1952 Promises More Outstanding Introductions

Modern Dahlias are not only spectacular in exhibitions, and fine for cutting, but have almost unlimited possibilities for arrangements and landscape effects. We feel sure you will be pleased with the selection we offer. The size of Arthur Godfrey, and myriads of blooms on Cheryl Anne have made favorites of our '51 Introductions, so watch for other introductions. Our 1952 CATALOG, ready in February, contains 8 full pages of Cultural Instructions, and lists 450 of the best in DAHLIAS, and a large selection of CHRYSANTHEMUMS, including the Spiders, that do well in garden culture.

Free Catalog On Request.

MARION GLENN (Miller-Dahliadel). This lovely peony purple shaded garnet like Semi-Cactus grows about 7 x 4 on a 5 ft. bush. Very healthy, early to bloom and most profuse. Winner of 2 A.D.S. Gold Medal Seedling Certificates, and four Trial Ground Certificates, Atlanta, Ga., College Park, Md., New Brunswick, N. J. and East Lansing, Mich., with an average score of 85.33. We understand this is the highest score, entitling it to the Derrill Hart Memorial Medal for B size dahlias. On Dudley's and Faust's Honor Roll and on the Eastern Dahlia Review. Both the originator and introducer are giving $1 of each root sale to the Cancer Fund in memory of the one for whom it is named. We do hope you will give this dahlia a change to prove its worth in your garden.

Root, $10.00 Net; Plant, $5.00

PATRICIA SPOLLEN. A Johnson Introduction, the top winner of the year, winning 9 Achievement Medals, one each, Dahlia Society of N. J., Newark; Burholme Horticultural Society, Phila., Pa.; Baltimore D. S.; A.D.S. New York; Greater Phila. D. S.; D. S. of Kentucky, Louisville; Mid-West Conference, Kansas City, Mo.; Greater St. Louis D. S., and D. S. of Georgia, Atlanta. 5 A.D.S. Gold Medal Seedling Certificates, and other firsts. Blooms easily attain 10 x 6 in. on 5 ft. bush. It is a beautiful Incurved Cactus of lively apricot suffused Saturn red, giving a general tone of orange. Surely a lovely form, and a real winner. On Dudley's and Faust's Honor Roll.

Root, $15.00 Net; Plant, $7.50.

DAHLIADEL POCKET EDITION of the HORTICULTURAL COLOUR CHART contains 175 color blocks arranged in the spectrum order, primarily for the American Dahlia Society with a definite color range on each set of pages. Autumns have been added to make the color range more complete. It is a complete chart for other flowers with the addition of violets, and the omission of the greens and a few blues.

Darker shades are in columns to the right with lighter tints to the left. Pages are covered with Cellophane and in a standard 6% x 3% binder. Pocket Edition in Loose Leaf Binder, including 50 New Dahliadel Score Sheets—$15.00.

BESSIE M. (Matlack-Dahliadel). A lively even scarlet Miniature Formal Decorative, that was Certified at Storrs several years ago and never introduced. Blooms $2\frac{1}{2} \ge 2$ in., are most profuse on 3 ft. bushes. Healthy, and fine for cutting. Don't miss this lovely gem for the garden. On the Eastern Honor Roll.

Root, $5.00; Pot Root, $3.50; Plant, $2.50

A.D.S. Show Brilliant Success

Spectacular Garden Club Section Personal Tribute to Georgena Humble!

Quoting J. W. Johnston, noted Horticultural Editor, "this 37th Annual Show of the American Dahlia Society was one of the finest in the Society's long history."

In cooperation with the Horticultural Society of New York the Show was staged on September 18 and 19 in the beautiful blue Colonnades Ballroom of Essex House, New York City. Emil Berzau acquitted himself like a veteran in managing his first A.D.S. Show. He was ably assisted by a small but hustling committee including former Show Managers Edward B. Lloyd and Henry Olsen.

Judging was again under the capable guidance of Conrad Frey whose teams worked with dispatch and a marked freedom of dissension.

This exhibition was an awe inspiring spectacle. Upon entering from the foyer an eye arresting circular display—a silver cup winning "page from the Garden of President Leo Pollak" was your introduction to myriads of fine dahlia treats.

Louis B. Tim's beautiful non-commercial display (principally foreign introduction cactus and miniature dahlias) was staged in front of a huge wall mirror. Mr. Tim's display won the coveted A.D.S. Gold Medal—this exhibit was just about unbeatable; it consisted of some 33 varieties.

Just at the head of the stairway—as a grand entrance motiff for the colorful competitive classes in the main ballroom were splendid huge displays of Ruschmohr Dahlia Gardens, Parrella Dahlia Gardens, Evergreen Dahlia Gardens and the Patients Garden Club of the Northport Veterans Hospital—the latter featuring large flowered varieties against a white background inclosed by a low picket fence. Each of these four magnificent exhibits received the highest award in its class. The accompanying photographs give some idea of the beauty of these displays.

In the competitive classes, one of the most sensational single exhibits was a container of a dozen "matched" flowers of the purplish red, Mrs. Hester Pope shown by Chester H. Nelson of Garrison, New York. Each bloom measured over 12 inches across. It won $50.00 cash.

Powderpuff, a huge Pink informal won the Court of Honor - Louis B. Tim cup for Ernest Lewis, Scranton, Pennsylvania.

A high scoring specimen of Edgar Guest, yellow medium sized was awarded Mrs. Louis B. Tim's "Court of Honor" cup—Henry A. Olsen was the exhibitor.

The Dr. Edward McDade cup "Court of Honor" went to Harry Franks with a very promising white miniature formal.

Every seedling grower hopes that one day his "pet" will win the American Home Achievement Medal at New York. And there is always keen competition. This time Stanley Johnson came over from Cheltenham, Pennsylvania with his new orange incurved cactus Patricia Spollen, named in honor of the garden editor of "The Philadelphia Bulletin" and went home with the medal.

In the medium sized flower class, Spotlight—a clean bright cardinal red cactus won for Edward B. Lloyd, Montclair, N. J., the beautiful Leonard Barron Memorial Award, offered each year by Flower Grower Magazine. Spotlight is the kind of a dahlia Leonard would have loyed!

A very pretty yellow and pink blended miniature named Duke won the small flowered seedling award—the A.D.S. Silver Trophy for Albert Parrella who will introduce this novelty.

This Show was significant for the superb quality of the blooms. Even the largest flowers kept fresh and crisp throughout the second day right up to the closing.

Pages could be written in describing the hundreds of prize winning entries—however a reference to the detailed winnings in this report lists them all.

Gabriel D. Eustachio won sweepstakes in Section A (Novice).

Section B Amateur went to Harry Frank.

Having high lighted—the meat and drink of this beautiful A.D.S. Show, we now turn to the "piece de resistance" —the Garden Club Horticultural and Arrangement classes. Mrs. Georgena Humble was back as directress and manager. Too much praise cannot be given to her and her committee-co-workers. It was doubtless a personal tribute to her and here again we quote Mr. J. W. Johnston--"Arrangement classes were more numerous and finer than any show in memory."

But let's have Mrs. Humble's report on these beautiful entries herself:

Garden Club Section

Gorgeously gay colored dahlias in many shapes and sizes, enriched with autumn's brilliant foliage, against the neutral blue-green walls and drapes of Essex House, made a magnificent approach for the privileged ones who visited the A.D.S. Show this fall. Happy faces gleaming with broad smiles greeted the visitors from all parts of show, as exclamations came from them declaring this to be the best and most successful over a long period of time. More than usual, the increase in white Dahlias at this show, subtly lent emphasis to the surrounding gaiety of reds, yellows, pinks, lavenders, purples and autumn-colored blooms. Dahlia hobbyists seem to prefer only dahlias at their exhibit, but somehow a little variation is good and this we find in the Garden Club section, where occasional garden flowers add to the emphasis and interest of the dahlia. Especially in the composition classes, was this cleverly demonstrated by the dexterous fingers of our men and women exhibitors, who displayed great ingenuity in combining dahlias with statues, china and pottery figurines, pert little ducks, a fawn, bits of driftwood, marble and alibaster, brass, copper, glass and pottery vases, bamboo, tureens, and even a jet black coal scuttle presented itself as a container in which dahlias could be displayed.

In the horticultural classes the tri-color award was won by Mrs. Swain for three perfect specimens of Snowball, white blooms graciously poised on stiff stems and holding well after the close of the show. Axford Triumf, Watching Giant, Colbert, Clara Hook, Victory Day, Vivian, Copper, Chips, Roy's Single, Fugi San, Mrs. Brittain and Little Edith were among the specimens receiving Great enthusiasm was shown by the spectators for many distinctive compositions demonstrating considerable originality and variation in ways of making use of dahlias in arrangements. The composition to show the best decorative value of the dahlia, which won the Essex House $25 cash award, was staged by Mrs. George D. Engle of the Harrison Garden Club. Rich autumn-colored dahlias against bronze green canna foliage, were arranged in a dark green and bronze colored vase, placed on a dark green velvet base.

Mrs. George E. Green, of Meriden, Conn., continues to be one of our most gifted artists in dahlia composition and staged in a light green celadon vase, a bouquet of white Geneva Crystal dahlias, from which dripped pretty sprays of green berried Ibota privet and echiveria, with accessories of a pair of inquisitive green pottery ducks, reaching and stretching their necks towards the flowers

The tri-color for the best composition of Dahlias was an exquisite display to express "Autumn," the distinctive work of Mrs. Leo Pollak. In a cream colored urn-shaped, marble vase placed on a green marble base, both the exquisite handicraft of this exhibitor, were arranged autumn colored dahlias, Arabesque, California Pageant, Yellow Special Rapke, Virginia Pollak, Ambassador and Von Kloffen. These were intermingled with sprays of budded magnolia tinged with golden autumn color, and matching velvet gracefully draped at the base, finished a dahlia picture to be long remembered.

Yellow and coppery-colored dahlias in a pale green tureen, set on a brown fringed cloth mat, with attractive osage oranges as accessories, was Mrs. Swain's way of expressing "Autumn."

Mrs. Wesley Hunter from Oradell, N. J., staged several unusually original compositions. Especially distinctive was an effective setting of three rich pink cactus blooms of Mme. Elizabeth Sawyer, reflecting their beauty on a mirror over black velvet and another, a setting of Cherokee Brave, large dark red dahlias against dark canna foliage, cleverly placed with a fascinating, grayed piece of driftwood, on a gray mottled Italian marble base.

