

FROM CLAIMERS TO CLASSICS FOR AUMONERIE

Julie Mestrallet of Haras de l'Aumonerie

By Kelsey Riley

While it was the multi-million Euro mares who stole the limelight at Arqana's December Breeding Stock Sale two weeks ago, there were successes to be celebrated beneath those top prices. Among the most remarkable of those has to be Haras de l'Aumonerie's Starspangledbanner (Aus) colt (lot 145), who was bought by Yeomanstown Stud for €170,000.

The colt, already named Captain Star (Fr), had plenty going for him on both sides of his pedigree, being by a popular sire and a brother to two stakes horses, including none other than this year's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches victress Coeursamba (Fr) (The Wow Signal {Ire}). Captain Star and Coeursamba are out of the 15-year-old Marechale (Fr) (Anabaa), whose five foals thus far were all bred by Julie Mestrallet at her Haras de l'Aumonerie just outside Deauville.

With the recent high-end breeding stock sales still fresh in the memory, it is easy to become desensitized to mares commanding millions. But we are likewise reminded at every sale that there are diamonds in the rough, and Marechale certainly represents the latter scenario, having been bought by Mestrallet out of the claiming ranks for €2,500, having failed to win in 16 starts.

The path from claimer to breeding Guineas winners is not the most well-trodden one, but Mestrallet has done things her own way since taking over her mother, Francine Mestrallet's, Aumonerie 10 years ago and converting it from a reputable nursery for showjumpers and ponies into a Classic-producing Thoroughbred operation. An accomplished showjumper herself who also worked as a groom for Olympic-level riders, Julie Mestrallet then shifted her sights to the veterinary field, taking a job at a clinic.

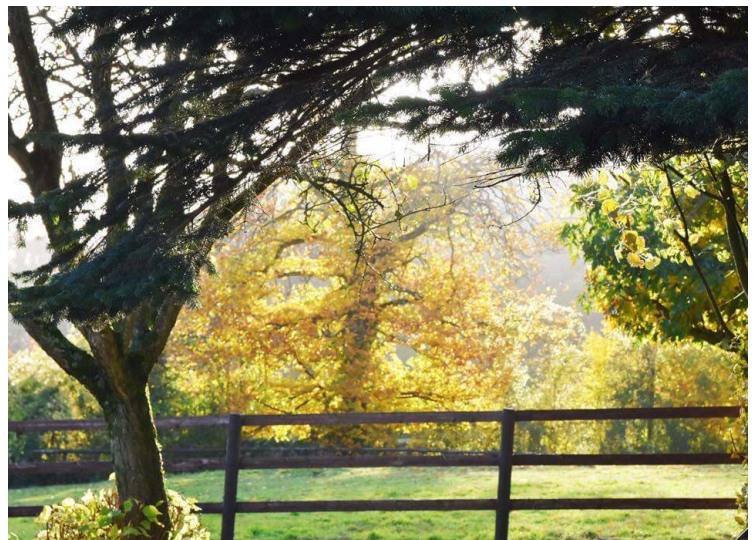

One of the clinic's clients was Haras du Quesnay, and it was through visits to the Head family's historic stud that Mestrallet got to know the accomplished sires Anabaa and Bering. With her interest in racing suitably piqued, Mestrallet went to work for trainer Jennifer Bidgood, and it was during a trip to the small racecourse Niort in the West of France on June 13, 2010, that Mestrallet laid eyes on Marechale for the first time.

“I found Marechale in a claiming race, and even though she had no performances, I was interested in her because she is by Anabaa out of a Bering mare and bred by Quesnay,” Mestrallet said. “I’m a huge fan of the Quesnay pedigrees and Alec Head.”

Marechale, a full-sister to the multiple listed winner Maxwell (Fr), had been raced by the Head family through her first 10 starts, after which she joined trainer Philippe Le Gal. She was upped in trip by her new trainer, but that did little to turn Marechale’s fortunes around, and she finished fifth at Niort that day for a €5,000 claiming tag.

Mestrallet recalled, “I went to see the trainer on the day and asked him how much the mare would cost. He said he wanted to continue to run her in claiming races, but I gave him my phone number and said, ‘the day you want to get rid of her, call me.’”

Just a month later, Mestrallet’s phone rang.

“He said, ‘I don’t want her anymore,’” Mestrallet said. “He said he was going to race her one last time, and then he would let me buy her for €2,500.”

The reasoning behind Marechale’s first mating was relatively straightforward: Mestrallet held a free nomination to Alexandros (GB), won through the French TBA’s stallion seasons draw. The result was a filly, later named Comme Une Grande (Fr), that Mestrallet sold for €26,000 to Yohann Gourraud at Arqana’s October Yearling Sale in 2014—not a bad return on an initial €2,500 investment. Meanwhile, Mestrallet’s luck at the French TBA’s stallion seasons draw had continued; she won a nomination to Mr.

Sidney and sold the resulting filly out of Marechale, Lady Sidney (Fr), as a foal in 2014 for €8,500 to Fresnay Agricole.

In addition to turning a few tidy profits for Mestrallet in the sales ring, Marechale soon proved a hardy producer. Comme Une Grand was a winner who ran 35 times, while Lady Sidney, all told, would run 56 times for seven wins, including a third in ParisLongchamp's Listed Prix Zarkava. After Lady Sidney, Marechale foaled the winning La Grande Zame (Fr) (Zambezi Sun {GB}), sold for €8,000 as a foal. The following season, Mestrallet once again returned victorious from the stallion seasons draw, securing a covering for Marechale to Sinndar (Ire), and that resulted in the ultimately unraced filly Twelveoclock (Fr), sold for €5,000 as a yearling in 2017. By that time, Marechale was in foal to G1 Prix Morny and G2 Coventry S. winner The Wow Signal, a decision based not on a free draw, but on Mestrallet's intuition. "I loved The Wow Signal's head, the way he walked, everything about the physical of the horse," she said.

Despite a very successful start to life, The Wow Signal's second career proved star-crossed; he was subfertile, and after getting a very small number of mares in foal during two seasons, died as a result of complications from laminitis. Among his second crop was Coeursamba, who was born at Aumonerie on Mar. 25, 2018. Like Marechale's latest Starspangledbanner colt, Captain Star, Mestrallet soon had a name picked out for the filly.

"She was something special from the day she was born," Mestrallet said. "I had named her, 'Wow She's Great,' but the people that bought her changed the name. When we saw Coeursamba, we liked her so much that we decided to breed the mare to Starspangledbanner immediately, because we were so happy with the filly that we thought the mare deserved to go to a good stallion." Coeursamba sold to Marc Antoine Berghgracht on behalf of Jose Delmotte's Haras d'Haspel for €24,000 at Arqana's December Sale of 2018, and was pinhooked to Jean-Claude Rouget for €40,000 at Arqana August the following summer, four months before Marechale's Olympic Glory (Ire) colt Senza Malocchio (Fr) sold for €14,000 to Marco Bozzi at the December Sale.

