III. CONFERENCE DIRECTORY

The directory is presented according to a minister or lay member's conference relationship as of July 1, in the following order:

- A. Bishops
 - B. Ordained Clergy, Provisional Members, Associate Members, and Local Pastors
 - C. Clergy Granted Honorable Location
 - D. Diaconal Ministers
 - E. Certified Lay Ministers
 - F. Deaconesses and Home Missioners
 - G. Missionaries / Mission Personnel
 - H. Lay Members Who Attended Annual Conference
 - I. Surviving Spouses of Deceased Clergy and Diaconal Ministers
- The information of each person is presented in the sequence: Name (Spouse) – Status – (District) Appointment; Mailing Address; Telephone Numbers (Office, Residence, Cell); and e-mail address.
 - The capital letters following each name indicate the individual's current conference status/relationship:

AF Affiliate Clergy Member	OA Associate Member of Another Conference
AL Clergy on Administrative Location	OD Deacon of Another Conf or Methodist Denomination
AM Associate Member	OE Elder of Another Conf or Methodist Denomination
BH Bishop / Former Bishop	OF Full Member of Another Denomination
DC Deaconess	OP Provisional Member of Another Conference
DM Diaconal Minister	OR Retired Member of Another Conference

LM Certified Lay Minister
 - The two letters in parentheses preceding the appointments/retirements are the district abbreviations:

AP Appalachian	NP Northern Piedmont
BR Blue Ridge	SM Smoky Mountain
CV Catawba Valley	UW Uwharrie
ME Metro	YV Yadkin Valley
 - In phone numbers, the designation 'O' refers to office; 'R' to residence; and 'C' to cellphone number.
 - An Asterisk (*) marks the names of the clergy, diaconal ministers, and deaconesses who did not register as attending annual conference and did not send a letter asking to be excused.

The 2022-23 appointments (eff. July 1, 2022) can be accessed at www.wnccumc.org/clergyappointments, as well as being printed in section VI. Ad interim appointments are updated at www.wnccumc.org by searching under "Churches" or "Clergy."

If information is listed incorrectly, is missing, or changes during the year, please visit the administrative services website at www.wnccumc.org/administration, and log into the Clergy Dashboard make the changes.

For questions about a directory listing, please contact the Conference Secretary, Kim Ingram (kingram@wnccumc.org), or your district office at www.wnccumc.org/districts.

Excerpt from the 2022 Opening Worship Service:

TESTIMONY OF HOPE

And Are We Yet Alive Words: Charles Wesley, 1749; Music: Johann G. Nägeli; arr. By Lowell Mason, 1845, Tune: Dennis
Reprinted with permission under ONE LICENSE #A-711660. All rights reserved.

Have Thine Own Way, Lord Words: Adelaide A. Pollard, 1902; Music: George C. Stebbins, 1907, Tune: Adelaide
Reprinted with permission under ONE LICENSE #A-711660. All rights reserved.

Soloist: And are we yet alive and see each other's face?...
Leader: Are we Yet Alive?
It's been a long, hard two years since we have been in the same room to "see each other's face."
So how are we?

All: The weight of the past two years has been heavy upon us.
Soloist: What troubles have we seen, what mighty conflicts past...
Leader: The COVID-19 pandemic exacted a huge cost upon our world. There have been more than six million deaths worldwide and more than 24,500 deaths in North Carolina. Our communities have been ravaged by illness, grief, and suffering. Caregivers, medical professionals, emergency responders, and spiritual leaders have experienced compassion fatigue.*

Reflection Pause

All: Even so, God is our light and our salvation. We are not afraid, our hope is in the Lord!
Leader: We have experienced violence in the world that God created for peace. Nations such as Sudan, Afghanistan, Ukraine, Colombia, Myanmar and many others bear the scars of war.

Reflection Pause

All: Even so, God is our light and our salvation. We are not afraid, our hope is in the Lord!
Leader: Our own communities carry the scourge of violence and oppression. This violence is too often manifested through the use of guns that disrupt lives and harm innocent children, youth, and adults. During the season of the pandemic, crimes against Asian Americans have increased by over seventy-seven percent.

Reflection Pause

All: Even so, God is our light and our salvation. We are not afraid, our hope is in the Lord!
Leader: As we have experienced the pandemic of COVID-19, we too have experienced the pandemic of racism. The death of George Floyd and others has opened a window to the tension beneath the surface. We are not the Beloved Community God created us to be.

Reflection Pause

All: Even so, God is our light and our salvation. We are not afraid, our hope is in the Lord!
Leader: Brokenness extends to our own denomination. We are broken, hurting people. We have often chosen to nurse our division rather than build bridges over our differences. We are missing people, missing brothers and sisters in ministry.

Reflection Pause

All: Even so, God is our light and our salvation. We are not afraid, our hope is in the Lord!
Leader: We are broken like clay pots. We call out to our potter God who has shaped us, who can reshape us, and remold us according to the Divine Purpose. Redeem and heal your broken people, O God, that we will live as disciples of your Son, who died broken on the cross to create us anew.

All Sing: Have thine own way, Lord! Have thine own way!
Thou art the potter; [we are] the clay.
Mold [us] and make [us] after thy will,
While [we are] waiting, yielded and still.

THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 2022

EXECUTIVE SESSION OF CLERGY MEMBERS – 3:00 P.M.

CLERGY SESSION CONVENES: In compliance with ¶¶ 605.7 of The Book of Discipline (2016), Bishop Kenneth H. Carter Jr. convened an executive session of the clergy members of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference at 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 16, 2022, in George R. Stuart Auditorium, Lake Junaluska, North Carolina. After singing the hymn 57 (UMH) O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing, the Rev. Kevin Allan Turner, Davidson, (Davidson, ME) providing accompaniment, Ceola Ross-Baber, Newlyn Street, (Greensboro, NP), member BOM executive committee, offered an opening prayer.

BROTHERHOOD/SISTERHOOD: Rev. Roland T. Barnhardt, executive director, presented the report. The Brotherhood/Sisterhood was organized 128 years ago by clergy and laity to provide collegial support and immediate assistance to the families of clergy members when they die. Twenty-four families have received the support since July 2021. Rev. Jeremy P. Pegram, First, (Pilot Mountain, YV) president, thanked the staff, Rev. Barnhardt and Robbie Carr, administrative assistant; and, reminded members of the annual meeting scheduled for Friday, June 17, 2022, at 12 noon, in room 213 of Terrace Hotel. Several amendments to the by-laws are part of the agenda.

PRIVILEGE: Bishop Carter introduced Bishop J. Lawrence McCleskey, retired, who will be present on the platform.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY REPORT: Bishop Carter introduced Rev. Lynda L. Ferguson, First, (Asheboro, UW), chairperson, who presented the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. She was glad to be meeting in person for this session after the pandemic and other turmoil for the past two years. She reported the BOM has 75 members, 4 local pastors, 9 deacons, 45 elders, and 15 lay members. The membership come from diverse geography, ages, experience, gender, places of ministry and theology. The board has sought to listen to those different perspectives. She thanked the members, the executive committee, the conference staff, and the members of the district committees. She noted the creation of a task force to develop a Fair and Equitable Interview Process. Dr. Ceola Ross-Barber, laity, (Newlyn Street, NP) and Rev. Dr. Kevin A. Turner, clergy (Davidson, ME) co-chair the task force. Rev. Ferguson highlighted the on-going clergy ethics training on racism, noted the planned “Hats Off” celebration today for the candidates in the classes of 2020, 2021, and 2022, and finally requested prayers for the families who have suffered a death, faced health issues, and for all the clergy who are retiring. Bishop Carter thanked Rev. Ferguson for her report.

ELIGIBLE TO VOTE: The Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram, conference secretary and director of ministerial services, and Rev. Lynda Ferguson explained that only clergy in full connection either active or retired and lay members of the Board of Ordained Ministry are eligible to vote. Those eligible must be seated in sections 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of Stuart Auditorium.

BUSINESS QUESTION 13: Rev Ingram asked business question 13 and Rev. Amy L. Coles, assistant to the bishop, supplied the proposed response for business question 13 in regard to the character of the clergy in the annual conference.

BUSINESS QUESTION 14a (members of the Administrative Review Committee): Rev. Ferguson presented the names, and they were approved by the required majority vote.

BUSINESS QUESTION 15 (certified candidates): Rev. Paul B. Thompson, Huntersville, (Huntersville, ME), vice-chairperson, presented the response to business question 15.

RECOGNITION OF DECEASED CLERGY AND DIACONAL MINISTERS: Rev. Dr. Uiyeon Kim, Myers Park (Charlotte, ME), discernment team chairperson read the names of the six associate members retired, the four active and 26 elders retired, the one active local pastor and 3 local pastors retired, the two deacons retired, and the one diaconal minister retired who have died in the last year. Bishop Ken Carter celebrated the lives of these departed sisters and brothers, gave thanks for their years of service and ministry, petitioned for God's grace for their families, friends, and fellow clergy; and, offered a prayer.

REPORT OF THE LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT TEAM: Rev. Shirley L. Canty, Burge Memorial-Rock Hill (Mount Holly, CV), chairperson leadership development team presented the report. Rev. Canty noted that the goal of the group is to provide resources and support for leadership needs of clergy and ministry professionals. The priorities of the group have been to help clergy deal with grief, to lament, and to experience hope. Opportunities for renewal and self-care are sponsored. A spiritual renewal experience is being planned for September 2022. A new offering will look to provide clergy care through service. A new preaching cohort is scheduled and a new edition of Flourish 2.0. She encouraged the clergy to connect to the website for more information.

BISHOP CARTER: Bishop Kenneth H. Carter, Jr. presiding bishop for the Western North Carolina and Florida Annual Conferences spoke to the executive session of the clergy. His primary message was to express thanks. He was grateful for the life and vocation in ministry of the clergy. He noted the division and decline in vitality in the denomination. He mourned the 25,000 persons who have died in North Carolina from Covid-19. He acknowledged the polarization in the body. He thanked the clergy for being on the front lines through all the events, hurt, trauma, anger and sorrow of the past two years and recent months. He recognized that it has been exhausting for the clergy and their congregants. He declared that he did not take for granted what the clergy have given. He gave thanks for the strength of the connection. He concluded his words with a prayer.

HATS OFF!: Rev. Dr. Uiyeon Kim, Myers Park (Charlotte, ME), discernment team chairperson, provided opening remarks for the celebration to honor the 2020, 2021, and 2022 Ordination and Commissioning classes. A video introduced each of the 120 people licensed, commissioned, and ordained. Rev. Frederick B. Bowman, Catawba Valley district vitality associate, encouraged the clergy to be lifelong learners. Rev. Elizabeth M. Crissman, West Market Street (Greensboro, NP), provided additional instructions for the celebration on the lawn between Stuart Auditorium and the Memorial Chapel and closed with prayer.

ADJOURNMENT: The executive session of the clergy adjourned at 4:30 p.m.

FRIDAY, JUNE 17, 2022

OPENING WORSHIP AND HOLY COMMUNION – 10:30 A.M.

After a prelude by Jarvis Wilson, conference musician, and call to worship by Rev. Charlie D. Rivens, Sr., New Place (Charlotte, ME), the processional hymn 64 (UMH), Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty was sung. Rev. Donna Strickland Smith, Burnett's Chapel (Greensboro, NC) offered the opening prayer. Following a choral call to worship sung by the Greensboro Ensemble, Rev. Patricia M. Dixon, Faith – Antioch (Rural Hall, YV) led the litany, "Testimony of Hope", using an adaption of Psalm 27 and lines from the hymns And Are We Yet Alive and Have Thine Own Way, Lord. Mrs. Lindsay Snipes Hampton, West UMC Growth Co. (ME), read the scripture lesson, John 20:17-23. Following a song of preparation by The Greensboro Ensemble, Bishop Kenneth Carter, Jr., presiding bishop for the Western North Carolina Conference and the Florida Conference, introduced Rev. Dr. Edgardo Colon-Emeric, dean of Duke Divinity School, who presented the message, "After Pentecost." Using the gospel text from John and the conference theme of connect, imagine, and engage, Dr. Colon-Emeric contrasted the disciples before Pentecost and after Pentecost. Before Pentecost the disciples were afraid, angry, and apart, trapped in the logic of the world. After Pentecost they remembered who Jesus is and his ministry and began to understand and be empowered for discipleship. Dr. Colon-Emeric challenged worshippers to reconnect with Jesus and find some upper rooms not as a fortress but for reflection and empowerment, to reimagine mission, mission from the margins, and to reengage the spirit in order to dream, for we are commissioned to dream. Rev. Pamela E. Blackstock, Central (Charlotte, ME), explained that the offering will be evenly divided between two ministries: the preservation, and infrastructural improvements of historic Stuart Auditorium at Lake Junaluska, and towards grant funding that will be distributed among small, rural, and churches of color to explore how digital resources can impact their worship, discipleship, hospitality, and leadership. Following an offertory sung by the Greensboro Korean UMC Praise Team entitled Vision, and the doxology, Bishop Carter, Dr. Colon-Emeric, and Rev. Monica C. Childers, St. Luke's (Hickory, CV) led the congregation in a prayer of confession and pardon and Great Thanksgiving. Bishop Carter celebrated the sacrament of Holy Communion with the assistance of other clergy and lay persons. After the prayer following communion, the singing of the recessional hymn 670 (UMH) Go Forth for God, benediction by Bishop Carter, and postlude played by Jarvis Wilson, worship concluded, and the conference recessed at 12 noon.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE CONVENES – 1:30 P.M.

CONFERENCE CONVENES: With Bishop Kenneth H. Carter, Jr., resident and presiding bishop of the Charlotte Area, presiding, The Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church convened in the George R. Stuart Auditorium at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, on June 17, 2022, at 1:30 p.m.

CALL TO ORDER: Following the singing of hymn 553 (UMH), And Are We Yet Alive, Bishop Carter offered an opening prayer, written by the late Rev. Dr. Thomas A. Langford, Jr., and called the 55th session of the annual conference to order at 1:30 p.m.

PRIVILEGE: Bishop Carter introduced Mr. Jarvis Wilson and Mr. Keith Wilson who will serve as conference musicians.

#BeUMC VIDEO: A video segment of #BeUMC was presented which focused on the testimony of young adults about being United Methodist.

WELCOME TO LAKE JUNALUSKA ASSEMBLY: Bishop Carter introduced Ken Howle, executive director of Lake Junaluska, who welcomed members of the annual conference to Lake Junaluska Assembly for the first time since 2019. He reaffirmed the mission of Lake Junaluska Assembly as a place of Christian hospitality, where lives are transformed through renewal of mind, soul, and body. He noted that 2022 is the 109th anniversary of the assembly and that a priority of the assembly is the restoration and infrastructural improvements of the historic and oldest structure on the Assembly, Stuart Auditorium. He thanked Bishop Carter and the members of the conference for their continued support.

VOTING BAR AND ELECTION OF DISTRICT-AT-LARGE MEMBERS: Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram, conference secretary moved, and the conference approved that the voting bar, or legal limits, of the conference be set to include all of Stuart Auditorium, and that those voting must be seated within the bar unless other instructions are given in case of a full house. And, she further moved that the district-at-large members, who have been identified by the districts according to the equalization process, be elected to serve.

APPROVAL OF THE AGENDA: The conference secretary moved, and the conference approved that the conference program as printed on page 3 of the Supplement booklet constitute the official agenda of the 2022 conference session. Rev. Ingram explained that if you want to speak about a change in the agenda, please bring a note to the desk. She highlighted on page 32 of the Supplement, Connect@AC. On that webpage can be found 7 or 8 fun options for members to connect with others at conference. After 3 years apart from each other, conference organizers wanted members to be able to reconnect with old friends and make new ones.

REPORTS OF BOARD AND AGENCIES: The conference secretary moved, and the conference approved that the reports of the conference boards and agencies as printed in the Program and Reports booklet and the Supplement be ordered to record insofar as they do not require conference action and provided that the conference agencies be permitted to file late reports and/or corrections no later than July 1, 2022.

SECRETARIAL STAFF: The conference secretary nominated the following persons as members of the conference secretarial staff for the 2022 session, and they were elected: Marsha Patton and Rev. A. Owen Peeler, associate secretaries; Rev. Kathy M. McAbee and George Eubanks, assistant secretaries; and Rev. Dr. Charles D. White, Jr. (Denny) as conference secretary emeritus.

GREETINGS TO THOSE MEMBERS ABSENT: The conference secretary moved, and the conference approved that any action concerning conference members unable to attend because of illness or other family emergency be given directly to the conference secretary, and that the secretary write these absent members expressing the greetings and prayer concern of the conference.

CONSENT CALENDAR MOTION: The Rev. Kim Ingram, conference secretary, reported that the list of petitions for the consent calendar is found on page 10 of the Supplement. Rev. Ingram moved that the consent calendar, PETITIONS 4-15 be adopted as printed, and it was approved.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS: The conference secretary moved the adoption of the report of the committee on nominations for 2020-2024 ad interim, and they were elected. Rev. Ingram noted that these changes are proposed based on our conference rules for people asking to come off a committee, filling vacancies, and inactivity.

CONFERENCE RULES AND PLAN OF ORGANIZATION: Bishop Carter introduced Dr. Jonathan LeMaster-Smith, First (Newton, CV), chairperson, who presented the report of the committee on conference rules and organization and moved the adoption of the proposed amendments, and they were adopted. The committee makes decisions based on recommendations from various agencies and entities within the denomination, including any disciplinary changes that occur, any requests from entities within the annual conference, structural changes that occur so that the rules and procedures are in line with what the conference is actually doing and in line with The Book of Discipline. The changes this year are printed on pages 15-20 in the Supplement and summarized as follows: Part I.A.1.a., added the specific paragraph reference, paragraph 32, of The Book of Discipline, which connects annual conference clergy membership with the Constitution of The United Methodist Church. Part I.A.1.e., and other references of the United Methodist Women in the rules and procedures, by correcting the changed name of the global organization from United Methodist Women to United Women in Faith. Part I.A.2. adds the requirement in The Book of Discipline that district-at-large members will be elected at the opening business session of Annual Conference. Part I.C.1.a. and d. adds the words “and inclusiveness” after diversity; and in item d. adds the sentence that the nomination process be conducted in a manner that ensures diversity and inclusiveness. These changes were made to align with The Book of Discipline and the priority of the annual conference. Part I.C.5.b. and d. removes Ministries of Creation Care led by a Conference Earth-keeper from the Justice and Reconciliation Team and adds ministries of creation care to the Mission Engagement Team. Part I.F.7. creates a new section of procedures for the election of lay and clergy delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference. This is in response to a petition adopted by the 2019 session of annual conference that approved a request for a procedure for clergy to self-nominate to be elected a delegate to the General and Jurisdictional Conference.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY: Bishop Carter introduced Rev. Lynda L. Ferguson, First (Asheboro, UW), chairperson, who presented the report. Rev. Ferguson thanked the members of the district committees on ordained ministry and the conference board of ordained ministry, and on their behalf presented the candidates for licensing, commissioning, and ordination. She highlighted that there are 32 local pastors for licensing, 3 clergy by transfer from other annual conferences to the Western North Carolina Conference, 13 received from other annual conferences or denominations serving on loan, 16 provisional members to be commissioned, 2 deacons for ordination, 8 elders for ordination, 1 clergy from another denomination whose orders are recognized. All of the candidates have been examined, reviewed, and their education requirements completed. They are approved for readiness and effectiveness for ministry. Rev. Ferguson noted the creation of a task force for the just and equitable interview process of candidates chaired by Dr. Ceola Ross Barber, Newlyn Street (Greensboro, NP) and Rev. Dr. Kevin Allan Turner, Davidson (Davidson, ME). She highlighted that the quadrennial emphasis for the required clergy ethics training is focused on anti-racism education and application.

HISTORIC WESLEY QUESTIONS FOR ORDINANDS: Bishop Carter invited the candidates for ordination to the platform. As a tradition in this annual conference, he asked the historic questions of John Wesley for those to be ordained. Bishop Carter explained and expounded on these questions and encouraged lay members of the conference to “lean in” to their roles and responsibilities for support, accountability, and encouragement. Bishop Carter asked the conference to welcome the ordinands and he greeted each of them by name.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY: Rev. Sanford L. Giles, chairperson, presented the report. Rev. Giles noted the obvious that the Covid-19 pandemic had turned the world upside down. One of the disruptive effects of the pandemic was cancellation of General and Jurisdictional Conference, the inability to elect new bishops and fill vacancies because of bishops, who were required to retire. The Southeastern Jurisdiction Committee on Episcopacy appointed Bishop Ken Carter to continue as bishop of the Florida Annual Conference and in addition to lead the Western North Carolina Conference. This is the first opportunity to welcome and greet Bishop and Mrs. Carter. Chairperson Giles thanked Bishop Carter for his leadership, characterized by reconciliation, civility, and kindness. Hank Dozier, St. Mark’s (Charlotte, ME), vice-chairperson and Jennifer Davis, Epworth (Gastonia, CV), ex-officio member and head of the lay delegates to General Conference, led a service of celebrating the assignment of a bishop to an area. Rev. Alex Shanks, assistant to the bishop, Florida Conference, brought greetings from the conference and provided statistics and highlights of mission and ministry in Florida. He noted that the Florida conference has 548 churches, 26 missions, 752 clergy, 209,000 laity, and 109,000 average worship attendance. During the pandemic 5 million meals were served in one year. Rev. Pam Carter, spouse of Bishop Carter, greeted the conference and spoke words of gratitude. Rev. Giles concluded the report by presenting Bishop Carter with a bag of Junaluska Java coffee.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE LAY LEADER: Bishop Carter introduced John Crane, First, (Gastonia, CV), conference lay leader. Mr. Crane presented his report to the conference. He celebrated the partnership of clergy and laity, especially over the past two years, who showed God’s love, offered grace, encouragement, comfort, and healing in the many local communities of service and beyond. He thanked members of the board of laity and all the lay members of the annual conference. He noted that the lay members of the conference are the vital link between the vision and goals of the annual conference and the local congregations.

IMAGINE – THE FUTURE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH: Rev. Kim Ingram, First (Belmont, CV), head of the clergy delegation to General Conference, and Jennifer Davis, Epworth (Gastonia, CV), head of the lay delegation to General Conference, shared a list of the strengths, the foundational theological doctrines, and the common core of ministry of The United Methodist Church. Western North Carolina United Methodism is and will continue to be a place where lives are changed by Christ and communities transformed. The vital ministry of the local church happens in a particular context of the gifts which the local church brings and the needs of the local community. That will continue in The United Methodist Church. In the future United Methodist Church all members, clergy, local churches, and annual conferences will continue to have a home, whether they consider themselves liberal, evangelical, progressive, traditionalist, middle-of-the-road, conservative, centrist, or something else. There is no vote needed to remain a United Methodist. Rev. Ingram reported that Jurisdictional Conferences are scheduled to convene this year for all five Jurisdictions. The Southeastern Jurisdiction will meet November 2-4, 2022 at Lake Junaluska Assembly. A part of those sessions will be the election of new bishops and their respective assignments. General Conference is scheduled to meet in May 2024. No exact dates are available at this time. Annual Conferences are awaiting a decision by the Judicial Council as to whether the 2024 General Conference will be considered a postponement of the 2020 General Conference. If it is ruled that the next General Conference is a postponement from 2020, then the clergy and lay delegates elected in 2019 will serve in 2024 and legislation previously submitted will be a part of the agenda. If it is ruled that the May 2024 meeting is not a postponement, then new delegates will be elected at the 2023 session of the annual conference and new legislation submitted. The Book of Discipline cannot change until 2024. Rev. Ingram encouraged members to consider what it means to be a United Methodist and tell their story in Harrell Center, room 102 and become a part of #BeUMC.

BISHOP'S REMARKS: Bishop Ken Carter offered his reflections on The Future of the UMC. Bishop Carter proclaimed that United Methodists are people who love scripture, but the interpretation of scripture is shaped by the people who taught and influenced us. In addition, as United Methodists, we are aided in our interpretation by the tradition, our reason, and our experiences with the Holy Spirit and our particular human experiences. He continued, the future of The United Methodist Church will value scripture, and the doctrines of the denomination and the restrictive rules will not change. But each generation must do the theological task, which is to integrate doctrines that are ancient with the realities of the present. This requires hard conversations. Hard conversations are part of our DNA. How can the church be a counter cultural place where we have hard conversations across our differences, but we see Christ in each other as we do it? We hold to the core values. The journey to holiness means the church leans into differences in order to listen, to love God more, and love other people more. Bishop Carter confessed that he cannot be holy without you. And you cannot be holy without me. We are called together to love God more and to love each other more. This is the journey to holiness.

The reflections by Bishop Carter, Rev. Ingram, and Ms. Davis concluded with a litany, led by Ms. Davis, based on the baptismal liturgy of The United Methodist Church.

EPISCOPAL NOMINATION: Jennifer Davis, chair of the laity delegation to General Conference, announced that Rev. Amy L. Coles, assistant to the bishop, was overwhelmingly affirmed the episcopal nominee from the Western North Carolina Conference by the delegation. Rev. Coles thanked the conference for the affirmation and shared reflections based on Romans 8 that names our present state of brokenness and exclaims our hope for a way forward.

REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES: Rev. S. Amelia Stinson-Wesley, First (Charlotte, ME), conference delegate to the governing board of the NCCC, presented the report. The Council of Churches is represented by 18 denominations from across the state from various geographical areas and from diverse communities. The council informs and advocates about theological, social, and political issues considered through the eyes of the Christian faith tradition. She highlighted that the council is offering listening posts at the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference to hear about mental health concerns, to provide a space to talk with health care professionals for assessment and needed resources.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: The conference secretary made necessary announcements.

RECESS: The conference recessed at 3:43 p.m. with a #BeUMC video being played as members departed for the recess.

ORDER OF THE DAY – 4:00 P.M. RECOGNITION OF 2022 RETIREES

Following a prelude by Jarvis Wilson, conference musician, Rev. Dr. Sarah B. Kalish, chairperson WNCUMC Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, delivered opening remarks, noting the combined 1,464 years of service of the 60 retirees being honored. She thanked them for their years of ministry and petitioned God's blessing going forward. Rev. Dr. Mark J. Key, board of ordained ministry representative, spoke in support of the pass-the-mantle initiative, a way to honor retirees and say thank you by providing financial support through a fund, administered by the United Methodist Foundation to provide scholarships for certified clergy candidates. In the first year $24,815.00 has been raised. After an opening prayer led by Rev. Maegan Daigle Habich, Pfeiffer University (Misenheimer, UW), 2022 member of full connection class, Rev. Sharad H. Creasman, Brevard College (Brevard, BR), 2022 member of full connection class, led the litany, "Whom Shall I Send." Rev. Julianne Brittain (Jan), Williamson's Chapel (Mooresville, ME), 2022 member of retiree class, spoke on behalf of the retirees. Rev. Katherine Randall Bryant, Trinity (Kannapolis, ME), 2022 member of full connection class, spoke in response on behalf of the 2022 class in full connection. Following the singing of hymn 545 (UMC) The Church's One Foundation, Dr. Kalish presented the 2022 class of retirees. Bishop Carter greeted each retiree. Rev. Dr. R. Mark King, conference treasurer and director of administrative services, Rev. Kim Ingram, director of ministerial services and conference secretary, and Dale Bryant, benefits administrator participated. Retirees were presented certificates and each spouse received a rose. Rev. Dr. Michael D. Kurtz, Francis Asbury (Candler, BR), 2022 member of retiree class, and Rev. Karen C. Kurtz, Montmorenci (Candler, BR), 2022 member of retiree class, offered special music written by Dr. Kurtz, May Our Lives Be a Praise. Bishop Carter led a response in gratitude from the church. Rev. Jennifer Read-Orr, Salem, (Albemarle, UW), 2022 member of full connection class, offered the closing prayer. Following the singing of hymn 156 (UMH) I Love to Tell the Story, Bishop Carter pronounced the benediction.

RECESS: Pursuant to adjournment the conference recessed at 5:10 p.m.

SATURDAY, JUNE 18, 2022CONFERENCE PLENARY – BUSINESS SESSION – 8:30 A.M.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.: G. Thomas Jordan, chairperson of the board of directors, called the meeting to order and presented the report. He explained the formation of the foundation by annual conference action, the number of persons to serve on the board and their division to serve in classes of three-year terms, and members, who serve as ex-officio. Mr. Jordan nominated the following for election to the board and they were elected: in the class of 2025, Mark Bailey, David Mildenberg, Wanda Musgrave, Melvin Scales, and Steve Wilson. He introduced Rev. David A. Snipes, president and executive director, who continued the report. He noted that the foundation is now the third largest foundation in total assets in the denomination and the largest in the Southeastern Jurisdiction. He acknowledged Mr. Jordan, who is retiring from the board of the foundation after 14 years of service. Mr. Jordan was elected to serve in 2008 and has served in many roles for the foundation, as well as a delegate to General Conference, in his local church, Christ UMC, Greensboro, and the wider Greensboro community. As a token of appreciation, the foundation is presenting a gift in his honor to the Mack Brown “Learn to Swim” endowment in Guilford County, which is dedicated to providing water safety to all Second Graders. Rev. Snipes nominated Anne Martin to serve as chairperson of the board, and she was elected. He listed her prior leadership roles for the foundation and noted that she will be the first woman chairperson of the board. Mrs. Martin addressed the conference and noted that Rev. Snipes celebrates 20 years as executive director. She further highlighted the work of the foundation, including assisting in clergy debt reduction, providing grants for local churches, and the goal to be more inclusive in the foundation’s projects and partnerships. A video, “The Foundation as A Light in the WNC” was shown celebrating the foundation’s milestones for the past twenty years, including testimonies of appreciation for the leadership of Rev. David Snipes. Rev. Snipes presented to Bishop Carter a check in the amount of $217,000.00, the largest gift given to date, for the Bishop’s Initiative which will be designated for the comprehensive plan of equity, peacemaking in communities, and strengthening “First Churches.” The annual meeting of the Foundation adjourned at 9:02 a.m.

CONFERENCE CONVENES: Pursuant to recess the conference reconvened at 9:02 a.m. with a video segment from #BeUMC.

CONNECTION MOMENT AND PRAYER: Nick Hall, First (North Wilkesboro, AP), co-president of Conference Council on Youth Ministry, shared how CCYM, because of the lapse of in-person events due to Covid-19, has developed a network to share resources, provide support, and offer vision to strengthen young people in their discipleship. He closed with a centering prayer.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION: Dr. Irish Gaymon Spencer, Memorial (High Point, NP), vice-president, presented the report of the council on finance and administration. Bishop Carter offered a prayer of healing for Rev. George M. Coates, Hickory Grove (Charlotte, ME), president, who is dealing with a serious illness. Dr. Spencer introduced members of CF&A, and Rev. Dr. R. Mark King, conference treasurer and director of administrative services introduced members of the conference treasury services. Dr. Spencer summarized the responsibilities of CF&A required by The Book of Discipline to develop, maintain, and administer the fiscal policies of the annual conference, to develop and manage the budget, and to serve as a ministry partner to make ministry and mission possible. Dr. Spencer presented PETITION 1a: 2023 CONFERENCE FUNDS AND FINANCIAL POLICIES, and moved the adoption of items 1-20, and they were adopted. She noted that the amount paid by the local church for apportionments will be removed from the formula for calculating annual conference apportionments. Dr. Spencer presented and moved adoption of PETITION 1b: 2023 CONFERENCE BUDGET, and it was approved. The 2023 conference budget totals 15.5 million dollars and is a 10% decrease or 1.5 million dollars less than the 2022 budget.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS AND HEALTH BENEFITS: Rev. Dr. Sarah B. Kalish, president, presented the report of the conference board of pensions and health benefits. Dr. Kalish thanked the members of the board, and in particular Lynne Gilbert, treasurer, Lori Wilson, chair health benefits committee, Rev. Dr. Mark King, conference treasurer, and Dale Bryant, benefits administrator. She celebrated Mr. Bryant’s service for 24 years, since 1998. Dr. Kalish presented and moved adoption of PETITION 2a: PROPOSED PENSION PROGRAMS AND POLICIES, and it was approved. Rev. Kalish presented and moved adoption of PETITION 2b: PROPOSED HEALTH BENEFITS PROGRAM AND POLICIES, and it was approved.

PETITION 16: REVISION TO THE “MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN” OF THE CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PROGRAM: Sue Jones, Cashiers (Cashiers, SM), chairperson of the petitions committee, presented the petition. Rev. Perry S. Miller, author of the petition, spoke in favor of the petition. Rev. P. Glenn Kinken, III, Centenary (Winston-Salem, YV), asked a question if the petition could be referred and moved to refer the petition to the conference board of pensions. David Rigby, Mount Tabor (Winston-Salem, YV), spoke in favor of the motion to refer. The motion to refer was sustained by the conference.

PETITION 3: EQUITABLE COMPENSATION POLICIES AND GUIDELINES: Sue Jones introduced the petition. Rev. Brandon Craig Lazarus, Morning Star, (Canton, SM), chairperson of the Just Compensation Task force, presented the task force findings on salary inequality based on race, gender, and years of service, and moved adoption of the petition, and it was adopted. Rev. David Alan Thompson, St. Paul (Concord, ME), asked a question of why less than full time appointments were not included as part of the petition. Rev. Lazarus responded. Rev. Elizabeth McPherson Crissman, West Market Street (Greensboro, NP), spoke in favor of the petition. Walter Terrell, Ranger (Murphy, SM), asked a question regarding cost-of-living increases. Rev. Lazarus responded. Kathy Lisle, Burkhead (Winston-Salem, YV), asked a question, if adoption of the petition would make the acceptance of women or persons of color more difficult.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY: Rev. John F. Howard, Jr., Bethesda (Pine Hall, YV), chairperson, presented the report. The board oversees eight campus ministries in the annual conference and supports five Methodist-related colleges and universities. He explained the Francis Asbury Award, which honors an individual, who supports and advocates for United Methodist ministries in higher education at the conference and local church levels. Rev. Howard presented the 2022 Francis Asbury Award to Rev. F. Annalee Allen, Greater Vision (Charlotte, ME), associate director of ministerial services.

HAYWOOD COUNTY FLOOD RELIEF: Brian M. Mateer, Providence (Charlotte, ME), associate director of missional engagement, began the presentation with a video describing the event of the flood on August 17, 2021, the destruction, and efforts to provide response relief in the aftermath. He solicited additional volunteer teams for disaster recovery in Haywood County. Bishop Carter noted that the conference offering for this flood relief effort totaled $250,000.00.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Rev. Ingram made necessary announcements. She announced that the offering received during the opening worship service amounted to $15,638.78. Total registration for the annual conference is 1,882: 975 lay members, 858 clergy members, and 49 members of other denominations and annual conferences.

RECESS: The conference recessed at 10:30 a.m. in preparation for the Celebration of Life worship service.

WORSHIP SERVICE – CELEBRATION OF LIFE SERVICE – 11:00 A.M.

Rev. Caitlin Lai, Northern Kannapolis (Kannapolis, ME) read Psalm 46 and Rev. Brian Elwell, Kadesh, Knob Creek, St. Peters (CV) read Matthew 5:14-16 and Revelation 22:5. Following an introduction by Bishop Carter, Rev. Dawn M. Hand, WNCC clergy member and district superintendent Central Maryland District, Baltimore/Washington Annual Conference, preached the sermon entitled, “In Glory Shine.” In her message Rev. Hand, hypothesized that light equals love. The life, legacy, and love of loved ones and colleagues celebrated today shined light in their roles of ministry, service, advocacy, family responsibilities, and sacrament. Our loved ones didn’t do it alone for their glory, but to bring others to experience the glory of God. Light can be transformative and a channel for God’s love. We need more light to break through the darkness. At the same time, darkness can sometime be a place of transformation. The darkness of grief can provide a deeper understanding of self and of grace. God can bring transformation from brokenness to strength and hope. Keith Wilson and Jarvis Wilson, conference musicians; and members of the 2022 class elected to full connection assisted in the service. Matt Gravely, Noah Gravely, and Daniel Habiab, a trio from Christ (Greensboro, NP) provided special music. During the Naming of the Saints, the lives of 39 clergy and diaconal ministers were remembered and celebrated, as well as the spouses of 40 clergy and diaconal ministers who died in the year.

CONFERENCE PLENARY – BUSINESS SESSION – 2:00 P.M.

CONFERENCE RECONVENES: Pursuant to recess the conference reconvened at 2:00 p.m. with the singing of hymn 368 (UMH) My Hope Is Built.

#BeUMC: Bishop Carter introduced a video segment from the series of stories of why persons are United Methodists. Bishop Carter noted that the video segments can be accessed on the conference website and the tab #BeUMC video.

CONNECTION MOMENT AND PRAYER: Catherine Gantt, Bryson City (Bryson City, SM), shared her testimony of spiritual energy generated by various struggles and her gift of experiencing and seeing miracles. She closed with prayer.

CABINET RESOLUTIONS: Rev. Amy L. Coles, assistant to the bishop, proposed adoption of the following resolutions on church discontinuance and abandonment, and they were adopted:

Rev. Coles led a litany of thanksgiving for the mission, ministry, heritage, and the people of the several congregations dissolved and abandoned.

DISAFFILIATION OF CHURCHES: Greg Huffman, conference chancellor, presented on behalf of the conference board of trustees the requests from 18 churches for disaffiliation from The United Methodist Church. He explained that the process for disaffiliation was created by the 2019 General Conference, under limited circumstances, and is recorded in ¶2553 of The Book of Discipline. If a church has objection of conscience related to legislation adopted by the 2019 General Conference in regard to human sexuality or has objection to the actions or inactions of an annual conference in regards to that same legislation, it may take advantage of the disaffiliation process. The financial obligations of the churches are set out in ¶2553. A church choosing to request disaffiliation must enter into a written agreement of disaffiliation with the conference trustees. Paragraph 2553 is the only provision for disaffiliation provided in The Book of Discipline or approved by the Judicial Council. Mr. Huffman advised that churches would be ill-advised to follow a different pathway for disaffiliation, such as under ¶2548.2. Mr. Huffman read the names of the 18 churches, explained that the voting process required a vote as a block, without discussion or amendment, moved adoption of the petitions, and the conference sustained the requests in each instance as follows for Bellview (Murphy), Bethlehem (Cherryville), Burnett's Chapel (Greensboro), Carson's Chapel (Marion), Cornatzer (Mocksville), Grassy Creek (Grassy Creek), Gray's Chapel (Rutherfordton), Lafayette Street (Shelby), Ledford's Chapel (Hayesville), Lineberry (Denton), Maple Springs (Ramseur), Martin's Creek (Murphy), Mary's Grove (Kings Mountain), Midway (Monroe), Nesbitt's Chapel (Fairview), New Union (Mocksville), Pleasant Grove (Denton), and West Marion (Marion).

PDFs of the legal documents for disaffiliation for each church are posted at www.AC2022.org.

Note, the disaffiliations become effective as of the date of property transfer, not the date of approval at Annual Conference. Thus, the disaffiliated churches will appear in the 2023 BAC.

Disaffiliation of Bellview United Methodist Church, Murphy, N.C., Smoky Mountain District

Submitted by: Board of Trustees of Bellview United Methodist Church, Murphy, N.C., Smoky Mountain District

Whereas, by unanimous consent, the congregation present at Bellview United Methodist Church on March 17, 2021 has expressed disagreement with the results of the 2019 special session of the UMC Conference regarding the adoption of the "traditional plan" as presented; and

Whereas, the Bellview United Methodist Church believes the "traditional plan" as approved does not sufficiently address the lack of accountability for Bishops and Clergy who openly disobey The Book of Discipline; and

Whereas, the Bellview United Methodist Church does not agree with the passage of petitions at the 2019 session of The Western North Carolina Conference, one of which presented the tenants of UMC Next which rejects the "traditional plan", and another petition which stated the annual conference's strong disagreement with and condemnation of the "traditional plan"; and

Whereas, the General Conference did provide a disaffiliation process for congregations that disagree with the actions of The United Methodist Church and its language regarding human sexuality and accountability to the church; and

Whereas, Bellview United Methodist Church, with a more than two thirds vote of members at special, duly called church conference has voted to disaffiliate from The United Methodist Church per The Book of Discipline, ¶2553; and

Whereas, that the Board of Trustees of Bellview United Methodist Church has been given the authority to negotiate and enter into a formal disaffiliation agreement with the Conference Trustees and execute all deeds, contracts, instruments, etc. needed to carry it out; and

Whereas, the Conference Trustees and Bellview UMC have entered into a formal Disaffiliation Agreement (attached hereto as Exhibit A), per the requirements of ¶2553, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Disaffiliation Agreement be affirmed and approved by the 2022 meeting of The Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church and ask that the Annual Conference affirm and approve the disaffiliation of Bellview UMC from The United Methodist Church.

Ross, As It Is (Gastonia, CV) and As It Is Ministries that is multi-cultural, multi-generational and mission minded new church start. Rev. Luke S. Edwards, First (Charlotte, ME), associate director of church development reported by video about the fresh expressions initiative. Jaidymar Smith and Rev. Chris Smith, Jordan Memorial (Ramseur, UW) and Rev. Pam Blackstock, Central (Charlotte, ME) shared their stories of fresh expression initiatives in their churches.

PETITION 17: PROCESS FOR CONGREGATIONS DISAFFILIATING IN THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE: Sue Jones, member of the petitions committee, presented the petition. Bishop Carter made a parliamentary ruling, not a ruling of law under The Book of Discipline, and ruled the petition and related motion(s) in support are ruled out of order and cannot go forward for the following reasons: The core matters in Petition 17 (Supplement page 52) as to Paragraph 2548.2 of The Book of Discipline are currently the subject of a declaratory ruling request made by the Council of Bishops to the Judicial Council (JC Docket 0522-02). Specifically, before the Judicial Council are the questions of the constitutionality of paragraph 2548.2, as well as its applicability, if constitutional, as a gracious exit or disaffiliation provision, and if so, the applicable parameters. Since no decision by the Judicial Council has been rendered, it is premature to consider Petition 17 and conduct a vote. Moreover, despite the matter pending before the Judicial Council, Petition 17 contains provisions that are unconstitutional under The United Methodist Constitution and violate or negate various provisions of The Book of Discipline and Judicial Council rulings. Such violation or negation include but are not limited to the following: it does not maintain the integrity of the rights of certain legislative bodies and the episcopacy; the improper utilization of paragraph 2548 as a method of “disaffiliation.” Paragraph 2548 relates only to the transfer of real property and not the separation of the church body from the UMC. Provisions in Petition 17 grant an authority to the annual conference it does not have to recognize a body as an “evangelical denomination.” Petition 17 negates the consent authority of the episcopacy and district superintendents to certain matters in The Book of Discipline; negates the authority of the Conference Trustees as set out in The Book of Discipline; violates the rights of local churches to determine their usage of Paragraph 2553; violates Disciplinary provisions regarding the call of a church conference under Paragraph 248 and 2553, particularly as to the authority of the district superintendent; violates the authority of the bishop to set appointments of clergy in consultation with the cabinet and the laity under The United Methodist Constitution and The Book of Discipline. At the request of Bishop Carter and with the consent of the conference, Jennifer Lineberry, Pleasant Grove (Thomasville, YV), a submitter of the petition was given, as a courtesy and with respect, three minutes to speak.

PETITION 18: REQUEST FOR A SPECIAL CALLED ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA: Sue Jones presented the petition (Supplement page 54). Rev. Kari S. Howard, West Bend (Asheboro, UW), spoke in favor of the petition. Dana Lyles, St. Matthews (Greensboro, NP), moved to amend the petition by adding an item 3. as follows:

If a church or charge votes to disaffiliate from The United Methodist Church at a time other than at the June session of the Western North Carolina Conference and the pastor appointed to serve that church or charge does not desire to leave The United Methodist Church and an appointment is not available, the disaffiliating church will pay the salary, housing, and benefits of the pastor (all appointed clergy regardless of status - to include local pastors, provisional and full deacons appointed to the local church, and provisional and full elders) for the remainder of the conference year to the Annual Conference along with the other funds required by The Discipline in paragraph 2553 and the Annual Conference disaffiliation policy.

Rev. H. Donnell FitzJefferies, University City (Charlotte, ME), asked a question, and Bishop Carter answered. John Davis, First (Lenoir, AP), asked a question, and Bishop Carter answered. Rev. Emily Kroeger, New Hope-Trinity (Monroe, UW), asked a question, and Bishop Carter responded. Helen Ryde, Haywood Street Congregation (Asheville, BR), spoke in favor of the amendment. Ron Dollyhite, Concord (Catawba, CV), asked a question and spoke against. Dana Lyles presented a final word in support of the amendment, and the amendment was adopted. Rev. Jan Brittain, Williamson's Chapel (Mooresville, ME), spoke against the petition as amended. Rev. Andrea McCumber, Groce (Asheville, BR), moved to amend Petition 18 by adding an item 4., 5., and 6. as follows:

Be it resolved that the 2022 Western North Carolina Annual Conference request that the Bishop and Cabinet make inquiry of all persons on District and Annual Conference Committees, Boards, and Agencies as to their intention to remain in The United Methodist Church over the next quadrennium; and, be it further

Resolved, that any persons that express an interest in leaving The United Methodist Church within the quadrennium be asked to resign from their leadership roles on any District and Annual Conference Committees, Boards, and Agencies; and, be it further

Resolved, that the Bishop and Cabinet shall report to the 2023 Western North Carolina Annual Conference the number of persons who expressed an intention to leave the denomination that were in leadership roles on District and Annual Conference Committees, Boards, and Agencies, and the number of those persons, as requested by this resolution, stepped down from those roles.

Bishop Carter ruled that the proposed amendment is out of order because it violates the separation of powers and the role of the bishop. Rev. McCumber asked clarifying questions to the ruling by the bishop and Bishop Carter responded. Dr. Irish Spencer, Memorial (High Point, NP), called for the question. Rev. Howard made a summary statement and the petition as amended was defeated.

RECESS: The conference recessed at 3:52 p.m.

CONFERENCE RECONVENES: Pursuant to recess the conference reconvened at 4:20 p.m. with the singing of hymn 370 (UMH) Victory in Jesus.

#BeUMC VIDEO: Another video segment of #BeUMC was shown featuring the testimony of Rev. Dr. Sam H. Moore, Jr., Yadkin Valley district superintendent.

CONNECTION MOMENT AND PRAYER: Torey Haynes, Rock Hill (Stanley, CV), shared his witness of how serving in his local church was transformative for his life and how he chose to serve, chose to love, and he led in prayer.

PETITION 19: CLARIFY REFERENCES TO HUMAN SEXUALITY: Sue Jones presented Petition 19, and reported that the author of the petition, Rev. Julie Ann Roberts, El Bethel (Kings Mountain, CV) and Sulphur Springs (Shelby, CV), has withdrawn this petition. Therefore Petition 19 will not be considered as part of this session of the annual conference and concludes the work of petitions for this conference. She recognized and thanked all the members of the petitions committee.

CROSS AND KEY PRISON MINISTRY: Rev Mark Hicks, executive director, presented the report. He recalled the formation of Disciple Bible Outreach Prison Ministry twenty-four years ago. He celebrated the accomplishments of that ministry and the lives transformed. A year ago, the ministry began a new visioning process and has a new vision, a new mission, and a new name. The mission of newly named Cross and Key Ministry is to equip and encourage churches for prison ministry, advocating for prison reform, and educating about criminal justice issues. The new mission is ministry to the incarcerated working toward a more just society. The ministry is developing a tool kit for churches to prepare for prison and criminal justice ministry available for download from the Cross and Key Ministry website. The fourth Sunday in August, August 28th, is designated as a Sunday to receive a special offering for the Cross and Key Ministry.

IMAGINE – BOTH/AND: A GREAT COMMISSION MOMENT: Rev. Rob Hutchinson, resumed the presentation of Imagine, and introduced Jason Moore, who addressed the annual conference by Zoom, because he tested positive for Covid-19. Moore focused on maximizing hybrid worship experiences for online and in-person audiences. He explored 13 strengths of hybrid worship, which included video examples from worship services and personal testimonies of participants engaged in Both/And worship experiences. The Both/And model provides expanded opportunities for following the Great Commission.

DENMAN AWARDS: Barby Bowser, communications director for The Foundation for Evangelism presented the report for the Foundation. She noted that for over 73 years the foundation had promoted, encouraged, and resourced Wesleyan Evangelism. She highlighted that in 2022 the Foundation provided Equipping the Local Church Grants and a video showcased four churches in the Western North Carolina Conference who received those grants. Ms. Bowser also presented the Harry Denman Evangelism Laity Award for exceptional work that combines loving kindness while sharing their Christian faith. Rev. Marianne Romanat, Light of Christ (Charlotte, ME), introduced this year's recipient, Dr. Brittany S. Bethel.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Rev. Kim Ingram, conference secretary, made necessary announcements, including encouraging members to subscribe to the conference newsletter, and reminding conference attendees of the Juneteenth Celebration at Lake Junaluska on Sunday, June 19th. She thanked and honored Rev. Jim Pyatt for his 30 years serving on the conference commission on archives and history and his service since 2015 as conference archivist. She expressed gratitude for all those who served during the annual conference, especially the worship committee, the ushers, and those who worked registration.

RECESS: The conference recessed for dinner at 5:35 p.m. with the singing of hymn 621 (UMH) Be Present at Our Table Lord.

WORSHIP SERVICE – THE ORDERING OF MINISTRY – 7:30 P. M.

Following pre-service music and the processional hymn 577 (UMH), God of Grace and God of Glory, Bishop Kenneth Carter, Jr. led the responsive greeting and prayer; and, the act of remembering our baptism and common ministry. Dr. Ceola Ross Baber, Newlyn Street (Greensboro, NP), lay member, executive team, Board of Ordained Ministry, presented to the bishop those to be licensed, commissioned, and ordained. Rev. Eric Lineberry, Mount Carmel (Reidsville, NP), chairperson of the fellowship of local pastors and associate members, read the names of those to be licensed as local pastors. Rev. Paul Thompson, Huntersville (Huntersville, ME), vice-chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, read the names of those to be commissioned as provisional members. Rev. Lynda Ferguson, First (Asheboro, UW), chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, read the names of those to be ordained as deacons and elders. Following a song of celebration, The Commission, presented by the Annual Conference Worship Team, Rev. Avery White, First (Gastonia, CV), secretary, Board of Ordained Ministry, led the prayer for illumination and read the Gospel lesson from Mark 4:1-9. Bishop Kenneth Carter, Jr. delivered the sermon entitled, "The Parable of the Soils." Bishop Carter said that it was an honor to preach and teach the word of God. The parable of the sower is a call to share the word of God. It is about our human need to receive and understand the word of God, to plant the seeds, and to grow beyond where we are. On the anniversary of the shooting at Mother Emmanuel Church in Charleston, and the repeated acts of gun violence in our communities, Bishop Carter asked: What kind of soil are we? What seeds are we planting? What is the seed of the gospel, now, that will lead to life and not death? What kind of soil in the parable is about our receptivity to grace. What are the barriers to the seed being planted in me and our churches? Our hearts can be hardened, and we confess that. God's word interprets the world, and the world interprets God's word. We are sowers, who plant the seed. We are the soils. How receptive are we to the word? He concluded by urging those to be licensed, commissioned, ordained, all the baptized to sow and receive the word of God in perfect love and indiscriminate mercy. Dr. Ross Baber led the Nicene Creed. Bishop Carter examined all the candidates to be licensed, commissioned, and ordained. The 30 candidates to be licensed as local pastors were authorized by the bishop, recognized by Rev. Lineberry, and presented their license by Rev. Kim Ingram, director of ministerial services. Bishop Carter examined the 16 candidates to be commissioned as provisional members and then commissioned each candidate assisted by Bishop J. Lawrence McLeskey. Each newly commissioned member received a cross and was presented a certificate. Bishop Carter examined the two candidates to be ordained deacons and then ordained them as deacons, assisted by Bishop McLeskey and other clergy. Each deacon received a stole and was presented certificates of ordination and membership. Bishop Carter examined the candidates to be ordained elders and with the assistance of Bishop McLeskey and other clergy ordained the 8 candidates as elders and the one received by transfer from the Church of God of Cleveland, Tennessee. Each new elder received a stole and certificates of ordination and membership. Following a prayer of thanksgiving and the recessional hymn 648 (UMH), God, the Spirit, Guide and Guardian, Rev. Maegan Daigle Habich, Central (Albemarle, UW), newly ordained deacon, pronounced the dismissal with blessing.

A SERVICE OF THE WORD, AND THE FIXING OF APPOINTMENTS – 10:00 A.M.

Bishop Kenneth H. Carter, Jr., taking his text from Ephesians 3:20-21, preached the sermon entitled, “Imagine.” Using the 2022 Annual Conference theme, Connect, Imagine, Engage, Bishop Carter shared his personal testimony, a portion not previously told publicly, of how God works to connect and include people, encourage folk to imagine God’s future for them, and engage with other people and their experiences in the world. Bishop Carter noted that the church is suffering from a flawed understanding of holiness. Holiness is not my greater separateness from you, so I can be more holy. Holiness derives from loving God and neighbor more, moving not away from but toward each other. This is engagement, and holiness is being made perfect in love in this life. He asked: What does holiness and righteousness mean? If we get it wrong, then a lot of people get harmed. If we get it right, then God is able to work through us. To spread scriptural holiness is to love each other in ways humanly impossible because what is divinely real is that God first loved us. God is doing something in young people, in older mature adults, and asking people to do things they are not sure how to do. God is wanting us to be more holy, to love him and inviting us to love each other. The Senior Youth Handbell Choir of Davidson UMC (Davidson, ME) and Mr. Jay Ponton provided special music and provided accompaniment for the congregational hymns. Rev. Amy Coles, assistant to the bishop, Rev. Dr. Bill White, Jr., conference director of equity and justice ministries, Rev. Norma Hickman de Villagrana, Zion (Monroe, ME), chair of the order of elders, Rev. Monica Childers, St. Luke’s (Hickory, CV), chair of the order of deacons, Rev. Eric Lineberry, Mount Carmel (Reidsville, NP), chair of the fellowship of local pastors and associate members, Ms. Shasta Wild, Mars Hill (Mars Hill, BR), Rev. Tae Wan (Joseph) Kim, Lebanon (High Point, NP), and Rev. Pam Blackstock, Central (Charlotte, ME) served as worship leaders.

OFFERING: The morning offering will be evenly distributed for the preservation, and infrastructural improvements of the historic Stuart Auditorium at Lake Junaluska, and towards grant funding among small, rural, and churches of color in the Western North Carolina conference that are ready and willing to explore how digital resources can impact their worship, discipleship, hospitality, and leadership.

COMMISSIONING OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS: Bishop Carter, with the assistance of Rev. Amy Coles, commissioned the eight district superintendents: Rev. Laura Auten (UW), Rev. David Christy (CV), Rev. Beverly Copley (NP), Rev. Lory Beth Huffman (AP), Rev. Dr. Hyung Jae Lee (SM), Rev. Dr. Samuel Moore, Jr. (YV), Rev. Daniel Pezet, II (ME), and Rev. Dr. Mark Ralls (BR).

CHARGE AND COVENANT PRAYER: Bishop Carter charged the licensed, commissioned, consecrated, and ordained clergy to go where they are sent and called to serve. He charged the laity, including deaconesses, home missionaries and diaconal ministers, to live and serve in God’s world and to receive and support the clergy appointed to their churches. He charged all gathered for worship to embrace and trust one another and give themselves for the work of bringing about the Kingdom of God on earth as it is in Heaven.

FIXING OF THE APPOINTMENTS: Bishop Kenneth H. Carter, Jr. officially fixed the 2022-2023 clergy appointments to the local churches, appointments beyond the local church, and appointments to extension ministry for the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church.

ADJOURNMENT: The Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church adjourned sine die at 11:40 a.m.

PART II. PERTAINING TO ORDAINED AND LICENSED CLERGY

(Note: A (v) notation following a question in this section signifies that the action or election requires a majority vote of the clergy session of the annual conference. If an action requires more than a simple majority, the notation (v 2/3) or (v 3/4) signifies that a two-thirds or three-fourths majority vote is required. Indicate credential of persons in Part II: FD, FE, PD, PE, and AM when requested.)

13. Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration (§§604.4, 605.7)?

The character and conference relations of all clergy members have been reviewed by the Cabinet and Board of Ordained Ministry, and those clergy found to be in good standing are approved for annual appointment. Any clergy whose character or conference relations are in question are being reviewed by appropriate bodies as defined by the Discipline.

14. Who constitute:

- a) The Administrative Review Committee (§636)? (v) Elizabeth Coppedge-Henley, Carol Williams-Gilbert, TBD; Alternates: Michael Carr, Gloria Hughes
- b) The Conference Relations Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry (§635.1d)? Stephen Autrey, Amy Burton, Matthew Burton, Ellen Coppley Florian, Beth Crissman, Alfonza Everett
- c) The Committee on Investigation (§2703) Clergy: Pamela Blackstock, Charlotte Brendel, Carol Hunter, Joseph Tarpley; Laity: Richard Abernethy, Jesse Caldwell, Torry Pinter; Clergy Alternates: David Hamlyn, Donald Jenkins, Patricia Pegram; Laity Alternates: Margaret Cox, Christina Douglas, Sally Kirby Turner; Diaconal Ministers: Rebecca Lile, Sandra McGarrah, Catherine Guess Ritch

15. Who are the certified candidates (§§ 310, 313, 314) (NOTE: Everyone who wants to become an LP, PE, or PD must first become a certified candidate.)

a) Who are currently certified as candidates for ordained or licensed ministry?

52. What is the number of clergy members of the Annual Conference:

- (1) Where applicable, the question numbers on this report form corresponding to each category have been placed in parenthesis following the category title. Where these question numbers appear, the number reported in that category should agree with the number of names listed in the corresponding questions.
- (2) For the three categories of Appointments to Extension Ministries, report as follows:
 - ¶344.1a, c: the number of clergy members appointed within United Methodist connectional structures, including district superintendents, or to an ecumenical agency.
 - ¶344.1b: the number of clergy members appointed to extension ministries, under endorsement by the Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry.
 - ¶344.1d: the number of clergy members appointed to other valid ministries, confirmed by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference.
- (3) Report those in extension ministry in one category only.
- (4) See the Discipline paragraphs indicated for more detailed description of these appointment categories.
- (5) Those approved to serve as local pastor, but not currently under appointment, are not counted as clergy members of the conference.

VI. APPOINTMENTS 2022-2023

Bishop Ken Carter and the appointive cabinet of The Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, in consultation with the clergy and authorized lay leaders of the local churches, announce the following appointments, to take effect July 1, 2022. This act of ministry is in fulfillment of ¶¶ 425-429 of The Book of Discipline (2016).

Let us lift these clergy, their families, and the local churches in prayer, in the hope that we will more fully participate in our mission—to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world” (Book of Discipline, ¶ 120).

KEY TO ABBREVIATIONS AND CATEGORY CODES

An appointment to which no ordained, commissioned, or licensed clergy person is currently appointed bears the designation “TBS” (“To Be Supplied”) in the “Appointee” column.

The two-letter category codes after the names of the clergy and lay ministers are defined by the General Council on Finance and Administration of The United Methodist Church and the office of the registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry and have these meanings:

AF	Affiliate Member	OF	Full Clergy Member of Another Denomination

VII. PLAN OF ORGANIZATION AND RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE

PART I. PLAN OF ORGANIZATION

Pursuant to the action of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church as contained in sections IX and X (¶¶ 601-672) of The Book of Discipline (2016), the following plan of organization and rules of order and procedure of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference are hereby established.

A. MEMBERSHIP

1. a. All clergy of the conference in full connection and provisional and associate membership, and all local pastors under full-time (¶ 318.1) or part-time (¶ 318.2) appointment, as provided in ¶ 32 of the Discipline;
- b. One lay member from every pastoral charge of the conference, elected as provided in ¶ 32 of the Discipline; provided, that each pastoral charge served by more than one clergy member under appointment shall be entitled to as many lay members of the conference as there are eligible clergy members appointed to that charge (see 1.a.);
- c. The diaconal ministers of the conference;
- d. The active deaconesses under episcopal appointment within the bounds of the conference;
- e. The conference president of United Methodist Women: United Women in Faith;
- f. The conference president of United Methodist Men;
- g. The conference lay leader;
- h. The conference president of United Methodist Youth;
- i. The chairperson of the conference college student organization;
- j. The district lay leader from each district;
- k. The president or equivalent officer of the conference young adult organization;
- l. The conference director of lay servant ministries.
- m. The conference secretary of global ministries (if lay).
- n. Two young persons between the ages of twelve and seventeen and one young person between the ages of eighteen and thirty from each district, elected by the district Program Ministries Council or equivalent structure; and,
- o. Such additional lay members as may be necessary to equalize the lay and clergy membership of the conference, as provided below, based on the clergy membership as of July 1 of the previous year.
2. The district shall select from its district additional lay members so that the total number of lay members equals the total number of clergy members. The additional number of lay members from each district shall be determined in an equitable and proportional manner by the conference secretary based upon membership as recorded in the most recent conference Journal. Alternates to such additional lay members may be chosen at the discretion of the district superintendent and district lay leader and may be seated in place of such members who are unable to be present. District-at-large members will be elected at the opening business session of Annual Conference.
3. The completed registration process shall constitute the official membership roll of the annual conference.
4. A quorum for the transaction of business in any annual conference session shall be the number of registered conference members present and voting.

B. OFFICERS

1. The Presiding Officer: The presiding officer of the conference shall be the resident bishop.
2. Conference Secretary: The secretary of the conference shall be elected according to ¶ 603.7 quadrennially by the conference at the annual session of the conference following each General Conference on nomination by the bishop in consultation with the district superintendents.
3. Associate and Assistant Secretaries: Upon nomination by the conference secretary, the conference shall annually elect an associate secretary and a sufficient number of assistant secretaries to handle the work of the conference.
4. Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services: At the first session of the conference following the General Conference, a conference treasurer/director of administrative services shall be elected according to ¶ 619. The DAS shall include the responsibility of the conference statistician and the Conference Benefits Officer.
5. Conference Chancellor: Upon nomination by the bishop, the conference may annually elect a layperson who is a member in good standing of one of the local churches of the conference, or a clergyperson who is a member of the annual conference, and who is a member of the bar of the state of North Carolina as conference chancellor to serve as legal advisor to the bishop and to the conference.
6. Conference Parliamentarian: A conference parliamentarian may be appointed annually by the bishop after consultation with the district superintendents.
7. Conference Director of Connectional Ministries: The conference director of connectional ministries shall function as a communication link between the conference and general church agencies, give leadership in the implementation of ¶ 608 of the Discipline, and relate to directors of connectional ministries in annual conferences throughout the connection.
8. Conference Lay Leader: The conference lay leader shall be elected for a four-year term by the conference upon nomination by the Board of Laity. No person shall serve more than two consecutive four-year terms in this office. A vacancy in this office during the quadrennium shall be filled by the Board of Laity, which shall name a new lay leader for the remainder of the quadrennium, subject to confirmation at the following annual session of the conference.

