Partnership At Work ...

Serving in two separate schools, I've long-believed that ISM products provide excellent value at a modest cost. ISM earned my complete loyalty when the worst happened—a beloved faculty member was diagnosed with stage 4 cancer. I cannot fully describe the kindness, caring and support Bill Amos and his team gave in arranging her benefits and fulfilling every promise, before and after her death. ISM gave her the gift of financial sustenance as she focused on the time she had left. I can think of no stronger testimonial—when our employees faced life-crisis, Bill and his ISM team were there to take care of them when they needed it the most.

I have partnered with ISM for two decades on LTD benefits for two simple reasons: a superior product and total commitment to the customers they serve. While other firms make assurances, ISM serves and delivers.

Wheeler partners with the ISM Trust to offer its employees comprehensive Long Term Disability and Life insurance programs with an expansive, competitively priced menu of coverages. Their claims service is exceptional, which is a true test of an insurer's commitment to client needs.
