HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the
Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, March 22

PRESIDENT KENNEDY and Premier Khrushchev have agreed that Russia and the United States should cooperate in an experimental long-distance communications program involving artificial satellites, in space projects to develop more accurate weather forecasting and study the earth's magnetic field, in an information exchange to facilitate mutual progress in the field of space medicine, and in a mutual aid system for tracking space probes.

The Russian Premier, in a Wednesday message to the American President, expressed his country's willingness to work with the United States in exploring space, perhaps even participate, some day, in a joint US-USSR moon landing. Mr. Kennedy, at his press conference later in the day, told newsmen he was pleased by Khrushchev's reply, and had instructed deputy administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration Dr. Hugh Dryden as well as American members of the United Nations Space Committee to meet with Soviet representatives for a "specific ideas" discussion.

The first US-USSR space cooperation session took place barely four hours later, in New York, and present plans call for more detailed discussions to begin next Tuesday, presumably under UN Space Committee auspices.

THE MICHIGAN HOUSE of Representatives yesterday approved, by an overwhelming majority, a "blue law" bill aimed at halting most Sunday retail sales in Michigan's metropolitan counties. The measure was passed without a word of debate, by a vote of 86 to 12, and forwarded to the Senate.

To avoid charges of religious discrimination, merchants in the affected areas would be given the option of staying open either Saturday or Sunday. Banned Sunday sale articles would include clothing, furniture, home appliances, hardware, building materials, jewelry, toys, house trailers, radios, televisions, and most dry goods, as well as many other items. Auto sales are already barred on Sunday.

SECRETARY OF STATE Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko yesterday exchanged accusations at the 17-nation disarmament conference in Geneva, each charging the other's government with precipitating a new nuclear testing race. The Geneva conference is stymied, as many such conferences have been in the past, by the Soviet Union's refusal to accept any disarmament program which includes a system of international controls. Both Britain and the United States are adamant on this point, and Rusk has suggested that the USSR may be purposefully deadlocking the conference in order to arrange for a new nuclear test series of its own.

Memorial Church To Dedicate Fine Addition Sunday

Pastor Emeritus Dr. and Mrs. Frank Fitt to be Special Guests at Special Service at 2 P.M.; New Library Honors Him

The Grosse Pointe Memorial Church (United Presbyterian) will dedicate its new addition on Sunday, April 1. The members of the congregation and their families have been invited to attend services at certain hours, based on the alphabetical listing of their names.

The first service at 2 p.m. will be held for the Session and Trustees, who will act as hosts with their wives for the other visitors which will take place at 20 minute intervals, beginning at 2:30.

At the 2 o'clock service, guests of honor will be Dr. and Mrs. Frank Fitt. Dr. Fitt is Pastor Emeritus of the Church, and the new library has been given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Fitt.

Also in attendance will be the trustees of the Barbour Foundation, who have given the Barbour Chapel in memory of Edith Henry and Edwin Scott Barbour. The new addition includes, besides the Fitt Library and the Barbour Chapel, a Fellowship Hall "dedicated to all who gave of their personal time and material substance to the physical and spiritual expansion of The Grosse Pointe Memorial Church 1960-1962."

The Church School teachers will be in the rooms to explain the facilities. A Crib Room for babies under one year of age is a new facility in the building, together with class rooms for all ages, and the Youth Lounge.

Members of the Building Committee were: — John A. Dodds, chairman; Ben W. Beyer, vice-chairman; Mrs. Fred W. Adams, H. Sanborn Brown, William H. Coddington, Edward F. Glanz, Mrs. Martin B. Hutchinson, John V. Kuivinen, Lewis M. Leisinger, Arnold F. Malow, Robert E. McKean, L. Lamar Newberry, Raymond C. Smith and Foster Winter.

Those who served on the Building Construction Committee are: — Samuel C. Turner, chairman; Ben W. Beyer, H. Sanborn Brown, John A. Dodds and John V. Kuivinen.

On Sunday, April 8, there will be an open house for the entire community from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Park to Plant Cherry Trees

The Park will pay half the cost of the planting of 30 cherry trees of the Kawan species, it was disclosed at a Park council meeting on Monday, March 26. The planting will be in about three weeks.

The trees to be planted, when in full bloom, will have pink blossoms, but will never bear fruit, City Manager Robert Slone informed the members of the council. They are a patented variety, he said.

The planting is part of the program to "Keep Grosse Pointe Park Beautiful" and will be in the business sections in Kercheval and Jefferson avenues.

Slone said the cost of the trees will total $2,400, of which the Park will pay half, and the businessmen of both streets will pay the other half.

Babe Ruth League Leaders Miffed at Woods Officials

Officials and other leaders of the Woods-Shores Babe Ruth Baseball League are in accord with the Woods' program of creating and maintaining Little League Baseball diamonds, as part of the city's recreation policy. However, they are miffed because the city has not included a diamond for the Babe Ruthers.

George Foster of 1971 Broadstone, who was president of the Woods-Shores League in 1961, charged that Woods city officials appear to ignore the Babe Ruth League, especially regarding a promised baseball diamond that was supposed to have been for the Babe Ruthers.

The issue was brought to a head by Foster, who read an article in the March 22 issue of the NEWS, in which it was

Completion of Fries Auditorium This Year Will Greatly Add to Facilities

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association will launch its annual Family Participation Campaign this Sunday, (April 1), to raise $60,000 from residents of the five Grosse Pointes.

Thomas E. Groehn, president of the Memorial Center's board of directors, reports that letters requesting contributions have been mailed to 15,000 Grosse Pointe families and others interested in the Memorial Center.

Part of Mr. Groehn's letter was devoted to a description of the Center's new half-million dollar auditorium and banquet ballroom, now under construction. Officially called the William Hayes Fries Memorial Auditorium, the new building will enlarge the Center's facilities for programs and activities.

To Meet Deficit

Mr. Groehn pointed out that the annual fund-raising drive is designed to make up the operating deficit the Memorial Center is expected to incur this year.

"We are asked to give the sum of $60,000 to insure the continued full use of the living memorial that honors those who served and those who died for our country," he said.

"Last year, 100,000 men and women, boys and girls used the Center. This year, with the addition of the Fries Auditorium, thousands more will enjoy the unique advantage the Center offers to our community."

Mr. Groehn said that the Memorial Center does not receive funds from the United Foundation or money raised through taxes. He made it clear, however, that all gifts to the Center are tax deductible.

He also said that almost 4,000 families participated in last year's campaign, contributing a total of $51,301.

Is Important Year

Earlier, at a kick-off breakfast for campaign leaders, Mr. Groehn said that 1962 would be an important year for the Center. He pointed out that the coming months would see the completion of the Fries Auditorium, giving the Grosse Pointe communities expanded opportunities for cultural and recreational programs. He also said that, sometime this year, the Center would welcome its one-millionth Grosse Pointer.

Serving on the campaign committee are, in addition to Mr. Groehn, Thomas L. Munson, campaign chairman, and Alger Sheldon, Donald M. D. Thurber, Theodore H. Mecke, Jr., and Henry B. Joy, Jr.

The Memorial Center, now in its 13th year, provides a meeting place for many Grosse Pointe organizations, supplying meeting rooms, staff assistance and a complete catering service. The Center is an active art center and the home of the Grosse Pointe Garden Center and trial gardens. It also schedules exhibits, displays, concerts, theatrical programs and teenage and adult activities throughout the year.

Organized in 1949, the Center is a memorial to Grosse Pointe men and women who died in World War II and the Korean War.

Suits Disappear In Farms Store

Three lady's suits valued at a total of $200 were reported missing from the Hughes-Hatcher-Suffrin Store, Mack and Moross, by the manager, Edmund J. Hacias of 19643 Spencer, Detroit.

Hacias told Farms police that the suits were discovered missing on Thursday, March 15.

The garments were described as: two-piece woolen Chanel jacket suit, gray with black trim, valued at $80; three-piece knit suit, Navy blue, valued at $60; and a three-piece knit suit, beige, valued at $60.

The case is being investigated by Det. Sgts. George Van Tiem and Jack Paisley.

Set Clean-Up Campaign for May 1 to 8

Council of Garden Clubs Again Sponsoring Drive and Sale of Flowering Shrubs

The Spring Clean-up Campaign sponsored by the Council of Grosse Pointe Garden Clubs has been set for the week of May 1 to May 8 this year.

A sale of Viburnum Tomentosum Mariesi on April 27 and 28 will replace the Flowering Crab Tree sale formerly held in connection with the "Clean-up, Paint-up and Plant-up" campaign.

Mrs. Pierre V. Hefler is president of the Council and Mrs. Emil Leidich is chairman of the sale. Assisting in the drive will be Mrs. Donald Hughes in charge of contacting the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and Y-Teens.

Miss Christine Edwards will oversee vacant properties in the Pointes. Mrs. Irving Clark has contacted the schools for posters and Mrs. Joseph Cary is organizing the school grounds contest. Mrs. Glenn Gessell is contacting the heads of the municipalities.

Others helping in the organization are Mrs. Clarence Maquire, Mrs. Harold Gumpfer, Mrs. David Gillis and Mrs. Bert Lindzay.

Litterbags will be sold to help the anti-littering campaign to keep these communities ones in which all can "Pointe With Pride."

Police Nab Young Burglar; Clear 21 Thefts, 2 in Park

Detroit police of the Jefferson Station, Fifth Precinct, arrested Thomas M. Hogsett, 18, of 3050 Gray, Detroit, for investigation of burglary, and cleared 21 breakings and enterings, including two committed in the Park.

The youth was arraigned before Recorder's Court Judge John P. Scallon on Saturday, March 17, the date of his arrest, and entered a plea of not guilty and waived examination. Unable to meet a bond of $1,000, Hogsett was remanded to the Wayne County Jail until trial in Circuit Court.

A hold was placed against Hogsett by the Wayne County Probation Department. The youth was on probation for a previous burglary.

Many Residents Contribute Outstanding Donations to War Memorial Center

Tapestries, Paintings, Rugs and Furniture All Help to Make Beautiful Mansion One of Country's Finest Community Headquarters

By Betty Collins

If Grosse Pointers could be taken on a tour of their War Memorial similar to Mrs. John F. Kennedy's recent television tour of the White House, they would notice, perhaps for the first time, that many of the lovely War Memorial furnishings are fine examples of work that was done in days of the past.

As the White House was furnished historically to the greatness of our nation, so would a study of the War Memorial furnishings reveal the interest of many persons who made important contributions to the development of Grosse Pointe.

When the Russell A. Alger family donated their lovely lakeshore mansion to be used as a center for the citizens of Grosse Pointe, it was largely unfurnished. It was March, of 1949, when the final papers were signed and two months would elapse before the building was to be opened officially to local residents.

Village Stores Extending Hours

Thirty-six stores in The Village shopping Center, between Cadieux and Neff roads along Kercheval avenue, have agreed to stay open until 9 o'clock each Thursday night, for added convenience for their customers.

