

BOPPY O FIRST GRADED WINNER FOR BOLT D'ORO IN WITH ANTICIPATION

Boppy O (inside) | Sarah Andrew

by Alan Carasso

Just four days after his son Mounsieur Coco took the Proud Man S. over the Gulfstream all-weather, Boppy O (Bolt d'Oro) became the first graded-stakes winner for his freshman sire (by Medaglia d'Oro) and led home a top-three sweep for first-crop stallions when causing a 23-1 upset in Wednesday's GIII With Anticipation S. at Saratoga.

Ridden for some speed by Dylan Davis while making his first venture on the grass and over a distance of ground, the $190,000 Keeneland September yearling--a half-brother to last year's GII Best Pal S. hero and this season's GI Woody Stephens S. third, stablemate Pappacap (Gun Runner)--sat up right on the moderate pace set by fellow longshot El Conejito (Palace) through a half-mile in :50.09 over a turf course officially rated good, but tossing up times that suggested a fair bit more ease than that. Andthwinneris (Oscar Performance), a debut winner sprinting over the Keeneland turf course in April and favored by just less than $4,000 over the rail-drawn Battle of Normandy (City of Light) clocked the pacesetters from a close-up third and was first to come after them with every conceivable chance to run by.

CASSE PLAYS CHESS WITH SPINAWAY-BOUND WONDER WHEEL by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. - Though their names are similar and they have trainer Mark Casse in common, Wonder Gadot (Medaglia d'Oro) and Wonder Wheel (Into Mischief) are not related, except, possibly, in ability.

Wonder Gadot, a two-time champion and 2018 Horse of the Year in Canada, is named for the Israeli actress, Gal Gadot, who gained international attention in the 2017 film "Wonder Woman." Wonder Wheel, the unbeaten filly who will run in the GI Spinaway S. Sunday, is named for the very famous 102-year-old, 150-foot Ferris wheel at Coney Island, N.Y.

Wonder Wheel has spent the summer at Saratoga prepping for the historic Spinaway, the first Grade I of the season in the U.S. for 2-year-olds. She won both her starts at Churchill Downs earlier in the summer.

But Andthelwinneris could not seal the deal when one-paced into the final eighth of a mile, and Boppy O kept on well enough to hit the line about a neck better than Battle of Normandy, who might have had his momentum stalled ever so slightly in upper stretch, but kicked on strongly to just miss.

“I was training Pappacap and Mr. Oxley called me at the sale and he said, ‘Mark, have you looked at Pappacap’s half-brother?’ recollected rainer Mark Casse, who sent out Coinage (Tapit) to win last year’s With Anticipation. “I said, ‘I have and I really like him.’ Then [Breeze Easy’s] Mike Hall came up to me..and he said, ‘Have you seen Pappacap’s half-brother?’ I said, ‘I have, and Mr. Oxley’s going to try to buy him. This is not going to be good.’ So they said, ‘Why don’t we go together?’ I called Mr. Oxley up and said, ‘They’re going to go after him, what do you think?’ He said, ‘Let’s go partners.’ And that’s how it worked out.”

Just as Pappacap had done 371 days prior, Boppy O graduated at first asking in a five-furlong Gulfstream maiden May 20, but the bay never fired in this track’s GII Sanford S., finishing a distant 10th behind Mo Strike (Uncle Mo).

“I kept telling the Oxleys and Mike Hall and Sam Ross after the race [the Sanford], ‘Look, he’s better than what you saw. I promise you, he’s better than that,” Casse explained.

Boppy O is one of four winners from four to the races for Pappascap, who earned Grade III black-type with a longshot second in the 2014 GIII Cardinal H. over the turf course at Churchill Downs. The colt’s stakes-placed second dam is also responsible for Fate Factor (The Factor), who has done her best work to date over synthetic tracks, with a pair of stakes placings at Turfway Park and a third on the Tapeta at Presque Isle Downs.

Casse said he never considered entering her in the GIII Schuylerville S. or the GIII Adirondack S., the Saratoga filly stakes that typically are stepping stones to the Spinaway. There will be 60 days between her starts.

"That was by plan. You can't run them all," Casse said. "We ran her and then she won the stake at Churchill. So, it was by design."

In her debut June 3 at 5 1/2 furlongs, Wonder Wheel came from off the pace for a 2 1/4-length victory. On July 4 in the Debutante S., she quickly seized the lead and ran away from the others to score by 6 3/4 lengths, covering the six furlongs in 1:10.26.

Casse said the performances by the D. J. Stable filly in Kentucky were not a surprise.

"She showed us a lot before she even ran," he said. "I thought her first two races have been impressive. And then even since coming back here she's trained tremendous. She reminds me, and you don't have them come around that often, of the Wonder Gadots, the Classic Empires (Pioneerof the Nile), the War of Wills (War Front)."

That is a serious statement from a Hall of Fame trainer, comparing Wonder Wheel to three of his recent stars. Wonder Gadot and Classic Empire were champions and War of Will was the rare winner of Grade I races on dirt and turf: the Preakness S. and the Maker's Mark Mile S.

"Yeah, I know," Casse said, "and I worry about that a little bit, saying that with only two starts. But that's what she's shown me."

Wonder Wheel was on a short list of prospects developed by a bloodstock advisor for Casse at the Keeneland September 2021 yearling sale.

"Then I go around and pick and one of the things that intrigued me about her was she reminds me of [MSW & GISP] Make Mischief, and that was by Into Mischief," Casse said. "They had this similar build and similar look. That was one of the things and I was like, 'Yeah, I like this filly.' So we bought her. Obviously, she is expensive at $275,000, but not for an Into Mischief."

Make Mischief, a New York-bred, was a seven-time winner, who had five graded stakes placings.

Casse's latest potential star training at the Spa | Sarah Andrew

Wonder Wheel has worked five times at Saratoga. She turned in a bullet five-furlong--best of 34--breeze in :59.40 on Aug. 19 and got a half-mile in :48.87 on Aug. 26.

Hall of Fame jockey John Velazquez will be up for the Spinaway, replacing Tyler Gaffalione, who will be riding at Kentucky Downs.

Casse said he has not second-guessed his decision to give Wonder Wheel a long stretch between races.

"I'm going to be nervous," he said, "because when you think you have a good one, you get nervous."

Six years ago, Casse used a similar approach with Classic Empire, who broke his maiden May 4, won the GIII Bashford Manor S. July 2 and began his fall campaign in the GI Hopeful S. Sept. 5.

"Of course, it didn't work so well with Classic Empire because he made a right-hand turn coming out in the Hopeful," Casse said, smiling, "but I purposely gave her some time."

Classic Empire, the 8-5 favorite, wheeled at the start and dropped Irad Ortiz, Jr. He went on to win the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity and the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and was voted the 2-year-old male champion.

"My plan is if all things go well, she goes there, she goes to the [GI] Alcibiades and she goes to the Breeders' Cup," Casse said. "That would be five starts and that's plenty. I'm a chess player."

THE GREAT MAYBE HEADLINES A 'RISING STAR' SUMMER FOR HER BREEDER

By Patrycja Szpyra

When The Great Maybe (Upstart) left the blocks at Saratoga and strolled in eight lengths ahead of a lively met field of fillies, she carried not only the silks of Lael Stables--whose name invokes great nostalgia and respect in the halls of the Thoroughbred community--but also the dreams of a small breeding operation an hour north of Lexington, run by Monica Egger. Now, that farm in Piner, Kentucky, has a 'TDN Rising Star' to add to their list of accomplishments.

"I have really enjoyed my short foray into Thoroughbreds and have had the opportunity to work with some great people who have been willing to share their knowledge and experience," Egger responded in an email.

Having owned horses for over 35 years, but branching into Thoroughbreds very recently in 2015, Egger and her husband's broodmare band tallies at four with Pure Legacy (Simon Pure) leading the charge as the dam of The Great Maybe. The grey earned her $154,016 the hard way--five of her 11 wins came at the old Turfway Park and two against claiming company at Churchill Downs after five years of racing. Joining the barn of conditioner Susan Anderson in March of 2016, Pure Legacy ran another year before she started showing signs of being ready to call it a career. Egger, on the advice of Anderson, purchased the mare for $1,000 from the trainer's then client Dr. Dan Kessler and retired her.