Mr. Everett Feucht, from Mahopac Garden Club, staged a composition attracting much attention, admiration and praise. A white figurine gracefully poised among white dahlias, against green strip leaves lending height, was balanced by broad-leaf funkia foliage at the base. Our spectators expressed high praise for the beauty and grace demonstrated here by our male artist.

Miss Frances Digi used Bishop of Llandoff backed by amaryllis leaves in a bronze urn, winning a blue ribbon demonstrating "My Favorite Dahlias."

In a black pottery pillow, on an oblong pottery base, red and white bi-colors against rare yucca foliage and gray green mullein leaves, proved an attractive blue ribron composition by Mrs. Charles Thach.

The class for demonstrating the daintiness of dahlias proved not only original as a first time use of the Dahlia in this manner, but extremely popular with exhibitors and visitors at the show. The blue ribbon was awarded to a small oval picture frame with a black velvet background setting off a picture bouquet of delicate white Vrede and tiny white pompons. Another showed St. Therese poised against dainty foliage in a white pottery vase with an accessory of a tiny fawn reaching up to take a sniff and taste of the delicacy above. Still another clever bit of beauty in this class demonstrated in a boat-shaped brown glass, small pink cactus dahlias set against sails of broom with funkia leaves as paddles to waft it away in the slightest breeze.

The sweepstake award, the Lynn B. Dudley Trophy in this section, was won by Miss Frances Digi for a blue and two reds in the arrangement classes.

All who saw this show expressed much enjoyment and pleasure afforded by the delightful compositions of our Garden Club exhibitors who have done an outstanding job in demonstrating to the public many fine, new and varied uses of all kinds of dahlias.

Committee members assisting in the success of this show were:

Mrs. J. E. Rosenthal, assistant-chairman; Mrs. H. D. Swain, assistant; Mrs. George E. Green, assistant; Georgena Humble, chairman.

Our competent judges were:

Mrs. F. W. Lewis, Mrs. P. Schuyler Van Bloem, Miss Mary R. Mackey, Mr. Paul F. Frese. $\diamondsuit \diamondsuit \diamondsuit \diamondsuit \diamondsuit \diamondsuit$

Election of Officers

Included in this issue will be found your ballot for selection of A.D.S. officers. The nominating committee had named Vice President Charles Diffenderffer to head the slate this year. Mr. Diffenderffer has served the A.D.S. with fidelity and loyalty for a great many years and did much to help establish the cordiality which exists today between our membership in the various geographic sections of the country. He requested that his name be withdrawn and President Leo Pollak has been asked to run for another term to continue his very successful incumbency. All members are urged to mail ballots as soon as possible.

A.D.S. Annual Meeting and Dinner

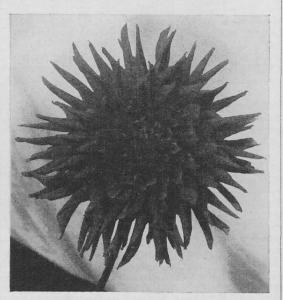

Hotel Statler, New York City, January 19th. Annual meeting, 2:30 P.M. in a larger and more attractive room. Main feature, a talk by Prof. Oscar Eichman of the Long Island Agricultural & Technical Institute, Farmingdale, New York. His subject, "The Effect of Soil Reaction on Root and Growth of Dahlias". Don't miss this treat!

Dinner at 7:30 P.M., again under Dewey Mohr's chairmanship. No lengthy speeches, ten minute welcome by President Leo Pollak, and then carefully selected pictures, good ones; projected by Henry Olsen.

Eastern Dahlia Trial Grounds Farmingdale, N. Y.

1951 REPORT

The 1951 American Dahlia Society Trials at Farmingdale have been brought to a successful close although at this date (October 15th) the garden still presents a beautiful picture.

The thirty-five entries, representing an increase of six over 1950, responded well. The results were highly satisfactory and should inspire all to help make these trials even better next year.

The committee composed of Mesrs. Olson, Berzau, Guttler, Pitt, Lloyd and Dudley deserves much credit for its tireless efforts in performing the difficult task of the final judging of the entries.

The following certificate winners scored 85 or better:

Mid-West Dahlia Show and Conference

Speakers' table—Banquet—Hotel President. Left to Right: Miss Anna Kolb, Secretary; Mrs. Wm. Kolb, Wm. Kolb, Show Superintendent; Mrs. Herman Mohr, Herman Mohr, Technical Director of Show; Mrs. Raymond Grass, Ray Grass, St. Louis, Master of Ceremonies; Mrs. John Willett, John Willett, President, Kansas City Society; Tom Collins, Guest Speaker; Bill Smith, Station WHB, Kansas City; Mrs. Al Baier, Al Baier, Official Host to the Mid-West; Randall Jessee, WDAF-TV, Kansas City Star; Mrs. Charles Leick, Charles Leick, Business Manager; Mrs. Louise Kleinjohn, Louisville, Secretary to the Mid-West, Mr. W. F. Kleinjohn.

The 1951 Mid-West Show was an event that Kansas City will long remember, and we hope that our many old and new friends have carried home tales of an exciting visit to the Heart-of-America.

It can now be told that from the time the first disastrous rains started in early June, through the great flood, and up until the opening day of the show the show committee held their weekly conferences under the watchful eye of a psychiatrist. We can now reveal that over one-half of our big growers, who contributed so greatly to the success of our 1950 show, were totally wiped out, either from the flood or the 37 days rains. However the backyard growers came to the rescue and we had our biggest show.

The local grown blooms were not, in our opinion, up to Mid-West quality. But the out of town growers saved the day with carloads of the most beautiful blooms you ever saw. When Jim Marsh, Glenn Pierce and Larry Pelc, of Chicago, drove into the Auditorium and unloaded perfect specimens, after carrying them over 500 miles, we resolved that come 1952 it was time we started raising dahlias. The clincher came when Ray Grass, Pat Bennett and Paul Hale of the St. Louis Society drove onto the arena floor and set up as dazzling a display of dahlias as we have ever seen.

To take things in chronological order, a limited tour of the gardens was conducted Friday morning, September 21. About 50 guests took the trip and were very generous with their applause and comment. Ben Makowski of Milwaukee and John Schramel of Chicago gave each garden a quick look over and then went scouting for apple trees. Mr. and Mrs. Noel Scott, Glendale, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Freudenberg, Milwaukee, could always find them by following the cores, after which the tour was resumed. Al Baier, Official Host, for the Kansas City Society, megaphone in hand, led the group with dignity despite good natured ribbing from Ray Schooler (Mid-West President Elect) and G. A. Shee.

After a quick lunch of sandwiches, dealt out under Baier's genial eye, the group elected to visit the flood and fire disaster areas. This part of the tour was so popular that additional trips were made Saturday and Sunday.

While the tour was being conducted and far into the night on Friday, Bill Kolb and Herman Mohr and their workers were setting up a beautiful formal garden and trellis in the center of the show area. Frank Payne, Shawnee, Kansas; Chas. Hays, Independence, Mo.; and John Willett, Overland Park, Kansas, set up beautiful flanking commercial displays.

Before Saturday noon closing time for entries we knew we were going to have a fine show. Eager exhibitors were pouring in and the tables filled up nicely.

The Judges Luncheon presided over by Charles Leick, Business Manager, started off on schedule, but it soon became apparent that there was more interest and enthusiasm in assisting with the judging than we had ever dreamed of, so another table was set. (And you know, the folks at the second table got the best deal. They had pie for dessert instead of ice cream).

The judging was conducted with a very serious and scholarly intensity. Fourteen teams of three or more were at work at one time or another in the various sections. The awards committee must have walked 10 miles during the judging, toting ribbons back and forth, discussing fine points, etc., with various teams in response to demands for quick service broadcast over the P. A. system. The hall is almost a city block square, and three times around is a mile.

Our advance publicity in the newspapers and our special programs on radio and television, was so effective that before the judging was completed thousands of people were hanging over the balcony surrounding the exhibition floor and more were pressing at the doors. When the last ribbon was tied the gates were opened, and as the crowd surged in, the judges and delegates to the Conference squeezed out of a side door.

The Conference was called to order by Mr. John Willett, President of the Greater Kansas City Dahlia Society and presiding officer of the Conference.

Mrs. Louise Kleinjohn, Louisville, after being given a standing ovation was re-elected Secretary, and guided the meeting in her usual competent manner. When the usual preliminaries were disposed of Louisville bid for the 1952 Midwest, and by unanimous acclaim was awarded the 1952 Conference and Show.

Following the Conference, everyone rushed about tidying up for the big banquet to be held in the grand ballroom at Hotel President. The gay crowd gathered promptly and little groups bizzed excitedly as old acquaintances were renewed and new friends were made. Lee Hayden popular Kansas City organist played soft background music and soon the parade to the speakers' table began. The dignitaries being seated a corps of waitresses shifted into high gear and brought in platters of fried chicken until it ran out of our ears. None of the 165 present could remember when they had had more fried chicken.

Mr. Willett presented Al Baier, our Official Host, who told of how he had dreamed of a Mid-West Show at Kansas City for years. We are all sure now that Al has realized one of his fondest dreams.

Baier introduced our toastmaster, Ray Grass, of St. Louis, and he, being the one person present who knew everyone, made an ideal master of ceremonies. Ray asked each out of town guest to stand and be identified and all were greeted with enthusiasm.

The banquet was climaxed with a rollicking seriocomic dissertation by Mr. Tom Collins, banker and lecturer extraordinary of national renown who admitted that he did not know a dahlia from a dandelion. No question but that the fried chicken was a banquet, but Mr. Collins was a picnic. He "rolled 'em in the aisles." Dr. C. H. Rike, who came all the way from Alabama to the Mid-West, was a show all by himself as he alternately slapped the table and gasped for breath. Even suave, inscrutable Glenn Pierce of Chicago, top blue ribbon winner, cracked a number of wary smiles. Mr. Collins theme, "Cooperation, and the ability to get along" in groups, civic, national and international affairs was particularly apropos. He convinced us that if nations of the world could get down to genuine common interests, like dahlia hobbyists peaceably meeting at a Mid-West show that this old earth would be a better place to live in.