Things To Be Used
Purists among the local art lovers are sometimes dismayed when they see priceless Oriental rugs which cover the Memorial floors being trampled by thousands of feet. They often watch with horror as gorgeous materials which cover davenport, benches, and chairs gradually become frayed and worn from constant use by the many people who think of the War Memorial as their second home. Fortunately, the generous people who furnished the War Memorial feel strongly that beautiful things are made to be lived with and enjoyed.

Material things cannot last forever. Yet the treasures which have been given to the War Memorial can impart a love of beauty and a sense of past achievement which will never be forgotten by the people who enjoy them.

It would be impossible to compile a complete list of the beautiful furnishings which have been given to the War Memorial. Many of these things, such as fine linens and beautiful silver serving dishes, are not seen every day. Like the appointments in any home, they are used for special occasions,

Park Patrolman James LaPratt, working with the plainclothes detail in the Park Detective Bureau, questioned Hogsett at the County Jail.

Hogsett told the officer that

Police Halt Rocketeers' Experiments

Budding Scientists Told Not to Try to Orbit Their Inventions from City Street

Two budding scientists were told by City police to perform their rocket experiments under "controlled" conditions after their moonshot was mistaken for a homemade bomb on Monday, March 19.

A Michigan Bell Telephone Co. employee approached Officer Richard G. Elworthy early that morning, while the officer was making a regular patrol inspection of Stratford place, newly developed area at the foot of St. Clair, and informed the policeman that something resembling a homemade bomb had been placed at the end of the street.

The "bomb" was a peculiar-looking, cylindrical object with a wick attached. A cigarette had been lit and positioned to ignite the fuse, but had gone out, and the object was resting peacefully in the middle of the road.

A little later, two boys drove up in a Ford convertible, picked up the "bomb", and drove off.

City police apprehended the juveniles, who explained that they were simply experimenting with rockets and meant no harm. They were told to do their experimenting elsewhere, and released with a warning.

To Air Hospital Parking Problem

A public hearing on expanding the Bon Secours Hospital parking lot to 25 feet off the Maumee and Notre Dame property lines has been scheduled for Monday evening, April 16, at the Neighborhood Club. The hearing will begin at 7:30 p.m., and will be followed by a regular council meeting.

At present, the hospital maintains a 70-foot setback on the area in question. In order to increase off-street parking facilities, as directed by the City Council, a percentage of this setback must be added to the present parking lot.

Both hospital authorities and residents of the area, who have vociferously objected to the overflow from the hospital parking lot spilling out into side streets, blocking driveways and generally hindering traffic, are in favor of a 25-foot setback.

Foundation for Exceptional Children Tells Its Story

A comprehensive coverage of the Grosse Pointes with information about the program of the Foundation for Exceptional Children is now underway. Members of the Board of Trustees, special Parent's and Mother's Committees are undertaking the project of telling the Foundation's story to every church, service and community group, to every parent's organization and to all individuals interested in the School's program throughout the entire area.

Also asked to cooperate in this huge public information effort are the various organizations who have contributed to the support of the Foundation, a list of which was printed in full in last week's edition of the NEWS. Specially assigned speakers are appearing at all meetings, thanking them for their early interest and support and telling them of the School's new plans.

At groups where both men and women are in attendance, Parent's Committee teams are speaking; members of the Mother's Committee are covering all women's organizations and other daytime events. The Mother's Committee is also staffing the daily visiting hours at the School, when all Grosse Pointe residents are invited to see the program in action from 10 until 2, Mondays through Fridays. Reprints of the Foundation's full page ad in last week's News are being distributed widely.

In contacting their many friends in this public information project, members of the Foundation's Board discovered that almost everyone wanted to "testify" about some phase of the humanitarian or professional aspect of the School's program. For example, the Rev. Erville B. Maynard, Minister of Christ Church and benevolent "landlord" of the present school, volunteered this statement, not only for publication but also one he plans to incorporate into a pulpit message:

"The School for Exceptional Children was invited by the Vestry of Christ Church to occupy Miller Hall last June and for many months we have had the pleasure of having these children as nearer neighbors than they were when they occupied the Quonset hut at the high school. A number of our parishioners serve as volunteers and the children have play periods in the rectory yard in good weather. We operate as well in the nearby parish house a nursery school for three and four-year-old children. The Foundation's School is very close to neighbors on Meadow Lane and we have nothing but the best relations with everyone with whom the children, parents and teachers have come in daily contact.

"We have considered this program an excellent opportunity for serving these retarded children and are glad to have them in our midst."

Robert Weber, President of the Board of Education of Grosse Pointe, who has always had great humanitarian concern for handicapped persons, told of the present cooperative planning for recreational areas, a matter of controversy in connection with the building of the new school. In conversation with Mrs. John Bockstanz, one of the founding trustees, Mr. Weber said:

"The Board of Education welcomes all community groups in furnishing use of school buildings after school hours.

"Our association in the past with all recreational and community organizations, including Little League, Cub and Boy Scouts, and church groups, has been most satisfying and we look forward to continued cooperation throughout the Pointe area."

Clifford A. Benson, M.D., Chief of Surgical Services at Children's Hospital and one of the seven leading physicians and surgeons forming the Foundation's Medical Advisory Group, feels that:

"One of the many areas of hope for these handicapped children is orthopedic surgery which is both remedial and rehabilitating in its scope. We are constantly encouraged by the new performance levels which these youngsters attain and how they achieve acceptable and improved development."

"At Children's Hospital we consider this one of our greatest challenges."

Many of the Junior League volunteers who regularly staff the school's group work and recreational program and are in daily contact with these deprived youngsters, wanted to go on record, too. This is their joint statement.

"Since the foundation started its first classes in the Neighborhood Club in 1955, over 100 Junior League volunteers have assisted in the various phases of their program. Volunteer work is always a two-way street and while we are giving, our efforts to the training of these rewarding children, we are adding to our own knowledge and experience in this vital community service... one which we consider a very special privilege."

And perhaps most telling of all are statements from some of the Parent's Organization of the School, called together by president of the board, Joseph Tapert, D.D.S., and James Leavy, president of the group. They spontaneously offered such testimonials as these:

"One cannot describe the marked improvement in our child since she started going to the Foundation's School. She can now do many things for herself, can communicate more freely, and relates to other people in a more normal way."

"Our son has become a new person since he has associated with other children of his own performance level at the school. He looks forward so eagerly to each day that he can hardly wait for the station wagon to pick him up each morning. His 'going to school' as the other children in the neighborhood gives him a status he never had before."

"One of the great contributions of the Foundation's program is what it does for parents. For in addition to the training of our child, we have learned to accept and to understand this difficult situation in our family. When our lad first started at the school two years ago, I could not even talk about him, there were many of our friends and my business associates who never knew I even had a son, yet now I can talk about him like any Dad, proud of his development and eager to tell about the school's facilities and program."

Park, Detroit Sign Fire Pact

The Park signed an agreement with the Detroit Board of Fire Commissioners on Wednesday, March 14, for standby fire protection service. The contract became effective immediately.

The pact was signed by Mayor Kenneth Cunningham and City Clerk Charles Heise, and officials of the Detroit Fire Commission.

By taking immediate effect, the standby service will cost the Park $341.09 for the balance of the fiscal year which ends on June 30.

The annual cost to the Park for this service will be $1,152.76, based on three cents a $1,000 county equalized assessed valuation on city buildings only, and not land property.

The annual fee will vary, according to readjustment of property values by the county each year. The present valuation on Park buildings set by the county is $38,425,480, it was disclosed.

The Park is the second Pointe to avail itself of such service with Detroit. It had such a contract before, but it was terminated in 1954 by Detroit, through a misunderstanding over a payment of a bill Detroit claimed was owed by the Park.

The only other Pointe with a standby contract with Detroit is the Farms, which has had it for years.

Lake Township Residents Ask School District Change

Residents of the smallest township in Michigan, Lake Township, will meet with Wayne County and Macomb County Boards of Education officials at South Lake High School on Wednesday, April 4, at 8 p.m., to discuss the residents' petition of a transfer from the South Lake School District to the Grosse Pointe School District.

Transfer petitions bearing approximately 55 signatures, have been presented to the school boards of both counties, and the boards scheduled a meeting on the situation.

Supt. John W. Lewis of the South Lake School District in St. Clair Shores, announced that he will argue against the transfer.

Superintendent of Pointe Public Schools, Dr. James Bushong, said he knew of the matter, but will not take part, and will keep hands off the issue. The Grosse Pointe Board of Education also announced a neutral attitude.

Affected is about one-third of Grosse Pointe Shores village land, which extends into Macomb County.

The man who spearheaded the drive for the transfer and who initiated the circulation of the petition is Arthur J. Berk of 80 Shorecrest circle.

Berk said that he obtained at least one signature from each of the 40 homes in the little township, but all residents were unanimously agreed that there should be a transfer.

He said that the matter is not a political issue, but as it stands now, it was felt that the issue should be brought before the Wayne and Macomb school officials for a decision. Only the home owners in the township will be affected, he pointed out.

Berk said that all the home owners in the township felt that because they are an integral part of Grosse Pointe Shores, they should be included in the Grosse Pointe School District. He said that the residents feel that they are a part of the Pointe District.

He said that if the request for transfer is turned down at Wednesday's meeting, the residents will appeal to the State Board of Education.

"We live in Grosse Pointe Shores and feel that we are part of the Pointe School District," Berk said. "We also feel that our children should attend schools in the Pointe District and not be 'bussed' out to other schools."

There are about 30 children in the affected area, and half of these attend parochial schools, or are enrolled on a special tuition basis at schools in the Pointe District.

Berk said that the parents of the children object to the higher tuition levied because they live in another district.

He said that when he and his family moved into Lake Township a few years ago, only a few families were affected. A majority of the people who came into the area were informed that they were not in the Pointe School District, Berk claimed.

He said that a number of the people went to the Shores Village Hall to register for Pointe school elections and were informed they did not qualify because they were not in the Pointe District.

The home owner said that he and his neighbors were not concerned that the transfer might mean more taxes for the area. The Grosse Pointe School District has a school tax rate of $23.16 per $1,000 of state equalized assessments, as compared to $19.41 per $1,000 in the South Lake District.

Supt. Lewis said the affected area has a state equalized assessed valuation of $2,268,546, which brings in more than $40,000 in annual taxes to his district. Its valuation is still growing, he said.

He said that the transfer could be achieved by combined county board action without a public vote because the area accounts for less than 10 percent of South Lake District's total $75,500,000 valuation.

Lewis said that the area traditionally belongs in his district, since St. Clair Shores at one time was known as Lake Township. He predicted confusion in county and local government if such a transfer goes through.

Berk said that only residents living in the township will be heard at the meeting. Each resident will be given the right to have his or her say, without an opportunity of rebuttal. After that, the decision will be decided between the county officials.

He urged all property owners involved to attend the meeting and make their voices heard.

