Dark Star Imports

*We Know Our Roots.
Have a taste and bring home one of the best Italian wines.*

BRANDINI BAROLO

A taste response characterised by good body and exceptional smoothness, followed by lively, young tannin with lingering persistency. Uncomplicated, clean finish.

SCARBOLO MERLOT

The color is ruby red with violet hues. On the nose, fragrant aromas of wild berries and herbaceous notes of violets. Soft and silky body with sweet tannins & balanced structure. A perfect wine to pair with salumis and roasted red meats.

LA MOZZA PERAZZI "SANGIOVESE"

Juicy dark fruit mingles with spice and licorice on the palate. The bright, ripe cherry and soft texture makes this a natural match with fresh Mediterranean flavors and dishes.

CARNEROS HILLS WINERY

Carneros Hills Winery is in the tenderloin of Carneros, south of the Carneros Highway. It is a new winery, established just in 2013. Despite its recent inception the winery has history and tradition behind it, having been the site of the historic Buena Vista Winery on the Sonoma side of the appellation, just over the Napa border. The winery underwent dramatic renovations in 2013-2014, including cutting-edge innovations for artisanal Pinot Noir production: hand-sorting systems, basket presses and a variety of fermentation vessels. Individual barrel rooms provide the ideal conditions for primary and secondary fermentations as well as aging.

CHALONE VINEYARD ESTATE GROWN

The oldest producing vineyard in Monterey County, Chalone Vineyard Estate rests on the Gavilan Mountain Range on the north slope of Chalone Peak. At 1,800 feet, the quiet splendor of the vineyards overlooks spectacular views of the wide-open Salinas Valley, made famous by local author John Steinbeck. The vineyard's name comes from the peak, which derives its name from the indigenous Costanoan Native American tribe, the Chalone, or Chollen.

Cline roots run deep. In the latter part of the 1800s, Oakley, Contra Costa County was a booming farm community. Fred Cline's maternal grandfather, Valeriano Jacuzzi called this place home. In 1982, Fred founded Cline Cellars near Oakley. Here, he preserved and restored many ancient vine sites.

CLOS DU BOIS.

When Clos du Bois was founded in 1974, Sonoma County was better known for its prunes, walnuts and dairy farms than for its wine grapes. With more soil types than France, Founder Frank Woods recognized the potential of Sonoma County as a world-class wine growing region, and it is here in Sonoma's Alexander Valley where Clos du Bois has been making outstanding wines for more than three decades.

The Crusher Wines are a testament to an enduring partnership between the winemaking tradition of the Sebastiani family and the Wilsons, a respected grape-growing family with deep roots in Clarksburg, California. Fittingly named for the point in the winemaking process where the fruit of one family's labors literally gives way to those of the other. The Crusher wines highlight the vibrancy and beauty of the fruit produced in the up-and-coming Clarksburg appellation.

Davis Bynum is distinguished as the first winery to produce a single vineyard pinot noir from the Russian River Valley. The vintage was 1973 and the grapes were from Joe Rochioli's now prized vineyard. Today, more than thirty years later, the heritage of Davis Bynum lives on through the hand crafted creation of pinot noir and chardonnay grown exclusively in Russian River Valley.

Santa Barbara County, home to an increasingly diverse array of grapes and styles, stands out in the international world of winemaking for three wines, Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, and Syrah. Jim and Mary Dierberg appreciated that truth from day one. The couple came to the region from the Midwest in the early 1990s to plant ultra-premium grapes and craft great wines.

When Steve Reeder and Dave Matthews first met, they realized they had a few things in common, like a passion for making wine at least as strong as their passion for drinking it. For The Dreaming Tree wines, they set out to create an approachable Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay, and Red Blend—finding inspiration in the down-to-earth characters and unforgettable flavors that give California's wine country its rare charm.

