University Emblem

Description of Emblem:

The emblem of the Deemed University has four salient images depicted in it: The red triangle with its apex pointing up, the bow, the arrow and the entwined snakes.

The triangle with the arrow underscores the Mission of the Deemed University: viz, to merge the three enduring objectives – Education, Healthcare and Research – represented by its three sides into a harmonized whole and hold it launched boldly up into the future. The arrow in addition, stands for the wand of Hermes (or the staff of Asclepius) and with the two entwined snakes represents the Caduceus, which has been traditionally used as the symbol of the medical profession. Uniquely, the bow here adds dynamism and a further dimension to the theme as it holds the arrow poised with its focus into posterity.

Shri. N.P.V. Ramasamy Udayar
Founder-Chancellor
(given in the year 1998)

Beloved Student,

It is with a great sense of pleasure and joy that I welcome you to this campus as a student. Our Trust when it was conceived in the year 1985, dedicated this institution to the proposition that it shall reach the heights of excellence in the fields of medical and health related education, research and patient care. Since then we have worked with a great sense of determination and commitment to make this 150 green acres develop as a mini town with all the facilities inside, keeping in mind the ecology of the surroundings. We are aware that this is going to be your home away from your own home for the next several years and it is vital that the campus is healthy for your growth and comfort. I myself have spared no pains to procure everything that is considered essential to accomplish this. Your parents do expect us to provide appropriate facilities for your development during the next several crucial years in your life. Myself and the administrators of this institution will be happy to listen to your suggestions, requests, and complaints and take such actions as necessary to improve the situation. But, it is very essential that you keep the communication line open and have no hesitation in approaching us. It is also possible that some of you may have unusual, personal, social and adjustment problems particularly when you are away from your own families for a long time. My faculty, staff, wardens and the Dean of Faculties assure me that they will provide such counselling services as may be necessary in the individual circumstances. Such services will be given entirely on a one-on-one basis in strict confidentiality. But again it is up to you to seek such help from us when you are in need.

Although you are here primarily in pursuit of good education and qualification, we believe that you should have adequate opportunities for extra-curricular activities particularly cultural and sports. We encourage all such activities that will help you develop an all-round personality and become an excellent professional.

At this juncture, it is important that you become aware of our expectation of you. As much as you have a right to stay and enjoy the privileges in the campus every other student who is here has the right as well. This institution cannot tolerate any student intimidating other students in the form of teasing, ragging or cause any kind of harm to fellow student physically or emotionally. We do not have a place in this institution for such indiscipline and any student who indulges in such activities will be summarily expelled. Students and parents should also be aware of the recent strict laws that have been enforced by the Government of Tamil Nadu and other statutory authorities against any form of ragging inside college campuses. It is expected of every student that he will abide by all the rules and regulations of this Deemed University colleges and the hostel at all times.

Students who have difficulties with the subject are encouraged to directly seek counseling from the Head of the Department concerned. He is further encouraged to contact the administration to obtain necessary help for improvement. As a policy, it is demanded of every student that he/she maintains 80% attendance in every subject and also meet the standards required for internal assessment examinations. In the matter of allowing a candidate to appear for examinations, the final authority is the concerned Head of the Department and the Dean of Faculties.

In conclusion, I would like you to note that we are here to make everything that is possible and necessary to give you a good education and experience in your field. It is with this intention that we have made a historic alliance with Harvard Medical International also. We want you to utilize all these for your betterment, so that you can look back one day and feel proud of your ALMA MATER.

Wishing you the very best in your life,

N.P.V.Ramasamy Udayar

On the academic front, so much has shifted in the last two academic years and our faculty members have put in their best efforts to acclimatize to a new way of imparting education, though many challenges posed by the pandemic remain. Above all, the pandemic has spotlighted the need for offering a consistent learning environment of onsite and online mode of teaching and a blended learning environment is vital for driving an inclusive student experience, allowing students to access knowledge and skill in a way that works best for them around their individual needs. We record our appreciation that our faculty members have adopted successfully to the changing needs most admirably.

