JEWISH COMMUNAL FUND Your personal connection to charitable giving®

Jewish Communal Fund's generous donors had a profound impact on charities in every sector, granting more than $294,000,000 in fiscal year 2011

to help organizations sustain much needed services and programs in difficult economic times.

This has been a record-breaking year for the Jewish Communal Fund, the donor-advised fund of the Jewish community of greater New York. We are very pleased that our donors distributed almost $300 million to thousands of worthy charities during the fiscal year ending June 30, 2011. This represents the largest amount and number of grants recommended in a single year during JCF's nearly four decade existence. Moreover, this extraordinary generosity was manifested in the midst of a prolonged economic downturn, while charities are struggling and especially grateful for the grants that have allowed them to maintain their necessary contribution to society.

The Jewish Communal Fund is dedicated to providing our donors and their families with professional and efficient personal service—and the philanthropic community has taken notice. JCF received a four-star rating (the highest distinction possible) from Charity Navigator, an independent and well-respected charity evaluator. We were honored to be the highest-ranking Jewish organization in the Chronicle of Philanthropy's Top 400 national charities list, at No. 35. JCF also ranked third in The Chronicle's list of most money raised among New York-based organizations.

On the personnel front, Ellen Israelson recently was appointed Vice President of Marketing and Donor Relations, replacing our longtime staff member Abby Tucker, who relocated after 13 years of dedicated service. Ellen will expand JCF's marketing efforts and oversee the development of services for all donors, including enhanced services for the Private Client division.

We also engaged Michelle Lebowits to lead JCF's Center for Next Generation Philanthropy—the gateway for young Jews in their 20s and 30s to become involved in philanthropy. Michelle comes to us from the development team at UJA-Federation of New York. She is joined by Tamar Snyder, a strategic consultant and former Jewish Week staff writer who is overseeing our teen programming and assisting us with our marketing and communication efforts. JCF has also entered into a strategic partnership with Slingshot, a highly respected organization dedicated to strengthening innovation in Jewish life by developing next generation funders. Slingshot is currently located in our offices and will work with JCF to craft meaningful programming and resources to engage our Next Generation donors.

As a leader in the field of multi-generational philanthropy, the Jewish Communal Fund is a valuable resource for helping you engage your children and grandchildren in philanthropy in a proactive and meaningful manner. In addition, JCF has appointed relationship managers to assist donors in creating strategies for enhancing their philanthropic activities and adopting effective succession planning.

Facilitating our donor's philanthropy is a great privilege—we thank you for your continued support and generosity,

Laurence W. Cohen

Evaluating Impact Roundtable

Teen Tzedakah Summit on Hunger

Since 1972,

Jewish Communal Fund (JCF), the donor-advised fund of the Jewish community of greater New York, has been helping individuals, families, corporations and communal groups achieve their philanthropic and tax saving goals simply and efficiently, with full confidentiality and maximum choice. Our donors receive the utmost tax deduction allowed by law. They then have the flexibility to select investment options and recommend grants to sectarian and nonsectarian organizations, using our easy online fund management system.

Each year, Jewish Communal Fund awards a $2 million community gift to the Annual Campaign of the UJA-Federation of New York, to support programs and institutions dedicated to the welfare and security of the Jewish community at home and abroad.

JCF is a leader in the field of multi-generational philanthropy.

At JCF, families have created a legacy of giving extending over four generations.

JCF's Center for Next Generation Philanthropy

The Center aims to serve as the gateway for young Jews in their teens, 20s and 30s to become engaged in philanthropy. Through a strategic partnership with the acclaimed Slingshot organization, JCF's Center for Next Generation Philanthropy will craft meaningful programming and resources to educate and inspire our Next Generation donors.

The Center developed JCF's Guide to Giving: A Tzedakah Resource for Teens, a tool to help teens be more informed and thoughtful about charitable giving. JCF also introduced Tzedakah Summits, co-sponsored with J-Teen Leadership, where teens explored issues such as poverty and hunger and worked as a group to make grants responding to these needs.

