

Kincaids of Taughboyne parish, county Donegal

This is my personal free contribution and this paper is for research purposes only. Over time, I will try to proof read things thoroughly and upload a better edition of this paper. If you descend from this line of Kincaids and wish to reward me for my efforts, then my suggestion is get or support Y-dna testing of related male Kincaid descendants. That would greatly help my quest to break down genealogical brick walls.

I used the following conventions in this document: bolded name, bolded & underlined spouse, underlined important places. If a connection is not clear then "it is not certain" is added in red and underlined. Personal comments are also enclosed within {}. To save space the characters // were used to indicate a new paragraph. Male names with a red § following their names indicates that evidence suggests that their line failed due to an early death or due to there being no legitimate children. Sources follow the record in [].

Thanks also to others specifically noted within the text as having made information available. Cite them if you wish to use their contributed information. If it is my original contribution that is to be used in anyone's research, then I should be cited. A suggested citation is:

Finally, bear in mind that with this many pages of entered information, there are bound to be typos in this paper. This is basically a draft document. If something is of interest to your research, consult the original record to confirm the correct information. If anyone finds a typo or error then please let me know. The same goes if new significant information is found that can shed light on connections between individuals. My contact information is at the end of this paper. Enjoy and good luck with your research.

Andrew Kinkead of Taughboyne Parish, County Donegal (bef 1701 - c1722).

- Kinkead; Andrew, Taboyne C.o Donegal C.o Louth Merch.t; 1722; I; 148:150 [National Archives of Ireland, Dublin, Ireland. Diocesan & Prerogative Wills, 1595-1858.  - Discussion: This is an inventory of his estate. The online searchable database at the National Library of Ireland for some unknown reason adds Galway in a column titled "county of residence." This must be an error as the entry says Donegal and Louth. Even Louth is an error. The surviving abstract shows that Co Louth was meant to be Cloth Merchant.

 - Discussion: The Church of Ireland diocese of Raphoe consisted of thirty four parishes and covered most of Co. Donegal. It included the parishes of All Saints, Convoy, Conwall, Killea, Kiltteevoge, Leck, Raphoe, Raymoghly, Stranolar, and Taughboyne in the barony of Raphoe as well as Burt parish in the barony of Inishowen West. Excluded was the Inishowen peninsula (Derry Diocese) and the very south of the county (Clogher Diocese).

- In 1733 a marriage licence bond was made for the marriage of Andrew McIlwaine and Jane Fasset and in 1733 another was made for the marriage of Ann McIlwain and Andrew Ferrell [Index to Raphoe Marriage Licence Bonds, 1710-1755 and 1817-1830. Robert Kinkead of Raphoe diocese, County Donegal (bef 1720 – aft 1737).

- Robert Kinkead and Mary Hutchinson alias Walker obtained a marriage licence bond in 1738 [Index to Raphoe Marriage Licence Bonds, 1710-1755 and 1817-1830. Transcribed by Rosemary ffolliott. Dublin: The Irish Ancestor, 1969. Published as a free supplement to The Irish Ancestor. 8].
- It is not certain, but he is probably the father of James Kinkead of Maghereagh, Donagheady Parish, County Tyrone as there were Hutchinson spinster sisters living there in 1773 when James Kinkead appears in that townland. James Kinkead was succeeded by his son Robert.

 - James Kinkead, watchmaker, is noted in the Kinkeads of Delaware, as having advertised in the

- James Kinkead, watchmaker, of Christiana Bridge, New Castle County, Delaware had married Margaret Liggot, daughter of George Liggot of West Bradford Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania. The Will of George Liggot, dated 28 December 1767, notes his two daughters: Margaret, wife of James Kinkead, watchmaker, of the town of Christian, New Castle County, Pennsylvania and Rachel Davidson, relicke of John Davidson, deceased of West Bradford Township, Chester County, PA. George Liggot had left his daughters his 137 acre plantation in East Fallowfield Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania [Bryant, Carol. Abstracts of Chester County, Pennsylvania Land Records. vol. 5 (1758-1765). Westminster, MD: Family Line Publications, 1998. FHL book #974.813 R28b]. They sold this 137 acre parcel to William Peoples of East Fallowfield Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania for 170 pounds on 13 March 1792 [Chester County Deed Book W2, p. 559].
 - Rachel (Liggot) Davidson remarried and, as Rachel Gardner of Honeybrook, left "to James, son of James Kinkead and wife Margaret, 50 acres of land to be surveyed off the east side of my plantation" by her Will dated 29 December 1792 and proved on 1 April 1793 [Wills: Abstracts and Administrations 1713-1825: Chester Co, PA. 1 April 1793].
- I James Kinkead, watch and clockmaker at Christiana, nearly opposite Mr. Dunn's store continues to carry on his business in as extensive a manner as ever, and hopes to merit the favor of all those that please to employ him. He returns thanks to all those ladies and gentlemen that have favored him with their custom and gives them caution that there is another person who follows the said business at the sign of the Boot and Shoe, a little below his shop, where some watches have been carried through mistake of the messengers, which the owners intended for the said Kinkead [The Pennsylvania Packet, Philadelphia, PA, USA. 7 February 1774].

i. James Kinkead (aft 1775 -).

