E481.8.4. E481.8.4. Dead in house of cloud. Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 79.

E481.9. E481.9. King of world of dead. (Cf. E481.1.1.) Irish myth: Cross (E481.1.1.1); Icelandic: Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Baholoholo): Einstein 216.

E482. E482. Land of shades. Everything is done by unseen people. Type 425; Tegethoff 14; *Siuts 218ff.; Ward Catalogue of Romances II 425 (Voyage of St. Brandon); N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 339 n. 221.

E485. E485. Land of skulls. Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 275.

E485.1. E485.1. Land of skeletons. Eskimo (Cumberland Sound): Boas BAM XV 230.

E487. E487. Glowing beds of dead. Youth in land of dead puts staff into one of the beds. The iron glows and the wood burns. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 63, 102, Beal XXI 324, 333; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 309 No. 7.

E489. E489. Abode of the dead—miscellaneous.

E489.1. E489.1. Dead awaken after three days to new life and great wisdom. Fb "død" I 228a.

E489.2. E489.2. Life in land of dead contrary to ours. People grow younger and smaller till they become nothing and are reborn. Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 73.

E489.3. E489.3. Forgetting Charon's fee. Philosopher forgets to put coin in mouth before death (Charon's fee). Charon: "Don't you know the custom?" Answer: "Yes, but I couldn't put off dying for a quarter!"—Italian Novella: Rotunda.

E489.4. E489.4. Man's spirit in land of dead prophesies his own future death. India: Thompson-Balys.

E489.5. E489.5. Dancing in afterworld. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 99.

E489.6. E489.6. Culture hero gambles with ruler of the afterworld: result, death or increase in game. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 85.

E489.7. E489.7. Judas Iscariot appears in midst of sea on rock washed alternately by fiery and icy waves. (Cf. Q560.2.3.) Irish myth: *Cross.

E489.8. E489.8. Why living cannot go to land of the dead. Chinese: Graham.

E489.9. E489.9. In land of dead the dead walk on grass without bending it and on mud without sinking. (Cf. F973.2.) Chinese: Graham.

E489.10. E489.10. Land of dead "in Abraham's bosom". Jewish: *Neuman.

E489.11. E489.11. Inhabitants of land of dead have great thirst. Jewish: *Neuman.

E490. E490. Meetings of the dead.

E491. E491. Procession of the dead. *BP III 472 n. 1; Fb "gjenganger" I 443b, "Nytersaften" II 707b; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 23 No. 204; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 323 Nos. 100, 105, 326 Nos. 15, 17; *Geiger Archives suisses des Traditions Populaires XLVII 71—76; West Indies: Flowers 431; Pochulata: Boas JAFL XXV 226; Spanish: Boas ibid. 251; India: *Thompson-Balys.

E492. E492. Mass (church service) of the dead. Held at midnight. *BP III 472, 545; Krappe Balor 116ff., 121 n. 11, JAFL LX 159ff.; *Fb "død" I 228a, "kirke" II 125b; *Grunwald Hessische Blätter f. Vksk. XXX—XXXI 316; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1895) 280ff., (1928) 176ff.; Norwegian: Solheim Register 17; Icelandic: Boberg; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3558; Jewish: *Neuman; New York: Jones JAFL LVII 242.

E493. E493. Dead men dance. *Fb "spøgelse" III 520a, "danse" IV 93a, "sjæl" III 214b, "kirkegaard" II 128b; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 335 s.v. "Geister"; England, U.S.: *Baughman; N. A. Indian (Pawnee): Grinnell 192, (Hupa): Goddard UCal I 239 No. 25, (Luiseco): DuBois UCal VIII 154, (Zuci): Cushing 48 No. 2, (Cherokee): Mooney RBAE XIX 252 No. 5, 331 No. 78, (Kwakiutl): Boas and Hunt JE III 106; Africa: Werner African 188f.

E494. E494. Ball game in lower world. (Cf. E577.1.) N. A. Indian (Thompson River): Alexander N. A. Myth 137; *Icelandic: Boberg.

E495. E495. Wedding of the dead. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 23 No. 208.

E495.1. E495.1. Ghostly marriage party. India: Thompson-Balys.

E495.2. E495.2. Marriage (ceremony) to a ghost. India: *Thompson-Balys.

E496. E496. Ghosts gathered on a bridge. *Fb "bro" IV 62b.

E497. E497. Fighting warriors show the way of their past life and of their death. Icelandic: Boberg.

E499. E499. Meetings of the dead—miscellaneous.

E499.1. E499.1. Gay banquet of the dead. (Cf. E541.) England, U.S.: *Baughman; N. Y.: Jones JAFL LVII 241.

E499.2. E499.2. Orchestra of ghosts. U.S.: Baughman.

E499.3. E499.3. Pot so heavy with ghosts that girl cannot lift it. (Cf. D1317.10.) India: Thompson-Balys.

E499.4. E499.4. Dead in lower world complain about odor of human visitor. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 99.

E500. E500. Phantom hosts.

E501. E501. The Wild Hunt. (Cf. F282.) (Die Wilde Jagd, Das Wütende Heer, Odinsjæger, Chasse Fantastique.) A ghostly hunter and his rout continue the chase. Plischke (bibliography); Schweda; *Wahner Der Wilde Jäger in Schlesien; Lorentzen; Brunk Der wilde Jäger im Glauben des pommerschen Volkes (Zs. f. Vksk. XIII 179); *Zingerle 589f. (bibliography); Jacobsen Harlekin og den vilde Jæger (Dania IX 1); Heilberg Theodorich som den vilde Jæger (Dania IX 239); Olrik Odinsjægeren i Jylland (Dania VIII 139); *Fb "Odinsjæger" III 730ff.; RTP II 156, VI 291, VII 175, 328, VIII 566, IX 91, 411, XIII 186, 695f.; XIV 83, XVI 453, 531, XVII 504f.; Hartland Science 234ff.; Wehrhan 84; Walhouse FL VIII (1897) 196; *O. Höfler Kultische Geheimbünde der Germanen Bd. I: Das germanische Totenheer (Frankfurt a. M., 1934); Tupper and Ogle Walter Map 234. Musical treatments: Raff Symphony No. 3 (1869); J. Triebensee "Die wilde Jagd" (opera, Budapest, 1824); H. Payer "Der wilde Jäger" (opera, Vienna, 1806); V. E. Nessler "Der wilde Jäger" (opera, Leipzig, 1881); M. J. Beer "Der wilde Jäger" (cantata, Olmütz, 1888); A. Schultz "Der wilde Jäger" (opera, Brunswick, 1887); Müller-Reuter "Hackelberends Begräbnis" (choral ballad, 1902); C. Franck "Le Chasseur Maudit" (symphonic poem, 1883). For classical parallels see H. Hepding Attis 124; Gruppe Griechische Religionsgeschichte (1907) 1290 n. 2; Samter Geburt, Hochzeit, Tod 206 n. 5.—Irish: *Cross; Beal XXI 322; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3518; Norwegian: *Solheim Register 17.

E501.1. E501.1. Leader of the Wild Hunt. *Rühlemann passim.

E501.1.1. E501.1.1. King as wild huntsman. (Cf. E501.1.7.) Schweda 38; *Fb "Odins jæger" II 731b; Hartland Science 234, 236; RTP XVII 504f.

E501.1.2. E501.1.2. Nobleman as wild huntsman. Schweda 38; Fb "Odins jæger" II 731b.

E501.1.3. E501.1.3. Rich man as wild huntsman. Schweda 38.

E501.1.4. E501.1.4. Forester as wild huntsman. Schweda 38.

E501.1.5. E501.1.5. Freemason as wild huntsman. Schweda 38.

E501.1.6. E501.1.6. Saint as leader of wild hunt. RTP XVII 504f.

E501.1.7. E501.1.7. Historic or romantic hero as leader of wild hunt. Plischke 41; RTP XVII 504f.

E501.1.7.1. E501.1.7.1. King Herla as wild huntsman. *Liebrecht 28; Tupper and Ogle Walter Map 18.

E501.1.7.2. E501.1.7.2. Theodoric as wild huntsman. *Heilberg Dania IX 239, Nyrop ibid. X 177; BP IV 140; Oesterley No. 190.

E501.1.7.3. E501.1.7.3. Wild Edric as leader of Wild Hunt. England: *Baughman.

E501.1.8. E501.1.8. Woman as leader of wild hunt. Favorites are Herodias, Diana, Frau Holle.—Plischke 47; Schwartz Zs. f. Vksk. VII 231.

E501.1.8.1. E501.1.8.1. Herodias as leader of wild hunt. Zachariae Zs. f. Vksk. XXII (1912) 238 n. 7; Germania XVI (1871) 217; Dunlop-Liebrecht 474 n. 170; Grimm Deutsche Mythologie 599; La Tradition IV 69; *Kloss MLN XXIII 82; *Grunwald

Hessische Blätter f. Vksk. XXX—XXXI 317.

E501.1.8.2. E501.1.8.2. Artemis as leader of wild hunt. Gruppe Griechische Religionsgeschichte 840 n. 5, 1292.

E501.1.8.3. E501.1.8.3. Hecate as leader of wild hunt. Pauly-Wissowa s.v. "Hekate"; Rohde Psyche II 84.

E501.2. E501.2. Participants in wild hunt.

E501.2.1. E501.2.1. Knights in wild hunt. Plischke 29.

E501.2.2. E501.2.2. Ladies in wild hunt. Plischke 29.

E501.2.3. E501.2.3. Witches in wild hunt. (Cf. G200.) Plischke 29.

E501.2.4. E501.2.4. Courtisans in wild hunt. (Cf. E501.5.1.2.) Plischke 29.

E501.2.5. E501.2.5. Churchmen in wild hunt. Plischke 29.

E501.2.6. E501.2.6. Soldiers in wild hunt. Plischke 29.

E501.2.7. E501.2.7. Unbaptized children in wild hunt. Plischke 30; *Fb "udøbt" III 960a.

E501.3. E501.3. Wild huntsmen wander because of sin. Schweda 38.

E501.3.1. E501.3.1. Wild huntsman wanders because of cruelty. Schweda 38.

E501.3.2. E501.3.2. Wild huntsman wanders because of suicide. Schweda 38.

E501.3.3. E501.3.3. Wild huntsman wanders because of parricide. Harow RTP XX 369.

E501.3.4. E501.3.4. Wild huntsman wanders because of unshriven death. Schweda 38.

E501.3.5. E501.3.5. Wild huntsman wanders for failure to keep fast day. Plischke 29.

E501.3.6. E501.3.6. Wild huntsman wanders for hunting on Sunday. *Fb "Søndag" III 741a, "Odins jæger" II 731b.

E501.3.7. E501.3.7. Wild huntsman wanders because he wished to continue hunt after death. Fb "jagt" II 36, "jagen" II 35; RTP XIII 695f.

E501.3.8. E501.3.8. Wild huntsman wanders for disturbing church service. Plischke 34.

E501.3.9. E501.3.9. Wild huntsmen cannot die until evil in world has been made right and things return as they had been. England: Baughman.

E501.3.10. E501.3.10. Wild huntswoman wanders because of murder of daughter. England: Baughman.

E501.4. E501.4. Animals follow wild huntsman.

E501.4.0.1. E501.4.0.1. Animals in wild hunt reincarnation of murdered person. Plischke 31.

E501.4.1. E501.4.1. Dogs in wild hunt. Schweda 25; England: Baughman; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 50f., 56, Beal XXI 318f.

E501.4.1.1. E501.4.1.1. Enormous pack of dogs in wild hunt. Overcome people by their mass. Plischke 32.

E501.4.1.2. E501.4.1.2. Dogs with fiery tongues in wild hunt. Schweda 25; *Schwartz Zs. f. Vksk. VII 232; Fb "Odins jæger" II 732a; England: Baughman.

E501.4.1.3. E501.4.1.3. Dogs with fiery eyes in wild hunt. Schweda 25.

E501.4.1.4. E501.4.1.4. Dogs with eyes hanging out over mouth in wild hunt. Fb "øje" III 1165b.

E501.4.1.5. E501.4.1.5. Black dogs in wild hunt. Schweda 25; England: Baughman.

E501.4.1.6. E501.4.1.6. Three-legged dogs in wild hunt. *Zingerle Sagen aus Tirol 590; H. Usener Dreiheit (Rheinisches Museum f. Philologie N. F. LVIII (1903) 1ff., 161ff.).

E501.4.1.7. E501.4.1.7. Winged dogs in wild hunt. RTP XVII 505.

E501.4.1.8. E501.4.1.8. Dogs in single file in wild hunt. Schweda 25.

E501.4.1.9. E501.4.1.9. Dogs on leash in wild hunt. Schweda 25.

E501.4.1.10. E501.4.1.10. Baying dogs in wild hunt. Schweda 25; Fb "hund" I 676a.

E501.4.2. E501.4.2. Wild huntsman's horse. *Howie 51.

E501.4.2.1. E501.4.2.1. White horse in wild hunt. *Schwartz Zs. f. Vksk. VII 235; Schweda 25.

E501.4.2.2. E501.4.2.2. Black horse in wild hunt. Schweda 25.

E501.4.2.3. E501.4.2.3. Brown horse in wild hunt. Schweda 25.

E501.4.2.4. E501.4.2.4. Horse in wild hunt breathes fire. Schweda 25; Schwartz Zs. f. Vksk. VII 235.

E501.4.2.5. E501.4.2.5. Horse with fiery eyes in wild hunt. Schweda 25.

E501.4.2.6. E501.4.2.6. Two-legged horse in wild hunt. Plischke 30.

E501.4.2.7. E501.4.2.7. Headless horse in wild hunt. Plischke 30.

E501.4.3. E501.4.3. Boar (sow) in wild hunt. Plischke 31.

E501.4.3.1. E501.4.3.1. One-eyed sow in wild hunt. Plischke 31.

E501.4.3.2. E501.4.3.2. Blind wild boar in wild hunt. Plischke 32.

E501.4.4. E501.4.4. Two ravens follow wild huntsman. *Zingerle Sagen aus Tirol 588.

E501.4.5. E501.4.5. Owl (ghost of nun) in wild hunt. Plischke 34.

E501.5. E501.5. Object of wild hunt's pursuit.

- E501.5.1. E501.5.1. Wild hunter pursues a woman. Plischke 65; Fb "Odins jæger" II 732b; Schwartz Zs. f. Vksk. VII 233.
- E501.5.1.1. E501.5.1.1. Naked woman pursued and cut in two by rider. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 228; *Herbert III 134.
- E501.5.1.2. E501.5.1.2. Prostitutes pursued in wild hunt. (Cf. E501.2.4.) Plischke 65.
- E501.5.1.3. E501.5.1.3. Witches pursued in wild hunt. Plischke 65.
- E501.5.2. E501.5.2. Fairies pursued in wild hunt. Fb "Odins jæger" II 732ab.
- E501.5.3. E501.5.3. Wood-spirits pursued in wild hunt. Plischke 66.
- E501.5.4. E501.5.4. Unbaptized children pursued in wild hunt. Plischke 65.
- E501.5.5. E501.5.5. Animals pursued in wild hunt.
- E501.5.5.1. E501.5.5.1. Hare pursued in wild hunt. Plischke 66.
- E501.5.5.2. E501.5.5.2. Deer pursued in wild hunt. Schwartz Zs. f. Vksk. VII 232; RTP XXII 466.
- E501.6. E501.6. Ghostly warner of wild hunt's approach. Plischke 38.
- E501.7. E501.7. Personal appearance of wild huntsmen.
- E501.7.1. E501.7.1. Wild huntsmen headless. *Zingerle 589; Schweda 28.
- E501.7.2. E501.7.2. Wild huntsmen with deer-heads. Plischke 29.
- E501.7.3. E501.7.3. Wild huntsmen with heads on backward. Plischke 29.
- E501.7.4. E501.7.4. Wild huntsmen carrying skull under arms. Plischke 29.
- E501.7.5. E501.7.5. Wild huntsmen with entrails stringing from open bodies. Plischke 29.
- E501.7.6. E501.7.6. Wild huntsmen luminous. Zingerle 4 No. 6.
- E501.7.6.1. E501.7.6.1. Wild huntsmen exhale fire. Schweda 28.
- E501.7.6.2. E501.7.6.2. Wild huntsmen have fiery eyes. Schweda 29.
- E501.7.6.3. E501.7.6.3. Wild huntsmen leave fiery tracks. Schweda 28.
- E501.7.6.4. E501.7.6.4. Wild huntsmen surrounded by fire. Schweda 29.
- E501.7.7. E501.7.7. Wild huntsmen with long hair. Schweda 29.
- E501.8. E501.8. Clothing of wild huntsmen.
- E501.8.1. E501.8.1. Wild huntsmen dressed in black. Schweda 29.
- E501.8.2. E501.8.2. Wild huntsmen dressed in red. Schweda 29.

- E501.8.3. E501.8.3. Wild huntsmen dressed in white. Schweda 29.
- E501.8.4. E501.8.4. Wild huntsmen dressed in ancient costume. Schweda 29.
- E501.8.5. E501.8.5. Wild huntsmen belted and tied up. Plischke 35.
- E501.8.6. E501.8.6. Wild huntsman with black fur cap and white staff. Hartland Science 236.
- E501.9. E501.9. Wild huntsmen invisible. Tobler 92.
- E501.10. E501.10. Objects as part of wild hunt.
- E501.10.1. E501.10.1. Empty shoe follows wild hunt. Plischke 35.
- E501.10.2. E501.10.2. Worn-out broom at head of wild hunt. Plischke 35.
- E501.10.3. E501.10.3. Wagon accompanies wild hunt. Plischke 36.
- E501.11. E501.11. Time of appearance of wild hunt.
- E501.11.1. E501.11.1. Wild hunt appears at night. *Schwartz Zs. f. Vksk. VII 235.
- E501.11.1.1. E501.11.1.1. Wild hunt appears at midnight. Schweda 16; Plischke 52.
- E501.11.1.2. E501.11.1.2. Wild hunt abroad until cockcrow. Schweda 16.
- E501.11.1.3. E501.11.1.3. Wild hunt appears on St. John's Night. Schweda 16.
- E501.11.1.4. E501.11.1.4. Wild hunt appears on stormy nights. Plischke 55.
- E501.11.2. E501.11.2. Wild hunt appears at certain seasons.
- E501.11.2.1. E501.11.2.1. Wild hunt appears in winter. Schweda 16; Plischke 54.
- E501.11.2.2. E501.11.2.2. Wild hunt appears between Christmas and Twelfth Night. Plischke 54.
- E501.11.2.3. E501.11.2.3. Wild hunt appears on feast-days. Schweda 16; Plischke 55; Fb "Odins jæger" II 732ab.
- E501.11.3. E501.11.3. Wild hunt appears periodically.
- E501.11.3.1. E501.11.3.1. Wild hunt appears every seven years. Plischke 64.
- E501.11.3.2. E501.11.3.2. Wild hunt appears yearly at same moment. Plischke 74.
- E501.12. E501.12. Place of appearance of wild hunt.
- E501.12.1. E501.12.1. Wild hunt appears in woods. Schweda 13; Plischke 57.
- E501.12.2. E501.12.2. Wild hunt appears in churchyard. Schweda 13.
- E501.12.3. E501.12.3. Wild hunt appears at crossroads. Schweda 13; Plischke 61.
- E501.12.4. E501.12.4. Wild hunt appears by body of water. Schweda 13; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 678.

E501.12.5. E501.12.5. Wild hunt appears by hill or mountain. Schweda 14; Plischke 57.

E501.12.6. E501.12.6. Wild hunt appears in a field. Schweda 14.

E501.12.6.1. E501.12.6.1. Wild hunt appears in old battlefield. Plischke 29, 59.

E501.12.7. E501.12.7. Wild hunt appears at desert spot. Schweda 14.

E501.12.8. E501.12.8. Wild hunt appears at castle. Schweda 14.

E501.12.9. E501.12.9. Wild hunt appears over city. Schweda 14.

E501.12.10. E501.12.10. Wild hunt appears at old mill. Schweda 14.

E501.13. E501.13. Phenomena at appearance of wild hunt.

E501.13.1. E501.13.1. Wild hunt heralded by noise. Schweda 20, Plischke 36.

E501.13.1.1. E501.13.1.1. Wild hunt heralded by detonation. Schweda 21.

E501.13.1.2. E501.13.1.2. Wild hunt heralded by rattle of chains. Schweda 20; New York: Jones JAFL LVII 250.

E501.13.1.3. E501.13.1.3. Wild hunt heralded by clash of swords. Plischke 29.

E501.13.1.4. E501.13.1.4. Wild hunt heralded by ringing of bells. Schweda 21.

E501.13.2. E501.13.2. Wild hunt heralded by music. Plischke 36.

E501.13.3. E501.13.3. Wild hunt heralded by noise of horses.

E501.13.3.1. E501.13.3.1. Wild hunt heralded by stamping of horses. Schweda 21.

E501.13.3.2. E501.13.3.2. Wild hunt heralded by neighing of horses. Schweda 21.

E501.13.4. E501.13.4. Wild hunt heralded by baying of hounds. Schweda 21.

E501.13.5. E501.13.5. Wild hunt heralded by shouts of huntsmen. Schweda 21, Tobler 92.

E501.13.6. E501.13.6. Wild hunt heralded by storm. Plischke 37.

E501.13.7. E501.13.7. Wild hunt heralded by fire. Schweda 21.

E501.14. E501.14. Course of wild hunt.

E501.14.1. E501.14.1. Wild hunt chases in air. Plischke 62; Mazeret RTP XXV 313.

E501.14.1.1. E501.14.1.1. Wild hunt in air very close to ground. Plischke 63.

E501.14.2. E501.14.2. Wild hunt courses in particular direction. Plischke 63.

E501.14.3. E501.14.3. Wild hunt goes thrice around pond. Schweda 29.

E501.14.4. E501.14.4. Wild hunt goes several times around a hill. Schweda 29.

E501.14.5. E501.14.5. Wild hunt goes around the entire earth. Plischke 64.

E501.14.6. E501.14.6. Wild hunt goes through houses when front and back doors are on a line. (Cf. E501.17.5.4.) Plischke 64; Fb "port" II 862b, "Odins jæger" II 732b.

E501.15. E501.15. Behavior of wild huntsmen.

E501.15.1. E501.15.1. Wild huntsman blows horn. Schwartz Zs. f. Vksk. VII 232.

E501.15.2. E501.15.2. Wild huntsman has his horse beaten. *Zingerle 589.

E501.15.3. E501.15.3. Wild huntsman makes people carry him on their backs. Harou RTP XX 368.

E501.15.4. E501.15.4. Wild huntsman repays with leaves (shavings) that turn to gold. Plischke 36; Zingerle 589.

E501.15.5. E501.15.5. Living smith must repair wagon belonging to wild hunt. Plischke 36.

E501.15.6. E501.15.6. Behavior of wild huntsman's dogs.

E501.15.6.1. E501.15.6.1. Wild huntsman asks people to hold his dogs. Fb "Odins jæger" II 732a.

E501.15.6.2. E501.15.6.2. Wild huntsman turns his dogs loose on those he meets. Harou RTP XX 368.

E501.15.6.3. E501.15.6.3. Bite of wild huntsman's dogs drives other dogs mad. *Fb "hund" I 676a, "Odins jæger" II 732a.

E501.15.6.4. E501.15.6.4. Wild huntsman's dogs cannot pass over grave. Must be lifted over. Plischke 33.

E501.15.6.5. E501.15.6.5. Wild huntsman's dog cannot be dislodged from house it has entered. Plischke 33.

E501.15.6.6. E501.15.6.6. Wild huntsman's dogs eat dough, bread, meal, etc. Plischke 33; *Zingerle 590.

E501.15.6.7. E501.15.6.7. Wild huntsman's dog when seized becomes stick (black coal). Plischke 32.

E501.15.7. E501.15.7. Wild huntsman waters his horse. Fb "Odins jæger" II 732a.

E501.15.8. E501.15.8. Wild huntsman lives in room on farm. Fb "Odins jæger" 732b.

E501.16. E501.16. Phenomena at disappearance of wild hunt.

E501.16.1. E501.16.1. Wild hunt disappears with loud noise. Schweda 21.

E501.16.2. E501.16.2. Wild hunt disappears with movement of tree tops. Schweda 21.

E501.16.3. E501.16.3. Wild hunt disappears with blast of wind. Schweda 21.

E501.16.4. E501.16.4. Wild hunt disappears in column of fire. Schweda 21.

E501.16.5. E501.16.5. Wild hunt disappears during storm. Schweda 21.

E501.17. E501.17. Evading or combating the wild hunt.

E501.17.1. E501.17.1. Wild hunt powerless against certain persons.

E501.17.1.1. E501.17.1.1. Wild hunt powerless against herdsmen. Schweda 31.

E501.17.1.2. E501.17.1.2. Wild hunt powerless against churchmen. Schweda 32.

E501.17.2. E501.17.2. Wild hunt powerless beyond certain range. Schweda 32.

E501.17.3. E501.17.3. Wild hunt powerless at crossroads. Schweda 32; Plischke 32, 37; RTP XX 163.

E501.17.4. E501.17.4. Wild hunt's power evaded.

E501.17.4.1. E501.17.4.1. Power of wild hunt evaded by prayer. Schweda 31; Plischke 79.

E501.17.4.2. E501.17.4.2. Power of wild hunt evaded by formula. (Cf. D1273.) Schweda 32.

E501.17.4.3. E501.17.4.3. Power of wild hunt evaded by sacrificing to huntsman's dogs. Fb "kvie" II 338.

E501.17.4.4. E501.17.4.4. Power of wild hunt evaded by silence. Schweda 31; England: Baughman.

E501.17.5. E501.17.5. Wild hunt avoided.

E501.17.5.1. E501.17.5.1. Wild hunt avoided by keeping on one's road. Sometimes in middle of road or on right side of road. Schweda 31; Plischke 77.

E501.17.5.2. E501.17.5.2. Wild hunt avoided by getting out of its course. Plischke 76.

E501.17.5.3. E501.17.5.3. Wild hunt avoided by keeping in house with windows closed. (Cf. E501.14.6.) Plischke 76.

E501.17.5.4. E501.17.5.4. Wild hunt avoided by throwing self to earth. Plischke 76.

E501.17.5.5. E501.17.5.5. Wild hunt avoided by staying within circle. (Cf. D1272.) Plischke 76.

E501.17.5.6. E501.17.5.6. Wild hunt avoided by holding bread. (Cf. D1031.1.) Plischke 78.

E501.17.5.7. E501.17.5.7. Wild hunt avoided by holding certain plant. (Cf. D965.) Plischke 78.

E501.17.5.8. E501.17.5.8. Sound of wild hunt avoided by sticking fingers in ears. Fb

"øre" III 1181a.

E501.17.6. E501.17.6. Wild huntsman pacified.

E501.17.6.1. E501.17.6.1. Wild huntsman pacified by sacrifice. *Fb "ofre" II 735a.

E501.17.6.2. E501.17.6.2. Wild huntsman pacified with food. Fb "Odins jæger" II 732b.

E501.17.7. E501.17.7. Wild huntsman released from wandering.

E501.17.7.1. E501.17.7.1. Wild huntsman released from wandering by mould from Christ's grave. Fb "Kristi grav".

E501.17.8. E501.17.8. Wild hunt forced to depart.

E501.17.8.1. E501.17.8.1. Wild hunt frightened away by scolding. Plischke 75.

E501.18. E501.18. Evil effects of meeting wild hunt.

E501.18.1. E501.18.1. Wild hunt harmful to certain persons.

E501.18.1.1. E501.18.1.1. Wild hunt harmful to mockers. Schweda 31; Plischke 69, 72.

E501.18.1.2. E501.18.1.2. Wild hunt harmful to thieves. Schweda 31.

E501.18.1.3. E501.18.1.3. Wild hunt harmful to the curious. Schweda 31.

E501.18.1.3.1. E501.18.1.3.1. Wild hunt throws down man's dead child when asked for part of game. England: Baughman.

E501.18.2. E501.18.2. Wild hunt throws human flesh on persons who see it. This cannot be removed. Schweda 32; Plischke 72.

E501.18.3. E501.18.3. Wild hunt throws horses' feet on persons who see it. This cannot be removed. Schweda 32; Plischke 72.

E501.18.4. E501.18.4. Wild hunt carries person off. Plischke 69; England: Baughman.

E501.18.5. E501.18.5. Wild hunt throws person to ground. Plischke 70.

E501.18.6. E501.18.6. Sight of wild hunt renders person insane. Plischke 70.

E501.18.7. E501.18.7. Sight of wild hunt blinds person. Plischke 70.

E501.18.8. E501.18.8. Sight of wild hunt causes swelling of head. Plischke 71.

E501.18.9. E501.18.9. Sight of wild hunt causes one to stick axe or knife in foot. Plischke 71.

E501.18.10. E501.18.10. Sight of wild hunt causes death. Schweda 32; Ireland: Baughman.

E501.19. E501.19. Remedy for effects of seeing wild hunt.

E501.19.1. E501.19.1. Effects of wild hunt remedied by seeing it a year later in same place. Plischke 74.

E501.19.2. E501.19.2. Effects of wild hunt remedied by asking the huntsmen for salt. Plischke 74.

E501.19.3. E501.19.3. Effects of wild hunt remedied by asking the huntsmen for parsley. Plischke 74.

E501.19.4. E501.19.4. Effects of wild hunt remedied by asking to partake in booty of hunt. This booty is the same kind as the hunt has already thrown down. (Cf. E501.18.2.) Plischke 74.

E501.19.5. E501.19.5. Effects of wild hunt remedied by eating part of flesh thrown down by it. (Cf. E501.18.2.) Plischke 75.

E501.19.6. E501.19.6. Effects of wild hunt remedied by prayer. Plischke 75.

E501.20. E501.20. Wild hunt as omen.

E501.20.1. E501.20.1. Wild hunt as omen of disaster. RTP XII 186.

E501.20.1.1. E501.20.1.1. Wild hunt as omen of war. Plischke 67; Fb "krig" II 296a; England: Baughman.

E501.20.1.2. E501.20.1.2. Wild hunt as omen of pestilence. Plischke 67.

E501.20.2. E501.20.2. Wild hunt as omen of plentiful year. Plischke 68.

E501.20.3. E501.20.3. Wild hunt as weather omen. Plischke 68.

E502. E502. The Sleeping Army. Soldiers killed in battle come forth on occasions from their resting place (hill, grave, grotto) and march about or send their leader to do so.—*Schweda 59ff.; *Hartland Science 216ff.; Howey 9; Irish myth: *Cross; England, Scotland, Ireland, U.S.: *Baughman; India: Thompson-Balys.

E510. E510. Phantom sailors and travelers.

E511. E511. The Flying Dutchman. A sea captain because of his wickedness sails his phantom ship eternally without coming to harbor. G. Kalff De Sage van den Vliegende Hollander (Zupthen, 1923); Engert Die Sage vom Fliegenden Holländer; W. Söderhjelm Flygande holländeren (Helsingfors, 1890); *Andraea Anglia Beiblatt XIII (1902) 47; Golther Zur deutschen Sage und Dichtung 7; Fb "skib" III 243a; England, U.S.: *Baughman.

E511.1. E511.1. Reason for Flying Dutchman's punishment.

E511.1.1. E511.1.1. Flying Dutchman sails because of cruelty. See all references to E511.

E511.1.2. E511.1.2. Flying Dutchman sails because of pact with Devil. Engert 21ff.

E511.1.3. E511.1.3. Flying Dutchman sails because he defied the storm. Engert passim.

E511.2. E511.2. Flying Dutchman's ship.

E511.2.1. E511.2.1. Flying Dutchman has dead men as sailors. Fb "skib" III 243a.

- E512. E512. Phantom cart driver wanders because of blasphemy. "Peter Rugg the Missing Man." Boasts that he will reach home despite storm or never see his home again. He always travels in hard shower of rain or just ahead of one. U.S.: *Baughman.
- E520. E520. Animal ghosts. Hdwb. d. Abergl. s.v. "Geist"; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 22 No. 201; New York: Jones JAFL LVII 243.
- E521. E521. Ghost of domestic beast.
- E521.1. E521.1. Ghost of horse. *Howey 31; *Fb "stud" III 619b, "hest" I 599b, "helhest" I 584b; *Kittredge Witchcraft 177 n. 31; *Handwb. d. Abergl. IX Nachträge 164ff.; England: Baughman.
- E521.1.1. E521.1.1. Headless ghost of horse. *Howey 62; *Fb "stud" III 619b, "hest" I 599b, "helhest" I 584b; Japanese: Ikeda.
- E521.1.2. E521.1.2. Three-legged ghost of horse. Fb "helhest" I 584b; Hdwb. d. Abergl. II 15, 420, 1011, III 1517.
- E521.1.3. E521.1.3. Ghost of race horse wins race in competition with living horses. U.S.: Baughman.
- E521.2. E521.2. Ghost of dog. Hdwb. d. Abergl. s.v. "Geist"; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 22 No. 202; Jewish: *Neuman; Texas: Bishop Pub. Texas Folklore Soc. XV 119—21; Eskimo (Bering Strait): Nelson RBAE XVIII 488, (Cumberland Sound): Boas BAM XV 228.
- E521.2.1. E521.2.1. Ashes of dead dog speak. *Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 265 No. 72.
- E521.2.2. E521.2.2. Headless ghost of dog. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 682.
- E521.3. E521.3. Ghost of cat. (Cf. E423.1.2.) Kittredge Witchcraft 497 n. 41.
- E521.4. E521.4. Ghost of calf. (Cf. E423.1.8.1.) *Fb "kalv" II 79a; U.S.: Baughman.
- E521.5. E521.5. Ghost of hog. Fb "svin" III 676b.
- E521.5.0.1. E521.5.0.1. Headless ghost of hog. (Cf. E422.1.1.) Fb "svin" III 676b.
- E521.5.1. E521.5.1. Ghost of sow. Fb "sø" III 450a.
- E522. E522. Ghost of wild beast.
- E522.1. E522.1. Ghost of fox (Cf. E423.2.3.) Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 310 No. 24.
- E522.2. E522.2. Ghost of bear. (Cf. E423.2.1.) Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 87.
- E523. E523. Ghost of fish. Eskimo (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 33.
- E524. E524. Ghost of bird. (Cf. E423.3.)
- E524.1. E524.1. Ghost of goose. Fb "gasse" I 425a.
- E524.2. E524.2. Ghost of cock.

E524.2.1. E524.2.1. Cooked cock crows. Fb "kok" IV 272b.

E530. E530. Ghosts of objects. Hdwb. d. Abergl. s.v. "Geist"; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 23 No. 205.

E530.1. E530.1. Ghost-like lights. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 23 No. 210; England, Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.

E530.1.1. E530.1.1. Ghost light follows ghost. U.S.: *Baughman.

E530.1.2. E530.1.2. Ball of fire haunts murderer. U.S.: *Baughman.

E530.1.3. E530.1.3. Ghost light haunts burial spot. England, Scotland, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

E530.1.4. E530.1.4. Ghost light on farm indicates that occupants will move shortly. Scotland: Baughman.

E530.1.5. E530.1.5. Ghost light indicates impending calamity. Scotland: *Baughman.

E530.1.6. E530.1.6. Ghost light serves as death omen. (Cf. D1812.5.) England, Scotland, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

E530.1.7. E530.1.7. Ghost light indicates route funeral will take. (Cf. D1825.7.1.) England, Scotland, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

E531. E531. Ghost-like building. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 23 No. 207; England, U.S.: *Baughman.

E532. E532. Ghost-like picture. U.S.: *Baughman.

E533. E533. Ghostly bell.

E533.1. E533.1. Ghostly bell sounds from under water. England: *Baughman.

E533.2. E533.2. Self-tolling bell. England: Baughman.

E534. E534. Phantom spinning-wheel makes noise. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 678.

E535. E535. Ghostlike conveyance (wagon, etc.). Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 22 No. 203; New York: Jones JAFL LVII 241—243.

E535.1. E535.1. Phantom coach and horses. England, Ireland, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

E535.2. E535.2. Ghostly wagon. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

E535.3. E535.3. Ghost ship. (Cf. E510.) Canada, England, U.S.: *Baughman. Childs NYFQ V 146ff.; Jones JAFL LVII 244.

E535.3.1. E535.3.1. Phantom canoe. New York: Jones JAFL LVII 244.

E535.3.2. E535.3.2. Phantom boat. Tahiti: Henry 91.

E535.4. E535.4. Phantom railway train. U.S.: *Baughman; Jones JAFL LVII 241, 244.

E538. E538. Ghoulish ghost objects.

E538.1. E538.1. Spectral coffin. U.S.: Baughman.

E538.2. E538.2. Ghostly rope of suicide appears. U.S.: Baughman.

E539. E539. Other ghostly objects.

E539.1. E539.1. Oven door jumps into room; money thought to be under spot where it lands. England: Baughman.

E539.2. E539.2. Pot jumps in house to indicate money hidden underneath it. England: Baughman.

E539.3. E539.3. Ghostly wool-packs roll over fields, down hill. England: *Baughman.

E539.4. E539.4. Ghostly chair.

E539.4.1. E539.4.1. Ghostly chair in cellar jumps up and down on three legs, points with fourth at spot on floor. Witnesses dig up body from under floor. U.S.: Baughman.

E539.5. E539.5. Coal in bin jumps around and gurgles. U.S.: Baughman.

E540. E540. Miscellaneous actions of revenants.

E541. E541. Revenants eat. (Cf. E499.1.) *Fb "lig" II 412b, "spøgelse" III 518ab.; India: Thompson-Balys.

E541.1. E541.1. Food placed out for returning souls of dead. Germanic: Celander Nordisk Jul I 203ff., Wuttke Volksaberglaube 471, Archiv f. Religionsgeschichte XIX (1918) 134; Lappish: Rheen Svenska Landsmelen XVII (1898) 27; Slavic: Máchal 230; India: Thompson-Balys.

E541.2. E541.2. Ghost eats living human beings. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

E541.3. E541.3. Dead come forth and eat grave-offerings. India: Thompson-Balys; Eskimo (Bering Strait): Nelson RBAE XVIII 488, (Labrador): Hawkes GSCan XIV 154.

E541.4. E541.4. Revenants drink. India: Thompson-Balys.

E541.4.1. E541.4.1. Amputated head asks for drink. India: Thompson-Balys.

E541.5. E541.5. Dead beg food from living. Africa (Bantu): Einstein 193.

E542. E542. Dead man touches living.

E542.1. E542.1. Ghostly fingers leave mark on person's body. U.S.: Baughman.

E542.1.1. E542.1.1. Ghostly fingers leave mark on man's hand. *Fb "hend" I 765b.

E542.1.2. E542.1.2. Ghost touches man's neck, leaves impression of hand on neck. U.S.: Baughman.

E542.1.3. E542.1.3. Ghost strikes man on mouth; leaves his mouth crooked. Ireland:

Baughman.

E542.1.4. E542.1.4. Ghost strikes man on face.

E542.1.4.1. E542.1.4.1. Ghost strikes man on face: cancer grows there. Canada: Baughman.

E542.1.4.2. E542.1.4.2. Ghost strikes man on face: marks remain permanently. U.S.: Baughman.

E542.2. E542.2. Dead man's hand touches birthmark and thus removes it. *Fb "død" I 228a.

E542.3. E542.3. Ghost throws man into ditch, leaving his side numb. England: Baughman.

E542.4. E542.4. Ghost touches man's hat, scorching it and turning lock of his hair white. U.S.: Baughman.

E543. E543. Dead drag boat to strand. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 5 No. 41.

E544. E544. Ghost leaves evidence of his appearance. (Cf. E322.3.3.1, E542. 1ff.) Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.

E544.1. E544.1. Ghost leaves object after appearance. U.S.: Baughman.

E544.1.1. E544.1.1. Ghost leaves behind a crucifix. England: Baughman.

E544.1.2. E544.1.2. Ghost leaves a ring with the living. England: Baughman.

E544.1.3. E544.1.3. Ghost of drowned man leaves puddle of salt water where he stands. U.S.: *Baughman.

E544.2. E544.2. Ghost pulls off blanket from sleeper. Lithuanian: Balys Ghosts, Index No. 3540.

E545. E545. The dead speak. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman; West Indies: Flowers 431; India: Thompson-Balys.

E545.0.1. E545.0.1. Words uttered from the tomb. *Loomis White Magic 53; Icelandic: Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

E545.0.2. E545.0.2. The dead are silent. Irish myth: *Cross.

E545.1. E545.1. Conversation between the dead. Gaster Exempla 206 No. 110; Jewish: *Neuman.

E545.2. E545.2. Dead predict death. (Cf. E363.3.) Wimberly 268; England, U.S.: *Baughman.

E545.3. E545.3. Dead announce own death. (Cf. E723ff.) Wimberly 268.

E545.4. E545.4. Dead will not speak of their condition. England: Child II 231—3.

E545.5. E545.5. Questions to dead are dangerous. *Fb "død" I 228a; Boberg.

- E545.6. E545.6. Dead speak on Hallowe'en. (Cf. V70.5.) Irish myth: Cross.
- E545.6.1. E545.6.1. Thirsty when hanged, corpse asks for water on Hallowe'en. Irish myth: Cross.
- E545.7. E545.7. Holy man converses with entombed dead. Irish myth: *Cross.
- E545.8. E545.8. Fairy converses with dead. Irish myth: Cross.
- E545.9. E545.9. Dead holy man begs grave-digger not to bury sinner on top of him. Irish myth: Cross.
- E545.10. E545.10. Corpse exclaims over miracle. Irish myth: Cross.
- E545.11. E545.11. Ghost chooses own requiem. Irish myth: Cross.
- E545.12. E545.12. Ghost directs man to hidden treasure. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E545.13. E545.13. Man converses with dead. Jewish: Neuman.
- E545.14. E545.14. The dead hear saint's bell. (Cf. D1213.) Irish myth: Cross.
- E545.15. E545.15. Saint after his death gives directions where he wants to be buried. *Loomis White Magic 53.
- E545.16. E545.16. Dead predict calamity or disaster.
- E545.16.1. E545.16.1. Dead predict war. (See E575.) U.S.: Baughman.
- E545.17. E545.17. The dead foretell the future. (Cf. E363.3, E576.) U.S.: Baughman; Jewish: *Neuman.
- E545.18. E545.18. Ghost asks to be taken to former home. (See all references to E332.3.3.1.) U.S.: Baughman.
- E545.19. E545.19. Addressing the dead.
- E545.19.1. E545.19.1. The dead cannot speak until spoken to. England, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.
- E545.19.2. E545.19.2. Proper means of addressing ghosts. England, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.
- E545.20. E545.20. Part of ghost speaks.
- E545.20.1. E545.20.1. Strand of hair from drowned woman speaks. U.S.: Baughman.
- E545.21. E545.21. Heads of slain people in magician's house advises hero. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E545.22. E545.22. Conversation between God and Adam's corpse. Jewish: *Neuman.
- E545.23. E545.23. Dead must be answered in whispers. Eskimo (Labrador): Hawkes GSCan XIV 153, (Ungava): Turner RBAE XI 266, (Greenland): Rink 302, Rasmussen II 269.

- E546. E546. The dead sing. (Cf. E371.3.) *Type 4031; *Fb "hvid" I 700b; Irish myth: *Cross; New York: Jones JAFL LVII 244.
- E547. E547. The dead wail (Cf. E402ff.) Fb "kirkeklokke" II 131a; Jewish: Neuman.
- E547.1. E547.1. The dead groan. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 681, 685.
- E548. E548. Dead make music on their ribs. Irish: Curtin Myths and Folklore of Ireland 25; India: Thompson-Balys; New York: Jones JAFL LVII 244.
- E551. E551. Dead man sobs. (Cf. E402.1.1.) Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 296 No. 21.
- E552. E552. Ghost in form of bear sneezes. (Cf. E423.2.1.) Tobler 56.
- E553. E553. Ghost becomes log during day. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 101.
- E554. E554. Ghost plays musical instrument. U.S.: Baughman.
- E554.1. E554.1. Ghost plays organ. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 676.
- E555. E555. Dead man smokes pipe. Fb "tobak" III 814a, "spøgelse" III 520a; U.S.: Baughman; N. A. Indian (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE XXXII 219 No. 41, (Teton): Dorsey AA o.s. II (1889) 150.
- E556. E556. Ghost drinks. U.S.: Baughman.
- E556.1. E556.1. Ghost drinks liquor. England, U.S.: Baughman.
- E556.1.1. E556.1.1. The dead man asks for whiskey. Lithuanian: Balys Ghosts.
- E557. E557. Dead man writes. Fb "spøgelse" III 520a.
- E557.1. E557.1. Ghost writes on wall the answers to problems of person in trouble. U.S.: Baughman.
- E558. E558. Ghosts forced to labor. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E561. E561. Dead person spins. Fb "spøgelse" III 520a, "spinde" III 492a; England, Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.
- E561.1. E561.1. Sight of dead woman spinning drives people insane. *Fb "spinde" III 492a.
- E562. E562. Dead person weaves. Fb "spøgelse" III 520a; England: *Baughman.
- E563. E563. Dead person knits. Fb "spøgelse" III 520a.
- E564. E564. Man who has died and returned to life becomes diviner. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E565. E565. Ghosts clank chains. (Cf. E501.13.1.2., E755.2.2.) North Carolina: Brown Collection I 675.
- E567. E567. Dead person threshes. Fb "spøgelse" III 520a.

- E568. E568. Revenant lies down and sleeps. U.S.: Baughman.
- E568.1. E568.1. Revenant leaves impression of body in bed. England, U.S. *Baughman.
- E571. E571. Ghostly barber. *Type 326; *BP I 24; *Fb "balbere" IV 23a.
- E572. E572. Ghost walks through solid substance. U.S.: *Baughman.
- E573. E573. Ghost tried in court. Jacoby Zs. f. Vksk. XXIII (1913) 184; Jewish: Neuman.
- E574. E574. Appearance of ghost serves as death omen. (Cf. D1812.5.1.1, E265.3, E501.20.) England, Scotland, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.
- E575. E575. Ghost as omen of calamity or ill fortune. England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- E576. E576. Dead man praises God. Jewish: *Neuman.
- E576.1. E576.1. Dead intercedes before God for mortal. Jewish: *Neuman.
- E577. E577. Dead persons play games. U.S.: Baughman; Eskimo (Labrador): Hawkes GSCan XIV 153.
- E577.1. E577.1. Dead persons play ball. (Cf. E494.) Wimberly 233.
- E577.2. E577.2. Dead persons play cards. *Type 326; Fb "spøgelse" III 520a; U.S.: Baughman.
- E577.2.1. E577.2.1. Playing cards with a dead man (ghost). Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 678ff.
- E577.3. E577.3. Dead persons bowl. Type 326; cf. Washington Irving's "Rip Van Winkle".
- E578. E578. Dead persons build fires. Type 326; Russian: Ralston 314; India: Thompson-Balys.
- E578.1. E578.1. Revenants want to warm themselves. Type 326.
- E578.2. E578.2. Ghosts warm themselves around fire. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E581. E581. Dead person rides. Fb "spøgelse" III 520a; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 680—682.
- E581.1. E581.1. Whirlwind as ghost's vehicle. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 84.
- E581.2. E581.2. Ghost rides horse. England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- E581.2.1. E581.2.1. Ghost jumps on horse behind man. (Cf. E262.) North Carolina: Brown Collection I 681.
- E581.3. E581.3. Ghost rides cow. U.S.: *Baughman.
- E581.4. E581.4. Ghost rides bus.

- E581.4.1. E581.4.1. Ghost rides on bus, disappears before it crosses bridge. U.S.: Baughman.
- E581.5. E581.5. Ghost rides heavy iron chest. U.S.: Baughman.
- E581.6. E581.6. Ghost rides giant demijohn. U.S.: Baughman.
- E581.7. E581.7. Ghost sails over sound on bundle of straw. Fb "halmknippe" I 539b.
- E582. E582. Dead person drives horses. Fb "spøgelse" III 520a; England: Baughman.
- E583. E583. Dead persons draw chariot. India: Thompson-Balys, Tawney I 457.
- E585. E585. Dead person visits earth periodically. (Cf. E332.3.3.1, E535.3.)
- E585.1. E585.1. Dead person visits earth every seven years. Fb "spøgelse" III 519b; Tobler 66.
- E585.2. E585.2. Spectre rides to castle every seven years. Irish myth: Cross.
- E585.3. E585.3. Revenant revisits earth every day. U.S.: Baughman.
- E585.3.1. E585.3.1. Revenant revisits earth nightly. Africa (Fang): Trilles 269.
- E585.4. E585.4. Revenant revisits earth yearly. S. A. Indian (Brazil): Oberg 109.
- E586. E586. Dead returns soon after burial. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E586.0.1. E586.0.1. Ghost returns before burial. U.S.: Baughman.
- E586.1. E586.1. Dead returns on burial day. Fb "spøgelse" III 519ab; Spanish Exempla: Keller; England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- E586.2. E586.2. Dead returns third day after burial. Fb "sjæl" III 214b, "spøgelse" III 519b; N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 101; Eskimo (Labrador): Hawkes GSCan XIV 153.
- E586.3. E586.3. Dead return second day after burial. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 99.
- E586.4. E586.4. Dead sent back to life because his name is not in heavenly roll. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E587. E587. Ghosts walk at certain times.
- E587.1. E587.1. Ghosts walk at midday. Fb "middag" II 585b.
- E587.2. E587.2. Ghosts walk on Hallowe'en. (Cf. F211.1.1.1.) Irish myth: Cross; U.S.: Baughman.
- E587.2.1. E587.2.1. Ghost most numerous on St. Thomas Eve and St. Thomas Day. England: Baughman.
- E587.3. E587.3. Ghosts walk from curfew to cockcrow. (Cf. E452.) England: Baughman.

- E587.4. E587.4. Spirits are always in the air. England: Baughman.
- E587.5. E587.5. Ghost walk at midnight. U.S.: Baughman.
- E587.6. E587.6. Ghosts walk at full moon. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 198.
- E588. E588. Ghost leaves stench behind. Fb "stank"; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 276, Rasmussen II 275.
- E591. E591. Ghost travels under ground. Fb "jord" II 45b.
- E592. E592. Ghost carries burden.
- E592.1. E592.1. Ghost carries own dead body. Kai (German New Guinea): Dixon 142.
- E592.2. E592.2. Ghost carries coffin on back. Wimberly 238.
- E593. E593. Ghost takes things from people.
- E593.1. E593.1. Ghost steals collar of priest. Evil therefore befalls priest. *Fb "gjenganger" I 443.
- E593.2. E593.2. Ghost steals book from priest. *Fb "bog" IV 53b.
- E593.3. E593.3. If no lamp is lighted in a house for a period of fourteen days, ghosts take it for their dwelling. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E593.4. E593.4. Ghost takes bones from grave. Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 81.
- E593.5. E593.5. Ghost steals food and treasure. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 123.
- E594. E594. Dead man wanders with torch. (Cf. E599.7.) Tobler 84; Eskimo (Ungava): Turner RBAE XI 266.
- E595. E595. Cures by transferring disease to dead. Ghoulish charm used for this purpose. Kittredge Witchcraft 143, 461 n. 34.
- E596. E596. Living person in service of a dead man. BP I 214.
- E596.1. E596.1. Ghost works for human being. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E597. E597. Corpse leaps up in emotion at saint's passing nearby. Irish myth: Cross.
- E598. E598. Death and return to life rids man of disease. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E599. E599. Other actions of revenants.
- E599.1. E599.1. Ghost searches for breath. U.S.: Baughman.
- E599.2. E599.2. Ghostly corpses seen on floor of house, disappear when coroner comes. U.S.: Baughman.
- E599.3. E599.3. Ghost watches (follows) its own corpse. England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- E599.4. E599.4. Ghost asks alms (from one who does not know that asker has died) at usual place and time. England: Baughman.

E599.5. E599.5. Ghost travels swiftly. (Cf. D2122.) England: Baughman.

E599.6. E599.6. Ghosts move furniture. U.S.: *Baughman.

E599.7. E599.7. Ghost carries lantern. (Cf. E371.10, E472, E594, E530.1, F491.1.) U.S.: Baughman.

E599.8. E599.8. Ghost vanishes when taken home. (Cf. E332.3.3.1.) U.S.: *Baughman.

E599.9. E599.9. Ghost seen in two places simultaneously. England: Baughman.

E599.10. E599.10. Playful revenant. England: Baughman.

E599.11. E599.11. Locked doors open at touch of ghosts. India: Thompson-Balys.

E599.12. E599.12. Human being transported by a ghost. India: Thompson-Balys.

E599.13. E599.13. Dead person bathes. Jewish: Neuman.

E600—E699.

E600—E699. Reincarnation.

E600. E600. Reincarnation. Return from the dead in another form. India: Penzer X 336 s.v. "Transmigration", *Cowell Jataka Index s.v. "Bodhisatta" and "Rebirth", Keith 100, *Thompson-Balys; Irish myth: *Cross, Nutt "The Irish Vision of the Happy Otherworld and the Celtic Doctrine of Rebirth" in K. Meyer Voyage of Bran; Icelandic: *Boberg; Estonian: Loorits Grundzüge I 321ff.; Jewish: *Neuman; Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 473; Chinese: Werner 314; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 337 n. 216a, Alexander N. Am. 280 n. 18; Eskimo (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 359, (Greenland): Rasmussen I 115, III 171, (Central Eskimo): Boas RBAE VI 639; S. A. Indian (Brazil): Oberg 109.

E600.1. E600.1. Origin of reincarnation: miscarried message of immortality. India: Thompson-Balys.

E600.2. E600.2. Science of reincarnation taught. India: Thompson-Balys.

E601. E601. Reincarnation: former lives remembered. Jewish: *Neuman, *Penzer X 154 s.v. "Former births"; India: Thompson-Balys.

E601.1. E601.1. Man by magic sees his wives in their former incarnations as dog and sow. India: Thompson-Balys.

E601.2. E601.2. Reincarnated benefactor helped by man he has befriended in former life. India: Thompson-Balys.

E601.3. E601.3. Punishments earned on one life paid in next reincarnation. India: Thompson-Balys.

E602. E602. Reincarnation in form determined at death. India: Thompson-Balys, Tawney II 145.

E603. E603. Limited number of souls in world necessitates reincarnation. India: Thompson-Balys.

E700. The soul.

E604. E604. Definite number of reincarnations.

E604.1. E604.1. Seven reincarnations. *Zachariae 33ff.; India: Thompson-Balys.

E605. E605. Reincarnation in another human form. *M. Bloomfield Proc. Am. Philosophical Soc. LVI 1ff.; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

E605.1. E605.1. Reincarnation with change of sex. *Penzer VII 230; India: Thompson-Balys.

E605.1.1. E605.1.1. Reincarnation: woman reborn as man. Chinese: Werner 256.

E605.1.2. E605.1.2. Man reborn as woman. India: Thompson-Balys; Korean: Zong in-Sob 76.

E605.2. E605.2. Reincarnation: god reborn as man. Icelandic: Olrik Kilderne til Saks Oldhistorie I (1892) 30ff., 60ff., Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys, Keith 168; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 907, 1258; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 119; Marquesas: Handy 109; N. A. Indian (Mandan): Curtis N. A. Indian V 39ff.

E605.2.1. E605.2.1. Reincarnation: spirit reborn as man. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 57.

E605.3. E605.3. Reincarnation: man becomes god. India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Werner 212.

E605.4. E605.4. Reincarnation: man becomes spirit. India: Thompson-Balys.

E605.5. E605.5. Reincarnation: prince becomes common man. India: Thompson-Balys.

E605.6. E605.6. Reincarnation: common man becomes prince. India: Thompson-Balys.

E605.7. E605.7. Man reincarnated as child. (Cf. E607.2.) India: Thompson-Balys.

E605.7.1. E605.7.1. Reincarnation as child which is within a fish. India: Thompson-Balys.

E605.8. E605.8. Horse-headed men reborn as money-lenders. India: Thompson-Balys.

E605.9. E605.9. Reincarnation as conjurer. Eskimo (Cumberland Sound): Boas BAM XV 234, 247, (Greenland): Rasmussen III 130.

E606. E606. Reasons for reincarnation. (Cf. E693.)

E606.1. E606.1. Reincarnation as punishment for sin. India: *Thompson-Balys.

E606.2. E606.2. Reincarnation to complete unfinished work. India: Thompson-Balys.

E607. E607. Methods of reincarnation.

E607.1. E607.1. Bones of dead collected and buried. Return in another form directly from grave. *Type 720; S. A. Indian (Warrau): Alexander Lat. Am. 272.

E607.1.1. E607.1.1. Bones of dead collected and thrown into river. India: Thompson-

Balys.

E607.2. E607.2. Person transforms self, is swallowed and reborn in new form. (Cf. D605.7, D610.) Irish myth: *Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 110; India: Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: Thompson Tales 282 n. 44.

E607.2.1. E607.2.1. Person is swallowed and then reborn. India: Thompson-Balys.

E607.2.2. E607.2.2. Rebirth by crawling into woman's womb. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 57.

E607.3. E607.3. Hauling canoe over dead man's body causes return from dead in new form. Maori: Dixon 55.

E607.4. E607.4. Reincarnation by fasting. Irish myth: Cross.

E607.5. E607.5. Cauldron of regeneration (reincarnation). Irish myth: *Cross.

E610. E610. Reincarnation as animal. Encyc. Rel. and Ethics I 493b; Irish myth: Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "animaux"; Jewish: bin Gorion VI 110, 310; Africa: Werner African 192.

E610.1. E610.1. Reincarnation: man to animal to man. Irish myth: Cross.

E610.1.1. E610.1.1. Reincarnation: boy to bird to boy. Boy returns as bird, who later becomes the boy. *Type 720; *BP I 422.

E610.1.2. E610.1.2. Reincarnation: man to fish to man. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 115, II 151.

E611. E611. Reincarnation as domestic animal.

E611.1. E611.1. Reincarnation as horse. (Cf. D131.) Gaster Exempla 248 No. 349; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 851.

E611.1.1. E611.1.1. Reincarnation: man as horse-head. Hindu: Keith 121 (Vishnu).

E611.1.2. E611.1.2. Reincarnation as donkey. India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 131.

E611.2. E611.2. Reincarnation as cow. (Cf. D133.1.) *Type 510, 511; BP *I 187, III 61ff.; Wesselski Deutsche Märchen vor Grimm (1938) vii ff.; *MacCulloch Childhood 108; India: *Thompson-Balys.

E611.2.0.1. E611.2.0.1. Divinity reincarnated as cow. India: Thompson-Balys.

E611.2.1. E611.2.1. Reincarnation as bull. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 166, II 29.

E611.2.1.0.1. E611.2.1.0.1. Divinity reincarnated as bull. (Cf. A132.9.) Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 152, *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

E611.2.1.1. E611.2.1.1. Reincarnation as bullock. India: *Thompson-Balys.

E611.2.2. E611.2.2. Reincarnation as an ox. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 1124.

E611.2.3. E611.2.3. Reincarnation as calf. Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 54, 189.

E611.2.4. E611.2.4. Reincarnation as a buffalo. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 592; Chinese: Graham (E612.11).

E611.3. E611.3. Man reincarnated as swine. Fb "svin" III 676a, "sjæl" III 214a; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 423, 1031; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 189, 199.

E611.3.1. E611.3.1. Man reincarnated as wild boar. Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; Hindu: Keith 121 (Vishnu).

E611.4. E611.4. Man reincarnated as goat. (Cf. D134.) *Type 510, 511; *BP I 187, III 60ff.; India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 53 No. 2.

E611.5. E611.5. Man reincarnated as cat. Fb "sjæl" III 214a.

E611.5.1. E611.5.1. God reincarnated as cat. India: Thompson-Balys.

E611.6. E611.6. Man reincarnated as dog. (Cf. D141.) Fb "sjæl" III 214a; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 267, 827; Korean: Zong in-Sob 92; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 115.

E612. E612. Reincarnation as wild animal. Estonian: Loorits Grundzüge I 325ff.

E612.1. E612.1. Reincarnation as lion. Hindu: Keith 121 (Vishnu).

E612.2. E612.2. Reincarnation as wolf. Fb "pebersvend" II 795a (werwolf); Irish myth: Cross.

E612.3. E612.3. Reincarnation as hare. Fb "sjæl" III 214a; Gaster Exempla 248 No. 349; Eskimo (Central Eskimo): Boas RBAE VI 639.

E612.4. E612.4. Reincarnation as fox. (Cf. D113.3.) *Type 506; BP III 494ff.; Fb "sjæl" III 214a.

E612.5. E612.5. Reincarnation as deer. Irish myth: *Cross; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 421, II 27f., 69.

E612.6. E612.6. Reincarnation as seal. (Cf. D127.1.) Irish myth: Cross; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 115, III 56.

E612.7. E612.7. Reincarnation as mongoose. India: Thompson-Balys.

E612.8. E612.8. Reincarnation as bear. India: Thompson-Balys.

E612.9. E612.9. Reincarnation as hyena. India: Thompson-Balys.

E612.10. E612.10. Reincarnation as jackal. India: Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera 267, 1034, 1131.

E612.11. E612.11. Reincarnation as elephant. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 157, II 603, 1158.

E612.12. E612.12. Reincarnation as monkey. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 996, II 27, 471, 519, 847, 939.

E612.13. E612.13. Reincarnation as rat. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 290, 1885.

E612.14. E612.14. Reincarnation as otter. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 267.

E613. E613. Reincarnation as bird. Fb "sjæl" III 214a; Gjerdman Nattskärran och några andra Spökfeglar (Arv I 27—68); Estonian: Loorits Grundzüge I 347—363; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 870, II 17; Japanese: Ikeda; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 264ff, Graham; Aztec: Alexander Lat. Am. 61.

E613.0.1. E613.0.1. Reincarnation of murdered child as bird. *Type 720; *BP I 422; *Fb "fugl" I 380b; English: Child I 126, 180f.; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa: Werner African 211, (Basuto): Jacottet 56.

E613.0.2. E613.0.2. Reincarnation of unbaptized child as bird. *Fb "udøbt" III 960a; *Dh III 484.

E613.0.3. E613.0.3. Reincarnation of old maids as birds. Dh III 485; Fb "pebersvend" II 795a.

E613.0.4. E613.0.4. Reincarnation of drowned persons as birds. Dh III 482.

E613.0.5. E613.0.5. Severed heads of monster become birds. Hindu: Keith 88.

E613.0.6. E613.0.6. Reincarnation of girl eaten by tiger as bird. India: Thompson-Balys.

E613.1. E613.1. Reincarnation as duck. Tobler 53; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 453*; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 264.

E613.1.1. E613.1.1. Reincarnation as sheldrake. India: Thompson-Balys.

E613.2. E613.2. Reincarnation as owl. Tobler 97; India: Thompson-Balys.

E613.3. E613.3. Reincarnation as hawk. (Cf. D152.1.) Tobler 97; Irish myth: Cross.

E613.3.1. E613.3.1. Reincarnation as eagle. India: Thompson-Balys.

E613.4. E613.4. Reincarnation as swallow. (Cf. D151.1.) Fb "pebersvend" II 795a.—Finnish: Aarne FFC VIII 15 No. 83; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 147 No. 50.

E613.5. E613.5. Reincarnation as cuckoo. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3134, Legends Nos. 248ff.; Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 89 No. 77.

E613.6. E613.6. Reincarnation as dove. Italian: Basile Pentamerone V 9.

E613.6.1. E613.6.1. Reincarnation as pigeon. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 520, 557.

E613.7. E613.7. Reincarnation as raven. England: *Baughman.

E613.8. E613.8. Reincarnation as quail. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 816, 986, 1065.

E613.8.1. E613.8.1. Reincarnation as partridge. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 226.

E613.9. E613.9. Reincarnation as heron. India: Thompson-Balys.

E613.9.1. E613.9.1. Reincarnation as crane. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 1182.

E613.10. E613.10. Reincarnation as goose. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 267, II 1264.

E613.11. E613.11. Reincarnation as peacock. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 1052, II 671.

E613.12. E613.12. Reincarnation as parrot. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 266, 578, II 247, 572, 730f., 1122, 1173.

E614. E614. Reincarnation as reptile.

E614.1. E614.1. Reincarnation as snake. (Cf. D191.) Fb "sjæl" III 214a; Estonian: Loorits Grundzüge I 339ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 857; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 166f.

E614.2. E614.2. Reincarnation as lizard. India: Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 813; Tonga: Gifford 108.

E614.3. E614.3. Reincarnation as crocodile. India: Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 365, 479, II 555.

E614.4. E614.4. Reincarnation as tortoise. India: Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 267.

E614.5. E614.5. Reincarnation as iguana. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 267.

E615. E615. Reincarnation as amphibian.

E615.1. E615.1. Reincarnation as frog. (Cf. D195.) Tobler 28; Fb "sjæl" III 214a; India: Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 1322.

E616. E616. Reincarnation as insect. Estonian: Loorits Grundzüge I 331ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys.

E616.1. E616.1. Reincarnation as bee. (Cf. D182.) Fb "sjæl" III 214a.

E616.2. E616.2. Reincarnation as butterfly. Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 266.

E616.3. E616.3. Reincarnation as flea. India: Thompson-Balys.

E616.4. E616.4. Reincarnation as weevil. India: Thompson-Balys.

E616.5. E616.5. Reincarnation as bedbug. (Cf. E693.2.) India: Thompson-Balys.

E617. E617. Reincarnation as fish. (Cf. D170, E713.1.) Irish myth: Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 999, 1148, II 691.

E617.1. E617.1. Reincarnation as salmon. (Cf. B124.1, D176.) Irish myth: *Cross; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 115, II 15.

E617.2. E617.2. Reincarnation as goldfish. India: Thompson-Balys.

E617.3. E617.3. Reincarnation as shark. Solomon Islands: Beckwith Myth 13.

E617.4. E617.4. Reincarnation as whale. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 115.

E618. E618. Reincarnation as worm. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 222.

E618.1. E618.1. Reincarnation as leech. India: Thompson-Balys.

E629. E629. Reincarnation as animal—miscellaneous.

E629.1. E629.1. Reincarnation as scorpion. India: Thompson-Balys.

E629.2. E629.2. Reincarnation as crab. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 267.

E630. E630. Reincarnation in object.

E631. E631. Reincarnation in plant (tree) growing from grave. (Cf. E632, D1610.2.) Type 510; BP I 187; *Cox 477 n. 7; *Fb "sjæl" III 214b, "blod" IV 49a, "juletræ" II 57a; Saintyves Contes de Perrault (Paris, 1923) 36ff., 141ff.—English: *Child V 481. s.v. "grave", V 491 s.v. "plants"; Irish myth: Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "arbres", "cadavre", "tombeau"; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 298 No. 7, 311 No 41; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 92 No. 780B; Greek: Fox 198 (Adonis), 201 (Pyramus and Thisbe); Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 6; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 2 Nos. 12, 13; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesian: Dixon 238, De Vries Volksverhalen I 300; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 50f.; Papua: Ker 131; N. A. Indian (Zuci): Cushing 183, (Kato): Goddard UCal V 219 n. 1; Amazon: Alexander Lat. Am. 294; Africa (Kaffir): Theal 147, (Ekoi): Talbot 133.

E631.0.1. E631.0.1. Twining branches grow from graves of lovers. (Cf. E419.6.) Gaidoz Mélusine IV No. 4; Type 966; *Fb "rose" III 80a, "lilie" II 427b, "træ" III 867a; Chauvin V 107 No. 37; Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 264f.; Japanese: Anesaki 253, 346f.

E631.0.1.1. E631.0.1.1. Tops of trees from lovers' graves show shapes of their heads. Irish myth: *Cross.

E631.0.1.2. E631.0.1.2. Tablets made of trees from lovers' graves magically unite. Irish myth: *Cross.

E631.0.2. E631.0.2. Flower from grave bears letters. These commemorate the buried person. *Fb "grav" I 478a, "skrift"; Irish myth: Cross; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 2 No. 11; Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus I 19 n. 3 (Hyacinth).

E631.0.2.1. E631.0.2.1. Flower with "ave" on leaves. Crows from tomb as reward for faithful sayings of "Ave Maria". *Ward Catalogue of Romances II 654 No. 21; Herbert ibid. III 342; Von der Hagen Nos. 73, 88; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

E631.0.3. E631.0.3. Plant from blood of slain person. *Fb "blod" IV 49a, "juletræ", II 57a; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 311 No. 41; Greek: Fox 198, 201; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa: Frobenius Atlantis IV 225f.

E631.0.3.1. E631.0.3.1. Red plant from blood of slain person. *Fb "blod" IV 49a; BP II 532 n. 2.

E631.0.4. E631.0.4. Speaking and bleeding trees. Reincarnated persons. *Reinhard

PMLA XXXVIII 456 n. 106; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 200 s.v. "Baum"; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 299 No. 8; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Ferguson 177.

E631.0.5. E631.0.5. Tree from innocent man's blood. Fb "juletræ" II 57a, "sjæl" III 214b.—English: Child I 143; India: Thompson-Balys.

E631.0.5.1. E631.0.5.1. Dry branch on innocent man's grave blossoms as proof of innocence. Fb "uskyldig".

E631.0.6. E631.0.6. Tree from sinner's grave. Hdwb. d. Märch. I 200 s.v. "Baum".

E631.1. E631.1. Flower from grave. BP II 126; Hungarian: Solymossy Hongaarache Sagen (1929) 243 No. 68, Moyr Ungarisches Jahrbuch V 430; India: *Thompson-Balys; Korean: Zong in-Sob 207.

E631.1.1. E631.1.1. Lily from grave. Fb "lilie" II 427b, "sjæl" III 214b; BP III 461; English: Child I 143; India: Thompson-Balys.

E631.1.2. E631.1.2. Rose from grave. *Fb "rose" III 80a.

E631.1.3. E631.1.3. Reincarnation as lotus. India: Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 527.

E631.1.4. E631.1.4. Reincarnation as cockscomb. India: Thompson-Balys.

E631.2. E631.2. Grass does not grow on murderer's grave. (Cf. H271.) Fb "græs"; England: Baughman.

E631.2.1. E631.2.1. Reincarnation as a grass straw. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 115.

E631.3. E631.3. Herbs grow from grave of healer. Brouwer Das Volkslied in Deutschland, Frankreich, Belgien und Holland (Groningen, 1930) 196ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.

E631.4. E631.4. Dead ogress reincarnated as bramble-bush which prevents escape of fugitive. Chinese: Graham.

E631.5. E631.5. Reincarnation as plant.

E631.5.1. E631.5.1. Reincarnation as tobacco plant. Chinese: Graham; India: Thompson-Balys.

E631.5.2. E631.5.2. Reincarnation as peanut plant. S. A. Indian (Yuracare): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 503.

E631.5.3. E631.5.3. Reincarnation as eggplant. Africa (Luba): LeClerq Zs. f. Kolonialsprachen IV 226f.

E631.6. E631.6. Reincarnation in tree from grave. Japanese: Ikeda; Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 376; Papua: Ker 92. Cf. Virgil Aeneid III 22ff.

E632. E632. Reincarnation as musical instrument. The Singing Bone. A musical instrument made from the bones of a murdered person, or from a tree growing from the grave, speaks and tells of the crime. *Type 780; Mackensen FFC XLIX; BP I 260, II 532; *Fb "streng" III 603a, "harpe" I 559b, IV 201b, "ben" IV 32b; Child I 121—135, 494, IV 449; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "os"; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

E632.1. E632.1. Speaking bones of murdered person reveal murder. India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Africa (Ibo [Nigeria]): Thomas 58, 67, (Fang): Tessman 124ff.

E633. E633. Reincarnation as dish. Bones made into dish. These speak. (Cf. E632.) English: Child I 126; Japanese: Ikeda.

E635. E635. Reincarnation as fountain. Fb "kilde" II 119b; Child V 287a.

E636. E636. Reincarnation as water. (Cf. D283.) India: Thompson-Balys.

E636.1. E636.1. Reincarnation as bag of water. Irish myth: Cross (E636).

E637. E637. Reincarnation as ball (of gold and iron). India: Thompson-Balys.

E641. E641. Reincarnation as whirlwind. Ila (Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 414 No. 12.

E642. E642. Reincarnation as stone.

E642.0.1. E642.0.1. Reincarnation as salt. India: Thompson-Balys.

E642.1. E642.1. Dead lovers are now two stones lying together. India: Thompson-Balys.

E643. E643. Reincarnation as smoke.

E643.1. E643.1. Smoke from funeral fires of two lovers mingles in sky. India: Thompson-Balys.

E644. E644. Reincarnation as rainbow. India: Thompson-Balys.

E645. E645. Reincarnation as mineral.

E645.1. E645.1. Reincarnation of slain boy as gold and silver. India: Thompson-Balys.

E646. E646. Reincarnation as meteor. S. A. Indian (Gran Chaco): Belaieff BBAE CXLIII (1) 380.

E648. E648. Reincarnation: man-object-man. In most of the versions of E632 (Reincarnation as musical instrument) the hero (heroine) finally comes back to life in his usual form. See also BP II 126f.; India: *Thompson-Balys.

E648.1. E648.1. Reincarnation: woman - bird - nettles - stone - woman. Chinese: Graham.

E648.2. E648.2. Reincarnation: man - woman - stone image. Korean: Zong in-Sob 76.

E649. E649. Reincarnation to object—miscellaneous.

E649.1. E649.1. Reincarnation as hill. Head made into hill. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

E649.2. E649.2. Reincarnation as flour vat. Stomach made into flour vat. Cheremis:

Sebeok-Nyerges.

E649.3. E649.3. Reincarnation as hoe. Feet made into hoe. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

E649.3.1. E649.3.1. Reincarnation as hoe-handle. Back made into hoe-handle. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

E649.4. E649.4. Reincarnation as mussel shell. Ears made into mussel shell. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

E649.5. E649.5. Reincarnation as currants. Eyes made into currants. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

E650. E650. Reincarnation: other forms.

E651. E651. God reincarnated as dwarf. Hindu: Keith 121 (Vishnu).

E652. E652. God reincarnated as monster. India: Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 792, 934; Chinese: Werner 207.

E653. E653. Reincarnation: man as nature spirit.

E653.1. E653.1. Reincarnation: man as water spirit. (Cf. F420.) Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 421.

E653.2. E653.2. Reincarnation: man as tree spirit. (Cf. F441.2.) Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 445, 940, II 507, 820, 952.

E656. E656. Reincarnation: animal to man. India: *Thompson-Balys; Korean: Zong in-Sob 57, 96.

E656.1. E656.1. Men who behave irrationally (without plans) reincarnations of animals. India: Thompson-Balys.

E657. E657. Reincarnation: animal to god. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 828.

E658. E658. Reincarnation: animal to other animal. Jewish: Neuman.

E670. E670. Repeated reincarnation. Irish myth: *Cross; Gaster Exempla 248 No. 349; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 9; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 421, II 518, 1117; India: *Thompson-Balys; Marquesas: Handy 106; S. A. Indian (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 142.

E671. E671. Reincarnation: man - object - object.

E671.1. E671.1. Reincarnation: body becomes marble wall; robe, grass; eyes, pools, etc. India: Thompson-Balys.

E690. E690. Reincarnation: miscellaneous.

E691. E691. Reincarnation: animal to object.

E691.1. E691.1. Reincarnation: snake into flowers. India: Thompson-Balys.

E692. E692. Reincarnation as punishment. India: Thompson-Balys.

E692.1. E692.1. Bad woman cursed to be reborn as bat. India: Thompson-Balys.

E692.2. E692.2. Mean person reborn as hyena. India: Thompson-Balys.

E692.3. E692.3. Tricky potter reborn as crab. India: Thompson-Balys.

E692.4. E692.4. Jealous woman reborn as chilly. India: Thompson-Balys.

E692.5. E692.5. Cruel woman reborn as firefly. India: Thompson-Balys.

E692.6. E692.6. Youth reincarnated as root in punishment for incest. India: Thompson-Balys.

E693. E693. Reincarnation for revenge. India: Thompson-Balys.

E693.1. E693.1. Drowned girl reborn as leech to take revenge on murderers. India: Thompson-Balys.

E693.2. E693.2. Woman reborn as bedbug to take revenge on husband. (Cf. E616.5.) India: Thompson-Balys.

E693.3. E693.3. Woman reborn as scorpion to take revenge on husband. India: Thompson-Balys.

E694. E694. Reincarnation as compensation. India: Thompson-Balys.

E694.1. E694.1. Hungry ghost reborn as jackal. India: Thompson-Balys.

E694.2. E694.2. Frustrated woman reborn as tobacco plant. India: Thompson-Balys.

E694.3. E694.3. Frustrated boy reborn as lizard. India: Thompson-Balys.

E694.4. E694.4. Childless woman reborn as fish. India: Thompson-Balys.

E695. E695. Gradual reincarnation—man to tiger. Chinese: Graham.

E696. E696. Reincarnated person restored to original form.

E696.1. E696.1. Bird, reincarnated murdered girl, resumes her original form when persecutor's blood is poured on her. India: Thompson-Balys.

E697. E697. Vulture eats only those who will be reborn as human beings in their next birth. India: Thompson-Balys.

E700. E700. The Soul. Tobler; Feilberg Sjøæletro (København, 1914); Eke Hultkrantz Conceptions of the Soul among the North American Indians (Stockholm, 1953); Hilda R. Ellis The Road to Hell, A Study in the Conception of the Dead in Old Norse Literature (London, 1943) 170ff.—Greek: Waser über die äussere Erscheinung der Seele in den Vorstellungen der Völker, zumal der alten Griechen (Archiv für Religionswissenschaft XVI [1914] 336); Irish myth: *Cross; Skandinavian: *K. S. Kramer Die Dingbeseelung in der germanischen überlieferung (München, 1939); Estonian: Loorits Grundzüge I 182—190, 251—266, 491—506; German: Meyer Germanen 68ff.; Jewish: Neuman; N. A. Indian (Iroquois): Hewitt The Iroquoian Concept of the Soul (JAFL VIII 107).

E700.1. E700.1. Names given the soul. Jewish: Neuman.

E701. E701. Soul of object. Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 13; Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 464.

E701.1. E701.1. Soul of the earth. Cheremis: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 240.

E701.2. E701.2. Soul of water. Cheremis: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 214.

E701.3. E701.3. Soul of tree. Feilberg Am Urquell V 88ff., 119ff.

E701.4. E701.4. Soul of fire. Cheremis: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 236.

E701.5. E701.5. Soul of corn. Cheremis: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 241.

E702. E702. Composition of the soul. Jewish: *Neuman.

E703. E703. Creation of souls. Jewish: *Neuman.

E705. E705. Soul forgets everything at birth. Jewish: Neuman. Cf. Wordsworth "Ode on Intimations of Immortality".

E706. E706. Abode of unborn souls. Jewish: *Neuman.

E707. E707. Person with more than one soul. Jewish: Neuman.

E708. E708. Soul sustained on pleasant odors. Jewish: Neuman.

E710. E710. External soul. A person (often a giant or ogre) keeps his soul or life separate from the rest of his body. *Type 302; *BP III 440; *Krappe in Penzer Ocean of Story VIII 107; *MacCulloch Childhood 118ff.; *Chauvin V 176 No. 100, II 193 No. 12; Fb "hjærte" IV 318b; Mélusine XI 263; *Penzer X 143 s.v. "External Soul"; Clouston Tales I 347; Köhler-Bolte I 161, 515; Gittée RTP II 283; Krappe Revue Archéologique (May-June 1933) 195—211.—Irish myth: *Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "corps", "âme"; Icelandic: Friþjofssaga (Wenz ed., Halle 1914) 16; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 11; Greek: Grote I 136f.; India: *Thompson-Balys; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 178; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 346 n. 246a, *Hultkrantz 330—341; Africa (Swahili): Steere 3ff.

E710.1. E710.1. Ferocious animal guardian of separable soul of ogress. India: Thompson-Balys.

E710.2. E710.2. External soul avenges murder. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 145.

E711. E711. Soul kept in object. (Cf. E765.) *Penzer I 129ff, VIII 107; Indonesian: Dixon 237 n. 50; India: Thompson-Balys; Irish myth: *Cross.

E711.1. E711.1. Soul in egg. *Type 302; *BP III 439; Krappe in Penzer Ocean of Story VIII 107; *Fb "hjærte" I 631a, "liv" II 438b, "æg" III 1141b.—Icelandic: *Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "oeuf"; Missouri French: Carrière; Scotch: Campbell Tales I 1ff.; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 355, 217 No. 73; India: Thompson-Balys.

E711.1.1. E711.1.1. Soul in three separate eggs. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

- E711.2. E711.2. Soul in plant. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- E711.2.1. E711.2.1. Soul in calabash (gourd). Africa (Hottentot): Bleek 55 No. 24; N. A. Indian (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE XXXII 572 No. 116.
- E711.2.2. E711.2.2. Soul in flower. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- E711.2.3. E711.2.3. Soul in chilly plant. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E711.2.4. E711.2.4. Soul in pomegranate. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E711.2.5. E711.2.5. Soul in coconut. India: Thompson-Balys; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 148.
- E711.2.6. E711.2.6. Soul in bamboo. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E711.3. E711.3. Soul in jewel. BP III 439.—India: *Thompson-Balys.
- E711.4. E711.4. Soul in necklace. BP III 439.—India: *Thompson-Balys.
- E711.5. E711.5. Soul in sack. Fb "pose" II 864.
- E711.6. E711.6. Life in stick. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E711.7. E711.7. Soul in stone. (Cf. E761.5.5.) Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.
- E711.8. E711.8. Soul in golden apple. (Cf. F813.1.1.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- E711.9. E711.9. Soul in golden ball. Irish myth: Cross.
- E711.10. E711.10. Soul in sword. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- E711.11. E711.11. Soul in snow. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E711.12. E711.12. Soul in dice. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E711.13. E711.13. Soul in arrow. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E711.14. E711.14. Soul in axe. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E711.15. E711.15. Soul in bird cage. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E712. E712. Hidden soul (life).
- E712.1. E712.1. Soul hidden in tree. *BP III 440; India: *Thompson-Balys, *Penzer V 127 n. 1.
- E712.2. E712.2. Soul hidden in safe. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E712.3. E712.3. Soul hidden in urn. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E712.4. E712.4. Soul hidden in box. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E712.5. E712.5. Soul hidden in pillar. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E712.6. E712.6. Soul hidden in fish basket. India: Thompson-Balys.

E712.7. E712.7. Soul hidden in water bottle. Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G 13/174).

E713. E713. Soul hidden in a series of coverings. This motif is combined with several others. Usually the soul will be hidden in an egg, in a duck, in a well, in a church, or a similar series. *BP III 439; MacCulloch Childhood 134; Penzer I 131; Irish myth: *Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys.

E713.1. E713.1. Soul hidden in apple (ball) in a salmon which appears every seven years in certain fountain. (Cf. D1651.10.) Irish myth: *Cross.

E714. E714. Soul (or life) kept in special part of body. *Krappe in Penzer Ocean of Story VIII 107; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 117 n. 3; N. A. Indian: *Hultkrantz 166-178.

E714.1. E714.1. Soul (life) in the blood. *Fb "blod" IV 46b, "sjæl" III 213b; Paris Zs. f. Vksk. XIII 12 n. 1; Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 4; Jewish: Neuman.

E714.2. E714.2. Serpent's life in its gold crown. Type 672B; *BP II 463; Chinese: Graham.

E714.3. E714.3. Soul in head. Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 83.

E714.3.1. E714.3.1. Troll's life in his brother's forehead. *Fb "hjærte" I 631a.

E714.4. E714.4. Soul (life) in the heart. Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 4; India: Thompson-Balys.

E714.4.1. E714.4.1. Eaten heart gives one the owner's qualities. Fb "hjærte" IV 218b; N. A. Indian: *Hultkrantz 397—411; Jewish: Neuman; Icelandic: *Boberg.

E714.5. E714.5. Soul (life) in the liver. Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 4.

E714.6. E714.6. Soul (life) in the breath. Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 7; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: *Hultkrantz 179—208.

E714.7. E714.7. Soul (life) in left hand. Penzer I 127, VIII 109 n. 3.

E714.7.1. E714.7.1. Soul (life) in thumb. India: Thompson-Balys.

E714.8. E714.8. Monster with life in his neck. (One vulnerable place.) India: Thompson-Balys.

E714.9. E714.9. Giant's soul in a mole in the hollow of his palm. Irish myth: Cross.

E714.10. E714.10. Ogre's soul in "pale spot" below his right ear. (Cf. Z311.2.) Irish myth: Cross.

E714.11. E714.11. Life (soul) in entrails. India: Thompson-Balys.

E714.12. E714.12. Soul in hair. Greek: *Grote I 203.

E714.13. E714.13. Soul fastened to spine. Jewish: Neuman.

E715. E715. Separable soul kept in animal. *Krappe in Penzer Ocean of Story VIII 107; Fb "liv" II 438b.

E715.1. E715.1. Separable soul in bird. BP III 440; India: *Thompson-Balys.

E715.1.1. E715.1.1. Separable soul in duck. *Fb "and" IV 12b.

E715.1.2. E715.1.2. Separable soul in crop of sparrow. Penzer I 131f.

E715.1.3. E715.1.3. Separable soul in parrot. India: *Thompson-Balys, Penzer I 131.

E715.1.3.1. E715.1.3.1. Ogre's life in parrot's feather in man's pocket. India: Thompson-Balys.

E715.1.3.2. E715.1.3.2. Ogre with life in parrot, speaks from inside parrot. India: Thompson-Balys.

E715.1.4. E715.1.4. Soul in crane. India: Thompson-Balys.

E715.1.5. E715.1.5. Soul in starling. India: Thompson-Balys.

E715.1.6. E715.1.6. Soul in raven. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 56.

E715.2. E715.2. Separable soul in fish. (Cf. B175.) BP III 440; Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

E715.3. E715.3. Separable soul in insect.

E715.3.1. E715.3.1. Separable soul in bee. BP III 440; India: *Thompson-Balys.

E715.3.2. E715.3.2. Separable soul in fly. Africa (Bambara): Equilbecq II 88ff. No. 25.

E715.3.3. E715.3.3. Separable soul in hornet. India: Thompson-Balys.

E715.4. E715.4. Separable soul in wild animal.

E715.4.1. E715.4.1. Separable soul in deer. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 55.

E715.4.2. E715.4.2. Separable soul in wolf. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 55.

E715.4.3. E715.4.3. Separable soul in walrus. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 55.

E715.4.4. E715.4.4. Separable soul in seal. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 55.

E715.5. E715.5. Separable soul in snake. India: Thompson-Balys.

E715.5.1. E715.5.1. Separable soul in toad. India: Thompson-Balys.

E715.6. E715.6. Separable soul in hydra's head. Penzer I 132.

E718. E718. Multiple separable souls: ogre's separable spirits live in a tree (plant), fish, honey bee. India: Thompson-Balys.

E720. E720. Soul leaves or enters the body.

E720.1. E720.1. Souls of human beings seen in dream. Icelandic: *Boberg.

E721. E721. Soul journeys from the body. *Frazer Golden Bough III 36ff.; Penzer I 37 n. 1.—*Celtic: H. Hartmann Ueber Krankheit, Tod und Jenseitsvorstellungen in Irland

(Erster Teil: Krankheit und Fairyentrückung) (Halle, 1942); Irish myth: *Cross; Norwegian: Solheim Register 16; Estonian: Looits Grundzüge I 289—295, 305—311; Slavic: Máchal 227; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Werner 267; Japanese: Ikeda; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 171, 178, (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 326; N. A. Indian: Hultkrantz 241—291.

E721.0.1. E721.0.1. Mark inflicted on wandering soul seen on body after soul's return. Irish myth: Cross.

E721.1. E721.1. Soul wanders from body in sleep. Dreams explained as experiences of the soul on these wanderings. *Frazer Golden Bough III 36ff.; Fb "sjæl" III 213a; Tobler 22, 37, 67; Herbert III 209; Oesterley Gesta Romanorum No. 172.—English: Guy of Warwick (EETS extra ser. XXV) lines 9358ff.; Icelandic: Boberg; Irish: Plummer clxxii, *Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3520; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Werner 93; Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 473f.; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 144, 173f.; Cook Islands: Clark 81; Marquesas: Handy 81; Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 56, 363; Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 62; Africa (Fang): Trilles 133.

E721.1.1. E721.1.1. Sleeper not to be awakened, since soul is absent. *Frazer Golden Bough III 37ff.; Tobler 38.

E721.1.2. E721.1.2. Soul of sleeper prevented from returning to his body. Frazer Golden Bough III 38; India: Thompson-Balys; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen II 320.

E721.1.2.1. E721.1.2.1. Soul of sleeper prevented from returning when it is captured in animal form. Frazer Golden Bough III 38.

E721.1.2.2. E721.1.2.2. Soul of sleeper prevented from returning by moving the sleeper's body. (Cf E431.7.2.1.) Frazer Golden Bough III 41; Irish myth: Cross.

E721.1.2.3. E721.1.2.3. Soul of sleeper prevented from returning by burning the body. India: Thompson-Balys, *Penzer I 39 n. 2.

E721.1.2.3.1. E721.1.2.3.1. Body dismembered so soul cannot return. Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 287.

E721.1.2.4. E721.1.2.4. Soul of sleeper prevented from returning to his body when soul as bee leaves body and enters hole in wall beside which he is sleeping. (Cf. E734.2.) England: Baughman.

E721.1.2.5. E721.1.2.5. Frightened soul cannot return to body. Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 452.

E721.2. E721.2. Body in trance while soul is absent. *Fb "legeme" II 393a, "heks" I 581a, "sjæl" III 215a; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 299—300.

E721.3. E721.3. Wandering soul cause of sickness. Frazer Golden Bough III 53ff.; Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 6; Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 473f.; N. A. Indian: *Hultkrantz 448—463.

E721.3.1. E721.3.1. Madness from spirit leaving body: comes back with cough. India: Thompson-Balys.

E721.4. E721.4. Wandering soul detained by ghosts. Frazer Golden Bough III 52ff.

E721.5. E721.5. Wandering soul assumes various shapes. Fb "sjæl" III 214a.

E721.5.1. E721.5.1. Wandering soul assumes shape of wolf. (Cf. D113.1.1, E731.)
Irish myth: Cross.

E721.6. E721.6. On return to body soul crosses on scythe-blade as bridge. *Fb "høle" I 747a; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

E721.7. E721.7. Soul leaves body to visit hell (heaven). (Cf. V511.1, V511.2.) Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

E721.8. E721.8. Soul leaves body to converse with dead. Irish myth: Cross.

E721.9. E721.9. Soul of embryo wanders. Jewish: Neuman.

E721.10. E721.10. Soul takes voyage. Cook Islands: Beckwith Myth 157.

E722. E722. Soul leaves body at death. India: Thompson-Balys; Irish myth: Cross.

E722.1. E722.1. Form of soul as it leaves body at death.

E722.1.1. E722.1.1. Soul as black or white spirit over coffin. Black if condemned. Can be seen by peeping between horse's ears. Fb "sjæl" III 214b.

E722.1.2. E722.1.2. Soul as black or white entity. Black if condemned. Irish myth: *Cross.

E722.1.3. E722.1.3. Soul leaves body as small point of light. England: Baughman.

E722.1.4. E722.1.4. Soul leaves the body in form of bird. (Cf. E732.) England: Baughman; Korean: Zong in-Sob 30.

E722.2. E722.2. Manner of soul's leaving body. Jewish: Neuman.

E722.2.1. E722.2.1. Soul borne away on cloud. (Cf. E754.6.) Chinese: Werner 267.

E722.2.2. E722.2.2. Soul borne away on wind. Chinese: Werner 314.

E722.2.3. E722.2.3. Roof taken off above sick man who cannot die. This done so that the soul can escape. Zachariae Zs. f. Vksk XVIII 445; *Fb "engel" I 250.

E722.2.4. E722.2.4. Condemned soul forked from body by Satan. (Cf. E752.2.) Irish myth: Cross.

E722.2.5. E722.2.5. Saved soul leaps from body on hearing heavenly music. (Cf. E754.) Irish myth: Cross.

E722.2.6. E722.2.6. Doors fly open when one dies. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 685.

E722.2.7. E722.2.7. Soul weeps when departing from body. (Cf. E551.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3504.

E722.2.8. E722.2.8. Soul reluctant to leave body.

E722.2.8.1. E722.2.8.1. Soul lingers in body at death. Lithuanian: Balys Ghosts, Balys Index No. 3503.

E722.2.8.2. E722.2.8.2. Soul hovers over body, reluctant to part. India: Thompson-Balys.

E722.2.9. E722.2.9. Dead friends come for dying man's soul. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3501, Balys Ghosts.

E722.2.10. E722.2.10. Soul taken away by God (angel). Jewish: Neuman.

E722.2.10.1. E722.2.10.1. Chariot of gods bears astral bodies of dead to heaven. India: Thompson-Balys.

E722.2.11. E722.2.11. Soul leaves body through eye. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 144.

E722.2.12. E722.2.12. Soul leaves body because of God's kiss on mouth. Jewish: Neuman.

E722.3. E722.3. Circumstances of soul on leaving dead body.

E722.3.1. E722.3.1. Soul cannot go far from grave. Fb "sjæl" III 214b.

E722.3.1.1. E722.3.1.1. Soul remains about dead body. Chinese: Graham.

E722.3.2. E722.3.2. Soul wanders till corpse decays. Fb "lig" II 413a; Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 3f.; Jewish: *Neuman; Marshall Islands: Davenport 222; Chinese: Graham.

E722.3.3. E722.3.3. Soul visits places of birth, death, baptism, and burial after leaving body. Irish myth: Cross.

E723. E723. Wraiths of persons separate from body. England, U.S.: Baughman.

E723.1. E723.1. Person sees his own wraith. U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

E723.1.1. E723.1.1. Person sees his own wraith; the wraith saves his life. (Cf. E363.2.) England: Baughman.

E723.2. E723.2. Seeing one's wraith a sign that person is to die shortly. (Cf. F405.4.) England, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

E723.3. E723.3. Wraith takes place of person unable to do duty at the necessary time. Scotland: Baughman.

E723.4. E723.4. Wraith does what person wishes to do but is unable to do in the flesh.

E723.4.1. E723.4.1. Wraith returns to home and goes to bed while body is at home of friends in deep reverie. Ireland: Baughman.

E723.4.2. E723.4.2. Wraith of murderer tells authorities where to find girl he has murdered. The murderer is in church at the time. Scotland: Baughman.

E723.4.3. E723.4.3. Wraith of debtor tries to find his creditor at time of death. England: Baughman.

E723.4.4. E723.4.4. Wraith of dying woman goes to see children for last time before death. England: Baughman.

E723.4.5. E723.4.5. Wraith gives information of death in family. England: Baughman.

E723.4.6. E723.4.6. Wraith investigates welfare of absent person. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

E723.5. E723.5. Wraith of sweetheart stays in room where lover has died. It disappears only after her death at far distant point twenty years after death of lover. U.S.: Baughman.

E723.6. E723.6. Appearance of his wraith as announcement of person's death. (Cf. E723.2.) England, Scotland, Wales, U.S.: *Baughman.

E723.7. E723.7. Actions of wraith.

E723.7.1. E723.7.1. Wraith speaks. England, Wales: *Baughman.

E723.7.2. E723.7.2. Wraith rings doorbell. Scotland: Baughman.

E723.7.3. E723.7.3. Wraith opens and closes door. England: Baughman.

E723.7.4. E723.7.4. Wraith slams gate. England: Baughman.

E723.7.5. E723.7.5. Wraith selects wood for coffin. Scotland: Baughman.

E723.7.6. E723.7.6. Wraith binds grain in field. Scotland: Baughman.

E723.7.7. E723.7.7. Wraith rides horse. (Cf. E922.1.1.3.1.) Scotland: Baughman.

E723.7.8. E723.7.8. Wraiths of persons drowning appear in dripping clothes. England: *Baughman.

E723.8. E723.8. Appearance of wraith as calamity omen.

E723.8.1. E723.8.1. Wraith appears before mine disaster. England: Baughman.

E725. E725. Soul leaves one body and enters another. *L. Bloomfield Proc. Am. Philosophical Soc. LVI 1; Penzer I 38; Hartland Science 227; Slavic: Máchal 228; India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: *Hultkrantz 438—440.

E725.1. E725.1. Soul leaves man's body and enters animal's. *Bolte Reise der Söhne Giaffers 208; India: Thompson-Balys.

E725.2. E725.2. Ghost possesses girl and she speaks in dialect unknown to her. India: Thompson-Balys.

E726. E726. Soul enters body and animates it. *Chauvin V 287 No. 171; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Werner 266; N. A. Indian: *Hultkrantz 149—179.

E726.1. E726.1. Soul received at birth. Jewish: Neuman; Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 472.

E726.2. E726.2. Soul of unborn son comes out of mother's mouth (in form of stone), is kept by her, and later is given to son. (Cf. E711.7.) Irish myth: Cross.

E726.3. E726.3. Soul reunited with body. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen II 89.

E727. E727. Relation of body to soul.

E727.1. E727.1. Debate of body and soul. Soul having left body enters into debate with the body concerning relative merits of body and soul. (Cf. H500.) English: *Wells 411; Irish: Gaidoz and Dottin Revue Celtique X part 4, *Cross.

E727.1.1. E727.1.1. Soul curses body. (Cf. M400.) Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

E727.2. E727.2. Soul as vital principle. N. A. Indian: *Hultkrantz 149—179.

E727.3. E727.3. Body dependent on soul. N. A. Indian: Hultkrantz 430—440.

E728. E728. Evil spirit possesses person. India: *Thompson-Balys.

E728.1. E728.1. Evil spirit cast out of person. England, U.S.: Baughman; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

E728.1.1. E728.1.1. Evil spirit cast out of person by killing and resuscitating. Köhler-Bolte I 442ff.

E730. E730. Soul in animal form. (Cf. E721.1.2.4, E722.1.4, E734.2.) Bugiel RTP XVII 602; Tobler 19; England: Baughman; Icelandic: *MacCulloch Eddic 233; Montenegrin: Máchal 228; Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 473; N. A. Indian: Hultkrantz 266f., 496.

E730.1. E730.1. Souls of animals. Slavic: Máchal 227; Jewish: *Neuman.

E731. E731. Soul in form of mammal.

E731.1. E731.1. Soul in form of dog. Tobler 49, 54, 68; Icelandic: Boberg; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 213.

E731.2. E731.2. Soul in form of cat. Tobler 42, 47, 56.

E731.3. E731.3. Soul in form of mouse. Tobler 13ff.; *Fb "heks" I 581a, "høle" I 747a, "mus" II 631b; Sébillot RTP XX 189, 489; J. Grimm Kleinere Schriften VI 192ff.; Germanic: De la Saussaye 296, E. H. Meyer Germanische 64; Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 7f.; Indonesia: Kruyt 176f.

E731.4. E731.4. Soul in form of weasel. Tobler 19; Herbert Catalogue of Romances III 209; Oesterley Gesta Romanorum No. 172; *E. H. Meyer Germanische 64.

E731.5. E731.5. Soul in form of hare. Tobler 20.

E731.6. E731.6. Soul in form of seal. *Fb "sælhund"; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 56, 172.

E731.7. E731.7. Soul in form of bat. Hdwb. d. Aberggl. II 1591; Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 7.

E731.8. E731.8. Soul in form of bear. Icelandic: *Boberg.

E731.9. E731.9. Soul in form of wolf. Icelandic: *Boberg.

E731.10. E731.10. Soul in form of fox. Icelandic: Boberg.

E731.11. E731.11. Soul in form of lion. Icelandic: *Boberg.

E731.12. E731.12. Soul in form of hog. Icelandic: *Boberg.

E731.13. E731.13. Soul in form of bull. Icelandic: *Boberg.

E731.14. E731.14. Soul in form of deer. Icelandic: Boberg.

E732. E732. Soul in form of bird. (Cf. G251.1.1.) Weicker Der Seelenvogel in der alten Literatur und Kunst; *Dh III 482; *Fb "fugl" I 380b, "sjæl" III 214a; *Patch PMLA XXXIII 626 n. 88; De Gubernatis Die Thiere in der indogermanischen Mythologie (Leipzig, 1874) 469ff.; Meyer Germanische 64; *Krappe Balor 95ff., Romanic Review XV 94ff.; *Penzer VI 283; *BP II 394 (Type 707); Tobler 30f.; Wimberly 44; Kruyt 175f.; J. E. Harrison Prolegomena to the Study of Greek Religion 199ff.; Irish myth: *Cross, Beal XXI 322, O'Suilleabhain 99; Icelandic: *Boberg; Slavic: Máchal 229f.; Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 7f.; Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 398, 473; Egyptian: Müller 174; Jewish: *Neuman; Japanese: Ikeda; Marquesas: Handy 36; N. A. Indian: Hultkrantz 266f., 363; Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 60 No. 9.

E732.1. E732.1. Soul in form of dove. (Cf. E423.3.1.) Type 756B; Andrejev FFC LXIX 154; Tobler 28f.; *Crane Miraculis 93 No. 27; Alphabet Nos. 204, 269; Meyer Germanische 63; *Loomis White Magic 66; Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 317, 320, 332, O'Suilleabhain 45, 99, 53; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 320 No. 35, 323 No. 133; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: *Neuman.

E732.2. E732.2. Soul in form of crow. (Cf. B141.4.) Tobler 31; Fb "krage" II 285b.

E732.3. E732.3. Soul in form of hen. Tobler 36; Fb "sjæl" III 214a.

E732.4. E732.4. Soul in form of magpie. Tobler 34.

E732.5. E732.5. Soul in form of seagull. Tobler 34; Fb "mege" II 655b.

E732.6. E732.6. Soul in form of eagle. Icelandic: *Boberg.

E732.7. E732.7. Soul in form of swan. Icelandic: *Boberg.

E732.8. E732.8. Soul in form of raven. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1893) 127—31, (1928) 91—95; Icelandic: Boberg.

E732.9. E732.9. Soul in form of hawk, or falcon seen in dream. (Cf. E720.1.) Icelandic: Boberg.

E733. E733. Soul in form of reptile.

E733.1. E733.1. Soul in form of serpent. Tobler 22ff., 74; Fb "lindorm" II 433b; Meyer Germanische (1891) 63f.; Lévy-Bruhl L'âme primitive 369ff.; Kruyt 177ff.; Schreuer Zs. f. vgl. Rechtsgeschichte XXXIII (1916) 406f.—Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 217, Boberg; Japanese: Ikeda; Oceanic: Dixon 119; Africa: Werner African 193.

E734. E734. Soul in form of insect. *Krappe Balor 95 n. 8.

E734.1. E734.1. Soul in form of butterfly. Tobler 37; Meyer Germanische 63; Hdwb. d. Abergl. II 1627f.; Güntert Kalypso 215ff.; Frazer Golden Bough I 259.—Irish: Beal XXI 307, O'Suilleabhain 24; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "âme", "papillon"; Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 7f.; Jewish: Neuman; Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 473; Japanese: Anesaki 337; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 266; Hawaii: Dixon 76, Beckwith Myth 148.

E734.2. E734.2. Soul in form of bee. Type 808; Hdwb. d. Abergl. IV 468; Tobler 37; Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 473; Japanese: Ikeda.

E734.3. E734.3. Soul in form of spider. 1 Tobler 38.

E734.4. E734.4. Soul in form of wasp. Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 473.

E734.5. E734.5. Soul in form of cricket. Meyer Germanische 63.

E734.6. E734.6. Soul in form of beetle. Hdwb. d. Abergl. IV 906.

E734.7. E734.7. Soul in form of fly. Japanese: Ikeda; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 201.

E734.8. E734.8. Soul in form of grasshopper. Jewish: *Neuman.

E735. E735. Soul in form of fish. Dh. III 482.

E736. E736. Soul in form of amphibian.

E736.1. E736.1. Soul in form of frog. Tobler 26, 75.

E736.2. E736.2. Soul in form of toad. Tobler 25, 29; Meyer Germanische (1891) 64.

E738. E738. Soul in form of a mythical animal.

E738.1. E738.1. Soul in form of dragon. (Cf. B11.) Tobler 81; Icelandic: *Boberg.

E740. E740. Other forms of the soul.

E741. E741. Soul in form of heavenly body.

E741.1. E741.1. Soul in form of star. (Cf. V515.1.2.)

E741.1.1. E741.1.1. Shooting star signifies that someone is dying. One star for each person. At his death it falls. *BP III 235; *G. Bellucci Le stelle cadenti e le lore leggende (Perugia, 1895); *Handwb. d. Abergl. IX n. 770f.; Fb "lys" II 483a, "stjerne" III 577b.—Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3906; Slavic: Máchal 273; India: Thompson-Balys.

E741.1.1.1. E741.1.1.1. New star for each birth. A star in the sky for each person. Fb "menneske" II 577b.

E741.1.1.2. E741.1.1.2. Star as sign of birth of hero. Irish myth: Cross.

E741.1.2. E741.1.2. Shooting star signifies a birth. Stars are the dead. When they fall they are being reborn. At death they are replaced in the sky. *Hdwb. d. Abergl. IX N. 770f.; Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 395; N. A. Indian (Mandan): Alexander N. Am. 96.

E742. E742. Soul as light. *Type 332; Fb "sjæl" III 214b, "lys" II 482a; BP I 377ff., *388; Icelandic: Boberg; Irish: Plummer cxxxviii, Cross, Beal XXI 315, O'Suilleabhain 41; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "vie"; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 24; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 82 No. 708A; Jewish: Neuman; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 48; N. A. Indian: *Hultkrantz 260ff.; Africa (Fang): Trilles 133.

E742.1. E742.1. Soul as taper (candle). Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 313 No. 82.

E742.2. E742.2. Soul as will-o-the-wisp. Appears as a ball or fire or a figure in a fiery garment.—Tobler 82—86 passim; Meyer Germanische 63; Fb "ild" II 11b; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 313 No. 84; Lithuanian: Balys Ghosts; Slavic: Máchal 229ff.; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 677.

E742.3. E742.3. Souls of dead as Aurora Borealis. Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 81; Estonian: Loorits Grundzüge I 284ff.

E743. E743. Soul as shadow. Tobler 89; Meyer Germanische 66; Fb "skygge" (1) III 347b, "sjæl" III 214b; Wundt Völkerpsychologie IV 125ff.; *Hdwb. d. Abergl. IX Nachträge 137; *Frazer Golden Bough III 77ff.; Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 6, 12; Jewish: Neuman; N. A. Indian: Hultkrantz 257ff, 302ff.

E743.1. E743.1. Soul as smoke. Tobler 87; Fb "sjæl" III 214b.

E743.2. E743.2. Soul as reflection or image. N. A. Indian: Hultkrantz 309—316.

E744. E744. Soul as weather phenomenon.

E744.1. E744.1. Soul as mist (fog). Fb "sjæl" III 214b.

E744.2. E744.2. Soul as cloud. Tobler 87f.

E744.3. E744.3. Soul as whirlwind. Tobler 89.

E745. E745. Soul as object. (Cf. E765.) N. A. Indian: Hultkrantz 268; Eskimo (Kodiak): Golder JAFL XXII 11, (Greenland): Rasmussen I 136.

E745.1. E745.1. Soul as feather. Tobler 51; Fb "sjæl" III 214b (shower of feathers).

E745.2. E745.2. Soul as needle. Tobler 51.

E745.3. E745.3. Soul as straw. Tobler 51.

E745.4. E745.4. Soul as flower. BP II 394; Icelandic: Boberg.

E745.4.1. E745.4.1. Soul as lotus flower. India: Thompson-Balys.

E745.5. E745.5. Soul as fruit.

E745.5.1. E745.5.1. Souls as golden apples. Later turn into birds and fly away. Hdwb. d. Märch. I 91b s.v. "Apfel".

E745.5.2. E745.5.2. Soul as bulb. Icelandic: Boberg.

E745.6. E745.6. Soul as ghi (clarified butter). India: Thompson-Balys.

E747. E747. Soul as mannikin (child). Frazer Golden Bough III 26ff.; Tobler 67; Meyer Germanische 66; N. A. Indian: Hultkrantz 262—266.

E747.1. E747.1. Soul as small replica of body. India: Thompson-Balys.

E748. E748. The soul as a guardian spirit. Hilda R. Ellis The Road to Hell, A Study of the Conception of the Dead in Old Norse Literature (Cambridge [Eng.], 1943) 127ff.; Icelandic: *Boberg.

E750. E750. Perils of the soul. *Frazer Golden Bough III 26ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: Hultkrantz 464—480.

E750.0.1. E750.0.1. Soul cannot enter heaven till body is buried. (Cf. E235.2.) Irish myth: *Cross.

E750.1. E750.1. Souls wander after death. *v. Negelein Zs. f. Vksk. XI 16ff., 149ff., 263ff.; Jewish: *Neuman; Japanese: Anesaki 237ff.

E750.1.1. E750.1.1. Virgins condemned to wander at death. Korean: Zong in-Sob 39.

E750.2. E750.2. Perilous path for soul to world of dead. (Cf. F151.1.) Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 484.

E750.2.1. E750.2.1. Dead person of good life goes over bridge to otherworld without fear. India: Thompson-Balys.

E750.2.2. E750.2.2. Perilous valley in (on way to) land of dead. Irish myth: Cross.

E750.2.3. E750.2.3. Branching tree as roadway for souls. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 154.

E750.3. E750.3. Journey of soul to world of dead on reindeer. Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 485.

E750.4. E750.4. Soul leaves possessions on road to final resting place. India: Thompson-Balys.

E751. E751. Souls at Judgment Day. Irish: *Cross; O'Suilleabhain 62, 78, Beal XXI 324, 327; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: *Neuman.

E751.0.1. E751.0.1. There are to be two resurrections. Irish myth: Cross.

E751.1. E751.1. Souls weighed at Judgment Day. (Cf. Q155.1.) Fb "veje" III 1025b; Irish myth: Cross.

E751.2. E751.2. Souls await Judgment Day in shapes of birds. Irish myth: *Cross.

E751.3. E751.3. Souls of Irish to be judged by St. Patrick on Judgment Day. (Cf. Q173.) Irish myth: Cross.

E751.4. E751.4. Four (five) groups on Judgment Day. (Cf. A661.0.5.1.) Irish myth: *Cross.

E751.5. E751.5. Souls of sinners to spend seven years under waters of the sea before Doomsday. Irish myth: Cross.

- E751.6. E751.6. Resurrection to take place on Sunday. Irish myth: Cross.
- E751.7. E751.7. Judgment day on Monday. Irish myth: Cross.
- E752. E752. Lost souls. Hdwb. d. Abergl. s.v. "Arme Seelen"; Irish myth: *Cross.
- E752.1. E752.1. Soul in jeopardy after leaving body. Fb "sjæl" III 214b.
- E752.1.1. E752.1.1. Devil in disguise hunts souls. (Cf. G303.7.1.3.) French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 13; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 91 No. *773A.
- E752.1.2. E752.1.2. Fiends play ball with a soul. Alphabet No. 699.
- E752.1.2.1. E752.1.2.1. Demons amuse themselves by plaguing souls in hell. Irish myth: *Cross.
- E752.1.3. E752.1.3. Souls of dead captured on leaving corpse. Africa (Fang): Einstein 70ff., Trilles Bulletin de la Société Neuchâteloise de Géographie XVI 190ff.
- E752.2. E752.2. Soul carried off by demon (Devil). Frazer Golden Bough III 60; *Fb "djævel" IV 99b.—Irish myth: *Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: *Neuman; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 464.
- E752.3. E752.3. Raven carries off souls of damned. Tobler 31; Fb "ravn" III 22a.
- E752.4. E752.4. Lost soul in raven feathers. Fb "ravn" III 22a.
- E752.5. E752.5. Hell-hounds accompany soul to lower world. Wimberly 120.
- E752.6. E752.6. Soul bound for hell given sight of heaven. Irish myth: Cross.
- E752.7. E752.7. Lost soul gnawed by worms. Irish myth: Cross.
- E752.7.1. E752.7.1. Abandoned souls feed on spiders and night moths. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 154.
- E752.8. E752.8. Souls of dead eaten by sky-spirits. India: Thompson-Balys.
- E752.9. E752.9. Souls of wicked eaten by deity. Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 312.
- E752.10. E752.10. Precautions taken with corpse before burial to prevent evil spirits from getting, using body. (Cf. E431.)
- E752.10.1. E752.10.1. Corpse must be watched carefully before burial. England: Baughman.
- E752.10.2. E752.10.2. Light must be kept burning by corpse to keep evil spirits away. England: Baughman.
- E754. E754. Saved souls. *Frazer Golden Bough III 55ff.; Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 327.
- E754.1. E754.1. Condemned soul recovered. Irish myth: *Cross.
- E754.1.1. E754.1.1. Condemned soul saved by prayer. Alphabet No. 592; Wells 171 (The Gast of Gy); Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 331, O'Suilleabhain 98; Spanish: Boggs FFC

XC 89 No. 760C*, Keller; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 294 No. 7.

E754.1.1.1. E754.1.1.1. Demons powerless over souls commended to God before sleep. Jewish: bin Gorion I 238.

E754.1.2. E754.1.2. Condemned soul saved by Virgin Mary. (Cf. V250.) Crane Miraculis 84 No. 5, 86 No. 10, 87 No. 12, 93 No. 27; Ward II 605 No. 11, *607 No. 16, 635 No. 36, 670 No. 3, 672 No. 7; Wells 167 (Vernon Miracles).

E754.1.3. E754.1.3. Condemned soul saved by penance. (Cf. Q520.) Alphabet No. 697; Irish myth: Cross.

E754.1.4. E754.1.4. Condemned soul saved by holy person. Irish myth: *Cross.

E754.1.5. E754.1.5. Condemned soul released by God. Irish myth: Cross.

E754.1.6. E754.1.6. Condemned soul released from hell by Christ. Irish myth: Cross.

E754.1.7. E754.1.7. Few grains of earth from river bed translates soul destined to an evil future to Paradise. India: Thompson-Balys.

E754.1.8. E754.1.8. Condemned soul released because of tears of living. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 21, 74.

E754.2. E754.2. Saved soul goes to heaven. Fb "sjæl" III 213b; Wells 50, 175; Alphabet No. 316; Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 307f., 322, O'Suilleabhain 24, 27, 99; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

E754.2.0.1. E754.2.0.1. Souls of warriors go to Valhalla. *Hdwb. d. Aberggl. IX Nachträge 239.

E754.2.1. E754.2.1. Souls carried to heaven by doves. Tobler 31; *Fb "himmerige" I 610b.

E754.2.2. E754.2.2. Souls carried to heaven by angels. (Cf V232.2.) Hdwb. d. Märch. s.v. "Engel"; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

E754.2.2.1. E754.2.2.1. Angels of death fail to bring soul to heaven. India: Thompson-Balys.

E754.2.3. E754.2.3. Dead and living go together to gate of heaven. Fb "død" I 228a.

E754.2.4. E754.2.4. Dead children invited to eat at God's table. BP III 463.

E754.3. E754.3. Burial in certain ground assures going to heaven. Irish myth: Cross.

E754.4. E754.4. Soul of hermit who fasts to death for worldly fame would be damned but for past good deeds. Nouvelles de Sens No. 20.

E754.5. E754.5. Souls carried to heaven in chariot of light. Jewish: *Neuman.

E754.6. E754.6. Souls climb pillars of smoke and light on way to heaven. (Cf. E722.2.1.) Jewish: *Neuman.

E754.7. E754.7. Souls of pious as angels. Jewish: *Neuman.

E755. E755. Destination of the soul.

E755.0.1. E755.0.1. Resurrected boys choose to return to heaven. Irish myth: Cross.

E755.0.2. E755.0.2. Angels separate souls going to heaven or hell. Jewish: Neuman.

E755.0.3. E755.0.3. Souls of dead presented to Adam. Jewish: Neuman.

E755.1. E755.1. Souls in heaven. (Cf. A661.) K. Kohler Heaven and Hell in Comparative Religion (New York, 1923); Irish myth: Cross.

E755.1.1. E755.1.1. Heavenly hierarchy. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: Neuman. Maori: Clark 182.

E755.1.2. E755.1.2. River in heaven burns wicked and gives joy to righteous. Irish myth: *Cross.

E755.1.3. E755.1.3. Souls on way to heaven pass through Garden of Eden. Jewish: Neuman.

E755.1.4. E755.1.4. Sixty thousand Jewish souls in heaven. Jewish: Neuman.

E755.2. E755.2. Souls in hell (Hades). A. Graf Miti, leggende et superstizioni del medio evo I 241ff.; K. Kohler Heaven and Hell in Comparative Religion (New York, 1923); Fb "helvede" I 589; Pauli (ed. Bolte) Nos. 122, 281, 406; Alphabet No. 43; Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 320, O'Suilleabhain 53; *Icelandic: Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman.

E755.2.0.1. E755.2.0.1. Souls leave hell on Sundays. (Cf. Q560.0.1.) Irish myth: Cross.

E755.2.1. E755.2.1. Souls of drowned in heated kettles in hell. *Type 475; BP II 423, III 487; Köhler-Bolte I 69; Fb "potte" II 867a.

E755.2.1.1. E755.2.1.1. Souls in hell wrenched from bodies with hot pitchforks by devils. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

E755.2.2. E755.2.2. Souls in chains in hell. (Cf. A671.2.4.7, Q566.1.) Chinese: Werner

E755.2.3. E755.2.3. Lost soul to serve as porter in hell for seven years. Köhler-Bolte I 320; Wimberly 416, 426.

E755.2.4. E755.2.4. Ghosts gather wood for hell fires. Jewish: bin Gorion II 154ff., 348.

E755.2.4.1. E755.2.4.1. Hell fires kindled according to sins of sinners. Irish myth: Cross.

E755.2.5. E755.2.5. Icy hell. (Cf. A677, Q567f.) Alphabet No. 662.

E755.2.6. E755.2.6. Dead flailed by demons. Irish myth: *Cross.

E755.2.7. E755.2.7. Devils torment sinners in hell. India: Thompson-Balys.

E755.2.8. E755.2.8. Dialogue between Christ and the souls in hell. (Cf. V211.7.2.) Irish myth: Cross.

E755.2.8. E755.2.8. Series of hells. (Cf. A651.2.) Jewish: Neuman.

E755.3. E755.3. Souls in purgatory. Landau Hölle und Fegefeuer in Volksglaube, Dichtung und Kirchenlehre (Heidelberg, 1909); Pauli (ed. Bolte) Nos. 464, 467, 469, Crane Liber de Miraculis 86 No. 10; Hdwb. d. Abergl. s.v. "Fegefeuer"; Ward Catalogue of Romances II 440ff.; Herbert ibid. III 330; Alphabet Nos. 504, 661.—Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 330—333, O'Suilleabhain 95, 100, 102f.

E755.3.1. E755.3.1. Soul in purgatory sends letter bidding his son reward one who has prayed him from purgatory. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *769.

E755.4. E755.4. Other destinations of souls.

E755.4.1. E755.4.1. Souls of dead imprisoned in tree. Icelandic: De la Saussaye 298; Irish: Beal XXI 332.

E755.4.2. E755.4.2. Soul of dead in a temple. Chinese: Werner 314.

E756. E756. Contest over souls. (Cf. E754.1.) Type 808.

E756.1. E756.1. Devils and angels contest for man's soul. *Wesselski Märchen 199; *Fb "djævel" IV 99b; *Crane Miraculis 87 No. 11; Irish myth: Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI No. 808; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 808; Estonian: Aarne in FFC XXV No. 808; Jewish: *Neuman.

E756.2. E756.2. Soul won from devil in card game. Fb "spille" III 487b; Irish: Beal XXI 329, O'Suilleabhain 90; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 52 No. 345.

E756.3. E756.3. Raven and dove fight over man's soul. Type 756B; *Andrejev FFC LXIX 157f., *249ff.; Hdwb. d. Märchen I 356a. s.v. "Busse des Räubers"; England, Wales: Baughman.

E756.4. E756.4. Saint wrests soul from demons. (Cf. V229.5.) Irish myth: *Cross.

E756.4.1. E756.4.1. Soul of gambler won by saint in dice game. Dice miraculously split to make higher score for saint.—Spanish Exempla: Keller.

E756.5. E756.5. Saved soul of woman assists her husband's soul in battle against demons. (Cf. E754.) Irish myth: Cross.

E757. E757. The soul prays. Jewish: *Neuman; Chinese: Werner 268.

E758. E758. Rejoicing at arrival of rich man in heaven. Event so rare as to cause rejoicing. Poor man enters unnoticed.—Type 802; BP III 274; Fb "rig" III 55a; Hdwb. d. Märch. I 351a s.v. "Burli im Himmel".

E759. E759. The soul—miscellaneous. Irish myth: Cross.

E759.1. E759.1. Soul strives to be heard by the living. Irish myth: Cross.

E759.2. E759.2. Angel gives soul information concerning mortal. Irish myth: Cross.

E760. E760. Life Index. Object or animal has mystic connection with person. Changes in one correspond to changes in the other.—India: Thompson-Balys.

E761. E761. Life token. (Cf. E760.) Object (animal, person) has mystic connection with the life of a person, so that changes in the life-token indicate changes in the person, usually disaster or death. *Type 303; Polivka The Life Tokens in Folk-Tales, Custom, and Belief (Národopisny Vestnik Ceskoslovensky XII [Prague, 1917]); *Chauvin V 87 No. 27 n. 1, V 295, VII 98 No. 375 n. 1; Penzer I 130, III 272 n. 1, X 210; Clouston Tales I 169ff.; Jacobs' list s.v. "Life index"; *BP I 545, II 392; *Hartland Legend of Perseus II 1—54; Nelson The Life-Index, a Hindu Fiction Motif (Studies in Honor of Maurice Bloomfield) 211ff.—Irish myth: Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "danger"; India: *Thompson-Balys; Oceanic (New Hebrides, Torres Straits, New Guinea, Indonesia): Dixon 133 n. 5; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 317 n. 149, *Hultkrantz 338—340, (California): Gayton and Newman 69; S. A. Indian (Quiché): Alexander Lat. Am. 173; Africa (Kaffir): Theal 81, (Basuto): Jacottet 212, 218 Nos. 31, 32.

E761.1. E761.1. Blood as life token.

E761.1.1. E761.1.1. Life token: water turns to blood. (Cf. F961.3.1, V211.2.3.2.) Fb "vand" III 1000b.—England: Baughman; Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

E761.1.2. E761.1.2. Life token: horn fills with blood. Africa (Congo): Weeks 203.

E761.1.3. E761.1.3. Life token: track fills with blood. *Type 303; Icelandic: Boberg.

E761.1.3.1. E761.1.3.1. Life token: earth, water, or blood in footprint. Earth: dead by disease; water: drowned; blood: killed in battle. Icelandic: Boberg.

E761.1.4. E761.1.4. Life token: blood of fish calls out. Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 187.

E761.1.5. E761.1.5. Life token: blood boils. French: Cosquin Lorraine No. 5; Jewish: *Neuman.

E761.1.5.1. E761.1.5.1. Blood stops boiling. Gaster Exempla 224 No. 194.

E761.1.6. E761.1.6. Life token: blood changes color. Gaster Exempla 251 No. 373; Russian: Ralston Russian Folk-Tales 102.

E761.1.7. E761.1.7. Life token: comb drips blood. Finnish: Kalevala runes 12, 15.

E761.1.7.1. E761.1.7.1. Life token: gloves drip blood. Russian: Ralston Russian Folk-Tales 67.

E761.1.7.2. E761.1.7.2. Life token: scissors (razor, knife) drip blood. Chauvin VII 198; Armenian: Macler Contes Arméniens 28.

E761.1.8. E761.1.8. Life token: cloth becomes bloody. *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 70 n. 3.

E761.1.9. E761.1.9. Life token: hero's horse stands in stable in blood up to his knees. Russian: Rambaud La Russie Epique (Paris, 1876) 378.

E761.1.10. E761.1.10. Life token: milk becomes bloody. England: Baughman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

E761.1.11. E761.1.11. Life token: roof spouts of castle run with blood. England: Baughman.

E761.1.12. E761.1.12. Life token: meal ground in mill is the color of blood. England:

Baughman.

E761.1.13. E761.1.13. Blood stops flowing from wound when captives escape. Papua: Ker 64.

E761.2. E761.2. Life token: staff stuck in ground. India: Thompson-Balys.

E761.2.1. E761.2.1. Life token: staff stuck in ground shakes. Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 212 No. 31, (Kaffir): Theal 82.

E761.2.2. E761.2.2. Life token: staff stuck in ground falls. *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 70 n. 8; Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 220 No. 32.

E761.3. E761.3. Life token: tree (flower) fades. *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 70 n. 1; Fb "lilie"; Böckel Psychologie der Volksdichtung 255; *Loomis White Magic 125f.— Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "flétrissement"; French: Sébillot France III 433; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 93, 96 n. 3, 97; Papua: Ker 61; Indonesian, Polynesian: Dixon 234 n. 46; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 87 No. 5, (Kaffir): Kidd 225, (Madagascar): Dandouau Contes Populaires de Sakalava 231.

E761.3.1. E761.3.1. Life token: bamboo stalks grow with joints upside down. India: Thompson-Balys.

E761.3.1.1. E761.3.1.1. Life token: bananas ripen from bottom up. Papua: Ker 61.

E761.3.2. E761.3.2. Life token: fruit decays on tree. India: Thompson-Balys.

E761.3.3. E761.3.3. Life token: fruit falls from tree. India: Thompson-Balys.

E761.3.4. E761.3.4. Life token: trees prostrate themselves. Jewish: Neuman.

E761.4. E761.4. Life token: object darkens or rusts.

E761.4.1. E761.4.1. Life token: knife stuck in tree rusts (becomes bloody). *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 70 n. 2; *Fb "kniv" II 221a.

E761.4.2. E761.4.2. Life token: picture burns black. *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 70 n. 4.

E761.4.3. E761.4.3. Life token: mirror becomes black (misty). (Cf. D1163.) *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 70 n. 5; Armenian: Macler contes Arméniens 28; Japanese: Ikeda.

E761.4.4. E761.4.4. Life token: ring rusts. English: Child I 201; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 4.

E761.4.5. E761.4.5. Life token: silver object turns dark. Russian: Ralston Russian Folk-Tales (London, 1875) 91.

E761.4.6. E761.4.6. Life token: charm dries. Africa (Lamba): Doke MAFLS XX 14 No. 11.

E761.4.7. E761.4.7. Life token: sword rusts. India: *Thompson-Balys.

E761.4.8. E761.4.8. Life token: beads cling together. India: Thompson-Balys.

E761.4.9. E761.4.9. Life token: milk turns dark. India: Thompson-Balys.

E761.5. E761.5. Life token: object breaks (bursts). India: Thompson-Balys.

E761.5.1. E761.5.1. Life token: pot breaks. (Cf. D1171.1.) Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 188 No. 27.

E761.5.2. E761.5.2. Life token: zither string breaks. *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 70 n. 9.

E761.5.3. E761.5.3. Life token: ring springs asunder. *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 68f. n. 4; Fb "ring" III 60a.

E761.5.4. E761.5.4. Life token: cup springs asunder. (Cf. D1171.6.) *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 70 n. 7.

E761.5.5. E761.5.5. Life token: stone breaks. (Cf. E711.7.) Irish myth: *Cross.

E761.5.5.1. E761.5.5.1. Life token: stones prostrate themselves. Jewish: Neuman.

E761.5.6. E761.5.6. Life token: sheaves prostrate themselves. Jewish: Neuman.

E761.6. E761.6. Life token: troubled liquid. (Cf. D1242.)

E761.6.1. E761.6.1. Life token: troubled water. *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 70 n. 1; Italian: Basile Pentamerone No. 9; India: Thompson-Balys.

E761.6.2. E761.6.2. Life token: milk becomes red. *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 70 n. 1; England: Baughman; India: Thompson-Balys.

E761.6.3. E761.6.3. Life token: boiling liquid. *Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 270 No. 82.

E761.6.4. E761.6.4. Life token: beer foams. (Cf. D1045.) *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 69 n. 5.

E761.6.5. E761.6.5. Life token: wine turns to vinegar. Gaster Exempla 219 No. 156 (155.)

E761.6.6. E761.6.6. Life token: milk becomes agitated in pan at death of relative. (Cf. E761.6.2.) England, U.S.: Baughman.

E761.7. E761.7. Life token: miscellaneous.

E761.7.1. E761.7.1. Life token: ring presses finger. (Cf. D1076.) *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 70 n. 6.

E761.7.2. E761.7.2. Life token: spring goes dry. (Cf. D927.) *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 70 n. 10.

E761.7.3. E761.7.3. Life token: leaves fall from tree. (Cf. D955.) Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 185.

E761.7.4. E761.7.4. Life token: light goes out. (Cf. E765.1.) *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 70 n. 11; Gaster Thespis 275ff.

E761.7.5. E761.7.5. Life token: dogs pulling on leash. Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 123.

E761.7.6. E761.7.6. Life token: bird sent each day to tell of hero's condition; when owl comes it will be to announce death. Carib: Alexander Lat. Am. 265.

E761.7.7. E761.7.7. Life token: bird feathers sink in river at hero's death. Kirghiz: Radloff Proben der Volksliteratur der türkischen Stämme Südsiberiens III 85.

E761.7.8. E761.7.8. Life token: great wind blows. Irish myth: Cross.

E761.7.9. E761.7.9. Life token: flaming shield goes out. (Cf. D1101.1.) Irish myth: Cross.

E761.7.10. E761.7.10. Life token: armor rattles at home when owner is killed away from home. England: Baughman.

E761.7.11. E761.7.11. Life token: music box plays by itself as owner awaits burial. U.S.: Baughman.

E761.7.12. E761.7.12. Life token: arrow falls down. India: Thompson-Balys.

E761.7.13. E761.7.13. Life token: paddy productive or unproductive. India: Thompson-Balys.

E761.7.14. E761.7.14. Life token: rings will exchange places on girls' fingers. India: Thompson-Balys.

E761.7.15. E761.7.15. Life token: direction dagger points determines if ogress has been killed. India: Thompson-Balys.

E765. E765. Life dependent on external object or event. Person's life is mystically connected with something else and comes to an end when that thing is destroyed. India: Thompson-Balys.

E765.1. E765.1. Life bound up with light (flame). Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "vie"; Fb "lys" II 483ab; Gaster Thespis 275f.; Icelandic: *Boberg.

E765.1.1. E765.1.1. Life bound up with candle. When the candle goes out, person dies.—*Krappe in Penzer Ocean of Story VIII 107; Anderson Die Meleagrossage bei den Letten (Philologus N. F. XXXIII [1923]); Icelandic: De la Saussaye 315, *Boberg; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 82 No. 708*A.

E765.1.2. E765.1.2. Life bound up with burning brand (torch). Hartland Science 205 (Olger the Dane); Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus I 65 n. 5 (Meleager).

E765.1.3. E765.1.3. Life-lights in lower world. Each light mystically connected with the life of a person. When light is extinguished, person dies. *Type 332; BP I 377ff., *388.

E765.2. E765.2. Life bound up with that of animal. Person to live as long as animal lives. *Krappe in Penzer Ocean of Story VIII 107; Irish myth: *Cross (Diarmaid); Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 5; India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: Hultkrantz 364—374.

E765.3. E765.3. Life bound up with object. *Krappe in Penzer Ocean of Story VIII 107; India: Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: Hultkrantz 364.

E765.3.0.1. E765.3.0.1. Life bound up with magic object. When magic object is lost, person dies. Irish myth: *Cross.

E765.3.1. E765.3.1. Person to live as long as church stands. Fb "kirke" II 126a, "leve" II 401b.

E765.3.2. E765.3.2. Life bound up with calabash. As calabash grows, so does girl. Africa (Hottentot): Bleek 55 No. 24.

E765.3.3. E765.3.3. Life bound up with tree. India: Thompson-Balys.

E765.3.4. E765.3.4. Girl lives until her cowslip is pulled. England: Baughman.

E765.3.5. E765.3.5. Man's magic contains his life essence. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 541.

E765.4. E765.4. Life bound up with external event. Death to come when certain thing happens.

E765.4.1. E765.4.1. Father will die when daughter marries. (Cf. E765.4.3.) Irish myth: Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 187.

E765.4.2. E765.4.2. Mother will die when daughter is wooed. Irish myth: Cross.

E765.4.3. E765.4.3. Father will die when daughter bears son. (Cf. E765.4.1.) Irish myth: *Cross.

E765.4.3.1. E765.4.3.1. Father (and mother) will die on same day as daughter. Irish myth: Cross.

E765.4.4. E765.4.4. Person will die year he marries. Irish myth: *Cross.

E765.4.5. E765.4.5. Person will die when he drinks from horn. (Cf. D1793.) Irish myth: Cross.

E765.4.6. E765.4.6. Snake can die only if it gives away hoarded treasure. India: Thompson-Balys.

E765.4.7. E765.4.7. Man dies when tortoise shell is dug up. Tonga: Gifford 52.

E765.5. E765.5. One person's life dependent on another's. Penzer I 131.

E766. E766. Object dies or stops when owner dies.

E766.1. E766.1. Clock stops at moment of owner's death. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

E766.2. E766.2. Tree dies when owner dies. England: *Baughman.

E766.3. E766.3. Post falls when owners lose estate. England: Baughman.

E767. E767. Affinity of person and object.

E767.1. E767.1. Ash pole appears at doorway several times on day owner's daughter dies. (It is used for coffin rests. The pole has previously mysteriously escaped being used for other purposes.)—Canada: Baughman.

E767.2. E767.2. Clothes of wicked person burn when owner dies. U.S.: Baughman.

E770. E770. Vital objects. Objects that have life in them. (Cf. D1620, D1640.)

E771. E771. Ring with life in it. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "animisme".

E772. E772. Sickle with life in it. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "animisme".

E780. E780. Vital bodily members. They possess life independent of the rest of the body. (Cf. F1096.) India: Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 346 n. 246b.

E780.1. E780.1. Vital body: kills attacking enemies. India: Thompson-Balys.

E780.2. E780.2. Animal bodily members transferred to person or other animal retains animal powers and habits. (Cf. E781, E782.) Type 660; Haiti: Parsons MAFLS XVII (1) 59—62.

E781. E781. Eyes successfully replaced. Jacobs' list s.v. "Eyes exchanged"; Fb "øje" III 1166a; Köhler-Bolte I 434ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Gaster Thespis 333f.; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 139 No. 13.

E781.1. E781.1. Substituted eyes. Lost eyes are replaced by those of another person or animal. (Cf. F512.1.4.) *Type 660; BP II 552; Irish myth: Cross; Japanese: Ikeda; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 299 n. 94.

E781.1.1. E781.1.1. Prince regains his eyesight after theft of eyes from water maidens. India: Thompson-Balys.

E781.2. E781.2. Eyes bought back and replaced. *Type 533; *BP II 278 n. 1; Köhler-Bolte I 463; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 83 No. 711A; Missouri French: Carrière.

E781.3. E781.3. Eyes borrowed by animal. Later returned.—Africa (Kaffir): Theal 166.

E782. E782. Limbs successfully replaced. Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 248 No. 36.

E782.0.1. E782.0.1. Substituted limbs. Man borrows various limbs and successfully uses them. Africa (Yoruba): Ellis 267 No. 4.

E782.1. E782.1. Hands restored. *Type 706; *BP I 295; Fb "hend" I 765b; Irish myth: Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller, Nouvelles de Sens No. 12; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 2; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

E782.1.1. E782.1.1. Substituted hand. Man exchanges his hand for that of another. *Type 660; BP II 552.

E782.2. E782.2. Substituted ribs (chariot ribs). Irish myth: Cross.

E782.3. E782.3. Arms restored. Irish myth: *Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bras".

E782.3.1. E782.3.1. Substituted arm. Injured arm replaced by another. (Cf. A128.4.1.) Irish myth: Cross.

E782.4. E782.4. Horse's leg cut off and replaced. *Type 753; *BP III 198; *Lowes Romanic Review V 368; Saintyves Saints Successeurs 248—251; Köhler-Bolte I 132, 297 n. 1; Dh II 169; Hoefler Zs. f. Vksk. I 304; Ons Volksleven III 43, V 28, 136f.

E782.4.1. E782.4.1. Substituted leg. Injured leg replaced by another. Alphabet No. 219.

E782.4.2. E782.4.2. Severed leg(s) regrow(s). Africa (Somali): Kirk A Grammar of the Somali Language (Cambridge [Eng.], 1905) 162f., (Ishhak): Kirk FL XV 391ff. No. 3, (Saho): Reinisch Die Saho-Sprache I 76ff. No. 3.

E782.5. E782.5. Substituted tongue. Haiti: Parsons MAFLS XVII (1) 59—62.

E783. E783. Vital head. Retains life after being cut off. (Cf. D992, F511.) Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 432.

E783.1. E783.1. Head cut off and successfully replaced. *Kittredge Gawain 147ff.; Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 61, *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; S. A. Indian (Quiché): Alexander Lat. Am. 175; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 113 No. 8, (Bushman): Bleek and Lloyd 10.

E783.2. E783.2. Severed head regrows. Penzer III 268 n. 1.—Greek: Fox 81.

E783.2.1. E783.2.1. Origin of Pegasus from neck of slain Medusa. Greek: Fox 34.

E783.3. E783.3. Severed head reddens and whitens. Irish myth: *Cross.

E783.4. E783.4. Severed head opens eyes. Irish myth: Cross.

E783.5. E783.5. Vital head speaks. India: Thompson-Balys.

E783.6. E783.6. Headless body vital. Irish myth: Cross.

E783.7. E783.7. Headless man lives four (seven) years. (Cf. Q551.8.5.) Irish myth: Cross.

E783.8. E783.8. Dead head grateful for burying it. Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 34.

E784. E784. Flesh regrows. Icelandic: *Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "chair"; India: Thompson-Balys.

E785. E785. Vital skin. Retains life after death of owner. Africa (Bushman): Bleek and Lloyd 3.

E785.1. E785.1. Substituted skin. Irish myth: Cross.

E785.1.1. E785.1.1. Ewe's hide grafted to skinless head of wounded man. Irish myth: Cross.

E786. E786. Heart successfully replaced. *Type 660.

E787. E787. Stomach borrowed by animal. Later returned. Africa (Kaffir): Theal 167.

E788. E788. Severed pap regrows when woman bears child. Child V 177.

E789. E789. Vital bodily members—miscellaneous. India: Thompson-Balys.

E789.1. E789.1. Organs exchanged with those of animal. India: Thompson-Balys.

E790. E790. The soul—miscellaneous.

E791. E791. Man who forgets to count himself dies immediately after. India: Thompson-Balys.

E734.3. Vol. 2 Fn. 1 p. 502

1 In folk thought, an insect.

Stith Thompson's
Motif-Index of Folk-Literature

F. Marvels

Volume 3: F-H

Motif: Title-Page Vol. 3

MOTIF-INDEX

OF

FOLK-LITERATURE

*A Classification of Narrative Elements in Folktales, Ballads, Myths, Fables, Mediaeval Romances,
Exempla, Fabliaux, Jest-Books, and
Local Legends*

REVISED AND ENLARGED EDITION BY

STITH THOMPSON

Indiana University

VOLUME THREE

F-H

INDIANA UNIVERSITY PRESS

BLOOMINGTON and INDIANAPOLIS

F. MARVELS

DETAILED SYNOPSIS

F0—F199. Otherworld Journeys

F0. Journey to otherworld

F10—F79. The upper world

F10. Journey to upper world

F30. Inhabitant of upper world visits earth

F50. Access to upper world

F60. Transportation to or from upper world

F80—F109. The lower world

F80. Journey to lower world

F90. Access to lower world

F100. Visit to lower world—miscellaneous motifs

F110—F199. Miscellaneous otherworlds

F110. Journey to terrestrial otherworlds

F130. Location of otherworld

F140. Bounds of the otherworld

F150. Access to otherworld

F160. Nature of the otherworld

F170. Otherworld—miscellaneous motifs

Motif: Detailed Synopsis: Marvelous Creatures

F200—F699. MARVELOUS CREATURES

F200—F399. Fairies and elves

F200. Fairies (elves)

F210. Fairyland

F220. Dwelling of fairies

F230. Appearance of fairies

F240. Possessions of fairies

F250. Other characteristics of fairies

F260. Behavior of fairies

F300—F399. Fairies and mortals

F300. Marriage or liaison with fairy

F310. Fairies and human children

F320. Fairies carry people away to fairyland

F330. Grateful fairies

- F340. Gifts from fairies
- F350. Theft from fairies
- F360. Malevolent or destructive fairies (pixies)
- F370. Visit to fairyland
- F380. Defeating or ridding oneself of fairies
- F390. Fairies—miscellaneous motifs

F400—F499. Spirits and demons

- F400. Spirits and demons (general)
- F420. Water-spirits
- F430. Weather-spirits
- F440. Vegetation-spirits
- F450. Underground-spirits
- F460. Mountain-spirits
- F470. Night-spirits
- F480. House-spirits
- F490. Other spirits and demons

F500-F599. Remarkable persons

- F500. Remarkable persons
- F510. Monstrous persons
- F530. Exceptionally large or small men
- F540. Remarkable physical organs
- F560. Unusual manner of life
- F570. Other extraordinary human beings

F600-F699. Persons with extraordinary powers

- F600. Person with extraordinary powers
- F610. Remarkably strong man
- F640. Extraordinary powers of perception
- F660. Remarkable skill
- F680. Other marvelous powers

F700-F899. Extraordinary places and things

F700. Extraordinary places

F710. Extraordinary bodies of water

F720. Submarine and subterranean world

F730. Extraordinary islands

F750. Extraordinary mountains and other land features

F760. Extraordinary cities

F770. Extraordinary buildings and furnishings

F790. Extraordinary sky and weather phenomena

F800. Extraordinary rocks and stones

F810. Extraordinary trees, plants, fruit, etc.

F820. Extraordinary clothing and ornaments

F830. Extraordinary weapons

F840. Other extraordinary objects and places

F900-F1099. Extraordinary occurrences

F910. Extraordinary swallowings

F930. Extraordinary occurrences concerning seas or waters

F940. Extraordinary underground (underwater) disappearances

F950. Marvelous cures

F960. Extraordinary nature phenomena - elements and weather

F970. Extraordinary behavior of trees and plants

F980. Extraordinary occurrences concerning animals

F990. Inanimate objects act as if living

F1010. Other extraordinary events

F. MARVELS

F0—F199.

F0—F199. Other world journeys.

F0. F0. Journey to other world. *Patch Some Elements in Mediaeval Descriptions of the Otherworld (PMLA XXXIII 601—643); *Wimberly 108ff.; *Ward II 396ff.; *von Negelein Zs. f. Vksk. XI 16ff., 149ff., 263ff.; *Encyc. Rel. Ethics s.v. "Other world"; *Henne-am Rhyn Das Jenseits (1881).—Irish: Nutt The Irish Vision of the Happy Otherworld and the Celtic Doctrine of Rebirth (in Meyer, The Voyage of Bran), *Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 114ff.; Brown Iwain 56ff.; Icelandic: Gould Scandinavian Studies and Notes IX (1927) 190; German: *Siuts Jenseitmotive im deutschen Volksmärchen; Jewish: *Neuman; Hindu: Tawney I 58f., 417ff., 526f., II 267ff., 288ff.; Arabian: Burton Nights VIII 70, IX 181ff., S II 85ff., S IV 443ff.; Russian: Kuzenow Ueber den Glauben vom Jenseits und den Todtenkultus der Tcheremissen (Internationales Archiv für Ethnographie IX No. 4, X No. 2); Melanesia (Ysabel): Codrington 365, (Mono-Alu-Fauru): Wheeler 21f., 33, (Buin): ibid. 47, (Papua): Ker 7; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 330 n. 192.

F0.1. F0.1. Names for otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1. F1. Journey to otherworld as dream or vision. *Loomis White Magic 52.—Irish myth: *Cross; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 25.

F2. F2. Translation to otherworld without dying. (Cf. F12.3.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F2.1. F2.1. Supernatural husband takes mortal wife with him to heaven. India: Thompson-Balys.

F3. F3. Journey to otherworld as invasion. Irish myth: *Cross.

F4. F4. Journey to otherworld as hunt. Irish myth: *Cross.

F5. F5. Journey to otherworld as penance. Irish myth: Cross.

F6. F6. Departure to otherworld (fairyland) attributed to death. Irish myth: *Cross.

F7. F7. Journey to otherworld with angel. Jewish: Neuman.

F10—F79.

F10—F79. THE UPPER WORLD

F10. F10. Journey to upper world. Most references for F0 discuss this motif. Chauvin VII 54ff. No. 77.—Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 332 n. 2 (Dionysus and Semele); India: *Thompson-Balys, Tawney II 483; Chinese: Werner 224, 282; Eskimo (Bering Strait): Nelson RBAE XVIII 460, 515; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 311 n. 118; S. A. Indian (Kariri, Shipaya): Métraux MAFLS XL 25; Africa (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 97 No. 18, (Fjort): Dennett 74 No. 16, (Ekoi): Talbot 71, 184, 344, (Congo): Weeks 202 No. 1, 217 No. 12, (Zulu): Callaway 147, (Ila [Rhodesia]): Smith and Dale II 348.

F10.1. F10.1. Return from upper world. Indonesia: De Vries' list No. 165.

F10.2. F10.2. Man taken to upper world sees all that happens on earth. Jewish: Neuman.

F11. F11. Journey to heaven (upper-world paradise). Types 800—809; K. Kahler Heaven and Hell in Comparative Religion (New York, 1923).—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Hartland Science 193; Jewish: *Neuman; Arabian: Burton Nights II 197n.; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 606, II 294; Chinese: Eberhard

FFC CXX 183; Korean: Zong in-Sob 171; Melanesia: Wheeler 21f., Codrington II 1, Ker 7; N. A. Indian (Thompson River): Teit MAFLS XI 53 No. 34; S. A. Indian (Chiriguano): Métraux RMLP XXXIII 177.

F11.1. F11.1. Journey to heaven in trance. Hartland Science 189; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

F11.2. F11.2. Man goes to heaven without dying. (Cf. D1856, F2.) Jewish: *Neuman.

F11.3. F11.3. Man goes to heaven for limited time. Jewish: *Neuman.

F12. F12. Journey to see deity. Usually to the upper world. *Type 460A; *Aarne FFC XXIII 124.—Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G. 3/79); Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 18, 184.

F12.1. F12.1. Journey to sky-god. Chinese: Graham.

F12.2. F12.2. Grieving mortal taken by god of the dead up to otherworld to identify his son, who has just died. India: Thompson-Balys.

F12.3. F12.3. Men taken by Brahma to Siva so they can petition him personally. India: Thompson-Balys.

F12.4. F12.4. Journey to heaven to see Buddha. Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 183.

F13. F13. Man admitted into heaven but must not find fault. *Type 801; BP III 297.

F15. F15. Visit to star-world. Chinese: Graham; N. A. Indian: Thompson The Star-Husband Tale 93—163; *Thompson Tales 311 n. 118c; S. A. Indian (Cherentes, Amazon): Alexander Lat. Am. 308, (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 41, (Chaco): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (1) 369.

F15.1. F15.1. Man seeks his mother (star-maiden) in upper world. Chinese: Graham.

F16. F16. Visit to land of moon. India: Thompson-Balys; Eskimo (Bering Strait): Nelson RBAE XVIII 515, (Greenland): Rasmussen II 30, Rink 440, (Central Eskimo): Boas RBAE VI 598; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 131 No. 12.

F17. F17. Visit to land of the sun. *Type 461; *Aarne FFC XXIII 115ff.—N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 311 n. 118b; Aztec: Alexander Lat. Am. 82, 90; Africa: Werner African 233, (Angola): Chatelain 131 No. 12.

F30. F30. Inhabitant of upper world visits earth. India: Thompson-Balys.

F31. F31. Child of deity visits earth. India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 342, 359, 389, (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 347.

F31.1. F31.1. Child of deity stolen and brought down to earth. India: Thompson-Balys.

F32. F32. God visits earth. Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 1003; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 3; Africa (Fang): Einstein 94, Trilles 137, (Ila [Rhodesia]): Smith and Dale II 348.

F32.1. F32.1. God descends to found royal dynasty. Tonga: Gifford 28.

F33. F33. Cloud-folk visit earth. Africa (Congo): Weeks 205 No. 3.

F34. F34. Tempress sent from upper world by deity (Pandora). Greek: Grote I 72.

F35. F35. Divine animal visits earth.

F35.1. F35.1. Divine cow descends to earth. India: Thompson-Balys.

F35.2. F35.2. Divine elephant comes down from heaven to feed and disport himself. India: Thompson-Balys.

F50. F50. Access to upper world.

F51. F51. Sky-rope. Access to upper world by means of a rope. BP II 511 (Gr. No. 112); Fb "reb" III 25b.—Icelandic: Gering Islensk æventyri II 166f.; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Japanese: Ikeda; Korean: Zong in-Sob 24, 227; Oceanic (Indonesia, Melanesia, Polynesia): Dixon 66, 156f, 160, Beckwith Myth 255, (Tonga): Gifford 20; N. A. Indian: Hatt Asiatic Influences 48ff., *Thompson Tales 283 n. 48, (California): Gayton and Newman 78; Maya: Alexander Lat. Am. 153; S. A. Indian (Warrau): Kirchoff BBAE CXLIII (3) 880, Alexander Lat. Am. 271, (Toba, Mataco): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 448, MAFLS XL 101—103; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 10, 12.

F51.0.1. F51.0.1. Sky-rope shot by means of arrow. Indonesia: Kruyt Het animisme 494.

F51.0.2. F51.0.2. Four sky-ropes. Irish myth: *Cross.

F51.1. F51.1. Special kinds of sky-rope.

F51.1.1. F51.1.1. Spider-web sky-rope. (Cf. F101.7.) Spider makes web on which ascent or descent is accomplished. India: Thompson-Balys; Oceanic (Hawaii, New Zealand, New Hebrides, Caroline Is.): Dixon 59, 66, (Maori): Clark 163f., (Hawaii): Beckwith Myth 254f., 530; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 332 n. 201; Arawak and Carib: Alexander Lat. Am. Myth. 274; Africa: Werner African 132ff., (Baluyi, Basubiya, Congo, Angola): Chatelain 135, (Fjort): Dennett 74 No. 16.

F51.1.2. F51.1.2. Vine as sky-rope. Indonesia: Dixon 66; Mono-Alu, Fauru: Wheeler 21f.; Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 33; N. A. Indian: Thompson Star Husband 130; S. A. Indian (Eastern Brazil): Lowie BBAE CXLIII (3) 434.

F51.1.3. F51.1.3. Stalk as sky-rope. *Type 804.

F51.1.4. F51.1.4. Chaff sky-rope. Fb "hakkelse" I 535.

F51.1.5. F51.1.5. Rope of god's own hair. India: Thompson-Balys.

F51.1.5.1. F51.1.5.1. Heavenly being's hair as sky-rope. Australia: Howitt-Siebert JAI XXXIV (1904) 121.

F51.1.6. F51.1.6. Iron chain hanging from heaven. Korean: Zong in-Sob 10.

F51.1.7. F51.1.7. Sky-rope of mucus. S. A. Indian (Yuracare): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 504.

F51.2. F51.2. Sky-basket. Ascent to or descent from upper world in a basket. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 355 n. 283.

F51.2.1. F51.2.1. Ascent to upper world on seat attached to cord. Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 110.

F52. F52. Ladder to upper world. *Frazer Old Testament II 52ff.; *Toldo IV 59; Gaster Thespis 400.—Irish myth: Cross; Egyptian: Müller 176; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 126; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 333 n. 204; Hatt Asiatic Influences 48ff.; S. A. Indian (Brazil): Oberg 109; Africa: Werner African 136, (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 97 No. 18; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 11 n. 2.

F52.1. F52.1. Ladder of glass to upper world. Irish myth: *Cross.

F52.2. F52.2. Columns of smoke as ladder to upper world. (Cf. F61.3.1.) Jewish: Neuman.

F53. F53. Ascent to upper world on arrow chain. Hero shoots arrows which join one another in the air to form a chain. *Pettazzoni The Chain of Arrows, the Diffusion of a Mythical Motive (FL XXXV 151);—Indonesia. Voorhoeve 142; Oceanic (Australia, New Hebrides, Aurora, Whitsuntide, Torres Is., New Guinea): Dixon 139 n. 19, 293f.; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 333 n. 203, Hatt Asiatic Influences 40ff.; S. A. Indian: *Lowie BBAE CXLIII (3) 55, *Ehrenreich Mythen u. Legend der südamerikanischen Urvölker 50, (Guarayú): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 438, RMLP XXXIII 147, (Chiriguano): Métraux RMLP XXXIII 156, 164, BBAE CXLIII (3) 484, (Tupinamba): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 132, (Jibaros, Ecuador): Karsten Myths of the Jibaros (cited from Boas JAFL XXXII 446).

F54. F54. Tree to upper world. Type 1960G; *BP II 511; Köhler-Bolte I 322; S. Solymossy Revue des études hongroises VI (1928) 311—336 No. 2.—Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "branche", "paradis"; Egyptian: Müller 176; Sumatra: Dixon 160; Tonga: Gifford 25, 39, Beckwith Myth 482; Hawaii: ibid. 232; Samoa: ibid. 486; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 332 n. 200; S. A. Indian (Cariri): Lowie BBAE CXLIII (1) 559, Métraux MAFLS XL 26, (Langua): Métraux ibid. 106, (Toba): Métraux ibid. 45; Africa: Werner African 136f.

F54.1. F54.1. Tree stretches to sky. Type 1960G; BP II 511.—India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Indonesia: De Vries Volksverhalen II 381 Nos. 146, Dixon 239; Tonga, Dobu, San Cristobal: Beckwith Myth 486; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 332 n. 199, Alexander N. Am. 48, Hatt Asiatic Influences 48ff. (Zuci): Parsons JAFL XXIX 392; S. A. Indian (Charentes): Alexander Lat. Am. 308; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 344, (Congo): Weeks 202 No. 1, (Boloki): Weeks Cannibals 202; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 9.

F54.2. F54.2. Plant grows to sky. (Jack and the Beanstalk). *Types 328A, 555, 852; BP I 147, *II 511; *MacCulloch Childhood 432ff.; Köhler-Bolte I 102; *Fb "træ" III 867b; Fischer Zs. f. Ethnographie LXIV 236.—Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "fève"; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1416A; England, U.S., Australia: Baughman (Type 328A); Chinese: Graham; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 286; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 283 No. 114.

F55. F55. Mountain reaches to sky. *Holmberg Baum 39f., 42f.; *Patch PMLA XXXIII 617 n. 56; MacCulloch Childhood 437; Wimberly 405.—German: *Siuts

Jenseitsmotive 57; Egyptian: Müller 176; Maori: Clark 158; S. A. Indian (Mundurucu): Alexander Lat. Am. 308, (Ackawoi): ibid. 270; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 184.

F55.1. F55.1. Mountain stretches to sky. India: Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian (Maidu): Powers Contributions to N. A. Ethnology III 341, (Ts'ets'aut): Boas JAFL X 38.

F55.2. F55.2. Rocks piled up to sky. India: Thompson-Balys.

F56. F56. Sky-window. An opening into the sky gives access to upper world. Gaster Thespis 181; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman; Chinese: Werner 225; Melanesian: Codrington 365; Indonesia: Voorhoeve 64, (Sumatra, Kei Island): Dixon 156; Tonga: Gifford 149; Koryak: Jochelson JE VI 301, 307; Eskimo (Labrador): Hawkes GSCan XIV 153, (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 339, (Central Eskimo): Boas RBAE VI 599, (Greenland): Rink 468, Rasmussen III 165, 170, Holm 80; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 278 n. 28, Hatt Asiatic Influences 64; S. A. Indian (Warrau): Alexander Lat. Am. 271, Kirchoff BBAE CXLIII (3) 880, (Mojo): ibid. (3) 424, (Sherente): Lowie ibid. (1) 515.

F56.1. F56.1. Sky-window from digging or uprooting plant (tree) in upper world. Chinese: Werner 224f.; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 332 n. 197.

F56.2. F56.2. Bird pecks hole in sky-roof to give access to upper world. Africa (Fjort): Dennett DFSL XLI 74ff. No. 16.

F56.3. F56.3. Sky-window at horizon. Tonga: Gifford 149; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 467.

F57. F57. Road to heaven. India: Thompson-Balys; Africa: Werner African 233.

F57.1. F57.1. Narrow road to heaven. Wimberly 405.—Irish: O'Suilleabhain 63, Beal XXI 324; Kachin: Scott Indo-Chinese 265; Eskimo (Labrador): Hawkes GSCan XIV 153.

F57.2. F57.2. Person's tongue as path to sky. India: Thompson-Balys; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 499.

F57.3. F57.3. Path to heaven on beard. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 256.

F57.4. F57.4. Wall as path to upper world. Polynesia: Beckwith Myth 255.

F58. F58. Tower (column) to upper world. *Holmberg Baum 9ff., 33ff.

F59. F59. Access to upper world—miscellaneous.

F59.1. F59.1. Man stretches self till he reaches other world. Greek: Fox 36 (Dionysus); Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 476.

F59.2. F59.2. Pursuit of game leads to upper world. N. A. Indian (Iroquois): Alexander N. Am. 26.

F59.3. F59.3. Gate to upper world. Jewish: *Neuman.

F60. F60. Transportation to or from upper world.

F61. F61. Person wafted to sky.

F61.1. F61.1. Ascent to sky on cloud. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 271 n. 2 (Hercules); Jewish: *Neuman; Chinese: Werner 282.

F61.2. F61.2. Ascent to sky on feather. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 311 n. 118a.

F61.2.1. F61.2.1. Ascent to sky by sticking to magic feather. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 311 n. 118a (a large proportion of the references given).

F61.2.1.1. F61.2.1.1. Descent from upper world on magic feather (like ladder). Africa (Shangani): Bourhill and Drake 43ff. No. 5.

F61.2.2. F61.2.2. Ascent to sky on eagle-down rope. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 66.

F61.3. F61.3. Transportation from heaven in mist. Irish myth: Cross.

F61.3.1. F61.3.1. Ascent to upper world in smoke. India: Thompson-Balys; Caroline Islands: H. Damm Zentralcarolinien (Hamburg, 1938) II 88; New Hebrides: C. B. Humphreys The Southern New Hebrides (Cambridge (Eng.), 1926) 98; Yap: W. Müller Yap (Hamburg, 1918) II 666, 685, 695.

F62. F62. Bird carries person to or from upper world.

F62.0.1. F62.0.1. Bird flies to upper world. Chinese: Graham.

F62.1. F62.1. Birds carry person to upper world. *Chauvin VII 84 No. 373bis n. 2.—India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 18.

F62.2. F62.2. Birds carry person from upper world. N. A. Indian (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE XXXII 460 No. 98.

F62.3. F62.3. Cock carries god to upper world. India: Thompson-Balys.

F63. F63. Person carried to upper world by deity (spirit). India: *Thompson-Balys; S. A. Indian (Tapirape): Wagley-Baldao BBAE CXLIII (3) 178; Africa (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 348.

F63.1. F63.1. Mortal taken to heaven by heavenly maidens. India: Thompson-Balys.

F63.2. F63.2. Mortal taken to heaven by angel. Jewish: *Neuman.

F63.3. F63.3. Mortal taken to heaven by sun. Melanesia (Ysabel): Codrington 357.

F63.4. F63.4. Ascent to upper world by holding on to morning star. Papua: Ker 7.

F64. F64. Journey to upper world by keeping thoughts continually on heaven. N. A. Indian (Thompson River): Teit MAFLS XI 56 No. 34.

F65. F65. Giant shot into upper world by means of magic bow. N. A. Indian: Alexander N. Am. 163.

F65.1. F65.1. Ascent to upper world on arrow. (Cf. F53.) New Hebrides: Beckwith Myth 487.

F66. F66. Journey to upper world on horseback. Jewish: *Neuman; Siberian: Holmberg

Siberian 441.

F66.1. F66.1. Journey to upper world in chariot. Jewish: *Neuman.

F66.1.1. F66.1.1. Journey to sky-world by riding unseen in supernatural wife's chariot. India: Thompson-Balys.

F67. F67. White sheep carries to upper world, black to lower. *Cosquin Contes indiens 486ff.

F68. F68. Ascent to upper world by magic. India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Maori: Beckwith Myth 250; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Star Husband 120f.; Africa: Werner African 136.

F75. F75. Ascent to heaven by holding on to elephant's tail. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F76. F76. Time involved in upper world journey.

F76.1. F76.1. Five hundred years to journey from earth to heaven. Jewish: Neuman.

F80—F109.

F80—F109. THE LOWER WORLD

F80. F80. Journey to lower world. *Types 301, 650, BP II 300; *Siuts Jenseitsmotive 50ff.; Wimberly 128; Jacob's list s.v. "Underworld"; Tylor Primitive Culture 4th ed. (1903) II 65.—Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 321, *Hilda R. Ellis The Road to Hell, a Study in the Conception of the Dead in Old Norse Literature (London, 1943), 170ff., *Boberg; Irish myth: *Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "souterrain"; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 25; Finnish: Kalevala rune 25; *Fb "underjordiske" III 975b; Greek: Grote I 189; Jewish: *Neuman; Gaster Oldest Stories 51, Thespis 183ff., 195; India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesian: Dixon 213 n. 12, 215, De Vries' list No. 161; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 199f.; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 151, Thalbitzer 7, (Cumberland Sound): Boas BAM XV 241; N. A. Indian (Arikara): Alexander N. Am. 108; S. A. Indian (Quiché): Alexander Lat. Am. 170; Africa (Zanzibar): Bateman 201 No. 10, (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 89 No. 16, (Zulu): Callaway 317f.

F80.1. F80.1. Physical features of underworld. Note: physical features of underworld of dead (F81) are listed under A671—A679. Some features of the underworld also appear in F130ff.

F80.1.1. F80.1.1. Castle in lower world. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "château".

F80.1.2. F80.1.2. Darkness of lower world. Jewish: *Neuman; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 78, III 58, (Labrador): Hawkes GSCan XIV 154B.

F81. F81. Descent to lower world of dead (Hell, Hades). Andrejev FFC LXIX 71f., *231n.; *MacCulloch Encyc. Rel. Ethics IV 648ff.; Oertel Studien zur vgl. Literaturgeschichte VIII 123; Aarne FFC XXIII 115ff., 129ff.; BP III 465; Köhler-Bolte I 133; Zemmrich Internationales Archiv für Ethnographie IV 217; Hull FL XVIII 121; *Fb "helvede" I 589a, "gjedebuk" I 440b, "Cyprianus" I 166b.—Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 320, 324, O'Suilleabhain 53, 63; Icelandic: *Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "visite", "enfer"; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 299 No. 17, 313 No. 79; Finnish: Kalevala rune 16; Greek: Roscher Lexikon I 22 s.v. "Archilleus", Fox 105, 137, 145, Frazer Apollodorus I 234 nn. 1, 2, 332 n. 2; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-

Balys; New Guinea: Ker 81; Mono-Alu: Wheeler 33; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 464; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 165, 180, (Bering Strait): Nelson RBAE XVIII 489; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 337 n. 216; Araucanian: Alexander Lat Am. 330f.; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 225 No. 40, 249 No. 50, (Ekoi): Talbot 7, 34, 46, 56, 63, 99, 233, 238, 280, (Yoruba): Ellis 244 No. 1, (Bantu): Einstein 194f.

F81.1. F81.1. Orpheus. Journey to land of dead to bring back person from the dead. E. Maass Orpheus (München, 1895); Frazer Pausanias V 154; Cosquin études 188ff. —Irish myth: *Cross; England: Child I 215ff., Wells 128 (Sir Orfeo); Norse: MacCulloch Eddic 130; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 17 n. 7, von den Steinen Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 260; Babylonian: Spence 125ff. (Ishtar); Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 491; India: Thompson-Balys, Keith 161 (Savitri); Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 198f., Graham; Japanese: Anesaki 223; Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 160; Oceanic (New Zealand, Mangaia, Hawaii, Samoa, New Hebrides, Bankes Island, German New Guinea): Dixon 72—78; Maori: Clark III; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 269, 298, Rasmussen III 59, 167; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 337 n. 215, Hatt Asiatic Influences 65ff., Gayton The Orpheus Myth in North America (JAFL XLVIII 263—293), E. W. Voegelin JAFL LX 52—58, (California): Gayton and Newman 99; Surinam: Alexander Lat. Am. 275; Africa: Werner African *138ff., 196.

F81.1.1. F81.1.1. Wife goes to land of dead to procure dead husband's heart. India: Thompson-Balys.

F81.1.2. F81.1.2. Journey to land of dead to visit deceased. Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 199f.

F81.2. F81.2. Journey to hell to recover devil's contract. Type 756B; *Andrejev FFC LXIX 71ff.

F81.3. F81.3. Journey to hell to circumcize child. Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas VI 63ff., 308.

F81.4. F81.4. Journey to hell to retrieve soul of mother. Irish myth: Cross.

F81.5. F81.5. Journey to lower world to get treasures. Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 583ff.

F81.6. F81.6. Souls redeemed from hell in shape of sheep. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *730.

F83. F83. Hell of women in south of otherworld. India: Thompson-Balys.

F85. F85. Ishtar unveiled. Goddess going to lower world passes through seven gates, at each of which she is divested of a garment till she is entirely unclothed. Babylonian: Spence 130.

F87. F87. Journey to otherworld to secure bride. Africa (Cameroon): Rosenhuber 41ff.

F90. F90. Access to lower world. Hilda R. Ellis, The Road to Hell (London, 1943) 170ff.

F91. F91. Door (gate) entrance to lower world. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 33, 58, Beal XXI 311, 323; Gaster Oldest Stories 152; Jewish: *Neuman; New Zealand: Dixon 73; Africa: Werner African 184.

F91.1. F91.1. Slamming door on exit from mountain otherworld. It (almost) injures the hero because he has failed to bring back the talisman which opened the mountain.

*Krappe Balor 108ff.; Gaster Oldest Stories 46.

F92. F92. Pit entrance to lower world. Entrance through pit, hole, spring, or cavern.

*Type 301; *BP II 300ff.; Penzer VI 108f.; *Siuts Jenseitsmotive 50; *Roberts 140.—Irish myth: Cross (F158), Beal XXI 311, 324, 329, O'Suilleabhain 33, 91; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 103, MacCulloch Eddic 320; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "puits"; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 25; Greek: Fox 88, 143; Gaster Thespis 183f.; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Korean: Zong in-Sob 167; Marquesas: Handy 110; Maori: Clark 100; Eskimo (Labrador): Hawkes GSCan XV 153; S. A. Indian (Tereno): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (1) 367; Africa: Werner African 175, 184, 195.

F92.1. F92.1. Visit to lower world through hole made by lifting clumps of grass. Type 425, 480; *Roberts 140; Tegethoff 15.—Greek: Fox 227 (Proserpine); Oceanic (New Zealand, Samoa, Nieuve Island): Dixon 47f.

F92.2. F92.2. Person swallowed up by earth and taken to lower world. India: Thompson-Balys.

F92.2.1. F92.2.1. Girl gathering flowers swallowed up by earth and taken to lower world. Greek: Fox 227 (Proserpine); Oceanic (Mangaia [Cook Group]): Dixon 74.

F92.3. F92.3. Visit to lower world through opening rocks. Rocks open with a charm. Oceanic (New Zealand, Samoa, Mangaia): Dixon 48.

F92.4. F92.4. Entrance to lower world through mountain. Patch PMLA XXXIII 614 n. 48.—Irish myth: Cross; Babylonian: Gilgamesch-Epos IX; Chinese: Graham.

F92.5. F92.5. Entrance to lower world by making hole in ground. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F92.6. F92.6. Entrance to lower world through cave. England: *Baughman.

F92.7. F92.7. Hole to underworld kingdom of snakes. India: Thompson-Balys.

F93. F93. Water entrance to lower world. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F93.0.1. F93.0.1. Boat to lower world. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F93.0.1.1. F93.0.1.1. Ferryman to lower world. Feilberg Sjøletro 65ff.; Frobenius Erlebte Erdteile VI 278f.—Icelandic: Boberg; Greek: Fox 142.

F93.0.2. F93.0.2. Under-water entrance to lower world. *Siuts 54.

F93.0.2.1. F93.0.2.1. Well entrance to lower world. Type 480; *Roberts 140.

F93.1. F93.1. River entrance to lower world. Wimberly 108ff.; Kruyt Het Animisme 357ff., Hdwb. d. Aberg. II 1157, IV 196; Frobenius Erdteile III 69, 73, 76.—Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 103, MacCulloch Eddic 320, Boberg; Finnish: Kalevala rune 16; Greek: Roscher Lexikon s.v. "Acheron" I 9; Egyptian: Müller 176; Aztec: Krickeberg Märchen der Azteken 146, 215.

- F93.1.1. F93.1.1. Dead place net across river to prevent living man from returning to earth. (Cf. F105.) Finnish: Kalevala rune 16.
- F93.2. F93.2. Lake entrance to lower world. Africa: Werner African 186.
- F94. F94. Stair to lower world. *Siuts 54.
- F95. F95. Path to lower world. *Siuts 53; Child V 500 s.v. "Ways".—Icelandic: Boberg.
- F95.0.1. F95.0.1. Path to world of dead. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F95.1. F95.1. Path from grave to lower world. Africa (Angola): Chatelain 224 No. 40.
- F95.2. F95.2. Broad path to hell. Kachin: Scott Indo-Chinese 265.
- F95.3. F95.3. Perilous path to hell. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F95.4. F95.4. Path to underworld marked by knots tied in grass by spirits. Maori: Clark 48.
- F95.5. F95.5. Tree as roadway to underworld. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 156.
- F96. F96. Rope to lower world. *Type 301; *BP II 300ff.—India: *Thompson-Balys; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 147.
- F98. F98. Descent to lower world on animal.
- F98.1. F98.1. Trip to lower world on tiger. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F100. F100. Visit to lower world—miscellaneous motifs.
- F101. F101. Return from lower world. Indonesia: De Vries's list Nos 162, 164.
- F101.1. F101.1. Return from lower world up steep slope. New Zealand: Dixon 73.
- F101.2. F101.2. Return from lower world by being slung by bent tree. New Zealand: Dixon 78.
- F101.3. F101.3. Return from lower world on eagle. *Type 301; *BP II 300; Penzer VI 122 n. 2. See references under B322.1, nearly all of which refer to escape from lower world. Indonesia: De Vries Volksverhalen I 161ff. No. 35.
- F101.3.1. F101.3.1. Return from lower world on vulture. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F101.4. F101.4. Escape from lower world by magic. Thompson CColl II 336ff. (Tehuano, Shuswap).
- F101.5. F101.5. Escape from lower world on miraculously growing tree. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F101.6. F101.6. Ascent from lower world on animal. (Cf. F98.).
- F101.6.1. F101.6.1. Escape from lower world on bird. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F101.6.2. F101.6.2. Escape from lower world on horse of lightning. India: Thompson-Balys.

F101.7. F101.7. Escape from lower world by spider's thread. India: Thompson-Balys.

F101.8. F101.8. Man returning from hell brings heat with him. Jewish: *Neuman.

F102. F102. Accidental arrival in lower world.

F102.1. F102.1. Hero shoots monster (or animal) and follows it into lower world.

*Type 301; *Krappe Balor 100 nn. 22, 23; *De Vries Nederlandsche Tijdschrift voor Volkskunde (1924) 97—123.—Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 163, Dixon 213 n. 12; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 99.

F102.2. F102.2. Sound of drum followed into ghost town. Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 7, 34.

F102.3. F102.3. Rescued princess leaves her necklace behind in flight; hero returns for it and is left in underworld. India: Thompson-Balys.

F102.4. F102.4. Boy follows nut into lower world. Africa (Cameroon): Mansfield 226f.

F105. F105. Dead oppose return of living from land of the dead. (Cf. F93.1.1.)

Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 596—97, 602, MacCulloch Eddic 321, Boberg; Finnish: Kalevala rune 16.

F106. F106. Youths grind in mill of underworldlings. Fb "male".

F107. F107. Youths tutored by Vulcan, smith of Hell. Irish myth: Cross.

F108. F108. Nature of underworld inhabitants.

F108.1. F108.1. People in lower world tall as a broom. Chinese: Graham.

F108.2. F108.2. People of lower world come out in the evenings to drink and dance. India: Thompson-Balys.

F109. F109. Visit to lower world—additional motifs.

F109.1. F109.1. Visit to lower world made head first. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 148.

F109.2. F109.2. Hell shown to Jonah by fish. Jewish: Neuman.

F110—F199.

F110—F199. MISCELLANEOUS OTHERWORLDS

F110. F110. Journey to terrestrial otherworlds. *Graf Miti, leggende e superstizioni de medio evo I 1 ff.; Gaster Oldest Stories 51, 168.—Irish myth: *Cross.

F110.1. F110.1. Wonder voyages. Jacobs Book of Wonder Voyages; *Chauvin VII 77ff.; Ward II 516ff.; Krappe Philological Quarterly XXIII (1944) 97—107.—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Japanese: Anesaki 363; Indonesian: De Vries's list No. 183; Africa (Benga): Nassau 208 No. 33.

F111. F111. Journey to earthly paradise. Land of happiness. (Cf. F132.1.) Nutt in Meyer Voyage of Bran I 105ff.; Patch *Other World 381 s.v. "paradise"; *Graf La leggenda del paradiso terrestre (Torino, 1878); *BP IV 269 n. 1; Gaster Oldest Stories 48; Norlind Skattsägner 88ff.; Hartland Science 194, 199, 202; *Loomis White Magic 116.—Irish myth: *Cross; English: Wells 145 (Parthenope of Blois); *Celtic: K. Zimmer Brendans Meerfahrt (Zeitschrift für deutsche Altertum XXXIII [1889] 129—220, 257—338); Icelandic: Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman; Hindu: Tawney I 525; Chinese: Giles 8ff., 397ff.

F111.0.1. F111.0.1. Four earthly paradises. Irish myth: *Cross.

F111.0.2. F111.0.2. Swineherd finds terrestrial paradise while looking for lost sow. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

F111.1. F111.1. Journey to Isle of Laughter. Irish myth: *Cross.

F111.2. F111.2. Voyage to Land of Promise. Irish: Plummer xxxvii, xli, *Cross.

F111.2.1. F111.2.1. Island of Tir Tairngire (Land of Promise) cannot be reached in boat made of "dead soft skins of animals." Irish myth: Cross.

F111.3. F111.3. Voyage to Land of Lotus Eaters. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 280 n. 2.

F111.4. F111.4. Paradise of the Blessed, a subterranean world. India: Thompson-Balys.

F111.5. F111.5. Land where all creatures are friendly to one another. India: Thompson-Balys.

F111.6. F111.6. Voyage to land without evil. S. A. Indian (Guarani): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 94.

F112. F112. Journey to Land of Women. Island of women, land of maidens, country of the Amazons, etc. *Patch PMLA XXXIII 624 n. 81, Other World *381 s.v. "maidenland"; Hartland Science 202.—Irish myth: *Cross; Greek: Fox 109, 111; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Werner 390f.; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth XXXVI; Marquesas: Handy 56, Beckwith Myth 472, 502; West Indies: Flowers 432.

F112.0.1. F112.0.1. Fairyland (Ireland) inhabited (settled) by women only. Irish myth: *Cross.

F112.0.1.1. F112.0.1.1. Journey to island inhabited by only one (beautiful) woman. Irish myth: *Cross.

F112.0.2. F112.0.2. Separation of sexes in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F112.1. F112.1. Man on Island of Fair Women overcome by loving women. Irish myth: *Cross; Oceanic: Dixon 66, 140, 141 n. 22; N. A. Indian (Assiniboin): Lowie PaAM IV 106 No. 6, (Cree): Skinner PaAM IX 87.

F112.2. F112.2. City of women. (Cf. F566.2.) Jewish: *Neuman.

F113. F113. Land of men. Irish myth: Cross.

F114. F114. Journey inside the earth. Chinese: Graham.

F115. F115. Journey to the Land of the Unborn. Zemmrich Internationales Archiv für Ethnologie IV 231. Cf. Maeterlinck's "L'Oiseau Bleue".

- F116. F116. Journey to the Land of the Immortals. Type 313*; Irish myth: *Cross.
- F116.1. F116.1. Voyage to the Land of Youth. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F117. F117. Journey to the Land of the Thunders. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 334 n. 206, (Cherokee): Alexander N. Am. 69; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 202, 359.
- F118. F118. Journey to Mother of Time. Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 8.
- F121. F121. Journey to world of spirits. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F122. F122. Journey to land of giants. Irish myth: Cross (F129.10); Scottish: Campbell-McKay No. 17; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F123. F123. Journey to land of little men (pygmies). Irish myth: Cross; Scottish: Campbell-McKay No. 17.
- F124. F124. Journey to land of demons. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F125. F125. Journey to otherworld where people are made whole (cured). Jewish: *Neuman; American Indian: Thompson Tales 349 n. 256; Africa: Werner African 204.
- F126. F126. Journey to land without sky: takes whole life. Premature aging. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F127. F127. Journey to animal kingdom. Usually underground. India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Eskimo (Mackenzie area): Jenness 154; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 348 nn. 252, 253.
- F127.1. F127.1. Journey to serpent kingdom.
- F127.1.1. F127.1.1. Subterranean palace at bottom of lake belonging to king of serpents. India: Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 390.
- F127.2. F127.2. Journey to land of elephants. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F127.3. F127.3. Journey to land of crocodiles. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F129. F129. Miscellaneous otherworlds. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 141, 1002, II 1369.
- F129.1. F129.1. Journey to Land of Men of Heads only. Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 273.
- F129.2. F129.2. Voyage to Land of Mossynoikoi. (People of topsy-turvy morals.) Greek: Fox 111.
- F129.3. F129.3. Voyage to the Land of the Cimmerians. People who dwell amid clouds of gloom and never see sun. Greek: Fox 145.
- F129.4. F129.4. Journey to otherworld island. (Cf. F111.1, F112.1, F134.)
- F129.4.1. F129.4.1. Journey to Isle of Tears. Irish myth: Cross.
- F129.4.2. F129.4.2. Voyage to Isle of Truth. People cannot lie. Irish myth: *Cross.

F129.4.3. F129.4.3. Voyage to Isle of Shape. Visitors become beautiful. Irish myth: Cross.

F129.4.4. F129.4.4. Voyage to Isle of the Dead. Visitors who sleep there die. Irish myth: *Cross.

F129.4.5. F129.4.5. Voyage to Island of Darkness. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 500.

F129.4.6. F129.4.6. Voyage to Island of Silence. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 500.

F129.5. F129.5. Journey to land of no return. India: Thompson-Balys.

F129.5.1. F129.5.1. Hero takes a mare to ride to land of no return: mare has just foaled and brings him back in her anxiety over her foal. India: Thompson-Balys.

F129.6. F129.6. Land where everyone is wise, from the raja on his throne to the beggar in the bazaar. India: Thompson-Balys.

F129.7. F129.7. Journey to land of naked people. India: Thompson-Balys.

F130. F130. Location of otherworld. *Wimberly 121ff.—Irish myth: *Cross.

F130.1. F130.1. Land of India (Greece) as otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F130.2. F130.2. Spain as otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F130.3. F130.3. Ancient Ireland as location of otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F131. F131. Otherworld in hollow mountain. *Patch PMLA XXXIII 612f., Other World *381 s.v. "Mountain"; Wimberly 130.—Irish myth: *Cross; German: Grimm No. 127; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3594.

F131.1. F131.1. Mountain of Venus. Hollow mountain otherworld where men live a life of ease and lustful pleasure in company with beautiful women. Barto Tannhäuser and the Mountain of Venus; *Patch PMLA XXXIII 612f.; *Meyer Zs. f. Vksk. XXI 1ff.; Bockel Alemannia XIII (1885) 142; *Norlind Skattsägner 88ff.—Icelandic: Boberg.

F131.1.1. F131.1.1. Mountain of fair-haired women. Irish myth: Cross.

F132. F132. Otherworld on lofty mountain. *Patch PMLA XXXIII 606ff., Other World *381 s.v. "mountain, on the"; Wimberly 132.

F132.0.1. F132.0.1. Otherworld visible from high mountain. Patch PMLA XXXIII 615.

F132.1. F132.1. Earthly paradise on mountain. (Cf. F111.) Patch PMLA XXXIII 618 n. 57.

F132.1.1. F132.1.1. Earthly paradise in air over mountain. Tahiti: Beckwith Myth 76.

F132.2. F132.2. Dwelling of Fortune on lofty mountain. Patch PMLA XXXIII 609ff., Fortuna 132ff.—India: Thompson-Balys.

F133. F133. Submarine otherworld. Patch PMLA XXXIII 627 n. 92, Other World *380 s.v. "Land-beneath-the-waves"; Wimberly 134; Ward II 525; Chauvin V 151 No. 73; Penzer VI 280; Smith Dragon 109.—Irish myth: *Cross; Scotch: Campbell Tales III

420; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 112f.; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 636; Breton: *Le Braz Légende de la Mort II 37ff.; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Slavic: Máchal 270; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 69; Maori: Clark III; N. A. Indian (Klikitat): Jacobs U Wash II 7; Africa: Werner African 188, 206, (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 39 No. 4, (Basuto): Jacottet 122 No. 17, 204 No. 30, 224 No. 33.

F133.1. F133.1. Marine counterpart to land. All that exists on earth has its parallel in the sea. *Chauvin VII 54 No. 241 B n. 1.—Irish myth: *Cross; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 636.

F133.2. F133.2. Empty under-water house. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 81.

F133.3. F133.3. Submarine monastery. (Cf. F725.6.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F133.4. F133.4. Otherworld at bottom of pond. German: Grimm No. 181.

F133.5. F133.5. Otherworld at bottom of well. *Type 480.

F134. F134. Otherworld on island. *Patch PMLA XXXIII 628f. nn. 93—96, Other World 379 s.v. "island".—Irish: *Cross, O'Suilleabhain 55, Beal XXI 321; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 72, 79; Samoa, Fiji: ibid. 76.

F134.0.1. F134.0.1. Series of otherworld islands. Irish myth: *Cross.

F134.1. F134.1. Hebrides, Isle of Man (Falga) as otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F134.2. F134.2. Otherworld island disappears leaving voyagers in boat at sea. Irish myth: Cross.

F134.3. F134.3. Otherworld island divided into four parts. Irish myth: Cross.

F134.4. F134.4. Divine swans are on an inaccessible island in middle of seven seas. India: Thompson-Balys.

F135. F135. Bruidhen (banqueting-hall) as otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F136. F136. Direction of otherworld. Jewish: Neuman.

F136.1. F136.1. Otherworld in east. Jewish: Neuman; Marshall Islands: Davenport 223.

F136.2. F136.2. Otherworld in west. Jewish: Neuman; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 79.

F136.3. F136.3. Otherworld in northwest. Jewish: Neuman.

F137. F137. Distance of otherworld. *Siuts 19ff.—Irish myth: *Cross.

F140. F140. Bounds of the otherworld. *Siuts 44.

F140.1. F140.1. Guardian of spirit-land boundary. Maori: Clark 135.

F141. F141. Water barrier to otherworld. Wimberly 110.—Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

- F141.0.1. F141.0.1. Otherworld beyond water confused with otherworld under water. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F141.0.2. F141.0.2. Otherworld beyond water confused with otherworld under hill. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F141.1. F141.1. River as barrier to otherworld. (Cf. F162.2.) Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F141.1.1. F141.1.1. Perilous river as barrier to otherworld. (Cf. F767.1.) *Patch PMLA XXXIII 630, 638ff.; Alphabet No. 603.—Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 78, III 165; N. A. Indian: Thompson Tales 140; Africa (Yoruba): Ellis 245 No. 1.
- F141.1.2. F141.1.2. River that cannot be crossed by mortals. Hindu: Penzer II 15.
- F141.1.3. F141.1.3. River between the realms of giants and gods never freezes. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 276.
- F141.2. F141.2. Mist as barrier to otherworld. Patch XXXIII 627 n. 91.—Irish myth: *Cross.
- F141.2.1. F141.2.1. Storm (snow, hail) as barrier to otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F141.3. F141.3. Waves form high wall around otherworld isle. Irish myth: Cross.
- F141.4. F141.4. Waterfall as barrier to otherworld. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 95.
- F142. F142. River of fire as barrier to otherworld. (Cf. A671.2.2.3.) Patch PMLA XXXIII 638f.; Krappe Archiv für das Studium der neueren Sprachen (1937) 172ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F143. F143. Wood at borders of otherworld. *Siuts 30ff.; MLN XXXIV 321; Irish: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Africa (Yoruba): Ellis 245 No. 1.
- F144. F144. Plain (field) at borders of otherworld. *Siuts 36ff.
- F144.1. F144.1. Forked glen full of toads, lions on way to otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.
- F145. F145. Mountain at borders of otherworld. *Siuts 42ff.; Patch Other World 381 s.v. "mountain"; Gaster Thespis 184f.; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.
- F145.1. F145.1. Glass mountain at borders of otherworld. Mountain is extremely slippery. *Siuts 43; Patch PMLA XXXIII 610 n. 30, Other World 381 s.v. "mountain."
- F147. F147. Houses at border of otherworld. (Cf. F163.3.) *Siuts 44ff.
- F147.1. F147.1. Tenantless houses at border of otherworld. *Siuts 44f.
- F147.2. F147.2. Hermit's hut at border of otherworld. *Siuts 45.
- F147.3. F147.3. Witch's house at border of otherworld. *Siuts 45.

F147.4. F147.4. Inn at border of otherworld. *Siuts 46.

F148. F148. Wall around otherworld. Hdwb. d. Märchens I 209a s.v. "Baum bewacht"; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman.

F148.1. F148.1. Fiery rampart revolves around otherworld isle. Irish myth: *Cross.

F148.2. F148.2. Wall of silver around otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F148.3. F148.3. Otherworld surrounded by palisade of gold and silver. Irish myth: Cross.

F148.4. F148.4. Palisade of bronze around otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F148.5. F148.5. Otherworld surrounded by seven walls and locks of iron and doors of iron. Irish myth: *Cross.

F149. F149. Bounds of the otherworld—miscellaneous.

F149.1. F149.1. Stone barrier to otherworld. (Cf. F150.3.2.) Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 95, III 165, Rink 461.

F150. F150. Access to otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F150.1. F150.1. Way to otherworld hard to find. Siuts 29; English: Gawain and the Green Knight; Chinese: Graham.

F150.2. F150.2. Entrance to other world guarded by monsters (or animals). Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; Babylonian: Spence 171; Jewish: *Neuman; Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 47, 74, 80, Rasmussen I 81.

F150.2.1. F150.2.1. Entrance to otherworld guarded by giant (champion). Irish myth: *Cross.

F150.2.2. F150.2.2. Entrance to otherworld guarded by spirits. Jewish: Neuman; Maori: Clark 37.

F150.2.3. F150.2.3. Entrance to otherworld guarded by north and south winds. Tonga: Gifford 171.

F150.3. F150.3. Challenge at entrance of otherworld. The adventurer challenges or is challenged. Irish myth: *Cross.

F150.3.1. F150.3.1. Shield hung on pole in front of otherworld palace as signal that adventurer must fight with owner. Irish myth: Cross.

F150.3.2. F150.3.2. Standing stone surrounded by withe as challenge at entrance of otherworld. (Cf. F149.1.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F151. F151. Road to otherworld. Siuts 29f.—Irish myth: Cross.

F151.0.1. F151.0.1. Hospitable host entertains (guides, advises) adventurer on way to otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F151.1. F151.1. Perilous path to otherworld. Patch Other World 382 s.v. "path"; Irish myth: *Cross; N. A. Indian: Alexander N. Am. 147, 164, 273 n. 8, (California): Gayton and Newman 101; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 78, (Central Eskimo): Boas RBAE VI 586.

F151.1.1. F151.1.1. Perilous valley. Irish myth: *Cross.

F151.1.2. F151.1.2. Perilous glen on way to otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F151.1.3. F151.1.3. Perilous forest on way to otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F151.1.4. F151.1.4. Perilous ford on way to otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F151.1.5. F151.1.5. Place in underworld beyond which hero cannot pass without being tatoed. Maori: Clark 136.

F151.1.6. F151.1.6. Path to otherworld over sharp rocks. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 186, Rink 326.

F151.2. F151.2. Mountain pass to otherworld. Africa: Bourhill and Drake 237ff. No. 20.

F152. F152. Bridge to otherworld. *Type 471; Encyc. Rel. Ethics II 852ff.; Patch PMLA XXXIII 630ff., Other World 374 s.v. "bridge"; Ward II 399, 441; Ryheim Animism 39ff.; Fb "bro" IV 62b; Darmesteter Sacred Books of the East IV 212f.; Alphabet No. 603.—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 130, 305; Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 488ff.; Melanesia: Codrington 257; Eskimo (Labrador): Hawkes GSCan XIV 153; N. A. Indian: Brinton Myths of the New World (New York, 1868) 248, (Menomini): Skinner PaAM XIII 86.

F152.0.1. F152.0.1. Bridge to otherworld guarded by animals. Patch PMLA XXXIII 635ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.

F152.1. F152.1. Materials of bridge to otherworld.

F152.1.1. F152.1.1. Rainbow bridge to otherworld. Fb "regnbue" III 32a; RTP VI 361, X 596; Mélusine II 16; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 329; Celebes: Dixon 156; Hawaii, Indonesia: ibid. 67, Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 38, 321; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 333 n. 204a.

F152.1.2. F152.1.2. Bridge of sunbeams to otherworld. (Cf. F154.) Wimberly 114; Patch Other World 248, 254.

F152.1.3. F152.1.3. Golden bridge to otherworld. Patch PMLA XXXIII 639 n. 130, Other World 374 s.v. "bridge."

F152.1.4. F152.1.4. Glass bridge to otherworld. Patch PMLA XXXIII 636 n. 118, Other World 125f.; Irish myth: *Cross.

F152.1.5. F152.1.5. Rope bridge to otherworld. Patch PMLA XXXIII 636 n. 118.—Irish myth: *Cross.

F152.1.6. F152.1.6. Sword bridge to otherworld. Hibbard Romanic Review IX (1913) 166; Patch PMLA XXXIII 635ff., Other World 374 s.v. "bridge"; Irish myth: *Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 197.

F152.1.6.1. F152.1.6.1. Bridge to otherworld covered with knives. BP III 43; Von Hegelein Zs. f. Vksk. XI 150 n. 2.

F152.1.7. F152.1.7. Bridge of thread on way to world of dead. India: Thompson-Balys.

F152.1.8. F152.1.8. Aurora as bridge to otherworld. Eskimo (Labrador): Hawkes GSCan XIV 153.

F152.2. F152.2. Slamming drawbridge to otherworld. Slams as hero leaves and (almost) injures him. He has failed to do the one compulsory thing. (Percival.) *Krappe Balor 106ff.; Patch Otherworld 204f., 319 n. 64.

F153. F153. Otherworld reached by diving into water (of well or lake). *Brown Iwain 76; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 148; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G 3/1301).

F153.1. F153.1. Underground channel to otherworld. India: Thompson-Balys.

F154. F154. Path to sun on sun's rays (eyelashes). (Cf. F152.1.2.) N. A. Indian (Bella Coola): Boas JE I 83.

F155. F155. Journey to otherworld by clinging magically to an object. *Brown Iwain 110 n. 1; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman.

F156. F156. Door to otherworld. (Cf. F91.) Patch Other World 377 s.v. "gate"; Irish myth: *Cross.

F156.1. F156.1. Door to otherworld island sounds sleep-bringing music. Irish myth: Cross.

F156.2. F156.2. Door to otherworld island in supporting pedestal. Irish myth: *Cross.

F156.3. F156.3. Perilous revolving wheel at entrance to otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F156.4. F156.4. Slamming (falling) door to otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F156.5. F156.5. Eleven portals to otherworld. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 46.

F157. F157. Journey to otherworld in boat. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

F157.1. F157.1. Journey to otherworld in crystal (glass) boat. Irish myth: *Cross.

F158. F158. Pit entrance to otherworld. (Cf. F92.) Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

F159. F159. Other means to reach the otherworld.

F159.1. F159.1. Otherworld reached by hunting animal. Irish myth: *Cross.

F159.2. F159.2. Journey to otherworld on horseback. Irish myth: *Cross.

F159.3. F159.3. Wheel (apple) to be followed to otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F159.4. F159.4. Demon guide on otherworld journey. India: Thompson-Balys.

F160. F160. Nature of the otherworld. Wimberly 139ff.—Irish myth: *Cross, Beal XXI 329; Jewish: Neuman.

F160.0.1. F160.0.1. Otherworld overseas confused with otherworld underground. Irish myth: Cross.

F160.0.1.1. F160.0.1.1. Otherworld overseas confused with otherworld under water. Irish myth: Cross.

F160.0.2. F160.0.2. Fairy otherworld confused with land of the dead. (Cf. A671.0.4.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F160.0.3. F160.0.3. Pagan otherworld identified with Christian paradise (heaven). (Cf. A694.1.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F160.1. F160.1. Otherworld as great plain. (Cf. A663.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F160.2. F160.2. Otherworld as valley. Irish myth: Cross.

F161. F161. Weather in otherworld.

F161.1. F161.1. Perpetual summer in otherworld. No storms. Patch PMLA XXXIII 606; Irish myth: *Cross.

F161.1.1. F161.1.1. Summer in otherworld when it is winter in world of mortals. Irish myth: *Cross.

F162. F162. Landscape of otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.0.1. F162.0.1. Objects of crystal in otherworld. *Patch PMLA XXXIII 606 n. 11, 610 n. 30, Other World 375 s.v. "crystal".—Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.0.1.1. F162.0.1.1. Island of glass in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.0.1.2. F162.0.1.2. (Luminous) precious stones in otherworld (dwelling). (Cf. A661.0.7.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.1. F162.1. Garden in otherworld. Patch Other World 377 s.v. "garden"; *Siuts 68ff.—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F162.1.1. F162.1.1. Everblooming garden in otherworld. *Wimberly 148; Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.1.2. F162.1.2. Contrasting qualities found in otherworld garden.

F162.1.2.1. F162.1.2.1. Sweet and bitter fountain in otherworld garden. Patch PMLA XXXIII 620 n. 65, Other World 266; Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.1.2.2. F162.1.2.2. Cool and boiling fountain in otherworld garden. (Cf. F162.8.) Patch PMLA XXXIII 620 n. 65, Other World 133, 144, 177.

F162.1.2.3. F162.1.2.3. Objects on one side of palisade in otherworld garden black, on other white. Patch PMLA XXXIII 620 n. 65.—Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.1.2.4. F162.1.2.4. Tree half green and half in flame in otherworld garden. Patch

PMLA XXXIII 620 n. 65.

F162.1.2.5. F162.1.2.5. Island in otherworld garden inhabited half by dead and half by living. Patch PMLA XXXIII 620 n. 65.

F162.1.3. F162.1.3. Trees bloom, others bear concurrently in otherworld garden. Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.1.3.1. F162.1.3.1. All-yielding tree in otherworld. India: Thompson-Balys.

F162.2. F162.2. Rivers in otherworld. (Cf. A671.2.2.6, F141.1.) Patch PMLA XXXIII 621ff., Other World 382f. s.v. "river"; Gaster Oldest Stories 50, Thespis 171; Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 321.

F162.2.1. F162.2.1. The four rivers of Paradise. *Patch PMLA XXXIII 622, Other World 383 s.v. "rivers, four"; Albright Am. Jour. Semitic Languages XXXIX 40ff.; Gaster Thespis 171.—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Jewish: Neuman; Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 359.

F162.2.2. F162.2.2. Rivers of wine in otherworld. Wimberly 159; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

F162.2.3. F162.2.3. Rivers of honey in otherworld. Wimberly 159; Gaster Thespis 200f., Oldest Stories 233; Africa (Hausa): Werner African 141 (milk and honey).

F162.2.4. F162.2.4. Rivers of mead in otherworld. Wimberly 159.

F162.2.5. F162.2.5. Rivers of balsam and attar in otherworld. *Patch PMLA XXXIII 621 n. 70; Irish: Beal XXI 319, O'Suilleabhain 52; Jewish: *Neuman.

F162.2.6. F162.2.6. Rivers of oil, milk, wine, and honey in otherworld. *Patch PMLA XXXIII 623 n. 78; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

F162.2.7. F162.2.7. Thirteen rivers of balm in otherworld. Gaster Exempla 219 No. 154 (153).

F162.2.8. F162.2.8. River in paradise with terrible roar. Robs people of hearing. *Hertz Abhandlungen 86 n. 1.

F162.2.9. F162.2.9. Flowing stream forms arc over otherworld isle. Irish myth: Cross.

F162.2.10. F162.2.10. Jewels in streams of otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F162.2.11. F162.2.11. Perilous river in otherworld. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 918.

F162.2.12. F162.2.12. River in underworld from tears of living. Eskimo (Bering Strait): Nelson RBAE XVIII 488.

F162.2.13. F162.2.13. Underworld river from blood of sick mortals. S. A. Indian (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 24.

F162.3. F162.3. Tree in otherworld. (Cf. F162.1.2.4, F162.1.2.5, F162.1.3.) Patch PMLA XXXIII 624, Other World 384 s.v. "tree"; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 286; Tonga: Gifford 149.

F162.3.0.1. F162.3.0.1. Marvelous tree grown from otherworld fruit. Irish myth: Cross.

F162.3.1. F162.3.1. Tree of Life in otherworld. Nourishes mankind. Patch PMLA XXXIII 625 n. 83, Other World 385 s.v. "Tree of Life"; Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Penzer I 8 n., 144.

F162.3.2. F162.3.2. Wishing-tree in otherworld. Penzer I 8 n., 144.

F162.3.3. F162.3.3. Tree in otherworld in perpetual fruit. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 355.

F162.3.4. F162.3.4. Magic apple tree in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.3.4.1. F162.3.4.1. Magic apples (trees) under the sea. Irish myth: Cross.

F162.3.5. F162.3.5. Tree of knowledge of good and evil in otherworld. Jewish: *Neuman.

F162.3.6. F162.3.6. Tree with golden top in otherworld. Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 33.

F162.4. F162.4. Sea of glass in otherworld. Patch PMLA XXXIII 610 n. 30.—Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.4.1. F162.4.1. Sea of ice in otherworld. Jewish: Neuman.

F162.5. F162.5. Wells in otherworld. Patch Other World 386 s.v. "well".

F162.5.1. F162.5.1. Well (of wine) in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.5.2. F162.5.2. Head in otherworld well emits stream of water from mouth. Irish myth: Cross.

F162.5.3. F162.5.3. Well containing "salmon of knowledge" in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.6. F162.6. Lakes in otherworld. Patch Other World 380 s.v. "lake"; German: Grimm No. 133.

F162.6.1. F162.6.1. Lake of fire in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F162.6.2. F162.6.2. Lake with water of life in otherworld. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 492; Maori: Clark 182.

F162.7. F162.7. Rainbow of honey appears regularly in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F162.8. F162.8. Magic fountain in otherworld. (Cf. F162.1.2.2.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.8.1. F162.8.1. Fountain of any temperature desired in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.8.2. F162.8.2. Fountains in otherworld—one or more streams flow into each, one or more out. Irish myth: Cross.

F162.8.3. F162.8.3. Musical fountain in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F162.9. F162.9. Mountains in otherworld. Jewish: Neuman; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 19; Marquesas: Handy 119.

F163. F163. Buildings in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F163.1. F163.1. Castle in otherworld. Patch Other World 375 s.v. "castle"; Siuts 58ff.; Dickson 94 n. 76; Irish myth: *Cross.

F163.1.1. F163.1.1. Revolving castle in otherworld. Patch PMLA XXXIII 617 n. 54.—Irish myth: *Cross.

F163.1.2. F163.1.2. Golden castle in otherworld. Wimberly 146; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F163.1.3. F163.1.3. Castles thatched with golden shields in otherworld. Icelandic: Snorra Edda Gylf. II, XVII, MacCulloch Eddic 329 (Valhalla and Gimlé), Boberg.

F163.1.4. F163.1.4. Castles of gold and silver in otherworld. Icelandic: Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 71 (Glitnir), Snorra Edda Gylf. XVII (Bleidablik), Boberg.

F163.1.5. F163.1.5. Castles thatched with silver in otherworld. (Cf. F163.3.2.) Icelandic: Snorra Edda Gylf. XVII, MacCulloch Eddic 329 (Valaskjalf and Hlidskjalf), Boberg.

F163.2. F163.2. Church (chapel) in otherworld. Siuts 62.—English: Gawayne and the Green Knight.

F163.2.1. F163.2.1. Temple in otherworld. Jewish: Neuman.

F163.2.1.1. F163.2.1.1. Temple of jewels in otherworld. Jewish: Neuman.

F163.2.2. F163.2.2. Fiery temple in otherworld: Jewish: Neuman.

F163.3. F163.3. House in otherworld. (Cf. F147.) Siuts 63ff.

F163.3.1. F163.3.1. House of gold and crystal in otherworld. (Cf. F169.2.) Wimberly 146; Irish myth: *Cross.

F163.3.2. F163.3.2. House of silver in otherworld. (Cf. F163.1.5.) Irish myth: *Cross; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F163.3.2.1. F163.3.2.1. House in underworld lined with human eyes. Tonga: Gifford 168.

F163.3.2.2. F163.3.2.2. House in underworld made of bones of dead. Tonga: Gifford 171.

F163.4. F163.4. Gigantic mill in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F163.5. F163.5. Fortress in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F163.5.1. F163.5.1. Fortress of metal (gold, silver, etc.) in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F163.6. F163.6. Stronghold in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

- F163.7. F163.7. Tower in otherworld. Patch Other World 384 s.v. "tower".
- F163.7.1. F163.7.1. Tower hanging in the air in the otherworld. (Cf. H1036.) Icelandic: Flateyjarbyk I 33, *Boberg.
- F164. F164. Habitable caves and mounds in otherworld. Siuts 65ff.; Patch Other World 375 s.v. "cave".
- F165. F165. Characteristics of otherworld dwellings.
- F165.1. F165.1. Doors in otherworld. Siuts 70ff.; Patch Other World 376 s.v. "doors"; Irish myth: *Cross.
- F165.1.0.1. F165.1.0.1. One hundred doors in palace of otherworld king. Irish myth: Cross.
- F165.1.0.2. F165.1.0.2. Magic revolving wheel at door of otherworld dun (stronghold). Irish myth: *Cross.
- F165.1.1. F165.1.1. Doors of gold (crystal) in otherworld dwelling. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F165.2. F165.2. Otherworld dwellings open only at certain times. Siuts 73f.
- F165.3. F165.3. Rooms in otherworld dwellings. Siuts 74ff.
- F165.3.1. F165.3.1. Hall of glass in otherworld. Jewish: Neuman.
- F165.3.1.1. F165.3.1.1. Chamber with crystal ceiling in otherworld. Patch PMLA XXXIII 610 n. 30.
- F165.3.2. F165.3.2. Jewelled walls in otherworld dwelling. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.
- F165.3.3. F165.3.3. Floors of silver in otherworld dwelling. Irish myth: Cross.
- F165.3.4. F165.3.4. Wattling of silver in otherworld dwelling. Irish myth: Cross.
- F165.3.5. F165.3.5. Windows in otherworld. (Cf. A661.0.6.) Irish myth: Cross.
- F165.3.5.1. F165.3.5.1. Crystal bower with "bright windows" as otherworld dwelling. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F165.4. F165.4. Table always set in otherworld dwellings. Siuts 79.
- F165.5. F165.5. House in otherworld thatched with wings of birds. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F165.6. F165.6. Only joy felt in otherworld dwelling. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F165.6.1. F165.6.1. Otherworld (fairylnd) as place of sorrowful captivity. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F165.7. F165.7. Fire in otherworld dwelling. Irish myth: Cross.
- F165.7.1. F165.7.1. Four columns around fire in otherworld castle. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F165.8. F165.8. Copper-colored house in lower world. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

- F166. F166. Furniture and objects in the otherworld. Siuts 83.
- F166.0.1. F166.0.1. All furniture and objects in otherworld of gold. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F166.1. F166.1. Treasure and jewels in otherworld. Siuts 83ff.; Patch Other World 379 s.v. "jewels"; Jewish: *Neuman.
- F166.1.1. F166.1.1. "Silver Bowl" (Grail) in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.
- F166.2. F166.2. Gold-producing spring in otherworld. Siuts 85f.
- F166.3. F166.3. Extraordinary clothes in otherworld. Siuts 86f.
- F166.3.1. F166.3.1. Otherworld clothing never wears out. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F166.4. F166.4. Magic objects in otherworld. Siuts 89ff.
- F166.4.1. F166.4.1. King's crown in well in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F166.4.2. F166.4.2. Magic cauldron (vessel) in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F166.5. F166.5. Altar in otherworld. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F166.6. F166.6. Thrones in otherworld. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F166.7. F166.7. Curtains in otherworld. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F166.8. F166.8. Beds in otherworld. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F166.9. F166.9. Canopies in otherworld. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F166.10. F166.10. Tables in otherworld. Jewish: Neuman.
- F166.11. F166.11. Abundant food in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F167. F167. Inhabitants of otherworld. *Siuts 107ff.
- F167.1. F167.1. Animals in otherworld. Siuts 107ff.; Patch Other World 373 s.v. "animals"; Irish: *Cross, O'Suilleabhain 55, Beal XXI 321.
- F167.1.1. F167.1.1. Beasts in otherworld.
- F167.1.1.1. F167.1.1.1. Dogs in otherworld. (Cf. A673.) Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 1032.
- F167.1.2. F167.1.2. Birds in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F167.1.2.1. F167.1.2.1. Otherworld islands of birds. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F167.1.3. F167.1.3. Insects in otherworld.
- F167.1.3.1. F167.1.3.1. Bees in otherworld. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F167.1.4. F167.1.4. Other animals in otherworld.
- F167.1.4.1. F167.1.4.1. Giant clams in otherworld. Tonga: Gifford 169.

- F167.2. F167.2. Dwarfs in otherworld. (Cf. F451.) Siuts 153ff.; Irish myth: Cross.
- F167.3. F167.3. Giants in otherworld. (Cf. F531.) Siuts 161ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.
- F167.4. F167.4. People in otherworld walk on their heads. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F167.4.1. F167.4.1. People in otherworld stand on their heads and pound yams with their heads. Africa (Yoruba): Ellis 245 No. 1.
- F167.5. F167.5. Headless people in otherworld. Siuts 218.
- F167.6. F167.6. Handless people in otherworld. Siuts 218.
- F167.7. F167.7. Footless people in otherworld. Siuts 218.
- F167.8. F167.8. Otherworld people unacquainted with fire. Polynesian: Dixon 72, 78; Africa (Wachaga): Werner African 137.
- F167.9. F167.9. Otherworld people ever young, ever beautiful. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F167.9.1. F167.9.1. Otherworld people rejuvenated on reaching old age. S. A. Indian (Yuracare): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 503.
- F167.10. F167.10. No carnal sin in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F167.11. F167.11. Monstrous creatures in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.
- F167.11.1. F167.11.1. Serpents (monsters) in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross
- F167.11.2. F167.11.2. Hogs with bath of molten lead (iron) in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F167.12. F167.12. King of otherworld. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F167.12.1. F167.12.1. Mortal marries king of otherworld. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F167.13. F167.13. Angels in otherworld. (Cf. V230.) Jewish: *Neuman.
- F167.14. F167.14. Otherworld inhabitants segregated. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F167.14.1. F167.14.1. Portion of otherworld for women. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F167.15. F167.15. Great tattooer in otherworld. Maori: Clark 136.
- F167.16. F167.16. Beings born in otherworld suffer from excessive heat. Buddhist. myth: Malalasekera II 794.
- F168. F168. Villages in otherworld. Eskimo (Labrador): Hawkes GSCan XIV 154.
- F169. F169. Nature of the otherworld—miscellaneous.
- F169.1. F169.1. Pillars of silver and glass in otherworld. Patch PMLA XXXIII 610 n. 30, Other World 382 s.v. "pillar", Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.
- F169.1.1. F169.1.1. Pillars of bronze in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F169.1.2. F169.1.2. Pillars of gold in otherworld. Icelandic: Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 71.

F169.1.3. F169.1.3. Four-sided silver column on otherworld island. Irish myth: Cross.

F169.2. F169.2. Walls of crystal in otherworld. (Cf. F163.3.1.) Patch PMLA XXXIII 610 n. 30, Other World 386 s.v. "wall"; Jewish: *Neuman.

F169.3. F169.3. Ship of glass in otherworld. Patch PMLA XXXIII 610 n. 30.

F169.4. F169.4. Silver fishnet in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F169.5. F169.5. Fence of metal or crystal in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F169.6. F169.6. Gold chain as support in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F169.7. F169.7. Coldness of otherworld.

F169.7.1. F169.7.1. Fire in otherworld makes one feel colder. S. A. Indian (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 42, 45.

F169.8. F169.8. Abundance in otherworld. Greek: Grote I 62; S. A. Indian (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 46.

F169.9. F169.9. Pleasant fragrance in otherworld. Jewish: *Neuman.

F170. F170. Otherworld—miscellaneous motifs.

F171. F171. Extraordinary sights in otherworld. *Types 470, 471; Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 489f; India: Thompson-Balys.

F171.0.1. F171.0.1. Enigmatic happenings in otherworld, which are later explained. Type 471; *Oertel Studien zur vgl. Literaturgeschichte VIII 123; Köhler-Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. VI 173 (to Gonzenbach No. 88); Bolte ibid. XVI 460.—Irish: O'Suilleabhain 54, 57, Beal XXI 321f.; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *472; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F171.1. F171.1. Fat and lean kine in otherworld. *Types 470, 471; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 52, Beal XXI 319.

F171.2. F171.2. Broad and narrow road in otherworld. *Type 470; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 63, Beal XXI 324.

F171.3. F171.3. People and things that strike one another in otherworld. Type 470.

F171.4. F171.4. Fighting animals seen in otherworld. Rams and she-goats or wild boars. *Type 471; *Brown Iwain 71ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "boucs".

F171.5. F171.5. Animals in otherworld pass in and out of church and become human beings. Type 471.

F171.6. F171.6. Mysterious punishments in otherworld. *BP III 302; Ovid Metamorphoses IV lines 457—463.

F171.6.1. F171.6.1. Man in otherworld loaded down with wood. Then more and more put on him. *Type 801; *BP III 302; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 55, Beal XXI 321.

F171.6.2. F171.6.2. People in otherworld pour water into tub full of holes. *Type 801; BP III 297ff., 303.

F171.6.3. F171.6.3. Trying to get a beam through a door crosswise in otherworld. *Type 801; BP III 303.

F171.6.4. F171.6.4. People in otherworld with horses both before and behind wagon. They pull against each other. *Type 801; BP III 303.

F171.6.5. F171.6.5. Man in otherworld kindles fire. It burns out repeatedly while he is gathering more wood. Irish myth: *Cross.

F171.6.6. F171.6.6. People in otherworld thatch house with birds' wings. Thatch blows away while they go for more. Irish myth: *Cross.

F171.7. F171.7. Unseen hands lave feet in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F171.8. F171.8. Demon eats sand; gambler lives wretched life in otherworld. India: Thompson-Balys.

F172. F172. No time, no birth, no death in otherworld. Hartland Science 194.—Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

F172.1. F172.1. No gloom, no envy, etc. in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

F173. F173. Otherworld land of happiness. (Cf. F165.6, F167.9, F169.8.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F173.1. F173.1. Otherworld land of pleasure. Irish myth: *Cross.

F173.2. F173.2. Otherworld land of peace. Irish myth: *Cross.

F173.3. F173.3. Perpetual feasts in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F174. F174. Hero carried off to otherworld by his supernatural wives. India: Thompson-Balys.

F174.1. F174.1. Hero forces otherworld person's wife to tell him way to otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross (F174.2.).

F175. F175. Magic music lures to otherworld journey. Irish myth: Cross.

F176. F176. Hero fights in otherworld and overcomes king (queen), or fairy. Irish myth: *Cross.

F176.1. F176.1. Hero fights giants who ruin fairyland. Irish myth: Cross.

F177. F177. "Heavenly Academy" in otherworld. Jewish: *Neuman.

F177.1. F177.1. Court in otherworld. Jewish: *Neuman.

F178. F178. Colors of the otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F178.1. F178.1. Red as otherworld color. Irish myth: *Cross.

F178.2. F178.2. Green as otherworld color. Irish myth: Cross.

F181. F181. Lovemaking in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F182. F182. Mortals held by magic in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F183. F183. Foods in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F183.1. F183.1. Automatic service in otherworld: any sort of food desired furnished. Irish myth: Cross.

F184. F184. Otherworld king. Irish myth: Cross.

F184.1. F184.1. Wounded otherworld king in Ireland. Irish myth: Cross.

F185. F185. Otherworld queen. Irish myth: Cross.

F199. F199. Additional otherworld motifs.

F200—F699.

F200—F699. MARVELOUS CREATURES

F200—F399.

F200—F399. FAIRIES AND ELVES

F200. F200. Fairies (elves). See also F420 (Water Spirits), F451 (Dwarfs) and F460 (Mountain Spirits) for many common motifs. Hartland Science; Brueyre RTP II 74ff.; *Wehrhan Die Sage 74; Doudou RTP XVII 425ff.; Feilberg's MS collection of cards in Copenhagen Nos. 632—925, cf. Ellekilde FFC LXXXV 78 s.v. "Elb" (alf); Latham The Elizabethan Fairies (New York, 1931); Puckett MPh XVI (1918) 297ff.; De Vries Nederlandsche Tijdschrift voor Volkskunde XXXVI (1931) 3—30; Fb "underjordiske"; Saintyves Contes de Perrault 18, *19.—Irish myth: Cross; Celtic: *H. Schreiber Die Feen in Europa (Freiburg i. Br., 1842), *W. Wentz Fairy-Faith in Celtic Countries (Rennes, 1909.); Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 43—45 Nos. 37—40, 41—49, 52—54; Icelandic: *Boberg; *Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 48ff.; Lithuanian: *Balys Die Sagen von den litauischen Feen (Die Nachbarn [Göttingen, 1948] I 31—71); Germanic: MacCulloch Eddic 219ff.; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 13; Armenian: Ananikian 83; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 564; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 326, 328; N. A. Indian: *Alexander N. Am. 68, 290 n. 36; Africa: Werner African 261, (Ibo [Nigeria]): Basden 278, (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 141 No. 27.

F200.1. F200.1. Pixies (little people unseen but often audible and occasionally caught). India: Thompson-Balys.

F201. F201. Bongas. Roughly equivalent to fairies. Generally malevolent, but often not. India: Thompson-Balys.

F205. F205. Little people from the sky. (Cf. F215.) Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 326—333.

F210. F210. Fairyland. *Hartland Science 135ff.—Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

F210.1. F210.1. Tabu: fighting battle in fairyland. Irish myth: Cross.

F211. F211. Fairyland under hollow knoll. Usually entered under roots of trees. Fb "træ" III 866b; Hartland Science 67, 108, 144ff., 155; Patch PMLA XXXIII 612f.—Irish myth: *Cross; Scotch: Campbell Tales II 49, Macdougall and Calder 133, 159, 163, 169, 181, 193, 207, 273, 283; Icelandic: *Boberg; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3600; German: Grimm Nr. 39; Germanic: De la Saussaye 322; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 10.

F211.0.1. F211.0.1. Prehistoric burial mounds as dwellings of fairies. Irish myth: *Cross.

F211.0.2. F211.0.2. Contrast between people of the fairy mounds and inhabitants of the Land of Promise. Irish myth: *Cross.

F211.0.2.1. F211.0.2.1. Tuatha Dé Danann, conquerors of Ireland, are overcome by invaders. (Maic Milid, "Milesians," Gaels) and betake themselves into hills. Irish myth: *Cross.

F211.1. F211.1. Entrance to fairyland through door in knoll. Hartland Science 61; Irish myth: *Cross; England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales: Baughman; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 133, 283.

F211.1.1. F211.1.1. Door to fairyland opens once a year. Hartland Science 136.—Irish myth: *Cross.

F211.1.1.1. F211.1.1.1. Fairies emerge on Hallowe'en. Irish myth: *Cross.

F211.1.1.2. F211.1.1.2. Fairies emerge on St. John's night. Irish myth: *Cross.

F211.2. F211.2. Fairyland entrance under stone. Hartland Science 184; Fb "sten" III 552b.

F211.3. F211.3. Fairies live under earth. Icelandic: Boberg.

F212. F212. Fairyland under water. Krappe Le lac enchanté (Bulletin Hispanique XXXV 107—125); *Cross MPh XIII 731; Irish myth: *Cross, Baughman; Icelandic: Boberg; Japanese: Ikeda.

F212.0.1. F212.0.1. Water fairies. Irish myth: *Cross.

F212.1. F212.1. Fairyland entered through well. Hartland Science 128.—Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F213. F213. Fairyland on island. Hartland Science 136.—Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F213.1. F213.1. Magic boat to fairyland. Clouston Tales I 218ff.; Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIII 97ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.

F213.2. F213.2. Fairies ferried across stream. Meyer Germanische 134; Henne-Am Rhyn Die deutsche Volkssage 2 348 No. 541; Ranke Die deutsche Sage IV 279; Grimm Deutsche Sagen No. 276; Grimm Deutsche Mythologie 3 694.

F213.3. F213.3. Sea-riding horse carries mortals to fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

- F214. F214. Trolls (fairies) live in range of hills. Hartland Science 141.
- F215. F215. Fairies live in star-world. (Cf. F205.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- F215.1. F215.1. Fairyland in sky. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F215.1.1. F215.1.1. Fairies in heaven. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F215.2. F215.2. Peris in sky-world. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F216. F216. Fairies live in forest. Wimberly 127.
- F216.1. F216.1. Fairies live in trees by stream. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241a; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F216.2. F216.2. Bonga lives in tree. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F217. F217. Congregating places of fairies. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 49 No. 397.
- F217.1. F217.1. Fairy lights seen in low places. Fb "lys" II 481a.
- F217.2. F217.2. Fairies assemble at milestone. Fb "mile" II 591.
- F217.3. F217.3. Fairies assemble at cross-roads. Hartland Science 138.
- F219. F219. Other dwelling places of fairies.
- F219.1. F219.1. Fairies dwell in the next country. England: *Baughman.
- F219.2. F219.2. Garden in fairyland. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F219.3. F219.3. Fairies dwell in land to the east. Maori: Clark 98.
- F220. F220. Dwelling of fairies.
- F221. F221. House of fairy. Missouri French: Carrière.
- F221.1. F221.1. Fairy house disappears at dawn. Irish myth: *Cross. Cf. Boberg.
- F221.2. F221.2. Bonga house filled with snakes, tigers, and lions. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F221.3. F221.3. Fairies have a pretty room in hill. Göngu-Hrylfs saga 276; Feilberg DF V 71.
- F221.4. F221.4. Fairy family lives in neat cottage. England: Baughman.
- F221.5. F221.5. Fairy house without doors. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F222. F222. Fairy castle. Dickson 114 n. 34.—English: Wells 128 (Sir Orfeo); Irish myth: *Cross; Ireland, Wales: Baughman; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nr. 3600.
- F222.1. F222.1. Fairies' underground palace. Irish myth: *Cross; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 10.
- F222.1.1. F222.1.1. Fairies' underground palace cannot be burned by fire nor destroyed by water. Irish myth: *Cross.

F222.2. F222.2. Fairy stronghold. Irish myth: Cross.

F222.3. F222.3. Fairy castle of glass. India: Thompson-Balys.

F223. F223. Fairy hall. Hartland Science 41.

F224. F224. Shining bower on a pillar for fée in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F225. F225. Fairy lives in a shell. India: Thompson-Balys.

F230. F230. Appearance of fairies.

F231. F231. Fairy's limbs.

F231.1. F231.1. Fairy's arms.

F231.1.1. F231.1.1. Fairy's iron arms. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bras".

F231.2. F231.2. Fairy's feet.

F231.2.1. F231.2.1. Fairies with bird feet. *Gaster Germania XXV 290ff.

F232. F232. Body of fairy. Irish: Beal XXI 324.

F232.1. F232.1. Fairies have hollow backs. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b, "ellepige" I 242a; Elisabeth Hartmann Die Trollvorstellungen in der Sagen und Märchen der skandinavischen Völker (Stuttgart, 1936) 38; Finnish-Swedish: *Wessman 48 Nos. 394, 438.

F232.1.1. F232.1.1. Fairies have huge hole in each armpit. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F232.1.2. F232.1.2. Fairy has back rough like pine cone. U.S.: Baughman.

F232.2. F232.2. Fairies have breasts long enough to throw over their shoulders. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b, "patte" II 791b.

F232.3. F232.3. Fairies with unusually large ears. Tobler 63.

F232.4. F232.4. Fairies have long hair. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F232.4.1. F232.4.1. Fairy as a small pretty girl with blond hair. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F232.4.2. F232.4.2. Fairy princess with golden hair. India: Thompson-Balys.

F232.5. F232.5. Fairies have hairy bodies. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F232.6. F232.6. Fairies as giants. Irish myth: *Cross.

F232.7. F232.7. Elves have only half a thumb. England: Baughman.

F232.8. F232.8. Fairy has long tail. (Cf. F460.1.5, F518.) England: Baughman.

F233. F233. Color of fairy. (Cf. F236.)

- F233.1. F233.1. Green fairy. Wimberly 240 n. 4; Irish myth: *Cross; England, Scotland: Baughman; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F233.1.1. F233.1.1. Fairy has one side green. Irish myth: Cross.
- F233.2. F233.2. Silver-colored fairy. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "argentine".
- F233.3. F233.3. Red fairy. Irish myth: *Cross; England, Wales: Baughman.
- F233.3.1. F233.3.1. Fairy has red eyes. U.S.: Baughman.
- F233.4. F233.4. Fairy's son is pale, dark, and ugly. Icelandic: Þiðriks saga I 322, 343—44, 351, Boberg.
- F233.5. F233.5. Fairies have yellow (golden) hair (clothing). Irish myth: *Cross; Society Islands: Beckwith Myth 335.
- F233.5.1. F233.5.1. Fairy king with yellow hair. Irish myth: Cross.
- F233.6. F233.6. Fairies fair (fine, white). Irish myth: *Cross.
- F233.7. F233.7. Fairies are multicolored. Scotland: Baughman.
- F233.8. F233.8. Fairies are brown and hairy. (Cf. F232.5.) Wales: Baughman.
- F233.9. F233.9. Fairies are black. Scotland: Baughman.
- F233.10. F233.10. Gray-bearded fairy. German: Grimm No. 182.
- F234. F234. Transformed fairy. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.0.1. F234.0.1. Fairy transforms self. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.0.2. F234.0.2. Fairy as shape-shifter. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.1. F234.1. Fairy in form of an animal. Irish myth: *Cross; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 32 No. 268, 48 No. 396.
- F234.1.0.1. F234.1.0.1. Fairy in form of giant animal. Irish myth: Cross.
- F234.1.1. F234.1.1. Fairy in form of cow (bull). Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 281ff., 291ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.1.2. F234.1.2. Fairy in form of goat. Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 289.
- F234.1.3. F234.1.3. Fairy in form of swine. Wales: Baughman.
- F234.1.3.1. F234.1.3.1. Fairy in form of wild boar. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 126, *Cross.
- F234.1.4. F234.1.4. Fairy in form of stag. Irish myth: *Cross; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 203.
- F234.1.4.1. F234.1.4.1. Fairy in form of doe. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.1.5. F234.1.5. Fairy in form of toad. *Fb "tudse" III 888b; Hartland Science 52ff.

- F234.1.6. F234.1.6. Fairy in form of frog. Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 271.
- F234.1.7. F234.1.7. Fairy in form of worm (snake, serpent). Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F234.1.8. F234.1.8. Fairy in form of horse. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.1.9. F234.1.9. Fairy in form of dog.
- F234.1.9.1. F234.1.9.1. Fairy in form of lapdog. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.1.9.2. F234.1.9.2. Fairy in form of greyhound. Wales: Baughman.
- F234.1.10. F234.1.10. Fairy in form of eel. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.1.11. F234.1.11. Fairy in form of sheep. Irish myth: Cross; Wales: Baughman.
- F234.1.12. F234.1.12. Fairy in form of hare. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.1.13. F234.1.13. Fairy in form of wolf. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.1.14. F234.1.14. Fairy in form of weasel. England: Baughman.
- F234.1.15. F234.1.15. Fairy in form of bird. Irish myth: *Cross; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 56.
- F234.1.15.1. F234.1.15.1. Fairy as swan. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.1.15.2. F234.1.15.2. Fairy in form of dove. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F234.1.15.3. F234.1.15.3. Fairy in form of sparrow. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F234.1.15.4. F234.1.15.4. Fairy in form of drake. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F234.1.16. F234.1.16. Fairy in form of insect.
- F234.1.16.1. F234.1.16.1. Fairy in form of fly. Irish myth: Cross.
- F234.1.16.2. F234.1.16.2. Fairy in form of moth. England: Baughman.
- F234.1.16.3. F234.1.16.3. Fairy in form of ant. England: Baughman.
- F234.2. F234.2. Fairy in form of person. *Type 480: *Roberts 117.—Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.2.1. F234.2.1. Fairy in form of hag. Irish myth: *Cross; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 227.
- F234.2.2. F234.2.2. Fairy in hideous form. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.2.3. F234.2.3. Fairy as headless woman. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.2.4. F234.2.4. Fairy in likeness of another. (Cf. F239.2.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- F234.2.4.1. F234.2.4.1. Clerics mistaken for fairies. Irish myth: *Cross.

F234.2.5. F234.2.5. Fairy in form of beautiful young woman. Irish myth: *Cross.

F234.2.6. F234.2.6. Fairy as messenger from fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

F234.2.7. F234.2.7. Fairy as guide to fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

F234.2.8. F234.2.8. Fairy assumes shape of woman and frequents bazaars. India: Thompson-Balys.

F234.3. F234.3. Fairy in form of object.

F234.3.1. F234.3.1. Fairy disappears in form of a cloud. Tobler 87.

F234.3.2. F234.3.2. Bonga girl (fairy) appears as flame. India: Thompson-Balys.

F234.3.3. F234.3.3. Fairy in form of a bundle of rags. England: Baughman.

F234.4. F234.4. Transformed fairy—miscellaneous.

F234.4.1. F234.4.1. Horse used by mortal under fairy spell changes to gray cat. Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 271.

F235. F235. Visibility of fairies.

F235.1. F235.1. Fairies invisible. Tobler 94f.; Irish myth: *Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "invisibilité"; India: Thompson-Balys.

F235.2. F235.2. Fairies visible only at certain times. Icelandic: Boberg.

F235.2.1. F235.2.1. Fairies visible only at night. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "nuit".

F235.2.2. F235.2.2. Fairies visible only at noonday. Fb "middag" II 585.

F235.3. F235.3. Fairies visible to one person alone. Irish myth: *Cross; English: Sir Launfal (Ritson ed.) line 501.

F235.4. F235.4. Fairies made visible through use of magic object.

F235.4.1. F235.4.1. Fairies made visible through use of ointment. (Cf. E361.3.) *Fb "salve" III 150b; *Hartland Science 59—67; English: Child I 339, II 505b, III 505b, V290a; England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, U.S.: Baughman; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 449.

F235.4.2. F235.4.2. Fairies made visible through use of magic soap. Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 277; England: Baughman.

F235.4.3. F235.4.3. Fairies made visible through use of magic stone on eyes. Hartland Science 61.

F235.4.4. F235.4.4. Fairies made visible through use of magic water. Hartland Science 66; Fb "marelok" II 553; England, Scotland: Baughman.

F235.4.5. F235.4.5. Fairies made visible through the use of saliva. Hartland Science 62.

- F235.4.6. F235.4.6. Fairies made visible when one carries four-leaf clover. (Cf. D1323.14.) England: *Baughman.
- F235.5. F235.5. Fairies made visible by stepping on certain spot. Hartland Science 162.
- F235.5.1. F235.5.1. Fairies made visible by standing on another's foot. Hartland Science 162.
- F235.5.2. F235.5.2. Fairies made visible when person steps into fairy ring. (Cf. F218, F261.1.) England, Wales: *Baughman.
- F235.6. F235.6. Fairies visible through magic ring. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 47, Cross.
- F235.7. F235.7. Fairies seen as dark shadows. Tobler 89.
- F235.8. F235.8. Fairies lose power of invisibility. Irish myth: Cross.
- F235.8.1. F235.8.1. Fairies lose power of invisibility if mortals gain knowledge of their secret. (Cf. F361.3.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- F235.8.2. F235.8.2. Fairies made visible by looking with left eye. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- F235.9. F235.9. Fairies made visible when person walks three times around field where cows are grazing at night. (Cf. D1791.) England: Baughman.
- F236. F236. Dress of fairies. (Cf. F233.)
- F236.0.1. F236.0.1. Ill-dressed otherworld person. Irish myth: *Cross
- F236.1. F236.1. Color of fairy's clothes. Irish myth: Cross.
- F236.1.1. F236.1.1. Fairies in red clothes. *Fb "ble" IV 52a; England, Ireland, Wales: Baughman.
- F236.1.2. F236.1.2. Fairies in blue clothes. *Fb "ble" IV 52a.
- F236.1.3. F236.1.3. Fairies in white clothes. *Fb "hvid" I 700b; Irish myth: Cross; England, Wales: Baughman; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 687.
- F236.1.4. F236.1.4. Fairies in gray clothes. *Fb "ellepige" I 242a.
- F236.1.5. F236.1.5. Fairies in gleaming clothes. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F236.1.6. F236.1.6. Fairy in green clothes. Irish myth: Cross; England, Scotland, Wales: Baughman; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F236.1.7. F236.1.7. Fairy wears multi-colored dress. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F236.2. F236.2. Fairies in long robes. *Fb "ellepige" I 242a.
- F236.3. F236.3. Fairies with belts and hats. Fb "ellefolk" I 241b.
- F236.3.1. F236.3.1. Fairies with three-cornered hats. England: Baughman.

F236.3.2. F236.3.2. Fairies with red caps. (Cf. F451.2.7.1, F460.1.4.2.) England, Ireland, Wales: *Baughman.

F236.3.3. F236.3.3. Fairy wears sugar-loaf hat. U.S.: Baughman.

F236.4. F236.4. Fairies with gold crowns on head. Fb "ellefolk" I 241b.

F236.5. F236.5. Fairy wears boorish clothes. Irish myth: *Cross.

F236.5.1. F236.5.1. Fairies wear patched coats. England: Baughman.

F236.6. F236.6. Fairies wear gay clothing. England: Baughman.

F237. F237. Fairies in disguise. Irish myth: Cross.

F238. F238. Fairies are naked. (Cf. F420.1.6.7.) Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F239. F239. Appearance of fairies—miscellaneous.

F239.1. F239.1. Fairies tied together by hair. *Fb "her" I 771b.

F239.2. F239.2. Fairy women identical in form and feature. (Cf. F234.2.4.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F239.3. F239.3. Fairy breathes fire. Irish myth: Cross.

F239.4. F239.4. Size of fairies.

F239.4.1. F239.4.1. Fairies are the same size as mortals. England, Wales: *Baughman.

F239.4.2. F239.4.2. Fairies are the size of small children. England: *Baughman.

F239.4.3. F239.4.3. Fairy is tiny. Irish myth: *Cross; England, Scotland: Baughman.

F239.5. F239.5. Elves have faces of wrinkled old men. England, U.S.: Baughman.

F239.6. F239.6. Fairy's tears pearls. India: Thompson-Balys.

F240. F240. Possessions of fairies.

F241. F241. Fairies' animals.

F241.0.1. F241.0.1. Fairy animal hunted. Irish myth: *Cross.

F241.1. F241.1. Fairies' horses. Howey 2; Irish myth: *Cross; England, Scotland, Wales: Baughman.

F241.1.0.1. F241.1.0.1. Fairy cavalcade. Irish myth: *Cross.

F241.1.1. F241.1.1. Color of fairies' horses. Wales: Baughman.

F241.1.1.1. F241.1.1.1. Fairies ride white horses. English: Child I 216, 323, 325, 339f.; Irish myth: *Cross.

F241.1.1.2. F241.1.1.2. Fairies ride dapple-gray horses. English: Child I 324, 326, Baughman.

- F241.1.1.3. F241.1.1.3. Blue, red, yellow horses in fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F241.1.1.4. F241.1.1.4. Fairies ride cream-colored horses. England: Baughman.
- F241.1.2. F241.1.2. Behavior of fairies' horses.
- F241.1.2.1. F241.1.2.1. Fairies' horses water at peasant's well. *Fb "hest" I 599a.
- F241.1.2.2. F241.1.2.2. Fairies' mare foals every year on first of May. Wales: Baughman.
- F241.1.3. F241.1.3. Fairies ride on three-legged horses. Fb "underjordiske" III 975b.
- F241.1.3.1. F241.1.3.1. Fairy horse one-legged. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F241.1.4. F241.1.4. Fairies' horses have round shoes. Fb "hestesko" IV 213b.
- F241.1.5. F241.1.5. Fairy's horse becomes invisible. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F241.1.6. F241.1.6. Fairy horse pulls chariot by pole which passes through his body. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F241.1.7. F241.1.7. Fairies steal stalks of hemp and turn them into horses. (Cf. D449.5.) Scotland: Baughman.
- F241.1.8. F241.1.8. Size of fairies' horses.
- F241.1.8.1. F241.1.8.1. Fairies' horses the size of greyhounds. Wales: Baughman.
- F241.1.8.2. F241.1.8.2. Fairies' horses are of normal size. England, Wales: *Baughman.
- F241.2. F241.2. Fairies' cows. (Cf. F460.2.9.) Irish myth: *Cross; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 44 No. 57; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 51 Nos. 430—434.
- F241.2.1. F241.2.1. Color of fairies' cows.
- F241.2.1.1. F241.2.1.1. Fairies have red cows. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b, "rød" III 117a, "ko" II 240b.
- F241.2.2. F241.2.2. Fairies' cattle become invisible. Irish myth: Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bétail".
- F241.2.3. F241.2.3. Fairies' cattle under a lake. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 128.
- F241.2.4. F241.2.4. Fairy cattle graze on earth on Hallowe'en. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F241.2.5. F241.2.5. Woman (fairy) lives only on milk from fairy cow. Irish myth: Cross.
- F241.3. F241.3. Hogs follow fairies. Fb "rakker".
- F241.3.1. F241.3.1. Spirit owns herds of pigs. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F241.4. F241.4. Goats follow fairies. Fb "rakker".
- F241.5. F241.5. Fairies have herds of deer. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 129, Cross; India:

*Thompson-Balys.

F241.5.1. F241.5.1. Fairies own herd of ibexes. India: Thompson-Balys.

F241.6. F241.6. Fairy dogs. Irish myth: *Cross.

F241.7. F241.7. Fairies have sheep. Wales: Baughman.

F241.8. F241.8. Fairies have poultry. Wales: Baughman.

F242. F242. Fairies' conveyances.

F242.1. F242.1. Fairy car. Malone PMLA XLIII 421; Irish myth: Cross.

F242.1.1. F242.1.1. Fairy car becomes invisible. Irish myth: *Cross.

F242.1.2. F242.1.2. Fairy chariot rides waves. Irish myth: *Cross.

F242.1.3. F242.1.3. Fairy chariot of precious metal. Irish myth: *Cross.

F242.1.4. F242.1.4. Glass car. Icelandic: Boberg.

F242.2. F242.2. Fairy boat. Irish myth: *Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 194; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bateau".

F242.2.1. F242.2.1. Glass boat for fairy. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 84, *Cross.

F242.2.2. F242.2.2. Fairy boat of bronze. (Cf. F841.1.2.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F242.2.3. F242.2.3. Fairy boat from flax-stem. Maori: Beckwith Myth 335.

F243. F243. Fairies' food. Irish myth: *Cross.

F243.0.1. F243.0.1. Christianized fairy woman refuses to eat fairy food. Irish myth: *Cross.

F243.1. F243.1. Fairies' bread. Irish myth: Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "pain".

F243.2. F243.2. Fairies eat nuts. Irish myth: Cross; MacCulloch Celtic 121.

F243.3. F243.3. Fairies eat meat.

F243.3.1. F243.3.1. Animals eaten by fairies become whole again. England, Ireland, U.S.: Baughman; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "animaux".

F243.4. F243.4. Fairy food undiminished when eaten. Irish myth: *Cross.

F243.5. F243.5. Fairies' food gives immortality. Irish myth: *Cross.

F244. F244. Fairies' treasure. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b; Irish myth: *Cross.

F244.1. F244.1. "The Four Jewels of the Tuatha Dé Danann" (fairies?). Irish myth: *Cross.

F244.2. F244.2. Fairy shows hiding place of treasure in return for freedom. (Cf. N538.) Ireland: Baughman.

F244.3. F244.3. Fairy fetches mortals to remove treasure hidden by ghosts in their lifetimes. (Cf. N510.) Wales: Baughman.

F244.4. F244.4. Fairies scare treasure-seeker away from hoard. They get bigger and bigger, and cause violent storms until seeker leaves. Cf. D2141.0.2. England: Baughman.

F244.5. F244.5. Fairies dig for treasure. England: Baughman.

F244.6. F244.6. Fairies guard giants' treasures. (Cf. N570.) England: Baughman.

F245. F245. Fairies' musical instruments.

F245.1. F245.1. Fairy harp. Irish myth: *Cross.

F246. F246. Fairy tobacco pipes. England: Baughman.

F250. F250. Other characteristics of fairies.

F251. F251. Origin of fairies. Irish myth: *Cross.

F251.1. F251.1. Fairies as descendants of early race of gods. Irish myth: *Cross.

F251.1.1. F251.1.1. Goddess as fairy. Irish myth: *Cross.

F251.1.2. F251.1.2. Fairies as gods. Irish myth: *Cross.

F251.2. F251.2. Fairies as souls of departed. (Cf. E700.) Hartland Science 132f.; von Sydow F ochF XIII—XIV; Slavic: Máchal 256ff.

F251.3. F251.3. Unbaptized children as fairies. Fb "udøbt" III 960a; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 61, Beal XXI 324; England: Baughman; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 30 No. 262.

F251.4. F251.4. Underworld people from children which Eve hid from God. *Fb "underjordiske" III 975b; Wales: Baughman; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 30 No. 261; German: Grimm No. 180.

F251.5. F251.5. Fairies as sprites who have been given immortality. Irish myth: *Cross.

F251.6. F251.6. Fairies as fallen angels. Irish myth: Cross; Scotland, Ireland, U.S.: Baughman; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 224; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 30 No. 260.

F251.7. F251.7. Fairies as demons. Irish myth: *Cross.

F251.8. F251.8. Fairy professes faith in Christianity. Irish myth: *Cross.

F251.9. F251.9. Fairy gives instructions on means of reaching heaven. Irish myth: Cross.

F251.10. F251.10. Fairies are not the children of Adam. Scotland: Baughman.

F251.11. F251.11. Fairies are people not good enough for heaven but not bad enough for hell. England, Wales: *Baughman.

F251.12. F251.12. Fairies are druids. England, Wales: *Baughman.

F251.13. F251.13. Fairies are Welsh women cursed by St. Patrick for rebuking him because he left Wales for Ireland. Wales: Baughman.

F251.14. F251.14. Fairies are outlaws hiding out. Wales: Baughman.

F252. F252. Government of fairies.

F252.1. F252.1. Fairy king. Keightley 50ff.; Malone PMLA XLIII 422; Irish myth: *Cross; English: Wells 128 (Sir Orfeo), England, Wales: Baughman; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 225; India: Thompson-Balys; Papua: Ker 73. Cf. Oberon in Shakespeare's Midsummer Night's Dream, and in Huon of Bordeaux.

F252.1.0.1. F252.1.0.1. Mortal rules fairyland jointly with fairy king. Irish myth: *Cross.

F252.1.0.2. F252.1.0.2. King of Land under Water. Irish myth: *Cross.

F252.1.1. F252.1.1. Fairies elect king. Irish myth: Cross.

F252.1.2. F252.1.2. Indra has control over fairies. India: Thompson-Balys.

F252.2. F252.2. Fairy queen. T. Keightley The Fairy Mythology (London, 1873) 53ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 225, Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F252.3. F252.3. Fairy army. Irish myth: *Cross.

F252.3.1. F252.3.1. Soldiers of fairy king are trees by day and men by night. Fb "træ" III 867b.

F252.4. F252.4. Fairies banished from fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

F252.4.1. F252.4.1. Fairy banished for adultery. (Cf. F254.5, Q241.) Irish myth: Cross.

F252.4.2. F252.4.2. Fairy banished for falsehood. Irish myth: Cross.

F253. F253. Extraordinary powers of fairies.

F253.1. F253.1. Extraordinary physical powers of fairies. Irish myth: *Cross.

F253.1.1. F253.1.1. Fairies possess extraordinary strength. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F253.1.1.1. F253.1.1.1. Fairy as mighty lifter. Irish myth: Cross.

F254. F254. Mortal characteristics of fairies. (Cf. F259.1.) Irish myth: Cross.

F254.1. F254.1. Fairies have physical disabilities. Irish myth: Cross.

F254.2. F254.2. Fairies not omniscient. Irish myth: Cross.

F254.3. F254.3. Fairies can be bewitched. Irish myth: Cross.

F254.4. F254.4. Fairies can be wounded. Irish myth: *Cross.

F254.5. F254.5. Fairies commit adultery. (Cf. F252.4.1.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F255. F255. Peculiar limitations of fairies.

F255.1. F255.1. Fairies must trade whenever it is demanded of them. It does not matter how uneven the trade may be. Hartland Science 131.

F255.2. F255.2. Fairies can set down an object once but cannot raise it again. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 307 No. 22.

F255.3. F255.3. Fairies once seen by mortals no longer invisible at will. Irish myth: Cross.

F255.4. F255.4. Fairy army can go among mortals only on Hallowe'en. Irish myth: Cross.

F255.5. F255.5. Fairies do not bend grass as they walk. (Cf. F261.2, F973.2.) Maori: Beckwith Myth 335.

F256. F256. Fairies read men's thoughts. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 307 No. 22; Japanese: Ikeda.

F256.1. F256.1. Mortal's coming to fairyland foreknown to fairies. Irish myth: *Cross.

F257. F257. Tribute taken from fairies by fiend at stated periods. English: Child V 498 s.v. "Feind".

F258. F258. Fairies gregarious. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b.

F258.1. F258.1. Fairies hold a fair. England: *Baughman.

F259. F259. Characteristics of fairies—miscellaneous.

F259.1. F259.1. Mortality of fairies. Irish myth: *Cross.

F259.1.1. F259.1.1. Fairies kill each other. Irish myth: Cross.

F259.1.2. F259.1.2. Fairy becomes mortal. Irish myth: *Cross.

F259.1.3. F259.1.3. Fairy dies of longing for fairyland. Irish myth: Cross.

F259.1.4. F259.1.4. Fairies immortal. Irish myth: *Cross.

F259.1.4.1. F259.1.4.1. Fairies cannot be slain. Irish myth: Cross.

F259.2. F259.2. Fairies freed from disgrace by bathing in blood of enemy. Irish myth: *Cross.

F259.3. F259.3. Fairy reveals her true identity when despite heavy rain she remains dry. India: Thompson-Balys.

F260. F260. Behavior of fairies.

F261. F261. Fairies dance. *Type 503; *BP III 324ff., 329; *Fb "danse" IV 93a; Hartland Science 162.—Irish myth: *Cross; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 127, 163; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1893) 24ff., (1928) 16ff.; Slavic: Máchal 259; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "dance"; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F261.1. F261.1. Fairy rings on grass. Seen after fairy dance. Irish myth: Cross; English: Brueyre RTP II 74ff.; Slavic: Máchal 259.

F261.1.1. F261.1.1. Fairies dance by themselves in fairy ring. England: *Baughman.

F261.2. F261.2. Fairy dances in snow: no tracks left. (Cf. F255.5.) Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 50 No. 420.

F261.2.1. F261.2.1. Fairies dance on leaves without disturbing them. Cook Islands: Beckwith Myth 336.

F261.3. F261.3. Other locations of fairy dancing.

F261.3.1. F261.3.1. Fairies dance under tree.

F261.3.1.1. F261.3.1.1. Fairies dance under hawthorn trees. England: Baughman.

F261.3.1.2. F261.3.1.2. Fairies dance under oak tree. England: Baughman.

F261.3.2. F261.3.2. Fairies dance on foxglove. England: Baughman.

F261.3.3. F261.3.3. Fairies dance in orchard. England: Baughman.

F261.3.4. F261.3.4. Fairies dance in ditches. Scotland: *Baughman.

F261.3.5. F261.3.5. Fairies dance in hay in barn. Wales: Baughman.

F261.3.6. F261.3.6. Fairies dance on the green. India: Thompson-Balys.

F261.3.7. F261.3.7. Fairies dance before Indra. India: Thompson-Balys.

F262. F262. Fairies make music. Hartland Science 141, 155; Krappe Balor 88; Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 165, *Cross; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 163, 209; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 225; India: Thompson-Balys.

F262.1. F262.1. Fairies sing. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b, "syng" III 706b; Irish myth: *Cross; England: Baughman; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "chant", "chanteuse".

F262.2. F262.2. Fairies teach bagpipe-playing. Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 175.

F262.3. F262.3. Fairy minstrel. Irish myth: *Cross.

F262.3.1. F262.3.1. Fairy as harper. Irish myth: *Cross.

F262.3.1.1. F262.3.1.1. Fairy harper plays two harps at once. Irish myth: *Cross.

F262.3.1.2. F262.3.1.2. Fairy harper in yew tree. Irish myth: *Cross.

F262.3.1.3. F262.3.1.3. Fairy harper in tiny bronze boat. Irish myth: *Cross.

F262.3.2. F262.3.2. Fairy minstrel's birds sing accompaniment. Irish myth: Cross.

F262.3.3. F262.3.3. Fairy minstrel's music heard far and wide. Irish myth: Cross.

F262.3.4. F262.3.4. Fairy music causes sleep. Irish myth: *Cross.

- F262.3.5. F262.3.5. Fairy music causes mourning. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F262.3.6. F262.3.6. Fairy music causes joy (laughter). Irish myth: *Cross.
- F262.3.7. F262.3.7. Fairy music causes weakness. Irish myth: Cross.
- F262.4. F262.4. Fairy music compared to music of Heaven. Irish myth: Cross.
- F262.5. F262.5. Fairy music—person listening is without food or sleep for a year. Irish myth: Cross.
- F262.6. F262.6. Fairy music so potent it would cause wounded men to sleep. Irish myth: Cross.
- F262.7. F262.7. Fairies whistle. England: Baughman.
- F262.8. F262.8. Fairy horns heard by mortals. Scotland: Baughman.
- F262.9. F262.9. Fairy music makes seven years seem like one day to mortal hearer. (Cf. D2011.1.) England: Baughman.
- F262.10. F262.10. Fairy music—miscellaneous.
- F262.10.1. F262.10.1. Fairy music issues from stone. England: Baughman.
- F262.10.2. F262.10.2. Fairy music issues from fairy ring. England: Baughman.
- F263. F263. Fairies feast. Hartland Science 144, 155; Keightley 283; Irish myth: *Cross; England: Baughman.
- F263.1. F263.1. Fairy's share of feast a nut. Irish myth: Cross.
- F264. F264. Fairy wedding. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b.
- F265. F265. Fairy bathes. Hoffman-Krayer Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 120 n. 3; Irish myth: *Cross; England: Baughman; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F265.1. F265.1. Fairies frequently use bath house. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- F266. F266. Fairies warm themselves. Fb "ovn" II 774b; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 56 No. 481.
- F267. F267. Fairies attend games. Irish myth: Cross.
- F268. F268. Burial among underworld folk. *Fb "begravelse" IV 30b; Irish myth: Cross.
- F268.1. F268.1. Burial service for fairy queen is held at night in Christian church. England: *Baughman.
- F271. F271. Fairies as laborers.
- F271.0.1. F271.0.1. Fairies as craftsmen. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 329.
- F271.0.2. F271.0.2. Fairies lacking axes work with their teeth. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 333.

- F271.1. F271.1. Fairies milk cows. Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 129ff.
- F271.2. F271.2. Fairies as builders.
- F271.2.0.1. F271.2.0.1. Fairies build great structures in one night. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 333.
- F271.2.1. F271.2.1. Fairies excavate passage. Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 173; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "souterrain".
- F271.2.2. F271.2.2. Fairies build causeway. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F271.2.3. F271.2.3. Fairies build canoe. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 332.
- F271.3. F271.3. Fairies skillful as smiths. *Fb "smed" III 402a; Irish myth: *Cross; England, Scotland, Ireland: Baughman, Boberg DF XLVI 83.
- F271.4. F271.4. Fairies work on cloth.
- F271.4.1. F271.4.1. Fairies bleach linen. Fb "lined" II 435b; England: Baughman; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 182ff., (1928) 128ff.
- F271.4.2. F271.4.2. Fairies skillful as weavers. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F271.4.3. F271.4.3. Fairies spin. Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 56.
- F271.5. F271.5. Fairies clear land. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F271.6. F271.6. Fairy as herdsman. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F271.7. F271.7. Fairies churn. *Boberg DF XLVI 84.
- F271.8. F271.8. Fées engage in needlework. Irish myth: Cross.
- F271.9. F271.9. Fairies wash their clothes: they are heard only at this task. England: *Baughman.
- F271.10. F271.10. Fairies bake bread. Boberg DF XLVI.
- F273. F273. Fairy shows remarkable skill. Irish myth: Cross.
- F273.1. F273.1. Fairy shows remarkable skill as marksman. Irish myth: Cross.
- F273.2. F273.2. Fairy shows remarkable skill as runner. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F274. F274. Fairy physician. Irish myth: Cross.
- F275. F275. Fairies descend chimney. England, Scotland: Baughman; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "cheminée".
- F276. F276. Fairies call out to mortals. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b.
- F277. F277. Battle of fairies and gods. Irish myth: *Cross; Scotch: Campbell Tales II 85.

F277.0.1. F277.0.1. War between fairy settlements. Irish myth: *Cross.

F277.0.2. F277.0.2. Fairies fight among selves for possession of island. Irish myth: Cross.

F277.0.3. F277.0.3. Good and bad fairies battle. Irish myth: Cross.

F278. F278. Fairies' strategy. Irish myth: *Cross.

F278.1. F278.1. Fairy casts huge stones to keep enemies off. Irish myth: Cross.

F278.2. F278.2. Fairies create magic concealing mist. Irish myth: *Cross.

F281. F281. Fairy replaces man's heart with heart of straw. Eyes with wood, etc. English: Child I 343—356 passim.

F282. F282. Fairies travel through air.

F282.1. F282.1. Fairies travel in eddies of wind. Irish myth: *Cross.

F282.2. F282.2. Formulas for fairies' travel through air. England: Baughman.

F282.3. F282.3. Fairies come from the kingdom of Indra to earth in four flying thrones. India: Thompson-Balys.

F285. F285. Anchor falls on fairies. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "ancre".

F300—F399.

F300—F399. FAIRIES AND MORTALS

F300. F300. Marriage or liaison with fairy. Irish myth: *Cross, Beal XXI 335, Tupper and Ogle Walter Map 96.

F300.1. F300.1. Giants guard fairy princess from mortal man. India: Thompson-Balys.

F300.2. F300.2. Husband pursues fairy wife to heaven. Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 55.

F301. F301. Fairy lover. Fb "underjordiske" III 975a; Dickson 121 n. 65; Hartland Science 64; Irish myth: *Cross; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 133ff.; Icelandic: Boberg, *Feilberg DF V 43ff.; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Werner 343.

F301.1. F301.1. Summoning fairy lover.

F301.1.1. F301.1.1. Girl summons fairy lover by breaking tabu.

F301.1.1.1. F301.1.1.1. Girl summons fairy lover by wishing for him. English: Child I 6ff. No. 2.

F301.1.1.2. F301.1.1.2. Girl summons fairy lover by plucking flowers. English: Child I 360 n.

