A catalogue of the family Ichneumonidae (Hymenoptera, Ichneumonoidea) of Eritrea

Michael MADL

A b s t r a c t : Hitherto 21 species of the family Ichneumonidae have been recorded from Eritrea. They belong to six subfamilies: Campopleginae (two species in the genera Diadegma FÖRSTER, 1869 and Dusona CAMERON, 1901), Cryptinae (six species in the genera Larpelites CAMERON, 1904, Osprynchotus SPINOLA, 1841 and Zonocryptus ASHMEAD, 1900), Ichneumoninae (nine species in the genera Aethiamblys HEINRICH, 1967, Afrobystra HEINRICH, 1968, Afromelanichneumon HEINRICH, 1938, Diphyus KRIECHBAUMER, 1890, Foveosculum HEINRICH, 1938 and Neotypus FÖRSTER, 1869), Metopiinae (one species in the genus Metopius PANZER, 1806), Ophioninae (two species in the genera Dicamptus SZÉPLIGETI, 1905 and Enicospilus STEPHENS, 1835) and Xoridinae (one species in the genus Xorides LATREILLE, 1809).

Introduction

The species-rich family Ichneumonidae is poorly investigated in Eritrea. Until now, only 21 species representing six subfamilies have been recorded. The subfamily Campopleginae is represented by two species in the genera Diadegma FÖRSTER, 1869 and Dusona CAMERON, 1901, the subfamily Cryptinae by six species in the genera Larpelites CAMERON, 1904, Osprynchotus SPINOLA, 1841 and Zonocryptus ASHMEAD, 1900, the subfamily Ichneumoninae by nine species in the genera Aethiamblys HEINRICH, 1967, Afrobystra HEINRICH, 1968, Afromelanichneumon HEINRICH, 1938, Diphyus KRIECHBAUMER, 1890, Foveosculum HEINRICH, 1938 and Neotypus FÖRSTER, 1869, the subfamily Metopiinae by one species in the genus Metopius PANZER, 1806, the subfamily Ophioninae by two species in the genera Dicamptus SZÉPLIGETI, 1905 and Enicospilus STEPHENS, 1835, and the subfamily Xoridinae by one species in the genus Xorides LATREILLE, 1809.

The biology of the Eritrean species is hardly investigated. The host is known only from Enicospilus biimpressus (BRULLÉ, 1846) (Ophioninae).
