FROM THE CONGREGATIONAL COUNCIL

Dear Wake Chapel Church Family and Friends:

On behalf of the Congregational Council of Wake Chapel Church, welcome to this celebration of a new Pastor for our Ministry.

This is a significant moment in the history of Wake Chapel Church. Reverend Sharon Davis Dean becomes the eleventh Pastor of Wake Chapel Church, Inc. This is an occasion for celebration and recognizing the move of God.

We recognize each season in the life of Wake Chapel Church to be an opportunity for worship. Seasons of challenges test our mettle and ability to persevere hardships. Seasons of plenty remind us to be thankful for the favor of God. The arrival of a new leader is a season that assures us God has a plan and a future in store for our Church.

The installation of a new pastor for our congregation and community is a blessing from God Almighty. We praise the Father's care for our family such that He saw fit to prepare in advance a shepherd only He knew we would require in this season. We reverence God for His foresight and considering our community worthy to receive the gift of Pastor Dean.

We have felt your prayers and support over the years. You have poured into us in ways that have buoyed our spirits. You have lifted us up during our trials. You have mourned our losses. We have become family and friends through the shared experiences of God's love. The journey continues.

We invite you to celebrate with us this momentous time. We have high expectations for the blessings our Ministry will receive in the times which will follow.

In Christian Love,

FROM THE DIAKONOS

Greetings in the Name of our Lord and Savior:

This is a moment for great celebration among the Wake Chapel Church family. For God has seen favorable to bless our congregation with a Senior Pastor who seeks His face and voice.

The Wake Chapel Church Deacons Ministry is one of the ordained offices in the Church. The role of a Deacon is to be a servant. To this end, we have a two-fold charge. First, we are to assist with the administration of the Church's charitable activities. In the Book of Acts, there was a concern the widows were being neglected in the daily distribution of necessities. Deacons were appointed to serve table and see to it that the people had what they needed.

The qualifications for the Deacons is to be of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom. This leads to our second charge that Deacons be Spiritually-led in all endeavors. You can find Deacons praying for the Church members, the community and every element of life. We celebrate joyous occasions with disciples and lend a helping hand during times of grief and mourning.

As we enter this new chapter in the life of Wake Chapel Church, the Deacons stand ready to help Pastor Dean with the vision God has placed on her heart. We will roll up our sleeves to put the Ministry in operation.

It is our privilege to serve as your servants. We pray for each of you, our Senior Pastor and her entire family. We look onward with great anticipation for the victories that will follow.

Humbly in His Service...

FROM THE MINISTERIAL COUNCIL

To Our Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

On behalf of the Ministerial Council of Wake Chapel Church, we rejoice in the installation of Reverend Sharon Dean as our next Senior Pastor. This is truly a moment that deserves reflection and vision.

Here at Wake Chapel Church, a minister travels a certain journey when they feel called to this ministry. At the start, when a disciple is called to do this work in the vineyard, they hold the title “Minister in Training.” After extensive prayer, training and study, they are licensed as a “Minister.” From there, their journey leads to ordination and they are confirmed as an Elder or Reverend.

In the Holy Book of Romans, Chapter 15, verse 16, the Apostle Paul writes, “That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.”

Ministry here at Wake Chapel Church takes on many forms. It includes preaching the Gospel of God. The preaching of the Gospel includes showing loving kindness to one another as a demonstration of Christ’s compassion. Ministry also includes the performance of ceremonial duties in worship services. And ultimately, Ministry is following the will of God in our lives as a testimony before all people.

A reflection on this day means that we should pay reverence to God for the seasons through which God allowed us to travel. When we remember our trials and triumphs, we are filled with confidence for a future when God will continue to be with us.

Pastor Dean brings new life to our Church, the Ministerial Council, our community and the world. We are positioned and poised to support Pastor Dean with our deeds and prayers. Truly, this is the day the Lord has made and we shall rejoice and be glad in it.

With the Love and Unity in Christ,

FROM THE TRUSTEES MINISTRY

To Our Wake Chapel Church Congregation:

There are moments in our lives when we recognize we are witnesses to a truly special event. The installation of a new Wake Chapel Church Senior Pastor is one of these occasions. The Wake Chapel Church Trustees thank God for the revelation of this historic time.

The advent of a new pastoral era is a sacred occurrence that deserves a mindful approach. When God directs a shepherd to bear the banner in one of His houses of worship, there is reason for celebration. This gives us confirmation of His love for our congregation. We dare not take this season for granted.

