RUBBER MATCH IN THE ALABAMA

Nest galloping earlier this week at Saratoga | Sarah Andrew

by Alan Carasso

There is plenty to play for in Saturday's 142nd running of the $600,000 GI Alabama S. at Saratoga, where Nest (Curlin) and Secret Oath (Arrogate) face one another for the third time head-to-head--each with one victory to their credit--with divisional supremacy awaiting the winner.

An 8 1/4-length tour-de-force tally in Keeneland's GI Central Bank Ashland S. accorded Nest the role of favoritism in the GI Longines Kentucky Oaks, but she was no match for the somewhat forgotten Secret Oath, dropping a two-length decision. A meritorious second to stablemate Mo Donegal (Uncle Mo) in the GI Belmont S., the $350,000 Keeneland September grad reversed the Oaks form with a 12 1/4-length thumping of Secret Oath in the GI CCA Oaks July 23.

LOVELL RIDING HIGH AFTER A SPECIAL SARATOGA WIN by Katie Petrunyak

In 1993, Michelle Lovell rode five races at Saratoga. Then known as jockey Michelle Hanley, she came home with three second-place finishes, but never got that win at the Spa. Twenty-nine years later, she finally made it to the winner's circle. This time it was with the brilliant GII Saratoga Special S. winner Damon's Mound (Girvin), her first Saratoga starter as a trainer.

How do the two experiences compare?

"Riding here back in the day, I was just super in awe of the place," Lovell explained. "Obviously who wouldn't want to come here and have a go at it? But honestly, bringing Damon's Mound as my first Saratoga starter, I mean that's what dreams are made of, right?"

Damon's Mound is a sixth-generation homebred for Cliff and Michele Love and the first horse Lovell has trained for the Texas-based owners. The horsewoman said her connection with the couple started early this year with a cold call from Cliff.

"Thank goodness I answered the phone," she said with a laugh. "I knew his name because I used to race in Texas. It was just a really nice person on the other end of the line who said they had a 2-year-old training in Ocala that they thought a lot of. He said he had done a lot of research and decided he wanted me as a trainer if I had a stall." Cont. p7

That effort was good for a 104 Beyer, a figure that is a half-dozen points stronger than anything her six rivals has earned and nine more than Secret Oath's top. A GI Runhappy Travers S. start was an option next weekend, but she sticks with a path of lesser resistance for the Alabama.

"Whenever you're running four weeks off a huge effort like that, you're always concerned about if you're running back too soon," said trainer Todd Pletcher, who won his third Alabama with 'TDN Rising Star' Malathaat (Curlin) last year. "But, in her case, she's done so well since the race there's no reason not to."

Wayne Lukas, who won the Alabama twice in the 1980s with Life's Magic in 1984 and with Oaks winner Open Mind five years later, looks to equal his former pupil. Secret Oath's second clash of the season with the boys in the GI Preakness S. resulted in a non-threatening fourth and she figures to strip fitter off the CCA Oaks, her first start in 63 days.

Secret Oath | Sarah Andrew

"She's really had a good month since that debacle in the [CCA Oaks]," Lukas said. "In fact, I feel like she's better now than any time I've had her. She's really flourished here at Saratoga. [Jockey] Luis [Saez] has worked her three times since that race so he's getting more familiar every day with her, too. So, that should help us as much as anything. We're anxious to run her."

Gerrymander (Into Mischief) defeated next-out GIII Monmouth Oaks heroine and 'TDN Rising Star' Shahama (Munnings) in the GII Mother Goose S. June 25, but will probably need to find a few lengths to trouble the heavy hitters.

Spendarella Vulnerable in Del Mar Oaks?

Gainesway Stable's Spendarella (Karakontie {Jpn}) took her career record to three wins from as many starts with a convincing 1 3/4-length success in the GII Appalachian S. at Keeneland in April and, with trainer Graham Motion unafraid to tackle the deepest of deep waters, took that undefeated mark into the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 17. The $220,000 Keeneland September purchase had the misfortune of running into her fellow flawless rival Inspirale (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who scored by 4 3/4 lengths first off the layoff and has since defeated the boys in the G1 Prix Jacques Le Marois at Deauville.

But Saturday's GI Del Mar Oaks figures something other than a walk in the park for Spendarella, who faces a fresh challenge from Euro import Txope (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}).

The bay, previously trained by Philippe Decouz, was stakes-placed in France earlier this season on the synthetic and on the turf and was last seen posting a mild upset when proving 3/4 of a length too strong in the G2 German 1000 Guineas at Duesseldorf June 12. The bay most recently topped the Arqana Summer Mixed Sale on a bid of €1.2 million from the BBA Ireland on behalf of Yulong Investments. She makes her U.S. debut for the John Sadler barn and can be the fly in the favorite's ointment.

With The Moonlight Backs Up For Lake Placid

With The Moonlight | Sarah Andrew

Godolphin's With The Moonlight (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) makes her third start in the last six weeks as the expected favorite in the GII Lake Placid S. back at the Spa. After failing to see out the 12-furlong distance of the G1 Cazoo Oaks June 3, the homebred completed a Frankel exacta behind McKulick (GB) in the GI Belmont Oaks Invitational July 9 but turned the tables on that foe last time in the GIII Saratoga Oaks Invitational. Cont. p5

McKulick is missing this time around, but the Chad Brown barn is represented by a quartet--each lined up next to the other--including GIII Lake George S. one-two finishers Dolce Zel (Fr) (Zelzal {Fr}, gate 5) and Eminent Victor (Mr. Z, post three); Consumer Spending (More Than Ready, post four), winner of the GII Wonder Again S. and third in the Belmont Oaks; and 'TDN Rising Star' Haughty (Empire Maker, gate six).

In non-graded stakes action Saturday, Grade I winner Rattle N Roll (Connect), who lost all chance at the start of the GIII Indiana Derby July 9, looks to return to winning ways in the $250,000 St. Louis Derby at FanDuel Racing (results in Monday's TDN), while 2-year-old males and females prep for next month's GI Pattison Summer S. and GI Natalma S., respectively, in the Soaring Free S. and Catch a Glimpse S. at Woodbine.

BACKGROUND CHECK: ALABAMA

by Jill Williams

Hall of Famer Heavenly Prize won the 1994 Alabama and has been an excellent broodmare | NYRA photo

In this continuing series, we examine the past winners of significant filly/mare races by the lasting influence they've had on the breed. Up today is the GI Alabama S., one of the oldest stakes races in the country.

Dating to 1872, eight years after the first Travers S. was run and 12 years after the first Queen's Plate (the oldest stakes race in North America), the Alabama is the last leg in New York's Triple Tiara following the GI Acorn S. and the GI Coaching Club American Oaks. The major-league 3-year-old filly contest was run at different distances early, but has remained a constant at 1 1/4 miles since 1917. It's a safe bet anyone with a good sophomore filly would love few things more than adding the Alabama to their win column.

As with most races this old, a few years were skipped owing to various circumstances, but history has recorded 141 individual winners of the Alabama. How have they fared as broodmares?

Several Alabama winners through the years also won the GI Test S., GI CCA Oaks, GI Diana S., or GIII Schuylerville S.; please see those previous profiles for notes on broodmare phenomenons Sky Beauty, November Snow, Tempted, Busanda, Vagrancy, and Cleopatra. Following are the some of the other most important Alabama winners by what impact they have had on the breed through their sons and daughters.

Pretty Discreet (1992, Private Account--Pretty Persuasive, by Believe It): Her three stakes winners were all colts--GISWs Discreet Cat and Discreetly Mine, as well as MSW & MGISP Pretty Wild--and her three daughters to stay in this country are all stakes producers. She is also the granddam of GISW Awesome Maria, who sold for $4 million at the 2013 Keeneland November sale, and June 9 Astoria S. winner Devious Dame, the first black-type winner for freshman sire Girvin.

Heavenly Prize (1991, Seeking the Gold--Oh What a Dance, by Nijinsky II): One would expect a mare descended from Blitey and Lady Pitt to do great things and Heavenly Prize held up her end of the bargain. Her sons included MGISW Good Reward and GSW Pure Prize, while her descendants thus far include GISWs Persistently, Queen Goddess, and Instilled Regard, plus GSW & MGISP Stays in Vegas.

Versailles Treaty (1988, Danzig--Ten Cents a Dance, by Buckpasser): GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner George Vancouver is out of this mare, as is GII Remsen S. winner and GI Met Mile runner-up Saarland. Her daughters and granddaughters have produced GISW Mongolian Groom, MGSW Dragon Bay, and several other stakes performers.

Maplejinsky (1985, Nijinsky II--Gold Beauty, by Mr. Prospector): Her daughter, Sky Beauty, won the Alabama and the CCA Oaks in 1993, was named champion older mare in 1994, and captured a total of nine Grade I races before producing MGSW Hurricane Cat and a daughter who would later be granddam of GISW Violence. Maplejinsky didn't stop there. Other daughters and granddaughters have produced MGISWs Guarana, Point of Entry, Pine Island, and Tale of Ekati, as well as GI Breeders' Cup Distaff winner Pleasant Home and a slew of other high-quality stakes winners. Her great-granddaughter Magical World sold for $5.2 million at last year's Fasig-Tipton November sale, while Magical World's daughter Guarana brought $4.4 million at the same sale. Cont. p6

It's in the Air (1976, Mr. Prospector--A Wind Is Rising, by Francis S.): This mare, often remembered as her sire's first of many champions, has had some very significant activity among her female descendants in the last year. Her MGISW granddaughter, Music Note, produced the 2021 G1 Dubai World Cup winner Mystic Guide, while another unraced granddaughter is the dam of 2021 GI Saratoga Derby Invitational S. winner State of Rest (Ire), who is also a G1 winner in England, France, and Australia. Other GI/G1 winners produced by her daughters include Musical Chimes and Storming Home (GB).