The family at Dry Creek Vineyard believes that great wines begin in the vineyard. For us, winegrowing is a collaborative effort with Mother Nature. Our aim is to strike a careful balance between soil, climate and vine. We take great care in carefully farming, harvesting and shepherding our wines through the winemaking process. The artistry of our winemaking team lies in their ability to carefully guide this process with as little intervention as possible.

Estancia

Estancia is translated from the Spanish word for "estate," and emphasizes our conviction that the world's best wines capture the essence of their place of origin. At Estancia, we control the process from the start—from the trials in our experimental vineyard blocks, to planting, harvesting, fermenting, and aging the wines. We've built a winery adjacent to the Pinnacles Vineyard that allows us to devote the same attention to detail in winemaking that we give to our estate vineyards.

FERRARI-CARANO
Vineyards and Winery

In 1979, Don and Rhonda Carano purchased a single 60 acre parcel of land in Sonoma County's Alexander Valley. The parcel included a restored 1904 farmhouse, a barn and 30 acres of grapes. So began a twenty-five year mission to acquire premium vineyard properties throughout the county, because Don and Rhonda truly believed, and still do, that owning their own vineyards is the best way to ensure the highest quality grapes needed to supply their growing winery in Dry Creek Valley and their mountain winery in Alexander Valley.

Named after our mother and grandmother, Flora, and for the natural springs on the winery property that have flowed uninterrupted even through periods of drought, Flora Springs is both our life's work and our home. Third-generation vintners Nat Komes and Sean Garvey, both of whom grew up at the winery, are now poised to take the helm guiding the winery into a new era of artisanal winemaking in the spirit of tradition, innovation, and community values epitomized by their grandparents, Flora and Jerry.

Old World meets New World in this family partnership between the Hydes of Hyde Vineyard (Carneros, Napa), their cousin Pamela (née Fairbanks), and her husband, Aubert de Villaine, co-director of the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti (Burgundy). From the very first vintage in 2000, Hyde de Villaine wines have shown their pedigree, fusing the finesse and balance of Old-World winemaking with the exuberance of California fruit from the legendary Hyde Vineyard.

FOUR VINES

At Four Vines we're wine-loving rebels who seized an opportunity to craft wines that are distinctly unstuffy, characteristically joyous and decidedly American. At the time of our first vintage the wine world was a bona fide Who's Who of Blah: Tannic Cab, Flabby Merlot, Oaky Chard, Wash, Rinse, Repeat... But while everyone else got stuck in the spin cycle, Four Vines got busy.

The Jayson Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Red are hand-crafted with the same premium practices that produce our Pahlmeyer wines. We do not grow or purchase additional fruit for the Jayson. Rather, all of our grapes are grown and vinified for the Pahlmeyer. After winemaker Erin Green selects the blends for the Pahlmeyer wines, she composes from the remaining barrels the Jayson Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Red. As a result, the Jayson wines offer both quality and value.

LUCIENNE

We produce three limited-production, vineyard-designated Lucienne Pinot Noirs from our estate in the Santa Lucia Highlands of Monterey County. In part, these wines owe their seductive nature to clonal selection. We have an array of Pinot Noir clones, or slight genetic variations, planted in our vineyards. Each clone contributes a desired color, aroma, flavor, texture or structural element to the finished wine.

The name, Meiomi means "coast" in the language of the native, coastal dwelling Wappo and Yuki tribes, and pays tribute to and symbolizes the origins of this wine. From our first Pinot Noir vintage in 2002, we set out with a single goal for Meiomi: to craft a vibrant, food-friendly wine that is approachable and ready to drink upon release. By blending top-notch parcels of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay from three great coastal regions, Meiomi has become known as a richly layered, well-balanced and expressive wine – and as an approachable wine for any occasion.

The term MOSSBACK is an old-time expression for farmers, folks who are both connected to their roots and to the land. Our label conjures images of the mossy stones, trees trunks and end posts so prevalent in California's cool coastal regions, home to some of the most renowned grape growers in the world. These wines are a nod to those men and women, who understand more than anyone the delicate relationship between vine, climate and soil.