A variety of impromptu activities materialized after the banquet. Mr. Herman Mohr, spark plug and technical adviser for the show played the piano as Warren Maytrott, Ed Wind, Pat Bennett and Lew West sounded off on several popular numbers, and pretty soon a chorus of 25 was doing quite well.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Pape showed a number of color slides of their gardens to an admiring group, and a continual flow of dahlia folks and friends crowded into the hospitality room where jolly conviviality reigned until the wee small hours. Messrs Andrew Mulcahy and H. Dewey Mohr representing the A.D.S. were somehow backed into a corner by rapt delegates bent on getting the low down on events since last year and couldn't get out before the arm waving stopped and the smoke cleared.

Top spot of the show was the award of the American Home Achievement medal and the A.D.S. Seedling award. Both were won by Stanley Johnson's beautiful orange cactus seedling Patricia Spollen, grown in Kansas City by Mr. Leick.

To encourage quality exhibits the Mid-West Trophy was awarded this year to the exhibitor winning the most special merit awards as the outstanding quality exhibitor of the show. The trophy went to Mr. Leick who had 5 special awards.

There were several unusual and distinctive trophies this year. Perhaps the outstanding was a beautiful detailed hand carved swallow in diving flight, cut from a perfect block of black walnut. The trophy was offered by Ray Grass of St. Louis and won by Jim Marsh of Chicago with an entry of five 12 inch blooms of Pirate Treasure. The bird was carved by Albert Coe of Independence, Mo.

TWA posted two fine ash trays with cast aluminum scale model constellation planes poised above the tray on modernistic stand which were awarded to the best basket of 15 blooms of "A" and of "B" dahlias in the amateur classifications.

Larry Pelc of Chicago won one with 15 mixed cactus "B" dahlias and Leick won the other with a big basket of 15 Clara Hook blooms.

The coveted Frank Payne trophy for the best basket of poms was won by Mr. & Mrs. Carl H. Herrmann of Onomotowoc, Wisc., who brought in a dainty wicker basket of red poms.

Paul Hale, Brighton, Ill., member of the St. Louis society, took the Toledo Dahlia Society Silver Cup with the best basket of 5 in the amateur class. Hale won the Wisconsin Society Medal with the best basket of 10 "B" size mixed blooms. (Reese's Sunshine, Nickie K, Fantasia, Autumn Lite, New Vision.)

Glenn Pierce, Summit Gardens, Chicago, won the Central States Medal for the most nearly perfect bloom with a crisp shining specimen of Betta Bracht, a pale lemon yellow cactus.

Kenneth Gibson, Independence, Mo., had the largest bloom a 123/4 x 91/2 inch specimen of Carlisle's Pinwheel for which he received the Baier Trophy.

The A.D.S. medal went to Mrs. John F. Marino who entered one of the most beautiful dahlia corsages we have ever seen. She also won the Hubbard Trophy and the Sattler Award, both of fine glassware, for top arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McGuire, Alma, Mo., won the Greater St. Louis Dahlia and Chrysanthemum Society Silver Medal with a vase of 3 big blooms of Carl Dahl.

ORGANIZED MAY 10, 1915

"The Society is formed for the purpose of stimulating interest in and promoting the culture and development of the Dahlia; to establish a standard nomenclature; to test out new varieties and give them such recognition as they deserve; to study the diseases of the Dahlia and find remedies for same, and to disseminate information relating to this flower; to secure uniformity in awarding prizes at flower shows, and to give exhibitions when deemed advisable."

A New Deal for THE BULLETIN

Following a very careful study of several months, the Executive Committee of the A.D.S. decided upon important changes relating to our publication The Bulletin.

Printing costs have mounted to such an extent that our four issues could no longer be supplied unless our dues were increased considerably. The only alternative is to confine ourselves to two issues a year instead of four. This was finally decided upon especially in view of the fact that the May and August issues are very small and few affiliates and branch societies take the trouble to send any news items for insertion in these issues.

In their place, news letters will be mailed when prac-

Starting in 1952 you will receive two large issues March and November. Commercial growers will be advised of rate schedules shortly.

Space will be allocated in each issue for news of our affiliated and branch societies on an equitable basis.

Affiliated Societies will be permitted space for news items of 300 words in each issue.

Branch Societies of 25 members: 500 words and Branch Societies of 50 members: 800 words.

Secretaries are requested to mail copy to the Editor not later than October 20th and January 20th for the respective issues.

The Long Island Dahlia Society Show

Now that our 1951 All Dahlia Show is behind us, we are already preparing for an even better show to be held on September 20, 1952. The crystal ball shows that we cannot go wrong.

The 1951 show held on Saturday, September 22 at the Plattdeutsche Park, Franklin Square, Long Island, N. Y. was an awe inspiring sight to all who attended and the exhibitors knew they were in for keen competition.

Practically every class had three or more entries with the semi-cactus bi-color class leading the parade with 18 entries of "Jane Lausche." Eleven inch and larger blooms could be seen in almost every one of the "A" size classes. 1951 introductions were in their glory vieing with the best of the older varieties. Many foreign dahlias, including the huge informal yellow "Tidal Wave" were also on display.

The old master Edward O'Keefe, as usual, waved his magic wand and exhibited many large and beautiful blooms, including the largest and most perfect bloom with a "Marilyn Dale."

The ladies really went to town in the arrangement classes, with their works of art displayed in every class.

The winner in the Home Achievement medal class was "Big Moe" an origination of J. Louis Roberts, entered by the Ruschmohr Dahlia Gardens, who will introduce it in 1952.

Judging was started and finished on time. No squawks or gripes were heard. So, many, many thanks to the numerous judges who came from near and far, a perfect job in a pleasant manner.

Before closing this report this organization wishes to extend to the National Capital Dahlia Society its thanks and appreciation in that they cooperated by changing their show date so as not to conflict with this society's show, thus enabling the members of both societies to visit and judge the others' show.

Basket and commercial displays were of the highest order and their mass of blooms added so much to the beauty of the show.

To the show committee with its chairman, Emil Berzau, and any others connected with making the 1951 show the show of shows goes the Society's thanks.

A. O. AUMULLER, President.

CHAUTAUQUA DAHLIA FIELDS Mayville, New York Why Stem Rot?

On page 26 of the November, 1950 Bulletin is an article "Time to examine root stock" which is good timely advice to those who have trouble with loss of their dahlia roots each season. There has yet to be discovered a way to save 100% of the roots produced on each variety, or any certain number of clumps, 40 clumps, visions of 150 roots, may be a reality providing the roots are not long and slim. If a clump produces six roots and part of them are long and slim we do well to save three from each clump, breakage is sure to happen in most any type of soil and under and type of digging operations.

But, from where I sit, I see no reason at all for any loss from stem rot. With us it has been many years since we have seen anything that even resembles it. If clumps are carefully lifted and washed with a light spray, next year's eyes are plainly visible and very easily divided. They may be cut in single division or doubles as one chooses. Dry them for a short time, away from heat or sun, then pack in boxes or cartons. They never should be allowed to dry so they show any signs of shrinking but rather be full and plump. It is generally useless to try to save roots that are slim and pencil thickness. The packing medium may be a number of different materials-dry sand, dry sawdust, vermiculite or even shredded paper, providing the roots are stored in a cool room not above 40 to 45 with a fair amount of humidity.

It really is sad to read or hear about some one who has lost their stock from stem rot when it really is not necessary. Too early or unexpected freezing is another story which many times just happens regardless of our precautions. We hope you save your entire stock this vear.

Winter Storage of Dahlia Roots

Several years ago, I obtained some tin pans from the fish stand of a local super-market. These were used around our basement to store such items as flower pots, potting soil, lake sand, etc. I used one of these pans to transfer some dahlia roots and cut them into smaller divisions. For some reason I had to stop working on them so I covered them with the tight fitting cover and set them on the basement floor. Several weeks later, I came upon them and discovered when opening the pan that the dahlia roots were exactly as I had left them, showing no trace of shriveling or drying out.

The following year I filled several of these pans with dahlia roots. The clumps were all given a "hair cut" by trimming out all stringy roots and tails. The larger clumps were cut into smaller pieces and the stems recut closer to the crown. I use a coping saw when the stems are hard or woody. Dust all freshly cut stems and divisions with a bristle brush and a coffee can half filled with lime and teaspoon each of sulphur and lead arsenate. Also dust the entire pan with 5% D.D.T. to kill the creepers that stay on the roots. I tried four variations of storage with satisfactory results in all cases.

(1) Fill the pan only with dahlia roots.

(2) Trim a folded newspaper to fit the bottom then fill with roots.

(3) Cover the bottom of the pan with one inch of soil-sawdust-sand blended mixture then fill with dahlia roots.

(4) Fill to the top by pouring the blended mixture over the pan filled with dahlia roots and level off even with top of pan.

Personally, I favor the number (3) storage method. I have no serious objection to vermiculite or peatmoss. But, I think it should be tempered with enough water to give a very slight moisture condition.

This year I intend to change over entirely to the tin pans and I have obtained over 100 of them for the asking from our neighborhood restaurant, who specialize in "Fish and Chips" from which I have named this article. These pans measure approximately 10 x 15 in. and are 4 or 6 in. in height with a snug fitting cover. They can be stacked up four or five high, under the bench or table, or in a corner. Covering with old burlap or carpet doesn't seem to be necessary. In all cases the roots must be dried for several days before closing up the pans. It is also essential that the filling mixture be only faintly moist. A wet or damp condition creates mold which should be avoided.

Mark each root or division with a hectograph indelible pencil wetting only one side of the root with a bristle brush and water. Place a 3 x 5 in. card on top of everything inside of each pan listing the variety, date of storage, date of inspection, etc. This card also acts as the humidity indicator. If the card feels dry add moisture. If it feels faintly moist the condition is O.K. If the card feels very wet, this condition can be corrected by leaving the cover off for a few days.

The pans are convenient too, in many ways, name or number the ends of the pans with a china marking pencil.

Northeastern Pennsylvania Show

Once again the Museum at Nay Aug Park, Scranton, contained quality blooms of the latest introductions. The Court of Honor was graced by a magnificent bloom of Pirate Treasure, grown by Frank Marker, which won The Presidents Trophy. The Anthracite Award for a worthy medium sized seedling with commercial qualities was awarded to Harry Beals of Chicago for Peggy J., lovely pink with white center, straight cactus with slightly laciniated petals, which was the best keeper in the show, grown locally by Dr. E. McDade. The other tri-color bloom was Edna D. the most perfect bloom in the Large Amateur section and displayed by our skipper, Charles Heusner. Harry Miller's Marion Glenn, a medium purple incurved cactus was the winner of this society's Certificate of Honor, granted for its distinctiveness. The smallest in the Court, Gold Dust, was grown by Dr. Mc Dade.

