Tennessee State University

It's one thing to GIVE. It's something completely different to actually see the tangible results of your collective support. As I walk the campuses of Tennessee State University, I get to experience GIFTS IN ACTION through the innovative teaching and learning happening all around.

This is why your support of the TSU Foundation is so important. In the Foundation, OUR INDIVIDUAL GIFTS JOIN FORCES to address the compelling vision and needs of the University. When we donate, we collectively speak truth to the power of giving — MY GIFT + YOUR GIFT = OUR IMPACT.

Thank you for all you do for TSU!

CONSISTENT DONORS HELP TO DEFINE THE FUTURE OF TSU

Justice Curtis Collier, Class of 1971

In the world of alumni giving, the Tennessee State University Foundation counts on two types of gifts: the larger and often one-time major gifts and endowments that make headlines, and the consistent gifts coming from repeat donors every year. Though the amounts can differ widely, both are equally essential to keeping TSU viable in the decades to come.

How is it possible that a $100 gift works just as hard as an endowment to ensure the future of TSU? The answer is simple: there's power in numbers.

"I'm a firm believer that we can do more organized than we can as individuals," said the Honorable Curtis Collier, Senior United States District Judge for the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee and a 1971 TSU graduate. "If just 10 alumni pledge to give $100, we've raised $1,000, and that amount might mean the difference between a student staying in school or not."

Collier knows this from experience. "I grew up in very poor circumstances in the rural segregated South," he said. "My first year at TSU was a tremendous financial struggle. My scholarship changed the course of my life by allowing me to finish my education. Times have changed, but there are lots of kids in my situation today who have so much potential but lack the financial means."

Collier first started giving regularly to TSU not because he had money to spare, but because he knew he had a responsibility to give back.

"It would be great if I could make one donation that would solve all the university's problems, but that isn't how it works. If you want to make a difference, you have to do it consistently over time. We all have to pitch in, over and over again, to keep TSU viable for the future the way it was viable for us."

Homer Wheaton, Class of 1948

Homer Wheaton, another longtime consistent donor, has a unique relationship to alumni giving. As the former Associate Vice President for University Relations and Development for decades at TSU, he dedicated his career to helping students connect with financial assistance. "It's a privilege to be able to give and to know that your contribution is truly changing a life," he says. "Regular gifts make those scholarships possible at TSU. As alumni, we all have a responsibility to give people the same opportunities we had."

A NEW GENERATION OF GIVING

Like Collier, Wheaton and most of today's TSU students, recent graduate Brandon Foley also needed scholarships to help ease the financial burden of tuition. Today, he's part of a small but essential group of dependable repeat donors.

Foley donates to TSU every month by automatic bank draft, a practice he adopted almost immediately after graduation. "(The late) Dr. Damon Lee's original endowment started a ripple effect that touched me, even though he graduated in the 1930s and I graduated in 2008," Foley said. "It's my responsibility to keep that going."

"People think you have to be older, or more established in your career before you start donating to your school," he added. "But that's just not true. As alumni, we're all indebted to TSU, which means we're all in a position to give back. You just have to do it."

IT'S NOT HOW MUCH. IT'S HOW MANY.

"Relying on large, sporadic gifts is essentially leaving our support up to chance," said Dwayne Tucker, president of the TSU Foundation Board of Trustees. "Our future depends on widespread participation. If every alumnus in our database gave just $50 every year, we would far surpass the revenue we count on from our major donors. But that can only happen if people recognize that the act of giving is sometimes even more significant than the gift itself."

Brandon Foley, Class of 2008

THE BUSINESS OF GIVING

Beyond the life-changing impact of a scholarship, consistent alumni giving impacts the TSU Foundation's operations in significant ways you might not expect:

CREATES A RELIABLE REVENUE STREAM

Consistent giving helps TSU plan and manage our resources better in the long term. Together, major and annual gifts build a strong and steady donor base. These gifts create a solid foundation and a deeper resource for a more secure future.

PROTECTS AGAINST FUNDING CUTS

TSU feels the impact of reduced funding at the state and federal levels," Tucker said. "We're in an environment where we must rely more than ever on our alumni community to fill those gaps, so that students who want to get a college education have the financial support needed in order to fulfill their dreams."

Dwayne Tucker, Class of 1980
Chair, Board of Trustees

PAVES THE WAY FOR MAJOR GIFTS

"A consistent level of giving helps dramatically with our ability to raise large sums of money," Tucker said. "When large corporations and foundations look at us, one of the first things they look at isn't how much our graduates give, but whether or not our collective alumni base supports the university. The stronger the alumni participation rates, the more likely major donors are to get on board."

HELPS GROW YESTERDAY'S GIFTS

Regular donations are financially significant to the university simply because they grow compound returns on every dollar we've raised. "Every gift helps the foundation and our assets to grow as a result," said Tucker.

Vera P. Merritt, a retired teacher and former scholarship recipient, has donated regularly to TSU for more than 35 years. She understands how consistent giving directly meets the students' ongoing needs. "Kids go to school every day," she said. "Not just when people decide to give a bunch of money in a certain year. They aren't waiting for me to decide this is the right year to make a 'horse and pony show' gift. They need me now."

THE BEST TIME TO START IS NOW.

When I talk to people about giving back, I often encourage them to start out giving $15 or $20 a month," said Eloise Abernathy Alexis, associate vice president for Institutional Advancement. "I explain that when we say 'every gift matters,' we mean it. There are so many easy opportunities to participate, at all levels. Just getting involved as you are able today makes a bigger impact than waiting until you feel like you've collected 'enough' to make a significant gift later on."

