RÉSUMÉ DES RESTRICTIONS À L'EXPORTATION ET DES MESURES
DE FACILITATION DES ÉCHANGES NOTIFIÉES EN RAPPORT
AVEC LA PANDÉMIE DE COVID-19

RAPPORT DU SECRÉTARIAT¹

Révision

1 INTRODUCTION

1. À sa réunion des 29 et 30 avril 2021, le Comité a demandé au Secrétariat d'établir une révision du rapport intitulé "Résumé des restrictions à l'exportation et des mesures de facilitation des échanges notifiées en rapport avec la pandémie de COVID-19", qui résume les renseignements factuels figurant dans les notifications et autres communications qui avaient été présentées au Comité de l'accès aux marchés par les Membres au sujet des mesures liées au commerce prises en réponse à la pandémie de COVID-19.

2. Comme convenu à cette réunion², le rapport révisé contient également les mesures commerciales et liées au commerce prises en réponse à la COVID-19 qui ont été recensées dans le cadre de l'exercice de suivi du commerce de l'OMC. Par conséquent, le présent document vise à recenser et résumer les renseignements pertinents sur les prohibitions et restrictions à l'exportation qui ont été notifiées par les Membres au titre de la Décision de 2012 sur les procédures de notification des restrictions quantitatives³ (la Décision), les communications contenant des renseignements sur les mesures de facilitation des échanges notifiées au Comité par les Membres, ainsi que d'autres mesures prises par les Membres de l'OMC et recensées dans le cadre de l'exercice de suivi du commerce sous l'intitulé "COVID-19: mesures affectant le commerce des marchandises"³. Le rapport révisé tient compte de tous les renseignements disponibles au 5 octobre 2021. Les annexes 1 et 2 donnent respectivement un aperçu des principaux éléments concernant les restrictions et prohibitions à l'exportation, et les mesures de facilitation des échanges. En outre, la liste complète des notifications et communications qui ont été présentées au Comité et analysées dans le présent rapport figure dans le document G/MA/W/157/Rev.3.

2 PROHIBITIONS ET RESTRICTIONS À L'EXPORTATION

3. Au 4 octobre 2021, un total de 77 mesures prohibant ou restreignant les exportations en raison de la pandémie de COVID-19 avaient été adoptées par les Membres. Parmi ces mesures, 60 ont été notifiées au Comité de l'accès aux marchés par 34 Membres.⁴ D'après l'exercice de suivi du commerce, 11 Membres ont introduit 17 mesures additionnelles. À la date du présent rapport, ces mesures n'ont pas été notifiées au titre de la Décision. L'annexe 1 donne un aperçu des différents éléments concernant ces prohibitions et restrictions à l'exportation. En vue de faciliter l'analyse de ces mesures et d'en permettre la comparaison, certains éléments ont été uniformisés (par exemple le type de mesure, les produits visés, la justification au regard de l'OMC, etc.). Aux fins du présent rapport, une mesure est comptée séparément chaque fois qu'elle peut être distinguée clairement d'une autre mesure (par exemple s'il existe deux instruments juridiques nationaux clairement distincts). Aucune prorogation, modification ou suppression de la mesure initiale n'a été comptabilisée comme une nouvelle mesure. Les notifications de restrictions quantitatives sont présentées selon un format structuré et, dans la plupart des cas, les renseignements qu'elles contiennent peuvent donc être comparés. Cela est un peu moins vrai pour les renseignements issus de l'exercice de suivi du commerce et, par conséquent, la définition des mesures provenant de cette source peut varier pour ce qui est de la portée ainsi que des renseignements concernant les modifications et les prorogations.

2.1 Types de mesures

4. La majorité des 77 mesures de restriction à l'exportation qui ont été prises par les Membres en réponse à la COVID-19 ont pris la forme d'interdictions ou de prohibitions complètes (38,3%), suivies par des restrictions à l'exportation sous la forme de licences d'exportation non automatiques (22,2%) et de prohibitions conditionnelles (17,3%). Les restrictions à l'exportation mentionnées dans le contexte de l'exercice de suivi du commerce, pour lesquelles il est impossible de préciser la nature exacte de la mesure, représentent 21% de l'ensemble des mesures. Une mesure prend la forme d'un contingent global pour les exportations. Voir le graphique 1.