The Marker sweepstakes exhibit in the Open contained many recent introductions, especially Aristocrat, Flirt, Lyrick and Burnett. Henry Olsen also had a wealth of blooms in the Open. He displayed Mrs. Woods new sensational seedling, Woodland Peach B. S.C. Lt. Blend of peach and soft yellow; and the most worthy blooms of Purplex and Dandy Snow. Once again Roy Webb proved the sterling qualities of Clariam Royalty and exhibited Big Mo, a giant dark red incurved cactus. Mr. Marker won special awards with Pirate Treasure, Five Star General and exhibited massive blooms of Arthur Godfrey and Croyden Crimson. And, once again, his Ballego's Surprise was a sight to behold.

In the Large Amateur section Charles Heusner won sweepstakes and specials with B & B, Edna D, Kelvin Sunrise and Lyrick. Mr. Webb displayed his usual excellent line of Ball dahlias with emphasis on Red Gold Ball, Snow White, Lysander, Mazie, Black Diamond and Mary Helen. Again, Henry Olsen lead the way in the Miniature section. He displayed hundreds of blooms of poms mins and smaller types, most notable of which were Pink Star, Arabesque, Little Lemon Drop, Little Diamond, Lombaert's Violet, Freda and Forest Fire Jr. In this section Chas. Diffenderffer exhibited a new miniature seedling, Ruby Charm, an excellent red straight cactus. Linda Lou, a new min, white straight cactus was introduced by Roy Webb.

The stage was adorned by meticulously grown blooms from the gardens of Ernest Lewis, domestic and foreign novelties surrounded a central exhibit of Nay Aug, which is the surreun boast of these yar hills. Judges were Emil Berzau, Connie Brieger, Charley Diffenderffer, Connie Frey, Ed. Lloyd, Henry Olsen, Bert Pitt, and, all the way from Cleveland, none other than, . . . it had to be . . . Hagerstown Dahlia Society

The twenty-second Annual Dahlia Show, sponsored by the Hagerstown Dahlia Society was held in the basement of the City Market, September 13 and 14. The show was thrown open to the public at 5 p. m., September 13, with hundreds of fine specimens of dahlia on exhibition.

In addition to dahlias there were many exhibits of fine specimens of Gladioli, Roses, Marigolds, Zinnias, Asters, Cosmos, Petunias, Snapdragons and potted plants.

In spite of the dry weather, with but one rain from July 1st to September 13, our entries did not measure up to former years. With it all we had a very creditable show and were pleased to see lots of new varieties as well as old favorites. Mr. N. A. Gossman had the best dahlia in the show, Mr. Wilbert Danner smallest dahlia, and the tallest dahlia stock with bloom, Mr. D. A. Gossard. There were mixed flowers other than dahlias artistically arranged in baskets and vases. The winners in this class were Mrs. Roy Polsgrove, Mrs. H. K. Ramsburg, Mrs. H. E. Kuhn and Mrs. C. P. Gerrard. Sweepstakes for most points on dahlias was won by Mr. N. A. Gossman. Exhibitors having most entries in the show: Mr. N. A. Gossman, first; Mrs. Roy Polsgrove, second; Mr. Oscar Moser, third. The Gladioli section was the finest we have ever had, with Mr. Bane Snyder leading with the most prizes in this section. It seems Mr. Snyder put up a good fight against the drought. The Rose section was the largest in the history of the shows. Some very fine specimens were shown in this class, Mr. C. P. Gerrard, Mrs. Roy Polsgrove, Mr. James Bumgardner and Mr. M. B. Keever carried off the most prizes. The attendance was up to par. The success of the show was due to the cooperation of all the members, Mr. H. C. Kuhn, president of the Society, Mr. Oscar Moser, chairman of the Show Committee and Mr. Charles W. Zahn, Show Superintendent. Judges of the show: Professor J. B. S. Southern States Stages Show in Chattanooga

The combined states of Tennessee, Alabama and Georgia held their "Southern States" show in Chattanooga on September 29th and 30th, at the Hotel Patten.

Due to unfavorable weather conditions this year in the South, it was at one time decided to pass up the show; but three weeks before show time, rainfall became a reality and the blooms began to show life and color.

The show plans worked out fine, and those that came witnessed a nice array of blooms. Out of town guests were from Louisville, Chicago, New York, Indianapolis, and Toledo, in addition to Southern States members from Georgia and Alabama. The show had 997 entries. Since it was necessary to overlook size, then it was most unfortunate that there was no bloom worthy to compete for either the "A.D.S." seedling award or the Home Achievement Award.

There was nice cooperation from the garden clubs and their arrangements numbered 72. These arrangements were placed in the beautiful Red Room along with the display of Happy Cabin Dahlia Garden. These displays were well received by the public.

An unusual display by Mr. B. E. Phillips, of Atlanta, was a bedspread made of ribbons won by him during his competition years.

A nice display of blooms was made by Wyndall Carter of Atlanta. This display was put in the spacious ball-room along with the larger blooms judged.

Under the supervision of the writer, all visitors and members enjoyed a nice two day entertainment program. Abe Siskin was Show Chairman, assisted by A. A. Burnette, Co-Chairman.

Burholme Horticultural Society

The Burholme Horticultural Society held its 31st Annual Show featuring dahlias September 14th and 15th at the Burholme Motors Showroom in Philadelphia.

The spotlight usually is focused on the new dahlia seed-lings since these are the varieties that make their debut in the dahlia world. The American Home Achievement medal was awarded to Mr. Stanley Johnson of Cheltenham, Pa. for three beautiful blooms, 10 inch size orange colored incurved cactus dahlias. It was named Patricia Spollen, after the popular garden editor of the Evening and Sunday Bulletin. Seedlings raised by Mr. Walter Strobel, Louis Comito, Harry Miller were awarded the gold rosette by the American Dahlia Society as these excelled existing standard varieties.

The best dahlia of the show was a fine specimen of an Australian dahlia Croydon Masterpiece shown by Walter Strobel of Elkins Park, Pa. He won the grand award for this same variety the previous week at the Penna. Railroad Show in Philadelphia.

The sweepstake prize in the Open to All Section was won by James Desmond of Elkins Park, Pa. His basket of twelve blooms of large red Maffie was exceptional. Mr. Harry Miller of Easton, Pa. won on large basket of a white seedling also with a new purple, just named Marion Glen and with his favorite yellow Darl V. Other top winners were Frank V. Daniel of Elkins Park and Elmer G. Ruch of Cheltenham, Pa.

There were many fine varieties of dahlias in the Novice Section and also the Amateur classes. Mr. Louis Comito "Quinn's Tidal Wave"—The giant yellow decorative that grows up to 16 inches and sweeps all before it. Top winner at The Royal Agricultural Society Trials, Sydney, Australia—1951, with 21 points out of a possible 25. Always carried on perfect stalks at the desired angle without any attention.

Imported Field Grown Roots $15 or 3 for $40

"Quinn's Variety Girl"—The most sought after medium to large bi-color decorative in the world today. It has all the qualifications of a champion which it has proven to be at three Australian trials. Color is orange gold with pure white petal tips—even formation—well finished centers; blooms carried on extra long stalks and stems 26 to 30 inches long. Bush 4 to 6 ft.; blooms 6 to 8 inches.

Imported Field Grown Roots $7.50 or 3 for $20

"Quinn's Leading Lady"—The coloring of this 8 to 10 inch formal decorative is really rare—ivory with flecking of rose pink to centers; each petal has pure white spot on tips that give it a lot of added beauty. Bush growth 4 to 5 ft., strong stalk and stem carry the blooms at facing position. This dahlia was runner up to "Quinn's Variety Girl", the latter beating it by ½ point score.

"Top line award winners from the largest trials in the Southern Hemisphere." of Richboro, Pa. displayed a large basket in memory of his father, the late James Comito, who had done so much for his favorite flower. Mr. George M. Boyles of Lansdowne displayed first rate specimens of medium size and miniature dahlias. Charles G. Friedel obtained first winners with a large basket containing Australian dahlia Enid May and Snotop. His entries of new Holland cactus dahlias Helena Copperhead and Pride of Holland, were outstanding.

The judges were Mr. Mayland MacAvoy, Mr. George

Masson and Mr. John Root.

The show was staged by W. O. Hird, Show Superintendent who has just completed his 30th year with the society.

Mrs. David S. Chambers, Corresponding and Show Sec'y.

1951 MID-WEST SHOW

was a basket of Hazel Harper.

Glenn Pierce was awarded the President's Cup, a traveling Kansas City award for being high blue ribbon winner in the show, and also the Herman Mohr Trophy for winning the most blue ribbons in the open to all section. Pierce's winners included, Arthur Godfrey, Emma Caroline, Yellow Special, Orfeo, Searchlight, Willie Mullins, Tops, B.C., Pride-of-Holland, V. Rzitter Oud, Orange Nassau, Nancy An Mitchell, Long Island Sun, and others.

Mrs. H. W. Fabian, Raytown, Mo., received the Dahlia Society of Ohio award for the best arrangement of small dahlias.

Pat Bennett took the Leick silver cup to St. Louis with a vase of 5 perfect Pink Flamingo.

Many other wards and medals were given but space will not permit all to be listed.

Our show attendance of about 18,000 persons was held down somewhat by a sudden shower Sunday afternoon, but everyone had a grand time and we're all looking forward to Louisville next year.

Festivities broke up Sunday morning after a group of eight members of the Kansas City Society and their wives were host to the out of town guests at breakfast at Fred Harveys in Union Station.

Midwest Dahlia Conference

The Eighteenth Annual meeting of the Midwest Dahlia Conference was held at the Hotel President in Kansas City, Mo., on Saturday, September 22, 1951.

The meeting was well attended and were well in accord that the Greater Kansas City Dahlia Society members did a fine job in staging their Show despite all of the rain and flood conditions.

The 1952 Midwest Dahlia Show was awarded to the Dahlia Society of Kentucky and the dates will be September 20-21, 1952 at the Kentucky Hotel, in Louisville, Kentucky. We hope to see everyone there.

The following officers were elected for the year 1952: President—Mr. Roy Schooler, 212 Stilz Ave., Louisville, Kentucky.