Basking in the clear mountain sunshine high above the valley floor, Mount Veeder Winery is a hidden jewel. Founded in 1973, Mount Veeder Winery is a dramatic estate with vineyards planted on the hillsides of the Mayacamas Mountains overlooking the southern end of the Napa Valley. At altitudes ranging from 1,000 to 1,600 feet, our vines cling to the thin soils on these rugged, steep slopes. The vineyards produce intense and exceptionally concentrated grapes that express their mountain origins in powerful, bold wines crafted from the classic red Bordeaux varieties.

Pahlmeyer has embraced the holistic, rather than aggressive, approach and has seen the results. Growing balanced, ultra-premium wine grapes while incurring the least amount of environmental impact is the core mission of Pahlmeyer's sustainable winegrowing. The metered approach to soil health creates balanced vines with healthy canopies and Small berries, as opposed to overly-vigorous vines with pumped-up berries, which can result from synthetic fertilizer applications. Achieving the intricate and fragile natural balance in the vineyard is the challenge for even the most qualified viticulturist. Working in tandem with the elements has always been the grower's best bet and is the viticultural secret behind Pahlmeyer's successful grape harvests and vintage releases.

The Prisoner

The Prisoner was created and inspired by the drinkable "mixed blacks" first made by the Italian immigrants who originally settled in the Napa Valley. In 2003 The Prisoner was launched and soon became the most recognized innovative and unique Napa Valley Red Wine blend, leading the resurgence of blends by incorporating Zinfandel with the unlikely "mix" of Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Petite Sirah, and Charbono.

Robert Mondavi was a pioneer of the modern California wine industry and is recognized for putting California wines in the company of the great wines of the world. Along the way, he learned that different winegrowing regions of California vary tremendously in terms of their climate, soil, and topography. With these insights, he created Robert Mondavi Private Selection to celebrate California's unique, non-traditional Central Coast region.

RUTHERFORD HILL NAPA VALLEY

In 1972, while the rest of the world was just beginning to take notice of Napa Valley, the founders of Rutherford Hill recognized a unique opportunity. They believed that the climate and soil of the valley, similar to Pomerol, were well suited to Merlot and were among the first to pioneer what has become Napa's premier varietal. Today, this tradition of quality continues, expressed by wines of great complexity and character.

SIMI

Simi was founded in 1876 by Giuseppe and Pietro Simi. The winery's beautiful stone cellars and grounds in Healdsburg are a Sonoma County icon. Simi's philosophy has always been to create delicious wines that reflect the diversity of Sonoma County – from the foggy Sonoma Coast in the west, cool Carneros in the south, and warm Dry Creek and Alexander Valleys in the north and east.

Simply Naked offers a complete lineup of unoaked wines to showcase the true expression of each varietal, letting the purity of the fruit shine through. These wines are clean, fresh, and straightforward, but they're anything but simple. Making great wines without using oak to mask the taste means the winemaker must begin with high-quality, premium fruit sourced from the best regions in California and take great care in developing wines that are fruit forward, yet balanced and structured.

SONOMA-CUTRER VINEYARDS

Sonoma-Cutrer is dedicated to the pursuit of original expression in our wines. Each wine reflects its regional and seasonal climate, its specific vineyard character – its terroir. From the very first vintage of Sonoma-Cutrer Chardonnay to the limited production of our world-class Pinot Noir, this dedication has taken root and continues to grow. Our "Grand Cru" philosophy is a unique assimilation of traditional Burgundian winemaking methods and our own technological innovation. It's a perfect balance of tradition and discovery, bringing forth noble wines that express a sense of place, vintage after vintage.

The name Toasted Head comes from the letters "TH" you see stamped on the ends of our barrels. "TH" or "Toasted Head" means that the barrel heads, as well as the staves, have been toasted by the cooper so that a toasted flavor is imparted into the wines during barrel fermentation and barrel aging. These high-quality, highly toasted barrels play a key role in the creation of the rich, full-bodied wines we're famous for.