Senza Malocchio is raced by Mike Pietrangelo and John D'Amato, who were also co-owners of Olympic Glory's best progeny, Grand Glory (GB). Grand Glory sold for €2.5-million at Arqana on the same night that Captain Star went through the ring. A winner in her second start at two for owner Jean Louis Tepper, Coeursamba was twice Group 3-placed at two and fifth in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac, the evening prior to which she had changed hands for €400,000 at Arqana's Arc Sale, bought by Abdullah bin Fahad Al Attiyah. Third in the Listed Prix du Louvre going a mile at ParisLongchamp in April, she shocked the G1 1000 Guineas winner Mother Earth (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) when winning the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at 38-1, and was later purchased privately by Katsumi Yoshida.

Coeursamba's Classic win provided the perfect springboard for her Starspangledbanner three-quarter-brother to be one of the top-priced foals at Arqana, and he is set to return to the ring next year as a Yeomanstown pinhook prospect. Marechale is currently in foal to another Group 1-winning sprinter, Haras d'Etreham's Hello Youmzain (Fr), and her foal's arrival will be keenly anticipated by not only Mestrallet but also her three young children; Mestrallet's daughter, Agathe, and twins sons Henri and Baptiste, born this past March. Agathe has been listed as co-breeder along with her mother and grandmother on Coeursamba, Senza Malocchio and Captain Star, but she will have to share Marechale's future progeny with her brothers.

"It was to pay for her car when she turns 18," Mestrallet laughed. "I had twin boys this year, and they'll all be marked down as breeders in the future: the boys will get the colts, and Agathe will get the fillies."

Today, Aumonerie is home to some 30 mares, the majority of which are boarders. Among Mestrallet's own mares are the 10-year-old Caramanta (Fr) (Zamindar), who Mestrallet bought for €7,500 from the Aga Khan Studs at the 2014 Arqana December Sale. Caramanta's third foal is Caracal (Fr) (Zelzal {Fr}), who was bought by Al Shaqab Racing for €25,000 at Arqana October last year. Caracal won a pair of races at Bordeaux Le Bouscat for trainer Jean-Claude Rouget this autumn and is reportedly highly regarded by the trainer.

Mestrallet has also repatriated two of Marechale's daughters, Comme Une Grand and Twelveoclock, to Aumonerie, such is her belief in her foundation mare. Comme Une Grand had a colt by Seahenge this year, while Twelveoclock was purchased at this year's Arqana July Sale in foal to Recoletos (Ire). Mestrallet also has O'Keefe (Fr) (Peintre Celebre), a Wertheimer-bred mare that she purchased for €19,000 in 2012. Using her tried and true system of French TBA draw nominations, Mestrallet bred O'Keefe to Jukebox Jury (Ire) for her first mating, and the result was the G3 St Leger Italiano winner O'Juke (Fr).

And of course there is Marechale, the €2,500 former claimer turned Classic producer. Asked if she has considered cashing in on the mare's success and selling Marechale, Mestrallet was resolute in response.

"I have had offers for Marechale, but I am keeping her," she said. "She has given everything to my farm."

Dubai Warrior, winner of this test in 2019 and third last year, was unsuccessful in five outings since garnering last term's Listed Churchill S. over this strip and stepped forward in his third start for the David Loughnane stable to embellish a resume which also includes a 2020 G3 Winter Derby success. Steadied behind the leaders to occupy a midfield berth in fifth after breaking with the front rank, he went forward into second approaching the home turn and kept on resolutely under a drive once taking over at the top of the straight to just hold the late bid of Regal Reality (GB) (Intello {Ger}) for a fourth black-type score.

"Dubai Warrior's a class horse, he's very good around here and it is brilliant to get a winner on the board for his owner," said Loughnane. "He is a very easy horse to train, we don't have to do too much with him at home and he maps out his own races.

South African champion Mahbooba, dam of Dubai Warrior, winning the UAE 1000 Guineas | www.racingfotos.com

Richard [Kingscote] gave him a great ride and, once this horse gets rolling, it takes a good one to go with him. The aim now will be the [G3] Winter Derby and then Finals Day itself will be a long-term target. I would think he will come back here for the [Listed] Winter Derby Trial as well."

Dubai Warrior, the third of five foals, is one of three winners produced by G1 Golden Slipper-winning South African champion Mahbooba (Aus) (Galileo {Ire}). The March-foaled homebred bay is a full-brother to G3 Diamond S. victor Mootasadir (GB) and hails from a family featuring GISW US champion Shamrock Rose (First Dude) and MGSW sire Slew the Red (Red Ransom).

THOROUGHBRED COMMUNITY RAISES TORNADO RELIEF FUNDS

Destruction from the Dec. 11 tornado in Mayfield, Kentucky

by Katie Petrunyak

LEXINGTON, KY--Kentuckians across the Commonwealth woke up with a text on Saturday morning: 'Are you okay?' For most, it was an uneventful night aside from perhaps being awakened once or twice to the sound of high winds. But for some, unimaginable destruction and immeasurable damage occurred overnight as a catastrophic tornado hit western Kentucky.

As of Friday, 77 Kentuckians have lost their lives due to a storm that is expected to have affected an estimated 227 miles, according to WLKY News.

Bradley Boyd, a professional Quarter Horse trainer based in Princeton, Kentucky, sent his children to the basement Friday evening when he heard news of the approaching tornado.

"The tornado passed about a mile behind our place," the horseman recounted. "I watched it pass at 10:21 that evening; I'll always remember the time. By 10:40, I'd had a phone call from one of my best friends. It had killed three of his horses and his place was just gone."

As Americans awoke the next morning to news of the devastation, Boyd drove to what was left of his friend's farm.

"By the time I got there, they had caught their horses so we just went digging stuff out of their house," he said.

INTO MISCHIEF FILLIES PUT ON A SHOW IN SUGAR SWIRL

Center Aisle (Into Mischief) and 'TDN Rising Star' Frank's Rockette (Into Mischief) ran hard every step of the way in Saturday's six-furlong GIII Sugar Swirl S. at Gulfstream, and, after throwing down in the stretch, it was the former coming away with a hard-fought, one-length victory for a career high.

Perched four-wide beneath Luis Saez as four of them lined up--including favored MGSW & MGISP Frank's Rockette who was racing under fire in between runners--through an opening quarter in a sharp :21.72, Center Aisle poked a head in front approaching the quarter pole. The classy duo emerged clear from the field of eight as they straightened for home, and, after putting on a nice show down the lane, the 2-1 second-choice Center Aisle edged clear late from her ultra-game rival in a race that didn't deserve a loser. Cont. p7

“It’s heartbreaking to see people who build and build and have it all taken at one time. It’s heartbreaking. But to watch the horse community come together since this has happened, it has been incredible. It’s one of my favorite things about the horse community, that when it comes to these horses, everyone steps up.”

