DON VIGIL FINE ART

Don Vigil is an attorney in Albuquerque who has been practicing since 1978. When he began winding down his practice in early 2022, he forged ahead with his longtime passion of painting, an endeavor that began in the early 1970s.

He paints in watercolor, oil and acrylic on a variety of surfaces including paper, canvas, and even plexiglass. Most of his subjects are inspired by the landscapes of New Mexico, Colorado, and Arizona, and he is drawn to the mountains, buttes, canyons, and rivers that dot our landscape. His images range from loose Impressionism to abstract and a variety of color palettes.

As he wound down his law practice, he began marketing his paintings in various New Mexico fairs and through his website at PaintingsbyDonVigil.com and PaintingsbyDonVigil @Etsy.com.

He can be contacted at donvigil52@gmail.com or by phoning 505 259-4589.

The Professional Development Program offers law practice management services and resources to State Bar of New Mexico members. This includes continuing education courses, “how-to” manuals and workshops, confidential practice consultations, a confidential ethics advisory helpline and information, sample forms, checklists and assessments on best practices for lawyers.

For more information, please visit www.sbnm.org/PDP or call the program at 505-797-6079.

of the New Mexico Bench and Bar

JUDGE'S PREAMBLE

As a judge, I will strive to ensure that judicial proceedings are fair, efficient and conducive to the ascertainment of the truth. In order to carry out that responsibility, I will comply with the letter and spirit of the Code of Judicial Conduct, and I will ensure that judicial proceedings are conducted with fitting dignity and decorum.

A. With respect to parties, lawyers, jurors and witnesses:

- I will be courteous, respectful and civil to parties, lawyers, jurors and witnesses. I will maintain control in the courtroom to ensure that all proceedings are conducted in a civil manner.
- I will not employ hostile, demeaning or humiliating words in opinions or in written or oral communications.
- I will be punctual in convening all hearings, meetings and conferences.
- I will be mindful of time schedules of lawyers, parties and witnesses.

- I will make all reasonable efforts to decide cases promptly.
- I will give all cases deliberate, impartial and studied analysis and consideration.
- I will be considerate of the time constraints and pressures imposed on lawyers by the demands of trial practice.
- Within practical time limits, I will allow lawyers to present proper arguments and to make a complete and accurate record.
- I will not impugn the integrity or professionalism of any lawyer on the basis of the clients whom or the causes which a lawyer represents.
- I will do my best to ensure that court personnel act civilly and professionally.
- I will not adopt procedures that needlessly increase litigation expense.
- I will be open to constructive criticism and make such changes as are consistent with this creed and the Code of Judicial Conduct when appropriate.

B. With respect to other judges:

- I will be courteous, respectful and civil in my opinions.
- In all written and oral communications, I will abstain from disparaging personal remarks or criticisms, or sarcastic or demeaning comments about another judge.
- I will endeavor to work with other judges to foster a spirit of cooperation and collegiality.

LAWYER'S PREAMBLE

As a lawyer, I will strive to make our system of justice work fairly and efficiently. In order to carry out that responsibility, I will comply with the letter and spirit of the disciplinary standards applicable to all lawyers, and I will also conduct myself in accordance with the following Creed of Professionalism when dealing with my client, opposing parties, their counsel, the courts and any other person involved in the legal system, including the general public.

A. In all matters: "My Word is My Bond."

B. With respect to my clients:

- I will be loyal and committed to my client's cause, and I will provide my client with objective and independent advice.
- I will work to achieve lawful objectives in all other matters, as expeditiously and economically as possible.
- In appropriate cases, I will counsel my client regarding options for mediation, arbitration and other alternative methods of resolving disputes.
- I will advise my client against pursuing matters that have no merit.
- I will advise my client against tactics that will delay resolution or which harass or drain the financial resources of the opposing party.

- I will advise my client that civility and courtesy are not weaknesses.
- I will counsel my client that initiating or engaging in settlement discussions is consistent with zealous and effective representation.
- I will keep my client informed about the progress of the work for which I have been engaged or retained, including the costs and fees.
- I will charge only a reasonable attorney's fee for services rendered.
- I will be courteous to and considerate of my client at all times.