F301.1.1.3. F301.1.1.3. Girl summons fairy lover by lying under tree. English: Child V 499 s.v. "trees".

F301.1.1.4. F301.1.1.4. Girl summons fairy lover by pulling nuts. English: Child I 360 n.

F301.2. F301.2. Fairy lover entices mortal girl.

F301.2.1. F301.2.1. Elf-knight produces love-longing by blowing on horn. English: Child I 15ff., 23, 55, 367.

F301.3. F301.3. Girl goes to fairyland and marries fairy. Hartland Science 64.

F301.4. F301.4. Tasks set maid by elfin knight before she can marry him. English: Child I 15ff.

F301.5. F301.5. Elf-knight entices maiden away and kills her. English: Child I 47; Japanese: Ikeda.

F301.6. F301.6. Fairy lover abducts fairy wife of mortal. Irish myth: *Cross.

F301.7. F301.7. Girl goes to see her fairy lover on certain nights. Icelandic: Sveinsson FFC LXXXVIII 10f. (Type 306 III).

F301.8. F301.8. Fairy runs away from wedding with mortal girl. Irish myth: Cross.

F302. F302. Fairy mistress. Mortal man marries or lives with fairy woman. *Hoffman-Krayer Zs f. Vksk. XXV 120 n. 4; *Puckett MPh XVI 297; Clouston Tales I 212ff.; Malone PMLA XLIII 406; *Grimes The Lays of Desiré, Graeent and Melion (New York, 1928); *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIII 97ff.—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Hjálmathers saga ok ölvis 477, Boberg; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 56 No. 483; Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 44 Nos 42, 43; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 151; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 500.

F302.0.1. F302.0.1. Bonga mistress. India: Thompson-Balys.

F302.1. F302.1. Man goes to fairyland and marries fairy. Irish myth: *Cross; English: Wells 130ff. (Sir Launfal, Emare); Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F302.1.1. F302.1.1. Mortals supplied with fairy mistresses during visit to fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F302.1.2. F302.1.2. Mortal gives fairy ring after night spent with her in fairyland. Irish myth: Cross.

F302.2. F302.2. Man marries fairy and takes her to his home. Köhler Der Ursprung der Melusinensage (1895); *Fränkel Zs. f. Vksk. IV 387; *Fb "menneske" II 577b; see also all references for C31.1.2; Hartland Science 168; Malone PMLA XLIII 417; Irish myth: *Cross; England, Wales: Baughman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F302.2.1. F302.2.1. Fairy wife deserts mortal husband for repulsive lover. Malone PMLA XLIII 416ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F302.3. F302.3. Fairy woos mortal man. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F302.3.0.1. F302.3.0.1. Fairy visits mortal and becomes his mistress. Irish myth: *Cross.

- F302.3.0.2. F302.3.0.2. Raja refuses to marry a Peri. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F302.3.1. F302.3.1. Fairy entices man into fairyland. Hartland Science 41, 163, 184, 202; Irish myth: *Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F302.3.1.1. F302.3.1.1. Bonga girl (fairy) will return stolen goods only if mortal man will go with her. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F302.3.1.2. F302.3.1.2. Fairies stop ship to entice man to their land. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F302.3.1.3. F302.3.1.3. Man is carried to fairyland by fairy and marries her. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F302.3.1.4. F302.3.1.4. Fairy abducts whomever she falls in love with. (Cf. F320.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- F302.3.2. F302.3.2. Fairy offers gifts to man to be her paramour. Irish myth: *Cross; English: Child I 314, 375f., 384, III 504a, V 214; Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- F302.3.2.1. F302.3.2.1. Fairy offers aid to man if he will marry her. Irish myth: Cross.
- F302.3.2.2. F302.3.2.2. Fairy offers to disenchant mortal wife if man will marry her. (Cf. F302.5.2.) Irish myth: Cross.
- F302.3.3. F302.3.3. Fairy avenges self on man who scorns her love. English: Child I 376ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.
- F302.3.3.1. F302.3.3.1. Fairy avenges herself on inconstant lover (husband). *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b; Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXV (1933) 115ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; English: Child I 372—389.
- F302.3.4. F302.3.4. Fairies entice men and then harm them. Irish myth: *Cross; Japanese: Mitford 243; West Indies: Flowers 433.
- F302.3.4.1. F302.3.4.1. Fairy kisses man. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F302.3.4.1.1. F302.3.4.1.1. Fairy's kiss fatal. Fb "kys" II 349.
- F302.3.4.2. F302.3.4.2. Fairies dance with youth till he dies (or goes insane). *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b.
- F302.3.4.2.1. F302.3.4.2.1. Pixies win dancing contest with man. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F302.3.4.3. F302.3.4.3. Fairy woos and deserts man. Clouston Tales I 215ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.
- F302.3.4.4. F302.3.4.4. Fairy takes lover back to fairyland in magic sleep. *Krappe Romania LX (1934) 79ff.
- F302.3.4.5. F302.3.4.5. Fairies fall in love with prince and charm him into a deathlike sleep. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F302.4. F302.4. Man obtains power over fairy mistress. Irish myth: Cross.

F302.4.1. F302.4.1. Man shoots into wreath of mist and brings down fairy. She becomes his wife. Hartland Science 144.

F302.4.2. F302.4.2. Fairy comes into man's power when he steals her wings (clothes). She leaves when she finds them. Slavic: Máchal 258; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *404; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 55.

F302.4.2.1. F302.4.2.1. Fairy comes into man's power when he steals her clothes. She leaves when she finds them. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F302.4.3. F302.4.3. Hero fights with fairy person, takes his wife and keeps her (for a year). Irish myth: *Cross.

F302.4.4. F302.4.4. Man binds fairy and forces her to marry him. India: Thompson-Balys.

F302.5. F302.5. Fairy mistress and mortal wife.

F302.5.0.1. F302.5.0.1. Man deserts wife for fairy. India: Thompson-Balys.

F302.5.1. F302.5.1. Fairy mistress surrenders man to his mortal wife (Wildfrau). *Heltzel Philological Quarterly VIII (1930) 348; Irish myth: *Cross Icelandic: Hálfðanar saga Brönufystra (whole saga).

F302.5.1.1. F302.5.1.1. Bonga girl (fairy) surrenders man to his mortal wife if he will name first daughter after her. India: Thompson-Balys.

F302.5.2. F302.5.2. Fairy mistress transforms man's human wife. (Cf. F302.3.2.2.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F302.5.2.1. F302.5.2.1. Divine damsel converts mortal's first wife into a lovely woman; they all live together. India: Thompson-Balys.

F302.5.3. F302.5.3. Man loses luck when he leaves fairy wife for mortal. India: Thompson-Balys.

F302.5.4. F302.5.4. Fairy mistress demands that man send his mortal wife away. Irish myth: *Cross.

F302.5.5. F302.5.5. Fairy mistress tries to destroy mortal's wife (mother) by sending her a magic belt. Krappe Revue des études Grecques LII (1939) 569ff.

F302.6. F302.6. Fairy mistress leaves man when he breaks tabu. See all references to C31, C31.1.2, C31.2, C31.4.1, C31.4.2. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F302.6.1. F302.6.1. Celtic fairy mistress dominant. Irish myth: *Cross.

F302.6.2. F302.6.2. Recovery of fairy mistress.

F302.6.2.1. F302.6.2.1. Mortal beats drum as fairies dance before Indra; is granted fairy wife permanently. India: Thompson-Balys.

F302.6.2.2. F302.6.2.2. Fairy gives up her fairy nature and becomes mortal to be able to return to her mortal husband. India: Thompson-Balys.

- F302.7. F302.7. Fairy mistress prophesies mortal lover's fate in battle. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F302.8. F302.8. Fairy mistress demands mortal lover deny Christian teachings. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F302.9. F302.9. Fairy mistress rescues hero from battle. Irish myth: Cross.
- F302.10. F302.10. Man to have fairy wife for only seven years. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F302.11. F302.11. Prince married to a she-monkey (really queen of the fairies). India: Thompson-Balys.
- F303. F303. Wedding of mortal and fairy. Feilberg DF V 45ff.; Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 62ff., (1928) 54ff.; Liljeblad 188ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F303.1. F303.1. Purification in kettle of boiling oil as preparation for marriage to fairy. Tuti-Nameh 10th Night.
- F304. F304. Sexual relations with fairy.
- F304.1. F304.1. Fairy king punishes ravisher of his daughter. Malone PMLA XLIII 406; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F304.2. F304.2. Fairy queen's beauty temporarily destroyed by intercourse with mortal. English: Child I 327.
- F304.3. F304.3. Beautiful woman found in bed with man after he has plugged keyholes to keep elves out. Tobler 68; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *423.
- F304.4. F304.4. Mortal violates fairy woman. Irish myth: Cross.
- F304.4.1. F304.4.1. Fairy ravished by mortal strikes flesh from his ear. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F304.5. F304.5. Mortal chooses to sleep with fairy as boon for saving her life. Irish myth: Cross.
- F304.6. F304.6. Fée carried off by mortal. Irish myth: Cross.
- F305. F305. Offspring of fairy and mortal. Malone PMLA XLIII 433; *Krappe études 119ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F305.1. F305.1. Fairy relative makes gifts to half-mortal child. (Cf. F340.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- F305.1.1. F305.1.1. Fairy mother bestows magic powers upon half-mortal son. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F305.2. F305.2. Offspring of fairy and mortal extraordinarily beautiful. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F305.2.1. F305.2.1. Right half of son resembles mortal father; left half, fairy father. Irish myth: Cross.

F305.3. F305.3. Offspring of fairy and mortal has long hair and beard at birth. Irish myth: Cross.

F310. F310. Fairies and human children.

F311. F311. Fairies adopt human child. English: Wells 32 (Layamon's Brut).

F311.1. F311.1. Fairy godmother. Attendant good fairy. *Type 715; Irish myth: Cross; Slavic: Máchal 257f.

F311.1.1. F311.1.1. Fairy godmother helps girl escape. England: *Baughman.

F311.2. F311.2. Fairy foster-father. Guardian to mortal. Irish myth: *Cross.

F311.2.1. F311.2.1. Man killed on night when fairy guardian relaxes vigilance. Irish myth: Cross.

F311.3. F311.3. Fairy foster-mother. (Cf. P270.) Irish myth: Cross.

F311.3.1. F311.3.1. Water fairy as foster-mother. Africa: Weeks Jungle 407.

F312. F312. Fairy presides at child's birth. Sometimes the Norns, the Fates, etc. *Type 410; BP I 439; *W. B. McDaniel Conception, Birth and Infancy in Ancient Rome and Modern Italy (Coconut Grove, Florida, 1948).—Icelandic: Nornagests jóátr (Bugge ed. 1864) 76, Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 131, *Boberg; Japanese: Ikeda.

F312.1. F312.1. Fairies bestow supernatural gifts at birth of a child. Hartland Science 204; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

F312.1.1. F312.1.1. Fairies make good wishes for newborn child. (Cf. F316.) Italian: Basile Pentamerone II 8.

F312.2. F312.2. Fairies control destinies of a mortal. Saintyves Perrault 19.

F312.3. F312.3. Three fairies sent to queen about to give birth to child. India: Thompson-Balys.

F313. F313. Fairies comb children's hair. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b.

F315. F315. Fairy predicts birth of child. Irish myth: *Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "naissance".

F316. F316. Fairy lays curse on child. (Cf. F312.1.1.) *Type 410; Icelandic: Nornagests jóátr (Bugge ed. 1864) 76, Boberg.

F316.1. F316.1. Fairy's curse partially overcome by another fairy's amendment. *Type 410; Saintyves Perrault 61.

F316.2. F316.2. Fairy's curse partially overcome by her own amendment after being appeased. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F317. F317. Fairy predicts future greatness of newborn child. Irish myth: Cross.

F320. F320. Fairies carry people away to fairyland. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b, "døbe" I 227; Hartland Science 163ff.; Feilberg DF V 55ff.—Irish myth: *Cross; H. Hartmann

Ueber Krankheit, Tod und Jenseitsvorstellungen in Irland (Erster Teil: Krankheit und Fairyentrückung, Halle, 1942); India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

F321. F321. Fairy steals child from cradle. Hartland Science 98—106 passim; Irish myth: *Cross; Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 43 No. 35; India: Thompson-Balys.

F321.0.1. F321.0.1. Child sold to fairies. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "enfant".

F321.1. F321.1. Changeling. Fairy steals child from cradle and leaves fairy substitute. Changeling is usually mature and only seems to be a child. *BP I 368; G. Piaschewski Der Wechselbalg (Breslau, 1935); Hdwb. d. Abergl. IX Nachträge 835—864; E. Hartmann Die Trollvorstellungen in den Sagen und Märchen der skandinavischen Völker (Stuttgart, 1936) 76ff.; *Hartland Science 105—122, 134, 145; *Fb "skifting" III 252b.—Irish myth: Cross; England, Ireland, Wales: Baughman; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 7, 117, 143ff., 149, 155ff., 267, Campbell Tales II 57; Icelandic: *Boberg; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1893) 10ff., (1928) 11ff.; Norwegian: *Solheim Register 18; Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 43 No. 36; Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 58 No. 91; Slavic: Polívka Slavische Sagen vom Wechselbalg (Archiv f. Religionswissenschaft VI 151ff.), Máchal Slavic Myth. 260, 264; Armenian: Ananikian 78 (left by dragon); India: Penzer VIII 87 n. 1.

F321.1.1. F321.1.1. Changeling deceived into betraying his age. *Fb "skifting" III 252b; Rhys Celtic Folk Lore 62, 220, 223, 264, 268; Köhler-Bolte I 220; Zs. f. Vksk. XVI 414; Sikes British Goblins 2, 59f.

F321.1.1.1. F321.1.1.1. Changeling betrays his age when his wonder is excited. Usually pottage is boiled in an eggshell. The changeling: "I shall soon be a hundred years old but I never saw this done before!" *BP I 368; Hartland Science 113—116; E. H. Meyer Germanische Myth. 79; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 525.

F321.1.1.2. F321.1.1.2. Changeling plays on pipe and thus betrays his maturity. Hartland Science 111.—Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 155ff.

F321.1.1.2.1. F321.1.1.2.1. Changeling dances wild dance to music, betrays maturity. England: Baughman.

F321.1.1.3. F321.1.1.3. Changeling addresses woman in verse and thus betrays maturity. Hartland Science 125.

F321.1.1.4. F321.1.1.4. Changeling shows supernatural power to work and thus betrays maturity. Hartland Science 113; England, Scotland: Baughman.

F321.1.1.5. F321.1.1.5. Changeling calculates his age by the age of the forest. "I have seen the forest grow up three times." *BP I 369; Fb "gammel" IV 174a; Hartland Science 113ff.; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 314ff., (1928) 198ff.

F321.1.1.6. F321.1.1.6. Threat to throw on fire causes changeling to cry out and betray his nature. *BP I 369.

F321.1.1.7. F321.1.1.7. Whipping causes changeling to betray his nature. *BP I 369.

F321.1.2. F321.1.2. Characteristics of changeling.

F321.1.2.1. F321.1.2.1. Changeling has abnormal features or growth. Limbs grow too rapidly, head is too big, or he is slow to learn to walk, or the like. Hartland Science 108.

F321.1.2.2. F321.1.2.2. Changeling is always hungry, demands food all the time. England, Scotland, Wales: *Baughman.

F321.1.2.3. F321.1.2.3. Changeling is sickly (often the fairy exchanged for a baby is an elderly, infirm member of the fairy clan whom the fairies are tired of caring for). England: Baughman.

F321.1.3. F321.1.3. Exorcising a changeling. Hartland Science 122f.; Ireland: Baughman.

F321.1.4. F321.1.4. Disposing of a changeling. Hartland Science 105, 117ff.; Fb "skifting" III 252b, 253a.—Irish myth: Cross.

F321.1.4.1. F321.1.4.1. Changeling thrown into water and thus banished. Hartland Science 123f., 129.—England, Ireland: *Baughman; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 149.

F321.1.4.2. F321.1.4.2. Changeling thrown into ravine and thus banished. Scotch: Macdougall and Calder.

F321.1.4.3. F321.1.4.3. Changeling thrown on fire and thus banished. (Cf. F321.1.4.5.) Hartland Science 120f.; England, Scotland, Ireland: *Baughman.

F321.1.4.4. F321.1.4.4. Changeling left on hill (dunghill, barrow etc.) and thus banished. Hartland Science 118, 126f.

F321.1.4.5. F321.1.4.5. When changeling is threatened with burning, child is returned. (Cf. F321.1.4.3.) Scotland: *Baughman; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 116 No. 19; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3692.

F321.1.4.6. F321.1.4.6. Changeling beaten and left outside; the mortal child is returned. England: *Baughman.

F321.1.4.7. F321.1.4.7. Mortal mother pays no attention to changeling; the mortal child is returned. Scotland: *Baughman.

F321.1.4.8. F321.1.4.8. Mother treats changeling so well that her own child is returned. England: Baughman.

F321.1.4.9. F321.1.4.9. Changeling made to believe that his house is burning up; he leaves. England, Ireland: *Baughman.

F321.1.5. F321.1.5. Water fairy changeling kept out of water too long, dies. U.S.: Baughman.

F321.2. F321.2. Charms against theft of children by fairies. Fb "forbytte" I 337b; Irish myth: Cross; Wales, Scotland: *Baughman; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 40 No. 22; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 117 No. 22.

F321.3. F321.3. Man goes to fairyland and rescues stolen child. (Cf. F322.2.) Hartland Science 127.

F321.3.1. F321.3.1. Unbaptized child stolen by fairies found in barn and rescued. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *412.

F321.4. F321.4. Beggar returns to his mother child stolen by fairies. Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 40 No. 21.

F321.5. F321.5. Fairies appear in house and offer to dance with child. England: Baughman (F261.5).

F322. F322. Fairies steal man's wife and carry her to fairyland. *Krappe études 131 n. 2; Hartland Science 133; *Krappe Revue Celtique XLVIII 94ff.; *Cross and Hitze Lancelot and Guenevere 31ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Scotland: Macdougall and Calder 267, Baughman; England: Wells 128 (Sir Orfeo).

F322.0.1. F322.0.1. Woman carried off by water-fairy. Hartland Science 65; German: Erk-Böhme Deutsche Liederhort No. 2; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *4250.

F322.1. F322.1. Changeling bride. Fairies steal bride and leave a substitute. Hartland Science 130, 142; U.S.: Baughman.

F322.1.1. F322.1.1. Fairy borrows comb from Christian maid to comb hair of changeling bride. (Cf. F324.1.) *Fb "ellepige" I 242a.

F322.2. F322.2. Man rescues his wife from fairyland. (Cf. F321.3.) Hartland Science 133, 142; Irish myth: *Cross; English: Wells 128 (Sir Orfeo); Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.

F322.3. F322.3. Stolen mother returns from fairyland each Sunday to minister to her children. Hartland Science 133; Scotland: *Baughman.

F322.4. F322.4. Abducted bride hidden in fairyland. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F322.5. F322.5. Rescue from fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

F323. F323. Fairy women take body of dead hero to fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

F324. F324. Girl abducted by fairy. Irish myth: *Cross.

F324.1. F324.1. Girl borrows comb and mirror from bonga (fairy): carried to fairyland when she returns them. (Cf. F322.1.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F324.2. F324.2. Woman beset by elves (or phantoms) drowns self. Irish myth: Cross.

F324.3. F324.3. Youth abducted by fairy. Irish myth: Cross.

F325.1. F325.1. Fairies kidnap boy when he breaks tabu by going outside mansion under earth before 12 years. India: Thompson-Balys.

F326. F326. Fairy father carries off child of mortal mother. Irish myth: Cross.

F327. F327. Family carried away to fairyland as part of bargain. Irish myth: *Cross.

F328. F328. Fairies entice people into their domain. England, Scotland: *Baughman.

F329. F329. Other fairy abductions.

F329.1. F329.1. Fairies carry off youth; he has gift of prophecy when he returns to earth (Thomas the Rhymer). Scotland: Baughman.

F329.2. F329.2. Fairies abduct young woman, return her when fight starts over her. England: Baughman.

F329.3. F329.3. Fairies take persons up in air in chariots for a fortnight or a month. The lost are finally found in fields bereft of sense and with one of the members missing. Scotland: Baughman.

F329.4. F329.4. Fairies who stay with mortals. See also F321.1. Changeling.

F329.4.1. F329.4.1. Lost fairy child found by mortals. Mortals feed, warm it, keep it until one day it hears voice calling: "Coleman Grey!" It leaves with the remark "Ho! ho! ho! My Daddy's come!" England: *Baughman.

F329.4.2. F329.4.2. Fairy child found and cared for, but it pines away. England: Baughman.

F329.4.3. F329.4.3. Fairy captured by mortal escapes. England, Wales: *Baughman.

F330. F330. Grateful fairies. *Hdwb. d. Märch. s.v. "Geschenke des kleinen Volkes"; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "fées".

F331. F331. Mortal wins fairies' gratitude by joining in their sport. Ireland, England, Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman (F286.2.).

F331.1. F331.1. Mortal wins fairies' gratitude by joining in their dance. *Type 503; BP III 324ff.; England, Scotland, Wales: *Baughman (F379.5.); Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bossu"; Japanese: Mitford 191, Ikeda.

F331.2. F331.2. Mortal wins fairies' gratitude by letting them cut his hair and shave him. *Type 503.

F331.3. F331.3. Mortal wins fairies' gratitude by joining in their song and completing it by adding the names of the days of the week. *Type 503; *BP III 329; Japanese: Ikeda.

F331.4. F331.4. Mortal wins fairies' gratitude by playing for their dance. *Type 503; BP III 324ff.; *Fb "spille" III 488b; Hartland Science 180.

F332. F332. Fairy grateful for hospitality. England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales: *Baughman; Scotch: Campbell Tales II 51, Macdougall and Calder 215, 217.

F332.0.1. F332.0.1. Fairy grateful to mortal for daily food. Irish myth: Cross.

F333. F333. Fairy grateful to human midwife. (Cf. F372.1.) Hartland Science 55f.; Scotland, Ireland, Wales: *Baughman.

F334. F334. Fairy grateful to mortal for healing. Hartland Science 57; U.S.: Baughman.

F335. F335. Fairy grateful for loan. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b.

F335.1. F335.1. Fairy grateful for loan of meal causes the vessel to remain full thereafter. (Cf. D1652.1.) Canada, Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.

F336. F336. Fairies loyal to mortal who owns their knoll. Scotland: Baughman, Macdougall and Calder 193.

F337. F337. Fairy grateful to mortal for saving his life. (Cf. F304.5.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F337.1. F337.1. Fairy grateful to mortal for saving children's life. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F338. F338. Fairies grateful to man who repairs their utensils or implements. England, Ireland, U.S.: *Baughman.

F339. F339. Other grateful fairies.

F339.1. F339.1. Fairy grateful for rides on man's back, warns him his cow is choking. Ireland: Baughman.

F339.2. F339.2. Fairies care for tulip bed out of gratitude to owner for not plucking any of blossoms. England: *Baughman.

F339.3. F339.3. Fairy grateful for returning lost fairy child.

F339.3.1. F339.3.1. Fairies do all house and farm work for family who returns lost child. England: Baughman.

F339.3.2. F339.3.2. Fairies cause all ewes to have two lambs for owner who has returned fairy child. Wales: Baughman.

F340. F340. Gifts from fairies. Type 503; BP III 324; Hdwb. d. Märch. s.v. "Elbengeschenke", "Geschenke des kleinen Volkes"; Irish myth: *Cross; French: Saintyves Perrault 72ff.; Italian: Basile Pentamerone Introduction; India: Thompson-Balys.

F340.1. F340.1. Parting fairies leave gifts for newborn princess. India: Thompson-Balys.

F341. F341. Fairies give fulfillment of wishes. Hartland Science 55; Scotch: Campbell Tales II 51; English: Wells 32 (Layamon's Brut); Wales: Baughman; India: Thompson-Balys.

F341.1. F341.1. Fairies give three gifts. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "dons". Rotunda: Italian Novella.

F341.2. F341.2. Fairy ransoms self with wish. Irish myth: Cross.

F341.2.1. F341.2.1. Captured water fairy promises to make ugly man beautiful in return for her release. India: Thompson-Balys.

F342. F342. Fairies give mortal money. Hartland Science 39, 53, 56; Irish myth: Cross; English: Wells (Sir Launfal); Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bourse"; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3594.

F342.1. F342.1. Fairy gold. Fairies give coals (wood, earth) that turns to gold. *Type 503; BP I 366, III 324ff.; Hartland Science 57; Fb "kul" II 326b, "guld" I 512, "hövlspen" I 762, "jord" II 45b.—England: Baughman; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 308 No. 2; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 47 No. 388; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 434, Index No. *771, 3648; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F342.2. F342.2. Man borrows money from fairy (dwarf, devil). When the man brings the money back, he learns that the fairy was killed by thunder. He keeps the money. German, Swedish, Finnish-Swedish, Estonian, Livonian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Ukrainian, Kashubish, and Wendish: Balys Tautosakos Darbai VI 163—195.

F343. F343. Other presents from fairies.

F343.0.1. F343.0.1. Fairy offers mortal choice of magic objects. (Cf. D813.) Irish myth: Cross.

F343.1. F343.1. Fairies give woman silver spoons. Hartland Science 38.

F343.2. F343.2. Fairies give hunter a dog. Irish myth: *Cross; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 285ff.

F343.2.1. F343.2.1. Dogs as gifts from fairy. Irish myth: *Cross.

F343.3. F343.3. Fairy smith gives knight a magic sword. English: Wells 32 (Layamon's Brut); Scotch: Campbell Tales III 122.

F343.4. F343.4. Fairies give avaricious man gift of benevolence. Hartland Science 55.

F343.5. F343.5. Fairies give beautiful clothes. Irish myth: Cross; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 10.

F343.5.1. F343.5.1. Fairy gives magic cloak (and shirt). Irish myth: *Cross.

F343.6. F343.6. Bonga lends dishes to mortals. India: Thompson-Balys.

F343.7. F343.7. Fairy-wife furnishes provisions. India: Thompson-Balys.

F343.8. F343.8. Fairy leaves goats as purchase price for girl he has carried off. India: Thompson-Balys.

F343.9. F343.9. Fairy gives man horses, cattle, etc. Irish myth: *Cross; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F343.9.1. F343.9.1. Horses as fairy gifts. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F343.10. F343.10. Fairy gives warrior equipment for soldiers. Irish myth: *Cross.

F343.10.1. F343.10.1. Fairy gives person magic sword. Irish myth: *Cross.

F343.10.2. F343.10.2. Fairy gives person magic spear. Irish myth: *Cross.

F343.10.3. F343.10.3. Fairy gives person invulnerable shield. Irish myth: *Cross.

F343.11. F343.11. Fairy offers man change of form and feature for aid in battle. Irish myth: Cross.

F343.12. F343.12. Grateful fairy gives ring. Icelandic: Göngu-Hrylfs saga 277.

F343.13. F343.13. Fairy gives mortals a child. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

F343.14. F343.14. Golden cup (bowl, urn) as gifts from otherworld inhabitants. Irish myth: *Cross.

F343.15. F343.15. Magic apple as fairy gift. Irish myth: *Cross.

F343.16. F343.16. Gigantic ox rib as gift from fairies. Irish myth: *Cross.

F343.16.1. F343.16.1. Gigantic hog rib as gift from fairies. Irish myth: *Cross.

F343.17. F343.17. Fairies give haymakers dinner each year until one of men keeps a fairy knife. They give no more food even though the man returns the knife. (Cf. F353.)
England: Baughman.

F343.18. F343.18. Fairies return hatchet head lost in river. England: Baughman.

F343.19. F343.19. Fairies give mortals fairy bread.

F343.19.1. F343.19.1. Fairy bread must be eaten same day it is given or it turns to toadstools. Wales: Baughman.

F343.20. F343.20. Sack of coals as fairy gift. India: Thompson-Balys.

F344. F344. Fairies heal mortals. Irish myth: *Cross.

F344.1. F344.1. Fairies remove hunchback's hump (or replace it). *Type 503; BP III 324ff.; RTP I 129, 186, III 582, V 690, VIII 549, IX 285, X 124, XX 389, XXII 79, XXVII 490; Clouston Tales I 352; FL XIX 324ff.—Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 205ff.; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bossu"; cf. Japanese: Mitford 191ff., Ikeda.

F344.2. F344.2. Fairy physician can heal anyone whose spine is not severed. Irish myth: Cross.

F344.3. F344.3. Fairies give man white powder to cure mortals, replenish his supply whenever needed. England: Baughman.

F345. F345. Fairies instructs mortals. Irish myth: *Cross.

F345.1. F345.1. Fairies teach mortal to walk under water. Irish myth: *Cross.

F345.2. F345.2. Supernatural person (poet) reveals marital infidelity. Irish myth: *Cross.

F346. F346. Fairy helps mortal with labor. England, Scotland, Wales: *Baughman; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 187; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3695; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges; Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 4; Africa (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 181 No. 36.

F346.0.1. F346.0.1. Fairy serves mortal. Irish myth: Cross.

F346.1. F346.1. Fairies make shoes for shoemaker. German: Grimm No. 39; BP I 364.

F346.2. F346.2. Fairies build house for mortal. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 508, 510.

F347. F347. Fairy adviser. Irish myth: *Cross; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 199, 223; Icelandic: *Boberg; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 14f.

F347.1. F347.1. Bonga made village headman and advice asked. India: Thompson-Balys.

F348. F348. Tabus connected with fairy gifts.

F348.0.1. F348.0.1. Fairy gift disappears or is turned to something worthless when tabu is broken. German: Grimm No. 182; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *771.

F348.1. F348.1. Fairy gift not to be taken to earth. Hartland Science 50.

F348.2. F348.2. Cup given by fairy not to be broken. Bad luck will follow (Luck of Edenhall). Hartland Science 156f.; Gröning Am Urquell IV 101f., 208f.; Sprenger ibid. V 34, VI 41, *191 n. 1; Grimm Deutsche Sagen No. 547.

F348.3. F348.3. Fairy gift not to leave possession of mortal's family. Bad luck will follow. Hartland Science 56.

F348.4. F348.4. Gifts of gold and silver not to be accepted from fairies. Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 277.

F348.5. F348.5. Mortal not to recognize fairy who gives him gift. Hartland Science 57.

F348.5.1. F348.5.1. Mortal not to betray secret of fairies' gift. Wales, England: *Baughman.

F348.5.1.1. F348.5.1.1. Mortal not to tell secret of gift of inexhaustible meat. India: Thompson-Balys.

F348.5.2. F348.5.2. Mortal not to thank fairy for gifts. England: *Baughman (F451.5.10.9).

F348.6. F348.6. Gifts of the fairies must never be measured or counted. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3694.

F348.7. F348.7. Tabu: telling of fairy gifts; the gifts cease. England, Wales: *Baughman.

F348.7.1. F348.7.1. Abuse of fairy gifts brings about their loss. Wales: Baughman.

F348.8. F348.8. Tabu: mortal for whom fairy works must not watch him at work. England, Scotland, Wales: *Baughman.

F348.9. F348.9. Gift barrel of ale which never runs dry goes dry when maid looks into bunghole. England: Baughman.

F348.9.1. F348.9.1. Fairy gifts turn to paper when shown. (Cf. F342.1, F348.0.1.) Wales: Baughman.

F349. F349. Gifts from fairies—miscellaneous.

F349.1. F349.1. Fairy aids mortal in flight. Irish myth: *Cross.

F349.2. F349.2. Fairy aids mortal in battle. Irish myth: *Cross.

F349.3. F349.3. Fairies exile devastating host. Irish myth: Cross.

F349.4. F349.4. Fairy promises abundant crops, etc., to mortal. Irish myth: *Cross.

F350. F350. Theft from fairies.

F351. F351. Theft of money from fairies. Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F351.1. F351.1. Theft of money from fairies by joining unperceived in their game of money-throwing. Hartland Science 139; England: *Baughman.

F351.2. F351.2. Theft of money from fairies by frightening them away from it. Hartland Science 140.

F352. F352. Theft of cup (drinking horn) from fairies. Fb "guldhorn" I 513; Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 206ff., (1928) 144ff.; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 590, *Boberg; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 65 No. 559.

F352.1. F352.1. Theft of cup (drinking horn) from fairies when they offer mortal drink. Hartland Science 141—159 passim; Boberg Festskrift til Hammerich, 1952, 53—61. —England: *Baughman.

F352.2. F352.2. Theft of vessel from water-deity. India: Thompson-Balys.

F353. F353. Kettle borrowed from fairies and not returned. (Cf. F343.17.) Hartland Science 244; England: *Baughman; India: Thompson-Balys.

F354. F354. Fairy's ornament snatched. Irish myth: Cross.

F355. F355. King's crown stolen from fairyland. Irish myth: Cross.

F356. F356. Fairy cattle (bull, cow) stolen. Irish myth: *Cross.

F357. F357. Unsuccessful attempt to steal fairy necklace. Irish myth: *Cross.

F358. F358. Money borrowed from the fairies and not returned on time. England: *Baughman.

F359. F359. Theft from fairies—miscellaneous.

F359.1. F359.1. Eggs stolen from fairies. India: Thompson-Balys.

F359.2. F359.2. Theft of golden bird from fairies. India: Thompson-Balys.

F360. F360. Malevolent or destructive fairies (= pixies). Saintyves Perrault 83ff.; Irish: *Cross, O'Suilleabhain 62, Beal XXI 324; Icelandic: Boberg, Papua: Ker 73.

F360.0.1. F360.0.1. Malevolent or hostile beings in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.

F360.1. F360.1. Fairies pursue unbaptized children. *Fb "udøbt" III 959b.

F361. F361. Fairy's revenge. Irish myth: *Cross.

F361.1. F361.1. Fairy takes revenge for being slighted.

F361.1.1. F361.1.1. Fairy takes revenge for not being invited to feast. *Type 410; BP I 434ff.; Missouri French: Carrière.

F361.1.2. F361.1.2. Fairy takes revenge for not being offered food (drink). Irish myth: Cross.

F361.1.2.1. F361.1.2.1. Fairy takes revenge for mortal's failure to bring food and drink to fairy son's wedding. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F361.2. F361.2. Fairy takes revenge for theft. Hartland Science 141, 143; Jacobs's list s.v. "Red Cap"; Scotch: Campbell Tales II 52.

F361.2.1. F361.2.1. Fairy recovers stolen cup by posing as a beggar. Hartland Science 141.

F361.2.2. F361.2.2. Fairies cause man to lose his senses after he steals flower while visiting them. Wales: Baughman.

F361.2.3. F361.2.3. Fairies bind man fast to ground after he has attempted to capture fairy prince and princess. England: Baughman.

F361.2.4. F361.2.4. Fairy gifts stop when man steals fairy knife. England: Baughman.

F361.3. F361.3. Fairies take revenge on person who spies on them. Spy uses magic salve on one eye. Fairies tear out the eye. Hartland Science 66ff.; Jacob's list s.v. "Fairy salve".—Irish: Cross, E. Andrews Ulster Folklore (New York, 1919) 66f.; Welsh: Rhys Celtic Folklore I 63, 98f., 198, 213, 220—228, 241f., 292; English: FLJ II 154; Icelandic: Rittershaus 303; Färoe: Jiriczek Zs. f. Vksk. II 13 No. 14; Danish: Thiele DF II 202f.; German: Meyer Germanen 182; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3276f.; Legends Nos. 429, 431, 433, 438ff., 442, 444, 447; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 47 No. 388; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 308 No. 2; India: Thompson-Balys.

F361.3.1. F361.3.1. Fairies leave work unfinished when overseen. (Cf. F271.2.1, F271.5.) Irish myth: *Cross; England: Baughman.

F361.3.2. F361.3.2. Fairies chase person who watches them dance. England: Baughman (F261.4.)

F361.4. F361.4. Fairies take revenge on trespassers on ground they claim as theirs. *Fb "stald" III 534ab; Irish myth: *Cross; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 191; Scotland, Ireland, U.S.: Baughman.

F361.5. F361.5. Fairies punish girl who pours hot water into their spring. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 47 No. 392.

F361.6. F361.6. Fairies slay wooer (or his kin) of fairy maiden. Irish myth: Cross.

F361.7. F361.7. Fairies take revenge on mortals who hold their king captive. Irish myth: *Cross.

F361.8. F361.8. Fairy takes revenge for slaying of his relatives. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F361.9. F361.9. Fairies take revenge for being dishonored. Irish myth: Cross.

F361.10. F361.10. Fairies take revenge for being teased. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3693.

- F361.11. F361.11. Fairies threaten watcher of sheep. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3696.
- F361.12. F361.12. Fairies take revenge on mortals who destroy their homes. Irish myth: *Cross; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- F361.13. F361.13. Fairies take revenge for cheating. England: Baughman.
- F361.14. F361.14. Fairy punishes servant girl who fails to leave food for him. England, Wales: *Baughman.
- F361.15. F361.15. Fairies punish mortals who refuse to eat fairy food given them. England, Ireland: *Baughman.
- F361.16. F361.16. Fairies punish person who needs punishing because of his treatment of other mortals. (Cf. F311.1.) England, Scotland: *Baughman.
- F361.17. F361.17. Other punishments by fairies.
- F361.17.1. F361.17.1. Fairies lame miller who throws sod into his kiln where fairies are cooking oatmeal; the oatmeal scalds them. England: *Baughman.
- F361.17.2. F361.17.2. Fairies take revenge on smith who disturbs them in the smithy when he returns after dark to get medicine. Ireland: Baughman.
- F361.17.3. F361.17.3. Fairies pinch plowboy who breaks their wooden oven as he plows. England: Baughman.
- F361.17.4. F361.17.4. Fairy breaks leg of servant girl who tells lies about him. Scotland: Baughman.
- F361.17.5. F361.17.5. Fairies bathe children in churn when housewife forgets to leave a supply of clear water for the fairies. Ireland: Baughman.
- F361.17.6. F361.17.6. Fairy kills dog that refuses to let fairy sleep in stack. Scotland: Baughman.
- F361.17.7. F361.17.7. Fairy kills man who refuses his hospitality. Man refuses to visit fairy after being invited. (Cf. F361.15.) England: Baughman.
- F361.17.8. F361.17.8. Fairies chase man who dares them to come chase him. He barely gets home ahead of them; they drive iron javelin through iron-covered door. (Cf. C20.) England: *Baughman.
- F361.17.9. F361.17.9. Fairy mistress strikes her disobedient human lover on the face and predicts death. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F362. F362. Fairies cause disease. Kittredge Witchcraft 33, 147, cf. 218; Irish myth: *Cross; Norse: MacCulloch Eddic 225; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- F362.1. F362.1. Fairies cause blindness. Hartland Science 66ff.; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F362.2. F362.2. Fairies cause insanity. *Fb "ellepige" I 242a, "ellefolk" I 241b, "sær" III 723b; Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

- F362.3. F362.3. Fairies cause weakness. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F362.4. F362.4. Fairy causes mutilation (injury). Irish myth: *Cross.
- F363. F363. Fairies cause death. (Cf. F364.1.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- F363.1. F363.1. Fairies, directed by druid, bring about death of king by causing fish-bone to stick in his throat. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F363.2. F363.2. Brownie (Redcap, Redcomb, Bloody Cap) murders travelers, catches their blood in his cap. England: Baughman.
- F363.3. F363.3. Sight of fairies fatal. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F363.4. F363.4. Fairy's look burns mortal to ashes. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F363.5. F363.5. Fairy calls her victim only once or twice. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F363.6. F363.6. Fairies tickle mortals to death. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- F364. F364. War between fairies and mortals. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F364.1. F364.1. Fairy warriors sit upon mortals and thus kill them. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F364.2. F364.2. Fairies wrestle with mortals. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- F364.3. F364.3. War between fairies and giants. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F365. F365. Fairies steal. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b, "stjæle" III 576a; Irish myth: *Cross; England, Scotland, Ireland: *Baughman.
- F365.0.1. F365.0.1. Fairy steals on Hallowe'en. Irish myth: Cross.
- F365.1. F365.1. Fairies steal ass. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "âne".
- F365.2. F365.2. Fairies steal anchor. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "ancre".
- F365.3. F365.3. Fairies occupy peasant's house. *Fb "hus" I 687a.
- F365.4. F365.4. Fairy (bonga) steals part of crop. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F365.5. F365.5. Fairies steal pieces as mortal plays draughts with fairy woman. Irish myth: Cross.
- F365.6. F365.6. Fairies steal cattle (pig). Irish myth: *Cross.
- F365.7. F365.7. Fairies steal cooking. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F365.8. F365.8. Fairies steal wool. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F366. F366. Fairies abuse livestock.
- F366.1. F366.1. Fairies milk mortal's cows dry. *Kittredge Witchcraft 166, 484 n. 23; Fb "ko" II 240b; England: Baughman.
- F366.1.1. F366.1.1. Fairies milk mortal's mare. Hartland Science 130.

F366.1.2. F366.1.2. Fairies admit calves to cows, depriving children of milk. Irish myth: *Cross.

F366.1.3. F366.1.3. Fairies ride farmer's calves. England: *Baughman.

F366.2. F366.2. Fairies ride mortal's horses at night. *Kittredge Witchcraft 219f., 526ff. nn. 65—77; Fb "marelok" II 553; England, U.S.: *Baughman; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 127 No. 60; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 44 No. 60.

F366.2.1. F366.2.1. Fairies plait manes and tails of horses. Canada, England: *Baughman.

F366.2.2. F366.2.2. Fairy rides behind man on horse. Ireland: Baughman.

F366.3. F366.3. Fairies in form of devastating animals kill flocks. Irish myth: Cross.

F366.4. F366.4. Fairies control prosperity. Irish myth: Cross.

F366.5. F366.5. Fairy hangs on to carriage on road. (Cf. E272.1.) England: Baughman.

F367. F367. Destructive fairy drink. Upon returning to earth mortal pours out drink which had been offered by fairies. It burns up whatever it touches. Hartland Science 144.

F368. F368. Human beings as game in fairy hunt. India: Thompson-Balys.

F369. F369. Malevolent fairies—miscellaneous.

F369.1. F369.1. Fairies set fire to buildings. Irish myth: *Cross.

F369.2. F369.2. Fairies defile waters Irish myth: *Cross.

F369.3. F369.3. Fairy kills mortal's hound (horses). Irish myth: Cross.

F369.4. F369.4. Fairy tricks mortal. Irish myth: *Cross.

F369.4.1. F369.4.1. Fairy incites mortals to war. Irish myth: *Cross.

F369.5. F369.5. Fairies destroy crops. Irish myth: *Cross.

F369.5.1. F369.5.1. Fairies snip corn from stalks. Irish myth: *Cross.

F369.6. F369.6. Fairy prevents butter coming. (Cf. D2084.2.) U.S.: Baughman.

F369.7. F369.7. Fairies lead travelers astray. (Cf. E272.10, F401.3, F491.1.) Canada, England, Ireland, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

F369.8. F369.8. Elephants become lean from listening too much to fairy music; cannot graze. India: Thompson-Balys.

F370. F370. Visit to fairyland. BP II 329.—Irish myth: *Cross; Danish: Feilberg DF V 55ff.; Norwegian: Solheim Register 18f.; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F371. F371. Human being reared in fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross; Scotland: Baughman.

F372. F372. Fairies take human nurse to attend fairy child. Irish myth: *Cross; English: *Child I 358 No. 40; England, Scotland: Baughman; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s. v. "nourrice".

F372.1. F372.1. Fairies take human midwife to attend fairy woman. (Cf. F333.) *Hartland Science 37—92; *Fb "jordemoder"; *BP I 367; Wentz Fairy Faith in Celtic Countries (London, 1911) 49f., 54, 131, 140, 175, 182; Tobler 76.—English: Child I 358ff. No. 40, II 505f., III 505f., IV 459a, V 215b, 290b; Scottish: J. G. Campbell Superstitions 147; England, Scotland, Ireland, U.S.: Baughman; Icelandic: Göngu Hrylfs saga 275ff.; Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 44 No. 41; Danish: Feilberg DF V 69ff., Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 330ff., (1928) 210ff.; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s. v. "sage-femme", "fées"; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

F372.2. F372.2. Fairies seek human godparent. *BP I 366; Hartland Science 170.

F372.2.1. F372.2.1. Old man as godfather to underground folk. Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 43 No. 56; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 126 No. 56.

F373. F373. Mortal abandons world to live in fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

F374. F374. Longing in fairyland to visit home. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F375. F375. Mortals as captives in fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

F376. F376. Mortal as servant in fairyland. *Hdwb. d. Märch. I 396 s. v. "Dienst bei elbischen Wesen"; Irish myth: *Cross; Danish: Feilberg DF V 84ff.; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 440.

F376.1. F376.1. Tailor works in fairyland. Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 439, Balys Historical.

F377. F377. Supernatural lapse of time in fairyland. Years seem days. *Hartland Science 161—195; Jacobs's list s. v. "Time flies"; *Child I 321 n.; *Burnham PMLA XXIII 394 n. 2; Fb "glemme" IV 181a.—Irish myth: *Cross; England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales: Baughman; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 585; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Anesaki 265, Ikeda; Koryak: Jochelson JE VI 280; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 157, (Cumberland Sound): Boas BAM XV 185, (Smith Sound): Kroeber JAFI XII 177.

F377.1. F377.1. Supernatural lapse of time in paradise. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

F377.2. F377.2. Year seems few hours in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F378. F378. Tabus connected with trip to fairyland. (Cf. F348.5, F361.3.)

F378.0.1. F378.0.1. Mortal expelled from fairyland for breaking tabu. India: Thompson-Balys.

F378.1. F378.1. Tabu: touching ground on return from fairyland. Hartland Science 164f.; Irish myth: *Cross; England: Baughman.

F378.2. F378.2. Tabu: bathing or touching water in lake in fairyland. India: Thompson-Balys.

F378.3. F378.3. Mortal visiting in fairyland must keep his thought on the fairies. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F378.4. F378.4. Tabu: drinking from certain well in fairyland. Person does, finds himself alone on hillside. (Cf. C260.) Wales: *Baughman.

F378.5. F378.5. Tabu: plucking flowers from bed tended by fairies. England: *Baughman.

F378.6. F378.6. Tabu: using fairy bath water, soap, or ointment on oneself while bathing fairy child. (Cf. F235.4.) England: Baughman.

F379. F379. Fairy visits: miscellaneous.

F379.1. F379.1. Return from fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

F379.1.1. F379.1.1. No return from fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

F379.2. F379.2. Objects brought home from fairyland.

F379.2.1. F379.2.1. Book (medical) brought back from otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F379.2.2. F379.2.2. Tokens brought back by mortal returning from fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

F379.3. F379.3. Man lives with fairies seven years. Wales: Baughman.

F379.4. F379.4. Saint visits king of fairies on invitation of fairy king. Saint sprinkles holy water on fairy king, finds himself alone on hill. Wales: Baughman.

F380. F380. Defeating or ridding oneself of fairies. Irish myth: *Cross.

F381. F381. Getting rid of fairies.

F381.1. F381.1. Fairy leaves when he is named. BP I 366; cf. Type 500.

F381.2. F381.2. Fairies leaves when mortal strews peas in his path. BP I 365.

F381.2.1. F381.2.1. Escape from pursuing fairies by strewing path with bananas. Africa (Ashanti): Rattray 55.

F381.3. F381.3. Fairy leaves when he is given clothes. BP I 364; England, Scotland, U.S.: Baughman.

F381.4. F381.4. Fairy escaped by learning and using his secrets. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 56 No. 484.

F381.5. F381.5. Fairy lured away from house by treasure which he claims. India: Thompson-Balys.

F381.6. F381.6. Fairy leaves when druid utters spell that drowns her voice. Irish myth: *Cross.

F381.7. F381.7. Fairies leave when people do their needs where they live. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F381.8. F381.8. Spinning fairies lured away from the house by fire alarm. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3698.

F381.9. F381.9. Fairies will not approach when dogs are present. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F381.10. F381.10. Fairies leave when person watches them at work. (Cf. F348.10.)

F381.11. F381.11. Fairy leaves when given impossible tasks to do. Scotland: Baughman.

F381.12. F381.12. Fairies leave when ordered to fight each other. Scotland: Baughman.

F381.13. F381.13. Fairies leave when thanked for their work. (Cf. F451.5.10.9.)

F382. F382. Exorcising fairies. Fairies disappear when some name or ceremony of the Christian Church is used. Hartland Science 107, 127, 130, 138f., 166; Fb "Kristen" II 300, "døbe" I 227, "messevin" II 582, "troid" III 852a; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; England: Baughman; Scotch: Campbell Tales II 74; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 50 No. 416.

F382.1. F382.1. Fairies fear the cross. England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, U.S.: Baughman; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F382.2. F382.2. Holy water breaks fairy spell. (Cf. G303.16.7.) U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

F382.3. F382.3. Use of God's name nullifies fairies' power. (Cf. D1766.7, G303.16.8.) Wales: Baughman.

F382.4. F382.4. Opening Holy Bible in presence of fairies nullifies their spells. England: Baughman.

F382.5. F382.5. Chanting song of St. Nicholas drives fairy away. U.S.: Baughman.

F382.6. F382.6. Asking grace at fairy banquet causes fairies and banquet to disappear. (Cf. G271.2.3.) England, U.S.: *Baughman.

F383. F383. Fairy rendered powerless.

F383.1. F383.1. Fairy unable to pass cross-roads. Hartland Science 142.

F383.2. F383.2. Fairy unable to cross running stream. Hartland Science 144; England, U.S.: Baughman.

F383.3. F383.3. Fairy unable to cross plowed ground. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b.

F383.4. F383.4. Fairy must leave at cockcrow. Type 503; Hartland Science 145; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 229.

F383.4.1. F383.4.1. Fairy prince becomes mortal when surprised by daylight. India: Thompson-Balys.

F383.4.2. F383.4.2. Fairies leave at rise of morning star. Cook Islands: Beckwith Myth

F383.4.3. F383.4.3. Sunlight fatal to fairies. Maori: Clark 98.

F383.5. F383.5. Transformed fairy warriors disenchanted when attacked. Irish myth: *Cross.

F384. F384. Magic objects powerful against fairies. England: Baughman; Irish: Beal XXI 324.

F384.1. F384.1. Salt powerful against fairies.

F384.1.1. F384.1.1. Salt renders fairy mortal. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "sel".

F384.1.2. F384.1.2. Salt sprinkled on fairy food renders it harmless. Hartland Science 128; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 523f.

F384.2. F384.2. Steel powerful against fairies. Fb "stel" III 647a; Wales, U.S.: Baughman.

F384.3. F384.3. Iron powerful against fairies. Hartland Science 163f.; Penzer II 166; Irish myth: Cross, Baughman; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 59 No. 504; Japanese: Ikeda.

F384.4. F384.4. Wearing flowers on one's ears protects from fairies. India: Thompson-Balys.

F385. F385. Means of averting fairy spells.

F385.1. F385.1. Fairy spell averted by turning coat. This is supposed to reverse the spell. *Kittredge Witchcraft 215, 523 n. 21.

F386. F386. Fairy punished.

F386.1. F386.1. Fairy imprisoned in tree. (Cf. F386.5.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F386.1.1. F386.1.1. Fairy harper enclosed in yew-tree. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 73.

F386.2. F386.2. Fairy punished for marrying a mortal. India: Thompson-Balys.

F386.3. F386.3. Troublesome bonga (fairy) pegged to ground and placed under stone. India: Thompson-Balys.

F386.4. F386.4. Fairy transformed as punishment. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F386.5. F386.5. Fairy imprisoned as punishment. (Cf. F386.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F387. F387. Fairy captured. Irish myth: *Cross.

F388. F388. Fairies depart.

F388.1. F388.1. Fairies depart to heaven. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 333.

F388.2. F388.2. Fairies depart to floating island. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 330.

F389. F389. Fairies otherwise defeated.

- F389.1. F389.1. Fairies driven off with fire. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F389.2. F389.2. Abduction of Christianized fairy woman by fairies prevented by saint. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F389.3. F389.3. Fairy wounded by mortal. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F389.4. F389.4. Fairy killed by mortal. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F389.5. F389.5. Fairy defeated by druid's magic. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F390. F390. Fairies—miscellaneous motifs.
- F391. F391. Fairies borrow from mortals. *Fb "ellefolk" I 241b.
- F391.1. F391.1. Animals borrowed by fairies. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "animaux".
- F391.1.1. F391.1.1. Ox lent fairies must not be worked after sunset. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "boeuf".
- F391.2. F391.2. Fairies borrow food from mortals. Scotland, Canada, U.S.: *Baughman.
- F391.3. F391.3. Fairies borrow tools to make coffin. Ireland: Baughman.
- F392. F392. Fairy transforms self to fly, allows self to be swallowed by woman and reborn as fairy. Malone PMLA XLIII 417.
- F393. F393. Fairy visits among mortals. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F393.0.1. F393.0.1. Fairy dissatisfied with fairyland leaves to live among mortals. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F393.1. F393.1. Fairy minstrel lives among mortals to learn of their heroic deeds. (Cf. F262.3.) Irish myth: Cross.
- F393.2. F393.2. Fairy appears to mortal each Hallowe'en. Irish myth: Cross.
- F393.3. F393.3. Impoverished fairy seeks fortune among mortals. Irish myth: Cross.
- F393.4. F393.4. Otherworld woman appears to mortal in sleep. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F394. F394. Mortals help fairies.
- F394.1. F394.1. Mortal advises fairy. Irish myth: Cross.
- F394.1.1. F394.1.1. Druid directs fairies. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F394.2. F394.2. Mortals aid fairies in war. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F395. F395. Fairy has power to prevent mortal's approach. Irish myth: Cross.
- F396. F396. Mortals place selves under protection of fairies. Irish myth: Cross.
- F397. F397. Fairy woman exhibits her figure to warriors. Is most beautiful of women.

Irish myth: Cross.

F398. F398. Hair burned to summon fairies. India: Thompson-Balys.

F399. F399. Other fairy motifs.

F399.1. F399.1. Fairies bear dead warrior to fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

F399.2. F399.2. Fairies protect selves by means of smoke. Irish myth: Cross.

F399.3. F399.3. Fairies hate clerics. Irish myth: *Cross.

F399.4. F399.4. Playful or troublesome fairies. England: *Baughman.

F399.4.1. F399.4.1. Fairies sport with mortal. India: Thompson-Balys.

F400—F499.

F400—F499. Spirits and demons.

F400. F400. Spirits and demons (general). *Encyc. Rel. Ethics s.v. "Demons and Spirits"; Roscher s.v. "Daimon" I 938; Pauly-Wissowa s.v. "Daimon" IV 2010; Wehrhan Die Sage 59f.; *Runeberg Witches, Demons and Fertility Magic (Helsinki, 1947); *Hdwb. d. Abergl. s.v. "Dämonen".—Irish myth: *Cross; Dutch: *Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 52ff.; Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 37ff. Nos. 1—39; Slovenian: *L. Kretzenbacher Germanische Mythen in der epischen Volksdichtung der Slowenen (Graz, 1941); Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas I 316, IV passim, Neuman; Chinese: Werner 402; Africa (Yoruba): Ellis 244.

F400.1. F400.1. Geniti (geilti) glinne, bánánaig, bocánaig, and other supernatural beings associated with confusion or strife. Irish myth: *Cross.

F401. F401. Appearance of spirits.

F401.1. F401.1. Spirits dressed in antique clothes. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 309 No. 19. See Irving's Rip Van Winkle.

F401.2. F401.2. Luminous spirits. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 306 No. 13.

F401.3. F401.3. Spirit in animal form. West Indies: Flowers 433.

F401.3.0.1. F401.3.0.1. Demons on animal feet. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 307 No. 33.

F401.3.1. F401.3.1. Spirit in form of horse. Demon horse. *Howey 35ff.

F401.3.2. F401.3.2. Ox demon. Chinese: Werner 362.

F401.3.3. F401.3.3. Spirit as black dog. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 310 No. 25.

F401.3.3.1. F401.3.3.1. Waumpaus: monster with huge dog tracks. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 687.

F401.3.4. F401.3.4. Spirit as fly going into bottle. Fb "lille" II 428.

- F401.3.4.1. F401.3.4.1. Demon in form of wasp. Irish myth: Cross.
- F401.3.4.2. F401.3.4.2. Spirit in ant form. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 75.
- F401.3.5. F401.3.5. Spirits with goose (chicken) feet. Hdwb. d. Abergl. III 225.
- F401.3.6. F401.3.6. Demon in form of hare. Irish myth: Cross.
- F401.3.7. F401.3.7. Spirit in form of a bird.
- F401.3.7.1. F401.3.7.1. Demon in form of crow. Irish myth: Cross.
- F401.3.7.2. F401.3.7.2. Demons in form of black birds. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F401.3.8. F401.3.8. Spirits in form of snake. Mono-Alu: Wheeler 15, 54.
- F401.4. F401.4. Spirits without heads (or with heads under arms). *Grunwald Hessische Blätter f. Vksk. XXX—XXXI 317 (cf. F511.0.1., F531.2.1); Irish myth: *Cross.
- F401.4.1. F401.4.1. Spirit has half head. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F401.5. F401.5. Spirits appear horrible. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F401.5.1. F401.5.1. Spirit in form of horrible head. Irish myth: Cross.
- F401.6. F401.6. Spirit in human form. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F401.7. F401.7. Fire-breathing spirit. Irish myth: Cross.
- F401.8. F401.8. Gigantic spirit. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F401.9. F401.9. Spirit with feet turned wrong way. (Cf. F451.2.2.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- F402. F402. Evil spirits. Demons. See whole chapter "G" for witches and ogres. —Greek: Grote I 66.
- F402.1. F402.1. Deeds of evil spirits.
- F402.1.1. F402.1.1. Spirit leads person astray. *Kittredge Witchcraft 215, 523 nn. 19, 20.—Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 313 No. 83; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F402.1.2. F402.1.2. Spirit blocks person's road. Irish myth: *Cross, O'Suilleabhain 99, Beal XXI 331; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 298 No. 12.
- F402.1.3. F402.1.3. Spirits tangle up peasant's cows. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 323 No. 121.
- F402.1.4. F402.1.4. Demons assume human forms in order to deceive. Kittredge Witchcraft 223f., 530 nn. 98—101.—Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; Mono-Alu: Wheeler 4, 6f., 18f., 32, 39, 41f., 46, 49, 51f., 60f., 61, 188.
- F402.1.4.1. F402.1.4.1. Demon takes on form of God to deceive faithful. India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

F402.1.5. F402.1.5. Demon causes disease. Irish myth: *Cross.

F402.1.5.1. F402.1.5.1. Demons seek to carry off king's soul. Irish myth: *Cross.

F402.1.6. F402.1.6. Spirit causes weakness. Irish myth: *Cross.

F402.1.7. F402.1.7. Demon of gluttony devours man's food in his throat. Irish myth: Cross.

F402.1.8. F402.1.8. Spirits put corpse into river. Irish myth: Cross.

F402.1.9. F402.1.9. Spirit delivers false message. Irish myth: Cross.

F402.1.10. F402.1.10. Spirit pursues person. Irish myth: Cross.

F402.1.11. F402.1.11. Spirit causes death.

F402.1.11.1. F402.1.11.1. Spirit (devil) sent by druids cause death of Christian king. Irish myth: Cross.

F402.1.11.2. F402.1.11.2. Evil spirit kills and eats person. Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 88.

F402.1.11.3. F402.1.11.3. Evil spirit harpoons sleepers. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 68.

F402.1.11.4. F402.1.11.4. Evil spirit's kiss fatal. Korean: Zong in-Sob 18.

F402.1.12. F402.1.12. Spirit fights against person. Irish myth: *Cross.

F402.1.13. F402.1.13. Ship held back by otherworld women. Irish myth: Cross.

F402.1.14. F402.1.14. Spirit and horses. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

F402.1.15. F402.1.15. Demon suitors of girl. India: Thompson-Balys.

F402.1.15.1. F402.1.15.1. Demon seduces princess as she bathes at seashore. India: Thompson-Balys.

F402.2. F402.2. Government of demons.

F402.2.1. F402.2.1. King of demons (Asmodeus). Jewish: *Ginzberg Jewish Encyclopaedia s.v. "Asmodeus", bin Gorion Born Judas I 230, *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

F402.2.2. F402.2.2. Queen of demons. Jewish: Neuman, bin Gorion Born Judas II 177, 351.

F402.2.3. F402.2.3. Child of demon king marries mortal. Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas I 234ff., 243ff., 249, 376f.

F402.3. F402.3. City of demons. Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas I 229.

F402.4. F402.4. Demons eat ravenously. Irish myth: *Cross.

F402.5. F402.5. Creation of demons.

F402.5.1. F402.5.1. Demon formed from charmed apples. Irish myth: Cross.

F402.6. F402.6. Dwelling of demons.

F402.6.1. F402.6.1. Demon lives in tree. India: Thompson-Balys.

F402.6.1.1. F402.6.1.1. Demon lives at root of tree. Cook Island: Beckwith Myth 252.

F402.6.2. F402.6.2. Demons live in waste mound. India: Thompson-Balys.

F402.6.3. F402.6.3. Demons live in well. India: Thompson-Balys.

F402.6.4. F402.6.4. Demons live in white cliff with hole in it. (Cf. F460) India: Thompson-Balys.

F402.6.4.1. F402.6.4.1. Spirits live in caves. Mono-Alu: Wheeler 6f, 18f, 32, 34, 39, 41f., 46, 49, 51f, 60f, 188.

F402.7. F402.7. Family of demons. India: Thompson-Balys.

F403. F403. Good spirits. Greek: Grote I 66.

F403.1. F403.1. Spirits give money to mortal. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 319 No. 24.

F403.2. F403.2. Spirits help mortal. Familiar spirits. Feilberg Nissens Historie; *Polívka Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 226 n. 8, XXVIII 41 n. 2; Dickson 121 n. 64, 213 n. 143; Kittredge Witchcraft 613 s.v. "familiar".—Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 97, 267, (Labrador): Hawkes GSCan XIV 91; West Indies: Flowers 433.

F403.2.1. F403.2.1. Acquisition of familiar spirit.

F403.2.1.1. F403.2.1.1. Familiar spirit acquired by carrying egg under left arm-pit. *Polívka Zs. f. Vksk. XXVIII 41ff.

F403.2.2. F403.2.2. Form of familiar spirit.

F403.2.2.1. F403.2.2.1. Familiar spirit in animal form. *Kittredge Witchcraft 613 s.v. "familiar"; Tobler 37; Eskimo (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 61.

F403.2.2.2. F403.2.2.2. Angels as familiar spirits. Act as servants about the house of saints and serve them otherwise. Irish: Plummer clxxx, *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F403.2.2.3. F403.2.2.3. Familiar spirit equivalent to man's soul. Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 10f.

F403.2.2.4. F403.2.2.4. Spirit in bottle (bag) as helper. Norlind Skattsägner 47ff.

F403.2.2.5. F403.2.2.5. Demon as familiar spirit. Irish myth: *Cross.

F403.2.2.6. F403.2.2.6. Spirit as small black man. German: Grimm No. 116.

F403.2.3. F403.2.3. Deeds of familiar spirits.

F403.2.3.1. F403.2.3.1. Spirit in hornet form guards a treasure. Tobler 37.

F403.2.3.2. F403.2.3.2. Spirit gives warning. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 310 No. 22; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 225, Rink 120.

F403.2.3.3. F403.2.3.3. Spirits teach boy how to sing. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 310 No. 26.

F403.2.3.4. F403.2.3.4. Familiar spirit brings news with magic speed. Kittredge Witchcraft 216f., 524 n. 36.

F403.2.3.5. F403.2.3.5. Familiar spirit reveals infidelity of man's wife. Irish myth: Cross.

F403.2.3.6. F403.2.3.6. Spirit gives counsel. Irish myth: Cross.

F403.2.3.7. F403.2.3.7. Army of spirits and ghosts. India: Thompson-Balys.

F404. F404. Means of summoning spirits.

F404.1. F404.1. Spirit must speak as soon as addressed. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 323 No. 125.

F404.2. F404.2. Conjuring spirits. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 301 No. 22, 304 No. 24, 313 No. 98, 319 No. 31; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 78.

F405. F405. Means of combating spirits.

F405.1. F405.1. Priest bans spirit with sword. (Cf. D1081.) Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 309 No. 17.

F405.2. F405.2. Spirits driven off by knife-thrusts and pistol shots. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 313 No. 97.

F405.3. F405.3. Spirits deceived by drum-beats and hoodwinkings. Chinese: Werner 163.

F405.4. F405.4. Spirit (demon) baffled by scolding and getting last word. English: Child I 20—22, 485a, II 496b, 509a, III 496a, IV 440a.

F405.5. F405.5. Cat, dog, and mouse ward off evil spirit. Man takes these animals along with him as protection. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 297 No. 28.

F405.5.1. F405.5.1. Dogs protect house from spirits. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 61.

F405.6. F405.6. Grain scattered as a means of dispersing spirits. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 329 No. 50.

F405.7. F405.7. Spirit leaves when report is made of the death of one of his kind.

*Taylor Washington University Studies X (Humanistic Series) 23—60; Boberg Sagnet om den Store Pans Død (København, 1934).—Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 45 No. 374; Scandinavian: Hartmann Die Trollvorstellungen (Stuttgart, 1936) 73; Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 58 No. 101.

F405.7.1. F405.7.1. "Tell to mill-mouse that the field-mouse is dead." India: Thompson-Balys.

F405.8. F405.8. Spirits leave when report is made of fire at their home. Denied readmittance. *Taylor Washington University Studies X (Humanistic Series) 77—79 n. 181.

F405.9. F405.9. Spirit overcome by driving stake through body it inhabits. Irish myth: *Cross.

F405.10. F405.10. Demons flee stone (when saint steps upon it). Irish myth: *Cross

F405.11. F405.11. House spirit leaves when gift of clothing is left for it. (Cf. F348.11.) England: *Baughman.

F405.12. F405.12. Demons flee from fire. Chinese: Graham.

F405.13. F405.13. Man captures spirit by hiding his stick and leg-wrappers of copper. When spirit gets them back by trickery he disappears. India: Thompson-Balys.

F405.14. F405.14. Evil spirit laid after it is tormented by exorciser. India: Thompson-Balys.

F406. F406. Spirits propitiated.

F406.1. F406.1. Doors left open to let night creatures pass to and fro. *Zingerle Sagen aus Tirol 590.

F406.2. F406.2. Food left out for spirits at night. *Fb "offre" II 735a.

F406.3. F406.3. Spirits allow people with faces to ground to pass. Irish myth: Cross.

F406.4. F406.4. Demon of gluttony coaxed from man's throat with bits of food. Irish myth: Cross.

F407. F407. Departure of spirits.

F407.1. F407.1. Spirit vanishes in smoke. *Kittredge Witchcraft 215f., 524 n. 26.

F407.1.1. F407.1.1. Spirits ascend to heaven by building fire. New Hebrides: Codrington 379.

F407.2. F407.2. Spirit fades into air. Irish myth: Cross.

F408. F408. Habitation of spirit.

F408.1. F408.1. Demon occupies (speaks from) lance (sword). Irish myth: *Cross.

F408.2. F408.2. Spirit in heart of man (fairy). Irish myth: Cross.

F411. F411. How spirits travel.

F411.0.1. F411.0.1. Spirit travels with extraordinary speed. Irish myth: Cross.

F411.1. F411.1. Demon travels in whirlwind. *Taylor FFC LXX 24 n. 1; Estonian:

Loorits Grundzüge I 190—197.

F411.2. F411.2. Spirit floats in air. (Cf. F418.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F411.3. F411.3. Demon ship sails against the wind. Irish myth: Cross.

F412. F412. Visibility of spirits.

F412.1. F412.1. Invisible spirit speaks. Tobler 93.

F412.1.1. F412.1.1. Spirits visible to only one person. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 172.

F412.2. F412.2. Spirit made visible by standing on another's foot. Irish: Beal XXI 336; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 297 No. 1, 298 No. 7.

F413. F413. Origin of spirits. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F414. F414. Spirit carries people.

F414.1. F414.1. Lover transported to girl's apartments in fortress by spirit. India: Thompson-Balys.

F414.2. F414.2. Spirit transports miser to treasure-wood. India: Thompson-Balys.

F415. F415. Demon occupies oracular artificial head and gives responses to questions. Dickson 193 n. 75, 201 n. 95.

F416. F416. Spirits set fire to mill. Meet on Christmas (Easter) night. Cease to meet after mortal spies upon them. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 46 No. 379.

F416.1. F416.1. Spirits keep mill from working. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F417. F417. Spirits receive their share of everything made at certain specified times. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 46 No. 380.

F417.1. F417.1. Spirits borrow from mortals at weddings, return goods later. India: Thompson-Balys.

F418. F418. Spirits (demons) hover in air shrieking over battle. (Cf. F411.2.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F418.1. F418.1. Spirits answer war cry. Irish myth: *Cross.

F419. F419. Spirits and demons—miscellaneous.

F419.1. F419.1. Demons hold horse-race. Irish myth: Cross.

F419.2. F419.2. Thieving spirit. India: Thompson-Balys.

F419.3. F419.3. Special spirit for each species of animal to act as its protector. S.A. Indian (Cavica, Tumupasa): Métraux RBAE CXLIII (3) 448.

F420. F420. Water-spirits.1 *Wehrhan Die Sage 74; *Meyer 101f.; W. Gregor Guardian Spirits of Wells and Locks (FL III 67—73); Roberts 121; Irish myth: *Cross; Norse: MacCulloch Eddic 210; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1893) 142ff., (1928)

100ff., FochF XI 37; Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 45f. Nos. 55—65; Finnish: *Holmberg Finno-Ugric 191ff.; Finnish-Swedish: *Wessman 52ff.; Swedish: Hartmann 27; Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 52; Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 40ff. Nos. 23—32; Slavic: Máchal 270ff.; Jewish: Neuman; Persian: Carnoy 298; India: Thompson-Balys; S. A. Indian (Warrau): Kirchoff RBAE CXLIII (3) 880, (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 50. See also F200—F399 (fairies and elves), F451 (dwarfs) and F460 (mountain-spirits) for many common motifs.

SPECIAL BIBLIOGRAPHY FOR F420, F451 AND F531 AND SUBDIVISIONS

Baader, B., Volkssagen aus dem Lande Baden, Karlsruhe 1951.—Bechstein, L., Die Sagen des Kyffhäusers, 3d. ed., Frankenhausen a. Kyffh., C. Werneburg, 1926.—Bindewald, Th., Oberhessisches Sagenbuch, Frankfurt a. M. 1873.—Böklen, E. A., Sneewittchenstudien, Berlin 1910.—Brüger, K., Thüringer Sagen, Leipzig 1928.—Calliano, C., Niederösterreichischer Sagenschatz, 2v., Wien, 1924.—Diezel, K., Oberfränkische Sagen, Bayreuth 1924.—Dümke, O., Havelsagen, Leipzig 1924.—Ebermann, O., Donausagen, Leipzig 1927; Elbsagen, Leipzig 1921.—Eckart, R., Südhanoversches Sagenbuch, Leipzig 1921.—Ey, A., Harzmärchenbuch, oder Sagen und Märchen aus dem Oberharz, Stade 1862.—Findeisen, H., Sagen, Märchen und Schwänke von der Insel Hiddensee, Stettin 1925.—Förstner, Clara, Kyffhäusersagen, 2ed ed. 1926.—Förstner, Clara, Aus Sagen u. Märchenwelt des Harzes, Quedlinburg 1922.—Frey, A., Schweizersagen, Leipzig 1921.—Gloning, K. A., Oberösterreichische Volkssagen, 2d ed., Linz 1912.—Gradl, H., Sagenbuch des Egergaues, Eger 1913.—Grässe, J. G., Th., Sagenbuch des Preussischen Staats, 2v., Glogau 1866—71.—Grimm, Brüder, Deutsche Sagen, 4th ed., Berlin 1903.—Haas, A., Greifswalder Sagen, Greifswald 1925; Haas, A., Sagen des Kreises Grimmen, Greifswald 1925; Haas, H., Pommersche Sagen, Berlin 1912.—Handrick, E., Müllersagen, Leipzig 1928.—Heese, Anhaltisches Sagen und Geschichtenbuch, Dessau 1925.—Henne-Am Rhyn, O., Die deutsche Volkssage, Leipzig 1874.—Henninger, K., Niederdeutsche Volkssagen, Hannover 1927.—Hessler, C., Hessischer Sagenkranz, Cassel 1928.—Hohaus, W., Die Sagen der Grafschaft Glatz, Habelschwert 1926.—Huber, H., and Zaural, J., Volkssagen aus dem Bezirk Kornenburg, Gratz 1926.—Jahn, U., Volkssagen aus Pommern und Rügen, 2d ed., Berlin 1890.—Janosh, H., Unsere Hultschiner Heimat, Ratibor 1924.—Kahlo, G., Niedersächsische Sagen, Leipzig 1923, Sagen des Harzes, Leipzig 1923.—Kapff, R., Schwäbische Sagen, Jena 1926.—Karstens, H., Meer, Marsch und Heide, Leipzig 1926.—Karstens-Goslar, H., Vom Harz zur Heide, Leipzig 1926.—Kern, J., Die Sagen des Leitmeritzer Gaues, Reichenberg 1922.—Knoop, O., Sagen u. Erzählungen aus der Provinz Posen, Posen 1893.—Kratzner, A. and Popelka, F., Sagen aus der Lausitz, Leipzig 1928.—Kuhn, A., Sagen, Gebräuche und Märchen aus Westfalen, Leipzig 1859.—Kuhn, A. und Schwartz, W., Norddeutsche Sagen, Märchen und Gebräuche, Leipzig 1848.—Kühnau, R., Schlesische Sagen, 3v., Leipzig 1910—13.—Kühne, H., Ortssagen und geographische Bilder, Leipzig 1884.—Künzig, J., Badische Sagen, Leipzig 1925; Schwarzwald Sagen, Jena 1930.—Kurs, A., Des Rheinlandes Sagen und Legenden, Leipzig 1881.—Lohre, H., Märkische Sagen, Leipzig 1921.—Mackensen, L., Hanseatische Sagen, Leipzig 1928; Niedersächsische Sagen, Leipzig 1925.—Meier, E., Deutsche Sagen, Sitten und Gebräuche aus Schwaben, 2v., Stuttgart 1852.—Müllenhoff, K., Sagen, Märchen und Lieder der Herzogthümer Schleswig-Holstein u. Lauenburg, Kiel, 1845.—Nies, R., Nassauische Sagen, Leipzig 1927.—Paul, R., Sagen und Geschichten des Kreises Beeskow-Storkow, Beeskow 1925.—v. Pfister, H., Sagen und Aberglaube aus Hessen u. Nassau, Marburg 1885.—Plöckinger, H., Sagen der Wachau, Krems 1916—Pröhle, H.C.F., Deutsche Sagen, 2d ed., Berlin 1879; Harzsagen, Leipzig 1886; Unterharzische Sagen, Aschersleben 1856.—Realis, Ranke und Schwänke der heimatischen Vorzeit, Wien 1846.—Richter, J. W. O., Deutscher

Sagenschatz: eine Auswahl der schönsten deutschen Sagen, 3v., Glogau 1899—1901.—Rosenow, K., Sagen des Kreises Schlawe, Rügenwald 1924.—Schambach, G., and Müller, W., Niedersächsische Sagen und Märchen, Göttingen 1855.—Schnetzler, F.A.A., Aurelias Zauberkreis, Karlsruhe 1809—1853.—Schöppner, A., Sagenbuch der bayerischen Lande, 3 v., München 1874.—Schultz-Gallara, S. von., Sagen der Stadt Halle, Halle 1922.—Sieber, Fr., Harzland Sagen, Jena 1928.—Siebert, R. and H., Anhalter Sagenbuch, Bernberg 1924.—Sommert, H., Tillenwunder: Ein Sagenkranz aus dem Egerlande, 2d ed., Eger 1924.—Stöber, A., Die Sagen des Elsasses, 3d ed., Strassburg 1892.—Vernaleken, Th., Mythen und Bräuche des Volkes in österreich, Wien 1859.—Weichelt, H., Hannoverische Geschichten und Sagen, 4v., Norden 1895.—Wiener, O., Römische Sagen, Wien 1919.—Winckler, G., Sagenkranz des Kyffhäusers, Querfurt 1927.—Zaunert, P., Westfälische Sagen, Jena 1927; Hessen-Nassauische Sagen, Jena 1929.—Zinck, Paul, Leipzigs Sagen, Leipzig 1924.

F420.1. F420.1. Form and appearance of water-spirits. See F420.5.2.7. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 280—81.

F420.1.1. F420.1.1. Water-spirit as man. Takelau (New Zealand): Beckwith Myth 150.

F420.1.1.1. F420.1.1.1. Water-spirit appears as handsome man. German: Ebermann Elbsagen 93 (No. 55); French: Sébillot France II 409; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 57 No. 487.

F420.1.1.2. F420.1.1.2. Water-spirit appears as black man. German: Knoop 89 (No. 145), Sommert 108.

F420.1.1.3. F420.1.1.3. Water-spirit as small gray man. Has green eyes and gray hair. Tobler 99.

F420.1.1.4. F420.1.1.4. Water-spirit as man clothed in white and accompanied by a dozen attendants. Chinese: Werner 182.

F420.1.1.5. F420.1.1.5. Water-spirits have one eye. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F420.1.2. F420.1.2. Water-spirit as woman (water-nymph, water-nix). (Cf. F423.1.) *Type 316; *BP III 322; *Fb "nøkke" II 725ab.—England, Ireland, Wales: Baughman, Ireland: Beal VII 11; Norse: MacCulloch Eddic 261; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 55 Nos. 468—469; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 44 No. 58; Germanic: Meyer Germanen 199ff., 202ff., De la Saussaye 323; Slavic: Máchal 254f., 271f.; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 126 No. 58; Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 42 No. 30; Armenian: Ananikian 84; Japanese: Ikeda.

F420.1.2.1. F420.1.2.1. Water-maidens are of unusual beauty. German: Ebermann Elbsagen 115 (No. 66), Meier I 67 (No. 1); French: Sébillot France II 196, 345; Icelandic: Boberg.

F420.1.2.2. F420.1.2.2. Water-maidens mute. *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXV 107ff.

F420.1.3. F420.1.3. Water-spirits in animal form. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 53 No. 445; Icelandic: Boberg.

F420.1.3.1. F420.1.3.1. Water-spirit as toad. German: Künzig Schwarzwald. 170, Kühnau 38 (No. 55).

F420.1.3.2. F420.1.3.2. Water-spirit as fish. Tobler 97; Icelandic: Boberg, German: Henne-Am Rhyn 113 (No. 216), Ebermann Elbsagen 74 (No. 39); French: Sébillot France II 196.

F420.1.3.2.1. F420.1.3.2.1. Water-spirit as one-eyed fish. (Cf. F420.1.1.5.) Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 53.

F420.1.3.3. F420.1.3.3. Water-spirit as horse. England, Scotland, Ireland: Baughman; Icelandic: Boberg; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn (1893) 163ff., (1928) 112ff.; Norwegian: Solheim Register 17; Swedish: Hartmann 27; German: Künzig Badische 31 (No. 87), Karstens Sagen 79.

F420.1.3.4. F420.1.3.4. Water-spirit as bull. England: Baughman; German: Weichert II 176 (No. 166), Pfeil 292; Icelandic: Boberg.

F420.1.3.5. F420.1.3.5. Water-spirit as stork. German: Lohre 48 (No. 81).

F420.1.3.6. F420.1.3.6. Water-spirit as cat. Tobler 97.

F420.1.3.7. F420.1.3.7. Water-spirit as goat. Tobler 97; French: Sébillot France II 347ff.

F420.1.3.8. F420.1.3.8. Water-spirit as mouse. Tobler 97.

F420.1.3.9. F420.1.3.9. Water-spirit as snake. Tobler 97; India: Thompson-Balys.

F420.1.3.10. F420.1.3.10. Water-spirit as frog. Tobler 97.

F420.1.3.11. F420.1.3.11. Water-spirit as ape-like creature. Tobler 97.

F420.1.3.12. F420.1.3.12. Water-spirit as otter. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F420.1.4. F420.1.4. Water-spirits in abnormal form.

F420.1.4.1. F420.1.4.1. Body of water-spirit is half human and half fish or snake. Icelandic: *Boberg; German: Künzig Schwarzwald 168, Henninger 72.

F420.1.4.2. F420.1.4.2. Water-spirits have body covered with fish scales. German: Mackensen Niedersächs 56 (No. 74), Ebermann Donausagen 113 (No. 70).

F420.1.4.3. F420.1.4.3. Water-spirits as dwarfs. (Cf. F451.) Austrian: Calliano I 141; German: Henninger 74; French: Sébillot France II 202, 347, 417.

F420.1.4.4. F420.1.4.4. Water-spirits have hunchback. (Cf. F451.2.1.4.) German: Plöckinger 87, Ebermann Donausagen 139 (No. 85); French: Sébillot France II 202.

F420.1.4.5. F420.1.4.5. Water-spirits with human body and webbed feet and hands. Tobler 98; German: Henne-Am Rhyn 113, Pröhle Deutsche Sagen 153 (No. 119); French: Sébillot France II 403.

F420.1.4.6. F420.1.4.6. Water-spirits with horse feet. German: Handrick 21, Janosch 6.

F420.1.4.7. F420.1.4.7. Water-spirits with green hair and beard. England, Wales: Baughman; German: Bindewald 95, Siess 1.

F420.1.4.8. F420.1.4.8. Water-spirits with green teeth. England: Baughman; German: Schöppner I 219—223, Schultze-Gallara 23; French: Sébillot France II 343 (green eyes).

F420.1.4.9. F420.1.4.9. Water-giants. Icelandic: Boberg.

F420.1.4.10. F420.1.4.10. Water-spirit with extraordinarily long hair. India: Thompson-Balys.

F420.1.5. F420.1.5. Water-spirits invisible.

F420.1.5.1. F420.1.5.1. Invisible water-spirit claps hands and speaks. Tobler 99.

F420.1.5.2. F420.1.5.2. Mysterious voice—water-spirit—is calling from sea. German: Mackensen Hanseat. 22 (No. 32), Schultze 160; French: Sébillot France II 213, 344.

F420.1.5.3. F420.1.5.3. The seas become heavy without natural cause. (Cf. F420.2.4.) German: Meier 73 (No. 78).

F420.1.6. F420.1.6. Dress of water-spirits.

F420.1.6.1. F420.1.6.1. Water-spirits are dressed like people of surroundings. German: Schultze 69, Künzig Schwarzwald 167; French: Sébillot France II 342.

F420.1.6.2. F420.1.6.2. Water-spirits are clad in clothes of gold and silver. German: Gradl 33 No. 69, Schnetzler 266 No. 6.

F420.1.6.3. F420.1.6.3. Water-spirits wear precious adornment. Norse: MacCulloch Eddic 261; German: Förstner Märchenwelt 111, Schnetzler 266 No. 6.

F420.1.6.4. F420.1.6.4. Water-spirits wear wreath of flowers and reed on hair and dress. German: Plöckinger 7, Huber and Zaurel 19.

F420.1.6.5. F420.1.6.5. Water-maidens have long veil. German: Richter III 236 No. 32, Schnetzler 292.

F420.1.6.6. F420.1.6.6. Color of water-spirit's clothes.

F420.1.6.6.1. F420.1.6.6.1. Water-spirits are clad in red. German: Dümke 51, Lohre 43 No. 73.

F420.1.6.6.2. F420.1.6.6.2. Water-spirits are clad in gray. (Cf. F236.1.4, F451.2.7.3.) German: Schnetzler 277 No. 10, Ebermann Donausagen 139 No. 85.

F420.1.6.6.3. F420.1.6.6.3. Water-spirits are dressed in green. (Cf. F451.2.7.2.) Scotland: Baughman; Germanic: Calliano 162, Handrick 30; French: Sébillot France II 346.

F420.1.6.6.4. F420.1.6.6.4. Water-spirits are dressed in white. England: Baughman; Germanic: Kühne 164, Meier 67 No. 1; French: Sébillot France II 199—200.

F420.1.6.6.5. F420.1.6.6.5. Water-spirits are dressed in blue. Icelandic: Lagerholm 166, Boberg.

F420.1.6.7. F420.1.6.7. Water-spirits are nude. (Cf. F238.) German: Meier I 74 No. 81, Kern 85 No. 11; Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 53; French: Sébillot France II 197.

F420.1.7. F420.1.7. Water-spirits appearing like human beings are recognized by traces of water.

F420.1.7.1. F420.1.7.1. Corner of water-spirits' dress is always wet. German: Zinck 12, Kahlo Niedersächsische 63 No. 107.

F420.1.7.2. F420.1.7.2. Coat pockets of water-spirits are dripping with water. Wiener 118; Handrick 30.

F420.1.7.3. F420.1.7.3. Water-spirits leave trace of water when standing or walking. German: Kühnau 39 No. 56, Henne-Am Rhyn 113.

F420.2. F420.2. Home of water-spirits. (Cf. F420.7.1.)

F420.2.1. F420.2.1. Water-spirits live in castles of crystal under water. (Cf. F451.4.3.4.) Livonian: Looirts FFC LXVI 40 No. 23; Czech: Wiener 114, Gradl 33 No. 69; French: Sébillot France II 196, 200, 343.

F420.2.1.1. F420.2.1.1. Water-spirits' under-water castle is luxuriously furnished. Austrian: Mailly Niederöst. 33 No. 69, 48 No. 102; Czech: Wiener 114; German: Henne-Am Rhyn 114, Wiechert 73 No. 129.

F420.2.2. F420.2.2. Water-spirits live in village under water. Icelandic: Lagerholm 167—68, Boberg; Swiss: Frey 5.

F420.2.3. F420.2.3. Water-spirits have garden. German: Henne-Am Rhyn 117.

F420.2.4. F420.2.4. When water-spirits are outside their homes the seas are heavy. (Cf. F420.1.5.3.) *Fb "havfolk" I 569.

F420.2.5. F420.2.5. Water-spirits have hearth made of three human skulls. India: Thompson-Balys.

F420.3. F420.3. Social life among water-spirits.

F420.3.1. F420.3.1. Water-spirits have family life under water. German: Schnetzler 289; French: Sébillot France II 346.

F420.3.2. F420.3.2. Water-spirits have likings and occupations like human beings.

F420.3.2.1. F420.3.2.1. Water-spirits dance. India: Thompson-Balys.

F420.3.2.1.1. F420.3.2.1.1. Water-maidens dance at village fair. German: Janosch 9, Schöppner I 277 No. 235.

F420.3.2.2. F420.3.2.2. Water-women come to market and store. German: Zinck 12, Kahlo Nieders. 63 No. 107; French: Sébillot France II 344.

F420.3.2.3. F420.3.2.3. Water-women wash and hang up laundry on beach. German: Pröhle Deutsche Sagen 220 No. 173; French: Sébillot France II 200, 351f.

F420.3.2.4. F420.3.2.4. Water-spirits bake. German: Meier I 75 No. 82.

F420.3.2.5. F420.3.2.5. Water-spirits mend clothes. German: Bindewald 95, Kern 85 No. 11.

F420.3.2.6. F420.3.2.6. Water-maidens spin. German: Baader 100 No. 133, Lohre 50 No. 85.

F420.3.2.7. F420.3.2.7. Water-man cuts osier to make wicker basket. German: Kern 85 No. 11; Austrian: Calliano 107.

F420.3.3. F420.3.3. Water-spirits have kingdom under water: queen, king, attendants, vassals. German: Schnetzler 277 No. 10; Czech: Gradl 22 No. 69; Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 40 No. 23.

F420.3.4. F420.3.4. Water-spirits have laws.

F420.3.4.1. F420.3.4.1. Water-spirits must be in water before midnight; delay is punished with death indicated by blood in water. German: Pfister 70, Meier 71 No. 79.

F420.3.4.2. F420.3.4.2. Water-spirits must be in water before dawn; delay is punished with death. (Cf. F451.3.2.1. and cross-references there given.) German: Schöppner I 221, 227; French: Sébillot France II 340.

F420.3.5. F420.3.5. Water-spirits visited by mortal. Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 46 No. 56.

F420.4. F420.4. Characteristics of water-spirits.

F420.4.1. F420.4.1. Water-spirits possess magic power. German: Weichert II 199 No. 182, Künzig Schwarzwald 168; French: Sébillot France II 197, 347, 410.

F420.4.1.1. F420.4.1.1. Protean transformation of water-spirit. Greek: Fox 87, 122 (Nereus, Thetis), Frazer Apollodorus II 67 n. 6; Slavic: Máchal 270.

F420.4.2. F420.4.2. Water-spirits have supernatural lapse of time: days seem like years. (Cf. F377.)

F420.4.3. F420.4.3. Water-spirits are cannibals: devour mortal victim, suck blood. German: Meier I 70 No. 6, Lohre 51 No. 87.

F420.4.4. F420.4.4. Water-spirits are grateful. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1893) 143ff., (1928) 101ff.; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 58 Nos. 495—500; German: Pfister 50; Austrian: Calliano I 141.

F420.4.5. F420.4.5. Water-spirits are jealous. Paul 14.

F420.4.6. F420.4.6. Water-man is rendered powerless if kept away from water. German: Kratzer 90 No. 34; French: Sébillot France II 352.

F420.4.6.1. F420.4.6.1. Water-women are powerless when their garments are taken. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 261.

F420.4.7. F420.4.7. Seeing and observing of water-spirits has fatal consequences. German: Knoop 150 No. 114, Pröhle Deutsche Sagen 150 No. 114; French: Sébillot France II 198, 345.

F420.4.8. F420.4.8. Water-spirits have treasures under water. German: Künzig Badische 48 No. 137, Stöber 87 No. 118; French: Sébillot France II 312, 410.

F420.4.9. F420.4.9. Water-spirit controls water-supply. India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Shangang): Bourhill and Drake 78ff. No. 8.

F420.4.10. F420.4.10. Water-spirits are prophetic. (Cf. F420.5.1.1.) Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 53 No. 31.

F420.5. F420.5. Deeds and actions of water-spirits.

F420.5.1. F420.5.1. Kind water-spirits.

F420.5.1.1. F420.5.1.1. Water-spirits protect and warn sailor against storm and in tempest. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 58 Nos. 495—500; Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 46 No. 58; Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 41 No. 29; Austrian: Gloning 37, Ebermann Donausagen 143 No. 88.

F420.5.1.1.1. F420.5.1.1.1. Water-spirits save shipwrecked people. Icelandic: Lagerholm 167—68, Boberg.

F420.5.1.2. F420.5.1.2. Water-spirits help poor. German: Schnetzler 273 No. 9, Haas Grimmen 36 No. 75.

F420.5.1.3. F420.5.1.3. Water-spirits help lovers. Gradl 22 No. 46, Richter III 152 No. 5.

F420.5.1.4. F420.5.1.4. Water-spirits work as servants for mortal for small compensation. German: Haas Grimmen 36 No. 75, Pröhle Deutsche Sagen 7 No. 9; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 55 No. 475.

F420.5.1.5. F420.5.1.5. Water-spirits work as servants for mortal but disappear when compensation is offered or origin suspected. *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 44; German: Pröhle Deutsche Sagen 220 No. 173, Meier I 68 No. 5; Czech: Wiener 45.

F420.5.1.6. F420.5.1.6. Water-spirits work at night in home of mortals. German: Schnetzler 294, Meier I 71 No. 79.

F420.5.1.7. F420.5.1.7. Water-spirits give gifts to mortals. (Cf. F342, F451.5.1.5.)

F420.5.1.7.1. F420.5.1.7.1. Water-spirits give money, gold, or precious stones. (Cf. F451.5.1.5.) German: Plöckinger 8, Kern 87 No. 11.

F420.5.1.7.2. F420.5.1.7.2. Seemingly worthless gifts of water-spirits turn to gold. (Cf. F451.5.1.4. and cross references there given.) German: Henne-Am Rhyn 119, Meier I 71, 79.

F420.5.1.7.3. F420.5.1.7.3. Water-spirits give magic gifts. Austrian: Calliano 236, Huber and Zaural 106.

F420.5.1.7.4. F420.5.1.7.4. Water-spirit returns to the woodchopper a silver axe in place of the one he has lost. Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 46 No. 65; Japanese: Ikeda.

F420.5.1.7.5. F420.5.1.7.5. Water-spirit gives mortal fish. India: Thompson-Balys.

F420.5.1.8. F420.5.1.8. Water-spirits give advice. Austrian: Calliano I 68.

F420.5.1.9. F420.5.1.9. Water-spirits adopt human foundling. German: Schnetzler 264

No. 5.

F420.5.1.10. F420.5.1.10. Water-spirits save man from drowning. Icelandic: Þiðriks saga II 395, Lagerholm 166, Boberg.

F420.5.2. F420.5.2. Malevolent water-spirits. Icelandic: Grettis Saga ch. 65—66 in RSB VI (1897), Boberg.

F420.5.2.1. F420.5.2.1. Water-spirits lure mortal into water. Irish myth: *Cross Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn (1893) 163ff., (1928) 112ff.

F420.5.2.1.1. F420.5.2.1.1. Water-maiden enamors man and draws him under water. (Cf. F302.3.4, G264.) U.S.: Baughman; German: *Wehrhan 74, Nies 118 No. 86, Plöckinger 39 No. 31; Icelandic: Boberg; French: Sébillot France II 197, 342, 348, 411; Greek: Fox 110 (Hylas); India: Thompson-Balys.

F420.5.2.1.2. F420.5.2.1.2. Water-spirits lure children into water, offering objects. Austrian: Calliano II 24, Huber and Zaural 19; French: Sébillot France II 310, 343, 417; England: Baughman.

F420.5.2.1.3. F420.5.2.1.3. Hero drowned by water-spirits, who draw him down as he crosses ice. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 277 n. 23.

F420.5.2.1.4. F420.5.2.1.4. Water-goddess allows body of drowning person to come up three times. India: Thompson-Balys.

F420.5.2.1.5. F420.5.2.1.5. Water-spirit drags children into river. England: *Baughman.

F420.5.2.1.6. F420.5.2.1.6. Water-spirit claims a life every seven years. England: *Baughman.

F420.5.2.2. F420.5.2.2. Water-spirits kidnap mortals and keep them under water. Irish: Beal VII 49; Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 46 No. 60; German: Paul 46, Brüger 130; French: Sébillot France II 342, 409, 410; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Werner 352; Japanese: Ikeda; Africa (Cameroon): Rosenhuber 46ff.

F420.5.2.2.1. F420.5.2.2.1. Water-spirit returns kidnapped man in return for release of his long hair. Victim's father has wound the hair around his fingers. India: Thompson-Balys.

F420.5.2.2.2. F420.5.2.2.2. Mistreated boy sings unto water spirits to take him: waters rise up in tank to engulf him. India: Thompson-Balys.

F420.5.2.3. F420.5.2.3. Water-spirit keeps souls of drowned persons in dishes in his home. German: Mailly Niederöst. 46 No. 101.

F420.5.2.4. F420.5.2.4. Water-spirits steal children and leave changeling. German: Kahlo Nieders. I 66 No. 111, Künzig Schwarzwald 171.

F420.5.2.5. F420.5.2.5. Water-spirits interfere with building bridges, dams. (Cf. F451.5.2.5.) German: Kratzer 93 No. 36, Ebermann Elbsagen 117 No. 67.

F420.5.2.6. F420.5.2.6. Water-spirits take revenge on mortals.

- F420.5.2.6.1. F420.5.2.6.1. Water-spirits take revenge if yearly tribute is not given. German: Meier III 428 No. 121, Haas Pommersche 38 No. 78; French: Sébillot France II 338, 339; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1893) 156ff., (1928) 108ff.
- F420.5.2.6.2. F420.5.2.6.2. Water-spirits take revenge for trespassing on ground they claim as theirs. German: Siebert 186.
- F420.5.2.6.3. F420.5.2.6.3. Water-spirits take revenge for being harmed. German: Schultze 140, Dumke 52; French: Sébillot France II 342.
- F420.5.2.6.4. F420.5.2.6.4. Water-spirits avenge selves on mortal who fails to keep promise. German: Realis 163, Kurs 322; French: Sébillot France II 342.
- F420.5.2.6.5. F420.5.2.6.5. Water-maidens avenge selves for scorned love. German: Nies 118 No. 86.
- F420.5.2.6.6. F420.5.2.6.6. Water-spirits take revenge on mortals for pollution of water. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- F420.5.2.7. F420.5.2.7. Water-spirit turns boat in circle. German: Heese 116.
- F420.5.2.7.1. F420.5.2.7.1. Water-spirit crushes boat. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F420.5.2.7.2. F420.5.2.7.2. Water-spirit shakes ship. Icelandic: Ketils saga H. 116, Gríms saga L. 145, örvar-Odds saga 42, *Boberg.
- F420.5.2.7.3. F420.5.2.7.3. Water-spirit wrecks ship. Icelandic: Lagerholm 164—65, *Boberg; S. A. Indian (Tiatinagua): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 447.
- F420.5.2.7.4. F420.5.2.7.4. Water-spirit holds ship back. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F420.5.2.8. F420.5.2.8. Water-spirit splashes passing people. Stöber 37 No. 53.
- F420.5.2.9. F420.5.2.9. Water-spirits lead travelers astray. German: Hartmann 35, Schnetzler 269 No. 8.
- F420.5.2.10. F420.5.2.10. Water-man sits on back of persons as heavy burden. German: Kern 89.
- F420.5.2.11. F420.5.2.11. Water-spirits cause blindness. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- F420.5.2.12. F420.5.2.12. Water-spirit causes illness and death. Africa (Bakuba): Einstein 164.
- F420.5.3. F420.5.3. Other actions of water-spirits.
- F420.5.3.1. F420.5.3.1. Water-spirits sit on beach combing their long hair. Austrian: Maily Niederöst. 47 No. 101; French: Sébillot France II 340, 346, 411.
- F420.5.3.2. F420.5.3.2. Water-spirit calls human midwife. (Cf. F372.1, F451.3.5.5, F451.5.5.) German: Meier I 68 No. 2, Hessler 143.
- F420.5.3.3. F420.5.3.3. Water-spirits call human godmother. (Cf. F451.5.6.) German: Künzig Schwarzwald 170, Meier II 69 No. 4.

F420.5.3.4. F420.5.3.4. Water-spirit flees if holy name, ceremony, or blessed object is used. German: Ebermann Donausagen 120 No. 75, Janosch 13; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn (1893) 163ff., (1928) 114ff.

F420.5.3.5. F420.5.3.5. Nix flees from benediction in church. English: Child I 366n.

F420.5.3.6. F420.5.3.6. Water-spirit demands food from those it takes across stream. Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 267 No. 76.

F420.5.3.7. F420.5.3.7. Water-spirits prophesies. Icelandic: Boberg.

F420.6. F420.6. Marriage of water-spirits.

F420.6.1. F420.6.1. Marriage or liaison of mortals and water-spirits. India: *Thompson-Balys, Penzer VII 240.

F420.6.1.1. F420.6.1.1. Water-man woos mortal girl. (Cf. F451.5.18.) England, Wales: Baughman; German: Pfister 53, Lohre 48 No. 80; India: *Thompson-Balys; S. A. Indian (Warrau): Kirchoff BBAE CXLIII (3) 880.

F420.6.1.2. F420.6.1.2. Water-spirit offers gift to mortal to win love. German: Pröhle Deutsche Sagen 213 No. 168, Henne-Am Rhyn 119 No. 347; S. A. Indian (Cashinawa): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 686.

F420.6.1.3. F420.6.1.3. Mortal goes to home of water-spirits and marries. (Cf. F301.3.) German: Schultze 25; Czech: Wiener 118; French: Sébillot France II 409; India: Thompson-Balys.

F420.6.1.4. F420.6.1.4. Water-maiden goes to home of mortal and marries. Icelandic: Boberg.

F420.6.1.5. F420.6.1.5. Water-maidens make conditions for lovers. German: Kurs 322; French: Sébillot France II 409; India: Thompson-Balys.

F420.6.1.6. F420.6.1.6. Offspring of marriage between mortal and water-spirit. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F420.6.1.7. F420.6.1.7. Water-spirit surprises and rapes a mortal woman. A son is born who is sleepless. Krappe Modern Language Review XXIV (1929) 200ff.

F420.6.2. F420.6.2. Love and marriage between water-spirits and other spirits.

F420.6.2.1. F420.6.2.1. Water-man marries fairy. German: Schnetzler 266 No. 6, Diezel 1.

F420.6.2.2. F420.6.2.2. Water-maiden marries giant. (Cf. F531.5.7.) German: Förstner Märchenwelt 111.

F420.6.2.3. F420.6.2.3. Water-maiden is wooed by dwarf. (Cf. F451.5.18.) German: Schöppner I 480 No. 467.

F420.7. F420.7. Miscellaneous motifs connected with water-spirits.

F420.7.1. F420.7.1. Visit to water-goddess's underwater home. India: Thompson-Balys.

F421. F421. Lake-spirit. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 675; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 143; N. A. Indian (Iroquois): Alexander N. Am. 28.

F421.1. F421.1. Lady of the Lake. A female lake-spirit. Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXV 112; Hindu: Tawney II 570.

F422. F422. Marsh-spirit. Meyer 104; *Fb "ellefolk"; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1893) 3ff., 120ff., (1928) 5ff., 90ff., MacCulloch Eddic 224—25; Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 40 No. 21.

F423. F423. Sea spirits. Norwegian: Solheim Register 17; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 675, 1160; Japanese: Anesaki 266ff.; Papua: Ker 25; Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 37, (Central Eskimo): Boas RBAE VI 621; S. A. Indian (Warrau): Kirchoff BBAE CXLIII (3) 880.

F423.1. F423.1. Nereid. A sea-maiden. English: Child V 490 s.v. "Nereid"; Germanic: Meyer Altgermanische 102; Greek: Fox 260, *Frazer Pausanias III 12; Hindu: Penzer VI 209 n. 1.

F424. F424. River-spirit. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 416; S. A. Indian (Warrau): Kirchoff BBAE CXLIII (3) 880.

F424.1. F424.1. Spirit of brook. Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 201.

F425. F425. Fountain spirit. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 53 No. 443; Japanese: Anesaki 267.

F426. F426. Spirit of water-fall. Icelandic: *Boberg; Germanic: Meyer Altgermanische 103.

F429. F429. Other water-spirits.

F429.1. F429.1. Spirit of tide-crack. Eskimo (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 497, (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 60, 510ff.

F430. F430. Weather-spirits.

F431. F431. Cloud-spirit. Meyer Altgermanische 100; Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 38 No. 8.

F432. F432. Wind-spirit. German: Laistner I 4, Meyer Altgermanische 97; Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 37 No. 6, 38 No. 7; Jewish: Neuman; Chinese: Werner 181; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 147; N. A. Indian (Yukon): Alexander N. Am. 78.

F433. F433. Storm-spirit. Meyer Altgermanische 99; Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 64 No. 186; Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 37 No. 4; Slovenian: *L. Kretzenbacher Germanische Mythen in der epischen Volksdichtung der Slowenen (Graz, 1941) 36-49.

F433.1. F433.1. Spirit of snow. Meyer Altgermanische 104; Icelandic: Boberg.

F434. F434. Spirit of thunder. Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 37 Nos. 1, 2, 3; Chinese: Werner 199f.; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 61f., (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 175.

F436. F436. Spirit of cold. Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 38 No. 9; N. A. Indian:

*Thompson Tales 288 nn. 61, 61a.

F437. F437. Spirit of warmth. Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 38 No. 10; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 288 nn. 61, 61a.

F438. F438. Spirit of earthquake.

F438.1. F438.1. Spirit of earthquake lives underground (below earth). India: Thompson-Balys.

F438.2. F438.2. Spirit of earthquake has very long mouth. India: Thompson-Balys.

F439. F439. Other weather-spirits.

F439.1. F439.1. Rainbow spirit. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 135, 152.

F439.1.1. F439.1.1. Rainbow draws to itself fisherman and his boat. Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 37 No. 5.

F439.1.2. F439.1.2. Rainbow spirit as helper on journey. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 515f.

F439.1.3. F439.1.3. Rainbow spirit as messenger. Greek: Fox 241 (Iris); Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 521.

F440. F440. Vegetation spirits. *Kittredge Gawain 195ff.; Frazer Golden Bough XII 510 s.v. "Vegetation"; Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F440.1. F440.1. Green vegetation spirit. *Kittredge Gawain 195ff.; *Fb "grön" I 504.

F441. F441. Wood-spirit. Type 667; *Hdwb. d. Märchen I 198a; *Mannhardt I 87ff., 311ff.—Irish myth: Cross; U.S.: Baughman; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 204f., 226; Swedish: G. Granberg Skogsreet (Stockholm, 1934); Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 177, 185; Estonian: *Loorits Grundzüge I 521f., 546f., 559ff.; Germanic: Meyer Altgermanische 94; Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 40 No. 22; Slavic: Máchal 261ff.; Persian: Carnoy 298; S. A. Indian (Warrau): *Kirchoff BBAE CXLIII (3) 880, (Tapirapé): Wagley-Baldo ibid. (3) 178, (Pilcomayo, Chaco): Belaieff ibid. (1) 379; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 247, 251. See also F200—F399 (Fairies and Elves), F420 (Water-spirits), F461 (Dwarfs) and F460 (Mountain-spirits) for many common motifs.

F441.1. F441.1. Schrätel. An elf-like, male, malevolent wood-spirit. *Type 1161 (Schrätel instead of ogre in many versions); *Taylor MPh XVII 305ff.; *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XXXIII—XXXIV 33ff.

F441.2. F441.2. Tree-spirit. Norse: MacCulloch Eddic 207; Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 188; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas II 203; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 211, II 44, 67, 126, 507, 574, 675, 811, 820, 898, 1014, 1158, Jataka Index s.v. "Spirits"; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Anesaki 267, 340; S. A. Indian (Cavica, Tumapasa): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 448.

F441.2.0.1. F441.2.0.1. Tree-spirit persuades man to spare tree. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F441.2.1. F441.2.1. Wood-nymph. Type 480; Roberts 121; Swedish: Hartmann 26, 27; Slavic: Máchal 262ff.; Armenian: Ananikian 84.

F441.2.1.1. F441.2.1.1. Wood-nymph comes to the fire to warm. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1893) 38ff., (1928) 26ff.; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 44 No. 56;
Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 49 No. 398.

F441.2.1.2. F441.2.1.2. Wood-nymph with breasts so long that she throws them over her shoulder. (Cf. F232.2, F460.1.2, G123.) Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1893) 120ff., (1928) 90ff.; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 321 No. 58.

F441.2.1.3. F441.2.1.3. Wood-nymph woos and then deserts man. Norse: MacCulloch Eddic 205.

F441.2.1.4. F441.2.1.4. Tree maidens bathe at midnight in lake. India: Thompson-Balys.

F441.2.2. F441.2.2. Dryad. Female spirit dwelling among trees. Greek: Fox 270;
Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 564.

F441.2.3. F441.2.3. Hamadryad. Female spirit of a particular tree. Greek: Fox 270.

F441.2.3.1. F441.2.3.1. Man marries tree maiden. India: Thompson-Balys.

F441.2.3.1.1. F441.2.3.1.1. Man marries spirit of willow tree. She must part from him when tree is cut down. Japanese: Anesaki 333.

F441.2.3.2. F441.2.3.2. Tree-spirit in elder tree. England: Baughman.

F441.3. F441.3. Wild man as wood-spirit. *Hdwb. d. Aberggl. IX Nachträge 968—980, 984f.; Dickson 114 n. 37; Irish myth: *Cross; Norse: MacCulloch Eddic 280.

F441.4. F441.4. Form of wood-spirit.

F441.4.1. F441.4.1. Wood-spirit gigantic with one eye in center of forehead. Cheremis: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 182.

F441.4.2. F441.4.2. Wood-spirit without hands, feet, or mouth. Africa (Kpelle): Westermann Zs. f. Afrikan. ozean., u. ostasiat. Spr. VII 161 No. 29a.

F441.4.3. F441.4.3. Forest spirits brighter than moon. India: Thompson-Balys.

F441.4.4. F441.4.4. Forest-spirits with wings and with backward-pointing fingers and toes. (Cf. F401.9, F451.2.2.1.) Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 14, 46.

F441.4.5. F441.4.5. Wood-spirits with such heavy eyebrows they must lie on backs to see upwards. (Cf. F571.1.) S. A. Indian (Warrau): Kirchoff BBAE CXLIII (3) 880.

F441.4.6. F441.4.6. Wood-spirits with teeth on stomach. S. A. Indian (Warrau): Kirchoff BBAE CXLIII (3) 880.

F441.5. F441.5. Size of wood-spirit.

F441.5.1. F441.5.1. Wood-spirit tiny. (Cf. F239.4.3, F535.) S. A. Indian (Pitcomayo-Chaco): Belaieff BBAE CXLIII (1) 379.

F441.5.2. F441.5.2. Wood-spirit gigantic. (Cf. F232.6, F531.) S. A. Indian (Pitcomayo-Chaco): Belaieff BBAE CXLIII (1) 379.

F441.6. F441.6. Deeds of wood-spirits.

F441.6.1. F441.6.1. Wood-spirits responsible for sickness and failure. S. A. Indian (Warrau): Kirchoff BBAE CXLIII (3) 880.

F441.6.2. F441.6.2. Wood-spirits transform men into animals. S. A. Indian (Warrau): Kirchoff BBAE CXLIII (3) 880.

F441.6.3. F441.6.3. Sexual relations with wood-spirit fatal. S. A. Indian (Warrau): Kirchoff BBAE CXLIII (3) 880.

F441.6.4. F441.6.4. Wood-spirit calls after one in woods (Hehmann). E. Rath Der Hehmann (Wien, 1953).

F442. F442. Pan. Wood-spirit (demigod) part goat and part man. Greek: Fox 267.

F442.1. F442.1. Mysterious voice announces death of Pan. *Taylor Washington University Studies X (Humanistic Series) 3ff.; *Fb "röst"; *Boberg Sagnet om den Store Pans Død (København 1934); Boberg Noch einmal die Sage vom Tode des Grossen Pan (Classica et Mediaevalia III 119—132).—Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 45 No. 50; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3908; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 123 No. 45.

F443. F443. Echo as wood-spirit.

F443.1. F443.1. Echo as wood-spirit kidnaps and crazes man. India: Thompson-Balys.

F445. F445. Field-spirits. Meyer Altgermanische 108, Meyer Germanen 209ff.; Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 246; Slavic: Máchal 267ff.; Africa (Cameroon): Gantenbein 68.

F445.1. F445.1. Crop-spirits. Wehrhan 75f.

F445.1.1. F445.1.1. Tobacco-spirit. S. A. Indian (Cashinawa): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 684.

F447. F447. Flower-spirits. Japanese: Anesaki 342ff.

F450. F450. Underground spirits. (Cf. F200—F399, Fairies and Elves.) Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 4ff., (1928) 9ff.; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 228ff.; Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 178; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 45ff.; Persian Carnoy 298.

F450.0.1. F450.0.1. Voetter (generalized underground spirit). Scandinavian: *Hartmann 30—32.

F450.1. F450.1. Helpful underground spirit.

F450.1.1. F450.1.1. Helpful spirit warriors dwell in rocks and hills. N. A. Indian (Cherokee): Alexander N. Am. 68.

F450.1.2. F450.1.2. Underground spirit instructs a smith. (Cf. F451.3.4.2.) Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 126 No. 57.

F451. F451. Dwarf.1 (Underground spirit.) The dwarf, especially in Northern Europe, is considered an underground spirit. He is to be distinguished from the other conception of dwarf, viz., a very small person, pigmy, or thumbling (F535). Types 480, 403B;

*Roberts 123; Lutjens Der Zwerg in der deutschen Heldendichtung des Mittelalters (Breslau, 1911); *Wehrhan 67; *Thien 42; *Gould Scandinavian Studies and Notes IX 190; *De Boor Der Zwerg in Skandinavien (Mogk Festschrift 536); *Ritchie Zwerge in Geschichte u. überlieferung (Globus LXXXII 101); *Tegethoff Schweiz. Archiv f. Vksk. XXIV 147; Jensen Zs. f. Vksk. II 407; *Hdwb. d. Abergl. IX Nachträge 1008—1120. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 264ff., 287; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892, new series 1928); Norwegian: Solheim Register 18; French: F. Wolgemuth Riesen u. Zwerge in der altfranzösischen erzählenden Dichtung (Tübingen, 1906); Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 326; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 356 n. 287a. See also F200—F399 (Fairies and Elves), F420 (Water-spirits), and F460 (Mountain-spirits) for many common motifs.

F451.0.1. F451.0.1. Luchrupáin (leprechauns) (as fairies). Irish myth: *Cross.

F451.1. F451.1. Origin of dwarfs. *Fb "dværg" I 220b; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 264f., Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 3ff., (1928) 7ff.

F451.1.1. F451.1.1. Dwarfs originate from maggots in flesh of giant. Norse: De la Saussaye 318.

F451.1.1.1. F451.1.1.1. Dwarfs originate from the blood and bones of giant. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 264.

F451.1.2. F451.1.2. Murderer's children become dwarfs. *Fb "dværg" I 220b.

F451.1.3. F451.1.3. Dwarfs came after giants had almost died out. German: Haas Grimmen 46 No. 54.

F451.1.4. F451.1.4. Dwarfs came into the land 1000 years before mortals came. German: Haas Grimmen 46 No. 54.

F451.1.5. F451.1.5. Dwarf as reincarnation.

F451.1.5.1. F451.1.5.1. Dwarf as reincarnation of rat. Korean: Zong in-Sob 64.

F451.2. F451.2. Appearance of dwarf. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 271, *Boberg.

F451.2.0.1. F451.2.0.1. Dwarfs are ugly. German: Haas Greifswald. 38 No. 41.

F451.2.0.2. F451.2.0.2. Dwarfs are grown over with moss. German: Pröhle 113 No. 298.

F451.2.0.3. F451.2.0.3. Dwarfs walk stooped. German: Findeisen 39 No. 43.

F451.2.0.4. F451.2.0.4. Dwarfs appear nodding and anxious to speak. German: Bindewald 84.

F451.2.0.5. F451.2.0.5. During the day dwarfs appear in form of toads or other vermin. German: Haas Greifswald. 36 No. 39, 38 No. 40.

F451.2.0.6. F451.2.0.6. Dwarfs are pale. Icelandic: Boberg.

F451.2.1. F451.2.1. Body of dwarf.

F451.2.1.1. F451.2.1.1. Dwarfs are small. (Cf. F239.4.3, F441.5.1.) German: Eckart

20, Bindewald 56, 83f, 87, 188, Findeisen 3 No. 5, 39 No. 43, Pröhle Unterharzische 113 No. 298.

F451.2.1.2. F451.2.1.2. Dwarf with body like tailless hen. Tobler 59.

F451.2.1.3. F451.2.1.3. Dwarf with small body and large head. *Fb "dværg" I 220b; Zs. f. d. Phil. XXVI 12f.

F451.2.1.4. F451.2.1.4. Hunchback dwarf. (Cf. F420.1.4.4.) Africa (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 63 No. 9.

F451.2.2. F451.2.2. Feet of dwarf.

F451.2.2.1. F451.2.2.1. Dwarf's feet twisted backward. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 322 No. 86.

F451.2.2.2. F451.2.2.2. Dwarf with bird feet. (Cf. F401.3.5. and cross-references.) *Gaster Germania XXV 290ff.; Tobler 60; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 271.

F451.2.2.3. F451.2.2.3. Dwarfs with goat feet. (Cf. B24, F442.) Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 271.

F451.2.3. F451.2.3. The beards of dwarfs.

F451.2.3.1. F451.2.3.1. Long-bearded dwarf. (Cf. F451.6.1.) *Type 426; Köhler-Bolte I 545; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "nain"; Missouri French: Carrière.

F451.2.3.1.1. F451.2.3.1.1. Dwarfs have long beards in three strands. Tegethoff Schweiz. Archiv f. Vksk. XXIV 148.

F451.2.3.2. F451.2.3.2. Dwarfs have gray beards. German: Eckart 22, Kahlo Harzes 55 No. 92, Bindewald 56.

F451.2.4. F451.2.4. The hair of dwarfs.

F451.2.4.1. F451.2.4.1. Dwarfs have coarse hair. German: Eckart 20, Pröhle Harzsagen No. 137 II.

F451.2.4.2. F451.2.4.2. Dwarfs have silvery white hair. German: Bindewald 56.

F451.2.5. F451.2.5. Face of dwarf.

F451.2.5.1. F451.2.5.1. Dwarfs have old face. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 30 No. 263; German: Pröhle Harzsagen No. 137 II.

F451.2.6. F451.2.6. Other bodily characteristics of dwarfs.

F451.2.7. F451.2.7. Dress of dwarf.

F451.2.7.1. F451.2.7.1. Dwarfs with red heads and red caps. (Cf. F236.3.2, F460.1.4.2.) Fb "rød" III 116b, "rød dreng" III 117b; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 30 No. 263.

F451.2.7.2. F451.2.7.2. Dwarf clad in green. (Cf. F420.1.6.6.3.) English: Wells 134 (Sir Degare); Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 6ff., (1928) 11ff.

- F451.2.7.3. F451.2.7.3. Dwarfs referred to as "gray", not specifying whether as to dress or hair. (Cf. F236.1.4, F420.1.6.6.2.) Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 271; German: Schöppner I 169 No. 163, I 354 No. 351, Bindewald 83, 84, 188.
- F451.2.7.4. F451.2.7.4. Dwarfs clad in white. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 266; German: Kahlo Harzes 69 No. 109.
- F451.2.7.5. F451.2.7.5. Dwarfs wear red coats. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 272, *Boberg; German: Kapff 45, Schöppner I 354 No. 351.
- F451.2.7.6. F451.2.7.6. Dwarfs wear peculiar caps. (Cf. F451.2.7.1.) German: Kapff 45.
- F451.2.7.7. F451.2.7.7. Dwarf king wears costly crown. German: Pröhle Harzsagen No. 137 II.
- F451.2.7.8. F451.2.7.8. Dwarf clad in brown. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 266.
- F451.2.7.9. F451.2.7.9. Dwarf clad in black. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 266, 268.
- F451.2.7.10. F451.2.7.10. Dwarfs clad in motley. German: Grimm No. 163.
- F451.2.8. F451.2.8. Voice of dwarfs (echo). Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 269, *Boberg.
- F451.3. F451.3. Characteristics of dwarfs.
- F451.3.1. F451.3.1. Power of dwarf in his belt. *Fb "bælte" IV 84a.
- F451.3.2. F451.3.2. Dwarf rendered powerless.
- F451.3.2.1. F451.3.2.1. Dwarfs turn to stone at sunrise. Hdwb. d. Märchens I 433a nn. 86—91; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 10, 197, 269, 270.
- F451.3.2.1.1. F451.3.2.1.1. Dwarf prevented from getting into his stone before sunrise till he promises to do what hero demands (especially forge weapons). (Cf. D451.3.4.2, D451.4.1.12, F451.5.2.13.) Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F451.3.2.1.2. F451.3.2.1.2. Dwarf otherwise caught and thus forced to procure what hero demands. Icelandic: Völsunga saga ch. 14, Þiðriks saga I 34—38, Boberg.
- F451.3.2.2. F451.3.2.2. Dwarfs must return to spirit world by 1 a.m. German: Eckart 69, Winckler 56 No. 57.
- F451.3.2.3. F451.3.2.3. Dwarfs cannot harm mortal with circle drawn around him. German: Eckart 69.
- F451.3.2.4. F451.3.2.4. Dwarf can be killed only with snowball. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 248.
- F451.3.3. F451.3.3. Dwarf as magician. Dickson 219 n. 8; Icelandic: *Boberg; German: Pröhle Harzsagen No. 137 II.
- F451.3.3.0.1. F451.3.3.0.1. Dwarf can take what shape he wants. Icelandic: Völsunga saga ch. 14 (Andvari), Zs. f. d. Phil. XXVI 12—13, Göngu-Hrylfs saga 307ff., Boberg.

- F451.3.3.1. F451.3.3.1. Dwarfs turn peas into gold pieces. German: Karstens-Goslar 102.
- F451.3.3.2. F451.3.3.2. Dwarf turns gold into lead. German: Förstner Kyffhäusersagen 22.
- F451.3.3.3. F451.3.3.3. Dwarfs transform people (animals). German: Ey 9, Kahlo Harzes 30 No. 51.
- F451.3.3.4. F451.3.3.4. Dwarfs free mortals from enchantment. German: Bindewald 56, 142, Findeisen 39 No. 43.
- F451.3.3.5. F451.3.3.5. Dwarfs bewitch cows to give no milk. German: Karstens-Goslar 103.
- F451.3.3.5.1. F451.3.3.5.1. Dwarfs bewitch people. Icelandic: Göngu-Hrylfs saga 300, *Boberg.
- F451.3.3.6. F451.3.3.6. Dwarfs fly through air. German: Pröhle Unterharzische 171 No. 453.
- F451.3.3.7. F451.3.3.7. Dwarfs predict. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; German: Pröhle Harzsagen No. 155, Bindewald 188.
- F451.3.3.8. F451.3.3.8. Dwarfs made invisible by magic caps. (Cf. F451.5.1.7., F455.5.3.) Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 269; German: Eckart 7, 27, 79, Pröhle Harzsagen Nos. 220, 220 I, 229, Sieber 62, Pröhle Unterharz. 145 No. 368.
- F451.3.4. F451.3.4. Dwarfs as workmen. Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 54 Nos. 52, 53.
- F451.3.4.0.1. F451.3.4.0.1. Dwarf workmen heard at night. Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 55 No. 61.
- F451.3.4.1. F451.3.4.1. Dwarfs as artificers. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 123, 265ff., *Boberg.
- F451.3.4.1.1. F451.3.4.1.1. Dwarfs build tower. Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 54 No. 51.
- F451.3.4.2. F451.3.4.2. Dwarfs as smiths. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 23ff., (1928) 26ff.; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 66, 266ff., *Boberg; German: Haas Grimmen 46 No. 54, Karstens-Goslar 135.
- F451.3.4.3. F451.3.4.3. Dwarfs do farming. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 270; German: Haas Greifswald. 46 No. 54.
- F451.3.4.4. F451.3.4.4. Dwarf sews. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s. v. "nain"; Icelandic: Boberg.
- F451.3.4.5. F451.3.4.5. Dwarf bakes bread. *Boberg DF XLVI; Hoffman-Krayer Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 119 n. 4; German: Schöppner I 186 No. 184.
- F451.3.4.6. F451.3.4.6. Dwarfs spin. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 270, 271; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 53ff., (1928) 46ff.

F451.3.4.7. F451.3.4.7. Dwarfs churn. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 460.

F451.3.4.8. F451.3.4.8. Dwarfs carry water. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 47ff., (1928) 42ff.

F451.3.4.9. F451.3.4.9. Dwarf expert at making palm wine. Africa (Upoto): Einstein 133.

F451.3.4.10. F451.3.4.10. Dwarf splits wood using penis as wedge. Africa (Fang): Tessman 136.

F451.3.4.11. F451.3.4.11. Dwarf can draw entrails out of elephant. Africa (Fang): Tessman 139.

F451.3.5. F451.3.5. Dwarfs are subject to laws of nature.

F451.3.5.1. F451.3.5.1. Dwarfs die. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 130; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 75ff., 94ff., (1928) 62ff., 76ff.; German: Pröhle Unterharz. 112 No. 292, Sieber 61.

F451.3.5.2. F451.3.5.2. Dwarfs become ill. German: Pröhle Harzsagen No. 189, Sieber 60.

F451.3.5.3. F451.3.5.3. Dwarf children are hungry. German: Schöppner I 186 No. 184.

F451.3.5.4. F451.3.5.4. Dwarfs have blood. German: Pröhle Unterharz. 112 No. 294.

F451.3.5.5. F451.3.5.5. Dwarf women bear children. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 74, (1928) 63.

F451.3.6. F451.3.6. Dwarfs are sensitive.

F451.3.6.1. F451.3.6.1. Dwarf is insulted when scolded. Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 55 No. 64; German: Schöppner I 264 No. 271.

F451.3.6.2. F451.3.6.2. Dwarfs dislike teasing. (Cf. F451.9.1.7.) German: Sieber 61.

F451.3.6.3. F451.3.6.3. Dwarfs dislike tobacco smoke. German: Pröhle Harzsagen No. 137 IV.

F451.3.6.4. F451.3.6.4. Dwarfs accept as gift goose but not gander. German: Kapff 45.

F451.3.6.5. F451.3.6.5. Dwarfs timorous.

F451.3.6.5.1. F451.3.6.5.1. Dwarfs fear the dark. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 256.

F451.3.6.5.2. F451.3.6.5.2. Dwarfs fear dogs. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 256.

F451.3.7. F451.3.7. Dwarfs are particular as to food.

F451.3.7.1. F451.3.7.1. Dwarfs dislike caraway seed in food. German: Pröhle Harzsagen No. 229, Pröhle Unterharz. 145 No. 367, Sieber 61f.

F451.3.7.2. F451.3.7.2. Dwarfs dislike bread baked without salt. German: Sieber 61.

F451.3.7.3. F451.3.7.3. Dwarfs given inedible food to eat. Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 55ff. No. 66.

F451.3.8. F451.3.8. Dwarfs are strong.

F451.3.8.1. F451.3.8.1. Dwarf carries mortal down from Hibichenstein. German: Pröhle Harzsagen No. 137 III.

F451.3.9. F451.3.9. Dwarfs are weak.

F451.3.9.1. F451.3.9.1. Dwarf groans while carrying an ear of corn. German: Schöppner I 264 No. 271.

F451.3.10. F451.3.10. Dwarfs are droll. German: Winckler 34 No. 24.

F451.3.11. F451.3.11. Great age of dwarfs. BP I 497; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 271; German: Bindewald 56, Pröhle Unterharz. 112 Nos. 293, 295, Pröhle Harzsagen No. 137 II.

F451.3.12. F451.3.12. Dwarfs are intelligent. Irish myth: *Cross.

F451.3.12.1. F451.3.12.1. Dwarfs know herbs. German: Kahlo Harz. 26 No. 47, Pröhle Harzsagen No. 137 II, Kapff 44, 45.

F451.3.12.2. F451.3.12.2. Dwarfs are sensible. German: Pröhle Unterharz. 113 No. 298.

F451.3.12.3. F451.3.12.3. Dwarfs are wise. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 92, 265, *Boberg.

F451.3.12.4. F451.3.12.4. Dwarfs cut runes. Icelandic: Boberg.

F451.3.13. F451.3.13. Dwarfs are ill-mannered.

F451.3.13.1. F451.3.13.1. Eating dwarfs smack like hogs. German: Pröhle Harzsagen No. 229.

F451.3.13.2. F451.3.13.2. Dwarfs chatter. German: Karstens-Goslar 122.

F451.3.13.2.1. F451.3.13.2.1. Dwarfs chatter like geese. German: Pröhle Harzsagen No. 229, Sieber 62.

F451.3.13.3. F451.3.13.3. Dwarf breaks wind so hard he capsizes canoes. Marquesas: Handy 126.

F451.3.14. F451.3.14. Dwarfs are numerous.

F451.3.14.1. F451.3.14.1. Dwarfs come into the land by the hundreds. German: Haas Grimmen 46 No. 54.

F451.3.15. F451.3.15. Dwarfs are superstitious.

F451.3.15.1. F451.3.15.1. Dwarfs are superstitious about the three sevens in 1777.

(Cf. F451.9.1.3.) German: Pröhle Harzsagen No. 60.

F451.3.16. F451.3.16. Dwarfs are artful. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 268—69.

F451.4. F451.4. Home of dwarfs.

F451.4.1. F451.4.1. Dwarfs live under the ground. Icelandic: Göngu-Hrylfs saga 308, MacCulloch Eddic 265, 269; German: Haas Grimmen 46 No. 54; Missouri French: Carrière.

F451.4.1.1. F451.4.1.1. Dwarfs live in caves. German: Schöppner I 186 No. 184, Eckart 7, 27, Pröhle Unterharz. 145 No. 367, Boberg.

F451.4.1.2. F451.4.1.2. Dwarfs live in underground castle. German: Kapff 44.

F451.4.1.3. F451.4.1.3. Dwarfs live in luxurious underground palace. German: Pröhle Harzsagen No. 137 III.

F451.4.1.4. F451.4.1.4. Dwarfs live in underground passage. German: Schöppner I 264 No. 271.

F451.4.1.5. F451.4.1.5. Dwarf home is underground, beneath cow stable. (Cf. F451.4.4.3.) Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 46 No. 387; German: Findeisen No. 5.

F451.4.1.6. F451.4.1.6. Dwarfs undermine lowlands for homes. German: Haas Greifswald 39 No. 42.

F451.4.1.7. F451.4.1.7. Entrance to dwarf home leads through some filthy place under the swill hole or swill tub. German: Haas Greifswald. 36 No. 39, 38 No. 40.

F451.4.1.8. F451.4.1.8. Dwarfs live in the high banks of the seashore. German: Haas Grimmen 46 No. 54.

F451.4.1.9. F451.4.1.9. Burial places (barrows, howes) as homes of dwarfs. *Gould Scandinavian Studies and Notes IX 190; Icelandic: *Boberg; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) spec. 151ff., (1928) 107ff.

F451.4.1.10. F451.4.1.10. Snow melts above dwarf's dwelling. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 46 No. 385; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F451.4.1.11. F451.4.1.11. Dwarfs live in hills and mountains. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 267—70.

F451.4.1.12. F451.4.1.12. Dwarfs live in stones. (Cf. F451.3.2.1.1.) *Fb "sten" III 552b; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 265, 268—70, *Boberg; Danish: Schmidt DF XXXIX 27, 108ff.

F451.4.2. F451.4.2. Dwarfs have homes above the ground.

F451.4.2.1. F451.4.2.1. Dwarfs live in a cliff. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 269, *Boberg; German: Eckart 20, 22; Pröhle Harz. No. 269.

F451.4.2.2. F451.4.2.2. Dwarfs live in ravines. German: Haas Grimmen 46 No. 54.

F451.4.2.3. F451.4.2.3. Dwarfs live in a forest. German: Pröhle Unterharz. 171 No.

453, Kapff 44.

F451.4.2.4. F451.4.2.4. Dwarfs live in a church. German: Pröhle Unterharz. 112 No. 294.

F451.4.2.5. F451.4.2.5. Dwarf king lives in a mill. German: Pröhle Unterharz. 145 No. 368.

F451.4.2.6. F451.4.2.6. Dwarfs seen on a mountain. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 47 No. 393.

F451.4.3. F451.4.3. Description of dwarf home.

F451.4.3.1. F451.4.3.1. Dwarf cave closed by iron doors. German: Karstens-Goslar 135.

F451.4.3.1.1. F451.4.3.1.1. Dwarfs' rock closed by rock-door. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 269.

F451.4.3.2. F451.4.3.2. Dwarf cave has large square room with little doors leading to all sides. German: Schöppner I 186 No. 184.

F451.4.3.3. F451.4.3.3. Dwarf cave has ceiling of mineral white as snow. German: Eckart 22.

F451.4.3.4. F451.4.3.4. Dwarf home has chandelier of crystals and gems. (Cf. F420.2.1.) German: Eckart 22.

F451.4.3.5. F451.4.3.5. Floors in dwarf home are covered with pine twigs. German: Eckart 22.

F451.4.3.6. F451.4.3.6. Dwarfs' castle of gold. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 319, 265.

F451.4.3.7. F451.4.3.7. Magic flower opens dwarf home. German: Beckstein 6, Winckler 34 No. 24, Karstens-Goslar 41, Schöppner I 165 No. 158.

F451.4.3.8. F451.4.3.8. Dwarfs' house of reeds. German: Grimm Nos. 55, 163, 169.

F451.4.3.9. F451.4.3.9. Dwarfs' house covered with skin of fabulous six-legged animal. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 247.

F451.4.4. F451.4.4. Home of dwarfs is endangered or destroyed.

F451.4.4.1. F451.4.4.1. Dwarfs resentful that mortals shoot at birds above Hibichenstein, because this crumbles away the cliff. German: Eckart 22, Pröhle Harz. No. 137 III.

F451.4.4.2. F451.4.4.2. Thirty-Years War destroys home of dwarfs. German: Eckart 22, Pröhle Harz. No. 137 III.

F451.4.4.3. F451.4.4.3. Dwarfs request that cow stable be moved because it is above their home and the seepage strikes their dining table. (Cf. F381.7, F451.4.1.5.) Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 325ff., (1928) 207ff.; German: Findeisen 3 No. 5; Icelandic: Boberg.

F451.4.4.3.1. F451.4.4.3.1. Dwarf wishes death to mortal who throws water on his dunghill home. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 254.

F451.4.5. F451.4.5. Government among dwarfs.

F451.4.5.1. F451.4.5.1. Dwarfs are ruled by a king. Irish myth: *Cross; German: Eckart 7, 20, 22, Ey 29, Kahlo Harz. 30 No. 51, Pröhle Harz. No. 137 II MacCulloch Eddic 266, 271, 272.

F451.4.6. F451.4.6. In dwarf land sunrise is at midnight. German: Eckart 7.

F451.5. F451.5. Dwarfs and human beings.

F451.5.1. F451.5.1. Helpful dwarfs. *Types 403, 709; BP I 450 ff.; Böcklen Sneewittchenstudien 84f.; BP I 99, Dickson 218.—Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 270, 272, *Boberg; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 53ff., 437—38, (1928) 47ff.; German: Eckart 79, Ey 29, Haas Grimmen 46 No. 54, Haas Greifswald 36 No. 39, Bindewald 56, 84, Kapff 45; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 41 No. 301; Africa (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 63 No. 9.

F451.5.1.1. F451.5.1.1. Dwarf as godfather. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 308 No. 4.

F451.5.1.2. F451.5.1.2. Dwarfs adopt girl as sister. *Type 709; BP I 450ff.; *Böcklen Sneewittchenstudien 94ff.

F451.5.1.3. F451.5.1.3. Dwarfs make new golden hair for woman. Norse: De la Saussaye 239 (Sif, Thor's wife).

F451.5.1.4. F451.5.1.4. Dwarfs' gold. Seemingly worthless gift given by dwarfs turns to gold. *Type 503; Feilberg DF V 50, 75, 99; Grimm Deutsche Myth. I 228f., 400.—Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 344ff., (1928) 221ff.; German: Eckart 7, 20, 27, 78, Schöppner I 169 No. 163, I 180 No. 175, Bechstein 6, Winckler 34 No. 24, Sieber 63, Kahlo Harz. 26 No. 47, Pröhle Harz. No. 137 II; Russian: Ralston Songs of the Russian People 159; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 303 No. 23, 308 Nos. 2, 4, 326 No. 2; French: Sébillot France I 259; Indonesian: Voorhoeve 116 No. 93.

F451.5.1.5. F451.5.1.5. Money or treasure given by dwarfs. (Cf. F420.5.1.7.1.) Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 268; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 46 No. 386; German: Haas Greifswald 38 No. 40, 40 No. 44, Bindewald 188, Pröhle Harz. No. 137 III, No. 168 I, No. 220 II, Schöppner I 165 No. 158, Ey 29.

F451.5.1.5.1. F451.5.1.5.1. Dwarf king turns mill which produces gold. Krappe Revue Archéologique (1931) 142ff.

F451.5.1.6. F451.5.1.6. Other gifts from dwarfs. Boberg DF XLVI 49ff.; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 267 (sword), 272, *Boberg; Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 57ff. No. 71—105; German: Pröhle Unterharz. 150 No. 379, Karstens-Goslar 155, Ey 9, Kahlo Harz. 67 No. 107, Bechstein 6, Winckler 34 No. 24; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 241, Rink 185, 463.

F451.5.1.6.1. F451.5.1.6.1. Dwarfs' gifts cease when mortal betrays the source. (Cf. C420, F348.5.) Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 463.

F451.5.1.7. F451.5.1.7. Dwarfs serve mortals. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; German: MacCulloch Eddic 270, Haas Greifswald 36 No. 39, Schöppner I 264 No. 271,

I 354 Nos. 35, 35@1, Pröhle Harz. No. 137 II, No. 229, Sieber 60, 283, Kapff 45.

F451.5.1.8. F451.5.1.8. Dwarf serves king sleeping in mountain (Kyffhäuser).
Bechstein II 1, 6, 8, 9, Förstner Kyffhäuser 7, 9, 16f., 21f., Kahlo Harz. 51 No. 86, 71
No. 112.

F451.5.1.9. F451.5.1.9. Dwarfs direct mortals to treasure. Kahlo Harz. 54 No. 91, 67
No. 107, 69 No. 109, Karstens-Goslar 122.

F451.5.1.10. F451.5.1.10. Dwarfs heal (give medicine). Icelandic: *Boberg; German:
Kahlo Harz. 26 No. 47, Kapff 44, Sieber 283, Eckhart 20.

F451.5.1.11. F451.5.1.11. Dwarfs lend to mortals. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn
(1892) 19ff., (1928) 91ff.; German: Pröhle Harz Nos. 189, 269, Pröhle Unterharz. 145
No. 367.

F451.5.1.12. F451.5.1.12. Dwarf moves mortal's castle from one mountain to another.
German: Kahlo Harz. 55 No. 92.

F451.5.1.13. F451.5.1.13. Dwarf washes, combs, and braids hair for sleeping maids.
German: Hohaus 123.

F451.5.1.14. F451.5.1.14. Dwarf conducts shepherd to hell to collect debt from nobleman. German: Sieber 100.

F451.5.1.15. F451.5.1.15. Dwarfs warm heath by underground fire. Karstens-Goslar 103.

F451.5.1.16. F451.5.1.16. Dwarf king prevents a father from shooting his son. Pröhle
Harz. No. 137 III.

F451.5.1.17. F451.5.1.17. Dwarfs protect the forest. Pröhle Harz. No. 137 II.

F451.5.1.18. F451.5.1.18. Dwarfs teach mortals. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 267,
*Boberg.

F451.5.1.19. F451.5.1.19. Dwarfs help human beings with spinning. Type 500;
Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 271.

F451.5.1.20. F451.5.1.20. Dwarfs help in performing task. German: Grimm Nos. 13, 55, 64, 91.

F451.5.1.21. F451.5.1.21. House of dwarf's friend spared in fire. Dutch: Sinninghe
FFC CXXXII 57 No. 83.

F451.5.2. F451.5.2. Malevolent dwarf. *Type 301; BP II 301ff.; Icelandic: MacCulloch
Eddic 269f., *Boberg; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 393ff., (1928) 249ff.;
German: Bindewald 87.

F451.5.2.1. F451.5.2.1. Ungrateful dwarf. *Type 426; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis
326 No. 23.

F451.5.2.2. F451.5.2.2. Dwarfs steal from human beings. Fb "kage" II 72a; Gaster
Oldest Stories 156.—Icelandic: *Boberg; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892)
129ff., (1928) 93ff., II (1893) 34ff., (1928) 23ff.; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 308

No. 1, 326 No. 23; German: Pröhle Harz. No. 220 I, No. 269, Pröhle Unterharz. 112 No. 291, Sieber 61f., Eckart 7, 27, 79, Karstens-Goslar 102.

F451.5.2.2.1. F451.5.2.2.1. Dwarfs steal magic objects. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F451.5.2.2.2. F451.5.2.2.2. Dwarfs steal food and drink. Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 56 No. 70.

F451.5.2.3. F451.5.2.3. Dwarfs exchange children in cradle. Norse: MacCulloch Eddic 272; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 294ff., (1928) 186ff.; German: Haas Greifswald 36 No. 39, 40 No. 43, Sieber 60, Pröhle Harz. Nos. 189, 220 I, 207, 269, Pröhle Unterharz. 145 No. 368.

F451.5.2.3.1. F451.5.2.3.1. Father given carved wooden image in lieu of son stolen by dwarfs. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 110.

F451.5.2.4. F451.5.2.4. Dwarfs kidnap mortals. (Cf. F420.5.2.2. and cross-references there given.) Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 269f., 272, *Boberg; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 228ff., (1928) 162ff.; German: Eckart 80, Pröhle Harz. No. 229; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 278, 446.

F451.5.2.5. F451.5.2.5. Dwarfs interfere with mortal's work (destroy buildings, crops, etc.) (Cf. F420.5.2.5.) *Fb "dværg" I 220; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 437—38; German: Karstens-Goslar 103, Pröhle Unterharz. 113 No. 297.

F451.5.2.6. F451.5.2.6. Dwarfs punish. Icelandic: Boberg; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn (1892) 156ff., (1928) 171ff.; Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 55 No. 65; German: Sieber 61f., 283, Winckler 43 No. 36, Karstens-Goslar 41, Kahlo Harz. 30 No. 51, Förstner Kyffhäuser 22, Kapff 45; Eskimo (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 84.

F451.5.2.7. F451.5.2.7. Dwarfs play pranks. Gaster Oldest Stories 156; German: Bindewald 87, Pröhle Harz. No. 137 II, Kahlo Harz. 30 No. 51, Karstens-Goslar 102, 103.

F451.5.2.8. F451.5.2.8. Dwarfs threaten mortals. German: Eckart 69, Pröhle Harz. No. 229.

F451.5.2.9. F451.5.2.9. Dwarfs scold mortals. German: Beckstein 6, Winckler 34 No. 24.

F451.5.2.10. F451.5.2.10. Dwarfs frighten mortals. German: Eckart 7, Bindewald 84, Kapff 44.

F451.5.2.11. F451.5.2.11. Dwarfs attack soldier. German: Pröhle Harz. No. 137, Findeisen 39 No. 43.

F451.5.2.12. F451.5.2.12. Dwarf takes back gifts he gave. German: Schöppner I 264 No. 271.

F451.5.2.13. F451.5.2.13. Dwarfs curse weapons and treasures which they are forced to give (or which the receiver does not appreciate). Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 268, *Boberg.

F451.5.2.14. F451.5.2.14. Dwarfs demand gifts. Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 56 No. 69.

F451.5.3. F451.5.3. Dwarfs are ancestors of mortals. German: Haas Greifswald 40 No. 43.

F451.5.3.1. F451.5.3.1. Crippled mortals are of dwarf ancestry. German: Pröhle Harz. No. 187.

F451.5.4. F451.5.4. Mortal goes to land of dwarfs. Type 963*; German: Pröhle Harz. Nos. 137 III, 168 I, II, 229, Eckart 22, 78, 80, Schöppner I 186 No. 184; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 241.

F451.5.4.1. F451.5.4.1. Ghost conceals herself with dwarfs. Tobler 66.

F451.5.4.2. F451.5.4.2. Dwarfs suspend large millstone on thin thread over head of mortal, to show what anguish dwarfs felt when mortal endangered their lives. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 337ff.; Lithuanian: Indogermanische Forschungen XXXV 124 No. 18; German: Haas Greifswald. 38 No. 40.

F451.5.4.3. F451.5.4.3. Enchanted princess lives with dwarfs. German: Pröhle Harz. No. 175 I.

F451.5.5. F451.5.5. Dwarfs have human woman as midwife. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 330ff., (1928) 210ff.; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 272; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 308 No. 2, 326 No. 2; German: Kahlo Harz. 54 No. 91.

F451.5.6. F451.5.6. Dwarfs have mortal god-parent. (Cf. F420.5.3.3.) German: Haas Greifswald. 38 No. 40, Eckart 78.

F451.5.7. F451.5.7. Dwarfs visit mortal's home. German: Karsten-Goslar 122, Sieber 61, Pröhle Harz. Nos. 137 IV, 229, Bindewald 87.

F451.5.7.1. F451.5.7.1. Dwarf wants to warm self at fire. German: Sieber 61; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "nain".

F451.5.8. F451.5.8. Dwarfs associate with mortals. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 40ff., 266ff., (1928) 37ff., 179ff.; German: Schöppner I 186 No. 184, Kapff 45; Pröhle Harz. No. 187; Eskimo (Bering Strait): Nelson RBAE XVIII 480, (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 167.

F451.5.8.1. F451.5.8.1. Dwarf follows countess around like a little dog. German: Bindewald 83.

F451.5.9. F451.5.9. Dwarfs and Christianity. (Cf. F420.5.3.4. and cross-references there given. Cf. also F451.9.1.6.) Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 271.

F451.5.9.1. F451.5.9.1. Dwarfs fear the cross. German: Karstens-Goslar 155, Findeisen 3 No. 5.

F451.5.9.2. F451.5.9.2. Dwarfs dislike singing of hymns. German: Karstens-Goslar 155.

F451.5.9.3. F451.5.9.3. Dwarfs dislike church bells. German: Haas Grimmen 46 No. 54, Karstens-Goslar 103, 155.

F451.5.9.4. F451.5.9.4. Dwarfs regard Day of St. John the Divine. German: Schöppner I 164 No. 157, 165 No. 158.

F451.5.9.5. F451.5.9.5. Dwarf seeks to enter church. *Fb "dværg" I 220.

F451.5.9.6. F451.5.9.6. Murder causes dwarf to lose his soul. (Cf. E700.) Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 240.

F451.5.10. F451.5.10. Business relations of dwarfs and mortals. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F451.5.10.1. F451.5.10.1. Dwarfs accept remuneration. German: Karstens-Goslar 135, 155, Sieber 283, Eckart 67, Pröhle Harz. No. 229, Kapff 45.

F451.5.10.2. F451.5.10.2. Dwarfs object to rewards. (Cf. F451.5.10.9.) German: Schöppner I 354 No. 351, Pröhle Unterharz. 150 No. 379.

F451.5.10.3. F451.5.10.3. Dwarfs borrow from mortals. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 116ff., (1928) 90ff., Boberg DF XLVI 38ff.; Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 56 No. 68; German: Eckart 78, Schöppner I 186 No. 184, Findeisen 39 No. 43.

F451.5.10.3.1. F451.5.10.3.1. Dwarf borrows sledge. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 587—590.

F451.5.10.4. F451.5.10.4. Dwarfs return what they borrow. Boberg DF XLVI 38ff.; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 116ff., (1928) 90ff.; German: Schöppner I 186 No. 184; Eckart 78.

F451.5.10.5. F451.5.10.5. Dwarfs buy peas from mortals and pay more than they are worth. German: Eckart 79, Schöppner I 186 No. 184.

F451.5.10.6. F451.5.10.6. Dwarfs pay for being ferried across water. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 417ff., (1928) 256ff.; German: Karstens-Goslar 155.

F451.5.10.7. F451.5.10.7. Mortal confiscates property of dwarfs. German: Pröhle Harz. No. 137.

F451.5.10.8. F451.5.10.8. Dwarfs make promises with mental reservations. German: Eckart 7.

F451.5.10.9. F451.5.10.9. Ausgelohnt. When dwarfs are paid in full for their work they cease helping mortals. *Hdwb. d. Märch. s.v. "Ausgelohnt"; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1893) 96ff., (1928) 70ff.; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 40 No. 326; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3490.

F451.5.11. F451.5.11. Dwarfs suffer abuses by mortals. German: Schöppner I 264 No. 271, Pröhle Harz. No. 269, Haas Greifswald. 38 No. 40, Eckart 69, Sieber 61, Ey 29.

F451.5.12. F451.5.12. Dwarfs thwart efforts of mortals to get additional favors. German: Eckart 7.

F451.5.12.1. F451.5.12.1. Mortals, informed by those benefited, seek dwarf abode in vain. German: Kahlo Harz. 69 No. 109.

F451.5.13. F451.5.13. Dwarfs exact promise from mortals. German: Karstens-Goslar 41, Eckart 22.

F451.5.14. F451.5.14. Dwarfs tease mortals. German: Kapff 44, Pröhle Unterharz. 145

No. 368.

F451.5.15. F451.5.15. Dwarfs give riddles and questions to mortals.

F451.5.15.1. F451.5.15.1. Dwarf promises mortal much money if he will guess his name. German: Haas Greifswald. 40 No. 44.

F451.5.15.2. F451.5.15.2. Dwarf makes return of child dependent upon guessing of riddle. German: Pröhle Harz. No. 220 I.

F451.5.15.3. F451.5.15.3. Dwarf suitor desists when unwilling maiden guesses his name. (Cf. C432.1.) German: Haas Greifswald. 38 No. 41.

F451.5.16. F451.5.16. Dwarfs dislike human vices. German: Sieber 61, Schöppner I 186 No. 184, Pröhle Harz. No. 269, Pröhle Unterharz. 113 No. 298, Karstens-Goslar 135, Förstner Kyffhäuser 22, Winckler 43 No. 36.

F451.5.17. F451.5.17. Dwarfs invisibly attend wedding or christening feasts of mortals. (Cf. F451.3.3.8.) Icelandic: *Boberg; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 135ff., (1928) 96ff.; German: Pröhle Harz. No. 229, Pröhle Unterharz. 145 No. 368.

F451.5.17.1. F451.5.17.1. Invisible dwarfs at christening feast made to speak by brewing beer in egg-shell. (Cf. F321.1.1.1, F481.4.) German: Pröhle Harz. No. 229.

F451.5.18. F451.5.18. Dwarf loves mortal girl. (Cf. F420.6.1. and cross references F451.5.15.3.) Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 270, 272, Boberg; Swiss Jegerlehner Oberwallis 322 No. 86; German: Haas Greifswald. 36 No. 39, 38 No. 44.

F451.5.18.1. F451.5.18.1. Dwarf promises money and property to mortal father for hand of daughter. German: Haas Greifswald. 38 No. 41.

F451.5.19. F451.5.19. Dwarfs are bashful or timid. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 44ff., (1928) 41ff.

F451.5.19.1. F451.5.19.1. Dwarf stays away from house after maid tries to catch and kiss him. German: Hohaus 123.

F451.5.20. F451.5.20. Dwarfs give orders to mortals. German: Pröhle Unterharz 113 No. 298, Findeisen 39 No. 43.

F451.5.21. F451.5.21. Six dwarfs listen to singing by confirmed children. German: Kapff 45.

F451.5.22. F451.5.22. Expelled dwarfs plan to dig underground bed for Rhine. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 303 No. 23.

F451.5.23. F451.5.23. Dwarfs seek human help in their fights and troubles. Icelandic: Sveinsson FFC LXXXIII xxxviii—xli; German: MacCulloch Eddic 272.

F451.6. F451.6. Other actions of dwarfs.

F451.6.1. F451.6.1. Dwarf caught by beard in cleft of tree. (Cf. F451.2.3.1.) *Type 426; BP III 260; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "nain".

F451.6.2. F451.6.2. Dwarf rides.

F451.6.2.1. F451.6.2.1. Dwarf rides on a hare. Köhler-Bolte I 545.

F451.6.2.2. F451.6.2.2. Dwarf rides through air on wooden horse. Dickson 217.

F451.6.2.3. F451.6.2.3. Dwarfs are taken for hussars because they ride little horses. (Cf. F451.7.5.) German: Pröhle Unterharz. 112 No. 294.

F451.6.2.4. F451.6.2.4. Dwarfs try to kill serpent. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

F451.6.3. F451.6.3. Dwarfs have festivities. Irish myth: *Cross.

F451.6.3.1. F451.6.3.1. Dwarfs feast mortals in their home. German: Eckart 22, Ey 29, Pröhle Harz. No. 137 III, No. 168 I, Haas Greifswald. 38 No. 40.

F451.6.3.2. F451.6.3.2. Dwarfs celebrate weddings and christenings of their own. (Cf. F451.6.5.) Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 62ff., (1928) 54ff.; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 45 Nos. 375—376; German: Pröhle Harz. No. 229, Haas Greifswald. 38 No. 40.

F451.6.3.3. F451.6.3.3. Dwarfs have music. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 270—71; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 189ff., (1928) 133ff.; German: Eckart 22, Sieber 62, Pröhle Harz. No. 229, Pröhle Unterharz. 171 No. 453.

F451.6.3.3.1. F451.6.3.3.1. Dwarf musician (poet). Irish myth: *Cross.

F451.6.3.4. F451.6.3.4. Dwarf dances. *Fb "danse" IV 93a; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 193ff., (1928) 137ff.; Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 58 No. 92; German: Sieber 62.

F451.6.3.5. F451.6.3.5. Dwarfs play in the moonlight. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 36ff., (1928) 33ff.; German: Haas Greifswald. 38 No. 41.

F451.6.3.6. F451.6.3.6. Dwarfs hold church services. German: Schöppner I 165 No. 158.

F451.6.4. F451.6.4. Dwarfs fight with each other. German: Ey 29, Pröhle Unterharz. 112 No. 294.

F451.6.5. F451.6.5. Dwarfs wed. (Cf. F451.6.3.2.) Irish myth: *Cross (F451.3.17); German: Karstens-Goslar 122, Kahlo Harz. 30 No. 51.

F451.6.6. F451.6.6. Dwarfs laugh. German: Karstens-Goslar 122.

F451.6.7. F451.6.7. Dwarfs weep. German: Förstner Kyffhäuser 17.

F451.6.8. F451.6.8. Dwarfs become angry. German: Haas Greifswald 38 No. 41.

F451.6.9. F451.6.9. Dwarfs dig for treasures. German: Findeisen 3 No. 5.

F451.6.10. F451.6.10. Frau Holle lives with dwarfs. (Cf. F475.1.) German: Pröhle Harz. No. 230.

F451.6.11. F451.6.11. Dwarfs betray. German: Sieber 61.

F451.6.12. F451.6.12. Dwarf king Hibich comes to surface every 500 years. German: Pröhle Harz. No. 137 II.

F451.6.13. F451.6.13. Dwarf carries his knocked-off leg on his shoulder. German: Sieber 61.

F451.6.14. F451.6.14. Dwarfs flee to caves for protection. German: Karstens-Goslar 102.

F451.7. F451.7. Possessions of dwarfs. Irish myth: *Cross.

F451.7.1. F451.7.1. Dwarfs possess treasure (gold, jewels, etc.). Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 270; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 172ff. (1928) 221ff.; German: Eckart 22, Schöppner I 164 No. 157, Pröhle Harz. No. 137 IV, Haas Greifswald. 36 No. 39, 38 No. 40.

F451.7.2. F451.7.2. Dwarfs have ovens. Boberg DF XLVI 16ff.; German: Schöppner I 186 No. 184.

F451.7.3. F451.7.3. Dwarfs have little lanterns. German: Winckler 56 No. 57.

F451.7.4. F451.7.4. Dwarf king has silver miner's torch bright as the sun. German: Pröhle Harz. No. 137 II.

F451.7.5. F451.7.5. Dwarfs have little horses. (Cf. F451.6.2.3.) Irish myth: *Cross; German: Pröhle Unterharz. 112 No. 294.

F451.7.6. F451.7.6. Dwarfs have cattle, steeds and wagons. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 31ff., (1928) 32ff.; German: Karstens-Goslar 122.

F451.8. F451.8. Names for dwarfs. Gould PMLA XLIV 939.

F451.8.1. F451.8.1. Common names for dwarfs. German: Haas Grimmen 3, 46 No. 54, Haas Greifswald. 36 No. 39, 38 Nos. 40, 41, Nos. 43, 44, Karstens-Goslar 135, 155, Schöppner I 165 No. 158, I 169 No. 163, I 264 No. 271, I 354 No. 351, Ey 9, 29, Bindewald 83, 87, 142, 188, Findeisen 3 No. 5, 39 No. 43, Kappf 44, 45, Hohaus 123, Eckart 27, 67, 78ff., Bechstein 6.

F451.8.2. F451.8.2. Proper names for dwarfs. Icelandic: Snorra Edda Gylf. XIV, *Boberg, MacCulloch Eddic 264, 269—70; German: Eckart 20, 22, Pröhle Harz. No. 137 II, III, Pröhle Unterharz. 145 No. 368, Haas Greifswald. 38 No. 41, 40 No. 44.

F451.9. F451.9. Dwarfs emigrate. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 417ff., (1928) 256ff.; Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 59 Nos. 103—105.

F451.9.1. F451.9.1. Why dwarfs emigrate.

F451.9.1.1. F451.9.1.1. Dwarfs emigrate because mortals put caraway seeds into bread. German: Sieber 61.

F451.9.1.2. F451.9.1.2. Dwarfs emigrate because mortals are false. German: Pröhle Unterharz. 113 No. 298.

F451.9.1.3. F451.9.1.3. The three sevens in 1777 drive dwarfs out of the land. German: Pröhle Harz. No. 60.

- F451.9.1.4. F451.9.1.4. Dwarfs emigrate because of industrial development. German: Schöppner I 186 No. 184.
- F451.9.1.5. F451.9.1.5. Dwarfs promise to emigrate if captured dwarfs are released. German: Sieber 62.
- F451.9.1.6. F451.9.1.6. Dwarfs emigrate because Christianity offends them. (Cf. F451.5.9.) German: Haas Grimmen 46 No. 54; Icelandic: Boberg.
- F451.9.1.7. F451.9.1.7. Dwarfs emigrate because mortals tease them. (Cf. F451.3.6.2.) German: Sieber 61.
- F451.9.1.8. F451.9.1.8. Dwarfs emigrate because mortals object to their stealing. German: Pröhle Harz. No. 269.
- F451.9.1.9. F451.9.1.9. Dwarfs emigrate because they dislike peasants' dancing and loud music. German: Karstens-Goslar 103.
- F451.9.1.10. F451.9.1.10. Dwarfs emigrate because mortals curse. German: Schöppner I 186 No. 184.
- F451.9.1.11. F451.9.1.11. Dwarfs emigrate because mortals desecrate holy day. German: Schöppner I 186 No. 184.
- F451.9.1.12. F451.9.1.12. Dwarfs emigrate because of mortals' ingratitude. German: Sieber 61.
- F451.9.1.13. F451.9.1.13. Frederick the Great drove dwarfs across Black Sea. German: Sieber 61.
- F451.9.1.14. F451.9.1.14. Dwarfs forced to flee by deity. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 328.
- F451.9.1.15. F451.9.1.15. Dwarfs emigrate when their king dies. Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 59 No. 102.
- F451.9.2. F451.9.2. The destination of emigrating dwarfs.
- F451.9.2.1. F451.9.2.1. Dwarfs emigrate to unknown place. German: Karstens-Goslar 155.
- F451.9.2.2. F451.9.2.2. Dwarfs emigrate to the Orient. German: Kapff 44.
- F451.9.3. F451.9.3. Dwarfs emigrate New Year's Eve of 1800 to return New Year's Eve of 1900. German: Sieber 61.
- F451.9.4. F451.9.4. As dwarfs emigrate each deposits coin into kettle for mortals. German: Sieber 62.
- F451.9.5. F451.9.5. Emigrating dwarfs are ferried across water. (Cf. F451.5.10.6.) German: Karstens-Goslar 166.
- F451.9.6. F451.9.6. Dwarfs emigrate unseen but heard. (Cf. F455.5.1.) Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 59 No. 104; German: Sieber 62.
- F451.10. F451.10. Dwarfs and other supernatural beings.

F451.10.1. F451.10.1. Giants and heroes created for the protection and aid of dwarfs. (Cf. F451.1.3.) German: MacCulloch Eddic 265.

F451.10.2. F451.10.2. Giants and dwarfs in contest. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 53.

F451.10.2.1. F451.10.2.1. Dwarfs kill giantess by dropping millstone on her head. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 53.

F451.10.3. F451.10.3. Dwarfs in love with other supernatural beings. (Cf. F531.7.2.) Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 95, 123, 270 (Freyja); *Boberg.

F451.10.4. F451.10.4. Dwarfs make weapons and other precious objects for the gods. (Cf. F451.3.4.2.) Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 266.

F455. F455. Trolls. Sometimes underground spirits, sometimes also thought of as mountain-spirits. In many tales trolls are ogres. (Cf. G100, G400—G599.) *Fb "troid" III 852a; Scandinavian: E. Hartmann Die Trollvorstellungen in den Sagen und Märchen der skandinavischen Völker (Stuttgart, 1936); Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 285ff., Boberg; Norwegian: Solheim Register 18, 21; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 60ff.

F455.1. F455.1. Home of trolls.

F455.1.1. F455.1.1. Trolls live in howe (barrow, grave). *Fb "troid" III 852a; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F455.1.2. F455.1.2. Trolls live in cliffs. Icelandic: Boberg.

F455.2. F455.2. Appearance of trolls. (Cf. G304.1.)

F455.2.1. F455.2.1. Trolls the size of ten or twelve year old child. *Fb "troid" III 852a.

F455.2.2. F455.2.2. Trolls are usually ugly, hideous, big and strong. Icelandic: *Boberg; Norwegian: Solheim Register 18, Hartmann 48, 52, 65.

F455.2.3. F455.2.3. Trolls are black (dark). Hartmann 65; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F455.2.4. F455.2.4. Trolls dressed in skins. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F455.2.5. F455.2.5. Troll in human form. Hartmann 70.

F455.2.5.1. F455.2.5.1. Troll in human size. Hartmann 65.

F455.2.6. F455.2.6. Trolls frightful. Hartmann 52.

F455.2.7. F455.2.7. Troll with snout for nose. Hartmann 54.

F455.2.8. F455.2.8. Troll in animal form (cat, dog, pig, hen). Hartmann 67, 70.

F455.2.9. F455.2.9. Troll as whirlwind. Hartmann 73.

F455.2.10. F455.2.10. Great age of trolls. Often centuries old. Hartmann 67.

F455.3. F455.3. Characteristic activities of trolls.

F455.3.1. F455.3.1. Trolls skillful as smiths. *Fb "smed" III 402a; *Krappe

Grinkenschmied (Archiv für das Studium der neueren Sprachen und Literatur CLVIII [1930] 9—23).

F455.3.2. F455.3.2. Trolls dance. *Fb "danse" IV 93b.

F455.3.3. F455.3.3. Trolls ride.

F455.3.3.1. F455.3.3.1. Troll rides on dog. Fb "hund" I 676b.

F455.3.3.2. F455.3.3.2. Troll rides in whirlwind. (Cf. F455.2.9.) Fb "hvirvelvind" IV 232a.

F455.3.3.3. F455.3.3.3. Trolls ride on men and cattle. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F455.3.4. F455.3.4. Trolls spin and weave fine cloth. Hartmann 72.

F455.3.5. F455.3.5. Trolls bake. Hartmann 71, *Boberg DF XLVI.

F455.3.6. F455.3.6. Trolls go about at night. Hartmann 75.

F455.4. F455.4. Possessions of trolls.

F455.4.1. F455.4.1. Trolls' riches. Hartmann 70.

F455.4.1.1. F455.4.1.1. Trolls' riches inside mountain. Hartmann 70.

F455.4.2. F455.4.2. Trolls' food.

F455.4.2.1. F455.4.2.1. Trolls' food gives man supernatural strength. Hartmann 72.

F455.4.2.2. F455.4.2.2. Trolls eat from golden dishes, but food is frogs and snakes. Hartmann 70.

F455.4.2.3. F455.4.2.3. Trolls live on food humans have failed to bless. Hartmann 70.

F455.5. F455.5. Visibility of trolls. (Cf. F235.)

F455.5.1. F455.5.1. Trolls invisible but heard. (Cf. F412, F451.9.6.) Hartmann 69f.

F455.5.2. F455.5.2. Invisible troll attends wedding and eats food. Hartmann 73.

F455.5.3. F455.5.3. Trolls have cap of invisibility. (Cf. F451.3.3.8.) Hartmann 73.

F455.5.4. F455.5.4. Certain persons can see trolls. (Cf. F235.3.) Hartmann 74.

F455.5.4.1. F455.5.4.1. Animals can see trolls. (Cf. B733.) Hartmann 74.

F455.5.4.2. F455.5.4.2. Trolls visible to unconfirmed children. Hartmann 83.

F455.5.4.3. F455.5.4.3. Trolls seen through another's arm (or the like). (Cf. D1821.3.1, F235.6.) Hartmann 74.

F455.6. F455.6. Trolls and men.

F455.6.1. F455.6.1. Trolls' friendship with men. Hartmann 72.

F455.6.2. F455.6.2. Trolls' lending and borrowing. Hartmann 72.

F455.6.2.1. F455.6.2.1. Troll repays loan with costly or magic object. Hartmann 72.

F455.6.3. F455.6.3. Trolls steal from humans. Hartmann 64, 73.

F455.6.3.1. F455.6.3.1. Trolls steal fish at Christmas. Hartmann 57.

F455.6.4. F455.6.4. Theft from troll.

F455.6.4.1. F455.6.4.1. Troll's costly cup stolen. Hartmann 18, 70.

F455.6.4.2. F455.6.4.2. Troll's treasure obtained by casting steel on it. Hartmann 20.

F455.6.5. F455.6.5. Trolls visit men.

F455.6.5.1. F455.6.5.1. Trolls visit people Christmas Eve. Hartmann 53f., 75.

F455.6.6. F455.6.6. Trolls carry off people. (Cf. F320, F322.) *Hartmann 76, 86ff.; *Feilberg DF V.

F455.6.6.1. F455.6.6.1. Stolen woman saved from trolls' dance. (Cf. F322.2.) Hartmann 118ff.

F455.6.7. F455.6.7. Trolls as changelings. (Cf. F321.1.) Scandinavian: *Hartmann 76ff.; Piaschewski Der Wichsetbalg (Breslau, 1935).

F455.6.8. F455.6.8. Trolls help men.

F455.6.8.1. F455.6.8.1. Trolls help with grain harvest. Hartmann 72f.

F455.6.9. F455.6.9. Trolls as the constant enemies of humans. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F455.6.10. F455.6.10. People possessed by trolls. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F455.7. F455.7. Trolls and Christianity. (Cf. G304.2.4.1.)

F455.7.1. F455.7.1. Trolls flee before Christianity. (Cf. F382) Hartmann 69.

F455.7.2. F455.7.2. Troll helpless before sign of Cross. (Cf. D1766.1.) Hartmann 67.

F455.7.3. F455.7.3. Trolls may not utter holy names. Hartmann 70.

F455.8. F455.8. Troll killed.

F455.8.1. F455.8.1. Trolls turn to stone at sunrise. (Cf. F531.6.12.2.) Norwegian: Solheim Register 18, Hartmann 68.

F455.8.2. F455.8.2. Trolls killed by lightning. Hartmann 67.

F455.9. F455.9. Banning trolls.

F455.9.1. F455.9.1. Certain persons can ban trolls. Hartmann 74.

F455.10. F455.10. Recognizing trolls.

F455.10.1. F455.10.1. Test of troll child. Snake placed in dough she is to knead. She calls it "brother". Hartmann 81.

F455.11. F455.11. Offspring of trolls. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F456. F456. Mine spirits. Gnomes. (Cf. E336.) Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 279, 460.

F456.1. F456.1. Knockers (Tommy Knockers, spriggins).

F456.1.1. F456.1.1. Origin of knockers or spriggins.

F456.1.1.1. F456.1.1.1. Knockers as ghosts of Jews who crucified Christ and who were forced to work Cornish tin mines as punishment. England: *Baughman.

F456.1.1.2. F456.1.1.2. Knockers as ghosts of giants who formerly lived in area. England: Baughman.

F456.1.1.3. F456.1.1.3. Knockers as spirits of dead miners. U.S.: *Baughman.

F456.1.2. F456.1.2. Actions of knockers.

F456.1.2.1. F456.1.2.1. Malicious actions of knockers.

F456.1.2.1.1. F456.1.2.1.1. Knockers bring ill luck if one whistles in the mine. (Cf. G303.16.18.) England: Baughman.

F456.1.2.1.2. F456.1.2.1.2. Knockers hide tools of miners. U.S.: Baughman.

F456.1.2.1.3. F456.1.2.1.3. Knockers tamper with dynamite fuses in mine. U.S.: *Baughman.

F456.1.2.1.4. F456.1.2.1.4. Knockers kick rungs out of ladders, cutting off escape of trapped miners. U.S.: Baughman.

F456.1.2.1.5. F456.1.2.1.5. Knockers lame miners who bother them unduly. England: *Baughman.

F456.1.2.2. F456.1.2.2. Helpful actions of knockers. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

F456.1.2.2.1. F456.1.2.2.1. Knockers lead men to the richest lodes in the mines by knocking in those areas. England: *Baughman.

F456.1.2.2.2. F456.1.2.2.2. Knockers do miner's work at night while he is gone. England: Baughman.

F456.1.2.2.3. F456.1.2.2.3. Knockers test entries and supports by tapping them with hammers. U.S.: Baughman.

F456.1.2.2.4. F456.1.2.2.4. Knockers appear to miners before accidents occur: the sight of one serves as a warning to leave mine. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

F456.1.2.3. F456.1.2.3. Other actions of knockers.

F456.1.2.3.1. F456.1.2.3.1. Knockers hold midnight mass deep in mines on Christmas Eve. (Cf. E492.) England: Baughman.

F456.1.2.3.2. F456.1.2.3.2. Knockers (ghosts of Jews) are compelled to sing carols in mines at Christmastime. England: Baughman.

F456.1.2.3.3. F456.1.2.3.3. Knockers refrain from work on Saturdays and other Jewish holidays. England: Baughman.

F456.2. F456.2. Mining spirit: "Bluecap."

F456.2.1. F456.2.1. Bluecap moves coal-tubs for miners. England: *Baughman.

F456.3. F456.3. Mining spirit: "Cutty Soams".

F456.3.1. F456.3.1. "Cutty" cuts cords by which miners pull tubs full of coal. England: *Baughman.

F456.4. F456.4. Miscellaneous mine spirit motifs.

F456.4.1. F456.4.1. Fairies operate coal mine. Wales: Baughman.

F460. F460. Mountain-spirits. (Huldra.) See also F200—F399 (Fairies and Elves), F420 (Water-spirits), and F451 (Dwarfs) for many common motifs. Meyer Altgermanische 101; *Fb "vætte" III 1122b, "dværg" I 220b, "höj" I 740a, and especially "bjærgmand" I 41b, 42a; Hdwb. d. Abergl. I 1071 s.v. "Berggeist"; *Wehrhan 80; Scandinavian: Hartmann 35ff., 57, 64 ("huldra"); *Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 60ff. Nos. 513—564; Slovenian: *L. Kratzenbacher Germanische Mythen in der epischen Volksdichtung der Slowenen (Graz, 1941) 28—35; India: Thompson-Balys.

F460.0.1. F460.0.1. Mountain spirits as souls of dead. Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 76.

F460.1. F460.1. Appearance of mountain men.

F460.1.1. F460.1.1. Mountain-man in animal shape. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 60 No. 517.

F460.1.1.1. F460.1.1.1. Mountain-man in shape of hog. Fb "svin" III 676a.

F460.1.2. F460.1.2. Mountain-wife has breasts so long that she throws them over her shoulder. (Cf. F232.2, F441.2.1.2, F531.1.5.1, G123.) Fb "patte" II 791b; Scandinavian: Hartmann 38.

F460.1.3. F460.1.3. Mountain-man carries shears at side like sword. Fb "saks" III 143a.

F460.1.4. F460.1.4. Dress of mountain-men. *Fb "bjærgmand" IV 41b.

F460.1.4.1. F460.1.4.1. Mountain-men in white caps. Fb "hvid" I 700b.

F460.1.4.2. F460.1.4.2. Mountain-men in red caps. (Cf. F236.3.2., F451.2.7.1.) Fb "lue" II 455.

F460.1.4.3. F460.1.4.3. Huldra-woman's cap. Norwegian: Solheim Register 19.

F460.1.5. F460.1.5. Huldra-women have cow's tails. (Cf. F232.8, F518, F531.1.6.14.) Norwegian: Hartmann 37.

- F460.1.6. F460.1.6. Huldra-men with long teeth and nose. Norwegian: Hartmann 37.
- F460.1.7. F460.1.7. Huldra invisible. Hartmann 37.
- F460.2. F460.2. Characteristics of mountain-men.
- F460.2.1. F460.2.1. Mountain-folk afraid of thunder. Fb "torden" III 824b.
- F460.2.2. F460.2.2. Mountain-folk ride through air on horses. Fb "luftrejse" II 457a.
- F460.2.3. F460.2.3. Mountain-men cannot enter house till light is quenched. Fb "lys" II 480b.
- F460.2.4. F460.2.4. Mountain-man has stack of butter before his door. Fb "smör" III 413b.
- F460.2.5. F460.2.5. Huldra have lake. Norwegian: Solheim Register 19.
- F460.2.6. F460.2.6. Huldra live like people. Have own churches, king, soldiers, etc. Hartmann 37.
- F460.2.8. F460.2.8. Huldra have drum. Norwegian: Solheim Register 19.
- F460.2.9. F460.2.9. Huldra have cattle. (Cf. F241.2.) Norwegian: Solheim Register 19.
- F460.2.10. F460.2.10. Huldra have drinking-horn. Norwegian: Solheim Register 19.
- F460.2.11. F460.2.11. Huldra tend herds in mountains. Hartmann 35.
- F460.2.12. F460.2.12. Mountain-man must die six times to be dead. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen II 273.
- F460.2.13. F460.2.13. Huldra sing songs. Norwegian: Hartmann 35, 37.
- F460.2.14. F460.2.14. Mountain spirits eat raw food. Mono-Alu: Wheeler 6f., 18, 19, 32, 34, 39, 41, 42, 46, 49, 51, 52, 60, 61, 188.
- F460.2.15. F460.2.15. Mountain spirits change sex at will. (Cf. D10.) Buin: Wheeler 19, 51.
- F460.3. F460.3. Amusements of mountain-folk.
- F460.3.1. F460.3.1. Mountain-folk dance. *Fb "danse" IV 93a; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 302 No. 2.
- F460.3.2. F460.3.2. Mountain-men play games. Hartland Science 166ff., 178; cf. Irving's Rip Van Winkle.
- F460.4. F460.4. Relation of mountain-men and human beings.
- F460.4.1. F460.4.1. Mountain-girl marries mortal man. Supernaturally strong man as offspring. Fb "döjs" I 229b; Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1928) 282—283.
- F460.4.1.1. F460.4.1.1. Mountain-men as lovers of herding-girls. Norwegian: Hartman 37.

F460.4.1.2. F460.4.1.2. Mountain woman has sex relations with man. Norwegian: Hartmann 104ff.; Solheim Register 19.

F460.4.1.2.1. F460.4.1.2.1. Child from dreamed sex relations with mountain-woman. Hartmann 121 (cf. Ibsen's Peer Gynt).

F460.4.2. F460.4.2. Helpful mountain-men. Norwegian: Hartmann 35.

F460.4.2.1. F460.4.2.1. Mountain-spirits help build palace. Chinese: Werner 181.

F460.4.2.2. F460.4.2.2. Money left on hill to repay helpful mountain-men. *Fb "penge" II 803a.

F460.4.2.3. F460.4.2.3. Mountain-spirit teaches hero swordsmanship. Japanese: Anesaki 309.

F460.4.2.4. F460.4.2.4. Mountain-men give children a book. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 60 No. 514.

F460.4.2.5. F460.4.2.5. Huldra trade cattle with men. Norwegian: Hartmann 35.

F460.4.3. F460.4.3. Mountain-men leave broken implement for man to mend. Fb "ovnrage" II 775b; Norse: MacCulloch Eddic 271.

F460.4.4. F460.4.4. Malevolent mountain-men.

F460.4.4.1. F460.4.4.1. Mountain-men abduct persons. *Fb "karet" II 91; Icelandic: *Boberg; Norwegian: Solheim Register 19, *Hartmann 109, 112; Chinese: Werner 345; Japanese: Ikeda; Mono-Alu: Wheeler 39; New Hebrides: Codrington 409.

F460.4.4.1.1. F460.4.4.1.1. Woman rescued from mountain-men. Norwegian: Solheim Register 19, *Hartmann 117.

F460.4.4.2. F460.4.4.2. Mountain-men chain captive peasant. Fb "lænke" II 497.

F460.4.4.3. F460.4.4.3. Mountain-men throw person over church roof. Fb "kaste" II 103.

F460.4.4.4. F460.4.4.4. Mountain-men make sausage of Christians. Fb "pölse" II 907.

F460.4.4.5. F460.4.4.5. Mountain-folk steal from peasant. Fb "lys" II 480b.

F460.4.4.6. F460.4.4.6. Mountain-men drive off man's herds. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 301f. Nos. 12, 18.

F460.4.4.7. F460.4.4.7. Mountain-spirit causes shipwreck. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 138.

F460.4.5. F460.4.5. Mountain-men borrow from peasant. Fb "lene" II 521.

F460.4.6. F460.4.6. Failure to bless mountains gives mountain-men power. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 301 No. 18; Icelandic: Boberg.

F460.4.7. F460.4.7. Mountain-man as godfather. Type 1165; Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 441ff., (1928) 264ff.

F460.4.8. F460.4.8. Visit to mountain-men. Norwegian: Solheim Register 18.

F465. F465. Rübezahl. A mountain and storm spirit. *Wehrhan 68; Jungbauer Die Rübezahlsage (Reichenberg, 1923); Koch Rübezahl (Breslau, n.d.); Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XXXV—XXXVI 68; *Loewe Zs. f. Vksk. XVIII 1, 151, XXI 31, 126.

F470. F470. Night-spirits. Poltergeister; goblins; hobgoblins. *Kittredge Witchcraft 214, 521f. nn. 7, 9ff.; Icelandic: *Boberg; Finnish-Swedish: *Wessman 30ff.; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 305 No. 4.

F470.0.1. F470.0.1. Friar Rush as mischief maker. *Kittredge Witchcraft 216, 524 nn. 27—31.

F470.1. F470.1. Spirits pull off person's bedclothes. *Kittredge Witchcraft 217, 524f. nn. 37—44; England, Scotland, Wales, U.S.: *Baughman.

F470.2. F470.2. Night-spirits dance. Fb "danse" IV 93a.

F471. F471. Dream demons.

F471.1. F471.1. Nightmare (Alp). Presses person in dream. E. Jones Der Alptraum (Leipzig-Wien, 1912); *Tegethoff Amor und Psyche 87ff.; Hdwb. d. Abergl. 1 282 s.v. "Alp"; Laistner Rätsel I 41ff., II 1ff.; Wehrhan 62; Hdwb. d. March. s.v. "Alp"; *Meyer Germanen 129ff.; Jellinek Zs. f. Vksk. XIV 322; *Fb "mare" II 551f.; *Kittredge Witchcraft 218, 525f. nn. 54—62.—Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 288ff., De la Saussaye 293f., *Boberg; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1893) 241ff., (1928) 154ff.; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 88 Nos. 748—770; Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 63 No. 171; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 44 No. 60; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 127 No. 60; Jewish: Neuman; Hindu: Penzer III 131 n. 3.

F471.1.1. F471.1.1. Actions of nightmares (alps). Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3690.

F471.1.1.1. F471.1.1.1. Alp rides horse sweaty at night. *Fb "mare" II 551b, 552a; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 44 No. 60; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 127 No. 60; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos. 3683f.

F471.1.1.2. F471.1.1.2. Alps dance. *Fb "danse" IV 93a.

F471.1.2. F471.1.2. Protection against the nightmare (alp). *Fb "mare" II 551.

F471.1.2.1. F471.1.2.1. Exorcising the nightmare. Meyer Germanen 132.

F471.1.2.2. F471.1.2.2. Destruction of an alp. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 309 No. 11.

F471.1.3. F471.1.3. Unbaptized children as nightmares. When caught, they beg baptism. Usually they are murdered illegitimates. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3685.

F471.1.4. F471.1.4. Ghost of hunter as nightmare. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3686.

F471.1.5. F471.1.5. Persons who at night become nightmares. Those who are born on a Thursday and christened on a Sunday must at certain times (on Thursdays) press somebody or something. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3687; Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 67 No. 183.

F471.2. F471.2. Incubus. A male demon who comes in sleep and has sexual intercourse with a woman. *Kittredge Witchcraft 116, 444ff. nn. 103—155 passim; *Loomis White Magic 77; Irish myth: Cross; Welsh: ibid.; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 44 No. 59; Germanic: De la Saussaye 293f.; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 126 No. 59; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3682; S. A. Indian (Araucanian): Alexander Lat. Am. 328; Africa (Fang): Einstein 175.

F471.2.0.1. F471.2.0.1. Demon lover. Irish myth: *Cross.

F471.2.1. F471.2.1. Succubus: female incubus. *Loomis White Magic 77; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos. *369, *423f., 3681; Armenian: Ananikian 87; West Indies: Flowers 433.

F472. F472. Huckauf. A goblin which jumps on one's back. *Kittredge Witchcraft 220f., 528f. nn. 78—79; Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 68 No. 291; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3425, Legends Nos. 827—832.

F473. F473. Poltergeist. Invisible spirit (sometimes identified as ghost or witch) responsible for all sorts of mischief in or around a household.

F473.1. F473.1. Poltergeist throws objects. England, Scotland, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

F473.2. F473.2. Poltergeist causes objects to behave contrary to their nature.

F473.2.1. F473.2.1. Chair is rocked by invisible spirit. (Cf. D1601.28.) U.S.: Baughman, (North Carolina): Brown Collection I 640.

F473.2.2. F473.2.2. Spirit hides articles in strange places. Canada, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

F473.2.3. F473.2.3. Spirit puts out lights. U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

F473.2.4. F473.2.4. House burns for no apparent reason. U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

F473.3. F473.3. Poltergeist mistreats people. England, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

F473.4. F473.4. Poltergeist mistreats animals. U.S.: *Baughman.

F473.4.1. F473.4.1. Spirit rides horses and mules at night, wears them out. (Cf. F366.2, F471.1.1.1, G265.3.) U.S.: Baughman.

F473.5. F473.5. Poltergeist makes noises. England, Scotland, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

F473.6. F473.6. Miscellaneous actions of poltergeist.

F473.6.1. F473.6.1. Spirit tears new paper off rooms in house. England: Baughman.

F473.6.2. F473.6.2. Spirit slashes clothing. Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.

F473.6.3. F473.6.3. Spirit takes food from table or cupboard. England, Wales: *Baughman.

F473.6.4. F473.6.4. Spirit eats food. U.S.: Baughman.

F473.6.5. F473.6.5. Spirit throws back shots fired at it. (Cf. G265.8.3.1.2.) U.S.: Baughman.

F473.6.6. F473.6.6. Spirit makes wheels come off wagon. U.S.: Baughman.

F473.6.7. F473.6.7. Spirit shoves wagon into ditch. U.S.: Baughman.

F473.6.8. F473.6.8. Spirit plays man's fiddle at night. Wales: Baughman.

F473.6.9. F473.6.9. Spirit disturbs coffins in burial vault. England: *Baughman.

F475. F475. Friendly night-spirits.

F475.1. F475.1. Dame Berchta. Supposed to travel over the country at night with a troop. (Named from Bertha, the mother of Charlemagne.) Also called Frau Holle. *Meyer Germanen 23ff.; *Wehrhan 85f.; Slovenian: *L. Kretzenbacher Germanische Mythen in der epischen Volksdichtung der Slowenen (Graz, 1941) 84—94.

F480. F480. House-spirits. *Kittredge Witchcraft 215f., 523f.; Meyer Germanen 213ff.; Meyer Altgermanische 109.—Icelandic: Boberg; Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 159ff.; *Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 30ff. Nos. 263—374 passim, 42 Nos. 337, 339; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 324 No. 153; Slovenian: *L. Kretzenbacher Germanische Mythen in der epischen Volksdichtung der Slowenen (Graz, 1941) 49—79; Eskimo: Boas BAM XV 331, RBAE VI 636.

F480.1. F480.1. House-spirit in form of a sow. Kittredge Witchcraft 216, 524 n.

F480.2. F480.2. Serpent as house-spirit. Armenian: Ananikian 73ff.

F480.3. F480.3. Thieving household-spirit. Steals things for its master. Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 172; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos. 3468, 3472.

F480.3.1. F480.3.1. House to make household-spirit (cobold) surrender his booty. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3476.

F480.4. F480.4. House-spirit in form of baby. India: Thompson-Balys.

F480.5. F480.5. House-spirit without bones or hair. Eskimo (Central): Boas RBAE VI 636.

F481. F481. Cobold. A house-spirit. Feilberg Der Kobold in nordischer überlieferung (Zs. f. Vksk. VIII 1, 130, 264); *Kittredge Witchcraft 215f., 523f. nn. 23, 25.—Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1893) 41ff., (1928) 29ff.; Estonian: L. v. Schroeder Germanische Elben und Götter beim Estenvolke (Wien 1906), Loorits Grundzüge I 266—281, 295—304.

F481.0.1. F481.0.1. Acquiring a cobold. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3466.

F481.0.1.1. F481.0.1.1. Cobold hatched out from a seven-year-old cock's egg or a boar's testicle. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3461; Rumanian: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII No. 213 I*.

F481.0.1.2. F481.0.1.2. Cobold purchased. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3462f.; Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI 62 No. 159.

F481.0.1.2.1. F481.0.1.2.1. The purchased cobold discarded. On way home man believes himself cheated, and throws box with fly or piece of charcoal away. Later passing same place he finds a heap of corn or money. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3463; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 125 No. 55.

F481.0.1.3. F481.0.1.3. Cobold acquired by placing food for him in a certain place. He likes scrambled eggs. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3466.

F481.0.1.4. F481.0.1.4. Cobold accidentally acquired. A rope or chicken is found and taken home. Found to be a cobold. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3464.

F481.1. F481.1. Cobold avenges uncivil answer (or treatment). Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 43 Nos. 53, 54; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3477; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 124f. Nos. 53, 54.

F481.2. F481.2. Cobolds furnish supplies to their masters. Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 43 No. 54; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 125 No. 55; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3471.

F481.2.1. F481.2.1. Cobold furnishes inexhaustible grain to grinder of handmill. Latter kills him in disgust. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3478.

F481.2.2. F481.2.2. House-spirit furnishes inexhaustible supply of food. India: Thompson-Balys.

F481.3. F481.3. Impossible to rid oneself of cobold. (Cf. F482.3.1.) *Taylor MPh XV 736 n. 2; *BP II 422 n. 1; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3467.

F481.4. F481.4. Brewing in eggshell to drive away cobold. (Cf. F321.1.1.1, F451.5.17.1.) *BP 368; Keightley 126, 418, 436, 473; Germania V 376; Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 314—24 Nos. 1049—1075; Jahn 72 No. 87; Euphorion III 784; Zs. f. Vksk. XVI 414; Zs. f. deutsche Mythol. I (1853) 290.

F482. F482. Brownie (nisse). Feilberg Nissens Historie; *Fb "nisse" II 688; Norwegian: *Solheim Register 19; *Hartmann 28.

F482.1. F482.1. Appearance of brownie.

F482.1.1. F482.1.1. Brownie with red hair. *Fb "nisse" II 688a.

F482.2. F482.2. Clothing of brownie. Scandinavian: Hartmann 28.

F482.2.1. F482.2.1. Brownie dressed in green. Fb "nisse" II 688a.

F482.3. F482.3. Home of brownies.

F482.3.1. F482.3.1. Brownies live in house. Move when persons move. (Cf. F481.3.) Fb "nisse" II 688b.

F482.3.1.1. F482.3.1.1. Farmer is so bothered by brownie that he decides he must move to get rid of the annoyance. He piles all furniture on wagon and starts for new home, meets acquaintance who remarks: "I see you're flitting." Brownie sticks his head out of the churn on top of the load, answers: "Yes, we're flitting." Farmer goes back to former home. England, Ireland, Wales: *Baughman.

F482.3.2. F482.3.2. Brownies live in knoll. *Fb "høj" I 740a.

F482.3.3. F482.3.3. Nisser belong to particular farm. Norwegian: Solheim Register 19.

F482.4. F482.4. Possessions of brownies.

F482.4.1. F482.4.1. Various-colored horses of brownie. *Fb "hest" I 598.

F482.4.2. F482.4.2. Nisser have oxen. Norwegian: Solheim Register 19.

F482.5. F482.5. Deeds of brownies.

F482.5.1. F482.5.1. Brownies dance. (Cf. F471.1.1.2. and cross-references there given.) *Fb "danse" IV 93a.

F482.5.2. F482.5.2. Brownies sew by moonlight. Fb "mene" II 659b.

F482.5.3. F482.5.3. Brownies tease. Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1893) 80ff., (1928) 61ff.

F482.5.4. F482.5.4. Helpful deeds of brownie or other household spirit. (Cf. F403.2.) England, Scotland: *Baughman.

F482.5.4.1. F482.5.4.1. Brownie rides for midwife when needed. England, Scotland: *Baughman.

F482.5.4.2. F482.5.4.2. Brownie restores stolen property, gives thief a twitch in eyelid. England: Baughman.

F482.5.5. F482.5.5. Malicious or troublesome actions of brownies. England, Scotland, Wales: *Baughman.

F482.6. F482.6. Origin of household spirits. England: *Baughman.

F482.7. F482.7. House spirits fight each other. Norwegian: Solheim Register 19.

F482.8. F482.8. House spirit as suitor. (Cf. F301.) Norwegian: Solheim Register 19.

F485. F485. Ship-spirit. (Klabautermann, Kabonterken.) Similar to house-spirit. Meyer Altgermanische 110; Zs. f. Vksk. II 409, 416, IV 299f., VIII 14 n. 4, 277, XXI 178, XXIX 68; Anglia Beiblatt VI 144, XVII 73; Frischbier Am Urquell I 134; Mitteilungen d. Schles. Ges. f. Vksk. Heft XII 76; Basset Legends and Superstitions of the Sea (New York, 1885).—Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 32 No. 273, 35 Nos. 295—296, 37, 41; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn II (1893) 44ff., (1928) 32ff.

F488. F488. The stupid house spirit.

F488.1. F488.1. Household spirit herds sheep, has great trouble coralling the lambs (rabbits). (Cf. J1757.) England: *Baughman.

F488.2. F488.2. Mowing contest with household spirit. Farmer puts harrow teeth in plot spirit is to mow. Spirit mows through them, thinking they are dock weeds. Type 1090 (K42.2). England: Baughman.

F490. F490. Other spirits and demons.

F491. F491. Will-o'-the-Wisp. (Jack o' Lantern.) Light seen over marshy places.

Kittredge Witchcraft 215, 523 n. 22; *Fb "lygtemand" II 473; Icelandic: Boberg; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 51 No. 438; Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 63f.; India: Thompson-Balys; U.S. (Georgia): Harris Nights No. 28; Africa (Fang): Einstein 96.

F491.1. F491.1. Will-o'-the-Wisp leads people astray. *Fb "lygtemand" II 473b; England, Scotland, U.S.: Baughman.

F491.2. F491.2. Will-o'-the-Wisp lights people to their homes. *Fb "lygtemand" II 473b.—England: Baughman.

F491.3. F491.3. Will-o'-the-Wisp exorcised. *Fb "lygtemand" II 473b; England, U.S.: Baughman.

F491.3.1. F491.3.1. Person led astray by Will-o'-the-Wisp turns garment inside out. Will-o'-the-Wisp exorcised. (Cf. F369.7, F385.1.) England: *Baughman.

F491.3.2. F491.3.2. Power of Will-o'-the-Wisp over person neutralized if person sticks his knife into the ground. England: *Baughman.

F491.3.3. F491.3.3. Steel protects person from Will-o'-the-Wisp. U.S.: Baughman.

F491.4. F491.4. Will-o'-the-Wisp hops about. *Fb "lygtemand" II 473b.

F491.5. F491.5. Will-o'-the-Wisp's revenge. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3538.

F492. F492. Death on horseback. Fb "hvid" I 700b; von Negelein Zs. f. Vks. XIII 257ff., 368ff.; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "mort". Cf. the "four horsemen" in Revelation.

F493. F493. Spirit of plague. Irish myth: *Cross; Dutch: Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 67f. Nos. 251—283; India: Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian (Yukon): Alexander N. A. Myth. 78.

F493.0.1. F493.0.1. Pestilence in animal form. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 28 Nos. 244—245.

F493.0.1.1. F493.0.1.1. Plague as monster. Irish myth: Cross.

F493.0.1.2. F493.0.1.2. Spirit enters princess' body and she falls ill. India: Thompson-Balys.

F493.0.2. F493.0.2. Pestilence in human form. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 28f. Nos. 246—252; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3494.

F493.0.3. F493.0.3. Pestilence in form of object. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 29 No. 254.

F493.0.3.1. F493.0.3.1. Pestilence in form of a head. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 29 No. 253.

F493.0.4. F493.0.4. Pestilence in visible form. Irish myth: *Cross.

F493.1. F493.1. Spirits of various kinds of disease. India: Thompson-Balys.

F493.1.1. F493.1.1. Demon of Consumption. N. A. Indian (Cherokee): Terrell JAFL V 125.

F493.1.2. F493.1.2. Demon of colic. Irish myth: Cross (F497).

F493.2. F493.2. Experiences with pestilence spirit.

F493.2.1. F493.2.1. Person who speaks with pestilence dies. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 29 No. 256.

F493.2.2. F493.2.2. Two pestilence spirits speak together. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 29 No. 255.

F493.3. F493.3. Protection against pestilence spirit.

F493.3.1. F493.3.1. Upon destruction of pestilence-spirit, plague ceases. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 29 No. 259.

F493.3.2. F493.3.2. Pestilence-spirit "bound" by magic. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 29 No. 258.

F493.3.3. F493.3.3. Magic protection against pestilence-spirit. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 29 No. 257.

F493.4. F493.4. Demons spread pestilence by means of "heat and fury". Irish myth: Cross.

F493.5. F493.5. Sign of great plague: sky seems afire. Irish myth: Cross.

F494. F494. Land-spirits.

F494.1. F494.1. Guardian spirit of land. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 228, Herrmann Saxo II 22ff., *Boberg; Danish: Ellekilde Ellekongen i Stevns, Danske Studier 1929, 10ff.

F494.1.1. F494.1.1. Swamp spirit guards buried treasure. India: Thompson-Balys.

F494.2. F494.2. Spirit of boundaries. Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 173.

F494.3. F494.3. Earth spirit. India: Thompson-Balys.

F495. F495. Stone-spirit. Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas II 205; India: Thompson-Balys.

F496. F496. Demon of gluttony. Irish myth: *Cross.

F496.1. F496.1. Saint possessed by demon of gluttony. Irish myth: *Cross.

F497. F497. Fire-spirits. Dutch: *Sinninghe FFC CXXXII 64ff Nos. 191—220; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 111, III 64, 88, 176—178.

F497.1. F497.1. Conversation of two fire-spirits. Shall house be burned? *O. Loortis Das misshandelte und sich rächend Feuer (Tartu, 1935).

F499. F499. Sundry other spirits.

F499.1. F499.1. Sky-spirit. German: Grimm No. 166; India: Thompson-Balys; S. A.

Indian (Warrau): Kirchoff BBAE CXLIII (3) 880.

F499.1.1. F499.1.1. Spirit of light. Eskimo (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 62.

F499.2. F499.2. Nymphs of Paradise (houris). India: Thompson-Balys.

F499.3. F499.3. Jinns.

F499.3.1. F499.3.1. Jinns have no bones in their arms: they have only four fingers and no thumbs. India: Thompson-Balys.

F499.3.2. F499.3.2. Jinns entitled to share in fruits of the earth. India: Thompson-Balys.

F499.3.3. F499.3.3. Jinns frequent graveyards, ruined houses, or an altar of sacrifice. India: Thompson-Balys.

F500—F599.

F500—F599. Remarkable persons.

F500. F500. Remarkable persons. Extraordinary size, form, appearance, or habits. DeCock Volkssage 99ff.; Chinese: Werner 386.

F501. F501. Person consisting only of head. (Cf. F511.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F510. F510. Monstrous persons. *Oesterley Gesta Romanorum No. 175; Icelandic: Boberg; Jewish: Neuman; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 464, 469.

F510.1. F510.1. Monstrous races. India: Thompson-Balys.

F511. F511. Person unusual as to his head. (Cf. F501.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F511.0.1. F511.0.1. Headless person. (Cf. F401.4, F531.1.2.1.) *Chauvin VII 77 No. 121; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F511.0.1.1. F511.0.1.1. Headless person with eyes (eye) and mouth on breast. *Chauvin VII 87 No. 373 bis n. 2; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg. Chinese: Werner 387.

F511.0.1.2. F511.0.1.2. Headless persons cannot smell or hear. Chinese: Werner 387.

F511.0.2. F511.0.2. Person with more than one head.

F511.0.2.1. F511.0.2.1. Two-headed person. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman N. A. Indian (Quinault): Farrand JE II 124 No. 14.

F511.0.2.2. F511.0.2.2. Three-headed person. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F511.0.2.2.1. F511.0.2.2.1. Three-headed woman. Irish myth: *Cross.

F511.0.2.3. F511.0.2.3. Four-headed person. Irish myth: *Cross.

F511.0.2.4. F511.0.2.4. Six-headed man. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F511.0.3. F511.0.3. Persons whose heads are stone-hammers. Koryak and American Indian: *Jochelson JE VI 375.

F511.0.3.1. F511.0.3.1. Person with iron head. Jewish: Neuman.

F511.0.4. F511.0.4. Man carries his head under his arm. Loomis White Magic 54, 93, 125; Irish myth: *Cross; Italian Novella: Rotunda (F1041.14); Africa (Kaffir): Theal 51.

F511.0.4.1. F511.0.4.1. Man cuts off own head and throws it against enemy. India: Thompson-Balys.

F511.0.5. F511.0.5. Man with half a head. Irish myth: *Cross.

F511.0.6. F511.0.6. Beheaded man's head replaced crooked. Irish myth: *Cross.

F511.0.7. F511.0.7. Man with venomous worm in his head. Irish myth: Cross.

F511.0.8. F511.0.8. Gigantic skull of ancient king discovered. Irish myth: Cross.

F511.0.9. F511.0.9. Person with animal's head. (Cf. F511.1.3, F526.)

F511.0.9.1. F511.0.9.1. Person with horse's head. India: Thompson-Balys.

F511.0.9.2. F511.0.9.2. Person with calf's head. Jewish: Neuman.

F511.0.9.3. F511.0.9.3. Person with serpent's head. Jewish: Neuman.

F511.1. F511.1. Person unusual as to his face.

F511.1.0.1. F511.1.0.1. Person without features (with flat face). Irish myth: *Cross.

F511.1.1. F511.1.1. Two-faced person. Janus. Roman: Fox 297; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 49 No. 327F*; N. A. Indian (Teton): Dorsey AA o.s. II 151ff., (Ponka): Dorsey Contr. to N. Am. Ethnology VI 207; Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 85.

F511.1.2. F511.1.2. Three-faced person. Irish myth: Cross.

F511.1.3. F511.1.3. Person with animal face. Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

F511.1.3.1. F511.1.3.1. Person with face of ape. Jewish: Neuman.

F511.1.4. F511.1.4. Person with green face. Jewish: Neuman.

F511.2. F511.2. Person unusual as to his ears. (Cf. F542.)

F511.2.1. F511.2.1. Person with ears on breast. Persian: Carnoy 298.

F511.2.2. F511.2.2. Person with ass's (horse's) ears. Midas. Köhler-Bolte I 383 n. 1, 511, 587; RTP I 327, VII 356; *Zs. d. deutschen morgenländ. Gesel. XL 549; Crooke FL XXII 183; *BP IV 147 n. 7 (Celtic); *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 397; Huet 45; Penzer III 188 n., VII n. 1, VI 26 n. 1; Irish myth: *Cross, *Porter Proc. Royal Irish Academy (1932) 142.

F511.2.2.1. F511.2.2.1. Person with cat's ears. Irish myth: *Cross.

F511.2.3. F511.2.3. Person with many ears. Irish myth: Cross.

F511.2.4. F511.2.4. Person without ears. India: Thompson-Balys.

F511.3. F511.3. Person with horns. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F511.3.1. F511.3.1. Person with horns of silver. Irish myth: *Cross.

F512. F512. Person unusual as to his eyes. (Cf. F531.1.1, F541.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F512.1. F512.1. Person with one eye. *Type 511; Herbert III 238; Oesterley No. 175; Laistner Rätsel II 48ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 206 No. 154.

F512.1.1. F512.1.1. Person with one eye in center of forehead. (Cf. F441.4.1, F531.1.1.1.) *Krappe Balor 5 n. 19, 9 nn. 33—35; Fb "menneske" II 577b, "öje" III 1165b; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 4 n. 1; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Werner 389.

F512.1.2. F512.1.2. Three women have but one eye among them. Pass it around. (Cf. F513.1.1.) *Fb "öje" III 1166a; Greek: Fox 33, *Frazer Apollodorus I 155 n. 4.

F512.1.3. F512.1.3. Person with one eye in back of head. Krappe Balor 7 n. 22.

F512.1.4. F512.1.4. Doorkeeper with one human eye, one cat's eye. Irish myth: Cross.

F512.2. F512.2. Person with many eyes.

F512.2.1. F512.2.1. Persons (animals) with four (six) eyes. *Chauvin VII 82 No. 373bis; Krappe Balor 19 n. 69.

F512.2.1.1. F512.2.1.1. Three-eyed person. *Type 511; Cosquin Contes Indiens 520; Jacob's list s.v. "Three-eyed stepsister"; India: Thompson-Balys.

F512.2.1.2. F512.2.1.2. Eight-eyed person. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 233; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G. 3/15).

F512.2.1.3. F512.2.1.3. Person with twelve eyes. Irish myth: Cross.

F512.2.2. F512.2.2. Argos. Has eyes all over body. Krappe Balor 19 n. 69; Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus I 130 n. 3, Fox 29, 193.

F512.3. F512.3. Person with eyes in stomach. (Cf. F511.0.1.1.) *De Cock Volkssage 102ff.; *Chauvin VI 66 No. 233; Persian: Carnoy 298.

F512.4. F512.4. Person with eyes in back of head. Krappe Balor 19 n. 69; S. A. Indian (Fuegian): Alexander Lat. Am. 340, (Yuracare): ibid. 314.

F512.5. F512.5. Person without eyes. India: Thompson-Balys.

F513. F513. Person unusual as to his mouth. (Cf. F544.)

F513.0.1. F513.0.1. Person with mouth in stomach. (Cf. F511.0.1.1.) *Chauvin VII 87 No. 373bis n. 2.

F513.0.2. F513.0.2. Person with mouths all over body. Africa (Hausa): Tremearne

Hausa Superstitions (London, 1913) 424ff. No. 93.

F513.0.3. F513.0.3. Mouthless people. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 78.

F513.0.4. F513.0.4. Person with mouth in breast. Irish myth: *Cross.

F513.1. F513.1. Person unusual as to his teeth. (Cf. F544.3, F531.1.6.2.)

F513.1.1. F513.1.1. Three women have but one tooth among them. Pass it around. (Cf. F512.1.2.) *Fb "øje" III 1166a; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 155 n. 4, Fox 33.

F513.1.2. F513.1.2. Person with many teeth.

F513.1.2.1. F513.1.2.1. Person with three rows of teeth. Irish myth: *Cross.

F513.1.3. F513.1.3. Person with poisonous tooth. Poison dissolves flesh. Irish myth: Cross.

F513.1.4. F513.1.4. Person without teeth. India: Thompson-Balys.

F513.2. F513.2. Person without tongue. India: Thompson-Balys.

F513.3. F513.3. People who leave lower jaws at home when they go to market to prevent quarrels. Africa: Weeks 126ff.

F514. F514. Person unusual as to his nose. (Cf. F531.1.6.6, F543).

F514.1. F514.1. Noseless person. Herbert III 238; Oesterley No. 175; Tobler 63; Jewish: Neuman.

F514.2. F514.2. Men with birds' beaks. DeCock Volkssage 105; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 599, Boberg.

F514.3. F514.3. Person with cat's snout. (Cf. F511.2.2.1.) Irish myth: Cross.

F514.4. F514.4. Person with crook(s) on end of the nose. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F514.5. F514.5. Person grows a second nose. German: Grimm No. 201.

F515. F515. Person unusual as to his hands. (Cf. F552.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F515.0.1. F515.0.1. Person without hands. Siuts 218.

F515.0.2. F515.0.2. Persons with many hands.

F515.0.2.1. F515.0.2.1. Hundred-handed giants. Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus I 3 n. 2.

F515.1. F515.1. Person with unusual fingers.

F515.1.1. F515.1.1. Person's fingers not separated from one another. Jewish: Neuman.

F515.2. F515.2. Person with unusual fingernails.

F515.2.1. F515.2.1. Fingernail that can conceal basin-load of food. India: Thompson-Balys.

F515.2.2. F515.2.2. Person with very long fingernails. Eskimo (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 170.

F515.3. F515.3. Men with tails on their hands. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 79.

F515.4. F515.4. Boy with seal flippers. Eskimo (Kodiak): Golder JAFI XXII 20.

F515.5. F515.5. Tribe of left-handed people. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 99.

F516. F516. Person unusual as to his arms. Irish myth: *Cross.

F516.1. F516.1. Armless people. Chinese: Werner 388.

F516.1.1. F516.1.1. Armless people have legs growing from their shoulders. Use toes in place of fingers. Chinese: Werner 388.

F516.2. F516.2. People with many arms. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F516.2.1. F516.2.1. Six-armed earthborn men. Greek: Fox 110.

F516.2.2. F516.2.2. People with four arms. Jewish: Neuman.

F516.2.3. F516.2.3. Man with a thousand arms. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 39.

F516.3. F516.3. Long-armed people. Irish myth: *Cross; Chinese: Werner 388f.

F516.4. F516.4. Man with elastic reach. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 263.

F517. F517. Person unusual as to his legs. Irish myth: Cross.

F517.0.1. F517.0.1. Person with one leg. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Persian: Carnoy 298.

F517.0.2. F517.0.2. Long-legged people. Chinese: Werner 388f.

F517.0.2.1. F517.0.2.1. Man with legs so long he can steady boat as he stands in ocean. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 354.

F517.1. F517.1. Person unusual as to his feet. (Cf. F551.)

F517.1.1. F517.1.1. Person without feet. (Cf. F167.7.) Siuts 218.

F517.1.1.1. F517.1.1.1. Person with one foot. Irish myth: *Cross.

F517.1.2. F517.1.2. Person with many feet.

F517.1.2.1. F517.1.2.1. Four-footed man. Sikes FL XX 421.—India: Thompson-Balys.

F517.1.3. F517.1.3. Men with sponge-feet. *Chauvin VII 24 No. 373E n. 1.

F517.1.4. F517.1.4. Person with claws on the feet. Icelandic: Boberg.

F517.1.5. F517.1.5. Person with knees backwards. Irish myth: *Cross.

F517.1.5.1. F517.1.5.1. Men whose feet turn backward so that they will not stub toes. Africa: Weeks Jungle 126ff.

F517.1.6. F517.1.6. Person with horse's hoofs. India: Thompson-Balys.

F517.1.7. F517.1.7. Person with feet like elephant's. India: Thompson-Balys.

F517.1.8. F517.1.8. Soles of man's feet covered with hair. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 789.

F518. F518. Persons with tails. Chauvin V 7 No. 3.—Persian: Carnoy 298.

F521. F521. Person with unusual covering. India: Thompson-Balys.

F521.1. F521.1. Man covered with hair like animal. *Williams 17ff.; Gaster Oldest Stories 43; Irish myth: *Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 189; India: Thompson-Balys; Persian: Carnoy 298.

F521.1.1. F521.1.1. Woman with animal hair. Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 189 No. 130; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 213.

F521.2. F521.2. Feathered people. Irish myth: *Cross; Chinese: Werner 390; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G 3/1353, z-G 13/380); Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 109.

F521.3. F521.3. Men of metal.

F521.3.1. F521.3.1. Man of bronze. (Talos). Has single vein from neck to ankle and bronze nail at end of vein. This is the only vulnerable spot. Frazer Apollodorus I 118 n. 1.

F521.3.2. F521.3.2. Man of iron. India: Thompson-Balys.

F521.3.3. F521.3.3. Person with body of gold. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 214, 468, 742, 761, 1293; India: Thompson-Balys.

F521.3.3.1. F521.3.3.1. Girl's body-dirt is golden. India: Thompson-Balys.

F521.3.3.2. F521.3.3.2. Person with golden anus. Africa (Hausa): Equilbecq II 83 No. 24.

F521.3.4. F521.3.4. Person with body of silver.

F521.3.4.1. F521.3.4.1. Silver king with silver attendants. Is on a silver horse accompanied by silver cock, bird, and dog. Czech: Tille FFC XXXIV 96.

F522. F522. Person with wings. Greek: Grote I 216; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Werner 390; Persian: Carnoy 298.

F522.1. F522.1. Person with wings on feet (head). Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 106 n. 1.

F523. F523. Two persons with bodies joined. Siamese twins. Irish myth: Cross; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 248 n. 2.

F524. F524. Person with several bodies.

F524.1. F524.1. Person with three bodies. Body of three men grown together in one at waist but parted in three from flanks and thighs. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 211 n. 2,

Fox 86 (Geryoneus).

F525. F525. Person with half a body. As if body has been split in two. *DeCock Volkssage 99ff.; Votiak, Ostiak: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 181f.; Indonesian: De Vries's list No. 166; Dixon 216; Chinese: Werner 389; Marquesas: Handy 137; N. A. Indian: Hatt Asiatic Influences 87ff., *Thompson Tales 357 n. 287d; Africa: Werner 244, (Basuto): Jacottet 160 No. 23, (Zulu): Callaway 202, (Luba): De Clerq Zs. f. Kolonialsprachen IV 187, 190.

F525.1. F525.1. One-sided man. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen II 13, III 75, Rink 237, (Smith Sound): Kroeber JAFL XII 171.

F525.1.1. F525.1.1. Man with one side of stone (iron). Fb "jærn" IV 249b; Hawaii: Dixon 89 (stone); Africa (Kaffir): Theal 129 (iron).

F525.2. F525.2. Man splits into two parts. Chauvin VII 40 No. 153 n. 1; Tonga: Gifford 32.

F525.3. F525.3. Tribe of one-eyed, one-footed, one-handed men. Irish myth: Cross.

F525.3.1. F525.3.1. Person with one foot (one hand, and one eye). Irish myth: *Cross.

F525.4. F525.4. Person (Antichrist) with flat body. Irish myth: Cross.

F525.5. F525.5. Giant with limbs and organs only on his left side. India: Thompson-Balys.

F525.6. F525.6. Person without back. Eskimo (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 49 (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 179, 181.

F526. F526. Person with compound body.

F526.1. F526.1. Typhon. Human down to thighs; coil of vipers below. Dragon heads from his hands. Bigger than mountains. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 47 n. 4.

F526.2. F526.2. Scylla. Breast and face of woman. From flanks has six heads and twelve feet of dogs. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 293 n. 4.

F526.3. F526.3. Gorgon. Head turned about, scales of dragon, tusks of swine brazen hands, golden wings. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 153 n. 3.

F526.4. F526.4. Beast-like anchorite. Walks on all fours; covered with hair like beast; has horns like beast. (Cf. F521.1.) Williams 17ff., 25.

F526.5. F526.5. Men with two faces, three legs, and seven arms (or other such combinations). Hindu: Keith 41f.

F526.6. F526.6. Cecrops. Body compounded of man and serpent. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 76 n. 3.

F527. F527. Person of unusual color.

F527.1. F527.1. Red person. Africa (Fang): Einstein 179.

F527.1.1. F527.1.1. Red knight. Types 300, 303; *Ranke FFC CXIV 236; Fb "Ridder Rod"; Hartland Perseus III 207ff.—Irish myth: *Cross; English: Wells 73 (Sir Percyvelle of Galles); Icelandic: *Boberg.

F527.2. F527.2. Green knight. *Kittredge Gawain passim; BP II 262f.; Dickson 180ff.; Irish myth: Cross.

F527.3. F527.3. Blue man. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 547.

F527.4. F527.4. Brown man with white back. Irish myth: Cross.

F527.5. F527.5. Black man. (Cf. F548.1, F573.) Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F527.6. F527.6. Half red and half blue strong man. Icelandic: Hálfðanar saga Br. 561, Boberg.

F529. F529. Other monstrous persons.

F529.1. F529.1. Persons with punctured bodies. May be carried on a pole put through the orifice; may be hung up on a peg. Chinese: Werner 390.

F529.2. F529.2. People without anuses. India: Thompson-Balys.

F529.2.1. F529.2.1. People without anuses make them by sitting on pegs. Koryak: Jochelson JE VI 364; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 79, 204, Holm 89, (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 171, 538, (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 89.

F529.3. F529.3. Man with grass growing from his joints. Eskimo (Bering Strait): Nelson RBAE XVIII 488.

F529.4. F529.4. Person has small animal within his body. Irish myth: Cross.

F529.5. F529.5. Person with transparent body. Irish myth: Cross.

F529.6. F529.6. Person with enormous belly. Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 155.

F529.7. F529.7. Boneless person. Icelandic: Boberg; Jewish: Neuman.

F529.7.1. F529.7.1. Person without joints. Irish myth: Cross.

F529.8. F529.8. Monkey-like little people. India: Thompson-Balys.

F530. F530. Exceptionally large or small men. Krappe Neuphilologische Mitteilungen XXIV 1—10.

F531. F531. Giant.1 A person of enormous size. (For giants who are primarily ogres see G100 and G400—G599.) *BP III 375; *Fb "kjæmpe" II 149, "Langben Rise" II 377b; Lorenz Das Titan-Motiv in der allgemeinen Mythologie (Imago II 1913] 22—72); Weinhold Die Riesen des germanischen Mythos (Sitzungsberichte d. kais. Akad. d. Wiss. XXVI [1858] 225—306); Laistner Nebelsagen (Stuttgart, 1860); Schoning Dödsrigger i Nordisk Hedentro (København, 1903); Von Sydow Jätterna i Mytologi och Folketro (F och F [1919] 52—96); Ahrendt Die Riese in der mittelhochdeutschen Epik (Rostock, 1923); F. Wolgemuth Riesen u. Zwerge in den altfranzösischen erzählenden Dichtung (Tübingen, 1906); V. Höttges Typenverzeichnis der deutschen Riesen; und riesischen Teufelssagen FFC CXXII (Helsinki, 1937); Tegethoff Schweiz. Archiv f. Vksk. XXIV

(1922) 137ff.; Borgese Giganti e Serpenti (Archivio per lo studio delle Tradizioni popolari XX 507ff., XXI 90ff., 161ff.); *Handwb. d. Aberggl. IX Nachträge 1120—1138.—Irish myth: *Cross; U.S. (lumbermen): *Folk-Say I 62 (bibliography of "Paul Bunyan" stories); Icelandic: *Boberg; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 66 Nos. 565—592; Estonian: Loorits Grundzüge I 465—490; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3720; Germanic: Meyer Germanen 226ff.; French: Sébillot France IV 455 s.v. "Géants", >>Gargantua", Sébillot Gargantua dans les Traditions Populaires; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 32f.; Jewish: *Neuman Arabian: Burton Nights I 65n., V 316, VI 24n., 84, 265n., 268ff., VII 84n.; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 47, 430, Holm 7, (Central Eskimo): Boas RBAE VI 656, (Smith Sound): Kroeber JAFL XII 167; N. A. Indian (Tahltan): Teit JAFL XXXIV 346ff. Nos. 69, 70, 73, (Kaska): Teit JAFL XXX 446 No. 7, (Aztec): Alexander Lat. Am. 92f.

F531.0.1. F531.0.1. Biblical worthy as giant. Jewish: *Neuman.

F531.0.2. F531.0.2. Giant as Creator's servant. India: Thompson-Balys.

F531.0.3. F531.0.3. Generation of men at the Deluge gigantic. Jewish: Neuman.

F531.0.4. F531.0.4. Giant woman. Irish myth: *Cross.

F531.1. F531.1. Appearance of giant. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.1.0.1. F531.1.0.1. Beauty of giant. Jewish: Neuman.

F531.1.0.1.1. F531.1.0.1.1. Beautiful giantess. Broderius § 37; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: De la Saussaye 329, *Boberg; Swedish: Nyare Bidrag till Kännedom om de svenska Landsmelen och svenskt Folklied IX 35 No. 80; Denmark: Thiele Danmarks Folkesagn X 164.

F531.1.0.2. F531.1.0.2. Hideous giant. Broderius § 37; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Þiðriks saga I 360, *Boberg; Tirol: Zingerle Nos. 172, 181.

F531.1.1. F531.1.1. Eyes of giant. *Höttges FFC CXXII 184.

F531.1.1.1. F531.1.1.1. Giant with one eye in middle of forehead. (Cf. F512.1.1.) Broderius § 37; *BP III 375; *Höttges FFC CXXII 191; Irish myth: *Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 191; Icelandic: Boberg; Faröe: Zs. f. Vksk. II 6; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 67 No. 573; Tirol: Zingerle (1891) No. 2; Greek: Fox 6, Grote I 5, 287; India: Thompson-Balys; Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 10.

F531.1.1.1.1. F531.1.1.1.1. Giant with one eye in the neck which he covers with his lower lip. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.1.1.2. F531.1.1.2. Giant with large gleaming eyes. Broderius § 37; *Höttges FFC CXXII 192; Icelandic: Boberg; Norway: Faye Norske Folke-Sagn (Christiania, 1814) 19; Tirol: Zingerle (1891) Nos. 193, 201.

F531.1.1.2.1. F531.1.1.2.1. Giant with eyes as big as cauldrons. Irish myth: *Cross.

F531.1.1.2.2. F531.1.1.2.2. Giant with eyes like ponds. Icelandic: Boberg.

F531.1.1.3. F531.1.1.3. Blind giant. Broderius § 37; Icelandic: *Boberg; Sweden: Runa III (1843) 41 No. 74, IV 37 No. 53; Hanover: Schambach u. Müller Niedersächsische Sagen (Göttingen, 1854) No. 165.1.

F531.1.1.4. F531.1.1.4. Giant sees great distance. Jewish: Neuman.

F531.1.1.5. F531.1.1.5. Giant with many eyes.

F531.1.1.5.1. F531.1.1.5.1. Giant with eight eyes. Polynesia: Beckwith Myth 210.

F531.1.1.6. F531.1.1.6. Giantess with green eyes. Icelandic: Illuga saga Gr. 653, Boberg.

F531.1.2. F531.1.2. Head of giant. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.1.2.0.1. F531.1.2.0.1. Gigantic head. Irish myth: *Cross.

F531.1.2.1. F531.1.2.1. Headless giant. (Cf. F511.0.1.) Broderius § 37; Irish myth: Cross; Hanover: Kuhn u. Schwarz Norddeutsche Sagen (Leipzig, 1848) No. 167.3; Pomerania: Rosenow 51 No. 46; N. A. Indian (Navaho): Alexander N. Am. 163.

F531.1.2.2. F531.1.2.2. Many-headed giant. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: De la Saussaye 329, MacCulloch Eddic 87, 173, Boberg.

F531.1.2.2.1. F531.1.2.2.1. Two-headed giant. Irish myth: *Cross.

F531.1.2.2.2. F531.1.2.2.2. Three-headed giant. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 111 *Boberg.

F531.1.2.2.3. F531.1.2.2.3. Five-headed giant. Irish myth: Cross; English: Child II 59.

F531.1.2.2.4. F531.1.2.2.4. Six-headed giant. English: Child V 184.

F531.1.2.2.5. F531.1.2.2.5. Nine-headed giant. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 91, Boberg; Korean: Zong in-Sob 166.

F531.1.2.2.6. F531.1.2.2.6. Ten-headed giant. Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 125.

F531.1.2.2.7. F531.1.2.2.7. Many-headed giant—miscellaneous. Icelandic: Boberg.

F531.1.2.3. F531.1.2.3. Giant's self-returning head. Korean: Zong in-Sob 72.

F531.1.2.4. F531.1.2.4. Giant with horse head. Tirol: Zingerle (1891) 26 No. 41.

F531.1.2.5. F531.1.2.5. Giant with stone head. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 83, 279, Boberg (Hrungnir); Oceanic: Beckwith Myth 88.

F531.1.3. F531.1.3. Feet (legs) of giant.

F531.1.3.1. F531.1.3.1. Giant with dragon-scales for feet. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 43 n. 2.

F531.1.3.2. F531.1.3.2. Giant with heels in front. (Cf. A526.8, F451.2.2.1, F517.1.5, G303.4.5.6.) Irish myth: Cross.

F531.1.3.3. F531.1.3.3. One-footed giant. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.1.3.3.1. F531.1.3.3.1. One-legged giant. Irish myth: *Cross; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 170.

F531.1.3.4. F531.1.3.4. Giant's step leaves deep furrows. Jewish: Neuman.

F531.1.3.5. F531.1.3.5. Giant fleet of foot despite size. Jewish: Neuman.

F531.1.3.6. F531.1.3.6. Giant with feet so large they cannot be moved. Jewish: Neuman.

F531.1.4. F531.1.4. Lips of giant.

F531.1.4.1. F531.1.4.1. Giant with upper lip reaching heaven; lower earth. Olrik Ragnarök 94f.; Cosquin études 537; India: Thompson-Balys.

F531.1.4.1.1. F531.1.4.1.1. Giant with lower lip reaching earth. Gaster Thespis 190.

F531.1.4.2. F531.1.4.2. Giant (giantess) with lips hanging down on the breast. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.1.5. F531.1.5. Breasts of giantess.

F531.1.5.1. F531.1.5.1. Giantess throws her breasts over her shoulders. Her two sons can run after her and suck. Fb "givkone" I 438; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V 4.

F531.1.6. F531.1.6. Other bodily characteristics of giant.

F531.1.6.1. F531.1.6.1. Giant with nails like claws. Icelandic: *Boberg; Chinese: Werner 387.

F531.1.6.1.1. F531.1.6.1.1. Giantess with iron nails. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.1.6.1.2. F531.1.6.1.2. Giant with crooked nails. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.1.6.2. F531.1.6.2. Giant with teeth like those of saw. Chinese: Werner 387.

F531.1.6.2.1. F531.1.6.2.1. Giants (giantesses) with long teeth. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.1.6.2.2. F531.1.6.2.2. Giant with very broad teeth. Chinese: Graham.

F531.1.6.3. F531.1.6.3. Giants with shaggy hair on their bodies. Broderius § 37; Icelandic: Arnason Legends of Iceland (London, 1864) I 150, Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 153, Boberg; Tirol: Zingerle (1891) Nos. 180, 186, 190; Babylonian: Gilgamesch-epos I 86ff., cf. 95ff.

F531.1.6.3.1. F531.1.6.3.1. Giant (giantess) with particularly long hair. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.1.6.3.2. F531.1.6.3.2. Giant without hair. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.1.6.4. F531.1.6.4. Giant with long beard. Broderius § 37.—Icelandic: *Boberg; Swedish: Runa IV (1843) 41 No. 71; Finnish-Swedish: Landtmann Finlands Svenska Folkdiktning VII 537; Tirol: Zingerle (1891) No. 193.

F531.1.6.5. F531.1.6.5. Giant with golden hair on forehead. *Fb "guldher".

F531.1.6.6. F531.1.6.6. Giant with peculiar nose. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.1.6.6.1. F531.1.6.6.1. Giant with crook on end of his nose. Icelandic: *Boberg; Herrmann Saxo II 599.

F531.1.6.7. F531.1.6.7. One-armed giant. Irish myth: *Cross.

F531.1.6.7.1. F531.1.6.7.1. Three-armed giant. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.1.6.7.2. F531.1.6.7.2. Giant with six or eight arms. Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 422, MacCulloch Eddic 277, *Boberg; Polynesia: Beckwith Myth 210 (eight).

F531.1.6.7.3. F531.1.6.7.3. Giantess with burned arms. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.1.6.8. F531.1.6.8. Giant's peculiar cheeks. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.1.6.9. F531.1.6.9. Giant rooted to ground because his nails and hair have grown into the earth on account of his great age. India: Thompson-Balys.

F531.1.6.10. F531.1.6.10. Giant with unusual heart.

F531.1.6.10.1. F531.1.6.10.1. Giant with stone heart. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 279.

F531.1.6.11. F531.1.6.11. Giant (giantess) with hump. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.1.6.12. F531.1.6.12. Giant with one hand and one foot. Irish myth: *Cross.

F531.1.6.13. F531.1.6.13. Giant's strength in hair. (Cf. D1831, G221.1.) Irish myth: Cross.

F531.1.6.14. F531.1.6.14. Giantess with a tail (many tails). Icelandic: Boberg.

F531.1.7. F531.1.7. Color of giant.

F531.1.7.1. F531.1.7.1. Green giant. *Kittredge Gawayne 195ff.

F531.1.7.2. F531.1.7.2. Black giant. BP II 253; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 588, 593, 599, MacCulloch Eddic 276, *Boberg.

F531.1.8. F531.1.8. Giant in animal form. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 279.

F531.1.8.1. F531.1.8.1. Giant as wolf. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 279f., Boberg.

F531.1.8.2. F531.1.8.2. Giant as serpent. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 279f., Boberg.

F531.1.8.3. F531.1.8.3. Giant as eagle. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 179, 276, 279, Herrmann Saxo II 599, Boberg.

F531.1.8.4. F531.1.8.4. Giantess in crow's shape. Icelandic: Völsungasaga ch. 1, Boberg.

F531.1.8.5. F531.1.8.5. Giantess transforms self to fly in order to tear woman's stomach. Icelandic: Egils saga ok Asm. ch. XII 9f., Boberg.

F531.1.8.6. F531.1.8.6. Giant in a gam's shape. Icelandic: Hjalmters saga ok ölvers 506, Egils saga Einhenda ch. I 4, II 6, XIV 4, Boberg.

F531.1.8.7. F531.1.8.7. Giant as eagle. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.1.8.8. F531.1.8.8. Giant (giantess) as sea-mammal. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.1.9. F531.1.9. Frost-giants. Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 580, MacCulloch Eddic 278f., 324, Boberg.

F531.1.10. F531.1.10. Fire giants. Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 592.

F531.1.11. F531.1.11. Giants and giantesses dressed as human beings. Icelandic: Boberg.

F531.1.12. F531.1.12. Giant bride's equipment. Icelandic: Thrymskvida, MacCulloch Eddic 79, *Boberg.

F531.2. F531.2. Size of giant. *Broderius § 37.—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Arnason Legends of Iceland (London, 1864) I 120 ff.; MacCulloch Eddic 277, *Boberg; Norwegian: Norske Folkminnelag XIII 26; Finnish-Swedish: Landtmann Finlands Svenska Folkdiktning VII 537; Swiss: Henne-Am Rhyn No. 454.

F531.2.1. F531.2.1. Extremely tall giant. (Cf. F533.) Jewish: *Neuman; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 736; Fiji: Beckwith Myth 210.

F531.2.1.1. F531.2.1.1. Giant fifteen feet tall with three feet between the eyes. Icelandic: Boberg.

F531.2.1.2. F531.2.1.2. Giants fifty feet tall with footprints six feet long. Chinese: Werner 387.

F531.2.1.3. F531.2.1.3. Waters of Deluge reach to giant's ankles. Jewish: Neuman.

F531.2.1.4. F531.2.1.4. Giant extends across whole island. Head against stone in west and feet against another in east. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 150, *Cross.

F531.2.1.5. F531.2.1.5. Giant reaches to the sky. Must lean over to keep from touching. N. A. Indian: *Boas BBAE LIX 289 n. 2, (Kaska): Teit JAFL XXX 445 No. 6.

F531.2.1.6. F531.2.1.6. Giantess is twice as tall as tall man. Icelandic: övar-Odds saga 121.

F531.2.2. F531.2.2. Giant with three spans between brows and three yards between shoulders. English: Child I 332, II 394.

F531.2.2.1. F531.2.2.1. Giant girl's face is an elbow length wide. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.2.2.2. F531.2.2.2. Giant's ears six hundred feet long. Korean: Zong in-Sob 15.

F531.2.3. F531.2.3. Giant's skull holds a man seated. Irish myth: *Cross.

F531.2.3.1. F531.2.3.1. Giant's skull so large fowl can pass through eye-hole. Irish myth: *Cross.

F531.2.3.2. F531.2.3.2. Giant's skull holds three hounds. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.2.4. F531.2.4. Giant's large footprints. (Cf. F531.2.1.2.) Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.2.5. F531.2.5. Extremely fat giant. (Cf. F532.) German: Grimm No. 134.

F531.2.5.1. F531.2.5.1. Giantess is more broad than tall. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.2.6. F531.2.6. Giant lies underground with trees growing all over his body. When his mouth is opened man falls into it and is swallowed. Finnish: Kalevala rune 17.

F531.2.7. F531.2.7. Giant so large he cannot be carried by a horse. Dickson 173 n. 33.

F531.2.8. F531.2.8. Giant can find only one horse able to carry him. Dickson 173 n. 33; Icelandic: Þiðriks saga II 380f., Boberg.

F531.2.9. F531.2.9. Giant occupies space of thrice nine men. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.2.10. F531.2.10. Giant must rest on elbow while speaking to be audible to mortal. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.2.11. F531.2.11. Demon looks like a mountain. India: Thompson-Balys.

F531.2.12. F531.2.12. Man with eyes the size of brass pots, teeth like axeheads, ears like elephant's ears. India: Thompson-Balys.

F531.2.13. F531.2.13. Giantess so heavy that boat almost sinks. Icelandic: Sturlaug's saga St. 620, Boberg.

F531.2.14. F531.2.14. Baby giants four months old "two feet broad in the chest and twelve feet high." Irish myth: Cross.

F531.2.15. F531.2.15. Sack of earth in giant's hand looks no bigger than a pea in hand of a man. Scotland: Baughman.

F531.3. F531.3. Gargantuan feats. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.3.1. F531.3.1. Giant wades the ocean. *Krappe études 79ff.; Broderius § 21.—England: Baughman; Icelandic: *Boberg; Norwegian: Norske Folkminnelag I 65 No. 47, IX 99; German: Grimm Deutsche Sagen (Berlin, 1905) No. 319; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 31 n. 4; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 737.

F531.3.1.1. F531.3.1.1. Water enters into giant's boots from above. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 66 No. 571; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 44 No. 62; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 128 No. 62.

F531.3.1.2. F531.3.1.2. Giant's leg stops ship at sea. Hindu: Penzer II 72.

F531.3.1.2.1. F531.3.1.2.1. Giant holds back water of river with his foot. India: Thompson-Balys.

F531.3.1.3. F531.3.1.3. Thor carries giant in basket across icy stream. Icelandic: Snorra Edda Skaldsk XVII, Boberg.

F531.3.1.4. F531.3.1.4. Giant blows to prevent approach of ship. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.3.2. F531.3.2. Giant throws a great rock. Broderius § 8; Höttges FFC CXXII 21ff., 196f.—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 590, *Boberg; Norwegian: Norske Folkminnelag VI 142; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 44 No. 61;

Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 47 No. 67; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 127 No. 61; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 32f.

F531.3.2.1. F531.3.2.1. Giants throw stones after churches. *Fb "sten" 552ab; Höttges FFC CXXII 31ff., 199ff.; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn III (1895) 27ff., (1931) 17ff., Schmidt DF XXXIX 70 ff.; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 70 No. 598, 71 No. 604.

F531.3.2.2. F531.3.2.2. Giant slings stone with his garters (hair ribbon, etc.) Broderius § 20.—Swedish: Hofberg Svenska Folksägner (Stockholm, 1882) 132; Danish: Thiele Danmarks Folkesagn (København, 1843) I 46; Holstein: Müllenhoff Sagen der Herzogthümer Schleswig-Holstein u. Lauenborg (Kiel, 1921) No. 423.

F531.3.2.3. F531.3.2.3. Giants throw tools back and forth. Explains rocks, etc. Broderius § 14; England: Baughman.

F531.3.2.4. F531.3.2.4. Giant hurls mountain. Jewish: Neuman.

F531.3.3. F531.3.3. Giant astride a church-roof. Rides it like a horse. Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 44 No. 61.

F531.3.4. F531.3.4. Giant eats (drinks) prodigious amount. Broderius § 23.—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 86, 89, 171, 275, *Boberg; Norwegian: Norske Folkminnelag II 28, XIII 23; Swedish: Sydow Jättarna; Westphalia: Kuhn No. 129; Swiss: Henne-Am Rhyn 2 No. 596; Tirol: Zingerle (1891) No. 217; Gaster Thespis 329; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F531.3.4.1. F531.3.4.1. Giant eats a thousand cattle. Type 701*.

F531.3.4.2. F531.3.4.2. Giant drinks up a river (lake, sea). German: Grimm No. 134; India: Thompson-Balys.

F531.3.4.3. F531.3.4.3. Giant eats whales as small fry. Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 449, (Central Eskimo): Boas RBAE VI 638, (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 196, (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 66.

F531.3.5. F531.3.5. Giant steps prodigious distance. Broderius § 21; *Höttges FFC CXXII 165ff., 281f.—Irish myth: Cross; England: Baughman; Norwegian: Norske Folkeminnelag I 61, 65, II 30, 118, IV 101, XIII 26; Finnish-Swedish: Landtmann Finlands Svenska Folkdiktning VII 539, 540, 549, Wessmann 66 No. 570; Danish: Ohrt Danmarks Folkeminder XXI 22; Jewish: Neuman; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 474; Eskimo (Central): Boas RBAE VI 638.

F531.3.5.1. F531.3.5.1. Giant bestrides mountain. Chinese: Graham.

F531.3.5.2. F531.3.5.2. Giant's mighty stride spans earth's width. India: Thompson-Balys.

F531.3.5.3. F531.3.5.3. Giant stands astride river. England: Baughman.

F531.3.6. F531.3.6. Giants carry church across a stream. Broderius § 22; Westphalia: Kuhn No. 387a; Hanover: Schambach u. Müller Nos. 165.1, 165.2.

F531.3.7. F531.3.7. Giant comes to bake too soon; spills dough. Giant who has common oven with another thinks he hears companion in next valley scraping the kneading trough. He bakes his dough but finds he is too early and that he has only heard himself scratching. He spills the dough: hence fruitful soil. (Cf. F451.7.2, F455.3.5.) Broderius § 15; *Höttges FFC CXXII 124. Westphalia: Grässe I 835, Zaubert Westfälische 6.

F531.3.8. F531.3.8. Giants' shouts are storms or great noise. Broderius § 16.—Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Arnason Legends of Iceland (London, 1864) I 166; Norse; Norsk Folkekultur IX 99; Swedish: Feilberg Jul II 56; Westphalia: Zaubert Westfälische 6, 11. Cf. Rip Van Winkle.

F531.3.8.1. F531.3.8.1. Giant's snoring as thunder or storm. Icelandic: Snorra Edda Gylf. XLVI, MacCulloch Eddic 92, *Boberg.

F531.3.8.2. F531.3.8.2. Giant's snoring felt as rain. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.3.8.3. F531.3.8.3. Homecoming giant heard far away. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.3.8.4. F531.3.8.4. Giantess sings so that it gives echo in all cliffs. Icelandic: Boberg.

F531.3.8.5. F531.3.8.5. Earthquake as giant falls down. Icelandic: Þiðriks saga II 384, Boberg.

F531.3.8.5.1. F531.3.8.5.1. Earthquake by giant's wrestling. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.3.9. F531.3.9. Giants sit on mountains and wash feet in stream below. Broderius § 21; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 285, *Boberg; Danish: Danmarks Folkeminder No. 40 (1933) 71; Norse: Norsk Folkminnelag XIII 28; Swiss: Henne-Am Rhyn No. 611; French: Sébillot France I 232.

F531.3.10. F531.3.10. Giants carry trees. (Cf. F631.) Irish myth: Cross; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 12; Missouri French: Carrière.

F531.3.11. F531.3.11. Giant swallows men. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.3.12. F531.3.12. Giant's hunting (fishing).

F531.3.12.1. F531.3.12.1. Giant threads an elephant on a fish-hook. India: Thompson-Balys.

F531.3.12.2. F531.3.12.2. Giant fishes whales. Icelandic: Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 233, MacCulloch Eddic 277, Snorra Edda Skalksk XLVI, Boberg; Maori: Clark 51.

F531.3.12.3. F531.3.12.3. Giantess kills monstrous bear. Eskimo (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 197.

F531.3.13. F531.3.13. Giant (giantess) carries prodigious burden. Icelandic: Hálfðanar saga Br. 577, Boberg.

F531.3.13.1. F531.3.13.1. Giant carries prodigious hunting-prey (whales, bear). Danish: Grundtvig DgF No. 18; Icelandic: Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 223, *Boberg.

F531.3.13.2. F531.3.13.2. Giant allows others to cling to him while he swims with them safely across the rivers. India: Thompson-Balys.

F531.3.14. F531.3.14. Beam breaks at giant's glance. Icelandic: Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 221. Boberg.

F531.3.15. F531.3.15. Giants' awful amusements, playing with men's lives. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.4. F531.4. Gigantic possessions of giant.

F531.4.1. F531.4.1. Giant with mill-wheel as shield. Malone PMLA XLIII 401.

F531.4.2. F531.4.2. Giant with gigantic chain as belt. Elephant can go through each link. Malone PMLA XLIII 401.

F531.4.3. F531.4.3. Knights drink from a huge nine-gallon cup. English: Wells 60 (Syre Gawene and the Earle of Carelyle).

F531.4.4. F531.4.4. Giant with club as large as wheelshaft of mill. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.4.5. F531.4.5. Giant's enormous weapons.

F531.4.5.1. F531.4.5.1. Giant with iron club as weapon. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.4.5.2. F531.4.5.2. Giant with iron bar as weapon. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.4.5.3. F531.4.5.3. Giant has stone club. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 282, Snorra Edda Skaldsk. XVII, Boberg.

F531.4.5.4. F531.4.5.4. Giant has stone shield. Icelandic: Boberg.

F531.4.5.5. F531.4.5.5. Giant has enormous spear. India: Thompson-Balys.

F531.4.6. F531.4.6. Giant wears enormous jewel. India: Thompson-Balys.

F531.4.7. F531.4.7. Giant's clothes.

F531.4.7.1. F531.4.7.1. Giants dressed in skin. Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 80ff., *Boberg.

F531.4.7.1.1. F531.4.7.1.1. Giants wear skins with flesh still on. Eskimo (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 210.

F531.4.7.1.2. F531.4.7.1.2. Giantess in obscenely shriveled skin skirt. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.4.7.2. F531.4.7.2. Giants wear long coats with lamps under them. Eskimo (Central): Boas RBAE VI 634.

F531.4.7.3. F531.4.7.3. Giantess in red dress. Icelandic: Boberg.

F531.4.8. F531.4.8. Giant has stone as boat. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.4.9. F531.4.9. Giant's huge kettle. Icelandic: Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 220, MacCulloch Eddic 86, *Boberg.

F531.4.10. F531.4.10. Giant's enormous bed. Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman.

F531.4.11. F531.4.11. Giant's enormous animals.

F531.4.11.1. F531.4.11.1. Giants have wolf and bears as dogs. Icelandic: örvar-Odds saga 122—24, Boberg.

F531.4.11.2. F531.4.11.2. Foxes as giant's lice. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 150.

F531.4.12. F531.4.12. Giant's net can hem in whole forest. Africa (Fang): Trilles 202.

F531.5. F531.5. Giants and men. Irish myth: *Cross.

F531.5.1. F531.5.1. Giant friendly to man. Broderius § 24.—Irish myth: *Cross; U.S.: Baughman; Icelandic: Arnason Legends of Iceland (London, 1864) I 148, *Boberg; Norse: Feilberg Jul II 56; Tirol: Zingerle (1891) Nos. 40. 172, 183, 186, 199, 200, 220.

F531.5.1.1. F531.5.1.1. Giant carries man in his pocket (glove, bosom). (Cf. F531.5.3.) German: Grimm No. 193; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "géant"; India: Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 358 n. 287 I, (Ojibwa): Jones-Michelson PAES VII (2) 171ff.

F531.5.1.1.1. F531.5.1.1.1. Giant carries man in sack. Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 39.

F531.5.1.1.2. F531.5.1.1.2. Giant carries man on his back. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 245.

F531.5.1.1.3. F531.5.1.1.3. Giant carries man on brim of his hat. German: Grimm No. 193.

F531.5.1.1.4. F531.5.1.1.4. Giant carries man under his belt. Icelandic: Boberg.

F531.5.1.2. F531.5.1.2. Giants and men fraternize at Christmas. Liestøl Festschrift til Feilberg 195ff.

F531.5.2. F531.5.2. Man mistakes giant's glove for house. *Von Sydow Danske Studier (1910) 154; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.5.3. F531.5.3. Giant's toy. A young giantess picks up a man plowing. Wants him as a toy. Her mother says, "Take him back. He will drive us away." (Cf. F531.5.1.) V. Höttges Die Sage vom Riesenspielzeug (Jena, 1931); Höttges FFC CXXII 172; Broderius § 29; Type 701*; *Fb "kjæmpe" II 149a; "plove" II 848; Tegethoff Schweiz. Archiv f. Vksk. XXIV 139 n. 14.—Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 67 No. 575; Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 47 No. 73; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3712; Livonian: Looirts FFC LXVI 73 No. 225; Flemish: Meyer FFC XXXVII No. 701; Missouri French: Carrière.

F531.5.4. F531.5.4. Giant thinks hammer-blow on head is a nut falling. Man strikes with all his might. *Von Sydow Danske Studier (1910) 159; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 92; N. A. Indian (Seneca): CurtinHewitt RBAE XXXII 213 No. 41; Africa (Fang): Einstein 47.

F531.5.4.1. F531.5.4.1. Giant thinks shower of stones is snowfall. Wales: Baughman.

F531.5.4.2. F531.5.4.2. Giant's head gnawed by foxes: thinks soot is falling on him. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 150.

F531.5.5. F531.5.5. Giants repay loan with large interest. Cask of gold for ale, etc. Icelandic: Feilberg Jul II 56; Swedish: Runa IV (1843) 29, 30, 38, 45.

F531.5.6. F531.5.6. Giants' gifts to men.

F531.5.6.1. F531.5.6.1. Giants' magic gifts return to original form in hands of men. (Cf. F451.5.1.4. and cross-references.) Broderius § 33; Icelandic: Arnason Legends of Iceland (London, 1864) I 148; German: Jahn Nos. 29, 217.

F531.5.6.2. F531.5.6.2. Giant's present: magic loaf producing inexhaustible harvest. India: Thompson-Balys.

F531.5.6.3. F531.5.6.3. Giant's presents cease when source is disclosed. (Cf. F348.5.) Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 235.

F531.5.7. F531.5.7. Giants marry human beings. (Cf. F420.6.1, F460.4, and cross references.) Broderius § 30.—Irish myth: Cross; Missouri French: Carrière; Icelandic: Arnason Legends of Iceland (London, 1864) I 135, MacCulloch Eddic 278, 175, *Boberg; Norse: Norsk Folkminnelag I 63; Swedish: Runa IV (1843) 41 No. 72.

F531.5.7.0.1. F531.5.7.0.1. Giant woos mortal woman. Jewish: Neuman.

F531.5.7.0.2. F531.5.7.0.2. Giant demands girl, but is killed in duel about her. (Cf. F610.3.4.2.1.) Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.5.7.0.3. F531.5.7.0.3. Giantesses pursue men in order to marry them. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.5.7.1. F531.5.7.1. Mortal son of giant. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.5.7.1.1. F531.5.7.1.1. Mortal son of man and giantess. Icelandic: Flateyjarbyk I 23, Boberg.

F531.5.7.1.2. F531.5.7.1.2. Giantess daughter of giant and abducted maiden (therefore helps hero). Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.5.8. F531.5.8. Giants and Christians.

F531.5.8.1. F531.5.8.1. Giants hostile to Christianity. Broderius § 25.

F531.5.8.2. F531.5.8.2. Giants exorcised by clergy. Icelandic: Arnason Legends of Iceland (London, 1864) I 138; West Indies: Flowers 435.

F531.5.8.3. F531.5.8.3. Giants Christianized. Broderius § 25; Irish myth: *Cross; Norwegian: Norske Sagn (Christiania, 1902) 119; German: Grimm Deutsche Sagen (1905) No. 137.

F531.5.9. F531.5.9. The giant on the ark. Noah saves a giant on the ark. Cannot enter but stays in the rigging. Noah sends him food through a hole. Dh I 283; Jewish: *Neuman.

F531.5.10. F531.5.10. Giant as servant to man. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.5.10.1. F531.5.10.1. Giant driven by girl. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.5.10.2. F531.5.10.2. Giant maidens grind gold, peace, soldiers, salt, etc., on large stone mill. BP II 438ff.; Type 565; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 140ff.; MacCulloch Eddic 282—83, Boberg.

F531.5.11. F531.5.11. Giant in contest with man. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.5.11.1. F531.5.11.1. Giant wins walking contest against man. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.5.11.2. F531.5.11.2. Footrace between giant and mortal. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.5.12. F531.5.12. Giant insults hero by shaving his head and smearing it with cow dung. Irish myth: *Cross.

F531.5.13. F531.5.13. Giants like butter more than anything else. Get trough of butter in return for help. Icelandic: Egils saga einhenda 79, Boberg.

F531.5.14. F531.5.14. Man kills giant's baby. Eskimo (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 83, (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 539.

F531.5.15. F531.5.15. Giants cause men to sin. Jewish: Neuman.

F531.6. F531.6. Other giant motifs.

F531.6.1. F531.6.1. Origin of giants. (Cf. F531.5.7.1.2.) Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 275.

F531.6.1.1. F531.6.1.1. Sons of God and Daughters of men. Before the flood angels have relations with human women: origin of giants. Dh I 294; Krappe Studi e Materiali di Storia delle Religioni IX (1933) 157—172.

F531.6.1.2. F531.6.1.2. Giant is transformed man. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.6.1.3. F531.6.1.3. Giant son of black cat. Icelandic: Flateyjarbyk I 529, Boberg.

F531.6.1.4. F531.6.1.4. Gigantic son of king and mermaid. Icelandic: Þiðriks saga I 73, Boberg.

F531.6.1.5. F531.6.1.5. Giants as personifications. Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 580, MacCulloch Eddic 281.

F531.6.1.6. F531.6.1.6. Giant made of the venom from Elivagar. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 326, Boberg.

F531.6.1.7. F531.6.1.7. Giants as sons of Ymir or Aurgelmir. (See A642, A831.2.)

F531.6.1.8. F531.6.1.8. Giants as reincarnated animals. Korean: Zong in-Sob 64.

F531.6.1.9. F531.6.1.9. Giants as descendants of Cain. (Cf. F535.0.1.) Jewish: Neuman.

F531.6.2. F531.6.2. Haunts of giants.

F531.6.2.0.1. F531.6.2.0.1. Giants in "Risaland" or "Jotunheimar" without nearer definition. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.6.2.1. F531.6.2.1. Giants live in mountains or caves. Broderius § 11.—Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg, Arnason Legends of Iceland (London, 1864) 135; Finnish-Swedish: Wessmann 67 No. 572; Jewish: Neuman.

F531.6.2.2. F531.6.2.2. Giants live under water.

F531.6.2.2.1. F531.6.2.2.1. Giants live under sea. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.6.2.2.2. F531.6.2.2.2. Giant lives under lake. Irish myth: *Cross.

F531.6.2.2.3. F531.6.2.2.3. Giant's home beneath waterfall in lake. Icelandic: *Boberg. Cf. Beowulf.

F531.6.2.3. F531.6.2.3. Giants' live in the east. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 81, *Boberg.

F531.6.2.4. F531.6.2.4. Giants live in the utmost northwest. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.6.2.5. F531.6.2.5. Giants live at the world's end. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.6.2.6. F531.6.2.6. Giants in a region of darkness and cold. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 321, Herrmann Saxo II 583ff., 601.

F531.6.2.7. F531.6.2.7. Giants in wild forests. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 280.

F531.6.3. F531.6.3. Homes of giants. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 586ff., 595, MacCulloch Eddic 276, Boberg.

F531.6.3.0.1. F531.6.3.0.1. Men not to disclose giant's home. (Cf. C420.) Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 231.

F531.6.3.1. F531.6.3.1. Giants live in castles (raths, duns) (ruins of which may still be seen). Broderius § 11; Irish myth: *Cross; English: Wells 59 (The Turke and Gowin); Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 319, 282; German: Grimm Deutsche Sagen (1905) Nos. 16, 20.

F531.6.3.2. F531.6.3.2. Giant lives in fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

F531.6.4. F531.6.4. Age of giants.

F531.6.4.1. F531.6.4.1. Giants have great age. Calculated by age of wood. Broderius § 35; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 276, Boberg; Tirol: Zingerle (1891) Nos. 173, 187, 190; Jewish: *Neuman.

F531.6.4.2. F531.6.4.2. Giants live to be eighteen thousand years old. Chinese: Werner 387.

F531.6.4.3. F531.6.4.3. Giant immortal. Jewish: Neuman.

F531.6.5. F531.6.5. Giants as magicians. Broderius § 33; *Höttges FFC CXXII 145; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Arnason Legends of Iceland (London, 1864) I 122, 131, 148, *Boberg; German: Grimm Deutsche Sagen (1907) No. 318.4.

F531.6.5.1. F531.6.5.1. Giants can make selves invisible. (Cf. F531.6.12.1.1.) Irish myth: *Cross; Norwegian: Norsk Folkminnelag XIII 23; Finnish-Swedish: Landtmann Finlands Svenska Folkdiktning VIII 538.

F531.6.5.2. F531.6.5.2. Giants large or small at will. Broderius § 17; Icelandic: Saxo ed. Elton 26, MacCulloch Eddic 277, *Boberg; German: Henne-Am Rhyn Nos. 441, 562, 225, 365, 444.

F531.6.5.3. F531.6.5.3. Giant has wound-healing balm. Dickson 187 nn. 61—62; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 230, *Boberg; Missouri French: Carrière.

F531.6.5.4. F531.6.5.4. Giants as controllers of the elements. *Höttges FFC CXXII 72f., 256; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 75ff., 276, *Boberg.

F531.6.6. F531.6.6. Giants as builders of great structures. Broderius § 2; Wunsche Teufel 19; Höttges FFC CXXII 49ff., 218ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; English: Wells 80 (Sir Tristrem); Icelandic: Arnason Legends of Iceland (London, 1864) I 49, MacCulloch Eddic 276, 278, 286, Boberg; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn III (1895) 25ff., (1931) 15ff. (churches); Fb "kirke" II 124a; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 67 No. 580, 68 No. 582, 69f. Nos. 593—97; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3714.

F531.6.6.1. F531.6.6.1. Giants by night move buildings built by men in day. Broderius § 3.—Norwegian: Norsk Folkminnelag II 28; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn III (1892) 174ff., (1931) 127ff. (churches); Fb "kirke" II 124a; Finnish-Swedish: Landtman Finlands Svenska Folkdiktning VII (Helsingfors 1919) 553.

F531.6.6.2. F531.6.6.2. Giant builds hill for his home. England: Baughman.

F531.6.6.3. F531.6.6.3. Giant digs trench for course of Severn River. England: Baughman.

F531.6.6.4. F531.6.6.4. Giant makes cleft in rock when he misses another giant with spade blow. England: Baughman.

F531.6.6.5. F531.6.6.5. Giant and his wife build Roman road in a trice. Giant paves; wife brings stones. England: Baughman.

F531.6.7. F531.6.7. Giant's treasure. (Cf. F531.6.8.3.1.) *Höttges FFC CXXII 143; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 583ff., MacCulloch Eddic 277 (Sutting's poetic mead, runes), Snorra Edda Gylf. IV and XV (Mimir's well), Snorra Edda Skald. XXXII (gold); Estonian: Veckenstedt Sagen der Zamaiten (Heidelberg, 1883) II 141 No. 4, 200 No. 24; Hesse-Nassau: Zaunert 61.

F531.6.7.1. F531.6.7.1. Giant possesses treasure. Broderius § 13.—Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 279 (Alvaldi's gold), 84 (magic objects); Norwegian: Norske Folkminnelag XIII 29; Faröe: Zs. f. Vksk. II 6 No. 6; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 92 No. 117; Styria: Henne-Am Rhyn No. 225.

F531.6.7.1.1. F531.6.7.1.1. Giants have animals (dogs, etc.) Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 591, 593, 595; MacCulloch Eddic 66, 85, 88, 111, 230, 276—77, *Boberg.

F531.6.7.1.2. F531.6.7.1.2. Giants' ship (Naglfar). Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 340.

F531.6.7.2. F531.6.7.2. Giant obtains treasure from man. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.6.7.2.1. F531.6.7.2.1. Giant steals from man (fish, sheep, sword). Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.6.8. F531.6.8. Mutual relations of giants.

