

George Mitchell, from half-pay at. vice Alexander Waters, who giving the difference.

James Bowes to be Adjutant,
promoted.

Master Philip Vyvyan Robinson, 99th, to be Paymaster, vice John exchanges.

Veteran Battalion—Lieut. Thomas the late 8th Royal Veteran Batta-ment. vice Lynch, whose appoint-taken place.

Veteran Battalion—Captain Hugh
the late 10th Royal Veteran Battalion.

Veteran Battalion—To be Captains
Henry Frederick Courtenay, from Royal Veteran Battalion; Captain
, from the late 10th Royal Vete-es at Ballingoola, near Six-mile s County, were broken into on nt, and robbed of arms, ammuni-y.

rior of the Exchequer has announced no intention to repeal the Irish s, but that he will bring in a Bill g to Ireland the repeal of the ty of one shilling a bushel on Malt, in July.

uggested to say that "Mr. T. Spring ed the Insurrection Bill, having e first and second reading, and for o the Committee. Upon a division for on the clauses proposed by him, were rejected, he, of course, voted n majority. He did not, however, himself the division. The clauses were y Lord Forbes, Colonel Fitzgibbon, Clarke, Lord A. Hill, and Mr.
In taking this part, Mr. Rice says conformity to the Resolutions of the in November last."

as Bradford has issued a most flate on the discipline and excellent he 41st Regiment, whilst quartered

n Regiment have left Candy for and are replaced by the 16th. The Regiment has gone to Trincomalee.
right has made several new roads at detachments for our troops in the can sailed from the Isle of Wight

Italy accidentally drowned on last lay was taken up at the North strand

by his aged father, who has since nate occurrence, been indefatigable the Body.

others, named Fasty, were smothered
ila, near Cove, on Friday.

outing Doe hunted last Tuesday, will d next Friday, at the same place.

ew O'Grady will shake a sporting fox edamore and Fanningstown, on Satur-

Wales.

Mr. Mathew Kelly, of Clare-street, in this City, to Mary, fifth daughter of Mr. Martin Ryan, of Garrymore, Co Tipperary.

Mr. Martin Ryan, jun. of Garrymore, to Miss O'Shaughnessy, of Roscrea, niece of the Right Rev. Dr.
O'Shaughnessy, R. C. Bishop of Kildaloe.

At Curas Park, Richard Martyn, Esq. of Galway, to Lucy Anne, eldest daughter of Mark Lynch, Esq. of Durus Park, in that County.

In Dublin, Richard Martin Southcoate Mansergh, Esq. of Greenane, Co. Tipperary, to Jane Rosetta, daughter of the late Robert Bomford, Esq. of Rahinstown House, in the County of Meath

Pat. Edward Howley, Esq. of Flatlands, Co. Sligo, to Mary, daughter of L. Coury, Esq. of Rushport, in the Co.
Roscommon

In Cork, Mr. E. Sheehan, to Miss O'Keefe.
In Dublin, Lieut. James Paek, 11th Foot, to Letitia, daughter of Dunbar Jameson, Esq. of Dublin.

In Cork, Mr. John O'Connor, to Miss Callinan.
At Edmondsbam Church Dorset, Mathew Munro, Esq. of Loperwood House, Hants, to Philadelphia, eldest daughter of the late Lieut.-General Munro.

In Exeter, John Tyrrell, Esq. of Lincoln's Inn, Barrister at Law, and of Clonard, Co. Kildare, to Mary Ann, only child of John Mackintosh, Esq. of Exeter.

At Ramelton, Thomas Cochran, Esq. of the 41st Regt.
to Mary Ann, third daughter of Elias Murphy, Esq.

Lieut. Aldwell Taylor, of the 38th foot, eldest son of the late Major-General A. Taylor, to Elizabeth Pearce, eldest daughter of the Rev. John Taylor, of Leominster.

In London, Colonel Chichester, of Arlington, to Sophia, sister of Sir Francis Ford, Bart.

At Castle Sowerby, Adjutant Barnes, late of the 3d Royal Veteran Battalion, to Miss Relpb, daughter of the late Mr. Relpb.

DEATH.

On Saturday, at his house, George's-quay, to the deep affliction of his numerous family, Mr. Thomas Clarke, an honest, respectable, and inoffensive man.

At Kentuck, the wife of Maurice O'Connell, Esq.
Charles Blake, Esq. of Galway
In Kildare, Michael, son of H. Falvey, Esq.

At Shurone, the widow of the late Charles Harte, Esq.
of Tullery, Co. Tipperary.

In Dublin, Elizabeth, daughter of the late Christopher Smith, Esq. of Roscrea.

Randal William Gardner, Esq. Excise Collector of Trim District.

At Rostrevor, William McGuire, Esq.
In Cork, Miss Bleazby, daughter of J. Bleazby, Esq.
In Cork, Mr. Richard Meskall.

Doctor Crofton, of Carlow.
Mrs. Ashe, wife of Robert Ashe, Esq. and daughter of the late William Dorman, Esq. of Harbour-hull, Kinsale.