C. CONFERENCE ORGANIZATION

1. Committees on Nominations:

- a. For the purpose of nominations to the conference entities, there shall be a conference Committee on Nominations, composed of the bishop, who shall be chairperson; the conference secretary, who shall be secretary; the district superintendents; the director of connectional ministries; the assistant to the bishop; the conference lay leader; the conference president of United Methodist Men; the conference president of United Methodist Women: United Women in Faith; the chairperson of the conference Council on Youth Ministries; a lay leader from each district and two laywomen and two laymen to ensure diversity and inclusiveness, elected quadrennially by the conference upon nomination by this committee. Unless otherwise provided herein or by The Discipline, all members of conference entities prescribed herein shall be elected by the annual conference upon nomination by the conference Committee on Nominations.
- b. There may be in each district a district Committee on Nominations or equivalent structure, composed of the district superintendent, who shall be chairperson; the district lay leader; and others who could include: the district president of United Methodist Men; the district president of United Methodist Women: United Women in Faith; a youth; two pastors who have served in the district for at least two years, named by the district superintendent; and two laywomen and two laymen who have been members of The United Methodist Church for at least four years. This committee may prepare nominations from the district for consideration by the conference Committee on Nominations and shall care for other necessary nominations within the district and for action by the conference.
- c. The conference Committee on Nominations shall nominate members of the conference entities to be elected by the annual conference unless otherwise specified herein. Quadrennial nominations shall be submitted to the conference secretary and shall be printed prior to annual conference.
- d. The districts and the conference Committee on Nominations shall take care that each of the various constituencies of the conference, is represented throughout the organizational life of the conference insofar as possible. Persons shall be selected for nomination based upon their demonstrated or expressed desire, interest, concern, and/or involvement in the organization of the conference. The nominations process shall be conducted in a manner that ensures diversity and inclusiveness. The foregoing shall not preclude nominations from the floor of the conference at the time of the election (as allowed by The Book of Discipline).
- e. Unless otherwise provided by The Discipline, the Connectional Table shall act to fill any vacancies on any of the conference entities which shall arise in the interim. Persons so appointed shall hold office until the next regular election of the members of the entities involved.
- f. Terms of Service:
 - i. No person shall serve simultaneously on more than one of the quadrennial or term election entities of the conference, except in cases of ex officio membership,
 - ii. No person shall serve for more than eight consecutive years on any one such entity, except in cases of ex-officio membership.
 - iii. In the case of membership on a quadrennial entity unless prohibited by The Discipline, a person elected to fill an unexpired term of two years or less shall be eligible to serve for a maximum of eight consecutive additional years on the same entity.
 - iv. A person elected to fill an unexpired term of more than two years shall be eligible for a maximum of four consecutive additional years on the same entity.
 - v. The Committee on Episcopacy, the Committee on Nominations, the Conference Committee on Organization and Rules, and the Petitions Committee shall not be included in the prohibition of simultaneous service.
 - vi. If a member of said entities is appointed to the district superintendency, his or her entity membership shall terminate, unless the membership be ex officio, and any vacancy thus created shall be filled as heretofore set out.
 - vii. If a member of a conference entity is absent from two consecutive regular meetings of the entity without a reason acceptable to the entity, his or her membership thereon shall cease, and he or she shall be so notified. Such a vacancy shall be filled as heretofore set out.
- g. Convening for Organization: The terms of service of the members of quadrennial or term agencies of the conference shall begin July 1. Each agency will organize at an event convened by the bishop and scheduled as soon as possible following the adjournment of the annual conference session at which they were elected.
- h. Members of general church boards and agencies will be ex-officio members (with vote) of the conference entity to which the general board or agency most closely aligns, or as indicated in The Book of Discipline.

2. Connectional Table: This team shall be constituted quadrennially. The purpose of the Connectional Table is to connect the ministry and resources of the Annual Conference in order to increase and strengthen the number of vital congregations and conference entities and to coordinate, promote, and encourage the development of faithful disciples and fruitful leaders across the conference so that, lives and communities are transformed by the power of God. The Connectional Table shall consist of the chairpersons of the Council on Finance and Administration, the Conference Board of Trustees, the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Leadership Development Team, the Church Vitality Team, the Justice and Reconciliation Team, the Mission Engagement Team, the Council on Camp and Retreat Ministry, and the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry; the presidents of United Methodist Women: United Women in Faith, United Methodist Men, and the Conference Council on Youth Ministries; members of the extended cabinet, the resident bishop, the assistant to the bishop, and a district superintendent. The director of connectional ministries and the conference lay leader shall serve as co-chairpersons.

Additional members may be nominated and elected to ensure diversity and inclusiveness. One young adult clergy person shall be a member.

3. Councils:

- a. Conference Council on Finance and Administration: There shall be constituted quadrennially a conference Council on Finance and Administration as provided in ¶ 611 and following of The Book of Discipline. The resident bishop, the assistant to the bishop, the conference treasurer/director of administrative services, and one district superintendent named by the cabinet shall be ex-officio members without vote.
- b. Council on Camp and Retreat Ministry: This council shall be constituted quadrennially and be composed of eight to twelve members. Special attention will be given to the election of persons knowledgeable and passionate in the areas of camp, retreat, and outdoor ministry, non-profit board experience, and business management. The council will promote all existing WNCUMC camp and retreat centers. This includes camp facilities and cooperative ministry with the local church, districts, and conference. The council is responsible for establishing, implementing, and maintaining financial oversight of the Camp and Retreat Ministry Endowment fund. The Council will submit a yearly request to the Annual Conference for financial support on behalf of the camp and retreat centers. The council will be a source for support in non-profit board development, will encourage and support sustainable best practices for all current camp and retreat centers, and maintain positive relationships with each of the camps and their staff and board of directors. A representative of connectional ministries shall be an ex officio member without vote.

4. Boards:

- a. Board of Trustees: An incorporated conference Board of Trustees shall be constituted annually as provided in ¶ 2512 of The Discipline. The conference treasurer/director of administrative services, the bishop, the assistant to the bishop, and a cabinet representative shall be ex-officio members without vote.
- b. Board of Ordained Ministry: This board shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of forty-five elders in full connection, including one district superintendent named by the bishop; nine deacons in full connection; fifteen lay persons, including the conference lay leader; and, at least four associate members or local pastors who have completed the Course of Study; elected as provided in ¶ 635 of the Discipline. The director and associate director of ministerial services shall be ex officio members without vote.
- c. Board of Laity: This board shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of the conference lay leader, who shall be president; the president of conference United Methodist Men; the president of conference United Methodist Women; United Women in Faith; the vice-chairperson of the conference Council on Youth Ministries; the district lay leaders; the conference prayer advocate (assigned by the United Methodist Men); twelve lay persons elected to ensure that the total membership of the council is representative of the various constituencies of the conference; and other persons deemed by the board as necessary to its work. The board shall foster an awareness of the role of the laity in achieving the mission of the church, and enabling and supporting lay participation in the planning and decision-making process of the conference, the districts, and the local churches. One district superintendent shall be an ex-officio member without vote.
- d. Board of Pension and Health Benefits: As specified in ¶ 639 of the Discipline, an incorporated Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of twelve members, arranged in two classes. The treasurer of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Inc., shall be an ex-officio member, without vote. One district superintendent named by the cabinet and the conference treasurer/director of administrative services shall be ex-officio members without vote. As a sub-committee within its structure, the board shall quadrennially appoint a Health Benefits Committee, composed of such members of the board and other persons as the board may determine.
- e. Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry: This board shall be constituted quadrennially in fulfillment of the portions of ¶ 634 of the Discipline pertaining to campus ministry and shall be composed of twelve members, nominated by the conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the conference, with special attention being given to the election of persons knowledgeable in the areas of campus ministry, finance, marketing, and management. The associate director of ministerial services shall be an ex-officio member without vote.

5. Ministry Teams: There shall be constituted quadrennially four Ministry Teams of the Annual Conference:

- a. A Church Vitality Team consisting of 12-15 persons. The team will provide vision for and oversee the structures, processes and resources needed, to help existing church leaders know and practice vitality; help potential planting partners in finding, assessing and equipping leaders for new church development; assess effectiveness of current resources; learn and share best practices; and, coordinate funding for vitality and development projects. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. One member will be chosen by each District Church Vitality Team, resulting in 8 members. Other team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for the particular ministries for which the team is responsible. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives, without vote.
- b. A Justice and Reconciliation Team consisting of 12-15 persons. This team will promote excellence and fruitfulness in congregational life and ecclesial structures that reflect the full diversity of the reign of God; works of justice bringing reform to social, ecclesial, and civic structures and institutions; and, participation of all the people of God in realizing the vision of following Jesus, making disciples and transforming the world. Included in the membership will be conveners of the following groups, named by the nominating committee: Religion and Race, the Status and Role of Women, African American Ministries, Asian American Ministries, Native American Ministries, and Hispanic/Latino Ministries. Each of these groups will be convened within 30 days of the organizational meeting by gathering persons with a passion for the ministry involved. The Justice and Reconciliation Team shall have a task force that will review the Ethnic Local Church Concerns grants. The work of Church and Society and Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships, Peace with Justice Ministries, and the ministries and connection to the NC Council of Churches are a part of this team. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. Team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for the particular ministries for which the team is responsible. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives, without vote.

- c. A Leadership Development Team consisting of 12-15 persons. The purpose of leadership development is “To grow the capacity of leaders to Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, and Transform the World.” The task is to help shape a culture where life-long growth and development are expected to promote and support life-long fruitful ministries. The team will promote leadership excellence among congregational ministers (both clergy and lay professionals). It will also champion the development of the future leaders of the church with special emphasis on youth and young adults. Finally, it will encourage congregational ministers in the development of leadership among the laity within the congregation. The team will network with those entities in the conference who share in its purpose. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. Team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for the particular ministries for which the team is responsible. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives, without vote.
- d. A Mission Engagement Team consisting of 12-15 persons. The team will engage and actively facilitate the connection of congregations and disciples to service in their local communities and the world at large. They will work to encourage general church mission efforts and emphases, provide appropriate avenues for training of mission leaders, and promote and foster abiding relationships with mission projects and mission workers throughout the world. This will include the traditional work areas of Disaster Response Ministry, the Mission Response Center, Volunteers in Mission Building Teams, the Ministries of Creation Care led by a Conference Earth-keeper, and other historically-related ministries. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. Team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for extending the mission witness of the conference. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives, without vote.

6. Administrative Commissions:

- a. Commission on Archives and History: This commission shall be constituted quadrennially (¶ 641) and shall be composed of twelve members at large, the conference secretary, and the president or designated representative of the executive committee of the Conference Historical Society. The conference archivist shall be an ex-officio member without vote. Its membership shall not be subject to the limitations on terms of service set forth above.
- b. Commission on Communications: This commission shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of twelve elected members at large, up to five additional members selected by the commission for expertise in the areas of communication and technology. It shall function as a service agency for the entire conference in the area of communication and interpretation. The conference director of communications shall be an ex-officio member without vote.
- c. Commission on Equitable Compensation: As specified in ¶ 625 of The Discipline, this commission shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of fourteen persons, plus one district superintendent, named by the cabinet. The fourteen elected members shall consist of seven lay persons and seven clergy persons, including at least one lay person and one clergy person from charges of fewer than two hundred members which are receiving equitable compensation funds at the time of the election of commission members. The assistant to the bishop and one district superintendent shall be ex-officio members without vote.

7. Committees:

- a. Committee on Conference Staff Relations: This committee shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of the bishop; the assistant to the bishop, the conference treasurer, the conference lay leader; the president of the conference Council on Finance and Administration; and the following members at-large: two ordained elders, one deacon in full connection, and three lay persons. The director of human resources shall serve as an ex-officio member of the committee, without vote. The chairperson shall be elected by the committee from among the at-large members. The committee shall support and provide oversight to the work of the human resources department within the annual conference.
- b. Petitions Committee: This committee shall be constituted quadrennially in order to do the following: (a) receive and review petitions to the annual conference; (b) prepare a calendar of petitions for each plenary session; and, (c) ensure that all petitions are in front of the conference until adjournment. This committee shall consist of 4-6 members, reflecting the diversity of the conference. The conference secretary shall be an ex-officio member without vote.
- c. Conference Committee on Organization and Rules: This committee shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be the primary steward of the Western North Carolina Plan of Organization and Rules of Order. Its work shall include the following: receive and review proposed changes and/or additions to the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order and report to the annual conference recommended changes to the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order to keep them in compliance with The Book of Discipline. This committee shall consist of 4-6 members, reflecting the diversity of the conference. The conference secretary, resident bishop, and director of connectional ministries shall be ex-officio members without vote.

- d. The following committees shall be constituted as required by The Book of Discipline: Committee on Episcopacy (§637), Episcopal Residence Committee (§638), Committees on Investigation (§2703), Administrative Review Committee (§636), and Joint Committee on Medical Leave (§652).

D. CONFERENCE JOURNAL

1. The conference secretary shall be the editor of the conference journal, assisted by the conference statistician in the publication of statistical data.
2. The journal shall be edited in keeping with the Discipline and other regulations of the General Conference and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference.
3. The annual journal shall contain the proceedings of the most recent conference session and the statistical tables for the calendar year preceding that session.
4. In the event that the plan of organization and rules of order and procedure of the conference are published apart from the journal, this document shall be considered part of the journal.
5. In view of the obvious difficulties and inequities involved in singling out one or more persons worthy of special recognition, the journal shall not be dedicated to the memory or honor of any person.

E. DISTRICTS, DISTRICT CONFERENCES, AND DISTRICT COUNCILS

1. There shall be a total of eight districts in this annual conference, the boundaries of which shall be determined by the bishop after consultation with the cabinet.
2. At the discretion of the district superintendent, a District Conference may be held in each district (according to Chapter 4, Section X, §658ff of The 2016 Book of Discipline.) The membership of a District Conference shall consist of the lay and clergy members of the district of the Annual Conference session of the current calendar year.
3. The district lay leaders shall be selected by the district for a four-year term and confirmed by the annual conference. No person shall serve as a district lay leader for more than two consecutive terms.
4. District organization for missional purposes and impact: Each district may organize leadership teams that carry out the strategy and mission of the district within its context. Each team will reflect the diversity of the district.
5. The district Board of Church Location and Building (§2519), the district Board of Trustees (§2518), the district Committee on the Ordained Ministry (§666), and the Committee on District Superintendency (§669) shall be organized in each district as provided for in The Book of Discipline.

F. ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES

1. Lay and clergy members as designated by The Book of Discipline shall be eligible to vote and to be elected as a delegate.
2. Those voting must vote within the voting bar of the conference and at the time specified by the presiding officer for that ballot. Ballots shall be cast only in the manner provided and designated by the conference.
3. Vote counting procedures shall be the responsibility of the conference secretary, assisted by tellers duly elected by the conference from among the lay members and the ordained ministerial members in full connection upon nomination by the district superintendents. In addition, upon nomination by the conference secretary, the conference shall elect two chief lay tellers from among the lay members of the conference and two chief ordained ministerial tellers from among the ordained ministerial members of the conference in full connection.
4. A simple majority of the valid ballots cast shall be required for election.
5. The results of the ballots shall be announced by the presiding officer as follows:
 - a. First Ballot for General Conference Delegates and First Ballot for Jurisdictional Conference Delegates: The names of all persons receiving ten or more votes shall be announced, with the total vote for each, in descending order.
 - b. Second Ballots: The names of all persons receiving twenty or more votes shall be announced.
 - c. Third and All Subsequent Ballots: The names of all persons receiving thirty or more votes shall be announced.

NOTE: A person's name not being announced because his or her vote total was less than the number necessary for announcement does not mean that the person is necessarily ineligible for election.
6. Individual ballots shall be valid only when cast for the prescribed number of eligible persons to be elected on each ballot and cast in the manner provided for and designated by the conference. Inclusion of the name of a person already elected, the name of an ineligible person, or an illegible name shall invalidate that entire individual ballot. Adjudication of illegibility shall be the responsibility of the chief tellers.
7. The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church gives the annual conference the authority to elect lay and clergy delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference (§ 34). The Western North Carolina Annual Conference commits to an election process that will guide it in a fair and equitable way and continue to uphold the historic understanding of holy, Christian conferencing. Using the provisions found in § 34-36 of the Discipline as a guideline, the annual conference follows election procedures for lay and clergy delegates to General Conference described below:
 - a. Clergy and laity wishing to be elected as delegates to General and Jurisdictional conference may submit their names, a picture, a brief biographical sketch, and any statements of position on topics or issues facing the church and world to the conference secretary's office in the format requested and by the deadline provided.
 - b. This resource will be available at least four weeks prior to the meeting of the annual conference at which delegates will be elected.

- c. All clergy eligible for election shall be assigned an identifying number, regardless of whether a biographical sketch was submitted for publication. Eligibility of clergy is described in ¶ 34 of the Discipline.
- d. Regardless of submission of information, any lay person may write in the name of any eligible layperson. Eligibility of laity is described in ¶ 36 of the Discipline.
- e. No person desiring to be a delegate shall promote themselves using hats, giveaways, or other means of campaigning.
- f. No person desiring to be a delegate shall be coerced to vote in a particular way on a certain issue, nor shall the potential delegate be compelled to disclose their position on a particular topic.
- g. Each person desiring to be a delegate should be elected on the basis of the gifts, graces, and willingness of the individual.
- h. The voting process will be determined by the office of the conference secretary and outlined in the pre-conference materials for the election year.

PART II. RULES OF ORDER

A. PRESIDING OFFICER:

Rule 1. Authority of the Chairperson: The resident bishop or the presiding officer designated by the bishop to preside in the bishop's temporary absence shall be the chairperson of the conference. The chairperson shall decide points of order raised by the members and shall rule on points of order not raised by the members as the chairperson deems necessary to conform to these rules of order, subject, in both cases, to an appeal to the conference by any member without debate, except that the chairperson and the appellant, in that order, shall each have five minutes for a statement in support of their respective positions. A tie vote in the case of appeal shall sustain the chairperson. When any member raises a point of order, the member shall cite, by number, the rule alleged to have been violated. The chairperson shall have the right to recess a session of the conference at any time in the chairperson's discretion and to reconvene at such a time as the chairperson shall announce, with only members, authorized personnel, and authorized guests permitted to attend such a session following recess.

B. RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERS:

Rule 2. Frequency and Length of Speeches: No member shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not spoken desires the floor, no more than twice on the same subject under the same motion, and no longer than three minutes unless the member's time shall be extended by the conference, except as provided in Rule 24. This three-minute limit may be reduced by a majority vote of the conference at any time and for any period of duration. The provisions of this rule shall likewise apply to the asking of a question or questions by an individual and to answers to that individual by the person or agency to whom the questions are directed.

Rule 3. Total Time for Debate on an Individual Proposal: When a proposal is to be presented as the main motion for debate, the conference may, by majority vote upon motion by any member, set a time limit for the total debate on that question, including any amendments or other secondary motions related thereto, provided that such limitation shall not be construed to conflict with Rule 2 or Rule 24. If such a limitation is set, the chairperson may direct the coordinator of calendar to allocate the total time among speakers for and against the question by such means as the coordinator deems appropriate, consistent with the provisions of Rule 2, and provided that the previous question may be ordered at any time as specified in Rule 20.

Rule 4. Voting Bar of the Conference: At the organizational session of the conference, the voting bar of the plenary sessions of the conference shall be set by vote of the members. When a vote is taken on any question, only those members within the voting bar of the conference shall be entitled to vote.

Rule 5. Voting Procedure: Voting shall be by show of hands or otherwise as ordered by the chairperson or by the conference. At the discretion of the chairperson, a count vote may be taken. A count vote may also be ordered at the call of any member supported by one third of the members present and voting, in which case the members shall rise from their seats and be counted. The count shall be made by tellers appointed by the conference secretary and shall include the votes of members in the portions of the voting bar separate from the main assembly. No other business shall be in order when a vote is being taken or when the previous question has been ordered, unless the process is completed, except such as relates to the vote itself, or that which can be appropriately fitted into the time while waiting for the report of the tellers on a count vote.

Rule 6. Division of Question: Before a vote is taken, any member shall have the right to call for a division of any question, if it is subject to such division as the member indicates. If no member objects, the division shall be made. If there is objection, the chairperson shall put the question of division to vote, not waiting for a second.

C. BUSINESS PROCEDURE:

Rule 7. Organizational Session: The opening or organizational session of the conference shall include at least the following:

- a. Roll call of conference members (see Part I.A.3).
- b. Setting of the voting bar (see Rule 4).
- c. Adoption of conference agenda.
- d. Ordering to record of reports of boards and agencies not requiring conference action.
- e. Election of associate and assistant secretaries and associate and assistant statisticians.
- f. Election of coordinator of calendar (if warranted).
- g. Announcement of necessary revisions of printed reports and recommendations.

Rule 8. Petitions: Petitions may be made to the conference by conference entities; the cabinet; lay and clergy members of the conference; councils, boards, and committees of the districts of the conference; and councils, boards, committees, and professing members of local churches of the conference. Each petition must be submitted to the conference secretary in writing, preferably by electronic means, by a date determined and announced by the conference secretary prior to the convening of the conference; must be signed by the maker(s) thereof (understood to mean the chairperson and secretary in the case of a petitioning group); and must contain information sufficient to validate the source (church or charge name, district, address, email address, etc.). Any petition containing personal references or dealing in personalities may be returned to the originator(s) with an explanation. The petitions committee shall review all petitions and assign a number and give a subject title to each petition prior to its publication.

Rule 9. Pre-Conference Publications:

- a. Booklet of Program and Reports: All annual reports and petitions of conference entities shall be submitted in writing, preferably by electronic means, to the conference secretary by a designated date prior to the convening of the conference. Under the direction of the secretary, this publication shall be made available electronically for print.
- b. Supplement: A Supplement to the booklet of Program and Reports shall be distributed to the members of the conference at the time of registration of members.

Rule 10. Referral of Matters with Financial Implications: All petitions and motions requesting a special offering or financial appeal or otherwise having financial implications for conference funds shall be referred to the conference Council on Finance and Administration, which shall offer its recommendations concerning the matter prior to action by the annual conference.

Rule 11. Consideration of Business Items: All petitions and other motions, including proposed amendments to the plan of organization and rules of order, printed and distributed in accordance with Rule 9, subject to correction of grammatical and editorial errors, shall be the property of the conference at the time of the opening of the conference without formal reading and shall be in order for consideration at any time thereafter.

Rule 12. Availability of Conference Actions: No later than ten days after the adjournment of the annual session, the conference secretary shall provide copies of all resolutions, proposals, and recommendations acted upon by the conference to the bishop, the conference director of connectional ministries, and the conference director of communications.

Rule 13. Special Study Reports: Special study reports ordered by a previous annual session shall be presented directly to the organizational session of the conference for such disposition as the conference may make, including referral if the conference so chooses.

Rule 14. Distribution of Unofficial Material: No leaflet, brochure, questionnaire, or other material shall be distributed on the floor of the conference or in the registration area except by prior approval of the Conference Secretarial Staff or by the order of the conference or by the order of the conference.

Rule 15. Consent Calendar: All petitions from conference entities printed in the booklet of Program and Reports, with the exception of the proposals of the Council on Finance and Administration concerning conference funds and financial policies, and upon recommendation of the petitions committee, shall constitute the consent calendar and shall be so designated in that booklet. At the request of any member, the conference may, by majority vote, lift any item from the consent calendar for consideration in plenary session. All items not lifted from the consent calendar shall be acted upon at one time in plenary session at such time as the chairperson shall direct. The proposals of the Council on Finance and Administration related to conference funds and financial policies, petitions which have been lifted from the consent calendar, and other petitions conforming to Rule 8 shall be presented for conference action in plenary session.

Rule 16. Undebatable Motions: The following motions shall be acted upon without debate:

- a. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the conference finally.
- b. To suspend the rules.
- c. To lay on the table, except as provided in Rule 24.
- d. To take from the table.
- e. To call for the previous question.
- f. To reconsider a non-debatable motion.
- g. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- h. To call for the order of the day.

Rule 17. Precedence of Secondary Motions: If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be in the following order:

- a. To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn, which motion is subject to amendment or may be laid on the table.
- b. To adjourn.
- c. To take recess.
- d. To lay on the table.
- e. To order the previous question.
- f. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- g. To postpone to a given time.
- h. To commit or refer.
- i. To amend or substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment).
- j. To postpone indefinitely.

Rule 18. Referring Reports: The conference may refer any report, recommendation, or resolution, or any part thereof, which is before the conference for consideration, or any amendment offered thereto.

Rule 19. Consideration of Substitutes: A substitute motion may be offered for any report, recommendation, or resolution under consideration. The conference shall then first perfect the original, and then perfect the substitute. The question shall then be put first on the motion to substitute, followed by the motion to adopt the report, recommendation, or resolution.

Rule 20. Previous Question: When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote now be taken on the motion or motions pending), the member shall indicate to what he or she intends it to apply, if any secondary motion or motions are also pending. If the member does not so indicate, it shall apply only to the immediately pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate and shall require a two-thirds vote of those present and voting for its adoption.

Rule 21. When Motion to Limit or Stop Debate Not in Order: When the conference is considering a petition or other motion, no member, immediately after discussing the pending question and before relinquishing the floor, shall make a motion which, if adopted, would limit or stop debate.

Rule 22. Reconsideration: A motion to reconsider an action of the conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated (Rule 16).

Rule 23. Calendar: The conference secretary, in consultation with the secretarial staff, shall keep a chronological record of orders of the day, reports, and other business items that will be adopted by the conference as its agenda.

Rule 24. Speakers For and Against: Except for undebatable motions, a question under consideration shall not be adopted until the presiding officer has given opportunity for at least two speeches for and two speeches against said proposal, alternately, so long as any member desires to speak on the other side thereof, provided that the right is claimed before the person presenting the proposal is recognized to close debate. After three speeches for and three speeches against the motion, or when (and after) the previous question has been ordered, the vote on the motion shall then be taken; provided, however, that the person presenting the proposal shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken. This right to close debate shall prevail in like manner to a limit of two minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, or to lay on the table or any other motion whose adoption would vitally affect the matter under consideration.

Rule 25. Consideration of Agenda Items: Items on the agenda of the conference shall be taken up on the day scheduled. Any calendar items for a certain day that are not received on that day or are not completed before adjournment shall not take precedence over calendar items for the day to which said item or items have been postponed. After the calendar items for that day have been completed, postponed calendar items shall be considered.

Rule 26. Motion to Adjourn: The motion to adjourn, when unqualified, shall be taken without debate and shall always be in order, except:

- a. When a member has the floor.
- b. When a question is actually being put, or a vote is being taken, and before it is finally decided.
- c. When the previous question has been ordered and action thereunder is pending.
- d. When a motion to adjourn has been lost and no business or debate has intervened.
- e. When a motion to fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn is pending. The foregoing does not apply to a motion for final adjournment of the conference.

Rule 27. Between sessions of the Annual Conference, the Connectional Table shall be empowered to complete any unfinished or emergent business of the Annual Conference that does not violate The Book of Discipline (2016), Judicial Council rulings, and/or Robert's Rules of Order.

D. AUTHORITY, SUSPENDING, AMENDING, AND SUPPLEMENTING:

Rule 28. Authority: The plan of organization and rules of order of the annual session of the conference shall be the plan of organization and rules of order of the preceding annual session until and unless they have been amended or modified by the action of the annual conference.

Rule 29. Suspension: The operation of any of the provisions of these rules of order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds vote of the conference, except as may otherwise be provided by Robert's Rules of Order.

Rule 30. Amendments: The plan of organization and rules of order may be amended or changed by a two-thirds vote of the conference, provided that the proposed change or amendment has originated in the Conference Committee on Organization and Rules and has been presented to the conference in writing or, if from a source other than this committee, has been presented to the conference in writing and referred to this committee. As identified in the Plan of Organization (E1), the number of districts may not be amended in the last business session of the Annual Conference meeting. Changes and amendments printed in the booklet of Program and Reports shall be in order for consideration by the conference at any time during the annual session, provided that notice of such shall have been given in writing to the Conference Committee on Organization and Rules prior to the opening of conference (see Rule 11). Otherwise, no proposed change or amendment shall be submitted to vote until and unless one day has elapsed from the initial presentation to the conference.

Rule 31. Supplemental Authority: In any parliamentary situation not clearly covered by the plan of organization and rules of order, the meeting of the annual conference shall be governed in its actions by the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

Rule 32. Telephonic or Virtual Meetings of the Annual Conference:

- a. Annual Conference Session. Upon a determination of exigent circumstances (such as war, civil emergency, public health emergency, natural disaster, terrorism, economic disaster, or similar events), in the discretion of the Bishop and majority of the cabinet, any regular and/or specially called meetings of the Annual Conference may be held telephonically or virtually, including both the general session or the clergy session of the Annual Conference.
- b. Notification of such meetings shall be subject to the requirements for Annual Conference meetings specified in The Book of Discipline. The notice of an electronic meeting must include an adequate description of how to participate in it (for example, the telephone number to call for a teleconference must be provided, URL, etc.).
- c. The conferencing platform must ensure that all people participating in the meeting can hear each other, can vote (if so entitled) and can have their attendance and vote recorded.
- d. The Bishop and a majority of the cabinet shall set the rules and procedures for credentialing, parliamentary process, balloting and voting and shall publish those rules at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the session.
- e. Conference Boards, Councils, Committees, and Teams may also conduct telephonic or virtual meetings, unless their governing documents expressly provide otherwise. If any such bodies have already adopted rules regarding such meetings, their own rules and procedures shall control but they must, at a minimum, provide adequate notice to participants of the meeting(s) and agenda and allow all participants to participate, hear, speak and vote. This rule shall in no way apply to separately incorporated entities governed by the North Carolina Non-Profit Corporation Act or the North Carolina Limited Liability Company Act.

VIII. REPORTS

A. CONFERENCE SUPPORT

1. COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

The purpose of the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) is “to develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the annual conference” (¶ 612.1, 2016 Discipline). This mission statement drives the work of CFA.

CFA sees itself as a vessel for resource management of the Western North Carolina Conference. It is its role to wisely discern available and potential resources that match with the vision and implementation of the conference’s ministry. It is the council’s deepest hope to ensure funds and other resources are available for the Western North Carolina Conference to achieve its mission.

The past two years have brought substantial challenges to the work of the conference and all its churches. The pandemic, uncertain economy, international conflicts, and the future of The United Methodist Church have all weighed on its ministries. Yet, its connexionalism remains strong and vibrant. CFA continues to believe that apportionments are solid pathways to join together resources resulting in fruitful engagement that achieves far more than could ever be accomplished alone. Yet, CFA acknowledges that local congregations are engaged in vibrant ministries in their communities. Therefore, CFA strives to balance the needs of the local congregations and the needs of the annual conference.

Rather than regurgitate what apportionment funds are realizing, CFA simply invites all to further explore and keenly discern what teams, committees, boards, agencies, institutions, and organizations are doing in the Book of Programs and Reports.

It almost goes without saying that CFA urges every local church to support the fair share askings by paying 100 percent of its funds apportioned. It commends those churches in the conference that fully supported the connectional ministry of the church in 2021, sometimes at great sacrifice and in the throes of the COVID-19 pandemic. In 2021, 79 percent of all congregations in the conference paid 100 percent of the total amount apportioned.

CFA resists a rigid pushing of the mandate for local congregations to follow the standards of The Book of Discipline that each congregation must pay 100 percent of the total monies apportioned through the district, conference, jurisdiction, and general church. CFA simply reminds clergy and lay members of the annual conference to interpret and promote 100 percent payment of apportionments. Churches and their leaders can access the WNCC web site (www.wnccumc.org/administration) and review their local congregation’s apportionment allocations, remittances, and descriptions of each of the funds. In the conference’s average congregation, based on 2021 statistical data, the total 2023 apportionment payment (district, conference and general church) is not quite six percent of the total expenditures of the annual conference churches. Adding district apportionments as a whole raises the amount another one percent. Congregations retain 93 percent of their expenses for use in the local church. In using the biblical language of the tithe, apportionments are less than a tithe and they do not represent the full 10 percent of the expenses of conference congregations.

For 2023, due to reports from many general agencies that they are reducing their budgets significantly, CFA is recommending a return to the general church apportionment amounts from 2021. This will result in an approximate $1 million reduction from the WNCC budget. Further, the conference apportionment segment of the budget is a five percent reduction from 2022.

CFA also recommends in its report that the conference adopt a change in the apportionment calculation formula. CFA is proposing that the apportionments paid expense be excluded from calculations. Thus, apportionments paid would no longer be a part of the average expenditures used to determine a local congregation’s ability to be apportioned the budget of the annual conference.

To these ends, CFA commends to the annual conference the 2023 budget which is focused on accomplishing the vision of the conference, with the ultimate focus of developing vital disciples and vibrant churches. At a total of $13,332,430, the 2023 conference apportioned budget represents a full decrease of 10 percent over 2022.

The 2023 budget does include for the second of three years the removal of the jurisdictional apportionment. In 2021, the decision was made by the Council on Finance and Administration of the Southeastern Jurisdiction to return a surplus of apportionment funds collected over the last eight years to the Southeastern annual conferences. WNCC will use that surplus in the years 2022, 2023 and 2024, as much as feasible, to pay the jurisdictional apportionment.

CFA is confident that it will be able to provide for growth in the ministries of the conference. This budget represents the best efforts of the conference staff and ministry teams of the Western North Carolina Conference as a funding ministry plan to achieve the goal of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

a. Proposed 2023 Conference Funds and Financial Policies(Petition 1a) Approved June 18, 2022

The Council on Finance and Administration proposes:

1. That each of the funds described in the section of this report headed "Conference Funds for 2023" be approved and that the traditional decimal formula be used in determining the apportionments for 2023 for each chartered church/charge for these funds. (New church starts will participate in the apportionments in a "phasing" period and churches deemed "mission churches" are excused from apportionments):

District Support Fund	Africa University Fund
Equitable Compensation Fund	Black College Fund
Conference Support Fund	Episcopal Fund
Mission and Ministry Fund	General Administration Fund
District Administration Fund	Interdenominational Coop. Fund
District Mission Engagement Fund	Ministerial Education Fund
District Benevolence Fund	World Service Fund
District Church Vitality Fund

The decimal formula shall be based on the average of the amounts paid by each chartered church/charge during 2019, 2020, and 2021 on the following items:

Items from Table Two of the Year-end Statistical Reports

Pastor(s) Health Insurance Premiums (40)

Salaries, Housing, Utilities, Travel, and Other Cash Allowances Paid to Pastor and Associate(s)(41-44)

Compensation of All Other Church Employees and Diaconal Ministers (45)

Local Church Expenses for Program (46)

Other Local Church Operating Expenses (47)

2. That the following policy be approved and observed: At the beginning of the calendar year, the Council on Finance and Administration shall determine which portions of the Conference Support Fund and the Mission and Ministry Fund are "fixed costs" (salaries, benefits, etc.) and shall be paid at 100 percent of the approved budget. The District Support Fund will be funded at 100 percent of the approved budget. Based on prior year receipts to these funds, CFA shall then determine a percentage of the approved budget to be authorized for expenditure of the remaining items of the budget, so that expenditures shall not exceed income.
 - a. Each church is expected to support all funds at 100 percent of the apportioned amount. (¶ 247.14 of the 2016 Book of Discipline)
 - b. The churches are requested to make payments thereon aggregately, with the understanding that the conference treasurer will allocate such payments according to the appropriate percentage due the fund according to the conference budget.
3. That an Unrestricted Fund Balance Account be maintained by the annual conference at a goal level of 30 percent of the current total of the conference funds and that any undesignated interest income plus unused balances in budget accounts be transferred to the undesignated fund balance at the end of the fiscal year.
4. That all apportioned funds, pension, and health benefits costs, both receipts and disbursements, be managed through the office of the conference treasurer and that all districts, boards, agencies, committees, and commissions use the conference treasurer as fiscal agent.
5. That the group medical insurance plan be continued and that all churches be required to participate, based on the eligibility requirements of the plan, through the payment of premiums to the office of the conference treasurer.
6. That local churches should be aware that, for apportioned funds for bishops (Episcopal Fund), district superintendents (District Support), and the Equitable Compensation Fund, the church has an obligation to observe the rule of proportional payment (¶¶ 622 and 639.4, 2016 Discipline), and that ¶ 639.4(c) be observed by the statistician in reporting these apportionments. The rule of proportional payment requires that each local church/charge makes payments for these apportioned funds in the same proportion as payment for the support for the clergy appointed to the charge, i.e., if a church pays their clergy monthly, then these apportioned funds are to be submitted monthly.
7. That, for 2012 and beyond, the Conference Staff Relations Committee (CSRC) set the salary and benefits (including clergy housing allowances) for district superintendents, and district and conference staff within the approved total salary budget. The salary of the district superintendents for 2023, as recommended by CSRC, is to be set at $119,635.
8. That conference—related travel expenses of all members of conference boards, agencies, committees, and commissions and conference and district staff will be reimbursed per the Per Diem Reimbursement Policy approved by the annual conference. Church-related travel by local church clergy will be paid by voucher on a mileage basis at the business mileage reimbursement rate allowed by the Internal Revenue Service. This will be considered as a church-related business item and will not be factored into any compensation package by the cabinet.
9. That the amount of compensation designated as housing allowance for ordained staff members and district superintendents be set by an annual resolution of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration after consideration of a statement of amounts to be used during the year.

10. That the governing boards of:

- Aldersgate United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.
- Arbor Acres United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.
- Givens Estates United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.
- Crossnore School & Children’s Home
- UMAR-WNC, Inc.
- The United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc.
- Methodist Youth Camp of Western NC Conference, Inc. (Camp Tekoa)
- Guilrock United Methodist Camp, Inc.
- Mount Shepherd Retreat Center
- Bennett College
- Brevard College
- Greensboro College
- High Point University
- Pfeiffer University
- Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood/Sisterhood
- Western North Carolina Conference Historical Society
- Sanctuary Counseling Group, Charlotte
- Chrysalis Counseling Center, Greensboro
- Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries of NC, Inc.
- NETworkX
- Methodist Home for Children
- New Faith Communities Fund, Congregational Vitality Team
- Campus Ministries to include Appalachian State University, UNC-Asheville, NCA&T, UNC-Charlotte, UNC-Greensboro, Western Carolina University, Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation, Common Ground Lees McRae College be granted the privilege of soliciting and receiving funds from churches, individuals, and other sources (but not from conference-wide offerings except as indicated in the list which follows) in keeping with The Book of Discipline; no capital campaigns be approved for 2023; and that the following, and only the following, conference-wide offerings be approved for 2023:

Human Relations Day	General Conference
UMAR Sunday	Annual Conference
UMCOR Sunday.....	General Conference
Native American Awareness	General Conference
Mother’s Day (Aldersgate, Arbor Acres, Givens)	Annual Conference
Disciple Bible Outreach.....	Annual Conference
Project AGAPE	Annual Conference
Peace with Justice	General Conference
Crossnore School and Children’s Home Sunday	Annual Conference
World Communion	General Conference
United Methodist Student Day.....	General Conference

11. That clergy be reimbursed for moving expenses in the following manner, effective upon adjournment of the 2022 conference session:
 - a. IN-CONFERENCE MOVES: The conference shall pay a moving allowance, plus $2.50 per mile, one way, on those moves which are required from one appointment to a new appointment. If an appointment requires a move from one parsonage/home into another parsonage/home, the moving allowance will be set at $500. If the appointment does not require a move from a parsonage/home, the moving allowance will be set at $150.
 - b. MOVES INTO THE CONFERENCE: The conference shall pay on the same basis as in item 11a above. The moving allowance will apply to the number of miles on the most direct route traveled from the conference boundary to the pastoral appointment.
 - c. MOVING AT RETIREMENT: Retiring clergy, surviving spouses of active clergy who died during the year, and clergy who go on medical leave during the year shall receive a moving allowance of $750, plus $2.50 per mile, from the pastoral appointment to the retirement residence or the conference boundary. A retiree who moves to a parsonage and serves a pastorate in retirement is eligible for an in-conference moving allowance upon approval of the district superintendent.
 - d. MOVES OUT OF THE CONFERENCE (moving to another conference, withdrawing from conference membership, leave of absence, or not receiving an appointment, etc.): No allowance will be paid.
 - e. SABBATICAL LEAVE: No allowance is granted when the leave begins; however, an allowance will be given when the leave is completed, and the clergy person is again available for appointment by the bishop. The amount will be consistent with items 11a and 11b above.
 - f. In many instances, the moving allowance will not cover the total expense of the move. This reimbursement is given to help with the over-the-road cost of the move. Each church/charge receiving a new pastor is strongly urged to pay any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the new pastor because of the move. The district superintendent will negotiate the request with the church/charge well in advance of moving day.
 - g. The district superintendent is asked to make a very special appeal for each church/charge to be especially sensitive to both parsonage families during this stressful time. The appeal should include assistance with meals, packing, unpacking, loading, and unloading where helpful and appropriate for the parsonage family.
 - h. Due to the Federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017, clergy should continue to be aware of the provisions of moving reimbursements that may impact their tax situation and are urged to consult with their tax advisor.
12. That each local church makes a very special effort to undergird the meal, transportation, and lodging expenses of annual conference members attending annual conference by adding a minimum of $100 to the church budget for each lay and clergy delegate. The district superintendents are asked to encourage such support at each charge conference.
13. That the Council on Finance and Administration be authorized to appoint a conference auditor.
14. That the president, vice-president, and secretary of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration, the chairpersons of the Audit Review Committee and the Investment Committee, the conference treasurer-director of administrative services, a cabinet representative, and one lay member of the CFA constitute the executive committee of the Council on Finance and Administration. The principal duties of the executive committee include annual review, compensation and benefits of the conference treasurer, and review and recommendation to CFA all statements of relationship for ministries relating to the conference.
15. That conference funds are not permitted to carry over unspent funds from one conference year to another unless specifically authorized by the Council on Finance and Administration. Agencies receiving funds from sources other than apportioned funds, such as fee-based events, may carry over such unspent funds into the next year.
16. That the Conference Council on Finance and Administration be authorized to grant amounts from the Conference Contingency Fund or Permanent Reserves to meet any individual emergency or unanticipated need.
17. That 3:00 pm., Wednesday, January 4, 2023, be the cutoff time by which all payments from local churches must be in the office of the conference treasurer to be applied to the 2022 year. Apportionment payments must be in the conference or the district offices by this time to receive credit.
18. That each conference board, agency, or institution receiving, or disbursing funds not managed by the conference treasurer maintain adequate financial records and prepare and submit annual audit reports to the conference treasurer and the Conference Council on Finance and Administration. All treasurers should be properly bonded.
19. That the conference fiscal year begins on January 1, 2023, and ends on December 31, 2023.
20. That the Conference Council on Finance and Administration be responsible for designating depositories for conference funds.

George Coates, President
R. Mark King, Treasurer

2. BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS

Pension Program and Policies

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Inc., Western North Carolina Conference, The United Methodist Church, acting as an auxiliary to Wespath Benefits | Investments, is charged with caring for the work of providing for and contributing to the support, relief, assistance, and pensioning of clergy and their families in the Western North Carolina Conference.

In 2023, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits will send invoices monthly to the churches for clergy appointed in accordance with the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) adopted by The United Methodist Church.

Since the implementation of direct billing for pension and health benefits in 2007, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits have been investing the net proceeds from these billings in various investment vehicles with the United Methodist Foundation. Over the years, these investments have provided better than projected earnings for the conference. As a result, the board has approved the sharing of these resources with the local church by reducing the cost of pension benefits (without reducing any pension benefits to the pastors) by $2,228 per full-time pastor in 2023, invoicing $2,880 to the local church. The actual cost invoiced to the conference for the CRSP DB full time benefit will be $5,108. This is the 10th year of reductions in the CRSP defined benefit pension billings to each local church for each full-time pastor as shown in the table below:

2013	$ 6,200
2014	$ 5,118
2015	$ 4,092
2016	$ 3,824
2017.....	$ 3,713
2018	$ 3,402
2019	$ 3,093
2020	$ 3,093
2021	$ 3,093
2022	$ 3,093
2023	$ 2,880

The board rejoices in the ability to share these resources with the local church so that more of their resources may be used for ministry within their communities.

As published in the report in 2013, new provisions of the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), enacted at General Conference 2012, became effective January 1, 2014, as follows:

- Eligibility: Full-time clergy are eligible to participate and earn benefits. Annual conferences may elect to cover clergy who are appointed as three-quarters or one-half time. Clergy who are appointed one-quarter time are no longer eligible to earn CRSP benefits. Any benefits already earned through December 31, 2013, remain in place.
- Benefit Formulas: The formula for determining the defined benefit (DB) component was reduced for the multiplier from 1.25% to 1.0% to be applied to Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) per year of service beginning January 1, 2014. Additionally, for the defined contribution (DC) component, the local church will contribute 2% of the clergy’s compensation, reduced from 3% in 2013. If the clergy person contributes up to 1% of his/her plan compensation, the local church will also contribute an additional 1% amount as a dollar-for-dollar match of the UMPIP contributions, up to 1%.
- Surviving Spouse Benefits: Beginning January 1, 2014, the initial dollar amount of the benefit paid to a married participant will be reduced to offset the value of spousal benefits.
- Disabled Adult Child Benefits: Beginning January 1, 2014, participants may designate a disabled adult child as a secondary contingent annuitant. After the participant and his or her spouse die, the disabled adult child would continue to receive DB benefits for life. The initial participant benefit would be reduced to pay for this extra benefit.

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, in consensus with the Cabinet of the Western North Carolina Conference, recommends that the annual conference approve the continuation of eligibility of those clergy who are appointed to three-quarter or half-time designations.

Based on the above, invoices will be prepared using the following criteria:

- A. Pension Plan Compensation (PPC) is the total annual compensation reported by the charge conference for 2023; included in the PPC is the housing component. The housing is either 25% of the aforementioned annual compensation, if a parsonage is provided, or the cash paid in lieu of a parsonage.
- B. Clergy Retirement Security Program – In 2023, the Core Defined Contribution Part (CRSP-DC) is 3% of PPC. Continuing from 2014 (the effective date of this change) CRSP-DC will continue to be invoiced at 3% of PPC, with 2% being an employer contribution and 1% as a matching contribution to the pastor’s United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP).

- C. Clergy Retirement Security Program – Core Defined Benefit Part (CRSP-DB) is an actuarially determined normal cost provided by Wespath. For 2023, the cost is \$2,880 for each full-time clergy. For those clergy appointed $\frac{3}{4}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ time (based on the eligibility approved by this session of the annual conference), the cost is that percentage times \$2,880. Wespath has provided that the conference actuarially determined normal cost contribution due December 31, 2023, will be \$3,515,331. Effective January 1, 2014, as approved by General Conference 2012, clergy appointed to $\frac{1}{4}$ time positions will not be eligible to earn benefits under the CRSP – DC plan and will not accrue benefits in the CRSP – DB plan after that date. (All previously earned benefits will remain in place.) The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits of Western North Carolina highly recommends that any local church which is served by a clergy person appointed to a $\frac{1}{4}$ time position sponsor the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) and provide an employer contribution on behalf of the clergy person under appointment.
- D. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) is the death and disability program administered through Wespath. In 2013 and prior years, premiums of 3% of PPC have been required to be paid for full-time clergy. The premium is 3% of PPC to a maximum amount of 200% of Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). General Conference 2016 approved a change that would permit Annual Conference Boards of Pension to enroll clergy appointed to $\frac{3}{4}$ time and full-time positions in the CPP. General Conference 2016 also changed the minimum compensation to 25% of DAC. For the year 2023, the CPP premium will be invoiced to the churches with full-time and $\frac{3}{4}$ time clergy at the rate of 2.50% of PPC, and the remaining 0.50% will be funded from Conference Board reserves.

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) provides that the Past Service Annuity Rate (PSR) for service years prior to 1982 will increase 2% per annum. The conference board is proposing that the 2023 PSR be set at $857.00 per service year, which represents the 2% increase and is greater than 1% of Conference Average Compensation as provided by Wespath for the Western North Carolina Annual Conference.

Paragraph 1506.6 of The Book of Discipline, 2016, requires each annual conference to develop, adopt and implement a formal comprehensive funding plan or plans for funding all its benefit obligations. Such funding plan must be submitted to Wespath Benefits | Investments for review to obtain a favorable written opinion from Wespath. Under this requirement, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits has developed, adopted, and implemented such formal comprehensive funding plan upon obtaining a favorable written opinion from Wespath. By approval of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits and inclusion of a summary of the Comprehensive Funding Plan, with the favorable written opinion received, this plan is deemed to be approved by the Annual Conference of Western North Carolina.

a. Proposed Pension Programs and Policies

(Petition 2a) Approved June 18, 2022

The conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits proposes:

1. That the basic cost of pastor's pension be invoiced to churches in 2023 as pension responsibility to support the Clergy Retirement Security Program.
2. That costs of the Clergy Retirement Security Program – Core Defined Benefit Part (CRSP-DB) for clergy appointed on medical leave be borne by the board, and not included in the 2023 conference apportioned budget.
3. That the Past Service Annuity Rate for service years prior to 1982 be set at \$857.00 per service year, effective January 1, 2023, and that the eligibility for the Clergy Retirement Security Program be determined to include clergy appointed for full, $\frac{3}{4}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ time positions. That the eligibility for the Comprehensive Protection Plan be determined to include clergy appointed for full and $\frac{3}{4}$ time positions earning a minimum of 25% of the DAC in pension plan compensation (PPC).
4. That the following resolution be adopted for calendar year 2023:

Resolution Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired, Disabled, or Former Clergypersons of the Western North Carolina Conference

The Western North Carolina Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolution relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated or disabled clergypersons of the conference:

Whereas, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons");

Whereas, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

Whereas, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

Whereas, The Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from Wespath, the United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina Conference Superannuate Endowment Fund, and The Duke Endowment during the period January 1, 2023 through December 31, 2023 by each active, retired, terminated or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergy person rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated or a disabled Clergy person of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergy person to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund, for such an active, a retired, a terminated or a disabled Clergy person's pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergy person's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations thereunder to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergy person's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolution) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergy person to rent or provide a home in such year, or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Retired Clergy are encouraged to consult their tax advisor concerning this resolution.

Clergy Debt Reduction Peer Program

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is working in partnership with the United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc. (the Foundation) on a Clergy Debt Reduction Peer Program. The program is sponsored and funded by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits and administered by the Foundation. The board is excited about the impact the program is having already on participants, and about the possibilities the program will hold for improving general welfare and well-being of clergy. As of December 31, 2021, loans outstanding for clergy debt reduction and refinancing totaled $1,594,392.

Balances Due from Churches

Beginning in 2007, direct clergy benefit costs were invoiced to each local church. According to conference action, recorded in the 2004 journal, page 234, "Non-payment of direct clergy benefit costs (pension and health benefits) result in a default recorded against the church (see ¶639.4, The Book of Discipline 2016). While individual clergy will not lose benefits, the church will incur a liability to the conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The default will be reported by the conference benefits officer to the district superintendents, and the church will be led to correct this situation.

The following is the 2021 list of churches with balances greater than $50.00 as of May 4, 2022, resulting from non-payment of direct clergy benefit costs:

District	Church	2021 Balance	District	Church	2021 Balance

Health Benefits Committee

The Health Benefits Committee serves as a sub-committee of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits (BOPHB), with responsibility in two specific areas: health benefits and group term life insurance.

The committee is composed of at least 12 members appointed by the board to quadrennial terms, as follows: three from BOPHB, one serving as chair of the committee, one being an officer of BOPHB, and one being the cabinet representative to BOPHB; one from the conference Board of Ordained Ministry; one from the conference Council on Finance and Administration; two retired clergy persons; and five professional persons involved in the insurance industry. Typically, there are six lay members and six clergy members. The various agencies represented nominate their representatives to BOPHB for appointment.

Group Life Insurance

Wespath, through the Comprehensive Protection Plan, provides a death and disability benefit for eligible clergy, along with death benefits for members of clergy families. In addition to this coverage, the conference offers basic life insurance coverage of $10,000 for active clergy enrolled in the conference group health plan, with premiums for this coverage collected through the invoice. Clergy members may elect to increase their coverage by enrolling in additional coverage in the amounts of $25,000, $50,000, $75,000, $100,000, $125,000 or $150,000. A new feature to the plan is critical illness and accident coverage. As an added benefit, a clergy member may elect to enroll his/her spouse and dependent children. This additional coverage is available from a group policy secured by the committee for a monthly premium to be collected by the insuring company. The continuation of this optional benefit is dependent on normal participation of those eligible. Newly eligible clergy will receive information about this coverage from the Treasury Services Office. To obtain coverage without evidence of insurability, enrollment must be made within 30 days of eligibility.

Enrollment Deadlines for Health and Life Insurance

Responsibility rests with the individual to make application in writing for the group health insurance and the group life insurance. In addition, any changes in dependents' status must also be submitted in writing. The effective date of coverage for new applicants is July 1 following the session of annual conference. Applications must be made within 30 days of appointment at annual conference. Anyone seeking to apply following the 30-day grace period will have a 12-month waiting period for all pre-existing conditions.

Health Benefits Continuation Policy

The conference benefits plan provides for group members and eligible beneficiaries to continue coverage if they become ineligible for the plan. The policy is available from the plan administrator.

Premium Collection Policy

Payment of the medical/health insurance premiums for pastors is the responsibility of the local church(es). This premium payment is invoiced monthly. For churches with more than one pastor on the staff, the church is responsible for the payment of the insurance premium for each eligible pastor. It is the responsibility of the pastor to pay the premium costs for dependents.

The Health Benefits Committee requires the conference treasurer to notify dependent accounts which are delinquent by sixty (60) days or more that their coverage is immediately subject to termination. If full payment is not made by thirty (30) days after the delinquency, coverage will be terminated.

Conclusion

The board appreciates the fine spirit in which subscribers and local churches are supporting the work of the Health Benefits Committee. The board seeks your continuing support as it makes every effort to provide a health benefits program that meets your needs. Members of the committee are Lori Wilson (chairperson), Frank A. Stith III, Marvin Melton, Rey Rodriguez, J. Zachery Christy, Phillip B. Cole, Andrea Conder, Ken Poe, Rennie Salata, Dave Ogden, Mark Key and Beverly Copley, Cabinet Representative, R. Mark King, Conference Treasurer, Dale C. Bryant, Benefits Administrator, and M. Lynne Gilbert, CBOPHB Treasurer.

b. Proposed Health Benefits Program and Policies(Petition 2b) Approved June 18, 2022

The Health Benefits Committee proposes:

1. That the Board of Pension and Health Benefits be authorized to secure a hospital/medical insurance contract for 2023 that will be advantageous in terms of coverage, premium rates, and administrative costs.
2. That the hospital/medical insurance program be continued for all eligible persons working 30 hours or more per standard workweek.
3. That each local charge and eligible pastor be expected to participate in the conference program of hospital/medical insurance by contributing an amount equal to the pastor's coverage premium for each eligible pastor appointed to that charge and that these premium payments be remitted to the conference Treasury Services Office rather than to the pastor or other insurance carrier. The participant participation schedule should be used to calculate the eligible pastor's portion.
4. That premium cost information is made available to local churches and pastors immediately after the 2023 plan has been determined and rates established.
5. That a pastor may exclude himself/herself from coverage by signing a written waiver, releasing the conference and any local church from legal or moral responsibility for medical or accident claims.
6. That, in the discussion of salaries and benefits for 2023 and all succeeding years, local church committees on staff-parish relations consider designating a portion of compensation for dependents' healthcare coverage.
7. That medical/hospital coverage be provided for persons terminated from the plan for not more than a 12-month period, with the premium costs to be paid by the person terminated.
8. That continued endorsement be given to the optional life insurance program provided by a top-quality life insurance company as supplemental coverage for active clergy.
9. That the following Retired Clergy Medical Plan, which became effective on January 1, 2003, and was amended at the special session of the conference on February 2, 2008, be continued:
 - a. Benefit Design: The basic benefit design for all participants will be a comprehensive Medicare supplement (complete benefit description available from the conference Treasury Services Office).
 - b. Funding Design:
 - (1) Creation of the Retiree Security Supplement Fund, which was created December 31, 2008. This Restricted Fund shall be vested with a minimum of $5,000,000. Subsequently, additional contributions to this Fund (corpus or principal) shall be made of all free reserve available at year-end. Free reserve is defined as the fund balance in excess of the Claims Reserve required by the Plan. The Claims Reserve is 25% of the prior year's claims paid.
 - (2) The purpose of the Retiree Security Supplement Fund is to secure the retiree medical benefit by contributing 4% of the fund balance (which consists of corpus or principal and earnings from dividends, interest, and appreciation) each year to the Retired Clergy Medical Plan. The Fund's contribution will reduce the Net Estimated Claims Cost of the Retired Clergy Medical Plan to the Base Estimated Claims Cost.
 - (3) Net Estimated Claims Cost is defined as Total Estimated Claims Costs (including administration, stop-loss insurance and other operating expenses), less all contributions from other charitable trusts, foundations or individuals, such as The Cole Foundation.
 - c. Premium Design:
 - (1) Participants enrolled prior to January 1, 2003 will contribute the Base Estimated Claims Cost.
 - (2) Participants enrolled in the retiree plan on or after January 1, 2003, will contribute based on "years enrolled in the Active Health Benefits Plan". The contribution will be based on a percentage of the plan year's Net Estimated Claims Cost, as follows:
 - (a) 1-10 Years: 100% of the Net Estimated Claims Cost.
 - (b) Beginning in the 11th year, the contribution will decline approximately 1% per year to an amount equal to the Base Estimated Claims Cost.
 - (c) All of the years prior to 2003 that a clergyperson has been appointed to a local church or conference position will be considered "years enrolled in the Active Health Benefits Plan".
 - (d) Participants must be enrolled in Medicare Parts A & B to be eligible for the Retired Clergy Medical Plan.
10. That each participant electing dependent coverage be required to remit premium payments in the method established by the Health Benefits Committee and that dependent coverage remain in effect only when premium payments are current.
11. That each participating participant be required to remit premium payments in the method established by the Health Benefits Committee and approved by the 2009 Annual Conference and coverage remain in effect only when premium payments are current. The current participating participant method is a progressive scale percent of premium based on salary.
12. That sufficient funds for hospital/medical coverage be included in the appropriate 2023 apportioned funds to pay premiums for district superintendents and administrative, program, and support staff members of the conference headquarters.
13. That costs for insurance for clergy on medical leave shall be borne by the Board and not included in the 2023 conference apportioned budget.

Words of Appreciation

The board expresses its gratitude and that of the conference to Dale C. Bryant, Benefits Administrator since October 1998.

Questions dealing with pension, health insurance or group life insurance should be directed to Mr. Bryant at 704-714-2332 or e-mail dbryant@wnccumc.org.

3. COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

Policies and Guidelines for Administering the Equitable Compensation Fund (Calendar Year 2023)

1. Policies Pertaining to the Commission on Equitable Compensation:

¶¶ 342 and 625 of The Book of Discipline (2016), direct the Commission on Equitable Compensation (CEC) to recommend a minimum level of pastoral compensation for clergy serving as local church pastors under episcopal appointment and to administer the Equitable Compensation Fund (ECF) as a source of funding of last resort for pastors-in-charge to maintain a living, equitable level of compensation for these itinerant ministers.

a. Executive Committee:

During each quadrennium, at its organizational meeting, the CEC shall elect an executive committee consisting of a chairperson, a vice-chairperson, a secretary, and additional members from the full commission as needed, so that the executive committee consists of an equal number of clergy and laypersons. The assistant to the bishop and a cabinet representative will serve as ex-officio members of the executive committee.

b. Definition of Compensation:

As used by the CEC, the term "compensation" includes the annual amount designated as cash salary for service rendered, additional insurance premiums over and above the conference-approved program of individual medical insurance for clergy, accountable professional expenses, household expenses paid by the local charge, and other fringe benefits. Compensation does not include housing allowance in lieu of parsonage to the extent of actual housing, fair market value of supplied parsonages, reimbursement for parish-related travel expenses paid by the local charge to the extent of actual travel expenses or use of an automobile for parish travel purposes, funds provided for continuing education to the extent they are used for that purpose, bona fide gifts or honoraria for special services, allowances for moving expenses paid by the annual conference or local church, or individual medical insurance premiums in the amount of the conference-approved program of insurance for clergy.

2. Types of Grants

Two categories of support are available from the ECF: emergency sustentation grants and regular grants.

a. Emergency sustentation grants are available under the provisions of ¶626, which states that each church or charge has an obligation to pay in full compensation, as approved by the charge conference, to its pastor(s). If it becomes apparent that a church or charge will be unable to so provide the compensation approved by the charge conference, the church shall immediately notify the district superintendent and may request consideration for a short-term emergency grant from the Equitable Compensation Fund (cf. also ¶625).

b. Regular grants are available for those churches or charges which, at their annual charge conferences, determine that they will be unable to provide compensation at the minimum level set by the annual conference. In cooperation with the bishop and cabinet, the CEC offers grants, on a declining schedule, totaling no more than 30 percent of the appropriate minimum pastoral compensation for a period of five or fewer years.

c. In 2021, 13 churches received regular grants. One charge received an emergency sustentation grant when one of the churches closed on the charge. A total of $96,577.44 was allocated in grants.

3. Definitions and Classifications of Pastors

Subject to these policies and guidelines, pastors appointed to full-time service under ¶338.1 or ¶318.1 shall have a claim on the ECF and shall not receive less than the minimum compensation specified in the current schedule (¶342).

a. Pastors Serving Less Than Full-Time: Subject to these policies and guidelines, elders and provisional members serving as pastors appointed to less than full-time service under the provisions of ¶338.2 shall have a claim upon the ECF if serving at least $\frac{3}{4}$ -time as negotiated by the district superintendent at the time of the appointment, receiving not less than this percentage of the minimum compensation specified in the current schedule. Local pastors serving $\frac{3}{4}$ -time shall also have a claim upon the ECF, receiving not less than this percentage of the minimum compensation specified in the current schedule.

b. Pastors Attending School: Subject to these policies and guidelines, a pastor appointed to a church or charge who is enrolled in good standing in a college or seminary for a minimum of nine hours per semester or equivalent in fulfillment of the requirements for conference affiliation and who is not otherwise gainfully employed shall have a claim upon the ECF if serving at $\frac{3}{4}$ -time as negotiated by the district superintendent at the time of the appointment. In determining the compensation for a pastor attending school, grants received for education expenses shall not be considered as part of compensation. Pastors who discontinue or complete their studies and intend to be considered as serving full-time shall be compensated at that level only after certification by the CEC.

c. Part-Time Local Pastors and Retired Supply Pastors: Since the ECF is designed to support those in full-time services as pastors of local churches, those charges utilizing part-time local pastors at $\frac{1}{2}$ -time or $\frac{1}{4}$ -time as negotiated by the district superintendent at the time of the appointment and retired supply pastors shall not have a claim upon the ECF.

- d. Pastors Engaged in Continuing Education: Inasmuch as continuing education is required of all ordained clergy, no pastor engaged in a program of continuing education under ¶351 shall by reason of such study leave be denied the minimum compensation support as specified in the current schedule, except that in cases of educational leave in excess of one month, the supplement shall be adjusted as negotiated by the district superintendent and the CEC.
- e. Deacons in Full Connection: As provided in ¶331.10b, deacons in full connection serving within the local church “shall receive salary from the local church, charge, or cooperative parish not less than the minimum salary established by the equitable compensation policy of the annual conference for full-time or part-time pastors,” although these entities should be reminded that they are fully responsible for the compensation of these individuals. If the bishop and cabinet appoint a deacon in full connection to a position as pastor-in-charge of a local church or charge, that individual shall have a claim upon the ECF and shall not receive less than the minimum compensation specified in the current schedule for elders in full connection.

4. Request Procedures

Regular grants from the CEC must be requested by a formal action of the charge conference, supported by an electronic grant application through the conference grant software. Requests must be completed in full and be accompanied by all required documentation in order to be processed by the CEC. Required documentation must include but is not limited to: a written plan for decreasing reliance on equitable compensation, letters of support from the pastor, church leadership, and district superintendent. The more information the CEC has about a local church situation, the better equipped the CEC is to provide support. For emergency sustentation grants, the district superintendent is responsible for submitting documentation to the cabinet and CEC executive committee for immediate processing, approval, and payment authorization.