Wild Horse Winery was founded in 1983, and named for the wild mustangs that roamed the hills east of the vineyard estate. They suggest a free, noble spirit and are the ideal symbol for the Wild Horse Winery & Vineyards commitment to spirited winemaking. The vineyard and winery location within the Paso Robles appellation was selected for its mid-point proximity to the entire Central Coast region as well as Templeton's rural atmosphere.

At Zepaltas Wines, our main goal is to produce wines that are balanced, pure and reflect the places and people who had a hand in making the wines what they are. Our favorite sources for fruit are the cooler parts of Western Sonoma County (Russian River Valley & Sonoma Coast), and the Santa Lucia Highlands in Monterrey County. We are trying to produce wines that go well with food, and have the potential to evolve into greater things throughout the aging process.

Quality winegrowing in America was in its infancy in the 1970's. The Spurrier tasting in Paris in 1976 gave the first international credibility to California Cabernet and Chardonnay. Three years later, again in Paris, and the following year in Beaune, The Eyrie Vineyards 1975 Pinot Noir brought international attention to Oregon, a wine region unfamiliar to almost anyone except a handful of hardy pioneers. With these two tastings, Oregon won its first recognition as the New World home for Pinot Noir.

Dick and Nancy Ponzi moved their young family to the Willamette Valley in the late 1960s with a spirit of adventure and a passion for making world class Pinot Noir. After many research trips to Burgundy and an extensive search for the ideal location, they purchased 20 acres on a Small farm just southwest of Portland, Oregon. It was a daring risk — at the time, the Pacific Northwest was not thought to be a place to grow Pinot Noir, but Dick and Nancy realized the Northern Willamette Valley's climate was ideal for cool climate varieties. Pinot Noir cuttings were planted, and in 1970 Ponzi Vineyards was founded.

CHARLES SMITH WINES Walla Walla Washington USA

In 2006, Charles Smith created Charles Smith Wines: The Modernist Project, which centers around the trend that most people generally consume wine without delay. The intent is to create wines to be enjoyed now, but with typicity of variety (Merlot that tastes like Merlot) and true to the place of origin. The wines are full of flavor, balanced, and approachable.

Gravel Bar

For more than twenty centuries, torrential floodwaters from melting ice-age glaciers sculpted eastern Washington's Columbia Valley, leaving in their wake deep deposits of sandy, rocky, alluvial soils. Today, framing the Columbia River, broad plains of ancient sediment constitute one of the world's finest wine grape growing regions. Gravel Bar wines capture the essence of this wonderful region.

Located at the base of the Blue Mountains in Walla Walla (Washington State), Charles Smith opened his first Small Winery, K Vintners, in December of 2001. The first release, 1999 K Syrah from Walla Walla Valley, initiated the style of winemaking that Charles continues today: Small lots of single vineyard Syrah's and field blends of Syrah, Cabernet Sauvignon, Grenache, Tempranillo and Viognier, all of which are hand-picked, foot-stomped, fermented with naturally occurring yeasts and basket pressed.

EUROPEAN WINES AUSTRIA

Laurenz V. is made by the Lenz Moser family, and is the most recent offering in the family's five generations of wine making experience. The wine comes from the Kamptal and Kremstal areas of Austria where the warmth of the Danube Valley meets the cool air of the Waldviertel region. This combination develops fresh, fruity flavors in grapes while maintaining excellent acidity.