Sec.-Treas.—Mrs. Louise Kleinjohn, 726 Barret Ave., Louisville, Kentucky.

Louise Kleinjohn, Secretary.

Southtown Dahlia Show

Our Fourteenth Annual Dahlia Show was held at Hamilton Park Field House, Chicago, Illinois on Sept. 22nd and 23rd, 1951.

It was a very successful show, with a total of 3,881 blooms exhibited by eighty exhibitors.

The American Home Achievement Award was won by Big Mo, exhibited and originated by J. Louis Roberts. The most perfect bloom in the show was Nobby's Light, won by John Schramel and awarded the A.D.S. medal. Largest bloom in the show was Sherwood's Peach 13 x 9½ inches, won by Clifford Boyle and awarded the C.S.D.S. medal.

Winners of American Dahlia Society Certificates were: J. Louis Roberts with Big Mo; James Marsh with Prairie Thistle; Edward Schoenlaw with Princess Royal; Clifford Boyle with Harry A. Beals.

Trophies were won by John Schramel for the Big Ten, Jesse L. Strauss for the Little Ten., Mrs. John Baer for the most outstanding arrangement Autumn Splendor, Northbrook Dahlia Gardens and Kindlein Flower Farms for Commercial displays.

Sweepstake winners of trophies were: Mrs. Eric Stone, Mrs. Walter S. Grupe, Edward Ladendorf, Clarence P. Jacobs, Jesse L. Strauss, Mrs. Edward Dickhoff in the Miniature Section and Mrs. Fred L. Trauth in the Arrangement Section. Looks as if the dahlia is a ladies flower as well as the men's.

G. SWANSON, Secretary.

=Introducing for 1951= "MISS VOHLAND"

A beautiful Semi-Cactus of Tangerine Scarlet. Recommended from the Mid-West Trial Gardens as being an outstanding color. Diameter 10 in. Depth 6 in. Stems strong, straight with blooms facing and erect. Stands the sun well. Keeps well as a cut flower. Heavy foliage and insect resistant. On the Honor Roll. Will be a winner in its class. Be sure and include this new Dahlia in your 1952 planting.

Miss Vohland is named for Miss Phyllis June Vohland of Indianapolis, Ind., who is the only woman train dispatcher in the world and is employed by the New York Central Railroad.

The 1951 St. Louis Show

Ever been show chairman of a Dahlia show? It's a great experience; it really is. It will leave you weak in the knees, cold, clammy—exhausted. If you're fortunate enough to win a ribbon yourself, you'll be too far gone to celebrate!

Sounds exciting, doesn't it? Well, it was exciting, believe me. Let me tell you about our 1951 Dahlia Show which was held September 29 and 30.

Starting Friday, before our Saturday show, I made two round trips between my home in Brighton, Illinois, and Shaw's Garden in St. Louis (totaling 200 miles at about 80 mph); helped set up the show; finished in time to drive home and start cutting blooms by flashlight. Yes, my wife carried the blooms and cut off the stems under water. I never would have made it without her!

Started all over again Saturday morning after 3½ hours sleep. Ever try transporting 60 blooms in the back of a '48 Ford Tudor? Ask me sometime; I'll explain in detail!

This was our 13th show. Mother Nature kept her part of the "unlucky 13th" and "threw the works" at us all season long. Record breaking rains and floods in the spring and hot, strong winds with gusts up to 70 m.p.h. all through the summer clear up to the Tuesday before our Saturday show. Despite all of this, the blooms were of exceptional quality and the number of exhibitors and total number of blooms shown remained about the same as in previous years.

The big "Oh! My goodness!" kind of blooms did not dominate this year because the "B" size section was open to all and the quality of the exhibits convinced most skeptics that "B" size blooms can be outstanding, too.

Dan O'Gorman's judges and clerks worked wonderfully well; judging was accomplished in record time. A new wrinkle was also introduced by placing a "section head" in charge of each section to assist those who became so excited and distraught that they couldn't read their own entry tags, and the idea worked out swell.

Here are the results of our Show. Some new names are added; some old ones remain, both of exhibitors and variety of blooms:

BEST 3 BLOOMS

Section A-R. L. Goff, Nicky K; Section B-Joe

Gardiner, Phyllis Knight; Section C—George Schaefer, Pink Flamingo; Section D—Fred Beckman, Ami Louis Blin; Section E—Ralph Rabenau, Ballego's Glory.

BEST 5 BLOOMS

Section A—R. L. Goff, Buckeye Peach; Section B—Ed Ayo, Jane Lausche; Section C—H. Sandefur, Hester Pape; Section D—Ralph Rabenau 5 Star General; Section E—Paul Hale, Mixed.

BEST 10 BLOOMS

Section C—H. Sandefur, Cardinal; Section D—R. Rabenau, Jane Lausche; Section E—Paul Hale, July G.

BEST 15 BLOOMS

Section C—Ray Grass, Chas. Shaw and Kelvin; Section D—H. Sandefur, Pink Flamingo; Section E—H. Sandefur, Nicky K.

Smallest Bloom—Earl Schlessinger, Clover; Largest Bloom—Paul Hale, Powder Puff; Best Vase Pompons—Bill Almstedt, Unknown; Best Vase Ball Flowers—H. Sandefur, Marmore.

Pat Bennett won the Edward Nolte trophy with 6 fine blooms: Ami Louis Blin, Hester Pape, Rudolph Motznick, Madonna, Gold Coin and his Seedling No. 486.

SWEEPSTAKES WINNERS

Section A—R. L. Goff; Section B—Mrs. William Nolte; Section C—Joe Lepping; Section D—Pat Bennett; Section E—Paul Hale; Section F—William Avis.

Section N (Ladies' arrangement)—Flora Hartwig. Section N (Men's arrangement)—Paul Hale.

Grand Sweepstakes winner was Paul Hale with a total of 92 points.

Out of town growers who assisted our judges included Jim Marsh, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Leick, Kansas City; Noel Scott, Glendale, California; Ed Larson, Madison, Wisconsin; Dr. L. J. Steuber, Prairie Du Sac, Wisconsin.

Our "get together" party was held at Lemmon's Restaurant, and we all had a gay time.

Blooms were distributed to various local hospitals on Monday morning after the show.

Best wishes to all of you for top class blooms in 1952, and may those "duds" that show up each year be conspicuous by their absence.

PAUL HALE, Chairman.

ROCKY RIVER INTRODUCTIONS FOR 1952

ALLWAYS (Phillips)

Allarge, straight cactus of Camelia rose, growing nine to ten inches in diameter. Petals are tightly rolled, and have good substance. Listed on all four Flower Grower Honor Rolls. Certificate of Merit at Maryland in 1950 with a score of 85.8. Winner of four American Home Achievement Medals in 1951 at Milwaukee, Washington, Richmond, and Williamsburg, and on Webb's Eastern Dahlia Paview.

Root $15.00 net-Plant $5.00 net

CLARIAM FOREVER (Wolbert)

A pink informal in the nine to ten inch range. An outstanding color of light, clear pink, without a trace of magenta shades; a color that never fails to attract favorable comment. On Faust's and Eddy's Flower Grower Honor Rolls, and on Webb's Review.

Root $15.00 net-Plant $5.00 net

JUANE LABELLE (Dr. Barber)

A big yellow semi cactus which can easily be grown twelve inches in diameter. Look for this to win over the present large yellow semi cactus. On Roberts' and Eddy's Honor Rolls in Flower Grower.

Root $15.00 net-Plant $5.00 net

LADY ALICE (Kriel)

A nine inch, straight cactus, with lacinated petals. Excellent stems hold most flowers facing side. The color is a deep golden bronze with a metallic sheen. Centers are a bit inclined to be loose under unfavorable conditions, but it is hard to beat when right. Early and prolific. Seedling Sweepstakes winner at Cleveland. On Webb's Review.

Root $7.50 net—Plant $2.50 net

LITTLE LINDA (Scheel)

A white miniature straight cactus. Stems thin and wiry. Certified at Rutgers and Maryland in 1950 with scores of 86.5 and 85.8 respectively. Some blooms inclined to run over the miniature size limit. On Webb's Eastern Dahlia Review, and on Faust's and Dudley's Honor Rolls in Flower Grower.

Root $5.00 net-Plant $2.00 net

PEGGY J. (Beals-Boyle)

Rare beauty and perfection of flower characterize this light blend straight cactus. Petals are deeply lacinated. The seven inch flowers are white with delicate flush of lilaclavender at the centers and outer tips. Prolific, and a good keeper. Certified at East Lansing in 1950 with a score of 85.5. Winner of Anthracite Award at Scranton for best cutflower seedling. On Roberts' Honor Roll in Flower Grower.

Root $10.00 net-Plant $3.50 net

PRAIRIE THISTLE (Marsh)

A lavender miniature formal, which is well within the miniature size range, seldom being over three inches in diameter. It has very little to beat in its class. Nicely formed flowers on good, well proportioned stems. Winner of the American Home Achievement Medal at Central States show at Chicago.

Root $5.00 net—Plant $2.00 net

PRETTY LADY (Pape)

A lavender formal, seven to eight inches in diameter which appears to be much larger because of its great depth. The ball-shaped flowers have a high, full center, and petals are very numerous, forming a "full" flower. Nicely proportioned stems hold the flowers well above the plants, which are tall, strong flowers.

Root $10.00 net-Plant $3.50 net

PRINCESS ROYAL (Schoenlau)

A mallow purple miniature formal which will have but little competition in its class. Blooms are consistently within the miniature size range; seldom over three and a half inches. Seedling Sweepstakes at the Southtown show, Chicago, and on three Flower Grower Honor Rolls. Early and prolific.

Root $5.00 net-Plant $2.00 net

RUBY CHARM (Haugh)

A sensational miniature straight cactus of deep, rich red (ruby red), on nearly perfect stems. Like nearly all miniatures of the cactus types, blooms have a tendency to run a bit over the miniature size limit, but it can win in the larger classes as well as a miniature. Tall plants are very prolific, and the excellent keeping qualities make this a fine cutflower. Winner of the American Home Achievement Medal at Madison, Wisc. On Webb's Eastern Dahlia Review and three Flower Forwer Honor Rolls.