F531.6.8.1. F531.6.8.1. Giant in love with giantess. Broderius § 30; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Norse: Norsk Folkminnelag XIII 29; Danish: Thiele Danmarks Folkesagn (København, 1843) II 47; German: Grimm Deutsche Sagen (1907) No. 319.

F531.6.8.2. F531.6.8.2. Giants pursue giant women. Broderius § 30; Irish myth: *Cross; Swedish: Runa IV (1843) 27 No. 10; German: Grimm Deutsche Sagen (1907) No. 318.4; Tirol: Zingerle (1891) 176—180.

F531.6.8.3. F531.6.8.3. Enmity (competition) between giants. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.6.8.3.1. F531.6.8.3.1. Giants and giantesses fight about treasures. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.6.8.3.2. F531.6.8.3.2. Giant steals from giant. Icelandic: Boberg.

F531.6.8.3.3. F531.6.8.3.3. Giants wrestle with each other. India: Thompson-Balys.

F531.6.8.4. F531.6.8.4. Giants' festivities. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.6.8.4.1. F531.6.8.4.1. One giant invites another to a feast (wedding). Latter must be satisfied that food is plentiful. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3713.

F531.6.8.5. F531.6.8.5. Giants' social relations.

F531.6.8.5.1. F531.6.8.5.1. Giants have king, queen. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.6.8.5.2. F531.6.8.5.2. Giants have parliament. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.6.8.6. F531.6.8.6. Giants have children. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.6.8.7. F531.6.8.7. Giants meet successively larger giants. Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 261.

F531.6.8.8. F531.6.8.8. Giant does not grow until another giant causes him to do so. Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 8.

F531.6.9. F531.6.9. Giants as warriors (in army). Broderius § 32; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Bohemian: Jungbauer Böhmerwald Sagen (Jena, 1924).

F531.6.10. F531.6.10. Other occupations of giants.

F531.6.10.1. F531.6.10.1. Giant as smith. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 282, *Boberg.

F531.6.11. F531.6.11. Antipathies of giants.

F531.6.11.1. F531.6.11.1. Giants fear lightning. Broderius § 27; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 278, 285; Swedish: Henne-Am Rhyn No. 609; German: Zaunert Westfälische 1.

F531.6.12. F531.6.12. Disappearance or death of giants. Höttges FFC CXXII 75;

Irish myth: *Cross.

F531.6.12.1. F531.6.12.1. Disappearance of giants. Broderius § 28.

F531.6.12.1.1. F531.6.12.1.1. Giant disappears in mist. (Cf. F531.6.5.1.) Irish myth: Cross.

F531.6.12.1.2. F531.6.12.1.2. Giant cursed. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.6.12.2. F531.6.12.2. Sunlight turns giant or troll to stone. Broderius § 7; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 277, 282, 285, Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 154, Arnason Legends of Iceland (London, 1864) I 124, Boberg.

F531.6.12.3. F531.6.12.3. Slain giant turns to salt stone. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.6.12.4. F531.6.12.4. Giants killed by lightning or thunder (personified in the thunder-god). (Cf. F531.6.11.1.) Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 592, MacCulloch Eddic 69ff., Boberg.

F531.6.12.5. F531.6.12.5. Giant killed by earthquake. Icelandic: Þiðriks saga I 80, Boberg.

F531.6.12.6. F531.6.12.6. Giant slain by man. (Cf. F531.6.9, F628.2.3, G500.) Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman; Koryak: Jochelson JE VI 374f.; Eskimo (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 83, (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 315, 537f.

F531.6.12.6.1. F531.6.12.6.1. Giant destroyed by army. Jewish: Neuman.

F531.6.12.7. F531.6.12.7. Giants driven away by men. Icelandic: Boberg.

F531.6.12.8. F531.6.12.8. Giant drowned.

F531.6.12.8.1. F531.6.12.8.1. Giants drowned (in Ymir's blood). Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 324, Snorra Edda skaldsk. ch. II, Boberg.

F531.6.12.8.2. F531.6.12.8.2. Giant drowned in Deluge. (Cf. A1010.) Jewish: Neuman.

F531.6.13. F531.6.13. Graves of giants. Broderius § 12; Höttges FFC CXXII 75ff., 256f.; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Arnason Legends of Iceland (London, 1864) I 40, 51, 53, 148; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn III (1895) 13ff., (1931) 8ff., VI 74; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 67 No. 577; Faröe: Zs. f. Vksk. II 18.

F531.6.13.1. F531.6.13.1. Giants enchanted in caverns. Broderius § 34; Swedish: Runa (1847) 34 No. 9; Tirol: Henne-Am Rhyn 2 No. 628.

F531.6.13.2. F531.6.13.2. Giant enchanted in car. Icelandic: Hálfðanar saga Br. 574, Boberg.

F531.6.14. F531.6.14. Ghost of giant. Broderius § 17; *Höttges FFC CXXII 133; Westphalia: Zaubert Westfälische 5; Ditmarsch: Zs. f. Vksk. VIII 210; Tirol: Zingerle (1891) Nos. 41, 206, 357.

F531.6.15. F531.6.15. Giants and supernatural beings.

F531.6.15.1. F531.6.15.1. Giants and gods in fight. Icelandic: Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 151, MacCulloch Eddic 83—84, 91, 179, 275 ff.

F531.6.15.2. F531.6.15.2. Love relations between giants and other supernatural beings. (Cf. F531.6.8.1.) Icelandic: Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 119, cf. O. Lundberg in Arctos Svecica 2, Ups. 1944, 5ff., Herrmann Saxo II 97ff., MacCulloch Eddic 47ff., 82, 91, 110, 158, 181, Boberg.

F531.6.15.3. F531.6.15.3. Giants and dwarfs friendly. Eskimo (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 83, (Central): Boas RBAE VI 635.

F531.6.16. F531.6.16. Attendants of the giants.

F531.6.16.1. F531.6.16.1. Giants' watchman (Eggther). Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 276, Boberg.

F531.6.16.2. F531.6.16.2. Giant's animals help him in fight. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.6.16.3. F531.6.16.3. Man as servant of giant. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F531.6.17. F531.6.17. Other acts of giants.

F531.6.17.1. F531.6.17.1. Giants dance. *Fb "danse" I 93a.

F531.6.17.2. F531.6.17.2. Giant inflates self and floats through air. (Cf. F531.6.5.2.) Malone PMLA XLIII 412.

F531.6.17.2.1. F531.6.17.2.1. Giant flies over water like bird. Irish myth: *Cross.

F531.6.17.3. F531.6.17.3. Eagle carries giant to its nest. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "aigle".

F531.6.17.4. F531.6.17.4. Giant plays musical instrument. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.6.17.5. F531.6.17.5. Giant herdsman. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.6.17.6. F531.6.17.6. Giant rolls like wheel. Irish myth: Cross.

F531.6.17.7. F531.6.17.7. Giants are wise. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 277, 127, *Boberg.

F532. F532. Remarkably broad man. Köhler-Bolte I 403; Jewish: Neuman.

F533. F533. Remarkably tall man. (Cf. F531.2.1.) Köhler-Bolte I 403; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Þiðriks saga I 345, Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman; Marquesas: Handy 126; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 392; Fiji: ibid. 472; Tuamotu: ibid. 471.

F535. F535. Pygmy. Remarkably small man. Also called "dwarf". To be distinguished from the dwarfs who live in the woods and inhabit underground places (F451). *Schoepperle Tristan and Isolt I 242 n. 6; *Frazer Pausanias II 107; *Chauvin VII 15 No. 373C n. 1; Irish myth: *Cross; English: Hartland Science 179; Icelandic: *Boberg; Greek: Fox 256; Arabian: Burton Nights V 252 n; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Werner 386; N. A. Indian (Cherokee): Alexander N. Am. 68; African: *Werner African 258ff.

- F535.0.1. F535.0.1. Pygmies descendants of Cain. (Cf. F531.6.1.9.) Jewish: Neuman.
- F535.1. F535.1. Thumbling. Person the size of a thumb. *Types 327B, 700; *BP I 361, 389; Fb "tomling"; Saintyves Contes de Perrault 245ff., 314ff.; *Hdwb. d. Märch. s.v. "Daumling"; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F535.1.1. F535.1.1. Adventures of thumbling. See Type 700 for detailed adventures.
- F535.1.1.1. F535.1.1.1. Thumbling drives wagon by sitting in horse's ear. Type 700; BP I 389.
- F535.1.1.1.1. F535.1.1.1.1. Thumbling drives mule. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F535.1.1.2. F535.1.1.2. Thumbling carried up chimney by steam of food. *Type 700; BP I 389.
- F535.1.1.3. F535.1.1.3. Thumbling lies by sleeping man. Is blown to window by man's breath. BP I 397.
- F535.1.1.4. F535.1.1.4. Thumbling in danger of being sucked in by man's breath. BP I 397.
- F535.1.1.5. F535.1.1.5. Thumbling lost in animal track. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F535.1.1.6. F535.1.1.6. Thumbling has cat as riding-horse. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F535.1.1.7. F535.1.1.7. Thumbling swallowed by animals. German: Grimm No. 37, 45.
- F535.1.1.8. F535.1.1.8. Thumbling imprisoned in a sausage. German: Grimm No. 45.
- F535.1.1.9. F535.1.1.9. Thumbling sold as freak. German: Grimm No. 37.
- F535.1.1.10. F535.1.1.10. Thumbling hides in small place.
- F535.1.1.10.1. F535.1.1.10.1. Thumbling hides under thimble in table drawer. German: Grimm No. 45.
- F535.1.1.10.2. F535.1.1.10.2. Thumbling hides in a snail shell, in a mouse hole. German: Grimm No. 37.
- F535.1.1.11. F535.1.1.11. Thumbling as accomplice to robbers. German: Grimm No. 37, 45.
- F535.1.1.11.1. F535.1.1.11.1. Thumbling steals by entering keyhole. German: Grimm No. 37, 45.
- F535.1.1.12. F535.1.1.12. Thumbling carries needle as sword. German: Grimm No. 45.
- F535.1.1.13. F535.1.1.13. Thumbling carried in pocket. German: Grimm No. 90.
- F535.1.1.14. F535.1.1.14. Thumbling carried on hat brim. (See F531.5.1.1.3. for a similar motif.) German: Grimm No. 37.
- F535.2. F535.2. Pygmies of various sizes.

F535.2.1. F535.2.1. Pygmies nine inches tall. Chinese: Werner 386.

F535.2.2. F535.2.2. Man so small he can go through eye of needle. BP I 397.

F535.2.3. F535.2.3. Man so small he dances in spider web. BP I 397.

F535.2.4. F535.2.4. Man so small he can put his head through a mote in a sunbeam. BP I 397.

F535.2.5. F535.2.5. Man so small that he rides on an ant. Ant treads him underfoot. BP I 397.

F535.2.6. F535.2.6. Pygmy stands on man's hand. Irish myth: *Cross.

F535.2.7. F535.2.7. Person (poet, child) only "fist high." Irish myth: *Cross.

F535.2.8. F535.2.8. Little soldiers with officer on rabbit (long needles and knives for weapons). Chinese: Graham.

F535.3. F535.3. Dress of pygmies.

F535.3.1. F535.3.1. Pygmies dressed in copper. Finnish: Kalevala rune 2.

F535.3.2. F535.3.2. Pygmies dressed in red. Chinese: Werner 386.

F535.4. F535.4. Characteristics of pygmies.

F535.4.1. F535.4.1. Sexes of pygmies distinguished. A slight beard on men; long tresses on women. Chinese: Werner 386.

F535.4.2. F535.4.2. Pygmies with upturned feet. S. A. Indian: Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 712.

F535.4.3. F535.4.3. Noseless pygmies. (Cf. F514.1.) Jewish: Neuman.

F535.5. F535.5. Deeds of pygmies.

F535.5.1. F535.5.1. War of pygmies and cranes. Greek: *Frazer Pausanias II 107; *Fb "trane" III 835b.

F535.5.1.1. F535.5.1.1. Battle between giants and dwarfs; dwarfs win. (Cf. F531.) Africa (Fang): Einstein 71.

F535.6. F535.6. Kingdom of pygmies.

F535.6.1. F535.6.1. Underground pygmy kingdom. Tupper and Ogle Walter Map 17.

F540. F540. Remarkable physical organs.

F541. F541. Remarkable eyes. (Cf. F512.) Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F541.1. F541.1. Flashing eyes. Irish myth: Cross.

F541.1.1. F541.1.1. Eyes flash fire. Greek: Fox 9 (Typhon).

F541.1.2. F541.1.2. Eyes flash lightning. N. A. Indian (Navaho): Matthews MAFLS V

F541.1.3. F541.1.3. Eyes of live coals. Köhler-Bolte I 403.

F541.1.4. F541.1.4. Serpent-eye. Eyes so keen that man is supposed to have serpents in them. De Vries Zs. f. deutsche Philologie XIII (1928) 289; Icelandic: Sörlaöátttr (FAS I) 406, Völundarkvida, stanza 16, Ragnars saga Lopbrykar 136, *Boberg.

F541.2. F541.2. Eye with picture in the pupil. Witch with picture of cat (dog) in pupil. *Fb "øje" III 1166a, "kattekillig" II 111.

F541.3. F541.3. Eye with several pupils.

F541.3.1. F541.3.1. Eye with two pupils. Fb "øje" III 1166a.—Chinese: Ferguson

F541.3.2. F541.3.2. Eye with three pupils. Irish myth: *Cross.

F541.3.3. F541.3.3. Eye with four pupils. Irish myth: *Cross.

F541.3.4. F541.3.4. Eye with seven pupils. (Cf. A526.5.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F541.4. F541.4. Eye must be rubbed before it can see. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "oeil".

F541.5. F541.5. One of man's (giant's) eyes protrudes, other recedes. (Cf. F1041.16.2.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F541.5.1. F541.5.1. Single eye protrudes from forehead. Irish myth: *Cross.

F541.6. F541.6. Eyes remarkable as to color.

F541.6.1. F541.6.1. One eye brown, other blue. Irish myth: Cross.

F541.6.2. F541.6.2. Person has red eye. Irish myth: Cross.

F541.7. F541.7. Eye with remarkably heavy lid. Requires four men to lift it, or the like. (Cf. F511.1, G631.) Irish myth: Cross.

F541.8. F541.8. Eye recedes into head. Irish myth: *Cross.

F541.9. F541.9. Eyes shed tears of blood. (Cf. H71.8.) Jewish: Neuman.

F541.10. F541.10. Eyes impervious to iron lances. Jewish: Neuman.

F541.11. F541.11. Removable eyes. Jewish: Neuman; Africa: Weeks Jungle 126ff.

F542. F542. Remarkable ears. (Cf. F511.2.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F542.1. F542.1. Long ears. People must hold them up so as not to impede walking. Liebrecht 90f.; Cosquin Contes indiens 179; Chinese: Werner 389; Indonesian: Kruyt Het Animisme 350; Malay: Gerth van Wijk Tijdschrift voor Indische Taal-, Land- en Volkenkunde XXXV 272; Papua: Landtman Nos. 135, 145, 163.

F542.2. F542.2. Big ears. One used as mattress and one as a covering, and the like. India: Thompson-Balys; New Guinea: Rutland Journal of the Polynesian Society VI (1897) 213—215.

F543. F543. Remarkable nose. (Cf. F514.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F543.1. F543.1. Remarkably long nose. *Fb "næse" II 716b, "kjælling" II 146b.

F543.1.1. F543.1.1. Long nose used as poker. Fb. "næse" II 716b.

F543.1.2. F543.1.2. Long nose used as hen roost. Fb "næse" III 716b.

F543.1.3. F543.1.3. Remarkably long, hooked nose. Irish myth: Cross.

F543.2. F543.2. Remarkably large nose. Tobler 63.

F543.3. F543.3. Nose turned upside down. India: Thompson-Balys.

F543.4. F543.4. Remarkable nostrils. Jewish: Neuman.

F544. F544. Remarkable mouth. (Cf. F513, F531.1.4, F531.1.6.2.)

F544.0.1. F544.0.1. Remarkably large mouth. Irish myth: *Cross.

F544.0.1.1. F544.0.1.1. Mouth opens so wide that lungs (gullet) may be seen. Irish myth: *Cross.

F544.0.2. F544.0.2. Man's mouth, from fear of sea-monster under lake, "distended to both his ears." Irish myth: *Cross.

F544.0.3. F544.0.3. Mouth of man emits flames when open for speech. Jewish: *Neuman.

F544.0.4. F544.0.4. Mouth open to drink for forty days. Jewish: Neuman.

F544.1. F544.1. Remarkable lips.

F544.1.1. F544.1.1. Upper lip curls over nostril; lower hangs down to neck. Malone PMLA XLIII 401.

F544.1.2. F544.1.2. When sad, man lets one lip fall to stomach; other makes hood over his head. Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 190.

F544.1.3. F544.1.3. Lips on side of face. Irish myth: *Cross.

F544.1.4. F544.1.4. Lips used as a spear. Oceanic: Beckwith Myth 200.

F544.2. F544.2. Remarkable tongue. Irish myth: Cross.

F544.2.1. F544.2.1. Golden tongue. Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 278 No. 90.

F544.2.2. F544.2.2. Long tongue. India: Thompson-Balys.

F544.2.2.1. F544.2.2.1. Long tongue cut out and used to bridge a stream. *Penzer VI 10 n. 4.

F544.2.3. F544.2.3. Tongue with hair growing from it. India: Thompson-Balys.

F544.2.4. F544.2.4. Tongue with thorns. India: Thompson-Balys.

F544.3. F544.3. Remarkable teeth. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

F544.3.1. F544.3.1. Golden teeth. Icelandic: Boberg; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 278 No. 90.

F544.3.2. F544.3.2. Teeth of angered saint give off sparks. (Cf. F552.1.2.) Irish myth: Cross.

F544.3.2.1. F544.3.2.1. Luminous tooth of saint. Irish myth: *Cross.

F544.3.3. F544.3.3. Blue teeth. Jewish: Neuman; Icelandic: Boberg.

F544.3.3.1. F544.3.3.1. Blue, protruding teeth of one and a half elbow-length. Icelandic: Boberg.

F544.3.4. F544.3.4. Saints' teeth last for 300 years. Irish myth: Cross.

F544.3.5. F544.3.5. Remarkably long teeth. Jewish: Neuman.

F544.3.6. F544.3.6. Tooth travels automatically. Africa (Dzalamo): Meinhof ZsES XI 283.

F545. F545. Other facial features. Irish myth: Cross.

F545.1. F545.1. Remarkable beard. Jewish: *Neuman.

F545.1.0.1. F545.1.0.1. Beardless man. Irish myth: Cross.

F545.1.1. F545.1.1. Blue beard. *Type 312.

F545.1.1.1. F545.1.1.1. Green beard. Moe Samlede Skrifter III 289f.; English: Gawayne and the Green Knight.

F545.1.1.2. F545.1.1.2. Golden mustache. India: Thompson-Balys.

F545.1.2. F545.1.2. Beard projected over beams of great hall. Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 190.

F545.1.3. F545.1.3. Beard grows through table. (Usually told of king asleep in mountain.) Hartland Science 217; *BP III 460; Fb "sten" III 554a.

F545.1.4. F545.1.4. Beard shelters fifty men from rain. Irish myth: Cross.

F545.1.5. F545.1.5. Bearded woman. (Cf. T321.1.) Irish myth: Cross.

F545.1.5.1. F545.1.5.1. Enormously fat woman with beard. India: Thompson-Balys.

F545.1.6. F545.1.6. Beard travels detached from owners. Africa (Dzalamo): Meinhof ZsES XI 284.

F545.2. F545.2. Remarkable forehead. Jewish: Neuman.

F545.2.1. F545.2.1. Gold star on forehead. *Type 400, 533; *Roberts 188; BP I 102, II 275; Köhler-Bolte I 420; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "étoiles"; Italian: Basile

Pentamerone III No. 2.

F545.2.2. F545.2.2. Horns on forehead. Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G 2/27).

F545.2.3. F545.2.3. Man with inscription on forehead. Jewish: Neuman.

F545.2.4. F545.2.4. Man with forehead of iron. S. A. Indian (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 75f.

F545.3. F545.3. Remarkable cheek.

F545.3.1. F545.3.1. One cheek white, other red. Irish myth: *Cross.

F545.3.2. F545.3.2. Yellow, green, blue, purple spot on cheek. Irish myth: *Cross.

F545.4. F545.4. Face covered with long moss. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

F546. F546. Remarkable breast. (Cf. F232.2, F441.2.1.2, F460.1.2, F531.1.5.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F546.1. F546.1. Breast broad and made of glittering metal. Africa (Kaffir): Theal 150.

F546.2. F546.2. Woman with three breasts. Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F546.3. F546.3. Star (cross) on breast. Panzer Hilde-Gudrun 207; Dixon 48; Icelandic: Lagerholm Drei Lygisögur 87, Boberg.

F546.4. F546.4. Thorns around nipples. India: Thompson-Balys.

F546.5. F546.5. Woman with breasts hot enough to cook food. (Cf. F593.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F546.6. F546.6. Milk in man's breast. Jewish: Neuman.

F547. F547. Remarkable sexual organs. Irish myth: *Cross.

F547.1. F547.1. Toothed private parts. (Cf. F547.3.3.) N. A. Indian: Thompson Tales 309 n. 115.

F547.1.1. F547.1.1. Vagina dentata. Woman kills her husbands with her toothed vagina. India: *Thompson-Balys; Marquesas: Handy 100; Tuamotu: Beckwith Myth 289; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 305, Holm 87; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 309 n. 115, Hatt Asiatic Influences 85ff., (California): Gayton and Newman 72.

F547.2. F547.2. Hermaphrodite. Person with both male and female sexual organs. Greek: *Pauly-Wissowa s.v. "Hermaphroditos"; N. A. Indian (Navaho): Matthews MAFLS V 70; Icelandic: Boberg.

F547.2.1. F547.2.1. Hermaphrodite pygmies. N. A. Indian (Tsimshian): Alexander N. Am. 257.

F547.3. F547.3. Extraordinary penis. India: Thompson-Balys.

F547.3.1. F547.3.1. Long penis. India: *Thompson-Balys.

- F547.3.2. F547.3.2. Penis that eats and drinks. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F547.3.3. F547.3.3. Toothed penis. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F547.3.4. F547.3.4. Penis tatoed with name of God. Jewish: Neuman.
- F547.3.5. F547.3.5. Man's genitals hidden in his body. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 31.
- F547.3.6. F547.3.6. Penis cuts down trees. N. A. Indian (Klikitat): Jacobs U Wash II 29.
- F547.4. F547.4. Extraordinary clitoris. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F547.5. F547.5. Extraordinary vagina. (Cf. F547.1.1.)
- F547.5.1. F547.5.1. Removable vagina. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 113, 186.
- F547.5.2. F547.5.2. Enormous vagina. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F547.5.3. F547.5.3. Eye in vagina. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F547.5.4. F547.5.4. Double vagina. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F547.5.5. F547.5.5. Vagina as bag. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F547.5.6. F547.5.6. Vagina in forehead. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F547.5.7. F547.5.7. Vagina in armpit. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F547.5.8. F547.5.8. Saw in vagina. (Cf. F547.1.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- F547.5.9. F547.5.9. Hair in vagina which becomes a mantis. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F547.5.10. F547.5.10. Woman with privates like dog's. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 111.
- F547.6. F547.6. Remarkable pubic hairs. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F547.6.1. F547.6.1. Remarkably long pubic hair. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F547.7. F547.7. Enormous testicles. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 75.
- F548. F548. Remarkable legs. Irish myth: Cross.
- F548.0.1. F548.0.1. Pointed leg. S. A. Indian (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 75f.
- F548.1. F548.1. Person with black knee. (Cf. F527.5.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- F548.1.1. F548.1.1. Person with white knee. Irish myth: Cross.
- F551. F551. Remarkable feet. (Cf. F517.1.) Irish myth: Cross.
- F551.1. F551.1. Animal foot on human being.
- F551.1.1. F551.1.1. Man with snake-like feet. Greek: Fox 68 (Erichtheus).

F551.1.2. F551.1.2. Person with horse's foot. Tobler Epiphanie der Seele 62; Icelandic: Boberg.

F551.1.2.1. F551.1.2.1. Woman with horseshoe on one foot. *Fb "hestesko" I 604a.

F551.1.3. F551.1.3. Man with dog's feet. Icelandic: Hrylfs saga Kr. 54ff., Boberg.

F551.2. F551.2. Feet with unusual number of toes. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 143 (seven), *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F551.3. F551.3. Remarkably pretty white feet. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 103, *Boberg.

F551.4. F551.4. Remarkably ugly feet (and hands). Icelandic: Boberg.

F551.5. F551.5. Single-footed people lie on their backs and shade themselves from sun with their soles. India: Thompson-Balys.

F552. F552. Remarkable hands. (Cf. F515, F531.1.6.7, F551.4.) Japanese: Ikeda.

F552.1. F552.1. Hands with unusual fingers.

F552.1.1. F552.1.1. Hands with unusual number of fingers. Irish myth: *Cross.

F552.1.2. F552.1.2. Fingers of saint (angel) give light or fire. (Cf. F544.3.2.) *Loomis White Magic 34; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman.

F552.1.3. F552.1.3. Extraordinary fingernails. (Cf. G11.11.1.) Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 87, Rasmussen III 79; Oceania: *Lessa MS.

F552.1.4. F552.1.4. Human fingers not separated. Jewish: Neuman.

F552.1.5. F552.1.5. Milk from finger. Jewish: Neuman.

F552.2. F552.2. Remarkably strong hands. (Cf. F610.) Tonga: Beckwith Myth 486.

F552.3. F552.3. Remarkably pretty white hands. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F552.4. F552.4. Marvelous hand without wrist. Irish myth: *Cross.

F554. F554. Person remarkable as to his blood.

F554.1. F554.1. Person with pink fluid in place of blood. Irish myth: Cross.

F554.2. F554.2. Person with extraordinary amount of blood. Irish myth: Cross.

F555. F555. Remarkable hair. (Cf. F521, F531.1.6.3.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F555.1. F555.1. Gold hair. *Types 314, 504, 533; BP II 275, III 97, IV 271, 351, 409; *Fb "guldher" I 513, IV 191b, "her" I 771b; *Aarne FFC XCII 94ff.—Icelandic: Hdwb. d. Märch. I 431a n. 27, MacCulloch Eddic 266, Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s. v. "cheveux", "belle", "or"; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F555.1.1. F555.1.1. Person with hair partially golden. Irish myth: *Cross.

F555.2. F555.2. Silver hair. *Type 533; BP II 275.

F555.3. F555.3. Very long hair. Child V 482 s.v. "hair"; Icelandic: Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F555.3.0.1. F555.3.0.1. Hair recedes into head. Irish myth: Cross.

F555.3.1. F555.3.1. Nude woman clothed in own hair (Godiva). *Fb "her" I 771b; Type 710; *BP I 21; England: Baughman.

F555.3.1.1. F555.3.1.1. Girl's hair spreads on ground so that it hides her. India: Thompson-Balys.

F555.3.2. F555.3.2. Holy man's hair of enormous length, so long has he remained praying at one spot. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F555.3.3. F555.3.3. Hair so long that girl can cover herself with it. Icelandic: Gunnlaugs saga Ormstunga ch. V 13, ed. Altnord, Text bibl. 1908, Boberg.

F555.3.4. F555.3.4. Rapid growth of hair as protection against being seen nude. *Loomis White Magic 95f.

F555.4. F555.4. Very thick hair. Irish myth: Cross.

F555.5. F555.5. Multi-colored hair. Irish myth: *Cross.

F555.5.1. F555.5.1. Person with three heads of hair. (Cf. A526.4.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F555.6. F555.6. Man has drop of blood on end of each hair. Irish myth: *Cross.

F555.7. F555.7. Poisonous white hair in eyebrow that causes death to the first person who sees it each day. Irish myth: *Cross.

F555.8. F555.8. Hair so stiff that apples falling on it would be impaled. Irish myth: *Cross.

F555.8.1. F555.8.1. Hair above heart so stiff it rends five garments. Jewish: Neuman.

F555.9. F555.9. Hair so curly that nuts falling on it would be held. Irish myth: *Cross.

F555.10. F555.10. Hair emits sound. Jewish: Neuman; Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 75.

F556. F556. Remarkable voice. (Cf. X937).

F556.1. F556.1. Voice made rough by swallowing hot iron. Africa (Kaffir): Theal 119, (Basuto): Jacottet 64 No. 10.

F556.1.1. F556.1.1. Voice made smooth by swallowing hot iron. Africa (Bechuana): Arbousset et Daumas Voyage d'exploration au Nord-Est de la Colonie du Cap de Bonne-Espérance (Paris, 1842) 119f., Fraser FLJ VII 167f., (Basuto): Jacottet I 62f. No. 10.

F556.1.2. F556.1.2. Voice made smooth by having ant bite tongue. Africa (Mwimbe): Browne The Vanishing Tribes of Kenya (London, 1925) 211ff.

F556.2. F556.2. Voice changed by work of silversmith (goldsmith). Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 242 No. 17; N. Am. Negro (Georgia): Harris 236 No. 40.

- F556.3. F556.3. Voice changed by medicine. Africa (Hausa): Rattray II 14ff. No. 23, (Madagascar): Renel I 247ff. No. 46.
- F556.4. F556.4. Saint's voice heard from considerable distance. *Loomis White Magic 53; Irish myth: Cross.
- F557. F557. Removable organs. India: Thompson-Balys; Ibo (Nigeria): Basden 140 (nose, feet, hands, face).
- F557.1. F557.1. Removable brain. Saint's brain kept in a missile ball. Irish: Plummer xxxiv.
- F558. F558. Man covered with horn. Irish myth: *Cross; Norse: Panzer Sigfrid 66.
- F558.1. F558.1. Double-skinned tribe. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F559. F559. Remarkable physical organs—miscellaneous.
- F559.1. F559.1. Person with jointless bodies of bone. Irish myth: Cross.
- F559.2. F559.2. Long navel. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F559.3. F559.3. Extraordinary excrement. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F559.3.1. F559.3.1. Excreta is so fiery it starts great fires. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F559.4. F559.4. Remarkable skull.
- F559.4.1. F559.4.1. Skull has words miraculously written on it. Jewish: Neuman.
- F559.5. F559.5. Remarkable neck.
- F559.5.1. F559.5.1. Neck as hard as ivory. Jewish: Neuman.
- F559.6. F559.6. Extraordinary stomach.
- F559.6.1. F559.6.1. Stomach attains immense proportions by overeating. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 155.
- F559.7. F559.7. Remarkable heart. Irish myth: Cross.
- F559.7.1. F559.7.1. Person with three hearts. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F559.7.2. F559.7.2. Adder grows in heart of man. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F559.8. F559.8. Extraordinary urine.
- F559.8.1. F559.8.1. Person's urine melts rocks. Irish myth: Cross.
- F560. F560. Unusual manner of life. Irish myth: Cross.
- F561. F561. People of unusual diet. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F561.1. F561.1. People who prefer raw flesh. Maori: Dixon 78 n. 77.
- F561.2. F561.2. Ichthyophages. People who live on fish. *Chauvin VII 86 No. 373bis n.

4; Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; Icelandic: Boberg.

F561.3. F561.3. People who live on coconuts. Chauvin VII 22 No. 373 E n. 2.

F561.4. F561.4. Person lives by smoking tobacco. Never eats. N. A. Indian: Kroeber JAFL XXI 223.

F561.5. F561.5. Girl eats only kola nuts and tobacco. Africa (Angola): Chatelain 33 No. 1.

F561.6. F561.6. Woman fed by bees' dropping honey into her mouth (lie). India: Thompson-Balys.

F561.7. F561.7. Boy drinks perspiration. Irish myth: Cross.

F561.8. F561.8. Iron-eating tribe. India: Thompson-Balys.

F562. F562. People of unusual residence. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F562.1. F562.1. Boy lives on ox. Never walks on ground. Missouri French: Carrière; Africa (Zulu): Callaway 221.

F562.2. F562.2. Residence in a tree. Type 710, Grimm No. 3; Missouri French: Carrière; Hindu: Tawney I 121, 381, 531, 552, II 79, 162.

F562.3. F562.3. Residence in (under) water. Irish myth: *Cross.

F562.4. F562.4. Girl lives in fruit and comes out only to be bathed by her twenty sisters. India: Thompson-Balys.

F562.5. F562.5. Boy lives in ant-hill. India: Thompson-Balys.

F564. F564. Person never sleeps.

F564.1. F564.1. Person of diabolical origin never sleeps. *Krappe Mod. Lang. Review XXIV (1929) 200ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.

F564.2. F564.2. Semi-supernatural person sleeps little. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F564.3. F564.3. Person does not sleep for many months (years). Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

F564.3.1. F564.3.1. Long sleep, long waking. (Six months sleep followed by six months waking, or the like.) India: *Thompson-Balys.

F564.3.2. F564.3.2. Person sleeps for three days and nights. Irish myth: Cross.

F564.3.3. F564.3.3. King sleeps for six days and acquires after that magic wisdom. Icelandic: Hjalmpérs saga ok ölvis 505, Boberg.

F564.3.4. F564.3.4. Person sleeps for nine months. Irish myth: Cross.

F564.3.5. F564.3.5. Spirit woman sleeps through whole year; eats through the next. India: Thompson-Balys.

F564.3.6. F564.3.6. Twelve years' sleep customary to demons. India: Thompson-Balys.

F564.4. F564.4. Man sleeps with one eye and one ear open. India: Thompson-Balys.

F565. F565. Women warriors or hunters.

F565.1. F565.1. Amazons. Women warriors. Klein Die Antiken Amazonensagen in der deutschen Literatur (Leipzig, 1919); *Chauvin VIII 55 No. 22; *Gaster Exempla 186f. No. 5A.—Irish myth: *Cross; MacCulloch Celtic 144; English: Wells 105 (The Prose Alexander) Malory Morte Darthur X 39; Icelandic: Olrik Saksnes Oldhistorie I (1892) 52ff., *Boberg; Greek: Fox 85, *Frazer Apollodorus I 98 n. 1; India: *Thompson-Balys, Tawney II 589 n.; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 411 s.v. "Amazonen"; Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 68; N. A. Indian: Hatt Asiatic Influences 70ff.; S. A. Indian: *Chamberlain JAFL XXIV 16, Alexander Lat. Am. 19 n. 5, 281f., (Tropical Forests): Lowie BBAE CXLIII (3) 55.

F565.1.1. F565.1.1. Amazons cut off left breast of daughters so that they can handle bow. Greek: Fox 85.

F565.1.2. F565.1.2. All male children killed by Amazons. Greek: Fox 85; S. A. Indian (Aspinayé, Carajá, Taulipang, Tupinamba): Lowie BBAE CXLIII (1) 516.

F565.1.3. F565.1.3. Queen takes husband's place in battle. India: Thompson-Balys.

F565.2. F565.2. Remarkably strong women. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F565.3. F565.3. Parliament of women. Irish myth: Cross.

F565.4. F565.4. Women hunters. English: Malory Morte Darthur XVIII 21.

F566. F566. Celibate peoples.

F566.1. F566.1. Village of men only. N. A. Indian (Thompson River): Teit MAFLS XI 53 No. 34.

F566.1.1. F566.1.1. Country which no woman may enter. Africa (Swahili): Stignand 97ff. No. 15.

F566.2. F566.2. Land where women live separate from men. Cohabit with water monsters. Irish myth: Cross; S. A. Indian (Amazon): Alexander Lat. Am. 286.

F567. F567. Wild man. Man lives alone in wood like a beast. Type 502; *Dickson 113ff.; Irish myth: Cross; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Fang): Trilles Proverbs 199.

F567.1. F567.1. Wild woman. (Similar to wild man.) Type 314; Hdwb. d. Abergl. IX Nachträge 968ff.; U.S.: *Baughman.

F568. F568. Naked tribe. Sun, cold, wind, rain do not harm them. Irish myth: Cross.

F568.1. F568.1. Naked men (boy). Irish myth: *Cross.

F569. F569. Unusual manner of life—miscellaneous.

F569.1. F569.1. Woman lays eggs and hatches them. India: Thompson-Balys.

F569.2. F569.2. Men menstruate. India: Thompson-Balys.

F569.3. F569.3. Silent person.

F569.3.1. F569.3.1. Silent princess. India: Thompson-Balys.

F570. F570. Other extraordinary human beings.

F571. F571. Extremely old person. Irish myth: *Cross, O'Suilleabhain 28, Beal XXI 309; Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 206f.

F571.1. F571.1. Old man with hanging eyelids. So old that the eyelids hang down to his chin and must be lifted up. *Fb "öje" III 1167a; *BP II 398 n. 2, IV 148; Welsh, Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 187; N. A. Indian (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE XXXII 213 No. 41.

F571.2. F571.2. Sending to the older. Old person refers inquirer to his father, who refers to his father, and so on for several generations. *Type 726; *Baum JAFL XXX 379 n. 2; *Wesselski Archiv Orientální IV 1 ff.; Irish myth: *Cross, O'Suilleabhain 74, Beal XXI 326.

F571.2.1. F571.2.1. Sending to the older uncle. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

F571.3. F571.3. Very old woman. Irish myth: *Cross.

F571.3.1. F571.3.1. Woman so old her chin reaches her knee. Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 8.

F571.4. F571.4. Man so old he sleeps in cradle. Scotch: Campbell-McKay Nos. 1, 2.

F571.5. F571.5. King so old that he only can take food from a horn. Icelandic: Flateyjarbyk I 26, Boberg.

F571.6. F571.6. King so old that he cannot get on horseback without help. Icelandic: Boberg.

F571.7. F571.7. Person hundreds of years old. Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 587, *Boberg.

F571.8. F571.8. Man lives for nine generations. Irish myth: Cross.

F572. F572. Dancers upon whom icicles hang. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 323 No. 97.

F573. F573. Negro so black that he makes whole garden somber. Malone PMLA XLIII 401.

F574. F574. Luminous person. Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys, Penzer II 43 n. 2, VI 1 n. 1.

F574.1. F574.1. Resplendent beauty. Woman's face lights up the dark. *Fb "prins og prinsesse"; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys, *Penzer VI 1 n. 1, II 43 n. 2, VII 189 n. 2; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 1339; Koryak: *Jochelson JE VI 363; Philippine (Tinguan): Cole 35 n. 1, 62, 68, 106, 154.

F574.1.1. F574.1.1. Woman's beauty burns onlooker. N. A. Indian (Chuckchee): Bogoras AA n.s. IV 666.

F574.1.2. F574.1.2. Woman's beauty shows through seven veils. Köhler to Gonzenbach No. 13; *Köhler-Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. VI 63.

F574.1.3. F574.1.3. Men killed by look of beautiful princess. India: Thompson-Balys.

F574.1.4. F574.1.4. Man's beauty eclipses splendor of sun. Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

F574.2. F574.2. Man with luminous arms. Jewish: Gaster Exempla 227 No. 223, Neuman.

F574.3. F574.3. Holy man (hero) emits light.

F574.3.1. F574.3.1. Face of saint radiant. Irish myth: *Cross.

F574.3.2. F574.3.2. Holy man radiant. Jewish: *Neuman; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 802, 1015 (Buddha), I 427, 852, II 695 (ascetic).

F574.3.3. F574.3.3. Hero luminous. Cook Islands: Beckwith Myth 247.

F575. F575. Remarkable beauty. (Cf. F574.1.) Jewish: *Neuman.

F575.1. F575.1. Remarkably beautiful woman. Greek: Grote I 279 f.; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 349, 762.

F575.1.1. F575.1.1. Birth of daughter so beautiful mother is frightened and abandons her. India: Thompson-Balys.

F575.1.2. F575.1.2. Old woman beautiful as in youth. Jewish: Neuman.

F575.1.3. F575.1.3. Woman so beautiful sea is calm for her. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 307.

F575.2. F575.2. Handsome man. Jewish: Neuman.

F575.2.1. F575.2.1. Supernatural beauty of men in Messianic era. (Cf. A1095.) Jewish: *Neuman.

F575.2.2. F575.2.2. Supernatural beauty of Jerusalem's inhabitants. Jewish: *Neuman.

F575.3. F575.3. Remarkably beautiful child. Jewish: Neuman.

F576. F576. Extraordinary ugliness. (Cf. A2402.) Jewish: Neuman.

F577. F577. Persons identical in appearance. (Cf. F1072.) Jewish: *Neuman.

F577.1. F577.1. Friends identical in appearance. Irish myth: Cross; Cape Verde Islands. Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 212 No. 73.

F577.2. F577.2. Brothers identical in appearance. *Type 303; BP I 528; *Ranke FFC CXIV 286.

- F577.3. F577.3. King and fool identical in appearance. Irish myth: Cross.
- F577.4. F577.4. Lovers identical in appearance. Irish myth: Cross.
- F577.5. F577.5. All people in certain place identical in appearance. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F582. F582. Poison damsel. Woman nourished on poison is fatal to her husbands. Sometimes the poisoning is from fatal look or breath, sometimes from intercourse. *Penzer X 265 s.v. "Poison Damsel"; Penzer Poison Damsels 3ff.; Herbert III 211; *Oesterley No. 11; Hertz Abhandlungen 156ff.; Krappe Mitt. d. schles. Gesell. f. Volkskunde XXVIII (1927) 131ff.; *bin Gorion Born Judas I 360f.
- F582.1. F582.1. Serpent damsel. Woman has serpent inside which comes out and kills her bridegrooms. *Type 507C; BP III 490ff., 494; *Liljeblad Tobiasgeschichte 259 s.v. "Schlangenmädchen"; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F582.2. F582.2. Man spews venom. Icelandic: FSS 119, *Boberg.
- F582.3. F582.3. Venomous man. Irish myth: Cross.
- F583. F583. Hero has lain motionless since birth. Koryak, Mongol Turk, Russian: Jochelson JE VI 363.
- F584. F584. Person remarkably light in weight.
- F584.1. F584.1. Princess' weight that of five flowers. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F585. F585. Phantoms. Irish myth: *Cross; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 61 No. 445B.
- F585.0.1. F585.0.1. Fairy (god) as phantom. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F585.1. F585.1. Fatal enticements of phantom women. Chauvin V 34 No. 16.
- F585.2. F585.2. Magic phantom army. Created out of puffballs and withered leaves. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F585.3. F585.3. Phantom women cause weakness. Irish myth: Cross.
- F585.4. F585.4. Treasure struck from hand of phantom. Irish myth: Cross.
- F591. F591. Person who never laughs. Jewish: Neuman; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 347, 1288.
- F591.1. F591.1. Prince who never laughs. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "rire".
- F591.2. F591.2. Sad-faced princess cannot laugh. *BP IV 189 n. 2; Italian: Basile Pentamerone Introduction.
- F592. F592. Man's ferocious glance kills (causes swooning). Irish myth: Cross.
- F593. F593. Person's extraordinary body temperature. (Cf. F546.5).
- F593.1. F593.1. Extraordinary heat of body melts snow far around person. Irish myth: Cross.

F594. F594. Man whose entrails are visible when he laughs. Irish myth: *Cross.

F595. F595. Man's body exudes sweet scent. Jewish: Neuman.

F596. F596. Extraordinarily slow person. Icelandic: Boberg.

F597. F597. Woman without womb. Jewish: Neuman.

F598. F598. Old woman gives miraculous amount of milk. Jewish: Neuman.

F600—F699.

F600—F699. Persons with extraordinary powers.

F600. F600. Persons with extraordinary powers.

F601. F601. Extraordinary companions. A group of men with extraordinary powers travel together. *Types 301B, 513, 514, 571; *BP II 79, 95; *Benfey *Kleinere Schriften III 94; *Köhler-Bolte I 601 s.v. "Gefährten"; *Cosquin Contes indiens 431ff.; *Kittredge Arthur and Garlagon 226 n. 3; Jacobs's list s.v. "Extraordinary Companions"; Alphabet No. 693; *Chauvin VII 125 No. 392.—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Missouri French: Carrière; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 5, Rotunda; Buriat: Holmberg Siberian 428; Koryak, Mongol-Turk: Jochelson JE VI 363; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesian: De Vries Nederlandsche Tijdschrift voor Volkskunde (1924) 97ff.; Korean: Zong in-Sob 163f.; Chinese: Graham; Japanese: Ikeda; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 27, 114, 128, 433; N. A. Indian: *Thompson CColl II 334ff., 345ff.

F601.0.1. F601.0.1. Skillful companions. Irish myth: *Cross.

F601.1. F601.1. Extraordinary companions perform hero's tasks. *Types 513, 514; Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; Korean: Zong in-Sob 163ff.; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 345ff.

F601.2. F601.2. Extraordinary companions help hero in suitor tests. *Types 513, 514; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 345ff.; Africa (Fjort): Dennett 74ff. No. 16.

F601.3. F601.3. Extraordinary companions betray hero. *Type 301; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 334ff.

F601.4. F601.4. Extraordinary companions rescue hero. *Type 514.

F601.4.1. F601.4.1. Extraordinary companion hides behind hero to trick enemy. S. A. Indian (Chiriguano): Métraux RMLP XXXIII 143.

F601.4.2. F601.4.2. Extraordinary companion saves hero from death. Korean: Zong in-Sob 164.

F601.5. F601.5. Extraordinary companions are brothers (twins, triplets). *Cosquin Contes indiens 447ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.

F601.6. F601.6. Extraordinary companions are transformed animals. India: Thompson-Balys.

F601.7. F601.7. Animals as extraordinary companions. Type 715; Africa (Fjort): Dennett 74ff. No. 16.

F610. F610. Remarkably strong man. (Strong John). (Cf. X940, X959.1.) *Panzer Beowulf; Types 301, 650, 650, 650, 1003—1013; *BP II 285ff., 300ff.; *Fb "styrke", "stærk", "Svend Felding".—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 86, 153 (Heimdall), *Boberg; French: Cosquin Lorraine Nos. 14, 46, 52, 69 and notes; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 8; Greek: Fox 75 (Herakles), Frazer Apollodorus I 259 n. 3; Jewish: Frazer Old Testament II 480ff. (Samson), *Neuman; Armenian: Ananikian 86; Hindu: Keith 172; India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesian: *De Vries Nederlandsch Tijdschrift v. Volkskunde XXX 97ff.; Chinese: Graham; Buriat: Holmberg Siberian 428; N. A. Indian: *Thompson CColl II 334ff. incident A 2; West Indies: Flowers 435.

F610.0.1. F610.0.1. Remarkably strong woman. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 551, 902; Africa (Upoto): Einstein 128.

F610.0.1.1. F610.0.1.1. Remarkably strong women defeats man in arrow and spear contest. India: Thompson-Balys.

F610.1. F610.1. Wild man of superhuman strength. *Dickson 114 n. 37; Missouri French: Carrière.

F610.2. F610.2. Dwarf-hero of superhuman strength. Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 24; Missouri-French: Carrière.

F610.3. F610.3. Warrior of special strength (Berserk). (Cf. F1041.8.6.) Hdwb. d. March. I "Bärenhäuter"; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F610.3.1. F610.3.1. Invulnerable berserk. (Cf. D1840.) Icelandic: *Boberg.

F610.3.2. F610.3.2. Black berserk. (Cf. F527.5.) Icelandic: *Boberg.

F610.3.3. F610.3.3. Twelve berserks. (Cf. F610.3.4.1.) Icelandic: *Boberg.

F610.3.3.1. F610.3.3.1. Two berserk-brothers. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F610.3.4. F610.3.4. Fighting with berserks. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F610.3.4.1. F610.3.4.1. Fighting with twelve berserks. (Cf. F610.3.3.) Icelandic: *Boberg.

F610.3.4.2. F610.3.4.2. Single combat with berserk. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F610.3.4.2.1. F610.3.4.2.1. Berserk killed in combat about maiden. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F610.3.5. F610.3.5. Competition with berserks in their particular sports: walk through fire, etc. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F610.4. F610.4. Man with strength of many men. Jewish: Neuman.

F610.4.1. F610.4.1. Man with four men's strength. Icelandic: Boberg.

F610.4.2. F610.4.2. Man with twelve men's strength. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F610.4.3. F610.4.3. Man with seventy men's strength. Jewish: Neuman.

F610.5. F610.5. Man with strength of animals.

F610.5.1. F610.5.1. Man with strength of lion. Jewish: Neuman.

F610.5.2. F610.5.2. Man with strength of ten elephants. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 31, 580.

F610.6. F610.6. Man so strong that he breaks most of what he gets in touch with. (Cf. F614.3—F614.6.) Icelandic: *Boberg.

F610.6.1. F610.6.1. Man so strong that he must be chained except when in battle. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F610.7. F610.7. Strong man is so heavy that no horse can carry him all day. (Cf. F681.8.) Icelandic: *Boberg.

F610.8. F610.8. Strong man so heavy that only his own horse can carry him. Icelandic: Þiðriks saga II 380, Boberg.

F610.9. F610.9. Strong man accomplishes superhuman tasks when God's spirit is over him. Jewish: Neuman.

F611. F611. Strong man's birth and rearing.

F611.1. F611.1. Strong man's birth. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 703*.

F611.1.1. F611.1.1. Strong man son of bear who has stolen his mother. *Types 301, 650; *Panzer Beowulf 16ff.; *Dickson 117 n. 48; *BP II 293, 300; Hdwb. d. Märch. s.v. "Bärensohn"; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 334ff.

F611.1.2. F611.1.2. Strong man son of woman and dwarf. Type 301; BP II 300; Dickson 117 n. 48.

F611.1.2.1. F611.1.2.1. Strong man son of woman and forest spirit. Africa (Fang): Einstein 70ff., Trilles 190ff. No. 11.

F611.1.3. F611.1.3. Wild man son of woman and satyr who overpowers her. Dickson 124 n. 76.

F611.1.4. F611.1.4. Wild man son of woman and robber. She is overpowered in forest. Dickson 117 n. 48.

F611.1.5. F611.1.5. Strong man son of man and she-bear. Type 301; BP II 300; Dickson 117 n. 48.

F611.1.6. F611.1.6. Strong man son of man and mare. Type 301; BP II 300; Dickson 117 n. 48.

F611.1.6.1. F611.1.6.1. Strong man accused of being son of man and mare. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F611.1.7. F611.1.7. Strong man son of person and giant. Fb. "styrke".

- F611.1.8. F611.1.8. Strong hero engendered by eating of fruit. BP II 300.
- F611.1.9. F611.1.9. Strong hero engendered by the wind. BP II 300.
- F611.1.10. F611.1.10. Strong hero engendered from burning brand. BP II 301.
- F611.1.11. F611.1.11. Strong hero born from egg. *Type 650; Christiansen 92.
- F611.1.11.1. F611.1.11.1. Strong hero born from noodle. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- F611.1.12. F611.1.12. Strong hero struck by smith from iron. Type 650; Christiansen 92.
- F611.1.13. F611.1.13. Strong hero son of man and troll-woman. Relations take place in dream. Type 650; Christiansen 92.
- F611.1.14. F611.1.14. Strong hero son of woman of sea. Type 650.
- F611.1.15. F611.1.15. Strong hero son of wood-spirit. Type 650.
- F611.2. F611.2. Strong hero's suckling.
- F611.2.0.1. F611.2.0.1. Hero's unusual strength from drinking his own mother's milk. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F611.2.1. F611.2.1. Strong hero suckled by animal. Type 301; BP II 293, 300; Dickson 117 n. 48.
- F611.2.2. F611.2.2. Strong hero suckled by mermaid. Gives him strength of twelve men. *Fb "havfrue" I 569.
- F611.2.3. F611.2.3. Strong hero's long nursing. *Type 650; *BP II 293; Panzer Beowulf 20f.
- F611.2.4. F611.2.4. Strong hero suckled by seven women. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F611.2.5. F611.2.5. Strong hero suckled by giant. German: Grimm No. 90.
- F611.3. F611.3. Strong hero acquires his strength. (Cf. F611.2.2.)
- F611.3.0.1. F611.3.0.1. Extraordinary strength from fasting for 12 years and eating nothing except earth. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F611.3.1. F611.3.1. Strong hero practices uprooting trees. (Cf. F621.) Type 650; BP II 287; Christiansen Norske Eventyr 92; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 435.
- F611.3.2. F611.3.2. Hero's precocious strength. Has full strength when very young. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 69, Snorra Edda Prol. III, *Boberg; Norwegian: Christiansen 92, India: *Thompson-Balys; Lau Islands: Beckwith Myth 483; Marquesas: Handy 105.
- F611.3.2.1. F611.3.2.1. Strong hero drives huge log into frozen ground. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 237.
- F611.3.2.2. F611.3.2.2. Baby tied to a mill-stone by strap so he would not wander about; drags stone after him. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 31.

F611.3.2.3. F611.3.2.3. Precocious hero crushes iron wall with fists. India: Thompson-Balys.

F611.3.2.4. F611.3.2.4. Precocious hero jumps across river. (Cf. F614.11.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F611.3.2.5. F611.3.2.5. Small child beats giant challenger. India: Thompson-Balys.

F611.3.2.6. F611.3.2.6. Twelve year old hero captures town of father's enemy. India: Thompson-Balys.

F611.3.3. F611.3.3. Strong hero tests weapons. Breaks first swords. *Von Sydow Fâvne 22ff.; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo III 305, *Boberg.

F611.3.3.0.1. F611.3.3.0.1. Precocious strong hero demands bows and arrows. (Cf. F611.3.3.) Type 650.

F611.3.3.1. F611.3.3.1. Hero tests sword by cutting steer in two. Chinese: Graham.

F611.3.3.2. F611.3.3.2. Strong hero tests scythes: they break all. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F611.4. F611.4. Precocious son saves kingdom. India: Thompson-Balys.

F612. F612. Strong hero sent from home. Irish myth: *Cross.

F612.1. F612.1. Strong hero sent from home because of enormous appetite. *Type 650; BP II 293; Christiansen Norske Eventyr 92; *Fb "spise" III 495b, "æde" III 1140a; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "appétit"; Indonesian: De Vries Nederlandsche Tijdschrift voor Volkskunde XXX (1926) 97ff.; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 24.

F612.2. F612.2. Strong hero kills (overcomes) playmates: sent from home. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; French: Cosquin Lorraine No. 52; N. A. Indian: *Thompson CColl II 334ff.

F612.3. F612.3. Hero leaves home with giant equipment.

F612.3.1. F612.3.1. Giant cane for strong man. Cane holds fifty cattle. *Type 650; *Cosquin Contes indiens 482ff.; *Fb "jærn" IV 249a; French: Cosquin Lorraine No. 52; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bâton"; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXX 86; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 436.

F612.3.2. F612.3.2. Strong man with giant hammer and shield. India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

F613. F613. Strong man makes labor contract. *Type 650; Irish myth: *Cross.

F613.1. F613.1. Strong man's labor contract: blow at end of year. Blow sends his master to sky. *Type 650; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *762.

F613.2. F613.2. Strong man's labor contract: all grain he can carry. *Type 650; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 505—511, 520f., 523f.

F613.2.1. F613.2.1. Labor contract: as much money as my companion (strong man) can carry. Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 8.

F613.3. F613.3. Strong man's labor contract: anger bargain. First to become angry shall receive blow. *Type 650, 1000; BP II 293.

F613.4. F613.4. Strong man serves ogre as punishment for stealing food. *Type 650.

F614. F614. Strong man's labors. Irish myth: Cross.

F614.1. F614.1. Strong man drives anvil into ground. *Type 650; BP II 293; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F614.2. F614.2. Strong man uproots tree and uses it as weapon. *Type 650; Dickson 179 n. 47; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F614.2.1. F614.2.1. Strong man uses pillar-stone as weapon. Irish myth: *Cross.

F614.2.2. F614.2.2. Strong man uses rafter as weapon. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F614.2.3. F614.2.3. Strong man buries axe in tree stump and removes it with his little finger. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F614.3. F614.3. Strong man as gardener: destroys plants. *Type 650; Finnish: Kalevala rune 31 (woods); Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 77 No. 650.

F614.4. F614.4. Strong man as rower; breaks boat. Finnish: Kalevala rune 35.

F614.4.1. F614.4.1. Strong man as rower: rows one side of boat against many at other. Irish myth: Cross.

F614.5. F614.5. Strong man as fisherman: destroys fish and nets. Finnish: Kalevala rune 35; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F614.6. F614.6. Strong man throws trees on roof and breaks it. *Type 650; Chinese: Graham.

F614.6.1. F614.6.1. Strong man throws man back and breaks his bones (legs). Icelandic: *Boberg.

F614.7. F614.7. Strong man uses stable-roof as flail. Type 1031; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 21.

F614.8. F614.8. Strong man fells tree with one blow of axe. India: Thompson-Balys.

F614.9. F614.9. Strong man clears plain. Irish myth: *Cross.

F614.10. F614.10. Strong hero fights whole army alone. India: Thompson-Balys.

F614.11. F614.11. Strong man jumps across rivers. (Cf. F611.3.2.4.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F614.12. F614.12. Youth crushes coins to powder with fingers. India: Thompson-Balys.

F615. F615. Strong man evades death. Vain attempts to kill him. *Type 590, 650.—Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 143, *Cross; Hindu: Keith 173 (Krishna); Philippine:

Fansler MAFLS XII 24; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 391.

F615.0.1. F615.0.1. Death of strong man. Irish myth: *Cross.

F615.1. F615.1. Strong man sent to devil's mill: drives devils to master's house. *Type 650.

F615.2. F615.2. Strong hero sent for wild animals. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

F615.2.1. F615.2.1. Strong man sent to milk lions: brings lions back with him. *Type 590.

F615.2.2. F615.2.2. Strong man sent to kill lions: does so and frightens king. Greek: Fox 80 (Herakles).

F615.2.3. F615.2.3. Strong man sent for wild horses: brings them back. *Type 650.

F615.2.4. F615.2.4. Strong man sent for bears: bring them back home. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F615.2.5. F615.2.5. Strong man sent for wolves: brings them back home. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F615.3. F615.3. Strong hero overawes master. *Type 1145—1165 passim; Missouri French: Carrière.

F615.3.1. F615.3.1. Strong hero attacked with millstone puts it on as collar. Sent to dig a well. Master throws the millstone on him. *Type 650; Fb "kilde" II 119a, "møllesten" II 650b; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 21; India: Thompson-Balys; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 112 No. 39.

F615.3.1.1. F615.3.1.1. Strong hero asks that chickens stop scratching. When his master throws millstone on him he complains that chickens are scratching dirt on him. *Type 650; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 435f.

F615.3.1.2. F615.3.1.2. Camels having fallen from sky into girl's eyes; she tells her mother that some grains of sand have fallen down from sky. India: Thompson-Balys.

F615.4. F615.4. Spear bends as it strikes hero on chest and he survives ordeal. India: Thompson-Balys.

F616. F616. Mighty pugilist. Greek: Grote I 156.

F617. F617. Mighty wrestler. Africa (Bulu): Krug 106.

F617.1. F617.1. Extraordinary strength; elephant-wrestler. India: Thompson-Balys.

F618. F618. Strong man tames animals.

F618.1. F618.1. Strong hero tames ungovernable horse. India: Thompson-Balys.

F621. F621. Strong man: tree-puller. Can uproot and carry off trees. (Cf. F611.3.1, F614.2.) *Type 513; BP II 79ff.; *Fb "træ" III 867b.—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "arbres"; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 21; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 295 No. 13; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-

Balys; Hawaii: Dixon 90, Beckwith Myth 421; Samoa: Ibid. 254; Tonga: Gifford 127; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G 3/1323).

F621.1. F621.1. Trees pulled up by animals. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "arbres"

F621.2. F621.2. Trees pulled up by giant. Irish myth: *Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "arbres"; Westphalian: Zaubert Westfälische 7, 8, 11; India: Thompson-Balys.

F621.2.1. F621.2.1. Trees pulled up and thrust into the ground upside down by Antichrist, a giant. Irish myth: Cross.

F621.2.2. F621.2.2. Giant polishes teeth with uprooted tree. India: Thompson-Balys.

F621.3. F621.3. Tree as strong man's umbrella. India: Thompson-Balys.

F622. F622. Mighty blower. Man turns mill with his blowing. (Cf. X935.) *Type 513; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 432a n. 55.—Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 8, Rotunda; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "souffle", "moulin."

F622.1. F622.1. Mighty blower slows down princess with his breath. Causes her to lose race. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

F622.2. F622.2. Mighty blower blows firebrand so that sparks fly far, blows seawaves back and forth. Irish myth: *Cross.

F623. F623. Strong man holds up mountain. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "montagne", "appuiemontagne"; Jewish: Neuman.

F624. F624. Mighty lifter. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Flateyjarbok I 523—24, MacCulloch Eddic 82, 93, Snorra Edda Prol. III, *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

F624.0.1. F624.0.1. Saint as mighty lifter. (Cf. V220.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F624.1. F624.1. Strong man lifts horse (ox, ass). Fb "stærk"; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 250; Gaster Exempla 203 No. 92; Greek: Fox 100 (Theseus); Jewish: Neuman.

F624.1.1. F624.1.1. Strong man throws elephant across sea. India: Thompson-Balys.

F624.1.2. F624.1.2. Strong man throws walrus. Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 178.

F624.1.3. F624.1.3. Strong man throws leopard. Jewish: *Neuman.

F624.2. F624.2. Strong man lifts large stone. Irish myth: Cross (F624.7); Icelandic: Boberg; Jewish: Neuman.

F624.2.0.1. F624.2.0.1. Strong man throws enormous stone. Greek: Odyssey XIII 184, IX 482, X 120, Iliad XII 381.

F624.2.0.1.1. F624.2.0.1.1. Strong man throws mountain. (Cf. F623, F626.) Jewish: *Neuman.

F624.2.0.2. F624.2.0.2. Strong man moves enormous rock. Marquesas: Handy 105.

F624.2.1. F624.2.1. Strong man lifts millstone. Irish myth: Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "arracheur."

F624.2.2. F624.2.2. Strong man lifts large stone with one hand. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

F624.3. F624.3. Strong hero lifts cart. Irish myth: *Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "charrette."

F624.3.1. F624.3.1. Strong man throws carriage with horses and driver on top of haystack and breaks the driver's ribs. Icelandic: Boberg.

F624.4. F624.4. Strong man lifts plow. Fb "stærk"; German: Grimm No. 90.

F624.5. F624.5. Strong man lifts ton of rye. Fb "stærk."

F624.6. F624.6. Strong hero lifts house. Irish myth: *Cross.

F624.7. F624.7. Strong man carries boat (ship). Tonga: Gifford 127; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G. 3/403).

F624.8. F624.8. Strong man throws opponent into the air. Icelandic: *Boberg; Tonga: Gifford 122.

F624.9. F624.9. Little girl moves enormous bow which nobody could ever carry before. India: Thompson-Balys.

F624.10. F624.10. Strong man carries bellows. Chinese: Graham.

F625. F625. Strong man: breaker of iron. (Cf. X946.) *Fb "stærk" (bends horseshoe); Icelandic: Flateyjarbyk I 524, Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "Brise-Fer"; India: Thompson-Balys.

F625.1. F625.1. Hero drives spear through seven iron plates. India: Thompson-Balys.

F626. F626. Strong man pulls down mountains. French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 21.

F626.1. F626.1. Strong man flattens hill (lops off hilltop). Irish myth: *Cross.

F626.2. F626.2. Strong man kicks mountain down. Marquesas: Handy 105.

F627. F627. Strong man pulls down building. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: Judges 16: 30 (Samson), *Neuman.

F628. F628. Strong man as mighty slayer. (Cf. F615.2.2.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F628.0.1. F628.0.1. Precocious strong hero as mighty slayer. (Cf. F611.3.2.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F628.1. F628.1. Strong man kills animals with own hands. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

F628.1.0.1. F628.1.0.1. Strong man slays monster. Tears heart out. Irish myth: *Cross.

F628.1.1. F628.1.1. Strong man kills lion with own hands. English: Child V 487 s.v. "lion", Wells 151 (Richard Coer de Lyon); Hebrew: Judges 14: 6 (Samson); India: Thompson-Balys.

- F628.1.1.1. F628.1.1.1. Strong man kills tiger single-handed. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F628.1.1.2. F628.1.1.2. Strong man kills leopard. Africa (Upoto): Einstein 125f.
- F628.1.1.3. F628.1.1.3. Strong man kills jaguar. S. A. Indian (Cashinawa): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 687.
- F628.1.1.4. F628.1.1.4. Strong man kills bear. Jewish: Neuman.
- F628.1.1.5. F628.1.1.5. Strong man kills wolves in sea. Irish myth: Cross.
- F628.1.2. F628.1.2. Man kills ox with flat of hand. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No 250.
- F628.1.2.1. F628.1.2.1. Man kills cow with flat of hand. Africa (Duala): Lederbogen Märchen 144.
- F628.1.2.2. F628.1.2.2. Man swings wild steer by horns round and round till it is stunned, casts it to ground. Jewish: Neuman.
- F628.1.3. F628.1.3. Strong man kills great serpent. Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 116.
- F628.1.3.1. F628.1.3.1. Man kills serpents, toads, dragons with own hands. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F628.1.3.2. F628.1.3.2. Child tears to pieces a live snake with his bare hands. (Cf. F611.3.2.) Greek: Fox 79 (Hercules); India: Thompson-Balys.
- F628.1.4. F628.1.4. Strong hero kills aquatic animal with own hands.
- F628.1.4.1. F628.1.4.1. Strong hero kills many crocodiles with own hands. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 1365.
- F628.1.4.2. F628.1.4.2. Strong hero kills sharks with own hands. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 421.
- F628.1.4.3. F628.1.4.3. Strong hero kills walrus with own hands. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 263.
- F628.1.5. F628.1.5. Strong man kills giant dog. Tonga: Gifford 137.
- F628.1.6. F628.1.6. Strong hero fells two maddened elephants. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F628.2. F628.2. Strong man kills men. Dickson 180; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.
- F628.2.1. F628.2.1. Strong man kills many men at once. *Boje 103; Irish myth: *Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: Judges 14: 19 (Samson), *Neuman; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 417, Rarotonga: ibid. 253; Africa (Upoto): Einstein 126.
- F628.2.2. F628.2.2. Strong man throws another from walls. Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus I 238 n. 3.
- F628.2.3. F628.2.3. Strong man kills giant. Type 650* (Cf. F639.4.) Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman; Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 38; S. A. Indian (Cashinawa): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 686.

- F628.2.4. F628.2.4. Army of strong men. Irish myth: Cross.
- F628.2.5. F628.2.5. Strong man kills men with own hands. Irish myth: Cross.
- F628.2.6. F628.2.6. Strong man kills many with hammer. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F628.2.7. F628.2.7. Strong man uses man as weapon. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F628.2.8. F628.2.8. Strong man kills robber with a snap of his finger. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- F628.2.10. F628.2.10. Strong man cleaves horse and rider in two with sword. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F628.3. F628.3. Strong man slays spectre. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F628.4. F628.4. Strong man's mighty spear-cast (sword blow). Irish myth: *Cross.
- F628.4.1. F628.4.1. Strong man plunges sword into stone. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F628.5. F628.5. Strong hero wields many weapons at once. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F631. F631. Strong man carries giant load. (Cf. F531.3.10, F624.) Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F631.1. F631.1. Strong man drags mill. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "moulin".
- F631.2. F631.2. Strong man carries off city gates. Jewish: Judges 16: 3, *Neuman.
- F631.2.1. F631.2.1. Strong man carries off door-frame and frame of smoke-hole. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F631.3. F631.3. Strong man swims carrying fifty (many) companions. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F631.4. F631.4. Strong man carries ox on the back. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F631.5. F631.5. Strong man carries heavy oxhide on the hand. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F631.6. F631.6. Strong man carries huge beam.
- F631.6.1. F631.6.1. Strong men knock on door with beam of twenty elbow-lengths. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F631.6.2. F631.6.2. Man carries a beam eighteen feet in length and cuts path through jungle at same time. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F632. F632. Mighty eater. Eats whole ox at time, or the like. (Cf. X931.) *Cosquin Contes indiens 427ff.; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 250.—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 88, 93, Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 419; Tonga: ibid. 271, Gifford 172f.; Marquesas: Handy 42; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G. 3/620); S. A. Indian (Chiriguano): Métraux RMLP XXXIII 142; Africa (Fang): Tessman 117, (Wute): Sieber 117.
- F633. F633. Mighty drinker. Drinks up whole pools of water, or the like. (Cf. X932.)

*Type 513; BP II 79ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys; Tonga: Gifford 159; Eskimo (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 259; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 345ff.; Africa (Ba Ronga): Einstein 246.

F634. F634. Mighty fisherman. Palm tree as rod, elephant as bait. India: Thompson-Balys.

F634.1. F634.1. Strong man bathing and diving in river catches thousands of fishes in his beard. (Cf. X1112.) Jewish: Neuman.

F635. F635. Remarkable spitter. Spits lake of soap. (Cf. F934). Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 5.

F636. F636. Remarkable thrower. (Cf. F531.3.2., F624.0.1, F624.3.1, F624.8, F628.2.2, F628.4, X943.) Irish myth: *Cross; Missouri French: Carrière; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 1172; Hawaii: Beckwith 421; Samoa: ibid. 254.

F636.1. F636.1. Remarkable thrower of iron. Makes field full of scissors. Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 5.

F636.2. F636.2. Remarkable thrower of chips. Makes forest. Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 5.

F636.3. F636.3. Remarkable pourer of water. Makes a river. Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 5.

F636.4. F636.4. Remarkable stone-thrower. Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 5; Jewish: *Neuman.

F636.4.1. F636.4.1. Hero throws up a stone: before it falls, he drinks a full jar empty. India: Thompson-Balys.

F636.4.2. F636.4.2. Strong man catches stones hurled from catapults by enemy and throws them back upon the besiegers. Jewish: *Neuman.

F636.4.3. F636.4.3. Strong man's stone-throw carries away roof-timber. Irish myth: Cross.

F636.5. F636.5. Hero catches a giant jug and pitches it about. India: Thompson-Balys.

F637. F637. Strong man holds back ship. Alphabet No. 493.—Jewish: Neuman.

F638. F638. Mighty archer. Buriat: Holmberg Siberian 428; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F638.1. F638.1. Arrow shot thirty miles high. India: Thompson-Balys.

F638.2. F638.2. Arrow shot down years after the shot. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F638.3. F638.3. Man is waiting for bird to fall that he had shot eight days before. India: Thompson-Balys.

F638.4. F638.4. Strong man shoots arrow as far as otherworld. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 1004.

F639. F639. Extraordinary powers—miscellaneous.

F639.1. F639.1. Mighty digger.

F639.1.1. F639.1.1. Mighty digger of tunnels. Africa (Hausa): Equilbecq II 171ff.

F639.1.2. F639.1.2. Strong man's finger digs into ground with such force that water gushes out. Jewish: Neuman.

F639.2. F639.2. Mighty diver. Can stay extraordinary time under water. Africa (Ziba): Rehse Zs. f. Kolonialspr. III 366f. No. 30, (Madagascar): Renel I 102ff. No. 15, (Malinke): Frobenius Atlantis VIII 145ff. No. 81.

F639.3. F639.3. Strong man's shield-cast annihilates fleeing enemy and chariot. Irish myth: *Cross.

F639.4. F639.4. Strong man overcomes giant. (Cf. F628.2.3.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F639.5. F639.5. Strong man kicks through heavy door. Irish myth: Cross.

F639.6. F639.6. Strong man tears boat apart with hands. Irish myth: Cross.

F639.7. F639.7. Man presses out twelve measures of oil without the help of bullocks. India: Thompson-Balys.

F639.8. F639.8. Palace shakes when strong man gets upon its roof. India: Thompson-Balys.

F639.9. F639.9. Strong man crushes ribs of person he embraces. India: Thompson-Balys.

F639.10. F639.10. Strong man's anger: bites brass rods in anger and spits them out as powder. Jewish: *Neuman.

F639.11. F639.11. Strong man grinds huge rocks into powder. Jewish: Neuman.

F639.12. F639.12. Nine hundred horses draw chariot in which strong man rides. Jewish: Neuman.

F640. F640. Extraordinary powers of perception. Penzer VI 285; Icelandic: Boberg.

F641. F641. Person of remarkable hearing. (Cf. X936.) *Type 513; BP II 79ff. *95; Fb "jord" II 45a; Irish myth: *Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "ouie"; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 5, III No. 8; Buriat: Holmberg Siberian 428.

F641.1. F641.1. Man can hear grass (wool) grow. *Type 513; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 432a n. 55; *BP II 95ff.; *Fb "høre" I 755b, IV 238b;—Icelandic: Boberg; Irish: Hyde Beside the Fire (London 1890) 23; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "avoine".

F641.2. F641.2. Man can hear ant leave nest fifty miles away. Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 190.

F641.3. F641.3. Man can hear one sleeping by putting ear to ground. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

F642. F642. Person of remarkable sight. (Cf. X938.) *Type 653; BP II 95, III 45ff.; Köhler-Bolte I 439; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 432b. n. 54; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic:

Boberg; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 190.

F642.1. F642.1. Remarkable star-gazer. Sees birds in nest in distant tree. *Type 653; BP III 45, *57; Köhler-Bolte I 298f; India: Thompson-Balys.

F642.2. F642.2. Person of remarkable sight finds tracks of swine stolen seven years before his birth. Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 190.

F642.3. F642.3. Person can see through opaque objects.

F642.3.1. F642.3.1. Person of remarkable sight can see through hearts of trees. Greek: Fox 26 (Lynkeus).

F642.3.2. F642.3.2. Remarkable sight of sage lets him see worm in loaf. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

F642.3.3. F642.3.3. Blind man is able to see two unborn rats within mother rat. Korean: Zong in-Sob.

F642.4. F642.4. Person sees equally well by night or day. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 154, Boberg; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 886.

F642.5. F642.5. Man can see celestial nymphs dancing in divine world. India: Thompson-Balys.

F642.6. F642.6. One-eyed barber sees thread of silk stretching to sea. India: Thompson-Balys.

F642.7. F642.7. Person of remarkable sight can see the soul. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F642.8. F642.8. Person sees enormous distance. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 154, Boberg; Greek: Grote I 158; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 493.

F645. F645. Marvelously wise man.

F645.1. F645.1. Wise man answers all questions. Africa (Hausa): Equilbecq II 171ff.

F645.2. F645.2. Man knows exactly how many grains are in a measure. Jewish: Neuman.

F647. F647. Marvelous sensitiveness. *Penzer VI 219, 288, VII 204ff.; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 265ff., *Boberg.

F647.1. F647.1. Marvelous sensitiveness: meat (wine) tastes of corpse. Has been near grave. Italian novella: Rotunda (J1661.1.8.); India: *Thompson-Balys, Penzer VI 288; Jewish: Neuman; Korean: Zong in-Sob 102 No. 55.

F647.1.1. F647.1.1. Extraordinary gustatory sense. Woman detects flavor of garlic in a sauce made in a mortar from which garlic has been removed. Spanish: Childers.

F647.2. F647.2. Marvelous sensitiveness: suffering from merely seeing work done. *Penzer VII 204ff.

F647.3. F647.3. Marvelous sensitiveness: injury from rose leaves falling. (Cf. F647.9.) *Penzer VII 204ff.; BP III 238.

F647.4. F647.4. Marvelous sensitiveness: women blush in presence of male statue.
*Penzer VII 204ff.; BP III 238.

F647.4.1. F647.4.1. Marvelous sensitiveness: woman refuses to look at male fish. *BP III 238.

F647.5. F647.5. Marvelous sensitiveness: woman smells like a goat. She has been brought up on goat's milk. Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys, Penzer VI 219.

F647.5.1. F647.5.1. Marvelous sensitiveness: meat is dog's flesh. Animal has been suckled by a dog. *Type 655; *Gaster Exempla 195 No. 51; India: Thompson-Balys.

F647.5.2. F647.5.2. Marvelous sensitiveness: food has been raised in particular kind of manure. India: Thompson-Balys.

F647.5.3. F647.5.3. Marvelous sensitiveness: man recognizes milk of his stolen cows. India: Thompson-Balys.

F647.6. F647.6. Marvelous sensitiveness: wine shows through woman's white throat.
*Köhler-Bolte II 348ff.; *BP III 238.

F647.7. F647.7. Marvelous sensitiveness: ulcer from moon's rays. *BP III 238; Penzer VII 11.

F647.8. F647.8. Marvelous sensitiveness: fainting from noise of wooden pestle and mortar. *BP III 238.

F647.8.1. F647.8.1. Marvelous sensitiveness: fracture from hearing man chopping wood. *BP III 238.

F647.8.1.1. F647.8.1.1. Marvelous sensitiveness: stitch in side from being told about hearing a man chopping wood. *BP III 238.

F647.9. F647.9. Marvelous sensitiveness: blister on back from lying in rose leaves. (Cf. F647.3.) *BP III 238.

F647.9.1. F647.9.1. Prince thinks he has slept on a beam; a hair is found on lower bedding. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F647.9.2. F647.9.2. Marvelous sensitiveness: man feels little point of simple thorn in middle of his clothes. India: Thompson-Balys.

F647.10. F647.10. Marvelous sensitiveness: man refuses to eat fifth descendent of stolen cow. Alphabet No. 301.

F647.11. F647.11. Marvelous sensitiveness: clarified butter was someone's leavings. India: Thompson-Balys.

F647.12. F647.12. Girl (princess) so delicate she can live only on the perfume of flowers. India: Thompson-Balys.

F648. F648. Extraordinary sympathy (telepathic) with wild animals. India: Thompson-Balys.

F651. F651. Remarkable power to walk directly to nearest water. Irish myth: Cross.

F652. F652. Marvelous sense of smell. (Cf. F647.5.) Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F652.1. F652.1. Man identifies picker of berries by their scent. Irish myth: Cross.

F652.2. F652.2. Man smells pots boiling 400 miles off. Jewish: Neuman.

F654. F654. Remarkable power of recognition. Man remembers all people he has met. (Cf. F692.) India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 908.

F655. F655. Extraordinary perception of blind men.

F655.1. F655.1. Blind man able to recognize real pearls by their smell, diamonds by touch, a good horse by screwing its ears, and raja of noble birth by his generosity. India: Thompson-Balys.

F655.2. F655.2. Blind tiger recognizes by man's voice that he is a hypocrite. India: Thompson-Balys.

F660. F660. Remarkable skill. Types 653, 653; BP III 45ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.

F660.1. F660.1. Brothers acquire extraordinary skill. Return home and are tested. *Types 653, 654, 1525; *BP III 10, 45ff., 379ff., 390 n. 1; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 7; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

F660.2. F660.2. Unskilled man made skillful by saint's blessing. *Loomis White Magic 72, 82.

F660.2.1. F660.2.1. Follower of a saint is miraculously made a famous preacher. India: Thompson-Balys.

F661. F661. Skillful marksman. *Types 304, 653; *BP II 503ff., III 45ff.; Fb "skytte" III 350a; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "chasseur"; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 5, III No. 8, V No. 7; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 1071.

F661.1. F661.1. Skillful marksman shoots meat from giant's hands. *Type 304; *BP II 505.

F661.2. F661.2. Skillful marksman shoots pipe from man's mouth. Type 1708*.

F661.3. F661.3. Skillful marksman shoots apple from man's head. Tell. *Hdwb. d. Abergl. s.v. "Meisterschuss Tell"; Fb "æble" III 1136a; English: Child III 17f., 28; Icelandic: Boberg.

F661.3.1. F661.3.1. Skillful marksman shoots spear through nose-ring. India: Thompson-Balys.

F661.4. F661.4. Skillful marksman shoots eggs scattered over table. *Type 653.

F661.4.1. F661.4.1. Archer shoots eggs through middle. India: Thompson-Balys.

F661.4.2. F661.4.2. Archer shoots and marks egg in nest without breaking it or disturbing other eggs. India: Thompson-Balys.

- F661.4.3. F661.4.3. Skillful marksman can hit egg from great distance. Africa: Weeks Jungle 43.
- F661.5. F661.5. Skillful marksman shoots animal (man) through eye.
- F661.5.1. F661.5.1. Skillful marksman shoots serpent through left eye. Chinese: Werner 182.
- F661.5.2. F661.5.2. Skillful marksman shoots bird through eye. *Fb "skytte" III 350a.—Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 1123.
- F661.5.3. F661.5.3. Skillful marksman shoots left eye of fly at two miles. *Type 513.
- F661.5.4. F661.5.4. Skillful marksman shoots both eyes of an ogre. Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 7.
- F661.5.5. F661.5.5. Marvelous marksman can shoot eye off needle at quarter-mile distance. Korean: Zong in-Sob.
- F661.6. F661.6. Skillful bowman shoots crater of Vesuvius open. *Fb "bue" IV 76b.
- F661.7. F661.7. Skillful marksman throws needles. One enters eye of the other so as to form a straight line. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F661.7.1. F661.7.1. Skillful marksman throws rushes into a curtain. The first remains and each following one lodges in the one before and remains attached to it. Schoepperle Tristan and Isolt II 294.
- F661.7.2. F661.7.2. Skillful marksman throws swords and scabbards so that swords are sheathed in air. Irish myth: Cross.
- F661.7.3. F661.7.3. One arrow shot into end of last one to make rope of arrows. Melanesia: Codrington 373, 397.
- F661.8. F661.8. Skillful marksman casts lance through ring. French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 18, Carrière.
- F661.8.1. F661.8.1. Skillful marksman casts lance through hole in leaf. Irish myth: Cross.
- F661.9. F661.9. Skillful marksman grazes ear of sleeping person and awakens him. Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- F661.9.1. F661.9.1. Husband shoots arrows, barely missing wife's ears. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F661.10. F661.10. Man shoots pearls from wife's nose-ring. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F661.11. F661.11. Skillful archer uses arrow as boomerang. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F661.12. F661.12. Hero shoots arrow and cuts thread. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F662. F662. Skillful tailor.
- F662.0.1. F662.0.1. Woman skillful in sewing. Chinese: Graham.

F662.0.1.1. F662.0.1.1. Woman sews nine garments at a time with one needle. Chinese: Graham.

F662.1. F662.1. Skillful tailor sews up broken eggs. *Type 653; Africa: Weeks Jungle 43.

F662.1.1. F662.1.1. Birds hatched from broken eggs repaired by skillful tailor have red line around necks. This indicates where eggs were broken. *Type 653; India: Thompson-Balys.

F662.2. F662.2. Skillful tailor sews together scattered planks in capsizing boat. *Type 653; India: Thompson-Balys.

F662.3. F662.3. Skillful tailor sews bean together after bean has split from laughing. German: Grimm No. 18.

F663. F663. Skillful smith. (Cf. F271.3.) *Fb "smed" III 402ab; Krappe Archiv für das Studium der neueren Sprachen CLX (1931) 166ff., CLXI (1932) 1—9; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F663.0.1. F663.0.1. Skillful smith calls self master of all masters. *Type 753; *BP III 198; *Fb "mester" II 584a.

F663.1. F663.1. Skillful smith shoes running horse. *Type 654; *BP III 10; *Wesselski Märchen 213 No. 20.

F663.2. F663.2. Clever smith makes needle that pierces anvil. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 1273.

F664. F664. Skillful flayer.

F664.1. F664.1. Skillful flayer skins running rabbit. *Type 654; *Wesselski Märchen 213 No. 20.

F664.1.1. F664.1.1. Woman flays running deer. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 197.

F665. F665. Skillful barber.

F665.1. F665.1. Skillful barber shaves running hare. *Type 654; *BP III 10ff.

F666. F666. Skillful axe-man. Cuts down trees with single stroke, and the like. *Kittredge Gawain 199 n. 2; Irish myth: *Cross.

F666.1. F666.1. Skillful axe-man makes spear-shafts with three chippings. Also at the same time sets them into the spear-rings. Irish myth: *Cross.

F667. F667. Skillful fencer (swordsmen).

F667.1. F667.1. Skillful fencer keeps sword dry in rain. Swings it so fast. *Type 654; *BP III 10ff.

F667.2. F667.2. Man able to strike every arrow with his sword and reduce it to splinters. India: Thompson-Balys.

- F667.3. F667.3. Expert swordsman cuts clothes bag in two. (Cf. F611.3.3.1) Chinese: Graham.
- F668. F668. Skillful surgeon. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.
- F668.0.1. F668.0.1. Skillful physician. Irish myth: *Cross; Africa (Konde): Gemuseus und Berger ZsES XXIII 151f. No. 13.
- F668.1. F668.1. Skillful surgeon removes and replaces vital organs. (Cf. X1721.2.) *Type 660; *BP II 552.
- F668.2. F668.2. Skillful surgeon removes speck from midge's eye. Does it with one stroke without injuring midge. Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 190.
- F668.3. F668.3. Man can transplant feather from one bird to another. Buriat: Holmberg Siberian 428.
- F668.4. F668.4. Skillful surgeon can tell by whom wound was inflicted. Irish myth: Cross.
- F668.5. F668.5. New arm made from another man's arm bone. Irish myth: Cross.
- F671. F671. Skillful shipbuilder. Irish myth: Cross; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 7.
- F671.1. F671.1. Rapid boat-builder can build boat in twinkling of an eye. Africa (Hausa): Equilbecq II 171ff.
- F673. F673. Man can keep together feathers in great wind. *Type 654; *Wesselski Märchen 213 No. 20.
- F674. F674. Skillful painter. Can paint from description of a dream. Type 516; Rosch FFC LXXVII 97.
- F675. F675. Ingenious carpenter. Penzer III 282—4, 296—300; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman.
- F675.1. F675.1. King makes a wooden peacock machine for his son. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F675.2. F675.2. Moonmakers make new moon. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F675.3. F675.3. Carpenter constructs house of sandalwood which will go wherever owner commands. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F675.4. F675.4. Skillful carpenter constructs large palace overnight. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F676. F676. Skillful thief. (Cf. K301.)
- F676.1. F676.1. Thief can eat from man's plate during dinner without detection. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F676.2. F676.2. Thief can cut soles off man's boots without detection as he walks along road. India: Thompson-Balys.

F677. F677. Skillful tracker. Irish myth: Cross.

F677.1. F677.1. Skillful tracker infallible on land or sea. Irish myth: Cross.

F678. F678. Skillful milker.

F678.1. F678.1. Skillful milker milks cows incessantly. Irish myth: Cross.

F679. F679. Remarkable skill—miscellaneous.

F679.1. F679.1. Remarkable herdsman. Sits on mountain top. Cows come from great distance at his call. Irish myth: Cross.

F679.2. F679.2. Man can lengthen swords by twirling them between his fingers. Irish myth: Cross.

F679.3. F679.3. Man can walk (stand) on weapon edge (point) without injury. Can catch sharp edges without being cut. Irish myth: *Cross.

F679.4. F679.4. Man can stand on barrel rolling down hill. Irish myth: Cross.

F679.5. F679.5. Skillful hunter. Irish myth: Cross.

F679.5.1. F679.5.1. Skillful hunter manages hounds. Irish myth: Cross.

F679.5.2. F679.5.2. Skillful hunter can tell from baying the succession of hounds and what quarry they pursue. Irish myth: Cross.

F679.5.3. F679.5.3. Man kills many tigers with one arrow-shot. S. A. Indian (Yurakare): Métraux RMLP XXXIII 144.

F679.5.3.1. F679.5.3.1. Seven stags killed at one shot. India: Thompson-Balys.

F679.6. F679.6. Skillful cast of stone: carries away roof tree of burning house and so puts out fire. Irish myth: Cross.

F679.7. F679.7. Skillful gambler always wins. Whatever he earns in day he spends immediately. India: Thompson-Balys.

F679.8. F679.8. Skill at chess-playing. India: Thompson-Balys.

F679.9. F679.9. Skillful musician plays nine mouth harps at once. Chinese: Graham.

F680. F680. Other marvelous powers.

F681. F681. Marvelous runner. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 8; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; Hawaii: *Beckwith Myth 151, 337f.; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G. 3/928).

F681.1. F681.1. Marvelous runner keeps leg tied up. To prevent him from running away. *Type 513; *BP II 79ff.; *Fb "ben" IV 32b; Buriat: Holmberg Siberian 428; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 345ff.

F681.2. F681.2. Marvelous runner outstrips March wind. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 162.

F681.3. F681.3. Marvelous runner swift as thought. Irish myth: Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 190; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 81, 93, Boberg; N. A. Indian (Ojibwa): Michelson JAFL XXIV 249.

F681.3.1. F681.3.1. Contest between runner swift as thought and one swift as sight. Former wins. N. A. Indian (Ojibwa): Michelson JAFL XXIV 249.

F681.4. F681.4. Marvelous runner swift as sight. N. A. Indian (Ojibwa): Michelson JAFL XXIV 249.

F681.5. F681.5. Marvelous runner can run round earth in five minutes. *Fb "løbe" II 506.

F681.6. F681.6. Marvelous runner catches wild game on the run. Italian Novella: Rotunda; Jewish: *Neuman.

F681.6.1. F681.6.1. Man can outstrip wild mare, hold her, and bridle her. Jewish: Neuman.

F681.7. F681.7. Marvelous runner runs backwards. Irish myth: Cross.

F681.8. F681.8. Marvelous runner captures two of every wild animal. Irish myth: *Cross.

F681.9. F681.9. Man who is too heavy for any horse walks faster than horseback riders. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F681.10. F681.10. Marvelous swift plower. Chinese: Graham.

F681.11. F681.11. Marvelous swift mower. Chinese: Graham.

F681.12. F681.12. Runner runs so swiftly that he does not snap the ears of wheat (bend grass). Latin: Virgil Aeneid VII 807 ff.; Jewish: Neuman.

F681.13. F681.13. Boy runs so fast snow makes rainbow behind him. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 255.

F682. F682. Man can stand all day on one foot. Irish myth: Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 190.

F682.0.1. F682.0.1. Person (warrior) uses only one leg, one hand, one eye. Irish myth: *Cross.

F683. F683. Sparks come from man's feet. Irish myth: *Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 190.

F683.1. F683.1. Sparks come from man's hands. Irish myth: *Cross.

F683.1.1. F683.1.1. Fire drops from fingers of warrior whenever he wills it. Irish myth: Cross.

F684. F684. Marvelous jumper. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F684.1. F684.1. Marvelous climber. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F685. F685. Marvelous withstander of cold. Type 513.

F686. F686. Body with marvelous heat. Melts snow thirty feet around and serves as fuel for man's companions. Irish myth: *Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 198.

F686.1. F686.1. Cauldron warmed by breath of nine maidens. (Cf. D1171.2.) Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 95.

F686.2. F686.2. Room heated by crowded corpses kept on hand by ghoulish ogres. Scottish: Campbell-McKay No. 25.

F687. F687. Remarkable fragrance (odor) of person. Jewish: Neuman.

F688. F688. Man with marvelous voice. Jewish: *Neuman.

F688.1. F688.1. Man's voice shakes heavens. Chinese: Werner 305.

F688.2. F688.2. Man's shout remains in air three days. Irish myth: Cross.

F688.3. F688.3. Voice heard over whole land. Jewish: *Neuman.

F688.4. F688.4. Walls fall because of great shout. Jewish: *Neuman.

F691. F691. Man can breathe nine days under water. *Ullrich Archiv für Literaturgeschichte XIV 69ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.

F691.0.1. F691.0.1. Hero battles under lake for a day and night. Irish myth: Cross.

F692. F692. Person with remarkable memory. (Cf. F654.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F692.1. F692.1. Whole epic remembered from one hearing. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 262f.

F693. F693. Wounds inflicted by certain man always fatal. Irish myth: *Cross.

F694. F694. Saint passes through closed doors. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F695. F695. Extraordinary reading ability. Irish myth: *Cross.

F695.1. F695.1. Reading without learning the alphabet. Irish myth: *Cross.

F695.2. F695.2. Extraordinary amount read in short time. Irish myth: Cross.

F695.3. F695.3. Learning to read in extraordinarily short time. *Loomis White Magic 24; Irish myth: *Cross.

F695.3.1. F695.3.1. Miraculous ability to learn to read and to write foreign language in short time. *Loomis White Magic 72, 114.

F696. F696. Marvelous swimmer. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F697. F697. Marvelous ball player. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F697.1. F697.1. Culture hero as marvelous ball player. Irish myth: *Cross.

F697.2. F697.2. Saint as marvelous ball player. Irish myth: Cross.

F698. F698. Marvelous juggler. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F698.1. F698.1. Hero throws ball, bat, dart (playthings) and catches them before they reach ground. Irish myth: *Cross.

F698.2. F698.2. Performing on spear points. Irish myth: Cross.

F698.3. F698.3. Catching 150 toy spears in shield. Irish myth: Cross.

F699. F699. Additional marvelous powers.

F699.1. F699.1. Marvelous dancer. India: Thompson-Balys.

F700—F899.

F700—F899. Extraordinary places and things.

F700. F700. Extraordinary places.

F701. F701. Land of plenty. Yields everything to heart's desire. Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 588, 593, Boberg; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Hindu: Keith 144.

F701.1. F701.1. Milk and honey flow in land. Usener Kleinere Schriften IV 398; Jewish: *Neuman; Gaster Thespis 201.

F701.2. F701.2. Land of the Blessed. Everything as it should be. Jewish: *Neuman.

F702. F702. Land of fire. (Cf. F753, F756.1, F763, F771.1.11, F785.3.) Chauvin VII 57 No. 77.

F703. F703. Lands with extraordinary names. Land of the boot, the towel, the walking-stick, and the like. *Köhler-Bolte I 421. Cf. Type 1940, BP III 129; Chinese: Werner 391.

F704. F704. Land of cold and mist. (Cf. A623.) Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 584ff., MacCulloch Eddic 281, 304, 324, 326, Boberg.

F705. F705. Artificial paradise and hell to punish and reward. Wesselski Archiv Orientalni II 432.

F706. F706. Land of darkness. Krappe The Land of Darkness (Philol. Quarterly XXI [1942] 334—46); Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 595, 598, 599, MacCulloch Eddic 32, Boberg; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 152, *Neuman.

F707. F707. Extraordinary kingdom. (Cf. F760.)

F707.1. F707.1. Kingdom where everything is of gold. India: Thompson-Balys.

F707.2. F707.2. Kingdom where everything is of silver. India: Thompson-Balys.

F707.3. F707.3. Kingdom where everything is of diamond. India: Thompson-Balys.

F707.4. F707.4. Kingdom where everything is of pearl. India: Thompson-Balys.

F708. F708. Countries with one conspicuous lack.

F708.1. F708.1. Country without cats. *Types 1650, 1651; *BP II 69; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "chats", "Alger".

F708.2. F708.2. Country without grain. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "blé".

F708.3. F708.3. Country without wine. Icelandic: Boberg.

F709. F709. Other extraordinary countries.

F709.1. F709.1. Country of the naked. Chavannes I 195—97, cf. Wesselski in Archiv Orientalní I (1929) p. 4.

F709.2. F709.2. Country of little girls. Icelandic: Boberg.

F709.3. F709.3. Country of thieves and impostors. Icelandic: Flateyjarbyk II 73ff., Sveinsson FFC LXXXIII xxii; Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

F710. F710. Extraordinary bodies of water.

F710.1. F710.1. Water resembling fire. Jewish: Neuman; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 14.

F711. F711. Extraordinary sea. (Cf. D911.)

F711.1. F711.1. Sea issues from marvelous cask. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "tonneau".

F711.2. F711.2. Sea of unusual substance.

F711.2.1. F711.2.1. Sea of milk. (Cf. F713.4, F715.2.3.) India: *Thompson-Balys, Penzer II 151.

F711.2.2. F711.2.2. Sea of cream. India: Thompson-Balys.

F711.2.3. F711.2.3. Sea of pumice. Tonga: Gifford 149, Beckwith Myth 287.

F711.2.4. F711.2.4. Sea of slime. Tonga: Gifford 149.

F711.2.5. F711.2.5. Sea of honey. (Cf. F715.2.4.) Africa (Ba Ronga): Einstein 246.

F711.3. F711.3. Sea of unusual color.

F711.3.1. F711.3.1. White sea. Tonga: Beckwith Myth 287.

F711.3.2. F711.3.2. Red sea. Tonga: Gifford 141, Beckwith Myth 287.

F711.4. F711.4. Fresh water in sea.

F711.4.1. F711.4.1. Stream of fresh water flows through the sea. Jewish: *Neuman.

F711.4.2. F711.4.2. Well hidden in sea. (Cf. D926.) Jewish: Neuman.

F711.5. F711.5. Aroma of sea as of wine. Jewish: Neuman.

F711.6. F711.6. Sea with fishes with bodies like men and sharp razor-like snouts. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 723.

- F713. F713. Extraordinary pond (lake). Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F713.1. F713.1. Pond of ambrosia. Japanese: Anesaki 242.
- F713.2. F713.2. Bottomless lakes (pools, etc.). *Fb "bundløs"; JAFL V 329; FL III 70.
- F713.2.1. F713.2.1. Extremely deep water. Axe seven years reaching bottom. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F713.3. F713.3. Lake monster turning over causes lake to overflow surrounding mountains. Irish myth: Cross.
- F713.4. F713.4. Pond of milk. (Cf. F711.2.1, F715.2.3.) India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F713.5. F713.5. Pond always clear because deity uses it for his bath. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F713.6. F713.6. Lake of blood. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F715. F715. Extraordinary river. (Cf. D915.) Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F715.1. F715.1. Extraordinary source of river.
- F715.1.1. F715.1.1. River issues from magic nut. (Cf. D985, F718.12.) Fb "nød" II 719a.
- F715.1.2. F715.1.2. River issues from pillar. Dickson 222 n. 18.
- F715.1.3. F715.1.3. River from man's finger. Jewish: Neuman.
- F715.1.4. F715.1.4. River flows from man's head. Jewish: Neuman.
- F715.1.5. F715.1.5. River flows from man's mouth. Jewish: Neuman.
- F715.2. F715.2. River of extraordinary fluid. Irish myth: Cross.
- F715.2.1. F715.2.1. River of blood. Irish myth: Cross; N. A. Indian (Creek): Alexander N. Am. 71; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F715.2.2. F715.2.2. River of mercury. Chauvin V 41 No. 388.
- F715.2.3. F715.2.3. River of milk. (Cf. F711.2.1, F713.4, F814.6.) Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 80; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F715.2.4. F715.2.4. River of honey. (Cf. F711.2.5.) Africa (Hausa): Tremearne Hausa Superstitions and Customs (London, 1913) 424ff. No. 93.
- F715.2.5. F715.2.5. River of tears. Rose Classical Review XLII 28, 171.
- F715.3. F715.3. Rivers with marvelous underground connections. Euphrates, Tigris, Tiber, and River Boant really the same which flow through oceans and underground. Irish: Todd Lecture Series X 29 (Metrical Dindshenchas), *Cross.
- F715.3.1. F715.3.1. Undersea river. (Cf. F718.1.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- F715.3.2. F715.3.2. Marvelous stream containing little black fish bursts forth from mountain. (Cf. A934.9.) Irish myth: Cross.

F715.4. F715.4. Stream runs through house. *Schoepperle II 302 n. 1; Irish myth: Cross.

F715.5. F715.5. River which never freezes. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 276.

F715.6. F715.6. River that burns like fire. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

F715.7. F715.7. River which petrifies anyone passing through it. India: Thompson-Balys.

F715.8. F715.8. Kingdom where seven rivers meet. India: Thompson-Balys.

F715.9. F715.9. Red river. India: Thompson-Balys; Mono-Alu: Wheeler 8, 48.

F715.10. F715.10. River whose specific gravity is so slight nothing can float on it. (Cf. F716.2.) Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 1156.

F716. F716. Extraordinary fountain. (Cf. D925.) Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman.

F716.1. F716.1. Fountain gives water on Wednesdays and Fridays. Milk on Sunday and wine on feast-days. Patch PMLA XXXIII 620 n. 66; Irish myth: *Cross.

F716.1.1. F716.1.1. Fountain has taste of wine. (Cf. F718.3.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F716.2. F716.2. Spring with water lighter than wood and with scent of violets. (Cf. F715.10.) Hdwb. d. Märchens s.v. "Glassarg".

F716.3. F716.3. Fountain hot or cold as desired. Irish myth: Cross.

F716.4. F716.4. Fountain jet which remains immovable. Jewish: Moreno Esdras (F933.3).

F716.5. F716.5. Musical fountain in otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

F717. F717. Extraordinary pool. Eskimo (Central): Boas RBAE VI 599.

F717.1. F717.1. Pool paved with gold. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "or".

F717.2. F717.2. Poison pool. Icelandic: Boberg.

F718. F718. Extraordinary well. (Cf. D926.) Jewish: Neuman.

F718.1. F718.1. Well located under sea. (Cf. F715.3.1.) Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman.

F718.2. F718.2. Perfectly round well contains vari-colored water. Irish myth: *Cross.

F718.3. F718.3. Well of wine. (Cf. F716.1.1.) Irish myth: Cross.

F718.4. F718.4. Well water tastes like oil, wine, and honey. Irish myth: *Cross.

F718.5. F718.5. Well shines at night. Irish myth: Cross.

F718.6. F718.6. Well overflow cannot be seen. Irish myth: Cross.

F718.7. F718.7. Well flows full on Sunday. Irish myth: Cross.

F718.8. F718.8. Extraordinary well of blood. India: Thompson-Balys.

F718.9. F718.9. Glittering well. India: Thompson-Balys.

F718.10. F718.10. Well in shape of a sieve-like rock, out of which water gushes forth. (Cf. D926.) Jewish: Neuman.

F718.11. F718.11. Well shoots up high as pillars, and discharges itself into navigable streams. (Cf. D926.) Jewish: Neuman.

F718.12. F718.12. Origin of springs from broken coconut shell. (Cf. F715.1.1.) Tonga: Gifford 101.

F720. F720. Submarine and subterranean world.

F721. F721. Subterranean world. See entire section F80—F109, Journey to lower world. Irish myth: Cross; German: Grimm No. 163; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "monde".

F721.1. F721.1. Underground passages. Journey made through natural subways. *Fb "löngang" II 515; Missouri French: Carrière; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 47 Nos. 89, 98; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 136 No. 98; Gaster Oldest Stories 48.

F721.1.1. F721.1.1. Tunnel of crystal four miles long. Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 2.

F721.2. F721.2. Habitable hill. *Type 870; *Fb "höj" I 740ab, "trod" III 852a; Winter Die deutsche Schatzsage 47; Hartland Science 170, 173, 177, 217; Hdwb. d. Aberggl. I 1049f. s.v. "Berg"; Irish myth: *Cross; English: Child I 363.

F721.2.1. F721.2.1. Habitable hill raised on four pillars. *Fb "höj" I 750a.

F721.2.2. F721.2.2. Monster guards door of habitable hill. Chinese: Werner 183.

F721.2.3. F721.2.3. Sorcerer and books in mountain. Opens only for short periods. Chauvin V 142 No. 69 n. 1.

F721.3. F721.3. Underground kingdom.

F721.3.1. F721.3.1. King of underground kingdom. India: Thompson-Balys.

F721.3.2. F721.3.2. Underground kingdom reached in a box which was swallowed by a dragon and later released. India: Thompson-Balys.

F721.4. F721.4. Underground treasure chambers. *Type 676; *BP III 137; *Fb "höj" I 740a; Chauvin V 10 No. 7, 60 No. 19 and passim; Irish myth: *Cross; Chinese: Graham.

F721.5. F721.5. Subterranean castle. *Fb "slot" III 376b; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 9, V No. 4; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F721.5.1. F721.5.1. Underground palace full of jewels. India: Thompson-Balys.

F725. F725. Submarine world. See all references under F133, Submarine otherworld. Ignacius Donnelly Atlantis: the Antediluvian World (New York, 1882); W. Scott-Elliot The Story of Atlantis, a Geographical, Historical and Ethnological Sketch (London, 1896); Spence The Problem of Atlantis (New York, 1925); E. M. Whishaw Atlantis in Andalusia (London, 1929); *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXV (1933) 107ff.; Penzer VII 19f.—India: Thompson-Balys; Korean: Zong in-Sob 26; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G 13/249, 441.); Maori: Clark 111; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 343 n. 236a.

F725.1. F725.1. Steps to submarine world. Tobler 76.

F725.2. F725.2. Submarine cities. Chauvin V 7 No. 3; Penzer VI 212ff., VII 19f.; Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 215 No. 73.

F725.3. F725.3. Submarine castle (palace). (Cf. F771.) *Fb "slot" III 376b; Penzer VI 280; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 197; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "château", Comault. RTP III 103, Clouston Tales I 192ff.; Greek: Iliad XIII 22; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Anesaki 314.

F725.3.1. F725.3.1. Submarine castle on a mountain. Patch PMLA XXXIII 611 n. 32.

F725.3.2. F725.3.2. Castle under lake. Irish myth: Cross.

F725.3.3. F725.3.3. Undersea house. Chinese: Graham.

F725.3.4. F725.3.4. Splendid palace underneath tank. India: Thompson-Balys.

F725.4. F725.4. Man lives under river. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F725.5. F725.5. People live under sea. Irish myth: *Cross.

F725.5.1. F725.5.1. Visit to people of village under lake. India: Thompson-Balys.

F725.6. F725.6. Bell brought from monastery under water. Irish myth: Cross.

F725.7. F725.7. Lovely garden under water, with marvelous tree. India: Thompson-Balys.

F725.8. F725.8. World at bottom of pond. German: Grimm No. 181.

F725.9. F725.9. World at bottom of well. German: Grimm Nos. 24, 79.

F730. F730. Extraordinary islands. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F731. F731. Island covered with treasure.

F731.1. F731.1. Island covered with gold. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "ole"; India: Thompson-Balys, Penzer VII 15 n. 3, 16ff.

F731.2. F731.2. Crystalline island. Arabian: Burton Nights S VII 234.

F731.3. F731.3. Island with rampart of gold and palisade of silver. Irish myth: *Cross.

F731.4. F731.4. Stones of island are jewels. Irish myth: Cross.

- F731.5. F731.5. Island of amber (glass). Krappe Speculum XVIII (1943) 303—322.
- F731.6. F731.6. Island of pearls. Jewish: Neuman.
- F732. F732. Island of rare wood.
- F732.1. F732.1. Island of ebony. Arabian: Burton Nights I 116.
- F732.2. F732.2. Island of aloes. *Chauvin VII 22 No. 373E n. 7.
- F732.3. F732.3. Island of camphor. *Chauvin VII 11 No. 373B n. 2; Penzer III 260 n. 1.
- F733. F733. Fruitful island. Irish myth: Cross.
- F734. F734. Otherworld island grows foot yearly. One tree added. Irish myth: Cross.
- F735. F735. Island rises up in sea. Fb "ø" III 1159b.
- F735.0.1. F735.0.1. Island rises up in river. Irish myth: Cross.
- F735.0.2. F735.0.2. Island rises once every seven years. Irish myth: Cross.
- F735.0.3. F735.0.3. Island appears only at certain times. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F736. F736. Island with extraordinary support.
- F736.1. F736.1. Island supported on four feet. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F736.1.1. F736.1.1. Island supported on seven feet. Irish myth: Cross.
- F736.2. F736.2. Otherworld island supported by pedestal. Irish myth: Cross.
- F737. F737. Wandering island. Moves about at will and sometimes appears and disappears from sea. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Greek: Fox 266 (Aeolia); Hawaii: Fornander Collection IV 518, V 678, VI 2531, Bechwith Myth 71f.
- F738. F738. Flying island. Floats in sky. (Cf. F755.3.) Hawaii: Fornander Collection IV 518, V 678, VI 253. Cf. Gulliver's Travels, third voyage.
- F741. F741. Islands of extraordinary color. Green, white, etc. Chauvin V 264 No. 154.
- F742. F742. Magic invisibility of otherworld island. (Cf. D1980.) Irish myth: Cross.
- F743. F743. Island inhabited by only one species.
- F743.1. F743.1. Island inhabited only by birds. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F743.2. F743.2. Island inhabited only by sheep. Irish myth: Cross.
- F744. F744. Island surrounded by wall of fire; water prevents it from being consumed. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F745. F745. Island with nightly noise of drums. *Chauvin VII 8 No. 373A n. 1.
- F746. F746. No putrefaction on extraordinary island. Hair and nails of dead grow. Irish myth: Cross.

F747. F747. Extraordinary island upon which no sinner can die (be buried). Irish myth: Cross.

F748. F748. Battle of islands. Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 389.

E750. Extraordinary mountains and other land features.

F751. F751. Glass mountain. *Fb "glarbjærg" I 459f., IV 180b, "heks" I 582, "jærnsko" II 63; *Types 400, 425, 451, 530; *BP I 233ff., III 111 n. 3; *Boberg Danske Studier (1928) 16—53; Hdwb. d. Märch. II 627; Köhler-Bolte I 444; *Patch PMLA XXXIII 610 n. 30, Harvard Studies and Notes V 159, 171 and n. 3.

F752. F752. Mountain of treasure. French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 12; India: Thompson-Balys.

F752.1. F752.1. Mountain of gold. Type 569; BP I 475; Penzer IV 138; Cosquin Lorraine No. 1 and notes; Icelandic: Boberg; Buddhist: Malalasekera I 1052, Cowell Jataka II 63, 270, 272, V 21, 221, 226.

F752.2. F752.2. Mountain of silver. Type 569; BP I 474; Missouri French: Carrière; Jewish: Neuman.

F752.2.1. F752.2.1. Silver not to be taken from mountain of silver on Sabbath. Jewish: Neuman.

F752.3. F752.3. Mountain formed of a jewel. Patch PMLA XXXIII 607; Jacobs's list s.v. "Mountains of jewels".

F752.3.1. F752.3.1. Mountain formed of a pearl. *Chauvin VII 38 No. 212B.

F752.3.2. F752.3.2. Mountain formed of diamond. Hdwb. d. Märch. s.v. "Diamantberg".

F753. F753. Mountain of fire. (Cf. F702, F756.1, F763, F771.1.11, F785.3.) Chauvin VII 40 No. 153, 57 No. 77; Jewish: Neuman; Penzer III 227f., VIII 50f.

F754. F754. Magnetic mountain. Pulls nails out of ships that approach it. *Chauvin V 202 No. 117, VII 86 No. 373bis n. 1; Basset RTP IX 377ff.; Jewish: *Neuman.

F755. F755. Living mountain. (Cf. F1006.)

F755.1. F755.1. Speaking mountain. Icelandic: Boberg; N. A. Indian (Northern Paiute): Lowie JAFL XXXVII 234 No. 13.

F755.1.1. F755.1.1. Mountain laughs. Africa (Bushango): Torday 251.

F755.2. F755.2. Singing mountain. N. A. Indian (Creek): Alexander N. Am. 71.

F755.3. F755.3. Flying mountain. (Cf. F738.) Hindu: Penzer VI 3 n. 1.

F755.4. F755.4. Growing mountain. Grows concurrently with child reared upon it. Irish myth: *Cross.

F755.5. F755.5. Mountain has wife and children. N. A. Indian (Northern Paiute): Lowie JAFI XXXVII 234 No. 13.

F755.6. F755.6. Moving mountain. Jewish: Neuman.

F755.7. F755.7. Mountain fights for honor. Jewish: Neuman.

F756. F756. Extraordinary valleys and plains. Irish myth: Cross.

F756.1. F756.1. Valley of fire. (Cf. F702, F753, F763, F771.1.11, F785.3.) Chauvin VII 57 No. 77.

F756.2. F756.2. Plain that is earthly paradise. Malone PMLA XLIII 403; Irish myth: *Cross.

F756.2.1. F756.2.1. Extraordinary valley which gives the illusion of earthly paradise. (The Old Man of the Mountain.) Italian Novella: Rotunda.

F756.2.2. F756.2.2. Fertile valleys created by deity's stamping down mountains. Tonga: Gifford 18.

F756.3. F756.3. Plain of wonders. Irish myth: Cross.

F756.4. F756.4. Glen of witchcraft. Irish myth: *Cross.

F756.5. F756.5. Extraordinary glen: mysterious shouting heard. Irish myth: Cross.

F756.5.1. F756.5.1. Valley full of dreadful monsters. Irish myth: Cross.

F756.5.2. F756.5.2. Perilous glen. Irish myth: *Cross.

F757. F757. Extraordinary cave. Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Zulu): Callaway 197.

F757.1. F757.1. Golden cave. Cowell Jataka Index s.v. "Golden".

F757.1.1. F757.1.1. Cave of gold, silver and crystal. German: Grimm No. 202.

F757.2. F757.2. Wind continually blows from cave. Irish myth: Cross.

F759. F759. Extraordinary mountains and valleys—miscellaneous.

F759.1. F759.1. Mountain with marvelous objects at top. *Hdwb. d. Märch. s.v. "Berg".

F759.2. F759.2. Hollow mountain. Irish myth: *Cross.

F759.3. F759.3. Hill on which snow always melts. Icelandic: Boberg.

F759.4. F759.4. Perfumed mountain. Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 369.

F759.5. F759.5. Mountain of ice. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

F759.6. F759.6. Mountain of thorns. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

F759.7. F759.7. Rocky mountain. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

F759.8. F759.8. Mountain of seven lights. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

F760. F760. Extraordinary cities. Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIII (1931) 97ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.

F761. F761. City of precious metals and stones. Jewish: Neuman.

F761.1. F761.1. City of gold. (Cf. F771.1.1.) Penzer II 171—238 passim, VI 130, VII 49; Irish myth: *Cross.

F761.1.1. F761.1.1. City with hundred palaces and gardens; in one everything is of gold, in another, silver, etc. India: Thompson-Balys.

F761.2. F761.2. City of brass. Chauvin V 33 No. 16; Burton Nights IV 176, VI 83ff., 101ff., VII 49.

F761.3. F761.3. City of onyx. Chauvin V 27 No. 13.

F761.4. F761.4. City of jewels. Penzer II 175 n. 2.

F761.4.1. F761.4.1. City of emerald. India: Thompson-Balys.

F761.5. F761.5. City paved with precious seeds.

F761.5.1. F761.5.1. City paved with seeds of gold. Irish myth: Cross.

F761.5.2. F761.5.2. City paved with seeds of silver. Irish myth: Cross.

F761.5.3. F761.5.3. City paved with seeds of brass. Irish myth: Cross.

F762. F762. City of extraordinary color.

F762.1. F762.1. Green city. Burton Nights II 283.

F763. F763. City of fire. (Cf. F702, F753, F756.1, F771.1.11, F785.3.) Chauvin VII 57 No. 77.

F764. F764. Underground city. India: Thompson-Balys.

F765. F765. City inside a tree. (Cf. F811.) Penzer VI 130; Hdwb. d. Märch. I 207a n. 12.

F766. F766. Deserted city. Inhabitants have been devoured. *M. Bloomfield in Penzer VII xxv; Irish myth: *Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Zanzibar): Bateman 127 No. 7.

F767. F767. Inaccessible city. Chauvin V 33 No. 16; Jewish: Neuman.

F767.1. F767.1. Heathen city surrounded by a yellow river, furious and impassable. Irish myth: Cross.

F767.2. F767.2. City protected by red-hot iron floor around it. India: Thompson-Balys.

F767.3. F767.3. City inaccessible to death. Jewish: *Neuman.

F768. F768. City of extraordinary people.

F768.1. F768.1. City of petrified people. Chauvin V 2 No. 2, 4 No. 443; India: Thompson-Balys.

F768.2. F768.2. City of enchanted people. Apparently dead. Chauvin V 34 No. 16; Kittredge Gawain 238, 246; India: Thompson-Balys.

F768.3. F768.3. Village of one-legged people. (Cf. F517.0.1.) Africa (Upoto): Einstein 128.

F769. F769. Other extraordinary cities.

F769.1. F769.1. Town where everything is sold at one price. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F769.2. F769.2. Cities of sin. Jewish: *Neuman.

F769.3. F769.3. City of elephants. Africa: Stanley 305ff.

F770. F770. Extraordinary buildings and furnishings. Irish: *Cross, O'Suilleabhain 771, Beal XXI 322.

F771. F771. Extraordinary castle (house, palace). Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

F771.1. F771.1. Castle of unusual material.

F771.1.1. F771.1.1. Golden castle (palace, house). *Köhler-Bolte I 412; *Fb "slot" III 376b, 377a, "guldsloot" I 515a.—Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 329, Snorra Edda Gylf. LII, *Boberg, Hdwb. d. Märch. I 431a nn. 28—34; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "or"; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 12; Persian: Carnoy 335; India: Thompson-Balys; Hindu: Tawney II 568.

F771.1.1.1. F771.1.1.1. Castle paved with gold and gems. Hartland Science 174; Irish myth: Cross.

F771.1.1.2. F771.1.1.2. Palace of gold and silver bricks. Africa: Basset Contes populaires d'Afrique 133f. No. 52, (Nubia): Rochemonteix Quelques Contes Nubiens (Cairo, 1888) 48ff. No. 4, 55ff. No. 5, (Swahili): Steere 13ff.; Chinese: Graham.

F771.1.2. F771.1.2. Silver castle. Köhler-Bolte I 412; *Fb "slot" III 377a; Persian: Carnoy 335.

F771.1.3. F771.1.3. Copper castle. Köhler-Bolte I 412; *Fb "slot" III 377a.

F771.1.4. F771.1.4. Steel castle (house). Persian: Carnoy 335.

F771.1.5. F771.1.5. Palace of jewels. (Cf. F721.5.1.) Penzer VI 111; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 159.

F771.1.5.1. F771.1.5.1. Diamond castle. Breton: Sébillot s.v. "diamants".

F771.1.5.2. F771.1.5.2. House of sapphire. Africa (Zanzibar): Bateman 127 No. 7.

F771.1.5.3. F771.1.5.3. House of turquoise. Africa (Zanzibar): Bateman 127 No. 7.

F771.1.5.4. F771.1.5.4. Underwater castle with walls of gold and diamonds. India:

Thompson-Balys.

F771.1.6. F771.1.6. Crystal castle. Patch PMLA XXXIII 610 n. 30; Irish myth: *Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "château", "cristal"; Persian: Carnoy 335.

F771.1.6.1. F771.1.6.1. Castle with glass wall. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F771.1.6.2. F771.1.6.2. Glass house. Irish myth: *Cross.

F771.1.7. F771.1.7. Palace of ice. Patch PMLA XXXIII 608 n. 23.

F771.1.8. F771.1.8. Castle of wax, shining like gold. *Fb "slot" III 377a.

F771.1.9. F771.1.9. House of skulls. Murderer's abode. Type 756B; Andrejev FFC LXIX 86.

F771.1.10. F771.1.10. Gingerbread house. House made of cake. *Type 327; BP I 115; *Fb "pandekage", "hus" IV 229b.

F771.1.11. F771.1.11. Castle of fire. (Cf. F702, F753, F756.1, F763, F785.3.) Chauvin VII 57 No. 77.

F771.2. F771.2. Castle (house) with extraordinary support.

F771.2.1. F771.2.1. Castle in the air. Icelandic: Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys, Penzer II 110f.

F771.2.1.1. F771.2.1.1. Castle suspended on four chains. *Fb "slot" III 377a, "Røde Hav"; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "château", "chaine".

F771.2.1.2. F771.2.1.2. Castle carried through air by four eagles. French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 12.

F771.2.2. F771.2.2. Castle in tree-top. *Fb "slot" III 377a; Hindu: Tawney I 229.

F771.2.3. F771.2.3. Giants uphold castle. Chauvin V 72 No. 21.—Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "château", "géant".

F771.2.4. F771.2.4. Castle built on sea. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "château", "mer"; India: Thompson-Balys; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 183.

F771.2.4.1. F771.2.4.1. Palace surrounded by rivers of wine, rose-water and honey. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

F771.2.5. F771.2.5. Castle stands on a pillar (pillars). Fb "guldpæle" I 514b.—Icelandic: Boberg; Hindu: Meyer Hindu 98 n.

F771.2.6. F771.2.6. Revolving castle. *Brown Iwain 76 n. 2; *Fb "slot" III 377a; Irish myth: *Cross.

F771.2.6.1. F771.2.6.1. Circular house rotating on cock's claw. *Halliday in Penzer VII xx; Köhler-Bolte I 405; *Solymossy Ethnographia XL (1929) 133ff.

F771.2.6.2. F771.2.6.2. Castle revolving at night so that entrance cannot be found.

*Kittredge Gawain 245 n. 1; Schoepperle II 325f.; Irish myth: *Cross.

F771.2.7. F771.2.7. Castle on serpents. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F771.3. F771.3. Extraordinary location of castle.

F771.3.1. F771.3.1. Castle at world's end. *Fb "slot" III 376b, "Røde Hav", "tern".

F771.3.2. F771.3.2. Castle east of sun and west of moon. *Fb "slot" III 376b.

F771.3.3. F771.3.3. Most eastern castle in world. *Fb "slot" III 376b.

F771.3.4. F771.3.4. Castle at middle point of earth. Fb "verden" III 1039a.

F771.3.5. F771.3.5. Underground house. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F771.3.5.1. F771.3.5.1. House inside mountain. India: Thompson-Balys.

F771.3.6. F771.3.6. Castle rises from the ground. India: Thompson-Balys.

F771.3.7. F771.3.7. Palace at bottom of water tank. India: Thompson-Balys.

F771.4. F771.4. Inhabitants of extraordinary castle.

F771.4.1. F771.4.1. Castle inhabited by ogres. *Types 304, 545A; Irish myth: Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "château"; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F771.4.2. F771.4.2. Cat castle. Castle occupied by cats (enchanted women). *Type 566; Fb "slot" III 377a; Icelandic: *Boberg; French and N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 400f.

F771.4.2.1. F771.4.2.1. Castle (house) infested by demon cats. (Cf. H1411.2.)

F771.4.3. F771.4.3. Abandoned castle. Has no inhabitants when hero enters. *Fb "slot" III 377a; Type 425; *Tegethoff 168; Irish myth: *Cross; English: Wells 134 (Sir Degare); Icelandic: *Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "château"; India: Thompson-Balys.

F771.4.4. F771.4.4. Castle in which everyone is asleep. Type 304; BP II 503; Fb "sove" III 472a.

F771.4.5. F771.4.5. Castle (house) haunted by demons. Irish myth: Cross.

F771.4.6. F771.4.6. Castle in which inhabitants have been turned to stone. German: Grimm No. 62.

F771.4.7. F771.4.7. Castle inhabited by enchanted princess. German: Grimm Nos. 92. 137.

F771.5. F771.5. Extraordinary guard for castle. Irish myth: Cross.

F771.5.1. F771.5.1. Castle guarded by beasts. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "château"; Missouri French: Carrière; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

F771.5.2. F771.5.2. Castle guarded by giants (ogres). Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v.

"château".

F771.5.3. F771.5.3. Serpent-hall. Icelandic: Snorra Edda Gylf. LII.

F771.6. F771.6. Phantom house: disappears at dawn. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F771.7. F771.7. Palace surrounded by rivers of wine, rosewater, and honey. Chauvin V 41 No. 388; India: Thompson-Balys.

F771.8. F771.8. Castle of extraordinary size. Icelandic: Boberg; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 349, 529, 915.

F771.9. F771.9. Road runs through house (banqueting-hall). Irish myth: *Cross.

F771.10. F771.10. Castle shall stand when everything else has departed (Gimle and Brimir). Icelandic: Snorra Edda Gylf. XVII, LII, Boberg.

F771.11. F771.11. Seven rooms in ascetic's house: in one, human heads; in another, horses; in third, dogs; in fourth, pots; in fifth, pile of men's arms; in sixth, a kitchen; in seventh, ascetic lives. India: Thompson-Balys.

F771.12. F771.12. Building at bottom of which flows stream of rubies. India: Thompson-Balys.

F771.13. F771.13. Castle warmed by love. No fire is required because love makes perpetual summer. Neilson Court of Love 28.

F772. F772. Extraordinary tower. Irish myth: Cross.

F772.1. F772.1. Tower of Babel: remarkably tall tower designed to reach sky. Arabian: Basset 1001 Contes I 179; Frazer Old Testament I 362ff., Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F772.1.1. F772.1.1. Year taken to mount high tower. Jewish: *Neuman.

F772.1.2. F772.1.2. Tower reaches moon. Africa: Stanley 121.

F772.2. F772.2. Metal tower.

F772.2.1. F772.2.1. Brazen tower. Liebrecht Zur Volkskunde 89f.

F772.2.2. F772.2.2. Towers of steel, silver and gold. Jacobs's list s.v. "Towers".

F772.2.3. F772.2.3. Golden tower under sea. Irish myth: Cross.

F772.2.4. F772.2.4. Tower of glass; melts in sun. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

F772.2.4.1. F772.2.4.1. Tower of glass in midst of sea. Irish myth: *Cross.

F772.2.5. F772.2.5. Dolorous Tower. Irish myth: Cross.

F772.2.6. F772.2.6. Flying tower. Jewish: Neuman.

- F773. F773. Remarkable church (chapel, temple). Irish: O'Suilleabhain 27, Beal XXI 308; Jewish: Neuman.
- F773.1. F773.1. Green chapel. Cave in green mound. Irish myth: *Cross; English: Sir Gawayne and the Green Knight.
- F773.2. F773.2. Golden temple. Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F773.3. F773.3. Temple of jewels. Jewish: Neuman.
- F774. F774. Extraordinary pillars.
- F774.1. F774.1. Pillars of precious stones. Patch PMLA XXXIII 626 n. 87.
- F774.1.1. F774.1.1. Crystal column. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F774.2. F774.2. Burning pillar reaching heaven. Patch PMLA XXXIII 626 n. 87.
- F774.2.1. F774.2.1. Pillar of fire. (Cf. F962.2.2, F964.0.1.) Jewish: Neuman.
- F774.3. F774.3. Musical pillar. (Cf. A661.0.2.1.) Patch PMLA XXXIII 626 n. 87; Irish myth: *Cross.
- F775. F775. Extraordinary tent. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F776. F776. Extraordinary gate.
- F776.1. F776.1. Gate as high as heavens and huge as a mountain. Malone PMLA XLIII 403.
- F776.1.1. F776.1.1. Palace gate so big it can only be opened by twelve buffaloes. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F776.2. F776.2. Perilous falling gate. Cuts horse in two as rider goes through it. Brown Iwain 14 and passim; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.
- F776.3. F776.3. Palace with seven gates, one within the other. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F781. F781. Extraordinary rooms.
- F781.1. F781.1. Labyrinth. Series of rooms so confusing that one cannot find the way out. Icelandic: Boberg; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 120 n. 1; Jewish: Neuman.
- F781.2. F781.2. Extraordinary number of rooms. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F781.2.1. F781.2.1. 540 rooms in Bilskilnir. Icelandic: Corpus Poeticum Boreale 1 75, Boberg.
- F782. F782. Extraordinary doors and windows.
- F782.1. F782.1. Windows and doors for every day in year. 365 windows and doors in castle or church. Fb "er" III 1195b; Scotch: Campbell II 426 No. 51. According to Baedeker's Guidebook to Great Britain, said to be true of Salisbury Cathedral.
- F782.1.1. F782.1.1. One door for each world quarter. Icelandic: Boberg.

F782.2. F782.2. Door of precious stones. Fb "port" II 863a.

F782.3. F782.3. Seven-fold doors to room. Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 1.

F782.4. F782.4. Extraordinary lock and key (made of bones). India: Thompson-Balys.

F782.5. F782.5. Doors of fire. Jewish: Neuman.

F782.6. F782.6. Revolving door of tent. Jewish: Neuman.

F783. F783. Extraordinary carpet.

F783.1. F783.1. Giant carpet. Sixty miles square. Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 37.

F784. F784. Extraordinary table.

F784.1. F784.1. Golden table. Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas I 217, 375, *Neuman.

F785. F785. Extraordinary throne.

F785.1. F785.1. Solomon's golden throne. Thirty-three steps high. Golden animals on all sides and on steps. *Gaster Exempla 209 No. 115, Jewish: *Neuman.

F785.2. F785.2. Nimrod's multiple throne. Seven thrones on top of one another. Stone, cedar, iron, copper, silver, gold, precious stones. Gaster Exempla 185 No. 2; Jewish: *Neuman.

F785.3. F785.3. Throne of fire. (Cf. F702, F756.1, F763, F771.1.11.) Chauvin VII 57 No. 77, Jewish: Neuman.

F786. F786. Extraordinary chair.

F786.1. F786.1. Chairs of gold and silver. Scottish: Campbell-McKay No. 1 and Note 5.

F787. F787. Extraordinary bed.

F787.1. F787.1. Extraordinary bed woven with spider's webs. India: Thompson-Balys.

F787.2. F787.2. Golden bed. Jewish: Neuman.

F787.3. F787.3. Ivory bed. Jewish: Neuman.

F787.4. F787.4. Bed made from man's tooth. Jewish: Neuman.

F788. F788. Remarkable bier.

F788.1. F788.1. Remarkable jeweled bier. Jewish: Neuman.

F789. F789. Extraordinary buildings and furnishings—miscellaneous.

F789.1. F789.1. Seven forts—river, iron, mud, cow-dung, brick, stone, wood. India: Thompson-Balys.

F789.2. F789.2. Remarkable candlestick.

F789.2.1. F789.2.1. Jeweled candlestick. Jewish: Neuman.

F789.3. F789.3. Remarkable curtain.

F789.3.1. F789.3.1. Jeweled curtain. Jewish: Neuman.

F790. F790. Extraordinary sky and weather phenomena.

F791. F791. Rising and falling sky. Sky rises and falls at horizon, giving periodic access to the other world. Buriat: Holmberg Siberian 308; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 275 n. 15a, Hatt Asiatic Influences 78ff.

F791.1. F791.1. Sky lowers on people. Eskimo (Bering Strait): Nelson RBAE XVIII 495.

F792. F792. Artificial heavens. Placed on pillars of iron. Seven heavens. (1) glass, sun, moon, stars, (2) iron with lake in it, (3) tin with precious stones rolling about (thunder), (4) lead, (5) copper, (6) silver, (7) gold. Gaster Exempla 186 No. 4; Jewish: *Neuman.

F793. F793. Artificial heavenly bodies.

F793.1. F793.1. Gold moon, sun, star. Fb "guldmene" I 514.

F795. F795. Extraordinary cloud.

F795.1. F795.1. Clouds take form of letters. Jewish: Neuman.

F796. F796. Dragon seen in sky. Irish myth: Cross.

F797. F797. Fire from heaven kills people. Irish myth: Cross.

F800. F800. Extraordinary rocks and stones. (Cf. D931, D1553, D1641.2.) Irish myth: Cross.

F801. F801. Weeping rocks. RTP V 157.

F801.1. F801.1. Weeping hills. India: Thompson-Balys.

F802. F802. Growing rocks. RTP X 28.

F802.1. F802.1. Big rocks grow from little rocks. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

F803. F803. Musical rock in fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

F804. F804. Floating rock (stone). Irish myth: *Cross.

F805. F805. Golden stone. Icelandic: Boberg; Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 43.

F806. F806. Magnetic stone. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 1055.

F806.1. F806.1. Lodestone draws ship to it. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "aimant".

F807. F807. Rock of extraordinary color.

F807.1. F807.1. Crimson rock. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 47 No. 325A*.

- F808. F808. Extraordinary cliff: thin as a hair, sharp as a blade, slippery as an eel's tail, high as a mast. Irish myth: Cross.
- F809. F809. Other extraordinary stones.
- F809.1. F809.1. Stones cannot be counted. England, Wales: *Baughman.
- F809.2. F809.2. Hollow stone fits any person who lies in it. Wales: Baughman.
- F809.3. F809.3. Magic crop- and rain-producing stone. England: Baughman.
- F809.4. F809.4. Bleeding rock. Jewish: Neuman.
- F809.4.1. F809.4.1. Men disappear at revolving bleeding rock. Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 467.
- F809.5. F809.5. Traveling stones. (Cf. D1431.) Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 179.
- F809.6. F809.6. Stones of fire. Jewish: Neuman.
- F809.6.1. F809.6.1. Stones burn. Africa (Baholoholo): Einstein 216.
- F809.6.2. F809.6.2. Mysterious characters engraved upon rock of fire. Jewish: Neuman.
- F809.7. F809.7. Transparent stone. Jewish: Neuman.
- F809.8. F809.8. Stones as guardian of town. Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 179.
- F809.9. F809.9. Stones can be rolled up like a scroll. Jewish: Neuman.
- F810. F810. Extraordinary trees, plants, fruit, etc. Toldo Studien zur vgl. Litgsch. VIII 48ff.; Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 322, O'Suilleabhain 57; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F811. F811. Extraordinary tree. Irish myth: *Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F811.1. F811.1. Trees of extraordinary material. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F811.1.1. F811.1.1. Golden tree. Köhler-Bolte I 412; Fb "guldskov" I 515a, "guldyr" I 515b; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys, Penzer IV 128.
- F811.1.2. F811.1.2. Silver tree. Köhler-Bolte I 412; Patch PMLA XXXIII 624 n. 82; Irish myth: *Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F811.1.3. F811.1.3. Copper tree. Köhler-Bolte I 412; Fb "kobberskov" II 244.
- F811.1.4. F811.1.4. Tree of fire. (Cf. F785.3. and other references there given). Chauvin VII 56 No. 77.
- F811.1.5. F811.1.5. Tree of camphor. *Chauvin VII 11 No. 373B n. 2.
- F811.1.6. F811.1.6. Glass (crystal) tree in otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F811.1.7. F811.1.7. Tree with silver trunk, gold branches, emerald leaves, pearls for fruits. India: Thompson-Balys.

F811.1.8. F811.1.8. Diamond tree. India: Thompson-Balys.

F811.1.9. F811.1.9. Iron tree. India: Thompson-Balys.

F811.1.10. F811.1.10. Tree of cakes. India: Thompson-Balys.

F811.2. F811.2. Tree with extraordinary leaves.

F811.2.1. F811.2.1. Tree with metal leaves. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "arbres".

F811.2.1.1. F811.2.1.1. Tree with brass leaves. Fb "messing" II 582b.

F811.2.1.2. F811.2.1.2. Tree with golden leaves. Fb "træ" III 867a; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 333, Boberg, Hdwb. d. Märch. I 431a n. 35; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 4; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F811.2.2. F811.2.2. Tree with leaves of jewels. Penzer IV 128; Patch PMLA XXXIII 625 n. 83; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Anesaki 242.

F811.2.3. F811.2.3. Tree with gigantic leaves. Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F811.2.3.1. F811.2.3.1. Tree with coiling leaves three thousand miles high with golden cock on top. Patch PMLA XXXIII 625 n. 83.

F811.3. F811.3. Tree of extraordinary color. Irish myth: *Cross.

F811.3.1. F811.3.1. Purple tree. Patch PMLA XXXIII 624 n. 82; Irish myth: *Cross.

F811.3.2. F811.3.2. White mango tree. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 448.

F811.3.3. F811.3.3. Crimson tree. Jewish: Neuman.

F811.4. F811.4. Extraordinary location of tree. Irish myth: *Cross.

F811.4.1. F811.4.1. Tree in midocean. Patch PMLA XXXIII 625 n. 85; Irish myth: *Cross.

F811.4.2. F811.4.2. Tree under sea. Irish myth: *Cross.

F811.4.3. F811.4.3. Tree in the midst of king's hall. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F811.5. F811.5. Food-producing trees.

F811.5.1. F811.5.1. Food-dropping trees. *Loomis White Magic 87; Irish myth: *Cross.

F811.5.2. F811.5.2. Wood which distills wine. *Loomis White Magic 124.

F811.5.3. F811.5.3. Fish-producing tree. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 520; S. A. Indian (Chaco): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (1) 369.

F811.6. F811.6. Tree with musical branches. Irish myth: *Cross.

F811.7. F811.7. Tree with extraordinary fruit.

- F811.7.1. F811.7.1. Tree bearing all fruits. Hdwb. d. Märch. I 207a n. 18; Irish myth: Cross; S. A. Indian (Ackawoi): Alexander Lat. Am. 269.
- F811.7.1.1. F811.7.1.1. Tree bearing several fruits. (Cf. F811.18.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- F811.7.1.2. F811.7.1.2. Tree bearing variety of fruits. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F811.7.2. F811.7.2. Tree bearing unwonted fruit (flowers).
- F811.7.2.1. F811.7.2.1. Temple cedars bear fruit. Jewish: Neuman.
- F811.7.2.2. F811.7.2.2. Marvelous oranges grow upon tree limbs which are sharp knives. Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 102.
- F811.7.2.3. F811.7.2.3. Cherry tree has lotos-flowers. Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 240 No. 186.
- F811.8. F811.8. Tree with fruits like human heads. Attached by hair. Chauvin VII 56 No. 77.
- F811.9. F811.9. Trees with green birds hanging by claws. Chauvin VII 56 No. 77.
- F811.10. F811.10. Tree in which people live in nests. Patch PMLA XXXIII 625 n. 85.
- F811.10.1. F811.10.1. Hollow tree as residence for hero. Hdwb. d. Märch. I 206b n. 7; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F811.11. F811.11. Trees disappear at sunset. English: Wells 104 (Alexander and Dindimus).
- F811.12. F811.12. Trees grow and "ungrow" each day. (Cf. F817.1.) Chauvin VII 83 No. 373bis n. 2.
- F811.13. F811.13. Tree blooms and grows ripe fruit nightly. (Cf. F815.1, F971.7.) Hdwb. d. Märch. I 207b n. 2; Jewish: Neuman.
- F811.13.1. F811.13.1. Extraordinary tree blossoms, bears fruit, matures seeds, seeds sprout and grow, even while one watches. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F811.14. F811.14. Giant tree: nuts fall scores of miles away, etc. Irish myth: *Cross; Japanese: Anesaki 339; Marquesas: Handy 70; Africa (Upoto): Einstein 120.
- F811.14.1. F811.14.1. Tree so large that it darkens whole world. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F811.15. F811.15. Upside-down tree. Branches in ground, roots in air. Africa (Bambara): Travélé 205ff. No. 66.
- F811.16. F811.16. Tree bears fruit, flower, and leaf simultaneously. All drop at once. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F811.17. F811.17. Tree with extraordinary buds.
- F811.17.1. F811.17.1. Tree with crystal buds. Irish myth: Cross.

- F811.18. F811.18. Tree bears fruit three times yearly. (Cf. F811.7.1.1.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- F811.18.1. F811.18.1. Tree bears fruit monthly. Irish myth: Cross.
- F811.19. F811.19. Tree grows miraculously fast from seed. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F811.20. F811.20. Bleeding tree. Blood drops when tree is cut. *Loomis White Magic 124.
- F811.21. F811.21. Marvelous tree (trees) of extraordinary age. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 870.
- F811.22. F811.22. Extraordinary firewood, of elephant tusks. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F811.23. F811.23. Extraordinary flower-bearing tree in middle of seven forts. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F811.24. F811.24. Man-eating tree. (Cf. G10.) Jewish: Neuman.
- F812. F812. Extraordinary forest. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F812.1. F812.1. Forest of straight and tall trees. Each tree straight as an arrow and higher than earthly man ever saw. Patch PMLA XXXIII 625 n. 83.
- F812.2. F812.2. Wood of sixty trees nourishing three hundred men apiece. Patch PMLA 624 n. 82.
- F812.3. F812.3. Forest of Dangers (Wonders). Irish myth: *Cross.
- F812.4. F812.4. Speaking forest. (Cf. D1610.2.) Icelandic: Boberg.
- F812.5. F812.5. Forest where unseen sword cuts off heads of those trying to escape. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F812.6. F812.6. Special flavor of wood from certain forest. Jewish: Neuman.
- F812.7. F812.7. Boards of wood from certain forest endure forever. Jewish: Neuman.
- F812.8. F812.8. Wood which cannot be consumed by fire. Jewish: Neuman.
- F813. F813. Extraordinary fruits. Irish myth: Cross.
- F813.0.1. F813.0.1. Fruits containing jewels. Penzer VI 166, 232, 236ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F813.0.2. F813.0.2. Golden fruits. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F813.0.3. F813.0.3. Extraordinarily large fruit. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F813.0.4. F813.0.4. Fruits always sweet. Jewish: Neuman.
- F813.1. F813.1. Extraordinary apple. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F813.1.1. F813.1.1. Golden apple. Type 502; BP III 111; *Cox Cinderella 494; *Fb "æble" III 1135b, "guldæble" I 515b, 516a, "træ" III 867a, "frugttræ" I 376b.—Irish myth: *Cross; English: Child I 364f.; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 10; Missouri French: Carrière; Icelandic: Boberg; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 400 n. 1, Fox 87; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

F813.1.2. F813.1.2. Silver apple. Fb "træ" III 867a, "frugttræ" I 376b, "æble" III 1135b; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

F813.1.3. F813.1.3. Copper apple. Fb "æble" III 1135b; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

F813.1.4. F813.1.4. Brass apple. Fb "messing" II 582b; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 50, Beal XXI 318.

F813.2. F813.2. Extraordinary grapes. Jewish: *Neuman.

F813.2.1. F813.2.1. Clusters of diamond and emerald grapes. Chauvin VI 110 No. 274.

F813.2.2. F813.2.2. Gigantic grapes. Irish myth: Cross.

F813.3. F813.3. Extraordinary nut. Irish myth: *Cross.

F813.3.1. F813.3.1. Golden nut. Fb "guldnød" I 514; Icelandic: Boberg; Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 38.

F813.3.2. F813.3.2. Gigantic nut. Irish myth: Cross.

F813.3.3. F813.3.3. Nuts yield purple juice. Irish myth: Cross.

F813.3.4. F813.3.4. Silk handkerchief concealed in a nut. India: Thompson-Balys.

F813.4. F813.4. Silver pear. Hdwb. d. Märch. I 256a n. 9.

F813.5. F813.5. Extraordinary gourd.

F813.5.1. F813.5.1. Gourds with seven rooms in each. India: Thompson-Balys.

F813.6. F813.6. Extraordinary banana.

F813.6.1. F813.6.1. Banana large as tooth of elephant. Africa (Baholoholo): Einstein 217.

F813.7. F813.7. Extraordinary fig.

F813.7.1. F813.7.1. Fig magically preserved. Jewish: Neuman.

F813.7.2. F813.7.2. Fig from paradise. Jewish: Neuman.

F813.8. F813.8. Extraordinary pomegranate.

F813.8.1. F813.8.1. Golden pomegranates. Jewish: Neuman.

F813.8.2. F813.8.2. Giant pomegranate rind holds 13 men. Jewish: Neuman.

F814. F814. Extraordinary flower. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

F814.1. F814.1. Gigantic flower. Irish myth: Cross.

F814.2. F814.2. Talking flowers. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F814.3. F814.3. Flower only to be found at midnight. India: Thompson-Balys.

F814.4. F814.4. Golden flowers. India: Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 891.

F814.4.1. F814.4.1. Golden lotus. India: Thompson-Balys.

F814.5. F814.5. Flower visible only to blind man. India: Thompson-Balys.

F814.6. F814.6. Flowers (lotus) of gold float on a river of milk. (Cf. F715.2.3.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F815. F815. Extraordinary plants. Jewish: *Neuman.

F815.1. F815.1. Vegetables (plants) which mature in miraculously short time. (Cf. F811.13.) Irish myth: *Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: *Neuman; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 35.

F815.2. F815.2. Extraordinary grain. Irish myth: Cross.

F815.2.1. F815.2.1. Extraordinary amount of liquor pressed from single grain. Irish myth: *Cross.

F815.3. F815.3. Crops grow without sweat or weariness in paradise. Irish myth: *Cross.

F815.4. F815.4. Extraordinary rice producing million-fold and ripening overnight. (Cf. F815.1.) India: *Thompson-Balys.

F815.4.1. F815.4.1. Rice, the scent of which is smelled for miles around. India: Thompson-Balys.

F815.5. F815.5. Extraordinary seed. Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; Marquesas: Handy 40.

F815.6. F815.6. Prolific grain. Produces enormously. Jewish: *Neuman.

F815.6.1. F815.6.1. Taro planted in sacred spot inexhaustible prolific. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 288.

F815.7. F815.7. Extraordinary vine. (Cf. F813.2.)

F815.7.1. F815.7.1. Extraordinary vine bears 926 varieties of fruit. Jewish: Neuman.

F815.7.2. F815.7.2. Gigantic vine. Jewish: Neuman.

F815.7.3. F815.7.3. Vines smile when a leaf is cut from them. Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 163.

F816. F816. Extraordinary vegetables.

F816.1. F816.1. Cucumber two feet long. India: Thompson-Balys.

F816.2. F816.2. Enormous kava plant. Tonga: Gifford 123, 158.

F817. F817. Extraordinary grass.

F817.1. F817.1. Growing and ungrowing grass. Produces one pod daily till the fifteenth of the month; thereafter one pod shrinks each day. (Cf. F811.12.) Chinese: Ferguson 33.

F817.2. F817.2. Grass grows anew every night. Jewish: Neuman.

F817.3. F817.3. Herbs serve as perfume. Jewish: *Neuman.

F817.4. F817.4. Grass covered with gold dust. Jewish: Neuman.

F818. F818. Extraordinary garden. India: Thompson-Balys.

F818.1. F818.1. Marvelous garden with gold and silver flowers, bees. India: Thompson-Balys.

F818.2. F818.2. Five demons keepers of marvelous garden and palace. India: Thompson-Balys.

F820. F820. Extraordinary clothing and ornaments.

F821. F821. Extraordinary dress (clothes, robe, etc.)

F821.1. F821.1. Dress of extraordinary material.

F821.1.1. F821.1.1. Golden clothes. Fb "guldklædning"; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

F821.1.2. F821.1.2. Brass clothes. Fb "messing" II 582b.

F821.1.3. F821.1.3. Dress of raw fur. Cat-fur, mouse-fur, or other undressed fur. *Type 510B; BP II 45ff.; Köhler-Bolte I 420; Icelandic: Boberg.

F821.1.3.1. F821.1.3.1. Bearskin. Man dressed in bear hide. Type 361; Hdwb. d. Märch. I 169a s.v. "Bärenhäuter"; Icelandic: Boberg.

F821.1.3.2. F821.1.3.2. Cloak made from fur of all animals in realm. German: Grimm No. 65.

F821.1.4. F821.1.4. Wooden coat. *Type 510B; BP II 45ff; Liungman Jordkulan 90; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bois"; India: Thompson-Balys.

F821.1.5. F821.1.5. Dress of gold, silver, color of sun, moon and stars. *Type 510B; *BP II 45ff.; *Eisler Weltenmantel und Himmelszelt I 1ff.; Fb "mene" II 660a, "klæder" IV 267b; Saintyves Perrault 152ff., 202ff.; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "étoiles", "robe".

F821.1.6. F821.1.6. Dress of feathers. Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 248 No. 192.

F821.2. F821.2. Dress so fine that it goes in nutshell. Köhler-Bolte I 420; English: Child I 260 and note, 271.

- F821.2.1. F821.2.1. Coat so light it can be concealed in closed palms of hand. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F821.3. F821.3. Dress with gold, silver, and diamond bells. Köhler-Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. VI 60 and Köhler to Gonzenbach No. 2.
- F821.4. F821.4. Extraordinarily beautiful mantle. None surpasses it. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F821.5. F821.5. Extraordinary long turban. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F821.6. F821.6. Glorified white garments. Moreno Esdras.
- F821.7. F821.7. Clothes of light (worn by Adam and Eve). Jewish: *Neuman.
- F821.8. F821.8. Clothes which do not wear out. *Loomis White Magic 88.
- F821.9. F821.9. Garments grow with man wearing them. Jewish: Neuman.
- F821.10. F821.10. Garments emitting aromatic perfume. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F821.11. F821.11. Clothes remain ever new. Jewish: Neuman.
- F822. F822. Extraordinary handkerchief.
- F822.1. F822.1. Handkerchief color of sun, moon, and stars. Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 111 No. 39, 278 No. 91, 281 No. 92.
- F823. F823. Extraordinary shoes. *Cox Cinderella 506; Irish myth: *Cross.
- F823.1. F823.1. Golden shoes. *Type 510; *Cox Cinderella 506; *Fb "guldsko" I 515a; Jewish: Neuman.
- F823.2. F823.2. Glass shoes. Type 510; Cox Cinderella 506; Missouri French: Carrière.
- F823.3. F823.3. Shoes of rat-skin. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F823.4. F823.4. Silver shoes. Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 230f.
- F824. F824. Extraordinary armor. (Cf. F839.2.) Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: Neuman.
- F824.1. F824.1. Men in air-tight armor. Penzer II 299.
- F824.2. F824.2. Extraordinarily painted shield. Herrmann Saxo II 288; Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F825. F825. Extraordinary ring. Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 160—61, *Boberg.
- F826. F826. Extraordinary jewels.
- F826.1. F826.1. Animals with jeweled ornaments. Malone PMLA XLIII 401, 413.
- F826.2. F826.2. Ambergris made from bitumen eaten by fish. *Chauvin VII 25 No. 373F n. 1.
- F826.3. F826.3. Diamond does not break when struck with sledge hammer; penetrates iron instead. India: Thompson-Balys.

- F826.4. F826.4. Sapphire so large two tables of law hewn out of it. Jewish: Neuman.
- F827. F827. Extraordinary ornaments.
- F827.1. F827.1. Live-bird earrings. N. A. Indian (Menomini): Skinner JAFL XXVII 98.
- F827.2. F827.2. Live head-dress. N. A. Indian: Thompson Tales 337 n. 214.
- F827.3. F827.3. Ornaments of snakes, hornets, scorpions, dirt, and a toad. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F827.4. F827.4. Necklace made of human eyes. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F827.5. F827.5. Golden comb. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F827.6. F827.6. Extraordinary bracelets. Jewish: Neuman.
- F828. F828. Extraordinary crown. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F828.1. F828.1. Jeweled crown suspended in air over king's head. Jewish: Neuman.
- F828.2. F828.2. Crown of fire. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F829. F829. Extraordinary clothing and ornaments—miscellaneous.
- F829.1. F829.1. Rainbow as loincloth. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 508.
- F829.2. F829.2. Girdle made of a climbing-vine. Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 3/1174).
- F829.3. F829.3. Extraordinary belt. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F830. F830. Extraordinary weapons. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F830.1. F830.1. Silver weapon. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F831. F831. Extraordinary arrow. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F831.1. F831.1. Invisible arrow. Visible to only one person. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 356 n. 287b.
- F831.2. F831.2. Arrows of fire. Chauvin VI 106 No. 270; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F831.3. F831.3. Poisoned arrows. (Cf. F833.6.) Icelandic: *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F831.4. F831.4. Arrow shot at bull returns against shooter. Irish myth: Cross.
- F831.5. F831.5. Extraordinarily heavy arrow. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F832. F832. Extraordinary lance. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F832.1. F832.1. Barbed lance. Causes one wound on entering and nine on retiring. Welsh, Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 200; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F832.1.1. F832.1.1. Gae bulga. Barbed lance which cannot be withdrawn. (Cf. A1459.1.4.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F832.2. F832.2. Extraordinarily big lance. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F833. F833. Extraordinary sword. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: Neuman.

F833.1. F833.1. Sword so heavy that hero must take drink of strength before swinging it. Fb "sværd" III 690b.

F833.1.1. F833.1.1. Sword so heavy that only its owner can lift it. Icelandic: Boberg.

F833.2. F833.2. Sword of Damocles. Sword hung on thin thread immediately above person. *BP I 366; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 735a; Olrik Sakses Oldhistorie II (1894) 256; Icelandic: Boberg.

F833.3. F833.3. Sword extraordinarily bright, sharp. Herrmann Saxo 306 n. 2; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F833.3.1. F833.3.1. Sword as mirror. Icelandic: Boberg.

F833.4. F833.4. Fiery sword. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman.

F833.4.1. F833.4.1. Sword shines as fire or as the sun. Icelandic: Boberg.

F833.5. F833.5. Sword cuts everything. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F833.5.1. F833.5.1. Sword cuts cloth etc. as well as steel and stone. Icelandic: Boberg.

F833.6. F833.6. Sword with poisoned edge. (Cf. F831.3.) Icelandic: *Boberg.

F833.7. F833.7. Sword with image of wolf or serpent. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F833.8. F833.8. Gigantic sword. Sword eight elbow-lengths long and two spans broad. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F833.9. F833.9. Disappearing sword. *Loomis White Magic 51.

F833.10. F833.10. Sword with God's name engraved upon it. (Cf. D1766.7.2.) Jewish: Neuman.

F833.11. F833.11. Miraculous sword of Angel of Death. Jewish: Neuman.

F834. F834. Extraordinary spear.

F834.1. F834.1. Remarkably hot spear must be kept in bath of blood (poison). Irish myth: *Cross.

F834.1.1. F834.1.1. Spear of fire (thrown by God). Jewish: Neuman.

F834.2. F834.2. Spear so broad that its owner by swinging it puts the light out. Icelandic: PMLA XLVI 1002, Boberg.

F834.3. F834.3. Extraordinary gleaming spear. Irish myth: Cross.

- F834.4. F834.4. All-conquering spear. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 395.
- F834.5. F834.5. Remarkable spear used to dam stream. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 418.
- F834.6. F834.6. Remarkable spear used as a windbreak. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 418.
- F834.7. F834.7. Warrior seeks combat when his spear consents. Tuamotu: Stimson MS (Z-G. 13/48).
- F835. F835. Extraordinary club. (Cf. F531.4.5.4.) Irish myth: *Cross; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 204.
- F835.1. F835.1. Winking club. Head of a club is like a bird's head; its eyes wink. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 336 n. 214.
- F835.2. F835.2. Remarkably large club.
- F835.2.1. F835.2.1. Iron club so heavy that five men can hardly lift it. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F835.2.2. F835.2.2. Club takes 4,000 men to carry it. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 419.
- F836. F836. Extraordinary bow.
- F836.0.1. F836.0.1. Remarkable bowstring. Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G 13/127).
- F836.1. F836.1. Bow of gold, silver, and copper. Finnish: Kalevala rune 10.
- F836.2. F836.2. Hornbows. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F836.3. F836.3. Extraordinarily large bow. Icelandic: Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F836.3.1. F836.3.1. Bow can be strung only by one thousand men. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 596.
- F836.4. F836.4. Tiny bow shoots through muskox hide. Eskimo (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 88.
- F836.5. F836.5. Crossbow goes bird hunting, shows mercy to first bird, which pleads for its life. Africa (Pangwe): Tessman 372.
- F837. F837. Extraordinary battle-axe. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F837.1. F837.1. Extraordinarily keen stone axe. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 395.
- F838. F838. Extraordinary knife. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F838.1. F838.1. Extraordinarily sharp knife. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F838.2. F838.2. Knife with handle half gold and half silver. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F839. F839. Other extraordinary weapons.
- F839.1. F839.1. Gnawed bone as weapon. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F839.2. F839.2. Extraordinary shield. (Cf. F824.) Irish myth: Cross.

F839.2.1. F839.2.1. Gigantic shield. Irish myth: *Cross.

F839.2.1.1. F839.2.1.1. Shield concealing one hundred men. India: Thompson-Balys.

F839.2.2. F839.2.2. Edge of shield sharp enough to cut hair on water. Irish myth: Cross.

F839.3. F839.3. Cain slays Abel with bone of a camel. (Cf. A1336.) Irish myth: Cross.

F839.3.1. F839.3.1. Cain slain with an apple. Irish myth: Cross.

F839.4. F839.4. Human head as weapon. Irish myth: *Cross.

F839.5. F839.5. Ball made of human brains as weapon. Irish myth: *Cross.

F839.6. F839.6. Betelnut as weapon to strike off man's head. India: Thompson-Balys.

F839.7. F839.7. Wooden lizard used to kill evil spirits. Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 370.

F840. F840. Other extraordinary objects and places.

F841. F841. Extraordinary boat (ship). Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F841.1. F841.1. Ship of extraordinary material.

F841.1.1. F841.1.1. Stone boat (ship). Fb "sten" III 552a, "skib" III 242b; Irish: Cross, O'Suilleabhain 88, Beal XXI 329; India: Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian (Ojibwa): Schoolcraft Hiawatha 223.

F841.1.2. F841.1.2. Bronze boat. Irish myth: *Cross.

F841.1.3. F841.1.3. Mahogany ship. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "ajacou".

F841.1.4. F841.1.4. Boat made of nutshells. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "coques", "noix".

F841.1.4.1. F841.1.4.1. Canoe made from coconut. Marquesas: Handy 46, 91, Beckwith Myth 484.

F841.1.5. F841.1.5. Ship Naglfar. Made of parings of fingernails of the dead. *Gaster Germania XXVI (1881) 204; Icelandic: De la Saussaye 351, Olrik Ragnarök (tr. Ranisch) 72f., 74 n. 1, Boberg.

F841.1.6. F841.1.6. Ship brass within, steel without. English: Child III 340, 344, 349, IV 504.

F841.1.7. F841.1.7. Ship with gold nails. English: Child IV 379ff., V 276.

F841.1.8. F841.1.8. Golden boat with copper rudder. Finnish: Kalevala rune 10.

F841.1.9. F841.1.9. Silver boat. *Loomis White Magic 91; Irish myth: *Cross.

F841.1.10. F841.1.10. Gold ship. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn III (1895) 460ff., (1931) 316ff.

- F841.1.10.1. F841.1.10.1. Boat looks like gold. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F841.1.11. F841.1.11. Boat made of a tree trunk. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F841.1.12. F841.1.12. Boat from gourd. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F841.1.13. F841.1.13. Iron boat. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F841.1.14. F841.1.14. Glass ship. Africa: Weeks Jungle 43.
- F841.2. F841.2. Extraordinary equipment of ship. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F841.2.1. F841.2.1. Gold (silver) mast. Fb "mast" II 564.
- F841.2.2. F841.2.2. Feather used as mast. *Fb "høne" I 750b.
- F841.2.3. F841.2.3. Silver oar. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "avirons".
- F841.2.4. F841.2.4. Golden oar. Irish myth: Cross.
- F841.2.5. F841.2.5. Bronze sail. Irish myth: Cross.
- F841.2.6. F841.2.6. Tin sail. Irish myth: Cross.
- F841.2.7. F841.2.7. Marvelous paddle sends canoe enormous distance with each stroke. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 447.
- F841.3. F841.3. Extraordinary ship—miscellaneous.
- F841.3.1. F841.3.1. Winged ship. Hindu: Keith 31.
- F841.3.2. F841.3.2. Ship on wheels. (Cf. D1553.1.1.) Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F841.3.3. F841.3.3. Enormous canoe. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 420; Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 62, 85.
- F842. F842. Extraordinary bridge. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F842.1. F842.1. Extraordinary material of bridge.
- F842.1.1. F842.1.1. Crystal (glass) bridge. Patch PMLA XXXIII 610 n. 30; Chauvin V 41 No. 388.
- F842.1.2. F842.1.2. Ice bridge. Patch PMLA XXXIII 610 n. 30.
- F842.1.3. F842.1.3. Bridge of apples. Scotch: Campbell Tales I 297.
- F842.1.4. F842.1.4. Golden bridge. Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 587, MacCulloch Eddic 130, *Boberg.
- F842.1.5. F842.1.5. Bridge of straw. German: Grimm No. 18.
- F842.2. F842.2. Extraordinary bridge miscellaneous.
- F842.2.1. F842.2.1. Perilous trap bridge. High in center. One end rises when one steps on it and throws him backwards. Type 516; Rosch FFC LXXVII 125; *Brown Iwain 75;

*Ogle MLN XXXV 129ff.; Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 143, *Cross.

F842.2.1.1. F842.2.1.1. Perilous trap-gate. India: Thompson-Balys.

F842.2.2. F842.2.2. Bridge which falls when mounted. Irish myth: *Cross.

F842.2.3. F842.2.3. Extraordinary span of bridge.

F842.2.3.1. F842.2.3.1. Bridge of boats across sea. Saxo (ed. Elton) 145; Irish myth: Cross; Greek: Aeschylus Prometheus Bound line 720.

F842.2.3.2. F842.2.3.2. Under-water bridge. Irish myth: *Cross.

F842.2.4. F842.2.4. Under-water causeway (to otherworld). (Cf. F93.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F843. F843. Extraordinary rope. Missouri French: Carrière.

F843.1. F843.1. Rope made of person's hair. Köhler-Bolte I 542f.; English: Child V 482 s.v. "hair".

F844. F844. Extraordinary nail. (Cf. F841.1.7.) Icelandic: Boberg.

F846. F846. Extraordinary bed.

F846.1. F846.1. Perilous bed. Irish myth: *Cross.

F846.2. F846.2. Golden bed. India: Thompson-Balys.

F847. F847. Extraordinary web (of guts). Icelandic: Boberg.

F848. F848. Extraordinary ladder (stair).

F848.1. F848.1. Girl's long hair as ladder into tower. Rapunzel. *Type 310; BP I 99; Fb "her" IV 241b; Jacobs's list s.v. "Ladder of hair"; Italian: Basile Pentamerone II Nos. 1, 7.

F848.2. F848.2. Ladder of fingers (toes). *Köhler-Bolte I 170f.

F848.3. F848.3. Ladder of bones. (Usually bones are stuck in side of steep and slippery mountain.) *Köhler-Bolte I 171.—N. A. Indian (Plains Cree): Thompson Tales 141.

F848.4. F848.4. Ladder of fire. Jewish: Neuman.

F848.5. F848.5. Staircase of glass. *Roberts 178.

F851. F851. Extraordinary food. India: Thompson-Balys.

F852. F852. Extraordinary coffin. Jewish: *Neuman.

F852.1. F852.1. Glass coffin. Type 709; BP I 450ff., III 261; *Böklen Sneewittchenstudien 113.

F852.1.1. F852.1.1. Series of glass coffins. (Cf. F852.4.) Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 8.

F852.2. F852.2. Golden coffin. Type 709; *Böklen Sneewittchenstudien 115.—English: Child I 506, II 358f., 362, 366, IV 471, V 224 (gold and silver).

F852.3. F852.3. Silver coffin. Type 709; *Böklen Sneewittchenstudien 115.

F852.4. F852.4. Series of enclosed coffins. Coffins of gold, silver, copper, iron, lead, and wood, each inside the other. (Cf. F852.1.1.) German: Zaubert Westfälische Sagen (Jena, 1927) 12, 15, 141, Lachmann überlinger Sagen (Konstanz, 1909) 48 No. 16.

F855. F855. Extraordinary image.

F855.1. F855.1. Image with pointing finger. Inscription says, "Dig here." Treasure etc. found when directions are followed. Oesterley Gesta Romanorum No. 107; Herbert III 191.

F855.2. F855.2. Statues animated by water or wind. *Chauvin VI 53 No. 218.

F855.3. F855.3. Gold (silver) statue of animal. Jewish: Neuman; Icelandic: Boberg.

F855.3.1. F855.3.1. Peacocks of gold. Penzer III 57.

F855.3.2. F855.3.2. Dogs of gold and silver. Penzer IX 9 n. 1.

F855.3.3. F855.3.3. Golden dove. Jewish: Neuman.

F855.4. F855.4. Image takes thousand men to carry it. Jewish: Neuman.

F856. F856. Extraordinary loom.

F856.1. F856.1. Loom made of woman's breasts with vagina as shuttle. India: Thompson-Balys.

F857. F857. Extraordinary broom (besom).

F857.1. F857.1. Golden besom (broom). India: Thompson-Balys.

F858. F858. Golden plow. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn III (1931) 317.

F861. F861. Extraordinary wagon (cart, carriage, etc.) Icelandic: Boberg.

F861.1. F861.1. Golden wagon (chariot). Greek: Grote I 147.

F861.1.1. F861.1.1. Golden wagon drawn by moles. Fb "guldvogn" I 515b; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn III (1895) 461ff., (1931) 317ff.

F861.1.2. F861.1.2. Golden wagon drawn by four golden elephants. Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 5.

F861.2. F861.2. Winged chariot. Type 575; Irish myth: Cross; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 157 n. 3.

F861.2.1. F861.2.1. Flying carts. Have winged framework. Chinese: Werner 391.

F861.2.2. F861.2.2. Scythed chariot. Irish myth: *Cross.

F861.3. F861.3. Wagon of jewels. Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 4; Jewish:

*Neuman.

F861.3.1. F861.3.1. Cart of lapis lazuli and gold with golden wheels. Babylonian: Gilgamesch-Epos VI 10.

F861.4. F861.4. Carriage from extraordinary material.

F861.4.1. F861.4.1. Carriage made from turnip. German: Grimm No. 63.

F861.4.2. F861.4.2. Wagon made from nutshell, drawn by duck. German: Grimm No. 10.

F861.4.3. F861.4.3. Carriage from pumpkin. Type 510 (Perrault's version).

F861.4.4. F861.4.4. Chariots of fire. Jewish: *Neuman.

F862. F862. Extraordinary horseshoe.

F862.1. F862.1. Golden horseshoe. *Fb "guldsko" I 515a, "guldsmed" I 515a, "hestesko" IV 213b; Icelandic: Boberg; English: Child V 483 s.v. "horse" (silver before and gold behind).

F863. F863. Extraordinary chain. Missouri French: Carrière.

F863.1. F863.1. Unbreakable chain. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "chaone".

F863.2. F863.2. Chains of fire. Jewish: Neuman.

F864. F864. Extraordinary fetter.

F864.1. F864.1. Fetter for Fenris wolf. Made of sound caused by the footfall of cats, beards of women, roots of mountains, sinews of bears, breath of fish, and spittle of birds. Icelandic: Boberg.

F864.2. F864.2. Fetter for Loki. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F865. F865. Extraordinary pavement.

F865.1. F865.1. Pavement of pearl. Fb "perle" II 807b.

F866. F866. Extraordinary cup.

F866.1. F866.1. Cup of three hundred colors. Hartland Science 155.

F866.2. F866.2. Gigantic cup. Irish myth: Cross.

F866.2.1. F866.2.1. Gigantic drinking horn. Icelandic: Boberg.

F866.3. F866.3. Golden cup. Icelandic: *Boberg; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn III (1931) 316ff.

F866.3.1. F866.3.1. Golden drinking horn. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn III (1931) 317.

F866.4. F866.4. Cup made of skulls. Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: Neuman.

F866.5. F866.5. Cup of Gam's egg shell. (Cf. B31.2.) Icelandic: Boberg.

F866.6. F866.6. Extraordinarily costly drinking horn. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F866.7. F866.7. Extraordinary container used for fluids.

F866.7.1. F866.7.1. Hood holds wine as drinking horn. *Loomis White Magic 129.

F866.7.2. F866.7.2. Saint able to carry fluid (water, wine, or oil) in broken container, bottomless jar, etc. *Loomis White Magic 48.

F866.7.2.1. F866.7.2.1. Boy Jesus carries water in his cloak when water bottle is broken. *Loomis White Magic 41.

F867. F867. Extraordinary reel.

F867.1. F867.1. Golden reel. *Fb "gulldhaspe" I 513.

F868. F868. Extraordinary saddle.

F868.1. F868.1. Golden saddle. Fb "guldsadel" I 514b; Icelandic: Boberg.

F871. F871. Sampo. One side flour mill; one, salt mill; one, mill for coining money. Finnish: Kalevala rune 10.

F872. F872. Extraordinary bath. Irish myth: *Cross.

F872.1. F872.1. Bath of milk. Type 507A; Irish myth: *Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bain".

F872.2. F872.2. Bath of boiling oil. Irish myth: *Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bain"; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F872.3. F872.3. Bath of blood. (Cf. F955.1.) Irish myth: *Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F872.3.1. F872.3.1. Bath of blood of dragons, lions, adders, etc. Irish myth: Cross.

F872.4. F872.4. Bath of marrow. Irish myth: Cross.

F872.5. F872.5. Bath of molten lead (iron). Irish myth: Cross.

F872.5.1. F872.5.1. Bath of fire. Jewish: *Neuman.

F872.6. F872.6. Bath which makes one insensible for three days. India: Thompson-Balys.

F872.7. F872.7. Bath of balsam. (Cf. F162.2.5.) Jewish: Neuman.

F873. F873. Extraordinary army.

F873.0.1. F873.0.1. Battle rage. Makes army unconquerable. Irish myth: *Cross.

F873.1. F873.1. Troops of black, white, and red soldiers. One-third of an army of each. Wesselski Märchen 199.

F873.2. F873.2. Enormous army camp. Jewish: Neuman.

F874. F874. Horse's head for extraordinary use. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F874.1. F874.1. Horse's head nailed over gate (door). *Fb "hestehoved" I 602.

F874.2. F874.2. Horse's forehead as golden chair. Fb "hestepande" I 603.

F874.2.1. F874.2.1. Horse's skull used as pillow. German: Grimm No. 71.

F875. F875. Iron bands around heart to keep it from breaking. When master is disenchanted, bands around heart of faithful servant snap one by one. *Type 440; *BP I 1ff.; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F876. F876. Golden spinning-wheel. Hdwb. d. Märch. II 136 nn. 77—119.

F877. F877. Extraordinary threads.

F877.1. F877.1. Gold (silver, copper) thread. Hdwb. d. Märch. II 147 nn. 359—367.

F878. F878. Egg used as shinny ball. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 74.

F881. F881. Extraordinary vessel.

F881.1. F881.1. Extraordinarily large vessel. Irish myth: Cross.

F881.1.1. F881.1.1. Gigantic cauldron. Irish myth: *Cross.

F881.1.2. F881.1.2. Gigantic ladle. Irish myth: Cross.

F881.2. F881.2. Vessel of human bones. Jewish: *Neuman.

F882. F882. Extraordinary fire. Irish myth: *Cross.

F882.1. F882.1. Extraordinary funeral pyre. India: Thompson-Balys.

F882.2. F882.2. Multicolored fires. Jewish: Neuman.

F883. F883. Extraordinary writings (book, letter). Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F883.1. F883.1. Extraordinary book. Icelandic: Boberg.

F883.1.1. F883.1.1. Book of glass. Irish myth: *Cross.

F883.1.2. F883.1.2. Book written with black fire on white fire (in God's lap). Jewish: *Neuman.

F883.1.3. F883.1.3. Words of Decalogue legible on both sides. Jewish: Neuman.

F883.1.4. F883.1.4. Books unscathed by water and fire. Jewish: *Neuman.

F883.1.5. F883.1.5. Book made of sapphires. Jewish: *Neuman.

F883.1.6. F883.1.6. Heavenly books. Jewish: *Neuman.

F883.2. F883.2. Extraordinary letter (written on human skin). India: Thompson-Balys.

F883.2.1. F883.2.1. Letter shot into sky. India: Thompson-Balys.

F885. F885. Extraordinary field. India: Thompson-Balys.

F886. F886. Extraordinary key.

F886.1. F886.1. Golden key. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn III (1895) 461, (1931) 318.

F887. F887. Extraordinary implements. India: Thompson-Balys.

F887.1. F887.1. Extraordinary plow (made of snakes and drawn by tigers). India: Thompson-Balys.

F891. F891. Extraordinary still (with the beads of crocodiles, owls, and parrots as pots). India: Thompson-Balys.

F891.1. F891.1. Woman's body used as still. India: Thompson-Balys.

F893. F893. Extraordinary hearth. India: Thompson-Balys.

F894. F894. Extraordinary seat, covered with skins of lice. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F895. F895. Golden swing. India: Thompson-Balys.

F896. F896. Extraordinary threshing-floor. India: Thompson-Balys.

F899. F899. Other extraordinary objects.

F899.1. F899.1. Extraordinary standard. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F899.2. F899.2. Extraordinary game-board.

F899.2.1. F899.2.1. Golden game-board. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F899.3. F899.3. Enormous cage. Jewish: *Neuman.

F900—F1099.

F900—F1099. Extraordinary occurrences.

F900. F900. Extraordinary occurrences.

F900.1. F900.1. Miracles at certain times.

F900.1.1. F900.1.1. Wonders occur on Hallowe'en. Irish myth: *Cross.

F900.1.2. F900.1.2. Miracles on first night of Passover. Jewish: *Neuman.

F900.2. F900.2. All miracles created by God at creation. Jewish: *Neuman.

F900.3. F900.3. Miracles cease.

F900.3.1. F900.3.1. Miracles in the desert come to an end with death of Miriam, Aaron and Moses. Jewish: Neuman.

F901. F901. Repeated death. (Cf. M341.2.4.2.)

F901.1. F901.1. Extraordinary threefold death: falling from rock and tree, drowning. Irish myth: *Cross.

F901.1.1. F901.1.1. Extraordinary threefold death: wounding, burning, drowning. Irish myth: Cross.

F901.2. F901.2. Extraordinary twofold death: burning, drowning. Irish myth: *Cross.

F910. F910. Extraordinary swallowings. *Plenzat Hdwb. d. Märch. s.v. "Fressmärchen"; Irish: Plummer I clxxvi; India: Thompson-Balys; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 428; West Indies: Flowers 436.

F911. F911. Person (animal) swallowed without killing. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F911.1. F911.1. Men swallow men.

F911.1.1. F911.1.1. God swallows his wife and incorporates her into his own being. (Cf. F1034.2.) Greek: Fox 156, 170, Grote I 9f.

F911.2. F911.2. Animals swallow animals. Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 371, (Mpongwe): Nassau 34 No. 4.

F911.2.1. F911.2.1. Raven dwells inside a whale. Eskimo (Bering Strait): Nelson RBAE XVIII 465.

F911.3. F911.3. Animal swallows man (not fatally). *Types 123, 333, 700; Fb "kat" II 108b; Saintyves Perrault 227ff.; Persian: Carnoy 302; Hindu: Penzer IX 49.

F911.3.1. F911.3.1. Thumbling swallowed by animals. (Cf. F914.2.) *Type 700; BP I 389.

F911.3.2. F911.3.2. Winged serpent as boat: passengers within. Reinhard PMLA XXXVIII 447.

F911.3.3. F911.3.3. Animal with men in its belly playing cards, etc. Reinhard PMLA XXXVIII 447 n. 81.

F911.3.4. F911.3.4. Frog eats a rat, a baker, a man, and a horse. India: Thompson-Balys.

F911.4. F911.4. Jonah. Fish (or water monster) swallows a man. *Frazer Old Testament III 82; *H. Schmidt Jona 127f.; *Wesselski Märchen 213 No. 18; Clouston Tales I 403ff.—Irish myth: *Cross; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 11; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 8, Rotunda; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 27, 275, *Neuman; Babylonian: Spence 87; India: *Thompson-Balys, *Penzer II 193, VI 154 n. 3, Keith 173; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 261; Oceanic (Cook Group, Melanesia, Indonesia): Dixon 69, De Vries's list No. 211; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 443; Marquesas: Handy 137; S. A. Indian (Bakairi): Alexander Lat. Am. 313.

F911.4.1. F911.4.1. Fish swallows ship. Hindu: Tawney II 599.

F911.4.1.1. F911.4.1.1. Party in canoe swallowed by great clam. Tahiti: Beckwith Myth 260.

F911.4.1.2. F911.4.1.2. Serpent swallows canoe and occupant. Am. Indian (Ladino, Honduras and Nicaragua): Conzemius BBAE CVI 169.

F911.5. F911.5. Giant swallows man. Finnish: Kalevala rune 17.

F911.5.1. F911.5.1. Man builds boat and sails about in giant's belly. Finnish: Kalevala rune 17.

F911.6. F911.6. All-swallowing monster. Has whole towns of people and buildings, etc. inside. Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 8 (fish); Africa: Werner African 198, (Zulu): Callaway 55, 78ff., 85ff., 192, 325, 332, (Kaffir): Theal 84, 139f., 176, (Mpongwe): Nassau 34, 46 Nos. 4, 6, (Basuto): Jacottet 70 No. 11, 76 No. 12, 122 No. 17, 214 No. 31, (Ibo Nigeria): Thomas 115, 203 No. 1.

F911.6.1. F911.6.1. Toad (as man) swallows all women's earthenware. S. A. Indian (Cashinawa): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 685.

F911.7. F911.7. Serpent swallows man. S. A. Indian (Cashinawa): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 686.

F912. F912. Victim kills swallower from within. Herbert III 196; Oesterley No. 251; Irish myth: Cross; Greek: Fox 86; India: Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 291; Chinese: Graham; Japanese: Ikeda; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 321 n. 159; Africa: Werner African 199.

F912.1. F912.1. Victim kills swallower from within by burning. *Wesselski Märchen 213 No. 18; Hartland Perseus III 15; Finnish: Kalevala rune 17; Oceanic (Cook Group, Melanesia, Indonesia): Dixon 69; Africa (Zulu): Callaway 332ff.

F912.2. F912.2. Victim kills swallower from within by cutting. Irish myth: *Cross; Mono-Alu: Wheeler 55; New Hebrides: Codrington 365; Cook Islands: Beckwith Myth 503; Marquesas: ibid. 502; S. A. Indian (Eastern Brazil): Lowie BBAE CXLIII (1) 434; Africa (Cameroon): Meinhof 60, (Kaffir): Theal 84, 176, (Basuto): Jacottet 122.

F912.3. F912.3. Swallowed person eats on swallower's liver (heart) until disgorged. (Cf. F914, F915.1.) India: Thompson-Balys; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 140.

F912.3.1. F912.3.1. Swallowed person tickles serpent's throat and is disgorged. India: Thompson-Balys.

F913. F913. Victims rescued from swallower's belly. (Cf. X1723.1.) *Types 123, 333, 450, 700; *BP I 37, 40, 389; *Penzer VI 154 n. 3; Wesselski Märchen 213 No. 18; Saintyves Perrault 227ff.—Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas I 165, 372; Persian: Carnoy 302; Hindu: Keith 173; India: *Thompson-Balys; Oceanic (Cook Group, Melanesia, Indonesia, Australia): Dixon 69, 296; Eskimo (Smith Sound): Kroeber JAFL XII 175; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 321 n. 159a; S. A. Indian (Bakairi): Alexander Lat. Am. 313, (Cashinawa): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 686; Africa: Werner African 221, (Zulu): Callaway 55, 78ff., 85ff., 325, 332, (Kaffir): Theal 84, 142, 176, (Basuto): Jacottet 72, 76, 214 Nos. 11, 12, 31; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 270 No. 82.

F913.1. F913.1. Smith swallowed by water-monster and rescued by saint. Irish myth: *Cross.

F913.2. F913.2. Deity lights a great fire, and all the children ogress has devoured come out of it. India: Thompson-Balys.

F914. F914. Person swallowed and disgorged. *Frazer Old Testament III 82; *H. Schmidt Jona 127f.; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 11; Babylonian: Spence 87; India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 211; West Indies: Flowers 436.

F914.1. F914.1. Princess stands in middle of dried-up tank so serpent will release the water, which he had swallowed up completely. India: Thompson-Balys.

F914.2. F914.2. Buffalo sucks hero with water it is drinking and throws him up again in game of hide-and-seek. (Cf. F911.3.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F914.3. F914.3. Tigress swallows abandoned baby again and again, but it comes out from behind. India: Thompson-Balys.

F915. F915. Victim speaks from swallower's body. *Type 700; BP I 389; Alphabet No. 335; Irish: Plummer cxliii; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 8; Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 58; West Indies: Flowers 436ff.

F915.1. F915.1. Victim pecks on swallower's stomach. (Cf. F912.3.) Bird eaten by king pecks on his stomach. King vomits and bird escapes. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 37 No. 244; Japanese: Ikeda.

F916. F916. One animal jumps through body of another.

F916.1. F916.1. Monkey jumps through body of tiger. Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 46.

F916.2. F916.2. Whelp leaps through body of hound. Irish myth: Cross.

F917. F917. Monster swallows people through anus. India: Thompson-Balys.

F921. F921. Swallowed person becomes bald. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 132, 437; Tuamotu: ibid. 503; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 322 n. 159b.

F921.1. F921.1. Swallowed person becomes boneless. S. A. Indian (Cashinawa): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 686.

F922. F922. Swallowed person bereft of clothing. Irish myth: *Cross.

F923. F923. Tent-house folded and swallowed as means of carrying it. Africa (Benga): Nassau 208ff. No. 33.

F929. F929. Extraordinary swallowings—miscellaneous.

F929.1. F929.1. Elephant allows jackal to quench his thirst by entering through his mouth to his stomach. India: Thompson-Balys.

F929.2. F929.2. Man swallows reptiles. Jewish: Neuman.

F929.2.1. F929.2.1. Person unwittingly swallows snake, which kills him. India: Thompson-Balys.

F930. F930. Extraordinary occurrences concerning seas or waters.

F930.1. F930.1. Book dropped in water by saint not wet. *Loomis White Magic 39f.—Irish: Plummer cxxxviii, *Cross.

F930.1.0.1. F930.1.0.1. Dashing sea does not touch saint's cowl. (Cf. D1067.3.1, F931.3.) Irish myth: Cross.

F930.1.0.2. F930.1.0.2. Robe sent to saint on stream not wet. (Cf. D1052.) Irish myth: Cross.

F930.2. F930.2. Waters rise to drown wrongdoer. Irish myth: *Cross.

F930.3. F930.3. Water sinks to bottom, mud rises to surface to keep prophet from drowning. Jewish: *Neuman.

F930.4. F930.4. Waters transformed to blood for Egyptians but not for Hebrews. (Cf. D474.) Jewish: *Neuman.

F930.5. F930.5. Water stops flowing when no longer needed. Jewish: Neuman.

F930.6. F930.6. Water chants song. (Cf. D1614.4, F931.12.) Jewish: *Neuman.

F930.7. F930.7. Waters dissolve mill-stones. Jewish: *Neuman.

F930.8. F930.8. Chewed nut spread on waters clarifies them. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 436.

F931. F931. Extraordinary occurrence connected with sea.

F931.1. F931.1. Sea rises and changes place. Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 135 No. 89.

F931.1.1. F931.1.1. Sea rises at saint's command. Irish myth: Cross.

F931.2. F931.2. Fish disappear from sea. Punishment for woman's having washed a child with a fish. Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 47 No. 90; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 135 No. 90.

F931.3. F931.3. Sea does not encroach on burial place of saint. (Cf. F930.1.0.1.) Irish myth: Cross.

F931.3.1. F931.3.1. Sea behaves like solid earth when man is buried in it. Irish myth: *Cross.

F931.4. F931.4. Extraordinary behavior of waves. Irish myth: *Cross.

F931.4.1. F931.4.1. Waves reverberate at preparation for battle. Irish myth: Cross.

F931.4.2. F931.4.2. Waves moan (shriek) during battle. Irish myth: *Cross.

F931.5. F931.5. Extraordinary shipwreck in calm weather. Icelandic: *Boberg.

- F931.6. F931.6. Fishing under sea. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F931.7. F931.7. Sea changes color. German: Grimm No. 19; Jewish: *Neuman.
- F931.8. F931.8. Sea fettered. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F931.9. F931.9. Passing through sea unscathed. (Cf. D1551.) Jewish: *Neuman.
- F931.9.1. F931.9.1. Waters of sea arch over people like a vault. (Cf. F932.2.) Jewish: *Neuman.
- F931.9.2. F931.9.2. Sea yields people whatever they desire. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F931.9.2.1. F931.9.2.1. Sea flows sweet water. Jewish: Neuman.
- F931.9.2.2. F931.9.2.2. Sea bears fruits. Jewish: Neuman.
- F931.9.3. F931.9.3. Paths open up in sea for each tribe (one for each of Israel's tribes). Jewish: *Neuman.
- F931.10. F931.10. Sea piles up to height of sixteen hundred miles. Jewish: Neuman.
- F931.11. F931.11. Speaking sea. (Cf. D1610, F932.12.) Jewish: *Neuman.
- F931.12. F931.12. Seas sing hymns of praise. (Cf. F930.6.) Jewish: Neuman.
- F932. F932. Extraordinary occurrences connected with rivers.
- F932.1. F932.1. River pursues fugitive. Fb "e" III 1187a; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 209 n. 8; Africa (Kaffir): Theal 63.
- F932.2. F932.2. River arches over saint's body like a vault. (Cf. F931.9.1, V220.) *Ward Catalogue II 640 No. 17; Crane Miraculis 104 No. 40.
- F932.3. F932.3. Stream becomes hot in which saint performs his ascetic devotions. Irish: Plummer cxxxviii.
- F932.4. F932.4. Well of oil runs into river. Miracle. Alphabet No. 550.
- F932.5. F932.5. River acts as messenger.
- F932.5.1. F932.5.1. River carries object to saint. Irish myth: Cross.
- F932.6. F932.6. River ceases to flow. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman.
- F932.6.1. F932.6.1. River dries up for a day. Irish myth: Cross.
- F932.6.2. F932.6.2. River dries up its waters out of sympathy. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F932.6.3. F932.6.3. In dead of night waters of stream cease flowing and stand perfectly still. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F932.7. F932.7. River boils. Irish myth: Cross.
- F932.7.1. F932.7.1. River boils when ashes of hearts are cast into it. Irish myth: *Cross.

F932.8. F932.8. River rises and overflows.

F932.8.1. F932.8.1. River rises to prevent body's being carried over it against dying man's wish. Irish myth: Cross.

F932.8.2. F932.8.2. River rises to prevent advance of army. Irish myth: *Cross.

F932.8.2.1. F932.8.2.1. River rises to prevent meeting of hostile armies. Irish myth: *Cross.

F932.8.3. F932.8.3. River rises to prevent escape of thieves. Irish myth: Cross.

F932.8.4. F932.8.4. Treacherous river overflows and drowns victims. Irish myth: Cross.

F932.8.5. F932.8.5. Shallow river rushes up to drown man. India: Thompson-Balys.

F932.8.6. F932.8.6. River piles up to a height of three hundred miles. Jewish: Neuman.

F932.9. F932.9. Ford across impassable river created by saint. Irish myth: Cross.

F932.10. F932.10. River divides into two parts after rape in its bed. India: Thompson-Balys.

F932.11. F932.11. Firelike waters of river used by strange beings to cook flesh. S. A. Indian (Chiriguano): Métraux RMLP XXXIII 171.

F932.12. F932.12. Speaking river (brook). (Cf. D1614.4, F930.6, F931.11.) Jewish: Neuman.

F933. F933. Extraordinary occurrences connected with springs.

F933.1. F933.1. Miraculous spring bursts forth for holy person. Dh II 26; *Toldo VI 310ff.; Saintyves Le Miracle de l'apparition des eaux dans ses relations avec les liturgies papennes et chrétiennes (Revue de l'Université de Bruxelles, 1912, 265—94); Irish myth: *Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: *Neuman.

F933.1.1. F933.1.1. Spring bursts forth where saint spills water from his bell. Irish myth: *Cross.

F933.1.2. F933.1.2. Magic spring flows from roots of tree at command of Jesus. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

F933.1.3. F933.1.3. Well rises so holy person does not have to draw from it. Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F933.1.3.1. F933.1.3.1. Well rises so maiden can draw without exerting herself. Jewish: *Neuman.

F933.1.3.2. F933.1.3.2. Well rises for pious man's sheep. Jewish: *Neuman.

F933.2. F933.2. Dry spring restored by removal of certain stone. Christiansen FFC XXIV 87.

F933.3. F933.3. At certain time sheep thrown into well become crimson. Irish myth:

Cross.

F933.4. F933.4. Severed head of impious man in well causes water to become bitter during part of each day. Irish myth: *Cross.

F933.5. F933.5. Rushes uprooted reveal spring. Irish myth: *Cross; French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

F933.6. F933.6. Spring miraculously breaks forth against wrongdoer. Irish myth: *Cross.

F933.6.1. F933.6.1. Desecrated well overflows. Irish myth: *Cross.

F933.7. F933.7. Well floods when gazed upon until mass is said over it. Irish myth: Cross.

F933.8. F933.8. Bones of bird constantly thrown up from well. Irish myth: Cross.

F934. F934. Extraordinary occurrences connected with lakes. Irish myth: Cross.

F934.1. F934.1. Gravel rises from bottom as hero enters lake. Irish myth: *Cross.

F934.2. F934.2. Lake rises from bramble bush. Irish myth: Cross.

F934.3. F934.3. Lake petrifies wood. Irish myth: Cross.

F934.4. F934.4. Lake disappears. Irish myth: Cross.

F934.5. F934.5. When dead man's body is thrown into lake, water turns pitch black and all living creatures therein die. India: Thompson-Balys.

F935. F935. Extraordinary occurrences connected with pond (pool, tank).

F935.1. F935.1. Huge tank has no water in spite of plentiful rains. India: Thompson-Balys.

F935.2. F935.2. Ice forms while fish leaps from pool. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 74.

F940. F940. Extraordinary underground (underwater) disappearance. *Fb "synke"; Icelandic: örvar-Odds saga 136; IOrsteinssaga Vikingssona 417, 421, 432; ásmundarsaga Kappabana (Zwei Fornaldarsogur ed. F. Detter, Halle a. S. 1891) 82; Göngu Hrylfssaga 330, 339; Sörla saga sterka (FAS III) 440, 444, 446; Hjálmthèrssaga ok ölvis 471; Chinese: Graham.

F941. F941. Building sinks into earth. Irish: *Cross, O'Suilleabhain 79; Jewish: *Neuman.

F941.1. F941.1. Castle sinks into earth. Wesselski Märchen 200; Jewish: Neuman.

F941.2. F941.2. Church sinks underground.

F941.2.1. F941.2.1. Church sinks: song heard from underground. *Fb "kirke" IV 258b; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 47 No. 87; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 134 No. 87.

F941.2.2. F941.2.2. Church and congregation sink to bottom of sea. Finnish: Aarne

FFC XXXIII 46 No. 86; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 134 No. 86.

F941.2.3. F941.2.3. Temple swallowed by earth. Jewish: Neuman.

F941.3. F941.3. Tower sinks into earth.

F941.3.1. F941.3.1. Unfinished Tower of Babel sinks into earth. (Cf. F772.1.) Jewish: Neuman.

F942. F942. Man sinks into earth. U.S.: Baughman; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 372, Rasmussen III 185, (Smith Sound): Kroeber JAFL XII 182; West Indies: Flowers 438.

F942.1. F942.1. Ground opens and swallows up person. Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 327; Icelandic: *Boberg; Greek: Fox 63 (Althaimenes), 227 (Persephone), Frazer Apollodorus II 241 n. 5; Jewish: *Neuman; Africa: Werner African 200.

F942.1.1. F942.1.1. Ground opens to hide fugitive. U.S.: Baughman; Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: Neuman; Eskimo (Kodiak): Golder JAFL XVI 28.

F942.2. F942.2. Ground cut from under adversary. Irish myth: *Cross.

F942.2.1. F942.2.1. Adversary pushed into ground. Irish myth: *Cross.

F942.3. F942.3. Earth opens at man's command. India: Thompson-Balys.

F942.3.1. F942.3.1. Earth opens at woman's bidding to enclose her. India: Thompson-Balys.

F943. F943. Sinking into mud in duel. Icelandic: Boberg; Czech: Tille FFC XXXIV 96; Lithuanian: Leskien-Brugmann 385 No. 10, 557 No. 14; Greek: Hahn Griechische und albanesische Märchen II 273; Egyptian: Maspero Contes populaire de l'Egypte ancienne (Paris, 1882) 191; Africa: Meinhof Afrikanische 78, Frobenius Atlantis X 212.

F943.1. F943.1. Man sinks into stone. Irish myth: Cross; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 98.

F944. F944. City sinks in the sea. Schmersel Die Sage von der versunkenen Stadt; Schütte Danske Studier (1925) 117; Le Braz Légende de la Mort (Paris, 1902); Smyser Harvard Studies and Notes Phil. and Lit. XV (1933) 49ff.; England: Baughman; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3610.

F944.1. F944.1. City sinks in sea or lake as punishment. England, Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.

F944.2. F944.2. Ancient homeland sinks beneath the waves. Tuamotu: Beckwith Myth 75.

F944.3. F944.3. Island sinks into sea. Tonga: Gifford 185.

F944.4. F944.4. Earth splits and plain sinks to become bottom of lake when tabu is broken. Africa (Congo): Johnson Grenfell 817.

F945. F945. Person gradually submerged by sea. India: *Thompson-Balys.

- F947. F947. Ground opens and swallows forest. Irish myth: Cross; England: Baughman.
- F948. F948. Object sinks into earth.
- F948.1. F948.1. Ground opens and swallows heathen idols. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F948.1.1. F948.1.1. Earth swallows up Temple vessels. Jewish: Neuman.
- F948.2. F948.2. Ground opens and swallows other object. Irish myth: Cross; Chinese: Graham.
- F948.3. F948.3. Magic object sinks into earth. Irish myth: Cross.
- F948.4. F948.4. Extraordinary sword sinks into earth after use. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F948.5. F948.5. City is buried under sand. England: *Baughman.
- F949. F949. Extraordinary underground (underwater) disappearance—miscellaneous.
- F949.1. F949.1. Animal sinks into earth. Irish myth: Cross.
- F949.1.1. F949.1.1. Ground opens and swallows demoniac wasps. Irish myth: Cross.
- F949.2. F949.2. Man falls underground through hole. Chinese: Graham.
- F950. F950. Marvelous cures. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F950.1. F950.1. Sickness cured by napkin of Veronica. English: Wells 156 (Temporale).
- F950.2. F950.2. Extreme anger as cure for sickness. (Cf. F955.) Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 358; Irish myth: Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- F950.2.1. F950.2.1. Wife cures self of catarrh by calling to husband fondling maid at bedside. Heptameron No. 71.
- F950.3. F950.3. Measuring sick as means of cure. Zachariae Zs. f. Vksk. XXI 151; England, Ireland, Wales, U.S.: Baughman.
- F950.4. F950.4. Sickness (madness) cured by coition. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 55, 90; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.
- F950.5. F950.5. Extreme fear as cure for sickness. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F950.6. F950.6. Sucking through tubes heals wounds. (Cf. F959.3.) Irish myth: Cross.
- F950.7. F950.7. Marvelous cure without seeing person. Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- F950.8. F950.8. Princess cured by seeing her lost lover dance. Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 13/10).
- F950.9. F950.9. Healing by sprinkling water and replacing flesh. Chinese: Graham.
- F952. F952. Blindness miraculously cured. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "aveugle"; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: *Neuman;

India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 25.

F952.0.1. F952.0.1. Sight miraculously restored while poet writes hymn (poem). Irish myth: *Cross.

F952.0.2. F952.0.2. Blinded prince forces goddess to give him back his sight. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F952.1. F952.1. Blindness cured by tears. *Type 310; BP I 97, 99.

F952.2. F952.2. Blindness healed by sun's rays. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 32.

F952.3. F952.3. Blindness cured by rubbing sand on eyes. India: Thompson-Balys.

F952.3.1. F952.3.1. Blindness cured by striking eyes. (Cf. F953.1.) India: *Thompson-Balys; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G. 3/931).

F952.3.1.1. F952.3.1.1. Blindness cured by striking eyes with shell. Africa (Nyanja): Rattray Some Folk-Lore Stories and Songs in Chinyanja (London, 1907) 149ff. No. 24.

F952.3.2. F952.3.2. Blindness cured by rubbing eyes with flower. India: Thompson-Balys.

F952.4. F952.4. Blindness cured by striking head violently on tree. India: Thompson-Balys.

F952.5. F952.5. Blindness cured by application of chicken dung. India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Nyanja): Rattray Some Folk-Lore Stories and Songs in Chinyanja (London, 1907) 149ff. No. 24.

F952.6. F952.6. Blindness cured by drop of water from side of crucified Saviour. Irish myth: *Cross.

F952.7. F952.7. Eyes restored by bathing in lake (spring). Irish myth: *Cross.

F953. F953. Cripple marvelously cured. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges; India: Thompson-Balys.

F953.1. F953.1. Hunchback cured by having hump severely beaten. India: *Thompson-Balys; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 233; Africa (Nyanja): Rattray Some Folk-Lore Stories and Songs in Chinyanja (London, 1907) 149ff. No. 24.

F954. F954. Dumb person brought to speak. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 438.

F954.1. F954.1. Thread under dumb man's tongue cut. This permits him to speak. Dickson 217.

F954.2. F954.2. Dumbness cured by question.

F954.2.1. F954.2.1. Dumb princess is brought to speech by tale ending with a question to be solved. *Type 945; BP III 53ff.; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 534.

F954.2.2. F954.2.2. Dumbness cured by saint's question. Irish myth: Cross.

F954.3. F954.3. Fainting brings recovery of speech. English: Wells 137 (Sir Gowther).

F954.4. F954.4. Chilli plant so hot it causes dumb man to speak: thus discovered for eating. India: Thompson-Balys.

F954.4.1. F954.4.1. Flea (magic) enters princess' throat and helps hero make her speak. India: Thompson-Balys.

F954.5. F954.5. Person made to speak by warning of danger. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

F955. F955. Miraculous cure for leprosy. Rage at hearing for first time of Christ's passion causes cure. (Cf. F950.3.) Irish: Beal XXI 306; English: Wells 155 (Temporale).

F955.1. F955.1. Blood-bath as cure for leprosy. (Cf. F872.3.) Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

F956. F956. Extraordinary diagnosis. Irish myth: *Cross.

F956.1. F956.1. Detailed diagnosis by feeling pulse. *Chauvin V 136 No. 64.

F956.2. F956.2. Illegitimacy of child discovered by urinalysis. *Campbell Sages lxxxiv (Medicus).

F956.3. F956.3. Diagnosis based on smoke rising from house of sick. Irish myth: *Cross.

F956.4. F956.4. Physician, by examining wound can tell whether it was inflicted by a man or a woman and describe him or her in detail. Irish myth: *Cross.

F957. F957. Cure by physician's imitating sick man's actions. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 360.

F958. F958. Mountebank undertakes to bring the city's incurables back to health. Effects marvelous cures. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

F959. F959. Marvelous cures—miscellaneous.

F959.1. F959.1. Madness miraculously cured.

F959.1.1. F959.1.1. Senses regained when person speaks his name. Irish myth: Cross.

F959.2. F959.2. Cross-eyes straightened when hero sets head of slain opponent upon his own. Irish myth: Cross.

F959.2.1. F959.2.1. Deformity cured by waves of sea. Irish myth: Cross.

F959.3. F959.3. Miraculous cure of wound.

F959.3.1. F959.3.1. Dreadful wound healed. Irish myth: *Cross.

F959.3.2. F959.3.2. Gaping wound closed with slab of wood. Irish myth: Cross.

F959.3.3. F959.3.3. Wounds healed by bath of marrow. Irish myth: Cross.

F959.3.4. F959.3.4. Weapon (missile) miraculously removed.

F959.3.4.1. F959.3.4.1. Saint's palm over wound causes spearhead to come forth. Irish myth: Cross.

F959.3.5. F959.3.5. Fat of crow as remedy for king's wounds. India: Thompson-Balys.

F959.4. F959.4. Paunch opened and fat taken out to cure stomach. Icelandic: Boberg.

F959.5. F959.5. Cure for deadly snake bite. India: Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 679.

F959.6. F959.6. Marvelous cure for poison.

F959.6.1. F959.6.1. Enemy cured by poisoned cake he has sent to holy man in order to destroy him. India: Thompson-Balys.

F959.6.2. F959.6.2. Immunity to poison by eating poisons. (Mithridates.) Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 284.

F960. F960. Extraordinary nature phenomena—elements and weather.

F960.1. F960.1. Extraordinary nature phenomena at birth of holy person (hero). *Dh II 11; Toldo I 327, 335; Irish: Plummer cxxxvii, *Cross; Jewish: Gaster Exempla 216 No. 141 (142); Alphabet Nos. 549, 552; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 682, 788, 969, II 325, 1014, 1245, 1339; Japanese: Ikeda; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 71, 390.

F960.1.1. F960.1.1. Extraordinary nature phenomena at birth of royalty. India: Thompson-Balys.

F960.1.1.1. F960.1.1.1. Thunder report at birth of king. (Cf. F968.) Irish myth: Cross.

F960.1.1.2. F960.1.1.2. Shower of gold and silver rains upon king's ship at birth of his children. India: Thompson-Balys.

F960.1.1.3. F960.1.1.3. Storm signs betray newly born child's chiefly rank. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 428.

F960.1.2. F960.1.2. Extraordinary nature phenomena at birth of hero. (Cf. T583, V222.) Jewish: *Neuman.

F960.1.2.1. F960.1.2.1. Extraordinary precipitation at birth of hero. (Cf. F962.) Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

F960.1.2.1.1. F960.1.2.1.1. Shower of lotuses at birth of hero. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 131.

F960.1.3. F960.1.3. Exhibition of lights at saint's birth. Loomis White Magic 21.

F960.1.4. F960.1.4. Bells ring without human hands when a saint is born. Loomis White Magic 23.

F960.1.5. F960.1.5. Extraordinary nature phenomena at rebirth: nine worlds tremble. India: Thompson-Balys.

F960.1.6. F960.1.6. When girl (princess) is born, earth is filled with light. India: Thompson-Balys.

- F960.2. F960.2. Extraordinary nature phenomena at death of holy person (hero). Irish myth: *Cross.
- F960.2.1. F960.2.1. Nature fruitless after death of hero. Irish myth: Cross.
- F960.2.2. F960.2.2. Rainbow stretches from monastery to heaven at saint's death. Irish myth: Cross.
- F960.2.3. F960.2.3. Rock bursts into flames at hero's death. (Cf. F964.3.4.) Irish myth: Cross.
- F960.2.4. F960.2.4. Great light appears on night of holy man's death. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F960.2.5. F960.2.5. Earthquake at death of important person.
- F960.2.5.1. F960.2.5.1. Earthquake when good man is murdered. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F960.2.5.2. F960.2.5.2. Earthquake at witch's death. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F960.2.5.3. F960.2.5.3. Earthquake at dragon's death. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F960.2.6. F960.2.6. Winter's day changes to summer's day at saint's funeral. *Loomis White Magic 96.
- F960.2.6.1. F960.2.6.1. Sun shines but two hours the day of hero's funeral. Jewish: Neuman.
- F960.3. F960.3. Extraordinary nature phenomena during furious battle. (Cf. F1084.) Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: Neuman.
- F960.3.1. F960.3.1. Nature's lament at the Temple's destruction. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F960.4. F960.4. Extraordinary nature phenomena at anger of saint. Irish myth: Cross.
- F960.5. F960.5. Extraordinary nature phenomena at prisoner's miraculous release. Irish myth: Cross.
- F960.6. F960.6. Extraordinary nature phenomena on night of fratricide. (Cf. S73.1.) Irish myth: Cross.
- F960.7. F960.7. Extraordinary nature phenomena at cruel treatment of innocent person. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F960.8. F960.8. Extraordinary nature phenomena at moving of saint's remains. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F960.9. F960.9. Earthquake announces victorious return of hero after long absence. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F960.10. F960.10. Extraordinary natural phenomena at giving of Tora at Mount Sinai. Jewish: Neuman.
- F961. F961. Extraordinary behavior of heavenly bodies.

- F961.0.1. F961.0.1. Several suns or moons appearing in sky simultaneously. Hatt Asiatic Influences 73—78.
- F961.0.2. F961.0.2. Eclipse of sun and moon in God's proximity. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F961.0.3. F961.0.3. Heavenly bodies lament. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F961.0.3.1. F961.0.3.1. Sun, moon, and stars do not shine seven days, mourning Adam's death. Jewish: Neuman.
- F961.0.4. F961.0.4. God's praise chanted by the heavenly bodies. (Cf. A659.1, A767.) Jewish: *Neuman.
- F961.0.5. F961.0.5. Heavenly bodies bear witness for and against man. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F961.0.6. F961.0.6. Heavens bleed. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F961.1. F961.1. Extraordinary behavior of sun. (Cf. F965.) Icelandic: Boberg.
- F961.1.1. F961.1.1. Sun refuses to shine when murder is done. *BP II 531 n. 1.—Icelandic: Boberg.
- F961.1.2. F961.1.2. Sun travels from west to east. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 164 n. 1; Jewish: Gaster Exempla 185 No. 2b, 201 No. 78, *Neuman.
- F961.1.2.1. F961.1.2.1. Sun returns to sunrise to help sick man. Irish myth: Cross.
- F961.1.3. F961.1.3. Several suns in sky.
- F961.1.3.1. F961.1.3.1. Two suns shine in sky. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.
- F961.1.3.2. F961.1.3.2. Three suns shine in sky. Alphabet No. 552.
- F961.1.4. F961.1.4. Sun warns man of approaching assassin. Africa (Fang): Trilles 94.
- F961.1.5. F961.1.5. Sun shines during night. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.
- F961.1.5.1. F961.1.5.1. Sun shines for twelve days and nights after death of holy person. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F961.1.5.2. F961.1.5.2. Sun reappears after being set. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F961.1.5.3. F961.1.5.3. Sun does not set. Jewish: Neuman.
- F961.1.5.3.1. F961.1.5.3.1. Sunset delayed many hours. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F961.1.6. F961.1.6. Sun does not shine on island of druidry. Irish myth: Cross.
- F961.1.7. F961.1.7. Sun turned from one hour to another through the prayer of saint (Moses). Irish myth: *Cross.
- F961.1.8. F961.1.8. Sun appears color of blood. Irish myth: Cross.
- F961.1.9. F961.1.9. Eclipse of sun at important historical events. (Cf. A737.) Jewish: Neuman.

- F961.1.10. F961.1.10. Sun sets early to hide fugitive. (Cf. R310.) Jewish: Neuman.
- F961.2. F961.2. Extraordinary behavior of stars. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F961.2.1. F961.2.1. Bright star indicates birth of holy person. *Toldo I 327; Matthew 2: 2; Irish myth: *Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Babylonian: Spence 53.
- F961.2.2. F961.2.2. Hairy star. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F961.2.3. F961.2.3. Star shines in day. Irish myth: Cross.
- F961.2.4. F961.2.4. Stars and planets speak. Jewish: Neuman.
- F961.2.5. F961.2.5. Speaking star. Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G 3/191).
- F961.2.5.1. F961.2.5.1. Constellations bewail man's death. Jewish: Neuman.
- F961.2.6. F961.2.6. Fighting stars melt iron chariots. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F961.2.7. F961.2.7. Star swallows four other stars. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F961.2.8. F961.2.8. Star moves from west to east. Jewish: Neuman.
- F961.2.9. F961.2.9. Stars drop on grave during conjuration. (Cf. F962.3.) Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 276.
- F961.3. F961.3. Extraordinary behavior of moon. Irish myth: Cross.
- F961.3.1. F961.3.1. Moon turns to blood. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F961.3.2. F961.3.2. Many moons at the same time. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- F961.3.3. F961.3.3. Moon warns sleeping man of approaching assassin. Africa (Fang): Tessman 93.
- F962. F962. Extraordinary precipitation (rain, snow, etc.) Irish: *Cross, O'Suilleabhain 18, 110, Beal XXI 306, 334.
- F962.0.1. F962.0.1. Gifts are obtained or fall from heaven: flowers (roses), crown of gold, blossoms or thorns, bells, gems, books, sword, etc. *Loomis White Magic 88.
- F962.0.2. F962.0.2. Storm overturns idol. Jewish: Neuman.
- F962.1. F962.1. Electric storm breaks island into three parts. Irish myth: Cross.
- F962.2. F962.2. Fire from heaven. *Saintyves Essais de folklore biblique 1 ff.; Irish: Plummer cxxxvii, cxxxviii, *Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: Moreno Esdras, *Neuman.
- F962.2.1. F962.2.1. Sacrifice consumed by heavenly fire. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F962.2.2. F962.2.2. Pillar of fire reaches from heaven to earth. (Cf. F774.2.1.) Jewish: *Neuman.
- F962.2.3. F962.2.3. Fire from heaven cannot be quenched by water. Jewish: Neuman.

F962.2.4. F962.2.4. Fire from heaven burns and freezes. Jewish: *Neuman.

F962.2.5. F962.2.5. Extraordinary hot rain. Jewish: *Neuman.

F962.3. F962.3. Star drops from heaven: is money. BP III 233.

F962.4. F962.4. Shower of blood. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Marquesas: Handy 65.

F962.4.1. F962.4.1. Shower of blood for three days and three nights. Irish myth: Cross.

F962.4.2. F962.4.2. Dew of blood from fingers of repentant woman. Irish myth: Cross.

F962.5. F962.5. Extraordinary hailstones.

F962.5.1. F962.5.1. Storm of gigantic hailstones. Irish myth: Cross.

F962.5.1.1. F962.5.1.1. Hailstones, each as large as a crabapple. Irish myth: Cross (F194.1.)

F962.5.2. F962.5.2. Rain of fiery hailstones. Jewish: *Neuman.

F962.5.3. F962.5.3. Triangular hailstones. Irish myth: Cross (F794.2).

F962.6. F962.6. Shower of food. Jewish: Neuman.

F962.6.1. F962.6.1. Shower of wheat. Irish myth: *Cross.

F962.6.2. F962.6.2. Shower of manna. *Loomis White Magic 87; Jewish: Neuman.

F962.6.3. F962.6.3. Shower of honey. Irish myth: *Cross.

F962.6.4. F962.6.4. Shower of oil. *Loomis White Magic 87.

F962.7. F962.7. Extraordinary dew.

F962.7.1. F962.7.1. Sweet dew. Icelandic: Boberg.

F962.8. F962.8. Other extraordinary showers.

F962.8.1. F962.8.1. Shower of silver (money). Irish myth: *Cross.

F962.8.2. F962.8.2. Rain of jewels. Jewish: Neuman.

F962.9. F962.9. Icicles gathered by saint as firewood burn. Irish myth: Cross.

F962.10. F962.10. Extraordinary mist (darkness). Irish myth: *Cross.

F962.10.1. F962.10.1. Mist settles over lake after fight with serpent. Irish myth: Cross.

F962.11. F962.11. Extraordinary snow.

F962.11.1. F962.11.1. Snow has taste of wine. Irish myth: *Cross.

F962.12. F962.12. Holy object falls from heaven. Irish myth: Cross.

- F962.12.1. F962.12.1. Crozier falls from heaven for saint. Irish myth: Cross.
- F962.12.2. F962.12.2. Altar cloths descend from heaven. Irish myth: Cross.
- F962.12.3. F962.12.3. Marvelous picture falls from sky in storm. Pauli (ed. Bolte) 319 No. 558.
- F962.12.4. F962.12.4. Written scroll (letter) received from heaven. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F962.12.5. F962.12.5. Mysterious leaf falls on church altar. Irish myth: Cross.
- F962.13. F962.13. Raindrops as large as man's hand. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F963. F963. Extraordinary behavior of wind.
- F963.1. F963.1. Wind serves Solomon as horse and carries him everywhere. Dh I 321.
- F963.2. F963.2. Extraordinary wind blows arrows shot against Christians back against enemy. Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- F963.3. F963.3. Extraordinary wind bursts open locked doors of church to show that dead pope is worthy of burial there. Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- F963.4. F963.4. Wind carries ogre to his castle. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.
- F964. F964. Extraordinary behavior of fire. Irish myth: Cross.
- F964.0.1. F964.0.1. Pillar of fire (in sky). Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.
- F964.1. F964.1. Fire bends bough to shape of crozier. (Cf. F979.5.) Irish myth: Cross.
- F964.2. F964.2. Fire spares saint's tunic, though wearer is burned. Irish myth: Cross.
- F964.3. F964.3. Fire from extraordinary fuel.
- F964.3.1. F964.3.1. Extraordinary lamps burn with urine. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F964.3.2. F964.3.2. Extraordinary blood catches fire. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F964.3.3. F964.3.3. Extraordinary corpse burns of its own accord. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F964.3.4. F964.3.4. Extraordinary stone catches fire. (Cf. F960.2.3.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- F964.4. F964.4. Blazing stick continues to burn even in water. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F964.5. F964.5. Indra's tank blazes like gold. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F965. F965. Premature darkness. (Cf. F961.1.)
- F965.1. F965.1. Darkness comes in daytime in order to save life of maiden about to be executed. Chinese: Werner 266.
- F965.1.1. F965.1.1. Premature darkness at time of execution of innocent people. U.S.: Baughman.

F965.2. F965.2. Sun darkened at death of holy person. Usener Kleine Schriften IV 307; Jewish: Neuman; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F965.2.1. F965.2.1. Sun does not rise at death of hero. Irish myth: Cross.

F965.3. F965.3. Impenetrable darkness. Jewish: *Neuman.

F965.4. F965.4. Extraordinary darkness not dispelled by artificial means. Jewish: Neuman.

F966. F966. Voices from heaven (or from the air). *Penzer X 220 s.v. "Heaven"; Alphabet No. 800; *Loomis White Magic 53; Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 314, 318, O'Suilleabhain 38, 49; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas I 367, *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

F967. F967. Extraordinary behavior of clouds.

F967.1. F967.1. Clouds protect fugitives. Jewish: *Neuman.

F967.2. F967.2. Clouds with fragrance from paradise. Jewish: Neuman.

F967.3. F967.3. Conversation between clouds. Jewish: Neuman.

F967.4. F967.4. Thin cloud in form of rainbow. Irish myth: Cross.

F968. F968. Extraordinary thunder and lightning. Irish myth: Cross.

F968.1. F968.1. Electric storm kills a thousand. Irish myth: *Cross.

F969. F969. Extraordinary nature phenomena—miscellaneous. Irish myth: Cross.

F969.1. F969.1. Skies open, revealing heavenly company. Irish myth: Cross.

F969.2. F969.2. Earth rises. Irish myth: Cross.

F969.3. F969.3. Marvelous light. Irish myth: Cross.

F969.3.1. F969.3.1. Marvelous light reveals man hiding from saint. Irish myth: Cross.

F969.3.2. F969.3.2. Hero's light: appears around head of hero aroused to extraordinary feats of valor. Irish myth: *Cross.

F969.4. F969.4. Extraordinary earthquake.

F969.4.1. F969.4.1. Rumble in earth attends slaying of giant serpent. Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 65.

F969.4.2. F969.4.2. Fight with monster child causes earth to rock like waves of the sea. Eskimo (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 66.

F969.5. F969.5. Cultivated places suddenly become desert. Jewish: Moreno Esdras (F964).

F969.6. F969.6. Sandhill grows around lover keeping watch till it covers all but his head. India: Thompson-Balys.

F969.7. F969.7. Famine. Icelandic: *Boberg; Hindu: Bradley-Birt 121.

F970. F970. Extraordinary behavior of trees and plants. Irish: Beal XXI 308, O'Suilleabhain 27.

F971. F971. Miraculous blossoming and bearing of fruit. Krappe Revue Hispanique LVI (1922) 5—24.

F971.1. F971.1. Dry rod blossoms. *Type 756 ABC, 757; BP III 463, 465, 471 n. 1; *Dh II 265ff.; Fb "nede" II 726b, "stav" III 541b; RTP IX 504, XIII 505, XV 61, XIX 66, 336, 532, XXI 123, XXV 141; Andrejev FFC LIV 34, LXIX 126, 129ff., 241ff.; Saintyves Essais de folklore biblique 61ff.; Zs. f. Vksk. X 196f., XIII 72, XV 393; Alphabet No. 568; *Loomis White Magic 94, 114; Goebel Jüdische Motive im märchenhafte Erzählungsgut (Gleiwitz, 1932) 34ff.; Irish: Plummer cliv, *Cross, O'Suilleabhain 108, Beal XXI 318, 334; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 186; Jewish: *Neuman; West Indies: Flowers 438.

F971.1.1. F971.1.1. Dry rod blossoms on night of saint's birth. Irish myth: Cross.

F971.1.2. F971.1.2. Witch's horse-switch blossoms. Irish myth: Cross.

F971.1.3. F971.1.3. Moss grows on staff overnight. (Cf. F979.18.) Irish: O'Suilleabhain 49.

F971.2. F971.2. Rose grows from table (stone). Type 755; Fb "sten" III 554a, "rose" III 80a; P. Saintyves Le Thème du bâton qui reverdit (Revue d'Histoire et de Littérature religieuses, III [1912] 330—49, 421—54).

F971.3. F971.3. Thorn growing in wound becomes tree. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "épine".

F971.4. F971.4. Fruitless tree bears fruit. Done at saint's request. *Dh II 9; Alphabet No. 290; Irish: Plummer cliv, *Cross.

F971.4.1. F971.4.1. Ash (alder, willow, etc.) tree bears apples ("fair fruit"). Irish myth: *Cross.

F971.5. F971.5. Flowers bloom in winter. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 686; Alphabet No. 475; *Pease Cicero De Divinatione 217 (U. of Illinois Studies in Language and Literature); Stier in Pauly-Wissowa XV (1932) 2026; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 102, MacCulloch Eddic 320; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

F971.5.1. F971.5.1. Fruit produced out of season at saint's request. Irish: Plummer cliv, *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

F971.5.2. F971.5.2. Apples at Christmas. Tree bears apples only at Christmas. Blossoms at midnight and is full of apples by morning. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 559.

F971.5.2.1. F971.5.2.1. Tree blossoms at midnight on Twelfth Night. England: Baughman.

F971.6. F971.6. Flowers spring up when saint strikes ground. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 675.

F971.7. F971.7. Sowing and reaping same day. Fb "se."

F971.8. F971.8. Trees put forth leaves on arrival of God in paradise. Jewish: Neuman.

F971.9. F971.9. Creeper which blossoms once only in a thousand years. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 301, 871.

F973. F973. Plants and trees miraculously unbent.

F973.1. F973.1. Trees unbent. Irish myth: *Cross; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 317.

F973.2. F973.2. Walking on grass-blades without bending them. Irish myth: Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 189.

F974. F974. Grass refuses to grow in certain spot. Extraordinary event has happened there. Fb "græs" I 499b, IV 188a; Taylor Attila and Modern Riddles, JAFL LVI (1943) 136—37; Icelandic: Boberg.

F974.1. F974.1. Grass will not grow where blood of murdered person has been shed. England: *Baughman.

F975. F975. Garden becomes wilderness.

F975.1. F975.1. Garden becomes wilderness because of owner's wickedness. India: Thompson-Balys.

F975.2. F975.2. After persecuted queen has been driven away from palace, trees do not bear fruits, flowers cease to bloom, and birds do not sing. India: Thompson-Balys.

F979. F979. Extraordinary behavior of trees and plants—miscellaneous.

F979.1. F979.1. Sour fruits made sweet by saint. *Loomis White Magic 80; Irish: Plummer cliv, *Cross; Japanese: Ikeda.

F979.2. F979.2. Leaves of tree open and close to give saint passage. Irish: Plummer cliii, Cross.

F979.3. F979.3. Leaves of tree make melody for saints. Irish: Plummer cliii, Cross.

F979.4. F979.4. Tree seizes person and lifts him up. Africa (Nago): Trautmann La Littérature populaire a la Cpte des Esclaves (Paris, 1927) 6ff.

F979.5. F979.5. Bough miraculously does not burn. (Cf. F964.1.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F979.5.1. F979.5.1. Unconsumed burning bush. Jewish: Neuman.

F979.6. F979.6. Tree grows through handle of saint's bell. Irish myth: Cross.

F979.7. F979.7. Hollow in tree grows over, giving sanctuary to relics within. Irish myth: *Cross.

F979.8. F979.8. Forest springs up from twig (twigs). Irish myth: *Cross.

F979.9. F979.9. Flowers pressed yield wine. Irish myth: *Cross.

F979.10. F979.10. Flower from otherworld (Land of Promise) miraculously appears to persons (saints). Irish myth: *Cross.

F979.11. F979.11. Trees spring up to commemorate birth of primitive hero (demigod, deity). (Cf. F960.1.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F979.12. F979.12. Trees spring up from blood spilled on ground. (Cf. D1003.) Irish myth: Cross.

F979.13. F979.13. Convention of trees. Moreno Esdras (F979.4).

F979.14. F979.14. Grub's urine waters tree. (Cf. D1027.) India: Thompson-Balys.

F979.15. F979.15. Tree sheds all its leaves out of sympathy. India: Thompson-Balys.

F979.16. F979.16. Magic tree will allow person to take only two of its fruits. India: Thompson-Balys.

F979.17. F979.17. Plants grow without being sown. Jewish: Neuman.

F979.18. F979.18. Grass grows anew every night. (Cf. F971.1.3.) Jewish: Neuman.

F979.19. F979.19. Extraordinary tree supports pious man and his family. Jewish: *Neuman.

F979.20. F979.20. Tree's branches turn upward when idolators rest beneath it. Jewish: *Neuman.

F979.21. F979.21. Tree which has two singing blossoms. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 284.

F979.22. F979.22. Tree acts as master of ceremonies while gods drink. Tonga: Beckwith Myth 74.

F979.23. F979.23. Trees wither when tragic things happen. Jewish: *Neuman.

F980. F980. Extraordinary occurrences concerning animals.

F981. F981. Extraordinary death of animal.

F981.1. F981.1. Serpent bursts asunder. Dickson 54, 195 n. 78.

F981.1.1. F981.1.1. Animal bursts from anger. India: Thompson-Balys.

F981.2. F981.2. Bull melts away after evil spirit has issued from him. Dickson 197 n. 84.

F981.3. F981.3. Animals killed by trickster's breaking wind. Koryak: *Jochelson JE VI 381 No. 68.

F981.4. F981.4. Fiery bolt from heaven kills devastating animal. Irish myth: Cross.

F981.5. F981.5. Ashes thrown into stream dissolve animals. Irish myth: Cross.

F981.6. F981.6. Animal dies of broken heart. Irish myth: *Cross.

F981.6.1. F981.6.1. Animal's broken heart disgorged. Irish myth: Cross.

F981.7. F981.7. King of cats killed by glowing mass of iron thrown by saint. Irish myth: *Cross.

F981.8. F981.8. Giant magic boar slain by tearing out entrails from behind. Irish myth: Cross.

F982. F982. Animals carry extraordinary burden.

F982.1. F982.1. Eagles carry castle in air. De Vries FFC LXXIII 388; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 12.

F982.1.1. F982.1.1. Great flock of birds lift grayhound and garments into air. Irish myth: Cross.

F982.2. F982.2. Four cats carry coffin. Type 326; Fb "ligkiste" II 422b.

F982.3. F982.3. Hawk carries hand of man to saint displeased by handclasp. Irish myth: Cross.

F982.4. F982.4. Bird brings flower from foreign land. Irish myth: Cross.

F982.5. F982.5. Crocodile carries extraordinary burden. India: Thompson-Balys.

F982.6. F982.6. Toad carries seven stone mortars on his head. Chinese: Graham.

F982.7. F982.7. Toad carries tree on back. Chinese: Graham.

F982.8. F982.8. Crab carries in his ear cat, tiger, bamboos, river. India: Thompson-Balys.

F983. F983. Extraordinary growth of animal. Icelandic: Boberg.

F983.0.1. F983.0.1. Extraordinary quick growth of animal. (Cf. T585.) Irish myth: Cross.

F983.1. F983.1. Snail grows and fills house entirely. N. A. Indian (Tahltan): Teit JAFL XXXIV 229 No. 36, (Tlingit): Swanton BBAE XXXIX 151.

F983.2. F983.2. Louse fattened. *Type 621; BP III 483; *Köhler-Bolte I 134, *601a; *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XVI 242 No. 23, XVII 229; Polívka Archiv. f. slav. Philol. VII 317 No. 65, XXVI 464; Sébillot France III 334 n. 4; Leskien Balkanmärchen No. 20; *Cosquin Contes indiens 529ff.; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 5; Algerian: Desparmet Contes Pop. rec. a Blida 407; India: Thompson-Balys.

F983.3. F983.3. Cat grows as large as a cow in a minute. Chinese: Graham.

F983.4. F983.4. Extraordinary growth of ox horns. German: Grimm No. 112.

F984. F984. Extraordinary protection for animal.

F984.1. F984.1. Horse sewed in buffalo-hides. As protection against a greater horse, hero's horse is sewed in nine buffalo-hides. Köhler-Bolte I 469; *Cosquin Contes indiens 417ff.

F985. F985. Animals change color.

F985.1. F985.1. Black sheep turn white. (Cf. H1023.6.) Types 425, 428, 756C*; Andrejev FFC LIV passim; Boberg Classica et Mediaevalia I 1938.

F986. F986. Extraordinary occurrences concerning fishing. Irish myth: Cross.

F986.1. F986.1. Clerics catch fish with regularity. Irish myth: Cross.

F986.2. F986.2. Salmon caught out of season for saint. Irish myth: Cross.

F986.3. F986.3. Salmon comes every seventh year to certain place. Irish myth: *Cross.

F986.4. F986.4. Stranded fish do not decay for a year. Irish myth: Cross.

F986.5. F986.5. Shores flooded with sea-fish. Irish myth: Cross.

F987. F987. Animal controls sex of offspring.

F987.1. F987.1. Bird controls sex and appearance of offspring. Hatches seven eggs—three under each wing and one under breast. The right wing hatches three red males, the left three green females. The egg under the breast shares the characteristics of both sex and color—but dies. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

F988. F988. Extraordinary limbs of animals.

F988.1. F988.1. Ox's leg acts as person. Africa (Hausa): Equilbecq III 291 ff.

F988.2. F988.2. Hoofs of horses drop from their feet because of heat. Jewish: *Neuman.

F988.3. F988.3. Apertures of animals' bodies closed up in certain land. Jewish: Neuman.

F989. F989. Extraordinary occurrences concerning animals—miscellaneous. Irish myth: Cross.

F989.1. F989.1. Horse jumps over high wall. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "cheval". Cf. Type 530.

F989.1.1. F989.1.1. Horse's tremendous leap. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F989.2. F989.2. Bird's red eye cooks meat. Looks so intently at it that it heats and cooks. N. A. Indian (Maidu): Dixon BAM XVII 65.

F989.3. F989.3. Cuckoo-clock. Bird calls out the hours. Hdwb. d. Märchens s.v. "Baum bewacht".

F989.4. F989.4. Man rides on back of fleeing wild boar. (Cf. B557.) Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F989.5. F989.5. Sheep never harmed by wild beasts. Jewish: *Neuman.

F989.5.1. F989.5.1. Sheep kill wolves. Jewish: *Neuman.

F989.6. F989.6. One bull, one cow survive plague. Irish myth: Cross.

F989.7. F989.7. Swine kick trees to cause fruit to fall. Irish myth: Cross.

F989.8. F989.8. Mother-love induced in animal. Irish myth: Cross.

- F989.9. F989.9. Milk from saint's cows forms lake. Irish myth: Cross.
- F989.10. F989.10. Animals distribute parts of man's body in accordance with prophecy. Irish myth: Cross.
- F989.11. F989.11. Animal as mighty drinker. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F989.11.1. F989.11.1. Cow lowers ocean by drinking. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F989.12. F989.12. Sea animal found inland. Irish myth: Cross.
- F989.13. F989.13. Animal dives into lake and disappears. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F989.14. F989.14. Birds hover over battlefield. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F989.15. F989.15. Hunt for extraordinary (magic) animal. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F989.16. F989.16. Extraordinary swarms of birds.
- F989.16.1. F989.16.1. Swarms of quails serve as food for Israelites. Jewish: Neuman.
- F989.16.2. F989.16.2. Swarms of birds darken sun and moon. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F989.17. F989.17. Marvelously swift horse. Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F989.18. F989.18. Boar hung in spider's web. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F989.19. F989.19. Cock with enormous silver ears. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F989.20. F989.20. Egg becomes crowing cock. Irish myth: Cross.
- F989.21. F989.21. Spider spins web across sky. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F989.22. F989.22. Animals eat extraordinary food.
- F989.22.1. F989.22.1. Fowls eat gold and silver. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F989.22.2. F989.22.2. Tiger lives on self-cooking food. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F989.22.3. F989.22.3. Pig swallows necklace. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F989.22.4. F989.22.4. Animals live on pearls. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F989.23. F989.23. Frog pierces hardest metals and marbles. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F989.24. F989.24. Frogs cast themselves into oven-flames and devour bread. Jewish: *Neuman.
- F990. F990. Inanimate objects act as if living. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F991. F991. Object bleeds.
- F991.1. F991.1. Bleeding lance. Stream of blood flows from it into silver cup. (Cf. D1086.) *Brown PMLA XXV (1910) 1; *Gaster FL II 57; Irish myth: *Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 202.

F991.1.1. F991.1.1. Bleeding knife. Jewish: Neuman.

F991.2. F991.2. Bleeding bone. Man cuts into dry bone that bleeds. Fb "høle" I 747a; Japanese: Ikeda.

F991.2.1. F991.2.1. Dry bone smells as sign of forgiveness. Icelandic: Boberg.

F991.3. F991.3. Bleeding cake. Bleeds when cut. Irish myth: *Cross.

F991.3.1. F991.3.1. Bleeding loaf of bread. German: Grimm No. 205.

F991.4. F991.4. Shrine bleeds. Irish myth: Cross.

F991.4.1. F991.4.1. Desecrated altar bleeds. Irish myth: Cross.

F991.5. F991.5. Bleeding rock. Jewish: *Neuman.

F992. F992. Plant shrieks when uprooted.

F992.1. F992.1. Mandrake shrieks when uprooted. Stark Der Alraun; Taylor JAFI XXXI 561.

F993. F993. Sunken bell sounds. *Sartori Zs. f. Vksk. VII 113, 270, VIII 29; England: Baughman; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 72 No. 610; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3610.

F993.1. F993.1. Sunken bell sounds at certain times. England, Wales: *Baughman.

F994. F994. Object expresses sorrow. Irish myth: Cross.

F994.1. F994.1. Books show sorrow for owner's death by falling from shelf. Irish myth: Cross.

F994.2. F994.2. Chariots, stones, weapons join in keen at hero's death. Irish myth: Cross.

F995. F995. Shield shrieks in battle. Irish myth: *Cross.

F996. F996. Waters react to words of poet. Irish myth: *Cross.

F997. F997. Sword pierces rock when possessor will break it. Icelandic: Boberg.

F997.1. F997.1. Sword is spoken to as to human being. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F998. F998. Combat with horse's sex organ. (Cf. D1469.5.) Icelandic: Boberg.

F1001. F1001. Extraordinary heads act as living objects. Moreno Esdras (F995).

F1002. F1002. Substituted silver hand used as if it were of flesh and blood. *Loomis White Magic 125.

F1005. F1005. Cooked food grows when planted.

F1005.1. F1005.1. Cake, planted in the field, grows and after a time bears cakes. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1006. F1006. Extraordinary activity of mountains. (Cf. F755.)

F1006.1. F1006.1. Mountain moves so that its rocks enter into caves of other mountain. (Cf. D932.) Jewish: Neuman.

F1006.2. F1006.2. Mountain moves to person. (Cf. D932, F755.) Jewish: Neuman.

F1006.3. F1006.3. Mountain trembles. Jewish: Neuman.

F1009. F1009. Inanimate object acts as if living.

F1009.1. F1009.1. Doorpost of room rises for holy person. Jewish: Neuman.

F1009.2. F1009.2. Gate swallows axes trying to force it open. Jewish: Neuman.

F1009.3. F1009.3. Altar shakes when unworthy man is elected. (Cf. D1169.) Jewish: Neuman.

F1009.4. F1009.4. Twelve stones unite to become one. (Cf. D931.) Jewish: *Neuman.

F1010. F1010. Other extraordinary events.

F1011. F1011. Sunbeam as support.

F1011.1. F1011.1. Clothes hung on sunbeam. Fb "solstrele"; De Vries Germanischromanische Monatsschrift 1922, 40 n. 2; *Loomis White Magic 29; Irish: Plummer cxxxix, *Cross, O'Suilleabhain 101, 106, Beal XXI 332f.; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 301 No. 19, 306 No. 19, 309 No. 10, 328 No. 6; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 146 No. 1805A, 1805B.

F1011.1.1. F1011.1.1. Gospel-book hung from saint's shoulders without strap. Irish myth: Cross.

F1011.2. F1011.2. Sitting (hanging) on a sunbeam. *Köhler-Bolte II 98ff.

F1014. F1014. Dice game that lasts for nine years. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1015. F1015. Extraordinary occurrences connected with shoes.

F1015.1. F1015.1. Shoes miraculously worn out.

F1015.1.1. F1015.1.1. The danced-out shoes. Every morning girl's shoes are danced to pieces. *Type 306; BP III 78; *Fb "sko" III 288b; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 39 No. 8.

F1015.1.2. F1015.1.2. Woman has worn out carriage-load of shoes with walking. Hartland Science 199.

F1015.2. F1015.2. Wearing shoes only when crossing river. Filipino: Fansler MAFLS XII 64, 351.

F1015.3. F1015.3. Bill of sale written on man's sandal. Jewish: Neuman.

F1016. F1016. Man carries extraordinary luggage.

F1016.1. F1016.1. Man puts his horse in his sleeve when he does not need it. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1017. F1017. Man washes clothes blindfolded. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1021. F1021. Extraordinary flights through air. Irish myth: *Cross; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 91, 92; Jewish: *Neuman.

F1021.1. F1021.1. Flight on artificial wings. *Type 575; *BP II 131; Penzer IX 149; Köhler-Bolte I 120; *Chauvin V 231 No. 130; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 139 n. 2 (Daedalus); India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Ferguson 35.

F1021.2. F1021.2. Extraordinary effect of high flight.

F1021.2.1. F1021.2.1. Flight so high that sun melts glue of artificial wings. Irish myth: Cross; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 139 n. 2 (Icarus).

F1021.2.2. F1021.2.2. Flight so high that eyelids drop from cold. (Cf. B552.1.) Gaster Exempla 186 No. 5.

F1021.3. F1021.3. Man learns to fly. Chinese: Graham.

F1021.4. F1021.4. Man kicked so hard that he flies through the air and is never seen again. German: Grimm No. 90.

F1022. F1022. Extraordinary descent into ocean.

F1022.1. F1022.1. Descent into ocean in glass box. Jewish: Gaster Exempla 186 No. 5; bin Gorion Born Judas III 136, 306, *Neuman.

F1023. F1023. Creation of a person by cooperation of skillful men. *Type 945; *BP III 53; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 327.

F1025. F1025. Objects go journeying together. India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Korean: Zong in-Sob 161.

F1025.1. F1025.1. Bean, straw, and coal go journeying. Coal burns straw in two and falls into the water. Bean laughs until it splits. *Type 295; BP I 135; India: Thompson-Balys.

F1025.2. F1025.2. Turtle's war-party. Turtle recruits war-party of strange objects (knife, brush, awl, etc.) and animals. Because of their nature the companions get into trouble. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 302 n. 108. Cf. Japanese: Mitford 185ff., Ikeda.

F1025.2.1. F1025.2.1. Eggplant, needle, and cowdung go on warpath. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1031. F1031. Ship wrapped with feather-beds and canvass and pitched (so as to save it). English: Child V 496 s.v. "ship".

F1032. F1032. Person walks unceasingly for year. Africa (Angola): Chatelain 33 No. 1.

F1032.1. F1032.1. Person wanders unceasingly for hundred and fifty years. Irish myth: Cross.

F1033. F1033. Person lives without food or drink for a year (or more). Type 706; Irish myth: *Cross; German: Grimm No. 31.

F1033.1. F1033.1. Person lives on water (from holy well) for a year. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1034. F1034. Person concealed in another's body. *Penzer VII 114ff.

F1034.1. F1034.1. Husband concealed in wife's ear. Hindu: Tawney II 578.

F1034.2. F1034.2. Magician carries mistress with him in his body. She in turn has paramour in hers. Wesselski Märchen 186 No. 1; *Cosquin études 276ff.; Chinese: Chavannes 500 Contes I 378 No. 109.

F1034.2.1. F1034.2.1. Ascetic carries woman in his hair, but she has two lovers in her cloak and outwits him. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F1034.3. F1034.3. Person's thigh as hiding place.

F1034.3.1. F1034.3.1. Man hides sister in wound in his thigh to protect her. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1034.3.2. F1034.3.2. Bottle concealed in person's thigh. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1034.3.3. F1034.3.3. Garment hidden in hole cut in thigh. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1034.3.4. F1034.3.4. Jewell hidden in wound cut in thigh. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1034.4. F1034.4. Person's armpit as hiding place. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 169f.

F1034.5. F1034.5. Other parts of person's body as hiding place. Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 1/96.).

F1034.5.1. F1034.5.1. Key to house concealed in man's heart. Africa (Angola): Chatelain III No. 8.

F1035. F1035. Disintegration: man eats himself up or dismembers himself. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 304 n. 109m.

F1036. F1036. Hand from heaven writes on wall. Jewish: *Neuman.

F1037. F1037. Object thrown from heaven. Jewish: *Neuman.

F1037.1. F1037.1. Footstool thrown from heaven. *Type 800; *BP I 342; *Hdwb. d. Märch. s.v. "Schneider im Himmel".

F1038. F1038. Person without shadow. *Type 755; H. C. Andersen "Skyggen"; Fb "skygge" III 347; Hdwb. d. Abergl. IX Nachträge 133ff.; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 47 No. 325A.

F1038.1. F1038.1. Man attends devil's school to learn witchcraft, has no shadow afterward. Scotland: Baughman.

F1038.2. F1038.2. Man has witch aid him in reaping contest, the devil to get the hindmost. The devil tries to take the man but gets shadow instead. (Cf. G303.19, K210.) Scotland: Baughman.

F1041. F1041. Extraordinary physical reactions of persons.

F1041.0.1. F1041.0.1. Neophyte shows no reaction when saint's staff pierces his foot. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.1. F1041.1. Extraordinary death.

F1041.1.1. F1041.1.1. Death from broken heart. Penzer II 132, VII 24f., 103; Heptameron No. 9; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Greek: Grote I 134; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 439.

F1041.1.1.1. F1041.1.1.1. Heart breaks at third drink from silver canister. Fb "hjærte" I 631.

F1041.1.1.2. F1041.1.1.2. Heart breaks when girl hears lover kiss another. Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 3.

F1041.1.1.3. F1041.1.1.3. Heart breaks from sorrow. Hdwb. d. Märchens I 439a n. 267; Irish myth: *Cross; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 883.

F1041.1.1.4. F1041.1.1.4. Hearts break when lovers are told beloved is dead. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1041.1.2. F1041.1.2. Death from grief for death of lover or relative.

F1041.1.2.1. F1041.1.2.1. Lover dies beside dying sweetheart. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

F1041.1.2.2. F1041.1.2.2. Woman dies on hearing of her husband's death. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F1041.1.2.2.1. F1041.1.2.2.1. Woman swoons and is near death at hearing of husband's or lover's death. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.1.2.2.2. F1041.1.2.2.2. First woman in Ireland to die of grief for the death of her husband. (Cf. A1335, A1611.5.4.1.) Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.1.2.2.3. F1041.1.2.2.3. Death from hearing of wife's death. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1041.1.2.2.4. F1041.1.2.2.4. Death from hearing of son's (sons') death. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F1041.1.3. F1041.1.3. Death from sorrow or chagrin.

F1041.1.3.1. F1041.1.3.1. Maiden who has been falsely accused apparently dies of sorrow. She revives on being prepared for burial. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

F1041.1.3.2. F1041.1.3.2. Servant grieves over master's death. Kills wife and himself. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

F1041.1.3.3. F1041.1.3.3. Woman dies on having secret love exposed. Italian Novella: Rotunda; Heptameron No. 70.

F1041.1.3.4. F1041.1.3.4. Priest dies from having been duped into deceptive bargain. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

- F1041.1.3.5. F1041.1.3.5. Man dies on learning of wife's adultery. Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- F1041.1.3.6. F1041.1.3.6. Heart breaks when girl learns men are slain in battle on her account. Irish myth: *Cross; Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- F1041.1.3.7. F1041.1.3.7. Woman dies of broken heart on learning that her former husband is still alive. She had remarried thinking him dead. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 69; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.
- F1041.1.3.8. F1041.1.3.8. Man dies from grieving over mother's death. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 77; Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- F1041.1.3.9. F1041.1.3.9. Death from excitement at news of Christ's crucifixion. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1041.1.3.10. F1041.1.3.10. Death from chagrin. Man cannot answer question. Alphabet No. 186.
- F1041.1.3.10.1. F1041.1.3.10.1. Guilty persons being confronted with their crimes become "insensate like trees." India: Thompson-Balys.
- F1041.1.4. F1041.1.4. Death from longing. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1041.1.5. F1041.1.5. Death from excessive joy. Heptameron No. 9; India: Thompson-Balys, Penzer VII 103.
- F1041.1.5.1. F1041.1.5.1. Bridegroom dies from joy. Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- F1041.1.5.2. F1041.1.5.2. Stranger dies from joy on being rewarded by ruler. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.
- F1041.1.5.3. F1041.1.5.3. Mother dies from joy on greeting long-absent son. Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- F1041.1.5.4. F1041.1.5.4. Death from joy of kiss. Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- F1041.1.6. F1041.1.6. Death from sight of beautiful woman. (Cf. F1041.8.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- F1041.1.6.1. F1041.1.6.1. Fainting away at sight of goddess. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F1041.1.7. F1041.1.7. Man dies when he learns storm is magic. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1041.1.8. F1041.1.8. Death on beholding hell. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1041.1.9. F1041.1.9. Death from jealousy. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1041.1.10. F1041.1.10. Death (illness) from envy. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1041.1.11. F1041.1.11. Death from fear. (Cf. F1041.17.) Irish myth: Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F1041.1.11.1. F1041.1.11.1. Suicide from fear of starving. Icelandic: *Boberg.

- F1041.1.11.2. F1041.1.11.2. Death from fear of demons. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F1041.1.11.3. F1041.1.11.3. Suicide from fright of evil prophecy. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F1041.1.11.4. F1041.1.11.4. Man dies from frog's bite, thinking it snakebite. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F1041.1.12. F1041.1.12. Death from horror. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F1041.1.13. F1041.1.13. Death from shame. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F1041.1.13.1. F1041.1.13.1. Girl dies of shame at being seen naked. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F1041.1.13.2. F1041.1.13.2. Woman dies of shame at seeing naked man (husband). Irish myth: *Cross.
- F1041.2. F1041.2. Horripilation. Hair rises on end in extraordinary fashion from joy, anger, or love. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Hindu: Penzer I 120, VII 60, 139 n. 2, 179, VIII 46 n. 1, 94 n. 1; Korean: Zong in-Sob 83; Missouri French: Carrière.
- F1041.3. F1041.3. Person goes blind from overweeping. Malone PMLA XLIII 410; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F1041.4. F1041.4. Person melts away from heat. Irish myth: *Cross; Africa (Efik-Ibibo): Dayrell Folk Stories from Southern Nigeria (London, 1910) 84; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 263 No. 68.
- F1041.5. F1041.5. Poison of hydra corrodes the skin. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 269 n. 2.
- F1041.6. F1041.6. Buttons burst as consequence of violent emotion. English: Child II 186, IV 101, 302.
- F1041.6.1. F1041.6.1. Necklace bursts as consequence of violent emotion. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F1041.7. F1041.7. Hair turns gray from terror. *Chauvin VII 112 No. 379 bis n. 1; Korean: Zong in-Sob 81.
- F1041.8. F1041.8. Extraordinary madness. Fb "sær" III 723b.
- F1041.8.1. F1041.8.1. Madness from seeing beautiful woman. (Cf. F1041.1.6.) Penzer II 6ff., VII 66ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- F1041.8.1.1. F1041.8.1.1. Madness from sight of magically beautiful man. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F1041.8.2. F1041.8.2. Madness from grief. (Cf. F1041.21.5.) Child V 487 s.v. "lover".
- F1041.8.3. F1041.8.3. Madness from seeing ugly ogre. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1041.8.4. F1041.8.4. Madness from thirst. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.8.5. F1041.8.5. Madness from overeating. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.8.6. F1041.8.6. Men go mad in battle. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F1041.8.7. F1041.8.7. Mad warriors fly up into clouds. (Cf. F1041.16.6.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F1041.8.8. F1041.8.8. Madness from hearing prophetic voice from air. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.8.9. F1041.8.9. Madness from regret that knight has forsaken his wife. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.8.10. F1041.8.10. Madness (rage) from hearing about brother's death. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.8.11. F1041.8.11. Madness from loss of fortune. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1041.9. F1041.9. Extraordinary illness.

F1041.9.1. F1041.9.1. Going to bed for sorrow. Fb "seng" III 187ab.

F1041.9.1.1. F1041.9.1.1. Man keeps to his bed, mourning over drowned son. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.9.1.2. F1041.9.1.2. King keeps to his bed, mourning over vanished bride. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.9.1.3. F1041.9.1.3. Woman keeps to her bed on announcement of lover's death. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.9.2. F1041.9.2. Illness from keeping a secret. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1041.9.2.1. F1041.9.2.1. Huge boil appears on forehead of youth keeping a secret. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.9.3. F1041.9.3. Illness from shame of enemies' scorn. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.10. F1041.10. Man sweats blood and absorbs hair into head on exertion of strength. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.11. F1041.11. Laughing and crying at the same time (sundry reasons given). *De Vries FFC LXXIII 213; Gaster Exempla 130 No. 352; India: *Thompson-Balys, *Bloomfield JAOS XXXVI 54—89, *Penzer VII 261; Chinese: Chavannes 500 Contes I 160 No. 43, 286 No. 78.

F1041.11.1. F1041.11.1. Laughter from chagrin. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.11.2. F1041.11.2. Man turns pale, red, blue, etc. from emotion or strain. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F1041.12. F1041.12. Man perspires in winter while relating fearful vision. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.13. F1041.13. Biting fingers to see if one is dreaming. Chauvin V 261 No. 154.

F1041.14. F1041.14. Beheaded man swims. (Cf. E783.) North Carolina: Brown Collection I 686.

F1041.15. F1041.15. Inordinate longing. (Cf. D1041.1.4.) Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.16. F1041.16. Extraordinary physical reaction to anger. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 88.

F1041.16.1. F1041.16.1. Man spits fire when enraged. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.16.2. F1041.16.2. One eye recedes, other protrudes when angered. (Cf. F541.5.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F1041.16.3. F1041.16.3. Man fells wood with sword (dies) when he hears of Crucifixion. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1041.16.3.1. F1041.16.3.1. Strength from anger enables man to break binding chain. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.16.3.2. F1041.16.3.2. Strength from anger causes man to break stone. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.16.3.3. F1041.16.3.3. Strength from anger enables man to tear opponent to bits. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.16.4. F1041.16.4. Heat of saint's anger sets cowl afire. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.16.5. F1041.16.5. Extraordinary bodily contortion as result of warrior's anger. (Cuchulain's battle-rage.) Irish myth: *Cross.

F1041.16.6. F1041.16.6. Extraordinary physical reactions of angry warriors in battle. (Cf. F1041.8.7.) Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.16.6.1. F1041.16.6.1. Fury in battle causes stream of blood to rise from warrior's head. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1041.16.6.2. F1041.16.6.2. Fury in battle causes warrior to increase in size. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.16.6.3. F1041.16.6.3. Fiery columns rise in front of angry warrior. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.16.6.4. F1041.16.6.4. Face of angry warrior lights up with flame. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.16.6.5. F1041.16.6.5. Angry warrior becomes red and purple. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.16.6.6. F1041.16.6.6. Water boils when angry warrior is immersed in it. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1041.16.6.7. F1041.16.6.7. Fury enables wounded soldiers to continue fighting. Die at end of battle. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.16.6.8. F1041.16.6.8. Angry warrior's breath makes adversary's armour so hot that he must surrender. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.16.6.9. F1041.16.6.9. Bowstring (arrow, oar) breaks at angry warrior's grasp. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.16.7. F1041.16.7. King about to kill foster-son due to his evil explanation of dream; both jump into sea and are drowned. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.16.8. F1041.16.8. Face and body turn black from anger. Africa (Swahili): Baler FL XXXVIII 279f.

F1041.16.9. F1041.16.9. Chief beheads sentinel who does not recognize him. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.16.10. F1041.16.10. Man throws cereal and spoon on the floor because he is supposed to eat together with his brother. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.16.11. F1041.16.11. Earl throws jar of water after undesired messenger. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.17. F1041.17. Extraordinary result of fear. (Cf. F950.5, F1041.1.11).

F1041.17.1. F1041.17.1. Barrenness as result of fright. Irish myth: Cross.

F1041.18. F1041.18. Putrescence flows from head when man presses forehead. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1041.19. F1041.19. Dumbness from disgust. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1041.20. F1041.20. Person vomits iron. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1041.21. F1041.21. Reactions to excessive grief. (Cf. F1041.1.1.)

F1041.21.1. F1041.21.1. Illness from excessive grief. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F1041.21.1.1. F1041.21.1.1. Tears of blood from excessive grief. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F1041.21.2. F1041.21.2. Man swells from excessive grief. Icelandic: Egils saga in ASB 3 (1894) ch. LXXVIII 14ff., Völsunga saga ch. 31 (29), Boberg.

F1041.21.3. F1041.21.3. Refusal to eat from excessive grief. Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.

F1041.21.3.1. F1041.21.3.1. Refusal to speak because of grief. India: *Thompson-Balys.

F1041.21.4. F1041.21.4. Man cries at hearing of friend's death. Þiðriks saga II 358.

F1041.21.5. F1041.21.5. Man senseless from grief at hearing of father's death; one doesn't feel that he cuts himself with his knife, the other presses dice so that he bleeds. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1041.21.6. F1041.21.6. Tearing hair and clothes from excessive grief. India: *Thompson-Balys.

- F1041.21.6.1. F1041.21.6.1. Wounding self because of excessive grief. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F1041.21.6.2. F1041.21.6.2. Bird in great grief tears out feathers. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F1041.21.7. F1041.21.7. Swooning from grief. Icelandic: *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F1041.22. F1041.22. Deaf and dumb people speak. *Loomis White Magic 53.
- F1041.23. F1041.23. Shame causes smoke to rise from saint's head and sweat to stream from his brow. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1041.24. F1041.24. Slap turns man's face completely around. India: Thompson-Balys.
- F1044. F1044. Man suddenly acquires long gray beard on scaffold at execution. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 656.
- F1045. F1045. Night spent in tree. Hero goes into tree to spend the night. *Type 327A, 613; Icelandic: *Boberg; German: Grimm No. 163; India: Thompson-Balys.
- F1047. F1047. Anchor floats on water. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "ancre."
- F1047.1. F1047.1. Non-buoyant flasks float. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1051. F1051. Prodigious weeping. Usually by saint. Toldo II 96; India: Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 633; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 87, 260f.; Africa (Upoto): Einstein 127.
- F1051.1. F1051.1. Barrel filled miraculously with penitent's tears. Ward II 664; Herbert III *341, 475; Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- F1051.2. F1051.2. Miraculously loud noise of mourning for hero. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1054. F1054. Bones temporarily removed from body by tree climbers to avoid breaking them. Africa (Congo): Weeks Jungle 126ff.
- F1055. F1055. Books in church read without man's tongue. English: Child III 244.
- F1057. F1057. Hero (giant) wades across sea. Irish myth: *Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 101.
- F1061. F1061. Flame as miraculous index. Icelandic: Boberg.
- F1061.1. F1061.1. Flame indicates presence of beautiful woman. (Cf. F1041.8.1. and cross references.) Malay, Indonesian: Dixon 222 n. 26.
- F1061.2. F1061.2. Color of flame indicates what is burning. Blue for furniture, white for money, red for person. Indonesian: Dixon 226.
- F1061.3. F1061.3. Burning pit will close only if armed rider will plunge into it. Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- F1061.4. F1061.4. Flame indicates place where innocent person was murdered.

Icelandic: Boberg.

F1063. F1063. Departing house. Hero in departing takes his house with him. N. A. Indian: Kroeber JAFI XXI 224.

F1065. F1065. Man fishes up two blind women from a well. Malone PMLA XLIII 405, 416.

F1066. F1066. Arrow shot to heaven returns bloody. Hdwb. d. Märch. I 102a; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

F1066.1. F1066.1. Knife plunged into earth comes out bloody. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

F1068. F1068. Realistic dream. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 107, Beal XXI 334; Icelandic: Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman.

F1068.1. F1068.1. Tokens from a dream. Man brings objects received during dream. Krappe Balor 122ff.; Icelandic: *Boberg.

F1068.2. F1068.2. Wound received in dream. Still there when person wakes. *Kittredge Witchcraft 222f., 534 nn. 90—97; Alphabet No. 299; Icelandic: Boberg; England: Baughman.

F1068.2.1. F1068.2.1. Man is maltreated in dream so that he feels it next day. Icelandic: *Boberg.

F1068.2.2. F1068.2.2. Fight in dream with real result. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1071. F1071. Prodigious jump. To fourth story (or the like). Type 530; Cosquin Contes indiens 333ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys; Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 103; Marquesas: Handy 114; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 13/499).