On this occasion, we must acknowledge the selfless service, dedication, determination of our frontline Corona warriors - doctors, nurses, technicians, transporters, EMTs, pharmacists and other staff – during the very trying second wave of Covid-19 pandemic, that have saved many valuable lives. They richly deserve our deepest gratitude and accolades for their true grit and courage. The post –Covid-19 clinical services that has started functioning in full vigour, speaks volumes of their true concern for our patients.

At this juncture, all that I ask of the faculty, students and staff is their continued vigil without let or hindrance against the Covid-19 pandemic and their observing all the Covid-19 guidelines. No doubt, the academic year 2021-22 will face enormous challenges due to Covid-19 pandemic and its impact, direct or indirect, on academic and other related activities. I expect all of you to rise to the occasion and march relentlessly towards achieving excellence in education, health care and research.

In the NIRF-2020, a Ranking System implemented by the MHRD of Govt. of India for the Higher Educational Institutions, Sri Ramachandra Medical College & Research has been placed at 13th rank among all the Medical Colleges in India.

Thousands of students from India and abroad have graduated and have received the MBBS degree since the medical college was initiated in 1985, in addition to several hundred who have received postgraduate degrees and diplomas in the various branches of Medicine.

The MBBS programs as well as all the Postgraduate programs that come under the purview of the National Medical Commission (NMC) are conducted with the approval of the NMC. Further, the HMI Report for 2007 stated that Sri Ramachandra is the model of a learning institution in both its medical and hospitals. The Institution stands out because of its commitment to taking care of all".

Postgraduate education opportunities such as M.D., M.S., D.M. and M.Ch. are available in a wide spectrum of specialties and super specialties in the Medical College.

131. M. Sc. Applied and Regulatory Toxicology (under CBCS)

Centre for Toxicology and developmental research (CEFTE), is OECD-GLP certified test facility since 2014. Having the state-of-the-art infrastructure and expertise, conducts 'product safety evaluation' within 'drug development' program of academia, research institutes and Pharma industry. The potential of risk assessment of pharmaceuticals and chemicals to which humans and the environment are exposed provides the necessary basis for protection measures and is 'regulatory affair'. However, it is not taught either in regular basic or applied science courses. In absence of focused educational programs, demand for qualified scientists with appropriate knowledge, experience and professional qualification is unfulfilled in industry, academia and regulatory bodies. This led us to design a curriculum at par to global regulations and offer an educational program through CEFTE that facilitate the development of competent qualified professionals. The master's program in "Applied and Regulatory Toxicology" includes a unique combination of Toxicological principles and its regulatory perspective. 'Regulatory Toxicology' covers the collection, processing and evaluation of experimental data to permit toxicologically based decisions directed towards the protection of health against harmful effects of drugs, chemical substances, food and feed additives and medical devices etc. The program provides a broad, modern training in theoretical and practical aspects of fundamental and applied toxicology with interdisciplinary approach. Curriculum is taught by working professionals and Bench-scientists. Unlike other academic courses, students will have opportunity to witness and learn through number of research/experiments being carried out at CEFTE. Students are encouraged to observe real-life research processes, laboratory techniques and also assist as feasible. Hence, these students will demonstrate excellence in all the toxicology disciplines. This advanced graduate degree has specifically developed to meet the needs of employers like industry, academia and regulatory agencies; tailored to provide wider opportunity for employment and higher studies. Graduates completing the program will be eligible for international toxicology accreditations e.g. ERT, DABT, UK-RT, etc.

150. M.Sc. Data Analytics (Full-time & Part-time)

The following programs are also conducted under the Faculty of Engineering and Technology:

151. B.Sc. Health Informatics (under CBCS)

B.Sc. Health Informatics is designed to provide knowledge about computer science and health informatics to the student in order to identify, design and manage informatics solutions relevant to health and health systems. It will equip the student with knowledge and skills to tackle real-world medical science issues, from an informatics and computational perspective. Through the experiential learning, the student will experience what it is like to use the knowledge, tools and skills learned in the program in a real public health setting.