2.2 Chronologie des mesures prises

5. La grande majorité des mesures de prohibition et de restriction à l'exportation ont été prises par les Membres entre février et avril 2020 (57 des 77 mesures). Cette période coïncide avec la déclaration de l'état de pandémie faite par l'Organisation mondiale de la santé (11 mars 2020), et les confinements et autres mesures sanitaires ultérieurs imposés par les Membres en réponse à la COVID-19. Il semblerait que seules six mesures de restriction des exportations ont été prises depuis juillet 2020. Pour neuf mesures, soit il n'y a pas d'information sur la date d'entrée en vigueur, soit il y a plusieurs dates indiquant le début de la mesure. Voir le graphique 2.

Graphique 2 – Prohibitions ou restrictions à l'exportation en réponse à la COVID-19, chronologie des mesures prises

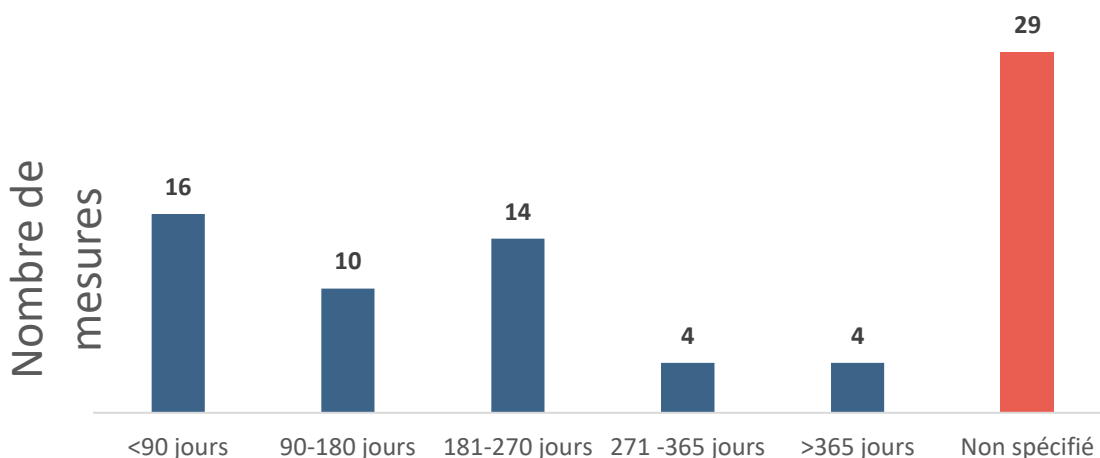

Source: Secrétariat de l'OMC.

2.3 Durée des mesures

6. Une grande partie des mesures de restriction à l'exportation adoptées par les Membres ne contiennent pas de renseignements complets sur leur durée. Pour 29 des 77 mesures de l'ensemble de données, aucune indication n'est fournie concernant la durée prévue ou le Membre concerné n'a présenté aucune communication ultérieure confirmant que la mesure avait expiré ou avait été supprimée. Pour les 48 mesures au sujet desquelles des renseignements sont disponibles, la majorité des restrictions ont été en place pendant moins de 90 jours (soit moins de 3 mois), et 14 mesures ont été en place entre 181 et 270 jours. Voir le graphique 3.

Graphique 3 – Prohibitions ou restrictions à l'exportation en réponse à la COVID-19, par durée des mesures

2.4 Chronologie du nombre de mesures en vigueur, par date

7. Sur la base des renseignements concernant les dates auxquelles les mesures ont été prises (section 2.2) et leur durée (section 2.3), il est possible de suivre le nombre de mesures qui étaient en vigueur à une date donnée et leur évolution. Les renseignements disponibles donnent à penser que, lorsque le pic de la pandémie a été atteint à la fin du mois d'avril 2020, 55 mesures de restriction à l'exportation avaient été mises en place par 37 Membres de l'OMC, un nombre qui a régulièrement diminué depuis. En octobre 2021, un an et demi après que le pic a été atteint, il semble que 29 mesures de restriction à l'exportation adoptées par 19 Membres de l'OMC restaient en vigueur. Voir le graphique 4.

