THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

*O say can you see,
—by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd
at the twilight's last gleaming
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched,
were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare,
the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night
—that our flag was still there.
O say does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?*

MARYLAND ALMA MATER

*Hail! Alma Mater!
Hail to thee, Maryland!
Steadfast in loyalty
For thee we stand.
Love for the Black and Gold,
Deep in our hearts we hold,
Singing, thy praise forever,
Throughout the land.*

HONORARY DEGREES

HUBERT H. HUMPHREY

Doctor of Laws

Hubert H. Humphrey, Vice President of the United States, was born in Wallace, South Dakota in 1911 and makes his home in Waverly, Minnesota. He received his B.A. degree from the University of Minnesota in 1939, a degree from the Denver College of Pharmacy in 1933, and an M.A. from Louisiana State University in 1940. In 1945 and again in 1947 he was elected Mayor of Minneapolis. In 1948 he became the first Democrat ever sent to the U. S. Senate by Minnesota constituents, and he was reelected in 1954 and 1960. He was elected Senate Majority Whip in 1961. His term as Vice President in the Johnson administration began on January 20, 1965.

Mr. Humphrey's political career has been distinguished by his work in human rights and foreign policy. He holds Chairmanships of the President's Council on Equal Opportunity, the National Aeronautics and Space Council and the Peace Corps Advisory Council. In 1956-57 he was U. S. delegate to the United Nations, and in 1958 was a delegate to UNESCO Conference in Paris. In 1958 Mr. Humphrey became the first American official to meet at length with Nikita Khrushchev in the Soviet Union. He has led legislative efforts in the areas of arms reduction, Federal aid to education, farm surplus exports, international health, and drug regulation.

FREDERICK W. BRUNE

Doctor of Laws

Frederick Brune served as Chief Judge in the Maryland Court of Appeals from 1954-64. He began his service with that body as a member of the Committee on Rules, 1946-54, while a partner of Semmes, Bowen & Semmes in Baltimore. Prior to joining this firm Judge Brune was an Assistant U. S. Attorney from 1923-24; was Assistant to Dr. Horace E. Flack, Department of Legislative Reference; and was associated with the late Osborne I. Yellot until 1922.

Judge Brune was born in Baltimore in 1894. A graduate of Harvard College in 1915, he obtained his LL.B from Harvard Law School in 1920 and was admitted to the Maryland Bar in 1921. During World War One he served in the American Red Cross Ambulance Corps and later in the Army Ambulance Service and the Intelligence Service. He is a past President of both the Maryland State and the Baltimore Bar Associations and is an honorary member of the Order of the Coif. He is presently Chairman of the Committee on Revision of Maryland Motor Vehicle Laws and is on the Boards of Trustees of Goucher College, the Maryland School for the Blind and the Union Memorial Hospital.

DONALD F. HORNIG

Doctor of Science

Dr. Hornig is simultaneously serving as Special Assistant to President Johnson for Science and Technology, Chairman of the Federal Council for Science and Technology. He is also Chairman of the President's Science Advisory Committee, a body which he has served through three administrations. In 1962-63, Dr. Hornig was a member of the delegation headed by Dr. Hugh Dryden which negotiated the agreement with the U. S. S. R. for cooperation in certain space activities.

Born in Milwaukee in 1920, Dr. Hornig received his B.S. degree in 1940 and his Ph.D. in Chemistry in 1943, both from Harvard University. In 1946 he joined the faculty at Brown University as Assistant Professor. In 1949 he became Associate Professor and Director of the Metcalf Research Laboratory and later was Associate Dean of the Graduate School. In 1954-55 he was awarded a Guggenheim grant and a Fulbright scholarship for research at St. John's College, Oxford University, England. In the same year he was appointed the first Bourke Overseas lecturer by the Faraday Society of London. He was appointed Chairman of his department at Princeton in 1958 and in that year was the first incumbent of the Donner Chair of Science at that institution.

JAMES A. SENSENBAUGH

Doctor of Laws

Dr. James A. Sensenbaugh became State Superintendent of Schools for Maryland on June 1, 1964. For eight years prior to this appointment he was Superintendent of the Frederick County school system. He spent 22 years in the Baltimore County School system, as a teacher and Vice-Principal of the Catonsville Elementary School, Principal of the Sixth District Consolidated School in Freeland, and Assistant Superintendent of the Baltimore County schools. He began his career in education as a teacher in Washington County, after obtaining his B.S. from Columbia University, where he later received his M.A. and Ed.D. degrees.

Dr. Sensenbaugh is presently a member of the Baltimore YMCA Metropolitan Board of Directors, on the Board of Trustees of State Colleges, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Teachers Retirement System of Maryland, and a member of the Advisory Council on Higher Educational Facilities. He has served as State Director for the Department of Rural Education of the National Education Association, Director of the Northeast Region of the Associated Public School Systems, and Vice President and Secretary of the Maryland Association of School Superintendents. Dr. Sensenbaugh was born in Frederick County, near the community of Wolfsville.

ERIC SEVAREID

Doctor of Humane Letters

Eric Severeid, one of broadcasting's most distinguished correspondents, is heard regularly on the nightly "CBS Evening News with Walter Cronkite." Mr. Severeid's news analyses were also a feature of the news coverage of the 1964 Republican and Democratic conventions, the election, and President Johnson's inauguration. Based in New York from 1961-64 and in London as a roving correspondent from 1959-61, Mr. Severeid recently returned to the Washington Bureau of CBS, where he served from 1941-43 and from 1946-59. During World War Two he covered battlefronts on both sides of the globe, and at the end of the hostilities he returned to cover the founding of the United Nations and the San Francisco Conference. He has moderated many outstanding current events series, including "Town Meeting of the World," "Conquest," "The Great Challenge," "Years of Crisis," and "Where We Stand." He is the recipient of numerous awards for excellence in broadcasting.

Mr. Severeid was born in Velva, North Dakota in 1912 and studied political science at the University of Minnesota and later in London and Paris. He began his newspaper career on the Minneapolis Journal, and later worked for the staff of the Paris Herald Tribune and the United Press before joining CBS News.

JAMES A. SHANNON

Doctor of Science

Dr. James A. Shannon is Director of the National Institutes of Health, main research arm of the U. S. Public Health Service in Bethesda, Maryland. He is widely recognized in the scientific world for his original research in kidney function, chemotherapy and malaria. In recognition of his prominent part in malaria research activities during World War Two, he received the Presidential Medal for Merit, at that time the highest award for civilian service to government.

Dr. Shannon was born in Hollis, New York in 1904. A graduate of the College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, Massachusetts, he received his medical degree from New York University in 1929 and his Ph.D in physiology from the same university in 1935. He later taught at New York University College of Medicine and directed research at the University's Goldwater Memorial Hospital. From 1946-49 he was Director of the Squibb Institute for Medical Research and a special consultant to the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service. Before becoming Director of NIH in 1955, he held the post of Associate Director for three years and served as Associate Director of Research at the National Heart Institute. Dr. Shannon is the recipient of the Rockefeller Public Service Award for science and the Public Welfare Medal of the National Academy of Sciences. He was elected to membership in the National Academy of Sciences in 1965.