The purpose of the Trustees Ministry is to be good stewards of the Church's properties. Property includes the assets many see and the things most don't see. More importantly, the Trustees have a duty to safeguard your gifts for the sake of the Kingdom. Our role is both temporal and spiritual.

It our pleasure and privilege to serve in this vineyard alongside our fellow disciples. The Trustees are prayerful over every aspect of our assignment. We begin each engagement with a spiritual reflection and end likewise. Such is the motivation of the Trustees Ministry.

The Trustees eagerly welcome Pastor Sharon Dean as our installed leader. We pledge our support, assistance and labor in the Ministry. We will metaphorically help lift Pastor Dean's arms so the people every where will be encouraged that the business side of the Church continues.

We look forward to the next chapter in the life of Wake Chapel Church. Under Pastor Dean's headship and the divine direction of our Lord, we have tenacious faith for the greatness that will be achieved in the future.

WAKE CHAPEL CHURCH LEGACY

“A LONG HERITAGE OF FOLLOWING CHRIST”

In the late 1890's, there was no church in the community located between Lodge Number 3 and Route 7, Raleigh, North Carolina on the Falls of Neuse Road near Millbrook, North Carolina. A group came together in the year 1899 and organized a church and named it Wake Baptist Grove. Eventually land was purchased and a small one-room building was erected. The name was then changed from Wake Baptist Grove to Wake Chapel Baptist Church.

Our early members appointed Reverend John W. Jones as the first elected Pastor. He served as Pastor of Wake Chapel for thirty-nine years. Under Reverend Jones' pastoralship, the church continued to grow spiritually and physically. During this time, the building was expanded. These expansions included the Amen Corners, the Vestibule, and a Baptismal Pool which was built by the side of the road.

Worship services were held once a month on the fourth Sundays. Charter members paid a church salary (financial contribution) each month of twenty-five cents for men and fifteen cents for women. The early members were really dedicated to serving God. Revival meetings were held the fourth week of August with three services every day. Since most members were farmers, they set aside this time every year just for Revival. Each second Sunday of July, Children's Day was held. Wild flowers were picked and bouquets were made for the children. Picnic baskets of food were brought to the church for dinner.

In the early 1940's, Reverend James A. Avery was appointed as the second elected Pastor of Wake Chapel Baptist Church. He served for eight years. During his tenure, the church expanded even further.

Reverend Avery was succeeded by Reverend L. B. Hockaday who served faithfully as the third elected Pastor for one year. New members continued to join the church.

Reverend W. B. Lewis served as the fourth elected Pastor for two years. During this time the wood-framed church building was bricked.

Reverend Bennie H. Closs served as the fifth elected Pastor for seven years. During this time a well was dug for water, hardwood floors were added, and a new Baptismal Pool was built closer to the church. It was sometimes necessary to haul water from Crabtree Creek in order to fill the Baptism Pool.

Reverend R. B. Miles was elected as the sixth Pastor. A new pulpit set and pews were purchased during his two-year pastoralship.

In 1967, the members of Wake Chapel saw the need to begin having morning worship services every Sunday. In April of that year, Reverend Arthur L. Morgan was installed as the seventh elected Pastor. He would preach on the second and fourth Sundays, leaving the first and third Sundays for the Assistant Ministers.

Reverend J.R. Fogg was the eighth elected Pastor and served for one and a half year. During this time, programs and groups were organized.

After much praying and searching, in May 1973, God sent Reverend George A. Jones, Jr. as the newly elected ninth Pastor of Wake Chapel. Reverend Jones brought with him a youthful enthusiasm and vigor. He was officially installed as pastor on March 17, 1974. Membership began to grow greatly. The church congregation outgrew its building. A new edifice was erected and completed in October of 1981.

CONTINUED

During this time, six ministers and eight deacons were ordained. In 1986, with a growing congregation, Wake Chapel began having an 8:00 a.m. Sunday Morning Worship Service. We also elected Reverend Joseph Curtis as Assistant Pastor. In late 1986, the church still found itself having growing pains. An expansion committee was formed to look for further means of improvements in the church structure. This resulted in enlarging the sanctuary and adding on an entirely new wing to the building.

In early 1990, Reverend Jones resigned as Pastor of Wake Chapel Church to accept the call to a new church in West Virginia. Reverend Phillip Betts served as Interim Pastor. With our Assistant Pastor, Reverend Joseph Curtis, and under the guardianship of Reverend Betts and the leadership of the Almighty God, a pulpit committee was selected.