Root $5.00 net—Plant $2.00 net

VAL'S DELIGHT (Veirs)

VAL'S DELIGHT (Veirs)
A ten inch dark red semi cactus, with a lighter purple reverse which shows at the centers and tints the outer tips of the petals. Very early and prolific. Stiff, well proportioned stems carry flowers facing side. Certified at Maryland in 1948 with a score of 85.6, and at Farmingdale and Atlanta in 1951 with scores of 85.1. On Webb's and Faust's lists.

Root $10.00 net-Plant $5.00 net

ZERO (Rocky River)

An eight inch white formal with lavender suffusion at centers. Longer stems than most white formals, hold flowers facing the side. Plants are tall, with slender canes which permit cutting with six foot stems. Earliest blooms have some elongated centers, but this fault does not persist in later blooms. A midseason bloomer; excellent as a cut-flower and exhibition. On Robert's Honor Roll.

Root $5.00 net—Plant $2.00 net

Rooted cuttings of the above will be available at one third less than plant prices.

Greater Philadelphia Dahlia Society

The 1951 Show was held in the spacious concourse of the Penna. Railroad's 30th Street Station in Philadelphia, Pa. on Friday, September 21st and Saturday, September 2nd. It was an outstanding dahlia show with very high quality specimens and numerous first rate basket displays.

One of the features of this show was the award of the "American Home" achievement medal and A.D.S. ribbon to Patricia Spollen, a 10 in. incurved cactus of persimmon orange color. This dahlia is an origination of Stanley Johnson, Cheltenham, Pa. The seedling classes were tops and those to garner A.D.S. sweepstake rosette were: a white informal decorative No. 099, type BB, size 4 to 6 in. heavy flower and with great promise as a cut flower. The exhibitor was Walter Strobel, Elkins Park, Pa. Another outstanding medium winner was No. J-021.D., size 6 in., color salmon-rose, exhibited by Elmer Ruch, Cheltenham, Pa. Mr. Harry W. Miller, Easton, Pa., won with his seedling since named Marion Glenn.

The major award of the Society went to Mr. and Mrs. William Coxe Wright, St. Davids, Pa.-John McMenamen, gardener. The large display occupied about 50 square feet and consisted of all types of dahlias. The display featured many seedling dahlias that were well arranged with the use of cibotium ferns. A tribute to any horticulturist.

A very outstanding display of quality show dahlias was made by Mrs. James Fentress-King Irvine, gardener. A basket of 12 Kelvin was a sight to behold. Some of the dahlias featured were Ronnie Lee, Edna D., 5 Star General and Ada N. The combined entries of Mrs. Fentress won the Sweepstake-The Greater Philadelphia Dahlia Society trophy.

The "Novice Section" sweepstake winner was John MacPherson. Quality dahlias prevailed in many classes.

The "Amateur and Advanced Section" Sweepstake Thomas McKay Memorial Trophy went to Frank L. Deichler, Jr. The winning varieties included Daylight, Command, Kelvin, California Centennial, Clariam Royalty and Arthur Godfrey. Mr. John Plewinski won the green ribbon of the Garden Club Federation of Penna. for his exhibit of the dahlia Graf Folke Bernadotte. This award is for the best culture by an amateur gardener.

Frank V. Daniel captured the "Open to All" Sweepstakes and became the possessor of the Greater Phila. Dahlia Society Trophy. He featured dahlias as, Whitehall, Allegrese, Irene Rich, Madonna, Robert Ripley, Maffie and B. C.

The winner of the sweepstakes for "Small Varieties" was Mrs. M. W. Clement-Harry Waterson, gardener. The best of modern miniatures and pompons was featured. Outstanding were Little Beauty, Ebony, Margaret Williams, Buddy, Jubiliant and Baby Fonteneau.

Outstanding blooms of near perfection of the newer varieties were seen at this show. Walter Strobel won several firsts with giant size specimens of Croydon Masterpiece. Charles G. Friedel's blue ribbon winners included Firegleam, Arthur Godfrey, Sheila Brunton, Pride of Holland and Mrs. R. Fletcher. James Desmonds' prize winners, Whiz Kid and Clariam Royalty. Fil Alleva won with his new dahlia, Big Dan. Dr. Fred. J. Knocke exhibited well grown Pirate Treasure. Louis Comito gained prizes with Volunteer, So Big and Linda Lou.

George M. Boyles exhibited the better new pompons and miniatures as Little Beauty, Ebony and Sweetie, also Estelle, Dianne and Hazel Harper.

The "Arrangement Section" winner was Mrs. N. L. Wright for her various displays featuring dahlias. The prize winning list also included Mrs. A. Scarborough, Angeline Comito, Myrtle Axtell, Henry Brusca, John E. Ross, Charles G. Friedel, James J. Desmond, E. A. Smith, George G. Johnson, William Kumlehn, Dr. L. E. Jordon, F. A. Alleva, William Knowles, Louis Comito, Robert Dunlop, Dr. Fred J. Knocke, George M. Boyles, and Fred H. Ahl, Jr.

Five of Philadelphia's leading florists made commercial displays of 25 square feet each that gave this show a professional touch.

The exhibitors made 474 competitive entries. This show was staged by the Show Superintendent, Alex McLeod and entries were handled by William Ellis assisted by Mrs. Frank Deichler. The dahlias were judged by top men in the field; namely, Lynn B. Dudley, Dr. Ward Cook, Charles Friedel, Harold Graham and Harry Wood.

The 1951 show was a fine tribute to our hard working officers, President, Fred Moore, Vice-President George M.

Boyles and Treasurer Charles Becker, Jr.

Dahlia Society of Kentucky

The Annual meeting of the Dahlia Society of Kentucky was held on October 16, 1951 at the Kentucky Hotel. Much interest and enthusiasm was shown by all present to partake of our plans for the big Show of 1952. No doubt every one knows by this time that The Dahlia Society of Kentucky will be the hosts to the Midwest Show and Conference and the Southern States Dahlia Association in Louisville, Kentucky at the Kentucky Hotel on September 20, 21, 1952.

We hope that all who read this article will start making plans to be with us next year. We believe it will be the biggest Show and delegation in the history of the Dahlia with the Midwest and Southern States combined. As time goes on you will hear more about our plans, but at the present time, our Committees are just getting a good start, so watch for the next issue of the BULLETIN to read all about it. The following officers and Directors were also elected at this meeting:

President: Mr. Roy Schooler. Vice Pres.: Mr. J. B. Floyd.

Sec.-Treas.: Mrs. Louise Kleinjohn, 726 Barret Ave. Directors: Mr. A. W. Adams, Mr. Frank Gohman, Mr. Wm. Bernaeur, Mr. C. W. Simbritzki, Mr. W. H. Swift and Mr. John Mills.

The following Chairmen of Committees were appointed: General Chairman of the Combined Committees: Mrs.

Louise Kleinjohn.

Show Committee: Mr. George Shee. Publicity Committee: Mr. A. W. Adams.

Entertainment and Hospitality: J. B. Floyd and Wm. Bernaeur.

Hotel Reservations: Mrs. Roy Schooler, 212 Stilz Ave., Louisville, Ky.

Program Committee: A. W. Adams.

Trophy Committee: Mr. C. W. Simbritzki.

Program Advertising Committee: Mr. W. H. Swift. Out of Town Shipments: Mr. C. W. Simbritzki, George Shee.

Registration and Judges Committee: W. F. Kleinjohn. Mrs. Louise Kleinjohn, Secretary.

Dahlia Society of Ohio

The twenty-first annual show of The Dahlia Society of Ohio was held at the Higbee Auditorium in Cleveland on September 17th and 18th. The weather in this area had been particularly fine and a great many blooms were exhibited. All sections, including our Novice Division and School Garden Division, were well filled—which made for real competition. Fifty new members were signed up during this show.

Special Awards were as follows:

Most perfect "A" size dahlia in show was a bloom of Mrs. Hester A. Pape.

Largest bloom in the show (which was also a worthy entry) was $Edna\ D$.

Most perfect decorative type "B" dahlia was a bloom of Windlassie.

Most perfect cactus type "B" dahlia in the show was Snowball.

Smallest and most perfect pompon exhibited was a bloom of Rosegay.

No American Home Achievement Medal was awarded. There were a number of excellent entries in the A.D.S.

Show Seedling Sweepstakes class, however.

The trial garden located at Valleevue Farm has been of great interest to our members and our guests this season. Twenty-one originators were represented by thirty-eight varieties of seedlings. One hundred fifty-three hills of better standard varieties were also planted, making a total of two hundred sixty-seven hills in the dahlia trial garden. Mr. Edw. A. Lloyd, Chairman of the A.D.S. Trial Grounds Committee visited the garden late in August, at which time most of the seedlings were in bloom and judging of the varieties had started. The seedlings have been scored by a group of judges every week since that time. The attention and care given the dahlias by Mr. Thomas R. Manley, horticulturist in charge of the field station and his staff, have kept the trail garden in excellent growth throughout the season.

RUTH BERRY, A.D.S. Correspondent.

The East Liverpool, Ohio Show

The East Liverpool (Ohio) Dahlia Society held its Twenty-sixth Annual Dahlia and Flower Show on September 15-16, 1951, in Memorial Auditorium, East 4th

St. and Walnut St.

The San Leandro Dahlia Society

The San Leandro Dahlia Society held their 19th Annual Show on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 1st and 2nd in the Veterans Memorial Building. The show is sponsored by the American Legion Post 117, who also donated a trophy in the Amateur Classes. Most of the prizes and trophies were donated by the businessmen of San Leandro, which is known as the City of Sunshine and Flowers. The flower of the city is the dahlia.

The strongest competition was in the Novice Section. The winners of first prizes were Klarman—4; Cunningham and Schorsh—2 each, with other winners being Condon, Carriera, Dowell, Rose, Wells and Harrison each getting one first.

In the Amateur Section the first prizes were won by Mrs. Hooper—4; Rafferty—3; Sparre—2; and Webster—1.

In the Advanced Amateurs, the main winners were Mr. Lundvale and Mr. Webb.

In the Open For All, Mrs. Hooper took 12 firsts, Mr. Webb took 7, while Bolesworth, Webster, Klarman, Lundvale, Rafferty all took one each.

In the Juvenile Class for girls under 14 Donna Klarman and the King sisters took the prizes and in the boys under 14 Ronnie Dowell was the winner. The cups for the Juvenile Classes are provided by the Society, two for the girls and two for the boys.

The trophy for the best flower in the show was won by Dave Webb with a good bloom of Frances H., which also won best bicolor. Dave also won the American Home Achievement Medal with his Miss Stanage, a pink cactus of large size and good stems.