MGISW State of Rest traces to 1979 Alabama winner It's in the Air
Sarah Andrew

Lauries Dancer (1968, Northern Dancer--Its Ann, by Royal Gem II {Aus}): Although she didn't produce a stakes winner, this Canadian Horse of Year's daughters and granddaughters have produced MGISWs Will's Way and Tizway, as well as GISW Willa On the Move, and GISP and excellent Maryland sire Citidancer.

Fanfreluche (1967, Northern Dancer--Ciboulette, by Chop Chop): This Canadian Horse of the Year, even more famous for her abduction than for her race record, was also a remarkable producer with long-reaching influence on multiple continents. Honored as Canadian Broodmare of the Year in 1978, her own foals included two-time Canadian Horse of the Year and U.S. GISW L'Enjoleur, additional Canadian champions La Voyageuse and Medaille d'Or, GSW D'Accord, and MSW Grand Luxe. Her female-line descendants have thus far included French highweight and multiple G1SW Holy Roman Emperor (Ire), as well as European G1SWs Majestic Roi and Erupt (Ire); U.S. GISWs Aube Indienne (Fr) and Combatant; Australian G1SWs Russian Revolution (Aus), Flying Spur (Aus), Encosta de Lago (Aus), and Duais (Aus); and New Zealand G1SW Sherwood Forest (Aus).

Natashka (1963, Dedicate--Natasha, by Nasrullah {GB}): Named Broodmare of the Year in 1981, Natashka sports a long list of black-type winners tracing to her, including leading U.S. sire Elusive Quality and a number of champions.

High Bid (1956, To Market--Stepping Stone, by Princequillo {GB}): This Wheatley/Phipps mare is on this list for one very sound reason. Her first foal was Bold Bidder, not only a champion on the racetrack, but sire and broodmare sire of several luminaries. His two Kentucky Derby winners in a six-year span included one considered among the Top 10 runners of the 1900s: Horse of the Year Spectacular Bid.

Coolmore stallion Wootton Bassett is a descendant of
1931 Alabama winner Risque | Coolmore Stud

Parlo (1951, Heliopolis {GB}--Fairy Palace, by Pilate): Her daughters included 1969 Broodmare of the Year All Beautiful, who produced Horse of the Year Arts and Letters and is great-granddam of dual champion and five-time GISW Silverbulletday.

Salaminia (1937, Man o' War--Alcibiades, by Supremus): A number of stakes winners trace to this daughter of Man o' War, none more notable than English Horse of the Year and excellent sire Sir Ivor. He lives on particularly through his daughters, although his sire son, Sir Tristram (Ire), redefined the breed in Australia and New Zealand.

Risque (1928, Stimulus--Risky, by Diadumenos {GB}): 1980 Broodmare of the Year Key Bridge traces to her, as does U.S. Horse of the Year Fort Marcy and Canadian Horses of the Year IZvestia and With Approval. Champion Key to the Mint, MGISW Touch Gold, and excellent European sire Wootton Bassett (GB) are just a few on the long list of other high-class descendants of Risque. Cont. p7

Escutcheon (1927, Sir Gallahad III {Fr}--Affection {Fr}, by Isidor {GB}): In addition to producing Kentucky Oaks winner Mars Shield, this mare is the ancestress of Broodmares of the Year Levee and Delta, champions Shuvee, Slew o' Gold, Bayou, Smart Deb, Talking Picture, Sacahuista, Playful Act (Ire)--and many more.

Malachite (1913, Rock Sand {GB}--Miss Hanover, by Hanover): A number of stakes performers trace to this mare, most importantly 1943 Horse of the Year and Triple Crown winner Count Fleet. He was ranked among the leading sires and broodmare sires in the country for many years.

Sallie McClelland (1888, Hindoo--Red and Blue, by Alarm): This wonderful producer of yesteryear is the dam of 1904 Kentucky Oaks winner Audience and ancestress of Horses of the Year Whisk Broom II and Crusader, as well as dual champion Top Flight.

Click here for our conversation with Michelle Lovell the morning after Damon's Mound's victory in the GII Saratoga Special

Lovell continued, “We get these calls as trainers every so often and sometimes the horse doesn't pan out or the owners don't call back, but they kept in touch and when Damon's Mound was ready, he showed up at my barn--this big, beautiful 2-year-old.”

Lovell took an immediate liking to the striking bay colt, who is named after a 146 foot-tall limestone formation outside of the town of Damon, Texas.

“He was obviously raised right,” she said. “He was broke by Ocala Stud's David O'Farrell and I had lots of contact with him after I got him in. He told me that he was always professional and that he really liked him. We got him in the spring and he never missed a day. He was obviously well-broke.

“He was actually fit for a half-mile as they said, which sometimes doesn't happen.”

When Damon's Mound was named a 'TDN Rising Star' after his stunning 12 1/2-length obliteration of maidens at Churchill Downs on July 2, Lovell and the Loves were inundated with inquiries about purchasing the promising juvenile. All were turned down.

“We had dozens of calls and text messages,” Lovell shared. “We had some really nice offers from good people that have been in the business for a long time who said they would be happy to be a silent partner along for the ride, but Cliff just said he was going to share this with his wife.”

Despite Love's initial words, Lovell said she couldn't help harboring a few thoughts that the owner's mind might change if Damon's Mound was just as brilliant in his second start as he was in his debut.

“It was always in the back of my mind,” she admitted. “I just thought that I would have to wish them well and understand that it's a business and it happens. I was just grateful to have him to begin with.”

Before leaving for Saratoga, Lovell had the conversation with the Loves of what would happen if they came back with a win in the Saratoga Special.

“We really didn't think we would be worse than second,” Lovell said. “With Gulfport (Uncle Mo) in there we knew we had our work cut out for us, but we thought we could be in the winner's circle. Cliff just told me, 'If he wins they're going to be calling again, but he's still not for sale. You're my spokesperson and he's not for sale.'”

Lovell, Damon's Mound and Gabriel Saez celebrate the GII Saratoga Special victory | Susie Raisher

A caravan that included Lovell, Damon's Mound, Elwood (Lovell's speckled pony with a following of his own) and Roy Seales (Lovell's groom with a background working in New York racing) made the journey from their summer base at Colonial Downs Racetrack in Virginia to Saratoga. They shipped in to Mike Maker's barn, which overlooks the main track's far turn.

"The first day we were here, he could see the racing and it kind of got him excited," Lovell said. "He watched really intensely, but then the next day, he slept all day."

Change of Control settling into the same stall Damon's Mound occupied in Saratoga last week | Michelle Lovell

Two days before the big day, Damon's Mound had a similar laid-back attitude as he schooled in the paddock alongside his highly regarded competitor Gulfport.

"He walked in through the crowd with such confidence and poise," Lovell said. "Especially for a young horse in his second time out, he just owns it. I couldn't have been more proud of him."

Damon's Mound got another look at 2-5 favorite Gulfport as he trailed the rest of a four-horse field through the opening stages of the Saratoga Special, but after being asked by jockey Gabriel Saez, Damon's Mound made his move at the far turn and accelerated to a 3 1/4-length victory.

"We were confident going in, but you get a little nervous," Lovell admitted as she reflected on the race. "He gives you all the confidence because his demeanor is great. He's humble, too. He's proud of himself, but he's a humble horse. It was an awesome day. It couldn't have been more perfect."

Of course, more offers came in for the new Grade II victor, but Lovell said word has spread that for now, the colt is in her barn to stay.

"It's a great thing that people are interested because obviously he's a very talented 2-year-old with a great future in front of him, but it's refreshing not to have to field those calls and text messages," Lovell admitted. "I'm truly grateful to Cliff and Michele that they want to be on this journey. They've been waiting for it for a long time, so kudos to them for sticking to their guns. It's a great story for them."

The Loves were not present for the victory in Saratoga, opting to enjoy the race together at home and plan to attend their stable star's next start.

Damon's Mound returned to Colonial Downs late on Sunday and Lovell reported that he has come out of the race in perfect form. She is still weighing her options for where the Florida-bred could make his next start, considering either the GIII Iroquois S. at Churchill on Sept. 17 or the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland on Oct. 8.

While Damon's Mound has already resumed light jogging at Colonial Downs, Lovell is back in New York this weekend with her second Saratoga starter. On Saturday, Change of Control (Fed Biz) will race from post one in the Smart N Fancy S. The 6-year-old mare finished fourth by three lengths to eventual GI Fourstardave H. winner Casa Creed (Jimmy Creed) in the GI Jaipur S. and followed that effort with a stakes win at Colonial Downs on July 18.

"She's coming into this race really well off her win at Colonial," Lovell reported. "It was nice to get a little class relief there and that will set her up well for this race. There are some good mares in there, so there's no doubt it will be a nice race. Hopefully we get a nice trip."

It certainly can't hurt that while in Saratoga, Change of Control is staying in the same stall that Damon's Mound occupied last weekend.

"It would be awesome to be two-for-two up here," Lovell said. "That would be the cherry on top."

THIS SIDE UP: BAAEED NEWS IS GOOD NEWS

Baaeed | Eclipse Sportswire

by Chris McGrath

I guess the whole point is that ours is a world apart, a sanctuary from the cares of the “real” one. But it still feels unnerving, to see a new cycle of the sales calendar open with such blithe indifference to a wider consensus that the global economy is scrabbling along the top of a precipice.

Both Saratoga and Deauville benefit from a heady atmosphere that might easily induce a perilous incaution when a yearling stands there shimmering on a sale rostrum. But it was ever thus, and the market at both Fasig-Tipton and Arqana exhibited remarkable buoyancy when measured against historic standards.