On Sunday, January 27, 1991, Reverend John Jasper Wilkins, Jr. came to Wake Chapel as a candidate for the Pastor of Wake Chapel. His 8:00am sermon title was: "The Importance of Making the Right Choice" and at 11:00am it was: "I Want the Lord to Stand by Me." The children's message was: "Jesus Wept." This was a humble message that came from a humble man of God. God had already pre-ordained that Pastor Wilkins would be the Pastor of Wake Chapel (God and only God knew this). Also during the 11:00am service, he walked over played the organ and sang: "His Eye Is on the Sparrow." On Wednesday, March 13, 1991, Wake Chapel voted as a church that Pastor Wilkins become the tenth elected Pastor.

In 1992, the church bus was purchased and paid off; the musicians section was re-organized; drums and a keyboard were purchased. Alesia Green was hired as the full time Administrative Assistant, 6:00pm Sunday Evening Baptismal Services (6 times per year), and Baby Dedications during the 11:00am morning worship services on 3rd Sundays were implemented.

In 1994, the first Church Parsonage was completed for the Pastor and his Family. The first Church Pictorial Directory was distributed, 2 new Church Vans were purchased, the Married Women, Men, and Couples ministries began and the Singles Ministry began in October, 1994. New video equipment was installed. The piano, a van, and $10,000 were donated to the Central Children's Home of North Carolina in Oxford, NC.

In 1998, the Church Stewardship Council (CSC) Kickoff service was held at the Memorial Auditorium. The purpose of the CSC was to raise funds for the Tarheel Club Road facility. The guest preacher was nationally renowned Bishop Carlton Pearson and the musical guest vocalist was recording artist Vanessa Bell Armstrong.

In 1999, the Church celebrated its 100th Anniversary.

On February 15, 2003 - The Cornerstone laying ceremony for the Wake Chapel Church Central at 3805 Tarheel Club Road was held.

On April 20, 2003 - Wake Chapel Church held their Easter Sunday morning service at the Alltel Pavilion at Walnut Creek at 10:00am with over 3,500 worshippers in attendance.

On August 1, 2003, the first services were held at the Tarheel Club Road facility.

In 2008, the Life Enrichment Center (LEC) was dedicated and opened.

In the interim, Wake Chapel Church continued to flourish, grow and meet its mandate to serve God and attend to the spiritual needs of the community. Many spiritual and physical improvements have been and are continuing to be made.

And the history of Wake Chapel Church continues under our new Senior Pastor Sharon Dean who becomes the Eleventh elected Pastor.

INTRODUCTION

SHARON DAVIS DEAN

Sharon Dean is a multifaceted gift to the world. With sheer charisma, she delivers a message of hope among many people from every walk of life. Her polished art of public speaking, unmistakable love for helping people, practical wisdom and insightful teaching, has positioned her as a highly sought after 21st century presenter.

Dean's comic timing and affable nature make her an audience favorite at venues large and small. Her more than 25-year tenure as a public speaker began with local engagements, before exploding onto the national stage at arenas and on international platforms overseas such as Bermuda, London, Jamaica and Barbados. As her popularity grew, Dean was featured on local TV media outlets, including a national appearance on Trinity Broadcasting Network (TBN).

Dean's love for spreading her inspirational message extends into other artistic genres, and her passion for music is clearly at the forefront of this commitment. At the top of Dean's anthology stands her radio single "More of You," a celebratory song arranged and produced by her son, Darion Javon, a rising star in his own right. The smooth blend of Dean and Javon's vocals double-teaming this trendsetting song has been heard on radio stations across the country, including Sirius/XM. Dean's hit single, "Surround Me," a song that evokes purity and passion can also be heard on various music media outlets. In addition to her vocal endeavors, the heart of Dean is beautifully captured in her inspirational written works, which include "My Morning Song," "Focused Prayer" and her book "Letters to the Beloved." In addition to these, Dean has ventured into capturing stunning photos that are sure to inspire, in the debut of her art collection LIFE IS A PICTURE!

On the heels of her many artistic contributions, Dean has launched several Outreach Projects, including Called Girls, geared towards helping women discover themselves. In addition, Dean has established Called Girls Closet, an effort that empowers and assists women with various basic needs such as clothing.

As an ordained minister, and passionate dedication to her Christian faith, Dean approaches her new assignment as the Senior Pastor of Wake Chapel Church with a respect for the legacy of the Ministry and the opportunities in the future. Wake Chapel Church feels the blessings for this moment. This is truly an ordained season for our community. Pastor Dean's steps were ordered to shepherd this flock.