Egger sent her newest addition to Commissioner as a maiden mare and the placed Righteous Roy was the result, who didn't reach his reserve at FTKOCT, a $14,000 RNA who went on to campaign in her colors. The mare went unbred the following year, and the focus was shifted to trying something new.

On a visit to Airdrie Stud, Egger saw Upstart (by Flatter), who was entering the oft-dreaded third year of his stud career at the time, and was immediately taken by his physical.

The Great Maybe canters in a Rising Star at Saratoga | Sarah Andrew

As a racehorse, the stallion was precocious enough to break his maiden and win the Funny Cide S. at Saratoga as a 2-year-old. Finishing second to Daredevil in the GI Champagne S. and third behind Texas Red and Carpe Diem in the GI Sentient Jet Breeders' Cup Juvenile, Upstart showed his mettle in Florida when he won the GII Holy Bull S. before a pair of runner-up performances in the GII Fountain of Youth and GI Florida Derby. He collected three more Grade I black-type placings before retiring $1,732,780 wealthier than he began.

Finding him to be a great match on paper and in structure for her mare, the decision was made, contract signed, and The Great Maybe hit the ground Feb. 26, 2020.

Described as a kind, uncomplicated mother to her foals, Pure Legacy produced a colt by Midshipman last year and has a 'very fancy weanling colt' by Promises Fulfilled this season. All have been described as carrying a good head on their shoulders and very eager to learn. Cont. p7

Seeing the attention Upstart was enjoying this past spring with GISW & MGISP Zandon, fellow 'TDN Rising Star' Green Up, MGSW Kathleen O., and with recent SP Up the Moon in Puerto Rico, Egger sent the mare back to him and she is carrying a full-sibling to The Great Maybe for 2023.

While Upstart's merits speak for themselves, Pure Legacy's humble racing career doesn't tell the entire story for The Great Maybe's female family. A half-sister to Korean champion 3-year-old filly Areumdaundonghaeng (A. P. Indy); stakes-placed producer Perfect Measure (Wildcat Heir); stakes-placed Jilleah (Roar of the Tiger); and stakes-placed Mr Bubba (B L's Appeal), Pure Legacy hails from genetics which love getting their picture taken.

If one tallied all the trips to the winner's circle for the second dam's nine successful runners, the siblings boast 48 pictures between them. It is much the same in the third and fourth generations, where 12-time winner, GSW & MGSP, and course-record setter Set A Record (Upper Case) makes an appearance. And if the market chooses not to appreciate a hard-knocking, blue-collar pedigree, then the breeder says it's no skin off her knee.

The Great Maybe in the wee hours after her birth
Monica Egger

"I plan to sell all my babies [in addition to Pure Legacy's offspring], but am not opposed to racing if I can't get good value," said Egger. "I have a Global Campaign weanling colt out of a Stay Thirsty mare that will be targeted for the yearling sales next year."

As for the future 'Rising Star', she went through the same yearling auction as her older brother but brought $55,000 at FTKOCT last year from De Meric Sales.

Resurfacing at OBS March, she floated through her :10 flat breeze and attracted the attention of Lael Stables, who went to a cool $425,000 to take her home with them. The rest we all played witness to.

"I feel blessed to have been represented by such a nice filly with our small operation and am so grateful to Lael Stables and De Meric Thoroughbreds for giving her the best chance for success on the racetrack...This industry has a lot of ups and downs and can be quite challenging, but to get a nice filly like The Great Maybe is a big thrill for a small breeder like me."

FORBIDDEN KINGDOM GEARING UP FOR SANTA ANITA SPRINT CHAMPIONSHIP

by Steve Sherack

Forbidden Kingdom | Horsephotos

MyRacehorse and Spendthrift Farm's Forbidden Kingdom (American Pharoah), a powerful wire-to-wire winner of the GII San Vicente S. Jan. 29 and GII San Felipe S. Mar. 5, could return to action against older horses in the GII Santa Anita Sprint Championship S. Oct. 1.

Knocked off the Triple Crown trail after finishing last of six as the favorite after setting a fast pace in the GI Runhappy Santa Anita Derby Apr. 9, the chestnut has posted three breezes since returning to the worktab in August, most recently firing a four-furlong bullet in :46 (1/65) at Hall of Famer Richard Mandella's Del Mar base Aug. 26.

"He just had a handful of setbacks--a succession of bad luck, bad timing type of things," Spendthrift's General Manager Ned Toffey said.

"The most recent was a little bout with colitis and it just took a little bit for him to bounce back. Richard is such a great caretaker and he's given him plenty of time and let him get back to the horse that we know he is. He's starting to remind us of what we saw earlier in the year. We know he's fast. We know he's talented. It's just been a frustrating year. We're always gonna do what's right for the horse and give them the time that they need. Hopefully, he's gonna reward us for it."

Bred in Kentucky by Gabriel Duignan's Springhouse Farm, Forbidden Kingdom brought $300,000 at the 2020 Fasig-Tipton Selected Yearlings Showcase. He is one of 16 graded winners worldwide for Triple Crown winner American Pharoah. Duignan purchased Forbidden Kingdom's dam Just Louise (Five Star Day), winner of the 2010 GIII Debutante S. and a half-sister to MGSW Sara Louise (Malibu Moon), for $150,000 at the 2013 FTKNOV sale.

VIDEO:

American Pharoah at Ashford Stud

Forbidden Kingdom, a debut winner at two at Del Mar, was also second in last term's GIII Bob Hope S. and third in the grassy Speakeasy S.

"When we bought him at the sale, he very much had a look of an American dirt speed horse," Toffey said.

"And not that he can't stretch out. We still feel like the jury is out on that subject. They need to do it on the track and build that resume before getting admitted to the stud barn, but he certainly is the kind of horse that I think breeders would really respond well to. We want to try to enjoy some more success with him first."

TAYLOR MADE CEO MARK TAYLOR TALKS NOT THIS TIME, YEARLING SALES ON WRITERS' ROOM

Business is booming at Taylor Made, not just because of the company's continued status as the largest consignor in the country, but also on the stallion side with the continued ascent of their young star sire Not This Time. Tuesday, Taylor Made CEO joined the TDN Writers' Room presented by Keeneland as the Green Group Guest of the Week to talk about Not This Time's newest Grade I winner in Runhappy Travers S. romper Epicenter, his team's approach to yearling sales and more.

"You can never predict that a horse is going to do what Not This Time has done," Taylor said. "We've been down this path before. We had Saint Ballado, who led the general sires' list. We had Unbridled's Song, who led the general sires' list. And then we've had a lot of horses who never even got close to leading the general sires' list. So when a horse starts out and they're showing promise, people love their babies, the market is reacting positively to them, you feel the momentum building, but then you don't know what's going to happen when the racetrack acid test really happens. But he's just a horse who's gone from strength to strength. At every stage he's excelled and we're very blessed to have him on our farm."

He just keeps ratcheting up from one level to the next, and we don't know where it's going to land him, but it looks pretty promising right now."

FASIG-TIPTON MIDLANTIC CATALOGUE ONLINE

A total of 512 yearlings have been catalogued for the upcoming Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall Yearlings Sale, which will be held at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium Oct. 3 and 4. Hips 1-200 will be offered during Monday's session, which begins at 1 p.m., and hips 201-512 will be offered Tuesday with bidding commencing at 10 a.m.

"This year's catalogue features over 500 yearlings and our strongest sire power in recent memory," said Midlantic Director of Sales Paget Bennett. "Quality yearlings representing a wide variety of state-bred programs will be on offer, and with more than 70 stakes wins or placings for Midlantic Fall grads this year, all serious yearling buyers should make plans to attend."

The catalogue is available online here, as well as via the equine sales app. Print catalogues will be available by Sept. 7.

The Fasig-Tipton August Digital Selected Sale concluded Tuesday afternoon with 45 horses sold for $500,900. The online auction was topped by Rags Pauline (Union Rags) (hip 2), a 6-year-old mare in foal to Candy Ride (Arg), who sold for $80,000 to Jack Hirsch. Rosilyn Polan's Sunday Morning Farm consigned the mare from its Versailles, Kentucky base.

