FIRST READING*A Reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes
Ecc 1:2; 2:21-23

Vanity of vanities, says Qoheleth, vanity of vanities! All things are vanity!
Here is one who has labored with wisdom and knowledge and skill, and yet to another who has not labored over it, he must leave property.
This also is vanity and a great misfortune.
For what profit comes to man from all the toil and anxiety of heart with which he has labored under the sun?
All his days of sorrow and grief are his occupation;
even at night his mind is not at rest.
This also is vanity.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 90:3-4, 5-6, 12-13, 14 and 17

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

SECOND READING*A Reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Colossians Col 3:1-5, 9-11

Brothers and sisters:
If you were raised with Christ, seek what is above,
where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.
Think of what is above, not of what is on earth.
For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.
When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Put to death, then, the parts of you that are earthly:
immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and the
greed that is idolatry.
Stop lying to one another, since you have taken off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed, for knowledge,
in the image of its creator.
Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free;
but Christ is all and in all.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL*A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke Lk 12:13-21

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus,
“Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance
with me.”
He replied to him,
“Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?”
Then he said to the crowd,
“Take care to guard against all greed,
for though one may be rich,
one’s life does not consist of possessions.”
Then he told them a parable.
“There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest.
He asked himself, ‘What shall I do,
for I do not have space to store my harvest?’
And he said, ‘This is what I shall do:
I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones.
There I shall store all my grain and other goods
and I shall say to myself, ‘Now as for you,
you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!’”
But God said to him,
‘You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?’
Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

By Father Edward A. Murphy

GOSPEL According to LUKE

All three Readings quote from the same hymn sheet. In unison their song is, Greed is Bad. The laws of the land are meant to advance the common good, to regulate how we conduct our daily dealings with one another in the interests of justice and fairness, and to keep and protect the general public from wrongdoing. It's a big task. Ever since Cain killed his brother Abel, our human nature has been wounded. The wound has festered and proliferated, contaminating the waters of humane living. Chief among the toxins is greed.

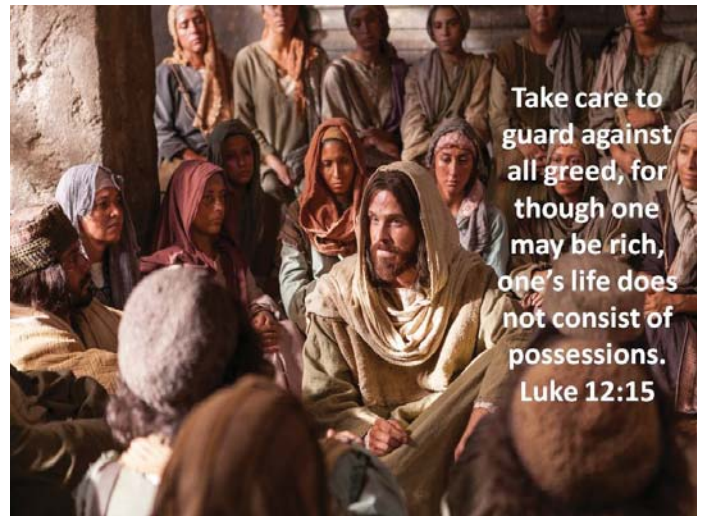

For survival, a baby is greedy for milk from one source or another. One part of parenting is to broaden the toddler's diet to include solids. A second key task is to wean the child off greediness-s/he can't have all the toys all the time-and teach him/her to share. But the tug-of-war between greed and generosity goes on all our days. When grabbing outmuscles giving then trust goes out the door. When much wants more then we lose balance and fall, causing harm. Sometimes injured parties choose to suffer in silence. Other times, summonses replace invitations. Kitchens are exchanged for courtrooms. Offices may give way to cells.

Sooner or later an appointment is made for each one of us with an undertaker. We will have no say in it. We will travel light, for, as wise ones will have told us, a shroud has no pockets. All we will need to have put away is enough to bury or cremate us. All else will be left behind, surplus to requirement. All we will carry with us is our name, offering it for inscription in the 'book of life'. But someone else will decide on that. That someone will ask each of us the very same set of questions: Did you love? Did you give? Did you forgive? Did you let me love you? Did you let me love your neighbor?

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel

1. 'One's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions', said Jesus. What have you found by experience to be more important in life than possessions? What brought this home to you?
2. 'Be on your guard against all kinds of greed'. Perhaps you have seen how greed can lead to trouble in public life, in family life, and in the personal life of individuals. What has helped you to guard against greed? What benefits have you experienced when you were less greedy?
3. The message of the parable could be summed up in saying 'if you want to give God a laugh, tell him your plans '. Life takes many twists and turns we do not anticipate. When have you found that you had to change your plans because of unexpected circumstances? What has helped you to be flexible and resourceful at such times?