2.5 Produits visés

8. La majorité des mesures prohibaient ou restreignaient l'exportation de ce qu'il était convenu d'appeler les équipements de protection individuelle (EPI), qui comprenaient les dispositifs de protection du visage et des yeux (36 mesures), les vêtements de protection (24 mesures) et les gants (22 mesures). Parmi les autres produits soumis à des restrictions figuraient les antiseptiques et désinfectants, y compris l'alcool (22 mesures), les produits pharmaceutiques (21 mesures), le matériel médical, y compris les appareils respiratoires mécaniques (13 mesures), différents types de fournitures médicales (13 mesures), et d'autres produits. Voir le graphique 5.

2.6 Justifications citées au regard de l'OMC

9. Pour les restrictions et prohibitions à l'exportation qui ont été notifiées au titre de la Décision, les Membres ont fourni des renseignements concernant leur justification au regard des règles de l'OMC. Les Membres ont justifié l'introduction de près de la moitié des 60 mesures de restriction quantitative notifiées en citant à la fois les articles XI:2 a) et XX:b) du GATT de 1994, qui concernent les prohibitions ou restrictions à l'exportation appliquées temporairement pour prévenir une situation critique due à une pénurie de produits alimentaires ou d'autres produits essentiels pour la partie exportatrice, ou pour remédier à cette situation, et les mesures nécessaires à la protection de la santé des personnes et des animaux ou à la préservation des végétaux, respectivement. Les Membres ont exclusivement cité l'article XI:2 a) du GATT de 1994 pour 20% des mesures. Dans les autres cas, d'autres objectifs de politique, tels que la protection de la santé et de la vie des personnes ou la protection des intérêts essentiels de sécurité, ont été cités sans mentionner de disposition spécifique de l'OMC, ou aucune justification n'a été fournie. On ne dispose d'aucun renseignement de ce type pour les 17 mesures recensées dans le cadre de l'exercice de suivi du commerce. Voir le graphique 6.

2.7 Statut actuel des mesures

2.1. Sur la base des renseignements disponibles, il semblerait que près de la moitié des prohibitions et restrictions à l'exportation (41%), tant celles notifiées en tant que restrictions quantitatives que celles recensées dans le cadre de l'exercice de suivi du commerce, étaient encore en vigueur au 4 octobre 2021. Il semble que les autres mesures aient expiré comme indiqué initialement (30%) ou que le Membre ait présenté une notification pour informer les autres Membres que la mesure avait été supprimée (29%). Voir le graphique 7.

3 APERÇU GÉNÉRAL DES COMMUNICATIONS CONCERNANT LES MESURES DE FACILITATION DES ÉCHANGES

11. L'annexe 2 du présent rapport contient un résumé de la teneur de toutes les communications concernant les mesures de facilitation des échanges qui ont été prises par les Membres en réponse à la COVID-19 et présentées au Comité de l'accès aux marchés, ainsi que des mesures de facilitation des échanges recensées dans le cadre de l'exercice de suivi du commerce. Contrairement aux prohibitions et restrictions à l'exportation décrites dans la section 2, qui ont été présentées conformément à la prescription de notification découlant de la Décision, ces communications ont été présentées volontairement par les Membres à des fins de transparence.

12. Au 4 octobre 2021, 12 Membres avaient notifié au Comité de l'accès aux marchés un total de 23 communications contenant 36 mesures de facilitation des échanges. En vue de faciliter l'analyse, et lorsque les renseignements disponibles le permettent, certains des éléments figurant dans les communications ont été uniformisés à des fins de comparaison (par exemple les types de mesures). Les renseignements additionnels recueillis par le Secrétariat dans le cadre de l'exercice de suivi du commerce⁵ font état de 129 autres mesures de facilitation des échanges. Parmi ces mesures, 19 ont été notifiées à d'autres comités de l'OMC, par exemple le Comité de la facilitation des échanges (14 mesures), le Comité des pratiques antidumping (2 mesures), le Comité des licences d'importation (une mesure) et le Comité des obstacles techniques au commerce (une mesure).