Rags Pauline is a half-sister to Grade II winner Keen Pauline (Pulpit) and is carrying a foal bred on a similar cross to Unified, a three-time graded stakes winner and top-10 first-crop sire last year. Polan purchased Rags Pauline for $17,000 at the 2020 Keeneland January sale.

Buyers may still make offers on horses that failed to meet their reserve by visiting the sale page, then clicking "Make Offer" next to the horse they are interested in purchasing.

Fasig-Tipton's next digital auction will be the final phase of the Glen Todd Dispersal. Bidding will be held Sept. 22-29.

REPORT: BROWN HEARING POSTPONED TWO WEEKS

Leading trainer Chad Brown, who was arrested Aug. 17 and was charged with criminal obstruction of breathing, has had his court appearance adjourned two weeks to Friday, Sept. 16. The Blood-Horse was first to report the news.

Brown was released the morning of Aug. 18 on cash bail of $2,500 and was ordered to reappear Sept. 2. The charge filed against him is a Class A misdemeanor and is punishable by up to one year in jail or three years probation.

Through Wednesday's racing at Saratoga, Brown sits atop the trainers' standings with 37 wins, six better than Todd Pletcher.

ENHANCED PROTOCOLS ANNOUNCED FOR JOCKEY CLUB GOLD CUP DAY

The New York State Gaming Commission has announced that its Equine Medical Director Dr. Scott E. Palmer VMD and all three stewards will be made available to the media at the conclusion of the program to discuss any incidents that occur during the races at Saratoga Race Course Sept. 3.

In addition, Dr. Palmer will be available to speak to the media in the event of any equine health-related on-track incidents that take place during the day. Dr. Luis Castro, the American Association of Equine Practitioners on-call veterinarian, will provide media support for the FOX Network coverage of the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup.

Horses entered for the Gold Cup will be subject to 72-hour 'dedicated watch'--i.e. one guard stationed full time--by experienced security personnel leading up to post time. Horses are bound to the following:

- Horses must be on the grounds of Saratoga Race Course no later than 72 hours prior to their anticipated post time. Exceptions are at the discretion of the Stewards.
- The Commission will obtain out-of-competition blood samples of horses competing in The Jockey Club Gold Cup and have the samples tested at the New York Equine Drug Testing and Research Program at Morrisville State College.
- The Commission has coordinated with other jurisdictions to obtain out-of-competition samples from horses not stabled in New York.
- Once arrived, horses must remain at Saratoga Race Course until after the running of the Jockey Club Gold Cup. Exceptions will only be granted in the case of an unforeseeable emergency, as determined by the dedicated watch security in consultation with veterinarians and the Stewards.
- Horses shall reside in their trainers' current barns and/or at stalls on the grounds, which are subject to monitoring by security personnel.
- No horse entered in the Jockey Club Gold Cup may be treated within 72-hours of the race unless Commission security personnel are present. NYRA or Commission security personnel will monitor all treatments performed by veterinarians.
- No administration of any medication or substance by dose syringe is permitted within 24-hours of a race.
- All syringes and containers for administered medication will be retained by Commission personnel for possible testing.
- Veterinarians shall submit a 72-hour treatment plan for each horse entered in the Jockey Club Gold Cup. Plans were due by noon Aug. 31, 2022.
- Complete veterinary records for 72-hours prior to the Jockey Club Gold Cup shall be submitted to the Commission, which will review and then publicly post the records to its website.
- Entry-exit logs will be maintained by NYRA and Commission security personnel.
- All persons--including veterinarians, trainers, assistant trainers, farriers, owners, or other connections--on entering the stall, engaging in contact with the horse, or performing any service for the horse, must have a valid Commission license on their person.
- Such persons will be logged-in by security personnel, along with the reason for their visit.
- Routine stall and horse maintenance by identified grooms and staff will be monitored but are exempt from logging.
- All equipment, feed, hay bales, etc. are subject to search and seizure by both NYRA and the Commission, as provided by law.
- On race day, no treatments will be permitted for horses entered in any Stakes Race pursuant to NYRA policy, unless it is for an emergency or as approved by the Stewards.

- All horses participating in the Jockey Club Gold Cup must report to the Assembly Barn no less than 45 minutes prior to the designated Post Time.
- On race day, blood samples for TCO2 analysis will be collected from horses in the Assembly Barn between 45 minutes to 1 hour before post time. Horses will then be escorted to the paddock.

OAKLAWN TO OFFER END-OF-SEASON TRAINER BONUS

Trainers who compete at the 2022-2023 meeting at Oaklawn Park will be eligible for thousands of dollars in incentives owing to a new program sponsored by Oaklawn and the Arkansas HBPA.

The 'Stay Until May' bonus will reward trainees with $200-$250 for every non-stakes runner that fails to hit the board. Trainers are required to run at least two horses during the final 14 days of the racing season and one over the course of the last nine programs. According to a release, the total bonus payout could reach as much as three-quarters of a million dollars.

"We've always taken great pride in the fact that Oaklawn has among the largest fields in American racing," Oaklawn Racing Secretary Pat Pope said. "And, while the trainers of the top finishers are richly rewarded, this enables us to also show appreciation to trainers who help make our races go even if their starters finish fourth or further back."

Pope said that the concept, which was first discussed last May by track officials and the HBPA, was unanimously endorsed by the latter's board once finalized. The exact bonus will be $200 for every non-stakes starter that finishes fourth through last from opening day [Dec. 9] through Sunday, Apr. 2. The bonus will then increase to $250 starting Apr. 7 and through the balance of the meet, which concludes May 6.

"The Arkansas HBPA felt there were several reasons to endorse this bonus program, but mainly we wanted to try to help the trainers with the small to mid-sized operations," said HBPA President Bill Walmsley. "The racing industry is a lot healthier with these trainers in business. We're fortunate at Oaklawn to have a healthy purse account, so it seemed like a good time to implement this program and hopefully it will encourage horsemen to stay until the end."

Purses are projected to be a record $50 million during the 2022-2023 season. This would put average purses at more than $735,000 per day. All allowance races will be more than $100,000 and maiden special weights will start at $90,000.

The first condition book and stall applications can be found at <https://www.oaklawn.com/racing/horsemen/>. Stall applications are due Thursday, Oct. 13. The stable area opens Tuesday, Nov. 1 and the track opens for training on Saturday, Nov. 5.

FLIGHTLINE FAVORED IN SECOND BC CLASSIC FUTURE WAGER POOL

'TDN Rising Star' Flightline (Tapit), who puts his unblemished 4-for-4 career mark on the line in Saturday's GI TVG Pacific Classic at Del Mar, has been made the 5-2 favorite for the second and final future wagers on this year's GI Longines Breeders' Cup Classic to be held at Keeneland Saturday, Nov. 5. The Longines Breeders' Cup Classic Future Wager is a $2 minimum and features win betting only.

Second favorite for the Future Wager is Epicenter (Not This Time), who saw his Classic stock rise with a comprehensive victory in last Saturday's GI Runhappy Travers S. at Saratoga. He is available at odds of 7-2 to begin, just ahead of 'Rising Star' and GI Whitney S. hero Life Is Good (Into Mischief) at 4-1.

Click here for the full list of Future Wager horses. With penny breakage in Kentucky, Flightline closed the first pool with a will-pay of $6.98.

CBA TO HOLD 'DEAL OR NO DEAL' EVENT AHEAD OF KEESEP

The Consignors and Commercial Breeders Association Inc. (CBA) will stage their fourth 'Deal or No Deal' event on the eve of the 2022 Keeneland September Sale from 4:30-6 p.m. It will take place at the Paddock Chalet next to the East Gate entrance at Keeneland, just up the hill from the sales pavilion. Keeneland will provide food and drink and live racing will be streamed from Kentucky Downs.

The 'Deal or No Deal' series kicked off last year, first at Fasig-Tipton in July and then again at Keeneland in September. In question-and-answer format, prospective buyers are granted access to industry professionals who share their experiences with veterinary findings in young horses.