The Begonia classes were won by the following: Schorsch, Klarman, Dowell, Sorenson, Johnson and Rafferty.

Everyone seemed to think the show was of exceptional quality and beauty.

The Sunset Magazine Medal for best New Miniature was won by Chas. Garrity for his new Raggedy Ann.

The Orange County Dahlia Society

The Orange County Dahlia Society has just concluded their tenth annual dahlia show. The show this year was held in the Santa Ana Y.W.C.A. gymnasium.

Mrs. J. J. Osborn of Garden Grove and Dr. G. Emmett Raitt of Santa Ana tied for sweepstake honors. Most outstanding entry of the show, Lawrence O. Archibald of Orange for five blooms of Rose Fletcher.

The Kiwanis cup was awarded Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Jordan of Santa Ana, third time and permanent possession winners of the trophy for the best first year seedling in the show. The winning bloom was a white incurved cactus.

The American Dahlia Society Bronze Medal went to Allen and Son Dahlia Gardens of Westminster for the best individual dahlia in the show, Autumn Blaze.

The most artistic display was judged that of the Gayvern Gardens of Costa Mesa, which featured large and beautiful arrangements. The best general display was awarded the Churchman Dahlia Gardens of Costa Mesa.

HAROLD STEPHENS

We report with deep regret the passing of our Minnesota Society President, Harold Stephens, who also was an officer in the A.D.S.

Harold passed away on Sept. 21 after a short illness. The members of our Society feel very keenly the loss of his leadership which for the past two years has been the spark needed to accomplish the many good things that have been done. His work was in great measure responsible for the quality of our 1950 Mid-West Show as well as an equally fine one this year.

When his family requested that memorials be made to the Heart Fund, the members then joined to create a testimonial in dahlias, something that could be expressed in no finer way possible. Blooms were selected from a number of gardens and made into a tremendous tribute to him. No arrangement of dahlias will equal this one.

THOS. Z. ENNIS.

Badger State Dahlia Society, Inc. Madison, Wisconsin

The sixth annual Dahlia and Flower Show of the Badger State Dahlia Society, Inc. was held at the Madison Community Center, September 2 and 3, 1951. About 75 exhibitors entered dahlias, garden flowers, gladioli, artistic baskets and arrangements. Sixty-one of the exhibitors won either first, second or third place awards. Approximately 2,301 visitors viewed the displays during the two days.

There was an outstanding display of dahlias especially in Sections B, C, D, and E. Section F had a number of seedlings. The American Home Achievement Award and the American Dahlia Society Seedling Sweepstakes was won by a miniature dahlia—"Ruby Charm." "Ruby Charm" was shown and grown by James E. Marsh of Chicago and was originated by William Hough, East Liverpool, Ohio.

The Miniature and Pompons Section also had a very large number of outstanding entries.

Local members of the Badger State Dahlia Society who showed blooms that reached the Court of Honor included Section B, Miles Armstrong with a beautiful "Queen Elizabeth." This flower was judged the most nearly perfect informal and largest bloom. Louis Amborn showed a "Jane Lausche" that was judged most nearly perfect semi-cactus.

In Section C, "Kelvin Sunrise" exhibited by Max Freudenberg was judged the most nearly perfect cactus; P. W. MacKenzie's "Jane Lausche" was honored as the most nearly perfect semi-cactus; and Louis Marsh displayed a "Five Star General" that was judged the most nearly perfect formal.

Sweepstakes winners: Section A: Non-Member—Leo Meacham; Section B: Small Amateur—J. A. Pastorek; Section C: Large Amateur—P. W. Mac-Kenzie and N. W. Ackerman (tied); Section D: Open to All—George J. Merkel; Section G: Miniature and Poms—E. J. Heggestad.

WALTER SENTRY, Show Chairman.

Portland Dahlia Society—(Oregon)

At the 23rd Annual Dahlia Show staged in the Masonic Temple, September 22-23, the Mastick Trophy, for the best in the show, was won by Val St. Lambert.

The Minnesota Dahlia Society Medal, for best five cactus A or B, was won by Oakleigh Champion.

Two new awards were added this year. The J. R. Beyerle Cup for the best 5 blooms of Sellwood Glory, and the Kershisnik Award, for 15 miniatures and three varieties.

The W. C. Scrutton Award, for three foreign types, B size, was won by Vader Nagels, Abbot, and Zenith.

The American Dahlia Society Medal for largest was won by Croydon's Masterpiece.

The E. Henry White Award, best Advanced Amateur was won by Aumonier Chandelon.

The Clarence Daniel Award, best Amateur, was won by Val St. Lambert.

The Julia Compton Award, best Novice, was won by Conqueror.

Some other winners were: Great Lakes, Jane Lausche, Hester Pape, Nobby's Light, Glorie Van Hecmstede, Millie and Gold Flake.

Pennsylvania Railroad Garden Club Fall Flower Show

On September 6 and 7, the Pennsylvania Railroad Garden Club staged its 16th annual Dahlia and Fall Flower Show in the 30th Street Station, Philadelphia. The exhibition was arranged in the South end of the station using all of the South Arcade and a large part of the Market Street concourse.

The Dahlia class featured the show and contained the largest number and the finest quality of blooms ever exhibited in this show.

The Grand Champion Dahlia Blue Ribbon was won by Croydon Masterpiece, a large 12½ inch decorative grown by Mr. Walter Strobel, Elkins, Park, Pa.

The outstanding attraction of the show was a large circular table center piece displaying an exhibit of Dahlias from the garden of Mrs. M. W. Clement, comprising many different varieties arranged for effect.

The two day exhibition was well attended and many of the flower loving annual visitors expressed the thought that this show was the best ever staged by the club.

Baltimore Dahlia Society Show

The Baltimore Dahlia Society staged its 26th Annual Fall Flower Show on September 16th and 17th in the Sears Community Building, Baltimore, Md.

From every angle the show was an outstanding success, finer blooms, more blooms, more entries, more interest, greater attendance and this is further proven by the fine lot of applications for membership received at the Show. Chairman N. A. Gossmann and his committee handled every detail to perfection, the staging was excellent, entries were received and and set up without delay and the show was ready for judging at the time prescribed. We are indebted to Chas. M. Diffenderffer and fine group of judges: Leo L. Pollak, Roy W. Webb, Dr. Bruce Preas, Walter Hardisty, Edward Lloyd, Conrad Frey, Lynn B. Dudley, Henry A. Olsen, Dr. Edward McDade, Warren W. Maytrott, John Hanna, Edward L. Schaun, C. L. Armentrout, E. R. Phillips, John L. Bishop, Dr. Henry C. Parker, John C. Mencke, N. A. Scheel and Roy Traceythey did an outstanding job. The Hardy Garden Section with Mrs. N. A. Gossmann as chairman, also put on a fine exhibition. The judges in this section were: Mrs. Wm. A. Bridges and Mrs. Allen F. Pierce.

The competition was very keen in every section and the trophy awards as well as the sweepstake winners in the sections were as follows: A.D.S. Silver Medal awarded to Dr. H. C. Manaugh of the Fort Howard Veterans Hospital for an outstanding bloom of Powderpuff, Governor Theodore R. McKeldin trophy awarded to Chas. M. Diffenderffer, Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro trophy to Chas. M. Diffenderffer, Morton Katz trophy to E. R. Phillips, Jean trophy to Chas. M. Diffenderffer, Memorial trophy to Wm. Tracey, Court of Honor-Gossmann trophy to Wm. Tracey, Hens trophy to Chas. M. Diffenderffer, Capitol Dahlia Society trophy to Chas. M. Diffenderffer. The sweepstake winners were as follows: Novice Section-Merson trophy to Dr. H. C. Manaugh; A-A Section -Lampkin trophy, Louis Gill; A-B Section-Dr. Henry Parker trophy, Louis Gill; B-A Section-Baltimore Dahlia Society trophy, Arnold Hens; B-B Section-John Bishop trophy, Chas. M. Diffenderffer; C Section-Louis Gill trophy to N. A. Gossmann; D Section—Hamilton Feed & Seed trophy to N. A. Gossmann; H Section-John Sherwood trophy, N. A. Scheel; L Section-Brach trophy to Herbert O. Aburn; I-C Section—Phillips trophy to Chas. M. Diffenderffer. Sweepstake winner in the Hardy Garden Section-Mrs. Eleanor E. Aburn. This show proved that the interest in the growing of dahlias is steadily improving and we are looking forward to a bigger and better show in 1952.

Dahlia Society of Georgia

This year the elements were most unkind to dahlia growers in Georgia, particularly in the Atlanta area, where in certain portions there was no rain for ten weeks and the weather was very hot.

The drought ended, however, about the middle of September, which enabled the dahlia plants to recover somewhat.

Upon entering the large hall where the 18th annual dahlia show was held, we were greeted with a beautiful and colorful display of blossoms which far surpassed our fondest expectations.

Blue ribbon winners ranged all the way from the small pompon to the large 12 inch varieties. I don't believe I have ever seen as many different varieties among the blue ribbon winners. When I say there were 133 different varieties among the winners, an idea can be gained of the number of different varieties being grown in this area.

The winners in the various sections with the names of the exhibitors are as follows:

Section A—Novice—Most perfect bloom, Barbarosa exhibited by Mrs. F. D. Anderson.

Section B—Growers of 100 hills or less—Best "A" size, Gold Coin exhibited by F. M. House; Best "B" size, Good Morning exhibited by Walter E. Thompson; Sweepstakes B. E. Phillips.

Section C—Growers of 101 hills or more—Best "A" size, Ballego Surprise exhibited by C. J. Bivens; best "B" size Jersey's Dainty exhibited by Wyndal Carter; Sweepstakes Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Montgomery.

Section D—Best pompon, Zierpuppe exhibited by O. L. Prather. Best miniature, Ike exhibited by J. L. Brandes. Best ball, Rosy Dawn exhibited by C. J. Bivins. Other small flowering varieties, Thor exhibited by Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Kennedy. Best exhibit of 12 blooms, A. D. Lavoni exhibited by B. E. Phillips. Best exhibit of 25 blooms, Cheerful (collarette seedling) exhibited by Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Wells, Sweepstakes Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Kennedy.

Section E—Florist size—Best entry, Fire Gleam exhibited by C. E. Faust. Sweepstakes Wyndal Carter.