Sharon enjoys reading, walking, photography, traveling, family and friends. Dean's ministerial training was obtained from Aeon Bible College in East Orange, NJ, and Telion Bible Institute in Brooklyn, NY. She obtained a BS in General Psychology and an MA in Pastoral Counseling at Liberty University. Dean's practical, yet powerful delivery continues to inspire, impact, and empower many, young and seasoned alike.

PHOTO ALBUM

We believe a Pastor should be approachable and in touch with her congregation. Pastor Dean's personality and people-oriented approach to ministry inspires humility, honesty and sincerity. Pastor Dean inspires us in her everyday walk.

GUEST SPEAKERS' BIOGRAPHIES

ARCHBISHOP ROBERT JOEL ROCHFORD SR.

Senior Pastor, New Life Cathedral
Chief Prelate, Dunamis Covenant Connection

Archbishop Robert Joel Rochford Sr. is a native of Brooklyn, New York. Handpicked by God from amongst a family of great ministry gifts, he accepted Jesus Christ at the age of 14 and began preaching the Gospel at just 15 years old. As a visionary, pastor, preacher, musician and author, Bishop Rochford has dedicated more than half of his life to fulfilling God's will and is a living testimony of the power of God at work in the life of His beloved.

In the early years of his ministry Bishop Rochford was groomed by his eldest brother, the late Apostle Norman Rochford and he traveled extensively ministering at crusades with his brother Dr. Milton Rochford and sister Dr. Lavonne Burno. His passion for preaching and his love for the word of God continued to grow, as did his reputation as a man of God. In 1979, Bishop Rochford answered God's call to leadership and established New Life Cathedral in Brooklyn, NY. He has served faithfully as the senior pastor for over 35 years and the ministry continues to flourish. Bishop Rochford is presently commissioning local pastors to establish satellite churches in the metropolitan area. The first of four new ministries was birthed in Queens, New York in 2007. The second ministry was birthed in Brooklyn in 2010.

As a leader who understands the power of submission, in 1990 Bishop Rochford joined the Pilgrim Assemblies International, Inc. under the leadership of Archbishop Roy E. Brown. In 1994, he was consecrated and elevated to the episcopacy. In 2012, after 22 years of service in the Assemblies including 17 years as the First Assistant to the Presiding Bishop, the Lord released Bishop Rochford to establish the Dunamis Covenant Connection, an organization through which he provides Apostolic oversight to pastors and churches. He was installed as the Chief Prelate of Dunamis in 2013.

Even with immense ministry responsibilities, Bishop Rochford is dedicated to his family. His experience as a husband and father coupled with his passion for ministering to families was the source of inspiration for his first book Bone of My Bone, Flesh of My Flesh, a relationship manual emphasizing the importance of marriage. He lovingly adored and cherished his wife Senior Executive Pastor Lois Elaine Rochford for 34 years until she was called to glory. On August 10, 2017 Archbishop Rochford was given a second chance at love and was blessed to be joined in marital covenant with Lady Pamela Rochford. He is the father of two adult children, Pastor Melaine Rochford and Minister Robert Rochford II.

BISHOP H. CURTIS DOUGLAS
Chief Prelate, Covenant Fellowship Alliance

Bishop H. Curtis Douglas is the Senior Pastor of Dabar Bethlehem Cathedral and Presiding Prelate of Covenant Fellowship Alliance. He has served the Lord for more than 35 years, serving in many areas of ministry. He is a faithful man, and a proven soldier and officer in the Lord's army. Bishop Douglas is anointed by God to preach and teach the Word of God, and desires to see souls saved and nurtured in the Kingdom of God.

In December 1990, Bishop Douglas was ordained into ministry by the late Archbishop Wilbert S. McKinley. He stepped out in faith in September 1998, and founded Dabar Worship Center in Brooklyn, NY.

In October 2007, he was consecrated by Bishop Donald Hilliard II, and served on the Episcopal Council of the Covenant Ecumenical Fellowship and Cathedral Assemblies (CEFCA) as General Treasurer for 10 years.

In October 2010, Dabar Worship Center and Bethlehem Missionary Church in Queens Village, New York, were engrafted and Dabar Bethlehem Cathedral (DBC) was birthed with Bishop Douglas as Senior Pastor, and Overseer Stanley and Pastor Lenore Kidd as Pastors Emeriti.