Panelists will be asked questions about the impacts of various X-ray findings on performance. The participants include veterinarians Dr. Mark Cheney and Dr. Bob Hunt, European pinhooker Brendan Holland of Grove Stud, 2-year-old in training consignors Niall Brennan and Susan Montanye and trainer Todd Pletcher.

TERF AWARDS EDUCATIONAL GRANTS

The Thoroughbred Education and Research Foundation has awarded $65,000 in grants to nine organizations. In 2022, to fund scholarships and education, $10,000 was awarded to the Belmont Child Care Association, Inc., $5,000 to Amplify Horse Racing, $12,000 to Cornell University College of Veterinary Medicine, $10,000 to the Maryland Horse Foundation, $4,000 to the MidAtlantic Horse Rescue, $5,000 to the Retired Race Horse Project, $4,000 to the TAKE2 Second Career Thoroughbred Program, $10,000 to the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation, and $5,000 to Wilson College.

TERF primarily aims to support students in pursuit of education in Equine Medicine and to fund research efforts which better the life of the Thoroughbred horse. Its grants reflect the values set forth by founders Herb and Ellen Moelis. TERF's current Board includes Co-Chairs Kathleen Anderson DVM and James Orsini DVM, Margaret H. Duprey, Gretchen and Roy Jackson, Ellen and Herb Moelis, Wendy Moon, Anita Motion, Scott Palmer VMD, Josh Pons, Lucy Zungailia, Katelyn Jackson, and Lynn Cassimeris Ph.D.

"We continue to support Thoroughbred health and welfare grants by combining education and research with our vision in making racing safer," said Orsini.

The Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance has chosen 12 winning photos for its second annual calendar photo contest. The photos will be featured in the organization's 2023 calendar. The first-place submission, which is also featured on the cover of the 2023 TAA Calendar, was won by Erin Degnan and her adopted off-track Thoroughbred Cackle the Cuda, courtesy of John Miller, Spectrum Photography. Cackle the Cuda made 43 starts before retiring from racing with a record of 8-11-6 and earnings of

KEEP TO HOST HORSE INDUSTRY ADVOCACY EVENT

The Kentucky Equine Education Project (KEEP) announced that it will host a horse industry advocacy event at Midway University Tuesday, Sept. 6, from 5-7 p.m.

Participants in Kentucky's signature horse industry are invited to attend to learn about legislative issues that can impact their equine business, how to engage in the legislative process, and how to best communicate with lawmakers.

In addition to representatives from KEEP and the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association, speakers include Senate Majority Floor Leader Damon Thayer, Senate Minority Caucus Chair Reggie Thomas and Representative Matt Koch.

Candidates for contested open legislative seats are also invited to provide them with an opportunity to meet with horse industry participants.

Individuals interested in attending the event should RSVP to Brittany Bell at brittany@horseswork.com.

3--Skylar's Sister, 116, f, 2, Bourbon Courage--Ava Again, by Bowman's Band. ($3,800 Wlg '20 EASDEC). O-Louis J. Ulman; B-Anchor & Hope Farm Inc. (MD); T-Dale Capuano. $5,500.

 IT PAYS TO BREED MARYLAND-BREDS

Margins: 5 3/4, 1 3/4, 3/4. Odds: 1.40, 3.70, 11.00.

Also Ran: Tappin Josie, Laramore, You're the One, Cocktail Dreaming, Boss Like Beth, Shell Belle, Titoschangedmyluck. Scratched: Late Frost.

Bound By Destiny remained undefeated with an emphatic score in Delaware's Blue Hen S., a prep for the six furlong $100,000 Small Wonder S. slated for Sept. 28. Both races are part of the Delaware Certified or Bred Thoroughbred Program (DCTP), restricted to horses who spent a minimum of 90 days on a Delaware Certified farm or training facility before Dec. 31 of their yearling year.

A runaway winner in her career bow going five panels against $25,000 maidens July 1, she came up a head on top while stepping up to open company over this track Aug. 10. Favored to keep her perfect record intact this time, she took to the front early, led throughout and drew off with ease to win by a confident margin over Chickieness.

"She had been training great and we could not be happier with the way she has been developing from race to race," said winning trainer Anthony Pecoraro. "She is so smart and such a quick learner. I thought I may had spaced her a little too much between her maiden win and her last race, but it looks like three to four weeks may be better for her."

SCOTISH STAR (Arg) (m, 5, Key Deputy--Scarlatt {Arg} {GSW-Arg}, by Orpen), a G1SW in her native Argentina, debuted in the United States last summer at Del Mar for trainer Richard Mandella with a close second in optional claiming company and a third behind champion female sprinter Ce Ce (Elusiva Quilty) in the Gill Chillingworth S. last October. Transferred east to Todd Pletcher, Scottish Star made her first start Wednesday since that graded effort as the 9-5 favorite. A patient second behind loose leader Nevisian Sunrise (War front), Scottish Star led the rest of the field from second and began to reel in the leader near the quarter pole. Finishing just off the rail, she powered to the front in the final sixteenth and cleared late for the 2 3/4-length win. Nevisian Sunrise held on to round out the exacta. Already a half-sister to a pair of graded stakes winners in Scarpetta (Arg) (Super Saver), MGSW-Arg and Scarlatti (Arg) (Easing Along), GSW-Arg, Scottish Star has an unraced 2-year-old half-brother named Scalabrone (Arg) (Hi Happy {Arg}) still to run. Lifetime Record: G1SW-Arg, GSP-USA, 3-1-1, $112,131. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Closethegame Sugar wins on debut | Sarah Andrew

3rd-Saratoga, $83,000, Msw, 8-31, 2yo, 5 1/2ft, 1:06.44, gd, 1 length.

CLOSETHEGAME SUGAR (g, 2, Girvin--Casual Cocktail, by Magna Graduate), the 3-1 third choice for his career debut, settled into the back half of the field, racing in sixth several paths off the rail up the backstretch. Put to a run passing the quarter pole, Closethegame Sugar rallied five wide turning for home and took over from Three Zero (Kantharos) with a sixteenth to run. Under a steady left-handed ride to the line, he prevailed over Webslinger (Constitution) by a length while 14-1 shot Own the Field (Always Dreaming) was just a neck back in third. Girvin's (by Tale of Ekati) 11th winner, Closethegame Sugar has a yearling half-sister by Upstart and a weanling half-brother by Preservationist. His dam returned to visit Airdrie Stud's Preservationist again for 2023. Sales History: $10,000 Ylg '21 KESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $45,650. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. O/T-Adam Rice; B-Brereton C. Jones (KY).

6th-Presque Isle Downs, $35,250, Msw, 8-31, 2yo, f, 1m (AWT), 1:39.58, ft, nose.

MARVELOUS TIME (f, 2, Distorted Humor--Folk {MSW-UAE, GISP-USA, $376,924}, by Quiet American), dispatched as the 5-2 chalk at first asking, got away mid pack and held her position in fourth up the back straightaway behind pacesetter Girl Afraid (Not This Time).

Tipped four wide around the far turn, Marvelous Time hooked up with a closing Aztec Princess (Sharp Azteca) for a stretch-length duel, just prevailing by a nose on the line. A half-sister to Captivating Lass (A.P. Indy), SW & GSP, $133,225, Marvelous Time hails from the extended family of champion 2-year-old filly Family Style (State Dinner). Her only younger sibling is a yearling half-brother by Sky Mesa. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $21,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. O/B-Godolphin (KY); T-Michael Stidham.

3rd-Horseshoe Indianapolis, $34,000, Msw, 8-31, 2yo, 1m, 1:38.75, ft, 4 lengths.

AMERICAN SPEED (c, 2, More Than Ready--Top Quality {SW & GSP-Can, MSW-USA, $139,704}, by Quality Road), third on debut when sprinting five furlongs Aug. 6, added the blinkers, stretched out to the mile, and broke as the 9-2 third choice for his second career start. Up front early, he showed the way along the way up the backstretch chased intently by Knicks Story (Bernardini) in second. Clear into the far turn, American Speed sped away from the field in upper stretch, widening his advantage in the final furlong and hitting the line four lengths ahead of Knicks Story who was a further 10 1/4 lengths clear of the place horse. Top Quality is responsible for back-to-back foals by Into Mischief, a yearling colt and a weanling filly, and was bred back to Uncle Mo for the 2023 season. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $23,800. Click for the Equibase.com chart. O-WinStar Farm LLC & Siena Farm LLC; B-WinStar Farm, LLC (KY); T-Rodolphe Brisset.