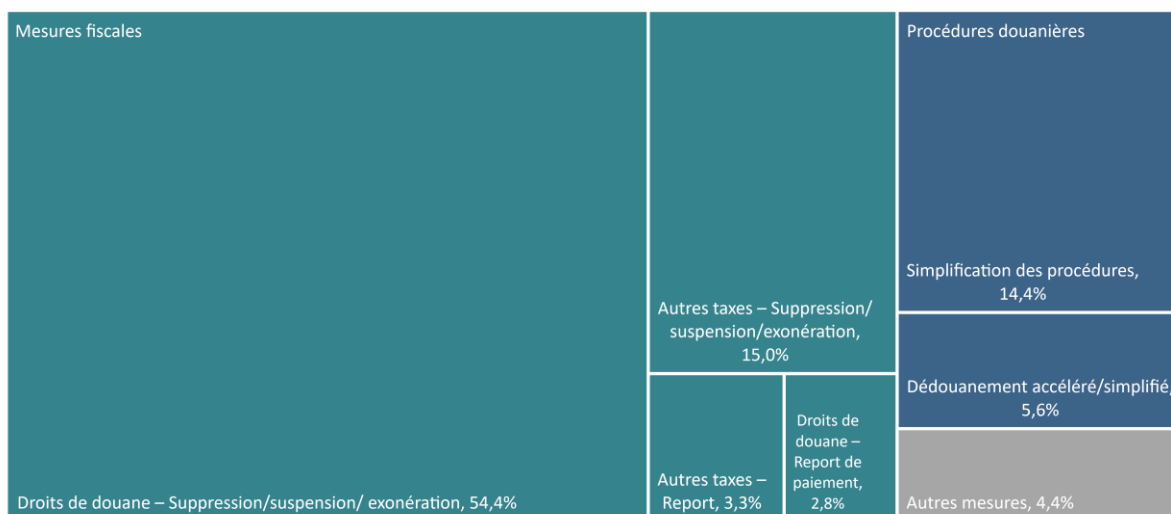

3.1 Types de mesures

13. Comptant pour légèrement plus des trois quarts des mesures de facilitation des échanges, les mesures fiscales visent à réduire le prix des importations essentielles, les rendant ainsi plus abordables et plus disponibles. Par exemple, plus de 50% de ces mesures supprimaient ou suspendaient le paiement des droits de douane à l'importation de produits jugés "essentiels" pour lutter contre la pandémie de COVID-19, ou prévoyaient une exonération du paiement de ces droits (53,8%). En outre, plusieurs Membres ont supprimé ou suspendu le paiement d'autres taxes et/ou droits, tels que la taxe sur la valeur ajoutée, sur ces produits "essentiels", ou ont prévu une exonération du paiement de ces autres taxes et/ou droits (14,8%). En vue de fournir des liquidités aux importateurs, certains Membres ont également décidé de reporter le paiement des droits de douane et d'autres taxes sur tous les produits importés (3,9% des mesures).

14. En plus des mesures fiscales, environ 20% des mesures de facilitation des échanges visaient à simplifier ou à faciliter les procédures douanières, par exemple en introduisant des procédures de dédouanement simplifiées ou accélérées (5,5%), telles que l'établissement de circuits verts pour prioriser l'importation de produits essentiels, et la simplification ou l'élimination de certaines procédures (14,3%). Enfin, environ 4,4% des mesures relèveraient d'autres catégories, telles que l'établissement de procédures spéciales pour l'importation de dons (marchandises de première nécessité) ou l'engagement de s'abstenir d'imposer des prohibitions ou des restrictions à l'exportation de produits "essentiels". Voir le graphique 8.

⁵ La section du site Web de l'OMC consacrée à la COVID-19 comprend une sous-section intitulée "COVID-19: mesures affectant le commerce des marchandises". Voir https://www.wto.org/french/tratop_f/covid19_f/trade_related_goods_measure_f.htm.