C. With respect to opposing parties and their counsel:

- I will be courteous and civil, both in oral and in written communications.
- I will not make improper statements of fact or of law.
- I will agree to reasonable requests for extensions of time or waivers of formalities when legitimate interests of my client will not be adversely affected.
- I will consult with opposing counsel before scheduling depositions and meetings or before rescheduling hearings.
- I will cooperate with opposing counsel's requests for scheduling changes.
- I will not use litigation, delay tactics, or other courses of conduct to harass the opposing party or their counsel.
- I will refrain from excessive and abusive discovery, and I will comply with reasonable discovery requests.
- In depositions, negotiations and other proceedings, I will conduct myself with dignity, avoiding groundless objections and other actions that are disrupting and disrespectful.
- I will not serve motions and pleadings that will unfairly limit the other party's opportunity to respond.
- In the preparation of documents and in negotiations, I will concentrate on substance and content.
- I will clearly identify, for other counsel or parties, all changes that I have made in all documents.

D. With respect to the courts and other tribunals:

- I will be a vigorous and zealous advocate on behalf of my client, but I will remember that excessive zeal may be detrimental to my client's interests or the proper functioning of our justice system.

- I will communicate with opposing counsel in an effort to avoid litigation or to resolve litigation.
- I will voluntarily withdraw claims or defenses when they are superfluous or do not have merit.
- I will refrain from filing frivolous motions.
- I will voluntarily exchange information and work on a plan for discovery as early as possible.
- I will attempt to resolve, by agreement, my objections to matters contained in my opponent's pleadings and discovery requests.
- When hearings or depositions are canceled, I will notify opposing counsel, necessary parties, and the court (or other tribunal) as early as possible.
- Before dates for hearings or trials are set, or immediately after dates have been set, I will verify the availability of participants and witnesses, and I will also notify the court (or other tribunal) and opposing counsel of any problems.
- In civil matters, I will stipulate to facts when there is no genuine dispute.
- I will be punctual for court hearings, conferences and depositions.
- I will be respectful toward and candid with the court.
- I will avoid the appearance of impropriety at all times.

E. With respect to the public and to other persons involved in the legal system:

- I will be mindful of my commitment to the public good.
- I will keep current in my practice areas, and, when necessary, will associate with or refer my client to other more knowledgeable or experienced counsel.
- I will willingly participate in the disciplinary process.
- I will strive to set a high standard of professional conduct for others to follow.
- I will respect and protect the image of the legal profession, and will be respectful of the content of my advertisements or other public communications.
- I will commit to the goals of the legal profession, and to my responsibilities to public service, improvement of administration of justice, civic influence, and my contribution of voluntary and uncompensated time for those persons who cannot afford adequate legal assistance.

Ethics Help

If you find yourself in a situation where your proper course of conduct is unclear, you should first consult the Rules of Professional Conduct. If that doesn't resolve the question, you should check the archive of published ethics advisory opinions, which includes a topical index and summaries to help steer you to the relevant opinion(s). There's a very good chance that your question has already been asked and answered, and you may find the information you need there. If not, members have access to various resources to find help and answers regarding ethical inquiries. A helpline exists to answer ethics questions quickly and the Ethics Advisory Committee considers some submitted questions and answers with formal or informal written opinions.

Client Protection Fund Commission

The purpose of the Client Protection Fund is to promote public confidence in the administration of justice and the integrity of the legal profession by reimbursing losses caused by the dishonest conduct of lawyers admitted and licensed to practice law in the courts of this jurisdiction. The Client Protection Fund Commission was established by order of the New Mexico Supreme Court effective Dec. 13, 2005, as a permanent commission of the State Bar of New Mexico Board of Bar Commissioners. The Supreme Court adopted a modified version of the American Bar Association's model rules for client protection funds and codified them at Rules 17A-001 et seq. of the New Mexico Rules Annotated. The Commission oversees the CPF and is charged with receiving, holding, managing, and disbursing money from the Fund according to the rules. The State Bar is responsible for administering the Commission, developing and approving the budget, and managing operations and staffing. Since Jan. 1, 2014, the New Mexico Disciplinary Board has assisted in the technical administration of the Commission's tasks, including the processing of claims under the Commission's direction.

COMMITTEES

The State Bar offers a wide range of committees and programs that succeed only because of the commitment of members. While these groups have many different objectives, they generally serve to strengthen the profession, provide resources to members, improve public understanding of legal issues and processes and increase access to the legal system. Committee membership is open to all members of the State Bar, but some committees are limited in size or require particular qualifications. The membership of the standing committees is appointed by the State Bar president and new members are solicited each year. To volunteer, contact the Member Services Department, memberservices@sbnm.org.

