

Limited Product Warranty

Manhattan warrants its products against defects in workmanship and materials for the period noted in the product features for the original purchaser. The Limited Product Warranty Period starts on the date of purchase. The Customer's dated sales or delivery receipt, showing the date of purchase of the product, is its proof of the purchase date. The Customer may be required to provide proof of purchase as a condition to receiving warranty service. The Customer is entitled to warranty service according to the terms and conditions of this document if a repair to its Manhattan Hardware Product is required within the Limited Product Warranty Period. This Limited Product Warranty extends only to the original end user purchaser of the Manhattan Hardware Product and is not transferable to anyone who obtains ownership of the Manhattan Hardware Product from the original end-user purchaser. During this time frame, products may be returned for replacement with equivalent products at our discretion.

This warranty does not cover moving parts or damages caused by: improper installation; improper repairs, servicing, or alterations; use of supplies or parts that do not meet our specifications; unauthorized modifications; failure to follow instructions; normal wear and tear; natural disasters and accidents, including fire, water, lightning, and other acts of nature; anything that is not a defect in material or workmanship. This warranty also does not cover: damage to items that occurs during shipment to the dealer; lost data, lost time, damaged software, or loss of revenue or profits; losses covered by your insurance; shipping costs and expenses; incidental and consequential damages not listed above. Some states or countries do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitation or exclusion may not apply to you.