It didn’t take long for the Thoroughbred community to jump into action. On Sunday, the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association (KTA) launched a GoFundMe page to aid in the relief efforts, kicking the fund off with a $7,500 contribution.

“It’s something that the Thoroughbred industry has done in the past, most recently this February when there was some major flooding in Southeast Kentucky,” said KTA Executive Director Chauncey Morris. “We have a bit of experience not only in raising funds, but in figuring out what exactly to do with them when emergency strikes.”

As funds started to pour in, Morris got in touch with Don Campbell, a Thoroughbred trainer from Princeton and the next-door neighbor to Boyd, to find out what the immediate needs were for horse owners and farms in the area.

“Our farm didn’t really have any damage,” said Campbell. “You can’t even count it compared to what other people have. Most of the people who got hit lost everything--houses, barns, fencing, all their supplies, trailers, cars. It wasn’t a typical Kentucky tornado where something gets torn up and something else gets left behind. It was more like if you were in the path of it, you just got wiped out. You can see the pictures, but it’s nothing like it is in person. It’s like a war zone.”

Chauncey, Campbell and Boyd arranged to open up Boyd Performance Horses as a supply distribution center.

“Chauncey had told us to be ready because they were going to send a bunch our way,” Boyd said. “I told them to bring it on and that we would make it happen one way or another.”

Since Tuesday, the KTA has organized shipments of hay, grain, water hoses, dog food, fencing and various supplies, working with agricultural centers in the area to help distribute incoming supplies to surrounding communities.

“The ag centers are sending people here to come pick things up and everyone is just overwhelmed with how much support we’re getting,” Campbell said. “But still, we’re getting more calls than we have stuff. I had 40 buckets sitting in a barn that I had kept over the years. I took them over to the distribution center and they were gone after an hour.”

“Just today alone, we’ve probably sent out almost 20,000 pounds of feed between hay and grain,” Boyd said on Thursday. “We’re glad to be able to help in any way we can, but without Don and the KTA, we wouldn’t be able to do any of this right now.”

“We just heard that a semi load of treated fence posts will be here on Monday,” Campbell said. “Chauncey has been ringing my phone off the wall to see what our needs are. I’m not talking about them sending a few pickup loads. Everything they’re wanting to do is with semis. The way the Thoroughbred industry has stepped up has been unbelievable. That’s the best way for me to put it and I’m proud to be a part of it.”

While the KTA will continue to provide necessary supplies for farms in western Kentucky, they are also beginning to look toward the future to determine how to best allocate their growing funds as the rebuilding process begins.

“We’re taking care of immediate needs now, but for the medium and long term, we know that historically, federal disaster relief doesn’t always pay for everything and some people fall through the cracks,” Morris said. “FEMA and SBA programs do not generally pay for people who are renting their apartments, homes or trailers. So that’s where hopefully we can come in and help.”

Morris explained that the custodian for the funds raised through their GoFundMe will be the Foundation for Appalachia Kentucky. The Hazard-based organization is the same group the KTA worked with when they raised money for flood relief earlier this year and the program has already partnered with another organization in Paducah called the Community Foundation of West Kentucky.

“The scale of this disaster is so big and our industry generally has a very big heart,” Morris said. “Here in Kentucky, it’s not lost on anyone just how good things are in the Thoroughbred business since the HHR bill was passed. We have a lot to be grateful for and this is our way of being good citizens of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.”

The KTA’s GoFundMe has received major donations from outlets including The Jockey Club, Juddmonte Farms,

 This picture was found Saturday morning in the middle of one of our fields. After seeing recent reports nbcchicago.com/news/local/pho... this picture may belong to a family in Western KY whose home was devastated by a tornado. Please help us find the rightful owners of this photograph.

Stonestreet Farm, Godolphin and Lane's End. Spendthrift Farm gave what is currently the largest contribution with a $100,000 donation.

"This is a terrible tragedy and our donation represents our entire farm and our dedication to our brothers and sisters in need," said the farm's owner Eric Gustavson. "We so appreciate the KTA, UK and every other organization that has stepped up to serve."

Claiborne Farm also contributed to the relief fund.

"It's awesome to see the Thoroughbred business come together and raise so much money for those whose lives have been turned upside down," Claiborne President Walker Hancock said. "In times of need, we are quick to lend a hand, which makes me so proud to be a part of this wonderful business."

Hancock was featured on a local news outlet this week after discovering a family photo in one of the farm's paddocks on Saturday morning and suspecting that it might have come from an area affected by the tornado.

"I saw some mares sniffing it, I thought it might be a piece of trash I didn't want them to ingest so I jumped the fence and grabbed it and sure enough it happened to be this picture," Hancock told WKYT on Wednesday.

Relatives of the two children in the photograph saw the story run on WKYT and notified the family, who lives over 100 miles away from Claiborne in Campbellsville, Kentucky.

Another high-profile stud farm in Lexington has helped raise awareness for the KTA relief fund as Coolmore's Ashford Stud auctioned off a 2022 season to Triple Crown winner Justify with the proceeds benefiting the fund. The bidding was announced on Monday and closed on Friday, with a winning bid of $95,000 from Craig Bernick. Additional bidders included Ken Donworth, Dennis Drazin and Bobby Rankin.

Coolmore will be making an additional donation along with the proceeds raised from the Justify season.

“One of the greatest things about this business is that even though we are competitors in certain aspects, when times are tough and the need is there, the horse business shows great solidarity,” said Coolmore’s Adrian Wallace. “It’s great to see farms, veterinary practices, breeders and trainers come together to help out. Western Kentucky has been very good to the horse business and it’s time that we show our appreciation and help out where we can. Even though it won’t bring these lives back, hopefully it will help ease the suffering that a lot of these people are going through.”

Other racing organizations have also stepped up in the past week. Breeders’ Cup donated $50,000 to disaster relief efforts, splitting the donation evenly between the KTA fund and the University of Kentucky’s “Kentucky United for Tornado Relief” telethon, and the Kentucky HBPA donated $25,000 to the Team Western Kentucky Tornado Relief Fund organized by Governor Andy Beshear’s office.

Several fundraising events have been organized by Lexington’s equine community and will be happening in the coming weeks.

Multiple equine-related groups including the Kentucky Horse

Council have joined forces to organize a supply drive for equine-specific needs. Donations including buckets, winter blankets, halters, lead ropes, wheelbarrows and water hoses can be dropped off at the Kentucky Horse Park’s Alltech Arena from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Dec. 18-20. Donated goods will be delivered on Tuesday by Brook Ledge Horse Transportation. Learn more here.

On Sunday, Jan. 2, Frank & Dino’s restaurant in downtown Lexington will serve complimentary food and drinks from 12 p.m. to 8 p.m. All proceeds will benefit the families in Mayfield affected by the tornado. Owner/breeder/trainer and Frank & Dino’s managing partner Carlo Vaccarezza spoke with the TDN on Thursday regarding the event.