In June 2017, Bishop Hilliard and the Bishops of CEFCA (now known as Covenant Fellowship Alliance, CFA), elevated Bishop Douglas to the office of Presiding Prelate. He now oversees and provides leadership, mentorship, and covering for more than 50 pastors and churches in the United States, Central and South America, Europe, Africa, and the Caribbean.

Bishop Douglas is also active in Missions. He believes that "Missions is the heart of God", and over the past 10 years, has led and released teams to Belize, the Dominican Republic, France, Grenada, Guyana, Haiti, Jamaica, Ghana, Poland, South Africa and Uganda.

Bishop Douglas is also an accomplished musician, composer, choir director, and worship leader, and has helped numerous churches develop their music and worship ministries. He has also recorded two music CDs: "Scriptures in Song" & "Amazing Things". Bishop Douglas and his music team have performed in concerts in France, Germany and Poland, sharing the gospel in song and ministering to many.

He and his wife Yolanda have been married since 1988, and have four children: Courtney, Johanna, Rebekah, and Jonathan, one son-in-law, LaQuan, and a granddaughter, Laney.

Dear Pastor Sharon Dean and the Wake Chapel Church Family,

On behalf of the State of North Carolina, I offer my enthusiastic congratulations on the recent appointment of Senior Pastor-Elect Sharon Dean to Wake Chapel Church. Our state's churches and other faith-based institutions serve as trusted and spiritual anchors within our communities, and provide immeasurable comfort, hope, peace, empowerment – and beneficial resources that truly help the people of Wake County to live better lives.

With the more than 30 years of pastoral experience as a spiritual leader, teacher and counselor, including work on the Wake Chapel Church executive ministerial staff, providing operational leadership, pastoral services, and Sunday morning worship services to a congregation of thousands, God has prepared Pastor Dean well for this new service role.

Wake Chapel Church's ministries and mission work focused on an inclusive environment rooted in advocacy for health care, education and employment for all people, speaks to the strength of its core values, leadership and congregation within the community. The work demonstrates what it means to have a servant's heart, according to Matthew 25:35-40:

³⁵"For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, ³⁶I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me." ⁴⁰"Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

Once again, congratulations on the new appointment. I pray the Lord blesses you and fills you with wisdom and knowledge needed as you continue your service to the people of Wake Chapel Church and Wake County.

Sincerely,

Dear Pastor Dean:

It is with great joy that I congratulate you on your installation as Senior Pastor at Wake Chapel Church. Wake Chapel has a long history of impacting the community, and I am confident that this legacy will continue to grow under your leadership. Your more than thirty years of pastoral experience and devotion to others has equipped you for this new position, and I am confident you will excel in this calling.

Wake Chapel Church and the city of Raleigh are blessed to have such a dedicated and caring leader. I am honored to know you and serve the community alongside you. Churches worldwide have faced challenges during the coexisting pandemics of racism and COVID-19, and having a compassionate and attentive undershepherd, such as you, is so vital.

During my time as a North Carolina State Representative, I enjoyed fellowship with the Wake Chapel congregation. I look forward to continuing our relationship as I serve our community in the United States House of Representatives. I am excited for opportunities to collaborate with you and tap into your congregation's commitment to public service and community engagement.

I eagerly anticipate the day when it is safe to gather in person again and join in a wonderful fellowship with the Wake Chapel congregation under your leadership.

Dear Pastor-Elect Sharon Dean,

Congratulations on your new position with Wake Chapel Church. Wake Chapel Church has been a cornerstone of Wake County for decades and has touched the lives of so many. You have surely found a home here. Churches unite and bring us closer together, and Wake Chapel Church is no exception. This past year has shown us just how important community is. Our community supports and faith has gotten so many of us through the darkest of times. Wake Chapel Church's emphasis on strengthening community bonds through a holistic approach is an inspiration to us all.

I have no doubt that you will continue to do great things in your new leadership role with Wake Chapel Church. I am so amazed to see all the wonderful things you have already accomplished for the community, and I know you will only do more. Archbishop Desmond Tutu once said, "My humanity is bound up in yours, for we can only be human together." Being in a leadership position, you impact so many lives and we rely upon your guidance and wisdom. There could not be a better person to take on this new role. Thank you very much for your service and I look forward to seeing all you accomplish at Wake Chapel Church.