Special Gifts Make a Difference

Since 1999, JCF has distributed more than $9 million from the JCF Special Gifts Fund, an institutional endowment fund that supports worthy initiatives in the New York Jewish community.

This fund supported the Gurwin Jewish Nursing and Rehabilitation Center (below left), a full-continuum care facility that provides excellent nursing and rehabilitation services, assisted living facilities and outstanding home care programs, and the Sid Jacobson JCC (below right), one of Long Island's most innovative and comprehensive Jewish community centers.

In the past, JCF funded a variety of important organizations and programs including multi-year support for Hillel's Collegiate Leadership Internship Program (CLIP), designed to develop the next generation of Jewish professional and lay leadership. JCF was instrumental in the establishment of Plaza Jewish Community Chapel, the first community-owned Jewish funeral home in New York. This fund has also supported Jewish community centers throughout the greater metropolitan area.

JCF is committed to Tikkun Olam, repairing the world.

Masbia kosher soup kitchen network

$250,000

grant awarded from JCF's Special Gifts Fund.

Masbia aims to turn the typical image of a soup kitchen—metal, rick-rackety tables; long, slow-moving lines—on its head. The goal is to preserve the dignity of needy Kosher-observant Jews who would otherwise go hungry due to shame. Masbia has the look and feel of a restaurant, with full waiter service and the ambiance of an upscale eatery and served more than 150,000 meals in the past year alone.

Hebrew Educational Society

$150,000

grant awarded from JCF's Special Gifts Fund.

This vibrant community center serves a diverse population in Brooklyn with programs and services for every stage of life, including child and after-school care, adult classes, sports and recreation and a senior center.

I've had a fund with the Jewish Communal Fund for more than 20 years. I think that the service is fantastic; you feel very good that your money is being managed properly and it's in good hands.

– SANDY WEILL

Overview

DONOR CONTRIBUTIONS

An initial tax-deductible contribution of $5,000 or more in cash and/or appreciated marketable securities* is required to establish a donor-advised fund, including Memorial and Wedding funds. The Children's Giving Fund and NextGen Giving Fund (18-30) may be established with a minimum gift of $1,800. A donor may make additional contributions to the fund at any time in any amount. Contributions may be made by friends, family, private foundations, corporations, or in conjunction with assorted estate planning tools such as Charitable Remainder Trusts, Charitable Lead Trusts, bequests and retirement plan assets.

*Securities held for over one year.

GRANT MAKING

Donors at the Jewish Communal Fund enjoy the privilege of recommending distribution of principal and income of the assets in their fund to sectarian and nonsectarian institutions that are recognized by the IRS as tax-exempt, publicly supported charities that are eligible to receive grants from donor-advised funds. All grants are for charitable purposes. Donors also have the opportunity to extend this privilege to others whom they so designate. All recommendations are subject to evaluation by our staff for adherence to JCF's policies and procedures. We consider donor recommendations to be of profound importance and therefore, give them careful consideration and respect in our grant determinations.

FEES AND EXPENSES

Each fund is assessed a monthly fee for services based on the average daily net asset balance. The sliding fee schedule, per annum, operates as follows:

- Balances less than $5 million .....0.75% (75 basis points) or $150 per annum, whichever is greater*
- Next $15 million.....0.50% (50 basis points)
- Next $20 million.....0.10% (10 basis points)
- Balances above $40 million .....0.05% (5 basis points)

*Minimum annual fee for Children's Giving Funds with balances under $5,000 is $100.

In addition, funds are subject to commissions and fees incurred in connection with the sale of contributed property, as well as outside management expenses associated with each investment portfolio.

INVESTMENTS

In consultation with its investment advisors, the Investment Committee of the Jewish Communal Fund periodically reviews investments and establishes investment policies. These policies are designed to:

- (1) ensure that donor contributions and fund assets are continuously invested;
- (2) maximize investment returns in relation to risk;
- (3) maintain varied investment alternatives that are suitable for various philanthropic plans;
- (4) ensure that operating expenses are minimal and competitive;
- (5) ensure that funds are readily available for grant making.

