WELCOME MESSAGE

Estimados alumnos y partners,
Tomar la decisión de estudiar en otro país conlleva una preparación y un sin número de preguntas: ¿Cómo hacer la elección del país de destino? ¿cuál Universidad y cuál programa de estudios? ¿qué oportunidades me brindan? ¿Qué debo saber?
¡Sin duda contar con la adecuada información es lo primero, y conocer de la experiencia de otros estudiantes es también muy valioso!, tal es la experiencia de más de 660 estudiantes internacionales de más de 25 países y 100 diferentes universidades alrededor del mundo que a la fecha han realizado un intercambio o programa de doble título en ESAN
Los programas de pregrado de ESAN desde sus inicios, han estado orientados a propiciar el ambiente ideal para los estudiantes internacionales: elección de idioma de cursos, español o inglés; la calidad de sus programas de estudio, validados con la acreditación AACSB en sus 4 programas de la Facultad de Ciencias Economicas y administrativas y por la acreditación ICACIT en sus programas de la Facultad de Ingeniería y ser parte de una comunidad académica internacional participando activamente como miembros de redes de instituciones.
No solamente es una experiencia gratificante el gozar de un precioso campus y facilidades de primer nivel sino experimentar el contexto de un país con una economía emergente que se ubica en 3er puesto de los países de América del Sur como mejor país para hacer negocios (Forbes 2019), una fina gastronomía y riqueza histórica y cultural variada.
Bienvenidos!!

*Dear students and partners,
Making the decision to study in another country involves a preparation and a number of questions: How to make the choice of the country of destination? Which university and which study program? What opportunities they offer? What should I know?
Definitely, having the right information comes first, and knowing about the experience of other students is also very valuable! Such is the experience of more than 660 international students from more than 25 countries and 100 different universities around the world that have made an exchange or double degree program at ESAN
The ESAN Bachelor programs since the beginning, have been aimed to providing the ideal environment for international students: choice of language of courses, Spanish or English, the quality of their study programs, validated by the AACSB accreditation in their 4 programs of the Schools of Economics and management and the ICACIT accreditation in their programs of the Faculty of Engineering and to be part of an international academic community by actively participating as members of institutional networks.
Not only is it a rewarding experience to enjoy a beautiful campus and top-notch facilities, but to experience the context of a country with an emerging economy that ranks 3rd in the countries of South America as the best country to do business (Forbes 2019), a fine gastronomy and varied historical and cultural wealth.*

Welcome!!

The coast presents, in general, a tempered climate, warm in the north (Piura), a little colder towards the center and southern regions (Lima and Arequipa). Rains are almost nonexistent in Lima, with the exception of winter time when the so called garúa or chachani -a very delicate type of rain- appears. Humidity is high, reaching up to 99% during winter. This increases the sense of coldness.

ELECTRICITY

The electric system of Peru uses 220 volts and 60 cycles. Some four and five star hotels provide 110 volt sockets. It is therefore important to verify the voltage of hair dryer, razors, sound systems, laptop battery chargers, video camera recording, etc., before plugging them in. Should it be necessary, 110/220 transformers can be easily purchased.

SHOPPING

As a modern city, Lima features shopping centers in almost all its residential areas. They include large department stores like Ripley and Saga Fallabella, and boutiques of many kinds. Prices vary according to the brand and quality of the product. These shopping centers include cinemas, food courts, bookstores and drugstores.

The biggest ones are "Jockey Plaza" (15 minutes car ride from ESAN) and Centro Comercial Larcomar (40 minutes' car ride from ESAN), there you will find a variety of restaurants, stores, food courts, bars, movies, etc.

FOOD & EATING OUT

Peruvian Cuisine is one of the most diversity in the world. Lima was declared the "Gastronomic Capital of the Americas". The mixing of cultures and the variety of climates determine the diversity of local cuisine.

Peru's national drink is pisco sour and suggested beers include Cusqueña, Pilsen and Cristal. Other traditional drinks are Chicha Morada (purple corn juice), Chicha de Jora (corn beer), and Aguaje (juice from Aguaje palm fruits).

If you enjoy dining out and trying new foods, you are in for a real treat. Peru is known for having some of the best cuisines in South America. Delicious seafood, powerful spices and abundance of fresh production (including 400 different types of potatoes) make this country a food connoisseur's delight!