5. Guidelines for Recommending Minimum Compensation

The CEC desires to recommend minimum pastoral compensation that is equitable for both churches and pastors. It is acknowledged that economic conditions vary across the annual conference. To be equitable, therefore, there must be awareness of the financial impact of these recommendations upon the local churches in order not to make pastoral support an excessive burden while providing clergy with fair, living, and equitable compensation.

In making these recommendations, the CEC refers to changes in the North Carolina Per Capita Income (NCPCI), as maintained by the United States Bureau of Economic Analysis, on a two-year-lag basis (the earliest time for which data are obtainable). The NCPCI offers a true measure of the underlying economy in which congregations exist and is independent of Western NC Conference actions. Additional consideration is given to the two-year-lag Conference Average Compensation (CAC) and other measures of the health of churches and the economy as deemed necessary, segmenting the minimum compensation levels into the following categories:

- o Elders and Deacons in Full Connection;
- o Provisional/Associate Members;
- o Local Pastors who have completed the Course of Study or Masters of Divinity;
- o Local Pastors who have not completed the Course of Study.

Proposal: Equitable Compensation Policies and Guidelines

(Petition 3) Approved June 18, 2022

The CEC proposes the adoption of these policies, definitions, and classifications for administering the ECF and these guidelines and schedules for recommending minimum compensation for 2023.

A. Allocation of Requested Equitable Compensation Fund Budget for 2023:

Regular Grants	$197,000
Emergency Sustentation Grants	$25,000
Expenses of the Commission	$3,000

B. Schedule of 2023 Minimum Compensation for Clergy Serving Full-Time Appointments:

Longevity Increases: New this year, CEC is recommending longevity increases to the base minimum compensation for all clergy serving Full-Time Appointments. This longevity increase will go into effect beginning the January after reaching 5 years of service and will increase each January following each additional 5 years of service with a maximum increase achieved after 20 years of service. The proposed increase would reflect a .75% increase for each year of service. CEC is projecting for that increase to double to 1.5% for each year of service in 2024 and to remain at that rate in the future. The increases for 2023 will go into effect on January 1, 2023. Recognizing that for some churches this salary adjustment might require additional financial planning, a grace period will be given until July 1, 2023, if needed.

This proposal comes from the combined work of the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the Just Compensation Task Force. The proposed longevity increases would decrease the pay gap between male and female clergy by about 13% and will decrease the pay gap between white and non-white clergy by about 15%.

January 1, 2023, proposed base minimum compensation with longevity increase:

0-5 years of service:

Elders and Deacons in Full Connection	$43,260
Provisional/Associate Members	$38,934
Local Pastors who have completed the Course of Study/M.Div.	$36,230

4. CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES, INC.

The Board of Trustees, Western North Carolina Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc., is a nonprofit corporation incorporated under North Carolina law, in accordance with The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, and is subject to the authority of the Discipline. The current class of the board of trustees held an organizational meeting on August 13, 2020, and has been meeting monthly since then.

The primary responsibilities of the board of trustees are to hold title to, manage, sell, lease, and operate annual conference real property, including closed churches, and hold and invest other securities and funds on behalf of the annual conference. The board of trustees, per the Discipline, has the authority to legally protect the rights of the annual conference in a wide variety of legal settings, including litigation.

Investments

A. The Jesse Spencer Bell Fund, under trustee management, is invested through The United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc.

B. Earnings during 2021 were distributed to the following designated beneficiaries:

Western North Carolina Conference Board of Pensions	$4,715.93
Western North Carolina Conference United Methodist Women	$2,660.95
Brevard College	$5,796.12
Total Distribution	$13,173.00

Conference Center

Property Management

All conference property management and broker services are handled by Wesley Community Development Corporation, a nonprofit that helps North Carolina churches develop or repurpose real estate to best meet church and community needs.

Leasing

The lease with NVR, Inc. (parent company of Ryan Homes and NVR Mortgage) for occupation of 80 percent of the first floor conference center building in Huntersville is continuing for the third of seven years. The total yearly lease payments will cover most, if not all, of the operational expenses of the conference center building.

Episcopal Residence

The Episcopal Residence Committee cares for the conference-owned Episcopal Residence, constituted according to the provisions of the Discipline. The trustees send a representative to this committee. Bishop and Rev. Ken and Pam Carter live in the Episcopal Residence located at 3416 Maryhurst Lane, Charlotte, NC 28226.

Duke Endowment Grant for the Church Legacy Initiative

Among other duties, the trustees hold, management, lease and/or sell discontinued and abandoned churches. The Church Legacy Initiative, with a staff of four persons, continued to assist local churches with discerning possible paths forward. This project completed the fifth of a five-year grant from the Duke Endowment in 2020, and due to excellent stewardship, were funded for an additional year in 2021. The trustees affirm the benefits of this transition team, even as their work slowed significantly by the COVID-19 pandemic, and gratefully thank the cabinet, the Duke Endowment, and The United Methodist Foundation for their endeavors in this area.

Discontinued Churches

Please note that ¶2548.4 of The Book of Discipline specifies that all deeds, records, and official and legal papers of a discontinued church shall be deposited for permanent safekeeping with the Commission of Archives and History of the Annual Conference. The central repository is currently housed at Pfeiffer University in Misenheimer, NC. A list of the local churches that have been discontinued since the last annual conference can be found in the Cabinet Resolutions of the Daily Proceedings of the Annual Conference.

Heritage Cemetery Association, LLC

The Heritage Cemetery Association was established to hold, manage, and maintain certain cemeteries belonging to closed, abandoned, or discontinued churches in the Western North Carolina Conference. Funds for this association are managed by the United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc., and the properties are managed by Wesley Community Development. As of December 31, 2021, the association was comprised of 12 cemetery properties.

Disaffiliated Churches

At the Special Session of General Conference in February 2019, a pathway for a local church to disaffiliate from The United Methodist Church was adopted. Paragraph 2553 of the Discipline is now effective and will be in effect through December 31, 2023.

This provision allows a local church to leave the denomination, i.e., disaffiliate, under certain circumstances and subject to a series of agreements and required approvals of other denominational bodies along with payment of 24 months of apportionments and a pro rata share of aggregate unfunded pension obligations. Under this provision, the main body of decision-making and negotiating on behalf of the conference is the annual conference board of trustees. The 2022 Annual Conference will be asked to approve the disaffiliation agreements reached with 18 local churches: (AP) Grassy Creek (Grassy Creek); (BR) Carson's Chapel (Marion); (BR) Gray's Chapel (Rutherfordton); (BR) Nesbitt's Chapel (Fairview); (BR) West Marion (Marion); (CV) Bethlehem (Cherryville); (CV) Lafayette Street (Shelby); (CV) Mary's Grove (Kings Mountain); (NP) Burnett's Chapel (Greensboro); (SM) Bellview (Murphy); (SM) Ledford's Chapel (Hayesville); (SM) Martin's Creek (Murphy); (UW) Lineberry (Denton); (UW) Maple Springs (Ramseur); (UW) Midway (Monroe); (UW) Pleasant Grove (Denton); (YV) Cornatzer (Mocksville); (YV) New Union (Mocksville).

Vehicle Leasing

In order to more effectively steward the conference's resources, the trustees ended the Honda leases with Vann York Auto Mall in High Point, NC and resold the vehicles (eight Honda CRVs, two Honda HRVs, and one Accord) back to the dealership in September 2021. The conference then purchased 11 vehicles from Subaru (seven Outbacks, two Foresters, and two Crosstreds) with a plan to keep these vehicles in service for at least five years. These vehicles are used by the district superintendents, bishop, bishop's assistant, and director of church development.

Boy Scouts

In 2020, The Boy Scouts of America filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in Delaware. One result of that bankruptcy was that long-standing obligations of the BSA to provide certain insurance coverage and indemnification to sponsoring churches were cast into doubt. In 2020, the conference trustees engaged with the law firm of Bradley Arant Boult Cummings, LLP ("Bradley") to file proofs of claims for WNCC local churches who sponsored troops. This was done so the rights of local churches to BSA insurance coverage and indemnification would be an issue before the bankruptcy court and protected (otherwise those rights would have been extinguished).

In 2021, the conference trustees engaged with The United Methodist denomination in a coordinated effort across conferences to present a unified legal position. The UMC legal position was directed by a committee of conference chancellors who coordinated with the Council of Bishops, GCFA, and other conference chancellors and treasurers.

In December 2021, United Methodist leaders reached a settlement with the Boy Scouts of America (BSA) in their pending bankruptcy proceedings as to the treatment of sexual abuse claims related to the UMC and other chartered organizations. United Methodists across the United States agreed to contribute $30 million over three years to youth harmed in Boy Scout programs, as well as committing to prayers and a willingness to listen to the experiences of abuse. Upon final court approval of the BSA bankruptcy reorganization plan, through the BSA victims fund, UMC churches and organizations would be released from claims of sexual abuse that may have occurred in congregation-sponsored scouting programs. In March, the bankruptcy court held hearings regarding the confirmation of the plan. Closing arguments of plan advocates and opponents were heard in April. Plan confirmation or rejection by the court may be appealed to the United States District Court in Delaware for further review. Further appeals may be possible.

In December of 2021, a number of local churches and the conference itself were joined as defendants in a series of lawsuits in North Carolina state courts related to alleged occurrences of BSA related sexual abuse. These lawsuits were based on a 2019 law passed by the NC legislature called the SAFE Child Act (the "Act"). The act purported to "revive" sexual abuse claims that were barred by the applicable statute of limitations, and victims of past abuse were allowed to file lawsuits based on the act through the end of 2021. While the board cannot comment on certain pending litigation matters, it can comment on matters of public record. The board helped affected local churches arrange legal representation to protect the rights of the local churches involved. Further, the board took coordinated steps with legal counsel for the BSA and its local councils to have state court cases "stayed" or halted for the duration of the BSA bankruptcy proceedings.

Insurance Matters

The Book of Discipline requires local church trustees to annually review and report on the adequacy of local church property and liability insurance coverage "to ensure that the church, its properties, and its personnel are properly protected against risks." To assist local church trustees with this requirement, GCFA guidelines for minimum insurance policies and coverage limits are available on the conference website (wnccumc.org) under Administration/Forms, Documents, and Publications and are recommended for comparison with existing local church policies.

Liability coverage for sexual misconduct has been eliminated, altered, or only provided under separate policies by many insurance companies. The trustees continue to admonish all churches to confirm that required Safe Sanctuaries policies and procedures are in place, and to reevaluate all insurance programs with their insurance agents. Such coverage is typically purchased through a property and casualty insurance provider.

The board of trustees works with the conference insurance provider, Church Mutual Insurance Company, a nationally recognized and specialized provider of property and casualty insurance to churches and religious organizations, to provide a new cost-effective program for worker's compensation for WNCC churches. WNCC congregations now have the option to participate in the Church Mutual program at a reduced rate as well as to save on the expense constant fee.

5. CONFERENCE RESOURCE CENTER

The WNCC Resource Center is proud to be a free lending library for all churches in the Western North Carolina Conference. The mission of the Resource Center is to provide a deep well of engaging, relevant books and media supporting the mission of the local church in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Circulation rose seven percent from 2020 to 2021. As of January 2022, the Resource Center boasts 6,642 resources on its shelves, including books, DVDs, worship aids, vacation Bible school starter kits, stewardship campaign programs, Caring Congregation and grief program support, and curriculum for all ages and stages of life. Additionally, congregations continue to enjoy borrowing the Resource Center's two 24-foot portable canvas labyrinths, especially during Lent.

The Resource Center continues to purchase new, quality resources recommended by staff, clergy, and laity for use by churches and individuals for the education, leadership training and spiritual formation of children, youth, and adults. In addition to the physical resources available for lending through the library, the Resource Center partnered with two publishers to provide discounts on digital church resources this year:

- Amplify Media is an online video platform from the United Methodist Publishing House (UMPH). This platform is home to thousands of small group, training, and devotional videos for all ages from publishers like Cokesbury, Abingdon, and more. The Resource Center partnered with the UMPH to offer this platform to WNCC churches/charges at a deeply discounted rate that included two free months plus four months at 75% off the regular price. Learn more at <https://www.wnccumc.org/amplify>.
- Bake with the Bible is a six-week curriculum published by Edible Theology. Each session includes a recipe, discussion questions, and book recommendations, as well as Scriptural and cultural-historical lessons. The Resource Center partnered with Edible Theology to offer this curriculum at a discounted rate of $25. Learn more at <https://www.wnccumc.org/bakewiththebible>.

Clergy and laity alike can turn to the Resource Center staff for help and guidance in selecting resources that fit their needs. Contact the Resource Center at resourcecenter@wnccumc.org or 704-535-2260 with any questions or to set up a free patron account, update contact information, or rent one of the labyrinths.

Resource Center materials are managed and supported by Surpass software. The online catalog, <https://wncc.library.site>, is open to all for browsing, but you must have a patron account to make reservations.

6. COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The Commission on Archives and History continues its work of collecting, recording, and preserving the story of the people called Methodists in The Western North Carolina Conference. The work is a "Ministry of Memory," so that everyone may continue to learn from the past and anticipate the future.

As the Covid-19 pandemic conditions waxed and waned during 2021, the commission met virtually via Zoom in March and September. The commission continues to oversee the work of the Conference Archives, located in the G. A. Pfeiffer Library at Pfeiffer University in Misenheimer, N.C. Highlights this year include:

- Rev. James Pyatt continues as the part-time Conference Archivist. He supervises the work of an archival assistant, Mrs. Sonja Clough, who works in the archives on a part-time basis.
- The archives houses documents and information available to those wishing to conduct research and/or to explore United Methodist history. Research requests have risen somewhat during 2021, with information being sought by district offices, the Church Legacy Initiative, conference staff, conference trustees, the conference chancellor, local church historians, genealogists and others. This indicates a healthy and active archives.
- While the commission has approved the digitization of archival records during this quadrennium, the project has not gotten off the ground. Working with librarians at Duke Divinity School, Rev. Pyatt has worked on the details for the project to make some resources available and searchable in electronic format. When the Duke library closed due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the project was put on hold. The commission anticipates moving forward with digitization as soon as possible.
- Because Pfeiffer University has been closed to most outside visitors during the pandemic, the Conference Archives has also been generally closed to the public. Research requests and other queries have been handled mainly by phone and online. In-person visits are now available by appointment.

Grave Markers: The commission continues to provide a clergy grave marker upon the passing of any clergy member of the conference. During this conference year, markers have been presented to nearly three dozen affected families. We anticipate continuing this ministry on behalf of the Conference.

Training Videos: The commission has produced a series of six training videos intended to provide a ready resource for local church historians. Topics include an introduction to the historian's task, how to set up an archive (two parts), working with pastors to preserve church records, resources available from the Conference Archives, and how to write a church history. The videos are available through a link on the conference website.

Historic Site: The annual conference of 2021 approved the Shook House/Louisa Chapel as a historic site for the Western North Carolina Conference. The General Conference Commission and Archives will provide one marker for this newly designated site and the conference commission has voted to provide a second one so that each building will bear this identification.

Anniversary Churches: The Commission on Archives and History continues its tradition of recognizing those churches within our conference who are celebrating significant anniversaries this year.

- Salem in Stanly County and Muir's Chapel in Guilford County are identified as celebrating their bicentennial, having been organized in 1822.
- Those identified as celebrating sesquicentennial anniversaries this year include Elbaville (Davie County), Harper's Chapel (Caldwell County), Laurel Hill (Lincoln County), Main Street (Rockingham County), Morrow's Chapel (Iredell County), Mott's Grove (Catawba County), Mount Pleasant (Winston-Salem, Forsyth County), Oak Hill (Burke County), Philadelphia (Alexander County), Ruffin (Rockingham County), and Shady Grove (Burke County).
- Fairview (Thomasville, Davidson County), Linville (Avery County), and Maple Springs (Randolph County) are celebrating their centennial this year.
- A more complete list of churches celebrating significant anniversaries will appear in the Conference Journal.

The Southeastern Jurisdiction (SEJ) Commission on Archives and History met virtually via Zoom in November of 2021.

- Sandra Williamson, chairperson of the conference commission, serves as a member.
- The SEJ Historical Society was scheduled to meet at Epworth-By-the-Sea in Georgia during the summer of 2021 but the meeting was postponed due to the pandemic. The next meeting is scheduled for July 26-29, 2022 at St. Simons Island, Georgia.
- The General Commission on Archives and History met virtually in September 2021 with Rev. Pyatt in attendance.

God is at work in and through the people called United Methodist in Western North Carolina. This commission pledges to continue to collect the documents, preserve the materials, equip local historians, and tell the story.

Sandra Williamson, Chairperson
Charles Curtis, Vice Chairperson

7. COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS

The primary work of the commission is to support and communicate the annual conference's mission of "Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, Transform the World." The commission strives to do this by the following: "Building relationships through communication, the commission will help create space for people to interact and have conversation in safe spaces. It will share the stories of how God is at work among us as United Methodists in Western North Carolina, that in turn shares the Good News of Jesus Christ."

Traditionally, the Commission on Communications provides leadership for the Western North Carolina Conference in communications, public relations, social media, and promotional awareness of the programs of the conference. The commission assists with managing the image of the conference, and working to provide resources for local churches. Whether in the form of training, sharing news, or crisis management, the commission exists to equip and encourage the ministry efforts of local churches, districts, and the annual conference to achieve identified goals.

In the past year, the communications and IT departments have been involved in several projects and collaborations. Under the guidance of Director of Communications Melissa McGill, the conference relaunched the Stories of Faith magazine after a pandemic pause in 2020. The 2021 issue celebrated Bishop Leeland's retirement, welcomed Bishop Ken Carter and Director of Equity and Justice Ministries Rev. Dr. Bill White Jr. and featured stories from Melissa McGill, Aimee Yeager, Rev. Luke Edwards and Rev. David Lee on current topics and ministry in the local church. The Means of Grace podcast continues to equip church leaders through expertise and examples with 21,585 listener downloads. This collaborative project includes a wide range of topics from ministry leaders around the conference. With input from commission members and conference leaders, Director of IT Services Chris Hampton led a redesign of the conference website, www.wnccumc.org. The Western NC UMC Enews has increased frequency to weekly, serving as a primary news medium, under the guidance of Aimee Yeager.

Communications efforts this year were recognized by the United Methodist Association of Communicators. Stories of Faith tied for third in Annual Conference/Local Church Print Special Publications. The Means of Grace episode, Q&A with Bishop Carter, placed second in the podcast subcategory and was among the top scorers for Audio. The WNCC website redesign took second place in its Visual Design subcategory and was among the top scorers in Visual Design.

There are changes to report in staff and commission leadership. Aimee Yeager was promoted to Associate Director of Communications and Carl Martin joined the team as Support Associate. Doug Peninger stepped down as Chairperson of the Commission. Shonnie Streder, previously Vice-Chairperson, will serve as Chairperson, and Juston Smith will remain as Secretary. The group will elect a new Vice-Chairperson this fall. Additionally, the commission will assist with the communications efforts at annual conference as it has in past years with photography, story writing and other needs.

8. COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE STAFF RELATIONS

The Conference Staff Relations Committee (CSRC) provides support for the conference office staff and the staff of the district offices.

The committee met remotely on November 18, 2021 to discuss and approve an update to the Salary Band Descriptions used by the conference for establishing salaries for conference staff. Mark King, Conference Treasurer and Director of Administrative Services, was instrumental in researching salary data in the region to update the document. The committee also discussed and approved an updated Recommended Increase Ranges document for all staff across the conference.

In March 2022 the committee approved a small budget increase for 2023 staff salaries, including recommending to the annual conference a three percent salary increase for district superintendents.

The committee continues their work of reviewing the current personnel and policy handbook and plans to have a new document in place by summer 2022. The CSRC is grateful for the creative ways the conference and district staffs have fulfilled their mission of developing and supporting vital congregations during this challenging season of ministry.

Amy Coles, the Assistant to Bishop Carter, and Mark King continue in their responsibilities with Human Relations for the conference staff. The conference is grateful for the work they do on behalf of CSRC.

Nancy Miller Campbell, Chairperson

9. COMMITTEE ON THE EPISCOPACY

In late August of last year Bishop Ken Carter and his wife Rev. Pam Carter “came home” to Western NC when they moved into the episcopal residence in South Charlotte. There was nothing normal about the move! Due to Covid-19, there had been no General Conference in 2020, and the re-scheduled General Conference for 2021 had also been postponed. Thus, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference had not met to elect new bishops to replace those retiring in 2021. The SEJ Committee on the Episcopacy had an unprecedented scenario in which to make some difficult decisions. The committee and other annual conference Committees on the Episcopacy were consulted. The solution they came to was original and creative. Bishop Carter had been bishop of the Florida Conference for nine years, and he was assigned to continue that work as well as serve as the WNCB bishop. To serve two conferences was not a new thing, but to do so when the two conferences are not contiguous was. Thanks to modern air travel and thanks to virtual connections, which had come to be very useful in times of shutdown, this was and is a workable solution for a challenging time.

COVID also affected the welcome to the Carters upon their arrival, making it impossible with restrictions and protocols to extend the kind of welcome the committee would have liked. It did what it could, including bottled water, flowers, and restaurant cards. Also, the conference had the episcopal residence in excellent condition, and available funds allowed a few touches to make the house the Carters' home.

Bishop Carter would not allow the pandemic to affect his work. Within weeks, he met via Zoom with the clergy. In these few short months, he has been a champion of the local church, has led us in the journey of anti-racism, has helped us and supported us in times of pandemic, and has called us to mutual respect and civility in times of division. Bishop Carter has led us in this extraordinarily difficult time with a pastor's heart and with a prophet's vision. He has brought hope in darkness, healing in brokenness, and encouragement in exhaustion. He has challenged us to grow deeper in faith. He has communicated well through both traditional and new channels.

The committee encourages to regularly read the annual conference website (wnccumc.org) to both stay informed and to benefit from his leadership. For those on Facebook, Bishop Carter makes a post on Saturday mornings, updating readers on what he has been doing, who he has been meeting with, what he has been reading, and what his favorite sports teams and TV shows are. And readers are always reminded to drink good coffee, always freshly ground! In other words, you have ample opportunity to learn much about your bishop.

At the time of this writing, the committee does not know when the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference will meet for the election and assignment of bishops. What is known is that, in the meantime, the conference is in excellent hands! This committee gives thanks to God for the leadership of Bishop Ken Carter, and the committee and conference leadership will continue to consult with the Southeastern Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy concerning the episcopal leadership for future mission and ministry.

Hank Dozier, Vice-Chairperson
Linda Linfors, Secretary

10. EPISCOPAL RESIDENCE COMMITTEE

The Episcopal Residence Committee is pleased to report that Bishop and Mrs. Kenneth H. Carter have been comfortably using and enjoying the residence at 3416 Maryhurst Lane in Charlotte. The Episcopal Residence Investment Fund now stands at $51,012 (as of 12.31.2021). For 2023, the amount of $15,000 will be included in the apportioned conference budget. The committee, in consultation with Bishop and Mrs. Carter, will continue to monitor expenses and request funding as is appropriate and necessary.

B. CONFERENCE MISSION & MINISTRY1. CONNECTIONAL TABLE

The Connectional Table (CT) exists to “connect the ministry and resources of the annual conference to increase and strengthen the number of vital congregations and conference entities and to coordinate, promote, and encourage the development of faithful disciples and fruitful leaders across the conference, so that lives and communities are transformed by the power of God” (Plan of Organization and Rule of Order and Procedure of the Western NC Conference, Section C.2).

During 2021, the CT executed the following activities:

- Approved the WNCC Conflict of Interest Policy, and had all members execute signed agreements to the policy.
- CT members were able to begin taking the RISE! Anti-racism Ethics Training following the transition of the program to an online format.
- The CT confirmed the conference’s ongoing focus to furthering the work of anti-racism by approving funding for a WNCC Racial Healing and Reconciliation Cohort, which assisted in equipping leaders and congregations that were ready to move deeper into the work of anti-racism within their church and community to do so.

With the change in episcopal leadership, the CT welcomed Bishop Ken Carter’s framework for ministry, focused on four key “pathways”:

- Creating Vital, Sustainable Local Churches
- Dismantling Racism
- Increasing the well-being of clergy and spiritual leaders
- Living into the vision of the continuing United Methodist Church

As the CT looks for ways to better align ministries around these four pathways, it also begins preliminary conversations around how to make the link between the conference program and ministry budgets and missional priorities more intentional and transparent. The CT looks forward to continuing this work in 2022.

2. COUNCIL ON CAMP AND RETREAT MINISTRY

The Council on Camp and Retreat Ministry (CCRM) continues to support, encourage, and cultivate resources for camp and retreat ministries in the Western North Carolina Conference. The CCRM accomplishes this work through partnerships with four camp and retreat ministry locations. These locations include Camp GuilRock in Reidsville, Mount Shepherd in Asheboro, Camp Tekoa in Hendersonville, and Tekoa Foothills in Casar. Each location continues to operate independently, and all camp and retreat ministries of Western North Carolina continue to experience growth and are blessed with incredible directors, staff, and volunteers.

A chief concern for the CCRM this year was in developing a more robust ability to support the ongoing ministry and continued growth of camp and retreat ministry within the conference. One way that the CCRM developed this year was by participating in the MLab program. A group of CCRM members attended this cohort which focused on innovation in ministry. As part of the MLab program, the group facilitated several robust conversations with stakeholders. These stakeholder conversations led to the development of a robust list of ideas that the stakeholders believe will help further the reach and impact of camp and retreat ministry within the conference. The MLab experience has provided the CCRM with a set of tools to move these ideas into actionable opportunities.

As the CCRM continues to deepen its relationship of support and encouragement, the tools attained through MLab will continue to provide for the further development of resources that will be meaningful to each camp and to camp and retreat ministry in general within the conference. The CCRM will continue to celebrate the incredible ministry of each camp and remains committed to supporting, encouraging, and cultivating resources to further the work of God through camp and retreat ministry in and across the conference.

Jason Boggs, Council Member

a. Camp Directors' Reports

i. Camp GuilRock

Camp GuilRock centers its ministry on its mission statement "Discover Creation, Experience God, and Grow in Faith." With this focus, Camp Guilrock strives to provide meaningful outdoor experiences. Youth groups, churches, scouts, and families are given the opportunity to enjoy the facilities and develop lasting relationships with each other and with Christ.

Camp GuilRock has continued to grow and reach more people throughout our surrounding community. In the past year, the Day Camp Program has expanded from two weeks in 2017 to a full ten weeks in 2022 including a brand new week of Middle School programming. This allows Camp Guilrock to serve over 160 campers over the summer. The camp has also continued to improve the rental experience which has led to continued growth in usage of the property throughout the year. This includes a full renovation of the cabin space, new event venues, and brand new waterfront equipment. 2021 closed with a successful fundraising appeal which raised nearly $10,000 dollars thanks to a generous matching gift. The Director and Board of Directors are excited by the growth seen in the ministry and are continuing to implement new programs and strategies to help continue the growth in the coming year.

Eric Hearn, Director

ii. Mount Shepherd Retreat Center

The mission of Mount Shepherd is restoring souls, strengthening hearts, and transforming lives. Mount Shepherd achieves this mission primarily through Christian camp and retreat programs. This organization was thankful in 2021 to serve 227 more children through summer camp than were served in 2019. Mount Shepherd is committed to its evangelistic role in a post-COVID world. Especially as church membership and attendance wanes in our society, spaces like Christian camp remain indispensable places of evangelism and Christian formation. For a family that attends church twice per month, just one week of camp provides the time equivalent of an entire year of Christian worship.

In many ways, 2021 was a bounce-back year from the pandemic. While its retreat ministry was heavily impacted by the delta and omicron variant surges, Mount Shepherd's summer camp enjoyed 73% growth from pre-pandemic enrollment numbers. This is a testament to the hard work of Mount Shepherd's staff, as well as a validation of the needs that Mount Shepherd satisfies.

Empirical data nationwide confirms the devastating impact the past two years have had on young people. The DHHS estimates that children experiencing "persisting feelings of sadness" increased by 40%. More concerning, suicidal behaviors in young people has increased 44% since 2019. Mount Shepherd, and the other camps of the WNCC, remain uniquely situated to address this crisis. Summer camp programs—faith-based programs in particular—consistently provide positive outcomes for youth mental health.

Mount Shepherd is thankful for the ongoing support of the WNCC, which supplied $21,375.04 in apportionment support. Further, the Conference Council on Camp and Retreat Ministry granted $7,500 for scholarships and $8500 in training grants through its camp ministries endowment. Lastly Mount Shepherd is grateful for the Uwharrie District's grant of $5000 to serve more than 40 children in an off-site camp program. Combined, these welcome resources were able to fund about nine percent of Mount Shepherd's expenditures. Although Mount Shepherd continues to move toward operational sustainability in its program fees, the Western NC Conference still provides a critical means of support.

A stellar Board of Directors stewards Mount Shepherd's ministry. The board changed leadership in 2021, voting Nikki Domally as the new chairperson of the organization. She follows Katie Robinson, who provided two years of faithful leadership through the pandemic. Among the many essential decisions made last year, the Board of Directors notably approved a statement affirming the organization's work toward anti-racism. Mount Shepherd continues its work toward diversity, equity, and inclusion in its programs and leadership.

The staff and leadership of Mount Shepherd is excited about its future. As camp programs increasingly reach capacity limits and waitlists grow, the organization is taking steps to grow its site to accommodate more guests. The organization asks for prayers for God's blessing as it engages in yet another season of fruitful ministry. To God be the glory.

Josh Britton, Executive Director
www.mtshepherd.org

iii. Camp Tekoa

Camp Tekoa had a wonderful year of ministry in 2021. After going through many challenges and transitions in 2020, the 2021 season was one of continued financial recovery, growth of program planning and meeting the needs of campers, retreat guests and families.

- Camp Tekoa offered a summer camp experience to over 1800 campers, which represented an intentionally smaller summer to manage the effects of the pandemic. They managed the health crisis with new program modifications, portable outdoor shelters for meals, and new bathroom and health facilities.
- Donors continued to support the work and ministry of camp with donations that totaled $182,487.25. Scholarships made up $40,693.93 of these gifts. Many donors continued to give to the Raise Your Candles High Emergency Fund as Tekoa recovers from the financial losses of 2020. These gifts totaled $93,359.72.
- Camp Tekoa continued to offer Family Camp and welcomed many new families, including foster families who received scholarships through the James and Jerrilyn Johnson Scholarship Fund.
- The Camp Tekoa Afterschool Program saw unprecedented growth and regularly averages 40 campers or more each day. Camp Tekoa also offers break camps for children when they are out of school. In the fall of 2021, Camp Tekoa launched a Homeschool program to meet the needs of families in the community.

- Tekoa honors the work of Rev. Dan Lyons, the long-term chair of the Board of Trustees that has finished his time serving on the board. Tekoa welcomes the new chair, David Mitchell, who has deep roots in both Camp Tekoa and Tekoa Foothills.
- Camp Tekoa will operate camp this summer at full capacity. It is anticipated that this will be one of the largest seasons ever. Families are ready to experience God's creation once again. Tekoa continues to extend the mission of Touching Hearts. Changing Lives. Sharing the Light of Christ.

John Isley, Executive Director
www.camptekoa.org

iv. Tekoa Foothills

Tekoa Foothills continues to grow and thrive. In 2021, many retreat guests returned to the site and the summer program expanded with summer camp and Tekoa Missions experiences.

- Using the support of a $30,000 donation, Tekoa Foothills rebuilt the road and added a parking lot in the center of camp. Through the labor of the maintenance staff and volunteers, there was a new playground added overlooking the lake. Asbury lodge was renovated.
- Foothills Summer Program offerings have expanded again for 2022! Tekoa Foothills has a diverse summer season planned in 2022 as programs continue to evolve with each new calendar year; two major offerings are Tekoa Missions (June) and Summer Camp (July).
- Tekoa Missions is a turn-key youth missions program where groups register together for a shared week-long mission experience in June. Days are spent on worksites while evenings are spent recreating on the Foothills property and worship. Every group works with homeowners to ensure the felt needs of neighbors in and around upper Cleveland County are cleaner, safer and dryer. In 2022, in addition to homeowners, Foothills will partner with Habitat for Humanity, Keep NC Beautiful, and Fostering Hope NC to expand the missional reach of participants. Projects include home repair, home improvements, community outreach and works of mercy.
- Foothills Summer Camp runs through the month of July with some of the most popular offerings of 2021: Into the Wild, Horseback Riding, Paddle Palooza, Creation Station and Bullseye Blitz are all skill based education sessions in which resident campers can explore and develop a new passion over the course of the week. More than a "taste-and-see" adventure opportunity, campers revisit program areas hosted by local experts affording them the opportunity to strengthen capability and competence.
- Day Camp is offered to the youngest campers in an effort to plant seeds for future resident campers and offer an option for local students to enjoy outdoor recreation and discipleship. New in 2022 is Camp Gemma: (Jeh.muh). Gemma is the patron saint of helping others. This session is a residential camp experience for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities; similar to Hendersonville's "Barnabas" experience, Gemma is the Foothills version where adaptive camp activities offer greater inclusivity for campers.

3. CHURCH VITALITY TEAM

As leadership in the Office of Church Development changed this year, the Church Vitality Team focused on the following areas: Core Vision, Both/And Hybrid Worship, New Church Starts, Fresh Expressions of Church, the Transformation Journey, and partnerships with Equity and Justice Ministries.

Core Vision of Church Vitality

The vision of the Congregational Vitality Team is to prayerfully Notice, Nurture, and create New communities of faith in the WNCC where the Holy Spirit is sparking creative ways that are producing vital, sustainable local churches. The team strengthens and creates faith communities that are continually evolving to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Both/And Hybrid Worship

The pandemic quickly revealed a fundamental shift in how churches gathered and conducted their basic purpose and functions. The Church Development office identified this shift early on and contracted with Jason Moore to resource churches as they grappled with the complex applications of Both/And Hybrid ministry. So, with partnering funds from the WNCC Office of Church Development, the WNCC Foundation, and the Reynolds Ministry Fund, the team developed a grant process to equip WNCC churches to grow in their understanding and practice of Both/And hybrid worship by providing a framework for experimenting, discovering, and implementing best practices, and upgrading equipment (as needed). This grant process and experience is intended to support churches as they explore and implement best practices for faithfully developing and deploying BOTH In-Person AND Online worship. The foundational core of this grant is about building relationships through hybrid digital ministries that create worship participants, not viewers. The first cohort had 58 participating churches; 27 hours of cohort calls; 40 individual church worship consultations, and $134,000 spent on new equipment, seminars, practicums, and consultation.

New Church Starts

The Western North Carolina Conference continues to create new places for new people through church planting. This process continues to be the most effective way to reach and disciple unchurched persons. Due to the pandemic, planting has been challenging. However, one plant did begin during this conference year.

- Growth Company (a campus of West UMC, Pastor Lexi Hernandez) is pursuing what it looks like to plant a church in today's world - specifically for people in their 20s and 30s.
- The conference's other active church plants are Checkpoint Church (Nathan Webb), As It Is (Vince Ross), The Good Neighbor Movement (Brandon Wrencher), Hope Fellowship (Ben Gatton), Francis Street Ministries (Alexis Coleman), The Place (Charlie Riven), Way in The Wilderness (Kevin Miller and Kevin Bates), Wellspring (Ashley Crowder Stanley), and With All (Rob Parsons).

As the team continues to pursue best practices for church planting, it is moving towards increased churches being rooted in "Anchor" churches. It is developing recruiting and equipping processes that will stimulate more church plants from this model.

Fresh Expressions

After an incredibly difficult year of lockdowns and outreach hesitancy from churches, the mass vaccinations of early 2021 seemed to open the flood gates for churches primed and ready to start fresh expressions. The fresh expressions launched this year include dinner churches, Messy Churches, a hiking group, art groups, and several fresh expressions on community college campuses. The team hosted three dinner church training sessions across the conference with Kendal Vanderslice and Verlon Fosner. The Church Development Office and Smoky Mountain District hosted a weekend retreat based on the Fresh Expressions Journey that is hoped to be offered twice a year. In partnership with the Florida and North Georgia Conferences and United Seminary, the team launched the Adventurers Learning Academy, an advanced fresh expressions cohort. The team developed a three-week Zoom class based on Luke's newly published book Becoming Church: A Trail Guide for Starting Fresh Expressions. The team is continuing to see the Holy Spirit form new faith communities through the fresh expressions model and believes it is an important way to live out the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Transformation Journey

In addition to planting new faith communities, the Church Vitality Team is also helping to strengthen existing congregations with an ongoing initiative called Transformation Journey. The Transformation Journey is a three-year process of partnering with congregations to discern and live into God's future for the church. They have twenty churches engaged in the Transformation Journey process thanks to a grant from ministry partners at the United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina and the Reynolds Endowment Fund. Churches that participate in the Transformation Journey will receive up to five recommendations for their church's future. More than 85 guides and four new Discovery Team members have been trained in this process to partner with churches to help them fulfill their recommendations. A new application process will be offered this year which will make the Transformation Journey Process available to more churches. The Transformation Journey Team has adapted to offering a hybrid process offering the convenience of online and in-person interactions with churches. The Rev. Dr. Nancy Rankin is the Transformation Journey Coordinator, and she is providing excellent leadership to this ministry initiative. While this has been a tough and challenging year for the church in general, the Church Vitality Team has enjoyed the opportunity to respond with ways to help their local churches. Strengthening existing congregations is part of their calling as a team, and they will continue to explore new ways to help the local church. .

Equity and Justice Ministries Partnerships

Church Development and the Office of Equity and Justice Ministries have several natural intersections. The team has made a commitment to be a funding partner with EJM as well as to share planning and equipping resources with them. Church vitality has always been contextual, and it will continue to commit resources in ways that will not be "One size or One Way fits all." The team adapted its processes for Transformation Journey, sought input and leadership for approaching Fresh Expressions differently, and remains focused on planting more intentional multicultural churches – all with culture and context in mind.

4. BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The purpose of the Western North Carolina Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry is to empower those responsible for ministries on the campus so that students will become “disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.”

In 2021, the board awarded the Francis Asbury Award to Larry Jones for his years of service as the Campus Minister of the Wake Forest Wesley Foundation. Larry has retired after over two decades of serving the campus of Wake Forest University, Salem College, Winston Salem State, and NC School of the Arts. His presence will be missed.

Also in 2021, 47 students in the conference received $94,441 in GBHEM Scholarships. These scholarships are in addition to all other scholarships administered by the Western North Carolina Annual Conference. The board is thankful to the General Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry for their generosity.

The board celebrates that after an extensive search, Rev. Oliver Helsabeck has been appointed as the new Campus Minister of the Wake Forest Wesley Foundation. The board looks forward to the gifts he will bring to this ministry.

The board wishes to express its gratitude to the eight campus ministers and five college chaplains for the work they do to minister to the students on their unique contexts. They work tirelessly to shepherd students even in the most difficult times.

The board appreciates the financial support of the conference to fund these ministries. Even in times of change and uncertainty in the world and denomination, Campus Ministry is still a strong and vital ministry in this conference. The board is committed to its mission and looks forward to what God has in store for the future of Campus Ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference.

a. Campus Ministry Reports

i. Appalachian Wesley Foundation

The Appalachian Wesley Foundation has had a remarkable 2021-2022 school year. The board of directors, district superintendent, school officials, and campus pastor worked diligently to appropriately follow all conference and Appalachian State University guidelines to safely move toward a post-COVID-19 ministry. Beginning in August 2021, App State navigated classes, clubs, and student organizations in a pre-COVID-19 world. This meant returning to in-person classes, allowing clubs and organizations to use university rooms and spaces, instituting new and safe guidance for club expos and spiritual life expos to engage new and returning students. Thanks to this and the conference’s guidance, App Wesley has been able to engage and share ministry with the greatest number of students since March 2020.

App Wesley lived into the 2021-2022 theme, “Let’s Find Community Together.” Having come back to some normalcy in this school year, it has had to identify what it meant and continues to mean to make and form community together. It continues to do so by asking the question for any planned program or ministry area, “How does this help form or find community together?” This has been a great foundational start to not just plan and implement “fun” activities; it is a foundational start in how to make Jesus and growing together spiritually integral to everything that the Wesley Foundation does. Moving into the 2022-2023 academic and ministry year, it will build on this theme with “Fan into Flame, the Gift of God Which is in You.” This theme is based on 2 Timothy 1:6, “For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands” (NRSV).

App Wesley’s building has been an integral part of the App State community since 1963. December 1, 1963 is when the building was opened on the First Sunday of Advent, with a special worship service. In August 2021, another special worship service was held - A Reconsecration Worship Service - celebrating the conclusion of the building renovations. In this building’s 58-year history, it has had its ups-and-downs, but all celebrate being able to use this space with other organizations on campus and in the church. This fall semester it solidified its connection with App Builds A Home (App State’s Habitat for Humanity organization) by giving them office space and a place to store all of their promotional and office materials. In addition, it also solidified a connection with Sanctuary Counseling, by having rooms available for therapists and counselors to have office hours three times a month. This helps to fulfil the task from the dean of students, as App Wesley was told there were limited counseling services for students through the App State health services. The student food pantry was also ramped up, through a connection with Food Donation Connection, it receives fresh foods from the local Starbucks three times a week - this is not only for App Wesley students, but for any student that walks by and needs food.

As far as mission and ministry at App Wesley – something each semester! There was the October 2021 Fall Retreat led by Unscripted Life at Holston Camp and Retreat Center in Banner Elk. It celebrated an Advent Festival before winter break. At the festival it had student vendors, snack foods, Advent wreath-making, and worship celebrating the beginning of Advent with a Moravian Love Feast. It is anticipated to be a new yearly event before everyone departs for winter break. During spring break App Wesley had the great opportunity to visit Atlanta, Selma, and Montgomery. This was an edu-mission trip facilitated by Gammon School of Theology, Candler School of Theology, Edmundite Missions, Church Street UMC (Selma), and the Equal Justice Initiative museum and memorials in Montgomery. For student testimony from that opportunity, watch the video here: <https://youtu.be/MdAVYK1h480>.

App Wesley is beyond excited for next year and the opportunities that lie ahead in ministry with the App State community.

“I love the family that I have here and all the spiritual joy it adds to my life.”

“The Wesley Foundation and its community has been like having a family away from family.”

“Wesley makes me smile and I love coming to Wesley, even if it is just to do homework.”

“It keeps my head on straight and helps me step out of my comfort zone and build my relationship with Christ.”

“You can’t leave the building without someone putting a smile on your face or making you laugh.”

“Wesley has helped me grow in my faith.”

“The warm feeling I have whenever I walk through the door - along with the people in the building - has allowed me to grow into the best I can be.”

“As an incoming freshman, Wesley provided a safe, open community that let me find a home.”

“My experience at Wesley has been as close to agape as it can be because of the students, the pastors, and the way that you’re personally able to help others.”

The App Wesley Foundation is blessed with an active board that has been a source of encouragement to Director Juston Smith, and most importantly, the students. The App Wesley Foundation is blessed with active students who take leadership seriously, and actively participate in the ministries of App Wesley. The foundation is always grateful for all alumni, parents, local churches, and friends for their support; and the foundation would be remiss if not to thank this annual conference for their support of this vital extension ministry. This sentence may be a copy-and-paste from last year’s report, but remains certain: the mission, the message, and the place for openness in such a vulnerable time never wavered.

Juston Smith, Director

ii. Asheville Wesley Foundation

This year UNCA returned to all in-person classes, which has been a breath of fresh air for ministry and campus life. This has given Asheville Wesley a sense of normal and allowed the ministry to re-engage students in ways that have been sorely missed. Many students are entering into new chapters of life and the last two semesters have brought a lot of big life decisions regarding the future. Asheville Wesley has walked with students in that discernment and helped them think proactively about what they want their lives to look like. This has been a season of growth in maturity, resiliency, and vision-casting for new students stepping into leadership.

Asheville Wesley continues to be known as a campus ministry that is seeking to be an authentic community that is accepting, affirming, and open to all God’s children. With that being stated, the foundation would like to thank both its old and new friends for their support of the campus ministry. Thanks for continuing to help make Asheville Wesley a place where students can be known, seen, and loved as individuals of sacred worth.

Jeff McCumber, Director

iii. Common Ground at Lees-McRae College

The year 2021 was a year of transformation and growth for Common Ground. Strict protocols regarding COVID-19 paid off for Lees-McRae College and the associated student organizations. The school year began with a renewed enthusiasm as in-person gatherings were allowed and face-covering requirements were dropped midway in the year.

Thursday gatherings of Common Ground and Sunday Worship services on campus were able to continue with an in-person format and are reaching 13% of the on-campus population. The average attendance on Thursday has been steady at twenty students and the Sunday evening worship averages eighteen to twenty. The student leadership at Common Ground oversees the maintenance of the food pantry on campus and has continued to serve at Hosp House Boone, working in the garden and food pantry.

The Rev. Ted Henry also serves in extension ministry as the chaplain at Lees-McRae College, and as such has greater access to connection with the students. Chairperson Susan Staton shared her enthusiasm for the many new connections being made on campus, the spiritual growth opportunities that are being offered through the efforts of Common Ground and expressed gratitude for the financial support provided by the Western North Carolina Conference, the Appalachian District, Banner Elk United Methodist Church, parents, and alumni.

Ted Henry, Campus Minister

iv. Niner United at UNC Charlotte

Niner United is the United Methodist campus ministry at the fast-growing University of North Carolina in Charlotte, which works ecumenically with the Episcopal, Lutheran (ELCA), and Presbyterian (USA) churches. UNC Charlotte is a vital population to reach and serve, with over 35,000 students, faculty, and staff. Niner United has a vast and vibrant ministry program and presence. Weekly worship, Christian formation through retreats and a variety of small groups, various outreach and service opportunities and connections locally and beyond, community building, and vocational discernment events are all planned, implemented, and overseen by a two-person staff, a Duke Divinity intern, a team of 21 student leaders, and a board of directors. During the 2021 academic year, the university gradually eliminated COVID-19 limitations, and the campus ministry is returning to pre-COVID levels of engagement, including the first mission trip since February 2020. Niner United reached over 3,000 students through in-person events, programs, and activities, with over 170 students active in the ministry.

Steve Cheyney, University Pastor

v. Wesley Foundation at East Market

WesleyFoundation at East Market (WFEM): WFEM is the Wesley Foundation to North Carolina A&T State University. The past year for WFEM has continued to be a unique experience. It was finally able to see students in-person in a limited capacity, but began developing relationships with new students. It was able to continue meeting needs of students and cultivated new missional opportunities for students to begin to participate in 2022 and beyond. WFEM continued its partnership with the Good Neighbor Movement in assisting with the Harbor City Village. WFEM is continuing its relationship with Metropolitan (Greensboro) and developing more relationships with the faculty and staff of NC A&T State University. It has continued partnering with A&T entrepreneur students offering avenues for students to network their products and resources.

It also added a videography team to worship leaders/musicians’ program for the purpose of training the next generation to assist local faith communities with the new normal of doing ministry. Additionally, it is still looking at future collaboration with another denomination for a possible ecumenical campus ministry position or looking at unique, more direct partnership with NC A&T State University.

Diron Chloe, Executive Director of the Campus Ministries

vi. Wesley-Luther Foundation at UNC Greensboro

Wesley-Luther has seen a great deal of transformation and transition over the past two years. From March 2020 to March 2022, UNC Greensboro limited meetings to all online except for a narrow set of important programs. Students worked hard to develop creative ways to continue weekly worship, fellowship, and scripture study online. The annual “Light the Night” suicide awareness event and a support prayer vigil were moved and expanded and attracted more than 200 students. Wesley-Luther partnered with UNCG Recreation and Wellness to build the first meditative walking labyrinth on UNCG’s Piney Lake campus. This will serve as a resource to students for years to come. Wesley-Luther also continued to partner with the university to ensure students had the opportunity for free S.T.I. testing on campus each semester. The annual Meal of Thanksgiving was served, offering full to-go meals for 133 students with the help of more than 23 volunteers and student staff. Wesley-Luther’s student leaders worked to ensure students were not alone during this time of separation; many of them were working at the Spartan Open Pantry to make sure their classmates had the food they needed.

Wesley-Luther’s largest focus was service work through their programs at the Spartan Open Pantry. These efforts continued as the financial effects of the pandemic deepened for UNCG students. During the pandemic, nearly two out of three UNCG students experienced basic-needs insecurity, and one in four students experienced food insecurity each month. With the support of the Wesley-Luther student staff and volunteers, campus partners, local churches, the community, the WNCC, and the NC Synod of the ELCA, Wesley-Luther distributed 34,929 lbs. of food in 2021 and 2,739 hot meals. Wesley-Luther also expanded the number of mini-pantries on campus to five. Since the beginning of the pandemic, Wesley-Luther has distributed 77,449 lbs. of food from the pantry at College Place UMC. While distributing food as well as household items, clothing, and frozen meals, this historic Wesley Foundation has continued to work for the transformation of the world through the engagement of students in Christ’s work at UNCG and served the Spartan neighbors in need. Through this ministry, the WNCC has impacted the lives of thousands of UNCG students over the past two years.

In 2022, Wesley-Luther is transitioning back to in-person worship, fellowship, and scripture study on the campus. The foundation is also opening its first unit of an emergency homeless student apartment, to help students experiencing housing insecurity have a safe and caring place while long-term solutions can be found. Wesley-Luther is incredibly thankful for the opportunity to serve UNCG students and staff on behalf of the WNCC. Through the cultivation of passionate disciples of Christ who have a commitment to service, justice, and the transformation of this world, the foundation remains hopeful it can impact the UNCG and Greensboro community for generations to come.

Andrew Mails, Director

vii. Wesley Foundation at Western Carolina University

The Wesley Foundation at Western Carolina University is grateful for all of the support it received from the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, The Smoky Mountain District, local churches, its board of directors, and all friends and alumni. This academic year the ministry helped college students connect with each other and the world around them in many creative and new ways. Students spend time with each other daily at the ministry and at Cullowhee United Methodist Church. They participated in thousands of hours of service work over the year including splitting and delivering over 100 loads of firewood to local residents and delivering meals weekly via the Department on Aging Meals on Wheels program. Students continue this year with cooking class, helping at the local food pantry, and roadside litter clean-up with a local veterans group. The Wesley Foundation was able to hold their annual haunted house in October 2021 and the Wesley Golf Classic in the spring. Each week during the school year the student worship team and Wesley staff plan and hold worship for college students. This year they’ve been back to in-person worship and eating meals outdoors. Wesley staff helped college students learn how to plan and give a sermon almost every week of the school year. Three years ago Wesley staff started planning their next trip for the Holy Land in December 2020. It was postponed until December 2021 and is now slated to take place in December 2022. As is always the case with constant turnover, the staff plan to maintain focus on in-depth student leader development, board development and student involvement, increased intentional student outreach, and student worship leadership training. All of this would not be possible without the generous grant from the WNCC, the Smoky Mountain District, friends and alumni of the Wesley Foundation, and their own fundraising efforts.

Jay Hinton, Director

viii. Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation

The summer and academic fall semester of 2022 have noted some significant milestones for the Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation. One such milestone is the fact that the Rev. Larry Jones, while officially retiring August 1, 2021, has actually continued to work as the campus minister from August 1, 2021, until April 30, 2022. The first hiring process did not end successfully, hence the need for Rev. Jones to stay on for 99 percent of the 2021-2022 academic year in a contract position status. However, the foundation is pleased to report that Rev. Oliver Helsabeck will start in the campus minister/director position May 1, 2022.

Another significant milestone is that all three campuses that make up the Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation were back fully in-person for the 2021-2022 academic year. In the fall semester, many necessary COVID-19 restrictions were still in place, but the students were able to meet in-person for the most part both semesters. Several students have commented on how much more effective and meaningful it has been to be able to meet in person. At Wake Forest University, home to the largest group of students, university regulations prevented the serving and eating of meals together until February, 2022; however, for the fall semester, the foundation was able to give away to-go meals for students to eat after the large group meetings.

Another significant milestone in the (mostly) post-COVID time span is that Wake Forest Wesley was able to reinhabit their Wesley Lounge on the campus of Wake Forest, after an over two-year period of not having access to it (because of university COVID restrictions and university renovations of the residence hall at which the lounge is situated). Being able to use a space dedicated solely to the Wesley Foundation’s use has enabled it to expand programming significantly and provide a more “cozy” atmosphere for large group worship.

Many challenges remain, of course. The Wesley Foundation's programs at Salem College and the University of North Carolina School of the Arts will need to be rebuilt post-COVID; the transition to Oliver Helsabeck as the campus minister, while truly welcomed by all, still involves a season of change for the students; transitions in organizations often can mean a lessening of financial donations until the "new person" builds his/her own lines of support. To that end, Rev. Jones is continuing to work as a part-time contract worker for the foundation until August 1, 2022 to help make the fundraising aspect of the position a little less daunting for the incoming campus minister.

A personal note: each pastoral position has been filled with many blessings of meaningful work and wonderful co-workers; working as a college campus minister has been exciting, rewarding, and truly in a place where the work is an important cog in the ongoing vitality and "rebirth" of The United Methodist Church. Thanks to the conference and fellow campus ministers for all their support and friendship since 2005. Please support Oliver Helsabeck in the same wonderfully meaningful way!

Larry V. Jones, Campus Minister and Director

5. JUSTICE AND RECONCILIATION TEAM

The Western North Carolina Conference Justice and Reconciliation (J&R) Team is fully engaged in the ministry of Jesus Christ, in order to make Christian Disciples for the transformation of the world. Their ministry impacts many areas of the WNCC and varied communities throughout western North Carolina. They are organized for mission and ministry within a framework of 11 key areas:

- Social justice - Church and Society
- Environmental creation care – Earthkeepers
- Peace with justice
- Matters of religion and race (CORR)
- Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW)
- North Carolina Council of Churches (NCCOC)
- Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships (CUIR)
- Native American ethnic caucus Ministries
- African-American Ministries
- Hispanic/Latino American Ministries
- Asian-American Ministries

Since the last annual conference meeting, COVID-19 continues to challenge and hamper many in-person mission and ministry experiences. However, the primary work of serving Jesus Christ continues through every challenge. The work of the J&R Team did not stop. Team members continue to envision and plan for mission and ministry. The J&R Team has worked collaboratively with partners within both The United Methodist Church and in the greater community of faith. Leaning into the vision of making disciples for the transformation of the world, the J&R Team faithfully implements ministries of justice, mercy, and love in a hurting, and often unjust world. Through the loving grace of God, the redemptive presence of Jesus Christ, and the healing power of the Holy Spirit, the J&R Team continues to seek opportunities to witness the redemptive power of Jesus Christ.

With their vision, “Empowered by Christ,” the J&R Team exists to repair that which has been broken. Their mission is to listen, evaluate, initiate, advocate, train, educate, offer grants, and celebrate through acts of God’s love, so the whole church reflects the diversity of each community, with an intentional effort to include all constituencies with respect and equity, while also being inclusive of the work of environmental and social concerns. Their core values are to practice genuine listening and mindfulness, to encourage others to lean into discomfort, to serve as a catalyst for equity in change by compassionate acts, and to practice inclusive language with humility and discipline, speaking and receiving wholeness through Christ. The near-term objective/top-level goal of the J&R Team is to work to build a voice, influence, access, resources, and spirit among caucuses and conveners so that the WNCC will reflect the diverse body of Christ.

The J&R Team continues to partner with the Dismantling Racism Taskforce in developing and implementing opportunities for laity and clergy to challenge the systemic racism that plagues this country and church. These workshops have had a profound impact on those who participate. Working with African-American Ministries and key stakeholders the J&R Team has helped facilitate the new part-time conference position, African-American/Black Church Growth and Vitality. Working closely with the Director of Equity and Justice, this position will execute elements of the African-American Ministries’ Ministry Action Plan related to Black Church growth. The J&R Team also coordinates with leadership in the South Carolina and North Carolina Conferences of The United Methodist Church to fund and develop the annual Black Clergy retreat.

The J&R Team supports the work of Native American Ministries as they address issues of domestic abuse, bullying, and suicide in the context of Christian mission and disciplined living. Likewise, the J&R Team supports the work of Hispanic/Latino ministries as they gather in worship and develop ministries aimed at leadership development and empowerment within their constituent communities. The J&R Team works alongside COSROW as they fulfill their mission to work alongside the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women advocating for full participation in the total life of The United Methodist Church by helping the church to recognize every person – clergy and laity, women and men, adults and children – as full and equal parts of God’s human family. It is anticipated that a fully engaged and empowered membership is vital to The United Methodist Church’s mission to “Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, Transform the World.”

Working with CORR, the J&R Team supported the work of the committee as they organized and planned for the 2021 WNCC Martin Luther King Jr. Commemoration. This event was co-sponsored with Black Methodists for Church Renewal (BMCR). The commission will continue its work of diversity monitoring so that the WNCC may have an accurate understanding of the vision of God’s Kingdom in the world. The goal is to ensure that their words and actions are in alignment with the call of Jesus Christ.

The J&R Team gives yearly financial support to the North Carolina Council of Churches (NCCOC) which is a statewide ecumenical organization promoting Christian unity and working towards a more just society with the motto: Strength in Unity, Peace through Justice. The council enables denominations, congregations, and people of faith to impact the state individually and collectively on issues such as economic justice and development, human well-being, equality, compassion, and peace, following the example and mission of Jesus Christ. NCCOC addresses social justice issues through a faith lens to include immigration and the Sanctuary Coalition, the Opioid Crisis, North Carolina Interfaith Power and Light (NCIPL) and Partners in Health and Wholeness (PHW). The council’s priority areas continue to be Gun Violence Prevention, Raising Wages Campaign, Money Bail Eradication, and Public Education Advocacy.

May God bless the work of the whole J&R Team as they seek to witness to faith in Jesus Christ and make disciples for the transformation of local communities and the world.

6. BOARD OF LAITY

While the continued prevalence of COVID-19 presented ongoing challenges to the work of the Board of Laity and churches in 2021, the year was fruitful in many ways.

The board continued its work in support of the three focus areas for this quadrennium:

- Spiritual Formation: Discerning, developing, and deploying opportunities that help laity grow in their own spiritual practices and/or engage and equip laity to be more effective disciples.
- Faith in Action: Discerning, developing, and deploying opportunities that help laity more effectively live into their faith through active ministry participation within and through their local church, district, and conference in ways that positively impact their community and the broader world.
- Communications: Enhancing the practices, tools, and technology associated with laity communications to ensure laity are engaged and informed regarding the work of the church, resources that are available to support them, and how to access those resources.

District and conference leaders demonstrated outstanding commitment and resourcefulness in ensuring that diverse and impactful training and growth opportunities for laity were provided throughout the year, through the Lay Servant Ministries program and other ways. The board continued to be encouraged by laity who embraced online training, and looks forward to continuing to provide online alternatives even as in-person events resume.

The board was excited to re-launch the Conference Committee on Lay Servant Ministries in 2021, which will enable increased collaboration between districts and better share information about class offerings and best practices for LSM course administration. The board believes the need for strong lay leadership will continue to grow in importance as church structures and clergy availability continue to evolve, and the work it is doing now is providing the infrastructure needed to enable and support laity development opportunities in the future.

It also began a review of the Lay Ministries information available on the conference website and will be continuing to work on a redesign of that content in 2022. The goal is to make it easier for laity to find the information they need to help them serve in their various leadership roles and to grow in their discipleship.

Looking ahead, the board knows that ministry context will continue to evolve, but the vision remains unchanged: to see growing numbers of committed United Methodist laity who are maturing in their faith, discipling others, and transforming the church, community, and world in measurable ways. It is committed to engaging, equipping, and encouraging laity to be faithful disciples of Jesus Christ and beacons of light, hope, and love to the world.

The Board of Laity thanks the laity of the Western North Carolina Conference for all they do each day to follow Jesus, make disciples, and transform the world.

John D. Crane, Conference Lay Leader

a. United Methodist Men

The Western North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men mission is to support spiritual growth among men, helping men to mature as disciples as they encourage spiritual formation in others. The WNCC United Methodist Men goal is to empower the ministry of Jesus Christ through men within the congregations of the WNCC. The Western North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men are proud of the faithfulness and hard work of the local UMM units in each district. The focus of the United Methodist Men is not inward, concentrating only on those who attend a set meeting, but outward to all men, assisting them to engage the process of spiritual growth.

The WNCC United Methodist Men are committed to building relationships and encouraging one another. They continue to encourage men in each of the eight districts to sponsor a variety of events and gatherings such as spiritual workshops, men choir singings, prayer breakfasts, buildings projects, supplying food for pantries to feed the hungry, building accessibility ramps for individuals in need of them, The Class Meeting and many other Christ-centered events that will more effectively connect and fellowship with local and district members and all people in their communities.

The WMCC UMM continue to present information about their emphasis on Scouting.

The WNCC UMM proudly sponsor Ministerial Scholarships for Second Career Pastors for which the UMM give on average $5000 every year.

This year the UMM continued donations to Food Banks to three areas of the WNCC to feed those that are hungry. Some local UMM units are even sponsoring hot dog dinners to raise funds to help the hungry. The UMM support WNCC disaster and building teams.

The United Methodist Men of the WNCC and the United States are continuing to participate in workshops, webinars, and Jurisdictional National Days of Prayer concerning dismantling racism and how everyone can become a more understanding, loving and caring world.

The WNCC United Methodist Men are very strong advocates against domestic violence and the first week of August they will again ask everyone to observe a week of prayer against domestic violence and pray for strong loving family relationships. The UMM work along with the North Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence and the GCUMM partner AMEND Together to help STOP Domestic Violence.

The UMM of WNCC supported "Strength for Service" this year by giving a generous donation so that devotional books could be purchased and distributed at the 2021 Veterans Hall of Fame Induction ceremony in Concord, N.C.

In April 2022 the General Commission on United Methodist Men started an initiative focused on “New Beginnings” where the priority is to provide every church some new ways to connect with UMM, and to offer local church leadership credible resources to help them carry out ministry with men and scouting.

The Western North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men continue to be leaders among the General Commission of United Methodist Men with their continuing to have a high number of life members of UMM, a high percent of churches with a charter and a high number of charters. The Western North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men “Coaching men to THRIVE through Christ, So Others May Know Christ.”

b. United Methodist Women

The year 2021 was another year of uncertainty and United Methodist Women members have adjusted well to the challenges of the pandemic. The conference team managed to have all the major events through the innovation of Zoom meetings. That would not have been as successful or even possible if it weren't for the technology of today.

The national office continued to fund programs all over the world with six regional missionaries working hard. The Bethlehem Center in Winston-Salem and Alliance Center for Education in Charlotte continued their programs while taking care to follow the safety guidelines for the COVID-19 pandemic. Brooks-Howell Home in Asheville continued their cautious care while following safety procedures. Pfeiffer University and Bennett College continued their classes with great caution.

The June Spiritual Growth Retreat was a virtual event that featured Rev. Lisa Beth White as leader with the theme of “You Lift Me Up.” Members had access to meaningful break-out sessions: Tea and Meditation; Knitting Together; Prayer Journaling; Commemorating Juneteenth; and a book study of You Raise Me Up about the WNCC mission in Armenia. In April United Methodist Women members representing the Blue Ridge and Yadkin Valley Districts and the Western North Carolina Conference were among 300 persons who participated in 80 meetings with their elected officials concerning climate justice in a Legislative Day event. During July a virtual mission spiritual growth study was held, led by Rev. Amy Coles, “Bearing Witness in the Kin-dom: Living into the Church’s Moral Witness through Radical Discipleship.” The social issue study was “Pushout: The Criminalization of Black Girls in Schools.” The virtual conference annual celebration was held in September, with the theme “Light Up Our Spirits with Faith and Hope so Love IS Action.” Deacon Cindy Johnson from Brownsville, Texas, who does amazing work with the immigrant community seeking justice across the Mexican border, was the speaker. The conference leadership team provided training for district officers on Leadership Development Day and sponsored a conference-wide Leadership Development Day for all local officers. Throughout the year they were able to connect with other members of United Methodist Women around the world through Zoom meetings, hence, connecting with people unlikely to be encountered in person.