We know that bloodstock tends to lag somewhat behind other indices of recession, and conceivably this will prove to be some final, decadent flourish before the bulls start to draw in their horns. But it may also turn out, as when bloodstock showed such startling resilience during the pandemic, that the outlook simply looks different to the affluent elite on whom our industry so candidly depends. Inflation may be a bolting mustang; there may be wars and rumors of wars; political discourse may be ever more acrimoniously polarized. None of it seems to matter to these guys.

To be fair, in certain states American investors can increasingly entertain the possibility that their racetrack programs can aspire to something vaguely resembling viability—even if some benighted horsemen appear masochistically determined to erode that equation with their stubborn litigations. But the parallel strength of the market over the water suggests that a lot of people must also be animated by less tangible dividends.

That being so, we must always remember how destructive to our sport is the contamination of bad publicity. No shortage of that, of course, in an average week—and this one has been no different. Equally, however, we must acknowledge our debt to those priceless horses and horsemen that do succeed in capturing the public imagination; to those that intrigue outsiders, and inspire them to enter and contribute to our community, whether as fans and handicappers or as buyers of seven-figure yearlings. And it’s also been a week, either side of the ocean, that has magnified those positives.

First and foremost, we have had a fresh reminder of the captivating grandeur within the compass of the Thoroughbred. Raised in distance for the first time, Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) also raised his game anew to reach a pantheon lately shared, on European turf, perhaps only by his sire and Frankel \(GB\) (Galileo {Ire}).

Someone as tediously insistent as me, on the importance of a transatlantic cross-pollination, is hardly going to neglect the opportunity to highlight the way Baaeed’s pedigree combines gene pools that have since become disastrously bisected. No fewer than 11 of the 16 contributors to this grass titan’s fourth generation were bred in North America. Mr. Prospector is sire not only of Baaeed’s fourth dam; but also of his damsire, Kingmambo; and of Miswaki, whose daughter Urban Sea gave us Sea The Stars. And look who’s here, as sire of the third dam: the great enigma himself, Arazi! Cont. p10

Sea The Stars, specifically, combines two transatlantic cocktails. Start with his sire Cape Cross (Ire). He's by Green Desert, himself a son of Danzig out of a daughter of Sir Ivor and Courtly Dee; and out of Park Appeal (Ire), whose genes (by Ahonoora (GB) out of a Balidar (GB) mare) are no less evocative of a completely different world. As for Urban Sea, the epoch-making dam of Sea The Stars (and Galileo, of course), she similarly blends a classic American brand (Miswaki was by Mr. Prospector out of a Buckpasser mare) with a mare whose parents both channelled doughty German blood.

Sea the Stars | The Aga Khan Stud

Much the same kind of thing happens along Baaeed's bottom line. That Mr. Prospector fourth dam we just mentioned, for instance, is actually out of the British matriarch Height Of Fashion (GB), who was by Bustino (GB) and saturated with other indigenous influences. So, really, can anyone look at Baaeed's pedigree and still understand why most breeders, either side of the Atlantic, no longer want to mix turf and dirt lines?

So much for Baaeed's past. As far as his future is concerned, we must naturally yield to the judgement of those who have brought him this far with such skill. But it must be said that the horse stands in danger of leaving us with the same wistfulness as did Frankel, who similarly spent most of his career beating up proven inferiors at a mile before stepping up in trip only in his penultimate start--and in the same York race that Baaeed won this week. The plan has long been to remain in step with Frankel by also bowing out over 10 furlongs at Ascot, but the door is apparently still ajar to going to the Arc instead.

In declining to run either at Longchamp or at the Breeders' Cup, Frankel was left exposed to the charge that he never went looking for trouble. Suspecting him to be one of the best of all time, everyone was comparing him to specters past--yet he never measured himself against plenty of good ones then alive and well, and available for racetrack competition.

The fact is that Baaeed finished the new trip at York ravenously, and is a full-brother to a Group 1 winner at 12f (and Group winner at 14f). So let's hope that the desire to preserve his immaculate record does not discourage connections of another great horse from exploring the full range of his brilliance.

If a sporting gamble happened to misfire, it wouldn't take a cent off his value. In terms of his legacy, he has nothing to lose and much to gain. And, as we've been saying, there's a wider consideration--one might almost say, a wider obligation--to make this game as engrossing as we can; to showcase charisma, and retrieve the news agenda from the bad guys.

Happily, that is just what is happening at Saratoga this summer, with D. Wayne Lukas back on center stage Saturday with his latest Classic winner Secret Oath (Arrogate) squaring up for her decider with Nest (Curlin). Last week we highlighted the way Lukas appears to be reversing the ageing process, as a rejuvenated force in the sales ring as well as on the racetrack. He promptly produced another exciting juvenile in Bourbon Bash (City Of Light), who won his second start by eight lengths and looks eligible to extend his trainer's record of eight wins in the GI Hopeful S.

This is the first foal out of a stakes-winning Violence mare named Buy Sell Hold. Sell or hold is an adequate conundrum for most people right now, trying to read the alarming runes in less singular markets. How long our own marketplace can remain insulated by such unquantifiable factors as horses like Baaeed, and horsemen like Lukas, remains to be seen. But history tells us that we will find out soon enough.

NESS RECEIVES SIX-MONTH SUSPENSION IN PENNSYLVANIA; HAS APPEALED by Bill Finley

Jamie Ness, a prolific winner in the Mid-Atlantic states and the third-leading trainer in the country in wins, has been handed a six-month suspension by the Pennsylvania Racing Commission after a horse he trained tested positive for Bufotenine.

Ness was also fined $5,000. The suspension is scheduled to begin Sept. 5 and runs through March 3, 2023.

Ness, who is being represented by attorney Andrew Mollica, has appealed the suspension.

"We are in the process of appealing," Mollica said. "We will take this the whole way. He obviously vehemently denies any wrongdoing. The law and the facts are on our side."

The positive test occurred in a Feb. 23 race at Parx and involves the horse Crabs N Beer (Blofeld). The 3-year-old gelding won the race, a starter-optional claimer by 2 1/2 lengths as the 3-5 favorite.

According to britannica.com, Bufotenine is a "weak hallucinogenic agent active by intravenous injection, isolated from several natural sources or prepared by chemical synthesis. Bufotenine is a constituent of toad poison, the poisonous, milky secretion of glands found in the skin on the back of the animal." Bufotenine is often referred to as a toad venom and, in humans, is used as a hallucinogen with properties similar to mescaline and mushrooms.

Mollica provided the TDN with a document issued by the Association of Racing Commissioners International (ARCI) that lists Bufotenine as a substance that has "no effect on the physiology of a racing animal except to improve nutrition or treat or prevent infections or parasite infestations..."

The document also notes that the substance is found in reed canary grass and may be found in the urine of horses eating this grass.

"We already know it's a contaminant, not because I say so, but because ARCI says so," Mollica said, "ARCI went out of their way to carve it out and say it should not result in a positive. I thought this was pretty straight-forward. I am shocked we are here. How this got to this level is unfathomable to me. Our position is quite clear."

Mollica also questioned why Pennsylvania regulators were relying on a blood test but did not conduct a urine test. He said that if the substance had shown up in a urine test, that would not have resulted in a positive.

Ness is enjoying another banner season. Through Friday, he had 198 wins on the year from 711 starters, for a winning rate of 28%. He has been particularly dominant at Parx, where he has run away from the pack in the race for leading trainer. Ness's 107 wins at Parx puts him 67 wins in front of runner-up Louis Linder, Jr. Ness also runs regularly at Laurel, where he six wins on the meet.

Ness, who been training since 1999, has 3,703 winners and a career winning percentage of 25%.

In 2012, his Tampa Bay Downs barn was searched. It appears that nothing illegal was found.

"It's something I'm not used to, but it comes with the territory of being on top, I guess," he told the Paulick Report at the time. "The higher your win percentage is, the more detractors you get. But I sleep well at night, and not because I'm tired. I know everything gets done right and it doesn't bother me when I walk through the grandstand and hear people say, 'Oh, they're cheating,' but it bothers the people who work for me, and that's what I care about. I'm used to it, but some of my grooms get very defensive when somebody says, 'You guys are cheaters,' or something like that."

RICH STRIKE TUNES UP FOR RUNHAPPY TRAVERS

With exercise rider Gabriel Lagunes in the irons, GI Kentucky Derby upsetter Rich Strike (Keen Ice) breezed five-eighths of a mile in :59.82 (3/34) (video) over the Saratoga main track Friday morning in advance of his appearance in the $1.25-million GI Runhappy Travers S. at the Spa Aug. 27.

"He worked really good. He worked faster than we thought he would, but he did it easily," trainer Eric Reed said. "I think my question on him liking the track was answered this morning. He came home well. It is probably as good as he worked, even since before he did going into the [Kentucky] Derby. He was supposed to go :49 or :50. He did it all on his own. He was galloping over the track."

After besting the Travers-bound Epicenter (Not This Time) and Zandon (Upstart) beneath the Twin Spires, Rich Strike somewhat controversially passed on the GI Preakness S. and trained up to the GI Belmont S., where he was sixth to Mo Donegal (Uncle Mo). The chestnut worked three times at Reed's Mercury Training Center in July and twice at Churchill Downs earlier this month before arriving in Saratoga the afternoon of Aug. 14.

"Everything is in good shape," Reed said. "All we have to do is do some paddock schooling and keep him happy and healthy. He'll go to the paddock Sunday morning after he gallops. He will walk through it on Monday. Then, on Wednesday and Thursday, we'll plan on taking him there in the afternoon."

ROSARIO SET FOR RECORD-BREAKING

SARATOGA MEET By Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, NY - It's not your imagination that jockey Joel Rosario is having a big summer at Saratoga.

Rosario, 37, is very much in the hunt for the overall title, a competition led by Irad Ortiz, Jr. Through Thursday's program, Ortiz had 37 wins, eight more than Rosario. However, in graded stakes races, Rosario is far and away the leader with 10 victories from 19 starts, a remarkable 53% win rate. Ortiz is next with five.

