next quarter century.

1976 Alumni Support Program

Alumni Support Program Reaches New All-Time High

Really Great Year

"A REALLY Great Year" is the best way to describe the 1976 Alumni Support Program. The Fraternity Headquarters is proud that another all-time high was reached with the total of $91,067.92. The contributions by Phi Psi alumni and undergraduates surpassed the previous year's total and marks the fourth consecutive year that the total was above the $50,000 mark. The total Alumni Support Program total since 1952 now comes to $782,704.60. The 1976 annual total surpassed 1975 by $8,555.88.

Inflation Battle

As the nation's inflation rate continues to rise, so also does the difficulty for the Fraternity to meet its financial obligations within its budget. It's the age old battle of inflation versus budget. For the day-to-day operations of the Fraternity, the Alumni Support program supplements Fraternity income derived from pledge and initiation fees, the Permanent Fund income and investment income. The Alumni Support Program now surpasses the Permanent Fund income as a source of funds. What are the Program dollars for? These funds are utilized to improve and increase services for chapters, colonies, and alumni associations and clubs. On-going programs such as the Educational Leadership Conferences, the development of new chapters, and Fraternity publications are sustained through the Alumni Support Program.

Increased Participation

The 1976 giving year was no exception to the expanding base of Phi Psi contributors. In 1976 4,810 Phi Psis participated in the Alumni Support Program, another increase over the previous year. Another increase was noted in the average amount of money contributed. As these gradual increases continue, the larger amount of financial assistance will aid the Fraternity in the battle against inflation.

Honor Roll of Contributing Members

Each year, THE SHIELD prints the names of those who participated in the past year's Support Program. The 1977 Program is still open for contributions from alumni and undergraduates. Your participation will make this year even better than 1976. Those desiring to give may forward their checks to the Fraternity Headquarters in Cleveland. Give now so that YOUR name will be included in next year's Honor Roll.

Alumni Contribution Summary

The 1976 Alumni Support Program was successful because of increased giving and increased individual contributions. Listed below are some of the pertinent dates relative to the 1976 giving year which helped make the Program so successful.

THE University of Arizona has sought to provide a quality education since opening its doors to students and faculty members in 1891. Established in the pioneer days of 1884 when Indians still raided the Arizona Territory, the University was constructed on a then desolate 40 acre plot which was donated by two gamblers and a saloon keeper. During those first few years the University occupied one building, Old Main which is now an historic preserve.

"The goals of the University of Arizona are to provide the opportunity for the acquisition of comprehensive education and usable skills. To serve as a resource for the expansion of knowledge through research; and to extend the opportunity to improve the quality of life by making available the services and resources of the University, its faculty and staff, to the students of the University and the citizens of the state." Through the years, the University of Arizona has strived for academic excellence in all fields and befittingly has been dubbed "the lamp in the desert."

After three years of Colonization work by Ralph D. Daniel and others, Arizona Alpha first arrived at the University of Arizona on September 20, 1947.

The chapter prospered until the early 1960's, when frequently low scholarship, certain social indiscretions, and poor chapter administration caused the charter to be recalled in December of 1962.

Arizona Alpha returned to the U of A campus on March 12, 1975, when after several weeks of recruiting by Chapter Consultants Guy Minardi and Mike Wittern, 11 men were initiated. Officers included:

This sculpture representing significant meaning of Phi Psi Brotherhood was designed and built by Ed Stewart's father who presented it to Arizona Alpha as a chartering gift.

Ken Koser, GP, Dave Sanborne, VGP, Mike Molina, AG, and Rick Christ, BG. Five more men were initiated by the colony later that spring. We participated in our first Greek Week just two weeks after our colonization.

The weekend of March 25, 26, and 27, was a very special time for the Brothers of Arizona Alpha as several events marked a dream come true. Arizona Alpha was coming back to the University of Arizona as Phi Kappa Psi's newest chapter. On Friday evening a reception was held at the new chapter house. The reception was attended by many of the National officers, Brothers from other Chapters, Alumni from Arizona Alpha, and Phi Psi guests. During the reception three cakes, decorated to represent the Shield, were presented to President J. Kenneth Potter, Ohio Wesleyan '51 and Executive Director Dud Daniel, Arizona '47, by the parents of Louis M. Hoffman.

During the evening, many members of the former Arizona Alpha Chapter expressed their gratitude to the colony members for all their hard work which successfully reunited many of the former Chapter.

On Saturday morning, President Ken Potter and the installation team consisting of Robert W. "Sandy" Chamberlain, John K. Boyd III, John V. Ciccarelli, Ralph D. "Dud" Daniel, Gary B. Angstadt, Timothy A. Moore, and John M. Dowling, formally reestablished Arizona Alpha as Phi Kappa Psi's newest Chapter in the induction ceremony held at the Catalina Methodist Church. The Catalina Methodist Church is now an important landmark to the Arizona Alpha Chapter as the location of its installation and as a reminder of the strong bond of Brotherhood we have in our Fraternity. Arizona Alpha is grateful to Reverend Stanley Brown, Washington & Lee '47, for the use of the Church.