- In the Chester County tax records, under date of January 8, 1796, James Kinkead, a minor, of Honeybrook Township, is listed as the owner of two tracts of land, one of fifty acres and one of 36 acres, as well as a small log house. - On 8 April 1799, it is recorded that James & Joseph Kinkead, both of Brandywine Township, sold 50 acres to Benjamin Jones of Honeybrook Township it being the parcel of land left to James Kinkead by Rachel Gardner by her Will dated 29 December 1792 [Chester County Deed Book R2, p. 463].
- "My father raised and equipped a company of volunteers for the War of 1812, they were not called into action, however, probably because of their remoteness from the scene of hostilities. His reputation as "bridge builder" led the city or county of Baltimore to send for him in Ohio to superintend the building of a large stone bridge across the Patapasco River near the city of Baltimore. My father first lived in a place called Heistertown named after some relative of my mother's. The family moved to Somerset County, Penn. where I was born. You may remember I went up to look at the place in 1891 when we were visiting you at Sewickley (near Pittsburgh). The town was originally named Smithfield but changed some years ago to Somerville, the change made, I believe, on account of a like named town close by in Fayette County. On this trip I was shown a book entitled, I believe, "The Annals of Fayette County" or "the History of Fayette County." It was printed I think a good many years ago but there are doubtless some copies still extant. The copy I saw was pretty badly used up in 1891. . . . In the front of the book is a history of the inception and organization of the "national turnpike road" with wich my father was identified for many years very prominently. My father was engineer and contractor as long as the road was a government work, going west with it from Baltimore, Md. to Zanesville, OH, locating it first on the westward move at Smithfield, Somerset County, Penn. and lastly at Zanesville, Oh, where the youngest of the family, my brother, Charles, was born. You will understand that this "National Road" was a great work in its day and generation before railroads were and steel and iron were not--all bridges were of wood or stone; on this great highway all were built of stone. This was my father's chief business, all on the road was built by and under his supervision, from Cumberland Maryland to Zanesville, Ohio, at Smithfield, my birth place, one of the largest bridges on the road was built -- about the middle of the arched structure, set in the wall is a large, square stone with the inscription, 'Jack Kinkead, R.C. Beck & Evans built in 1817' engraved upon it. His last work was a big bridge on the road which was 25 miles east of Zanesville. When I was at Smithfield (Somerville) in 1891 the bridge my father built there was perfect--not a stone displaced. If you ever get the book I spoke of you will see that the U.S. voted my father a bonus of $15,000 for this bridge over and above the contract for it." - x. John Henry Kinkead (16 Dec 1824 - 15 Aug 1904).
 - Kinkead, John Henry, third state governor of Nevada (1879-83), was born at Smithfield (now known as Somerville), Somerset co., Pa., Dec. 10, 1826, son of James S. Kinkead. His father was an engineer and contractor on the old national turnpike road, following its construction from Baltimore county, Md., to Zanesville, Muskingum co., O., building all or nearly all the bridges on the line, the material used being stone. One constructed at Smithfield, on the Youghiogheny, was in as good condition a few years ago as when constructed in 1818. The family removed to Zanesville, in 1829, and thence to Lancaster, where John received his education at the high school, an institution of some repute at the time. From school he went into business, removing in 1844 to St. Louis, Mo., where he became a salesman in a large jobbing dry-goods store. In 1849 he formed a partnership with J. W. Livingston, and the young men established themselves in Salt Lake City, there building up a large trade in dry-goods. He removed to California in 1854, engaged in various pursuits and finally settled in Marysville, but two years later went back to the East and tried mercantile business in New York city. Returning to Marysville in the winter of 1856-57, he met with one reverse after another. The discovery of the great silver mines in the Washoe region, at that time a part of Utah territory, led to a large emigration from California and Mr. Kinkead was one of the many who hoped to retrieve their fortunes in a new centre of population. Making Carson City his place of residence, he was active in the movement to create the commonwealth of Nevada, and when, in 1861, the territory was formed from the western part of Utah, he was elected territorial treasurer. He was a member of the convention which framed the present constitution of the state. In 1867 he went to Alaska with the "occupancy" expedition, and witnessed the transfer of the territory to the United States. He remained there nearly three years, in business in Sitka; then returned to Nevada, engaging in mercantile, mining and milling business in Humboldt and Lander counties. In 1878 he was elected governor by the Republican party and at the end of his term was offered a re-election, but declined it. In 1884 Pres. Arthur appointed him governor of the newly created district of Alaska, but in 1885 he returned to Carson City. Gov. Kinkead was married at Marysville, Cal., Jan. 1, 1856, to Lizzie, daughter of John C. Fale [The National Cyclopaedia of American Biography: Being the History of the United States as illustrated in the lives of the founders, builders, and defenders of the Republic, and of the men and women who are doing the work and moulding the thought of the present time. Volume XI. Copyright, 1901, 1909 bt James T. White & Company. Ann Arbour, Michigan: University Microfilms A Xerox Company, 1967. Page 201].

- Discussion: John Henry Kinkead and Lizzie Fall had no children. They adopted a native boy from Alaska and named him Kahtz Kinkead. However, he died at a young age.

