Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends:

Your generosity manifested through gifts of dollars, time, and talent to Wabash College shines forth in the 2006-2007 Honor Roll. When Wabash asks for your help, your enthusiastic response supports programs such as immersion trips, which help students gain a deeper knowledge of the wider world; scholarships that make possible the extraordinary experience of Wabash; and the fraternity partnership campaign, which supports unprecedented development of new and renovated living space. In addition, you have given your time at W Nights, helped with summer internships, and brought WABASH Day of service to your communities, activities that serve students and model new ways in which Wabash is a truly great college.

The Honor Roll of Donors and Volunteers recognizes you who make it possible for our young men to earn a remarkable liberal arts education. Students are the center of the College, the reason we are all here at Wabash. The men of Wabash are grateful for the opportunity to earn a liberal arts education second to none. As these extraordinary young men make a difference not only now at Wabash but in the years ahead through their leadership in communities large and small, you will know your generosity has transformed their lives. They are grateful for your support, and they learn from your example. In turn they will repay your generosity by enacting positive leadership for many years to come.

Wabash's mission to educate men to think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely is reflected time and again in your generous support. On behalf of the students, faculty, and staff of Wabash, I thank you.

Sincerely,

Patrick E. White
President

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends
of Wabash College:

Of the many letters I write each year this one is my favorite. It is an opportunity to say thank you. Thank you to the thousands of Wabash alumni, parents, and friends who invest in our mission and in our students. Thank you to the thousands of Wabash alumni, parents, and friends who give of their time and assist in recruiting, fundraising, reunion planning, career services, fraternity advising, and myriad other activities that help our students.

Last year in this space I challenged you to make this year's honor roll longer than it was last year. I am pleased to report that you answered the call. For the third consecutive year more of you invested in Wabash College than in the year before. At a time when many colleges are struggling to increase participation, you have stepped forward in even greater numbers to support our students.

The returns on your investment manifest themselves in many important ways. I'll share two examples with you:

Patrick Millikan '07 came to Wabash College from Southern Indiana. He played football, became a starter and team captain and earned the prestigious NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship. He served as president of his fraternity and excelled in the classroom studying religion and art. This fall Patrick will begin his first year of medical school.

Andrew Dits '07 came to Wabash College from Northern Indiana. During his sophomore year, despite never having acted before, he auditioned for the lead role in the play This is Our Youth. He won the part, wowed the audiences, and uncovered a passion for theater and the arts. He majored in philosophy but remained a key player in the student arts scene, continuing to act, produce films, and write poetry that was featured during President White's inauguration festivities. This fall Andrew will begin work on a master's degree in University of Southern California's prestigious acting program.

Two incredible journeys: A religion and art major studying medicine. A philosophy major who had never before acted on stage earning admission to one of the country's best acting programs. There are hundreds of stories like Patrick's and Andrew's. We are able to tell those stories because your gifts make them possible.

Once again this year I challenge you to make next year's honor roll even longer. When you make this year's gift, think about Patrick, Andrew, and the hundreds of young men who will directly benefit from your generosity. Share their stories with your friends, classmates, and fraternity brothers who have not yet joined you in making a gift and encourage them to do so.

On behalf of our students, faculty, and staff, I say thank for your generous gifts and your time. You are part of a special group of people who believe strongly in Wabash's mission to educate men to think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely.

Sincerely,

Joseph R. Emmick '92
Dean for Advancement

Dear Alumni, Friends, and Parents,

My, how quickly time flies when you are having fun and being challenged. I can't believe that it has already been over one year since President White, Dean Phillips, and I all started last July. I have been amazed at the commitment of the Wabash students to their education, and of the Wabash alumni to their alma mater. That commitment is truly unique in higher education today. Financially, Wabash College still continues its outstanding success as demonstrated by the financial results for the year ended June 30, 2007. The financial highlights for the year are as follows. (Please see financial statement following this letter.)

Tuition revenues for the year totaled in excess of $21 million. To help our students afford the cost of education, they received over $13.9 million in financial aid. Much of this aid was subsidized from outside sources including endowed scholarships ($2.90 million), restricted gifts ($.30 million), federal and state grants ($1.66 million) and other outside sources ($1.04 million). With those subsidies for our students, the net tuition discount rate was approximately 38 percent.