Saturday evening the Chartering was commemorated by a banquet held at the Arizona Inn. In addition to the many Phi Psi guests in attendance, five of the original charter members of Arizona Alpha were present to welcome their chapter back to the U of A. They were Ralph D. (Dud) Daniel, William H. Wallace, Glen A. Baker, James M. Smith, and Charles L. Stahl. After dinner President Ken Potter gave the new chapter a warm welcome and reminded the charter members of Arizona Alpha's proud heritage and its dynamic future.

On Sunday morning Arizona Alpha held its first chapter meeting in over 15 years, in the new Phi Psi house at 1775 E. 1st. The meeting was presided over by President Potter and Executive Director Daniel. After the Chapter meeting the charter members bade farewell to the installation team and other Phi Psis who attended the meeting.

Guide for Growth Long-Range Planning

Quarter Century Commission

Quarter Century Commission Chairman Robert E. Leber led discussion at the March meeting of the QCC in Cleveland, Ohio.

IN May, 1974, under the leadership of President Mark D. Sullivan, the Executive Council created the Quarter Century Commission to be a long-range planning and development mission. The first meeting of the Commission was held in Cleveland in June of 1974. The current and only Chairman continues to be former President Robert E. Leber, Gettysburg '46.

The objectives of the Quarter Century Commission are to review the purposes, resources and organizational structure of the Fraternity, and to provide a guide for growth for the next quarter century.

The membership of the on-going Commission of Phi Kappa Psi is set at eight people and includes the chairman, the Fraternity vice president, an archon and five appointed Brothers.

"The purpose of the Quarter Century Commission is not to reinvent the wheel," said Chairman Robert Leber at the recent meeting, "but rather, to utilize the brainpower of the Fraternity for long-range growth."

At the March meeting, also held in Cleveland, following discussion of several future concerns of the Fraternity, the Commission concurred that five objectives were needed for in depth study to complete the Commission's final report. They are: trends in higher education, membership, extension, finance, and organizational structure. Committees were appointed for several areas and a goal was set of providing the final report to the January 1978 Executive Council meeting.

Brother Lasseigne made the Dean's List for high grades every semester of his collegiate career and was initiated into four honor societies. He graduated in 1977 with "Highest Distinction."

A Spring graduate of Southwestern Louisiana, he was a social studies education major.

Charles E. Smith

Charles E. Smith, Texas Tech '75, received a check for $300 in recognition of his selection as the second runner-up in the 1977 Outstanding Summerfield Awards Program.

While performing his role as campus leader, Brother Smith also made outstanding grades (a 3.99 cumulative on a 4.00 system). He made the Dean's List each semester while at Texas Tech and was initiated into three honor societies.

He is currently attending medical school at the University of Texas at Houston.

Edward Herrmann
Bucknell '62

Herrmann Portrays FDR

IN a recent interview Edward Herrmann, Bucknell '62, said, "I'm an actor, highly imaginative and volatile." That he is an actor is an understatement. As the result of his work on the stage, movies and television, Edward Herrmann has let the world know that he is indeed an actor, and a fine one at that.

Following his graduation from Bucknell in 1965, he started out the hard way working at Paul Baker's Dallas Theater Center, then later to the London Academy of Music, Drama and Art on a Fulbright scholarship.

With five solid years of training behind him, Brother Herrmann went to New York where he appeared on Broadway; to Washington, D.C., where he played at Ford's Theater; and to Hollywood, where he landed roles in "The Great Waldo Pepper," "The Paper Chase," "The Day of the Dolphin," "The Great Gatsby," TV's Beacon Hill series, and the Hallmark Hall of Fame's "Valley Forge" special.

SUMMER, 1977

Edward Herrmann. Taken during shooting of Day of the Dolphin starring George C. Scott and directed by Mike Nichols.

In the spring of 1976, he and Jane Alexander starred in ABC's production "Eleanor and Franklin" which was seen by over 60 million people. His work for this production began earlier in the FDR Library at Hyde Park, where he studied films and tapes of the President, sometimes up to eight hours daily.

When work began on the set, he and Miss Alexander began their days by submitting to three-hour make-up jobs. These sessions consisted of a prolonged piling on of latex pieces to flesh-up the face, the application of plastic warts and grease-paint blemishes, and the fitting of dental plates.

"I came out of this with a great love for both of the Roosevelts. They were an amazing pair."

Although neither Herrmann nor Alexander won any personal awards for the show, the first "Eleanor and Franklin" won 11 Emmy Awards.

The sequel, "Eleanor and Franklin," about the White House years, was shown on ABC this past March and was well received by the nation. Herrmann said, "It was tough to get the energy level up for the second production."

"I studied his vocal rhythms on cassettes borrowed from the Roosevelt Library. And for his famous 'day that will live in infamy' speech, I really studied and listened again and again.