Section F—Open to All—Best 5 bloom entry "A" size, Mrs. Hester A. Pape, exhibited by Wyndal Carter. Best 5 bloom entry "B" size, Mary Sunshine exhibited by J. L. Brandes. Best entry in section "A" size, Mrs. Hester A. Pape exhibited by Wyndal Carter. Best entry in section "B" size, Abbot exhibited by Wyndal Carter.

Princess Dianne exhibited by E. E. Montgomery was the best "A" size in the show. Jersey's Dainty exhibited by Wyndal Carter was the best "B" size. Three blooms and five blooms of Mrs. Hester A. Pape exhibited by Wyndal Carter were the best three bloom and five bloom "A" size and three blooms of Doreen E. Exhibited by Dr. H. C. Rike were the best three blooms "B" size. Cherokee Brave exhibited by W. D. Ricks was the best Cherokee Brave. Little Edith exhibited by B. L. Kennedy was the best in the small flowering varieties.

The American Home Achievement medal was won by Stanley Johnson.

In the Public School section the winners were Jane Bush, Marion Bush, Judy Carraway and Eve. Huckeba.

In the arrangement section for members of the Dahlia Society, Mr. B. L. Kennedy won for the men and Mrs. Kennedy for the women.

Winners for the best 1950 and 1951 introductions and for the best Southern introductions were Dr. H. C. Rike, E. E. Montgomery and Charles R. Perr.

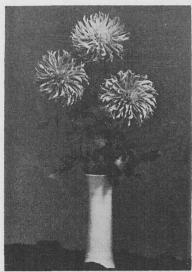

In the Garden Clubs section winners were Covenent Garden Club, arrangement by Mrs. C. De Bray and Mrs. Kelly Mallard; Four Seasons Garden Club, arrangement by Mrs. W. Wailes Thomas; Pineland Garden Club, arrangement by Mesdames John Griffin, D. L. Sechler, Clifford Lyon, Catherine Larson.

So endeth another year. Soon we will begin digging and storing our roots and start our dreams for another year which will bring the prize winning blooms.

BOX 429, MARTINS FERRY, OHIO

The Southern Tier Dahlia Society Elmira, N. Y.

The Southern Tier Dahlia Society held its fifth annual Show on September 16 at the Y.M.C.A. in Elmira, New York. It was, by far, the best show ever presented by this society. Exhibitors included growers from Rochester, Corning, North Cohocton, Atlanta and Montour Falls. The Elmira Garden Club cooperated with its annual Fall flower show contributing many novel floral arrangements.

Despite a poor growing season the blooms were of excellent quality and made a most worthy showing. Over 1200 spectators were lavish in their praises when they saw the hall filled with tables covered with a riot of color. Much credit should be given the committee in charge who worked tirelessly to make the show such a success.

The A.D.S. Medal was won by Hiriam Barker with his largest bloom of the show with "Arthur Godfrey." Edward Stayments won the Silver Loving Cup for the three best blooms with "Ogden Reid." The Dave Schoonover Trophy went to Frank Eyers as Sweepstakes, open to all. "Five Star General," best bloom of the show, won the Southern Tier Dahlia Trophy for Edward Stayments. Charles Liskovec's "Ogden Reid" was the best bloom in the Novice Class while Earl Canfield won the award in the dahlia Arrangement Class. Numerous other awards and blue ribbons honored various other entries. The officers of the Rochester Dahlia Society acted, most ably, as judges and we wish to extend our thanks to them.

MORTON C. BRANT, Secretary.

The Greater Pittsburgh Dahlia Society

Our annual show was held at the Phipps Conservatory, in Schenley Park, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on Saturday and Sunday, September 15th and 16th. Due to the extended dry spell preceding that weekend the quantity was not as great as some former years but the quality was even better and we had a most creditable array of blooms. This was the second year that we arranged the classes so that all of the decoratives were in one room and the cactus in another with large signs to declare the type, in an effort to help the public realize what they were looking at; hoping they not only enjoyed the glorious blooms, but learned a bit about dahlias in the process. Another educational feature was a noncompetitive display of practically every type of dahlia, some old, some new, of both American and foreign origin, each bloom with the name clearly printed. Our room, with the classes of arrangements suitable for use in the home, drew many favorable comments.

The American Home Achievement Medal was won by an 8 inch formal decorative bloom of a rich gold color, Retzer's Gold, originated by Henry Retzer of West Bridgewater, Pennsylvania.

OCTOBER MEETING-ELECTION

The annual meeting was held at the Garden Center in Mellon Park, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on Thursday, October 18th, with an attendance of about 45 members. Our speaker for the evening was Mr. R. D. Motznik, one of our own members, who addressed us on the timely subject of digging and storing dahlias. Many practical and helpful ideas were set forth and eagerly absorbed by the attentive audience. Reports were made on the show and written suggestions handed in for a bigger and better show next year.

Our officers for 1952 are as follows: President-Mr. Henry MacRoberts. First Vice President-Mr. Robert Emery. Second Vice President-Mrs. Samuel Klingensmith. Treasurer-Mr. Howard Worley. Secretary-Mrs. Henry MacRoberts.

Board of Directors-Mr. Rudolph Motznik, Mr. Samuel Holt, Mrs. Howard Worley, Mr. Wendel Fleckenstein.

Kitsap County Dahlia Show

The Kitsap County Dahlia Society held their show in conjunction with the County Fair at Bremerton, Wash. on Aug. 23rd, 26th, a date a little early for best results. However, the quality of blooms were top notch and although some classes were short of entries, others were overcrowded. The Novice class was well filled and the major prizes were carried away by Mr. and Mrs. Jens M. Nielson, with such well known varieties as Lyrick, Clara Carder, Dominant and Jane Lausche. The best bloom in this class was Mary Ellen Forhan.

The Amateur class was well filled in all divisions. Mrs. J. J. Harvey won best in section A with Mary Taylor. Best bloom in section B was Miss San Diego won by Mrs. Steve Adams. Best bloom in section C was Marylin Dale, won by Mrs. L. J. Harvey. Best bloom in section D was Ballego's Glory shown by Mrs. Harvey. Best bloom in section E was Freda Gaylord shown by Mrs.

Vernon Sanford.

In the arrangement classes the entries were superb and Mrs. Tom Forhan walked away with the most blues. The advanced amateur section this season was limited to four exhibitors and the race was really between Mr. John Baush and Mr. Tom Forhan. They both exhibited splendid blooms of such varieties as Oakleigh Champion, Orange Nassau, Val Saint Lambert, Mary Ellen Forhan, Jane Lausche, Enkhart's Prima, Five Star General and Royal Robe.

The largest dahlia in the show was a splendid bloom of Freda Gaylord over 13 inches shown by Mrs. Vernon Sanford. The smallest dahlia in the show was a bloom of Baby Dot a one inch single red, shown by Mrs. Irvin Nast.

The award for the best dahlia in the show went to Mr. Tom Forhan for his own creation, Mary Ellen Forhan, making it three times in succession, thus winning permanent possession of the beautiful Bremer Trophy. Runner up in this class was a fine specimen of Finesse Anversoise shown by Mr. Forhan's hot competitor Mr. John Bausch.

In the seedling class N. S. McKamey won both the Sunset Medal and the Achievement Medal with his lovely Julia McKamey, a very large pink Lord of Autumn. Two other good seedlings from this section to come later are Flirtation and Silver Wedding both produced by Mr. Alfred Ernst.

J. E. HULIN, Corresponding Sec'y.

NEW DAHLIAS

PATRICIA SPOLLEN

 $\mathbf{Type}-I.\ C.-Each\ servated\ petal\ rolls\ and\ slightly\ incurves.$

Size - A. - 10" diameter by 6" depth.

Color - General tone of persimmon orange.

Stem - Strong and straight, 10" to first leaf.

Fleuriness - Every plant will produce at least 4 nearly perfect show flowers.

Flower Position — Facing up at a slight angle.

Growth — Healthy clean open plant 5' height, dark green leathery type insect resistant foliage.

PATRICIA SPOLLEN

Awards—Won 9 "American Home" achievement medals at our largest and best 1951 Dahlia Shows as—American Dahlia Society's great show in New York City, the big Mid-West Conference Show sponsored by the Greater Kansas City Dahlia Society in Kansas City, Mo., the fine show of the Dahlia Society of Kentucky, Louisville, Ky., Burholme Horticultural Society and Greater Phila. Dahlia Society in Phila., Pa., Dahlia Society of New Jersey, Newark, N. J., Baltimore Dahlia Society, Baltimore, Md., Greater St. Louis Dahlia Society, St. Louis, Mo., and the South's big show of Dahlia Society of Georgia, Atlanta, Ga.

Merit—It wasn't my intention to set a record in winning achievement medals but just wanted this good dahlia to be seen at the best dahlia shows in various parts of our country.

It was grown and shown by Mr. Charles R. Leick for Mid-West Show at Kansas City, Mo., Greater St. Louis Dahlia Society Show. Also Missouri Valley Dahlia Association Show, St. Joseph, Mo.

Grown and shown by Mr. A. W. Adams for the Louisville, Ky., show and shown by Mr. Conrad Faust for the show at Atlanta, Ga. Other winnings include—5 A.D.S. Gold Medal Certificates, (top score 86¾ points); First Prize, Open to All competitions, as best cactus, Baltimore, Md., and First Prize and a special award as the Best Seedling, Missouri Valley Dahlia Association Show, St. Joseph, Mo.

Root $15.00 Net-Plant $7.50

The following are first rate new dahlias. Busy with the Patricia Spollen dahlia so had little time to show these two dahlias. The authors of the "Honor Roll" Flower Grower magazine grew these varieties in their own test gardens and rate each highly. They will produce quality flavors, color along with growth are excellent. The only thing wrong with them is my ridiculously low introductory price. Don't let this price fool you.

INDIAN PAINT BRUSH, F.D.—Medium "B" type. Brilliant orange coloring heretofore not seen in dahlias. Mr. Lynn Dudley considers this one most worthy of introduction.

Root $5.00 Net-Plant $2.50

ROSEGLOW, F.D.— Medium "B" type. Blend of colors giving a pleasing effect. Gold color at base of each petal with rose-red showing on edges and tip. Mr. Conrad Faust was impressed after seeing it flower in his Atlanta, Ga. garden. He stated "beautiful flower" and while this remark is brief it's to the point.

Root $5.00 Net—Plant $2.50