DOMAINE DE NIZAS

John Goelet, a direct descendent of the Guestier wine merchant family in Bordeaux, France, came to the Languedoc in 1998 to produce wines that exemplify the region and terroir. Convinced of the potential for crafting high quality wines in the Languedoc, John Goelet and Bernard Portet, founding winemaker of Clos Du Val in the Napa Valley, searched and identified several vineyard sites of exceptional terroir before deciding upon the current Domaine de Nizas property. Bernard was attracted to quality of the soils, particularly the Villafranchien terroir as closely resembling that of the Chateauneuf du Pape region, where the structure and depth of soils temper the heat of the climate and produce outstanding wines. John Goelet purchased 120 acres of land near the village of Nizas from Chateau de Nizas in 1998. Born and raised by his multi-generational winemaking family in the Bordeaux region, Portet's Old World winemaking style has been instrumental in crafting Domaine de Nizas wines that exude the Languedoc regionality, elegance and charm.

The Gassiers' winemaking history began at the end of the 19th century when they purchased 1,000 hectares (2,471 acres) in Saint Estève, of which 200 hectares (494 acres) were dedicated to vineyards. In 1982, Anthony Gassier, representing the fourth generation of winegrowers in the family, purchased the 40 hectares (98.8 acres) where Chateau Gassier now stands. The winery had been built in 1973 and was known as Jas du Luc at the time of purchase. Over the years, the family's passion, hard work and experience have revealed Château Gassier's potential for excellence. In constant search of the finest expression of their unique terroir, the Château Gassier team concentrates on growing and vinifying rosés from the Côtes de Provence and Côtes de Provence Sainte-Victoire

LAURENT

Michel Tardieu's vision is clear: Use grapes from the best regions and vineyards with the oldest vines — often between 50 and 100 years old; work with vigneron who farm in complete symbiosis with nature, using neither chemicals nor artificial fertilizers; continually refine the process of aging wines, always pushing the limits; and stay as close as possible to the grape and to the terroir. The result is wines with full, free and immediate expression.

BOUTARI

The Boutari Winery, founded in 1879 by Yiannis Boutari, represents something very special to the Greek wine industry. The original winery, outside of Naoussa, has a 124-acre vineyard. There are also five other wineries located throughout Greece in Goumenissa, Attica, Mantinia, Santorini, and Crete. Resurrecting the unique qualities of the indigenous grape varieties of classical Greece, sometimes combining them with more well-known French varieties such as Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon, Boutari has elevated the quality of wines from this most ancient of wine-growing countries.

To express this terroir to the fullest with new and exciting grape varieties. La Mozza consists of 36 hectares (90 acres) and lies in the Southwest corner of Tuscany's Maremma, a dozen kilometers from the sea and 45 minutes Southwest of Montalcino. This area is much drier than the fog-draped hills of central Tuscany. The lack of morning mist means the grapes start ripening at sunrise, and are sun-drenched until sunset. Rain is scarce as the Island of Elba off the coast acts as a windbreak, shifting eastbound moisture to the north and south.

TENUTA SETTE PONTI

The estate of Sette Ponti lies in the heart of the Chianti zone, fifteen miles northwest of the city of Arezzo just past the village of San Giustino Valdarno. The Via del Monte, known locally as the Via dei Sette Ponti, leads into a beautiful hidden valley and to the estate. The name Sette Ponti, or "seven bridges," refers to the seven bridges crossing the Arno River on the road from Arezzo to Florence.

Nestled in the Ebro Valley, with dramatic views of the Cantabrian Mountain range in the north of Spain, lies the tiny village of Oyón. It is here that the Martínez Bujanda Family has been grape growers and wine makers since 1889. Conde de Valdemar relies exclusively on their own 654 acres of vineyards located in the most prominent areas of the region. The family has been purchasing vineyards for more than a century and are considered expert at the selection and maintenance of the regions finest locations. This knowledge, along with control of their own vineyards allows them to grow grapes to their exacting standards and to harvest based on maturity of the grapes, not on the timetable of companies whose name is not found in conjunction with the final wines.