"That speech is so well known, so remembered by the American people. I listened to it 10 times the morning before we did the scene.

These two photographs are of Edward Herrmann as Franklin D. Roosevelt in the ABC Television production Eleanor and Franklin: The White House Years. Sponsor: IBM Corporation.

"I came out of this with a great love for both of the Roosevelts. They were an amazing pair. But mostly I tended to be more of a fan of Eleanor's—the deep human values she possessed appealed to me more as an actor.

"But this is the last of the FDR roles for me. Franklin is gone from my professional life, but we parted on good terms. I give him gladly to someone else. I can't do any more with the role."

Herrmann was a recipient of a 1976 Tony Award (best featured actor of a play). He was the star of George Bernard Shaw's "Mrs. Warren's Profession." He said that winning the Tony was like catching a home run in the bleachers by Al Kaline.

In April of 1977, he along with Jane Alexander, won the Television Critics Circle Award for achievement in acting.

In the spring of this year, he returned to Bucknell to participate in the Celebration of the Arts along with composer John Cage, playwrights Edward Albee and Earl Wilson Jr., actor John Waite, poets John Wheatcroft, Peter Balakian, and Bruce Smith. The celebration was sponsored by the newly formed Bucknell Association for the Arts.

Edward Herrmann, one of several outstanding Phi Psi actors, will be playing the role of Lou Gehrig on television this coming season.

In Chapter Eternal

... "Lest We Forget"

JAMES HOWARD HUTCHINSON, Colgate '01, Phi Beta Kappa and Ph.D. from Columbia Univ., died in Pasadena, Calif. on April 13, 1977, at age 94. Brother Hutchinson was engaged in municipal government research and investigation in New York City, serving on the staff of the former mayor, John Purroy Mitchel. He directed the raising of substantial funds, primarily for endowment and construction for colleges and universities throughout the country. As a member of the staff of the Conference Board, he directed economic research until 1955, when he retired.

His survivors are a son, a daughter, and five grandchildren. His wife, Cora, died in 1970.

HAROLD CAMMEYER TODD, Columbia '06, a recognized authority on nature color photography, died March 2, 1977, in Scotch Plains, N.Y. He was 91. Brother Todd retired in 1956 as vice president of Swedish Iron and Steel Co. in New York City.

He was listed in World's Who's Who for his work in photography, lecturing and writing on nature subjects. In 1947, he was named the nation's top nature color photographer by the Metropolitan Camera Council.

He is survived by his widow, Gladys, two daughters, one son, three sisters, eight grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren.

EDWIN C. MATTHIAS, Stanford '07, retired vice president and general counsel for the Great Northern Railroad, in Spokane, Wash., and St. Paul, Minn., died recently. He was 88. In 1957, Brother Matthias retired and spent the remainder of his life in Atherton, Calif.

He is survived by a daughter and two sons.

COMMANDER BYRON BROWN RALSTON, Ohio State '07, U.S.N. retired, died March 9, 1971, in New Rochelle, N.Y. Among his survivors are his widow and a daughter.

EDWARD H. COOPER, Ohio Wesleyan '08, died recently at age 91. Brother Cooper held a position in the Barber-Greene Co. for 27 years and was responsible for sales of the company's products in seven western states over a nine-year period, with headquarters in Dallas, Tex.

His survivors are one daughter, four grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

CHARLES M. SWITZER, Washington & Lee '11, retired DuPont Company executive, died October 28, 1976, in Mount Dora, Fla. Brother Switzer was a resident of several places during his career for DuPont, retiring in 1952 in Florida.

His widow, Elisabeth, survives him.

FREDERICK T. HARRIS, Bucknell '13, died Nov. 16, 1976, in Somerville, N.J. He was 87. Brother Harris held an electrical engineering position in the Brooklyn Navy Yard until his retirement at the age of 64. He then worked for 23 years in his daughter's publishing business, Legislative Index of New Jersey, Inc.

His wife, Elizabeth, preceded him in death by 15 days. His survivors are two daughters and nine grandchildren.

What's so special about the 1978 Grand Arch Council? Kansas City's Crown Center Hotel

The 1978 GAC is scheduled in Kansas City, at the incomparable Crown Center Hotel. Which is why you shouldn't miss it.

The hotel is only a small part of the entire Crown Center complex, which has been called a "city within a city." And, a "downtown suburb." It's a myriad of restaurants, cafes, shops, boutiques, cocktail bars, and various other entertainment as well as cultural facilities.

Just think. If you planned on staying at the Crown Center Hotel between August 9 and 13, 1978, you could see just about everything the Crown Center complex has to offer.

And you could take in a very interesting and informative convention, too. The 1978 Phi Kappa Psi Grand Arch Council.

It's a great way to support your Fraternity. Make plans to attend now.

For further information, contact the Phi Psi Executive Office, 1940 East 6th Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44114.