Woods Adopts Of Budget Prep

Preparation of the Woods of fiscal budget for 1962-63, will be based on a new and different method, never used in this area before, according to Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen. It is called "Performance Budgeting".

In a letter to all the department heads of the city, Petersen outlined a complete change of format, utilizing the principle of the so-called "Performance Budget" which has so recently been proclaimed as the most advanced and accurate method of governmental budgeting, he stated.

Various new forms will be utilized, which are fairly self-explanatory and should not be too complicated after being reviewed at a subsequent department head meeting.

"Preparation of the annual budget is probably the most important service that we perform together each year," Petersen stated in the letter. "The budget estimates, carefully prepared, present a program of service—interpreted in dollars—which is important to the health, safety, welfare and convenience of every citizen in Grosse Pointe Woods."

He said that budget time should be a time of "searching review of past spending and savings" and of thoughtful and careful plans for the future.

He pointed out that department heads should not be bound by precedent and continue year after year performing the same service or making expenditures which may no longer be needed. Especially, he added, when changing circumstances may indicate the desirability of major and almost revolutionary operational concepts in order to gear the functions of city government to meet the demands of modern city needs.

Petersen said that officials should strive to take advantage of the many achievements, advancements and technical "know-how" of this space age. Thus, "all existing services or activities should be reviewed carefully" to determine if they are still desirable and essential, or whether or not some could be reduced or eliminated in favor of more feasible services or activities.

He stressed that the principle

Woods Adopts New Type Of Budget Preparation

Preparation of the Woods fiscal budget for 1962-63, will be based on a new and different method, never used in this area before, according to Woods.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen. It is called "Performance Budgeting".

In a letter to all the department heads of the city, Petersen outlined a complete change of format, utilizing the principle of the so-called "Performance Budget" which has recently been proclaimed as the most advanced and accurate method of governmental budgeting, he stated.

Various new forms will be utilized, which are fairly self-explanatory and should not be too complicated after being reviewed at a subsequent department head meeting.

"Preparation of the annual budget is probably the most important service that we perform together each year," Petersen stated in the letter.

The budget estimates, carefully prepared, present a program of service—interpreted in dollars—which is important to the health, safety, welfare and convenience of every citizen in Grosse Pointe Woods.

He said that budget time should be a time of "searching review of past spending and savings" and of thoughtful and careful plans for the future.

He pointed out that department heads should not be bound by precedent and continue year after year performing some service or making expenditures which may no longer be needed. Especially, he added, when changing circumstances may indicate the desirability of major and almost revolutionary operational concepts in order to gear the functions of city government to meet the demands of modern city needs.

Petersen said that officials should strive to take advantage of the many achievements, advancements and technical "know-how" of this space age.

Thus, "all existing services or activities should be reviewed carefully" to determine if they are still desirable and essential, or whether or not some could be reduced or eliminated in favor of more feasible services or activities.

He stressed that the principle of "Performance Budgeting" is to place all applicable expenses under any one project or type of service.

"For example," the city administrator stated, "within the Department of Administration, is the division of the 'City Clerk'; within the division of 'City Clerk' is the activity of 'Elections'; within the activity of 'Elections' are the specific objects (expenses) such as personal services, contractual services, current supplies, other expenses and capital outlay.

"In this example, any costs incurred during an election such as election workers' salaries, printing of ballots, vehicle operation, voting machine repair, etc., would be applied to one or another of the 'objects' under the activity of 'Elections'."

Petersen said that this method of allocating expenses is: (1) A way of collecting all applicable expenses under individual areas of responsibility; and (2) these expenses may then be related to certain statistics which could indicate the real "performance" in a particular activity.

"In the example stated," Petersen said, "suppose that in a certain year the election expenses were much higher than the previous year. This looks bad, until it is considered that there were five elections in this certain year and only three in the previous year. This now looks even better when it is noted that the expense per election is lower than the previous year. This is 'Performance Budgeting' at work."

He urged department heads to give careful thought to their budget preparations (turning of midnight oil if necessary), so that their budgets will represent a definite program for the city to follow during the 1962-63 fiscal year, and not simply a projection of past expenditures.

Great Decisions Program Tonight

"Great Decisions—1962" discussion groups meet tonight for their eighth and final session. They will gather at 8 p.m. in the Friends' Room of the Main Library, Kercheval and Fisher, and Room 108, Parcels Junior High School, to consider the problems confronting the United States, problems that perhaps necessitate a change in outlook, both personal and national, in the field of foreign policy.

Emphasis on "winning the cold war" has, in the past few years, led many people to believe that only by completely destroying the communist empire can America achieve her twin goals of "peace and prosperity." But President Kennedy has predicted a long period of "uncertainty and challenge and peril," a twilight time in which neither total victory nor total defeat can be expected.

Mr. Kennedy considers preservation of the peace without detriment to America's vital interests the basic task of the nation's foreign policy makers.

Senator Barry Goldwater, on the other hand, states categorically that "there is no such thing as peaceful coexistence." According to the Arizona Republican, "the great need today is for leadership and direction for winning the cold war. A stalemate will not suffice."

Goldwater believes "convincing the enemy that we would rather follow the world to Kingdom Come than consign it to hell under communism" should be the basic aim of United States foreign policy. He urges Americans to "seize the initiative," to deal consistently and determinedly "from strength," to refuse to compromise.

The Foreign Policy Association — World Affairs Center, sponsors of "Great Decisions—1962," invites all interested Americans to participate in tonight's discussion. Groups are informal, and the program is non-partisan.

Acquire Honors At Science Fair

New Candy Store Opens in Village

Albert Sheetz Candy Company of Birmingham is opening a new candy store in Grosse Pointe this Thursday, March 29, at the corner of Notre Dame and Kercheval. This is the third unit that Albert Sheetz has opened since it was founded less than four months ago.

The company features high quality candy in which only the finest ingredients from all over the world are used. The company makes over 200 different varieties of candy in its factory in Birmingham.

Some of the recipes used by Sheetz date back as far as 1872, according to Mr. Sheetz, executive vice-president and general manager. It was in that year that his great uncle, Elie Sheetz, founded Elie Sheetz, Martha Washington Candies. This company eventually had a chain of 1,100 retail outlets. Many of the formulae that the elder Mr. Sheetz used have been passed down through the Sheetz family and are still in use.

In the early 1920's Mr. Sheetz' father founded Albert Sheetz Mission Candy Company in California and this chain grew to over 100 stores.

Mr. John Albert Sheetz II of the present Sheetz Candy Company learned to make candy and use the recipes that had been handed down through the years. He improved on the formulae and added some new ones. He manufactured candy both in Pennsylvania and in California. In California he founded Curries Candies who are operating today with over 100 stores. When Mr. Sheetz Sr. passed away, Mr. Sheetz II took over the hotel business that his father had started.

But as Mr. Sheetz says, "Once a candy maker always a candy maker." Late last year Mr. John Albert Sheetz decided he wanted to re-enter the candy business and found another chain of candy stores. He has dedicated the Albert Sheetz Candy Company of Michigan to the principle of making good eating candy from only the finest ingredients. He chose Birmingham to open his first factory and store, and soon had a second unit, also in Birmingham.

According to Mr. Sheetz, the popular reception of his candy has been so great that he was most anxious to find a location in Grosse Pointe.

Alert Policemen Nab Car Thieves

Park Patrolmen John Trombley and Bobby McAlister were credited with the recovery of a stolen car and the arrest of two teenagers wanted by Detroit authorities for the theft.

At 2 p. m. on Sunday, March 25, the officers were patrolling Kercheval avenue, when they spotted a car parked on the avenue at Devonshire.

Normally, at this time of day, not much attention is paid to a parked car, but when Trombley and McAlister saw a young driver behind the wheel, they decided to investigate.

The policemen checked the license number of the parked vehicle with the stolen car list in the cruiser and found that the car had been reported stolen. They called the station and had this verified.

The officers approached the car and surprised the occupant, Michael Catalano, 17, of 2532 Lakeview, Detroit, and put him under arrest. The youth told the patrolmen that the car was out of gas, and a companion, a 16-year-old boy, had gone to a gas station for some.

Trombley and McAlister ordered the boy not to make a move and then they waited in their cruiser until the other youth returned with the gas. The officers promptly arrested him.

At the station, the boys confessed to stealing the car from Lozier and Coplin, in Detroit, on Friday, March 23.

The car belonged to Clifton Turner of 2886 Oakman, Detroit, who was notified that the vehicle had been recovered. Catalano and his companion were released to Detroit police for disposition of the case.

Woods Garden Club to Meet

Grosse Pointe Woods Garden Club will meet April 3 in the home of Mrs. Robert Hommel, of Sunningdale road, at 12:30 o'clock. Assisting will be Mrs. Cecil Pollard and Mrs. Lowell Montgomery.

The nominating committee will present the slate of candidates to be voted upon in the May meeting.

HITS BUS IN REAR

City police issued a juvenile court ticket to a 16-year-old boy who failed to stop his car in time for a red light at University and Jefferson, and slammed into the rear of a Lakeshore bus on Monday evening, March 5. The boy, driving a '57 Buick convertible, was charged with car not under control and causing an accident. No one was injured, and damages were minor.

Police Arrest 2 Car Thieves

Woods police filed charges in Wayne County Juvenile Court against two teenage Woods boys accused of stealing an automobile belonging to Dr. Joseph L. Whelan, 44, of 1360 North Oxford road.

The youths, both residents of the Woods, were arrested by Sgt. Allan Selby and Patrolmen Norman Handley and Gerald Kensora on Wednesday, March 21, within 11 minutes after the report of the theft was received.

The car was recovered south of Vernier road, in front of 1287 Sunningdale, with both boys still in the vehicle. The boys, one 16 years old and the other 15 years old, were taken to the station for questioning.

The youths denied taking the car, then made a full confession.

A witness called police at 8:04 p.m., and stated that he had seen a 1960 Mercury pull up alongside Dr. Whelan's car, and a youth jumped out and got into the doctor's 1960 Ford convertible. Then the driver of the Mercury backed up behind the Ford and began to push it.

The three officers, searching the area, came upon the youths with the doctor's automobile, at 8:15 p.m., the 15-year-old behind the wheel.

Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell said that charges have been filed against both boys.

Firemen Praised For Quick Work

A fire in the Staelen Apartments, 17540 Mack, on Sunday, March 25, was extinguished in record time by the City Fire Department.

The blaze, possibly caused by a cigaret, started in an overstuffed lounge chair in the living room of Apartment 7 while John Brady, the apartment's occupant, was asleep in the bedroom.

Patrolman Edward H. Behrend, seeing smoke, gave the alarm from the box at University and Mack, and the fire department responded with both units.

Upon entering the apartment, firemen found smoke had permeated the rooms and was lying only a foot off the floor. They put out the flames and carried the smoldering chair outside.

Brady, who had made his way unassisted to the outer hall, was uninjured. The entire operation was executed in 29 minutes.