The endowment value at June 30, 2007 was in excess of $413 million, including all Funds Held in Trust by Others. This was an increase of $49.75 million or 13.68 percent after distributions to operations. The endowment benefited from $4.05 million in new gifts and $65.54 million in market return for the year. Market return — as well as dividends and interest — received helped contribute over $15.6 million of support for the operations of the College and $2.9 million for endowed student scholarships.

Total gifting to the College was in excess of $6.59 million. The Annual Fund contributed in excess of $2.76 million of the gifting revenues, with more than 37 percent participation from Wabash alumni. Given that student revenues cover slightly more than one-third of the total operating costs, the Annual Fund is an important source of support for the men of Wabash.

The 2006-2007 year was also an exciting year for construction projects on campus. During the year, the Phi Kappa Psi house was completed and dedicated. Crawford Hall (the former Sigma Chi house) was demolished and new construction began on the Tau Kappa Epsilon house at that site. Across the street, renovation of the Delta Tau Delta house also began. The TKE project should be completed in the spring of 2008, and the Delt project should be completed by the start of school in August 2008.

In addition to the Greek housing projects, College Hall (the former TKE house) was completely renovated for independent men. This project includes additional residential rooms, centralized air conditioning, and new exterior windows. Other projects include renovations in the Business Office and Bookstore.

Thank you again for your continued support for Wabash College. I look forward to serving in the year ahead.

Sincerely,

Larry Griffith
Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer

Dear Alumni and Friends:

As Chairman of the 1832 Society, I want to thank you for your philanthropic leadership during the 2006-2007 giving year.
(Please see the 1832 donor lists following this letter.)

During the past year, the College welcomed Dr. Patrick E. White as the 15th President and new leader of Wabash. In his first year as president, Dr. White challenged the College community to dream big dreams for Wabash. Quoting poet William Butler Yeats, "In Dreams Begins Responsibility," President White reminded alumni, students, parents, and friends that we lead not just by setting lofty goals; we must assume responsibility for making sure Wabash reaches those goals.

All of you whose names are listed in this Honor Roll as members of the 1832 Society allow the College to dream big. Your gifts help us achieve our goals to recruit first-rate faculty and students, provide the campus with cutting-edge technology, and offer improved career placement and graduate school preparation programs.

The upcoming 2007-2008 fiscal year marks the 175th anniversary of the College's founding. As we strive to grow membership in the 1832 Society each year, I hope you will answer our call to renew and increase your leadership support of Wabash students during this commemorative year. In doing so, you will demonstrate your ongoing commitment to fulfilling the dreams of Wabash Men.

Sincerely,

Kevin G. Clifford '77
Chairman, 1832 Society

Dear Wabash Alumni and Friends:

During the 2006-2007 fiscal year, we asked you to “Open Doors of Opportunity” for Wabash men by supporting the College with a gift to the Annual Fund. We asked you to recognize how all gifts — $25, $100, or $500 — added together can provide opportunities for Wabash students that would be otherwise unimaginable.

Our student phone-a-thon callers demonstrated the work of the Annual Fund in action by writing the names of all of the alumni and friends who made a gift or pledge during a telephone conversation on an actual door in their calling room in the Chapel. It was a symbolic act, but looking at the door with over 1,200 names on it helped our students fully understand the collective impact of Annual Fund gifts.

I am happy to report that more than 4,300 alumni, parents, and friends — whose names are recognized in this 2006-2007 Honor Roll — answered our request to open doors of opportunity for Wabash students by contributing $2,759,678 in unrestricted Annual Fund support. This represents a three percent increase in unrestricted dollars and a two percent increase in alumni participation over fiscal 2006. (Donors to the Annual Fund are listed following this letter.)

On behalf of the students, faculty, and staff who study and work on the campus every day, I thank you for your generous and continued support and participation.

The 2007-2008 giving year marks the 175th anniversary of the College's founding. During this commemorative year, I hope you will again answer our call to renew and increase your support of Wabash students through continued participation in the Wabash Annual Fund.

Sincerely,

G. Michael Dill '71
National Chairman
Wabash College Annual Fund

WABASH COLLEGE

Dear Friends,

The 2006-2007 year is in the history books and the 2007-2008 has begun in earnest. It's been fun to watch the 250 wide-eyed young men walk onto campus trying desperately to appear they have a clue about what they are in for over the next four years. History holds true - they haven't been able to pull it off.