- Governor John Henry Kinkead and his wife died in Carson City, NV and are buried in Lone Mountain Cemetery, Carson City, NV. Their current gravestone contains the following vital information:

John H. Kinkead
Dec. 10. 1826 - Aug. 15. 1904
Eliz. Fall Kinkead
His Wife
Apr. 21. 1837 - Aug. 26. 1907

xi. Charles Augustus Kinkead (23 Nov 1828 -).

- Charles Kinkead was born in Zanesville, Ohio [Letter from Governor John Henry Kinkead to Mrs. Osgood Pell dated 1897. Chester County Historical Society, West Chester, Pennsylvania. Kinkead file. Abstracted by Norman L. Kincaide and posted to Kincaid-L mailing list on 2 November 2002].

George Kinkead (c1733 – Sep 1790) of Toboyne Township, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania.

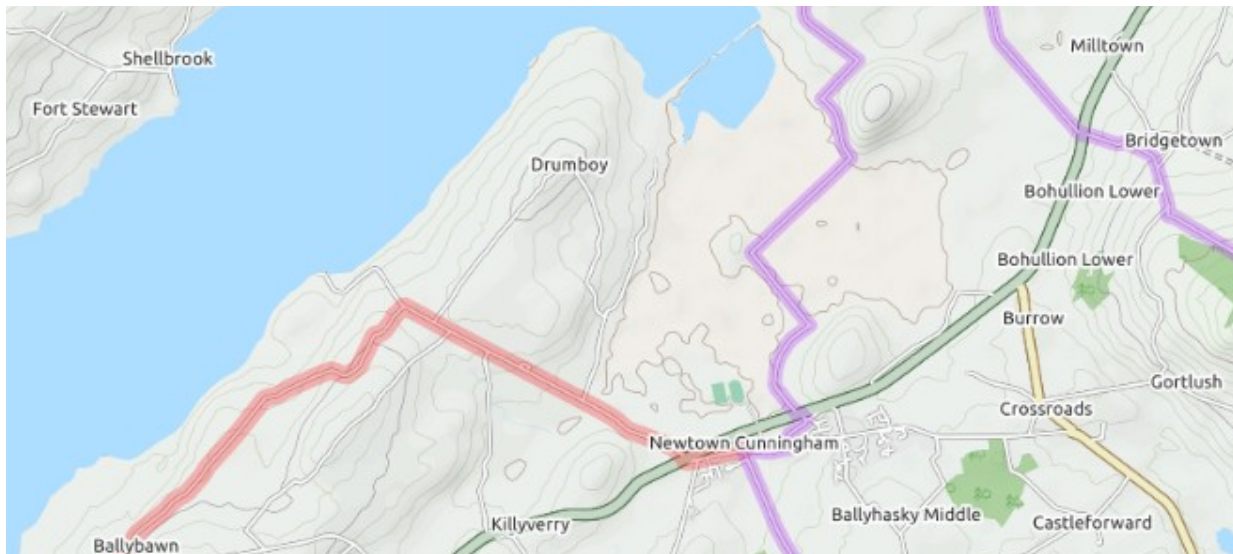

-- The following information known about George was provided by Norman Kincaide of Colorado, USA --

-  This line is represented by sample 4164 of the Kincaid DNA project at Family Tree DNA (see https://kincaiddna.org/lineage_4164.php). Sample 4164, the above noted Norman Kincaide of Colorado, is part of set 2a of the Kincaid DNA project with sample 122441 who also descends from George Kinkead (c1733- Sep 1790, m. Jean Mitchell) of Toboyne township, Cumberland County, PA and sample 377865 who descends from David Kincaid (m. Lucy Riggins McCormick). Ballybegley

The parish of Taughboyne formerly included townlands in what is now the Parish of All Saints. All Saints Parish sits above present Taughboyne Parish. Ballybegley Begg & Ballybegley Little townlands currently lie in the parish of All Saints and are on the lower corner of the northwest border which fronts on Lough Swilly. A couple of townlands to the northeast on Lough Swilly is Drumboy, All Saints Parish. Immediately northeast of Ballybegley Begg is Moneygreggan. Immediately southwest of Ballybegley Little on Lough Swilly is Ballylawn (aka Ballylan and originally Ballyneagh and Boylelawny).

Ballybegley is quite likely a seed townland for a number of subsequent Kincaid lines in Taughboyne parish, County Donegal and Donaghedy parish, County Tyrone. The earliest known Kincaids in Ballybegley were John, Robert and Samuel Kincaid who had a lease of lands there in 1730. The latter two held land with one William Parks. Online genealogies have William Park of Ballybegley (1675 – 1750) marrying Jane Hood and his brother Arthur Parke marrying Mary Esther Jack, daughter of William Jack and Esther Todd, before emigrating to West Fallowfield, Chester County, Pennsylvania (see <https://www.familysearch.org/tree/person/details/GHG5-HBL>).

Samuel Kincaid sold his interest in 1741 and could be the Samuel Kincaid who shows up in Windham, New Hampshire. There is no further trace of him in County Donegal. He was old enough to be an elder in the Windham church when the call was put out to Rev. John Kincaid of Chester County, Pennsylvania to go there. Perhaps the above noted John Kincaid of Ballybegley was this Rev. John Kincaid. As noted above the Parks family was certainly associated with Chester County, Pennsylvania.