Judicial Standards Commission

www.nmjsc.org

The New Mexico Judicial Standards Commission is a constitutionally created, independent commission within the judicial branch of New Mexico state government that is charged by Article VI, Section 32 of the state constitution to investigate allegations of willful misconduct in office, persistent failure or inability to perform judicial duties, habitual intemperance, and permanent disability filed against justices of the Supreme Court or judges of the Court of Appeals, district courts, Metropolitan Court, magistrate courts, municipal courts, and probate courts. As of January 1, 2020, the Commission's jurisdiction was also extended by the state legislature to include court-appointed commissioners, hearing officers, and administrative law judges while they are acting in a judicial capacity. The Commission conducts trials when necessary and, if good cause exists, may recommend to the New Mexico Supreme Court that a judicial officer be removed from office, involuntarily retired, or disciplined.

Teen Courts

Teen court provides jurisdiction with an alternative method for sanctioning youth charged with status offenses such as alcohol or drug possession and other misdemeanor or traffic offenses. Teens are held accountable and the courts promote and provide avenues for positive development. Teen courts educate youth on the impact of their behavior on themselves, their families and their communities, giving teens a second chance to keep their record clean. Sentences are deferred one time. Insurance rates do not go up. Youth are guilty when they agree to participate. Sentencing includes community service, jury duty, "Know the Law" class, apology to parents in court and other appropriate community resources. Classes are offered for other status crimes or driving citation involving a collision.

Tribal Courts

Tribal courts serve the various tribes throughout the state. Federal law requires some matters to be heard exclusively, or at least in the first instance, in tribal courts. New Mexico law recognizes the importance of tribal court rulings. Although each tribal court is different with its own rules and protocols, it may be the appropriate forum for cases which affect Indian tribal government interests, involve Indian people, or arise on Indian land.

Clinical Law Programs

Receptionist 505-277-5265
The University of New Mexico School of Law's Clinical Law Program is nationally recognized as one of the best in the United States. It is one of New Mexico's "largest law firms." The law school has offered clinical education as a basic part of its curriculum since 1970 and is a pioneer in developing programs in practical lawyering skills. The program ensures students receive a solid background in professional skills, values and practices as they progress from student to practicing professional.

American Indian Law Center, Inc. (AIRC)

Rodina Cave Parnell, Director 505-277-5462 AIRCinfo@law.unm.edu
The American Indian Law Center, Inc. (AIRC) is the oldest existing Indian-controlled and operated legal and public policy organization in the country. Among other projects, the AIRC offers a pre-law program to Native American students through its Pre-Law Summer Institute for American Indians and Alaska Natives (PLSI). AIRC's Southwest Intertribal Court of Appeals (SWITCA) serves as a tribal appellate court and provides member tribes with research, training and technical assistance. AIRC and the UNM Indian Law Program collaborate on projects, teaching and training.

Utton Transboundary Resources Center

Adrian Oglesby, Director 505-277-3253
The Utton Transboundary Resources Center carries on in the tradition of Professor Albert E. Utton to use preventive diplomacy and multidisciplinary research to resolve transboundary resource issues. Professor Utton, a native New Mexican and Rhodes scholar, established an international reputation by using multidisciplinary scholarship to address complex resource issues, focusing primarily on the Rio Bravo/Rio Grande and the Mexican-U.S. border. The Utton Center has a two-pronged approach to transboundary issues: research and scholarship, and field actions. The center is housed in the UNM School of Law and works closely with the UNM Water Resources Program as well as with scholars and practitioners from across the United States and Mexico.

Institute of Public Law (IPL)

Laura Bassein, IPL Director 505-277-1083
IPL engages in research, analysis, teaching, training, writing and publishing to support the development of informed public policy and law. Founded in the late 1960s as the public service arm of the School of Law, IPL forms an important link between New Mexico's only law school, government agencies and the community-at-large through the work of the following centers:

Corinne Wolfe Center & Family Justice (CWC)

Cristen Conley, Director 505-277-5933
The Center was originally established as the Corinne Wolfe Children's Law Center by the New Mexico Supreme Court Foster Care Task Force (now the Children's Court Improvement Commission) to increase the effectiveness of judicial proceedings under the Children's Code by providing law-focused, interdisciplinary training, educational resources, and technical assistance to the professionals and volunteers who participate in them. The Center changed its name in 2016 to better reflect our vision and our work, which has always focused on improving justice and outcomes for children and families. We provide training and education activities on preventative lawyering that addresses health harming legal needs (including policy advocacy and lawyering in related areas of the law, such as housing, income security, health care, domestic violence, and education).

Judicial Education Center (JEC)

Laura Bassein, Manager, JEC Director 505-277-1083
The Rozier E. Sanchez Judicial Education Center of New Mexico (JEC) was established under a federal grant from the State Justice Institute in December 1991 to provide education and training to the judges, administrators and other staff of the New Mexico judicial branch. In 1993, the New Mexico Legislature formally established JEC within the Institute of Public Law at the UNM School of Law. The mission of the Judicial Education Center (JEC) is to enhance the quality of justice by providing education, training and resources for the New Mexico Judicial Branch.