SOUTHERN HEMISPHERE ARGENTINA BENMARCO

Owner and viticulturist Pedro Marchevsky may be one of the most educated, experienced viticulturists in Argentina (if not the world). He has degrees in Agriculture and Enology and Agricultural Engineering, and is a Professor of Irrigation and Drainage at the Universidad Nacional de Cuyo. He has managed premium vineyards for over 30 years and also owns his own vineyard in the district of Los Campamentos in Eastern Mendoza. He is at the forefront of the transformation of Mendoza into a region of world-class vineyards. His philosophy is a simple one gained from experience: make wines that are true to their place. He feels his wines should express the wonderful, powerful fruit flavors, the ripe tannins, the incredible length and balance that can only come from this one place—Mendoza.

CATENA

In 1902, Nicola Catena, an Italian immigrant, planted his first vineyard in Mendoza, Argentina. The winery has remained under family control — now in its third generation — and is one of the few family-owned wine companies in Argentina that remains in Argentine hands. Owned today by Nicolás Catena Zapata and his daughter Laura, Bodega Catena Zapata is known as the pioneer of fine wine from Argentina, and Nicolás is recognized as the vintner who revolutionized wine quality in Argentina.

CATENA ALTA

In 1994, Nicolás Catena made the first premium varietal Malbec to be exported world-wide from Argentina. It took fifteen years of vineyard research and three years of experimentation at the Small Winery before Nicolas and daughter Laura could decide to bottle the first Catena Malbec. Over the next two years, they identified their best vineyard rows of Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay and Malbec and made the first vintages of the Catena Alta wines in very Small quantities. Catena Alta continues to be a limited production of single varietal wines made from a selected few rows in the Catena family's vineyards. These special barrels undergo a rigorous second selection at the Small Winery. The Catena Alta wines can usually be drunk starting at three years after harvest and into the following one to two decades.

After 22 years of winemaking, Susana Balbo has a strong sense of what she wants from her wines. From every harvest, she creates the grandest possible wines under her Susana Balbo label. To achieve this, she makes a rigorous selection of the finest barrels prior to making her final blends, dividing them into the parents (reserve level wines) and offspring or "crios". Wines under her Crios label display ripe fruit flavors, excellent balance and concentration, and are meant to be enjoyed in their vibrant youth. They are also an incredibly good value. And like Susana's own crios (a boy and a girl), they are extremely lovable and fun to be around.

We have tasted over a thousand wines since we began importing from Argentina. In that time, we have discovered a handful of grape growers whose results in the vineyards with specific varietals have been truly amazing--year in, year out. Our first encounter with many of these growers was at a posta del vinatero, or "tavern of the grape grower". Here they drank wine and spoke passionately for hours about their soils, their vines, and their quest for superior flavors in their grapes. We salute the hard work and skill of these growers by offering these vineyard-designated releases made solely with their special grapes.

She has been making wine since she earned her enology degree in 1981, and she has probably produced a wider variety of wines than any other winemaker in Argentina. Susana was the first Argentine winemaker to be hired as a consultant to make wine outside of Argentina. The descendent of a long line of Clare Valley grape growers, Kevin Mitchell is not only a skillful winemaker trained at South Australia's prestigious Adelaide University, he also has the Clare Valley in his blood. A passion for terroir, particularly that of the beautiful Clare, with its steep north-south ranges and austere slate escarpments, arise from a childhood playing in, then working, the vineyards alongside his father, Mort. Now crafting highly-awarded wines from the family's mature vineyards, his winemaking techniques focus on minimal intervention. By his own confession he is fanatical about carrying out his craft without masking the inherent vineyard flavors.

LEEWIN ESTATE

In 1972, following an extensive search for the area most suitable to produce the best varietal wines in Australia, Robert Mondavi identified the future site of the Leeuwin Estate vineyard, which evolved under the direction of founders Denis and Tricia Horgan (with Mondavi acting as consultant and mentor). The initial vineyards were planned, deep plowed, emptied of stone and eventually planted over a five year period from 1975. The winery building was opened in 1978 and the estate was thrust into the international spotlight when Decanter Magazine (UK) gave its highest recommendation to the 1981 'Art Series' Chardonnay in an international blind tasting. It has since become a benchmark estate on the world stage, with Wine Spectator awarding two of the past four Art Series Chardonnays 97 points.