As of Saturday afternoon, the KTA’s GoFundMe had surpassed $308,000 in funds raised with over 290 donations made. Click here to view.

Center Aisle, a sharp debut winner at Gulfstream for Chad Brown last March, completed the trifecta behind Frank's Rockette in last term's GIII Victory Ride S. at Belmont as well as the GII Prioress S. at Saratoga. Transferred to Paulo Lobo for her 4-year-old campaign, the bay scored in front-running fashion in her first two tries this season--a sloppy Keeneland allowance Oct. 15 over a next-out winner and an optional claimer at Churchill Downs last time Nov. 20, respectively.

Lobo said that the plan is to send Center Aisle back to Kentucky for a freshening before returning to South Florida for the seven-furlong GII Inside Information S. at Gulfstream Jan. 29. "She was coming into this race ready from two very nice races," Lobo said. "She's a very special mare. I think she has a bright future. I felt good because the body language of Saez, she looked very comfortable outside and when they came home, my feeling was very good."

Saez added, "The other filly was running pretty fast. But I had a lot of horse, and we came to the top of the stretch, she gave me another kick. At that point, we knew we had horse to fight, and she did it. She did it pretty impressively."

Pedigree Notes:

Center Aisle, a $1.5-million FTFMAR purchase by Larry Best's OXO Equine and the highest-priced filly out of that sale after breezing a quarter in a powerful :20 3/5, becomes the 105th stakes winner/46th graded stakes winner for her all-conquering sire Into Mischief. She becomes the 65th stakes winner/29th graded winner for her late broodmare sire Empire Maker.

The Into Mischief/Empire Maker cross is also responsible for GI TVG.com Haskell S. winner via disqualification and GI Kentucky Derby runner-up Mandaloun.

Juddmonte homebred Specification, a maiden of two career starts, produced a colt by Goldencents this year and was bred back to Vino Rosso.

The winner's dam is a half-sister to dual GI Pacific Classic winner Skimming (Nureyev). She is out of five-time graded stakes victress Skimble (Lyphard).

Specification was a $37,000 Keeneland November purchase by Todd and Shawn Hansen in 2017 when followed into the ring by then-weanling Center Aisle.

DOSWELL DOES IT IN FT. LAUDERDALE

Doswell | Adam Coglianese

Joseph Allen homebred Doswell (Giant's Causeway) hadn't seen the inside of a winner's circle since October 2020, however, marked his return with aplomb, scoring by a front-running, 1 1/2-length margin over longshot Atone (Into Mischief) in Saturday's Gil Ft. Lauderdale S. at Gulfstream.

Sent to the front by Junior Alvarado straight away, the 9-2 shot showed the way as the stalking duo of GSW Analyze It (Point of Entry) and English Bee (English Channel) kept him in their sights. Still in front and moving well with a half mile left to negotiate, Doswell ramped up the tempo as 17-1 chance Atone burst on the scene approaching the quarter pole, spurted clear in early stretch and finished up with good energy late to win. English Bee held on for third, only a half-length adrift of the runner up.

"He broke good, I put him on the engine a little bit and then tried to slow him down, and he rated kindly for me," said Alvarado. "When we turned for home, I asked him and he gave me a nice kick. I knew they were in trouble as soon as I started asking him, because he picked it up very quickly and I thought they'd have to be flying at the end to go by."

A front-running victor in a Belmont allowance in October 2020, the dark bay finished runner up in this race last December before coming home third in the GIII W. L. McKnight S. in January. Sidelined after that effort, he didn't return to racing for nine months before running third in back-to-back optional claiming allowances Oct. 21 at Belmont and most recently, at Aqueduct Nov. 19.

"It was nice and easy," added Alvarado of Saturday's effort. "Last year, they kind of told me to try to see if he would stalk to make sure he would finish strong, and we kind of took away his main [weapon]. Today, they told me, 'You're in the one [post], just leave out of there rolling,' and that's what I did."

And is the GI Pegasus World Cup Turf in January in the cards for the 6-year-old?

"We're thinking about it. We'll probably go in it," said winning trainer Barclay Tagg. "We'll see how he comes out of this. We'll see if he freshens up and if he's got [good] energy. I don't want to take him over there and just make a fool out of him if we can help it."

Pedigree Notes:

The late, great Giant's Causeway, gone since the spring of 2018, continues to churn out stakes winners. The classy chestnut stood the whole of his career at Coolmore locations around the globe, but had his greatest success as a stallion during his longstanding engagement in Kentucky. The 6-year-old Doswell became the 164th Northern Hemisphere-foaled black-type winner for his sire and the 98th graded.

In contrast to Giant's Causeway was Doswell's broodmare sire Minardi, who was also a European champion raced by Coolmore connections, but hardly took the stallion ranks by storm. From 11 crops, he managed only three stakes winners from Malaysia to Europe, with Doswell's dam his only black-type winner in a major racing country (France). Doswell is the fourth black-type winner out of a daughter of Minardi. Doswell's half-brother Secretary At War (War Front) is one of the others.

In addition to her two stakes-winning sons, Ballet Pacifica has Grade III-placed Entrecht, a full-sister to Doswell, and a placed juvenile full-brother to Secretary At War named Fort Ticonderoga. Her yearling filly is named You're the Top (Into Mischief) and she visited both War Front and Not This Time for next term. Ballet Pacifica is out of Irish champion, three-time U.S. GISW, and $1.05-million broodmare Kostroma (Ire), making Ballet Pacifica a half to 2008 GI Santa Anita Oaks winner Ariege (Doneraile Court).

SWEET MELANIA ENDS DROUGHT IN SUWANNEE RIVER

Sweet Melania | Ryan Thompson

Robert and Lawana Low's Sweet Melania (American Pharoah), without a victory in 18 months, broke through to record her first win of the 2021 season in Saturday's GIII Suwannee River S. at Gulfstream.

She jumped well from her outside draw in post 10 to chase from second as favored Shifty She (Gone Astray) sped off on a clear advantage. Sweet Melania, off at 6-1, set her sights on the pacesetter beneath John Velazquez at the top of the stretch, hit the front shortly thereafter and had a half-length over that game foe at the wire. It was another half-length back to In a Hurry (Blame) in third.

Sweet Melania, heroine of the 2019 GII JPMorgan Chase Jessamine S. at Keeneland and 2020 GIII Wonder Again S. at Belmont and also the third-place finisher in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf at Santa Anita, was winless in five prior tries this season. She hit the board in her three most recent attempts, including a second-place finish in the One Dreamer S. at Kentucky Downs Sept. 9 and another runner-up effort in a Keeneland allowance last time Oct. 15. The chestnut hadn't had her picture taken since the Wonder Again last June.

"She was super sharp coming into it," winning trainer Todd Pletcher said. "I loved the way she was training and she got a beautiful ride from Johnny. It was a good setup, and I thought she ran a good race. I felt like she had been rounding back into form and had some good performances and just didn't quite get there. She did seem super sharp, and we were hoping for an improved performance."