STELLAR GERMAN FAMILIES IN THE SPOTLIGHT AT BBAG

A yearling parades by the Gestut Fahrhof consignment | Emma Berry

By Emma Berry

BADEN-BADEN, Germany--There has been much for German racing and breeding to celebrate since its premier yearling sale of 12 months ago. That same weekend, Torquator Tasso (Ger), a graduate of the 2018 sale, landed the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden just across the road from the auction house before going on to his memorable victory in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. A reminder, if one were needed, that German bloodlines can mix it with the very best in the world, as also exemplified recently by the GI Beverly D S. victrix Dalika (Ger) (Pastorius {Ger}).

Baden-Baden's 'Grosse Woche', which includes four days of racing action in Iffezheim, is in full swing again and culminates on Sunday with a repeat appearance from Torquator Tasso in the meeting's big race, in which he will take on this year's G1 German Derby winner Sammarco (Ire) (Camelot {GB}). The week is going well for Paul Vandenberg, who bred not only Torquator Tasso but his half-brother Tünnes (Ger) (Guiliani {Ger}). The latter was the one-time 2022 German Derby favourite who missed the early part of his Classic season through injury but bounced back in style with his easy victory in the Preis der BBAG Auktionsrennen on Wednesday afternoon. 'IT'S BEEN AN INCREDIBLE YEAR' - COOLMORE LAUD NO NAY NEVER

By Brian Sheerin

We've all seen that video; it was in the month of March when Aidan O'Brien opened the gates at Ballydoyle to the Irish press and, tasked with naming his best 2-year-old by Brendan O'Rourke, the champion trainer did not hold back in his praise for Little Big Bear (Ire).

After nominating Little Big Bear as being top of the class, O'Brien also advised O'Rourke, a renowned Irish racing commentator, to double his stake from a fiver to a tenner on the colt winning his maiden on debut at the Curragh the following weekend.

Although Little Big Bear found one too good on that occasion, all has since been forgiven in the O'Rourke household, with the colt winning each of his next four starts, including a seven-length tonking of his G1 Phoenix S. rivals at the Curragh last month.

Vandeberg has decided to keep hold of the yearling full-brother to the Arc winner, a colt made that bit more precious by the sad demise of his sire Adlerflug (Ger) in April 2021, but this year's Derby-winning breeder Helmut von Finck is offering the half-brother to Sammarco on Friday. The colt by the veteran of the German stallion ranks, Areion (Ger), features as lot 157. His dam Saloon Sold (Ger), by von Finck's hugely successful stallion Soldier Hollow (GB), won at two and three and earned listed black type before hitting the bullseye in producing a Classic winner as her first foal. Sammarco has also gone on to win the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis over 10 furlongs against his elders since his Derby triumph.

"Winning the Derby with Sammarco was very special," said von Finck at BBAG on Wednesday. "The auction company wanted to have his brother here but he is a late foal, born in May, and Areion is not such a commercial stallion so we do not expect a big price. If we cannot sell him we will keep him to race. We will see how the market is. Sammarco came here two years ago and people thought he was small but he wasn't too small to win the Derby."

Gestut Park Wiedingen's draft of four homebreds also includes lot 39, a colt by Sea The Moon (Ger) who is a grandson of von Finck's Preis der Diana (German Oaks) winner Flamingo Road (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}), as well as the first foal of champion 2-year-old Whispering Angel (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}). The filly is by the late Mastercraftsman (Ire) and is catalogued as lot

"We have four very good horses," von Finck continued. "A Sea The Moon from one of my favourite families of Flamingo Road, then we have a Soldier Hollow filly from Elvira (Ger), who is from a very good Rottgen family, and of course Soldier Hollow fillies are very interesting at the moment."

He added, "I would like to think about involving partners or a syndicate in the future but no-one has spoken to me about this project. That's maybe the way we will go. I love my horses and I stand behind them."

With Sammarco aiming for a third consecutive Group 1 victory on Sunday in the Grosser Preis, von Finck said he remains calm despite the big occasion.

"Obviously everything has to go well but he is in good shape and he is supposed to run, that's what he was bred to do," he said. "Of course Torquator Tasso will be hard to beat but I would be happy with second or third."

Von Finck is also the breeder of Group 3 winner and Derby runner-up Destino (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}), who recently started his stud career at Gestut Westerberg and has his first yearlings for sale this year. His duo in the BBAG catalogue are both consigned by Peter and Aline Rodde's Gestut Westerberg, a pair of athletic colts who will sell at each end of the sale as lots 12 and 213.

Peter Rodde, overseeing his draft as the early viewers got to work, divulged that Destino, who is the only son of the 22-year-old Soldier Hollow at stud in Germany, had covered 27 mares in his first crop.

Another first-crop stallion very much aligned with Germany but with connections in Britain and Ireland is the Ballylinch Stud resident Waldgeist (GB), who is well-represented at BBAG, not least in the drafts of his co-breeders Gestut Ammerland and Gestut Fahrhof, the latter under the Jacobs family's former ownership of Newsells Park Stud, where the Arc winner was bred.

Waldgeist's nine yearlings in Baden-Baden include four of a five-strong draft from Ammerland, which recently enjoyed a terrific sale at Arqana in Deauville, selling six yearlings for a total of €2,375,000. Among its offerings here, lot 133 is a Waldgeist half-brother to the aforementioned Dalika, whose Grade I strike almost three weeks ago provided an important late update for the colt. There could yet be more to come from the Albert Stall-trained mare, who is now being primed for the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf.

A welcome burst of rain appeared overnight in Baden-Baden, bringing the temperature down to a reasonable working level as agents from overseas started to drift into the sales ground on Wednesday morning. Action abated for a while as racing got underway next door, with an update for lot 151, Haras de l'Hotellerie's filly by Bated Breath (GB), provided by her half-sister Noble Heidi (Fr) (Intello {Ger}), who was the easy winner of the Coolmore-sponsored Listed Baden-Baden Cup. Now four, the daughter of the Orpen mare Noble Pensee (Fr), already had bold black type to her name as the winner of the G3 Preis der Winterkonigin as a 2-year-old.

Germany's largest commercial stud, Gestut Fahrhof, perhaps understandably boasts the most international list of sires when it comes to the yearlings offered. Among its draft of 17 is the only colt by Frankel (GB) in the sale, lot 58 being a three-parts-brother to the G1 Premio Roma winner Potemkin (Ger) (New Approach {GB}). The Fahrhof consignment also contains first-crop fillies by Too Darn Hot (GB) and Study Of Man (Ire), as well as a colt by Kingman (GB) out of the listed winner Sarandia (Ger) (Dansili {GB}). Kingman has already done the Fahrhof team quite a favour in providing 'TDN Rising Star' Habana (Ger), who was another facile winner on the rain-softened ground at Baden-Baden as the 2-year-old filly posted a Group 3 victory in the stud's distinctive black and yellow silks in Wednesday's feature race, the Renate und Ulbrecht Woeste Zukunfts-Rennen.

For breeders and consignors at BBAG, it was important to keep an eye on both the racecourse and the sales grounds during the initial day of showing, but for the next two days the focus will be solely on selling this year's crop of yearlings, with the sale set to start at 10 a.m. on Friday. We've seen some vibrant trade at BBAG in recent years, including a record-breaking top lot of €820,000 in 2019, which was equalled 12 months later even in the midst of a pandemic. It seems reasonable to expect another strong session on Friday, especially while German-breds continue to advertise the strength of the brand on a worldwide stage.

Little Big Bear may well be the poster boy for the Ballydoyle-trained juveniles this season, but Blackbeard (Ire), Aesop's Fables (Ire) and Meditate (Ire) have all confirmed themselves as top-notch prospects for one of the most powerful stables in the world.

And what do they all have in common apart from the fact that they are all trained by the master of Ballydoyle? That they are also by the sire of the moment, No Nay Never.