CRAGGY RANGE

It's a great story. The genesis of Craggy Range Small Winery began in 1987, when Steve Smith was smitten by a Small parcel of land in the TukiTuki Valley, part of the Hawkes Bay winegrowing region. With one of New Zealand's most beautiful (and best stocked) trout fishing rivers to the east and the massive symbolic escarpment of Te Mata Peak to the west, this place was indeed very special. The Craggy Range formed the backdrop to the site and close investigation of the soils showed stony clay rich soils that were just perfect for producing a high-quality single-vineyard Chardonnay wine.

At a time when there were only 22 bonded wineries in Napa Valley and fewer than 100 acres of California vineyards planted to Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, they set out to make world-class sparkling wine in the true methode champenoise style. Theirs was the first California winery to provide a Blanc de Blancs in 1965 followed by a Blanc de Noirs in 1967.

ITALY

Testimony that firmly places the Bisol family in the heart of the Prosecco and Cartizze production zone i.e. the land known as "Chartice" – Today's prestigious Cartizze hills – can be found as far back as the XVI century. Numerous references to the family have been made through the centuries leaving us with no doubt as to the permanence of Bisol's forefathers in the area of Valdobbiadene up to 1542 when a historical reference affirming Bisol as a grape-growing and wine producing family can be found.

IMPORTED DESSERT WINES AUSTRALIA

The Chambers winery has been owned by the same family since its establishment in 1858 - and is one of only a few wineries in Australia with this track record. They have a totally unique style - there is nowhere else in the world that produces a style like the Rutherglen Muscat's and Muscadelles (tokays) - the process of fortifying the partially fermented wine and then aging for decades in old oak barrels results in a concentrated, powerful wine that is not cloying and has amazing balance.

CANADA

Austrian-born and monastically educated, Karl J. Kaiser, and native Canadian, Donald J.P. Ziraldo, a descendant of a family of winegrowers in Northern Italy, founded Inniskillin Wines on July 31, 1975, obtaining the first winery license granted in the province of Ontario since 1929. Located in Niagara-on-the-Lake at the historic Brae Burn Estate, Inniskillin was founded upon and dedicated to the principle of producing outstanding wines from vinifera wine grapes grown in the Niagara Peninsula. Karl and Donald tirelessly tested the new ground of Niagara with better vines and superior winemaking techniques, grafting old-world wisdom in the new-world terroir. Inniskillin rocketed to international notoriety when its pioneering 1989 Vidal Icewine was awarded the Grand Prix d'Honneur at Vinexpo 1991, and drew worldwide attention to Canada's burgeoning wine industry.

GINGA SHIZUKU

Each year, after the temperature drops below 14 Fahrenheit, they build an Ice Dome outside near the main kura building. It is basically an igloo inside of which the temperature stays about 28 F, with 90% humidity and no wind. The low temperature means "nasty bacteria" cannot survive, and it allows them to make clean, pure, ultra-premium Sake. Additionally, they separate the clear Sake from the fermenting rice lees not by pressing, but rather by putting it into canvas bags and allowing the Sake to drip out slowly overnight, with no pressure at all applied to the mash.

KONTEKI

"From one of Japan's Smallest breweries, this Daiginjo is made with Japan's highest quality rice and local Fushimi mizu, the soft, pure water from Japan's Eastern Mountains. Highly-respected rice farmer Masayasu Tanaka carefully works the naturally fertilized soils of his farm in eastern Tottori prefecture to grow some of Japan's best quality Yamada Nishiki, considered the pinnacle of premium sake rice."

MANTENSEJ

The Tottori Prefecture where they are located is one of the least populated regions of Japan--mountains, oceans and wooded areas vie for space with people in the minority. The clean air and the cold winters make it ideal for Sake brewing.