From regular bank drafts, reunion and memorial gifts to annual fundraisers and other organized efforts, consistent donations are the lifeblood of TSU. Our small group of dedicated, passionate repeat donors currently shoulders the giving responsibilities of tens of thousands of alumni across the country; just imagine what would happen if we all gave back consistently. That's why we say "My Gift + Your Gift = Our Impact." Together, we can form a stronger backbone for TSU, today and for generations to come.

Vera P. Merritt, Class of 1956

“SCHOLARSHIP GIVING IS ALWAYS PERSONAL.”

—Roger Rawls, TSU Class of 1970

LEGACY GIVING: ROGER AND MARGARET RAWLS

Roger and Margaret Rawls know first-hand the difference a scholarship can make. For Roger, it meant the relief of calling his parents back in Macon, Georgia to tell them they could stop sacrificing to make ends meet while paying tuition. For Margaret, it was a ticket off of the West Tennessee farm where she grew up, promising herself that if she returned to farm life it would be by her own choice, and not because she had failed at school.

In the 46 years since they met on campus, the Rawls' have traveled the world while Roger served as a commissioned officer in the U.S. Air Force. This year, they established the Roger Wesley and Margaret Boyd Rawls Endowed Scholarship at TSU. "We have wonderful memories of student life," Roger said, "but we both remember what it was like to struggle with limited resources to get through school. We know that our gift can mean the difference between someone graduating or dropping out, and we want to give someone that chance."

In addition to the new scholarship, the Rawls plan to remember TSU in their estate as well.

"Our time at TSU has led to so many opportunities we never would have had without the financial help we received as students," Margaret said. "We have been so very blessed, and this is our way of sharing our blessing with those who come after us."

LEGACY SOCIETY

The Legacy Society recognizes persons who designate a gift for Tennessee State University in their wills and estates or made cash gifts of $10,000 or more to an endowment fund. Members receive a special recognition piece to display in their homes or offices. They are also invited to an annual event honoring Legacy Society members. Members have an opportunity to be listed in the annual Tennessee State University Foundation Report Legacy Society Honor Roll of Donors and in other select publications. But the greatest benefit is the satisfaction of knowing they are creating a lasting legacy to sustain the future of Tennessee State University.

“SCHOLARSHIPS MADE ALL THE DIFFERENCE.”

—Keith Bones, TSU Class of 2016

TSU Senior Keith Bones is looking forward to a bright future after graduation. He already has a great job lined up as a systems engineer at Lockheed Martin in Orlando Florida, a position that includes leadership training and a path toward earning his master's degree.

Bones credits his TSU experience with preparing him for—and helping him secure—such a promising opportunity. And he credits the donors who supported his scholarships for making it all possible.

“I’m an out-of-state student,” he said. “I chose TSU because of its engineering program, but the tuition was going to be a stretch to manage. I came anyway, because I knew it was a great opportunity. My parents dropped me off in front of Boyd Hall and we still didn’t know how we were going to pay for school. Even after financial aid, I still lacked the funds to stay.”

Keith earned a 4.0 GPA his first semester and almost dropped out for lack of funds, but a last-minute chance encounter on campus with the university’s president who guided him in the direction of TSU Foundation scholarships turned his situation around. “I’ve received several scholarships throughout my time here, and they have cut down on my stress about paying back loans.

I will still graduate with student loan debt, but the important thing is that I’ll finish. Those scholarships eliminated the thought of having to drop out because of money.”

Bones said that after graduation, he plans to join the growing group of alumni who donate regularly to TSU. “When I got here, I didn’t have anything. TSU developed me as a leader, and now I have everything I wanted: a great job, benefits and a bright future. I want to help give someone else that chance.”

MATCH CHALLENGE ENGAGES NEW DONORS

Bill Freeman's 2015 giving challenge not only raised nearly $400,000 in a short period of time, but also inspired hundreds of first-time donors to start supporting TSU. Freeman promised a dollar-for-dollar match for all donations during the month of June 2015, with a doubled match for first-time donors. TSU's dedicated donor base helped spread the word over social media, raising $146,000 from 593 alumni and earning his generous $250,000 matching gift.

MY GIFT + YOUR GIFT = OUR IMPACT

Tennessee State University counts on the generous contributions of alumni and friends to fulfill its commitment of providing top quality affordable education to our students. Your gift to the Tennessee State University Foundation allows us to provide scholarships, departmental support, and meet the needs of other special projects that benefit our students.

Every gift, no matter what size, makes a difference.

Thank you for your support!

Make an Annual Gift

An unrestricted gift to the TSU Foundation provides flexibility to use that money where its needed the most – most often for scholarships just like those you read about here.

Create an Endowment

An endowment is an excellent way to leave your legacy. With a minimum gift of $25,000, the TSU Foundation will manage your investment in the university in perpetuity. The earnings can fund a scholarship or be designated to other university programs in accordance with your wishes.

Establish a Planned Gift

Consider including TSU in your estate planning by naming the university as a beneficiary in your will. This will provide tax advantages for your estate and allow you to show your loyalty and support to TSU, without impacting your current finances. More at www.tnstatelegacy.org

Honor or Memorialize a Loved One

Any gift may be made in honor of or to memorialize a family member, friend, colleague, or favorite faculty member. Just indicate the name of the person you wish to honor on your form.

2. To be informed of the identity of those serving on the organization's governing board, and to expect the board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.
3. To have access to the organization's most recent financial statements.
4. To be assured their gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
5. To receive appropriate acknowledgment and recognition.
6. To be assured that information about their donations is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
7. To expect that all relationships with individuals representing organizations of interest to the donor will be professional in nature.
8. To be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees of the organization or hired solicitors.
9. To have the opportunity for their names to be deleted from mailing lists that an organization may intend to share.
10. To feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.