Dear Pastor Dean,

Congratulations on your appointment as Senior Pastor! We are so impressed with your education and experience in leading ministries in New Jersey and here in Wake County, North Carolina. And your work as a counselor and motivational speaker helping others grow and achieve their potential is truly inspiring. We are so fortunate that you have become part of our community.

During this challenging time for our County and nation, the Board of Commissioners strives to keep improving services and building our community infrastructure. But a community must also focus on renewing and building its spiritual infrastructure. We are heartened to see Wake Chapel Church expand its spiritual infrastructure with the selection of such a qualified and caring pastor.

We wish you great success as Senior Pastor. We know your Installation Ceremony on April 24 will be a wonderful and joyous event. We wish Wake Chapel Church all the best as it continues its ministry and charitable services.

Pastor Sharon Dean:

I would like to join the congregation of Wake Chapel Church in officially welcoming and congratulating you on your installation as the congregation's new Senior Pastor.

While your role of service as the pastoral leader will begin on April 24, 2021, your more than 30 years of pastoral experience has already proven your value in ministry. Your service and care for the staff and congregation of Wake Chapel Church since 2016 reveal your dedication. Through your leadership, speaking, training, and counseling, you have served well and been an example of servant leadership. I congratulate you on this new calling and opportunity to continue leading others for the upbuilding of all.

I honor the legacy of Wake Chapel Church and its advocacy for health care, education, and employment. You have shown your desire to continue this legacy and further minister to the total needs of men, women, and families of all cultures. In the past, Wake Chapel Church has opened its doors to provide opportunities for the empowerment and growth of the community. I am thankful to have had the opportunity to join you in such efforts and look forward to partnering with you in similar efforts in the future.

As someone who shares your faith, I pray that you are able to prosper in developing an environment that encourages your members to actively engage in the community. I hope that Wake Chapel Church leads in demonstrating tenets of our faith that will contribute to the overall enhancement of lives in our county, state, and nation. May your leadership in offering charitable service to others remind us of the love of Christ.

As written in Galatians 6:9, "May you not grow weary in well doing."

Dear Pastor Dean,

It is with God's blessings that I congratulate you on being installed as the new Senior Pastor at Wake Chapel Church in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Jeremiah 3:15 says: "And I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding." God chooses and gives us anointed leaders to guide us in our spiritual walk. Pastors point us to God; they council us; they provide prayer and comfort at all times. Pastors and their families give relentlessly, often asking for nothing in return.

In the midst of our world's current turmoil, God grants us grace and mercy that sustains us. His love comforts us, and in return, we should love one another. The members of Wake Chapel Church and its community gather today to honor, recognize, and show gratitude to you on this historical occasion. I pray that you will be overwhelmed with appreciation and love.

Congratulations on becoming the first female Pastor at Wake Chapel Church, feeding God's knowledge to the Raleigh community. May God bless you with continued success in all of your endeavors!

Greetings Pastor Dean,

It gives me great pleasure to congratulate you on this historic occasion of your installation as Senior Pastor of Wake Chapel Church. As Mid-Atlantic Regional Director of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated®, I am honored to call you my sister as you make HERstory with this marvelous accomplishment. Alpha Kappa Alpha women are known for boldly stepping into roles that not only open doors for themselves, but for the women who will follow them. You have demonstrated once again that being first is indeed our Alpha Kappa Alpha legacy!

In 2018, the Mid-Atlantic region endeavored to do “a new thing” as we looked to Isaiah 43:19 for strength and inspiration. We are delighted that Wake Chapel is also doing a new thing, and we look forward to what God has in store for you and the community of believers there. As you begin this new chapter in your ministry, please know that over 11,000 of your sisters stand shoulder to shoulder with you in support and admiration.

I look forward to visiting Wake Chapel as soon as it is safe to do so, but until then, please accept my heartfelt congratulations and prayers for a blessed installation event and the next phase of your pastoral leadership.

Greetings Pastor Sharon Dean and Members of Wake Chapel Church,

As a fellow Divine Nine sister and your sister in Christ, it is indeed a pleasure to share in this historical moment with you. On behalf of our Regional Representative, Illana Jamison and the more than 11,000 members from across the South Atlantic Region of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, I am humbled and honored to extend greetings and congratulations to you as the first female Pastor in the 122 year history of Wake Chapel Church.