In Dublin, Mr. John Tanerol, of Harold's-cross.
In Bantry, Mrs. Evanson, wife of Nathaniel Evanson, Esq. of Friendly Cove, Co. Cork.

In Belfast, Mr. William Fyers.
In Cork, John Lane, Esq. M. D.
In Wentworth-place, Dublin, Mrs. Emerson.

In Armagh, George, son of Sargson Vogan.
In Cork, the daughter of George Chapman, Esq. of that city.
In London, Rear-Admiral John William Spranger.

At Market Rason, the relict of John Meredith, Esq. of Hebren, Co. Kilkenny.

At Florence, Lord Howe Browne, second son of the Marquis of Sligo.

In the East Indies, Lieutenants R. B. Fenwick, George Girardet, and William Bell, of his Majesty's ship Liverpool.

At Pallytoopany, Island of Ceylon, H. J. St. John, Esq.
of his Majesty's Civil Service.

At Genoa, Lieut. D. G. Snow, R. N. aged 37 years.
At Orleans, John, the widow of Colonel Daere.
At Rome, Stephen, the eldest son of Stephen Tempest,
Esq. of Broughton-hall, Yorkshire.

At Kireudbright, Mr. Thomas McClellan.
Mr. W. Crump, baker, of Hereford.
Mr. Storey, the Magistrate who presided at the late Shadwell Office, London.

At Badminton, Gloucestershire, the seat of the Duke of Beaufort, Lord Edward Henry Somerset, his Grace's youngest son.

THE MARKETS.

Application to be made as above

C. Tell Counterpane Owen

WHEAT.

ANY Quantity of WHEAT will be grown at BALLYCLOUGH Flour-Mill, by the
and a large quantity will be done very reason-will be let on a very low rent, for a short has three pairs of stones, and a great supply times. The Paper Mill at Ballyclough, whi-is a powerful good Mill, and capable of doitity of work—the Mills are within three mi-and within a quarter of a mile of Annacott road. Application to PAUL CUDMOY, clough, Castle-Correll. Letters post-paid.

C. W. L.

RESOLUTIONS entered into at a Metrates, held at the Court-house of R
County of Limerick, on TUESDAY, 1
February, 1822:—

1st—We lament to state, that the consp-existed for some months in this County, has itself into Insurrection, and has produced ou-the most revolting and abominable.

2d—As we have, by experience, learned lesson, that neither moderation or forbeara-safety for the lives and properties of hereby pledge ourselves, upon our honouand Magistrates, to use every exertion insistently with law and justice, to bring perpetrators of these heinous crimes, who property, destroyed the peace, and turned of this County.

3d—We lament to state, that the lauding exhortations of the Ministers of their failed to produce any salutary effect on of these debased and deluded men.

4th—Our entire confidence in the wisdom God, convinces us that an association of by monstrous and appalling crimes, ca-existence, and that it carries in its wicked-its own extinction.

5th—It is some consolation to be able persons who arrogate to themselves the of our lives and properties, are of the wholly destitute of education, and would respectable, but for their numbers and the 6th—That an application shall be for-Government to supply such an increase will enable us with expedition to carry th-Insurrection Act into complete effect, an-of every aid from the exalted Noblemen Government, who is not more distinguis-and humanity, than for the vigour and en-

7th—That our thanks are due to R
for his spirited and successful defence
the attack lately made upon it

8th—That our thanks are due to R
for his spirited and successful defence
the attack lately made upon it

9th—That our thanks are due to R
for his spirited and successful defence
the attack lately made upon it

10th—That our thanks are due to R
for his spirited and successful defence
the attack lately made upon it

11th—That our thanks are due to R
for his spirited and successful defence
the attack lately made upon it

12th—That our thanks are due to R
for his spirited and successful defence
the attack lately made upon it

13th—That our thanks are due to R
for his spirited and successful defence
the attack lately made upon it

14th—That our thanks are due to R
for his spirited and successful defence
the attack lately made upon it

15th—That our thanks are due to R
for his spirited and successful defence
the attack lately made upon it

16th—That our thanks are due to R
for his spirited and successful defence
the attack lately made upon it

17th—That our thanks are due to R
for his spirited and successful defence
the attack lately made upon it

18th—That our thanks are due to R
for his spirited and successful defence
the attack lately made upon it

19th—That our thanks are due to R
for his spirited and successful defence
the attack lately made upon it

John Brennan, Gerald Blennerhassett, John Hume, George Massey, T. H. R. James A. Massey, John S. Brown, jun., Robert Peppard, Jas. St.

MENDICITY ASSOC

THE Committee of Investigation hereby inform the Public, that personally to visit on the 1st inst. for scriptions in support of this Institution, March; and they trust the Public will their requesting payment on the first enable them to make their purchases.
Hitherto, very great has been su-been obliged to give an advanced price several instances.

WILLIAM D. H
Limerick, February 27.

MURDER AND R HEREAS, on Monday, the