The Jacks are a pivotal connecting family. Sometime before 21 November 1697, John Jack of Lisnaragh, Donaghedy parish had married Mary Kincaid - as on this date they had a son Samuel baptized. Also in Ballybegley was the family of Archibald Alexander who died there on 31 March 1689. His wife, Elizabeth Mackey died there on 30 January 1715 at the age of 78. Archibald's eldest son, Joseph Alexander, married Margaret Jack of Brookhall, Templemore parish on 17 November 1686. Their eldest son, James Alexander married Jane Scott and had Elizabeth who married John Alexander, son of James Alexander of Gortmessan, Donaghedy parish, County Tyrone. Other descendants of Archibald Alexander of Ballybegley, ended up in the townlands of Drumenan (south side of Castletown & west side of Whitehill) and Kinnakally (south side of Clashygowan & north side of Castletown) in Taughboyne parish, County Donegal as well as in Altrest and Donemana in Donaghedy parish, County Tyrone. The Scotts also tie into Brookhall and are connected to the Hamiltons and McIlwaines. William Scott of Hornhead Castle married Frances Stewart (daughter or sister of Capt. Charles Stewart and Anne Hamilton, d/o Gustavus Hamilton and Elizabeth Brooke). Gustavus Hamilton was the nephew of James, 1st earl of Abercorn, Charles Hamilton of Shawfield who had a castle on his lands near Donemana, Donaghedy parish, County Tyrone, and George Hamilton of Greenlaw who built Derrywoone castle on Island McHugh, Barons Courty, County Tyrone. William Scott's daughter, Margaret Scott, married firstly Thomas Anderson and had Frances Anderson who married Samuel Dysart (c1710-1750) of Brook Hall. Margaret Scott married secondly John McIlwaine and had Elizabeth McIlwaine (c1732-19 Dec 1793) who married Rev. Joseph Rhea.

Brookhall places a key role as well. The estate lies between Boom Hall (south) and Thorn Hill (north) on the River Foyle along the road to Muff (Culmore Rd). It was part of Ballynashallog which is on the east side of Shatallow and Ballyarnet. On 27 September 1746 Andrew Makilvaine of Londonderry executed an instrument binding his 14 acres farm about Brookhall as part of a marriage contract with his soon to be second wife Lucy Noble of Derrygree, County Fermanagh. The farm was part of a lease from George Gregory and Rebecka Houston dated 2 November 1739. The family names of Noble, McIlwaine, Houston and Alexander tie into an interesting pattern between Kincaids and the sheriffs of Londonderry. The said Andrew McIlwaine of Londonderry, who married Lucy Noble, was a sheriff of Londonderry in 1721, 1727, 1734 and 1740. One William Noble had been sheriff of Londonderry in 1670 and several Houstons held that position starting with Robert Houston who was sheriff of Londonderry in 1675. He was followed by descendants Robert Houston who was sheriff of Londonderry in 1710, and 1729; Edward Houston who was sheriff of Londonderry in 1730; and Robert Houston was sheriff of Londonderry in 1756. The above noted Rebecka Houston was the widow of said Edward Houston. Compare this with the sequence of Kincaid marriages:

- John Kinkead and his wife Jane Noble, conveyed their lease of part of the lands of Ballynahery, Drumachose Parish to one Robert Scott on 10 April 1732 [Northern Ireland. Registry of Deeds. Kinkead et ux to Scott, no. 62733, book 89, page 178].
- John Kinkead and Elizabeth McIlwaine obtained a marriage licence bond for their marriage in 1734 [Index to Raphoe Marriage Licence Bonds, 1710-1755 and 1817-1830. Transcribed by Rosemary ffollott. Dublin: The Irish Ancestor, 1969. Published as a free supplement to The Irish Ancestor. 8].
- John Kincaid and Jane Houston's marriage was solemnized at St. Columb's Church of Ireland Cathedral in Londonderry on 3 June 1782 by Rev. Pitt Kennedy.
- On 27 April 1775, William Leckey Esq., Rebecca Houston, widow, Robert Houston, merchant, and Sarah Houston, spinster, conveyed to James Alexander Esq. their leasehold interest in land near the City of Londonderry for consideration of £669.14.1½. and rent of £6.3.2½ [Public Record Office of Northern Ireland (PRONI), Belfast, Northern Ireland. D2433/A/1/46/4].
- On 10 May 1775, William Leckey of the City of Londonderry, Esquire, Rebecca Houston of the City of Londonderry, widow, and Robert Houston of the City of Londonderry, merchant, and Sarah Houston, spinster, the only children of the said Rebecca Houston, conveyed to James Alexander of the City of Londonderry, Esquire, "All that and those two undivided third part of twenty seven acres of Land Marked in the map of the acres No. 4 bounded on the North East by the road leading to Muff on the North by the acres No. 10, on the South West by the acres No. 3, on the South East by the River Loughfoyle and on the North East by the acres No. 11 and lie about one Mile and a half distant from Derry." Deed and Memorial witnessed by Eneas Murray of the City of Londonderry, notary public, and Patrick Dwyer, of the City of Londonderry, writing clerk [Northern Ireland. Registry of Deeds. Volume 307, page 393, no. 204717; registered 7 June 1775. <https://www.familysearch.org/ark:/61903/3:1:3Q9M-CSJW-J9X2-G?i=204&cat=185720>].
- William Kinkad was recorded in the 1783 cess lists for Ballynashallog, Templemore Parish, County Londonderry {Ballynashallog was previously held by the above noted Andrew McIlwaine and contained Brookhall} [PRONI, MIC1/19/1. Parish of Templemore, Diocese Derry, Co. Londonderry: List of Cess-payers, 1775-1784].