Many units could not meet but the members were faithful in their giving. Total Mission Giving was $544,344. They met the pledge of $500,000 to National Pledge to Mission and exceeded it by $4,943. In addition, they sent another $39,401 to National and UMCOR. Western North Carolina Conference was again #1 in the nation for Mission Giving. Hands-on projects through districts totaled $82,241, this included supplies for the National Institutions and Project Agape. The Legacy Fund was given $66,530 in 2021. This conference has given a total of $428,978 to an endowment fund that will undergird the organization and insure the mission work of United Methodist Women well into the next 150 years.

On March 3, 2022, the name of United Methodist Women was changed to United Women of Faith. United Methodist Women members have always been visionary and have acted boldly since the organization began in 1869. The name has changed 25 times, and it has been changed again as a result of five years of research, prayerful discernment and hard work by the member-elected United Methodist Women Board of Directors, with input from the Program Advisory Group.

United Women in Faith addresses the needs and different life stages of new women who for various reasons have not been drawn to the membership of United Methodist Women. The new name is inclusive to current members whose local churches may choose or have already chosen to disaffiliate from The United Methodist Church. Women of other faith traditions who want to join because they are drawn to the mission of the organization are welcomed. There is a fresh look of inviting women to connect in new ways, an innovative feel with new and improved programs designed to better nurture current members and welcome new members into the service of faith, action and sisterhood.

There are many things that United Women in Faith did not change. The PURPOSE is an important statement of the organization. They will still be the official women’s organization of The United Methodist Church and the legal name will remain United Methodist Women. The vision will remain the same: Turning faith, hope and love into action for women, children, and youth around the world. The core of who they are remains: they believe love in action can change the world. There will be no age group left out, they continue to lean on the wisdom of seasoned members and seek new ideas from younger women. They will gather for Christian fellowship, prayer, support and study. They remain committed to training through education and providing opportunities for service and advocacy. Most importantly, they will continue to live their faith in lives of action for justice.

c. Conference Council on Youth Ministries (CCYM)

The Conference Council on Youth Ministries (CCYM) is a leadership team of youth and adults from around the conference who plan, develop, and implement resources/events/ministries for youth across the Western North Carolina Conference. The mission is to find ways to encourage young people to follow Jesus, become leaders, make disciples, and transform the world. The 2021-2022 executive committee consisted of Nick Hall (co-president), Rebecca Langston (co-president), and Kayla Stewart (secretary). Seven new youth were welcomed to serve on the council this year and their fresh perspective and insight is very much appreciated.

CCYM was supervised and led by a team of great leadership, including Shannon LeMaster-Smith, Carlyn Bell, and Paul Frazier. These leaders brought out the best in CCYM, and heavily contributed to the success of this group.

The CCYM receives Youth Service Fund grant applications and awards Youth Service Funds each year. The Youth Service Fund is money raised by youth, through local churches and different events run by CCYM, and are distributed by grants administered by the CCYM. "Of the funds given, 70% is given back within the Western North Carolina Conference. The remaining 30% is donated to the General Council on Finance and Administration, and this amount is used to fund projects that a team of youth from around the world select. Most importantly, the projects supported are designed and led by youth, for the benefit of their peers." (Book of Discipline 2016) Due to COVID and the inability to have the usual events to help raise funds for YSF, no requests were granted this year.

Each year, CCYM is in charge of putting on a conference-wide youth retreat for middle school youth, known as IgniteUS. Because of the global pandemic, this event has been postponed the past two years. CCYM is very thankful that the council was able to reunite this year for IgniteUS 2022. The overnight retreat was held from Friday, April 1st, to Sunday, April 3rd at Camp Hanes in King, NC, and had over 100 participants, including middle schoolers and high schoolers who were invited to attend. The speaker, Jennifer Bingham Hampton, revolved her lessons around the theme of "resurrection", and focused on teaching grace. The First UMC Newton Praise Band led the youth in praise and worship. The staff and leaders planning this event, along with the Camp Hanes staff, helped to make this a successful weekend, bringing the youth closer to God and one another.

CCYM is grateful to the Western North Carolina Conference for the continuous support through these challenging times. CCYM is a growing organization full of leaders who are eager to improve and transform the church into followers of Christ who accept and love all of God's children.

7. LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT TEAM

Emerging from two years of a pandemic coupled with denominational turmoil has brought about the testing of even the best of our clergy leaders. In the midst of it all, the Leadership Development Team (LDT) of WNCC has consistently tried to meet the needs of the of ministry professionals who have had to be resilient and willing to adapt in a quickly changing church environment.

Returning to in person meetings has renewed energy for the task of the LDT which has a mission of building "the capacity of ministry leaders to follow Jesus, make disciples and transform the world." Not only has renewed energy surged, but also a renewed sense of lament for relationships, time, focus and opportunities lost in recent years. In going forward LDT has agreed that a time of lament will accompany gatherings as we move forward.

LDT has taken the need for racial reconciliation seriously. The team has gathered and listened and shared stories of reaching across racial lines that have historically divided. Moving beyond talk to real reconciliation the chair and vice-chair, in the spirit of racial reconciliation have worked side by side as co-chairs to enable equity in conference leadership within the LDT and real presence and voice at the connectional table.

The work of the LDT is fostered in subcommittees. There is great teamwork and plans are facilitated among the program, communications and stewardship subcommittees with a promise to see equity across the board. The stewardship committee oversees the budget to facilitate the many programs offered as well as scholarships for personal development plans, spiritual retreats and opportunities to equip clergy for innovative and resilient leadership. The program team identifies and provides resources for building the capacity of ministry leaders in resilience, adaptive change, clergy care, conflict and many other areas that foster fruitfulness in ministry. The team has offered preaching and peer cohorts, workshops for racial healing, and Navigating Uncharted Waters. Well-known providers offer services from Fresh Expression, The Lombard Mennonite Peace Center, The Arbinger Institute, Acumen Academy as well as the more local WNCC-based Davidson Clergy Center and School of the Spirit. The communications team works diligently to ensure access to programs. From the monthly eLEAD newsletter, the conference website, Facebook posts, and communication tools with district offices the goal is to inform ministry leaders of the WNCC of all the opportunities available. Podcasts covering a multitude of topics continue to be offered and resources are archived on the LDT section of the conference website so that when the ministry leader needs resources for development in a particular subject, timely and appropriate help can be found with an easy-to-use search.

The WNCC has been generous to support the ongoing efforts to develop ministry professionals and clergy leaders. Whether the partnership with a provider has been long standing and faithful over the years or a new opportunity for the WNCC such as a Leadership Expo (watch for this exciting new program ahead) the focus remains to build and encourage ministry leaders for fruitfulness. As Jesus reminded his first disciples, he still speaks to us today: "When you produce much fruit, you are my true disciples. This brings great glory to my Father" (John 15:8, NLT).

Kari Howard and Shirley Canty, Co-Chairpersons

8. MISSION ENGAGEMENT TEAM

The Mission Engagement Department of the Western North Carolina Conference has been very active over the last year in Disaster Response. On August 17 and the days after, flooding from Tropical Storm Fred caused significant damage in areas of Haywood County. The Pigeon River near Canton, nearly reached 20 feet in depth, compared to about 2 feet in days leading up to the rainstorm. Cruso, N.C. was hardest hit. In total, 563 residents were impacted; 56 destroyed, 206 homes with major damage totaling an estimated $300 million. It is also believed, 500 families in the region were displaced – some temporarily, others permanently.

Western North Carolina Disaster Ministries has been responding to the flooding from Hurricane Fred since the day after the storm. First, deploying cleaning buckets and a shower trailer to Cruso United Methodist Church, the epicenter of the disaster, and on higher ground above the Pigeon River. A week later the WNCUMC deployed a mold remediation trailer and tool trailer for teams.

In December 2021, WNCUMC disaster ministries received an UMCOR grant of $393,651.00. These funds were used to hire a case management team to work with flood survivors, a site coordinator, and assistant to work with volunteer teams aiding in the rebuild, building materials, and funds for verified unmet needs. In addition to the UMCOR grant, WNCUMC churches generously donated $183,434.72 to support disaster recovery efforts from the impacts of Tropical Storm Fred.

Missional Collective – In 2021 The WNC Conference continued partnership with The Missional Collective by hosting its annual journey in experiential neighboring. The Journey of 5 immersive learning retreats were held in historically rich locations with an intention to help expand the imagination of participants from relief work into empowerment. Through a combination of online and in-person retreats, clergy and laity explored a theology of mission, asset-based community development, personal discernment, issues of equity and justice, and accountability for missional action planning.

The team partnered with several organizations including the Learning Tree in Indiana, QC Family Tree in Charlotte, Haywood Street Congregation, Faith for Justice Asheville, the beloved community center of Greensboro and others. The immersive journey will continue to be offered annually, an online curriculum is available for local congregational use, and short-term mission experiences are being developed for youth and young adults.

Northern Haiti Mission Initiative – The Northern Haiti Mission Connection works through Partners 4 New Hope, Inc. to support the Cap Haitian Ministry Center, Dr. Maklin Eugene, and New Hope Hospital in Plaine du Nord, Haiti. Their financial support has provided for the shipment of over 3,000 masks to Haiti, the funding of many feeding programs through New Hope Hospital to serve the surrounding communities, schools, and the prison population, micro-finance programs, and the installation of clean water wells in the area serving thousands without water. <https://www.partners4newhope.org>

A magnitude 7.2 earthquake struck the South of Haiti on August 14, 2021. The Northern Haiti ministry partners, along with Dr. Eugene of New Hope Hospital, assisted with medical response efforts, mobile clinics, and food distributions in southern Haiti.

ZOE Empowers – MET also supports conference sponsorships with Zoe Empowers (serving Africa and Asia), the Central Congo Partnership, and Open Arms Community. MET further assists numerous mission teams from the conference as they journey locally, regionally, and internationally.

Project AGAPE – Since the war of 2020, Project AGAPE has continued to serve the people of Armenia and Artsakh. With supplies received in two containers and purchased locally through grants and the Emergency Relief Fund, Project AGAPE continues to help the refugee families with basic necessities of food, clothing, bedding, and kitchen supplies. In 2021 about 800 families were provided with these basic supplies, and now another 600 families are being served from the southern parts of the Kashatagh region.

The team will continue to help the displaced families improve their social conditions with supplies that the families will be able to use for some period until they are able to find jobs and adapt to their changing conditions. This short-term support to these families will forge a path of recovery as Project AGAPE transitions toward long-term development projects. One of these is the Vocational Project which will help families learn new skills and find jobs or start their own businesses in nail, skin, hair care, electrical, plumbing, and carpentry areas.

Creation Care – This year the MET expanded its efforts by bringing the missional component of the Creation Care Ministry Team (CCMT) under its umbrella. Together, they and others from the Missional Collective and the Smoky Mountain District, are designing a mission trip for youth to assist flood survivors in Haywood County this June, which will contain an ecological component along with the traditional service component. This trip will then be used as a template for future eco-focused mission trips, including a curriculum for pre-trip, during trip, and post-trip education that will empower participants to continue to engage in eco-focused (creation caring) activities back home in their everyday lives and the life of their church and community. Additionally, the CCMT provided training in September and October 2021, to clergy and laity via Zoom, regarding the call to actively care for God's creation and ways that local churches may answer that call by starting a Green Team or Creation Care Ministry Team. The Green Church Initiative was launched as a tool that local churches can use to find many ways to engage in covenantal acts of caring for God's creation, and the first "Green Church Award" will be presented to West Market Street UMC, Greensboro, for using this tool to guide it in nurturing a creation care ethic in their church throughout the areas of worship, discipleship, stewardship, mission, and evangelism. The CCMT leadership team is now meeting regularly, offering training online and in-person, and seeking others interested in Creation Care, as Creation Care ministries is expanded across the annual conference and in each district, and are participating with the United Methodist Creation Justice Movement at the denomination and southeastern jurisdiction levels. For more information on CCMT go to www.wnccumc.org/wncc-creation-care-ministry or CreationCareWNCC@gmail.com.

9. BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The Board of Ordained Ministry supports the mission of the Western North Carolina Conference by developing, implementing, overseeing, and evaluating programs that focus on recruiting, training, certifying, examining, recommending, and supporting clergy leadership for the conference and The United Methodist Church. The board is a diverse group of clergy and laity from across the conference. The Director of Ministerial Services and the Associate Director of Ministerial Services serve as staff to the board, along with one district superintendent who serves as the cabinet representative.

The members of the board serve on working teams to care for specific aspects of the board's work and on discernment teams to interview candidates. Due to the pandemic, meetings and interviews were conducted virtually this past year with hopes to return to in-person interviews next year. Members and candidates navigated this process extremely well. Each member volunteers many hours to the important work of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

During the past two years of this quadrennium, the Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry created a task force to develop a Fair and Equitable Interview Process. This task force was co-chaired by Dr. Ceola Ross Baber (laity, Newlyn UMC) and Rev. Dr. Kevin Turner (clergy, Davidson UMC). This new process for interviews to ensure fair and equitable treatment of each candidate was approved at the fall board meeting and each board member was asked to sign a covenant to adhere to the new policy. One hundred percent of the board members signed the covenant. While additional implementation details are being developed, the board applied the policy during the spring candidate interviews with much effectiveness.

Board members received candidate papers and information in early winter; and met with ordination candidates in February and provisional candidates in March. The board is recommending 11 persons (two deacons and nine elders) for full connection and ordination and 16 persons (four deacons and 12 elders) for commissioning at the 2022 session of the WNCC Annual Conference. In addition to provisional and full connection interviews, the board conducted continuance interviews of 36 provisional candidates.

The work has been extensive and critical for the future of The United Methodist Church. The members of the Board of Ordained Ministry are honored to serve Christ in this important way.

Lynda Ferguson, Chairperson

C. WNCC DISTRICTS

1. APPALACHIAN DISTRICT

The Appalachian District continues to be blessed by the great variety of ways in which the clergy and their leadership teams are leading their congregations through a global pandemic, yet still focused on making disciples for the transformation of the world.

The Appalachian District experienced a transition in district superintendents in July. The district is thankful for the leadership of Rev. Dr. Carl Arrington as he entered retirement and welcomed Rev. Lory Beth Huffman. The installation of Lory Beth as the new district superintendent was celebrated through a unique service of worship via Zoom which highlighted the variety and beauty of the Appalachian District.

Lory Beth brings energy and gifts to the district, and “close to normal” rhythms of gathering in person began happening after the severe threat of COVID-19. The Appalachian District gives God thanks for churches’ persistence in sharing the good news of Jesus, despite of the challenges they faced during the pandemic.

The Appalachian District clergy continue to stay connected for monthly Zoom calls to support, encourage, and pray for one another, congregations, communities, and the world. The district clergy participated in the Faithful Lent: Connecting the Practices of Lent and Anti-Racism by GCORR as well as the conference-supported study of Tempered Resilience: How Leaders Are Formed in the Crucible of Change by Tod Bolsinger. The Zoom platform also provided a way to celebrate and enjoy a clergy Christmas party, while sharing songs, snacks, hot chocolate, and a great deal of laughter during the Christmas Cookie House competition. Regardless of the occasion, the district thanks God for technology that has enabled leaders to live into United Methodist connexionalism, and journey together through such uncharted waters.

The district began an exploration of rural mountain churches with Rev. Allen Stanton, to help equip churches in the mountain rural culture and to be distinctively vital in their communities. Through the work of Missional Networks, webinars, studies, and exploring Fresh Expressions of Church in the Appalachian Mountain communities, the Appalachian District is moving towards the vision God has for each of these churches.

The district began the deep and important work of helping churches look at their mission, vision, and leadership structure. Churches are asking the hard questions and moving towards the Simplified Accountable System (SAS) model of leadership that allows the mission of the church to drive the structure, freeing up the congregation for mission. It is an ongoing work; however, it is an important step towards vitality.

The Stories Along the Journey podcast was launched that enables persons to tell rich stories of how lives have been transformed through connections with the Holy and one another. The stories are beautiful examples of how Appalachian District churches continue to be the body of Christ during the COVID-19 crisis and are making vital connections with the people in their communities.

Thanks be to God for the churches of the Appalachian District and all the ways they have continued to provide vital worship in varying circumstance during the last two years. They have had to be nimble, adaptive, and courageous in trying new ways of staying connected with one another and their communities.

All of this is a testament that the Holy Spirit is alive and at work in the Appalachian District and the promise of Christ is true: “I am with you always, even unto the end of the age.”

Lory Beth Huffman, District Superintendent
Gloria Hughes, District Vitality Associate

2. BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT

From June 2021 to May 2022, the Blue Ridge District continued to focus on working with district leaders toward Catalyzing a Lay Movement. As an initial step in this process, Russ Darnall, District Lay Leader, along with a focus team of congregational leaders, designed and conducted a survey to gauge understanding of the lay leader role in congregations, as well as the strength of pastor/lay leader connections. The findings led the team to develop a plan for designing curriculum, training, and conversational guides for incoming lay leaders and their appointed pastor. These materials will be used for new appointments in the Blue Ridge District this upcoming year. Additionally, work is underway for revitalizing Lay Servant Ministries pathways.

In November, 2021 a team of district clergy and lay leaders developed a vision and strategy for reimagining pastoral leadership to support the equipping of laity in ministry. Focus surfaced surrounding: the development of cooperative ministries; support of clergy health; and removing the pressure of statistical storytelling. Work has been and is continuing to be done to realize the desired goals of these focus areas. In response to the need for alternative storytelling, a storytelling workshop was conducted to guide laity in developing and learning to tell faith stories. In response to the need for clergy health support, the Blue Ridge District began offering supplemented YMCA memberships for clergy, as well as supplemented counseling sessions through Spirit Song Counseling. Additionally, a Zoom session was held for SPRC members to discuss the signs and prevention of burnout, and a clergy meeting was held via Zoom to process grief, and dream together about continued ministry. In response to the desire for cooperative ministry, documentation began of the inception and journey of cooperative ministries already in place, and district support was given towards the development of further cooperative congregational partnerships.

To support both Catalyzing a Lay Movement and Reimagining Pastoral Leadership, 20 Blue Ridge District clergy were trained in the Technology of Participation (ToP) Foundational Methods. These methods help with the design and facilitation of congregational conversations, consensus building, and action planning in a way that helps clergy attend to the role of facilitator while engaging and empowering laity to take the lead in ministry. To practice these methods, a community of practice was formed which meets monthly. To date, the methods have been used in congregations across the Blue Ridge District to, among other things, facilitate: listening sessions surrounding spiritual needs and expectations of faith communities in spiritual formation; conversational processing surrounding clergy re-appointment; conversation surrounding the use of church grounds for winter weather sheltering; conversations with SPRC members for clergy assessment; the development of consensus for next steps in ministry; and the creation of action plans for Lent and Easter activities among six partnering congregations.

As the hope and realization of in-person connection grows, the Blue Ridge District hopes to see continued efforts to support the equipping of the saints for ministry grow as well.

Mark Ralls, District Superintendent

3. CATAWBA VALLEY DISTRICT

The Catawba Valley District has been intentional about celebrating our connection this conference year. The clergy continued to meet in Zoom settings until a big in-person celebration at Tekoa Foothills on April 28. In an effort to say “Thank You,” to the clergy, the district provided an overnight event at Lake Junaluska, complete with spending some time with Bishop Carter. The African American clergy had a breakfast and meeting with Rev. Dr. Bill White to consider ways they can support anti-racism efforts as discipleship and sanctification (in keeping with one of Bishop Carter’s pathways for the conference). Local pastors were also celebrated with a breakfast and anointing for ministry. Retired clergy and spouses were also celebrated with a breakfast during the Advent season. The district sponsored a workshop in Hickory about the post-pandemic church and hosted a day apart for rural clergy at Tekoa Foothills with leadership by Dr. Jonathan LeMaster-Smith.

Special efforts have been made to include laity in the ministry of the district. It hosted Methodism classes and Zoom calls around Tod Bolsinger’s book Tempered Resilience. The district has celebrated the connection in many ways, but perhaps none more gratifying than over $23,000 collected for supporting Ukrainian refugees.

The Catawba Valley District is blessed with 150 churches over five counties.

David Christy, District Superintendent

4. METRO DISTRICT

The work of navigating the COVID-19 pandemic has been a primary focus for Metro District laity and clergy over the last year. The district is thankful for the outstanding pastoral leadership of the clergy who responded courageously to the pandemic and have led their churches through making tough choices during challenging times. In-person worship attendance is slowly building, and online worship attendance seems here to stay. Many district churches have participated in the both/and initiative through the Office of Church Development to help churches acquire and operate the technology needed to offer excellent in-person and online worship.

The Metro District has continued to host a podcast, “Sights and Sounds,” with 10 episodes posted this year featuring leaders from across the country who addressed a broad range of topics. The district also offered two Advent studies and a Lenten study that reached well beyond the boundaries of the district serving well over 100 participants and featured studies from Rev. Dr. James Howell, Rev. Olu Brown, and Bishop Sharma Lewis.

Equity and justice continues to be a core value in the district and over 33 churches have participated in virtual justice and equity teaching/training/accountability sessions. This included Methodist, Episcopal AME, and non-denominational participants. The Metro District also partnered with local churches and community organizations to create Wi-Fi hotspots, summer program hubs, and feeding programs for children and those lacking resources in the communities.

The Metro District offered several Basic and Advanced Lay Servant courses, including 13 participants completing the course in Spanish. In an online and in-person event, the Lay Service Awards recognized 78 church leaders for outstanding service. In addition to these wonderful lay leaders, the district received more candidates for ministry this year than any year in recent memory. God is still calling people into service and people are still responding. It is great to see God at work in and through the people of the Metro District.

Dan Pezet, District Superintendent

5. NORTHERN PIEDMONT DISTRICT

Like all faithful Western North Carolina United Methodists, the Northern Piedmont District’s mission is to “Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, Transform the World.” This district endeavors to fulfill the mission by emphasizing spiritual maturity and life in the Beloved Community. It supports long-term relationships within its 15 missional networks, confident that neighborhood relationships drive authentic and sustainable discipleship. Strong ministry coming out of the COVID-19 pandemic has been possible in part due to the established relationships between churches, which helped each another with worship, technology, food-related ministries, and critical partnerships with children and schools during their time of need. The district has added innovative platforms for its diverse communities to share their specific concerns, and teams under the leadership of Rev. Maria King have continued their deep work on trauma-informed ministry. In 2022, the district began a fifth year of intentional work to understand trauma through the lens of discipleship. Trauma-Informed Ministry was included in the expansion of the District’s Lay Servant Training curriculum in 2022 and experienced an overwhelming response of affirmation.

Cohorts of churches of similar sizes regularly discuss their specific needs as the church moves forward from pandemic to endemic. The district continues to award proceeds from a $30,000 technology grant to resource small and medium-sized churches in worship technology and best practices for live-streaming worship. Trainers and consultants are helping churches to take their technology to the next level to meet the needs of the future. The district continues to give thanks to The United Methodist Foundation for its partnership in this important work. The connection is such a blessing for local churches.

Northern Piedmont continues to lead both North Carolina conferences in cross-cultural appointments. It supports cross-cultural appointments with truth and reconciliation dialogues and the care of souls in transition. Its partnerships with local and regional community leaders and resources allow the district to live into God's vision for all. The relationship with Greensboro's Beloved Community Center continues through virtual gatherings and plans to be back in person in the coming season.

The Northern Piedmont School of Spiritual Direction supports the district's goal of spiritual maturity and includes laity and clergy from all over the conference. Trained directors are mobilized for both personal spiritual direction and group direction for churches in discernment. The district continues to resource congregations, missional networks, and neighborhoods with team development, executive coaching, and teaching cultural intelligence.

District grants support discipleship initiatives in all the counties in which the district does ministry. Recent Congregational Vitality grants, totaling $48,504, include discipleship development for children, Beloved Community groups, Both/And Discipleship formation, a Community Walking Path, and support for churches doing after-school community outreach for children. Recent Missional Engagement grants, totaling $123,966, have been awarded for feeding programs in two counties, refugee resettlement, the development of a church-sponsored community center, a campus ministry spring break experience exploring urban poverty, outreach to college students facing hunger, reading programs, English as a Second Language programs, school and community partnerships, and a creative arts partnership between two congregations and a community center. Benevolence grants continue to support UMAR, Carolina Cross Connection, campus ministries across the district, and the Chrysalis Counseling Center.

The Northern Piedmont District is beginning the 2022-2023 conference year with 133 churches in 95 charges, with a total of 118 active clergy and 37,447 laity. The district is proud to have 101 retired clergy consider Northern Piedmont their home district. At the time of this report, the Northern Piedmont District has 15 certified candidates for ministry, 28 local pastors, and eight clergy from other conferences or denominations appointed in the district. One certified lay minister labors in this district, and she will soon begin her second year of appointment.

Bev Copley, District Superintendent

Maria King, District Vitality Associate

Landa Wallace and Lynne Gilbert, District Administrators

6. SMOKY MOUNTAIN DISTRICT

The Smoky Mountain District (SMD) has again demonstrated remarkable resilience as it moved into the second year of the pandemic. Church leadership navigated challenging decisions with grace and tenacity, recognizing that God's call to worship, connection, and mission remains even in increasing tension and divisiveness. Through initiatives such as ImagineHub and Laity Engagement Transformation, new opportunities have brought up and been implemented across the district. The churches across the Smoky Mountain District continue to be salt and light in their local communities, collaborating with missional network churches and nonprofit organizations in health, justice, disaster relief, and feeding and housing ministries. Working with communities on the margins, including those under-resourced, has further magnified the witness of UMC churches in the district. Ministry in the face of hardship has strengthened the SMD churches' resolve to be united in their worship and service of Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit.

The stories people circulate are often laden with anxiety or conflict, stirring up directionless momentum that drains the church of energy for the mission of Christ. The Smoky Mountain District's "Vitality Through Storytelling" is a new project that seeks to flip the script of a narrative of decline and divisiveness while amplifying the faithful stories that affirm an identity rooted in Christ Jesus and witness to the abundance of God. The Vitality Through Storytelling project will work to empower churches to faithfully tell the stories that matter and give hope and promise while training up faithful storytellers. The Smoky Mountain District hopes that over the next year, as it captures these stories through film, it can celebrate the faithfulness and presence of God through a Faith Communities Film Festival beginning in the summer of 2023.

The church-school partnerships continue to grow across the district as they see an expansion of the Early Childhood Literacy Initiative. New virtual cohorts have increased awareness of empowerment models of ministry and contemplative prayer practices. The Duke Endowment Summer Literacy Program now has three sites within the SMD. In addition, churches have supported schools through after-school programs, book distributions, and supporting literacy efforts in partnership with Region A Partnership for Children.

When Haywood County suffered devastating losses from Tropical Storm Fred flooding, the UMC presence was tremendous in coordinating relief efforts immediately. Area clergy demonstrated the strength of connection and community partnerships as they coordinated efforts that revealed the power of collaboration. Through a rural context and partnerships of churches of all sizes and denominations, the SMD churches exhibited sustainable long-term relief and community support. This summer, a pilot mission journey was launched that focused on the intersection of faith, ecology, economy, and culture while equipping teams to be agents of community leadership from a faith perspective within their context. With the generous support from the Western North Carolina Conference churches, the SMD hired five contract workers who serve communities and survivors and coordinate volunteers for flood relief efforts.

The SMD also worked hard to lift diverse voices as they have endeavored to stay innovative and remain committed to traditional, relevant methods. The SMD's communication team has leveraged common technologies and increased its presence and interactions on social platforms. They continue to offer consultation and support to local churches on matters related to technology such as website building, Zoom, social media, etc. Many of the district leaders are now proficient in new skills. By maintaining established methods of communicating and growing social media presence, they have broadened the collective reach and capacity to share the good news and lift the stories of the churches and individuals in the district.

Finally, the SMD vitality team has developed the district's vitality values and action plans based on Bishop Carter's vision sharing for the conference. The SMD will focus on "Strengthening Local Churches," "Rediscovering Evangelism," and "Unity in Diversity." The district will support local churches to renew United Methodist identities as the connecting, discipling, and missioning church, initiate "Evangelism School and Evangelism Pilgrimage" for clergy and lay leaders, and promote unity in diversity by building a culture of inclusiveness and accountability and strengthening lay leadership.

Jae Lee, District Superintendent
Nicole Jones, District Vitality Associate
D'Andre Ash, District Communication Coordinator

7. UWHARRIE DISTRICT

The mission of the Uwharrie District is to equip clergy and laity to create and lead vital congregations, of all sizes and in every location, who follow Jesus, make disciples, and transform the world. For conference year 2021-2022, the theme of Plow, Enrich, Plant, and Wonder guided district work. The theme is based on Jesus' images of farming to illustrate kingdom truths, especially the parable of the Sower and the Mustard Seed. The act of plowing and turning the soil over is about listening to God's voice and to the needs of communities. The act of fertilizing the soil is about nourishing spiritual leaders. The act of planting is about discerning the kinds of seeds that are being planted. The act of waiting for the seed to sprout cultivates patience and wonder acknowledging that the work of ministry belongs to God. The district reading plan and conversation opportunities undergirded these themes and this work.

Each of the 10 missional networks welcomed new clergy in August and September and participated in a conversation around Kay Kotan's book, Being the Church in a Post-Pandemic World. The district vitality associate, Rev. Katie Lineberger, facilitated this conversation. Rev. Lineberger has also created a study guide for congregations about discerning vision and mission. She also leads conversations with churches across the district about moving from the Administrative Board/Council model of church governance to a single board structure or a simplified accountable structure.

The district staff have led several conversations on some of John Wesley's sermons and have promoted the #BeUMC resources for the continuing United Methodist Church. Rev. Kris Mares, the district missional engagement associate, spearheads the communication efforts and works with missional networks while engaging the surrounding communities. This fall and winter, churches and clergy were invited to read together Peter Scazzerio's book, Emotionally Healthy Discipleship, and Isabel Wilkerson's book, Caste, as ways to grow in the ministry of intentional discipleship which includes the work of anti-racism. The spring book selection is Conversations Worth Having by Jackie Stavros and Cherie Torres. Reflections on Scripture, book discussions, and conversations have become seeds for growth and vitality.

The Uwharrie District Ministry Council, chaired by the district Lay Leader, Kathy Odell, oversees the work of its Fresh Expressions team, Lay Servant Training, and the its Recovery Ministries team. The Fresh Expressions team produces a podcast, Afresh: New Ways of Being Church. A Fresh Expressions Discovery Day will be held this spring. Laina Davis-Harvey, a layperson in the Anson Union Missional Network leads the Recovery Ministries team and is eager to provide support and resources for congregations engaged in addiction and recovery ministries.

Currently, there are 139 churches across eight counties. These churches are about kingdom work as they feed the hungry, support schools, and care for those in need. Specifically, thanks is given for the establishment of a hot meal program in the North Stanly area, an effective recovery ministry at Grace Place in Albemarle, a community-wide effort to establish a Women and Children's Shelter in Asheboro, and an ongoing Mobile Food Pantry in Anson County. Churches in every network and county support teachers, students, and schools. Many churches provide free Wi-Fi services for their surrounding areas. Four churches are participating in the Transformation Journey church revitalization effort.

The Uwharrie District Clergy Care team offers periodic clergy events for fellowship and learning. In November, Dr. Arnetta Beverly presented an inspiring message in thinking about faith as an antidote for fear. Bishop Ken Carter was with the clergy in January talking about leadership, Sabbath, and rest in a context of exhaustion. The spring clergy meeting will be addressing the context of polarization. There is also a clergy hiking group that meets monthly. Kim Hopkins, the district administrator, is invaluable in her assistance to clergy and laity. She fields questions of all sorts and supports the work of the District Committee on Ministry.

The district Grants and Resources team distributed over $68,000 in ministry grants to networks and congregations including grants for multi-cultural camping experiences and local mission engagement projects. This is possible because of the congregations in the Uwharrie District who are generous and faithful in district apportionment giving.

Every day significant and amazing ministry is accomplished through the committed discipleship of individuals and congregations throughout the Uwharrie District. Thanks be to God!

Laura Auten, District Superintendent

8. YADKIN VALLEY DISTRICT

The Yadkin Valley District attempted to live out its mission of equipping pastors and lay leaders so that they could be faithful in making disciples of Jesus for the transformation of their communities and the world. The district's efforts have been in the areas of rebuilding during the COVID-19 pandemic and providing resources so that growth could occur in sanctification regarding the eliminating of racism.

The missional networks were the vehicles in which rebuilding during the pandemic occurred. The staff of the Yadkin Valley District met in the missional networks using Zoom to accomplish the work. Kay Kotan's book, Being The Church in a Post-Pandemic World was the guide. The pastors were introduced to the book in the email notices that invited them to the Zoom gathering and preparing them for beginning their work for Charge Conference 2021. The book was discussed in the Zoom gatherings. The pastors also received information regarding Missioninsite and the Simplified Accountable Structure. The pastors were asked to read the book with their lay leadership team and to provide two traits they would attempt to integrate into their congregation beginning January 2022. They were also told that their 2022 Charge Conference report will include progress and the adoption of two additional traits.

The Missionsite information was presented so that churches could remember who their neighbors were, and they could rebuild outreach ministries when the pandemic allowed. These ministries will bless their community and increase their vitality.

The Simplified Accountable Structure was offered so that churches whose lay leaders had not returned could explore ways to simplify their governance and redirect people resources to the ministries of the church. Several churches have moved to this way of governance.

The district used several means to equip pastors and congregations so they may grow in their work to eliminate racism. During the Missional Network Charge Conference, a lay person from each church answered the question of what the congregation was going to do as a means to equip its members so that they could work to eliminate racism as a part of their discipleship.

The district provided options to equip them for the task. First, each Wednesday of the month the Justice and Reconciliation team held a Zoom meeting that was a “Brave Space.” They held discussions on how they may work to eliminate racism. These discussions were informed by reading and discussing books. They read and discussed the following books: The Cross and the Lynching Tree, Methodism’s Racial Dilemma, Who Lynched Willie Earle, and The Sum of Us. The district partnered with Arbor Acres in reading, discussing, and understanding Who Lynched Willie Earle. The author, Bishop Will Willmon, came to Arbor Acres for a program on the book.

The final offering was the 10-week program that created the partnership with Jim Melson, from the Cornelius Corps, Inc, The Neighborhood Seminary, and the Yadkin Valley District. It was a Zoom study entitled Remembering the Real Martin Luther King, Jr. Persons from the Virginia and Western North Carolina annual conferences participated in this offering.

The Yadkin Valley District used these efforts to increase the number of congregations living out the mission of creating more vital churches that were making disciples of Jesus for the transformation of the world.

Samuel H. Moore Jr., District Superintendent

D. AFFILIATED MINISTRIES

1. HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

a. Aldersgate Life Plan Community

Aldersgate is now in its 74th year of serving elders. It is located in the most diverse segment of Charlotte and continues to spearhead diversity, inclusion and equity for residents, team members, board members, and community partners. The first three words of the Aldersgate mission statement, “We honor elders,” establishes their inclusive nature of serving all elders. Comprised of 231 acres in east Charlotte, Aldersgate is one of the largest employers in the area, representing over 30 different nationalities in its team members. Aldersgate continues to hold SAGE certification at a platinum level as part of the intentional journey to become the inclusive flagship of the life plan community sector. Aldersgate’s core values of living in faith, practicing stewardship, serving with compassion, striving for excellence, respecting independence, embracing diversity and inclusion, and building meaningful connections are reflected and modeled, starting with the board of directors and executive team. Aldersgate partners with 149 local, diverse organizations and minority-owned businesses as a continued part of diversity, inclusion, and engagement. As 2021 continued with pandemic ridden precautions, Aldersgate continued with utilizing its space and providing residents opportunities to interact. Aldersgate is fortunate to have the availability of multiple and ample outdoor spaces to circumvent the isolation brought on by the lack of social interactions. Aldersgate has championed social interaction and wellbeing in all areas of wellness, including mental, physical, emotional and cognitive wellbeing. Modifications to previous ‘normal’ activities remained critical and immediate, which led to an outpouring of creativity. Keeping true to the commitment to elders, as well as to community, Aldersgate reached out to local musicians and created Concerts by the Lake. Musicians and bands performed from the lake gazebo with speakers angled toward the surrounding lake, allowing residents to safely distance in an outdoor space. This permitted a semblance of interaction and community, and was especially motivating with several performances by the local opera ensemble. Concerts were made accessible to all residents, whether independent living or not. Concerts were also brought to the skilled nursing residents residing at Asbury Health and Rehabilitation Center, who may have difficulty with ambulation. Asbury residents gathered at the screened porches abutting the courtyards while musicians performed in the center of each courtyard. While these concerts were brought about in response to COVID19, they and many other modifications will remain in place past the pandemic, as they are enjoyed and appreciated by residents and team members alike.

Aldersgate continued the newly founded tradition of the Festival of Lights, originally created in 2020 in response to Covid19 quarantines. Sponsors and vendors of Aldersgate supplemented the typical decorating budget and allowed for a lightshow that brought over 1,900 vehicles on campus over a two-week timeframe, only hindered by adverse weather. This event yielded over 2,500 pounds of donated non-perishable food items to support Loaves and Fishes/Friendship Trays. Aldersgate once again won The Charlotte Observer’s Best Of contest in Independent Living, as well as Skilled Nursing — both for the second year in a row. Aldersgate at Home has continued to serve clients who live both on- and off-campus in Mecklenburg County, expanding to approximately 290 additional lives touched. Aldersgate at Home also won The Charlotte Observer's Best Of for Home Services. Aldersgate broke previous records in philanthropy and giving across all fund options, most especially the Angel Tree Fund. The Angel Tree fund is specifically formatted to assist in supplementing existing residents who have outlived their financial means through no fault of their own.

(7b) Board of Directors of Aldersgate United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.

b. Arbor Acres United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.

Through excellence, innovation, caring, and beauty, Arbor Acres cultivates community, culture, and well-being for senior adults.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, its 463 residents and 405 staff members, Arbor Acres is pleased to continue its partnership with the Western North Carolina Conference in its common call to ministry.

In spite of the numerous challenges faced during 2021, Arbor Acres continues to thrive. The community has continued to look confidently to the future, seeing the pandemic and all its associated challenges as an opportunity to self-reflect and position itself for the future. This is evidenced by the board's full support of Arbor Acres' vision for revitalizing the original campus through its Core Redevelopment Plan. The first step in that plan was the development of a building with 54 new apartments, known as Aldersgate Square. Construction commenced in August 2021, with an expected occupancy date of late March 2023. Currently 90 percent of the apartments have been reserved. Upon completion of Aldersgate Square, Arbor Acres will have welcomed nearly 75 new residents to the community. Efforts are now underway to update the community's long-range master plan for replacement of aging infrastructure.

The board of directors has also been engaged in its own self-reflection, evaluating how it can best lead Arbor Acres into the future. As a result of numerous educational sessions and discussions, the board approved changes to its bylaws that it believes will enable it to focus more intently on the numerous complex challenges and demographic changes in senior living. The board has eliminated a number of operationally-focused committees and moved to a taskforce-based approach to leading. The first three taskforces will focus on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion; Charitable Giving; and New Development.

Arbor Acres' Home Care Service has continued to grow to meet the growing demand for in-home services. At the end of 2021, 98 residents were served by Arbor Acres through this service. Additionally, Arbor Acres Advantage program currently has 46 participants who are full-fledged residents, but maintain their homes in the community. Unlike many other Life Plan Communities, Arbor Acres continues to see high demand for its services, including independent living homes, apartments, assisted living, skilled nursing, and memory support.

The Resident Assistance Fund continues to be one of the most tangible expression of Arbor Acres mission. Through this fund, Arbor Acres raised $406,577 to meet the needs of residents who, through no fault of their own, run out of resources. Additionally, this fund enables applicants who would not otherwise qualify financially to move into Arbor Acres to now call this community their home. In support of this important work, Arbor Acres initiated its Heritage Society to recognize donors who commit through donations or planned giving a minimum of $500,000 toward Arbor Acres' Resident Assistance Endowment. Eighteen donors joined this society in 2021.

Arbor Acres continues to exercise strong financial discipline in the stewarding of the resources with which it has been entrusted. Fitch ratings reaffirmed its BBB+ bond rating, its financial reserves have continued to grow, and in spite of increased wage pressures and inflations, it continues to meet its immediate and long-term financial goals.

Arbor Acres is grateful for the opportunity to serve its community in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

c. Chrysalis Counseling and Consultation Center

Chrysalis is the Methodist counseling and consultation resource serving all the Districts of the Eastern part of our conference. We are a non-profit, 501(c)(3), fee-based center providing mental health services for individuals, couples, families, and children.

We believe that healing and wholeness is a fundamental part of serving God both as pastoral professionals and caregivers. We provide quality confidential counseling for ministers and their families at an affordable cost. We also serve clergy as a referral source for congregants experiencing a range of emotional problems including anxiety disorders, addiction, depression, marital conflict, relationship issues, and issues related to healing and growth.

In 2021, the Center resumed in person sessions while keeping our online and telehealth abilities. We also resumed our Lunch and Learn workshop series for local ministers in November 2021. Our satellite at Covenant UMC in High Point remains in place under Chrysalis counselor, Cathy Cole, LCMHC.

Chrysalis received a second Payment Protection Program (PPP) loan in January 2021. We also were paneled with new insurance companies to the region and look to add other insurance companies to increase our service to a larger population.

Chrysalis continues to serve as an invaluable resource for those seeking affordable, professional counseling and consultation services. In 2021 Chrysalis reduced service fees by $27,944 for our clients. We also maintain the Chrysalis Samaritan Fund for those with limited income and are without mental health insurance coverage. We invite local churches to help financially support the Samaritan Fund ministry. Please be in prayer that you may be able to contribute to the future growth of Chrysalis Counseling and Consultation Center.

Our appreciation goes out to our Board members listed below. We are poised to increase Board representation in 2022.

Since 1980, Chrysalis Counseling & Consultation Center has provided services to individuals and families in our faith communities. We thank you for your trust in our efforts over the years to make a difference in the lives of people. We appreciate all financial support as we move forward to meet the growing demands of the future!

Please visit our website at chrysaliscenters.org to learn more about the Chrysalis ministry.

d. Crossnore Communities for Children

Crossnore Communities for Children, formerly known as Crossnore School & Children's Home, has three locations in Winston-Salem, Crossnore, and Hendersonville, NC. The mission of Crossnore Communities for Children is to grow healthy futures for children and families by providing a Christian sanctuary of hope and healing.

One of the goals of Crossnore's Board of Trustees-led Strategic Plan is to grow the Crossnore brand as the regional leader in high quality, holistic child welfare services. To that end, the board contracted a Winston-Salem marketing consultant to review and update the organization's messaging and branding. The process included interviews with Crossnore stakeholders, the creation of a new message, and an update to the visual identity with a new logo to position it as the way home for the children and families served.

Dedicated to the complex needs of children facing abuse, neglect, or other serious risk, Crossnore is a recognized leader in understanding how trauma at home affects the whole child—emotionally, physically, mentally, and spiritually—and then giving each child whatever support and therapies are necessary to help reclaim, rebuild, or re-imagine the essential belief in a safe and loving home. With a 100-year history of private support and public advocacy, Crossnore has unparalleled resources to help children realize their true selves while they heal, gain perspective, and learn to thrive as resilient and confident individuals. Whether at home with a foster family, or at one of the residential campuses, Crossnore children are encouraged to believe in their own agency and self-worth. Honoring its faith-based heritage, Crossnore values all children equally and believes every child deserves respect, acceptance, happiness, and the opportunity to know and trust a loving place called home.

Crossnore brings clinical expertise and compassionate care to children and families through four interconnected resource communities, each with a specialized focus. Functioning as a responsive, trauma-sensitive continuum of care, these services offer help based on individual circumstances when and how it's needed most.

Therapy Services provides personalized therapy to children and families based on complete assessments to determine individual needs and appropriate plans of care. Crossnore's therapists provide outpatient and school-based therapy to more than 300 children in Winston-Salem, Crossnore, and Hendersonville, including the children living in campus cottages on the Crossnore and Winston-Salem campuses.

Homebuilders Family Preservation provides in-home crisis intervention, counseling, and life skills for families whose children are at imminent risk of being removed from the home. Crossnore staff work with these families to help them learn new behaviors and make better choices for their families.

Foster Care provides a safe and stable home to children who are in the custody of the Department of Social Services by recruiting and training prospective foster parents who are then licensed by the state of North Carolina. Ongoing supervision and support is provided after placement. Families who want to adopt are first licensed as foster families and then work with the adoption team to create a forever family for children who are eligible.

Residential foster care provides on-campus cottage homes for children in foster care. Children are cared for by professional cottage parents who model healthy relationship-building and support children as they define and reach their own goals.

Bridging Families helps birth parents and their children who are in foster care nurture and grow family relationships while the children are in Crossnore's care, providing coaching and educational services to facilitate the gradual return of the children to their homes.

Youth Independent Living supports young adults who are currently in or have aged out of the foster care system by offering age-appropriate assistance to build independent and self-sufficiency as they move into adulthood.

Crossnore's Fostering Communities initiative continues to recruit churches and other community groups to serve foster children and families in their own communities. Crossnore partners with groups to create a fostering community around foster families and to help support them through training and meeting the needs of the foster parents and the children they serve.

Crossnore utilizes The Sanctuary Model®, a trauma-informed model of care, and was re-certified in the model in late spring of 2021. Crossnore is one of only six organizations nationwide that have been certified more than once by The Sanctuary Institute. Utilizing this model, children experiencing trauma have interconnected communities of support that can meet them compassionately and without judgment wherever they are in their journey. It is believed that everyone has an important role to play in fostering resilience in children, and only through collective engagement can trauma be addressed fully and with successful, lasting outcomes.

Crossnore's Center for Trauma Resilient Communities, founded in 2018, works across the nation helping organizations embed and embody the science of trauma resilience. The center uses the current science of trauma resilience and organizational development to move people from information to action.

Brett A. Loftis, J.D., Chief Executive Officer of Crossnore Communities for Children, directs an executive team of four: Angela Woods, Chief Operating Officer, Sarah Norris, Chief Program Officer, and Caroline Hart, Deputy Director and Chief External Relations Officer. Each officer leads a team of talented directors and staff who are committed to the mission of Crossnore Communities for Children. The Board of Trustees is led by Bick Cardwell, Jr., Chairperson; B. Kelly Graves, Vice-Chairperson; Traci D. Royster, Secretary; and Charles O. Izzard, Treasurer.

For nearly 113 years, Crossnore Communities for Children has worked to transform the lives of thousands of children in need of hope and healing. With three locations, professional and dedicated staff, and the support of many donors and volunteers, Crossnore Communities for children is the premier provider of children's services in Western North Carolina.

e. Givens Communities

The years 2021 and 2022 have been times of transition for Givens Communities. There have been transitions in and out of COVID-19 protocols, shutdowns, and infection control methods. It has been and remains their top priority to keep residents and team members as safe as possible throughout the pandemic. Givens has seen waves of COVID infection due to several variants, but the residents and team members in the four communities continue to work together, stay positive and remain supportive to overcome this changing new world. Although they have experienced several outbreaks in 2021 and 2022, the infections were much less harmful, and the recovery rates have greatly improved due to vaccinations and continued control procedures.

Givens has also experienced a transition in leadership with the retirement of Ken Partin in September of 2021. He served as CEO for Givens Communities and Givens Estates for 30 years, with 40 total career years at Givens. Residents of all the campuses celebrated those 40 years with Ken Partin at special events on each campus and wished him a fruitful and enjoyable retirement. With the retirement of Ken Partin, in August 2021 Kevin Schwab was hired as the new President and CEO of Givens Communities. Kevin has more than 27 years of finance, accounting, investment, and operations experience in various industries. Before joining Givens Communities, Kevin was the CEO of St. Camillus (Milwaukee, WI) since 2016 and had worked at St. Camillus for over 20 years in multiple capacities, including CFO and COO. He is a Certified Public Accountant and a licensed Nursing Home Administrator in the State of Wisconsin. Kevin earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Marquette University and a master's in business administration from the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee.

Givens continues to place an emphasis on diversity, equity, and inclusion in the workplace and in their residential living communities. In 2021 and 2022 they placed a specific focus on inclusion, and for 2022 they have a specific emphasis on gender in the workplace.

Givens Estates completed the renovation of Oxford Commons in 2021, which expanded the dining options and wellness areas of the main building on the campus. Estates also completed construction of Friendship Park phase one in late 2021 and phase two in early 2022. Friendship Park includes 80 one- and two-bedroom apartments and is a more moderately-priced offering on the campus. Full occupancy of Friendship Park should be accomplished by April 2022. In 2022, they are focused on revising the campus master plan, including health service offerings on campus, specifically the health care center and assisted living.

Givens Highland Farms has begun the planning and work for phase two of the campus master plan, which will include demolition of part of Brookside and the construction of new Brookside Commons, which will be the home of new kitchen, dining, and commons areas. The new Brookside Apartments will include 30 one- and two-bedroom apartments. Concurrently, the new Vista Ridge Apartments will be constructed to include 36 one- and two-bedroom apartments and will be connected to the new common areas, dining, and activity areas. Work began on this construction in March 2022 and will complement the newer Meadowmont and Cottage Homes, further enhancing this beautiful community.

Givens Great Laurels continues to emphasize the importance of social connections and being a community. The onsite Manna Food pantry and the access to campus nursing continues to benefit residents. This wonderful community is nearly 100% occupied with a healthy waiting list, which is a testimony to the need and demand for quality affordable housing in Western North Carolina and in Haywood County.

Givens Gerber Park is also fully occupied with a healthy waiting list, which is further evidence of the need and demand for quality affordable housing in Western North Carolina. The focus is on making this a vibrant and lively community and providing a quality of life with support services to enable residents to gracefully age in their homes. Socialization is the cornerstone of resident life with a particular emphasis on nutritious meals, addressing food insecurity, navigating a complex and complicated health system, and accessing community-based services. Residents are collaborating with staff and taking responsibility for making Gerber their home. Two meals are available each weekday in the Go To Café. The medical clinic is transforming to offer further partnerships that provide residents onsite access to primary care and other support services.

Givens LifeMinistries is a Givens faith and community-based outreach program. Givens is committed to a wellness philosophy of whole-person health, not only for their residents, but for many living beyond their campuses. Givens LifeMinistries is actively working to address health disparities of the underserved, diverse, and vulnerable populations in Western North Carolina. LifeMinistries provides access to resources and health education that empower individuals to improve their wellness and quality of life. It enables congregations to share their gifts and talents in addressing the health and other needs of these individuals through Welcome Tables (meal sites), BEAR Closets (baby equipment and resources), medical equipment loan closets, wellness education, and a community nurse program that addresses the needs of lower-income seniors.

Givens Communities continues to be an exciting organization with an abundance of opportunities for serving seniors in Western North Carolina. Givens is grateful for the opportunity to serve those in this region along with the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church. Givens remains enthusiastic about their Life Plan Communities (Givens Estates and Givens Highland Farms), their affordable housing communities (Givens Gerber Park and Givens Great Laurels), their emphasis on keeping residents independent for as long as possible, and their goal of being a responsible employer where team members are welcomed, respected, and appreciated.

Kevin Schwab, Chief Executive Officer

f. Sanctuary Counseling Group

Sanctuary Counseling Group (SCG) is an agency that provides mental health counseling to 13 unique communities in the greater Charlotte and Western Piedmont areas of North Carolina. For over 55 years, SCG therapists have been offering counseling, psychotherapy, pastoral counseling and consultation to individuals, clergy, congregations, and UMC districts in the Western and Central Piedmont areas. SCG works with a variety of issues, including depression, anxiety, stress, trauma, career counseling, abuse recovery, grief/loss, and addiction to name a few. In addition, SCG offers educational programs for congregations and church groups. SCG's Mission Statement is, "to walk with our clients as they journey towards the healing of their minds, hearts, and souls. We believe that health and healing are open to all."

SCG's 2021 statistics:

- SCG served 15 communities: Gastonia, Belmont, Harrisburg, Monroe, Pineville, South Charlotte, Center City, University City, Concord, Huntersville, Davidson, Hickory, Salisbury, Winston-Salem, and High Point.
- 7,921 hours of counseling services were provided for over 496 clients.
- 2,301 hours of service provided on a sliding scale and through the Samaritan Scholarship Fund.
- 100 percent of donations went to the Samaritan Scholarship Fund.
- Samaritan Scholarship recipients receive a discounted service rate of $90 per session; each scholarship recipient receives $900 per year for services.
- 33 percent of hours provided are at reduced rates.
- SCG put approximately $345,150 back into the communities.

All SCG therapists are licensed to conduct counseling in the state of North Carolina based on their professional affiliations, Licensed Marriage and Family Therapists, Licensed Clinical Mental Health Counselors, and Licensed Clinical Social Workers. SCG's goal is to meet people where they are on their walk without judgment or bias. Throughout life there are times that everyone needs some assistance, and SCG values the opportunity whenever someone calls for help in their despair and darkness. As a faith-based organization, SCG offers God's healing grace and hope to all regardless of their beliefs or position in life. SCG serves as an important referral source for pastors, who often do not have the time or the specialized training to work with persons in local congregations who are hurting.

Clinicians at SCG specialize in play therapy, music therapy, abuse and trauma recovery, perinatal and child loss trauma, marital therapy, adolescents and young adults, men's issues, women's issues, coaching, and addiction. While some have specialties, SCG clinicians, for the most part, are generalists who can engage most clients. SCG clinicians are understanding of the issues with which clergy struggle. SCG clinicians are routinely updated on the state of the church and the unique challenges United Methodist pastors face. The clinicians use various theoretical orientations, methodologies, tools, and techniques so that clients can reach the goals they set for themselves. This includes pastoral counseling when directed by the client.

In 2021, SCG donated approximately $345,150 back, to the various communities where they hold satellite locations, in dollars of service provided at either a reduced or no-cost basis. This was made possible by generous donations from church partners and donors who believe in SCG's mission. In addition to offering Samaritan Scholarships, SCG also accepts insurance from four different insurance carriers, including the conference plan that covers UMC pastors and their families.

The SCG website and social media sites are updated regularly with new information that pertains to the field of mental health. SCG offers a variety of original articles, blog posts, podcasts, and videos that have been created to help individuals, families, and churches with their mental health needs, including information around COVID-19. Their website can be accessed at www.sanctuarycounselinggroup.org. SCG encourages you to follow them and to post links to any content found relevant on the church's websites and social media. To learn more about the clinical services and sites, as well as to make contributions to the Samaritan Scholarship Fund to aid persons without financial means who seek mental, spiritual, or emotional assistance, visit the website or any of the social media sites.

SCG is a service center that is accredited by both the American Association of Pastoral Counselors (AAPC) and the Solihun Institute (formerly known as the Samaritan Institute).

g. UMAR Services, Inc.

As a mission and ministry, UMAR promotes community inclusion, independence, and growth for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities through residential, employment, and cultural enrichment opportunities. Providing vital services for adults with a wide range of physical, mental, and emotional disabilities; the mission easily translates into "live, work, and thrive" as UMAR transform lives. UMAR is grateful for the partnership with the Western North Carolina Conference.

Districts, Churches, and individuals welcome UMAR into their hearts, homes, and sanctuaries. While living out The Social Creed of The United Methodist Church to be committed to the rights of people with disabilities; the church body advocates, provides financial support and inclusive opportunities for spiritual development, volunteerism, essential items, and social interaction. If it were not for this support, UMAR would be unable to provide the following opportunities and quality services that families and communities rely upon:

- Live (Residential Services) – UMAR operates 19 homes, nine apartments and one duplex. Dedicated, trained staff provide residents with 24/7 support, meals, transportation, activities, and other quality of life enhancements – all while fostering independence and responsibility in a family-like setting.

- Work (Vocational Services) – UMAR helps adults with disabilities secure and maintain competitive employment with skills assessment, job coaching, placement, training, and support for as long as the individual is employed.
- Thrive (Art/Day programs) – UMAR Day Programs focus on art, social, and independent living skills. Because vocational services are not appropriate for everyone, day services ensure meaningful activities that foster learning and growth. With Art centers located in Charlotte, Lincolnton, and Reidsville, community partnerships inspire a variety of art forms such as painting, pottery, culinary, and horticulture. Artists earn a 40 percent commission for every piece sold.
- Community Services – Across 11 cities across nine counties UMAR provides individualized or group activities to increase or maintain life skills, self-determination, self-care, and participation in the community. Supports can include community networking, supported living in their own residence, crisis services, respite for family caregivers, and supported employment.

As an outreach ministry, congregations can be engaged in the work of UMAR through hands-on mission activities, donations, and volunteering with participants. For more information on programs or to get involved visit UMARinfo.com.

Because of the ongoing pandemic, 2021 has proven to be a challenging year. During the federal-declared Public Health Emergency, the health, wellness, and safety of the adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities that UMAR serves as well as their caregivers and families have continued to be the top priority. Staff shortages have become the norm throughout all healthcare fields and UMAR has strived to maintain a high quality of care with fewer staff members and a higher-than-normal turnover rate. Residents have been able to return to limited activities in the art centers and community-based services have expanded to meet the needs of individuals within their own homes. This year also saw mandated changes for managed care organizations as part of the state Medicaid overhaul that has created problems in billing and reimbursement for services at the approved provider level. Numerous infectious disease procedures and protocols continued to be in place to prevent, mitigate, and fight the spread of the virus with the organization pivoting to accommodate mandates and suggested protocols. Focus for the year quickly pivoted from helping individuals grow and thrive to also ensuring they had continuity of care and services.

UMAR's inability to host in-person fundraising events has resulted in fewer donations and a loss of expected revenue as well as the need to expand partnerships and host alternative events. A new arts festival has been planned for April 9th in place of a cancelled luncheon in Winston Salem as well as numerous additional marketing strategies to bolster donor support.

- UMAR served 256 individuals and their families.
- With the three arts centers in Charlotte, Reidsville, and Lincolnton closed for a time period at the beginning of the year, arts and day program services were provided in the home to 135 individuals. The art centers have served 100 participants since reopening this year.
- 36 percent of UMAR residents received financial assistance through donations.
- The average cost of living in a UMAR home is $46,745.
- 97 percent of all donations directly funded UMAR programs and services.
- UMAR's public policy consultant and advocate has continued to lobby state legislators on behalf of all individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families.
- UMAR received a three-year CARF accreditation this year demonstrating a substantial conformance to CARF standards and a dedication to integrating the homes seamlessly into their communities and reflect the preferences and interests of the persons served who reside there.

Focus Areas for 2022:

- Continue performance improvements in care delivery that embody UMAR's mission while meeting the needs and dreams of UMAR participants.
- Invest in technologies that enhance workforce resourcing and productivity, as well as improve outcomes of the people UMAR supports.
- Implement organizational strategy to reduce annual operational deficit, improve financial strength, and sustainability.
- Increase organizational awareness and image throughout Western North Carolina.
- Advocate and lobby state legislators for appropriations and policy changes benefitting the people UMAR serves.
- Adjusting recruitment strategies and worker compensations to allow for the retention of valuable staff members during this time unprecedented time of healthcare worker shortages.

Proposal: Trustees of UMAR Services, Inc.

(Petition 11) Approved June 17, 2022

It is proposed the following be elected as members of the Board of Trustees of UMAR Services, Inc.:

Class of 2022/23

Billy Morton, Leslie Marsicano, Parks Hunter, Max Daniel, Morry Johnston, Gil Middlebrooks, Archie Pertiller, Theresa Hall, Ray Breazeale, Reeves Davis

2. BROTHERHOOD/SISTERHOOD OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA

The Brotherhood/Sisterhood, an Affiliate Ministry of the WNCC, was organized jointly by clergy and laity in 1893 to provide collegial support and immediate financial assistance to the families of clergy members when they die. Ideally, the benefit is personally delivered within a day or two of a reported death. Twenty-two families received this support from July 2021 through April 2022.

The BH/SH is funded entirely by clergy member assessments ($15.00 per death), laity contributions, investment income, and other gifts. When a death occurs, members are encouraged to respond as soon as possible with checks mailed directly to the office in Belmont or with online payments. Heartfelt appreciation is extended to the laity who are directly involved with the BH/SH and to all others supporting this ministry individually or through their churches, Sunday school classes, the UMW, and the UMM. Annually, Brotherhood/Sisterhood Sunday is approved for emphasis in the local churches.

Beneficiary membership is open to elders, deacons, associate members, and local pastors in good standing with the conference. Those thirty-five years of age or older when joining compensate the BH/SH for assessments issued since their thirty-fifth birthday. A permanent note may be signed to cover part or all of this amount.

The election of the Board of Directors and its officers, the approval of the annual operating budget, the death benefit, assessment rates, and other business matters take place during annual conference at the BH/SH's Annual Meeting. This year, the board will propose changes to the Constitution and Bylaws to assure that members who are and remain in good standing with the annual conference and other Methodist churches recognized by the World Methodist Council will continue to be able to be served in future years. The time and place of the annual meeting will be listed on the Special Events Calendar. Members will be informed if attending the annual meeting via Zoom is an option.

Everyone is invited to visit the BH/SH tent outside Stuart Auditorium and the website at brotherhoodsisterhood.com for more information.

The 2021-2022 Board of Directors:

Class of 2022: Kari L Howard, Sarah B Kalish, David J Lee, Jeremiah P Pegram

Class of 2023: W Mark Andrews, Oliver W Helsabeck, J Burton Williams

Class of 2024: H Donnell FitzJefferies, Barbara B Mayo, Edward D McKinney, Susan H Scales

Class of 2025: Mary W Brown, Alphonza Everett, Rodvegas M Ingram Sr., James K Sanders

3. THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

The Duke Endowment was formed in December of 1924 by the industrialist and philanthropist James B. Duke, who famously said that if it were not for his father and the Methodist Church, he would not have amounted to anything. When forming his endowment, Mr. Duke named four areas of focus: higher education, health care, child welfare, and rural Methodist churches in North Carolina. For almost 98 years, the endowment has engaged with rural churches to strengthen ministries across the conference and state. Formed by the grace and love of God, and led by the Spirit, rural churches understand what it means to "love their neighbors."

In 2021, the Rural Church program area of the endowment awarded 21 new grants totaling nearly $12 million. Other highlights of its work are:

1. Endeavoring to cultivate and support clergy for leadership in rural United Methodist churches in North Carolina through several initiatives, including:
 - The Clergy Health Initiative (CHI), begun in 2007 and based at Duke Divinity School, advises and informs the conferences, the denomination, and others on issues of clergy wellness. Most recently, The Spirited Life: Selah program of the CHI served about 300 clergy across the state with stress management interventions that were simultaneously tested for effectiveness among the population. The endowment is pleased that the practices, which are primarily spiritual, measurably reduced stress and anxiety symptoms among the pastors in the program, and it is now working with CHI staff and leaders of both the WNCC and the NCC on a Clergy Wellbeing Council that will plan how to offer the most effective programs to more United Methodist clergy in North Carolina.
 - The Thriving Rural Communities Initiative (TRCI) is a collaborative effort among the endowment, the two conferences, and Duke Divinity School. The program forms and networks strong pastors, dubbed "Rural Fellows," for service to rural congregations. This year, Steve Bergkamp, Jason Boggs, Noah Glover, Michèle Hill, Mike Sciascia, Hannah Smith, and Hanna Stamey are graduating from Duke Divinity School as Rural Fellows and beginning their ministry under appointment in the WNCC.
 - The Hispanic House of Studies at Duke Divinity School develops pastoral and congregational capacity for engagement with Latino populations, one of the fastest-growing demographic groups in the state.
 - The Ormond Center, also based at Duke Divinity, has been relaunched and seeks to contribute scholarship, training and leadership on building thriving communities. Read more at www.ormondcenter.com.
2. The endowment is working with both conferences on efforts to support congregations in long-term planning, including helping churches to discern their most faithful and fruitful futures. A partner in this work is Wesley Community Development Corporation, and the endowment celebrates the unique redevelopment programs that have been accomplished so far.

