December 25th Class – Wednesday Dec. 25th 9:30 AM, 296 Dunhams Corner Road Bleeding Calves and the Emergence of the American Rabbinate

In 1860 renowned Russian preacher R' Moshe Aaronsohn emigrated to New York. Upon arrival he found that calves were being bled almost to death before ritual slaughtered. His halakhic opposition to this practice, amongst other factors, led to open war among New York's East European rabbis. In this class we will analyze the social and Halakhic background of this issue, study R' Aaronsohn's response and examine some of the letters of support he received including that of R' Shimshon Raphael Hirsch. In addition, we will contrast the responses with that of a similar issue brought 100 years later to R' Moshe Feinstein. For sources email yaakovweinstein@juno.com

NORPAC

Dear Friends,

Now that the updated Congressional schedule has been released, we are proud to announce the date of our next Mission to Washington: Wednesday, April 30th, 2014. Last year's event saw 1,000 participants come to our nation's capital to advocate for a stronger U.S.-Israel relationship in the offices of more than 470 Members of Congress. This year we hope to send at least as many people back to Washington, as there are yet many challenges - both new and old - facing the State of Israel. Our advocacy efforts have become all the more important to ensure stability in Israel's volatile neighborhood.

Please join us on Wednesday, April 30th, and help us once again solidify America's commitment to its greatest ally in the Middle East. Information on registration and other aspects of the Mission will be sent out in the coming weeks.