Coolmore's Mark Byrne said, "I had to laugh, that video resurfaced on Twitter again. 'What's his name, Chris [Armstrong, O'Brien's racing secretary at Ballydoyle]?' 'Little Big Bear, Aidan.'"

"I don't think anyone could have imagined what would have happened after that. It's been an incredible year for No Nay Never. He has the ante-post favourite for the 1000 and 2000 Guineas already."

An incredible year, indeed. Little Big Bear is likely to miss the G1 National S. at the Curragh on Irish Champions Weekend, but the hope is that he will run again this season, while fellow Group 1 winner Blackbeard, successful in the Prix Morny at Deauville when last seen, will continue to fly the flag for the stable and the stallion.

Byrne said, "Hopefully we'll see Little Big Bear back by the end of the year, Aesop's Fables could be anything, Blackbeard won the Prix Morny just like his father and his great grandfather [Johannesburg] and then you have Meditate as well. And they are just the Ballydoyle-trained No Nay Nevers I am talking about." Cont. p5

No Nay Never | Coolmore

“It is an incredible feat for No Nay Never. He got off to a great start with Ten Sovereigns (Ire) and Alcohol Free (Ire), who is still running at the top level, but it's been a pleasure to see the standard of the mare that he has covered on the rise season after season. It's incredible to think that there could be even better to come.”

He added, “No Nay Never has sired the winner of 12 2-year-old stakes races in Europe already this season. That's remarkable. He's also sired [the winners of] both of the Group 1 2-year-old races in Europe this season as well. It's hard to knock him from any angle, really.

“Everyone is looking ahead towards the last Group 1 races of the Flat season for 2-year-olds and then all roads lead to the Guineas. It's conceivable that he could have two or three of ante-post favourites for the 2000 Guineas and possibly likewise for the 1000 Guineas by the end of the season.”

If there is one question mark hovering over No Nay Never, it may be whether or not his brilliant batch of 2-year-olds will stay the Guineas trip next term. However, Byrne thinks Little Big Bear and Aesop's Fables have emphatically enhanced their claims for Classic glory with their respective performances this season.

He said, “When Little Big Bear won the Phoenix S., there were three of them in a line a furlong and a half from home, and he went on to win by seven lengths. How could you say that he wouldn't get the mile on that performance?”

“Aesop's Fables returned from 119 days off the track to win the G2 Futurity S. at the Curragh and he only really got going inside the last couple of furlongs that day. I'd have no doubt that they'd get at least a mile and there's still some lovely types out of Galileo (Ire) mares that we have here [at Coolmore] that will definitely get the mile and beyond in time. I have no fear about that whatsoever. As well as that, Meditate was doing her best work late on to win the Debutante quite comfortably, so it's a hugely exciting time.”

It's not just No Nay Never that everyone in Coolmore is thankful for. On that Scat Daddy line, Justify has emerged as a force to be reckoned with and Byrne thinks that the US Triple Crown winner can develop into a top-class stallion in his own right.

He said, “He has got off to a mind-bogglingly good start at stud. It might sound crazy, but you could compare him to Gun Runner in America, even at this very early stage. He actually has four stakes winners in America already, which is more than Gun Runner had at the same stage of his stud career, and interestingly, of those four stakes winners, two have been on turf and the other two on dirt, so he has versatility as well.

“To think that Justify has achieved all that he has already and he didn't even hit the track at two himself, he could be one of the most exciting young sires in America. That whole Scat Daddy sire line is really taking off—you've got Mendelssohn, who has had a ‘TDN Rising Star’ already, and it goes right down to Sioux Nation, who has two group winners and 28 individual winners already.

“We've also got Caravaggio in America, but he also has some very good crops in Europe, including Tenebrism, a Group 1 winner at two and three. There is also Maljoom (Ire) to look forward to and few would bet against him finishing the season as the best 3-year-old miler in Europe. I know that is a big statement to make but he looked unlucky in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot and the form of that race is looking stronger and stronger.” Cont. p6

And that’s just the start of the Scat Daddy pipeline that Coolmore has been mining with great success in recent seasons. Those taps are in full flow now, with progeny of Ten Sovereigns going down well at the August Sale at Arqana and the Premier Yearling Sale at Doncaster, which bodes well for the future.

“It’s very early days at the yearling sales but the progeny of Ten Sovereigns have been extremely well-received. When you go to Book 1 and Book 2 at Tattersalls and the Orby Sale at Goffs, that’s when you’ll really see a different type of yearling coming along. The demand for these horses is just going up and up.

“Then we also have Arizona, who has his first foals on the ground, and in a couple of years’ time, hopefully we will have Little Big Bears and Blackbeards as well. It’s a line that keeps getting stronger and stronger.”

ODELL SKILFULLY CAPTURES LIFE BLOOD OF RACING By Emma Berry

It could be a little daunting for a modern-day artist to follow Sir Alfred Munnings in the exhibition space of Newmarket’s National Horseracing Museum.

Munnings is an iconic name in the sporting art world, and many of his best known images of racehorses at the start were created from his makeshift studio in an old rubbing house on Newmarket Heath which exists to this day. He lived and breathed his subject, but so too does the photographer Jayne Odell FRPS, whose striking black and white images are exhibited in the museum until Dec. 4.

Odell, one of just 600 Fellows of the Royal Photographic Society, lives in the centre of Newmarket, her home backing on to one of its most historic yards. This prompted a five-year project devoted to studying the beating heart of the town, which is the everyday training of thoroughbreds.

“I moved here and I got hooked on it,” she says. “Seeing the horses out in the morning and the whole rhythm of the town.

“I realised we were behind Charlie Fellowes’s old yard. We started to hear the sounds of the yard and I got a bit intrigued and then started going out to take pictures and gradually built up a body of work. The love grew and then the opportunities seemed to grow from that.”

Love is a theme which runs through the substantial monochromatic exhibition, from the photographer’s own eye for a subject she clearly finds absorbing, to the day-to-day interactions between the horses and those charged with their care, and the extraordinary attention to detail that goes into the routine of every stable yard.

“Look at pride in their work,” Odell exclaims as she guides TDN through the exhibition. “I love the things that go on in the background behind the racing itself—the farriery, the valets, saddle makers and all the traditions and crafts that are involved behind the scenes. I wanted it to be a fly-on-the-wall snapshot of life behind the world of horseracing, behind the glamour of race days.”

Her work certainly conveys not just the bond between man and horse, but also the camaraderie of the stable staff. And it acts as an important social history of the town that provides the fabric on which so much of the heritage and tradition of horseracing has been woven. In essence, not that much has changed since the days that the court of King Charles II set up a sporting home away from home in Palace House, just across the road from where these images are on display. Horses are still the lifeblood of Newmarket and much of the town’s business now hinges on the breeding and racing of these finest of creatures. Cont. p7

Indeed, one of the most striking images is that of former trainer James Eustace, keeping an eye on his string on a bitter winter's morning, his breath backlit by the rising sun. It is an almost timeless image, but in those 400 years since the royal patronage of Newmarket began, so much has of course changed. And in many ways it has changed slowly. Khadijah Mellah, the first British Muslim woman to ride a winner, is also the subject of one of the portraits at Fellowes's stable, and while her victory at Goodwood was considered a breakthrough moment because of her ethnicity, it was only as recently as 1972 that any women were allowed to ride in a race in Britain.

"It's a body of work that I'm still going to expand on and look at from slightly different angles, but I hope it will be a legacy for the town, really," Odell explains. "Because we do want to see, in future generations, pictures of how things are now. With social media and things like that, it's a very transient, and it's current today, but tomorrow it's old hat. But images that stand the test of time and that record that moment in time, I think are really important."

Apart from the glorious Heath itself, nothing has stood the test of time in Newmarket quite like its equine inhabitants, who of course play a vital role in Odell's collection which has a section devoted to the four seasons.

Brand New Day | Jayne Odell FRPS

"The horses are the timekeepers of the town," she says. "So I wanted to depict the whole year, almost like a film strip of different conditions from winter through to spring, summer, and then autumn, and the fact that the horses are training all day, every day, all weathers, all conditions."