With the 10, Rosario is in position to smash the current record of 11 graded stakes wins in a Saratoga season. According to Equibase stats, Hall of Famers Javier Castellano and John Velazquez share the record of 11. Castellano won 11 of 31 graded stakes starts in 2015 and Velazquez, who is nearing 1,000 wins at the track, finished first in 11 of 23 graded stakes in 2005. At 10, Rosario is on level with Castellano (2016) and Jerry Bailey (2001).

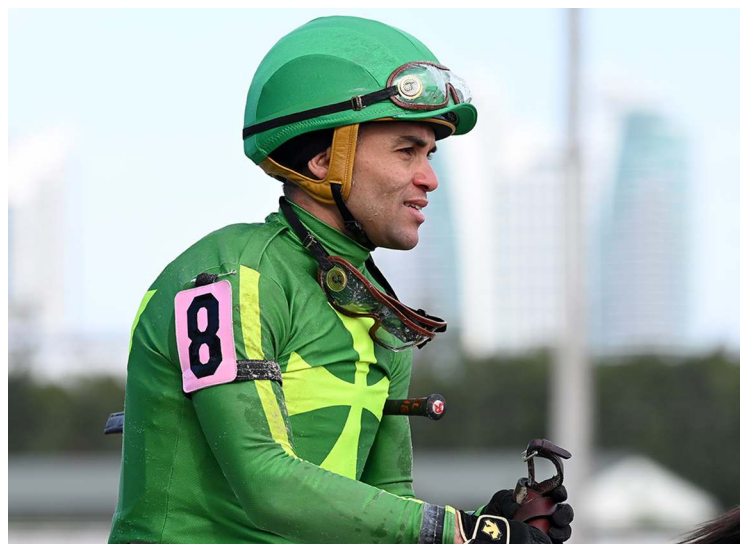

"It's unbelievable what we've done early," Rosario said. "Thanks to all the people who gave us the opportunity. My agent, Ron Anderson, has done a really great job for me. We appreciate the opportunities from the owners and the trainers."

Rosario is no stranger to success. The native of the Dominican Republic has finished in the top 10 in North American jockey earnings for 13 years, has a resume filled with graded stakes wins, including 13 in the Breeders' Cup. Last year, he had a career year, riding horses that earned $32,956,215 and secured his first Eclipse Award as champion jockey.

In 2020, Rosario was the leading graded stakes winner at Saratoga with seven. Last summer, he finished in a tie with Luis Saez for the top spot at six. This year, he had seven graded wins in the first 13 days of the 40-day season.

"We always are looking for a good meet," Rosario said, "But, we've been doing really well this year."

During the first four days of the meet, Rosario won the July 15 GIII Forbidden Apple S. with City Man (Mucho Macho Man) for trainer Christophe Clement; the GI Diana S. on In Italian (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) for Chad Brown July 16; and the GIII Quick Call S. on Big Invasion (Declaration of War) for Clement July 17. He completed the month with three wins for Steve Asmussen: the GII Shuvee S. on Clairiere (Curlin) July 24, the GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt S. on Jackie's Warrior (Maclean's Music) and the GII Jim Dandy S. on Epicenter (Not This Time).

Joel Rosario | Lauren King

In August, he won the GII National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame S. on Ready to Purrrform (Kitten's Joy) for Brad Cox Aug. 5 and the next day won the GI Test S. on Chi Town Lady (Verrazano) for Wesley Ward and the GII Glens Falls on War Like Goddess (English Channel) for Bill Mott.

Six trainers. Dirt. Turf. Sprints. Routes.

Starting on Saturday with the GI Alabama and the GII Lake Placid, there are 17 graded stakes left in the Saratoga season. Rosario has the mount on Haughty (Empire Maker) for Brown in the Lake Placid and will ride Gerrymander (Into Mischief) for Brown in the Alabama. He is likely to be up on contenders in most of the remaining graded stakes, including the Asmussen triumvirate of Epicenter in the GI Runhappy Travers S., Jackie's Warrior in the GI Forego S. and Clairiere in the GI Personal Ensign.

In 2015, six of Castellano's 11 wins were in Grade I races. Velazquez had five Grade I winners in 2005. So far, Rosario has three.

OP/ED: THAT BURTON SIPP IS STILL RACING IS INDEFENSIBLE

by Bill Finley

Take the time to read colleague Dan Ross's extensive and detailed story on the sordid career of trainer Burton Sipp and you might conclude that, in horse racing, enough is never enough. The story is about a lot more than the many controversies that have shadowed Sipp throughout his career, it is about how racing somehow always let Sipp back in, to give him a third chance, a fourth, fifth chance. It is about the sport's inability to police itself and its failure to permanently ban someone who has no business training horses.

Yet, on Monday night, Sipp, who has sent out 117 starters so far this year, will have two runners in at Mountaineer Park. This is the person that, in a 1993 story I penned for the New York Daily News, was called the "most deplorable person I have encountered on the backstretch of a racetrack," by former Pennsylvania Racing Commission commissioner Hart Stotter. That he is still actively training is a beyond embarrassing. Worse yet, it plays right into the hands of racing's many critics who argue that the sport doesn't do nearly enough to keep the horses safe or to rid itself of its worst elements. When it comes to Sipp, how do we defend against that? We can't.

The latest firestorm surrounding Sipp involves allegations that he knowingly funnels his horses into the slaughter pipeline. That could have led to his permanent banishment from Mountaineer, which, in 2010, notified horsemen they will lose stalls and may be excluded from the track if any horses racing at Mountaineer end up at the Sugarcreek auction in Ohio, which is frequented by killer buyers who send horses on to slaughter. Proving such allegations can be tricky, but there's no evidence to suggest that Mountaineer racing officials have so much as launched an investigation. Perhaps they just decided to look the other way.

Ross reached out to James Colvin, the director of racing at Mountaineer, about the recent scrutiny on Sipp and got a non-answer answer. "I have no information for you to discuss on Burton Sipp, the WV Racing Commission has licensed Mr. Sipp and has also investigated him and to my knowledge have found no wrongdoing as to date," Colvin wrote in an email.

Ross had more questions for Colvin, but he did not respond to subsequent emails.

With the allegations that Sipp sent horses to the auctions frequented with killer buyers gaining more and more traction, Churchill Downs Inc. took action, announcing on Tuesday that it was banning Sipp from its tracks. Sipp has started 25 horses this year at Presque Isle Downs, which is owned by Churchill. The company is to be commended for taking action against the trainer, but it's fair to ask them what took them so long. It's also fair to ask how they could have banned Bob Baffert for two years for nothing worse than medication overages while, until this week, taking no action against Sipp.

Sipp has been training since 1968. He carved out a niche for himself, winning a lot of races on the leaky roof circuit. He won a career best 272 races in 1981, but he would soon become embroiled in a controversy that should have meant the end of his career. In 1984, Sipp was indicted by a grand jury in New Jersey on charges of inflating insurance claims on nine horses who died in his care over a four-year period. Sipp eventually pled guilty to the lesser charges of witness tampering and was fined $7,500 and sentenced to five-years probation. When interviewed in 1993, Gregg Shivers, the assistant Burlington County prosecutor at the time, said that his office could have easily proven the earlier charges, but that the plea bargain was driven in part by the anticipated cost of the trial, expected to be one of the most expensive in Burlington County history.

Insurance fraud is a serious offense and so is witness tampering. Sipp had also been charged around the same time with forging a scratch card on another trainer's horse. Collectively, the industry acted and Sipp did not start any horses between December of 1984 and September of 1993.

"From my experience as Director of Enforcement for the Pennsylvania Racing Commission, I am aware of a number of actions and activities (Sipp) was involved in, all of which are a matter of public record," Roger Marciano told me in 1993. "I thought and fully expected that he would never race again or be involved in any way with pari-mutuel racing."

But Sipp never gave up on the idea of making a comeback and in 1993 found a racing commission willing to give him a license. With a license in hand from the Pennsylvania Racing Commission, he was back, entering horses at the track then known as Philadelphia Park. Ken Kirchner, the executive secretary of the Pennsylvania Racing Commission said that Sipp "deserved a second chance." Cont. p14

After making 136 starts in 1994, Sipp disappeared, and it's not clear why. He did not return to racing until 2004. It appears that he spent some of that time operating Animal Kingdom, a 32-acre zoo and pet store in Burlington, N.J. According to a Philadelphia Inquirer article, Sipp was under investigation by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) for alleged animal welfare violations at the zoo. According to the Inquirer, citations stemmed all the way back to 2002, when five emaciated giraffes reportedly died at the zoo.

Having returned to training, Sipp settled in at Suffolk Downs. When asked by a Boston Globe reporter in 2005 why Sipp had been licensed Suffolk Downs steward Bill Keene said: "There's nothing in the rule book that keeps him from getting a license because he has a past." That Keene believed that a person's past transgressions should have no bearing on them getting a license says a lot of about the sport's attitude toward rule-breakers. Of course a person's past matters.

Sipp has been operating ever since resurfacing at Suffolk Downs. But it appears that there are some racetracks that have refused to accept his entries as all of his 2021 and 2022 starts have come at Mountaineer, Presque Isle and Thistledown. In at least one state, he has been permanently banned. Since the mid 1990s, Sipp has been barred from applying for a racing license in New Jersey.

On the surface, Sipp is a nobody. He is 78, competes only at low-level tracks and has won just eight races this year. His stable has earned just $112,861. When he makes headlines it is only for the wrong reasons. Perhaps the tracks that have allowed him to run thought no one would pay attention. But that hasn't been the case. There are plenty of good people who care and plenty of good people who want to see Burton Sipp permanently banned from every racetrack in the country. That that hasn't happened yet is simply inexcusable.

SATURDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS: $3.55M BERNARDINI MIDLANTIC TOPPER DEBUTS AT DEL MAR

Hejazi | Fasig-Tipton

7th-SAR, $105K, Msw, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 3:52 p.m. ET

Winchell homebred ECHO AGAIN (Gun Runner) gets his career started for Hall of Famer Steve Asmussen. Produced by a stakes-placed half-sister to GISW Pyro (Pulpit), the 9-5 morning-line favorite is a half-brother to SW & GSP Pneumatic (Uncle Mo) and a full to SP Costa Terra, both winners at first asking. This same Gun Runner x Tapit cross is already responsible for recent 'Rising Star' Disarm as well as last term's GII Adirondack S. heroine Wicked Halo, Monomoy Girl S. winner Society and Texas Turf Mile S. winner Red Run.

"He's been working with Disarm, so he can hang with him," said David Fiske, racing and bloodstock advisor to the Winchell family. "He's been pretty highly regarded ever since he was down in Laredo. He was an individual that, around Christmastime, was one of Steve's favorites when he would go down to his parents in Laredo to look at all the yearlings. He always liked that colt."

Good News Rocket (Runhappy) brought $700,000 from Frank Fletcher after breezing in :10 1/5 at Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream. The half-brother to GISW Tiz Miz Sue (Tiznow) and Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint winner Bulletin (City Zip) is trained by Hall of Famer Bill Mott.

The field of eight also includes fellow firsters: Classic Legacy (Into Mischief), a Bill Mott-trained half-brother to GISW Art Collector (Bernardini); and the Shug McGaughey-trained duo of Spinzar (Tapit) ($450,000 FTSAUG) and Game Change (Candy Ride {Arg}) ($850,000 KEESEP). TJCS PPs

5th-DMR, $80K, Msw, 2yo, 5 1/2f, 7:00 p.m. ET

HEJAZI (Bernardini), the $3.55-million Fasig-Tipton Midlantic topper (:9 4/5), debuts for Zedan Racing Stables and Hall of Famer Bob Baffert. Bred in New York by Chester and Mary Broman, the dark bay is out of G Note (Medaglia d'Oro), a daughter of graded winner Seeking the Ante (Seeking the Gold) and half to multiple stakes winner Mineralogist (Mineshaft), as well as to the dam of this year's GII Rebel S. winner Un Ojo (Laoban). The Bernardini x Medaglia d'Oro cross is also responsible for GISW Rachel's Valentina. Hejazi fired a five-furlong bullet from the gate in :59 (1/56) at Del Mar Aug. 12. Hall of Famer Mike Smith rides. Baffert will also saddle $500,000 KEESEP graduate Nullarbor (Candy Ride {Arg}). TJCS PPs

SUMMER BREEZES

by Alan Carasso

Hejazi breezing at Timonium | Fasig-Tipton

Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer racing season are the 'baby' races during the boutique meetings at both Saratoga and Del Mar and at Ellis Park, which attracts its fair share of high-priced offspring from a variety of top national outfits. Summer Breezes highlights debuting 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, with links to their under-tack previews. Already this year at Saratoga, City Man (Mucho Macho Man), Mo Strike (Uncle Mo) and Empress Tigress (Classic Empire)--each a graduate of the 2-year-old sales--have already struck at stakes level, while the likes of juvenile purchases and 'TDN Rising Stars' Taiba (Gun Runner), We The People (Constitution) and Onesto (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) have also left their mark on graded/group competition this season. To follow are the horses entered for Saturday:

5 favoritism, Oxymore flashed early speed as he did on debut, despite a mild mis-step at the break. Jeremy's Jet (Street Sense) raced briefly to his inside before surrendering the lead as Oxymore set a brisk tempo from just off the rail. Following a half in :44.77, he was challenged once more as No Nay Hudson (Ire) came alongside as the field left the far turn. The pair dueled gamely into the final sixteenth with Oxymore prevailing in the last hundred yards.

"I was a little worried down the stretch, but this horse showed his heart," said winning trainer Chad Brown. "I was very impressed with his heart and his stamina to just keep on going. When you look at the horse, he doesn't look like a sprinter, so I'm excited to get him out in distance. He looks like a pure route horse."

The winner, out of a full-sister to MGSP Imperial Council (Empire Maker), has a yearling half-sister by Street Boss and a weanling half-sister by Higher Power. His dam was bred back to Maximus Mischief for a 2023 foal. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Leader of the Band | Sarah Andrew

A graded stakes winner last year in the GIII Monmouth Oaks, Leader of the Band added this term's Lady's Secret S. on the Jersey Shore June 11. Leader of the Band most recently posted a career-best 92 Beyer Speed Figure when second behind GISW Search Results (Flatter) in last month's GIII Molly Pitcher S.

Given a 6-1 shot here, Leader of the Band proved difficult to load but came out running and was ridden to gain early position just off the rail in third as Envoutante led through moderate fractions. Tucked behind rivals into the bend, she began to angle out leaving the turn and was five wide at the top of the stretch. With plenty of horse left as several of her rivals began to fade, Leader of the Band came running inside the final furlong under a hand-ride to get the money. The victory gave jockey John Velazquez a hat trick on the day.

"She's matured so much from last year," said winning trainer John Servis. "Last year, she was a handful with everything. Mentally, she's matured so much, and she's gotten bigger and stronger physically. We were kind of wondering whether we would sit and wait for a PA-bred race or try to find another race. [Owner] Will [Schwartz] actually pitched this race to me and said, 'If she's doing good, I'd love to go to Saratoga.' I said we'd play it by ear and coming up to this week, I said, 'We're going.'"

Out of a half-sister to the dam of GISW & GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile runner-up Havana (Dunkirk), Leader of the Band's only younger sibling is the stakes-placed 3-year-old filly Burano (Uncle Lino). Her dam was reported bred to Divining Rod for 2023. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Making her grass debut in this first try for Jeremiah Englehart here, the rail-drawn 3-1 chance chased on the inside in fourth, tipped out to take on the pacesetting American Starlet (Twirling Candy) at the top of the stretch and rolled on by to score by 1 3/4 lengths. TURN ON THE JETS (IRE) (g, 3, Mehmas {Ire}--Chiclet {Ire}, by Dandy Man {Ire}) debuted as a juvenile last March in his native Ireland, posting a pair of seventh-place finishes on the turf. After breaking his maiden over the Dundalk all-weather for trainer Jack W. Davison in his fourth career start in December, the chestnut made the trip to the U.S. to join Phil D'Amato's barn. Using Lasix for the first time, Turn On The Jets broke sharply but was taken back to settle off the early leaders in fourth. Patiently held against the rail for racing room into the far turn, he tipped out into the clear past the eighth pole, drew up to engage stablemate Gregory's Pride (Tamarkuz) and prevailed late under right-handed urging to score by a neck at odds of 8-1. His dam's only reported foal, Turn On The Jets is from the extended female family of G1 Investec Coronation Cup victor Pether's Moon (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}). Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-0, $62,109. Click Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. O-Benowitz Family Trust, CYBT, Michael Nentwig & Ray Pagano; B-Mr. D Byrne (IRE); T-Philip D'Amato.

BRANDON'SMYLAWYER (f, 3, Astern {Aus}--Ivory Pearl, by Pulpit) squeaked out a half-length win sprinting five furlongs on debut last fall, then finished a distant sixth over a mile in Santa Anita's Surfer Girl S. Oct. 3, her final start for Richard Baltas. Brought back in the hands of George Papaprodromou, she returned to sprinting, winning a 6 1/2-furlong first-level allowance event May 29. After an unsuccessful attempt on the dirt resulted in a distant seventh in the GII Great Lady M S. July 4, she returned to the turf as the narrow 5-2 second choice. Away mid-pack, she established the lead from between horses and dropped down to the fence with little pressure from behind. Pammy's Ready (More Than Ready) kept tabs from second but was ultimately no match as Brandon'smylawyer kicked clear under a drive to win comfortably by 1 1/4 lengths despite drifting out late. This is the female family of MGSW McCraken (Ghostzapper) and MGSW Four Graces (Majesticperfection). The winner's 2-year-old half-brother, Drama Critic (Oscar Performance), recently debuted to be sixth in a maiden special weight at Ellis Park, and her dam produced a weanling full-brother to Brandon'smylawyer. She was bred back to Hit It a Bomb for the 2023 season. Sales History: $15,000 Ylg '20 FTKOCT; $340,000 2yo '21 OBSAPR. CALLE OCHO (f, 4, Frosted--Mistical Plan {GISW, $816,790}, by Game Plan) came through over the all-weather at first asking to break her maiden May 8 but followed with back-to-back fourth-place efforts against winners May 28 and July 16, the latter her turf debut. The 7-2 third choice behind heavy favorite Speightstown Shirl (Speightstown), Calle Ocho flashed good early speed to show the way while relaxed on the front end. After a half in :47.25, she turned for home with a two-length advantage and came under a heavy ride to hold off the fast-closing favorite by half of a length. Her 3-year-old half-brother, Mistical Curlin (Curlin), recently was a distant second in a maiden claimer at Saratoga while her 2-year-old half-sister, Two Minute Drill (Union Rags), was fourth against maiden special weight company also at the Spa. She has a yearling half-brother by Constitution still in the pipeline and her dam was bred to Liam's Map for 2023. LADY BAFFLED (f, 3, Frosted--Baffling, by Graydar) broke her maiden in her second career start at Gulfstream last October before going to the sidelines for the next six months. Brought back Apr. 9, she faded to sixth against optional claimers, then made her first start outside of Florida, traveling to Monmouth to finish a narrow third at 18-1 July 3. Off as the 6-5 second choice Friday, Lady Baffled used her early speed to battle Li'l Miss Camille (Exaggerator) for the lead. She put a head in front as the pair raced into the far turn. Favored Regal Realm (Animal Kingdom) took the lead on the outside with a furlong to run, but Lady Baffled battled back to win by 2 3/4 lengths. Out of a half-sister to MGISW & leading sire Constitution (Tapit), Lady Baffled has a 2-year-old half-sister, Quantum Light (City of Light), who brought $400,000 at last year's KEESEP sale, as well as a yearling half-sister by More Than Ready and a weanling half-sister by Not This Time. Her dam was bred back to Gun Runner for 2023. Sales History: $75,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP; $220,000 2yo '21 EASMAY. coupled Chad Brown-trained entry, briefly unseated jockey Irad Ortiz, Jr. before the start but reloaded smoothly and was away without further incident. Off the pace in third, Transactional kept to the inner rail up the backstretch before drifting out a bit into the far turn. Tipped out four wide at the top of the stretch, he rallied down the center of the track while hanging on his left lead, drew alongside stablemate Indemnify (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in the final sixteenth and just got past once finally switching to his correct lead. The final winning margin was a half-length. Go White Lightning, herself a half-sister to MGISW Shalaa (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), is responsible for only one other foal--a 4-year-old full-brother to Transactional. LET'S GO BIG BLUE (g, 2, Cairo Prince--Giant Win, by Giant's Causeway), the 9-2 third choice in this state-bred affair following a :10.2 work at the EASMAY sale earlier this year, broke awkwardly to the inside and was taken back to the rear of the field, racing just off the rail into the first turn. The cleverly named gray owned by former legendary New York Giants coach Bill Parcells came outside of horses three wide as the field straightened for home and endured multiple rounds of contact down the lane while racing greenly before taking over into the final sixteenth en route to a 1 3/4-length victory over Provision (Goldencents). An objection and steward's inquiry into the stretch run did not impact the final order of finish. Giant Win, a half-sister to the dam of GSW Berned (Bernardini), is also responsible for the winner's half-brother Pinehurst (Twirling Candy), GISW-USA, GSW-KSA, $1,213,500. Giant Win has a yearling colt by Liam's Map and produced a full-sister to Pinehurst in 2022 before being bred back to Uncle Mo for 2023. He found a good spot in an inside third after breaking slowly. He came rolling up three deep at the top of the stretch and outboxed a very game Cuore Sacro (Twirling Candy) after a long drive to win by a head. The winner is a half to Hidden Stash (Constitution), MGSP, $288,732; and a Practical Joke colt of this year. He becomes the fifth winner for his freshman sire (by Uncle Mo). 2nd-Ellis, $60,000, Msw, 8-19, 2yo, f, 1m, 1:40.73, ft, 3 1/2 lengths.