When a donor-advised fund is established, the first $5,000 (or such lesser amount for funds with a lower threshold) must be invested in one or both of our primary investments: an institutional money market fund and/or a short-term bond fund, both managed by BlackRock. Donors may request to have the proceeds in excess of the first $5,000 invested in our investment alternatives, subject to the minimums required for each alternative. Donors may exercise this privilege each time a contribution is made and may recommend a reallocation of the assets in the fund four times each calendar year.

Privately Managed Accounts

Donors with over $55,000 in assets may opt to invest in one of six privately managed accounts. These accounts are: Eagle Capital Management, Gabelli Asset Management (GAMCO), Horizon Asset Management, Klingenstein Fields, Neuberger Berman LLC and Tradewinds International Value. A minimum investment of $50,000 is required to invest in any one of these accounts.

Private Investment Managers

Donors with over $1 million in assets in their funds may opt to have a private investment manager invest their charitable accounts. In order for this to occur, the donor must make the request to JCF, and JCF will contact the prospective organization and solicit information on the organization. Once the information is received, it is reviewed by outside investment consultants, who provide a recommendation to JCF's Investment Committee. The Committee will evaluate the recommendation and make a final determination whether to accept the organization as an investment vehicle for the respective donor. The decision of the Investment Committee is final.

In addition, donors who maintain balances over $1 million may choose from an array of select alternative investments.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Trustees
Jewish Communal Fund
New York, NY

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position of the Jewish Communal Fund (an entity of a sole member) ("JCF") as of June 30, 2011 and 2010, and the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of JCF's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the JCF's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements enumerated above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Jewish Communal Fund as of June 30, 2011 and 2010, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

[ June 30, 2011 and 2010 ]

NOTE A - THE ORGANIZATION AND ITS SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

[1] Organization:

The Jewish Communal Fund ("JCF") was organized in 1972 as an independent, public charity (not a private foundation) under the not-for-profit corporation law of the State of New York. Through donor-advised funds, JCF offers individuals and families a way to simplify their charitable giving and to plan their philanthropy over time. JCF extends to donors or their successors the privilege of recommending grants from their funds to the qualified charities of their choice. The United Jewish Appeal - Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of New York, Inc. ("UJA") is the sole member of JCF.

JCF is, in turn, the sole member of Jewish Communal Fund Holdings LLC (the "LLC"). The LLC is a not-for-profit corporation organized in New York in September 2001 and was established to hold certain donations from time-to-time as JCF deems necessary. At June 30, 2011 and 2010, there were no net assets in the LLC. The financial statements of the LLC have been included in the accompanying consolidated financial statements, with all inter-organizational transactions eliminated in the consolidation process.

JCF is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") and is classified as a publicly supported organization under Sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) of the Code. Additionally, JCF is exempt from state and local income taxes under comparable laws. Donors are entitled to the maximum income tax benefits for their donations that are permitted under present federal and state laws.

[2] Basis of accounting:

The consolidated financial statements of JCF have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting and conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America as applicable to not-for-profit organizations.

[3] Functional allocation of expenses:

The costs of providing JCF's various grant and supporting services have been summarized on a functional basis in the accompanying consolidated statements of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the program and supporting services in reasonable ratios determined by management.

[4] Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

[5] Cash and cash equivalents:

Cash and cash equivalents primarily include funds held temporarily by various investment institutions, awaiting disposition.

[6] Investments:

Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their fair values in the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position, with realized and unrealized gains and losses included in the accompanying consolidated statements of activities. JCF's bond and equity mutual funds are also reported at their fair values, as determined by the related investment manager or advisor. Donated securities are recorded at their fair values, as determined by the proceeds received on the date of sale or by the net asset value as determined by the fund manager.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

[ June 30, 2011 and 2010 ]

NOTE A - THE ORGANIZATION AND ITS SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

[6] Investments: (continued)

JCF has investments in certain not-readily-marketable securities which are ownership interests in private equity securities and certain limited partnerships for which market values are not readily obtainable. Because of the inherent uncertainty of the valuation of these investments, JCF and its various investment managers monitor their positions to reduce the risk of potential losses due to changes in fair values or the failure of counterparties to perform. The estimated values provided by these managers may differ from actual values had a ready market for these investments existed.