Officially titled Time and Motion: Capturing the Lifeblood of a Racing Yard, the exhibition will continue at the National Horseracing Museum throughout the sales and racing season in Newmarket until early December and, within easy walking distance of Tattersalls, it is recommended to all visitors to the town this autumn.

HABANA STARS AT BADEN-BADEN

by Tom Frary

Labelled a TDN Rising Star following her emphatic winning debut over 6 1/2 furlongs at Cologne July 10, Gestut Fahrhof's homebred Habana (Ger) (Kingman {GB}) justified all the hype with an impressive follow-up in Wednesday's G3 149th Renate & Albrecht Woeste Zukunfts-Rennen at Baden-Baden. Held up in last early by a confident Eduardo Pedroza, the Andreas Wohler-trained 8-5 favourite was unleashed turning for home and her sustained effort saw her take command passing the furlong pole en route to a two-length success from See Paris (Ger) (Counterattack {Aus}).

Pedigree Notes

Habana, who holds an entry in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac, becomes the 50th stakes winner for her sire and is the second foal out of the G3 Premio Primi Passi heroine Hargeisa (Speightstown), whose dam is the Omnibus S. winner Hasay (GB) (Lomitas {GB}) who is in turn out of the Listed Criterium du Fonds Europeen de l'Elevage winner and GIII Matchmaker S. runner-up Saralea (Fr) (Sillery). From the family of the Hong Kong Gold Cup hero Deauville (Fr) (Groom Dancer), Hargeisa also has the promising 3-year-old colt by Frankel (GB) named Huancayo (Ger) and a filly foal by Pinatubo (Ire).

INTERNATIONAL TRADE TO THE FORE AT TATTERSALLS AUGUST SALE

Operating: the sales-topper at the August Sale | Tattersalls

The Tattersalls August Sale may be one of the newest horses-in-training sales on the circuit, but it posted rock-solid results with the global demand for horses at all levels evident during Wednesday's trade.

A total of 217 horses sold at an aggregate of 5,267,300gns and an average of 24,273gns. The median was 14,000gns and the top price paid was 250,000gns for Operating (War Front) (lot 299). The 3-year-old colt is a full-brother to G3 Round Tower S. hero Intelligence Cross, the Irish/Hong Kong listed winner Warning Flag (Sweet Orange in Hong Kong), who was third in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup, and a half-brother to the Grade III-stakes placed Bay Of Biscay (Giant's Causeway).

The Castlebridge Consignment were not only responsible for that top lot, who was sold to Najd Stud, but it also drafted Mr McCann (Ire) (Kodiak {GB}) (lot 305), who fetched the second-highest price on the day, 210,000gns to SackvilleDonald. Fourth in both the G2 Superlative S. and the G2 German 2000 Guineas, the colt is a four-time winner and is rated 101.

Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony commented, "We saw records broken across the board at the recent Tattersalls July Sale and it has been encouraging to see the Tattersalls August Sale follow on in similar fashion.

"This is only the third renewal of the August Sale and very much the smallest catalogue for this new fixture, but the level of trade has demonstrated the sustained global demand for horses in training at all levels of the market and the extraordinary ability of sales of this nature at Tattersalls to attract buyers from throughout the world with such consistency."

He added, "Domestic British and Irish buyers have been competing strongly throughout the day and the diverse international participation has as ever made a huge contribution to a successful sale.

"The customary strong contingent from the Gulf region has been active from start to finish and the Gulf buyers have faced stiff competition from all corners of the world including Australia, Hong Kong, India and the USA, all of which is a source of encouragement as we turn our attention to the Tattersalls yearling sales season which starts with the Somerville Yearling Sale on Tuesday, 6 September."

VERRY ELLEEGANT TO RETURN ON ARC TRIALS DAY

Crack Australasian mare Verry Elleegant (NZ) (Zed {NZ}) will return to the racecourse on Arc trials weekend in either the G1 Prix Vermeille or the G2 Prix Foy on Sept. 11, trainer Francis-Henri Graffard revealed. The dark bay was last of seven in her first Northern Hemisphere run, the G1 Prix Jean Romanet, earlier this month. Depending on how the 11-time Group 1 winner performs in September in those 1 1/2-mile races will determine if she will step out in the Oct. 2 G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe.

"She has come on a lot from the race," Graffard said. "She will run next weekend at Longchamp, either in the Prix Vermeille or the Prix Foy. She will come on a lot, she will be better over an extra two furlongs and on softer ground."

Verry Elleegant | Scoop Dyga

Originally announced as her reason for traveling to the Northern Hemisphere, the Arc is not among Verry Elleegant's entries at present. If connections do opt for the ParisLongchamp showpiece, she would need to be supplemented on Sept. 28.

The trainer added, "We will run next weekend and then we will see what to do."

AMO RACING LOSE NORFOLK APPEAL

Amo Racing's appeal against the victory of The Ridler (GB) (Brazen Beau {Aus}) in the G2 Norfolk S. at Royal Ascot has been dismissed, despite the fact that Paul Hanagan's ride aboard the winner was described by the disciplinary panel as being "poor, reprehensible and self-evidently culpable".

The Ridler, trained by Richard Fahey, caused interference to Crispy Cat (GB) (Ardad {Ire}) and Brave Nation (Ire) (Sioux Nation), who finished third and fourth in that order for owners Amo Racing and Brian Goodyear, respectively. Amo Racing's Walbank (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) ran second and was unimpeded by the winner's erratic passage.

The stewards on the day suspended Hanagan for 10 days for careless riding in the Norfolk, however, the appeals panel rejected the case presented to them by Amo's Kia Joorabchian. Amo argued that The Ridler should be disqualified or demoted for causing interference to the placed horses.

The written reasons that accompanied the decision said, "Mr. Hanagan's riding performance in the race was poor, reprehensible and self-evidently culpable.

"His inattention and misjudgement were not defensible. He is a jockey of huge experience [with approaching 17,000 rides and 2,200 winners behind him] and should have done much better.

"It was a bad, high-level instance of careless riding and he entirely deserved a suspension of real substance.

"An essential point to emphasise, however, is that at the end of the day we do conclude that what happened did properly fall into the category of careless riding; and not just simply because, under the regulations in this country, it is probable that no other categorisation is in fact possible.

"In the panel's view the prospect of Crispy Cat having won, absent the interference, was slim in all the circumstances to which we have referred.

"That said, we have in any event in the course of explaining our rationale expressed our view as to the ease with which The Ridler won the race."

PRIZE-MONEY INCREASED TO €300K FOR HARAS DE BOUQUETOT CRITERIUM ARQANA

The Haras de Bouquetot-Criterium Arqana has had its purse increased to €300,000 from €280,000 thanks to the 303 colts and fillies entered at the latest entry stage. The 1600-metre race is part of the Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe weekend, and will be held on Oct. 1, the day before the Arc. Prize-money will be distributed down to eighth place as follows:

- 1st place: €150,000
- 2nd place: €78,000
- 3rd place: €42,000
- 4th place: €18,000
- From 5th to 8th place: €3,000

Declarations will take place on Sept. 29 at a cost of €500 per horse, and there will be a free forfeit stage with France Galop on Tuesday, Sept. 27.

Arqana President Eric Hoyer said, "The Criterium has been a very popular format since its inception and this year's strong entries are testament to that. We are delighted to be able to increase the overall prize-money to €300,000. We look forward to meeting again at ParisLongchamp next October and to expanding this feature from 2023 with the launch of the Arqana Series."

RICH MAN POOR MAN CROWNED AT THE JOCKEY CLUB ROR NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

After five days of competition, Rich Man Poor Man (Ire) (Robin Des Champs {Fr}) was crowned the 2022 Supreme Champion at

The Jockey Club RoR National Championships at the Aintree International Equestrian Centre on Saturday, Aug. 27. Ridden by Kristine Douglas, the former Philip Kirby trainee has blossomed since leaving the racecourse. Runner-up and Reserve Champion was last year's winner, Minella Rebellion (Ire) (King's Theatre {Ire}), with Katie Dashwood aboard.