Albert Staelen, 867 Lakeland, one of the owners of the apartments, publicly commended the City Fire Department for its fine job, and signaled out Officer Behrend for his alertness. "You hear a lot about fire and police when something goes wrong," Mr. Staelen said. "Let's give credit where credit is due. They did a fine job in averting what could have been a tragedy."

Films of Tibet To Be Shown

Trekking the Tibetan Border with Earl Brink will be the exciting travelogue to be shown on April 25, at 8 o'clock, at Parcels Junior High School Auditorium. These color motion pictures taken by Mr. Brink in Asia's "Trouble-Spot" are illustrated with native background music.

Covering many of the miles of the lovely Himalayas by foot, Mr. Brink has recorded some of the world's most stupendous scenery much of which has never before been photographed.

Proceeds from the show will benefit the American Field Service, a non-profit organization, which has provided the Grosse Pointe area with foreign exchange students from such countries as Japan, Sweden, Norway, Chile, Italy, Argentine and Turkey. At present there are high school students from Brazil, Austria, Indonesia and Denmark. The American Field Service's aim, better understanding among nations of the world, is realized in this student exchange program.

Wallace J. Cruickshank is the chairman of the Grosse Pointe branch and Mrs. Edward Taube, Jr. is ticket chairman. The tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. They are available at the Chet Sampson Travel Agency on the Hill, Punch and Judy Toyland on the Hill, in the Village at the Camera Center and York Jewelers and on Mack avenue at Harkness Pharmacy, and Norm Archer's Sport Shop and on Fisher road at Monday Cleaners.

Helping Mr. Cruickshank and Mrs. Taube are Mrs. William Raven, Mr. and Mrs. William Brink, Mrs. John Bockstanz, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mr. Clifton Ashton, Mrs. Arthur Bartholomew, Mr. William Selheim and Mrs. William Adams.

American Red Cross workers at U.S. military stations and hospitals in this country and overseas last year counseled an average of 76,600 servicemen each month on personal and family problems and provided emergency communications and financial assistance.

Center Offers Art Lectures

"The Exploration of Art," a series of eight lectures devoted to a chronological survey of art, will be offered at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on Thursdays beginning April 5, from 8 to 10 p.m., by Jerome Pryor, formerly on the staff of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Mr. Pryor, an artist who has been represented in exhibits both national and local, and by a number of murals in the city, will approach the history of art from the standpoint of the artist, rather than the historian. It is hoped that this approach will provide the creative artist with information and stimulation that will relate directly to his own work, while providing the art novice with an appreciation of art that is based on primary considerations.

Demonstrations of materials and color slides will be used to illustrate the periods of art from ancient times to present. Painting, drawing, sculpture, ceramics, furniture, weaving and glass will be covered in an attempt to present each period as fully as possible. The artist's means of conveying thought and feeling by means of line, color design, volume and light will be emphasized in relationship to the thought of the times in which the artist worked.

The art of ancient Egypt, Greece and Rome will be covered in addition to the middle ages, the Renaissance, Baroque and Rococo periods. Concluding the eight week session will be discussions of the Impressionists such as Claude Monet and Camille Pissarro, the post-impressionists Degas, Gauguin, and Cezanne, and more contemporary painters such as Jackson Pollock and Picasso. Important works will be given detailed analyses.

Color Travel Films Offered

"This Amazing America," a directory of 13 color travelogues available without charge for showing by civic groups and other organizations, has been newly-published by Automobile Club of Michigan according to George Measel, manager of the Club's Grosse Pointe division.

Ranging in length from 25 minutes to an hour, the films include visits to the most scenic parts of the country, including the Smoky Mountains, Yellowstone National Park, the Gulf Coast and the Southwest.

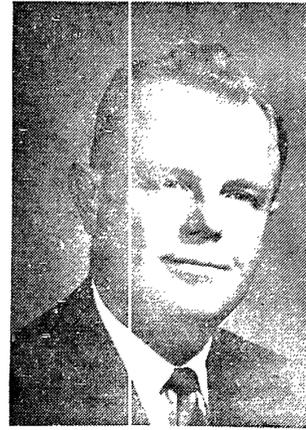

Several of the films are outdoor adventures. Among them are "River of No Return," a photographic record of an eight-day voyage aboard a rubber raft down Idaho's rapid-strewn Salmon River, and "Trail of the Explorers," a historical re-tracing of Cadillac's route from Montreal, Canada, to where he founded Detroit.

Most films are narrated in person by Larry E. Sommerfeld, Auto Club travel cameraman and lecturer. Some films, however, are equipped with sound tracks and may be borrowed for showing to groups of 30 persons or less.

Copies of the directory and arrangements for travelogue showings may be obtained at any AAA office or by writing the Club's Motor News Department, 139 Bagley, Detroit 26.

Think before you speak, and you'll have plenty of time to listen. Some folks don't care what happens—if it doesn't happen to them.

Adam Puts Car In Economy Run

A Grosse Pointe Farms auto dealer has entered a car in the auto industry's toughest road performance test at the end of this month.

Frank Adam Lincoln-Mercury, 139 Kercheval avenue has entered a Lincoln Continental in the Mobil Economy Run, March 31-April 5, which will roll 46 cars over a rugged course reaching more than 2,000 miles from Los Angeles to Detroit.

Adams entry will be competing for mileage miser honors against four other cars in its class for luxury models. The classes are determined by body and engine size, according to the United States Auto Club, the run's governing body.

Prior to their arrival at the Detroit finish line at Cobo Hall, the fuel-saver fleet will make overnight stops in Flagstaff, Arizona; Tucuman, New Mexico; Tulsa, Oklahoma; St. Louis, Missouri and Chicago, Illinois.

The Grosse Pointe Farms entry, as are all other cars entered, now is under 24-hour surveillance of USAC as it is prepared for run competition. Each entrant is allowed to be driven 1,500 break-in miles. It will be tuned to standard setting recommended by factory manuals, sealed, then improved until the start.

1962 Family Participation Campaign

GOAL $60,000

A GREAT GIFT—A REAL CHALLENGE

A great gift to the Grosse Pointe communities — and a real challenge to all Grosse Pointers — is pictured on the cover of this folder.

To the left of the familiar C building, as seen from the lake, is architect's sketch, is the new quarter million dollar Wil Hayes Fries Auditorium, an addition to the magnificent home and grounds donated more than ten years ago by the Russell Alger family.

The Fries Auditorium is the legacy left to all of us by the man whom it is named. He was a life member in our community for nearly 40 years. He knew the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center and he realized its potential for service to entire community. He saw the need for expansion of the Center's facilities and, in a most generous manner, he provided for this need in his will.

Auditorium, thousands more will enjoy the unique advantages the Center offers to our community.

Through its modest fees and to the 1962 Family Participation Campaign.

Last year, 3,874 families — about 25% of the 15,000 families who live in the five Grosse Pointes — took part in this campaign.

Many Gifts Given Center

for the many dinners and parties which are held at the War Memorial.

Many Things Moved

Also, much of the actual furniture in the Memorial is moved from room to room, as it is needed, making it impossible to pinpoint exactly where a given item can be found at any one time.

The families who donated the lovely furnishings of the War Memorial did not do so for personal recognition. Many of them are reluctant to be pointed out as community benefactors. A large number of these families donated many objects to the Memorial. We will discuss a few of the items of particular interest, bearing in mind that there are hundreds more given by the families who are mentioned, and many others.

Hanging in the stairwell are five, 12-foot, 17th century silk velvet wall panels. The designs are of varied sizes, but they have the same general pattern of urns, flowers, and buds worked with gold metallic threads on a red velvet background. These were given by Mrs. Russell A. Alger, who also donated, more recently, a sixth panel which is hanging downstairs.

Other Alger Gifts

Among Mrs. Alger's many other gifts to the War Memorial are four 17th century Dante carved walnut chairs. They have leather seats and backs. Two are on the landing of the stairway, leading to the second floor. The other two are in the second floor hallway. Mrs. Alger also donated a sum of money which largely furnished the old Veteran's room in the basement.

Mrs. Alger's daughter, Mrs. Nils Johansson, contributed an unusual and lovely console table, which is in the library. It has a white marble top, supported on four carved, tapered gilded legs.

Hanging above the fireplace in the Memorial's dining room is a painting done by Edmond Osthaus in the early 20th Century. One of the most valuable paintings in the building, it was contributed by Theodore D. Buhl and the late Mrs. Buhl.

Many Lovely Rugs

The large Oriental rug which covers the dining room floor was given by Mr. and Mrs. Sidney R. Small. An Oriental runner which is used in the Old Library was contributed by Mr. and Mrs. William A. Fisher. Of particular note in this runner are the lovely colors. Predominant background color is wine. Forming a design of trees, flowers, and birds, are varied shades of reds, blues, and greens.

The many Oriental rugs which are to be found in the War Memorial deserve careful scrutiny by visitors to the building. They are among the loveliest of all the furnishings and are valued, depending upon size and composition, from many hundreds of dollars, up to $8,000.

Gifts from Kanzlers

The Ernest Kanzlers are another family which has made many contributions to the War Memorial. In the Old Library, is an unusually lovely oak cupboard, or Hutch, of the 17th century, or Jacobean period. Also from the Kanzlers are four Spanish chairs used on the first floor, painted gold and white. They are of the 17th or early 18th century.

In the library, is a small, Italian coffer which was donated by Mrs. Edsel Ford. It is of the 17th century.

The large, Jacobean coffer in the library is another of the most interesting pieces in the War Memorial. Dated 1664, it was one of the items contributed by Mrs. Standish Backus.

Other Prized Items

Another item of particular interest which is in the library is a miniature Italian cabinet given by Mrs. Howard Smith. It is also a 17th century piece.

A former Grosse Pointer, Mrs. Arthur Gardner contributed four armchairs in the upstairs hallway. The Gardners are now of Washington, D. C. and Mr. Gardner was U. S. ambassador to Cuba during the Batista regime.

In the downstairs hallway is one of many gifts made by Mr. Tannahill. It is an interesting and beautiful Swedish bench, of the 17th century, the same period as English Jacobean.

The two large tapestries which are hanging in the living room are of the 17th century. Among the most valuable tapestries in the War Memorial, they were given to Grosse Pointe by French and Company, a New York concern.

Gave Lovely Epergne

Mrs. Stephen T. Stackpole contributed the large (20-inch) silver plated epergne which is a favorite of many people who have taken particular note of the appointments in the War Memorial. Four arm brackets supported by semi-nude female figures, festoons, and rams heads, have removable silver urns with ornamented handles.

Among the many gifts of the Alger Sheldens are a pair of bronze candelabra, also used in the dining room. Many fine modern gifts have

FLORA HARDING CIRCULATION

The Woods Election

Candidates' rallies, more often than not, are shunned like the plague, with the voting populace displaying a marked apathy toward hearing what prospective office seekers have to say in their own behalf. There will be another of these gatherings Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Grosse Pointe Woods Municipal Building, and there are indications that it might produce some enlightening and interesting questions and answers.

