

Rush River Bridge, Martell

Photo courtesy of Pierce County Partners in Tourism

The Rush River is a short tributary of the Mississippi River in western Wisconsin in the United States. It rises in St. Croix County and flows generally southwardly through Pierce County. It ends in Lake Pepin of the Mississippi River, about 1 mile west of the village of Maiden Rock in Pierce County