NEED SOME MONEY (f, 2, Street Sense--Christina, by Medaglia d'Oro) was a well-beaten sixth on debut going seven furlongs in the Ellis mud July 31. Getting some additional distance to work with and a fast main track this time, the 7-1 chance was a ground-saving fourth for most of the way. She crept closer rounding the far turn, awaited racing room at the top of the stretch and punched through nicely along an opening at the fence in the stretch to win going away by 3 1/2 lengths. Destine to Race (Cairo Prince) was second. The winner's dam was bred to Kobe's Back for 2023. Solo Album (Curlin), a $535,000 KEESEP yearling, was last of six. Sales history: $9,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. The gray recovered nicely to chase in third through an opening quarter in :22.76, scraped the paint as three of them lined up five-sixteenths from home, hit the front in the stretch and knuckled down to hold off Amaryllis Kiss (Speightstown) by a head. The winner is a half-sister to Francois (Smarty Jones), SW & GSP, $381,485; Independence Hall (Constitution), MGSW & GISP, $881,500; Black Onyx (Rock Hard Ten), GSW, $418,860; and Quality Council (Elusive Quality), GSP,

YARBOROUGH (f, 3, Medaglia d'Oro--Dance With Another {Ire}, by Danehill Dancer {Ire}) was making up ground late to pick up the show check in her grass debut at Monmouth July 24. Racing over the same course and distance Friday, the popular 3-2 choice was much more involved early, keeping tabs on frontrunner Tiz Kobe Time (Kobe's Back) from second. Having closed the half-length gap between them on the far turn, Yarborough came running between horses down the stretch to just edge out a closing Charging Lady (Medaglia d'Oro). Second dam G1SW Quarter Moon (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) is also responsible for G1SW Diamondsandrubies (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) and G1SP You'll be Mine (Kingmambo), who herself produced MG1SP Eminent (Ire) (Frankel {GB}). Also in Yarborough's extended family are Entenmanns Irish One Thousand Guineas winner Yesterday (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), MG1SP All My Loving (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), and GSW & Claiborne stallion Demarchelier (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). The winner has an unraced 2-year-old half-sister by Mendelssohn and a yearling half-sister by Justify. Sales History: $260,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. by Tom Frary

Placing herself in a different stratosphere of sprinters on Friday, John Fairley's Breeders' Cup-bound homebred Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) powered to glory in York's five-furlong G1 Coolmore Wootton Bassett Nunthorpe S. only a dozen days after her tour de force in the 6 1/2-furlong G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest.

Returning to the scene of her emphatic G2 1895 Duke of York S. success May 11, the 5-1 shot enjoyed an ideal lead throughout the early stages from the three-years-younger The Platinum Queen (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) before taking the measure of that juvenile a furlong from home. Giving everything for Jason Hart, the John Quinn-trained bay hit the line with 2 1/2 lengths to spare over the long-time leader, with Emeraaty Ana (GB) (Shamardal) regaining his form 1 1/2 lengths further away in third. ROSE FAMILY IN BLOOM FOR HEALD

By Emma Berry

During a long, hot summer, one family which has been blooming rather than wilting is that of Soho Rose (Ire), a daughter of Hernando (Fr) who has been represented by two Group 2-winning offspring in the last three weeks.

The mare's 4-year-old daughter Sea La Rosa (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) struck first in the G2 Lillie Langtry S. at Glorious Goodwood having already landed the G3 Pinnacle S. in May, and she was followed by her full-brother Deauville Legend (Ire) in Wednesday's G2 Voltigeur S. He too was backing up a Group 3 win earlier in the season in the Bahrain Trophy at Newmarket, and the consistent colt has also twice been runner-up this season, at Royal Ascot and Goodwood. His performance at York saw Deauville Legend, owned by Bon Ho, shoot to the head of the betting for the G1 Melbourne Cup in November.

The man responsible for breeding these two rising stars is Guy Heald, whose immense modesty prevents him from taking any credit for a burgeoning family which stems from the first horse he ever had in training back in the 1990s. Soho Rose's dam Russian Rose (Ire) (Soviet Lad) was picked up at Tattersalls in 1994 by former trainer Tony Hide for 5,200gns, and in the ensuing years she has established a pretty impressive dynasty.

"We were lucky enough to buy Russian Rose as a yearling," Heald recalls. "She was a late developer but distance was never an issue with her. She would run over any distance she was asked to and I suppose she just put plenty of stamina into her offspring." Cont. p9

“She’s definitely getting quicker,” Hart said of the winner, whose win guarantees her an entry into the $1-million Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint, with the Nunthorpe part of the Breeders’ Cup Challenge Series. “She gave me my first Group 1 winner a couple of weeks ago and it probably means more today to do it on home soil. I was really confident, the 2-year-old was giving us a nice tow and I thought I’d be able to pick her up whenever I wanted really. I thought if I could just hold her together for the middle part of the race she’d finish her race off.”

Not only is Highfield Princess the first to complete the Maurice de Gheest-Nunthorpe double, this second career outing over Britain’s minimum trip also resulted in her becoming the first since Handsome Sailor (GB) in 1988 to follow up a win in the Duke of York here. Her trajectory is one of the year’s great racing stories, with a sixth in Royal Ascot’s G1 Platinum Jubilee S. June 18 her only reversal since a second to the handicapper Tone The Barone (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) in a conditions event which was a belated first try at this distance on Wolverhampton’s Tapeta Mar. 19.

Harnessing all the indomitable spirit which saw her conquer Royal Ascot’s Buckingham Palace H. over seven furlongs last June, the bay who had also captured the Listed Queen Charlotte Fillies’ S. on Chelmsford’s Polytrack early the next month and finished second to Space Blues (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G2 City of York S. at this festival 12 months ago has achieved a level of versatility which few can manage. Cont. p4

Four runs on from her success over seven in Newcastle's All-Weather Fillies' and Mares' Championships Conditions S. Apr. 15, she was readily handing one of the season's fastest juveniles The Platinum Queen a remarkable 24 pounds advantage en route to subduing a clutch of five-furlong specialists like Royal Aclaim (Ire) (Aclaim {Ire})--the disappointing 5-2 favourite who was sixth--and Khaadem (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}).

John Quinn has his sights set on Keeneland in November, with a trip to ParisLongchamp beforehand. "It took her quite a while to learn her trade," he said. "We put her in the Foret and the Abbaye, so all being well two more runs in either of those and then the Breeders' Cup. She's got loads of tactical speed and five and a half furlongs around two bends will be right up her alley."

"When she was starting out, I said to John [Fairley] that she won't win a maiden so we'll get her categorised and go from there. When they gave her 57 I thought 'oh heck, we can't get her in a 0-55!'," Quinn added. "Her progress year in and year out and been astounding. This means everything. It's better than winning the lottery. To win here at York, with all my family here, it's fantastic." Fairley added, "Her story is one of the most epic stories in the history of thoroughbred racing. To do what she has done in two years is incredible and to win a Nunthorpe by two and a half lengths! Hardly anyone does that. She bit me this morning, that's how I knew she was feeling good, but I didn't think she'd win like that."