Rihaku

Rihaku was named for a famous poet in China who lived from 701-762 and was famous for drinking a lot before writing. He was known to have said, "I drink a bottle, and can write 100 poems." Taste it, you'll see why. Nigori Sake is made so that some of the rice lees remain in the bottle after pressing (unfiltered). Most nigori is sweet and creamy, and thick with the unfermented rice solids. Rihaku Nigori is a bit less chunky, but more fruity and complex than most nigori Sake."

SATO NO HOMARE

This is the oldest active brewery in all of Japan (based on the oldest written records available). Mr. Sudo is the 55th generation of his family to brew Sake. Everything brewed here is Junmai Ginjo or Junmai daiginjo, and almost all of it is unpasteurized. They recently revived a strain of rice that grew about 2000 years ago, which was discovered in ancient ruins near the brewery.

WATARI BUNE

Watari Bune is a story of passion, dedication and joy. Watari Bune is the name of the rice varietal used to make this sake. It is a rice strain that was used with great enthusiasm in the 1920's and 30's because of the wonderful sake it made. Although open to debate, Yamauchi-san argues that Watari Bune, which is an heirloom or "pure" strain of rice is the father strain to Yamada Nishiki, the most celebrated sake rice.

Dolce embraces a deceptively simple philosophy: the pursuit of perfection in the art of late harvest winemaking. Created in 1985 by the partners of Far Niente, its existence is the result of overcoming remarkable adversity and developing expertise where no one else had in the US.

Dutton-Goldfield Winery began with a hand shake in a vineyard in 1998, when longtime colleagues and friends Steve Dutton and Dan Goldfield recognized a shared vision between them to craft wines that express the personalities of the their cool-climate vineyards, and which they'd enjoy drinking at their own dinner tables.

Quality winegrowing in America was in its infancy in the 1970's. The Spurrier tasting in Paris in 1976 gave the first international credibility to California Cabernet and Chardonnay. Three years later, again in Paris, and the following year in Beaune, The Eyrie Vineyards 1975 Pinot Noir brought international attention to Oregon, a wine region unfamiliar to almost anyone except a handful of hardy pioneers. With these two tastings, Oregon won its first recognition as the New World home for Pinot Noir.

The Parallel Napa Valley label captures the essence of the lines carved by skis on the first run of the day. We wanted our 25 years of friendship and life in Park City, Utah to be reflected in our wines. Now we find that our lives have taken us down a similar path again, a journey which has led us to Napa Valley and the creation of Parallel.

STRAIGHT LINE

Before setting out on his own journey, winemaker Jon Grant worked in the cellars of many of Napa Valley's top wineries, including Turley Wine Cellars, PlumpJack Winery, Corison Wines and Robert Mondavi Winery. With a world of wine experience behind him, Jon started Couloir Wines to showcase his own artistic interpretation of exceptional vineyard sites through the production of single-vineyard Pinot Noir. Straight Line Wine highlights varietal character and appellation flavors using artisan and traditional winemaking techniques

ZACHERLE

A marriage of talents and a meeting of minds. Zacherle Wines is an outlet for winemakers Nile Zacherle (winemaker at David Arthur Vineyards and Montagna) and Whitney Fisher Zacherle (winemaker at Fisher Vineyards) to collaborate stylistically and artistically to create wines that pay homage to origin, yet are influenced by the couple's personalities and passion. In every bottle of Zacherle wine is a devotion to their craft. They combine old world winegrowing techniques with new world fruit, handcrafted from vineyard to bottle with carefully honed skills acquired at home and abroad. Zacherle Wines are created from grapes that are locally sourced and farmed sustainably, biodynamically, and organically.

At Zepaltas Wines, our main goal is to produce wines that are balanced, pure and reflect the places and people who had a hand in making the wines what they are. Our favorite sources for fruit are the cooler parts of Western Sonoma County (Russian River Valley & Sonoma Coast), and the Santa Lucia Highlands in Monterey County. We are trying to produce wines that go well with food, and have the potential to evolve into greater things throughout the aging process.