F1071.1. F1071.1. Crossing a river with help of a fig tree whose branches touch the opposite bank. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1071.2. F1071.2. Jumping over a ditch which is really an ocean. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1071.2.1. F1071.2.1. Man clears river of enormous width in one leap. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 102.

F1072. F1072. Two children of different sex, not related, have such close resemblance that even parents cannot tell them apart. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

F1073. F1073. Marathon marriage. Woman who has been widowed twenty-two times marries a man who has been a widower twenty times. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

F1075. F1075. Blood of brother and sister (and smoke from their funeral pyres) refuses to mingle. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1076. F1076. Tightening belt to counteract hunger: when loosened person falls dead. India: Thompson-Balys.

- F1078. F1078. Detonation from spark struck for fire hurls ships out to sea. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1081. F1081. Tub of water dropped neither breaks nor spills. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F1082. F1082. Person changes color. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1082.1. F1082.1. Person has red and black countenance after being burned. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1083. F1083. Object rises into the air. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: Neuman.
- F1083.0.1. F1083.0.1. Object floats in air. Loomis White Magic 47f.
- F1083.0.1.1. F1083.0.1.1. Altar floats in air. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1083.0.1.2. F1083.0.1.2. Ark suspended in air. Jewish: Neuman.
- F1083.0.1.3. F1083.0.1.3. Jerusalem suspended in air. Jewish: Neuman.
- F1083.1. F1083.1. Stone cross rises into air. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F1083.2. F1083.2. Man and his camels rise into air. Jewish: Neuman.
- F1084. F1084. Furious battle. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman.
- F1084.0.1. F1084.0.1. Inlay melts from sword with heat of striking. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1084.0.2. F1084.0.2. Weapons confined by flying nets of hair in furious battle. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1084.0.3. F1084.0.3. Continuous fighting. No rest or food. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F1084.0.4. F1084.0.4. Marks of furious battle left in rock. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1084.1. F1084.1. Deep streams of blood flow during battle. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1084.2. F1084.2. Warriors use teeth after they exhaust weapons. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1084.3. F1084.3. Soldiers fight so closely river is forced from bed. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1085. F1085. Eye bursts forth from overstrain of voice. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F1086. F1086. Saint preaches for three days and three nights. Irish myth: Cross.
- F1087. F1087. Hero's marvelous sword falls and cuts off hand of enemy. (Cf. F833, N331.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- F1088. F1088. Extraordinary escapes. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F1088.1. F1088.1. Hero (heroine) spared for his (her) beauty. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F1088.2. F1088.2. Hero unharmed by serpent which coils around his waist. Irish myth: *Cross.
- F1088.3. F1088.3. Extraordinary escape from drowning. Icelandic: Snorra Edda Gylf.

XLI, Boberg; Danish: Schmidt DF XXXIX 44ff.; Maori: Clark 29.

F1088.3.1. F1088.3.1. Clerics and property cast safely on shore when enemies attempt their drowning. Irish myth: Cross.

F1088.3.2. F1088.3.2. Fisherman dragged through sea by seal escapes. Irish myth: Cross.

F1088.4. F1088.4. Animal escapes by slipping out of skin. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1091. F1091. Food does not spoil saint's clothing. Irish myth: Cross.

F1092. F1092. Vessel of poisoned ale inverted; only poison flows out. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1093. F1093. Stake miraculously bent during night. Irish myth: Cross.

F1094. F1094. Milk has taste of wine and honey. Irish myth: Cross.

F1095. F1095. Arm grows longer from giving alms. Irish myth: Cross.

F1096. F1096. Person lives on after being cut through by sword. Irish myth: Cross.

F1096.1. F1096.1. Person lives on after having heart cut free. Heart moves about within his chest. Irish myth: Cross.

F1096.2. F1096.2. Person lives on with intestines exposed. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F1096.3. F1096.3. Severed head bites earth. Icelandic: Boberg.

F1097. F1097. Armies miraculously separated (kept from coming to battle, etc.). Irish myth: *Cross.

F1097.1. F1097.1. Angel forbids armies to approach each other. Irish myth: Cross.

F1098. F1098. Object miraculously mended. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1098.0.1. F1098.0.1. Object miraculously broken. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

F1099. F1099. Additional marvels.

F1099.1. F1099.1. Entire household dies on same night. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1099.2. F1099.2. Roads miraculously appear on Hallowe'en. (Cf. F900.1.) Irish myth: Cross.

F1099.2.1. F1099.2.1. Roads miraculously appear on day of hero's birth. Irish myth: *Cross.

F1099.3. F1099.3. Words heard though only thought and not uttered. Jewish: Neuman.

F1099.4. F1099.4. Corn takes root in man's hair. Irish myth: Cross.

F1099.4.1. F1099.4.1. Blades of corn grow through hair of saint as reward for guarding cornkiln. Irish myth: Cross.

F1099.5. F1099.5. Burning bodies vomit. Irish myth: Cross.

F1099.6. F1099.6. Extraordinary plowing. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1099.6.1. F1099.6.1. Extraordinary plowing by teeth. India: Thompson-Balys.

F1099.7. F1099.7. Pious die on their birthday. Jewish: *Neuman.

F1099.8. F1099.8. Man meets his future descendants and is instructed by them. Jewish: Neuman.

Stith Thompson's
Motif-Index of Folk-Literature

G. Ogres

DETAILED SYNOPSIS

G0. Ogres

G10—G399. KINDS OF OGRES

G10—G99. Cannibals and cannibalism

G10—G49. Regular cannibalism

G10. Cannibalism

G20. Ghouls

G30. Person becomes cannibal

G50—G79. Occasional cannibalism

G50. Occasional cannibalism

G60. Human flesh eaten unwittingly

G70. Occasional cannibalism—deliberate

G80. Other motifs dealing with cannibals

G100—G199. Giant ogres

G100. Giant ogre

G110. Possessions of giant ogres

G120. Physical characteristics of giant ogres

G130. Customs of giant ogres

G150. Giant ogres—miscellaneous

G200—G299. Witches

G200. Witch

G210. Form of witch

G220. Characteristics of witches

G230. Habitat of witches

G240. Habits of witches

G250. Recognition of witches

G260. Evil deeds of witches

G270. Witch overcome or escaped

G280. Witches—miscellaneous motifs

G300—G399. Other ogres

G300. Other ogres

G310. Ogres with characteristic methods

G350. Animal ogres

G360. Ogres with monstrous features

G370. Ogres—miscellaneous

G400—G499. Falling into ogre's power

G400. Person falls into ogre's power

G410. Person betrayed into ogre's power

G420. Capture by ogre

G440. Ogre abducts person

G450. Falling into ogre's power—miscellaneous

G500—G599. Ogre defeated

G500. Ogre defeated

G510. Ogre killed, maimed, or captured

G520. Ogre deceived into self-injury

G530. Ogre's relative aids hero

G550. Rescue from ogre

G560. Ogre deceived into releasing prisoner

G570. Ogre overawed

G580. Ogre otherwise subdued

G600—G699. Other ogre motifs

G610. Theft from ogre

G630. Characteristics of ogres

G650. Unclassified ogre motifs

G. OGRES

G0. G0. Ogres. For a good discussion of the general concept and of the various kinds of ogres see Saintyves Contes de Perrault 299ff.; Laistner Rätsel der Sphinx.—Italian: Basile Pentamerone III Nos. 1, 7, V No. 7; Africa: Werner African 242.

G10—G399.

G10—G399. KINDS OF OGRES

G10—G99.

G10—G99. Cannibals and cannibalism.

G10—G49.

G10—G49. REGULAR CANNIBALISM

G10. G10. Cannibalism. Types 327, 406; BP I 115; *Cox Cinderella 499; *Saintyves Perrault 299ff.; *Penzer X 181 s.v. "Human flesh"; *Fb "menneskekjød"; *Freytag Am Ur-Quell N. F. I 179; *MacCulloch Childhood 279; Krause Der Ur-Quell I 1; *Cosquin Contes indiens 208; DeCock Volkssage 64; *Laistner Rätsel der Sphinx II 87; Krappe The Modern Language Review XLIII (1948) 54ff.—Irish myth: *Cross; Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 57 No. 135; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "anthropophages," "diable"; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 189, 588, II 32, 407, 676, 824; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 21; Oceanic (Indonesia, Melanesia, New Zealand, Tahiti, Hawaii): Dixon 61, 63, 69, 86, 130ff., 227ff.; Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 76ff. 83f.; Maori: Clark 100, 159; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 272; Siberian: Holmberg Siberian 388; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 353 n. 274, (Cherokee): Alexander N. Am. 68, (Southern Ute): Lowie JAF LXXXVII 74 No. 46; Africa: Werner African 242, (Basuto): Jacottet 8, 122, 204, 208, 258, (Angola): Chatelain 97, 103, (Fang): Einstein 65, (Bushman): Bleek and Lloyd 199, (Zulu): Callaway 47, 74, 142, 154, *158, 181, (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 413, (Kaffir): Theal 126, 139f., Kidd 225, (Benga): Nassau 227 No. 34, (Congo): Weeks 203, (Mpongwe): Nassau 72 No. 15.

G11. G11. Kinds of cannibals.

G11.0.1. G11.0.1. Cannibalistic god. Irish myth: Cross.

G11.0.1.1. G11.0.1.1. As result of fraud, Saturn swallows stone instead of infant Jove. Irish myth: Cross.

G11.0.1.2. G11.0.1.2. Father of goddess as cannibal. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 141.

G11.1. G11.1. Cannibal dwarfs. *Basset 1001 Contes I 190; N. A. Indian (Zuci): Benedict II 335.

G11.2. G11.2. Cannibal giant. (Cf. G82, G83, G84.) Irish myth: *Cross; Missouri

French: Carrière; Icelandic: Arnason Legends of Iceland (tr. Powell, London, 1864) I 122, 125, 133, *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Werner 387; Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 377.

G11.2.1. G11.2.1. Giant devours any person who fails to do his bidding. India: Thompson-Balys.

G11.3. G11.3. Cannibal witch. Kittredge Witchcraft 166, 485 nn. 28, 29.—England: Baughman; Icelandic: *Boberg; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *2027B; Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 6; India: *Thompson-Balys; Hindu: Tawney I 162, II 450; Japanese: Ikeda; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 85, II 25, III 50f., 168f., Rink 48, 440, Holm 80, (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 198, 598, (Smith Sound): Kroeber JAFL XII 180, (Central Eskimo): Boas RBAE VI 599; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 233.

G11.4. G11.4. Negro cannibal. Malone PMLA XLIII 412.

G11.5. G11.5. Water cannibal. Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 104; N. A. Indian (Cherokee): Alexander N. Am. 68.

G11.6. G11.6. Man-eating woman. India: *Thompson-Balys; Hindu: Tawney II 616; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 13/249, 1110, z-G. 3/1276); Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 194; Tahiti: Beckwith Myth 197; Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 370; Maori: Clark 39.

G11.6.1. G11.6.1. Female ogre changes men into tigers and eats women. Chinese: Graham.

G11.6.2. G11.6.2. Woman who marries tiger is fed human nails regularly. India: Thompson-Balys.

G11.6.3. G11.6.3. Old woman calls beasts together to join her in feast on human flesh. Africa (Duala): Lederbogen Fables 61.

G11.6.4. G11.6.4. Woman devours her husband. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 838; S. A. Indian (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 60ff.

G11.7. G11.7. Cannibalistic king. Malone PMLA XLIII 403; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 581.

G11.8. G11.8. Cannibal meteor. N. A. Indian (Luiseco, Diegueco, Mohave): Kroeber JAFL XXI 224.

G11.8.1. G11.8.1. Stars as cannibals. Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 109, 111; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G. 3/931).

G11.9. G11.9. Ogre schoolmaster. Girl sees schoolmaster eat human flesh. Refuses to tell him what she saw. He persecutes her. *Cosquin Contes indiens 112ff.

G11.10. G11.10. Cannibalistic spirits.

G11.10.1. G11.10.1. Cannibalistic spirits in upper world. India: Thompson-Balys.

G11.11. G11.11. Cannibal with extraordinary features. (Cf. G88.) India: *Thompson-Balys.

G11.11.1. G11.11.1. Albino twins with cannibal appetite. Tonga: Gifford 192.

- G11.11.2. G11.11.2. Hairless cannibal. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 344.
- G11.12. G11.12. Cannibal with winnowing tray and pestle. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 73.
- G11.13. G11.13. Gambling cannibal. Icelandic: Boberg; N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 69.
- G11.14. G11.14. Jungle-man as cannibal. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G11.15. G11.15. Cannibal demon. India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Alu: Wheeler 8, 44, 48, 50, 56.
- G11.16. G11.16. Army of cannibal monsters. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G11.17. G11.17. Seven-mouthed cannibal ogre. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G11.18. G11.18. Cannibal tribe. Jewish: Neuman.
- G11.18.1. G11.18.1. Cannibal people driven from land. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 341.
- G12. G12. Transformation in order to eat own kind. Man transforms self to animal and eats men. India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Mpongwe): Nassau 71 No. 15.
- G13. G13. Spiritual exaltation from eating human flesh. Penzer II 198 n. 1.
- G13.1. G13.1. Ritual cannibalism: corpse of hero (demigod) eaten to acquire his strength. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G13.2. G13.2. Ogre eats beautiful girl hoping to have her beauty. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G15. G15. Human being devoured daily. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- G15.1. G15.1. Giant eats men on New Year's Day. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G17. G17. Ogre seduces sleeping girl in order to devour her. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G18. G18. Haunts of cannibals.
- G18.1. G18.1. Cannibals live at cemetery. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G20. G20. Ghouls. Persons eat corpses. Type 363; Chauvin VI 198 No. 371; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 276, 281; India: *Thompson-Balys, *Penzer II 202; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 104, III 104; Africa (BaRonga): Einstein 262.
- G20.1. G20.1. Devil as husband eats corpses. Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 369.
- G21. G21. Female eater of corpses. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G23. G23. People who eat their parents when they die, saying: they carried us in their bodies when we were born; now we shall do the same for them. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G25. G25. Abandoned infant lives by eating corpse of murdered father. (Cf. S350.) Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 385.

G27. G27. Moon made to eat wife's corpse by mother-in-law. S. A. Indian (Viracocha): Steward-Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 550.

G30. G30. Person becomes cannibal. MacCulloch Childhood 297.—Tahiti: Beckwith Myth 197; Maori: Clark 152; Koryak: Jochelson JE VI 295, 302; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 128, 258, (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 260; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 357 n. 287c.

G31. G31. Children flee from father who turns cannibal. Cosquin RTP XXX 79.

G33. G33. Child born as cannibal. Type 406; *Fb "menneskeæder" II 580.

G33.1. G33.1. Cannibal disenchanted by overcoming it. Becomes maiden. Type 406*; Russian: Andrejev No. 406.

G34. G34. Human child brought up by ogress becomes a man-eater. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 943.

G36. G36. Taste of human flesh leads to habitual cannibalism. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 573.

G36.1. G36.1. Husband becomes cannibal from eating wife's breast. She cuts off her breasts and cooks them to feed her family. The husband thus acquires a longing for human flesh. *Type 450.

G36.2. G36.2. Human blood (flesh) accidentally tasted: brings desire for human flesh. India: *Thompson-Balys.

G36.2.1. G36.2.1. People fear that boy who eats raw birds will eat them when he grows older. Chinese: Graham.

G37. G37. Girl seduced by brother becomes cannibal ogre. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 59.

G50—G79.

G50—G79. OCCASIONAL CANNIBALISM

G50. G50. Occasional cannibalism.

G51. G51. Person eats own flesh. Jewish: Neuman; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 597; Mono-Alu: Wheeler 45; N. A. Indian (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE XXXII 232 No. 46.

G51.1. G51.1. Person eats self up. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 186; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 304 n. 109m, (California): Gayton and Newman 92; Africa (Togo): Einstein 12f.

G55. G55. People who eat child become supernatural. Eskimo (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 258, (Greenland): Rink 466.

G60. G60. Human flesh eaten unwittingly. Penzer II 113; English: Wells 151 (Richard Coer de Lyon); Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

G61. G61. Relative's flesh eaten unwittingly. *Type 720; BP I 412ff.; *MacCulloch

Childhood 283ff.; *Cosquin études 394; *Fb "menneskekjød" II 579b.—Irish myth: *Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Greek: Fox 70, 119, 120 (Prokne and Tereus, Tantalus, Thyestes); Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 573; Chinese: Graham; Japanese: Ikeda; Oceanic (Indonesia, New Zealand, Molucca): Dixon 58, 195, 229f.; Indonesian: De Vries's list Nos. 227, 228; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 106, 128, 160, 286, 447, Holm 43, 90, (Bering Strait): Nelson RBAE XVIII 215, (Central Eskimo): Boas RBAE VI 627, (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 229; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 300 nn. 97, 98 and 340 n. 226; S. A. Indian (Baikairi): Alexander Lat. Am. 303; Africa (Zulu): Callaway 20, (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 402 No. 2, 405 No. 4, (Kaffir): Theal 100, (Angola): Chatelain 191 No. 24, (Thonga): Junod 217, (Fjort): Dennett 82 No. 19, (Benga): Nassau 105 No. 8, (Basuto): Jacottet 260 No. 38, 276 No. 41; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 314 No. 54, Remus 165 No. 34; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 73 n. 3.

G61.1. G61.1. Child recognizes relative's flesh when it is served to be eaten. India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 167, 173, (Kaffir): Theal 100, (Basuto): Jacottet 260 No. 38; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 314 No. 54.

G61.1.1. G61.1.1. Girl avoids eating her mother's flesh by spilling the meat and the soup in the pen. Chinese: Graham.

G61.2. G61.2. Mother recognizes child's flesh when it is served to be eaten. India: Thompson-Balys.

G62. G62. Murderer caused to eat victim's flesh unwittingly. Sickens and dies. India: Thompson-Balys.

G63. G63. Unwitting cannibalism: scavenger in wedding feast finds basket of noses put there by hero and thinks it full of meat. India: Thompson-Balys.

G64. G64. Human flesh being cooked speaks out. India: Thompson-Balys.

G70. G70. Occasional cannibalism—deliberate.

G70.1. G70.1. Hungry seamen eat human flesh. Fb "menneskekjød" II 579b.

G71. G71. Unnatural children eat parent. *Cox Cinderella 499; MacCulloch Childhood 295; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

G71.1. G71.1. Girl attempts to eat parents but they escape. Eskimo (Smith Sound): Kroeber JAFL XII 179, (Greenland): Holm 53, (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 81, Rasmussen III 159.

G72. G72. Unnatural parents eat children. MacCulloch Childhood 293ff.; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos 148, 216; Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus I 8 n. 2 (Zeus and Kronos); Jewish: Gaster Exempla 198f. No. 69; India: Thompson-Balys; New Zealand: Dixon 85; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 199; Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 89, Rasmussen III 121, 305; N. A. Indian (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE XXXII 232 No. 46; S. A. Indian (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 31; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 99 No. 6, (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 413 No. 12, (Kaffir): Theal 140, (Zulu): Callaway 47, (Fang): Tessman 108, (Pangwe): Tessman 365.

G72.1. G72.1. Woman plans to eat her children. *Type 450; Grimm No. 143a; BP III

151.

G72.2. G72.2. Starving woman abandoned in cave eats newborn child. India: *Thompson-Balys.

G72.3. G72.3. Girl child fed on infant boys' flesh to make her grow faster. Irish myth: *Cross.

G72.4. G72.4. Voice of slain and eaten child comes from the heart of cannibal. (Cf. F911.1.) Jewish: Neuman.

G73. G73. Girls eat their sister. Cox Cinderella 499; India: Thompson-Balys.

G73.1. G73.1. Brothers eat their sister. India: *Thompson-Balys.

G73.2. G73.2. Brother eats brother. Mono-Alu: Wheeler 22.

G74. G74. Man eats friend. Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 121.

G75. G75. Father takes his daughter to cannibal to be eaten. Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 116 No. 27.

G76. G76. Aged person eaten. Icelandic: Boberg; Africa (Zulu): Callaway 168.

G77. G77. Husband eats wife. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 886; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 157, Rink 106; S. A. Indian (More): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 406, (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 161.

G78. G78. Cannibalism during plague. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman.

G78.1. G78.1. Cannibalism in time of famine. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: *Neuman; Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 92.

G79. G79. Occasional cannibalism—deliberate—miscellaneous.

G79.1. G79.1. Animal-wife devours her husband. India: Thompson-Balys.

G79.2. G79.2. Woman eats daughter-in-law. S. A. Indian (More): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 406.

G80. G80. Other motifs dealing with cannibals.

G81. G81. Unwitting marriage to cannibal *Type 311; *MacCulloch Childhood 291ff.; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 5; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Eskimo (Greenland): I 262; West Indies: Flowers 440.

G81.1. G81.1. Cannibal marries wife by force. Chinese: Graham.

G82. G82. Cannibal fattens victim. *Type 327, 314, *BP I 115ff.; Chauvin VII 19 No. 373D; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 9; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 107, Holm 11; N. A. Indian (Kaska): Teit JAFSL XXX 448 No. 8.

G82.1. G82.1. Cannibal cuts captive's finger to test fatness. *Type 327; BP I 115ff.; Fb "slagte", "finger".

- G82.1.1. G82.1.1. Captive sticks out bone instead of finger when cannibal tries to test his fatness. *Type 327; BP I 115ff.; *Fb "hale" I 537, "lysepile" II 487; Korean: Zong in-Sob 147 No. 65.
- G83. G83. Cannibal sharpens knife to kill captive. German: Grimm No. 41; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3910; Japanese: Ikeda; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 270f. Nos. 82, 83.
- G83.1. G83.1. Ogress whets teeth to kill captive. Köhler-Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. VI 64 (to Gonzenbach No. 13); Irish myth: Cross (G153); Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 8, V No. 4.
- G84. G84. Fee-fi-fo-fum. Cannibal returning home smells human flesh and makes exclamation. (Cf. G11.8.1.) *Type 327; *Fb "kristenblod" II 300a.—Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 304 No. 29, 312 No. 67; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 12; Breton: Sébillot "chair"; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas I 230; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Korean: Zong in-Sob 89, 168; Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 111, 184; Maori: Clark 39, 100; Tonga: Gifford 168; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G. 3/931, z-G. 3/1276); N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 357 n. 287h; Africa: Werner African 233, (Kaffir): Theal 80, 118, 124, 138, (Zanzibar): Bateman 133, (Ekoi): Talbot 56, 63, (Basuto): Jacottet 4, 206, 218, 234, (Angola): Chatelain 117, (Zulu): Callaway 40.
- G85. G85. Ungrateful cannibal. Eats offered food and then threatens hosts. *Jochelson JE VI 376.
- G86. G86. Cannibals cut off parts of children's bodies. Dickson Valentine and Orson 41 n. 41; Japanese: Ikeda.
- G86.1. G86.1. Cannibal ogress gives finger of one girl to her frightened sister. Chinese: Graham.
- G87. G87. Cannibal crunching human bone says noise is only eating of peas. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G88. G88. Cannibal has long tooth and long nail. Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 210 No. 31.
- G88.1. G88.1. Men with iron claws eat girl. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 79.
- G88.2. G88.2. Man-eater with two great tusks on which he hangs the carcasses of the dead. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G91. G91. Cannibalism brings madness. Fb "menneskekjød" II 580a.
- G91.1. G91.1. Man forced to eat dead father's heart goes mad. Irish myth: Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 108.
- G91.1.1. G91.1.1. Man forced to eat dead father's heart struck dumb. Irish myth: *Cross.
- G91.2. G91.2. Cannibalism causes death. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G92. G92. Cannibal hard to lift. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 70.
- G93. G93. Cannibal breaks wind as means of attack. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 69.

G94. G94. Cannibal's gigantic meal.

G94.1. G94.1. Ogress takes travelers out of cave and devours them one by one. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 264.

G94.2. G94.2. Cannibal ogres eat daily ten men, ten women, ten children from the same tribe. Africa (Fang): Einstein 65.

G95. G95. Old man says his arm is getting thin—indicates desire for human flesh. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 86.

G100—G199.

G100—G199. Giant ogres.

G100. G100. Giant ogre. Polyphemus. (For motifs concerning giants who are not malevolent but merely large, see F531.) Types 304, 311, 312, 313, 314, 314, 327, 327*, 328, 518, 531, 545A, 1137, 1148*, 1165*; *Hackman Die Polyphemsage; *BP III 375ff.; *Clouston Tales I 133ff.: Arill Polyphemosmotivet i bohuslänsk folkdiktning (Bohuslänska Folkminnen [Uddevalla, 1922] 54); *Chauvin VII 17 No. 373C, VIII 205, IX 93; Saintyves Perrault 281ff.; Dickson 130—135 passim.—English: Wells 17 (Guy of Warwick), 22 (Sir Beues of Hamtoun), 32 (Layamon's Brut), 80 (Sir Tristem), 88 (Roland and Vernagu), 117 (Sir Torrent of Portyngale); Irish myth: *Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "geant"; Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 47 Nos. 69—73; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 275ff.; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 12, 20; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 85 No. 5.

G100.1. G100.1. Giant ogre (Fomorian). Irish myth: *Cross.

G101. G101. Giant gambler as ogre. N. A. Indian (Navaho): Alexander N. Am. 163.

G105. G105. Valley of the one hundred giants. India: Thompson-Balys.

G110. G110. Possessions of giant ogres. Irish myth: Cross.

G111. G111. Giant ogres possess castle. *Types 304, 545A; *BP III 113 n. 4; English: Wells 66 (Ywain and Gawain); Irish myth: Cross.

G112. G112. Giant's fields fertile; others arid. French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 21.

G120. G120. Physical characteristics of giant ogres.

G121. G121. Blind giant ogre. Type 1165; *Hackman Polyphemsage; Icelandic: *Boberg; Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 57.

G121.1. G121.1. Three giants with one eye. They pass it around. Type 328*.

G121.1.1. G121.1.1. One-eyed giant (ogre). Irish myth: *Cross.

G122. G122. Giant's hair grows into rock. He is thus kept from falling from cliff. N. A. Indian (Navaho): Alexander N. Am. 163.

G123. G123. Giant ogress with breasts thrown over her shoulder. Van Gennep Formation des Légendes 47; Finnish: Holmberg Finno-Ugric 183.

G124. G124. Skeleton giant. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 91.

G125. G125. Fire-spewing giantess. Icelandic: *Boberg.

G126. G126. Giant ogre in shape of animal.

G126.1. G126.1. Giant ogre in the shape of a cat. India: Thompson-Balys.

G126.2. G126.2. Giant ogre in shape of horse. India: Thompson-Balys.

G130. G130. Customs of giant ogres.

G131. G131. Giant ogre never crosses water. French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 12.

G150. G150. Giant ogres—miscellaneous.

G151. G151. Two giants with one axe. They throw it back and forth to each other. *Fb "økse" III 1171b.—Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3711.

G152. G152. Giant herdsman. Hideous beastlike giant guards a herd of wild fighting animals. Herdsman can seize one of them in such a way as to make rest beg mercy. *Brown Iwain 7ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

G152.1. G152.1. Giant with tree for herding-stick. German: Dümke Havensagen (Leipzig, 1924) 72 No. 56, Haas Pommersche Sagen (Berlin, 1912) 54 No. 106.

G154. G154. Giant hacked so that a staircase is made up his body. Hero climbs up and kills him. Scottish: Campbell-McKay No. 17.

G156. G156. King of the giants. India: Thompson-Balys.

G157. G157. Giant ogre's prodigious speed. India: Thompson-Balys.

G158. G158. Giant's shriek heard five miles away. India: Thompson-Balys.

G161. G161. Giant issues out of tiny vessel. India: Thompson-Balys.

G162. G162. Giant lives in a castle in the air. India: Thompson-Balys.

G171. G171. Giant roasts camels, elephants for food on crater of volcano. India: Thompson-Balys.

G200—G299.

G200—G299. Witches.

G200. G200. Witch. *Types 405, 432, 442, 708, 710, 711; Kittredge Witchcraft; *Vordemfelde Die Hexe im deutschen Volksmärchen (Mogk Festschrift 588); *Fb "heks" IV 206a; Hansen Zauberwahn, Inquisition und Hexenprozess im Mittelalter (München and Leipzig, 1900), ibid. Quellen und Untersuchungen zur Geschichte des Hexenwahns und der Hexenverfolgung in den österr. Alpenländern (1934); Hdwb. d. Aberggl. III 1827—1920; R. F. Fortune Sorcerers of Dobu (London, 1932); M. A. Murray The Witch-Cult in Western Europe (Oxford, 1921); M. Summers The History of Witchcraft and Demonology (London, 1926); *Arne Runeberg Witches, Demons and Fertility Magic (Helsinki, 1947); A. Mayer Erdmutter und Hexe (München, 1936); *Hoffman-Krayer Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 117.—Irish myth: *Cross; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 235 ("glastig"); Icelandic: *Boberg; Lappish: Hartland Science 173; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 81ff. Nos. 673—739; Jewish: *Neuman; Arabian: Burton Nights I 28, 76, 333, II 233—238, VI 158, 242n., VIII 131, S VI 325ff., 452; India: *Thompson-Balys, Penzer X 362 s.v. "Witch"; Mono: Wheeler 45; Papua: Ker 21, 31, 68; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 13/499); S. A. Indian (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 77, (Araucanian): Alexander Lat. Am. 328; Africa: *Werner African 333ff., (Basuto): Jacottet 236 No. 34.

G201. G201. Three witch sisters. Sometimes simply three hags. *BP I 114; *R. Drinkuth Hessische Blätter f. Vksk. XXXII 109—154, XXXIII 1—77; *Von Sydow Tve Spinnsagor 68ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 245; India: Thompson-Balys.

G201.1. G201.1. Three witches (hags) deformed from much spinning. *Type 501; *Von Sydow Tve Spinnsagor.

G202. G202. Beneficent witches. Papua: Ker 52, 127.

G203. G203. Origin of witches. Icelandic: Boberg.

G203.1. G203.1. Witch daughter of fairy and man. Icelandic: Boberg.

G203.2. G203.2. Witches come forth at emergence of mankind. N. A. Indian (Zuci): Benedict 344.

G204. G204. Girl in service of witch. *Types 310, 428; Herrmann Saxo II 485.

G205. G205. Witch stepmother. *Types 403, 450; Icelandic: *Boberg; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos. *453, *481; Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 266 No. 40, (Ekoi): Talbot 401; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 268 No. 80.

G206. G206. Witch has (three) giant sons. Irish myth: *Cross.

G207. G207. Male witch. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 648.

G210. G210. Form of witch.

G210.0.1. G210.0.1. Witch invisible. (Cf. A11, D1980, E421.1, G303.6.2.1, F235.1, E501.1.) England: *Baughman.

G211. G211. Witch in animal form. Kittredge Witchcraft 174 nn. 1—3.

G211.1. G211.1. Witch in form of domestic beast.

G211.1.1. G211.1.1. Witch in form of horse. (Cf. D131.) Köhler-Bolte I 220, 586; *Fb "Troms kirke" III 858b; Tobler 45; England, Scotland, Wales, U.S.: Baughman; Icelandic: Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 153, Boberg; Hindu: Tawney I 342.

G211.1.1.1. G211.1.1.1. Witch in form of headless horse. *Fb "föl" I 400.

G211.1.1.2. G211.1.1.2. Witch as horse shod with horseshoes. Köhler-Bolte I 220, 586; *Fb "Troms kirke" III 858b; Tobler 44; England, Scotland, U.S.: Baughman; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 322 No. 91.

- G211.1.2. G211.1.2. Witch in form of mule. U.S.: Baughman.
- G211.1.3. G211.1.3. Witch in form of cow. England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G211.1.4. G211.1.4. Witch in form of sheep. England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G211.1.5. G211.1.5. Witch in form of goat. (Cf. G262.3.1.) U.S.: Baughman.
- G211.1.6. G211.1.6. Witch in form of hog. England, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.
- G211.1.7. G211.1.7. Witch in form of cat. (Cf. D142.) Fb "kat" II 107b, IV 255b; Tobler 42; Irish myth: Cross; England, Wales, U.S.: Baughman; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 659; Icelandic: *Boberg; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 325 No. 15; German: Grimm No. 69; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 167—172.
- G211.1.8. G211.1.8. Witch in form of dog. (Cf. D141.) *Fb "heks" I 581a; Tobler 41; Kittredge Witchcraft 176f. nn. 22—29; England: Baughman; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 438; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 173; West Indies: Flowers 441; S. A. Indian (Arawak of Surinam): Jijena Sanchez 23.
- G211.2. G211.2. Witch in form of wild beast.
- G211.2.1. G211.2.1. Witch in form of bear. (Cf. D113.2.) Fb "heks" I 581a.
- G211.2.2. G211.2.2. Witch in form of wolf. (Cf. D113.1.) Fb "heks"; Icelandic: Snorra Edda Gylf. XII, *Boberg; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 307 No. 31, 315 No. 124.
- G211.2.3. G211.2.3. Witch in form of fox. (Cf. D113.3.) Fb "heks" I 581a; U.S.: Baughman; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 304 No. 25; Japanese: Anesaki 325f.
- G211.2.4. G211.2.4. Witch in form of deer. England, Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman; India: Thompson-Balys.
- G211.2.4.1. G211.2.4.1. Witch in form of stag. Irish myth: Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- G211.2.5. G211.2.5. Witch in form of mouse. (Cf. D117.1.) Fb "heks" I 581a.
- G211.2.6. G211.2.6. Witch in form of rat. England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G211.2.7. G211.2.7. Witch in form of hare. (Cf. D123.) Fb "hare" I 556; Kittredge Witchcraft 179 nn. 45—49; Irish myth: Cross; England, Scotland, Wales, U.S.: Baughman.
- G211.2.7.1. G211.2.7.1. Witch as hare allows self to be coursed by dogs for pay or for sport. England, Ireland, Scotland, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.
- G211.2.8. G211.2.8. Witch as raccoon. U.S.: Baughman.
- G211.2.9. G211.2.9. Witch as hedgehog. England: *Baughman.
- G211.2.10. G211.2.10. Witch in form of bat. England: Baughman.
- G211.3. G211.3. Witch in form of domestic bird.

- G211.3.1. G211.3.1. Witch in form of hen. (Cf. D166.) *Fb "höne" I 750b; U.S.: Baughman.
- G211.3.1.1. G211.3.1.1. Witch in form of rooster. U.S.: Baughman.
- G211.3.2. G211.3.2. Witch in form of duck. (Cf. D165.) *Fb "and" IV 12b.
- G211.3.3. G211.3.3. Witch in form of goose (gosling). England: Baughman.
- G211.4. G211.4. Witch in form of wild bird. U.S.: *Baughman.
- G211.4.1. G211.4.1. Witch in form of crow. (Cf. D151.4.) Fb "krage" II 285b; U.S.: Baughman; India: Thompson-Balys.
- G211.4.2. G211.4.2. Witch in form of partridge. U.S.: Baughman.
- G211.4.3. G211.4.3. Witch in form of heath hen. U.S.: Baughman.
- G211.4.4. G211.4.4. Witch in form of owl. U.S.: Baughman.
- G211.4.5. G211.4.5. Witch in the form of buzzard. U.S.: Baughman.
- G211.5. G211.5. Witch in form of an insect.
- G211.5.1. G211.5.1. Witch in form of fly. (Cf. D185.) Fb "flue" I 315.
- G211.5.2. G211.5.2. Witch in form of bee. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G211.5.3. G211.5.3. Witch in form of beetle. U.S.: *Baughman.
- G211.6. G211.6. Witch in amphibian form.
- G211.6.1. G211.6.1. Witch in form of toad. (Cf. D196.) Fb "tudse" III 888b; England, Wales, U.S.: Baughman.
- G211.6.2. G211.6.2. Witch in form of crocodile. Africa: Stanley 100.
- G211.7. G211.7. Witch in form of fish.
- G211.7.1. G211.7.1. Witch in form of whale. 1 North Carolina: Brown Collection I 644; Icelandic: Ketils saga H. 116, 131, Hjalmters saga ok ölvers 507—08, Boberg.
- G211.8. G211.8. Witch in form of reptile.
- G211.8.1. G211.8.1. Witch in form of snake. England, U.S.: Baughman; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- G211.9. G211.9. Witch in form of mythical animal. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- G211.9.1. G211.9.1. Witch in form of dragon. (Cf. D119.2.). Icelandic: *Boberg.
- G212. G212. Witch in form of object. (Cf. D200.)
- G212.1. G212.1. Witch in form of blade of straw. Tobler 45; Wales: Baughman.
- G212.2. G212.2. Witch in form of cookstove. U.S.: Baughman.

- G212.3. G212.3. Witch in form of a scroll. England: Baughman.
- G212.4. G212.4. Witch in form of a tree. England: Baughman.
- G212.5. G212.5. Witch in form of ball of fire. (Cf. F491, E742.2.) England: Baughman.
- G213. G213. Witch with extraordinary eyes.
- G213.1. G213.1. One-eyed witch. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.
- G213.2. G213.2. Witch with red eyes. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn V (1897) 233ff., (1934) 188ff.; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 325 No. 11.
- G213.3. G213.3. Witch with receding eyes. Irish myth: Cross.
- G213.4. G213.4. Witch with blazing eyes. Irish myth: Cross.
- G214. G214. Witch with extraordinary teeth.
- G214.1. G214.1. Witch with long teeth. Fb "tand" III 771ab; Hoffman-Krayer Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 118; Irish myth: *Cross; German: Grimm No. 24.
- G214.2. G214.2. Witch with iron teeth. Hoffman-Krayer Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 117.
- G214.3. G214.3. Witch with nine rows of teeth. Irish myth: Cross.
- G214.4. G214.4. Witch with twisted tusks (reaching to her shoulders). Irish myth: Cross.
- G215. G215. Witch extraordinary as to head.
- G215.1. G215.1. Seven-headed witch. Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 268 Nos. 79, 80.
- G216. G216. Witch with extraordinary feet.
- G216.1. G216.1. Witch with goose feet. *Hoffman-Krayer Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 117f.
- G217. G217. Witch with enormous hands. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G219. G219. Form of witch—miscellaneous.
- G219.1. G219.1. Witch with iron members. *Hoffman-Krayer Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 118 nn. 7—9.
- G219.2. G219.2. Witch (troll-woman) with beard. Fb "mus" II 631b.
- G219.3. G219.3. Witch has long nails. Irish myth: Cross.
- G219.4. G219.4. Witch with very long hair. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.
- G219.5. G219.5. Wrinkled witch. Irish myth: Cross.
- G219.6. G219.6. Witch is twisted, bony (has lumps on body). Irish myth: *Cross.
- G219.7. G219.7. Black witch. Icelandic: *Boberg.

G219.8. G219.8. Tailed witch.

G219.8.1. G219.8.1. Witch with fifteen tails. Icelandic: Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 357, Boberg.

G219.8.2. G219.8.2. Witch with knife-like tail. Eskimo (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 183.

G219.9. G219.9. Witch's back covered with nails and broken glass. Type 480; Roberts 169.

G220. G220. Characteristics of witches.

G220.0.1. G220.0.1. "Black" and "white" witches. Malevolent and benevolent. U.S.: Baughman.

G220.0.2. G220.0.2. Sex of witches. Both men and women are called witches. England: *Baughman.

G221. G221. Strength of witches.

G221.1. G221.1. Strength of witches in hair. *Fb "her" I 771b.

G221.1.1. G221.1.1. Witch's hair has power to bind or to transform. *BP I 554; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 231, 237, 239; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 68.

G221.2. G221.2. Strength of witches depends on their touching earth. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 316 No. 128.

G221.3. G221.3. Witch has extraordinary bodily strength. (Cf. D1830, F610.) Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

G221.3.1. G221.3.1. Witch marks stone with finger marks. U.S.: Baughman.

G221.4. G221.4. Witch cannot be hurt if she looks attacker in the face. Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 372.

G222. G222. Luminous witches.

G222.1. G222.1. When devil combs witches, sparks fly. Fb "kjæmme" II 148.

G222.2. G222.2. Luminous witch-boat. Carries fishermen to bottom of sea. S. A. Indian (Araucanian): Alexander Lat. Am. 328.

G223. G223. Head of beheaded witch mends if rubbed with salt. *Fb "hoved" I 654b.

G224. G224. Source of witch's magic. Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 151—159.

G224.1. G224.1. Witch's charm opposite of Christian. Must be "Without God and Holy Mary" instead of "With God, etc." (Cf. G224.5.) Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 84 No. *746, Espinosa Jr. Nos. 151, 153, 154; England, Ireland, Wales, U.S.: Baughman; West Indies: Flowers 441.

G224.2. G224.2. Witch's salve. Source of magic power. *Fb "salve" III 151b; Irish myth: Cross; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 150—158.

- G224.3. G224.3. Witches get their powers from books. (Cf. D1266.) England, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.
- G224.4. G224.4. Person sells soul to devil in exchange for witch powers. (Cf. G281, M211, K210ff.) England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G224.5. G224.5. Witch's power received by altering religious ceremony. (Cf. G224.1.) Ireland, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G224.6. G224.6. Witch power acquired by standing on manure pile, swinging red lantern, looking over shoulder. U.S.: Baughman.
- G224.7. G224.7. Witch gets power by licking brew made from a serpent. (Cf. B217.1.1.) Scotland: Baughman.
- G224.8. G224.8. Person gets witch power by walking twelve times around a church backward at midnight. England: Baughman.
- G224.9. G224.9. Witch power is inherited. England: *Baughman.
- G224.10. G224.10. Witch power is transferred from one person to another. (Cf. D1751.) England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G224.11. G224.11. Witch power from bone ("witch bone").
- G224.11.1. G224.11.1. Witch bone from toad. England: *Baughman.
- G224.11.2. G224.11.2. Witch bone from cat. U.S.: Baughman.
- G224.12. G224.12. Word charm gives witch power. (Cf. D1273.) England, Scotland: *Baughman.
- G224.13. G224.13. Other sources of witch's power.
- G224.13.1. G224.13.1. Witch uses bottle of horse-nail stumps to bewitch people. (Cf. D1274.1.) England: Baughman.
- G224.14. G224.14. Witches renew powers periodically. England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G225. G225. Witch's familiar spirit. Argentina: *Jijena Sanchez 73—114.
- G225.0.1. G225.0.1. Witch feeds animal familiar with her own blood. Kittredge Witchcraft 179 nn. 51—53; England: Baughman.
- G225.0.2. G225.0.2. Familiar is given to witch by devil when person becomes witch. England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G225.0.3. G225.0.3. Familiars do work for witch. England: Baughman.
- G225.0.4. G225.0.4. Bullets will not harm witch's familiars. Argentina: Jijena Sanchez 81 (D1840).
- G225.0.5. G225.0.5. Familiar's abode is magician's cellar. Argentina: Jijena Sanchez 85.

- G225.0.5.1. G225.0.5.1. Familiar's abode is hearth of magician. Argentina: Jijena Sanchez 84, 92.
- G225.0.6. G225.0.6. Familiar comes at nightfall and disappears at cockcrow. (Cf. E452.) Argentina: Jijena Sanchez 86f.
- G225.0.7. G225.0.7. Familiar to be fed on human meat. Argentina: Jijena Sanchez 88, 90.
- G225.1. G225.1. Insect as witch's familiar. (Fly, bee, gnat, spider.) Kittredge Witchcraft 180 n. 54; Tobler 40; England: Baughman.
- G225.2. G225.2. Horse as witch's companion. *Howey 172ff.; Argentina: Jijena Sanchez 76, 87.
- G225.3. G225.3. Cat as servant of witch. Fb "kat" II 107; Kittredge Witchcraft 177f. n. 36; England, U.S.: Baughman; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 660, 664; Icelandic: Boberg.
- G225.4. G225.4. Toad as witch's familiar. (Cf. G303.10.2.) Kittredge Witchcraft 182 nn. 76—87; England: Baughman; Argentina: Jijena Sanchez 76.
- G225.5. G225.5. Witch has an army of dragons, lions and bears. Icelandic: Þiðriks saga II 271—75, Boberg.
- G225.6. G225.6. Dog as witch's familiar. England: *Baughman; Argentina: Jijena Sanchez 76, 85; German: Grimm No. 85.
- G225.7. G225.7. Other animal as witch's familiar. England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G225.7.1. G225.7.1. Magician's familiar a pig. Argentina: Jijena Sanchez 76.
- G225.7.2. G225.7.2. Magician's familiar a viper. Argentina: Jijena Sanchez 76, 92.
- G225.8. G225.8. Minor devil or imp as witch's familiar. England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G229. G229. Characteristics of witches—miscellaneous.
- G229.1. G229.1. Soul of witch leaves the body. England, U.S.: Baughman; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 315 No. 124.
- G229.1.1. G229.1.1. Witch who is out of skin is prevented from reentering it when person salts or peppers skin. (Cf. G275.8.1.) England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G229.2. G229.2. Witch carries her children in her own body. Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 269 No. 82.
- G229.3. G229.3. Witches lack bread and salt. Fb "salt" III 148a.
- G229.4. G229.4. Invulnerability of witches. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.
- G229.4.1. G229.4.1. Witch can be killed only by certain lance. Irish myth: Cross.
- G229.4.2. G229.4.2. Witch can catch bullets and send them back. (Cf. G265.8.3.1.2.) Lithuanian: Balys Historical.

- G229.4.3. G229.4.3. Witch's body does not bleed when stuck with sharp object. (Cf. G225.0.1, G273.6.) England: Baughman.
- G229.4.4. G229.4.4. Witch says her knees are beads (liver is lead, stomach is copper, or the like). Eskimo (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 312.
- G229.5. G229.5. Beautiful witch. (Cf. G264.) North Carolina: Brown Collection I 660; Icelandic: *Boberg.
- G229.6. G229.6. Witch's body melts stone she sits on. England: Baughman.
- G229.7. G229.7. Blue lights follow witches. U.S.: *Baughman.
- G229.8. G229.8. Fire burns up and crackles when wizard passes fireplace. England: Baughman.
- G230. G230. Habitat of witches.
- G231. G231. Witch dwells on cliff. Hoffmann-Krayer Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 119; Icelandic: Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 152, Boberg.
- G232. G232. Witch dwells on glass mountain. *Fb "glasbjærg" I 459—460, "heks" I 582.
- G233. G233. Witch lives in fairy mound. Irish myth: Cross.
- G234. G234. Witch resides in tree. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G235. G235. Witch lives in monastery. (Cf. G243.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- G236. G236. Witch lives in forest. German: Grimm Nos. 15, 60, 69, 123.
- G240. G240. Habits of witches.
- G241. G241. Witch rides. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- G241.1. G241.1. Witch rides on unusual animal.
- G241.1.1. G241.1.1. Witch rides on wolf. Fb "ulv" III 970a; Icelandic: Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 226, 146, *Boberg; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 654.
- G241.1.2. G241.1.2. Witch rides on goat. *Fb "buk" IV 77a; Kittredge Witchcraft 175 nn. 9—10; England: Baughman.
- G241.1.3. G241.1.3. Witch rides on dog. *Fb "hund" I 676b.
- G241.1.4. G241.1.4. Witch rides on cat. England: Baughman.
- G241.1.4.1. G241.1.4.1. Witch rides on black cat. Fb "ride" III 53a.
- G241.1.5. G241.1.5. Witch rides on whale. Icelandic: Boberg.
- G241.1.6. G241.1.6. Witch rides on cattle. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 302.
- G241.1.7. G241.1.7. Witch rides on tiger. India: Thompson-Balys.

G241.2. G241.2. Witch rides on person. Fb "ride" III 52b; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 649, 667; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 302, Boberg.

G241.2.1. G241.2.1. Witch transforms man to horse and rides him. *Fb "hest" I 599a; England, U.S.: Baughman; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 650; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3656; Livonian: Loorits FFC XVI 62 No. 157; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 130 No. 71; Icelandic: Sveinsson FFC LXXXIII No. 306I.

G241.2.1.1. G241.2.1.1. Witch transforms person by means of magic bridle. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G241.2.2. G241.2.2. Person enchanted by witch's salve so as to be ridden by witch. *Fb "salve" III 151a.

G241.3. G241.3. Witch rides on horse. (Cf. G241.2.1.) Canada, England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G241.3.1. G241.3.1. Witch rides on horses transformed from straw. U.S.: *Baughman.

G241.3.2. G241.3.2. Witch rides horses through air. England: Baughman.

G241.3.3. G241.3.3. Witch's horse or witch leaves mark on church steeple as he goes over. England: *Baughman.

G241.4. G241.4. Witch rides on object.

G241.4.1. G241.4.1. Witches ride on tubs using goose wings for oars. England: Baughman.

G241.4.2. G241.4.2. Witches travel on water in eggshells. England. U.S.: *Baughman.

G241.4.3. G241.4.3. Witch travels over water in a sieve or a riddle. England, Scotland: *Baughman; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 660.

G241.4.4. G241.4.4. Witches ride on bee-hives. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3652.

G242. G242. Witch flies through air. Kittredge Witchcraft 29; *Penzer II 104, IX 57—59; England, Scotland, U.S.: Baughman; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 300f.; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 150—56.

G242.1. G242.1. Witch flies through air on broomstick. Kittredge Witchcraft 243, 547 n. 33; Fb "lime" II 430, "limeskaft" II 430f.; England, Scotland, Wales, U.S.: Baughman; Icelandic: *Boberg; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 81f. Nos. 675, 683; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 48 No. 106; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 138 No. 106; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3651; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 156.

G242.1.1. G242.1.1. Witch smears fat on brooms in preparation for flight. Fb "fejð"; Penzer IX 45 n. 1; England, U.S.: Baughman; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 81f. Nos. 675, 683.

G242.1.2. G242.1.2. Witch rides stalk of broom (ragwort). England: *Baughman.

G242.2. G242.2. Witch flies as whirlwind. Fb "hvirvlevind" I 707b.

G242.3. G242.3. Witch flies through air on leaf. Irish myth: Cross.

G242.4. G242.4. Witches ride tree through the air. India: *Thompson-Balys.

G242.5. G242.5. Other objects that bear witches aloft. England: *Baughman.

G242.6. G242.6. Witches use magic aids for flying. (See D1531, G242.1.1.)

G242.7. G242.7. Person flying with witches makes mistake and falls. England, Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.

G242.8. G242.8. Person imitates witch by putting ointment in eye: eye blinded. (Cf. F361.3.) England: Baughman.

G243. G243. Witch's sabbath. A meeting of witches in which church services are burlesqued. Kittredge Witchcraft chapter XVI; Sahlgren Blekulla och blekullafärderna (Namn och Bygd 1915); Siebs Zs. f. Vksk. III 391; Schell ibid. IV 213; Gruessing ibid. III 172; *Fb "heks" I 580b, "Bloksbjærg" IV 49b, "Troms kirke" III 858b, 859ab, "Sankt Hansdag" III 161b, "Valborg aften" III 993a, "kirke" IV 258b.—England: Baughman; Icelandic: Boberg; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 81 Nos. 673—675; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3651; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 296 No. 23, 315 No. 128; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 151, 156, 157.

G243.1. G243.1. Obeisance to devil at witch's sabbath. England: Baughman; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 151, 155, 156; West Indies: Flowers 444.

G243.1.1. G243.1.1. Witches kiss devil's tail. Fb "kysse".

G243.2. G243.2. Parody of church ceremony at witch's sabbath. Kittredge Witchcraft 243.

G243.2.1. G243.2.1. Witch's rosary consists of goat dung. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 329 No. 54.

G243.3. G243.3. Witches have sexual intercourse with devil or his minions. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G243.3.1. G243.3.1. Witch gives birth to toads and snakes after union with devil. U.S.: Baughman.

G243.4. G243.4. Witches worship demon. India: Thompson-Balys.

G244. G244. Witch spins. *Hoffmann Kraye Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 120 nn. 5—8. Cf. Types 480, 501.

G244.1. G244.1. Witch winds yarn. Irish myth: Cross.

G245. G245. Witch bathes. Hoffmann-Kraye Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 120 n. 3.

G245.1. G245.1. Witch transforms self into snake when she bathes. Hoffmann-Kraye Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 117.

G246. G246. Witches bake bread. Hoffmann-Kraye Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 117, 119 n. 4.

G247. G247. Witches dance. *Fb "danse" IV 93a; U.S.: Baughman; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 150, 155—157, 171.

- G247.1. G247.1. Witches dance with devil at witch's holiday. England: *Baughman.
- G248. G248. Witches feast on rich food and drink. England, Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G248.1. G248.1. Man joins feast of witches. (Cf. G242.7.) U.S.: *Baughman.
- G249. G249. Habits of witches—miscellaneous.
- G249.1. G249.1. Witches drive herds of deer. Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 239, 241, 255—57.
- G249.2. G249.2. Witches scream. Irish myth: Cross.
- G249.3. G249.3. Witch enters and leaves house by chimney. (Cf. F275, G242.1.) U.S.: *Baughman.
- G249.4. G249.4. Witch returns late home and leaves early. BP III 38; Icelandic: *Boberg.
- G249.5. G249.5. Witches boil cauldron of wizardry (cook dog). Irish myth: *Cross.
- G249.6. G249.6. Witch followed by husband; dies when discovered. (Cf. G252.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- G249.7. G249.7. Witches go through keyholes. (Cf. F304.3.) England: *Baughman.
- G249.8. G249.8. Witches open doors and windows. (Cf. E338.1.1.4.) England: Baughman.
- G249.9. G249.9. Witches vanish from prison. England: *Baughman.
- G249.10. G249.10. Witches can see in the dark. England: Baughman.
- G249.10.1. G249.10.1. Witches use eyes of animals to travel at night. They leave their own eyes at home, substitute those of an animal. (Cf. E781.1.) U.S.: *Baughman.
- G249.11. G249.11. Witches rock empty chairs. (Cf. F473.2.1.) U.S.: Baughman.
- G250. G250. Recognition of witches.
- G250.1. G250.1. Man discovers his wife is a witch. Papua: Ker 68.
- G251. G251. Witch recognized by seeing wandering soul return.
- G251.1. G251.1. Witch recognized by seeing wasp (beetle) enter her mouth while asleep. Only when it enters can she be awakened. Tobler 39f.; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 83 No. 684.
- G251.1.1. G251.1.1. Separable soul of witch in parrot. (Cf. E732.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- G251.2. G251.2. Witch recognized when skin of witch is found with soul absent. (Cf. G229.1.1.) U.S.: *Baughman.

G252. G252. Witch in form of cat has hand cut off: recognized next morning by missing hand. Taylor MPh XVII (1919) 59 n. 8; Wales, U.S.: *Baughman; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 660; Icelandic: Boberg; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos. 3657, 3684; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 304 No. 25, 307 No. 31, 325 Nos. 7, 15; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 170, 171; Japanese: Ikeda; West Indies: Flowers 444.

G252.0.1. G252.0.1. A cat in form of an old woman has hand cut off; recognized next morning by missing paw. Japanese: Ikeda.

G252.1. G252.1. Witch killed as whale. She herself is sitting at home. Icelandic: Boberg.

G252.2. G252.2. Goat's tongue pierced with sharp needle; consequently, witch is sick with pierced tongue. India: Thompson-Balys.

G252.3. G252.3. Bird's neck broken: rakshasa dies. India: Thompson-Balys.

G253. G253. Witch's horns discovered by lousing her. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 315 No. 128, 329 No. 53.

G254. G254. Witch known by inability to rise from chair with four-leaf clover under it. *Fb "heks" I 581b.

G254.1. G254.1. Witch cannot rise if ring lies under her chair. *Fb "ring."

G254.2. G254.2. Witch known by inability to rise from chair with salt under cushion. (Cf. G271.3.) U.S.: Baughman.

G255. G255. Witch known by hose unbound on one leg. Fb "hosebend" I 650.

G257. G257. Charms to cause witch to reveal herself. (Cf. G271.)

G257.1. G257.1. Burning object forces witch to reveal herself: sympathetic magic. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G257.2. G257.2. Reading Bible backwards causes witch to reveal herself. (Cf. D1985.2.) England: Baughman.

G257.3. G257.3. Turning table, cutting notches in it causes witch to reveal herself. U.S.: Baughman.

G257.4. G257.4. Taking tile from witch's house forces her to reveal herself. England: Baughman.

G257.5. G257.5. Person puts man's breeches over cow's head; the cow stops in front of witch's house. England, Scotland: *Baughman.

G257.6. G257.6. Person places three notched elder twigs under bowl. Witch is forced to remove them, thus revealing herself. England: Baughman.

G259. G259. Witch recognition—miscellaneous methods. England: *Baughman.

G259.1. G259.1. Witch recognized by looking in or through magic object. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G259.2. G259.2. Witch recognized by odor. (Cf. G303.4.8.1, G303.6.3.4.) England:

Baughman.

G259.3. G259.3. Witch may be recognized by absence of bleeding when she is pricked with pins. England: Baughman.

G259.4. G259.4. Witch may be recognized after death by great weight of corpse. (Cf. E400.) U.S.: Baughman.

G259.5. G259.5. Witch stretches out her hand and brings water from ocean without getting out of her bed; is recognized. India: Thompson-Balys.

G260. G260. Evil deeds of witches. *Kittredge Witchcraft passim; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3665; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 160—171 passim.

G261. G261. Witch steals children. *Type 710; *Hoffmann-Krayer Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 121 n. 3; Krappe Balor 87ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 233.

G261.1. G261.1. Witch steals child with hand through chimney. (Cf. G369.5.) Kittredge Arthur and Gorlagon (Harvard Studies and Notes in Philology and Literature VIII) 222ff.

G262. G262. Murderous witch. Irish myth: *Cross; England, Scotland, U.S.: Baughman.

G262.0.1. G262.0.1. Lamia. Witch who eats children. *Kittredge Witchcraft 224f, 532 nn. 104—108; India: Thompson-Balys, Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 588, II 407, 676; Papua: Ker 45, 64, 121, 141; Africa (Fang): Trilles 249, (Wachaga): Gutman 92.

G262.0.1.1. G262.0.1.1. Lamia devours her lover. Kittredge Witchcraft 225, 532 n. 114.

G262.1. G262.1. Witch sucks blood. Striges. *Kittredge Witchcraft 224f., 531f. nn. 103—114; England: Baughman; Icelandic: Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

G262.1.1. G262.1.1. Witch's cat as sucker of blood. Kittredge Witchcraft 178 n. 36.

G262.1.2. G262.1.2. Witch sucks blood from woman's or child's breasts. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G262.1.3. G262.1.3. Witches suck blood from the navel of a child without anyone knowing it. India: Thompson-Balys.

G262.2. G262.2. Witch eats person's entrails (heart). *Kittredge Witchcraft 225, 532 n. 113; India: Thompson-Balys.

G262.3. G262.3. Witch in animal form kills.

G262.3.1. G262.3.1. Witch in form of she-goat kills men. India: Thompson-Balys.

G262.3.2. G262.3.2. Witch as cat causes death. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G262.4. G262.4. Witch kills with aid of witch-ball (hair rolled in beeswax). The ball is sometimes found in the mouth of dead victims. U.S.: Baughman.

G262.5. G262.5. Witch takes out man's liver. India: Thompson-Balys.

G263. G263. Witch injures, enchants or transforms. *Types 303, 442; BP I 528ff., III 9; Icelandic: *Boberg; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos. 3654f., 3672ff.; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 7, II No. 7; West Indies: Flowers 445.

G263.0.1. G263.0.1. Witch (female demon) has persons she has enchanted as servants. India: Thompson-Balys.

G263.1. G263.1. Witch transforms person to animal. (Cf. D100.) German: Grimm Nos. 11, 49, 69, 123, 141, 197; India: Thompson-Balys.

G263.1.0.1. G263.1.0.1. Witch transforms her lovers into animals. Circe. *Krappe Balor 44ff.; *Anderson Hessische Blätter für Volkskunde XXVIII 212 n. 2; Gaster Oldest Stories 47.

G263.1.1. G263.1.1. Witch transforms man to bear. Icelandic: Boberg.

G263.1.2. G263.1.2. Witch transforms person to seal. Ireland: Baughman.

G263.1.3. G263.1.3. Witch transforms man to cow. India: Thompson-Balys.

G263.1.4. G263.1.4. Witch transforms husband into dog. India: Thompson-Balys.

G263.1.5. G263.1.5. Witch transforms man to bird.

G263.1.5.1. G263.1.5.1. Witch transforms man to crow. India: Thompson-Balys.

G263.1.5.2. G263.1.5.2. Witch transforms man to dove. N. A. Indian (Zuci): Benedict 344.

G263.2. G263.2. Witch transforms man to object. (Cf. D200.)

G263.2.1. G263.2.1. Witch transforms to stone. German: Grimm No. 60, 85; India: Thompson-Balys.

G263.2.1.1. G263.2.1.1. Witch transforms man into soapstone. U.S.: Baughman; India: Thompson-Balys.

G263.2.2. G263.2.2. Witch transforms man to tree. German: Grimm No. 123.

G263.3. G263.3. Witch causes other transformation.

G263.3.1. G263.3.1. Witch transforms townspeople into witches. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

G263.3.2. G263.3.2. Witch transforms girl into man. U.S.: Baughman.

G263.4. G263.4. Witch causes sickness. (Cf. D2064.) Icelandic: *Boberg; England, Scotland, Wales, U.S.: Baughman; N. A. Indian (Zuci): Benedict 344.

G263.4.0.1. G263.4.0.1. Illness caused by curse of witch. England: Baughman.

G263.4.1. G263.4.1. Witch causes toothache. England: *Baughman.

G263.4.2. G263.4.2. Witch causes fits. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G263.4.3. G263.4.3. Witch cripples or lames through illness. (Cf. G269.11.) England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G263.4.4. G263.4.4. Witch makes person dumb. England: Baughman.

G263.4.5. G263.4.5. Witch makes person blind. German: Grimm No. 135.

G263.5. G263.5. Witch revives dead. (Cf. E0.) Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman.

G263.6. G263.6. Witchcraft causes maiden to hate lover. Irish myth: Cross.

G263.7. G263.7. Witch causes insanity. England, Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.

G263.8. G263.8. Witch makes person lousy. England: Baughman.

G264. G264. La Belle Dame Sans Merci. Witch entices men with offers of love and then deserts or destroys them. Hartland Science 71; Huet Contes Populaires 47; Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 172; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 259; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Mitford 243ff., 254ff., 275ff.; Korean: Zong in-Sob 74, 100; Marquesas: Handy 48; N. A. Indian (Micmac): Parsons JAFL XXXVIII 94 No. 26, (Seneca): CurtinHewitt RBAE XXXII 402 No. 71, 425 No. 79, 485 No. 105, (Fox): Owen PFLS LI 87, (Yurok): Powers CNAE III 59, (Anvik): Chapman PAES VI 67 No. 11; Africa (Eko): Talbot 251.

G264.0.1. G264.0.1. Ogress bathes in pool, is transformed into beautiful maiden, and becomes king's favorite wife. India: Thompson-Balys.

G264.1. G264.1. Woman is death of all who behold her. Indo-Chinese: Scott Indo-Chinese 267.

G264.2. G264.2. Witch's kisses disfigure person. Irish myth: Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys.

G264.3. G264.3. Female ogre seduces men with charm (words). India: Thompson-Balys.

G264.3.1. G264.3.1. Witch disguised becomes queen, devours king's horses nightly. India: Thompson-Balys.

G264.4. G264.4. Fairy-like witch marries man and causes him misfortune. Irish myth: *Cross.

G265. G265. Witch abuses property.

G265.1. G265.1. Witch scatters tools at night. Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 263.

G265.2. G265.2. Witch drowns foal. Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 251.

G265.3. G265.3. Witch rides horse at night. Howie 174ff.; *Kittredge Witchcraft 219, 527 n. 66; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 650, 667; Icelandic: Boberg; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos. 3657, 3683f.; India: Thompson-Balys.

G265.3.1. G265.3.1. Witch's hair on horse becomes iron. *Fb "her" I 771b.

G265.4. G265.4. Witches cause disease or death of animals. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 302.

G265.4.0.1. G265.4.0.1. Witch punishes owner for injury or slight by killing his animals. (Cf. G269.10.) England, Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.

G265.4.1. G265.4.1. Witch causes death of animals. England, Scotland, Wales, U.S.: *Baughman.

G265.4.2. G265.4.2. Witch causes illness of animals. (Cf. D2066) England, Scotland, U.S., Canada: *Baughman.

G265.5. G265.5. Witch maims animals. England, Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.

G265.6. G265.6. Witch causes animals to behave unnaturally.

G265.6.1. G265.6.1. Witch causes pigs to behave unnaturally. U.S.: Baughman.

G265.6.1.1. G265.6.1.1. Witch causes pigs to dance. England: Baughman.

G265.6.2. G265.6.2. Witch causes cattle to behave unnaturally. U.S.: Baughman.

G265.6.2.1. G265.6.2.1. Witch causes cattle to run about wildly. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G265.6.3. G265.6.3. Witch causes horse to behave unnaturally. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G265.6.4. G265.6.4. Witch causes dog to behave unnaturally. U.S.: Baughman.

G265.6.4.1. G265.6.4.1. Witch causes dog to dance on hind legs. U.S.: Baughman.

G265.7. G265.7. Witch controls actions of animals. (Cf. D2072.0.2, D2083.2.) England, Scotland, Ireland, U.S.: *Baughman.

G265.8. G265.8. Witch bewitches objects. (Cf. D2072, D2081, D2087.1, D2071.0.2.)

G265.8.1. G265.8.1. Witch bewitches household articles. (Cf. D2083.3, D2083.4., D2084.1, D2084.2.) England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G265.8.2. G265.8.2. Witch bewitches clothing. U.S.: Baughman.

G265.8.3. G265.8.3. Witch bewitches implements and machinery. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G265.8.3.1. G265.8.3.1. Witch bewitches gun.

G265.8.3.1.1. G265.8.3.1.1. Gun bewitched so that it will not hit target. Canada, U.S.: *Baughman.

G265.8.3.1.2. G265.8.3.1.2. Witch throws bullets back at shooter. (Cf. F473.6.5, G229.4.2.) England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G265.8.3.2. G265.8.3.2. Witch bewitches wagon. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G265.8.4. G265.8.4. Object bewitched—miscellaneous.

G265.8.4.1. G265.8.4.1. Witch causes hangman's rope to dance so that it cannot be tied to hang her. U.S.: Baughman.

G265.8.4.2. G265.8.4.2. Witch bewitches goose eggs so that they do not hatch. U.S.: Baughman.

G265.8.5. G265.8.5. Witch bewitches buildings. U.S.: *Baughman.

G265.9. G265.9. Witches ruin crop. (Cf. G283.) North Carolina: Brown Collection I 667; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 302.

G265.9.1. G265.9.1. Witch kills balsam plant after owner refuses to give some to the witch. England: Baughman.

G265.10. G265.10. Witches bewitch trees.

G265.10.1. G265.10.1. Witches shake fruit off trees to punish owner. U.S.: Baughman.

G266. G266. Witches steal. (Cf. D2087, K300.)

G266.1. G266.1. Invisible witches steal goods in market. (Cf. F235.4.1.) England: Baughman.

G267. G267. Man pursued by witches. N. A. Indian (Zuci): Benedict 342, 344.

G269. G269. Evil deeds of witches—miscellaneous.

G269.1. G269.1. Witch begs man to scratch her back: kills him. (Cf. G262.) Fb "kjælling" II 146b.

G269.1.1. G269.1.1. Witch pretends sickness and kicks helper into pit. India: Thompson-Balys.

G269.2. G269.2. Witch asks for snuff so that she may seize man. He offers it to her on point of spear and escapes. Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 229, 243, 245, 261.

G269.3. G269.3. Witch harnesses man and leads him to dance. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 315 No. 124.

G269.3.1. G269.3.1. Witch rides man to dance. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 650.

G269.4. G269.4. Curse by disappointed witch. Type 410; England, Scotland, Wales, U.S.: Baughman; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 643f.; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 303.

G269.4.1. G269.4.1. Curse by other angry ogres or ogresses. Icelandic: *Boberg.

G269.5. G269.5. Witch causes haunted houses. Kittredge Witchcraft 214, 521, 523, nn. 1—6, 18.

G269.6. G269.6. Witch eats up visitor's bow. India: *Thompson-Balys.

- G269.7. G269.7. Witch estranges brothers. Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 111.
- G269.8. G269.8. Ship wrecked by witch. (Cf. F420.5.2.7.3.) Icelandic: Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 152; India: Thompson-Balys.
- G269.9. G269.9. Witch cuts steaks from hero's body. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.
- G269.10. G269.10. Witch punishes person who incurs her ill will. (Cf. G265.4.) England, Scotland, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.
- G269.10.1. G269.10.1. Witch kills person as punishment. (Cf. D2060ff.) England, Scotland: *Baughman.
- G269.11. G269.11. Witch causes deformity. (Cf. G263.4.3.)
- G269.11.1. G269.11.1. Witch causes person to become hunchbacked. England: Baughman.
- G269.11.2. G269.11.2. Witch causes person's arm to wither. U.S.: Baughman.
- G269.12. G269.12. Witch causes person to break limbs. England: Baughman.
- G269.12.1. G269.12.1. Witch breaks bridegroom's leg when slighted by bride. England: Baughman.
- G269.13. G269.13. Witch causes person to fall from height. Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G269.14. G269.14. Witch causes person to be burned. England: Baughman.
- G269.15. G269.15. Witch scratches person. England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G269.16. G269.16. Witch causes gun to explode, injuring person. England: Baughman.
- G269.17. G269.17. Invisible witch sticks victim with pins. England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- G269.18. G269.18. Witch pushes man around on floor (witch is invisible). U.S.: Baughman.
- G269.19. G269.19. Witches as ducks pinch victim. U.S.: Baughman.
- G269.20. G269.20. Witch prevents woman from putting one foot on floor. U.S.: Baughman.
- G269.21. G269.21. Witch torments person by making him act in ridiculous manner.
- G269.21.1. G269.21.1. Witch causes person to break wind in presence of others. U.S.: *Baughman.
- G269.21.2. G269.21.2. Witch causes person to mew like cat and neigh like horse. England: Baughman.
- G269.21.3. G269.21.3. Witch causes man to strip naked and imitate a jockey riding himself. England: Baughman.

G269.22. G269.22. Witch makes girl believe her lover has ass's head. England: Baughman.

G269.23. G269.23. Witch causes lovers on stile to think they are surrounded by water. England: Baughman.

G269.24. G269.24. Witch makes man believe a dead bull is alive and chasing him. U.S.: Baughman.

G269.25. G269.25. Witch causes person to spin around on bedpost. U.S.: Baughman.

G269.26. G269.26. Witch stands person on her head. U.S.: Baughman.

G270. G270. Witch overcome or escaped.

G271. G271. Witch exorcised.

G271.1. G271.1. Witch exorcised by burning stick. Fb "kjæp" II 151a.

G271.2. G271.2. Witch exorcised by use of religious ceremony, object, or charm. (Cf. D2176.3.2.)

G271.2.1. G271.2.1. Sign of the cross marked on bewitched object breaks witch spell. (Cf. G273.1.) Icelandic: Boberg.

G271.2.1.1. G271.2.1.1. Cross marked on horn and forehead of cow causes bewitched cow to give normal amount of milk. Canada, U.S.: *Baughman.

G271.2.2. G271.2.2. Witch exorcised by holy water. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

G271.2.3. G271.2.3. Name of deity breaks witch's spell. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G271.2.4. G271.2.4. Priestly exorcism for witch. England: Baughman.

G271.2.5. G271.2.5. Bible used in exorcism of witch. England: *Baughman.

G271.2.6. G271.2.6. Dust from communion table breaks spell. England: Baughman.

G271.3. G271.3. Use of salt in exorcism of witch. (Cf. G254.2, G272.16.) England: *Baughman.

G271.4. G271.4. Exorcism by use of sympathetic magic. (Cf. D1782, D2063.1.1.)

G271.4.1. G271.4.1. Exorcism by burning object for sympathetic magic. (Cf. G257.1) Canada, England, Ireland, Scotland, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

G271.4.2. G271.4.2. Exorcism by injuring image of witch. Canada. U.S.: *Baughman.

G271.4.3. G271.4.3. Breaking spell by destroying image of victim used by the witch in torturing the victim. U.S.: *Baughman.

G271.4.4. G271.4.4. Breaking spell on animal by bleeding or maiming animal. Witch suffers same loss or injury. U.S.: *Baughman.

G271.4.5. G271.4.5. Breaking spell by beating the person or object bewitched. This injures the witch. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G271.4.6. G271.4.6. Breaking spell by sticking sharp object into tracks of witch. This pains or paralyzes her. England, Wales: *Baughman.

G271.4.7. G271.4.7. Breaking spell by burying bottle of water, preventing witch from urinating until the bottle is emptied. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G271.4.8. G271.4.8. Breaking spell by shooting bewitched object. U.S.: Baughman.

G271.4.9. G271.4.9. Breaking spell on animal by pulling three hairs from tail. U.S.: Baughman.

G271.4.10. G271.4.10. Breaking spell by burying animal alive. England: Baughman.

G271.4.11. G271.4.11. Breaking spell on cream by holding churn handle hard against bottom of churn. This paralyzes the witch. (Cf. D2084.2.) England: Baughman.

G271.5. G271.5. Exorcism by violent treatment of the witch in person. England, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

G271.6. G271.6. Exorcism of witch by countercharm. England, Ireland, Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.

G271.7. G271.7. Exorcism of witch by special burial practice. England: *Baughman.

G271.8. G271.8. Exorcism by means of ghoulish charm. (Cf. D1278.) See Kittredge Witchcraft 141—51; England: Baughman.

G271.9. G271.9. Sick child from witchcraft is put on anvil; smith strikes violently but brings hammer down gently, three times. England: Baughman.

G271.10. G271.10. Person removes string with thirteen knots from child's mouth. U.S.: Baughman.

G272. G272. Protection against witches.

G272.1. G272.1. Steel powerful against witches. Fb "stel" III 647a; England, U.S.: Baughman.

G272.2. G272.2. Magic herb protects from witch. *Penzer VIII 56 n. 2; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 667; West Indies: Flowers 446.

G272.2.1. G272.2.1. Rowan wood (quicken, etc.) protects against witches. Canada, England, Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.

G272.2.2. G272.2.2. Witchhazel used for protection against witches. England, Ireland, U.S.: *Baughman.

G272.2.3. G272.2.3. Hawthorn used as protection against witches. England: Baughman.

G272.2.4. G272.2.4. Bay leaves used as protection against witches. U.S.: Baughman.

G272.3. G272.3. Knife in bed as protection against witches. *Fb "heks" I 581a; England: Baughman.

G272.4. G272.4. Fires burnt in streets to ward off witches. Fb. "heks" I 581a.

G272.5. G272.5. Protection from witch by spitting. Fb "heks" I 581b; England, Ireland: Baughman.

G272.6. G272.6. Sieve as protection against witches. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 650.

G272.7. G272.7. Object across door protects from witch. England, U.S.: *Baughman (G256.)

G272.7.1. G272.7.1. Beam across door protects from witch. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 645.

G272.7.2. G272.7.2. Broom across door protects from witch. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 653.

G272.8. G272.8. Pouring water on fire from new cup protects from witch. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 653.

G272.9. G272.9. Reversing the poker protects from witch. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 653.

G272.10. G272.10. Stopped bottle as protection against witches. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 647.

G272.11. G272.11. Horseshoe hung up as protection against witches. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 650.

G272.12. G272.12. Straws as protection against witch. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 650.

G272.13. G272.13. Stone with a hole through it protects against witches. (Hagstone) England: *Baughman.

G272.14. G272.14. Witch kept under control by means of a magic iron nail driven in her head. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 651.

G272.15. G272.15. Witch controlled by means of magic spells. India: Thompson-Balys.

G272.16. G272.16. Salt protects against witches. (Cf. G271.3, G254.2.)

G272.16.1. G272.16.1. Salt put into churn before churning to protect cream from witch. (Cf. D2084.2.) England: *Baughman.

G272.17. G272.17. Burning thatch from home of witch protects against witch. England: *Baughman.

G272.18. G272.18. Grass from new grave protects against witches. England: Baughman.

G273. G273. Witch rendered powerless.

G273.1. G273.1. Witch powerless when one makes sign of cross. (Cf. G271.2.1.) Fb "heks" I 581b; England, Ireland, Wales: Baughman; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 304 No. 33; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 116; Argentina: Jijena Sanchez 82, 87.

G273.1.1. G273.1.1. Witch powerless from lightbeam sent by saint. Icelandic: Boberg.

G273.2. G273.2. Witch powerless when person speaks before she does. Fb "heks" I 581a.

G273.3. G273.3. Witch powerless at cockcrow. Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 261, 307; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 83 No. 686.

G273.4. G273.4. Witch powerless to cross stream. *Fb "vand" III 1001a; England: Baughman.

G273.4.1. G273.4.1. If witch grabs horse's tail on bridge, man is safe from her. Fb "bro" IV 62b. Cf. Burns's "Tam O'Shanter."

G273.5. G273.5. Witches powerless at crossroads. Fb "korsvej" II 277.

G273.5.1. G273.5.1. Witch burned by furrows drawn round her home. Icelandic: Boberg.

G273.6. G273.6. Witch rendered powerless by drawing blood from her. England, Scotland, U.S.: *Baughman.

G273.7. G273.7. Objects driven into tracks of witch immobilize her. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G273.7.1. G273.7.1. Straw driven into witch's track immobilizes her. England: Baughman.

G273.7.2. G273.7.2. Steel driven into witch's track immobilizes her. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G274. G274. Witch snared.

G274.1. G274.1. Witch snared by setting out milk. Witches attracted by milk. Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 267 No. 74.

G275. G275. Witch defeated. Irish myth: *Cross; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 68.

G275.1. G275.1. Witch carried off by devil. *Kittredge Witchcraft 43, *397f. nn. 164—167; England, Wales: Baughman.

G275.1.1. G275.1.1. Witch carried off by devil's crew. Irish myth: Cross.

G275.2. G275.2. Witch overcome by helpful dogs of hero. Type 303; Irish myth: Cross; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 231, 237, 239.

G275.3. G275.3. Witch burned. *Fb "ild" II 12b, "brænde" IV 69a; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3664; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 161; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

G275.3.0.1. G275.3.0.1. Witch can be destroyed only by burning her to death. India:

Thompson-Balys.

G275.3.1. G275.3.1. Witch burned by burning bewitched animal. *Kittredge Witchcraft 95ff., 426ff. nn. 155—172.

G275.3.2. G275.3.2. Witch's heart (lungs, stomach) impossible to burn. Lithuanian: Balys Historical.

G275.4. G275.4. Seven-headed witch defeated by throwing egg at each head. Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 268 Nos. 79, 80.

G275.4.1. G275.4.1. Witch killed, as egg with her soul is crushed against her forehead. Icelandic: Boberg.

G275.5. G275.5. Witch forced to divulge her secret powers. Africa (Bondei): Woodward FL XXXVI 367ff. No. 12.

G275.5.1. G275.5.1. Witch bribed to divulge her secret powers. Africa (Kordofan): Frobenius Atlantis IV 101ff. No. 11.

G275.6. G275.6. Witch surrendered by sons. Irish myth: Cross.

G275.7. G275.7. Witch bound and beaten. Irish myth: Cross.

G275.7.1. G275.7.1. Witch beheaded. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

G275.8. G275.8. Hero kills witch. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

G275.8.1. G275.8.1. Witch killed by placing salt or pepper inside skin while it is laid aside. (Cf. G229.1.1.) South Carolina Negro: Parsons MAFLS XVI 63.

G275.8.2. G275.8.2. Witch overcome by help of fairy. (Cf. N815.) French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

G275.9. G275.9. Fighting and wrestling with witch. Icelandic: *Boberg.

G275.10. G275.10. Witch as participater in battle. Icelandic: *Boberg.

G275.11. G275.11. Witches punished in hell. Irish myth: *Cross.

G275.12. G275.12. Witch in the form of an animal is injured or killed as a result of the injury to the animal. (Cf. G252, G275.14.) Canada, England, Ireland, Scotland, U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

G275.13. G275.13. Rough treatment of object causes injury or death to witch. Canada, England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G275.14. G275.14. Witch out of body while traveling at night is injured; witch's body is injured at home. (Cf. G275.12.) U.S.: *Baughman.

G275.15. G275.15. Witch overcome by threats. India: Thompson-Balys.

G275.15.1. G275.15.1. Witch overcome by threatening with sword. India: Thompson-Balys.

G276. G276. Escape from witch. Japanese: Ikeda.

G276.1. G276.1. Hen put in witch's hair to scratch while maid escapes. Fb "höne" I 750b, "klø" II 202b, "kylling" II 347.

G277. G277. Testing of witches. Hertz Aus Dichtung und Saga 198ff.; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3664.

G278. G278. Death of witch.

G278.1. G278.1. Marvelous manifestations at death of witch. North Carolina: Brown Collection 386.

G279. G279. Witch overcome or escaped—miscellaneous.

G279.1. G279.1. Overpowered witch-maid commits suicide. India: Thompson-Balys.

G279.2. G279.2. Theft from witch.

G279.2.1. G279.2.1. Gold stolen from witch. India: Thompson-Balys.

G280. G280. Witches—miscellaneous motifs.

G281. G281. Consecrated wafer kept in mouth in order to be a witch. Kittredge Witchcraft 149, 469 n. 105; England, U.S.: Baughman.

G281.1. G281.1. Witch gives away consecrated wafer after service. (Cf. H1292.4.1.) England: *Baughman.

G282. G282. Witches punish lazy spinning women. *Hoffman-Krayer Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 120 n. 6.

G283. G283. Witches have control over weather. *Kittredge Witchcraft 152ff., 472ff. nn. 1ff.; Icelandic: *Boberg; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 295 No. 14, 307 No. 28.

G283.1. G283.1. Witch raises winds.

G283.1.1. G283.1.1. Methods witch uses to raise wind. (Cf. D2142.0.1.2, D2142.1.5.)

G283.1.2. G283.1.2. Reason why witch raises wind.

G283.1.2.1. G283.1.2.1. Witch raises contrary wind to keep ship in port. Ireland, U.S.: Baughman.

G283.1.2.2. G283.1.2.2. Witch raises wind to aid becalmed boat. Scotland: Baughman.

G283.1.2.3. G283.1.2.3. Witch raises wind to sink ships of people who have injured her. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G283.1.2.4. G283.1.2.4. Witch raises wind to winnow grain. U.S.: Baughman.

G283.1.2.5. G283.1.2.5. Witch raises wind to blow man's fleeces away. U.S.: Baughman.

G283.1.2.6. G283.1.2.6. Witch raises wind to break up enemy's lumber pound.

England: Baughman.

G283.1.3. G283.1.3. Witch sells power to control winds. (Cf. D2142.0.1.1, D1541.1.)
England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G283.2. G283.2. Witch keeps winds from blowing. (Cf. D2142.1.)

G283.2.1. G283.2.1. Witch keeps wind from blowing by putting cat under barrel. (Cf. D2142.1.5.) U.S.: Baughman.

G283.3. G283.3. Witch produces rain or snow. (Cf. D2143.)

G283.4. G283.4. Witch produces clear weather. U.S.: Baughman.

G284. G284. Witch as helper. Fb "heks" I 582; Icelandic: *Boberg; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 76, 136, 140, 141, 178; Hindu: Tawney II 608; West Indies: Flowers 447.

G285. G285. Witches avoid religious ceremonies. Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 165.

G285.1. G285.1. At communion witches spit out wine over shoulder. Fb "heks" I 580.

G286. G286. Initiation into witchcraft. Icelandic: *Boberg; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn IV (1901) 144ff., (1936) 230ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys.

G286.1. G286.1. Women learn witchcraft by masking as men. Hence women are witches. India: Thompson-Balys.

G287. G287. Witches married to fairies. India: Thompson-Balys.

G288. G288. Witch escapes from locked room. India: Thompson-Balys.

G291. G291. Witch executed for engaging in witchcraft. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G292. G292. Witch makes man engage in dangerous contests. N. A. Indian (Zuci): *Benedict 345.

G299. G299. Other witch motifs.

G299.1. G299.1. Witch calls up spirits of dead, causes them to walk on water. (Cf. E380.) U.S.: Baughman.

G299.2. G299.2. Witch is heard struggling with devil. (Cf. G303.6.2.2.) England: Baughman.

G300—G399.

G300—G399. Other ogres.

G300. G300. Other ogres.

G301. G301. Monsters. Usually not clearly defined. See this entire chapter on ogres. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

G302. G302. Demons. Malevolent creatures (not usually further defined). Irish: Plummer cliii, *Cross; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 305 No. 36; Jewish: *Neuman; Babylonian: Spence 276f.; Hindu: Penzer I 205, Tawney II 232 n.; Chinese: Graham, Werner 432b s.v. "Demons"; Eskimo (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 82; S. A. Indian (Chaco): Alexander Lat. Am. 323.

G302.1. G302.1. Origin of demons and their companions. Jewish: *Neuman.

G302.1.1. G302.1.1. Demons: soul of the giants who perished in the flood. (Cf. A1010.) Jewish: *Neuman.

G302.1.2. G302.1.2. Evil spirits born of echo in chaos. Jewish: Neuman.

G302.2. G302.2. Varieties of demons. Jewish: *Neuman.

G302.2.1. G302.2.1. Kingdom of demons. (Cf. G303.) Jewish: *Neuman.

G302.2.2. G302.2.2. Devil King. Chinese: Graham.

G302.3. G302.3. Form of demon.

G302.3.0.1. G302.3.0.1. Demon's size changed at will. (Cf. D631.7.) Jewish: *Neuman.

G302.3.1. G302.3.1. Demon as fiery pillar. Jewish: Neuman.

G302.3.2. G302.3.2. Demon in animal form. Jewish: Neuman.

G302.3.3. G302.3.3. Demon in form of old woman. (Cf. C745, D651, G1263.0.1.) India: *Thompson-Balys.

G302.4. G302.4. Physical characteristics of demons.

G302.4.1. G302.4.1. Six characteristics of demons: three like angels, three like men. Jewish: *Neuman.

G302.4.2. G302.4.2. Invisibility of demons. Jewish: Neuman.

G302.4.3. G302.4.3. Demons have only souls but no bodies. Jewish: *Neuman.

G302.4.4. G302.4.4. Demons cast no shadow. (Cf. F1038, G369.3.) Jewish: *Neuman.

G302.4.5. G302.4.5. Feet of demons. Jewish: Neuman.

G302.4.5.1. G302.4.5.1. Demons have cock-feet. Jewish: Neuman.

G302.5. G302.5. Haunts of demons.

G302.5.1. G302.5.1. Desert the abode of demons. Jewish: Neuman.

G302.5.2. G302.5.2. Egypt as abode of demons. Jewish: *Neuman.

G302.5.3. G302.5.3. Demons present at discussion in academies. Jewish: Neuman.

G302.6. G302.6. Circumstances of demons' appearance.

G302.6.1. G302.6.1. Demons appear only at stated times. Jewish: *Neuman.

G302.7. G302.7. Mortal experiences of demons.

- G302.7.1. G302.7.1. Sexual relation between man and demons. Jewish: Neuman.
- G302.7.2. G302.7.2. Demons marry among themselves. Jewish: *Neuman.
- G302.8. G302.8. Demon's helpers. Jewish: Neuman.
- G302.9. G302.9. Deeds of demons.
- G302.9.1. G302.9.1. Demons attack men. Jewish: Neuman.
- G302.9.2. G302.9.2. Demons abduct men and torment them. Jewish: Neuman.
- G302.9.3. G302.9.3. Demons tempt men. Jewish: Neuman.
- G302.9.4. G302.9.4. Demons injure and strangle little children. Jewish: *Neuman.
- G302.9.5. G302.9.5. Demons help Satan. (Cf. G303.10.) Jewish: Neuman.
- G302.9.6. G302.9.6. Demons fool men in their dreams. (Cf. G303.11.1.) Jewish: Neuman.
- G302.9.7. G302.9.7. Enormous quantities of food eaten by demons. Jewish: Neuman.
- G302.9.8. G302.9.8. Demons teach men idolatry. Jewish: *Neuman.
- G302.9.9. G302.9.9. Demons goad man to treachery. Jewish: *Neuman.

G303. G303. Devil. (The Devil, Satan, The Bad Man, Old Nick, etc.)¹ Not clearly differentiated, especially in German tradition, from the stupid ogre. (See also F531 (Giant), G100—199 and G500—699.)—Wünsche Teufel; A Graf The Story of the Devil (tr. E. N. Stone) (London, 1931); M. J. Rudwin The Devil in Legend and Literature (Chicago 1931); P. Carus History of the Devil (Chicago, 1900); Toldo II 329ff.; O. A. Erich Die Darstellung des Teufels in der christlichen Kunst (Berlin, 1931); *De Vooy's Middelnederlandse Legenden en Exempelen 159ff.; S. Freud Die Teufelsneurose im 17. Jahrhundert (Wien, 1928).—Irish myth: Cross; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 687; Icelandic: *Boberg; Finnish-Swedish: P. Danielsson Djävulgestalten i Finlands svenska Folkstro (Bidrag till kännedom af Finlands natur och folk LXXXIV pt. 2, [Helsingfors, 1932] 157); Estonian: Loorits Grundzüge I 135—152; Jewish: *Neuman.

Motif: Supplementary Bibliography for G303

SUPPLEMENTARY BIBLIOGRAPHY FOR G303

- Campbell, J. G. Superstitions of the Highlands and Islands of Scotland. Glasgow, 1900.
- Hunt, R. Popular Romances of the West of England. London, 1903.
- Danielsson, P. Djävulgestalten i Finlands Svenska Folkstro. Helsingfors, 1930.
- G303.1. G303.1. The origin of the devil and his companions. Jewish: *Neuman.
- G303.1.1. G303.1.1. The devil originates from God. Dh I 12; Jewish: Neuman.
- G303.1.1.1. G303.1.1.1. God creates the devil (Satan) from his own shadow. Dh I 44.

G303.1.1.2. G303.1.1.2. Devil originates from God's spittle. Dh I 61ff.; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3001, Legends Nos. 1, 3, 8.

G303.1.1.2.1. G303.1.1.2.1. The devil originates from the spittle of an evil man. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

G303.1.1.3. G303.1.1.3. God changes an angel into the devil, because he tried to imitate God in creating the world. Dh I 139.

G303.1.1.4. G303.1.1.4. God creates the devil by striking a stone with his whip. Dh I 33.

G303.1.2. G303.1.2. God discovers the devil.

G303.1.2.1. G303.1.2.1. God finds the devil sitting under a tree which was made by his throwing his staff into the water. Dh I 35.

G303.1.2.2. G303.1.2.2. God finds the devil under a stone. Dh I 31.

G303.1.2.3. G303.1.2.3. God discovers the devil in a piece of solid foam. Dh I 43.

G303.1.3. G303.1.3. The devil is created without the special aid of God.

G303.1.3.1. G303.1.3.1. The devil is developed from man. Dh I 4f.; West Indies: Flowers 447.

G303.1.3.2. G303.1.3.2. The devil is created out of a bubble. Dh I 19, 66f.

G303.1.3.3. G303.1.3.3. The devil is created out of sea-foam. Dh I 19.

G303.1.3.4. G303.1.3.4. Pagan gods became devils. *Loomis White Magic 75.

G303.1.3.5. G303.1.3.5. Satan created out of hell fire. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.1.4. G303.1.4. The devil creates other devils. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3001.

G303.1.4.1. G303.1.4.1. The devil creates devils by casting water behind himself.

G303.1.4.2. G303.1.4.2. Devils are created from sparks produced by Satan's striking two stones together. Dh I 60ff.; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3001, Legends Nos. 1, 3.

G303.1.5. G303.1.5. Five devils created by Adam create other devils in the same manner. Adam has created five devils by wetting five fingers with dew and shaking them behind him; God had commanded him to wet one finger. (Cf. G303.1.4.1.) Dh I 49.

G303.1.6. G303.1.6. Devils are created from sinful priests. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

G303.1.7. G303.1.7. Tuatha De Danann as demons (fallen angels). Irish myth: Cross.

G303.1.8. G303.1.8. Two devils (male and female) extracted from corpse's belly. India: Thompson-Balys.

G303.2. G303.2. Names applied to the devil. Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.2.1. G303.2.1. Devil calls himself "Puss". Fb I 266b.

G303.2.2. G303.2.2. Devil is called "the black one". Fb I 267b; Wünsche Teufel 51f.

G303.2.3. G303.2.3. Devil says his name is "Millearcas" (thousand ways to lead men to sin). Scala Celi 165b No. 932.

G303.2.4. G303.2.4. Gaelic titles given to the devil: the worthless one; the one whom I will not mention; yon one; the one big one; the one from the abyss; the mean mischievous one; the big sorrow; the son of cursing; the big grizzled one; the bad one; the bad spirit; Black Donald. J. G. Campbell Superstitions of the Highlands and Islands of Scotland (Glasgow, 1900) 291.

G303.3. G303.3. Forms in which the devil appears. *Toldo II 330ff.

G303.3.0.1. G303.3.0.1. Devil in hideous form. (Cf. G303.3.1.4.) Irish myth: *Cross India: Thompson-Balys.

G303.3.1. G303.3.1. The devil in human form. *Loomis White Magic 74; Danielsson Vol. II; Scala Celi 42b, 45a Nos. 243, 255; Irish: *Cross; Beal XXI 307, 313, 315, 330; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos 70, 83, 91—93, 155, 200, 218; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 617.

G303.3.1.0.1. G303.3.1.0.1. Devils in guise of human beings require remarkable quantity of food. India: Thompson-Balys.

G303.3.1.1. G303.3.1.1. The devil as a large, strong man. Henne-Am Rhyn Deutsche Volkssage (1874) 278.

G303.3.1.2. G303.3.1.2. The devil as a well-dressed gentleman. Wünsche Teufel 37f., 54, 59f.; Irish myth: Cross; Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 293; U.S.: Baughman; Georgia Negro: Harris Remus 32; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 8 No. 66; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 347ff., 353, 357, 361, 363f., 367ff., 402, 413, 415, 425ff., 430f., 433ff., 437ff., 441—47, 449ff., 454, 456ff., 461, 464, 466, 655ff., 684f., 737, 764, 766, 772, 776, 786f., 803, 805, 808, 844; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

G303.3.1.3. G303.3.1.3. The devil as a distinguished-looking knight. Wünsche Teufel 61f.

G303.3.1.3.1. G303.3.1.3.1. Devil as a ribald traveler. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

G303.3.1.4. G303.3.1.4. Devil appears in the form of a man who is repugantly ugly. (Cf. G303.3.0.1.) Wessman 8 No. 66, Wünsche Teufel 103f.; Irish: Cross, O'Suilleabhain 35, Beal XXI 312; England: Baughman.

G303.3.1.5. G303.3.1.5. The devil as a little, gray old man. Wessman 12 No. 99; Wünsche Teufel 52f.; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 440, 448, 458.

G303.3.1.6. G303.3.1.6. The devil as a black man. Wünsche Teufel 30f., 106f., Fb I 266b; Irish: *Cross, O'Suilleabhain 35f., Beal XXI 313.

G303.3.1.7. G303.3.1.7. Devil as a huntsman. Wünsche Teufel 33f., 49f.; Hunt Popular Romances of West of England (London, 1903) 222; Nouvelles de Sens No. 5.

G303.3.1.8. G303.3.1.8. Devil in form of priest. Scala Celi 45a, 45b Nos. 254, 257; Crane Vitry 246 No. 263; *Loomis White Magic 74; England: Baughman; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3330, Legends Nos. 419—422, 424.

- G303.3.1.8.1. G303.3.1.8.1. Devil as a hermit. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- G303.3.1.8.2. G303.3.1.8.2. Devil as ascetic. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 617.
- G303.3.1.9. G303.3.1.9. Devil in form of pilgrim. Scala Celi 153a No. 844; Alphabet No. 620.
- G303.3.1.10. G303.3.1.10. Devil as a peasant. England: Hunt Popular Romances 232; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 543.
- G303.3.1.11. G303.3.1.11. Devil as three gentlemen. They come for a dying man. Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 295.
- G303.3.1.12. G303.3.1.12. Devil in form of woman. Lures man. *Loomis White Magic 75; Irish myth: *Cross; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 554ff., 762, 801, 834ff.; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.
- G303.3.1.12.1. G303.3.1.12.1. Devil in form of woman lures and punishes women. Introduces men disguised as women to seduce impious nuns. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.
- G303.3.1.12.2. G303.3.1.12.2. Devil as a beautiful young woman seduces man. Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys.
- G303.3.1.12.3. G303.3.1.12.3. Devil appears as a beautiful black wench. Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- G303.3.1.12.4. G303.3.1.12.4. Devil appears as old woman to seduce monk from cloister. Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- G303.3.1.12.5. G303.3.1.12.5. Devil (in queen's form) insatiable, although she copulates with all men and horses. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G303.3.1.13. G303.3.1.13. Devil as cook. Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- G303.3.1.14. G303.3.1.14. Devil as student. Irish myth: Cross.
- G303.3.1.15. G303.3.1.15. Devil appears as a Jew. Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- G303.3.1.16. G303.3.1.16. Devil appears as a child. Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- G303.3.1.17. G303.3.1.17. Devils appear as ladies and gentlemen. Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- G303.3.1.18. G303.3.1.18. Devil as shoemaker. Estonian, Livonian, Latvian, Lithuanian: *Balys Tautosakos Darbai VI 105—110.
- G303.3.1.19. G303.3.1.19. Devil as merchant. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges; Jewish: Neuman.
- G303.3.1.20. G303.3.1.20. Devil appears in shape of a dead man while hidden in his corpse or skin. Lithuanian: Balys Ghosts.
- G303.3.1.21. G303.3.1.21. The devil as a great hairy man. England: Baughman.
- G303.3.1.22. G303.3.1.22. Devil as astrologer. India: Thompson-Balys.

G303.3.1.23. G303.3.1.23. Satan disguised as beggar. (Cf. K1817.1.) Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.3.1.24. G303.3.1.24. Satan as very old man. Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.3.1.25. G303.3.1.25. Satan disguised as king. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.3.2. G303.3.2. The devil in superhuman form.

G303.3.2.1. G303.3.2.1. Devil appears as Christ. Scala Celi 45a No. 256; *Loomis White Magic 74; Irish myth: *Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

G303.3.2.1.1. G303.3.2.1.1. Devil as crucifix. *Loomis White Magic 75; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

G303.3.2.2. G303.3.2.2. Devil (Satan) appears as an angel. Dh I 228; *Loomis White Magic 74; Irish myth: *Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: Neuman.

G303.3.2.3. G303.3.2.3. Devil as a dwarf. Irish myth: Cross; German: Henne-Am Rhyn 278.

G303.3.2.4. G303.3.2.4. Devil in form of dragons and monsters of various sorts. *Loomis White Magic 74.

G303.3.2.5. G303.3.2.5. Devil appears as Virgin Mary. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 41.

G303.3.3. G303.3.3. The devil in animal form. *Loomis White Magic 74; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

G303.3.3.1. G303.3.3.1. Devil in form of domestic beast.

G303.3.3.1.1. G303.3.3.1.1. Devil in form of dog. Wünsche Teufel 83f.; Fb I 189a, 266b, 676a, II 636b, 891b, IV 227a; Tobler 46; Wessman 9 No. 67; Grunwald Hessische Blätter f. Vksk. XXX—XXXI 317; *Loomis White Magic 74. Irish: Beal XXI 321, 327, O'Suilleabhain 54, 75; Icelandic: *Boberg; Finnish-Swedish: Danielsson I 86; Spanish Exempla: Keller; South America (Colombia, Argentina, Brazil): Jijena Sanchez 90, 103, 106.

G303.3.3.1.2. G303.3.3.1.2. Devil in form of a cat. *Loomis White Magic 74; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 40, Beal XXI 315; Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 306; U.S.: Baughman; Finnish-Swedish: Danielsson I 99; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 454, 538ff.; French: Sébillot France III 124; Tobler 46.

G303.3.3.1.3. G303.3.3.1.3. Devil as horse. Howey Horse in Magic and Myth 35ff.; *Loomis White Magic 74; Kittredge Witchcraft 177 n. 31; Boggs FFC XC 90 No. 762; Köhler-Bolte II 266ff.; Fb I 266b; England, U.S.: Baughman; Icelandic: Boberg; Finnish-Swedish: Danielsson op. cit. I 68; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 667ff., 760, 781f.; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

G303.3.3.1.4. G303.3.3.1.4. Devil in form of cow (bull, ox). Tobler 46; Fb I 266b; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 616.

G303.3.3.1.5. G303.3.3.1.5. Devil in form of swine. Fb I 266b; Scala Celi 120b No. 659; Tobler 46; *Loomis White Magic 74; U.S.: Baughman; Lithuanian: Balys Legends

Nos. 558, 705.

G303.3.3.1.6. G303.3.3.1.6. Devil in form of goat. Irish myth: Cross; Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 290; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3300, Legends Nos. 529—36f., 541, 545, 550f., 554, 777ff., 832; Jewish: Neuman.

G303.3.3.1.7. G303.3.3.1.7. Devil in form of ram. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 537, 542ff., 546ff., 780.

G303.3.3.2. G303.3.3.2. Devil in form of wild beast.

G303.3.3.2.1. G303.3.3.2.1. Devil in form of wolf. Fb I 189; *Loomis White Magic 74; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 594ff.; French: Sébillot France III 34, IV 118.

G303.3.3.2.2. G303.3.3.2.2. Devil in form of fox. Hdwb. d. Abergl. III 180.

G303.3.3.2.3. G303.3.3.2.3. Devil in form of hare. Fb I 266b; England, U.S.: Baughman; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 124 No. 51; Finnish: FFC XXXIII 42 No. 51.

G303.3.3.2.4. G303.3.3.2.4. Devil in form of mouse. Tobler 45; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 192, 194f.

G303.3.3.2.5. G303.3.3.2.5. Devil in form of lion. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

G303.3.3.2.6. G303.3.3.2.6. Devil in form of squirrel. Tobler 46.

G303.3.3.2.7. G303.3.3.2.7. Devil in form of monkey. Scala Celi 62b No. 340; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 89.

G303.3.3.2.8. G303.3.3.2.8. Devil in form of deer. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.3.3.2.9. G303.3.3.2.9. Devil in form of hyena. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.3.3.2.10. G303.3.3.2.10. Devil in form of a terrifying elephant. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 436.

G303.3.3.3. G303.3.3.3. Devil in form of bird. *Loomis White Magic 74; Irish myth: Cross; England: Baughman; Jewish: Neuman.

G303.3.3.3.1. G303.3.3.3.1. Devil in form of raven. Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 295; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 400ff., 405ff., 411; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 314 No. 110.

G303.3.3.3.2. G303.3.3.3.2. Devil in form of crow. Scala Celi 168a No. 954; England: Baughman.

G303.3.3.3.3. G303.3.3.3.3. Devil in form of black bird. Tobler 45.

G303.3.3.3.4. G303.3.3.3.4. Devil in form of woodcock. Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 42 No. 51; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 124 No. 51.

G303.3.3.3.5. G303.3.3.3.5. Devil in form of cock. Fb IV 272b.

G303.3.3.3.6. G303.3.3.3.6. Devil in form of owl. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

G303.3.3.4. G303.3.3.4. Devil in form of insect.

G303.3.3.4.1. G303.3.3.4.1. Devil in form of gnat. Tobler Epiphanie der Seele 45.

G303.3.3.4.2. G303.3.3.4.2. Devil in form of spider. Hangs from the clouds. Dh I 135; Scotland, Wales, U.S.: Baughman.

G303.3.3.4.3. G303.3.3.4.3. Devil in form of wasp. Irish myth: Cross.

G303.3.3.4.4. G303.3.3.4.4. Devil in form of fly. *Loomis White Magic 74; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 404.

G303.3.3.5. G303.3.3.5. Devil in form of fish.

G303.3.3.6. G303.3.3.6. Devil in form of reptile.

G303.3.3.6.1. G303.3.3.6.1. Devil in form of snake. Sneaks into the ark. *Loomis White Magic 74; Dh I 268; U.S., England: Baughman; Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.3.3.7. G303.3.3.7. Devil in form of amphibian.

G303.3.3.7.1. G303.3.3.7.1. Devil in form of toad. Fb III 888b; Kittredge Witchcraft 181 n. 72; England: *Baughman.

G303.3.3.8. G303.3.3.8. Miscellaneous other animal forms in which the devil appears: bear; ant; wild goose. Fb IV 99a; *Loomis White Magic 74; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

G303.3.4. G303.3.4. Devil in form of inanimate objects.

G303.3.4.1. G303.3.4.1. Devil in form of wheel on wagon. Fb I 266b.

G303.3.4.2. G303.3.4.2. Devil as a black ball. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 9 No. 68.

G303.3.4.2.1. G303.3.4.2.1. Devil as a ball of fire. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 848ff.

G303.3.4.3. G303.3.4.3. Devil (Black Donald) as a bunch of ferns. Rolls down hill. Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 303.

G303.3.4.4. G303.3.4.4. Devil as wind. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.3.4.4.1. G303.3.4.4.1. Devil as whirlwind. Persons met by him are killed or maimed. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 14 No. 122.

G303.3.4.5. G303.3.4.5. Devil as a barrel. Rolls and is impossible to catch. Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 802.

G303.3.4.6. G303.3.4.6. Devil in shape of a stone. Lithuanian: Balys Historical.

G303.3.4.7. G303.3.4.7. Devil in the form of a sheaf. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

G303.3.4.8. G303.3.4.8. Devil in form of round bowl. Wales: Baughman.

G303.3.4.9. G303.3.4.9. Devil in form of house. Wales: Baughman.

G303.3.4.10. G303.3.4.10. Devil in form of ungainly bundle. U.S.: Baughman.

G303.3.4.11. G303.3.4.11. Devil as stream of water. Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.3.5. G303.3.5. Devil changes shape. India: *Thompson-Balys.

G303.3.5.1. G303.3.5.1. Devil becomes larger and larger. Wünsche Teufel 40; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 532, 539, 542, 556, 722, 780, 839; India: Thompson-Balys.

G303.3.5.2. G303.3.5.2. Devil becomes smaller and smaller. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 837f.

G303.3.5.3. G303.3.5.3. Devil becomes heavier and heavier. Animal taken into cart becomes so heavy that horses are unable to pull cart. If it is brought home it turns to stone or tree-stump. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3301; Legends Nos. 533, 535, 541ff., 545—53, 558.

G303.3.6. G303.3.6. Forms into which the devil cannot change.

G303.3.6.1. G303.3.6.1. Devil cannot change into pike. Fb I 440a.

G303.3.6.2. G303.3.6.2. Devil cannot change into dove. Tobler 46; England: Baughman.

G303.3.6.3. G303.3.6.3. Devil cannot change into lamb. Tobler 46; England: Baughman.

G303.3.6.3.1. G303.3.6.3.1. The devil cannot change into a sheep. Dh I 165.

G303.4. G303.4. The devil's physical characteristics.

G303.4.1. G303.4.1. The devil's head.

G303.4.1.1. G303.4.1.1. Devil has ninety-nine heads. Dh I 135.

G303.4.1.2. G303.4.1.2. Devil's eyes.

G303.4.1.2.1. G303.4.1.2.1. Devil with eye in middle of forehead. Type 756B; Fb I 189b, 266b; Andrejev FFC LXIX 62.

G303.4.1.2.2. G303.4.1.2.2. Devil with glowing eyes. Fb I 189b, 266b, U.S.: Baughman.

G303.4.1.2.3. G303.4.1.2.3. Two beams of fire shoot from devil's eyes. England: Hunt Popular Romances 218.

G303.4.1.2.4. G303.4.1.2.4. Devil has saucer eyes. English: Hunt 224.

G303.4.1.2.5. G303.4.1.2.5. Devil has passionate look in eyes. Wünsche Teufel 59.

G303.4.1.2.6. G303.4.1.2.6. Devil has no eyebrows. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

G303.4.1.2.7. G303.4.1.2.7. Devil is blind. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.4.1.3. G303.4.1.3. Devil's beard.

G303.4.1.3.1. G303.4.1.3.1. Devil has a red beard. Dh I 239; German: Henne-Am Rhyn (1874) 278.

G303.4.1.4. G303.4.1.4. Devil's nose.

G303.4.1.4.1. G303.4.1.4.1. Devil has a long nose. German: Henne-Am Rhyn (1874) 277.

G303.4.1.4.2. G303.4.1.4.2. Devil has only one nostril or is without nostrils at all. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 349, 351, 395, 654f., 657f., 776, 785f., 799, 803, 814.

G303.4.1.5. G303.4.1.5. Devil's teeth.

G303.4.1.5.1. G303.4.1.5.1. Devil has shining teeth. Girl wishes to marry man whose teeth shine. Such a man appears and they marry. When he removes his hat she finds he is the devil. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 52 No. 340a, Espinosa Jr. No. 93.

G303.4.1.5.2. G303.4.1.5.2. One of devil's teeth grows down to the earth; another to sky. India: Thompson-Balys.

G303.4.1.6. G303.4.1.6. Devil has horns. Scotland: Baughman; German: Henne-Am Rhyn 278; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 70.

G303.4.1.6.1. G303.4.1.6.1. Devil has two horns. Wünsche Teufel 40.

G303.4.1.6.2. G303.4.1.6.2. Devil child born with horns. U.S.: *Baughman.

G303.4.1.7. G303.4.1.7. The devil's face.

G303.4.1.7.1. G303.4.1.7.1. Devil's face is black. Irish myth: *Cross.

G303.4.1.8. G303.4.1.8. Devil's hair. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.4.1.8.1. G303.4.1.8.1. Devil's hair blood-red. India: Thompson-Balys.

G303.4.1.8.2. G303.4.1.8.2. Devil has three golden hairs. *Type 461.

G303.4.2. G303.4.2. The devil's wings.

G303.4.2.1. G303.4.2.1. The devil has six wings. Dh I 138.

G303.4.2.2. G303.4.2.2. The devil has twelve wings. Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.4.3. G303.4.3. The devil's thumb.

G303.4.3.1. G303.4.3.1. Devil has glowing thumb. Wünsche Teufel 44.

G303.4.3.2. G303.4.3.2. Devil's thumb the size of two fists. Wünsche Teufel 44.

G303.4.4. G303.4.4. Devil has claws. Wünsche Teufel 42f., 83f.

G303.4.4.1. G303.4.4.1. Devil has five claws. Wünsche Teufel 84.

G303.4.4.2. G303.4.4.2. Devil has claws on his feet. One can tell a devil by claws protruding through his shoes. Fb II 184, 204b.

G303.4.5. G303.4.5. The devil's feet and legs.

G303.4.5.1. G303.4.5.1. Devils have only one leg. They broke one leg when trying to run away from God's attack to protect himself from them. Dh I 50.

G303.4.5.1.1. G303.4.5.1.1. Devil has only one foot. The wolf which he made has eaten the other. Dh I 148.

G303.4.5.1.2. G303.4.5.1.2. Devil's shoes are empty. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 350, 654, 657.

G303.4.5.2. G303.4.5.2. Devil has a broken foot. He limps. Type 756B; Andrejev FFC LXIX 62, *231 n.; German: Henne-Am Rhyn 277.

G303.4.5.3. G303.4.5.3. Devil has horse's foot. Type 756B; Hdwb. d. Abergl. III 226; Andrejev FFC LXIX 62; Fb I 601b; Wunsche Teufel 52.—Scotch Campbell Superstitions 290; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 8 No. 66; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 137.

G303.4.5.3.1. G303.4.5.3.1. Devil detected by his hoofs. While playing cards the devil drops a card on the floor and his partners notice his monstrous feet. England, Wales, U.S.: Baughman; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 41 No. 34; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 120 No. 34; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3350, Legends Nos. 676, 793.

G303.4.5.3.2. G303.4.5.3.2. Devil's footprints without any toes. India: Thompson-Balys.

G303.4.5.4. G303.4.5.4. The devil has goat feet. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 92, Beal XXI 330; England: Baughman; German: Henne-Am Rhyn (Leipzig, 1874) 278.

G303.4.5.4.1. G303.4.5.4.1. Devil is betrayed by his goat hoofs. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 8 No. 66.

G303.4.5.5. G303.4.5.5. Devil has pig's foot. Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 290.

G303.4.5.6. G303.4.5.6. Devil's knees are backwards. Type 756B; Andrejev FFC LXIX 62; Irish myth: *Cross.

G303.4.5.7. G303.4.5.7. Devil has no heels. Bitten off by wolf who was created by devil. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 139f., 142.

G303.4.5.8. G303.4.5.8. Devil has club foot. England, U.S.: Baughman.

G303.4.5.9. G303.4.5.9. Devil has cock's feet. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.4.6. G303.4.6. The devil's tail. Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 792.

G303.4.6.1. G303.4.6.1. A little girl recognizes the devil by his tail. Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 119 No. 29; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3675, Legends Nos. 382, 395.

G303.4.6.2. G303.4.6.2. Boy recognizes devil when he fans fire with his tail. Africa (Masai): Fuchs Sagen, Mythen, und Sitten der Masai (Jena, 1910) 21ff. No. 4.

G303.4.7. G303.4.7. Devil speaks with voice of a he-goat. Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 301.

G303.4.8. G303.4.8. Miscellaneous characteristics of devil.

G303.4.8.1. G303.4.8.1. Devil has sulphurous odor. (Cf. G303.6.3.4, G303.17.2.8.)
England, U.S.: Baughman; German: Henne-Am Rhyn (1874) 271; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Jewish: Neuman.

G303.4.8.2. G303.4.8.2. Devil holds molten coin in mouth. Fb I 267a.

G303.4.8.2.1. G303.4.8.2.1. Devil holds fire in his hands. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 38.

G303.4.8.3. G303.4.8.3. Devil claims to be 7,777 years old. Dh I 195.

G303.4.8.4. G303.4.8.4. Devil never eats in an inn. Devil's coachman observes this.
Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 119 No. 28.

G303.4.8.5. G303.4.8.5. Devil carries a thorn stick. German: Henne-Am Rhyn 278.

G303.4.8.6. G303.4.8.6. Devil is swift of foot. Type 756B; Andrejev FFC LXIX 62;
Irish myth: Cross.

G303.4.8.7. G303.4.8.7. Devil with pitchfork. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 688.

G303.4.8.8. G303.4.8.8. Devil laughs (weeps) when men weep (laugh). Cheremis:
Sebeok-Nyerges.

G303.4.8.9. G303.4.8.9. Devil all speckled and spotted. England: Baughman.

G303.4.8.10. G303.4.8.10. Devil's hand marks person he touches. England, U.S.:
*Baughman.

G303.4.8.11. G303.4.8.11. Devil in animal form cannot be hit by bullets. Scotland,
U.S.: *Baughman.

G303.4.8.12. G303.4.8.12. Devil picks up live coals to light pipe. U.S.: Baughman.

G303.4.8.13. G303.4.8.13. Devil invisible. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.5. G303.5. How the devil is dressed.

G303.5.1. G303.5.1. Devil is dressed in black. French: Sébillot France I 287, III 144;
Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.5.1.1. G303.5.1.1. Devil in a black cloak. German: Henne-Am Rhyn 278.

G303.5.2. G303.5.2. Devil is dressed in green.

G303.5.2.1. G303.5.2.1. Devil in green clothing with hat. Wünsche Teufel 34f.

G303.5.2.2. G303.5.2.2. Devil as a hunter in green. Wünsche Teufel 53f., 90f.

G303.5.2.3. G303.5.2.3. Devil wears a bright green coat. German: Henne-Am Rhyn 278.

G303.5.3. G303.5.3. The devil dressed in red. French: Sébillot France II 29.

G303.5.4. G303.5.4. Devil dressed in blue clothes. Fb I 266a; U.S.: Baughman.

G303.5.5. G303.5.5. Devil dressed in hunting clothes. Wünsche Teufel 65f.

G303.6. G303.6. Circumstances of the devil's appearance. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.6.1. G303.6.1. When the devil appears. Danielsson Djävulgestalten i Finlands Svenska Folkstro (Helsingfors, 1930) 74.

G303.6.1.1. G303.6.1.1. Devil appears at midnight. Hunt Popular Romances 230; Wünsche Teufel 54, 59, 106f.; Danielsson op. cit. 77.

G303.6.1.2. G303.6.1.2. Devil comes when called upon. Fb I 267a, IV 99a; Wünsche Teufel 54, 99; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 34, 59, Beal XXI 312, 323; English: Hunt 232, 241; England, Wales: Baughman; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 12 No. 106; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 601—604.

G303.6.1.2.1. G303.6.1.2.1. Devil writes into book names of those who call on him. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

G303.6.1.3. G303.6.1.3. Devil appears to claim soul offered to devil in jest. Wünsche Teufel 36f.; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 56, Beal XXI 322.

G303.6.1.4. G303.6.1.4. Devil appears when a woman looks at herself in the mirror after sunset. England, Wales, U.S.: Baughman; French: Sébillot France I 139; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

G303.6.1.5. G303.6.1.5. Devil appears when cards are played. Fb IV 99a; Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 292.

G303.6.1.6. G303.6.1.6. Devil invoked through medium of a black dog. Peru: Jijena Sanchez 132.

G303.6.1.7. G303.6.1.7. Devil appears on Hallowe'en. Irish myth: Cross.

G303.6.2. G303.6.2. People to whom the devil appears.

G303.6.2.1. G303.6.2.1. Devil appears invisible among dancers. (Cf. G303.10.4.) Canada, U.S.: *Baughman (G303.6.2.12); Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 10 No. 79; Icelandic: Boberg.

G303.6.2.2. G303.6.2.2. Devil appears at meetings of witches. Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 292; Finnish-Swedish: Danielsson op. cit. 84.

G303.6.2.3. G303.6.2.3. Devil appears among youths who jest while they say their evening prayers. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 10 No. 76.

G303.6.2.4. G303.6.2.4. Devil visible to one who walks in minister's (or minister's wife's) holy shoes (galoshes). Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 10. No. 79.

G303.6.2.5. G303.6.2.5. Devil appears to persons ready to abandon their integrity. Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 292.

G303.6.2.6. G303.6.2.6. Devil appears to minister's serving man to warn of impending disaster to the house. Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 298f.

G303.6.2.7. G303.6.2.7. Devil appears to girl who prays over pit where she has thrown the bodies of her babies. French: Sébillot France II 313.

G303.6.2.8. G303.6.2.8. Devil appears to dying man. Irish myth: Cross.

G303.6.2.9. G303.6.2.9. Devil appears to saint (cleric). Irish myth: *Cross.

G303.6.2.9.1. G303.6.2.9.1. Saint is able to see devils. *Loomis White Magic 76f.

G303.6.2.10. G303.6.2.10. Devil appears to scholar. Irish myth: *Cross.

G303.6.2.11. G303.6.2.11. Devil appears to Eve. Irish myth: *Cross.

G303.6.2.12. G303.6.2.12. Devil hides in clothes of people running from storm. See references to G303.6.3.1.1. Balys Tautosakos Darbai VI 87—100.

G303.6.2.13. G303.6.2.13. Devil appears to person who cuts both ends off loaf of bread. England: Baughman.

G303.6.2.14. G303.6.2.14. Devil appears to Sabbath breakers. (Cf. C631.) England, Wales: *Baughman.

G303.6.2.15. G303.6.2.15. Devil appears when person steals.

G303.6.2.15.1. G303.6.2.15.1. Devil causes boy to make noise of wind breaking after he has stolen bushel of corn to pay for shoes. (Cf. D2063.5.) U.S.: Baughman.

G303.6.3. G303.6.3. Natural phenomena accompanying the devil's appearance.

G303.6.3.1. G303.6.3.1. Devil is followed by a thunderstorm. Dh I 154; England, U.S.: Baughman.

G303.6.3.1.1. G303.6.3.1.1. The devil appears during thunderstorm, seeking shelter among people. Swedish, Lappish, Finnish, Estonian, Livonian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Russian, White Russian: *Balys Tautosakos Darbai VI 87—100.

G303.6.3.2. G303.6.3.2. Devil comes in the whirlwind. French: Sébillot France I 113.

G303.6.3.3. G303.6.3.3. Devil and the wind travel together. French: Sébillot France II 313.

G303.6.3.4. G303.6.3.4. Devil appears in an intense light and with strong odor of sulphur. (Cf. G303.4.8.1.) Sébillot France II 313; U.S.: Baughman.

G303.6.3.5. G303.6.3.5. Devil's coming heralded by piercing whistle. German: Grimm No. 195.

G303.7. G303.7. How the devil travels.

G303.7.1. G303.7.1. Devil rides horse. U.S.: Baughman; Irish: Beal XXI 322, O'Suilleabhain 55.

G303.7.1.1. G303.7.1.1. Devil rides on black horse. Wesselski Märchen 199; English: Hunt Popular Romances 217, 222, Baughman.

G303.7.1.2. G303.7.1.2. Devil's horses are transformed men. Finnish: Aarne FFC

XXXIII 40 No. 33; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 118 Nos. 25, 33; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3304, Legends Nos. 469, 581ff., 585.

G303.7.1.2.1. G303.7.1.2.1. Devil's horse has human feet. Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 40 No. 33; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 120 No. 33.

G303.7.1.2.2. G303.7.1.2.2. Devil (gentleman) invites traveler into his wagon. Explains that his horses are Earl X, etc. (Cf. G303.25.17.1.) Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 118 No. 25.

G303.7.1.2.3. G303.7.1.2.3. Devil (gentleman) invites girls into his sleigh. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

G303.7.1.3. G303.7.1.3. Devil rides horse at night hunting lost souls over the heath. England: Baughman.

G303.7.2. G303.7.2. Devil rides away on an ass. Angered because God has not invited him to his wedding. Dh I 129.

G303.7.3. G303.7.3. Devil drives horse and wagon. Fb I 266b; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 9 No. 69.

G303.7.3.1. G303.7.3.1. Devil in wagon drawn by two black horses carries off impious people. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 13 No. 118; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 822.

G303.7.3.2. G303.7.3.2. Devil drives carriage drawn by horses whose nostrils shoot fire. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 9 No. 69; French: Sébillot France I 428.

G303.7.3.3. G303.7.3.3. Devil in coach drawn by headless horses. English: Hunt Popular Romances 224ff.

G303.7.3.4. G303.7.3.4. Devil pursues man from carriage drawn by four white horses. U.S.: Baughman.

G303.7.3.5. G303.7.3.5. Devil travels in coach drawn by four blood-red horses, the hoofs of which strike fire from the pavement. German: Grimm No. 120.

G303.7.4. G303.7.4. Devil comes in a cart. Fb I 266b; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 776.

G303.7.5. G303.7.5. Devil drives several teams of oxen. English: Hunt Popular Romances 230.

G303.7.6. G303.7.6. Devil rides on hog, drives another. Fb III 676b.

G303.7.7. G303.7.7. Devil drives six he-goats. Wünsche Teufel 41.

G303.7.8. G303.7.8. Devil rides cow until she goes mad. England: Baughman.

G303.7.9. G303.7.9. Devil flies like bird. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.8. G303.8. Devil's expulsion from heaven and his present haunts.

G303.8.1. G303.8.1. Devil driven from heaven. Spanish Exempla: Keller; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3002, Legends Nos. 5f.; Jewish: *Neuman.

- G303.8.1.1. G303.8.1.1. God has Elias drive devils from heaven. They use thunder, lightning, and rain for forty days. Dh I 133f.
- G303.8.1.2. G303.8.1.2. Archangels Michael and Gabriel drive Satan and other devils from heaven to earth. Dh I 67, 138; Irish: Beal XXI 323, O'Suilleabhain 59.
- G303.8.1.2.1. G303.8.1.2.1. Devil becomes an angel. Forced by monk, devil sings a hymn and becomes a white angel as he was before the sin. Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 670, Balys Ghosts.
- G303.8.2. G303.8.2. Devils carry away the sun when they fall from heaven. Dh I 136.
- G303.8.3. G303.8.3. The devil in hell. Irish myth: *Cross.
- G303.8.3.1. G303.8.3.1. Devil is thrust into hell by God. Dh I 5; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 5f.
- G303.8.3.2. G303.8.3.2. Devil builds himself a castle and calls it hell. Dh I 145.
- G303.8.3.3. G303.8.3.3. Devil's house is visible on the way to hell. Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 121 No. 38.
- G303.8.4. G303.8.4. Devil lives in a church. Fb I 266a.
- G303.8.4.1. G303.8.4.1. Devil bound with huge chain near northern side of Tamdrup church. Fb I 189a.
- G303.8.4.2. G303.8.4.2. Devil in each stone of church built with ill-gotten wealth. Scala Celi 84a No. 481; Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- G303.8.5. G303.8.5. Devil in interior of earth. Banished there by God as punishment for trying to usurp God's rule of the world. Dh I 208.
- G303.8.6. G303.8.6. Devil and his servants live where perjurers dwell. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 12. No. 107.
- G303.8.7. G303.8.7. Devil's abode is between hoofs of swine. Fb I 189a.
- G303.8.8. G303.8.8. Devil lives in the water. Dh I 56, 67.
- G303.8.9. G303.8.9. Devils in woman's train. Scala Celi 141a No. 787; *Loomis White Magic 76.
- G303.8.9.1. G303.8.9.1. Devil in fold of knight's cloak. (Cf. G303.6.2.12.) Knight permits him to lodge there and accompany him to a tournament on condition that he leave him without harm upon request. Pauli (ed. Bolte) 93.
- G303.8.10. G303.8.10. Devil in dragon's head on a shield. Is expelled by a knight (Percival). Dickson 197 No. 84.
- G303.8.11. G303.8.11. Devil in a stone. Irish myth: *Cross; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 9 No. 70.
- G303.8.12. G303.8.12. Devil in the stable wrapped in horse-hide. Devil chases youth as he hides himself. Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 122 No. 43.

G303.8.13. G303.8.13. Devil in the woods.

G303.8.13.1. G303.8.13.1. Youth meets devil in woods. Scala Celi 120a No. 658.

G303.8.13.2. G303.8.13.2. Forest devil the one which fell in the forest when driven from heaven. Dh I 67.

G303.8.13.3. G303.8.13.3. Devil in woods to gather nuts on Christmas Eve. Fb I 266a.

G303.8.14. G303.8.14. Devils dwell in heathen idols, as well as portraits and images.
*Loomis White Magic 75.

G303.8.15. G303.8.15. Devil hidden in a corpse. *Loomis White Magic 74.

G303.9. G303.9. Deeds of the devil.

G303.9.1. G303.9.1. The devil as a builder. *Broderius 27, 58; Boberg FFC CLI.

G303.9.1.1. G303.9.1.1. Devil as builder of bridges. Wünsche Teufel 30—37; England, Wales, U.S.: Baughman; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3285, Legends Nos. 489f.; Japanese, Korean: Ikeda.

G303.9.1.2. G303.9.1.2. Devil as builder of dams. Finnish-Swedish: man 17 No. 155; Wünsche Teufel 29f.

G303.9.1.3. G303.9.1.3. Devil as builder of mill. Wünsche Teufel 38ff.

G303.9.1.4. G303.9.1.4. Devil as builder of walls. Wünsche Teufel 27f., 69; England: Baughman.

G303.9.1.5. G303.9.1.5. Devil as builder of palaces (châteaux). Wünsche Teufel 49f.; Icelandic: Boberg; French: Sébillot France IV 126.

G303.9.1.6. G303.9.1.6. Devil as builder of churches. Wünsche Teufel 42; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn III (1931) 26ff.; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 491; French: Sébillot France IV 126.

G303.9.1.7. G303.9.1.7. Devil builds a road. Wünsche Teufel 37; England, Scotland: Baughman.

G303.9.1.8. G303.9.1.8. Devil builds a ditch. Wünsche Teufel 37f.; England: Baughman.

G303.9.1.9. G303.9.1.9. Devil builds two islands in a lake. Wünsche Teufel 30.

G303.9.1.10. G303.9.1.10. Devil builds an inn for a man in competition with a church being built. Wünsche Teufel 44.

G303.9.1.11. G303.9.1.11. Devil builds Mont Saint Michel. French: Sébillot France IV 11.

G303.9.1.12. G303.9.1.12. Devil helps build Halberstadt Cathedral thinking a tavern is being built. Wünsche Teufel 44.

G303.9.1.13. G303.9.1.13. Devil builds a building. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G303.9.1.14. G303.9.1.14. Satan builds idol. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.9.1.15. G303.9.1.15. Satan builds another world. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.9.2. G303.9.2. The devil performs deeds of unusual strength.

G303.9.2.1. G303.9.2.1. Devil pulls up tree to goad his oxen. English: Hunt Popular Romances 230, Baughman.

G303.9.2.2. G303.9.2.2. Devil builds road for farmer in one day. Wünsche Teufel 50f.

G303.9.2.3. G303.9.2.3. Devil plows and plants grain for farmer in one day. Wünsche Teufel 50f.

G303.9.2.4. G303.9.2.4. Devil and Drake carry waters of English Channel from Dartmoor to Plymouth. English: Hunt Popular Romances 231, Baughman.

G303.9.2.5. G303.9.2.5. Devil and Michael Scott carry tide an additional five miles up River Wansbeck. England: Baughman.

G303.9.3. G303.9.3. The devil hires out.

G303.9.3.1. G303.9.3.1. Devil hires out to a farmer. Wünsche Teufel 71f.; Irish: Beal XXI 314, O'Suilleabhain 38; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos. 329ff., Legends Nos. 505—524.

G303.9.3.1.1. G303.9.3.1.1. The devil takes service with a farmer in return for the bread he stole. Punishes the evil landowner and makes his master prosperous. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3290, Legends Nos. 505—511.

G303.9.3.2. G303.9.3.2. Devil is employed as a midwife. Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 43 No. 30.

G303.9.3.3. G303.9.3.3. Devils help people at work, but are feared nevertheless. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 790—794.

G303.9.3.4. G303.9.3.4. The devil is always to blame. Even when he tries to be helpful to man. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3340, Legends Nos. 659—663; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 41 No. 49.

G303.9.4. G303.9.4. The devil as a tempter. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.9.4.0.1. G303.9.4.0.1. Satan causes storm to destroy property of man he tempts. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.9.4.0.2. G303.9.4.0.2. Satan smites man he tempts with leprosy. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.9.4.1. G303.9.4.1. Devil gives Eve two grains of corn. One is for her and one for Adam. Dh I 212.

G303.9.4.2. G303.9.4.2. Devil persuades man to commit suicide. Scala Celi 153a No. 843; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 758; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

- G303.9.4.2.1. G303.9.4.2.1. The devil teaches man how to hang himself. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 610—614.
- G303.9.4.3. G303.9.4.3. Devil tries to get man to kill his bride (wife). Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 12 No. 104.
- G303.9.4.4. G303.9.4.4. Devil tempts cleric (hermit). Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 670; Scala Celi 5b, 165a, 166a Nos. 29, 930, 938; Alphabet Nos. 28, 128, 129; Irish myth: *Cross; English: Hunt Popular Romances 232; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 388, II 1059.
- G303.9.4.5. G303.9.4.5. Devils appear to knight to try to call him from doing penance. Scala Celi 162a No. 919.
- G303.9.4.5.1. G303.9.4.5.1. Devil by trick conjures vision to make idolators of believers. Jewish: Neuman.
- G303.9.4.5.2. G303.9.4.5.2. Disguised devil as messenger to adulterous people. Irish Myth: Cross.
- G303.9.4.5.3. G303.9.4.5.3. Satan stops men from praying. Jewish: Neuman.
- G303.9.4.6. G303.9.4.6. Devil tempts saints. Scala Celi 112a, 154b Nos. 623, 855; Dh I 174.—Irish myth: Cross.
- G303.9.4.6.1. G303.9.4.6.1. Devil instructs saint on virtues by which to attain Heaven. Irish myth: Cross.
- G303.9.4.7. G303.9.4.7. Devil tempts girl. Scala Celi 47b No. 267; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 395f., 399; West Indies: Flowers 447f.
- G303.9.4.7.1. G303.9.4.7.1. Devil and girl. "Are you lonely?" Girl: "No, devil, with God and angels." Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 365.
- G303.9.4.8. G303.9.4.8. Devil tempts youth to deny Virgin. Promises youth riches. Scala Celi No. 658.
- G303.9.4.9. G303.9.4.9. Devil tries to move repentant sinner to despair. Irish myth: Cross.
- G303.9.4.10. G303.9.4.10. Woman worships the devil. Irish myth: Cross.
- G303.9.5. G303.9.5. The devil as an abductor. Fb I 266a, 267a; Dh I 176; French: Sébillot France II 38, IV 341; Jewish: *Neuman; West Indies: Flowers 448f.
- G303.9.5.1. G303.9.5.1. Devil abducts girl: has her hang about his neck and he flees to hell. Wünsche Teufel 65f.
- G303.9.5.2. G303.9.5.2. Devil carries away a lord on his back. French: Sébillot France IV 341; Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- G303.9.5.3. G303.9.5.3. Devil compels two miners to follow him. English: Hunt Popular Romances 218.
- G303.9.5.4. G303.9.5.4. Devil carries man through air as swift as wind (thought).

Finnish: FFC XXXIII 41 No. 37; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 121 No.

G303.9.5.5. G303.9.5.5. Devil combs Mme. Anna's hair while he takes her away. Fb I 266b.

G303.9.5.6. G303.9.5.6. Man temporarily abducted by devil. Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 710; Estonian and Latvian: Tautosakos Darbai VI 19—23.

G303.9.5.7. G303.9.5.7. Devil carries a Jew to hell. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3335, Legends No. 650ff.

G303.9.5.8. G303.9.5.8. Devil takes violinist when he needs a good fiddler in hell. England: Baughman.

G303.9.6. G303.9.6. The devil fights.

G303.9.6.0.1. G303.9.6.0.1. The devil is armed. Irish myth: Cross.

G303.9.6.1. G303.9.6.1. Devil fights with man. Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 121 No. 35.

G303.9.6.1.1. G303.9.6.1.1. Devil is overcome by man in fight. Man pulls out one of his horns and beats him with it. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 70; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

G303.9.6.1.2. G303.9.6.1.2. Satan fights Israel. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.9.6.2. G303.9.6.2. Satan attacks saints. Kittredge Witchcraft 218, 525 nn. 49, 50; Dh I 138; Irish myth: Cross; England: Baughman; French: Sébillot France II 128, III 530.

G303.9.6.2.1. G303.9.6.2.1. Devil inflames saint's injured eye. Irish myth: Cross.

G303.9.7. G303.9.7. The devil advises human beings.

G303.9.7.1. G303.9.7.1. Devil advises young girl not to go to a castle. Later, when she returns pregnant she says that the devil advised her to serve at the castle. He slaps her and tells her she is lying. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 84; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 664.

G303.9.7.2. G303.9.7.2. Devil exhorts youth to enjoy himself and not to think of God. When the youth has grown old the devil says, "It is now too late to think of God." Type 823*.

G303.9.7.3. G303.9.7.3. The devil advises a suspicious husband. The Ring of Hans Garvel. Appears in a dream and hands the husband a ring. "When you wear this ring you will be sure of your wife." He awakens to understand the obscene implication. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles no. 11; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

G303.9.7.4. G303.9.7.4. Devil disguised as man tells of trip to heaven and hell. Heaven is full of wretches who weep, fast, and pray. Hell is full of wealth, power, and good living. Nouvelles de Sens No. 5.

G303.9.8. G303.9.8. Miscellaneous actions of the devil.

G303.9.8.1. G303.9.8.1. Devil spins and knits. English: Hunt Popular Romances 241.

- G303.9.8.2. G303.9.8.2. Devil plays fiddle at wedding. Causes bad luck (kills bridegroom). Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 40 No. 24; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 118 No. 24.
- G303.9.8.3. G303.9.8.3. Devil sings (dances) on grave. Irish myth: *Cross.
- G303.9.8.4. G303.9.8.4. Devil causes salamander to appear in glass of rum, drinks it. U.S.: Baughman.
- G303.9.8.5. G303.9.8.5. Devil engages in drinking contest with man for purse of gold. Gold causes man to become miser. England: Baughman.
- G303.9.8.6. G303.9.8.6. Satan asks God to put man into his power (Job). Jewish: *Neuman.
- G303.9.8.7. G303.9.8.7. Satan makes wager with God about mortal's piety. Jewish: Neuman.
- G303.9.8.8. G303.9.8.8. Satan prays to God. Jewish: Neuman.
- G303.9.8.9. G303.9.8.9. Satan chants songs of praise to God. Jewish: Neuman.
- G303.9.8.10. G303.9.8.10. Satan weeps. Jewish: Neuman.
- G303.9.8.11. G303.9.8.11. Satan as blasphemer. Jewish: Neuman.
- G303.9.9. G303.9.9. Pranks played by the devil.
- G303.9.9.1. G303.9.9.1. Devil prevents moving of little stone by sitting on it. Scala Celi 149b No. 823.
- G303.9.9.2. G303.9.9.2. Devil interrupts mass by pretended battle. Scala Celi 22b No. 144; Alphabet No. 105.
- G303.9.9.3. G303.9.9.3. Devil steals knight's cloak. Scala Celi 153a No. 844; Alphabet No. 620.
- G303.9.9.4. G303.9.9.4. Devil takes an unbaptized child out of the cradle and lays a wooden log in its place. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 14 No. 127; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3295, Legends Nos. 525ff.
- G303.9.9.5. G303.9.9.5. Devil piles sand in ocean so that vessels may run aground. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 17 No. 156.
- G303.9.9.6. G303.9.9.6. Devil leads and misguides people. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3332, Legends Nos. 459, 500, 557, 590, 640—49, 746ff., 759—75, 784, 797f., 800, 804.
- G303.9.9.7. G303.9.9.7. Trying all night to catch an animal (really devil). Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 777—783.
- G303.9.9.8. G303.9.9.8. Taking snuff with the devil. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 772, 785ff.
- G303.9.9.9. G303.9.9.9. Devil challenges boys to play a disc-game. Can be defeated only with rowan-sticks. (Cf. D950.9.) Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 653—658.

G303.9.9.10. G303.9.9.10. Exchanging things with the devil. The cheat appears later. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3302, Legends Nos. 437, 441, 559—77.

G303.9.9.11. G303.9.9.11. The devil as tailor to a dandy. The dandy demands clothes sewed without thread. The devil disguised as a tailor makes them. In church the dandy's clothes fall to pieces, leaving him naked. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 685ff.

G303.9.9.12. G303.9.9.12. Devil engages in horse race with man. U.S.: *Baughman.

G303.9.9.13. G303.9.9.13. Devil flies away with sentry box. England: Baughman.

G303.9.9.14. G303.9.9.14. Devil drinks church well dry at one draught. England: Baughman.

G303.9.9.15. G303.9.9.15. Devil stampedes horses of general. England: Baughman.

G303.9.9.16. G303.9.9.16. Devil takes place of girl man is embracing in private place. The man goes mad. England: Baughman.

G303.9.9.17. G303.9.9.17. Devil as crow misleads travelers, puts out their lights. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G303.9.9.18. G303.9.9.18. Devil moves seats in church. Scotland: Baughman.

G303.9.9.19. G303.9.9.19. Devil plays marbles in church. England: Baughman.

G303.9.9.20. G303.9.9.20. Satan entangles ram's horns on the altar. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.9.9.21. G303.9.9.21. Satan liberates caught deer. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.10. G303.10. Allies and possessions of the devil.

G303.10.1. G303.10.1. Cat as follower of the devil. Fb IV 99a.

G303.10.2. G303.10.2. Toad as follower of the devil. Fb. IV 99a.

G303.10.3. G303.10.3. Snake as follower of the devil. Fb IV 99a.

G303.10.4. G303.10.4. Dancers as followers of the devil. (Cf. G303.6.2.1.)

G303.10.4.0.1. G303.10.4.0.1. Devil haunts dance halls. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

G303.10.4.1. G303.10.4.1. Devil dances with a maid until she dies. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 10 No. 81; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3251, Legends Nos. 347, 353f.

G303.10.4.2. G303.10.4.2. Two devils come to a dance-loving maid and play when she bathes. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 10 No. 82.

G303.10.4.3. G303.10.4.3. Devil teaches a dance-loving maid to dance. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 10 No. 83.

G303.10.4.4. G303.10.4.4. Devil appears to girl who wants an escort for a dance.

French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

G303.10.4.5. G303.10.4.5. Devil dances with maid and puts his claws through her hands. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

G303.10.5. G303.10.5. Where the devil can't reach, he sends an old woman. (Cf. K1085.) *Type 1353; Wesselski Märchen 196.

G303.10.6. G303.10.6. Devil in league with a freemason. *Hdwb. d. Aberggl. III 32; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 13 No. 117; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3422, Legends Nos. 821ff.

G303.10.7. G303.10.7. Devil gives luck with fishing and hunting. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 11 No. 91.

G303.10.8. G303.10.8. Horses are offspring of the devil. One cannot trust them. Dh I 239; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 135, 153—159.

G303.10.9. G303.10.9. An all-red, all-black, or all-white calf the property of the devil. Dh I 188.

G303.10.10. G303.10.10. Lizards are offspring of the devil. Dh I 198.

G303.10.11. G303.10.11. The spurge-laurel is the devil's bush. Dh I 200.

G303.10.12. G303.10.12. The devil owns the reeds. Dh I 187.

G303.10.13. G303.10.13. Thistles and nettles are the devil's vegetables. Dh I 187.

G303.10.14. G303.10.14. The bagpipe is the devil's bellows. Dh I 189.

G303.10.15. G303.10.15. Devil has a hound. Irish myth: Cross.

G303.10.16. G303.10.16. Devil has a servant. Irish myth: Cross.

G303.10.17. G303.10.17. Bird as messenger of devil. U.S.: Baughman.

G303.10.18. G303.10.18. Angels of Satan. Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.10.19. G303.10.19. Devil's well. Argentina: Jijena Sanchez 112.

G303.11. G303.11. The relatives of the devil. Irish myth: Cross.

G303.11.1. G303.11.1. The devil's wife.

G303.11.1.1. G303.11.1.1. The devil's son is with his mother at night in his father's place. Type 1720*.

G303.11.2. G303.11.2. The devil's son. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 35, Beal XXI 312f.

G303.11.2.1. G303.11.2.1. The devil and his son fight over division of the earth. Dh I 135.

G303.11.2.2. G303.11.2.2. The devil's children and grandchildren do his work for him. India: Thompson-Balys.

G303.11.3. G303.11.3. The devil's mother. Irish: Cross, O'Suilleabhain 92, Beal XXI 330.

G303.11.3.1. G303.11.3.1. Devil's mother rides a goat. Fb I 268, 439.

G303.11.4. G303.11.4. The devil's grandmother. Lehmann Dania VIII 179ff.

G303.11.4.1. G303.11.4.1. Devil's grandmother keeps house for devil. Is an old wrinkled woman with red eyes who locks up hell. Fb I 268a; Japanese: Ikeda.

G303.11.4.2. G303.11.4.2. Devil's grandmother is bleaching when it snows. Fb I 268a.

G303.11.5. G303.11.5. The devil's daughter. Irish myth: Cross.

G303.11.5.1. G303.11.5.1. The devil and his nine daughters. Irish myth: Cross.

G303.12. G303.12. Marital experiences of the devil. (Cf. H1153, K216.1, K2325, T251.1.1.) Irish: Beal XXI 330; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. 91—93; Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.12.1. G303.12.1. Devil woos an innkeeper's daughter. Wünsche Teufel 33.

G303.12.2. G303.12.2. Devil marries a widow who maltreats him. Wünsche Teufel 62f.

G303.12.3. G303.12.3. Devil marries old maid who proves to be a termagant and a miser. Wünsche Teufel 62.

G303.12.4. G303.12.4. Devil visits woman and founds a family. (Cf. G303.11.) Irish myth: Cross.

G303.12.5. G303.12.5. Devil marries girl.

G303.12.5.1. G303.12.5.1. Girl married to a devil. Despairing of ever finding herself a husband, the old maid exclaims: "I would marry even the devil, were he to marry me." The devil takes her at her word. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3253, Legends Nos. 367ff.

G303.12.5.2. G303.12.5.2. Devil marries disdainful girl; she escapes. U.S.: *Baughman.

G303.12.5.3. G303.12.5.3. Devil marries girl whose rich mother refuses to let her marry common young men of community. U.S.: Baughman.

G303.12.5.4. G303.12.5.4. Devil woos woman; she discovers identity in time to escape with aid of minister who swallows candle after getting devil to promise she could live as long as the candle lasted. (Cf. K551.9.) Scotland: Baughman.

G303.12.5.5. G303.12.5.5. Girl married to devil escapes with answers to his riddles. Type 812; U.S.: Baughman.

G303.12.5.6. G303.12.5.6. Girl wooed by devil is saved by magic herb she wears. (Cf. D1386.2.) U.S.: Baughman.

G303.12.5.7. G303.12.5.7. Devil takes form of girl's lover and takes advantage of her. She meets lover on way home, learns what has happened, dies. England: Baughman.

G303.12.6. G303.12.6. Devil in guise of woman woos man. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

G303.12.6.1. G303.12.6.1. Man marries a she-devil He catches her as succubus and marries. Some years later his wife's brothers invite them to a feast (wedding) and he gets gifts or wife's dowry. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *424.

G303.12.7. G303.12.7. Devil's sexual relations with mortals. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.12.7.1. G303.12.7.1. Satan's sexual intercourse with Eve. Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.13. G303.13. The stupid devil. Missouri French: Carrière; Wünsche Teufel; Danielsson Djävulgestalten i Finlands svenska Folkstro (Helsingfors, 1930) 35; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 82—84, 201; Jewish: Neuman.

G303.13.1. G303.13.1. Devils do not know or understand thoughts of men. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 329 No. 50.

G303.13.2. G303.13.2. Devil works backward. Begins building at top of house. Wünsche Teufel 52.

G303.13.3. G303.13.3. Devil tries to wall in too large a piece of ground in a night and fails. Wünsche Teufel 70.

G303.13.4. G303.13.4. The devil tries to learn a trade; he fails miserably at all but versmaking. He now loiters in alehouses, sings songs. Scotland: Baughman.

G303.13.5. G303.13.5. Simple-minded devil indicates how he can be driven away. (Cf. G303.16.) India: Thompson-Balys.

G303.14. G303.14. Devil's unfinished work cannot be completed by human hands. One stone missing in church, etc. Wünsche Teufel 37f., 47, 51—56.

G303.14.1. G303.14.1. The devil destroys by night what is built by day. Wünsche Teufel 30; French: Sébillot France IV 46; Canada, England, Scotland: *Baughman.

G303.14.1.1. G303.14.1.1. Devil destroys Adam's work by night. Dh I 238.

G303.14.2. G303.14.2. Devil builds bridge except for one stone. No one dares to add the final stone. England: Baughman.

G303.15. G303.15. Places haunted by the devil. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3440, Legends Nos. 833—850.

G303.15.1. G303.15.1. Devil haunts premises about to be visited by calamity. Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 292.

G303.15.2. G303.15.2. Granary now haunted because of devil's defeat. Wünsche Teufel 53f.

G303.15.3. G303.15.3. Devil haunts a house. Finally is exorcised. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 711—718.

G303.15.4. G303.15.4. Devils haunt tree. (Cf. G312.3.)

G303.15.4.1. G303.15.4.1. Particular species of tree abode of devils. India: Thompson-Balys.

G303.15.5. G303.15.5. Ruins of a palace haunted by Satan. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.15.6. G303.15.6. Satan appears at a feast where the poor are absent. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.16. G303.16. How the devil's power may be escaped or avoided. Irish myth: *Cross; Finnish-Swedish: Danielsson 112.

G303.16.1. G303.16.1. By the help of the Virgin Mary the devil may be escaped. Scala Celi 111a, 119a, 120b Nos. 617, 657, 659; Irish: *Cross; O'Suilleabhain 41, Beal XXI 315; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

G303.16.2. G303.16.2. Devil's power over one avoided by prayer. Fb I 267a; Scala Celi 132b, 137a, 149b Nos. 729, 764, 765, 823; Alphabet No. 591; Wunsche Teufel 44, 102; Irish myth: Cross; England: Baughman, Hunt Popular Romances 224; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 14 No. 126; French: Sébillot France IV 126; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.16.2.1. G303.16.2.1. Devil cannot take one who has read the Pater Noster. Fb I 266b, 267a.

G303.16.2.1.1. G303.16.2.1.1. Devil cannot enter person who is thinking of God. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

G303.16.2.2. G303.16.2.2. Person saved from devil by prayer to Virgin. Scala Celi 122b, 124a, 134b Nos. 673, 677, 742; Köhler-Bolte II 613ff.

G303.16.2.3. G303.16.2.3. Devil's power avoided by blessing.

G303.16.2.3.1. G303.16.2.3.1. Man escapes devils by reading Lord's blessing. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 9 No. 74.

G303.16.2.3.2. G303.16.2.3.2. Devil flees at pope's blessing. Dh I 175.

G303.16.2.3.3. G303.16.2.3.3. Devils disappear when priest blesses bread. Scala Celi 67a No. 370; Irish: Beal XXI 314, O'Suilleabhain 38.

G303.16.2.3.4. G303.16.2.3.4. A nun eating unblessed lettuce eats a demon. Gregory the Great Dialogues Bk I Ch. 4 (tr. Edmund Gardner, London, 1911) 17; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 22; Alphabet No. 108; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

G303.16.2.3.5. G303.16.2.3.5. Blessing reveals seemingly pure stream to be devil's trap which kills whoever drinks from it. Irish myth: Cross.

G303.16.2.4. G303.16.2.4. Devils driven away by hymn (psalm). Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: Neuman.

G303.16.2.5. G303.16.2.5. Demon cannot hurt holy man or woman. India: Thompson-Balys.

G303.16.3. G303.16.3. Devil's power avoided by the cross. U.S.: Baughman.

G303.16.3.1. G303.16.3.1. Devils driven away by cross. Scala Celi Nos. 367, 392.

G303.16.3.2. G303.16.3.2. Devil cannot endure cross made by straps of knapsack. Type 1166*; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1168; Russian: Andrejev No. 1166; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV No. 1166*.

G303.16.3.3. G303.16.3.3. Devils put to flight by cross made of leaves. Scala Celi No. 391.

G303.16.3.4. G303.16.3.4. Devil made to disappear by making sign of the cross. Dh I 48; Scala Celi 13a, 45a, 45b, 66b, 67a, 67b, 70b, 77b Nos 77, 256, 257, 368, 369, 371, 372, 393, 394, 442; Pauli (ed. Bolte) 90; Crane Vitry 189 No. 131, 246 No. 263; Alphabet No. 64.—Irish: O'Suilleabhain 92, Beal XXI 330; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 642—645, 648, 650, 776, 786, 800, 825; French: Sébillot France I 160, II 403, IV 12; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Argentina: Jijena Sanchez 103; West Indies: Flowers 450.

G303.16.3.5. G303.16.3.5. Knight dismisses devil in name of cross. Scala Celi 127b No. 696; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 93.

G303.16.3.6. G303.16.3.6. Devil made visible by making sign of cross. Irish myth: *Cross.

G303.16.4. G303.16.4. Words of religious comfort cause devil and his crew to vanish. England: Baughman, Hunt Popular Romances 218; Jewish: Neuman.

G303.16.5. G303.16.5. Administering sacrament destroys devil's power.

G303.16.5.1. G303.16.5.1. Chaplain administers sacrament and saves woman's soul from devil. Wünsche Teufel 37.

G303.16.5.2. G303.16.5.2. Devil disappears when offered host. Scala Celi 64b No. 353; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

G303.16.6. G303.16.6. Man is rescued from devil by baptism. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 14 No. 131.

G303.16.7. G303.16.7. Devil is chased by holy water. Type 756B; Andrejev FFC LXIX 103; Irish: Cross, Beal XXI 313—315, 322, O'Suilleabhain 35, 38, 40, 56; Wales, U.S.: Baughman; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 82 No. 676; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 639, 708, 715; French: Sébillot France IV 126; West Indies: Flowers 450.

G303.16.8. G303.16.8. Devil leaves at mention of God's name. England, Ireland, Wales, U.S.: Baughman; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 651, 774f., 780, 814; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 95 No. *817, Keller; Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.16.9. G303.16.9. Devil is made impotent by confession. Scala Celi 42a—46b Nos. 239, 241, 243, 245, 246, 249, 255, 260.

G303.16.10. G303.16.10. Angels save person from the devil. Scala Celi 45a, 84a Nos. 253, 479, 660; Alphabet No. 178; Wünsche Teufel 42.

G303.16.11. G303.16.11. Various holy persons save one from devil.

G303.16.11.1. G303.16.11.1. Devil is driven out of a man by Peter. Dh I 170.

- G303.16.11.2. G303.16.11.2. Devil prevented from revenge by pious priest. Wünsche Teufel 45.
- G303.16.11.3. G303.16.11.3. Person chases the devil away. Devil says, "You also have stolen once." Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 40 No. 30; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 119 No. 30; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 706, 715.
- G303.16.11.4. G303.16.11.4. Saint expels devil to hell. Nouvelles de Sens No. 5; Irish myth: Cross.
- G303.16.11.5. G303.16.11.5. Saint's dispute with devil. *Loomis White Magic 76.
- G303.16.12. G303.16.12. Ringing of churchbell causes devil to lose his power. Wünsche Teufel 40, 42, 43f.
- G303.16.13. G303.16.13. Devil may be escaped by going to church every day. Fb I 267a.
- G303.16.14. G303.16.14. The devil exorcised. Alphabet No. 595; Wünsche Teufel 104f., 106f.; Fb I 267a; Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 315; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 14 No. 132, 15 Nos. 133, 134; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1169; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 328 No. 28; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- G303.16.14.1. G303.16.14.1. Priest chases devil away. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.
- G303.16.14.1.1. G303.16.14.1.1. Priest separates girl from devil's claws. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.
- G303.16.14.2. G303.16.14.2. Devil chased by the fumes of burning arsenic. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- G303.16.14.2.1. G303.16.14.2.1. Devil exorcised by burning wood. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 39.
- G303.16.14.3. G303.16.14.3. Devil overpowered or chased with a stick of rowan-tree. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 653f., 657f., 671f., 799.
- G303.16.14.3.1. G303.16.14.3.1. Why the devil fears the rowan-tree. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3346.
- G303.16.14.4. G303.16.14.4. The devil is exorcised with bell, book, and candle. U.S.: Baughman.
- G303.16.14.5. G303.16.14.5. Devil avoids cockscomb flowers. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G303.16.15. G303.16.15. Devils leave hermit who turns other cheek when struck. Scala Celi No. 795.
- G303.16.16. G303.16.16. Devil is cheated of his reward when priest dismisses mass early. Wünsche Teufel 84.
- G303.16.17. G303.16.17. Devil cannot enter a house with horseshoe over door. Fb I 267a; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 650; Japanese: Ikeda.

G303.16.18. G303.16.18. One must not whistle after sunset, else the devil will go along with one. Fb I 267b.

G303.16.18.1. G303.16.18.1. Christians are prohibited from whistling in dark lest the devil appear. Sébillot France I 159.

G303.16.19. G303.16.19. Miscellaneous ways in which the devil may be escaped or his power destroyed. England, Ireland, U.S.: Baughman.

G303.16.19.1. G303.16.19.1. Man secure from devil on horse. Scotch: Campbell Superstitions of the Highlands and Islands of Scotland (Glasgow 1900) 293.

G303.16.19.2. G303.16.19.2. Devil goes with one if one spits on old castaway brooms. Fb I 267b.

G303.16.19.3. G303.16.19.3. One is freed if he can set a task the devil cannot perform. Fb I 267a; Wesselski Niederdeutsche Zeitschrift für Volkskunde X 1ff.; England: *Baughman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

G303.16.19.3.1. G303.16.19.3.1. Task for devil: sweeping and winnowing peas on ice. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1177.

G303.16.19.3.2. G303.16.19.3.2. Task for devil: making needles. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1188.

G303.16.19.3.3. G303.16.19.3.3. Task for devil: washing a Jew (Jewess), to rid him (her) of the evil smell. (Cf. A1662.1.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1187.

G303.16.19.4. G303.16.19.4. Devil (Satan) flees when cock is made to crow. (Cf. G303.17.1.1.) U.S.: Baughman; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 811; French: Sébillot France IV 126; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 218f. No. 168.

G303.16.19.4.1. G303.16.19.4.1. Man imitates cock crowing: devil is deceived. Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 343.

G303.16.19.5. G303.16.19.5. Demon has to serve girl whom he cannot persuade to break vow of chastity. (Cf. D1714.) Scala Celi 154b 854.

G303.16.19.6. G303.16.19.6. Man protected from devil by holding three-year old child through night. Wünsche Teufel 36f.

G303.16.19.7. G303.16.19.7. Devil comes out of man when monk recognizes devil's voice in man. Scala Celi 25b No. 168; Alphabet No. 123.

G303.16.19.8. G303.16.19.8. Knight saved from devil by friends. Scala Celi 135b No. 752.

G303.16.19.9. G303.16.19.9. Devil becomes powerless when called by name. Wünsche Teufel 119; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 641, 647, 768, 779, 809.

G303.16.19.10. G303.16.19.10. Devil exorcised at time of Christ's Nativity. Irish myth: Cross.

G303.16.19.11. G303.16.19.11. Devil frustrated by charity. Irish myth: Cross.

G303.16.19.12. G303.16.19.12. Devil can't approach Christian girl. Nouvelles de Sens No. 5.

G303.16.19.13. G303.16.19.13. Devil cannot follow man over running water. (Cf. F383.2, G273.4.) England, Ireland: *Baughman.

G303.16.19.14. G303.16.19.14. Devil escaped by injuring him with silver bullet. (Cf. D1384.5.) U.S.: Baughman.

G303.16.19.15. G303.16.19.15. Devil cannot enter magic circle made to keep him out. (Cf. D1381.11.) Scotland, Wales: *Baughman.

G303.16.19.16. G303.16.19.16. Devil can be driven away by sacrifice. Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Bays.

G303.16.19.17. G303.16.19.17. Devil disappears because he is frightened.

G303.16.19.17.1. G303.16.19.17.1. Devil frightened by a woman. India: *Thompson-Balys.

G303.16.19.18. G303.16.19.18. Catching the devil. The devil is caught with the help of a sacred article (rosary, scapular) or some other thing (band for binding breeches, a switch of the rowan-tree). Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3345, Legends Nos. 665—668, 677.

G303.16.19.19. G303.16.19.19. Beating the devil. One must give him an odd number of strokes. Devil asks for one stroke more. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 657f., 773, 795.

G303.16.19.20. G303.16.19.20. Devil is killed by hunter. A slake of tar remains. Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 796; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

G303.17. G303.17. The devil's disappearance from the world.

G303.17.1. G303.17.1. When the devil disappears.

G303.17.1.1. G303.17.1.1. Devil disappears when cock crows. (Cf. G303.16.19.4.) Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 294 U.S.: Baughman; German: Grimm No. 121, 195, Penzer I 77, IX 143; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos. 3252, Legends Nos. 344ff., 353—357, 359f., 363, 493, 495, 593, 690, 696ff., 737f., 759, 761, 763, 772, 812, 822, 829, 856; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

G303.17.1.2. G303.17.1.2. Devil rebels and disappears on last day. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.17.1.3. G303.17.1.3. Devil disappears after erection of Tabernacle. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.17.2. G303.17.2. Physical circumstances of devil's disappearance.

G303.17.2.1. G303.17.2.1. Devil detected, goes up chimney in smoke. Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 292.

G303.17.2.2. G303.17.2.2. Devil disappears in a whirlpool. Wünsche Teufel 31f.

G303.17.2.3. G303.17.2.3. Devil goes out through stove with great noise. Finnish: FFC XXXIII 41 No. 45; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 123 No. 45.

- G303.17.2.4. G303.17.2.4. Devil and sinful priest disappear amid blaze of fire in the river. England: Baughman.
- G303.17.2.5. G303.17.2.5. Devil retreats into hell amid thunder and lightning. Wunsche Teufel 32f.
- G303.17.2.6. G303.17.2.6. Devil disappears in a puddle. Wunsche Teufel 60.
- G303.17.2.7. G303.17.2.7. Devil disappears amid terrible rattle. Zs. f. Vksk. IV 294.
- G303.17.2.8. G303.17.2.8. Devil disappears amid terrible stench. (Cf. G303.4.8.1.) Wunsche Teufel 49f., 51f., 61f.
- G303.17.2.9. G303.17.2.9. Devil disappears in carriage drawn by four black horses. Wunsche Teufel 60.
- G303.17.3. G303.17.3. Why the devil has disappeared from the world.
- G303.17.3.1. G303.17.3.1. The devil dies of a nosebleed resulting from overheating. Wunsche Teufel 84f.
- G303.17.3.2. G303.17.3.2. The devil dies when he is fastened in hell's door by his beard. German: Henne-Am Rhyn (1874) 276f.
- G303.17.3.3. G303.17.3.3. Wolf eats the devil; therefore, devil no longer lives in the world. Dh I 153.
- G303.17.3.4. G303.17.3.4. Devil has not been seen since he created the bramble. Dh I 170.
- G303.17.3.5. G303.17.3.5. Satan punished in hell fire. Jewish: Neuman.
- G303.18. G303.18. Devil enters body of another. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- G303.18.0.1. G303.18.0.1. When devil leaves dead sinner's body, only bones remain. Irish myth: Cross.
- G303.18.1. G303.18.1. Devil enters body of dead boy. Scala Celi 67a No. 369; India: Thompson-Balys.
- G303.18.2. G303.18.2. Devil in place of dead man in shroud (in dead man's skin). Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 42 No. 49.
- G303.18.3. G303.18.3. Devil blows skin off man who belongs to him and goes in the skin. Fb I 267a; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3365, Legends Nos. 693—697, 700.
- G303.18.4. G303.18.4. Satan enters the Golden Calf. Jewish: Neuman.
- G303.19. G303.19. The devil takes the hindmost. (Cf. F1038.2.) England: Baughman.
- G303.19.1. G303.19.1. The last belongs to the devil. BP III 14; Fb III 196b; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 327 No. 37.
- G303.19.2. G303.19.2. Farmer has devil aid in reaping contest, loses his shadow when devil attempts to take hindmost. (Cf. K42.) Scotland: Baughman.

G303.20. G303.20. Ways in which the devil kills people.

G303.20.1. G303.20.1. Devil kills man with fiery sword. Scala Celi No. 662.

G303.20.2. G303.20.2. Devil destroys hunting party with terrible wind. Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 301f.

G303.20.3. G303.20.3. Devil strikes man dead with iron bar. Two men are fighting and devil thus kills one of them. Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 122 No. 44.

G303.20.4. G303.20.4. Devil strikes man dead with disease. Irish myth: Cross.

G303.20.5. G303.20.5. The devil unpeels a bold woman's skin. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3257, Legends Nos. 378—387.

G303.20.6. G303.20.6. Devil as black dog kills people. (Cf. G303.3.3.1.1.) England, Scotland: *Baughman.

G303.20.7. G303.20.7. Satan swallows victim. Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.20.8. G303.20.8. Satan injures man. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.20.9. G303.20.9. Satan slays the first born of the Egyptians. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.21. G303.21. The devil's money.

G303.21.1. G303.21.1. Devil's money becomes ashes. Fb I 803f.; U.S.: Baughman; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 426, 428, 432f., 444, 447, 449—53, 577, 736.

G303.21.2. G303.21.2. Devil's money becomes manure. U.S.: Baughman.

G303.21.3. G303.21.3. The devil's money is hot. U.S.: *Baughman.

G303.22. G303.22. The devil helps people. Irish myth: Cross; West Indies: Flowers 451; Jewish: Neuman.

G303.22.1. G303.22.1. Devil repays a kindness: returns coat lent him and brings the one who had shown him kindness back home when imprisoned. German: Henne-Am Rhyn (1874) 278.

G303.22.2. G303.22.2. Magician recovers lost object with devil's help. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 11 No. 89.

G303.22.3. G303.22.3. Student is helped by devil when he can answer three questions in rhyme. (Cf. H543.) Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 11 No. 92.

G303.22.4. G303.22.4. Devil helps man place cart wheel when it becomes unfastened. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 11 No. 93.

G303.22.5. G303.22.5. Devil exhibits benevolence to impious people (to people who make an alliance with him: gives them riches, helps them in need). (Cf. M212.) U.S.: Baughman; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 12 No. 96.

G303.22.6. G303.22.6. Devil helps person to steal. When thief blesses himself he is forsaken by the devil. (Cf. K365.) Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 12 No. 98.

G303.22.7. G303.22.7. Devil helps ugly man win wife. Wünsche Teufel 104f.

G303.22.8. G303.22.8. Devil helps journeyman win wager with master. Wünsche Teufel 36.

G303.22.9. G303.22.9. Devil comes and works with man who continues to work after night. French: Sébillot France I 160.

G303.22.10. G303.22.10. Devil serves knight faithfully. Devil saves his life and that of his wife. Wesselski Märchen 242 No. 53.

G303.22.11. G303.22.11. Devil as advocate of falsely condemned men. Carries off the judge. *Type 821; BP II 566.

G303.22.12. G303.22.12. Devil promises help to mistreated apprentice if youth will meet him by night in lonely spot. Scotch: Campbell Superstitions 293.

G303.22.13. G303.22.13. Devil saves heretic from fire, until priest brings host. Scala Celi 65a No. 355.

G303.22.14. G303.22.14. Devil as helper in battle. Lithuanian: Balys Historical.

G303.23. G303.23. The devil and the ark. Jewish: *Neuman.

G303.23.1. G303.23.1. Devil gets into the ark by hiding in shadow of Noah's wife. Dh I 268.

G303.24. G303.24. The devil in church.

G303.24.1. G303.24.1. Devil accuses congregation of sins.

G303.24.1.1. G303.24.1.1. Devil shows priest long parchment roll of sins of congregation. Scala Celi 44a No. 249; Crane Vitry 233 No. 239.

G303.24.1.2. G303.24.1.2. Devil writes faults of man on goat skin. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 306 No. 19.

G303.24.1.3. G303.24.1.3. Devil writes down names of men on a hide in church. Woman laughs when she sees him. Finnish: FFC XXXIII 44 No. 59; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 427; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 126 No. 59; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

G303.24.1.4. G303.24.1.4. Devil stands in church door and writes down names of his own people on a sheepskin. Fb I 266b.

G303.24.1.5. G303.24.1.5. Devil in church fills his sack with dissolute songs. Scala Celi 25a No. 165; Alphabet No. 122.

G303.24.1.6. G303.24.1.6. Devil writes down all idle words spoken in church. His parchment is not long enough and he has to stretch it. Crane Vitry 233 No. 239.

G303.24.1.7. G303.24.1.7. Devil writes names of those who sleep in church. Fb I 266b; Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 11 No. 85.

G303.24.1.7.1. G303.24.1.7.1. Devil disturbs people in the church. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 440, 447.

G303.24.1.7.2. G303.24.1.7.2. Devil writes down names of those who look backwards in church. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

G303.24.1.8. G303.24.1.8. Devil writes down names of those who whisper in church. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

G303.24.1.9. G303.24.1.9. The devil has two books—one book small for sins of clerics, erased by confession; the other large for unconfessed sins of lay folks. Irish myth: *Cross (G303.24.1.11).

G303.24.2. G303.24.2. Devils worship host. (Cf. G303.16.5.) Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 49; Scala Celi 3a No. 5; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

G303.24.3. G303.24.3. Devil vexing friars caused to repent by singing "Te sanctum dominum". Scala Celi 3a No. 5.

G303.24.4. G303.24.4. Devil destroys church steeple. England: Baughman.

G303.24.5. G303.24.5. Devil as dog chews up Bibles, hymnbooks, church accounts in church. Wales: Baughman.

G303.25. G303.25. Miscellaneous devil motifs.

G303.25.1. G303.25.1. Wolf is the devil's craftiest enemy. Dh I 152.

G303.25.2. G303.25.2. Devils fear St. Isaac. Scala Celi 135b No. 592.

G303.25.3. G303.25.3. Devil likes negligence in men more than anything else. Scala Celi No. 752.

G303.25.4. G303.25.4. Devil cooks folk in kettle. Fb I 267a.

G303.25.5. G303.25.5. Devil's chair in hell made from thrown-away nail parings. Olrik Ragnarök (tr. Ranisch) 73f., No. 1.

G303.25.5.1. G303.25.5.1. From the parings of man's nails devils make little caps for themselves. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3305.

G303.25.6. G303.25.6. Old woman gives chickens to devils. They do not accept them. She gives them to priests and they eat them. Scala Celi 161b No. 916.

G303.25.7. G303.25.7. Man shoots the devil with a silver gun. Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 42 No. 51; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 594ff., 796.

G303.25.7.1. G303.25.7.1. Devil shot with silver bullet. (Cf. D1385.4.) Lithuanian, Latvian, Livonian, Estonian, Ukrainian, Polish, Rumanian: *Balys Tautosakos Darbai VI 53—83.

G303.25.8. G303.25.8. Devil follows corpse when a lawyer is buried. Fb I 267a.

G303.25.8.1. G303.25.8.1. Devil follows corpse of a procurator. Fb I 267a.

G303.25.9. G303.25.9. Ship with devil aboard sinks. Fb III 243b.

G303.25.10. G303.25.10. Devil is blamed by monk for taking what does not belong to him. Devil denies accusation. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 366.

G303.25.11. G303.25.11. Devil takes place of woman who went to spend night with a priest. Wesselski Mönchslatein 189 No. 147.

G303.25.12. G303.25.12. A farmer who trades horses with the devil is cheated. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 16 No. 149.

G303.25.13. G303.25.13. Devil buys a woman's hair; the silver coin which he gives in payment is changed to a piece of wood and she dies. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 16 No. 148.

G303.25.14. G303.25.14. The food and drink of the devils.

G303.25.14.1. G303.25.14.1. Hideous food and drink at the night-spirits' (devils') feast. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 428, 434, 436, 440, 444, 451, 463ff.

G303.25.14.2. G303.25.14.2. Devil roasts a toad. Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 795.

G303.25.15. G303.25.15. The devil's animals.

G303.25.15.1. G303.25.15.1. Tailless fish as devil's hog. Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 807.

G303.25.16. G303.25.16. Possessions of the devil.

G303.25.16.1. G303.25.16.1. Devil's pipe, gun or music. Man is blinded and gets such as gift or exchange from devil. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 559—563, 569, 575, 590, 815.

G303.25.17. G303.25.17. The devils' dances and feasts.

G303.25.17.1. G303.25.17.1. Devil as gentleman invites a traveler to the feast (wedding). (Cf. G303.7.1.2.2.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3276, Legends Nos. 441, 448, 454, 458ff., 466.

G303.25.17.2. G303.25.17.2. A musician engaged to play for the night-spirits (devils) dances. Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos. 3276f., Legends Nos. 425—438, 443f., 446f., 449—453, 460.

G303.25.17.3. G303.25.17.3. Devils arrange a wedding feast for a woman who hanged herself. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3277, 3278, Legends Nos. 443—448, 450—459, 461f., 466.

G303.25.18. G303.25.18. Devil can touch man's body, not his soul. Jewish: Neuman.

G303.25.19. G303.25.19. Parliament of devils. Irish myth: Cross.

G304. G304. Troll as ogre. (For troll as underground spirit or mountain spirit see F455. For troll-woman see G200—G299, Witches.) E. Hartmann Die Trollvorstellungen in den Sagen und Märchen der skandinavischen Völker (Stuttgart, 1936); Norse: MacCulloch Eddic 285.

G304.1. G304.1. Appearance of troll (ogre). (Cf. F455.2.)

G304.1.1. G304.1.1. Troll in animal form.

G304.1.1.1. G304.1.1.1. Troll as fox. Fb "ræv" III 113a.

G304.1.1.2. G304.1.1.2. Troll as hare. Fb "hare" I 556.

G304.1.1.3. G304.1.1.3. Troll as goose. Fb "ges" I 528b.

G304.1.1.4. G304.1.1.4. Troll as crow. Fb "krage" II 285b.

G304.1.2. G304.1.2. Troll in form of object.

G304.1.2.1. G304.1.2.1. Troll in form of cloud. Fb "sky".

G304.1.2.2. G304.1.2.2. Troll in form of key. Fb "nögle" II 723.

G304.1.3. G304.1.3. Many-headed troll. Fb "hoved" I 654b, "troid" III 852b.

G304.2. G304.2. Characteristics of trolls.

G304.2.1. G304.2.1. Fire-producing troll.

G304.2.1.1. G304.2.1.1. Troll lights fingers. Fb "lys" 483b.

G304.2.1.2. G304.2.1.2. Troll stretches neck so long that fire comes from lips. Fb "hals" I 540.

G304.2.2. G304.2.2. Troll's food.

G304.2.2.1. G304.2.2.1. Troll's food gives men strength. Fb "mad" II 525a; *DF XLVI 66ff.

G304.2.3. G304.2.3. Special powers of troll.

G304.2.3.1. G304.2.3.1. Locks spring open for troll. Fb "les" II 523a.

G304.2.4. G304.2.4. Antipathies of trolls.

G304.2.4.1. G304.2.4.1. Trolls cannot endure churchbells. Fb "kirkeklokke" II 130b; Icelandic: Arnason Legends of Iceland (London, 1864) I 120, 124, Boberg; Swedish: Grimm Deutsche Mythologie II 798 n. 1; Finnish-Swedish: Landtman Finlands Svenska Folkdiktning VII 560.

G304.2.4.2. G304.2.4.2. Trolls afraid of bears. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 434—37.

G304.2.5. G304.2.5. Troll bursts when sun shines on him. Or he may become stone. *Fb "sol" III 356a; Icelandic: Arnason Icelandic Legends (London, 1864) I 122, Boberg.

G304.3. G304.3. Troll's possessions.

G304.3.1. G304.3.1. Troll's castle.

G304.3.1.1. G304.3.1.1. Golden door to troll's castle. Fb "guldport" I 514.

G304.3.2. G304.3.2. Troll's animals.

- G304.3.2.1. G304.3.2.1. Troll has team of mice. Fb "mus" II 631b.
- G304.3.2.2. G304.3.2.2. Troll drives two he-goats. *Fb "gjedebuk" I 440.
- G304.3.2.3. G304.3.2.3. Troll has bear in stable. *Fb "bjørn" IV 43a.
- G304.3.2.4. G304.3.2.4. Troll has hares in stable. *Fb "hare" I 556b.
- G305. G305. Earl king. Child-stealing ogre. (Cf. F321.5.) Type 367*.
- G306. G306. Rainbow as ogre. Africa: Werner African 236.
- G307. G307. Jinn. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G307.1. G307.1. Where jinn comes from.
- G307.1.1. G307.1.1. Jinn always appears out of strong wind. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G307.2. G307.2. Form of jinn.
- G307.2.1. G307.2.1. Jinn can take any human form he chooses. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G307.2.2. G307.2.2. Jinn unseen by anyone except person(s) he wishes should see him. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G307.3. G307.3. Jinn kills whoever tries to occupy house he has chosen to live in. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G307.4. G307.4. City infested by jinns deserted. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G308. G308. Sea monster. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Persian: Carnoy 325; Jewish: Neuman.
- G308.1. G308.1. Fight with sea (lake) monster. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.
- G308.2. G308.2. Water-monster. Irish myth: *Cross.
- G308.3. G308.3. Herds of sea monsters on surface of sea. Irish myth: Cross.
- G308.4. G308.4. Lake made dangerous by haunting serpent (dragon, péist). Irish myth: *Cross.
- G308.5. G308.5. Shark-man ogre, eater of children swimming. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 191; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 13/346).
- G308.6. G308.6. Lake monster has power to attract victims. Eskimo (Kodiak): Golder JAFL XXII 22.
- G308.7. G308.7. Clam shell invites man down into sea so he can be eaten. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 97.
- G308.8. G308.8. Monsters of the sea: two whales of human parentage. Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G 3/912).
- G308.9. G308.9. Demon-octopus. Tuamotu: Beckwith Myth 289; Marquesas: Handy

G310. G310. Ogres with characteristic methods.

G311. G311. Old man of the sea. Burr-woman. Ogre who jumps on one's back and sticks there magically. *Chauvin VII 23 No. 373E; Fb "ryg" III 103ab; *Basset 1001 Contes I 190; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 126 No. 58; Greek: Grote I 7; Eskimo (Central): Boas RBAE VI 626; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 330 n. 191e; Africa (Luba): DeClerq Zs. f. Kolonialsprachen IV 226.

G312. G312. Cannibal ogre. India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 109, 291, 1113, II 950; Mono-Alu: Wheeler 14, 21.

G312.1. G312.1. Pisaca. Drinks blood and eats human flesh. Eats corpses and makes living waste away. Hindu: Keith 98, 157.

G312.2. G312.2. Spirit-woman in rock devours men and cattle. India: Thompson-Balys.

G312.3. G312.3. Flesh-eating spirits live in trees. India: Thompson-Balys.

G312.4. G312.4. Man-eating ogre fries his victims in kettle of oil. India: Thompson-Balys.

G312.5. G312.5. Bhrat, fierce flesh-eating creatures made by Creator in fit of anger. India: Thompson-Balys.

G312.6. G312.6. Ogre eats only men's hearts. India: Thompson-Balys.

G312.7. G312.7. Ogress devours horses. India: Thompson-Balys.

G313. G313. Procrustes. Monster makes men fit his bed. Tall men sawed off, short men stretched. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 131 n. 2, Fox 99; Jewish: Neuman.

G314. G314. Pine bender. Kills victims by springing tree. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 124 n. 1, Fox 98.

G315. G315. Cycnus. Cuts off heads of strangers in order to build temple of heads. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 264 n. 1.

G316. G316. Giant robber with club. Icelandic: *Boberg; Greek: Fox 98 (labors of Theseus).

G317. G317. Wrestling ogre. Greek: Fox 87, 99.

G321. G321. Cliff-ogre. Kicks victims over cliff. Greek: Fox 99, Frazer Apollodorus II 129 n. 1; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 322 n. 163.

G321.1. G321.1. Pusher-into-hole. Africa: Werner African 214, (Hottentot): Bleek 78.

G321.2. G321.2. Ogress at a spot along the road takes toll of lives. India: Thompson-Balys.

G322. G322. Piercer-of-souls: fishes men. Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 250.

G322.1. G322.1. Giant fisherman. Draws in ships with his line. Scotch:

Campbell-McKay No. 17.

G323. G323. Brother-Dead. Trapper of game; silent; pursues trickster. Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 249 No. 27.

G327. G327. Swinging ogre. Girls who swing their lovers over pit, cut rope, and later devour them. Montaignais: Speck JAFL XXXVIII 15.

G328. G328. Rectum snakes. Snakes which creep into living man and devour him. *Fb "snog" III 436b; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 322 n. 161.

G328.1. G328.1. Serpent inside man's body eats all his food. India: *Thompson-Balys.

G331. G331. Pot-tilter. Ogre who tilts a pot so that victims are drawn into it. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 321 n. 157.

G332. G332. Sucking monster. Giant (sometimes a giant hall or cave) sucks in victims. Irish myth: *Cross; Siberia: Holmberg Siberian 387; India: Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 321 n. 158, (California): Gayton and Newman 72, cf. 95.

G332.1. G332.1. Ogre sucks victim's finger and drinks all his blood. Cosquin Contes indiens 369 n. 1; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 80.

G333. G333. Path between monsters. Scylla and Charybdis. Greek: Fox 137, 264; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 307 n. 113b.

G334. G334. Ogre keeps human prisoners.

G334.1. G334.1. Ogress has twenty captive princesses in cave. India: Thompson-Balys.

G335. G335. Ogre decapitates captive princess before he leaves palace; resuscitates her on return. India: *Thompson-Balys.

G336. G336. Ogre draws victims under water.

G336.1. G336.1. Demon drags beneath the water any person whose shadow falls on surface of water. India: Thompson-Balys.

G341. G341. Sharp-elbowed women. Kill with their elbows. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 327 n. 181.

G341.1. G341.1. Ogre with sharpened leg. S. A. Indian (Toba, Mataco, Shipaya, Warrau, Apinarje, Canella, Tukuna): Métraux MAFLS XL 74ff.

G342. G342. Demon with pointed head, red hair, and black face. India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

G345. G345. Man with fire moccasins. They set fire to surroundings. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 322 n. 164.

G345.1. G345.1. Ogress can make cold oven blaze by putting foot into it. India: Thompson-Balys.

G346. G346. Devastating monster. Lays waste to the land. *Types 301, 550; Irish: *Cross, MacCulloch Celtic 126, 148f.; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 102; Finnish: Kalevala rune 46; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 12; Greek: Fox 56; India: *Thompson-Balys.

G346.0.1. G346.0.1. Devastating monster which comes out of a hole in evening. India: Thompson-Balys.

G346.1. G346.1. Devastating monster mews like cat. Africa (Hausa): Mischlich 164ff No. 22, Frobenius Atlantis IX 277ff., 287ff. Nos. 74, 75.

G346.2. G346.2. Devastating demon. Kills and eats people. India: *Thompson-Balys.

G346.3. G346.3. Amphibious monster. Irish myth: Cross.

G346.3.1. G346.3.1. Amphibious tree-destroying monsters. Irish myth: Cross.

G346.4. G346.4. Evil spirit drinks water supply dry. India: Thompson-Balys.

G347. G347. Ogre: karumba kills hero by medicines. India: Thompson-Balys.

G350. G350. Animal ogres.

B15.7.2. Monster three-legged ass.

G351. G351. Domestic beast as ogre.

G351.1. G351.1. Dog as ogre. Irish myth: Cross; Tonga: Gifford 121, Beckwith Myth 342, 348.

G351.2. G351.2. Cat as ogre. Sucks blood. Kittredge Arthur and Garlagon 259 n. 2; Japanese: Mitford 245ff.

G351.3. G351.3. Ferocious sow. Greek: Fox 98.

G351.4. G351.4. Ogress in goat-form. India: Thompson-Balys.

G351.5. G351.5. Ogress in form of donkey. India: Thompson-Balys.

G352. G352. Wild beast as ogre.

G352.1. G352.1. Wolf as ogre. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 279, Snorra Edda Gylf. XII.

G352.2. G352.2. Wild boar as ogre. Cook Islands: Beckwith Myth 471.

G353. G353. Bird as ogre. Tuamotu: Beckwith Myth 261, Stimson MS (z-G. 3/1229); Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 493.

G353.1. G353.1. Cannibal bird as ogre. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 78.

G353.2. G353.2. Eagle as ogre. Fb "ørn" III 1183b; Icelandic: *Boberg.

G353.3. G353.3. Duck as ogre. Tonga: Gifford 104.

G354. G354. Reptile as ogre.

G354.1. G354.1. Snake as ogre. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges; India: *Thompson-Balys.

G354.1.1. G354.1.1. Demon in the shape of serpent guards forest where treasure tree grows. India: Thompson-Balys.

G354.2. G354.2. Crocodile as ogre. Africa (Fang): Trilles 158.

G354.3. G354.3. Lizard as ogre. Samoa: Beckwith Myth 128.

G360. G360. Ogres with monstrous features. Irish myth: *Cross.

G361. G361. Ogre monstrous as to head. (Cf. G369.4.) Irish myth: Cross.

G361.1. G361.1. Many-headed ogre. India: Thompson-Balys.

G361.1.1. G361.1.1. Two-headed ogre. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: Neuman; Africa (Fang): Einstein 149.

G361.1.1.1. G361.1.1.1. Monster with two horns, each having human head on it. Africa (Shangani): Bourhill and Drake 43ff. No. 5.

G361.1.2. G361.1.2. Three-headed ogre. Hindu: Keith 88; Africa (Fang): Einstein 149.

G361.1.3. G361.1.3. Six-headed ogre. Luzon (Tinguian): Cole 104.

G361.1.4. G361.1.4. Seven-headed ogre. Jewish: Neuman

G361.1.5. G361.1.5. Ten-headed ogre. Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 75.

G361.2. G361.2. Great head as ogre. Head detached from body pursues or flies about doing damage. N. A. Indian (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE XXXII 262, 291; S. A. Indian (Cavica, Tumupasa): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 448, (Araucanian): Alexander Lat. Am. 329.

G361.3. G361.3. Headless ogre. Penzer IX 88 n.

G362. G362. Ogre monstrous as to nose.

G362.1. G362.1. Noseless ogre. Eskimo: Alexander N. Am. 7.

G362.2. G362.2. Pug-nosed ogre. Eskimo: Alexander N. Am. 7.

G363. G363. Ogre monstrous as to mouth. Irish myth: Cross.

G363.1. G363.1. Ogre with flaming mouth. Irish myth: Cross.

G363.2. G363.2. Large tusks grown from ogre's mouth. Chinese: Graham.

G363.3. G363.3. Diamond-toothed ogre. India: Thompson-Balys.

G365. G365. Ogre monstrous as to feet.

G365.1. G365.1. Ogre with feet reversed. Penzer IX 160; S. A. Indian (Araucanian): Alexander Lat. Am. 327.

G365.2. G365.2. Ogress can extend leg or arm any distance. India: Thompson-Balys.

G366. G366. Ogre monstrous as to trunk.

G366.1. G366.1. Ogres who have no belly. S. A. Indian (Fuegian): Alexander Lat. Am. 340.

G367. G367. Ogre monstrous as to blood.

G367.1. G367.1. Blood of five ogres colored yellow, red, white, green, black. India: Thompson-Balys.

G369. G369. Monstrous ogres—miscellaneous.

G369.1. G369.1. Rakshasa. Dog or ape-shaped; red hair and eyes; mouth reaching from ear to ear; ears pointed like spears; shape-changers; cannibals; three heads, five feet, four eyes, no fingers, bear-neck, horns. Attack women. Hindu: Keith 98, Penzer X 277 s.v. "Rakshasas"; India: *Thompson-Balys.

G369.1.1. G369.1.1. Rakshasas have power of extending bodies eighty miles. India: Thompson-Balys.

G369.1.2. G369.1.2. Rakshasa can be defeated by hero who has rakshasi blood in his veins. India: Thompson-Balys.

G369.1.3. G369.1.3. Rakshasa eats many of the domestic animals each night. India: Thompson-Balys.

G369.1.4. G369.1.4. Rakshasa eats horse, dog, and child. Suspected Ranis ordered for execution. India: Thompson-Balys.

G369.1.5. G369.1.5. Man persecuted by a rakshasa in form of beautiful wench. India: Thompson-Balys.

G369.1.6. G369.1.6. Rakshasa hidden in deer's head swallows men. India: Thompson-Balys.

G369.1.7. G369.1.7. Rakshasa's mistress with her head severed lying in a pool of blood. India: Thompson-Balys.

G369.2. G369.2. Genie in form of smoke, taking shape with three wings, one on back. Chauvin V 262 No. 154.

G369.3. G369.3. Ogre without a shadow. Cowell Jataka V 18.

G369.4. G369.4. Ogre has head and tail of a cat. (Cf. G361.) Irish myth: Cross.

G369.5. G369.5. Ogre (demon) with long arm (demon hand) which is thrust down chimney (through door, etc.) Irish myth: *Cross.

G369.6. G369.6. One-breasted ogress. India: Thompson-Balys.

G369.7. G369.7. One-eyed demon. India: Thompson-Balys.

G370. G370. Ogres—miscellaneous.

G371. G371. Stone giants. (Stone coats.) N. A. Indian (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE

XXXII 178, 330, 344, 438, 682.

G371.1. G371.1. Ogre clothed in rock. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 79.

G372. G372. "Rain" as ogre in bull form. Gaster Oldest Stories 47; Africa (Bushman): Bleek and Lloyd 193.

G375. G375. Wonderful birds guarded by monster. India: Thompson-Balys.

G376. G376. Ogre in shape of small boy. India: Thompson-Balys.

G377. G377. Tupilac. Monster made of parts of corpses of animals and vivified. Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 151f., 201, 461, Holm 59, 69, Rasmussen III 290f., 295.

G400—G499.

G400—G499. Falling into ogre's power.

G400. G400. Person falls into ogre's power. *Types 311, 312.

G401. G401. Children wander into ogre's house. Types 327, 327; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 326 No. 1; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 48 No. 327E, Espinosa Jr. No. 81; West Indies: Flowers 453.

G401.1. G401.1. Mistake of elder leads two brothers to the home of ogre. Alu: Wheeler 50.

G402. G402. Pursuit of animal leads to ogre's house. India: *Thompson-Balys.

G402.1. G402.1. Pursuit of bird leads to ogre's house. Type 313; Africa (Kaffir): Theal 108.

G402.2. G402.2. Pursuit of mongoose leads to witch's house. India: Thompson-Balys.

G403. G403. Ogre in animal form lures victim into captivity. Hdwb. d. Märchens I 542b nn. 23—27; India: Thompson-Balys.

G405. G405. Man on hunt falls into ogre's (witch's) power. Type 303; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys.

G406. G406. Lost (marooned) person falls into ogre's power. Irish myth: *Cross.

G410. G410. Person betrayed into ogre's power. India: Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE XXXII 76 No. 1.

G411. G411. Person aids ogre and is captured. Africa (Zulu): Callaway 75, (Basuto): Jacottet 236 No. 34.

G412. G412. Children lured into ogre's house. Mono-Alu-Fauru: Wheeler 44f.; Eskimo (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 189, 311.

G412.1. G412.1. Ogre's gingerbread house lures child. *Type 327.

G413. G413. Ogre disguises voice to lure victim. Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 64 No. 10;

West Indies: Flowers 453.

G414. G414. Ogress invites boys to live in her house. India: Thompson-Balys.

G420. G420. Capture by ogre.

G421. G421. Ogre traps victim. Africa (Zulu): Callaway 6, (Basuto): Jacottet 258 No. 38.

G422. G422. Ogre imprisons victim. *Type 327; Oceanic (New Zealand, Mangaia, Rotuma): Dixon 62.

G422.1. G422.1. Ogre imprisons victim in drum. Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 62 No. 10, (Kaffir): Kidd 233 No. 4, (Yoruba): Ellis 261 No. 1.

G423. G423. Ball falling into water puts person into ogre's (witch's, water spirit's) power. *Type 440; BP I 226.

G424. G424. Bridal party will not pass over bridge for fear of water-demon. Fb "bro" IV 62a.

G426. G426. Ogre draws girl over waterfall. Eskimo (Kodiak): Golder JAFI XVI 26.

G440. G440. Ogre abducts person.

G441. G441. Ogre carries victim in bag (basket). *Type 327; Norwegian: Christiansen 43f. No. 327; India: Thompson-Balys; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen II 85; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 351 n. 268a, (California): Gayton and Newman 96; Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 66 No. 10, (Kaffir): Theal 120, 134, (Zulu): Callaway 75.

G442. G442. Child-stealing demon. Irish myth: Cross.

G442.1. G442.1. Ogre abducts new-born babe, keeping it captive for seven years. Irish myth: Cross.

G442.2. G442.2. Child watched throughout night as protection against child-stealing demon. Irish myth: Cross.

G450. G450. Falling into ogre's power—miscellaneous.

G451. G451. Following witch's fire into her power. *Type 303.

G452. G452. Youth takes service with ogre. Scottish: Campbell-McKay No. 25.

G455. G455. Falling into ogre's power through fascination with his daughter. (Cf. G530.2.) Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 13/152).

G461. G461. Youth promised to ogre visits ogre's home. *Types 313, 314, 313; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys.

G461.1. G461.1. Boy in ogre's house sees many human heads placed in rows: heads smile and weep. India: Thompson-Balys.

G462. G462. Person as servant in ogre's house. Types 314, 428; India: *Thompson-Balys.

G462.1. G462.1. Hero as giant's (ogre's) goatherd. Icelandic: *Boberg.

G463. G463. Ogre guesses correctly and gets princess. Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 5.

G464. G464. Ogre tyrannizes over fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

G465. G465. Ogre sets impossible tasks. *Type 313; Chinese: Graham; Africa (Benga): Nassau 215 No. 33.

G466. G466. Lousing as task set by ogre. *Type 480, Roberts 167f.; Greek: Frazer Pausanias V 269f.; Africa: Werner African 205.

G475. G475. Ogre attacks intruders.

G475.1. G475.1. Ogre attacks intruders in house in woods. *Type 301; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Japanese: Ikeda; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 34, 433; Borneo: *Dixon 188 n. 6.

G475.2. G475.2. Ogre attacks intruders on bridge. *Type 301.

G476. G476. Ugly ogre terrifies women who flee and are drowned. Irish myth: *Cross.

G477. G477. Ogre kills men and rapes women. Icelandic: *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

G478. G478. Ogre kills noisy children. Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 47; Koryak: Jochelson JE VI 191.

G500—G599.

G500—G599. Ogre defeated.

G500. G500. Ogre defeated. Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Eskimo (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 86; N. A. Indian (Zuci): Benedict 341.

G501. G501. Stupid ogre. *Types 311, 312, 327, 328, 330, 1000—1199; Wünsche Teufel; Gaster Thespis 328; Hackman Die Polyphemsage; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 277, Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "diable"; Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 3; India: *Thompson-Balys, Penzer III 33 N. 3, 34 n.; Chinese: Werner 211; Filipino: Fansler MAFLS XII 51, 376; German New Guinea: Dixon 133ff.; N. A. Indian: Thompson Tales 351f. nn. 268, 268a, 270a, 270b, 271, 271b, (Kaska): Teit JAFL XXX 445, (California): Gayton and Newman 69. For incidents connected with the stupid ogre see G500—G599, besides the many cases of deception scattered throughout chapter K.

G510. G510. Ogre killed, maimed, or captured. India: Thompson-Balys.

G510.1. G510.1. Defeated giant gives his daughter to victor. (Cf. G512.0.3.) India: Thompson-Balys.

G510.2. G510.2. Secrets forced from overpowered monster. (Cf. G515.) India: Thompson-Balys.

G510.3. G510.3. Defeated giant becomes friend and helper of victor. India: Thompson-Balys.

G510.4. G510.4. Hero overcomes devastating animal. Icelandic: Þiðriks saga II 125ff., 135—38; India: Thompson-Balys.

G510.5. G510.5. Ogress with knife tail defeated by hunter. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen II 160, III 151, Rink 160.

G511. G511. Ogre blinded. Hackman die Polyphemsage; Gaster Thespis 334; Icelandic: *Boberg.

G511.1. G511.1. One-eyed giant (ogre) blinded (and killed) by arrow. Irish myth: Cross.

G512. G512. Ogre killed. *Type 328; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 59 No. 140; India: *Thompson-Balys; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 13/249); Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 107, 138; West Indies: Flowers 454.

G512.0.1. G512.0.1. Hero kills trouble-making evil strong men. India: Thompson-Balys.

G512.0.2. G512.0.2. Ogre's daughter killed together with her father. Icelandic: Hálfðanar saga XVII 1, XVIII 7, Boberg.

G512.0.3. G512.0.3. Hero killing an ogress gains her adopted daughter for his wife. (Cf. G510.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.

G512.1. G512.1. Ogre killed with knife (sword). Type 327; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

G512.1.1. G512.1.1. Giant killed with magic knife. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s. v. "géant".

G512.1.2. G512.1.2. Ogre decapitated. India: Thompson-Balys.

G512.1.2.1. G512.1.2.1. Ogre's head and hands cut off and hung above city gate. India: Thompson-Balys.

G512.2. G512.2. Ogre stoned to death. English: Wells 117 (Sir Torrent of Portyngale).

G512.3. G512.3. Ogre burned to death. Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 81; India: Thompson-Balys; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 141, 195, 445; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 353 n. 274, (California): Gayton and Newman 70; Africa (Fang): Trilles 253, (Duala): Lederbogen Fables 57.

G512.3.1. G512.3.1. Ogre killed by throwing hot stones (metal) into his throat. Oceanic (New Zealand, Tahiti, Hawaii, Melanesia, Indonesia, New Guinea, Polynesia): Dixon 61, 63, 69, 86, 133 n. 6; Maori: Beckwith Myth 196; Tahiti: ibid. 197 n. 21 and ch. 13 passim; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 324 n. 167, 353 n. 274, (California): Gayton and Newman 70; Africa (Congo): Weeks 203 No. 1, (Fang): Tessman 150, (Boloki): Weeks Congo 203.

G512.3.2. G512.3.2. Ogre burned in his own oven. *Type 327; *Cosquin RTP XXV 1, 65, 126 (= études 349ff.); Saintyves Perrault 277ff.; Missouri French: Carrière; Am.

Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 314 No. 54; India: Thompson-Balys; Filipino: Fansler MAFLS XII 442; Africa (Zanzibar): Bateman 190 No. 9; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 271 No. 83.

G512.3.2.1. G512.3.2.1. Ogre's wife (daughter) burned in his own oven. Types 327, 327; Cosquin études 349ff. (= RTP XXV 1ff.); Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 172; Finnish-Swedish: Hackman FFC VI No. *327C; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos. *327C, 327D; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 4; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 113 No. 8; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 280 No. 98.

G512.3.3. G512.3.3. Grass as fuel for burning ogre. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 79.

G512.3.4. G512.3.4. Jinn falls into cauldron of boiling oil, thinking it is food. India: Thompson-Balys.

G512.4. G512.4. Ogre persuaded to go into hole: buried alive. Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 8.

G512.5. G512.5. Ogre killed by burning external soul.

G512.5.1. G512.5.1. Ogre killed by burning feather containing his life. India: Thompson-Balys.

G512.6. G512.6. Giant killed by cutting his foot (feet) off. Icelandic: *Boberg.

G512.6.1. G512.6.1. Giant's (ogre's) arm pulled (cut) off by defender of castle (house). Irish myth: Cross.

G512.7. G512.7. Backbone of ogre's old mother broken. Icelandic: *Boberg.

G512.8. G512.8. Ogre killed by striking.

G512.8.1. G512.8.1. Ogre killed by striking with club. India: Thompson-Balys.

G512.8.2. G512.8.2. Ogre killed by striking with stones. India: Thompson-Balys.

G512.8.3. G512.8.3. Boy sends magic spear against six-headed ogre and slays him. (Cf. B11.11.) Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 104.

G512.8.4. G512.8.4. Ogre whipped to death. Eskimo (Greenland): Holm 14.

G512.9. G512.9. Animal kills ogre. (Cf. B524.)

G512.9.1. G512.9.1. Ogre killed by helpful dogs. Africa: Biblioteca Africana IV 60.

G512.9.2. G512.9.2. Ogre torn to pieces by birds. Africa (Wachaga): Gutman 95.

G512.10. G512.10. Ogre killed by lightning. Africa (Fang): Trilles 164.

G512.11. G512.11. Ogre drowned. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule (G519.4); Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 3/1110, z-G. 13/249); Hawaii: Beckwith 174.

G513. G513. Ogre killed and resuscitated so as to be of help to hero. India: Thompson-Balys.

- G513.1. G513.1. Grateful ogre resuscitates his benefactor. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G514. G514. Ogre captured. Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.
- G514.0.1. G514.0.1. Demon must bring treasure to those who have released him. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G514.1. G514.1. Ogre trapped in box (cage). *Type 328; Köhler-Bolte I 306; Missouri French: Carrière; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "boite"; Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 244; Japanese: Ikeda; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 359ff.
- G514.2. G514.2. Ogre imprisoned in his own house. Type 1167*.
- G514.2.1. G514.2.1. Ogre imprisoned in cave. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G514.3. G514.3. Ogre caught in noose and killed. New Zealand: Dixon 61, Beckwith 266; Hawaii: Beckwith 174.
- G514.4. G514.4. Ogre captured while transformed to animal. Missouri French: Carrière; Chinese: Werner 359.
- G514.5. G514.5. Ogre tied to rock. Tuamotu: Beckwith Myth 268.
- G514.5.1. G514.5.1. Hero pegs ogress to boulder. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G514.6. G514.6. Ogresses caught in flood of lava. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 174.
- G514.7. G514.7. Ogre captured with decoy smeared with tar. He is then killed and thrown into water. Africa (Duala): Lederbogen Fables 60, 74.
- G514.8. G514.8. Ogre captured by animal.
- G514.8.1. G514.8.1. Ogre captured by tortoise. Africa (Fang): Tessman 16.
- G515. G515. Holy men keep devils under control. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G519. G519. Ogre killed through other tricks.
- G519.1. G519.1. Ogre's wife killed through other tricks. Type 1122.
- G519.1.1. G519.1.1. Faithful hound kills ogre's wife. Irish myth: Cross.
- G519.1.2. G519.1.2. Man pretends to cut toenails of cannibal woman: kills her. Eskimo (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 190.
- G519.1.3. G519.1.3. Ogress lured in bridal bed and killed. Icelandic: Boberg.
- G519.1.4. G519.1.4. Ogress tricked into falling into boiling spring. Maori: Beckwith Myth 196.
- G519.2. G519.2. Ogre killed with his own iron bar. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- G519.3. G519.3. Cliff ogre thrown as food to his children. N. A. Indian (Zuci): Benedict 335.
- G519.4. G519.4. Ogre killed by blades falling in his food. India: Thompson-Balys.

G519.5. G519.5. Giant ogre tricked into running round a tree the branches of which catch the strokes of his iron bar, until he falls down dead. Icelandic: Boberg.

G520. G520. Ogre deceived into self-injury. *Type 328; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 359.

G521. G521. Ogre made drunk and overcome. *BP III 106; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 32f.; Gaster Thespis 328; Japanese: Anesaki 306; Africa (Yoruba): Ellis 258 No. 1.

G522. G522. Ogre persuaded to drink pond dry bursts. *Type 327; BP I 115; India: Thompson-Balys.

G522.1. G522.1. Ogre drinks till he bursts—turns into fog. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 104; Koryak: Jochelson JE VI 141.

G523. G523. Ogre kills self when he sees crumbs lying on his belly. Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 243.

G524. G524. Ogre deceived into stabbing himself. He imitates the hero who has stabbed a bag of blood. Fb "mave" II 565; S. A. Indian (Amazon): Alexander Lat. Am. 300; Missouri French: Carrière.

G524.1. G524.1. Ogre deceived into hanging himself. Chinese: Graham; Africa (Masai): Fuchs Sagen, Mythen, und Sitten der Masai (Jena, 1910) 21ff. No. 4.

G525. G525. Sea people give the ogre brandy (tar). Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 44 No. 62; Lappish: Qvigstad FFC LX 47 No. 68.

G525.1. G525.1. Witch wishes to have as pretty teeth as man: drinks boiling oil. India: Thompson-Balys.

G526. G526. Ogre deceived by feigned ignorance of hero. Hero must be shown how to get into oven (or the like). Ogre shows him and permits himself to be burnt. *Type 327; *Cosquin RTP XXV 1, 65, 126; Penzer I 157 n. 2, VII 123, 263; Saintyves Perrault 276; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesian: De Vries's list No. 244; Africa (Benga): Nassau 121ff. No. 12, (Zanzibar): Bateman 187 No. 9.

G527. G527. Giant killed by his own bucket of death water; captive princess tells him to wash. India: Thompson-Balys.

G528. G528. Stupid ogre duped into cutting off his own buttocks. India: Thompson-Balys.

G530. G530. Ogre's relative aids hero.

G530.1. G530.1. Help from ogre's wife (mistress). *Types 302, 461; *Aarne FFC XXIII 160; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "ogresse"; India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 325 n. 171.

G530.1.1. G530.1.1. Giant overcome and slain when his wife binds his hair to posts. Irish myth: *Cross.

G530.2. G530.2. Help from ogre's daughter (or son). (Cf. G455.) *Type 975; Aarne FFC XXIII 160f.; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 54, *Boberg; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 9, V No. 4; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 109 n. 4; India: *Thompson-Balys; Mono-Alu: Wheeler 8f., 31, 44ff., 48; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 325 n. 171; S. A. Indian (Ceuici): Alexander Lat. Am. 303; Africa (Zulu): Callaway 49, (Ekoi): Talbot 7.

G530.3. G530.3. Help from ogre's mother. *Aarne FFC XXIII 158; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 86; India: *Thompson-Balys; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 274 No. 86.

G530.4. G530.4. Help from ogre's grandmother. *Type 812; India: Thompson-Balys.

G530.5. G530.5. Help from old woman in ogre's house. India: Thompson-Balys.

G530.6. G530.6. Ogre's maidservant as helper. Chinese: Graham.

G532. G532. Hero hidden and ogre deceived by his wife (daughter) when he says that he smells human blood. *Type 327, 425, 461, 480; *Aarne FFC XXIII 161; Tegethoff 44; *BP I 289; *Fb "fugl" I 380; *Saintyves Perrault 303ff.; Roberts 219.—India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Eskimo (Kodiak): Golder JAFL XXII 16, (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 203, (Greenland): Rink 218; Africa (Zanzibar): Bateman 133, (Basuto): Jacottet 206 No. 30, (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 124 No. 22.

G534. G534. Ogre tells wife how people may evade his power. Chinese: Graham.

G535. G535. Captive woman in ogre's house helps hero. Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.

G537. G537. Ogre defeated with divine help.

G537.1. G537.1. Ogre defeated with help of goddess. India: Thompson-Balys.

G550. G550. Rescue from ogre. *Types 311, 312, 313, 314, 590; Icelandic: *Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "Barbe-bleu"; Missouri French: Carrière; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 304 No. 30; Indonesia: Dixon 227; Africa (Kaffir): Theal 83; North Africa: *Saintyves Perrault 267; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 271 No. 83, 273 No. 86.

G551. G551. Rescue from ogre by relative.

G551.1. G551.1. Rescue of sister from ogre by brother. *Type 312; Krappe Revue Celtique XLVIII (1931) 99ff., Rheinisches Museum f. Philologie N. F. LXXX 114ff. —Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *454; Eskimo (W. Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 195; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 274 No. 86; Africa (Zulu): Callaway 146, (Kaffir): Theal 134, (Hottentot): Bleek 62 No. 27.

G551.2. G551.2. Rescue of sister from ogre by another sister. *Type 311; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 103 No. 7.

G551.3. G551.3. Rescue of children from ogre by brother. Type 327; Africa (Kaffir): Kidd 233 No. 4; Jamaica: Beckwith XVII 271 No. 83.

G551.3.1. G551.3.1. Rescue of children from giant (ogre) by hero (skillful companions). Irish myth: Cross.

G551.4. G551.4. One brother rescues another from ogre. Type 303; German: Grimm Nos. 60, 85; India: *Thompson-Balys.

G551.4.1. G551.4.1. One foster brother rescues another from ogre. Type 303; Icelandic: *Boberg.

G551.5. G551.5. Cannibal is killed by his wife's relatives. Eskimo (Central): Boas RBAE VI 633.

G552. G552. Rescue from ogre by helpful animals. *Type 312; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen II 85; Africa (Kaffir): Kidd 226 No. 1, (Zulu): Callaway 147; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 274 No. 86.

G555. G555. Rescue from ogre by means of singing. *Type 327; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 271 No. 83.

G556. G556. Recognition of captive's voice brings about rescue from ogre. Usually captive sings in the bag. Africa (Kaffir): Theal 64, 134, (Zulu): Callaway 75; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 273 No. 85.

G560. G560. Ogre deceived into releasing prisoner.

G561. G561. Ogre tricked into carrying his prisoners home in bag on his own back. *Types 311, 1132; Chauvin VI 30 No. 201; Africa (Congo): Weeks 202 No. 1, 212 No. 7.

G570. G570. Ogre overawed. *Types 1145—1154; Icelandic: Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys; Missouri French: Carrière.

G571. G571. Oaths (abusive speeches) drive ogres away. Fb "bande" IV 24a.

G572. G572. Ogre overawed by trick. India: *Thompson-Balys.

G572.1. G572.1. Ogre deceived by throwing burning oil instead of spittle on him. India: Thompson-Balys.

G572.2. G572.2. Ogre deceived by showing sharp knife or sword for nose or tongue. India: Thompson-Balys.

G580. G580. Ogre otherwise subdued.

G581. G581. Ogres chased away by fire. *Chauvin VII 82 No. 373bis n. 2.

G582. G582. Giants appeased by feeding them. *Type 531; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 12.

G582.1. G582.1. Demons bribed with food. India: Thompson-Balys.

G583. G583. Demons coerced by tabus of druids. Irish myth: Cross.

G584. G584. Ogre polluting the wells driven away by shooting. Icelandic: Boberg.

G585. G585. Ogre tortured by not being allowed to sleep. Eskimo (Kodiak): Golder JAFL XVI 28.

G600—G699.

G600—G699. Other ogre motifs.

G610. G610. Theft from ogre. Types 328, 314; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 54, Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "argent"; Japanese: Anesaki 314; Molucca: Dixon 230; West Indies: Flowers 454f.

G610.1. G610.1. Stealing from ogre for revenge. *Type 328.

G610.2. G610.2. Stealing from ogre to help a friendly king. *Type 328.

G610.3. G610.3. Stealing from ogre as task. *Type 328; *BP III 21 n. 1; Christiansen 45 No. 328; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 7; India: *Thompson-Balys.

G612. G612. The one eye of the three giants stolen. Type 328*.

G613. G613. Ogre's charm stolen. India: Thompson-Balys.

G614. G614. Killing of ogre's cattle, sheep, etc. brings on ogre's anger. Icelandic: *Boberg.

G630. G630. Characteristics of ogres.

G631. G631. Ogre so old that his eyelids must be propped up. *Krappe Balor 4 n 15; *Fb "öje" III 1167a.

G631.1. G631.1. Thousand year old ogre. Korean: Zong in-Sob 99, 169.

G632. G632. Ogre who cannot endure daylight. (Cf. G636.) Penzer I 77.

G633. G633. North as abode of evil spirits. Wimberly 136; Irish myth: Cross; Gaster Oldest Stories 233, Jewish: Neuman.

G634. G634. Genie sleeps with eyes open. Chauvin VI 2 No. 181 n. 1.

G635. G635. Ogre revives after limbs are severed. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 71; Africa (Zulu): Callaway 51.

G635.1. G635.1. Monster's returning head. Joins body after it has been severed. *Kittredge Gawain 147ff.; India: Thompson-Balys.

G636. G636. Ogres powerless after cockcrow. (Cf. G632.) Penzer I 77 n.; Japanese: Ikeda; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 106 No. 7.

G637. G637. Ogres live in trees. Melanesian, Indonesian: Dixon 63.

G638. G638. Ogre powerless to cross stream. Penzer III 236.

G639. G639. Ogress lives in water. (Cf. F420.1.4.9, F426.) Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 280—81, Corpus Poeticum Boreale I 152, Boberg.

G650. G650. Unclassified ogre motifs.

G651. G651. Ogre teaches smith how to transform sand in his smithy. Type 1163; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 753.

G652. G652. Ogre sings constantly, usually own name. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 91.

- G653. G653. Ogre attracts attention by whistling. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 92.
- G655. G655. Ogre's ashes cast on stream cause rapids to stop. Also kill all creatures in the stream. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 132, *Cross.
- G661. G661. Ogre's secret overheard. Christiansen FFC XXIV 68ff.; Japanese: Ikeda.
- G661.1. G661.1. Ogre's secret overheard from tree. *Types 613, 812; *BP III 13; Christiansen FFC XXIV 68ff.
- G661.2. G661.2. Ogre's secret overheard by masking as bird. *Type 812; *Dh I 194ff.
- G665. G665. Vanquished ogre grants hero's three wishes. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 149, *Cross.
- G671. G671. Wild man released from captivity aids hero. *Type 502; BP III 94ff.; Dickson 121 n. 64; Jones PMLA XXIII 567; Missouri French: Carrière; Icelandic: Boberg.
- G672. G672. Hero in service of wild man. Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 1.
- G674. G674. Ogre's wife jealous of him. India; Thompson-Balys.
- G675. G675. Ogres harnessed to plow. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "charrue".
- G676. G676. Ogre carrying mortar and pestle. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 91.
- G677. G677. Ogress attracted by scent of sugar cane ravages city. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G681. G681. Ogre gives riddle on pain of death. *Penzer I 51; Slavic: Máchal 267; India: Thompson-Balys.
- G682. G682. Large price exacted for curing ogre after wounding him. India: Thompson-Balys.
- G683. G683. Cannibal offers wealth to save his life. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 69.
- G691. G691. Bodies of victims in front of ogre's house. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 351 n. 268b.
- G691.1. G691.1. Giants keep corpses on hand to eat. Scottish: Campbell-McKay No. 25.
- G691.2. G691.2. Widow(s) of ogre's victims seen at ogre's house. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 69.
- G691.3. G691.3. Maimed victims seen at ogre's house. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 69.
- G691.4. G691.4. Lost husband's bones found among cannibals. Eskimo (Kodiak): Golder JAFL XVI 27.

Stith Thompson's
Motif-Index of Folk-Literature

H. Tests

H0—H199. Identity tests: recognition

H0. Identity tests

H10. Recognition through common knowledge

H20. Recognition by resemblance

H30. Recognition through personal peculiarities

H50. Recognition by bodily marks or physical attributes

H80—H149. Identification by tokens

H80. Identification by tokens

H90. Identification by ornaments

H100. Identification by matching parts of divided token

H110. Identification by cloth or clothing

H120. Identification by tokens—miscellaneous

H150. Circumstances of recognition

H200—H299. Tests of truth

H210—H239. Tests of guilt or innocence

H210. Test of guilt or innocence

H220. Ordeals

H240. Other tests of truth

H300—H499. Marriage tests

H300. Tests connected with marriage

H310—H359. Suitor tests

H310. Suitor tests

H360—H399. Bride tests

H360. Bride test

H400—H459. Chastity tests

H400. Chastity test

H410. Chastity test by magic objects or ordeals

H430. Chastity index

H440. Other indications of chastity

H460. Wife tests

H480. Father tests

H490. Other marriage tests

Motif: Detailed Synopsis: Tests of Cleverness

H500—H899. TESTS OF CLEVERNESS

H500. Test of cleverness or ability

H510. Tests in guessing

H530—H899. Riddles

H540. Propounding of riddles

H570. Means of solving riddles

H580. Enigmatic statements

H600. Symbolic interpretations

H620. The unsolved problem: enigmatic ending of tale

H630. Riddles of the superlative

H660. Riddles of comparison

H680. Riddles of distance

H690. Riddles of weight and measure

H700. Riddles of numbers

H710. Riddles of value

H720. Metaphorical riddles

H770. Riddles of explanation

H790. Riddles based on unusual circumstances

H810. Riddles based on the Bible or legend

H840. Other riddles

Motif: Detailed Synopsis: Tasks

H900—H1199. TESTS OF PROWESS: TASKS

H900—H999. Assignment and performance of tasks

H900—H949. Assignment of tasks

H900. Tasks imposed

H910. Assignment of tasks in response to suggestion

H920. Assigners of tasks

H940. Assignment of tasks—miscellaneous

H950—H999. Performance of tasks

H960. Tasks performed through cleverness or intelligence

H970. Help in performing tasks

H1000—H1199. Nature of tasks

H1010—H1049. Impossible or absurd tasks

H1010. Impossible tasks

H1020. Tasks contrary to laws of nature

H1030. Other impossible tasks

H1050—H1089. Paradoxical tasks

H1050. Paradoxical tasks

H1090. Tasks requiring miraculous speed

H1110. Tedious tasks

H1130. Superhuman tasks

H1150. Tasks: stealing, capturing, or slaying

H1180. Miscellaneous tasks

Motif: Detailed Synopsis: Quests

H1200—H1399. TESTS OF PROWESS: QUESTS

H1200—H1249. Attendant circumstances of quests

H1200. Quest

H1210. Quest assigned

H1220. Quest voluntarily undertaken

H1240. Other circumstances of quests

H1250—H1399. Nature of quests

H1250—H1299. Quests to the other world

H1250. Quest to the other world

H1260. Quest to the upper world

H1270. Quest to lower world

H1280. Quests to other realms

H1290. Quests to the other world—miscellaneous motifs

H1300. Quests for the unique

H1320. Quest for marvelous objects or animals

H1360. Quest for dangerous animals

H1370. Miscellaneous quests

Motif: Detailed Synopsis: Other Tests

H1400—H1599. OTHER TESTS

H1400—H1449. Tests of fear

H1400. Fear test

H1410. Fear test: staying in frightful place

H1420. Fearless traffic with devils

H1430. Fearless traffic with ghosts

H1440. The learning of fear

H1450—H1499. Tests of vigilance

H1450. Vigilance test

H1460. Test: vigil at tomb

H1470. Other vigilance tests

H1480. Accomplishment of vigilance test

H1500—H1549. Tests of endurance and power of survival

H1500. Tests of endurance

H1510. Tests of power to survive

H1540. Contests in endurance

H1550—H1569. Tests of character

H1550. Tests of character

H1570—H1599. Miscellaneous tests

H. TESTS

H0—H199.

H0—H199. Identity tests: Recognition.

H0. H0. Identity tests. Recognition. Elaborate means are employed in folk-literature for the recognition of persons even though they have been separated a very short time. The various means used are detailed in the following discussion.

H10. H10. Recognition through common knowledge. Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H11. H11. Recognition through story-telling. Telling of a story known to both persons concerned brings about recognition. Icelandic: *Boberg; Arabian: Burton Nights III 96ff., S V 155, 164, S VI 34f., 476; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 224.

H11.1. H11.1. Recognition by telling life history. *Type 506; Köhler-Bolte II 351ff.; Icelandic: *Boberg; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 19; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H11.1.1. H11.1.1. Recognition at inn (hospital, etc.) where all must tell their life histories. *Type 304; *BP II 255 n. 1, 505; bin Gorion Born Judas I 189, 374; *Chauvin V 90 No. 28 n. 1; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 2.

H11.1.2. H11.1.2. Recognition: life story painted on wall. India: Thompson-Balys.

H11.1.3. H11.1.3. Recognition by life history sung. (Cf. H12.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H11.1.4. H11.1.4. Recognition by tracing ancestry. Greek: Homer Iliad VI 215, Aeschylus Suppliants 290.

H12. H12. Recognition by song (music). Person is recognized because the song is sung only by him or because he is the only one besides the listener who knows it. Thien Motive 9; Norse: De la Saussaye 137; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos. *452f.; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "chanson"; Missouri French: Carrière; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 3 and the legend of Richard Coeur de Leon and Blondel; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Anesaki 359; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 530, 539; New Zealand: Dixon 83; West Indies: Flowers 455.

H12.1. H12.1. Missing female poet discovered through test of poetic ability. Irish myth: *Cross.

H12.2. H12.2. Recognition by verse of song. India: Thompson-Balys.

H12.2.1. H12.2.1. Recognition by matching a couplet together. India: Thompson-Balys.

H13. H13. Recognition by overheard conversation (usually with animals or objects). Person not daring to reveal self directly thus attracts attention and recognition. *Types 313, 533, 706, 870; *BP I 19, III 445ff.; *Fb "hest" I 598b, "ovn" II 774a; Liungman Jordkulan passim; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 62, 69 Nos. 445*B, 515*; India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Thonga): Junod 231.

H13.1. H13.1. Recognition by overheard conversation with animal.

H13.1.1. H13.1.1. Recognition by overheard conversation with horse. *Type 870; Liungman Jordkulan passim; *BP III 444ff.; Fb "hest" I 598b.

H13.1.2. H13.1.2. Recognition by overheard conversation with dog. Type 533; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 307b.

H13.1.3. H13.1.3. Recognition by overheard conversation with cow. Chinese: Graham.

H13.2. H13.2. Recognition by overheard conversation with objects. *Type 870; *BP III 444ff.; Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 8; Icelandic: Boberg.

H13.2.1. H13.2.1. Recognition by overheard conversation with bridge. Bridge which will trip up bridal party if king is not marrying an equal. Disguised princess praises bridge for its recognition of her equality with the king. *Type 870.

H13.2.2. H13.2.2. Recognition by overheard conversation with stone. Types 710 870; BP I 19 n. 2; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 62 No. 445B, Espinosa Jr. No. 114.

H13.2.3. H13.2.3. Recognition by overheard conversation with plant. *Type 870.

H13.2.4. H13.2.4. Recognition by overheard conversation with churchdoor. *Type 870.

H13.2.5. H13.2.5. Recognition by overheard conversation with cups (or other utensils). *Type 710; *BP I 19 n. 2.

H13.2.6. H13.2.6. Recognition by overheard conversation with flax. By comparing her fate with that of the flax the heroine is able to reveal herself. *Type 710; BP I 19 n. 2; *Köhler-Bolte I 131.

H13.2.7. H13.2.7. Recognition by overheard conversation with stove. *Type 533; *BP II 275; *Fb "ovn" II 774a; K. Ranke Festschrift f. W.-E. Peuckert, Berl. 1955, 46.

H13.3. H13.3. Recognition from overheard conversation of two sons. India: Thompson-Balys.

H13.4. H13.4. Recognition from overheard conversation with flower-woman. India: Thompson-Balys.

H14. H14. Recognition by observing emotional reactions of another to object of common experience.

H14.1. H14.1. Recognition by seeing husband shed tears on sight of bird (main character in a former experience common to both husband and wife). India: *Thompson-Balys.

H14.2. H14.2. Recognition by tears at recital of own exploits. Greek: Homer Odyssey VIII 94.

H15. H15. Identity tested by account of common experiences. Missouri French: Carrière.

H15.1. H15.1. Identity tested by demanding that person say again what he said on former occasion. (Impostor fails.) *Types 425, 870; Tegethoff 21; Missouri French: Carrière.

H15.2. H15.2. Recognition by recalling common experiences. Jewish: *Neuman.

H16. H16. Recognition by describing or producing object of common knowledge.

H16.1. H16.1. Recognition by brother king of lost brother brought about by model of their father's palace which lost brother builds of clay. India: Thompson-Balys.

H16.2. H16.2. Recognition by wounds on lip and finger received at common adventure. India: Thompson-Balys.

H16.3. H16.3. Recognition of brothers brought about by bouquet of flowers tied as father's gardener used to do. India: Thompson-Balys.

H16.4. H16.4. Recognition by describing unique bed. Greek: Homer Odyssey XXIII 183ff.

H17. H17. Recognition by reminders of what has been said. Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 3; Jewish: Neuman.

H18. H18. Recognition by password. Am. Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 236 No. 40.

H19. H19. Recognition through common knowledge—miscellaneous.

H19.1. H19.1. Recognition by ability to identify property.

H19.1.1. H19.1.1. Recognition of reincarnated person by ability to identify former weapons. India: Thompson-Balys.

H19.2. H19.2. Recognition by answer to conundrum (known only to two persons). India: Thompson-Balys.

H20. H20. Recognition by resemblance. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "reconnaissance"; Greek: Homer Odyssey IV 144, 150.

H21. H21. Recognition through picture. Picture is publicly displayed and brings about recognition of lost person. *Type 881; *BP II 505; Köhler-Bolte I 528; *Chauvin V 92 No. 196, 94 No. 30; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesian: De Vries's list No. 223.

H22. H22. Recognition through image. Jewish: *Neuman.

H24. H24. Recognition from dream. India: Thompson-Balys.

H30. H30. Recognition through personal peculiarities

H31. H31. Recognition by unique ability. Irish myth: *Cross.

- H31.1. H31.1. Recognition by unique ability to dislodge sword. Sword is stuck in a stone or tree. English: Wells 43 (Arthour and Merlin); Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Volsunga saga 7; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H31.2. H31.2. Recognition by unique ability to bend bow. Greek: Fox 139; Jewish: Neuman.
- H31.3. H31.3. Recognition by unique ability to swing spear. Greek: Roscher Lexikon "Achilleus" I 12.
- H31.4. H31.4. Only one man can lift small pot from ground. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H31.5. H31.5. Recognition by unique ability to cut (carve) tree, etc. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H31.6. H31.6. Recognition by unique ability to break iron apple with first stone cast. Irish myth: Cross.
- H31.7. H31.7. Recognition by unique ability to perform magic act. German: Grimm Nos. 76, 89; India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Kordofan): Frobenius Atlantis IV 134ff. No. 13.
- H31.7.1. H31.7.1. Recognition by ability to shed pearls for tears. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H31.7.2. H31.7.2. Only one man is able to read magic book. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H31.8. H31.8. Recognition by unique ability to shoot, swim, and drink. Icelandic: Boberg.
- H31.9. H31.9. Recognition by unique ability to handle easily a heavy stone. Irish myth: Cross.
- H31.10. H31.10. Recognition by unique ability to play chess. Irish myth: Cross.
- H31.11. H31.11. Recognition by unique ability to read inscription. Irish myth: Cross.
- H31.12. H31.12. Only one man is able to pluck fruits from tree. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H31.12.1. H31.12.1. Bridegroom alone able to pluck flower from bride's grave. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H32. H32. Recognition by extraordinary prowess. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman.
- H35. H35. Recognition by unique manner of performing an act. Irish myth: *Cross.
- H35.1. H35.1. Recognition by unique manner of playing lute. Chauvin V 152 No. 75; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H35.1.1. H35.1.1. Recognition by unique manner of playing harp. Irish myth: *Cross.
- H35.1.2. H35.1.2. Recognition by unique manner of playing flute. German: Grimm No. 181; Chinese: Graham.

- H35.2. H35.2. Recognition by unique cookery. Only one person could have prepared the food in this way. *Chauvin VI 105 No. 270 n. 1; India: *Thompson-Balys; Icelandic: Boberg.
- H35.3. H35.3. Recognition by unique needle-work. *Type 506; von der Hagen I cxxxix; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H35.3.1. H35.3.1. Recognition of false bride by inability to finish true bride's weaving. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H35.3.2. H35.3.2. Recognition by embroidery. Chinese: Graham (H141.).
- H35.4. H35.4. Recognition by unique manner of carving chips. These sent down stream for recognition. (Cf. H135.) *Schoepperle II 301 ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.
- H35.4.1. H35.4.1. Recognition by ogam carving on withe (rod, tree). Irish myth: *Cross.
- H35.5. H35.5. Recognition by manner of throwing cakes of different weights into faces of old uncles. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.
- H36. H36. Recognition by exact fitting of clothes. Irish myth: Cross.
- H36.1. H36.1. Slipper test. Identification by fitting of slipper. *Type 510; *Cox Cinderella 504ff.; *BP I 187; *Fb "sko" III 288a; Cosquin Contes Indiens 48ff.; Saintyves Perrault 115ff., 156.—Icelandic: *Boberg; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 6; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 18f.; India: *Thompson-Balys; New Mexican: Rael Mod. Lang. Forum XVIII (1933).
- H36.1.1. H36.1.1. Recognition by shoes with which the father had once beaten his son. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H36.2. H36.2. Garment fits only true king. (Cf. H41.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- H36.2.1. H36.2.1. Crown fits only legitimate successor to throne. Jewish: Neuman.
- H38. H38. Person's rank betrayed by habitual conversation.
- H38.1. H38.1. Disguised king (noble) recognized by habitual speech.
- H38.2. H38.2. Impostor of low origin recognized by habitual speech.
- H38.2.1. H38.2.1. Tailor married to princess betrays trade by calling for needle and thread. *Type 1640; BP I 148 ff.
- H38.2.2. H38.2.2. Peasant boy masking as prince betrays self by his answers. *Köhler-Bolte I 172.
- H38.2.3. H38.2.3. Recognition of maidservant substitute bride by her habitual conversation. Icelandic: Boberg.
- H38.2.4. H38.2.4. Weaver married to princess betrays trade by talking in his sleep. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H38.2.4.1. H38.2.4.1. Weaver married to princess betrays his identity when he unconsciously waves his hands as though he were weaving and asks for his shuttle. India: Thompson-Balys.

H38.2.5. H38.2.5. Substitution of low-caste boy for promised child detected when he prefers long road to short one through jungle (swimming instead of ferry, etc.) India: *Thompson-Balys.

H38.3. H38.3. Slave recognized by his conversation, habits, and character. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H41. H41. Recognition of royalty by personal characteristics or traits. (Cf. H36.2, H71.) Icelandic: *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

H41.1. H41.1. Princess on the pea. Princess recognized by her inability to sleep on bed which has a pea under its dozen mattresses. *BP III 330; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 575b; Grimm No. 182a; *Fb "seng"; Penzer VI 288ff.; Wirth AA o.s. VII (1894) 367ff.; Arthur Christensen Acta Orientalia XIV 241—257; India: Thompson-Balys.

H41.2. H41.2. High-spitting the test of a chief. N. A. Indian (Quileute): Farrand-Mayer JAFL XXXII 253 No. 1, (Chinook): Boas BBAE XX 160, (Nootka): Boas RBAE XXXI 919.

H41.3. H41.3. Test of king (pope): his candle lights itself. *Type 671; *Köhler-Bolte I 148.

H41.4. H41.4. Flame issuing from mouth as sign of royalty. English: Wells 14f. (The Lay of Havelok).

H41.5. H41.5. Unknown prince shows his kingly qualities in dealing with his playmates. Type 920; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 40ff., 323ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys; Icelandic: *Boberg.

H41.5.1. H41.5.1. Unknown prince reared by fisher spends money on princely tastes. *Boje 126; India: Thompson-Balys.

H41.6. H41.6. Prophecy for newborn princesses: the one who takes gold in the mouth will be married to a prince; the one who takes hawkweed, to a peasant. Icelandic: Boberg.

H41.7. H41.7. Task: to ride horse whereby one becomes king. India: Thompson-Balys.

H41.8. H41.8. Test of royalty: ability to sow, reap, and winnow rice in one day. India: Thompson-Balys.

H41.9. H41.9. King recognized by unique ability to occupy certain seat (Siege perilous). Irish myth: *Cross; *Nutt Studies in the Legend of the Holy Grail (London, 1888) 81f., 88.

H41.9.1. H41.9.1. Chariot tilts under anyone who is not entitled to throne. Irish myth: *Cross.

H41.10. H41.10. Chief in disguise carries bundle so large that rank is recognized. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 388.

H44. H44. Recognition by perfume. India: Thompson-Balys.

H45. H45. Recognition of deity. Tonga: Gifford 56.

H45.1. H45.1. God recognized by his supernatural powers. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H45.2. H45.2. Milk gushes forth from cows when they sit under tree inhabited by deity. India: Thompson-Balys.

H45.3. H45.3. Test of a god: when his image is bound it frees itself. Oertel Studien z. vgl. Littg. VIII 116; Frazer Pausanias III 336f.; Zs. f. Vksk. II 197, III 89, 448.

H45.4. H45.4. God in disguise recognized by tokens on his feet and hands. Greek: Homer Iliad XIII 71.

H45.5. H45.5. Girl sleeping naked awakened: is she a goddess? If mortal, she will cover herself; if a goddess, will not. Tonga: Gifford 191.

H46. H46. Cannibal recognized by cloud of dust raised. India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Zulu): Callaway 47, 142, (Basuto): Jacottet 4 No. 1, 206 No. 30, (Kaffir): Theal 125.

H46.1. H46.1. Cannibal nature of woman recognized when she devours dead buffalo raw. India: Thompson-Balys.

H47. H47. Demon recognized by corpse it occupies turning to worm when stake is driven through it. Irish myth: Cross.

H48. H48. Animal in human form recognized. (Cf. H64.)

H48.1. H48.1. Fox (in man's form) cries out like a fox in his sleep. S. A. Indian (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 122.

H48.2. H48.2. Fox (in man's form) betrays identity when he procures fox-food for human wife. S. A. Indian (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 123.

H49. H49. Recognition through personal peculiarities—miscellaneous.

H49.1. H49.1. Unique scent of their rice betrays abandoned children. India: Thompson-Balys.

H50. H50. Recognition by bodily marks or physical attributes. Irish myth: Cross.

H51. H51. Recognition by scar. (Cf. H56.) *Type 314; Icelandic: *Boberg; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 9, *Rotunda; Greek: Odyssey, books XIX, XXIV; Arabian: Burton Nights I 248; Jewish: *Neuman; Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 158; Chinese: Werner 281; N. A. Indian (Ponka): Dorsey CNAE VI 606, (Blackfoot): Wissler and Duvall PaAM II 109, (Eastern Cree): Skinner PaAM IX 92.

H51.1. H51.1. Recognition by birthmark. *Types 400, 850; Dickson 49 nn. 58, 59; cf. Shakespeare's Cymbeline II, 2, 38; BP II 318, 528; German. Grimm No. 92; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 140; N. A. Indian (Blackfoot): Wissler and Duvall PaAM II 109.

H55. H55. Recognition through branding. *Types 314, 502, 883B; Dickson 41; Chauvin V 152; Tawney I 37, 92; Burton Nights VII 89 n.; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H55.1. H55.1. Recognition through branding with hoof-marks. *Types 314, 502;

Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "marque", "mule".

H55.2. H55.2. Sacred animals branded by conjurer. Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 327.

H55.3. H55.3. Recognition by tatoo. Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 370.

H56. H56. Recognition by wound. (Cf. H51.) *Types 314, 502; *Cosquin études 447ff.; Dickson 42 n. 41; Missouri French: Carrière; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 169, 170; India: Thompson-Balys; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 417.

H56.1. H56.1. Recognition by hole burned in hand when woman removes glove. *Wesselski Märchen 198.

H56.2. H56.2. Mutilation of children's bodies for identification. *Dickson 42 n. 41.

H57. H57. Recognition by missing member. *Hartland Perseus III 208f.; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 150, 168, 171.

H57.0.1. H57.0.1. Recognition of resuscitated person by missing member. *Type 313; French: Cosquin Lorraine II 11.

H57.1. H57.1. Recognition by broken tooth. New Zealand: Dixon 84.

H57.2. H57.2. Recognition by missing finger. *Hartland Perseus III 207ff.; Dickson 42 n. 42; Icelandic: Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "doigt"; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. 120, 121.

H57.2.1. H57.2.1. Severed finger as sign of crime. Robber bridegroom thus detected. *Type 955.

H57.2.2. H57.2.2. Recognition of murdered person by severed fingernail. India: Thompson-Balys.

H57.3. H57.3. Recognition by missing toe. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

H57.4. H57.4. Recognition by description of woman with missing hands. Nouvelles de Sens No. 12.

H57.5. H57.5. Recognition by artificial hands. *Type 706; *BP I 295ff.

H58. H58. Tell-tale hand-mark. Clandestine lover is identified by paint marks left on his skin by his mistress. *Type 950; Köhler-Bolte I 200; India: Thompson-Balys; Hindu: Tawney I 15; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 273 n. 1.

H58.1. H58.1. Disguised mistress identified by chalk marks left on back by lover. Heptameron No. 43.

H58.2. H58.2. Clandestine lover identified by scratches left on face by lady. Heptameron No. 4.

H61. H61. Recognition by ornaments under skin.

H61.1. H61.1. Recognition of twins by golden chain under their skin. Köhler-Bolte I 119.

- H61.2. H61.2. Recognition of disenchanted person by ornaments under his skin. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 348 n. 249b.
- H61.3. H61.3. Recognition by means of ring enclosed in wound. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 104.
- H61.4. H61.4. Recognition by grain of gold under skin. Irish myth: *Cross.
- H62. H62. Recognition of transformed person (animal). (Cf. H48.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- H62.0.1. H62.0.1. Recognition of man transformed to horse. Chinese: Graham.
- H62.1. H62.1. Recognition of person transformed to animal. *Type 325; *BP II 60.
- H62.1.1. H62.1.1. Person transformed to animal recognized by his eyes. *Fb "öje" III 1166a; Icelandic: *Boberg.
- H62.1.2. H62.1.2. Person transformed to animal recognized by ability to read. Scotch: Campbell-McKay.
- H62.2. H62.2. Horse recognizes kol transformed to look like his master and throws him off. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H62.3. H62.3. Marvelous horse identified by prince though in form of miserable worn-out one. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H63. H63. Recognition of other transformed persons.
- H63.1. H63.1. Woman transformed to flower is recognized by the absence of dew on petals. Type 407; BP III 259; German: Grimm No. 160.
- H64. H64. Recognition of disenchanted person by physical attributes.
- H64.1. H64.1. Recognition of disenchanted person by thread in his teeth. As werwolf he has torn woman's apron and caught thread in teeth. *Fb "varulv" III 1015a.
- H64.2. H64.2. Werwolf killed and recognized by man's clothes under the wolf's skin or rosary on the neck. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3680.
- H64.3. H64.3. Person disenchanted from animal "unable to hide his tail." India: Thompson-Balys.
- H64.4. H64.4. Person disenchanted from animal unable to eat after manner of men. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H71. H71. Marks of royalty. (Cf. H41, H171.5.) *Type 533; *BP II 275; Köhler-Bolte I 130; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H71.1. H71.1. Star on forehead as sign of royalty. *Type 707; *BP I 102, II 380, 393; *Fb "stjerne" III 577b, "guldstjerne" I 515a; Köhler-Bolte I 119; Dickson 48; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 311 No. 56; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 137; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H71.1.1. H71.1.1. Moon on forehead and stars in palm of hand as sign of royalty.

India: *Thompson-Balys.

H71.2. H71.2. Gold (silver) hairs as sign of royalty. *Types 533, 707; *BP II 275, 380, 393; *Fb "her" I 771b; India: Thompson-Balys.

H71.2.1. H71.2.1. Golden body of boy as sign of royalty. India: Thompson-Balys.

H71.3. H71.3. Pearls from hair as sign of royalty. *Type 707; BP II 380, 393.

H71.4. H71.4. Roses from lips as sign of royalty. Princess laughs roses. *BP I 100.

H71.5. H71.5. Cross between shoulders as sign of royalty (nobility). Dickson 48f.; English: Wells 14f. (The Lay of Havelok); Icelandic: *Boberg.

H71.6. H71.6. Bright eyes as sign of royalty (nobility). Icelandic: *Boberg.

H71.6.1. H71.6.1. Luminous face as sign of royalty. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 29, *Cross.

H71.6.2. H71.6.2. Gold tint as sign of royalty. India: Thompson-Balys.

H71.7. H71.7. Child born with chain around neck: sign of royalty. *Type 707; BP I 432, II 380ff.; Todd MLN VI 7; Wesselski Märchen 174 No. 64; Wells Manual 96 (Chevalere Assigne).

H71.7.1. H71.7.1. Girl born with costly jewels: sign of royalty. India: Thompson-Balys.

H71.7.2. H71.7.2. Prince born with bow of gold and string of silver. India: Thompson-Balys.

H71.8. H71.8. Tears of blood: sign of royalty. Jewish: Neuman; S. A. Indian (Inca): Alexander Lat. Am. 252.

H71.9. H71.9. Red teeth as sign of royalty. Africa (Thonga): Junod 231.

H71.10. H71.10. Marvel as sign of royalty. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

H71.10.1. H71.10.1. Tree bows before prince. De Vries FFC LXXIII 329; Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

H71.10.2. H71.10.2. Water stands still before prince. De Vries FFC LXXIII 329.

H71.10.3. H71.10.3. Frogs croak at prince's command. De Vries FFC LXXIII 330.

H71.10.4. H71.10.4. Chariot horses spring at anyone who is not entitled to throne. Irish myth: *Cross.

H71.10.5. H71.10.5. Two blocks of stone that move apart to allow passage of chariot of true king. Irish myth: *Cross.

H71.10.6. H71.10.6. Stone screams under feet of legitimate king. Irish myth: Cross.

H71.10.7. H71.10.7. Arrows turn aside for prince (king). India: Thompson-Balys.

H71.11. H71.11. Gold in stool as sign of royalty. India: Thompson-Balys:

H75. H75. Identification by a hair.

H75.1. H75.1. Identification by hair found floating on water. *Type 531; *BP III 31 n. 1. 33; Golther "Die Jungfrau mit den goldenen Haaren" Studien zur Literaturgeschichte M. Bernays gewidmet (Leipzig, 1893).—N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 355 n. 281.

H75.2. H75.2. Identification by hair dropped by bird. *Type 531; *BP III 31 n. 1, 33; Golther ibid.

H75.3. H75.3. Recognition by hair found in a fish which has swallowed it. India: Thompson-Balys.

H75.4. H75.4. Recognition by golden hair. Types 314, 502; BP II 275.—Icelandic: Boberg.

H75.5. H75.5. Identification by wolf's hair. Icelandic: Boberg.

H75.6. H75.6. Recognition by missing hair. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 187, 189, Thalbitzer 7.

H75.7. H75.7. Recognition of murderers by their short hair. Tonga: Gifford 34.

H78. H78. Recognition by feather.

H78.1. H78.1. Youth shoots raven and takes feather to raven's sister as token. *Type 553.

H78.2. H78.2. Identification by feather taken from hero when he was transformed to bird. *Type 665.

H79. H79. Recognition by physical attributes—miscellaneous. Jewish: *Neuman.

H79.1. H79.1. Troll's daughter after being cooked in kettle recognized by golden fingernail. Fb "guldnagle" I 514.

H79.2. H79.2. Identification of man by his little toe. Chinese: Werner 337.

H79.3. H79.3. Recognition by voice. Icelandic: Boberg; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H79.4. H79.4. Recognition by smile. Sultan frees prisoner when he recognizes him as a former aid. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H79.5. H79.5. Identification of man by his skull. Irish myth: Cross.

H79.6. H79.6. Recognition by large breasts that woman in bed is not husband's wife. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 35.

H79.7. H79.7. Recognition of monk by his large organ. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 15.

H79.8. H79.8. Identity established because one of man's teeth is blue. India:

Thompson-Balys.

H80—H149.

H80—H149. IDENTIFICATION BY TOKENS

H80. H80. Identification by tokens. Types 300, 301, 304, 306, 873; English: Child V 499 s.v. "tokens"; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 18; Greek: Fox 71; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

H80.1. H80.1. True redeemers to be recognized by tokens. Jewish: *Neuman.

H81. H81. Clandestine lover recognized by tokens.

H81.1. H81.1. Hero lies by sleeping girl and leaves identification token with her. *Types 304, 550, 551; *BP II 505; *Fb "sove" III 472a; Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 26; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H81.1.1. H81.1.1. Hero takes token from sleeping princess. Type 304; BP II 505; German: Grimm No. 111.

H81.2. H81.2. Clandestine visit of princess to hero betrayed by token. *Type 851; BP I 197; India: Thompson-Balys.

H81.3. H81.3. Clandestine visit of lover to queen betrayed by token. Icelandic: Boberg.

H82. H82. Identifying tokens sent with messenger. English: Child V 499 s.v. "tokens"; Icelandic: *Boberg.

H82.1. H82.1. Tokens sent to jailor as warrant of king's authority. English: Child V 499 s.v. "tokens".

H82.2. H82.2. Marriage tokens identifying lover. English: Child V 499 s.v. "tokens"; Icelandic: Boberg.

H82.3. H82.3. Tokens between lovers. (Cf. H105.6.) Icelandic: *Boberg.

H82.4. H82.4. Ring sent from husband to wife as token that he has been baptized, and that she should also be. Icelandic: Boberg.

H82.5. H82.5. Token sent as warning. Icelandic: Boberg.

H82.6. H82.6. Token sent with youth to relatives, that they may take care of him. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H83. H83. Rescue tokens. Proof that hero has succeeded in rescue. (Cf. H105, H105.1, H105.2.) *Types 300, 301, 304, 306; *Hartland Perseus III 203ff. (list of tokens).

H84. H84. Tokens of exploits.

H84.1. H84.1. Branches broken from tree to prove journey. Type 306; German: Grimm No. 133.

H84.2. H84.2. Cup taken as proof that one has been present at feast. Type 306; German: Grimm No. 133.

- H84.3. H84.3. Flail substantiates story of witnessing threshing in heaven. Type 852; German: Grimm No. 112.
- H84.4. H84.4. Stolen ring as proof of daring theft. German: Grimm No. 192.
- H85. H85. Captive sends token of safety. Africa (Swahili): Steere 143, (Zulu): Callaway 221.
- H86. H86. Inscribed name on article as token of ownership. (Cf. H94.10.) German: Grimm Nos. 60, 101, 111.
- H86.1. H86.1. Saber with king's name inscribed on it. German: Grimm No. 111.
- H86.2. H86.2. Articles of clothing with name embroidered on them taken as tokens. German: Grimm No. 111.
- H86.3. H86.3. Ring with names inscribed on it. German: Grimm No. 101.
- H86.4. H86.4. Handkerchief with name on it. German: Grimm No. 60.
- H87. H87. Garlands (flowers) as token. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H88. H88. Recognition by tokens left as trail. Irish myth: *Cross.
- H90. H90. Identification by ornaments. *Type 870A; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H91. H91. Recognition through precious metal.
- H91.1. H91.1. Recognition through gold found in eagle's nest. English: Wells 114 (Sir Isumbras).
- H91.2. H91.2. Recognition by gold wrapped in mantle. *Hibbard 9.
- H91.3. H91.3. Identification by producing three golden apples. German: Grimm No. 136.
- H92. H92. Identification by necklace. *Types 450, 870, 870A; *BP I 79ff., III 443ff., 445; *Fb "guldkjæde" IV 192a; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 514.
- H93. H93. Identification by jewel. French: Cosquin Lorraine I 220 n.; Hindu: Tawney I 170.
- H93.0.1. H93.0.1. Recognition by smell of jewels worn about neck. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H94. H94. Identification by ring. *Types 301, 304, 882; *BP II 348; Thien Motive 33; *Fb "ring" III 60a; *Hartland Perseus III 207ff.; Liungman Tve Folkemannes. 25 n. 1; Saintyves Perrault 204ff.; Irish myth: *Cross, MacCulloch Celtic 26; English: Wells 9ff. (Horn Childe and Maiden Rinnild), 73 (Sir Percyvelle of Galles), 80 (Sir Tristrem); Icelandic: *Boberg; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 181; Missouri French: Carrière; Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 3; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Hindu: Penzer II 76f., Tawney I 142 n., II 620; Chinese: Graham.

H94.0.1. H94.0.1. Recognition of wife's ring in friend's possession informs husband of her unfaithfulness. Heptameron No. 8.

H94.1. H94.1. Identification by ring baked in cake. *Type 400.

H94.2. H94.2. Identification by ring baked in bread. *Type 510; *Fb "ring" III 60a; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bague".

H94.3. H94.3. Identification by ring dropped in pitcher of wine. Penzer II 76 n. 1.

H94.4. H94.4. Identification by ring dropped in glass (cup) of wine. *Types 400, 506, 510; *Fb "guldring" I 514b, "ring" III 60a; *BP II 348; Wesselski Mönchslatein 111 No. 95; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 53, Beal XXI 320; English: Wells 9 (King Horn), Child V 493 s.v. "ring".

H94.5. H94.5. Identification through broken ring. (Cf. H100.) The two parts of the ring fit together. Type 361, BP II 428; *Fb "guldring" I 514b, "ring" III No. 95; Heptameron No. 24; Köhler-Bolte I 585; Wesselski Mönchslatein 111 No. 95; Icelandic: Boberg; English: Child V 493 "ring"; Filipino: Fansler MAFLS XII 210.

H94.6. H94.6. Recognition through arm-ring. Africa (Angola): Chatelain 227 No. 40.

H94.7. H94.7. Recognition by ring springing off finger. Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 9.

H94.8. H94.8. Recognition by medallion (plaque). Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H94.9. H94.9. Identification through ring concealed in garland. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H94.10. H94.10. Recognition through gold ring with owner's name engraved on it. (Cf. H88.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H94.11. H94.11. Recognition by earrings. Eskimo (Mackenzie Area): Jenness 35.

H95. H95. Recognition by bracelet. Chinese: Graham.

H96. H96. Identification by amulet. (Cf. D1070.) Jewish: Neuman.

H100. H100. Identification by matching parts of divided token. Icelandic: Boberg.

H101. H101. Identification by broken weapon. Point of weapon broken off. Later found to match rest of weapon. English: Wells 80 (Sir Tristrem); Icelandic: Ragnarssaga Lopbrykar 118, Boberg; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 18f.; Indonesia: cf. De Vries's list No. 163.

H101.1. H101.1. Identification by matching weapon with wound. Africa (Chaga): Stamberg ZsES XXI 296ff., Gutmann 82f. No. 41, (Ganda): Baskerville 1ff.

H102. H102. Identification by indenture. Each of two persons keeps his half of a contract which has been torn in two. Fitting of the halves brings about recognition. English: Child II 499b.

H102.1. H102.1. Identification by fitting together two pieces of parchment. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H103. H103. Pieces taken from flags serve to identify. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "drapeau".

H105. H105. Parts of slain animals as token of slaying. *Hartland Perseus III 207; *Hdwb. d. Märchens I 242b. nn. 37—47; Missouri French: Carrière; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 7; India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE XXXII 343 No. 59.

H105.1. H105.1. Dragon-tongue proof. Dragon slayer cuts out the tongues and uses them later to prove his identity as slayer. *Types 300, 303; *Hartland Perseus III 203ff.; Ranke FFC CXIV 251ff.; *BP I 534ff., 548; Fb "tunge" III 893b; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 242a nn. 24—47; Schoepperle I 204 n. 3; Irish myth: Cross; French Canadian: Barbeau JAF XXIX 7, 18f.; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 63 n. 4; India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 323ff.; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 278 No. 90.

H105.1.1. H105.1.1. False dragon-head proof. Impostor cuts off dragon heads (after tongues have been removed) and attempts to use them as proof of slaying the dragon. *Type 300; *BP I 534ff. and all references to H105.1; *Parsons FL XXXII 194ff.; Missouri French: Carrière; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H105.2. H105.2. Tongue as proof that man has been murdered. *Fb "tunge" III 894a; India: Thompson-Balys.

H105.2.1. H105.2.1. Tongue of slain giant as proof of slaying. Icelandic: Boberg.

H105.3. H105.3. Arm of monster kept as token of innocence of dog. Scottish: Campbell-McKay.

H105.4. H105.4. Head of monster as token (proof) of slaying. Africa (Ronga): Junod Les Chants et les Contes des Ba-Ronga (Lausanne, 1897) 317ff. No. 30.

H105.4.1. H105.4.1. Monster's beard as proof of visit. Type 461; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 602, *Boberg.

H105.5. H105.5. Ears, fingers and noses of demons cut off as proof of killing them. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H105.5.1. H105.5.1. Recognition of tiger-slayer by tips of ears, nose, and tail of tiger. India: Thompson-Balys.

H105.5.2. H105.5.2. Teeth and fingernails of slain cyclops taken as proof. India: Thompson-Balys.

H105.5.3. H105.5.3. Beak and claws of slain monster as proof of slaying. Icelandic: Boberg.

H105.5.4. H105.5.4. Abandoned son shows claws and tail of tiger to which his parents have exposed him. India: Thompson-Balys.

H105.6. H105.6. Identification between lovers by matching claw and leg of dragon. Icelandic: Boberg.

H105.7. H105.7. Sex organs of enemy as proof of slaying. Jewish: Neuman.

H106. H106. Identification by severed limbs. (Cf. also H105.)

H106.1. H106.1. Identification by severed hand. India: Thompson-Balys.

H106.2. H106.2. Severed head as proof of killing. Type 507B (H. C. Andersen Rejsekammeraten); Icelandic: *Boberg; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

H110. H110. Identification by cloth or clothing.

H111. H111. Identification by garment. *Types 301, 510B, 451; English: Wells 116 (Sir Eglamour of Artois), 126 (Lai le Freine); Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Africa (Benga): Nassau 229 No. 34.

H111.1. H111.1. Identification by royal garments. Burton Nights S VII 108; English: Wells 126 (Lai la Freine).

H111.2. H111.2. Identification by feather cloak. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 420, 479.

H112. H112. Identification by scarf. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "foulard".

H113. H113. Identification by handkerchief. *Types 300, 301; *Hartland Perseus III 206ff.; Missouri French: Carrière; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "mouchoir"; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H114. H114. Identification by glove. English: Wells 134 (Sir Degare); Icelandic: Boberg.

H115. H115. Identification by veil. *Hartland Perseus III 206.

H116. H116. Identification by girdle. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

H117. H117. Identification by cut garment. Garment is cut and fragment taken as token. *Types 304, 851; *BP I 197, II 505; *Hartland Perseus 208ff.; India: Thompson-Balys.

H118. H118. Identification by shred of garment of rescued princess used as bandage for wound. Irish myth: *Cross.

H119. H119. Identification by cloth or clothing—miscellaneous.

H119.1. H119.1. A piece of cloth on one's back as a guarantee against his being eaten on the way. India: Thompson-Balys.

H119.2. H119.2. Needle left in garment of husband by abducted wife as sign. Chinese: Graham.

H120. H120. Identification by tokens—miscellaneous.