3. The endowment also seeks to build the capacity of United Methodist churches to work with other organizations in addressing community-wide issues at their roots. This happens primarily through system-level grants to nonprofit agencies that are experts in issue areas and whose staffmembers coach congregations to enhance their mission. With an intentional move away from building and construction grants, the endowment now seeks to create the conditions for congregations to thrive and to impact their communities in new and vital ways through grants that support multiple churches engaging in creative ministry. If a church is interested in deepening its work in food system engagement (including all food ministries), community or economic development, or strategic planning for community engagement, check the endowment website for a resource containing details of the supported programs and contact information for the lead staff in the section entitled “Building Congregations’ Capacity to Engage with Community.”
4. Finally, the endowment is identifying and testing selected program models for high-impact community-focused ministry for the 0-8 population in North Carolina. Currently the focus of this work is the Summer Literacy Initiative, which resources 20 congregations (currently 12 in the Western North Carolina Conference) to offer early elementary students summer reading camps that adhere to a set of six guiding principles and two core values. More information can be found at the website in the section entitled “Helping Early Readers Avoid Summer Learning Loss.”

More information about endowment efforts may also be found at the website: www.dukeendowment.org/our-work/rural-church.

4. THE EUGENE M. COLE FOUNDATION

The Cole Foundation was established by the will of Eugene M. Cole in 1944 to provide benefits for retired ministers and surviving spouses for the Western North Carolina Conference. In 2021, the foundation directed monthly payments to the conference treasurer to supplement the cost of health care benefits to retired ministers and spouses.

The foundation is governed by trustees elected by the annual conference: Anthony Orsbon, and Rebecca Douglas.

Anthony Orsbon, Trustee

Proposal: Trustees of Cole Foundation

(Petition 12) Approved June 17, 2022

The Trustees of the Eugene M. Cole Foundation propose that Anthony Orsbon and Rebecca Douglas be re-elected to continue to serve as trustees.

5. WNCC FAITH FORMATION COMMUNITY

The WNCC Faith Formation Community is for laity and clergy, full-time and part-time, professionals and volunteers, and anyone who participates in any form of Christian Education, Youth Ministry, Children’s Ministry, Adult Education, and areas of faith formation. The board continues the process of re-visioning the purpose of how educational opportunities are offered. The group looks forward to planning workshops, gatherings, and retreats in the future. To learn more about the WNCC Faith Formation Community join the WNCC Christians Engaged in Faith Formation page on Facebook or go to www.wnccumc.org/CEF for more information; or email the board at wncc.cef.membership@gmail.com if you would like to be a part of the group or have ideas that you want to share.

Edward Ramsey, President

6. HINTON RURAL LIFE CENTER

In 2021, Hinton Rural Life Center celebrated 60 years of serving annual conferences in the Southeastern Jurisdiction through equipping clergy and local churches (particularly small, rural churches) and offering opportunities for individuals and church groups to serve in Safe and Healthy Home Repair missions and/or come for retreats and renewal time, experiencing God’s presence and blessing at our 33-acre campus in the Appalachian mountains. (Check out Embracing Our Roots and Sharing the Fruits videos at www.hintoncenter.org/about-us to learn about Hinton’s beginnings and the impact of our ministries.) The anniversary celebration provided a year-long opportunity to reflect on the many ways that Hinton, the local community, and generations of United Methodist clergy, retreat groups, and mission teams have experienced God’s faithfulness, and continues to experience today!

With the support of local volunteers and mission teams, as well as generous support from individual, organizational, and United Methodist churches (Board of Global Ministries Advance Project #731372), Hinton was able to offer relational and impactful ministries. Highlights of 2021 include:

- Completed 123 home repair projects on 25 different homes and 4 nonprofits in our area, prioritizing and addressing the health and safety of homeowners.
- Hosted over 400 mission participants.
- Installed vegetable gardens for homeowners to support their nutritional well-being.
- Provided over 570 loads of firewood to over 480 families/individuals, who heat primarily with wood.
- Premiered the House on Wheels (HOW) mobile teaching unit to promote home safety awareness and practices in the local community and with the volunteers.
- Provided local and missional leadership training for more than 35 adults and young people.
- Provided over 300 children with new clothes at Christmas through Christmas Care.
- Began installation and enhancements of trails and Sanctuary Gardens on the campus for individuals and groups to experience rest and renewal for mind, body, and soul.

Another exciting highlight was the planning and promotion of Theotokos Confirmation Retreats, which launched in March of 2022. All four weekends filled, with groups from North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and Tennessee. Content focus is on the vows of membership (prayers, presence, gifts, service, witness), biblical stories of call, and services of baptism renewal and Holy Communion. Hinton also developed and now offers a digital confirmation resource, Theotokos Connections, designed to be small-church relevant and accessible, but available for any size church.

7. LAKE JUNALUSKA ASSEMBLY, INC.

In 2021, Lake Junaluska Assembly (LJA) continued to live into its mission to be a place of Christian hospitality where lives are transformed through renewal of soul, mind, and body. As LJA began to emerge from the economic disaster caused by the pandemic in 2020, it resumed hosting events and provided hospitality for individuals from all across the U.S.

In January 2021, LJA learned that the World Methodist Council (WMC) had decided to move its museum and sell its two properties at Lake Junaluska. This was a surprise. One of the properties was the museum, which housed an extensive collection of important artifacts to the Methodist heritage. This building had been a gift to the WMC by the Lake Junaluska community in 1955. The other property was the Reynolds World Headquarters Building. The exterior of this structure is a replica of the rectory at Epworth England where John Wesley was born. It had been gifted to the WMC by Royce and Jayne Reynolds. After several months of discussion with the WMC, LJA was able to reacquire these buildings for $1.25 million. Plans for the renovation of the former museum building are currently in development.

People began to return to the conference center in May when N.C. Governor Roy Cooper removed restrictions related to the COVID-19 pandemic. Leisure travel did not make up for what was lost from groups, however, lodging revenue numbers were closer to what they were two years ago before the pandemic. People came seeking outdoor venues and authentic experiences. It was wonderful seeing families experience renewal on the grounds again! More canoes, paddleboards, and kayaks were rented than ever before. Leisure travel revenue plus the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loans have put LJA in a good financial situation.

LJA did not escape the impact of the nationwide hospitality industry staffing shortage. It was a bumpy road at times, but the organization was able to do more with less staff. Before the pandemic, the staffing level was 275 or more employees in the summer season and 190 in the winter. During 2020 the staff level dropped to fewer than 100 employees. Throughout 2021 staff was rehired and, in August, the level was at 217 employees.

In August, Haywood County experienced a devastating flood as a result of Hurricane Fred. Anticipating the storm, LJA was in conversation with county officials and extended its facilities to all in need. Swift-water rescue crews arrived as rain was still falling. LJA provided the first responders with lodging and meals. Prayer ministry leaders and members of the community prayed over every seat before each meal. The impact was phenomenal. The LJA staff and community provided a sanctuary for the rescue workers while they helped those directly impacted by the storm. LJA also partnered with Haywood County Department of Social Services to provide emergency shelter to residents who lost their homes as a result of the storm. The last of those residents moved out of temporary housing in December.

LJA experienced a significant financial transition in 2021 as it began to emerge from the impacts of the pandemic. The organization finished the year with a surplus of $538,458 in the general budget and $371,254 in the Assembly Public Works budget. The general budget surplus was made possible by the hard work of the staff in reopening the organization, $741,203 in unrestricted charitable support, and the forgiveness of the 2021 PPP loan received in February.

Looking toward the future, the board of trustees has adopted the following guiding aspirations:

- Aspiration 1: To preserve and enhance the lake and grounds so that more people will recognize the natural beauty of God's creation.
- Aspiration 2: To be a conference center that rivals hospitality industry leaders by exceeding guests' expectations through excellence in staff and facilities.
- Aspiration 3: To be the place that connects more youth to Christ through meaningful ministry, recreation, and education programs.
- Aspiration 4: To identify, uphold, and strengthen the Lake Junaluska tradition of implementing innovative, shared experiences – for both individuals and families – that celebrate faith, recreation, the arts, and education.
- Aspiration 5: To be an involved, inclusive community that provides the highest quality of life for residents and guests.

LJA appreciates input into the creation of these aspirations and for the continued support as it lives into God's purpose for this special place.

The leadership and staff invite everyone to visit Lake Junaluska for a conference, retreat, or vacation. The lake and surrounding mountains will provide the perfect setting for you to experience transformation and renewal. To plan a visit, please visit lakejunaluska.com.

Ken Howle, Executive Director

8. THE NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

With 18 denominations representing over 6,200 congregations in North Carolina, the council provides incarnational evidence of Christian unity. By creating unity without expecting uniformity, member bodies collaborate on matters that contribute to the flourishing of God's creation. The council is grateful to the Western North Carolina Conference for their support and for the leadership on the governing board provided by the Rev. Amelia Stinson-Wesley, Memorial UMC, Charlotte, NC, and Ms. Renee Hayes, Trinity UMC, Trinity, NC. Individual congregations are invited to unite more closely with the work of the council by becoming Covenant Partners. For more information about this opportunity, please contact info@ncchurches.org.

Currently, the priority areas include:

- Reparations to Restoration: A Call to Action. Grounded in the Christian principle of confession, repentance, and reconciliation, the council hopes to recast the reparations conversation through the lens of Christian restoration. By focusing on restoration, left behind is the language of debtors and creditors, victims and perpetrators, givers and takers. The move to a place of restoration begins by acknowledging the reconciling work that begins with God. Representatives from 10 of the council's member denominations, including The United Methodist Church, are compiling an eight-session resource to help dismantle oppressive systems. Like the Old Testament prophets, they offer this truth as a lament that calls everyone to admit the truth—confess—and turn away from this behavior—repent—leading to the Christian call to restore that which has been lost by those harmed by these systems. For more information, contact info@ncchurches.org.
- The NC Interfaith Power & Light (NCIPL) work has expanded to become the Eco-Justice Connection (EJC). This larger program scope is a multi-faith approach focused on environmental and climate justice by building and supporting local community resilience. The work of NCIPL will continue to focus on energy democracy and climate policy. Its purpose is to educate, inspire, and mobilize people of faith and conscience in this state to act on climate change as a moral imperative. For more information, contact susannah@ncipl.org.
- Partners in Health and Wholeness (PHW) bridges issues of faith, health, and justice. The work focuses on four critical areas: the overdose crisis, healthy aging, HIV, and mental health, while continuing to support the tenets of basic health through a focus on nutrition, physical activity, and tobacco use/vaping cessation. Educational events, state and local resource connections, and mini-grants are used to support the health initiatives of faith communities across the state. To assist with COVID-19 vaccinations, it facilitates partnerships between the NC Department of Health and Human Services and faith communities, with an emphasis on rural and marginalized areas to aid in the equitable distribution of the COVID-19 vaccines. In the spring of 2022, PHW began offering grants to BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, and People of Color) centered faith communities to address mental health needs made worse by the pandemic. For more information, contact phwinfo@ncchurches.org.
- The Opioid Crisis, the Faith Community Responds educates faith leaders about compassionate responses to the growing overdose crisis and offers ways for congregations to become involved by connecting them to resources in their communities, such as a harm reductionist. If interested in hosting an event or to learn more about this project, contact elizabeth@ncchurches.org.
- Capital Punishment Abolishment: Working with the NC Coalition for Alternatives to the Death Penalty, resources for congregations and individuals across the state are provided to amplify the voices of people of faith who are speaking out against capital punishment. While there have been no executions in NC since 2006, several district attorneys continue to pursue the death penalty and 133 people remain on NC's death row. The council is committed to joining the 23 states that have abolished this racist and sinful practice.

Over the course of this year, the governing board approved the following policy statements. It crafted these statements in keeping with its interpretation of the prophetic witness of the Old Testament and the gospel message of the New Testament. The full text for each statement is available on the website (www.ncchurches.com), in addition to statements from previous years.

- Statement on Removing Confederate Symbols Where Justice Is Sought (January 26, 2021)
- Statement on George Floyd Murder Trial Verdict (April 21, 2021)
- Statement Condemning Violence Against our Jewish Neighbors (January 24, 2022)

Currently, other areas of emphasis include living wage promotion, criminal justice reform, Confederate monument removal from courthouse lawns, gun violence prevention, Medicaid expansion, and redistricting reform. Resources are available online, and staff is available to help congregations address any of the myriad concerns that arise in contemporary settings. For answers to questions or more information, please contact info@ncchurches.org, or call the office at 919-828-6501.

Denominational members of the council include Alliance of Baptists · African Methodist Episcopal Church · African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church · Christian Methodist Episcopal · Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) · Episcopal Church · Evangelical Lutheran Church in America · General Baptist State Convention · Metropolitan Community Churches · Mennonite Church USA · Moravian Church in America · Presbyterian Church (USA) · Reformed Church in America · Reformed Churches of God in Christ, International · Religious Society of Friends · United Church of Christ · Unity Fellowship Church Movement · United Methodist Church.

10. UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

The Foundation reached an all-time high of $332 million in total assets in 2021, an achievement that reflects the trust and faithfulness of ministry partners as the organization enters its 55th year in the Western North Carolina Conference. Managed investment funds delivered strong returns across the board, highlighted by the Diversified Fund's year-end return of 14.6 percent. Returns like this generate more resources for mission, scholarships, care programs and other vital forms of ministry.

In a year filled with uncertainty, the Foundation sought to provide forward-thinking leadership to help partners adapt to changing circumstances. For all its challenges, the pandemic presented an opportunity to move beyond traditional methods and try new things in an environment that lends itself to innovation.

A webinar series for clergy and laity called Transformational Generosity explored ways to adapt to virtual worship and incorporate technology into a culture of year-round giving in the local church. The series was offered in partnership with Dr. Bill White, Director of Equity and Justice Ministries for the Western North Carolina Conference.

Reynolds Academy for Ministry Management held two sessions for alumni on "Managing Ministry During Covid-19," providing opportunities for clergy to share open, honest discussion about challenges stemming from the pandemic, the climate of social unrest and also divisions in The United Methodist Church.

The Foundation introduced an online giving portal that makes it easier for people to give directly to permanently restricted endowments (typically established in honor of individuals and families) as well as church-owned funds invested with the Foundation. Donors can now make gifts without having to write a check or mail a letter.

The organization's staffing model evolved to keep pace with shifting needs and opportunities. In April, Matt Garfield joined the team in a new communications role to use the power of storytelling to engage and inform audiences. Two weeks later, Andrea Gutierrez joined the financial services team as staff accountant, a role dedicated to serving the needs of clients. In December, Amanda Goedert came on board as executive support specialist. Two staff members departed in 2021: Suzanne Atkins, executive assistant, and Layne Smith, associate director of Reynolds Ministries and Programs, left to pursue other ways to use their gifts. With these changes and additions, the team is well positioned to serve partners in and beyond the Western NC Conference.

Here is a look at other ministries of special note:

- Reynolds Ministry Fund distributed approximately $500,000 in grants to fuel endeavors that invite people into a relationship with Jesus Christ. From meal deliveries to after-school tutoring and child enrichment programs, Reynolds-supported initiatives are at work in communities across the conference.
- UMF Development Fund and Loan Program ended the year with $19 million in deposits and $13 million in loans outstanding.
- UMHEF Quadruple Your Dollars for Scholars provided $31,000 in scholarships for 31 United Methodist students who aspire to make a positive difference in the world.
- A $75,000 contribution supported the Conference's Comprehensive Plan of Equity, the fourth year of giving for this purpose.

The foundation mourned the loss of honorary board member, Rev. Dr. Harley Dickson, who passed away August 19 at age 92. After a distinguished career as a local church pastor and district superintendent, Harley's last full-time appointment ended in 1997 as the Executive Director of the Foundation. Always committed to the ministry of the foundation, he returned in an interim capacity in September 2001 until the arrival of David Snipes in February 2002. Harley was instrumental in the late 1990s in bringing "The Reynolds Foundation" under the foundation umbrella and in creating the highly regarded Reynolds Leadership Academy for Evangelism & Discipleship. The board and staff owe Harley a great deal of gratitude for his many years of faithful service.

The ministries described above are but a snapshot of the foundation's landscape of offerings. To learn more, please visit online at UMFWNC.org or stop by the foundation ministry tent.

The foundation remains committed to the work of building the church for generations to come.

11. WESLEY COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

The past year has been one of growth for Wesley Community Development. Wesley CD continues to manage property, including the conference center, for the Western North Carolina Conference, and now also manages on a limited basis for the North Carolina Conference. Brokerage in both conferences has increased with Wesley approaching $10 million in annual transactions across the state. Development has increased with many projects in various stages of design and development. To meet this need Wesley has recently grown to eight staff members, bringing deeper experience and talent to the team. Wesley is proud to welcome these new team members as it celebrates its 20th anniversary in 2022.

Wesley is pleased to be a partner with churches as they work to reposition their campuses. The redevelopment at Smith Grove UMC has been completed and the church is back in their new sanctuary, following years away after a fire. First Newton UMC is in the final stages in the redevelopment of its sanctuary and the creation of a large new welcome space created within the existing building. At Lake Junaluska, Wesley worked with the Foundation for Evangelism to redevelop and lease their existing building, creating an income-generating, multi-tenant building. Wesley assisted St Francis in the creation of a ground lease relationship with a new charter school that will be beneficial to both for years to come. In both Wilmington (Trinity UMC) and Asheville (Biltmore UMC) the journey has led to the sale of property to reposition these churches for new and revitalized ministry.

2022 brings a number of new developments coming online. Mineral Springs Commons, a 73-unit senior affordable housing project, will break ground in mid-March. This project is possible only with the support of the Conference Board of Trustees, who continues to be a leader in how church property can be utilized to serve the community. The demolition of the former Selywn UMC is completed in advance of the redevelopment on the site. The proceeds from that work will go towards a redevelopment of the former Grace UMC, now home to the combined church, Woodlawn Community Fellowship. Final designs are underway for phase one of Lydia's Place, a new women and children shelter being developed in the former Calvary UMC buildings in Asheboro. Active conversations with churches preparing to reposition their campuses for more impactful and sustainable ministry are creating an exciting horizon for the coming year.

Wesley was recently informed that Prosperity Ridge Apartments, developed and opened in 2021, has been awarded the CAHEC Award for Development of the Year. This represents the fourth such award in Wesley's history. Wesley has also been working with 14 other conferences across the country as they explore how to create a similar entity within their organizations.

The team at Wesley Community Development is excited for all that the coming year will bring and the innovation that will arise from a transitional time within the church.

a.2. Bennett College for Women Chaplain's Report

The Chaplain's Office encourages spiritual inquiry and development through in-person and virtual opportunities that foster reflection and self-discovery while promoting a sense of belonging that seeks to strengthen bonds of sisterhood and community. Since reopening our campus to in-person residential living and hybrid instruction, most of our activities have taken place in the virtual format.

1. A Peaceful Pause: 20 Minutes for Meditation ~ Affirmation ~ Prayer. This weekly series offers our community an opportunity to break from the day's routine to experience quietness, a breath of different air, and moments to recharge before resuming their responsibilities. Topics included "The Appreciation of Beauty," "Seasons of Your Spiritual Journey," "I Am Enough and Other Affirmations," "Taming Your Emotions," and "The Discipline of Stillness."
2. A Word In Season: A series of timely and relevant reflections that connect our campus with the concerns and issues facing our community and the world. A reflection, "The Value of a Woman's Voice," was part of a collaboration with College Archivist Jocelyn Caldera and Andrena Coleman. This event celebrated notable guests of Bennett College.
https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/1V835oY7YaeFmhwql4jSdNQbiYb2xAzQ6FCORFLAc_-A/edit?
3. Wednesday in the Word Bible Study: Our studies engaged the topics related to critically thinking about life in the world beyond Bennett College. As we continued to operate within the constraints of COVID-19 and its impact on the holistic development of our students, we also shared lessons entitled "Purpose and Fear," "Being Fearless and Free," and "What It Means to be Chosen by and Grounded in God."
4. U.M.W. Book Study: Members of the Bennett College community joined the Northern Piedmont U.M.W. in a book study, We Are All Fast-Food Workers Now: The Global Uprising Against Poverty Wages by Annelise Orleck, a two-session conversation. The study examined the topics at hand primarily through stories of real workers. This analysis sought to balance realism and ambition to address serious, urgent issues and celebrate progress, and provided hope for real change. The topics discussed were poverty wages in the U.S. and globally, fast fashion, and agricultural work. The study leader was Lily Pierce, who serves as Communications Coordinator for the Northern District of United Methodist Women.
5. Mindful Moments: Consideration, Inspiration, and Application through a Quote, a Question, and a Comment. Example: Quote: "WE WEAR MASKS: We hide in the margins, disappearing in plain sight; we hide amid our networks, seeking to find our voice; we hide surrounded by possessions, desiring to be valued; we hide behind our accomplishments, hoping to be seen; and we hide within acts of service, longing to be touched." Question: What treasures remain hidden behind our masks? Comment: You may journal privately, post a comment on the Bennett App, or share confidentially: nmclean@bennett.edu.
6. Academic Cultural Enrichment Series (A.C.E.S.): "The goal of ACES is to enrich students' lives and the lives of the campus community. Students have the opportunity to enhance their cultural, social, intellectual, and spiritual development through A.C.E.S.

When Bennett College was co-ed, it was felt that graduates needed more than book learning and intellectual discourse to be successful. Our graduates needed to be well-rounded; the whole person required preparation to deal with the ever-changing world."

Highlighted programs: The Entrepreneurial Belle panel with alumnae and current students entrepreneurs and Fair; Black Women and Climate Change with featured speaker La'Meshia Kaminski Deputy Director for Advance Carolina and the NC Black Alliance Campaign Director; Cryptocurrency and Investing Apps moderated by Society for Financial Education and Professional Development Ambassador Zauria Murphy,'22; YOUiversity Drive Career Preparedness; Kay Yow Empowerment Tour; and Super Heroes of the Civil Right Movement that welcomed the voices of Bennett women who were involved in the planning and execution of the sit-ins in Greensboro, NC that led to desegregated facilities in the community and sparked change in our nation.

7. Church and Entrepreneurship: This course is structured to enhance student leadership skills and critical thinking; assess values and develop a personal mission statement as a guiding principle. These tools are designed to support student self-discovery, encourage discernment of the call to service, and generate a plan with the potential to influence campus, the church, and the community. Church and Entrepreneurship can encourage spiritual exploration and growth. Additionally, the course content will serve as a bridge between the theoretical and practical aspects of ministry. The goal was for students to identify an unmet need on campus or within the local or universal church. The course content also considered how toxic charity impacts the service they sought to provide.
8. The Well Belle Initiative seeks to address the Eight Pillars of Wellness. As a member of the Wellness Committee, we diligently work on keeping our students and employees safe and healthy while being surrounded by a COVID environment. The commitment of the students, faculty, staff, and administration to the adherence to our Campus Protocol Policy is that our campus does not experience many of the challenges that other institutions have. The Pillars include a comprehensive approach to wellness: physical, social, emotional, intellectual, spiritual, professional, financial, and environmental.

The Office of the Chaplain constantly strives to emphasize the acquisition of moral and spiritual principles and promote faith development. We are committed to helping today's young woman answer the questions of life: "Who am I, and what does it mean to be in the world?" Partnering with faculty, staff, community churches, other college communities, and other agencies beyond the local church, Bennett seeks to encourage a new generation of gifted young women to cultivate academic, social, and leadership skills and spiritual gifts. Our goal is to promote interaction with the local faith community to ensure a safe and supportive environment where students can express and nurture their faith.

b.2. Brevard College Chaplain's Report

Brevard College is a four-year, experiential liberal arts college founded in 1853, and is the oldest college in Western North Carolina. The college is home to students from 30 states and eight foreign countries. Brevard College's mission states, "Brevard College is committed to an experiential liberal arts education that encourages personal growth and inspires artistic, intellectual, and social action."

At Brevard College, education is much more than memorizing answers on a test. Faculty connect knowledge to direct experience, purposefully and intentionally. This experiential teaching and learning philosophy, led by expert faculty in small classrooms, develop students' ability to think, work in groups, reflect upon what they have learned, and then apply their knowledge to real world problems. Faculty cultivate marketable skills such as collaboration, problem solving, teamwork, and conflict resolution, to name a few. Students graduate Brevard College with more than a transcript and diploma. They graduate with an experiential resume' full of undergraduate research they have conducted, real-world problems they have addressed, and in-class projects they have completed.

Brevard College is affordable. Students from North Carolina receive a Half-Tuition Scholarship when they receive offers of admission. Brevard has 17 NCAA DIII sports teams and three non-NCAA teams including competitive cheerleading, rock climbing, and cycling.

Several people committed themselves to expand spiritual and religious life at Brevard College this year. Despite a continued global health pandemic, the Office of Spiritual and Religious Life offered in-person and virtual engagement opportunities. In-person opportunities were a huge success. Brevard's community has not gathered in person due to COVID-19 for nearly two years. Five themes continued to be pertinent to ministry at Brevard College.

Ministry at Brevard College is needed. As stated in years past, ministry at Brevard College was imperative. The College Minister reported an increased number of individuals requesting counseling, prayer, and opportunities to gather in person and virtually. Responding to personal challenges from the campus grew significantly. Ministry at Brevard College continued to provide mentorship for seminary interns and undergraduate students interested in ministry as a profession.

In-person and virtual ministry at Brevard College grew. The campus was happy to pursue opportunities to gather together physically. There were multiple in-person meetings, events, study sessions, and counseling sessions. Responsibly sharing space in person was a gift. Using virtual meetings platforms continued to be viable for ministry at the College. Providing people with the option to meet virtually or in-person helped the passion for being present with people expand.

Ministry was multifaceted. People prayed during athletic events, studied as groups, created student ministries, visited places of worship, mentored people interested in clergy leadership, and offered service-learning projects. There were multiple participants expanding ministry at Brevard College. It was amazing to watch students pursue opportunities to learn, discover, and witness while living into different denominational identities.

Ministry was educational. Central to religious and spiritual life at Brevard College, student leaders and the college minister taught classes and invited people to attend many activities. The college minister spoke at more than 35 venues over the year.

Ministry was powerful. Brevard College remained a special place for ministry. The negative effect of COVID-19 on college ministry was not the prevailing narrative of the year. It was God's presence and grace with this ministry and the people who call Brevard College home.

Religious and spiritual life at Brevard College remained excited about what it experienced throughout the year. Without a doubt, the best stands in front of us.

Sharad Creasman, College Minister

c.2. Greensboro College Chaplain's Report

This past academic year has been marked by continued pandemic and deep discussions of equity and anti-racism. Greensboro College has held classes online and in person with strict safety protocols this academic year. They have managed to maintain a relatively safe campus while seeking to provide students with the fullest experience of college life. Just after Spring break they moved to "masks optional" in all areas of campus including classrooms. Along with community safety, they have also continued discussions about the influence and effects of racism on the institution. They have committed to this work through a new Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Office and Religious Life.

The Religious Life office continues to support the spiritual life and faith development of students, faculty, and staff. Central to the life of the college is a weekly chapel service on Thursdays led by students, with music provided by the chapel band and gospel choir. This year the weekly chapel service has been in-person and streamed online on YouTube. A Sunday night worship service for college students is also provided in conjunction with the Wesley-Luther Ministry at UNCG.

A variety of student small groups and Bible studies have also been offered in person this year. A weekly Zoom book study is also offered for faculty and staff. This year's selections were works by Amy Jill-Levine and a book on the life of trees.

Religious Life also offers an internship program to help students discern their call to ministry in a practical setting. They were also fortunate this year to have an intern working in the Chaplain's office from Wake Forest Divinity School. The intern is an alumnus of the college and has worked to support students in person. He has helped lead small groups, talk with students about discernment, and preach at worship services.

The Religious Life office also provides service opportunities. One such service opportunity occurred over Spring break when students explored Greensboro's history and served daily in local nonprofits. This experience was supported through a grant from the Northern Piedmont District. They also worked closely with the Spartan Open Pantry at UNCG that is housed at College Place UMC. They collect food and items that college students might need. Students in need can receive food and meals at the pantry.

Greensboro College realigned tuition in 2019 in order to make it affordable and accessible to more students. They are also adding new programs and concentrations this coming year such as Business Analytics, Gaming and Interactive media, and a new Bachelor of Fine Arts in theatre. Although the pandemic had a negative impact upon enrollment, they are thankful students have returned to campus and anticipate the new programs will attract more students to be part of the long legacy of Greensboro College alumni. Greensboro College continues to be a place where people join together in "knowledge and vital piety," through classes, chapel services, lectures, and community service events so that students might be faithful and informed citizens of the world.

d.2. High Point University Chaplain's Report

Mission of Hayworth Chapel and Religious Life Office

Hayworth Chapel and the Religious Life Office (aka "The Chapel") of High Point University seeks to grow the heart and soul of High Point University. Its ambition is that all members of the HPU community experience they are beloved. As much as possible, every person will:

- Experience they Belong.
- Become who they are called to be.
- Behold the presence of God's grace.

Fostered by its Christian tradition, The Chapel exists to deepen High Point University's Christian character and practice, which also means being a place of radical hospitality to people of all traditions. In this way, HPU is Christian by tradition (and committed to that tradition) and interfaith in outlook, modeling inter-religious understanding and cooperation.

Recent Highlights

- Organizational Structure Changes. As of June 2021, Hayworth Chapel and Religious Life Office has moved out from under the Office of Student Life to be a stand-alone office. The Minister of the University (Preston Davis) now reports to the Vice President for Operations and Community Relations.
- ABC Christmas Eve Special. High Point University produced a Christmas Eve worship service that was aired on ABC. This worship service featured the preaching of Rev. Dr. Michael Brown, the music of High Point University Chamber Singers (led by Dr. Marc Foster, Music Director of Jamestown UMC), and local clergy, students, and staff reading scripture and poetry.
- Fall Family Weekend. Dr. John Maxwell was the featured preacher for the fall family weekend worship service with 1,500 people in attendance. The HPU Chapel Choir led the music, with a variety of special musical guests.
- Weekly Chapel. Weekly Chapel came back to in-person worship, averaging 150 attendees a week in the 2021-2022 academic year. The series from this year included:
 - Prodigal God: Knowing the God of Jesus
 - Real Relationships: Practices for the Out of Practice
 - Dinners with Jesus: Meals in the Gospel of Luke
 - Bible Project 2022: Reading the Bible with Grown-up Eyes - HPU Chapel gave away over 300 Wesley Study Bibles as part of this series
 - Listening to the Cross: the uniqueness of the Christianity
- Weekly Chapel Series highlights included:
 - Exodus: I Am
 - Acts of the Apostles: A Move of God's Spirit
 - Advent Series
 - What do I Want When I Want _____?
 - Faith and Science Dialogue
 - Letters to My 20 Year-Old Self
 - 8th Annual Black Heritage Worship Service.

Weekly Chapel continues to incorporate Breakout Groups, which average 50 students participating each week.

- Online Engagement. Weekly Chapel continues to reach over 1,500 people weekly by streaming through Facebook. A weekly highlight is also released on Instagram and Facebook. Follow:
 - Fb.com/hpuchapel
 - Instagram.com/hpuchapel
- Interfaith Partners Program. Interfaith Partners Program was founded to provide students an employment opportunity to increase their interfaith knowledge and lead interfaith projects like this year's edition of Infinite Space: Out of Darkness
- Sunday Worship. "Chasing God; Choosing Grace" HPU Chapel's Sunday evening worshipping community, named HPUSunday, gives students a worship night every Sunday night where students lead lectio divina study of scripture and contemporary worship.
- Social Entrepreneurship. The Board of Stewards with a matching gift from an anonymous donor raised over $15,000 (a new record) to provide gifts for children during the holidays through the Salvation Army's Angel Tree program. Also for the second year in a row, students are leading a silent auction to benefit West End Ministries, a local community center that provides a women's shelter, afternoon programming for children, and food pantry. Students get experience in fundraising, philanthropy, theologically healthy practices of charity, and build relationships between community and school.
- Pilgrimage: Asheville and Piedmont Triad. Over spring break, Rev. Preston Davis and Dr. Chris Franks (Chairperson of Religion Department) led eight students on a pilgrimage experience to Asheville, immersing students in the theology of art, deeper understanding of the wicked problems of homelessness, and serving with the Haywood Street congregation. Another group of eight students also participated in the Piedmont Triad pilgrimage, where they were introduced to faith-based organizations working on the frontlines of human and civil rights issues.
- Jewish Life Flourishing. Jewish Life continues to grow steadily each year. The Jewish Life Office has moved out of the Chapel and Religious Life Office to the Office of Student Life.

e. Pfeiffer University President's and Chaplain's Report

As with most institutions of private education, the 2021-2022 year has been a challenging and fulfilling one for Pfeiffer University, as the institution cautiously returned to delivering most classes in an in-person format in Fall 2021. The fall-to-spring retention rate was a strong 92.1%, indicating high levels of student satisfaction.

Academic Division: data show that Nursing, Physician Assistant Studies, and Exercise Science are on the rise:

Pfeiffer's graduating class from the Donald Walser School of Nursing leapt into North Carolina's top 10 programs according to at least one metric released by the State Board of Nursing this winter – the three-year rolling average of graduates who passed the National Licensure Examination (NCLEX) stands at 93%. That score equals the large public institution just south of Pfeiffer in Mecklenburg County and places Pfeiffer ahead of private institutions in all adjacent counties. One hundred percent of Nursing graduates from the class of 2021 had full-time positions on graduation day.

Growth has also continued in other healthcare-related fields – in the state-of-the-art Pfeiffer Center for Health Sciences in downtown Albemarle, Pfeiffer accepted another cohort of 45 students, bringing the total number of students in the center to approximately 160 overall (approximately 100 students in Physician Assistant Studies, and approximately 60 students in Occupational Therapy). The first cohort of PA students – many of whom will secure the certificate in Rural Medicine – are scheduled to graduate in May. Interestingly, 30% of all students in the graduate programs located in the Center for Health Sciences majored in Exercise Science as undergraduates. At Pfeiffer, this major has grown from 40 students to 73 students in just two years. In addition, assisted by a grant from a faithful United Methodist family in Anson County, Pfeiffer has renovated its laboratory spaces in this area within the historic Harris Science Building.

The health sciences are not the only disciplines excelling at Pfeiffer. In this year's first-year class, the five most popular disciplines are Business, Nursing, Health and Exercise Science, Biology, and Sport Management. The university also received a wonderful grant in honor of the late Dr. Eugene Earnhardt, a longtime History professor. This gift has made possible the Earnhardt lecture series, and this March, the university was pleased to welcome Carlotta Walls Lanier – civil rights leader and famed member of the "Little Rock Nine," a group of nine courageous high school students who led the way in terms of integrating public schools in Arkansas in the late 1950s.

Seniors are receiving good news related to job placement and graduate schools. Pfeiffer's establishment of a concentration in Cybersecurity with its Computer Science division led to full-time jobs in that field for all four of last year's graduates. In addition, Pfeiffer 2021 graduates are also doctoral students at the Medical University of South Carolina; they are Physician Assistant Studies students in Albemarle; they are MBA students at Pfeiffer's Charlotte campus; they are graduate students in creative writing at Oklahoma State University; they are studying public policy at American University in Washington, D.C. Already, the class of 2022 has seen a student accepted to Duke Divinity School.

Finally, Pfeiffer is pleased to announce the arrival of a new Vice-President of Academic Affairs. Dr. Daniel Mynatt, an Old Testament scholar, experienced dean, experienced accreditation liaison, and graduate of Wake Forest University, has come aboard and lives on Pfeiffer's traditional campus in Misenheimer. Dr. Mynatt comes to us with a vast array of experiences. He has served institutions in South Carolina as a professor of Old Testament and as dean. He has served an institution in Texas as dean, accreditation liaison, and interim provost. Importantly, in his volunteer work, Dr. Mynatt has served the accrediting body, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC), on over 20 committees designed to examine the practices of Pfeiffer's peer institutions in the south. He has chaired eight of those committees. All are invited to stop by campus this year to help welcome Dr. Mynatt. He has swiftly improved operations in the Office of Academic Affairs through a divisional restructuring and has improved faculty morale by hosting several events in his home there. Pfeiffer is grateful that this North Carolina native has come home to serve here.

From the University Chaplain's Office:

It is clear from the sentences above that Pfeiffer's faculty members do excellent work preparing students for lifetimes of service in ministry, medicine, business, education, and other fields. Staff continues to be integral in preparing the region's future "servant leaders." The University Chaplain has one of the most important roles on campus in terms of relating to students, and she has become a member of the President's Cabinet at Pfeiffer.

As Pfeiffer continues her commitment to church-relatedness in new and innovative ways, of the following examples, the most exciting development within the chaplain's office this year is establishing the academic component of XOK, Pfeiffer's Christian Ecumenical Community. Based on a Wesleyan Model of ministry, students can now take a one-hour academic course alongside their major each semester. If a student takes the XOK course six times before graduation along with three Religion and Practical Theology courses, they can graduate with a certificate in Christian Leadership.

This year's theme in XOK was Christian Formation. In the fall, they centered on Spiritual Disciplines, and in the spring, they concentrated on connections between being created in the Image of God, the Kingdom of God, and Social Justice. In addition, students attended weekend retreats at Mount Shepherd, where they participated in team-building leadership activities like the Leap of Faith, meaningful worship experiences, and cooking a meal together. It is exciting that this program continues to grow and develop Wesleyan Christian leaders equipped to serve in the 21st Century.

Intersections. Pfeiffer's weekly chapel service, continues to explore the crossroads between faith and academy every Wednesday at 10 am. Back in person this year, students had the opportunity to hear faculty and community speakers discuss current events like the war in Ukraine and race in America. Moreover, students participated in traditional worship, special services such as the Blessing of the Animals, and kinesthetic learning experiences like meditative hiking. A space for experimentation, innovation, and deep questions, Intersections continues to enhance Pfeiffer's church-related experience.

Connections, Pfeiffer's student-led worship service, continues to meet the campus community's spiritual needs. Each week students create a sacred space outside the chapel walls to explore their beliefs and values through music, word, centering prayer, and reflection. In addition, students led in-person interactive worship experiences that included reflective activities, art, conversation, and music. They also experimented with Fresh Expression concepts like Dinner Church.

Pfeiffer's Beliefs and Values Initiative welcomes students of all religious and philosophical backgrounds to build a community based on the principles of mutual respect, understanding, and dialogue. This year students hosted and participated in a two-day hybrid interfaith conference with Elon University. Students also offered programming that included events like Make Your Own Mandala, What's That Symbol, and Spill Your Ink: A Tattoo Story Telling Event.

The Francis Center for Servant Leadership: Francis Scholars continue to embody John Wesley's charge to love God and one another. Students participated in several service initiatives on- and off-campus throughout the academic year, including weekly builds at Habitat for Humanity Stanly, Stanly County Christian Ministries, Backpack Buddies with Uwharrie District, Stanly County Angel Tree, and Project Linus, among others. Within the center, students learn about servant leadership, and how leading from below truly helps change the world.

Faith-filled Racial Equity Trips: This year, the chaplain's office partnered with the English department to take students on two co-curricular trips to better understand the role of racial equity and religion in America. This past fall, with the help of the WNCC and Uwharrie District, students visited the Equal Justice Initiative in Montgomery, Alabama. Here, students explored the history of racism in the United States utilizing James Cone's The Cross and the Lynching Tree. In the spring, students will visit Charleston, South Carolina. Here, they will learn about the role religion plays in both racial violence and empowerment by visiting the Gullah Gullah Geechee people and Mother Emanuel Baptist Church in Charleston, SC, and by having conversations with indigenous peoples of the area. These trips aim to empower students to think critically about their faith and how that impacts different avenues of their life.

Pfeiffer Pfriends: The chaplain's office continues to partner with an ecumenical group of local churches from five different denominations in Albemarle as part of the Pfeiffer Pfriends initiative. This growing program matches individual church members with Occupational Therapy and Physician Assistant students – matches based in part on the denominational preferences of the student – and the "Pfriends" sent notes of encouragement, gift cards, snacks, etc., to their students throughout the academic year. The goal is to provide support and community to the new OT and PA students in the area and deepen relationships between the students and the churches in their new "hometown" of Albemarle. The student response continues to be overwhelmingly positive, and Pfeiffer is grateful for its continued United Methodist and ecumenical support.

Pfeiffer YeTI: As of April 1st, Rev. Maegan Habich leads Pfeiffer YeTI. Focusing on the intersection of Christian leadership, social justice, and vocation, high school-aged participants will meet with Pfeiffer faculty and staff from all different majors to discern what Christ is calling them to do in the world. Students will explore all Pfeiffer has to offer in this pre-college experience. They will gain insight from on-site faculty about several different majors and careers, visit innovative field sites in the surrounding area, and take a deep dive theologically about why their work matters to God and the Kingdom. All should consider sending their youth to this worthwhile, faith-filled experience.

From the Office of the Chief Financial Officer:

Recall that in the summer of 2019, a new president and a new CFO took office. The budget had not been balanced in several years, and the accrediting body had sanctioned Pfeiffer, informing the board and incoming leadership that Pfeiffer would need to balance the budget for three consecutive years. Pfeiffer is pleased to announce that it has balanced the budget for two consecutive years and will continue to work to achieve a third consecutive balanced budget for this fiscal year by June 30. Though undergraduate enrollment has trended down for two consecutive years – going from about 800 students to about 700 students in Misenheimer – graduate student enrollment is trending up, and the university has received two significant gifts of real estate in the past 24 months. The percentage of alumni who give to the university on an annual basis has also risen for three consecutive years, a sign that the more "scientific" approach to advancement and development at Pfeiffer is paying dividends.

The Center for Health Sciences in Albemarle has been an essential catalyst for these improvements as well. Noting that applications to this area of Pfeiffer's graduate school have increased in number, the trustees have assembled a committee – composed of trustees, faculty members, and administrators – on each of the three campuses to study more deeply the viability of each academic program on campus. As Pfeiffer adds programs, it may be that the trustees identify other programs that merit a deeper investment, too. It may also be the case that there are programs that are no longer viable.

2. UNITED METHODIST SCHOOLS OF THEOLOGY AND UNIVERSITIES

a. Africa University

This year, The United Methodist Church marks 30 years of vibrant, transformative ministry through Africa University (AU). Thank you, Western North Carolina Conference, for your faithfulness and generosity in bringing the dream of Africa University to life.

From the first conversations in 1984 to formal approval at the General Conference in 1988, the planting of Africa University required vision, faith, and bold action in the face of predictions that it could never succeed. Africa University found advocates and friends in the Western North Carolina Conference and across the denomination. The “Dream is Alive” was the rallying cry in March 1992 as 40 students from six African countries attended the first lectures in repurposed farm buildings. In celebrating its 30th anniversary, Africa University is honoring the past and looking to the future, while remaining true to its mission as the cornerstone ministry for United Methodist-related leadership development in Africa.

Africa University’s journey from day one to the present is a shared story of being salt and light. Africa University is also part of the Western North Carolina Conference’s story—a uniting United Methodist dream come true—of restoring hope, equipping, and sending forth young leaders to shape an abundant life for themselves and for the communities they serve.

Much like the year that preceded it, 2021 affirmed that God’s grace is sufficient in all circumstances. In January 2021, the students, faculty, and staff grappled with the sudden death of Africa University Vice Chancellor, Dr. Munashe Furusa. As the year unfolded, the COVID-19 pandemic claimed more lives, continued to restrict travel, and damaged livelihoods. Unable to be together on campus, the students, faculty, and staff grieved, pivoted, supported, and encouraged each other, and persevered.

Against the backdrop of a global pandemic, Africa University found new opportunities for missional engagement in 2021. The year’s highlights include:

- Effective online-only teaching, learning and student assessment: About 99 percent of students participated in online learning. Enrollment held steady at 3,060 students and more than 500 graduates from 24 African countries were awarded degrees in July 2021.
- The installation of AU’s fifth Chancellor: Bishop Gaspar João Domingos of the Western Angola Episcopal Area was elected Chancellor following the death of Bishop John K. Yambasu of Sierra Leone.
- Research and community service: AU researchers received US$2 million in funding for regional initiatives to eradicate malaria, tuberculosis, and other communicable diseases. The Africa University Malaria Institute was established to serve as a center of excellence supporting the fight to eradicate malaria.

AU’s students and graduates led, and showed their love of neighbor, with initiatives to feed hungry families, care for the environment, and improve the quality of life of legally blind parents and their children.

AU received the 2021 Jairos Jiri Humanitarian Award from the Government of Zimbabwe in recognition of its pandemic impact mitigation efforts.

Africa University is grateful to the Western North Carolina Conference for investing 110.64 percent of the asking to the Africa University Fund (AUF) in 2021. Thank you to the more than 1,100 churches in the Western North Carolina Conference for their extraordinary generosity in a difficult year. Thank you for graciously ensuring access to a life-changing educational experience for the students at Africa University, most of whom are unable to fund a college education on their own!

Thank you, Western North Carolina Conference, for letting your light shine for young women and men who would otherwise be left on the sidelines. “A city on top of a hill can’t be hidden.” Similarly, AU’s current students and its more than 10,000 graduates to date are that metaphor made real. The Western North Carolina Conference walks alongside these young people as they hone their abilities, live fully into their purpose, and join in the work of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

James H. Salley, Associate Vice Chancellor for Institutional Advancement and President/CEO, Africa University (Tennessee) Inc.

b. Boston University School of Theology

The Boston University School of Theology (BUSTH) is profoundly grateful for the partnership, prayers, and support in these challenging times. A year like 2021 makes even more relevant BUSTH's historic and ongoing commitments to peace and justice in cultivating transformational leaders. BUSTH remains hopeful and vigilant in continued partnership with UMC conferences.

BREAKING NEWS:

- Return to Campus: Faculty, administrators, and library returned to in-person instruction and work in Fall 2021, with many events reaching hybrid audiences. Strict COVID-19 precautions continue to ensure the safety of students, faculty, and administrators.
- Students: The Fall 2021 entering class was among the most diverse, with 108 new students enrolling in September.
- Faculty: In September the appointment of Cristian De La Rosa as Associate Dean for Students and Community Life was celebrated. Prof. Shelly Rambo leads the Lilly-funded project on "Trauma-Responsive Congregations," and two faculty members—Prof. Dana Robert and Wesley Wildman—were each honored with festschrifts. Prof. Jonathan Calvillo's book The Saints of Santa Ana received the HTI Book Award, and Prof. Choi Hee An published A Postcolonial Leadership. BUSTH is conducting two faculty searches with anticipation of welcoming new faculty in the fall.
- Launch of a New Online Degree: BUSTH's first fully online master's degree—the Master of Religion and Public Leadership (MARPL)—is currently enrolling students for its first cohort in fall 2022. MARPL seeks students who wish to be prepared for leadership roles that creatively engage the challenges of public life.
- Peale Foundation Grant: Prof. Steven Sandage and his research team were awarded a $2.19 million, five-year grant by the Norman Vincent Peale Foundation for a project that fosters a network of communities for relational care and support to spiritual leaders and therapists to offer resources to reduce trauma risk and vocational burnout and foster flourishing.
- Scholarships: Free tuition is offered to UMC-registered candidates for ordained ministry and leadership fellowships that support students in ethnic, gender, and sexuality studies. New funds include the Sacred Worth Scholarship Fund and the Dean Thurman & Bishop Easterling Fellowship Fund.
- Online Lifelong Learning: BUSTH offers online workshops for professional and spiritual enrichment of religious leaders. Recent workshops include "Practices of Grief in a Time of Pandemic" and "Reflecting with Howard Thurman." To learn more, visit bu.edu/sth/oll.
- Development: Recent accomplishments include endowing the Center for Global Christianity and Mission upon its 20th anniversary and new funding for student scholarships and academic programs

COMMITMENT TO JUSTICE and COMPASSION:

- BUSTH's Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion offers webinars on timely inclusion efforts, such as "Increasing Participation of Students of Underrepresented Backgrounds."
- The 2021-22 Lowell Lectures are dedicated to cross-advocacy and intersectionality in racial justice efforts. This fall, Dr. Kwok Pui Lan advocated for broader understandings of political theology and greater awareness of anti-Asian sentiment and violence. A diverse panel response fostered rich conversation.
- Work continues to improve accessibility, sustainability, and responsible investing. BUSTH is the first certified Green School at BU and active in the Green Seminary Initiative.

c. Candler School of Theology

Since 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has lived into its mission, educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world. This year, as it leaned into this critical work and continued to adapt to a world changed by the coronavirus pandemic, it imagined new possibilities for students who are called by God to pursue serious theological study and preparation for ministry. For some, opening avenues to graduate theological education requires moving financial obstacles, and for others, geography or family responsibilities may be the barriers. Candler is committed to assisting students in removing these barriers and opening new pathways to ministry.

An official seminary of The United Methodist Church, Candler holds true to the Methodist value of ecumenical openness, enthusiastically welcoming students from 43 denominations, with 45% of MDiv students coming from the Wesleyan tradition. Candler's student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 466 from 16 countries and 38 states, 45% persons of color (U.S.), and a median age of 28 among MDivs. This diversity is a blessing, enriching both students and the larger community and providing a "learning laboratory" for ministry in the 21st century—ministry that reaches across difference, works to resolve injustice, and embodies Christ's love in and among all.

Candler offers six single degrees (MDiv, MTS, MRL MRPL, ThM, DMin) and ten dual degrees. DMin is 90% online, so students can remain in their places of ministry while earning their degrees. Its high 87% completion rate illustrates both the students' quality and Candler's commitment to their success. This year, it increased online offerings in other degrees as well. Now students can complete the Master of Religion and Public Life completely online; the Master of Religious Leadership with concentrations in Youth Ministry, Justice, Peacebuilding and Conflict Transformation, or Wesleyan Leadership and Heritage in a hybrid format; and MDiv students can complete core classes online. Plus, the new Remote Teaching Parish (RTP) program allows MDiv students who have jobs in ecclesial settings far from the Atlanta campus to take core classes online and complete their contextual education requirements at their place of ministry, participating in mentor-led online groups with other RTP students.

Alleviating student debt through generous financial aid is a top priority. In 2020-2021, Candler awarded more than $6.8 million in financial aid, with 100% of MDiv and 98.5% of all students receiving support. All MDiv students who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in the UMC receive full-tuition scholarships, and all MDiv, MTS, MRL, and ThM students who are enrolled part-time or more receive a scholarship covering at least 50% of tuition for the length of their program.

Hundreds of laity and theology students alike have joined in classes and events offered through The Candler Foundry, an innovative program to make theological education accessible to all. Through short and semester-length courses taught by Candler faculty, videos and discussion guides to spark conversation in groups or one-on-one, and online panel discussions, those who want to delve more deeply into theology and the Bible have the chance to do just that. View the latest offerings at candlerfoundry.emory.edu.

Associate Dean of Methodist Studies the Rev. Dr. Anne Burkholder will retire from Candler at the end of the 2021-22 academic year. Candler is grateful to God for her energetic and skillful leadership in this vital area as she strengthened the connection between students and conferences throughout the UMC, mentoring them as they discerned their call and navigated the ordination process.

Candler's ability to fulfill its mission to provide the church with the faithful and creative leaders it needs depends upon prayers, partnership, and support. Thanks to all benefactors for the countless ways they advance this essential ministry in the life of The United Methodist Church. Visit online at candler.emory.edu.

d. Drew University Theological School

In spring and fall of 2021, Drew Theological School began returning to its Madison, New Jersey campus for some classes, meetings, and worship. As with many churches, in-person events were held in spaces equipped for live-streaming or Zoom participation. The shift to remote learning during COVID-19 pandemic thus significantly expanded online course offerings and accessible community events. Now, a number of students in Drew's masters programs will progress through their programs in US and global locations far from New Jersey. This year, the school welcomed 150 new students, again the largest class in a decade, and have a current enrollment of 376 students.

Drew cultivates pastors, preachers, deacons, activists, teachers, and thought leaders who are taking their places as the next generation of faith leaders and change agents. Diversity is a hallmark of the student body, including theological, vocational, age, racial, and national diversity, with internationally representative (Asian, African, and South American) and United States (Black, white, Latinx, and Asian-American) students. The student body is truly global, with 35% of students from 21 different countries. For the first time in its history, Drew has an African student association, initiated by Drew Theological School students from 14 African countries, that is already contributing richly to the Drew community both on-campus and online. It has welcomed new faculty in Latinx ministries and world Christianity. It has also seen an increase in United Methodist students particularly interested in the school's Gospel-inspired traditions of social justice advocacy and widely inclusive ministry. Drew is proud that many United Methodist Global Fellows have recently chosen to continue their journey in ministry at Drew. Its UMC graduates are serving in Greater New Jersey, Eastern Pennsylvania, and New York conferences as well as conferences across the country.

The faculty is committed to continuing to develop the curriculum in ways that take seriously the wide range of lived experience and calls to ministry of the students that gather in their global classrooms. All degree programs at the Theological School include interdisciplinary courses that demand out-of-the-box thinking, apprenticeship training that addresses real-world issues, and modes of learning that promote adaptability and innovation. The MDiv and MATM degrees include a required gateway year, vocational pathways, and experiential learning that develops and deepens adaptive leadership skills. The curriculum features a team-designed and taught interdisciplinary sequence of core courses reflecting the integration of the theological disciplines and practices characteristics of the life of faith. The faculty has also articulated shared values that are infused across the teaching and learning at Drew: a commitment to anti-racism; gender and sexual-identity equality; eco-sustainability and environmental justice; and interfaith understanding and cooperation.

Melanie Johnson-DeBaufre, Interim Dean

e.1. Duke Divinity School

Edgardo Colón-Emeric, the Irene and William McCutchen Associate Professor of Theology and Reconciliation and director of the Center for Reconciliation, began his two-year term as the dean of Duke Divinity School on July 1. Colón-Emeric earned both his M.Div. and Ph.D. from Duke and has been a member of the faculty since 2008. He has served as the director for the Hispanic House of Studies and as the director for the Center for Reconciliation (CFR). An ordained elder in the North Carolina Annual Conference, he directs the Central American Methodist Course of Study and the Peru Theological Initiative and serves on the United Methodist Committee on Faith and Order and on both national and international Methodist-Catholic dialogues. Recognizing that he is entering the dean's office at a pivotal time for the school, Colón-Emeric stated his commitment to keep the Divinity School heading in a life-giving direction: "The world needs the church, and the church needs the theologically grounded, intellectually vibrant, and socially innovative pastors and leaders that we train. From the heart of Duke University, we cultivate wisdom that is joyfully orthodox, Christ-centered, Spirit-led, and irrevocably anti-racist for the sake of the church in its mission for the life of the world." He is the first Latino dean of the school.

A new partnership with North Carolina Wesleyan College will enable qualified undergraduates to take master's level courses at Duke Divinity School beginning in 2022. The Duke Accelerated Pastoral Formation Program offers select juniors and seniors the option to begin coursework toward Duke's Hybrid M.Div. or Master of Arts in Christian Practice (M.A.) degree programs while completing their baccalaureate degree. Funded by the support of the Kern Family Foundation, the Accelerated Program will help students lower educational debt incurred in the preparation for ministry process and accelerate their timeline to engaging the field of ministry. In the spring the school launched the Asian House of Studies, a formational community that will support Asian and Asian-American students; build a network of Asian and Asian-American students, alumni, and church leaders; and provide resources for Asian theological studies. Asian House of Studies is under the leadership of Sangwoo Kim, a consulting professor and senior director of the Methodist House of Studies, and Jung Choi, a consulting professor and senior director of Wesleyan Formation Initiatives.

Three new certificates were approved this year, and all can be earned as part of the residential M.Div., Hybrid M.Div., M.T.S., and M.A. degree programs. The Certificate in Methodist/Wesleyan Studies is aimed at pan-Methodist/Wesleyan students who want to engage in robust and intentional training in Wesleyan theology and spiritual practice in preparation for leadership positions in Methodist and Wesleyan organizations and churches, such as The United Methodist Church, AME Church, AME Zion Church, and Korean Methodist Church. In the Certificate in Latinx Studies, students will practice and hone skills for ministry while becoming part of a learning community that is committed to Hispanic/Latinx communities and seeks to learn from Hispanic/Latinx traditions and cultures. The Certificate in Worship is designed to prepare Duke Divinity students to engage in practical formation and theoretical reflection on the worship of God in Christian congregations.

In January, the school announced 12 full-tuition fellowships to support incoming residential Master of Divinity degree program students who pursue a certificate in Black Church Studies or Latinx Studies. In addition to providing full-tuition scholarships, the Black Church Studies and Latinx Studies Fellowships provide vocationally specific formation and mentoring opportunities for the fellows and up to $24,000 in stipend support and internship opportunities through the Office of Field Education. The fellowships begin in the fall of 2022.

The Office of Wesleyan Engagement announced the “Rediscovering the Heart of Methodism” project. This project is a missional initiative of the Divinity School with the support of the Kern Family Foundation. It seeks to nurture innovative leadership within the Wesleyan tradition as a constructive and hope-filled response to a turbulent ecclesial landscape. Supported by a gift from the Duke Endowment, the school launched To Heal the Wounded Soul, a project to strengthen Wesleyan pastors in the Carolinas who are Black, Indigenous, or people of color, including from the AME, AME Zion, CME, and UMC churches. Led by the Office of Black Church Studies and the Clergy Health Initiative To Heal the Wounded Soul will develop peer networks, support groups, and retreats to address the specific mental, emotional, and spiritual needs of this community.

This academic year Duke Divinity School welcomed the largest incoming class in the school’s history, with 259 new students from 31 different states and five other countries. Enrollment in the flagship M.Div. degree program jumped to 133 students, up from approximately 110 students during each of the previous four years. The growth was heavily driven by the first cohort of 52 Hybrid M.Div. students. There were 27 denominations represented in the M.Div. entering class, with 38 percent affiliated with The United Methodist Church (up from 30 percent in 2020). Anglican-Episcopal students made up 13 percent of the new M.Div. students (up from nine percent the prior year); non-denominational students, 11 percent; and Baptists, 10 percent. The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) welcomed 36 students, the Master of Theological Studies (M.T.S.) gained 33, and the M.A. saw 17 new students. The Master of Theology (Th.M.) enrolled 12 students, and the Doctor of Theology (Th.D.) enrolled seven new students. The Certificate in Theology and Health Care welcomed five residential students to campus and a large first cohort of 14 students in the hybrid version of the program. Across all degree programs at the Divinity School, 32 percent of the incoming class identified as a race or ethnicity other than white. Black students made up 18 percent of all students; Latinx students, six percent; Asian students, two percent; and American Indian students, two percent. Women made up 47 percent of incoming students across all programs.

Three new faculty members joined the faculty in 2021. Polly Ha is an Associate Professor of the History of Christianity whose work focuses on the history of Christianity and the construction of diverse confessional and ecclesiastical traditions in the Reformation and post-Reformation world. Ronald K. Rittgers is the Duke Divinity School Chair in Lutheran Studies and Professor of the History of Christianity, and his research interests include the religious, intellectual, social, and cultural history of medieval and early modern/Reformation Europe, focusing especially on the history of theology and devotion. Daniel Castelo, William Kellon Quick Professor of Theology and Methodist Studies, taught intensive Wesleyan theology courses in Mexico, Honduras, and Brazil, and then took a teaching post at a Mexican seminary for three years. He has been an active participant in the Central American Methodist Course of Study program and recently has served as a doctoral mentor for the Hispanic Theological Initiative.

Edgardo Colón-Emeric, Dean

e.2. Convocation & Pastors’ School at Duke Divinity School

Due to the pandemic, the 2021 Convocation and Pastors’ School (CPS) was again a virtual event with the theme, Uncommon Ground: Living with Humility, Patience, and Tolerance in a Divided Age, designed for Christian leaders of all traditions. The event was spread over five separate days. The primary two gatherings, October 4-5, centered around panel discussions, with each session spotlighting one of the featured speakers. Bishop Claude Alexander, Senior Pastor of The Park Church in Charlotte, N.C., Dr. John Inazu, distinguished professor of law and religion at Washington University, Sara Groves, popular singer-songwriter, and Dr. Warren Kinghorn, Associate Research Professor of Pastoral and Moral Theology at Duke Divinity School. Optional lunchtime sessions during these two days offered updates on Duke Divinity School Houses of Study as well as chances to register for small group opportunities with our featured speakers. On the following three Mondays, CPS hosted lunchtime webinars featuring Tru Pettigrew, motivational speaker and empowerment consultant, Dr. Jan Holton, Associate Professor of the Practice of Pastoral Theology and Care at Duke Divinity School, and Psalms in Dialogue featuring Dr. Ellen Davis, Distinguished Professor of Bible and Practical Theology at Duke Divinity School, Dr. Zeb Highben, Associate Professor of the Practice of Church Music at Duke Divinity School and Amanda Hughes, Director of Development and Strategy, Duke University Chapel.

The Convocation & Pastors’ School Board of Managers is comprised of representatives from the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences, and it advises and works with Duke Divinity School to offer a quality continuing education event annually. The Western North Carolina Conference representatives on the Board of Managers are: 2018-2022 Heidi Campbell-Robinson and Avery White; 2019-2023 Darryl Dayson and Sue Anne Morris; 2020-2024 Samuel Moore and Bill Roberts; and, 2021-2025 Meg Gaston and Ellis Carson.

We are planning for the 2022 CPS to be in-person October 9-11, 2022 at Duke Divinity School. The theme will be “Creativity and Courage From Trauma to Tough Hope.” In response to the pandemic and thanks to the generosity of The Duke Endowment and Duke Divinity School, the 2021 event was offered at no charge. Pastors serving churches eligible for grants from The Duke Endowment, current divinity school students, and recent graduates of Duke Divinity School were able to attend in-person Convocations at a discounted rate.

f. Gammon Theological Seminary

Gammon Theological Seminary, located in Atlanta, GA, is the Interdenominational Theological Center’s United Methodist constituent member. The Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC) is a Christian Africentric ecumenical consortium of seminaries and fellowships that educate students to commit to practicing justice and peace through a liberating and transforming spirituality to become leaders in the church and local/global communities.

Gammon was founded in 1883 by The Methodist Episcopal Church, with assistance from the Freedman’s Aid Society. Today, Gammon Theological Seminary is the only predominately Black Seminary of the 13 approved United Methodist-related theological institutions. The faculty and administration of Gammon at the ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision-making, and responsible action happen. The ITC’s accreditation is with the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges. Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts in Religion and Education, and the Doctor of Ministry. Admission is open to qualified men and women. The support given to The United Methodist Ministerial Education Fund by United Methodist Conferences continues to enable Gammon students to be grounded in the Wesleyan tradition of theological education. The Gammon Board of Trustees elected its 17th president/dean, Rev. Dr. Candace M Lewis, the first woman to lead the seminary in its 138-year history. Dr. Lewis began her tenure on April 1, 2021.

New initiatives and celebrations this year at Gammon include:

- The Rev. Geraldine Williams-McClellan $100,000.00 Endowment Fund launched with Bishop Kenneth Carter and Florida Annual Conference.
- Commissioned the First Gammon Seminary National Research Project focused on COVID-19’s impact on Black United Methodist Clergy, Laity and Congregations – partnership with SBC21, BMCRC, BCW, Discipleship Ministries & Convocation Pastors Black UMC. Please visit the website www.gammon-itc.org for the findings.
- Hosted a Virtual Church Leadership Training Event, “Navigating Next,” in January 2022 to equip leaders for effective ministry 2022 with over 700 registered attendees.
- Gammon student participates in the 2021-2022 Ecumenical Institute at Bossey. Tavis Tinsley, a Gammon senior, was invited by the United Methodist Council of Bishops (COB) the World Council of Churches. He completed the “Complementary Certificate in Ecumenical Studies” through the University of Geneva in Switzerland.
- Celebrated its 138th Anniversary and Founder’s Day.