152. B.Sc. Data Sciences (under CBCS)

Data science, also known as data-driven science, is an interdisciplinary field about scientific methods, processes and systems to extract knowledge or insights from data in various forms. Data may be either structured or unstructured from various sources analysed by high end algorithms and tools. B.Sc. Data Science is a specialized program which offers detailed learning in data science, data analytics, project life cycle, data acquisition, analyses, statistical methods and machine learning. It is an extremely unique course with hands-ons/ marketable skills, complete with more practical training.

RESEARCH AT SRIHER

Research at SRIHER is driven by the institutional and national vision to contribute to the prevention and alleviation of disease and disability, leading to the betterment of the health of our population. A network of sophisticated research laboratories provides world class facilities to faculty and students for engagement in medicine, clinical, biomedical, public health, pharmaceutical, health sciences, engineering technology and healthcare management related research. There is special emphasis on multi-disciplinary and collaborative research where in faculty members drawn from different departments and divisions routinely take up high impact research to inform national and international health priorities.

Thrust areas of research are diverse and include non-communicable disease epidemiology, medical genetics and genomics, maternal health, child growth and development, cancer biology, molecular oncology, exercise physiology, occupational and environmental health, clinical virology, radiation biology, speech language and neurodevelopment, nursing care, drug development and discovery, bio-materials and nano-technology, stem cell and regenerative biology, preclinical toxicology, public policy and health care financing, artificial intelligence in healthcare technology, to name a few.

With a network of more than 60 institutional collaborators, that include numerous international (USA, European, Australia) and Indian universities, Governmental and non-governmental research institutions, the faculty at SRIHER have been involved in abundant national and global research and training efforts. Funders include major national agencies such as Department of Science and Technology (DST), Department of Biotechnology (DBT), Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR), AYUSH, Defense Research Development Organization (DRDO) and Ministry of Environment, Board of Radiation and Nuclear Sciences (BRNS), International funding agencies like National Institutes of Health (USA), The Wellcome Trust and The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. SRIHER also has an excellent set of intra-mural funding support schemes to help undergraduate, postgraduate and PhD students as well as junior faculty seed their research explorations and build capacities for attracting extramural funds.

Publications and citations from the SRIHER research community have been significant with over 8500 indexed articles, 60,000 citations and a cumulative H-Index of 83 to their credit.

The Office of Dean (Research) provides centralized administrative support for all aspects of research management including research planning, grant administration (including human resource, financial and equipment management) and registrations/ approvals from relevant national and international certifying bodies and infrastructure. A central shared sophisticated laboratory that includes instrumentation for bio-analytical chemistry, cell and molecular biology, genomics and proteomics, clinical virology and optical imaging provides support for internal and external student/faculty researchers for equipment requirements that cannot be ordinarily met from individual grants.

The GLP accredited pre-clinical toxicology facility and FDA audited Clinical trial division cater the needs of Pre-Clinical and Clinical research requirements. In addition, SRIHER is a recipient of infrastructure grants from DST and DBT that support the maintenance and operation of the shared high-end instrumentation.

Recently SRIHER has received support from the Biotechnology Industry Research Assistance Council (BIRAC) of DBT, Govt. of India to establish a BioNest incubator to develop entrepreneurs engaged in scaling health care technologies. Focal areas of the SRIHER BioNest incubator will include Clinical Validation of Medical Devices, Point of Care Diagnostic Kits, Nanotechnology and Artificial Intelligence (AI) / Machine Learning (ML) based tools in healthcare. With access to multiple clinical specialties and clinical/basic science research groups within the same campus, the SRIHER Bio-incubator is poised to become a major player in nurturing health care related start-ups.