Pletcher added that Sweet Melania would be under consideration for the $500,000 GIII Pegasus Filly & Mare Turf Jan. 29.

Pedigree Notes:

The E. Paul Robsham-bred SW & GSP Sweet N Discreet did not produce a foal in 2018 and her 2019 Carpe Diem filly died. She had a Liam's Map colt in 2020 ($200,000 KEESEP purchase by Jackpot Farm) and a filly by American Pharoah this year. She was bred back to Tapit.

Sweet N Discreet, a $1.1-million purchase by Crupi's New Castle Farm on behalf of Sweet Melania's breeder St. Elias Stables at the 2014 FTKNOV sale, brought $1.6 million from Mt. Brilliant Farm, in foal to Liam's Map, at Fasig-Tipton November in 2019.

Sweet N Discreet is a full-sister to GSW and GISP Discreet Dancer and a half to GSW Travelin Man (Trippi).

GHOSTZAPPER GELDING SHOWS NO FEAR IN HARLAN'S HOLIDAY

Fearless | Ryan Thompson

Repole Stable's Fearless (Ghostzapper) ran to the money as the 3-5 chalk in Saturday's GIII Harlan's Holiday S., the local prep for the upcoming $3-million GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational at Gulfstream Jan. 29.

Drawn widest of all in post six, he tracked a pair of dueling leaders in a dream spot in third as they made their way up the backstretch. This term's GII WinStar Gulfstream Park Mile S. Feb. 27 winner revved up three wide rounding the far turn, kicked for home as the one to catch and took care of business from there to score by a facile four lengths over South Bend (Algorithms). The pacesetting dual Canadian Classic winner Mighty Heart (Dramedy) was third.

Trained throughout his career by Todd Pletcher, Mike Repole purchased Fearless, previously a $725,000 KEESEP yearling, for $205,000 at this summer's Fasig-Tipton July Selected Horses of Racing Age Sale following a second-place finish behind next out GI Hill 'N' Dale Metropolitan H. winner Silver State (Hard Spun) in the GII Oaklawn H. Apr. 17 and a third-place finish as the favorite in the GIII Pimlico Special Match Series S. May 14. He resurfaced with a second-place finish as the chalk once again in his first start for Repole in a local $60,000 handicap Nov. 21. Fearless previously carried the colors of CHC Inc. and WinStar

Farm.

Will we see Fearless next in the Pegasus?

"That's all up to Todd," Pletcher's assistant trainer Anthony Siametta said. "The horse is moving forward. He's run two good races and come back good from his vacation. That's all we can ask for."

Pletcher was not present at Gulfstream Saturday due to family obligations.

Pedigree Notes:

Fearless is one of 89 stakes/48 graded winners for Hall of Famer Ghostzapper. He is also one of 102 stakes/53 graded winners for the late Street Cry (Ire) as a broodmare sire.

Fearless's dam And Why Not, who hit the board over seven furlongs as a juvenile in the 2011 GI Spinaway S. and over 10 panels in the 2013 GI Delaware H., hails from one of the deepest families in the stud book.

Second dam is GSP Alchemist, in turn the dam of GSW Far From Over (Blame), and GISW third dam Aldiza produced one graded winner and the dams of two others. Fearless's fifth dam is none other than 1983 Broodmare of the Year Courtly Dee (Never Bend).

And Why Not, also responsible for SW & MGSP Just Whistle (Pioneerof the Nile), has an unraced 2-year-old filly named Marzipan (Candy Ride {Arg}) and a yearling filly by Blame ($500,000 KEESEP purchase by Juddmonte). She was bred to Gun Runner for 2022.

The 2021 running of Maryland's Day at the Races marked a return to relative normalcy, after the previous year's event was run under COVID-19 restrictions, which limited spectator attendance. Enthusiastic participation by horsemen resulted in full fields and a handle figure over $6.5 million.

"We are looking forward to an even better event in 2022, with more fans and more fun," said Cricket Goodall, executive director of Maryland Million Ltd. "We are proud that Jim McKay Maryland Million Day caps off Maryland Horse Month in October, which celebrates all of the diverse horse activities we have here."

RUNHAPPY GELDING RUNS UP THE SCORE AGAIN; GARNERS RISING STARDOM

by Brian DiDonato

Jay Em Ess Stable's Happy Medium (Runhappy) dominated for a third consecutive time Saturday to become the third 'TDN Rising Star' for the heating-up Runhappy. Third in his seven-panel unveiling here back in March, the $300,000 KESEEP yearling and May 20 foal resurfaced at Belmont Sept. 30 to air by 9 1/4 lengths and earn a gaudy 103 Beyer Speed Figure. He was flattered when three runners who finished behind him that day returned to graduate, and further validated his big win with a five-length allowance score in the local slop Nov. 13.

Off at 3-5 this time while taking on older and far more seasoned rivals, the bay was scrubbed on from the rail to rush up and take command. He was able to clear off and settle a bit through splits of :22.14 and :45.05, and was all by his lonesome as he swung for home with a sizeable advantage. Wudda U Think Now (Fast Anna)--a four-time winner coming off a career-best 94 Beyer--gave chase in the lane, but Happy Medium strolled home in a race of his own to report under the wire a wrapped-up seven-length winner in 1:15.88.

4th-Aqueduct, $84,000, Alw (NW2$X)/Opt. Clm ($62,500), 12-18, 3yo/up, 6 1/2f, 1:15.88, ft, 7 lengths.

SUNDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS: MARR TIME TAKES ON WINNERS

6th-GP, $60K, Msw, 2yo, f, 7f, 2:55 p.m. ET

Kelly Breen-trained firster American Pyramid (American Pharoah) is the first foal out of fellow Arlene London homebred Miss Sky Warrior (First Samurai), who started a five-race winning streak as a fall juvenile herself that included a local victory in the GII Davona Dale S. and culminated in a 13-length romp in the GII Gazelle S.

Emory Hamilton's Friendship Road (Quality Road) is out of GSP turfer Tokyo Time (Medaglia d'Oro), and a half to recent GI Cigar Mile H. fourth Olympiad (Speightstown). Her dam is a half to local GSW Soaring Empire (Empire Maker), MGSW/MGISP Hungry Island (More Than Ready) as well as the dam of GISW Preservationist (Arch).

Greatitude (Dialed In) was a $9,000 KEESEP yearling turned $230,000 OBSMAR grad off a :10 flat breeze. She was third beaten just a neck in her muddy Aqueduct unveiling going this distance Nov. 12, and was flattered when the runner-up came back to graduate decisively at the same level. She hails from a deep Ned Evans family.