One last point is that one of the witnesses to the Kinkeads 1730 Ballybegley deed was Moses Haslett. He may have been the ancestor of the Hasletts of Whitehill, Taughboyne parish, County Donegal and Sandville/Drumgauty, Donaghedy parish, County Tyrone. The latter got into a losing feud with the Earl of Abercorn and ended up losing their lands and eventually ending up at Woodhill, County Donegal in the 1820s (Along the River Foyle, p. 87).

• Discussion: Stewarts Court is the estate about Ballylawn Castle, Merville Upper parish, County Donegal. The castle was the seat of the Stewart's of Stewart's Court Manor. Thomas Stewart married Mary Ward, daughter of Bernard Ward, of which the line of Viscount Bangor sprung. Thomas Stewart died without surviving issue and was succeeded by Alexander Stewart, M.P. for the City of Londonderry who married Mary Cowan, daughter of John Cowan, Esq. of Londonderry.

- Stewart of Londonderry.// The branch of the noble house of Stewart, to which the Marquess of Londonderry belongs, claims descent from Sir Thomas Stewart, of Minto, second son of Sir William Stewart, of Garlies, ancestor to the Earl of Galloway. William Stewart, Esq., of Ballylawn Castle, in the county of Donegal (great-grandson of John Stewart, Esq., who had a grant from Charles I. of the manor of Stewart's Court, where he erected the Castle of Ballylawn), took an active part in the contest between James and William, in Ireland, and held the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel in the regiment commanded by his wife's kinsman, Sir William Stewart, Viscount Mountjoy. Colonel Stewart married the daughter of Sir William Stewart, of Fort Stewart, in the county of Donegal. His eldest son and heir, Thomas, who succeeded him at Ballylawn Castle, served as a Captain in Lord Mountjoy's regiment. He married Mary, second daughter of Bernard Ward, Esq., (ancestor of the Viscounts Bangor), by Mary, sister of Michael Ward Bishop of Derry, but dying without issue, in 1740, was succeeded by his only brother, Alexander, who represented the city of Londonderry in parliament, and purchased the estate of Mount Stuart, in the county of Down, from the Colville family. He married his cousin, Mary, only daughter of John Cowan, of Londonderry, Esq., (by Anne Stewart, second daughter of Alexander Stewart, of Ballylawn Castle), and sister and sole heiress of Robert Cowan, Governor of Bombay. By that lady, who survived him seven years, and died in 1788, he had issue :-- 1. Robert, first Marquess of Londonderry... "In 1720 our branch of the Parke family consisted of William, Arthur, Samuel, David and Jane Parke. All, perhaps, were married, with families, except Jane, who always lived with her brother, Arthur Parke. William Parke married Jane Hood, daughter of John Hood, the mathematician. They had eight children and always resided in Ireland.// 1. John Parke.// 2. Samuel, who was drowned during a storm on Lough Levithy.// 3. Robert Hood Parke, the father of twelve children : John, the Fagg's Manor school teacher; Elizabeth, who died in infancy; Robert, Jr., Madaline, John Percivan, Ethel C., Hessie, Annie, Samuel, Elizabeth, William and James Parke.// ... 8. William Parke had four children : E. J. Alexanderm William H., Matilda McKay and Margery. Old William Parke, of Ballybegley, County Donegal, Ireland, was a child at the time of the siege of Derry in 1690 and narrowly escaped being slain by a French officer in King James' army.// I quote the above data from a typographical family record sent to Samuel R. Parke, about 1895, by J.J. Elder, of Woodstoch, New Brunswick, who claims to be a great, great, great grandson of old William Parke through a branch of this family which located in New Brunswick, Canada, in 1834, from who most of our early Parke history has been obtained. The Ballybegley homestead remained in the Parke family until quite recently. The last owner was a Samuel Parke.// Arthur and wife, Mary Parke, and sons, Joseph, John and Samuel, and Margaret who married William Noblitt, Arthur's sister, Jane, and her brothers, David and Samuel, with their families, removed to Fallowfield Township, Chester County, Pa, about 1720. Arthur Parke died in the latter part of January, 1739, and his wife, Mary died about 1760. At the head of his grave in Octoraro Cemetery is a memorial stone, legible within the writer's recollection. ..." [Wallace, John P. Margaret Kinkaid (c1818 – 30 Aug 1890) of Ballybegley, All Saints Parish, County Donegal.

- Margaret Kinkaid died at Ballybegley, All Saints Parish, County Donegal on 30 August 1890. She was a 72 year old female widow Farming Class who died of 'probably senile decay' (no medical attendant). The informant was Fanny Coleman of Roughan who was present at death [Ireland. Civil Registrations of Deaths. Londonderry District (Killea), 1890. no. 251, volume __, page 121; registered on 26 September 1890. https://civilrecords.irishgenealogy.ie/churchrecords/images/deaths_returns/deaths_1890/06097/4739965.pdf].