Qualified electors of the Woods will go to the polls next Monday to cast ballots for a mayor, municipal judge and three councilmen. Mayor Kenneth Koppin will not seek reelection and Councilman Kenneth McLeod is unopposed for this office. Judge Don Goodrow is also unopposed for reelection. Eight candidates will battle it out at the polls for the three council seats which must be filled.

Possible fireworks at the Candidates Rally Friday night hinge on what appears to be considerable curiosity which has been aroused by the political aspirations of two of the candidates for council. Our phone has been jingling and we have received communications which allege that the voting records of these candidates reflect a marked disinterest in the affairs of their municipality up to this election time. One of them is said to have neglected to register to vote for more than two years after he moved into the Woods in 1958, and then for the sole purpose of casting a ballot in the 1960 Presidential Election. According to those who have investigated the records, he did not vote in either Con-Con election.

The alleged record of the second candidate is even worse. He is said to have moved into the Woods nine years ago and never registered until it was necessary before he could file his nominating petition to seek election next Monday. It is claimed that he has never voted for a single person now holding office in the Woods, and didn't even bother to qualify to vote in the Presidential Election.

It is also being charged that a false issue has been injected in this election by one of the candidates who implies that there is a move afoot to permit more bars and taverns to open in the Woods. It should be pointed out that more than 10 years ago the voters of the Woods themselves restricted the number of bars, and in order for more to be admitted the issue must be submitted to a referendum.

It is to be presumed that pointed questions pertaining to these matters will be put to the candidates at Friday night's session. This is the place for a wringing out of such issues, where the office seeker has a chance to tell his side of the story.

We recommend attendance at the rally as a preparatory measure toward casting an intelligent ballot. Even more strongly do we recommend that every qualified voter go to the polls next Monday and exercise this precious privilege.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
Your newspaper has made a mistake in its reporting. It may be an insignificant mistake, but still it is one. It appeared on page one of the News this past March 22nd. In the article, "High State Post Sought by Gust," you stated, "Rockwell T. Gust, of Cloverly Road, Delegate to the Constitutional Convention, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Lieutenant Governor." This statement is incorrect. It should have read: "Rockwell T. Gust, Jr., of Muskoka road, Delegate to the Constitutional Convention, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Lieutenant Governor."

I think it would be a good idea if you would inform your readers of this mistake immediately. After this, be sure that you get the facts straight the first time, so that something like this never happens again.
Robert B. Squires, Jr.
Editor's Note: Yes, SIR! Mr. Squires. But in checking our original copy on this, sent from Mr. Gust's headquarters, the Junior was not used. Better write him and get him straightened out too.

How the Chinese Do It

By FRED KOPP, R.Ph.

Legend has it that Chinese doctors used to be paid only while their patients were healthy, got no fee during illness. It almost sounds reasonable. In fact, there are physicians today who specialize in keeping their patients healthy. Preventive medicine, it's called. All doctors practice it as much as they can. If you get regular checkups, your doctor has a chance to keep you from getting sick. Modern drugs play a large part in this practice, and that's where we pharmacists come in. But only you can make preventive medicine work—by getting into the habit of regular checkups. It's a very good idea.

What Goes On at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

Guest Columnist: Mary Gaboda
Just as there are certain adult books that tax a reader's intelligence, imagination and understanding, there are certain recently published books for children that demand the same concentration and effort on the part of the child reader. As a reward these challenging books give the child a feeling of accomplishment, enjoyment and increased understanding of his world.

The discussion in this article on Challenging Books, of which there will be more dealing with other types of reading, is limited to historical fiction, of the early medieval and late medieval ages in Great Britain.

Two books about Ireland's turbulent days of the Norman and English conquest are noteworthy. CHILDREN OF THE RED KING by Madeline Poland takes place in the thirteenth century in the kingdom of Connacht. The Red King's two children, Grania and Fergus, are held captive by the Norman knight Sir Jocelin, in the Castle of Ardrohan for many years while he sought to make peace. Setting, plot and characterization are so well blended and presented that the modern reader of ten to twelve feels that he is part of that distant past.

A book about sixteenth century Ireland which will appeal to older readers is Edith Myers' PIRATE QUEEN, a fictionalized biography of Grania O'Malley, daughter of the chieftain of the seafaring O'Malley clan. On her father's death, Grania, age 19, was elected by the clan to be chieftain, an unprecedented choice for those early days; but she had proved herself to be a superb seavoman and a brave leader of men. Most of Grania's efforts are spent in harassing the English merchantmen and outwitting the queen's agents who are on her trail much of the time. Personal tragedies, as well as the gradual encroachment of Lord Bingham's Englishmen, test the valor and courage of Grania, but she never falters. When she realizes that there is no more she can do for her people but visit Queen Elizabeth to ask for her own pardon and freedom for her imprisoned son-in-law and others, she does not hesitate to undertake the journey. Though vanquished, she still retained the dignity and pride of an Irish chieftainess during that dramatic meeting with another indomitable woman at Windsor Castle.

Fifteenth century London, Westminster, St. Paul's and Caxton's printing establishment spring to life most vividly in Cynthia Harnett's book CAXTON'S CHALLENGE. The hero of the book, Bendy, the son of a well-established scrivener, asks to be apprenticed to William Caxton, who has returned to England from Belgium to open a printing shop. An element of mystery enters when Caxton's consignments of imported paper are sabotaged, and when Bendy sets out to retrieve missing chapters of Malory's manuscript of King Arthur legends. There is drama, excitement, excellent characterization as well as a historian's profound knowledge of the history of the times. The skills of novelist and historian are equally supreme in Miss Harnett's books for children.

One of the most able historical novelists of our day is Rosemary Sutcliffe, author of such books as BROTHER DUSTYFEET, SIMON and others. Her latest book, KNIGHT'S FEE, takes her readers to England, just after the Battle of Hastings. The central character is Randal, a kennel boy who, won in a chess game by a minstrel, is given to a knight to bring up with his grandson. The ritual of knighthood, and the events of feudal life are skillfully portrayed, as well as drawing a life-size portrait of Randal and the people who surround him. Miss Sutcliffe is a writer of utmost seriousness and historical accuracy, so that it will be boys and girls of junior high school age who will enjoy her books the most. Two other outstanding books with their setting during these times, are Barbara Picard's RANSOM FOR A KNIGHT and Hilda Lewis' HERE COMES HARRY. They should not be overlooked by the avid history reader.

Church Forum To Hear Rabbi

Rabbi Irwin Groner, assistant rabbi of Congregation Shaarey Zedek in Detroit, will give a talk entitled "The Meaning of the Jewish Holy Days" at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, East Jefferson at Rivard boulevard, on Sunday, April 1, at 8 p.m.

The talk, which is designed for listeners who are not themselves members of the Jewish faith, comes at an especially appropriate time, as April is the month of the Passover season. Another in the Sunday Evening Forum series entitled "An Introduction to World Religions," the talk will be followed on April 15 by a program by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Frank J. McPhillips, pastor of St. Pauls on The Lake, who will speak on "The Meaning of the Roman Catholic Mass."

Rabbi Groner received his B.A. at the University of Chicago and later did post-graduate work in psychology and counseling. Ordained by the Hebrew Theological College at Chicago, he has held pulpits at Congregation Oir Chodosh in Chicago and, beginning in 1955, at Congregation Agudath Achim in Little Rock, Ark.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Betty Collins

Two former Pointe boys have brought their brides and brides-elect home recently to meet old friends. Here for the weekend were John Watling and his fiancée Beverly Wilson, of New York. They were honored by John's uncle, Palmer Watling, Saturday at a cocktail party at The Country Club. The couple plans to be married in late May.

George Caulkins, Jr., and his bride, the former Eleanor Elliott Newman of South Orange, N.J., were here earlier for two fast-paced days following their wedding in Switzerland March 3. The bridegroom's mother, the senior Mrs. Caulkins, reports that George and Ellie are now settled in an apartment in Denver where they will stay "until further notice." They hope to make another, longer visit to the Pointe soon.

Other Pointe Visitors

Wife of a former Pointer, who almost feels like one herself by now, Mrs. Marton Cook, arrived Monday to visit her sister and brother-in-law, the Jack Stephensons, of Fisher road. The Cooks now live in Sherman Oaks, Cal. On this trip "back East," Mrs. Cook made a grand tour of hometowns, stopping off in her native Columbus, before arriving here.

Friends of Virginia Keller are busy making plans for her arrival Saturday for a 10-day visit with her mother, Mrs. Ockford Keller, of Neff road. Virginia will

Opera Star Visits Pointe

The Ticket committee for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra planned to honor Metropolitan Opera Star Eleanor Steber at their kick-off tea last Friday at the home of the Howard Harringtons, of East Jefferson avenue. Instead, Miss Steber, who was appearing as Soprano Eleanor Steber won the hearts from the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra season ticket committee last week as perhaps one great Metropolitan Opera diva ever has done.

The beautiful star, on her day off between appearances as soloist with the orchestra, paid tribute to the committee at a tea in the home of the Howard Harringtons on East Jefferson Friday afternoon. The reason for the event: a rousing kickoff for the most ambitious ticket drive ever undertaken for the orchestra.

La Steber accepted the invitation with the proviso that she be allowed to honor the hard working ticket committee rather than they honor her. "After all," she said, "I couldn't appear with your wonderful orchestra if this wonderful committee hadn't built an audience."

Mrs. Frances W. Smith, association president, and Mrs. Carl H. Zuber, season ticket chairman, announced the renewal drive for the 1962-63 season will begin April 2. The drive for new subscribers will open May 1.

Important organizations outside the Women's Association and the Junior Women's Association will be cooperating on the push to sell out the Symphony series. Mrs. Frank W. Coolidge has enlisted the aid of Delta Omicron Alumnae Association through Mrs. Robert P. Jackson, the Music Study Club through Mrs. Ezra Lipkin, the Detroit Alumnae of Sigma Alpha Iota through Mrs. Raymond Recc, and Tuesday Musical of Detroit through Mrs. Raymond Barnes.

Among the Grosse Pointers working on the drive are Mesdames Philip C. Baker, Bogdan Baynert, C. Henry Buhl, William J. Collins, Frank W. Coolidge, James R. Goldart and Muir Hotchkiss.

Others are Mesdames J. Dwyer Kinnucan, Herbert Krumel, Alexander E. LaPointe, Arnold W. Lungershausen, Lyndle L. Martin, Jerome H. Remick, Jr., Ernest L. Rushmer, Herman P. Sattler, Bruce N. Tappan, John B. Wilk and H. Dwight Wilson.

This series is being presented at the Center in cooperation with the Education Committee of the Detroit Grand Opera Association and the Adult Division of the University of Michigan and Wayne State University.

Elect New Officers Of Health Council

Mothers' Group Selects Leaders for 1962-63 Year at Meeting in Central Library; Mrs. Zuehlke Named President

Officers of the Mothers' Health Education Council for the 1962-1963 year were chosen at a meeting held in the Central Library, Monday, March 26.