H121. H121. Identification by cup. English: Wells 158 (Amis and Amiloun); Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H125. H125. Identification by weapons. Icelandic: Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

H125.1. H125.1. Identification by sword. Irish myth: Cross; Greek: Fox 100 (Theseus).

H125.2. H125.2. Identification by spear. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 416.

H125.3. H125.3. Identification by war-club. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 508.

H125.4. H125.4. Recognition by dart. Maori: Beckwith Myth 482.

H126. H126. Identification by coat of arms. English: Wells 117 (Sir Torrent of Portyngale).

H131. H131. Identification by axe. Recognition by axe which man bears. Fb "økse" III 1171b.

H132. H132. Recognition by knife. Man who is werwolf recognized by knife which was carried away by the wolf. Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 46 No. 74; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 131 No. 74.

H133. H133. Recognition by calabash. Slave recognizes calabash and knows that girl lives. Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 27.

H134. H134. Recognition through books. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H135. H135. Leaf (chip) sent down stream as a warning to one below. (Cf. H35.4.) Child I 40b, 487a; *Schoepperle Tristan and Isolt 301ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.

H135.1. H135.1. Recognition by trimmed leaf thrown from tree hiding place. India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Africa (Nyanja): Rattray Some Folk-Lore Stories (London, 1907) 149ff. No. 24, (Chaga): Stamberg ZsES XXIII 296ff.

H135.2. H135.2. Milk poured into stream as signal. Irish myth: Cross.

H142. H142. Recognition by token—mouth-harp left by bed. Chinese: Graham.

H145. H145. Identification by magic hand. India: Thompson-Balys.

H147. H147. Recognition by tobacco-pipe. Chinese: Graham (H107).

H150. H150. Circumstances of recognition. Missouri French: Carrière.

H151. H151. Attention drawn and recognition follows.

H151.1. H151.1. Attention drawn by magic objects: recognition follows. *Type 707; *BP II 380ff.; Italian: Basile Pentamerone Introduction; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H151.1.1. H151.1.1. Attention drawn by playing marbles with remarkable jewel. India: Thompson-Balys.

H151.1.2. H151.1.2. Attention drawn by gold and silver decorated mouse: as princess turns after it, suitor recognizes her. Icelandic: Boberg.

H151.1.3. H151.1.3. Recognition by ability to perform marvels. Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

H151.2. H151.2. Attention drawn by helpful animal's theft of food from wedding table; recognition follows. *Type 301, 900; BP I 443ff.; *Philippson FFC L 53; *Fb "mad" II 525a.

H151.3. H151.3. Recognition when parents come to son (priest, pope) to be confessed.

*Type 933; *Köhler-Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. VI 173 (to Gonzenbach No. 85); *Baum PMLA XXXI 562 n. 59; Japanese: Ikeda.

H151.4. H151.4. Recognition by cup in sack: alleged stolen goods. Cup is placed in the sack of Joseph's brethren, they are accused of theft; this gives occasion for recognition. *BP I 489; *Fb "sæk" III 720b, "bæger" IV 83a; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 10; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

H151.5. H151.5. Attention attracted by hints dropped by heroine as menial: recognition follows. *Type 510; India: Thompson-Balys.

H151.6. H151.6. Heroine in menial disguise discovered in her beautiful clothes: recognition follows. *Type 510; India: Thompson-Balys.

H151.6.1. H151.6.1. Enchanted heroine seen temporarily disenchanted: recognition follows. Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 6.

H151.6.2. H151.6.2. Recognition because of imperfection of disguise. Type 510; German: Grimm No. 152.

H151.7. H151.7. Hero's power to transform girl to carnation brings about recognition. *Type 652.

H151.8. H151.8. Husband attracted by wife's power of healing: recognition follows. *Type 712.

H151.9. H151.9. Abandoned child joins parents in game: recognition follows. Oceanic (New Zealand, Melanesia): Dixon 42 n. 10.

H151.9.1. H151.9.1. Abandoned child recognized in game. India: Thompson-Balys.

H151.10. H151.10. Combat of unknown brothers brings about recognition. Dickson 108 n. 18; Icelandic: Boberg.

H151.11. H151.11. Hero is served at table by his unknown son: recognition of his wife follows. English: Wells 130 (Emare). Cf. Chaucer's Man of Law's Tale.

H151.12. H151.12. Geese tell of beauty of their mistress and bring about recognition. *Type 533; Köhler-Bolte I 347; Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 7.

H151.13. H151.13. Disguised hero's golden hair discovered by spying princess. Type 314.

H151.14. H151.14. Tears fall on person below and indicate presence of those above (on cliff, tree, etc.).

H151.14.1. H151.14.1. Recognition by tear falling from tree where girl has been abandoned. India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 77.

H151.15. H151.15. Seller of trinkets tells of heroine's address of son as "tiger's son" and brings about recognition of true bride. India: Thompson-Balys.

H152. H152. Recognition through accidental encounter.

H152.1. H152.1. Poor people given alms: one of them recognized. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H152.1.1. H152.1.1. Woman entertains every traveler in the hope of finding her husband. India: Thompson-Balys.

H152.2. H152.2. Impoverished husband in service of wife recognized. India: Thompson-Balys.

H152.3. H152.3. Abandoned wife recognized among workers. India: Thompson-Balys.

H153. H153. Outcast wife (children) builds castle identical with king's, invites him, and is recognized. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H154. H154. Recognition of abandoned child when parent comes to him for relief from famine. Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H155. H155. Abandoned queen invites all to forest, gives appropriate food to her persecutors, and is recognized. India: Thompson-Balys.

H157. H157. King finds note with children in casket floated down river identifying them as his. (Cf. S141.) Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 526.

H161. H161. Recognition of transformed person among identical companions. Prearranged signals. *Type 313, 325; *BP II 29, 516ff.; *Fb "hest" I 598b; *Köhler to Gonzenbach II 246.—Missouri French: Carrière; Hindu: Keith 142; India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 340 n. 224.

H161.0.1. H161.0.1. Recognition of person among identical companions. Irish myth: *Cross; Chinese: Graham.

H162. H162. Recognition of disguised princess by bee lighting on her. Fb "bi" IV 36b; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

H162.1. H162.1. Insect points out deity by settling where he is. Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 18.

H162.2. H162.2. King selected by having a cricket light on his head. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

H162.3. H162.3. Recognition of disguised princess by bull. Africa (Madagascar): Renel I 144ff. No. 26, 148ff. No. 27.

H163. H163. Recognition of own cow in herd of twenty thousand. Hornet helper. Africa: Werner African 154.

H165. H165. Father recognizes son after having thrown him in oven. Marquesas: Beckwith Myth 482.

H171. H171. Animal (object) indicates election of ruler. *Egerton JAOS XXXIII 158; *Chauvin VI 75 No. 239; Irish: Beal XXI 309.

H171.1. H171.1. King selected by elephant's bowing to him. *Penzer V 175ff.; *Hartland Ritual and Belief (1914) 290ff.; *Christiansen FFC XXIV 124; Paris Zs. f. Vksk. XIII 6 n. 8.—India: *Thompson-Balys.

- H171.1.1. H171.1.1. Elephant raises girl three times to be king's wife. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H171.2. H171.2. Bird indicates election of king (pope). *Type 671; *BP I 325; Fb "pave" II 793a; *Loomis White Magic 66; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H171.3. H171.3. Horse indicates election of emperor. *Howey Horse in Magic and Myth 157; Penzer IV 104, V 176; Herodotus II cap. 84—87; Herbert III 210; Oesterley No. 270.
- H171.4. H171.4. Man before whom riderless car stops chosen king. *Penzer V 175ff.
- H171.4.1. H171.4.1. Man before whom oxen stop chosen king. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H171.5. H171.5. Stone of destiny (Lia Fáil). Roars out under rightful king. (Cf. H71.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- H171.6. H171.6. Pope selected by chair moving toward candidate. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 27 (b).
- H172. H172. Animal will serve only certain man.
- H172.1. H172.1. Horse will permit only certain man to ride him. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H173. H173. Disguised man recognized by dog. Greek: Fox 139; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H173.1. H173.1. Chieftain recognized by faithful swineherd. Irish myth: Cross.
- H173.2. H173.2. Chieftain recognized by former captive. Irish myth: Cross.
- H173.3. H173.3. Animal first to recognize his returned master. *Boje 105, 108ff.; Icelandic: Boberg.
- H175. H175. Recognition by "force of nature". Unknown member of family immediately and magically recognized. *Dickson 16f., 69 n. 17; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 86.
- H175.1. H175.1. Recognition of son by gushing up of milk in mother's breasts. *Cosquin études 199ff., 238; *Chauvin V 13 No. 8; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H175.2. H175.2. Child mystically recognizes woman as his mother. Chinese: Graham.
- H175.3. H175.3. Sick prince's pulse beats violently when his loved one passes by. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H175.4. H175.4. Fire issues spontaneously from fireless hearth when man approaches. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H175.5. H175.5. Ghost of unknown child passes over heads of parents and bursts in a spray of blood. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 183.
- H181. H181. Recognition by unmasking. *Type 900; India: Thompson-Balys.

H182. H182. Beating brings about outcry and recognition. India: Thompson-Balys.

H183. H183. Identification by nurse. Long-missing person identified by his childhood nurse. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H184. H184. Recognition by miraculous sight of seer (saint). Irish myth: Cross; Greek: Fox 119 (Cassandra).

H186. H186. Hero spits twice at his wife as sign of recognition. Chinese: Graham.

H187. H187. Recognition by servant: saves master from death. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H188. H188. Princess appears before crane (who had demanded her in marriage) and is recognized by him despite loathly disguise. India: Thompson-Balys.

H192. H192. Recognition by supernatural manifestation. Jewish: Neuman.

H192.1. H192.1. Recognition of man acceptable to God: knife leaps into his hand. Jewish: *Neuman.

H200—H299.

H200—H299. Tests of truth.

H210—H239.

H210—H239. TESTS OF GUILT OR INNOCENCE

H210. H210. Test of guilt or innocence. Icelandic: Boberg.

H210.1. H210.1. Guilt or innocence of souls tested by bridge. Irish myth: Cross.

H211. H211. Criminal detected by having child hand knife to him. *Type 950; Köhler-Bolte I 202.

H215. H215. Magic manifestation at execution proves innocence. Types 451, 710; Irish: Beal XXI 316; German: Grimm Nos. 3, 6, 120; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H215.1. H215.1. Sword magically changed to wood when executioner is to decapitate innocent person. Chauvin V 173 No. 96 n. 1.

H215.2. H215.2. Gallows rope breaks when innocent person is hanged. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 44.

H215.3. H215.3. Grass refuses to grow: indication of innocence of man hanged there. (Cf. E631.2, F974.) U.S., Wales: *Baughman.

H215.4. H215.4. Ineradicable handprint as indication of innocence. (Cf. D1654.3.) U.S.: Baughman.

H216. H216. Indications of innocence.

H216.1. H216.1. Garden filled with flowers on innocent girl's approach. India: Thompson-Balys.

H216.2. H216.2. Voice from heaven testifies to innocence of accused. (Cf. F966.)
Jewish: *Neuman.

H216.3. H216.3. Church door opens magically, as proof of priest's innocence. Irish:
O'Suilleabhain 29.

H217. H217. Decision made by contest. India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda;
Korean: Zong in-Sob 195; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 137.

H217.1. H217.1. Decision of victory by single combat between army leaders. (Cf.
H218.) Icelandic: *Boberg.

H217.2. H217.2. Decision by single combat or holmgang of who is to marry girl.
Icelandic: *Boberg.

H217.3. H217.3. Holmgang to decide owner of gold. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H217.4. H217.4. Holmgang to decide who is to be king. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H218. H218. Trial by combat. Guilt or innocence established in judicial combat. Thien
Motive 41f.; *Schoepperle II 338ff.; Dickson 74, 77 n. 38, 78 n. 40, 130f., 153, 174,
226; *Ashdown Modern Lang. Review XVII 113ff.; Bell ibid. XVIII 22ff.; *Boje 88;
*Hibbard 35ff., 132 n. 11.—Irish myth: *Cross; English: Child V 490 s.v. "ordeal", Wells 97 (Chevalere Assigne); Icelandic: *Boberg; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Jewish:
Neuman; Hindu: Tawney I 396.

H218.0.1. H218.0.1. Vindication by champion. Usually noble lady or king accused.
Child II 34—48, 508a, 510b. See also most references to H218.

H218.1. H218.1. Judicial combat interrupted by friends of loser. *Dickson 79 n. 40.

H218.2. H218.2. Wrestling to test legitimacy of son. India: Thompson-Balys.

H220. H220. Ordeals. Guilt or innocence thus established. Patetta Le Ordalie (1890).
*Hdwb. d. Abergl. III 994ff.; Penzer VIII 196 n.; Keith Encyc. Relig. Eth. s.v. "ordeal";
Basset RTP XVII 397, 597, XIX 156ff., XXIII 182.—Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 317;
English: Child V 490 "ordeal"; Icelandic: Boberg; West Indies: Flowers 455.

H221. H221. Ordeal by fire. Suspected person must pass through or jump over fire to determine guilt or innocence. Basset RTP VI 631; Scala Celi 6b, 46b Nos. 38, 259;
Herbert III 605f., Alphabet Nos. 69, 221, 434; *Gaster Exempla 191 No. 28.—Irish:
O'Suilleabhain 71; English: Child V 490 s.v. "ordeal"; Jewish: *Neuman; India:
*Thompson-Balys; Hindu: Keith 128; S. A. Indian (Brazil): Ehrenreich Int. Cong.
Americanists XIV 661; Am. Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 248 No. 42; Jamaica:
*Beckwith MAFLS XVII 238 No. 9.

H221.1. H221.1. Ordeal by burning coal. Basset RTP VII 284; Jewish: Neuman.

H221.1.1. H221.1.1. Ordeal: carrying live coals in robe or cloak without harm to garment or bearer. *Loomis White Magic 34.

H221.1.2. H221.1.2. Sanctity of person tested by survival in burning house. Irish myth:
*Cross.

H221.1.3. H221.1.3. Sanctity of books tested by throwing them into fire. Irish myth:

*Cross.

H221.2. H221.2. Ordeal by hot iron. *Penzer VIII 195 n. 3, 196 n.; Basset RTP VII 284, 615, VIII 20, 431, 561; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys.

H221.2.1. H221.2.1. Ordeal: virgin to pull on hot iron and name men. Only with guilty will she and he be burnt. India: Thompson-Balys.

H221.2.2. H221.2.2. Ordeal by red-hot iron applied by druids. Irish myth: *Cross.

H221.3. H221.3. Ordeal by burning oil. Basset RTP VII 282, VIII 20; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 22.

H221.4. H221.4. Ordeal by boiling water. Basset RTP VII 281, 616, VIII 561; Irish: *Cross, O'Suilleabhain 50, Beal XXI 318; Icelandic: Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

H221.5. H221.5. Ordeal by spitting. Extinguishing fire is proof of innocence. England: *Baughman.

H222. H222. Ordeal by water. Guilt or innocence shown by ability to swim. *Kittredge Witchcraft 232ff., 536ff.; Penzer VIII 195f.; Basset RTP VII 285; *Fb "svømme" III 695b, "vand" III 999b, "vandprøve" III 1005b; Loomis White Magic 41.—Irish myth: *Cross; Greek: Frazer Pausanias III 388; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3664; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 456.

H222.0.1. H222.0.1. Ordeal by water applied by druids. Irish myth: *Cross.

H222.1. H222.1. Legitimacy of children tested by dipping them in river. English: Child I 271 n.

H222.2. H222.2. Ordeal by holy water. If simpleton closes his eyes to holy water he is possessed; if he laughs he is merely an idiot. U.S.: Baughman; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H222.3. H222.3. Guilt or innocence shown by effect of enchanted water. Irish myth: Cross.

H222.4. H222.4. Sanctity of books tested by throwing them into water. Irish myth: Cross.

H223. H223. Ordeal by poison. Penzer VIII 196 n.; Basset RTP VI 631, VII 278, 616; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman.

H224. H224. Ordeal by crocodiles (snakes). Judgment depends on whether person is devoured or rejected by crocodiles. Basset RTP VII 286; English: Child V 490 "ordeal."

H224.1. H224.1. Ordeal by kissing poisonous serpents. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 46.

H225. H225. Ordeal by rope-walking. Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 182, (Ekoi): Talbot 402; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 238 No. 9.

H225.1. H225.1. Ordeal: walking on ladder of knives. Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 22.

H225.2. H225.2. Ordeal: walking on eggs. Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 22.

- H226. H226. Ordeal by balance. Defendant is weighed twice. He must be lighter second time. *Penzer VIII 195 n. 3.
- H227. H227. Ordeal: carrying murdered man's blood. Must not spill it. Fb "blod" IV 47b.
- H228. H228. Ordeal by creeping under a sod partially detached from the earth without its falling down. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- H232. H232. Ordeal by bread and cheese. Declaration: if I am not innocent may I choke on bread and cheese. Kittredge Witchcraft 237f., 543 nn. 85—91; England: *Baughman.
- H233. H233. Ordeal: taking stone out of bucket. Color indicates guilt or innocence. Irish myth: *Cross.
- H233.1. H233.1. Ordeal: names of suspected persons are placed in chalice on altar: the one to whom the lot falls is guilty. Irish myth: Cross.
- H234. H234. Scales test: weighing witch against Bible. England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- H235. H235. Ordeal: cock under pot crows when guilty person touches pot. England: *Baughman.
- H236. H236. Ordeal by exposure. (Cf. S141, S331.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- H240. H240. Other tests of truth. Icelandic: Boberg.
- H241. H241. Worn-out shoes as proof of long journey. *Köhler-Bolte I 574f.; Fb "sko" III 288b; Icelandic: Saga och Sed 1940 p. 35, *Boberg; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 114.
- H242. H242. Credential tests: proof that messenger comes from certain person. Africa (Fjort): Dennett 75 No. 16.
- H242.1. H242.1. Riding speckled horse as credential test. Irish myth: Cross.
- H243. H243. Nature fruitless if false judgment is passed. Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H244. H244. Person magically disfigured when he speaks falsely. Irish myth: *Cross.
- H245. H245. Casting lots as truth test. Irish myth: *Cross.
- H245.1. H245.1. Incantation which when recited over certain "lots" causes them to distinguish between guilt and innocence. Irish myth: Cross.
- H248. H248. Test of death: to see whether person is dead or feigning. English: Child V 3, 6, 498 s.v. "tests"; Africa (Mpongwe): Nassau 16ff. Nos. 1, 3, 3 version 2; (Basuto): Jacottet 14 No. 1.
- H248.1. H248.1. Sham-dead person tested by hot lead poured on hand. *Wesselski Märchen 197.
- H248.2. H248.2. Sham dead tested by stinging insects down back. Africa (Yaunde): Heepe 253ff. No. 31.

H248.2.1. H248.2.1. Crocodile masking as dead obeys suggestion that he make flesh quiver. India: Thompson-Balys.

H248.3. H248.3. Sham dead tested by pricking. Italian Novella: Rotunda; Jewish: Neuman.

H248.4. H248.4. Test of death by putting burning wood in the mouth of fallen warriors. Icelandic: Boberg.

H248.5. H248.5. Sham dead detected by batting eyes. India: Thompson-Balys.

H251. H251. Test of truth by magic object.

H251.1. H251.1. Bocca della Verita. Person swearing oath places hand in mouth of image. If oath is false the hand is bitten off. *Bolte Reise der Söhne Giaffers 216; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) Nos. 8, 206; *Krappe Nuovi Studi Medievali II fasc. I (1925); *Spargo Virgil the Necromancer 207ff.; English: Child I 269, 270 n., cf. Alphabet No. 418; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

H251.1.1. H251.1.1. Oath of truth before magic lion. If oath is false perjurer is dismembered. India: Thompson-Balys.

H251.2. H251.2. Stone of truth. When one stands on it he must utter truth. Fb "sten" III 554b; *Loomis White Magic 132.—Irish: Plummer clvii, *Cross.

H251.2.1. H251.2.1. Stone cannot be moved by one who speaks falsehood. Irish myth: Cross.

H251.2.2. H251.2.2. Magic stone detects perjury: sheds water. Irish myth: Cross.

H251.2.3. H251.2.3. Stone on which saint was born pours forth water when perjury is committed under it. "But if (the) oath be true, the stone remains in its proper nature." Irish myth: Cross.

H251.3. H251.3. Other magic object tests truth.

H251.3.1. H251.3.1. Tree tests perjury. Irish: Plummer cliii, Cross.

H251.3.2. H251.3.2. Thief detected by psalter and key. Closed Bible with key inside at magic text loosely held by diviner and client. Name of suspected thief on end of key. As verse is spoken, if name is that of thief, book and key will turn around. Kittredge Witchcraft 196 nn. 65—82.

H251.3.3. H251.3.3. Thief detected by sieve and shears. Sieve put on open shears and then grasped by two fingers so as to balance. Charm recited. If sieve trembles when name is called, that person is guilty. Kittredge Witchcraft 198ff. nn. 83—94; England: Baughman; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn VI (1900) 389ff., (1936) 188ff.

H251.3.4. H251.3.4. Stick with money in it breaks and betrays thief who swears his innocence. Hdwb. d. Märchens I 248a; *Zachariae Zs. f. Vksk. XXXIII 78; Chauvin II 129; BP IV 323, 389; Jewish: Gaster Exempla No. 121, *Neuman.

H251.3.5. H251.3.5. Oath taken before image. If oath is false the image turns around (or changes color). Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

H251.3.6. H251.3.6. Chain around neck tests truth. Tightens when wearer speaks falsehood. Irish myth: Cross.

H251.3.7. H251.3.7. Magic object cast on water sinks if person is guilty. Irish myth: Cross.

H251.3.8. H251.3.8. Magic object clings to hand of guilty person. Irish myth: *Cross.

H251.3.9. H251.3.9. Magic spring detects perjury: disfigures perjurer. Irish myth: Cross.

H251.3.9.1. H251.3.9.1. Magic spring detects parricide and idolatry. Irish myth: Cross.

H251.3.9.2. H251.3.9.2. Well rises for sheep only for rightful owner. Jewish: Neuman.

H251.3.10. H251.3.10. False judgment by judge causes fruit to fall. Just judgment by judge causes fruit to be perfect. Irish myth: Cross.

H251.3.11. H251.3.11. Pig that can be boiled only after four true stories are told. Irish myth: *Cross.

H251.3.12. H251.3.12. Truth-testing vessel. Irish myth: *Cross.

H251.3.13. H251.3.13. Magic cup as test of truth and falsehood. Irish myth: Cross.

H251.3.14. H251.3.14. Calumniated princess' dead body fails to rot; accuser repudiated. India: Thompson-Balys.

H252. H252. Act of truth. Person asserts a thing as true declaring: "If my words are true, may this or that happen." W. J. Rees Lives of the Cambro-British Saints 193; J. P. Collier Old Shakespeare Society XIV 82; Alphabet Nos. 35, 486; *Burlingame Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society (July 1917) 429ff.; Fb "ildebrand" II 13.—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys, *Penzer II 31ff., III 179ff., IV 239 n. 3; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 23, 96, 151, 490, 531, 707, 832, II 412, 473, 614, 679, 816, 841, 933, 1060, 1098, 1153, 1258.

H252.0.1. H252.0.1. Test: telling true stories. Irish myth: *Cross.

H252.1. H252.1. Placing hand on genitals as test of truth. Irish myth: Cross.

H252.2. H252.2. Amount of blood in spittle as test of complete subjection. Incomplete till all is blood. Irish myth: Cross.

H252.3. H252.3. If oath is false, fruit will fall. (Cf. H251.3.10.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H252.4. H252.4. Oath taken on boy's head: boy to die if false. India: Thompson-Balys.

H252.4.1. H252.4.1. Act of truth: boy falls dead though what has been said is the truth; when lie is told he is resuscitated. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H252.4.2. H252.4.2. Women swear falsely by their husbands and children, who immediately fall dead. India: Thompson-Balys.

H252.5. H252.5. Act of truth: island sinks into sea, after hanging of man who has appealed to God to cause the phenomenon as indication of his innocence. (Cf. F948.) U.S.: *Baughman.

H252.6. H252.6. Act of truth: cursed church clock never runs correctly. England: Baughman.

H253. H253. Oaths before gods as test of truth. Chinese: Werner 403.

H255. H255. Test: which of twins is elder. Younger unthinkingly hands chopsticks to elder and thus betrays his junior rank. Burmese: Scott Indo-Chinese 356.

H256. H256. Test of innocence: apple and gold offered. Innocent person takes apple. Hdwb. d. Märchens I 93a; BP I 203, III 236.

H256.1. H256.1. Test of child's innocence: onyx stone and coal of fire offered. (Cf. H501.) Jewish: Neuman.

H257. H257. Holiness of saint tested: asked to perform miracles. India: Thompson-Balys.

H257.1. H257.1. Grade of holiness tested: one whose candle burns down first. *Loomis White Magic 129.

H261. H261. Gold in the Bible. A man professes to be a great Bible reader. King leaves a piece of money in the Bible. On his next visit it is still there. Anderson FFC XLII 361. Cf. Type 1453.

H263. H263. Test of sin. Irish myth: Cross.

H263.1. H263.1. Exposure in boat as test of sin. Irish myth: Cross.

H264. H264. Footsteps in manure (dust) as proof that dead man has walked. Chinese: Graham.

H300—H499.

H300—H499. Marriage tests.

H300. H300. Tests connected with marriage.

H301. H301. Excessive demands to prevent marriage. *Chauvin V 63 No. 19 n. 1; Irish myth: Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H305. H305. Task: to win ogress' daughter for a bride. India: Thompson-Balys.

H310—H359.

H310—H359. SUITOR TESTS

H310. H310. Suitor tests. A suitor is put to severe tests by his prospective bride or father-in-law. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; English: Wells 16 (Guy of Warwick); Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 187; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 324 n. 170, 328 n. 186; S. A. Indian (Tropical Forests): Lowie BBAE CXLIII (3) 55, (Carib): Alexander Lat. Am. 264; Africa: Werner African 153f., (Benga): Nassau 227 No. 34.

- H310.1. H310.1. Tests for hero, husband of supernatural (divine) wife. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H310.2. H310.2. Brother unwittingly qualifies as bridegroom of sister in test. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H311. H311. Inspection test for suitors. Suitors for princess's hand must present themselves for public inspection. (Cf. H362, T55.7.) Types 314, 502; BP III 111; Krappe Revue Hispanique LXXXI 5ff.; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 104, *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H312. H312. Physical and mental requirements for suitors. Penzer III 66; Irish myth: *Cross; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 106 n. 1.
- H312.1. H312.1. Successful suitor to be without blotches. Africa (Mpongwe): Nassau 69 No. 15; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 272 No. 85.
- H312.2. H312.2. Successful suitor must have gold teeth. *Fb "tand" III 771a; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 93; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 1.
- H312.3. H312.3. Suitors chosen with feet as only part seen. Icelandic: Boberg.
- H312.4. H312.4. Successful suitor must have whitest hands. Blacksmith qualifies because of frequent washing of hands. Herbert III 86.
- H312.4.1. H312.4.1. Successful suitor must have the prettiest hands; not whitest, but dark with scars and gold rings. Köhler-Bolte I 90; Icelandic: *Boberg.
- H312.5. H312.5. Successful suitor must have cheeks like blood, skin like snow and hair like a raven. (Cf. Z65.1.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- H312.6. H312.6. Suitor test: correct wearing of clothes. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H312.7. H312.7. Suitor test: to be able to go through a wall. Chinese: Graham.
- H312.8. H312.8. Bridegroom-to-be has to have three pecks, three quarts of gold and an animal with a horn on his head pointing to the sky, and a large red hair. Chinese: Graham.
- H313. H313. Suitor test: obedience and humility before bride. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H313.1. H313.1. Princess will marry whoever will give her anything she wishes for a month. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H313.2. H313.2. Fairy will marry king only if he will either cut off son's head or give up fasting on eleventh day. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H314. H314. Suitor's sincerity tested. Chinese: Werner 272.
- H314.1. H314.1. Suitor's sincerity tested by reporting girl's death. All but one make excuses for not helping with funeral. Africa (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 85 No. 14.
- H314.2. H314.2. Suitor's sincerity tested by seven years' banishment. Heptameron No. 24.

H315. H315. Suitor test: to whom the princess turns. Rival suitors sleep with princess. The one she turns to is to have her. They vie in enticements. *Type 621, 850; Köhler-Bolte I 428f.

H315.1. H315.1. Suitor test: to make the princess fall in love with him. India: Thompson-Balys.

H315.2. H315.2. Suitor contest: bride offered to suitor giving the token of the greater love. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H316. H316. Suitor test: apple thrown indicates princess's choice. (Often golden apple.) *Type 502; *BP III 111; Cosquin Contes Indiens 317ff.; Chauvin VI 3, *201, VIII 151, *Galtier RTP XIV 65; Fb "guldæble" I 516a; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 93a.

H316.1. H316.1. Orange (lemon) thrown to indicate princess's choice. Cosquin Contes Indiens 317ff.

H316.2. H316.2. Flowers thrown to indicate princess's choice. Cosquin Contes Indiens 317ff.; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H316.3. H316.3. Ball (goblet) thrown indicates princess's choice. Indonesian: De Vries's list No. 216; Persian: Carnoy 341.

H316.4. H316.4. Suitor test: garland thrown indicates girl's choice. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H316.5. H316.5. Expressing love by throwing little stones. India: Thompson-Balys.

H317. H317. Long term of service imposed on suitor. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H317.1. H317.1. Seven years of service imposed on suitor. Frazer Old Testament II 342—368; English: Wells 149 (The Squyr of Low Degre), Child I 204—6, 255, V 212b; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Cowell Jataka VI 164.

H317.2. H317.2. Two years of silence imposed on suitor. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

H317.3. H317.3. Gardener's son to marry princess if he remains in prison twelve years. India: Thompson-Balys

H317.4. H317.4. Test of suitor's love and endurance by constant postponing. Icelandic: Ragnars saga Lopbr. 127—29, Boberg.

H318. H318. Suitor preferred who will pay enormous sum for bride. India: Thompson-Balys.

H321. H321. Suitor test: hiding from princess. She has magic sight. *Types 329, 554; *BP II 365; Köhler-Bolte I 408.

H322. H322. Suitor test: finding princess. Type 590; Fb "skjule"; cf. Thompson CColl II 393; Filipino: Fansler MAFLS XII 183; Tuamotu: Stimson (z-G. 13/1241); West Indies: Flowers 457.

H322.1. H322.1. Suitor test: finding object hidden by princess. *Type 507A; Irish myth: Cross.

- H322.2. H322.2. Suitor test: to get to imprisoned princess in a year's time. Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- H322.3. H322.3. Suitor test: bringing leg that fits into dragon claw left by the beloved of the princess. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- H322.4. H322.4. Suitor test: bringing maiden's lost shoe. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- H323. H323. Suitor test: learning girl's name. Africa (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 45 No. 5.
- H324. H324. Suitor test: choosing princess from others identically clad. *Type 554; BP II 28; Irish myth: Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: Dixon 217; Chinese: Graham; Japanese: Ikeda.
- H324.1. H324.1. Suitor test: choosing sweetheart's sedan chair from thirty others like it. Chinese: Graham.
- H326. H326. Suitor test: skill.
- H326.1. H326.1. Suitor test: aptness in handicrafts.
- H326.1.1. H326.1.1. Suitor test: constructing automatic peacock. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H326.1.2. H326.1.2. Suitor test: skill in archery. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H326.2. H326.2. Suitor test: eating a pomegranate without letting a single seed fall. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H326.3. H326.3. Suitor test: skill in hunt. Eskimo (Aleut): Golder JAFL XXII 17.
- H326.4. H326.4. Suitor test: skill in fishing. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H327. H327. Suitor test: cleverness and learning. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H328. H328. Suitor test: power of endurance.
- H328.1. H328.1. Suitor test: resisting intoxication after much drinking. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H328.2. H328.2. Suitor test: being swung by mustache without shedding tears. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H328.3. H328.3. Suitor test: enduring blow from spear. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H328.4. H328.4. Suitor test: standing naked in river through a winter night. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H328.5. H328.5. Suitor test: bathing in boiling water. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H328.6. H328.6. Princess to be married to man who withstands twelve years' fight. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H331. H331. Suitor contests: bride offered as prize. *Types 513, 514, 900; Philippon

FFC L 12f.—Icelandic: Egils saga einhendsa ok ásmundar Berserkjabana (FAS III) 366; Finnish: Kalevala rune 3; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 9, *Rotunda; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 18f.; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Werner 420; Japanese: Ikeda; Oceanic (New Zealand, Tahiti, Cook Group, Society Group): Dixon 61, 64; Eskimo (Aleut): Golder JAFL XXII 17; N. A. Indian: *Thompson-Tales 328n. 186; West Indies: Flowers 457.

H331.1. H331.1. Suitor contest: difficult riding.

H331.1.1. H331.1.1. Suitor contest: riding up glass mountain. *Type 530; *BP III 111 n. 3; Köhler-Bolte I 67; Hdwb. d. Märchens II 627ff.; Boberg Prinsessen pe Glasbjærget (Danske Studier [1928] 16ff.); *Fb "glarbjærg" I 459; Krappe The Glass Mountain (Modern Language Quarterly VIII 139—145); India: Thompson-Balys.

H331.1.2. H331.1.2. Suitor contest: riding to fourth story of tower. *Type 530; *BP III 112 n. 1.

H331.1.2.1. H331.1.2.1. Suitor contest: jumping horse over palace. India: Thompson-Balys.

H331.1.3. H331.1.3. Suitor contest: riding up mast (spear). *BP III 113 n. 3; N. A. Indian (Chilcotin): Farrand JE II 43.

H331.1.3.1. H331.1.3.1. Suitor test: jumping over high hedge. India: Thompson-Balys.

H331.1.4. H331.1.4. Suitor contest: riding across pit. *BP III 113 n. 2.

H331.1.5. H331.1.5. Suitor contest: riding through fire. *Panzer Sigfrid 110; Krappe Waberlohe (Archiv für das Studium der neueren Sprachen CLXXII 10ff.); Icelandic: *Boberg.

H331.1.6. H331.1.6. Suitor contest: jumping river on horseback. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H331.1.6.1. H331.1.6.1. Suitor contest: jumping ditches and hedges of spears. India: Thompson-Balys.

H331.1.7. H331.1.7. Contest in reaping: best reaper to get beautiful girl as wife. Irish myth: Cross.

H331.2. H331.2. Suitor contest: tournament. *Type 508; Cosquin Contes Indiens 329ff.; *Liljeblad 39ff.; Dickson 181; English: Wells 147 (Ipomedon); Icelandic: Boberg; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Jewish: Neuman.

H331.2.1. H331.2.1. Suitor contest: success in battle. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H331.2.1.1. H331.2.1.1. Suitor contest: bride offered to the one distinguishing himself most in battle. Girl loves both suitors equally. Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

H331.3. H331.3. Suitor contest: prize to one whose staff blooms. Told of Joseph in contest for Virgin Mary. *Dh II 265; Jewish: *Neuman.

H331.4. H331.4. Suitor contest: shooting. Icelandic: Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Anesaki 295, Ikeda; N. A. Indian (Kutenai): Boas BBAE LIX 199 No. 64, (Sahaptin): Farrand MAFLS XI 157 No. 9, (Tsimshian): Boas BBAE XXVII 137, (Wichita): Dorsey CI XXI 130 No. 19, Dorsey Contributions to N. A. Ethnology VI 604, (Pawnee): Grinnell 87 No. 1, Dorsey MAFLS VIII 113 No. 31, 239 No. 60, (Crow): Simms FM II 292 No. 13, (Dakota): Zitkala-Sa Old Indian Legends 77; (Menomini): Skinner and Satterlee PaAM XIII 396 No. 25, (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE XXXII 139, 318, 513, 567, (Wyandot): Barbeau GSCan XI 212, (Zuci): Cushing 215; Africa (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 126.

H331.4.1. H331.4.1. Suitors contest with bride's father in shooting. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 238 n. 1.

H331.4.2. H331.4.2. Suitor contest: bending bow of woman's absent husband. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 300 n. 3; Japanese: Ikeda.

H331.5. H331.5. Suitor contest: race. Dh III 145; Irish myth: Cross; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 23 n. 5, 160 n. 2; India: Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian (Salishan): Hill-Tout British North America 229, (Shuswap): Teit JE II 684 No. 22, (Thompson River): Teit MAFLS VI 36 No. 7, (Skykomish): Haeberlin JAFL XXXVII 383 No. 9, (Achomawi): Curtin JAFL XXII 284 No. 2, (Arapaho): Dorsey and Kroeber FM V 105, (Ponca): Dorsey CNAE VI 333, (Menomini): Skinner and Satterlee PaAm XIII 396 No. 25, (California): Gayton and Newman 92; Africa (Vai): Ellis 189 No. 5; West Indies: Flowers 458.

H331.5.0.1. H331.5.0.1. Loser in bride-race must die. Italian Novella: Rotunda; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 160 n. 2.

H331.5.1. H331.5.1. Race with princess for her hand. *Types 513, 514; Missouri French: Carrière; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 8; Greek: Fox 59.

H331.5.1.1. H331.5.1.1. Apple thrown in race with bride. Distracts girl's attention and as she stops to pick it up, suitor passes her. (Atalanta.) Oesterley Gesta Romanorum No. 60; *BP IV 138; Herbert III 193; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Greek: Fox 59, *Grote I 138.

H331.5.1.1.1. H331.5.1.1.1. Hero's confederate slows down princess with his breath. Extraordinary blower blows against her so that she is retarded and loses race. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H331.5.2. H331.5.2. Suitor contest: race with bride's father. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 181; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 157 n. 4.

H331.5.3. H331.5.3. Suitor test: winning horse-race three times. Hdwb. d. Märchens I 229a n. 3.

H331.5.4. H331.5.4. Suitor test: boat race. Eskimo (Aleut): Golder JAFL XXII 17.

H331.6. H331.6. Suitor contest: wrestling. (Cf. H1562.9.) India: Thompson-Balys Eskimo (Aleut): Golder JAFL XXII 17.

H331.6.1. H331.6.1. Suitor contest: wrestling with bride. N. A. Indian (Wasco): Curtin PAES II 290 No. 2.

H331.6.1.1. H331.6.1.1. Princess wins wrestling match with suitor by revealing her breast. He looks and is beaten. Köhler-Bolte I 561.

H331.7. H331.7. Suitor contest: aiming with missile. Jamaica: Beckwith: MAFLS XVII 269 No. 82.

H331.8. H331.8. Suitor contest: splitting antlers. N. A. Indian (Snohomish): Hill-Tout British Assn. Adv. Science (70th meeting) 525.

H331.9. H331.9. Suitor contest: trapping. N. A. Indian (Shoshoni): Lowie JAFL XXXVII 237 No. 18, (Pawnee): Dorsey MAFLS VIII 178 No. 45, (Gros Ventre): Kroeber PaAM I 80 No. 19.

H331.10. H331.10. Suitor contest: carrying one hundred jugs of water from sea to castle in one day. India: Thompson-Balys.

H331.11. H331.11. Princess given to the one confessing all his treachery. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H331.12. H331.12. Suitor contest: splitting block of wood. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

H331.13. H331.13. Suitor contest: cheating. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H331.14. H331.14. Suitor contest: trial of strength. India: Thompson-Balys.

H331.15. H331.15. Suitor contest: animal fight.

H331.15.1. H331.15.1. Suitor contest: cockfight. India: Thompson-Balys.

H331.15.2. H331.15.2. Suitor contest: bullfight. India: Thompson-Balys.

H331.16. H331.16. Suitor contest: throwing ball up to princess. India: Thompson-Balys.

H331.16.1. H331.16.1. Suitor contest: throwing iron ball. India: Thompson-Balys.

H331.17. H331.17. Suitor contest: eating one hundred carcasses at a sitting. (Cf. H1141.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H332. H332. Suitor in contest with bride or member of her family. See H331.4.1, H331.5.1, H331.5.2, H331.6.1.

H332.1. H332.1. Suitor in contest with bride.

H332.1.1. H332.1.1. Suitor test: duel with bride. Wesselski Archiv Orientální II 430.

H332.1.2. H332.1.2. Suitor test: to defeat bride in game. Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H332.1.2.1. H332.1.2.1. Suitor test: to defeat bride at dice. India: Thompson-Balys.

H332.1.3. H332.1.3. Suitor test: to defeat bride in harping. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H332.1.4. H332.1.4. Suitor test: tournament with bride. Icelandic: Boberg.

H332.1.5. H332.1.5. Shooting contest with bride-to-be. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H332.2. H332.2. Suitor contest with brother-in-law. Icelandic: *Boberg; S. A. Indian (Chincha): Alexander Lat. Am. 231.

H332.3. H332.3. Suitor test: duel with father-in-law. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H332.4. H332.4. Groom and his army have to fight bride's army. India: Thompson-Balys.

H333. H333. Girl demands suitor's life (or mutilation).

H333.1. H333.1. Lover has head cut off at girl's desire. India: Thompson-Balys.

H333.2. H333.2. Suitor test: tribute of his severed hands. India: Thompson-Balys.

H335. H335. Tasks assigned suitors. Bride as prize for accomplishment. (For nature of tasks see H1000ff.) *Types 313, 502, 513, 514, 518, 570, 577; BP II 87ff., III 267ff., 424ff.; Hibbard 275ff. (Sir Eglamour).—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Finnish: Kalevala runes 7, 8, 13, 14, 19; Italian Novella: *Rotunda, Basile Pentamerone II Nos. 5, 7; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 87 n. 3, II 61 n. 3, Fox 107; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesian: De Vries's list No. 168; Indo-Chinese: Scott Indo-Chinese 290; Chinese: Graham; Japanese: Anesaki 262; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 13/174, 13/203, 13/276, 13/317, 13/441, 13/499, 13/730, 13/243, 13/1241); Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 57; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 324 n. 170; Africa (Mpongwe): Nassau 31 No. 4, (Benga): Nassau 134 No. 15; West Indies: Flowers 458. Cf. Wünsche Teufel 33 (devil).

H335.0.1. H335.0.1. Bride helps suitor perform his tasks. *Type 313; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; German: Grimm Nos. 92, 113, 121, 196; Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 7, Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Japanese: Ikeda.

H335.0.1.1. H335.0.1.1. Otherworld mistress instructs hero how to perform tasks (imposed by her mother). Irish myth: Cross.

H335.0.1.2. H335.0.1.2. Bride's parents (supernatural) help suitor win in suitor contests. India: Thompson-Balys.

H335.0.2. H335.0.2. Girl assigns tasks to her suitors. *De Vries FFC LXXIII 308; Irish myth: *Cross; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Japanese: Ikeda.

H335.0.2.1. H335.0.2.1. Suitor task: to study philosophy for five years. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H335.0.2.2. H335.0.2.2. Suitor task: prince to learn a trade. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 949*.

H335.0.3. H335.0.3. Devil as suitor assigned tasks. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 343f., 345f., 363, 398.

H335.0.4. H335.0.4. Suitor tasks announced by inscription on statue. India: Thompson-Balys.

H335.0.5. H335.0.5. Goddess assigns task to her mortal suitor. India: Thompson-Balys.

H335.1. H335.1. Suitor task: avenging bride's father's death before marriage.

Icelandic: Boberg.

H335.1.1. H335.1.1. Suitor task: avenging bride's former fiance before marriage. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H335.2. H335.2. Suitor task: cutting open magic gourd. Indo-Chinese: Scott Indo-Chinese 290.

H335.3. H335.3. Suitor task: killing ferocious animal.

H335.3.1. H335.3.1. Suitor task: to kill dragon to whom the princess is to be sacrificed. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H335.3.2. H335.3.2. Suitor task: killing lion guarding girl. India: Thompson-Balys.

H335.3.3. H335.3.3. Suitor task: to slay thieving boar. India: Thompson-Balys.

H335.3.4. H335.3.4. Suitor task: to kill treasure-guarding snake lying around the princess's chamber. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H335.3.5. H335.3.5. Task: hero's servant must kill giant pig. India: Thompson-Balys.

H335.3.6. H335.3.6. Suitor task: killing tiger demons. India: Thompson-Balys.

H335.3.7. H335.3.7. Suitor task: to kill other monsters. Icelandic: *Boberg; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 13/317).

H335.4. H335.4. Suitor task: to defeat enemies. Icelandic: *Boberg; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

H335.4.1. H335.4.1. Suitor task: to bring enemy's head. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H335.4.2. H335.4.2. Suitor task: to overcome robbers. Chinese: Graham.

H335.4.3. H335.4.3. Suitor task: to kill all earlier suitors. Icelandic: Boberg.

H335.4.4. H335.4.4. Suitor task: to kill (defeat) unwelcome suitor. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H335.5. H335.5. Suitor task: to bring back food as a marriage present. Chinese: Graham.

H335.6. H335.6. Suitor task: making weather calm. (Cf. D2141.0.8.1.) Tonga: Gifford 176.

H335.6.1. H335.6.1. Suitor task: controlling violent tide. Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G. 3/730).

H336. H336. Suitors assigned quests. *Types 513, 514; Irish myth: *Cross; English: Wells 115 (Sir Eglamore); German: Grimm Nos. 6, 62, 93, 96, 97, 106, 137, 163, 197; Icelandic: *Boberg; Africa (Fjort): Dennett 74.

H336.1. H336.1. Prospective father-in-law requires that suitor for his daughter's hand visit foreign country (otherworld?) to learn feats of arms. Irish myth: *Cross.

H336.2. H336.2. Suitor required to catch wild animals. (Cf. H335.3.) Irish myth:

*Cross.

H338. H338. Suitor test: faithfulness. India: Thompson-Balys.

H338.1. H338.1. Suitor test: keeping princess's secret. India: Thompson-Balys.

H341. H341. Suitor test: making princess laugh. Sadfaced princess has never laughed. *Types 559, 571, 1642; *BP I 59, 61, II 39ff., 454 n. 1; *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XXVI 89 n. 1; Italian: Basile Pentamerone Introduction, I No. 3; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H341.1. H341.1. Princess brought to laughter by people sticking together. *Type 571; India: Thompson-Balys.

H341.2. H341.2. Princess brought to laughter by small animals. *Type 571; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 5.

H341.3. H341.3. Princess brought to laughter by foolish actions of hero. *Type 571; *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XXVI 89 n. 1; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 3.

H341.3.1. H341.3.1. Princess brought to laughter by indecent show made in quarrel with old woman at well. Italian: Basile Pentamerone Introduction.

H342. H342. Suitor test: outwitting princess.

H342.1. H342.1. Suitor test: forcing princess to say, "That is a lie." *Type 852; BP II 506; *Fb "løgn" II 513a; Japanese: Ikeda.

H343. H343. Suitor test: bringing dumb princess to speak. *Type 945; BP III 53ff.; *Gründwald Hessische Blätter f. Vksk. XXX 317; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Yoruba): Ellis 263; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 279 No. 95; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 277 n. 1.

H343.0.1. H343.0.1. Princess to marry man who can make her speak to him in all watches of the night. India: Thompson-Balys.

H343.1. H343.1. Dumb princess brought to speak by shepherd who insults her. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 105 No. 860; India: Thompson-Balys.

H343.2. H343.2. Silent princess gives right answer when talking monkey is given wrong one by suitor-prince. India: Thompson-Balys.

H344. H344. Suitor test: entering princess's chamber. *Type 854.

H344.1. H344.1. Princess to marry man who can give her correct account of what happened in her bedchamber. India: Thompson-Balys.

H345. H345. Suitor test: overcoming princess in strength. *Type 519.

H345.1. H345.1. Suitor test: lifting strong princess's giant weapon. *Type 519.

H345.2. H345.2. Suitor test: riding strong princess's horse. *Type 519.

H346. H346. Princess given to man who can heal her. *Types 610, 613; *Christiansen FFC XXIV 98; BP III 267ff.; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; S. A. Indian (Chincha): Alexander Lat. Am. 231.

H346.1. H346.1. Maiden queen promises herself to the man who heals her husband and kills his bewitcher. Icelandic: Boberg.

H347. H347. Suitor test: to consort with princess without sleeping. Suitors are given sleeping potion. Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

H351. H351. Suitor test: to live on small amount of food.

H351.1. H351.1. Suitor test: to live on as much food as can be piled on a leaf. India: Thompson-Balys.

H352. H352. Suitor test: to make garden bloom in winter. (Cf. M261.1.) Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

H353. H353. Suitor test: to plunge into a stream. Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

H355. H355. Suitor test: finding an extraordinary object. India: Thompson-Balys.

H355.0.1. H355.0.1. Who will find the most marvelous thing? Each finds some marvelous thing. It turns out, that to save the girl's life all the things must be used together. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 467*.

H355.1. H355.1. Suitor test: finding a cow with silver horns. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

H355.2. H355.2. Suitor test: finding a hog with silver bristles. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

H355.3. H355.3. Suitor test: bringing marvelous tree. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H355.4. H355.4. Suitor test: obtaining flowers. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H355.5. H355.5. Suitor test: obtaining for bride a necklace like her mother's. India: Thompson-Balys.

H355.6. H355.6. Suitor test: to get wedding dress so fine that it will go through ring. India: Thompson-Balys.

H359. H359. Other suitor tests.

H359.1. H359.1. Suitor test: building causeway. (Cf. H1131.) Irish myth: *Cross (H345.3).

H359.2. H359.2. Suitor test: clearing land. Icelandic: Boberg.

H360—H388.

H360—H388. BRIDE TESTS

H360. H360. Bride test. Irish myth: *Cross.

H361. H361. Ring (jewel) bride test. Hero will marry girl possessing certain ring or jewel. Cox 505.

H362. H362. Bride chosen from girls assembled at feast. (Cf. H311.) German: Grimm No. 21.

H363. H363. Deceased wife marriage test. Man will marry woman meeting certain specifications prescribed by his deceased wife. *Type 610B; Cox 53—79 passim.

H363.1. H363.1. Bride test: wearing deceased wife's clothes. *Type 510B; Cox 53—79 passim; Fb "kjole" II 142.

H363.2. H363.2. Bride test: wearing deceased wife's ring. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H365. H365. Bride test: size of feet. Hindu: Tawney II 356.

H373. H373. Bride test: performance of tasks. *Type 875; Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 4; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

H375. H375. Bride contest: game.

H375.1. H375.1. Game of hide and seek with seven princesses to determine which is to be hero's wife. India: Thompson-Balys.

H375.2. H375.2. Man marries girl bringing his clothes soonest. India: Thompson-Balys.

H375.3. H375.3. Bride test: procuring food plants in shortest time. S. A. Indian (Toba): Métraux MAFLS XL 44, 45.

H381. H381. Bride test: thrift. *Types 1451, 1452.

H381.1. H381.1. Bride test: making dress from wasted flax. *Type 1451; BP III 239.

H381.2. H381.2. Bride test: thrifty cutting of cheese. Three girls tested. First eats rind and all, second cuts away good cheese, third cuts away just enough. Type 1452; BP III 236; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 92b.

H381.2.1. H381.2.1. Bride test: thrifty peeling of apple. Hdwb. d. Märchens I 92b.

H381.2.2. H381.2.2. Bride test: thrifty scraping of bread tray. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 702.

H382. H382. Bride test: industry. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 259.

H382.1. H382.1. Bride test: key in flax reveals laziness. Suitor hides key in flax on spinning wheel. Finds it there next day. Type 1453; BP III 236.

H383. H383. Bride test: domestic skill. India: Thompson-Balys.

H383.1. H383.1. Bride test: bread-making. Africa (Kaffir): Theal 52.

H383.1.1. H383.1.1. Bride test: bread-making—dough under fingernails. After three weeks the girl still has dough under her fingernails. Type 1453; Russian: Andrejev No. 1453*; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1454.*

H383.1.2. H383.1.2. Bride test: cooking griddle cakes. India: Thompson-Balys.

H383.2. H383.2. Bride test: cloth-working.

H383.2.1. H383.2.1. Bride test: spinning—girl cannot use spinning-wheel. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H383.2.2. H383.2.2. Bride test: weaving magic cloth, sewing magic shirt. Icelandic: Boberg.

H383.2.3. H383.2.3. Bride test: sewing a shirt for bridegroom's father. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

H383.3. H383.3. Bride test: skillful sweeping. India: Thompson-Balys.

H383.4. H383.4. Bride test: cooking. India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

H383.4.1. H383.4.1. Bride test: ale brewing. Icelandic: Boberg.

H383.5. H383.5. Bride test: cutting up a monster fish with scaly hide. India: Thompson-Balys.

H384. H384. Bride test: kindness. Jewish: Neuman.

H384.0.1. H384.0.1. Suitor chooses kindly girl. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 75.

H384.1. H384.1. Bride test: kindness—father-in-law disguised as beggar. Type 1455.

H384.1.1. H384.1.1. Wealthy (handsome) suitor disguised as beggar to test bride's kindness. India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; S. A. Indian (Caraja): Métraux MAFLS XL 49.

H384.1.2. H384.1.2. Prince disguised as a madman to test bride's character. India: Thompson-Balys.

H385. H385. Bride test: greediness. Type 1454*.

H386. H386. Bride test: obedience. *Type 901.

H386.1. H386.1. Bride test: to allow oneself to be beaten with shoe. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H387. H387. Bride test: constancy.

H387.1. H387.1. Bride's constancy tested by seven year's mourning over supposed dead lover. English: Wells 151 (The Squyr of Lowe Degre).

H388. H388. Bride test: wisdom (cleverness). Irish myth: Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H400—H459.

H400—H459. CHASTITY TESTS

H400. H400. Chastity test. Various means are employed to test a woman's (or man's) chastity. *Types 870, 870A; *Bédier Fabliaux 465; Dunlop-Liebrecht 85; Child I

258—71, 507a, II 502, III 503, IV 454a, V 215f., 289a; *Cross MPh X 289; Heinrich von dem Türlin Diu Crone, lines 917f.; Clouston Tales I 173ff.—Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman; Arabian: Burton Nights V 271, 278, VII 259, IX 252ff.; India: Thompson-Balys, Penzer I 167, *Tawney I 86 n., 329, 487, *II 601 n.; Chinese: Werner 269; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 516, 535; Samoa: Beckwith Myth 535; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 358 n. 287 m.

H410. H410. Chastity test by magic objects or ordeals.

H411. H411. Magic object points out unchaste woman.

H411.1. H411.1. Magic stone as chastity test. At foot of bed: cannot be stepped on by unchaste woman. (Cf. D931.) *Type 870A; Fb "sten" III 554b; English: Child I 269 n.

H411.1.1. H411.1.1. Stone breaks when unchaste woman looks at it. Jewish: Neuman.

H411.2. H411.2. Magic tree as chastity test. Cannot be climbed by unchaste woman. (Cf. D950.) Dunlop-Liebrecht 416.

H411.3. H411.3. Magic plant as chastity test. (Cf. D965.) Chauvin VII 168; Penzer I 168.

H411.4. H411.4. Magic drinking horn (cup) as chastity test. (Cf. D1171.6.) Unchaste woman cannot drink from cup. *Chauvin VII 167; Bédier Fabliaux 465; Child I 262—273 passim; Penzer I 165; Cross MPh X 289; Irish myth: *Cross.

H411.4.1. H411.4.1. Drinking bitter water as chastity test. Water will poison the unchaste. Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas II 119, 345, *Neuman.

H411.4.2. H411.4.2. Magic cup as chastity test: sticks to hands of adulterer. Irish myth: Cross.

H411.5. H411.5. Magic pin as chastity test. If it floats, woman is chaste. (Cf. D1182.) Chauvin VII 168; RTP XIV 598.

H411.6. H411.6. Magic chair as chastity test. Unchaste woman cannot sit in it till bidden. (Cf. D1151.2.) Chauvin VII 168; English: Child I 72f., 75.

H411.7. H411.7. Mantle as chastity test. Will not fit unchaste woman. (Cf. D1053.) *Chauvin VII 168; *Cross MPh X 289, XVI 649; *Child I 260ff., 265, V 289a; Bédier Fabliaux 465; BP IV 138; Oesterley No. 69; Irish myth: *Cross.

H411.8. H411.8. Magic bridge as chastity test. Cannot be crossed by unchaste. (Cf. D1258.) *Bolte Montanus 631; Chauvin VII 168; Child I 267, 269.

H411.9. H411.9. Magic statue as chastity test. Moves eyes in presence of unchaste woman. (Cf. D1268.) *Chauvin VII 169; Puymaigre Folklore (Paris, 1885) 37.

H411.9.1. H411.9.1. Magic idol as chastity test. Turns black in presence of unchaste woman. Lights up in presence of chaste woman. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H411.10. H411.10. Magic bed and pillows as chastity test. Speak and reveal unchastity. (Cf. D1154.1.) Liungman Tve Folkminnesundersökningar 1ff.; English: Child I 64—70 passim.

H411.11. H411.11. Magic spring as chastity test. Wells up if girl is not a virgin. (Cf. D927.) Irish myth: Cross; English: Floris and Blanchefleur line 618.

H411.11.1. H411.11.1. Unchaste woman dips arm into the water: skin boiled away.
*Loomis White Magic 126.

H411.11.2. H411.11.2. Fountains as chastity tests. One fountain of clear water, other muddy. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H411.12. H411.12. Magic harp as chastity test. Plays out of tune at approach of unchaste girl. (Cf. D1231.) English: Child I 269.

H411.13. H411.13. Magic lamp as chastity test. Only virgin can light it. (Cf. D1162.1.)
*Oesterley No. 278; Herbert III 210.

H411.14. H411.14. Apple as chastity test. Fades if owner is not virgin. (Cf. D981.1.) Fb "pige" II 817a.

H411.15. H411.15. Magic mirror as chastity index. (Cf. D1163.) Jewish: *Neuman.

H411.16. H411.16. Catching salmon as proof of virginity. Irish myth: Cross.

H411.17. H411.17. Swan as chastity test. Irish myth: *Cross.

H411.18. H411.18. Dust of Tabernacle as chastity test. (Cf. D935.) Jewish: Neuman.

H412. H412. Chastity tested by ordeal.

H412.1. H412.1. Chastity ordeal: passing under magic rod. Unchaste woman bears twins. (Cf. D1254.2.) Irish myth: Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 96.

H412.2. H412.2. Chastity ordeal: holding shaven and greased tail of bull. Wade-Evans Welsh Mediaeval Law (Oxford, 1909) 241.

H412.3. H412.3. Chastity ordeal: feather over door; if girl who enters blushes she is not a virgin. Fb "pige" II 817a.

H412.4. H412.4. Chastity ordeal: passing through fire. Irish myth: Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys, Keith 128.

H412.4.1. H412.4.1. Chastity ordeal: holding hot iron. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 227; Alphabet No. 173.

H412.4.2. H412.4.2. Chastity ordeal: oath on boiling oil. India: Thompson-Balys.

H412.5. H412.5. Chastity ordeal: poisonous snake around girl's neck. India: Thompson-Balys.

H412.6. H412.6. Chastity ordeal: drawing lover out of wall with single thread rope. India: Thompson-Balys.

H412.7. H412.7. Chastity ordeal: jumping.

H412.7.1. H412.7.1. Chastity ordeal: jumping over magic thread. India: Thompson-Balys.

H412.7.2. H412.7.2. Chastity ordeal: jumping over pit. India: Thompson-Balys.

H413. H413. Special powers of chaste woman.

H413.1. H413.1. Special power of chaste woman: blowing out candle with one puff and relighting it with another. English: Child I 270.

H413.2. H413.2. Special power of chaste woman: making ball of water. English: Child I 270; India: Thompson-Balys.

H413.3. H413.3. Special power of chaste woman: carrying water in sieve. English: Child I 270; India: Thompson-Balys.

H413.4. H413.4. Special power of chaste woman: raising fallen elephant. India: Thompson-Balys, Penzer I 166.

H413.5. H413.5. Chastity test: throwing certain number on dice. India: Thompson-Balys.

H413.6. H413.6. If princess is chaste her weight will be only that of five flowers; if not, normal. India: Thompson-Balys.

H421. H421. Tests for true lover.

H421.1. H421.1. Valley from which no false lover can escape until it has been entered by a true lover. Irish myth: *Cross; English: Child I 267.

H422. H422. Tests for true husbands.

H422.1. H422.1. Crown exposes infidelity of husbands. English: Child I 266f.

H425. H425. Tests for cuckolds.

H425.1. H425.1. Cuckold's knife cannot carve boar's head. English: Child I 273.

H425.2. H425.2. Horns grow on cuckold. *New English Dictionary V 385c s.v. "horn"; Dunger Germania XXIX 59; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 122.

H426. H426. Chastity tests of holy men and monks. Irish myth: Cross.

H430. H430. Chastity index. Objects indicate faithfulness or unfaithfulness of separated lovers (husband or wife). *Type 888; *Penzer I 165ff.; *BP III 517ff.; Clouston Tales II 290ff.; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 110f.

H431. H431. Clothing (cloth) as chastity index.

H431.1. H431.1. Shirt as chastity index. Remains white as long as woman (man) is true (Cf. D1056.) *Type 888; BP III 517ff.; Penzer I 44, 165; Oesterley No. 69; Herbert III 233; English: Child I 268.

H431.2. H431.2. Handkerchief as chastity index. Will not soil as long as woman (man) is true. *Type 888; BP III 517ff.

H431.3. H431.3. Veil as chastity index. Flowers on veil fade on head of unchaste. Bédier Fabliaux 465.

H432. H432. Flower as chastity index. (Cf. D975.) Fb "brudekrans" IV 65b; English: Child I 268; India: *Thompson-Balys, Penzer I 165.

H432.1. H432.1. Rose as chastity index. Fading rose indicates unfaithfulness. (Cf. D975.2.) G. Paris Romania XXIII 102ff.; Bédier Fabliaux 465; Köhler-Bolte II 444; Penzer I 165.

H432.1.1. H432.1.1. Three roses fall as sign of unfaithfulness. *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 70 n. 12.

H432.2. H432.2. Lily as chastity index. Penzer I 165.

H432.3. H432.3. Lotus flower as chastity index. (Cf. D975.1.) Penzer I 42, 156.

H432.4. H432.4. Blooming staff as chastity index. India: Thompson-Balys.

H433. H433. Ornament as chastity index.

H433.1. H433.1. Ring as chastity index. Indicates faithfulness by color. (Cf. D1076.) Penzer I 168; Child I 269; Zingerle Zs. f. Deutsche Myth. und Sittenkunde II (1855) 353.

H434. H434. Fruit as chastity index.

H434.1. H434.1. Apple as chastity index: shines as long as woman is chaste. (Cf. D981.1.) *Fb "guldæble" I 516b.

H435. H435. Weapon as chastity index.

H435.1. H435.1. Sword as chastity index: will not spot while woman is faithful. (Cf. D1081.) English: Child I 268.

H439. H439. Chastity index—miscellaneous.

H439.1. H439.1. Picture as chastity index: indicates by its color. (Cf. D1266.2.) English: Child I 269; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H439.1.1. H439.1.1. Painting on wife's stomach as chastity index. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

H439.2. H439.2. Drinking-tube as chastity index: retains taste of another's lips. Irish myth: *Cross.

H440. H440. Other indications of chastity.

H451. H451. Talking private parts betray unchastity. *Taylor MLN XXI 249 n. 2; Gering Hermes LI (1916) 632ff.; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 296 n. 83d.

H452. H452. Disguise to test bride's chastity. India: Thompson-Balys.

H455. H455. Chastity test: king weighs princess against a flower. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H460. H460. Wife tests. Chinese: Graham.

H461. H461. Test of wife's patience. Griselda. Children stolen and attendance at wedding to another demanded. *Type 887; *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XXXV—XXXVI 290; Hdwb. d. Märchens s.v. "Geduldsprüfung"; H. Siefkin Das geduldige Weib in der englischen Literatur bis auf Shakespeare (Leipzig, 1903); *Loomis White Magic 118; *Laserstein; Ilse von Stach Griseldis (1922); Köhler-Bolte II 501, 534; *Fb "Griselda" IV 486a; Huet 66; *Cate Studies in Philology XXIX 389ff.; *Hibbard Medieval Romance in Eng. 289 n. 9; Philippson FFC 1 48ff.—Italian Novella: *Rotunda. Cf. also Types 712, 881, 900.

H461.1. H461.1. The clever wife in disguise wins a second wife for her husband. India: Thompson-Balys.

H465. H465. Test of wife's endurance. Haughty princess married to beggar and must endure poverty and menial work. *Type 900; BP I 443ff.; *Philippson FFC L 34ff.; *Fb "tigge" III 793b; Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 10.

H466. H466. Feigned death to test wife's faithfulness. *Type 1350; *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XIX 92 n. 2; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 144.

H466.1. H466.1. Feigned absence to test wife's faithfulness. India: Thompson-Balys.

H467. H467. Other tests of wife's love or faithfulness. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

H467.1. H467.1. Feigned illness to test wife's love. Husband feigns loss of genitalia. Italian Novella: Rotunda (H384.1.1.)

H467.2. H467.2. Wife's faithfulness tested by proposal in another's name. Olrik Zs. f. Vksk. II (1892) 254ff.; Icelandic: Boberg.

H472. H472. Test of wife's ability to keep secret. Jewish: Neuman.

H472.1. H472.1. Test of wife's ability to keep secret: the buried sheep's head. Husband tells her that he is burying head of murdered man. She is to keep secret. She tells. When head is dug up it is sheep's head. *T. Zachariae Zs. f. Vksk. XXXII—XXXIV 77; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 220ff., 224 n. 1; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 25, 275; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H473. H473. Test of wife's obedience. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

H473.1. H473.1. Test of wife's obedience: finger in hole. Disobedient wife puts her finger into the hole where her husband has fixed sharp nails. Herbert III 18; Crane Vitry 226 No. 228; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 318.

H473.2. H473.2. Test of wife's obedience: the one command. Upon his wife's insistence that he test her by giving one command the husband tells her not to go into the oven while he is away. She does so and oven falls on her. Herbert III 19; *Crane Vitry 231 No. 236; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 318; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H473.3. H473.3. Test of wife's obedience: not to eat leeks. Although she does not like them, she immediately begins to want them. Herbert III 24; Crane Vitry 258 No. 284; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 317.

H473.4. H473.4. Man leaving home warns wife not to wash face in puddle in dunghill.

She does. He cannot understand why; she cannot explain. England: Baughman.

H473.5. H473.5. Test of wife's obedience: decorating house. India: Thompson-Balys.

H474. H474. Complacent wife agrees with all of husband's absurd statements. India: Thompson-Balys.

H476. H476. Husband tests false wife by sleeping on her hair. Had always done so with true bride. Chinese: Graham.

H479. H479. Wife tests—miscellaneous motifs.

H479.1. H479.1. Widow prepared for suttee can lift by little finger heavy stone by temple. India: Thompson-Balys.

H480. H480. Father tests. Test as to who is unknown father of child. Irish myth: Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "père", "enfant"; Arabian: Burton Nights S V 236 n.

H481. H481. Infant picks out his unknown father. *Type 675; BP I 485; *Fb "barn" IV 27b; Missouri French: Carrière; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 3; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesian: De Vries's list No. 208; Japanese: Ikeda; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 336 n. 212; S. A. Indian (Yunca): Alexander Lat. Am. 228.

H481.1. H481.1. Infant indicates his unknown father by handing him an apple. *Fb "æble" III 1135b, "guldæble" I 516a; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 93b.

H481.1.1. H481.1.1. Baby picks out his disguised father from a crowd by handing him a bow. S. A. Indian (Chaco): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (1) 369.

H482. H482. Infant picks out his unknown mother. Chinese: Graham.

H483. H483. Animals compete as messenger to call father of new-born child. Their voices are tried. Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 265 No. 71.

H485. H485. Test of unknown father: gold on street. Princess has gold put on street leading to her. The man who rides over the gold-covered street without noticing is the father of her child. Köhler-Bolte I 56.

H486. H486. Test of paternity. Child tested to see if it is child of certain father. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H486.1. H486.1. Test of paternity: adhesion of blood. Blood of real son will adhere to dead father's bones. Oesterley No. 196; Herbert III 191; Zachariae Kleine Schriften 305; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 61, Neuman.

H486.2. H486.2. Test of paternity: shooting at father's corpse. Youngest of supposed sons refuses to shoot and is judged the only genuine son of dead emperor. *Herbert III 206; Oesterley No. 45; Scala Celi 98a No. 526; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 835; Nouvelles de Sens. No 29; Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 28; L. Schmidt Oesterr. Zs. f. Vksk. 1955, 70 ff.—Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; *Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas II 123, 345, IV 102, 280, *Neuman.

H490. H490. Other marriage tests.

H491. H491. Test of mother's and father's love for children.

H491.1. H491.1. In large family father unwilling but mother willing to sell children. Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 87, 303, Neuman.

H492. H492. Test of faithfulness of husband and wife.

H492.1. H492.1. Husband refuses to murder his wife for high honors; wife agrees to murder husband. Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 90, 303, Neuman.

H492.2. H492.2. Husband has a friend woo his wife: she is seduced. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

H492.2.1. H492.2.1. Husband has friend woo his wife: wife is generous to certain point only. Husband makes her wear dress symbolic of her generosity—blouse of coarse cloth; dress of gold brocade. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H492.2.2. H492.2.2. Husband has friend woo his wife: seduction narrowly averted by frightened husband's intervention. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H492.3. H492.3. Husband castrates himself to test wife's faithfulness. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

H493. H493. Virility test for husband. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H494. H494. Maternity test: to produce a baby within a year. India: Thompson.

H495. H495. Mother test.

H495.1. H495.1. Baby finds its mother, goes to her for suckling. Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

H495.2. H495.2. Mother test: milk goes long distance into child's mouth. India: Thompson-Balys.

H495.3. H495.3. Old woman suckles all babies at son's circumcision to prove she has borne child. Jewish: *Neuman.

H500—H899.

H500—H899. Tests of cleverness.

H500.

H500. Test of cleverness or ability. Irish myth: *Cross, Chauvin VII 160, VIII 11 ff.; West Indies: Flowers 459.

H500.1. H500.1. Sons tested for skill. Types 653, 660.

H501. H501. Test of wisdom. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys, Penzer VI 74 n.

H501.1. H501.1. Test of wisdom: wise man sends ruler magic gems. Ruler admires their beauty but neglects to inquire of their virtues. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H501.2. H501.2. Wise man answers questions of many with single speech. Irish myth: Cross.

H501.3. H501.3. Sons tested for wisdom; given same amount of money. What will they do with it? India: Thompson-Balys.

H502. H502. Test of learning. Tawney I 274, 311f.; Irish myth: *Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H502.1. H502.1. Test of religious learning. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

H503. H503. Test of musical ability. (Cf. H509.4.) Tawney IT 431; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H503.1. H503.1. Song duel. Contest in singing. Irish myth: *Cross; Eskimo: Alexander N. Am. 282 n. 21.

H504. H504. Test of skill in handiwork. Types 653, 654, 660; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Vai): Ellis 193 No. 11.

H504.1. H504.1. Contest in lifelike painting. India: Thompson-Balys.

H504.1.1. H504.1.1. Contest in lifelike painting: fly on saint's nose. Second artist in first artist's absence paints a fly on a saint's nose in a picture. On his return the first artist tries to drive away the fly. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 411.

H504.1.2. H504.1.2. Contest in lifelike painting: mare and curtain. First artist paints a mare so realistic as to deceive a stallion. Second paints a curtain which deceives the first artist. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 410.

H504.1.3. H504.1.3. Contest in lifelike painting: grapes and curtain. First artist paints a bunch of grapes so realistically that it attracts the birds. The second artist paints a curtain which deceives the first artist. He wins. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H504.2. H504.2. Barber's contest in shaving (without waking man). India: Thompson-Balys.

H505. H505. Test of cleverness: uttering three wise words. Youths called on to do so display by their answers extraordinary powers of deduction. *Type 655; *Chauvin VII 159 No. 438; BP IV 137; Oesterley No. 58; India: Thompson-Balys.

H505.1. H505.1. Test of cleverness: uttering three truths. FFC LVI 35; Icelandic: *Boberg.

H506. H506. Test of resourcefulness.

H506.1. H506.1. Test of resourcefulness: weighing elephant. Man puts him on boat; marks water-line; fills boat with stones until it sinks to same line; weighs stones. *Chauvin VIII 97 No. 68 n. 1.

H506.2. H506.2. Test of resourcefulness: finding how many people are in dark closed room. Fills room with evil smell; men call each other by name and disclose number. Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 396.

H506.3. H506.3. Test of resourcefulness: carrying wolf, goat, and cabbage across stream. Man is to set across a stream, in a boat that will hold himself and only one other object, a wolf, a goat, and a cabbage. He must do this so that the wolf doesn't eat the goat, nor the goat the cabbage. Two solutions: (1) (a) take goat over, (b) take wolf over and goat back, (c) take cabbage over, (d) take goat over; (2) (a) take goat over, (b) take cabbage over and goat back, (c) take wolf over, (d) take goat over. *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XXXIII—XXXIV 38; Fb "ulv" III 970a, "kel" II 354b.

H506.4. H506.4. Test of resourcefulness: putting thread through coils of snail shell. Thread tied to ant who pulls it through. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 141 n. 1 (Daidalus); Zachariae Kleine Schriften 59, 108ff.; Japanese: Ikeda.

H506.5. H506.5. Test of resourcefulness: to swing seventy girls until they are tired. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H506.6. H506.6. Test of resourcefulness: not to sit at the foot of couch. Servant gives prince a lemon to place on it indicating which is head and which foot of couch. India: Thompson-Balys.

H506.7. H506.7. Test of resourcefulness: to eat food without untying cloth containing it; hole torn in cloth. India: Thompson-Balys.

H506.8. H506.8. Test of resourcefulness: to get melon out of jar without breaking it. Melon is planted in jar made of unbaked clay. Jar is wrapped in a wet cloth so that it collapses. India: Thompson-Balys.

H506.9. H506.9. Test of resourcefulness: to cook rice without fire (in hot sand). India: Thompson-Balys.

H506.10. H506.10. Test of resourcefulness: to find relationships among three sticks: they are put in vessel of water; degree of sinking shows what part of tree each comes from. India: Thompson-Balys.

H506.11. H506.11. Test of resourcefulness: to discover how old, respectively, three horses are. Youth drops water on each; one jumps fifteen paces only, another twenty, and the last bounds in air and gallops. India: Thompson-Balys.

H507. H507. Wit combat. Test in repartee. Type 1093; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Finnish: Kalevala rune 3; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H507.1. H507.1. Princess offered to man who can defeat her in repartee. *Type 853; BP I 201; *Wesselski Der Islam XXII (1934) 114 n. 4; Japanese: Ikeda.

H507.1.0.1. H507.1.0.1. Princess defeated in repartee by means of objects accidentally picked up. E. g., Hero: What red lips you have!—Princess: There is fire inside.—Hero: Then boil this egg (producing egg). Type 851; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 414ff.

H507.1.0.2. H507.1.0.2. King defeated in repartee by boy, who thus wins girl. Boy: "Who would give a man a bath, feed him his rice, and then bring him the tamal-pan to chew?" King: "No one but a wife." Boy claims minister's daughter. India: Thompson-Balys.

H507.1.1. H507.1.1. Princess offered to man who can defeat her in argument. *Penzer VI 73 n. 3.

J1111.1. Princess skillful in argument.

H507.2. H507.2. Test: making senseless remarks. King brought to say, "What is the sense in that?" Anderson FFC XLII 357; Japanese: Ikeda.

H507.3. H507.3. Contest in wishing. Type 1925; Japanese: Ikeda.

H507.3.1. H507.3.1. Three brothers contest in wishing. Third wishes for all that the other brothers have wished for. Type 1951*.

H507.4. H507.4. Wit combat among three sisters for additional dowry. Replies to husbands when their premarital pregnancy is noticed. Nouvelles Recreations No. 5.

H507.5. H507.5. Contest in scolding as introduction to battle. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H507.6. H507.6. Literary contest won by deception: he who will be first silenced is the loser. When the false teacher answers in nonsense syllables, the true scholar is speechless and so loses contest. India: Thompson-Balys.

H508. H508. Test: finding answer to certain question. Irish myth: Cross; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H508.1. H508.1. King propounds questions to his sons to determine successor. England: Child I 13 n., Baughman.

H508.2. H508.2. Bride offered to man who can find answer to question. *Type 306; BP I 198ff.; Wesselski Märchen 211; Malone PMLA XLIII 399; Irish myth: Cross; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H509. H509. Tests of cleverness or ability: miscellaneous. Irish myth: Cross.

H509.1. H509.1. Test: threading needle. Guest of convent is given choice of nuns. On the morrow he is given three opportunities to thread a needle. Success means reward, failure confiscation of his belongings. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H509.2. H509.2. Contest in making mouths water. Hero uses certain berry that always causes mouths of onlookers to water. India: Thompson-Balys.

H509.3. H509.3. Chess game as test. Irish myth: *Cross.

H509.4. H509.4. Tests of poetic ability. (Cf. H503.) Irish myth: Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H509.4.1. H509.4.1. Test: supplying missing half-stanza. Irish myth: *Cross.

H509.4.1.1. H509.4.1.1. Contest in adding a verse which makes the first poet ridiculous. India: Thompson-Balys.

H509.4.2. H509.4.2. Riddles proposed as tests of poetic ability. Irish myth: *Cross.

H509.4.3. H509.4.3. Understanding poem as test. Irish myth: *Cross.

H509.5. H509.5. Test: telling skillful lie.

H509.5.1. H509.5.1. Test: telling five lies which should so closely resemble the truth the tester will believe them himself. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H510. H510. Tests in guessing. Irish myth: *Cross.

H511. H511. Princess offered to correct guesser. *Type 621; BP III 483; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 5; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H511.1. H511.1. Three caskets. Princess offered to man who chooses correctly from three caskets. Alphabet No. 412; Scala Celi 20b No. 127; Oesterley No. 251; Dunlop-Liebrecht 462 n. 74; *Wesselski Märchen 213 No. 18; India: Thompson-Balys; S. A. Indian (Carib): Alexander Lat. Am. 264; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 121 No. 10, (Benga): Nassau 219 No. 33.

H511.1.1. H511.1.1. Choice of two sword sheaths (from one a gold shaft protrudes; from the other, a silver). India: *Thompson-Balys.

H511.1.2. H511.1.2. Suitor must prefer princess to treasures. Irish myth: Cross.

H511.2. H511.2. Test: to guess which of veiled sisters has golden hair. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H512. H512. Guessing with life as wager. *Type 500, 922; *Anderson FFC XLII 252; India: Thompson-Balys.

H515. H515. Guessing contest between kings. India: Thompson-Balys.

H516. H516. Test: guessing trolls' names in order to save one's life. Icelandic: Boberg.

H517. H517. Curse evaded by guessing names in magic writing. Icelandic: Boberg.

H521. H521. Test: guessing unknown propounder's name. *Type 500; *BP I 490; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 141 No. 14.

H521.1. H521.1. Test: guessing unknown propounder's age. *Type 500; Chinese: Graham.

H522. H522. Test: guessing unknown animal (plant).

H522.1. H522.1. Test: guessing origin of certain skin.

H522.1.1. H522.1.1. Test: guessing nature of certain skin—louse-skin. Louse (flea) is fattened and its skin made into coat (drum, etc.) *Type 621; BP III 484; *Taylor MPh XV 224 n. 2; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bête"; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 5; India: *Thompson-Balys; Filipino: Fansler MAFLS XII 114.

H522.1.2. H522.1.2. Test: guessing nature of certain skin—wolf-skin. BP I 444, III 484.

H522.1.3. H522.1.3. Test: guessing origin of animal lungs. Lungs of fattened lizard are further inflated. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H522.2. H522.2. Test: guessing nature of certain plant. Plant came from scrapings of princesses' bodies. India: Thompson-Balys.

H522.3. H522.3. Test: identifying what type of rice is in sack. India: Thompson-Balys.

H523. H523. Test: guessing nature of devil's possessions. *Type 812; BP III 12ff.

H523.1. H523.1. Test: guessing nature of devil's horse. Answer: he-goat. *Type 812;

BP III 12ff.

H523.2. H523.2. Test: guessing nature of devil's cloth. Answer: goat-skin. *Type 812; BP III 12ff.

H523.3. H523.3. Test: guessing nature of devil's gold cup. Answer: cup of pitch. *Type 812; BP III 12ff.

H523.4. H523.4. Test: guessing nature of devil's roast meat. Answer: dead dog. *Type 812; BP III 12ff.

H523.5. H523.5. Test: guessing nature of devil's spoon. Answer: whale rib. *Type 812; BP III 12ff.

H523.6. H523.6. Test: guessing nature of devil's wine glass. Answer: horse's hoof. *Type 812; BP III 12ff.

H523.7. H523.7. Test: guessing nature of devil's plate. Answer: stone. *Type 812; BP III 12ff.

H523.8. H523.8. Test: guessing nature of devil's purse. Answer: whip. *Type 812; BP III 12ff.

H524. H524. Test: guessing person's thoughts. *Anderson FFC XLII 219ff.; Fb "konge" II 264b, "gjætte" I 452a, "liv" II 438b; Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

H524.1. H524.1. "What am I thinking?" "That I am the priest." So answers youth masking as priest. *Type 922; BP III 214ff.; Anderson FFC XLII 219ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H525. H525. Test: guessing princess's birthmarks. *Type 850.

H526. H526. Question: "What is under my cloak?" Questioner has branch of blackthorn laden with berries under her cloak. Irish myth: Cross.

H527. H527. Guessing: whether more of a certain stone is above or below ground. A test set by heathen king for a saint. Irish myth: Cross.

H528. H528. Guessing sex of unborn child (or animal).

H528.1. H528.1. Test: to prophesy offspring of cow and mare. India: Thompson-Balys.

H530—H899.

H530—H899. RIDDLES

H530. H530. Riddles. Only such riddles are treated in this work as appear in tales, ballads, myths, or the like. J. B. Friedreich Geschichte des Räthsels (Dresden, 1860); Taylor English Riddles in Oral Tradition (Berkeley, 1951), A Bibliography of Riddles (FFC CXXVI); R. Petsch Das deutsche Volksrätsel (Strassburg, 1917); *Anderson FFC XLII 3ff.; *Chauvin VI 42 No. 207; Jewish: *Neuman. A classification of riddles will be found in Lehmann-Nitsche Zs. f. Vksk. XXIV 240ff. and in Von Sydow and Christiansen Iriska getor (Folkminnen och Folktankar, II 65—80, VI 120—48).

H540. H540. Propounding of riddles. Irish myth: *Cross.

H540.1. H540.1. Supernatural creatures propound riddles. (See also H541.1.1, H543, G681.) Child I 13ff., 484, II 495; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H540.2. H540.2. Queen propounds riddles. Dickson 41 n. 40.

H540.2.1. H540.2.1. Queen of Sheba propounds riddles to Solomon. *Penzer VI 74; FL I 349ff.; Anderson FFC XLII 237 n. 2; Hertz Gesammelte Abhandlungen (1905) 412ff.; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 32, 297f., *Neuman; *Frazer Old Testament II 564.

H540.3. H540.3. King propounds riddles.

H540.3.1. H540.3.1. Riddles sent to Solomon by King Hiram. (Cf. H548.) Jewish: Neuman.

H540.4. H540.4. Saint as propounder of riddles. Irish myth: Cross.

H540.5. H540.5. Bridegroom propounds riddles at wedding feast. Jewish: Neuman.

H541. H541. Riddle propounded with penalty for failure. *Anderson FFC XLII 252; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H541.1. H541.1. Riddle propounded on pain of death. (Cf. H512.) *Type 922; Anderson FFC XLII 252; *BP III 230; *Oertel Studien zur vgl. Littgsch. VIII 121; Malone PMLA XLIII 398f.; Fb "bejler" IV 31b; English: Child V 493 "riddles"; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H541.1.1. H541.1.1. Sphinx propounds riddle on pain of death. Laistner Rätsel der Sphinx; Fb "menneske" II 578a; Gascon: Bladé I 3 No. 1; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 349 n. 1; Persian: Carnoy 335; Hindu: Penzer IX 143.

H541.2. H541.2. Riddle propounded on pain of loss of property. *Anderson FFC XLII 253; English: Child V 493 "riddles".

H541.2.1. H541.2.1. Fine for failure to solve riddle. Jewish: Neuman

H541.3. H541.3. Riddle propounded on pain of loss of official position. *Anderson FFC XLII 252.

H542. H542. Death sentence escaped by propounding riddle king (judge) cannot solve *Type 927; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 314f.; F. J. Norton FL LIII 27—57; Köhler-Bolte I 46; Penzer I 51, 51n.; Malone PMLA XLIII 407; Icelandic: Boberg; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 112 No. 927*A.

H542.1. H542.1. Riddle assigned defendant in action. If he solves it he wins suit. India: Thompson-Balys.

H543. H543. Escape from devil by answering his riddles. *Type 812; BP III 12ff.; Fb "spørgsmel" III 524b; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 754; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 275 No. 86.

H543.1. H543.1. Devil held off from person by answering his riddles. St. Andrew the Bishop, and the Devil. The Devil, in form of beautiful maiden visits a holy bishop. St.

Andrew appears as a pilgrim, answers the questions through which the devil seeks to keep him at a distance and discomfits the devil. (Cf. B302.22.3.) Anderson FFC LXII 353; Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 45; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H543.2. H543.2. Child in cradle guesses devil's riddle: all are saved. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3121A.

H544. H544. Answers found in other world to riddles propounded on way. Type 461; Aarne FFC XXIII 129; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H548. H548. Riddle contests. *BP II 370; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 435b n. 150; Frazer Old Testament II 564; Child I 405; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 43ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 427, 458.

H548.1. H548.1. King and rabbi exchange riddles. Jewish: Neuman.

H551. H551. Princess offered to man who can out-riddle her. *Types 725, 851, 900; BP I 188ff., 200; Philippson FFC L 22; *Chauvin V 192, 192 No. 113; Fb "bejler" IV 31b; Malone PMLA XLIII 414; von der Hagen Gesamtabenteuer III lxi; Child V 493 s.v. "riddles".—Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 851A; India: Thompson-Balys; Filipino: Fansler MAFLS XII 278; Africa: Werner African 356.

H551.1. H551.1. Man wins wife by instructing her how to answer her mother's riddles. Child I 418f.

H551.2. H551.2. Woman gives self to solver of riddles. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H552. H552. Man marries girl who guesses his riddles. Child V 493 s.v. "riddles"; Irish myth: Cross.

H561. H561. Solvers of riddles.

H561.1. H561.1. Clever peasant girl asked riddles by king. *Type 875; De Vries FFC LXXIII 52ff.; *Hdwb. d. Märchens I 195a; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

H561.1.0.1. H561.1.0.1. Clever peasant wife asks king riddles. India: Thompson-Balys.

H561.1.1. H561.1.1. Conflict between peasant and nobleman decided so that each must answer riddles: peasant's daughter solves them. De Vries FFC LXXIII 65ff.; India: Thompson-Balys.

H561.1.1.1. H561.1.1.1. Clever daughter construes enigmatic sayings. India: Thompson-Balys.

H561.1.2. H561.1.2. Found mortar taken to king reveals peasant girl's wisdom. Peasant finds mortar in his field and against his daughter's advice takes it to the king, who demands the pestle as well. Peasant laments that he has not followed daughter's advice. King summons her. *Type 875; De Vries FFC LXXIII 15ff., 62ff.

H561.2. H561.2. King and abbot. King propounds three riddles to abbot to answer on pain of death. Herdsman disguises as abbot and answers questions. *Type 922; Anderson FFC XLII; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 55; Fb "hyrde" I 719; India: Thompson-Balys; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

H561.3. H561.3. Solomon and Marcolf. Witty questions and answers between youth and servant. *BP II 359 n. 2; Fb "Salomon"; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 317 No. 146.

H561.3.1. H561.3.1. King Solomon as master riddle-solver. (Cf. H540.2.1, H540.4.) Jewish: Neuman.

H561.4. H561.4. King and clever youth. King asks questions; youth returns riddling answers. *Type 921; De Vries FFC LXXIII 111ff., 308ff.; Anderson FFC XLII 356 n. 2; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H561.5. H561.5. King and clever minister. King propounds riddles and questions to his clever minister. De Vries FFC LXXIII 365ff.; *Encyc. Rel. Ethics s.v. "Ahiqar"; *Marc Studien zur vgl. Littgesch. II 393f., III 52; Meissner Das Märchen vom weisen Achikar (Leipzig, 1917); Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H561.6. H561.6. King and peasant vie in riddling questions and answers.

H561.6.1. H561.6.1. King and peasant: the plucked fowl. The king gives riddling questions to a peasant, who always interprets them right. The king says that he will send the peasant a fowl which he shall pluck. The king gives the same questions to his courtiers, who cannot interpret them. They pay the peasant good money for the answers. Peasant tells king that he has plucked the fowl. Anderson FFC XLII 342; India: Thompson-Balys.

H561.7. H561.7. Druid as solver of riddles. Irish myth: Cross.

H561.8. H561.8. Cleric as solver of riddles. Irish myth: Cross.

H561.9. H561.9. Clever prince interprets enigmatic statements. Icelandic: Boberg.

H561.10. H561.10. Saint as solver of riddles. Irish myth: *Cross.

H562. H562. Inscription on home of riddle-solver "I have no care." Anderson FFC XLII 244.

H565. H565. Riddle propounded from chance experience. On way to riddle trial youth sees things that give him a clue for his riddles. *Type 851.

H565.1. H565.1. Happenings before feast give Samson clue for riddles. Jewish: Neuman.

H570. H570. Means of solving riddles.

H571. H571. Counterquestions. Riddles answered by a question that reduces the riddle to an absurdity. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 275 No. 299; Wesselski Arlotto I 215 No. 59; Anderson FFC XLII 346; Japanese: Ikeda.

H571.1. H571.1. Counterquestion: "What is difference between you and an ass? What is difference between you and a cushion." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 228 No. 74.

H572. H572. Reductio ad absurdum of riddle: stallions of Babylon. "Why is my mare restless when stallions of Babylon neigh?" Hero beats cat for having strangled a cock last night in Babylon (impossible distance away). BP II 372; Chauvin VI 39 No. 207 n. 4.

H573. H573. Answer to riddle found by trickery. *Type 621.

H573.1. H573.1. Riddle solved with aid of hidden informant. Malone PMLA XLIII 400; Irish myth: Cross.

H573.2. H573.2. Problem of why certain person cannot sleep solved by trickery. Irish myth: Cross.

H573.3. H573.3. Riddle solved by listening to propounder talk in his sleep. German: Grimm No. 22.

H574. H574. Riddles solved with aid of propounder's wife. (Cf. G530.2, H335.0.1, H974.) Jewish: Neuman.

H575. H575. Accidental discovery of answer to riddle. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H580. H580. Enigmatic statements. Apparently senseless remarks (or acts) interpreted figuratively prove wise. *Wesselski Märchen 197; De Vries FFC LXXIII; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 389, *Boberg; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 122 No. 1358; Jewish: *Neuman; Arab: Azov 411f.; India: *Thompson-Balys; Batak: Voorhoeve 163 No. 169.

H580.1. H580.1. Girl given enigmatic commands must do the opposite. Type 480; Roberts 176.

H581. H581. Three young men arrested tell who they are.

H581.1. H581.1. Arrested man tells who he is: before his father the great incline the head and give blood and money (barber). Chauvin VI 35 No. 205.

H581.2. H581.2. Arrested man tells who he is: the hospitable fire of his father is sought (bean merchant). Chauvin VI 35 No. 205.

H581.3. H581.3. Arrested man tells who he is: father throws himself into the ranks and holds them (weaver). Chauvin VI 35 No. 205.

H581.4. H581.4. Arrested farmer tells who he is: one son is thief (priest), second beggar (teacher), and third murderer (doctor). Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 921B*.

H582. H582. Riddling answers betray theft or adultery *BP I 198, II 361f.; Köhler-Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. VI 59 (to Gonzenbach No. 1); *Wesselski Märchen 197.

H582.1. H582.1. Riddling answer betrays theft.

H582.1.1. H582.1.1. The full moon and the thirtieth of the month. Prince sends servant to clever girl with a round tart, thirty cakes, and a capon, and asks her if it is full moon and the thirtieth of the month and if the cock has crowed in the evening. She replies that it is not full moon, that it is the fifteenth of the month, and that the capon has gone to the mill; but that the prince should spare the pheasant for the partridge's sake. She thus shows him that the servant has stolen half the tart, half of the cakes, and the capon. *BP II 361; Köhler Zs. f. Vksk. VI 59; Arab: Azov 401f.; Africa (Sahel): Frobenius Atlantis VI 79—86.

H582.2. H582.2. Riddling answers betray adultery. BP I 198; *Wesselski Märchen 197; India: Thompson-Balys.

H582.2.1. H582.2.1. Enigmatic statement betrays incest. (Cf. T411.) Woman, recognizing cleric as her son by her father (Fiachna), gives him a drink of milk and says,

"I give drink to my brother; he is Fiachna's son, he is Fiachna's grandson; his mother is Fiachna's daughter." The son's reply shows that he understands the situation. Irish myth: *Cross.

H582.3. H582.3. Woman's question to her husband disguised as woman, how many men she had in one night. This is properly understood as, how many helpers he had, and answered by lifting ten fingers. Icelandic: Boberg.

H583. H583. Clever youth (maiden) answers king's inquiry in riddles. (Cf. H561.4.) *Type 921; India: Thompson-Balys.

H583.1. H583.1. King: What do you see? Youth: One and a half men and a horse's head. (Himself, the legs of the king on horseback in the door, and the horse's head.) *Köhler-Bolte I 84, 87, 151ff.; *Basset 1001 Contes II 41.

H583.1.1. H583.1.1. King: Are you alone at home? Youth: Not now; I see the half of two quadrupeds. (Two legs of the king and the forefeet of his horse.) *Köhler-Bolte I 84, 87.

H583.2. H583.2. King: What is your father doing? Youth: He is in the vineyard and is doing good and bad. (He prunes vines and sometimes cuts good and sometimes lets bad ones stay.) *Köhler-Bolte I 84, 87.

H583.2.1. H583.2.1. King: What is your father doing? Youth: Makes an evil greater. (Closes up a path; this causes another to be opened.) *De Vries FFC LXXIII 116ff.

H583.2.2. H583.2.2. King: What is your father doing? Youth: Makes many out of few. (Sows grain.) *De Vries FFC LXXIII 116ff.

H583.2.3. H583.2.3. King: What is your father doing? Youth: Makes better from good. (Hedges his field.) *De Vries FFC LXXIII 116ff.

H583.2.4. H583.2.4. King: What is your father doing? Youth: Cuts wood which was burnt last year. (To pay old debts.) *De Vries FFC LXXIII 116ff.

H583.2.5. H583.2.5. King: What is your father doing? Youth: He fences thorns with thorns. (Eggplant garden fenced with thorns.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H583.3. H583.3. King: What is your brother doing? Youth: He hunts; he throws away what he catches and what he does not catch he carries with him. (Hunts for lice on his body.) *De Vries FFC LXXIII 128ff.; Wesselski Mönchslatein 120 No. 102; Missouri French: Carrière.

H583.3.1. H583.3.1. King: What is your brother doing? Youth: He runs back and forth. (Plows.) *De Vries FFC LXXIII 128ff.

H583.3.2. H583.3.2. King: What is your brother doing? Youth: He sits between heaven and earth. (In a tree.) *De Vries FFC LXXIII 128ff.

H583.4. H583.4. King: What is your mother doing? Youth: She does for another what the latter cannot do for her. (Lays out a corpse.) *De Vries FFC LXXIII 124ff.

H583.4.1. H583.4.1. King: What is your mother doing? Youth: She shows the light of the world to one who has not yet seen it. (Assists at a birth.) De Vries FFC LXXIII

124ff.

H583.4.2. H583.4.2. *King: What is your mother doing? Youth: She is baking the bread we ate last week. (To pay back borrowed bread.) (Cf. H583.2.4.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 124ff.; Köhler-Bolte I 85, 87.

H583.4.3. H583.4.3. King: What is your mother doing? Youth: She cuts off the heads of the well to cure the sick. (Kills chickens to feed her sick mother.) Köhler-Bolte I 85, 87.

H583.4.4. H583.4.4. King: What is your mother doing? Youth: She drives away the hungry and compels the filled to eat. (Drives away the hungry hens and stuffs the geese.) Köhler-Bolte I 85, 87.

H583.4.5. H583.4.5. King: What are your mother and father doing? Girl: Mother is separating earth (being a midwife), and father is mixing earth (at a funeral). India: Thompson-Balys.

H583.4.6. H583.4.6. King: What is your mother doing? Girl: She has gone to turn one into two (to split peas). India: Thompson-Balys.

H583.5. H583.5. *King: What is your sister doing? Youth: She is mourning last year's laughter. (Nurses child, the fruit of last year's love affair.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 133ff.

H583.6. H583.6. *King: What are you doing? Youth: I boil those which come and go. (Beans which keep rising and falling in water.) Types 875, 921; De Vries FFC LXXIII 115.

H583.7. H583.7. King: Where shall I tie my horse? Maiden: Between summer and winter. (Between wagon and sleigh.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 254.

H583.8. H583.8. Maiden (to king): The house has neither eyes nor ears. (No child at window nor dog in yard to announce king's approach: he therefore finds her not dressed to receive him.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 252.

H583.9. H583.9. Maiden (to king): Shall I feed you with loss or gain. (A slaughtered hen or milk.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 254; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1465; Rumanian: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII No. 877*.*

H583.10. H583.10. Girl to king: Should it (the flood) come I shall not come; should it not come, I shall come. India: Thompson-Balys.

H584. H584. Other riddling answers. Icelandic: Boberg.

H585. H585. Enigmatic conversation of king and peasant. India: Thompson-Balys.

H585.1. H585.1. The four coins. (Focus.) King: What do you do with the four coins you earn? Peasant: First I eat (feed self); second I put out at interest (give my children); third I give back (pay debts); fourth I throw away (give my wife.) Köhler-Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. VI 161 (to Gonzenbach No. 50); BP IV 137; Oesterley No. 57; cf. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 8; Anderson FFC XLII 356 n. 1.—Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 921A; Russian: Andrejev No. 921 I*; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Swahili): Steere 295.*

H585.2. H585.2. King: Why did you not do it (marry so that sons could help you)?

Peasant: I did, but it was not God's will (I married three times but it was not God's will to give me sons). India: Thompson-Balys.

H586. H586. Riddling remarks of traveling companion interpreted by girl (man) at end of journey. De Vries FFC LXXIII 43ff.; *Wesselski Märchen 197 No. 7; India: Thompson-Balys.

H586.1. H586.1. Man helps traveler and makes riddling remarks. Gives him food, shares his coat in rain, and carries him over stream. Reproaches him with traveling without mother, house, or bridge (nourishment, shelter, or horse). *Köhler-Bolte I 197f.; Nouvelles de Sens No. 3.

H586.2. H586.2. Traveler says he is going to the city to see what has become of the seed he sowed in the street. (What has become of the girl he left in the city to await his return.) Köhler-Bolte I 197; Nouvelles de Sens No. 3.

H586.2.1. H586.2.1. Traveler says he is going to seek a hind that he saw in the woods ten years before. (A maiden.) Wesselski Märchen 197 No. 7.

H586.2.2. H586.2.2. Traveler says he must look after his net to see if it has taken fish. (He has left his lady seven years before with a pledge of faithfulness. Net has taken fish—lady has had lovers.) English: Child I 191 n.

H586.3. H586.3. One traveler to another: Let us carry each other and shorten the way. (Let us tell tales and amuse ourselves on the way.) *Wesselski Märchen 197 No. 7; Nouvelles de Sens Nos. 3, 8; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H586.4. H586.4. One traveler to another: That field (uncut) is already harvested. (Belongs to spendthrift who has already spent the money.) Wesselski Märchen 197 No. 7.

H586.5. H586.5. One traveler to another (as they see corpse borne by): He is not entirely dead. (Has left good property.) Wesselski Märchen 197 No. 7.

H586.6. H586.6. One traveler to another (when asked how he crossed an unbridged stream): I cross on an ashen bridge. (Found a ford with an ashen staff.) Wesselski Märchen 197 No. 7; Nouvelles de Sens No. 8.

H586.7. H586.7. One traveler to another: Is this cup valuable or not? (Is your daughter married or not?) India: Thompson-Balys.

H586.8. H586.8. Boy says that travelers should catch the mares (walking sticks that are in the jungle). India: Thompson-Balys.

H587. H587. King gives enigmatic order to minister.

H587.0.1. H587.0.1. Enigmatic letter of king must be explained on pain of death. India: Thompson-Balys.

H587.1. H587.1. King: Show me a ruby eight for a pice, nectar eight for a pice, and a faithless creature worth one-eighth of a pice. Minister: The lamp sells at eight for a pice and gives more light than any ruby; the water is the real nectar; and the dog is worthless and faithless lover because he follows anyone who feeds him. India: Thompson-Balys.

H588. H588. Enigmatic counsels of a father. Taken literally bring trouble, but when properly interpreted are valuable. Icelandic: Hervarar saga 36—39, 116—18, *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys, (Kashmir): Knowles 243; Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 232; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 256 No. 200.

H588.0.1. H588.0.1. Father-in-law gives daughter-in-law enigmatic permission to go home. Chinese: Graham.

H588.1. H588.1. Father's counsel: walk not in sunshine from your house to your shop. (Attend to business, rising early and retiring late.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H588.2. H588.2. Father's counsel: let pilav be your daily food. (Eat frugally.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H588.3. H588.3. Father's counsel: marry a new wife every week. (Do not see your wife too much.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H588.4. H588.4. Father's counsel: on wishing to drink wine go to the vat and drink it. (Stench in vat so great that desire for wine is turned to loathing.) India: *Thompson-Balys.

H588.5. H588.5. Father's counsel: if you want to gamble, then gamble with experienced gamblers. (If you see how wretched professional gamblers are you will not want to gamble.) *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 376; India: Thompson-Balys.

H588.6. H588.6. Father's counsel: dress up the trunks of trees, cover the road. (Plant the road with fruit trees and betel between the trees.) India: *Thompson-Balys; Batak: Voorhoeve 164f. No. 169.

H588.7. H588.7. Father's counsel: find treasure within a foot of the ground. (Sons dig everywhere and thus loosen soil of vineyard, which becomes fruitful.) Wienert FFC LVI 82 (ET 490), 126 (ST 346); Halm Aesop No. 98; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 914*; India: Thompson-Balys.

H588.8. H588.8. Father's counsel: the four wells. Three empty and one full (3 sons and father). Full one can fill the three empty but the three when full cannot fill the one when empty (sons when scattered will not support the father). India: Thompson-Balys.

H588.9. H588.9. Father's counsel: dam up the outlets. (Keep expenditures down—not outlets of rice-field as son-in-law thinks). India: *Thompson-Balys.

H588.10. H588.10. Father's counsel: don't stay too late with a concubine, nor tell her any secret. Icelandic: Boberg.

H588.11. H588.11. Always eat bread with "honey". (Working diligently, your bread will be as sweet as honey.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 915A*.

H588.12. H588.12. "Never greet anyone." (Start your work the earliest, so that not you but others may greet you.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 915A*.

H588.13. H588.13. "Always wear new shoes." (Walk the fields bare-footed, wearing your shoes only when nearing the town.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 915A*.

H588.14. H588.14. "Have a black look" (frown). India: Thompson-Balys.

H588.15. H588.15. "Bite the ear" (do state affairs secretly). India: Thompson-Balys.

H588.16. H588.16. "Take people by the locks" (use your influence to make people subservient to you). India: Thompson-Balys.

H588.17. H588.17. "If you have to go to a prostitute, go early in the morning." India: Thompson-Balys.

H588.18. H588.18. "When you go to the bazar, eat your morning meal first." India: Thompson-Balys.

H588.19. H588.19. "A father should always check and never forgive; a mother should always forgive and never check." India: Thompson-Balys.

H588.20. H588.20. "Do not plant a thorny tree." India: Thompson-Balys.

H588.21. H588.21. Enigmatic advice: take only salt and water as food. India: Thompson-Balys.

H591. H591. Extraordinary actions explained. Herrmann Saxo II 273.

H591.1. H591.1. Man puts on shoes only when he wades river. (He cannot see what he is walking on.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H591.2. H591.2. Man uses umbrella under trees. (To protect self from falling branches and bird droppings.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H591.3. H591.3. Man cuts hooks for the revenge of his father (Hamlet). Icelandic: *Boberg.

H592. H592. Enigmatic statement made clear by experience.

H592.1. H592.1. "Love like Salt." Girl compares her love for her father to salt. Experience teaches him the value of salt. *Type 923; *BP III 305 n. 2, IV 407; *Hartland FLJ IV 309; *DeCock Studien en Essays 4f.; Cosquin Contes Indiens 103ff.; Köhler Aufsätze 14; India: *Thompson-Balys. Cf. Shakespeare's King Lear.

H592.1.1. H592.1.1. "Love like wind in hot sun." Husband offended but later learns wife's meaning. Type 923A.

H592.2. H592.2. Poison in nectar: wife who betrays husband to his enemies. India: Thompson-Balys.

H592.3. H592.3. Nectar in poison: mistress who saves her lover. India: Thompson-Balys.

H592.4. H592.4. Dogs in human shape: friends who seduce man's wife. India: Thompson-Balys.

H592.5. H592.5. Donkey ruling a kingdom: king condemning man unjustly. India: Thompson-Balys.

H593. H593. Suitors receive enigmatic answers. Girls answer in single words, which, when arranged in certain order, show that they accept. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H594. H594. Inhospitality reproved enigmatically.

H594.1. H594.1. Enigmatic statement: roof has no eaves. (Else it would give the beggar shelter.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H594.2. H594.2. Enigmatic statement: the tank (pond) does not belong to you. (Else you would have given the beggar fish to eat.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H594.3. H594.3. Enigmatic statement: the flocks are only rocks and grass. (Else you would have given the beggar milk and curds.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H595. H595. Enigmatic welcome of host. Sounds very inhospitable but properly interpreted makes guests welcome. India: Thompson-Balys.

H595.1. H595.1. Symbolic invitation to continued liberality. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H596. H596. Enigmatic counsels of relatives (other than father). Spanish: Childers.

H596.1. H596.1. Enigmatic counsels of a brother. Spanish: Childers.

H596.1.1. H596.1.1. Enigmatic counsels of older brother. Gray younger brother asks well-preserved older brother for the secret of his good health. Answer: A measured mouth, a close purse, and a knot on the trouser's fly. Spanish: Childers.

H599. H599. Other enigmatic statements.

H599.1. H599.1. Girl will not drink of water which had no father or mother (i.e., stagnant). India: Thompson-Balys.

H599.2. H599.2. Enigmatic statements of a sham mad man (Hamlet). Icelandic: *Boberg.

H599.3. H599.3. Clever flatterer: Sir, you are a full moon, and my sovereign is a new moon (the full moon will decline, but the new moon has but started on its growth). India: Thompson-Balys.

H599.4. H599.4. Man asked to kill thousands, press hundreds beneath his arm, etc. (To shave his head, put some hairs under his arm, etc.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H599.5. H599.5. Enigmatic counsel: uproot old trees and plant new ones (dismiss old governors and appoint new). Jewish: Neuman.

H599.6. H599.6. Give coals orange color, let glimmer of gold appear like expanse of heaven, prepare two heads of darkness. (Request for chickens for breakfast.) Jewish: Neuman.

H600. H600. Symbolic interpretations. Irish myth: *Cross.

H601. H601. Wise carving of the fowl. Clever person divides it symbolically: head to head of house, neck to wife, wings to daughters, legs to sons; keeps rest for himself. *Type 875; *BP II 360 n. 1; Taylor JAFL XXXI 555; Köhler-Bolte II 645ff.; Scala Celi 37a No. 205; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 58.—Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1580; Russian: Andrejev No. 1580*; Livonian: Looirts FFC LXVI No. 1533*; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Jewish: *Neuman; Filipino: Fansler MAFLS XII 63, 253, 351.

H601.1. H601.1. Wise division of the goat (similar). India: Thompson-Balys.

H602. H602. Symbolic meaning of numbers, letters, etc.

H602.1. H602.1. Symbolic meaning of numbers. Jewish: Neuman.

H602.1.1. H602.1.1. Symbolic meaning of numbers one to seven (ten, twelve). E.g. One: sun; two: Moses' tablets; three: three Marias; etc. *Type 812; BP III 15 n. 1; Irish myth: Cross; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 156 No. 2045; Japanese: Ikeda.

H602.2. H602.2. Symbolic interpretation of letters. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 7; Jewish: Neuman.

H602.3. H602.3. Symbolic interpretation of names. Jewish: *Neuman.

H603. H603. Symbolic interpretation of playing cards. Soldier reproved for playing cards during church says that playing cards are his prayerbook and calendar. Ace: one God, one Faith, one Baptism; 2: old and new Testaments; 3: Trinity; 4: evangelists; 5: wise virgins; 6: days of creation; 7: sabbath; 8. Noah's family; 9: ungrateful lepers; 10: commandments; knave (jack): Judas; queen (of Sheba); king: God; 12 face cards: 12 months; etc. *Type 1613; Bolte Zs.v. Vksk. XI 376ff., XIII 84; Penzer IV 240 n. 1.

H604. H604. Symbolic meaning of spiced and bitter tongue served at dinner. (Cf. H605, H606.) Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H605. H605. Angel gives symbolic interpretation of value of work as well as of prayer. Works and prays where monk can see him. (Cf. H604, H606.) Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H606. H606. Symbolic interpretation of sin. Priest drags heavy sack of sand behind him to show how men drag sin. (Cf. H604, H605.) Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H607. H607. Discussion by symbols. Sign language. *Penzer I 80f. n.; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 32; W. Coland Zs. f. Vksk. XXIV 88; Hertel ibid. XXIV 317; Loewe ibid. XXVIII 126; *Bolte Reise der Söhne Giaffers 206; Irish myth: Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H607.1. H607.1. Discussion between priest and Jew carried on by symbols. E.g., priest raises three fingers (Trinity); Jew raises arm (one God); etc. *Anderson FFC XLII 354 n. 4; Köhler-Bolte II 479ff.; Loewe Zs. f. Vksk. XXVIII 126; Penzer VI 249; Irish myth: Cross; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 922A; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

H607.2. H607.2. Discussion between two poets (sages?) carried on in poetic obscure language. Irish myth: *Cross.

H607.2.1. H607.2.1. Learned professor from one university examines by signs a professor at another university (actually shoemaker or miller or the like). England, Scotland: *Baughman.

H607.3. H607.3. Princess declares her love through sign language: not understood. India: Thompson-Balys.

H607.4. H607.4. Is town too full of anchorites? Saint entering holy town is sent cup full to brim of milk by its worldly-minded fakirs that he may know the town can hold no more anchorites. Saint floats a flower on milk and returns cup. India: Thompson-Balys.

H608. H608. Symbolic interpretation of official robes.

H608.1. H608.1. Symbolic interpretation of points on a bishop's hat. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 100.

H611. H611. Youth asks for branch of tree; promised root. (Branch = youngest daughter; root = eldest.) Type 1465*.

H611.1. H611.1. Melons ripe and overripe analogous to girls ready for marriage. Iraq: Ethel Stevens Folk Tales of Iraq (London, 1931) 60.

H611.2. H611.2. Sign message sent by girl to enamored prince; interpreted by prince's friend. India: Thompson-Balys.

H611.3. H611.3. Chief asks another for cutting of yams to complete his yam patch (daughter in marriage). Reply that seed yams for the year are shrivelled and old and it is too early for seedlings (his daughters are too young or too old). Tonga: Gifford 43.

H614. H614. Explanation of enigmatic phenomenon. Jewish: Neuman.

H614.1. H614.1. Explanation of phenomenon; a man who not only picks up wood but everything that lies in his path (a miser). India: Thompson-Balys.

H614.2. H614.2. Explanation of phenomenon: large pond emptying itself into several smaller pools (man may spend without getting any return). India: Thompson-Balys.

H617. H617. Symbolic interpretations of dreams. Jewish: Neuman.

H619. H619. Other symbolic interpretations. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

H619.1. H619.1. Symbolic interpretation of chairs in heaven. Irish myth: Cross.

H619.2. H619.2. Symbolic interpretation of church and image therein. Irish myth: Cross.

H619.3. H619.3. Roots and branches of World-tree explained symbolically. Irish myth: Cross.

H619.4. H619.4. Symbolic interpretation of ineffectual thatching of house and building of fire in otherworld. (Cf. F171.6.5, F171.6.6.) Irish myth: *Cross.

H619.5. H619.5. Symbolical interpretation of fight between one-legged bird and twelve-legged bird. One-legged bird symbolizes innocence; twelve-legged bird, guilt. (Cf. B15.6.3.3.2.) Irish myth: *Cross.

H620. H620. The unsolved problem: enigmatic ending of tale.

H621. H621. Skillful companions create woman: to whom does she belong? Woodcarver carves a doll, tailor clothes her, gardener gives her speech (or the like). (Answer sometimes given: her father, her mother, or her husband). *Type 945; *BP III 53ff.; Tille FFC XXXIV 254; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 199; Africa (Fjort): Dennett 33 No. 3; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 112 No. 39.

H621.1. H621.1. Skillful companions resuscitate girl: to whom does she belong? India:

*Thompson-Balys.

H621.2. H621.2. Girl rescued by skillful companions: to whom does she belong?

*Type 653; *BP III 45; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H625. H625. Hare and pig race across ditch. Each fails in his own way, pig behind hare. Which is winner? India: Thompson-Balys.

H630. H630. Riddles of the superlative.

H631. H631. Riddle: what is the strongest? *Types 461, 875, 922; *BP II 357; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 84, Aarne FFC XXIII 129; Japanese: Ikeda.

H631.1. H631.1. What is the strongest? A horse. *De Vries FFC LXXIII 85; Arab: Azov JPASB II 415f.

H631.2. H631.2. What is the strongest? God. De Vries FFC LXXIII 85.

H631.3. H631.3. What is strongest? Earth. Type 875; De Vries FFC LXXIII 85; *BP II 357; Köhler-Bolte I 457f.

H631.4. H631.4. What is strongest? Woman. Italian Novella: Rotunda; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas I 23, 360, Neuman.

H631.5. H631.5. What is strongest? Truth. Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Jewish: Neuman; Japanese: Ikeda.

H631.6. H631.6. What is mightiest? Rain. India: Thompson-Balys.

H631.7. H631.7. What is strongest? Necessity. BP II 359.

H631.8. H631.8. What is strongest? Wine. Jewish: *Neuman.

H631.9. H631.9. What is strongest? The king. Jewish: *Neuman.

H632. H632. Riddle: what is the swiftest? *Type 875; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 69ff.

H632.1. H632.1. What is swiftest? Thought. *De Vries FFC LXXIII 71; *BP III 233.

H632.2. H632.2. What is swiftest? The eye. *De Vries FFC LXXIII 72.

H632.3. H632.3. What is swiftest? The sun. De Vries FFC LXXIII 72.

H633. H633. Riddle: what is sweetest? Type 875; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 79ff.; *BP III 233.

H633.1. H633.1. What is sweetest? Sleep. *De Vries FFC LXXIII 81.

H633.2. H633.2. What is sweetest? Peace in heaven. *De Vries FFC LXXIII 81.

H633.3. H633.3. What is sweetest? Mother's breast. De Vries De Sage van het ingemetselde Kind (Nederlandsch tijdschrift voor volkskunde XXXII 192ff); BP III 43; Krappe Balor 165ff.; India: Thompson-Balys.

H633.4. H633.4. What is sweetest? One's own interest. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H633.5. H633.5. What is sweeter than sugar? The princess's speech. India: Thompson-Balys.

H634. H634. Riddle: what is the sweetest song? *Type 922; *Anderson FFC XLII 233; Irish myth: Cross.

H634.1. H634.1. What is the sweetest song? Angel song. Anderson FFC XLII 233.

H635. H635. Riddle: what is the sweetest sound? Anderson FFC XLII 233; De Vries FFC LXXIII 90; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H635.1. H635.1. What is the sweetest sound? Bell-ringing. Anderson FFC XLII 233; De Vries FFC LXXIII 91; BP II 357.

H635.2. H635.2. What is the sweetest sound? God's Word. De Vries FFC LXXIII 90.

H636. H636. Riddle: what is the richest? Types 461, 875; BP III 357; Aarne FFC XXIII 129.

H636.1. H636.1. What is richest? Autumn. Type 875; BP III 349; Köhler-Bolte I 457f.

H637. H637. Riddle: what is the hardest? BP III 16.

H637.1. H637.1. What is hardest? Parent's heart (said by child being sacrificed). *De Vries De Sage van het ingemetselde Kind (Nederlandsch tijdschrift voor volkskunde XXXII 192ff.); BP III 43; *Krappe Balor 165ff.

H637.2. H637.2. What is the hardest? Death. De Vries FFC LXXIII 94.

H638. H638. Riddle: what is costliest? BP III 233.

H638.1. H638.1. What is costliest? The earth. Köhler-Bolte I 457f.

H641. H641. Riddle: what is most beautiful? *BP II 357; Köhler-Bolte I 457f.

H641.1. H641.1. What is most beautiful? The spring. *Type 875; *BP II 357; Köhler-Bolte I 457f.

H641.2. H641.2. What is most beautiful? Earth. BP II 358.

H642. H642. Riddle: what is highest? De Vries FFC LXXIII 93.

H642.1. H642.1. What is highest? Sun, moon, and stars. De Vries FFC LXXIII 93.

H643. H643. Riddle: what is deepest? De Vries FFC LXXIII 92.

H643.1. H643.1. What is deepest? The heart of man. De Vries FFC LXXIII 92; BP II 358.

H644. H644. Riddle: what is longest? De Vries FFC LXXIII 93.

H644.1. H644.1. What is longest? The way through the world. De Vries FFC LXXIII 93.

H645. H645. Riddle: what is the heaviest? De Vries FFC LXXIII 94.

- H645.1. H645.1. What is heaviest? Lead. De Vries FFC LXXIII 94.
- H646. H646. Riddle: what is greenest? De Vries FFC LXXIII 94.
- H646.1. H646.1. What is greenest? The Month of May. De Vries FFC LXXIII 94.
- H647. H647. Riddle: what is the most beloved? De Vries FFC LXXIII 94.
- H647.1. H647.1. What is most beloved? Life. De Vries FFC LXXIII 94.
- H647.2. H647.2. What is most beloved? Health. De Vries FFC LXXIII 94.
- H648. H648. Riddle: what is best? De Vries FFC LXXIII 95; *Krappe Revue Celtique XLVII 401ff.
- H648.1. H648.1. What is best? God. De Vries FFC LXXIII 95; BP II 358.
- H648.2. H648.2. What is best? Water. De Vries FFC LXXIII 95.
- H651. H651. Riddle: what is brightest? De Vries FFC LXXIII 88.
- H651.1. H651.1. What is brightest? The sun. De Vries FFC LXXIII 89.
- H651.2. H651.2. What is brightest? Mother's eyes. (Cf. H662.) De Vries De Sage van het ingemetselde Kind (Nederlandsch tijdschrift voor volkskunde XXXII 192ff.).
- H652. H652. Riddle: what is softest? De Vries FFC LXXIII 87; BP II 358.
- H652.1. H652.1. What is softest? The hand. (In order to lie soft one places his hand between the head and the pillow.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 88; BP II 358.
- H652.2. H652.2. What is softest? Mother's bosom. De Vries De Sage van het ingemetselde Kind (Nederlandsche tijdschrift voor volkskunde XXXII 192ff.)
- H653. H653. Riddle: what is the fattest? De Vries FFC LXXIII 75ff.
- H653.1. H653.1. What is the fattest? The earth. De Vries FFC LXXIII 77; BP II 357f.; Anderson FFC XLII 232 n. 3.
- H659. H659. Riddles of the superlative—miscellaneous.
- H659.1. H659.1. Riddle: what is oldest?
- H659.1.1. H659.1.1. What is oldest? God. BP II 358.
- H659.2. H659.2. Riddle: what four things are hardest to hold? Anderson FFC XLII 228.
- H659.2.1. H659.2.1. What four things are hardest to hold? Wolf by eyebrows, bear by claws, snake by tail, hawk by beak. Anderson FFC XLII 228.
- H659.3. H659.3. Riddle: what are best and worst stones?
- H659.3.1. H659.3.1. What are best and worst stones? Best: altar, whetstone, millstone; worst: hailstone, stone in the eye, gallstone. Anderson FFC LXII 228; BP III 220 n. 3; De Vries FFC LXXIII 95.

H659.4. H659.4. Riddle: what is the best fowl?

H659.4.1. H659.4.1. What is the best fowl? The goose, since it makes the cabbage sweet and the bed soft. Type 922; BP III 233.

H659.5. H659.5. Riddle: what is best religion—Christian or Mohammedan?

H659.5.1. H659.5.1. What is best religion—Christian or Mohammedan? They are equally good: as both eyes are equally dear to you, so are both religions to God. (Cf. J1262.9.) Anderson FFC XLII 237.

H659.6. H659.6. Riddle: what kind of work occupies most men?

H659.6.1. H659.6.1. What kind of work occupies most men? Healing, for every sick man practices this. Anderson FFC XLII 228.

H659.7. H659.7. Riddle: what is greatest?

H659.7.1. H659.7.1. What is greatest? Fame. BP II 358.

H659.7.2. H659.7.2. What is the greatest? A sense of shame. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H659.7.3. H659.7.3. What is the greatest? Charity. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H659.7.4. H659.7.4. What is the greatest villainy? Stealing. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H659.8. H659.8. What is moistest? The south wind. Arab: Azov JPASB II 415f.

H659.9. H659.9. Riddle: what is wisest?

H659.9.1. H659.9.1. What is wisest? Time. BP II 358.

H659.10. H659.10. Riddle: what is most general?

H659.10.1. H659.10.1. What is most general? Hope. BP II 359.

H659.11. H659.11. Riddle: what is most useful?

H659.11.1. H659.11.1. What is most useful? Excellence. BP II 359.

H659.12. H659.12. Riddle: what is most shameful?

H659.12.1. H659.12.1. What is most shameful? Cowardice. BP II 359.

H659.13. H659.13. Riddle: what is most pleasant?

H659.13.1. H659.13.1. What is most pleasant? Love. (In spite of childbirth pains women continue becoming pregnant.) Arab: Azov JPASB II 415f.

H659.14. H659.14. Riddle: what is easiest?

H659.14.1. H659.14.1. What is easiest? The natural. BP II 359.

H659.15. H659.15. Riddle: what is the hardest to skin?

H659.15.1. H659.15.1. What is the hardest to skin? The male member. De Vries FFC

H659.16. H659.16. Who are the best painters? Women (in the art of make-up). Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H659.17. H659.17. Riddle: what is the best time to eat? For the rich man, when he wishes; for the poor man, when he has something to eat. Spanish: Childers.

H659.18. H659.18. What are the most accursed things?

H659.18.1. H659.18.1. What are the most accursed things? A thriftless wife, a baldheaded daughter, a sour-faced daughter-in-law, a crooked axle, and a field which lies across the village road. India: Thompson-Balys.

H659.19. H659.19. What is the most difficult to find and the most difficult to lose? The truth. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H659.20. H659.20. Who are really irresistible? Meat and drink. India: Thompson-Balys.

H659.21. H659.21. Who are really meek? Cows and daughters. India: Thompson-Balys.

H659.22. H659.22. Which is best, domestic or ascetic life? With good wife domestic life is best. India: Thompson-Balys.

H659.23. H659.23. Which is the best of flowers? Cotton. India: Thompson-Balys.

H659.24. H659.24. What is the finest jewel? India: Thompson-Balys.

H659.25. H659.25. What is most faithful thing in world? India: Thompson-Balys.

H659.26. H659.26. What is most faithless thing in world? India: Thompson-Balys.

H660. H660. Riddles of comparison. Boberg Danske Studier 1945, 1ff., and øst og Vest, Afhandlinger til Arthur Christensen (Kbhvn. 1945) 192.—Irish myth: Cross.

H661. H661. Riddle: what is swifter than a bird, the wind or lightning? The eye. (Cf. H632.2.) Gascon: Bladé I 9 No. 1.

H662. H662. Riddle: what is dearer than gold? Mother love. (Cf. H651.2.) Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 311 No. 60.

H663. H663. Riddle: what is whiter than a swan? An angel. *Fb "engel".

H671. H671. Riddle: what is sweeter than honey? (Cf. H633.) BP III 16.

H672. H672. Riddle: what is softer than swan down? (Cf. H652.1.) BP III 16.

H673. H673. Riddle: what is harder than stone? (Cf. H637.) BP III 16.

H674. H674. Who is greater than God? Man's purpose. India: Thompson-Balys.

H680. H680. Riddles of distance.

H681. H681. Riddles of terrestrial distance.

H681.1. H681.1. Riddle: how far is it from one end of the earth to the other (east to west)? *Type 922; *Anderson FFC XLII 146ff.; Fb "jord"; BP III 232.

H681.1.1. H681.1.1. How far is it from one end of the earth to the other? A day's journey, since the sun makes it daily. *Type 922; Anderson FFC XLII 147.—Jewish: *Neuman.

H681.2. H681.2. Riddle: how deep is the earth (or how far to lower world)? Anderson FFC XLII 140.

H681.2.1. H681.2.1. How deep is the earth? It is deep: my grandfather went into it (died) years ago and has not yet returned. Anderson FFC LXII 141.

H681.2.2. H681.2.2. How deep is the earth? My father went five years ago to measure it (died); when he returns I shall tell you the result. Anderson FFC XLII 142.

H681.3. H681.3. Riddle: what is the center of the earth? *Type 922; Anderson FFC XLII 157.

H681.3.1. H681.3.1. Where is the center of the earth? Here; if you don't believe it, measure it yourself. Anderson FFC XLII 158; India: Thompson-Balys.

H681.3.2. H681.3.2. Where is the center of the earth? Here, for the earth is round and any point can serve as center. Anderson FFC XLII 158.

H681.4. H681.4. Riddle: how deep is the sea? *Type 922; *Anderson FFC XLII 130.

H681.4.1. H681.4.1. How deep is the sea? A stone's throw. *Type 922; Anderson FFC XLII 130; BP III 231.

H681.4.2. H681.4.2. How deep is the sea? At first, knee-deep; further on, waist-deep, neck-deep; and beyond that over the head. India: Thompson-Balys.

H682. H682. Riddles of heavenly distance. (Cf. A658.)

H682.1. H682.1. Riddle: how far is it from earth to heaven? *Type 922; BP III 231; Anderson FFC XLII 113; Jewish: *Neuman.

H682.1.1. H682.1.1. How far is it from earth to heaven? A day's journey, since Christ went to heaven in one day. (A half-day's journey, similar reason). *Anderson FFC XLII 119; Wesselski Bebel I 36 No. 75.

H682.1.2. H682.1.2. How far is it from earth to heaven? A day's journey, since there is no inn to stop at on the way. *Anderson FFC XLII 119.

H682.1.3. H682.1.3. How far is it from earth to heaven? So and so high, and if you don't believe it, measure it yourself. *Anderson FFC XLII 118.

H682.1.4. H682.1.4. How far is it from earth to heaven? As far as you can see. *Anderson FFC XLII 120.

H682.1.5. H682.1.5. How far is it from earth to heaven? As far as from heaven to earth. *Anderson FFC XLII 120.

H682.1.6. H682.1.6. How far is it from earth to heaven? Not far; when it thunders there it can be heard here. Anderson FFC XLII 120.

H682.1.7. H682.1.7. How far from earth to heaven? A calf's (fox's) tail, if it were long enough. *Anderson FFC XLII 121; BP III 231; cf. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 96; Fb "kalvehale".

H682.1.8. H682.1.8. How far from earth to heaven? A leg's length, for it is written, Heaven is my throne and earth my footstool. Anderson FFC XLII 121.

H682.1.9. H682.1.9. How far from earth to heaven? One step, for they say, He stands with one foot in the grave and one in heaven. Anderson FFC XLII 122.

H682.1.10. H682.1.10. How far from earth to heaven? The devil knows for he has fallen this distance. Alphabet No. 67.

H682.2. H682.2. Riddle: how wide is heaven? Anderson FFC XLII 227.

H682.2.1. H682.2.1. How wide is heaven? So and so wide, and if you do not believe it, go measure it yourself. Anderson FFC XLII 227.

H682.3. H682.3. How many exits from paradise? Moreno Esdras; Jewish: Neuman.

H685. H685. Riddle: how far is it from happiness to misfortune? Anderson FFC XLII 215.

H685.1. H685.1. How far is it from happiness to misfortune? One day; yesterday I was herdsman and now I am abbot. (Cf. H561.2.) Anderson FFC XLII 216.

H690. H690. Riddles of weight and measure.

H691. H691. Riddles of weight.

H691.1. H691.1. Riddle: how much does the moon weigh? Anderson FFC XLII 172.

H691.1.1. H691.1.1. How much does the moon weigh? A pound, for it has four quarters. *Type 922; BP III 232; *Anderson FFC XLII 173; Köhler-Bolte I 458.

H691.1.2. H691.1.2. How much does the moon weigh? So and so much, and if you don't believe it go and weigh it yourself. Anderson FFC XLII 174.

H691.2. H691.2. Riddle: how heavy is the earth? Anderson FFC XLII 143.

H691.2.1. H691.2.1. How heavy is the earth? Take away all the stones and I will weigh it. Anderson FFC XLII 143.

H696. H696. Riddles of measure.

H696.1. H696.1. Riddle: how much water is in the sea? Anderson FFC XLII 134.

H696.1.1. H696.1.1. How much water is in the sea? Stop all the rivers and I will measure it. Anderson FFC XLII 134; Japanese: Ikeda.

H696.1.2. H696.1.2. How much water is in the sea? So and so much, and if you don't believe it, go measure it yourself. Anderson FFC XLII 136.

H696.1.3. H696.1.3. How much water is in the sea? A tub-full if the tub is large enough. Anderson FFC XLII 134.

H696.1.4. H696.1.4. How many measures of water are in the river? India: Thompson-Balys.

H700. H700. Riddles of numbers.

H701. H701. Riddle: how many seconds in eternity? Anderson FFC XLII 232.

H701.1. H701.1. How many seconds in eternity? A bird carries a grain of sand from a mountain each century; when the whole mountain is gone, the first second of eternity has passed. (Cf. D791.1.2, H1583, X950.2, Z61.) *Type 922; BP III 232; *Anderson FFC XLII 232.

H702. H702. Riddle: how many stars in the heavens? *Type 922; BP III 231; Anderson FFC XLII 162ff.; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 116 No. 970.

H702.1. H702.1. How many stars in the heavens? As many as the grains of sand; if you don't believe it, count them yourself. *Anderson FFC XLII 166.

H702.1.1. H702.1.1. How many stars in the heaven? Two million; if you don't believe it, count them yourself. India: Thompson-Balys.

H702.2. H702.2. How many stars in the heavens? As many as the hairs in the head; if you don't believe it, count them yourself. *Anderson FFC XLII 167.

H702.2.1. H702.2.1. How many stars in the heavens? As many as the hairs in the goatskin (on a donkey). India: Thompson-Balys.

H702.3. H702.3. How many stars in the heavens? As many as the points on paper; if you don't believe it, count them yourself. *Anderson FFC XLII 167.

H703. H703. Riddle: how many hairs are in the head? *Types 922, 926; BP III 231; Anderson FFC XLII 230.

H703.1. H703.1. How many hairs are there in the head? As many as are in the tail of my ass; if you don't believe it we will keep pulling out one hair from your beard and one from his tail. Anderson FFC XLII 230.

H704. H704. Riddle: how many drops in the sea. (Cf. H696.1.1.)

H705. H705. Riddle: how many leaves are on the tree? Anderson FFC XLII 175; West Indies: Flowers 459.

H705.1. H705.1. How many leaves are on the tree? As many as there are stems for. *Anderson FFC XLII 176.

H705.2. H705.2. How many leaves are on the tree? So and so many; and if you don't believe it, go count them. *Anderson FFC XLII 176.

H705.3. H705.3. How many leaves are on the tree? Counterquestion: how many stars in the sky? (Cf. H702.) Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 116 No. 970.

H706. H706. Riddle: how many days have passed since the time of Adam? Anderson

FFC XLII 227.

H706.1. H706.1. How many days have passed since the time of Adam? The seven days of the week. Anderson FFC XLII 227.

H707. H707. Riddle of dates.

H707.1. H707.1. When were you born? Its beginning is like its end, its top like its bottom (1691). Trog Am Urds-Brunnen IV 105.

H708. H708. Are there more men or women in the world? India: Thompson-Balys.

H710. H710. Riddles of value.

H711. H711. Riddle: how much am I (the king) worth? Anderson FFC XLII 194; cf. Aarne FFC XXIII 129.

H711.1. H711.1. How much am I (the king) worth? Twenty-nine pieces of silver, for Christ was sold for thirty. (Cf. H716.) Type 922; Anderson FFC XLII 194; *BP III 232; *Fb "værd".

H712. H712. Riddle: how much is my beard (king's) worth? *Type 875; De Vries FFC LXXIII 160; BP II 359.

H712.1. H712.1. How much is king's beard worth? The months July, August, and September. Köhler-Bolte I 456.

H712.2. H712.2. How much is king's beard worth? A May rain (three rains in summer). De Vries FFC LXXIII 161; Köhler-Bolte I 456.

H713. H713. Riddle: how much is a golden plow (throne, crown, palace) worth? *De Vries FFC LXXIII 160ff.; *Anderson FFC XLII 180ff.

H713.1. H713.1. How much is a golden plow (throne, crown, palace) worth? A rain in May. *De Vries FFC LXXIII 161ff.; *Anderson FFC XLII 186.

H715. H715. Riddle: how much does the sun earn for his daily work? Anderson FFC XLII 226.

H715.1. H715.1. How much does the sun earn for his daily work? A day's wages. Anderson FFC XLII 226.

H716. H716. Riddle: how much is a certain crucifix worth? Twenty-nine pieces of silver. (Cf. H711.1.) Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H720. H720. Metaphorical riddles. Jewish: *Neuman.

H721. H721. Riddle of the year. Aarne FFC XXVI 74ff.

H721.1. H721.1. Riddle: tree with twelve branches, each with thirty leaves, black and white. Year, month, days and nights. *Chauvin V 195 No. 114; *BP II 355 n. 1.

H721.2. H721.2. Riddle: tree with leaves white on one side and black on other. Year made up of nights and days. Chauvin V 192 No. 113.

- H721.3. H721.3. Riddle: twelve cypresses with thirty boughs each. Years and months. Persian: Carnoy 348.
- H721.4. H721.4. Riddle: palace consisting of 8760 stones; twelve trees, thirty branches, each with black and white cluster of grapes. Year, months, days, hours. *Chauvin VI 40 No. 207.
- H722. H722. Riddle of the day and night. (Cf. H721.1, H721.2, H721.4.)
- H722.1. H722.1. Riddle: white brother, black sister: every morning brother kills sister; every evening sister kills brother; they never die. (Day and night.) Köhler-Bolte I 116; Gascon: Bladé I 9 No. 1.
- H722.2. H722.2. Riddle: black and white horses chasing each other. (Day and night.) Persian: Carnoy 349.
- H725. H725. Riddle of the course of the sun.
- H725.1. H725.1. Riddle: bird nests on top of one cypress in morning, on top of another in evening. (Bird is the sun.) Persian: Carnoy 349.
- H726. H726. Riddle: who are the real travellers? The son and the moon. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H731. H731. Riddle of king and courtiers.
- H731.1. H731.1. Riddle: king in red; courtiers in white. (Sun and its rays.) Chauvin VI 39 No. 207 n. 1.
- H731.2. H731.2. Riddle: king in white; courtiers in white. (Moon and stars.) Chauvin VI 39 No. 207 n. 1.
- H731.3. H731.3. Riddle: king in red; courtiers in different colors. (Spring and flowers.) Chauvin VI 39 No. 207 n. 1.
- H734. H734. Riddle: what is the mother who devours her children when they grow up? (Ocean and rivers.) Chauvin V 192 No. 113.
- H741. H741. Riddle white field, black seed. (Paper with writing.) *Aarne FFC XXVI 35ff.
- H742. H742. Riddle: two legs, three legs, four legs. (Man, three-legged stool dog.) Aarne FFC XXVII 24ff.
- H743. H743. Riddle: four hang, four walk, two show the road, one wags behind. (Cow's teats, feet, eyes, tail.) (Other answers: cat, dog, horse, hog, etc.) Aarne FFC XXVII 60ff.
- H744. H744. Riddle: six legs, four ears, two faces, etc. (Horse and rider.) Aarne FFC XXVII 173ff.
- H746. H746. Riddle: bill white, horns on feet, knob on head (cock). Zachariae 58.
- H751. H751. Riddle: who of fourfold beard is he, of azure foot and neck so ruddy? Arrow. India: Thompson-Balys.

H761. H761. Riddle of the Sphinx: what is it that goes on four legs in the morning, on two at midday, and on three in the evening. (Man, who crawls as a child, walks in middle life, and walks with a stick in old age.) Aarne FFC XXVII 3ff.; Laistner Rätsel der Sphinx; Gascon: Bladé I 10 No. 1.; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 349 n. 1 Köhler-Bolte I 115; Fb "menneske" II 578a.

H761.1. H761.1. Riddle: two are better than three (two legs better than man with staff in old age). Jewish: *Neuman.

H762. H762. Riddle: what is the creature that is of all countries, that is loved by all the world, and that has no equal? (The sun.) Chauvin V 192 No. 113.

H763. H763. Riddle: the father not yet born, the son already at the top of the house. (Flame and smoke.) Köhler-Bolte I 268.

H764. H764. Riddle: bird without feathers flies on tree without leaves. (Snow falls on bare tree.) Aarne FFC XXVIII 1ff.

H765. H765. From wooden spring iron bucket makes stones from which water flows. (Metal stick picks stone from eye. If you rub lids with it, tears come.) Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 32, 297f., *Neuman.

H767. H767. Allegorical riddles. Irish myth: Cross.

H767.1. H767.1. Riddle: what is that thou passest over with haste? (The field of youth; the mountains of youth, etc.) Irish myth: Cross.

H768. H768. What house gives no hostages, cannot be burned, and cannot be harried? (The fairy stronghold [sídh] of brugh na Boinne.) Irish myth: Cross.

H770. H770. Riddles of explanation. Jewish: Neuman.

H771. H771. Riddle: why is the hair gray before the beard? (It is twenty years older.) *Wesselski Arlotto II 270 No. 222.

H772. H772. Riddle: why are there more days than nights? (The moon turns some nights into days.) Chauvin V 38 No. 365.

H773. H773. Riddle: why are there more living than dead? (There are some of the dead of whom we still speak.) Chauvin V 38 No. 365.

H774. H774. Riddle: why are there more women than men? (Some women make women [i.e., weaklings] of their husbands.) Chauvin V 38 No. 365.

H790. H790. Riddles based on unusual circumstances. India: Thompson-Balys.

H791. H791. Riddle: a fish was my father; a man was my mother. (Man eats magic fish and becomes pregnant; a girl is taken from his knee.) *Type 705; *Fb "fisk" I 297; Norse: Christiansen Norske Eventyr 96.

H792. H792. Riddle of the unborn. I am unborn; my horse is unborn; I carry my mother on my hands. (A boy who has been taken from his dead mother's body digs up the body of his mother and makes gloves of her skin. He rides on a colt which has been taken from a dead mare's body.) *Type 851; BP I 196; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 112 No. 927*B; Africa (Swahili): Werner African 356.

H793. H793. Riddle: seven tongues in a head. (A horse's head in which a bird's nest is found with seven birds in it.) *Type 927; Köhler-Bolte I 46; *Fb "hestehoved".

H795. H795. Relationship riddles arising from unusual marriages of relatives. *Köhler-Bolte I 218; Hertz Abhandlungen 416; Jewish: *Neuman.

H797. H797. Riddle: what does God do? Anderson FFC XLII 200.

H797.1. H797.1. What does God do? He brings low the proud and exalts the lowly (said by shepherd masking as bishop to king, who has exchanged places with him). (Cf. H562.) Anderson FFC XLII 207.

H797.2. H797.2. What does God do? God is astonished that I sit on a horse and the king on an ass (see H797.1.). Anderson FFC XLII 209.

H802. H802. Riddle: one killed none and yet killed twelve. (Horse is poisoned; raven eats of him and dies; twelve robbers eat raven and die.) *Type 851; BP I 188ff.; *Fb "hest" I 598b, "ravn" III 23a; India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 172 No. 34; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 284 No. 116.

H803. H803. Riddle: deaths from sleepiness, anger, and greed. Elephant sleeps before snake's hole. Snake bites elephant and kills it. Jackal eats hole in elephant and is caught inside. Snake can't get out of its hole. India: Thompson-Balys.

H804. H804. Riddle: from the eater came forth meat and from the strong sweetness. (Swarm of bees and honey in lion's carcass.) Jewish: Judges 14:14.

H805. H805. Riddle of the murdered lover. With what thinks, I drink; what sees, I carry; with what eats I walk. (Queen has cup made from skull of her murdered lover; ring with one of his eyes; she carries two of his teeth in her boots.) *Type 851; *BP I 196, II 361; Köhler-Bolte I 350, 372; India: Thompson-Balys.

H806. H806. Riddle: drink this wine which a bird took to nest. (Stork took bunch of grapes to nest; boy makes wine from them.) Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 112 No. 927B*.

H807. H807. Formerly I was daughter, now I am mother; I have a son who was the husband of my mother. (Girl has nursed her imprisoned father through a crack in the prison wall.) Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 111 No. 927*A.

H810. H810. Riddles based on the Bible or legend. Jewish: *Neuman.

H811. H811. Riddle: who first spun and when? (Eve.) Chauvin V 195 No. 114.

H812. H812. Riddle: what were the clothes of Adam and Eve? (Their hair.) Chauvin V 195 No. 114.

H813. H813. Riddle: who, having neither father nor mother, are dead? (Adam and Eve.) Chauvin V 195 No. 114.

H814. H814. Riddle: who, having had father and mother, is not dead? (Elias.) Chauvin V 195 No. 114; Jewish: Neuman.

H815. H815. Riddle: who, having had father and mother, is not dead like other mortals? (Lot's wife.) Chauvin V 195 No. 114; Scala Celi No. 821.

- H817. H817. Riddle: who has had, here below, two names? (Jacob-Israel.) Chauvin V 195 No. 114.
- H821. H821. Riddle: what was the walking tomb with the living tenant? (Jonah and the whale.) Chauvin V 194 No. 114; Jewish: *Neuman.
- H822. H822. Riddle: what is the land that has seen the sun only once? (The bottom of the Red Sea during the passage of the Israelites.) Chauvin V 194 No. 114; Jewish: *Neuman.
- H822.1. H822.1. What is the land that has seen the sun only once? (The land on which the waters were gathered after the creation.) Jewish: Neuman.
- H823. H823. What is the tree that became flesh? (Moses's staff.) Chauvin V 195 No. 114.
- H824. H824. Riddle: what is that which has drunk water for its sustenance and eaten after its death? (Moses's staff, which became a serpent.) Chauvin V 194 No. 114.
- H825. H825. Riddle: the king is surrounded by his nobles; what is this like? (The idol Bel surrounded by the priests of the god.) Chauvin VI 39 No. 207.
- H826. H826. Riddle: what did Christ do in his 30th year? Answer: entered into his thirty-first. (Cf. H865.) Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- H827. H827. Riddle: what does the king of the world of the Devas do? Punishes the bad people. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H828. H828. What three not born of male and female ate and drank on earth? (Angels who visited Abraham.) Jewish: Neuman.
- H831. H831. Riddle: what house was full of dead? (Philistines in the building demolished by Samson.) Jewish: Neuman.
- H832. H832. What was not born, yet life was given to it? (The golden calf.) Jewish: Neuman.
- H840. H840. Other riddles.
- H841. H841. Riddle: worth of the animal.
- H841.1. H841.1. Riddle: what animal is good living but not dead? (Ass.) *Wesselski Arlotto I 215ff. No. 64.
- H841.2. H841.2. Riddle: what animal is good dead but not living? (Hog.) *Wesselski Arlotto I 215ff. No. 64.
- H841.3. H841.3. Riddle: what animal is good living and dead? (Cow.) *Wesselski Arlotto I 215ff. No. 64.
- H841.4. H841.4. Riddle: what animal is not good living or dead? (Wolf.) *Wesselski Arlotto I 215ff. No. 64.
- H842. H842. Riddle: animal qualities.

- H842.1. H842.1. What animal which lives in sea-water will drown if taken out of it? (Gním Abraein.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- H842.2. H842.2. What animal which lives in fire will burn if taken out of it? (Tegillus, now called salamander.) (Cf. B768.2.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- H842.3. H842.3. What animal has one voice living and seven voices dead? (Ibis, from whose carcass musical instruments are made.) Jewish: Neuman.
- H851. H851. Riddle: what are the two fixed, the two moving, the two joined, the two separated by jealousy, the two eternal enemies? (Heaven and earth; sun and moon; night and day; soul and body; life and death.) Chauvin V 195 No. 114.
- H852. H852. What two trees do not fade until they wither? (Yew and holly.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- H853. H853. What goodness did man find on earth that God did not find? (An overlord.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- H861. H861. Riddle: what are the two combatants without hands or feet or words? (The bull and the buffalo.) Chauvin V 194 No. 114.
- H862. H862. Riddle: what is that which is neither man nor jinn nor beast nor bird? (Louse and ant.) Chauvin V 194 No. 114.
- H865. H865. Riddle: what do crows do when they are five years old? (They start their sixth year.) (Cf. H826.) Anderson FFC XLII 236 n. 8.
- H871. H871. Riddle: what six things are not worth doing? (Sowing salt, mowing pebbles, drinking from an empty jug, making signs to a blind man, wooing at mealtime, playing a harp in a mill.) Anderson FFC XLII 227, *228 n. 1.
- H871.1. H871.1. Three stupid things for men to do (various answers). Spanish: Childers.
- H875. H875. Riddle: what is the difference between a poor man and a rich? (Riches.) Anderson FFC XLII 229.
- H878. H878. Riddle: what is it that one buys who does not want it or use it? (Coffin.) Fb "ligkiste" II 442b.
- H881. H881. Riddles with "none" as answer. Fb "ingen" II 27.
- H881.1. H881.1. Riddle: how many dead mice go to a feast? (None.) Fb "ingen" II 27.
- H882. H882. Riddle: bottom and top of staff. Of the two ends which is the top and which the bottom? Zachariae 58.
- H883. H883. Riddle: where is the root of the floor? Below. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H885. H885. Riddles about flax. Taylor English Riddles from Oral Tradition (Berkeley, California, 1951) 250; Jewish: *Neuman.
- H886. H886. Riddles about naphtha. Jewish: Neuman.

H900—H1199.

H900—H1199. TESTS OF PROWESS: TASKS

H900—H999.

H900—H999. Assignment and performance of tasks.

H900—H949.

H900—H949. ASSIGNMENT OF TASKS

H900. H900. Tasks imposed. A person's prowess is tested by assigning him certain tasks (usually impossible or extremely difficult) to be performed either to escape punishment or to receive a valuable reward. *Penzer X 330 s.v. "tests"; *Chauvin VI 200 No. 372.—Irish myth: *Cross; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "épreuves"; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 184 n. 1 (Hercules), Fox 80ff. (Hercules), ibid. 98 (Theseus); N. A. Indian: Lowie The Test Theme in North American Mythology (JAFL XXI 97ff.).

H901. H901. Tasks imposed on pain of death. Types 306, 851; BP I 188; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 53, 83—84, 179, *Boberg; French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

H901.0.1. H901.0.1. Tasks imposed on pain of death of relative (friend, hostage, etc.). Irish myth: Cross.

H901.0.2. H901.0.2. Bird must bring orphan to king or bird will be killed. Chinese: Graham.

H901.1. H901.1. Heads placed on stakes for failure in performance of task. Unsuccessful youths are beheaded and heads exposed. Hero sees them when he sets out to accomplish his task. *Types 329, 507A; *BP III 368; *Taylor Romanic Review IV 21ff.; *Brown Iwain 137 n. 1; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Greek: Fox 119, Frazer Apollodorus II 160 n. 2; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

H902. H902. Task assigned the Gods. India: Thompson-Balys.

H910. H910. Assignment of tasks in response to suggestion.

H911. H911. Tasks assigned at suggestion of jealous rivals. *Types 328, 501, 531, 725; BP I 109, III 18ff.; Köhler-Bolte I 430; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 22; Missouri French: Carrière; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 59 No. 425D; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 7, IV No. 5, Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 459.

H911.1. H911.1. Task (quest) assigned at suggestion of jealous co-wife. Chinese: Graham; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 234.

H912. H912. Tasks assigned at suggestion of jealous brothers (sisters). *Type 408; Köhler-Bolte I 468; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 49 No. 328*A, Espinosa Jr. No. 81; India: Thompson-Balys; S. A. Indian (Inca) Rowe BBAE CXLIII (2) 317; West Indies: Flowers 460.

H913. H913. Tasks assigned by jealous parent.

H913.1. H913.1. Tasks assigned by jealous mother.

H913.1.1. H913.1.1. Task assigned at suggestion of jealous mother (of prospective bride). Irish myth: *Cross.

H913.1.2. H913.1.2. Task suggested by jealous co-wife of mother. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H913.2. H913.2. Tasks assigned at suggestion of jealous father.

H913.2.1. H913.2.1. Task assigned at suggestion of jealous father (of prospective bride). Irish myth: *Cross.

H914. H914. Tasks assigned because of mother's foolish boasting. The mother foolishly boasts to the king that the daughter can perform an impossible task (often spinning). *Type 500, 501; BP I 490, 109; Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 4.

H915. H915. Tasks assigned because of girl's (boy's) own foolish boast. *Type 501, 1525; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 460.

H915.1. H915.1. Tasks assigned because of man's boast. Icelandic: *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

H916. H916. Tasks imposed at suggestion of spouse (sweetheart).

H916.1. H916.1. Tasks imposed because of wife's foolish boast. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H916.1.1. H916.1.1. Malicious wife reports that her husband is a famous doctor: he is commanded to cure the princess. *Crane Vitry 231f. No. 237; *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XXVI 89 n. 1; Herbert III 19; Japanese: Ikeda.

H916.2. H916.2. Task imposed because of girl's foolish boast. India: Thompson-Balys.

H916.3. H916.3. Tasks assigned at suggestion of wife and paramour. India: Thompson-Balys.

H917. H917. Tasks assigned at own unwitting suggestion. Jason thus sent for the Golden Fleece. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 94 n. 1.

H918. H918. Tasks assigned at suggestion contained in letter borne by the victim. Greek: Fox 39 (Bellerophon); Japanese: Ikeda.

H919. H919. Assignment of tasks in response to suggestion—miscellaneous.

H919.1. H919.1. Tasks assigned at suggestion of treacherous servants. Icelandic: Herrmann II 583ff., *Boberg; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H919.1.1. H919.1.1. Task upon suggestion of barber. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H919.2. H919.2. Tasks assigned at suggestion of religious person. India: Thompson-Balys.

H919.3. H919.3. Task assigned at suggestion of parrot. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H919.4. H919.4. Impossible task assigned by plaintiff as proof. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H919.5. H919.5. Task assigned at suggestion of treacherous soldier. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

H919.6. H919.6. Tasks assigned at instigation of queen (disguised ogress). India: Thompson-Balys.

H920. H920. Assigners of tasks.

H921. H921. King (father) assigns tasks to his unknown son. *Type 920; De Vries FFC LXXIII 40ff., 323ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys; S. A. Indian (Tupinamba): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 132.

H921.1. H921.1. Task set by king to sons to determine heir to kingdom. India: Thompson-Balys.

H922. H922. Departing husband assigns his wife tasks. *Köhler-Bolte II 647ff.; Icelandic: Boberg.

H923. H923. Tasks assigned before man may rescue wife from spirit world. Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 169.

H923.1. H923.1. Task assigned before wife may rescue husband from supernatural power. Type 316; German: Grimm No. 181.

H924. H924. Tasks assigned prisoner so that he may escape punishment. De Vries FFC LXXIII 309, 313; India: Thompson-Balys; Icelandic: *Boberg.

H924.1. H924.1. Tasks assigned as ransom. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

H927. H927. Tasks set by deity.

H927.1. H927.1. Tasks as trial of prowess of mortal by gods. India: Thompson-Balys.

H927.2. H927.2. Task assigned by angel on God's order. Moreno Esdras (H928).

H928. H928. Tasks imposed as tribute. Irish myth: Cross.

H928.1. H928.1. Tasks imposed as fine. Irish myth: *Cross.

H931. H931. Tasks assigned in order to get rid of hero. *Types 428, 461; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Icelandic: *Boberg; Greek: Grote I 110; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Japanese: Anesaki 357, Ikeda.

H931.1. H931.1. Prince envious of hero's wife assigns hero tasks. *Type 465.—Italian Novella: Rotunda; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 170; Japanese: Ikeda.

H931.1.1. H931.1.1. Husband assigns tasks for king who has stolen his wife. India: Thompson-Balys.

H931.2. H931.2. Disagreeable tasks set hero to do so that he will disobey and be killed. India: Thompson-Balys.

H932. H932. Tasks assigned to devil (ogre). Types 812, 1170—1199; *BP III 16.

H933. H933. Princess sets hero tasks. (Cf. H335.)

H933.1. H933.1. Princess throws handkerchief high in tree; asks hero to get it. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 66 No. 554.

H933.2. H933.2. Maiden queen sets hero three dangerous tasks in order to disenchant her sisters. (Cf. F565.3.) Icelandic: Boberg.

H933.3. H933.3. Princess orders hero to bring her rings of another princess. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H933.4. H933.4. Quest assigned by scorned princess. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H933.5. H933.5. Queen of Sea sets hero tasks. Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 13/441).

H934. H934. Relative assigns tasks. (Cf. H912—H914.)

H934.1. H934.1. Wife assigns husband tasks. Irish myth: Cross.

H934.2. H934.2. Sisters-in-law impose tasks. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H934.3. H934.3. Tasks assigned by stepmother. Chinese: Graham.

H934.4. H934.4. Task imposed by elder brothers. India: Thompson-Balys; Irish myth: Cross (H913.1.3.)

H935. H935. Witch assigns tasks. Type 480, Roberts; BP I 207; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1137A.

H936. H936. Tasks assigned because of longings of pregnant woman. Irish myth: *Cross; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 4; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

H937. H937. Task assigned by dying child. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H938. H938. Fairy assigns tasks. (Cf. H1219.4.) Irish myth: *Cross.

H939. H939. Other assigners of tasks. Irish myth: Cross.

H939.1. H939.1. Tasks assigned by druid. Irish myth: Cross.

H939.2. H939.2. Tests imposed on woman by prospective paramour. Nouvelles de Sens No. 4.

H939.3. H939.3. Tasks set by cruel sisters-in-law to get tigress. India: Thompson-Balys.

H939.4. H939.4. Giant assigns task. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H939.4.1. H939.4.1. Serpent-king assigns task. India: Thompson-Balys.

H940. H940. Assignment of tasks—miscellaneous.

H941. H941. Cumulative tasks: second assigned so that first can be done. *Cosquin

Contes indiens 474ff.; Chauvin VI 109 No. 274 n. 3; Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus I 109 n. 4; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H942. H942. Tasks assigned as payment of gambling loss. (Cf. H1219.1.) Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

H945. H945. Tasks voluntarily undertaken.

H945.1. H945.1. Warriors go towards strong enemy as consequence of own boast. Icelandic: Boberg.

H945.2. H945.2. Hero goes north to fight with trolls. (Cf. F455.) Icelandic: Boberg.

H946. H946. Task assigned from misunderstanding.

H946.1. H946.1. Task assigned from misunderstanding: search for prince named Sabr ("wait"). India: Thompson-Balys.

H950—H999.

H950—H999. Performance of tasks.

H950. H950. Task evaded by subterfuge.

H951. H951. Countertasks. When a task is assigned, the hero agrees to perform it as soon as the assigner performs a certain other task. (Cf. H691.2.1, H1021.1.1, H1021.3, H1021.6.1, H1021.6.2, H1022.2.1, H1022.3, H1022.9, H1023.1.1, H1023.1.2, H1023.2.2.1, H1023.9.1, H1023.10.1, H1142.3, H1146.) *Types 531, 875; *BP I 221, II 367, 369, III 18ff.; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 43ff., 145ff., 150ff., 154, 232ff., 241f., 249; *Chauvin VIII 61 No. 26; Zachariae Kleine Schriften 98; *Child V 497 s.v. "tasks"; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Japanese: Ikeda.

H952. H952. Reductio ad absurdum of task. When an impossible task is given, the hero responds with a countertask so absurd as to show the manifest absurdity of the original task. (Cf. H1023.3.1, H1024.1.1.1.) *Type 821B; BP II 368 n. 1; Child I 10f., 13; De Vries FFC LXXIII 265, 269 n. 2; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 237; Chinese: Graham.

H960. H960. Tasks performed through cleverness or intelligence. Irish myth: Cross.

H961. H961. Tasks performed by cleverness. *M. Bloomfield in Penzer VII x; S. A. Indian (Quiché): Alexander Lat. Am. 174.

H962. H962. Tasks performed by close observation. Type 577; India: Thompson-Balys.

H962.1. H962.1. Task: sitting on eggs without breaking them; hero perceives trick. Irish myth: Cross.

H963. H963. Tasks performed by means of secrets overheard from tree. *Type 613; *Christiansen FFC XXIV 96ff.; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Japanese: Ikeda.

H970. H970. Help in performing tasks. India: Thompson-Balys.

H971. H971. Task performed with help of old person. Tonga: Gifford 159f.

- H971.1. H971.1. Tasks performed with help of old woman. Types 306, 510, 566, 567; Irish myth: *Cross; Scotch: Macdougall and Calder 160; German: Grimm Nos. 9, 14, 29, 122, 125, 133, 181, 186; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Japanese: Ikeda.
- H971.2. H971.2. Task performed with help of little old men. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- H972. H972. Tasks accomplished with help of grateful dead. *Type 507A; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H972.1. H972.1. Tasks performed by captive spirits of the dead. Africa (Fang): Einstein 70ff.; Trilles 190ff. No. 11.
- H973. H973. Tasks performed by helpful forest spirits. Maori: Dixon 61.
- H973.1. H973.1. Task performed by fairy. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H973.2. H973.2. Tasks performed with help of four demons in ring. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H973.3. H973.3. Task performed by dwarfs. (Cf. F451.5.1.) German: Grimm Nos. 13, 55, 64, 91, 113.
- H974. H974. Task performed with help of supernatural wife. Irish myth: *Cross; Greek: Grote I 219; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Anesaki 357, Ikeda.
- H974.1. H974.1. Task performed with help of mistress. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H975. H975. Tasks performed by deity. Greek: Grote I 108.
- H975.0.1. H975.0.1. Task performed by deity in answer to prayer. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H975.1. H975.1. Tasks performed by aid of goddess. Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H976. H976. Task performed by mysterious stranger. Irish myth: Cross.
- H981. H981. Tasks performed with help of brother. Chinese: Graham.
- H982. H982. Animals help man perform task. *Types 300, 329, 531, 550, 552, 554, 665.
- H982.1. H982.1. Pigeons cover the sun's rays with their outstretched wings and lengthen night to six months so that hero's task can be completed in one night. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H983. H983. Task performed with help of angel. (Cf. N810.) Jewish: *Neuman.
- H984. H984. Tasks performed with help of saint. Irish myth: *Cross; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 69 No. 515.
- H984.1. H984.1. Tasks performed with help of Brahmadaitya. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H985. H985. Task performed with help of druid. Irish myth: *Cross.

H986. H986. Help in performance of tasks: invisible hands. India: Thompson-Balys.

H987. H987. Task performed with aid of magic object. German: Grimm Nos. 28, 91, 122, 133, 165, 181.

H990. H990. Performance of tasks—miscellaneous.

H991. H991. Unpromising hero last to try task (rescue from animal). India: Thompson-Balys.

H1000—H1199.

H1000—H1199. Nature of tasks.

H1010—H1049.

H1010—H1049. IMPOSSIBLE OR ABSURD TASKS

H1010. H1010. Impossible tasks. *Type 428; *Child V 498 s.v. "tasks"; Burton Nights VI 204ff., S VI 4ff.; Hdwb. d. Märchens I s.v. "Aufgaben, schwierige"; Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 168; Chinese: Graham.

H1020. H1020. Tasks contrary to laws of nature.

H1021. H1021. Task: construction from impossible kind of material.

H1021.1. H1021.1. Task: making a rope of sand. *Type 1174; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 154, 155 n. 1; BP III 16; *Fb "reb" III 25b; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 431b n. 45; Chauvin VI 40 No. 207 n. 2.—Icelandic: Boberg.

H1021.1.1. H1021.1.1. Task: making a rope of sand; countertask: first showing the pattern. (Cf. H951.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 154.

H1021.2. H1021.2. Task: making a rope of chaff. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "corde"; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1021.3. H1021.3. Task: making ship of stone. De Vries FFC LXXIII 150ff.; Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 235.

H1021.4. H1021.4. Task: making a knot of spilled brandy. *Type 1173.

H1021.5. H1021.5. Task: making an invisible knot with an egg. Finnish: Kalevala rune 8.

H1021.6. H1021.6. Task: weaving a silk shirt from hair. (Cf. H1022.2.2.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 233.

H1021.6.1. H1021.6.1. Task: weaving a silk shirt from hair; countertask: making a loom from shavings. (Cf. H951.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 234.

H1021.7. H1021.7. Task: taking a stick from the body. (Fingernail.) Type 1181.

H1021.8. H1021.8. Task: spinning gold. Type 500; BP I 490ff., *495 n. 1.

H1021.9. H1021.9. Task: sewing a shirt of stone. Fb "sten" III 554a.

H1021.9.1. H1021.9.1. Task: sewing a shirt from flower petals. German: Grimm No. 49.

H1021.10. H1021.10. Task: brewing ale from sweet milk. Irish myth: Cross.

H1021.11. H1021.11. Task: making a peacock of silk. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1022. H1022. Task: construction from impossible amount of material.

H1022.1. H1022.1. Task: weaving cloth from two threads. Type 875; *BP II 349ff., 368; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 232.

H1022.2. H1022.2. Task: making many shirts (clothing an army) from one hank of flax (wool). Köhler-Bolte I 459, 566; *Hdwb. d. Märchens II 151a nn. 503—521.

H1022.2.1. H1022.2.1. Task: clothing an army from one hank of flax; countertask: making horseshoes for cavalry from one needle. (Cf. H951.) Köhler-Bolte I 459.

H1022.2.2. H1022.2.2. Task: weaving a shirt from a piece of thread; countertask: making a loom from a rod. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

H1022.3. H1022.3. Task: making sails for ship from one bundle of linen; countertask: making spindle and loom from one stick of wood. (Cf. H951.) Köhler-Bolte I 459.

H1022.4. H1022.4. Task: making shirt from piece of linen three inches square. Oesterley Gesta Romanorum No. 64; Herbert Catalogue III 206.

H1022.4.1. H1022.4.1. Task: making shirt derived from a single flax-seed. Irish myth: Cross.

H1022.4.2. H1022.4.2. Task: weaving mantle from wool of a single sheep. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1022.4.3. H1022.4.3. Task: making shawl-cloth one hundred cubits in length out of one cocoon of silk. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1022.5. H1022.5. Task: feeding army from one measure of meal. Köhler-Bolte I 566.

H1022.5.1. H1022.5.1. Task: making broth for army. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1022.6. H1022.6. Task: making many kinds of food from one small bird. Fansler MAFLS XII 62.

H1022.6.1. H1022.6.1. Task: making ale derived from a single grain of corn. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1022.7. H1022.7. Task: making boat from splinters of a spindle and shuttle. Finnish: Kalevala rune 8.

H1022.8. H1022.8. Task: brewing impossible amount of ale from one grain of corn. Irish myth: Cross.

H1022.9. H1022.9. Task: bringing quantity of mosquito bones within month; countertask: furnishing scales with wind as beams and heat as pans. (Cf. H951.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H1023. H1023. Tasks contrary to the nature of objects.

H1023.1. H1023.1. Task: hatching boiled eggs. *Type 875; BP II 349ff.; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 241.

H1023.1.1. H1023.1.1. Task: hatching boiled eggs; countertask: sowing cooked seeds and harvesting the crop. (Cf. H951, H952.) *Types 821B, 875; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 242; *BP II 368 n. 1.

H1023.1.2. H1023.1.2. Task: hatching eggs immediately; countertask: sowing seeds and bringing in crop next morning. (Cf. H951, H952.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 242; Köhler-Bolte I 459.

H1023.2. H1023.2. Task: carrying water in a sieve. *Types 480, 1180, Roberts 138, 165; *BP I 5, 215, III 16, 477 n. 1; *Fb "seld" III 750a; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 354; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; S. A. Indian (Ackawoi): Alexander Lat. Am. 269.

H1023.2.0.1. H1023.2.0.1. Task: carrying water in sieve; sieve filled with moss. *BP I 5, 215, III 477 n. 1; England: Baughman; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Remus 107 No. 22.

H1023.2.0.2. H1023.2.0.2. Task: carrying water in sieve; pious child able to do so. BP III 477 n. 1.

H1023.2.1. H1023.2.1. Task: carrying water in leaky vessel. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "cruche"; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Mpongwe): Nassau 32 No. 4; (Zulu): Callaway 16, (Basuto): Jacottet 15 No. 10, 202 No. 30, (Kaffir): Theal 15, (Angola): Chatelain 163, 171, 179 No. 21.

H1023.2.1.1. H1023.2.1.1. Task: carrying water in leaky vessel; vessel repaired with clay or gum. Africa (Mpongwe): Nassau 32 No. 4, (Basuto): Jacottet 15 No. 10.

H1023.2.1.2. H1023.2.1.2. Task: carrying water in leaky vessel; frog sits in hole. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1023.2.2. H1023.2.2. Hero sets wife to task of filling water-bottle with spout turned downward. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 417.

H1023.2.3. H1023.2.3. Impossible task: filling a grain-bin through the hole in the bottom. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1023.2.4. H1023.2.4. Task: filling a bottomless water tube. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1023.2.5. H1023.2.5. Task: filling pots having subterranean outlets. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1023.3. H1023.3. Task: bringing berries (fruit, roses) in winter. *Type 403B, 480, *Roberts 134; BP I 99ff., II 232; *Saintyves Perrault 20; De Vries FFC LXXIII 269 n. 2; Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Eskimo (Greenland): Rink 159; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 313 n. 126c.

H1023.3.1. H1023.3.1. Task: bringing berries in winter. Reductio ad absurdum: father is sick from snake-bite (impossible in winter). (Cf. H952.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 269 n. 2.

H1023.3.1.1. H1023.3.1.1. Task: procuring cuckoo to sing in winter. Irish myth:
*Cross.

H1023.3.2. H1023.3.2. Task: making withered flowers green. Jewish: Moreno Esdras.

H1023.4. H1023.4. Task: straightening a curly hair. Type 1175; BP III 15; Lithuanian:
Balys Legends No. 636; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 314 No. 113, 329 No. 45; India:
*Thompson-Balys.

H1023.4.1. H1023.4.1. Task: making a dog's tail straight. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1023.5. H1023.5. Task: pumping out a leaky ship. Type 1179; BP III 16.

H1023.6. H1023.6. Task: washing black wool (cloth, cattle) white. Type 480; *Roberts
165; *Fb "fer" I 406b, "hvid" I 700b, "skjorte" III 268a, "sort" III 467b; Swiss:
Jegerlehner Oberwallis 314 No. 113, 328 No. 10.

H1023.6.1. H1023.6.1. Task: washing large heavy quilt covered with ghi and oil without aid of soap or anything. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1023.7. H1023.7. Task: sewing together a broken mill-stone. De Vries FFC LXXIII
152; Jewish: *Neuman.

H1023.7.1. H1023.7.1. Task: sewing together a broken egg. German: Grimm No. 129.

H1023.7.2. H1023.7.2. Task: sewing together a broken ship. German: Grimm No. 129.

H1023.8. H1023.8. Task: fixing the two pieces of a broken sword together. Irish myth:
*Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 202.

H1023.9. H1023.9. Task: mending a broken jug. De Vries FFC LXXIII 249; Jewish:
Neuman.

H1023.9.1. H1023.9.1. Task: mending a broken jug; countertask: turning it wrong side out as one does a shoe. (Cf. H951.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 249.

H1023.10. H1023.10. Task: skinning a stone. De Vries FFC LXXIII 145 ff.

H1023.10.1. H1023.10.1. Task: skinning a stone; countertask: first let the stone bleed.
De Vries FFC LXXIII 145ff.

H1023.11. H1023.11. Task: putting a large squash whole into a narrow-necked jar.
Filipino: Fansler MAFLS XII 62f.

H1023.12. H1023.12. Task: catching a noise. Type 1177*.

H1023.13. H1023.13. Task: catching a man's broken wind. Type 1176; BP III 16.

H1023.14. H1023.14. Task: splitting a hair with a blunt knife. Finnish: Kalevala rune 8;
India: Thompson-Balys.

H1023.15. H1023.15. Task: turning fruit into gold. Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No.
5.

H1023.16. H1023.16. Task: making sun and moon shine in the north. Irish myth:

Cross.

H1023.17. H1023.17. Task: sowing rye and bringing crop next morning. (Cf. H1023.1.2.) Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

H1023.18. H1023.18. Task: putting peaches back on tree. Chinese: Graham.

H1023.19. H1023.19. Task: bringing bundle of faggots without rope to tie them. Helpful snake coils himself about them. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1023.20. H1023.20. Task: fetching water from the well in a bucket without the use of rope to draw it with. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1023.21. H1023.21. Task: gathering a necklace of rubies from the sea. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1023.22. H1023.22. Task: catching a sunbeam. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1023.23. H1023.23. Task: tying the sun with a stone chain. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1023.24. H1023.24. Suitor asked to bathe in great cauldron of boiling water without making water lukewarm. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1023.25. H1023.25. Task: bringing a well (pond, lake) to king. Hero asks for another lake to tie to it and overawes king. Types 1045, 1650; Zachariae Kleine Schriften 93; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1023.25.1. H1023.25.1. Task: bringing well to king; countertask: sending his own well to accompany it. (Cf. H951.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H1024. H1024. Tasks contrary to the nature of animals.

H1024.1. H1024.1. Task: milking a bull. De Vries FFC LXXIII 43ff.; Fansler MAFLS XII 63; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1024.1.1. H1024.1.1. Task: making a bull bear a calf. De Vries FFC LXXIII 43ff., 265.

H1024.1.1.1. H1024.1.1.1. Task: making a bull bear a calf. Reductio ad absurdum: have a man prepare for childbirth. (Cf. H952.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 265; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1024.2. H1024.2. Task: placing frogs in a tree. *BP III 16.

H1024.3. H1024.3. Task: chasing a hare into every trap in a high tree. *Type 1171; BP III 16.

H1024.4. H1024.4. Task: teaching an ass to read. Anderson FFC XLII 357 n. 1; cf. Type 1675.

H1024.5. H1024.5. Task: sowing dragon's teeth. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 109 n. 4.

H1024.6. H1024.6. Task: procuring bird out of season. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1024.7. H1024.7. Task: teaching animal to speak.

H1024.7.1. H1024.7.1. Task: teaching horse to speak. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1024.8. H1024.8. Task: spinning wool still on goat's back. Jewish: *Neuman.

H1025. H1025. Task: obtaining fat (bacon) from swine that never was farrowed. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1026. H1026. Task: changing the course of time.

H1026.1. H1026.1. Task: naming those things which have not yet happened. Jewish: Moreno Esdras (H1011).

H1026.2. H1026.2. Task: bringing past time to present. Jewish: Moreno Esdras (H1023.17).

H1030. H1030. Other impossible tasks.

H1033. H1033. Task: showing picture of a voice. Jewish: Moreno Esdras (H1013).

H1035. H1035. Task: eating the moon. Gascon: Bladé I 8 No. 1.

H1036. H1036. Task: building castle suspended between heaven and earth. *Chauvin VI 38 No. 207 n. 3.

H1038. H1038. Task: getting fruit from top of tall tree without cutting tree. (Cuts roots of tree.) Africa (Mpongwe): Nassau 32 No. 4.

H1041. H1041. Task: bringing a plantain leaf from the garden without tearing it. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1042. H1042. Task: recalling a dream someone else has had. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1045. H1045. Task: filling a sack full of lies (truths). *Type 570; *BP III 273; Fb "sandhed", "pose"; Russian: Andrejev No. 1630.

H1045.1. H1045.1. Task: going to get nothing and bringing it back. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1046. H1046. Task: carrying woman across river without wetting feet. Hero fails. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1046.1. H1046.1. Task: dipping water without wetting dipper. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1046.2. H1046.2. Task: cutting and bringing leaves from thorn thicket without tearing them at all. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1046.3. H1046.3. Task: drinking beer without touching pot. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1047. H1047. Task: bringing melon 12 cubits long with seed 13 cubits long. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1049. H1049. Other impossible tasks—miscellaneous.

H1049.1. H1049.1. Task: bringing the foam of the ocean in a large piece of cloth. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1049.2. H1049.2. Task: growing oil seed on stony ground. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1049.3. H1049.3. Task: setting back sun. (Cf. D2146.1.1.) Samoa: Beckwith Myth 439.

H1049.4. H1049.4. Task: stopping the rain. (Cf. D2141.1.) Samoa: Beckwith Myth 439.

H1050—H1089.

H1050—H1089. PARADOXICAL TASKS

H1050. H1050. Paradoxical tasks. *Type 875; *BP II 362; *Gruffydd Math vab Mathonwy (U. of Wales Press, 1928) 307ff.

H1051. H1051. Task: coming neither on nor off the road. (Comes in the rut or the ditch at side of the road.) *Type 875; BP II 349ff.; De Vries FFC LXXIII 195f.

H1052. H1052. Task: standing neither inside nor outside of gate. (Forefeet of horse inside, hind feet outside.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 198; BP II 362.

H1053. H1053. Task: coming neither on horse nor on foot (riding nor walking). *Type 875; *BP II 362; Köhler-Bolte I 446ff.; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 186ff.; Fb "kjöre", "ridende"; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 423; Filipino: Fansler MAFLS XII 63.

H1053.1. H1053.1. Task: coming neither on horse nor on foot. (Comes on another animal.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 187; Irish myth: *Cross; Missouri French: Carrière.

H1053.2. H1053.2. Task: coming neither on horse nor on foot. (Comes sitting on animal but with feet reaching ground.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 188; Irish myth: Cross.

H1053.3. H1053.3. Task: coming neither on horse nor on foot. (Comes with one leg on animal's back, one on ground.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 188.

H1053.4. H1053.4. Task: coming neither on horse nor on foot. (Coming drawn by an animal on net, trough, or sledge.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 189.

H1053.5. H1053.5. Task: coming neither on horse nor on foot. (Walks on a stick horse.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 190.

H1053.6. H1053.6. Task: coming neither on horse nor on foot. (Crawls on all fours.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 190.

H1054. H1054. Task: coming neither naked nor clad. *Type 875; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 181; BP II 349ff.; Fb "klæder"; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1054.1. H1054.1. Task: coming neither naked nor clad. (Comes wrapped in net or the like.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 182; Missouri French: Carrière.

H1054.2. H1054.2. Task: coming neither naked nor clad. (Comes clothed in own hair.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 181.

- H1054.3. H1054.3. Task: coming neither naked nor clad. (Comes with part of body clothed.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 181.
- H1054.4. H1054.4. Task: coming "neither in softness nor in hardness." (Comes clad in garments of mountain down.) Irish myth: *Cross.
- H1055. H1055. Task: coming neither barefoot nor shod. (Comes with one shoe on, one off; or in soleless shoes.) Type 875; *BP II 362; De Vries FFC LXXIII 200.
- H1056. H1056. Task: coming neither with nor without a present (game). (Lets bird fly as the reaches it toward king.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 205.
- H1057. H1057. Task: coming neither by day nor by night. (Comes at twilight.) *De Vries FFC LXXIII 202; *BP II 362; Irish myth: Cross.
- H1058. H1058. Task: standing between summer and winter. (Stands between wagon and sleigh.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 213.
- H1061. H1061. Task: coming neither with nor without a companion. (Comes with an animal.) Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; De Vries FFC LXXIII 212.
- H1062. H1062. Task: coming neither washed nor unwashed. (Comes partly washed.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 211.
- H1063. H1063. Task: coming neither hungry nor satiated. (Eats a thin soup, a leaf, a single grain, or the like.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 210; Icelandic: Boberg.
- H1064. H1064. Task: coming laughing and crying at once. (Rubs eyes with a twig to simulate crying.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 212.
- H1065. H1065. Task: bringing best friend, worst enemy, best servant, greatest pleasure-giver. (Brings dog, wife, ass, little son respectively.) Köhler-Bolte I 415, 455; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 423; Herbert III 201; Ward II 231; Oesterley No. 124; *Chauvin VIII 199 No. 244; *BP II 365; cf. Type 875; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 220ff.; *Anderson FFC XLII 357 and n. 2; *Wesselski Märchen 237 No. 48; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.
- H1066. H1066. Task: sweep the floor and do not sweep it. *Köhler in Gonzenbach II 215.
- H1067. H1067. Task: light fire but do not light it. *Köhler in Gonzenbach II 215.
- H1068. H1068. Task: making bed but do not make it. *Köhler in Gonzenbach II 215.
- H1071. H1071. Task: eat bread but bring it back whole. (Center of loaf eaten.) Köhler-Bolte I 437.
- H1072. H1072. Task: give sheep good care but do not let it fatten. (Sheep fed but kept near wolf where it is afraid and does not fatten.) *Chauvin VIII 181 No. 213; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H1073. H1073. Task: filling glasses with water that has neither fallen from heaven nor sprung from the earth. (Uses horse's sweat.) Dh I 329.
- H1074. H1074. Task: furnish beef which is neither male nor female. Countertask: send for it when it is neither night nor day. American Negro (Georgia): Harris Friends 118

No. 15.

H1075. H1075. Task: bringing something ever-increasing (ambition); something ever-decreasing (life); something which neither increases nor decreases (one's fated lot); and something which both increases and decreases (universe). India: Thompson-Balys.

H1077. H1077. Task: building house neither on ground nor in sky. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1090. H1090. Tasks requiring miraculous speed. Missouri French: Carrière; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1091. H1091. Task: sorting a large amount of grain (beads, beans, peas) in one night. *Types 313, 554; *BP II 28, 517; *Köhler-Bolte I 397; *Fb "fugl", "gryn"; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 322 No. 87; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "pois"; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 68 No. 513; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: Dixon 226; Chinese: Graham; N. A. Indian (Thompson River): Teit JE VIII 392 No. 100.

H1091.1. H1091.1. Task: sorting grains: performed by helpful ants. Clouston Tales I 238f.; Köhler-Bolte I 397; French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 130; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 4; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: Dixon 217; Japanese: Ikeda; Korean: Zong in-Sob 17.

H1091.2. H1091.2. Task: sorting grains; performed by helpful birds. *Fb "fugl"; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1091.3. H1091.3. Suitor test: scattering mountain of mustard seed in one watch gathering it together in another, pressing its oil out in another. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1092. H1092. Task: spinning impossible amount in one night. (Cf. H1022.2.) *Types 500, 501, 708; BP I 109ff., 490ff.; *Fb "spinde" III 492a; Hoffmann-Krayer Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 120 nn. 7, 8; Köhler-Bolte ibid. VI 71; Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 4; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1092.0.1. H1092.0.1. Task: spinning and weaving large amount by specified time. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1092.1. H1092.1. Helpful animal performs spinning task. (Cf. B571.) Köhler-Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. VI 71; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos. 453*, 481*.

H1093. H1093. Task: embroidering blanket in one day. (Help from animals.) (Cf. B571.) N. A. Indian (Crow): Lowie PaAM XXV 121, Simms FM II 309, (Blackfoot): Wissler and Duvall PaAM II 130ff.

H1094. H1094. Task: unraveling in short time.

H1094.1. H1094.1. Task: unraveling a net in a short time. Type 1178*.

H1095. H1095. Task: felling a forest in one night. (Cf. H1115.) *Type 313; Fb "skov" III 300a; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg (H322.5); Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "forêt"; Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 7.

H1095.1. H1095.1. Task: collecting firewood quickly, sufficient to last remainder of one's life. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1095.2. H1095.2. Task: stacking wood from felled forest in one day. German: Grimm No. 113, 193.

H1096. H1096. Task: washing enormous number of clothes (and other articles) in short time. Sicilian: Gonzenbach I 97ff. No. 15.

H1097. H1097. Task: draining sea-covered land in one night. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1097.1. H1097.1. Task: drying up a lake in one night. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

H1097.2. H1097.2. Task: cleaning enormous cistern in one day. Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 7; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1101. H1101. Task: removing mountain (mound) in one night. *Type 313; Breton: Sébillot Incidents "butte"; Missouri French: Carrière.

H1102. H1102. Task: cleaning Augean stable. Stable has not been cleaned in years. Must be done in one night. River turned through it. Type 313; Köhler-Bolte I 170; *Fb "stald" III 534a; Greek: Fox 82, Frazer Apollodorus I 195 n. 2; New Zealand: Dixon 71.

H1102.1. H1102.1. Task: cleaning cowshed. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1102.2. H1102.2. Task: emptying in one day a barn filled with manure. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H1103. H1103. Task: setting out vineyard in one night. *Type 313.

H1103.1. H1103.1. Task: making garden quickly in unplanted forest. Kabyle: Frobenius Atlantis II 32 No. 4; Africa (Benga): Nassau 215 No. 33.

H1103.1.1. H1103.1.1. Task: making garden in three days. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1103.2. H1103.2. Task: plowing enormous amount of land in one day. Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 72, 73; Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 7; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1103.2.1. H1103.2.1. Task: preparing and sowing impossible amount of land overnight. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1103.2.2. H1103.2.2. Task: planting and growing crop overnight. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1103.3. H1103.3. Task: covering mango tree grove with fruit in a single night. (Cf. H1023.17.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H1104. H1104. Task: building castle in one night. Type 313; Fb "slot" III 377a.

H1104.0.1. H1104.0.1. Task: building castle in three days. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1104.1. H1104.1. Task: building a lodge entirely of bird's feathers in one night. S. A. Indian (Carib): Alexander Lat. Am. 264.

H1104.1.1. H1104.1.1. Task: in one day feathering a barn, each feather from different bird. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H1104.1.2. H1104.1.2. Task: thatching roof with bird feathers; half blow away while other half are sought. (Cf. F171.6.6.) Irish myth: *Cross.

H1104.2. H1104.2. Task: building entire village in one night. Africa (Fang): Einstein 70ff. (= Trilles 190ff. No. 11.)

H1104.3. H1104.3. Task: building a house of iron in one night. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

H1104.4. H1104.4. Task: erecting marriage hall in one night. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1104.5. H1104.5. Task: building granary full of grain overnight. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1105. H1105. Task: digging a pond quickly. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "étang"; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1106. H1106. Task: shearing flock of sheep in one day. N. A. Indian (Zuci): Boas JAFL XXXV 77 No. 4.

H1107. H1107. Task: bringing documents from distant city in one day. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 68 No. 513.

H1108. H1108. Task: paving great road in short time. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1109. H1109. Other tasks requiring miraculous speed.

H1109.1. H1109.1. Task: bringing water from distant fountain more quickly than a witch. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 68 No. 513.

H1109.2. H1109.2. Task: hauling enormous number of things from one farm to another in one day. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H1109.3. H1109.3. Task: killing enough birds in one day to cover the mountain, each bird to be of a different species. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H1109.4. H1109.4. Task: exterminating mice infesting city in three days. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1110. H1110. Tedious tasks.

H1111. H1111. Task: carrying hundreds of sheep across stream one at a time. *BP II 209; cf. Type 2300; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H1112. H1112. Task: herding rabbits. *Type 570; BP III 267ff. (incident C); *Fb "hare".

H1112.1. H1112.1. Task: keeping four dogs in herd. *Fb "hund" I 678a.

H1112.2. H1112.2. Task: pasturing a cow which continues to run all day. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1113. H1113. Task: bailing out a pond. Type 313; German: Grimm No. 113; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "étang"; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 369, 377; Africa (Benga): Nassau 216 No. 33.

- H1113.1. H1113.1. Bailing out pond with thimble. German: Grimm No. 193.
- H1114. H1114. Task: climbing glass mountain. *Type 425; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1114.1. H1114.1. Task: securing three eggs from top of glass tower. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.
- H1114.2. H1114.2. Task: carrying ever-increasing burden up mountain. German: Grimm No. 179.
- H1115. H1115. Task: chopping down large tree with blunt (fragile) implements. (Cf. H1095.) Type 313; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "arbres"; India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 208; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 251 No. 29.
- H1115.1. H1115.1. Task: cutting down huge tree which magically regrows. Type 577.
- H1115.2. H1115.2. Task: sawing iron tree in two. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1115.3. H1115.3. Task: cutting down a giant tree. Marquesas: Beckwith Myth 470.
- H1116. H1116. Task: breaking huge rock to pieces. Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 208.
- H1116.1. H1116.1. Task: cutting firewood from rocks with brass axe (rock struck to splinters by lightning used). Africa (Ganda): Baskerville 8ff.
- H1116.2. H1116.2. Task: breaking iron with wooden axe. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1116.3. H1116.3. Task: tearing down a huge wall. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1117. H1117. Task: bringing as many horses as there are days in the year. (Brings one for each week-day.) Anderson FFC XLII 227 n. 1.
- H1118. H1118. Task: counting hairs in pig's back (feathers in bird). *Fb "tælle" III 922b.
- H1118.1. H1118.1. Task: counting the seeds in a package of mustard. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1118.2. H1118.2. Task: counting daily how many leaves fall off a tree. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1118.3. H1118.3. Task: counting palm trees within view of king's palace. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1121. H1121. Task: picking all nuts from tall tree. (Performed by grateful squirrel.) Indonesia: *Dixon 217 n. 22.
- H1122. H1122. Task: preparing large quantity of grain. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "grain"; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 71—74; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H1122.1. H1122.1. Task: supplying superhuman amount of grain. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1123. H1123. Task: feeding ravenous beast to satiation. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bête".

H1124. H1124. Task: gathering all stones from brook or field. Type 1172.

H1125. H1125. Task: traveling till iron shoes are worn out. *Type 425; *BP II 272; Köhler-Bolte I 317, 512, 573; Missouri French: Carrière; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 114.

H1125.1. H1125.1. Task: traveling till two skeins of thread are unwound. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 57 No. 425.

H1127. H1127. Task: carrying off huge quantity of money. *Type 513.

H1128. H1128. Task: keeping up a certain work all night. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "ouvrage".

H1129. H1129. Other tedious tasks.

H1129.1. H1129.1. Task: filling the yard with manure. Type 1183.

H1129.1.1. H1129.1.1. Task: bringing twelve cartloads of mud without the use of buffaloes. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1129.2. H1129.2. Task: filling twelve bed-ticks with feathers. Done by helpful birds. German: Grimm No. 186; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 4.

H1129.3. H1129.3. Task: carrying soil to cover stony ground. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1129.4. H1129.4. Task: filling pot with dew. Africa (Ganda): Baskerville 8ff.

H1129.5. H1129.5. Task: building a fire; whole tree burns up while man is bringing another. Irish myth: Cross.

H1129.5.1. H1129.5.1. Task: gathering firewood; bundle continually swept away from swimming man. Irish myth: Cross.

H1129.6. H1129.6. Task: building causeway, clearing land, etc. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1129.7. H1129.7. Task: gathering bed-tick full of harp strings. Irish myth: Cross.

H1129.8. H1129.8. Task: gathering vessel full of nail-scrapings. Irish myth: Cross.

H1129.9. H1129.9. Task: gathering crow's house full of wren's eggs. Irish myth: Cross.

H1129.10. H1129.10. Task: gathering fist-full of fleas. Irish myth: Cross.

H1129.10.1. H1129.10.1. Impossible task: assembling huge quantity of many-colored fleas. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H1129.11. H1129.11. Task: carrying fuel. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1130. H1130. Superhuman tasks.

H1131. H1131. Task: building enormous bridge. (Cf. H359.1.) Irish myth: Cross; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1131.1. H1131.1. Task: building bridge over land and sea. *Fb "guldæble" I 516a.

H1131.2. H1131.2. Devil as suitor assigned task to build bridge or dam. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3250, Legends Nos. 343f.

H1132. H1132. Task: recovering lost objects.

H1132.1. H1132.1. Task: recovering lost object from sea. Irish: Beal XXI 308, 316, O'Suilleabhain 26.

H1132.1.1. H1132.1.1. Task: recovering lost ring from sea. *Types 513, 554; *Saintyves Essais 381; BP I 134ff., II 19ff.; *Fb "guldring"; Irish myth: *Cross; Greek: Fox 101 (Theseus); Japanese: Ikeda; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 280 No. 91.

H1132.1.1.1. H1132.1.1.1. Test: recovering ring from water. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1132.1.2. H1132.1.2. Task: recovering lost key from sea. *Type 554; BP I 134ff., II 19ff.; Fb "guldnøgle" I 514; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 25, 35, Beal XXI 307, 312; Missouri French: Carrière; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1132.1.3. H1132.1.3. Task: recovering strap from sea. Type 434*; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1132.1.4. H1132.1.4. Task: recovering pen from sea. *Type 531; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1132.1.5. H1132.1.5. Task: recovering lost fish-hook. Done by Sea-king. Japanese: Anesaki 266, Ikeda.

H1132.1.6. H1132.1.6. Task: recovering cooking-spit from sea. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1132.1.7. H1132.1.7. Task: recovering crown from sea. German: Grimm No. 107.

H1132.2. H1132.2. Task: recovering object in large fire. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1132.3. H1132.3. Task: recovering object from python's hole. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1132.3.1. H1132.3.1. Task: getting ring from python's hole (help from python goddess). India: Thompson-Balys.

H1133. H1133. Task: building castle (fort). Irish myth: *Cross; Missouri French: Carrière.

H1133.1. H1133.1. Task: building magic castle. *Type 554; BP II 19ff.

H1133.2. H1133.2. Task: building castle in air. Fb "slot" III 377a; Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 5.

H1133.3. H1133.3. Task: building castle in sea. Fb "slot" III 377a; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1133.4. H1133.4. Task: building palace of gold (crystal). India: Thompson-Balys.

H1133.5. H1133.5. Task: building palace and city. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1133.6. H1133.6. Task: building exact replica of castle in wax. German: Grimm No. 107.

- H1135. H1135. Task: annihilating (overcoming) army single-handed. Type 513; Irish myth: *Cross; Greek: Fox 112 (Jason).
- H1136. H1136. Task: bringing winds from the whole world. Fb "vind" III 1059a.
- H1136.1. H1136.1. Task: bringing back flour scattered by wind. Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 171.
- H1136.2. H1136.2. Task: gathering wind in fists. Jewish: Neuman.
- H1137. H1137. Task: binding waves of the sea. Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 236; Filipino: Fansler MAFLS XII 62.
- H1138. H1138. Task: supplying water in land where it is lacking. *Fb "vand" III 1001b.—Icelandic: Boberg.
- H1138.1. H1138.1. Task: "to turn low stream and fill the high stream." India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1141. H1141. Task: eating enormous amount. *Type 513; Missouri French: Carrière; India: Thompson-Balys; Africa: Werner African 153.
- H1141.1. H1141.1. Task: eating mountain of bread. *Type 571; Fb "æde" III 1140a.
- H1141.2. H1141.2. Task: eating three hundred fat oxen. Fb "æde" III 1140a.
- H1141.3. H1141.3. Task: eating room-full of salt. (Trickster eats only a pinch. "He who has eaten with a friend as much salt as I have eaten and does not recognize the friendship will not do so though he eat ten rooms full of salt.") *Bolte Reise der Söhne Giaffers 207.
- H1141.4. H1141.4. Task: eating entire goat without leaving a scrap. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1142. H1142. Task: drinking enormous amount. *Type 513; Icelandic: Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1142.1. H1142.1. Task: drinking wine—cellar empty. *Type 571; Missouri French: Carrière.
- H1142.2. H1142.2. Task: drinking the sea dry. *Anderson FFC XLII 139, 356; BP II 369; *Chauvin VIII 62 No. 26; Norse: MacCulloch Eddic 93 (Thor); Gascon: Bladé I 8 No. 1.
- H1142.2.1. H1142.2.1. Task: drinking the sea dry (illusion produced by magic thread which makes hero think he is drinking from spring). India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1142.3. H1142.3. Task: drinking the sea dry: countertask: stop all the rivers. (Cf. H951.) BP II 369.
- H1143. H1143. Task: dipping out the sea with a spoon: countertask: stop all the rivers. (Cf. H1113., H1142.3.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 251.—French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule (H1023.2.3.); Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- H1143.1. H1143.1. Task: emptying the lake with a pail in one day. French Canadian:

Sister Marie Ursule.

H1144. H1144. Task: measuring ocean. *Hdwb. d. Märchens s.v. "Meer austrinken, ausmessen".

H1144.1. H1144.1. Task: to collect together all the drops of water. Jewish: Moreno Esdras.

H1144.2. H1144.2. Task: counting the waves. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1145. H1145. Tasks: other difficult measurements.

H1145.1. H1145.1. Task: weighing fire. Jewish: Moreno Esdras (H1023.16).

H1145.2. H1145.2. Task: measuring a gust of wind. Jewish: Moreno Esdras (H1023.18).

H1146. H1146. Task: carrying mountain on head. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1147. H1147. Task: making ladder which whole army cannot set up. De Vries FFC LXXIII 323, 331.

H1149. H1149. Miscellaneous superhuman tasks.

H1149.1. H1149.1. Task: yoking together lion and wild boar. Greek: Fox 107 (Admetus), Grote I 108.

H1149.2. H1149.2. Task: lifting a certain cat. (Is serpent that embraces the earth.) Icelandic: Boberg (Thor and the Midgard serpent).

H1149.3. H1149.3. Task: defeating a certain old woman. (She is Old Age.) Hdwb. d. Märchens I 445b n. 432; Icelandic: Boberg.

H1149.4. H1149.4. Task: collecting enormous amount of material (number of rare objects, etc.) Irish myth: Cross.

H1149.5. H1149.5. Feat on spear point. Hero performs it as task set by otherworld amazon. Irish myth: Cross.

H1149.6. H1149.6. Task: breaking pigeon's egg on parapet of castle. Pigeon in ferocious serpent. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H1149.7. H1149.7. Task: drawing spear thrust through seven iron plates. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1149.8. H1149.8. Girl to bring cloth as long as river and raise pig as big as mountain. (Countertask: measure river and weigh mountain.) Chinese: Graham.

H1149.9. H1149.9. Task: lifting mountain. Countertask: placing it on my shoulders. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1149.10. H1149.10. Task: jumping across river in one bound. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1150. H1150. Tasks: stealing, capturing, or slaying. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1151. H1151. Theft as a task. *Type 1525; BP III 379ff.; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 123; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1151.1. H1151.1. Task: stealing golden apples. *Fb "guldæble" I 516, "æble" III 1135b; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 179, *Boberg Greek: Fox 87, Frazer Apollodorus I 220 n. 1.

H1151.1.1. H1151.1.1. Task: stealing a golden lotus. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1151.2. H1151.2. Task: stealing twelve horses out of stall. (Cf. H1151.13.3.) *Type 1525; *Fb "hest".

H1151.2.1. H1151.2.1. Task: stealing horse when owner has been forewarned. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1151.2.2. H1151.2.2. Task: stealing king's horse as he rides on it. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1151.3. H1151.3. Task: stealing sheet from bed on which person is sleeping. *Type 1525; Missouri French: Carrière.

H1151.3.1. H1151.3.1. Task: stealing tray from king's bedside. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1151.4. H1151.4. Task: stealing ring from finger. *Type 1525.

H1151.5. H1151.5. Task: stealing belt from queen. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 203 n. 1 (Hercules).

H1151.5.1. H1151.5.1. Task: stealing girdle of goddess. Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 13/243).

H1151.6. H1151.6. Task: stealing elephant's tail (tusks). Africa (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 123 No. 22, (Ekoi): Talbot 208.

H1151.6.1. H1151.6.1. Task: stealing enormous diamond from elephant's forehead. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1151.7. H1151.7. Task: stealing the two horns of a savage bull. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1151.7.1. H1151.7.1. Task: stealing gold-filled horn of wild three-horned ox. (Cf. H933.2.) Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1151.8. H1151.8. Task: stealing cattle which are guarded by a marvelous dog. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 87 n. 3 (Melampus).

H1151.9. H1151.9. Task: stealing troll's golden horse. *Fb "guldhest".

H1151.10. H1151.10. Task: bringing branch from tree guarded by ghosts. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1151.10.1. H1151.10.1. Task: stealing pears from ingeniously guarded garden. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1151.11. H1151.11. Task: bringing a baby lion's tail to use as broom. Africa (Hausa): Mischlich 80ff. No. 5.

H1151.12. H1151.12. Task: stealing eggs from under bird. Type 653; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa: Weeks Jungle 43, (Madagascar): Renel II 118f. No. 91.

H1151.13. H1151.13. Task: stealing from a king. Irish myth: Cross.

H1151.13.1. H1151.13.1. Task: stealing pigskin from a king. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1151.13.2. H1151.13.2. Task: stealing spear from a king. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1151.13.3. H1151.13.3. Task: stealing horses (and chariot) from a king. (Cf. H1151.2.) Irish myth: *Cross.

H1151.13.4. H1151.13.4. Task: stealing hound from a king. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1151.13.5. H1151.13.5. Task: stealing three pearls from king's heavily guarded treasury. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1151.14. H1151.14. Task: stealing sword from giant. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1151.15. H1151.15. Task: stealing goddess Freya's necklace. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1151.16. H1151.16. Task: stealing the mead of poetry. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1151.17. H1151.17. Task: stealing the bait of the demon Acan. S. A. Indian (Tupinamba): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 132.

H1151.18. H1151.18. Task: liberating wife's sister, elephant's captive, who lives in a box in his ear. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1151.19. H1151.19. Task: eating only what is stolen without sinning. Irish myth: Cross.

H1151.20. H1151.20. Task: stealing magic healing apples. (Cf. H1323.) French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H1151.21. H1151.21. Task: stealing magic healing water. (Cf. D1500.1.18.) French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H1151.22. H1151.22. Task: stealing laborer's pajamas. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1151.23. H1151.23. Task: stealing beautiful clothing of a witch. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1151.24. H1151.24. Task: stealing ogress's drum. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1151.25. H1151.25. Task: stealing ogre's grain. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1151.26. H1151.26. Task: bringing ruby in head of devastating serpent. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1152. H1152. Task: selling an animal and keeping him.

H1152.1. H1152.1. Task: selling a sheep (goat) and bringing it back along with the money. (Shears and sells wool; brings animal back.) De Vries FFC LXXIII 43ff., 157; Irish: Cross, Baughman.

H1153. H1153. Task: selling three old women. (Devil finds that no one wants them.)
*Type 1170; BP III 16.

H1154. H1154. Tasks: capturing animals. Irish myth: *Cross; Greek: Fox 80ff.

H1154.0.1. H1154.0.1. Task: bringing head(s) of animal(s). India: Thompson-Balys.

H1154.1. H1154.1. Task: capturing magic pig carrying scissors, comb, and razors between its ears. Irish myth: *Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 187.

H1154.2. H1154.2. Task: capturing deer from herd watched by giant. English: Wells 115 (Sir Eglamour).

H1154.2.1. H1154.2.1. Task: capturing ninety pigs, ninety horses, and one hundred wild oxen. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1154.3. H1154.3. Task: bridling a wild animal.

H1154.3.1. H1154.3.1. Task: bridling a wild horse. Finnish: Kalevala rune 14; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 74.

H1154.3.2. H1154.3.2. Task: bridling ferocious bear. Finnish: Kalevala rune 19.

H1154.3.3. H1154.3.3. Task: capturing and binding ferocious boar. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1154.3.3.1. H1154.3.3.1. Task: measuring (killing) wild boar. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1154.3.4. H1154.3.4. Task: capturing wild elephant. Africa (Fang): Einstein 70ff. (= Trilles 190ff. No. 11).

H1154.3.5. H1154.3.5. Task: loading ferocious camels. Africa (Kordofan): Frobenius Atlantis IV 101ff. No. 11.

H1154.3.6. H1154.3.6. Task: yoking stags. Irish myth: Cross.

H1154.3.7. H1154.3.7. Task: bringing tigers.

H1154.3.7.1. H1154.3.7.1. Task: procuring four full-grown tigers to guard four gates of king's palace. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1154.4. H1154.4. Task: catching huge fish without nets or tackle. Finnish: Kalevala rune 19.

H1154.5. H1154.5. Task: capturing elk. Finnish: Kalevala rune 13.

H1154.6. H1154.6. Task: capturing squirrel and rattlesnake. American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 203 No. 35.

H1154.7. H1154.7. Task: capturing bird. Irish myth: Cross.

H1154.7.1. H1154.7.1. Task: retrieving king's falcon. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H1154.7.2. H1154.7.2. Task: capturing blackbird (yearly). Irish myth: Cross.

H1154.7.3. H1154.7.3. Task: procuring four full-grown peacocks to sit one on each of four golden pinnacles of palace room. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1154.8. H1154.8. Task: capturing magic horse. Type 313.

H1154.9. H1154.9. Task: capturing pair of every wild animal in the land. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1154.10. H1154.10. Task: capturing badgers. Irish myth: Cross.

H1154.11. H1154.11. Task: obtaining marrow of wild pig, lard of wild boar, water bird (coot?). Irish myth: *Cross.

H1154.12. H1154.12. Task: bringing in fierce lion alive. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1155. H1155. Task: taming wild animals. (Cf. H1154.3.)

H1155.1. H1155.1. Riding and taming a wild horse. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1155.1.1. H1155.1.1. Task: grooming unruly mare. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1155.2. H1155.2. Task: milking unruly cow. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1155.3. H1155.3. Task: feeding dangerous man-eating sow. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1155.4. H1155.4. Task: caring for mad elephant. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1155.5. H1155.5. Task: riding buffaloes. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1156. H1156. Task: incurring anger of ferocious animal.

H1156.1. H1156.1. Task: setting fire to brush wood near abode of sacred cobra. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1161. H1161. Task: killing ferocious beast. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 126, *Cross; English: Wells 115 (Sir Eglamour of Artois); Icelandic: *Boberg; Finnish: Kalevala rune 14; Missouri French: Carrière; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 184 n. 2, 187 n. 3, 191 n. 3, 197 n. 3, 199 n. 2, 200 n. 1, 210 n. 1 (Hercules), II 59 n. 1 (Cychreus); Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 3 No. 1.

H1161.1. H1161.1. Task: killing murderous bird. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1161.2. H1161.2. Task: overcoming savage buffalo. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1161.2.1. H1161.2.1. Task: killing ox. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1161.2.2. H1161.2.2. Task: killing fierce bull. (Cf. H1151.7.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H1161.3. H1161.3. Task: overcoming elephant. Icelandic: *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1161.3.1. H1161.3.1. Task: mouse to fight single-handed with king's state elephant and destroy it. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1161.4. H1161.4. Task: killing golden pig. India: Thompson-Balys.

- H1161.5. H1161.5. Task: killing devastating lion. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1161.6. H1161.6. Task: killing devastating tiger. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H1162. H1162. Task: killing certain man. (Cf. H335.3, H335.5, H335.6.) Icelandic: Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1162.1. H1162.1. Task: overcoming robbers. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H1162.2. H1162.2. Task: slaying king's son so that father will not die. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1163. H1163. Task: uprooting man-devouring tree. (Cf. H335.) Jewish: Neuman.
- H1165. H1165. Task: bullfight (buffaloes). India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1166. H1166. Task: duel. Icelandic: Boberg.
- H1166.1. H1166.1. Task: wrestling etc. with giant warrior. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- H1172. H1172. Task: bringing an ogre to court. Köhler-Bolte I 306.
- H1173. H1173. Task: luring Thor into the power of giants. Icelandic: Boberg.
- H1174. H1174. Suitor test: killing monster. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1174.1. H1174.1. Task: bringing back two heads of a giant. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1174.2. H1174.2. Task: overcoming dragon. Icelandic: Þiðriks saga I 175ff.
- H1177. H1177. Bringing fairies to court.
- H1177.1. H1177.1. Suitor task: to make fairies dance before princess. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1180. H1180. Miscellaneous tasks.
- H1181. H1181. Task: raising a buried treasure. *Type 613; Christiansen FFC XXIV 92ff.
- H1182. H1182. Task: letting king hear something that neither he nor his subjects have ever heard. (Reads a letter from a foreign king demanding a loan.) Chauvin VI 39 No. 207.
- H1182.1. H1182.1. Task: recovering money owed by a foreign king. *Cosquin Contes indiens 474ff.
- H1182.2. H1182.2. King asks favorite minister to show him a trick that he has never seen before. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1183. H1183. Task: carrying a wagon axle which has broken a wheel. *BP III 16.
- H1184. H1184. Task: cutting down tree without scratching for stinging insects. (Scratches surreptitiously while gesticulating.) *Jamaica Beckwith MAFLS XVII 250f. No. 29.

H1185. H1185. Task: preparing the food "Oh my". (Needle put in food which causes eater to say "Oh my!") De Vries FFC LXXIII 250.

H1185.1. H1185.1. Task: buying a coin's worth of eggs and another of "ay, ay." Servant puts nettles in bag with eggs, and master cries "Ay, ay" when he touches the nettles. Spanish: Childers.

H1186. H1186. Task: making pigs dance. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "cochons". Cf. Type 850.

H1187. H1187. Task left by departing husband for virgin wife to accomplish: have a son whose real mother she is and whose real father he is. She accomplishes this by disguising as a girl. Köhler-Bolte II 647ff. *Liungman Tve Folkminnesundersökningar 25 n. 1; FSS 7ff. (H922); India: *Thompson-Balys; Icelandic: Boberg.

H1188. H1188. Task: plowing field of vipers. (Puts on iron boots.) Finnish: Kalevala rune 19.

H1191. H1191. Task: blinding a witch. Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 4.

H1191.1. H1191.1. Task: beheading witch, and bringing head to king. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H1191.2. H1191.2. Task: catching devastating witch who haunts king's best garden. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1192. H1192. Task: combing hair of fairies. Type 480; Roberts 168; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 10.

H1193. H1193. Task: causing dry spring to flow again. *Type 613; *Hdwb. d. Märchens I 346a nn. 121—22.

H1194. H1194. Task: making person laugh. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1194.0.1. H1194.0.1. Task: causing silent person to speak. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1194.1. H1194.1. Man whose laughter brings rain will not laugh: brought to laughter when people who, unknown to each other, have gone to sleep in same dark room frighten each other. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1194.2. H1194.2. Task: making jackal laugh (weep). India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1195. H1195. Task: having a shirt made by a woman free from trouble and worry. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H1196. H1196. Task: freeing king from clutches of magic doll. Will marry rescuer if a girl. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

H1197. H1197. Task: crossing weed-filled stream. Hero spreads cloth on weeds and floats across. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1198. H1198. Task: picking ruby out of a tray filled with identical rubies. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1199. H1199. Other tasks.

H1199.1. H1199.1. Task: planting beautiful garden. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1199.2. H1199.2. Task: healing sick person. Types 551, 610—12; Africa (Tanga): Nassau JAFL XXVIII 30ff. No. 5.

H1199.2.1. H1199.2.1. Task: causing sickness to come to certain tribe. Irish myth: Cross.

H1199.2.2. H1199.2.2. Task: curing extraordinarily incurable ulcer. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1199.3. H1199.3. Task: shouting from forbidden place. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1199.4. H1199.4. Task: engraving shield with unique pattern. Irish myth: Cross.

H1199.5. H1199.5. Task: disenchantment. (Cf. D700.) Irish myth: Cross.

H1199.6. H1199.6. Task: swine to shake bole of certain tree. Irish myth: Cross.

H1199.7. H1199.7. Task: swine to eat fish of certain waters. Irish myth: Cross.

H1199.8. H1199.8. Task: defending oneself alone against fifteen ships, sixty men. (Cf. H915.1.) Icelandic: Boberg.

H1199.9. H1199.9. Task: ridding city of thieves. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1199.9.1. H1199.9.1. Task: discovering ring-thief. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1199.10. H1199.10. Task: jumping over fire. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1199.11. H1199.11. Task: going to bed with Odin, the underworld's king. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1199.12. H1199.12. Task: unusual pasturing.

H1199.12.1. H1199.12.1. Task: shepherd in God's service tending sheep and following where they go. On the way, he sees many wonderful things. (Cf. F171.0.1.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 806*.

H1199.12.2. H1199.12.2. Task: pasturing witch's cattle (really her daughters). Grateful animals give help (cf. B571.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 557*.

H1199.13. H1199.13. Task: squaring the lumber on a stone without blunting the axe. Woman is purposely sent to distract him. Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 491f.

H1199.14. H1199.14. Task: climbing extraordinary (high, thin) cliff. Irish myth: Cross.

H1199.15. H1199.15. Task: securing dishes which have been locked up in vault. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H1199.16. H1199.16. Task: producing seven pairs of chopsticks in seven plates. (A lacquered plate and pair of chopsticks—seven coats of lacquer.) Chinese: Graham.

H1199.17. H1199.17. Task: guarding.

H1199.17.1. H1199.17.1. Task: guarding palace at night that no one can enter or leave. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1199.17.2. H1199.17.2. Task: guarding six sisters-in-law so that they do not joke or talk to anyone. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1199.18. H1199.18. Task: knocking off single fruit from king's tree. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1200—H1399.

H1200—H1399. TESTS OF PROWESS: QUESTS

H1200—H1249.

H1200—H1249. ATTENDANT CIRCUMSTANCES OF QUESTS

H1200. H1200. Quest.

H1210. H1210. Quest assigned.

H1210.1. H1210.1. Quest assigned by father. *Types 402, 550; Irish myth: *Cross; Missouri French: Carrière; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 105; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chile: Pino Saavedra 399, 403, 404; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 350.

H1210.2. H1210.2. Quest assigned by king. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1211. H1211. Quests assigned in order to get rid of hero. *Type 650; Dickson 51; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Missouri French: Carrière; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 116, 139—141; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1212. H1212. Quest assigned because of feigned illness. Lion's milk (or the like) said to be necessary as cure; hero therefore sent on dangerous quest. *Type 590; BP III 1f; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 14; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 49 No. 17.

H1212.1. H1212.1. Quest assigned because of feigned dream. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 330 n. 191g.

H1212.2. H1212.2. Quest assigned by wife through appeal to husband's love for her. He is sent for liver of dangerous animal. Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 2 No. 1.

H1212.3. H1212.3. Prince sulks until quest is accomplished. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1212.4. H1212.4. Quest assigned because of longings of pregnant woman. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1213. H1213. Quest for remarkable bird caused by sight of one of its feathers. *Type 550; BP I 503ff., *III 33; *Chauvin VI 5 No. 182 n. 1; Köhler-Bolte I 411; Missouri French: Carrière; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1213.1. H1213.1. Quest for princess caused by sight of one of her hairs dropped by a bird (or floating on river). *Chauvin VI 5 No. 182 n. 1; *BP III 31, 33; *Cosquin Contes indiens 369ff.; Chavannes III 258f. No. 470 (cf. Wesselski Archiv Orientální I 6); Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1213.1.1. H1213.1.1. Quest for man caused by sight of one of his hairs dropped by bird (or floating on river). India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1213.1.2. H1213.1.2. Quest for original of picture. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1213.2. H1213.2. Quest for strong man caused by sight of his handiwork. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1214. H1214. Quest assigned because of hero's knowledge of animal languages. BP I 325; Köhler-Bolte II 340.

H1214.1. H1214.1. Quest for beautiful girl about whom parrots are heard speaking. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1215. H1215. Quest assigned because of hero's boast. Irish myth: *Cross; Missouri French: Carrière; Greek: Fox 33 (Perseus).

H1216. H1216. Mother sends son to find unknown father. (Cf. H1385.7.) English: Wells 134 (Sir Degare); India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1217. H1217. Quest assigned because of dream. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1217.1. H1217.1. Quest for explanation of dream. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1218. H1218. King possessing one marvelous object sends hero on quest for another like it. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1219. H1219. Assignment of quests—miscellaneous.

H1219.1. H1219.1. Quest assigned as payment for gambling loss. (Cf. H942.) Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

H1219.1.1. H1219.1.1. Quest assigned as payment for magic object. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1219.2. H1219.2. Quest assigned as punishment for murder. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1219.3. H1219.3. Quest assigned as punishment by father of abducted girl. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1219.4. H1219.4. Quest assigned by fairy. (Cf. H938.) Irish myth: *Cross.

H1219.5. H1219.5. Quest assigned prisoner. Irish myth: Cross.

H1219.6. H1219.6. Quest assigned as result of slander. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1219.7. H1219.7. Quest assigned as payment for hospitality. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1219.8. H1219.8. Quest assigned as punishment for curiosity. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1220. H1220. Quests voluntarily undertaken. Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 318, 320; Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1221. H1221. Quest for adventure. *Type 650; Irish myth: *Cross; English: Wells 66 (Ywain and Gawain), 134 (Sir Degare); Icelandic: *Boberg; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "aventures"; Arabian: Burton Nights VI 1—83, S IV 420, 509ff. This motif is prominent in Romances of Chivalry.

H1221.1. H1221.1. Old warrior longs for more adventure. Refuses to rest in old age. Chauvin II 152 No. 16, 157 No. 37; cf. Tennyson's "Ulysses."

H1222. H1222. Prince a-hunting enters on quest. *Type 401; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1223. H1223. Quest to undertake feats of valor. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1223.1. H1223.1. Quest to recover one's honor through feats. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1224. H1224. Quest to distant king for military aid. Africa (Fulah): Frobenius Atlantis VI 182ff. No. 4.

H1225. H1225. Quest for a strong adversary. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1226. H1226. Pursuit of rolling cake leads to quest. Type 480; *Roberts 127; BP I 217, II 392, III 458.

H1226.1. H1226.1. Pursuit of rolling hoop leads to quest. Hindu: Keith 196; N. A. Indian: Matthews MAFLS V 108, Goddard PaAM VIII 196 No. 3 and numerous other references in Thompson Tales 320 n. 156.

H1226.2. H1226.2. Pursuit of magic arrow leads to adventures. Hawaii: Dixon 75.

H1226.3. H1226.3. Pursuit of rolling golden apple leads to quest. Type 480; *Roberts 127.

H1226.4. H1226.4. Pursuit of rolling ball of yarn leads to quest. Type 480; *Roberts 127.

H1227. H1227. Quest undertaken before hero will marry. Malone. PMLA XLIII 401.

H1228. H1228. Quest undertaken by hero for vengeance.

H1228.1. H1228.1. Quest undertaken by hero to avenge his king. Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1228.2. H1228.2. Son goes out to avenge father's death. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1229. H1229. Quests voluntarily undertaken—miscellaneous.

H1229.1. H1229.1. Quest undertaken by hero to fulfill promises. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1229.2. H1229.2. Queen writes message on stone which hero finds: he goes in search of her. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1229.3. H1229.3. Quest for marvelous thing seen in dream. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1230. H1230. Accomplishment of quests.

H1231. H1231. Large boot-supply for journey. Quest is to be so long that many boots are to be worn out. Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 4; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 358 n. 287k.

H1232. H1232. Directions on quest given by sun, moon, wind, and stars. *Types 425, 451; *Tegethoff 44; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 71 No. 551, Espinosa Jr. Nos. 106, 114; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1232.1. H1232.1. Directions on quest given by herdsmen (peasants). Type 432; MPh. X 625; Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1232.2. H1232.2. Directions on quest given by queen. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1232.3. H1232.3. Directions on quest given by maiden or woman in castle. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1232.4. H1232.4. Directions on quest given by peasant and his wife. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1232.5. H1232.5. Directions on quest given by child(ren) still in mother's womb. S. A. Indian (Chiriguano): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 484.

H1233. H1233. Helpers on quest. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1233.1. H1233.1. Old person as helper on quest.

H1233.1.1. H1233.1.1. Old woman helps on quest. Type 400, 425; English: Wells 68 (The Weddyng of Sir Gawen and Dame Ragnell); India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1233.1.2. H1233.1.2. Old man helps on quest. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1233.2. H1233.2. Relation as helper on quest.

H1233.2.1. H1233.2.1. Quest accomplished with aid of wife. *Type 465C; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1233.2.2. H1233.2.2. Quest accomplished with aid of brother in disguise. Irish myth: Cross.

H1233.3. H1233.3. Holy man as helper on quest.

H1233.3.1. H1233.3.1. Ascetic gives directions to hero on quest. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1233.3.2. H1233.3.2. Fakir as helper on quest. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1233.3.3. H1233.3.3. Quest accomplished with aid of prophet (sage, druid). Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

H1233.4. H1233.4. Supernatural creature as helper on quest.

H1233.4.1. H1233.4.1. Fairies as helpers on quest. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1233.4.2. H1233.4.2. Quest accomplished with aid of giantess. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1233.4.3. H1233.4.3. Griffin as helper on quest. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1233.4.4. H1233.4.4. Demon as helper on quest. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1233.5. H1233.5. Deity as helper on quest. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1233.5.1. H1233.5.1. Goddess as helper on quest. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1233.6. H1233.6. Animals help hero on quest. *Type 550; Malone PMLA XLIII 444; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 187; Missouri French: Carrière; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1233.6.1. H1233.6.1. Horse helper on quest. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1233.6.2. H1233.6.2. Bird helper (adviser) on quest. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1233.6.3. H1233.6.3. Porpoise as helper on quest. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1235. H1235. Succession of helpers on quest. One helper sends to another, who sends to another, etc. (Cf. H1241.) Types 400, 425, 516, 756B; *BP II 400; *Wesselski Archiv Orientální IV 1; Clouston Tales II 96; W. R. Halliday Indo-European Folk-Tales and Greek Legend (Cambridge, 1933) 132f.; Gaster Oldest Stories 51; Tegethoff 44; Rösch FFC LXXVII 110; *Andrejev FFC LXIX 225 n.—Irish: Cross, Beal XXI 326, O'Suilleabhain 74; Icelandic: *Boberg; Missouri French: Carrière; Italian: Basile Pentamerone Introduction, IV No. 8, V Nos. 4, 9; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 336 n. 211.

H1235.1. H1235.1. Helpers on quest demand pay for advice. Chinese: Graham.

H1236. H1236. Perilous path traversed on quest. English: Wells 55 (Gawayne and the Grene Knight); India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1236.1. H1236.1. Quest over path bristling with sharp points (knives, axes, etc.). Irish myth: Cross; Finnish: Kalevala rune 17.

H1236.2. H1236.2. Quest over path guarded by dangerous animals. Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; Am. Indian (Quiche): Alexander Lat. Am. 174.

H1236.3. H1236.3. Quest over path guarded by hags. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1236.4. H1236.4. Quest over path guarded by giant. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1237. H1237. Conjuring away obstacles on quest for lost wife. Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 75.

H1239. H1239. Accomplishment of quest—miscellaneous.

H1239.1. H1239.1. Prince agrees to marry a servant girl if she will help him on a quest. Malone PMLA XLIII 400.

H1239.2. H1239.2. Objects of quest found in deserted castle where hero is served by unseen hands. Type 425; Tegethoff 14.—Icelandic: Boberg.

H1239.3. H1239.3. Quest accomplished by means of objects given by helpers. Type 425; Halliday Indo-European Folk-Tales (Cambridge, 1933) 135f.

H1239.4. H1239.4. Man with magic knowledge defeats his competitors in quest by misinforming them about the character of country they will be traveling (for a place where there is no water he makes them bring loads of wood; for a place where water is he makes them bring along loads of water). India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1239.5. H1239.5. Seductive women attempt to divert quester. Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 3/1174, 1386; z-G. 13/221, 1241).

H1240. H1240. Other circumstances of quests.

H1241. H1241. Series of quests. One quest can be accomplished when a second is finished, etc. (Cf. H1235.) *Type 550; BP I 503ff.; Wesselski Mönchslatein 91 No. 77; Irish myth: *Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 187; Scotch: Campbell II 344; Icelandic: Lagerholm 58—63, 115—118, *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1241.1. H1241.1. Hero returning from successful quest sent upon another. Irish myth: Cross.

H1241.1.1. H1241.1.1. Hero returning with berries sent back to bring tree. (Cf. H561.1.2.) Irish myth: *Cross.

H1242. H1242. Youngest brother alone succeeds on quest. *Type 402, 471, 550, 551, 577; BP 260, 503; Irish myth: Cross; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 398; Chile: Pino Saavedra 402—405.

H1242.1. H1242.1. Unpromising hero succeeds in quest. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1243. H1243. Riches the reward of questions solved on quests. *Type 461; Aarne FFC XXII 165; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1244. H1244. Forgiveness the reward of successful quest. Icelandic: Boberg; Africa (Zulu): Callaway 164.

H1245. H1245. Quest to be accomplished in one day. Irish myth: Cross.

H1247. H1247. Sleep forbidden until quest is accomplished. Irish myth: Cross.

H1248. H1248. Object sought brings about death of assigner of quest. Irish myth: Cross.

H1250—H1399.

H1250—H1399. Nature of quests.

H1250—H1299.

H1250—H1299. QUESTS TO THE OTHER WORLD

H1250. H1250. Quests to the other world. *Siuts Jenseitsmotive 226—232; Irish myth: *Cross.

H1250.1. H1250.1. Test of hero before journey to otherworld. Irish myth: Cross.

- H1251. H1251. Quest to other world for samples of magic animals' food. Type 471.
- H1252. H1252. Quest to other world for relative.
- H1252.1. H1252.1. Quest to other world for ancestor. Babylonian: Spence 170.
- H1252.1.1. H1252.1.1. Quest to the other world to receive news of ancestor. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1252.1.2. H1252.1.2. Quest to the other world to learn whether father is in heaven or hell. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1252.2. H1252.2. Quest to other world to take letters to dead relatives. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1252.3. H1252.3. Quest for relatives sold to the otherworld. Irish myth: *Cross.
- H1252.4. H1252.4. King sends hero to otherworld to carry message to king's dead father. *Cosquin Contes indiens 405ff.
- H1254. H1254. Journey to otherworld for magic objects. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1256. H1256. Journey to other world to obtain a wife. (Cf. H1381.3.1.2.) Chinese: Graham.
- H1257. H1257. Quest for the location of paradise. Jewish: *Neuman.
- H1260. H1260. Quest to the upper world. Type 465c; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; West Indies: Flowers 462.
- H1261. H1261. Quest: a crown from heaven. BP III 268.
- H1262. H1262. Quest: God to be brought from heaven. Type 465c.
- H1263. H1263. Quest to God for fortune. *Types 460A, 460B; *Aarne FFC XXIII 124, 127; West Indies: Flowers 462—466.
- H1264. H1264. Quest to upper world for fire. Papua: Ker 77; Africa (Fjort): Dennett 74 No. 16.
- H1265. H1265. Quest to Paradise to get oil to anoint dying father's body. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1266. H1266. Quest of a deity. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H1267. H1267. Pregnant woman craving fish sends husband to heaven after lucky fishhook. (Cf. H936.) Samoa: Beckwith Myth 25.
- H1270. H1270. Quest to lower world. Irish: *Cross, Beal XXI 323; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 13/276).
- H1271. H1271. Quest for Cerberus in hell: to be brought to earth. Greek: Fox 88.
- H1272. H1272. Quest for devils in hell; hero brings them back with him. *Type 650.

H1273. H1273. Quest to devil for objects.

H1273.1. H1273.1. Quest to devil in hell for return of contract. *Type 756B; BP III 465; *Plenzat Die Theophiluslegende in den Dichtungen des Mittelalters (Berlin, 1926); Irish: Beal XXI 311, O'Suilleabhain 33.

H1273.1.1. H1273.1.1. Quest to hell for return of contract from deceased rich man. *Köhler-Bolte I 133; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 58.

H1273.2. H1273.2. Quest for three hairs from devil's beard. *Type 461; *Aarne FFC XXIII 126, 131.

H1274. H1274. Quest in hell for three dragon feathers. (Cf. B11.) Fb "helvede" I 589a.

H1275. H1275. Quest for money (treasure) in hell. Fb "gjedebuk" I 440, "helvede" I 589a; Icelandic: Egils saga ok ásmundar 391, Boberg; Indonesian: De Vries's list 161.

H1276. H1276. Quest to lower world for lost words. Finnish: Kalevala rune 16.

H1277. H1277. Quest to confines of hell for blood of sorceress. Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 188.

H1278. H1278. Quest to devil for answer to riddle questions. (Cf. H1282, H1283, H1284, H1292.) German: Grimm Nos. 29, 125.

H1280. H1280. Quests to other realms.

H1281. H1281. Quest to Fortune to seek fortune. *Type 460B; Aarne FFC XIII 124; India: *Thompson-Balys. Cf. Patch PMLA XXXIII 630.

H1282. H1282. Quest to morning star for answers to questions. Type 702*.

H1283. H1283. Quest to moon for answers to questions. Type 702*; S. A. Indian (Chiriguano): Métraux RMLP XXXIII 143.

H1284. H1284. Quest for sun for answer to questions. *Type 460, 461; BP I 292; Aarne FFC XXIII 115ff.; N. A. Indian (Thompson River): Thompson CColl II 387ff.

H1284.1. H1284.1. Quest to place where sun sets. Chinese: Graham.

H1285. H1285. Quest to Mother of Time for answers to questions. Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 8.

H1285.1. H1285.1. Quest to bring Soma (a wizard woman) from across the seven seas to a wedding. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1286. H1286. Quests to fairyland. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1286.0.1. H1286.0.1. Quest to fairyland at bottom of lake. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1286.1. H1286.1. Quest to fairyland for precious jewel. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1286.2. H1286.2. Quest to fairyland for magic object. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1287. H1287. Quest to submarine monastery. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1287.1. H1287.1. Quest to submerged island. Irish myth: Cross.

H1288. H1288. Quest to Plain of Wonders. Irish myth: Cross.

H1289. H1289. Quest to different other realms.

H1289.1. H1289.1. Quest to animal realm. (Cf. B220.)

H1289.1.1. H1289.1.1. Quest to lions', elephants', and serpents' land for green stone. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1289.1.2. H1289.1.2. Quest to land of snakes. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1289.2. H1289.2. Quest to Bjarmaland. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1289.3. H1289.3. Quest to giant's land. Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 91ff., Boberg.

H1289.3.1. H1289.3.1. Quest to land of cannibal giants. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1289.4. H1289.4. Quest to see deity. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1289.4.1. H1289.4.1. Quest for thread from lotus stalks growing on Vishnu's navel. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1289.5. H1289.5. Quest to land where every raja dies. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1289.6. H1289.6. Quest to the world of rakshasas. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1290. H1290. Quests to the other world—miscellaneous motifs.

H1291. H1291. Questions asked on way to other world. *Type 461; Irish: Cross Beal XXI 318f., O'Suilleabhain 50—52; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

H1292. H1292. Answers found in other world to questions propounded on the way. (Cf. H1278, H1282, H1283, H1284.) *Type 461; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

H1292.1. H1292.1. Question (propounded on quest): Why has spring gone dry? Answer: Animal to be removed from its water-vein. Types 460, 461; *Aarne FFC XXIII 144f.; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 345b. n. 120; Icelandic: Boberg.

H1292.1.1. H1292.1.1. Question (propounded on quest): Why does no one ever drink water of two certain wells? Answer: In their last birth they had been two Brahman women and whenever they wanted to give alms they gave only to each other. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1292.2. H1292.2. Question (propounded on quest): Why does not a certain tree flourish? Answer: Gold is hidden under it (or a serpent is under its roots). Types 460, 461; *Aarne FFC XXIII 133, 136; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 256a n. 13; Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 8; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1292.2.1. H1292.2.1. Question (propounded on quest): Why does no one desire to eat fruits of a certain tree? Answer: Tree in its last birth had been a very learned man who gave his knowledge away. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1292.3. H1292.3. Question (propounded on quest): Why do the live stock die? (Various answers.) Types 460, 461; Aarne FFC XXIII 150; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1292.4. H1292.4. Question (propounded on quest): How can the prince be cured? Answer: He must remove stone which he has spit out in the church. Types 460, 461; *Aarne FFC XXIII 142f.

H1292.4.1. H1292.4.1. Question (propounded on quest): How can the princess be cured? Answer: She must recover consecrated wafer which rat has stolen from her first communion. Types 460, 461; *Aarne FFC XXIII 142f.; Irish: Beal XXI 308f., O'Suilleabhain 27f.; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1292.4.2. H1292.4.2. Question (propounded on quest): How can snake be cured from blindness? Answer: By giving away his gem. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1292.4.3. H1292.4.3. Question (propounded on quest): How can the cripple be healed? Answer: He must distribute his knowledge. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1292.5. H1292.5. Question (on quest): How can the girl thus far avoided by suitors marry? (Various answers.) Types 460, 461; Aarne FFC XXIII 149; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 50, Beal XXI 318.

H1292.6. H1292.6. Question (on quest): Where is the lost key? (Various answers.) Type 460, 461; *Aarne FFC XXIII 148.

H1292.7. H1292.7. Question (on quest): Where is the lost princess? (Various answers.) Types 460, 461; Aarne FFC XXIII 146ff.

H1292.8. H1292.8. Question (on quest): When will a ferryman be released from his duty? Answer: When he is able to get out of the boat and leave the oar in another's hand. Types 460, 461; *Aarne FFC XXIII 136ff., 139; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1292.9. H1292.9. Question (on quest): When will a certain water-animal be freed from an annoyance? (Various answers.) Types 460, 461; *Aarne FFC XXIII 136ff.; Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 8; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1292.10. H1292.10. Question (on quest): How can mice rid themselves of cats? (Answer: tie on bell.) Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 8.

H1292.11. H1292.11. Question (on quest): How can ants secure longer life? (Answer: by doing without wings.) Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 8.

H1292.12. H1292.12. Question (on quest): Where does Bras-de-Fer (Ver-sous-Terre) live? French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H1292.13. H1292.13. Question (on quest): Have you see my prince? French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H1292.14. H1292.14. Question (propounded on quest): Why can't the dragon king ascend to the sky? Chinese: Graham.

H1292.15. H1292.15. Question (propounded on quest): Why can't the child talk or the dog bark? Chinese: Graham.

H1292.16. H1292.16. Question (propounded on quest): Why is the cow so severely beaten every day by her calf? Answer: in her last birth she had been the young of her present calf and had treated it the same way. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1292.17. H1292.17. Question (propounded on quest): Is a poor shepherd known to God? Answer: He had been a very generous god-fearing person in his last birth and God had not forgotten him. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1292.18. H1292.18. Question (propounded on quest): When can certain structure be finished? Answer: When king's daughter marries. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1292.19. H1292.19. Question (propounded on quest): How can a man and woman be freed from their annoyance. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1292.20. H1292.20. Question (propounded on quest): Why does kingdom go well by day and burn by night? India: Thompson-Balys.

H1300. H1300. Quests for the unique.

H1301. H1301. Quest for the most beautiful of women. *Fb "kone" II 263a; BP II 19, 34; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 21; West Indies: Flowers 466.

H1301.1. H1301.1. Quest for the most beautiful bride. Type 402; BP III 18, Fb "brud" IV 65a; Irish myth: *Cross; English: Wells 151 (Richard Coer de Lyon); Missouri French: Carrière; India: Thompson-Balys; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G 3/109, 3/404, z-G. 13/317); Chile: Pino Saavedra 402—405.

H1301.1.1. H1301.1.1. Quest for bride as handsome as the hero. *Type 516; *Rösch FFC LXXVII 100.

H1301.1.2. H1301.1.2. Quest for faraway princess. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1301.1.3. H1301.1.3. Hero visits all islands to see if he can find woman to rival wife's beauty. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 539.

H1302. H1302. Quest for the most beautiful bouquet. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "bouquet".

H1303. H1303. Quest for the finest of chains. Fb "kjæde" II 145.

H1305. H1305. Quest for the best of bread. Type 402; BP II 34; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1305.1. H1305.1. Quest for the best of meat. Scottish: Campbell-McKay No. 12.

H1305.1.1. H1305.1.1. Quest for the worst of meat. Scottish: Campbell-McKay No. 12.

H1305.2. H1305.2. Quest for best-cooked dish. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1306. H1306. Quest for the finest of linen. Type 402; BP II 34; *Hdwb. d. Märchens II 150b nn. 452—502; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 21; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 72 No. 557, Espinosa Jr. No. 105; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chile: Pino Saavedra 402—405.

H1306.1. H1306.1. Quest for best-worked handkerchief. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1307. H1307. Quest for the smallest of dogs. Type 402; BP II 34.

H1308. H1308. Quest for the finest of horses. French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 21.

H1311. H1311. Quest for the richest person. Aarne FFC XXIII 127.

H1311.1. H1311.1. King seeks one richer (more magnificent) than himself. (Cf. H1395.) English: Child I 275—283 passim, III 17n., 503f.; Pélerinage de Charlemagne; Huet 146; Thien Motive 7; Russian: Andrejev No. 650b*; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Chavannes 500 Contes I 374 No. 107.

H1311.2. H1311.2. Quest for bride richest and poorest. Type 585; BP III 355.

H1312. H1312. Quest for the greatest of fools. *Oesterley Gesta Romanorum No. No. 74; Herbert III 191; Christensen DF L 91.

H1312.1. H1312.1. Quest for three persons as stupid as his wife. *Type 1384; BP I 335, II 440; Christensen DF L 35.

H1313. H1313. Quest for person who can withdraw sword. Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1315. H1315. Quest for the spring of the biggest of three rivers east of Gardariki. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1316. H1316. Quest for the strongest. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

H1317. H1317. Quest for ornament (jewel, etc.) to match one already at hand. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1318. H1318. Liar escapes from devil: quest for greater liar. (Cf. G303.16.19.3, K210, X905.) U.S.: *Baughman.

H1319. H1319. Quests for the unique—miscellaneous.

H1319.1. H1319.1. Quest for only person who can cure certain sickness. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1319.2. H1319.2. Quest for best cap. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1319.3. H1319.3. Quest for the most beautiful rug. German: Grimm No. 63.

H1319.4. H1319.4. Quest for the most beautiful ring. German: Grimm No. 63.

H1320. H1320. Quest for marvelous objects or animals. *Type 550; Dickson 39, 50, 51; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1320.1. H1320.1. Quest for magic objects. Chinese: Graham.

H1320.2. H1320.2. Quest for things seen in dream. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1321. H1321. Quest for marvelous water. Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1321.1. H1321.1. Quest for Water of Life (water which will resuscitate). *Types 550, 707; *BP II 394; MacCulloch Childhood 52ff.; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 72, 257.

H1321.2. H1321.2. Quest for healing water. Missouri French: Carrière; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 59 No. 425D, Espinosa Jr. No. 75; Arabian: Burton Nights S VI 213; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1321.3. H1321.3. Quest for the water of youth. *Type 551.

H1321.4. H1321.4. Quest for dancing water. Köhler-Bolte I 143; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H1321.5. H1321.5. Quest for singing water. *Köhler-Bolte I 118.

H1322. H1322. Quest for marvelous pillar.

H1322.1. H1322.1. Quest for silver pillar covered with golden flowers. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1324. H1324. Quest for marvelous remedy. *Types 513, 551; BP II 394; Hdwb. d. Märchens s.v. "Fahrt nach den Heilmitteln"; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 75, 204; Jewish: Neuman; Arabian: Burton Nights III 259, IX 204; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1324.1. H1324.1. Quest for magic healing lantern. Irish myth: Cross.

H1324.2. H1324.2. Quest for draught of healing. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1331. H1331. Quest for remarkable animal. Irish myth: Cross; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 140, 141; Jewish: Neuman; West Indies: Flowers 466.

H1331.1. H1331.1. Quest for marvelous bird. *Type 550; BP I 503ff., III 33; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Kaffir): Theal 78.

H1331.1.1. H1331.1.1. Quest for Bird of Truth. *Type 707; India: *Thompson-Balys. See all references to B131.

H1331.1.2. H1331.1.2. Quest for three feathers of marvelous bird. *Type 550; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 299 No. 17, 304 No. 29.

H1331.1.2.1. H1331.1.2.1. Quest for remarkable bird feathers. Maori: Beckwith Myth 260, Clark 265; Marquesas: Handy 130; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 3/1353, 13/276).

H1331.1.3. H1331.1.3. Quest for golden bird. *Type 550; BP I 503; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1331.1.3.1. H1331.1.3.1. Quest for jeweled golden cock. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1331.1.3.2. H1331.1.3.2. Quest for golden peacock. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1331.1.4. H1331.1.4. Quest for speaking bird. Makes all other birds sing with him. *Chauvin VII 97 No. 375 n. 2; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 138, 141; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H1331.1.5. H1331.1.5. Quest for fat of water blackbirds. Irish myth: *Cross.

- H1331.2. H1331.2. Quest for marvelous boar (pig). Irish myth: *Cross.
- H1331.2.1. H1331.2.1. Quest for purely white boar. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1331.2.2. H1331.2.2. Quest for pig not farrowed. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1331.2.3. H1331.2.3. Quest for pigs killed by night and revived by day. Irish myth: *Cross.
- H1331.3. H1331.3. Quest for marvelous cattle. Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1331.3.1. H1331.3.1. Quest for bald, white-headed cow. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1331.3.2. H1331.3.2. Quest for cow with liver of tallow. Irish myth: *Cross.
- H1331.3.3. H1331.3.3. Quest for golden calf. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1331.4. H1331.4. Quest for marvelous horse. Irish myth: *Cross.
- H1331.4.1. H1331.4.1. Quest for blue-eyed horse. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1331.4.2. H1331.4.2. Quest for horse with peacock tail. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1331.5. H1331.5. Quest for marvelous goat. Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1331.6. H1331.6. Quest for marvelous dog. Irish myth: *Cross.
- H1331.7. H1331.7. Quest for creature with a single horn mounting to heaven with single red hair on its head. Chinese: Graham.
- H1331.8. H1331.8. Quest for a large-headed worm. Irish myth: Cross (H1349.4).
- H1331.9. H1331.9. Quest for sheep that is a hound by night and a sheep by day. Irish myth: Cross (H1349.5).
- H1332. H1332. Quest for marvelous parts or possessions of animals.
- H1332.1. H1332.1. Quest for golden fleece. Irish myth: *Cross; Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus I 94 n. 1.
- H1332.2. H1332.2. Quest for vulture's egg figured with golden letters. Icelandic: Boberg.
- H1332.3. H1332.3. Quest for Gorgon's head. Greek: Fox 33 (Perseus), *Frazer Apollodorus I 155 n. 3.
- H1332.4. H1332.4. Quest for animal with golden chain. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.
- H1332.5. H1332.5. Quest for magic pigskin. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1332.5.1. H1332.5.1. Quest for oil of magic pig. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1332.6. H1332.6. Quest for liver of thunder and heart of dragon. Chinese: Graham.

- H1332.7. H1332.7. Quest for honey from the royal bee-hive. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1333. H1333. Quest for extraordinary plants (fruits, trees). Bödker Exempler 274 No. 8; Jewish: Neuman.
- H1333.1. H1333.1. Quest for marvelous tree. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.1.1. H1333.1.1. Quest for singing tree. *Type 425, 707; BP II 380ff.; Chauvin VII 98 No. 375; Tegethoff 11; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 205; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.2. H1333.2. Quest for extraordinary plant.
- H1333.2.1. H1333.2.1. Quest for plant of immortality. Babylonian: Spence 160, 178; Chinese-Persian: Coyajee JPASB XXIV 200f.
- H1333.2.2. H1333.2.2. Quest for magic tobacco. N. A. Indian (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE XXXII 81 No. 2, 580 No. 117.
- H1333.2.3. H1333.2.3. Quest for extraordinary herb. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.2.4. H1333.2.4. Quest for magic rice. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.3. H1333.3. Quest for extraordinary fruit. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.3.0.1. H1333.3.0.1. Quest for rejuvenating fruit. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.3.0.2. H1333.3.0.2. Quest for marvelous fruit with princess inside. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.3.1. H1333.3.1. Quest for marvelous apple. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1333.3.1.1. H1333.3.1.1. Quest for magic apple. (Cf. D981.1.) *Type 590; BP III 1.
- H1333.3.1.2. H1333.3.1.2. Quest for dancing apple. *Köhler-Bolte I 118.
- H1333.3.1.3. H1333.3.1.3. Quest for apple of life. Type 590; BP I 513, II 400, III 1.
- H1333.3.1.4. H1333.3.1.4. Quest for singing apple. Köhler-Bolte I 143; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.3.1.5. H1333.3.1.5. Quest for healing apple. BP III 267; Irish myth: *Cross.
- H1333.3.1.6. H1333.3.1.6. Quest for apples that are under the sea. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1333.3.2. H1333.3.2. Quest for marvelous pear. Japanese: Ikeda.
- H1333.3.2.1. H1333.3.2.1. Quest for red pear. Hdwb. d. Märchens I 256a.
- H1333.3.3. H1333.3.3. Quest for berries from tree guarded by giants. Irish: *Cross, MacCulloch Celtic 176.
- H1333.4. H1333.4. Quest for magic chestnut. N. A. Indian (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE XXXII 149 No. 24, 201 No. 41, 504 No. 109.
- H1333.5. H1333.5. Quest for marvelous flower. India: *Thompson-Balys.

- H1333.5.0.1. H1333.5.0.1. Quest for flower that sends forth its fragrance for hundred miles around. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.5.0.2. H1333.5.0.2. Quest for flower of a tree inside the seventh of a series of forts. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.5.0.3. H1333.5.0.3. Quest for gold flower. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.5.0.4. H1333.5.0.4. Quest for wonderful but man-killing flower. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.5.1. H1333.5.1. Quest for lotus flower. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.5.2. H1333.5.2. Quest for sarai flower. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.5.3. H1333.5.3. Quest for bakali flower. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.5.4. H1333.5.4. Quest for jasmine flower. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1333.6. H1333.6. Quest for branches of tree guarded by dragon. Irish myth: *Cross.
- H1335. H1335. Quest for the living harp. *Type 465B.
- H1335.1. H1335.1. Quest for gold mouth-harp. Fb "guldmundharpe"
- H1336. H1336. Quest for magic cauldron. Irish myth: *Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 192; Icelandic: Boberg.
- H1337. H1337. Quest for sword of light. Malone PMLA XLIII 433; Irish myth: *Cross.
- H1337.1. H1337.1. Quest for Thunder Sword. Africa (Swahili): Büttner 113ff.
- H1338. H1338. Quest for axe which sticks in beam outside a tower. *Fb "økse" III 1171b.
- H1341. H1341. Quest for magic lantern. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1342. H1342. Quest for magic iron rod. Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 234.
- H1342.0.1. H1342.0.1. Quest for magic wand. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1343. H1343. Quest for castle of jewels. Arabian: Burton Nights V 358.
- H1344. H1344. Quest for ferule to fit staff. Irish myth: *Cross (H1317).
- H1345. H1345. Quest for magic spear (sword, etc.). Irish myth: *Cross.
- H1346. H1346. Quest for lost magic mirror. *Bolte Reise der Söhne Giaffers 203; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1346.1. H1346.1. Quest for stolen mirror. *Type 434.
- H1347. H1347. Quest for comb. Scottish: Campbell-McKay No. 22.
- H1348. H1348. Quest for marvelous gems. Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

- H1348.1. H1348.1. Quest for covering that is kept in an emerald box by the well. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1348.2. H1348.2. Quest for unpierced pearls. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1351. H1351. Quest for magic stone. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1352. H1352. Quest for magic ring. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1353. H1353. Quest for Life Index. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1355. H1355. Quest for marvelous cloth (garment). (Cf. H1306.)
- H1355.1. H1355.1. Quest for garment of spider web. Irish myth: *Cross (H1349.1).
- H1355.2. H1355.2. Quest for beautiful saree for the queen. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1355.3. H1355.3. Quest for silken turban on tree sixteen rivers and seven seas away. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1355.4. H1355.4. Task: achieving kingship by bringing silk from bazaar. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1355.5. H1355.5. Quest for roll of cotton driven by the wind. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1359. H1359. Quest for marvelous objects or animals—miscellaneous. Irish myth: Cross (H1349).
- H1359.1. H1359.1. Quest for marvelous golden wood for knife handle. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- H1359.2. H1359.2. Quest for golden spinning equipment. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1359.3. H1359.3. Quest for great tank of Indra (god). India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1359.4. H1359.4. Quest for mountain of gold. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1359.5. H1359.5. Quest for marvelous game-board. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- H1360. H1360. Quest for dangerous animals. Irish myth: Cross; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 312 n. 126; Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 2 No. 1.
- H1361. H1361. Quest for lion's milk. *Type 590; BP III 2; *Wesselski Märchen 242 No. 53; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "lait"; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1361.0.1. H1361.0.1. Cubs furnish lion's (tiger's, etc.) milk to hero. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- H1361.1. H1361.1. Quest for tiger's milk. India: Thompson-Balys; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- H1361.2. H1361.2. Quest for bear's milk. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges; India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1361.3. H1361.3. Quest for wolf's milk. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

- H1361.4. H1361.4. Quest for wild dog's milk. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- H1361.5. H1361.5. Quest for hare's milk. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- H1361.6. H1361.6. Quest for cheese made from milk of wild white buffaloes. (Cf. H1362.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1362. H1362. Quest for devastating animals.
- H1362.1. H1362.1. Quest for devastating buffaloes. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1363. H1363. Quest for wonderful but vicious horse.
- H1364. H1364. Quest for demon-owned cows. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1370. H1370. Miscellaneous quests.
- H1371. H1371. Impossible quests. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 313 n. 126b.
- H1371.1. H1371.1. Quest for the world's end. BP I 231.
- H1371.1.1. H1371.1.1. Quest for place where sun comes up. Africa (Swahili): Büttner 113ff.
- H1371.2. H1371.2. Quest for the bottom of the sea. *Chauvin VII 83 No. 373bis n. 3.
- H1371.3. H1371.3. Quest for tears shed into the sea. Finnish: Kalevala rune 41.
- H1371.4. H1371.4. Quest for ornaments bride has worn in former birth. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1376. H1376. Allegorical quests.
- H1376.1. H1376.1. Quest: learning what death is. *BP I 29.
- H1376.2. H1376.2. Quest: learning what fear is. *Type 326; BP I 22; Fb "ræd".
- H1376.2.1. H1376.2.1. Quest: learning what fear of Death is. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.
- H1376.3. H1376.3. Quest: learning what anger is. (Cf. H1394.) BP I 37.
- H1376.3.1. H1376.3.1. Quest for the anger of God. Man is so fortunate that people say that he has everything but the anger of God. He seeks it and finds it with much misfortune. *Wesselski Märchen 241 No. 50.
- H1376.4. H1376.4. Quest for bag of truths (lies). Types 513, 570; BP III 267ff., 273.
- H1376.5. H1376.5. Quest for trouble. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 871*; Chinese: Chavannes 500 Contes I 384 No. 113; West Indies: Flowers 466—470.
- H1376.6. H1376.6. Quest for happiness. Gesta Romanorum No. 101.
- H1376.7. H1376.7. Quest for immortality. Ryna-Sklarek Ungarische Volksmärchen (Leipzig, 1909) No. 1; Babylonian: Gilgamesch-Epos.

H1376.8. H1376.8. Quest for wisdom. India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

H1376.9. H1376.9. Quest for luck. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1377. H1377. Enigmatical quests.

H1377.1. H1377.1. Quest for glass of all waters. (Sea water.) Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 105 No. 860.

H1377.2. H1377.2. Quest for bouquet of all flowers. (Beehive.) Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 105 No. 860.

H1377.3. H1377.3. Quest for the hazelnuts of ay, ay, ay. (Brings hazelnuts with thorns so that the king cries "Ay, ay, ay" when he takes them.) Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 105 No. 860; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 114, *Neuman; West Indies: Flowers 470.

H1377.4. H1377.4. Quest for dusty cloth. (Barren woman assigns quest. Dusty cloth is one made dusty by the feet of a child.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H1378. H1378. Paradoxical quests. (Cf. H1050.)

H1378.1. H1378.1. Quest for wood neither crooked nor straight. (Sawdust.) Scottish: Campbell-McKay No. 25.

H1378.2. H1378.2. Quest for king's joy and woe. (King tells of adventures in which his brothers are all killed. They were a joy to him but their death a woe.) Scottish: Campbell-McKay No. 17.

H1381. H1381. Quest for unknown person.

H1381.1. H1381.1. Quest for unknown parents. Dickson 25, 183; Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

H1381.2. H1381.2. Quest for unknown father. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1381.2.1. H1381.2.1. Woman seeks unknown father of her child. *Type 551; BP II 394ff.; Icelandic: Boberg; Missouri French: Carrière; India: Thompson-Balys; S. A. Indian (Chiriguano): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 484; (Tupinamba): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 132.

H1381.2.1.1. H1381.2.1.1. Quest for unknown, vanished beloved. Icelandic: Hálfðanar saga Eyst. ch. VIIIff., Boberg.

H1381.2.2. H1381.2.2. Child seeks unknown parent.

H1381.2.2.1. H1381.2.2.1. Son seeks unknown father. *Type 707; BP II 380ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; English: Wells 134 (Sir Degare); India: Thompson-Balys; Marquesas: Handy 61, 131; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 86, 514, 479; Tonga: Gifford 112.

H1381.2.2.1.1. H1381.2.2.1.1. Boy twitted with illegitimacy seeks unknown father. *Type 873; *Chauvin V 72 No. 21 n. 1; Potter Sohrab and Rustem 9ff.; Irish myth: Cross; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 139; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 263.

H1381.2.2.2. H1381.2.2.2. Child seeks unknown mother. Maori: Beckwith Myth 481.

H1381.2.2.2.1. H1381.2.2.2.1. Boy twitted with illegitimacy seeks unknown mother. Chinese: Graham.

H1381.3. H1381.3. Quest for unknown woman. (Cf. H1385, M55.)

H1381.3.1. H1381.3.1. Quest for bride. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1381.3.1.1. H1381.3.1.1. Quest for bride for king (prince). *Type 531; *Schoepperle I 188 n. 3; Thien Motive 7; BP III 18; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Bysa saga 49, *Boberg; Hindu: Tawney I 380; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesian: De Vries's list No. 218.

H1381.3.1.1.1. H1381.3.1.1.1. Quest for bride for king like picture he has seen. (Cf. H1381.3.1.2.1.) India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1381.3.1.2. H1381.3.1.2. Quest for bride for oneself. Type 585; BP III 355; Fb "her" I 771b; Dickson 184; Irish myth: *Cross; Finnish: Kalevala runes 5, 11; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 9; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G. 3/900); N. A. Indian (Ojibwa): Thompson CColl II 403.

H1381.3.1.2.1. H1381.3.1.2.1. Quest for unknown woman whose picture has aroused man's love. (Cf. H1381.3.1.1.1.) Icelandic: Boberg; India: Thompson-Balys (T11.2).

H1381.3.1.2.2. H1381.3.1.2.2. Quest for girl hero has seen in dream. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1381.3.1.2.3. H1381.3.1.2.3. Quest for dangerous maiden as bride. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1381.3.1.3. H1381.3.1.3. Quest for bride for dwarf. Irish myth: Cross.

H1381.3.2. H1381.3.2. Quest for Glass Princess. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1381.3.3. H1381.3.3. Quest for clever woman. De Vries FFC LXXIII 43ff.

H1381.3.4. H1381.3.4. Quest for princess transformed into skein of silk. Fb "silke" III 204a.

H1381.3.5. H1381.3.5. Quest for woman exactly like another. Irish myth: Cross.

H1381.3.6. H1381.3.6. Quest for persecuted woman. Irish myth: Cross.