A total of 280 former racehorses were entered to compete at Aintree over the five days in classes for dressage, arena eventing, show jumping and showing at Europe's largest event exclusively for retrained racehorses. Other showing class winners included Thistlecrack (GB) (Kayf Tara {GB}), Limato (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}), and American (Fr) (Malinas {Ger}), while Goldream (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) was runner-up in a dressage class. The Queen's horse, First Receiver (GB) (New Approach {Ire}), won the Tattersalls RoR Novice Showing Series Championship final.

Di Arbuthnot, RoR Chief Executive, said, "The Jockey Club RoR National Championships is a very special event with an atmosphere like no other. It was also notable this year how many fabulous looking older horses we had competing, not least the 20-year-old winner of the Elite Performance Award for dressage, My Diss Sire (GB) (Vettori {Ire}). Our thanks again to The Jockey Club and Aintree for their support and we are already looking forward to next year."

ITM TO SPONSOR DANISH OAKS

The 2022 Danish Oaks will be sponsored by Irish Thoroughbred Marketing in partnership with Klampenborg Galopbane. Held on Sept. 4, 2022, the ITM Danish Oaks is one of the flagship races on the Scandinavian calendar. A €2,000 voucher for the Irish sales will be awarded to the winning owners of the fillies' Classic at Klampenborg on Sunday.

Alex Cairns, ITM Scandinavian Representative, said, "ITM are thrilled to expand our sponsorship portfolio in Scandinavia to include such a prestigious race as the Danish Oaks. We have fostered close relations with our Scandinavian friends and are always delighted to welcome them to Ireland for sales and other visits. By partnering with Klampenborg Galopbane we hope to consolidate our Scandinavian connection and assist more Scandinavian racing professionals in sourcing their success on Irish shores."

INAUGURAL BARNEY CURLEY CHARITY CUP TO BE HELD AT BELLEWSTOWN

The first edition of the Barney Curley Charity Cup will take place at Bellewstown Racecourse on Wednesday, Sept. 28. This event follows on from the Barney Curley race day at the course last September that raised over €100,000 for the late Curley's charity Direct Aid For Africa (DAFA). Jockey Frankie Dettori and trainer Willie Mullins have been named captains of two teams of seven riders that will go head-to-head over two races. The event is sponsored by Gannon City Recovery & Recycling Services Limited and The Gallagher Group. Points will be awarded to the first eight placed horses on a scale of 15, 12, 10, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4 and the team that accumulates the highest number of points across the two races in the challenge will be deemed the winner of the Barney Curley Charity Cup. WENNEMAR (GER) (c, 3, Soldier Hollow {GB}--Winterkonigin {Ger}, by Sternkoenig {Ire}), off the mark on debut over 12 furlongs at Clairefontaine Aug. 3, was eased to the front after the initial yards and set a moderate pace. Under pressure against the rail as the sprint began in the straight, the 2-1 favourite was headed for a while but found his way back to the lead inside the final furlong and clung to score by a short from the dead-heating fillies Courtesy Call (Fr) (The Grey Gatsby {Ire}) and La Fille Du Sud (Ire) (The Gurkha {Ire}) in a six-horse blanket finish. The dam, who also produced the dual listed winner and G1 Preis von Europa runner-up Walsingham (Ger) (Campanologist), has a yearling colt and filly foal by Lord Of England (Ger) to come. The family features the group 3 scorers Wins Fiction (Ger) (Platini {Ger}) and Wild Romance (Ger) (Alkalde {Ger}), with the latter proving herself a high-class producer in her own right. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, €25,000.

CALISTOGA (GB) (f, 2, Sea The Stars {Ire}--Calipatria {GB} {GSW-Ger, $117,292}, by Shamardal), only ninth on her racecourse bow in the 7 1/2-furlong Deauville maiden won by TDN Rising Star Kelina (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) Aug. 6, raced worse than mid-division early trapped wide. Making hard work of getting into contention in the straight, the 27-10 favourite finally engaged close home to reel in Garpur (Fr) (Gleneagles {Ire}) and prevail by a head. The dam, who captured the G3 Herbst Stutenpreis, is the leading performer produced by the G2 Mill Reef S. winner and G1 Irish 1000 Guineas runner-up Golden Silca (GB) (Inchiner {GB}) who is in turn a full-sister to the G1 Prix Morny heroine Silca's Sister (GB). Also connected to the G3 Hackwood S. and G3 Dick Poole S. winner Happy Romance (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}), Calipatria was bought by B K Bloodstock for 17,000gns at last year's Tattersalls December Mares Sale. Her yearling colt by Golden Horn (GB) is in the upcoming Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 3, while she also has a colt foal by Land Force (Ire). Noble Heidi and Bauyrzhan Murzabayev winning the Listed Coolmore Baden-Baden Cup. Her yearling half-sister by Bated Breath (GB) is lot 151 in the BBAG Yearling Sale on Friday. | Emma Berry

Having mastered the top fillies Novemba (Ger) (Gleneagles (Ire)) and Amazing Grace (Ger) (Protectionist {Ger}) in the 2020

G3 Preis der Winterkonigin here, the former Henk Grewe-trained Noble Heidi was runner-up to the latter in Hoppegarten's G2 Diana Trial last May and third in Dusseldorf's G1 Preis der Diana in August which was the last sighting of her. Staging a dynamic comeback for the Peter Schiergen stable, the bay turned in a dominant display to suggest she could play a hand in the some big autumn events. Compliant in rear early for Bauyrzhan Murzabayev, she tanked through the contest and when the question was asked turning for home the response was generous as she took command inside the final 300 metres.

Noble Heidi's dam, who is also responsible for the Listed Prix de Thiberville runner-up Noble Star (Fr) (Zarak (Fr)), is kin to the G3 Kolner Herbst-Stuten-Meile winner Turning Light (Ger) (Fantastic Light) and the Listed Radley S. runner-up Oxsana (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), with the former also being the dam of the La Puente S. winner and G3 Tattersall S. runner-up Surrey Star (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). The second dam is the G2 German 1000 Guineas-placed Turning Leaf (Ire) (Last Tycoon {Ire}) from the family of the G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten-winning sire Tai Chi (Ger) (High Chaparral {Ire}) and the G3 Prix Daphnis winner Thorin (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}). Her yearling filly by Bated Breath (GB) sells as lot 151 in Friday's session of the BBAG Yearling Sale.

TUNNES (GER) (c, 3, Guiliani {Ire})--Tijuana {Ger}, by Toysome {GB}), a half-brother to the internationally-renowned G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, G1 Grosser Preis von Baden and G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin hero Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}), had been off the track since winning the G3 Herzog von Ratibor-Rennen at Krefeld in November but was nevertheless confidently-backed into 9-10 favouritism for this Preis der BBAG-Jährlingsauktion. Full of running throughout the early stages in a share of third, the chestnut was moved forward to the stand's rail to take control inside the final two furlongs and stayed on powerfully to score by six lengths from Lobelie (GB) (Adlerflug {Ger}). The dam is a half-sister to four black-type performers headed by the G2 Diana-Trial winner Tusked Wings (Ire) by Torquator Tasso's sire from the family of another Arc winner in the stellar producer Urban Sea (Miswaki). Tijuana's unraced 2-year-old full-sister to Torquator Tasso is named Tiara Hilleshage (Ger), while she also has a yearling colt by Adlerflug named Tiamo Hilleshage (Ger) and a foal full-sister to Tunnes. Sales history: €38,000 Ylg '20 BBASEP. Lifetime Record: GSW-Ger, 4-3-1-0, €58,570.

LOOK AT ME (FR) (f, 2, Pastorius {Ger}--Lomitas Dream {GB}, by Lomitas {GB}), the outsider of the three-runner field at 7-2, shadowed the leader Tashker (Ger) (Counterattack {Aus}) throughout the early stages. Worrying that rival out of it approaching the furlong pole, the bay asserted to score by 2 1/2 lengths. The dam, who has also produced Look At Me's listed-winning full-brother Lord Loeso (Ger), is kin to the G2 Oaks d'Italia runner-up Wadaat (GB) (Diktat {GB}) from the family of the G2 Premio Emilio Turati scorer Walzerkoenigin (Kingmambo) and her G1 Deutsches Derby-winning son Wiener Walzer (Ger) (Dynaformer). Lomitas Dream's colt foal is also by Pastorius. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €6,000.