Legal Practice and Training Center (LPTC)

Sue George, Director, LPTC and CLE Programs 505-277-5089
The Legal Practice and Training Center within the Institute of Public Law provides services and expertise in civics education, continuing legal education, law student training, and policy development. LPTC Director Sue George provides oversight for the Continuing Legal Education (CLE) programs offered at the UNM School of Law.

Pro Hac Vice Rule 24-106 NMRA

Attorneys authorized to practice law before the highest court of record in any state or country who want to perform legal services on behalf of a client or party in New Mexico should consult the rules and procedures for Pro Hac Vice authorization in Rule 24-106 NMRA.

Limited License Rule 15-301.1-.3 NMRA

There are three types of limited licenses: Public Employee Limited License (Rule 15-301.1 NMRA), Legal Services Provider Limited License (Rule 15-301.2 NMRA) and Military Spouse Limited License (Rule 15-301.3 NMRA).

Emeritus Status Rule 24-111 NMRA

An emeritus attorney is an attorney who is or was a licensed attorney in good standing in the State of New Mexico or any other jurisdiction who voluntarily withdrew from the practice of law or transferred to inactive status and does not ask for or receive compensation of any kind for the performance of legal services but who is granted permission to participate in the emeritus pro bono program.

Admission by Motion Rule 15-107 NMRA

New Mexico currently shares reciprocal admission with 36 states, the District of Columbia and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Experienced attorneys may apply for Reciprocity (also known as Reciprocal Admission or Admission on Motion) so long as they 1) are licensed and in good standing in a state that shares reciprocity with New Mexico; and 2) have engaged in the active practice of law for no fewer than five of the last seven years. There is no filing deadline and successful applicants may be sworn in throughout the year.

Applicants should bear in mind that the application process can take longer than six months and plan accordingly. For the full requirements for admission under reciprocity, review the New Mexico Rules Governing Admission. For more information, visit www.nmexam.org/reciprocity.

Status Changes

Reinstatement From Inactive Status Rule 24-102.2(F) NMRA

To be reinstated as an active member, authorization is needed from the State Bar (for attorneys inactive for less than one year) or the Board of Bar Examiners (for attorneys inactive for more than one year). For reinstatement through the State Bar, contact license@sbnm.org. For reinstatement, visit www.nmexam.org/reinstatement. The BBE will perform a personal and professional background check and verify continuing legal education records to determine if there was a prior-year deficit that needs to be completed. Members will also need to pay State Bar licensing fees. Once reinstated, a member will be subject to all parts of annual license renewal and MCLE requirements.

Withdrawn Status Rule 24-102.2(G) NMRA

If you've considered all of the options available, such as inactive status, and you still feel that you would like to give up your license, the proper method is to voluntarily resign. This requires notifying the New Mexico Supreme Court and the State Bar in writing of your intent, which will then allow you to relinquish your New Mexico license without the suspension that would occur if you simply chose not to pay your mandatory fees. Email the Supreme Court at attorneyinfochange@nmcourts.gov and copy license@sbnm.org to begin the process. If you withdraw from the State Bar but determine later on that you need an active license to practice law in New Mexico, you must go through the Board of Bar Examiners to either retake the bar exam or be admitted through the reciprocity rule (unless otherwise ordered by the New Mexico Supreme Court).

» Address of Record and Name Change Rule 24-102.1 NMRA

Rule 24-102.1 NMRA requires every attorney admitted to practice in this state to provide the State Bar with the following: the attorney's address of record; the street address where client files or other materials related to the attorney's practice are located; the attorney's telephone number of record; and the attorney's email address of record. Both the NM Supreme Court and the State Bar must be notified of address changes within 30 days of the change.

Changes to your address of record must be made in writing to both the State Bar of New Mexico and the Clerk of the New Mexico Supreme Court.

» Official Statements Regarding License

Certificates of Good Standing

A licensed attorney in good standing (active or inactive status) may request a Certificate of Good Standing from the New Mexico Supreme Court. Unless otherwise specifically requested, the Supreme Court will mail the certificate to the latest address of record shown on the Roll of Attorneys. To request a Certificate of Good Standing, visit <https://supremecourt.nmcourts.gov/supreme-court/for-attorneys/certificates-of-good-standing/>

Certifications of Admission

The Board of Bar Examiners issues certifications of admission details (including date of application, date of bar exam, date of licensure, and, where available, MPRE score and MBE score). Attorneys may also request certified copies of their bar application materials. Visit www.nmexam.org/attorney-services/score-certification-file-retrieval to order these items.