2021 has certainly been a groundbreaking year for women, filled with historic firsts in politics, sports, entertainment and now at Wake Chapel Church in Raleigh North Carolina. Vice President Kamala Harris, your sorority sister, became the first woman to hold the title of Vice President in January of this year. Beyoncé Knowles recently broke the record for the most Grammy wins in Grammy history. Janet Yellen became the first woman to lead the Treasury Department since it was founded in 1789. Sarah Thomas was the NFL's first ever female referee to officiate a Super Bowl game. Ngozi Okonjo-Iwela became the first woman and the first African to lead the World Trade Organization since it was founded in 1995. And today, on April 24, 2021, Pastor Sharon Dean becomes the first female, in 122 years, to serve as the spiritual shepherd of the Wake Chapel Church congregation.

Congratulations to the members of Wake Chapel Church on your historical decision to appoint a woman to the pastoral position within your fellowship. God is certainly doing a might work as He continues to prove to all of us that He created man and woman in His image and as equals. For safety purposes, let me remind everyone to please watch your step because glass has been shattered and it is everywhere! Let us continue as Christian brothers and sisters to live our lives so that we may be used by Him for His service. It does not matter if we are male or female, black or white, Jew or Gentile, AKA or Delta, we are all ONE in His sight.

Congratulations my sister! The South Atlantic Region of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated is so very proud of you. Enjoy your historical day. May God continue to bless each of you.

In Christian Love,

Dear Pastor Dean and Wake Chapel Church Family,

On behalf of Brother Eddie Lambert, President of the Phi Lambda Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc and the brotherhood of men who serve the Wake and Johnston County communities through this chapter we are honored to celebrate with anticipation your April 24, 2021 Senior Pastor installation service. We are excited to witness this chosen time for you to reap from the harvest of doing well in the service of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Romans 12 instructs us to “Rejoice with those who rejoice”. This occasion provides the prime opportunity for us to be happy along with you as you embark on this new era of ministry and service to the people of our community. We look forward to seeing the fruition of your vision for good works that will continue to enlighten our brothers and sisters. Pastor Dean as you have opportunity, we encourage you to lean upon the churches, fraternities, sororities, civic groups and residents to assist in doing good to and for all.

Congratulations and may God continue to bless your leadership with wisdom and sustain you through his Holy Spirit.

Respectfully submitted,

Laric E. Copes, Sr.

Dear Senior Pastor Sharon Dean,

I am delighted to congratulate you on your installment at Wake Chapel Church. Your leadership and learned pastoral experience will certainly benefit the Wake Chapel Church Community. As a woman of vision and courageous commitment, you are shattering the glass ceiling after 121 years.

Your steps have been ordered and directed to the doors of Wake Chapel Church, for such a time as this. I look forward to meeting you on some occasion in celebrating your servant leadership and building our best communities.

With Warmest Regards,

Cassandra Deck-Brown

Dear Senior Pastor Dean,

On behalf of the men and women of the Morrisville Police Department, I am extremely honored and delighted to congratulate you on your well-deserved appointment as Senior Pastor of Wake Chapel Church.

This last year has undoubtedly brought challenges that have tested our faith, our humanity, and our resilience. If it not for strong servant leaders, like yourself, we would have most assuredly not have made it through the valley. I commend the Wake Chapel Church family for making this historic appointment that is traditionally held by men. Although we have far to go, this is certainly a tremendous first step.

It is not always easy to be 'the first'. While some may watch with apprehensive eyes, the majority will be extremely supportive and uplift you in continuous prayer coupled with loving guidance. Always remember that you have been created for a time such as this. Your steps have been ordered and your journey is just beginning. Take pride in knowing that you are continuing to build a legacy on which others will stand.

May God continue to guide your acts, thoughts, and words. May He remain steady at your side even during the uneasy times and may you always know that the love and support of your community is unwavering.

With warm regards,

A CONGREGATION'S PRAYER

Dear God:

Thank you for loving the Wake Chapel Church family so much you sent one of your precious disciples to shepherd our congregation. We are grateful for this moment in history and the opportunity to fulfill your will under the headship of Pastor Dean. We shall be obedient to your will and your Word.

WE PRAY for Pastor Dean as she undertakes this weighty responsibility. We realize that being a leader of a group of people is a big responsibility and charge. We are fallible people. We have a need to share our challenges and short comings with our pastoral leader. Our Pastor absorbs our griefs, our sorrows and our disappointments. We understand the weight of the trials of so many can be a burden.

WE PRAY you cover our beloved Pastor with your Spirit of love and give her peace when difficult moments arise. We ask that you soothe her with peaceful rest when she needs restoration and energy to fight battles for which you have already given victory.