With respect to equity securities received from donors which, for example, are (i) not readily marketable, (ii) the securities of private companies, or (iii) the securities of companies in liquidation, JCF's policy is to record such items at a nominal value in the absence of readily determinable fair values, although such assets may have significant value.

Investment transactions are recorded on a trade-date basis. Realized gains or losses on investments are determined by comparison of the average cost of acquisition to proceeds at the time of disposition. The earnings from dividends and interest are recognized when earned.

Investment expenses include the services of bank trustees, investment managers and custodians. The balances of investment management fees disclosed in Note B are those specific fees charged by JCF's various investment managers in each fiscal year; however, they do not include those fees that may be embedded in various other investment accounts and transactions.

[7] Accrued vacation:

Based on their tenure, employees are entitled to be paid for unused vacation time if they leave JCF. The accrued vacation obligation was approximately $87,000 and $89,000 for fiscal-years 2011 and 2010, respectively, and is reported as part of accounts payable and accrued operating expenses in the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position. Employees may accrue up to one year of their vacation time.

[8] Income tax uncertainties:

JCF is subject to the provisions of the Financial Accounting Standards Board's Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 740-10-05, relating to accounting and reporting for uncertainty in income taxes. Because of JCF's general tax-exempt status, ASC 740-10-05 has not had, and is not expected to have, a material impact on JCF's financial statements.

[9] Fair-value measurements:

JCF reports a fair-value measurement of all applicable financial assets and liabilities, including investments, accounts receivable, and short-term payables.

[10] Net assets:

JCF's net assets, which are classified as unrestricted, represent those resources available for current operations as there are no donor restrictions on the use of the underlying assets.

JCF has established four distinct types of unrestricted philanthropic funds:

- Undesignated funds, where the privilege of grant recommendation is given to the donor (and his or her designees) and the distribution of principal and income is governed by JCF grant guidelines. Grant-making is subject to the approval of JCF's Board of Trustees and its Charitable Distribution Committee.

- Designated funds, where the beneficiaries and the schedule of distributions are established at the time of the gift and are approved by the Charitable Distribution Committee before JCF accepts the gift.
- Semi-designated funds, where the field of grant is limited to one or more functional areas and places the responsibility on JCF (through its Board of Trustees or the Charitable Distribution Committee) for designating the specific grant beneficiaries and scheduling such grants.
- Endowment funds, where the Board of Trustees and the Special Gifts Fund Committee have the responsibility for grant-making. The income and principal of these funds have been authorized by JCF to be available to meet the needs of the Jewish community, at home and abroad, at the recommendation of UJA and upon the approval of the Board of Trustees.

[11] Endowment funds:

JCF is subject to the provisions of ASC 958, which provides guidance on the net-asset classification of donor-restricted endowment funds for a not-for-profit organization that is subject to an enacted version of the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act ("UPMIFA"). The state of New York's version of UPMIFA, the New York Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act ("NYPMIFA"), was signed into law on September 17, 2010 with an immediate effective date. ASC 958 also requires additional disclosures about endowments for all organizations (see Note G).

[12] Support and revenue:

Contributions and revenues are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets. Gains and losses on investments and other assets or liabilities are reported as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets. Grants and operating expenses are reported as decreases in unrestricted net assets.

[13] Contributions:

Contributions are recorded as revenue when received unconditionally, at their fair values.

[14] Grants:

Grants made to others are recorded as an expense when they become unconditional promises to give by JCF, based on guidelines promulgated by the Board of Trustees.

[15] Subsequent events:

JCF considers all accounting treatments, and the related disclosures in the current fiscal-year's consolidated financial statements, that may be required as the result of all events or transactions that occur after the fiscal year-end through the date of the independent auditors' report.

[16] Reclassification:

Certain information in the prior year's consolidated financial statements has been reclassified to conform with the current year's presentation.