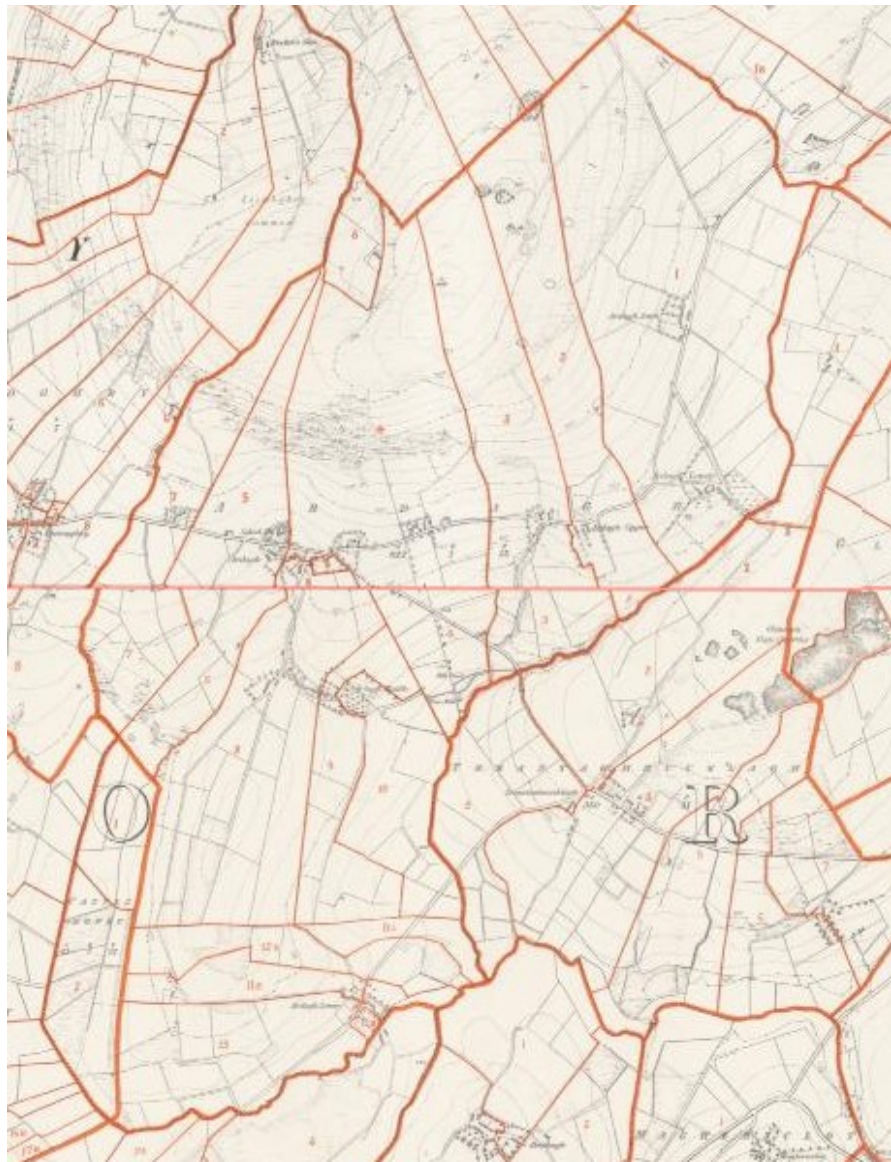

Ardagh & Clashygowan, Taughboyne parish

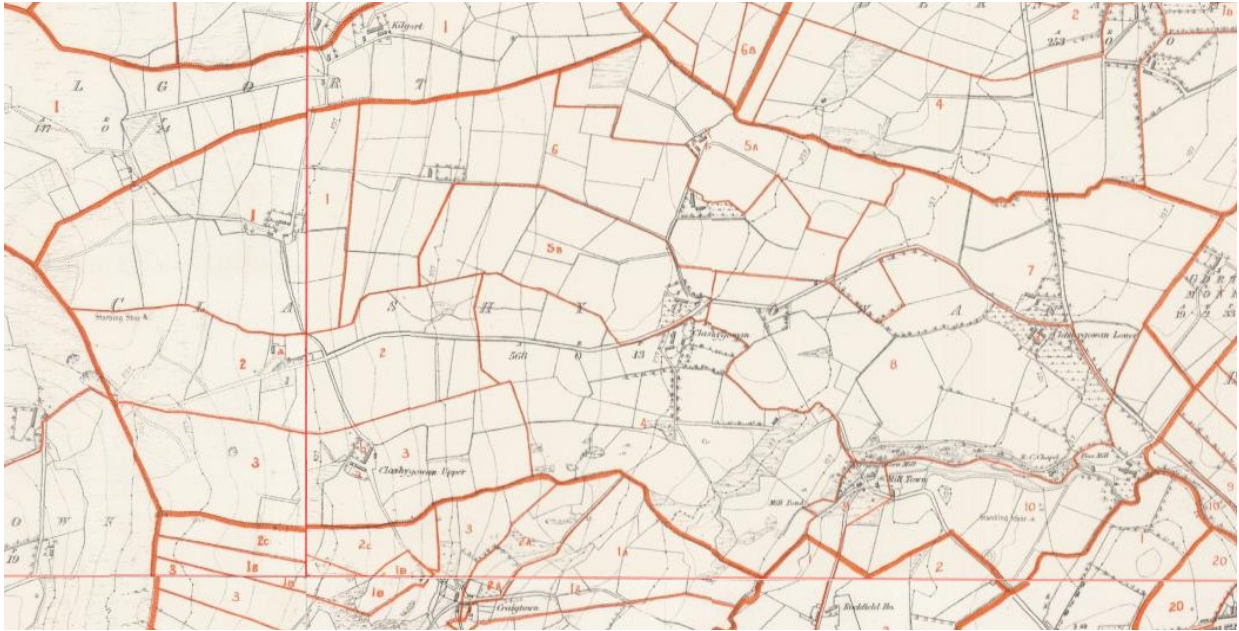

John Kinkead of Ardagh, Taughboyne parish, County Donegal is still a bit of a mystery. He was living in that townland some significant time before 3 October 1769. On the latter date he was trying to buy Robert Glendenning/Clendenning's farm in Clashygowan. Moses McCrea of Balilenan (Ballylennan) seems to have beat him to it. However, neighbours protested as they preferred John Kinkead. John Kinkead seems to have been a well liked man and, later, on 15 November 1772, even the Earl of Abercorn's agent thought well of him. He then wrote of him: "I think Kinkead a very quiet well behaved man, and I am told he is in good circumstances." Moses McCrea won out though.

Moses McCrea died in October 1772 and by the 15th of the next month his widow had bargained with one John Hemphill for McCrea's farm in Clashygowan. However, John Hemphill decided not to keep it and on 22 January 1773 John Kinkead of Ardagh was again bargaining for it. He agreed to sell his land in Ardagh to John Stinson (a.k.a. Stevenson) who was his neighbour there. He clearly was successful as the next notice of Kincaids in either place was the Earl of Abercorn's 1781 survey of the townlands. Recorded in No. II Clashygowan was John & James Kinkead. There is no reference to Kincaids in Ardagh in 1781. Clearly the 1781 John Kinkead of Clashygowan was the 1773 John Kinkead of Ardagh or his son. The 1781 James Kinkead of Clashygowan was most likely the son of the 1773 John Kinkead of Ardagh and perhaps brother of the 1781 John Kinkead of Clashygowan.

Later, Robert White of No. VI Clashygowan had a son David White who was to later marry Elizabeth Kincaid. They became the ancestors of Heather Sushames of Davistown, Australia (Gedmatch A858134). She has records linking her Elizabeth Kincaid to the Kincaids of Ballyholly.

John Kinkead of Ardagh and Clashygowan, Taughboyne Parish, County Donegal (bef 1748 -).

- Discussion: Ardagh is on the west central side of Taughboyne Parish on the border with Raymoghly Parish. It is bounded on its northern side by Dooish townland, Raymoghly Parish and on its western side by Lismoghry townland, Raymoghly Parish.
- Discussion: Clashygowan is in the central northern part of the Parish. It is two townlands northwest of Saint Johnstown and three townlands east of Ardagh townland.