The greatest challenge facing Gammon Seminary is the rising cost of theological education and the significant amount of debt students are incurring as they answer their call to full-time ministry. Therefore, Gammon is committed to raising a million dollars in the next two years to offer full-tuition scholarships to students who are called and committed to full-time ministry in The United Methodist Church.

Gammon Seminary is grateful to the Western North Carolina Conference for its support of theological education and the commitment to ensuring that pastoral leadership is theologically trained to lead forward in the Wesleyan tradition.

g. Methodist Theological School in Ohio

With $1 million grant, Methodist Theological School in Ohio (MTSO) supports existing religious leaders and helps form new ones

MTSO has received a five-year grant of $999,665 to establish “Connecting Pathways: A Multi-Faceted Approach to Strengthen and Sustain Current and Future Faith Leaders.” The project is being funded through Lilly Endowment Inc.’s Pathways for Tomorrow Initiative.

The project utilizes MTSO’s strengths in two distinct parts. Part One, “Connecting Pathways: Congregations and Other Ministry Partners,” supports existing religious leaders, focusing on anti-racism training and resourcing. Working with partner organizations, MTSO helps faith leaders to assess land use and church food programs to assist in building community engagement. Part Two, “Connecting Pathways: Vocational Exploration Intensive for Young Adults,” invites young adults to imagine the possibilities for lifelong faith, offering experiential learning, theological reflection, worship, and relationships with healthy community leaders and vibrant faith communities. It introduces the whys and hows of ministry, connecting participants with faith leaders, including some of those involved in Part One of the project.

New initiative enhances scientific literacy for seminarians

MTSO has a longstanding commitment to preparing religious leaders who are conversant in and respectful of science. An important part of that effort is “Questioning Science with Good Faith: Shifting the Engagement of Science in Seminaries,” a project that integrates science into church history and theological studies curricula while also contributing to the public discourse on intersection of science and religion. The project is made possible by a $75,000 grant from the American Association for the Advancement of Science Dialogue on Science, Ethics, and Religion program. The grant is funded by the John Templeton Foundation. In September 2021, MTSO offered an online, multi-professional conversation, “Pastors, Pandemics and Public Health: Building Collaborative Responses to COVID-19.”

Full-tuition scholarships extended to those pursuing United Methodist candidacy

MTSO and the school's donors pledged to extend a full-tuition pledge to all prospective students who are pursuing United Methodist elder or deacon candidacy. The MTSO admissions staff is happy to answer questions about this initiative at 800-333-6876 or admissions@mtso.edu. Learn more about MTSO at www.mtso.edu.

h. Saint Paul School of Theology

Educating tomorrow's leaders by offering on-campus, online, and hybrid learning courses at a FLEXible schedule, Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary of The United Methodist Church committed to the formation of people for innovative, creative ministry. Grounded in the academic study of faith and ministry, theology is practiced in a traditional classroom and a contextual curriculum.

As the global pandemic continues to bring challenges to our daily lives, Saint Paul School of Theology began the 2021-2022 academic year, again offering students an option to attend courses via Zoom or on-campus while maintaining safety protocols. Weekly chapel service continues to be available online, allowing staff and students to come together as one institution where all are invited to create a sacred atmosphere from wherever they are. In addition to faculty and staff serving as chapel speakers, Saint Paul was blessed to have alumni and special guest speakers Rev. Winter Hamilton of Manchester UMC, Rev. Delesslyn Kennebrew, Rev. Dr. Carol Cook Moore, and more. Chapel recordings are available on the Saint Paul YouTube channel for those who cannot join live.

Saint Paul staff and faculty continue to contribute to the academy, church, and society. This year, it has had many faculty and staff changes. After many years of tremendous service to students and the Seminary, Dr. James Brandt and Dr. Hal Knight announced retirement plans effective at the end of the 2021-2022 academic year. In addition, Dr. Jeanne Hoeft will step down from her role as Vice President of Academic Affairs and Dean at the end of the academic year, but will continue as faculty. New additions to the Seminary family include Dr. Joshua Bartholomew, Assistant Professor of Ethics, Church and Society; Dr. Tiffany Nagel Monroe, Executive Director of the Oklahoma Campus; and, Rabbi Michael Zedek, Rabbi-in-Residence.

The faculty of Saint Paul School of Theology maintains high standards of scholarship, research, publication, and engagement. Over the past year, their many activities and publications have been so numerous that space permits only the sharing of selected highlights.

1. Dr. Nancy Howell, Professor of Theology and Philosophy of Religion and Oubri A. Poppele Professor of Health and Welfare Ministries, was re-elected to a second term on the Executive Committee of the International Society for Science and Religion. She also had an article published in a South African journal. With more than a decade of service, she serves on the Broader Social Impacts Committee of the National Museum of Natural History at the Smithsonian.
2. Dr. Casey Sigmon, Assistant Professor of Preaching and Worship and Director of Contextual Education, was invited to be a writer for "Lent Another Way," an e-course, with The Plural Guild and The Many, and she offered the convocation address for Colgate Rochester Crozer Divinity School in Fall 2021. She also applied for and received a grant from the Wabash Center for Teaching to support my project entitled: "Resisting the Plagiarized Pulpit: Helping Students and the Professor to Find trust their voice through Artistic Instructional Design."
3. This January, Dr. Joshua Bartholomew, Assistant Professor of Ethics, Church and Society, was the guest speaker at a Kansas City event, "Black Theology and the Black Panthers: A Conversation with Dr. Joshua Bartholomew." In addition, he was recently interviewed by Climate Central for the article " 'A moral imperative': Monastic sisters in rural Midwest make faith-based case for climate action."

Saint Paul welcomed 45 new students for the 2021-2022 academic year. New student enrollment for the Fall semester increased by 44 percent (34 new students), with an overall increase for the year of 75 percent. With the COVID-19 pandemic still in the midst, prospective students viewed the Saint Paul community and curriculum via online visits. Students joined in community worship, attended classes, and participated in online discussions with current students to discern if Saint Paul was indeed the choice for theological education. Enrollment remained strong for the Master of Divinity (MDiv) degree program with promising growth in the newly designed Master of Arts in Theological Studies (MATS) and Master of Arts in Christian Ministry (MACM) programs.

In September, Saint Paul held the 2021 Harrington Lecture online featuring Dr. Eboo Patel. His lecture, "We Need to Build: Field Notes for Diverse Democracy," expanded knowledge and built skills, helping people become the kind of leaders diverse democracy needs. In the Spring Semester, Saint Paul Evangelical Society, led by Dr. Hal Knight, hosted a forum given by Dr. Amos Yong, Professor of Theology and Mission, and Dean of the School of Mission and Theology at Fuller Theological Seminary, on "The Holy Spirit and People of other Faiths: Relational Christian Witness in the 2020s." Later in the semester, the Evangelical Society hosted a lecture featuring Dr. Joy Moore, Professor of Biblical Preaching and Vice-President for Academic Affairs and Academic Dean at Luther Seminary. And for the first time, on May 13, Saint Paul held a hybrid commencement celebration via Zoom, allowing graduates to come together from both the Kansas and Oklahoma campuses with attendees viewing from around the country. The school honored the 2022 Distinguished Graduate Award Winner and Commencement Speaker Dr. Stan Copeland during the ceremony.

For the 2021-2022 fiscal year, Saint Paul Course of Study (COS) School educated 228 individual students, 49 of which were new students, with approximately 550 registrations and offering a total of 50 courses. Serving 32 conferences, including 94 districts, 121 full time and 106 part-time licensed local pastors comprised these registrations. Saint Paul Course of Study School welcomed new Regional Director Dr. Lucas Endicott. Dr. Endicott has been serving as Associate Director for the Office of Mission, Service, and Justice at the Missouri Annual Conference and lecturing at Central Methodist University. Due to the continuing pandemic, the school has continued its course offerings in both asynchronous and synchronous online formats. Utilizing this online format, students in 24 states were reached. Plans include an increase in the number of hybrid course offerings. This fiscal year has also ushered in the new ability of online registration completed by the student and access to their student account through Populi as used by seminary students. All of the students share the same benefits by integrating Course of Study School into Populi, making them a more integrated part of the Saint Paul experience.

Saint Paul Board of Trustees added two new members to their ranks: Ms. Debra “Debbie” Buzard, Director of Outreach Ministry at First United Methodist Church of Kearney; and Rev. Martin “Tino” Herrera, Congregational Care Pastor at UM Church of the Resurrection. Through a board initiative related to diversity and inclusion, the Saint Paul Board of Trustees has devoted a significant portion of the last year’s meetings to church leaders with experience and expertise in creating more diverse and inclusive communities and organizations. Aiding Saint Paul’s trustees in better understanding these issues, the board hosted the Rev. Dr. Benjamin Boswell in April 2021. Dr. Boswell, Senior Pastor of Myers Park Baptist Church in Charlotte, North Carolina, described the anti-racism work being led in that community. The City of Charlotte awarded Dr. Boswell its Martin Luther King, Jr. Medallion for the work. In July 2021, Congressman Emanuel Cleaver II of Kansas City shared the perspective on the racial and social justice issues confronting the nation and the efforts being led by the House of Representatives which is hoped to undertake in response. With the board’s assistance, led by Board Chairperson Rev. Dr. Tex Sample, the seminary focuses on its mission. The trustees continuously enhance and evaluate the strategic plans to guide Saint Paul into the future.

As reported in years past, Saint Paul is financially sound and operates with a balanced budget. These last years’ changes have established a solid financial foundation for years of sustainability. The school continues to be grateful for donations from the community that provide technology, scholarships, and evolving academic programs to students. Significant investments in technology have allowed Saint Paul to maintain a hybrid educational delivery model providing a safe learning environment during the continuing pandemic.

Saint Paul’s aim has always been to utilize technology as a conduit to bring faculty and students together regardless of whether they are on-campus or joining remotely through Zoom. The school took a hard look at the distance learning landscape during the pandemic to see how it could substantially enhance the classroom experience. After significant testing, it opted to replace the distance-learning classroom technology with Neat’s offerings, including technology still in development. All the classrooms began upgrades in Fall 2021 with offerings from Neat. Each smaller classroom added a 65” neat.board, a self-contained screen that functions as a full Zoom room, as well as an electronic whiteboard. Anything written or drawn on these boards is transmitted through Zoom to the screens in the classroom and remote Zoom participants. This content can also be saved and emailed to all participants. The school implemented neat.bars in other classrooms that connect to the classrooms’ existing screens. It is currently implementing neat.bar pros, just released at the end of 2021, in each of the large classrooms. Saint Paul School of Theology has always tried to be pioneers with distance-learning technologies. It is very early in the lifecycle of this stimulating and groundbreaking technology. The school is thrilled to partner with Neat and Zoom in revolutionizing the classroom experience.

Saint Paul School of Theology is blessed to be a partner in ministry and help those seeking to discover more and answer the call. The school is grateful for the support of the students and seminary. May we continue to live into the call of Jesus Christ to be faithful witnesses for healing in these unsettled times and for generations to come. President Neil Blair, Saint Paul trustees, faculty, staff, alumni, and students thank the conference for the prayers and support.

Tiana Gatewood, Director of Events and Public Relations

i. United Theological Seminary

For the past 150 years, United Theological Seminary has educated men and women for Christian ministry within the historic traditions of the United Brethren, Evangelical United Brethren, and United Methodist churches. On October 11, 1871, United Theological Seminary, then Union Biblical Seminary, held its first classes in Dayton, Ohio. From a starting class of 11 students, the seminary has grown to 488 students in its most recent academic year,* representing 39 denominations, 11 countries, and 39 states. Today’s seminary serves a diverse student body that is 53 percent African American.

On October 10, 2021, the seminary celebrated its 150th anniversary and burned the mortgage on its current campus facilities, freeing up $400,000 annually to support student scholarships.

In 2021, United received a grant of $1 million from Lilly Endowment Inc.’s Pathways for Tomorrow Initiative to expand the seminary’s Houses of Study, which offer specialized master’s tracks to equip students for the unique ministry needs of the communities, movements, and denominations they serve. The seminary has introduced six Houses of Study, currently enrolling for 2022-23:

- Fresh Expressions, directed by Dr. Michael Beck;
- Mosaix, in partnership with Mosaix Global Network and directed by Rev. Chip Freed;
- Hispanic, 100% in Spanish for Spanish-speaking leaders, directed by Dr. Jorge Ochoa;
- Black United Methodist, directed by Dr. Vance Ross;
- Global Pentecostal, directed by Dr. Mark Chironna;
- and, Global Wesleyan, directed by Rev. Gregory Stover.

Because United believes so passionately in this initiative, the seminary has dedicated additional resources to offer half-tuition scholarships for inaugural students in its Houses of Study programs.

United also introduced the Academic Dean’s Scholarship, which provides 50 percent tuition for the duration of a master’s degree program, and the Presidential Scholarship, awarding up to $5,000 per year to new students.

In honor of United’s 150th anniversary year, a generous donor gifted $2 million to help graduating students reduce their educational debt. Each graduate in the 2021-22 academic year will receive up to $20,000 toward student debt from theological and previous academic studies.

As United looks forward to the next 150 years with gratitude and anticipation, the seminary remains committed to the preparation of faithful and fruitful Christian leaders to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

Kent Millard, President

j. Wesley Theological Seminary

Some days, it seems beloved religious, civic, and educational institutions stand peering into the fog of an unknown future as questions resound: What does the collective future look like, and who will lead it? In the midst of these questions, Wesley remains committed to supporting pastors and churches and to preparing graduates to lead innovative ministries grounded in God's mercy and justice. It stands ready to accompany pastors and churches on the path to which God is calling them.

Creating new models of education that respond to student needs

Building on Wesley's strengths and responding to student needs, Wesley is pleased to announce two pathways for master's level students beginning in Fall 2022. For students who reside on or near campus, classes will continue to be offered each week on campus during daytime and evening periods. For students needing to remain in their own contexts, Wesley will offer a hybrid pathway that invites students to campus for a one-week intensive immersion each semester, with the remaining coursework being held online. Learn more about how to be part of the Wesley community and the Washington, DC experience through these pathways at <https://www.wesleyseminary.edu/mdiv/>.

These course pathways also support FlexMA, a degree program built to provide robust learning and theological formation for busy individuals that integrate faith, life, and professional experience with the flexibility needed to customize content and accommodate hectic schedules. Whether preparing for bi-vocational ministry in congregational and institutional settings, going deeper into one's own spiritual journey, or integrating faith and theology into an existing career or "third career" post-retirement, wherever God is calling, the FlexMA will help one prepare to respond fully. Learn more at <https://www.wesleyseminary.edu/flexma/>.

Research projects support congregational community engagement and envision future ministry

Four grants from the Lilly Endowment Inc, totaling $5.25 million, undergird Wesley's research into and support of congregational thriving and innovation.

- A new five-year project through the Wesley Innovation Hub will have two main foci: a one-year Design Fellowship to equip young adult leaders and the Wesley Design Lab, featuring both in-person and online curricula, training, and other resources for congregational innovation. Young adults age 23-29 are invited to apply for the Design Fellowship, which will provide an $8,000 stipend, community formation, spiritual direction, graduate-level courses in design thinking for ministry, and hands-on experience leading innovation in congregations. Wesley will also be seeking creative persons of faith to be "Innovators in Residence" at Wesley and partner churches who have interesting challenges or opportunities for young adult ministry. To learn more: <https://www.wesleyseminary.edu/wesley-innovation-hub/>
- A second new grant will undergird Wesley's move toward comprehensive theological education for the whole church. Wesley will strengthen its existing excellent master's and doctoral programs while also expanding a suite of pre-degree, post-degree (continuing education), and non-degree courses to meet the current and emerging needs of spiritual leaders in their context.
- Now in its second year of The Source Collaborative, Wesley continues to work with congregations in adjacent UMC annual conferences to identify markers of thriving and pursue them. Congregations and coaches interested in joining the 2023 cohort should apply by September 1, 2022 via innovation@wesleyseminary.edu.
- The Religious Workforce Project, run by the Lewis Center for Church Leadership, studies religious work in congregations across several denominations to understand current and future needs. Learn about emerging data at <https://religiousworkforce.com/>.

Using research and partnerships to reach and equip the next generation of ministers

Wesley is ready to work to make theological education more accessible and relevant to the realities of ministry today. Wesley offers an 81-hour Master of Divinity, a 36-hour Master of Arts, and a 60-hour Master of Theological Studies, any of which can be focused on specializations in public theology, urban ministry, arts and theology, missional church, children and youth ministry and advocacy, or African-American church leadership. Courses are available in person, online, and in intensive hybrid formats. Info at www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/try-a-class-3.

Wesley provides $2 million annually in scholarships via regular merit awards, ranging from 25 percent to 100 percent tuition with stipends, including full-tuition scholarships for qualified applicants recommended by WTS alumni, campus ministers, or Christian service ministries; Next Call in Ministry scholarships for students working in a non-ministry setting for at least 10 years; and Generación Latinx Scholarships for emerging Latinx leaders for ministries within and beyond the church.

Take your ministry to the next level

The Certificate for Children and Youth Ministry and Advocacy (CYMA) is a non-residential certificate completed in 12-15 months via online classes and up to two residential sessions (www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/cyma-3). The Certificate in Faith and Public Life explores the foundations of public theology, religious freedom, and civil discourse (www.wesleyseminary.edu/ice/programs/public-theology/public-life/).

Wesley's premiere Doctor of Ministry program includes three new 2022 tracks: Ministry in a Digital Age; Justice, Compassion, and Witness in a Turbulent World (Cambridge, UK); and a program focused on Latinx ministry. In 2023, it will again see popular DMin tracks: the Cambridge UK track, Military and CPE Chaplains, Global Church Leadership program, Church Leadership Excellence, and a groundbreaking track on Trauma. 3. THE GENERAL BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND MINISTRY

GBHEM seeks to promote innovative and experiential opportunities for transformative learning, higher education, and ministry formation worldwide. The agency works with key partners, churches, and institutions in Africa, Asia Pacific, Europe, and Eurasia, Latin American and the Caribbean, and North America to offer connective, contextual, and collaborative programs to support the church, the academy, and the world. Among its various activities, GBHEM is responsible for two initiatives approved by General Conference: The Methodist Global Education Fund for Leadership Development (MGEFLD) – which includes the Grants and Scholarships Program (GRASP) – and the Central Conference Theological Education Fund (CCTEF). The agency also maintains Regional Hubs for Leadership, Education and Development (LEAD Hubs) in various locations around the world, has helped create and support the International Association of Methodist Schools, Colleges, and Universities (IAMSCU), and works with regional education associations on five continents. GBHEM is currently partnering with general agencies and other organizations to support important projects on COVID-19 vaccine equity, mindfulness and wellbeing, net-zero emissions, human rights, and the promotion of a culture of generosity throughout the United Methodist worldwide connection.

In 1972, The United Methodist Church reaffirmed its support of the 11 historically black colleges and universities related to the denomination by creating the Black College Fund and this year celebrates its 50th Anniversary. Support for the Black College Fund supports the education of world-changing leaders by investing in the hopes and dreams of students from around the world. Continued support for the Black College Fund renews the vision for the next generation of transformational leaders.

GBHEM celebrates awarding more than 2,250 students a total of $4,084,979 in scholarships in 2021. These future leaders range from first year freshmen to doctorate level students across the denomination. The board is grateful for the support received in recognizing United Methodist Student Day, World Communion Sunday, and Native American Sunday which helps fund a portion of the scholarships. The remaining funds for these awards come from gifts, annuities, and endowments GBHEM has invested and administered for decades.

Worldwide Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Access (WIDEA) is a strategic focus area for GBHEM to align its work with the mission and ministry of congregations and constituents around the world. This renewed commitment includes advanced staff development in intercultural competency, active listening, and a deeper understanding of and appreciation for difference so relevant programs and services may be developed, offered, and implemented more equitably and effectively.

GBHEM remains committed to building and sustaining collaborative cross-conference networks that foster collegiality and guide credentialing for ordained and licensed ministry. The board has partnered with conference leaders to clarify the role of those in ministry while assisting in the interpretation and application of relevant paragraphs within The Book of Discipline. GBHEM has supported the work of recruiting, guiding, and credentialing candidates and clergy through the development of Passage - a comprehensive registry resource, as well as a virtual onboarding module for new district and conference board members.

Hundreds of years before amazon.com, John Wesley stuffed the saddlebags of circuit riders with books of theology and biblical interpretation—selling them to fund the movement while spreading it literally. GBHEM continues this innovative spirit by leveraging social enterprise opportunities and creative partnerships as a way of reducing its reliance on apportionments while continuing to focus on delivering the very best services, products, and programs to United Methodist constituents around the world.

The same spirit of service and leadership that first inspired John Wesley lives on in each of us. Today, GBHEM looks confidently to the future taking bold and creative action, remaining good stewards, and continuing to support The United Methodist Church in innovative and meaningful ways.

Greg Bergquist, General Secretary

X. HISTORICAL MATERIAL

A. HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Western North Carolina Conference shall include all North Carolina west of the North Carolina Conference, except Savannah Church, in Alleghany County, North Carolina; and also that part of North Carolina lying north of the New River, and including that part of Virginia lying south of that river in the loop in Grayson County, Virginia; including all the territory in Carroll and Patrick Counties, Virginia, south of the crest of the Blue Ridge, and west of the Dan River. (Discipline, 1948, ¶ 1957)

This territory is identical with that of the Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South. All three branches of Methodism forming The Methodist Church were included in this new conference. From the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church came 39 ministers and 11,901 church members. The North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church contributed 74 ministers and 22,361 church members. The Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, added 377 ministers and 167,028 church members. This gave the new conference 490 members, with 28 others on trial, and 201,290 church members. The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference has held 62 sessions; the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, 112; and the Western North Carolina, 50 (see Journal, 1939, pp. 115, 169).

The Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church was formed on June 5, 1968, by the merger of the Western North Carolina Conference and that portion of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference situated within the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference (see Journal, 1968, p. 84). The North Carolina-Virginia Conference had been organized in Greensboro on Aug. 11, 1964, and, in addition to the organizational session, held four sessions prior to the 1968 merger.

MEMOIRS OF DECEASED CLERGY AND DIACONAL MINISTERS RECOGNIZED AT THE 2022 SESSION

Edward William Allred

Edward William Allred was born on May 17, 1941, in Greensboro, N.C., to the late Colon L. Allred and Mae Frances Black Allred. After graduation from Greensboro/Grimsley High School, he attended Trevecca Nazarene College in Nashville, Tenn., where he graduated in 1964 with a bachelor's degree. He double-majored in elementary education and music. He later earned a master's degree and principal's certificate at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. It was while Ed was attending Trevecca that he met and married Martha Anet Godby. Ed and Martha were blessed with one son, Edward William (Bill) Allred Jr.

Ed enjoyed a lengthy career in education. He held teaching positions at Joyner and General Greene Elementary schools and Mendenhall Junior High School. Ed served as principal at Peeler, Claxton, Joyner, Jones, and Hunter Elementary schools.

Through the years, Ed was a part-time minister of music at Rolling Roads Church of the Nazarene, White Rock Church of the Nazarene, and at Mount Pisgah United Methodist Church in Greensboro. After his retirement from the educational field, Ed became a full-time director of church music and was consecrated as a diaconal minister at Mount Pisgah UMC. Under the supervision of the senior minister, Ed became the leader of the contemporary worship service. When Ed retired from Mount Pisgah, he became the part-time minister of congregational care and senior adult ministry at Mount Pleasant United Methodist Church in McLeansville.

Ed loved his family, education, and music, and he dedicated his life in service to each. He was interred in the columbarium at Mount Pisgah UMC, Greensboro, during a private family service. A memorial service was held December 11, 2021, at Mt. Pleasant UMC with the Rev. Dave Howard and the Rev. Andrew Brown officiating.

Alexander Mapes "Alec" Alvord

June 28, 1933 – August 11, 2021

Married 63 years, Alec and his wife, Dot, served God as partners in many adventures. Beginning as missionaries in Zimbabwe, Africa (1958-1977), Alec served as pastor, United Methodist Church school principal, conference primary and secondary school inspector, Old Testament professor, and district superintendent in the Rhodesian Conference of the UMC. The civil war against colonial white minority rule changed the Alvords' life. They are indebted to Fran and Julian Lindsay who welcomed them into the Western North Carolina Conference. Dot and Alec continued to serve as a team in western North Carolina – Alec as a compassionate, intellectual, mission-oriented pastor and servant leader and Dot as a kind, capable, passionate public-school teacher and advocate for marriage and mission through Clergy Partners and United Methodist Women. For decades, they made quite a splash appearing in matching Zimbabwean dashikis at UMW annual meetings and spiritual growth retreats. A partnership of complimentary personalities and skills, Alec and Dot went together like coffee and Alec's favorite McDonald's ice cream cone. When traveling with his companions from UMRP, Keys Pendleton and Hubert Clinard, besides eating Chinese food, a favorite stop was to get this dessert. Alec would scrape the ice cream top into the coffee after drinking the cup down a bit. Coffee was a culinary event!

Born the unexpected fifth child to Berenice Mapes and Emory Alvord, missionaries to Southern Rhodesia, Alexander Mapes was named after Alexander the Great and after his mother's family. Emory and Berenice had a whirlwind courtship at missionary training school and ventured to Zimbabwe in 1919. With Berenice's trailblazing spirit and Emory's artistic flair and athleticism, as Alexander grew, it was his smart wit and eagerness to be the first to answer questions, that shortened his name to "Alec," as in "Smart Alec." Raised in a family full of purpose and safari spirit, Alec's sisters, Virginia, and Nancy, often took the role of mothering him. His older brothers, Durland and Emory, took the roles of instructing him how to use a knife and a gun. The brothers had varying levels of success, as young Alec wounded himself with both knife and gun! Emory, an agricultural missionary, eventually headed up the Department of Native Agriculture in the Rhodesian government and developed an agricultural institute. Berenice used her education to teach women, who at that point, had no opportunity to be educated. Alec's lifelong interest in equal educational opportunities for girls came from his mom.

The British-style educational system in Zimbabwe instilled in Alec a discipline and rigor he later applied to Hebrew, Greek, and Shona, the language of the Mashona people with whom he and his wife, Dot, would serve as missionaries. They had their own whirlwind courtship in 1958 at what was then Scarritt College in Nashville, Tenn., (now the Scarritt Bennett Center and home to the Upper Room). Dot, born in Town Creek, Ala., was influenced by Lorena Kelly, a missionary to Zaire. At the Threes missionary training for young adults, Dot was smitten when Alec walked in late – wearing a dashiki, shorts, black socks, and sandals. What a man!

Alec journeyed to the United States to attend Washington State University as his father did. He even pledged his Dad's Alpha Gamma Rho farming fraternity. The only time these farming credentials showed themselves was in Wilkesboro, when Alec planted tomatoes in the backyard that grew all the way up to the second-story back deck of the house! Alec felt called not to farm with seeds, but with God's word, after working with other young people in Pulman, Wash., at the YMCA during the summers he was an undergraduate. Upon graduating from Washington State, he attended the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley, Calif. At PSR, Alec was influenced by Georgia Harkness, the first woman to attain the position of full professor in an American theological seminary. Harkness laid the groundwork for women's ordination as well the World Council of Churches. These influences forged Alec's clarity about appointing women in an equal manner when he served as a district superintendent in the Marion District (later merged to form the Blue Ridge District). He also served on behalf of WNCC on the North Carolina Council of Churches and itinerated in each district sharing the importance of ecumenism across the Tar Heel State. This groundwork would aid the development of Project AGAPE when he served as outreach and mission coordinator for WNCC as that relationship with Armenia spans Methodism in North Carolina. His service on behalf of WNCC as a Jurisdictional, General and World Methodist Conference delegate fulfilled his vocational calling, his interest in polity and legislation geared toward the rural church as well as his passion for adventure.

Alec's intellectual curiosity led him to post-graduate studies at Harvard University, Duke Divinity School, and Candler School of Theology at Emory University where he pursued course work for a Ph.D. in Old Testament studies before being called back to Zimbabwe by the bishop there. He never completed a dissertation. Instead, he served, built relationships, developed community, and vacated each position he served in Zimbabwe to a native Zimbabwean. Alec's service in WNCC was marked by integrity, theological prowess, and an indefatigable spirit that sent him driving a box truck around the conference. Wearing shorts and tennis shoes, Alec donned a sweat band across his forehead, using his puzzle-solving skills to load as many items for Project AGAPE as the truck could hold. He was so pleased at the development of the Mission Response Center in Terrell, N.C., to house, package, and distribute items for people caught in natural or person-made disasters, not only in Armenia but everywhere around the globe.

After transferring from the Rhodesia Conference in 1965, his appointments included: Pinnacle, 1965-1967; missionary to Rhodesia, 1967-1977; Advance-Mocks, 1977-1981; Wilkesboro, 1981-1988, Marion District superintendent, 1988-1993, WNCC coordinator for outreach and mission, 1993-2000. He retired in 2000 but continued to serve in retirement, including serving as conference director of volunteer response ministries, 2002-2007.

Dot and Alec have three children, all born in Zimbabwe: Karen Stevens of Weaverville (Dr. James Stevens, deceased); Lex Alvord of Pittsboro (Tanya Alvord – Megan and Mitch Houke, Joshua Alvord); Veranita Alvord of Reidsville (Joe Tarpley – Olivia and Ivan), all born in Zimbabwe. When he was serving as outreach and mission coordinator, Alec and Dot attended Sharon United Methodist Church. There, they befriended a young couple from Ghana who are bonus family; Kwabena (Kay) and Cecilia Apau-Kese of Gastonia and their children, AJ, Alvord, and Adriel.

Always one to discuss the quality of life versus the quantity of life, Alec's natural vigor began to wane in June 2021 with a minor stroke, just prior to a surprise birthday party for he and Dot at their eldest daughter's home. They dressed alike, of course, in red and white! A major stroke sent him to the hospital in August, and he died peacefully at the Solace Center in Asheville on a beautiful summer afternoon, surrounded by children and grandchildren.

Donald Winberry Ashe

May 15, 1932 – January 6, 2022

After a lifetime of faithful service, the Rev. Donald Winberry Ashe joined his Lord and Savior on January 6, 2022, from Novant Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem, N.C. In addition to his parents, James E. and Anne Winberry Ashe, Rev. Ashe was preceded to the church triumphant by three brothers and two sisters.

Rev. Ashe was born on May 15, 1932, in Sylva, N.C., where his family first lived with his grandparents. His earliest memories, however, were of living in Asheville where his family attended what is now Central United Methodist Church and where he was baptized. He attended William Randolph Elementary School, David Millard Junior High and graduated from Lee H. Edwards Sr. High School in 1950. After one year at Asheville-Biltmore Junior College, he joined the U.S. Navy on June 13, 1951. Serving during the Korean War, he was assigned to a troop transport and later an oil tanker and was responsible for dispersing pay to the crew. After the ceasefire, he was assigned shore duty in Guam, where he set up a disbursing office in Saipan for the Coast Guard, U.S. Navy, Seabees, U.S. Civil Services, and natives of the island. On May 18, 1955, he was discharged in San Francisco and returned to North Carolina to attend what was known then as Western Carolina College where he graduated on June 2, 1958, and received a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration.

While attending Western Carolina, Rev. Ashe met N. Kate Davis. They were married on September 8, 1957, in Travelers Rest, S.C. She already had her degree in elementary education and was working as an assistant in the college library. After Rev. Ashe graduated from Western Carolina, they moved to Atlanta, Ga., where Kate began her teaching career, and he attended the Candler School of Theology at Emory University. He received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1961 and again returned to North Carolina to become an elder in the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church. After they moved to Winston-Salem in 1968, Kate returned to graduate school and earned her Master of Library Science degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She served the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools for 30 years. Their life together included the birth of their three children: James Edward, Donna Kate (Jim Rodriguez), and William Barth (Stephanie Pipes), always a source of great joy and pride. With all their love, they welcomed five grandchildren into the family: Indrani "Rani" Ashe, Bailey Ashe Hypes (Ethan Hypes), Colin Ashe, Leanna Rodriguez, and Victoria Rodriguez. With great joy, they celebrated two great-grandchildren born in 2020: Arlo and Atticus Hypes.

Rev. Ashe was licensed to preach in 1958, entered the Western North Carolina Conference on trial in 1959, became a deacon in 1960, and received full connection as an elder in 1962. His first appointment was First (Newton), associate pastor, 1961-1962. Additional appointments were: Monticello (Statesville), 1962-1963; Lowe's (Reidsville), 1963-1965; Snow Hill (Asheville District), 1965-1968; Mount Carmel (Winston-Salem), 1968-1970; sabbatical and supernumerary, 1970-1972; Mount Pleasant-Tabernacle (Winston-Salem District), 1972-1973; voluntary location, 1973-1989; Shiloh-Olivet (Winston-Salem District), 1989-1993; and East Marion-West Marion, 1993-1997. He retired in 1997 to Winston-Salem, where he served Hanes, 1997-1999.

Rev. Ashe faithfully served beyond the local church as well. He was certified as a minister of Christian education while Carl H. King was executive secretary of the annual conference board of education, and he led classes in the district leadership training schools. He was certified as a lab leader of both Junior and Senior High. He was honored by Mt. Carmel in Winston-Salem, who sent him on a conference building team to Puerto Rico in February, 1969. In 1970, he was certified by the School of Pastoral Care of then-North Carolina Baptist Hospital and the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, Winston-Salem. In the early 1970s, he extended pastoral care to the community by reaching out through a radio program called “Witness To The Light” (John 1:7). In September 1991, Shiloh United Methodist Church honored him by purchasing one new seat in George R. Stuart Auditorium. In 1997, a sermon collection, “Preaching On The Beatitudes,” which he wrote, was published. Even in retirement and working together with the excellent lay leadership of the congregation of Hanes United Methodist Church in Winston-Salem, the church received the conference’s annual recognition as a Church of Excellence for two straight years. Upon full retirement, his conference membership was accepted by Pine Grove United Methodist Church in Winston-Salem where he taught the older adult Sunday school classes, and Don and Kate together delivered the Pine Grove route for Meals on Wheels for nine years. In the last few years, they briefly moved to Heritage Woods where he led the residents in worship on multiple occasions

In his memoir, Rev. Ashe wrote, “Whatever contribution I have made in life, like my Grandfather, John Vance Ashe suggested, is by the grace of God and the love of my family. The success of my life is that my children know Jesus Christ as their personal Savior and that my grandchildren be raised to accept Christ as their Lord. May God so grant this through faith.” He was a joy and bright light to his family, those whom he served, and those in his community.

On January 15, 2022, a celebration of Rev. Ashe’s life was held at Pine Grove UMC in Winston-Salem, and he was laid to rest in the cemetery there. The Rev. Marilyn Weiler and the Rev. Mike Darnell officiated.

Albert Joseph Daniel Aymer

December 23, 1936 – November 5, 2021

The Rev. Dr. Albert Joseph Daniel Aymer was an educator, an administrator, and a shepherd. He contributed to shaping many theological minds and preparing many persons for ministry.

Rev. Aymer was born to the late John and Millanette Taitt Aymer on December 23, 1936, in Liberta on the island of Antigua. He remained in Antigua until 1959 when he responded to God’s call to ministry and began ministerial service and academic pursuits. In preparation for and refinement of his ministerial vocation, Rev. Aymer attained a Diploma in Theology from Caenwood Theological College in Jamaica, 1963; Master of Divinity degree from Lancaster Theological Seminary, 1970; Master of Arts degree from Drew University, 1978; Master of Philosophy degree from Drew University, 1980; and Doctor of Philosophy degree from Drew University, 1983.

In 1981, Rev. Aymer was ordained as an elder in the Greater New Jersey Conference. Prior to ordination, he served as pastor, chaplain, and school superintendent in parishes in Grenada and St. Vincent, in Barbados, on the island of Tobago, and in Jamaica, as a member of the Great Britain Conference. He also served as a staff member in the World Division of the General Board of Global Ministries, 1979-1981. As an ordained elder, he served as associate dean, director of the Doctor of Ministry program, and associate professor of contemporary ministries at Drew Theological School, 1982-1993. He served as senior pastor of First (Morristown, N.J.), 1993-1994. Dr. Aymer served at Hood Theological Seminary as academic dean, interim president of Livingstone College, and as the seminary’s first president, 1994-2013. He retired in the Greater New Jersey Conference in 2004 and retired from the presidency at Hood Seminary in 2013. He transferred his membership to the Western North Carolina Conference in 2014 as a retired elder.

Dr. Aymer’s work at Hood Seminary speaks to his legacy as educator, administrator, and shepherd, along with his other service throughout his years of ministry. When he arrived, Hood Seminary was in a small building at the periphery of Livingstone College’s campus, with 30 students. Under his leadership, Hood became an independent institution and relocated to its own campus, which was formerly a hotel. Dr. Aymer led the institution in transforming the former hotel into academic space. The Albert J.D. Aymer Center for Spiritual Growth and Ministerial Formation, a contemporary multi-purpose facility, is reflective of this transformation. Under his leadership, Hood also established a Doctor of Ministry program, earned full accreditation from the Association of Theological Schools in the USA and Canada (ATS), grew to more than 300 students, and was recognized for academic excellence, ecumenism, and racial diversity. In addition, Dr. Aymer served for six years on the Board of Accreditation of the ATS. He also received keys to the City of Salisbury, the Order of the Longleaf Pine award, and a Doctor of Divinity honoris causa from Catawba College.

A series of health challenges led Dr. Aymer to relocate to Texas in 2017. He departed peacefully from this life to his eternal home on November 5, 2021. Dr. Aymer is survived by his former wife, Shirley Delores Lewin; his three daughters, the Rev. Dr. Margaret P. Aymer Oget (August 3, 1968) and her spouse, Dr. Laurent Oget, Prof. Valerie Aymer (September 27, 1969), and Ann-Marie Millinette Aymer (April 15, 1976) and her spouse, the Rev. Kristen Claire Foley; and by his grandson, Gabriel Albert Charles Oget.

Dr. Aymer’s legacy was celebrated on December 11, 2021, with a memorial service at Vailsburg United Methodist Church in South Orange, N.J., on January 6, 2022, with a memorial service and interment at Ebenezer Methodist Church in St. John’s, Antigua, and on April 7, 2022, with a service of interment at the Albert J.D. Aymer Center for Spiritual Growth and Ministerial Formation at Hood Theological Seminary in Salisbury, N.C.

Grady Ross Barringer

January 19, 1929 – February 21, 2022

The Rev. Grady Ross “Poppy” Barringer was born January 19, 1929, to Dennis Dutton Barringer and Pearl Ross Barringer. Blessed with parents who were leaders at then-Cold Springs Methodist Church, he became immersed in the Christian community at an early age. As a young teen, he made a vow to follow Christ with a faithful devotion for the rest of his life.

After graduating from Mt. Pleasant High School, he ventured on to then-Pfeiffer College. To further prepare for his future in ministry, he then enrolled at Emory University, where he earned his Bachelor of Divinity degree from the Candler School of Theology in 1950. At Emory, he was a member of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity and the University Choir. In 1953, Grady was admitted on trial to the Western North Carolina Conference, and he was ordained as a deacon in 1954. In 1955, he was ordained as an elder and was received into full connection. He was recognized for 74 years of consecutive attendance at the Western North Carolina Annual Conference in June 2019.

On March 19, 1950, he married Anne Jeanne Lambert. They were married for 63 years until her death in 2015. Sonya Jeanne (Davenport) was born in 1951, and Robin Marie (Smith) was born in 1954. Sonya and Robin were privileged to be part of Grady and Jeanne’s faithful devotion to nine N.C. United Methodist churches over a span of 59 years.

Grady and Jeanne served their church appointments as a team. It was often said that those churches got the “two for one deal.” Grady’s legacy of faithful ministry will continue through the multitude of lives he touched in the name of Christ. The churches blessed with his leadership were: Elizabeth Chapel, Dellwood and Maple Grove (Waynesville District), 1953-1957; Sulphur Springs (Shelby), 1957-1962; New Hope (Winston-Salem), 1962-1967; Calvary (High Point), 1967-1972; Bethpage (Kannapolis), 1972-1979; and Mt. Pleasant (Sherrills Ford), 1979- 1991. He retired in 1991 and served McKendree Chapel (Mooresville) while in retirement, 1992-1999. Grady worked tirelessly to grow every congregation he was involved with, and he was instrumental in helping his churches with building and facility upgrades.

Upon retirement, Grady returned to Mt. Pleasant United Methodist Church as visitation minister and was named pastor emeritus in 2012. His greatest love and mission was comforting those in need, and he found interesting ways to spread God’s word. One of Grady’s unique approaches was his “Cross Ministry.” He gave small metal crosses to everyone he saw, as he reminded them of Christ’s love. During his final days in the hospital, he continued sharing crosses and witnessing to those giving him medical care. Grady was also known for his telephone ministry, which involved daily phone calls to wish happy birthdays and anniversaries, and to offer encouragement.

Grady was not only loved and respected in each church he served, but also the surrounding communities. He was a Mason, a Lion’s Club member (honored in Sherrills Ford for outstanding service in the community), an annual member of the Junaluska Associates, longtime camp meeting participant, and chaplain for Sherrills Ford Fire and Rescue at the time of his death.

Pastor Grady passed away on February 21, 2022, in Greensboro, N.C. A celebration of life was held March 6, 2022, at Mt. Pleasant UMC. He was interred in the columbarium there with his beloved “Jeannie.” The family intended to scatter his ashes at Lake Junaluska after the memorial service on June 18, 2022.

The following message was included in Grady’s celebration of life, as it reflects his legacy to the fullest: “In honor of Pastor Grady’s legacy, please be kind to others, look for the good in people, and continue to pass along the powerful message of the cross.”

Bobby Ray Beck

April 3, 1931 – June 25, 2021

Bobby Ray Beck was born on April 3, 1931, in Thomasville, N.C., to the late Coy Ervin Beck and Cynthia Blanche Kennedy Beck. As part of the seven generations of Becks born on American soil, Bobby grew up on his family’s farm on Unity Street in Thomasville.

From birth until his marriage, he was an active member of Prospect United Methodist Church with his parents, brother Paul, and sisters Peggy and Polly. His mother always said that one of her sons would one day be a preacher. Bobby never thought he would be the one to become a pastor, but even though he could not understand it then, God was preparing him to answer the call into ministry.

Bobby studied at Louisburg College where he received his Associate of Arts degree in 1960. He then attended Duke Divinity School, completing Course of Study and receiving the Certificate of Attainment in July 1967. He completed the Advanced Course of Study at Duke in 1972. Later, he also studied at High Point College, receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1973.

Bobby was licensed to preach in 1962, ordained as a deacon in 1966 and ordained as an elder in 1971. He pastored for 33 years in the Western North Carolina Conference, serving 10 different churches. His first appointment was cut short due to illness; he only served for five months. His ministry service includes: Friendship (Greensboro District), 1964-1969; Union Chapel (Mocksville), 1969-1971; Northwood-St. Timothy, 1971-1972; Northwood, 1972-1978, Johnstontown (Thomasville District), 1978-1983, Fairview (Trinity), 1983-1984; Park Avenue (Salisbury), 1984-1990; Hopewell (Trinity), 1990-1992; and Ward Street (High Point), 1992-1995. Bobby and Betty Jean retired from full time ministry service in 1995.

After entering retirement, Bobby was asked by the Korean pastor of Ward Street to help with mission work and assist in other areas. Bobby continued to participate in ministry by filling in at other churches even during retirement. During his years of ministry, he organized and led multiple trips to the Holy Land. Bobby, Betty Jean, and their youngest son, Stanley, returned to Johnstontown United Methodist Church and re-established their membership where they could continue to serve among friends who had come to be more like family.

Bobby married Betty Jean Lomax on November 26, 1951, and they had two sons, Ferris Michael Beck (January 14, 1956) and Stanley Ray Beck (December 10, 1963).

Bobby's wife of 68 years passed away on November 1, 2020. The Rev. Bobby Beck passed away on June 25, 2021, in Lexington, N.C., at age 90. Bobby enjoyed gospel music and always encouraged the musicians and choir members in their service as an important part of worship. Bobby is remembered as a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, friend, and pastor.

Ramona Celeste Morton Clapp

April 25, 1933 – December 15, 2021

The Rev. Ramona Celeste Morton Clapp was born April 25, 1933, in Walkertown, N.C., the daughter of the Rev. Vernon and Jennie Morton. She earned a bachelor's degree in philosophy and religion at Greensboro College in 1955 and a master's degree in Christian education at Scarritt College in 1966.

The Lord put Ramona on this earth to willingly – and lovingly – provide service to benefit her family, her neighbors, her parishioners, and all she encountered. While most of us see service to others in need as, at best, an occasional opportunity to do as Christ says, Ramona saw it as her divine calling and a blessing she enjoyed all her life. Those who experienced the direct assistance and sometimes unseen efforts of Ramona's service were helped in a moment of critical need or blessed at a time unforeseen. All who experienced her outpouring of love and support, whenever and wherever needed, found themselves soothed, realigned, emboldened, and healed.

Ramona married Donald Clinton Clapp in September 1964, having found each other through church. Together, they had two sons, Christopher Randolph Clapp, and Geoffrey Bryan Clapp. Both Ramona and Don were dedicated to their faith. Don served as a church organist in several congregations. Ramona, meanwhile, became a certified Director of Christian Education in 1965 and was consecrated as a diaconal minister by the Western North Carolina Conference in 1983. She was later ordained as a deacon of The United Methodist Church in 1997 and received into full connection that same year.

Her service record includes these appointments: Christ (High Point), director of Christian education, 1983-1985; Davidson County Department of Social Services, social worker, 1985 to September 1988; Ardmore (Winston-Salem), director of Christian education, 1988-1997; Ardmore, minister of education, 1997-2002. She took a leave of absence in 2002 and retired in 2003.

Ramona's family remembers her as a loving, kind, supportive person whose life was marked by a sense of genuine humility. She is remembered for embracing her family with love, warmth, and care, including as a second mother to her nieces and nephews. She lived by example, how to live a joyous and peace-filled life, with a deep sense of servitude and sacrificial love.

Loved ones knew they could expect new flashlights from Ramona each Christmas. In a very real way, those gifts symbolized who Ramona was and the light that she brought into people's lives. She was a bright, loving light on the hill, a gorgeous ray of joy and peace to whomever she met.

When Ramona retired from serving as youth minister at First UMC in High Point, a play was presented in her honor – a light-hearted evening of big laughs and a truckload of goodbyes. During the skit, a friend and youth member, Sarah Yates, put on a "Ramona Hat" and purse – with other youth asking if they could borrow a whisk for baking, a battery, an iron, a flashlight, and more, and as usual, it was pulled from her bottomless purse of household goods.

Others remember Ramona as the demure, quiet, and gentle rock whose life displayed a deep relationship with God. She embodied the words of the prophet Micah, to "do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with your God." She was steadfast in compassion, always building others up, behind the scenes bolstering, encouraging, and supporting.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Donald, on February 9, 2020. Ramona and Don had many addresses throughout their lives here on earth, but now they are truly at home in the arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Their sons survive them.

In life, Ramona never sought the spotlight for her service to others, she never pursued the limelight for her good deeds. But in her passing, we now clearly see that our souls were warmed by her light, and her lamp of love illuminated the best in all of us. Ramona's legacy of love and service stands as a beacon that lights our path to righteousness, and this ensures her afterglow will never fade.

Thank you, Lord, for such a gift as our mother and your child, the Rev. Ramona M. Clapp.

Thomas Eugene Conder Jr.

December 23, 1964 – March 11, 2022

Thomas "Tommy" Eugene Conder Jr. was born in Charlotte, N.C., on December 23, 1964, to Thomas E Conder Sr. and the late Geraldine McCarter Conder. Tommy attended local schools in Charlotte, graduating from Independence High School in 1983. He received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte in 2001. He earned a Master of Divinity degree (summa cum laude) from Hood Theological Seminary in 2005. Tommy was licensed as a local pastor in 1999, commissioned a Probationary Elder in 2005 and ordained as an elder in full connection in the Western North Carolina Conference in 2009.

Rev. Conder's service record is as follows: Park Avenue-Bethel, 1999-2001; Bethel (Rowan County), 2001-2003; Harmony, 2003-2005; First (Landis), 2005-2007; North Kannapolis, 2007-2012; McKendree, 2012-2014; Vanderburg, 2014-2017; Mill Grove (Indian Trail), 2017-2019; and Rock Grove (Salisbury), 2019-2022.

One of the most difficult challenges in life occurs when death comes to someone we love. The death of a family member is profound, but the death of a dear friend and ministerial colleague at an early age impacts us in deeply personal and profound ways. Pastors are expected to bury other people. Human beings grow older and experience the decline of bodies and mental faculties. However, none of us were prepared for the painful news of Friday, March 11, 2022, that the Rev. Thomas Eugene Conder Jr. had died.

I met Tommy when I entered ministry in 1993 and was appointed to serve his home church, University City United Methodist Church. We became good friends and shared much of life and ministry together over the years as he accepted God's call upon his life. We attended Hood Theological Seminary together, later graduating and being ordained as elders. Tommy remained a faithful, trustworthy friend to me for more than 28 years, and I will miss him deeply. He could be gentle and sympathetic or offer some words that may have been hard to hear, but I always trusted his intentions were for my best. A friend like Tommy Conder is a blessing beyond measure.

A pastor for nearly 23 years, Tommy touched people's lives at some of the most intimate and vulnerable times anyone can experience. He welcomed everyone into the communities he served, assuring them there was a place for them at God's table. He received their professions of faith, confirmed their faith, joined them in marriage as they made sacred vows before God, and shared their joy at the births of their children. He presided over the sacraments, offering the body and blood of Christ and baptizing infants, youth, and adults into the covenantal embrace of God's unconditional and saving love.

He connected deeply with people of all ages and loved helping young people navigate the challenges of adolescence, seeing them emerge as confident, healthy adults. He sat by the beds of so many while they were sick and hospitalized, holding their hands and praying for healing. He sat with church members as they passed from this life and entered the Church Triumphant, offering the comfort of scripture, prayers, hugs, tears, and tender words. Perhaps most importantly, Tommy Conder stood in the pulpit every Sunday and preached the Word of God, leading people into a saving relationship with God through Jesus Christ, continuing to help them grow in their new relationship until the day of his death on March 11, 2022.

Tommy was a shepherd of the highest order to the flocks God entrusted to his care, regardless of whether they were officially church members. He loved being welcomed into the unofficial gatherings in the communities where he served. He took pleasure in being the unofficial chaplain at his local Waffle House where he provided pastoral guidance and care to anyone who crossed his path. When someone needed a pastor, Tommy was available regardless of the weather or the time of day or night. Perhaps that's why an overflow crowd gathered on March 14, 2022, at North Kannapolis United Methodist Church to celebrate his life and ministry. The memorial service was conducted by the Rev. Bruce Jones and myself.

Tommy met Andrea Redard in the office of their district superintendent, the Rev. Dr. Harold Bales who introduced them, pointing out they were both single and available. They became ministry colleagues, shared the same study group, and were later married by Dr. Bales on December 30, 2001. They attended Hood Theological Seminary together, and along the way had two amazing, talented children, Emma and Trey, whom they supported at band concerts, church activities, school musicals, and all their activities. The only role Tommy enjoyed more than being a pastor was his role as husband and father.

Tommy was honored and proud to serve as a United Methodist pastor. Although he served several churches during his tenure, his home church, University City UMC, remained a big part of his heart and soul. Tommy willingly served on the Board of Ordained Ministry and various WNCC committees.

In The Pastor: A Memoir, author and theologian Eugene Peterson recounts starting Christ Our King Presbyterian Church in Bel Air, Md., outlining his gradual discovery of what it really means to be a pastor. In the end, Peterson discovers that being a pastor boils down to "paying attention to what is going on now between men and women, with each other and with God." I think that describes the very best intentions of Tommy.

I want to end with an apt closing for any pastor's life from Luke 2:29-32 (NRSV): "Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel." So it is when a pastor departs earth for heaven. We mourn even as we give thanks for his life and contributions to our lives and God's kingdom.

Homer Clayton Dawkins

July 16, 1942 – September 25, 2021

The Rev. Homer C. Dawkins, after living a full, fruitful, and Spirit-filled life, entered the "promised, Eternal life" through the saving grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on September 25, 2021.

"Dutch" to those who knew him best, Homer was born July 16, 1942, in Greensboro, N.C., to the late Laura Mattie Dawkins and Scott Daye. In addition to his parents, the family consisted of a sister, Deborah Daye, and two brothers, Michael Dawkins and Timothy Daye.

A celebration of life service was held October 4, 2021, at St. Matthews United Methodist Church, Greensboro, led by the Rev. Rodvegas Ingram and the Rev. Dr. Paul F. Perkins Sr. In addition to the parents, Homer was preceded in death by brother Michael Dawkins Sr., nephew Michael Dawkins Jr., and grandson Jaye Dawkins. Left to carry forth his memories and legacy are his loving wife of 54 loving, devoted years, Evelyn Raye Shoffner-Dawkins; four sons, Tyrone (Chantelle) Dawkins, Quanton (Margaret) Dawkins, Sean (Roslyn) Dawkins, and Kyle (Roleta) Dawkins; nine grandchildren, Marcus, Kiah, Kameron, Jordan, Ryan, Xavier, Natalia, Dakota, and Nathaniel; and two siblings, Deborah and Timothy Daye. Burial services were held at Lakeview Cemetery, Greensboro, with full military honors.

Homer graduated from James B. Dudley High School (Greensboro) in 1960. He then enrolled at N.C. A&T State College (now A&T State University) to pursue a degree in physical education. These studies were interrupted when he decided to enlist in the U.S. Navy where he served honorably in foreign deployment, 1961-1966. After a 30-year career as an automobile salesperson, he heard and answered God's call to ministry in 2001. He became a candidate for ministry in 1985 and completed the required course of study at Duke Divinity School in 2001. He was licensed to preach in 1994 and ordained as a deacon in the Western North Carolina Conference in 2002.

Rev. Dawkins served as a special assistant at Laughlin Memorial United Methodist Church, 1994-1996, with the Rev. Paul. F. Perkins Sr. Later, he served the following appointments: St. Peter-Ferree's Chapel, 1996-2003; Holmes Grove, 2003-2010; and Wither's Chapel, 2010-2015. He served Wither's Chapel in retired status from 2015-2021.

Homer had numerous hobbies and interests which included cooking, photography, watching sports on television, and completing home improvement projects when time permitted. He loved his family, but he especially adored his grandchildren; he was affectionately known as "G-Poppy" or "Pop-Pop."

In a moment of reflection during his later years, Rev. Dawkins said that he felt his purpose was to "help somebody and be blessing to others." He said that if he had done that, then he had fulfilled what God wanted him to do.

Alice Nimmons Parker Day

July 25, 1951 – December 16, 2021

The Rev. Alice Parker Day was resurrected to life eternal on December 16, 2021, after a brief illness. She was born July 25, 1951, the youngest of four daughters, to the Honorable Marshall J. and Mrs. Martha Parker. Throughout her childhood, the future Rev. Day and her family were active members of Saint Mark United Methodist Church, where she was baptized and confirmed, and where her budding call to ordained ministry was nurtured as a leader in the state UMYF. Day earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Columbia College and a Master of Arts degree in English from Clemson University before finally enrolling at Emory University's Candler School of Theology, where she received a Master of Divinity degree in 1980. While in seminary, Day spent each spring semester teaching English at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College in Tifton, Ga., before returning for the summer and fall terms at Candler.

After seminary, Day returned to Seneca, S.C., to teach in the technical college system of South Carolina, which had been established by her father during his terms as a state legislator, and she began dating her future husband, Derek P. Day. They wed November 13, 1982, and they celebrated 39 years of a strong, loving marriage before being separated by her death. Together, Derek and Alice raised three children, Miss Rebekah Alice Day, U.S. Air Force Maj. Derek Paul Day Jr., and the Rev. Fr. Marshall Benjamin Day (Ben). Her children were a great source of pride and joy for Alice, and they frequently accompanied her on pastoral visits and at the occasional district event during her ordained ministry.

Once her children were school-aged and more independent in daily life, Day heard God's call to service in ordained ministry anew. She pursued God's call to the Western North Carolina Conference and was ordained as a deacon in 1998 and as an elder in full connection in 2000. Her ministry appointments included: Myrtle-Smyre (Gastonia), 1998-1999; Myrtle-Lowell/Smyre (Gastonia), 1999-2003; First (Canton), 2003-2006; Pleasant Grove (Forest City), 2006-2011; Gamewell (Lenoir), 2011-2015; Brower's Chapel-Calvary (Asheboro), 2015-2018; Bess Chapel-Bethlehem (Lincolnton), 2018-2021; and Puett (Dallas), 2021 until her death.

Day loved being a pastor and excelled in preaching and pastoral care. She would often remark that her particular gift in officiating funerals and caring for those in grief had been sparked by her own early introduction to grief at age 7 after the death of her eldest sister in an automobile accident in 1958. Day also loved supporting and mentoring other clergywomen, having been the first female pastor appointed to most of the churches she served throughout her life in ministry.

At her death, Day was very much looking forward to her heavenly home, and she was ushered into life eternal with prayers from the Book of Common Prayer offered by her son, the Rev. Ben Day, whom she liked to tease often about having "defected" to the Episcopal Church during his seminary education, and with her husband, Derek, by her side. In an act of providential love, Day had just spoken to both of her other children by phone just minutes before she died suddenly at Emory University Hospital in Atlanta, Ga. She was buried in a graveside service next to her parents and eldest sister in her native Seneca, S.C., with the younger Rev. Day officiating. A celebration of her life was officiated by her district superintendent, the Rev. David Christy, and her dearest friend, the Rev. Theresa Blanton at Puett United Methodist Church where she was under appointment at the time of her death. Well done, good and faithful servant. Rest in peace and rise in glory!

Ben Day

Clarence Harley Dickson Jr.

March 8, 1929 – August 19, 2021

Clarence Harley Dickson Jr. was born March 8, 1929, in Asheville, N.C. With his family and from an early age, Harley was nurtured by and an active servant in the Methodist Church. Also from an early age, Harley admired and assisted his father as a building contractor, specializing in residential construction.

Following the summer of his graduation from Lee Edwards High School, Harley continued his education at Davidson College majoring in physics and business to prepare to join his father in building and repairing homes in Buncombe County. Harley joined in that work in 1949. But his professional career as a contractor proved short-lived. Changing circumstances and the steady, quiet whisper of the Holy Spirit led Harley to answer a call to ministry. He was licensed to preach in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1951. He earned a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1954 and received an honorary Doctor of Divinity from then-Pfeiffer College in 1984.

Also in 1951, Harley married Inez Rufty whose father was a Methodist preacher and accepted his first appointment to the Coleridge Charge. Harley and Inez remained married 68 years until her death in 2020. They were blessed with two sons, Chuck (Sybil) and Ken; four grandchildren, Johanna, Daniel, Sam and Nora; and two great-grandchildren. Harley's many Dickson cousins in the Asheville area as well as his family ties to Haywood County attest to the depth of Harley's N.C. mountain roots.

Harley served faithfully and effectively for 46 years. His appointments included: Coleridge, 1951-1955; Aldersgate (Shelby), 1955-1959; Main Street (Albemarle), 1959-1964; Wadesboro First, 1964-1967; Waynesville District superintendent, 1967-1971; Lexington First, 1971-1975; Providence (Charlotte), 1975-1984; West Market Street (Greensboro), August 30, 1984-1990; Greensboro District superintendent, 1990-1992; executive director and president of the United Methodist Foundation of WNC, September 1, 1992-1997.

Always active in conference leadership, Harley gave guidance and energy to efforts to improve clergy pensions and pension policy. He also served as a guide and encourager for better stewardship of financial resources for individuals and churches in making disciples of Jesus Christ.

Upon retirement, Harley stayed vital and active in various ministries including leadership to the Royce and Jane Reynolds Ministries that directed resources annually to ministry grants across the Western North Carolina Conference and beyond. Harley was also instrumental in helping develop clergy leadership programs such as the Reynolds Certificate in Church Leadership and the LEAD Academy, both of which are training generations of pastors in effective, visionary leadership.

Harley and Inez had a special place in their hearts for mission work in Haiti, leading building teams and encouraging participation of lay folk from Charlotte and across the conference.

Harley published several books over the years, including The Real Miracle (about the ongoing mission work in Haiti), All I Really Need to Know About Ministry I Learned on a Four-Point Charge (a reflection on his four years serving the Coleridge Charge) and From Vision To Reality (a study of leadership).

Harley was an avid golfer enjoying many happy hours on courses in Waynesville, Asheville, Charlotte, and across the Piedmont. He and Inez also enjoyed taking family and friends out on Lake Norman when they lived there. The Dickson house on Carolina Drive at Lake Junaluska was a favorite gathering spot for many during annual conference and other times over the years.

Harley was led by a greater vision of the Kingdom of God in his preaching, leadership, service to the WNCC and mentoring of fellow clergy. His authenticity, integrity, striving for excellence and appreciation of others' gifts and graces for ministry inspired a generation of clergy and lay persons in our annual conference and beyond.

We are better for having had Harley Dickson as a friend, colleague, and fellow servant of Christ.

Carl Fredrick Dunker

November 27, 1929 – March 7, 2022

The Rev. Dr. Carl Fredrick Dunker was born November 29, 1929, in Cairo, Ill., as one of eight children to the late Harry Joseph Dunker and Lavonia Elizabeth Caldwell.

At age 14 in 1943, Carl surrendered his life to Jesus Christ during a revival meeting a few days before Christmas at First Methodist Church in Cairo. Before this change of heart, he had only attended Sunday school less than 12 times and a worship service only once. Also, he spent many of his Sunday afternoons and grade school days in a tavern called the Barrel House. It was at a revival meeting in August 1947 at Community Methodist Church, Dogtooth Bend, Ill., where he met his future wife, Barbara Ann Ridgeway. At another revival meeting in Sandusky, Ill., Carl answered the call to spread the gospel. He preached his first sermon in May 1948 at Tigert

Memorial Methodist Church in Cairo and later that August became a weekend supply preacher for Thebes Methodist Church in Thebes, Ill. Carl continued to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ for the next 70 years throughout Illinois and North Carolina.

Carl was an outstanding athlete in high school and played various sports, including football and basketball. His high school football coach offered to put Carl in for a full athletic scholarship at Murray State University in Kentucky, but Carl turned it down to follow Jesus Christ. His love of flying eventually led him to serve as a chaplain in the Civil Air Patrol (rank, Captain) even though many years earlier he denied himself the opportunity to accept a commission in the U.S. Air Force. There were numerous times when Carl could have chosen a different career path, but he remained faithful to his calling to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ.

He was also an avid hunter who grew up in southern Illinois learning to hunt rabbit, quail, duck, geese, and fish. As a young pastor, his ability to hunt often provided the only meat for his growing family. He quickly earned the nickname “dead-eye Dunker” in one parish because of his hunting skills. It was these sportsman qualities of hunting and athletics that enabled him to connect with parishioners wherever he served. Carl was able to draw men to church just to hear him preach who otherwise would not have attended.

He was a graduate of Cairo (Ill.) High School, 1947; studied at McKendree University, Lebanon, Ill., 1951; graduated from Greenville College, Greenville, Ill., A.B. degree, 1953; graduated from Christian Theological Seminary at Butler University, Indianapolis, Ind., Theta Phi, 1955, Master of Divinity degree, 1956, Master of Arts degree, 1957; International Bible College and Seminary, Independence, Mo., Doctor of Philosophy degree, 1990.