As described above, JCF has certain funds invested in fixed-income securities (the "Portfolio") which consist of agency mortgage-backed securities ("AMBS"), commercial mortgage-backed securities ("CMBS"), asset-backed securities ("ABS") and investment-grade corporate bonds. In addition, the Portfolio may invest in U.S. Treasury and agency securities. The Portfolio may also purchase U.S. Treasury futures for the purposes of managing duration and yield-curve exposure. A maximum of 30% of the total fair value of the Portfolio may be invested in ABS, CMBS and AMBS, and a maximum of 20% of the total fair value of the Portfolio may be invested in corporate-backed debt. The Portfolio must maintain an overall portfolio credit quality of AA or better. The average effective duration of the Portfolio may not exceed 3 years, and leverage is not permitted.

For each fiscal year, investment income consisted of the following:

	Year Ended June 30,
	2011	2010
Interest and dividends	$ 15,386,732	$ 15,265,219
Investment management fees (Note A[6])	(2,062,775)	(949,367)

Total investment income	$ 91,348,436	$ 58,358,167

ASC 820-10-05 establishes a three-level valuation hierarchy of fair-value measurements. These valuation techniques are based upon observable and unobservable inputs. Observable inputs reflect market data obtained from independent sources, while unobservable inputs reflect market assumptions. These two types of inputs create the following fair-value hierarchy:

- Level 1: Valuations are based on observable inputs that reflect quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities at the reporting date. The types of investments and other assets included in Level 1 are exchange-traded equity and debt securities, short-term money-market funds, and actively traded mutual funds.
- Level 2: Valuations are based on (i) quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, or (ii) quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, or (iii) pricing inputs other than quoted prices that are directly or indirectly observable at the reporting date. Level 2 assets include U.S. government and agency securities, corporate debt securities, and alternative investments that are redeemable at or near the balance sheet date and for which a model was derived for valuation.
- Level 3: Fair value is determined based on pricing inputs that are unobservable and includes situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the asset or liability. Level 3 assets include securities in privately held companies, private corporate bonds, and alternative investments, the underlying investments of which could not be independently valued, or cannot be immediately redeemed at or near the fiscal year-end.

Most investments classified in Levels 2 and 3 consist of shares or units in investment funds, as opposed to direct interests in the funds' underlying holdings, which may be marketable. Because the net-asset value reported by each fund is used as a practical expedient to estimate fair value of JCF's interest therein, its classification in Level 2 or 3 is based on JCF's ability to redeem its interest at or near June 30, 2011. If the interest can be redeemed in the near term, the investment is classified as Level 2. The classification of investments in the fair-value hierarchy is not necessarily an indication of the risks, liquidity, or degree of difficulty in estimating the fair value of each investment's underlying assets and liabilities.

The following tables summarize the fair values of JCF's assets at each fiscal year-end, in accordance with the ASC 820-10-05 valuation levels:

NOTE C - MANAGEMENT FEE ALLOCATION

To pay its operating expenses, JCF charges an administrative fee to all donor-advised funds as described below, with amounts exceeding $5,000,000 eligible for a reduced sliding scale fee structure. Fees were calculated on average daily balances as follows:

Account Balance	Administrative Fee (Per Annum)
Assets up to $5,000,000	75 basis points or $150, whichever is greater
Additional assets between $5,000,000 and $20,000,000	50 basis points
Additional assets between $20,000,000 and $40,000,000	10 basis points
Additional assets exceeding $40,000,000	5 basis points

The administrative fee is charged monthly, and it reduces the value of the donor-advised funds and increases the value of JCF's operating fund. Administrative fees and interest income in excess of operating expenses up to $2,000,000 are granted out to UJA. Administrative fees and interest income in excess of operating expenses greater than $2,000,000 are split between grants to UJA and increases to JCF's Special Gifts Fund. The fee was $5,561,592 and $5,260,510 for fiscal-years 2011 and 2010, respectively.

NOTE D - EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

[1] Defined-contribution plan:

UJA sponsors a defined-contribution 403(b) plan, for which JCF employees may participate, in compliance with the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"). Plan participants are required to make contributions in the form of payroll deductions and may contribute up to the maximum allowed by federal law. JCF does not contribute to the plan.