- "Robert Clendeney first made an agreement with Moses McCrea of Balilenan for his farm in Clashygowan, but upon finding some of the neighbours objecting to McCrea's coming, he afterwards agreed with John Kinkead of Ardagh, who the neighbours like better, not that I believe he was to get more of it; neither will give up without your Lordships determination" [PRONI. D623/A/38/163 & T2541/IA/1/8/159. Letter from James Hamilton, Strabane, to the Earl of Abercorn dated 3 October 1769].
- 22 October 1769. James Hamilton, Strabane, to the Earl of Abercorn... Nothing is yet done in the seal of Robert Clendenings farm in Clashygowan; Moses McCrea did certainly first agree for it, and the reason Robert gives for his afterwards selling it to another is, that he had got no earnest (which they generally consider as necessary, for the binding of a bargain) that some other person had before bought it, and ten days afterwards gave it up; beside that the neighbours objected to McCrea, and were desirous of Kinkead; I am induced to think these were the motives, as I find Kinkead was not to pay more for it, neither this nor Thomas Mackeys bargain for Tillywhisker, will be determined, till your Lordship's pleasure is known [PRONI. D623/A/38/167 & T2541/IA/1/8/163].
- Mosess McCrea of Clashygowan's widow has bargined with one John Hemphill for her farm. Hemphill is a man of good character and good substance as I am told. John Kinkead of Ardagh thinks he has a fair claim to it. He tells me it was sett up to be bid for at auction, and that it was to continue up but for ten minutes and that his offer was the last within that time. I realey think Kinkead a very quiet well behaved man, and I am told he is in good circumstances. The parties are anxious to know your Lordship's determination, as whoever gets, will want to dispose of the farm he now has [PRONI. D623/A/40/70 & T2541/IA/1/10/66. Letter from James Hamilton, Strabane, to the Earl of Abercorn, dated 15 November 1772].
- Hemphill who bought from Mosess McCrea's widow her farm in Clashygowan, will not keep it. John Kinkead who pays £3 9s. 5 1/2d. in Ardagh has bargined for it, and says that John Stinson who holds as much joining his in Ardagh will buy his part there. They are both good tenants [PRONI. D623/A/40/76 & T2541/IA/1/10/72. Letter from James Hamilton, Strabane, to the Earl of Abercorn dated 22 January 1773].