From Center Hall to the Pioneer Chapel to the Monon Bell resting firmly in the Allen Center, Wabash history and tradition will be everywhere. But in the same vein, they'll see a thoroughly modern College as well. They may live in the new fraternity houses, study in the Hays Science Hall, use the -all-over-campus wireless network, or work out in the Allen Center.

I call it traditional, state-of-the-art liberal arts. The interesting part? It's all Wabash and it's all "the way it is" to them. The seamless blend of history, tradition, and the latest and greatest. (See the class agents, class giving breakdown, annual fund benchmarks, and top classes lists on the following pages.)

None of this happened, either yesterday or today, by accident. Alumni, family, and friends, for 175 years, have believed in the power and role of tiny Wabash College and have toiled to insure that this College, our College, remains strong in every way. Over 4,000 of you backed that commitment up with a gift to the College last year. Thank you. Your generous gifts allow us to continue to build upon the past as we work to make Wabash better every day. To those of you who didn't make a gift this past year, please consider making one this year and every year. Share your Wabash experience with those who follow by simply making it available to them. The real power of our gifts is their collective strength and impact – we're all in this together.

I want to make sure Wabash is there for my grandsons . . . and their sons and grandsons. I'll bet you do, as well.

Thanks for all you do for Wabash,

Tom Runge '71

WABASH COLLEGE

Presidents Club

In 1987, the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Wabash College established a special forum for those men and women who give a tangible expression of their deep and continuing commitment to the future of Wabash College through lifetime giving to the College of $100,000 or more. In addition to outright gifts, other avenues for funding a Presidents Club gift to the College include trusts, annuities, pooled income funds, life insurance, bequests, and qualified retirement plans.

Dear Wabash Friends:

Winston Churchill said, "You make a living by what you get. You make a life by what you give." Churchill must have known the Wabash family.

During 2006-2007 we documented 3,856 instances where a Wabash alumnus, parent, faculty member, or friend shared time and talent with the Wabash students. That number includes 2,035 individual alumni, parents, faculty and staff, and friends. We know that there were many other volunteer acts that we will never know about; we encourage you to tell us those stories. Many examples of living out the Wabash mission abound. (See the volunteer lists following this letter.)

Each fall central Indiana alumni attorneys provide a Moot Court experience for Wabash undergraduates. Co-sponsored by the Rhetoric Department and the Indianapolis Association of Wabash Men, Moot Court challenges students interested in the law to read the court cases and legal briefs and then make the oral arguments. This year's case, authored by Richard S. Pitts '83, concerned the constitutionality of opening session prayer in a state House of Representatives. Five alumni attorneys served as tutors. Twenty alumni attorneys, faculty, and two women attorneys served as preliminary round judges. Seventeen alumni and eight faculty served as judges. Final judges were Shelby County Superior Court Judge Jack Tandy '79; the Honorable Thomas Fisher, father of Wabash attorney Tom Fisher '91 and member of the Indiana Tax Court; the Honorable William Lawrence, Magistrate for the Southern District of Indiana, and President Patrick White. Financial contributions from forty-four attorneys or their firms provided the support necessary to sponsor the Moot Court and its final celebratory banquet. The twenty-five Wabash students who participated now have a much clearer idea of what it takes to be a successful litigator!

Last year fifteen New York City alumni hosted, mentored, and oriented Scott Crawford, Director of Schroeder Center for Career Development, and students interested in working in high finance. Twenty Indianapolis alumni did the same in their hometown. When the Alumni Office and the National Association of Wabash Men developed LEAD (Linking Education and Alumni Development), a program to educate Wabash undergraduates about the benefits and responsibilities of being a Wabash alumnus, twenty-four area alumni talked with sophomores about their experiences. Wabash wanted to better prepare seniors for the job search experience; seventeen alumni from the classes of 1989 – 2004 created a Job Search Bootcamp for seniors. Students needed help preparing for tests; the National Association of Wabash Men created a Bootcamp for those law students, who reported much more confidence and better scores because of the bootcamp.

Parents recruit prospective students. Townpeople host freshmen for community service projects. Faculty and staff are scorekeepers at athletic events, coaches and judges for College Bowl, and hosts for international students.

Wabash students know, from the moment they arrive on campus, that Wabash is a place that will change their lives. Inside the classroom and out, they encounter men and women who illustrate Winston Churchill's philosophy of how to make a life. We thank each volunteer for his or her contribution of time and talent to Wabash College.

Sincerely,

Nancy J. Doemel
Senior Advancement Officer and Coordinator of Volunteer Services
