COVER STORY

Our cover features the internationally celebrated Hadley School for the Blind in Winnetka, the world's only accredited home-study school for young people and adults who are blind.

Founded in 1920, the School annually teaches nearly 3000 students through brailled and recorded tutorial study by mail, with a curriculum extending from fifth grade to college level courses. Volunteers, gifts and bequests of individuals and groups make it possible for the School to offer its accredited courses as scholarships without charge to the blind. The School is widely known as "The University of Courage."
