Tresillian has a regular exhibition schedule and this spring, we host the annual Tresillian Student and Tutor exhibition in early October. Following this, Tresillian studio artist and tutor Judy Rogers' solo exhibition 'For the Asking' in late October, and Tresillian studio artist and tutor Bee KC Tan's solo exhibition 'All Things Bright and Beautiful', in late November.

In 2020, Tresillian Arts Centre celebrates 40 years of delivering outstanding community art and learning opportunities. We look forward to welcoming you at Tresillian soon.

New Public Artwork at the City of Nedlands!

Windows into the Past is the newest addition to the City's Public Art Collection. This sculpture installation was commissioned by the City on recommendation of the City of Nedlands Public Art Committee and was installed at Annie Dorrington Park in early 2020.

Created by WA artist Tony Pankiw, the artwork is interactive, with sections for community members to sit on and play around the various organic forms. The canopy of the sculpture features detailed motifs referencing the history of the site, which is located next to Montgomery Hall in Mt Claremont.

Annie Dorrington Park is located on St Johns Wood Boulevard in Mt Claremont. The park is the newest open public space in the City of Nedlands and offers community members a beautiful gathering space in the heart of Mt Claremont.
