Ever since the European battery regulations were revised to prohibit the used of 5ppm or more mercury in batteries, Maxell has been committed to developing Silver-Oxide cells which do not use anti-corrosive material such as mercury and lead.

The most common application for Silver Oxide cells are in wrist watches. In order to differentiate between Mercury free Silver Oxide and other brand Silver Oxide, Maxell introduced Mercury Free logo. The batteries are stamped with a “Hg 0%” registered logo to clearly show the difference.

Today, Maxell are proud to share 39 SR battery models made in Japan that are suitable for most of the world's wrist watches. An additional benefit is the batteries feature a 5 year warranty for extra peace of mind.