The following officers were elected from a slate presented by the nominating committee; Mrs. Earl Zuehlke, president; Mrs. William Heller, vice-president; Mrs. Robert Cope, recording-secretary; Mrs. Roger Holmes, corresponding-secretary; and Mrs. Alton Donnell, treasurer.

The retiring officers are: Mrs. William Savage, president; Mrs. Earl Zuehlke, vice-president; Mrs. Edward Letscher, recording secretary; Mrs. Roger Holmes, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Jack Cottingham, treasurer.

Richard Weber, Past National Commander of the United States Power Squadron and a prominent Grosse Pointe, addressed the meeting on various phases of water safety, with particular emphasis on navigation and the handling of all types of craft.

Most water tragedies, he pointed out, are due to a lack of knowledge concerning equipment needed on boats, such as life preservers, fire and bailing equipment, and the lack of knowledge of weather and water conditions.

"While water skiing is a great deal of fun, proper safeguards should always be followed or it can become extremely dangerous," Mr. Weber said. "Recognizing this, recent laws have been passed which require that two persons must be in the boat while a skier is being towed, or the driver must have use of a large mirror."

He outlined the voluntary and valuable work being carried out in the United States by the Power Squadron, which includes 44,000 experienced boat operators who devote their time and efforts to teaching safe and sane boating.

A question and answer period followed Mr. Weber's talk.

The next meeting of the Grosse Pointe Mothers' Health Council will be held at the Hospitality Center in the Village on Monday, May 28, at 1 p.m. at which new delegates as well as current members are invited to attend.

Students of GPHS Present Follies to Capacity Crowds

By Bill Tyler

It was a full house. It seemed as though everyone in Grosse Pointe had come to the Parcels auditorium this Friday night to see the Grosse Pointe High production of the musical comedy "Follies of '62". The audience hushed as the Follies Band began the beautiful theme, "It Was Only a Dream", and the show was on its way to a smash success.

Leads Cindy McDougall and Sydney Kovach belted out the first song, "Don't You Know Nothin' But No?", and several others during the course of the story, which was based on the lives of two young girls on the road to success in vaudeville.

Co-starring were Judy Cann and Kit Kahlich as the zany but lovable aunts of the girls; Wolfe Baer, who played the part of the girls' agent; Bart Elmer, portraying a boy friend of one of the girls; and Jack Gajewski and Maureen Clifton, the mother and father of the children, vaudeville people themselves, but nevertheless against subjecting their daughters to the hard life of show business.

The high school's instrumental music director, Mr. Richard H. Snook, wrote the musical, produced it, directed it, arranged the musical score and selected the entire cast of 150. He was aided by Miss Ruth Carney, dance director, and by Mr. John Finch, choir director, whose Choraleers contributed two sparkling numbers to the performance.

The show highlighted four weeks of tedious work, including a final week of daily rehearsals. This laborious task of putting the show together resulted in a tremendous two-night output by its cast.

The audience was very responsive, especially to the chorus line, which did a top level job of looking attractive under the leadership of Captain Julie Allardye. The chorus line danced in two production numbers and their "Chicago" specialty.

Music was provided by the 25-piece Follies Band, led well by Mr. Snook and student director Bill Wright. The band played with a precision and bite that gave a brightness to the entire production.

Among the comments of the spectators after the show were:

"You'd never believe these people were only in high school!" "fantastically done!" "I've never seen anything like it!"

"The show came off extremely well," said Mr. Snook after Saturday night's performance. "I've never had such a well-behaved and responsive group of students in any show! It was a real pleasure to work with them."

Saturday night's full-house performance made the show a complete sell-out. The cast celebrated after this final performance at a party in the basement of Parcels, at which the Follies Band played under the direction of Bill Wright. Mr. Snook sat in on trumpet for one number, demonstrating the ability that has made him a leader in music.

Society Holds Parisian Party

Christ the King's Young Adult Society enjoyed a "few hours in Paris" on Sunday evening, March 11. The evening was spent in the Church Assembly room, however, it was difficult to recognize it as such, for the decor was most Parisian!

A four foot model of the Eiffel Tower, a colorful sidewalk cafe, cozy tables topped with candles, delicious French bread complemented with assorted cheese, and recorded music by French artists played just a small part in the "few hours."

Adding to the left bank atmosphere were "35 Frenchmen" sporting berets, dashing scarfs, dark glasses, striped shirts, striking hair-do's and long cigarette holders. C'est si bon (very good) best describes an evening enjoyed by all.

Center Plans Rhine Evening

An "Evening On The Rhine" will be the April offering in the Center's series of international dinners and entertainments. It will be held Wednesday evening, April 11, beginning at 7 o'clock.

The dinner in true German style promises to be mouth watering. Starting with Fleischbruehe mit Markkloessen, (clear soup with marrow dumplings), the next course will be Kalter Rheinlachs mit Remouladen Tunkte (cold Rhine Salmon with Remoulade sauce). As the entree, Wiener Schnitzel Garniert, (garnished breaded veal steak), will be served with Salzkartoffel, (boiled potatoes), and Leipziger Allerlei (mixed vegetables). Then there will be Kopfsalat mit saurer Sahne, (wilted lettuce with sour cream dressing), and the dinner will end with Westphalischer frische Obstkuchen mit Schlagsaehne, (fresh Westphalian fruit cake with whipped cream).

After dinner entertainments will consist of excellently sung Wagner and lieder and perhaps a German band for the lighter touch.

The evening will conclude with two excellent color films "Beautiful Rhineland Palatinate" and "The Undiscovered Charm of Germany."

Reservations for this gala will be accepted through April 9. There is a limit of 175 persons at $4 for dinner and the evening's entertainment, (tax and service included). The Center would appreciate prompt reservations. (TU 1-7511).

Austin Swimmers Capture Catholic League Crown

By Bob Moore

Both team depth and individual performances are necessary to win a City swimming championship. And Austin, defending Catholic League champ, showed it has both as the Friars took their second straight City title Sunday at Patton Pool.

In the final meet of the 1962 season, Austin showed it has the stars. Three Catholic records fell as Austin rolled up a stunning 94-point total. Austin junior Pete Jacques swam his way to two firsts of the eight individual events. The Friars' Ron Brodowicz pulled the upset of the day when he beat Visitation's ace Jerry Gorski with a record-breaking performance.

Take Both Relays

Austin's team depth showed up when both relay teams won their events, each one breaking the record. The Friars picked up three second-place and five third-place finishes to back up the stars.

Coach Mel Giovannucci had 18 of his individual swimmers qualify for the City meet, held each year with the top swimmers of the Catholic League competing. Both of his relay teams also won final spots in the preliminary meet.

Summary

50-Yard Freestyle—(1) Pete Jacques (Austin); (2) Pete Alandt (Austin); Paul Dowd (Redford St. Mary's).

100-Yard Butterfly—(1) Ron Brodowicz (Austin), record 1:00.7; (2) Jerry Gorski (Visitation); Jack Dee (La Salle) old record was 1:03.2, set by Gorski.

Injuries Finally Subdue Gallant St. Paul Lakers

By Roger Joseph

The 1961 State Class C basketball champions, St. Paul, failed in their attempt to repeat as title holders by only a one game as they closed a fine 1962 campaign with a 20-4 record.

Kalamazoo Christian became the first class C team to defeat the Lakers in over two years. The site was the Lansing Civic Center and the final score was 47-42.

Despite St. Paul's poor showing in Lansing, they can be given a fine hand for the performances they have presented while playing over injuries.

Team Injury Riddled

When the Lakers dressed for the game Friday night, Mike Cantwell was absent because of a brain concussion received against Capac. Gary Schick was suffering from a broken toe, Jack Wachter had twice received surgery on an infected arm, Tom Moxley's foot still showed the effects of a hemorrhage, and Steve Handlos and Bob Martin both were taped for sprained ankles.

In all, St. Paul again had one of the finest seasons in its history as it added six new trophies to its list. Incidentally, this is one more than last year. When the final buzzer blew, St. Paul emerged defeated but still were East Side Catholic Champs, First Division Catholic Champs, Catholic City Champs, City runner-up, State District Champs and State Regional Champs.

St. Paul still fought all the way and when the night finally ended, Gary Schick was high scorer with 19, closely followed by Tom Moxley with 14.

In complete contrast to Friday's game, St. Paul had put on an unbelievable 67-51 show of power against a strong Sebewaing club. The Lakers hit for a 58 per cent field goal average and took 38 rebounds to lead both teams. Tom Moxley, Gary Schick, and Bob Martin combined to stifle the Indians' 6'7" star Tom Kain and to hold him to 13 points.

Jack Wachter put on a fine ball handling performance and Gary Ghesquiere proved himself able as he subbed for the injured Steve Handlos.

Gary Schick Big Star The big story of this game, however, was the exhibition turned in by Gary Schick. The All-City, All-State forward poured in 32 points to tie a school record held by Bob Brigham.

Farms Tryouts Start Saturday

By Bill Stuck

Farms Little League tryouts for spots on the Major League teams will commence this Saturday, March 31, at Brownell Junior High School. This was announced by Minard Mumaw, chief player's agent. Mr. Mumaw, assisted by Jim Harris, player's agent, will conduct the tryouts.

The schedule by age group is as follows: 9-year-olds, 10:30 a.m., March 31, April 7 and 14; 10-year-olds, 1 p.m., March 31, April 7, 8, 14; 11-year-olds, 2:30 p.m., March 31, April 7, 8, 14; 12-year-olds, 3:30 p.m., March 31, April 7, 8, 14.

To be eligible for selection to play on one of the Major League teams a boy must do TWO things: (1) Wear his assigned "tryout number" and (2) Attend a majority of the tryouts. Boys playing last year on a Major League team and eligible to play again this year DO NOT tryout again.

Boys who have not registered should call Jerry DuCharme, TU 5-0636 or Tom ZurSchmiede, TU 5-4574. According to National Little League Rules no boy may play in Little League UNTIL he is registered.

A group of the fathers tried out the pitching machine recently and it works "like a charm." Some of us "even got some hits."

Babe Ruth League Leaders Miffed at Woods Officials

(Continued from Page 1) Petersen, who has held the city administrator post since last November, that the Woods-Shores Babe Ruth League has been given the "run-around" for the past five or six years.

The Woods has appropriated $80,000 for its 1961-62 recreation program, but nowhere has any provision been made for the construction of a diamond for the Babe Ruth League.

Petersen informed Foster that if the League desired a diamond, the matter should be taken up with the city council. In regard to the promise made by Marr, there apparently had been some misinterpretation regarding the letter.

In regards to this, the council dropped a proposed enlarging of the diamond, when a group of residents, whose property abuts the outfield of the diamond, petitioned against the use of the diamond by players other than those of Little League age.

Foster claimed that only residents of two homes protested against the Babe Ruth diamond, but according to Petersen, who checked official council records, a petition with 15 signatures was presented to the council, which prompted the city body to drop the issue.