H1381.3.7. H1381.3.7. Quest for princess hidden by father. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1381.3.8. H1381.3.8. Quest for queen of fairies. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1381.4. H1381.4. Quest for son of sinless couple. Irish myth: Cross.

H1381.5. H1381.5. Hero seeks his equal. (Cf. H1311.1.) Icelandic: Boberg.

H1381.6. H1381.6. Quest for unknown son. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1381.7. H1381.7. Quest for unknown bridegroom who has certain name and is only son among seven children of father. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1382. H1382. Quest for unknown objects or places. Kittredge Gawain 5ff.

H1382.1. H1382.1. Quest for unknown magic words. Hero seeks them on the heads of swallows, the necks of swans, the backs of geese, and the tongues of reindeer. Finnish: Kalevala rune 16.

H1382.2. H1382.2. Quest for unknown story (epic). Irish myth: *Cross.

H1382.2.1. H1382.2.1. Quest for unknown lines of poem. Irish myth: Cross.

H1382.3. H1382.3. Quest for unknown wonder. Irish myth: Cross.

H1383. H1383. Quest for unknown animal. Irish myth: Cross.

H1383.1. H1383.1. Quest for unknown puppy-hound. Irish myth: Cross.

H1385. H1385. Quest for lost persons. India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

H1385.0.1. H1385.0.1. Unspelling quest: journey to disenchant (free) captives. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1385.1. H1385.1. Quest for stolen princess. *Types 301, 408, 506; Aarne FFC XXIII 126; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1385.2. H1385.2. Quest for vanished daughter. Irish myth: *Cross; Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus I 34 n. 3; Hindu: Tawney II 166; West Indies: Flowers 470f.

H1385.3. H1385.3. Quest for vanished wife (mistress). *Type 400; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Hindu: Tawney I 407ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; Oceanic: Dixon 70—72 (New Zealand, Mangaia, Nieuve, Chatham Island, Hawaii, New Britain, Admiralty Islands), 139 (New Hebrides), 220 (Indonesia), De Vries's list No. 221 (Indonesia); Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen I 222, III 75, Rink 145, (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 180.

H1385.3.1. H1385.3.1. Quest for vanished wife and son. Husband seeks wife and son in many countries. Nouvelles de Sens No. 12.

H1385.4. H1385.4. Quest for vanished husband. *Types 425, 890; Tegethoff 42; Icelandic: Boberg; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V Nos. 3, 4; India: *Thompson-Balys; Oceanic: Beckwith Myth 169ff.

H1385.4.1. H1385.4.1. Quest for husband who has been reincarnated as cat. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1385.5. H1385.5. Quest for vanished lover. (Cf. H1381.2.1.1.) *Type 432; Irish myth: *Cross; Missouri French: Carrière; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 59, 61 Nos. 425D, 445A; Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 2; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1385.6. H1385.6. Quest for lost sister. Type 47; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1385.7. H1385.7. Quest for lost father. (Cf. H1216.) Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1385.7.1. H1385.7.1. Quest for lost grandfather. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1385.8. H1385.8. Quest for lost brother(s). Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 452*; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges; German: Grimm Nos. 9, 25, 49, 60, 85, 96; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1385.9. H1385.9. Quest for lost (stolen) family. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1385.10. H1385.10. Quest for lost prince (king). India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1385.11. H1385.11. Quest for lost uncles. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1385.12. H1385.12. King in quest of his prime minister who has left him in anger. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1386. H1386. Quest for lost object. Missouri French: Carrière.

H1386.1. H1386.1. Quest for lost horn. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1386.2. H1386.2. Quest for missing ring. Fb "ring" III 61a; Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1386.3. H1386.3. Quest for lost bird. *Type 480; Roberts 131.

H1386.4. H1386.4. Quest for lost ecclesiastical rule. Irish myth: Cross (H1382.3).

H1388. H1388. Quest: answer to certain question. De Vries FFC LXXIII 43ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

H1388.1. H1388.1. Question: What is it women most desire. Answer: Sovereignty. English: Wells 68 (The Weddyng of Sir Gawen and Dame Ragnell), Child I 289—294, Chaucer's "Wife of Bath's Tale."

H1392. H1392. Quest for armor from a grave mound. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1392.1. H1392.1. Quest for gold from a grave mound. Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 153, 160, 165, 355ff., (1928) 107, 115, 117, 231ff.; Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1393. H1393. Quest to distant sage for advice. *Wesselski Arlotto II 240 No. 133.

H1394. H1394. Quest for person who has not known sorrow. Clouston Tales II 323ff.

H1395. H1395. Heroes seek judgment as to which is greatest. (Cf. H1311.1.) Irish myth: *Cross.

H1396. H1396. Quest for light-giving child. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1397. H1397. Quest for enemies.

H1397.1. H1397.1. Quest for witch stepmother. (Cf. S31.) Icelandic: Boberg.

H1397.2. H1397.2. Quest for enemy's children. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1400—H1599.

H1400—H1599. Other Tests.

H1400—H1449.

H1400—H1449. TESTS OF FEAR

H1400. H1400. Fear test. A person is put to various tests in the attempt to make him show fear. *Type 326; *BP I 22ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Missouri French: Carrière; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1401. H1401. Deity assumes frightful guises to frighten child. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1401.1. H1401.1. Chief of dead assumes frightful guises to frighten visitors. New Guinea: Beckwith Myth 508, 512.

H1401.2. H1401.2. Ogress assumes frightful guises to frighten messengers. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 174, 194.

H1405. H1405. Fear test: behaving as if enemy is coming in order to see who will flee and who will stay and fight. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1406. H1406. Suitor tested by apparent threats to his person. Heptameron No. 16.

H1407. H1407. Fear test: serpent put in flour so that fearless youth kneads it into the dough. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1408. H1408. Test: going without fear through a wilderness filled with all manner of beasts. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1410. H1410. Fear test: staying in frightful place.

H1411. H1411. Fear test: staying in haunted house. Type 326; Irish: Cross, O'Suilleabhain 53, Beal XXI 319; England: Baughman; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 686; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen II 73.

H1411.1. H1411.1. Fear test: staying in haunted house where corpse drops piecemeal down chimney. Dead man's members call out to hero, "Shall we fall, or shall we not?" *Type 326; *Taylor MPh XVII 321 n. 1; Scott "Marmion" note H; BP I 30 n. 1; Köhler-Bolte I 130; Fb "menneske" II 577b; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 241 n. 1.

H1411.1.1. H1411.1.1. Fear test: staying in haunted house where horse carcass drops down chimney. *Taylor MPh XVII (1919) 321 n. 1; Scott "Marmion" Note H; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 41 No. 46.

H1411.2. H1411.2. Fear test: staying in haunted house infested by cats. Type 326; BP I 22ff.; Irish myth: *Cross.

H1411.2.1. H1411.2.1. Fear test: night watch with magic cats. Irish myth: Cross.

H1411.3. H1411.3. Fear test: staying in enchanted castle at night where the devil gives a moral speech and prophecies. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1411.4. H1411.4. Fear test: spending night in house (hall) haunted by demon (monster). Irish myth: *Cross.

H1412. H1412. Fear test: spending night in church. Fb "kirke" II 126a.

H1412.1. H1412.1. Fear test: going into the church at night and ringing the bell. German: Grimm No. 4.

H1415. H1415. Fear test: staying under gallows at night. Type 326; Norwegian: Christiansen Norske Eventyr 42.

H1416. H1416. Fear test: spending night by grave. Fb "først" I 404; Jewish: Neuman.

H1418. H1418. Fear test: taking boy to frightful enemy's tent. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1420. H1420. Fearless traffic with devils.

H1421. H1421. Fear test: playing cards with devil in church. Type 326; BP I 22f.; Christiansen Norske Eventyr 42.

H1421.1. H1421.1. Hero plays skittles with demons. German: Grimm No. 4.

H1422. H1422. Fear test: cutting devil's fingernails. Type 326; BP I 22ff.; Christiansen Norske Eventyr 42.

H1423. H1423. Fear test: fighting with spirits. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1423.1. H1423.1. Fear test: passing through door guarded by savage hound and armed soldier. Irish myth: Cross.

H1423.2. H1423.2. Fear test: undergoing terrifying experience out of doors on Hallowe'en. Irish myth: Cross.

H1423.3. H1423.3. Fear test: bringing from a hill, seized by a demon, the fattest of goats. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1430. H1430. Fearless traffic with ghosts.

H1431. H1431. Fear test: stealing clothes from ghosts. Type 326; BP I 34 n. 1.

H1433. H1433. Fear test: playing game with reassembled dead man. (Cf. H1411.1, H1421.) Type 326; BP I 22ff.

H1434. H1434. Fear test: eating and drinking from skulls. Irish myth: Cross; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 47 No. 326.

H1435. H1435. Fear test: fetching skulls from a charnel house. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 324 No. 146.

H1436. H1436. Fear test: keeping goal in hurling-match for corpses. Irish: Read FL XXVII 277f., Knortz Irländische Märchen (Zürich, 1886) 23.

H1440. H1440. The learning of fear. Missouri French: Carrière; Japanese: Ikeda.

H1441. H1441. Fearless hero frightened by being awakened with cold water. Type 326.

H1441.1. H1441.1. Fearless hero frightened by being awakened by eels put down his back. Type 326.

H1450—H1499.

H1450—H1499. TESTS OF VIGILANCE

H1450. H1450. Vigilance test.

H1450.1. H1450.1. Waking contest. Type 513; *De Vries FFC LXXIII 311 n. 2; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 314 n. 137.

H1451. H1451. Test: speechless vigil in church. Wesselski Mönchslatein 101 No. 86; cf. Type 307.

H1460. H1460. Test: vigil at tomb.

H1461. H1461. Test: sitting up with corpse. Wake. Type 480; *Roberts 177.

H1462. H1462. Vigil for dead father. *Type 530; BP III 111 n. 3; Rumanian: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII No. 365B.

H1462.1. H1462.1. Vigil for dead father: youngest son alone endures frightful experiences. Ceiling, floors, and walls knock together. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 42 No. 302A*.

H1463. H1463. Three-night watch over grave to guard man from devil. *BP III 420; Scotch: Campbell Tales I 220; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3365, Legends Nos. 693—697, 700f.; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 201.

H1470. H1470. Other vigilance tests.

H1471. H1471. Watch for devastating monster. Youngest alone successful. *Types 301, 550; BP I 503, *514; MacCulloch Childhood 350; *Hdwb. d. Märchens I 207b; Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 148f., *Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 334ff.

H1471.1. H1471.1. Watch for thieves in the king's garden. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1472. H1472. Test: sleeping by princess three nights without looking at her or disturbing her. *Type 400; BP II 335ff.

H1480. H1480. Accomplishment of vigilance test.

H1481. H1481. Thumb cut and salt put on it in order to remain awake. Köhler-Bolte I 561; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1482. H1482. Dirk stuck into thigh in order to keep from sleeping. Japanese: Mitford 245ff.

H1483. H1483. Grains slowly munched in order to keep from sleeping. (Cf. H1471.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H1484. H1484. Continual pricking with pin in order to remain awake. Irish myth: Cross.

H1484.1. H1484.1. Large fire and water for washing eyes as device of expectant lover. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1500—H1549.

H1500—H1549. TESTS OF ENDURANCE AND POWER OF SURVIVAL

H1500. H1500. Tests of endurance.

H1501. H1501. Endurance test: long dancing. Girl tires out many partners. English: Child II 102—110, IV 214f.; West Indies: Flowers 471.

H1502. H1502. Test: enduring hardship. Tested by making girl serve woman who has leprosy, etc. Jewish: Neuman; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 43ff. No. 1.

H1503. H1503. Endurance test: scalding mush scattered on heroine's naked body; rasp-tongued dogs lick wounds. N. A. Indian (Iroquois): Alexander N. Am. 35.

H1504. H1504. Test: sleeping naked on floor in cold. (Suitor test.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H1505. H1505. Test: sewing clothes into boy's hands and tearing them off together with the skin. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1506. H1506. Endurance test: hero maintains silence in the snake pit. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1507. H1507. Hero pursues and kills fugitive in spite of bleeding wounds. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1508. H1508. Test: long praying.

H1508.1. H1508.1. Test: repeating incantation continuously for months. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1510. H1510. Tests of power to survive. Vain attempts to kill hero. *Types 461, 516 930; *Rösch FFC LXXVII 120ff.; Chauvin VIII 145 No. 145C; *Oesterley No. 20; *Herbert III 198.—Icelandic: Boberg; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 22; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; S. A. Indian (Central Brazil): Ehrenreich International Congress of Americanists XIV 662; Africa: Werner African 214, (Ekoi): Talbot 208.

H1511. H1511. Heat test. Attempt to kill hero by burning him in fire. Type 513; German: Grimm No. 71; Finnish: Kalevala rune 31; Chinese: Graham; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 311 n. 120; Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 72 No. 11.

H1511.1. H1511.1. Heat test: swallowing red-hot stones. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 312 n. 120c.

H1511.1.1. H1511.1.1. Test: swallowing heated brass and iron ornaments. Chinese: Graham.

H1511.2. H1511.2. Burning food test. Attempt to kill hero by feeding him burning food. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 312 n. 120b.

H1511.3. H1511.3. Smoke test. Attempt to kill hero by smoke. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 312 n. 120a.

H1511.4. H1511.4. Smoking test. Attempt to kill hero by having him smoke fatal pipe. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 330 n. 191d.

H1512. H1512. Cold test. Attempt to freeze hero to death. *Type 513; Icelandic: Boberg.

H1515. H1515. Poisoned food test. Attempt to kill hero by feeding him poisoned food. Type 516; *Rösch FFC LXXVII 123; Hertz Gesammelte Abhandlungen "Die Sage vom Giftmädchen"; BP I 42ff.; Herrmann Saxo II 139; India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 314 n. 140.

H1515.1. H1515.1. Attempt to poison by druids. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1515.2. H1515.2. Poisoned drink test. Attempt to kill saint by giving him poisoned drink. Irish myth: Cross.

H1515.3. H1515.3. Test: food with thorns. Hero given food in which thorns are hidden. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1516. H1516. Poisoned clothing test. Attempt to kill hero by poisoning clothing. *Type 516; *Rösch FFC LXXVII 124.

H1517. H1517. Test: bite of poisonous snake. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1521. H1521. Clam test. Hero is sent to capture a giant clam, so that he can be killed. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 313 n. 130.

H1522. H1522. Killing trees threaten hero. India: *Thompson-Balys; Tahiti: Dixon 64; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 322 n. 160.

H1522.1. H1522.1. Bent tree test. Bent tree is released so as to tear hero to pieces. Greek: Fox 98 (Theseus); Oceanic: Dixon 321 n. 71.

H1525. H1525. Clashing rocks test: hero to pass between them. S. A. Indian (Tupinamba): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 132.

H1531. H1531. Spine test. Attempt to kill hero by throwing him on sharp spine or spike. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 324 n. 168.

H1531.1. H1531.1. Test: dancing on sharp instruments. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1531.2. H1531.2. Vain attempt to kill hero on stairway set with razors. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H1532. H1532. Wedge test. Hero is caught in cleft of tree. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 313 n. 129.

H1533. H1533. Hanging test. Unavailing attempt to kill hero by hanging. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 44, 50, Beal XXI 316, 318; Finnish: Kalevala rune 31.

H1534. H1534. Plank test. Attempt to kill hero by letting plank fall on him. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 47 No. 325A*.

H1535. H1535. Precipice test. Hero is pushed over a precipice. Irish myth: Cross; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 312 n. 122, (California): Gayton and Newman 95; Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 72 No. 11.

H1535.1. H1535.1. Pit test. Hero thrown into pit. Africa (Benga): Nassau 217 No. 33, (Basuto): Jacottet 72 No. 11.

H1536. H1536. Toboggan test. Attempt to kill hero on dangerous toboggan. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 326 n. 173.

H1537. H1537. Test: playing game with ferocious beast.

H1537.1. H1537.1. Bear demands that heroine play Blindman's Buff. Type 480; *Roberts 175.

H1538. H1538. Drowning test. Unavailing attempt to drown hero. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Finnish: Kalevala rune 31; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 85; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 312 n. 124.

H1540. H1540. Contests in endurance. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1541. H1541. Contest in enduring cold. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1541.1. H1541.1. Contest in enduring cold: frost and the hare. Hare tries to deceive frost by lying on frozen snow and saying, "Oh, how warm!" *Type 71; Dh III 23.

H1541.2. H1541.2. Contest in enduring cold: wind overcomes frost. Type 1097*.

H1542. H1542. Contest in enduring heat. Hdwb. d. Märchens I 194a n. 14; Icelandic: *Boberg; Melanesia: Wheeler 66.

H1542.1. H1542.1. Contest in crossing river of fire. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1543. H1543. Contest in remaining under water. (Cf. H1538.) Jewish: Neuman; Africa (Madagascar): Renel I 168ff. No. 30.

H1544. H1544. Contest in enduring thirst. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1545. H1545. Contest in fasting. *Loomis White Magic 130.

H1550—H1569.

H1550—H1569. TESTS OF CHARACTER

H1550. H1550. Tests of character. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s. v. "épreuves"; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1550.1. H1550.1. Bad character shown by the eyes. Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman.

H1552. H1552. Tests of generosity. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1552.1. H1552.1. Which was the most generous—husband, robber, or lover? Woman has promised her lover to go to him on her wedding night. Husband lets her go. On way she meets robbers and tells her story. Robbers take her to her lover. She tells what has happened. Lover returns her immediately to her husband. *Type 976; *Köhler-Bolte I 214—216; *Chauvin VIII 123f. No. 110; Penzer VII 7ff.; Chaucer's "Franklin's Tale"; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1552.1.1. H1552.1.1. Which was most generous—husband, lover, or magician

(similar)? Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H1552.2. H1552.2. Contest in generosity. Ruler vies with minister in generosity. Minister declared loser and condemned to die. Pardoned on acknowledging defeat. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H1553. H1553. Tests of patience. Gaster Exempla 202 No. 84; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 37, Beal XXI 314.

H1553.1. H1553.1. Philosopher teaches son to beg before stone statues. In this way he will acquire patience. Spanish: Childers.

H1553.2. H1553.2. Test of patience: king accepts strong reproof and criticism. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H1553.3. H1553.3. Test of patience: those who wish to enter city gate must endure insults of old men there who mock them. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H1553.4. H1553.4. Man shows his patience by accepting blow in face with stool thrown by his superior in monastery. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H1553.5. H1553.5. Monk fails in test of patience. He tries to live alone to test it. One day he loses his temper at a cup which overturns and he breaks it. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H1553.6. H1553.6. Test of patience by asking irrelevant riddles. Jewish: Neuman.

H1554. H1554. Test of curiosity. (Cf. H1557.)

H1554.1. H1554.1. Test of curiosity: mouse in jug. The new Eve. A woman has boasted of a lack of curiosity and blamed Mother Eve. The king entertains her in his castle. She may see everything but must not look into a certain silver jug. She does so and finds a mouse in it. (Cf. H1557.2.) *Type 1416; *BP III 543 n. 1; *Crane Vitry 139 No. 13; Alphabet No. 575; *Fb "Adam" IV 3b; H. C. Andersen "Krøblingen", Danish Fairy Tales and Legends; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: *Neuman.

H1554.2. H1554.2. Test of curiosity: the clock. A man is promised a beautiful clock if he can mind his own business for a whole year. He does. The giver tells him he is the second man who almost made sure of getting the clock. The man asks how the other missed getting it; he loses the clock himself. England: Baughman.

H1554.3. H1554.3. Test of curiosity: the paternoster. Plowman is promised a horse if he can say a paternoster without thinking of anything else. In the midst of the recitation, he asks if he will get the saddle and bridle too. He loses bargain. England: Baughman.

H1555. H1555. Tests of honesty. Irish myth: Cross.

H1555.1. H1555.1. Test of honesty: man entrusted with treasure. Irish myth: Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1556. H1556. Tests of fidelity. Irish myth: Cross; Hindu: Tawney I 86 n., 196, 357, II 57, 71, 606; Arabian: Burton Nights V 144, IX 325.

H1556.0.1. H1556.0.1. Fidelity of servant tested. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1556.0.2. H1556.0.2. Test of fidelity (loyalty) of guard. (Faithful unto death.) India: Thompson-Balys.

H1556.1. H1556.1. Test of fidelity by feigning death. English: Wells 129 (Sir Orfeo); Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 4; India: Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 473.

H1556.1.1. H1556.1.1. Cock feigns death to see what hens will say about him. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1556.2. H1556.2. Test of fidelity through submitting hero to temptations. Kittredge Gawain and the Green Knight 6ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1556.3. H1556.3. Test of fidelity through offering suspected assassin opportunity to commit the murder. Heptameron No. 17.

H1556.4. H1556.4. Fidelity in love tested. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1556.4.1. H1556.4.1. Lover's fidelity tested by going to bed with mistress and only kissing. Heptameron No. 18.

H1556.4.2. H1556.4.2. Lover's fidelity tested by making love to maid. Heptameron No. 18.

H1556.4.2.1. H1556.4.2.1. Wife tests her husband's fidelity by tempting him in the guise of another woman. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1556.4.3. H1556.4.3. Lover's fidelity tested by substituting maid in mistress's bed at assignation. He must refuse her. Heptameron No. 18.

H1556.4.4. H1556.4.4. Old uncle tests nephew's fidelity by sleeping with his beloved. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1556.4.5. H1556.4.5. Husband's (wife's) willingness to die for mate disappears when Death seems to arrive. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1355*.

H1556.4.5.1. H1556.4.5.1. Old woman's willingness to die for daughter disappears when Death seems to arrive. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1556.4.6. H1556.4.6. Rose given by supernatural wife to husband when he leaves for home will shed as many petals as times he thinks of her. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1556.5. H1556.5. Test of fidelity by feigning sleep in same bed as calumniated hero or alone in the forest with him. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1557. H1557. Tests of obedience. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1557.1. H1557.1. Obedience of sons tested by offering them apple. They are each offered a slice of apple. The king says, "Open your mouth and receive what I give you". Eldest son insulted; youngest obeys and receives kingdom as reward. (Cf. H1558.0.1.1.) *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 368; *Crane Vitry 187 No. 123; BP III 236; Wesselski Mönchslatein 8 No. 3; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 93a n. 7.

H1557.2. H1557.2. Adam's (Eve's) disobedience blamed: blamer immediately disobeys orders. (Cf. H1554.1.) Alphabet Nos. 574, 575.

H1557.3. H1557.3. Old man contented till forbidden to leave city. Immediately disobeys. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 319; Wesselski Märchen 220 No. 33.

H1557.4. H1557.4. Pope tests women's disobedience: not to look into box. (Cf. H1554.1.) They do so and are not allowed to hear confession. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 398.

H1557.5. H1557.5. Obedience of king's subjects tested by willingness to allow spear to be carried crosswise into houses. Way must be hewn. Irish myth: Cross.

H1557.6. H1557.6. King tests gardener's obedience by playing thief. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1558. H1558. Tests of friendship. Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1558.0.1. H1558.0.1. Test of worthiness for friendship.

H1558.0.1.1. H1558.0.1.1. Apple test of worthiness for friendship. Father gives son three apples to offer to those he meets. If the man eats all, avoid him; if he divides, make friends with him. (Cf. H1557.1.) *BP II 39 n. 2, III 236; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 92b. n. 3.

H1558.1. H1558.1. Test of friendship: the half-friend. A man kills a hog and tells his friends that he has killed a man and asks where he can hide the body. All of them drive him away and only his father's half-friend remains true to him in his feigned trouble. *Type 893; *Basset RTP XXII 10; *Crane Vitry 185f. No. 120; Herbert III 10, 55, 205; *Penzer V 87 n. 1; Alphabet No. 59; Chauvin IX 15f.; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 94b; Oesterley No. 129; Scala Celi 9a, 11b Nos. 60, 69.—Icelandic: Sveinsson FFC LXXXIII p. xix, *Boberg; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 32, *274.

H1558.1.1. H1558.1.1. Of three friends the least loved proves true in emergency. Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 32, 275; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1558.2. H1558.2. Test of friendship: substitute as murderer. A man in misery gives himself up as a murderer rather than endure further misery. His friend tries to take on himself the guilt and be substituted. The real murderer, touched by the generosity, confesses. *Chauvin IX 16 No. 2; Schiller's "Burgschaft"; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H1558.3. H1558.3. Test of friendship: to go with one to death. Everyman. He calls in Riches, Family, etc. Only Good Deeds remains with him. *Chauvin III 101 No. 7; Jewish: *Bin Gorion Born Judas IV 226, 275; Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1558.4. H1558.4. The hare with many friends. In the final test none help and only her legs save her. Jacobs Aesop 216 No. 70.

H1558.5. H1558.5. Test of friendship: death feigned to test debtor friends. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H1558.6. H1558.6. Test of friendship: the imagined refusal. Man wonders if his friend would lend him his palfrey. Decides he would refuse. Imagines that he has actually asked for the palfrey and has been refused. Cools toward his friend. The owner of the horse asks for an explanation. He agrees to lend him the horse and they are reconciled. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

H1558.7. H1558.7. Test of friendship: the power of money. Spendthrift loses his friends in poverty. Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1558.7.1. H1558.7.1. Sultan takes disguise of beggar to test friends. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1558.7.2. H1558.7.2. Friends desert when man reports loss of his money. England: Baughman.

H1558.8. H1558.8. Friends refuse to fight against each other. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1558.8.1. H1558.8.1. Sword too heavy to lift against a friend. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1558.9. H1558.9. Pregnant wife left in charge of friend. Icelandic: Lagerholm 129ff., Boberg.

H1558.10. H1558.10. Friendship kept up even during sons' jealousy and enmity. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1558.11. H1558.11. Test of friendship: to take a slap publicly from friend. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H1558.12. H1558.12. Test of friendship: mourner says dead husband can be touched only by sinless person; volunteers for cremating body immediately disperse. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1558.13. H1558.13. Test of friendship: loyalty to condemned friend. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1561. H1561. Tests of valor. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1561.1. H1561.1. Tests of valor: tournament. English: Hibbard 229, Wells 151 (Coer de Lyon); Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: Neuman.

H1561.2. H1561.2. Single combat to prove valor. *Chauvin V 21 n. 1; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman.

H1561.2.1. H1561.2.1. Holmgang. Single combat on an island. *Schoepperle II 338ff.; English: Wells 32 (Layamon's Brut); Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1561.2.2. H1561.2.2. Fight with father's old friend, though only to mention who he is would assure the youth a friendly reception. Icelandic: Þiðriks saga I 222—32, Boberg.

H1561.2.3. H1561.2.3. Combats at fords. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1561.3. H1561.3. Test of valor: not flinching under a blow. Kittredge Gawain 7ff.; Icelandic: Boberg.

H1561.4. H1561.4. Test of valor: rousing servant's anger. Nobleman, when examining servants for hire, bids each stand before him and comb his long beard. Occasionally he snaps at them as if to bite them. Those who dodge he lets go; those who offer fight he employs. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 862.

H1561.5. H1561.5. Test of valor worthy for kingship: taking possession of royal insignia placed between two ferocious lions. Chauvin II 183 No. 24.

H1561.6. H1561.6. Test of valor: fight with giant. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman.

H1561.7. H1561.7. Test of valor: attack by warrior and hound. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1561.8. H1561.8. Warriors battle against leader as test of valor. Irish myth: Cross.

H1561.9. H1561.9. Prince chooses shorter but more dangerous road. Icelandic: Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1561.10. H1561.10. Master tests disciple by asking him if he will be willing to plunge with him into the Indus. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1562. H1562. Test of strength. *Type 650; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

H1562.1. H1562.1. Test of strength: pulling up tree by roots. See all references to F621.

H1562.1.1. H1562.1.1. Test of strength: cutting tree with one stroke. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1562.2. H1562.2. Test of strength: lifting stone (fireplace, etc.) English: Wells 59 (The Turke and Gowin), 114 (Sir Isumbras); Icelandic: *Boberg; Danish: Schmidt DF XXXIX 55.

H1562.2.1. H1562.2.1. Test of strength: lifting sword. Chinese: Graham.

H1562.2.2. H1562.2.2. Before undertaking rescue, bat tests strength by lifting stone. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 95.

H1562.3. H1562.3. Test of strength: breaking heavy glass bottle over loaf of rye bread. *Fb "flaske" I 309.

H1562.4. H1562.4. Test of strength: prodigious jump. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1562.5. H1562.5. Test of strength: heavy stone flung at boaster; he throws it back. Irish myth: Cross.

H1562.6. H1562.6. Test of strength: breaking spirited horse. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1562.7. H1562.7. Strength contest: contestants stand with back to rock on opposite side, an iron ring around neck of each connected by chain. They tug until ring severs neck of one. Irish myth: Cross.

H1562.8. H1562.8. Test of strength: breaking witch's back. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1562.9. H1562.9. Test of strength: wrestling. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1562.10. H1562.10. Test of strength: pushing out heavy ferry. Icelandic: Boberg.

H1562.11. H1562.11. Test of strength: pulling in two iron bars passing through hole. Irish myth: Cross.

H1562.12. H1562.12. Task: destruction of iron castle. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

H1562.13. H1562.13. Test of strength: shooting through seven iron plates with arrow. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1562.14. H1562.14. Mighty-of-His-Mouth and Mighty-of-His-Hands decide to live together to test strength. Strength of mind is winner. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1563. H1563. Test of skill. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1564. H1564. Test of hospitality. English: Wells 64 (Avowyng of King Arthur etc.); Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: Neuman.

H1565. H1565. Tests of gratitude.

H1565.1. H1565.1. Test of gratitude: magician makes pupil believe himself superior. Though he has promised magician great rewards he forgets his promise. Wealth removed. Alphabet No. 62; Scala Celi 12a No. 72; Wesselski Mönchslatein 13 No. 7; Herbert 83 No. 7; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

H1566. H1566. Test for admission to warrior band. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1567. H1567. Test of leadership. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1567.1. H1567.1. Frightful meal as test of leadership. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1567.1.1. H1567.1.1. Test of leadership (obedience): swallowing mouse without vomiting. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1568. H1568. Test of the champion. Irish myth: Cross.

H1568.1. H1568.1. Test of championship: sitting on pillow covering egg without breaking egg. Irish myth: Cross.

H1569. H1569. Tests of character—miscellaneous.

H1569.1. H1569.1. Test of industry. (Cf. H382.)

H1569.1.1. H1569.1.1. Man tests industry of prospective servant girl. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

H1570—H1599.

H1570—H1599. MISCELLANEOUS TESTS

H1571. H1571. Test of sensitiveness. (For details see F647.) *BP III 238; Penzer VII 10ff.; Köhler-Bolte I 64; Bolte Reise der Söhne Giaffers 120.

H1572. H1572. Test of fertility. Irish myth: Cross.

H1572.1. H1572.1. Stone under fertile woman produces milk; under barren woman produces blood. Irish myth: Cross.

H1573. H1573. Religious tests. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

H1573.0.1. H1573.0.1. Angel helpers in religious test. Irish myth: Cross.

H1573.1. H1573.1. Belief in Christianity tested. (Cf. V300.) Irish myth: Cross.

H1573.1.1. H1573.1.1. Heathen swallowed by earth. Proof of his belief. Irish myth: Cross.

H1573.1.2. H1573.1.2. Loathly deed performed as evidence of Christian virtue. Irish myth: Cross.

H1573.1.3. H1573.1.3. Druid attempts to shake king's faith by magic manifestation. Irish myth: Cross.

H1573.1.4. H1573.1.4. Man commanded by saint to leap into fiery furnace: unharmed. Irish myth: Cross.

H1573.2. H1573.2. Religious personages tested. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

H1573.2.1. H1573.2.1. Magic manifestation required as proof in test of saintliness. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: Neuman.

H1573.2.2. H1573.2.2. Saint tested by visit of deity in disguise. Irish myth: Cross.

H1573.2.3. H1573.2.3. Test of worthiness for bishop: plowing without plowshare. Irish myth: Cross.

H1573.3. H1573.3. Power of Christianity tested. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1573.3.1. H1573.3.1. Saint drinks poison without injury as proof of power of Christianity. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1573.3.2. H1573.3.2. Saint's horse miraculously preserved as proof of power of Christianity before fairy. Irish myth: Cross.

H1573.3.3. H1573.3.3. Transformation by saint as proof of Christianity before druid. Irish myth: Cross.

H1573.3.4. H1573.3.4. Wizard (druid) burned, saint saved in test of power of Christianity. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1573.4. H1573.4. Power of other religions tested.

H1573.4.1. H1573.4.1. Power of Judaism tested. Jewish: Neuman.

H1573.5. H1573.5. Test of steadfastness of love for God: though warned in dream man refuses to part with sacred stone. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1573.6. H1573.6. Test of righteousness.

H1573.6.1. H1573.6.1. Ability to cross bridge as test of righteousness. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1573.7. H1573.7. Test of repentance.

H1573.7.1. H1573.7.1. Test of repentance: culprit exposed to situation identical to that in which he sinned. (Cf. H1573.) Jewish: *Neuman.

H1574. H1574. Tests of social position. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1574.0.1. H1574.0.1. Social rank determined according to portion taken from cauldron of food. Irish myth: Cross.

H1574.1. H1574.1. Tests for noble blood. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1574.2. H1574.2. Fruitfulness of nature as proof of kingly right. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1574.3. H1574.3. King chosen by test. Irish myth: Cross.

H1574.3.0.1. H1574.3.0.1. Test imposed on young princes as candidates for throne. Irish myth: Cross.

H1574.3.0.2. H1574.3.0.2. Two deities test virtues of a king. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1574.3.1. H1574.3.1. The burning forge (smithy): he who salvages anvil will be king. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1574.3.2. H1574.3.2. He who wins maiden queen is king. Icelandic: *Boberg.

H1575. H1575. Tests of sight. Irish myth: Cross.

H1575.1. H1575.1. Test of sight: stepping stones. Captives re-blinded if they cross stepping-stones without stumbling. Irish myth: Cross.

H1576. H1576. Tests of possession of magic powers. Irish myth: Cross.

H1576.1. H1576.1. Test of magic powers: telling sex of unborn goat. India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1576.2. H1576.2. Test of skill for a fakir: heating iron and passing it through hands without burning them.

H1577. H1577. Test of divine favor.

H1577.1. H1577.1. Test of goddess' favor: man throws away his wife's jewel-box to see if she can regain it with the aid of goddess. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1577.2. H1577.2. Test of goddess's favor: husband drowns his son to see if his wife's tutelary goddess can bring him back to life. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1578. H1578. Test of sex: to discover person masking as of other sex. *Dh I 329; Köhler in Gonzenbach II 216 No. 17.

H1578.1. H1578.1. Test of sex of girl masking as man. BP II 57f., III 236; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 6; India: Thompson-Balys.

H1578.1.1. H1578.1.1. Test of sex of girl masking as man: peas spread on floor. Men tread firmly; women slip. BP II 57 n. 2; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 92b. n. 6; *Zachariae Kleine Schriften 58.

H1578.1.1.1. H1578.1.1.1. Test of girl masking as man: nuts and corn spread on floor. Jewish: *Neuman (J1661.1.)

- H1578.1.2. H1578.1.2. Test of sex of girl masking as man: spinning wheel brought. Men take no notice; women interested. BP II 57 n. 2.
- H1578.1.3. H1578.1.3. Test of sex of girl masking as man: choosing flowers. Girl will choose a carnation; man a rose. Sicilian: Gonzenbach No. 17.
- H1578.1.4. H1578.1.4. Test of sex of girl masking as man: ball thrown into lap. Girls spread legs to catch it; men not. Fb "kvinde" II 339a.
- H1578.1.4.1. H1578.1.4.1. Woman throws apple to man in woman's dress. He puts his legs together to catch it. (Cf. H1578.1.4.) England, U.S.: *Baughman.
- H1578.1.4.2. H1578.1.4.2. Test of sex of man masking as girl: jumping over pit (only man succeeds). India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1578.1.5. H1578.1.5. Test of sex of girl masking as man: nuts and apples offered. Men put them in their shirts, girls into their handkerchiefs. *BP II 58; Bolte Wickram's Rollwagenbüchlein 384 n. 2; FL I 133, 354; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 92b. n. 6.
- H1578.1.6. H1578.1.6. Test of sex of girl masking as man: warned by a parrot, she picks only one flower. India: Thompson-Balys.
- H1578.2. H1578.2. Test of sex of man masking as girl: arms placed among baskets and war-trumpet sounded. Man snatches arms. Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus II 74 n. 1.
- H1581. H1581. Test of heirship. German: Grimm Nos. 63, 106, 124, 151, 152, 179.
- H1582. H1582. Health test. Penzer III 272 n. 1.
- H1582.1. H1582.1. Recognition of good health by hearing voice. Chauvin V 45 No. 18.
- H1582.2. H1582.2. Recognition of good health by smoke rising from chimney. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1583. H1583. Tests of time.
- H1583.1. H1583.1. Time measured by worn iron shoes. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- H1583.2. H1583.2. Time measured by fit of ring. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1584. H1584. Tests of space. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1584.1. H1584.1. Land measured according to amount within person's view. Irish myth: *Cross.
- H1584.2. H1584.2. Land measured according to amount encompassed during certain hours. Irish myth: Cross.
- H1585. H1585. Test of cleanliness by being shaken to see if lice fall off. Chinese: Graham.
- H1588. H1588. Contest of dogs. Two opponents test their powers by having their dogs fight. N. A. Indian: *Kroeber JAFL XXI 224.
- H1588.1. H1588.1. Litter of puppies tested by throwing them one by one at hanging hide of wild beast, and keeping the one that grips hide. Puppy grows up to be great hunting dog. Irish myth: Cross.

H1588.2. H1588.2. Man and king compete by letting their domestic animals fight. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1591. H1591. Shooting contest. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 74.

H1591.1. H1591.1. Contest: spear-casting. India: Thompson-Balys.

H1592. H1592. Hunting contest. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

H1593. H1593. Goaling match between fairies and mortals as test of supremacy. Irish myth: Cross.

H1594. H1594. Foot-racing contest. Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg.

H1594.0.1. H1594.0.1. Death as penalty for losing foot-race. Irish myth: Cross.

H1594.1. H1594.1. Foot-race between fairy and mortal. Irish myth: *Cross.

H1594.2. H1594.2. Foot-race between giant and mortal. Irish myth: Cross.

H1595. H1595. Test of memory.

H1595.1. H1595.1. Test of memory: Solomon asks Marchus question, receives answer; fourteen months later he asks second question based on first, again receives correct answer; four months later asks third question based on first two, again receives correct answer. Nouvelles de Sens. No. 31.

H1596. H1596. Beauty contest. Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

H1596.0.1. H1596.0.1. Test for attractiveness to men. Irish myth: Cross.

H1596.1. H1596.1. Golden apple as prize in beauty contest. Judgment of Paris. Scala Celi 22b, 27a Nos. 146, 175; Greek: Fox 124.

H1596.2. H1596.2. Strangers umpire beauty contest. Africa (Madagascar): Sibree Madagascar before the Conquest (London, 1896) 239ff.

H1596.3. H1596.3. Women to appear naked in beauty contest. Jewish: Neuman.

H1598. H1598. Contest between man and other being.

H1598.1. H1598.1. Contest between man and angel. Jewish: *Neuman.

Footnotes for Volume 3

F420. Vol. 3 Fn. 1 p. 88

1 For help in the preparation of this item I am indebted to Miss Josephine Martin of Chicago.

F451. Vol. 3 Fn. 1 p. 103

1 For help in the preparation of this item I am indebted to Mr. Alfred Thomas of Chicago. For full titles of references see F420.

F531. Vol. 3 Fn. 1 p. 141

1 This treatment of giants is largely based on a doctoral dissertation (University of Chicago, 1930). "The Giant in Germanic Tradition" by John R. Broderius. (University of Chicago, 1930; lithoprinted 1933.) For full titles of references. See F420.

G211.7.1. Vol. 3 Fn. 1 p. 288

1 In folk thought, a fish.

G303. Vol. 3 Fn. 1 p. 312

1 For help in the preparation of this item I am indebted to Mrs. Anna Dale Kek of Indianapolis.

Stith Thompson's
Motif-Index of Folk-Literature

J. The Wise and the Foolish

Volume 4: J-K

Motif: Title-Page Vol. 4

MOTIF-INDEX

OF

FOLK-LITERATURE

*A Classification of Narrative Elements in Folktales, Ballads, Myths, Fables, Mediaeval Romances,
Exempla, Fabliaux, Jest-Books, and
Local Legends*

REVISED AND ENLARGED EDITION BY

STITH THOMPSON

Indiana University

VOLUME FOUR

J-K

INDIANA UNIVERSITY PRESS

BLOOMINGTON & INDIANAPOLIS

J. THE WISE AND THE FOOLISH

DETAILED SYNOPSIS

J0—J199. Acquisition and possession of wisdom (knowledge)

J10. Wisdom (knowledge) acquired from experience

J30. Wisdom (knowledge) acquired from inference

J50. Wisdom (knowledge) acquired from observation

J80. Wisdom (knowledge) taught by parable

J100. Wisdom (knowledge) taught by necessity

J120. Wisdom learned from children

J130. Wisdom (knowledge) acquired from animals

J140. Wisdom (knowledge) through education

J150. Other means of acquiring wisdom (knowledge)

J180. Possession of wisdom

Motif: Detailed Synopsis: (Un)wise Conduct

J200—J1099. WISE AND UNWISE CONDUCT

J200—J499. Choices

J200. Choices

J210. Choice between evils

J230—J299. Real and apparent values

J230. Choice: real and apparent values

J240. Choice between useful and ornamental

J260. Choice between worth and appearance

J280. Quality preferred to quantity

J300—J329. Present values chosen

J310. The present preferred to the past

J320. Present values preferred to future

J330—J399. Gains and losses

J340. Choices: little gain, big loss

J350. Choices: small inconvenience, large gain

J370. Choices: important and unimportant work

J390. Choices: kind strangers, unkind relatives

J400—J459. Choice of associates

J400. Choice of associates

J410. Association of equals and of unequals

J420. Association of strong and weak

J440. Association of young and old

J450. Association of the good and the evil

J460. Unnecessary choices

J480. Other choices

J500—J599. Prudence and discretion

J510. Prudence in ambition

J530. Prudence in demands

J550. Zeal—temperate and intemperate

J570. Wisdom of deliberation

J580. Wisdom of caution

J600—J799. Forethought

J610—J679. Forethought in conflicts with others

J620. Forethought in prevention of others' plans

J640. Avoidance of others' power

J670. Forethought in defences against others

J680. Forethought in alliances

J700—J749. Forethought in provision for life

J700. Forethought in provision for life (general)

J710. Forethought in provision for food

J730. Forethought in provision for clothing

J740. Forethought in provision for shelter

J750—J799. Forethought—miscellaneous

J800—J849. Adaptability

J810. Policy in dealing with the great

J830. Adaptability to overpowering force

J850—J899. Consolation in misfortune

J860. Consolation by a trifle

J870. Consolation by pretending that one does not want the thing he cannot have

J880. Consolation by thought of others worse placed

J890. Consolation in misfortune—miscellaneous

J900—J999. Humility

J910. Humility of the great

J950. Presumption of the lowly

J1000—J1099. Other aspects of wisdom

J1010. Value of industry

J1020. Strength in unity

J1030. Self-dependence

J1040. Decisiveness of conduct

J1050. Attention to warnings

J1060. Miscellaneous aspects of wisdom

J1100—J1699. CLEVERNESS

J1100—J1249. Clever persons and acts

J1110. Clever persons

J1130—J1199. Cleverness in the law court

J1130. Cleverness in law court—general

J1140. Cleverness in detection of truth

J1150. Cleverness connected with the giving of evidence

J1160. Clever pleading

J1170. Clever judicial decisions

J1180. Clever means of avoiding legal punishment

J1190. Cleverness in the law court—miscellaneous

J1210—J1229. Clever man puts another out of countenance

J1230—J1249. Clever dividing

J1250—J1499. Clever verbal retorts (repartee)

J1250. Clever verbal retorts—general

J1260. Repartee based on church or clergy

J1270. Repartee concerning the parentage of children

J1280. Repartee with ruler (judge, etc.)

J1290. Reductio ad absurdum of question or proposal

J1300. Officiousness or foolish questions rebuked

J1310. Repartee concerning wine

J1320. Repartee concerning drunkenness

J1330. Repartee concerning beggars

J1340. Retorts from hungry persons

J1350. Rude retorts

J1370. Cynical retorts concerning honesty

J1380. Retorts concerning debts

J1390. Retorts concerning thefts

J1400. Repartee concerning false reform

J1410. Repartee concerning fatness

J1420. Animals retort concerning their dangers

J1430. Repartee concerning doctors and patients

J1440. Repartee—miscellaneous

J1500—J1649. Clever practical retorts

J1500. Clever practical retort

J1510. The cheater cheated

J1530. One absurdity rebukes another

J1540. Retorts between husband and wife

J1550. Practical retorts: borrowers and lenders

J1560. Practical retorts: hosts and guests

J1580. Practical retorts connected with almsgiving

J1600. Practical retorts—miscellaneous

J1650—J1699. Miscellaneous clever acts

Motif: Detailed Synopsis: Fools

J1700—J2749. FOOLS (AND OTHER UNWISE PERSONS)

J1700—J1729. Fools.

J1710—J1729. Association with fools

J1730—J1749. Absurd ignorance

J1750—J1849. Absurd misunderstandings

J1750—J1809. One thing mistaken for another

J1750. One animal mistaken for another

J1760. Animal or person mistaken for something else

J1770. Objects with mistaken identity

J1780. Things thought to be devils, ghosts, etc.

J1790. Shadow mistaken for substance

J1800. One thing mistaken for another—miscellaneous

J1810. Physical phenomena misunderstood

J1820. Inappropriate action from misunderstanding

J1850—J1999. Absurd disregard of facts

J1850—J1899. Animals or objects treated as if human

J1850. Gift or sale to animal (or object)

J1860. Animal or object absurdly punished

J1870. Absurd sympathy for animals or objects

J1880. Animals or objects treated as if human—miscellaneous

J1900. Absurd disregard or ignorance of animal's nature or habits

J1910. Fatal disregard of anatomy

J1920. Absurd searches for the lost

J1930. Absurd disregard of natural laws

J1960. Other absurd disregard of facts

J2000—J2050. Absurd absent-mindedness

J2010. Uncertainty about own identity

J2020. Inability to find own members, etc.

J2030. Absurd inability to count

J2040. Absurd absent-mindedness—miscellaneous

J2050—J2199. Absurd short-sightedness

J2050. Absurd short-sightedness

J2060. Absurd plans: air castles

J2070. Absurd wishes

J2080. Foolish bargains

J2100. Remedies worse than the disease

J2120. Disregard of danger to objects (or animals)

J2130. Foolish disregard of personal danger

J2160. Other short-sighted acts

J2200—J2259. Absurd lack of logic

J2200. Absurd lack of logic—general

J2210. Logical absurdity based upon certain false assumptions

J2220. Other logical absurdities

J2260—J2299. Absurd scientific theories

J2260. Absurd scientific theories—general

J2270. Absurd astronomical theories

J2280. Other absurd scientific theories

J2300—J2349. Gullible fools

J2310. Nature of gullibility

J2350—J2369. Talkative fools

J2370—J2399. Inquisitive fools

J2400—J2449. Foolish imitation

J2410. Types of foolish imitation

J2420. Foolish imitation—miscellaneous

J2450—J2499. Literal fools

J2450. Literal fool

J2460. Literal obedience

J2470. Metaphors literally interpreted

J2490. Literal fool—miscellaneous

J2500—J2549. Foolish extremes

J2550—J2599. Thankful fools

J2600—J2649. Cowardly fools

J2650—J2699. Bungling fools

J2700—J2749. The easy problem made hard

J2750—J2799. Other aspects of wisdom or foolishness

J. THE WISE AND THE FOOLISH

J0-J199.

J0-J199. Acquisition and possession of wisdom (knowledge).

J0. J0. Acquisition and possession of wisdom. Jewish: *Neuman.

J10. J10. Wisdom (knowledge) acquired from experience.

J11. J11. Shipwrecked shepherd distrusts the sea. He had formerly envied sailors. Wienert FFC LVI 75 (ET 407), 110 (ST 219); Halm Aesop No. 370.

J11.1. J11.1. Man bitten by snake fears snake-like rope. Jewish: Neuman.

J12. J12. Young ass avoids food eaten by animals before being slaughtered. Runs to his mother and asks to have all remains of the hog's food taken out. Wienert FFC LVI 72 (ET 374), 110 (ST 221); Chauvin III 51 No. 7.

J13. J13. Young sparrows have learned to avoid men. Sparrow quizzes his four young as to how to avoid danger from men. Their year of experience has taught them enough. BP III 239 (Gr. No. 157); Hervieux Fabulistes latins II 546 No. 70.

J14. J14. Old racehorse in mill laments vanity of youth. Wienert FFC LVI *72 (ET 365), 140 (ST 466); Babrius No. 29; Halm Aesop No. 174.

J15. J15. Serpent (bird) having injured man refuses reconciliation. He knows that neither can forget their injuries. Chauvin II 94 No. 43, 102 No. 62; Bødker Exempler 291 No. 47, 301 No. 67; Wienert FFC LVI *69 (ET 331), *127 (ST 352); Babrius No. 167; Jacobs Aesop 201 No. 6; Halm Aesop Nos. 96, 251, 350; cf. BP II 459; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J16. J16. Dove disregards experience and loses brood. Rebuilds her nest in the place where she has lost former brood. Chauvin II 83 No. 6; Bødker Exempler 274 No. 7, 306 No. 82; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J17. J17. Animal learns through experience to fear men. In spite of the warning of another animal he approaches man and is shot. *Type 157; BP II 96; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Hottentot): Bleek 47 No. 23; American Negro: Harris Nights 33 No. 7, 330 No. 57; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 262 No. 62.

J17.1. J17.1. Tiger, jackal, and bear each learn to fear man. They report him as head-thumper (he has beaten the tiger), turn-twister (he has swung jackal by tail), and top-tumbler (he has fallen out of tree on bear). India: *Thompson-Balys.

J18. J18. Wisdom acquired from beating. Incognito prince, beaten for his courtesy, realizes his folly and returns home. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J21. J21. Counsels proved wise by experience. *Types 910A, 910B, 910C, 910D; *Cosquin études 85ff., 100ff.; Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J154. J154. Wise words of dying father. Counsel proved wise by experience.

J21.1. J21.1. "Consider the end": counsel proved wise by experience. Barber hired to cut king's throat sees on the bottom of the basin the words "Whatever you do, do wisely and think of the consequences." He drops the razor and confesses. *Type 910C; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 20 No. 69; Alphabet No. 156; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 172, 283; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J21.2. J21.2. "Do not act when angry": counsel proved wise by experience. Man returns home and sees someone sleeping with his wife. Though he thinks it is a paramour, he restrains himself and finds that it is a newborn son. *Type 910B; Chauvin II 157; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys. Cf. Wienert FFC LVI 37; Phaedrus III No. 10.

J21.2.1. J21.2.1. "Never attack anyone before unsheathing and returning sword three times": counsel proved wise by experience. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J21.2.2. J21.2.2. Sleep before committing suicide. After sleeping you will feel differently about suicide. Spanish: Childers.

J21.2.3. J21.2.3. "Do not draw your sword against the innocent": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.

J21.2.4. J21.2.4. "Do not uncover weapon in an assembly": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.

J21.2.5. J21.2.5. "Do not shed the blood of women": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.

J21.2.6. J21.2.6. "Control your anger at the beginning": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.

J21.3. J21.3. "Do not go where an old man has a young wife": counsel proved wise by experience. Discovers a murder in an inn. *Type 910B; Christiansen Norske Eventyr 115; Irish myth: *Cross.

J21.4. J21.4. "Do not marry a girl from abroad": counsel proved wise by experience. *Type 910A; Christiansen Norske Eventyr 115; Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 52; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J21.5. J21.5. "Do not leave the highway": counsel proved wise by experience. Robbers encountered. *Type 910B; Scala Celi No. 788; Herbert III 99; Irish myth: *Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J21.5.1. J21.5.1. "Do not prefer a new road to an old one." Those who take the new one are killed by robbers. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J21.5.2. J21.5.2. "Take side road rather than main one where three roads meet": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.

J21.5.3. J21.5.3. "A way short yet long": counsel proved wise by experience. (Cf. J266.) Jewish: Neuman.

J21.6. J21.6. "Do not ask questions about extraordinary things": counsel proved wise by experience. Those who ask question killed. Köhler-Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. VI 169ff. (Gonzenbach No. 81); Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J21.7. J21.7. "Do not cross a bridge without dismounting from your horse": counsel proved wise by experience. Man breaks leg. Type 910B; Wesselski Märchen 219 No. 32.

J21.8. J21.8. "Never wager more than a goat": counsel proved wise by experience. Man loses wife on wager. Wesselski Märchen 219 No. 32.

J21.8.1. J21.8.1. "Do not bet": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.

J21.9. J21.9. "Do not visit your friends often": counsel proved wise by experience. At last the man is treated shamefully. *Type 910A; Christiansen Norske Eventyr 115.

J21.9.1. J21.9.1. "Do not prolong a friendly visit." Guest stays so long that host gives him black bread instead of white. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 52; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J21.10. J21.10. "Do not lend out your horse": counsel proved wise by experience. Type 910A; Christiansen Norske Eventyr 115.

J21.11. J21.11. "Do not walk half a mile with a man without asking his name": counsel proved wise by experience. Man runs race unwittingly with his wife's paramour and loses his wife on the wager. (Cf. J21.8.) *Type 910B; Wesselski Märchen 219 No. 32.

J21.12. J21.12. "Rue not a thing that is past": counsel proved wise by experience. Man lets bird go and then, having listened to bird's false declaration that she had a precious gem in her body, he tries to climb a tree after her and falls. *BP IV 149 n. 2; Gaster Exempla 256 No. 390; *Paris Légendes du moyen âge 225ff.; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 24; Alphabet No. 191; Oesterley Gesta Romanorum No. 167.

J21.13. J21.13. "Never believe what is beyond belief": counsel proved wise by experience. Man believes when bird tells him that she has a precious gem in her body. (Cf. J21.12, K604.) *BP IV 149 n. 2; Alphabet No. 191; Gaster Exempla 256 No. 390; Paris Légendes du moyen âge 225ff.; Oesterley Gesta Romanorum No. 167; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J21.14. J21.14. "Never try to reach the unattainable": counsel proved wise by experience. (Cf. K604.) *BP IV 149 n. 2; Alphabet No. 191; Gaster Exempla 256 No. 390; *G. Paris Légendes du moyen âge 225ff.

J21.15. J21.15. "If you wish to hang yourself, do so by the stone which I point out": counsel proved wise by experience. Father has left money which will fall out when the spendthrift son goes to hang himself in despair. "The Heir of Linne." *Type 910D; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 709; Chauvin V 133 No. 63, *VIII 94 No. 65; Child V 12f.;

Clouston Tales II 53; Italian: Basile Pentamerone IV No. 2, Rotunda; Japanese: Ikeda.

J21.16. J21.16. "Go to Goosebridge": counsel proved wise by experience. Man with disobedient wife finds mules beaten there and made to cross bridge. Boccaccio Decameron IX No. 9 (*Lee 289); Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J21.17. J21.17. "Stay at church till mass is finished": counsel proved wise by experience. Delay saves youth from death. *Cosquin études 73ff.; Irish: Beal XXI 314, O'Suilleabhain 38; Icelandic: Boberg; Japanese: Ikeda.

J21.18. J21.18. "Do not trust the over-holy": counsel proved wise by experience. Wife so modest she will not travel with husband (adulteress); priest so pious he will not tread on worm (thief). Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 22, 275, Neuman.

J21.19. J21.19. "Start your journey early in the day": counsel proved wise by experience. Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 100, 304, Neuman.

J21.20. J21.20. "Prepare for night camp while it is still day": counsel proved wise by experience. Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 100, 304, Neuman.

J21.21. J21.21. "Do not cross a swollen stream until it has run down": counsel proved wise by experience. Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 100, 304, Neuman.

J21.22. J21.22. "Do not tell a secret to a woman": counsel proved wise by experience. Nouvelles de Sens No. 7; Irish myth: *Cross; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *911; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 100, 304, *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J21.23. J21.23. "Rise earlier": counsel proved wise by experience. Man seeking explanation for being in debt arises earlier and catches his servants stealing. (Cf. H588.1.) Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J21.24. J21.24. "Do not make a horse run down hill": counsel proved wise by experience. Horse breaks its neck. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 52; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J21.25. J21.25. "Do not keep bad company": counsel proved wise by experience. Breaking of father's first counsel causes the breaking of all the others. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J21.26. J21.26. "Don't be too greedy in making a trade": counsel proved wise by experience. Man refuses fifty ducats for horse. Horse suddenly dies. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J21.27. J21.27. "Do not adopt a child": counsel proved wise by experience. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *911; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J21.28. J21.28. "Do not trust a ruler who rules by reason alone": counsel proved wise by experience. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *911; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J21.29. J21.29. "Keep head dry, feet warm, and eat meat": counsel proved wise by experience. King recovers from illness. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J21.30. J21.30. "Never have to do with a woman unless wed to her": counsel proved wise by experience. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

- J21.31. J21.31. "Do not marry a woman before seeing her and finding her to be your equal": counsel proved wise by experience. Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- J21.32. J21.32. "Do not marry more than one woman". Man who wanted three, marries one and is weakened greatly. Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- J21.33. J21.33. "Bathe by yourself and not in the common bathing place": counsel proved wise by experience. Man forgets purse in bath house. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.34. J21.34. "Move stool before sitting on it": counsel proved wise by experience. Man thus saves self from falling into well. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- J21.34.1. J21.34.1. "When in a strange place look about you": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.34.2. J21.34.2. "Do not sit on a bed without touching it first": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.35. J21.35. "Ruler should follow advice of majority" (not his own fancy): counsel proved wise by experience. Thus finds money on body of dead traveler. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.35.1. J21.35.1. "Neglect not what four or five people say": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.36. J21.36. "Do not go alone on journey": counsel proved wise by experience. Helpful crab saves from attack by crocodile. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- J21.37. J21.37. "Do not take a woman's advice": counsel proved wise by experience. (Cf. J21.22.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.38. J21.38. "May God spare you from an evil man or evil woman." To teach a friend the wisdom of this greeting a man borrows money and then his creditor's coat from him. In court the lender is discredited. Spanish: Childers.
- J21.39. J21.39. "Do not travel without money": counsel proved wise by experience. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- J21.40. J21.40. Don't require honor from a strange country": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.41. J21.41. "Be cautious before allowing yourself to fall asleep in a strange place": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.41.1. J21.41.1. "Sleep not in an inn": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.41.2. J21.41.2. "A stranger does not close his eyes in sleep lest he close them in death": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.41.3. J21.41.3. "He who lies awake gains; he who sleeps loses": counsel proved wise by experience. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- J21.42. J21.42. "Before eating food at a strange place throw some at an animal and watch": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.

- J21.43. J21.43. "A country not examined in disguise will always be ruined": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.44. J21.44. "Lean upon no relation in the hour of distress": counsel proved wise by experience. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- J21.45. J21.45. "Do not undertake to be an arbitrator without being asked": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.46. J21.46. "Do not make friends with a policeman (soldier)": counsel proved wise by experience. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- J21.47. J21.47. "You can only call your wife your own so long as she is with you": counsel proved wise by experience. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- J21.47.1. J21.47.1. "Do not send your wife for a long visit to her parents": counsel proved wise by experience. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- J21.48. J21.48. "Don't do anything without investigation": counsel proved wise by experience. A purse full of money was found in dead man's pocket by gravedigger. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.49. J21.49. "Never give a cup made of a single ruby as a present to the king": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.50. J21.50. "Idleness begets woe; work brings happiness": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.51. J21.51. "Do not stand and watch two people fighting": counsel proved wise by experience. Man does so and is called by both parties to depose in favor of both or he will be beheaded. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.52. J21.52. Counsels proved wise by experience—miscellaneous.
- J21.52.1. J21.52.1. Disciple who stays in a city where everything is sold at one price finds justice is not even there. (Cf. F769.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.52.2. J21.52.2. "Never be rude to a self-made man of low birth": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.52.3. J21.52.3. "Hardened clay is hard to mold": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.52.4. J21.52.4. "Never publish a man's sin if you can help it": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.52.5. J21.52.5. "Never dismiss an old servant for his first fault": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.52.6. J21.52.6. "When a man attacks you, kill him whether he be king or prince": counsel proved wise by experience. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J21.52.7. J21.52.7. Boy who says "I know" gets into all sort of difficulties; now says "I don't know." India: Thompson-Balys.

J21.52.8. J21.52.8. "Nothing happens that does not work for one's good": counsel proved wise is experience. India: Thompson-Balys.

J21.52.9. J21.52.9. "He who throws himself against a wave is overthrown by it": proved true. Jewish: *Neuman.

J22. J22. Precepts of the lion to his sons. Only the younger keeps them and is successful. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 20.

J22.1. J22.1. Precept of the lion to his sons: beware of man. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 20; India: Thompson-Balys.

J22.2. J22.2. Precept of the lion to his sons: honor the woods. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 20.

J22.3. J22.3. Precept of the lion to his sons: keep peace with the neighbors. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 20.

J23. J23. Merchants try honesty for a year and find that it pays. So advised by priest when they said that they could not do business without dishonesty. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 394; Irish: Beal XXI 307, O'Suilleabhain 25.

J24. J24. Fools learn to be peaceable. Two fools in the habit of striking people are brought together when they strike each other until they appreciate the value of peace. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 38.

J25. J25. Why great man plays with children. This is to be learned only when one has children himself. Anecdote of Agesilaus. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 738.

J26. J26. Enemies can be won more by kindness than cruelty. Romans learn this by experience. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J27. J27. Man learns the fear of Death by meeting Life. Life (old woman) beheads him and replaces his head backwards. Simpleton left in fear for hours before head is readjusted. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J30. J30. Wisdom (knowledge) acquired from inference.

J31. J31. Encounter with clever children (woman) dissuades man from visit. On way to a city meets children and they are so clever that he turns back home, fearing how clever their parents must be. *Wesselski Gonnella 118 No. 15, *Hodscha Nasreddin II 227 No. 481; Japanese: Ikeda.

J31.1. J31.1. Cleverness of men disguised as peasants dissuades rivals from dispute. Wise men of two rival cities engage in dispute. One delegation disguises as peasants and debates with their adversaries. Latter withdraw fearing how clever the educated must be if their peasants are so learned. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J32. J32. Arrow as man's message shows lion how terrible man himself must be. Wienert FFC LVI 67 (ET 316), 122 (ST 312); Babrius No. 1; Halm Aesop No. 403; BP II 99.

J33. J33. Blind man who feels young wolf recognises his savage nature. Wienert FFC LVI 69 (ET 329), 122 (ST 314); Halm Aesop 57.

J34. J34. Odor of the wine cask. How fine wine must be to leave so good an odor. Wienert FFC LVI 76 (ET 416), 122 (ST 313); Phaedrus III No. 1; Jacobs Aesop 220 No. 81.

J50. J50. Wisdom (knowledge) acquired from observation.

J51. J51. Sight of deformed witches causes man to release wife from spinning duty. They tell him that their deformity has come from too much spinning. *Type 501; *BP I 109ff. (Gr. No. 14); Von Sydow Tve Spinnsagor.

J52. J52. King observes retaliation among animals: becomes just. Dog breaks fox's foot; man breaks dog's; horse breaks man's leg; horse steps in hole and breaks his. Chauvin II, 116 No. 93.

J52.1. J52.1. Understanding of universality of death from watching animals prey on one another. India: Thompson-Balys.

J52.2. J52.2. King descends to bottom of sea in glass barrel to learn wisdom from observing fish. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J53. J53. Army saved from ambush by observation of birds' movements. Birds fly from part of woods in which ambushed men lie. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 541; Japanese: Ikeda.

J55. J55. Ruler learns lesson from the example of an exiled king. Rewards the exile rather than a successful merchant. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J56. J56. Unscrupulous conduct of business learned from observation of usurer's own practices and used against him. India: Thompson-Balys.

J56.1. J56.1. Ruler learns lesson from seeing city governed by king as uncharitable as he. India: Thompson-Balys.

J61. J61. Hare instructs his sons to use their eyes to advantage. Type 72*.

J62. J62. Observation of dying people for a year takes man's thoughts from lust. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 265.

J64. J64. Ducklings take to water from instinct. Bridegroom thus brought to understand bride's expertness in lovemaking. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J65. J65. Birds having learned their possible dangers are forced from nest by mother. Nouvelles Récréations No. 87.

J67. J67. Drops of water make hollow in stone: thus repeated impressions penetrate mind. Jewish: Neuman.

J67.1. J67.1. Lazy pupil determines to be more diligent by watching man building home one wattle at a time, and seeing how water fills hole one drop at a time. Irish myth: Cross.

J80. J80. Wisdom (knowledge) taught by parable. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Bødker Exempler 272 No. 1; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J80.1. J80.1. Three thousand parables of Solomon. Jewish: *Neuman.

J80.1.1. J80.1.1. Solomon proves to his mother the inferiority of woman's wisdom.

Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *920B.

J80.2. J80.2. Minister taught by parable to make obeisance to the new king. India: Thompson-Balys.

J81. J81. The dishes of the same flavor. Man thus shown that one woman is like another and dissuaded from his amorous purpose. *Basset 1001 Contes II 25; *Wesselski Märchen 209; Boccaccio Decameron I No. 5 (Lee 17), Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *981; Russian: Andrejev No. *981 (II); Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J81.0.1. J81.0.1. Monotony of restriction to one's favorite food. Counselor refuses to arrange extramarital pleasures for his lord. Ruler feeds him only his favorite food until the counselor protests the monotony. Ruler drives home his point. Italian Novella: Rotunda, Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 10.

J81.1. J81.1. Society is like a dish: must be properly mixed. Plates having salt, pepper, fish, etc. not edible without mixing. India: Thompson-Balys.

J81.2. J81.2. To each his appropriate food. Woman gives morsel of various foods to each guest, with explanation. India: Thompson-Balys.

J81.3. J81.3. Parable comparing canons to a stew made of their individual meals. Nouvelles Récréations No. 3.

J82. J82. Priest walks in the mud. Congregation follows evil ways of priest. He walks in mud but they will not follow him. He thus shows them the folly of following his evil ways. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 68.

J83. J83. The gray and the black hairs: enemies reconciled. Duke summons two inveterate enemies. Has them tear out one of his hairs, one a gray, the other a black. Both pain him equally. He shows how their quarrels hurt him. They are reconciled. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 401.

J84. J84. Picking up water thrown on ground no harder than the undoing of slander. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 98 No. 836G*.

J85. J85. Chair over fiery pit as figure of precariousness of life. Wesselski Mönchslatein 94 No. 78; Alphabet No. 685.

J86. J86. Rocks falling together and thread entering needle's eye suggest sexual intercourse: hence its beginning. Chinese: Graham.

J87. J87. Men shamed for their cowardice by woman standing naked before them. (Usually connected with Jus Primae Noctis [T161]). Wesselski Archiv Orientální I 83f.; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *2429.

J88. J88. Wisdom taught by parable: cloud which gives rain to thirsting crops or drops it in ocean. India: Thompson-Balys.

J91. J91. Monk shames accuser by telling parable. Wind, Water, and Modesty (Sense of Shame). The first two give their addresses but the third says she has no address as no one wants her. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J92. J92. Boy saves life by showing father foolishness of plowing up his crop. Father has been persuaded to kill child. India: Thompson-Balys.

J94. J94. Difficulty of thinking of God when occupied with worldly affairs. Shown by test: holy man made to carry milk without spilling. So occupied he forgets to think of God. India: Thompson-Balys.

J95. J95. Fool digs holes in edge of road. Only those departing from straight path will fall in. Truth of principle later seen. India: Thompson-Balys.

J96. J96. Man kills nest of ants: so God punishes man. (Cf. J225.0.4.) India: Thompson-Balys.

J97. J97. Lotus flower flourishes as long as it is in water: king should not leave castle. India: Thompson-Balys.

J98. J98. Stones shaken in jar: difficulty in learning many dialects. India: Thompson-Balys.

J99. J99. Wisdom (knowledge) taught by parable.

J99.1. J99.1. Relative pleasures of sexes in love taught by parable. India: Thompson-Balys.

J99.2. J99.2. Father bequeathes four pots to sons: eldest finds earth in his; second, bones; third, rice husks; youngest, rupees (eldest to get land; second, cattle; third, grain; youngest to keep money). India: Thompson-Balys.

J100. J100. Wisdom (knowledge) taught by necessity.

J101. J101. Crow drops pebbles into water jug so as to be able to drink. Wienert FFC LVI 64 (ET 272), 106 (ST 186, 246); Jacobs Aesop 213 No. 55.

J102. J102. Bear learns how to catch crabs with his hairy claws. Wienert FFC LVI 63 (ET 263), 106 (ST 185).

J120. J120. Wisdom learned from children. *Chauvin VIII 62 No. 27; Penzer I 186.

J121. J121. Ungrateful son reproved by nanve action of his own son: preparing for old age. Man gives his old father half a carpet to keep him warm. Child keeps the other half and tells his father that he is keeping it for him when he grows old. *Bédier Fabliaux 463f.; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) Nos. 436, 760; Crane Vitry 260 No. 288; Herbert III 25; *BP II 135, IV 172 n. 14; Scala Celi No. 530; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 41.—Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *996; Russian: Andrejev No. *982; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 256f. No. 201; Japanese: Ikeda.

J121.1. J121.1. Ungrateful son reproved by nanve action of his own son: preparing for old age (wooden drinking cup or bowl). Spanish: Childers; India: Thompson-Balys.

J121.2. J121.2. Undutiful son rebuked by father. Father tells son not to drag him past the threshold, because he had dragged his own father only up to that point when he had thought of putting him out of his house. Spanish: Childers.

J122. J122. Nanve remark of child: "You forgot to strike mother." A father in habit of beating his wife remarks that he has forgot something. The child says, "I know. You forgot to strike mother." Wesselski Mönchslatein 170 No. 133.

J122.1. J122.1. Seducer about to seduce mother of child refrains when child wisely remarks that he is sad because his father has left his mother exposed to such dangers. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J123. J123. Wisdom of child decides lawsuit. King in disguise sees child's game which represents the case. *Wesselski "Der Knabenkönig und das kluge Mädchen" (Sudetendeutsche Zs. f. Vksk. [1930] Beiheft 1) passim; *Chauvin V 86 No. 26 n. 1; DeVries FFC LXXIII 323ff.; Scala Celi No. 895; Japanese: Ikeda.

J123.1. J123.1. Clever prince overrules seemingly just decisions of king. Jewish: Neuman.

J124. J124. Learning the virtue of patience from children. When their meals are stolen, they quietly search for them. India: Thompson-Balys.

J125. J125. Parents's misdeeds innocently betrayed by children. Italian Novella: Rotunda; West Indies: Flowers 474.

J125.1. J125.1. The wine needs no further water. Guests asks small daughter of innkeeper for water to put into his wine. She says, "You will not have to do that for mother poured a whole tubful into the cask today." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 374.

J125.2. J125.2. Adulteress betrayed by little child's remark. Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

J125.2.1. J125.2.1. Child unwittingly betrays his mother's adultery. Tells father not to step across chalk line drawn around secretary; if he does secretary may do to him what he did to Mother the other day. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 23.

J130. J130. Wisdom (knowledge) acquired from animals.

J132. J132. Mouse teaches her child to fear quiet cats but not noisy cocks. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 530.

J133. J133. Animal gives wise example to man. Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

J133.1. J133.1. One wild goat steps over another. They thus pass each other uninjured on a cliff. This shows advantage of peaceableness. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 403.

J133.2. J133.2. Ass refuses to drink after it has had enough. Thus teaches lesson to master. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 239.

J133.3. J133.3. Trained deer drinks wine till he breaks his leg but thereafter abstains. Thus teaches lesson to master. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 240.

J133.4. J133.4. Woman will not follow donkey on safe path: attacked by robbers. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 630.

J133.5. J133.5. Squirrel tries to dip out lake with his tail: difficulty of reforming the world. India: Thompson-Balys.

J133.6. J133.6. Big fish eat little: robber will plunder weak neighbors. Scottish:

Campbell-McKay No. 12.

J134. J134. Animal behavior teaches man what to avoid.

J134.1. J134.1. Cock's second mate lets her stepchildren starve: woman warns husband accordingly. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J135. J135. Departing animal gives man counsels. India: Thompson-Balys.

J136. J136. Crow inspects the three worlds in search of happiness. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J137. J137. Wisdom learned from example of insects. India: Thompson-Balys.

J140. J140. Wisdom (knowledge) through education.

J141. J141. Youth educated by seven sages. Campbell Sages.

J142. J142. Lack of proper education regretted.

J142.1. J142.1. House dog blames master for teaching him lazy habits. Wienert FFC LVI 60 (ET 229), 145 (ST 502); Halm Aesop No. 217.

J142.2. J142.2. Man blames master for not correcting him in youth. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 315.

J143. J143. Untrained colt result of master's neglect. Wienert FFC LVI 71 (ET 361), 129 (ST 371); Halm Aesop No. 51.

J144. J144. Well-trained kid does not open to wolf. *Type 123; Wienert FFC LVI 63 (ET 262), 145 (ST 506, 535); *BP I 37; Dh IV 277f.

J145. J145. Hostile dogs made friendly by having them fight common enemy, the wolf. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 400; Jewish: Neuman.

J146. J146. Educated men as choice company.

J146.1. J146.1. King prefers educated men as company. Pauli (ed. Bolte) Nos. 95, 98, 106.

J147. J147. Child confined to keep him in ignorance of life. Useless. *Chauvin III 97 No. 1; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J150. J150. Other means of acquiring wisdom (knowledge).

J151. J151. Wisdom from old person. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

J151.1. J151.1. Wisdom of hidden old man saves kingdom. In famine all old men are ordered killed. One man hides his father. When all goes wrong in the hands of the young rulers, the old man comes forth, performs assigned tasks, and aids with his wisdom. Type 981*; *Anderson FFC XLII 182 n. 1; *DeVries FFC LXXIII 220ff.; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 446, cf. No. 538; Fb "gammel" IV 174a; Scala Celi No. 281; *Paudler FFC CXXI.—Irish myth: *Cross; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 995; Russian: Andrejev No. 981; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV No. 995*; Rumanian: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII No. 910F*; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Jewish: *Neuman; India:

*Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 115ff. No. 71.

J151.2. J151.2. Old men preferred as councillors. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 538.

J151.3. J151.3. Wisdom from god as old (one-eyed) man. Icelandic: Olrik Saksés Oldhistorie I (1892) 30, *Boberg.

J151.4. J151.4. Wisdom from old man: always say, "if it pleases God." Spanish: Childers.

J152. J152. Wisdom (knowledge) from sage (teacher). Irish myth: *Cross; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: *Neuman.

J152.1. J152.1. Cynical philosopher lives in tub. Chauvin IX 35 No. 27; Scala Celi No. 103; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J152.2. J152.2. Advice from dervish. Malone PMLA XLIII 400.

J152.3. J152.3. Philosopher instructs youth regarding conduct. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J152.4. J152.4. Philosopher consoles woman for loss of son. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J152.5. J152.5. Wisdom from philosopher: give separate greetings to infants, youths, and old people. Spanish: Childers.

J152.6. J152.6. Wisdom from philosopher: worldly honor like shadow. If one goes toward it, it flees; if one turns his back on it, it follows and at times catches up with one. Spanish: Childers.

J153. J153. Wisdom from holy man. Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J153.1. J153.1. Holy man's prayer reforms rich man. Holy man prays, "May God bless everything here that is good but cause to disappear all that is bad." Everything disappears. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 199; India: Thompson-Balys.

J153.2. J153.2. Hermit explains why anger is sin. Nouvelles de Sens No. 20.

J154. J154. Wise words of dying father. Counsel proved wise by experience. *Cosquin études 85ff.; Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 52; Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: Völsunga saga ch. 11, Boberg; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *911; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesian: DeVries's list No. 230.

J154.0.1. J154.0.1. Wise words of father. Irish myth: Cross.

J154.1. J154.1. Dying saint leaves wise message to followers. Message is cryptic, but is finally made clear. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J155. J155. Wisdom (knowledge) from women. Icelandic: *Boberg; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J155.1. J155.1. Hero directed on journey by princess. Malone PMLA XLIII 401. Icelandic: *Boberg.

J155.1.1. J155.1.1. Serpent directed on journey by his beautiful wife. India: Thompson-

Balys.

J155.2. J155.2. King has amours with great men's wives so as to learn secrets from them. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 505.

J155.3. J155.3. Caesar's scorn of his wife's advice leads to disaster. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 445.

J155.4. J155.4. Wife as adviser. (Cf. J21.37.) India: Thompson-Balys.

J155.5. J155.5. Wife of usurer saves husband through her prayers. Nouvelles de Sens No. 26.

J155.6. J155.6. Wise words of dying woman (queen). (Cf. J154.) Icelandic: Völsunga saga ch. 33 (31); Þiðriks saga II 254—56, Boberg.

J155.7. J155.7. Knowledge from mysterious women met in the forest. Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 218ff.; *Boberg.

J155.8. J155.8. Wisdom from harlot to a king. India: Thompson-Balys.

J156. J156. Wisdom from fools. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 610; Irish myth: Cross.

J156.1. J156.1. Wisdom from fool: make peace before rather than after the war. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 39.

J156.2. J156.2. Wisdom from fool: absurdity of tight-rope walker's performance. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 40.

J156.3. J156.3. Wisdom from fool: the present returned. Nobleman gives fool a present; he is to give it to no one who is not a greater fool. Master is dying; doctor tells fool that master is going to take long journey. Since master is making no preparation, fool gives him the present. Master thus brought to repentance. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 45.

J156.4. J156.4. Wisdom from fool: heaven refused. Fool says he does not want to go to heaven for he wants to stay with his master, who everyone says is going to hell. Master repents. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 46.

J157. J157. Wisdom (knowledge) from dream. Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J157.0.1. J157.0.1. Deity appears in dream and gives instructions or advice. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J157.1. J157.1. Wisdom from dream: the leper with the cup of water. Man in dream willing to receive sacrament from unworthy priest. Wesselski Mönchslatein 98 No. 80; Alphabet No. 687.

J157.2. J157.2. Fate of parents revealed in dream. Mother shown in Hell; father in Heaven. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J157.3. J157.3. Dream advises against the popularizing of science. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J158. J158. Wisdom from angel. Jewish: *Neuman.

- J158.1. J158.1. Solomon pays heed to angel's warning. Rules wisely. Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- J161. J161. Trial rehearsed before stick in the ground as judge. Köhler-Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. VI 62 (Gonzenbach No. 8).
- J162. J162. Wisdom acquired by hanging in a tree. *BP III 192. Icelandic: *Boberg.
- J163. J163. Wisdom purchased.
- J163.1. J163.1. Man buys a pennyworth of wit. Nouvelles de Sens No. 6; English: Wells 179 (A Peniworth of Witte); West Indies: Flowers 474.
- J163.2. J163.2. Man to bring wife a purseful of sense. *Bédier Fabliaux 451.
- J163.2.1. J163.2.1. Fool is told to get a pottle of brains. He tries to buy them. He finally learns that advice was to marry a clever girl. England: Baughman.
- J163.3. J163.3. One eye exchanged for wisdom. (Odin.) Icelandic: Boberg.
- J163.4. J163.4. Good counsels bought. *Types 910A, 910B; *Fb "red"; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 229.
- J164. J164. Wisdom from God. Jewish: *Neuman.
- J165. J165. Tree of knowledge. Dh I 212ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.
- J166. J166. Wisdom from books. Jewish: Neuman.
- J166.1. J166.1. Wisdom from books bought at great price. (Sibylline). Nine books first offered at certain price. Finally after this is refused and the owner throws six of them into the fire, the king pays the same price for three of them. Finds them filled with wisdom. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 588.
- J166.2. J166.2. Wisdom from books of the antediluvians. Jewish: Neuman.
- J167. J167. Wisdom from continual reminder of foolishness in the past. Unjust judge skinned and his skin stretched over a footstool kept in the presence of judges, so as to remind them to be just. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 118; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.
- J168. J168. Inscription on walls for condensed education. Chauvin VIII 34 No 1.
- J171. J171. Proverbial wisdom: counsels. (Cf. B82.6.) Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Estonian: Looits Grundzüge I 213f., 216ff., 248f.; Jewish: *Neuman.
- J171.1. J171.1. Counsel: if you take it you will be sorry; if you don't you will also be sorry. This advice given hero by helpful horse. *Köhler-Bolte I 468f., 542.
- J171.2. J171.2. King questions six doctors.
- J171.2.1. J171.2.1. King questions six doctors: what do you like best of all on earth? That man has not what he wishes to have. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 107.
- J171.2.2. J171.2.2. King questions six doctors: what do you like best of all on earth? That all joys are mixed with sorrow. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 107.

J171.2.3. J171.2.3. King questions six doctors: what do you like best of all on earth? That all evil and hypocrisy will have an end. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 107.

J171.2.4. J171.2.4. King questions six doctors: what must you most marvel at on earth? That those who are most respected are the biggest fools. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 107.

J171.2.5. J171.2.5. King questions six doctors: what must you most marvel at on earth? That those who speak of spiritual matters are usually the most depraved. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 107.

J171.2.6. J171.2.6. King questions six doctors: what must you most marvel at on earth? That man lives in a state in which he cannot die. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 107.

J171.3. J171.3. Other maxims.

J171.3.1. J171.3.1. Crow flying away says, "A wise man remains not in the place of calamity; but a fool stays there, and saps fear and sorrow." India: Thompson-Balys.

J171.3.2. J171.3.2. Proverbial wisdom: "Seek to win over the accuser, so that he causes you no annoyance." Jewish: Neuman.

J172. J172. Account of punishments prepared in hell brings about repentance. Type 756B; Andrejev FFC LXIX 120ff.; Irish: Beal XXI 324, 330, 332, O'Suilleabhain 63, 95, 100; India: Thompson-Balys.

J173. J173. Wisdom taught by suicidal example. Man is ordered by Senate to make tyrant stop bloodshed. He kills himself and family to satiate tyrant of blood. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J174. J174. Good and bad in all books. Author says that a prudent man notes only the good in a vain book; a malicious person, only the bad in a good book. Spanish: Childers.

J175. J175. Wisdom from young man. Irish myth: *Cross.

J176. J176. Wisdom from evil spirits. Icelandic: Hjálmtjers saga ok ölvis 491.

J177. J177. Wisdom from brother-in-law. India: Thompson-Balys.

J178. J178. Wisdom from robbers (thugs) who disguise selves and show cruel princess how she should treat her husband. India: Thompson-Balys.

J179. J179. Other means of acquiring wisdom (knowledge)—miscellaneous.

J179.1. J179.1. Humble Brahmin teaches king the difference between "mine" and "thine." India: Thompson-Balys.

J179.2. J179.2. Wisdom learned in underground kingdom: the passions of a human being could not be satisfied on earth. India: Thompson-Balys.

J179.3. J179.3. Wisdom from neighbors. India: Thompson-Balys.

J179.4. J179.4. Wisdom from fasting. Jewish: Neuman.

J180. J180. Possession of wisdom.

J181. J181. The years not counted. Man says that he is the youngest present, for he does not count the years before he became monk (or the like). *Chauvin III 108.

J182. J182. Varieties of wisdom.

J182.1. J182.1. "Forty-nine gates of wisdom" open to Moses (and Solomon). Jewish: *Neuman.

J182.2. J182.2. Seventy-two kinds of wisdom. Jewish: Neuman.

J185. J185. Wisdom wins contest of wisdom and wealth. India: Thompson-Balys.

J185.1. J185.1. Minister's clever daughter-in-law uses wisdom to defeat Brahmin's wealth. India: Thompson-Balys.

J186. J186. Wisdom lost by accepting bribes and gifts. Jewish: Neuman.

J190. J190. Acquisition and possession of wisdom—miscellaneous. Icelandic: *Boberg.

J191. J191. Wise men. Jewish: *Neuman.

J191.1. J191.1. Solomon as wise man. Jewish: *Neuman.

J191.2. J191.2. Other biblical heroes as wise men. Jewish: *Neuman.

J192. J192. Wise nations. Jewish: Neuman.

J192.1. J192.1. Wisdom from "Children of the East." Jewish: *Neuman.

J192.2. J192.2. Wisdom from Egypt. Jewish: *Neuman.

J192.3. J192.3. Wisdom from the Greeks. Jewish: Neuman.

J192.4. J192.4. Wisdom from the Hebrews. Jewish: Neuman.

J200-J1099.

J200-J1099. WISE AND UNWISE CONDUCT

J200-J499.

J200-J499. Choices.

J200. J200. Choices.

J201. J201. Hobson's choice: choose what is put before you or nothing.

J201.1. J201.1. Choice between eggs: one egg or none. Nouvelles Récréations No. 50.

J210. J210. Choice between evils.

J210.1. J210.1. Four choices, all of which are evil; man to make one choice only. India: Thompson-Balys.

J211. J211. Choice: free poverty or enslaved wealth.

J211.1. J211.1. Philosopher chooses poverty with freedom. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 382.

J211.1.1. J211.1.1. Man gives all his wealth away, for it is better to die than to give up virtue. India: Thompson-Balys.

J211.2. J211.2. Town mouse and country mouse. Latter prefers poverty with safety. *Type 112; Crane Vitry 199 No. 157; Wienert FFC LVI *59 (ET 208), 124 (ST 325); Halm Aesop No. 297; Jacobs Aesop 202 No. 7; Albini Atene e Roma VI 175.—Spanish Exempla: Keller; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 15 No. 5; Japanese: Ikeda.

J211.2.1. J211.2.1. Fly jeers at king's elephant for his lack of freedom. India: Thompson-Balys.

J212. J212. Choice: plainness with safety or grandeur with danger.

J212.1. J212.1. Ass envies horse in fine trappings. Horse killed in battle; ass content. Jacobs Aesop 220 No. 78; Scala Celi 135a No. 744; India: Thompson-Balys.

J213. J213. Choice: loss of beauty or speech. Latter chosen. Type 710; BP I 13ff.

J214. J214. Choice: suffering in youth or old age. *Wesselski Märchen 236; Fb "rig" III 55a; Irish myth: Cross; English: Wells 114 (Sir Isumbras); Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *937; Russian: Andrejev No. 931 I; Rumanian: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII No. 948.

J215. J215. Present evil preferred to change for worse.

J215.1. J215.1. Don't drive away the flies. Wounded animal (man) refuses to have the flies driven away since they are now sated and their places will be taken by fierce and hungry flies. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 186; Wienert FFC LVI 60 (ET 228), 115 (ST 255); Halm Aesop No. 36; Jacobs Aesop 215 No. 64; Scala Celi 21a No. 132; Alphabet No. 97; Oesterley Gesta Romanorum No. 51; Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 32; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J215.1.1. J215.1.1. Don't set a hungry guard over food. Parrot set to guard figs eats his fill. When replaced he calls attention to the fact that he is now full and therefore safer than another hungry parrot. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J215.1.2. J215.1.2. King refuses to exile gossipers. They would defame him among strangers. At home they serve to test the king's patience and to reform his life. Spanish: Childers.

J215.1.3. J215.1.3. Do not pluck off the well-fed leeches. Wolf told not to do so lest hungrier ones take their places as he swims. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J215.1.4. J215.1.4. Old man chooses to be annoyed by occasional and loud chirp of swallows than by never-ending but soft chirp of sandpipers. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J215.2. J215.2. Oxen decide not to kill butchers, since inexpert killers might replace them. Wienert FFC LVI 65 (ET 289), 115 (ST 254).

J215.2.1. J215.2.1. Old woman prays for safety of cruel tyrant for fear a worse one will succeed him. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J215.3. J215.3. Heathcock prefers home with hardships to travel in foreign lands. *Type 232.

J215.4. J215.4. Monk goes to wilderness to escape work on material things. Finds that he must work to live and returns to monastery. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J216. J216. Choice of deaths.

J216.1. J216.1. Army faces enemy rather than the anger of their king who would kill them if they returned in flight. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 529.

J216.2. J216.2. Lamb prefers to be sacrificed in temple rather than to be eaten by a wolf. Wienert FFC LVI 51 (ET 107), 115 (ST 253); Halm Aesop No. 273.

J216.3. J216.3. Crab would rather be killed outright than imprisoned and starved. India: Thompson-Balys.

J216.4. J216.4. Soldier asks to be stabbed in chest. Prostrate soldier asks enemy to stab him in chest instead of back in order to save his honor. Captor frees him and the two become friends. Spanish: Childers.

J216.5. J216.5. Early death with fame preferred. Irish myth: *Cross.

J216.6. J216.6. Saint chooses to die "after pride of youth" and before "misery of old age." Irish myth: Cross.

J217. J217. Captivity preferred to death.

J217.0.1. J217.0.1. Unsatisfactory life preferred to death.

J217.0.1.1. J217.0.1.1. Trickster overhears man praying for death to take him; the trickster appears at man's house, usually in disguise, says he is God (or the devil). The man tells him to take his wife (or he runs away). (Compare C11 for a similar situation in which Death appears.) U.S.: *Baughman.

J217.1. J217.1. Escaped lamb delivers himself to shepherd rather than to slaughter. Wienert FFC LVI 71 (ET 354), 115 (ST 252); Halm Aesop No. 377.

J217.2. J217.2. Discontented ass longs for death but changes mind when he sees skins of dead asses at a fair. Scala Celi 53b No. 299.

J218. J218. Enemies make peace rather than slay each other.

J218.1. J218.1. Lion and wild boar make peace rather than slay each other for benefit of vulture. Wienert FFC LVI 48 (ET 72), 108 (ST 202); Halm Aesop No. 253.

J145. J145. Hostile dogs made friendly by having them fight common enemy, the wolf.

J221. J221. Choice: small injustice permitted rather than to cause troubles of state.

J221.1. J221.1. King overlooks wife's unfaithfulness rather than to cause troubles of state. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 207.

J221.1.1. J221.1.1. Senator overlooks wife's adultery rather than impair his reputation. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J221.1.2. J221.1.2. Man rebukes servants for telling him of his wife's unfaithfulness. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J221.2. J221.2. King chooses small inconvenience of personal troubles to great troubles for his kingdom. He suffers to help realm. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J221.3. J221.3. Man would rather pay 500 florins he did not owe than have it said he did not pay debts. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J222. J222. Rescue alone from shipwreck chosen over drowning with goods. Wienert FFC LVI 81 (ET 472), 142 (ST 486).

J223. J223. Choice between evils: pay tribute or lose both money and life. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J225. J225. Choice: apparent injustice over greater wrong.

J225.0.1. J225.0.1. Angel and hermit. Angel takes hermit with him and does many seemingly unjust things. Later shows why each of these was just. *Type 759; *BP IV 326 No. 3; DeCock Studien en Essays 178ff.; *Crane Vitry 179 No. 109; Herbert III 8; Fb "uskyldig"; Alphabet Nos. 68, 411; Scala Celi 15a No. 85; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 508b nn. 9—11; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 32; O. Rohde Die Erzählung vom Einsiedler und dem Engel (Leipzig, 1894); *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 682. — Irish: Beal XXI 336; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 23, *296, Goebel Jüdische Motive in märchenhaften Erzählungsgut (Gleiwitz, 1932) 116ff., *Neuman.

J225.0.1.1. J225.0.1.1. Angel explains to hermit why God lets a sinner die in peace and have big funeral while holy hermit is slain by a wild beast. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J225.0.2. J225.0.2. God punishes many men because of one sinner, like a man who kills hive of bees for stinging of one. Irish myth: Cross.

J225.0.3. J225.0.3. Angel in form of young man shows skeptical hermit that ways of providence are inscrutable. Irish myth: Cross.

J225.1. J225.1. Youth made lame: had kicked his mother. *Type 759; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 682.

J225.2. J225.2. Lion sent to kill a man: frees him from possibility of sinning and sojourn in purgatory. *Type 759; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 682.

J225.3. J225.3. Angel takes cup from old man. Done lest he love the cup too much. *Type 759; Wesselski Mönchslatein No. 79.

J225.4. J225.4. Angel (Jesus) kills man. Done because man is plotting a murder. *Type 759; Wesselski Mönchslatein No. 79; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J225.5. J225.5. Angel kills man because he loves his child too much. Type 759; Wesselski Mönchslatein No. 79.

J225.6. J225.6. Saint gives liberally to gambler, little to beggar. Gambler is generous, beggar hoards. Irish myth: Cross.

J225.7. J225.7. Forestman who longs to do evil is sent to hell: writer, who repents, is sent to heaven. God justifies this to his sage. India: Thompson-Balys.

J225.8. J225.8. Evil mother has fine funeral, good father poor. Irish: O'Suilleabhain 50.

J226. J226. Difficult choice between relatives.

J226.1. J226.1. Choice of freeing one son: adopted son or long-missing son. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J226.2. J226.2. Choice: blind son with long life or healthy son with short. Latter chosen. India: Thompson-Balys.

J226.3. J226.3. Choice: foolish son always with him or four wise daughters who will leave him. Latter chosen. India: Thompson-Balys.

J227. J227. Death preferred to other evils.

J227.1. J227.1. Death preferred to captivity. Irish myth: Cross (J229.13).

J227.2. J227.2. Death preferred to dishonor. Irish myth: Cross (J229.9).

J229. J229. Choice between evils—miscellaneous.

J229.1. J229.1. Choice: staying at home with loving wife or going to tavern and having unfaithful wife. Man chooses latter. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 205.

J229.2. J229.2. Sheep and ignorant shearer. Had rather die than suffer longer from him. Wienert FFC LVI 72 (ET 366), 115 (ST 251); Halm Aesop No. 382.

J229.3. J229.3. Choice: a big piece of cake with my curse or a small piece with my blessing. Type 480; *Roberts 138; BP I 214.

J229.4. J229.4. Better send an ugly woman to the devil than a pretty one. Man chooses ugly mistress. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 404.

J229.5. J229.5. Choice between bad master, bad official, or bad neighbor. Bad master can do evil if he desires to do so; bad official can harm a poor person and complain against him to his master; bad neighbor can betray secret things about his neighbors. Bad neighbor worst. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 586.

J229.6. J229.6. Bad choice between poor and miserly man. Neither makes good leader. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 571.

J229.7. J229.7. Rower prefers to be stoned by his master rather than remain out in the storm. Wienert FFC LVI *83 (ET 498), 115 (ST 258).

J229.8. J229.8. Contentment with evil master for fear of worse successor. Scala Celi 21a No. 128; Herbert III 35ff.; Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 45; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J229.8.1. J229.8.1. Weaver prefers master with one hedgehog. Insists on his master putting hedgehog out of house. When master refuses, weaver leaves. Next master has two hedgehogs, and next has three. Weaver returns to first master. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 603.

J229.9. J229.9. Man retains questionable bride for fear of getting one who is worse. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J229.10. J229.10. The smaller the evil the better. Therefore choose the smallest woman possible for a bride. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J229.11. J229.11. Take money instead of revenge. Fool advises uncle, in letter which he did not send, to take money from wife's paramour instead of revenge. Spanish: Childers.

J229.12. J229.12. Prisoners given choice between emasculation and blinding. Irish myth: Cross.

J229.13. J229.13. God's punishment: the sinner may have twelve years of famine or twelve hours of heavy rainfall. India: Thompson-Balys.

J229.14. J229.14. Physical pain preferred to poverty. Jewish: Neuman.

J230—J299.

J230—J299. REAL AND APPARENT VALUES

J230. J230. Choice: real and apparent values.

J231. J231. Wisdom chosen above all else. Jewish: *Neuman.

J231.1. J231.1. Solomon, permitted by God to make any request, asks wisdom. Granted wisdom and wealth. Irish myth: Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

J231.2. J231.2. Choice between love and wisdom. Greek: Fox 76 (Herakles).

F171.2. Broad and narrow roads in otherworld.

J232. J232. Health chosen as the most precious thing. India: Thompson-Balys.

J233. J233. Choice between desire and duty. Icelandic: Þiðriks saga I 235, Boberg.

J240. J240. Choice between useful and ornamental.

J241. J241. Fruitful tree chosen.

J241.1. J241.1. Athena chooses olive tree because of fruitfulness. Wienert FFC LVI 76 (ET 417), 143 (ST 488).

J241.2. J241.2. Peasant leaves honey tree standing. Sparrows and crickets ask peasant to leave tree standing. He refuses, but when he finds honey in the tree he consents. Wienert FFC LVI 71 (ET 350), 143 (ST 494); Halm Aesop No. 102.

J242. J242. Useful wins contest over beautiful.

J242.1. J242.1. Contest between rose and amaranth: worth lies not in beauty. Wienert FFC LVI 43 (ET 4), *142 (ST 484); Halm Aesop No. 384.

J242.2. J242.2. Pine and thornbush dispute as to their usefulness. Beauty of form does not give worth; pine grows slowly but it will withstand storms. Wienert FFC LVI 44 (ET 15), 74 (ET 398), *142 (ST 483); Halm Aesop No. 125.

J242.3. J242.3. Fox and panther contest in beauty. Fox's spirit worth more than panther's skin. Wienert FFC LVI *43 (ET 1), 142 (ST 482); Halm Aesop No. 42.

J242.4. J242.4. Peacock proved to be bad king. Chosen because of beauty; too weak to defend his flock. Wienert FFC LVI 47 (ET 63), 90 (ST 22), 142 (ST 480); Halm Aesop No. 398; Dh IV 185ff.

J242.5. J242.5. Peacock and crane in beauty contest. Better be able to soar like crane than to strut about like peacock. Wienert FFC LVI 43 (ET 3), 142 (ST 479); Halm Aesop No. 397.

J242.6. J242.6. Contest in beauty between swallows and crows (ants and flies): worth lies not in beauty. Wienert FFC LVI 43 (ET 5, 9), 124 (ST 330), 142 (ST 482); Halm Aesop No. 415.

J242.7. J242.7. Choice of a learned crow: a dead cat better than a golden crown. India: Thompson-Balys.

J242.8. J242.8. In dividing property clever younger brother takes hind part of buffalo, upper part of tree, and use of curtain during night. India: Thompson-Balys.

J243. J243. Usefulness better than speed.

J243.1. J243.1. Dog and hog dispute over their children: worth lies not in speed. Wienert FFC LVI 44 (ET 19), 142 (ST 478); Halm Aesop No. 409.

J244. J244. Goodness preferred to beauty.

J244.1. J244.1. Father with handsome son and hideous daughter. Advises both to look in mirror daily lest son exchange handsome face for bad character; daughter to triumph over face by good manners. Wienert FFC LVI 83 (ET 494), 149 (ST 536).

J245. J245. Useful and ugly preferred to expensive and beautiful.

J245.1. J245.1. Millstone preferred to jewels. Man shown jewels that cost much money; he replies that he has better stones (millstones) that earn that much. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 164; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J245.2. J245.2. King who experiences the cultural civilization of an empire in dream would rather be poor and primitive. India: Thompson-Balys.

J246. J246. Strength preferred to cleverness.

J246.1. J246.1. Man criticizes the devil because his deeds are not fair. Devil says that they are strong nevertheless. Hence strong speakers rather than clever are to be preferred. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 609.

J246.2. J246.2. Hero, despising weapons, fights with fists alone. Irish myth: *Cross.

J247. J247. Goodness preferred to wealth. Irish myth: *Cross; Jewish: *Neuman.

J247.1. J247.1. Man advised to choose good poor man for his daughter's husband rather than rich man. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J251. J251. Practical knowledge more vital than theoretical. Jewish: Neuman.

J251.1. J251.1. The bookman and the boatman: each ignorant of other's work. Bookman's swimming saves their lives. India: Thompson-Balys.

J252. J252. Learned person worth two unlearned. Latter wastes time, former not. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *2445.

J260. J260. Choice between worth and appearance.

J261. J261. Loudest mourners not greatest sorrowers. Wienert FFC LVI 83 (ET 496), 142 (ST 485); Halm Aesop No. 369.

J262. J262. Noisy things often empty.

J262.1. J262.1. Fox and noisy but empty drum. Chauvin II 86 No. 21; Bødker Exempler 278 No. 20; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J262.2. J262.2. Little coin in empty bottle noisy. Jewish: Neuman.

J263. J263. Among many vain words may be found some of wisdom. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J264. J264. Apparent beauty may be of the least importance. Ruler admires jewels's beauty but neglects to inquire about their marvelous virtues. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J266. J266. Choice between short and dangerous or long and sure way. (Cf. J21.5.3.) Icelandic: *Boberg.

J267. J267. Choice between flattering lies and unflattering truths.

J267.1. J267.1. Raven drowns his young who promise to aid him when he becomes old. He saves one who admits he will not help, because he will have to carry his own young. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 244; Finnish: Aarne FFC V No. 33.

J280. J280. Quality preferred to quantity.

J281. J281. Quality of offspring preferred to quantity.

J281.1. J281.1. "Only one, but a lion". Lioness thus answers fox (hog) who twits her that she has only one cub. Wienert FFC LVI 44 (ET 20), 142 (ST 477); Halm Aesop No. 240.

J300—J329.

J300—J329. PRESENT VALUES CHOSEN

J310. J310. The present preferred to the past.

J311. J311. Heed not the past.

J311.1. J311.1. Count only the waves before you. Fox sees man trying to count the waves. Advises him to count only those immediately before him and to pay no attention to those which have already passed. Wienert FFC LVI 70 (ET 340), 144 (ST 496); Halm Aesop No. 60.

J311.2. J311.2. Do not ask: "Why were the former days better than the present ones?" Jewish: Neuman.

J312. J312. Not what you were but what you are counts.

J312.1. J312.1. Wasp twits butterfly with coming from ugly chrysalis: unimportant where you come from. Wienert FFC LVI 43 (ET 14), 144 (ST 497).

J320. J320. Present values preferred to future.

J321. J321. Present possessions preferred to future possibilities.

J321.1. J321.1. A bird in the hand foolishly given away in hope of greater gain. Wienert FFC LVI 50 (ET 94), 105, 147 (ST 175, 525); Halm Aesop No. 9.

J321.1.1. J321.1.1. Today's catch of fish traded for prospective larger catch tomorrow. Africa (Akan-Ashanti): Rattray 252 No. 67.

J321.2. J321.2. Little fish in the net kept rather than wait for uncertainty of greater catch. Wienert FFC LVI 66 (ET 308), 105 (ST 176); Halm Aesop No. 28; Jacobs Aesop 212 No. 53; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J321.3. J321.3. Lion leaves sleeping hare to follow the shepherd. Loses both victims. Wienert FFC LVI 51 (ET 105), 106 (ST 180); Halm Aesop No. 254.

J321.4. J321.4. Present possessions preferred to future. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J322. J322. Don't injure yourself to insure your family's future.

J322.1. J322.1. Man wagers he can run with his head off. Asked what it will profit him, he says that it will profit his family. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 567.

J323. J323. Man to be reforged chooses present unhappiness. He is in heaven and God is to reforge him, but he chooses not to change. Indonesian: *DeVries's list No. 239.

J325. J325. Children choose father they know rather than real father they do not yet know. Woman confesses that child is not by her husband. Child, however, chooses to keep the father he knows. (Cf. J391, J1279.1.) Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 809.

J326. J326. Man prefers servant girl who is present to her absent mistress. Nouvelles Récréations No. 1.

J327. J327. Soldier prefers to live rather than die and be avenged on enemy. Nouvelles Récréations No. 44.

J330-J369.

J330-J369. GAINS AND LOSSES

J340. J340. Choices: little gain, big loss.

J341. J341. Weight of bodily member chosen rather than its loss. (Cf. J351.)

J341.1. J341.1. Fox prefers to bear weight of his tail rather than give part of it to ape. *Crane Vitry 204 No. 171; Herbert III 15.

J342. J342. High wages bring expensive living. West Indies: Flowers 475.

J342.1. J342.1. Barber leaves inexpensive village for high wages in city. Finds cost of living more than enough to take all his profit. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 602; Scala Celi 60a

No. 332; Alphabet No. 448.

J342.1.1. J342.1.1. In spite of master's advice disciple stays in country where everything has cheap price. Gets into trouble. India: Thompson-Balys.

J342.2. J342.2. Wise man refuses income of half a kingdom since expenses will outweigh gain. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J343. J343. Man refuses cure which brings greater inconvenience.

J343.1. J343.1. Drunkard refuses cure of fever if it is to take away his thirst. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 236.

J344. J344. What one has is neglected in search for other things.

J344.1. J344.1. The monkey and the lost lentil. Lets all others he has in his hand fall in order to search for it. *Chauvin II 104 No. 67; Bødker Exempler 302 No. 70; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J344.2. J344.2. Host wants to learn Hebrew even at risk of forgetting his own language. Chauvin II 106 No. 69; Bødker Exempler 303 No. 72.

J345. J345. The valuable neglected for the interesting.

J345.1. J345.1. Herdsman neglects his she-goats in favor of wild-goats. She-goats die; wild-goats run off. Wienert FFC LVI 72 (ET 368), 106 (ST 181); Halm Aesop No. 12.

J345.2. J345.2. Man leaves farming for fishing. When water dries up he goes hungry. India: Thompson-Balys.

J346. J346. Better be content with what you have, than try to get more and lose everything. Icelandic: [A]ns saga bogsv. 361, Boberg.

J347. J347. Wealth and glory sacrificed for freedom and virtue.

J347.1. J347.1. Man refuses vast wealth because with it will come covetousness. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J347.2. J347.2. King lays aside crown since it brings too many cares. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J347.3. J347.3. Prince chooses exile and honor to foul life at his father's court. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J347.4. J347.4. Rich merchant is poorer in happiness than poor man. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J347.5. J347.5. Man refuses rich marriage with house filled with dangerous wild animals. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J350. J350. Choices: small inconvenience, large gain.

J351. J351. Bodily member(s) sacrificed to save life. (Cf. J341.) Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J351.1. J351.1. Beaver sacrifices scrotum to save life. Cuts it off and leaves it for pursuers. Wienert FFC LVI 63 (ET 264), 141 (ST 475); Halm Aesop No. 189.

J352. J352. Inconvenience disregarded when booty is in sight.

J352.1. J352.1. Wolf does not mind the dust. Told that dust from flock of sheep will annoy him; he finds it useful. Chauvin III 41 No. 7.

J352.2. J352.2. Snake is willing to suffer the indignity of serving frog king as mount because frog king gives him frogs to eat. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J355. J355. Slight inconvenience in weather, large gain.

J355.1. J355.1. The widow's meal. King upbraids wind for blowing away a poor widow's last cup of meal. Finds that the wind has saved a ship full of people by that very act. The king is humbled. Schiller Anthropos XII—XIII 513; DeVries FFC LXXIII 324ff.; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 67, *301, *Neuman.

J356. J356. Less inconvenience in fighting though tired than in losing all for a little rest. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J357. J357. Priest sells his donkey because worry for its safety distracts him from prayer. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J369. J369. Small inconvenience, large gain—miscellaneous.

J369.1. J369.1. Solomon refuses water of immortality for himself when he cannot have it for his possessions also. Chauvin II 126 No. 129.

J369.2. J369.2. Ape throws away nut because of its bitter rind. *Crane Vitry 188 No. 127; Herbert III 11, 36ff.; Hervieux Fabulistes latins I 218 No. 47.

J370. J370. Choices: important and unimportant work.

J371. J371. No time for minor fights when life is in danger.

J371.1. J371.1. Bull refuses to fight goat. Bull being pursued by lion tries to go into cave. Goat refuses to let him in. Bull must go on, for with lion pursuing he has no time to fight goat. Wienert FFC LVI 56 (ET 168), 112 (ST 234); Halm Aesop 396.

J372. J372. King ridiculed for inventing trifle of musical instrument but praised for constructing a great mosque. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J390. J390. Choices: kind strangers, unkind relatives.

J391. J391. Kind foster-parents chosen rather than cruel parents. (Cf. J325.)

J391.1. J391.1. Lamb chooses her foster-mother, the she-goat. Owes more to her than to her own mother, who has deserted her. Wienert FFC LVI 63 (ET 259), 145 (ST 507).

J400—J459.

J400—J459. CHOICE OF ASSOCIATES

J400. J400. Choice of associates.

J401. J401. Scarcity of real friends.

J401.0.1. J401.0.1. "A friend is known in need." Irish myth: Cross.

J401.1. J401.1. Socrates builds himself a little house. Criticized for its smallness he says, "I wish I had true friends enough to fill it." Wienert FFC LVI 39; Phaedrus III 9.

J410. J410. Association of equals and unequals.

J411. J411. Great refuse to associate with lowly. Missouri French: Carrière.

J411.1. J411.1. Boar refuses to fight with lowly ass. Wienert FFC LVI *76 (ET 158), 120 (ST 298).

J411.2. J411.2. Zeus refuses wedding present from snake. Presents to be received only from equals. Wienert FFC LVI 76 (ET 423), 120 (ST 297); Halm Aesop No. 153.

J411.3. J411.3. Prince refuses to play with common children. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 165.

J411.3.1. J411.3.1. Noble poets refuse to associate with truly good poet because of his lowly birth. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J411.4. J411.4. Peasant ashamed of being thrown off by ass. Shameful to be thrown by such a creature. Wienert FFC LVI 73 (ET 378), 120 (ST 299); Halm Aesop No. 3.

J411.5. J411.5. Wolf tries to make friends with lion: killed. Wienert FFC LVI 49 (ET 82), 92 (ST 54); Halm Aesop No. 280.

J952.1. J952.1. Presumptuous wolf among lions.

J411.6. J411.6. Dolphin and whale scorn crab as peacemaker. Wienert FFC LVI 48 (ET 69), 92 (ST 45); Halm Aesop No. 116.

J411.7. J411.7. Laurel and olive tree scorn thornbush as umpire in their dispute as to who is most useful. Wienert FFC LVI 43 (ET 12), 74 (ET 392), 92 (ST 46).

J411.8. J411.8. Mouse on lion's mane. Lion angry at impudence of mouse. Wienert FFC LVI *56 (ET 167), 113 (ST 238); Halm Aesop No. 257.

J411.9. J411.9. Knight disregards insult by servant. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J411.9.1. J411.9.1. King refuses to quarrel with bird. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J411.10. J411.10. Leopard ashamed of having been bitten by lizard. India: Thompson-Balys.

J411.11. J411.11. Rich man refuses to associate with poor sister. India: Thompson-Balys.

J412. J412. Profitable association of great and lowly.

J412.1. J412.1. Prince of democratic tastes chosen. King asks three sons what kind of bird they would prefer to be. First: an eagle, because it is ruler of birds; second: a falcon; because it is beloved by the nobles; third: a bird which flies with many others, so as to receive advice. King chooses third. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 677.

J413. J413. Unprofitable association of unequals.

J413.1. J413.1. Lion licks sick man, who is thereby disgusted. India: Thompson-Balys.

J414. J414. Marriage with equal or with unequal.

J414.1. J414.1. Wife chosen instead of fairy mistress. They let man choose between them. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 88.

J414.2. J414.2. Prince prefers first love to princess he later marries. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 61 No. 445A.

J414.3. J414.3. Unsuccessful marriage of jackals and turtles (different habits). India: Thompson-Balys.

J416. J416. One's own kind preferred to strangers.

J416.1. J416.1. Bird refuses to maintain friendship with bird of different habits. India: Thompson-Balys.

J417. J417. Man prefers to live with ordinary rather than with pious man. He will be virtuous by comparison. Jewish: *Neuman.

J420. J420. Association of strong and weak.

J421. J421. Subordination of weak to strong.

J421.1. J421.1. Lion as king makes ass his lieutenant. *Basset RTP VI 244.

J421.2. J421.2. Lion makes lame goat his lieutenant. India: Thompson-Balys.

J423. J423. Stupid fear company of clever.

J423.1. J423.1. Jackal realizes that the partridge was too clever for him and leaves. India: Thompson-Balys.

J425. J425. Weak fear company of strong.

J425.1. J425.1. Earthen and brazen pots in river. Brazen pot thinks that they should stay together for company. Earthen pot, however, fears approach of brazen pot. Wienert FFC LVI 76 (ET 414), *136 (ST 415); Halm Aesop No. 422; Jacobs Aesop 212 No. 51; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

J425.2. J425.2. Buffalo refuses tiger's invitation to dinner. He sees fire prepared to cook him. India: Thompson-Balys.

J426. J426. Association of rat with cat ceases as soon as mutual danger has passed. The rat threatened by the weasel and the owl allies himself with a cat caught in a net. Saved by the cat, he rescues the cat with precaution and then prudently renounces further relations with her. Chauvin II 101 No. 61; Bødker Exempler No. 66; India: Thompson-Balys.

J426.1. J426.1. Association of mouse with cat ceases as soon as mutual danger has passed. Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J426.2. J426.2. Friendship of snake and frog ceases when snake wants to eat frog. India: Thompson-Balys.

J427. J427. Association of cow and tiger: tiger eats cow as soon as she is hungry. India: Thompson-Balys.

J428. J428. Association of tiger and crane. They soon quarrel. India: Thompson-Balys.

J429. J429. Association of strong and weak—miscellaneous.

J429.1. J429.1. Association of swan and swallow: swan unable to fly away from danger. Type 246*.

J429.2. J429.2. Associating with a bad friend is fatal: swan and crow. Swan is blamed when crow drops filth. India: Thompson-Balys.

J440. J440. Association of young and old.

J441. J441. Profitable association of young and old.

J441.1. J441.1. Old ox yoked with young ox. Thus kept in order. Wienert FFC LVI 85 (ET 516), 146 (ST 511).

J445. J445. Foolish association of young and old.

J445.1. J445.1. Foolish youth in love with ugly old mistress. Herbert III 39ff.; Hervieux I 188 No. 14a; Heptameron No. 27; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J445.2. J445.2. Foolish marriage of old man and young girl. Nouvelles Recreations No. 16; Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 99; Panchatantra (tr. Ryder) 341; Icelandic: *Boberg.

J450. J450. Association of the good and the evil.

J451. J451. Contagiousness of bad company.

J451.1. J451.1. Ass buyer returns ass which has associated with lazy companions. Wienert FFC LVI 72 (ET 376), 120 (ST 294); Halm Aesop No. 320; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J451.2. J451.2. Stork killed along with cranes. Ill-advised associations end fatally. Wienert FFC LVI 67 (ET 309), 120 (ST 296); Halm Aesop No. 100.

J451.3. J451.3. God of wealth in bad company. Heracles on his arrival in heaven fails to greet Plutus, the god of wealth: he has seen him in too bad company. Wienert FFC LVI 76 (ET 418), 120 (ST 295); Halm Aesop No 160.

J451.4. J451.4. Mirror begrimed by snail. Wienert FFC LVI 75 (ET 412), 120 (ST 300).

J452. J452. Bad associates bring death to bishop. Doctor loses his life for him and lawyer his soul. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J455. J455. Harm of association with flatterers. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 739.

J460. J460. Unnecessary choices.

J461. J461. Senseless debate of the mutually useful.

J461.1. J461.1. The belly and the members. Debate as to their usefulness. All mutually useful. *Prato Archivio per lo studio delle tradizioni popolari IV (1885) 25ff.; Penzer V 135 n.; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 399; Wienert FFC LVI *43 (ET 6), 92 (ST 59); Halm Aesop No. 197; Jacobs Aesop 206 No. 29; *Crane Vitry 167 No. 73; *H. Gombel Die Fabel vom Magen und den Gliedern (Beihefte zur Zs. f. romanische Philologie LXXX [Halle, 1934]).—Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 71, *301f., *Neuman; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 139; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 393.

J461.1.1. J461.1.1. Tail and head of serpent quarrel as to usefulness. Wienert FFC LVI 58 (ET 187), 93 (ST 60); Halm Aesop No. 344; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

J461.1.2. J461.1.2. Fortune, Intellect, Knowledge, and Health dispute as to which is the greatest. India: Thompson-Balys.

J461.1.3. J461.1.3. Debate of tongue and other bodily members. Jewish: *Neuman.

J461.2. J461.2. Common wives of man debate as to which has helped him most. Help of each was indispensable. Africa (Vai): Ellis 235 No. 56, 255 No. 52.

J461.3. J461.3. Tobacco, pipe, and match debate usefulness to smoker. Africa (Vai): Ellis 196 No. 13.

J461.4. J461.4. Deer, opossum, and snake each render indispensable aid to man. Foolishly debate their usefulness. Africa (Vai): Ellis 230 No. 39.

J461.5. J461.5. Rice, wheat, and dal dispute as to which is the best. India: Thompson-Balys.

J461.6. J461.6. Dispute of hammer and anvil. India: Thompson-Balys.

J461.7. J461.7. Wealth and wisdom dispute as to who is greater. India: Thompson-Balys.

J461.8. J461.8. Elephant and ape debate about superiority. Owl gives them task neither can perform and ends futile debate. India: Thompson-Balys J462. J462. Unnecessary choices of belief.

J462.1. J462.1. Unnecessary choice of gods. King's sons each choose a god: Jupiter for power, Saturn for wisdom, etc. Father says that a god of all combined would be better. Oesterley No. 243; Herbert III 204. Cf. Wienert FFC LVI 44 (ET 23), 135 (ST 410); Babrius No. 15.

J462.2. J462.2. Unnecessary choice of philosophies. Aristotle drinks both red and white wine to show that all philosophies are good. Scala Celi 35b No. 197.

J462.3. J462.3. Unnecessary choice of religion.

J462.3.1. J462.3.1. Father leaves sons three jewels—Christianity, Judaism, Mohammedanism. All to be used. (Cf. J1262.9.) *Zachariae Zs. f. Vksk. XXXIII—XXXIV 70; Boccaccio Decameron I No. 3 (*Lee 6); Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 150, 281.

J462.3.1.1. J462.3.1.1. Father gives son three rings. Only one is good although they all look the same. Same with religions. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J463. J463. Unnecessary choice: to go uphill or downhill. Camel prefers the level. Wienert FFC LVI 71 (ET 353), 111 (ST 223).

J465. J465. Unnecessary choice: praying or reading. Both are good. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 105.

J466. J466. Senseless debates about usefulness.

J466.1. J466.1. Pomegranate and apple tree dispute as to which is worth most. Blackberry reproves them for useless jangling. Wienert FFC LVI 43 (ET 11), 74 (ET 390), 92 (ST 47); Halm Aesop No. 385.

J466.2. J466.2. Senseless debate: which is the greater, St. John the Baptist or St. John the Evangelist? Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J480. J480. Other choices.

J481. J481. Inflictors rather than receivers of wounds chosen. Men with many wounds recommended as soldiers. King had rather have those who gave the wounds. Wesselski Bebel I 69 No. 48.

J482. J482. King advised to marry maid rather than widow. Widow would have things her own way. *Stiefel Zs. f. Vksk. VIII 278.

J482.1. J482.1. Woman refuses second marriage. If husband is good she will fear to lose him; if bad she will repent. Alphabet No. 565; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J482.1.1. J482.1.1. Woman refuses second marriage. Her husband abides in her heart. Spanish: Childers.

J482.1.2. J482.1.2. Widow refuses second marriage so her brother cannot kill a second husband. Heptameron No. 40.

J482.2. J482.2. Better to marry ugly than fair wife. Less hard to satisfy. Alphabet No. 798.

J482.2.1. J482.2.1. Better to marry a man lacking money than money lacking a man. Spanish: Childers, Keller.

J482.3. J482.3. Young man advised to choose as wife a girl whose mother was chaste. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J483. J483. Choice: to do that which one knows or to learn something. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 104.

J484. J484. Enjoyment preferred to wealth. Penzer IV 198.

J485. J485. Three sins of the hermit. Choice of three sins given him: adultery, murder (theft), drunkenness. He chooses drunkenness; the others follow. (Cf. J21.25.) *Type 839; Taylor MPh XX 61ff.; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 243; Chauvin VIII 129 No. 118; Herbert III *131; Köhler-Bolte I 583; Nouvelles de Sens No. 25; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 24; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 159, 282, Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys. Cf. Wesselski Mönchslatein 22 No. 17.

J486. J486. Death preferred above God and Justice. *Type 332; BP I 381ff.; *Fb "Vorherre" III 1087b.

J487. J487. Tame dog prefers food basin to fleeing hare. Wienert FFC LVI *85 (ET 522), 145 (ST 503); Halm Aesop No. 390.

J488. J488. Fox had rather meet one hen than fifty women. English: Wells 184 (The Fox and the Wolf).

J491. J491. Old sweetheart chosen in preference to new. Type 886.

J493. J493. Little men preferred to big men. Preacher prefers small men because the intellect has difficulty in reaching to one's heels. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J494. J494. Choice: death and revenge preferred to life. Irish myth: *Cross.

J495. J495. Monk chooses solitude and loneliness to company and temptation. By living alone he escapes sin. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J496. J496. Choice of friend over mistress. Given the choice of his friend or his mistress, man chooses his friend. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J497. J497. Eagle prefers own offspring to changeling. Irish myth: Cross.

J500-J599;

J500-J599; Prudence and Discretion.

J510. J510. Prudence in ambition.

J511. J511. One should not attempt to change his color.

J511.1. J511.1. Negro tries in vain to be washed white. Wienert FFC LVI *46 (ET 48), *87 (ST 5); Halm Aesop No. 13; India: Thompson-Balys.

J512. J512. Animal should not try to change his nature.

J512.1. J512.1. Crab comes ashore: killed by fox. Wienert FFC LVI 50 (ET 91), 90 (ST 28); Halm Aesop No. 186.

J512.2. J512.2. Kite tries to neigh like a horse. Loses his voice and gains nothing. Wienert FFC LVI *46 (ET 52), 90 (ST 27); Halm Aesop No. 170.

J512.3. J512.3. Camel tries in vain to dance. Wienert FFC LVI 46 (ET 46, 47), *88, 90 (ST 10, 20); Halm Aesop No. 182, 365.

J512.4. J512.4. Ass tries in vain to play lyre. *Wienert FFC LVI 45 (ET 26), 130 (ST 373).

J512.5. J512.5. Wolf tries in vain to be doctor. Only increases patient's suffering. Wienert FFC LVI 46 (ET 40), 122 (ST 309).

J512.6. J512.6. Crow tries to imitate partridge's walk. Only spoils his own. Chauvin II 106 No. 70; Bødker Exempler 303 No. 73; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J512.7. J512.7. Mouse, bird, and sausage keep house together. When they exchange duties all goes wrong. *Type 85; *BP I 206, III 558; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 135.

J512.7.1. J512.7.1. Elephant, giraffe, snake, and ant try keeping house together: requirements different. India: Thompson-Balys.

J512.8. J512.8. Ass tries to get a cricket's voice. Asks crickets what they eat to get such a voice. They answer, "dew." He tries it and starves. Wienert FFC LVI 46 (ET 43), 90 (ST 24); Halm Aesop No. 337.

J512.9. J512.9. Lizard tries to make himself as long as snake. Kills himself. Wienert FFC LVI 58 (ET 189), 93 (ST 62); Halm Aesop No. 388.

J512.10. J512.10. Fox tries to mask as dove, but loses all thoughts of murder. India: Thompson-Balys.

J512.11. J512.11. Camel and jackal exchange food: camel is led by his good friend to thorny fruit and thorn sticks in his throat. India: Thompson-Balys.

J512.12. J512.12. Frog wants to be shod like a horse. India: Thompson-Balys.

J512.13. J512.13. Jackal accidentally made king but joins other jackals in howling at night. Killed. India: Thompson-Balys.

J512.14. J512.14. Snake wants to act as pet like parrot: killed. India: Thompson-Balys.

J512.15. J512.15. Frogs want to collect honey like bees. India: Thompson-Balys.

J513. J513. One should let well enough alone.

J513.1. J513.1. Birds seeking richer lands are nearly all killed. Survivors advise their friends to let well enough alone. *Wesselski Arlotto I 201 No. 31.

J513.2. J513.2. Barber tries unsuccessfully to become a trader. India: Thompson-Balys.

J514. J514. One should not be too greedy. Type 555.

J514.1. J514.1. Kite tries to carry off so many partridges that he drops them all. Herbert III 40ff.; Hervieux IV 211 No. 38; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J514.2. J514.2. Wolf tries to eat bowstring. Finds hunter, gazelle, and wild boar dead. Tries first to eat the bowstring, and is mortally wounded. Chauvin II 95 No. 47; Bødker Exempler 292 No. 51; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys.

J514.3. J514.3. Greedy man keeps demanding one more thing from complacent man; at last is magically blinded. Campbell-McKay No. 21.

J514.4. J514.4. Greedy pig looks up into tree for figs. This causes his death. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J514.5. J514.5. Greedy man dissatisfied with gold looks for jewels; finds only iron and eventually nothing. India: Thompson-Balys.

J514.6. J514.6. Fowler wants two rubies as ransom for a caught goose; loses goose and both rubies. India: Thompson-Balys.

J515. J515. Peacock spends so much time preening for coronation that birds become impatient and make the owl king instead. India: Thompson-Balys.

J530. J530. Prudence in demands.

J531. J531. Good shepherd shears his sheep; does not skin them. Emperor thus replies to suggestion of a new tax to be laid on the people. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 742.

J550. J550. Zeal—temperate and intemperate.

J551. J551. Intemperate zeal in truth-telling.

J551.1. J551.1. Cocks who crow about mistress's adultery killed. Discreet cock saves his life. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 9; Oesterley No. 68; Herbert III 206.

J551.1.1. J551.1.1. Bird warns mistress against committing adultery: gets neck wrung. India: Thompson-Balys.

J551.2. J551.2. Fool given the truth on his back. He tells his master what the servants have done during his absence. The servants whip him on his bare back, saying at each blow, "That is the truth." When the master returns and tells the fool to tell the truth, the latter replies, "There is nothing worse on earth than the truth." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 1.

J551.3. J551.3. Doctor loses a horse for the sake of the truth. Overlord asks two doctors whether he is entitled to all the possessions of his retainers. One doctor unrighteously answers yes and receives a horse. The other who tells the truth receives nothing. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 123.

J551.4. J551.4. Man asked to tell truth says that his host, his hostess, and the cat have but three eyes between them. He is driven off for his truth telling. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 3.

J551.5. J551.5. Magpie tells a man that his wife has eaten an eel, which she said was eaten by the otter. The woman plucks his feathers out. When the magpie sees a bald man, she says, "You too must have tattled about the eel." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 6.

J551.6. J551.6. Only youngest son tells king truth when asked where they got their food: banished. India: Thompson-Balys.

J551.7. J551.7. Honest servant tells people that shop does not have many customers: dismissed. India: Thompson-Balys.

J552. J552. Intemperate pugnacity.

J552.1. J552.1. Noblemen who quarreled over a device. Wiser of the two shows foolishness of such a fight. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 168.

J552.2. J552.2. Noblemen being ruined by long lawsuit decide wisely to join their families in marriage and save their fortunes. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 402.

J552.2.1. J552.2.1. Bishop fond of lawsuits is ordered by king to settle them: bishop pleads for a few to be left so that he will have something to live for. Nouvelles Récréations No. 34.

J552.3. J552.3. Serpent (weasel) tries to bite a file. Wienert FFC LVI 75 (ET 401, 402), 98 (ST 119, 120); Halm Aesop Nos. 86, 126; Jacobs Aesop 206 No. 26.

J552.4. J552.4. Helmet left for woman to quarrel with. Woman insists upon quarreling with a nobleman. He says, "If you wish to quarrel, I shall leave my helmet here. You can talk to it." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 641.

J552.5. J552.5. Brothers compose quarrel and save umpire's fee. India: Thompson-Balys.

J552.6. J552.6. Boast at home. In Castile a Spaniard maintains to a Portuguese that the Spanish king is best of all. In Portugal, that the Portuguese king is best. "Each cock crows in his own barnyard." Spanish: Childers (J500).

J553. J553. Intemperance in work.

J553.1. J553.1. Aesop with the unbent bow. Upbraided when found playing with children, he unstrings a bow and shows how good relaxation is. Wienert FFC LVI 40; Phaedrus III No. 14; Thiele Hermes XLI 585; Alphabet Nos. 6, 671.

J553.2. J553.2. Ruler interrupts meeting of Senate to amuse his small son. When rebuked for making him a whistle he says: "I would have blown it for him had he asked me to do so." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J554. J554. Intemperance in service. Emperor rebukes overzealous servant as being a nuisance. Wienert FFC LVI 85 (ET 523), 143 (ST 491).

J555. J555. Intemperance in obedience.

J555.1. J555.1. Cum grano salis. Instructions of mother followed literally by one daughter when she marries. All goes wrong. Second daughter follows them in conformity with her father's explanations and all is well. *Type 915.

J556. J556. Intemperance in honesty. Irish: Beal XXI 335, O'Suilleabhain 118.

J556.1. J556.1. St. George teaches the poor man, "Who steals somewhat and lies somewhat will be rich." Type 790*.

J556.2. J556.2. Forget God for five years and you will become wealthy. Nouvelles Récréations No. 53.

J557. J557. Intemperance in undertaking labor.

J557.1. J557.1. Monk discouraged by large amount of work to be done persuaded to undertake but a small amount each day. The small task will be done; the large one will merely discourage. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 262; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J557.1.1. J557.1.1. True penance for even a day is effective. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J558. J558. Intemperance in sacrificing. Wienert FFC LVI 80 (ET 462), 138 (ST 431); Halm Aesop No. 161; Jewish: Neuman.

J561. J561. Intemperance in pursuit.

J561.1. J561.1. Man tracking gorilla sees animal's strength. Wisely refrains. Africa (Fjort): Dennett 69 No. 14.

J561.2. J561.2. Cow-herd looking for cattle thief recognizes him in the lion. Desists. Wienert FFC LVI 67 (ET 318), 109 (ST 213); Halm Aesop No. 83.

J562. J562. Intemperance in charity. A waste of time to make a bed for a dog who lies down wherever he happens to be tired. Likewise a waste of time to help unappreciative people. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 429.

J563. J563. Man resuscitates a lion which devours him. *Krappe Papers and Trans. of Jubilee Congress of Folk Lore Society (London, 1930) 277ff.; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas II 270, *357, *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

J564. J564. Intemperance in worship. Irish myth: Cross.

J565. J565. Intemperance in fasting.

J565.1. J565.1. Fool fasts on roof till he becomes so weak he falls off. India: Thompson-Balys.

J570. J570. Wisdom of deliberation.

J571. J571. Avoid hasty judgment. Jewish: Neuman.

J571.1. J571.1. When in anger say the alphabet. Man thus restrained from hasty judgment. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 257.

J571.2. J571.2. King given three wheels to control his anger. *Chauvin II 127 No. 130.

J571.3. J571.3. King in anger punishes misdeed on Easter day. Is almost killed himself in retaliation. He submits and says that he deserves this punishment for hasty action. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 256.

J571.4. J571.4. Avoid hasty punishment.

J571.4.1. J571.4.1. Man has disinterested party punish servant for him lest he himself be unfair in his anger. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J571.4.2. J571.4.2. Master when angry will not punish servant who has ruined him. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J571.5. J571.5. King restrained from hasty judgment by being told story. India: Thompson-Balys.

J571.6. J571.6. Judge not that you be not judged: thus judge upbraided when he is later accused in court and claims mercy. India: Thompson-Balys.

J571.7. J571.7. Answer questions of a fool the next day. India: Thompson-Balys.

J571.8. J571.8. Unpaid servant refuses to blame master: later rewarded. Jewish: Neuman.

J572. J572. Wisdom of deliberation in fight. West Indies: Flowers 476.

J572.1. J572.1. Bravest know how to wait. Three men are pursued in battle. First throws himself on enemies; second waits a little; third does not fight until the enemy begins. Latter is bravest. *Chauvin II 152 No. 15; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J580. J580. Wisdom of caution.

J581. J581. Foolishness of noise-making when enemies overhear.

J581.1. J581.1. Wolf as dog's guest sings. He has drunk too much and sings in spite of the dog's warning. He is killed. *Type 100; *BP II 111.

J581.2. J581.2. Paramour who insists on quarreling with mistress about escape caught by her husband. He finds the escape different from that which had been described to him. Chauvin II 84 No. 12; Bødker Exempler 275 No. 11; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J581.3. J581.3. Monk's enemies quarrel and thus save him. Robber who wants to steal monk's cow and devil who wants to steal his soul quarrel as to which shall begin first; they thus awaken him and the neighbors. Chauvin II 97 No. 53; Bødker Exempler 296 No. 58; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J581.4. J581.4. Drones dispute possession of honey. Ordered to make honey. Dispossessed. Wienert FFC LVI 54 (ET 140), 100 (ST 138).

J581.5. J581.5. Kites and crows quarrel over division of wounded fox. Meantime fox escapes. India: Thompson-Balys.

J582. J582. Foolishness of premature coming out of hiding.

J582.1. J582.1. Hidden goat discovered by his horn protruding above ground. Phaedrus II No. 8; West Indies: Flowers 476.

J582.2. J582.2. Hidden stag discovered when he begins to eat grapevine too soon after hunters have passed. Wienert FFC LVI 65 (ET 286), *109 (ST 209, 521); Halm Aesop No. 127.

J585. J585. Caution in eating.

J585.1. J585.1. Clever girl refrains from eating figs which would bring on magic sleep. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 116 No. 970.

J600-J799.

J600-J799. Forethought.

J610-J679.

J610-J679. FORETHOUGHT IN CONFLICTS WITH OTHERS

J610. J610. Forethought in conflict with others—general.

J611. J611. Wise man before entering a quarrel considers how it will end. Wesselski Bebel II 110 No. 35; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 765.

J612. J612. Wise man considers whom he is attacking.

J612.1. J612.1. Flea and fever exchange night-lodgings. Flea had attacked abbess and been chased all night; fever, a washerwoman who nearly froze it to death by going to the river and washing clothes. They exchange and succeed. *Crane Vitry 159 No. 59; *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XV 105; Wesselski Mönchslatein 87 No. 75; Alphabet No. 15; Scala Celi No. 430.

J613. J613. Wise fear of the weak for the strong.

J613.1. J613.1. Frogs fear increase of sun's power which will dry up all their puddles. Wienert FFC LVI *76 (ET 421), 136 (ST 418); Halm Aesop No. 77; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3189; Legends Nos. 288f.

J613.2. J613.2. Frogs fear defeated bull. See two bulls fighting; know that the loser will take refuge in their marsh. Wienert FFC LVI 55 (ET 151), *148 (ST 531).

J620. J620. Forethought in prevention of others's plans. Icelandic: *Boberg.

J621. J621. Destruction of enemy's weapons.

J621.1. J621.1. The swallow and the hemp-seeds. Swallow in vain urges other birds to eat seed as fast as it is sowed. Ridiculed, he builds his nest among the dwellings of men. Later, birds are caught in nets made from the hemp. Wienert FFC LVI 62 (ET 248), 118 (ST 277); Halm Aesop Nos. 105, 106; Dähnhardt IV 275; Herbert III 8; *Crane Vitry 176 No. 101; Jacobs Aesop 203 No. 12; Africa (Fang): Tessman 27ff., (Pangwe): ibid. 362ff.

J621.1.1. J621.1.1. Snake gives away magic pills later used to kill him. India: Thompson-Balys.

J622. J622. Preventing the birth of enemies.

J622.1. J622.1. Wise man destroys serpent's eggs. *Fb "hugorm"; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J622.1.1. J622.1.1. Swallow advises hen against hatching out serpent's eggs. She is hatching her own destruction. Wienert FFC LVI 63 (ET 255), 147 (ST 516); Halm Aesop No. 342.

J623. J623. Prevention of hostility by inspiring fear in enemy.

J623.1. J623.1. Snake complains to Zeus that people step on him. Zeus: "If you had bitten the first foot that stepped on you it would not be done now." Wienert FFC LVI 77 (ET 430), 128 (ST 364); Halm Aesop No. 347.

J624. J624. Uniting against a common enemy.

J624.1. J624.1. Two sheep kill a fox who has licked up the blood they have spilled in a fight. Chauvin II 87 No. 22; Bødker Exempler 279 No. 22; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: Neuman.

J624.2. J624.2. Sheep-dogs stop quarreling to hunt wolf who has raided the flock. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J624.3. J624.3. Enemy brothers unite to fight a common enemy. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J625. J625. Prevention of hostilities by agreeing to demands while in danger. Barber makes heavy demands of customer while the razor is at his throat. Customer agrees but after the shave throws the barber out. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J626. J626. Prevention of hostilities by disarming the suspect. Later learned that he is a fugitive murderer. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J628. J628. Dissuasion from suicide. Man dissuades simpleton from hanging himself by telling him that hell is a place of pain and torments. Spanish: Childers.

J631. J631. Crab takes hold of heron's neck and fearing attack cuts neck and kills him. India: Thompson-Balys.

J634. J634. King takes measures against assassination.

J634.1. J634.1. King to avoid possible assassination sings his beard rather than have barber shave him. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J634.2. J634.2. King to avoid possible assassination has queen's quarters searched before he enters. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J640. J640. Avoidance of others' power.

J641. J641. Escaping before enemy can strike.

J641.1. J641.1. One bird escapes as hunter bends his bow; other remains and is shot. (Told also of fish.) *Type 246; Wienert FFC LVI 61 (ET 233), 108 (ST 205); Halm Aesop No. 85; Chauvin II 88.

J642. J642. Foolishness of surrendering weapons.

J642.1. J642.1. Lion suitor allows his teeth to be pulled and his claws to be cut. He is then killed. Wienert FFC LVI 45 (ET 32), 70 (ET 344), 107 (ST 198); Halm Aesop No. 249; *Basset RTP XXVI 126; Africa: Weeks Jungle 450.

J642.2. J642.2. Robbers persuaded to give hero sword with which they are afterwards killed. Africa (Somali): Tiling ZsES XVIII 139ff. No. 6.

J643. J643. Care against future tyranny.

J643.1. J643.1. Frogs demand a live king. King Log. Zeus has given them a log as king, but they find him too quiet. He then gives them a stork who eats them. Wienert FFC LVI *78 (ET 436), 110 (ST 217); Halm Aesop No. 76; *Crane Vitry 143 No. 24; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *277; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV No. *277; Russian: Andrejev No. 277; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J643.2. J643.2. Kite as king of chickens. Herbert III 35.

J643.3. J643.3. Lion as king of animals reinstated after elephant is tired. India: Thompson-Balys.

J644. J644. Avoiding places which have been fatal to others.

J644.1. J644.1. Fox sees all tracks going into lion's den but none coming out. He saves himself. Wienert FFC LVI *53 (ET 131), 96 (ST 92); Halm Aesop No. 246, cf. No. 262; Jacobs Aesop 217 No. 73; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *50A; India: Thompson-Balys; N. A Indian (Tuxtapec): Mechling JAFL XXV 203; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 189, (Hottentot): Bleek 19 No. 10; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 243 No. 18.

J645. J645. Avoiding power of future enemy.

J645.1. J645.1. Birds flee from cuckoo who, they believe, will later become a hawk. Wienert FFC LVI 55 (ET 149), 119 (ST 290); Halm Aesop No. 198.

J646. J646. Disregard advice of your enemy.

J646.1. J646.1. Palamides, having injured Ulysses, seeks advice from him. Following the advice proves fatal. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No 441.

J646.2. J646.2. Bird hears voices from within unhatched eggs and flies away: voices plot to dine on their bird-mother when they are born. India: Thompson-Balys.

J647. J647. Avoiding enemy's revenge.

J647.1. J647.1. Avoid enemies' revenge either by making peace and friendship or by killing them all. So says old man to conqueror. Pauli (ed. Bolte) Nos. 544, 545.

J647.2. J647.2. Advice not to rob women while they are alone, for fear of returning husbands' revenge. Icelandic: örvar-Odds saga 24—27, Boberg.

J648. J648. Care against future imprisonment.

J648.1. J648.1. Monkeys planning to found a city desist lest with walls up it will be easier to catch them than before. Wienert FFC LVI *61 (ET 240), 108 (ST 200); Halm Aesop No. 361.

J651. J651. Inattention to danger.

J651.1. J651.1. Throstle giving all attention to sweet fruits is caught by bird catcher. Wienert FFC LVI 66 (ET 298), 107 (ST 195); Halm Aesop No. 194.

J651.2. J651.2. Man inattentive to the danger of drowning enters water to save treasure and is drowned. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J652. J652. Inattention to warnings. Icelandic: *Boberg; Missouri French: Carrière; West Indies: Flowers 477.

J652.1. J652.1. Frog persists in living in puddle on road. Disregards advice of another frog and is run over. Wienert FFC LVI 59 (ET 203), 118 (ST 279); Halm Aesop No. 75; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 704.

J652.2. J652.2. Swallows warn other birds against roosting in tree with glue. They disregard and are caught. Wienert FFC LVI 62 (ET 249), 118 (ST 277); Halm Aesop No. 417; Dh IV 274ff.

J652.3. J652.3. Man disregards priest's warning that he will seduce his wife. Adultery committed. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J652.4. J652.4. Warnings against certain peoples.

J652.4.1. J652.4.1. Hector warns Trojans against attacking the stronger Greeks. Warning disregarded. Disastrous defeat. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J652.4.2. J652.4.2. Don't play tricks on Gascons. Heptameron No. 28.

J655. J655. Approaching danger too familiarly.

J655.1. J655.1. Birds discuss the trap. One of them is caught in it. Type 245*; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 110.

J655.2. J655.2. Fox jeers at fox-trap. Is caught. Type 68*.

J656. J656. Avoiding things which are harmful by nature.

J656.1. J656.1. Thornbush blamed by fox for wounding him. He should have known better than to lay hold of something whose nature is to lay hold of others. Wienert FFC LVI 73 (ET 386), 122 (ST 310); Halm Aesop No. 32.

J657. J657. Care in selecting the creature to carry one.

J657.1. J657.1. Youth trusts self to horse over which he has no control. Thrown off. Wienert FFC LVI *71 (ET 358), 109 (ST 210; cf. 533); Halm Aesop No. 302.

J657.2. J657.2. Tortoise lets self be carried by eagle. Dropped and eaten. *Wienert FFC LVI 46, 50 Nos. 51, 98; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J657.3. J657.3. Crane persuades fish to let him change him from one lake into another: he eats fish. India: Thompson-Balys.

J670. J670. Forethought in defences against others.

J671. J671. Practical and impractical defences.

J671.1. J671.1. Belling the cat. Mice decide that a bell should be put on the cat but can find no one to tie it on her. *Type 110; Wienert FFC LVI 53 (ET 128), 96 (ST 97); Halm Aesop No. 15; Jacobs Aesop 216 No. 67; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 260 No. 213, *Arlotto II 226 No. 93; *Baum MLN XXXIV (1919) 462; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 634; Dh IV 145ff.; Herbert III 36ff. — Spanish Exempla: Keller; American Negro: Harris Nights 311 No. 53.

J672. J672. Defences by strengthening one's own weakest spots.

J672.1. J672.1. Ears stopped with wax to avoid enchanting song. Odysseus and the Sirens. Chauvin VII 98 No. 375 n. 4; Köhler-Bolte I 125; Irish myth: *Cross; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Greek: Fox 137, 263; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J672.2. J672.2. Cotton put in ears so as not to hear abusive words. India: Thompson-Balys.

J673. J673. Defence when one needs it most. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J673.1. J673.1. Armor ordered thin in front and thick in back, since it would be most needed in flight. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 543.

J674. J674. Defences in and out of season.

J674.1. J674.1. Wild-boar sharpens tusks when no enemy is in sight. Tells fox that when enemy comes there are other things to do. Wienert FFC LVI 61 (ET 237), 108 (ST 203); Halm Aesop No. 407.

J674.2. J674.2. Man decides to make himself strong in peaceful times rather than wait until attacked. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J675. J675. Man slays another in order not to be slain himself. Icelandic: Boberg.

J675.1. J675.1. Son slays father in order not to be slain himself. Icelandic: Boberg.

J676. J676. Youthful fencer yields to infuriated opponent who has picked up a pestle. "Two against me. I surrender." Spanish: Childers.

J677. J677. Foolishness of king's taking a washerman for chief minister; washerman makes no preparation for war and kingdom is conquered. India: Thompson-Balys.

J680. J680. Forethought in alliances. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J681. J681. Alliances which make both parties more vulnerable.

J681.1. J681.1. Rat and frog tie paws together to cross marsh. Carried off by falcon. *Chauvin II 123 No. 117; Scala Celi 73a No. 416; *Crane Vitry 135 No. 3; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 124 (cf. No. 125).

J681.1.1. J681.1.1. Jackal and leopard tie tails together for mutual protection. Frightened, they run apart and injure each other. India: Thompson-Balys.

J682. J682. Foolishness of alliances with the weak.

J682.1. J682.1. Foxes desert their allies, the hares, when they foresee defeat by the eagle. Wienert FFC LVI 48 (ET 64), 106 (ST 187); Halm Aesop No. 236.

J683. J683. Foolishness of attacking real allies.

J683.1. J683.1. Ass turns on his driver who would save him from falling over the precipice. Wienert FFC LVI 72 (ET 375), 118 (ST 283); Halm Aesop No. 335.

J683.2. J683.2. Tame doves close wild ones in trap and thus help common enemies. Wienert FFC LVI 52 (ET 112, 310), 143 (ST 493).

J683.3. J683.3. Tame fox helps dogs against wild foxes. Is no longer trusted by latter. Nouvelles Récréations No. 29.

J684. J684. Alliances with the strong.

J684.1. J684.1. Fox with lion protector goes hunting alone and is killed. Wienert FFC LVI *59 (ET 214), 92 (ST 58); Halm Aesop No. 41.

J684.2. J684.2. Foolishness of taking on too strong a partner: crow crowds sparrow out of its nest. India: Thompson-Balys.

J684.3. J684.3. Tortoise joins peacock in dance. Cannot escape hunter; peacock flies off. India: Thompson-Balys.

J684.4. J684.4. Victorious ally feared by others. Jewish: Neuman.

J685. J685. Alliances with the intelligent.

J685.1. J685.1. Man, lion, and bear in pit. Bear tells lion not to eat the man, since he would grow hungry again. Rather they should have the man use his intelligence to get them out. Chauvin III 64 No. 29.

J689. J689. Forethought in alliances — miscellaneous. Wienert FFC LVI 48, 59, 60, 66 (ET 77, 205, 218, 302), 101, 102, 114 (ST 142, 153, 242); Halm Aesop Nos. 147, 421.

J700—J749.

J700—J749. FORETHOUGHT IN PROVISION FOR LIFE

J700. J700. Forethought in provision for life (general).

J701. J701. Provision for the future.

J701.1. J701.1. Planting for the next generation. Man who is planting tree told that it will never mature in his day. He is planting for the next generation. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 235 No. 516; Chauvin II 208 No. 75; Jewish: *Neuman.

J701.2. J701.2. King improves kingdom before leaving it to his sons. He leaves it smaller but much stronger and richer. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J702. J702. Necessity of work.

J702.1. J702.1. Dervish who stops work. Sees bird feed its young and decides that God takes care of everyone without work. He is shown his mistake. Chauvin II 115 No. 89.

J702.2. J702.2. King (queen) teaches children to work at all tasks to prepare them for life's possible hazards. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J703. J703. Planning for the greater office.

J703.1. J703.1. Looking for the keys of the abbey. Monk goes about with downcast eyes until he is made abbot; then lives in luxury. He explains that he was looking for the keys of the abbey. Now he has them. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 500.

J703.2. J703.2. "Eat small fish now if you wish larger ones later." Bishop refuses to eat small fish as he used to when an abbot. "Then I used small fish to catch big ones I have now!" Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J705. J705. Safe provision for life not to be lightly surrendered.

J705.1. J705.1. Priest must give up his charge or his mistress. Gives up his parish and immediately loses his fickle mistress. Wesselski Mönchslein No. 41; *Crane Vitry 234 No. 241; Herbert III 19.

J706. J706. Acquisition of wealth.

J706.1. J706.1. Be diligent and spend little: how to become wealthy. Advice of a self-made man. Nouvelles Récréations No. 53.

J707. J707. Wealth is most important. India: Thompson-Balys.

J710. J710. Forethought in provision for food.

J711. J711. In time of plenty provide for want.

J711.1. J711.1. Ant and lazy cricket (grasshopper). Lazy bird is put to shame by thrift of industrious bird. In winter he is in distress. *Type 249; *Chauvin III 58 No. 19; Wienert FFC LVI 55 (ET 156, 157), 126 (ST 347); Halm Aesop No. 295, 401; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 845; Jacobs Aesop 208 No. 36.—Italian Novella: Rotunda; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 451.

J711.2. J711.2. Improvident mouse eats grain stored for famine. Loss is discovered and grain placed elsewhere. Mouse, who has saved nothing, starves. *Chauvin II 115 No. 90.

J711.3. J711.3. King for a year provides for future. Knowing that the custom is that he is to be deposed in a year, he sends provisions to a safe place out of the kingdom. *Crane Vitry 137 No. 9; Herbert III 63, 191; Oesterley Gesta Romanorum No. 224; *Chauvin II 160 No. 49, 192 No. 9, III 101 No. 8; Scala Celi No. 134; Alphabet No. 655.—Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 36, 275f.

J711.4. J711.4. Wise man stores grain against coming famine. Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

J711.5. J711.5. Industrious ant works always at his harvest to keep it dry. Ant brings stored grain out into sun to keep it safe. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J712. J712. Food alone keeps off hunger.

J712.1. J712.1. City without provisions but with much money starves. Chauvin V 34 No. 16; Jewish: Neuman.

J713. J713. Make use of proper seasons for crops.

J713.1. J713.1. Lazy boy vainly asks God of the Seasons to delay the plowing season. India: Thompson-Balys.

J715. J715. Kindness unwise when it imperils one's food supply.

J715.1. J715.1. Eagle warns shepherds that wolf is eating sheep. Crow rebukes eagle for thus imperiling his own food supply. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 36 No. 229*.

J730. J730. Forethought in provision for clothing.

J731. J731. Do not discard clothing till cold weather is over.

J731.1. J731.1. More than one swallow to make a summer. Spendthrift youth seeing swallow concludes that summer has come and sells his clothes. There is frost the next day and he is cold. Wienert FFC LVI 70 (ET 348), 122 (ST 316); Halm Aesop No. 304.

J740. J740. Forethought in provision for shelter.

J741. J741. Build shelter for the whole year.

J741.1. J741.1. Bear builds house of wood; fox of ice. Fox's house fails him in summer.
*Type 43; Missouri French: Carrière.

J750—J799.

J750—J799. FORETHOUGHT—MISCELLANEOUS

J751. J751. Consider difficulties of course you are about to undertake.

J751.1. J751.1. Truth the best policy. Servant about to be caught for theft rehearses the lie he is to tell his master. He finds lies so transparent that he decides to tell the truth.
Wesselski Märchen 200.

J751.1.1. J751.1.1. Lady answers queen so straightforwardly she gets light punishment.
Heptameron No. 21.

J752. J752. In planning future, profit by the past.

J752.1. J752.1. Frogs decide not to jump into the well. Their spring having dried up, they consider jumping into a well. They decide that the well may also dry up. Wienert FFC LVI 59 (ET 202), 108 (ST 201); Halm Aesop No. 74; Italian Novella: Rotunda (J742).

J753. J753. Remove obstacles from path.

J753.1. J753.1. The only person in the bath. Servant reports to master that there is but one person in the public bath Master finds three hundred. Only one person had removed stone from his path; rest had stubbed toes. He was only one worthy of the name of man.
Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 604.

J755. J755. All aspects of a plan must be foreseen.

J755.1. J755.1. The forgotten wind. Man allowed to manage the weather forgets to ask help of the wind. All goes wrong and he must give up management. *Type 752B; *Fb "vind" III 1059a.

J756. J756. Advice after the event valueless.

J756.1. J756.1. Doctor gives advice after patient dies. Scorned for lack of foresight.
Wienert FFC LVI *84 (ET 509), 108 (ST 204); Halm Aesop No. 169.

J758. J758. Beware of following an interested adviser. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J758.1. J758.1. Tailless fox tries in vain to induce foxes to cut off tails. *Basset RTP XXVI 267; Jacobs Aesop 215 No. 65.

J758.1.1. J758.1.1. Noseless man persuades fools to cut off noses. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J758.1.2. J758.1.2. Tailless jackal persuades other jackals to cut off tails. India: Thompson-Balys.

J758.2. J758.2. Crane advises fool to empty reservoir so he can reap all grain. Crane eats fish left at bottom. India: Thompson-Balys.

J758.3. J758.3. Fish refuse fox's invitation to live on dry land and thus escape danger of fishermen. Jewish: *Neuman.

J761. J761. Old age must be planned for.

J761.1. J761.1. Child finds gray hair in wicked father's head. Father sees that it is time for him to reform. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 292.

J761.2. J761.2. Fourth horse must carry all. Miller has four horses to carry grain. He uses only one, so that it soon dies. Four horses are childhood, youth, manhood, and old age. Don't heap all burden of securing salvation on the fourth horse, old age. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 291.

J761.3. J761.3. Adulteress prepares for old age. Charges a pair of shoes to consort with men. When old she pays with shoes the men who will consort with her. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J762. J762. Leave a loophole for escape.

J762.1. J762.1. Priest keeps in container relic which when kissed renders people immune from pestilence. They only kiss container, so that if they die he will not be held responsible. Wesselski Bebel I 144 No. 62.

J765. J765. Mark the way one is going in an unfamiliar country. Icelandic: Boberg.

J766. J766. Do not work yourself out of employment.

J766.1. J766.1. Cat only drives rats away; if she killed them she would no longer have employment. India: Thompson-Balys.

J800—J849.

J800—J849. Adaptability.

J810. J810. Policy in dealing with the great.

J811. J811. Wisdom of concessions to power.

J811.1. J811.1. The lion's share. Ass divides booty equally between himself, fox, and lion. Lion eats ass. Fox then divides: gives lion meat and he takes bones. *Type 51; Wienert FFC LVI 59 (ET 213), 110 (ST 220); Halm Aesop No. 260; Jacobs Aesop 200 No. 4; Herbert III *14, 39ff.; *Crane Vitry 199 No. 158. — Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: Rotunda; American Negro: Harris Nights 334 No. 58.

J811.1.1. J811.1.1. Lion divides the booty. Best part goes to himself as king of beasts; second, as strongest; third, as most valiant; fourth—"touch it if you dare." Wienert FFC LVI *59 (ET 216), *148 (ST 530); Halm Aesop No 258; *K. Gorski Die Fabel vom Löwenanteil in ihrer geschichtlichen Entwicklung (Berlin, 1888).

J811.2. J811.2. Fox refuses to mediate between lion and lioness. Lion decides to abandon lioness because of her bad odor. Ass, hog, and fox as judges. Ass says she has bad odor: lioness slaps him. Hog says she has not: lion slaps him. Fox says that he has a bad cold and cannot smell. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 29 No. 52*.

J811.3. J811.3. King honors poet and critic: the first so that he will honor the king; the second, so that he will not dishonor him. Spanish: Childers.

J811.4. J811.4. Ruler angered by evil spoken of him is placated by soft words of speakers. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J811.5. J811.5. Prime minister bribes priest to persuade king that ocean of milk he wishes sought for had curdled. India: Thompson-Balys.

J811.6. J811.6. Fox with three hundred fables ready to tell against lion conveniently forgets them. Jewish: Neuman.

J814. J814. Flattery of the great.

J814.1. J814.1. Imprisoned musician defends himself. Has been imprisoned because the king did not like the way the musician looked at him. After a year the king returns as a conqueror and sees musician. The latter says that he saw the king's conquests in a vision and was blessing him when he looked at him. The musician is honored. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 255 No. 188.

J814.2. J814.2. Flatterer always agrees with king even in opposite opinions; defense: he is king's servant. India: Thompson-Balys.

J814.3. J814.3. "High-born alone recognizes one of equal rank with himself." Jackal sees man with instrument he is unfamiliar with, comes up to him and salutes him "Lord of Delhi." Man calls him Lord of Jungle and tells above. India: Thompson-Balys.

J814.4. J814.4. Flattery of the wicked to escape death at his hands: "This is an offering to my lord Esau from his slave Jacob". Jewish: Neuman.

J814.5. J814.5. Dissenting minister to king: "Let the king do as seems good in his eyes". Jewish: Neuman.

J815. J815. Unpleasant truths must be withheld from the great.

J815.1. J815.1. Liar rewarded by the apes. King of apes asks visitors how they like his children (courtiers). Truthful visitor tells that they are very ugly, and is punished. Liar praises their beauty and receives reward. Types 48, 68; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 381; *Gerber MLN IV (1889) 479; Wienert FFC LVI 47 (ET 53), 104 (ST 168); Alphabet No. 33; Scala Celi No. 36.

J815.2. J815.2. Brother who conforms to naked people's customs honored. Two brothers go to the land of Naked People. One of the brothers wears clothes and is punished. Wesselski Archiv Orientální I 80.

J815.3. J815.3. Muddy bath prepared for blemished king. Irish myth: Cross.

J816. J816. Tact in reproofing the great.

J816.1. J816.1. King brought to sense of duty by feigned conversation of birds. Philosopher pretends to know bird's language and to be translating what they tell him. *Basset 1001 Contes II 452; Chauvin II 153 No. 21, *VIII 129f. No. 119; Wesselski Märchen 220 No. 34; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J816.1.1. J816.1.1. King living apart from wife brought to sense of duty by philosopher.

Asks if there is harmony among the cities and republics of Greece: philosopher tells him to ask it of his own house. Spanish: Childers.

J816.2. J816.2. King called baker's son: he has given the poet only loaves of bread. King sees jest and rewards poet. Nouvelles Récréations No. 4.

J816.3. J816.3. King brought to sense of duty by woman's words. Drunken king sentences unjustly. Woman asks to appear before the king before he has dined. Her case is retried. Spanish: Childers.

J816.4. J816.4. Woman tactfully restrains amorous king. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J817. J817. A soft answer turneth away wrath. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J817.1. J817.1. Man called a rogue by a nobleman makes a joke of the insult. He thus avoids trouble. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 476.

J817.2. J817.2. Physician willing to believe in four persons. Angers a theologian by disputing doctrine of the Trinity. "Don't get angry," he says; "rather than have you condemn me to hell, I would believe in four persons." Wesselski Bebel I 163 No. 98.

J817.2.1. J817.2.1. King makes absurd statement about flowers. Flatterer agrees: it is the king he serves, not the wretched flowers. India: Thompson-Balys.

J817.3. J817.3. With a silent person one is alone. Angered bishop will not answer when addressed. Relents when priest says, "Since there is no one here I may heed the call of Nature." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J818. J818. Care in advising a king.

J818.1. J818.1. Yogi advises yogi blood for making king's leaky tank hold water: king cuts off yogi's head. India: Thompson-Balys.

J821. J821. Keeping on good terms with hostile gods.

J821.1. J821.1. Dog asks raven why he sacrifices to Athene, since she hates raven because of his powers of augury. "The more reason to sacrifice. She will keep on good terms with me." Wienert FFC LVI 61 (ET 231), 143 (ST 490); Halm Aesop No. 213.

J822. J822. Man plays fool to protect himself in dealing with king.

J822.1. J822.1. Man pretends idiocy so as to avoid compromising himself when summoned to testify by two rival queens before the king. India: Thompson-Balys.

J823. J823. Man recounts unpleasant happening to king when in good humor and draws laugh; rest draw punishment. India: Thompson-Balys.

J829. J829. Dealing with the great—miscellaneous.

J829.1. J829.1. The king and the cheap slippers. Steward buys the king a pair of slippers. King thinks not enough has been paid for them and refuses them. Steward buys another like the first and charges a good price. Learns that this is the way to deal with kings. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 162.

J829.2. J829.2. Devil decides to leave of own accord. It is decided to drive the devil out of a man who is possessed. Devil sees the inevitable and flees so that they cannot say that he has been driven off. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 159.

J829.3. J829.3. Vanquished ruler in disguise gets audience with victor. "What would you do if your enemy were to kneel before you and beg forgiveness?" "I would forgive him." Reveals identity and is pardoned. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J830. J830. Adaptability to overpowering force.

J831. J831. Mohammed goes to the mountain (tree) when the mountain will not come to him. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin *II 190 No. 372.

J832. J832. Reeds bend before wind (flood). Save themselves while oak is uprooted. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 174; Wienert FFC LVI 73 (ET 387), 107 (ST 190, 243); Halm Aesop No. 179; E. Grawi Die Fabel vom Baum und dem Schilfrohr in der Weltliteratur (Rostock Diss., 1911). —India: Thompson-Balys; Jewish: Neuman.

J833. J833. Ass foolish to kick against the pricks. Wienert FFC LVI 71 (ET 357), 140 (ST 468).

J834. J834. Fire burns man who doesn't understand it. Useful when one knows how to use it. Wienert FFC LVI *80 (ET 467), 121 (ST 306).

J835. J835. Wit interprets unfavorable decision of court as doing him great honor. Nouvelles Récréations No. 37.

J850-J899.

J850-J899. CONSOLATION IN MISFORTUNE

J860. J860. Consolation by a trifle.

J861. J861. Consolation for misfortune found in food.

J861.1. J861.1. Consoled by a drop of honey. Man in pit surrounded by perils thus comforts himself. Kuhn Der Mann in Brunnen (Stuttgart, 1888); *Chauvin II 85 No. 17, III 100 No. 6; Bødker Exempler 276 No. 16; Herbert Catalogue of Romances III 12; *Crane Vitry 191 No. 134; Alphabet No. 623.—Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J861.2. J861.2. Man on sinking ship eats salt. Otherwise he will not enjoy the large amount of water that he must drink. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 235; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J861.3. J861.3. Mouse (fly) dying in meat tub is happy that he has eaten to satisfaction. Wienert FFC LVI *64 (ET 274), *143 (ST 495); Halm Aesop No. 292.

J864. J864. Comfort in the contemplation of impossible pleasure.

J864.1. J864.1. Fox stumbles over violin. Chased from chicken coop by dogs. When he stumbles he says, "What a fine opportunity to dance if I had time!" Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 33 No. 135A, Espinosa Jr. No. 24.

J864.2. J864.2. Fox about to be hanged asks to be allowed to see geese. (Cf. J2174.) Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 29.

J865. J865. Consolation by thinking of some good aspect of a situation.

J865.1. J865.1. "But by a fine fellow!" Dying toad thus comforts his paramour, the frog, whom he is leaving neither married nor widow nor maiden and pregnant. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 38 No. 288A*.

J866. J866. Consolation by thinking of the past.

J866.1. J866.1. Unsuccessful fishermen console themselves that their earlier high hopes balance up their disappointment. Wienert FFC LVI 66 (ET 300), 133 (ST 324); Halm Aesop No. 23.

J867. J867. Mutual and undeserved compliments: donkey to camel, "What a beauty you are"; latter answers, "What a sweet voice you have." India: Thompson-Balys.

J869. J869. Consolation by a trifle—miscellaneous.

J869.1. J869.1. Doves in net console themselves because they think trapper's tears are from pity for them. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J870. J870. Consolation by pretending that one does not want the thing he cannot have.

J871. J871. The fox and the sour grapes. Pretends that the grapes he cannot reach are sour. Wienert FFC LVI 63 (ET 267), 125 (ST 336); Halm Aesop No. 33; Scala Celi 52b No. 292; Jacobs Aesop 207 No. 31; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 30 No. 66a*; Jewish: Neuman.

J871.1. J871.1. Fox asking for favor set on by dogs. Thankful to have saved life. India: Thompson-Balys.

J873. J873. Fox in swollen river claims to be swimming to distant town. Wienert FFC LVI 62 (ET 244), 125 (ST 339); Halm Aesop No. 30; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 30 No. 66B*.

J873.1. J873.1. Jackal covers up his inability to cross stream by saying he is looking for shallowest part. India: Thompson-Balys.

J873.2. J873.2. Clever jackal covers up his clumsiness in catching cows by saying he was running to and fro because he was looking for the fattest calf. India: Thompson-Balys.

J874. J874. Dog driven out of dining room claims to be drunk. Says that he has drunk so much that he does not know how he got out of the house. Wienert FFC LVI 68 (ET 322), 125 (ST 338); Halm Aesop No. 62.

J875. J875. Warrior having lost a city claims that he did not wish to sell it for a higher price. Wesselski Bebel I 118 No. 1.

J876. J876. Headless king and tailless tiger, each afraid of other, agree to be friends. India: Thompson-Balys.

J877. J877. Scorned suitor consoles himself by realization that a wife who did not love him would be constant source of trouble. Nouvelles de Sens No. 3.

J880. J880. Consolation by thought of others worse placed.

J881. J881. Timid animal consoled when he sees others more timid.

J881.1. J881.1. More timid than the hare. Hares take heart when they see that frogs are more timid than they. *Type 70; *Dh IV 97ff.; Wienert FFC LVI *62 (ET 245), 116 (ST 266); Halm Aesop No. 237; Jacobs Aesop 204 No. 15.

J881.2. J881.2. Lion comforted for his fear of the cock. Finds that elephant is afraid of the gnat. Wienert FFC LVI 77 (ET 428), 116 (ST 267); Halm Aesop No. 261.

J882. J882. Man with unfaithful wife comforted.

J882.1. J882.1. Man with unfaithful wife comforted when he sees the queen's unfaithfulness. Wesselski Märchen 185 No. 1; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J882.2. J882.2. Man with unfaithful wife comforted when he sees jealous husband who carefully guards wife cuckolded. *Wesselski Märchen 185 No. 1; Köhler-Bolte II 625; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

J882.3. J882.3. Man whose wife gives him bath only once a week comforted by one who does so once a year. India: Thompson-Balys.

J883. J883. Poor man consoles self by thinking of misfortunes of rich.

J883.1. J883.1. Man compelled to live on peas takes comfort when he sees a man once rich eating the hulls. Chauvin II 150 No. 10; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J883.2. J883.2. Man in cold consoles himself thinking of rich men in hell or prison. Herbert III 8; Crane Vitry 179 No. 108.

J885. J885. Clever person's defeat pleases inferior.

J885.1. J885.1. Hare upbraided by sparrow for letting self be carried off by eagle rejoices when sparrow is carried off by hawk. Wienert FFC LVI 56 (ET 164), 103 (ST 160).

J890. J890. Consolation in misfortune—miscellaneous.

J891. J891. Enemy horses captured by lion join forces and become friends. Chauvin II 150 No. 9; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J893. J893. Consolation: spiritual recompense for temporal misfortune.

J893.1. J893.1. Consolation: priest tells blind man that even flies have eyes but only man has the inner eyes of the soul. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J900—J999.

J900—J999. Humility.

J900. J900. Humility.

J901. J901. The seven daughters of Humility. Irish myth: *Cross.

J902. J902. Humility of angels. Jewish: *Neuman.

J903. J903. Humility one of the qualifications of a prophet. Jewish: Neuman.

J904. J904. Judge should possess humility and modesty. Jewish: Neuman.

J905. J905. Humility of the wise "Sons of the East". (Cf. J191.) Jewish: Neuman.

J910. J910. Humility of the great.

J911. J911. Wise man acknowledges his ignorance.

J911.1. J911.1. Men not chosen for their ignorance; else he should have reached heaven. Upbraided for not knowing answer to question, man answers that he was chosen for his position because of what he knew, not of what he did not know. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 224 No. 462.

J912. J912. Wise man humble in death.

J912.1. J912.1. King orders piece of cloth shown after his death. The measure of all that he has taken with him to the grave. Herbert III 10; *Crane Vitry 185 No. 119; Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 24; Wesselski Mönchslatein 67 No. 54; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J912.2. J912.2. King refuses to have fine tomb erected for him since his stay on earth is so unimportant. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J912.3. J912.3. Rich man humbled by realization that he cannot take his wealth with him. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J913. J913. King has earthen vessels placed on table among the golden ones. He had formerly been a potter and prefers the vessels which he had made to the ones now molding him. Spanish: Childers.

J914. J914. King shows humility by mingling with common people.

J914.1. J914.1. King David dances with common youths before the Ark of the Covenant. He humbles self to please God. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J915. J915. King of humble lineage cannot be flattered. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J916. J916. Abbot to avoid vainglory receives judge in rags. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J917. J917. Opposing wise men humble themselves and become friends. Jewish: Neuman.

J918. J918. Empress sews and shows she is not too noble to work. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J921. J921. Noble and ugly holy man embraces man who calls him ugly, saying he loves those who see him as he really is. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J950. J950. Presumption of the lowly.

J951. J951. Lowly masks as great.

J951.1. J951.1. Ass in lion's skin unmasked when he raises his voice. DeCock Volkssage 184ff.; Wienert FFC LVI 57 (ET 175, 176), *91 (ST 38), 93 (ST 69); Halm Aesop Nos. 333, 336; Jacobs Aesop 211 No. 49; *Chauvin II 224 No. 22. — Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys, Penzer V 99 n. 3.

J951.2. J951.2. Jay in peacock's (pigeon's) skin unmasked. Type 244; Wienert FFC LVI 47, 57 (ET 61, 173), *93 (ST 66, 67, 68); Halm Aesop Nos. 200, 201, 201b; Jacobs Aesop 205 No. 21; Scala Celi 80b No. 461; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J951.3. J951.3. Crow tries to prophesy like raven: detected by his voice. Wienert FFC LVI 73, (ET 387), 92 (ST 42); Halm Aesop No. 212.

J951.4. J951.4. Weasel paints self to deceive mice. Detected. Wienert FFC LVI *53 (ET 133), 87 (ST 7); Halm Aesop No. 87.

J951.4.1. J951.4.1. Painted jackal admitted neither to the peacocks nor to the jackals. India: Thompson-Balys.

J951.5. J951.5. King of jackals captured because of his large banner. India: Thompson-Balys.

J952. J952. Lowly animal tries to move among his superiors. Detected.

J952.1. J952.1. Presumptuous wolf among lions. Large wolf, called by his companions "Lion". Presumes to mix with lions but is only a wolf. Wienert FFC LVI 58 (ET 188), 91 (ST 36); Halm Aesop No. 272.

J952.2. J952.2. Ass follows after lion and is punished. Ass and cock are surprised by lion. Cock crows and scares lion, who runs. Ass thinks that he has scared lion and pursues. Wienert FFC LVI 57 (ET 174), 92 (ST 53); Halm Aesop No. 323.

J952.3. J952.3. Dog follows lion. Flees at lion's roar. Wienert FFC LVI 57 (ET 184), 91 (ST 35); Halm Aesop No. 226.

J952.4. J952.4. Ass who has worked with ox thinks himself equal to ox. Wienert FFC LVI 57 (ET 178), 91 (ST 39); Halm Aesop No. 104.

J952.5. J952.5. Frog heaps abuse on bullock, who scorns him. India: Thompson-Balys.

J953. J953. Self-deception of the lowly.

J953.1. J953.1. Dog proud of his clog. Thinks that the clog on his neck is a decoration. Wienert FFC LVI 57 (ET 183), 91 (ST 34); Halm Aesop No. 224.

J953.2. J953.2. Bad singer thinks he is talented: driven from theatre. Wienert FFC LVI 82 (ET 481), 93 (ST 72); Halm Aesop No. 193.

J953.2.1. J953.2.1. Bad writer who praises himself reprimanded. Wienert FFC LVI 85 (ET 515), 91 ST 41).

J953.3. J953.3. Flute-player thinks song meant for the prince is sung to him. Punished for presumption. Wienert FFC LVI 81 (ET 478), 93 (ST 71).

J953.4. J953.4. Ass who carried divine image thinks people bow before him. Wienert FFC LVI 57 (ET 177), 94 (ST 74); Halm Aesop No. 324.

J953.5. J953.5. Disdain of the wolf for the dog. Is fleeing from dog's master not from him. Wienert FFC LVI *55 (ET 150), 91 (ST 33); Halm Aesop No. 230.

J953.6. J953.6. Gnats think they have thrown horse down. He has only rolled over. *Type 281; Russian: Andrejev No. 281; India: Thompson-Balys.

J953.7. J953.7. Crow thinks harvesters are stealing his grain. *Type 243.

J953.8. J953.8. Woman in finery in church thinks people are standing up to see her when they rise at gospel reading. Wesselski Bebel II 138 No. 119.

J953.9. J953.9. Spider thinks that it has held back the wind. Indonesian: DeVries's list No. 138.

J953.10. J953.10. Gnats apologize for lighting on bull's horn. He had not felt their weight. Wienert FFC LVI *57 (ET 186), 92 (ST 49); Halm Aesop No. 235; India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 136.

J953.10.1. J953.10.1. Raven riding on bull's horns thinks he has brought bull home. India: Thompson-Balys.

J953.11. J953.11. Crow alighting on falling tree thinks his weight made it fall. Penzer III 70 n. 1; Bloomfield Am Journ. Philol. XL 1.

J953.12. J953.12. Glowworm thinks he shines like stars. India: Thompson-Balys.

J953.13. J953.13. Fox thinks his elongated shadow at sunrise makes him as large as elephant. India: Thompson-Balys.

J953.14. J953.14. Jackal falls into dye vat, tries to pose as peacock: detected. India: Thompson-Balys.

J953.15. J953.15. Animals each think moon shines for his benefit. India: Thompson-Balys.

J953.16. J953.16. Owl thinks echoes of his hoots are sounds of praise. India: Thompson-Balys.

J953.17. J953.17. Rat imagines himself owner of camel. He is attached to camel by string. India: Thompson-Balys.

J953.18. J953.18. Rag accidentally in king's wardrobe thinks it is a ribbon. India: Thompson-Balys.

J954. J954. Foolish boast of ancestry by lowly.

J954.1. J954.1. Mule as descendant of king's war-horse. Fails to mention his mother. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 170; *Crane Vitry 147 No. 33; Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 30; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J954.2. J954.2. Fox claims that certain statues are of his ancestors. Ape shows that he is a liar. Wienert FFC LVI *44 (ET 17), 100 (ST 140); Halm Aesop No. 43.

J955. J955. Lowly tries in vain to be greater than he is.

J955.1. J955.1. Frog tries in vain to be as big as ox. Bursts. Jacobs Aesop 205 No. 22; Wienert FFC LVI 58 (ET 192), 93 (ST 61); Halm Aesop No. 84; *Crane Vitry 145 No. 29; India: Thompson-Balys.

J955.1.1. J955.1.1. Fish swells with pride until it bursts. India: Thompson-Balys.

J955.1.2. J955.1.2. Bird tries to puff itself up to look like peacock. Kills itself. India: Thompson-Balys.

J955.1.2.1. J955.1.2.1. Titmouse ruffles feathers to seem big as a bear. Her young ones know her. Type 228; Africa (Hottentot): Bleek 32 No. 16.

J955.2. J955.2. Servant plays at being emperor. Master sees him and says, "Now that you are emperor remember your humble master." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J955.2.1. J955.2.1. Page dreams of being king. Master asks: "What would you do for me if you were king?" Answer: "Give you 100 ducats." Master beats him for insufficient consideration. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J955.3. J955.3. Servant asks master for arms of knighthood. Is given a stalk of garlic. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J955.3.1. J955.3.1. Peasant asks to be knighted. Is told that he can be made rich but not noble. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J955.4. J955.4. Old simpleton resolves to become a senator. He is made to believe that he is wanted as an archer and is so frightened that he dies. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J956. J956. Ambitious branch chosen king of trees. Vine and fig tree have refused. Scala Celi 8b No. 55; Judges 9: 8.

J957. J957. Presumptuous man before the works of Michelangelo says: "I too am a master". Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J958. J958. Mole pretends that he sees, smells, and hears. His mother tells him to claim no more senses than he has. Wienert FFC LVI 63 (ET 260), 101 (ST 146); Halm Aesop No. 71.

J971. J971. Flies try to drink water from elephant's ears. He kills them. *Chauvin II 89 n. 1.

J972. J972. One cock takes glory of another's valor. Victor in cock fight crows over his victory. He is taken off by eagle. A second cock then comes out from hiding and struts about among the hens. Wienert FFC LVI 57 (ET 180), 92 (ST 56); Halm Aesop No. 21.

J973. J973. Ass in the potter's shop. (Bull in china shop.) Only breaks the pots *Wienert FFC LVI 40; Halm Aesop No. 190.

J974. J974. Kid perched on house jeers at wolf. (Cf. J978.) Jacobs Aesop 204 No. 16; Wienert FFC LVI 56 (ET 162), 112 (ST 231); Halm Aesop No. 135.

J975. J975. Hare demands equal rights for all animals. Reprimanded for presumption. Wienert FFC LVI 57 (ET 181), 92 (ST 43); Halm Aesop No. 241.

J976. J976. Day after Feast Day disputes importance with Feast Day. Former reprimanded. Wienert FFC LVI 43 (ET 10), 92 (ST 52); Halm Aesop No. 133.

J977. J977. After one day of schooling children are ordered by their father to cease associating with the unlearned. Wesselski Bebel I 170 No. 5.

J978. J978. Boaster of victory over a weaker person reprimanded. Wienert FFC LVI 85 (ET 517), 91 (ST 40).

J981. J981. Presumptuous smith chants the Divine Comedy. Dante throws his tools in the street. Blacksmith: "You ruin my work!" Dante: "You ruin mine!" Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J981.1. J981.1. Dante beats a mule driver who chants the Divine Comedy. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J982. J982. Presumptuous officials disregarded by council. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1000—J1099.

J1000—J1099. Other aspects of wisdom.

J1010. J1010. Value of industry.

J1011. J1011. Lazy woman resumes her work. She sees how a little bird by persistence pecks a hole in a stone. Type 843.

J1020. J1020. Strength in unity.

J1021. J1021. The quarreling sons and the bundle of twigs. Peasant puts twigs together and cannot break them. Separately they are easily broken. His sons apply the lesson. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 861; Wienert FFC LVI 83 (ET 491), 111 (ST 228); Halm Aesop No. 103; Jacobs Aesop 217 No. 72.—Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

J1021.1. J1021.1. Sons united make living; separated fail. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1021.2. J1021.2. Preacher teaches beaten Genoese the strength of unity. They are like donkeys—when one is beaten the rest scatter. The enemy are like pigs—stick together in trouble. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1022. J1022. Fight of lions and bulls. Lion succeeds only when bulls separate. Wienert FFC LVI *48 (ET 73), *112 (ST 229); Halm Aesop No. 394.

J1023. J1023. Dog leader fears defeat because his forces are of different breeds. Wolves are all of one kind. Wienert FFC LVI 47 (ET 57), 48 (ET 68), 112 (ST 230); Halm Aesop No. 267; BP III 545f.; Dh IV 104f., 290; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 107.

J1024. J1024. Quails caught in net rise up in a body with net and escape. As soon as they quarrel they are caught. Cowell J[a]taka I 85 No. 33; Benfey Panchatantra II 156ff., 304f.; Bødker Exempler 290 Nos. 45—46; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1024.1. J1024.1. Captured elephants pull all at once and escape from net. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1025. J1025. United cocks defeat partridge. When they quarrel they are defeated. Wienert FFC LVI 48 (ET 70), 135 (ST 409); Halm Aesop No. 22.

J1025.1. J1025.1. Cranes fighting as allies defeat all enemies. If they quarrel they are doomed. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1025.2. J1025.2. Cats unite in battle against a wolf. They destroy wolf. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1030. J1030. Self-dependence.

J1031. J1031. Grain will be cut when farmer attends to it himself. Lark leaves her young in the cornfield. They hear farmer tell sons to go to neighbors for help in harvesting. Lark tells young not to worry. Same when he sends for relatives. Farmer decides to harvest it himself. Larks move, for they now know that it will be done Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 867; Wienert FFC LVI 70 (ET 341), 126 (ST 351); Halm Aesop No. 210; Roumania: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII No. 93.

J1032. J1032. Stag found by master when overlooked by servants. Hides under hay and escapes until master himself comes. *Type 162; Jacobs Aesop 207 No. 30.

J1033. J1033. Gardener who plants vegetable tends it best. Wienert FFC LVI 74 (ET 391), 145 (ST 508); Halm Aesop No. 191.

J1034. J1034. Gods help those who help themselves. Ox driver must put his shoulder to the wheel before Hercules will help him. Wienert FFC LVI *78 (ET 440), 138 (ST 436); Halm Aesop No. 81; Jacobs Aesop 214 No 61. Cf. also Halm Aesop No. 300.

J1040. J1040. Decisiveness of conduct.

J1041. J1041. Impossibility of pleasing everyone. One must act therefore without awaiting everyone's approval.

J1041.1. J1041.1. Weather to please one only. Attempt to please everyone with weather unavailing. Weather given therefore without regard to men's desires. Type 1830; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 218 No. 51; Wienert FFC LVI 83 (ET 495), 121 (ST 304); Halm Aesop No. 166.

J1041.2. J1041.2. Miller, his son, and the ass: trying to please everyone. Miller blamed when he follows his son on foot; when he takes the son's place on the ass; when he takes the son behind him; and when he puts the son in front of him. *Chauvin II 148 No 2, III 70, 145, VIII 140; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 244 No. 541; Herbert III 420; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 577; Scala Celi 135a No. 745; Alphabet No. 765. — England: Baughman; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1050. J1050. Attention to warnings.

J1051. J1051. Death's three messengers. Warns man by loss of appetite, loss of desire for drink, and sickness. Man does not recognize the messengers. *Type 335; *BP III 293; Pauli (ed. Bolte) Nos. 267, 268.

J1052. J1052. Cranes disregard warnings and are killed. Wienert FFC LVI 67 (ET 315), 117 (ST 276).

J1053. J1053. Snake disregards warnings to improve his manners: eaten by crab. Wienert FFC LVI 50 (ET 99), 60 (ET 219), 89 (ST 13, 281); Halm Aesop No. 346.

J1054. J1054. Man disregards mother's warning and is punished. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

J1055. J1055. Man disregards priest's warning and is punished. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

J1060. J1060. Miscellaneous aspects of wisdom.

J1061. J1061. Value depends upon real use.

J1061.1. J1061.1. The cock and the pearl: prefers a single corn to a peck of pearls. Wienert FFC LVI 45 (ET 28), 130 (ST 375); Jacobs Aesop 198 No. 1; Crane Vitry 157 No. 54; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1061.2. J1061.2. Baldheaded man finds the comb: it is useless. Wienert FFC LVI 45 (ET 29), 130 (ST 374).

J1061.3. J1061.3. Foolish dog finds treasure and dies rather than leave it. Wienert FFC LVI 57 (ET 182), 93 (ST 70, 434).

J1061.4. J1061.4. Miser's treasure stolen. Advised to imagine that his treasure is still there: he will be as well off as before. Wienert FFC LVI 84 (ET 503), 133 (ST 392); Halm Aesop No. 412; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 259 No. 201; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1062. J1062. Cure yourself before doctoring others.

J1062.1. J1062.1. Frog as beauty doctor unable to cure his own ugliness. Wienert FFC LVI 45 (ET 27), 57 (ET 179), 101 (ST 134); Halm Aesop No. 78.

J1062.2. J1062.2. Doctor unable to cure himself scorned. Chauvin II 227 No. 8; Wienert FFC LVI 73, (ET 384), 136, 138 (ST 424, 432); Halm Aesop No. 312; Babrius No. 2.

J1062.2.1. J1062.2.1. Bald man tries to sell hair restorer. Scorned. Penzer V 83f.

J1063. J1063. Pot calls kettle black.

J1063.1. J1063.1. Mother crab blames her children for not walking straight. Jacobs Aesop 211 No. 48; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1063.2. J1063.2. Drunk man makes sport of another man for being drunk. Wesselski Bebel I 184 No. 38.

J1064. J1064. Futility of trying to teach the stupid.

J1064.1. J1064.1. Raven killed by apes who will not receive his teaching that a shining stone is not fire. Wienert FFC LVI 50 (ET 95), 118 (ST 284); Bødker Exempler 286 No. 34; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1071. J1071. Results of labor lost in a moment of procrastination.

J1071.1. J1071.1. After laboring to make a brazen head, artist loses labor in moment of procrastination. Dickson 211 n. 137.

J1072. J1072. Man to be judged by his own qualities, not his clothes.

J1072.1. J1072.1. Guests strike man who tries to interfere in their quarrel. It is their host in old clothes. Guests are humiliated but forgiven. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 415.

J1072.2. J1072.2. Rich Brahmin wearing poor clothing is treated as a beggar. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1073. J1073. Never use your entire resources.

J1073.1. J1073.1. Man who never does any piece of work so well that he cannot improve it. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 310.

J1074. J1074. Value of silence.

J1074.1. J1074.1. Parson's apology for not answering challenge: I have never regretted silence but have often regretted speech. *Wesselski Arlotto II 265 No. 208; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 478.

J1074.1.1. J1074.1.1. Philosopher does not join in with gossipers. He is silent because he fears that some day he may talk too much and not be able to keep silent. Spanish: Childers.

J1074.2. J1074.2. Man does not court ugly woman: she might say yes. Therefore he keeps silent. Spanish: Childers.

J1075. J1075. Time renders all things commonplace.

J1075.1. J1075.1. Woman tests enduring power of gossip by having a servant ride through streets on a flayed ass. By the third day he has ceased to attract attention. She concludes that it will be the same way in connection with her intended marriage. Köhler-Bolte II 571 No. 4; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1075.2. J1075.2. Fox is terrified on first seeing lion. The third time she meets him she has no fear. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1076. J1076. Futility of distant travel.

J1076.1. J1076.1. Man desirous of traveling sent six miles to deliver a letter. Told that he has now seen the world, for he will never see more than valleys, hills, fields, meadows, water, streets, cities, and villages. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 590.

J1081. J1081. Preciousness of untroubled sleep.

J1081.1. J1081.1. King buys spendthrift's bed. It must have been an extraordinary bed to permit a man with so many debts to sleep on it. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 503; Herbert III 128 No. 79, 170 No. 35; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1082. J1082. Futility of trying to hide an obvious deed.

J1082.1. J1082.1. Horn will tell the tale. Thus answers goat to herdsman who begs her not to tell master that he has broken off her horn. Wienert FFC LVI 72 (ET 367), 102

(ST 154); Halm Aesop No. 17.

J1085. J1085. Money does not always bring happiness.

J1085.1. J1085.1. The happy friar becomes unhappier as he receives ever more and more money. Gets rid of money and is happy as before. *Type 754; *Toldo Zs. f. Vksk. XIII 420; *Crane Vitry 162 No. 66; Herbert III 281; Alphabet No. 276; Scala Celi 80b No. 459; Nouvelles Récréations No. 19; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 258 No. 204.

J1085.2. J1085.2. Possession of gold turns humble servant into arrogant one. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1085.3. J1085.3. King sees poor man far happier than himself. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1085.4. J1085.4. Poor man returns to the emperor all save enough for comfort: wealth would take happiness from his simple life. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1086. J1086. Ignoring the unpleasant. Wise man refuses to react to unpleasantness. "I don't hear the unpleasant." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1087. J1087. Futility of expecting stranger to have one's interest at heart. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1088. J1088. When the sweet fails try the bitter. Man pleads with thief who is stealing his figs. When pleading fails he brings him down from tree with stones. (Cf. J1581.2, T251.5.) Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1100—J1699.

J1100—J1699. CLEVERNESS

J1100—J1249.

J1100—J1249. Clever persons and acts.

J1100. J1100. Cleverness.

J1110. J1110. Clever persons. Irish myth: *Cross; Missouri French: Carrière.

J1111. J1111. Clever girl. DeVries FFC LXXIII; *Chauvin VII 118 No. 387; Köhler-Bolte II 602 No. 1; *BP III 202; Bloomfield JAOS XXXVI 65.—Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Boberg; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

J1111.1. J1111.1. Princess skillful in argument. Penzer VI 73 n. 3, 74f.

J1111.1.1. J1111.1.1. Princess skillful in pleading. Malone PMLA XLIII 408; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1111.2. J1111.2. Illegitimate daughter of trickster inherits father's ability to dupe others. Pierre Faifeu No. 43; Nouvelles de Sens No. 8.

J1111.3. J1111.3. Clever daughter-in-law. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1111.4. J1111.4. Clever peasant daughter. *Type 875, *BP II 349; DeVries FFC LXXIII; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1111.5. J1111.5. Clever minister's daughter. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1111.6. J1111.6. Clever maidservant. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1111.6.1. J1111.6.1. Clever slave girl. Jewish: Neuman.

J1112. J1112. Clever wife. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1112.1. J1112.1. Wife reforms wayward husband. Makes gift to husband's mistress so that she may receive him fittingly. Husband is shamed into reforming. Heptameron No. 38; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1112.1.1. J1112.1.1. Disguised real wife orders motley wear for her husband when he goes to fetch new bride-to-be: prospective father-in-law takes him for a fool and real wife reveals herself to husband. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1112.2. J1112.2. Wife dismisses maid who is husband's mistress and tells him she has fled. Husband understands and reforms. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1112.3. J1112.3. Clever wife advises husband how to succeed on adventures. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1112.4. J1112.4. Wives prevent war by placing themselves and their children between two armies. Nouvelles de Sens No. 16.

J1112.5. J1112.5. Clever wife obtains secrets from husband by questioning him. Irish myth: *Cross.

J1113. J1113. Clever boy. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1114. J1114. Clever servant. (Cf. J1111.6, J1341, J1561.4, N25, P360, W111.2.)

J1114.0.1. J1114.0.1. Clever slave. (Cf. J1111.6.1.) Jewish: *Neuman. Cf. Aesop.

J1114.1. J1114.1. Man deceived by his hireling. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1855*.

J1115. J1115. Clever professions.

J1115.1. J1115.1. Clever gambler. Penzer IX 25 n. 1; Pierre Faifeu No. 10.

J1115.2. J1115.2. Clever physician. Penzer II 2 n. 1; Irish myth: *Cross.

J1115.2.1. J1115.2.1. Physician decides that there is no need of purging one who drinks so many liquids. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1115.2.2. J1115.2.2. Physician removes pea from patient's ear. Knocks him down and pea rolls out. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1115.3. J1115.3. Clever barber. Penzer III 99ff.

J1115.4. J1115.4. Clever tailor. *Type 1640; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "tailleur".

J1115.5. J1115.5. Clever minstrel. Thien Motive 28.

J1115.5.1. J1115.5.1. Clever minstrel gets a new robe. Has tattered robe mended with scarlet. Ridiculed "I wish the rest of the robe were of the same material". Is given one. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1115.6. J1115.6. Clever peasant. *Hdwb. d. Märchens I 187b.

J1115.7. J1115.7. Clever merchant.

J1115.7.1. J1115.7.1. Clever merchant profits by being robbed. Monkeys steal his caps. Traps monkeys and sells them. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1115.8. J1115.8. Clever prostitute. Gives advice on many questions. Spanish: Childers.

J1115.9. J1115.9. Clever shepherd. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1115.10. J1115.10. Clever official.

J1115.10.1. J1115.10.1. Clever governor. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1115.10.2. J1115.10.2. Clever minister. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1116. J1116. Foolish person becomes clever. *Hdwb. d. Märchens I 184ff. nn. 18, 95, 173—176; Irish myth: *Cross.

J1116.1. J1116.1. Clever madman. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1117. J1117. Animal as trickster. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 294.

J1117.1. J1117.1. Jackal as trickster. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1117.2. J1117.2. Coyote as trickster. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 294ff.

J1118. J1118. Clever bird.

J1118.1. J1118.1. Clever parrot. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1122. J1122. Clever younger generation.

J1122.1. J1122.1. Young crow's alertness. Crow advises young ones to fly away if they see man stooping for a stone to throw. Young crows: "What if he already has stone in hand?" India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1124. J1124. Clever court jester. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1130—J1199.

J1130—J1199. CLEVERNESS IN THE LAW COURT

J1130. J1130. Cleverness in law court—general. Jewish: *Neuman.

J1131. J1131. Maxims for use of law court. Jewish: *Neuman.

J1140. J1140. Cleverness in detection of truth.

J1140.1. J1140.1. Solomon able to detect truth without evidence of witnesses. Jewish: *Neuman.

J1141. J1141. Confession obtained by a ruse. *Chauvin VIII 89 No. 58; Nouvelles Récréations No. 28.

J1141.1. J1141.1. Guilty person deceived into gesture (act) which admits guilt.

J1141.1.1. J1141.1.1. Largest part of a prize to go to the guilty man. In order to obtain the prize, he confesses the earlier crime. *Type 785; *BP II 149; *Chauvin VIII 101 No. 73; Africa (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 65 No. 9. Cf. American Negro: Harris Friends 160 No. 22.

J1141.1.2. J1141.1.2. "Thief has grease from stolen fowl on him": thief begins to feel his beard and is detected. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1141.1.3. J1141.1.3. Creditor: "The destroyed bond was a cubit in size." Debtor: "That is a lie; it was only a span." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1141.1.3.1. J1141.1.3.1. Stone as witness. Farmer will not pay servant wages due. Closing his bargain with the servant he had said: "May this stone be witness." Judge orders stone brought to court. The farmer: "Oh, but the stone is too big (or very far away)". Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1549.

J1141.1.4. J1141.1.4. "Guilty man's stick will grow during night." Guilty man chops end off stick. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1141.1.5. J1141.1.5. "Thief has the feathers sticking on his head": guilty woman immediately passes her hand over her head. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1141.1.6. J1141.1.6. To decide which is master and which servant they are to put heads through window and servant's head is to be cut off. Servant draws back. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1141.1.7. J1141.1.7. Which is man and which demon in man's shape? Decision to go to whichever can go through end of reed. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1141.1.8. J1141.1.8. Accused woman to go three times around building naked: guilty one begins to strip off her clothes. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1141.1.9. J1141.1.9. Thief persuaded detective can read thoughts: confesses. (Cf. N275.) India: Thompson-Balys.

J1141.1.10. J1141.1.10. Queen flogs suspects telling them to produce stolen gem: thief promises to do so. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1141.1.11. J1141.1.11. Confession of debt secured by having defendant dispute as to whether cat was present when debt was made. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1141.1.12. J1141.1.12. B warns A not to tie his horse near B's. Horses fight and A's is killed. In court B plays dumb. A says B could talk the day before, and repeats conversation. Judge blames A for not taking advice. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1141.2. J1141.2. Magician assigned three places at a table. He confesses to carrying two persons in his body. Wesselski Märchen 186 No. 1; Chavannes 500 Contes I 378.

J1141.3. J1141.3. Cheaters examined apart; first made to repeat paternoster. Others think that he has confessed and truth is discovered. *Herbert III 202; Oesterley No. 128.

J1141.4. J1141.4. Confession induced by bringing an unjust action against accused. False message to thief's wife to send the stolen jewel case as bribe to the judge. She does. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 723, *Zachariae Zs. f. Vksk. XXXIII—XXXIV 78; Köhler-Bolte I 535; *Wesselski Arlotto I 222f. No. 67; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1141.5. J1141.5. Detection of theft by finding bag-repairer. Two men are in a lawsuit and before witnesses seal the documents in a bag to await arrival of the king. One of the men cuts the bag open, changes the documents, and has a repairer sew it up again. On the king's arrival the change is discovered. By having a fine carpet repaired the expert repairer is discovered. Confession follows. *Zachariae Zs. f. Vksk. XXXIII—XXXIV 70.

J1141.6. J1141.6. Thief's money scales borrowed. A man buries gold and a thief steals it. The owner detects the criminal. He takes some money to the thief and borrows money scales "to weigh so as to bury with the other". The thief decides that he is detected and hastens to return the stolen money. *Wesselski Morlini 294 No. 43.

J1141.7. J1141.7. Thief suspected of crawling through hole must take off clothes. He is full of scratches and confesses. Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 99, 280.

J1141.8. J1141.8. Silence points to guilt. Important man quarrels with commoner. Asks bystanders: "Who is right?" Silence. Newcomer states that the important man is wrong. "Had he been right the others would have said so." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1141.9. J1141.9. The guilty protests his innocence. Animals put to graze in man's garden. Owner greets everyone with: "I know about you!" No one pays any attention to him except the guilty one who says: "I did not do it." Confesses. (Cf. N275.) Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1141.10. J1141.10. Confession obtained by making thief fear for his life. (Told that crossbow would shoot guilty person as he passed before it.) Pierre Faifeu No. 22.

J1141.11. J1141.11. Detection through ruse. Husbands ask suspected priest to talk to wives on tithing, and thus obtain sufficient evidence to convict him. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 32.

J1141.12. J1141.12. Guilty man freed of murder charge is tricked into making a false accusation for which he is sentenced. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

J1141.13. J1141.13. Witness always to answer "No." Thus gets self condemned. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1141.14. J1141.14. Minister threatens divine punishment to thief in congregation. The thief confesses. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

J1141.15. J1141.15. The thief is tricked into revealing himself in church. England: Baughman.

J1141.16. J1141.16. The thief is tricked into betraying himself in supposed ordeal. Canada, England, U.S.: *Baughman.

J1142. J1142. Pseudo-scientific methods of detecting. *Penzer Poison-Damsels 75ff.

J1142.1. J1142.1. Test of mother by weighing milk. The one with the heavier milk the mother of the boy; the other of the girl. *Chauvin VI 63 No. 231; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 155.

J1142.2. J1142.2. Love detected by quickening pulse. A woman's adulterous love detected through her pulse quickening at mention of her lover. *Herbert III 268; Oesterley No. 40; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1142.2.1. J1142.2.1. Guilt detected by quickening heartbeat. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1142.3. J1142.3. Adultery detected by spit marks on the wall. Too high to have been made by husband. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1142.4. J1142.4. Thief's corpse carried through street to see who will weep for him. *Type 950; *BP III 395ff.

J1142.4.1. J1142.4.1. Mother's weeping for thief made to seem natural.

J1142.4.1.1. J1142.4.1.1. Clever son falls from tree, so mother's tears over dead body of father being carried through street will seem natural. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1142.4.1.2. J1142.4.1.2. Woman breaks milk jars so that weeping for thief will seem natural. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1143. J1143. Thief detected by building straw fire so that smoke escapes through thief's entrance. The secret hole into the building is thus discovered and the thief caught. *Type 950; BP III 395ff.; Köhler-Bolte I 200ff.; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1144. J1144. Eaters of stolen food detected.

J1144.1. J1144.1. Eaters of stolen food detected by the giving of an emetic. Italian Novella: Rotunda (J1142.4.); French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 24.

J1144.2. J1144.2. Animal thief of eggs detected when he comes to a spring to drink. All animals must tell why they are thirsty. Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 27 n. 1.

J1145. J1145. Detection through aid of animal. Icelandic: Boberg.

J1145.1. J1145.1. Murderer detected by actions of murdered man's dog. Attacks murderer whenever possible. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 434.

J1146. J1146. Detection by strewing ashes (sand). Trespasser (lover, mistress, ghost, fairy, etc.) leaves footprints in the ashes. *Schoepperle Tristan and Isolt I 117ff., 221ff.; *Gaster Germania XXV 290f.; Fb "mel" II 570; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE XXXII 510 No. 109, 526 No. 111, 810 n. 410.

J1146.1. J1146.1. Detection by pitch-trap. Pitch is spread so that footprints are left in it, or that shoe is left behind as clue. *Type 510; Cox 1-80, 87-104 passim.

J1147. J1147. Detection through feigned dream.

J1147.1. J1147.1. Husband relates his wife's adultery in pretended dream. She dies from fright. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1149. J1149. Miscellaneous means of detecting.

J1149.1. J1149.1. Feigned madness unmasked by threatening man's child. Greek: Fox 123 (Odysseus).

J1149.2. J1149.2. Cheater discovered by fishing in the street. Man arouses the curiosity of the rascal who has swindled his wife. Type 1382.

J1149.3. J1149.3. Detection by disrobing in a dance. A man masking as a maiden has committed adultery with the queen. A clever girl by challenging him to disrobe in a dance exposes the imposture. *Wesselski Märchen 197 No. 7; Nouvelles de Sens No. 8; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1149.4. J1149.4. Urinalysis reveals coition as cure for illness. Treatment successful. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1149.5. J1149.5. Detection of guilt by smile. Buried money is stolen from blind man. Latter has boy watch and notify him when passerby smiles at him. The smiler is the thief. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1149.6. J1149.6. Thief detected by his answer to question. "How would you treat a woman who came into your possession?" Answer: "I would use her and then give her to the servants." This reveals his true character. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1149.7. J1149.7. Thief posing as corpse detected by pricking soles of his feet. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1149.8. J1149.8. Magistrate detects thief's complicity by associating cut hand with companion's severed head. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1149.9. J1149.9. Magistrate finds thieving innkeepers guilty of arson. Silver buckles are not melted by the fire. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1149.10. J1149.10. Truth detected by spies listening to reactions of defendants at night. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1149.11. J1149.11. Washing test: defendants given basin of water. Guilty one wastes it uselessly. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1149.12. J1149.12. Ninety-nine wise men and one fool ordered to pour milk into a tank all at one time: only the fool obeys. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1150. J1150. Cleverness connected with the giving of evidence.

J1151. J1151. Testimony of witness cleverly discredited.

J1151.1. J1151.1. Testimony discredited by inducing witness to talk foolishly.

J1151.1.1. J1151.1.1. Talkative wife discredited. Husband tells his talkative wife about treasure he has discovered. To discredit her report he tells her also of impossible things (woodcock in the fish net, fish in the bird trap, etc.). She repeats it all and whole story is disbelieved. Husband may keep his treasure. *Type 1381; BP I 527; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1151.1.2. J1151.1.2. Husband discredited by absurd truth. Wife puts fish in furrow where husband plows them up (or like absurdity). At mealtime the husband says, "Where are the fish?" — "What fish?" — "Those I plowed up." He is laughed to scorn. Bédier Fabliaux 196, 436; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1151.1.3. J1151.1.3. The sausage rain. (Or rain of figs, fishes, or milk.) A mother in order to discredit testimony of her foolish son who has killed a man makes him believe that it has rained sausages. When he says that he killed the man on the night it rained sausages his testimony is discredited. Chauvin VI 126, VIII 35, 69; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 184, 195, 204 Nos. 347, 383, 407; *BP I 527; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No 4; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1151.2. J1151.2. Witness claims the borrowed coat: discredited. Trickster summoned to court on Jew's complaint refuses to go unless he has a new coat: Jew lends him his. In court the trickster says that the Jew is a liar: "He will even claim that I am wearing his coat." The Jew does so and no one believes him. *Type 1642; *BP I 65; Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 220ff. No. 54; *Chauvin VI 126 No. 280; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1642A; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1151.3. J1151.3. Testimony gradually weakened. Witness agrees to the following facts in succession: that the person relating the facts may have been in anger, that he may have misunderstood, that he may not have heard it at all. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1151.4. J1151.4. Testimony of unsuccessful suitor discredited. Adulteress is surprised in intrigue by unsuccessful suitor. He threatens to tell her husband. She tells her husband that the scorned suitor has accused her falsely of indiscretion with many men. When the suitor tells the husband he does not believe him. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1152. J1152. Witness cannot speak language of accusation: discredited. Two parrots taught accusation of mistress in a particular dialect. They know nothing more of the language. (Cf. G1154.1.) Chauvin II 93 No. 41; Bødker Exempler 290 No. 44; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1153. J1153. Separate examination of witnesses discredits testimony. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 114.

J1153.1. J1153.1. Susanna and the elders: separate examination of witnesses. Testimony as to exact circumstances of her deed does not agree. Witnesses discredited. W. Baumgartner Susanna, die Geschichte einer Legende (Archiv f. Religionswiss. XXIV 259—80); *Chauvin VI 193 No. 362; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas I 361f., Neuman.

J1153.2. J1153.2. To which of two men does woman belong? Only one can answer questions just as she has. Other discredited. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1154. J1154. Witness discredited by inability to tell details. (Cf. J1153.1.)

J1154.1. J1154.1. Parrot unable to tell husband details as to wife's infidelity. Wife has parrot describe a storm very realistically. Husband observes contrast in the two tales. (Cf. J1152.) *Chauvin VIII 35f. No. 3; Bødker Exempler 286 No. 35; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1154.2. J1154.2. Witnesses to make image of diamond they claim to have seen. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1154.3. J1154.3. False witnesses cannot describe stolen jewel. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1155. J1155. "Then I woke up": man discredits his confession by declaring it all a dream. *Type 1790; Wesselski Märchen 187 No. 2; *Toldo Zs. f. Vksk. XV 69f.; *Hilka and Soederhjelm Neuphilologische Mitteilungen (Helsingfors, 1913) 15ff.; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1155.1. J1155.1. Confession discredited by claim to be notorious liar. (Cf. X905.) U.S.: *Baughman.

J1157. J1157. Bribed witnesses nonplussed when judge asks wrong question. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1158. J1158. Witness claims not to have seen crime.

J1158.1. J1158.1. Witness says that dust storm blew and shut his eyes so that he did not see. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1160. J1160. Clever pleading.

J1161. J1161. Literal pleading: letter of law has been met.

J1161.1. J1161.1. The three joint depositors may have their money back when all demand it. Money is left by three joint depositors subject to their joint order. It is stolen by one. When the banker is sued he agrees to give up the money when he receives joint order from all three. *Type 1591; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 113; Scala Celi 7b No. 46; Alphabet No. 139; Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 21 No. 77; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1161.2. J1161.2. Pound of flesh. (Fleischpfand.) Literal pleading frees man from pound of flesh contract. Contract does not give the right to shed blood. Impossible, therefore, to carry out. *Type 890; Köhler-Bolte I 211f.; Wesselski Mönchslein 172 No. 138; *Wesselski Märchen 252 No. 61; *Chauvin VIII 200ff. No. 245; *Taylor Hdwb. d. Märchens s.v. "Fleischpfand"; Oesterley No. 195; Dunlop-Liebrecht 262; JEGPh. XXX (1931) 348—60; Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice; Icelandic: *Boberg; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1161.3. J1161.3. Trespasser's defense: standing on his own land. Man has earth from his own land in his shoes. *Type 1590; Herbert III 507 No. 62; *Anderson FFC XLII 362 n. 1; Fb "ed" I 234, "jord" II 45b; Künssberg Jahrbuch f. hist. Vksk. I 120f.; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn V (1897) 443ff., (1934) 324ff.; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1161.4. J1161.4. Money in the stick. Before swearing, the cheater hands a stick containing the stolen money to the man he has stolen it from. He then swears that he has repaid it. *Köhler-Bolte I 137; *Zachariae Zs. f. Vksk. XXXIII—XXXIV 78; Lewy ibid. XXXVII—XXXVIII 83; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: *Neuman, *Gaster Exempla 210 No. 121a.

J1161.5. J1161.5. Literal penance: boy outwits pope. For three years not to drink wine, not to lie in bed, nor sleep with a prostitute. He goes to a convent, sleeps on eider down, and sleeps with the nuns. (God's daughters). When the pope condemns him he says he will go to his brother-in-law (Christ: he has wedded God's daughters). (Cf. J1764.5.) *Fb "nonne" II 693; Danish: Kristensen Jyske Folkeminder VII No. 36.

J1161.6. J1161.6. Barber paid to change color of woman's face burns her with acid. He has fulfilled contract. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 414.

J1161.7. J1161.7. Ruler forbids blacksmith to reveal solution of riddle unless he has seen him 100 times. Smith reveals the solution on receipt of 100 crowns bearing the ruler's likeness. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1161.8. J1161.8. Ruler orders doctor to wear his hair and his robe "not too long and not too short". Has both his hair and his cloak cut half short and half long. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1161.8.1. J1161.8.1. Bishop orders priest to wear his beard and his robe "not too long and not too short." Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 94.

J1161.9. J1161.9. Drunk philosopher wagers that he can drink the ocean dry. Agrees to do so if the other will hold back streams emptying into the ocean. Agreed to drink only the ocean. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1161.10. J1161.10. Man tells servant that he may have anything he can take with his teeth (eat). Servant takes master's cape with his teeth. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1161.11. J1161.11. Thief makes it fall out that he has but taken what has been given him (he has followed literal instructions). India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1162. J1162. Plea by admitting accusation and discomfiting accuser.

J1162.1. J1162.1. Nurse's false plea admitted: child demanded. A nurse falsely demands pay for caring for a child which she says is the hero's. In court: "The child is indeed mine; give him to me." The child belongs to a peasant. Nurse confesses and is punished. Wesselski Märchen 229 No. 40.

J1162.2. J1162.2. Robbers' false plea admitted: counteraccusation. Robbers claim a man's knife. In court: "The knife may indeed be theirs. I and my father were attacked yesterday by robbers. I fled. On returning I found my father killed and this knife in his body." Robbers condemned. *Wesselski Märchen 229 No. 40. Irish myth: Cross (K448.1).

J1162.3. J1162.3. Own name inscribed on a stolen object as sign of property. Irish myth: Cross.

J1162.4. J1162.4. Clever pleading: youth in court for calling king a fool, proves truth of statement because king allowed self to be duped by alchemist. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1163. J1163. Pleading for accused by means of parable. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1164. J1164. Clever pleading: fighting for King of Kings. Knight hailed before king for fighting blasphemer, tells king that he would fight to protect the honor of the king's name so why not for the name of the King of Kings? Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1165. J1165. Plea by showing great temptation to crime.

J1165.1. J1165.1. Thieves tell judge walls of houses were so weak they could not resist temptation of breaking in. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1166. J1166. Plea by shifting blame to another.

J1166.1. J1166.1. Barber operating on child's skin kills it: blames mother for child's thin skin. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1166.2. J1166.2. When royal mace-bearer is attacked he throws away mace: attackers accuse him of insult to king. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1169. J1169. Clever pleading—miscellaneous.

J1169.1. J1169.1. The woman with bad eyes. Physician called to doctor woman's eyes bandages them and then steals things each day. She refuses to pay fee and is haled to court. She says that her sight is worse than ever for whereas she used to see many things in her house she now sees very little. Theft is thus revealed. Wesselski Mönchslatein 20 No. 15; Wienert FFC LVI 39; Halm Aesop No. 107.—India: Thompson-Balys.

J1169.2. J1169.2. Bought behind the village. Lawyer declares unjustly that stolen horse has been bought and paid for. Angry farmer: "Yes, behind the village he bought and paid for it" (meaning that he stole it from the pasture). Lawyer pleads successfully that it is as well to buy a horse outside as inside the village. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 838.

J1169.3. J1169.3. Their assistance not asked. Knight attacks enemy contrary to orders. Part of army helps him and is killed. He disclaims responsibility since he had not asked their aid. Wesselski Bebel I 157 No. 86.

J1169.4. J1169.4. The ass beheaded. King vows to sacrifice first thing he meets. It is a miller driving an ass. Miller pleads that the ass preceded him. They behead the ass. Pauli (ed. Bolte) Nos. 507, 733; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1169.5. J1169.5. The laughing ass. King has trickster's horse's tail cut off. Trickster retaliates by cutting off part of upper lip of king's ass. At trial the animals are brought forth. Everyone laughs at the ass. Trickster: "If everyone laughs at the ass, how could the ass help laughing at her companion without a tail?" Freed. *Wesselski Gonnella 116 No. 12; U.S.: Baughman.

J1169.6. J1169.6. Receiver of stolen goods. A tailor makes a Jew a coat of stolen goods. Accused of theft, he says that the Jew has the cloth. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 257 No. 191.

J1169.7. J1169.7. Suit about the ass's shadow. Man hires ass and driver for trip across plain. In the heat the traveler sits down in the ass's shadow. The driver pushes him away. Plea: he didn't hire the ass's shadow. *Wienert FFC LVI 37; Halm Aesop No. 339.

J1169.8. J1169.8. The prophet's first disciple. Judge demands that a pseudo-prophet show a miracle. Latter offers to cut off judge's head and resuscitate him. Judge agrees to be the first disciple. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 257 No. 197.

J1169.9. J1169.9. Three unlawful acts in killing one sheep: two lambs were inside. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1170. J1170. Clever judicial decisions.

J1170.1. J1170.1. Series of wise judgments settles quarrels of village. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1170.2. J1170.2. The Irish Solomon (Cormac mac Airt). Famed for his clever decisions. Irish myth: *Cross.

J1171. J1171. Judgment by testing love.

J1171.1. J1171.1. Solomon's judgment: the divided child. Two women claim a child. Judge offers to cut it in two. Real mother refuses. *Frazer Old Testament II 570; *Goebel Jüdische Motive im Märchenhaften Erzählungsgut (Gleiwitz, 1932) 21ff.; *Gaidoz Mélusine IV 313, 337, 366, 385, 414, 446, 457; *Köhler-Bolte I 531; *Chauvin VI 63 No. 231.—Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "partage"; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian (Menomini): Skinner and Satterlee PaAM XIII 397; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 348 n. 1; West Indies: Flowers 479. Cf. Cook Group: Dixon 37 (child actually cut in two to settle dispute).

J1171.1.1. J1171.1.1. The ring to be cut in two and divided between quarreling persons: real owner laments the waste of the gold. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1171.2. J1171.2. Solomon's judgment: the divided bride. Three suitors dispute over a woman. When it is proposed to divide her, true lover is discovered. *Type 653; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

J1171.3. J1171.3. The woman with two husbands is to be killed. One of the husbands refuses to bury her. She is awarded to the other. Type 926*; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1171.3.1. J1171.3.1. Clever judgment: man must belong to the third wife because the first had buried him and the second did not protect him. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1171.4. J1171.4. Which mare is mother of colt: colt taken in boat to the middle of river; mother will swim to it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1172. J1172. Judgment as rebuke to unjust plaintiff.

J1172.1. J1172.1. Not the same purse as was lost. Finder of a purse containing 800 gulden returns it to owner for reward. Latter says that purse had 900 gulden in it. In court. Decision: The rich man speaks truth. The purse found is not the one he lost. The finder may keep it. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 115; Chauvin IX 26 No. 15; Scala Celi 21b No. 135; Alphabet No. 650; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 44; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1172.2. J1172.2. Payment with the clink of the money. Man sued for payment for enjoyment of the flavor of meat when roasting. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No 48; Nouvelles de Sens No. 9; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 297.

J1172.3. J1172.3. Ungrateful animal returned to captivity. A man rescues a serpent (bear) who in return seeks to kill his rescuer. Fox as judge advises the man to put the serpent back into captivity. *Type 155; Krohn Mann und Fuchs 38; McKenzie MPh I 497ff.; Herbert III 14, 37, 54; *Köhler-Bolte I 50; *Chauvin II 121 No. 109; IX 18 No. 4; *Gaster Exempla 268 No. 441; *Crane Vitry 201 No. 160; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 745; Wienert FFC LVI 65 (ET 293), 147 (ST 515); Halm Aesop No. 97; *Fb "utak"; Scala Celi 86b No. 502; Alphabet No. 706; Oesterley No 174; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 39. -Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 27 No. 15; Indonesia: Dixon 197 n.

36; American Negro: Harris Nights 274 No. 46; Africa: Milligan Jungle 98f., (Cameroon): Lederbogen 63.

J1172.3.1. J1172.3.1. Unjust claimant of woman duped into entering jar. Jackal as judge declares that real husband shall enter jar woman carries on her head. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1172.3.2. J1172.3.2. Animals render unjust decision against man since man has always been unjust to them. India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Bushman): Honey South African Folk Tales (New York, 1910) 101f., (Tumbuka-Kamanga): Young Customs and Folklore of the Tumbuka Kamanga (Livingstonia, 1931) 233ff., (Shilluk): Oyeler Sudan Notes and Records II 221f., (Tshi): Bellon Mitt. d. Sem. f. Orient. Spr. XVII (3) 20ff. No. 4, (Saho): Reinisch Die Saho-Sprache (Wien, 1889) I (5) 205ff. No. 17, (Senegal): Colin RTP I 140f., Zeltner Contes du Senegal et du Niger (Paris, 1913) 81ff.

J1172.4. J1172.4. Turtle released by man to carry him across stream. Threatens him midway. Fox to be judge. Feigns deafness and makes turtle come so near shore man jumps and saves self. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1173. J1173. Series of clever unjust decisions: plaintiff voluntarily withdraws. (1) Man pulls off borrowed horse's tail: he shall keep horse till tail grows on. (2) Man falls out of bed and kills a baby (or causes a miscarriage): he shall beget a new baby for the mother. (3) Man falls from a bridge and kills boatsman's son: shall allow boatsman to fall from bridge and kill him *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 234 No. 515; *Köhler-Bolte II 578; Penzer VI 83f.; Feilberg Danske Studier (1920) 2ff.; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 131 No. 1535A; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1173.1. J1173.1. Novel settlement of dispute. Judge orders woman's second husband to return her to the first in the same condition as he received her (with child). Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1173.1.1. J1173.1.1. Novel settlement: snake's wife must wait to kill prince till princess bears as many sons as snake has. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1174. J1174. Clever decisions concerning kissing and rape.

J1174.1. J1174.1. Youth in court for kissing prince's daughter pleads his love for her. Prince allows plea: "If we kill those who love us, what shall we do to those who hate us?" Pauli (ed. Bolte) Nos. 120, 733; Alphabet No. 60; Mensa Philosophica No. 16; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 20; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1174.2. J1174.2. Complaint about the stolen kiss. Woman is allowed to take one in return. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 254 No. 173.

J1174.2.1. J1174.2.1. Man breaks promise to sleep chastely with woman. Decision: deceived fiance is to sleep with seducer's wife, if he ever marries. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1174.3. J1174.3. The girl screams when she is robbed. Accuses young man of raping her. When he tries to rob her of money she summons help. Decision: if she had shouted as loud before, the man could not have raped her. Youth acquitted. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 15; Herbert III 21; *Crane Vitry 242 No. 255.

J1174.4. J1174.4. Girls must pay for young man's virginity. Girls repulsed by man climb in his window at night. Become pregnant and demand marriage. Branded as prostitutes and must pay the man. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 17.

J1174.5. J1174.5. Man's torn garment as proof of his innocence of rape. If he were the assaulter, the torn garment would be woman's. Jewish: *Neuman.

J1175. J1175. Judgments concerning arson.

J1175.1. J1175.1. The cat in the warehouse. One of four companions is left in a warehouse to care for a cat which has a broken leg. Cat scratches self near flame and sets warehouse afire. The three must pay the one left behind. Broken leg could not walk and it was the three legs belonging to the three traders which caused the fire. *Zachariae Zs. f. Vksk. XXXIII—XXXIV 72; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1175.2. J1175.2. Intentional and accidental fire. Rich man wishing to get rid of a neighbor's tree sets it afire. Neighbor's house catches and burns. Must pay four times value of tree since fire is intentional, but only actual value of house, since that fire was accidental. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 625.

J1176. J1176. Decisions based on experimental tests. Icelandic: *Boberg.

J1176.1. J1176.1. Pouring water into the inkwell. Soldier accused of stealing slavegirl from author. Girl told to pour water into an inkwell. She does it so skillfully that she must have learned it from the author. *Zachariae Zs. f. Vksk. XXXIII—XXXIV 72.

J1176.2. J1176.2. Measuring the dregs. Some full and some half-full wine casks left with man by neighbor, who accuses him of theft. Fraud of accusation detected by measuring the dregs. Oesterley No. 246; Herbert III 237; Ward ibid. II 239; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 45; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1176.3. J1176.3. Gold pieces in the honey-pot. Woman leaves honey-pot with neighbor to guard. It has gold below the honey. Neighbor steals the gold and substitutes honey. Theft proved by gold pieces sticking to sides of pot. (Cf. J1192.2.) Alphabet No. 261; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas III 58ff., 300f., *Neuman.

J1176.4. J1176.4. A two-headed man is only one man. Two-headed man claims double inheritance. Hot water poured over one head. Other head cries out with pain. He is declared to be one man and to merit only one share. Jewish: Gaster Exempla 206 No. 113, bin Gorion Born Judas III 73, 302, *Neuman.

J1176.5. J1176.5. True husband of woman determined by assigning superhuman task. Thus god masking as husband is discovered. Hdwb. d. Märchens I 247b; Zachariae Zs. f. Vksk. XVI 139.

J1177. J1177. Story told to discover thief. Judge tells story of the lady, her husband, her lover, and the robbers (H1552.1). Which was the most generous? Witness says that robber was. This shows that he has robber's point of view. *Type 976; Jewish: Gaster Exempla 206 No. 111, bin Gorion Born Judas III 97, 303; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1177.0.1. J1177.0.1. None should interrupt or leave the room while story is told: treachery revealed. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1177.1. J1177.1. Story told to discover thief: sundry tales. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1179. J1179. Clever judicial decisions — miscellaneous. Africa (Angola): Chatelain

Nos. 10, 42, 49.

J1179.1. J1179.1. Damages for the field devastated by a flock. David says pay money damages. Solomon says let laborers have flock till milk and wool have paid the damages. *Chauvin VIII 99 No. 71; Irish myth: Cross.

J1179.2. J1179.2. The hog belongs to whichever place he goes of his own accord. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 121.

J1179.3. J1179.3. The short blanket must be patched. Weaver makes blanket shorter than ordered. Weaver ordered to add a piece to the blanket and then to receive full price. Bolte Frey's Gartengesellschaft 110, 256.

J1179.4. J1179.4. Robber innocent because he is merely following traditions of his ancestors. Wesselski Bebel II 111 No. 39.

J1179.5. J1179.5. Servants would not have left the coats. Merchants complain to nobleman that his servants have robbed them of money. Nobleman asks whether merchants had on those good coats when the robbery took place. When told yes, he said that the robbers were not his servants, for they would never have left good coats. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 490; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1179.6. J1179.6. Thread awarded to disputant who knows what it was wound on. Zachariae Kleine Schriften 84; Alphabet No. 533.

J1179.7. J1179.7. Stolen necklace does not have same scent as defendant uses. Zachariae Kleine Schriften 57.

J1179.8. J1179.8. Tenant advised by landlord to steal in order to pay his taxes acquitted. Bolte Montanus' Gartengesellschaft 610 No. 67.

J1179.9. J1179.9. The judge pays fine himself. Tires of the bickering of two men over a trifling sum. Italian Novella: Rotunda; Spanish: Childers.

J1179.10. J1179.10. Enoch Arden decision. Man believing wife dead becomes a priest. Later finds her alive. Pope's decision: he may remain both a priest and husband but must not consort with any other woman. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 42; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1179.11. J1179.11. Those who furnish equal number of animals for plow share equally in crop (in spite of amount of work done by each). India: Thompson-Balys.

J1179.12. J1179.12. Actual rescuer gets woman. Watchers could never have got her merely by watching. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1179.13. J1179.13. Cardinal's clever decision: that the monks who arise earliest may sound matins. There had been a great argument over this privilege. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1179.14. J1179.14. Eye of king's foster-son damaged by sting of bee. Boy's friends demand eye of king's son in forfeit; king decrees instead destruction of swarm of bees so that guilty one may perish. Irish myth: *Cross.

J1180. J1180. Clever means of avoiding legal punishment.

J1181. J1181. Execution escaped by use of special permissions granted the condemned.

J1181.0.1. J1181.0.1. Execution: man induced to kill self. King may not execute Brahmin, but gets him drunk and brings about his death. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1181.1. J1181.1. Execution evaded by using three wishes. King ordains that guest who turns his plate shall be executed, but orders that anyone so condemned shall have three wishes granted. One of the wishes: to have all blinded who saw him turn the plate. He is freed. *Wesselski Märchen des Mittelalters 230 No. 40; Herbert III 197; Oesterley No. 194.

J1181.2. J1181.2. Execution evaded by having three wishes granted: to be emperor, judge and the emperor's son-in-law during the last week of his life. As judge he frees himself and is in reality freed. Köhler-Bolte II 651—57; Zs. f. Vksk. XV 222; Icelandic: Boberg.

J1181.3. J1181.3. Condemned man wins pardon by clever remark. Fool is allowed to jump off cliff (balcony) as punishment. Master expresses surprise that in three trials he has failed to hurl himself from the height. The jester offers the prince four trials. Amused prince pardons the jester. Spanish: Childers.

J1182. J1182. Punishment escaped by discomfiting condemner.

J1182.1. J1182.1. To be beaten by deceiver of husband. Lady has her women ready to give a trickster a beating. He is allowed to make one request. The one who has most often deceived her husband shall strike first. *Wesselski Gonnella 121 No. 16; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1183. J1183. Execution escaped by invoking laws of hospitality.

J1183.1. J1183.1. Prisoner has drunk water furnished by the king and thus becomes king's guest. Spared. *Chauvin VI 72 No. 238.

J1184. J1184. No second punishment for same offense.

J1184.1. J1184.1. Adulteress hurled from high rock escapes injury: she may not be punished again. Herbert III 211; Oesterley Gesta Romanorum No. 3.

J1184.2. J1184.2. Ears not to be cut off a second time. Executioner discovers that the prisoner's ears are of stucco, having been clipped for a previous offense. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1185. J1185. Execution escaped by story-telling. Cf. Browning's "Balaustion's Adventure."

J1185.1. J1185.1. Scheherazade: story with indefinite sequels told to stave off execution. *Chauvin V 190 No. 111.

J1189. J1189. Clever means of avoiding legal punishment—miscellaneous.

J1189.1. J1189.1. Youth will answer question only when king places him on throne: then youth calls executioners to punish cruel king. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1189.2. J1189.2. Execution escaped by threatening with malediction. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

J1189.3. J1189.3. King substitutes for condemned man when he is told that whoever is executed that day is destined to become king in his next birth. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1190. J1190. Cleverness in the lawcourt—miscellaneous.

J1191. J1191. Reductio ad absurdum of judgment. *Chauvin VI 63, 231; *Zachariae Zs f. Vksk. XXX—XXXII 50 n. 2; *Wesselski Arlotto II 215 No. 73; India: Thompson-Balys; Oceanic: *Dixon 199 n. 37; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 197 No. 26.

J1191.1. J1191.1. Reductio ad absurdum: the decision about the colt. A man ties his mare to a second man's wagon. The mare bears a colt which the wagon-owner claims, saying that the wagon has borne a colt. Real owner of the colt shows the absurdity (1) by fishing in the street or (2) by telling that his wife is shooting fish in the garden. Neither of these things are so absurd as the decision. *Type 875; DeVries FFC LXXIII; India: *Thompson-Balys; Köhler-Bolte I 460; *BP II 349ff., 371; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 212 No. 434; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1191.1.1. J1191.1.1. "The sea is on fire"—not more absurd than the decision about the colt. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1191.2. J1191.2. Suit for chickens produced from boiled eggs. Countertask: harvesting crop produced from cooked seeds. *DeVries FFC LXXIII 244; Jewish: *Neuman.

J1191.3. J1191.3. The funeral for the ineligible husband. A king awards a young woman to a gardener, who is already married. The young woman performs a funeral ceremony for him. The king is pleased with the jest and takes her into the harem. Chauvin V 245 No. 146.

J1191.4. J1191.4. To return the dead elephant alive. Hired elephant dies. Owner demands the live elephant. The god causes the elephant's owner to break pots of the other. Is unable to make specific restitution. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1191.5. J1191.5. Reductio ad absurdum of accusation: object-birth slander. (Later children tell toy animals to drink. No harder than for woman to bear objects.) India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1191.5.1. J1191.5.1. Impossible to eat pearls: also impossible for woman to bear animals (objects). India: Thompson-Balys.

J1191.6. J1191.6. Plaintiff in court beats thief since he had not warned him ahead of time to have witnesses to robbery. Judge has refused to inquire for lack of witnesses. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1191.7. J1191.7. Rice pot on pole, fire far away. As easy to cook rice thus as to warm a man at a distance from a lamp on a balcony. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1192. J1192. The bribed judge. *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 38; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1192.1. J1192.1. Judge awards decision to the greater bribe. *DeVries FFC LXXIII 263; Pauli (ed. Bolte) Nos. 125, 128, 852, 853; Scala Celi 20a No. 122; England: Baughman; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1192.1.1. J1192.1.1. Buffalo has eaten up turban. Judge decides for greater bribe.

India: Thompson-Balys.

J1192.1.2. J1192.1.2. Judge favors poor defendant so he may obtain money from rich without begging. Jewish: Neuman.

J1192.2. J1192.2. Error was in the honey. Trickster takes jar filled with earth but with honey on top as bribe to the judge. He takes the decision in writing. Cheat is discovered and judge sends message that an error has been made. Reply: the decision was right; the error is in the honey. (Cf. J1176.3.) *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 252 No. 170.

J1192.3. J1192.3. The bribed judge's ancestors. Clever animal says in court that she drops dung on ancestors of judges who take bribes (unless they confess). Judges confess. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1193. J1193. Clever interpretation of judge's statement.

J1193.1. J1193.1. Killing the fly on the judge's nose. The judge has told the boy that he should kill a fly wherever he sees one. Type 1586; *BP I 519; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 271 No. 280; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 673; Fansler MAFLS XII 390, 435; Rumanian: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII 69 No. 4.

J1193.2. J1193.2. The value of a blow. A judge awards damages of a penny against a friend of his for giving a blow. The defendant goes to get the money and is gone long. Meanwhile the plaintiff gives the judge a blow and tells him to use the penny as damages. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 254 No. 172; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 718; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1193.2.1. J1193.2.1. The Court keeps the change. Man is fined half-ducat. Judge has no change. Defendant strikes judge for the change. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1195. J1195. Judge frightened into awarding decision. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1197. J1197. Judge finds offense is not great when it is his own son who is guilty. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1198. J1198. Pardon in return for confession.

J1198.1. J1198.1. King promises thieves pardon for confession: pleased with their cleverness. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1210—J1229.

J1210—J1229. CLEVER MAN PUTS ANOTHER OUT OF COUNTENANCE

J1210. J1210. Clever man puts another out of countenance.

J1211. J1211. Putting out of countenance by telling evil stories.

J1211.1. J1211.1. Peasant preaches about bishop's amour. Bishop has instructed him to tell the truth and spare no one when he preaches. *Type 1825A; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 711.

J1211.1.1. J1211.1.1. Priest preaches about bishop's amour. Bishop has fined priest for incontinence. Priest hides and witnesses amorous intrigue between bishop and abbess, hearing bishop refer to the abbess's charms in biblical similes. Priest incorporates overheard references in his introduction to the Mass and is asked for an explanation. Bishop returns his fine. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1211.2. J1211.2. Clever thief may keep booty. He has seen his victim in a disgraceful position and is allowed the booty as a price for his silence. *Köhler-Bolte II 594; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 263 No. 236; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1211.2.1. J1211.2.1. The drunken officer's stolen mantle. Thief confronted by the officer tells all the circumstances of the drunkenness (with many shameful additions). The officer denies the ownership. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 239 No. 120.

J1211.3. J1211.3. Courtier having observed king's amour shields him and gains pardon. Answers in clever proverbs when called on to say what he has seen. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1212. J1212. Judge put out of countenance.

J1212.1. J1212.1. The doubly-bribed judge. One of the disputants keeps the hens he is to give the judge in his hand and when the decision begins to go against him makes the hens cry out. *Wesselski Arlotto I 208 No. 48.

J1213. J1213. Thief exposes owner's unjust claim.

J1213.1. J1213.1. Complaint about the stolen ox. A thief steals a calf and keeps the hide. The owner makes a hue and cry about a stolen ox. The thief produces the calfskin: "You thief, to demand an ox for a calf!" Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 209 No. 16, cf. 254 No. 177.

J1214. J1214. Absurd pretence, when allowed, puts pretender out of countenance.

J1214.1. J1214.1. Claim that dog-head captured game. Two hunters, one with dog and other with dog-head, dispute. The claim that the dog-head captured the game is allowed and then the alarm is raised that the owner of the game is coming to punish the theft. Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 243 No. 19.

J1216. J1216. Cheater put out of countenance by raising alarm. Wine seller carries water into his cellar. Man raises alarm pretending that he thought the house must be afire. Wesselski Bebel II 109 No. 31.

J1217. J1217. Worldly man puts religious man out of countenance.

J1217.1. J1217.1. One dueller fights with God's help; the other with his brother's. First claims that the odds are unfair; second agrees that he will fight without his brother if the first will fight without God. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 312.

J1217.2. J1217.2. Simple holy man puts philosopher out of countenance when he says to him that wisdom came before learning. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1218. J1218. Thirty years old for twelve years. Man claims to be thirty; has been doing so for the last twelve years. Spanish, Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1221. J1221. Old man in love with young woman puts his critics out of countenance. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1223. J1223. Rebuke for telling a poor and long-winded story. Italian Novella:

*Rotunda.

J1224. J1224. Poet puts others out of countenance.

J1224.1. J1224.1. Poet is importuned by admirers. Vaults away from them saying: "You may tell me anything you wish—in your own homes! Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1224.2. J1224.2. Poet (Dante) puts ruler out of countenance. Ruler had instructed jesters to tease him. The poet cleverly answers his questioners pretending to have the impression that the questions are addressed to the ruler. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1230.

J1230. Clever dividing.

J1241. J1241. Clever dividing which favors the divider. India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; West Indies: Flowers 481.

J1241.1. J1241.1. Dividing two sheep and a ram: trickster to divide with two friends. You two take one sheep; the ram and I will take the other. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 202 No. 399.

J1241.2. J1241.2. Dividing four coins among three persons. Two coins apiece given to two; other is to wait till two more coins are found. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 181 No. 339.

J1241.3. J1241.3. Dividing three fish among two men. Fools submit problem to trickster who solves problem by taking third fish himself. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 259.

J1241.4. J1241.4. Division of the fat and lean fowls. Two fat fowls and one lean one at meal. Hero is lean, his two hosts fat. He is to divide. One lean fowl for the two fat people; two fat fowls for the one lean man. *Wesselski Märchen 229 No. 40.

J1241.5. J1241.5. Dividing the eggs: one man's hand in the pot at a time. Trickster alternates hands so fast that the other man never gets to put his hand in. He finally puts his foot in the pan. Spanish: Childers.

J1242. J1242. Dividing by scripture quoting.

J1242.1. J1242.1. Hog's head divided according to scripture. To be divided among three students according to their skill in quoting. First: "And they cut one ear off" (takes ear). Second: "And they gave him a box on the ear" (takes other ear). Third: "And they took him away secretly" (takes whole hog away). BP II 361.

J1242.2. J1242.2. Three men divide a large fish by quoting scripture. Spanish: Childers.

J1243. J1243. Inherited gold ring divided between three by selling it and dividing the money. Icelandic: Boberg.

J1249. J1249. Clever dividing—miscellaneous.

J1249.1. J1249.1. Dividing five eggs equally between two men and one woman. Three to the woman and one each to the men. Men already have two (testicles). *Fischer-Bolte 207.

J1250—J1499.

J1250—J1499. Clever verbal retorts (repartee).

J1250. J1250. Clever verbal retorts—general. Boccaccio Decameron Day 6 (Lee 176ff.); Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1251. J1251. Baffling malice with ready answers. English: Child I 20—22, 485, III 496, IV 440.

J1251.1. J1251.1. Humiliated lover in repartee with disdainful mistress. (Cf. K1225.1, K1326.1.) Nouvelles Récréations No. 64.

J1252. J1252. Quibbling answers. E.g., Where are you going?—Forward. Where are you going to cut the tree?—At the foot. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1254. J1254. Evading a direct answer which may trap one. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1255. J1255. Answering only "yes" and "no". India: Thompson-Balys.

J1260. J1260. Repartee based on church or clergy.

J1261. J1261. Repartee based on levity toward sacred persons and things.

J1261.1. J1261.1. Levity toward name of God.

J1261.1.1. J1261.1.1. God as a father-in-law. Nuns tell a man that they are daughters of God. "Come and marry me; I should like such a rich father-in-law." Wesselski Bebel II 120 No. 60.

J1261.1.2. J1261.1.2. Why God has few friends. Priest consoles sick man by saying that God chastens those whom he loves. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 778.

J1261.1.3. J1261.1.3. Man barks his shins on dark night. "By the great bugaboo! If I was the Almighty and had a moon, I'd hang it out on a night like this." U.S.: Baughman.

J1261.1.4. J1261.1.4. Farmer looks at his hay on ground after a rain: "If I was a God, I'd be a God and not a damned fool!" U.S.: Baughman.

J1261.1.5. J1261.1.5. Woman causes disturbance in church, is carried out forcibly. She remarks. "Well I am more favored than my Lord. He had but one ass to ride, while I have two." U.S.: *Baughman.

J1261.2. J1261.2. Disrespect for the sacrament. (Cf. J1269.5.)

J1261.2.1. J1261.2.1. The sacrament for sale. Sick woman calls the parson but recovers meanwhile He insists on her taking the sacrament and charges for it. "Set it here on the table; perhaps I can sell it again." *Wesselski Bebel II 110 No. 36.

J1261.2.2. J1261.2.2. Distrusts God when he can be brought by a man. Priest offers to help peasant with "the body of the Lord". — "If God can be brought by a man, he is too weak to help me." Frey (ed. Bolte) *219 No. 10.

J1261.2.3. J1261.2.3. Priest may eat communion supper. Thief about to be hanged is told that if he truly repents he will eat Lord's Supper in heaven. "If that is true, won't you eat the supper for me; I'll reward you well." *Wesselski Bebel I 186 No. 42.

J1261.2.4. J1261.2.4. Sacrament too precious to be bought. If that were so, says the apprentice, no one would have given it to you or me. *Wesselski Bebel I 124 No. 12.

J1261.2.5. J1261.2.5. Dante is accused of not kneeling before sacrament. Says that he had his mind on God and did not remember what his body did. If those who criticized him had had their minds on God they would not have noticed it. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1261.2.6. J1261.2.6. Priest bringing Host to dying man sees thief on his fig tree. Shouts vituperations at him. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1261.2.7. J1261.2.7. Priest throws Chalice at owl. Says that he thought that the owl had stolen the Host. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1261.2.8. J1261.2.8. Priest carries the Host across a dangerous stream. Spectators tell him to thank God for not drowning. "I helped Him across!" Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1261.3. J1261.3. Will lunch with Christ. Priest tells condemned man after confession that he will dine with Christ that evening. Mule that carries him to scaffold goes very fast and criminal says, "At this rate I shall lunch with Christ." Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 150 No. 1855*.

J1261.4. J1261.4. Blessing not worth a penny. Beggar woman asks pope for shilling and, being refused, for a penny. Finally asks for his blessing, which he gives. Old woman: "If your blessing had been worth a penny, you wouldn't have given me that." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 344.

J1261.5. J1261.5. Will spend the funeral money now. King asks how much his funeral will cost. "Give me the three hundred ducats now and when I am dead throw me into the Tiber." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 187.

J1261.6. J1261.6. Priest may use his own mother's mass money. At his mother's funeral a boy takes the money laid on the altar for masses. When the priest objects, the boy says, "When your mother dies you may take the money too." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 703.

J1261.7. J1261.7. Judgment Day a long way off. Thief told by monk that he must return stolen cloth on Judgment Day "If I have so long a period of grace, I should like to take the whole monastery." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 783; Irish: Beal XXI 327, O'Suilleabhain 76; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1261.8. J1261.8. Monk's cordon cannot stand the strain. Franciscan claims that his cordon will save him from Hell. Benedictine answers that he once had a dream in which he saw St. Francis throw his cordon to save members of his order in Purgatory and so many clung to it that it snapped. (Cf. Q291.1.) Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1261.9. J1261.9. "Better a live confessor than a dead martyr." So answers a preacher when asked whether he preferred to stay at home and confess his flock or go to war against the infidels. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1261.10. J1261.10. How does goddess with thousand faces blow her noses? India: Thompson-Balys.

J1262. J1262. Repartee based on doctrinal discussions.

J1262.1. J1262.1. Earthen cups replaced by golden. Emperor: "God is a thief; he threw Adam into a sleep and then stole a rib from him." Emperor's daughter: "Would you call a man a thief who stole two earthen cups from you and replaced them by golden ones?" Jewish: Gaster Exempla 196 No. 55, *Neuman.

J1262.2. J1262.2. God in the puddle. A Jew objects to the doctrine that God could exist in the Virgin Mary. A disputant asks if he believes God is everywhere; then if God is in a mud puddle. The Jew agrees. The disputant condemns the Jew for believing that God could exist in a puddle and not in a pure virgin. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 154.

J1262.3. J1262.3. Acting according to the note. A Jew slaps a Christian and tells him to turn the other cheek. The Christian beats the Jew, who says, "You do not act according to your Gospel."—"I am acting in accordance with the note."—"The note is worse than the text." *Wesselski Bebel II 118 No. 56.

J1262.4. J1262.4. Levity regarding biblical passages. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1262.4.1. J1262.4.1. Levity regarding the paternoster. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1262.5. J1262.5. Parishioner hears preacher say that alms are returned "100 to 1". Chops down crucifix and takes money from box. Is told that such return would take place in other world. "I won't need money then, but I can use it now." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1262.5.1. J1262.5.1. Whoever gives alms in God's name will receive tenfold: preacher's wife gives sweetmeats away. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1262.6. J1262.6. "You don't blame a toolmaker for making all manner of tools, both harmful and helpful, so why blame God for making bad beasts as well as good ones?" Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1262.7. J1262.7. Repartee: "If you can't see the soul in the living man, how can you expect to see it in the dead?" retorts wise man to atheist. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1262.8. J1262.8. Skeleton has all his ribs. Indian examines skeleton of man at museum, finds there is no rib missing, concludes that ministers have deceived him in telling him the story of Adam. U.S.: Baughman.

J1262.9. J1262.9. Three true faiths. Ruler trying to confiscate Jew's money asks him which is the true faith. "There are three, the one which the Lord knows is right and the two his children think are right." (Cf. H659.5.1, J462.3.1.) Italian Novella: Rotunda (J462.3.1.2).

J1263. J1263. Repartee concerning clerical abuses.

J1263.1. J1263.1. Repartee based on clerical ignorance.

J1263.1.1. J1263.1.1. Why ignorant priests are favored. They can always find patrons as ignorant as they are. *Wesselski Bebel II 100 No. 4.

J1263.1.2. J1263.1.2. Consecration of the ignorant priest. A bishop disgusted with priest's ignorance says, "Who consecrated you as priest?" — "You did, the time I gave you ten florins." Wesselski Bebel I 221 No 114.

J1263.1.3. J1263.1.3. Priest who never reads mass. Peasants complain of his ignorance.

He says that they stand so close to him that he is afraid they might memorize and then pay no attention to his reading of it. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 773.

J1263.1.3.1. J1263.1.3.1. Rushing through the mass. Two priests apply for the position of chaplain and argue as to which one can say the mass more quickly. One clinches the argument saying: "You could not say it more quickly than I because I don't read half of it!" Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1263.1.4. J1263.1.4. Christ's disciples did not pass the examination. Ignorant student unable to pass his examination thus consoles himself. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 856.

J1263.2. J1263.2. Repartee concerning clerical venality. (Cf. J1192, J1263.1.2.)

J1263.2.1. J1263.2.1. Price of consecration. Bishop is paid 100 ova (eggs) instead of 100 oves (sheep) for consecrating man as priest. To bishop's protests the man answers, "You should have refused to consecrate me. If I had been worthy I should not have had to promise oves or ova." *Wesselski Bebel I 221 No. 115.

J1263.2.2. J1263.2.2. Rich man shakes ducats into pope's lap. Pope says, "Who could withstand such an armored army?" and decides for the rich man. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 346.

J1263.2.3. J1263.2.3. Priest refuses small bribe: only for large sum will he sell himself to devil. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No 547.

J1263.3. J1263.3. Christians have a merciful God. Jew so decides when he thinks of the scandalous life of the court of Rome. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 777; Boccaccio Decameron I No. 2 (Lee 2); Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1263.4. J1263.4. Repartee concerning clerical luxury.

J1263.4.1. J1263.4.1. The abbot's luxury and the cardinal's. Cardinal rebukes abbot for living in luxury beyond that of the founder of his order. Abbot asks cardinal if the cardinals of St. Peter traveled in the luxury he does. *Wesselski Bebel II 115 No. 48.

J1263.4.2. J1263.4.2. Man calls Saints Peter and Paul fools for enduring poverty if rich abbots can reach heaven, too. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1263.5. J1263.5. Clergy in no need of spectacles. Many do not pray at all, many know their prayers by heart, and the great prelates look through their fingers *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 514.

J1263.6. J1263.6. Choosing his confessor. Ruler explains: "I want a lying priest so that if he repeats my confession he will not be believed." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1263.7. J1263.7. Confession made easy. Peasant sees priest at work in the fields. Tells him he wishes to confess. He is told to put money in the box and take the same penance as the year before. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1264. J1264. Repartee concerning clerical incontinence.

J1264.1. J1264.1. The church his wife. Priest accused of being too intimate with parishioners' wives says that the church is his wife and that the men treat her far more shamefully than he treats any woman. Bolte Frey's Gartengesellschaft *253 No. 96.

J1264.2. J1264.2. Celibacy at the altar. Monk says, "I vowed three things: poverty in the bath, obedience at the table, and celibacy at the altar." *Wesselski Bebel II 133 No. 100.

J1264.3. J1264.3. Father wears a crown but is no king. Priest's son is thus taunted. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 161.

J1264.4. J1264.4. During the silent period. Nun asked why she did not call for help when raped. She says, "It was during the silent period." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 716.

J1264.5. J1264.5. Youth says he is associating with a pious person. He has nun as mistress. (Cf. J1161.5.) Wesselski *Bebel I 191 No. 58.

J1264.6. J1264.6. Nun claims her child is by the Holy Ghost. Defense accepted. Bolte Frey's Gartengesellschaft *218 No. 6.

J1264.7. J1264.7. Multiplying his talents. Priest is entrusted with reforming five dissolute nuns. Gets all five with child. The priest is rebuked for not using his "talents" when tempted. He answers: "God gave me five talents and I have added five more!" (Pun on word talent.) Nouvelles Récréations No. 4; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1264.8. J1264.8. Unequal returns. Man at his lady's funeral says to priest: "You enjoy them when they are young and then give them to us to bury. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1264.9. J1264.9. Abbess has twenty-four nuns for twelve monks: twelve nuns therefore for the guests. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 65.

J1265. J1265. Repartee based on church government.

J1265.1. J1265.1. Like Christ on Palm Sunday. Bishop has parson to dinner in the seat of honor. The parson fears that the dinner precedes punishment. Parson: "Don't let me be like Christ on Palm Sunday in Jerusalem" *Wesselski Arlotto I 173 No. 2.

J1265.2. J1265.2. Priest offers to exchange places with the bishop when he is told that he is unfit to care for his parish. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 78.

J1265.3. J1265.3. The same company of fools. An abbot calls the monks together and asks, "Whom from all you fools can I appoint as steward?" A monk answers, "That should not be difficult since an abbot was found from the same company of fools." Wesselski Bebel II 119 No. 58.

J1269. J1269. Repartee based on church or clergy—miscellaneous.

J1269.1. J1269.1. The parson's share and the sexton's. During the sermon the parson bids the sexton see if anyone is coming. The sexton: "A man is coming with a wheel on his shoulder"—Parson: "God gives it to you." — Sexton: "Now a man is coming with half a hog on his shoulder." — Parson: "God gives it to me." Type 1829*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1829*.

J1269.2. J1269.2. Man absents self from church because he does not like to hear people slandered. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 797.

J1269.3. J1269.3. Would be first in all things. Chaplain accused of being first to start all knavery thus defends himself. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 56.

J1269.4. J1269.4. Scolding priest says he is merely trying to get even for all the scolding he must undergo. Wesselski Bebel I 161 No. 96.

J1269.5. J1269.5. Transmutation of the quail. Bishop brought quail on Friday orders them cooked. Blamed. If he can turn bread into the body of the Lord why can he not turn quail into fish? Frey (ed. Bolte) 247 No. 85; Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 100; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1269.6. J1269.6. The capon and the hen. Bishop refuses a favor to an abbess on the ground that he does not love her. Abbess: "I can well believe that. The capon never loves the hen." Wesselski Mönchslatein No. 59; Mensa Philosophica No. 115.

J1269.7. J1269.7. Praying before the King of Kings. Man while praying refuses to salute superior. While standing before the King of Kings he could not show respect to inferiors. Gaster Exempla 194 No. 45; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 617.

J1269.8. J1269.8. Robber's defense for stealing from rich. God will not permit them to enter heaven unless we take their ill-gotten goods from them. *Wesselski Bebel II 142 No. 131.

J1269.9. J1269.9. Who bore the Savior on his back? (St. Christopher.) Parishioner: "The ass, for he bore both the son and his mother." Bolte Frey's Gartengesellschaft 245 No. 81.

J1269.10. J1269.10. Mice die of hunger. Complaints against underpaid priest that he does not stay at home. Says he cannot stay at home for the mice are dying of hunger since he receives only forty florins a year. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 773.

J1269.11. J1269.11. Their own quarters need it more. Such is the answer given monks who insist that quarters occupied by the king and his train be reconsecrated. Wesselski Bebel I 189 No. 53.

J1269.12. J1269.12. Youth announces fire in imitation of priest's metaphorical language. The fire set by cat's tail gains headway. Nouvelles Récréations No. 21.

J1269.13. J1269.13. Cannot leave court of God: reply of saint when king invites him to court. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1270. J1270. Repartee concerning the parentage of children.

J1271. J1271. Eunuch visits augurer to see whether he is to be a father. "When I look at the livers, you are to be a father. When I look at you, I see that you are not even a man." Wienert FFC LVI 40; Babrius No. 54.

J1272. J1272. The gift of the fool. Of three brothers the shoemaker makes shoes for the queen and princess; the tailor, clothes; the fool—children. Type 1548*; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 654A.

J1273. J1273. Children by day and by night. Artist paints beautiful children but his own are ugly. One kind, he says, are made by day, the other by night. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No 412; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1274. J1274. His father has been in Rome. A young man comes to Rome who looks like the emperor. Latter asks him if he mother has ever been in Rome. No, but my father has been here often. (Not son but brother.) *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 502; Mensa Philosophica No. 3; Nouvelles Récréations No. 15; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1276. J1276. The child born too soon.

J1276.1. J1276.1. Child born one month after marriage. Father-in-law to son-in-law: "Do like my grandson and you will always be ahead of others." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1276.2. J1276.2. Too much for his income. Child born two months after marriage. Husband returns wife to her father (uncle) saying: "I can't afford a child every two months." Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1276.2.1. J1276.2.1. Child born on wedding night. Groom leaves. Can't afford a child every time he lies with his wife. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 29; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1279. J1279. Repartee regarding the parentage of children—miscellaneous.

J1279.1. J1279.1. Plea for a good father. Mother of twelve on deathbed explains to family that not all her children are legitimate. Gives the paternity of each child. Youngest leaves his food to say: "Please, mother, give me a good father!" (Cf. J325.) Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1279.2. J1279.2. Even God can overdo it! Returning sailor finds his hovel transformed into a fine house. "Where does all this come from?" Wife: "God's bounty." Illegitimate child greets mother. Same question, same answer. Sailor: "I don't want God to help me so much!" Italian Novella: *Rotunda

J1279.3. J1279.3. Suitor hesitates to marry girl as immature (or too delicate). Girl's father protests, saying that she has had three children. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1279.4. J1279.4. In numbers there is strength. The children of the Genoese are strong because there is more help. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1280. J1280. Repartee with ruler (judge, etc.).

J1281. J1281. "If I were a tyrant you would not say so." Answer made by emperor to one who calls him a tyrant. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 733; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1282. J1282. Trickster chooses his gift. To be rewarded by ruler with a coin, an ass, a sheep, or a vineyard. Answers that he will take the coin, mount the ass, drive the sheep into the vineyard, and there pray for the ruler. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 237 No. 523.

J1283. J1283. Gifts from the brothers. A king gives a man a coin. "Is that all you give your brother?" "Are you my brother?" "Surely, we both pray, Our father, etc." "If all your brothers give you as much as I you will be rich." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 517.

J1284. J1284. Do not leave it to your successor. A widow stops a ruler on his way to war. He may be killed and he should not leave the act of justice as a credit to his successor. *Chauvin VIII 204 No. 246; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1284.1. J1284.1. Show me how it is done. Wronged woman thus addresses ruler, who is indifferent to insults directed at him. She wishes to be shown how to bear insults. This rebukes him. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1284.2. J1284.2. Cease being a king. A widow asks justice of a king. The latter says that he is too busy to hear her. "Then cease being a king," replies the widow. Her bold reply wins an audience with the king. Spanish: Childers.