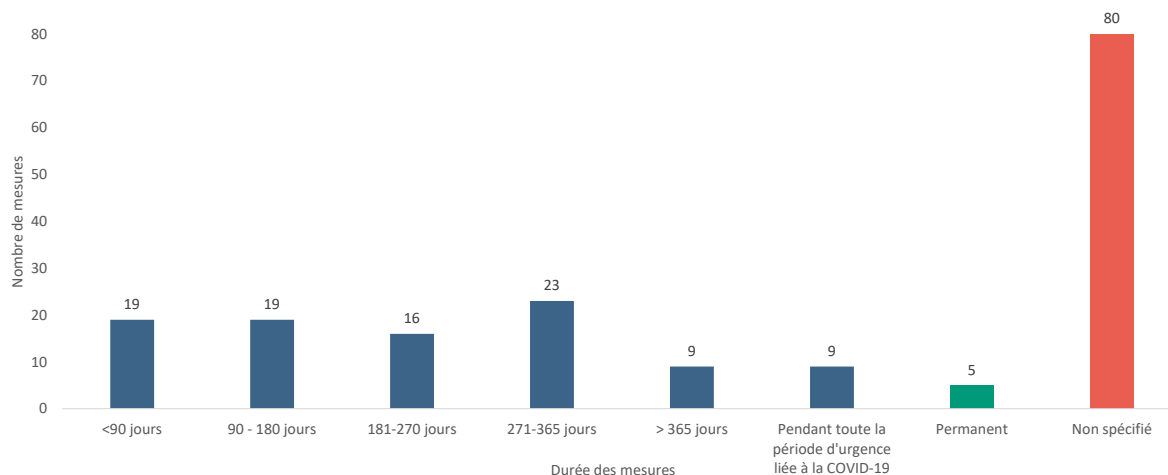

Graphique 8 – Mesures de facilitation des échanges liées à la COVID-19, par types de mesures

Source: Secrétariat de l'OMC.

3.2 Durée des mesures

15. La majorité des mesures de facilitation des échanges semblent avoir un caractère temporaire, mais dans 80 cas, les renseignements relatifs à la durée prévue de la mesure sont soit incomplets soit inexistants. S'agissant des mesures pour lesquelles les Membres ont fourni des renseignements, la majorité semble avoir été en place entre 180 et 365 jours (soit entre 6 mois et 1 an), avec des mesures qui ont duré jusqu'à 6 mois et d'autres ayant duré plus longtemps. La mesure la plus courte n'a duré que 9 jours, tandis que la plus longue devrait rester en place pendant 987 jours. Il convient également de mentionner que certaines mesures ont été qualifiées de mesures de facilitation des échanges "permanentes" pour promouvoir le commerce de produits "essentiels" dans la lutte contre la pandémie de COVID-19. Voir le graphique 9.

Graphique 9 – Mesures de facilitation des échanges liées à la COVID-19, par durée des mesures

Source: Secrétariat de l'OMC.

3.3 Produits visés

16. Il apparaît que les principales catégories de produits visés par les mesures de facilitation des échanges sont de nature semblable aux produits qui ont fait l'objet des prohibitions et restrictions à l'exportation analysées dans la section 2. Quarante-trois Membres ont pris des mesures visant à simplifier l'importation d'EPI, qui comprend les catégories des équipements de protection du visage et des yeux (par exemple les masques de protection, les écrans faciaux et les lunettes de protection), des vêtements de protection et des gants. Viennent ensuite des mesures relatives à différents types d'antiseptiques et de désinfectants, y compris différents types d'alcool utilisés dans la préparation de ces produits. Voir le graphique 10.

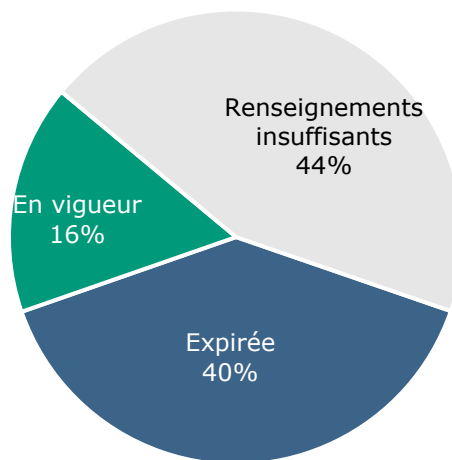

Graphique 10 – Mesures de facilitation des échanges liées à la COVID-19, par types de produits (nombre de Membres)

Source: Secrétariat de l'OMC.

3.4 Statut actuel

17. Sur la base des renseignements disponibles, 40% des mesures de facilitation des échanges semblent avoir expiré et 16% d'entre elles restent en vigueur à la date du présent rapport. Cependant, il n'y a pas d'information sur le statut actuel de près de 50% des mesures de l'analyse. Voir le graphique 11.