Tim Palin, syndicate manager for Middleham Park Racing, said of The Platinum Queen, "The weight-for-age might be a little bit generous and whether we can come back and replicate that in the future only time will tell, but I think she's going to give us plenty of fun. She's got the Abbaye entry and you wouldn't know whether the ground in Paris will suit her or not. You would have thought that would be the logical place to go."

Kevin Ryan's son and assistant Adam said of Emaraaty Ana, "He's taken his time to recover from running in Dubai earlier in the year, but he was more himself in the July Cup and has come here a fresh horse and has run his race. Hopefully now he can go on to Haydock now and defend his crown in the Sprint Cup."

GODOLPHIN JUVENILE TURNS ON THE STYLE AT YORK by Sean Cronin

Godolphin's 525,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 acquisition Noble Style (GB) (Kingman (GB)--Eartha Kitt (GB)), by Pivotal (GB) earned 'TDN Rising Star' status when debuting with elan over five furlongs at Ascot in May, but skipped Royal Ascot's G2 Coventry S. before confirming his wellbeing when upped to six for his July 29 return at Newmarket last time. Sent postward as the 3-1 third choice for a stellar renewal of Friday's G2 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai Gimcrack S. at York, he produced a display of raw power and claimed a career high in the six-furlong juvenile contest.

Finding a modicum of cover in rear after breaking from the stands' side stall, the March-foaled bay made eye-catching headway from halfway before quickening smartly to go second approaching the final furlong and kept on powerfully in the closing stages to deny Marshman (GB) (Harry Angel {Ire}) by 1 1/4 lengths nearing the line. Marshman's stablemate Cold Case (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) finished 3 3/4 lengths back in third.

"I'm very lucky to be able to make the call and give this horse the time that was needed," revealed Charlie Appleby. "We were very happy with how he came out of Newmarket and, physically, you could see how much improvement was there." Cont. p6

Appleby added, “He galloped earlier in the week and looked as good as we’ve ever seen him. We came here with confidence, but there was plenty of strength in depth in the race today. He had to go and do it and he did it well.

“I suppose the [G1 Vincent O’Brien] National S. [at the Curragh] can be put into the melting pot, but he might be able to do it again over six in the [G1] Middle Park [at Newmarket]. I see no reason why he won’t stay a mile, he’s got a pedigree that suggests that he’ll get it for sure and he does it all very nicely.”

QUICKTHORN MAKES ALL FOR FACILE LONSDALE CUP SCORE by Sean Cronin

Shorn of its main protagonists Stradivarius (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}) in the build-up, the complexion of Friday's G2 Weatherbys Hamilton Lonsdale Cup may have changed since declaration time, but nonetheless played host to a performance of note as Lady Blyth's 5-year-old gelding Quickthorn (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}--Daffydowdilly {GB}, by Oasis Dream (GB)) stepped into the void, leading his rivals a merry dance throughout, and registered a pillar-to-post victory in the Knavesmire's extended two-mile test.

The March-foaled bay, who lined up off victories in the G3 Henry II S. and G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil, led passing the judge first time and had established a wide-margin buffer by the time the field turned onto the backstraight. Untroubled throughout, the 9-4 second choice's lead proved to be an unassailable one as he hit the line, geared down, in a different postcode to the remainder. His margin of superiority was a facile 14 lengths as 5-4 favourite Coltrane (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) just held on for second, by a short head, from Reshoun (Fr) (Shamardal).

“I’m pretty blown away by him and, when I pulled up in France, I felt like I had a couple of gears left, but ultimately on these stayers you might be kidding yourself a bit,” said rider Tom Marquand. “I could have broken his stride, but he’s an exuberant stayer with a full tank under him and we went steady enough that he doesn’t overcook it. I knew I’d stretched away down the back, I gave him a flick at the two [furlong pole] as he was looking at the crowd. I heard the commentary and looked at the big screen and was able to take a sit. You almost wish the big guns were here to see what might have happened and he also did it on ground that was probably quicker than ideal. I’m hugely excited for what the future might hold as he’s only just getting going.”

Pedigree Notes

Quickthorn, half to a weanling by Bated Breath (GB), is one of five winners from six runners out of Daffydowndilly (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)), herself a multiple-winning daughter of stakes-winning G3 Lillie Langtry S. second Art Eyes (Halling). His fourth

A winner over 10 furlongs for Hide, and later showing her staying credentials when landing a 2m1f handicap at Bath for James Toller, Russian Rose retired after 11 starts with a mark of 78 and was an instant hit at stud. Her first foal, Hanami (GB), who like Soho Rose is a daughter of Hernando, followed her mother to Toller's stable and won the Listed Montrose Fillies' Stakes at two before running fifth and sixth in the 1000 Guineas and the Oaks respectively, then winning the G2 Pretty Polly Stakes at the Curragh. She is now the dam of three black-type performers.

Born six years later, Russian Rose's daughter by Dubai Destination, Dubai Rose (GB), was sent into training with Henri-Alex Pantall in France, and won listed races in Switzerland and Germany in Heald's colours before going on to produce The Juliet Rose (Fr) (Monsun {Ger}), whose four stakes wins included two runnings of the G2 Prix de Royallieu, which has subsequently been elevated to Group 1 status.

While those two have established their own branches of the dynasty, it is arguably their sister Soho Rose, also the winner of a German listed contest while under the tutelage of Pantall, who is currently doing the most to keep the family in the spotlight. As well as Deauville Legend and Sea La Rosa, Soho Rose is the dam of dual winner and Group 3 runner-up Dean Street Doll (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}). Heald splits his broodmare band between his own Egerton Stud on the outskirts of Newmarket and La Motteraye in Normandy, where Soho Rose resides. Now 13, the mare has a yearling filly by Golden Horn (GB), who will be retained to race, most likely in France, and a foal by Sea The Moon (Ger), to whom she is now back in foal.

Reflecting on his own introduction to racing, the breeder, whose background is in international banking and property, says, "I suppose it all started when I went racing to Yarmouth with my father aged about seven. Then I hibernated until I bought Russian Rose and she was the first horse I had in training. Tony Hide bought her on spec without an order and then sold her to us."

Other members of the family remaining within the Heald fold include Hanami's daughters Harbour Of Hope (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) and Evania (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}). The latter, bred along similar lines to Sea La Rosa and Deauville Legend, has had "some hiccups" since winning her sole start on debut at two but remains in training with John and Thady Gosden. Cont. p10

Guy Heald, centre, with Gwen Monneraye at Arqana | Scoop Dyga

Heald is clearly a breeder who takes the patient approach, with a focus on middle-distance stock. Indeed, some years ago he was part of the Ptarmigan Bloodstock partnership which bred, with Kirsten Rausing, the brilliant five-time Group 1 winner Fame And Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}).

He says of the two most recent high-profile graduates of his breeding operation, "It was lovely to see Sea La Rosa stay in training as a 4-year-old. Her owners were very wise to do so as she is still improving.

"And it has been wonderful to see the progression of Deauville Legend because James Ferguson has had a clear plan of what to do all along."

The siblings are currently close neighbours in Newmarket, trained respectively by Ferguson and William Haggas, but they spent their formative years in Normandy. Sea La Rosa was sold at Arqana's August Sale by Ecurie des Monceaux for €200,000, the same amount paid by Mark McStay on behalf of Bon Ho a year later for Deauville Legend, who was consigned by Gwen Monneraye and Lucie Lamotte of La Motteraye Consignment, who board "six or seven mares" for Heald.

In Newmarket, Heald owns Egerton Stud and its neighbouring training yard, which has recently seen a change of trainer from the now-retired David Elsworth to Kevin Philippart de Foy. Bordering Newmarket's two racecourses and the National Stud, Egerton is an estate steeped in history, whose regal former equine residents include the the Prince of Wales's Derby and St Leger hero of 1896, Persimmon (GB).

Heald, who was himself on the return journey from France and the Arqana sale as the well-named Deauville Legend struck at York, is quick to deflect the praise for this success to others.

"I do very little apart from expend the nervous energy," he says. "The horses are very well cared for by Gwenael and Lucie.

They also prepared The Juliet Rose for sale for me. We're advised on breeding by Ecurie des Monceaux and I rely very much on the expertise of Henri Bozo. I think it's important to be involved in racing on both sides of the Channel."

From one modest purchase of a filly almost three decades ago, Heald has now become a significant, if understated, owner and breeder in various European countries, and that influence could yet extend to Australia by the end of the year.

RACE PREVIEWS

ALL BRACED FOR SUPER SATURDAY

by Tom Frary

Despite all the excitement of the past few days, incredibly it ramps up further on Saturday with nine group races across Britain, Ireland and France and the sighting of some of Europe's most exciting 2-year-olds. It begins with the voracious Oscula (Ire) (Galileo Gold {GB}) at Deauville as Nick Bradley Racing's flagbearer appears for the seventh time since the start of July in the G3 Prix Daphnis and switches thereafter between York, Sandown, The Curragh and back to Deauville with the kind of pace that will require video review later on.

All Eyes On The Futurity And Debutante

The Curragh's pair of Group 2 races, the Galileo Irish EBF Futurity S. and Alpha Centauri Debutante S., are the lead-ups to next month's G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G1 Vincent O'Brien National S. and ultimately to the Spring Classics with the July 21 G3 Tyros S. winner Proud And Regal (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) defending his unbeaten record against a pair of Ballydoyle TDN Rising Stars in the Futurity. Saturday Previews Cont.

Ryan Moore has opted to partner the Apr. 23 Navan maiden winner Aesop's Fables (Ire) (No Nay Never) over Hans Andersen (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who beat the subsequent winner Al Riffa (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) over this seven-furlong trip and track July 16. "I would have gladly ridden him or Hans Andersen," Moore explained on his betfair blog. "He has been pleasing us at home, but it wouldn't surprise me one bit were Hans Andersen to win this."