[2] Defined-benefit plan:

JCF employees may participate in the Retirement Plan for Employees of the United Jewish Appeal - Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of New York, Inc. and Affiliated Institutions and Agencies, a defined-benefit pension plan sponsored by UJA. Eligible employees of JCF participate automatically in this plan on a noncontributory basis and are fully vested after five years of service. The plan is subject to the provisions of ERISA. Total expenses for fiscal-years 2011 and 2010 for this plan were $110,429 and $108,274, respectively.

[3] Deferred-compensation plan:

JCF contributes to a deferred-compensation plan for one of its key employees. Annual contributions to the plan are based upon the maximum amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Code. For fiscal-year 2011, there were $16,500 of contributions made, and there were no contributions for fiscal-year 2010.

NOTE E - RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

UJA is the sole member of JCF and provides JCF with various management services, such as payroll and related processing, and insurance coverage, for which JCF reimburses UJA. For fiscal-years 2011 and 2010, respectively, JCF reimbursed UJA in the amount of $1,864,184 and $1,770,999 for these costs. For fiscal-year 2011, JCF awarded grants to UJA totaling $18,554,319 of which $2,054,865 was from the operating fund, $841,800 was from the Special Gifts Fund, and $15,657,654 was from donor-advised funds. For fiscal-year 2010, JCF awarded grants to UJA totaling $13,508,567, of which $2,000,000 was from the operating fund, $401,800 was from the Special Gifts Fund, and $11,106,767 was from donor-advised funds.

NOTE F - COMMITMENT AND CONTINGENCY

- [1] For its New York City office, JCF is obligated under a noncancelable operating lease that expires in 2014. As of June 30, 2011, minimum future lease payments under the lease agreement are as follows:

Year Ending June 30,	Amount
2012	$ 204,608
2013	204,608
2014	136,405
	$ 545,621

NOTE G - BOARD-DESIGNATED ENDOWMENT

[1] The endowment:

As discussed in Note A[11], JCF has an Endowment Fund (Special Gifts Fund), from which grants are approved by the Board of Trustees.

[2] Interpretation of relevant law:

The New York Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act ("NYPMIFA") became law in September 2010. The Board of Trustees will continue to adhere to NYPMIFA's requirements relating to its investment policies.

[3] Changes in endowment net assets during each fiscal year:

	Year Ended June 30,
	2011	2010
Endowment net assets, beginning of year	$ 13,619,477	$ 12,364,164
Contributions	105,504	473,774
Investment return:
Net appreciation (realized and unrealized)	3,002,658	1,715,306
Appropriation of endowment assets for grant expenditure	(949,963)	(933,767)
Endowment net assets, end of year	$ 15,777,676	$ 13,619,477

[4] Return objectives and risk parameters:

JCF has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs that meet the needs of the Jewish community, at home and abroad, while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Under this policy, as approved by the Board of Trustees, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce results that exceed the price and yield results of the S&P 500 index while assuming a moderate level of investment risk.

[5] Strategies employed for achieving objectives:

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, JCF relies on a total-return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). JCF targets a diversified asset allocation within prudent risk constraints.

[6] Spending policy and related objectives:

JCF has a policy of appropriating for distribution each year 7% of its endowment fund's average fair value over the prior 12 quarters through the calendar year-end preceding the fiscal year in which the distribution is planned. In establishing this policy, JCF considered the long-term expected return on its endowment. Accordingly, over the long term, JCF expects the current spending policy to allow its endowment to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment net assets, as well as to provide additional real growth through investment returns.

NOTE H - CREDIT RISK

Financial instruments that potentially subject JCF to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and cash-equivalent accounts that are deposited in financial institutions in amounts which, from time to time, may exceed federal insurance limits. However, management believes that JCF does not face a significant risk of loss on these accounts related to failure of these financial institutions.

Independent Auditors' Report of Supplementary Information

Board of Trustees
Jewish Communal Fund
New York, NY

Our report on our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Jewish Communal Fund (an entity of a sole member) for the year ended June 30, 2011, appears on page 1. Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on those basic financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying supplemental summary schedule of grants made to various philanthropic institutions and related expenses for the year ended June 30, 2011, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.