Statement of Discipline

A Statement of Discipline is similar to a Certificate of Good Standing in that it notes any disciplinary action taken against an attorney, but it is obtained from the Disciplinary Board at a cost of $10. The Statement of Discipline is required by some states when applying to take the bar exam or for admission on motion. This document needs to be requested in writing and the attorney will need to waive his/her right to confidentiality. You may contact the Disciplinary Board at 505-842-5781. This report can only be requested by the practicing attorney or by persons/entities who provide the practicing attorney's waiver.

Letter of Membership

A Letter of Membership can be obtained from the State Bar of New Mexico by calling 505-797-6000 or emailing license@sbnm.org. A Letter of Membership states when a member was admitted to the State Bar and his/her current membership status. This may be required by other states when applying to take the bar exam. This letter can only be requested by the practicing attorney.

» Legal Specialization

The Board of Bar Commissioners has voted to implement a legal specialization program in New Mexico. The New Mexico Supreme Court discontinued its legal specialization program at the end of 2017. The State Bar's new program is not a continuation of the Supreme Court program. The State Bar program will be modeled on successful legal specialization programs of other State Bars. It will have requirements similar to the Supreme Court program (including minimum years in practice, percent of practice, peer review, and supplementary CLE). In addition, specialist applicants will be required to pass an exam. Visit www.sbnm.org/Licensing-Regulatory/Legal-Specialization for more information.

Referral Programs

Legal Resources for the Elderly Program (LREP)

The Legal Resources for the Elderly Program (LREP) is a free, statewide helpline for New Mexico residents age 55 and older. The program does not have any income restrictions. LREP is a joint project of the New Mexico State Bar Foundation and the New Mexico Aging and Long-Term Services Department and has been in existence for nearly 30 years.

Through its helpline, LREP provides legal advice and brief services to more than 4000 New Mexico seniors annually. Each caller speaks with a trained intake staff member, who collects necessary contact and demographic information. After completing an intake, each eligible caller speaks to one of LREP's five staff attorneys. LREP staff attorneys are highly qualified professionals specializing in the legal issues that most affect New Mexico seniors. LREP staff attorneys provide legal advice and brief services in most areas of civil law. LREP provides legal advice in both English and Spanish.

Examples of civil legal areas LREP frequently advises on include: debt problems/bankruptcy; employment issues; foreclosure; kinship guardianship; grandparent visitation; adult guardianship; landlord/tenant issues; Medicaid long-term care; Medicare; Powers of Attorney; probate; Social Security Disability; Transfer on Death Deeds; and general estate planning.

Legal Resources for the Elderly Program can be reached at 505-797-6005 or 1-800-876-6657. Phone lines are open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. MT.

Modest Means Helpline (MMH)

The Modest Means Helpline (MMH) is a civil legal telephone helpline and pro bono referral service for New Mexico residents of modest means. The Modest Means Helpline was created through the efforts of the Access to Justice Commission, the State Bar of New Mexico and the New Mexico State Bar Foundation.

The Modest Means Helpline is an expansion New Mexico Legal Aid Volunteer Attorney Program (VAP) for members of the public who cannot be assisted by the VAP due to conflicts of interest, being over income for NMLA, or being otherwise ineligible for NMLA. MMH's two staff attorneys provide legal advice over the phone, and, if appropriate, may refer the case to pro bono attorneys for legal advice up to limited or full representation. MMH will also work with the VAP to connect people of modest means or those who are NMLA conflicts to court-sponsored legal clinics around the state.

The Modest Means Helpline can be reached at 505-797-6013 or 888-857-9935. Phone lines are open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. MT.

Paralegal Division

The State Bar of New Mexico Paralegal Division was formally organized in August 1995 to serve the needs of paralegals throughout the state, with the following specific goals: to encourage a high order of ethical and professional attainment; to further education among its members; to carry out programs within the State Bar; and to establish good fellowship among division members, the State Bar of New Mexico, and the members of the legal community. A "paralegal" is a person who: (1) contracts with or is employed by an attorney, law firm, corporation, governmental agency or other entity; (2) performs substantive legal work under the supervision of a licensed attorney who assumes professional responsibility for the final work product; and (3) meets one or more of the education, training or work experience qualifications set forth in the Rules Governing Paralegal Services, 20-101 to 20-115 NMRA and Rule 24-101A NMRA.

See page 32 for current Paralegal Division Officers and Board members. Please address communication to a specific Paralegal Division Officer or Board member via e-mail at pd@sbnm.org.
