GOOGLE BOOST

Google Business Profile

Let customers know you accept recycling on your Business Profile

Trying to work out what and where to recycle can be tricky for most people. Help make it easier for them by adding your recycling information on Google.

Businesses can add the Recycling attribute to make it easier and show customers they can recycle at your business. These attributes appear on Business Profiles in Google Search and Maps.

13M+
metric tons of plastics leak into the ocean annually. That's equivalent to dumping the contents of one garbage truck into the ocean every minute.

+150%
increase in consumer recycling queries on Google products since 2016.