Foster disclosed that as far back as five or six years ago, the Woods-Shore League had petitioned for a Babe Ruth diamond, but has never been satisfied with the response from city officials.

He said that all the League is asking for is a diamond of its own, constructed and maintained by the Woods. He pointed out that there are six Babe Ruth League diamonds in the Woods, three on the grounds of Grosse Pointe University School; two on the Parcels Junior High School playground, and one on the grounds of Mason School.

The diamonds at GPUS, Foster said, are in fairly good condition, but those on the public school grounds, are in bad shape. One backstop at Parcels, is off-center from the diamond, and the diamond at Mason is very bad. He said that two players suffered broken legs in the last two years, while playing on this field.

He said that he had "no axe to grind" as far as he was concerned personally, but that he, and others interested in the Babe Ruth League program in the Woods want better playing facilities for the 300 boys who participate in this program.

He said that he is glad that the Little League diamonds are in shape for the Little Leaguers, since this program ties in with the Babe Ruth League.

Foster pointed out that the Little League players graduate into the major league after reaching the age of 13 years. The age limit in the smaller league is eight through 12 years; in the bigger league, 13 through 15 years.

He said that he has no son in either leagues, but he has been interested and active in the program for a number of years and wanted to obtain the best facilities for his group.

Hunt Club Gets Show Entries

Among the first to get their spirited animals entered at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club for the Annual Spring Horse Show scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, April 28 and 29, are Charles J. Record and Mrs. J. M. Neath of Lowell, Mich.

Both are bringing more than four horses each for competition in the saddle horse classes which will be judged by Thomas McCrae, of Columbus, O.

Mrs. Neath is secretary of the Michigan Horse Show Association.

It will be recalled that at the show last April, Mr. Record suffered severe injuries from a fall which hospitalized him for months.

Judging the hunters, jumpers, and equitation classes will be Charles Demetry of Wadsworth, Ill. Mr. Demetry is a former member of the U. S. Olympic jumping team, and judged classes at the Grosse Pointe outdoor show last June.

Mrs. E. N. Peabody of Lincoln road is in charge of the sale of boxes, both in the ring area and in the lounge, and reports brisk sales to date, insuring another capacity crowd for the events.

LeBlond Wins Diving Championship at MSU

Freshman John LeBlond of Grosse Pointe won the Michigan State intramural diving championship in the independent division.

LeBlond totaled 23.8 points in winning the competition at the Michigan State Intramural Pool.

A Grosse Pointe High School graduate, LeBlond is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John LeBlond, 1388 Vernier.

Dutch Elm Tree Spraying To Cost $5,000 in City

Grosse Pointe City's 1962 Dutch Elm tree spraying contract has been awarded to Shock Brothers Tree Service, 15120 Charlevoix. Shock Brothers will undertake the entire tree spraying program at a cost of 80 cents per city-owned tree, $1.50 per privately owned tree.

In addition, Shock Brothers has guaranteed to remove any tree over and above the first 12 lost in 1962 due to Dutch Elm disease at their own expense.

At present, there are an estimated 2,600 city-owned and an additional estimated 2,000 privately owned trees due to be sprayed. Although private owners need not employ Shock Brothers, the City contractor, they must have their trees sprayed by some qualified person or company. Notices to this effect are being sent to every property owner in the City of Grosse Pointe; they will be included in the tax bill mailing, scheduled to reach home-owners the first week in April.

Last year's Dutch Elm losses were heavy in Grosse Pointe City, with 25 municipally-owned and 45 privately-owned trees destroyed because of the disease. Spraying was done by Biehler and Son, a Grand Rapids firm, and some difficulty was experienced due to the distance between the company's main office in Grand Rapids and the City of Grosse Pointe.

This year the contract was awarded to a local company, familiar with local conditions, and the City hopes for better results.

The entire program, at Shock Brothers' rates, will cost a little more than $5,000, for both City-owned and privately-owned trees.

To Show Student Art at Center

The second floor galleries of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial will be filled with the art work of the students of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools beginning Saturday, April 1, and continuing through Sunday, April 29.

The public is cordially invited to view this exhibit weekdays from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Sundays from 12 noon to 5 p.m. It is wise, however, to telephone before coming to the exhibit as the rooms are sometimes occupied by meetings.

Charles Jorgenson, art instructor of Pierre Junior High School, is in charge of this exhibit by elementary school art supervisor Donald Schrom, High School art teachers Marion Lampman and Julia Meighan, Brownell instructors Allan Ebert and Marilyn Krueger and Pierre instructor Robert Rathbun.

The exhibit will be a complete cross section of the art taught in the school system. It will include cut-paper collages, oil paintings and water colors, block printing, India ink sketches and tempera abstractions.

Especially interesting among the displays will be historic costume designs and examples of heraldry. There will also be interesting small items of leather work such as purses, key cases and book marks.

Other items will include reed sculpture, mobiles and paper mache animals.

 ing at 12:30 p.m., the 14-year group at 2:30 p.m., and the 15-year boys at 4 o'clock. Managers and coaches will be present at every session to look over the players preparatory to the player draft which is held shortly after the last tryout session.

Sometimes, perhaps too often, we forget to give credit to the wives and mothers, whose never ending help makes possible the continuation and operation of the League, so this is a story of a woman, but not just any woman.

Plays Many Roles

This woman is everything from a doctor or psychologist to a laundress, waitress and a coach and trainer. As the mother of a boy who likes to play baseball, she comforts him when he comes home after a game, throws his glove on the floor, and blurts out that he was the cause for losing. She offers an encouraging word and tells him to try and profit from his errors.

She is the only one who can instantly put her hands on his glove, can reach under his bed and come up with his baseball shoes, and remind him to stick a handkerchief in the back pocket of his baseball pants. Although it often tries her patience, she is the one who insists that he take a hot shower before he sits down to the nourishing meal she has prepared for him, most of the time prepared in advance and then warmed up, because she had to be at the game to see him play.

Must Withhold Praise

Perhaps he has been the star of the game, but she cannot praise him too much for she knows that he is just one part of the team. And so, bursting with pride, she calmly tells him she liked his quick thinking or his punching in the winning run, and then gets ready to see him gulp down his meal and run out of the house to play with his friends. But this is not new to her. She has become a pro, since Dad's playing days. She's listened to the same old gripes from Dad, then her son through his Little League career and now it starts all over again in the Babe Ruth League. Quite a grand person, this woman.

She is a teacher of good sportsmanship, and goes to all the games to see that her advice is followed. She turns down invitations to "Big League" games to go out to see her boy play. In seeing her boy make a hit she forgets the Mantles, Marises and Norman Cash. That is our woman.

To honor this wonderful person the Board intends to set aside a day to be known as "Mother's Day" in appreciation

College Tastes Undergo Change

A follow-up study of Grosse Pointe High School's June 1961 graduating class reveals that outside colleges are attracting more and more Grosse Pointe students each year.

In just two years, the number of four-year colleges in which GPHS graduates have enrolled has jumped from 68 to 93, and 70 of these are out-of-state, as compared to 48 in 1959.

Although a large proportion of the High School graduates still attend in-state colleges and universities, significant changes have been noted in freshman enrollment at both the University of Michigan and Michigan State University...

Meanwhile, the percentage of graduates enrolling in junior college increased from 4.2 to 7.7 percent, and the overall total of students going on to further education in all types of schools increased from 74 percent (528 students) in 1960 to 77 percent (560 students) in 1961.

Youth Admits Stripping Cars

City police cleared up a series of thefts involving head and tail light assemblies last week.

The culprit, a 15-year-old boy, admitted taking the outside rear view mirror and tail light lens from a '61 Ford Falcon and the tail light assembly from a '59 Ford on Saturday, March 17.

The Falcon, driven by James M. Spall, 17, 5680 Lannoo, and the '59 Ford, owned by Oscar Schrage, 1305 Aline drive, had been parked on University near Kercheval when the articles were stolen.

The juvenile also confessed to the theft of a right front headlight assembly from a '62 Plymouth owned by Thomas J. Roney, 617 Fisher, and parked at Lakeland and Kercheval, on Sunday, March 18.

The boy returned the missing articles, as well as several car aerials which he had also taken, but which had not been reported missing.

Value of the individual articles is very small, and, as the boy admitted the theft and offered to make restitution, no further action is contemplated.

Cubs at Kerby Conduct Derby

The March Pack meeting of Cub Scout Pack 461 of Kerby School was tense with excitement as the Cubs raced their pinewood derby racer cars in the Pack's annual Derby. The race was held Monday, March 19, in the Kerby School gymnasium with co-chairmen Paul Duika and Dean Riddle in charge of the event.

The race committee included the following fathers: Tom ZurSchmiede, Carl Fromm, John Dorechuk, John Lehman, Courtney Rankin, Ervin Steiner, II, Dr. David Barker and Ernest Baker, Jr.

Large race trophies were presented to the top four winners with first place going to Lee Greening, III, second place to William Allen, third place to Roger Hull, fourth place to Donald Fromm. The den winners received smaller trophies and the winners were: Den 1, David Larsen; Den 2, Kendall Barker; Den 3, David Riddle; Den 4, Patrick Murtagh; Den 5, Michael Duika; Den 6, Ronald Pothoff; and for the Webelos Den, William Bryan. Special trophies went to Ronald Worona for the Best Design car; to John Odert for the car with the best finish; and to David Riddle for the most novel design.

The Kerby School Pinewood Derby track will be displayed at the Michigan State Fairgrounds on June 8, 9, and 10 during the Paul Bunyan Exposition. The Dens will take turns demonstrating and racing their cars during the Exposition. The racer cars come in kit form and are built by the cub scout and his father. The cars must be designed and built to certain specifications. The cars are raced on a 40-foot long track which is inclined at one end and has a straight-away section to the finish line.

Achievement and advancement awards went to a number of cub scouts at the Pack meeting. The Pack meets again on April 9 when the Webelos ceremony will be held. This is the graduation of the Webelos Den into Boy Scout troops.

Headlines of the Week

(Continued from Page 1) United States most sincerely prefers the agreement to the tests." Secretary Rusk said in Friday night United Nations radio broadcast. "I hope fervently that the Soviet Union will make the agreement possible."

Sunday, March 25 FRENCH OFFICIALS report that captured Secret Army Organization documents reveal new and more crushing acts of terrorism on the OAS agenda. Basing their conclusions on a perusal of seized papers, the French now believe OAS general Raoul Salan plans his war against the de Gaulle regime in three stages: (1) commando harassment actions and plastic bomb explosions and attacks on Government troops; (2) progressive involvement on the part of the European civilian population in Algiers with OAS-inspired attacks on the French army and police; and (3) a mass European uprising, followed by mass violence between Europeans and Moslems.