Beravina (Munnings) looks to go one better off a runner-up outing at Churchill Nov. 13. The $55,000 KEESEP RNA owns a field's-best 71 Beyer Speed Figure. TJCS PPs

Clarkland Farm's regally-bred Marr Time (Not This Time) takes the next step here as one of two entered for Brad Cox. The bay homebred is a half to none other than super sire and GISW Into Mischief (Harlan's Holiday), future Hall of Famer Beholder (Henny Hughes) and young sire and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner Mendelssohn (Scat Daddy). She earned 'TDN Rising Star' status for a front-running 2 3/4-length score at Keeneland Oct. 28 over a next-out winner.

"Marr Time, she's obviously got a big pedigree," Cox said. "Fast filly. Hopeful that this is the next step to stretching her out. We like her. She's pretty classy."

Cox will also be represented by Shortleaf Stable homebred Como Square (Into Mischief), who took her Indiana unveiling in the mud Nov. 11. Out of SW and MGSP Pangburn (Congrats), she's a half to last year's local Smarty Jones S. winner and GI Arkansas Derby runner-up Caddo River (Hard Spun), who makes his first start since June two races later on the card.

Parlance (Maclean's Music) owns a standout 81 Beyer Speed Figure that she earned for a four-length second-out score at Churchill Nov. 13. The $100,000 KEESEP yearling was fifth on debut, and hails from the extended female family of GSWs Mission Impazible, Forest Camp and Spanish Empire. TJCS PPs

Geno made his dirt debut a lucrative one, switching surfaces and breaking through at the black-type level in this New York Stallion Stakes Series centerpiece. A neck winner sprinting at Belmont Sept. 19, the bay nearly pulled off a 17-1 upset when setting the pace and coming up a nose short in the 1 1/16-mile Awad S. there Nov. 5. He was most recently sixth beaten two lengths in the Central Park S.--re-opposing Maseta (Japan) was third.

Let go at generous 8-1 odds off a 9-2 morning-line quote, Geno was ridden along to keep pace early and settled into a midpack spot along the fence. He inched forward under a continued busy ride into a :46.48 half, and swung out as they straightened with his sights set on pacesetting favorite Unique Unions. Un Ojo emerged down the center. Geno shifted in slightly while passing Unique Unions, then out to meet the challenge of Un Ojo, and dug in to prevail narrowly. The stewards took a look at bumping between the top two late, but made no change in the order of finish.

"I told [jockey] Johnny [Velazquez] I liked the horse and he was good enough to win first out," winning trainer David Donk said. "He ran well in a stake next time. I don't think he got the greatest trip last time. He breezes really well on the dirt and I needed to try him somewhere on the dirt. This is as good a spot as I could have found. Jorge [Vargas, Jr.] gave him a great ride."

Vargas, who replaced Velazquez after Geno's debut, said, "I love this horse. He's so classy. He does whatever you want him to do. Last time I rode him, I was sort of knocking my head because I didn't ride him that well. But everything paid off today."

The winner's dam is a half to GSW grasser Unbelievable Dream (Kitalpha). She produced a Laoban filly earlier this term before being bred back to Majestic City. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Yo Cuz came into the race as one of five maidens, entering off a fifth-place career debut Nov. 21 when she made a belated rally after a slow start. She had her mind on running from the break here, rushed to secure a spot at the front of the field in between rivals and was on top midway down the backstretch. The fillies stacked up at the top of the far turn, and for a moment it looked like Yo Cuz would be facing a challenge from two of them. The 3-1 second choice caught a second wind after changing leads and spurted clear to finish comfortably ahead of a hard-charging favorite Morning Matcha.

Yo Cuz | Joe Labozzetta

After the race, Tom Gallo, managing partner of Dream Maker Racing, recounted how the early enthusiasm for the filly's future was initially a bit one sided.

"When we first gave [trainer] Bill [Mott] the horse, we had this race in mind. When I mentioned it to Bill, he looked at me and laughed a little bit because he had just got her," Gallo said. "But then she started to breeze at Saratoga and was training really well. We wanted to get one race in her before this and she ran fifth about four weeks ago. She broke bad, trailed the field but then wove her way between horses and galloped out past the leader. When we spoke to Jose Ortiz after the race, he said that he really liked the horse. It's nice to have continuity because he knew her."

Gallo confirmed that, at least for now, Yo Cuz would remain in New York to race against state-bred fields.

The winner, who galloped at Fasig-Tipton Midlantic, is a full-sister to a weanling colt. Dam Steve's Philly hails from the family of Grade I-winning turfers Wonder Again (Silver Hawk) and Colonel Liam (Liam's Map). It was a productive day at the Big A for breeder Maggie Seidman, who also co-owns impressive maiden breaker Bold Journey (Hard Spun). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Make It Big sat the trip to stay unbeaten in this lucrative event. An 8 1/2-length debut winner going seven panels at Gulfstream Oct. 9, the :10 1/5 OBSAPR breezer came back three weeks later to annex the Ocala Stud Juvenile Sprint S. at the same distance.

Settling in off the pace and in between foes as the leaders traded jabs down the backside, the dark bay mounted an ominous four-wide bid heading for home. He was asked for a bit more by Jose Ortiz as Osbourne and Concept proved stubborn foes into the stretch, and found another gear in midstretch to wear down the former.

With the victory, Make It Big earned 10 qualifying points for the 2022 GI Kentucky Derby.

"Yes, we will enjoy these Kentucky Derby points," said Rick Sacco, racing manager for Red Oak Stable. "But we will have to discuss where we send him next."

Lone Rock, a multiple graded winner this year, added another feather to his cap with a hard-fought win in Oaklawn's Tinsel S. Settling midpack on the inside as fractions clicked by in :23.31 and :47.80, the bay had seemingly nowhere to go on the turn. He bravely dove through a seam entering the stretch and battled down the lane eyeballing stablemate Thomas Shelby all the way, digging in and getting up late to finish three-quarters of a length to the best.

“Awesome,” said winning trainer Robertino Diodoro. “Great ride by Ramon [Vazquez]. He was in traffic trouble a good part of the race. He’s a big horse that was stuck down inside, which was a little concerning. But, Ramon did a great job of getting him out of that and hats off to both horses. Our other horse, Thomas Shelby, ran huge as well. He dug in, especially for not making the lead. He ran a hell of a race.”

After switching barns multiple times in 2019-20 while running in the claiming ranks, Lone Rock has had an absolute resurgence since joining the Diodoro barn for 2021. He's won six of his last seven, including the Nov. 6 GII Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance S. on Del Mar's Breeders' Cup card in track record time and Belmont's GII Brooklyn S. in June. Wins in Saratoga's Birdstone S. and Churchill's Isaac Murphy Marathon Overnight S., as well as a second in the Grand Prix American Jockey Club Invitational S., have all been a part of the remarkable run.

