

TURKISH MEDICAL STUDENT JOURNAL
PEER REVIEW FORM

Date : .../.../.....

Name of the Article:

A) Is the name of the article appropriate?

B) Does the abstract contain the aims, scope and results of the article?

C) Is the language of the article apprehensible and clear?

D) Is the introduction part of the article written appropriately?

E) Is the material and methods part of the article written appropriately? (Statistics should be reviewed.)

F) Is the results part of the article written appropriately?

G) Is the discussion part of the article written appropriately?

H) Is the conclusion part of the article written appropriately?

I) For figures and tables

1- Are they scientifically correct?

Yes No

2- Are they appropriate for the aim and scope of the article?

Yes No

3- Do they contain unnecessary information which is not stated in the article?

Yes No

4- Do they have clear and apprehensible explanations?

Yes No

J) If you have any comments about the publication of this article or any other suggestions about the parts that are needed to be edited, please write it here (you can use the blank page at the end of this form, if necessary):

Please check the box that reflects your opinion about the article:

1- It is appropriate for publication without any corrections.

2- It can be published after the afore mentioned corrections are added.

3- It cannot be published without the corrections.

4- It cannot be published.

After the corrections are added,

a- I would like to see the article again.

b- There is no need to review it again.

(This part should be filled in by the peer reviewer. It will not be shared with the authors of the article.)

Academic title-Name-Surname:

Date :/...../.....

Signature :