(Intercom 2022 July)

Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions.
Luke 12:15

There will be CHOIR PRACTICE on TUESDAYS at 7:00pm.

Being a catechist brings joy. Okay, so sometimes it's not ecstasy trying to teach a group of kids about morals when they'd rather be playing soccer — but most of the time, being with energetic, enthusiastic young people gives you renewed energy and vitality.

Kids remind adults to live and laugh in the present moment and get enthused about life's endless opportunities for joy. And the pleasure of standing with a child as they receive the Eucharist for the first time, or witnessing the Gospel take root in someone's life, is incomparable.

Not to mention the deep-seated and long-lasting joy you experience when you see the Faith growing and developing throughout your parish.

Holy Ghost Feast Origin and Tradition

The Portuguese Feast of the Holy Ghost is a tradition of adoration to the third person of the Blessed Trinity. The feast and its traditions were modeled after the example set by Queen Isabella (or Elizabeth) of Portugal (1271-1336).

Queen Isabella, who was canonized in 1626, was devoted to the Holy Spirit and works of charity to the poor and sick. Portuguese folklore indicates that the Queen would carry food out of the castle under her cloak. Her husband, King Denis, asked to see what she carried under her cloak. As she removed the bread, it had miraculously turned into a bouquet of roses and she was never again questioned.

She would give the poor "pensaos" which consisted of meat, bread, and wine which they took home to their families. During her reign, she would serve meals to the poor on the feast of the Trinity and "crown" a subject to demonstrate that they were equal in God's eyes. The individual honored was known as the "imperador" and later as the "mordomo".

The insignia of the Holy Spirit, the dove, was prominently displayed on the Queen's royal trappings - her crown, banner and scepter. Facsimiles of these articles are still used in the religious traditions of the Feast and are displayed on the altar when they are not in use during the eight weeks prior to the Feast.

Two colors are used in conjunction with the feast: red and white. Red symbolizes the tongues of fire, the form in which the Holy Spirit descended on the Apostles, and white symbolizes peace, purity and divinity. The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are symbolized by our seven weeks (domingas) of adoration from Easter Sunday through Pentecost Sunday.

The Crown, symbolizing the Holy Spirit, is delivered to each "dominga" family for one week beginning on Easter Sunday. During each families week of hosting the Holy Spirit, their home is open to the public and at 8:00 PM the rosary is recited in front of their altar. Following the recitation of the rosary, the traditional Portuguese sweetbread (massa), wine, and other refreshments are served.

At the completion of each week, the dominga family returns to 10:00 mass in a cortege. Immediately following mass, the cortege forms on the altar for the "crowning" ceremony. After mass, the cortege travels to the next dominga home and presents the family with the crown, beginning their week. The eighth and final dominga of the year is at the Mordomo's home from Sunday through Friday evening.

The two days of the feast are the highlight of this beautiful tradition. On Saturday, the eve of Trinity Sunday, the crown is moved to the Holy Ghost Hall (Fenner Avenue). On that evening a roast beef dinner is served prior to recitation of the rosary and musical entertainment ends the evening. On Trinity Sunday all the dominga families process from Holy Ghost Hall to church for the final crowning of the year at 10:00 mass. After mass, all eight corteges, joined by bands and invited guests, march in procession back to Holy Ghost Hall. Traditional "sopas" (Portuguese soup) and roast beef are served to all attending in like manner to Saint Isabella serving her subjects. The entire Feast day is filled with devotion and unity. The Feast celebration officially ends after selection of the seven dominga names and the announcement of the new Mordomo.

Medjugorje Message, July 25, 2022

“Dear children! I am with you to lead you on the way of conversion, because, little children, with your lives you can draw many souls closer to my Son.

You be joyful witnesses of God's word and love, and with hope in the heart which conquers every evil. Forgive those who inflict evil on you, and go on the way of holiness.

I am leading you to my Son, for Him to be the way, the truth and the life for you.

Thank you for having responded to my call. ”

The messages attributed to Our Lady of Medjugorje have a strong following among Catholics worldwide. Medjugorje has become one of the most popular pilgrimage sites for Catholics in the world and has turned into Europe's third most important apparition site, where each year more than 1 million people visit. It has been estimated that 30 million pilgrims have come to Medjugorje since the reputed apparitions began in 1981.

In one of her first messages, Our Lady gave us a present of the Five Stones of Medjugorje:

1. praying the Rosary with our heart every day
2. fasting twice every week
3. visiting the Holy Confession every month
4. receiving the Eucharist every Sunday
5. reading the Bible every day

PRAYERS said at end of HOLY MASS

Memorare:

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do we come, before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.

Amen.

"O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee."

Divine Praises:

May the heart of Jesus, in the Most Blessed Sacrament, be praised, adored, and loved with grateful affection, at every moment, in all the tabernacles of the world, even to the end of time. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael The Archangel:

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits,
who prowl around the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.
