The Executive Compensation Committee recommended the increase based on the results of the survey on Board remuneration conducted by Towers Watsons Philippines, Inc., which considered the size of the PLDT Group in terms of revenues, net income and total assets, that PLDT is listed in the NYSE, and PLDT's directors do not receive compensation with a variable component other than the director's fees/per diem for attendance in Board/Board Committee meetings. The results showed that PLDT is larger than most of the companies surveyed and close to the market 90th percentile in terms of revenues, and the annual remuneration of PLDT's directors was approximately 30 percent lower than the annual remuneration of other companies in the 90th percentile.

Except for the fees mentioned above, the directors are not compensated, directly or indirectly, for their services as such directors.²¹

In addition, the 2012 to 2014 LTIP allows for the participation of a number of senior executives and certain newly hired executives and ensures the continuity of management in line with the succession planning of the PLDT Group.