J1285. J1285. Against his will. A thief condemned to the gallows tells the king, "I do what you do and it is against my will." King: "You shall also be hanged against your will." *Basset 1001 Contes I 507.

J1286. J1286. His proper title. A peasant goes to a judge and thinking to gain his favor addresses him with high titles. The judge calls him a fool. "I was mistaken, you swine!" *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 262 No. 223.

J1289. J1289. Repartee with ruler (judge, etc.)—miscellaneous.

J1289.1. J1289.1. Not a locksmith. A judge asks a pseudo-prophet to prove his powers by opening a difficult lock. "I am a prophet, not a locksmith." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 258 No. 198.

J1289.2. J1289.2. Bishop and prince. Peasant tells bishop, who rides by with forty horses, that he wonders if St. Kilian at Würzburg is also riding with forty horses. Bishop excuses extravagance by saying that he is also a prince and that it is the prince, not the bishop, who is using the horses. "If the prince should become a fool, what would the bishop do then?" Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 158.

J1289.3. J1289.3. Will not try to correct them. Pope calls persistent courtier a fool. Latter says that there are people who call the pope the same thing and that he for one will not try to correct them. Frey (ed. Bolte) 222 No. 17.

J1289.4. J1289.4. The needy philosopher. Philosopher asks ruler for money Ruler says that philosophers do not need money. Philosopher: "If I am rewarded, I will say that you are right; I will no longer need money." Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1289.5. J1289.5. Wearing all his clothes. Shivering king (rich man) to tattered peasant: "Aren't you cold?" Peasant: "No, if you wore all your clothes as I do, you wouldn't be cold either!" Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1289.6. J1289.6. The prince's excuse. King to son who has been accused of rape: "I never did anything like that." Prince: "Your father was not king!" King: "Your son will never be one if you keep that up!" Spanish: Childers; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1289.7. J1289.7. Shoemaker speaks ill of lord's rule. Lord takes his tools away from him. Shoemaker begs for them saying that he cannot carry on his business without them. Ruler: "I thought ruling was your business so I took your tools to learn shoemaking." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1289.8. J1289.8. One ear saved for other litigant. Judge stops up one ear while first litigant presents his case. He is saving one ear for the second litigant. Spanish: Childers.

J1289.9. J1289.9. Seek harmony in your own house. King brought to sense of duty by philosopher who tells him to seek harmony in his own house before inquiring about the harmony in his kingdom. Spanish: Childers.

J1289.10. J1289.10. King cannot destroy the city. A philosopher of the city came to him asking mercy for it King said he would do nothing he asked. Philosopher then asked him to destroy the city. This saves the city. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1289.11. J1289.11. Man, fined for sabbath-breaking, asks for receipt, explains that if God asks for it, he will not have to journey to hell to get it from the judge. U.S.: Baughman.

J1289.12. J1289.12. Man is arrested for drunkenness; he is so drunk that trial must be postponed. When he is tried later, he is told how at the earlier trial he had kept repeating that the judge was a very wise judge. When he hears this he admits that he must have been very drunk. U.S.: Baughman.

J1289.13. J1289.13. Weaver hearing of tax for every doorway of weavers takes his door to the khan: will not return for the sidewalls of his house. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1289.14. J1289.14. Gem offered by monarch to one who can first go around the kingdom. Trickster goes around king and says king is kingdom. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1289.15. J1289.15. Thief serves king buffaloes he has killed in hunt and lost; thus reproaches king's wastefulness. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1289.16. J1289.16. Hairless palms from giving and receiving gold. Jester flatters prince for bounty. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1289.17. J1289.17. Emperor: "What people have the biggest bellies?" Jester answers: "The landlords." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1289.18. J1289.18. Holy man asked by king for the heart of religion answers: "You are sitting on your throne and I'm sitting on the ground, so how can I tell." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1289.19. J1289.19. Tailor caught resting his head on royal robe while he rests tells king there is no better resting place for king's robe, for "the head is the king of the body." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1289.20. J1289.20. King to smoker: "Even donkeys will have nothing to do with tobacco." Smoker: "Donkeys don't know how to enjoy themselves." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1290. J1290. Reductio ad absurdum of question or proposal.

J1291. J1291. Question answered by absurd counterquestion.

J1291.1. J1291.1. Black beans, white soup. Question: How can black beans make a white soup? Answer: How can a white whip on the naked flesh make black welts.
*Wesselski Arlotto II 252 No. 168.

J1291.1.1. J1291.1.1. Why is it that black cow eats green grass, gives white milk and yellow butter? Answer: The same reason blackberries are red when they are green. U.S.: Baughman.

J1291.2. J1291.2. Theological questions answered by propounding simple questions in science. Where was God before he made heaven and earth? and the like answered by "Why a louse bite raises a blister, a flea bite raises a swelling, and a gnat bite is unnoticeable?" If you cannot answer such simple questions how can you pry into God's secrets. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 97.

J1291.3. J1291.3. How many priests should one have in one place? How many fox tails will reach to heaven? All depends on the length of the tails. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 96.

J1291.3.1. J1291.3.1. How much cloth would it take to make God's coat? Just as much as for me, for what you have done for a poor person in my name you have done for me. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 325.

J1291.4. J1291.4. "In this sesame flower where is the oil?" "When your mother conceived where were you?" India: Thompson-Balys.

J1292. J1292. Tide inquires whether moon is up. Minnow seeing absurdity of question (since tide could not be up without the moon) tells the tide to wait till he gets a drink and he will tell. Africa (Vai): Ellis 200 No. 17.

J1293. J1293. Reductio ad absurdum of proposal.

J1293.1. J1293.1. Little bird as large bird's mate. A large bird wishes to mate with a little bird. The latter says that she is going to swallow a large eel. The large bird sees the absurdity of his proposal. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 104.

J1293.1.1. J1293.1.1. Absurdity: sea (river) is on fire. Not more absurd than crow claiming swan as wife. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1293.2. J1293.2. If his head is taken off other punishments do not matter. Judge shows criminal mercy: he will not punish him as he deserves, only take off his head. Nouvelles Récréations No. 82.

J1293.3. J1293.3. Turning king into Brahmin like turning donkey into horse. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1293.4. J1293.4. Pot full of milk as sign that city is full of fakirs; flower on top of milk not disturbing it as sign that one more will not matter. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1293.5. J1293.5. All appurtenances included. Butcher buyer demands saddle and ornaments along with camel (or the like). Seller later buys all heads in butcher shop: demands heads of butcher's family. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1300. J1300. Officiousness or foolish questions rebuked. Irish myth: Cross.

J1301. J1301. How he shall be mourned. Women insist on knowing how a man wants to be mourned when he dies. "Mourn me as a man who was tormented by women talking foolishness." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 232 No. 86.

J1302. J1302. The overloaded mule. Priest complains that miller's mule is overloaded. "No, he isn't; he can still carry all your and your brothers' patience." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 473.

J1303. J1303. Aesop with the lantern. Aesop goes for fire to a neighbor's in the daytime and lights a lantern so as to bring the fire back. Fool asks him what he is hunting for with the lantern in the daytime. "I seek a man" (not a busybody). *Wienert FFC LVI 38, 40; Italian Novella: Rotunda (J1442.11).

J1304. J1304. Why the black clothes. A man goes forth in black clothes. People are curious as to the reason. "I am wearing mourning for the father of my son." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 211 No. 27.

J1305. J1305. How the tail pointed. One who believes in auguries asks peasant woman if she has seen a bird. "Yes, a crow." And in what direction was his tail pointing?" Answer: "Toward the rear!"

J1306. J1306. How marriage was consummated. Mother asks newly-wedded daughter if she approached her husband the first night. Answer: "He approached me." Spanish: Childers.

J1309. J1309. Officiousness or foolish questions rebuked—miscellaneous.

J1309.1. J1309.1. Man asks naked Indian if he is not cold. Indian asks if man's face is cold. Man replies that it is not. Indian replies: "Me all face!" U.S.: *Baughman.

J1309.2. J1309.2. "How often do you kill your ducks?" Answer: "Only once." England, U.S.: *Baughman.

J1309.3. J1309.3. "Where did dirt go when canal was dug?" Disgusted father-in-law: "I have eaten half and your father half, to have such a fool son-in-law." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1310. J1310. Repartee concerning wine.

J1311. J1311. What is wanted, not what is asked. A servant is so trained that when the host asks for wine from a good cask he brings it from a cheap one. When the guest objects, the host says that the servant brought not what was asked for but what was wanted. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 370.

J1312. J1312. The watered wine.

J1312.1. J1312.1. Serve the water and the wine separately. Server of diluted wine thus taunted. *Wesselski Bebel II 108 No. 29.

J1312.2. J1312.2. Washed in the Rhine. Server of diluted Rhine wine thus taunted. Wesselski Bebel II 108 No. 29.

J1312.3. J1312.3. Baptized wine. Christ's making wine from water has made all landlords try to do it too. Man prefers Jewish wine to the baptized kind. *Wesselski Bebel I 169 No 3.

J1313. J1313. Old wine. Man given his choice of old or new wine says, "We must honor old age." Wesselski Bebel I 163 No. 100.

J1314. J1314. The road to Heaven. To doctor: "If this is the way to get to Heaven (drinking) I don't want to know any other!" Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1315. J1315. Points of view. Man to friend who drinks very little: "If everyone drank as you do, wine would be cheap." Answer: "On the contrary, it would be expensive because I drink all I want." Spanish: Childers; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1316. J1316. Very small to be so old. Guest criticizes host's small serving of wine which he said was six years old. Spanish: Childers.

J1317. J1317. Small jug preferred. Man asks that large jug be filled with wine. Is told to go to the river. Is accommodated when he presents small jug. (Cf. L251.) Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1318. J1318. Wine gives ambassador courage to address Pope. "Another drink and I could have slapped his face!" Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1319. J1319. Repartee concerning wine—miscellaneous.

J1319.1. J1319.1. Man says: "I do love my enemies and I have great affection for them that hurt me." (Enemies are rum and hard cider.) U.S.: Baughman.

J1320. J1320. Repartee concerning drunkenness.

J1321. J1321. The unrepentant drunkard.

J1321.1. J1321.1. Where did he get the wine? Father shows drunkard son a drunk man being mocked on the street. Instead of taking it as a warning the son says "Where does one get such good wine?" *Pauli (ed. Bolte) Nos. 21, 814; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas II 115, 344, *Neuman.

J1321.2. J1321.2. Though old woman is made to believe she is in hell she calls for drinking companions. *Wesselski Bebel I 230 No. 142.

J1322. J1322. The great thirst.

J1322.1. J1322.1. Will take care of the thirst. Doctors consult how to rid fever-stricken drunkard of his great thirst. "You take care of the fever; I shall take care of the thirst." *Wesselski Arlotto II 267 No. 217; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1322.2. J1322.2. Sleeping on salt. Priest blamed for large amount of wine he drinks tells people to consider his great thirst. He has slept on a sack of salt and has enough thirst for a week. *Wesselski Arlotto I 208 No. 45.

J1323. J1323. Should have brought him drink. Drunkard's wife takes him when he is drunk to a tomb and, masking as a ghost brings him food. "If you had known me better you would have brought me drink." Wienert FFC LVI 38; Halm Aesop No. 108.

J1324. J1324. Stung by the goblet. Doctor tells drunkard, "The goblet has stung you." "If I had known that I would have drunk out of a glass." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 234.

J1330. J1330. Repartee concerning beggars.

J1331. J1331. Persistent beggar invited upstairs. A beggar will not come in but insists on the man coming down to the door. When he asks alms the man bids him come upstairs. Then he says he has nothing for him. "You made me come down for nothing; I make you come up for nothing." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 238 No. 113.

J1332. J1332. Beggar wants bread. A numskull tells his mother that a beggar is below asking for bread. Mother: "Tell him I am not at home." Numskull: "He doesn't want you, he wants bread." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 239 No. 528.

J1333. J1333. Prove me a liar. Beggar: "Good day, you stingy fellows." They: "We are not stingy fellows." Beggar: "Then give and prove me a liar." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 202 No. 397.

J1334. J1334. Beggar tells stingy to go beg. They say they have no meat, no bread, no wine, etc. "Then go beg; you have more need than I." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 236 No. 519.

J1337. J1337. Beggar claims to be emperor's brother. (All men are descended from Adam.) Emperor gives him small coin. Beggar protests. Emperor: "If all your brothers gave you that much you would be richer than I." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1338. J1338. Asking costs nothing. So says beggar who asks goldsmith to plate his club with gold. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1340. J1340. Retorts from hungry persons. Irish myth: Cross; U.S.: Baughman.

J1341. J1341. Retort from underfed servant (child). India: Thompson-Balys.

J1341.1. J1341.1. Softening bread-crusts. An avaricious master feeds bread-crusts to his servants. "The crusts are already getting soft." Type 1567.

J1341.2. J1341.2. Asking the large fish. Parents serve boy a small fish and keep back a large one for themselves. Knowing this, the boy puts the fish to his ear. He says that he has asked the fish a question; the fish cannot answer but tells him to ask the large fish under the bed. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 247 No. 158; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 700; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1565; Italian Novella: Rotunda; L. Schmidt Oesterr. Zs. f. Vksk. 1954, 134.

J1341.3. J1341.3. A dog to scent the rice. Given very thin rice soup, wit inquires about the master's dogs. "He should have one to scent the rice in this soup." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 259 No 206, Arlotto II 75 No. 105.

J1341.4. J1341.4. Two eggs. Widow serves tailor one egg. He sings, "One egg, one egg." She decides one egg is not enough and serves him two next time. He then sings "Two eggs are two eggs." He is next given two eggs and a sausage, etc. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 142 No. 1715.

J1341.5. J1341.5. Hungry apprentice attracts master's attention by telling lies on him. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 143 No. 1718, Keller.

J1341.6. J1341.6. Hungry shepherd attracts attention. He tells of a cow with four teats who bore five calves. They ask what the fifth calf does while the other four are nursing. "It looks on just as I am doing now." Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 134 No. 1555.

J1341.7. J1341.7. Stingy innkeeper cured of serving weak beer. She always gives the servants a pitcher of weak beer before meals so as to fill them up. One of them: "I wash out my insides so as to have more room for food." She changes her practice. Type 1566*.

J1341.8. J1341.8. The little lumps of sugar are sweeter, says the hostess. The servant says that he doesn't like sweets and takes the large lumps. Type 1389*.

J1341.9. J1341.9. Hungry son gets cherries. He slaps another son, and explains that the other boy was saying that he would not get any of the father's cherries. The father shares the cherries. Spanish: Childers.

J1341.10. J1341.10. Hungry student gets meat. By telling a mewling cat that it could not yet have the bones because no meat has been served him, a collegian calls attention to an oversight on the part of a servant. Spanish: Childers.

J1341.11. J1341.11. Hired men sing of displeasure with food; change song when food is improved (cante fable). The Westmoreland text follows:

(Mowers sing this very slowly, mow in tempo)

Curds and whey, Iv-ve-ry day

(After the food is improved they sing and work in tempo)

Ham and eggs, mind thy legs.

(Cf. K1546.) England, U.S.: *Baughman.

J1341.12. J1341.12. Hired man shows in saying grace how better food has resulted from arrival of unexpected guests. Nebraska text:

O Lord of Love who art above

Thy blessings have descended:

Biscuits and tea for supper I see

When mush and milk was intended.

U.S.: *Baughman.

J1342. J1342. Prayer over the underdone hen. A guest is seen uttering a prayer before an underdone hen at the table. "She must be a goddess turned into a hen, for she has been over the fire and spared." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 193 No. 378.

J1343. J1343. The liking for food and drink.

J1343.1. J1343.1. The best music. What music do you like best? The sound of plates and spoons. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 244 No. 133.

J1343.2. J1343.2. Before, during, and after. A priest, asked when he would have certain choice wine served, before or after the meal, replies, "The holy Mary was Virgin before, during, and after the birth." *Wesselski Arlotto I 202 No. 33.

J1344. J1344. Unwelcome guest tells about the hidden food. Having seen his hostess hide it, he tells about it in the form of a tale. Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 10; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

J1345. J1345. Why he did not eat the bread. When host inquires, he replies, "If thou be the son of God, command that these stones be made bread." Mensa Philosophica No. 171.

J1346. J1346. Maid rebukes pilgrim for eating too much. "If both of us had been present at the miracle of the loaves and fishes you would have eaten me too!" Pilgrim: "I wouldn't have eaten you but I would have chewed on you a bit!" Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 83; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1350. J1350. Rude retorts. Irish myth: *Cross.

J1351. J1351. Women call each other prostitutes.

J1351.1. J1351.1. Prostitutes wander. A woman having given her cook leave of absence for the next day asks her what day it is. "Saturday." "No, it is the day on which the prostitutes wander." The cook: "Yes, from one prostitute to another. Today I am with you, tomorrow with your sister." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 160.

J1351.2. J1351.2. The envious accuser. A woman accuses another of being a harlot. The second: "You would like to be in my place but no one wants you." *Wesselski Bebel II 127 No. 83.

J1352. J1352. Person calls another an ass.

J1352.1. J1352.1. The burden of two asses. A king and his son hunting on a hot day put their fur coats on the fool's back. King: "You have an ass's load on you." Fool: "Rather the burdens of two asses." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 239 No. 527; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1352.2. J1352.2. Age is relative. Young rival derides old one for his age. Oldster: "An ass of twenty is older than a man of seventy." Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1353. J1353. Whom it concerns. There is someone carrying a goose. How does that concern me? He is carrying it to your house. How does that concern you? *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 231 No. 497.

J1354. J1354. Not in his line of business. At market a man enquires of another: "How is the moon, three-quarters or full?" "I don't know. I have neither bought nor sold one." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 209 No. 17.

J1355. J1355. The one exception. "You are a good man; there is not your equal on the earth. You have everything for yourself alone; only your wife is public property." Wesselski Bebel II 135 No. 104.

J1356. J1356. The flatterer's retort. Two men meet a homely girl. One of them: "Who wouldn't call that girl pretty?" The girl overhears and says, "No one would say it of you." The man: "Anyone might say it who would lie as I have lied about you." *Wesselski Bebel II 148 No. 155; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1357. J1357. Ancient and modern ancestors. To a prince who boasted that he was descended from the Trojans a doctor replies: "My people are of Nuremberg. Everyone knows who they are; but of the Trojans no one knows anything except that Aeneas was a traitor and Romulus a robber." *Wesselski Bebel II 114 No. 46.

J1358. J1358. No thanks to the messenger. A messenger tells a man that he has a newborn son. "Thanks are to God, but I am not beholden to you for it." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 223 No. 59.

J1361. J1361. Monk says that he is a stallion. In reply to women's taunts he boasts of his powers. A woman calls on the devil to come and ride him. Bolte Frey 253 No. 97.

J1363. J1363. Too late for the same advice. Impoverished spendthrift sarcastically to thrifty person: "Stop spending so freely!" "It's too late to give you the same advice." Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1364. J1364. To be rewarded by his kind. Unworthy person is rewarded. Asks worthy one: "Why is it that I am rewarded and you are not?" Answer: "Because you have found more of your kind that I have of mine." (Also told of Dante and a minstrel.) Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1369. J1369. Rude retorts—miscellaneous.

J1369.1. J1369.1. Man decides to spend 100 florins to become known. Friend: "You had better spend 200 so as to not be found out." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1369.2. J1369.2. The prodigy's retort. An old man says of a youthful prodigy: "He will be an idiot in old age because perfection before maturity brings on deterioration of the mind." Youth: "You must have been very wise in your youth!" Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1369.3. J1369.3. Two men meet in narrow passage. One says: "I do not give every coxcomb the wall!" The other says: "I do, sir!" England: Baughman.

J1369.4. J1369.4. Person asks: "Whose fool are you?" Answer: "I am the Bishop of Durham's fool; whose fool are you?" England: *Baughman.

J1369.5. J1369.5. Why soldier is silent before king: is always so when questioned by stupid person. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1370. J1370. Cynical retorts concerning honesty.

J1371. J1371. The account-book of mistakes. A king, hearing that a man keeps an account-book of people's mistakes asks to see about his own record. He reads that the king has made a mistake in trusting a certain sum of money to a servant. King: "How if he comes back with it?" "I shall cross off your name and put him down for making a mistake." *Wesselski Arlotto I 181 No. 5; Chauvin II 153 No. 20; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1373. J1373. Safe since no white man is near. White man asks Indian if he can safely leave some of his belongings inside the Indian's lodge. The Indian assures him that he can: "There is no white man within a hundred miles of here." (Cf. X600.) U.S.: Baughman.

J1380. J1380. Retorts concerning debts.

J1381. J1381. Where you got it last year. Parson tells borrower to get the corn at the same place as he got it last year. There is none there. "Then you didn't return it as you said you would, and there is none to lend you this year." *Wesselski Arlotto II 259 No. 186; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1382. J1382. Payers of cash favored.

J1382.1. J1382.1. The one to blow the whistle. Many persons request a man on the way to market to buy them a whistle. Finally one hands him a coin with the request. "You are the one who shall blow the whistle." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 246 No. 146.

J1382.2. J1382.2. The weighted order-cards. To a man going on a voyage, various people give commissions for purchases, which he writes down on cards. Some give him money; some promise it on his return. On ship he looks the cards over, placing the proper gold on the proper card. A wind blows into the sea those not weighted with gold. *Wesselski Arlotto II 234ff. No. 122.

J1383. J1383. Unstable security. Stag tries to borrow grain from the sheep, using the wolf as security. Sheep says that they are both so swift that he does not know where they will be on the day of payment. Wienert FFC LVI 54 (ET 144), 98 (ST 118).

J1384. J1384. A three thousand year old debt. Guests in inn discuss reincarnation. "Since we shall come back in three thousand years, the host might trust us till then." Host: "You still owe me what you didn't pay three thousand years ago." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 858.

J1390. J1390. Retorts concerning thefts.

J1391. J1391. Thief makes a lame excuse. India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesian Coster-Wijsman Uilspiegel Verhalen 35ff. Nos. 17—22.

J1391.1. J1391.1. Thief's excuse: the big wind. Vegetable thief is caught in a garden. Owner: How did you get into the garden? A wind blew me in. How were the vegetables uprooted? If the wind is strong enough to blow me in, it can uproot them. How did they get into your bag? That is what I was just wondering. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 207 No. 7, cf. II 214 No. 441.

J1391.2. J1391.2. The ladder market. A thief climbs over a wall by means of his ladder. When caught in the garden he says that he is a seller of ladders. Owner: "Is this a ladder market?" "Can't one sell ladders everywhere?" Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 210 No. 18.

J1391.3. J1391.3. The sheep's teeth. Two thieves caught with stolen sheep. One says that he told the other than sheep have lower teeth but no upper, and that they caught the sheep to see. India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Vai): Ellis 221 No. 34.

J1391.3.1. J1391.3.1. Bitten by the sheep. Man caught just as he knocks sheep in the head: The sheep bit me (or: I'm not going to let sheep butt me to death). U.S.: *Baughman.

J1391.4. J1391.4. How he would act if he were a hawk. A hawk steals a piece of liver from a trickster and flies away with it. The trickster likewise steals some liver from another man and escapes to a high place with it. He says that he is seeing how he would act if he were a hawk. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 214 No. 41.

J1391.5. J1391.5. Fox pretends that he has been to the farmyard only to see if any of his kindred were there. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1391.6. J1391.6. Lame excuse: one cannot drink because he has no teeth. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1391.7. J1391.7. Were merely measuring cup. King demands that each subject bring small amount of milk to put in his new cup. They plan to cheat him by bringing him water. Accused, they say that they were merely measuring the cup to see how much it would take to fill it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1391.8. J1391.8. Needles and anchors. Fox leaving merchant's warehouse: "I had wanted a needle as big as an anchor and an anchor as small as a needle." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1392. J1392. Owner assists thief.

J1392.1. J1392.1. Thief followed home. A thief ransacks a man's house and departs. The man gathers together the rest of his belongings and tracks the thief. Comes to the thief's door. Thief: "What do you want with me?" "What, isn't this the house we set out for?" *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 212 No. 32.

J1392.2. J1392.2. Robbers commiserated. A buffoon says to robbers in his house, "You can't find anything here in the dark, for I can find nothing in broad daylight." *Wesselski Bebel I 132 No. 32; Scala Celi 104b No. 567; Mensa Philosophica No. 62.

J1392.2.1. J1392.2.1. Owner advises thieves to return later. He is not yet in bed
Spanish: Childers.

J1392.3. J1392.3. Cynic helps robber steal his money so he and robber can get sleep.
Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1392.4. J1392.4. Owner laughs at thief who finds nothing in house. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1392.5. J1392.5. Bridegroom promises thief spoils later if he will not interfere with wedding. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1393. J1393. The double fool. A numskull caught changing meal from others' sacks into his own. Miller asks him what he is doing. "I am a fool." "Why then don't you put your meal into their sacks?" "I am only a simple fool. If I did that I should be a double fool." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 181 No. 342.

J1394. J1394. Thieves' nocturnal habits.

J1394.1. J1394.1. Night study. A thief having scorned Demosthenes for his constant study, the latter says, "I know that you have not failed to notice that I study much at night." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No 801.

J1394.2. J1394.2. Man who rises too early. The king in order to correct the habit has him robbed. He says that robbers get up even earlier than he. Chauvin II 196 No. 26.

J1395. J1395. Was going to give it to him any way. Thus a hunter answers a thief who steals his hare. Wienert FFC LVI 84 (ET 504), 125 (ST 337); Halm Aesop No. 163.

J1396. J1396. Removing chance for worry. A king noticing that a student has stolen a capon, asks, "Does not the Bible say that you should not worry about tomorrow?" "Exactly. I was trying to remove all chance of worry tomorrow." Wesselski Mönchslatein 109 No. 92; Nouvelles Récréations No. 35.

J1397. J1397. The cost price recovered. A man takes a shirt to market for a friend who has stolen it. At market it is stolen from the seller. He tells his friend that the market was bad and that he was able to get back only the cost price (nothing). *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 230 No. 491.

J1398. J1398. Compliments from the hangman. A man complimented a hangman on the good job he had done in hanging a thief. The hangman takes off his hat: "One thief I hang, to the other I take off my hat." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 591.

J1399. J1399. Retorts concerning thefts—miscellaneous.

J1399.1. J1399.1. The Lord has Risen. A parson hides his money in a holy place and leaves a sign, "The Lord is in this Place." A thief takes the money and leaves a sign, "He is risen and is no longer here" Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 74.

J1400. J1400. Repartee concerning false reform.

J1401. J1401. The tailor's dream. A tailor dreams that at Judgment Day he sees a flag made up of all the pieces of cloth he has stolen Upon waking he asks his servants to warn him if they ever see him tempted to steal again. This happens. He replies, "The piece I am about to steal does not fit into the flag." *BP I 343; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 256 No. 190.

J1410. J1410. Repartee concerning fatness.

J1411. J1411. The hay wagon and the gate. A parson arriving late at a city gate asks if he can get in. Guard sees that he is fat and in fun says that he doesn't know. The parson: "Why not; doesn't the hay wagon get in?" *Wesselski Arlotto II 265 No. 209; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1420. J1420. Animals retort concerning their dangers.

J1421. J1421. Peace among the animals. (Peace fable.) The fox tries to beguile the cock by reporting a new law establishing peace among the animals. Dogs appear; the fox flees. "The dogs have not heard of the new law." *Type 62; *BP II 207; Wienert FFC LVI 52 (ET 120), 98 (ST 125); Halm Aesop No. 225; Jacobs Aesop 214 No. 59; *Chauvin II 202 No. 51, V 241 No. 141; *Lancaster PMLA XXII 33; *Graf FFC XXXVIII 26; Fb "ræv" III 114a.—Spanish: Espinosa III No. 225; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1422. J1422. Good bath. A cat seeing a mouse leave a bath says, "Good bath!" Mouse: "If I had not seen you!" Chauvin III 55 No. 11.

J1423. J1423. Roast falcon. A falcon reproaches a cock for fleeing from the master who has fed him. The cock: "I have never seen a falcon roasted." *Chauvin II 117 No. 96.

J1424. J1424. Where the foxes will meet. Two foxes in a trap converse: "Where shall we meet again?" "In three days at the furrier's." Chauvin III 77 No. 51.

J1430. J1430. Repartee concerning doctors and patients.

J1431. J1431. I know not how. Sick man: "I came to a place I know not where; something happened I know not how; I am sick I know not where." Doctor: "Go to the pharmacy and buy I know not what, and eat it I know not how, and you will become well I know not when." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 629; Scala Celi 47b No. 268.

J1432. J1432. No physician at all. A bad physician having predicted the immediate death of a patient meets him recovered. "How go things down below?" "They put you at the head of the list of bad physicians, but I maintained that you were no physician at all." Wienert FFC LVI 39; Halm Aesop No. 168.

J1433. J1433. "Do as I say and not as I do." Doctor forbids patient to drink wine. When patient reproves doctor for drinking wine the latter says: "Just now it is bad for you and good for me." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1434. J1434. Strenuous cure for madness. Doctor throws patients into a pit of water. Servant warns queer-looking hunter to flee before master throws him into the pit. (Cf. K2137.) Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1438. J1438. Veterinarian becomes doctor. When he killed animals he had to pay for them; but he did not have to pay for killing people. Spanish: Childers.

J1440. J1440. Repartee—miscellaneous.

J1441. J1441. God of the earth. Question from the king: "Who are you?" "I am God." "Make my eyes larger." "I am only God of the earth and have power only below the girdle." *Köhler-Bolte I 504; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 279 No. 326.

J1442. J1442. A cynic's retorts.

J1442.1. J1442.1. The cynic wants sunlight. King (to cynic): "What can I do for you?" "Get out of my sunlight. Don't take away from me what you can't give me." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 802; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1442.1.1. J1442.1.1. Cynic praises power of reason. Tells Alexander that the power of reason makes even a poor man as great as a king. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1442.2. J1442.2. The cynic at the bath. Leaving an unclean bath house: "Where can I go now to wash?" Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 802.

J1442.3. J1442.3. The cynic and the pale gold. "Why is gold so pale?" "It is in great danger." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 802.

J1442.4. J1442.4. The cynic's burial. Asked who will carry him to his grave if he has no friends: "He who needs my house." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 802.

J1442.4.1. J1442.4.1. Cynic asks that his body be exposed to the elements. When told that the beasts and the birds will prey on him he says: "Put a stick at my side so that I may chase them away." Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1442.5. J1442.5. The cynic as judge of wine. Asked which wine tastes best, he says, "That belonging to other people." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 802.

J1442.6. J1442.6. The cynic and the big gates. Coming to a little town with big gates, he says, "Close the gate so that the town won't run away." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 802.

J1442.7. J1442.7. The cynic and the bastard stone-thrower. Cynic: "Be careful; you might hit your father." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 802; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1442.8. J1442.8. The cynic discusses heaven. Hearing a man discoursing at great length about heaven, he asks, "When did you come down from there?" Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 802.

J1442.9. J1442.9. The cynic and the bald-headed man. His only reply to the baldheaded man's slanders is to compliment the hair that has left such a horrible head. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 802.

J1442.10. J1442.10. The cynic and the deceiver. When the deceiver calls him wicked, he says, "I am glad that you are my enemy; for you do good to your enemies and evil to your friends." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 802.

J1442.11. J1442.11. The cynic and the fig tree. Man tells friend that his wife has hanged herself on a fig tree. Friend: "Give me a shoot of that tree!" Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1442.11.1. J1442.11.1. The cynic's wish. When he learns that a woman has hanged herself from a tree he explains: "Would that all trees bore such fruit!" Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1442.12. J1442.12. Cynic is asked if widower should remarry. "One who has just escaped from drowning should not return to sea." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1442.13. J1442.13. The smallest woman makes the best bride. "Of an evil choose the smallest part." Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1443. J1443. The fools in the city. Man ordered to number the fools in the city replies, "It is easier to number the wise men." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 241 No. 535; Chauvin VII 126 No. 393bis.

J1444. J1444. They gave it away themselves. A wandering actor rewarded by a city with a coat of their color gambles it away. When upbraided about giving away their present he replies that they hadn't wanted to keep it themselves. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 396.

J1445. J1445. The forgotten traditions. A man has been told by a seer that there are two ways in which a believer may be distinguished. But he has forgotten one of them and the seer had forgotten the other. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 186 No. 353.

J1446. J1446. Aaron's censer. A man strikes a priest with a cane: "This is Moses' staff." The priest shoots with a pistol: "This is Aaron's holy censer." Type 1847*.

J1447. J1447. The favored swine. Dog reproaches sow that Venus will not allow those who have eaten swine to enter her temple. Sow says that it is because the goddess abhors those who kill swine. Wienert FFC LVI 56 (ET 161), 107 (ST 191); Halm Aesop No. 408.

J1448. J1448. The contagious yawns. A husband planning to punish his wife, who has yawned in church at the same time as a man, sees his error when his wife in the woods calls out, "The squirrels hop from bough to bough as the yawns from mouth to mouth." Finnish: Aarne FFC VIII 6 No. 23; XXXIII 52 No. 23; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 141 No. 12; Livonian: Looirts FFC LXVI 84 No. 35.

J1451. J1451. Who gets the beehive. Badger: "I was a hundred years old when grama grass first grew." Crane: "My daughter was a hundred years old when grama grass first grew." Wolf: "I am only eight years old, but we shall see who gets the beehive." Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 31 No. *80, Espinosa III Nos. 268—270, Espinosa Jr. Nos. 26, 27.

J1452. J1452. Why he was thin. Philosopher explains that with his own blood he was nourishing as large a population as that of the Roman Emperor (lice). *Wesselski Bebel II 145 No. 140.

J1453. J1453. It's better to fight in the shade. Soldier tells captain that the enemy are so numerous that their arrows darken the sun. Captain: "Good, it will be more comfortable fighting in the shade." Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1454. J1454. The lion and the statue. A man points out the statue to show the supremacy of man. The lion: "If it had been a lion sculptor, the lion would have been standing over the man." Wienert FFC LVI 70 (ET 343), 101 (ST 145); Halm Aesop No. 63; Jacobs Aesop 208 No. 35.

J1455. J1455. Has never died yet. Slave (workman) recommended to master whose recent slaves have died: "He has never died while I owned him." *Clouston Book of Noodles 8; England, U.S.: Baughman.

J1456. J1456. The liar. A man attempts to lie out of having called another a liar: "You lie if you say that I said you lied." The other: "It's a good thing for you that you didn't call me a liar." (Cf. J817.) *Wesselski Bebel I 204 No. 85.

J1457. J1457. The gray fox. An old husband tells his young wife, who is concerned about his gray hair, "A gray fox is as good as a red one." "But an old gray fox is not so good as a young red one." Bolte Frey 242 No. 75.

J1458. J1458. An oath to break oaths. Village called on to join in war deliberates in meeting. A man says, "We have taken oaths not to go to war. We must now take an oath to break all the oaths we have taken." Wesselski Bebel I 205 No. 88.

J1461. J1461. The cause of grayness. Fool asked what made him gray-headed replies, "My hair." *Wesselski Bebel I 228 No. 133.

J1462. J1462. Customary suits. Man who wears a red cap after his father's death says, "I can grieve just as much in red as in black." *Wesselski Bebel I 125 No. 16.

J1463. J1463. A long beard and sanctity. Told that a forest dwarf with a long beard is a saint, a man replies: "If a long beard indicates sanctity, the goat is a saint." *Wesselski Bebel I 129 No. 30.

J1465. J1465. Trumpeter's false defense. A trumpeter captured pleads that he did not fight. Answered: "You may not fight, but you encourage your men to do so." Jacobs Aesop 220 No. 79.

J1467. J1467. Must drink from the common cup. A man always drinks out of his own cup. In storm at sea a sailor says, "Today we all drink out of the same cup (the sea). *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 247.

J1467.1. J1467.1. Sailor prays for gods to sink ship during storm, since gods never do what they are asked to do. Spanish: Childers.

J1468. J1468. Not in good form. A duke invites a notorious eater. The latter consumes eight fowls, forty eggs, and other things in proportion. In leaving he apologizes for eating so little as he had not felt well the night before. He will do better next time. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 249; Nouvelles Récréations Nos. 57, 73.

J1471. J1471. The eunuch's defense. Reproached with his mutilation, the eunuch says that his ill fortune is no shame. The only shame is to merit what you suffer. Wienert FFC LVI 82 (ET 485), 149 (ST 546).

J1472. J1472. The fairest thing in the garden. Three brothers asked by princess what is the most beautiful thing in the garden. The youngest replies, "Yourself." He wins the princess. Type 925*.

J1473. J1473. The greedy dreamer. He dreams that he receives nine coins. He demands ten. He wakes and finds that he has dreamed. He is willing to accept the nine. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 206 (No. 5); Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1473.1. J1473.1. The 999 gold pieces. A man prays for a thousand gold pieces and says that he will not accept one less. A joker sends him 999. He says that he will trust God for the other coin. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 220ff. No. 54.

J1474. J1474. The fatal bed. A sailor says that all his ancestors have drowned. Citizen: "Aren't you afraid of drowning?" Sailor: "How did your ancestors die?" Citizen: "All of them in bed." Sailor: "Aren't you afraid to go to bed?" *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 264.

J1475. J1475. Is ready to go. A peddler scolds the dog who is waiting and tells him to get ready to go with him. The dog replies that he has nothing to carry, that it is the peddler who is late. Wienert FFC LVI 73 (ET 379), 125 (ST 343).

J1476. J1476. The proud hide humbled. A hide is in the river. River: "What is your name?" Hide: "Hard hide." River: "Hunt another name; I'll soon soften you." Wienert FFC LVI 75 (ET 403), 101 (ST 148); Halm Aesop No. 381.

J1477. J1477. Demonstrate here. A man boasts of his jump on Rhodes and says that if he were in Rhodes he could prove his boast. Reply: "No need to go to Rhodes. Show us your jump here." Wienert FFC LVI 82 (ET 480), 100 (ST 135); Halm Aesop No. 203.

J1478. J1478. Husband and wife burn their mouths. A wife served overhot soup, forgets and burns herself so that tears come to her eyes She says that her departed father liked soup so much that she weeps when she eats it. The husband is also burned and weeps: "I am weeping because your accursed mother didn't take you with her when she died." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 238 No. 115; Köhler-Bolte I 498; Indonesian: Coster-Wijsman 71 No. 129.

J1478.1. J1478.1. The abbot burns his mouth. Says that he is crying because so many have left the monastery. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1481. J1481. As you surely will. After her husband's death a woman cannot find a hammer and anvil. She goes to a dying neighbor and says, "If you die, as you surely will, and go to Heaven, as you surely will not, ask my husband where he left the hammer and anvil." The dying man's wife replies, "If you go to Heaven, as you surely will, if you die as you surely will not, do not run around and get into trouble, but sit down by the Eternal Father and observe and keep still." Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 93 No. 805.

J1482. J1482. Keeping the secret. Man tells parson secret and asks him to keep it. The parson refuses; "If you can't keep the secret, you must not expect me to." *Wesselski Arlotto II 263 No. 199.

J1483. J1483. Repartee concerning runaway horses.

J1483.1. J1483.1. King and jester flee: the king's swift horse. Jester: "You did have a swift horse. When I had to stop because my horse was tired out, you went two miles further." Wesselski Bebel I 207 No. 94.

J1483.2. J1483.2. Where his mule will. A man on a runaway mule is asked, "Where are you going?" "Wherever my mule wants to." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 181 No. 343; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Japanese: Ikeda.

J1483.3. J1483.3. Storms on land. An inexperienced rider borrows a horse, which runs away with him. He says, "There are no such storms on sea as on the land." *Wesselski Bebel II 107 No. 21.

J1483.4. J1483.4. "Why didn't you stay on the horse?" The rider: "I couldn't; you see, it ended there" (pointing to horse's head). India: Thompson-Balys.

J1484. J1484. The sound of shaving. An unskillful barber keeps cutting a man's face. A noise is heard. The man: "What is that?" Barber: "A smith shoeing horses." Man: "I thought it was someone being shaved." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 226f. No. 473.

J1485. J1485. Mistaken identity. A bride slips up behind her husband and kisses him. He is annoyed. She: "Pardon me, I did not know it was you" Clouston Noodles 94.

J1485.1. J1485.1. Husband mistaken for lover in bed. Farmer has whiskers shaved off, hair cut short. He gets home late, slips into bed with his wife. She runs her hand over his face, says: "Young man, if you're goin' to do anything, you'd better be agittin' at it, 'cause Old Whiskers'll be here pretty soon." U.S.: Baughman.

J1486. J1486. Listening to the debate. A lazy youth explains his late rising by saying that he lay abed to hear the argument between industry and laziness. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 761; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1487. J1487. Progress in school. A man sends his two sons to schools and later enquires of their progress. One: "I am past Grace." The other: "I am at the devil and all his works." *Clouston Noodles 222; England: *Baughman.

J1488. J1488. What the bear whispered in his ear. Paid guide climbs tree and leaves traveler to mercy of a bear. Traveler feigns death and the bear sniffs at him and leaves. The guide: "What did the bear say to you?" "He said, never trust a coward like you." Wienert FFC LVI 68 (ET 319), 126 (ST 349); Halm Aesop No. 311; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 422; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1491. J1491. Artist paints too few birds. Is engaged to decorate room. Owner: "You did not paint as many birds as I told you to." Artist: "The windows were left open and most of them flew out." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1492. J1492. Trickster artist hoodwinks king: cuckold's eyes cannot see picture. King pretends to see the picture. Courtiers reveal that there is no picture. Spanish: Childers.

J1493. J1493. Daydreamer has lost his chance for profit. He has broken his master's pots while dreaming of future profits. He has therefore lost more than the master and excuses himself of blame. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1494. J1494. Why captain takes lame and one-eyed soldiers into army. The lame cannot flee from the enemy; the one-eyed soldiers will not see enough to make them afraid. Spanish: Childers.

J1495. J1495. Person runs from actual or supposed ghost. (Cf. E293, J1483.)

J1495.1. J1495.1. Man runs from actual or from supposed ghost. The ghost runs beside him. The man stops to rest; the ghost stops, says, "That was a good run we had!" The man says, "Yes, and as soon as I get my breath, I'm going to run some more." U.S.: *Baughman.

J1495.2. J1495.2. When Caleb comes. Man attempts to stay in haunted house all night. One cat after another enters, says, "Everything will be all right when Caleb comes, won't it?" (or something similar). Man finally says, "When Caleb comes, tell him I was here and left." He leaves. U.S.: *Baughman.

J1500-J1649.

J1500-J1649. Clever practical retorts.

J1500. J1500. Clever practical retort.

J1510. J1510. The cheater cheated.

J1511. J1511. A rule must work both ways.

J1511.1. J1511.1. Make-believe eating, make-believe work. At table the peasant says, "We will only act as if we were eating." At work the servant replies, "We will only act as if we were working." *Type 1560.

J1511.2. J1511.2. Turnips called bacon: cat called rabbit. A peasant compels his servant to call turnips bacon. Under favorable circumstances the servant compels the master to call a cat a rabbit. Type 1565.

J1511.2.1. J1511.2.1. Man bathing rich man uses sand instead of sandalwood: "Consider the sand of the Ganges to be sandalwood." When man asks for his fee, other takes a frog and gives it to him: "Know that the frog of the Ganges is a cow." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1511.3. J1511.3. Eating cure becomes epidemic. A woman feigns periodic attacks of a sickness that can be cured only by eating a great number of delicacies. The husband feigns the same disease. Type 1372*.

J1511.4. J1511.4. Fits become epidemic. After dinner a servant feigns a fit and goes to sleep. The master thereupon feigns a fit and beats the boy, who is thus cured of his laziness. Type 1572*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1572A*.

J1511.5. J1511.5. The wine-spilling host rebuked. A host spills his customer's wine so that he must buy more. He consoles the guest with "It is a sign of the great abundance you shall have this year." With the same remark the guest draws the spigot from the host's wine cask. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 372; *Wesselski Mönchslatein No. 106; *Crane Vitry 269 No. 310.

J1511.6. J1511.6. The porter's revenge for the three wise counsels. A man offers a porter three wise counsels for carrying his goods. "When anyone tells you that hunger and satisfaction are the same, don't believe him." The second and third are similar and equally valueless. The porter throws down the load: "When anyone tells you that any part of this load is not broken, don't believe him." *Basset 1001 Contes II 391; Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 260 No. 211; Chauvin VIII 139 No. 136; *Fb "sandhed".

J1511.7. J1511.7. No clothes needed for Day of Judgment. Friends tell a man that the next day is the Day of Judgment and urge him to kill a lamb and give a feast. He apparently consents. He then burns up their clothes. They will not need clothes on the Day of Judgment. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 212 No. 31.

J1511.8. J1511.8. Forbidden to think. A husband forbids a wife to think. During his absence she roasts a chicken, eats it, and leaves two drumsticks on the table. The husband asks for the chicken. "Since you have forbidden me to think, I did not think of you." The ban is lifted. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 145.

J1511.9. J1511.9. Master says that he has eyes in back of head: servant cheats him. Holds up food to master's back and then not having objection raised, eats it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1511.10. J1511.10. Counterfeit money burned up. A priest who has lent money to a Jew, but will not lend to a farmer, on being reproached by the latter, says that the money he lent the Jew was "false". When the Jew gets to know of this, he claims that as soon as he heard the money was false he burnt it up. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1772.

J1511.11. J1511.11. Boy pretends to speak only Latin. Father, chastising his lazy son, also speaks in "Latin". Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *2423; Russian: Andrejev No. *2082.

J1511.12. J1511.12. The man in place of a watch-dog. The master orders his serf to watch the manor at night in place of the dog. When the thieves come, the serf barks: "Dress, dress They take, take They lead, lead " The master does not understand the barking and pays no heed to it — is robbed of his property. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *2421.

J1511.13. J1511.13. Oisin's poor diet in Patrick's house—pancake size of ivy leaf, measure of butter only size of rowan berry. Later Oisin gives Patrick quarter of a wild boar, servant ivy leaf and rowan berry. Irish myth: Cross.

J1511.14. J1511.14. Things on highway belong to the public. Man reproves another for picking his cherries that overhang the highway. He is told that things on the public highway belong to no one in particular. He invites the man to climb the tree for better cherries, drives off with his horse and buggy, giving the same answer about things in the public highway. U.S.: Baughman.

J1511.15. J1511.15. Can drink only one kind of wine at a time. Priests come to an inn where host gives them good wine and bad. They insist on having all good since they must drink only one kind of wine. On their return he serves them with all bad. They claim to have had the rule changed. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 245.

J1511.16. J1511.16. "Eat spiritual food, not material," say monks to lazy brother who criticizes them for working in the garden. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1511.17. J1511.17. Ox bought; buyer also claims load of wood attached. Later deceived man disguises and sells sharper another ox for "handful of coppers." He is allowed by court to claim the hand as well. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1511.18. J1511.18. Priests say dying woman's unfulfilled request for mangoes must be paid in golden mangoes to them. Priests burned with iron since she had asked to be cauterized. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1511.19. J1511.19. Wife surrendered to king. Vizier advises doctor to give up his wife to love-sick prince since everything belongs to a sovereign. Doctor then tells him prince is in love not with his (the doctor's) wife but with the vizier's. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1511.20. J1511.20. Goldsmith sells thinly plated gold; peasant retaliates: a pot of dirt with a little gyav on top. (Cf. J1556.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.

J1512. J1512. Impossible demand rebuked. Irish myth: *Cross.

J1512.1. J1512.1. Milk from the hornless cow. A king demands a hundred men's drink from the milk of a hornless dun cow from every house in the land. Wooden cows are made and bog-stuff substituted for milk; the king must drink it. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 26, *Cross.

J1512.2. J1512.2. To return the eye to the one-eyed man. "Let me have your other so that I can see whether the one I bring you matches." India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1513. J1513. Healed with his own medicine.

J1513.1. J1513.1. "If he does not live, let him die." The student as healer hangs this sign around the neck of a sick calf. Later as parson he is sick. It is proposed to heal him with the same remedy. *Type 1845.

J1515. J1515. You lead and I will follow: hard command thus evaded.

J1515.1. J1515.1. The father of an illegitimate child must walk in front of the cross. Condemned man insists that the priest, who is guilty also, shall lead the way. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 71.

J1516. J1516. Rogues exchange objects and cheat each other. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1517. J1517. Thieves deceived by prearranged conversation which they overhear. (Cf. K420.)

J1517.1. J1517.1. Overheard conversation: "Mustard has advanced in price." Thieves steal mustard and leave all else. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1517.2. J1517.2. Overheard conversation: "Money hidden in wall (field)." Thieves take box filled with stone (or dig up field). India: Thompson-Balys.

J1517.3. J1517.3. Overheard conversation: "My money is hanging in the tree." Thieves stung by hornets. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1521. J1521. Swindler's plans foiled.

J1521.1. J1521.1. The shoes carried into the tree. Tricksters induce a numskull to climb a tree, planning to steal his shoes. He takes them in his belt with him. "Perhaps I shall find a nearer road home up there and shall need my shoes." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 233 No. 96.

J1521.2. J1521.2. The old man nods "Yes". A monk at an old man's deathbed asks if he hasn't promised this and that to the church. The old man from weakness rather than understanding nods "Yes". The son standing by asks, "Shall I throw this fellow down stairs?" The old man nods "Yes". *Wesselski Bebel I 154 No. 81; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 497.

J1521.2.1. J1521.2.1. Clever wife of king's adopted son keeps king distracted on deathbed so that he cannot disinherit husband. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1521.3. J1521.3. Command would become permanent. A ruler receives gifts from his subjects and later demands them as he due. The fool sets the nobleman's bed on fire. When the nobleman commands him to put the fire out he refuses, since he would ever afterward have to be putting out fires. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 44.

J1521.4. J1521.4. Unjust oath countered by another. A woman entrusts three coins to a headsman. He denies her claim which she fails to substantiate in ordeal. She now claims more and happens to succeed with ordeal. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1521.5. J1521.5. Catching by words.

J1521.5.1. J1521.5.1. Bargain: to render service for "something". Claimant has called dead cricket "something" and must be content. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1522. J1522. Rebuke to the stingy.

J1522.1. J1522.1. Half price for half a shave. A man asks to be shaved at half price. The barber shaves one side. He must pay the other half for the rest of the shave. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 601.

J1522.2. J1522.2. Stingy man rebuked when his children are feasted in his absence. They think he has been responsible and honor him. He reforms. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1525. J1525. Poor girl outwits prince in fright-contest. He frightens her and later mocks her with her words of fright. She plays the same trick on him. Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No 3.

J1526. J1526. Soldier's practical retort to officer.

J1526.1. J1526.1. Officer disarmed by sentry. Army major approaches sentry, takes away his rifle, and reproaches him for allowing himself to be disarmed. Sentry draws pistol from inside shirt, demands return of unloaded rifle. U.S.: Baughman.

J1527. J1527. Dream answered by dream. Priests misinterpret raja's dream and get his horses. Trickster advises raja to announce dream demanding cauterization of the priests. They return horses. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1530. J1530. One absurdity rebukes another. Brown JAOS XXIX 43 n. 40, Penzer III 241, 250f., V 64ff., IX 152, 155; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1531. J1531. Borrower's absurdities. England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, U.S.: Baughman.

J1531.1. J1531.1. The transformed golden pumpkin. Borrower of golden pumpkin returns a brass pumpkin and claims that the gold has turned to brass. The lender takes the borrower's son and returns with an ape. He claims that the boy has turned into an ape. Köhler-Bolte I 533; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1531.1.1. J1531.1.1. Mill has given birth to horse. Jackal as judge comes late. "Tank of water caught fire." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1531.2. J1531.2. The iron-eating mice. Trustee claims that mice have eaten the iron scales confided to him. The host abducts the trustee's son and says that a falcon has carried him off. *BP II 372; Chauvin II 92 No. 37; B[ö]dker Exempler; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys, Penzer III 250, V 62, *64; Indonesian: DeVries's list No. 299.

J1531.2.1. J1531.2.1. The dog-eating bugs. Man keeps dog for boy, tells him when he comes for it that the chinch bugs have eaten it. The boy borrows a mule from the man, later tells him that a buzzard has carried it away. He gets his dog back. U.S.: Baughman.

J1531.3. J1531.3. The pot has a child and dies. A borrower returns a pot along with a small one saying that the pot has had a young one. The pots are accepted. He borrows the pot a second time and keeps it. He sends word that the pot has died. *BP II 372 n. 2; Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 213 No. 35; DeVries FFC LXXIII 273 n. 1; Rumanian: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII No. 1705; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1532. J1532. Adulteress's absurdity rebuked.

J1532.1. J1532.1. The Snow-Child. (Modus Leibinc.) A sailor's wife bears a son in his absence and says that it came from eating snow. Later the husband makes away with the boy who, he says, melted in the sun. *Type 1362; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 208; BP IV 130; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1533. J1533. Absurdities concerning birth of animals, or men. (Cf. J1531.3.) India: Thompson-Balys.

J1534. J1534. Deer captured in bird-net: water flows upstream. One partner claims a deer he has captured in his bird-net. The other pretends to be watching water flow upstream. Coster-Wijsman 32 No. 8.

J1536. J1536. Ruler's absurdity rebuked.

J1536.1. J1536.1. Absurdity of entrusting military mission to bishop. Courtier rebukes king by asking that he be given an ecclesiastical post. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1536.2. J1536.2. Absurdity of trying to convert king to Hinduism—like making cow of donkey or black dog into white. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1539. J1539. One absurdity rebukes another—miscellaneous.

J1539.1. J1539.1. Priest forbidden to have female servant ostentatiously washes his own clothes. Bishop reverses the order. Nouvelles Récréations No. 34.

J1539.2. J1539.2. Scholar given third egg. A scholar, showing his skill in logic, proves that two chickens (or eggs) on the table are really three. His father (or host) takes one chicken for himself, gives the other to the mother, tells son that he can have the third one. England: Baughman.

J1540. J1540. Retorts between husband and wife. (Cf. J1532.1.) Irish myth: *Cross.

J1541. J1541. Husband outwits his wife.

J1541.1. J1541.1. The good words. A man pledged to give his wife only good words hits her with a prayer book. *BP III 278.

J1541.1.1. J1541.1.1. Sharing joy and sorrow. Man pledged to do so with his wife follows instructions literally. Beats her—a joy to him and a sorrow to her. BP III 277f.

J1541.2. J1541.2. The flute makes more noise. A man overcomes his quarrelsome wife by playing the flute as long as she is scolding. *Wesselski Bebel I 228 No. 139; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1541.3. J1541.3. Woman repulses ugly husband's advances. He placates her by telling her that he wants a handsome child. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1541.4. J1541.4. Husband and wife separate and divide property. Man keeps the house, gives the wife the road. U.S.: Baughman.

J1545. J1545. Wife outwits her husband.

J1545.1. J1545.1. Will work when beaten. A wife whose husband has beaten her sends a rumor to the sick king that her husband is a skilled physician but will practice only when he is well beaten. He is seized and whipped. Wesselski Mönchslatein 117 No. 98; Mensa Philosophica No. 73.

J1545.2. J1545.2. Four men's mistress. A husband disguises as a priest to hear his wife's confession. She says that she has been mistress of a servant, a knight, a fool, and a priest; i.e., her husband when he was her servant, and later her knight. He had then been a fool for demanding her confession, and was a priest because he had heard it. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 793; Wesselski Mönchslatein 109 No. 93; Boccaccio Decameron VII No. 5 (Lee 198); Scala Celi 49a No. 275; *Hibbard 41 n. 12; Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No 78; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1545.3. J1545.3. Fault-finding husband nonplussed. The wife has cooked so many dishes that when he complains, she can always supply another. Finally he says, "I had rather eat dung." She produces some. *Wesselski Theorie 175; Plattdeutsch: Wisser Plattdeutsche Volksmärchen (Jena 1922, 1927) II 98; India (Kashmir): Knowles 245.

J1545.3.1. J1545.3.1. Which does the more work. Wife shows that she does many more tasks in one morning than the husband. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1545.3.2. J1545.3.2. Where are the shoes? Fault-finding husband threatens to hit wife with shoes. She: "You will have to have some shoes first." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1545.3.3. J1545.3.3. Man who continually threatens to leave wife mortified when she tells him to go; pretends his buffalo is dragging him home (after he does leave). India: Thompson-Balys.

J1545.4. J1545.4. The exiled wife's dearest possession. A wife driven from home is allowed by her husband to take her one dearest possession. She takes her sleeping husband and effects reconciliation. *Type 875; *DeVries FFC LXXIII 275—284 passim; *Fb "kjæreste" II 153a; *BP II 349; Fansler MAFLS XII 63; Jewish: *Neuman, *Gaster Exempla 224 No. 196; Japanese: Ikeda.

J1545.4.1. J1545.4.1. The besieged women's dearest possession. (Women of Weinsberg.) Permitted to carry from the city their dearest possession, they take their husbands. *DeVries FFC LXXIII 278ff.; *Gaster Germania XXV 285ff.; *Wehrhan Die Sage 31ff.; *Bolte Montanus Gartengesellschaft 615 No. 80.

J1545.5. J1545.5. Husband tells wife in indecent posture to "lock up shop". She retorts that he has the key. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1545.6. J1545.6. Wife by cleverness wins back fortune overbearing husband has foolishly lost and humbles him. India: Thompson-Balys

J1545.7. J1545.7. Clever laughter and response of wife stops husband from fondling maid. Heptameron No. 54.

J1545.8. J1545.8. Corpse to be cut in two for easy carrying. Husband who feigns death hears wife propose this. He upbraids her; she replies: "If you had really died I should have given myself up to be burnt." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1545.9. J1545.9. Wife shows deep water. Husband declares that he will drown himself. The wife shows him a deep spot in the stream. England: Baughman.

J1546. J1546. Overcurious wife learns of the senate's deliberations. Husband (son) tells her that they have decided that each man may have many wives. Gullible wife believes it. *Crane Vitry No. 235; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 392; Herbert III 19; Alphabet No. 141; Gesta Romanorum No. 126; Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 46; Scala Celi 46b No. 260; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1550. J1550. Practical retorts: borrowers and lenders.

J1551. J1551. Imaginary debt and payment. *Fischer-Bolte Reise der Söhne Giaffers 209ff.; Hindu: Penzer V 132 n. 2, 133, IX 155f.; cf. Nouvelles de Sens No. 9.

J1551.1. J1551.1. Imagined intercourse, imagined payment. A woman demands money for a visit which she dreams of having had from a merchant. She is shown the money in a mirror. *Chauvin VIII 158 No. 163; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 810; *Fischer-Bolte Reise der Söhne Giaffers 209; Tupper and Ogle Walter Map 113; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1551.2. J1551.2. Imagined penance for imagined sin. A penitent confesses that a plan to sin had entered his mind. Priest tells him that the thought is as good as the deed. Assesses four florins as penance. Penitent says that he had only had it in his mind to give the florins; he must take the thought for the deed. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 298; *Wesselski Gonnella 110 No. 10; *Fischer-Bolte Reise der Söhne Giaffers 210.

J1551.3. J1551.3. Singer repaid with promise of reward: words for words. *Fischer-Bolte Reise der Söhne Giaffers 211; Nouvelles Récréations No. 3; Hindu: Penzer V 132.

J1551.4. J1551.4. Directions for getting pay given in return for directions for healing. *Fischer-Bolte Reise der Söhne Giaffers 211.

J1551.5. J1551.5. Substitute for candle repaid with substitute for money. A monk gives a man a stick instead of the candle the man has wanted to burn before a holy picture. The monk says that it will have the same effect as if the candle were burned. The man takes out his purse and lets the monk touch it. *Wesselski Arlotto I 186 No. 6.

J1551.6. J1551.6. The hare at third remove. A man receives a present of a hare. Later a crowd comes to him for entertainment saying that they are friends of the man who presented the hare. This happens a second time. He serves them clear water. "It is the soup from the soup of the hare." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 234 No. 97.

J1551.7. J1551.7. Imagined ownership: derived from a dream. Man claims ownership of bulls because he has dreamed of them. He is given their shadows. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1551.8. J1551.8. Imagined color. Clerk tells person to imagine that blue cloth is green. The customer walks out without paying. The clerk asks for payment; the customer tells clerk to imagine he has been paid. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

J1551.9. J1551.9. Half of money thrown into tank. The monkey to the grocer: "You sold half water and half milk." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1551.10. J1551.10. The priest administers to a man sick with infectious disease. Shows him the Host through window, and says: "Have hope and imagine you receive it." The man shows the priest a coin through the window, and repeats the same phrase. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1844.

J1551.11. J1551.11. "Here is half of picture and you must imagine other half." Jester later redecorates house in fragments of pictures. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1552. J1552. Loans refused.

J1552.1. J1552.1. The ass consulted about the loan. A man wants to borrow an ass. The owner goes to see what the ass says. The ass is unwilling. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 223 No. 60.

J1552.1.1. J1552.1.1. The ass is not at home. A man wants to borrow an ass. The owner says that the ass is not at home. The ass brays and the borrower protests. "Will you believe an ass and not a graybeard like me?" *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 224 No. 65; L. Schmidt Oesterr. Zs. f. Vksk. 1954, 128; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1552.1.1.1. J1552.1.1.1. The bigger fool. When told by servants their master is not at home, man says it is a fool that goes out in such midday heat. Whereupon master sticks his head out of the window, saying "Thou who art moving about at this time art the big fool: I have been seated all day in my house." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1552.2. J1552.2. Three reasons for refusing credit. A man asks for credit, although he has always paid cash before. He is refused on these grounds: either (1) he has never found anyone to trust him, (2) he has never bought anything, or (3) he is rich and does not need an extension of time. *Wesselski Bebel II 121 No. 65.

J1552.3. J1552.3. Man refuses to lend horse: sued for consequent damages. The would-be borrower gets one from another neighbor. He overworks the horse and renders him useless. The owner of the horse sues the man who had refused to lend his animal. Reasoning: "If he had lent his horse this would not have happened to mine." Settled by compromise. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1552.4. J1552.4. Better to donate half of what is asked than lend all. Two farmers ask a priest to lend two measures of grain to each of them. The priest refuses to lend them any but donates one measure to each. Thus he saves two measures. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1556. J1556. Lender repays borrower for deceptive loan.

J1556.1. J1556.1. Borrower of butter receives pot of cowdung with little butter on top: repays by lending wooden sword covered with thin iron. (Cf. J1511.20.) India: Thompson-Balys.

J1559. J1559. Miscellaneous retorts concerning borrowing and lending.

J1559.1. J1559.1. A present or a retaining fee. An abbot presents a lawyer with a fine horse. Later the abbot comes to Rome and calls on the lawyer for help. The latter returns the horse. "I did not know that you had a lawsuit in Rome." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 126.

J1559.2. J1559.2. God as surety; the abbot pays. A young man is ransomed by giving

God as surety for the ransom money. He fails to return as agreed. The creditor sees a wealthy abbot, who says that he is a servant of God. He robs the abbot and when the young man finally appears he tells the latter that the debt is already paid by God's servant. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 59; Alphabet No. 503.

J1559.3. J1559.3. Too large a payment. A student leaving the university sends back a small coin to pay for the knowledge he is carrying away, although he says that he is really paying too much. Wesselski Bebel II 114 No. 45.

J1560. J1560. Practical retorts: hosts and guests.

J1561. J1561. Inhospitality repaid. Irish myth: *Cross; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1561.1. J1561.1. Clothes thrown into the cooking food. A trickster when told that food cooking is clothes being boiled retaliates by throwing his dirty hose into the pot. *Wesselski Arlotto II 247 No. 153; *Wesselski Gonnella 130 No. 23; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 240.

J1561.2. J1561.2. Inhospitable host punished for hospitality. An abbot has his innkeeper treat his guests with the most shameful neglect. A guest retaliates by telling the abbot that he has been very sumptuously entertained. The innkeeper is discharged. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 60; Scala Celi 104a No. 565; Alphabet No. 357.

J1561.3. J1561.3. Welcome to the clothes. A man at a banquet is neglected because of his poor clothes. He changes clothes, returns, and is honored. "Feed my clothes," he says, "for it is they that are welcomed." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 416; Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 222 No. 55; *Prato RTP IV 167; Herbert III 70; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1561.3.1. J1561.3.1. Poor suitor served good supper prepared for rich one. Recites a satirical rhymed grace. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 702.

J1561.4. J1561.4. Servant repays stingy master (mistress). Type 1561; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1561.4.1. J1561.4.1. Hostess says that she has no spoons. Otherwise she would be glad to give something to eat. A joker brings along the necessary spoons. Type 1449*.

J1561.4.2. J1561.4.2. The boy "loses his sight." No butter on the bread. Type 1561*.

J1561.5. J1561.5. Father causes inhospitable daughter to spoil her feast by deceptive advice about cooking. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1561.6. J1561.6. A box connection. Man refused hospitality tells rich man he is a relative. Asked for the "connection," he tells him there is a box connection. Rich man not understanding, man explains his cart is made of box wood and is tied to a rich man's box tree. Rich man, ashamed, entertains him with all due respect. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1561.7. J1561.7. Grace said in name of the host. Neglected guest thus gets his portion of food. Jewish: *Neuman.

J1562. J1562. The greedy host.

J1562.1. J1562.1. Turning the plate around. A cuts the meat and puts all the good things on his side. B turns the plate around: "See how all things turn about in this world."

A turns it back: "However the world may turn, with good friends like us the plate will always remain the same." Wesselski Arlotto II 222 No. 89; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1568; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV No. 1568*.

J1562.2. J1562.2. The peasant's share is the chicken. He serves small birds and a roast chicken to his guests. Guests each take a small bird, leaving only the chicken when the plate reaches the host. He takes the whole chicken saying: "Since everyone has a bird, I must have one too." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 583.

J1562.3. J1562.3. Host hides meat in his clothing. It attracts his dog and he is exposed. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1563. J1563. Treatment of difficult guests.

J1563.1. J1563.1. The guest who could not keep warm. He keeps calling for more bed clothes. The host finally piles a ladder, a trough, etc., on top of him until he calls for help. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 259 No. 200; Wesselski Arlotto I 130 No. 51.

J1563.2. J1563.2. Guests make impossible demands of host: host's representative forces guests to leave by sending them on difficult quest. Irish myth: *Cross.

J1563.3. J1563.3. Bread baked with onions for an undesirable guest. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1563.4. J1563.4. Proper food for ox and ass. Guests call each other ox and ass. Host offers green grass for the first and fodder for the second. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1563.5. J1563.5. Guests frightened away by housewife. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1563.5.1. J1563.5.1. Wife prepares the pestle. Tells guests husband uses it against guests. They flee. Tells husband they left because she refused to give them pestle. Husband pursues to give them the pestle, but they run the faster. (Cf. K2137.) India: Thompson-Balys.

J1563.5.2. J1563.5.2. Servants touch cooking pot. Food being considered unclean then, guests depart empty but unwitting of true reason. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1563.6. J1563.6. When hints do not get rid of unwelcome guests, force must be used. Thus man treats his sons-in-law. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1563.7. J1563.7. A sham fight to frighten away the guests. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1563.8. J1563.8. Priest frightens away parasitic guests. Tells them he has that morning confessed man with plague. French: Irwin No. 161.

J1564. J1564. Talker keeps person from eating.

J1564.1. J1564.1. Trickster's interrupted feast revenged. He is asked a question by his master each time he tries to eat a date, so that he always has to spit out the date. He revenges himself that night when the master tries to carry on an intrigue with his wife's maid. He comes with his answers at embarrassing moments. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 242 No. 537.

J1564.2. J1564.2. Revenge by interrupting feast. A rabbi who has been inhospitably treated is afterwards invited to dinner. He keeps the guests so amused by his jokes that they fail to eat and the feast is spoiled. Jewish: *Neuman, *Gaster Exempla 226 No. 212.

J1565. J1565. Inappropriate entertainment repaid. Irish myth: *Cross.

J1565.1. J1565.1. Fox and crane invite each other. Fox serves the food on a flat dish so that the crane cannot eat. Crane serves his food in a bottle. *Type 60; Wienert FFC LVI 54 (ET 141), 98 (ST 123); Halm Aesop No. 34; *Crane Exempla 202 No. 165; Africa (Mpongwe): Nassau 64 No. 13.

J1565.2. J1565.2. Bugs unable to eat honey at banquet of bees, and bees unable to eat dung at bug's dinner. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1565.3. J1565.3. Crop division between parrot and cat: they try to cheat each other by inviting to a dinner in turns every day. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1566. J1566. Luxury of host rebuked.

J1566.1. J1566.1. Philosopher spits in king's beard. It is the only place he can find at the royal table not covered with gold and jewels. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 475; *Crane Vitry 195 No. 149; Scala Celi 140a No. 784; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 29, Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1566.2. J1566.2. Ruler refuses hospitality from subject who spends more than he earns. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1573. J1573. Host rebukes negligent servant.

J1573.1. J1573.1. A step-ladder for setting the table. Servant who leaves off the salt is instructed to bring in the step-ladder so as to see what is missing. Wesselski Bebel II 71 No. 159.

J1575. J1575. Guest brings along cakes to eat. Stingy host rebuked. Spanish: Espinosa III No. 192; Italian Novella: *Rotunda, Boccaccio Decameron I No. 8 (Lee 23).

J1575.1. J1575.1. Suitor brings own lamp. Mother of girl tells suitor that she cannot have him burning her midnight oil. The next night he brings his own lamp and a can of oil, tells her he will stay all night if he wishes. U.S.: Baughman.

J1576. J1576. "Cause liberality to be depicted." Answer of hungry man when host asks for suggestion for a picture to be painted of something that has not been seen. Boccaccio Decameron I No. 8 (Lee 23), Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1577. J1577. Deceptive invitation to feast.

J1577.1. J1577.1. Inviting to a feast only those whose households have never been touched by death. None comes. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1580. J1580. Practical retorts connected with almsgiving.

J1581. J1581. Stingy almsgiving repaid.

J1581.1. J1581.1. Poem for poem: all for all. A poet gives the emperor a poem, hoping for a reward. The emperor later gives the poet a poem in return. The poet thereupon sends the emperor two pennies, saying that this is all the money he has. The emperor, seeing that he is defeated in the exchange, laughs and becomes the poet's friend. Pauli

(ed. Bolte) No. 506.

J1581.2. J1581.2. Reinforcement of the request for alms. A clown asks for alms and receives nothing. He then throws pellets made of herbs at the steward, saying that there is great power in words, herbs, and stones: he has tried two of them and plans to try the third. He is given alms. Wesselski Mönchsleite 20 No. 14.

J1582. J1582. Base money in the offering.

J1582.1. J1582.1. The penny baked in the wafer. A peasant always puts a bad penny into the offering. The priest has a penny baked in a wafer and gives it to the peasant at communion. The peasant, unable to swallow it, thinks that he is possessed of the devil. The priest asks whether he has ever done wrong with a penny, secures confession and a pledge of reform. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 73.

J1582.2. J1582.2. Sulphur in the censer. Parishioners put base money into the collection. The priest burns sulphur instead of incense. He tells them that their money will buy nothing better. *Wesselski Arlotto II 218 No. 82.

J1583. J1583. Interested only in his capital. Preacher tells parishioners (regarding the day's offering): "You will get back 100 for 1." Donor of a penny: "I'll be glad to get back my capital!" Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1593. J1593. Any boon desired. Stingy king insists on trickster asking any boon desired. By asking king to perform disgusting act, trickster compels king to give expensive gift. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1600. J1600. Practical retorts—miscellaneous.

J1601. J1601. How much the ass cost. As the fool brings the new ass home everyone wants to know how much it cost. He has all publicly assemble and announces just what it cost. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 134 No. 1550C, Espinosa No. 54.

J1602. J1602. Throw at a rich man. Philosopher gives a penny to a man who throws stones at him but advises him that it will be wiser to throw at one who can afford to give more. The advice is followed and the rascal is arrested and hanged. Wienert FFC LVI 85 (ET 519), 99 (ST 128).

J1603. J1603. Eyes treated for the stomach ache. A man who has stomach ache from eating bad bread is treated for his eyes so that he will thereafter be able to tell good bread from bad. Chauvin II 124 No. 121; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1604. J1604. The fish in the sleeve. A particularly obnoxious man delays others while he haggles over prices with a butcher. Meanwhile a parson takes the three fish the man has laid down and puts them into his large sleeves. The man is angry and searches in vain for them. The parson then shows them and advises him not to let people cheat him. *Wesselski Arlotto I 190 No. 10.

J1605. J1605. One wrong and five hundred good deeds. A man steals a large sum, keeps half and distributes the rest among five hundred persons. He says that he has committed one wrong but has done five hundred good deeds. Chauvin II 208 No. 76.

J1606. J1606. Two monks renew their appetites. Entertained by a lord, they say that they are going to certain waters to recover their appetites. They are taken to a chamber and locked in for a day They recover their appetites without further journeying. (Cf. K1955.1.1.) *Köhler-Bolte I 137, II 5714; *Anderson FFC XLII 359; Boccaccio Decameron X No. 2 (Lee 311ff.); Scala Celi 126a Nos. 685, 686; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1606.1. J1606.1. Hungry man eats intestines of fish next morning after refusing to do so the evening before. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1607. J1607. The testament of the dog. The owner of a dog has him given Christian burial. The bishop thereupon pretends that the dog has left the church a large legacy. *Anderson FFC XLII 359 n 3; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 72; Feilberg "Hundens Testament" Festschrift til E. T. Kristensen 11 ff.; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 96.

J1608. J1608. Ass's charter in his hoof. The ass absents himself from the parliament of beasts. The lion sends the fox and the wolf to summon him. He pleads his charter of exemption and invites the fox to read it in his hoof. (Cf. K551.18.) Herbert III 53; Crane Vitry 147 No. 33; Baum MLN XXXVII 350; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1611. J1611. The stolen meat and the weighed cat. A man buys three pounds of meat. His wife eats it and says that the cat ate it. The man weighs the cat and finds that it does not weigh three pounds. *Type 1373; Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 232 No. 87, *II 185 No. 348.

J1612. J1612. The lazy ass repaid in kind. Loaded with salt, he falls down in the river and lightens his burden. His master then loads him with sponges so that the next time the ass tries the trick he increases his load. Type 211; Wienert FFC LVI 72 (ET 372), 98 (ST 126); Halm Aesop No. 322.

J1613. J1613. The rescuers' Sabbath. A Jew, fallen into a pit, refuses to be rescued on Saturday, his Sabbath. The next day he calls for help but the Christians refuse to rescue him on Sunday, their Sabbath. Wesselski Mönchslatein 100 No 84; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 389.

J1614. J1614. The forehanded servant. A parson boasts that when he asks his maid if certain work is done she always answers that it has been done long ago. A guest wagers that she can be trapped if she is asked whether she has thrown the parson's suit of clothes into the tub of water. She overhears the wager and has the suit in the water before he asks the question. Bolte Frey's Gartengesellschaft 252 No. 92.

J1615. J1615. That which was promised him. A tenant promises his daughter to his master against her will. The master sends for "that which was promised him." The daughter sends the horse, and it is taken into the master's chamber. *Type 1440.

J1616. J1616. St. Peter not guiltless. Soldiers are admitted neither to hell nor to heaven. They remind Peter of his denial of Christ. He admits them. *Wesselski Bebel I 155 No. 84.

J1617. J1617. God's omniscience. A woman tells her brother of God's omniscience. When he is ill and the priest has been called, he creeps under some straw and hides. The priest leaves. The man: "If God were so omniscient he might have found me for the priest." Wesselski Bebel II 119 No. 57.

J1618. J1618. The one word petition. A guardian of monks in need of food approaches the prince The prince is busy and says that he will permit the guardian but a single word. The guardian says, "Soup", and secures all the food he wants from the prince. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 64.

J1621. J1621. Sharing his wounds. Two men on parting agree to share everything they receive. One returns with much money. His friend reminds him of the pact. He replies that he has also received many wounds. The friend is willing to forego dividing. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 169; Mensa Philosophica No. 35.

J1622. J1622. The blacksmith's and the horse-trader's dreams. They are forced to sleep together because of lack of room. The blacksmith tells the horsetrader that he often dreams that he is striking the bellows and that he may accidentally strike him in the night. The horsetrader retaliates by dreaming that he is riding a horse and drives the spurs into the blacksmith. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 109.

J1623. J1623. Drunkard cured of seeing double. When he claims to see two roast chickens, his wife takes the one chicken away and he falls into the fire trying to find the other. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 140.

J1624. J1624. The priest makes the omen come true. A woman crosses herself when she meets a priest, as if he were the devil. She says that meeting a priest always brings her bad luck. The priest knocks her down and steps on her. "As ye believe, so shall it be." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 151.

J1625. J1625. Armies like seeds and peppercorns. One king sends large sack of seed to the other to represent the number of his soldiers. The second replies with a small bag of peppercorns: "My army is small compared to yours but has all the power of the peppercorn compared to your lifeless seed." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 722.

J1626. J1626. The sound of the harp. An apprentice harpmaker is blamed that he has not made the harp sound. He throws the harp at his master's head and breaks it to pieces: "There you have your sound." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 722.

J1627. J1627. To give the accounting afterward. A nobleman embezzles money from the public treasury. When counsellors urge an accounting, he replies that he is ready as soon as they have themselves made an accounting of all their transactions. They are ready to let well enough alone. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 800.

J1628. J1628. Taking cold in effigy. A traitor is hanged in effigy naked. Later the citizens sue for peace and arrange a meeting. They find him in a hot room swathed with many blankets. He says that he has taken cold when the night wind blew on him as he hung naked from the gallows. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 542.

J1631. J1631. An expensive joke. A shoemaker's apprentice greases boots as he would grease a fowl. The owner in anger returns and breaks a window. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 642.

J1632. J1632. The minstrel repays the cobbler. The cobbler learns the minstrel's songs and sings them so that the minstrel loses his trade. He in turn sews the cobbler's leather into crazy shapes. He has done no worse than the cobbler, who marred his songs. When they sing together the people realize the contrast and patronize the minstrel. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 139 No. 1695A*, Keller.

J1633. J1633. Brotherly love and patience both dead. A man failing to receive alms in a village, rings the bell for mass. He tells the sexton that he is ringing because of the death of brotherly love. The sexton rings another bell. It is for the death of the other man's patience. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 474.

J1634. J1634. To follow the king. In order to test a favorite, a king says that he is going to retire from the world and offers the regency to the favorite. On advice from his philosopher, the favorite says that he is going to accompany the king into retirement. *Chauvin II 148 No. 1, III 98 No. 2; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1635. J1635. Robber gives priest double his penance and then takes his horse. Mensa Philosophica No. 53; Shakespeare Jest Books III (Certayne Conceyts and Jeasts) 11 No. 22.

J1636. J1636. He has a family to support. Ruler to servant stealing his game: "If you wish any I'll send you some." U.S.: Baughman; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1638. J1638. Sticking to the rules. Merchant at inn deprives monk of fowl. "It's against the rules of your order." Later the monk undertakes to help merchant across stream. In the middle of the stream he asks the merchant if he has any money. "Yes." The monk drops him in the water. "It's against the rules of our order to have any money on us." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1647. J1647. Priest asked to preach short sermon does so saying to congregation only that they are wicked. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1648. J1648. Do not start here. Man asks directions to a certain place. Native attempts to give directions, then in disgust says, "If I wanted to go to ———, I wouldn't start from here." U.S.: Baughman.

J1650-J1699.

J1650-J1699. Miscellaneous clever acts.

J1651. J1651. The abbot cannot find his needle. An undesirable abbot furnishes adequate grounds for his dismissal when he cannot find the needle that all monks are supposed to carry with them. If careless in little things he will be careless in great. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 62.

J1652. J1652. Kissing the mother first. Oracle that the first of three sons to kiss his mother will be king. One of them kisses the earth, mother of all. He succeeds. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 171.

J1653. J1653. Using the lamb to get an audience. Peasant calls on lawyer for advice. Lawyer says that he is busy. Peasant returns with lamb. The lawyer hears its bleat and grants the audience. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1655. J1655. Clever ways of concealing jewels (treasure).

J1655.1. J1655.1. Jewels concealed in cowdung cakes. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1655.2. J1655.2. Valuable rubies baked in bread. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1655.3. J1655.3. Coins concealed in jar of oil (pickles). India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1661. J1661. Clever deductions.

J1661.1. J1661.1. Deductions from observation.

J1661.1.1. J1661.1.1. Deduction: the one-eyed camel. A she-camel has passed, blind in one eye; on the one side she carries wine and on the other vinegar; two men lead her, one a heathen and the other a Jew. Solution: She is recognized as a she-camel by the footprints; she is blind because she feeds on only one side of the road; the wine dropping down has soaked into the earth; the vinegar makes bubbles; the heathen is not so careful in his manners as is the Jew. Fischer-Bolte Reise der Söhne Giaffers 198ff.; Gaster Exempla 195 No. 51; *Penzer VI 287; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys; Korean: Zong in-Sob 101 No. 55.

J1661.1.1.1. J1661.1.1.1. Deduction: the camel ridden by a pregnant woman. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1661.1.2. J1661.1.2. Deduction: the king is a bastard. After dinner the king begins to dance. He is therefore called illegitimate. His mother acknowledges an intrigue with a dancer. *Type 655; *Fischer-Bolte Reise der Söhne Giaffers 198ff.; *Gaster Exempla 195 No. 51; Herrmann Saxo II 265ff.; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1661.1.2.1. J1661.1.2.1. Deduction: magistrate is a bastard. Korean: Zong in-Sob 102ff. No. 55.

J1661.1.3. J1661.1.3. Deduction: bread made by a sick woman. It falls apart; therefore it was kneaded by a weak person. *Chauvin VII 159 No. 438.

J1661.1.4. J1661.1.4. Deduction: mare has she-buffalo as mother. Told by shape of hoofs. Chauvin VII 162 No. 439.

J1661.1.5. J1661.1.5. Deduction: horse has been brought up on ass's milk. Has drooping ears. Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1661.1.5.1. J1661.1.5.1. Deduction: animal has been brought up on dog's milk. Can not get enough to eat. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1661.1.6. J1661.1.6. Deduction: insect inside precious stone. The jewel is warm. Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1661.1.7. J1661.1.7. Deduction: prince plays with children because he has been denied a normal youth. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1661.1.8. J1661.1.8. Deduction: one-eyed, long-bearded thief is named Kale Khan. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1661.1.9. J1661.1.9. Banker able to recognize honest merchant by a single hair of his mustache. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1661.1.10. J1661.1.10. Clever deduction of wise man: the theft of a cauldron detected. Cauldron has been buried in river. Thief has no taste of salt on his body: he must have been immersed in fresh water recently. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1661.2. J1661.2. Clever deductions by eating, smelling, drinking, etc. Penzer VI 285; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1661.3. J1661.3. Person describes approaching bands of warriors without recognizing them. Another (interlocutor) identifies them. Irish myth: *Cross.

J1662. J1662. The cat's only trick. She saves herself on a tree. The fox, who knows a hundred tricks, is captured. *Type 105; *BP II 119; *Fb "kat" II 108b, "ræv" III 114a; *Krohn Am Urquell III 177ff.; Magoun California Folklore Quarterly IV 390ff., Jacobs Aesop 209 No. 38; Wienert FFC LVI 66 (ET 303), 143 (ST 492); Halm Aesop 65; *Chauvin III 54 No. 10; Herbert III 36ff. — Roumanian: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII No 33 I; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: *Thompson-Balys; cf. Africa (Angola): Chatelain 215 No. 37 (turtle goes into hole).

J1662.1. J1662.1. One basket of wit better than twelve carloads of it. Female jackal saves herself and husband by quick thinking. (Cf. K622.1.) India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1664. J1664. Clever solution of debated question.

J1664.1. J1664.1. Which is coldest season? Rainy season or winter (debate between animals). Solution by man as umpire: neither as cold as windy season. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1671. J1671. The inventive coachman. Makes the horses run by binding a bundle of hay to the shaft. Type 1576*.

J1672. J1672. Clever use of human weakness. Penny demanded of every bad man, two pennies of every good man. Thus two pennies received from every man. Irish myth: Cross.

J1675. J1675. Clever dealing with a king.

J1675.1. J1675.1. Clever ways of attracting the king's attention.

J1675.1.1. J1675.1.1. King's attention attracted by fighting when it cannot be otherwise gained. *Chauvin VII 162 No. 439 n. 1.

J1675.1.2. J1675.1.2. Unjust action brought to inform king of judge's malfeasance. Husband is imprisoned and wife detained by judge. She accuses her husband of having stolen her. Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas I 287, 378.

J1675.2. J1675.2. Clever ways of breaking bad news to a king, who will kill bearer of bad tidings.

J1675.2.1. J1675.2.1. Tidings brought to the king: You said it, not I. The messenger arranges it so that the king says the words in the form of a question. *Anderson FFC XLII 362; Icelandic: *Boberg; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 111 No. 925B.

J1675.3. J1675.3. King's capriciousness censured: the ass in the stream. A nobleman seeing an ass letting water in a river remarks that it reminds him of his king. He explains to the king that just as the ass puts water where it is already plentiful, so the king awards wealth where it is not needed. The king says that it is all in the nature of the nobleman's fate. Subsequent events prove this. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 836; Boccaccio Decameron X No. 1; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1675.4. J1675.4. One-eyed king has rocks counted on pain of death. Clever man avoids saying "one" (which king considers a curse on his one eye) by saying that first is the rock that must not be called by name. Africa (Vai): Ellis 216 No. 30.

J1675.5. J1675.5. Abbot gives king unique concert. Separates hogs into tenors, bassos, etc. So arranges them that when he pricks them they render a tune. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1675.6. J1675.6. Poet goes to king to complain of destruction of his dwelling. King requires story. Poet recites list, ending with account of the destruction of his dun. Reparation granted. Irish myth: *Cross.

J1675.7. J1675.7. Clever hero feigns dullness so as to avenge himself on king. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1675.8. J1675.8. Son of God to see king. When steadily unable to be admitted to presence of a king, a clever man demands an interview saying he is the son of God come down to earth and will condescend to see the king. When asked to show the king Heaven and the path to it, the pretender retorts that when he was sent down by the Father, he was told to look to matters relating to this earth. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1678. J1678. Settling the dispute. Two men cannot agree to bride's dowry. Third party tells each parent that the other has agreed. Marriage. "Now that you are relatives you can settle it between yourselves." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1682. J1682. Taunts of charioteer to rouse anger in master (who is losing battle) so that he may fight more vigorously. Irish myth: *Cross.

J1684. J1684. Poet uses words which student cannot understand and so confounds him. (Cf. J1803.) Irish myth: *Cross.

J1700-J2799.

J1700-J2799. FOOLS (AND OTHER UNWISE PERSONS)

J1700-J1729.

J1700-J1729. Fools (general).

J1700. J1700. Fools. Clouston Noodles; *Field Myth of the Pent Cuckoo; *Types 1200-1349, 1381-1387, 1430, 1450, 1642, 1643, 1653B, 1675, 1680-1696, 1725, 1750, 1775; *Bolte Frey's Gartengesellschaft No. 1; Köhler-Bolte I 135. — Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 299 No. 18; Hindu: Penzer V 67ff., 80ff., 113ff., 117 n. 1; Oceanic (German New Guinea, Banks Is., New Hebrides): Dixon 124f.; N. A. Indian: Thompson Tales 295ff. nn. 81, 84-87, 92, 95, 103, 109f., 109h, 109k, 109y 109bb, 109dd, 270a-270c, 271b, 286.

J1701. J1701. Stupid wife. *Types 1380—1404; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 187b nn. 145—149; Christensen DF L 35; Irish myth: Cross; Missouri French: Carrière.

J1701.1. J1701.1. Extravagant woman whose husband continually finds fault with her. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1702. J1702. Stupid husband. *Type 1361, 1405-1423; Jewish: Neuman.

J1703. J1703. Town (country) of fools. Christensen DF XLVII; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1705. J1705. Stupid classes.

J1705.1. J1705.1. Stupid peasant. *Hdwb. d. Märchens I 187b.

J1705.2. J1705.2. Stupid (ignorant) Brahmin. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1705.3. J1705.3. Foolish pundits. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1705.4. J1705.4. Foolish king. Jewish: Neuman.

J1706. J1706. Stupid animals.

J1706.1. J1706.1. Tiger as stupid beast. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1710. J1710. Association with fools.

J1711. J1711. Numskulls go a-travelling. (Cf. J1742.) *BP II 555; Field Myth of the Pent Cuckoo.

J1711.1. J1711.1. Animals helpless in sea-voyage together. Sheep, duck, and cock in peril The duck swims; the cock flies to the mast. *Type 204; *Fb "and" IV 12.

J1712. J1712. Numskulls quarrel over a greeting. Three men greeted by a stranger. Quarrel as to whom he greeted. "I greeted the biggest fool among you." A contest is held in which tales are told to decide which is the biggest fool. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 263 No. 237; Christensen DF L 91; India: *Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 484.

J1713. J1713. Foolish married couples. (Cf. J1701, J1702.) *Type 1430.

J1713.1. J1713.1. How he knew she was baking cakes. Husband actually knows from observation but wife thinks he has supernatural knowledge and spreads his fame India: Thompson-Balys.

J1714. J1714. Association of wise men with fools. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1714.1. J1714.1. A wise man follows a fool against his better judgment. Both are put to death for their foolishness. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 26; Herbert III 192; Alphabet No. 722; Oesterley No. 67; Scala Celi 75a No. 428; Africa (Vai): Ellis 242.

J1714.2. J1714.2. The wise man and the rain of fools. A wise man is persuaded to taste water which has turned many persons into fools. He also becomes a fool. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) Nos. 34, 54.

J1714.3. J1714.3. When with fools, act foolish. A wise man refuses to join a foolish crowd who stayed out in an unexpected rain after a long drought. He is punished by them for being a fool. *Wesselski Arlotto II 224 No. 91.

J1714.3.1. J1714.3.1. Forty wise men foretell violent rainstorm. Failing to convince people, they go into a cave. After the shower they come out. The people call them fools. Irish myth: Cross.

J1714.4. J1714.4. Author believes that his book must be stupid. Stupid people and gossipers are praising it. Spanish: Childers.

J1714.5. J1714.5. Old man silent in king's presence asks king what he himself does when in company with a fool. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1715. J1715. A fool objects to fools as companions. Leaves when placed between two fools at table. Wesselski Bebel I 179 No. 25.

J1717. J1717. Three silly pundits sent to a raja as the two-footed cattle he had demanded. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1730-J1749.

J1730-J1749. Absurd ignorance.

J1730. J1730. Absurd ignorance.

J1730.1. J1730.1. Hero does not learn his name until after first adventure. Irish myth: Cross.

J1731. J1731. The city person ignorant of the farm.

J1731.1. J1731.1. The city girl: Do turnips grow in the ground or on trees? Type 2010*.

J1731.2. J1731.2. Man wants roasted honeycomb. Unwilling to admit that he does not know what a honeycomb is, a stupid man asks the innkeeper's wife to roast a slice of honeycomb. Spanish: Childers.

J1732. J1732. Ignorance of certain foods.

J1732.1. J1732.1. Fool unacquainted with sausage. He squeezes the inside out and takes the covering for a sack. Type 1316*; cf. Christensen DF XLVII 216 No. 76.

J1732.2. J1732.2. Fool is unacquainted with bananas, throws away the fruit, finds the rest bitter. (Similar for watermelon, plums.) England, Canada, U.S.: *Baughman.

J1732.3. J1732.3. Woman is unacquainted with tea, serves the boiled leaves with butter. Scotland: Baughman.

J1733. J1733. Why the pigs shriek. The sheep does not understand why the pig being carried to slaughter shrieks. Wienert FFC LVI 60 (ET 222), 91 (ST 32); Halm Aesop No. 115.

J1734. J1734. Layman's ignorance of medicine.

J1734.1. J1734.1. Urine diagnosis to tell where a man comes from. A farmer takes some of his master's urine for examination. The doctor asks where the man comes from. "You will soon see," says the man, expecting the analysis to tell. (Cf. K2321.1.) *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 857; Christensen DF L 72; ibid. DF XLVII 202f. Nos. 42, 47.

J1735. J1735. Fool cannot tell his right hand in the dark. *Clouston Noodles 91.

J1735.1. J1735.1. How to tell the right hand in the dark. Numskull keeps the candle at his right side as he goes to bed so that he can do so. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 235 No. 104.

J1736. J1736. Fools and the unknown animal.

J1736.1. J1736.1. Fools do not know what a crayfish is. Shoot it and build a rampart around it. *Wesselski Bebel II 114 No. 43.

J1736.2. J1736.2. Fools do not know what an owl is and attack it. BP III 286.

J1736.3. J1736.3. Unknown animal: a pig captured in a pit. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1737. J1737. Foolish lover ignorant of mistress's flaws.

J1737.1. J1737.1. Foolish lover does not know that his mistress lacks an eye. Only after his return from an absence does he notice it. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 407; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1738. J1738. Ignorance of religious matters.

J1738.1. J1738.1. Ignorant priest forces rolls of cloth instead of bread down a dying man's throat. Wesselski Bebel I 222 No. 116.

J1738.2. J1738.2. Living crucifix chosen. Peasants take their old crucifix to an artist for a new one. The artist asks them whether they want a living or dead crucifix. Argument: living God takes less for upkeep and he can be killed later. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 409; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1738.3. J1738.3. Numskulls surprised at news that God has a son. Christensen DF XLVII 205 No. 53A; U.S.: Baughman.

J1738.4. J1738.4. Numskulls surprised to hear that God's son has died. Christensen DF XLVII 205 No. 53B; U.S.: Baughman.

J1738.5. J1738.5. Standing up for the friendless. Preacher in backwoods asks congregation members who are friends of Jesus to rise. No one rises. "What, are there no friends of Jesus in this house?" A cowboy rises to his feet: "Stranger, I don't know who this man Jesus is. I never heard of him before, but I'll stand up for any man who hasn't got any more friends than he has." U.S.: Baughman.

J1738.6. J1738.6. Letting in the light. Backwoods preacher tells couple that they are living in darkness. The woman responds that she has been trying for years to get her husband to cut a window in the house. U.S.: *Baughman.

J1738.7. J1738.7. Ignorant people told religious holiday is coming the next day: camel appears and is feasted. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1738.8. J1738.8. Men hide so that God will not see their sin. Jewish: *Neuman.

J1741. J1741. Priests (schoolmasters) ignorant of Latin.

J1741.1. J1741.1. Evangelium secundum Pergamum. Pergamus, a rival city of Luca, objects to the reading of the Evangelium secundum Lucam, insisting that it be "secundum Pergamum". *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 345.

J1741.2. J1741.2. "Agnus dei" as a prayer for money. An ignorant schoolmaster interprets many of the texts of scripture as commands for the priests to live lives of luxury. Bolte Frey's Gartengesellschaft 213 No. 8.

J1741.3. J1741.3. Prearranged answers in Latin not always successful. (Essentially same as X111.9.) Nouvelles Récréations No. 7.

J1741.3.1. J1741.3.1. Stupid scholar memorizes set answers to oral examination in Latin. The questions are not given in the order he expects; comic results. England: Baughman.

J1742. J1742. The countryman in the great world.

J1742.1. J1742.1. Countryman expects to find persons from his own village when he travels to another land. *Wesselski Bebel II 139 No. 122.

J1742.2. J1742.2. His address: a big high house. Mayor asked about where he lives, names his village and directs the enquirer to a big high house. Wesselski Bebel I 182 No. 31.

J1742.3. J1742.3. Peasants in city inn order whole portion of mustard. Livonian: Loorits FFC LXVI No. 1316*.

J1742.3.1. J1742.3.1. Countryman visiting rich relative in the city refuses to eat dessert: "No, I am not hungry." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1742.4. J1742.4. Peasant surprised that king is not larger than other men. Nouvelles Récréations No. 70.

J1742.5. J1742.5. Countryman misunderstands comforts of city. Thinks latrine is kitchen, refuses to take a walk because he fears high houses will fall upon him, etc. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1742.5.1. J1742.5.1. Boy who has never seen a real carpet, hops around the side of the room to avoid stepping on the cloth on the floor. U.S.: Baughman.

J1743. J1743. Ignorance of dates.

J1743.1. J1743.1. All sins since the birth of Christ. A stupid man at confession says, "I confess myself guilty of all sins that I have committed since Christ's birth." "Are you so old?" "Yes, and I have a brother who is three years older than I." Wesselski Bebel II 106 No. 17; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 295.

J1743.2. J1743.2. Family do not realize that Lent has arrived until it is Palm Sunday. Then they explain that Lent will be short because it has been a short winter. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 89; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1743.3. J1743.3. Wash Bee Day. Woman misinterprets calendar notation "February 22, Wash. B'day." Washes their bee-hives. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 697.

J1744. J1744. Ignorance of marriage relations. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

J1744.1. J1744.1. Bridegroom does not know what to do on his wedding night. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1744.1.1. J1744.1.1. Bridegroom gets into bed. The numskull groom on his wedding night does not know how to get to the bed, the curtains being drawn. He scales one of the posts, clambers to the canopy, falls upon his bride below, who screams for help. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1745. J1745. Absurd ignorance of sex.

J1745.1. J1745.1. Fool cannot tell sex of nudes, since they have no clothes on. U.S.: Baughman.

J1745.2. J1745.2. Foolish girl ignorant of what is happening at her first menses. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1746. J1746. Ignorance of reading.

J1746.1. J1746.1. Fool weeps each time he reads a book to see how small letters have become: at school they were big and fat. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1747. J1747. The archbishop's wife and family. Fool asks what he is to talk about when guests arrive. Is told: "Their wives and family." He asks the archbishop about his family. (Cf. J2461.2.) Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1748. J1748. Absurd ignorance of the use of spectacles. Christensen DF XLVII 226 No. 89.

J1749. J1749. Absurd ignorance—miscellaneous.

J1749.1. J1749.1. Fool thinks that "aforesaid" is a title of honor. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1749.2. J1749.2. Ignorant notary cannot draw up document. The names of the participants are not the same as those in his sample form. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1750-J1849.

J1750-J1849. Absurd misunderstandings.

J1750-J1809.

J1750-J1809. ONE THING MISTAKEN FOR ANOTHER

J1750. J1750. One animal mistaken for another.

J1751. J1751. Dungbeetle thought to be bee. "I know you well enough, you have put on a blue coat." Type 1317*.

J1752. J1752. Wolf thought to be colt. In the man's absence eats the mare. *Type 1311.

J1753. J1753. Bear thought to be dog. Type 1312*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1313.

J1754. J1754. Ass thought to be hare. Type 1316*.

J1755. J1755. Earthworm thought to be snake (or other monster). Type 1316.

J1756. J1756. Other animals thought to be a giant cat. Hero in search of monster brings home a dog, zebra, etc. thinking it is the animal he seeks. Zanzibar: Bateman 160 No. 8.

J1757. J1757. Rabbit thought to be a cow. Servant sent to bring in cows is found chasing rabbits. BP III 260 (Grimm No. 162); U.S.: Baughman.

J1758. J1758. Tiger (lion, etc.) mistaken for domestic animal.

J1758.1. J1758.1. Tiger mistaken for goat. Fool trying to steal goat in dark catches thieving tiger. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1758.1.1. J1758.1.1. Fool rides tiger thinking it to be a big male-goat. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1758.2. J1758.2. Tiger thought to be dog. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1758.3. J1758.3. Tiger mistaken for ass. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1758.4. J1758.4. Thief mistakes leopard for calf (ass). India: Thompson-Balys.

J1758.5. J1758.5. Lion thought to be donkey: drunkard rides it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1758.5.1. J1758.5.1. Thief thinks lion is horse. Rides him. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1758.6. J1758.6. Stupid husband mistakes tiger-cubs for jungle cats despite wife's judgment. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1759. J1759. Other mistaken animals. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

J1759.1. J1759.1. Scotsman thinks moose is a mouse, asks what rats look like in this country. (Cf. X1423.) Canada: Baughman.

J1759.2. J1759.2. Hunter mistakes louse on his eyelash for game. He shoots several times before he notices the trouble. U.S.: *Baughman.

J1759.3. J1759.3. Numskull thinks fireflies are mosquitoes carrying lanterns to find victims. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

J1759.4. J1759.4. Bull mistaken for horse. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1759.4.1. J1759.4.1. Calf mistaken for colt. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1759.5. J1759.5. Cat's tail mistaken for worm. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1760. J1760. Animal or person mistaken for something else.

J1761. J1761. Animal thought to be object.

J1761.1. J1761.1. Whale thought to be island. Sailors light a fire on his back. *Chauvin VII 9 n. 1 No. 373A; *Fb "fish" I 296b, "[ö]" III 1159b; Gunter 84; *Gaster Beiträge 53ff.; *Reinhard PMLA XXXVIII 448 n. 84. — Icelandic: *Boberg; Jewish: *Neuman; Hindu: Penzer II 193; B[ö]dker Exempler 286 No. 34; Indonesian: DeVries's list No. 210.

J1761.1.1. J1761.1.1. Turtle thought to be an island. U.S.: Baughman.

J1761.1.2. J1761.1.2. Serpent is taken for island. U.S.: Baughman.

J1761.2. J1761.2. White mare thought to be church. Type 1315.

J1761.3. J1761.3. Glowworm thought to be a fire. The bird who tries to keep the monkeys from this error is killed for her pains. Chauvin II 90 No. 32; B[ö]dker Exempler 286 No. 34; Penzer V 58f.

- J1761.4. J1761.4. Fish thought to be chewed sugar-cane. Numskulls therefore throw away their fish. Indonesian: DeVries's list No. 262.
- J1761.5. J1761.5. Wolf thought to be log of wood. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s. v. "byche".
- J1761.6. J1761.6. Snake thought to be flute. Bites tiger who tries to play flute. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J1761.6.1. J1761.6.1. Snake mistaken for a whip by a blind man. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J1761.7. J1761.7. Living toad or beetles thought to be lost food and therefore eaten by numskulls. Christensen DF XLVII 188, 199 Nos. 13, 31.
- J1761.8. J1761.8. Man mistakes dragon for log, sits on it. (Cf. B11.) England: Baughman.
- J1761.9. J1761.9. Bear mistaken for a floating log (blanket). India: *Thompson-Balys.
- J1761.10. J1761.10. Blind men and elephant. Four blind men feel an elephant's leg, tail, ear and body, respectively, and conclude it is like a log, a rope, a fan, and something without beginning or end. *Taylor English Riddles in Oral Tradition (Berkeley, 1951) 582 n. 11; India: Thompson-Balys.
- J1761.11. J1761.11. Fool mistakes dung-beetles for fruit: eats them. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- J1762. J1762. Animal thought to be a person.
- J1762.0.1. J1762.0.1. Animals mistaken for messengers. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J1762.1. J1762.1. Goose mistaken for a tailor. In a ghost house he is thought to be a tailor who snips the devil with his scissors. *Fb "ges" I 528b.
- J1762.1.2. J1762.1.2. Crab mistaken for tailor. Christensen DF XLVII 171.
- J1762.2. J1762.2. Bear on haywagon (on horse) thought to be the preacher. *Type 116.
- J1762.2.1. J1762.2.1. The bear mistaken for a saint. The godless man is cheated and attacks a bear thinking it is a saint, and barely escapes with his life. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1705; Russian: Andrejev No. *2103.
- J1762.3. J1762.3. Crab caught on tiger's tail thought to be pursuing man. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J1762.4. J1762.4. Deer thought to be man with basket on head. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 698.
- J1762.5. J1762.5. Bees (wasps) mistaken for Jutlanders, etc. Christensen DF XLVII 222 No. 85.
- J1762.6. J1762.6. Dressed up monkey thought to be a nobleman. Christensen DF XLVII 197, 231 No. 23.

J1762.7. J1762.7. Lobsters mistaken for Norwegians. Christensen DF XLVII 206 No. 56.

J1762.8. J1762.8. Bear mistaken for a foreigner. The strong man meets a bear in the forest, takes it for a German and struggles with it. Having strangled the bear, fears he has killed a man. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1283*.

J1762.9. J1762.9. Foolish wife believes goats' heads are human heads. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1763. J1763. Person thought to be an object.

J1763.1. J1763.1. Small priest covered with large hat thought to be a hat. Nouvelles Récréations No. 37.

J1763.2. J1763.2. Girl mistaken for stone. Espinosa JAFL XXVII 119—129.

J1763.3. J1763.3. Sleeping soldier thought to be recumbent statue in chapel. Heptameron No. 65.

J1765. J1765. Person thought to be animal. Jewish: *Neuman.

J1765.1. J1765.1. Shepherd taken to be she-ass. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1765.2. J1765.2. Man taken to be sheep. (Cf. X424.) India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1766. J1766. One person mistaken for another.

J1766.1. J1766.1. Horsemen thought to be men mounted on cattle. Irish myth: Cross.

J1769. J1769. Other creatures with mistaken identity.

J1769.1. J1769.1. Giant thought to be a hill. BP III 333 (Grimm No. 183).

J1769.2. J1769.2. Dead man is thought to be alive. U.S.: *Baughman.

J1769.2.1. J1769.2.1. Dead mistaken for the living. Man with abhorrence for corpse sleeps with one thinking it alive. (Cf. H1410.) Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1769.3. J1769.3. Fool lays his hand on demon in the dark, believing it is male goat he has come to steal. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1770. J1770. Objects with mistaken identity. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

J1771. J1771. Object thought to be animal.

J1771.1. J1771.1. Big tree thought to be snake. Killed with guns and spears. Type 1315.

J1771.2. J1771.2. Old sausage (roll) taken for frightening animal. Christensen DF XLVII 174 no. 2.

J1771.3. J1771.3. Object thought to be a turkey. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1771.4. J1771.4. Bush thought to be elephant. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1771.5. J1771.5. Island thought to be large dog. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 448.

J1772. J1772. One object thought to be another. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J1772.1. J1772.1. Pumpkin thought to be an ass's egg. Numskull thinks he has hatched out an ass's egg. He thinks that the rabbit which runs out is the colt. *Type 1319; *BP I 317ff.; *Köhler-Bolte I 323; *Clouston Noodles 38; *Fb "æg" III 1142a; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 249 No. 163; Christensen DF XLVII 208 no. 63. — Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 324 No. 157; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "oeuf", "âne" "lièvre"; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

J1772.1.1. J1772.1.1. Boy thinks terrapin hatches from bedbug eggs. Small boy examines bedbug eggs under pillow every morning. One morning he finds a terrapin there. "I don't see how we raised this so quick." U.S.: Baughman.

J1772.1.2. J1772.1.2. Potatoes mistaken for "irregular eggs", or "eggs of the earth." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1772.2. J1772.2. Dog mistakes mussel for an egg. Cuts his mouth. Wienert FFC LVI 63 (ET 268), 107 (ST 199); Halm Aesop No. 223.

J1772.3. J1772.3. Coins thought to be red beans. Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 4.

J1772.3.1. J1772.3.1. Coins thought to be uncooked cakes. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1772.4. J1772.4. Culture hero's pubic hair thought to be bear hair. N. A. Indian (Peoria, Kickapoo, Potawatomi): Michelson JAFL XXX 494.

J1772.4.1. J1772.4.1. Pubic hair of ardent husband's wife thought to be calf's tail by peasant in tree. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 12.

J1772.5. J1772.5. Man puts food bowl on head thinking it a helmet. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 413.

J1772.6. J1772.6. Fish bones in soup thought to be underdone peas. Nouvelles Récréations No. 73.

J1772.7. J1772.7. Fools think evening star is morning star. Start morning journey evening before. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1772.8. J1772.8. Cotton pods knocked off by bullock thought to be lumps of bullock's fat. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1772.9. J1772.9. Excrements thought to be meat and therefore eaten. Christensen DF XLVII 192 No. 18; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1772.9.1. J1772.9.1. Excrement thought to be berries. Numskull tries to sell it. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

J1772.10. J1772.10. Gun thought to be clarinet: one man blows, another presses the "keys". (Cf. K1057.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1861*.

J1772.11. J1772.11. Boot mistaken for an axe-sheath. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1282*.

J1772.12. J1772.12. Foolish tiger thinks dog's tail is a gun. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1772.13. J1772.13. Frog thinks cattle are distant country. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1772.14. J1772.14. Eight-oared ferry-boat mistaken for an animal which must have long legs to wade the stream. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1780. J1780. Things thought to be devils, ghosts, etc. Indonesian: Coster-Wijsman 57 No. 83.

J1781. J1781. Objects thought to be the devil.

J1781.1. J1781.1. Steamship thought to be the devil. Type 1315*.

J1781.2. J1781.2. Watch mistaken for the devil's eye. Knocked to pieces. Type 1321*; Christensen DF XLVII 187; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1679*.

J1781.3. J1781.3. Glowing wheel supposed to be the devil. Christensen DF XLVII 184ff.

J1782. J1782. Things thought to be ghosts.

J1782.1. J1782.1. Robber or dog in church thought to be a ghost. Type 1318*.

J1782.1.1. J1782.1.1. Cows in church thought to be ghost. U.S.: Baughman.

J1782.2. J1782.2. Dropping dough thought to be a ghost. It drops on the floor and the man thinks the place is haunted. Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 137 No. 101; Finnish: Aarne FFC XXXIII 47 No. 101.

J1782.2.1. J1782.2.1. Sound of water dripping on dinner pail thought to be ghost using pick in mine. U.S.: Baughman.

J1782.3. J1782.3. Noise in house thought to be ghost. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

J1782.4. J1782.4. Man sleeping in stable (abandoned cabin) thinks entering animals are ghosts: kills them. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3445, Legends Nos. 872ff.; U.S.: Baughman.

J1782.5. J1782.5. Animal with lighted candle thought to be ghost. (Cf. K335.0.5.1.) U.S.: Baughman.

J1782.6. J1782.6. Person in white thought to be ghost. U.S.: Baughman.

J1782.7. J1782.7. Sleep-walker thought to be a ghost until discovered. U.S.: Baughman.

J1782.8. J1782.8. Person in haunted house shoots off all his toes thinking they are ghosts. (Cf. J1838.) U.S.: Baughman.

J1783. J1783. Thing thought to be corpse.

J1783.1. J1783.1. Butter cask thought to be a dead man. Fools knock it in two. Type 1314.

J1784. J1784. Things thought to be spirits. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3446, Legends Nos. 875-885.

- J1784.1. J1784.1. Laughter of boy thought to be spirits' laughter. Africa (Masai): Fuchs 21ff. No. 4.
- J1785. J1785. Animals thought to be the devils or ghosts. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 886ff.
- J1785.1. J1785.1. Grasshopper thought to be the devil. *Field Pent Cuckoo 7; England: Baughman.
- J1785.2. J1785.2. Crab thought to be the devil. Becomes red. Type 1310*.
- J1785.3. J1785.3. Ass thought to be the devil. Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- J1785.4. J1785.4. Man sees Hereford cow at night; thinks it is devil, says, "Devil I deny thee! I am a psalmsinger and a worshiper of God!" England: Baughman.
- J1785.4.1. J1785.4.1. Man addresses colt: "Abide, Satan! I am a righteous man and a psalm singer." England: Baughman.
- J1785.5. J1785.5. Cat mistaken for devil. Fool in the dark mistakes cat's eyes for embers. Is attacked by the cat and he thinks it is the devil. Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- J1785.6. J1785.6. Fox in coffer thought to be devil. Pierre Faifeu No. XXXII.
- J1785.7. J1785.7. Black sheep thought to be the devil. Christensen DF XLVII no. 64.
- J1786. J1786. Man thought to be a devil or ghost. Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 868—871, 890; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- J1786.1. J1786.1. Man costumed as demon thought to be devil; thieves flee. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- J1786.2. J1786.2. Woman thought to be devil; thieves flee. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J1786.3. J1786.3. Man mistaken for Famine and Cholera in person. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J1786.4. J1786.4. Priest exorcising demon mistaken for demon and beaten to death. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- J1786.5. J1786.5. Man thought to be devil by lion. Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- J1786.6. J1786.6. Men, on first seeing wives with hair, think they are witches and run away. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J1786.7. J1786.7. Lion thinks man astride him is monster: frightened. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J1786.8. J1786.8. Man reported to be dead so that people flee from him as from a ghost. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- J1789. J1789. Things thought at night to be other frightful object.
- J1789.1. J1789.1. Windmill thought to be holy cross (church, God). Type 1322;
Christensen DF XLVII 212 No. 68; Russian: Andrejev 1322;
India: Thompson-Balys.

J1789.2. J1789.2. Clock ticking thought to be gnawing of mice. Type 1323*; Christensen DF XLVII 187.

J1790. J1790. Shadow mistaken for substance. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1790.1. J1790.1. Numskull thinks his shadow is a man pursuing him. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1790.2. J1790.2. Shadow mistaken for thief: is beaten. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1790.3. J1790.3. Monkey seeing tiger attack his shadow is frightened so that he falls from tree. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1791. J1791. Reflection in water thought to be the original of the thing reflected.

J1791.1. J1791.1. Drinking the moon. The numskull sees a cow drink from a pool where the moon is reflected. The moon goes under a cloud. He thinks the cow has eaten the moon and slaughters her to recover it. Type 1335; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 241 No. 124; *Köhler-Bolte I 90, 498; Christensen DF XLVII 181.

J1791.2. J1791.2. Rescuing the moon. A numskull sees the moon in the water and throws a rope in to rescue it, but falls in himself. He sees the moon in the sky. At least the moon was saved! *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 241 No. 124; Christensen DF XLVII 217—18 no. 78; American Negro: Harris Nights 100 No. 19.

J1791.3. J1791.3. Diving for cheese. Man (animal) sees moon reflected in water and, thinking it a cheese, dives for it. *Type 34; *Dh IV 230f.; *Fb "øst"; *Clouston Noodles 44; *Field Pent Cuckoo 18; Köhler-Bolte I 107; Christensen DF XLVII 217—18 no. 78; Spanish: Espinosa III Nos. 206f.; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 295 n. 81; Africa (Zulu): Callaway 357 (cf. J1791.4).

J1791.3.1. J1791.3.1. Wolf tries to drink well dry to get cheese. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 29 No. 34.

J1791.3.2. J1791.3.2. Dogs by river try to get food in river by drinking the river dry. Wienert FFC LVI 62 (ET 246), 119 (ST 287); Halm Aesop No. 218.

J1791.3.2.1. J1791.3.2.1. Demon tries to recover object from river by drinking it dry. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1791.3.3. J1791.3.3. Moon's reflection thought to be gold in water. Fools dive for it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1791.3.4. J1791.3.4. Jackals jump into well after drums and are killed. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1791.4. J1791.4. Dog drops his meat for the reflection. Crossing a stream with meat in his mouth he sees his reflection; thinking it another dog with meat he dives for it and loses his meat. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 426; *Chauvin II 85; B[ö]dker Exempler 275 No. 13; Wienert FFC LVI 64 (ET 270), *105 (ST 178); Halm Aesop No. 233; *Crane Vitry 140 No. 18; Scala Celi 19a No. 111; Jacobs Aesop 199 No. 3.—Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Zulu): Callaway 357 (cf. J1791.3).

J1791.5. J1791.5. Diving for reflected enemy. India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 352 n. 270a.

J1791.5.1. J1791.5.1. Shooting at enemy's reflection in water. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 352 n. 270c.

J1791.5.2. J1791.5.2. Man throws stone at own reflection in water. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1791.5.3. J1791.5.3. Frog leaps into water after elephant's reflection. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1791.6. J1791.6. Diving for reflection of beautiful woman. Indonesian, Melanesian: Dixon 227 n. 34; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 352 n. 270b.

J1791.6.0.1. J1791.6.0.1. Woman dives in water three times after reflected image of man peering down from a tree. Marquesas: Handy 46.

J1791.6.1. J1791.6.1. Ugly woman sees beautiful woman reflected in water and thinks it is herself. Prides herself on her beauty. *Type 408; BP II 121ff.; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 9; Indonesian: Dixon 226.

J1791.6.2. J1791.6.2. Ogre sees beautiful woman reflected in water. Attempts to drink the lake dry. (Cf. J1791.3.1.) Type 1141*; Japanese: Ikeda.

J1791.7. J1791.7. Man does not recognize his own reflection in the water. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 276 No. 311; Penzer VI 86f.; India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 17; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 441; American Negro: Harris Remus 68 No. 14.

J1791.7.1. J1791.7.1. Simpleton thinks his reflection in jar of melted butter is thief; strikes at the jar and breaks it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1791.8. J1791.8. Goose dives for star, thinking it a fish. The next day when she sees fish, she lets it escape. Chauvin II 89 No. 28; B[ö]dker Exempler 284 No. 30; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1791.9. J1791.9. Fools see bee's nest reflected in water: try to carry off the well. Clouston Noodles 67.

J1791.10. J1791.10. Fool sees golden-crested bird reflected in water. Thinks it is gold. Penzer V 115 n. 1.

J1791.11. J1791.11. Diving for reflected fruit. Meantime rascal steals the fruit itself. Spanish: Espinosa III 206f.; Indonesia: Coster-Wijsman 37 No. 25.

J1791.12. J1791.12. Elephant frightened at agitated reflection of moon in water. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1792. J1792. Picture mistaken for original.

J1792.1. J1792.1. Dove sees painted cups of water and dashes into them. Wienert FFC LVI 64 (ET 276), 107 (ST 196); Halm Aesop No. 357.

J1793. J1793. Mask mistaken for face. Jacobs Aesop 204 No. 20; Wienert FFC LVI 75 (ET 405), 124 (ST 333); Halm Aesop No. 47.

J1794. J1794. Statue mistaken for living original. (Cf. K1840.) Icelandic: Boberg.

J1795. J1795. Image in mirror mistaken for picture. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

J1795.1. J1795.1. Foolish demon sees his reflection in trickster's mirror and is convinced he has been captured. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1796. J1796. Moonlight thought to be substance.

J1796.1. J1796.1. Men build hedge to keep in the moonlight. (Cf. J1904.2.) England: Baughman.

J1800. J1800. One thing mistaken for another—miscellaneous.

J1801. J1801. Breath in the cold thought to be tobacco smoke. Type 1320.

J1802. J1802. Words in a foreign language thought to be insults. Type 1322*; Nouvelles Récréations No. 65.

J1802.1. J1802.1. "I don't understand." Foreigner asks who owns property, clothing, servants; whose wife an attractive woman is; whose funeral is in progress? Answer to each question is "I don't understand," which foreigner takes to be a person's name. (Cf. J1152, J1741, X111.7.) Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. III (N.F.) 173-8.

J1803. J1803. Learned words misunderstood by uneducated.

J1803.1. J1803.1. Not of legitimate birth. A cleric is asked whether he is of legitimate birth ("de legitimo thoro"). "No, I am not from that place; I am from Schmich."
*Wesselski Bebel II 126 No. 80.

J1803.2. J1803.2. Doctor's expressions misunderstood. Christensen DF XLVII 208 No. 62.

J1804. J1804. Conversation by sign language mutually misunderstood. *Nyrop Dania II 49ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

J1805. J1805. Other misunderstandings of words.

J1805.1. J1805.1. Similar sounding words mistaken for each other. Nouvelles Récréations No. 46.

J1805.1.1. J1805.1.1. To cover house with straw. Word for wife is similar, so wife is covered. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1805.2. J1805.2. Unusual word misunderstood. Strange results.

J1805.2.1. J1805.2.1. Daughter says "Sobur" (wait) to her father when he asks what to bring from the journey. Father finds Prince Sobur. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1805.3. J1805.3. Numskull referring to a forgotten name keeps saying "I have lost it." People dive into tank to recover treasure they think he has lost. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1805.4. J1805.4. A fool given money to buy something to eat; goes around asking for a thing called "something." India: Thompson-Balys.

J1806. J1806. Setting sun mistaken for fire. Christensen DF XLVII 176, 196; American Negro: Harris Nights 230 No. 39, Work JAFL XXXII 403, Parsons MAFLS XVI 32.

J1809. J1809. Other things with mistaken identities.

J1809.1. J1809.1. Old woman's sneeze mistaken for gunfire. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1810. J1810. Physical phenomena misunderstood.

J1811. J1811. Animal cries misunderstood.

J1811.1. J1811.1. Owl's hoot misunderstood by lost simpleton. *Wesselski Bebel II 158 No. 183. Cf. BP II 535.

J1811.1.1. J1811.1.1. The old maid answers the owl's hoot, saying "Anybody, Lord!" or giving the name of the young man she wants. (Cf. X750.3.) U.S.: *Baughman.

J1811.2. J1811.2. Frog's cries misunderstood. U.S.: *Baughman.

J1811.3. J1811.3. Turkey's gobble misunderstood by man lost in woods. U.S.: Baughman.

J1811.4. J1811.4. Rooster's crow interpreted.

J1811.4.1. J1811.4.1. Henpecked husband leaves home. Hears a rooster crow, saying: "Cocky kuko! It's the same everywhere!" He returns home. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

J1812. J1812. Other sounds misunderstood.

J1812.1. J1812.1. Seeds rattling in pods thought to be insults. Numskull burns field. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1812.2. J1812.2. Rabbits think sound of waves is great danger to them. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1812.3. J1812.3. Fermenting dough: "Woe to you .." The rain drops: "Here he is.." The little bell: "He is hiding here.." Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1264; Russian: Andrejev No. 1264 I*.*

J1812.4. J1812.4. Hissing of fire thought to be noise of cooking muffins. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1812.4.1. J1812.4.1. Noises fire is making misunderstood. Hunchback springs into it to burn to his death. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1812.5. J1812.5. Snoring sounds misunderstood. (Cf. J1833.)

J1812.5.1. J1812.5.1. Numskull thief thinks snoring sleeper is asking for food. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1813. J1813. Cooking processes misunderstood. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1813.1. J1813.1. Mushrooms shrink in water. Fool kills his wife because he thinks that she has eaten part of them. Africa (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 412 No. 11.

J1813.2. J1813.2. Boiling milk thought to be overflowing. Simpleton lets it run over. Type 1328*.

J1813.2.1. J1813.2.1. Numskull thinks his prayers have stopped milk boiling over. Actually his wife has added cold water. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1813.3. J1813.3. Boiling pumpkin thought to be talking. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1813.4. J1813.4. Boiling pot on the floor thought to be self-cooking. Christensen DF XLVII 177 No. 5, cf. 192 No. 18.

J1813.5. J1813.5. Fish dancing about in cooking pot appears to be many. Cook eats one; none left. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1813.6. J1813.6. Handful of black pepper taken into mouth instead of cooking it in food. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1813.7. J1813.7. Savory tea. The peasant entertains a priest at tea. Making it, puts in all the tea, six pounds of sugar, a piece of bacon, etc. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 2439*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1710*.

J1813.8. J1813.8. Sheep's head has eaten dumplings. Small boy is at home to watch the dinner. Runs into church, calls out to his mother that the sheep's head has eaten all the dumplings (or butted them out of the pot). England, U.S.: *Baughman.

J1813.9. J1813.9. All the beans cooked for one meal. They fill the room. U.S.: *Baughman.

J1813.9.1. J1813.9.1. Stupid servant cooks all the rice for one meal. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1813.10. J1813.10. Numskull thinks boiling pot is threatening him: breaks pot. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1814. J1814. Numskull stays till he has finished. As he is making water he hears a brook flowing and mistakes what it is. He waits for a day and a half. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 210 No. 23; U.S.: Baughman.

J1815. J1815. Did the calf eat the man? A fool, liking the shoes on the feet of a man hanged on a gallows, cuts off the swollen feet in order to carry off the shoes. In the room in which he sleeps that night is a newborn calf. The next morning the man takes the shoes but leaves the feet. Peasants agree that the calf has eaten the man all but the feet. They burn the house to destroy the calf. Type 1281; *Wesselski Bebel I 231 No. 144; Danish: Christensen DF L 65, Nyrop Dania I (1890) 283ff., cf. II 68ff.; U.S.: Baughman.

J1816. J1816. Fool thinks gold is being destroyed when snails crawl over it. Icelandic: Boberg.

J1817. J1817. Fool thinks belly is speaking to him; stabs himself. Other animals are shouting at him. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 78.

J1818. J1818. Animal's action misunderstood.

J1818.1. J1818.1. Urination of bull thought to be bleeding. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1819. J1819. Physical phenomena misunderstood—miscellaneous. U.S.: Baughman.

J1819.1. J1819.1. Fools think thorn bush doesn't sting at night. Christensen DF XLVII 219 No. 80.

J1819.2. J1819.2. Simpleton sleeping in cold room breaks window to let the cold out. (Cf. J2123.) U.S.: Baughman.

J1819.3. J1819.3. Fool wakes with sleeping mat over head and thinks it is still night. Marquesas: Handy 25.

J1820. J1820. Inappropriate action from misunderstanding.

J1821. J1821. Swimming (fishing) in the flax-field. Peasants go to visit the sea. They see a waving flax-field, and, thinking it is the sea, jump in to swim. *Type 1290; *BP III 205; Köhler-Bolte I 112; Christensen DF XLVII 195 no. 20; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "lin", "pêche"; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1821.1. J1821.1. Trying to swim in the mist. Mistaken for sea. Tonga: Gifford 98.

J1822. J1822. Sweeping with a stick instead of a broom. Köhler-Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. VI 63 (to Gonzenbach No. 13).

J1823. J1823. Misunderstanding of church customs or ceremonies causes inappropriate action.

J1823.1. J1823.1. Misunderstandings concerning images of Christ.

J1823.1.1. J1823.1.1. Christ accused of trying to fool the people. Fool sees the image of Christ elevated on Ascension Day to the beams of the church. He accuses Christ of having fooled the people into believing that he has gone to heaven. Wesselski Bebel II 158 No. 181.

J1823.1.2. J1823.1.2. Christ's image has broken his arm. A man refuses to have anything to do with the crucifix because once an image of Christ has fallen on him in church and broken his arm. Reminded that this image is not the same, he replies that it is the son of the other and is just as bad. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 270.

J1823.1.3. J1823.1.3. The Lord has departed. Maidservant on way to church on Palm Sunday meets priests leading ass on which Jesus rode. The maid runs home and tells her mistress that the Lord has mounted and has just gone away. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 865.

J1823.1.4. J1823.1.4. Numskull knocks the figure of Jesus from the ass. Sees the waving of palms on Palm Sunday and thinks the people are trying to knock the figure from the ass. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 768; *Wesselski Bebel I 200 No. 78.

J1823.2. J1823.2. Bishop struck for breaking the peace. At a wedding after a period of silent prayer the bishop begins an antiphony. The fool walks up and strikes the bishop: "You have made this shouting in the church." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 49.

J1823.3. J1823.3. Numskull thinks the extinguishing of lights at the church presages a fight. Draws his sword. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 849.

J1823.4. J1823.4. Move away from Moslem land so that Allah need not be feared. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1824. J1824. Fatal bread. Numskull refuses communion because his sister died shortly after eating the bread. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 572.

J1824.1. J1824.1. Other misunderstandings of the communion. Christensen DF XLVII 202f. no. 44.

J1825. J1825. Turkish ambassador misunderstands Christian ceremonies. Makes ridiculous report to his king. Bolte Frey's Gartengesellschaft 217 No. 5.

J1825.1. J1825.1. Christian laws are profitless, Turkish ambassador says. Good people do not need them; bad people do not reform as a result of them. Spanish: Childers.

J1826. J1826. The falcon not so good as represented. A nobleman praises his falcon. His fool, supposing they were praising the falcon as food, kills the bird, but is disappointed in the taste. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 52; *Wesselski Bebel I 194 No. 64; Alphabet No. 239.

J1827. J1827. The king no priest's son. A pope in writing to a king says, "To our dear son Frederick." Upon hearing this the fool cries out, "That is a lie; he is no priest's son. I knew his father and mother and they were both honest people." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 51.

J1828. J1828. The obedient log. A fool sees a boat (with rowers) obedient to commands, "Right! Left!" etc. He asks what kind of wood the boat is made of. Later he gets a log of that wood and tries to make it obey commands. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 258.

J1831. J1831. Numskull throws the dishes out. A landlord in anger throws a dish out the window. The numskull throws the rest out, thinking that the landlord wanted to eat outdoors. *Wesselski Bebel I 194 No. 65.

J1832. J1832. Jumping into the river after their comrade. Through misunderstanding one of the men jumps into the river. He calls out; the others think that he wants them to follow, and all jump in and are drowned. *BP II 556 n. 1; Japanese: Ikeda.

J1833. J1833. Numskull thinks the bishop's snoring is his death rattle. He strikes at a fly on the bishop's nose because it seems to be killing the bishop. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 712.

J1833.1. J1833.1. Numskull shoots grasshopper which lighted on the shoulder of his friend and kills friend. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1833.1.1. J1833.1.1. Boy strikes at a fly on his sister's breast: it turns into nipple and girl thinks it due to brother's caress. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1833.1.2. J1833.1.2. One man strikes at partridge which has lighted on second man's head. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1834. J1834. Numskulls lose corpse and bury live person instead. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1835. J1835. Goat chewing cud angers fool, who thinks goat is mimicking him. Type 1211; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1836. J1836. Fool not recognizing coins lying on roadside leaves them. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1838. J1838. Man thinks own toe is snake's head and cuts it off. (Cf. J1782.8.) North Carolina: Brown Collection I 699.

J1842. J1842. Useless surgical operation from misunderstanding.

J1842.1. J1842.1. Numskull (female devil) thinks her pubic hair has been telling her lies and pulls it out together with the skin. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1842.2. J1842.2. Fool cannot answer as his mouth is full; thought to have an abscess in cheeks, allows them to be cut open. India: Thompson-Balys. (Cf. W111.5.8.)

J1842.3. J1842.3. Bird protruding from king's stomach cut out with swords: king killed. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1842.4. J1842.4. Child's stomach split open to cure him of wandering. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1845. J1845. Serfs congratulate their master. The delegate slips and falls, cursing: "The devil may take you!" The serfs outside think this was the congratulation, and all cry in chorus: "You and your family!" Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1708; Rumanian: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII 98 No. 14.

J1846. J1846. Numskull prepares brother's wedding (father's funeral). On the way home from town he destroys his purchases. (Cf. J1851, J1856, J1871.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1677*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1681 I*; Prussian: Plenzat 75.

J1849. J1849. Inappropriate action from misunderstanding—miscellaneous.

J1849.1. J1849.1. Fool believes realistic story. Inappropriate action.

J1849.1.1. J1849.1.1. Story told about a deer: fool starts chase. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1849.2. J1849.2. Jackdaw tries to swallow sparks from glowworm. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1849.3. J1849.3. Numskull strikes all matches in order to try them. Christensen DF XLVII 207 no. 60.

J1849.4. J1849.4. Nobody can move it. Foolish soldier at guard by cannon therefore quits. Christensen DF XLVII no. 49.

J1850-J1999.

J1850-J1999. Absurd disregard of facts.

J1850-J1899.

J1850-J1899. ANIMALS OR OBJECTS TREATED AS IF HUMAN

J1850. J1850. Gift or sale to animal (or object).

J1851. J1851. Gift to animal or object.

J1851.1. J1851.1. Gifts to frogs.

J1851.1.1. J1851.1.1. Numskull throws money to frogs so that they can count it. *Type 1642; *BP I 59.

J1851.1.2. J1851.1.2. Numskull feeds his wheat to frogs. He has been sent to mill to have it ground. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 139 No. *1693, Espinosa III 147.

J1851.1.3. J1851.1.3. Numskull throws money to frogs to repay them. They have frightened his fleeing ass from the water. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 226 No. 69.

J1851.1.4. J1851.1.4. Wool taken to pond for frogs and toads to weave. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1851.2. J1851.2. Gifts to birds. Numskulls hear birds calling and give them gifts. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 260.

J1851.3. J1851.3. Gift to object.

J1851.3.1. J1851.3.1. Fool stops hole with money. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "argent".

J1851.4. J1851.4. Thankful numskull puts money in the anus of sheep which he supposes has helped him. Christensen DF XLVII 221 No. 84.

J1852. J1852. Goods sold to animals. *Type 1642; *BP I 59f.; *Chauvin VI 126 No. 280; Fansler MAFLS XII 352.

J1852.1. J1852.1. Numskull sells cow to bird. When he comes for his money the bird flies to a trash pile, where the fool finds a treasure. (Cf. J1853.1.1.) *Clouston Noodles 147.

J1852.1.1. J1852.1.1. Fool sells balls of thread to great lizard. Next day he finds a treasure there. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1852.1.2. J1852.1.2. Oil sold to iguana. Treasure found. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1853. J1853. Goods sold to object. *Type 1642; *BP I 59; Köhler-Bolte I 135; Spanish: Espinosa III 147.

J1853.1. J1853.1. Fool sells goods to a statue. He is told not to sell to talkative people. The statue is the only one he can find who is not talkative. *Chauvin VI 126 No. 280; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 211 No. 426; Fansler MAFLS XII 352; Clouston Noodles 144; Spanish: Espinosa III 147; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 4.

J1853.1.1. J1853.1.1. Money from the broken statue. Fool sells goods to a statue and when it will not pay him knocks it to pieces. He finds a treasure inside. (Cf. J1852.1.) Type 1643; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 211 No. 426; Wienert FFC LVI 80 (ET 459), 138 (ST 430); Halm Aesop No. 66; Chauvin VIII 94 No. 65; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 4.

J1856. J1856. Food given to object. (Cf. J1871.)

J1856.1. J1856.1. Meat fed to cabbages. *Type 1386; BP I 520; Indonesia: Coster-Wijsman 60 No. 92.

J1860. J1860. Animal or object absurdly punished.

J1861. J1861. Thief punishes the escaped ox. An ox strays on the rascal's land but escapes from him. The next week he sees the ox yoked up and gives him a beating. The master is astonished. The rascal: "Let me alone; he knows well enough what he has done." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 210 No. 20.

J1862. J1862. The ass deprived of his saddle. A man's coat is stolen when he leaves his ass for a moment. He takes the saddle off the ass and says that he will give it back if the ass will return the coat. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin *223 No. 61.

J1863. J1863. Cow punished for calf's misdeeds. Blamed for not teaching calf better. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 236 No. 108.

J1863.1. J1863.1. Man beats calves because the bull has butted him over the fence. England: Baughman.

J1863.2. J1863.2. Wolf punished for his father's misdeeds. Jewish: *Neuman.

J1864. J1864. Man flogs his shot. On a rainy day when shot will not go a man flogs the shot. It goes and he shoots a deer. Africa (Vai): Ellis 189 No. 4.

J1865. J1865. Sickle punished by drowning. In a land where the sickle is not known the new sickle cuts off the head of a man. It is drowned. *Type 1202.

J1865.1. J1865.1. Sickle punished by being tied in top of a tree. The men hang themselves in the attempt. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

J1866. J1866. Man avenges self on animals by wholesale slaughter.

J1866.1. J1866.1. Man avenges brother's death by wholesale slaughter of wild pigs. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1867. J1867. Man punishes offending part of his body.

J1867.1. J1867.1. Man beats his foot for slipping. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1870. J1870. Absurd sympathy for animals or objects.

J1871. J1871. Filling cracks with butter. Numskull sees cracks in the ground and feels so sorry for them that he greases them with the butter he is taking home. *Type 1291; BP I 521; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 250 No. 165; Missouri French: Carrière.

J1872. J1872. Creaking limbs. Numskull hears limbs creaking in the wind. He is sorry for them and holds them apart. While he is caught between them his enemies take advantage of him. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 297 n. 85.

J1872.0.1. J1872.0.1. Creaking wagon dies. When the wagon stops its creaking, fool decides it has died; he cremates it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1872.1. J1872.1. Helping the cuckoo. A numskull climbs a tree to help a cuckoo so that he may call louder than the one in the neighboring forest. Meanwhile his horse is eaten by a wolf. *Wesselski Bebel I 137 No. 42.

J1873. J1873. Animals or objects kept warm.

J1873.1. J1873.1. Fool makes shoes for animals as well as men, since he expects a cold winter. *Type 1695.

J1873.2. J1873.2. Cloak given to a stone to keep it warm. Köhler-Bolte I 71; Christiansen Norske Eventyr 140 No. 1651; Japanese: Ikeda.

J1873.3. J1873.3. Warming the stove with wool. Type 1271A*.

J1873.4. J1873.4. King orders houses built to keep howling jackals warm in winter. Rascal misappropriates funds. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1874. J1874. Relieving the beast of burden.

J1874.1. J1874.1. Rider takes the meal-sack on his shoulder to relieve the ass of his burden. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 229 No. 490; *Fb "sæk" III 720b; *Clouston Noodles 19; Field Pent Cuckoo 3; England, U.S.: Baughman; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1874.2. J1874.2. Man puts bag of meal on one side of saddle, balances it on the other side with a rock. U.S.: Baughman.

J1875. J1875. Objects ascribed human feelings.

J1875.1. J1875.1. Kernel tries to escape death. A fool eats nuts. A kernel slips from him. The fool: "Everything tries to escape from death." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 183 No. 346.

J1875.2. J1875.2. Complaint of the porridge pot. The woman thinks the boiling pot is complaining. Type 1264*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1264.

J1875.3. J1875.3. The homesick wave. Numskulls try to take home a wave of the sea in a bamboo rod. At home when it refuses to wave they say that it is homesick for its mother, the sea. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 252.

J1875.4. J1875.4. Coin weeps. Numskull thinks money piece covered with perspiration after he has held it for awhile is weeping. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1879. J1879. Absurd sympathy for animals or objects—miscellaneous.

J1879.1. J1879.1. Men drag carts on to roof to shade it from the sun. England: *Baughman.

J1880. J1880. Animals or objects treated as if human—miscellaneous.

J1881. J1881. Animal or object expected to go alone.

J1881.1. J1881.1. Object sent to go by itself. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 272 No. 281; Missouri French: Carrière; Spanish: Espinosa III 147; Indonesia: Coster-Wijsman 72 No. 130.

J1881.1.1. J1881.1.1. Cheeses thrown down to find their way home. Clouston Noodles 35; Field Pent Cuckoo 4.

J1881.1.2. J1881.1.2. One cheese sent after another. Numskull lets one roll down hill; sends the other to bring it back. *Type 1291; BP I 521.

J1881.1.3. J1881.1.3. Three-legged pot sent to walk home. Clouston Noodles 36; Field

Pent Cuckoo 5; *BP I 521 n. 1; England: Baughman; Missouri French: Carrière; Spanish: Espinosa III 147; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 417f.

J1881.1.4. J1881.1.4. Table thrown out of the sledge; to go home by itself. Type 1291*.

J1881.1.5. J1881.1.5. Spinning wheel is sent home by itself. The man asks his wife if it has arrived before him, finds that it has not. "I thought not. I came a shorter way."
Scotland: *Baughman.

J1881.1.6. J1881.1.6. Sickle laid in field and told to cut grain. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1881.1.7. J1881.1.7. Fool sends letter home by a flooded river. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1881.2. J1881.2. Animal sent to go by itself.

J1881.2.1. J1881.2.1. Ass loaded and commanded to go home. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 272 No. 281; Spanish: Espinosa III 147.

J1881.2.2. J1881.2.2. Fools send money by rabbit. Since he is a swift runner they expect it to reach the landlord in time. Field Pent Cuckoo 6; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J1881.2.3. J1881.2.3. Fishes to stop at his house. Fool directs them as he places them in stream. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1882. J1882. Foolish attempt to educate animals. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1882.1. J1882.1. Teaching chickens to talk. Fool believes they can be taught. *Type 1750; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 843.

J1882.2. J1882.2. The ass as mayor. Fool made to believe that his ass (ox) has been educated and has become mayor. *Type 1675; *BP I 59; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 224 No. 63; *Fb "tyr" III 908b; Christensen DF XLVII 229; England: Baughman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1882.3. J1882.3. Elephant educated as drum beater. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1883. J1883. Trickster joins bulrushes in a dance. He thinks they are dancing when he sees them waving. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 306 n. 109dd.

J1883.1. J1883.1. Simpleton addresses a field of reeds. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1884. J1884. The boat gets tired. The woman tries to tire out her rival's boat so as to win the race, but only tires herself. Type 1277; Christensen DF XLVII 190.

J1885. J1885. Singing snails rebuked. A boy roasts snails and they make noise in cooking. "Wretches, your house burns and yet you sing!" Wienert FFC LVI 65 (ET 291), 135 (ST 413); Halm Aesop No. 214.

J1886. J1886. Hens in mourning. Fool puts black clothes on his hen's necks. He tells people that they mourn their mother. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 210 No. 19.

J1887. J1887. The mad wheelbarrow. Fools chain a wheelbarrow, bitten by a mad dog, lest it bite others. Field Pent Cuckoo 15.

J1888. J1888. Wants the organ to come and play for her. An old woman enraptured with the sound of a cathedral organ prays for it to come to her house and gives it directions as to where she lives. Bolte Frey 235 No. 54.

J1891. J1891. Object foolishly blamed.

J1891.1. J1891.1. Sickness ascribed to quarreling wines. A man has drunk so much of various wines that he is sick. He says to the wines, "Have peace among yourselves and don't quarrel or I'll throw you out the window." *Wesselski Bebel II 102 No. 14.

J1891.2. J1891.2. Carpenter blames the nails. On his deathbed refuses to forgive nails which ruined his tools. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 702.

J1891.3. J1891.3. Sea foolishly accused of cruelty. Sea says that it is calm itself, but the wind blew it up and broke the ship. Wienert FFC LVI 75 (ET 406), 123 (ST 317); Halm Aesop No. 94.

J1892. J1892. Preserving the cock's freedom. A boy recently home from school sees his mother trying to catch the cock. "Don't mother, don't break his freedom or we will suffer for it." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 817.

J1894. J1894. Scholar speaks Latin on hunt so that the birds cannot understand him. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1895. J1895. Woman thinks calf's bleating has accused her of stealing from harvest. Begs that people not believe what calf said. (Cf. N611.) India: Thompson-Balys.

J1896. J1896. Objects supposed to be born, grow, and die like animals. (Cf. J1932.) Christensen DF XLVII 189—190 no. 15.

J1896.1. J1896.1. Stones thought to reproduce. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 88.

J1900. J1900. Absurd disregard or ignorance of animal's nature or habits.

J1901. J1901. Absurd ignorance concerning the laying of eggs.

J1901.1. J1901.1. The overfed hen. A woman wants her hen to lay many eggs. Overfeeds her and she stops laying altogether. Wienert FFC LVI 72 (ET 362), 106 (ST 184); Halm Aesop No. 111.

J1901.2. J1901.2. Numskull feeds hens hot water so they will lay boiled eggs. *Clouston Noodles 120; England: Baughman.

J1902. J1902. Absurd ignorance concerning the hatching of eggs.

J1902.1. J1902.1. Numskull sits on eggs to finish the hatching. Cautions people to be quiet and not frighten the eggs. (Sometimes puts on honey and feathers before sitting on the eggs.) Type 650; *BP I 316; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 212 No. 433; *Wesselski Bebel II 146 No. 148; Christensen DF XLVII 210 No. 63; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "oeuf"; Spanish: Espinosa III 147 Nos. 181—188; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 4.

J1902.2. J1902.2. Numskull tries to hatch out a calf from a cheese. *BP I 317.

J1903. J1903. Absurd ignorance concerning animal's eating and drinking.

J1903.1. J1903.1. The water on the calf's back. When the calf will not drink, the peasant woman throws the water on its back. Type 1211*.

J1903.2. J1903.2. Numskull puts the milk back. When the customer refuses to take the milk he puts it back into the goat's mouth so that it will flow back into the udder.
*Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 247 No. 550.

J1903.3. J1903.3. Fattening the pig. A farmer who wanted to fatten a pig fed it only twice a day. When told to feed it three times a day he says, "A working man must have more to eat than a pig." *Wesselski Bebel I 141 No. 56.

J1903.4. J1903.4. How can an elephant eat, having tails at both ends? Decision: it lives on air. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1904. J1904. Absurd ignorance concerning place for animal to be kept.

J1904.1. J1904.1. Cow (hog) taken to roof to graze. *Type 1210; *Köhler-Bolte I 66, 135; *Fb "ko" II 241a, "tyr" III 908b; Christensen DF XLVII 219 No. 81; English: Clouston Noodles 55; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 295 No. 15; Spanish: Espinosa III 147 Nos. 181—188.

J1904.2. J1904.2. The pent cuckoo. Fools build an enclosure to keep in the cuckoo. She flies over the hedge. They say that they have not built the hedge high enough. Field Pent Cuckoo; Clouston Noodles 27; England: Baughman.

J1904.2.1. J1904.2.1. Fools try to hedge the cuckoo so that they will have summer the year round (the coming of the first cuckoo being the sign of the coming summer). England: *Baughman.

J1904.2.2. J1904.2.2. Deer belled and enclosed like goats jump fence and escape. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1904.3. J1904.3. Hogs made to sleep in trees to cure their filthy habits. All are killed. England: Baughman.

J1904.4. J1904.4. Nest built in tree for fish. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1904.4.1. J1904.4.1. Fish will climb trees like buffaloes. Numskull considers what will happen if river burns up. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1905. J1905. Absurd ignorance about milking animals. (Cf. J1903.2.)

J1905.1. J1905.1. Fool does not milk cow for a month so that she will give plenty for a feast. Penzer V 72.

J1905.2. J1905.2. Fools try to milk male ass. Penzer V 136 n. 3.

J1905.3. J1905.3. Divided ownership of cow. The brother who owns the front end tries to drive the cow and will not let the owner of the rear end milk her. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1905.4. J1905.4. Fool asks owner of oxen why he does not milk them since he is not working them. Canada: Baughman.

J1905.5. J1905.5. Trying to have cows make curds before being milked. India:

Thompson-Balys.

J1905.6. J1905.6. Cow killed in order to get all the milk at once. (Cf. J2129.3.) India: Thompson-Balys.

J1906. J1906. Absurd ignorance about slaughtering animals.

J1906.1. J1906.1. Bullock struck on hindquarters instead of head in attempt to kill it. (Only frightens it.) India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1908. J1908. Absurd attempt to change animal nature. Wienert FFC LVI 45ff. (ET 31, 37, 38, 39, 54, 241, 420, 422), 87ff. (ST 2, 3, 4, 8, 9, 504); Halm Aesop Nos 149, 360, 373, 374, 375; Pauli (ed. Bolte) Nos. 427, 430.

J1908.1. J1908.1. The cat and the candle. A man has a cat trained to hold up lighted candles on its head. The king has a mouse let loose. The cat drops the candle and chases the mouse. *Type 217; Cosquin études 403ff.; *Fb "kat" IV 255a; *Wesselski Arlotto II 238 No. 131; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1908.2. J1908.2. Cat transformed to maiden runs after mouse. *Hertel Zs. f. Vksk. XXII 244; Rohde Kleinere Schriften II 212ff.; Wienert FFC LVI *45, 71, 78 (ET 34, 351, 444), 86 (ST 1); Halm Aesop No. 88; Jacobs Aesop 218 No. 76; Spanish: Espinosa III 275-277; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1908.3. J1908.3. Frog-woman betrays self by croaking. Africa (Nama): Des Schwartzen Menschen Märchenweisheit (Stuttgart, 1929) 140f. No. 27.

J1909. J1909. Absurd disregard of animal's nature or habits—miscellaneous.

J1909.1. J1909.1. Fisherman fails to make fish dance to his flute. Later in his net they jump about without the aid of the flute. Wienert FFC LVI *66 (ET 301), 117 (ST 275); Halm Aesop 27.

J1909.2. J1909.2. Fool tries to shoot dead antelope until it will come to him. Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 156 No. 3.

J1909.3. J1909.3. Numskull tries to shake birds from tree like fruit. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 238 No. 526.

J1909.4. J1909.4. Breeding fine horses from an ass. Fool says, "Just as soon as the body of a colt bred from this mare is in proper proportion to its ears you will have a fine horse." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 763.

J1909.5. J1909.5. Sheep licking her lamb is envied by the wolf. He says, "Such is bad conduct. If I were to do that they would say that I was eating it." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 587; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 33 No. 129*. Cf. Wienert FFC LVI *69 (ET 335), 94f. (ST 81); Halm Aesop Nos. 282, 330.

J1909.6. J1909.6. Numskull tries to wash black hen white. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 246 No. 142.

J1909.7. J1909.7. Fear that frog may drown or get dirty. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1910. J1910. Fatal disregard of anatomy.

J1911. J1911. Nature of a baby misunderstood.

J1911.1. J1911.1. Numskull does not understand about baby's skull. Sticks needle through it. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 215 No. 445; Spanish: Espinosa III 147; West Indies: Flowers 486.

J1911.2. J1911.2. Foolish mother does not understand how babies cry. Wrings the child's neck. Africa (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 406 No. 3.

J1914. J1914. Horse taught to live without food. Dies. Type 1682; Wienert FFC LVI 72 (ET 364), 129 (ST 370); Halm Aesop No. 176.

J1914.1. J1914.1. The underfed warhorse. Fails in the war. Wienert FFC LVI 72 (ET 363), 129 (ST 369); Halm Aesop No. 178.

J1914.2. J1914.2. Three brothers take turns using mule. None of them feeds him, supposing that the others have. The mule dies. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 575.

J1916. J1916. Fool carries wife across stream head downwards and drowns her. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J1919. J1919. Fatal disregard of anatomy—miscellaneous.

J1919.1. J1919.1. The remodelled stork. A trickster cuts off the bill and legs of a stork to make him look more like a real bird. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 213 No. 37.

J1919.2. J1919.2. Where the ducks ford. A fool is asked where the river is fordable. He says, "Everywhere." The man tries to ride across and is almost drowned. The fool, "Those little ducks were able to cross here; why couldn't a big fellow like you?" Wesselski Bebel II 146 No. 146.

J1919.3. J1919.3. The two extra pounds. A dog has eaten 14 pounds of butter; the fool squeezes 16 pounds from him. Fb "sm[ö]r" III 412b.

J1919.4. J1919.4. Fool cuts off tails of oxen so that they will look like fine steeds. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 769.

J1919.5. J1919.5. Genitals cut off through ignorance.

J1919.5.1. J1919.5.1. Ignorant bride castrates groom when jokingly told to do so. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1919.5.2. J1919.5.2. Nun tells friar to get rid of offending member. He does so. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1919.5.3. J1919.5.3. Fool undergoes castration to put on weight. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1919.6. J1919.6. Simpleton's ignorance of anatomy leads him to share his wife with a priest. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1919.7. J1919.7. Fool believes that he has begot child with his sister by an earbox. Icelandic: Boberg.

J1919.8. J1919.8. The man without a member: foolish wife gives her husband money to buy himself one. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 2911; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV No. 1543.

J1919.9. J1919.9. Cowboy shoots his wife when she breaks her leg (or is injured in another way). U.S.: *Baughman.

J1920. J1920. Absurd searches for the lost.

J1921. J1921. The needle (or the like) falls into the sea: sought the next summer. Type 1280.

J1922. J1922. Marking the place. Christensen DF XLVII 177ff.

J1922.1. J1922.1. Marking the place on the boat. An object falls into the sea from a boat. Numskulls mark the place on the boat-rail to indicate where it fell. *Type 1278; *Fb "bed" IV 87a; *Clouston Noodles 99; Penzer V 92f.; Japanese: Ikeda.

J1922.2. J1922.2. Marking the place under the cloud. Numskulls leave a knife in the field, marking the place by putting it under a heavy cloud. Next day the cloud is gone and the knife lost. Clouston Noodles 53; England: Baughman; Japanese: Ikeda.

J1922.2.1. J1922.2.1. Fool seeks the ears of grain in the direction of the cloud toward which he has sowed them. Type 1278*.

J1922.3. J1922.3. Marking the place in the sand. Vessel left under mound in sand while owner is swimming. Others make similar mounds so that it is lost. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1923. J1923. The rejected bread resought. Numskull looks for bread that he threw away a year before. Africa (Zulu): Callaway 359.

J1924. J1924. Numskull forgets name of certain food and thinks that it has fallen into sand. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1930. J1930. Absurd disregard of natural laws.

J1931. J1931. Money tested by throwing it into a stream to see if it will swim. Good coins are supposed to swim, counterfeit to sink. *Type 1651; BP II 75; Fb "penge" II 804a; Russian: Andrejev No. 842.

J1932. J1932. Absurd practices connected with crops. Christensen DF XLVII 207.

J1932.1. J1932.1. Numskulls sow cooked grain. *DeVries FFC LXXIII 246; *Fb "se" Penzer V 67 n. 3; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

J1932.2. J1932.2. Sowing cheese to bring forth a cow. *Type 1200; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 209 No. 423; *Fb "se".

J1932.3. J1932.3. Sowing salt to produce salt. *Type 1200; Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 209 No. 423; Christensen DF XLVII 206, 231 no. 57; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1932.4. J1932.4. Planting a hog in order to grow pigs. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 209 No. 423.

- J1932.4.1. J1932.4.1. Planting animal's tail in order to produce young animals. Type 1200.
- J1932.4.2. J1932.4.2. Planting bones to produce animal. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J1932.5. J1932.5. Sowing needles (like seed). Köhler-Bolte I 135.
- J1932.6. J1932.6. Harvesting early for half a crop. India: Thompson-Balys.
- J1932.7. J1932.7. Stones watered to make them grow. (Cf. J1896.1.) Hawaii: Beckwith 88.
- J1933. J1933. Numskull tries to dig up a well (spring). He wants to take it home. Köhler-Bolte I 533; Clouston Noodles 67.
- J1934. J1934. A hole to throw the earth in. Numskull plans to dig a hole so as to have a place to throw the earth from his excavation. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 227 No. 480; Christensen DF XL VII 201 no. 37; Jewish: Neuman.
- J1935. J1935. Articles sent by telegraph. U.S.: Baughman.
- J1935.1. J1935.1. Boots sent by telegraph. A peasant hangs boots and an accompanying letter on a telegraph wire, expecting them to reach the city. Type 1710; Christensen DF XLVII 204 no. 50; U.S. (Ozarks): *Randolph Devil's Pretty Daughter (New York, 1955) 195.
- J1936. J1936. How he looks in his sleep. A man stands before mirror with his eyes shut to see how he looks in his sleep. Clouston Noodles 9.
- J1936.1. J1936.1. Man takes mirror to bed to see whether he sleeps with his mouth open. England: *Baughman.
- J1937. J1937. Absurd ideas about the dead.
- J1937.1. J1937.1. Dead man identified by his cough. Numskull asked to identify corpse tries to do so by his cough. Clouston Noodles 15.
- J1937.2. J1937.2. A healthy place for a tomb. Numskull objects to unhealthy place for his tomb. Clouston Noodles 9.
- J1938. J1938. Porridge in the ice hole. They put meal in the boiling current of the ice hole and then, one after another, they jump in to taste the porridge. Type 1260; Clouston Noodles 44; Field Pent Cuckoo 17; Christensen DF XLVII 178; India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 255.
- J1941. J1941. How far his voice will reach. A numskull cries from a tower and then runs away to see how far his voice will reach. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 191 No. 373.
- J1942. J1942. Holding in the heat. A numskull ties yarn around the stove to keep the heat from escaping. Type 1271B*.
- J1943. J1943. Examining the sundial by candle-light. Numskull tries to find the time of night. Clouston Noodles 76; England: Baughman.

J1943.1. J1943.1. Sundial covered in order to protect it. Christensen DF XLVII no. 46.

J1944. J1944. Trying to get fruit from fruitless tree.

J1944.1. J1944.1. Numskulls try to get pears from an oaktree. They accuse each other of eating all the pears. Wesselski Bebel II 147 No. 149.

J1945. J1945. Warming hands across the river. Numskull stretches out his hands toward the fire across the river. Clouston Noodles 68.

J1946. J1946. As tired as if he had walked. So says the numskull after riding to town on his stick horse. *Wesselski Bebel II 158 No. 182.

J1947. J1947. Drying snow to make salt. Wesselski Bebel II 89.

J1952. J1952. Fire and water mixed to make sacrifice. Fool told that he needed only the two. Penzer V 68.

J1955. J1955. Demand that murderer restore life to victim.

J1955.1. J1955.1. Woman runs after guest to tell him he must restore her husband whom he has unintentionally killed. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1959. J1959. Absurd disregard of natural laws—miscellaneous.

J1959.1. J1959.1. Simpleton drives goats into a well, because he thinks it would be cooler for them. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1959.1.1. J1959.1.1. Hot sickle put into water to cure its fever. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1959.2. J1959.2. Substitute for the corpse. Fool loses his mother's corpse on way to funeral. Mistakes old woman for mother and substitutes her. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1960. J1960. Other absurd disregard of facts.

J1961. J1961. White sheep-skin used as a source of light. Type 1245*.

J1961.1. J1961.1. Trying to catch light in a mouse-trap. Type 1245.

J1962. J1962. The yeast as an afterthought. An old woman who has forgotten to knead it in the dough throws it into the stove. Type 1261*.

J1963. J1963. The fool puts but one stick of wood in the stove. "Several others have burned up." Type 1260*.

J1964. J1964. Tree-trunks laid crosswise of the sledge. *Type 1248; BP III 302. Cf. Type 801.

J1964.1. J1964.1. Trying to stretch the beam. *Type 1244.

J1965. J1965. Protected by the needle. In a storm on the ice, numskulls stick needles into the ice to keep from blowing away. Type 1279.

J1966. J1966. The wall accuses the crowbar. But the man who uses the crowbar is to blame for the downfall of the wall. Wienert FFC LVI 75 (ET 400), 123 (ST 319); Halm Aesop No. 402.

J1967. J1967. Numskull bales out the stream. He comes to a stream but not wishing to get his feet wet he sits down to wait for the stream to run down. He helps to bale the stream out with a hazelnut shell and keeps it up for months. Italian: Gonzenbach No. 17, Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J1968. J1968. Foolish fight with the sea. Absurd attempt to punish sea. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 254. Cf. Yeats's "Cuchulain's Fight with the Sea."

J1968.1. J1968.1. Foolish fight with the sun. India: Thompson-Balys.

J1971. J1971. Fools try to use buffalo tongue as a knife. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 253.

J1972. J1972. Stupid woman swims on the roof. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 324 No. 161.

J1973. J1973. Tree pulled down in order to give it water to drink. Type 1241; Christensen DF XLVII 179.

J1974. J1974. Fool tries to purify cotton by burning it (as the goldsmith does with gold). Penzer V 70; India: Thompson-Balys.

J1976. J1976. Numskulls are affected by heat from stove which has no fire in it. U.S.: *Baughman.

J1977. J1977. Mouth and ears stopped up lest wisdom escape. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2000-J2049.

J2000-J2049. ABSURD ABSENT-MINDEDNESS

J2010. J2010. Uncertainty about own identity.

J2012. J2012. Person does not know himself. Fb "selv"; L. Schmidt Oesterr. Zs f. Vksk. 1954, 129ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2012.1. J2012.1. Numskull's beard cut off: does not know himself. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 274 No. 298; Christensen DF XLVII 27, 221 No. 83; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2012.2. J2012.2. Woman's garments cut off: does not know herself. *Type 1383; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 274 No. 298; Christensen DF XLVII 35.

J2012.3. J2012.3. Woman in tar and feathers does not know herself. *Type 1383; Fb "tjære" III 811a; Christensen DF XLVII 35; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2012.4. J2012.4. Fool in new clothes does not know himself. Wesselski Mönchslatein 193 No. 152; Christensen DF XLVII 221 No. 83.

J2012.5. J2012.5. Man does not know himself from another identically clad. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 214 No. 43.

J2012.6. J2012.6. Fool at baths believes he is someone else. Sees everybody naked. Puts straw on his shoulder to identify himself. Straw floats to another bather. "You are me and I am you!" Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2013. J2013. Man made to believe that he is someone else. *Chauvin VIII 96 No. 67; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2013.1. J2013.1. White man made to believe that he is a negro. Sleeps with a negro. His friends blacken him during the night. When he is waked up, he complains that they have waked the wrong man. Clouston Noodles 7; L. Schmidt Oesterr. Zs. f. Vksk. 1954, 130; England, U.S.: Baughman.

J2013.2. J2013.2. Man made to believe that he is a dog. He barks at people. *Type 1406; Bédier Fabliaux 265ff.; *Crane Vitry 227 No. 231.

J2013.3. J2013.3. Pumpkin tied to another's leg. A numskull ties a pumpkin to his leg at night so that he shall know himself in the morning. Someone ties the pumpkin to another's leg and the numskull is not sure of his identity next morning. Clouston Noodles 7.

J2013.4. J2013.4. Numskull made to believe he is an evil spirit. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2014. J2014. Fool does not recognize his own house and family. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2015. J2015. His pupils grab a dog's tail and think it is their master's. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2016. J2016. Man does not recognize his name when it is called: he is accustomed to hear his nickname. (Cf. K1984.3.) U.S.: Baughman.

J2020. J2020. Inability to find own members, etc.

J2021. J2021. Numskulls cannot find their own legs. A stranger helps them with a switch. (Usually get them mixed up when they sit down to bathe their feet.) Type 1288; BP III 150 n. 1; *Fb "ben" IV 32b; Clouston Noodles 32; Christensen DF XLVII 183.

J2021.1. J2021.1. Numskull asks doctor which leg (own) is hurting him. Italian Novella: Rotunda; Nouvelles Récréations No. 11.

J2022. J2022. Numskull cannot find ass he is sitting on. *Type 1288A; *BP III 150; Christensen DF XLVII 182.

J2023. J2023. Numskull doesn't recognize his own horse. Finds it only when the rest ride away and he takes the only one left. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 234 No. 100; Italian Novella: Rotunda (J2043).

J2024. J2024. Numskull rides backward. "I didn't get on backward but the horse seems to be left-handed." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 235 No. 100.

J2025. J2025. Inability to find object one is carrying.

J2025.1. J2025.1. Man searches for axe which he carries on his shoulder. Africa (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 407 No. 4.

J2025.2. J2025.2. Woman cannot find pastry which is sticking to her posterior. Mensa Philosophica No. 48.

J2026. J2026. Fools try to fight with man inside of drum who seems to make the noise. Are really pounding each other. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2027. J2027. Opium-smoker on journey asks his way about; ends up at his own house. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2030. J2030. Absurd inability to count. Christensen DF XLVII 181ff.; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2031. J2031. Counting wrong by not counting oneself. Numskulls conclude that one of their number is drowned. *Type 1287; *BP III 149 n. 1; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 267 No. 261; *Clouston Noodles 28ff., 192; *Field Pent Cuckoo 8; Köhler-Bolte I 112; Christensen DF XLVII 181ff. — Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 317 No. 153; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: Coster-Wijsman 66 No. 111.

J2031.1. J2031.1. Numskulls count selves by sticking their noses in the sand. They then count the holes. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 268 No. 261.

J2031.2. J2031.2. There are ten horses; then when he is mounted there are only nine. Why? *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 267 No. 261; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2031.3. J2031.3. Culture hero throws coconuts to various islands, but forgets one he stands on: hence none now on that island. Cook Islands: Beckwith Myth 104, cf. 270.

J2032. J2032. Are there nine or ten geese? Ten men are called in; each is to take a goose. If all have a goose, there are ten. One man is left without one. Numskull: "You should have taken one before they were all gone." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 246 No. 143.

J2033. J2033. Three girls distressed by seemingly impossible task of going and returning together — one in half month, other in fifteen days, other in seven plus eight days. Chinese: Graham.

J2035. J2035. The interrupted calculation. While the merchant is making calculations, he asks the age of his youngest daughter, the elder daughter, and the mother, and always adds this to the number he has reached. Type 1592*.

J2036. J2036. Keeping the measure by stretching out the arms. Numskull goes to buy goods for his wife. Clouston Noodles 90; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 248 No. 161.

J2037. J2037. Numskulls buy things in common: each pays full price.

J2037.1. J2037.1. Numskulls buy church in common: each pays full price. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1336*.

J2037.2. J2037.2. Three brothers buy cow for common use; each brother pays the farmer full price. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2040. J2040. Absurd absent-mindedness—miscellaneous. U.S.: Baughman.

J2041. J2041. Actor forgets and speaks in his own person.

J2041.1. J2041.1. In Passion Play the Christ says, "I am thirsty"; the thief on the left speaks up, "I too." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 864.

J2044. J2044. Fool forgets master's message. As result of his absent-mindedness he is given a heavy mortar to take to his master. The latter makes him return it as punishment. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2045. J2045. Fool believes plea of not guilty even though he has seen man injure him. Nouvelles Récréations No. 2.

J2046. J2046. Law student forgets his speech. Absurd results. Nouvelles Récréations No. 76.

J2047. J2047. Hero keeps on leading his horse without discovering that it is dead. Icelandic: Boberg.

J2048. J2048. Given things for self and relatives, fool forgets to take his own. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2050-J2199.

J2050-J2199. ABSURD SHORT-SIGHTEDNESS

J2050. J2050. Absurd short-sightedness. Wienert FFC LVI 108 (15).

J2051. J2051. Wise man short-sightedly scorned for his advice. Icelandic: *Boberg.

J2052. J2052. God's mercy contrasted with man's short-sightedness. Jewish: *Neuman.

J2060. J2060. Absurd plans. Air-castles. *Type 1430; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 249 No. 163; *Chauvin V 162 No. 85.

J2060.1. J2060.1. Quarrel and fight over details of air-castles. *Type 1430; BP III 275; *Gerould MLN XIX 228; India: *Thompson-Balys; Arab: Azov JPASB (n.s.) II 402f.; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 269, Coster-Wijsman 65f. Nos. 107—110.

J2060.2. J2060.2. Man plants hedge: sheep will leave wool on the thorns and bring riches. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2060.3. J2060.3. To build a palace in the sky: hawk as architect is let fly in the air. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2060.4. J2060.4. Fools cast lots for royal purple of queen who is still alive. Jewish: Neuman.

J2061. J2061. Air-castle shattered by lack of forethought.

J2061.1. J2061.1. Air-castle: the jar of honey to be sold. In his excitement he breaks the jar. *BP III 261f.; *Chauvin II 101 No. 60; *Gerould MLN XIX 229; B[ö]dker Exempler 300 No. 65; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella; *Rotunda; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 55, 277; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2061.1.1. J2061.1.1. Air-castle: basket of glassware to be sold. In his excitement he breaks the glassware. BP III 264.

J2061.1.2. J2061.1.2. Air-castle: basket of eggs to be sold. In her excitement she breaks all the eggs. *BP III 265; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 520; *Fb "æg" III 1141b; *Gerould MLN XIX 226; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2061.1.3. J2061.1.3. Pot of flour to be sold: broken. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2061.1.4. J2061.1.4. Air-castle: jar of oil to be sold. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2061.2. J2061.2. Air-castle: pail of milk to be sold. Proud milkmaid tosses her head (or kicks the pail in her sleep) and spills the milk. *BP III 264; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 520; *Crane Vitry 154f. No. 51; Gerould MLN XIX 225; Jacobs Aesop 219 No. 77; Nouvelles Récréations No. 12; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 55, 277.

J2061.2.1. J2061.2.1. Air-castles: pail of milk to be sold. Old woman thinks about the horse she is finally to get from the sale. In her imagination she spurs it and spills the milk. *Gerould MLN XIX 225.

J2061.3. J2061.3. Air-castle: to sell hide of sleeping deer. In his excitement he wakes the deer, who runs off. *BP III 265.

J2061.4. J2061.4. Toad having found money daydreams and is run over. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2062. J2062. Foolish illustration of argument.

J2062.1. J2062.1. Which way the sheep shall return. One man plans to buy sheep; another says that he shall not drive them across the bridge. They quarrel over the sheep, which have not yet been acquired. A third numskull to convince them of their foolishness pours all his meal out in the water so as to show them the empty sack. "How much meal is in the sack?" he asks. "None." "There is just that much wit in your heads." *Clouston Noodles 26; Field Pent Cuckoo 2; England: Baughman.

J2062.2. J2062.2. Foolish logician upsets ghee in argument. "Does the ghee protect the saucer, or the saucer the ghee?" India: Thompson-Balys.

J2062.3. J2062.3. How was the town burned? India: Thompson-Balys.

J2063. J2063. Distress over imagined troubles of unborn child. (Clever Else.) Girl sent to cellar to get wine to serve the suitor begins weeping over the troubles of the child which she might have if she married the suitor. Her parents join her. Meanwhile the suitor leaves. *Type 1450; *BP I 335; *Clouston Noodles 191; Christensen DF L 35; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 55, 277; India: Thompson-Balys; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 285 No. 125.

J2063.1. J2063.1. Queen grieves herself to death over fate of her children after her death. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2064. J2064. Servant plans to deceive his master by refusing to eat. Type 1698.

J2066. J2066. Foolish waiting.

J2066.1. J2066.1. The hungry fox waits in vain for horse's scrotum (lips) to fall off. Type 115.

J2066.2. J2066.2. The daw waits in vain for the figs to ripen in winter. Wienert FFC

LVI 45 (ET 25), 119 (ST 288); Halm Aesop 199.

J2066.3. J2066.3. Men (animals) wait in vain for nuts to fall from a tree. Africa (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 410 No. 8; American Negro: Harris Nights 223 No. 38.

J2066.3.1. J2066.3.1. Waiting in vain for fruit to fall from a non-fruitbearing tree. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2066.4. J2066.4. Wolf scorns salt meat (etc.) in false expectation of other booty. Wesselski Märchen 250 No. 58; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 3.

J2066.5. J2066.5. Wolf waits in vain for the nurse to throw away the child. She has threatened to throw the child to the wolf. Wienert FFC LVI 68 (ET 320), 102 (ST 156); Halm Aesop No. 275; Jacobs Aesop 211 No. 46; Japanese: Ikeda.

J2066.6. J2066.6. Dog waits to be hit with meat. A butcher has threatened to hit him with a piece of meat. Chauvin III 57 No. 16.

J2066.6.1. J2066.6.1. Dog follows washerwoman with bundle hoping for meat. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2066.7. J2066.7. Dupe waits for rear wheels of wagon to overtake front wheels. Is told that money is thus made. England, U.S.: Baughman; American Negro: Harris Friends 122 No. 16.

J2066.8. J2066.8. Hare waits in vain for leaves to fall from palm tree. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2066.9. J2066.9. Hare waits in vain for man's hand to fall off. He sees it dangling. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2067. J2067. Sacrifice equal to the reward.

J2067.1. J2067.1. Sacrifice of one son to get another. A woman plans to sacrifice her only son so that the gods will permit her to give birth to another son. Penzer V 94.

J2070. J2070. Absurd wishes.

J2071. J2071. Three foolish wishes. Three wishes will be granted: used up foolishly. *Bédier Fabliaux 212ff., 471; Type 750; *Bolte Zs. f. vgl. Litgsch. VII 453; *BP II 212; *Fb "[ö]nske" III 1179a. — Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "souhails"; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 213, Coster-Wijsman 46 No. 56.

J2072. J2072. Short-sighted wish.

J2072.1. J2072.1. Short-sighted wish: Midas's touch. Everything to turn to gold. *BP II 213; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 180; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *775.

J2072.2. J2072.2. Short-sighted wish: grain to grow without beards. Birds eat it up. *BP II 213.

J2072.3. J2072.3. Short-sighted wish: all he pulls on will follow. He blows his nose and it pulls out long. *BP II 213.

J2072.4. J2072.4. A man without a stomach. The man complains that he is a mere slave of his stomach. His wish is granted and the stomach taken away from him. He discovers soon that life has become very uninteresting to him, and recovers his stomach again. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *716.

J2072.5. J2072.5. Short-sighted wish: camel wishes a long neck. Killed by jackals. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2072.6. J2072.6. Old woman demands something that she would remember all her life: her nose cut off. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2073. J2073. Same wishes used wisely and foolishly. Given to two persons with opposite results. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2073.1. J2073.1. Wise and foolish wish: keep doing all day what you begin. One begins pulling linen out of a box; other in anger begins throwing water on the pig and must do so all day. *Type 750A; *Fb "[ö]nske" III 1179a; *BP II 214; *Dh II 140ff.

J2073.1.1. J2073.1.1. Wise and foolish wish: help in whatever one is doing. One gets help in work, other in striking his wife (etc.). *Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 262 No. 65.

J2074. J2074. Twice the wish to the enemy. (The covetous and the envious). A can have a wish, but B will get twice the wish. A wishes that he may lose an eye, so that B may be blind. *Type 1331; *BP II 219 n. 1; Crane Vitry 212 No. 126; Bédier Fabliaux 457; Wienert FFC LVI 79 (ET 446), 132 (ST 387); Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 647; *Reinhard JAFL XXXVI 383 n. 1; Scala Celi 106b No. 589; Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 31.—Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2075. J2075. The transferred wish. A husband, given three wishes, transfers one to his wife, who wastes it on a trifle; in his anger he wishes the article in her body and must use the third to get it out. *Type 750A; *BP II 220, 225; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 454.

J2075.1. J2075.1. Transferred wish wisely used as well as unwisely. (J2075 contrasted with a married couple in which the wish is wisely used by the wife.) *BP II 223.

J2075.2. J2075.2. Two transferred wishes used unwisely: redeemed by wise use of third. Wife uses two transferred wishes selfishly. Husband kills wife and uses remaining wish to his advantage. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2075.3. J2075.3. Woman disdainfully throws away pills; punished with sores on body, must use the pills to restore herself. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2075.4. J2075.4. Wife granted wish for beauty, elopes with prince. Husband wishes her into a pig; son must use third wish to restore her. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2076. J2076. Absurdly modest wish. Granted any wish, the fool chooses a trifle. Penzer V 96.

J2076.1. J2076.1. Absurdly modest wish: no lights on certain night except in her own house. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2079. J2079. Absurd wishes—miscellaneous.

J2079.1. J2079.1. Wife wishes to be turned to gold. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2079.2. J2079.2. Foolish wish: to destroy all flies and spiders. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2080. J2080. Foolish bargains. Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2081. J2081. Foolish bargain: progressive type. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2081.1. J2081.1. Foolish bargain: horse for cow, cow for hog, etc. Finally nothing left. *Type 1415; *BP II 199; English: Wells 118 (Octovian); India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: Coster-Wijsman 57 No. 84; N. A. Indian (Zuni): Boas JAFL XXXV 74 No. 3. Cf. Africa (Ibo, Nigeria): Thomas 128.

J2081.2. J2081.2. Foolish bargain: good fish for worthless shell; shell with pearl in it for small fish. Chauvin II 83 No. 10, cf. II 89 No. 28.

J2081.3. J2081.3. Fool exchanges his wife with ox; thinks something to be wrong with her head (she has been marked with red at the parting of her hair). India: Thompson-Balys.

J2081.4. J2081.4. Fools sent to buy cow procure a monkey instead. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2082. J2082. Squaring accounts by shaving the wife. A numskull has paid twice the regular amount for a shave. The barber shaves the wife. Clouston Noodles 180.

J2083. J2083. The foolish attempt to cheat the buyer.

J2083.1. J2083.1. One-third for the price of one-fourth. In the grain sale the fool sells a third of a cask for the price of a fourth, thinking that he is cheating the buyer. Type 1266*.

J2083.2. J2083.2. Two for the price of one. The fool sells two fox-skins pulled into each other. Type 1265*.

J2083.3. J2083.3. Seller of fox skins mixes otter skins with them. Thinks to cheat the buyer. Type 1300*.

J2083.4. J2083.4. Ten for the price of nine. A fool buys nine eggs and sells ten for the same price. He says that business is improving. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 209 No. 12.

J2083.5. J2083.5. A heaping measure given for a level measure. *Fb "skjæppe" III 276a.

J2083.6. J2083.6. Selling more yards of goods for the money than they received. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2085. J2085. Foolish reward offered.

J2085.1. J2085.1. Lost ass, saddle, and bridle offered as reward to the finder. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 231 No. 496.

J2085.1.1. J2085.1.1. Man trades his only horse for a set of harness. U.S.: Baughman.

J2086. J2086. The foolish pawn. The woman sells cows and gets one of them back as a pledge for the unpaid purchase price. *Type 1385; *BP II 440; Christensen DF L 35.

J2087. J2087. The persuasive auctioneer. The auctioneer praises the man's worthless cow so much in his speech that the man takes her back himself. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 276 No. 309; Clouston Noodles 72; U.S.: Baughman.

J2088. J2088. The considerate seller. A numskull having an over-short turban for sale at auction warns the prospective buyer that it is too short. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 223 No. 58.

J2088.1. J2088.1. The fool advises the buyer that the horse is worth little or his father would not sell it. *Wesselski Bebel I 208 No. 95.

J2088.2. J2088.2. Seller advises buyer that cow is a thief. Breton: Luzel Legendes chrétiennes de Basse Bretagne (Paris, 1881) I 16.

J2091. J2091. Thief warned what not to steal. The numskull tells the thief where his door-key, his cakes, and his roasts are and warns him not to steal them. *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. IX 87.

J2091.1. J2091.1. Fool hides treasure and leaves sign "Here it is." Thief leaves sign "Here it is not." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 74; Mensa Philosophica No. 141.

J2092. J2092. The trusted porters. A man finds a treasure, but is robbed by porters whom he has employed to rid him of the trouble of carrying it. Chauvin II 82 No. 2; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 179; B[ö]dker Exempler 272 No. 2; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J2093. J2093. Valuables given away or sold for trifle.

J2093.1. J2093.1. Numskull gives away the old water bag in which the money is hid. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 201 No. 393.

J2093.2. J2093.2. Woman gives a jewel for a salad. The recipient is also a numskull and doesn't know its value. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 30.

J2093.3. J2093.3. Fool ignorant of value of jewel throws it away. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2093.3.1. J2093.3.1. Boy refuses pearls for worthless stones; jeweler recognizes them for what they are. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2093.4. J2093.4. Good timber given for useless because wife says they will have only sickness and trouble. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2093.5. J2093.5. Sacks of gold and silver traded for sacks of rice. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2093.6. J2093.6. Gold and jewels sold for trifle. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2094. J2094. Expensive wood burned to make charcoal. Penzer V 67.

J2095. J2095. To eat a hundred onions. Choice of eating 100 onions, receiving 100 blows, or paying 100 coins. Fool tries onions in vain, then the blows, and finally must give the coins. *Zachariae Kleine Schriften 170; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 349; India:

Thompson-Balys.

J2096. J2096. Stupid boy convinced that trading all his silver for worthless cup will gain people's respect. Chinese: Graham.

J2099. J2099. Foolish bargain: miscellaneous. U.S.: Baughman.

J2099.1. J2099.1. Woman exchanges a horse for a sack of bones. She has been falsely told that the sack is filled with gold. Type 2007*.

J2100. J2100. Remedies worse than the disease.

J2101. J2101. Getting rid of the cat. In a land in which cats are not known, one is bought at a great price. It eats many mice. By misunderstanding, they think the cat is a monster. In order to get rid of it they set the house on fire. *Type 1281; BP II 72 n. 1; Christensen DF XLVII 219ff. no. 82.

J2101.1. J2101.1. Lighting the cat's tail. Woman wishing to punish a cat fastens cotton to its tail and lights it. The whole village is burnt. Clouston Noodles 65; Wesselski Märchen 251 No. 59; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2102. J2102. Expensive means of being rid of insects.

J2102.1. J2102.1. Sleeping in shoes to avoid insect bites. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 237 No. 524.

J2102.2. J2102.2. Snake rids himself of wasps: he lets himself be run over by a cart wheel along with them. Wienert FFC LVI 49 (ET 49), 128 (ST 363); Halm Aesop No. 393.

J2102.3. J2102.3. Bald man aims at a fly: hurts his head. Jacobs Aesop 204 No. 18; Wienert FFC LVI 67 (ET 313), 128 (ST 361).

J2102.4. J2102.4. House burned down to rid it of insects. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 37; *BP III 288; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 244 No. 137; Christensen DF XLVII 219ff. No. 82; India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 267.

J2102.4.1. J2102.4.1. House burned down to get rid of lizard. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2102.5. J2102.5. Burning the wasp nest. The house catches fire and burns. Clouston Noodles 40 n. 1; England: Baughman.

J2102.6. J2102.6. Clothes burned to rid them of insects. Wienert FFC LVI 65 (ET 288), 128 (ST 362); Halm Aesop No. 411.

J2102.7. J2102.7. Crop burned to rid it of insects. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2102.8. J2102.8. Frogs to eat insects, snakes to eat frogs. Snakes eat numskull's family. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2103. J2103. Expensive extermination of rodents.

J2103.1. J2103.1. The cat to guard the cheese. A farmer troubled with mice eating his cheese places a cat in the tub with the cheese. She eats the mice and the cheese. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 35; *Crane Vitry 138 No. 11; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J2103.1.1. J2103.1.1. The cat and the eel-pie. Woman puts cat in flour bin to catch a mouse. The cat eats the pie in the bin and loses interest in the mouse. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2103.2. J2103.2. Pursuing the rabbit who harmed the garden. Peasant asks a nobleman's help against a rabbit. The nobleman chases the rabbit on horseback for five days and ruins the peasant's crop. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 25.

J2103.2.1. J2103.2.1. King ruins his garden to get rid of viper. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2103.3. J2103.3. House burned down to get rid of rats. (Cf. J2102.4.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.

J2104. J2104. Moving the fireplace. When it gives too much heat numskulls decide to move it instead of putting out the fire. Type 1325*.

J2104.1. J2104.1. Cleaning the church by moving it. A cow fouls a church. Numskulls try to move the church with ropes. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 293 No. 4.

J2105. J2105. Protecting the prince's slumber. To keep croaking frogs from disturbing him, the fools shoot at the frogs all night. Type 1329*.

J2106. J2106. Man kills self to make quarrelsome wife a widow. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2107. J2107. Taming the bull by cutting off his horns. It makes him the more violent. *Wienert FFC LVI 71 (ET 360), 116 (ST 263).

J2108. J2108. Punishing the dog by feeding him. A man is bitten by a dog. On the advice of an old woman he rubs bread on the wound and gives it to the dog. All dogs will bite him if they thus get double reward. Wienert FFC LVI 85 (ET 520), 116 (ST 265); Halm Aesop No. 221.

J2112. J2112. Gray hair cured by pulling it out so that the person is bald. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 504; U.S.: Baughman.

J2112.1. J2112.1. Young wife pulls out his gray hairs; old wife his black. Soon all are gone. *Chauvin II 128 No. 134; Fb "her" IV 241b; Crane Vitry 215 No. 201; *Herbert III 16; Wienert FFC LVI 82 (ET 489), 129 (ST 372); Halm Aesop No. 56; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2113. J2113. Getting the calf's head out of the pot. A calf gets its head caught in a pot. A fool cuts off the calf's head and then breaks the pot to get it out. Clouston Noodles 89; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2113.1. J2113.1. Man strikes off donkey's head to punish it. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2114. J2114. Snakes in pond to be killed: eels also killed. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2115. J2115. Fools take fatal overdose of medicine. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2119. J2119. Remedies worse than the disease—miscellaneous.

J2119.1. J2119.1. Nose cut off to get it out of the light. Koryak, Eskimo: Jochelson JE VI 364.

J2119.1.1. J2119.1.1. Improving the wife's face by cutting off her nose. Penzer V 68f.; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 21 No. 76.

J2119.2. J2119.2. Straight path not always shortest. (Cf. J21.5.)

J2119.2.1. J2119.2.1. Taking the short-cut. Farmer takes a few feet off his journey and lifts a wheelbarrow over 22 stiles in so doing. Clouston Noodles 54; England: Baughman.

J2119.2.2. J2119.2.2. One contestant chooses straight path through stones; other circles about and wins. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2119.3. J2119.3. Noodles push parents over a rock as a favor to them. Icelandic: Boberg.

J2119.4. J2119.4. Numskulls bore hole in boat in order to make water run out. Christensen DF XLVII no. 45.

J2119.5. J2119.5. Stupid giant, seeing how fat he has become, wants to eat himself up. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2119.6. J2119.6. How to save the rice. Boy has rice in joined hands and arms around a pillar. Afraid to move lest rice be lost. Roof is removed and boy lifted over pillar. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2119.7. J2119.7. Stupid cowherds apply hot iron to temples of unconscious man to revive him. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2119.8. J2119.8. Cow tied tight with stones in order not to blow away, but is unable to do all others things too. Christensen DF XLVII 216 no. 76.

J2119.9. J2119.9. Hero beheads old woman who asks him to cure her of old age. Icelandic: Boberg.

J2120. J2120. Disregard of danger to objects (or animals).

J2121. J2121. Drying snow on the stove. Type 1272*.

J2122. J2122. Candle put in the stove to dry: melts. Type 1270.

J2123. J2123. Sunlight carried into windowless house in baskets. When this plan does not succeed, they gradually pull down the house to get light. Type 1245; *Fb "lys" II 483b; Clouston Noodles 58, 64; Christensen DF XLVII 215 No. 74, ibid. DF L 49.

J2124. J2124. Putting the fish aside for Easter. They are put in one big pool, but an eel eats them up. Clouston Noodles 34.

J2124.1. J2124.1. Numskull sends meat home through kite (bird); kite devours it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2125. J2125. Guarding chickens from the fox. Numskull ties their beaks and weights them down in the river with stones. BP III 337ff.; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 139 No. 1692.

J2126. J2126. Numskull to water roots of tree. Digs up the tree to find the roots. Von der Leyen Das Märchen 78 and Herrigs Archiv CXIV 20 n. 2.

J2126.1. J2126.1. Trees cut down to gather fruit. Penzer V 70f.

J2127. J2127. Looking for the hole. Numskull is to carry a can of oil with especial care since it has a little hole in it. In order to find the hole he turns the can about and lets all the oil run out. Penzer V 84; Von der Leyen Das Märchen 78 and Herrigs Archiv CXIV 20 n. 2; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2129. J2129. Disregard of danger to objects or animals—miscellaneous.

J2129.1. J2129.1. Fools make a boat go over a precipice. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 249.

J2129.2. J2129.2. Quarreling heirs destroy the entire property involved. Clouston Noodles 119; West Indies: Flowers 487f.

J2129.3. J2129.3. Getting all the eggs at once. A peasant kills his hen so that he can immediately get all the eggs she will lay during the next year. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 53; Scala Celi 4b No. 21.

J2129.4. J2129.4. Fool sticks needle in haywagon. He has been told to stick it in his sleeve. It is lost. Type 1696; *BP I 314; Missouri French: Carrière; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 141 No. 1703.

J2129.5. J2129.5. Old shoes patched with new. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 319 No. 18.

J2129.6. J2129.6. Keeping rain from the trunks. Numskulls take out the clothing and cover the trunks to keep rain off. Penzer V 116 n. 1.

J2129.7. J2129.7. Horse drawn across ice till skin is rubbed off. Type 1212.

J2129.8. J2129.8. Fool sows his mother's seed rice on other people's fields. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2130. J2130. Foolish disregard of personal danger.

J2131. J2131. Numskull injured. U.S.: Baughman.

J2131.0.1. J2131.0.1. Numskulls try to kill mosquitoes with bows and arrows: only injure themselves. Clouston Noodles 95.

J2131.1. J2131.1. Numskull beaten.

J2131.1.1. J2131.1.1. Numskull tries to preach while the priest is preaching: beaten. U.S.: Baughman; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 138 No. 1690.

J2131.2. J2131.2. Numskull stung.

J2131.2.1. J2131.2.1. Bees caught in sack which is opened at home. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 268.

J2131.3. J2131.3. Numskull injures his limbs. U.S.: Baughman.

J2131.3.1. J2131.3.1. Girl hacks off her heel to get shoe on. Fb "hæl" I 727; Spanish: Espinosa II Nos. 111—112, Espinosa Jr. No. 119.

J2131.3.1.1. J2131.3.1.1. Fool cuts off his arms to wear sleeveless sweater. U.S.: *Baughman.

J2131.3.2. J2131.3.2. Dupe persuaded to cut off part of his own body. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2131.3.3. J2131.3.3. Man lays piece of wood on his leg to saw it: saws leg off. U.S.: Baughman.

J2131.4. J2131.4. Numskull puts out his eyes. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J2131.4.1. J2131.4.1. Looking through the gun barrel. The numskull (stupid ogre) is shot. Types 1158, 1228.

J2131.5. J2131.5. Numskull gets his head caught. (Cf. J2136.6.)

J2131.5.1. J2131.5.1. Trickster puts on buffalo skull: gets head caught. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 297 n. 86.

J2131.5.2. J2131.5.2. Numskull licks out pot: gets it caught on his head. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 263, Coster-Wijsman 62 No. 98.

J2131.5.3. J2131.5.3. Numskull sticks his head in the branches of a tree. Type 1241; Christensen DF XLVII 192ff. no. 19.

J2131.5.4. J2131.5.4. Numskull sticks his head into the hole of a millstone. It rolls into the lake. *Type 1247.

J2131.5.5. J2131.5.5. Wolf trying to catch tongue of camel puts head in camel's mouth: killed. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2131.5.6. J2131.5.6. Jackal's head caught in pot of blue dye. Animals make him king, but detect him from his cry and turn him out. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2131.5.7. J2131.5.7. Fox trying to drown jug. Sticks his head into it and gets drowned himself. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *66; Russian: Andrejev No. *64.

J2132. J2132. Numskull dragged.

J2132.1. J2132.1. Man catches buffalo by rope and is dragged to death. Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 155 No. 1.

J2132.2. J2132.2. Numskull ties the rope to his leg as the cow grazes on the roof. The cow falls off and the man is pulled up the chimney. *Type 1408; *BP I 321.

J2132.2.1. J2132.2.1. Fool ties rope to his leg and to dog. Is dragged. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2132.2.2. J2132.2.2. Hand bound to dog's leash: person dragged. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2132.3. J2132.3. Milker ties cow's tail to himself. Bees sting the cow. Type 1849*.

J2132.3.1. J2132.3.1. Jackal ties captive crow to his tail. Crow pecks self loose and injures jackal's tail. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2132.4. J2132.4. Numskull rides on tiger's back. (Cf. J1758.1.1.) Dragged to his death (or injured). India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2132.5. J2132.5. Animal allows himself to be tied to another's tail and is dragged to death. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2132.5.1. J2132.5.1. Other animal's tail tied to tiger's (leopard's): killed when tiger flees. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2133. J2133. Numskull falls.

J2133.1. J2133.1. Camel with ass on his back dances. Falls and is killed. *Chauvin III 49 No. 1; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2133.2. J2133.2. Monkey jumps over a ravine with his sword girded on. Falls to his death. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 79.

J2133.3. J2133.3. Cat crawls to steeple and tries to fly. Falls. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 295 No. 15.

J2133.3.1. J2133.3.1. Coyote attempts to fly from a treetop: falls. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 85.

J2133.4. J2133.4. Numskull cuts off tree-limb on which he sits. *Type 1240; Köhler-Bolte I 51, 135, 486ff.; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 216f. No. 49; Chauvin II 201 No. 47; Clouston Noodles 158; Fb "træ" III 967; Christensen DF XLVII 229; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 293 No. 2; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2133.5. J2133.5. Men hang down in a chain until top man spits on his hands. They all fall. *Type 1250; Köhler-Bolte I 113; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 242 No. 124; *Bolte Schweiz. Arch. f. Vksk. XXIII (1920-21) 36ff.; Clouston Noodles 46; Christensen DF XLVII 179ff., 193 No. 7; Virginian: Parsons JAFL XXXV 302; Chinese: Chavannes II 324.

J2133.5.1. J2133.5.1. Wife carried up tree to sky in bag in husband's teeth. She asks question and he drops her when he answers. Clouston Noodles 48, 51.

J2133.5.1.1. J2133.5.1.1. Servant carrying master across stream answers question with gesture that throws master off. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2133.5.2. J2133.5.2. Numskull going to heaven holding on tail of divine elephant, looses his hold to make gesture. He and all holding on to him fall. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2133.5.3. J2133.5.3. Three men in a tree sing song and clap hands: they fall down and die. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2133.6. J2133.6. Wolves climb on top of one another to tree: lowest runs away and all fall. Type 121; *BP II 530 n. 3; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

J2133.6.1. J2133.6.1. Measuring the tower by piling up hampers. They place hampers on top of one another. The fool has them take out the two on the bottom. Spanish:

Boggs FFC XC 141 No. 1703, Espinosa III 147; Africa (Ashanti): Werner African 125.

J2133.7. J2133.7. Intruding wolf falls down chimney and kills himself. Type 123; *BP I 40.

J2133.8. J2133.8. Stargazer falls into well. Wienert FFC LVI 85 (ET 514), 107 (ST 194); Halm Aesop No. 72; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2133.9. J2133.9. Blind leading blind falls into pit. Chauvin II 157 No. 34; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J2133.10. J2133.10. Monkey jumps into water after a butterfly. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 77.

J2133.11. J2133.11. Hedgehog and crab jump from boat after turtle. They fall on floating leather. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 128.

J2133.12. J2133.12. Woman tries to climb rope of excrement and urine. (Cf. H1021.1.) Marquesas: Handy 40.

J2133.13. J2133.13. Fool dangling from tree by hands tries to clap them together: falls. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2133.14. J2133.14. Fool re-enacts the accident. Falls and injures self and others. (Cf. J2062.) India: Thompson-Balys.

J2133.14.1. J2133.14.1. How was the pigeon killed? Fool aims stone at inquirer saying, "I struck him like this." Inquirer is killed. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2134. J2134. Numskull makes himself sick (uncomfortable).

J2134.1. J2134.1. Trickster eats scratch-berries. Cause great itching. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 304 n. 109k.

J2134.2. J2134.2. Trickster eats medicines that physic him. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 303 n. 109h, (California): Gayton and Newman 83.

J2134.2.1. J2134.2.1. Numskulls eat medicine that physics them. Biscayans pour medicine into rice for broth with which to cook rice. Spanish: Childers.

J2135. J2135. Numskull starves himself.

J2135.1. J2135.1. Fasting the first month. Numskull having enough food to last him eleven out of the twelve months fasts the entire first month so as to get the ordeal over. He starves with eleven months' supply on hand. Clouston Noodles 89; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2136. J2136. Numskull brings about his own capture. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J2136.1. J2136.1. Coyote wears fox's rattle; caught in brush and injured. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 306 n 109bb.

J2136.2. J2136.2. Trickster gets caught on a fishhook. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 306 n. 109bb.

J2136.3. J2136.3. Goat eats in garden and is caught. Fox says, "If your sense were as long as your beard, you would look for exits as well as entrances." Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 33 No. 128.

J2136.4. J2136.4. Trickster pinched by shellfish (crab). B[ö]dker Exempler 281 No. 26; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Indonesia: DeVries's list Nos. 60, 62, 63; West Indies: Flowers 488.

J2136.5. J2136.5. Careless thief caught.

J2136.5.1. J2136.5.1. Thief stops to admire beautiful things before stealing them. Caught. Scala Celi 58a No. 324; Zachariae Studien zur vgl. Litg. IX 284ff.; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2136.5.1.1. J2136.5.1.1. Thief debates whether to take one thing or another. Caught. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2136.5.2. J2136.5.2. Talkative thief caught. Zachariae Kleine Schriften 179; Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 22 No. 101; Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 66; India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: Coster-Wijsman 66 No. 112.

J2136.5.3. J2136.5.3. Thief of deer cuts it up and keeps counting pieces. Rescued by wife. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2136.5.4. J2136.5.4. Numskull as thief's assistant wakens owner. Pleads successfully that he was trying to awaken the household and prevent theft. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2136.5.5. J2136.5.5. Foolish thief cooks food and awakens household. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2136.5.6. J2136.5.6. Foolish thief asks help of owner. Caught. (Cf. J2223.) India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2136.5.6.1. J2136.5.6.1. Master asked to help in the theft. The fool sent in by thieves is told to bring out the heaviest thing. As this is a grain-grinder and he cannot carry it, he wakes the master of the house to help him. Clouston Noodles 142; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2136.5.7. J2136.5.7. Thieving numskull beats drum (blows trumpet, etc.) he finds in outhouse. Caught. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2136.5.8. J2136.5.8. Thieves disposed of one at a time. They will not help each other since the fewer thieves there are the more there is to share. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2136.5.9. J2136.5.9. Thieving wolf persuaded to sing. Caught. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2136.6. J2136.6. Animal caught in animal carcass. (Cf. J2131.5.)

J2136.6.1. J2136.6.1. Greedy jackal caught in carcass of dead bullock. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2137. J2137. Death through lack of foresight.

J2137.1. J2137.1. The louse invites the flea. The flea bites the man and jumps away. The bed is searched and the louse killed. Chauvin II 89 No. 27; Spanish Exempla: Keller;

B[ö]dker Exempler 283 No. 29; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2137.2. J2137.2. Dogs of wolf color join the wolves. As soon as they have killed the other dogs the wolves then turn on the wolf-colored dogs which they have persuaded to join them. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 431.

J2137.3. J2137.3. Bee rests on water lily which closes over it at night and kills it.
*Chauvin II 89 n. 1.

J2137.4. J2137.4. Crocodile swallows water-snake, which kills him. Herbert III 44;
Hervieux IV 192 No. 18.

J2137.5. J2137.5. Sheep killed by the butcher, who they are persuaded will spare them.
Wienert FFC LVI 64 (ET 282), 118 (ST 286).

J2137.6. J2137.6. Camel and ass together captured because of ass's singing. *Chauvin III 49 No. 1; Spanish: Espinosa III Nos. 199-201, 204-5; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2137.7. J2137.7. King attempts to visit the spirit world underground and dies in a tunnel. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2143. J2143. Foolish interference in quarrel of the strong fatal to the weak.

J2143.1. J2143.1. Sparrow intervenes in quarrel between elephants: crushed to death.
India: Thompson-Balys.

J2146. J2146. Disastrous jump to retrieve lost object.

J2146.1. J2146.1. Miser jumps into a ravine to retrieve single grain. Breaks both legs.
India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2146.2. J2146.2. Man leaps into river and drowns in effort to save his treasure.
Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J2160. J2160. Other short-sighted acts.

J2161. J2161. Short-sightedness in dressing.

J2161.1. J2161.1. Jumping into the breeches. Trying to draw both legs on at once. Type 1286; Köhler-Bolte I 82; Clouston Noodles 201.

J2161.2. J2161.2. Pulling on the shirt. The shirt is sewed together at the neck. The man's head is cut off so that the shirt can be put on him. *Type 1285; *Fb "skjorte" III 269a; Clouston Noodles 209; Christensen DF L 49.

J2161.3. J2161.3. Lacing the shoes. Fool laces bedcovering to shoe. Irish myth: Cross.

J2162. J2162. Short-sighted use of fire.

J2162.1. J2162.1. Burning the temple to attain notoriety. *Crane Vitry 143 No. 27.

J2162.2. J2162.2. Fool whose house is burning puts wood on the fire. Herbert III 63;
Hervieux IV 280 No. 40.

J2162.3. J2162.3. Quenching the burning boat. People row to land and fetch water from a spring to put out the fire. Type 1330; Japanese: Ikeda.

J2163. J2163. Carrying the plow horse so as not to tramp up the field. (Cf. J2103.2.) Type 1201; *Wesselski Bebel I 138 No. 43.

J2163.1. J2163.1. Numskulls carry one another through mud and the others back in order that not all get dirty. Christensen DF XLVII No. 32.

J2163.2. J2163.2. Sedan-bearers must carry master about searching for dog since they have refused to search. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2164. J2164. Short-sightedness in rowing.

J2164.1. J2164.1. Rowers pull in opposite directions. Type 1276.

J2164.2. J2164.2. Rowing in a boat which is tied up. Type 1276.

J2165. J2165. Carrying load up hill to roll it down. Fools carry log (millstone) down hill. They realize that they might have rolled it down. They therefore carry it back up hill to roll it down. Type 1213; Clouston Noodles 59.

J2166. J2166. Short-sighted lover is slow to follow up advantage. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2167. J2167. Porridge eaten in different rooms. The porridge in one, the milk in another. Type 1263.

J2168. J2168. The slaughter of the ox. In preparation, the feet are cut off the evening before. Type 1261.

J2171. J2171. Short-sightedness in carpentry.

J2171.1. J2171.1. Short-sightedness in boat-building.

J2171.1.1. J2171.1.1. Ship built with a wooden saw. The ship has no bottom and is so narrow that nothing can get into it. Type 1274*.

J2171.1.2. J2171.1.2. The ogre tars the hero's boat, thinking to injure him. Type 1156.

J2171.1.3. J2171.1.3. Dupe makes boat of mud. It melts. (Cf. J2186.) Japanese: Ikeda; American Negro: Harris Friends 69ff. No. 9.

J2171.1.3.1. J2171.1.3.1. Attempts to make canoe of sand. (Cf. H1021.3.) Marquesas: Handy 45, 91.

J2171.1.3.2. J2171.1.3.2. Building boat of clay. Tuamotu: Beckwith Myth 267.

J2171.2. J2171.2. Short-sightedness in roofing.

J2171.2.1. J2171.2.1. Does not need roof when it is fair; cannot put it on when it rains. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 599; Wienert FFC LVI 64 (ET 269), 134 (ST 402); Halm Aesop No. 222; Japanese: Ikeda. Cf. Russian: Andrejev No. 72.

J2171.2.2. J2171.2.2. Fool roofs his house on the inside. New Britain: Dixon 123.

J2171.3. J2171.3. Builders throw away beams from the scaffolding until it all falls down. Type 1245.

J2171.4. J2171.4. The axes thrown away. The first lets his axe fall. The others throw theirs in the same place. Type 1246; Fb "hammer" IV 199a; Christensen DF XLVII 194.

J2171.5. J2171.5. Bird nest of salt melts away. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2171.6. J2171.6. Man on camel has doorway broken down so he can ride in. It does not occur to him to dismount. (Cf. J2199.3.) India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2172. J2172. Short-sightedness in caring for live-stock.

J2172.1. J2172.1. The shepherd who cried "Wolf!" too often. When the wolf really comes no one believes him. Wienert FFC LVI 84 (ET 508), 104 (ST 172); Halm Aesop No. 353; Jacobs Aesop 210 No. 43; India: *Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 489.

J2172.2. J2172.2. Shepherd shuts up the lion in the yard with the live-stock. He hopes to capture the lion, but loses all his beasts. Wienert FFC LVI 67 (ET 317), 136 (ST 414); Halm Aesop No. 250.

J2172.2.1. J2172.2.1. Wolf almost locked up in the stable by the shepherd. The dog: "What good to lock us up from the wolf when he is with us?" Wienert FFC LVI 68 (ET 327), 135 (ST 411); Halm Aesop No. 371.

J2172.2.2. J2172.2.2. Wolf locked up with the sheep. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

J2173. J2173. Short-sighted fool loses his food.

J2173.1. J2173.1. Sleeping trickster's feast stolen. Before eating his booty the numskull sleeps. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 296 n. 84.

J2173.2. J2173.2. Getting a sword to lift the cheese. A numskull sees a cheese by the side of the road and tries to lift it up with his sword, but the sword is too short. He leaves the cheese and goes away to borrow a longer sword. Meantime someone else takes the cheese. Field Pent Cuckoo 8; England: Baughman.

J2173.3. J2173.3. The bird boasts about capturing the rabbit. Meantime other birds eat the rabbit. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 172.

J2173.4. J2173.4. Deer lost through premature celebration. A fool in celebration of the capture of a deer puts his clothes on the bound deer. He throws a knife to cut the deer's throat but the knife cuts the snare and the deer runs away with the clothes. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 261.

J2173.5. J2173.5. Fool kills chickens by throwing them off a balcony against a stone. Kites carry them off. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 66 No. 1692.

J2173.6. J2173.6. Crocodile goes after the second child. He finds two children bathing in the river and carries one to his hole. He tells the child to wait while he goes for the other child. Both children escape. Africa (Benga): Nassau 82 No. 2.

J2173.7. J2173.7. Trickster travels while fish cook: they burn up. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 83.

J2173.8. J2173.8. Man saves trouble by milking cow directly into his mouth. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2173.9. J2173.9. How to remove hairs from salt. Washed with water, salt melts away. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2174. J2174. Foolish demands before death.

J2174.1. J2174.1. His last request: a red cap. A man about to be hanged keeps asking for his red cap which he has left in prison. He has no thought of his real peril. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 27.

J2174.2. J2174.2. Wholesome food for the day of hanging. A man about to be hanged is very particular about his bread lest it impair his health. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 28.

J2174.3. J2174.3. Having the head dressed before hanging. A man who has hurt his head in trying to hang himself has the head dressed by a doctor and then goes and hangs himself. Clouston Noodles 6.

J2174.4. J2174.4. Hang me right away so I can get back to work. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2175. J2175. Short-sightedness in dealing with children.

J2175.1. J2175.1. Anticipatory whipping. A schoolmaster whips his pupils to keep them from wrong-doing. He does not wait until after the deed is done. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 231 No. 499.

J2175.1.1. J2175.1.1. Priest beats wife before purchasing food since he wishes her to cook it in particular way. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2175.2. J2175.2. Scolding the drowning child instead of helping him. Wienert FFC LVI 82 (ET 486), 102 (ST 155); Halm Aesop No. 352.

J2175.3. J2175.3. Absent-minded nurse lets child down into well instead of bucket. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2175.4. J2175.4. Man lets his infant son play in river. Son drowns. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J2175.5. J2175.5. Numskull is sent to fetch children. He either smothers them during conveyance or scalds them during bathing. (Cf. J2465.4.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1677; Russian: Andrejev No. *1681 II.

J2175.6. J2175.6. Numskull kills his children trying to cure their illness. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2176. J2176. Fool lets wine run in the cellar. He (she) falls into a study (or chases a dog) while the spigot is open. *Type 1387; BP I 316, 521ff.; *Fb "tosse" III 832a, "t[ö]nde" III 935a, "[ö]" III 1175; Christensen DF L 49; Italian Basile Pentamerone I No. 4.

J2176.1. J2176.1. Fool tries to dry up spilt wine with meal. Type 1387; *BP I 522.

J2176.2. J2176.2. Drinking gruel by making hole in pot. Gruel runs out. India:

Thompson-Balys.

J2178. J2178. No room left for the feast. A peasant on the way to a feast drinks so much ditch-water that he has no room left for the feast. Herbert III 54, 82; Scala Celi 76a No. 433; Alphabet No. 245.

J2178.1. J2178.1. Master sets servant example by eating rind first: fills up and never reaches the fruit. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2181. J2181. Burning up the seal. Numskulls buy a charter from their lord. In celebration they get drunk and use the seal as a candle and forfeit their charter. Clouston Noodles 17; England: Baughman.

J2182. J2182. A fleeing fox loses an eye in the briars. Returns the next day and eats it, thinking that it tastes like chicken. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 33 No. *135B.

J2183. J2183. Disastrous hesitation.

J2183.1. J2183.1. The dog between the two castles. In castles on opposite hills guards play different tunes during meals. The dog goes toward the music in one castle but when he is about half way up the hill the music begins on the other. He keeps alternating and running up and down until the meals are over and he gets nothing. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 24; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2183.2. J2183.2. Who shall go first? Train leaves overpolite travelers. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2183.3. J2183.3. Bird overcareful about food suitable to its color is killed by eagle. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2183.4. J2183.4. Two prisoners use up their hour of grace disputing over road to take home. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2183.5. J2183.5. Princess who is too choosy finally marries an idiot. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2183.6. J2183.6. Short-sightedness in case of fire. Christensen DF XLVII 200 nos. 34-35.

J2183.6.1. J2183.6.1. Whose duty to put out fire? Officers investigate; meanwhile fire burns town. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2184. J2184. The polluted clothes. A Brahmin washes clothes to purify them. As they hang to dry, a dog walks under them and the Brahmin fears that they are polluted. By putting himself on all-fours like a dog and fastening a leaf like a dog's tail he experiments and decides that the dog must have touched the clothes. He therefore destroys them instead of rewashing them. Clouston Noodles 176.

J2185. J2185. Dearly bought disgrace. A foolish priest is pushed into the water. "I wish I had drowned; then you would all have been disgraced." *Wesselski Bebel I 181 No. 27; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2185.1. J2185.1. "If you had hanged me you would have really been in trouble." (Similar to J2185.) Nouvelles Récréations No. 44.

J2186. J2186. Trickster's false creations fail him. A trickster creates men from his excrements (or the like). They melt in the sun. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 356 n. 286.

J2187. J2187. The bear riding the horse lets his paws fall on the horse's flanks. He is caught on a tree and leaves his claws in the horse's flesh. Type 117*.

J2188. J2188. The man who wanted to be dead one day. A husband tells his wife that he has provisions for every day in the year but one. He proposes to play dead for that one day, thinking that the servants will be overcome with grief and cannot eat. After brief mourning, however, they eat more than usual. The man then thinks to frighten them by rising from the dead. One servant thinking the dead man suffering from devils kills him. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 176.

J2191. J2191. A fool releases a bear while the master is away. The bear plays havoc. The master threatens to cut off the ears of the meddler. The fool asks his dog not to tell on him. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 696.

J2192. J2192. The messenger without the message. A fool is told that he is to go to a neighboring castle the next morning. He is to take letters, but the next morning without reporting for instructions the fool goes on the journey. He is given a bag of stones to carry back. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 731; Christensen DF XLVII 201 no. 38, 204, 221; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2192.1. J2192.1. Message after a week. A fool is sent to tell his master's wife that he will not return that day for dinner. He delays the message for a week. Italian: Crane Italian Popular Tales 378.

J2193. J2193. Fool has himself buried because he stinks. Indonesian: DeVries's list No. 271, Coster-Wijsman 53 No. 78.

J2194. J2194. Raven steals the robes of Red Willow Men and finds them useless. N. A. Indian (Tahltan): Teit JAFL XXXII 223 No. 1 (32); Boas RBAE XXXI 722.

J2195. J2195. People pelt each other with food. Koryak: *Jochelson JE VI 375; Penzer V 72f.

J2196. J2196. Grain shot down with guns. People unacquainted with the sickle. *Type 1202; *BP II 72 n. 1.

J2197. J2197. Carpe diem. An abbot is planning to build a palace. The fool: "Why go to all that trouble? Just enjoy yourself with wine, women, and song." Wesselski Bebel I 179 No. 22.

J2198. J2198. Bewailing a calamity that has not occurred. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2199. J2199. Absurd shortsightedness—miscellaneous.

J2199.1. J2199.1. Alarm sounded foolishly.

J2199.1.1. J2199.1.1. Fool rings bell to announce that he has won at chess. No one comes when he rings to save his home from fire. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2199.1.2. J2199.1.2. Woman to sound bell for help in childbirth persuaded to sound false alarms: not heeded when help is needed. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2199.2. J2199.2. Persons build a wheelbarrow too large to come out of shed. England: *Baughman.

J2199.3. J2199.3. Nine men try to lift bull over the fence. One gets the idea of taking it through the gate. (Cf. J2171.6.) England: *Baughman.

J2199.4. J2199.4. Short-sighted economy.

J2199.4.1. J2199.4.1. Numskull is glad to hurt his feet instead of his shoes. Christensen DF XLVII no. 58.

J2200-J2259.

J2200-J2259. Absurd lack of logic.

J2200. J2200. Absurd lack of logic—general. Missouri French: Carrière.

J2210. J2210. Logical absurdity based upon certain false assumptions.

J2211. J2211. Differences in animal nature overlooked. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2211.1. J2211.1. Frogs reprove ass for lamenting when he falls into morass. "What would you do if you had to live here always?" Wienert FFC LVI 56 (ET 163), 90 (ST 30); Halm Aesop No. 327.

J2211.2. J2211.2. Why the sow was muddy. A magpie is punished by his master, who throws him into a mud puddle. The magpie sees a muddy sow. He says, "You also must have had a quarrel with your master." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 669; U.S.: Baughman.

J2211.3. J2211.3. The murderous master. Dogs flee from their master because in time of famine he has killed his cattle. If he kills the cattle, he will surely kill the dogs. Wienert FFC LVI 73 (ET 377), 106 (ST 189); Halm Aesop No. 95.

J2211.4. J2211.4. Ass brays on hearing a conch shell. Owner thinks he must have been a saint in a former life. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2212. J2212. Effects of age and size absurdly applied.

J2212.1. J2212.1. Two fifteen-year old slaves ordered: fool brings one thirty years old. Clouston Noodles 4.

J2212.1.1. J2212.1.1. Priest to have maid at least fifty years old: gets one aged twenty and one aged thirty. Nouvelles Récréations No. 34; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2212.2. J2212.2. Burial in old grave to deceive angel. Fool thinks that the angel who comes to question him will pass him by since he has apparently been dead a long time. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 210 No. 22.

J2212.3. J2212.3. Wooden anchor would hold if it were only large, thinks the fool. Type 1277.

J2212.4. J2212.4. The reef is old, the ship new. They think the vessel will endure the shocks better than the reef. Type 1277*.

J2212.5. J2212.5. Swift when only a calf. A numskull who rides an ox to a tournament is ridiculed. He says, "He is swifter than a horse. You should have seen him run when he was only a calf." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 228 No. 73.

J2212.6. J2212.6. The Zodiac grows up: the Kid becomes the Goat. A fool who was born under the sign of the Kid declares that he was born under the Goat. "Hasn't it had time in these fifty years to become a goat?" Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 235 No. 105.

J2212.7. J2212.7. Boat expected to grow into ship. Christensen DF XLVII 189 No. 15.

J2212.8. J2212.8. Peasant no longer wants a horse since the new born foal is so heavy to carry. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2212.9. J2212.9. Our children know local road; odd that grown stranger does not. French: Irwin Verville No. 210.

J2213. J2213. Illogical use of numbers.

J2213.1. J2213.1. Each of two persons wants to sleep in the middle. (Sometimes solved by placing an object on one side of the bed.) Type 1289; Africa (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 416 No. 15.

J2213.2. J2213.2. A profitable fight: three for one! A priest boasts of his profitable fight with the peasants, where he has received three blows for every one given. *Wesselski Bebel I 173 No. 11.

J2213.3. J2213.3. The seventh cake satisfies. Fool regrets that he had not eaten number seven first since that was the one that brought satisfaction. *Von der Leyen Das Märchen 78 and Herrigs Archiv CXIV 20 n. 2; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2213.4. J2213.4. If the horse can pull one load he can pull two. *Type 1242; Christensen DF XLVII 224 No. 86.

J2213.5. J2213.5. Twenty better than ten. A numskull is asked how many daily prayers (Moslem) there are. "Twenty."—"There are only four."—"I said that there are twenty; that is even better." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 261 No. 222.

J2213.5.1. J2213.5.1. More than twenty commandments. Numskull asked the number of commandments replies that there are twenty. He explains to another that he knows there must be more than twenty because the minister would not accept his answer. Scotland: Baughman.

J2213.6. J2213.6. Selling his half of the house. A man owns half a house. He wants to sell his half so as to get money to buy the other half and thus have a whole house. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 282 No. 336.

J2213.7. J2213.7. Dentist duped to pull out two teeth for one because of the expensiveness. Christensen DF XLVII 205.

J2213.8. J2213.8. Man prefers small oysters, since he will get more to the hundred. England: Baughman.

J2213.9. J2213.9. Numskull finds that one feather makes a hard pillow, thinks a sackful would be unbearable. Canada: Baughman.

J2214. J2214. Absurd generalization from a particular incident. U.S., England:
*Baughman.

J2214.1. J2214.1. Peas will burn. Fool warns those who ride through a field of peas.
"You will burn your horses' feet. I burned my mouth with hot peas the other day."
Clouston Noodles 77; French: Irwin Verville No. 83.

J2214.2. J2214.2. Conclusion: youth and age are alike. Reason: he tried in vain as a youth to lift a certain stone; he has also tried in vain as an old man. Wesselski Hodscha
Nasreddin I 265 No. 240.

J2214.3. J2214.3. Waiting at the well for the thief. A thief has stolen a salted cheese.
Since one always goes to the well after eating salted cheese, the thief will also come.
*Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 243 No. 128.

J2214.3.1. J2214.3.1. Waiting in the graveyard for the thief. He must eventually come here. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 243 No. 128.

J2214.3.2. J2214.3.2. Waiting for the thief to return for the bolster. After the cover is stolen, the numskulls conclude that the thief will certainly return for the bolster. Clouston
Noodles 14.

J2214.3.3. J2214.3.3. Waiting for the thieves to return for invoice of goods stolen.
India: Thompson-Balys.

J2214.4. J2214.4. Human milk as best diet (for baby). Fool therefore will take nothing but milk from his wife and starves the baby. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2214.5. J2214.5. Man is servant of the animals (for he supplies feed for them). Fish so reason. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2214.6. J2214.6. Men must have been calves once (for they are fond of milk). Fish so reason. (Cf. B233.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.

J2214.7. J2214.7. Oil is cheap (or spilling oil is good luck). Man hearing this breaks oil vessels. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2214.8. J2214.8. Fool carries his wife to the remedy instead of the opposite. India:
Thompson-Balys.

J2214.9. J2214.9. Dipping into cold water to cure fever, since hot iron is so cooled.
India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2214.10. J2214.10. Starving colt fierce from hunger, but fool refuses to feed it lest it become fiercer. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2214.11. J2214.11. England must be full of widows. So concludes widow's daughter, who makes her living by spinning, when she sees so much warm goods from England.
India: Thompson-Balys.

J2214.12. J2214.12. False judgment of distance in clear atmosphere of mountain area.
Canada: Baughman.

J2214.12.1. J2214.12.1. Newcomer undresses to swim a five-foot stream. He has walked all morning toward a mountain that seems only five miles away, but which is actually sixty miles from his starting point. Canada, U.S.: *Baughman.

J2215. J2215. Absurd reasoning about God.

J2215.1. J2215.1. God's wastefulness. A man is robbed and later the same day is given much money. He complains to God, "What was the use of taking from me what you were going to give back to me after stealing from another?" Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 212 No. 34.

J2215.2. J2215.2. The servant of God beaten. A man who says that he is the servant of so and so is treated with great consideration. His companion, who says that he is a servant of God is put to work. He cannot understand why God's servant should not be more important than the other. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 249 No. 162.

J2215.3. J2215.3. Man honored above God: the dead hen. A fool finds a dead hen and cooks it and serves it for dinner. When reproached he says "How should it be unclean when God has killed it instead of men?" Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 270 No. 273.

J2215.4. J2215.4. Fool waits for God to provide. Nearly starves. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2215.4.1. J2215.4.1. God blamed for scarcity of food. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2215.5. J2215.5. God blamed for heavy rain. Since he is an old man he should have known that more rain was unwelcome. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2215.6. J2215.6. God blamed for letting pumpkin vines produce larger fruit than nut trees. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2216. J2216. Poor man thinks idol in temple is poorer than he since it is naked. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2217. J2217. Many times the superlative.

J2217.1. J2217.1. Man says: "That's the best horse in all England, but I have one in my stable worth ten of him. (Cf. J1743.1.) England: Baughman.

J2217.2. J2217.2. Man is describing lakes. "One is bottomless; the other is deeper than that." England: Baughman.

J2220. J2220. Other logical absurdities.

J2221. J2221. How does he know? A rustic refuses to believe reports about hell from a priest who has not been there. Herbert III 82.

J2222. J2222. The inconvenience of having a father: The numskull to his father: "If you had never been born I would get my grandfather's estate." Clouston Noodles 4.

J2223. J2223. The thief as discoverer. The fool lies still as the thief enters the house, hoping that the thief may find something so that he can take it back from the thief. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 231 No. 83, Mönchslatein 170 No. 134.

J2223.1. J2223.1. Robbed man blames thief for not warning him so that he could have witnesses to the theft. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2224. J2224. Taking the seed out at night. Numskull plants seed in daytime and takes it out at night. "Man must guard his treasures" (or "Growing in the daytime is enough"). Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 245 No. 139.

J2225. J2225. Three reasons for not giving alms. (1) Student has only one eye: Aristotle says to beware of those whom nature has marked. (2) Student comes from Bremen: no one of consequence comes from there. (3) His name is Nicholas: no one with that name can succeed. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 611; cf. Type 1661.

J2226. J2226. Learn to swim before going into the water. Type 1293; Russian: Andrejev No. 1292*.

J2227. J2227. Let them eat cake. The queen has been told that the peasants have no bread. Type 1446*; Bolte Montanus 601 No. 48.

J2227.1. J2227.1. King ignorant of famine says the people can live on pulse (sugar) and rice. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2228. J2228. Loss of eating contest because of weak legs. The sheep thinks that that is the reason for loss of the contest. Type 203*; Russian: Andrejev No. 203.

J2231. J2231. Why can't we have holidays the year round? *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 222 No. 56.

J2232. J2232. Imitation and the real pig. Imitator of the pig's cries applauded. Fool brings real pig but fails. Wienert FFC LVI 84 (ET 510), 119 (ST 291); Jacobs Aesop 220 No. 80.

J2233. J2233. Logically absurd defenses. Thief brought to judgment for breaking into house blames mason for building poor house. Mason blames maker of mortar, who blames potter, who blames pretty woman who diverted his attention. She blames goldsmith who caused her to go for her earrings. Goldsmith has no one to blame but he is too old to make a good execution. Hence a shopkeeper across the way is convicted. Clouston Noodles 87; *Wesselski Hessische Blätter f. Vksk. XXXII 23; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2233.1. J2233.1. Innocent man executed because his neck fits the noose (or the like). India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2233.1.1. J2233.1.1. Men hang old bedridden weaver instead of young, valuable member of colony after the young man has accidentally killed an Indian. The Indian tribe demands punishment. U.S.: Baughman.

J2234. J2234. "Is that you or your brother?" Clouston Noodles 12; Nouvelles Récréations No. 71; Christensen DF XLVII 224 No. 87; England, Scotland: Baughman.

J2235. J2235. Would have shot himself. Fool shoots full of holes a garment left out at night to dry. "It is a good thing I did not have it on or I would have shot myself." Clouston Noodles 90; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 230 No. 79.

J2236. J2236. Only fault with the house. The latrine is too small for the dining room table to go in. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 282 No. 334.

J2237. J2237. The bathroom in the minaret. The fool can sing in the small bathroom but cannot be heard from the minaret. He wants a bathroom built on the minaret so that his voice will carry. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 206 No. 4.

J2238. J2238. Book gives wisdom. A man believes himself wise because he has a book which he uses but does not understand. Chauvin II 82 No. 3; B[ö]dker Exempler 273 No. 3; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J2241. J2241. The doctor no longer needed. As the fool starts for the doctor the wife changes her mind. He continues to the doctor so as to tell him about it and to say that now he need not come. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 233 No. 456.

J2241.1. J2241.1. Useless trip to find a name the wife already knew. Fool goes to astrologer for child's name, but forgets it on way home. Later wife happens to use the word and reminds him. But he cannot see the use of the trip when she already knew this word. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2241.2. J2241.2. Servant sent to doctor finds trip futile. Doctor may not be in and, if he is there, he may not give the medicine. He may give the medicine but it may not have any effect; or, if it does have any, he has to die someday anyway and the medicine will not prevent him from dying. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2242. J2242. Carrying his own message. A man who is away from home writes a letter to his wife but can find no messenger. He delivers the letter himself and then goes on back to where he has been. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 233 No. 456.

J2242.1. J2242.1. Scribe cannot write a letter because he has bad leg. Must carry letter in person since no one else can read it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2242.2. J2242.2. Fool writes letter very slowly: recipient cannot read fast. U.S.: *Baughman.

J2243. J2243. Fool sleeps so as to avoid idleness. Clouston Noodles 78.

J2244. J2244. Climb down as you climb up. A peasant falls out of a tree. A neighbor advises him not to climb trees. Another suggests that he always climb down a tree with the same skill and rapidity that he climbed up. Bolte Frey 222 No. 18; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2245. J2245. Every fruit tasted. Fool tastes every piece of fruit before giving it to his master. Penzer V 94; Chauvin VII 115.

J2254. J2254. Fools reprove each other for speaking at prayers. They speak while doing so. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2255. J2255. Preliminary drawing of swords. Travelers say they will not have time to do so when attacked. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2258. J2258. Boy cannot read a book written with smaller letters than those he was reading at school. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2260-J2299.

J2260-J2299. Absurd scientific theories.

J2260. J2260. Absurd scientific theories—general.

J2270. J2270. Absurd astronomical theories.

J2271. J2271. Absurd theories concerning the moon.

J2271.1. J2271.1. The local moon. Numskull greets old moon as if it were new. "I haven't seen it before, for I have just come to the city." (Each town thought to have a different moon.) *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 218 No. 52; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2271.2. J2271.2. What becomes of the old moon?

J2271.2.1. J2271.2.1. Lightning made from the old moon. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 236 No. 109.

J2271.2.2. J2271.2.2. Stars made from the old moon. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 208 No. 10.

J2271.3. J2271.3. Numskulls try to throw the moon over a cliff. England: *Baughman.

J2271.4. J2271.4. Numskulls attempt to capture moon and bring it home in a sledge. They get to the top of the hill a few minutes too late to reach it. England, Scotland: *Baughman.

J2272. J2272. Absurd theories concerning the sun.

J2272.1. J2272.1. Chanticleer believes that his crowing makes the sun rise. Disappointed when it rises without his aid. *Vossische Zeitung 17. Sept. 1910; India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian (Hopi): Voth FM VIII 176 No. 55.

J2272.2. J2272.2. Is today's sun the same as yesterday's? India: Thompson-Balys.

J2272.3. J2272.3. Fools believe sun sleeps at certain woman's house. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2273. J2273. Absurd theories concerning the sky.

J2273.1. J2273.1. Bird thinks that the sky will fall if he does not support it. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 606; *Chauvin II 112 n. 2; Liebrecht *Zur Volkskunde 102; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J2274. J2274. Absurd theories about the earth.

J2274.1. J2274.1. Why everyone doesn't live in the same place. The earth would become unbalanced. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 245 No. 140.

J2274.2. J2274.2. Same air at home as abroad. Because the stars are the same. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 206 Nos. 3, 242.

J2274.3. J2274.3. Same climate at home and abroad. Because his members look the same in the two places. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 206 Nos. 3, 242.

J2275. J2275. Absurd theories about the stars.

J2275.1. J2275.1. Falling star supposed to have been shot down by astronomer. Christensen DF XLVII No. 55.

J2276. J2276. Absurd theories concerning time.

J2276.1. J2276.1. Dinner time comes soon in mountains because of rare atmosphere. U.S.: Baughman.

J2277. J2277. Absurd theories about clouds.

J2277.1. J2277.1. Clouds supposed to come from smoke. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2280. J2280. Other absurd scientific theories. Irish myth: *Cross.

J2281. J2281. How the fishes got there. Guests of host who waters his wine put little fishes into the wine jug. "Now I confess that I put water into the wine; otherwise the fishes could not be there." *Wesselski Bebel II 109 No. 32.

J2282. J2282. A drunkard cannot drown. A drunken man falls overboard but the skipper refuses to pick him up. "A man who is soaked in wine cannot drown. No part of his body will absorb water." Wesselski Bebel II 143 No. 134.

J2283. J2283. The four-footed bishop. A fool finding a nun in bed with a bishop and not seeing her face concludes that the bishop must have four feet and so announces it. Bolte Frey 247 No. 86; Nouvelles Récréations No. 2; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2284. J2284. What killed the wolf. Peasants find a dead wolf and debate what killed it. A learned man shows that it froze internally from eating cold flesh. Bolte Frey 236 No. 59.

J2285. J2285. Foolish interpretation of omens. Jewish: Neuman.

J2285.1. J2285.1. Fool believing in omens refuses to prepare for death. Bird has chirped five times, which he thinks guarantees him five more years to live. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 289.

J2287. J2287. Belief that island may be towed by ships to new location. Irish myth: Cross.

J2300—J2349.

J2300—J2349. Gullible fools.

J2300. J2300. Gullible fools.

J2301. J2301. Gullible husbands. (Cf. J2311.0.1., J2311.2, J2311.7, J2312, J2313, J2314, J2315, J2316, J2324, J2331.) *Types 1313, 1406; *Liebrecht Zur Volkskunde 124; Bédier Fabliaux 265ff., 475; *Crane Vitry 227 No. 231; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 225 No. 66; *BP III 337; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 866; B[ö]dker Exempler 280, 296 Nos. 24, 59; Christensen DF XLVII 59; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2301.1. J2301.1. Husband takes back faithless wife on her oath to be faithful. Heptameron No. 61.

J2301.2. J2301.2. His wife has become a widow. Numskull buys cloth used only by widows and is therefore convinced. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2301.3. J2301.3. Gullible husband removes from wife's garment dust gathered while she lies with another man. Irish myth: Cross.

J2302. J2302. Gullible wives.

J2303. J2303. Gullible mother.

J2310. J2310. Nature of gullibility.

J2311. J2311. Person made to believe that he is dead. *Penzer IX 156; Christensen DF XLVII 228 No. 94.

J2311.0.1. J2311.0.1. Wife makes her husband believe that he is dead. (Cf. J2301.) *Type 1406; Bédier Fabliaux 475; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 866; *Clouston Noodles 166; Christensen DF L 59; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2311.1. J2311.1. Numskull is told that he is to die when his horse breaks wind three times. When this happens he lies down for dead. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 216f. No. 49; *Fb "æsel"; Köhler-Bolte I 135, 486, 505.

J2311.1.1. J2311.1.1. Man believes he is to die when he breaks wind. Lies down for dead. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2311.1.2. J2311.1.2. Numskull is told that he will die when his mouth bleeds. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2311.1.3. J2311.1.3. Man believes, he will die when water falls on his head. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2311.1.3.1. J2311.1.3.1. Numskull believes he is dead when pumpkin falls on his head. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2311.1.4. J2311.1.4. Man believes he will die when he gets a scarlet thread on his coat. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2311.1.5. J2311.1.5. Fool, told yellowing soles of his feet sure sign he is going to die, digs his grave and lies in it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2311.2. J2311.2. The "poisoned" pot. The wife tells the husband that a certain pot of preserves is poison. He decides to kill himself and eats the preserves. He believes that he is poisoned and lies down for dead. *Type 1313; *BP III 337; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 237 No. 522; *Wesselski Morlini 49; *Bolte Frey 214; *Clouston Noodles 122; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 4.

J2311.3. J2311.3. Sham revenant. A man takes refuge from robbers in an open grave. Robbers see him and ask what he is doing. "It is my grave. I went out to get a breath of air." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 206 No. 6.

J2311.4. J2311.4. The dead man speaks up. A numskull who has lain down thinking he is dead is carried off in a bier. The carriers lose their way. He speaks up, "I always went that way when I was alive." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 216f. No. 49; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys. Cf. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 860.

J2311.5. J2311.5. The dead man in spite of himself. Neighbors who have heard of the numskull's death insist on the funeral although he is alive and well. He is persuaded and is carried on a bier. They meet a busy man whom they try to persuade to join them. He pleads business. The "dead" man speaks: "It's no use, friend, to try to dissuade them."

*Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 239 No. 121; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2311.5.1. J2311.5.1. Supposed dead man on bier threatens his bearers. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2311.6. J2311.6. Sham-dead man punished. A numskull lies in an old grave to see the Day of Judgment. He hears bells and thinks that the Last Day has come. He is beaten by mule-drivers when he tells them that he is a dead man. He returns home and tells his wife that he returns from the dead. "How goes it in heaven?" "For one thing, avoid mule-drivers." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 216 No. 46.

J2311.7. J2311.7. Cold hands and feet for the dead man. His wife has told him that one tells a dead person by his cold hands and feet. He freezes his feet and hands and lies down for dead. Wolves eat his ass. "Lucky for you that his master is dead!" *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 225 No. 66; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2311.8. J2311.8. Parents made to believe that they are dead and are married to each other again. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 270, Coster-Wijsman 73 No. 11.

J2311.9. J2311.9. Foolish peasants carry couple to burial; when "corpses" speak they flee in terror. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2311.10. J2311.10. Drunken man insists that he be beheaded. Is struck with the flat of his sword. He thinks he is dead. Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles No. 6; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2311.11. J2311.11. Idiot tells his mother he has been dead twelve years. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2311.12. J2311.12. Supposed dead man roused with whip. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2312. J2312. Naked person made to believe that he is clothed. *Types 1406, 1620; *Clouston Noodles 163; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 866; H. C. Andersen "Kejserens ny Klæder"; Christensen DF L 64; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2314. J2314. Layman made to believe that he is a monk. *Type 1406; *Bédier Fabliaux 265, 468; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 866; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2315. J2315. Wife persuades husband that she has returned immediately. She goes to a neighbor's to cook a fish. She is gone a week. She gets a new fish and cooks it and returns home with the hot fish. She convinces her husband of her short absence. Type 1406; Bédier Fabliaux 265, 458.

J2315.1. J2315.1. Wife leaves home, offers self to lover. Returning persuades husband that she has not been away. Irish myth: Cross; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2315.2. J2315.2. Gullible husband made to believe he has cut off his wife's nose. She, in another house, has had her nose cut off by mistake. She makes him believe he has done it by making him angry enough to throw a razor at her. When he throws the razor she claims it has cut off her nose. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J2316. J2316. Husband made to believe that his house has moved during his absence.

The wife and her confederates transform the house into an inn with tables, signs, drinkers, etc. The husband cannot find his house. *Type 1406; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 274 No. 298; Bédier Fabliaux 266; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2316.1. J2316.1. Man cannot recognize his own house which has been turned into a mansion by emperor. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2317. J2317. Well man made to believe that he is sick. *Chauvin VI 138 No. 291; Clouston Noodles 161; Clouston Tales II 30ff.; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 869.

J2317.1. J2317.1. Man thinks that he has diabetes. Rascals have sewed his trouser leg till it is too tight. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 680.

J2318. J2318. Numskull convinced that he is a thief. An article is stolen. Declared that whoever does not eat all his cheese is the thief. A stone is put in the numskull's cheese so that he cannot eat it all. He admits the theft. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 679.

J2321. J2321. Man made to believe that he is pregnant (has borne child). Chauvin V 185 No. 107; Penzer V 69; von der Hagen Gesamtabenteuer II *ix, 49 No. 24; Boccaccio Decameron IX No. 3 (Lee 277); Christensen DF XLVII, DF L 78; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; U.S.: Baughman.

J2321.1. J2321.1. Parson made to believe that he will bear a calf. In having his urine examined by a doctor, a cow's is substituted by mistake. (Or he dreams that he has borne a calf.) When a calf comes into the house he thinks that he has borne it. (Cf. J1734.1, K1955.2.) *Type 1739; *BP I 317 n. 1; *Fb "kalv"; *Wesselski Bebel I 232 No. 148.

J2321.2. J2321.2. Man thinks he has given birth to a child by letting wind. Italian: Basile Pentamerone II No. 3; Christensen DF XLVII 228 No. 93.

J2321.3. J2321.3. Husband makes wife and mother-in-law believe he will bear a sheep. His wife was pregnant when he married her. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

J2322. J2322. Drunken man made to believe that he has been to heaven and hell. He is dressed up as a rich lord and given rich food and drink. When put back into his own clothes he thinks that he has been to heaven. *Type 1531; Köhler-Bolte I 68; Wesselski Archiv Orientalní I (1929) 80 f.; Shakespeare Induction to Taming of the Shrew; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2323. J2323. Numskull believes that he is married to a man. Two men's hands joined in fun with words "I marry you." Fool thinks that he must get a bishop to annul the marriage. Wesselski Bebel II 142 No. 130.

J2324. J2324. Wife persuades her husband to have a good tooth pulled. Type 1406; Bédier Fabliaux 266ff.; Herbert III 20; *Crane Vitry 238 No. 248; Boccaccio Decameron VII No. 9 (Lee 231); Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2325. J2325. Husband made to believe that yarn has changed to tow through his carelessness. Thus his lazy wife is relieved from spinning. Type 1405; BP III 44.

J2325.1. J2325.1. Fool believes gold in bag turns to ashes because of child's urinating on it. Actually bag contained only ashes. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2326. J2326. The student from paradise. A student tells a woman that he comes from Paris. She understands him to say from paradise and gives him money and goods to take to her husband. *Type 1540; Aarne FFC XXII 3—109; *Clouston Noodles 204—217 passim; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 463; *Wesselski Bebel I 189 No. 50; Christensen DF L 35; Indonesia: Coster-Wijsman 73 No. IV.

J2326.1. J2326.1. Foolish woman gives swindler money for her parents in heaven.
India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2326.2. J2326.2. Dream explained as a dead father's demand for horses. Dupe gives them to trickster. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2326.3. J2326.3. Emperor wants to travel to paradise. Blindfolded and put on an ass. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2326.4. J2326.4. Alleged messenger from relatives in distress given goods to deliver.
India: Thompson-Balys.

J2327. J2327. Man who asks for good weather given a box full of hornets. He thinks that it is filled with the weather. Köhler-Bolte I 324.

J2328. J2328. The moving church tower. To see whether the church is moving someone lays down his coat in front of it. It is stolen. They think that the church has passed over it. Type 1326; Köhler-Bolte I 324; Christensen DF L 218 No. 79.

J2331. J2331. Numskull with unimportant office boasts of it.

J2331.1. J2331.1. Proud sheriff has only nine farmers in his jurisdiction. *Wesselski Bebel I 139 No. 46.

J2331.2. J2331.2. Fool appointed to fictitious office boasts of it. "Administrador de la yesca." Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 138 No. 1689A*; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2332. J2332. Fool locked in dark room made to believe that it is continuous night.
Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 137 No. 1684; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2333. J2333. The sledges turned in the direction of the journey. At night turned around by a joker. Type 1275.

J2334. J2334. Master persuaded to buy big fish since small ones creep out of all parts of his body. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 699.

J2335. J2335. The stag with iron shoes. Hunters shoot a stag and hide it. Another who sees puts a dead ass in the bag instead. When the bag is opened, one cries, "Oh Jesus, we have shot a stag with iron shoes!" Köhler-Bolte I 325.

J2336. J2336. Jewess makes parents believe that she is to give birth to the Messiah. She bears a girl. *Wesselski Mönchslatein 65 No. 53; *Wesselski Bebel I 213 No. 104; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1864; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2337. J2337. Dupe persuaded that he is invisible. Boccaccio Decameron VIII No. 3 (Lee 254); Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2338. J2338. Adulteress makes husband believe that the birth of her mulatto child has been due to suggestion. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2341. J2341. Near-sighted man persuaded by doctor that he can see. Nouvelles

Récréations No. 28.

J2342. J2342. Husband refuses to believe in wife's infidelity.

J2342.1. J2342.1. Husband refuses to believe that his wife is unfaithful, even when she is caught in the act. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2342.2. J2342.2. Husband away three years accepts children born in his absence as his own. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2342.2.1. J2342.2.1. Woman gives birth to child fourteen months after husband's departure. The latter is made to believe it is legitimate. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2342.2.2. J2342.2.2. Cuckolded "as per instructions." Woman tells husband that she has become pregnant during his absence according to his own instructions. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2342.3. J2342.3. She knows best: woman denies accusation of adultery. Husband dismisses the truthful accusers saying that she knows her shortcomings better than anyone else, and she denies it. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2342.4. J2342.4. Husband praises wife's fidelity. Rascal tests it and finds it lacking. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2342.5. J2342.5. Only husband remains ignorant about his wife's infidelity. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2345. J2345. Fool kissed in sleep. Dreams he is being kissed by fairy. Is really a pig. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2346. J2346. Fool's errand. An apprentice, or newcomer or ignorant person, etc., is sent for absurd or misleading or nonexistent object or on a ridiculous quest. Canada, England, U.S.: *Baughman.

J2347. J2347. Occupational tricks on new employees. U.S.: *Baughman.

J2348. J2348. Dupe is persuaded that money will grow if he buries it. England: *Baughman.

J2349. J2349. Nature of gullibility—miscellaneous.

J2349.1. J2349.1. Dupe is made to believe horse will fly. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2349.2. J2349.2. Wife makes husband believe that her paramour is Death. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2349.3. J2349.3. Credulous king reads about ocean of milk and its properties. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2349.4. J2349.4. The woman who asked for news from home. Gets many impossible answers, which she believes. E.g., "The cock has become sexton."—"Yes, that is why he sang so well in the morning." (First edition X941.) *Type 1931.

J2350—J2369.

J2350—J2369. Talkative fools.

J2351. J2351. Animal betrays himself to his enemies by talking.

J2351.1. J2351.1. Fox holds conversation with his members, attracts attention, and is caught. He scolds in turn his feet, eyes, ears, and tail. In his excitement he sticks out his tail from his hiding place. *Type 154; Krohn Mann und Fuchs 11; *BP I 518 n. 1; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 33 No. *135C.

J2351.2. J2351.2. Hidden wolf gives himself away by talking. Cape Verde Islands: *Parsons MAFLS XV (I) *7, 13.

J2351.3. J2351.3. Dupe loses booty through singing. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 59.

J2351.4. J2351.4. Wolf (bear) boasts of having eaten horses. When the horse strikes sparks with his hoofs the lion is frightened and picks up the boastful wolf to show him the horse. He squeezes the wolf to death. Type 118; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 28.

J2352. J2352. Talkative man betrays his companion. When his faults are pointed out he maintains that he is better than his companion, who is immediately investigated.

J2352.1. J2352.1. His brother cannot pray either. One brother receives the sacrament; the other is refused it because he cannot pray. He replies that his brother cannot pray either and thus deprives him also of the sacrament. Wesselski Bebel II 107 No. 22.

J2353. J2353. The wife multiplies the secret. To prove that a woman cannot keep a secret the man tells his wife that a crow has flown out of his belly (or that he has laid an egg). She tells her neighbor that two crows have flown. Soon he hears from his neighbors that there were fifty crows. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 395; Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 244 No. 542; Chauvin VIII 168, 197; Spanish: Espinosa II Nos. 68—69; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Jewish: Gaster Exempla 196 No. 56; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2353.1. J2353.1. Foolish boasts get man into trouble. Man boasts to boss that his brother can do twice the work he does. The boss hires him. The two brothers tell him their father can do as much work in a day as the boys can do in a week. The boss fires them, tells them to send their father to work for him. (Cf. H915, H916, N455.4.) U.S.: *Baughman.

J2355. J2355. Numskull talks about his secret instructions and thus allows himself to be cheated. Told not to serve a man with a red beard or to keep sausage for the long winter, etc. *Type 1541; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 53 No. 400*B.

J2355.1. J2355.1. Fool loses magic objects by talking about them. *Type 563; Aarne JSFO XXVII 1-96; BP I 349ff.; Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 1.

J2355.2. J2355.2. Boy talks about his secret instructions and brings his father's theft to light. He is to avoid his companions lest they smell what he has been eating. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2356. J2356. Fool's talking causes himself and companions to be robbed. Thieves stumble over him as he lies on the ground. "What is this, a log?" The fool: "Does a log have five annas in its pocket?" When they have robbed him he says, "Ask the merchant in the tree if my money is good." They rob the merchant. Clouston Noodles 100.

J2357. J2357. Tortoise speaks and loses his hold on the stick. He is being carried through the air by a bird. *Penzer V 55 n. 3; *Chauvin II 90 No. 31; B[ö]dker Exempler 285 No. 33; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Japanese: Ikeda.

J2358. J2358. Young heir too frank in celebrating his father's death. He says to the mourners, "When your fathers die, I too will come and lament their departure." They brand him as a fool. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 33.

J2362. J2362. Talkative animals incense master. He gives them twice-threshed straw to eat as punishment. Type 206.

J2363. J2363. Numskull amuses with his discursive nonsense. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2364. J2364. Incognito mistress breaks off relations when she overhears the lover discussing the adventure. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2365. J2365. Fool discloses woman's adultery; lover kills him. Irish myth: *Cross; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2366. J2366. Warrior reveals camping place. Wishes his enemies to know that he is not afraid. Enemies go there before him. Irish myth: Cross.

J2367. J2367. Fool points out hiding place to evil spirits. Banks Islands: Beckwith Myth 442.

J2370-J2399.

J2370-J2399. Inquisitive fools.

J2370. J2370. Inquisitive fool.

J2370.1. J2370.1. Children ask parents too difficult questions. Get no answers. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2371. J2371. Absurd scientific speculations.

J2371.1. J2371.1. Scientific query: why does not the sea get larger when it rains in it and nothing flows out? Wesselski Arlotto I 213f. No. 54.

J2371.2. J2371.2. Scientific query: why does the sea stink when it is full of salt? Wesselski Arlotto I 213f. No. 54.

J2371.3. J2371.3. Scientific query: why don't rats stick their eyes out in the straw? Wesselski Arlotto I 213f. No. 54.

J2371.4. J2371.4. Scientific query: why don't the poor, being in the majority, kill off the rich? Wesselski Arlotto I 213f. No. 54.

J2372. J2372. The judge wants to know how the theft was committed. The witness tells. The judge: "You are wonderful; I have tried it thirty times and succeeded only once." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 266 No. 248.

J2373. J2373. The tailless and earless ass. Just lain down to sleep, a man is awakened by a neighbor announcing that his she-ass has borne a young one without ears or tail. The man lies awake all night wondering how the ass will keep the harness on. Wesselski

Hodscha Nasreddin I 259 No. 207.

J2374. J2374. How the first man killed himself. The second fool imitates the first who leaps from a palm tree by means of a looped rope. The first kills himself. The second wants to see just how it happened and kills himself too. Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 156 No. 2.

J2400. Foolish imitation.

J2375. J2375. Curiosity satisfied: riding the ox's horns. As his ox, who has enormous horns, is asleep, the fool gets on the horns. The ox wakes and throws him off. When he comes to his senses, the fool says, "I had a hard time, but my curiosity is satisfied." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 231 No. 82; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2376. J2376. Testing the evidence by experiment: biting the ear off. The accused pleads that the plaintiff bit his own ear off. The judge takes time for consideration, tries to bite his own ear, but falls down and breaks his head. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 230 No. 76; *Clouston Noodles 86; U.S.: Baughman.

J2377. J2377. The philosophical watchman. A master sets his servant to keep watch over his horse at night. He soon asks the servant if he is asleep. "No, I was thinking of who created so many stars in the sky." The second time the servant answers, "No, I was thinking of who dug the sea. Where did he put the soil?" The third time: "I was wondering who would carry the saddle now that the horse is stolen." *Zachariae Zs. f. Vksk. XXX-XXXII 51; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 23.

J2378. J2378. What will the robber do? A man curious as to what a robber is going to do waits to intervene and goes back to sleep. Chauvin II 82 No. 4; B[ö]dker Exempler 273 No. 4; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2381. J2381. Question: did the man ever have a head? A man's head is snatched off by accident and his companions do not see what has happened. Debate: did he ever have a head? *Type 1225; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 192 No. 374; *Bolte Frey 220 No. 12; Christensen DF XLVII 192—93 No. 19; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2382. J2382. How did the cow get on the pole? A fool hides his purse on a pole on a cliff. A rascal substitutes cow-dung for the money. The fool is interested only in how the cow could have reached the purse. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 236 No. 110; Köhler-Bolte I 497; Rumanian: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII 69 No. 8.

J2383. J2383. Pity for the poor Jews. On Good Friday an old woman who has heard the Passion Story exclaims, "How hard it was for the Jews who had to watch all night with Christ!" Wesselski Bebel I 228 No. 138.

J2387. J2387. How blind men get about. Fool experiments with shut eyes and gets lost. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2391. J2391. Experiment in gravity. Which has greatest attraction to earth, cup or contents? Father shows great attraction of fool's back and a stick. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2400-J2449.

J2400-J2449. Foolish imitation.

J2400. J2400. Foolish imitation.

J2401. J2401. Fatal imitation. (Cf. J2411.1, J2411.2, J2413.4.2, J2422.) *Types 1060-1114 passim; Irish myth: Cross; Missouri French: Carrière; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 120 No. 1075; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 353 n. 271b.

J2410. J2410. Types of foolish imitation.

J2411. J2411. Foolish imitation of miracle (magic).

J2411.1. J2411.1. Imitation of magic rejuvenation unsuccessful. (Cf. J2401.) *Types 531, 753; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 633f.; Spanish: Espinosa III Nos 168—171; Missouri French: Carrière; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus I 121 n. 4; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2411.1.1. J2411.1.1. Foolish imitation of sham death and return (= resuscitation). India: Thompson-Balys.

J2411.1.2. J2411.1.2. Unsuccessful imitation of a god: lions fall out of the furnace instead of men covered with gold and silver. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2411.2. J2411.2. Imitation of miraculous horse-shoeing unsuccessful. Christ takes off a horse's foot to shoe it and then successfully replaces it. (Cf. J2401.) Type 753; Dh II 168ff.; Lowes Romanic Review V 368ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2411.3. J2411.3. Unsuccessful imitation of magic production of food. (Cf. J2425.) Type 552B; Christiansen Norske Eventyr 80; West Indies: Flowers 489.

J2411.4. J2411.4. Imitation of magician unsuccessful. Person does self injury. Irish myth: Cross.

J2411.5. J2411.5. Alleged return from land of dead with bags of gold persuades dupe to try to imitate. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2411.6. J2411.6. Imitation of jumping into fire without injury: dupe burned up. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2411.6.1. J2411.6.1. Sister of goddess tries to imitate her feat of being cooked without harm and dies in the attempt. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 96.

J2411.7. J2411.7. Imitation of magic production of garden and lake unsuccessful. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

J2411.8. J2411.8. Unsuccessful imitation of magic sewing. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

J2411.9. J2411.9. Obedient woman's pestle remains magically suspended in air. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2412. J2412. Foolish imitation of healing.

J2412.1. J2412.1. Hot onion to the eye. A friend has cured his foot with this remedy. Herbert III 63; Hervieux IV 278 No. 34; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 36; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J2412.2. J2412.2. Pulling out the eye so that the pain will cease. He has had a tooth pulled and the pain ceased. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 244 No. 136.

J2412.3. J2412.3. Imitation of the prescription. A peasant envying a doctor's fee for giving him a plaster and predicting a son, poses as a doctor. He predicts a son for a eunuch and gives a plaster for heart disease. Chauvin II 196 No. 23.

J2412.4. J2412.4. Imitation of diagnosis by observation: ass's flesh. A doctor tells his patient that he has eaten too much chicken, and this the patient confesses. The doctor's son wants to know how the diagnosis was made. The doctor says that as he rode up he observed chicken feathers and made his conclusions. The son imitates. He sees an ass's saddle. Diagnosis: you have eaten too much ass's flesh. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 250 No. 167; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 792; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2412.4.1. J2412.4.1. Imitation of diagnosis by observation: stick under table. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2412.5. J2412.5. Healing with the cherry tree. A man whose wife refuses to talk remembers that a priest drank black cherry juice whenever he lost his voice. He cannot get the cordial but concluding that a limb of the cherry tree will have the same effect beats his wife with it. She is cured. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 715.

J2412.6. J2412.6. Sick woman hung in well to cool off: drowned. Fool has cooled objects thus. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2412.7. J2412.7. Foolish physician cauterizes "sick" cartwheel to stop it from creaking; burns it up instead. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2412.8. J2412.8. Fool claims to cure goitre by striking. Has seen melon thus dislodged from camel's throat. (Cf. F952.3.1, F953.1.) India: Thompson-Balys.

J2413. J2413. Foolish imitation by an animal. Tries to go beyond his powers.

J2413.1. J2413.1. Ass tries to caress his master like the dog. He is driven off. *Crane Vitry 139 No. 15; Oesterley Gesta Romanorum No. 79; Jacobs Aesop 202 No. 10; Wienert FFC LVI 46 (ET 45), *90 (ST 19); Halm Aesop No. 331; Spanish Exempla: Keller; West Indies: Flowers 489f.

J2413.1.1. J2413.1.1. Ass imitating dog brays so as to wake master when thieves are robbing him. Beaten for his pains. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2413.2. J2413.2. Ass tries to jump on the roof like the ape. Wienert FFC LVI 46 (ET 44), *90 (ST 18); Halm Aesop No. 338.

J2413.3. J2413.3. Daw tries to carry off lamb like eagle. Is caught in the lamb's fleece. Wienert FFC LVI 66 (ET 297), 93 (ST 65); Halm Aesop No. 8.

J2413.4. J2413.4. Animal dupe cuts off limb. Thinks he is imitating another animal.