Although French troops and tanks presently control Algiers, and the French are credited with victory in Friday's battle for the OAS stronghold of Bab-el-Oued, government officials recognize that only a small part of Salan's forces have thus far been committed, and are aware of the OAS' determination and ability to wage a bitter, long-drawn-out campaign against Algerian independence. President de Gaulle will be bringing to the nation Monday evening; he is expected to reiterate his determination to crush the OAS rebellion "without pity."

Monday, March 26 THE ARGENTINE NAVY has publicly demanded President Arturo Frondizi's resignation as the best possible solution to the current national crisis, worst military-political situation to confront Argentina in seven years. Frondizi, fighting tooth-and-nail to save his four-year regime, has pulled together a new cabinet in a vain attempt to satisfy his foes, but the Navy-spearheaded opposition still insists presidential resignation is the only way to cope with the current situation.

Since exiled dictator Juan D. Peron's followers won landslide victories in the recent election Argentina has been in an uproar, and venerable ex-provisional President Pedro A. Ramirez, instrumental in ousting Peron in 1955, returned from retirement in an attempt to mediate the crisis. Broadcasting to the public, Aramburu warned that "the republic is in danger" and civil war may result if the situation does not resolve itself quickly. He called for a national effort to preserve the peace, and urged all concerned to "forget their grievances and unite in seeking a solution."

Frondizi, fully aware of the currents and counter-currents swirling around him, has vowed never to quit, and plans to swear in his cabinet today. Since first assuming office in May, 1958, he (Frondizi) has survived 35 crises—but never one so difficult.

Steel industry and labor representatives broke negotiations March 2, after two weeks of futile bargaining, with management refusing to consider labor's request for an additional 4 to 6 cents per hour. Apparently, this issue has been settled to everyone's satisfaction, and steel contract improvements are expected to cost the industry 8 to 10 cents per hour. Precise figures on proposed fringe benefits have not yet been released.

St. Paul's girls' swimming team placed third in the city. Elaine O'Leary placed third in the 50 yard free style. Mary Michael Farnam placed fourth in the 25 yard free style.

The Boys Championship followed the girls and with only three events qualified for by St. Paul, the Lakers managed to pull out a fifth place standing in the meet.

Neil Endres, co-captain of the "Laker-Tankers," proved to be the fastest 100 yard backstroke swimmer in the entire Catholic City league, winning this event with his best time of 1:05.7.

The free-style relay, qualified fifth, finished fourth, only 2/10 of a second behind the third place finisher. This relay consists of co-captain Frank Kotcher, Bill Taylor, Ed Reinhart and Tom Cavanaugh.

Members of this relay are Neil Endres, Paul Murray, Jack Koerber and Norm Miller.

Meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m.

Present on roll call: Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., Councilmen William C. Butler, Thomas K. Fisher, Ledyard Mitchell, Jr., and Edward C. Roney, Jr.

Absent: Councilmen Henry E. Bodman II and William G. Kirby.

Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., presided. Minutes of the regular meeting of March 5, 1962, were approved as submitted.

Reports of the Police Department, Fire Department, Building Department and City Controller for the month of February, 1962, were received and ordered filed.

A request from Dr. Robert A. Westphal for approval to construct a building on Lots 131 and 132, Mack Grosse Pointe Subdivision, was referred to the Mayor's Advisory Planning Committee for study, and the Committee was requested to submit their recommendations to the Council at the meeting of April 2, 1962.

Councilman Henry E. Bodman II was appointed to serve as the representative of the City on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors for the year commencing April 10, 1962.

The City Manager reported that the Michigan Inspection Bureau would make a complete Fire Protection Survey of the City at the earliest possible date.

A resolution from the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, expressing appreciation for the co-operation and assistance of the Fire Department in connection with a fire which occurred on February 12, 1962, was received and ordered filed.

The City Clerk was directed to obtain bids from the Grosse Pointe News and the Grosse Pointe Press for publishing legal notices for the year commencing July 1, 1962.

The bid of Holley Hoist Sales in the amount of $978.00, being the low bid for furnishing and installing two electric boat hoists at the Farms Pier Park, was accepted.

Various recommendations made by the Pier Park Committee regarding the purchase of equipment for use at the Pier Park were approved.

A resolution was adopted, making it mandatory that all boats moored at the Pier Park be required to pass an inspection by the Coast Guard Auxiliary not later than July 1, 1962.

Arrangements for such an inspection at the Pier Park will be made with the Coast Guard Auxiliary.

Miss Mary LaBelle was granted permission to submit alternate plans to the Zoning Board of Appeals for the proposed construction of a new building at 366-368 Kercheval Avenue.

Plans for the alterations and additions to the Municipal Building, submitted by the firm of Begrow & Brown, were approved—subject, however, to final approval by the City Manager and City Engineer after discussion with the various department heads.

The City Manager was authorized to prepare specifications and to take bids for a "dog wagon" for use by the Police Department.

The City Engineer was authorized to purchase approximately 150 cubic yards of cinders and to engage the use of a bulldozer to provide a more stable roadway on the unpaved sections of Lakeview and Carver Avenues.

Councilman Butler submitted copies of a letter received from Mr. Minard S. Mumaw, of 321 Beaupre Road, expressing appreciation for the wonderful job done by the Fire and Police Departments in putting out a fire which occurred at his home on February 28, 1962.

CHESTER G. MARSHALL (Standing on Right), of CRESCENT LANE

By Betty Collins

As a project engineer for the Army Ordnance Tank Automotive Command (OTAC), Chester G. Marshall recently went to Ft. Wainwright, near Fairbanks, Alaska, where he worked outdoors in temperatures as low as 50 degrees below zero, while testing the cold-weather performance of a new-type armored personnel carrier.

He found the Arctic weather conditions more comfortable and easier to endure than typical winter weather in Grosse Pointe.

"When the temperature in Alaska drops to 70 degrees below zero," Marshall says, "it is quiet outside. There is no wind and the atmosphere is very dry. It is quite comfortable outdoors; not as bad as Michigan weather."

Marshall went to Alaska to oversee final testing of a mortar-carrying version of an armored personnel carrier, a type of tank. Mortar are fired by the infantry to scatter opposition troops and gain ground. This new carrier will move the mortar easily from place to place so that troops do not need to carry it.

Weather Gear Works

Part of the mobility testing was done at Ft. Greeley where the wind often blew more than 60 miles an hour. Though Marshall felt then as it would be blown away, he says that his "cold weather gear," his huge insulated boots, lined parka, and coyote-fur lined parka, kept him warm at all times.

During these tests, the mortar carrier was driven over the most difficult terrain that could be found. It ran for 2,000 miles over barren flatlands, deep-dried swamps in the forest, arctic swampland known as muskeg, and the glacier-carved wilderness of the Ft. Greeley mountains. From time to time, the carrier was stopped while rounds of mortar were fired.

Although the Arctic tests are a nuisance in many ways, Marshall believes that they are essential if the testing program is going to be realistic. At times, OTAC engineers have found that humans can adapt more easily to a difficult environment than can machines.

Must Avoid Carelessness

Men adapt so easily to weather conditions in Alaska, says Marshall, that every safety precaution must be taken to avoid carelessness and accidents. A primary precaution is the "buddy system," which is faithfully observed at Ft. Wainwright. Two persons generally go outside together, Marshall says, and each must constantly watch his "buddy" for symptoms of frostbite, for it cannot be felt until real damage is done.

In Alaska, it is difficult even for experienced men to know what to wear outdoors, for at 20 to 30 degrees below zero, a man can be outside in his shirt sleeves without feeling the extreme cold. He can freeze and not know it.

For this reason, people check the "wind chill factor" instead of the temperature before going outdoors. This factor will indicate what clothing should be worn; it is a number based on the current temperature, wind velocity, and humidity.

Ice Fog Is Nasty

One of the inconveniences of testing in Alaska, is a phenomena called ice fog. Heat generated by man and by buildings and vehicles causes moist air to form. This freezes into crystals creating a very dense fog. In downtown Fairbanks, Marshall observed that it was sometimes impossible to see a streetlight from the curb across the street at night, because of this thick fog.

The ice fog slows down OTAC's work at times. Marshall recalls one occasion when

MACHINE, CASE MISSING

James Taliaferro, assistant manager of Sears, 18950 Mack avenue, reported a gray and tan adding machine, and a black carrying case, missing from the store. They are valued at $119.95 and $9.95 respectively. The missing items were reported to Farms police on Tuesday, March 20.

a round of shots was fired on a testing range. The resulting fog interfered with tests that were being conducted three miles away.

The mortar-carrier is just one example of many projects on which Marshall has worked. At present he is concerned with another variation of the same personnel carrier. This time, the carrier will be modified to provide a mobile office with an attached tent. Marshall is enthusiastic about this project also. "The idea has unlimited possibilities," he said, "and is something that many people have wanted for a long time."

Take A Long Time

By the time a project reaches the final testing stages, months and perhaps years have elapsed since the original idea was formulated. OTAC project engineers are in charge of each project from the time that military personnel request it until it is into final production. In the meantime, many sketches have been drawn and discussed; a wooden model has been constructed, and test models have been examined and used both by OTAC and by the ultimate military users. Several boards must approve the plans for the new equipment each step of the way.

As project engineer, Marshall travels to out-of-town test sites frequently, especially when difficulties are encountered during the testing of his projects. He is always glad when a job away from home is completed and he can return to his wife Barbara, and their 6-year-old daughter Diane.

Chester Marshall thoroughly enjoys his work with OTAC and finds it challenging from an engineer's point of view. At the same time, he is happy to be of service to the cause of his nation's defense.

Young Anne (Cookie) Sanders, daughter of the Edwin F. Sanders, of Stephens road, bowled a 224 game in a 501 series recently. Cookie is on the Saturday League at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, and adult GPYC bowlers have begun to give her a wide berth. After all, who wants to be beaten by a 12-year-old?

One of our sports correspondents, Bill Stuck, has distinguished himself with several excellent articles on Grosse Pointe's Little League, for which he received by-lines. We also enjoyed his recent memo designed to lessen some confusion around the office. His last name, he explains gently, "is not STACK as in 'hay,' but is correctly STUCK as in 'mud.'" Thanks, for helping us out of our rut, Mr. Stuck.

Mrs. Gay Reeves, of McMillan road, takes her cocoa-colored poodle Napoleon along with her when she goes to her office every day in Detroit's Penobscot Building.

Those who were unable to find the indispensable items for which they were searching at the neighborhood Thrift Shop (See last week's column), might try the newly-opened Tres Bien shop at the Convent. Most recent items to make a hit are hospital gowns, decorated by hand.

St. Paul's Lakers may have missed the State Class C basketball championship, (by a hair's breadth), this year, but team member Steve Handlos, 17, hopes for better luck in his private competition. Steve, son of the Alphonse A. Handloses of Belanger road, is currently on the tenth move of his second chess-game-by-mail. He met his opponent, Milford High Senior Monte Shettler, at the Wolverine Boy's State in East Lansing last summer. Their first game ended in a stalemate, but Steve, like the never-say-die Lakers who are "waiting 'til next year!," is determined to win the second.
