

Roll 54c WelyngtonView with Frankpledge with Court of Katherine Duchess of Norfolk held there on Friday ij^o [second] day of October in the xiiij^o [thirteenth] of Edward iiiij^{ti} [fourth]¹ [1473]

Essoins Nicholas Wareyn', John Style, Thomas Barly

Tithing men

John Yarwey the elder	Randolph Bawdewyn	Thomas Taillour	sworn men William Smyth
John Flaunders	John Bardolph	John Wareyn'	John Stonys
Henry Parcar	William Flaunders	Thomas Baylemont	John Norys

Common fine vijs ijd [7s 2d]amercements vjd [6d]

They present that they gave common fine as appears in the heading. And that the Prior of ^{iiij^d [4d]} Neuham [sic], [and] Simon ^{ijd [2d]} Benett owed suit of Court and made default.

Therefore they are amerced.

Penalty forfeited vjs [6s]penalty pending

And that the Shippon of John ^{ijs [2s]} Coke, lately Mytons, and that the barn and bakehouse in the holding of John ^{ijs [2s]} Odehill, and the barn in the holding of Katherine ^{ijs [2s]} Morburn, and the Hall of the said Katherine are all defective in their tiling. Therefore they forfeit the penalty made at the last court, that is to say, for each of them ijs. [2s] And they were ordered to mend them before the feast of Saint Michael ^{after the date} under a penalty of xld [40d] for each of them.

Repairs made

And that John Coke and Christopher Malton have made their repairs. Therefore they do not forfeit their penalties.

Amercement vjd [6d]

And that John ^{iiij^d [4d]} Odehill caused nuisance by taking sheep by cart at xij o'clock in the night. Thomas Baylemont assaulted him with a pole of no value [contractions not legible]. And that the said John ^{ijd [2d]} broke ij [2] gates being on his holding.

Penalty pending

And he was ordered to do new repairs at his own expense before the aforesaid feast under a penalty of vjs viijd [6s 8d]

Amercement viijd [8d]

And that William ^{ijd [2d]} Myton assaulted John Yarwey, the Clerk, Thomas Yarwey and William Yarwey. And that the said John ^{ijd [2d]}, Thomas ^{ijd [2d]} and William ^{ijd [2d]} assaulted the said William. Therefore each of them is amerced.

Tasters of AleAmercement xijd [12d]

¹ This is inaccurate, Friday was 1st of October in 1473

John Warner and William Fesaunt present that William ^{vjd [6d] constantly} Parays, Robert ^{iiijd} [4d. twice) Coke, John ^{ijd [2d]} Yarwey, were brewers and broke the assize. Therefore they are each amerced.

Xij [12] sworn men

Robert Gostwyk	John Warner	Robert Partriche	Richard Flowre
John Myton	William Passewater	William Paryse	William Dyott
Robert Coke	Richard Wode	William Fesaunt	Thomas Huett

Amercements viijd [8d sic]

They present that the aforesaid tithing men and Constables presented well and faithfully and furthermore they said that Robert ^{iiijd [4d]} Wareyn', Thomas ^{iiijd [4d]} Mores, servants of Nicholas ^{iiijd [4d]} Cruce all played tennis against the statute. Therefore they are amerced.

Sum xvjs vjd [16s 6d sic]

Assessors of fines John Flaunders, John Warner, sworn men
In the expenses of the Steward with others ~~xvjs vijd~~ in bread, ale, and meat iiij s jd [4s 1d]

For parchment iiijd [4d]