Carl’s first church was First Methodist Church, Cairo, Ill., 1943. He was ordained as a deacon in 1954 in the Southern Illinois Conference and previously admitted to the conference in 1953. He was ordained as an elder in 1956 in the Illinois Conference and served 1956-1962. He served in The United Church of Christ, Southern Conference, 1962-1974. Carl transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1974. His service record in the WNCC includes: Farmer (Denton), 1974-1975; Mt. Vernon (High Point), 1976-1981; Oak Forest (Winston-Salem), 1981-1988; Bethesda-Smyre, 1988-1990; Bethesda, 1990-1993; and Coburn Memorial (Salisbury), 1993-1995. He retired in 1995.

Carl was a passionate evangelist and writer with more than 31 semester hours in the field of oral communication to include speech, drama, radio, and television. These gifts enabled him to contribute articles on evangelism to the North Carolina Christian Advocate, WNCC official newspaper (1986). He wrote, narrated, and produced “A Child is Born,” a Christmas radio program of WMFR radio, High Point (1977). He wrote, narrated, and produced “A Hill Called Calvary,” an outdoor pantomime drama with music, sound effects, and lights, Oak Forest UMC, Winston-Salem, for presentation during Holy Week (1989). As a coordinator for Connection, Methodism’s syndicated radio program, his interview with a redeemed convict, Charles “Rocky” Rothschild, earned the DeRose Hinkhouse Award presented by the Religious Public Relations Council, Program No. 55 (1979). Carl contributed articles which helped to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ through local newspapers. He wrote “What Do You Believe?” weekly articles for The Randolph Guide, Randolph County (1972). He also wrote “Reflections” for the North Davidson Dispatch, Lexington (1981).

Carl’s service to the ministry carried him through four conferences and two denominations. Throughout his parish assignments, Carl carried with him a desire to fight injustice. While assigned to Wake Chapel, Fuquay-Varina, N.C., Carl received a baptism into the civil rights movement (1963). Also, while assigned to Coburn Memorial, Carl organized local pastors to fight against the increase in drug trafficking.

Rev. Dr. Dunker passed away at his home on March 7, 2022, in Asheboro, N.C. Funeral services were held March 12, 2022, at Tigert Memorial United Methodist Church, Cairo, Ill., with the Rev. Doug Atkins officiating and interment at Green Lawn Memorial Gardens, Villa Ridge, Ill. He was preceded in death by his wife, Barbara Ann Ridgeway; his parents, Harry Joseph Dunker and Lavonia Elizabeth Caldwell; sister Shirley Dunker; and brother Joe Kenneth Dunker. He is survived by children Carl David Dunker, Barbara Diane Roe (Charles P. Roe), and Steven Fredrick Dunker (Gwyneth Nunag); three grandchildren, Mark W. Dunker (Angela), Jason T. Dunker (Kisha) and Sarah G. Dunker; three great-grandchildren, Austin Dunker, Meredith Dunker, and Peyton Dunker; brothers Jack Dunker and Wilbur Dunker (Peggy); and sisters Kay Niestrath (Nick), Mary Jane Edmonds (Randy), and Judy Wadley.

“For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing” (2 Timothy 4:6-8, KJV).

Jack Jones Early

April 12, 1925 – January 22, 2022

Jack Jones Early was born on Easter Sunday, April 12, 1925, in Corbin, Ky., to Joseph Manor and Lela May Jones Early. He was preceded in death by his parents; brother J. Derwood Early; beloved wife of 64 years Nancye Bruce Whaley Early; and son-in-law John Patrick Best, an ordained United Methodist minister in the Illinois Great Rivers Conference. He is survived by his daughters and sons-in-law, Lela Katherine Early Martin and Harold Green Martin Jr. of Midlothian, Va., Judith Ann Early Best of Edwardsville, Ill., Laura Hattie Early and Randall Davis of Lake Carroll, Ill.; grandchildren Chris Martin, Ben Martin (Meg Edwards), Kate Gould (Trevor), Joey Best, Jackson Best, and Liam Davis; and great-grandson Jack Martin. His daughter, Judy, is an ordained United Methodist minister in the Northern Illinois Conference. He was related to Bishop John Early (1786-1873) of the Virginia Conference of Methodists who baptized 1,000 people during a week-long camp meeting.

Jack valued the Christian faith. He was a lifelong Methodist, and he was licensed to preach in 1943 while still in high school. He was admitted to the Kentucky Annual Conference in 1952 and entered full connection as a deacon in 1954. Jack was ordained an elder in 1956. While in college, he served Hindman United Methodist Church in Kentucky. The original frame structure was at the top of a hill, which kept many from attending. He was able to raise funds to build a new sanctuary. A widely distributed church bulletin cover featured a striking photo with the previous, older pastor showing the church on the hill in the background, and the young pastor (Jack) with the new sanctuary in the foreground. Jack and Nancye met as officers in the Methodist Student Movement and had their first date after a church event. They married on June 1, 1952, at Epworth United Methodist Church in Lexington, Ky. Jack transferred to the Iowa-Des Moines Conference in 1957, and in 1958, transferred from Iowa-Des Moines to the South Dakota Conference. During his years in South Dakota, Jack preached almost every Sunday at rural churches throughout the state. He transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1969, from which he retired in 1995. He received a leadership award from Religious Heritage of America and later served on its board. He attended St. Matthews United Methodist Church in Louisville, Ky., until his death. He knew he would go to heaven and join Nancye after his life on earth ended.

Jack valued education. His own education started in Corbin. Unable to serve in the military due to a medical condition, he continued at Union College (Ky.) where he received his bachelor of arts degree in 1948. He earned both his master of arts (1953) and doctor of education degrees (1956) at the University of Kentucky. Simultaneously, he earned a bachelor of divinity degree (1956) from Lexington Theological Seminary. He was awarded the following honorary degrees: Litt.D. from Dakota Wesleyan University in 1969, LL.D. from Iowa Wesleyan College in 1970, L.H.D. from Union College in 1979, and D.Adm. from Cumberland College in 1980.

His career in education started in 1948 at Hindman High School and Hindman Settlement School in Kentucky. He became a professor at Athens College in Alabama in 1953. After completing his doctorate, he was named dean at Iowa Wesleyan College. In 1958, he became president of Dakota Wesleyan University in South Dakota, the youngest college president at that time. In 1969, he served as president of Pfeiffer College in North Carolina. Beginning in February 1971, he worked as the executive director of educational affairs for the American Bankers Association in Washington, D.C. Returning to academics in 1973, he became president of Limestone College in South Carolina. He served briefly as pastor of Taylorsville (North Wilkesboro District), from July until September 1979, when he moved to Illinois under special appointment as executive director of education for The W. Clement and Jessie V. Stone Foundation. He simultaneously worked as vice president for education and communications at Combined Insurance Company of America. He was elected president of the Kentucky Independent College Fund in 1984, serving in that role until 1993. From 1993 to 1995, he was director of education of the Napoleon Hill Foundation. He gave motivational speeches worldwide through the International Council on Education for Teaching and led training programs, including in prisons. After his full-time retirement in 1995, he later taught courses at McKendree University in Illinois until age 90.

Jack valued service. Active in civic and charitable organizations over the years, he served in many capacities from being PTA president, to serving on the board of the YMCA, to sitting on national scholarship committees. He was a 33rd degree Mason. He was a Rotarian for more than 50 years, serving a term as district governor. After doing genealogical research, he became involved in hereditary societies, including the Society of the Cincinnati, Order of the Founders and Patriots of America, Jamestown Society, and Sons of the American Revolution. He was a founding member of First Families of Kentucky. He served as chaplain or prelate at the national level in many of these organizations. He was inducted into honorary membership by the Hereditary Society Community. Jack was a lifelong Republican. At a young age, he was elected to the Kentucky General Assembly, serving during the 1952-1954 term. He was a delegate from South Dakota to the 1968 Republican National Convention. One of his many honors was being inducted into the University of Kentucky Hall of Distinguished Alumni.

On January 22, 2022, Jack died at age 96 in his own home of natural causes. The celebration of Jack's life was held at the Pearson Funeral Home chapel in Louisville, Ky., on February 5, 2022. That afternoon, he was laid to rest at Cave Hill Cemetery in Louisville, Ky., beside his wife who passed away on June 15, 2016.

John Rodney Fulcher

January 30, 1933 – January 5, 2022

John Rodney “Rod” Fulcher was born on January 30, 1933, in New Bern, N.C., to John Baptist Fulcher and Ethel (Nobles) Fulcher. Growing up under challenging circumstances on a tobacco farm in eastern North Carolina, Rod was supported by Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church members in Greenville and earned a scholarship to Duke University in 1951.

Rod graduated from Duke with a bachelor's degree in history in 1955 and as a member of the Phi Beta Kappa honor society. As an undergraduate, he was active in the Methodist Student Fellowship, where he met and later married Nancy Diane Ormond upon her graduation from Duke in 1956. Rod continued his pastoral education at Duke, becoming an ordained deacon in 1957 and graduating with a bachelor's degree in divinity in 1958.

The couple then moved to New Jersey, where Rod completed graduate studies in religion at Princeton University, earning a master's degree in 1960 and a doctorate in 1963. Concurrently, he served as a student pastor at St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Bayhead from 1960 until 1962. Returning to North Carolina, Rod earned tenure while a professor in religion and history at St. Andrews Presbyterian College (now University) in Laurinburg from 1962 until 1978. At St. Andrews, he helped create a renowned interdisciplinary program in Christianity and culture. Rod also continued his ministerial service as the Caledonia United Methodist Church pastor from 1964 until 1967.

Rod continued his work first as director of higher education programs with the Presbyterian Church in the United States in Atlanta from 1978 until 1980, and then as dean of faculty at Davis & Elkins College in Elkins, W.Va., from 1980 until 1983. Coming back to North Carolina and the classroom, Rod ended his academic career as a professor in religion at then-High Point College from 1983 until 1988.

Following God's call, Rod transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1991 and spent the final 10 years of his vocation serving Sandy Ridge (High Point), 1989-1990; Midway Circuit (High Point), 1990-1992; and Oak Summit (Winston-Salem), 1992-1998. In retirement, Rod and Nan centered their lives around Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church in High Point, where they were longtime members of the church choir.

John Rodney Fulcher died of natural causes on January 5, 2022, at Guilford Health Care Center in Greensboro. He is survived by wife Nancy “Nan” Fulcher of High Point, son Mark Fulcher of San Diego, Calif., and daughter Sarah Fulcher, also of High Point. His ashes will be inurned later during a private family service at Wesley Memorial UMC.

Lewis Clinton Gibbs

January 12, 1936 – April 17, 2022

After four decades of proclaiming and witnessing his faith in the Resurrection, Dr. Lewis Clinton Gibbs was received by the eternal Spirit of God's love on Easter Sunday, April 17, 2022.

He was born in Lenoir, N.C., on January 12, 1936, to the late Jason L. Gibbs and Lois Bean Gibbs.

Hudson High School was where Lewis (Class of 1954) and Dottie Walker Gibbs (Class of 1956) met. They were married on April 15, 1955, during her junior year, and Lewis immediately returned to duty in the U.S. Air Force, affecting a 20-month separation.

After his military service, Lewis was a student pastor of the Vanceboro Circuit (North Carolina Conference, 1961-1963). He received his Associate of Arts degree from Louisburg College (1963) and later earned degrees from: then-Lenoir-Rhyne College (Bachelor of Arts, 1968); Emory University, Candler School of Theology (Master of Divinity, 1971); and Drew University, Drew Theological School (Doctor of Ministry, 1989). He was ordained as a deacon in 1964 and ordained as an elder and received into full connection in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1970.

During nearly four decades of competent and effective leadership in our conference (1964-2001), his appointments were: Union Grove-Olin (1964-1966); Rhodhiss-Ebenezer (1966-1968); student, North Georgia Conference, 1968-1971; St. John's (Hickory), 1971-1973; Mt. Olivet, 1973-1979; Groce (Asheville), 1979-1984; St. Stephen (Charlotte), 1984-1987; missionary to Kenya, 1987-1989; Centenary (Greensboro), 1989-1993; Hickory Grove (Charlotte), 1993-1996; and Asheville District superintendent, 1996-2001. After retiring in 2001, Lewis was an active parishioner at First United Methodist Church (Waynesville) and Covenant Community United Methodist Church (Asheville).

Lewis and Dottie, through a 67-year marriage, developed an effective co-ministry within our conference and as missionaries for two years in Kenya. Their impressive teamwork continued in Asheville when Lewis appointed Dottie to a church within his district!

Lewis' family included children Mark William, John Lewis, and Amy Leigh (deceased); eight grandchildren, Hannah, Sarah Jane, Jack, Annie, Bailey, Luca, Marie-Chantal, and Emily; and great-grandson Walker.

As retirees together at Lake Junaluska and Givens Estates, I witnessed Lewis' ongoing hospitality, his humor, his positive approach to life, and his caring attitude. A wide array of parishioners, peers, friends, and family members are greatly appreciative that Lewis "passed our way" and left a loving imprint upon our lives!

His memorial service was held on April 22, 2022, in the Givens Estates Chapel with the Rev. Rich Tuttle, the Rev. Brenda Lewis, the Rev. Ed Hillman, the Rev. Dr. Mike Leatherwood, and Mr. Larry Bopp participating. Interment followed at Givens Columbarium.

Boyd Marshall Holliday

December 31, 1949 – September 6, 2021

Boyd Marshall Holliday was born on December 31, 1949, in Brevard, N.C., to the late Anna Meixell and Fulton Holliday. He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Jean Ellen McLarty Holliday; his sister, Marie Holliday Siniard; and his brother, John Roy Holliday.

Boyd "always had his nose in a book," according to his sister, Marie, and his intellect set him apart from other students early in life. It was that quiet, studious young man who caught the eye of Jean Ellen McLarty when they were young teenagers, and it was love at first sight. They married on December 30, 1971, and Jean was the love of his life.

Boyd graduated with honors from Brevard High School in 1968 and completed his undergraduate education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1971. He did post-graduate work at Duke Divinity School, receiving a Master of Divinity degree in 1974 and a Master of Theology degree in 1975. He also received Doctor of Education degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro in 1987. He was admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1974 and to full connection in 1976. He was licensed to preach on April 14, 1973. He was ordained as a deacon in 1974 and as an elder in 1976.

His appointments include: Central associate (Mt. Airy), 1976-1979; Grace associate (Greensboro), 1979-1982; student, 1982-1983; Centenary associate (Greensboro), 1983-1987; leave of absence, 1987-1991; Hickory Grove (Greensboro), 1991-1996; Salem (Albemarle), 1996-1998; Bessemer (Greensboro), 1998-2005; and Rankin Memorial (High Point), 2005-2012. He considered each appointment a joyful opportunity to serve God. Boyd retired in 2012, and he and Jean settled at Lake Junaluska.

Boyd was an outdoor enthusiast, enjoying gardening, hiking, and camping. He never lost his passion for music and art, teaching himself to play the banjo and learning how to make beautiful panels of stained glass. He and Jean had a menagerie of rescued pets over the years, some residing indoors and some outdoors. Boyd doted on each of them and didn't spare a moment or a dime to ensure they had all the best that life could offer. Boyd was also a master at very bad jokes, "groaners" as his family fondly called his cringe-worthy puns, which were never in short supply.

More than anything in his life, Boyd loved the people who crossed his path – every single one. He was a gentle, humble man. His dedication to the ministry – to teaching the love that God has for all of us – was the binding element he saw in each of us.

Boyd passed away on September 6, 2021, and was laid to rest on November 6, 2021, at Lake Junaluska.

Harold Dean Houck

September 21, 1937 – December 15, 2021

The Rev. HD (Harold Dean) Houck was born in Ashe County, N.C., on September 21, 1937, the fourth of 10 children. He died in Asheville on December 15, 2021. He was the son of the late Everett Houck and Eva Trivette Houck and is survived by his beloved wife, Kathleen Dotson Houck of Fairview and Fleetwood, N.C.

The family lived on a farm where HD learned the virtue of working hard. After high school graduation, he served four years in the U.S. Air Force and then in furniture manufacturing, at one point owning his own business. He was then called by God into United Methodist ministry and graduated from Duke Divinity School's Course of Study, offered on the campus of a university he loved. He was licensed to preach in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1980.

If the Board of Ordained Ministry ever asked prospective clergy, "Do you love people?" HD was the pastor for all to emulate. He knew how important home visits were to members of his congregations and devoted time to this ministry. He lived out what church members want in a pastor: to know they are loved, to know their pastor is available, to know their pastor is a person of high moral character who loves God, and is someone who models the self-giving love of Jesus. It is also vitally important to study and prepare well-crafted Biblically based sermons. HD did so.

Within the week of his death, he visited members of Swannanoa United Methodist and Tabernacle United Methodist churches, Black Mountain, where he served as visitation pastor. The world needs more of his faithfulness and gentleness.

HD served for more than 40 years in the Appalachian District, formerly North Wilkesboro District, and the Blue Ridge District, formerly the Asheville District. His appointments include: Moravian Falls, 1980-1982; Fairview Charge (Bethany, Fairview Sharon, Tweed's Chapel), 1982-1991; and Hominy Charge (Piney Mountain, Davis Chapel, Pisgah), 1991-2000. He retired in 2000 and was appointed as part-time pastor of Bethesda United Methodist in Asheville until 2006.

While at Bethesda, he began walking for his health and became friends with everyone in the neighborhood, becoming pastor to many. After a second retirement, he served as interim pastor for several churches and was visitation pastor for the people of Tabernacle in Black Mountain. In addition, he taught Bible study at two nutrition sites for the Buncombe County Council on Aging during the early 1990s.

In retirement, HD and Kay lived in Ashe County in the summer and Fairview in the winter. In Ashe County, they were both active at Zion United Methodist Church. He also filled in for pastors in churches there, led choirs, and taught Bible study.

HD is also survived by brothers Arless (Carla), Jerry (Wilma), Don (Barbara), Michael (Susan), and David (Susan), and sisters Barbara (Frank), Bernice, and Kathy (Dale), all currently of Ashe County; son Dan of Purler, N.C.; daughters Diana of North Wilkesboro and Dawne of Lexington, S.C.; two granddaughters, Holli of Winston-Salem, N.C., and Harmony of Lexington, S.C.; and two great-granddaughters, Trinity and Jordyn of Winston-Salem.

Robert Eugene Huffman Jr.

January 15, 1934 – April 8, 2022

Robert "Bob" Eugene Huffman Jr. was born on January 15, 1934, to Laura and Robert A. Huffman in Lewisville, N.C., the oldest of six siblings. He married his beloved wife, Letha "Lee" Flynn, on September 4, 1954.

Bob graduated from Piedmont Bible College in Winston-Salem and then moved to Illinois to pursue undergraduate (1959) and graduate degrees (1963) at Wheaton College. He continued his education at the University of Iowa to pursue a Ph.D. degree in theology and later received his Master of Divinity degree at Duke Divinity School (1978). Early in his career, Bob taught at Parson's College in Iowa (1967-1972) and later became dean of students (1972-1973). During his time in Iowa, Bob often filled in as pastor for many churches in the area when needed.

Moving back to North Carolina in 1974, Bob answered the call to full-time ministry and served as a pastor in the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church until his retirement. Bob was licensed to preach in 1975, ordained as a deacon in 1976 and as an elder in 1979. He was also received into full connection in 1979. His service began in 1976 at Grace-Hiatt (Winston Salem) and was followed by these appointments: East Bend, 1978-1982, Unity (Thomasville), 1982-1988; Brookstown (Pfaltown), 1988- 1993; Abernathy (Asheville), 1993-1997; and First (High Point), 1997-1999. Though Bob officially retired in 1999, he continued to answer the call by serving at Morris Chapel (Walkertown), 2001-2002, and Pine Grove (Winston-Salem), 2002-2003.

Bob also served on several committees during his WNCC tenure, including chair of the Theology and Doctrine Committee (1985-1988) and registrar of the Board of Ministry (1988-1992). He also had a strong commitment to mission work. In 1992, he traveled to Armenia with others to lay the groundwork for what would become Project Agape – American Greater Armenian Partnership Efforts.

Bob excelled as a preacher, pastor, and leader in the Western North Carolina Conference. He was a delightful combination of deep spiritual gifts and a probing mind. Bob was a lifelong learner of philosophy, religion, science, and theology and would often give books he found thought-provoking to friends and family. His thirst for learning often found its way into his sermons and Sunday school classes he taught at Maple Springs United Methodist Church upon his retirement.

His talents were many. The ability to sense unvoiced human need was one of the qualities that made him such an effective pastor and loyal friend. Not a slave of the clock, Bob always had time to listen. Listening was one of the great qualities he possessed.

He displayed deep, penetrating insight into basic human nature. Whether he was conversing with a child about a simple problem or comparing thoughts with a fellow pastor on some deep theological concern, he was always patient and kind. Upon sensing human need, whether spiritual or physical, Bob was quick to respond with help and encouraging words.

Bob passed away on April 8, 2022, after a valiant fight with cancer and coming one year after his wife of 67 years, Lee, passed away. Services were held at Maple Springs UMC (Winston Salem) on April 14, 2022, and interment at Westlawn Garden of Memory (Clemmons). In addition to his parents and wife, he was preceded in death by his brother, Gordon, and his sister-in-law, Lillie Huffman (Conrad). Bob is survived by his children, Bob Jr., David (Julie), Sandra Landschoot (Mark), and Carolyn Huffman Ponder (Phil); his grandchildren, Bob III, Nancy Elizabeth LaFlair, Alex Huffman (Kristen), Jamie Huffman, Brad Landschoot (Tori), Lori Landschoot, Cam and Carly Ponder; and his siblings, Conrad, Ann Corirossi (Bob), Wayne (Norma), and Jimmy (Myra).

The Western North Carolina Conference has been extremely fortunate to have had a man of Bob's character, convictions, and commitment among its members. He will be remembered by all who knew him as one of our Lord's finest and most faithful servants.

Charles Richard Johnson was born on April 19, 1941, in Gastonia, N.C., to the late Emory Johnson and Laura Brackett Robinson. Whatever his reasons, he always went by 'Richard' throughout the course of his life. He grew up in Gastonia and attended public schools. Born into a working-class family, he was no stranger to hard work, discipline, and the importance of sticking to a job until it was finished.

He felt the pull of a call to ministry in high school, and upon graduation, went off to Atlantic Christian College in 1959 for a liberal arts education in preparation for seminary. He was active in the school's social life, busy working to help pay his way, and patiently steady in his studies, graduating with honors in 1963. In fall 1963, he entered Vanderbilt Divinity School to continue his studies, graduating in 1966 with an master of divinity degree. That same year, he sought and was given ordination in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

Richard served several student pastorates in Kentucky and Tennessee during his student years. In his senior year of seminary, he married Jackay Stowe of Gastonia, a high school sweetheart. They had two sons, Charles Richard II and Gregory Alexander.

Between 1966 and 1974, Rev. Johnson served Disciples of Christ congregations in Sebree, Ky., Kinston, N.C., and Joplin, Mo. In 1974, Richard left the ministry for personal reasons. He worked in both management and retail in the ensuing years, and his first marriage came to an end.

In 1984, Richard married Sandie Martin of Gastonia and adopted her daughter, Jacqueline Leigh, now Jackie Johnson. Richard and Sandie were married 37 years until his death in 2021. His family continued to grow over the years with the addition of seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

As it became obvious that Richard was not going to find satisfaction in the workaday world, Sandie encouraged him to seriously consider returning to the ministry. At her urging, Richard applied to the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church and was licensed to preach in 1991. He was ordained as an elder in 1999. He served the following parishes in the conference: Gilkey-Thermal City-Gilboa, 1991-1993; Myrtle-Smyre (Gastonia District), 1993-1998; Casar, 1998-2001; First (Caroleen), 2001-2003. He retired in 2003.

The Rev. Johnson was a man of the highest integrity. Possessed of a strong sense of fairness, he set high expectations for himself and for those with whom he worked. He was intelligent and well-read. Yet at heart, he was a simple man with simple tastes. Never flashy or phony, he dealt honestly and straightforwardly with those given into his care. Not overly ambitious, he was content to humbly serve wherever he felt God called him to serve.

It is often said of the deceased, as a cliché, "He was a good man." If such be judged by motivation as well as action, the Rev. Johnson truly was a good man. He loved and cared for his family to the best of his ability, always seeking what was best for them, and he brought a steady, thoughtful dedication to his work with the various church families given into his care. He was the kind of man who would suffer pain and hardship himself before he would consciously inflict it on others.

Due to complications from type-2 diabetes and kidney disease, Richard died on Sunday, December 12, 2021. He was cremated and remains with his family.

Richard Johnson loved and served the Lord Jesus Christ throughout the course of his life. We can trust the promise that he now dwells in the eternal fellowship of his Lord.

Claude Jackson Kayler

October 20, 1962 – July 16, 2021

The Rev. Dr. Claude Jackson Kayler died in a no-fault cycling accident while riding backroads of western North Carolina on a sunny Friday afternoon. He was only 58 years old, but the countless changed lives that he leaves in his wake bear witness to how great an impact he had during his life and ministry – and serve to remind all of us how much good God can do through just one life lived in surrender to Christ.

Claude was born on October 20, 1962, in Hendersonville, N.C., to the Rev. Jack Kayler and his wife, Claudette Taylor Kayler. He had two younger siblings, Dayton Kayler and Jacqueline Kayler Debrew. Growing up with a United Methodist pastor for a father, Claude's childhood rambled across most of western North Carolina, but Greensboro was home for his most formative years.

The summer after he graduated from high school, Claude had a transformative experience. During a youth-group beach trip, he heard college students from Denmark speaking about “the same Jesus” he had heard his father speaking about for so many years. Claude often said of that experience, “I wasn't looking for God that summer, but God was looking for me.”

Those college students were part of the Western North Carolina Conference's Scandinavian Caravan program – the same program through which, a short while later, Claude met Lorie Jean Carlisle. Their connection grew while they traveled Europe together with the Caravan – chaperoned by Claude's parents – during the summer of 1981. During the rest of their time at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Claude and Lorie were active participants in the campus' InterVarsity Ministry and shared an interest in global missions and leading worship with their guitars. They remained “just friends” almost right up until they married on May 11, 1985.

It was during his time in college that Claude felt a clear call to ministry. He graduated from UNC Chapel Hill in 1984 and then went on to receive a Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1989. (Later, he also completed a Doctor of Ministry degree through Asbury Seminary.) He was ordained as a deacon and admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference on trial in 1987, then ordained as an elder and admitted to full connection in 1992.

Claude began his full-time ministry in the Charlotte area, serving at Zoar and Aldersgate, 1989-1991. In 1991, his work with the Southwest Mecklenburg Mission culminated in the founding of Good Shepherd. Claude served as lead pastor there until 1999 and then took an appointment as an associate pastor of missions and outreach at Myers Park, 1999-2000. After that, Claude went on to serve: Tyro (Lexington), 2000-2006; Covenant Community (Asheville), 2006-2014; and Main Street (Kernersville), 2014-2018. In 2018-2019, he took a sabbatical that allowed him to travel to teach pastors in Cambodia and Tanzania. In his last years, he served briefly as the chief ministry officer of the Intentional Growth Center (Lake Junaluska) and launched his own coaching and consulting business, through which he aimed to support other pastors in the Western North Carolina Conference and beyond.

In all the communities where he lived, Claude was well-loved. People remember him for his joyful enthusiasm, goofy jokes, and gifted preaching. Church members often commented on how engaging and easy to follow Claude's preaching was; he was passionate about the craft of sermon-writing and always tried to leave listeners with “one main thing” they could remember and incorporate into daily living. He also had a flair for the dramatic, incorporating skits and movie clips into his messages. Sometimes he even delivered whole sermons costumed and in character, dressed as John Wesley, the angel Gabriel, or “Bubba the Shepherd.”

Claude always had a deep desire to participate in God's global mission. Throughout his ministry, he led groups and worked with local pastors in Nicaragua, Tanzania, and Cambodia. Inspired by Claude's preaching and enthusiasm, the churches he served here in North Carolina launched ministries, gave money, and built connections with partners around the world. Cambodia was especially close to Claude's heart. In the early years of Good Shepherd, Claude partnered with pastor Samuel Om of the Cambodian Mission in Charlotte; the two remained close friends for the rest of Claude's life and worked with local pastors in Cambodia together three times, most recently in 2019.

In addition to his passion for global missions, Claude was known for his love of Star Trek, comic book superheroes, soft-serve ice cream, hiking the mountains of western North Carolina, and, in the last years of his life, cycling.

A Celebration of Life Service was held on Saturday, July 24, 2021, at Main Street UMC in Kernersville with the Rev. Tim and Karen Roberts, two of Claude's dearest friends, officiating together. Tim and Karen are two of the many pastors who were impacted by Claude, whose ministry in this conference will continue the ripple effects of grace.

Claude is preceded in death by his father, the Rev. Ralph “Jack” Kayler, and his father-in-law, James F. Carlisle Sr. He is survived by his mother, Dr. Claudette Kayler; his wife of 36 years, Lorie Carlisle Kayler; his daughter, Mary Kayler; and his son David, daughter-in-law Lauren, and grandsons James and Owen Kayler, who still refer to him, with a warm smile, as “Bop-Bop.”

Jack Delon Luther

December 13, 1935 – August 12, 2021

Jack Delon Luther was born in Montgomery County in the southern Piedmont area of North Carolina to the late Dan Edward and Carrie Cranford Luther. His mother was a godly lady who devoted her life to God and her family. She was a role model for her own children and for many in the community. Rev. Luther was the youngest of nine children and was preceded in death by brothers Robert, Loyce, Wallace, and Billie Luther and sisters Alta Luther, Blanche Daniels, Ruth Holt, and Betty Deberry.

His upbringing gave him a strong start to sharing the gospel. At age 7, he would preach standing on a stump to whomever would listen. In his teen years, he began leading devotions for the youth at the four churches of the Eldorado United Methodist Charge. He was a member of one of the charge churches. To his good fortune, this was where he met his wife and soulmate for 65 years, Carolyn Lanier Luther, who graciously shared his ministry. They were married April 2, 1955, and they were blessed with two children, Tammy Burge (1958) and Jack Delon “J.D.” Luther II (1965). They experienced great joy with their grandchildren, Steven Luther, Ryan Burge, and Sarah McDowell, and great-grandchildren Bella, Clay, Lula and James Luther, and Hudson McDowell.

Rev. Luther attended public school in Montgomery County and later completed three years of college and theological training at Duke University Divinity School. He received honors including recognition as pastor emeritus in 2015 for his “50 years plus of Pastoral Service to the Community and beyond Macedonia United Methodist Church.” Also in 2015, he received a certificate of recognition from the N.C. General Assembly for his 50 years of service. In 2021 after his death, he received a United Methodist Clergy medallion for 50 years of service.

His initial formal employment was with a couple of local hosiery mills in Asheboro, N.C., one being McLauren Hosiery where he maintained the hosiery equipment. This was followed by employment with Bossong Hosiery Mill, also in Asheboro, where he served as supervisor prior to his departure. While he was there, he received the call to the ministry. During this time, he volunteered to serve two small, remote rural churches in Montgomery County that did not have a pastor, Chandler’s Grove United Methodist Church and Lane’s Chapel, an inactive church that met on fifth Sundays. He preached a funeral service for a member of Chandler’s Grove. A person who attended the funeral contacted the district superintendent for the area and made high recommendations that Rev. Luther be recruited as a pastor for The United Methodist Church. He was licensed to preach in 1969 and became a deacon in 1971. His appointments included four Montgomery County churches that comprised the Eldorado Charge, 1969-1973; Mocksville Circuit, 1973-1981; Pelham-Hickory Grove, 1981-1986; Gay’s Chapel (Salisbury District), 1986-1991; Centenary (Salisbury District), 1991-1998; and Highland-Northwood (High Point District), 1998-2002. He retired in March 2002. After retirement, he served Ophir and Uwharrie United Methodist churches of the North Carolina Conference for five years. In addition, he served as interim pastor for Central United Methodist Church in Denton of the Western North Carolina Conference. Even though retired, he continued with many homecomings and revivals when requested.

Rev. Luther was blessed with a great deal of humor and joy. He loved people, particularly little children, and they loved him. He provided a children’s message as part of each worship service. As he would sit down on the altar area to share the message with them each Sunday, they all wanted to sit on his lap or beside him which created a little competition at times. Many of the children have voiced in later years the significant impact he had on their Christian lives. Following the baptism of many babies, he planted his signature kiss on the forehead of each one of them.

His mind and heart were fully devoted to sharing the truth of the gospel, straight from the Word of God. He did not alter or modify the message to appease anyone. He received numerous requests from many pastors to come and preach for their church revivals and homecomings, so much that his calendar often stayed booked up. There have been thousands of lives touched by his personality and souls led to Christ through his messages and the way he lived his life. In addition, he mentored many young pastors as well as some older pastors who entered the ministry later in life. He was an encourager to many.

The Lord quickly swept him up and took him to his eternal home in glory on the evening of August 12, 2021, at age 85. The funeral service was held August 16 at his childhood home church, Macedonia United Methodist Church, followed by a graveside service at Oak Grove United Methodist Church in Randolph County.

Stephen Moore Martin

September 12, 1947 – January 2, 2022

The Rev. Dr. Stephen Moore Martin received his final appointment January 2, 2022, whereupon he was granted honorable location in the best appointment ever, Heaven. He is survived by his loving wife of 56 years, Shirley Bruce Martin; his son, Stephen Bruce Martin and fiancé Annette Osborne; his brother, the Rev. Phillip Martin and wife Emily Martin; and his grandchildren, Noah and Abby Martin.

Dad was born in Reidsville, N.C., to the Rev. Dee Bee Moore Martin and Francis Melvin Martin, both deceased. He was taught about Jesus Christ from birth and grew up in the church. Like most preachers’ kids, I am sure he was asked multiple times if he was going into the ministry, and like most preachers’ kids, said no. Little did Dad know he would receive a calling to serve and spread the glorious word of Jesus Christ. Like all preachers, the family moved around, and he often felt like he had no real home. Dad dropped out of high school and joined the U.S. Marine Corps where he thought he may find a place to call home. That thought quickly disappeared with his introductions to his drill instructors. While serving in the Marines, 1965-1969, he married Shirley Lea Bruce before being deployed to Vietnam. While in Vietnam, his son, Stephen Martin, was born. After he wounded and honorably discharged, Dad had to find a job to support this new family.

During this time, he held a few jobs and was still searching for that feeling of home. In 1973, he found his home in the calling of ministry. He served many churches and people during his 40 years as a United Methodist minister. His appointments include: Murphy Circuit and Cherokee County Parish associate, 1973-1974; Mill Grove-Pine Bluff, 1974-1978; Matton's Grove-Mt Zion 1978-1980; Albemarle Circuit, 1980-1981; Ruffin, 1981-1986; Triplett, 1986-1991; First (Granite Falls) 1991-1992; West Bend, 1992-1997; Hinshaw Memorial, 1997-2000; Pleasant Garden, 2000-2008; Leaksville, 2008-2009; and Pine Grove, 2009-2013. He retired in 2013. Dad's education included his A.B. degree, Pfeiffer College, 1979; Master of Divinity degree, Duke University, 1985; and Doctor of Ministry, Trinity, 1991. He became a deacon in 1983 and was ordained as an elder in 1987.

Dad served all these churches and their parishioners with the love of a family member, spreading the gospel and bringing people closer to God. He always loved the words, "there's no one here but family." He truly felt that he had found his home in the church. Dad served for 40 years before retiring to Greensboro in 2013. Being exposed to Agent Orange while serving in Vietnam finally caught up with him in 2022. He passed peacefully at home on January 2, 2022, and found his ultimate home, the one that had always been prepared for him since before his birth. Dad was preceded in death by his parents and his daughter-in-love, Joy Martin.

"Well done, well done,

"My good and faithful one,

"Welcome to the place where you belong.

"Well done, well done,

"My beloved child,

"You have run the race and now you're home.

"Welcome to the place where you belong" – Well Done, The Afters.

Robert Monroe McCain Sr.

June 25, 1943 – March 31, 2022

Robert "Bob" Monroe McCain Sr. was born on June 25, 1943, in Reidsville, N.C., the second of seven children born to Lucy McCain Hart and William Gerringer. His stepfather, the Rev. George Hart, was moderator of the former Piedmont Tri-State District Convention Disciples of Christ, know now as Piedmont District Convention of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). Rev. Hart was a major influence in Bob's Christian journey.

Bob received his primary and secondary education in Reidsville, N.C., played guard on his high school football team and graduated from Booker T. High School in 1961. He received his undergraduate degree in early childhood education from Winston-Salem State College, now Winston-Salem State University, in 1965. He completed master's degrees in educational administration at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University in 1993 and in supervision at N.C. A&T in 1994. He completed his master's degree in divinity at Hood Theological Seminary in 2008.

Bob grew up as a member of First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Reidsville and worshipped faithfully at Mt. Pleasant Disciples of Christ Christian Church when he relocated to Greensboro in 1977. He loved to teach Sunday school and Bible study. Rev. McCain moved his membership to St. Matthews United Methodist Church on June 1, 1980, and attended the early morning service so he could walk back to Mt. Pleasant to continue teaching Sunday school. At St. Matthews, Bob was involved in many ministries. He is most noted for his positive impact on the youth and children ministries.

He accepted the call to ministry in 2005 and was appointed to St. Paul United Methodist Church (Kernersville) in 2006 after being licensed to preach that same year. Later appointments include Withers Chapel, 2007-2010; and the Empire Circuit, 2010. He was later appointed to McCrary Chapel in 2012, where he served until his retirement in 2015.

Bob volunteered as a chaplain for Moses H. Cone Hospital in Greensboro, N.C., from 2011-2018 until his illness would no longer allow him to serve consistently.

He was married to Cynthia C. Nash Spinks and was father to five children, Tonya D. Green (Daryl), Felecia L. Titus (Bruce), Lonnie A. Spinks III (Inga), Robert Monroe McCain Jr. (Kyra), and Calvin F. McCain (Sharee). He had eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Bob died on March 31, 2022, after a longtime illness. His funeral services were held at St. Matthews UMC on Saturday, April 9, 2022, and he was interred at Eden Gardens in Eden, N.C.

Rev. McCain will forever be remembered for his witness, wittiness, selflessness, and being eternally "Blessed and Highly Favored."

Donald Eugene McCoy

November 28, 1948 – February 28, 2022

Donald Eugene McCoy, the son of the late Birden McCoy and Lovie Dalton McCoy, was born on November 28, 1948, in Winston-Salem, N.C. He was born into a large Christian family.

Donald never met a stranger. He was joyful with a magnetic personality. He was loved by all and embraced a happy life. He was an avid dreamer and a passionate soul. As a young boy, he was active in many community activities including Sunday school and his dad's Boy Scout troop.

Donald began his early education at Carver Consolidated School in Winston-Salem, N.C. He was creative, outgoing, and loved by his peers. In high school, he excelled in his academics and loved entertaining others and making them laugh. He graduated from Carver High School in 1967.

While attending North Carolina A&T State University, he met the love of his life, Levonia Burnett. They married on July 17, 1970, in Arlington, Va. To this union was born their beautiful daughter, Tene L. McCoy, on September 21, 1972, in Greensboro, N.C.

In his early adult years, Donald loved the limelight. He was a dancer, deejay, and stand-up comedian. He was known as D. Mac.

After a life-changing experience which brought him back to his early Christian teachings and to God, he completed his Bachelor of Science degree in psychology and graduated from North Carolina A&T State University. He graduated from the Course of Study for Licensed Ministry at Duke Divinity School in 1999 and the Advanced Course of Study for Licensed Ministry at Duke Divinity School in 2002.

Donald was a pastor for more than 28 years. He was licensed as a local pastor in 1994 and elected as an associate member and ordained as a deacon in 2002. He became a probationary member in 2004. He was elected as a member in full connection and ordained as an elder in 2007. In 1995, he began his ministerial duties as an assistant pastor of the Madison Circuit, 1995-1998. Other pastoral appointments include: St. John (Eden) and Chapel Hill (Reidsville), 1998-2006; Faith-St. Paul (Mooresville), 2006-2011; Bass Chapel-Raleigh's Crossroads (Greensboro), 2011-2020. He was a community pastor who received numerous accolades for his work with older adults and youth. Upon retirement of his pastoral duties in July 2020, he continued with his passion of ministering to the community. He was the founder of the Male Ball Ministry (MBM) and active in the ministry of Faith03, which included the gazing prayer, transportation, and food giveaways. He was an entrepreneur (At Your Service) and a collector of treasures. He was an active athlete, chess enthusiast, and a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Inc.

He was a loving and caring husband, the best Daddy, a delightful "PawPaw" to his grandchildren, as well as the Church, community children, and his godchildren.

Donald's memory will be cherished by his wife, Levonia; daughter Tene LaVi McCoy (Hector) Cummings; grandchildren McCoy and Harmon Cummings. He is also survived by his 12 siblings: Wilbur D. (Nancy) McCoy, Lillie Bell Henderson, Anita McCoy Anderson, Jacqueline McCoy January, Yvonne McCoy Wingfield, Shelia McCoy (Bert) Grisard, Brenda McCoy (Al) Hunter, Jerrie McCoy Dean, Stephen O. (Stephanie) McCoy, Paula McCoy, Paulette McCoy (George) Spencer, and J. Bernard McCoy. He leaves hundreds of nieces, nephews, cousins, close friends, and special family friends Angela Clark Webster and Angie Young.

Donald transitioned from this life to glory on February 28, 2022, at his home in Greensboro after a valiant fight against gastric cancer. Funeral services were held at Guilford College United Methodist Church on March 7, 2022, officiated by the Rev. Timothy Fitzgerald with burial at Evergreen Cemetery in Winston-Salem.

Donald was a beacon of joy and bigger-than-life personality. He said, "Life is for the living, don't die until you are dead."

Charles Edwin McKinney

July 4, 1932 – August 19, 2021

Charles Edwin McKinney was born on July 4, 1932, in Crossnore, N.C. He was the oldest of six children born to the Rev. Charles Ruben and Eula Lee Thompson McKinney. After his high school graduation in 1949, he began his college studies at Spartanburg Methodist College for two years. During 1951-1955, he served a four-year enlistment in the U.S. Navy. Upon completion of military service, he entered Appalachian State University, completing a Bachelor of Science degree in 1958 and a master's degree in 1959.

After graduation from ASU in 1959, he began a career in education, teaching school in Watauga County. After three years, he accepted a teaching position at Lees McRae College in Banner Elk, N.C. His career in education included 23 years at McDowell Technical Community College in Marion, N.C. While there, in 1982, he responded to the call to the ministry. He was licensed to preach in The United Methodist Church in 1982 and accepted a part-time appointment at Concord United Methodist Church in McDowell County, N.C., while continuing his employment at the college. During this time, he attended two-week Course of Study sessions at Emory University. Charles pastored Concord through 1986. He retired as dean of fiscal services at McDowell Tech in 1989 and faithfully served full-time pastoral appointments at New Hope (Marion District), 1989-1992; and Denton's Chapel (Marion District), 1992-1995. He retired in 1995, and he and his wife, Barbara, moved to Boone to help with aging parents. After retirement, he continued his ministry as a volunteer, assisting the Hospice chaplain in Watauga County for eight years and also serving on the Hospice board of directors. During this time, he accepted part-time appointments, including Liberty-Piney Grove (North Wilkesboro District), 1998-2001; Grassy Creek (North Wilkesboro District); 2002-2006; and Boone Circuit (North Wilkesboro District), 2006-2009. After closing as a United Methodist church, Hopewell Church in Boone was granted permission to open as a community church in 2012. Charles welcomed the opportunity to serve as volunteer pastor for eight years and started several charities that have made it a true community church.

Charles was a very kind, gentle man with a caring spirit who served his family well as a wonderful husband, father, and grandfather. His passion for people and for sharing the gospel also served him well as a pastor. One of his strongest points was that of comforting people. His humility and sincerity were two great assets as he ministered to and led his congregations. He always had time to listen and give advice, when asked.

Before entering the ministry, Charles was an active member of several different United Methodist churches and served on many boards and committees. He taught Sunday school classes for many years. He also served as a Scoutmaster for several years, where he had the opportunity to lead by example as he mentored young scouts.

While a student at ASU, he met Barbara Ann Tugman, and they were married on November 3, 1956. How fortunate they felt to have had almost 65 years together. They were blessed with two children, Marsha Ann (Philip Wallace), born November 7, 1957, and Scott Michael, born January 30, 1963. One of his greatest joys were his granddaughters, Sarah Davis, Erin Gilmore (Andrew Downey) and Tara McKinney, and his great-grandson, Brandon Davis Jr. (Sydney Wheatley).

Charles died as he lived, very peacefully, at home, surrounded by loving family on August 19, 2021, after a long, hard-fought battle with Crohn's disease and complications from Parkinson's disease. A service and celebration of his life was held on August 22 at Austin and Barnes Funeral Home in Boone with the Rev. Curtis Mull and the Rev. James McKinney officiating. Military honors were provided by American Legion Post 130. Entombment followed at Mount Lawn Memorial Park Mausoleum.

Warren Ned Owens

December 31, 1959 – August 1, 2021

On Sunday, August 1, 2021, the Rev. Warren Owens led the congregation in prayer at First United Methodist in Marion, N.C., saying, “We do not have to wait until the sweet bye and bye to have that foretaste of the glory divine. But we look forward to that day which we may be full partakers of the glory which you have set aside for us, that has been established by the word of Jesus.” As the service continued, he joined the choir in singing, “It is Well with my Soul,” that timeless declaration of the peace one finds through Christ – no matter the circumstance.

Then, just before sharing Communion with his much-loved congregation, he preached a sermon on the bread of life, saying, “God is involved in our lives. And his instructions, yes, might test us a little bit. But they are life-giving instructions. He wants us to be dependent upon him. He wants to shower blessings upon us day by day, each day. And he wants us looking toward heaven for that gift.”

Warren lived his life exactly as he prayed, and sang, and preached on August 1, 2021. And later that afternoon, Rev. Owens laid down for a Sunday afternoon nap – and looking toward heaven, he became a full partaker in the glory divine. He was 61 years old.

Warren Ned Owens had entered the world on December 31, 1959, in the rolling hills of Rutherfordton, N.C., the first-born child of Ned Bunyan Owens and Melissa Crowe Owens. He was six years old when he was baptized by his great-uncle, the Rev. Thomas Hoyle Swofford. When Warren was nine years old, his father completed the journey to becoming a United Methodist minister, and Warren spent the rest of his formative years as a “preacher’s kid,” growing up in parsonages, first in Shooting Creek and then Canton, N.C. He would be accompanied by two younger sisters, Audrey Owens Brooks and Michelle Leigh Owens, to whom he generously gave his big-brotherly love.

Warren joined the church while he and his family were at Bethesda United Methodist Church in Lexington, N.C., and he graduated from North Davidson High School in 1978. In high school, he was student body president, a trombone player, and very active in Bethesda’s UMYF, where he would make lifelong Christian friendships.

Warren entered High Point University in 1978. A couple of years later, his father was appointed to Tabernacle United Methodist Church in Greensboro, N.C., and it was at Tabernacle where Warren first heard what he described as “the voice of an angel” singing in the choir, a voice belonging to his future wife and love of his life, Tracey Lynette Stout.

Warren graduated from High Point in 1982, and then from the Institute of Textile Technology in May 1984. Warren and Tracey married at Tabernacle on June 30, 1984, moving to Pinehurst, N.C., where he began a career in the carpet industry. Warren and Tracey lived in Georgia and Alabama while he grew in his career, and they both actively served in churches in numerous lay roles such as youth leader and choir member.

In 1999, Warren answered a calling that many would be tempted to ignore, one that asked he and Tracey to give up their lives as they knew them: God’s calling into ministry. He left his position in the corporate world, and they returned to North Carolina where he enrolled in Duke Divinity School. He became a licensed local pastor in 1999, and during divinity school, he served in the North Carolina Conference at the Bonlee Charge (Meroney, West End, and Providence) in Chatham County. In 2000, he and Tracey welcomed the arrival of their greatest joy, son Samuel Warren Owens.

In 2003, Warren received his Master of Divinity degree and was commissioned in the Western North Carolina Conference. He was ordained as an elder and received into full connection in 2007. His WNCC appointments include: Cherry Street-Hiatt (Kernersville), January 1, 2003-2006; Avery’s Creek (Arden), 2006-2011; Acton (Asheville), February 1, 2011-2015; and First (Marion), 2015 until his death in August 2021. While at Acton, he supported Tracey in fulfilling her life’s calling as she joined the staff of Brooks-Howell retirement home; Tracey was consecrated as a deaconess in 2014 and is appointed to Brooks-Howell as activities director.

Warren has been and will be remembered for many things: among them – his good humor, his kindness, his storytelling, and his open, giving, servant’s heart. His was a heart full of gratitude toward his Savior, as he demonstrated with the closing words of his last sermon, which were: “What we have in our Lord and Savior is not only just the bread of life, but one who is generous. He is generous when we are so much in need. And his generosity is larger than our need. He gives to us abundantly – he gives us so much bread that we don't have to worry about what the grave holds, 'cause we know it won't hold us. And all you have to do, if you haven't got it yet, it's really simple – all you have to do – is believe. Believe. Believe.”

William Robbins Ragsdale Sr.

March 26, 1940 – November 22, 2021

William “Bill” Robbins Ragsdale Sr. was born on March 26, 1940, in Leaksville, N.C., to the late Joseph Sinclair Ragsdale Sr. and Louise Robbins Ragsdale. He grew up attending Leaksville Methodist Church and spending summers at Lake Junaluska with his grandfather, the late William Martin Robbins, a member of the Western North Carolina Conference from 1893 to 1952. During those summers, he worked at the Soda Shop and ran sound in Stuart Auditorium, where he listened attentively to the greatest revival preachers of the day.

He attended Hampden-Sydney College, graduating in 1962. It was during a chapel service, listening to a sermon by Presbyterian pastor Dr. George Vic, that Bill first heard God's call to ministry. Bill would often quote from that sermon: “Respectability cripples the Christ-like passion in a man's soul and blinds him with pride.” Answering the call, he graduated from Duke Divinity School in 1967.

Licensed to preach in 1964, Bill was ordained as a deacon in 1965 and ordained as an elder in 1969. His appointments included: Macon Circuit, 1967-1968; First (Hickory), minister of education, 1968-1969; Mayodan, 1969-1971; The Ecumenical Institute in Chicago, 1971-1975; Pinnacle-Mt. Zion, 1990-1993; Providence (Salisbury), 1993-1996; and Main Street (Salisbury), 1997-2004. Bill retired in 2005, the same year his son was commissioned as a provisional elder. In retirement, Bill served as chaplain of the North Carolina State Veterans Home in Salisbury from 2005 to 2015 and was an active participant in the ministries of First United Methodist Church of Salisbury and First United Methodist Church of Belmont.

Bill was an unconventional pastor, passionate about church renewal. His greatest sense of accomplishment as a pastor came from watching churches he had served implement plans he had helped them envision years earlier. An amateur and professional magician from age 7, his children's sermons often incorporated magic tricks, and he loved performing for neighboring church fellowship nights, scout troops, summer camps (including Camp Tekoa), and many others. With a large personality and love of laughter, Bill's gifts brought joy to many.

Bill married Annie Joe Ivie of Eden, N.C., on June 19, 1976. Together, they had one son, George, an elder in the Western North Carolina Conference. Bill is also survived by two other children, William Robbins “Robb” Ragsdale Jr. and Heather Ragsdale Sarkar, and eight grandchildren.

After a brief illness, Bill died on November 22, 2021, at Atrium Health Mercy Hospital in Charlotte with family around him singing one of his favorite hymns, Swing Low, Sweet Chariot. A service of death and resurrection was held on December 5, 2021, at First United Methodist Church of Belmont. The Rev. Ellen Robison officiated the service. He will be interred in the Memorial Chapel at Lake Junaluska.

At many difficult moments in his life and ministry, Bill would often sing the words of Isaiah 40:31: “Those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up on wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.” Thanks be to God for a life of love, laughter, and faithful service to Christ and His Church.

James Allen Raines Sr.

November 6, 1935 – March 2, 2022

The Rev. James Allen “Jimmy” Raines Sr., 86, went home to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Wednesday, March 2, 2022.

Born November 6, 1935, in Augusta, Ga., he was the son of the late William Edgar Raines and Mary Matheny Raines. Growing up in Augusta, Ga., Jimmy attended and graduated from The Academy of Richmond County. He was a member of Trinity-on-the-Hill United Methodist Church in Augusta. At a 1948 Billy Graham crusade in Augusta, he heard of Jesus' great love for him, and he trusted Jesus as his Lord and Savior at age 12. He discovered a new passion in his life which would be his compass for every future decision. He knew he had a call on his life at a young age. He discovered that his golf swing was a gift from God that he would use for God's glory. Being an outstanding athlete at The Academy of Richmond County in Augusta was not enough. At the tender age of 15, he gained the permission of the caddie master at The Augusta Country Club to share what he learned in Sunday school with the caddies on Saturdays before they began work. His humility of sharing the love of God with them impacted many for eternity.

God gave him a larger platform when he won the 1953 International Jaycee Junior Amateur golf tournament in Ann Arbor, Mich. He competed with thousands of young men worldwide to play in the tournament, winning numerous state and regional golf titles along the way. At every opportunity, he gave glory to God and writers dubbed him the “Putting Parson.” Jimmy published a pamphlet sharing how God's great love for the world surpassed any worldly honors. He committed himself to never boast about anything he did in the flesh, rather “to boast in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world” (Galatians 6:14, NIV).

His conviction to be a full-time minister of the Gospel overrode his potential to pursue golf as a profession. To prepare himself, he attended Asbury College in 1953. Later, he transferred to the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, where he did play two years of golf. There, he met his soulmate, the love of his life, Ina Belle Rorex. While in Knoxville, they studied the Bible together and were volunteer leaders for Young Life clubs, loving students for Christ. After he graduated from UT in 1957 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history and geography, they married in August 1957 and moved to Atlanta. In Atlanta, he was licensed to preach in 1959. He attended and graduated from Candler School of Theology at Emory University in 1960.

Upon graduation, they moved to Greensboro where Jimmy was a field representative with InterVarsity Christian Fellowship from 1960 to 1966. He served college campuses throughout the Southeast. He became an ordained deacon in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1961. He partnered with Paul Little to plan and run the first Beach Evangelism ministry outreach in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Jimmy had a love for relational evangelism and reaching young people wherever they were, even on spring break.

Jimmy continued ministry with his wife, Ina Belle, by opening Logos Christian Bookstore in 1971. Both engaged in raising their son, Jim Jr., and three daughters, Julie, Belle, and Caroline, while serving in the local church and community. During this time, their home was always open to others who needed help, counsel, and prayer. They both put Jesus first in everything they did. During the years from 1966 to 1983, before being readmitted to the WNCC, he served unofficially at Trinity United Methodist Church (Greensboro).

Jimmy was ordained as an elder in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1985 and admitted to full connection. He lived out the gospel while serving in numerous Methodist churches. Appointments include: Farmington Charge, 1983-1986; conference-approved evangelist, 1986-1987; Centenary (Greensboro), associate, 1987-1989; and Union Ridge (Winston-Salem), 1989-1998. He retired in 1998 but returned to an appointment a year later at Bethany (Rockingham County), 1999-2014. He retired again until 2016 when he accepted an appointment at Vickrey (Jamestown) and served until 2020. Lastly, he served as parish associate with Southwest Greensboro Cooperative Parish in one of the first father/daughter teams of the WNCC (Groometown, St. Andrews, and Vickrey), 2020-2022.

It thrilled him to see people in his churches learn to love to pray and experience God's faithfulness and share this truth with one another. Discipling others to be mature followers of Jesus was his passion and gave him great joy seeing others grow in their faith in Christ. Pastor Jim constantly attended the ballgames and events of grandchildren and hundreds of church children, demonstrating how much he cared about what was important to them. They greatly loved him back and felt his deep love for them and his Lord. He loved preaching, playing golf, and giving generously.

Membership in the Summit Rotary gave Jimmy another way to serve his community. Joining in 1967, he was a proud member, known for giving inspirational invocations.

Jimmy was a beloved and faithful husband, father, and grandfather, affectionately called "Shah," brother, and son. He desired to be a friend to all. He was known as the rock and anchor of his family with a kind, gentle soul, always smooth and steady. His peaceful, youthful demeanor radiated the light and love of God. He loved serving others, especially his family. His greatest desire was to love others to Jesus through a life well-lived. He loved generously and could make everyone feel at ease.

A service to honor and celebrate his life was held on March 12, 2022, at Centenary UMC (Greensboro) with the Rev. Caroline Raines Franks officiating. Burial followed on March 14, 2022, at Westover Memorial Park in Augusta, Ga.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Edgar and Mary Raines; brother Bill Raines; granddaughter Juliana Melton Lagesse; and son-in-law Duane Franks. He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Ina Belle Raines; son Jim Raines Jr.; daughter Julie Melton (Billy); daughter Belle Strader (Tom); daughter Caroline Franks; grandchildren Hayley Raines, Jessica Melton Shelton (Holden), Austin Raines, Manning Franks, Farrelle Franks, Raines Strader, and Grace Strader; grandson-in-law Brian Lagesse (Kate); Beth Raines, mother of Hayley and Austin, as well as numerous other family members and friends whom he loved.

Nicholas Lynch Rochester Jr.

October 12, 1949 – February 13, 2022

Nicholas "Nick" Lynch Rochester Jr. was born October 12, 1949, in Charlotte, N.C., to the late Nicholas L. Rochester Sr. and Nancy Rowell Rochester McClain. He died on February 13, 2022. Nick and his wife, Doris Ann Crump, were living in Indian Trail, N.C., at the time.

Nick married the love of his life, Doris Ann, on November 27, 1971. They have three lovely daughters, Nikki Dawn Rochester, Carol Anne, and Christie Diane.

Nick and Doris were attending Union Grove United Methodist Church in Union County when he first surrendered to God's call upon his life to active ministry in 1972. He was licensed to preach on September 8, 1973, at the Albemarle District office of The United Methodist Church.

Nick attended the Course of Study at Duke Divinity School in Durham, N.C. He finished the beginning Course of Study of five years and the Advanced Study of four years. He attended Anson Technical School and earned his Associate in Arts degree in 1979. He later earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Pfeiffer University, which he received in 1983.

Nick was ordained as a deacon in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1977. In 1998, he was ordained an elder and accepted into full connection.

Nick began his service record with an appointment to Wade (Albemarle District), 1976-1979. Other appointments include: Ansonville (Albemarle District), 1979-1982; Parkway-Pine Grove (Albemarle District), 1982-1986; Clover Hill-Oak Grove (Gastonia District), 1986-1987; Bond's Grove-Marvin (Albemarle District), 1987-1992; Steelbury-Aldersgate (Charlotte District), 1992-1998; Center (Statesville District), 1998-2001; Harmony-Clarksbury (Statesville District), 2001-2003; Bethel-Palestine (Albemarle District), 2003-2009; Mt. Carmel (Albemarle District), 2009-2014; Bess Chapel-Bethlehem (Catawba Valley District), 2014-2015. He retired in 2015. Nick spent his retirement years battling dementia and Alzheimer's disease. He was closely attended by his wife, Doris, and his three daughters.

Nick served our Lord for 39 years. He served with faithfulness and integrity. I have known Nick for nearly 50 years and never known a better pastor than he. Nick was faithful to God, his wife and family, the churches he was privileged to serve, and to The Western United Methodist Church, who educated and sent him forth to serve.

Nick leaves behind his wife, Doris; his daughters, Nikki, Carol (B.J.), and Christie (Tim); his grandchildren, Haley Newell Edwards (Jacobe), Jordan Newell, Cameron Newell, Rebecca (Becky) May, Joseph (Joey) May, and Alex May; his great-grandchildren, Nolan Edwards and Adalynn Edwards; and his sisters, Barbara Rochester Howell, Marie Rochester Dean, and Janet Rochester Helms. He was preceded in death by his sister, Katherine Rochester King (Jerry); his parents, Nicholas and Nancy Rochester; and sister-in-law Louise C. Griffin.

A memorial service was held on February 27, 2022, at Love Baptist Church in Monroe, N.C. A visitation also was held for friends and family. It was well-attended. Pastor Don Thompson officiated the service and said of Nick, "He was a prince of a man." Those who were privileged to know Nick will agree wholeheartedly. Nick has gone on to his well-deserved reward. Rest now "thou good and faithful servant." You will be remembered in our hearts and prayers. Remember John 14 and "let not your heart be troubled."

Gloria Dawn Simmons

December 11, 1934 – October 6, 2021

The Rev. Gloria Dawn Simmons was born in Casper, Wyo., on December 11, 1934, to Henry and Ethel Simmons. Henry owned Simmon's Super Service Texaco Gas Station where Gloria and her two sisters, Rubie and Marilyn, enjoyed learning at a young age how to work with the public. Rev. Simmons graduated from Natrona County High School in 1953, attended Westminster College, earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1957, and graduated from Iliff School of Theology in Denver, Colo., in 1959 earning her Master of Religious Education degree.

Rev. Simmons was a faithful member of The United Methodist Church, beginning ministry in 1959 in the Rocky Mountain Conference. Rev. Simmons was consecrated as a lay worker in 1970 and as a diaconal minister in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1977. Twenty years later, in 1997, Rev. Simmons became a member of the first class of deacons ordained in full connection in the Western North Carolina Conference.

Rev. Simmons was the personification of an independent woman. She left her home and family in the West to pursue jobs in the East at a time when this was uncommon for single women. She never hesitated to move to another city to pursue a new job opportunity, a new calling from God. Never wanting to inconvenience anyone else, Rev. Simmons was more than willing to inconvenience herself to serve others who needed help. Rev. Simmons was humble, quietly serving others without requiring recognition. Her deep Christian faith guided her acts of kindness. Although Rev. Simmons may have regarded her relationship with God as private, her influence was far-reaching.

Rev. Simmons' appointments included: coordinator of Interpretation and Field Service for Curriculum Resources (General Board of Discipleship, Nashville, Tenn.), 1977-1986; West Market Street, minister to children and family life ministries (Greensboro), 1986-1989; Central, minister of program and education (Concord), 1989-1992; Trinity Presbyterian Church, minister of education (Charlotte), 1993-1996; associate professor (Pfeiffer University, Misenheimer), 1996-1999; and St. John's Baptist Church, minister with children and families, 1999-2001. She retired in 2001.

During her ministry, Rev. Simmons had a passion for serving others through education. She was a mentor and teacher for many Christian educators throughout the conference and was a faithful member of Christian Educators Fellowship. Rev. Simmons led conference-wide workshops for educators and those who worked in early childhood education. She helped with curriculum, giving freely of her time and expertise. A major achievement for Rev. Simmons was helping to establish the Master of Christian Education Program at Pfeiffer University in Misenheimer. Although Rev. Simmons officially retired in 2001, she remained active in the church, particularly at First United Methodist Church (Charlotte), where she worked on various social and justice issues in and around Charlotte. She was an active participant in the MagdaRuths women's group, concentrating on advocacy, service, and education. She chaired the First UMC (Charlotte) Child Development Center Board and helped direct those activities for many years.

Rev. Simmons was a remarkably unique individual guided by Micah 6:8, "What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?" Her quiet acts of justice to balance the inequities in this world, her many acts of mercy, and her skill of listening fully and intently to others were characteristic of her deep integrity. Rev. Simmons dedicated her life to education, equal rights, justice for all, and a commitment to making a better community wherever she lived. She was a strong champion of social justice and advocated for the poor and needy, migrants and refugees, financially stressed families, homeless, and those who were on the margins of society. Rev. Simmons emanated strength in many ways, understanding how to work with the public and offering a calming presence in the midst of conflict. She was a well-respected leader, actively supporting and volunteering in the local and state Democratic Party. She was active in the Cabarrus County Senior Center, where she chaired the Cabarrus County Council on Aging. In addition to her career in The United Methodist Church, Rev. Simmons was a generous aunt, offering support to her niece and nephews.