Dam Ruby Lips also has juvenile filly Gerrymander (Into Mischief), who won Aqueduct's Tempted S. Nov. 5 and was second in the Oct. 3 GI Frizette S. The mare, who is a half to the dam of MGISW Hard Not to Like (Hard Spun), has a yearling colt by More Than Ready and a weanling filly by Tapit. Optionality continued on her upward trajectory Friday night to score her third straight and notch another stakes victory for her phenom freshman sire (by Candy Ride {Arg}). On the board in her first three tries at Indiana, the bay broke through fourth out by 6 3/4 lengths in Shelbyville Oct. 26 before dominating the Zia Park Princess S. in similar fashion Nov. 23.

Locked on to Hits Pricey Legacy through splits of :23.91 and :48.49, she asserted at the top of the lane and scampered clear from there to prove much the best.

"She's a very versatile filly," said winning trainer Steve Asmussen. "I'm so proud to have another Gun Runner that can do this. She's won at three tracks, at two distances with three different jockeys. This was a good effort at one mile."

Pilot Jose Ortiz rode three stakes winners in a row on the card, including two for Asmussen as well as the Springboard Mile winner one race later.

"She broke good, and Steve really had her ready," Ortiz said. "She started looking around at the end with it being night time and the lights and the shadow at the wire, but she got the job done."

The winner has a yearling full-brother. Her stakes-winning half-sister Simple Surprise is the dam of these connections' GI Hopeful S. winner Gunite (Gun Runner). Simplify was bred to McKinzie for 2022. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Joe was fifth after a rough start in his turf sprint unveiling here Oct. 4, but stepped forward significantly in a one-turn mile Nov. 21 to win by daylight. Marooned in the 11 post of 12 for this stakes debut, the Stuart Grant homebred was out-footed by most of them while hung wide down the backstretch. He started to advance entering the turn but seemed to idle for a few strides. Finding another gear while covering all the ground, Joe leveled off powerfully in the stretch and blew past his rivals over the top to win well.

"We knew we was a really talented horse," winning rider Victor Carrasco said. "The first time [trainer] Mike [Trombetta] decided to run him on the turf, because he was bred for the turf. I said, 'Mike, I think he's better on the dirt,' and he's showed it--he's two-for-two on the dirt--he's pretty good."

In no hurry at the start after brushing with Jester Calls Nojoy, Luna Belle dropped to the back of the pack to trail through the :23.81 first quarter of the Maryland Juvenile Fillies Championship S. at Laurel Saturday. On the move and about five wide by the time the half clicked by in :48.05, she advanced a couple of spots and was poised to tackle frontrunner Jester Calls Nojoy late on the turn. Looking a little green down the stretch, Luna Belle nevertheless sailed on by for a 2 3/4-length triumph to notch her first stakes win.

Previously, Luna Belle was second in the Smart Halo S. at a furlong shorter over this surface Nov. 13 in her latest outing. The bay broken her maiden by six lengths Aug. 24 at Colonial Downs. Dance d'Oro notched the first black-type win of her career in Gulfstream's Rampart S. Saturday. Up to the front to set a pressured pace through a :23.92 first quarter and a :45.97 half, she began inching away on the turn and spurted clear at the top of the lane. Under a vigorous ride in the stretch before being geared down late, the dark bay held sway to win by two lengths over Don't Get Khozy.

Third last out over this track and trip Nov. 21, Dance d'Oro showed her previous best two back after a three-month layoff--again over track and trip--Sept. 24 with a 9 1/4-length score and a career-topping 93 Beyer Speed Figure.

"Her first race back was amazing, and maybe she bounced a little bit because she ran so hard," said trainer Ralph Nicks. "Today was another huge effort. It's very important for the family and well-deserved..She's always had talent but it was hit and miss. She's getting a little more consistent."

Dam Dance Quietly is fantastically related, being out of the stellar mare Quiet Dance (Quiet Dance), which makes her a half to Horse of the Year Saint Liam (Saint Ballado), GISW Funtastic (More Than Ready), and GSW Quiet Giant (Giant's Causeway), the dam of Horse of the Year Gun Runner (Candy Ride {Arg}). Dance Quietly has an unplaced 2-year-old full-brother to Dance d'Oro named Bailador, who races for the same connections, as well as a yearling filly by Arrogate who sold for $40,000 to Three Amigos Racing Stable at KEESEP, and a weanling colt by Justify. She has been bred back to Authentic. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

MUCHO (h, 5, Blame--Extent, by Pulpit), who has been on the board in his last five starts--all black-type events--stepped down to allowance company and came away with a visit to the winner's circle. Favored at 6-5 and part of the early fray, Mucho tracked the leaders from the outside through a :22.06 quarter and :45.49 half. He collared his rivals at the top of the stretch and drove to the wire, gradually edging to the lead. County Final (Oxbow) finished a half-length back in second. Previously best known for his runner-up finish to Mind Control (Stay Thirsty) in the 2018 GI Hopeful S., Mucho has had a resurgence this year. He won Pimlico's Chaledon S. July 31 and placed in the GII Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix S. at Keeneland Oct. 8, just behind eventual GI Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Aloha West (Hard Spun). Last seen finishing second Nov. 6 in Churchill's Bet on Sunshine S., he also placed in the Kelly's Landing Overnight S. and Chesapeake S. since June. Mucho is a half to Size (First Samurai), GSW, $212,453. His dam has a yearling full-sister to him named Mucha, a weanling colt by Mastery, and was bred back to Runhappy. His pedigree is most interesting as his third dam is Bound (Nijinsky II), who is a half-sister to Nureyev (Northern Dancer) and whose daughters include Broodmare of the Year Liable (Seeking the Gold), dam of Mucho's sire Blame. This makes Mucho inbred 3x3, on top and bottom, to Bound. Lifetime Record: SW & GISP, 29-7-7-3, $686,729. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