In the Debutante, Moore is on the June 17 G3 Albany S. winner Meditate (Ire) (No Nay Never) as the stable's July 21 G3 Silver Flash S. scorer Never Ending Story (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) heads to Deauville for the G2 Prix du Calvados under the yard's go-to jockey Ioritz Mendizabal as Aidan O'Brien looks to split up his elite juveniles. Eric Long's Zoinnocent (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}), who was half a length second in the Silver Flash, takes on Meditate in a fascinating mingling of important form lines. Moore has no concerns about Meditate tackling a new trip. "I don't see the move up to seven furlongs being a problem at all," he stated.

Holding Out For A Hero

What England wouldn't give for a Classic winner for The Queen in 2023? Step forward 'TDN Rising Star' Desert Hero (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) on Saturday as the June 30 Haydock novice scorer heads to Sandown for the G3 Fasig-Tipton Night Of The Stars Solario S. The sire's Reach For The Moon (GB) promised so much as he stole the show here 12 months ago, but the monarch gets a second chance with the William Haggas-trained relative of Dartmouth (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) who has Derby stamped all over him on pedigree. Opposing is Man Bun Lee and Miss Sally Wall's impressive July 9 Ascot novice winner Defence Of Fort (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) who received a form boost after that race's fourth Kyeema (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}) took a competitive York nursery on Thursday. Remarkably, Peter Chapple-Hyam has yet to win this prize and said of the £19,000 Tattersalls Ireland September purchase, "He could be a bargain-- he was just a touch more than Dutch Art and we have been quite lucky buying horses over the years. When I saw him, it was just the way he walked that struck me. There was something about him. You could not fail to be impressed by the way he won last time, but this is a step up. I got the feeling early on he was a good horse and let's see if he can prove it."

Thick And Fast

Also at Sandown, the G3 JRL Group Atalanta S. at a mile for fillies and mares plays host to the Gosdens' progressive Grande Dame (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), who had the audacity to beat Oscula by 3 1/4 lengths in the course-and-distance Listed Coral Distaff July 2 and who shapes as a potential Group 1 performer for the autumn. The Clarehaven connection is evident back at York in the G3 Sky Bet And Symphony Group Strensall S., where Saeed Suhail's Mighty Ulysses (GB) (Ulysses {Ire}) looks to continue to head upwards having enjoyed a break since his Listed Sir Henry Cecil S. win at Newmarket July 7. "He's a horse we have always liked and has plenty of talent," Thady Gosden said. Other notables on show during the frantic afternoon are Sunderland Holding's May 20 Listed Height Of Fashion S. winner and June 16 G2 Ribblesdale S. runner-up Sea Silk Road (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) in Deauville's G2 Prix de la Nonette and Kirsten Rausing's July 26 G2 Lennox S. scorer Sandrine (GB) (Bobby's Kitten) in York's seven-furlong

ROSSA RYAN OUT AS NUMBER ONE JOCKEY FOR AMO RACING

Rossa Ryan will no longer be number one jockey for Kia Joorabchian's Amo Racing, the jockey revealed on Friday. In the Amo silks, Ryan has earned a Group 2 win aboard Amo runner Go Bears Go (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) and was second aboard Persian Force (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) in the G2 July S. He was not named on the latter for Sunday's G1 Prix Morny, who will instead be ridden by James Doyle.

"Sadly me and Amo have departed our own ways," Ryan told ITV Racing. "Kia and all the team there have been great to me, and I can only be thankful for what they offered me, and they took my career to a new level and I wish them the best of luck.

"Hopefully it won't be the last time I ride for them, and I can pick up a couple of rides later in the year as spares, but I won't be first jockey."

HIPPODROME (IRE) (Galileo {Ire}) is one of three Ballydoyle newcomers in this maiden won by TDN Rising Stars High Definition (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Duke De Sessa (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) in the last two runnings. A son of the 1000 Guineas and Irish 1000 Guineas runner-up Lightning Thunder (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}), the 650,000gns Book 1 graduate is joined by fellow newcomer Covent Garden (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), a full-brother to Johannes Vermeer (Ire) and Wembley (Ire), and the Ryan Moore-ridden Hiawatha (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), the full-brother to Luxembourg (Ire) who has the benefit of two runs.

2.00 Curragh, Mdn, €16,500, 2yo, 7fT
CANUTE (Quality Road) is the second foal out of the G1 Falmouth S., G1 Matron S. and G1 Sun Chariot S. heroine Alice Springs (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and is one of another Ballydoyle trio alongside Ryan Moore's pick Continuous (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}), a relative of Saxon Warrior (Jpn), and Charles Bianconi (Ire) (Kodiak {GB}), a 320,000gns Book 1 half-brother to Dame Malliot (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) who carries the Evie Stockwell silks. They are met by Qatar Racing's fellow newcomer High Court Judge (Kitten's Joy), a Johnny Murtagh-trained son of the GII Lake Placid S. and GII Churchill Distaff Turf Mile winner Proctor's Ledge (Ghostzapper).

4.25 Sandown, Mdn, £9,900, 2yo, f, 7fT
CATCH A STAR (IRE) (Cracksman {GB}) is a notable Godolphin newcomer on a day replete with exciting Classic prospects, being a daughter of the G2 Flying Childers S. scorer Sand Vixen (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) who has produced the top-level winners Dream Castle (GB) and With The Moonlight (Ire) from matings with Cracksman's sire Frankel (GB). Charlie Appleby has charge of the March-foaled bay, whose rivals include the similarly-unraced Beautiful Star (Ire) (U S Navy Flag), Amo Racing Lighting up Salisbury on Friday evening, Godolphin's TDN Rising Star Flying Honours (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) dominated the Listed Longines Irish Champions Weekend 10-11 September EBF Stonehenge S. as he had his July 27 Sandown novice to suggest he will be a leading light for next year's Derby. Always travelling comfortably under James Doyle taking a lead, the 4-11 favourite was allowed to cruise to Stormbuster (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and when let loose quickly overwhelmed that rival with over a furlong remaining en route to a 5 1/2-length success.

"They went a really good pace and this stiff finish definitely suited him. He travelled much smoother today and I was hoping they would take me a bit further to teach him a bit more, but this was a nice stepping stone for him and he's crossed another bridge." Cont. p16

Doyle added, "He doesn't ride overly-big--he's very compact and well put-together and is learning all the time. I don't think this was the strongest of listed races, so he's going to have to keep on improving."

Fourth on debut in the seven-furlong Newmarket July Festival maiden won by TDN Rising Star Epictetus (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) and a place behind the day's Convivial Maiden-winning stablemate Desert Order (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) July 8, Flying Honours had romped to a 9 1/2-length success over that trip at Sandown last time and this was another visually impressive display as he bids to establish himself in the yard's pecking order.

The dam Powder Snow (Dubawi {Ire}) started out with this stable before joining Henri-Alex Pantall and winning the G3 Prix Fille de l'Air and a listed prize in Germany. She is a half-sister to the Listed Woodcote S. third Sea Of Snow (Distorted Humor) and to the G2 Diana-Trial and G3 Grosser Preis der Mehl-Mulhens-Stiftung-placed Snow (Ger) by Sea The Stars's Sea The Moon (Ger). The third dam is Snow Bride (Blushing Groom {Fr}), the G3 Princess Royal S. and G3 Musidora S. winner who was awarded the Oaks in 1989 on the disqualification of Aliysa (GB) (Darshaan {GB}) and later produced the Derby, King George and Arc hero Lammtarra (Nijinsky II). Powder Snow's first foal is the winning 3-year-old full-sister to the winner Snow Tempest (Ire), while her yearling filly is by Siyouni (Fr) and she also has a colt foal by Invincible Spirit (Ire). VIDEO.

Rolling by Hello Deira (Ire) (Expert Eye {GB}) with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the G2 Mill Reef S. and Goffs Million entry asserted to score by 1 1/2 lengths. The dual listed-placed dam, whose yearling son of Too Darn Hot (GB) sells at the upcoming Goffs Orby, is a half to the G3 Jersey S.-placed Bossy Guest (Ire) (Medicean {GB}) and to the dam of the talented sprinting half-siblings Summerhand (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), Eastern Impact (Ire) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) and Miss Katie Mae (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). DESERT ORDER (IRE) (c, 2, Dubawi {Ire}--Duchess of Berry {GB}), by New Approach {Ire}), third on debut in the hot seven-furlong Newmarket July maiden won by TDN Rising Star Epictetus (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) before being denied by a short head by Arrest (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) over a mile at Sandown Aug. 4, was heavily-supported into 10-11 favouritism for this valuable British Stallion Studs EBF Convivial Maiden S. and started brightly to lead.

Always comfortable, the homebred dug in as Glenfinnan (Ire) (Harry Angel {Ire}) threatened late to beat that rival by half a length in the race won in the last two years by the stable's G1 Platinum Jubilee S. hero Naval Crown (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and by Hoo Ya Mal (GB) (Territories {Ire}). "William said he showed a lot of natural pace there and I think we just got outstayed over the mile at Sandown last time by a very nice horse who we respect going forward," trainer Charlie Appleby said. "He's done it the hard way today, as he brought experience into it and that definitely told towards the finish. He's a nice horse going forward. He could be a horse for something like the [G3] Somerville Tattersalls S. off the top of my head." The winner is the first foal out of a daughter of the listed scorer and G2 Prix de Royallieu runner-up Princesse Dansante (Ire) (King's Best). She is responsible for the stable's Listed Height Of Fashion S. winner and G3 Dance Design S. third Skiffle (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) who in turn produced this year's Listed Lingfield Derby Trial third Natural World (Ire) (Frankel {GB}). From the esteemed Wertheimer family of the Arc heroine Solemia (Ire) (Poliglote {GB}) and Authorized (Ire), her yearling filly is by Shamardal while she also has a filly foal by Dubawi (Ire).