Rev. Gloria Dawn Simmons passed away on October 6, 2021, at age 86, claiming the promise of Resurrection. Rev. Simmons is survived by her niece, Susan L. Reuler (Albuquerque, N.M.), nephew Hank Wilson (Orangevale, Calif.), nephew Lindsay Wilson (Denver, Colo.), as well as great nieces and nephews, and great-great nieces and nephews.

A Service of Death and Resurrection celebrating the life of the Rev. Gloria Dawn Simmons was held at First UMC in Charlotte on January 15, 2022, with the Rev. Dr. Val Rosenquist, the Rev. Patrick Hamrick, and the Rev. Charlotte G. Brendel presiding.

Well done, good and faithful servant. Well done.

Charlotte G. Brendel

David Lee Steele

August 29, 1947 – July 3, 2021

The Rev. Dr. David Lee Steele was born August 29, 1947, to Clyde K. Steele and Margaret McCreary Steele in Concord, N.C. He is survived by his wife, McKinnie D. Steele, sons Terry and Brian, stepsons Damien and Nick, and seven grandchildren.

David was licensed to preach in 1969, ordained as a deacon and admitted as a probationary member of the Western North Carolina Conference in 1971, and ordained as an elder and received in full connection in 1973.

As a National Merit Scholar, David received his AB degree from Duke University in 1969. He then received his Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1972.

His history of service includes: student, 1971-1972; Sharon (Charlotte), associate, 1972-1974; Johnstontown (Thomasville), 1974-1976; Morehead, 1976-1978; student, 1978-1987; Morehead, associate, 1987-1992; and leave of absence; 1992-1995. He retired in 1995.

In 1978, David returned to student life at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, where he received his master's degree in school psychology and clinical psychology. Later in 1987, he received his doctoral degree in clinical psychology from UNCG. During his years as a student, he worked in mental health centers providing services for children, youth, and parents in Randolph and Rockingham counties. In 1985, David served as director of mental health continuing education in the Greensboro Area Health Education Center. David shared his training and knowledge with others through the presentation of professional papers and the publication of articles, as well as direct patient care.

His devotion to making the world a better place and serving people in need then led him to work as a psychologist with the U.S. government, first on reservations with the Indian Health Service and then with the Department of Defense with military service members and their families. Coming from a military family himself, he was happiest when he could provide comfort and support to those who had served their country. He retired from the Department of Defense in 2013, but his desire to be of service led him to continue part-time work in psychology on military bases until his death in 2021.

David loved nature. He gardened and built birdhouses and traveled with his wife to beautiful scenic areas. He loved riding his bicycle along trails from the mountains to the sea. His wife says he frequently said, "No matter how many times I see this, it never gets old." Even in a simple walk in his own neighborhood, he found extraordinary beauty in ordinary places.

David had a big heart and was passionate about what he loved. He loved music and nature; he loved people; he loved his work and being of service. He was known as a kind man who was an instant friend to all who met him.

The Rev. Dr. David Lee Steele died on July 3, 2021, returning to the presence of God, creator of a beautiful world, and beautiful people. Certainly, this man left the world a better place for all.

Willard Preston Thomas III

April 18, 1957 – July 25, 2021

The Rev. Willard Preston Thomas III, son of Willard and Thurlene Jones Thomas, and husband to Grace Thomas for 38 years, died at age 64 on July 25, 2021. He was a father to three children, Pam Todd, Kendall Frye, and Melissa Thomas. He was grandfather to four grandchildren, Judas Todd, Nora Frye, Levi Frye, and Benjamin Frye. Preston was a brother to Robert Thomas.

He served as a United Methodist pastor in the Western North Carolina Conference for more than 22 years and served as an adjunct associate and volunteer at Camp Funshine, a camp for special needs children, for more than 20 years. His appointments included: Old Fort-Bethel, 1991-1994; Minneapolis, 2000-2004; Minneapolis-Elk Park 2004-2019; and (Marion), 2019-2020. He retired in 2020 on disability. Throughout his ministry, he fought a valiant struggle against diabetes. He did so without complaint. Preston was a gentle, congenial soul.

His celebration of life service was held at Minneapolis United Methodist Church, and his interment was in the community cemetery in Minneapolis. The Rev. Jamie Shell, of Minneapolis Christian Church, and the Rev. Brian Griffith, former pastor of Minneapolis Missionary Baptist Church, presided. They were joined by the Rev. David Hobson in the celebration service.

It was clear that Preston and his appointment at Minneapolis-Elk Park was an excellent match, as both he and the various congregations in Minneapolis cared genuinely for each other. His ecumenical outreach there brought his two churches and the three denominations in Minneapolis together for cantatas, fellowship meals, special worship events, and community activities. His preaching style was didactic and clearly represented his understanding of the Rev. John Wesley's Ordo Salutis or "way of salvation." Centered on the kerygma of the early Church, his emphasis was the divine nature of Jesus as the Christ. His life and his sermons coincided with our traditional Methodist understandings of the "Means of Grace." Obviously, he was no stranger to Paul's doctrine of Divine Grace. In addition, his preaching was a careful balance of instruction and invitation.

He truly believed that the totality of our family lives, our relationships with others, and our relationship to God required the best of our devotion, gratitude, and love. All who were his colleagues, and the people whom he served, respected and trusted the genuine nature of his faith. And finally, he was honored and loved by Grace, his wife, and his larger family for being a faithful presence. Our conference membership is better for his being a part of our shared ministry.

Mark Madison Norman Vickers

August 21, 1961 – March 24, 2022

Mark Madison Norman Vickers was a shepherd and pastor at heart. He loved people and gave his life to caring for people at some of their most vulnerable and fragile moments.

Vickers was born on August 21, 1961, in Madison, Ind., to Hugh and Joan Vickers. Vickers was a 1983 graduate of Earlham College in Richmond, Ind. He earned the Master of Divinity degree from the Divinity School at Duke University in 1986. In addition, Vickers completed training as a funeral director at Fayetteville Community College.

Vickers was ordained as a deacon and became a probationary member of the Western North Carolina Conference in 1985 and was ordained as an elder and became a full-connection member in 1989. Vickers served a variety of appointments and settings over more than 35 years of ministry. He began pastoral ministry at Denton's Chapel-

Bollinger's Chapel, 1985-1988. Other appointments included: Thrift (Charlotte), 1988-1990; Dilworth (Charlotte) associate, 1990-1992; leave of absence and honorable location, 1992-2015; Christ (Greensboro) assistant and St. Timothy's (Jamestown), 2015-2018; Bethpage (Kannapolis), 2018-2020; and New Hope (Winston-Salem), 2020 until the time of his death.

Beyond the local church, Vickers served as chaplain and funeral director for Forbis and Dick Funeral Service in Greensboro, N.C. For 18 years, Mark provided grief counseling and care for hundreds of families. Rabbi Andy Koren, of Temple Emanuel in Greensboro, remarked of Vickers' impact on the Greensboro community, "the Jewish tradition teaches that there are many levels of kindness. The truest form of kindness is bringing someone to their final rest. In caring for grieving families, Mark was always there, fully present. He embodied presence; he was the epitome of the highest form of kindness." Vickers' ministry of presence touched the lives of countless individuals and families and made the communities he served a bit more like the Kingdom.

Vickers loved the outdoors, cycling, hunting, and fishing with family and friends, and anything Duke. He was an avid reader, a 33rd degree Scottish Rite Mason, serving twice as grand chaplain for the Masons. Vickers never met a stranger. His love for God and the Church was matched by his love for people. He had an infectious laugh, a gregarious spirit, and a loving heart that embraced the world around him. His smile and spirit will indeed be missed.

Rev. Vickers married the Rev. Susan Norman Vickers in 1985. She preceded him in death in 2014. Together, they had one son, Thompson Gray, who was the great joy of their lives. Vickers later remarried and is survived by his wife, Mari Ed Vickers. Vickers died on March 24, 2022, in Winston-Salem after a brief illness. In addition to his wife, Vickers is survived by his mother, Joan Vickers; his son, Thompson; "bonus" daughter, Kaitlyn Zimmerman; and a number of nephews and nieces.

"Blessed are the dead who...die in the Lord. Yes,' says the Spirit, 'they will rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them.'" Rest well, friend.

Harold Coulter Warlick

March 16, 1946 – October 20, 2021

The Rev. Dr. Harold Coulter (Hal) Warlick was born to Harold C. and Mary Estelle (Mamie) Warlick in Wilmington, N.C., on March 16, 1946. The family eventually moved to North Augusta, S.C. Hal attended North Augusta Senior High School, graduated in 1964, and was awarded a "grant-in-aid" to play football at Furman University.

Furman, where he was known as "Fox," opened a new world for Hal. He stated that he was "transformed from an individual concerned primarily with athletics to an individual seeking to find and proclaim truth with integrity." And that, the world agrees, he certainly did. By any measure, Hal became one of this country's most noted preachers, teachers, theologians, and humanitarians.

With his esteemed college roommates as his role models, Hal set for himself "effective standards of responsible intellectualism and expanded and broadened his vocabulary and sense of worldwide responsibility." He graduated from Furman University in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in history and a minor in religion and then was ordained as a minister in the First Baptist Church of North Augusta.

Hal then continued his education at Harvard University Divinity School in Cambridge, Mass., earning Sacrae Theologiae Baccalaureus degree in 1971. He credits his mentors there, particularly the late Rev. Peter J. Gomes, former minister of Memorial Church at Harvard and the Plummer Professor of Christian Morals, in greatly adding to his approach to academic and religious life.

While Hal was at Harvard, he married the love of his life, Diane Norman Warlick in August 1970. Hal and Diane together moved on to Vanderbilt University Divinity School where Hal completed his doctor of divinity degree in 1974. From 1972 to 1982, he served as senior minister of Trinity Baptist Church in Seneca, S.C.; senior minister of Seventh and James Church at Baylor University in Texas; and then as director of ministerial studies and lecturer in applied theology and senior counselor at Harvard University Divinity School. Desiring to return to the South to raise their children (Scott Norman Warlick, January 22, 1975; Coulter Alan Warlick, September 9, 1982) and be closer to their families, Hal and Diane accepted their appointment in High Point, N.C., at Emerywood Baptist Church. Hal served as senior minister there from 1982 to 1989. It was in High Point that Hal and Diane made their permanent home.

Hal was asked to go to High Point College in 1989 to serve as minister to the college. (The college attained university status in 1991.) He was then recognized as a deacon in The United Methodist Church in 1991 and became an elder in 1994. He later was named dean of the chapel and became chair of the department of religion and philosophy. Hal remained dean of the chapel until his retirement from High Point University and from United Methodist ministry in 2012, then becoming emeritus dean of the chapel until his passing. Upon his retirement, the pulpit in the chapel sanctuary was named in his honor, and friends and colleagues established the Warlick Gap Scholarship Fund, which provides students with financial awards for their college educations. The fund became fully operational in July 2012 and has extended scholarships to a number of students since its inception.

Hal received a great number of awards, accolades, and recognitions in his lifetime of achievement, and his most valued are associated with his alma mater, Furman University. First, Hal was awarded the Richard Furman Baptist Heritage award. Several years later, he delivered the commencement address, and that same year was awarded an honorary doctor of humanities degree by Furman University.

A noted pastor, preacher, and lecturer, his was a welcoming presence at churches, chapels, and universities across the country, regardless of denomination. And in his 17 books and numerous articles and essays, clear-eyed and shorn of excessive prose, he often returned to the enduring motif of bridges to communicate the commonality of hope among people of diverse faiths and cultural backgrounds.

Before his death, Hal turned his attention to yet another bridge: his alma mater's nationally recognized college access and pre-college enrichment program for high school students, known as Bridges to a Brighter Future. His efforts in 2010 to unite interested supporters proved instrumental in the development of Crossing the Bridge, a program that extends the success of the Bridges program by helping to strengthen student retention and graduation for Bridges students who have matriculated to college.

Beginning in 2004 and continuing through the summer season of 2017, Hal served as the beloved resident minister of Blowing Rock Methodist Church, in Blowing Rock, N.C. This multi-denominational congregation, administered by the Blowing Rock Civic and Religious Association, is composed of more than 350 affiliate members from 14 states. The seasonal church operates only June through September each year to provide a ministry to visitors to that mountain area.

Hal was preceded in death by his parents, Harold and Mamie. He is survived by his beloved wife of 51 years, Diane; his sons Scott (Beth) and Coulter (Ginny); four beautiful grandchildren, Kayleigh, Garrett, Elsie, and Hayes; and his dear sister, Mary Jo Gould. He also left behind countless cherished friends, family, students, colleagues, church members, and lives he has impacted along the way. Hal made such a difference in the lives of people who never would have known him through his undying philanthropy, generosity, and his immeasurable compassion for others.

Sherman Barton "Doc" Warner November 17, 1936 – August 1, 2021

Sherman Barton "Doc" Warner, a lifelong Cubs fan, was born in Chicago, Ill., on November 17, 1936, to the late Fae Elizabeth Leisner and William Barton Warner. Doc graduated from Augusta High School in Augusta, Wis., in 1954 and the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire in January 1959 with a degree in education. He majored in music, particularly with vocal and choral music as his major field with voice as his primary instrument and pipe organ as his secondary instrument. He also minored in sociology.

In spring 1955, while a student at the University of Wisconsin, Doc responded to a request from the district superintendent for people who could fill in for pastors in their absence, especially on a last-minute notice. He was called on the Saturday before Mother's Day to preach for a pastor whose mother had suddenly passed away. Doc continued to fill in as needed.

Doc had never intended to serve as a parish pastor, but rather as a church musician. However, after filling in a few times at a small church within a short distance of the university, he was appointed as the church's pastor in October 1955. The West Wisconsin Conference awarded Doc with a full scholarship to attend the Course of Study at Garrett Theological Seminary, and he went on to serve two more appointments in that conference. He was ordained a local deacon in the West Wisconsin Conference in 1960 and served as a part-time pastor while teaching in a local school until 1962.

In 1962, Doc accepted a full-time teaching position and was hired as the choir director in a Methodist church. Later, he accepted a position in a different school system, teaching high school chorus, marriage and family living, speech, sex education, and one semester of night-school typing. During that time, he spent three years leading an ecumenical summer outdoor ministry in a Wisconsin state park under the direction of the Wisconsin Council of Churches. That led to him serving as interim for two Presbyterian churches. He also provided pulpit supply in Methodist churches.

In 1981, Doc graduated from Columbia Pacific University with a Master of Arts double major in speech communications and counseling. In 1982, he completed a Ph.D. at Columbia Pacific University in counseling and human services with an emphasis in mental health.

Doc married Beverly Hintz Warner on June 15, 1985, and with her encouragement, as well as much encouragement from some pastor friends, he returned to the parish ministry in 1986, serving a part-time parish and teaching in a nearby college. It was in that parish that he was given the nickname, "Doc," which stuck for the rest of his life.

Doc and Beverly came to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1989, and he became an associate member of the conference in 1991. He served the following appointments in western North Carolina: Davie Charge, 1989-1992; Norwood Circuit, 1992-1995; Coburn Memorial (Salisbury), 1995-1996; Mocksville Circuit, 1996-2000; Bethel (Mocksville), 2000-2002; retired, 2002; South China Grove, 2008-2018; and Clear Springs, 2020-2021. Doc will be remembered by all of the congregations he served for his love of and enthusiasm for music, his magnificent talent for playing the organ and piano, and his beautiful and boisterous singing.

While serving retirement appointments, Doc taught public speaking, English, and research and reporting at Rowan-Cabarrus Community College. He also did substitute teaching at North Hills Christian School in Salisbury, N.C.

Doc was an avid supporter of Hood Theological Seminary in Salisbury, N.C., and had one book published by the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, A Scriptural Index for The African Methodist Episcopal Zion Bicentennial Hymnal. He also self-published Scriptural Index of Common or Familiar Hymns that can be used by anyone using any hymnal. Doc also composed the musical score for an SATB choral and solo arrangement of I Have A Friend by Matthew Weaver.

Left to cherish his memory are his wife, Beverly Hintz Warner, son Steven Warner (Rexi) of Bloomington, Minn.; daughters Sandy Bevels of Salisbury, N.C., and Loni Wolfmeyer (John) of Mooresville, N.C.; brother Joe Warner (Joella) of Rockford, Ill.; three grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild, as well as the multitudes of lives he touched while in the ministry and other pastors whom he mentored and encouraged.

Thomas Wallace Weeks

November 3, 1931 – July 6, 2021

Thomas “Tom” Wallace Weeks was born November 3, 1931, in Weldon, N.C., to the late William Howell Weeks and Emily “Lucille” Wallace Weeks. Although he was born legally blind, he lived an adventurous childhood as the second child of six children. He played football and graduated from Enfield High School in 1950. Tom was accepted to Duke University where he graduated with a bachelor’s degree in history in 1954 and a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1957. While he was studying at Duke, Tom met his wife, Carol Elizabeth Wayt, who became his closest partner in ministry. They married September 5, 1957, and moved to his first appointment, the McAdenville Charge in the then-Gastonia District in 1958. There, he supervised the demolition of the old church building and construction of a new church facility. Tom became a deacon in 1959 and an elder in 1961. He served faithfully for 39 years, all within the Western North Carolina Conference.

Tom and Carol became a blessed family of seven as they welcomed five daughters into their lives: Linda Carol Weeks Sutton born in 1958, Julie Anne Weeks Blakeley born in 1960, Laura Katherine Weeks Jones born in 1962, Karen Lucille Weeks Sams born in 1963, and Mary Susan Weeks born in 1971. Tom’s family participated in his ministry from charge to charge providing music and participating in youth activities and all sorts of mission outreaches. Tom’s heart was centered on people, especially reaching the poor and the sick. He spent many hours, on all his charges, visiting and encouraging the membership who welcomed him to their homes. He willingly participated in the community as opportunities arose including devotions on the radio and Sunday services in the chapel at the Ghost Town amusement park, where the hymns were accompanied by music from an old pump organ, and the service ended with everyone headed out to a staged old Western gun fight in the street!

Rev. Weeks served nine charges and a total of 22 churches during his active ministry. He had a gift of being a peacemaker and was able to lead the membership in building projects for several churches in need of expansions, ranging from the addition of bathrooms to larger projects of fellowship multi-purpose spaces and Sunday school rooms. Wherever Tom was, his kindness, laughter, and love of a good story were shared with all who gathered. He could often be found with children crowding around him to listen as he told wonderful interactive tales. Tom overcame his sight handicap with an incredible memory. He could remember names and relationships of church members and recognized them by the sound of their voice. He memorized all the special service formats for weddings, communion, baptism, as well as many scriptures, and he always delivered his sermons by memory. He considered it an honor to participate in one of the Western North Carolina Annual Conferences by presenting the scripture from memory during a session with a special emphasis on handicap awareness. Just as he grew in his relationship with God throughout each appointment, every church benefited in various ways under his leadership. These appointments included: McAdenville, 1958-1964; Bald Creek, 1964-1968; Bethel (Waynesville), 1968-1973; Shady Grove-Delwood, 1973-1977; Sandy, 1977-1981; Bethel (Asheville), 1981-1985; Main Street-Long Street (Salisbury), 1985-1990; Pisgah-Trinity, 1990-1994; and Wesley, 1995-1997.

Rev. Weeks retired to Lincolnton, N.C., in 1997 and became a minister in residence at Asbury United Methodist Church where he and Carol were active for many years. He enjoyed continuing to preach and teach as needed and was able to spend fulfilling hours in outreach locally and internationally. He loved the simple chicken pot pie fundraisers and the downtown Christian Ministries for the poor and homeless. He also participated in missions beyond the local church with projects for UMCOR and Operation Christmas Child with Samaritan’s Purse, and he supported Doctors Without Borders. He rarely missed a worship service and boisterously sang in praise the hymns of the faith even well into his fight with Alzheimer’s disease.

He peacefully left this earth and entered heaven July 6, 2021, just a few months shy of his 90th birthday. He left to carry on his legacy his wife, daughters, 11 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. A graveside service in celebration of his life was held July 10, 2021, at Asbury UMC cemetery with the Rev. Harley Scalf and Hospice Pastor Cindy Jordan officiating. One can only imagine the great rejoicing and celebration in heaven when Thomas Wallace Weeks, along with all the saints who went before him., joined in worship and praise to the Holy Lamb of God.

Dana Bruce Wooten

June 2, 1945 – April 4, 2022

The Rev. Dana Wooten, 76, died peacefully on April 4, 2022, from cancer after suffering for years with rheumatoid arthritis. Dana was born on June 2, 1945, in Edgecombe County, N.C., to John and Inez Wooten. After working for Klopman and Cone Mills, he answered the call to the ministry, serving for 30 years in the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church. He served as an associate minister at Mt. Pisgah (Greensboro), 1983-1986, and later pastored Boonville-Mitchell's Chapel Charge (Boonville), 1986-1994; Bethel (Winston-Salem); 1994-2003; and Canaan (Wallburg), 2003-2007. He retired in 2012.

Dana was known as the "lollipop minister" for giving out lollipops after his services. He was one of the first recipients – and later was on the board – of the Ernestine L. Penry Scholarship Foundation, a scholarship foundation for those pursuing a ministerial degree. He served on the board of Elk Shoals United Methodist Church camp and mentored youth during the summer camps. After volunteering to help with several civic and religious organizations, Dana was awarded the Governor's Outstanding Volunteer Service Award by Gov. Jim Martin.

Dana was survived by his college sweetheart and loving wife of 52 years, Vickie VonCannon Wooten, as well as three daughters, sons-in-law, and five grandchildren. He especially enjoyed family time together at the family cabin at High Rock Lake and enjoyed wood-working when he had time. Although Dana received his Master of Divinity degree from Duke University, he was an avid fan of University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill sports and helped officiate games from his recliner!

After his death, many friends and former parishioners used these particular words in remembering him – kind and a valued friend. He loved people and found value and worth and cherished the uniqueness in everyone whom he met. He had a great sense of humor, gentle nature, and perceptive mind that endeared him to everyone. No job was too menial and no task too demanding for Dana to undertake. At one time or another, he took leadership in most activities of the church – except leading the singing! He left that up to his wife. Dana would quote the Bible in describing his singing – as making a "joyful noise" unto the Lord! He is singing beautifully now with the angels. He will be sorely missed by all who knew him. He will be remembered as a devoted and loving husband, a supportive and adoring father, a great "Papa" and a caring pastor.

Edwin Worley

May 19, 1942 – August 23, 2021

The Rev. Edwin Worley was born on May 19, 1942, in Madison County, N.C., to the late Marvin Dallas and Bonnie Worley.

Edwin grew up in Fairview, N.C. He married his wife, Jewell King Worley, on May 7, 1972. Edwin died of cancer on August 23, 2021, where he and his wife resided in Leicester, N.C.

He joined Fairview Sharon United Methodist Church in Fairview as a member in 1971. Edwin was licensed to preach in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1976. He preached as a lay speaker for many years, wherever he was called to preach.

He began his clergy appointments at Laurel Hill-Brown's View, 1979-1992. He worked full-time as a carpenter throughout his service to the churches and participating in Course of Study. Edwin finished his studies at Emory University in Atlanta, Ga.

After Laurel Hill-Brown's View, appointments included Big Sandy-Western Chapel, 1992-2000; Sandy Mush Charge, 2000-2005; and Big Sandy-Western Chapel, 2005-2011. Though he retired January 1, 2010, he kept serving until he couldn't serve anymore.

Edwin and Jewell had two sons, Marvin Ellison Worley (March 28, 1975 - September 5, 2021), along with Marvin's wife, Kelly, and their Jonathon Worley, and Timothy Clay Worley (August 18, 1982 - December 27, 1999).

A service to celebrate the power of Christ and honor Edwin's life and service was held August 29, 2021, at Groce Funeral Home. He was buried at Western Chapel United Methodist Church in Leicester. Edwin will be missed and always loved.

Paul Wesley Yount Jr.

June 19, 1925 – August 23, 2021

Paul Wesley Yount Jr., a leader in United Methodist and ecumenical global missions, died August 23, 2021, at age 96. Paul was born in Hickory, N.C., to Bertha Cline Yount, a homemaker, and Paul W. Yount Sr., a postal worker; the family was soon joined by younger sister, Sue Yount (later Durham). Inspired by his mentor, the Rev. Frank Jordan, Paul made a vocational decision to prepare for Christian ministry, undertaking study at Duke University and graduating Phi Beta Kappa in 1946 with majors in English, theology, and ethics.

Paul graduated from Yale Divinity School with a bachelor's degree in theology in 1954. He was admitted on trial to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1946 and was received with full membership in 1952. He began a three-year missionary assignment with the United Methodist General Board of Global Ministries, teaching English in a mission of reconciliation in war-torn Japan, 1948-1951.

After early pastorships in Connecticut and North Carolina (student pastor; founding pastor of Providence [Charlotte], 1953-1954; and Harrison [Charlotte], 1954-1955), ecumenical global missions – local and world-wide – were at the heart of Paul's life and ministry. His involvement with missions for more than 48 years included: United Methodist Board of Missions, New York, N.Y., as youth secretary, and as assistant-, associate-, and senior secretary of missionary personnel through the years of 1955-1962 and again, 1966-1970. He was director of the Missionary Orientation Center, Stony Point, N.Y., 1962-1966, and again, 1970-1974; director, ecumenical affairs, St. Matthews Area Ministries, Louisville, Ky., 1974-1978; and director, Office of Overseas Personnel, Church World Service, National Council of Churches of Christ in America, New York, N.Y., 1978-1994; retiring in 1994.

A critical time of Paul's ministry in world mission was his 12 years as director of the Missionary Orientation Center, a major ecumenical initiative of the Methodist, Presbyterian, United Church of Christ, Disciples of Christ, and Reformed Church in America. Under Paul's leadership, MOC provided orientation and training for more than 1,000 missionaries and their families before being sent overseas to many nations in every continent to engage in social gospel, medical, teaching, and church-development ministries.

Paul's directorship of MOC was most significant in initiating and leading its trailblazing development in overseas missionary training for Protestant mainline churches, involving multidimensional experiences for participants during a full semester of intensive study and activities. It included experiences in developing Christian community, theological studies, human-relations training, personal-growth opportunities, as well as resources for understanding global situations that led to numerous life-changing experiences for participants. Full-time daycare for children enabled both spouses of a family to be full participants. MOC was recognized as an outstanding institution for holistic orientation and preparation for missionaries. Paul's depth of mission knowledge and experience in Japan and India, as well as his love of international travel, strong intellectual gifts, engagement in current theological issues, and wide-ranging knowledge of the arts, were key to the success of MOC. Unsurprisingly, he felt that those MOC years were the most fulfilling and consequential of his ministry.

Paul married Jean Penny on October 28, 1955, and they soon parented four daughters, Michele, Noel, Sylvia, and Caroline. The family was later joined by sons-in-law Scott Thomas, Tom Genetta, and Geoff Mulvihill, as well as grandchildren Colette Thomas Flowers, Tristan Genetta, and Sophie and Katie Mulvihill.

In retirement in Hendersonville, N.C., Paul was active in Civitan International, leading the local chapter of the global service organization, as well as serving as president of the Friends of the Hendersonville Library.

A special thank you to the Rev. Craig Allen for his ministry in editing the memoirs.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration of
Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary
Huntersville, North Carolina

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary (the "Conference" - a nonprofit organization), which comprises the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2021, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary as of December 31, 2021, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis of Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary
Huntersville, North Carolina

Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purposes of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Report on Summarized Comparative Information

We have previously audited the Conference's 2020 financial statements, and we expressed an unmodified audit opinion on those audited financial statements in our report dated June 2, 2021. In our opinion, the summarized comparative information presented herein as of and for the year ended December 31, 2020, is consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements from which it has been derived.

Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2021

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF ORGANIZATION

Nature of organization

The Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary (the Conference) is a not-for-profit organization representing approximately 1,100-member churches and is comprised of eight districts. The Conference provides various services for its member churches including administration of health benefits and retirement plans available to member clergy and Conference lay employees and collection of funds for remittance to various regional, national and global benevolences.

A portion of the funds collected from its member churches is remitted to the General Council on Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church, which provides funds to national and global benevolences. The amounts remitted have been included in the consolidated statements of activities as general church expenses.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

Principles of consolidation

The Conference's consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, Inc., Western North Carolina Conference, The United Methodist Church (Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits), as the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits' Board of Directors is appointed by the Conference. Beginning in late 2019, the Conference's financial statements include the activity of the Heritage Cemetery Association, LLC, a single-member LLC wholly owned by the Conference whose primary activity is the preservation of cemeteries. Beginning in 2020 the Conference's financial statements also include the activity of WNCC Trustee Services, LLC, a single-member LLC wholly owned by the Conference whose principal activity is the rental of space within the Conference's main building. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The consolidated financial statements of the Conference also include the funds of the Charlotte Area Episcopal Office.

Accrual basis

The consolidated financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP).

Basis of presentation

Net assets and revenues, expenses, gains and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions - are those currently available for use in the day-to-day operations of the Conference and those resources invested in property and equipment. Designated net assets represent amounts designated by the Board of Directors for purposes other than operations.

Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2021

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions – These amounts are subject to donor-imposed stipulations. These restrictions may be temporary in nature, with the restriction being met either by actions of the Conference or the passage of time, or permanent, such that the net assets will be held in perpetuity by the Conference. When donor restrictions expire, that is, when the assets are spent for the stipulated purpose or the restricted time passes, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restriction. The Conference has also received amounts subject to donor-imposed stipulations that they be maintained permanently by the Conference. They consist of contributions whose use is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that neither expire by passage of time nor can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by the Conference’s actions. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the use of all or part of the income earned on related investments for general or specific purposes in accordance with the Conference’s spending rule.

Revenue and support

The principal source of revenue and support is apportionments received from the local churches. Apportionments are the approved levels of allocated support from the local churches. Apportionments expire at the end of each calendar year. Although the church discipline requires local churches to satisfy their apportionment allocation as their first benevolent response, local churches do not have any financial commitment for the underpayment of their apportionments.

Insurance premiums

The Conference administers a self-funded insurance program under which health benefits are provided for clergy and select lay employees of the Conference. Insurance premiums and related expenses are recorded in the period to which the premium and claim relate.

Contributions

Contributions are recognized as restricted support if they are pledged or received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donation. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as net assets without donor restrictions. Conditional promises are not included as support until such time as conditions are substantially met.

Grants

Grant awards are evaluated by management and determined to be either unconditional contributions or exchange transactions. If considered to be a contribution, revenue from grants is recorded upon notification of the award. If considered to be an exchange transaction, revenue from grants is recorded as expenditures are made under the terms of the respective grant agreement.

Revenue recognition

The Conference adopted the requirements of the Financial Accounting Standards Board’s Accounting Standards Update No. 2014-09, “Revenue from Contracts with Customers” (ASU 2014-09), in 2020. The core principle of this standard is that an entity recognizes revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The implementation of this standard had no impact on its financial statements.

Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2021

Cash

At various times throughout the year, cash balances in financial institutions exceed the amounts which are federally insured. At December 31, 2021, the balance of uninsured cash was $12,217,069. The Conference periodically assesses the financial condition of the institutions and believes that the risk of any loss is minimal.

Assets held for others

The Conference is due apportionments and holds funds in various operating accounts related to payments to be made on behalf of other affiliated related ministries. These funds are directed by third parties and are not available for the Conference operations.

Accounts receivable

As a significant dollar amount of church member apportionments are received close to year-end, member churches are provided a cut-off date subsequent to year-end in order for churches to fulfill their annual apportionments. Thus, accounts receivable is recorded based on the actual amount of apportionments received by the cut-off date. As such, no allowance for doubtful accounts is necessary.

Notes receivable

The Conference has notes receivable outstanding relating to the sale of land and other funds loaned to member churches. The Conference believes the amounts to be fully collectible and does not believe an allowance for doubtful accounts is necessary. Of the amount receivable as of December 31, 2021, $71,620 is due within one year and the remaining $162,767 is due through 2035. Interest of 4% to 5.5% annually is paid on the long-term balance. Interest income was approximately $9,655 for the year ended December 31, 2021, and is recorded within investment income on the consolidated statement of activities.

Investments

Purchased investments are initially recorded at cost. Investments received by gift are initially recorded at fair value at the date of donation. The Conference's investments are assets invested by the United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc. (the Foundation) and Wespeth, the investment agency of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church, under investment agreements wherein the investments are either directly invested or pooled into larger investment funds of the Foundation and Wespeth. The Conference's pooled investments are valued at fair value based upon the net asset value (NAV) of each fund as provided by the Foundation and Wespeth. The Conference's direct investments, which consist primarily of cash and money market funds, are valued at cost, which approximates fair value.

Board-designated investments

The Conference has designated certain investments to function as endowments to fund the Conference's pension and postretirement health benefits.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2021

Property and equipment

Building, improvements and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Building, improvements and equipment received by gift are initially recorded at fair value at the date of donation. Minor renewals and replacements are expensed when incurred. Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated economic lives of the respective assets held, which are assumed to be 10-40 years for buildings and improvements and 3-10 years for furniture and equipment.

Agency liabilities

The Conference is an agent for various affiliates and constituents. Amounts received and not yet expended on behalf of beneficiaries have been reported as a liability for amounts held for others.

Accrued health benefits:

The Conference records a liability for their healthcare claims incurred but not reported, which is estimated using the actual claims expense and the expected lag in days the claims are outstanding.

Operating and nonoperating activities

The consolidated statements of activities report the change in net assets from operating and nonoperating activities. Operating revenues consist of substantially all of the activity of the Conference except for certain items specifically considered to be of a nonoperating nature. Nonoperating activities include contributions restricted for capital expenditures and permanently restricted endowment contributions, net gain (loss) on investments, postretirement changes other than net periodic postretirement health benefit costs and significant items of an unusual or nonrecurring nature.

Allocation of functional expenses

The Conference's activities are focused in two functional areas. Program services represent the primary focus of the Conference's activities. Supporting services are general and administrative activities. No significant resources are expended for fundraising. Personnel expenses, benefits and payroll taxes, and depreciation are allocated based on management's estimate of time spent. Contracted services, supplies and insurance are allocated based on an analysis of the purpose of the underlying expenditure.

Use of estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Prior-year comparative totals

The financial statements include certain prior-year summarized information, which is presented for comparative purposes only. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the Conference's 2020 financial statements, from which the summarized information was derived. Also, certain prior-year amounts have been restated to conform to the current-year presentation.

Income taxes

The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state statutes, and accordingly, no income taxes have been provided for the Conference in the accompanying financial statements. Management of the Conference does not believe the financial statements include any uncertain tax positions.

NOTE 3 – INVESTMENTS

The Conference has an agreement with the Foundation, in which the Foundation acts as agent and investment manager of the Conference's investments. These investments are either directly invested or pooled by the Foundation into larger investment funds. The Foundation adheres to the Statement of Investment Guidelines adopted by the General Council Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church.

The Conference also maintains investments with Wespath, which are invested by Wespath in pooled investment funds. Wespath investments are comprised of approved investment instruments in accordance with the funds' objectives.

The Conference's investments at December 31, 2021, are as follows:

Assets invested by the Foundation:

Direct investments	$ 1,594,392
Pooled investments	99,407,986
Total Foundation	101,002,378

Assets invested by Wespath:

Pooled investments	505,660

TOTAL INVESTMENTS	$ 101,508,038
---------------------------------	------------------------------

The Conference's investment securities are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the value of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the statement of financial position.

Total investment return is comprised of the following for the year ended December 31, 2021:

Investment income, net of investment fees	$ 1,779,333
Net gain on investments	8,891,499
TOTAL INVESTMENT INCOME	$ 10,670,832

NOTE 4 – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

Fair value measurements apply to all financial assets and liabilities that are being measured and reported on a fair value basis. GAAP establishes a framework for measuring the fair value of assets and liabilities and requires fair value measurements to be classified and disclosed in one of three categories. Level 1 assets are those financial instruments with unadjusted, quoted prices listed on active market exchanges. Level 2 assets are those financial instruments that are valued using pricing inputs other than quoted prices in active markets, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date. The Conference's Level 2 assets were valued based on the interest rates utilized for loans made by the Foundation under the Clergy Loan program. Level 3 assets are those financial instruments that are not actively traded on a market exchange and require using significant unobservable inputs in determining fair value. The Conference had no Level 3 assets.

The Conference has segregated its financial instruments into the most appropriate level within the fair value hierarchy at December 31, 2021, as follows:

Financial Assets:

Direct Investments:

Cash and money market funds – Level 1	$ 6,018,051
Clergy Debt program – Level 2	1,594,392
Investments measured at net asset value not subject to classification	93,895,595

TOTAL INVESTMENTS	$ 101,508,038

NOTE 5 – NET ASSET VALUE (NAV)

The Conference's assets measured at NAV are held with the Foundation and Wespath under investment agreements wherein the investments are pooled into larger investment funds of the Foundation and Wespath. None of the funds had any unfunded commitments or redemption restrictions and may be redeemed daily with no advance notice.

Commingled pool of assets:

Assets invested by the Foundation:

Balance fund (a)	$ 21,481,348

- (a) Seeks to provide investment income while growing principal over the long-term by investing in a balanced portfolio of stocks and bonds.
- (b) Seeks to preserve both invested principal and earned interest while minimizing the risk of loss of principal.
- (c) Seeks to attain current income and capital appreciation by investing in a broad mix of different types of investments with a long-term horizon. Investors should be willing to experience some fluctuations in the fund's value, though not as much as from holding a fund comprised exclusively of common stocks.
- (d) Seeks to provide an investment alternative for those seeking the security of a fixed-type vehicle at competitive rates. The offering is made to individuals serving the United Methodist Church and church institutions in North Carolina or South Carolina to finance Methodist institutions for building programs and other capital investments.
- (e) Seeks to attain long-term capital appreciation from a broadly diversified portfolio that includes domestic and foreign common stocks. It is designed for investors who seek long-term investment growth through exposures to the broad domestic stock market as well as regulated foreign stock exchanges and who are willing to accept the risk of possible wide fluctuations in the unit price of the fund.
- (f) Seeks to maximize current income consistent with preservation of capital. This type of fund usually ranks low on the risk-return spectrum and is designed for low-risk-tolerant institutional investors who are reluctant to risk losing of any capital contributions or accumulated interest.
- (g) Seeks long-term investment growth and income from exposure to a broadly diversified portfolio. Balanced funds generally rank moderate to high on the risk-return spectrum. The fund is designed for investors with a relatively long-term horizon who are willing to experience some fluctuations in the fund's value, though not as much as from holding a fund comprised exclusively of common stocks.

NOTE 7 – NOTES PAYABLE

During 2021 the Conference financed the purchase of eleven automobiles with the proceeds of eleven separate notes from a local financial institution. The notes are secured by the related vehicles and require monthly payments, applied first to the principal and then to interest at a fixed rate of 2.50%. Interest incurred and paid during the year was $1,994 and the notes mature as follows:

Current (2022)		$	52,948
Long-Term:
2023	$	54,287
2024		55,660
2025		57,068

NOTE 8 – RETIREMENT PLANS*Ministers Reserve Pension Fund (MRPF):*

The Conference participates in the MRPF, which is a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan administered by Wespeth. The fund covers service prior to 1982 for substantially all clergy and lay pastors. For service subsequent to 1981, clergy members of the Conference are eligible to participate in the multi-employer retirement plan offered by the United Methodist Church as described below.

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits acts as trustee responsible for deposits with Wespeth. All assets of the plan are available to pay all benefits of the plan, regardless of the Conference from which the contributions came or under which benefits were accrued. However, each Conference controls certain benefit provisions of the plan and may choose to fund this plan using different funding methodologies. In the past, the Conference has chosen to fund the plan using the full actuarial allocation and is overfunded. Therefore, no contributions were made to this plan in 2021 and 2020, and the Conference's excess funding in this plan has been used to fund the benefits for the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) shown below. An actuarial report is available from Wespeth that shows the funding requirements and funded status of all the conferences for the MRPF.

Because employers that contribute to multi-employer plans are responsible only to make the contributions called for and they do not have a directly identified or separate interest in investment gains or losses or administrative costs, nor do the employers have a directly identified or separate obligation for benefit payments, separate assets and liabilities for their portion of the plan are not recognized and the contributions are recognized as an expense in the period in which they are paid.

Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2021

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP):

U.S. bishops, Conference members and local pastors under Episcopal appointment are eligible for pension coverage under the MPP. The MPP is a multi-employer defined contribution plan which required the Conference to contribute 12% of each participant's compensation, subject to a limit on total compensation. This plan was frozen effective December 31, 2006; however, the Conference is required to make payments to the plan as needed. In 2010, the Conference established an investment account to fund the required payments to the MPP. As of December 31, 2021, the investment account has a balance of $7,357,465. Payment to the MPP was not required during 2021, although future payments toward the plan are possible. This plan was replaced by the CRSP described below.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

In addition to the MRPF described above, certain ministerial employees are provided disability and death benefits as well as certain minimum benefits related to pension coverage through participation in the CPP. The CPP is a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan administered by Wespath. There were no contributions made for the plan year ended December 31, 2021.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP):

Effective January 1, 2006, the Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund and the Personal Investment Plan were merged to form the UMPIP. Conference clergy members, lay employees and local church personnel are eligible to participate in this multi-employer defined contribution plan administered by Wespath, which currently allows an employer contribution of up to 12%. The Conference contributes 9% of all eligible lay participants' compensation and 3% of clergy participants' plan compensation. Total contributions to the plan for the year ended December 31, 2021 was $414,086.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP):

Effective January 1, 2007, the Conference established the CRSP, which is a multi-employer defined benefit plan and a multi-employer defined contribution plan administered by Wespath. Clergy members and local pastors under Episcopal appointment to a conference, church, charge, district or conference-controlled entity or unit are eligible to participate. Effective January 1, 2014, clergy members and local pastors serving less than half-time were no longer eligible to participate, but received benefits accrued through December 31, 2013.

For the defined benefit plan, the contribution is based on a formula using the average denominational compensation and the year of credited service beginning January 1, 2007. For the defined contribution plan, contributions are 2% of each eligible participant's compensation, with an additional match of up to 1% based on each participant's contributions.

Total contributions to the CRSP for the year ended December 31, 2021, were as follows:

Defined contribution plan, funded from the Conference	$	1,461,426
Defined benefit plan, funded from the Conference		4,172,939
TOTAL	$	5,634,365

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2021

The Conference expects the annual contributions for all of the plans above to be approximately $8,000,000 a year. The total costs for the above benefit plans are generally billed to the churches of the Conference; however, any shortfalls are obligations of the Conference.

NOTE 9 – POSTRETIREMENT HEALTH BENEFIT PLAN

The Conference sponsors a multi-employer defined benefit postretirement health care plan for ministerial employees of its member churches and employees of the Conference. The plan is contributory, whereby the retiree contributions can be adjusted for increases in the cost of health care and unfunded.

The following table provides a reconciliation of the changes in the plan's accumulated postretirement health benefits obligation and fair value of plan assets for the year ended December 31, 2021.

Reconciliation of accumulated postretirement health benefits obligation:

Accumulated postretirement health benefits obligation, beginning	$ 11,606,035
Service cost for benefits earned during the year	334,416
Interest cost on accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation	316,207
Actuarial loss	(3,132,347)
Contributions by plan participants	739,373
Benefit payments	(970,151)
Accumulated postretirement health benefits obligation, ending	8,893,533

Reconciliation of fair value of plan assets:

Fair value of plan assets, beginning	-
Employer contributions	230,778

Amounts recognized in postretirement changes other than net periodic

Postretirement health benefit costs:

Actuarial loss for current year	$ 3,132,347
Amortization of actuarial gain	(868,864)

Postretirement changes other than net periodic postretirement health benefit costs 2,263,483

Amounts recognized in net assets without donor restrictions but not yet recognized as components of net periodic postretirement health benefit costs:

----------------------------	---------------

Amount in net assets without donor restrictions expected to be recognized in net periodic postretirement health benefit costs in 2022:

--------------------	--------------

The actuarial gain in 2021 is due primarily to demographic and claims experience during 2021 along with per-capita cost updates to reflect the actual historical experience. The discount rate has been updated from 3.50% to 2.75%, and the mortality table has been updated to the MP-2014, modified with MP-2018, projected generationally.

The following benefit payments, which reflect expected future service, are expected to be paid by the Conference in future years:

Years ended December 31:

2022	$ 198,046
2023	189,412
2024	178,139
2025	169,933
2026	161,042
2027-2031	738,238
TOTAL	$ 1,634,810

The accumulated postretirement health benefits obligation was computed using an assumed discount rate of 2.75% for 2021. The actuarial assumptions relating to health care trend rates are evaluated for participants over 65 years of age and under 65 years of age separately. The under 65 health care trend rate was assumed to be 6.0% for 2021 and is assumed to decline by .25% until reaching 5% in 2026, and remaining level thereafter. The over 65 health care trend rate was assumed to be 6% for 2021 and is assumed to decline to 5% going forward.

Assumed health care rates have a significant effect on the amounts reported for the plan. A 1% change in assumed health care cost trend rates would have the following effect:

	1% Decrease	1% Increase
Effect on total service and interest cost components	$ (126,835)	$ 182,559
Effect on the accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation	(1,777,848)	2,394,724

December 31, 2021

As of December 31, 2021, the Conference has approximately $11,703,739 designated by the Board to be used for payment of future net periodic postretirement health benefit costs. Any changes in the plan or revisions to assumptions that affect the amounts of expected future benefits may have a significant effect on the amount of the reported obligation and future annual expense.

Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2021

The Conference recognizes support under split-interest agreements when the agreements become irrevocable or when the assets are distributed to the Conference for charitable causes, whichever occurs first. The assets held in trust are recorded at their estimated fair value when received, with the obligation to the donor or their beneficiary recorded at the estimated fair value of the future annuities payable. The fair value of the estimated future payments is calculated using applicable distribution rates, a discount rate adjusted to reflect the lower market risk of obligations that are largely limited to segregated trust assets, and applicable mortality tables. The amount of the contribution is the difference between these amounts and is classified as either temporarily or permanently restricted support. Adjustments to the liability to reflect the amortization of the discount, remeasurement of the fair value of the obligation, and changes in actuarial assumptions, as well as the close-out of the liability upon the death of the donor (or beneficiary), are recognized as changes in the value of split-interest agreements in either the temporarily or permanently restricted net asset class. The fair value of the obligations as of December 31, 2021 was calculated using a discount rate of 2.51%.

Net assets without donor restrictions include amounts that have been designated by the Board of Trustees, Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and the General Council on Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church for specific purposes and other amounts that are unavailable for operational use by the Conference. As of December 31, 2021, the Board of Trustees, Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and the General Council on Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church have designated $56,526,815 as board designated endowment funds.

NOTE 11 – ENDOWMENT

The Conference's endowment consists of seven individual funds established for a variety of purposes. Its endowment includes both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Conference to function as endowments. As required by GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the Conference to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Interpretation of relevant law

The Conference has interpreted the North Carolina enacted version of the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (NC UPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the corpus of the original gift. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as permanently restricted net assets: (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulations are added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Conference in a manner consistent with the standards of prudence prescribed by NC UPMIFA. In accordance with NC UPMIFA, the Conference considers the following factors in deciding to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2021

1. The duration and preservation of the fund.
2. The purposes of the Conference and the donor-restricted endowment fund.
3. General economic conditions.
4. The possible effects of inflation and deflation.
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments.
6. Other resources of the Conference.
7. The investment policies of the Conference.

Endowment net composition by type of fund as of December 31, 2021, is as follows:

Board-designated	$ 56,526,815
Donor-restricted	1,387,715
TOTAL	$ 57,914,530

Return objectives and risk parameters

The Conference has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the Conference must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period(s) as well as board designated funds. Under this policy, as approved by the Conference, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is identified to produce results that exceed the price yield results of the S&P 500 index while assuming a moderate level of investment risk. The Conference expects its endowment funds, over time, to provide an average rate of return of approximately 5% annually. Actual returns in any given year may vary from this amount.

Spending policy and how the investment objectives relate to spending policy

The Conference has a policy of appropriating for distribution each year 4% of its endowment fund's average fair value over the prior 12 quarters through the calendar year-end preceding the fiscal year in which the distribution is planned. In establishing this policy, the Conference considered the long-term expected return on its endowment. Accordingly, over the long term, the Conference expects the current spending policy to allow its endowment to grow at an average of 1% annually. This is consistent with the Conference's objectives to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets held in perpetuity or for a specific term as well as to provide additional real growth through new gifts and investment returns.

Strategies employed for achieving objectives

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Conference targets long-term return objectives with prudent risk constraints.

NOTE 12 – LEASE COMMITMENTS

The Conference leases equipment and storage space under noncancelable operating leases, which expire through November 2022. Minimum annual rentals range from approximately $900 to $55,000. Total rent expense was $113,897 for the year ended December 31, 2021. Future minimum rental commitments for all noncancelable leases at December 31, 2021, are as follows:

Years ending December 31:
2022	$	104,714
2023		20,344
2024		1,116
TOTAL	$	126,174

Future pronouncements

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). Under the new guidance, lessees are required to recognize lease assets and lease liabilities on the statement of financial position for all leases with terms longer than 12 months. Leases will be classified as either financing or operating, with classifications affecting the pattern of expense recognition in the statement of activities. The new standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021. It is expected that the implementation of this standard will result in an increase in assets and liabilities, but will not result in a material change in net assets.

NOTE 13 – ABANDONED OR DISCONTINUED PROPERTY

When a member church is abandoned or discontinued, the deed is transferred from the church's Board of Trustees to the Conference's Board of Trustees. The properties are recorded by the Conference at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value. As there is generally no carrying value and the fair market value of the properties is not easily estimated when abandoned, the properties are recorded by the Conference at no value. When sold, the Conference will normally utilize 75% of the net proceeds for church vitality and utilize the remaining amount for church vitality in the applicable district in the area where the church was sold.

NOTE 14 – UNCONSOLIDATED CONSTITUENT MINISTRY

GAAP requires the Conference to consolidate entities in which it has control and an economic interest, when that control is evidenced through majority ownership or voting interests. Because the Conference has an economic interest in and control of a constituent through means other than majority ownership or voting interests, consolidation is permitted, but not required. Therefore, the Conference has elected not to consolidate the constituent as described below.

The non-consolidated constituent is the Foundation, a not-for-profit organization providing various investment management services for its clients, which consist of the Conference and United Methodist churches, institutions and agencies in Western North Carolina. The primary purpose of the Foundation is to act as an agent to provide professional investment management services to its clients. According to the statement of relationship between the Conference and the Foundation, the organizations have similar purposes and interests but are separate, self-governing associations.

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2021

The Foundation has assets of approximately $332,102,670 as of December 31, 2021. Of those assets, approximately $290,937,997 are investments. See Note 2 for the Conference's portions of those investments.

The summary financial information does not eliminate the transactions between the Conference and the constituent, such as investment activity with the Foundation and contributions from the Conference to the Foundation, if any.

The Conference is also affiliated with a significant number of related ministries through its connection with the United Methodist Church. The Conference has signed a statement of relationship with other entities that defines this connectional relationship and states that neither entity may require the other entity to assume any contractual, financial or other obligation. The Conference does not have control or financial interest in these affiliated entities. Grants and operating support provided to these entities totaled approximately $702,176 for the year ended December 31, 2021. These entities provided contributions to the Conference totaling approximately $164,104 for the year ended December 31, 2021.

NOTE 15 – LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY OF FINANCIAL ASSETS

The Conference has $115,044,336 of financial assets available within one year of the balance sheet date to meet cash needs for general expenditure consisting of cash of $9,317,218, investments of $101,508,038, receivables of $4,147,460 and the current portion of notes receivable of $71,620. Of that amount, $3,742,293 of the financial assets are subject to donor or other contractual restrictions that make them unavailable for general expenditure within one year of the balance sheet date and $82,598,439 are board-designated for specific purposes. The receivables and the current portion of the notes receivable are expected to be collected in the following year. The Conference has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due. In addition, as part of its liquidity management the Conference invests cash in excess of daily requirements in money market funds.

NOTE 16 - UNCERTAINTIES

COVID-19 pandemic

The COVID-19 pandemic has resulted in major changes in the local economy. In order to mitigate the effect of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Conference received a Paycheck Protection Program "PPP" loan for $1,074,098 from the Small Business Administration "SBA" during the year. The Conference was notified during the year that the loan was forgiven in full and the total amount received was recorded as grant revenue in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. This is not expected to be a recurring source of revenue for the Conference.

Pending litigation

The Conference has been named as a defendant in various lawsuits alleging sexual misconduct at Children's Homes in Winston Salem, North Carolina that took place in the late 1960s to early 1970s. At this point the Conference's share of any liability is not reasonably estimated and no provision for any uninsured loss has been made in the accompanying financial statements. In 2021 the Conference established a designated fund with a year-end balance of $782,050 to cover the legal costs and any potential liability that might arise from this litigation.

The trustees for the bankruptcy of Boy Scouts of America, Inc., have negotiated a settlement with the United Methodist Church to establish victims' funds to settle claims of sexual abuse occurring at Boy Scout troops using the facilities of Methodist churches. The total settlement has been allocated by the United Methodist Church to individual conferences and the Conference's share of the liability as determined subsequent to year-end is $1,065,004. This amount is included in agency liabilities in the accompanying financial statements.

NOTE 17 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Conference has evaluated subsequent events from the date of the statement of financial position through the date of the audit report, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued. During this period, no material recognizable subsequent events were identified, other than the settlement of the Boy Scout of America litigation described above.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON THE SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

To the Council on Finance and Administration of
Huntersville, North Carolina

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary (the "Conference"), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021, and have issued our report thereon, which contains an unmodified opinion on those consolidated financial statements.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements as a whole. The supplementary information is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the consolidated financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the consolidated financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying account and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statement or to the consolidated financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America.

In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated financial statements as a whole.

B. 2023 COMPREHENSIVE BENEFIT FUNDING PLAN SUMMARY

INTRODUCTION

The 2012 Book of Discipline ¶1506.6 requires that each annual conference develop, adopt, and implement a formal comprehensive funding plan for funding all its benefit obligations. The funding plan shall be submitted annually to Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) for review and be approved annually by the annual conference, following the receipt and inclusion of a favorable written opinion from Wespath. This document is only a summary of the information contained in the actual signed funding plan and does not contain all the information required for a comprehensive view of the conference's benefit obligations. You may request the full contents of the 2023 comprehensive benefit funding plan from your conference benefit office.

CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PROGRAM (CRSP)

Defined Benefit (DB) and Defined Contribution (DC)

Program overview:

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement program providing lifetime income and account flexibility designed for those who serve as clergy of The United Methodist Church. The program is designed to provide participants with one portion of their overall retirement benefits. CRSP replaced the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) effective January 1, 2007, which had previously replaced the Pre 82 Plan for service rendered prior to January 1, 1982.

CRSP consists of both a defined benefit (DB) plan, which provides a monthly benefit at retirement based upon years of credited service to The United Methodist Church, and a defined contribution (DC) plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the annual conferences.

Current funding plan information:

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP DB) annuities total liability as of January 1, 2021, is $2,134,736,431, while total plan assets are $2,520,654,197, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 118%. The Western North Carolina Conference portion of the liability is 4.0846% and the 2023 contribution is $3,515,331. The conference anticipates that the amount will be funded by apportionments, CRSP DB Fund, and direct billing. Additionally, General Conference 2012 approved a change to CRSP that provides each annual conference the discretion to determine whether to cover three quarter and/or half time clergy. Once again, the Western North Carolina Conference has elected to cover clergy serving 50%+ under CRSP effective January 1, 2023.

Effective January 1, 2014, the CRSP DC plan was reduced from a 3% to a 2% of plan compensation non matching contribution. Clergy can earn up to an additional 1% CRSP DC contribution by contributing at least 1% of their plan compensation to UMPIP; therefore, if a participant contributes at least 1% of plan compensation to UMPIP, the individual will receive a contribution of 3% to CRSP DC. The 2023 CRSP DC contribution is anticipated to be $1,563,201 and will be funded by direct billing.

MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN (MPP)

Plan overview:

Supplement Three to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church from 1982 through 2006. MPP is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement plan. MPP requires that exactly 65% of the account balance must be annuitized when the funds are to be distributed. The remainder may be rolled over to UMPIP, another qualified plan or an IRA, or it may be paid in a lump sum.

Current funding plan information:

The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) annuities' total liability as of January 1, 2021, is $ 3,630,817,808, while total plan assets are $4,439,554,422, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 122%. The required contribution for 2023 is zero dollars. The Western North Carolina Conference's percentage of the total liability is 3.0374%. Future MPP annuitants have a total account balance of $3,437,346,240 and the Western North Carolina Conference's portion of that balance is $145,441,276 or 4.23% of the total.

PRE-82 PLAN (PRE-82)

Plan overview:

Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Pre-82 Plan, provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church prior to 1982. The Pre-82 Plan was replaced by MPP effective January 1, 1982. If a clergyperson retires within the Conference (and does not terminate), the minimum benefit payable is based on two factors:

- 1) Years of service with pension credit approved by each conference on the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions (CBOP) in accordance with plan provisions and The Book of Discipline.
- 2) The conference pension rate (past service rate) -the dollar amount chosen by the conference as the amount payable for each approved year of service with pension credit (may change from year to year).

The number of years of service with pension credit is multiplied by the pension rate, and the product is the minimum annual benefit payable to those clergy eligible for Pre 82 Plan benefits. In certain situations, the benefit received from the Pre 82 plan may vary based on the applicability of what is referred to as Defined Benefit Service Money (DBSM), which is the defined contribution feature of the Pre 82 Plan. At the time that a participant retires, the DBSM account is converted to a life-based benefit, and, at that point, the clergy's benefit is the greater of the PSR or DBSM benefit. If the conference increases the PSR, the clergy's benefit is recalculated; but the DBSM based benefit does not change.

Current funding plan information:

The 2023 PSR recommended to the Western North Carolina Conference will be $857, representing a 2% increase from the 2022 rate. The conference expects future annual increases to be approximately 2.00%.

The contingent annuitant percentage is recommended to remain at the 70% level.

ACTIVE HEALTH BENEFIT PROGRAM

Program Overview:

The Western North Carolina Conference offers the following active health benefit to its active eligible participants: Self-Funded - Non-HealthFlex.

Current funding plan information:

The total cost of the program for 2023 is anticipated to be $16,901,574 and will be funded by direct billing. It is anticipated that increases for future years will average 12.50%.

The rationale for these changes is due to COVID 19, costs were reduced due to healthcare priorities but return to pre COVID costs expected to resume in mid-2021.

Claims Incurred But Not Reported (if applicable)

The Western North Carolina Conference provides the following health plan to its eligible participants: Self-Funded - Non-HealthFlex. As of 12/31/2023, the estimated IBNR claims total is $1,056,348. It is anticipated that increases for future years will average 12.50%. It is anticipated that the IBNR claims, if applicable, will be funded by billed premiums and premium reserves, if applicable.

Additional Conference-Sponsored Coverage (if applicable)

The Western North Carolina Conference has elected to provide health benefits coverage to the following groups during periods where—without plan sponsor-funded premiums—the participants would not be provided coverage or benefits (all figures as of 12/31/2021):

1. Clergy or lay on disability (including pending disability): 10 participants at an estimated cost of $147,360.

The projected annual cost as of 12/31/2023 for additional plan sponsor funded coverage is $186,503.

The rationale for these changes is the IBNR costs are lower per our third-party plan administrator.

POST RETIREMENT MEDICAL (PRM)

Program Overview:

The Western North Carolina Conference currently offers a fully insured plan for Post-Retirement Medical coverage.

Current funding plan information:

The plan sponsor's intention for 2023 is to retain current plan benefit. PRM benefits provided are as follows: The PRM for WNCC is a Medicare Supplemental plan that is fully funded with premiums charged to retired clergy and spouses based on a range of years of service.

Based on the most recent PRM valuation dated 01/01/2022, the following is the funded position of the PRM benefits:

1. Expected Post-Retirement Obligation (EPBO) net plan sponsor cost.....	$8,893,533
2. Accumulated Post-Retirement Obligation (APBO) net plan sponsor cost	$8,893,533
3. Net PRM Assets	$11,703,739
4. Funding plan service cost ($0 if Net PRM Assets ≥ EPBO).....	$0
5. Funded status, [3. - 2.]	$2,810,206
6. Portion of funded status payable ($0 if Funded status ≥ 0).....	$0
7. Ongoing funding contribution, [4. + 6.]	$0

Future increases/decreases to the assets or APBO will be funded over the duration of the program as calculated in the PRM valuation report, or five years if not available.

These values are based on a 3.00% long-term discount rate, a 1.50% long-term expected rate of return on assets, and a valuation year medical trend (inflation rate) of 6.00% with an ultimate medical trend (inflation rate) of 5.00%, beginning in 2026.

In addition to the PRM funding contribution listed above, the projected annual plan benefit cost for 2023 (subsidies, HRAs, claims or premiums) is $182,163.

COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN (CPP)Plan Overview:

The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provides death, long-term disability, and other welfare benefits for eligible clergy of The United Methodist Church and their families. It is an Internal Revenue Code 414(e) "church plan" funded by plan sponsor insurance premiums. Generally, clergy are eligible to participate in CPP if they satisfy the eligibility requirements, including full-time appointment with plan compensation of at least 25% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). Plan sponsors may elect to cover participants with three-quarter time appointments and/or to continue to cover clergy who, due to certain leaves or appointments, are not otherwise eligible to continue coverage.

The CPP adoption agreement executed by the Western North Carolina Conference contains its elections to cover or not to cover categories mentioned above.

Current funding plan information:

For 2023, the Western North Carolina Conference has an expected required contribution to the Comprehensive Protection Plan of $1,425,000, which is anticipated to be funded by direct billing. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 1.00% per year due to an adjustment made by Rev. Dr. R. Mark King, conference benefits officer, based on Scott Greeno's, Wespah actuary, good advice.

UNITED METHODIST PERSONAL INVESTMENT PLAN (UMPIP) FOR LAY AND CLERGYPlan Overview:

The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) defined contribution retirement savings plan for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church and affiliated organizations. Participants may make before-tax, Roth and/or after-tax contributions through payroll deductions. Participant contributions, various optional plan sponsor contributions and investment earnings comprise the individual's retirement account balance.

Current funding plan information:

Conference office lay employees working an average of 20 hours per week or more are eligible after 12 months for a plan sponsor-funded pension contribution of 9% of salary. Lay employees are encouraged to make contributions toward their retirement through payroll deductions to the UMPIP. The conference's estimated contribution for 2023 is $223,856 and will be funded via conference apportionments.

OTHER DEFINED CONTRIBUTION (DC) OBLIGATIONSPlan Overview:

The Western North Carolina currently offers the following DC benefit(s): Supplemental Life Insurance for Clergy and Conference staff. The estimated contribution for 2023 is $55,000 with the funding sources to be apportionments. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 0.00% per year due to an expected increase in cost.

Plan Overview:

The Western North Carolina currently offers the following DC benefit(s): Ministers Moving Allowance (provides moving expense). The estimated contribution for 2023 is $120,000 with the funding sources to be conference apportionments. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 0.00% per year due to less clergy anticipate moving.

CONCLUSION

The 2023 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan and this summary document incorporates, to the best of our understanding, the Western North Carolina's obligations and funding requirements of the benefits provided to the clergy and laity of the Western North Carolina Conference.