FRIAR LAURENCE (c, 2, Violence--Try to Catch Her, by Broken Vow) aired by a dozen lengths in his Mahoning Valley debut Nov. 13, and was 3-1 to handle this tougher bunch. Sharply away, he dropped back from there and eventually settled into a midpack spot. Advancing after a sharp :44.88 half, he eventually worked his way out into the clear and finished nicely from there under confidently handling to score by 1 3/4 lengths. Stakes-placed Twenty Four Mamba (Classic Empire) was second. The winner is half to Unique Factor (The Factor), SP, $219,173, a yearling colt by Collected who cost $90,000 at KESEP and a weanling colt by Maximus Mischief. His dam, who is a daughter of GISW See How She Runs (Maria's Mon) and half to GSW Don't Leave Me (Lemon Drop Kid), most recently visited Complexity. FRAUDULENT CHARGE (f, 3, Will Take Charge--Conquest Rampage, by Quality Road) is a Laurel Park staple, finishing second in four stakes races at the track; the Gin Talking S. as a 2-year-old as well as the Wide Country S., Beyond The Wire S. and Safely Kept S. this year at three. Shortening to six furlongs from seven in her prior stake race start, and missing familiar rival Street Lute (Street Magician) whom she faced in all of the above mentioned races, the 3-5 favorite was forced to steady not long after the break, costing her some ground on the backstretch. Steadily passing rivals on the outside through a quick :23.20 quarter, she hit the front coming off the final turn and poured it on in the stretch to win by a 5 3/4 lengths over American Bastet (American Pharoah). Fraudulent Charge has a yearling half-sister by Nyquist and a weanling half-sister by Vino Rosso. Conquest Rampage visited Gun Runner for 2022. ICY STARE DOWN (f, 2, Frosted--Miss Emilia, by War Front) was bet down to 7-5 favoritism, aided in part by her dazzling $425,000 OBS April price tag (:9 4/5), on career debut Nov. 13 and checked in third. Favored again at 2-1 taking on a salty-looking field here, she broke well but was forced to check twice going down the backstretch. Florent Geroux shifted the flashy grey to the outside of horses going into the final bend, and she responded by launching an eye-catching bid, sweeping by rivals quickly to hit the lead by the top of the stretch. The pair splashed home by an even length over fast-gaining first timer Hot and Sultry (Speightster). The winner is a half to a weanling filly by Collected. Dam Miss Emilia is a half to War Officer (Grand Slam), G3SP, $290,369; Danceland (Tapit), MGSP, $313,931 and was bred to both Nyquist and Kitten's Joy for 2022. CALL ME JAMAL (g, 2, Malibu Moon--Jaramar Rain {SW & GSP, $292,660}, by Thunder Gulch)'s try at going wire to wire at big odds on debut Nov. 5 at Churchill Downs didn't entirely work out, and the gelding eventually finished forth after dueling early. Stretching out a sixteenth to seven furlongs Nov. 28 back beneath the Twin Spires yielded the same result. Attempting two turns and running with first time Lasix here, Call Me Jamal broke well, took the early lead, and loped along at the head of the field. Post-time favorite Quick to Blame (Blame) went to challenge on the backstretch, but was asked for patience by his rider until they'd cleared the final turn. Coming into the stretch, the 4-1 third choice was still in front, but his early shadow was charging hard on his outside, and closing ground quickly. The pair hit the wire over six lengths ahead of the third-place horse, and Call Me Jamal wound up coming back on the inside to win by a head after initially being passed deep in the stretch. The winner is out of Jaramar Rain, who has produced a very active line of runners. She is responsible for a yearling colt by Goldcents named Massive Dynamic, and a weanling filly by Malibu Moon. Jaramar Rain visited Munnings for 2022. Sales history: $70,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $62,400. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

EARLY VOTING (c, 2, Gun Runner--Amour d'Ete, by Tiznow) continued Gun Runner's display of dominance by becoming his 24th winner in Aqueduct's Saturday opener. Breaking well and hustling out to the front, the 4-5 favorite sat to the outside of a five horse line exiting the chute. The ranks thinned as a couple dropped out of contention early, and Early Voting remained committed to his outside trip, first outrunning My Brother Cam (Malibu Moon) and then gluing himself to Sul Pharoah (American Pharoah)'s side going into the far turn. Cut loose in the homestretch, the $200,000 Keeneland September graduate put that one away and was confidently handled to the wire to win first out by 1 1/2 lengths over a green Matt Doyle (Violence). The winner has a yearling full-sister and a weanling half-sister by Constitution. His dam, who is a full to MGSW/MGISP Irap and a half to champion sprinter and top sire Speightstown, was bred to Volatile for 2022. Sales history: $200,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. BOLD JOURNEY (c, 2, Hard Spun--Polly Freeze, by Super Saver) finished second in his career debut over track and trip after a wide journey. Bought into from Seidman Stables by Wachtel Stable, Gary Barber and Team Penney Racing after that effort and transferred from the barn of Carlos Martin, he broke quickly here for new trainer Bill Mott, and the 1-2 heavy favorite coasted into the lead, never to relinquish that spot. Bold Journey entered the homestretch on an effortless three-length advantage and it was merely a question of how far, with the answer being a geared-down, near 6 3/4 length victory over first-time starter Golden Code (Honor Code). Infeasible (Mission Impazible), a half to Tiz the Law (Constitution), finished a non-threatening seventh. The winner is half to recent GI Cigar Mile H. winner Americanrevolution (Constitution), GISW, $944,535, as well as a yearling filly by Collected who fetched $210,000 at Keeneland September. Dam Polly Freeze is a half-sister to Korean champion Cheongdam Dokki (To Honor and Serve) and to Filare L'Oro (Hard Spun), dam of two graded stakes winners. She was bred to Frosted for 2022. MOGALU (c, 2, Twirling Candy--Cherub, by Giant's Causeway) was second by 3/4 of a length on career debut when he navigated the all-weather track here Oct. 29 against an experienced foe. He stayed at the same distance this time, but was swapped to the turf, and found it to his liking. Going off the 7-2 second choice, he broke well but was outpaced for the lead early. Content to track off the rail in second, the blaze-faced dark bay maintained a clear advantage over the field, making a strong move into the far turn to fight off a trying frontrunner in the straightaway. His lead rapidly diminished as Jinxed {Ire} (Caravaggio) made an eye-catching rally, but Mogalu was saved at the wire by a short neck. The winner's dam Cherub was bred to Vino Rosso for 2022. WAKE SURF (c, 2, Classic Empire--Internal Affair, by Orientate) became his freshman sire (by Pioneerof the Nile)'s 21st winner after recovering from a stumble at the start, and holding off late rallies by a length. Experiencing similar gate problems on career debut Oct. 8, he just fended off a rival for third after a mile on Keeneland turf, but finished a weakening seventh on the dirt beneath the Twin Spires Oct. 31. Returning to the turf here, Wake Surf bobbed a bit at the break, but recovered quickly to hold a rail position from second against a pair of headstrong leaders. After a brisk :22.85 opening quarter, Romero Maragh shifted his charge to the outside of a loose leader and allowed the 8-1 shot to lope along on an easy rein. Beginning his charge on the last turn, the colt was even with Sosua Summer (Summer Front) and the pair locked horns for the stretch battle, bouncing twice off each other in deep stretch. That one gave way to late-charging betting favorite Ridley's Major (Gun Runner), and the wire saved Wake Surf in the end. The winner is a half to Backdoor Kenny (Half Ours), SW, $74,140, and to Dinar (Union Rags), SP, $207,552, as well as a $150,000 Fasig-Tipton October yearling filly by Empire Maker and a weanling colt by Union Rags. BELGRADE (c, 2, Hard Spun--Miss Prytania, by Eskendereya) was pounded down to 3-5 facing just four foes--including two who had previously run for a tag--in this auction price-restricted affair. With the field being forced to unload and re-load after entering the gates before post time, the chestnut broke on top and stalked from the pocket under a tight hold. He was confidently handled as he set his sights on the leading pair after a :46.45 half, and cruised away convincingly in the stretch to run up the score to six. Tee Burns (Klimt) completed the exacta. The winner has a yearling half-sister by Practical Joke and a foal half-brother by Accelerate. His dam visited Army Mule for 2022.