J2413.4.1. J2413.4.1. Fowl makes another animal believe that he has had his leg cut off. Says that he has received large pay. He has his leg hidden under his wing. The elephant (hippopotamus) cuts his off and bleeds to death. (Cf. J2401.) Africa (Fang): Nassau 235 No. 4, (Congo): Weeks 205.

J2413.4.2. J2413.4.2. Fowl makes another animal believe that he has had his neck cut off. He has his neck hidden under his wing. The hare cuts his off and dies. (Cf. J2401.)

Africa (Thonga): Junod 216; American Negro: Parsons JAFL XXX 190, 226, MAFLS XVI 34, Work JAFL XXXII 401.

J2413.4.3. J2413.4.3. Monkey cuts his throat, thinking that he is imitating the cobbler. Nouvelles Récréations No. 19.

J2413.5. J2413.5. The dog imitates a wolf. Wants to kill a horse. He asks the cat: "Is my back bristled, etc." The horse kills him with a kick. (Cf. K1121.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *106; Russian: Andrejev No. *119.

J2413.6. J2413.6. Monkey sneezes in king's presence like rabbit. Killed. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2413.7. J2413.7. Crane tries to catch fish like hawk. Is mired at water's edge. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2413.8. J2413.8. Jackal tries to roar like lion at elephant. Is killed. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2413.9. J2413.9. Raven tries to imitate dove's step but breaks his bones. Jewish: Neuman.

J2415. J2415. Foolish imitation of lucky man. Because one man has had good luck a numskull imitates and thinks he will have equal luck. He is disappointed. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3252, 3255, 3594, 3691; Arab: Azov JPASB II 412; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; West Indies: Flowers 490.

J2415.1. J2415.1. The two presents to the king: the beet and the horse. A farmer takes an extraordinary beet as present to the king and receives a large reward. His companion is eager for a reward and leads a handsome steed to the palace. The king rewards him with the beet. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 798; BP III 188ff., *191; *Gaster Exempla 190 No. 25; Köhler-Bolte I 136; England: Baughman; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 490.

J2415.1.1. J2415.1.1. The gift of the donkey. Ruler rewards the gift of a clever donkey. Greedy nobleman seeking a like reward sends ruler two donkeys in rich trappings. Ruler advises the donor that he is sorry that his gift will deprive him of worthy companionship. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2415.1.2. J2415.1.2. The two presents to the king: two poems. A famous poet presented to the king some poems and was richly rewarded. Another poet likewise gave the king some poetry. The king gave him the first poet's verses. Spanish: Childers.

J2415.2. J2415.2. Picking the louse and the flea. One man rewarded with forty crowns for picking louse from king's robe. Imitator given forty lashes for picking flea. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 799.

J2415.3. J2415.3. Crab tries to imitate bird who lays egg in pot of boiling water. Falls in instead of being rewarded. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2415.4. J2415.4. Fairies help forgotten child, but strangle child trying to imitate good luck. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3691.

J2415.5. J2415.5. Ascetic imitates Brahmin's practices. Brahmin goes to heaven, ascetic to hell. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2415.6. J2415.6. Pig sees goat return decked with ornaments and plenty of food; goes out and imitates trick played by goat but is beaten instead. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2415.7. J2415.7. A snake for the real daughter. Stepdaughter, married to a snake, appears decorated with jewels. Stepmother desires a snake be procured for her daughter. She is swallowed instead. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2416. J2416. Poor man foolishly imitates rich. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 2432*; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2417. J2417. Foolish imitation of leader. Christensen DF XLVII 189 No. 14, 194 no. 19.

J2417.1. J2417.1. Company to sing like leader. When his foot is caught in a wheel, they keep repeating his call for help as a song. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1694*; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 285 No. 64, FFC CXXVIII 244f. No. 148.

J2417.2. J2417.2. To imitate the leader. He slips and all fall to floor. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2420. J2420. Foolish imitation—miscellaneous.

J2421. J2421. The fool spits in the hot porridge. He has seen the smith spit on the hot iron. Type 1262*.

J2422. J2422. The scythe cuts one man's head off. All have theirs cut off. *Type 1203.

J2423. J2423. The eye-juggler. A trickster sees a man throwing his eyes into the air and replacing them. He also receives this power but he must not use the power beyond a specified number of times. When he does so, he loses his eyes. He usually gets animal eyes as substitutes. N. A. Indian: *Thompson-Tales 299 n. 92.

J2424. J2424. The sharpened leg. A trickster sees a man with a sharpened leg. He also receives the power of sharpening his leg without harm if he will use it but four times. He breaks the tabu and is left with his leg sticking in a tree. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 299 n. 95; S. A. Indian (Warrau, Carrib, Shipaya): Lowie BBAE CXLIII (3) 55.

J2425. J2425. The bungling host. A trickster (animal) visits various animals who display their peculiar powers in obtaining food (often magic). He returns the invitation and tries to provide food in similar ways. He fails and usually has a narrow escape from death. (Cf. J2411.3.) N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 301 n. 103, Speck U Pa I 141 n. 2; Lepers Island: Dixon 128; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 27 n. 1; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 280 No. 97.

J2426. J2426. Numskull wants to be shaved too. He sees another man being shaved and thinks that the man is having his ears cut off. He orders his wife to cut off his ears. Africa (Bushman): Bleek and Lloyd 205.

J2427. J2427. Numskull praises his daughter as being pregnant. He tries in vain to sell his cow and succeeds only when he says that she is with calf. When suitors come wooing his daughter, he tries the same plan disastrously. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 223 No. 57.

J2428. J2428. Numskull puts money into the exchange so as to participate in the business. He hears that great lords take a part in the business of the exchange where he sees great heaps of money. He throws down a penny and says, "You may like it or not, but I want money in the exchange, too." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 566.

J2431. J2431. A man undertakes to do his wife's work. All goes wrong. *Type 1408; *BP I 321; Bolte Frey 222 No. 20; Fb "ø1" III 1175a; Nouvelles Récréations No. 45.

J2431.1. J2431.1. Men exchange duties: each wants to get better of the other, but is cheated, finding the other's work more difficult. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2434. J2434. Man saved from well by rope. Disastrous attempt to save him from tree in same way. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2442. J2442. Protecting as the stork does. Man has had stork protect him from rain by covering him with his wing. Man tries to protect his wife from rain with his arm. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2450—J2499.

J2450—J2499. Literal fools.

J2450. J2450. Literal fool.

J2460. J2460. Literal obedience. Gaster Oldest Stories 167; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 282.

J2460.1. J2460.1. Disastrous following of misunderstood instructions. (To burn land, then sow seed. Opposite done.) Chinese: Graham.

J2461. J2461. What should I have done (said)? The mother teaches the boy (the man his wife) what he should say (do) in this or that circumstance. He uses the words in the most impossible cases and is always punished. *Type 1696; *BP I 315, III 145; *Taylor JAFL XLVI 78 No. 1696; Haavio FFC LXXXVIII 94ff.; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 251f. No. 169; Fb "tosse" III 831b; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos. 1691, 1691A*; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC No. 1363A; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 286; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Indonesia: Coster-Wijsman 54ff. Nos. 79—82; Africa: Werner African 217f.

J2461.1. J2461.1. Literal following of instructions about actions.

J2461.1.1. J2461.1.1. Literal numskull drags jar (bacon) on string. He has sent a pig home alone. Told that he should have led it by a string. *Type 1696; Fb "potte" II 867a; *BP I 315; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 141 No. 1703, Espinosa III 147.

J2461.1.2. J2461.1.2. Literal numskull is gay at a fire. He has wept at a wedding and been told to be gay. Clouston Noodles 130; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2461.1.2.1. J2461.1.2.1. Literal numskull sings entertaining songs on approach of death. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2461.1.3. J2461.1.3. Literal numskull throws water on roasting pig. Told that he should have thrown water in the fire when the house burnt. Clouston Noodles 130.

J2461.1.4. J2461.1.4. Literal numskull cuts peas into four parts. Told that he should have cut up the pancakes which he has eaten whole. Wesselski Bebel I 128 No. 27.

J2461.1.4.1. J2461.1.4.1. Literal fool is told to cook a few peas for five persons. Cooks five peas. Next time he is told to cook an abundance. Cooks half-bushel. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2461.1.4.2. J2461.1.4.2. Literal fool puts three empty measures in pot. Told to put in three measures of rice to boil. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2461.1.5. J2461.1.5. Literal fool strangles the hawk. On last trip he has lost the gloves and has been told that he should have put them in his bosom. He puts the hawk inside his shirt. *Type 1696; *BP I 315; *Wesselski Bebel I 128 No. 26; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 762.

J2461.1.6. J2461.1.6. Literal fool carries the harrow in his hand. He has killed a sparrow by his stupidity and has been told that he should have carried it in his hand. *Type 1696; *BP I 315; *Wesselski Bebel I 128 No. 26.

J2461.1.7. J2461.1.7. Numskull told to steal something heavy brings millstone. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2461.1.7.1. J2461.1.7.1. Numskull as thief: tries to carry off grinding-stone when told by confederates to bring out heavy things. Told to bring shiny things; brings out looking glass. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2461.1.8. J2461.1.8. Literal numskull destroys inherited property since his sister has instructions not to object to his actions. Africa (Hausa): Mischlich 164ff. No. 22 (=Frobenius Atlantis IX 277ff., 287ff., Nos. 74, 75).

J2461.2. J2461.2. Literal following of instructions about greetings. Numskull gives wrong greeting and is told how to give the correct one. When he tries it, however, the conditions are wrong. *Type 1696; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 251f. No. 169; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2461.2.1. J2461.2.1. Literal numskull kisses a pig. Told that he should have kissed the old woman. *Type 1696; *BP III 145.

J2461.2.2. J2461.2.2. Fool learns to repeat commonplace expressions: by chance thus scares off wife's suitors. Chinese: Graham.

J2461.3. J2461.3. Literal numskull laughs at his child's death. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2461.4. J2461.4. Master tells servant (sarcastically) to take a year to do errand. Servant stays away a year and then returns to claim salary. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2461.5. J2461.5. Numskull told not to forget to get the handsel (a little token extra in the bargain); brings it but leaves what he has been sent to buy. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2461.6. J2461.6. Literal fool: fool told to follow his nose in a journey, runs head against tree, climbs it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2461.7. J2461.7. To sell some cloth for four rupees. Fool refuses to take six rupees for it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2461.8. J2461.8. Asking favor when master is in good humor. Fool waits till master is laughing at servant's stupidity. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2461.9. J2461.9. Numskull told to attract girl's attention by throwing pebble at her flings large stone which breaks her head. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2462. J2462. Foolish bridegroom follows instructions literally. *Type 1685; *BP I 311; *Fb "brud" IV 64b; Gaster Oldest Stories 167; U.S.: Baughman; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

J2462.1. J2462.1. The dog Parsley in the soup. The foolish bridegroom is told to put parsley in the soup. He throws in his dog, which is named Parsley. *Type 1685; *BP I 311; Köhler-Bolte I 65; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1006A; Russian: Andrejev No. *1012 II.

J2462.2. J2462.2. Casting sheep's eyes at the bride. The foolish bridegroom is told to cast sheep's eyes at the bride. He buys some at the butcher shop and throws them at her. *Type 1685; *BP I 311; *Fb "øje" III 1166a; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 762; Spanish: Espinosa III 147.

J2462.3. J2462.3. Foolish husband puts out wife's eyes at night because he heard that a beautiful wife is an enemy. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2463. J2463. The foolish bride.

J2463.1. J2463.1. Foolish bride gives away dowry. While her parents are away from home, a matchmaker and a suitor come to the foolish girl. By following her mother's advice literally, she gives away her dower to the tricksters. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1463.

J2463.2. J2463.2. Marrying a stranger. The girl shortly to be married complains: "It was all very well for you, mother, to marry father, but I am to marry a complete stranger." Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1468; Russian: Andrejev No. *2078A; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2464. J2464. The servant to improve on the master's statements. The wooer makes boasts to the girl and the servant always doubles the master's boast. Finally the master says, "I have poor eyesight." — The servant, "You don't see at all." (Or the master coughs and apologizes; the servant says that he coughs all night.) *Type 1688; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 221; Scala Celi 126b No. 688; Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. IX 88 No. 46; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 24.

J2465. J2465. Disastrous following of instructions.

J2465.1. J2465.1. Feeding the pigs wet meal. The wife throws the meal into the well and the pigs after it. Field Pent Cuckoo 16.

J2465.1.1. J2465.1.1. Watering the cow (by pouring water on it). India: Thompson-Balys.

J2465.2. J2465.2. Piling up the pottery. The woman breaks the pots into fragments and piles them up. Type 1371*.

J2465.3. J2465.3. Feeding the child. Fool feeds it steaming food and kills it. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 212 No. 431.

J2465.3.1. J2465.3.1. Shoving the child. Numskulls, told to shove the boy along if he is lazy about weeding, do so with their weeding-knives and kill him. India: Thompson-

Balys.

J2465.3.2. J2465.3.2. Feeding mother. Fool stuffs and kills her. Espinosa: JAFL XXVII 119.

J2465.4. J2465.4. Washing the child. Fool uses boiling water and kills it. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 212 No. 431.

J2465.4.1. J2465.4.1. Heating water for woman to wash in. Boiling water poured over her. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2465.5. J2465.5. Clearing out the room. Fool throws out all the furniture. *Type 1685; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2465.6. J2465.6. Washing the room. Fool floods it. Norwegian: Christiansen Norske Eventyr 142.

J2465.7. J2465.7. Oh bother! put it on my head! Numskulls asking old woman where to put grain obey and smother her. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2465.8. J2465.8. Cutting at the plow. Literal fool told to cut at plow if it sticks on roots cuts at bullock's legs. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2465.9. J2465.9. "Sew shirts for servants." Fool sews them to trees. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2465.10. J2465.10. "Collect goats under tree." Fool piles up their carcasses. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2465.11. J2465.11. Fool takes threat to child as an order. Cuts off child's ears. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2465.12. J2465.12. Plowing above the tree. Told to plow above a certain tree (on the hillside), numskulls haul oxen and plow into tree and destroy them. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2465.13. J2465.13. "Plowing out potatoes." Fool plows them out of ground. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 698.

J2466. J2466. Literal following of the count.

J2466.1. J2466.1. A pebble for each sin. A man cannot remember the number of his sins. The priest has him put a pebble in a sack for each of his sins. He comes to confession with three large sacks of pebbles. Type 1848*.

J2466.2. J2466.2. The reckoning of the pot. A man counts the days of the fastmonth by throwing a pebble each day into a pot. His daughter throws a handful of pebbles in. Asked the day of the month, he says that it is the 125th. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 207 No. 9.

J2466.3. J2466.3. The long day. If the clock is still striking it must be 50 o'clock. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 207 No. 9; Scotland, U.S.: Baughman.

J2469. J2469. Instructions followed literally—miscellaneous.

J2469.1. J2469.1. A lentil in the soup. You said you wished a lentil soup; so I put one in. If you had wished more lentils you should have said so. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 605.

J2469.2. J2469.2. Taking the prescription. The fool eats the paper with the prescription on it. Clouston Noodles 119.

J2469.3. J2469.3. Dividing all they have. So advised, they cut their beds, houses, etc. in two. (Cf. M241.) Penzer V 114 n. 1.

J2469.3.1. J2469.3.1. Man gives up half property. Slave cut in two. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2469.4. J2469.4. Boy asked to do something to cool women's ears breaks vessels they carry so milk in them can cool their ears off. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2469.5. J2469.5. Literal fool—something you have never experienced.

J2469.5.1. J2469.5.1. Literal fool feeds dogflesh to visitor to follow father's advice: "Feed him on food you have never eaten in your life." India: Thompson-Balys.

J2469.5.2. J2469.5.2. Literal obedience: soldier breaks woman's oil pot in two with sword when she asks him to show her something she never has seen in life. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2470. J2470. Metaphors literally interpreted. India: *Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian (Wyandot): Barbeau GSCan XI 224 No. 68.

J2471. J2471. "Taking a pattern (picture) of conduct" from other people. Fool steals a picture from the church. Wesselski Bebel I 128 No. 27.

J2472. J2472. "Skinning farmers". A master tells his servant that he is going to skin some farmers (i.e., cheat them). When a farmer inquires for a tanner, the servant directs him to his master. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 720.

J2473. J2473. Peasant opens his mouth. He tells his wife about the good things he gets to eat at the rich man's house. The wife says, "Open your mouth for me once so that I may get some too." The peasant gets up after the next large meal and opens his mouth to the astonishment of all present. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 519.

J2474. J2474. The hunter's mass. A count instructs his chaplain to read a hunter's mass (i.e., a short one). The chaplain searches the prayerbook in vain for a hunter's mass. *Wesselski Bebel I 175 No. 19.

J2475. J2475. "Greasing the judge's palms." The woman puts butter on his hands. *Crane Vitry 149 No. 38; *Herbert III 68; Hervieux IV 301 No. 93; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 124; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 22; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

J2476. J2476. The literal host: bread and salt. Guest finds that his host spoke literally when he invited him to share his bread and salt. Later, when the host threatens an importunate beggar, the guest advises the beggar to flee since the host means what he says. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 240 No. 532.

J2477. J2477. Christ has too many debts. St. Peter is to give Christ to a woman as husband. She hears people say, when they are asked for money, "When Christ pays me, I will pay you." The woman says that Christ has too many debts. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No.

657; Irish: Beal XXI 305.

J2478. J2478. The numskull buys water at market. He looks at bread. The merchant: "It is as good as butter." He decides on butter. The merchant: "It is as sweet as oil." He decides on oil. The merchant: "It is as clear as water." He decides on water. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 241 No. 536.

J2481. J2481. The horse that went like a ship. Men have been assured that a horse will "go like a ship". When they spur the horse, it will not move. A man takes a pole and hits the horse. It goes. "See, it goes like a ship. It is started by a pole, not by spurs." *Wesselski Arlotto I 188 No. 9.

J2482. J2482. The fool is told that his son has given up the ghost. He wonders. He didn't know that the son had a ghost to give up. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 250 No. 166.

J2483. J2483. The house without food or drink. A fool and his son meet women mourning a dead man. "He goes to the place where there is darkness and nothing to eat or drink." The son: "They must be coming to our house." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 262 No. 229; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2484. J2484. Father tells son that he has been scratched by "hairy rascals" (monkeys). Son attacks hairy ascetics. Penzer V 140.

J2485. J2485. What is behind you. Woman tells husband she has cooked what is behind him. He sees the door there and tries to cook it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2488. J2488. Numskull wants to see an abstract quality.

J2488.1. J2488.1. Numskull dragon wants to see courage. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2488.2. J2488.2. Sultan tries to prove to Adversity he cannot be seized at specified time and hides in a sewer. He thus experiences adversity in his very effort to avoid it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2489. J2489. Metaphors literally interpreted—miscellaneous.

J2489.1. J2489.1. Fool interprets metaphors (or slang expressions) about drink. U.S.: *Baughman.

J2489.2. J2489.2. "Keep locks of everyone in your hand" (keep control of them). Fool interprets literally. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2489.3. J2489.3. "Bite the ear" (speak secretly). Fool interprets literally. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2489.4. J2489.4. "Cutting the paper of the accounts" (falsifying accounts). Fool cuts up account books. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2489.5. J2489.5. "Quieting the patient." Fool does so by killing. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2489.6. J2489.6. Giving half of savings away: "Whoever gives charity gets double in return." India: Thompson-Balys.

J2489.7. J2489.7. "Have a black look" (i.e., frown). Fool blackens face with charcoal. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2489.8. J2489.8. "Cover with straw." Fool covers his mistress with straw and suffocates her. Should have thatched roof. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2489.9. J2489.9. "Stick fast to everything you undertake." Foolish son seizes an ass by tail and gets kicked. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2489.10. J2489.10. Payment with "something or other." Offered money, fools insist on "something or other." India: Thompson-Balys.

J2489.11. J2489.11. "Don't allow paint to wear off my daughter's feet." Bridegroom carries her upside down across river and drowns her. (Cf. J2412.6.) India: Thompson-Balys.

J2489.12. J2489.12. Making money. "Rupees make more rupees." Stupid peasant sticks his sole rupee in hole and loses it. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2489.13. J2489.13. "Never show your head again." Jester soon appears with large pot over head. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2490. J2490. Literal fool—miscellaneous.

J2491. J2491. Clothing the servant. The master is to clothe the servant (at his expense). The servant insists that his master shall put on his clothes for him. Type 1569.

J2492. J2492. Putting fear into him. A plaintiff insists that the judge shall put some fear into the defendant debtor. The judge puts his fingers over the eyes of the defendant and cries, "Boo! Now give him his money." *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 266 No. 246.

J2493. J2493. Names of dogs literally interpreted. The names are "The Shepherd" and "Get the stick". When the man calls his dogs to dinner, the thief thinks that he is telling the shepherd to get a stick. Type 1530*; Russia: Andrejev No. 1530*.

J2494. J2494. Getting a box on the ears. The man, advised to cure his wife with a box on the ears, goes to the pharmacy and gets one. He cures his wife. *Type 1372; Fb "ørefigen" III 1182; *Jacobs list s.v. "Box on ears"; Christensen DF XLVII 208 No. 62.

J2495. J2495. Religious words or exercises interpreted with absurd literalness. West Indies: Flowers 491; Irish: Beal XXI 333, O'Suilleabhain 105.

J2495.1. J2495.1. Praying to the nearer virgin. One man prays to the Virgin of Aix-la-Chapelle. The other: "That place is too far away; she can't be here in time to help." He prays to the Virgin of a nearer town. *Wesselski Bebel I 188 No. 47.

J2495.2. J2495.2. Debtors do not forgive. "The Lord's Prayer has little power. I forgive my debtors but my debtors do not forgive me." *Wesselski Bebel I 140 No. 50.

J2495.3. J2495.3. Did not want to be Christ. An actor representing Christ in a Passion Play is beaten by Jews. He throws the cross down: "The devil may be God; I won't." *Wesselski Bebel II 109 No. 34.

J2495.4. J2495.4. Peasants want a living God. An artist, ordered to make a crucifix, asks peasants if they want a living God. They say yes. "If we don't like him we can kill him ourselves." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 409.

J2495.5. J2495.5. Numskulls believing that God has reposed on a leaf want to cross river on one. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2496. J2496. "I don't know" thought to be a person's name. A man in a country that cannot speak his language hears "I don't know" so frequently that he thinks it must be the name of the owner of all the places he inquires about. Type 700; Africa (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 95 No. 18.

J2496.1. J2496.1. Boy who worked for "nothing at all" goes to town and demands "nothing at all." (Cf. J2489.10.) Penzer V 97.

J2496.2. J2496.2. Misunderstandings because of lack of knowledge of a different language than one's own. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *2420; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2497. J2497. "Honey is sweet." A wayward son, asked by his mother to give her a sweet word, thus answers. *Köhler-Bolte I 3.

J2498. J2498. Repeating the ceremony. Fool told to repeat part of the ceremony at baptism persists absurdly in repeating every remark. Field Pent Cuckoo 8; England: Baughman; West Indies: Flowers 491.

J2498.1. J2498.1. The imitative choir. Minister tells congregation that he has forgotten his spectacles, that he cannot line out the hymn as he customarily did. The choir sings his words. He tries to explain, apologizes. The choir repeats the apology in song. U.S.: *Baughman.

J2498.2. J2498.2. Priest's words repeated. Man sent to priest for religious service to repeat priest's words. Keeps repeating "Who are you?" "Where do you come from?" India: Thompson-Balys.

J2499. J2499. Literal fool—additional motifs.

J2499.1. J2499.1. "Till the front sweats." A mother orders her daughter to knead the dough until the front of the oven (stirn) sweats. She does so till her forehead (stirn) sweats. Type 1445*.

J2499.2. J2499.2. Not naked but with a hood on. She confesses that she has had relations with the priest. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 294.

J2499.3. J2499.3. Fool admits crime but pleads mistakes in the details of the accusation. Penzer V 117f.

J2499.4. J2499.4. Brings back all stolen cattle possible. Simple monk eats all he can of abbey's stolen cattle so as to bring them back home. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 61; Alphabet No. 718; Mensa Philosophica No. 187.

J2499.5. J2499.5. "God is everywhere." Fool therefore trusts that he is in angry elephant. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2499.6. J2499.6. Conventional greeting phrase taken literally: "Come and share it." India: Thompson-Balys.

J2499.7. J2499.7. Three stupid sons sent out into the world to learn trades: hunter kills his father; musician plays and dances at his father's death, etc. Chinese: Graham.

J2500—J2549.

J2500—J2549. Foolish extreme.

J2500.

J2500.

J2511. J2511. The silence wager. A man and his wife make a wager as to who shall speak first (close the door). The man (woman) becomes jealous and scolds; loses the wager. *Type 1351; Child No. 275; Brown Amer. Journ. of Philol. XLIII 289; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 263; Clouston Tales II 15; *Basset 1001 Contes II 401; Chauvin VIII 132 No. 124; Clouston Noodles 108, 184; Fb "tie" III 792a; Christensen DF L 79; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2511.1. J2511.1. Wager as to who shall rise (speak) first in morning (last up to get reward). They are carried to funeral pyre before they will give in. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2511.1.1. J2511.1.1. Husband to spite wife plays dead. When she tells neighbors that they may come and take dead man's property he gets up. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2511.1.2. J2511.1.2. Silence wager: man and wife taken for dead. Stand up when king offers reward for information about their death. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2511.2. J2511.2. Numskulls make silence wager. Arrested as thieves. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2512. J2512. The fool and the visitor's large nose. The fool asks where he got the large nose. Is removed from the room. He comes back to mend matters. He says, "What a small nose you have!" He is again taken from the room. The third time: "What difference does it make whether you have a nose or not?" *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 41. Cf. Type 2014.

J2513. J2513. Plenty of holy water. A fool hearing of the effectiveness of holy water for the forgiveness of sins pours the whole supply over himself. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 714.

J2514. J2514. Sickle bought at great cost given back. In a land where the sickle is not known the new sickle cuts off the head of a man and is thereupon given back to the original owner. *Type 1202; *BP II 72 n. 1.

J2516. J2516. Directions followed literally to the sorrow of the giver. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2516.0.1. J2516.0.1. Literal misconstruction of order. Hero gets revenge. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2516.1. J2516.1. Think thrice before you speak. The youth obeys literally the precept even when he sees the master's coat on fire. *Type 1562; Chauvin VIII 170 No. 187; cf. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 387.

J2516.2. J2516.2. "Pick up everything!" The youth so instructed picks up too much. The master then tells him to pick things up only when the master gives the signal. The master falls into a hole and cannot give the signal. *BP III 151; Christensen DF XLVII 226 No. 92; Japanese: Ikeda.

J2516.2.1. J2516.2.1. "Pick up everything!" Fool loads his master with horse dung. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2516.3. J2516.3. "Do nothing but attend to the horse." The youth obeys the command to such extent that he almost lets his master drown. *Wesselski Morlini 317 No. 74.

J2516.3.1. J2516.3.1. Wife follows written instructions. She is to follow instructions which the husband has written down on a card. He falls into a brook and is about to drown. She goes home to see what his instructions on this point are. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 139; Christensen DF XLVII 226 No. 92.

J2516.3.2. J2516.3.2. The polite rescuers. Pupils are taught to clap their hands and say "God bless you" when one sneezes. As they are rescuing a drowning man by a rope he sneezes. They all clap their hands and he falls back into the water. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 227 No. 477.

J2516.3.3. J2516.3.3. Command to use only one phrase. King let drown in bath. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2516.3.4. J2516.3.4. "Only light the fire." Fool allows the house to burn down. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2516.3.5. J2516.3.5. To tell nothing else than "very good news." India: Thompson-Balys.

J2516.4. J2516.4. "Do not leave my side." The youth obeys the command to such an absurd extent that he is a nuisance to his master. *Wesselski Morlini 317 No. 74.

J2516.5. J2516.5. "Hang out lanterns." Officer calls to householders to hang out lanterns. One hangs out lantern but does not light it. The next night the officer calls to them to hang out lanterns and candles. He hangs out a lantern with a candle in it but unlighted. The next night the officer calls out to hang out lanterns and candlelight. England: Baughman.

J2516.6. J2516.6. "Let no one in." When lizard comes in fool burns house down to drive it out. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2516.7. J2516.7. Remove turban as last duty. Sleepy servant removes master's turban while still in council meeting. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2516.8. J2516.8. To draw out fence stakes and throw them down. Boy throws them into river. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2516.9. J2516.9. "Foresee the possible event." Asked to call a doctor when his master falls ill, fool also calls the undertaker. India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2517. J2517. Couldn't wait to dress. The overzealous visitor rides naked to see his friends. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 233 No. 93.

J2518. J2518. Absurd extreme of discouragement.

J2518.1. J2518.1. Fool kills himself in despair because a sparrow has taken one grain from his field. Icelandic: Boberg.

J2518.2. J2518.2. Fool kills himself in despair because an ox has been killed. Icelandic: Boberg.

J2521. J2521. Extreme prudery.

J2521.1. J2521.1. The man is accused of maintaining a brothel. He has a bull for breeding purposes. *Wesselski Bebel I 141 No. 53.

J2521.2. J2521.2. Rebuke for going with a naked head in public. The woman rebuked has lost her hair in sickness. Forthwith she covers up her head with her dress and exposes her body. Bolte Frey 245 No. 79; England: Baughman; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

J2521.3. J2521.3. Girl marries man so she will not be ashamed undressed in his presence. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2522. J2522. Breaking the glassware to prevent others from doing so. A king thus removes temptation from his subjects. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 622.

J2523. J2523. The obedient husband: the leave of absence. His wife says, "You may go away for a little while." He stays away for days and then sends a messenger to his wife asking if he has been away long enough. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 232 No. 84; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2523.1. J2523.1. Obedient husband hangs his wife. Wife had wished only to test her husband's love for her. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1378.

J2523.2. J2523.2. Obedient husband walks slowly. Arrives home after dawn when wife's lover has gone. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2524. J2524. Fool liking salt decides to eat nothing else. Penzer V 71f.

J2525. J2525. Fool will not drink from a river because he cannot drink it all. Penzer V 88; Christensen DF XLVII 211 No. 67.

J2526. J2526. Equal share in the bed. Wishing to prove their equality twelve fools sleep on the ground and put their feet on the one bed provided for the chief. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2527. J2527. Thief out of habit robs from his own purse. Nouvelles Récréations No. 46.

J2528. J2528. Letter believed against clear evidence. Fool believes letter apparently reporting his uncle's death, though he has just seen uncle. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2532. J2532. Bureaucrats debate as to who shall put out palace fire: meantime palace burns. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2541. J2541. "Don't eat too greedily." Fool starves himself at table. Later hunts food in house and gets into trouble. India: Thompson-Balys. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1691, 1691A*; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC No. 1363A*; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 286. Cf. the same story with risqué ending: U.S. (Ozarks): Randolph Who Blowed Up the Church House (New York, 1952) 16, 185.

J2550—J2599.

J2550—J2599. Thankful fools.

J2561. J2561. Fool thanks God that he was not sitting on the ass when it was stolen.
*Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 230 No. 495.

J2562. J2562. Thankful that the recipe is left. A hawk steals the fool's meat. He is grateful that the recipe remains. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 231 No. 498.

J2563. J2563. "Thank God they weren't peaches!" A man plans to take peaches as a present to the king. He is persuaded rather to take figs. They are green and the king has them thrown in his face. He is thankful that they weren't peaches. *Type 1689;
*Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 227 No. 71; *Clouston Tales II 407ff.; Italian Novella:
*Rotunda.

J2564. J2564. "Thank God that camels have no wings." They might fly about and kill people. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 205 No. 2.

J2565. J2565. Fool thankful that God has built a palace without columns. Else the stones might fall down and kill us. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 270 No. 272.

J2566. J2566. One fewer to pay for. A man carries blind men over a stream at a certain price per head. One falls down and drowns. He comforts the others that there is one fewer to pay for. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 207 No. 14.

J2568. J2568. "Thank God it's over!" Man who has been promised a beating lives in constant dread. Is eventually beaten. He thanks God. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2569. J2569. "Thank Fortune I'm out of business." Philosopher loses all his wealth at sea. Thanks Fortune for taking him out of business. Can now devote his life to philosophy. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2571. J2571. "Thank Fortune it wasn't a melon." Man contends that melons should not grow on slender vines but on tall trees. He is hit on the nose by a falling nut. Is thankful it wasn't a melon. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2572. J2572. Heart may not be able to stand winning mistress. Man told it is well he did not obtain girl he loved because his heart might not have been able to stand it. Heptameron No. 58.

J2600—J2649.

J2600—J2649. Cowardly fool.

J2600. J2600. Cowardly fool. *BP II 555.

J2611. J2611. Person frightened into falling down a cliff. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 303 n. 109f.; West Indies: Flowers 492.

J2612. J2612. The attack on the hare (crayfish). Seven men make strenuous plans for the attack on the fierce animal. One screams with fright and the animal runs away. (Cf. J1736.1.) *BP II 556, III 286; Christensen DF XLVII 220 No. 82; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 307 No. 34.

J2613. J2613. Surrender to the rake. Fool steps on a rake and falls down crying, "I surrender!" *BP II 555.

J2614. J2614. Fools frightened by stirring of an animal. Christensen DF XLVII 175, 197 No. 24.

J2614.1. J2614.1. Fools are frightened at the humming of bees. Think it is a drum. *BP II 555; Christensen DF XLVII 194ff. No. 20.

J2614.2. J2614.2. Fools frightened at the flight of a quail. When they hear "whirr!" the army flees. Africa (Thonga): Junod 247.

J2614.3. J2614.3. Lions flee because of the crowing of white cock, elephants because of swine's grunting. Icelandic: FSS 69—71, Boberg.

J2615. J2615. Fright at the creaking of a wheelbarrow. Type 1321.

J2615.1. J2615.1. Fright at noise of mill. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 697; India: Thompson-Balys.

J2616. J2616. The hawk frightened at the snipe's bill. The snipe: "It is a bill, but it is good for nothing (weak)." The hawk is no longer afraid. Type 229*; Russian: Andrejev No. 229.

J2617. J2617. Afraid of his knees. A man awakes with his knees in the air. He thinks the knees are a lion and splits them with his axe. Africa (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 407 No. 5.

J2618. J2618. The sleeper answers for the dead man. A man falls asleep by a gallows. A company of wags come and invite the dead man on the gallows to accompany them. The sleeper awakes with a start and says, "I'll come at once." The wags flee in terror. *Wesselski Bebel II 119 No. 59; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2621. J2621. The dead girl frightens father and lover. The girl dies. The lover, thinking that she is asleep, talks to her. When he hears the father speak of her as dead he is frightened that he has talked to the dead. The father hears the lover talk and thinks that it is the girl's spirit. Both flee. Africa (Vai): Ellis 204 No. 21.

J2622. J2622. Fool frightened by stirring of the wind. Falls on a knife and kills himself. Africa (Ibo, Nigeria): Basden 277.

J2623. J2623. Tailor puts on thimble as protection from slug. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 142 No. 1710.

J2624. J2624. Fright at animals' eyes in the dark. Africa (Angola): Chatelain 209 No. 21.

J2625. J2625. Coward is frightened when clothing catches on thistle. (Cf. N384.2.) Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2626. J2626. Coward boasts of what he would have done after danger is over. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2626.1. J2626.1. Cornered paramour threatens the husband. Admits guilt. Husband: "Had you denied it I would have killed you!" Italian Novella: Rotunda.

J2627. J2627. Frightened by fireworks. Christensen DF XLVII No. 30.

J2631. J2631. Boastful coward frightened when he sees strong adversaries. Hides in trousers of plowman who fights the men. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *650B; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV No. 650B; Finnish: Aarne FFC V, XXXIII No. 650B; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 261f. No. 129.

J2632. J2632. Fools try to frighten one another, but get scared themselves and both flee. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3444; Legends Nos. 867, 869f.

J2633. J2633. Tiger frightened of leak in house. Chinese: Graham.

J2634. J2634. Fearing the earthquake. Fool worries lest earthquake make him fall against an open knife. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2650—J2699.

J2650—J2699. Bungling fool.

J2650. J2650. Bungling fool. Type 1690*; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2661. J2661. Bungling fool has succession of accidents. Irish myth: Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys.

J2661.1. J2661.1. The fool accidentally kills his child and loses the body. Indonesia: DeVries's list no. 266.

J2661.2. J2661.2. The fool seeks a midwife. Accidentally strikes the dog dead, drowns the midwife, and kills the child. *Type 1680.

J2661.3. J2661.3. One woman to catch squirrel; the other to get the cooking pot. One falls from the tree and kills herself; the other breaks the pot. *Type 1227.

J2661.4. J2661.4. The boy's disasters. Foolishly kills his horse and throws his axe into the lake to kill a duck. Undresses to recover axe. Clothes stolen. Goes into barrel of tar to hide. In tar and feathers. *Type 1681.

J2662. J2662. Sent back for the rest of the money. A fool finds a treasure and takes some of it to a judge so as to purchase influence. The judge sends him back for the rest. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 831.

J2665. J2665. The awkward servant.

J2665.1. J2665.1. The cup with two and three handles. When the servant girl presents the cup to the emperor she holds the handle herself. When there are two handles she holds one in each hand, and when there are three she holds the third one toward her. Type 1327*.

J2665.2. J2665.2. Servant injures master while shampooing him. Gives him a slap and breaks his skin. Penzer V 113.

J2666. J2666. The bungling speaker.

J2666.1. J2666.1. "I am as good as you are." One woman says to another, "You are an adulteress and a thief, and I know that I am just as good as you are." *Wesselski Bebel I

136 No. 38.

J2667. J2667. The fool testifies: "I had been drinking and was lying on the bench asleep. I saw him hit him over the head with an axe but don't know whether he hit him or not." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 816.

J2668. J2668. The fool betrays his brothers. They escape but he is captured and stupidly betrays their hiding places. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 432.

J2671. J2671. The forgetful fool. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2671.1. J2671.1. A fox or a hare? A servant is sent by his master to find a girl for him. If he returns with one he is to say, "I have a fox"; if without, "I have a hare." When he returns he has forgotten the agreement. "I don't know whether it is a fox or a hare, but the girl is down stairs." *Wesselski Bebel I 195 No. 69.

J2671.2. J2671.2. Fool keeps repeating his instructions so as to remember them. (He usually forgets them.) *Clouston Noodles 133.

J2671.2.1. J2671.2.1. Fool's talking to himself thought to be inappropriate greetings. He keeps repeating a word to remember it but changes it so that it seems to refer unfavorably to people whom he meets. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2671.3. J2671.3. Bungling fool forgets what elephant is called. Says it is an "earth egg" (confused with name for potatoes). India: Thompson-Balys.

J2671.4. J2671.4. Foolish messenger muddles message. India: Thompson-Balys.

J2672. J2672. The stolen bedcover. A man hears a noise outside the house at night. He wraps a bed cover about him and goes to investigate. The robbers take the bed cover and flee. The wife asks what the debate was about. "About the bed cover. When they got it, the quarrel was over." Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 230 No. 77.

J2675. J2675. Bungling rescuer caught by crab. He tries to rescue woman caught by crab. Is caught himself and found in embarrassing position. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 178 No. 313; Indonesia: Coster-Wijzman 43 No. 44.

J2685. J2685. Buyer draws picture of grindstone on his order list. The grocer sends him a cheese. The buyer has forgotten to draw the hole. U.S.: *Baughman.

J2700—J2749.

J2700—J2749. The easy problem made hard.

J2700. J2700. The easy problem made hard.

J2711. J2711. How the tower was built. Fool gives three explanations: (1) It was formerly a deep well; dug up and set out; (2) it was built by a very tall man; (3) it was built flat on the ground and then set up. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 243 No. 27.

J2712. J2712. "What do I hold in my hand?" (Ring). "In its first state it was in the mountains; it is round and flat." Fool: "A millstone." Chauvin VIII 170 No. 188.

J2712.1. J2712.1. Guess what I have in my hand and I will give it to you to make egg-cake with. What does it look like? What outside and yellow inside. It is a hollowed turnip filled with carrots. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 209 No. 15.

J2712.2. J2712.2. Guess how many eggs I have and you shall get all seven. Christensen DF XLVII 214 No. 73.

J2713. J2713. The father of Noah's sons. The fool seeks advice as to how to answer this question: Who is the father of Stoffer's three sons? Stoffer, of course. Then who was the father of Noah's three sons? Stoffer. Danish: MS (SK 41 in Dansk Folkemindesamling).

J2716. J2716. How to find if it is raining. (Cf. W111.2.4.)

J2716.1. J2716.1. Men must go to look in the pool to see if rain is falling. England: Baughman.

J2716.2. J2716.2. Man put out tubs to see if rain is still falling. England: Baughman.

J2721. J2721. Why he couldn't see. One fool to another: "What would happen if you cut off your nose?" "I couldn't smell." "What would happen if you cut off your ears?" "I couldn't see." "Why couldn't you see?" "My hat would fall down over my eyes." U.S.: *Baughman.

J2722. J2722. Telling their horses apart. One fool docks the tail of his horse; the horse of the second gets tail caught in gate, is docked too. One notches ear of his horse; the second horse notches its ear on the fence. Finally they measure heights of their horses. The black horse is two inches taller than the white. U.S.: *Baughman.

J2750—J2799.

J2750—J2799. Other aspects of wisdom or foolishness.

J2751. J2751. Trickster's greed while hunting causes him to be deserted. Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 237 No. 7.

Stith Thompson's
Motif-Index of Folk-Literature

K. Deceptions

DETAILED SYNOPSIS

K0—K99. Contests won by deception

 K0. Contest won by deception—general

 K10. Athletic contest won by deception

 K30. Hunting contest won by deception

 K40. Labor contest won by deception

 K50. Endurance contest won by deception

 K60. Absurd contest won by deception

 K70. Contest in strength won by deception

 K80. Contests in other physical accomplishments won by deception

 K90. Other contests won by deception

K100—K299. Deceptive bargains

 K100. Deceptive bargain

K110—K149. Sale of worthless articles

 K110. Sale of pseudo-magic objects

 K120. Sale of false treasure

 K130. Sale of worthless animals

 K140. Sale of other worthless objects

 K150. Sale of worthless services

 K170. Deception through pseudo-simple bargain

K200—K249. Deception in payment of debt

 K200. Deception in payment of debt

 K210. Devil cheated of his promised soul

K220. Payment precluded by terms of the bargain

K230. Other deceptions in the payment of debt

K250. Other deceptive bargains

K300—K499. Thefts and cheats

K300. Thefts and cheats—general

K310—K439. Thefts

K310. Means of entering house or treasury

K330. Means of hoodwinking the guardian or owner

K360. Other means of theft

K400. Thief escapes detection

K420. Thief loses his goods or is detected

K440—K499. Other cheats

K500—K699. Escape by deception

K500. Escape from death or danger by deception

K510. Death order evaded

K520. Death escaped through disguise, shamming, or substitution

K540. Escape by overawing captor

K550. Escape by false plea

K580. Captor persuaded into illusory punishment

K600. Murderer or captor otherwise beguiled

K620. Escape by deceiving the guard

K630. Escape by disarming (making pursuit difficult)

K640. Escape by help of confederate

K650. Other means of escape

K700—K799. Capture by deception

K700. Capture by deception

K710. Victim enticed into voluntary captivity or helplessness

K730. Victim trapped

K750. Capture by decoy

K770. Other deceptive captures

K800—K999. Fatal deception

K800. Fatal deception

K810. Fatal deception into trickster's power

K840. Deception into fatal substitution

K850. Fatal deceptive game

K870. Fatal deception by narcotic (intoxication)

K890. Dupe tricked into killing himself

K910. Murder by strategy

K930. Treacherous murder of enemy's children or charges

K940. Deception into killing own children or animals

K950. Various kinds of treacherous murder

K960. Other fatal deceits

K1000—K1199. Deception into self-injury

K1000. Deception into self-injury

K1010. Deception through false doctoring

K1020. Deception into disastrous attempt to procure food

K1040. Dupe otherwise persuaded to voluntary self-injury

K1080. Persons duped into injuring each other

K1110. Deceptions into self-injury—miscellaneous

K1200—K1299. Deception into humiliating position

K1200. Deception into humiliating position

K1210. Humiliated or baffled lovers

K1240. Deception into humiliating position—miscellaneous

K1300—K1399. Seduction or deceptive marriage

K1300. Seduction

K1310. Seduction by disguise or substitution

K1330. Girl tricked into man's room (or power)

K1340. Entrance into girl's (man's) room (bed) by trick

K1350. Woman persuaded (or wooed) by trick

K1380. Seduction—miscellaneous

K1400—K1499. Dupe's property destroyed

K1400. Dupe's property destroyed

K1410. Dupe's goods destroyed

K1440. Dupe's animals destroyed or maimed

K1460. Members of dupe's family killed

K1500—K1599. Deceptions connected with adultery

K1500. Deception connected with adultery

K1510. Adulteress outwits husband

K1550. Husband outwits adulteress and paramour

K1570. Trickster outwits adulteress and paramour

K1580. Other deceits connected with adultery

K1600—K1699. Deceiver falls into own trap

K1600. Deceiver falls into own trap

K1610. Deceiver falls into his own trap—miscellaneous incidents

Motif: Detailed Synopsis: Deception through Shams

K1700—K2099. DECEPTION THROUGH SHAMS

K1700—K1799. Deception through bluffing

K1700. Deception through bluffing

K1710. Ogre (large animal) overawed

K1760. Other bluffs

K1800—K1899. Deception by disguise or illusion

K1800. Deception by disguise or illusion

K1810. Deception by disguise

K1840. Deception by substitution

K1860. Deception by feigned death (sleep)

K1870. Illusions

K1900—K1999. Impostures

K1900. Impostures

K1910. Marital impostures

K1920. Substituted children

K1930. Treacherous impostors

K1950. Sham prowess

K1970. Sham miracles

K1980. Other impostures

K2000—K2099. Hypocrites

K2000. Hypocrites

K2010. Hypocrite pretends friendship but attacks

K2030. Double dealers

K2050. Pretended virtue

K2060. Detection of hypocrisy

K2100—K2199. False accusations

K2100. False accusations

K2110. Slanders

K2130. Trouble-makers

K2150. Innocent made to appear guilty

K2200—K2299. Villains and traitors

K2200. Villains and traitors

K2210. Treacherous relatives

K2220. Treacherous rivals

K2230. Treacherous lovers

K2240. Treacherous officers and tradesmen

K2250. Treacherous servants

K2260. Dark traitors

K2270. Deformed villains

K2280. Treacherous churchmen

K2290. Other villains and traitors

K2300—K2399. Other deceptions

K2300. Other deceptions

K2310. Deception by equivocation

K2320. Deception by frightening

K2350. Military strategy

K2370. Miscellaneous deceptions

K. DECEPTIONS

K0—K99.

K0—K99. Contests won by deception.

K0. K0. Contest won by deception—general. Irish myth: *Cross.

K1. K1. Contest won by magic. India: Thompson-Balys; S. A. Indian (Chincha, Peru): Alexander Lat. Am. 231.

K1.1. K1.1. Magic animal wins contest for man.

K1.1.1. K1.1.1. Magic bullock wins fight for master. India: Thompson-Balys. H1588. Contest of dogs.

K2. K2. Animals help man in contest. Type 1081; S. A. Indian (Chincha, Peru): Alexander Lat. Am. 231.

K2.1. K2.1. Fortune to go to direction cat jumps. King will give wealth to person toward whom the cat jumps. Clever woman has brought mouse along and thus entices the cat. India: Thompson-Balys.

K3. K3. Substitute in contest. Irish myth: Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; N. A. Indian (Seneca): Curtin-Hewitt RBAE XXXII 234 No. 46.

K3.1. K3.1. Relative substitutes in contest. Africa (Hottentot): Bleek 32 No. 16.

K3.2. K3.2. Young knight substitutes for old man in tournament. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K3.2.1. K3.2.1. Supernatural substitute in tournament for pious warrior. Tupper and Ogle Walter Map 36.

K3.3. K3.3. Woman substitutes for husband in combat. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K3.4. K3.4. Wise man disguised as monk beats learned heretic in debate. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K5. K5. Contest with magician won by deception. India: Thompson-Balys.

K10. K10. Athletic contest won by deception.

K11. K11. Race won by deception. *Dh IV 46ff.; *BP III 339ff.; *Von den Steinen Zs. f. Vksk. XXV 275; *Fb "væddeløb"; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 93, Boberg; Missouri French: Carrière; N. A. Indian (Southern Ute): Lowie JAFL XXXVII 70 No. 40.

K11.0.1. K11.0.1. Man challenges devil to race. Cheats him.

K11.1. K11.1. Race won by deception: relative helpers. One of the contestants places his relatives (or others that resemble him) in the line of the race. The opponent always thinks the trickster is just ahead of him. (Told of animals or of men; often of the hare and the turtle.) *Type 1074; *Dh IV48; Chauvin III 32; *Parsons JAFL XXI 221 n. 2; BP III 340ff., 343. — North Carolina: Brown Collection I 703; Finnish-Swedish: Hackman FFC VI No. 275; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 92*; Spanish: Espinosa III 457f.—India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Basset Contes Berbères 139; Japanese: Ikeda. — Indonesia: *Dixon 192, 334 n. 18, DeVries's list No. 120; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 445, (Tinguian): Cole 198. — N. A. Indian: *Boas BBAE LIX 307, (Oaxaca, Mexico): Boas JAFL XXV 214; S. A. Indian (Araucanian): Lehman-Nitsche Int. Cong. Americanists XIV 686, (Amazon): Alexander Lat Am. 288.—Africa (Cameroons): Mansfield 224, (Benga): Nassau 95 No. 5, (Kaffir): Kidd 239 No. 8, (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 390 No. 15, (Suk): Mervin The Suk 38, (Ibo, Nigeria): Basden 274, Thomas 153, (Vai): Ellis 199 No. 16; Bahama: Edwards MAFLS III 69; Cape Verde Islands: *Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 308 n. 1; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 261 No. 60, Jekyll 39ff.; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Remus 86 No. 18, (Virginia): Parsons JAFL XXXV 271, (North Carolina): Backus JAFL XI 284, Parsons JAFL XXX 174, (South Carolina): Stewart JAFL XXXII 394, Parsons MAFLS XVI 79, (Florida): Parsons JAFL XXX 225f.

K11.2. K11.2. Race won by deception: riding on the back. One contestant rides on the other's back. (Cf. K25.1.) *Types 221, 250, 275; *Dh IV 72ff., 91, 160ff.; Wienert FFC LVI *54 (ET 139), 114 (ST 248); BP III 278, *339.—Italian Novella: Rotunda; Chinese: Graham; Japanese: Ikeda; Indonesia: DeVries's list Nos. 102, 121; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 441, (Kalispel): Curtis N. A. Indian VII iii, (Jicarilla Apache): Goddard PaAM VIII 236 No. 45; Africa (Vai): Ellis 189 No. 5, (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 155 No. 30; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 261 No. 60; American Negro (Virginia): Parsons JAFL XXXV 270f., (Pennsylvania): ibid. XXX 209, (North Carolina): ibid. XXX 189.

K11.3. K11.3. Hare and tortoise race: sleeping hare. In a race between the fast and the slow animal, the fast animal sleeps on the road and allows the slow animal to pass him. *Dh IV 66ff.; *BP III 341ff.; Jacobs Aesop 162 No. 68; Haupt Zs. f. deutsches Altertum XII (1865) 527; *Wienert FFC LVI 44 (ET 22), 135 (ST 412); Halm Aesop No. 420.—Japanese: Ikeda; Ainu: Chamberlain, B. Aino Folktales (London, 1888) No. 14; N. A. Indian (Ojibwa): Schoolcraft Algie Researches 181, (Cherokee): Mooney RBAE XIX 290 No. 43; Africa (West Africa): Cronise and Ward Cunnie Rabbit, Mr. Spider and the Other Beef (London, 1903) 155f.; West Indies: Flowers 494; Bahama: Parsons MAFLS XIII 102; American Negro (Pennsylvania): Parsons JAFL XXX 214, (North Carolina): Parsons JAFL XXX 174, (South Carolina): Parsons MAFLS XVI 79, (Florida): Parsons JAFL XXX 226.

K11.4. K11.4. Race won by deception: chariot disabled. A rival in a chariot race inserts linchpins of wax instead of those of bronze in the hero's chariot. The latter is dragged to death. Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus II 161 n. 3.

- K11.5. K11.5. Race won by deception: sham-sick trickster. The trickster feigns lameness and receives a handicap in the race. He then returns and eats up the food which is the prize. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 298 n. 90.
- K11.6. K11.6. Race won by deception: rabbit as "little son" substitute. A man challenged by an ogre to a running race persuades the ogre to race with his little son instead. By this he means a rabbit. (Cf. K12.2, K15.1.) *Type 1072; *Köhler-Bolte I 58, 477ff.
- K11.7. K11.7. Race won by deception: blinding opponent by spitting pepper into face. Africa (Bankon): Ittman 97.
- K11.8. K11.8. Race won by deception: bow and arrow. Certain goal to be touched. Man shoots arrow and wins. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K11.9. K11.9. Obstacle race between deer and hare. Hare accused of removing obstacles from his course. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K12. K12. Wrestling match won by deception. Hackman En Finländsk-Svensk Saga av östeuropeiskt Ursprung (Brages Ersskrift IV, Helsingfors 1910); Icelandic: Boberg; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 314 n. 137a.
- K12.1. K12.1. Wrestling match won by deception: where to throw the ogre. The ogre squeezes the man so that his eyes bulge out. The ogre: "Why do you glare so?"—"I am looking to see where to throw you." The ogre flees (Cf. K18.1.) *Type 1070; Hdwb d. Märchens I 193b. n. 9; *Hackman cf. K12.
- K12.2. K12.2. Wrestling match won by deception: bear as "grandfather." A man challenged by an ogre persuades the latter to wrestle with his old grandfather instead. By this he means a bear. (Cf. K11.6, K15.1.) *Type 1071; Köhler-Bolte I 477ff.; *Hackman cf. K12.
- K12.3. K12.3. Wrestling match: Antaeus. Giant invincible in wrestling because with each contact with earth his strength is renewed. Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus I 222 n. 2.
- K12.4. K12.4. Wrestling match of man with fever. Man places stone image at wrestling-place; fever enters image and shatters it. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K12.5. K12.5. Wrestling between porcupine and deer. Deer defeated but always pleads illness. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K13. K13. Boxing match: fatal boxer defeated. All comers are challenged and all are killed until the hero defeats the challenger. (Argonauts and Amycus.) *Hackman cf. K12; *Frazer Apollodorus I 102 n. 2.
- K14. K14. Rowing contest won by deception. The boat is already sawed through. Type 1087.
- K14.1. K14.1. Rowing contest won by deception: magic boat. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K15. K15. Climbing match won by deception. *Hackman cf. K12; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 314 n. 135.
- K15.1. K15.1. Climbing match won by deception: squirrel as "child". The ogre agrees to contest against the man's young one, i.e., a squirrel. (Cf. K11.6, K12.2.) *Type 1073;

Köhler-Bolte I 477ff.

K16. K16. Diving match won by deception. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 123.

K16.1. K16.1. Diving match won by deception: breathing under brush. Trickster comes up and breathes under some floating brush, where he is not detected. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 314 n. 136.

K16.2. K16.2. Diving match: trickster eats food while dupe is under water. Africa (Kaffir): Theal 101, (Angola): Chatelain 205; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 239; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 373 No. 67, (South Carolina): Stewart JAFL XXXII 394, Parsons MAFLS XVI 40.

K17. K17. Jumping contest won by deception. Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 51; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 302 n. 104.

K17.1. K17.1. Contest: jumping into the ground. A hole is already dug and covered with boughs. *Type 1086.

K17.1.1. K17.1.1. Contest: who can go deepest into the earth? Wren goes into mouse hole. *Type 221; *BP III 278; *Dh IV 169.

K17.2. K17.2. Contest in jumping from the church tower. The devil is not to look behind him. The man runs downstairs (or otherwise cheats). Type 1075*; *Bolte Frey 222 No. 19.

K17.3. K17.3. Contest in jumping into a trap. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 134.

K17.4. K17.4. Jumping frog contest. Frog filled with shot. Anonymous Historia de Pedro Urdemales (Yungay, Chile, 1885) No. 11. Literary treatment by Mark Twain.

K18. K18. Throwing contest won by deception. *Fb "kaste" II 103a; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 21; Africa (Bankon): Ittman 88.

K18.1. K18.1. Throwing contest: trickster shouts. He is trying to warn the people beyond the sea with his cry. The ogre is intimidated. (Cf. K12.1.) Köhler-Bolte I 64; U.S.: Baughman.

K18.1.1. K18.1.1. Throwing contest: trickster addresses Angel Gabriel. Offers him the ogre's cane. The ogre is intimidated. N. A. Indian (Penobscot): Speck JAFL XXVIII 56.

K18.1.2. K18.1.2. Throwing contest: trickster addresses Angel Gabriel or St. Peter, warns him to get out of way of missile trickster is about to throw. U.S.: *Baughman.

K18.2. K18.2. Throwing contest: golden club on the cloud. Trickster shows the ogre the club he has thrown. (Really only a bright spot on the cloud.) (Cf. K1746.) *Type 1063; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 22.

K18.3. K18.3. Throwing contest: bird substituted for stone. The ogre throws a stone; the hero a bird which flies out of sight. *Type 1062; BP I 148; Lappish: Qvigstad Lappiske Eventyr II 237, 251; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 95; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 51; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 431ff., (Navaho): Matthews MAFLS V 84; Africa: Meinhof Afrikanische Märchen 178, (Jaunde): Nekes 252.

K22. K22. Deceptive tug-of-war. Small animal challenges two large animals to a tug-of-war. Arranges it so that they unwittingly pull against each other (or one end of rope is tied to a tree). Africa (Mpongwe): Nassau 37 No. 5, (Ibo, Nigeria): Basden 277, Thomas 145, (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 377 No. 2; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Remus 124 No. 26; Bahama: Parsons MAFLS XIII 74 No. 34, Edwards MAFLS III 65; South American Negro: C. F. Hartt Amazonian Tortoise Myths (Rio de Janeiro, 1875) 20, Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 83 No. 27; West Indies: Flowers 495ff.

K23. K23. Deceptive shinny match. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 314 n. 141, (California): Gayton and Newman 74.

K24. K24. Deception in swinging contest. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 24.

K25. K25. Flying contest won by deception.

K25.1. K25.1. Flying contest won by deception: riding on the other. Wren hides in eagle's wings. (Cf. K11.2.) *Type 221.

K25.2. K25.2. Contest in flying with load. One animal chooses cotton; the other, seeing that a rain is coming, chooses salt and wins. Dh III 142.

K26. K26. Blowing contest won by deception. Hdwb. d. Märchens I 194a n. 17.

K27. K27. Riding contest won by substitution. Icelandic: Boberg.

K28. K28. Tournament won by deception on borrowed horse. Icelandic: Boberg.

K30. K30. Hunting contest won by deception.

K31. K31. Shooting contest won by deception. Philippine: Fansler MAFLS VII 137; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 314 n. 142.

K31.1. K31.1. Contest: shooting an unheard-of bird. The man sends his wife on all fours in tar and feathers. The ogre has never heard of such a bird. *Type 1092.

K31.2. K31.2. Shooting test won by deception: proof of good sight. A man puts a dead hare under a tree and shows it to his dog. He tells people to look at the hare under the tree. At the distance no one can see it. He tells them that he will shoot it. He shoots and has his dog bring the hare. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 207 No. 417.

K31.3. K31.3. Shooting contest won by deception: bird substituted for arrows. N. A. Indian: *Boas RBAE XXXI 721, 944.

K32. K32. Trapping contest won by deception. N. A. Indian: Thompson Tales 328 n. 187.

K33. K33. Harpooning contest won by deception. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 314 n. 134.

K40. K40. Labor contest won by deception.

K41. K41. Plowing contest.

K41.1. K41.1. Plowing contest won by deception: hare exchanged for horse. God and the devil contest in plowing. The devil plows with a horse, God with a hare. While the devil is asleep, God takes the devil's horse and plows the field. When he wakes, the devil thinks the hare has plowed so much and gladly trades his horse for the hare. Dh I 192f.

K41.2. K41.2. Pig and dog as plowmen. Pig plows while dog sleeps. Then dog runs back and forth in furrow to claim victory. India: Thompson-Balys.

K42. K42. Harvesting contest.

K42.0.1. K42.0.1. Contest: harvesting the hay. The man calls out, "The wolves are coming!" The ogre is intimidated. Type 1053*.

K42.1. K42.1. Threshing contest. Type 1089*; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1089*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1089.

K42.2. K42.2. Mowing contest won by trickery. The man takes the center of the field. The ogre is given a dull sickle and mows around the outside of the field. *Type 1090; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 456ff., (1928) 284ff.

K42.2.1. K42.2.1. God cheats devil at mowing. God mows with a chisel, the devil with a scythe. God deceives devil into changing scythe for chisel. Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 138.

K44. K44. Deceptive contest in chopping. Type 1065*.

K44.1. K44.1. Deceptive contest in chopping: iron in bamboo. Hero challenged to cut down bundles of bamboo suspended in air but a strip of iron is treacherously inserted in each. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 266.

K46. K46. Tree-pulling contest. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 330 n. 191f.

K47. K47. Sewing contest won by deception.

K47.1. K47.1. Sewing contest won by deception: the long thread. The ogre sews with the whole length of the thread. When he returns from the first stitch, the tailor has his task finished. *Type 1096; India: Thompson-Balys.

K48. K48. Contest in bridge-building won by deception. India: Thompson-Balys.

K50. K50. Endurance contest won by deception.

K51. K51. Waking contest won by deception. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 25; cf. DeVries FFC LXXIII 400ff.

K51.1. K51.1. Waking contest won by giving opponent soporific. Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 3/1142).

K52. K52. Contest in seeing sunrise first.

K52.1. K52.1. Contest in seeing sunrise first: sun on the trees. The fox places himself on a hill facing the east; the hog in a lower place facing the high trees to the west. The sun shines on the top of the trees, and the hog wins. (Sometimes told with human actors.) *Type 120; Dh III 147ff., 150ff.; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 269; Irish: Jackson FL XLVII 285; Japanese: Ikeda. Cf. Harris Friends 3 No. 1.

K52.2. K52.2. Contest in seeing sunrise first: sleeper wins. One keeps awake, the other sleeps. The first thinks that he sees the sun and cries out prematurely, thus waking the other, who wins. *Dh III 147f.

K53. K53. Deceptive contest in fasting. Irish myth: *Cross; Louisiana Creole: Fortier MAFLS II 34ff.; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 133; Africa (Nigeria): Dayrell 153ff.; Bahama: Parsons MAFLS XIII 97 No. 51; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 261f. No. 61; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 370 No. 66.

K60. K60. Absurd contest won by deception.

K61. K61. Contest in pushing hole in tree: hole prepared beforehand. Hero and ogre to vie in pushing a hole in a tree with their heads. *Type 1085, 1640; BP I 163; Köhler-Bolte I 86.

K62. K62. Contest in squeezing water from a stone. The ogre squeezes a stone; the trickster a cheese or egg. *Types 1060, 1640; *BP I 148; *Fb "sten" III 554a, "øst" II 763a; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 438; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 51; Caucasian: Dirr Kaukasische Märchen 7 No. 2; Malay: Hambruch Malaiische Märchen 109; Africa: Frobenius Atlantis IX 289; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Remus 146 No. 30.

K63. K63. Contest in biting a stone. The ogre bites a stone; the man a nut. *Types 1061, 1640; BP I 68 n. 1, II 528; India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 387 No. 13.

K63.1. K63.1. Hero to eat iron grains. Substitutes soft food. India: Thompson-Balys.

K64. K64. Contest: pulling on steak with teeth. Two men take an end of a steak in their teeth; each attempts to pull it away from the other. After each has a good hold, the Irishman says (with clenched teeth) "Noo're ready?" The Dutchman says, "Yah!", loses the steak. (Cf. K22, K561.1.) U.S.: *Baughman.

K66. K66. Dream contests. U.S.: *Baughman.

K69. K69. Absurd contest won by deception—miscellaneous.

K69.1. K69.1. Contest with magician in bringing grain out of closed bamboo: trickster brings culm-borers to make holes. India: Thompson-Balys.

K70. K70. Contest in strength won by deception.

K71. K71. Deceptive contest in carrying a tree: riding. The trickster has the dupe carry the branches of a tree while he carries the trunk. He rides on the trunk. *Type 1052; *BP I 149; Africa (Dzalamo): Meinhof ZsES XI 280. Cf. Type 1640.

K72. K72. Deceptive contest in carrying a horse. The ogre carries it on his back and soon tires; the man carries it between his legs (rides). *Type 1082; Köhler-Bolte I 473.

K73. K73. Deceptive contest in squeezing hands. The man has an iron glove on. Type 1060*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1060*.

K74. K74. Deceptive contest in pulling fingers. The man has an iron finger. Type 1064*.

K80. K80. Contests in other physical accomplishments won by deception.

K81. K81. Deceptive eating contest. Koryak: Jochelson JE VI 128; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 314 n. 137b; Eskimo (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 313, (Greenland): Rink 108.

K81.1. K81.1. Deceptive eating contest: hole in bag. The hero slips his food into a bag and makes the ogre believe that he is the greater eater. (In many versions the hero cuts open the bag; the ogre imitates and kills himself.) (Cf. K82.1.) *Type 1088; Saintyves Perrault 282; Krohn Tutkimuksia Suomalaisten Kansansatujen alalta 220ff.; Köhler-Bolte I 86; *Fb "æde" III 1139b.—Icelandic: Flateyjarbyk I 211, MacCulloch Eddic 93, Boberg; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 439; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 21; India: Thompson-Balys; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 330 n. 191b; Africa: Frobenius Atlantis IX 368, XII 349.

K81.2. K81.2. Deceptive eating contest: relative helpers. Trickster wins with the aid of substitutes. (Cf. K82.2.) N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 69; Africa (Congo): Weeks 214 No. 10.

K81.3. K81.3. Deceptive eating contest: inexhaustible food. Hero can produce unlimited food which opponents must eat. India: Thompson-Balys.

K81.4. K81.4. Contest: who will eat least. Food secretly furnished one, but plan detected and foiled. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1568A*.

K82. K82. Deceptive drinking contest.

K82.1. K82.1. Deceptive drinking contest: hole for water. The trickster lets the water run out through a hole; the dupe drinks himself to death. (Cf. K81.1.) *Type 1088; Icelandic: MacCulloch Eddic 93; Indonesia: DeVries's list Nos. 49, 94.

K82.1.1. K82.1.1. Deceptive drinking contest: rising and falling tide. Buffalo and heron wager as to which can drink the sea until the water falls. The buffalo drinks as the tide is coming in; the heron drinks in the falling tide and wins. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 98.

K82.1.2. K82.1.2. Attempted intoxication avoided by boring a hole in the bottom of cup. Marquesas: Handy 119.

K82.2. K82.2. Deceptive drinking contest: relative helpers. (Cf. K81.2.) Africa (Mpongwe): Nassau 66 No. 14; Icelandic: Boberg.

K82.3. K82.3. Deceptive contest in drinking whisky. The man drinks water, the devil is given vinegar. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1089*.

K82.4. K82.4. Deceptive drinking contest: pretended swallowing. One bullock keeps mouth in water. Other drinks self to death. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K83. K83. Deceptive scratching contest. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 306 n. 109ee.

K83.1. K83.1. Scratching contest: man's wife shows wounds. The man sends his wife to meet the ogre with whom he is to have a scratching contest. She tells the ogre that her husband has gone to have his nails sharpened. She shows him deep wounds that her husband has scratched on her body (obscene). The ogre leaves in terror. *Type 1095; BP III 356, 363; *Penzer III 34; *Bolte Zs. f. vgl. Litgsch. n. F. VII 456; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 454.

K83.1.1. K83.1.1. Scratching contest with devil: man's wife shows scratches in her oak table. Hdwb. d. Märchens I 193b.

K83.2. K83.2. Contest in scratching skin off each other: covering self with several ox-hides. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1098*.

K84. K84. Deceptive vocal contests.

K84.1. K84.1. Contest in shrieking or whistling. *Type 1084; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 107.

K85. K85. Contest in seeing. *Type 238.

K86. K86. Contest in hearing. *Type 238.

K87. K87. Deceptive laughing contest. Type 42*; Russian: Andrejev No. 42.

K87.1. K87.1. Laughing contest: dead horse winner. The ogre tries to laugh as long as the dead horse with a grinning mouth. Laughs till he dies. Type 1080*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1080.

K90. K90. Other contests won by deception.

K91. K91. Cursing contest. Arrow sent as a curse. Aarne FFC III 44 No. 1094.

K92. K92. Gambling contest won by deception. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 354 n. 276.

K92.1. K92.1. Gambling contest: coin which attracts fly first to win. Winning coin had been rubbed on a pear. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K92.2. K92.2. Game won with loaded dice. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K92.3. K92.3. Girl distracts opponent's attention so that gambling lover wins. India: Thompson-Balys.

K95. K95. Finger-drying contest won by deception. Three daughters are to wet hands; the first to have hands dry is to be the first to marry. The youngest waves her hands, exclaiming, "I don't want a man!" She wins. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 14; U.S.: Baughman; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 701; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K97. K97. Duel won by deception.

K97.1. K97.1. Boar in duel with tiger cakes mud on body: defeats tiger. India* Thompson-Balys.

K97.2. K97.2. Combat won by means of substituted weapons. Zs. f. d. Phil. XXVI 12—13; Icelandic: *Boberg.

K98. K98. Beauty contest won by deception.

K98.1. K98.1. Beauty contest won by deception: other contestants covered with leaves. Tonga: Gifford 186.

K100—K299.

K100—K299. Deceptive bargains.

K100. K100. Deceptive bargains. Icelandic: Boberg.

K110—K149.

K110—K149. SALE OF WORTHLESS ARTICLES

K110. K110. Sale of pseudo-magic objects. French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 23; Missouri French: Carrière.

K111. K111. Pseudo-magic treasure-producing objects sold. India: Thompson-Balys; Korean: Zong in-Sob 178f.

K111.1. K111.1. Alleged gold-dropping animal sold. *Type 1539; BP II 10ff.; Penzer V 5—13; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: Coster-Wijsman 26 No. 5.

K111.2. K111.2. Alleged bill-paying hat sold. *Type 1539; BP II 10; *Fb "hat" IV 202b; India: Thompson-Balys; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 196, 443.

K111.3. K111.3. Pseudo-magic wealth-providing bag sold. India: Thompson-Balys.

K111.4. K111.4. Pseudo-magic formula for making gold sold to king. Gold required for its manufacture carried off by manufacturer. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

K112. K112. Pseudo-magic food-producing object sold.

K112.1. K112.1. Alleged self-cooking kettle sold. *Type 1539; BP II 10; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K112.2. K112.2. "Soup stone" sold. It needs only the addition of a few vegetables and a bit of meat. *Type 1548; *Prato RTP IV 168; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K112.2.1. K112.2.1. Alleged soup-making pot sold. It already has the ingredients in it. Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 242 No. 16.

K112.3. K112.3. Sale of pseudo-magic cake tree. Korean: Zong in-Sob 179 No. 77.

K113. K113. Pseudo-magic resuscitating object sold. Dupe kills his wife (mother) and is unable to resuscitate her. *Type 1535, 1539; BP II 10; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 275.

K113.0.1. K113.0.1. Seven devils' wives imitate ritual of death and resuscitation done over hero; not having the real water of life and death, the seven enemy devils are killed. India: Thompson-Balys.

K113.1. K113.1. Alleged resuscitating bone sold. (Cf. D1013.) Nubian: Sébillot RTP III 394.

K113.2. K113.2. Alleged resuscitating whistle sold. (Cf. D1225). *BP II 10; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 99; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 196; N. A. Indian: *Thompson CColl II 422ff.

K113.3. K113.3. Alleged resuscitating book sold. (Cf. D1266.) Philippine: Fansler

MAFLS XII 137.

K113.4. K113.4. Alleged resuscitating wand sold. (Cf. D1254.1.) *BP II 10; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K113.5. K113.5. Alleged resuscitating fiddle sold. (Cf. D1233.) *BP II 10; Missouri French: Carrière.

K113.6. K113.6. Alleged resuscitating knife sold. (Cf. D1083.) *BP II 10, Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K113.7. K113.7. Alleged resuscitating horn sold. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K113.8. K113.8. Alleged resuscitating bugle sold. Korean: Zong in-Sob 179f. No. 77.

K114. K114. Pseudo-magic oracular object sold. *Type 1535; *BP II 18; *Fb "Spemand".

K114.1. K114.1. Alleged oracular cow-hide sold. *Type 1535; *BP II 18.

K114.1.1. K114.1.1. Alleged oracular horse-hide sold. Type 1535.

K114.2. K114.2. Alleged oracular bird-skin sold. *Type 1535; *BP II 18.

K114.3. K114.3. Alleged oracular pill sold.

K114.3.1. K114.3.1. Virtue of oracular pill proved. The dupe takes it. "It is dog's dung," he says and spits it out. The trickster says that he is telling the truth and demands pay. *Wesselski Gonnella 99ff. Nos. 4, 4a, 105 No. 9; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K114.4. K114.4. Sale of alleged oracular bamboo cup. Chinese: Graham.

K115. K115. Pseudo-magic healing objects sold.

K115.1. K115.1. Alleged healing letter sold. Woman sold a letter to wear around her neck which will prevent eye trouble. It helps only so long as she believes in it. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 153.

K115.1.1. K115.1.1. Alleged healing letter (charm) sold: to aid in childbirth. Actually works. When opened it contains nonsense. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K115.1.2. K115.1.2. Pseudo-magic letter is found to contain insulting remarks. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K115.1.3. K115.1.3. Pseudo-magic charm (letter): to ward off plague. Obscene contents. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K115.1.4. K115.1.4. Pseudo-magic letter (charm): to aid in engendering offspring. Obscene contents. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K115.2. K115.2. Alleged healing stone sold. A sailor boy sells a seasick Jew "Babylon stones" as a cure. They are pieces of coal. Type 1532*.

K115.3. K115.3. Pseudo-magic potion: to induce pregnancy. Found to contain snake's eggs. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K116. K116. Alleged rejuvenating object sold. (Cf. D1338.)

K116.1. K116.1. Betrayal through pretended fountain of youth. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 51.

K116.2. K116.2. Alleged rejuvenating stick sold. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K117. K117. Alleged inexhaustible vessel sold.

K117.1. K117.1. Alleged inexhaustible bottle sold. *Wesselski Bebel I 224 No. 128.

K118. K118. Sale of tree with alleged magic fruit. Indonesia: Coster-Wijsman 24 No. 1.

K118.1. K118.1. Sale of tree alleged to produce clothes. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K119. K119. Sale of other pseudo-magic objects.

K119.1. K119.1. Alleged automatic object sold. U.S.: Baughman.

K119.1.1. K119.1.1. Fishing-rod alleged to take fish to fisherman's home. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K119.1.2. K119.1.2. Sale of reputed self-operating sickle. India: Thompson-Balys.

K119.2. K119.2. Pseudo-magic acorns: to protect holder's pigs. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K120. K120. Sale of false treasure.

K121. K121. Lime (ashes) sold as gold. *Type 1535; *BP II 10; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K122. K122. Sale of gilded mudcakes. India: Thompson-Balys.

K123. K123. Sale of gilded (plated) ware as gold or silver. India: Thompson-Balys.

K126. K126. Trickster, as watchman, exchanges worthless bag for bag of gold at night. India: Thompson-Balys.

K130. K130. Sale of worthless animals.

K131. K131. Animal sold as messenger.

K131.1. K131.1. Rabbit sold as letter-carrier. Alleged to be a swift deliverer of letters. *Type 1539; *BP II 10; Köhler-Bolte I 323; *Herbert III 35; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K131.1.1. K131.1.1. Alleged speaking hare sold as messenger. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K131.2. K131.2. Bird sold as messenger. India: Thompson-Balys.

K132. K132. Wolf sold as a goat (sheep). Types 1535, 1539; *BP II 10; Köhler-Bolte I 323; Missouri French: Carrière.

K133. K133. Wild animal sold as watch-dog.

K133.1. K133.1. Wolf sold as watch-dog. *Type 1542.

K133.2. K133.2. Bear sold as watch-dog. *Type 1542.

K134. K134. Deceptive horse-sale.

K134.1. K134.1. Horse which will not go over trees. Salesman tells buyer that he is selling the horse because it eats too much and will not climb trees. On the way home the horse bites everyone and refuses to cross a bridge. Seller is literally correct. *Wesselski Bebel I 133 No. 33; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 112; England: Baughman; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1631.

K134.2. K134.2. The horse swifter than the rain. Caught in the rain, a trickster finds that his horse will not budge. He undresses, puts his clothes under the horse's belly and keeps them dry. When he reaches the king, he reports that his horse has run so fast that he has had no time to get wet. The king buys the horse. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 228 No. 72.

K134.3. K134.3. Trickster grooms master's old mule and then sells him back without detection at huge profit. Nouvelles Récréations No. 25.

K134.4. K134.4. Trickster in disguise regains possession of his own horse by trading with man whom he has duped once before. Pierre Faifeu No. 47.

K134.5. K134.5. Owner trades a blind horse. He gives a description that is literally correct. U.S.: *Baughman.

K134.6. K134.6. Selling or trading a balky horse. (Cf. K134.2.) U.S.: *Baughman.

K134.7. K134.7. Person trades a dead horse. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

K134.8. K134.8. Trickster temporarily lames valuable horse and buys him for trifle. India: Thompson-Balys.

K135. K135. Pseudo-magic animals sold. Köhler-Bolte I 324; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K135.1. K135.1. Pseudo-magic dog (goat) sold.

K135.1.1. K135.1.1. Dog (goat) alleged to swallow cold. Said to swallow up the cold so that if he is near, one may sleep comfortably in the cold. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K135.1.2. K135.1.2. Dog alleged to chase hare and bring it to hunter's home. Dupe deceived. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K135.1.3. K135.1.3. Sale of dog supposed to excrete sweet dung: dupe deceived. Korean: Zong in-Sob 178f. No. 77.

K136. K136. Sale of dead buffalo by making him seem alive. Indonesia: Coster-Wijsman 24 No. 1.

K137. K137. Alleged speaking animal sold. India: Thompson-Balys.

K137.1. K137.1. Two jars full of live black wasps sold as interpreters of foreign language. India: Thompson-Balys.

K137.2. K137.2. Parrot knowing only two words sold as speaking foreign language. India: Thompson-Balys.

K139. K139. Other worthless animals sold.

K139.1. K139.1. Animals made by magic exchanged for real ones. The magic animals disappear. Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 96.

K140. K140. Sale of other worthless objects.

K140.1. K140.1. Deceptive exchange: useless for magic object. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 280.

K141. K141. Sale of a sausage filled with blood. Type 480*; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 656*.

K142. K142. Sale of worthless glass as diamond. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K143. K143. Sale of dung. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K143.1. K143.1. Pot of cow dung covered with cheese sold as cheese. India: Thompson-Balys.

K144. K144. Exchange of alleged ghee (liquid butter) for goat (cow). India: *Thompson-Balys.

K144.1. K144.1. Pus from sore sold as ghee. India: Thompson-Balys.

K144.2. K144.2. Earthen pot with rice water on top of which clarified butter had been poured sold as a pot of clarified butter. India: Thompson-Balys.

K144.3. K144.3. Mud sold as fresh butter. India: Thompson-Balys

K147. K147. Worthless fruits (plants) sold.

K147.1. K147.1. Green plantains sold as matured plants. India: Thompson-Balys.

K148. K148. Cheaters sell each other valueless articles. India: Thompson-Balys.

K149. K149. Sale of worthless objects—miscellaneous.

K149.1. K149.1. Trick exchange: basket of stones for one of bread; a few pieces of money shown through slit in basket-cover to dupe. India: Thompson-Balys.

K150. K150. Sale of worthless services.

K151. K151. A beggar tells the bishop how to stay warm. For a gulden he tells him that he should wear all his clothes when he goes horseback in winter. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 513.

K152. K152. Thief masked as devil bought off by frightened owner. Type 1525; Scotch: Campbell-McKay No. 11; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3442, Legends Nos. 859f.

K153. K153. The backwards and forwards dance. Dupe persuaded to pay for learning this dance (really moving toward and away from a fire). India: Thompson-Balys.

K154. K154. Trickster feigns ability to influence the sun; sells services. Sun to shine on fools' backs as they go to town in morning and return in afternoon. India: Thompson-Balys.

K157. K157. Fraudulent permission sold.

K157.1. K157.1. Man collects toll fraudulently, stamps "Brass Gate" on receipts he gives. People think this is some Government phrase. India: Thompson-Balys.

K158. K158. Trickster persuades dupe to sacrifice animal and give it to him as payment for supposed services. Chinese: Graham.

K170. K170. Deception through pseudo-simple bargain.

K170.1. K170.1. Deceptive partnership between man and ogre. *Types 1030—1059; India: Thompson-Balys; Icelandic: Boberg.

K171. K171. Deceptive division of profits.

K171.0.1. K171.0.1. Giant cheated in division of spoils of the chase. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 28.

K171.0.2. K171.0.2. Jackal cheats other animals of elephant they have killed together. India: Thompson-Balys.

K171.1. K171.1. Deceptive crop division: above the ground, below the ground. Of root crops the ogre (stupid animal) chooses the tops; of other crops the roots. (Cf. J242.8.) *Type 1030; *BP III 355, 363 n. 1; J. Hackman "Sagan om skördelningen" Folkloristika och etnografiska studier III 140ff.; *Krohn "Bar (Wolf) und Fuchs" JSFO VI 104ff.; Wünsche Teufel 70ff.; Taylor PMLA XXXVI 58 n. 34; *Köhler-Bolte I 69; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 193a, 593b; *Fb "rød".—Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 441, (1928) 271; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 324 No. 161; Missouri French: Carrière; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; West Indies: Flowers 497; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 441, 447ff.; American Negro: Parsons JAFL XXX 175.

K171.2. K171.2. Deceptive grain division: the corn and the chaff. The bear chooses the chaff because of its greater bulk. At the mill the fox's grain makes a different sound from the bear's. *Type 9B; *Dh IV 249ff.; *Krohn "Bar (Wolf) und Fuchs" JSFO VI 97ff.; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 193b.

K171.3. K171.3. Deceptive nut and olive division: inside and outside. The clever man chooses the kernel of the nuts and the outside of the olive. BP III 363.

K171.3.1. K171.3.1. Deceptive sacrifice of nuts and dates. Trickster sacrifices only the shells of the nuts and the inside of the dates. Wienert FFC LVI 80 (ET 456), 103 (ST 164); Halm Aesop No. 315.

C57.1.1. Tabu: fraudulent sacrifice.

K171.4. K171.4. Deceptive division of pigs: curly and straight tails. All with curly tails belong to the trickster, others to the dupe. *Type 1036.

K171.5. K171.5. Deceptive division of animals for shearing. The trickster shears the sheep; the dupe the pig. *Type 1037.

K171.6. K171.6. In dividing the fish, the dupe gets the bones. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 22.

K171.7. K171.7. Deceptive division of shared wife. Evil takes lower half of wife, Good takes upper half. Child begotten by Evil not permitted to nurse the top half which belongs to Good. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

K171.7.1. K171.7.1. The common cow and bull: one gets front of cow and back of bull. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K171.7.2. K171.7.2. Deceptive division of sheep. Evil chooses lambs, leaving milk to Good. Lambs drink up all milk. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

K171.8. K171.8. Barber's and jackal's common garden: jackal pretends that garden has not yielded any fruit at all. India: Thompson-Balys.

K171.9. K171.9. Monkey cheats fox of his share of bananas. Climbs on a tree and tosses peelings down upon fox. India: Thompson-Balys.

K172. K172. Anger bargain. The trickster makes a bargain with his master that the first to become angry must submit to punishment. He thereupon heaps abuses on his master till the latter breaks out in anger and must take his punishment. *Types 650A, 1000; *BP II 293; *Fb "næse" II 716a, "vred" III 1195b; Köhler-Bolte I 327; Irish myth: *Cross, Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "domestique"; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 240; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 433f.; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 113.

K172.1. K172.1. Anger bargain: may God give you a penny. A servant and his mistress agree that when they are angry with each other they shall say, "May God give you a penny!" When the master says this, the servant says, "May he give you two!" They keep increasing the amount till those who hear wonder at the performance. The mistress tells them, "You don't know the coin." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) Nos. 365, 813.

K173. K173. Deceptive bargain: as much bread as he wants to eat. The baker fixes his price at the rate for twenty loaves. The trickster eats thirty. *Chauvin II 125 No. 124.

K174. K174. Deceptive bargain: a sack of corn as reward. Trickster has an enormous sack made. *Wesselski Gonnella 131 No. 25.

K174.1. K174.1. Deceptive bargain: as much grain as will go in a rope. Trickster encloses whole crop. Scotch: Campbell-McKay No. 30.

K175. K175. Deceptive bargain: three wishes. The ogre is to fulfill three wishes of the peasant. The latter wishes for all the tobacco and brandy in the world and then some more brandy in addition. The devil must admit failure. Type 1173*.

K176. K176. Deceptive bargain: first to say "Good morning." The first to give the greeting shall have the disputed property. The trickster is early on the scene and witnesses the other's adultery. He may keep the property without saying good morning. *Type 1735; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 324.

K176.1. K176.1. First to greet the other in morning will lose beauty contest. Dispute is to be settled thus. (Cf. H1529.) India: Thompson-Balys.

K177. K177. Deceptive bargain: fasting together. The servant girl eats secretly; the miser starves. Danish: Kristensen Jyske Folkeminder VII No. 30; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1568A*.

K178. K178. Deceptive bargain: felling the tree. The ogre and the trickster agree to fell a large tree. The trickster purposely dulls his axe on a stone and then asks the ogre to exchange. Rather than work with a dull axe, the ogre does all the work. *Type 1050.

K181. K181. Deceptive bargain: a peck of grain for each stack. The man who is to receive this share of the crop makes very small stacks. *Type 1155.

K182. K182. Deceptive bargain: an ox for five pennies. A woman who has been left the ox on condition that she give the proceeds to the poor offers it for five pennies, but it must be bought along with a cock at twelve florins. She gives the five pennies to the poor and keeps the twelve florins. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 462; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 188 No. 370; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *2449.

K182.1. K182.1. Small niche in house brings large price. House sold reserving niche. This becomes such a nuisance that buyer pays heavily for it. India: Thompson-Balys.

K183. K183. Deceptive bargain: the ogre and the copper coins. Every time the copper coin is paid out, the ogre must make a new one. The man buys an extensive property and pays with a large number of copper coins. He threatens to buy another and the ogre goes back on his contract. Type 1182*.

K185. K185. Deceptive land purchase. (Dido.)

K185.1. K185.1. Deceptive land purchase: ox-hide measure. As much land bought as can be surrounded by an ox-hide. The hide is cut into very small strips. *Type 2400; *Basset Revue d'ethnographie et des trad. pop. IV 97; Köhler-Bolte II 319ff.; Katanoff "Türkische Sagen über Besitznahme v. Ländern nach Art der Dido" Keleti Szemle III (1902) 173ff.; *Fb "ride" III 52b; Basset RTP VI 335, *VII 549, VIII 409; Rosières RTP VI 52; Sébillot RTP V 186; Cordier RTP II 295, 354.—Icelandic: Gering Islendsk æventyri (Halle, 1883) II 92ff., Herrmann Saxo II 656, Boberg; French: Sébillot France IV 111, 180, 214; Estonian: Loorits, Some Notes on the Repertoire of the Estonian Folk-Tale, Tartu 1937, 23ff.; Greek: Aly Volksmärchen bei Herodot 114, 117; Egyptian: Legrain Louqsor sans les Pharaons (Paris, 1914) 64; N. A. Indian (Wyandot): Barbeau GSCan XI 271 No. 91.

K185.2. K185.2. Deceptive land purchase: as much land as Vishnu can lie upon (or can step over in three steps). His worshippers claim for him the whole earth. Hindu: Keith 79.

K185.3. K185.3. Deceptive land purchase: boundary fixed by flight of a goose. Subject given as much land as a goose can fly over without lighting. The man carries the goose with its wings extended over an enormous territory. Harou RTP XXIII 169.

K185.4. K185.4. Deceptive land purchase: as much land as a shawl will cover. An immense shawl prepared. Harou RTP XXIII 169; Java: Bezemer Fabelen en Legendes 216ff.

K185.4.1. K185.4.1. Deceptive land purchase: as much land as can be covered by saint's hood. Only by snatching up hood does seller prevent it from covering whole territory. Irish myth: Cross.

K185.4.2. K185.4.2. Land grant: as much land as can be covered by saint's mantle. Irish myth: Cross.

K185.5. K185.5. Deceptive land purchase: bounds fixed by a race. One man has supernatural speed. RTP XXI 166.

K185.6. K185.6. Deceptive land purchase: bounds fixed by throwing object (axe, spear). Thrower has extraordinary strength. RTP XVIII 222; Harou RTP XI 524.

K185.7. K185.7. Deceptive land purchase: as much land as can be surrounded in a certain time. Fb "ride" III 52b; Irish myth: *Cross.

K185.7.1. K185.7.1. Land bargain: land surrounded by a horse (cow) in one day. Fb "ride" III 52b; Harou RTP XIV 90; India: Thompson-Balys.

K185.7.2. K185.7.2. Land bargain: land ridden around during a sermon. *Fb "f[ö]l" I 400, "ride" III 52b.

K185.7.3. K185.7.3. Deceptive land purchase: king, as reward for help in winning battle, promises wounded chieftain as much land as his chariot can travel around; bribes charioteer to turn back whenever chieftain faints from loss of blood. Irish myth: Cross.

K185.8. K185.8. Land purchase: as much as can be plowed (fenced) in a certain time. *Fb "plove" II 850a, "ride" III 52b; cf. Olrik Danske Studier (1910) 4ff.; Icelandic: Hdwb. d. Märchens I 446b nn. 450—454, Mac Culloch Eddic 181, Boberg; Frisian: Lübbing Friesische Sagen 95.

K185.9. K185.9. Deceptive land purchase: fields that crackle when burnt are to be his. He puts bamboo on the fields before they are burnt so that they crackle. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 289.

K185.10. K185.10. Deceptive land purchase: as much land as can be shadowed by a tree. Bought just before sunset. Japanese: Ikeda; Indonesia: L. de Backer L'Archipel Indien (Paris, 1874) 334.

K185.11. K185.11. Deceptive land purchase: enough to raise certain plant. This is a rapidly spreading weed which overruns the country. Indonesia: Snouck Hurgronje De Atjèhers (Leiden, 1893) II 84.

K185.12. K185.12. Deceptive land purchase: saint's enemy promised as much land as he can see from certain point. Saint causes cloud to obstruct vision. Irish myth: Cross.

K185.12.1. K185.12.1. Land grant: as much land as can be seen on a clear day. Irish myth: Cross.

K185.12.2. K185.12.2. Land grant: as much land as can be seen from certain eminence. Irish myth: Cross.

K185.13. K185.13. Deceptive land bargain: saints agree that the one who casts his staff far enough to reach distant island shall be owner of land. Staff of one contestant transformed to spear (or dart) and so alone reaches island. When saint touches weapon, it becomes staff again. Irish myth: Cross.

K185.14. K185.14. Land grant: as far as ox can be heard. Irish myth: Cross.

K186. K186. Deceptive bargain with ogre: buying trees. Trees to be neither straight nor crooked. *Type 1048.

K187. K187. Strokes shared. The boy promises the soldier what the king has promised to give him. The soldier receives a beating in place of the boy. *Type 1610; Reinhard JAFL XXXVI 380; *BP I 62; *Basset 1001 Contes I 321; Köhler-Bolte I 495; *Chauvin V 282 No. 166; *Wesselski Märchen 202 No. 13; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 614; Hibbard 80 n. 3; Wesselski Mönchslatein 161 No. 122.—English: Wells 161 (Sir Cleges); Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K188. K188. Stealing only a small amount. A man promises in confession to steal only a small amount. He steals a rope with a mare on the end of it. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 146 No. 1800A; West Indies: Flowers 498.

K191. K191. Peace between sheep and wolves. As hostages the dogs are handed over to the wolves; the young wolves to the sheep. The wolves then attack and kill the sheep. Ward II 320; *Herbert III 168f. No. 22; *Crane Vitry 152 No. 45; Wienert FFC LVI *50 (ET 96), 97 (ST 108); Halm Aesop No. 268; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 47.

K192. K192. The man helps the horse against the stag. The horse must agree to be saddled and bridled. The man then refuses to release him. Wienert FFC LVI *71 (ET 356), 108 (ST 208); Halm Aesop No. 175; Herbert III 9; Crane Vitry 182 No. 110; Jacobs Aesop 208 No. 33.

K193. K193. Deceptive bargain based on an unusual name. Japanese: Ikeda; West Indies: Flowers 498.

K193.1. K193.1. "Old Saddle" granted by the king. This is the name of an estate, which the king unwittingly gives away. Anderson FFC XLII 360; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *925.

K194. K194. Bargain: if the sun reverses its course. Because of an eclipse the sun is held to have done so, and Atreus becomes king. Greek: Fox 120.

K195. K195. A ribbon long enough to reach from ear to ear. The rascal has had an ear cut off and this is in a distant city. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 713.

K196. K196. Selling by trickery: literal bargain. (Cf. K134.1.)

K196.1. K196.1. Buying foxes "as they run". Man sells three hundred foxes to buyer who agrees to "take them as they run": reds, silvers, crosses. He gets a large payment to bind the bargain, waves his hand at the woods: "I sold them as they run; and they're running." Canada: Baughman.

K196.2. K196.2. The tall hog. Man boasts of hog so big that a man could not reach its back if he holds his hand as high as possible. A stranger buys the hog, sight-unseen. The seller takes him to the hog, shows the buyer that the hog's back is much below his hand when he holds it as high as possible. England: Baughman.

K196.3. K196.3. Trickster lends bamboo on condition that it is returned exactly as it is. India: Thompson-Balys.

K197. K197. Until the log burns out: time given servant for Christmas holidays. Soaks the log so that it burns a week. North Carolina: Brown Collection I 702.

K198. K198. Cheater is forced to eat excrements. Gentleman agrees to exchange his good horse for the peasant's jade, provided the peasant will eat its excrements. The peasant finds no difficulty in the task, whereas the gentleman, put to the same condition when he wants to get back his horse, finds it impossible. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1533*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1529 I*; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 324f. No. 48, FFC CXXVIII 271f. No. 170.

K199. K199. Other deceptive bargains.

K199.1. K199.1. Deceptive bargain: as much gold in reward as sticks to poet's hair when poured over him: he smears it with tar. Icelandic: Boberg.

K200—K249.

K200—K249. DECEPTION IN PAYMENT OF DEBT

K200. K200. Deception in payment of debt.

K210. K210. Devil cheated of his promised soul. The man saves it through deceit. Irish: Beal XXI 312f., O'Suilleabhain 34, 36; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3390, Legends Nos. 490f., 749f.; Missouri French: Carrière.

K211. K211. Devil cheated by imposing an impossible task. Type 1170—1199; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 636.

K211.1. K211.1. Devil is cheated by giving him task: counting the letters in the church Bible. He is unable to read the holy words. England: Baughman.

K212. K212. Devil cheated by being frightened. *Type 1145—1154; Irish: Beal XXI 311, O'Suilleabhain 33; India: Thompson-Balys.

K212.1. K212.1. Man whispers in devil's ear that his wife is approaching with her broom again. India: Thompson-Balys.

K213. K213. Devil pounded in knapsack until he releases man. *Type 330.

K214. K214. Devil's magic power turned on himself. The hero who is riding the devil as a horse receives supernatural strength from plucking a hair from the devil's mane. He then spurs the devil until he agrees to forego his bargain for the man's soul. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 67 No. 508A*.

K215. K215. Devil cheated by pretended hanging. The man has promised himself to the devil in return for money. He stuffs his clothes with straw and hangs them up. The devil thinks the man has hanged himself and is satisfied. Type 1190*.

K216. K216. Devil to release man for performing seemingly impossible task. The task is performed by trickery.

K216.1. K216.1. The evil woman in the glass case as the last commodity. The man is to belong to the devil as soon as he has sold his goods. If he has any goods that no one will buy, he is to be free. The man puts an evil old woman in a glass case. When the devil sees her, he recognizes her. "Whoever knows her will refuse to buy her." The man goes free. *Type 1170.

K216.2. K216.2. Bringing the devil an unknown animal. The man sends his naked wife on all fours in tar and feathers. The devil has never seen such an animal. *Type 1091; *BP I 411, III 358; *Fb "pige" II 816a, "kjende" II 140, "tjære" III 811a; Lithuanian: Balys Legends Nos. 755f.

K216.2.1. K216.2.1. Guessing name of devil's secret plant. The man's wife in tar and feathers overhears the devil tell the secret name of the crop he has discovered (tobacco). The devil says to the supposed animal, "Get out of my tobacco!" Dh I 194; *BP I 411, III 358.

K216.3. K216.3. Not to sleep for three successive nights. The sleepy man: "I am just thinking, that on earth there are more crooked trees than straight ones ... more hills than plains ... more water than land ..." The devil goes to ascertain these things, meanwhile the man sleeps. Unsuccessful imitation by another man. Lithuanian: Balys Index. No. 813*.

K217. K217. Devil gets another soul instead of one bargained for. The devil bargains with a man for his soul, but the man fulfills his contract and escapes. In envy two persons commit suicide. The devil rejoices that though he lost one he has gained two. Types 361, 362; Russian: Andrejev No. 362.

K218. K218. Devil cheated by religious or magic means. Missouri French: Carrière.

K218.1. K218.1. Devil cheated by having priest draw a sacred circle about the intended victim. Type 810; Irish: Beal XXI 309, O'Suilleabhain 30; Scotland: Baughman.

K218.2. K218.2. Devil cheated of his victim by boy having a bible under his arm. *Type 400; U.S.: Baughman.

K218.3. K218.3. Devil cheated when his victim becomes a priest. Type 811; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 423; Russian: Andrejev No. 811.

K218.4. K218.4. Devil cheated of promised soul by intervention of Virgin Mary. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

K218.5. K218.5. The picture of the Virgin Mary saves the priest. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3268, Legends No. 410ff.

K218.6. K218.6. Penance of priest saves him from devil. The priest, who sold his soul to the devil, orders his servant to cut him (alive) up into pieces, to crucify him on a tree (and the like), thus saves his soul from the devils. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3267, Legends Nos. 405—409.

K218.7. K218.7. Devil is unable to take man contracted to him when friends pray over the corpse. Scotland: *Baughman.

K219. K219. Other ways of cheating the devil of his promised soul. U.S., England, Wales: Baughman.

K219.1. K219.1. Devil cheated of his promised soul by making the intended victim drunk. The devil may punish the drunk man's body but has no power over his soul. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 522.

K219.2. K219.2. Devil cheated of his promised soul when the victim sells his to a comrade. The latter says, "The devil can take only one soul from each person. I bought the soul so that when he comes I can give him one and still save my own." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 279.

K219.3. K219.3. God cheats the devil of his promised soul. The devil is to fill a cask full of money. God knocks the bottom out of the cask. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 91 No. 773B.

K219.4. K219.4. Devil is to get soul of man whether he is buried "inside or outside of church, above or below ground." The man has himself buried in the wall of the church, partly in and partly out of the ground. (Cf. H1052.) England: *Baughman.

K219.5. K219.5. Man cheats devil by giving him sole instead of soul. (Cf. E459.1.) U.S.: *Baughman.

K219.6. K219.6. Devil gets an animal in place of a human being. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3285, Legends Nos. 472, 489.

K219.7. K219.7. Devil gets a flea instead of man's soul. Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 751.

K220. K220. Payment precluded by terms of the bargain. India: Thompson-Balys.

K221. K221. Payment to be made at harvest of first crop. The man plants acorns. *Type 1185; cf. 1184; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn III (1895) 382; German: Schambach und Müller Niedersächsische Sagen und Märchen No. 170.

K222. K222. Payment to be made when last leaf falls. The last leaf never falls from the oak tree. *Type 1184; *BP III 14, 200; Dh I 179; *Krappe Balor 154ff.; *Fb "djævel" I 189a, "løv" II 518; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV 152 No. 79.

K223. K223. The level bushel. The student is to come into the devil's power if at the end of a year he does not at least return for the heaping bushel of gold a level one. The student forthwith hands back the level bushel and keeps the surplus. *Type 1182; *BP III 14 n. 3, 364.

K224. K224. To owe sixteen florins. Horse bought on condition that the buyer pay ten florins and owe sixteen. In court the buyer insists on the bargain and shows that if he pays the sixteen florins which he owes he will break the bargain, for then he would no longer owe. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 110; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K226. K226. The debt will be returned to the devil when the pigs walk instead of run home. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1183A*.

K230. K230. Other deceptions in the payment of debt.

K231. K231. Debtor refuses to pay his debt.

K231.1. K231.1. Refusal to perform part in mutual agreement.

K231.1.1. K231.1.1. Mutual agreement to sacrifice family members in famine. Trickster refuses to carry out his part of the bargain. Louisiana Creole: Fortier MAFLS II 109; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa: Meinhof 200, (Ekoi): Talbot 337, (Nigeria): Tremaine FL XXI 492, (Vandau): Curtis Songs and Tales from the Dark Continent

(New York, 1920) 44; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 230ff. Nos. 39, 40, 41; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 241 No. 14; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 109 n. 2; West Indies: Flowers 499ff.

K231.1.2. K231.1.2. Mutual agreement to divide food. Trickster eats other's food and then refuses to divide his own. Christiansen FFC XXIV 46; India: *Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 501.

K231.1.3. K231.1.3. The dog refuses to help the wolf. A farmer plans to kill a faithful old dog. The wolf makes a plan to save the dog. The latter is to rescue the farmer's child from the wolf. The plan succeeds and the dog is rewarded. The wolf in return wants to steal the farmer's sheep. The dog refuses his assistance. *Type 101; Japanese: Ikeda.

K231.2. K231.2. Reward for accomplishment of task deceptively withheld. Irish myth: Cross; Greek: Fox 81, 94 (Herakles); India: Thompson-Balys; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 13/420).

K231.2.1. K231.2.1. Dancers given one coin instead of ten and have this taken away. Interpreter says they are complaining that the coin is bad. India: Thompson-Balys.

K231.3. K231.3. Refusal to make sacrifice after need is past. In distress a person promises a sacrifice to a god (saint) but disregards the promise when the danger passes. Wienert FFC LVI 78f. (ET 438, 448), 139 (ST 442); Halm Aesop Nos. 49, 58; *Crane Vitry 177 No. 102; Herbert III 8, 36; Scala Celi 56b. No. 316; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 305; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: *Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 501.

K231.3.1. K231.3.1. Sailor offers saint a candle as large as a mast. But he knows that after the storm he will not try to find such a candle. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 304; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K231.3.2. K231.3.2. Golden lamb promised to goddess. Common lamb sacrificed. Greek: Fox 120 (Atreus).

K231.3.3. K231.3.3. The sacrifice of the cock is at last carried out. Postponed until a hawk carries off the cock. Then the woman says, "O holy St. Martin, I have long owed you a living sacrifice. Take the cock as sacrifice, and may it be pleasing to you." Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 320.

K231.3.4. K231.3.4. Horse withheld as sacrifice to a saint refuses to move. The deceiver takes the horse to the church planning to remove him again, but the horse will not stir until a money equivalent has been paid. Wesselski Bebel II 157 No. 179.

K231.3.5. K231.3.5. Sick man offers deity 100 bulls for recovery. When reminded that he does not own so many bulls he explains that he doesn't expect the deity to come to enforce payment. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K231.4. K231.4. Payment of money to the devil impossible, since debtor learns that the devil is dead. Type 822*; Russian: Andrejev No. 822*.

K231.5. K231.5. Debt with worthless bond repudiated.

K231.5.1. K231.5.1. A man bonds his loyalty. When the debt is due he offers the creditor his loyalty. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 568.

K231.5.2. K231.5.2. Hogs used as a mortgage collateral. (Ground hogs.) U.S.:

Baughman.

K231.6. K231.6. False offer to return goods in place of payment.

K231.6.1. K231.6.1. Milk bought on credit poured into one container. The trickster buys it from various women. After it is all poured together he says that each may have her own back. *Pauli (ed Bolte) No. 644.

K231.6.1.1. K231.6.1.1. Order to put a small vessel of milk into huge container. Shrewd group each by himself pours water thinking this will not be detected if the others pour milk. India: Thompson-Balys.

K231.6.2. K231.6.2. Trickster gets strong drink by trickery in returning goods.

K231.6.2.1. K231.6.2.1. Trickster returns a bottle of water instead of the bottle of rum he has just purchased. French (literary), U.S.: Baughman.

K231.6.2.2. K231.6.2.2. Trickster fills his gallon jug half full of water, then has it filled with rum at the store. When seller refuses credit, he pours back half gallon of the liquid—now half rum and half water. Sometimes trickster repeats operation, getting richer mixture with each transaction. U.S.: *Baughman.

K231.7. K231.7. Debtor tells creditor that he has had his reward in the hope of payment. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 741.

K231.8. K231.8. Toad receives water from frog; refuses earth in return. Herbert III 49, 93.

K231.9. K231.9. Servant refused payment because of single mistake. India: Thompson-Balys.

K231.10. K231.10. Man refuses to pay murderer for killing and kills him. India: Thompson-Balys.

K231.11. K231.11. Fish promised in return for bacon. Later: "Drink up the river, you shall then have fish. All the fishes there are mine." Lithuanian: Balys Index No. *1634; Russian: Andrejev No. *2104.

K231.12. K231.12. Debt to be paid "tomorrow". Tomorrow never comes. India: Thompson-Balys.

K231.12.1. K231.12.1. "Come tomorrow". The devil keeps calling daily until the gate with the inscription rots. He then claims his debtor. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1183*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1183*.

K231.13. K231.13. Agreement to leave sum of money on coffin of friend. One puts on his share in cash; other makes out a check for the total amount and takes cash left by the other. U.S.: *Baughman.

K231.14. K231.14. To pay beggar for standing in tank all night. Beggar sees lights in temple. Payment refused since beggar has thus warmed himself. India: Thompson-Balys.

K231.15. K231.15. Trickster cheats by pretending deafness. Palm rat, when asked to throw down nuts according to bargain, replies that he is deaf when eating. Africa: Weeks Jungle 400.

K232. K232. Refusal to return borrowed goods. Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 68, 375, (Hottentot): Bleek 50 No. 24, (Benga): Nassau 198 No. 29; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 349 No. 61.

K232.1. K232.1. By using verse with double meaning man appropriates borrowed goods. India: Thompson-Balys.

K232.2. K232.2. One day and one night: object borrowed for a day and a night retained. Irish myth: Cross.

K232.2.1. K232.2.1. Fairy (god?) loses stronghold by consenting to lend it for "a day and a night." Irish myth: *Cross.

K233. K233. Trickster escapes without paying. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K233.1. K233.1. Bird has new clothes made: flies away without paying. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 37 No. 244; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

K233.2. K233.2. Drinkers argue about who is to pay. They blindfold the bartender who is to catch one of them; the one who is caught will have to pay. While the bartender is blindfolded, the drinkers leave the tavern. England: Baughman.

K233.3. K233.3. Boots made by two cobblers. Trickster sends one of each pair back to be stretched, leaves town with pair of boots made up of the remaining boots. England: Baughman.

K233.4. K233.4. Man orders a bottle of beer, then returns it and takes a loaf of bread instead. He refuses to pay for the bread because he has returned the beer undrunk. He refuses to pay for the beer because he has not drunk it. U.S.: Baughman.

K233.5. K233.5. Jackal refuses payment for being carried. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K233.6. K233.6. Healer to take payment in satisfaction at patient's recovery. India: Thompson-Balys.

K233.7. K233.7. Goods received on partial payment. Buyer refuses to pay more. India: Thompson-Balys.

K233.8. K233.8. Woman promises marriage for pair of earrings: she escapes with them. India: Thompson-Balys.

K234. K234. Trickster summons all creditors at once, precipitates fight, and escapes payment. Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 258 No. 45.

K234.1. K234.1. King promises valuable dog to each of two powerful and mutually hostile tribes. At feast prepared by king the two tribes get into fight and king escapes. Irish myth: *Cross.

K235. K235. Creditor killed or driven away.

K235.1. K235.1. Fox is promised chickens: is driven off by dogs. Type 154; *Krohn Mann und Fuchs 11.

K235.1.1. K235.1.1. Husband promises a cow to tiger; wife frightens the tiger away. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K235.2. K235.2. Thor is to give his hammer in return for Freyja as wife. He masks as a woman and kills the giant who is to receive the hammer. *DeVries Tijdschrift voor Nederlandsche Taal- en Letterkunde XLVII 293ff.; Icelandic: Boberg.

K235.3. K235.3. Man cheats devil of reward: to have man if he gets him at first grasp. Man holds cat which flies in devil's face. (Cf. K210.) French: Sébillot France IV 182.

K235.4. K235.4. Conquered warrior kills victor instead of paying. Icelandic: Boberg.

K236. K236. Literal payment of debt (not real).

K236.1. K236.1. Fifty ships promised. Forty-nine are moulded out of earth. Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 179 n. 3.

K236.2. K236.2. Drinking only after a bargain. A woman having thus sworn keeps buying and selling the same mule many times a day. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 306; Scala Celi 81a No. 463; *Crane Vitry 255 No. 277; Herbert III 24.

K236.3. K236.3. Tribute paid in enchanted snow. After payment, snow takes proper form. Irish myth: *Cross.

K236.3.1. K236.3.1. Saint ransoms prince for much gold and silver. Later all the money vanishes. Saint replies that since the money had been created from nothing, it had simply to return to that state. *Loomis White Magic 127.

K236.4. K236.4. Literal fulfillment of marriage contract. Man to be released when earth is placed at his head (buried). Dies in grave. Irish myth: Cross.

K237. K237. Trickster disguises himself and escapes notice of creditors. *Wesselski Gonnella 104 No. 6.

K238. K238. Deceptive respite in payment obtained.

K238.1. K238.1. Creditor to wait till debtor is shaved. The debtor refuses to finish shaving. Wesselski Bebel I 227 No. 132.

K238.2. K238.2. Man who owes 1000 ducats has his creditor arrested for owing him ten. Thus he hopes to postpone payment of his own debt. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K239. K239. Refusal to tell about the Rhine treasure, though condition demanded is fulfilled when the only one who knows where it is is killed. Icelandic: Boberg.

K241. K241. The castration bargain: wife sent. The trickster castrates the dupe and is to come the next day and be castrated himself. He sends his wife as substitute. *Types 153, 1133; Danish: Kristensen Danske Sagn I (1892) 441, (1928) 276—81.

K242. K242. Creditor falsely reported insane when he demands money. Wesselski Arlotto II 225 No. 92; Gonnella 98 No. 2; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1525L; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K245. K245. King promises beggars new clothes: burns their old and gets much gold and silver. Keeps it. Wesselski Theorie 15; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K246. K246. Death feigned to avoid paying debts. Pierre Faifeu No. 36; India: Thompson-Balys.

K247. K247. Customer takes invitation to buy as invitation to receive the goods free. England, U.S.: *Baughman.

K248. K248. Payment evaded by setting countertasks. India: Thompson-Balys.

K249. K249. Deceptions in payment of debt—miscellaneous.

K249.1. K249.1. Devil loses his grain and gets thistles. God grants the devil one grain crop, which he can create by calling its name. The devil is tricked into forgetting the name and calling "Thistles". Hence his crop is of thistles. Dh I 185ff.

K249.2. K249.2. Payment of the egg-white. A man dreams of an egg hanging under his bed. An interpreter demands half of what he finds as his fee for interpreting the dream. The man finds that the egg is a silver cup filled with gold crowns. He gives the interpreter part of the cup but none of the gold. The interpreter says, "He gave me some of the egg-white but none of the yolk." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 616.

K249.3. K249.3. Pseudo-magic money-dropping ass beaten to death by buyer; cheat says: "Return my ass, I shall return your money." India: Thompson-Balys.

K249.4. K249.4. Payment in worthless goods which are alleged to be valuable goods transformed. India: Thompson-Balys.

K250. K250. Other deceptive bargains.

K251. K251. Deceptive damage claims.

K251.1. K251.1. The eaten grain and the cock as damages. A trickster has only a grain of corn; this is eaten by a cock, which he demands and receives as damages. Likewise when a hog eats the cock and the ox eats the hog. *Type 1655; *BP II 201; *DeVries Volksverhalen II 381 No. 145; India: Thompson-Balys; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Friends 176 No. 24; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII *262 No. 63.

K251.2. K251.2. Trickster demands return of food guest has just eaten: gets damages. India: Thompson-Balys.

K251.3. K251.3. Damages claimed for loss of a charm. Princess lets trickster's fly (alleged to be a charm) escape. India: Thompson-Balys.

K251.4. K251.4. Damages for supposedly lost horse. Horse concealed by owner in loft of stable at inn. Pierre Faifeu No. 46.

K251.5. K251.5. Damages for accidentally broken water pot: to pay for elephant. India: Thompson-Balys.

K251.6. K251.6. Payment to lame man who claims that man's father lamed him. India: Thompson-Balys.

K252. K252. Selling oneself and escaping. *Type 700; BP I 389; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K252.1. K252.1. Deceptive sale of another as slave. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K253. K253. Profitable league made with both parties to a quarrel. Africa (Fang): Nassau 242 No. 9.

K254. K254. Goods misappropriated.

K254.1. K254.1. Dog as wolf's shoemaker eats up the materials. Devours the cow, hog, etc. furnished him. Type 102.

K254.2. K254.2. Trickster eats sacrifice offerings. India: Thompson-Balys.

K1867. K1867. Trickster shams death and eats grave offerings.

K255. K255. Exorbitant price demanded and received.

K255.1. K255.1. Charging thirty cakes for cooking twenty-five. India: Thompson-Balys.

K255.2. K255.2. Crab demands seven patas as payment for four patas of paddy frog has borrowed. India: Thompson-Balys.

K255.3. K255.3. Crow demands young swan in payment for helping swan find feed for its young. India: Thompson-Balys.

K255.4. K255.4. Camel has offered one pound of flesh to jackal for help. Camel's tongue demanded. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K256. K256. Deceptive wages.

K256.1. K256.1. Deceptive wages: as much rice as will go on a leaf. Lotus leaf used. India: Thompson-Balys.

K256.2. K256.2. Deceptive wages: two grains and land to plant them on. Grain multiplies and takes up all of dupe's land. India: Thompson-Balys.

K258. K258. Stolen property sold to its owner. *Type 1544.

K258.1. K258.1. Trickster steals farmer's cow and then sells her to the farmer. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 710.

K258.2. K258.2. Merchant buys the same article several times from the same or different seller. U.S.: *Baughman.

K261. K261. The price of a lump of gold. A trickster asks a goldsmith what he would pay for a lump of gold of a certain size. Believing that the man has such a lump, the goldsmith pays him a large sum. Type 1541*.

K261.1. K261.1. The price of mink skins. Man asks peddler what he pays for mink skins. Peddler says he will pay ten dollars. The man tosses a skin into the cart, receives ten dollars. The next day the peddler protests that the man has sold him a cat skin. The man says that he had not said that the skin was a mink skin and that, anyway, the cat's name had been "Mink." U.S.: Baughman.

K262. K262. The priest made sick of his bargain: three words at the grave. A poor man in return for a steer gets permission from the priest to speak three words at the burial of his enemy, the rich man. Priest: "From earth are you come." Man: "Now the steer is dead." Priest: "In earth shall you remain." Man: "Father, do you want the meat?" Priest: "I wish you were in hell!" etc. Danish: Kristensen Vore Fædres Kirketjeneste 139ff.; 152ff.

K262.1. K262.1. Devil is made sick of his bargain. Devil helps shepherd boy become a minister on condition that he mention Satan by name each time he enters pulpit. Boy consents but does so in such a way that devil begs to abolish the agreement. Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 11 No. 87.

K263. K263. Agreement not to scratch. In talking the trickster makes gestures and scratches without detection. *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XIX 310 n. 2; North Carolina: Brown Collection I 701; India: Thompson-Balys; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 214 No. 37, (South Carolina): Parsons JAFL XXXVIII 218; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 36 No. 29; West Indies: Flowers 502.

K264. K264. Deceptive wager.

K264.1. K264.1. Deceptive wager: whose horse will jump highest. The trickster has his worthless horse jump out the window. The duke will not let his run the risk. *Wesselski Gonnella 131 No. 25; England: Baughman.

K264.2. K264.2. Deceptive wager: cat to carry lantern into room. (Has been specially trained.) India: Thompson-Balys.

K265. K265. The fee used up before the main question is reached. A man with an unsolved question seeks the help of a wit. The latter refuses to answer unless paid. He takes small fees for each easy question leading up to the principal question. Before reaching that point the fee is exhausted, and the question remains unanswered. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 214 No. 39.

K266. K266. New bags for old! Recovery of the old bag (containing money or having magic power) which the stupid wife has given away. The husband exchanges a new bag for it. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 201 No. 393; Chauvin V 64 n. 1.

K275. K275. Counting out pay. Hole in the hat and hat over a pit. *Type 1130; *BP III 421; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 752.

K278. K278. Dupe denied food until hands are clean. Grass burned around food makes continued washings unavailing. Africa (Zezuru): Posselt Fables of the Veld (London, 1929) 110 (Northern Rhodesia): Worthington The Little Wise One (London, 1930) 25ff., (Nyanja): Rattray Some Folk-Lore Stories ... in Chinyanja (London, 1907) 145f. No. 22, (Namwanga): Dewar Chinamwanga Stories (Livingstonia, 1900) 47, (Fang): Anthropos XXVIII 292 No. 7, (Bulu): Krug JAFL XXV 114, (Mossi, Nioniossee, Samo, Yarse, Silmi-Mossi, Fulah): Tauxier Le Noir du Yatenga (Paris, 1917) 458f. No. 59.

K282. K282. Trickster sells what is not his to sell.

K282.1. K282.1. Man contracts for load of hay on the road (without making any payment), orders the seller to deliver it at a certain inn. He then goes to the inn, sells the hay to the innkeeper, and pockets the money. The owner of the hay delivers it at the inn, tries to collect at the inn; the trickster absconds. England: Baughman.

K283. K283. Trickster persuades girl to reveal hidden gold by promising to make it into ornaments. India: Thompson-Balys.

K285. K285. To keep first thing touched. Wealth (or woman) is on platform. First thing touched is ladder leading up. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K286. K286. Reduced prices but false weights. India: Thompson-Balys.

K287. K287. Watered milk sold. India: Thompson-Balys.

K300—K499.

K300—K499. Thefts and cheats.

K300. K300. Thefts and cheats—general. *Bloomfield Am. J. of Philology XLIV 97ff., 193ff., XLVII 205 ff.; *Penzer II 183ff.; *Chauvin VII 134 No. 403 n. 1; Fb "røver".

K300.1. K300.1. Stolen cows cause a war. India: Thompson-Balys.

K301. K301. Master thief. Man undertakes to steal various closely guarded things. Succeeds by cleverness. *Type 1525; *BP III 379; *Fb "stjæle" III 575b; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 850; Werner Zs. f. Vksk. XXXIX 71ff.; Wesselski Theorie 17f. — Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule; Missouri French: Carrière; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 7; Greek: *Frazer Pausanias IV 192; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Indonesia: DeVries Volksverhalen II 385 No. 157; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 71f.; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 349—51, 446f.; Africa: Weeks Jungle 43, (Duala): Lederbogen JAS IV 65, (Cameroon): Lederbogen 129f.

K301.1. K301.1. Youth learns robbery as a trade: boasts of it. *Type 1525; BP III 379ff.; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K301.2. K301.2. Family of thieves. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K302. K302. Female master thief. *BP III 36; Chauvin V 245 No. 147; Japanese: Ikeda.

K302.1. K302.1. Courtesan runs away with men's goods. (Cf. K306.3.) Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 350f.

K304. K304. Nations of thieves. Jewish: Neuman.

K305. K305. Contest in stealing. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K305.1. K305.1. Thieving contest: first steals eggs from under bird; second meantime steals first's breeches. BP III 393 n. 1.

K305.2. K305.2. Friends enter into stealing contest. Steal from each other. (Cf. K306.) Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K305.3. K305.3. Youths execute a series of clever thefts. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K306. K306. Thieves steal from each other. (Cf. K305.2.) India: *Thompson-Balys; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 446.

K306.1. K306.1. The stolen and restolen ham. Two thieves steal a ham from a former companion who has married, have it stolen back, and re-steal it. (Cf. K341.7.1, K362.4.) *Gering Islendzk æventyri (Halle, 1883) II 210ff.; *DeVries Tijdschrift voor Nederlandsche Taal; en Letterkunde XLV 213ff.

K306.2. K306.2. Highjacking. Thief robbed of his booty. Scotch: Campbell-McKay No. 27.

K306.3. K306.3. Man is robbed of gold chain while with prostitute. He swallows her string of pearls in revenge. (Cf. K302.1.) Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K306.4. K306.4. Blind man steals from neighbor who in turn steals from him. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K307. K307. Thieves betray each other. *BP III 393.

K307.1. K307.1. One thief hides in money bag; other carries it off. India: Thompson-Balys.

K307.2. K307.2. One thief entrusted with other thieves' money cheats them. India: Thompson-Balys.

K308. K308. Youngest brother surpasses elder as thief. Type 1525*; Christiansen Norske Eventyr 140 No. 1654.

K310—K439.

K310—K439. THEFTS

K310. K310. Means of entering house or treasury.

K311. K311. Thief in disguise. French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 23; Missouri French: Carrière; India: Thompson-Balys.

K311.0.1. K311.0.1. Thief dressed half white, half black. His father's corpse is guarded by twenty knights in black and twenty in white. By disguising he steals back the corpse. *Type 950; *BP III 395; *Köhler-Bolte I 200; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K311.1. K311.1. Thief disguised as corpse. In the shroud of the supposed dead man is hidden another robber. Type 966; India: Thompson-Balys.

K311.1.1. K311.1.1. Sham dead man brought in sack by confederate. Is killed by his intended victim. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K311.2. K311.2. Thief disguised as angel. Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "ange".

K311.3. K311.3. Thief disguises voice and is allowed access to goods (children). Type 123, BP I 37ff.; Africa (Kaffir): Theal 118, (Zulu): Callaway 144, (Basuto): Jacottet 62ff.; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 236ff. Nos. 40, 42, 43; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 116 No. 91.

K311.4. K311.4. Thief becomes monk in order to rob monastery. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K311.4.1. K311.4.1. Thief disguised as yogi. India: Thompson-Balys.

K311.5. K311.5. Thief disguised as demon. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K311.6. K311.6. Thief takes form of animal. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

- K311.6.1. K311.6.1. Robber disguised as bear is killed. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.
- K311.6.2. K311.6.2. Man allows himself to be carried off by monkeys, who mistake him for cow: steals their magic cups. Chinese: Graham.
- K311.6.3. K311.6.3. Thief disguised as parrot. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K311.6.4. K311.6.4. Magician transforms self into crocodile to steal. Africa (Luba): DeClerq ZsKS IV 204.
- K311.6.5. K311.6.5. Thief disguised as pig. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.
- K311.7. K311.7. Thieves disguised as interior decorators. Steal hangings in palace. Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- K311.8. K311.8. Theft by disguise as son of owner. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K311.8.1. K311.8.1. Thief disguised as owner's wife. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- K311.8.2. K311.8.2. Thief in disguise as long lost son-in-law. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K311.8.3. K311.8.3. Thief pretends to be girl's bridegroom and calls for her. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- K311.8.4. K311.8.4. Thief in clothes of owner. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K311.8.5. K311.8.5. Theft by disguise as owner's grandmother. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K311.9. K311.9. Thieves disguised as fine gentlemen steal provost's purse. Are admitted to court without question. Nouvelles Récréations No. 80.
- K311.10. K311.10. Theft by disguising as palace official. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K311.11. K311.11. Thieves disguised as musicians. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.
- K311.12. K311.12. Thief disguised as menial. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- K311.12.1. K311.12.1. Thief disguised as owner's cook. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- K311.12.2. K311.12.2. Theft by disguise as woman servant. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K311.13. K311.13. Theft by disguise as barber. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K311.14. K311.14. Theft by disguise as merchant (or peddler). India: Thompson-Balys.
- K311.15. K311.15. Thief in disguise as god. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K311.16. K311.16. Thief disguised as girl. India: *Thompson-Balys.
- K1836. K1836. Disguise of man in woman's dress.
- K311.16.1. K311.16.1. Thief disguised as old woman. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K311.16.2. K311.16.2. Thief in the clothes of robbed bride kills bridegroom. Icelandic:

Boberg.

K311.17. K311.17. Thief disguised as beggar. India: Thompson-Balys.

K312. K312. Thieves hidden in oil casks. In one cask is oil; in the others the robbers are hidden. The girl kills them. *Type 954; *Penzer I 133 n. 1; *Fb "kiste" II 134; Chauvin V 83 n. 3; *Basset 1001 Contes II 302; *Wesselski Archiv Orientální II 432; Missouri French: Carrière; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 391.

K312.1. K312.1. Thief hidden in cage that is carried into house. India: Thompson-Balys.

K312.2. K312.2. Entry by master thief into closely guarded city in wood-gatherer's basket. India: Thompson-Balys.

K314. K314. Trickster feigns being pursued by drunken husband to obtain entrance. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K315. K315. Thief enters treasury through secret passage.

K315.0.1. K315.0.1. Underground passage gives entrance to closed chamber. Italian: Basile Pentamerone I No. 2; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K315.1. K315.1. Thief enters treasury through passage made by him as architect of the building. *Type 950; *BP III 394; Köhler-Bolte I 200; *Chauvin VIII 186; Huet RTP XXXIII 1, 109, 253; *Frazer Pausanias V 176ff.; Penzer V 245, *X 285; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K315.2. K315.2. Thief bores hole in house wall, then introduces blackened pot as a feeler. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K315.3. K315.3. Thieves enter palace through hole in wall and abduct new bride. India: Thompson-Balys.

K316. K316. Theft through chimney.

K316.1. K316.1. Theft from giant by fishing through chimney. Type 328; Christiansen Norske Eventyr 45.

K317. K317. Thief copies key by making wax impression. Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 312 No. 68; India: Thompson-Balys.

K317.1. K317.1. Thief enters by burning off locks. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K317.2. K317.2. Entrance into wine cellar by removing lock during absence of mother. Pierre Faifeu No. 7.

K318. K318. Watchdog enticed away. Trickster brings rabbit under his coat. When the king's watchdog gives chase the trickster enters and robs. DeVries FFC LXXIII 208f.

K321. K321. Thief learns location of dupe's food supply by strewing ashes. Fills the dupe's bag with ashes and cuts a hole in the bag. Africa (Benga): Nassau 155, 204 Nos. 19, 32, (Ekoi): Talbot 57, 62, (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 51 No. 6, 83 No. 13; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 248 No. 24; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Friends 12ff. No. 2.

K321.1. K321.1. Girl made to carry shell from which ashes fall: she is thus followed. India: Thompson-Balys.

K322. K322. Theft of gold hoard by spying on secret hiding place. India: Thompson-Balys.

K323. K323. Thief pretends to return grass that has stuck to his clothes to ground where it belongs. India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

K324. K324. Theft by use of coat of invisibility. (Cf. D1361.12.) Chinese: Graham.

K325. K325. Thief feigns illness to be taken in victim's house. (Cf. K341.2.2.1.) Ransacks it while "recovering." Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K330. K330. Means of hoodwinking the guardian or owner.

K330.1. K330.1. Man gulled into giving up his clothes. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 332 n. 199 (occurs in most versions).

K331. K331. Goods stolen while owner sleeps. Missouri French: Carrière; India: Thompson-Balys; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 350; Cook Islands: Beckwith Myth 270; West Indies: Flowers 503.

K331.1. K331.1. Sleeping with open eyes. The man claims to sleep thus and beguiles the ogre into sleeping, so as to rob him. Type 1140*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1140.

K331.2. K331.2. Owner put to sleep and goods stolen. Magic or drugs. Dickson 63, 67 n. 13, 68 n. 15; Irish myth: Cross; Welsh: MacCulloch Celtic 107; Finnish: Kalevala rune 42; India: *Thompson-Balys; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 3/1142).

K331.2.1. K331.2.1. Master thief puts watchers to sleep and cuts off their hair. (Cf. K301.) *Fischer and Bolte 215; India: Thompson-Balys.

K331.2.1.1. K331.2.1.1. Theft after putting owner to sleep by lousing her. India: Thompson-Balys.

K331.2.1.2. K331.2.1.2. Master thief puts guards to sleep and steals meat. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K331.2.2. K331.2.2. Guards fatigued by trickster so that they sleep while goods are stolen. Africa (Kaffir): Theal 179.

K331.3. K331.3. Worthless object (animal) substituted for valuable while owner sleeps. India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Hottentot): Held 21ff.

K331.4. K331.4. Mouse's tail in mouth of sleeping owner causes him to cough up magic object. India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Kordofan): Frobenius Atlantis IV 134ff. No. 13.

K331.5. K331.5. Trickster steals magic doll while owner is asleep. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K331.6. K331.6. The foolishly concealed money: A man hangs a bag of money in the top of a high tree. Servant sleeping with him steals it. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1858*.

K331.7. K331.7. Thief lies down in the space between the king's and the queen's bed and steals jewelry from both. India: Thompson-Balys.

K332. K332. Theft by making owner drunk. *Type 1525A; BP III 379ff.; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 850; Irish myth: Cross; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 297.

K332.1. K332.1. Theft by giving narcotic to guardian of goods. India: Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 225.

K333. K333. Theft from blind person. India: *Thompson-Balys; Oceanic (New Zealand, Tahiti, Mangaia, Hawaii, Melanesia, Micronesia, Indonesia): Dixon 46, 59, 65; Maori: Clark 160; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 230; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G. 3/931).

K333.1. K333.1. Blind Dupe. A blind man's arrow is aimed for him by his mother (or wife) who deceives him into thinking that he has missed his aim. She eats the slain game herself. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 78, 202; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 354 n. 278.

K333.2. K333.2. Theft from three old women who have but a single eye among them. The hero seizes their eye. *BP IV 112 n. 5; *Frazer Apollodorus I 155 n. 4.

K333.3. K333.3. Buzzard steals coyote's eyes, while he is throwing them up in the air. N. A. Indian (Klikitat): Jacobs U Wash II 36.

K333.4. K333.4. Blind beggar overheard telling that his money is kept in a stick. Thief exchanges sticks. India: Thompson-Balys.

K333.5. K333.5. Theft by blinding with pepper. S. A. Indian (Toba): Métraux 125.

K334. K334. Owner gives up goods through flattery. India: Thompson-Balys.

K334.1. K334.1. The raven with cheese in his mouth. The fox flatters him into singing, so that he drops the cheese. *Type 57; *Basset RTP VI 244 n. 4; Crane Vitry 172 No. 91; Wienert FFC LVI 52 (ET 121), 97 (ST 115); Halm Aesop 204; *Chauvin III 76 No. 49; Jacobs Aesop 202 No. 8; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 17 No. 11. — Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys; Korean: Zong in-Sob 29 No. 12.

K334.2. K334.2. Goat induces the camel to talk and meanwhile eats all the food. India: Thompson-Balys.

K335. K335. Thief frightens owner from goods. Type 1166; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 303 n. 109b; Africa (Ibo, Nigeria): Basden 278, (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 52 No. 6, (Wakweli): Bender 63; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Remus 98 No. 20, Nights 61 No. 12.

K335.0.1. K335.0.1. Owner frightened from goods by report of approaching enemy. *Type 328; BP III 83f.; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K335.0.2. K335.0.2. Owners frightened away from goods by report of deadly epidemic. Poor parson thus rids himself of unwelcome guests; they leave food they have brought. *Wesselski Arlotto II 217 No. 81.

K335.0.2.1. K335.0.2.1. Thieves steal pig and make it impersonate person with plague. Owner and family flee. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K335.0.3. K335.0.3. Trickster quarrels with owner of goods, feigns death, and frightens owner away. Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 255 No. 35.

K335.0.4. K335.0.4. Owner frightened away from goods by a bluff. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K335.0.4.1. K335.0.4.1. Dupe, made to believe that trickster becomes a wolf when he yawns three times, flees and leaves his clothes behind him. *Wesselski Gonnella 103 No. 5; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K335.0.4.2. K335.0.4.2. Porcupine, made to believe that rabbit's ears are horns, flees and leaves food behind. Africa (Nuba): McDiarmid Sudan Notes and Records X 229f.

K335.0.5. K335.0.5. Owner frightened from goods by apparitions of the dead. (Cf. K335.1.2.)

K335.0.5.1. K335.0.5.1. Thief places candles on crabs (bugs). When they are turned loose in the churchyard the parson and the sexton think that they are the souls of the dead. Meanwhile the thief steals from them. *Type 1740; *BP III 388; Italian Novella: *Rotunda (K2334).

K335.0.5.2. K335.0.5.2. Thief frightens priest as the latter crosses cemetery. Meanwhile a confederate steals his chickens. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K335.0.6. K335.0.6. Owner frightened from goods by trickster's ferocious animal. Pretended dog is really a lion. Africa (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 388 No. 14.

K335.0.7. K335.0.7. Thief frightens away guards of his father's corpse by impersonating demons. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K335.0.8. K335.0.8. Town crier is frightened by the voice of a cleric robbing a grave. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K335.0.9. K335.0.9. Delivery boy is frightened into giving up his chickens. Trickster upturns his eyelids and puts on boar's tusks. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K335.0.10. K335.0.10. Trickster lights torches and bluffs old woman into giving him money. Torches alleged to belong to man coming to collect damages from her. India: Thompson-Balys.

K335.0.11. K335.0.11. Servants frightened by ferocious actions of robbers; give up masters' food. Pierre Faifeu No. 13.

K335.0.12. K335.0.12. Owner frightened away by thief disguised as devil. Pierre Faifeu No. 33.

K335.0.13. K335.0.13. Owner frightened from goods by trickster's summons of wild buffalo herd. India: Thompson-Balys.

K335.1. K335.1. Robbers frightened from goods. Trickster steals the goods. Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 211 No. 428, 215 No. 446; Missouri French: Carrière; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K335.1.0.1. K335.1.0.1. Frightened robber leaves his coat behind. Chauvin II 83 No. 5; Bødker Exempler 273 No. 6.

K335.1.1. K335.1.1. Object falls on robbers from tree. They flee and leave money. India: *Thompson-Balys; Korean: Zong in-Sob 144, 147 No. 64.

N331.2.1. Man hidden in tree so frightened of lioness he drops his sword and kills her.

K335.1.1.1. K335.1.1.1. Door falls on robbers from tree. They flee and leave money. *Types 1650, 1653; *BP I 520; *Köhler-Bolte I 71, 99, 337, 341; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 182 No. 345; *Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 194; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 350; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 306; N. A. Indian (Malecite): Speck JAFL XXX 484.

K335.1.1.2. K335.1.1.2. Cow-hide falls on robbers from tree. They flee and leave money. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K335.1.1.3. K335.1.1.3. Person falls from tree on robbers. They flee and leave money. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K335.1.2. K335.1.2. Robbers frightened from goods by the dead. (Cf. K335.0.5.) India: Thompson-Balys.

K335.1.2.1. K335.1.2.1. Corpse thrown among robbers frightens them from treasure. *Type 1653B.

K335.1.2.2. K335.1.2.2. Robbers frightened from goods by sham-dead man. Type 1654; DeVries Tijdschrift voor Nederlandsche Taal- en Letterkunde XLV 213; Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 211 No. 429; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1654, 1654A; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV No. 1654*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1654*; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 130 No. 1532, 137 No. 1654*, 142 No. 1716*; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

K335.1.3. K335.1.3. Robbers frightened from goods by man's outcry. Trickster hits a slain ox and cries out, "Those others did it!" The thieves flee and leave their treasure. Type 1525D; India: Thompson-Balys.

K335.1.4. K335.1.4. Animals climb on one another's backs and cry out; frighten robbers. *Type 130; *Aarne FFC XI 112; India: Thompson-Balys.

K335.1.4.1. K335.1.4.1. Animals cry out; frighten robbers. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

K335.1.5. K335.1.5. Robber frightened from his goods by playing of bagpipe. Type 1706*.

K335.1.6. K335.1.6. Robbers frightened from goods by hidden man. Type 1875; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

K335.1.6.1. K335.1.6.1. Thieves steal chest containing hidden paramour. Are frightened away by his outcry. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K335.1.6.2. K335.1.6.2. Robbers frightened from goods by Thumbling. They can hear him but cannot see him. India: Thompson-Balys.

K335.1.6.3. K335.1.6.3. The thief in the beehive. Other thieves come to steal the bees, take the heaviest hive to the forest and make a fire under it. They flee when they hear a man screaming in the beehive. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1887*.

K335.1.7. K335.1.7. Guardian beast overcome by hero's mirrors. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K335.1.8. K335.1.8. Robbers frightened from goods by man in tar and feathers. Type 1527.

K335.1.9. K335.1.9. Robbers coming to steal from stable frightened away by bear staying the night there with his keeper. Type 957.

K335.1.10. K335.1.10. Robbers frightened by pretended cannibalism. Tricksters threaten to cook a robber. All the robbers flee in terror, leaving them their booty. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 967*.

K335.1.11. K335.1.11. Sons of thief frightened by threatening to bring the three strongest men to punish them. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

K335.1.12. K335.1.12. Thieves frightened by ghosts who tie fruits to their hair, which they think are missiles thrown at them. India: Thompson-Balys.

K336. K336. House filled with smoke so that owner gives trickster lodging. Type 1527*.

K336.1. K336.1. Fire set to village so that robbers can steal goods. Korean: Zong in-Sob 213 No. 98.

K336.2. K336.2. Trickster fills house with smoke so that partner cannot see to eat. Africa (Cameroon): Lederbogen 75.

K337. K337. Oversalting food of giant so that he must go outside for water. Meantime his goods are stolen. *Type 328; *Fb "salt" III 148b; Icelandic: Boberg.

K337.1. K337.1. Thief sends owner for water in leaky basket. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 87.

K338. K338. Thief ties owner's hair while he escapes with goods. Japanese: Anesaki 229, Ikeda.

K341. K341. Owner's interest distracted while goods are stolen. Type 15*; Lithuanian: Balys Index Nos 1525J, 2425, 2436*; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

K341.1. K341.1. Trickster reports lost money; searchers leave him in possession of premises. Unable to find a place by the inn fire the trickster mentions that he has lost money on the road. One by one the guests slip out to search and leave him the fire. *Wesselski Arlotto I 203 No. 34; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K341.2. K341.2. Thief shams death and steals. Types 1, 1*; India: Thompson-Balys; S. A. Indian (Apapocúva-Guarani); Métraux MAFLS XL 112.

K341.2.1. K341.2.1. Animal feigns death repeatedly and then entices owner from goods. Japanese: Ikeda; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Remus 72 No. 15; (North Carolina): Parsons JAFL XXX 172, (Virginia): Bacon and Parsons JAFL XXXV 275f.; Andros Islands, Bahamas: Parsons MAFLS XIII 10 No. 8.

K341.2.2. K341.2.2. Thief shams sickness and steals. India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Fang): Tessman 41.

K341.2.2.1. K341.2.2.1. Man feigns sickness in order to go back to steal hidden gold. (Cf. K325.) Chinese: Graham.

K341.3. K341.3. Thief distracts attention by apparently hanging (stabbing) himself. *Type 1525D; BP III 391 n. 1; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 850; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1525H; Russian: Andrejev No. 1525CI*; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 129 No. 1525A.

K341.4. K341.4. Thief persuades owner of goods to dive for treasure. Meantime robs him. India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Mpongwe): Nassau 18ff. No. 2; West Indies: Flowers 504.

K341.4.1. K341.4.1. Owner persuaded to climb tree while goods are stolen. India: Thompson-Balys.

K341.4.1.1. K341.4.1.1. Owner of horse climbs tree after thief, who drops down and rides off on owner's horse. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K341.5. K341.5. Owner enticed to chase game while goods are stolen. Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 8; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

K341.5.1. K341.5.1. Theft of horses (cattle) by letting loose a rabbit so that drivers join in the chase. *Type 1525A; BP III 379ff.

K341.5.2. K341.5.2. Partridge pretending to be wounded entices woman from food while jackal eats it. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K341.6. K341.6. Shoes dropped to distract owner's attention. The thief drops two shoes in different places and steals a ram while the shepherd goes after the shoes. *Type 1525D; *BP III 390 n. 2; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Friends 160 No. 22; Andros Islands, Bahamas: Parsons MAFLS XIII 11 No. 9; Antigua, British West Indies: Johnson JAFL XXXIV 74 No. 33; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 86 No. 28.

K341.7. K341.7. Animal's cry imitated to distract owner's attention from his goods. Meantime rascal steals an animal. Type 1525D; *BP III 391 n. 2.

K341.7.0.1. K341.7.0.1. Baby's cry imitated to distract owner's attention from his goods. Japanese: Ikeda.

K341.7.1. K341.7.1. Cattle let loose so as to distract owner's attention from his goods. *Gering Islendzk æventyri (Halle, 1883) II 210ff.

K341.7.2. K341.7.2. Cat made to mew so as to distract owner's attention from his goods. India: Thompson-Balys.

K341.7.3. K341.7.3. Golden deer sent to entice girl's guardians away, so she can be abducted. India: Thompson-Balys.

K341.8. K341.8. Thief pretends to show how horse can be stolen; rides it off. *Type 1525B; U.S.: Baughman; Japanese: Ikeda.

K341.8.1. K341.8.1. Trickster pretends to ride home for tools to perform tricks. Rides away on horse. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1532*; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV No. 1528*; Rumanian: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII No. 1332*.

K341.8.2. K341.8.2. Thief pretends to horse dealer that he wishes to buy a horse. Dealer allows him to climb on horse to see how he rides; thief runs off with horse. India: Thompson-Balys.

K341.8.3. K341.8.3. Thief shows knife-maker use of purse-cutting knife: cuts his purse and robs him. Nouvelles Récréations No. 81.

K341.8.4. K341.8.4. King loses signet ring while endeavoring to learn from a thief the art of stealing. India: Thompson-Balys.

K341.9. K341.9. Thief tells his pursuer that the thief has gone to heaven by way of a tree. While the man lies on the ground and looks up, the thief steals his horse. *Type 1540; Aarne FFC XXII 3—109, especially 93ff.

K341.9.1. K341.9.1. Thief persuades owner to take his place so he can go and catch thief: really steals owner's horse. India: Thompson-Balys.

K341.10. K341.10. Trickster bribes guards to start a fight. While the master goes to investigate, the trickster enters his bed with his wife. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 129 No. 1525.

K341.11. K341.11. Owner's attention distracted by man fishing in street. Meanwhile the man's confederates rob the dupe. *Type 1525C.

K341.11.1. K341.11.1. Guard (owner) sent to see a cat which fishes for her master. Goods stolen in his absence. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K341.12. K341.12. Trickster falsely announces marriage celebration and distracts owner's attention. Africa (Kaffir): Theal 109.

K341.13. K341.13. Tailor throws piece of cloth out of the window. The stingy woman has the tailor come to her house to cut cloth. He throws a piece out of the window, "the devil's share". While the woman has gone after it he cuts off a piece for himself. Type 1567.

K341.13.1. K341.13.1. Master thief pretends to throw needle and thread in anger at his son. But it contains stolen cloth. India: Thompson-Balys.

K341.14. K341.14. Thief steals belongings of his wife's paramour while the latter is calling on her. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K341.15. K341.15. One thief distracts attention of owner while other steals. India: Thompson-Balys.

K341.15.1. K341.15.1. Thief steals pastries while confederate makes a purchase. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K341.16. K341.16. Stone thrown to attract attention of shark guardians. Man then slips in cave and steals lobsters. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 443.

K341.17. K341.17. Trickster entices children to dance and steals their food. India: Thompson-Balys.

K341.17.1. K341.17.1. Thieves ask nurse maid to dance while they steal prince. French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule.

- K341.18. K341.18. Helpful animal amuses princess with tricks and secures key to treasury. Africa (Nubia): Basset Contes populaires d'Afrique 133ff. No. 52, (Swahili): Steere 13ff.
- K341.19. K341.19. Trickster poses as entertainer: steals meat while host assembles friends. Africa (Cameroon): Lederbogen 80.
- K341.20. K341.20. The story about theft. One thief steals, the other relates the situation, in the form of a tale, to the gentleman who is being robbed. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1525J*; Russian: Andrejev 1525II*; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- K341.21. K341.21. The dance of the thief. While singing and dancing in the farmer's house, the thief gives hints to his friend in the loft, how to steal the bacon. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1629*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1525 II*.
- K341.22. K341.22. The supposed magic spell. The thief orders the farmer to crawl into a tub and to sit there quietly and not look about, while he makes a magic spell (cure him of childlessness). Meanwhile, he steals all the farmer's property. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1629*; Italian Novella: Rotunda (K341.16); India: Thompson-Balys.
- K341.23. K341.23. Fire set in order to distract attention. India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Duala): Lederbogen JAS IV 65.
- K341.24. K341.24. Man stands on pillory to attract attention. Confederate picks pockets of men who come to jeer. England: Baughman.
- K341.25. K341.25. Fox drops goldsmith's child to get him away from gold bench he is working on and thus steal gold. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K341.26. K341.26. Partridge plays hide-and-peek with girls while fox eats the curds they are taking to market. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K341.27. K341.27. Trickster starts argument and steals from arguers. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 2425*; India: *Thompson-Balys.
- K341.28. K341.28. Miser enticed from his money by report of "money tree". India: Thompson-Balys.
- K341.29. K341.29. Man lures fox-husband of girl away by means of cock-decoy and runs away with the girl. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K342. K342. Thief as umpire in contest. Three men are quarreling over the possession of a rescued girl. The umpire will give her to the one who soonest returns with the arrow he shoots. While they run, he takes the girl. Chauvin V 91 No. 196, 212 No. 121; India: Thompson-Balys.
- K343. K343. Thief advises owner to go away; meantime steals the goods. Africa (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 69 No. 10.
- K343.0.1. K343.0.1. Innkeeper deceived into going under the floor of the granary; meantime robbed. Type 967.
- K343.1. K343.1. Owner sent on errand and goods stolen. Louisiana Creole: Fortier MAFLS II 110; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Fjort): Dennett 77 No. 17; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Friends 77 No. 1, Nights 241 No. 41; Jamaica: Beckwith

MAFLS XVII 251 No. 29, 255 No. 36; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 97; West Indies: Flowers 505.

K343.1.1. K343.1.1. Bread dropped in mud; messenger returns for more. A youth poses as a rich man's servant and gets a sack of bread from a baker. The baker boy is to go along and collect. The rascal drops two loaves in the mud and sends the boy back for fresh ones. Meantime he runs off with the rest of the bread. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 651.

K343.1.2. K343.1.2. Theft by reporting relative's sickness. Woman falsely told that her father is wounded leaves her water pot with jackal. India: Thompson-Balys.

K343.2. K343.2. Thief advises that slaughtered meat be hung up over night. Meantime he steals it. Africa (Zulu): Callaway 6; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 123 No. 23.

K343.2.1. K343.2.1. The stingy parson and the slaughtered pig. The stingy parson does not want to give any one a part of his pig, which he has just slaughtered. The sexton advises him to hang the pig up in the garden over night so as to make everyone think that it has been stolen. The sexton steals it himself. *Type 1792; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 790; Lee Decameron 257f.; Taylor MPh XV 226.

K343.2.2. K343.2.2. Thief advises that new cloth be hung in the open overnight. Steals it while owner sleeps. Pierre Faifeu No. 21.

K343.3. K343.3. Companion sent away so that rascal may steal common food supply. India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Cameroon): Gantenbein 70; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 128 No. 24, 230 No. 39, 280 No. 47, Work JAFL XXXII 403, (Virginia): Smiley JAFL XXXII 368, (South Carolina): Parsons JAFL XXXIV 8, MAFLS XVI 31f.; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 109 No. 38.

K343.4. K343.4. Monkeys lure tortoise into a tree and carry away his load of salt. India: Thompson-Balys.

K343.5. K343.5. Cheat induces dupe to go get food reported found and steals clothes as soon as they are left behind. India: Thompson-Balys.

K344. K344. Owner persuaded that his goods are spoiled. (Cf. K355.) Bødker Exempler 292 No. 50; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 123 No. 23.

K344.1. K344.1. Trickster gives a woman a knife to cut him a slice of white bread. He gets the whole loaf when he says that he has just cut a dog with the same knife. Type 1578*.

K344.1.1. K344.1.1. The polluted fish. Servant places his one fish with Brahmin's entire catch; receives all since Brahmin considers all polluted. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K344.1.2. K344.1.2. The "spoiled" anchovies. Servant eats all of master's anchovies. When master asks for some, the servant brings in a covered dish, and tells him that the fish smell very bad. The master tells the servant to throw them away. Spanish: Childers.

K344.1.3. K344.1.3. Trickster cuts up partridges with his knife. He is given all of them when he tells his companions that he is an executioner. Spanish: Childers.

K344.1.4. K344.1.4. Trickster puts filth in food. May take it all. India: Thompson-Balys.

K344.2. K344.2. Spoiling the rice-field with dung. Dupe persuaded that the dung has spoiled the field. He gives the field to the trickster. Indonesia: Coster-Wijsman 25 No. 2.

K344.3. K344.3. Son-in-law steals father-in-law's pants by making latter believe he has dirtied them. Chinese: Graham.

K345. K345. Sympathetic helper robbed.

K345.1. K345.1. Sympathetic helper sent for remedy and robbed. Africa (Benga): Nassau 86 No. 4, (Thonga): Junod 221, (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 386 No. 12.

K345.2. K345.2. Thief sent into well by trickster. A weeping boy tells a passing thief that he has lost a silver cup in a well. The thief takes off his clothes and goes after the cup, intending to keep it. He finds nothing. When he comes up, his clothes have been stolen. Hdwb. d. Märchens I 346a n. 126; BP III 392f.; Wienert FFC LVI 84 (ET 502), 106 (ST 183); India: *Thompson-Balys.

K345.3. K345.3. Dupe left to care for child while his goods are stolen. India: Thompson-Balys.

K345.4. K345.4. Antelope sends leopard for fire, eats game while leopard is gone. Africa (Kiyansi): Van Whig Biblioteca Africana IV 52.

K346. K346. Thief trusted to guard goods. Bødker Exempler 279 No. 21; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Wute): Sieber 191; West Indies: Flowers 505.

K346.1. K346.1. Thief guards his pursuer's horse while the latter follows a false trail. Steals the horse. *Type 1540; Aarne FFC XXII 3-109; *BP II 440; Berber: Basset Contes Berbères (Paris, 1887) I 114; India: Thompson-Balys.

K346.1.1. K346.1.1. King persuaded to change clothes with thief disguised as old woman. Thief rides king's horse away. India: Thompson-Balys.

K346.2. K346.2. Herdsman slaughters animals entrusted to him. India: Thompson-Balys.

K346.3. K346.3. Woman persuaded to go after her forgotten comb. Goods stolen by guard. India: Thompson-Balys.

K346.4. K346.4. Thief trusted to guard shawls during prayers. Steals them. India: Thompson-Balys.

K346.5. K346.5. Cloak as surety that owner will return. Thief runs away with it. India: Thompson-Balys.

K346.6. K346.6. Thief takes mistress's ornaments across river on pretense of keeping them safe, and then deserts her. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 884.

K347. K347. Cozening. Trickster's claim of relationship causes owner to relax vigilance. Goods stolen. Type 314*; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K347.1. K347.1. Prostitute claims to be intended victim's daughter. Robs him. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K348. K348. Trickster causes owner and another to fight over goods. Meantime he steals it. Wienert FFC LVI 48 (ET 71), 119 (ST 293); Halm Aesop No. 247; Panchatantra III 10 (tr. Ryder 343); West Indies: Flowers 505.

K351. K351. Trickster permitted to try on clothes. Goes away with them. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 727.

K351.1. K351.1. Trickster persuades tailor to leave his goods. Makes him believe he will get order to clothe fifty poor. Trickster makes away with goods. (Or tries on boots and makes away with them.) Nouvelles Récréations No. 23; Pierre Faifeu No. 21; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K351.2. K351.2. Thief borrows cloak so to carry food. Disappears with it. India: Thompson-Balys.

K351.3. K351.3. Trickster permitted to try on ornaments. Goes off with them. Cook Islands: Beckwith Myth 445.

K352. K352. Theft by posing as doctor. Trickster advises wife to slaughter pig and have the trickster eat it all. Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 252 No. 30.

K353. K353. Theft by posing as magician. Trickster claims to be working magic spell over food and eats it. India: Thompson-Balys.

K354. K354. Trickster asks hospitality: expels owner and appropriates house.

K354.1. K354.1. Crow asks hospitality of sparrow and gradually takes possession of nest and kills young. (Often told of camel and tent.) India: Thompson-Balys.

K355. K355. Trickster pollutes house so that he is left in possession. He is in upper room and throws filth on those below (Cf. K344.) American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 26 No. 6; Bahama: Parsons MAFLS XIII 84, Edwards MAFLS III 74; West Indies: Flowers 504.

K355.1. K355.1. Trickster pretends to have spit in wine accidentally. Is allowed to drink it. Korean: Zong in-Sob 104 No. 56.

K356. K356. Tricksters feign death of their father. Collect rent and flee. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K357. K357. Pickpockets strike man on leg so that he takes his hand off his purse. Nouvelles Récréations No. 79.

K358. K358. Signal for theft given in foreign language. Nouvelles Récréations No. 84.

K359. K359. Means of hoodwinking guardian or owner—miscellaneous.

K359.1. K359.1. Theft by means of magic invisibility. Chinese: Graham.

K359.2. K359.2. Thief beguiles guardian of goods by assuming equivocal name. India: Thompson-Balys.

K359.2.1. K359.2.1. Thief of sweetmeats says his name is Fly. Child shouts to father, "Fly is eating," etc. "Never mind the fly, guard against the cow." India: Thompson-Balys.

K359.3. K359.3. Trickster dupes woman into putting him into basket. He thus learns where food is kept. India: Thompson-Balys.

K359.4. K359.4. Crow makes friends with pigeon so as to be able to steal food in household to which he belongs. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 557.

K359.5. K359.5. Objects stolen by means of magic impersonation. India: Thompson-Balys.

K360. K360. Other means of theft.

K361. K361. Theft by disobeying orders: misappropriation.

K361.1. K361.1. Jackal ordered to take meat to lion's family takes it to his own. Africa (Hottentot): Bleek 1 No. 1, 5 No. 3, (Kaffir): Theal 92, 186.

K361.1.1. K361.1.1. Man calling self "her husband" abducts child. India: Thompson-Balys.

K361.2. K361.2. Tricksters eat up food given them for bear. Escape. India: Thompson-Balys.

K361.3. K361.3. Man eats up food given him by tiger as bait for deer. India: Thompson-Balys.

K361.4. K361.4. Monk entrusted with care of getting husband for girl, takes dowry himself. Heptameron No. 56.

K361.5. K361.5. Uncle entrusted with niece's patrimony slanders her so marriage will be broken off and he will not have to part with her money. India: Thompson-Balys.

K361.6. K361.6. Covetous husband desiring wife's jewels tells her he has vowed to offer them to deity. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 356.

K362. K362. Theft by presenting false order to guardian. *Wesselski Mönchslatein 126 No. 109; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Ibo, Nigeria): Basden 274; West Indies: Flowers 506-8.

K362.0.1. K362.0.1. Unique weapon got by misrepresenting to guardian use to which it is to be put. Irish myth: Cross.

K362.1. K362.1. For the long winter. The numskull has been told to keep the sausage "for the long winter". When the trickster hears this, he claims to be Long Winter and receives the sausage. *Type 1541; *Fb "tosse" III 832a, "pølse" II 907b; BP I 521, 526; Christensen DF L 46; *Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 194 n. 3; Icelandic: Sveinsson FFC LXXXIII No. 1541.

K362.2. K362.2. Ring to put on corpse's finger. A thief holds a corpse up to a lord's window. The lord shoots the corpse and leaves to bury it. The thief goes to the lady and gets a sheet to bury the corpse in and a ring to put on his finger. *Type 1525A; BP III 379; Missouri French: Carrière; Jewish: Neuman.

K362.3. K362.3. The cup to be repaired. A thief poses as a messenger from a husband to his wife asking that a certain silver cup be sent for repairs. *Wesselski Mönchslatein 126 No. 109; Scala Celi 101a No. 543; Mensa Philosophica No. 56; Italian Novella:

Rotunda.

K362.3.1. K362.3.1. Stealing the platter for the intended gift. Thief asks for silver platter saying that it is needed for an intended gift of confections. Servant carrying platter is told to wait until it is filled. Thief disappears with it. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K362.4. K362.4. Theft by posing as master of the house and learning where goods are hidden. Wife deceived in the dark. *Gering Islenzk æventyri (Halle, 1883) II 210ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K362.5. K362.5. Hare in lion's skin gets meat from lioness. Africa (Thonga): Junod 211.

K362.5.1. K362.5.1. Fox drinks the milk of a tiger's mate by giving her a misleading message. S. A. Indian (Chiriguano): Métraux RMLP XXXIII 180.

K362.6. K362.6. Deposit money secured by false order to banker's wife. When banker refuses to redeliver deposit the owner presents false tokens to wife. Jewish: Bin Gorion Born Judas II 245.

K362.7. K362.7. Theft by forgery: signature forged to obtain money. Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

K362.8. K362.8. Clerk mistranslates order given by master to maid, so that pie goes to clerks. Nouvelles Récréations No. 14.

K362.9. K362.9. The hood for the robe. Thief steals lawyer's scarlet robe. Later he returns and tells lawyer's wife that her husband had sent him for the hood for the robe. He obtains the hood and escapes. Spanish: Childers.

K362.10. K362.10. Give him what he wants. (Cf. K437.5, K1354.1.) Thief sent to man's house for water, demands money. Man's wife refuses and thief shouts to the husband who replies, "Give him what he wants." India: *Thompson-Balys.

K362.11. K362.11. Hero reports to king that his ancestors (in heaven) want him rewarded with gold. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K364. K364. Partner misappropriates common goods. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges; Africa (Luba): DeClerq Zs. f. Kolonialsprachen IV 221; Philippine (Tinguian) Cole 195.

K365. K365. Theft by confederate. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 130 No. 1525G*; India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Benga): Nassau 160 No. 20; West Indies: Flowers 508.

K365.1. K365.1. Confederate allows self to be sold as slave. India: Thompson-Balys.

K365.2. K365.2. The thieving guests. Rent a room at an inn and empty the mattresses of feathers, take fire wood, etc. Throw goods out of the window where confederate picks it up. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K365.3. K365.3. Theft by wife's paramour. Wife tells him secret of buried money. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 1014.

K366. K366. Theft by trickster's trained animal.

K366.0.1. K366.0.1. Thief feeds stolen money in flour to animal, then asks for ass.

India: Thompson-Balys.

K366.1. K366.1. Thieving cow.

K366.1.1. K366.1.1. Cow makes a hundred-fold return. The trickster has a cow that leads the parson's cows to him. He thus tests the parson's text, "He who gives in God's name shall have it back a hundred-fold." *Type 1735; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 324; *Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 25; *Wesselski Mönchslatein 167 No. 129.

K366.1.2. K366.1.2. Cow enticed away by calf. Brothers are given the choice of a cow or a calf. One chooses the cow and thinks that he has the best of the bargain. The cow longs for the calf and returns to it. Indo-Chinese: Scott Indo-Chinese 296.

K366.1.3. K366.1.3. Self-returning cow. A cow allows itself to be sold; then returns to its master. Hindu: Keith 90.

K366.1.3.1. K366.1.3.1. Animal shams death and is sold. Returns to master. Japanese: Anesaki 329.

K366.1.4. K366.1.4. Cows turned into rice field. Later made to disgorge rice. India: Thompson-Balys.

K366.2. K366.2. Thieving bird. *Wesselski Märchen 231; Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 374.

K366.3. K366.3. Thieving ant. Africa (Fjort): Dennett 126.

K366.4. K366.4. Thieving dog. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K366.5. K366.5. Speaking goat swallows gold coins in temple and voids for master. India: Thompson-Balys.

K366.6. K366.6. Thieving turtle. Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 373.

K366.7. K366.7. Thieving butterflies. Cook Islands: Clark 146.

K366.8. K366.8. Thieving octopus. Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 374.

K371. K371. Trickster hides in food and eats it. India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 57, Coster-Wijsman 35 No. 16; Africa (Thonga): Junod 209.

K371.1. K371.1. Trickster throws fish off the wagon. The fox plays dead; a man throws him on the wagon of fish. The fox throws the fish off and carries them away. *Type 1; BP II 116; Dh IV 225, 304; Krohn Bär (Wolf) und Fuchs (JSFO VI) 46ff. — Lappish: Qvigstad Lappiske Eventyr II 3, III 3; Louisiana Creole: Fortier MAFLS II 115; Japanese: Ikeda; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 438; Africa (Hottentot): Bleek 16 No. 8; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 17 No. 4, 306 No. 52, (South Carolina): Parsons MAFLS XVI 39, Stewart JAFL XXXII 395, (Virginia): Parsons JAFL XXXV 276; Bahama: Parsons MAFLS XIII 10.

K372. K372. Playing godfather. By pretending that he has been invited to be godfather, the trickster makes an opportunity to steal the provisions stored by him and the dupe for the winter. When he returns on successive occasions he reports the name of the child as "Just Begun," "Half Done," etc. *Type 15; BP I 9; Dh IV 241; *Krohn Bar (Wolf) und Fuchs (JSFO VI) 74ff.; *Fb "ræv" III 113b, "bjørn" IV 43b; *Beckwith MAFLS XVII

238.—Lappish: Qvigstad Lappiske Eventyr III No. 3; French: Sébillot France III 63f.; Missouri French: Carrière; Louisiana Creole: Fortier MAFLS II 19; New Mexican Spanish: Rael Hispania XX 231—4; Japanese: Ikeda; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 437; Africa: Frobenius Atlantis III 13, (Fjort): Dennett 90 No. 23; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Remus 80 No. 17, Jones Negro Myths from the Georgia Coast (Cambridge, Mass., 1888) No. 24, (Virginia): Parsons JAFL XXXV 253—55, (North Carolina): Parsons JAFL XXX 192f., (South Carolina): Parsons MAFLS XVI 7—12, JAFL XXXII 394, XXXIV 3; Bahama: Parsons MAFLS XIII 1; Bermuda: Parsons JAFL XXXVIII 240.

K372.1. K372.1. Trickster eats food left by tiger (his trapping partner) at snare. Tiger accused of the theft. India: Thompson-Balys.

K373. K373. "Owner has refused to accept it." A rascal steals a priest's watch. He tells the priest that he has stolen a watch and offers it to him as a payment for a past favor. The priest refuses to accept stolen goods. Commands the thief to return the watch to the owner. "But the owner has refused to accept it." "Then you may keep it." Danish: Kristensen Kirketjeneste 126.

K374. K374. Trickster pretends to teach dance: flees with valuables. (Cf. K571.) Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 445.

K375. K375. Thieves steal chickens and have mock funeral to cover theft. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K378. K378. The thieving kiss. Trickster kisses pile of money, taking some in his mouth with every kiss. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K382. K382. Fire stolen by swallowing it and then escaping. Africa (Upoto): Einstein 145.

K385. K385. Host robs guest. India: Thompson-Balys.

K400. K400. Thief escapes detection.

K401. K401. Blame for theft fastened on dupe. *Penzer IV 191f. n. 1; Boccaccio Decameron VIII No. 6 (Lee 257); Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 129.

K401.0.1. K401.0.1. Thief accuses his companion of having stolen the gold they have both stolen. India: Thompson-Balys.

K401.1. K401.1. Dupe's food eaten and then blame fastened on him. Trickster eats the common food supply and then by smearing the mouth of the sleeping dupe with the food escapes the blame. *Type 15; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 21; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 173, 177, 179, (Zulu): Callaway 164, (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 366 No. 17, (Hottentot): Bleek 18 No. 9, (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 48 No. 5, (Basuto): Jacottet 10 No. 1, (Benga): Nassau 93 No. 4, (Kaffir): Theal 95, 96, 114, Kidd The Essential Kaffir (London, 1904) 384, (Fang): Tessman 57; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Remus 80 No. 17, Friends 147 No. 20, (South Carolina): Parsons JAFL XXXVIII 222; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 238. See all references to K372.

K401.1.1. K401.1.1. Trail of stolen goods made to lead to dupe. The crane in revenge for the loss of her young ones strews pieces of fish from the dwelling of the mongoose to that of the snake. The mongoose follows the trail and kills the snake. *Penzer V 61 n. 3; Bødker Exempler 287 No. 37; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

K401.2. K401.2. Stolen goods taken to dupe's house so that he is accused. Icelandic: Boberg; Bødker Exempler 303 No. 74; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Greek: Frazer Apollodorus II 178 n. 1 (Palamedes); Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 100.

K401.2.1. K401.2.1. Crow causes serpent to try to swallow a stolen collar and thus be accused of the theft. Chauvin II 87 No. 23; Penzer V 47 n. 3, 214, 226f.

K401.2.2. K401.2.2. Necklace dropped by crow into snake's hole leads men to kill snake which had eaten the crow's fledglings. Bødker Exempler 281 No. 25; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

K401.2.3. K401.2.3. Surreptitious transfer of stolen object to innocent person's possession brings condemnation. India: Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 349, 892.

K401.3. K401.3. Stolen goods left in suitor's room. Impoverished lover falsely accused so as to be rid of him. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K401.4. K401.4. Thief makes believe that he has been robbed of money entrusted to him. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K401.5. K401.5. Thief successfully accuses owner of having stolen property he covets. India: Thompson-Balys.

K402. K402. The lamb without a heart. Accused of eating the lamb's heart, the thief maintains that it had no heart. *Type 785; *BP II 149, 153; Wienert FFC LVI 40, 107; Oesterley No. 83; Herbert III 205; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 57; Penzer V 130 n. 1; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K402.1. K402.1. The goose without a leg. Accused of eating the goose's leg, the thief maintains that it had no leg, and cleverly enforces his point by showing geese standing on one leg. (Usually the master confounds the rascal by frightening the geese so that they use both legs) *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin I 229 No. 75; Boccaccio Decameron VI No. 4 (Lee 177); Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 2424; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. No. 191; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 508.

K402.2. K402.2. The bird without a tail. Thief maintains that the bird had no tail. Africa (Kaffir): Theal 184.

K402.3. K402.3. The ass without a heart. The ass as toll-gatherer is killed by the lion for asking for toll. The fox eats the ass's heart. When the lion asks for it, the fox replies that the ass could have had no heart since he was such a fool as to ask the lion for toll. Keidel "Die Eselherz Fabel" Zs. f. vgl. Litgsch. n. ser. VII No. 58; Gaster Exempla 229 No. 244; Penzer V 130 n. 1; *Chauvin II 99 No. 58; Bødker Exempler 299 No. 63; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K403. K403. Thief claims to have been transformed into an ass. While the owner sleeps the thief steals his horse, hitches himself to the wagon, and claims that he is the horse transformed into a man. *Type 1529; *BP III 9, 391 n. 3; Chauvin VII 137; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 229 No. 487; *Basset 1001 Contes I 492; Spanish: Boggs FFC

XC 150 No. 1852*; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 437.

K404. K404. Thief escapes by leaving animal's severed tail and claiming that the animal has escaped and left his tail. *Type 1004.

K404.1. K404.1. Tails in ground. Thief steals animals and sticks severed tails into the ground, claiming that animals have escaped underground. *Type 1004; BP III 392 n. 1; *Fb "hale" I 537, "svin" III 676a; Icelandic: Sveinsson FFC LXXXIII No. 1004; Missouri French: Carrière; Louisiana Creole: Fortier MAFLS II 110 No. 2; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 241; Africa (Vai): Ellis 249 No. 41; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Remus 98 No. 20, Nights 230 No. 39, 241 No. 41, (Virginia): Smiley JAFL XXXII 368, (South Carolina): Parsons MAFLS XVI 31f., JAFL XXXIV 8; Bahama: Cleare JAFL XXX 228; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 252 No. 29; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 109 n. 2, 113.

K404.2. K404.2. Ox's tail in another's mouth. The thief kills one ox and puts the tail in another ox's mouth: the owner thinks one ox has eaten the other. Type 1004; BP III 392 n. 2; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1525G; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV No. 1525G*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1525G*.

K404.3. K404.3. Stolen sheep's tails severed and put in tree. Owner made to believe that they have escaped through the air. *Type 1004.

K405. K405. Thief successfully claims that stolen goods are his own.

K405.1. K405.1. Grain-thief's wagon falls into ditch: duped owner helps him. The thief makes the owner believe that the grain belongs to the thief. Type 1564*.

K405.2. K405.2. The stolen pot pawned with the real owner. The thief gets a receipt from the owner and thus defends himself when accused of theft. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 823; cf. No. 860.

K405.3. K405.3. Thief successfully claims that stolen image has been given him by the saint himself. Wesselski Erlesenes 64ff.

K406. K406. Stolen animal disguised as person so that thief may escape detection.

K406.1. K406.1. Stolen sheep dressed as person sitting at helm of boat. Type 1525H*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1525H*.

K406.2. K406.2. Stolen sheep dressed as baby in cradle, so that thief may escape detection. (Mak.) Whiting Speculum VII 552; Fb "lam" II 370a, "hundehvalp" IV 228b; *Baugh MPh XV 729; *Smyser JAFL XLVII 378; *Stroup JAFL XLVII 380, Southern Folklore Q. III 5f.; Cosbey Speculum X 310ff.; Middle English: Second Shepherd's Play; Irish myth: Cross (K521.1.3); Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 144 No. 1735B.

K406.3. K406.3. Stolen animal magically transformed so that thief may escape detection. India: Thompson-Balys.

K407. K407. Severed limb prevents detection. India: Thompson-Balys.

K407.1. K407.1. Thief has his companion cut off his head so that he may escape detection. *Type 950; BP III 395ff.; *Krappe "Trophonios and Agamedes" Archiv für Religionswissenschaft XXX 228-241; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Greek: Grote I 122;

India: *Thompson-Balys.

K407.2. K407.2. Companion's arm allowed to be cut off so as to prevent detection. Thief has had his arm cut off as he enters a hole in a wall. He lets his companion also enter and have his severed. *DeVries Tijdschrift voor Nederlandsche Taal- en Letterkunde XLV 213ff.

K407.2.1. K407.2.1. Thief's confederate cuts off own arm to furnish alibi for family's grief. (Previously he had severed father's or brother's head to escape detection.) Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K407.3. K407.3. Elephant cuts piece from own leg and puts it on shelf, lest he be accused of stealing meat. Africa (Cameroon): Lederbogen 3.

K408. K408. The stolen cow successively pawned. In one night a thief pawns a cow four times, always stealing it immediately and finally delivering it back to its owner. *Wesselski Mönchslatein 119 No. 100.

K411. K411. Thief presents alibi. Plays all night for dance while confederate commits actual theft. Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 244 No. 21.

K411.1. K411.1. Thief shams illness as alibi. Africa (Yoruba): Ellis 271 No. 6, (Nago): Basset Contes populaires d'Afrique 217ff. No. 90.

K412. K412. Detection of theft of bull escaped by putting boots on bull. *Fb "tyr" III 908b.

K413. K413. Thieves stretch chain across road and evade pursuers. Type 965; Fb "kjæde" II 145, "reb" III 26a, *"røver" III 131b.

K414. K414. Quartered thief's body sewed together to escape detection. Type 676; *BP III 143; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 389.

K415. K415. Marked culprit marks everyone else and escapes detection. *Type 950; BP III 395ff.; *Schoepperle I 214 n. 3; Boccaccio Decameron III No. 2 (Lee 62); *Penzer V 274f., 284, VII 36, 217ff.; Chauvin V 83 No. 24 n. 2; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 2440; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 435; Africa: Werner African 223.

K415.1. K415.1. Many persons admit theft so that it is impossible to find real thief. India: Thompson-Balys.

K416. K416. Repentant thief pretends to have found stolen cow. Upbraids owner for not guarding her better. *Wesselski Mönchslatein 119 No. C; Mensa Philosophica No. 52.

K416.1. K416.1. Thief pretends to have recovered stolen horse. Returns it to owner after using it all he desires. Nouvelles Récréations No. 24.

K417. K417. Thief swallows stolen goods to escape detection.

K417.1. K417.1. Flower thief eats flowers to escape detection. India: Thompson-Balys.

K418. K418. The owner is duped by thief who gives him the task of solving a riddle about the theft just accomplished. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1635*; Russian:

Andrejev No. 1545*.

K419. K419. Thief escapes detection—miscellaneous.

K419.1. K419.1. Thief cannot remember whom he delivered the goods to. Though he has eaten the food trusted to him, he claims to have delivered it, but cannot remember the person who opened the door. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 63.

K419.2. K419.2. Thief avoids detection by disguising as a woman. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K419.3. K419.3. Umpire awards his own stolen coat to thief. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1525K*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1525 I*.

K419.4. K419.4. Stolen bacon offered to the owner. Making off with bacon, thief accidentally enters farmer's living-room. Boldly says: "Master, the devil from hell sends you bacon." The farmer: "Take yourself off to hell with the bacon." Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1627B*.

K419.5. K419.5. Thief paints horse black on one side and leaves other side white. Hoodwinked guardians make conflicting report of theft. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

K419.6. K419.6. Husks replaced in granary so theft of grain is unnoticed. India: Thompson-Balys.

K419.7. K419.7. Goldsmith as thief in king's treasury. Makes golden human figure and says it is a corpse. Gets by guards. India: Thompson-Balys.

K419.8. K419.8. Thieves escape detection by carrying woman on bier and drowning her outcries with wailing. India: Thompson-Balys.

K419.9. K419.9. Blame for theft fastened on inanimate objects. Japanese: Ikeda (K402).

K419.10. K419.10. Blame for theft fastened on fairies. Maori: Clark 196.

K420. K420. Thief loses his goods or is detected.

K421. K421. Robber mistakenly carries off worthless goods and leaves valuable. Chauvin II 83 No. 8; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K421.1. K421.1. Thief hoping to gain bigger booty, loses smaller. India: Thompson-Balys.

K421.2. K421.2. Thieves directed to a hornet's nest as supposed money hiding place. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K421.3. K421.3. Two cheats exchange articles as genuine and both find themselves cheated. (Cf. K306.) India: Thompson-Balys.

K422. K422. Thief rendered helpless by magic. *Type 952; *BP III 453; *Fb "stjæle" III 575a; *Kittredge Witchcraft 200f. nn. 95—101; Alphabet No. 669; England, U.S.: Baughman; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 300 No. 10.

K423. K423. Stolen object magically returns to owner. Irish myth: *Cross. See all references to D1602 and its subdivisions.

K423.0.1. K423.0.1. Stolen animal returns to owner. Irish myth: *Cross.

K424. K424. Thief condemned when witnesses of theft are able to find the stolen goods. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 808.

K425. K425. King's daughter put into brothel to catch thief. *Type 950; *BP III 395ff.; *Chauvin VIII 186; Schoepperle I 214—222 passim.

K426. K426. Apparently dead woman revives when thief tries to steal from her grave. Type 990; Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XX 353; XXX—XXXII 127; *Hertel ibid. XXI 282.

K427. K427. Clever animal betrays thief. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 48; West Indies: Flowers 509.

K427.1. K427.1. Clever animal betrays thief. Horse catches arm of thief and holds on until help comes. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

K428. K428. Magic statue betrays a thief by indirection. He has threatened to smash the head of the magic statue if it betrays him. The statue says, "Whoever would tell the truth now is likely to have his head smashed." *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 8.

K431. K431. Mouse's tail in mouth of sleeping thief causes him to cough up swallowed magic ring. *Type 560; *Aarne MSFO XXV 51; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K432. K432. Person being robbed deceives robbers and calls help. (Cf. K551.5.) India: *Thompson-Balys.

K432.1. K432.1. Clever woman being robbed makes excuse for screaming and summoning help. India: Thompson-Balys.

K432.1.1. K432.1.1. Clever husband being robbed induces wife to make outcry and summon help. India: Thompson-Balys.

K432.2. K432.2. Owner pretends to help burglars to divide booty: handles weights so loudly that police are summoned. India: Thompson-Balys.

K433. K433. Child's curiosity exposes thief. Thief steals pig. Slaughters it together with one of his own and takes both to market. Puts little pig inside large one to avoid paying tax on two. Boy notices three hind legs. Thief is caught. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K434. K434. Clever girl discovers robber and cheats him.

K434.1. K434.1. The girl seizes the robber concealed under the bed by the beard and says: "What a coarse bundle of flax. I need a finer one." Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 959A*.

K434.2. K434.2. Disguised robber in night-lodging tries to pull up confederate on rope: princess discovers him and catches him. India: Thompson-Balys.

K434.3. K434.3. Girl tells the thief money is in chest. When he looks in chest, girl drops lid on him. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 959C*.

K435. K435. Child's song incriminates thief. U.S.: Baughman; West Indies: Flowers

509f.; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 235 No. 4, 239 No. 10.

K435.1. K435.1. Husband makes rhymes about cakes wife has stolen. India: Thompson-Balys.

K436. K436. Blind thief trying to steal dates from withered tree killed by slipping of rope. Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XX 53.

K437. K437. Robber overcome.

K437.1. K437.1. Robber cheated by substitution. Spending the night in company with a suspicious-looking stranger, the man does not go to sleep, but leaves his clothes in bed and waits to see what will happen. When the stranger wakes up in the night, he stabs at his sleeping companion, who shoots him down. (Cf. K525.1.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 965*.

K437.2. K437.2. Robber with hand of glory killed. A robber disguised as a beggar gets night's lodging at a farm house. Using a candle made of human fat or hand of a corpse, he tries to charm the household into a deep sleep (D1162.2.1). One man who is suspicious and has not gone to sleep sees this and kills the robber. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 963*.

K437.3. K437.3. Sausage as revolver. Man scares robber with sausage; later boasts of event at inn. Robber hears this. Innkeeper secretly lends man a real revolver; robber is shot down when boldly attempting a second attack. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 970*.

K437.4. K437.4. Conqueror of robber discovers his money-stick. Thinking that he has killed the robber, the man takes his stick or knife with big handle. The robber recovers and, disguised as a beggar, inquisitively looks at the stick. The man is suspicious and by examining finds much money inside it. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 962*; Russian: Andrejev No. 961 I*.

K437.5. K437.5. Robbers enslaved. Youth told by two robbers to go to town and sell bracelet for each. He goes and offers to sell two slaves. Goes back with buyer and cries out "Did you say both?" "Yes." Youth is paid; robbers are enslaved. India: Thompson-Balys.

K439. K439. Thief loses his goods or is detected—miscellaneous.

K439.1. K439.1. Betrayal through exchange of stolen goods. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 26.

K439.2. K439.2. Thief claims that stolen goods are his own: detected by master. Type 1564.

K439.3. K439.3. Thief tricked into robbing himself. He has placed a coat on the goods to be stolen. His associate changes the place of the coat. Chauvin II 83 No. 7; Bødker Exempler 273 No. 5; Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K439.4. K439.4. Thief leaves food untouched when owner pretends to be poisoned by it. (Playing poison.) American Negro (Georgia): Harris Friends 54 No. 7, Nights 297 No. 50; Bahama: *Parsons MAFLS XIII 122; West Indies: Flowers 511.

K439.5. K439.5. Sheep thief pretends to buy wethers from the ram, names the price himself. Owner overhears, takes the ram to the thief to collect. U.S.: Baughman.

K439.6. K439.6. Robbers fed poisoned food. India: Thompson-Balys.

K439.7. K439.7. Robber induced to give respite and come to man's office to get promised larger sum. Cheated. India: Thompson-Balys.

K439.7.1. K439.7.1. Tortoise asks greedy man to give him first ruby it has given him to be sure second one will be perfect match: disappears into water with it. India: Thompson-Balys.

K439.8. K439.8. Owner pretends to think thief is family god and binds him. India: Thompson-Balys.

K439.9. K439.9. Owner feigns madness and thus raises alarm: thieves captured. India: Thompson-Balys.

K439.10. K439.10. Hidden person sees robbers concealing treasure and takes it. India: Thompson-Balys.

K439.11. K439.11. Thief hides in large bottle to get into room: bottle put into water to boil. India: Thompson-Balys.

K440. K440. Other cheats.

K441. K441. Double reward successfully claimed.

K441.1. K441.1. The double pension. A husband and wife are jointly under a pension from the king. She reports her husband dead and gets the whole pension. He likewise reports her dead and gets the whole money. Chauvin V 274 No. 155 n. 1; India: Thompson-Balys.

K441.2. K441.2. The doubly-feed lawyer. A lawyer takes a car as fee from a widow and an ox from her adversary. He pleads for the latter saying that the ox draws the car. *Herbert III 375 No. 23; Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 125; Scala Celi 20a No. 122; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

K441.2.1. K441.2.1. Dishonest notary invents debt and collects from both parties. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K441.3. K441.3. Fee from two persons for the same monopoly. Man to furnish goods exclusively to animal. Bargains at same time with another to do the same thing. Africa (Fjort): Dennett 98 No. 26.

K441.4. K441.4. Trickster collects from both husband and wife. Estranged couple both pay him to effect reconciliation. Scottish: Campbell-McKay No. 12.

K442. K442. False claim of reward. Africa (Gold Coast): Barker and Sinclair 159 No. 31, (Ekoi): Talbot 387.

K442.1. K442.1. Reward offered for stolen object (princess). Thief (abductor) returns and enforces reward. *Type 575; *BP II 131.

K443. K443. Money (or other things) acquired by blackmail. U.S.: Baughman; India: Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 512.

K443.1. K443.1. Hidden paramour buys freedom from discoverer. *Type 1535; *BP II

1 ff.; Japanese: Ikeda.

K443.2. K443.2. Clever wife gets money from those who attempt to seduce her. Payment for keeping silence. *Type 890; Cosquin études 457ff.; Norwegian: Christiansen Norske Eventyr 113 No. 890; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K443.2.1. K443.2.1. Clever wife gets husband appointed to position occupied by man who attempts to seduce her. India: Thompson-Balys.

K443.3. K443.3. Money exacted from watchers who permit goods to be stolen. Japanese: Ikeda; Korean: Zong in-Sob 196 No. 95.

K443.3.1. K443.3.1. Money exacted from watchers who permit chest to be stolen. The chest is said falsely to be full of money and the watchers subject to severe punishment. *Type 1535; *BP II 10.

K443.4. K443.4. Money exacted from watcher who permits theft of wooden cow supposed to be real. *Type 1535; *BP II 1ff.

K443.5. K443.5. Trickster entices wolves out of a stable by music: exacts money from their watcher for his carelessness. *Types 1650, 1652.

K443.6. K443.6. Trickster exacts promise of marriage as price of silence after having seen a princess naked. *Type 850; *BP II 528.

K443.6.1. K443.6.1. Trickster exacts beautiful wife from curious people. They look into a carriage in which it is falsely said there is a princess. Trickster's dead wife is in the carriage. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

K443.6.2. K443.6.2. Trickster exacts money as price of silence after lying with princess (queen). India: *Thompson-Balys.

K443.7. K443.7. Fox eats his fellow-lodger: accuses another and demands damages. He spends the night with a cock in a house. He eats the cock but in the morning accuses the sheep of having eaten it. In the next inn likewise he says that the ox has eaten the sheep, etc. In compensation he demands a larger animal each time. Type 170.

K443.8. K443.8. Priest induced to betray secrets of confessional: money then exacted from him for silence. The trickster confesses that he has had intimacies with the priest's maid and then overhears the priest scold the maid. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 650; Irish: Beal XXI 334.

K443.9. K443.9. Women lead man into intrigue and then shout for help. Get money. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K443.10. K443.10. Rascal extorts money for silence about companion's poverty. India: Thompson-Balys.

K443.11. K443.11. Usurer blackmailed. Shrewd suitor persuades usurer to charge him 100 per cent interest, then has him arrested. Thus gets daughter for wife. India: Thompson-Balys.

K443.12. K443.12. Princess has brought ill luck to bridegroom. When palace and retainers disappear after wedding and only humble hut remains, clever fox tells king his daughter's feet have brought ill luck to the groom, his master. King gives half his kingdom in compensation. India: Thompson-Balys.

K443.13. K443.13. Rascal extorts money for silence about breach of food tabu. India: Thompson-Balys.

K444. K444. Dream bread: the most wonderful dream. Three pilgrims agree that the one who has the most wonderful dream shall eat the last loaf. One eats it and declares that he dreamed that the others were dead and would not need it. *Type 1626; Baum JAFL XXX 378; *BP IV 139; *Dunlop-Wilson II 201; Basset 1001 Contes I 516; Hdwb. d. Märchens I 95; Barbeau JAFL XXXII 178; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 243 No. 540; Oesterley No. 106; Scala Celi 73a No. 415; Ward II 240; Herbert III 246; Alphabet No. 238; Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 22 No. 98; L. Schmidt Oesterr. Zs. f. Vksk. 1954, 135.—Icelandic: Sveinsson FFC LXXXIII No. 1626; Russian: Andrejev No. 2100*; French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 21; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Jewish: Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

K444.1. K444.1. Egg as reward of appropriate saying. First brother (knocking egg against wall): "Casca cascorum." Second (breaking shell and sprinkling dirt over it): "Sar, sale, sapiensa". Third (eating egg): "Consumatus es." Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 153 No. 1942; Japanese: Ikeda.

K444.2. K444.2. Bag of cakes said to be full of cobras. Boy eats cakes. India: Thompson-Balys.

K444.3. K444.3. The bag with the rice for the road. Boy eats rice and throws empty bag on the road. India: Thompson-Balys.

K445. K445. The emperor's new clothes. An impostor feigns to make clothes for the emperor and says that they are visible only to those of legitimate birth. The emperor and courtiers are all afraid to admit that they cannot see the clothes. Finally a child seeing the naked emperor reveals the imposture. *Type 1620; Taylor MPh XXV 17; *Chauvin II 156 No. 32, VIII 130 No. 120; *Wesselski Gonnella 133 No. 33; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: Rotunda; India: Thompson-Balys.

K445.1. K445.1. God to reveal self to those of legitimate birth. All afraid to admit not seeing God. India: Thompson-Balys.

K445.2. K445.2. Whoever hears singing snake must die. Killed by deaf man. (Cf. B214.1.10.) Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 145.

K446. K446. The heller thrown into others' money. A rascal sees robbers dividing their booty. He puts a red string through his only coin (a heller) and slips it into the others' money. He claims the money as his and says that he has marked it with a heller having a red string through it. The robbers divide. *Type 1615; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 197 No. 387; Chauvin V 254 No. 151 n. 2, VII 153; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 566.

K446.1. K446.1. Half a grain. Trickster drops half a grain into grain cellar then demands half of the grain supply. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K447. K447. Contraband gold discovered when king offers large price for gold. Wesselski Archiv Orientální I 77.

K448. K448. Cheater marks coveted object with his name and later claims it. Irish myth: Cross.

K451. K451. Unjust umpire as trickster's confederate. (Cf. K455.7.) Icelandic: Boberg.

K451.1. K451.1. Unjust umpire decides a religious dispute. His confederate thus wins an absurd wager. *Type 613; *BP II 468ff.; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 489; Christiansen FFC XXIV 46ff.; Jewish: Gaster Exempla 191 No. 29, Neuman; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 395.

K451.2. K451.2. The wager that sheep are hogs. A trickster wagers with a sheep driver that the sheep he is driving are hogs. The next man to overtake them will act as umpire. The trickster's confederate now arrives and declares that they are hogs. *Type 1551; *Clouston Tales II 27; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 632; *Penzer V 104; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 213 No. 437; Chauvin II 96 No. 51, VII 150 No. 430; *Oesterley No. 132; Crane Vitry 141 No. 20; Alphabet No. 766; Hazlitt Shakespeare Jest-Books II 176; Bødker Exempler 295 No. 56; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K451.3. K451.3. Concealed confederate as unjust witness. A rascal who has hidden with a simple man a treasure found by them carries it away secretly, trying to have his associate condemned on the witness of a tree in which his father is concealed. Chauvin II 91 No. 34; Bødker Exempler 287 No. 36; Penzer V 59 n. 2; Edgerton JAPS XL 271; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

K451.4. K451.4. Trickster's confederate gives fabulous appraisal to worthless piece of glass. Priest is duped into buying it as a diamond. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K451.5. K451.5. Confederate answers for corpse. Man poses as returned heir to dead man; pretends to address corpse for identification. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K452. K452. Unjust umpire misappropriates disputed goods. Chauvin VII 38ff.; India: Thompson-Balys.

K452.1. K452.1. Dividing the discovered oyster. The umpire takes the oyster itself as fee and gives each contestant half the shell. Wesselski Arlotto II 254 No. 171.

K452.2. K452.2. Unjust umpire keeps the stakes when contest cannot be decided. U.S.: Baughman.

K453. K453. Cheating through knowledge of the law. Irish myth: Cross.

K455. K455. Deception into giving false credit.

K455.1. K455.1. Supper won by trick: the mutual friend. A parasite makes the host believe him to be a friend of a certain guest and the guest to think him a friend of the host. *Chauvin VI 132 No. 285.

K455.2. K455.2. Supper won by disguising as an invited guest. Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 234.

K455.3. K455.3. Old beggar disguised as gentleman: much money borrowed on his credit. *Type 1526; *BP III 394 (4).

K455.4. K455.4. The other man to pay the bill. Three feast at an inn and each makes the host believe that one of the others will pay. None has money and the host is cheated. *Bédier Fabliaux 447; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 150 No. 1848. Cf. Wesselski Bebel II

136 No. 111.

K455.4.1. K455.4.1. Trickster buys chickens telling owner that priest will pay. When owner comes to collect, the trickster tells the priest that a heretic has come for confession. Then he flees. (Cf. K242.1.) Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K455.5. K455.5. The priest as surety. Feasters are imprisoned because of failure to pay for the food. They name the priest as surety and are released. The priest has been told that the host is possessed and agrees to come to heal him in two weeks. The host loses the money. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 646.

K455.6. K455.6. Complaint about the empty bottle. While the servant in the inn is bringing a glass, the trickster drinks the wine and then complains that he has been given an empty bottle. The servant must bring another. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 371.

K455.7. K455.7. Greatest liar to get his supper free. Wager. Each lie is corroborated by a confederate, who poses as a newly arrived stranger. *BP II 509; Japanese: Ikeda.

K455.8. K455.8. Credit based on forgery.

K455.8.1. K455.8.1. Forged letter used to obtain credit, consideration, and entertainment. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K455.8.2. K455.8.2. Forged testament used to dupe host. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K455.9. K455.9. Worthless chests offered to obtain credit. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K1667. K1667. Unjust banker deceived into delivering deposits by making him expect even larger.

K455.10. K455.10. Trickster receives huge sum on trifling credit by chain of borrowings. Pays small sum in advance for first sum borrowed. Pays this borrowed sum in advance for larger, etc. India: Thompson-Balys.

K461. K461. Trickster takes goods given in charity to his family. Africa (Kaffir): Theal 159.

K461.1. K461.1. The bear helps the fox's mother get berries: the fox eats them. Type 39.

K461.2. K461.2. Monkey causes girl to cry as if from hunger: eats food given her. India: Thompson-Balys.

K464. K464. Eavesdropping sexton duped into giving suppliant money. The trickster prays to the Virgin for a certain sum of money and promises repayment of double at the end of the month. The sexton throws the money to him, but never receives it back. Type 1543*.

K465. K465. Owner bids on his own goods at auction. Rival buyer pays extravagant price. *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 204 No. 405; Chauvin VIII 107 No. 83.

K471. K471. The substituted porridge. In cooking dinner fox's porridge is light, bear's black. At dinner fox steals spoonful of bear's porridge and lets bear taste it. Bear believes that fox's porridge is as bad as his own. *Type 9 C; Dh IV 249ff.; Krohn Bär (Wolf) und Fuchs (JSFO VI) 97ff.

K473. K473. Sham blood and brains. Fox covers his head with milk and says that his brains have been knocked out. Frightens bear. *Type 3; Dh IV 243; Krohn Bar (Wolf) und Fuchs (JSFO VI) 59ff.; Japanese: Ikeda; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 287; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 21 No. 5, 377 No. 68.

K474. K474. Trickster cheats rescuers into digging his well. The well that he has dug falls in. He throws his clothes into the hole and hides. People going to church think that man is drowned and dig the well out. Type 1614*.

K475. K475. Cheating through equivocation. Köhler-Bolte I 513; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "équivoque"; India: Thompson-Balys.

K475.1. K475.1. The stolen meat handed about. The thief hands it to his confederate. He says, "I haven't it." The confederate says, "I didn't steal it." Wienert FFC LVI 84 (ET 505), 103 (ST 162); Halm Aesop 301.

K475.2. K475.2. "Have we leave to go?" Two prisoners are made stable boys on their promise not to escape secretly. Before horse race starts they ask: "Do we have your leave to go?" They go home. India: Thompson-Balys.

K475.3. K475.3. Why go all the way to fair? Man robbed of his plate of cakes half way to fair asks another vendor, "Why go to the fair, when half way up people come demanding your plate?" Vendor goes on and meets with same fate. India: Thompson-Balys.

K476. K476. Cheating by substitution of worthless articles. Indonesia: De Vries's list No. 290.

K476.1. K476.1. Entrails substituted for meat. Prometheus divides slain ox so that bones and entrails seem to be choicest part. (Zeus is not deceived.) Greek: Fox 13.

K476.1.1. K476.1.1. Rock substituted for ham by trickster. Pierre Faifeu No. 24.

K476.1.2. K476.1.2. Tortoise cheats leopard by substituting bundle of resin for bundle of meat. Africa (Jaunde): Heepe 106.

K476.2. K476.2. False articles used to produce credit.

K476.2.1. K476.2.1. Nugget of supposed gold (lead) given to help build church: money then borrowed. *Wesselski Bebel I 230 No. 141.

K476.2.2. K476.2.2. Reward for the bag of lead. A man sews up lead in a bag and feigns to have found it. A merchant claims it and thinking it filled with gold pays him a large reward. *Wesselski Bebel I 204 No. 83.

K476.3. K476.3. Water sold as wine. Wine-casks partitioned: one half wine, other half water. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K476.3.1. K476.3.1. Innkeeper serves sweetened water for wine, cat for rabbit, mule for beef. Revue Hispanique XLV 114.

K476.4. K476.4. False set of rings to offset genuine. Jewels bought with counterfeit money. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K476.4.1. K476.4.1. Priests substitute gilded images of calves for those of solid gold.

Jewish: *Neuman.

K476.5. K476.5. While swimming with the lizard, toad exchanges own ugly daughter for lizard's pretty one. Africa (Luba): DeClerq ZsKS IV 209.

K476.6. K476.6. Lean geese substituted for fat by trickster. Pierre Faifeu No. 5.

K476.7. K476.7. Woman gives friend dried comb while she herself eats the honey. India: Thompson-Balys.

K476.8. K476.8. Cheating by substitution of common cow for magic one. India: Thompson-Balys.

K477. K477. Attention secured by trickery.

K477.1. K477.1. Audience secured with the pope by rudeness. A woman bribes a man to get her an audience with the pope. By turning his back to the sacrament and saying that the woman had instructed him to do so, he brings it about that she is summoned into the presence. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 347.

K477.2. K477.2. Deception into listening to speaker. He secures the audience's attention by beginning a tale. He then launches into his speech. Wesselski Mönchslein 74 No. 64; Wienert FFC LVI 38; Halm Aesop Nos 177, 339.

K477.3. K477.3. Entry into enemy's presence by pretending to be a messenger from a relative. India: Thompson-Balys.

K478. K478. Butter weighed with the bread. The peasant weighs the butter which he is selling to the baker along with the bread which he is buying. Type 1566.

K481. K481. Demi-coq by means of his magic animals and magic water collects money. *Type 715; *BP I 258; Missouri French: Carrière.

K481.1. K481.1. Blackbird to avenge capture of his wife carries rope, club, cat, ants and river in ears. India: Thompson-Balys.

K482. K482. Money received to bury sham-dead person.

K482.1. K482.1. Husband and wife each receive money (from different persons) to bury the other, who is supposed to be dead. Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 154.

K482.2. K482.2. Trickster reports treasure's owner dead: receives it from children. India: Thompson-Balys.

K483. K483. Color of devil's cows changed while he sleeps so that he does not know them. Only those not changed (all black, all red, etc.) belong to the devil. Dh I 188; Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 134.

K484. K484. Cheating by raising an alarm.

K484.1. K484.1. Trickster gets money from a bank by raising an alarm and demanding "what is owing to him." *Wesselski Gonnella 99 No. 3.

K484.2. K484.2. Host with overstock of sour wine spreads rumor of dragon at his house. A crowd gathers and he sells all his wine. *Wesselski Morlini 309 No. 65.

K484.3. K484.3. False alarm of robbery causes cheated man to be imprisoned. Boccaccio Decameron IX No. 4; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Persian: Lorimer Persian Tales (London, 1919) 321 No. 52.

K485. K485. The devil gets into the ark. The devil wants to know what Noah is doing when he is building the ark. He forbids Noah's wife to enter the ark until Noah has also invited him. *Type 825; *Dh I 258; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 3100, Legends Nos. 192—195.

K486. K486. The double-cheating miller. He confesses that he has an oversized measure and agrees to get a smaller one. He measures back the grain in the smaller measure. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 146 No. 1800B*.

K487. K487. Counselor accuses conspirators in order to confiscate their estates. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K488. K488. Lawyer's dog steals meat. The lawyer tells the butcher that the dog's owner (himself) is liable for damages. He ask double the amount of the damages as fee. Type 1589.

K491. K491. Trickster paid to educate an ass. He gets paid in advance. He gradually starves the ass. *Type 1675; *BP I 59; *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. VII 93; *Wesselski Hodscha Nasreddin II 247f. No. 552; India: Thompson-Balys.

K491.1. K491.1. Trickster paid to teach monkey to talk. Nouvelles Récréations No. 88; India: Thompson-Balys.

K491.2. K491.2. Horse to be taught to speak. India: Thompson-Balys.

K492. K492. Girl serves her father with piece of her own flesh in place of chicken. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 125 No. 1374B; India: Thompson-Balys.

K492.1. K492.1. Woman serves beggar with coals instead of food. India: Thompson-Balys.

K493. K493. Dupe betrayed by asking him ambiguous questions. They are phrased in such a way that he understands them differently from the way they are intended. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 283.

K494. K494. Wolf announces dawn prematurely to collect debt. The contract is to be fulfilled at daybreak. The wolf imitates the cock and crows, but is caught. Cape Verde Islands: *Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 6 n. 1.

K495. K495. Trickster shams sickness so that partner does all the work. India: Thompson-Balys.

K496. K496. Foxes persuade man to plant cooked plants. They eat them at night. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K498. K498. Persons deceived into eating meat in Lent, the meat being disguised as butter. (Cf. K499.2.1, K499.2.2.) Irish myth: Cross.

K499. K499. Additional cheats.

K499.1. K499.1. Trickster sells mother's wine to merchant without asking her permission. Mother saves part of wine because purchaser is dilatory in removing casks. Pierre Faifeu No. 35.

K499.2. K499.2. Object with a hollow as instrument of cheats.

K499.2.1. K499.2.1. Saint who desires broth containing no butter receives broth into which butter has been poured surreptitiously through hollow mixing-stick. (Cf. K498.) Irish myth: Cross.

K499.2.2. K499.2.2. Saint who desires pottage of nettles containing no milk receives pottage into which milk has been poured surreptitiously through pipe. The secret is revealed, and the saint blesses the cook's successors. Irish myth: Cross.

K499.3. K499.3. Old man cheats crocodile by playing on its ignorance of agriculture. India: Thompson-Balys.

K499.4. K499.4. Trickster breaks cat of taste for milk by overheating its milk. India: Thompson-Balys.

K499.5. K499.5. Embarrassing gift. Trickster unwilling to pay for burial fee of aged cow, gives cow to unwitting Brahmin as gift. Cow dies soon and Brahmin must pay. India: Thompson-Balys.

K499.6. K499.6. God cheats birds by giving false description of tamarind fruit. India: Thompson-Balys.

K499.7. K499.7. Gullible king gives large sums to minister for construction of imaginary weapon and then more to have it destroyed. India: Thompson-Balys.

K499.8. K499.8. Trickster dupes rival by exchanging beds: receives his food. Overhears maiden tell rival she will bring food at night, waits until rival is asleep and carries him to another bed, takes his place, and is fed by maiden. Africa (Wute): Sieber 190.

K499.9. K499.9. Treacherous friend drinks out of other's flask to save the water in his own. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 186.

K499.10. K499.10. Fox pretends to go to work, but goes out to sleep. S. A. Indian (Chiriguano): Métraux RMLP XXXIII 175.

K500-K699.

K500-K699. Escape by deception.

K500. K500. Escape from death or danger by deception. *Chauvin VIII 136 No. 132; Wienert FFC LVI 52 (ET 113—118); Irish myth: Cross; Missouri French: Carrière; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list Nos. 1—8.

K510. K510. Death order evaded. India: Thompson-Balys.

K511. K511. Uriah letter changed. Falsified order of execution. A messenger is sent with a letter ordering the recipient to kill the bearer. On the way the letter is changed so that the bearer is honored. *Types 428, 930; *Aarne FFC XXIII 69ff., 91; *BP I 282; *Fb "brev" IV 61ab; *Chauvin VIII 143ff. Nos. 145ABC; *Cosquin études 143ff.; Gunkel Märchen im alten Testament (Tübingen, 1921) 132; *Boje 79; *Penzer I 52, II

113f., III 277ff.; Alphabet No. 593; *Dickson 235 n. 33; Tupper and Ogle Walter Map 271.—Icelandic: Hdwb. d. Märchens I 326 nn. 16-26, Herrmann Saxo II 262ff. I, *Boberg; Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus I 151 n. 2; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 828; Japanese: Ikeda; Africa: Frobenius Atlantis IV 290.

K511.1. K511.1. Death evaded by persuading executioner that another victim was ordered. (E.g., boy has been ordered to kill hare. Hare persuades the boy that the father said, "Kill the rooster for the hare.") Africa (Nyika): Bachmann ZsKS VI 84f., Meinhof Afrikanische Märchen 95ff. No. 18, (Namwanga): Dewar Chinamwanga Stories (Livingstonia, 1900) 57ff., (Kaffir): Alexander und Mohl Mitt. d. Sem. f. Orient. Sprachen VIII 15ff. No. 5.

K511.2. K511.2. Ogam inscription on shield orders that bearer (who does not know meaning) shall be killed. Poet (who recognizes the meaning) reports to king that inscription means a request for honorable treatment. Irish myth: *Cross.

K512. K512. Compassionate executioner. A servant charged with killing the hero (heroine) arranges the escape of the latter. Icelandic: *Boberg; English: Wells 96 (Chevalere Assigne); Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 74; Italian: Boccaccio Decameron II No. 9 (Lee 56), Basile Pentamerone II No. 6, III No. 2; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 95 No. 53.

K512.0.1. K512.0.1. Compassionate executioners. Slaves charged with killing (drowning) the infant heroine are touched by her "laughing smile" and put her in a calfshead (hollow tree), where she is found by cowherds, who rear her. Irish myth: *Cross.

K512.0.2. K512.0.2. "Prince will soon want me back." Executioner persuaded to let hero go. India: Thompson-Balys.

K512.1. K512.1. Compassionate executioner: bloody coat. A servant charged with killing the hero smears the latter's coat with the blood of an animal as proof of the execution and lets the hero escape. *Cox 475; *Boje 62, 66; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

K512.1.1. K512.1.1. Compassionate executioner: bloody knife (sword) from slain animal substitute. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K512.2. K512.2. Compassionate executioner: substituted heart. A servant charged with killing the hero (heroine) substitutes an animal, whose heart he takes to his master as proof of the execution. *Types 671, 709; *Böklen Sneewittchenstudien 79ff.; *BP I 450ff., 463; *Aarne FFC XXIII 57, MSFO XXV 181; *Prato RTP IV 178; Chauvin V 208 No. 120; *Cox 474; Saintyves Perrault 68; Fb "hjaerte" I 631a, "lever" II 404b, "tunge" III 894a.—Icelandic: Boberg; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC No. 706C; Missouri French: Carrière; French Canadian: Sister Marie Ursule; India: Thompson-Balys; Jewish: Neuman (S350); Chinese: Graham; Japanese: Ikeda; N. A. Indian (Shuswap): Teit JE II 730 No. 50; S. A. Indian (Quiche): Alexander Lat. Am. 172.

K512.2.0.1. K512.2.0.1. Compassionate executioner: substituted brains (other animal for helpful animal). India: Thompson-Balys.

K512.2.0.2. K512.2.0.2. Eyes of animal substituted as proof for eyes of children. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K512.2.0.3. K512.2.0.3. Eyes, ears, fingers of corpse substituted for those demanded of victim. India: Thompson-Balys.

K512.2.1. K512.2.1. Animal substituted for child served at meal. BP III 137 (Grimm No. 141); English: Wells 96 (Chevalere Assigne), Alphabet No. 593; Italian: Basile Pentamerone V No. 5; S. A. Indian (Yuracare): Métraux BBAE CXLIII (3) 503.

K512.2.2. K512.2.2. Compassionate executioner: substituted child. The servant charged with sending the hero to executioners sends his own child instead. *Boje 63 n. 1; Jewish: *Neuman; Japanese: Ikeda.

K512.2.2.1. K512.2.2.1. Executioner makes substitution when victim escapes. India: Thompson-Balys.

K512.2.3. K512.2.3. Compassionate executioner: substituted puppet drowned. *Boje 66.

K512.2.3.1. K512.2.3.1. Compassionate executioner: substituted head (made of clay) as proof of execution. India: Thompson-Balys.

K512.2.4. K512.2.4. Compassionate executioner: mutilation substituted for death. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K512.2.4.1. K512.2.4.1. Boy's sixth toe cut off by compassionate executioner as proof he had been killed. India: Thompson-Balys.

K512.3. K512.3. Compassionate executioner: feigns to torture victim. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K512.4. K512.4. Compassionate executioner: sleeping potion supplied instead of poison. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K513. K513. Bribed executioner releases culprit. India: Thompson-Balys.

K514. K514. Disguise as girl to avoid execution. *Oesterley No. 156; *Herbert III 133 No. 117; Icelandic: Anssaga Bogsveigis (FAS II) 359; Greek: Roscher Lexikon s.v. "Achilleus"; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 313 n. 128; Africa (Ba Ronga): Einstein 260, (Zulu): Callaway 40.

K514.1. K514.1. Girl substituted for boy to avoid slaughter by father. Hindu: Keith 171.

K515. K515. Escape by hiding.

K515.1. K515.1. Children hidden to avoid their execution (death). Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: Hrylfssaga Kraka 3, 22, Hálfðanarsaga Brönufystra (FAS III) 565; Greek: Fox 155 (Zeus and Kronus), Grote I 6; Jewish: *Neuman; India: Thompson-Balys; Eskimo (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 189, (Kodiak): Golder JAFL XVI 28; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 355, (Pangwe): Tessman 366, (Fang): Tessman 108; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 275 No. 88.

K515.2. K515.2. Girl escapes by hiding in huge harp. Icelandic: Völsunga saga ch. 45 (43), *Boberg.

K515.3. K515.3. Sleeping persons covered with oxhide and so saved. Icelandic: Ketils saga Haengs 118, Boberg.

K515.4. K515.4. Escape by hiding in kettle. Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 105.

K515.5. K515.5. Escape by hiding in rice-bin. Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 184.

K515.6. K515.6. Escape by hiding in the earth. Africa (Fang): Einstein 151.

K520. K520. Death escaped through disguise, shamming, or substitution.

K521. K521. Escape by disguise. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K521.1. K521.1. Escape by dressing in animal (bird, human) skin. *Types 311, 510B, 1137; *BP I 399ff., III 375 (incident B2); *Hackman Polyphemsage 160ff.; *Fb "hest" I 599b; English: Wells 20 (William of Palerne); Africa (Fang): Einstein 76, Trilles Proverbs 203.

K521.1.1. K521.1.1. Man sewed in animal's hide carried off by birds. Penzer I 141 n. 2; Frobenius Das Zeitalter des Sonnengottes (Berlin, 1904) I 199ff; Jewish: Grünbaum Neue Beiträge zur semitischen Sagenkunde (Leyden, 1893) 234f.

K521.1.2. K521.1.2. Escape by dressing in bear's skin. Þiðriks saga I 261—72 (cf. 339—40); Asbjørnsen and Moe No. 58 (type 590); Gonzenbach No. 68 and Köhler's notes.

K521.1.3. K521.1.3. Escape in monkey-skin. India: Thompson-Balys.

K521.1.4. K521.1.4. Escape by putting on old woman's skin. India: Thompson-Balys.

K521.2. K521.2. Change of bodily appearance so as to escape.

K521.2.1. K521.2.1. Disguise by shaving off beard so as to escape. *Chauvin VIII 136 No. 132.

K521.2.2. K521.2.2. Disguise by mutilation so as to escape. Ears cut off, eyes put out, etc. *Chauvin VIII 136 No. 132; Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 24 No. 2.

K521.2.3. K521.2.3. Disguise as king with mask in order to hide from enemy who has ruined warrior's face and torn his beard off. Icelandic: örvar-Odds saga 186—89, Boberg.

K521.2.4. K521.2.4. Disguise as farmer so as to escape. Chinese: Graham.

K521.2.5. K521.2.5. Disguise as carpenter so as to escape. Chinese: Graham.

K521.3. K521.3. Disguise by painting (covering with soot, etc.) so as to escape. Type 36; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 1, 4, 5.

K521.3.1. K521.3.1. Covering self with clay so as to escape. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K521.4. K521.4. Clothes changed so as to escape. India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 8.

K521.4.1. K521.4.1. Disguise in clothes of other sex so as to escape. Africa (Wute): Sieber ZsES XII 188.

- K521.4.1.1. K521.4.1.1. Girl escapes in male disguise. *Chauvin V 96 No. 31 n. 1; Boccaccio Decameron II No. 9 (Lee 54); Icelandic: Boberg; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.
- K521.4.1.2. K521.4.1.2. Man in danger of life dressed by hostess as woman and set to baking. English: Child IV 151ff.
- K521.4.1.3. K521.4.1.3. Man in danger of life dressed by hostess as woman and set to grinding corn. Icelandic: Hrymundar saga Greipssonar 337, Boberg.
- K521.4.1.4. K521.4.1.4. Man in danger of life takes his wife's place in the bed with her night-cap on. Icelandic: Boberg.
- K521.4.2. K521.4.2. Disguise as musician in order to escape. Africa (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 396 No. 18.
- K521.4.2.1. K521.4.2.1. Musician in danger puts on his musician's attire as if about to play; escapes. Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 868.
- K521.4.3. K521.4.3. Escape in humble disguise. (Cap o' Rushes.) *Type 510B; *Cox Cinderella; *BP II 45; *Saintyves Contes de Perrault 187, 196ff.; Icelandic: *Boberg; Japanese: Ikeda; N. A. Indian: Thompson CColl II 385ff., (Ojibwa): Laidlaw Ontario Arch. Rep. (1918 reprint) 36.
- K521.4.3.1. K521.4.3.1. Escape by disguising as a washerman. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K521.4.4. K521.4.4. Disguise as waiter in inn to escape. Italian Novella: Rotunda.
- K521.4.5. K521.4.5. Adulteress escapes prison disguised as an old woman. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.
- K521.4.6. K521.4.6. Escape by making sheaths of bark for fingers: hero leaves without awakening nymph wives who make him sleep with fingers in mouth. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K521.5. K521.5. Escape in huge pumpkin shell. (Attempted.) India: Thompson-Balys.
- K515.2. K515.2. Girl hidden in huge harp.
- K521.6. K521.6. Abbot escapes from his paramour's husband in disguise of priest. Spanish Exempla: Keller.
- K521.7. K521.7. One animal escapes by shamming as another (jackal as goat). India: Thompson-Balys.
- K521.8. K521.8. Goat escapes from jackal by being covered with flowers. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K521.9. K521.9. Women escape from enemy's camp disguised as ascetics. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K521.10. K521.10. Hare escapes lion by being bundled in brushwood. Africa (Dzalamo): Meinhof ZsES XI 281.
- K521.11. K521.11. Hare and bride travel in pot to escape tiger, answer "Ruined pot"

when challenged. Africa (Cameroon): Meinhof 102.

K522. K522. Escape by shamming death. *Type 33; *BP II 120, III 345; *Chauvin VIII 136 No. 132; Liebrecht Zur Volkskunde 112 No. 23; *Penzer V 79 n. 3; Icelandic: *Boberg; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 1013, 1019; Korean: Zong in-Sob 18 No. 9; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 106, *Dixon 191 n. 13; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 384; Eskimo (Central): Boas RBAE VI 584, (Greenland): Rasmussen III 75; Africa (Yoruba): Ellis 273 No. 6, (Basuto): Jacottet 120 No. 27, (Benga): Nassau 228 No. 34, (Bushman): Bleek and Lloyd 175, (Fang): Trilles 205.

K522.0.1. K522.0.1. Death feigned to escape unwelcome marriage. (Cf. K523.0.1.) *Chauvin V 134 No. 63; *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. XXI 284; Child II 355—367, III 517, IV 482ff., V 234a, 296b; Wesselski Märchen 198; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 857; Estonian: Aarne FFC XXV No. 885*; Russian: Andrejev No. 885*; Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K522.1. K522.1. Escape by shamming death: blood and brains. The trickster covers himself with paint (or the like) so that he will be thought to have bled to death (or with milk so that it will be thought that his brains have been knocked out). *Type 3; Dh IV 243; Krohn JSFO VI 55ff.; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 329 n 191a; Africa (Kaffir): Kidd 242 No. 9.

K522.1.1. K522.1.1. Woman covers fleeing man with placenta of goat and with blood to convince pursuers she has just given birth and thus prevents their capturing him. India: Thompson-Balys.

K522.2. K522.2. Ogre carries sham-dead man. "He smells already." Type 1139; cf. Indonesian: Coster-Wijsman 52 Nos. 77, 78.

K522.3. K522.3. Death feigned to escape from husband's death plot. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K522.4. K522.4. Captive parrots in net play dead and are thrown out: escape. India: Thompson-Balys.

K522.4.1. K522.4.1. Trout pretends to be dead. Fisherman ignores him. Bødker Exempler 283 No. 28; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

K522.5. K522.5. Escape by shammed burial. Icelandic: *Boberg.

K522.6. K522.6. Escape by shammed drowning; wrecked boat or coffin lands. Icelandic: *Boberg.

K522.7. K522.7. Sham murder: trickster attacked by angry mother causes her to spear ox guts and believe she has murdered him. India: Thompson-Balys.

K522.8. K522.8. Escape by shammed hanging. Icelandic: Boberg.

K523. K523. Escape by shamming illness. Maori: Clark 167; Africa (Zulu): Callaway 78, (Angola): Chatelain 99 No. 6.

K523.0.1. K523.0.1. Illness (madness, dumbness, etc.) feigned to escape unwelcome marriage. (Cf. K522.0.1, K523.1.) *Toldo Zs. f. Vksk. XV 365.

K523.0.1.1. K523.0.1.1. Illness feigned to escape rendezvous with undesired mistress.

Heptameron No. 63.

K523.0.2. K523.0.2. Illness feigned to escape unwelcome meeting. Icelandic: Boberg.

K523.1. K523.1. Escape by shamming madness. (Cf. K523.0.1.) Malone PMLA XLIII 400; Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 258ff., *Boberg; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys.

K523.2. K523.2. Escape by shamming leprosy. *Chauvin VIII 136 No. 132.

K525. K525. Escape by use of substituted object. The object is attacked rather than the intended victim. Types 160, 311; *BP I 398ff.; Irish myth: *Cross; Missouri French: Carrière, Italian Novella: Rotunda; Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus I 8 n. 2 (Zeus and Kronus); India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 37, Dixon 200, *201 n. 38; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 51; Chinese: Graham; Eskimo (Greenland): Rasmussen III 65, Rink 107, (West Hudson Bay): Boas BAM XV 194; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 355 n. 282; Africa (Basuto): Jacottet 226 No. 33.

K525.1. K525.1. Substituted object left in bed while intended victim escapes. *Type 1115; *BP I 148ff., 164; U.S.: Baughman; Icelandic: FSS 38, Boberg; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges (K437.1.1.); French Canadian: Barbeau JAFL XXIX 22; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 116 No. 970; Italian: Basile Pentamerone III No. 4, Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 207; Chinese: Graham; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 444; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (T-G. 3115); Australia: Dixon 279; Tahiti: ibid. 63; Africa (Kaffir): Theal 125, (Ekoi): Talbot 249; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 3 No. 1.

K525.1.1. K525.1.1. Woman puts figures of paramour and herself in bed. Husband attacks them. Woman uses it as a lesson to "reform" husband. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K525.1.2. K525.1.2. Bride substitutes wooden picture while she herself escapes sleeping groom. Icelandic: *Boberg.

K525.1.3. K525.1.3. In order to save child from death, maid substitutes block dressed to resemble it. Enemy strikes block. Irish myth: *Cross.

K525.2. K525.2. Man steps aside so that only his shadow is caught. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 47 No. 325A*.

K525.3. K525.3. Object substituted for murdered person so as to allay suspicion. Africa (Venda): Stayt The Bavenda (London, 1931) 343f. No. 6.

K525.4. K525.4. Animal jumps out of skin so that only skin is caught. Irish myth: *Cross.

K525.5. K525.5. Man leaves mantle so that only mantle is hit. Icelandic: *Boberg.

K525.6. K525.6. Escape, leaving dog as substitute. Icelandic: Herrmann Saxo II 569—70.

K525.6.1. K525.6.1. Dog buried instead of foster son, who is falsely reported killed so that he can safely be taken away. Icelandic: Boberg.

K525.7. K525.7. Girl escapes from ogress by substituting pig. Chinese: Graham.

K525.8. K525.8. Destructive magic object tried out on something inanimate.

K525.8.1. K525.8.1. Destructive magic belt tried on tree. Destroys tree. Hdwb. d. Märchens s.v. "gürtel".

K525.9. K525.9. Cock's blood given spirits instead of human blood. Philippine (Tinguian): Cole 174.

K525.10. K525.10. Escape by leaving behind false images made of spittle. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 176.

K526. K526. Captor's bag filled with animals or objects while captives escape. Type 327C; Icelandic: Sveinsson FFC LXXXIII No. 327C; Norwegian: Christiansen Norske Eventyr 44; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 44 No. 311B; India: *Thompson-Balys; Koryak: Jochelson JE VI 181, 212; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 351 n. 268a; S. A. Indian (Aymara): Tschapik BBAE CXLIII (1) 571; Africa (Kaffir): Theal 120, 136, (Basuto): Jacottet 66 No. 10, (Zulu): Callaway 6, 74, 345, (Congo): Grenfell 824; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 386 No. 70, (Virginia): Parsons JAFL XXXV 262.

K527. K527. Escape by substituting another person in place of the intended victim. *Type 953; Irish myth: *Cross; Icelandic: *Boberg; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; India: *Thompson-Balys; Korean: Zong in-Sob 126 No. 60; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 149; Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 3/1314); Africa (Benga): Nassau 89ff. No. 4, (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 382 No. 2, (Ekoi): Talbot 33, (Wute): Sieber ZsES XII 188, (Fang): Tessman 46, (Bankon): Ittman, ZsES XVII 9; West Indies: Flowers 512.

K527.1. K527.1. Poisoned food (drink) fed to animal instead of to intended victim. Animal perishes. *Boje 72ff.; India: *Thompson-Balys; Easter Island: Métraux Ethnology 365; Africa (Nyang): Ittman 58.

K527.2. K527.2. Escape by substituting brother for intended victim, namely self. Pierre Faifeu No. 1; India: Thompson-Balys.

K527.3. K527.3. Exchange of clothes between master and his servant. Lithuanian: Balys Historical.

K527.4. K527.4. Two rival parties of fifteen each on ship. When food is exhausted, it is agreed that half the company be thrown overboard, "every ninth man as they stood to be selected." Clever sister of leader of one party arranges men so that enemies are chosen and so drowned. Irish myth: *Cross.

K527.5. K527.5. Man calls animal by his son's name so he can sacrifice it instead of his son. Jewish: *Neuman.

K528. K528. Substitute in ordeal. An ordeal (usually dangerous) is escaped by deceptively providing a substitute. English: Hibbard 71, Wells 158 (Amis and Amiloun); Icelandic: Göngu Hrylfs saga 274ff.; N. A. Indian (Arapaho): Dorsey and Kroeber FM V 74 No. 37; West Indies: Flowers 512.

K528.1. K528.1. Substitute smoker. The hero is compelled to smoke a fatal pipe, but the helpful insect which he carries on his head smokes the pipe for him. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 330 n. 191c.

K528.2. K528.2. Escape by substituting self for another condemned to die. Holy man substitutes self for deacon held by heathen. Spanish Exempla: Keller.

K528.3. K528.3. Two wicked men put to a fiery test ask for a third (pious) man to be tested together with them. Jewish: *Neuman.

K531. K531. Escape from battle by magic invisibility. Irish: MacCulloch Celtic 66, *Cross; Italian Novella: *Rotunda; Greek: Fox 127 (Paris).

K532. K532. Escape under mantle of invisibility. Irish myth: *Cross.

K532.1. K532.1. Escape in mist of invisibility. Irish myth: *Cross.

K532.2. K532.2. Thief makes magic storm in order to escape. N. A. Indian (California): Gayton and Newman 61; India: Thompson-Balys.

K533. K533. Escape by successive disguises. Chinese: Graham.

K533.1. K533.1. Fugitive disguises successively in different forms and deceives pursuer into self-injury. Chinese: Graham.

K534. K534. Escape by reversing shoes (boat).

K534.1. K534.1. Escape by reversing horse's (ox's) shoes. *Fb "sko" III 288b, "ge" IV 194b, "hestesko" IV 214a; Laport FFC LXXXIV 49; Köhler-Bolte II 381; *Child III 476n., 479f., 487, 489; *Babler Sudetendeutsche Zs. f. Vksk. VII (1934) 77; England: Baughman; Icelandic: *Boberg; Greek: *Frazer Apollodorus II 8 n. 1; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 324 No. 155; Chinese: Chavannes 500 Contes II 407; Africa: Frobenius Atlantis VII 6.

K534.2. K534.2. Escape by reversing snowshoes. U.S.: Baughman.

K534.3. K534.3. Hero walks backward to leave misleading trail. Africa (Fang): Trilles 139.

K534.4. K534.4. Escape by rowing boat stern foremost. Irish myth: Cross (K534.1).

K536. K536. Captors deceived into believing captive is planning to stay with them: vigilance relaxed. Captured general orders heavy boxes taken into the temple. These are thought to be gold and it is concluded that he will not try to leave. He escapes. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 527.

K536.1. K536.1. Girl escapes by making man captor think preparation is being made for wedding. India: Thompson-Balys.

K538. K538. Princess cuts hair to escape captor who holds her hair in hand while sleeping with her. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 871*; Russian: Andrejev No. 871*.

K540. K540. Escape by overawing captor.

K541. K541. Escape by reporting oneself invulnerable and overawing captor. *Chauvin VIII 136 No. 132; India: Thompson-Balys; West Indies: Flowers 513f.; Philippine (Tinguian): *Cole 195.

K542. K542. Escape by falsely reporting one's ability to escape. "I should be caught if there were not an escape at the back." When the captors run to the rear, the captive escapes. Type 66.

K543. K543. Biting the foot. Fox to bear, who is biting his foot: "You are biting the tree root." Bear lets loose. *Type 5; *BP II 117 n. 2; Krohn Bär (Wolf) und Fuchs (JSFO VI) 62ff.; *Fb "bjørn" IV 43b; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia, Malay Peninsula: *Dixon 190 n. 11, *DeVries's list No. 1; S. A. Indian (Brazil): Hartt Amazonian Tortoise Myths (Rio de Janeiro, 1875) 29; Africa: Werner African 296, 299, (Kaffir): Theal 187, (Mpongwe): Nassau 17 No. 1, 45 No. 6, (Zulu): Callaway 6, (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 395 No. 18, (Nakami): FL X 386; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Remus 58 No. 12; West Indies: Flowers 514; Bahama: Parsons MAFLS XIII 103.

K543.1. K543.1. Fox to crocodile who has caught him by the tongue: "Those are the dirty clothes I've been washing!" She lets go. India: Thompson-Balys.

K544. K544. Escape by alleged possession of external soul. Monkey caught for his heart (as remedy) makes his captor believe that he has left his heart at home. *Dh IV 1ff.; *Chauvin II 99 No. 57; *Penzer V 127 n. 1; Bødker Exempler 298 No. 62; Spanish Exempla: Keller; Jewish: Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 852; Japanese: Ikeda; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 3, Dixon 193; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 374 No. 56; Africa (Zanzibar): Bateman 17 No. 1.

K545. K545. Escape by falsely reporting approach of rescuers. Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 276.

K546. K546. Pope escapes captivity and death by dressing in full regalia and overawing captor. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K547. K547. Escape by frightening would-be captors. (Cf. K1710.) Pierre Faifeu No. 27.

K547.1. K547.1. "Get into my belly." The wee cock, lost in the woods, orders the fox, the bear, and the wolf to get into his belly. Overawed, the beasts make their apologies promising never to annoy him again. The bear even carries the cock home. (Cf. K1715.7.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 2007*.

K547.2. K547.2. Man takes off wig, takes out false teeth, takes off wooden leg, overawes Indians. U.S.: *Baughman.

K547.3. K547.3. Man hides in hollow log, fires rifle while Indians are sitting on the log, scares them away. U.S.: Baughman.

K547.4. K547.4. Jackal escapes by telling farmer he is jackal king and will call upon his subjects. India: Thompson-Balys.

K547.5. K547.5. Ferocious animal (ogre) misunderstands victim's remark: flees in fright. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K547.6. K547.6. Ogre frightened away by beating tom-tom. India: Thompson-Balys.

K547.7. K547.7. Goat trembles so hard from fear of tiger that shaking of his beard frightens tiger away. India: Thompson-Balys.

K547.8. K547.8. Shepherd threatened by tiger says he will report matter to ass: tiger flees. India: Thompson-Balys.

K547.9. K547.9. Threatening tiger challenged to strength contest. Beguiled into holding wood for plow and is injured. India: Thompson-Balys.

K547.10. K547.10. Queen hiding king disguised as child tells ogress she has borne child with moustache: ogress frightened. India: Thompson-Balys.

K547.11. K547.11. Hero threatens tiger with plowshare and leads him into village. Frightens villagers. India: Thompson-Balys.

K547.12. K547.12. Escape by frightening tiger into thinking goat in cave is the ghost of his father. India: Thompson-Balys.

K547.13. K547.13. Witch frightened by seeing victim cleave boulder with one blow of sword. India: Thompson-Balys.

K547.14. K547.14. Trickster claims to be holding up sky. Leopard, afraid to let sky fall, leaves him. Africa (Wute): Sieber ZsES XII 173.

K548. K548. Escape by making attacker believe there are many defenders. (Cf. K2368.)

K548.1. K548.1. Woman alone in house rolls cheeses down the stairs after calling names of men in the house. Attackers think the men of the house are rushing down the stairs. U.S.: Baughman.

K548.2. K548.2. Man convinces robbers that house is fully occupied by beating drums all over the house; they flee. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera I 574.

K548.3. K548.3. Sham calling to helpers frightens robbers away. Icelandic: Boberg.

K550. K550. Escape by false plea. A captive makes a request or proposes an action that permits him eventually to escape. *Type 122A; *BP II 207; India: Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 246; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 306 n. 109cc; West Indies: Flowers 515.

K550.1. K550.1. Escape by equivocal oath. (Cf. K475.) Irish myth: Cross.

K551. K551. Respite from death granted until particular act is performed. *Type 122A; U.S.: Baughman; West Indies: Flowers 515.

K551.1. K551.1. Respite from death granted until prayer is finished. It lasts till rescue comes. *Types 122A, 227, 332, 955, 1199; *BP I 381, 404ff., II 164; India: Thompson-Balys.

K561.1.1. K561.1.1. Cat fails to be beguiled into releasing mouse. The mouse tells the cat a tale. The cat answers at last, "Even so, I eat you up."

K551.1.1. K551.1.1. Respite from death granted until confession is made. Herbert III 48, 78.

K551.1.2. K551.1.2. Respite from death until mass is said. Herbert III 84, 508; Chauvin II 191; Icelandic: Boberg.

K551.2. K551.2. Respite from death until prisoner has finished drinking his glass. It is left half finished. BP I 381.

K551.2.1. K551.2.1. Iguana persuades jackal to let him go so he can finish his drink. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K551.3. K551.3. Respite from death until victim has blown on a horn (three times). Rescuers come. *Types 592, 920; *BP II 501; *Wesselski Märchen 199; DeVries FFC LXXIII 41ff., 324; *Thien Motive 36f.; *Child V 483 s.v. "horn"; India: Thompson-Balys.

K551.3.1. K551.3.1. Respite from death while one plays the fiddle. Rescue arrives. Type 592; *BP II 501.

K551.3.2. K551.3.2. Respite from death while captive plays music (whistles). Rescue arrives. *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 173; Wienert FFC LVI 52 (ET 113), 99 (ST 127); Halm Aesop No. 134.

K551.3.2.1. K551.3.2.1. Respite from death while one sings song. India: Thompson-Balys.

K551.3.3. K551.3.3. Three cries allowed maiden about to be murdered. Rescue arrives. Child I 32ff., 41f., 47, 487b, V 207.

K551.3.4. K551.3.4. Wild boar given permission to squeal before wolf eats him. Rescue arrives. *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. IX 87; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 173; Rumanian: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII No. 91; India: Thompson-Balys.

K551.3.5. K551.3.5. Respite from death while one plays the bagpipe. Rescued. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K551.3.6. K551.3.6. Respite from death while victim dances. India: Thompson-Balys; Africa (Ndau): Curtis Songs and Tales from the Dark Continent (Boston, 1920) 45ff.

K551.3.6.1. K551.3.6.1. Girl to dance for robbers asks to bring her party (strong men in disguise) who overcome robbers. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K551.3.6.2. K551.3.6.2. Mare is allowed to dance before being killed; it dashes off to jungle with persecuted boy hidden in belly. India: Thompson-Balys.

K551.3.6.3. K551.3.6.3. Men ordered to dance before being killed. Dance figure arranged so as to defeat captors. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K551.3.7. K551.3.7. Titmouse receives permission to sit on branch and sing before being sacrificed. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

K551.4. K551.4. Respite from death until toilet is made permits escape. Malone PMLA XLIII 410; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "toilette"; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 116 No. 970; India: Thompson-Balys.

K551.4.1. K551.4.1. Respite from death until clothes are changed. *Chauvin VI 72 No. 238.

K551.4.2. K551.4.2. Devil must wait for man to tie his stocking before the man comes into his possession. It remains untied. *Fb "hosebend" I 650, IV 221b.

K551.4.3. K551.4.3. Making modesty pay. Robber insists on disrobing woman before throwing her from precipice. She pleads to have him turn his face while she disrobes. She pushes him off. (Cf. K1645.) Italian Novella: Rotunda (K551.4.2).

K551.4.4. K551.4.4. Respite from death until hero bathes and drinks. Irish myth: Cross.

K551.4.5. K551.4.5. Escape by pretending to go to river and wash clothes. India: Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Graham.

K551.4.6. K551.4.6. Respite from death until mouth is washed; crow slain with arrow as he goes to wash mouth. India: Thompson-Balys.

K551.4.7. K551.4.7. Escape by pretending to go for bath. India: Thompson-Balys.

K551.4.8. K551.4.8. Escape by pretending to return for hair ribbon. N. A. Indian: *Thompson Star Husband 133.

K551.5. K551.5. Girl makes toilet and calls help. When she sees robber under her bed she pretends not to see him and combs her hair at the window. She says, "When I am married my husband will come home from the tavern and seize me by the hair and I shall cry: "Help!" Rescue comes. Type 959*; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 959B*; Russian: Andrejev No. 959*; Chinese: Graham.

K551.6. K551.6. Escape by asking to die on a horse. Jones PMLA XXIII 563.

K551.6.1. K551.6.1. Escape by asking to ride on sacred buffalo. India: Thompson-Balys.

K551.7. K551.7. Captured animal asks respite while he gives war alarm. Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 2.

K551.8. K551.8. Wolf kept at door until children have been christened. He loses his feast. *Type 122A.

K551.9. K551.9. Let me live as long as this candle lasts. Man who has sold his soul to devil thus escapes. (Cf. G303.12.5.4.) Type 1184*; Irish: O'Suilleabhain 36, Beal XXI 313.

K551.10. K551.10. Escape by asking a last kiss. Uses the opportunity to attack adversary. Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 30 No. 69*.

K551.11. K551.11. Ten (five) year respite given captive while he undertakes to teach elephant (ass) to speak. Captive explains to friends that in that time the captor, the elephant (ass), or himself is likely to die. Italian Novella: *Rotunda.

K551.12. K551.12. Respite from death until muddy victim may dry self in sun. India: Thompson-Balys.

K551.13. K551.13. Respite from death until one pays a last visit. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K551.13.1. K551.13.1. Respite from death until visit is finished. India: Thompson-Balys.

- K551.14. K551.14. Respite from death until captive has taken six steps toward God. Takes prodigious ones and escapes. Irish myth: Cross.
- K551.15. K551.15. Respite from death until prisoner is healed by magic object. Irish myth: Cross.
- K551.16. K551.16. Woman escapes by ruse: must go to defecate. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges; India: Thompson-Balys.
- K551.17. K551.17. Respite from death for drink of water. India: Thompson-Balys; Korean: Zong in-Sob 174 No. 75.
- K551.17.1. K551.17.1. Kidnapped woman escapes by asking for drink of water. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K551.17.2. K551.17.2. Jackal persuades woman to untie his legs so that he may get a drink. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K551.18. K551.18. Respite from death granted until wolf reads horse's passport. Wolf kicked to death. (Cf. J1608.) Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- K551.19. K551.19. Respite from death granted while wolf counts hairs in horse's tail. Wolf kicked to death. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- K551.20. K551.20. Wolf is requested by tailor to be measured for suit of clothes; wolf beaten. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.
- K551.21. K551.21. Respite from death until minister shows king how to reap pearls. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K551.22. K551.22. Definite respite from death granted.
- K551.22.1. K551.22.1. A year's time granted to settle affairs before death. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K551.22.2. K551.22.2. God grants man twenty years more of life provided he plays no tricks. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K551.22.3. K551.22.3. Crocodile grants boy five days respite from death. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K551.23. K551.23. Escape by false plea: jackal asks to be able to clasp tree before crocodile kills it. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K551.24. K551.24. Respite from death until hero climbs tree. He flies away in machine stored there. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K551.25. K551.25. Escape from threatened captivity by pretending to send for object for captor. Irish: Cross (K1231).
- K551.26. K551.26. Turtle allowed to go to pool to pick flowers before death. Escapes. India: Thompson-Balys.
- K551.27. K551.27. Respite from death until victim can fall asleep. Chinese: Graham (K551.5).

K551.28. K551.28. Captors give captive respite in order to witness alleged marvel. Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 511.

K553. K553. "Wait till I get fat." Captured person (animal) persuades his captor to wait and fatten him before eating him. Wienert FFC LVI 52 (ET 117), 105 (ST 179); Halm Aesop No. 231; Spanish: Espinosa III 446; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Zulu): Callaway 164; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 366ff. No. 65 (variant); West Indies: Flowers 516.

K553.0.1. K553.0.1. "Wait till I am fat enough to race you." Hero to be eaten by cannibals when he is fattened enough to beat them in a race. He runs away. India: Thompson-Balys.

K553.0.2. K553.0.2. Calf: "Wait till I grow up." India: Thompson-Balys.

K553.1. K553.1. "Let me catch you better game." Captured animal pretends to help captor bring more desirable victim. Escapes. Chauvin II 116 No. 94; India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Kaffir): Theal 188, (Basuto): Jacottet 40; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 286 No. 48.

K553.1.1. K553.1.1. "Wait till men come to take me from trap, then eat them." India: Thompson-Balys.

K553.2. K553.2. Wait for the fat goat. Troll lets the first two goats pass on the bridge so that he may eat the biggest one. He is thrown in the water. Type 123*.

K553.2.1. K553.2.1. Dwarf persuaded to wait for ram. Lamb and ewe escape. Ram butts dwarf into river. India: Thompson-Balys.

K553.3. K553.3. Ram promises to jump into wolf's belly. Gives him a hard knock. The stunned wolf thinks he has swallowed the ram. (Cf. K579.5.1.) Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 122E*.

K553.4. K553.4. Wolf is requested by horse to start eating from the rear; kicked to death. Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges.

K553.5. K553.5. "Soak me in the pond so that I will be juicy." India: *Thompson-Balys.

K553.6. K553.6. Too dirty to eat. Trickster, cornered by leopard, leaps into swamp, then says he is too dirty to eat. Leopard smells of him and agrees. Africa (Wute): Sieber ZsES XII 173.

K555. K555. Executioner kept busy or interested until rescue comes. Sometimes until he changes his mind.

K555.1. K555.1. Respite from death gained by long-drawn-out speech. India: Thompson-Balys.

K555.1.1. K555.1.1. Respite from death gained by tale of the preparation of flax. BP I 222; Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 365A, Legends Nos. 349, 360.

K555.1.2. K555.1.2. Respite from death gained by tale of the preparation of bread. BP I 222; 331; Rumanian: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII No. 1199 I.

K555.2. K555.2. Respite from death gained by long-drawn-out song. Indonesia:

DeVries's list No. 113.

K555.2.1. K555.2.1. Formula-tale (Ehod) saves girl from devil. Unsuccessful imitation. (Cf. Z20.) Lithuanian: Balys Legends No. 364.

K555.2.2. K555.2.2. Escape by singing an endless song. The soldier's bargain with Death. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1084A*; Russian: Andrejev No. 1084 I*; Rumanian: Schullerus FFC LXXVIII No. 1615*.

K555.3. K555.3. Tiger persuaded by jackals to settle argument. Tricked. India: Thompson-Balys.

K557. K557. Death cheated by moving bed. The man who has chosen Death as his godfather has his bed turned around when he sees Death standing at the foot of his bed. He thus escapes death. *Type 332; *BP I 377ff.; Wesselski Märchen 214 No. 17; Christiansen Danske Studier (1915) 72ff.; Icelandic: Sveinsson FFC LXXXIII No. 332; Jewish: *Neuman; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda.

K558. K558. Man allowed to pick out tree to be hanged on. Cannot find one. *Crane Vitry 161 No. 62; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 283; Krappe Bulletin Hispanique XXXIX 25; U.S., England: Baughman; Swiss: Jegerlehner Oberwallis 324 No. 161; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

K558.1. K558.1. Escape by asking to die falling from a tree. India: Thompson-Balys.

K558.2. K558.2. Man asks to be beheaded standing in tank of water. He ducks and executioners kill each other. India: Thompson-Balys.

K561. K561. Escape by persuading captor to talk.

K561.0.1. K561.0.1. Attempted escape by persuading captor to talk fails. India: Thompson-Balys.

K561.1. K561.1. Animal captor persuaded to talk and release victim from his mouth. Usually cock and fox, fox and wolf, or mouse and cat. *Type 6; *BP II 207; *Chauvin II 200 No. 39; *Fb "ræv" III 113b; Dargan MPh IV 39; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 743; *Graf FFC XXXVIII 39f.; F. N. Robinson Works of Chaucer 858 (Nun's Priest's tale). —Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 239; Russian: Andrejev No. 241 I*; Breton: Sébillot Incidents s.v. "coq"; India: *Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Ikeda; Africa (Hottentot): Bleek 23 No. 12; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 146 No. 27; Cape Verde Islands: Parsons MAFLS XV (1) 326 No. 110; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 239f. No. 12.

K561.1.1. K561.1.1. Cat fails to be beguiled into releasing mouse. The mouse tells the cat a tale. The cat answers at last, "Even so, I eat you up." Type 111.

K561.1.2. K561.1.2. Frog escapes after telling crow to sharpen his bill before eating him. India: Thompson-Balys.

K561.2. K561.2. Sheep persuade the wolf to sing. Dogs are summoned. *Type 122C; *Bolte Zs. f. Vksk. IX 87; Italian Novella: Rotunda; Spanish Exempla: Keller.

K561.3. K561.3. Crocodile persuaded to open his mouth. When he does, he shuts his eyes automatically and monkey escapes. Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 853.

K562. K562. Rat persuades cat to wash face before eating: escapes. *Type 122B; *Dh

III 237f.; India: Thompson-Balys.

K562.1. K562.1. Captive trickster persuades captor to pray before eating. Escapes. Africa (Nama): Bleek 23, No. 12, (Hottentot): Meinhof Lehrbücher d. Sem. f. orient. Spr. XXIII 165.

K562.2. K562.2. Hare persuades cat to perform two gallops before eating him: escapes. India: Thompson-Balys.

K563. K563. Escape because of plea that leaves means of egress open. India: Thompson-Balys.

K563.1. K563.1. Jackal in tiger's house has permission to sit with tail hanging down between bamboo stems. Enlarges gap thus made and escapes. India: Thompson-Balys.

K563.2. K563.2. Tortoise persuades tiger captor to put him in pocket with hole, escapes. Africa (Cameroon): Meinhof 7.

K565. K565. *Thumbling in animal's belly persuades latter to go to his father's house for plunder: rescued. *Type 700; BP I 389.

K565.1. K565.1. Boy swallowed by fish that is thrown up on shore persuades tiger to cut it open with injunction not to look at him. India: Thompson-Balys.

K565.2. K565.2. Jackal entrapped in elephant's carcass tells passing God to show his magic power by making it rain. Elephant's hide swells; jackal escapes. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K566. K566. Ass begs wolf to pull thorn out of foot before eating him: kicks wolf in mouth. Wienert FFC LVI 52 (ET 115), 114 (ST 244); Halm Aesop No. 334; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 30, 31; Japanese: Ikeda.

K567. K567. Escape by pretending to perform errand (do work) for captor. Africa (Thonga): Junod 212, (Kaffir): Theal 188, (Ekoi): Talbot 233; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Friends 60 No. 8, Nights 366 No. 65.

K567.1. K567.1. Prince to giant: "Don't eat me up, and I'll prepare you a good dinner." India: Thompson-Balys.

K567.2. K567.2. Man persuades robbers to postpone killing him until he can show them his treasure. Leads them into marsh and escapes. India: Thompson-Balys.

K571. K571. Escape by pretending to dance so as to be untied. Africa (Kaffir): Theal 44; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Nights 12 No. 3.

K571.1. K571.1. Hare promises to dance if doorway is left free: escapes. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 180*; Cheremis: Sebeok-Nyerges; India: Thompson-Balys.

K572. K572. Escape from captor by means of flattery. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K573. K573. Escape by asserting that captor will have ill luck after killing victim. India: Thompson-Balys.

K573.1. K573.1. Escape by asking girl about to murder him if she will have to assume all the guilt. She reconsiders. India: Thompson-Balys.

K575. K575. Escape by false prophecy: if corpses are buried in city, it will become a ruin: king releases condemned man. India: Thompson-Balys.

K576. K576. To get out of thieves' clutch, man reports high prices in another town. India: Thompson-Balys.

K579. K579. Escape by false plea—miscellaneous.

K579.1. K579.1. Wife accused of plan to escape weeps and threatens suicide so as to allay suspicion and escape. Africa (Fjort): Dennett 51 No. 8.

K579.2. K579.2. Monkey in danger on bridge of crocodiles pretends that the king has ordered them counted. India: Thompson-Balys; Japanese: Anesaki 317, Ikeda; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 7, Dixon 190 n. 10.

K579.3. K579.3. Escape from robbers by pretending to be going the same way but separating at the first opportunity. Jewish: Neuman, Gaster Exempla 198 No. 66.

K579.3.1. K579.3.1. Escape from pursuers by pretending to be one of them. Icelandic: *Boberg.

K579.4. K579.4. Monkey saved from trap by feigning marriage. Chinese: Graham; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 6.

K579.5. K579.5. Respite while captor acts as umpire between captives.

K579.5.1. K579.5.1. Wolf acts as judge before eating the rams. They are to go to the end of the field and run to him. They run at him and kill him. *Wesselski Märchen 251 No. 58; Spanish: Espinosa Jr. Nos. 30, 31.

K579.5.2. K579.5.2. Tiger to help foxes divide their young. Foxes escape into hole. India: Thompson-Balys.

K579.6. K579.6. Murder feigned to effect escape. Knight is refused permission to leave city. He rushes to city gates and pretends that he has just killed a public enemy. Is aided in his escape. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K579.7. K579.7. A handy name. Thief is jailed for stealing a quarter of veal. Sends man named "Calf" to captor. "I took only one quarter of veal, but I am sending you a whole calf." Is set free. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K579.8. K579.8. A plea for a larger audience. Fox asks cock to come down from a tree and sing for him. Cock asks fox to awake his companion, a dog, first. Dog kills fox. Italian Novella: Rotunda.

K580. K580. Captor persuaded into illusory punishment.

K581. K581. Animal "punished" by being placed in favorite environment.

K581.1. K581.1. Drowning punishment for turtle (eel, crab). By expressing horror of drowning, he induces his captor to throw him into the water—his home. *Type 1310; *Dh IV 43; Köhler-Bolte I 266; *Fb "el" III 1190b; England: Baughman; Danish: Christensen DF XLVII 171; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: Dixon 195, 196 n. 32, *DeVries Volksverhalen II 360 No. 107; Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 443, (Tinguian): Cole 196, 197 n. 1; N. A. Indian: *Thompson Tales 302 n. 108; Africa (Angola): Chatelain 153 No. 17, (Jaunde): Heepe 107; (Benga): Nassau 124 No. 12, (Ibo, Nigeria): Thomas 88, (Yoruba): Ellis 266 No. 3, (Zanzibar): Bateman 40 No. 2; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Remus 58 No. 12, 115 No. 24, Friends 167 No. 23, cf. Harris Nights 61 No. 12; Jamaica: Beckwith MAFLS XVII 236 No. 5; West Indies: Flowers 516.

K581.2. K581.2. Briar-patch punishment for rabbit. By expressing horror of being thrown into the briar patch he induces his captor into doing so. He runs off. Ruth I. Cline American Literature II 72ff.; Espinosa JAFL XLIII 129 ff.; *Dh IV 26; Köhler-Bolte I 266; *Parsons Folklore XXX 227. Missouri French: Carrière, Louisiana Creole: Fortier MAFLS II 108; Indonesia: *DeVries Volksverhalen II 381f. No. 147 (duck); Oceanic: Meyer Mythen und Erzählungen der Küstbewohner der Gezellehalbinsel 49, 187, Fox and Drew JAI XLV 204; N. A. Indian: *Thompson CColl II 446, Speck UPa I 141 n. 8; Africa (Ila, Rhodesia): Smith and Dale II 395, (Zanzibar): Bateman 38 No. 2; American Negro (Georgia): Harris Remus 16 No. 4; Barbadoes: Parsons JAFL XXXVIII 270; Jamaica: *Beckwith MAFLS XVII 244; West Indies: Flowers 516.

K581.2.1. K581.2.1. Men double up hare's legs and throw him on the ground as punishment. He escapes. India: Thompson-Balys.

K581.3. K581.3. Burying the mole as punishment. *Fb "el" III 1190b.

K581.4. K581.4. Bird punished by being thrown into air. England: Baughman; Africa (Ekoi): Talbot 397.

K581.4.1. K581.4.1. Birds caught in net fly away with it. India: Thompson-Balys.

K581.5. K581.5. Burning the jackal. He expresses horror of that punishment. Sets fire to village from his burning tail. Why he has burnt tip on tail. India: *Thompson-Balys.

K581.6. K581.6. Thieving insect put in closely woven basket asks to be put in a loosely woven one so he cannot see. India: Thompson-Balys.

K582. K582. Punishment which proves fatal to captor.

K582.1. K582.1. Turtle persuades an animal to swallow him: causes the animal's death and escapes. Africa (Hottentot): Bleek 29 No. 14, 30 No. 15.

K583. K583. Wolf punished by being married. After debate it is decided that marriage is the greatest punishment. Wesselski Bebel II 103 No. 15; Spanish: Boggs FFC XC 35 No. 165*.

K583.1. K583.1. Thief begs for any punishment except the luxury of two wives. India: Thompson-Balys.

K584. K584. Throwing the thief over the fence. Thief, surprised at theft says: "Do your worst, only don't throw me over the fence." When thrown over, he escapes. Lithuanian: Balys Index No. 1627A*.

K600. K600. Murderer or captor otherwise beguiled.

K601. K601. Escape by posing as member of murderer's family or tribe. India: *Thompson-Balys; Africa (Kaffir): Theal 130, (Basuto): Jacottet 2 No. 1, (Fjort): Dennett 106 No. 30.

K601.1. K601.1. Escape by posing as preceptor of tiger's deceased father. India: Thompson-Balys.

K601.2. K601.2. "Don't eat your nephews." Giants thus dissuaded. Tuamotu: Stimson MS (z-G. 3/1323).

K602. K602. "Noman." Escape by assuming an equivocal name. (Sometimes "myself.") *Hackman Polyphemsage 179, 203, 219; *Fb "selv"; Clouston Noodles 194 n.; BP III 378; *Oertel Studien zur vgl. Literaturgeschichte VIII 117f.; *Toldo Zs. f. Vksk. XV 70.—Finnish-Swedish: Wessman 56 No. 480; India: *Thompson-Balys; Chinese: Eberhard FFC CXX 262; Buddhist myth: Malalasekera II 36.

K602.1. K602.1. Fairy child injured by man who says that his name is "Self". Child tells mother, "Self did it." England, Scotland: *Baughman.

K602.2. K602.2. "Bee is eating the sweets." Man has eaten sweets and says his name is B. India: Thompson-Balys.

K603. K603. Escape under ram's belly. By hiding under the belly of a ram the hero escapes under the legs of the blind ogre. *Type 1137; Hackman Polyphemsage 160ff.; *BP III 375; Spanish: Espinosa III Nos. 163—7; Icelandic: Boberg.

K604. K604. The three teachings of the bird (fox). In return for release from captivity the bird (fox) gives the man three teachings. These usually mock the man for his foolishness in releasing what he has. (See for these counsels: J21.12, J21.13, J21.14.) *Type 150; *BP III 230, IV 149 n. 2; *Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 380; *Wesselski Arlotto II 261 No. 1191; *Chauvin III 103, 110ff., IX 30; *Crane Vitry 144 No. 28; *Gaster Exempla 256 No. 390; *Basset 1001 Contes II 276f.; Jacobs Aesop 213 No. 58; Wienert FFC LVI 35; Halm Aesop No. 271; *Hdwb. d. Märchens I 95a; Alphabet No. 191; Oesterley No. 167.—Jewish: bin Gorion Born Judas IV 29, 279; Spanish Exempla: Keller; India: *Thompson-Balys; Indonesia: DeVries's list No. 231.

K605. K605. Cannibal sent for water with vessel full of holes: victim escapes. Indonesia: Dixon 224, 225 n. 31, Beckwith Myth 194; Tahiti: Dixon 63, Beckwith Myth 197 n. 21, ch. 13 passim; Hawaii: Beckwith Myth 194.

K605.1. K605.1. Cannibal sent for water which magically recedes from him: victim escapes. New Zealand: Dixon 85, Beckwith Myth 196 n. 19.