WE PRAY you pour out onto Pastor Dean an abundance of inspired wisdom to discern situations and make the decisions you have ordained for our Congregation. We have faith you will walk before Pastor Dean and show her the way in business meetings, worship services, community networks and ministry work.

WE PRAY you protect Pastor Dean from any and all forces that seek to destroy her and this Ministry. We hold fastly to our faith that nothing can pluck us from your hand. In you we find safety and blessed assurance of the victory.

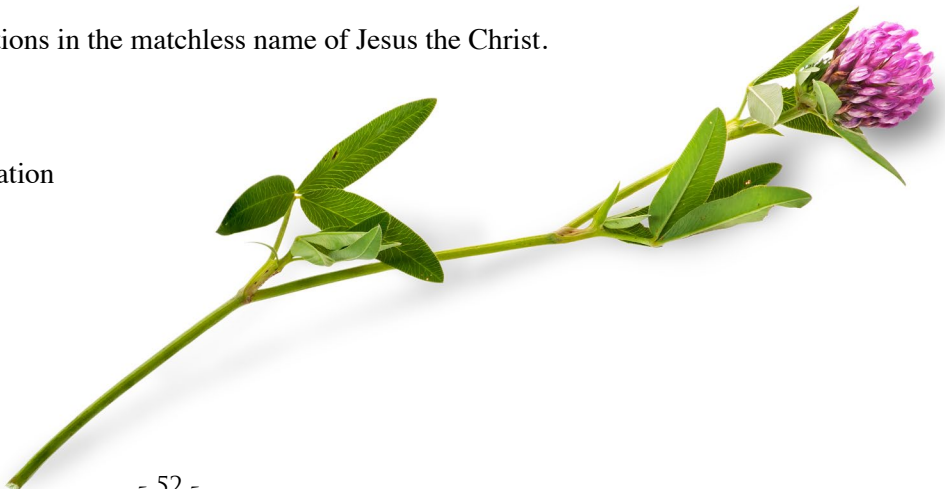

WE PRAY that we as a Church community adorn our Pastor with graciousness, love and support. We pledge to trust in her judgment, honor her decisions and lend a hand when she needs assistance. When we fall short of your expectation, we ask that you forgive us and show us the way back into your good grace.

WE PRAY for a lion spirit to be courageous in the walk that awaits us. We have an expectancy that you have good plans for us. We shall be triumphant in all we do so long as we remain attentive to your will.

WE PRAY these and all other petitions in the matchless name of Jesus the Christ.

Prayerfully yours...

The Wake Chapel Church Congregation

WAKE CHAPEL CHURCH MINISTRIES

An event like this requires the cooperation and assistance of many individuals. This Pastoral Installation Celebration could not have happened without the contributions of Wake Chapel Church's ministries and support functions. In your usual Wake Chapel Church fashion, you arose to the occasion and contributed your customary professional and efficient services.

Our Church is blessed with a host of people who possess many talents. We are grateful for those of you who marshalled resources, rearranged furniture, sent emails, toiled over every detail and pitched in other ways. Your diligence and dedication does not go unnoticed. We appreciate every sacrifice and effort each of you invested in making this a blessed day.

THE PASTORAL INSTALLATION COMMITTEE

L to R: Trustee Indira Everett, Trustee Bernadine Cobb, Deacon Maurice Smith, Elder Bernadine Anthony (Chair), Elder Richard Moore, Brother Phillip Langston, and Elder Vernestine Kent.

Beloved Wake Chapel Church Family & Friends,

Serving on the Installation Committee has been a pleasure and privilege for each of us. If you love Pastor Sharon Dean and Wake Chapel Church, as much as we do, you understand our enthusiasm for this effort.

The only disappointment experienced was the inability to physically be together in large numbers due to the necessity for social distancing in this pandemic. It was our heartfelt desire to include everyone in the physical Church facilities to worship and celebrate our new Pastor in one location and all together. Yet, under the circumstances, this could not happen as desired.

Even still, preparation for all to participate in this historic event was made possible.

You were invited to join this sacred occasion virtually. Space was made for a drive-by reception to help attendees have a more personalized experience. And social media access continuously brings us in closer socially. In addition to online access and a drive-by reception, this Pastoral Order of Worship and Installation Program book can serve as a keepsake since it is created in a format for sharing via email and through a download from our Church website.

This Pastoral Installation marks a new era in the history of Wake Chapel Church. We eagerly look forward to the blessings God has in store for our Church family.

We pray for your health, joy, and spiritual growth.
