We uphold only the highest standards when it comes to our plastics

We want you to trust every Doodle you or your children create! That's why we source only the highest quality plastics.

- Our 3Doodler Start plastics melt at low temperatures so that they are completely safe for kids.
- They are also certified as compostable, meaning they will break down over time under typical household compost conditions.
- Something we are all pretty excited about is that ALL of our plastics are certified as recyclable.

We are proud to work with many trusted retailers, such as Michaels and Target, who value (and also insist on) high standards of quality and safety testing.

We have the widest range and best certified plastics, including wood.

We want you to love every Doodle you create. That's why we have developed the widest range of plastics out there, with over 70+ colors, and materials as diverse as PLA, ABS, Flexy and Wood.

- With more colors than most people can name, we want to ensure our users have the creative freedom to create whatever they want.
- Our rigorous focus on the quality of our plastics ensures that our users never have to stop once they get started.
- All our plastics are recyclable and in some cases commercially compostable.

We are proud to work with many trusted retailers, such as Michaels and Target, who value (and also insist on) high standards of quality and safety testing.