James Kinkead of Clashygowan, Taughboyne Parish, County Donegal (bef 1760 -).

- Discussion: See John Kinkead of Ardagh above. It appears that James Kinkead was either the son of John Kinkead of Ardagh (later of Clashygowan) or his brother.

Robert Kinkead in Ardagh, Taughboyne Parish, County Donegal (bef 1799 -).

- The Tithe Composition Applotment Books for County Donegal record that on 3 July 1820 Robt Kincaide held 49 acres 6 perches of land assessed for a tithe of £3/6/0 in Ardagh Townland, Taughboyne Parish [Provincial Archives of New Brunswick. MC2081 - Tithe Composition Applotment Books, Co. Donegal. Tab 7/32, p. 3, #18. microfilm #F14462].
 - Discussion: The Rent Account Books for the Earl of Abercorn Tyrone and Donegal Estates (1811-1831) gives an account for lands in Ardagh townland starting on 19 February 1811 with And[re]w McClintock as the tenant. His holding was taken over by Ja[me]s Kilpatrick from November 1817. Then Rob[er]t Kinkead takes over the holding on 25 November 1823 and pays £14/11/0 twice a year. Another account for lands in Ardagh townland starts on 4 January 1811 with John McClintock as the tenant. A note in the left column indicates that Robert Kinkead took this over in 9 February 1819 paying £25/0/6 twice a year. This changes to £15/15/0 twice a year starting in November 1822 and changes again to £30/6/0 starting in November 1829 [Public Record Office of Northern Ireland. D623/C/4/9].
 - I went on Thursday and dispossessed William Hazlett of Whitehill, John Allen of Craigadoois, Robert and Thomas Vance of Momien and Andrew McClintock of Ardagh, for non-payment of rent... McClintock's creditors are to be in to bid for his land [Public Record Office of Northern Ireland. D623/A/130/12. Letter from Sir John James Burgoyne of Strabane to the Marquess of Abercorn, at London, dated 24 February 1817].
- Sir Richard Griffith's Valuation of Ireland for Taughboyne Parish, County Donegal in 1857 records Catherine Kincaid as a tenant of John Douglas for a house with garden 15 perches valued as £0/15/0 at map reference 8 c in Ardagh townland.
 - Discussion: John Douglas (8a) held 88/0/20 acres of the Marquis of Abercorn with cottars George Murray (8b), Catherine Kincaid (8c), James Moore (8d), and Daniel Barnett (8e). Also in the townland were Samuel Stevenson (1a) holding 170/2/15 acres of the Marquis of Abercorn with William Culbert (1b), and unoccupied house (1c), William Abraham (1d), James Coyle (1e), and John Magee (1f) as cottars; John Wright (2a) holding 61/0/25 acres of the Marquis of Abercorn with Thomas Park (2b) as a cottar; John Coyle (3) holding 77/1/20 acres of the Marquis of Abercorn; Andrew Rolleston (4a) holding 123/1/30 acres of the Marquis of Abercorn with Samuel Peebles (4b), Hugh Toland (4c), John M'Clintock (4d), Catherine Brodie (4e) as cottars and an unoccupied house (4f); Martha Campbell (5a) holding 53/1/0 acres of the Marquis of Abercorn with Anne Brogan (5b) as cottar and a school house (5c); Daniel M'Clintock (6) holding 11/0/35 acres of Andrew Rolleston; Daniel Gallagher (7) holding 56/2/25 acres of the Marquis of Abercorn; David M'Clintock (9a) holding 33/1/30 acres of the Marquis of Abercorn with Patrick Nelis (9b) as cottar; John M'Adoo (10) holding 35/1/10 acres of the Marquis of Abercorn; Margaret Gamble (11A, 11Ba, 12c) holding 8/2/15, 10/0/5, and 0/0/30 of the Marquis of Abercorn with Anne M'Fadden (11Bb) as cottar; Edward Coyle (12A, 12B) holding 24/1/24 & 1/1/10 acres of the Marquis of Abercorn with Alexander M'Dowell (12Ab) and Hannah Gibbon (12Ac) as cottars; James Douglas 13a) holding 43/3/5 acres of the Marquis of Abercorn with Patrick M'Cormack (13B) as cottar James Kincaid of Ballycushion (formerly of Cross and Ardagh townlands, Taughboyne Parish, County Donegal (c1851 - 1919).

- On 6 January 1881, James Kincaid, a full age bachelor labourer of Cross, son of James Kincaid, labourer, was married to Mary Jane Nesbitt, a full age spinster of Ardagh, daughter of James Nesbitt, labourer at the parish church, Taughboyne Parish, County Donegal according to Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of Ireland by license by John Malloy. The witnesses were Richard Devenny and Isabella Nesbitt. He signed James Kinkaid and Mary Jane gave her mark [Ireland. Civil Registrations of Marriages. Londonderry District, 1881, no. 39, vol. __, p. 219].

- Discussion: Cross is on the east side of Ballycushion townland and north side of Kilgort townland which is on the north side of Clashygowan townland. Clashygowan townland is two townlands east of Ardagh townland.

Discussion: These dates must be treated with caution as some conflict with actual death records.

She was a 54 year old married woman of the labouring class who died of bronchitis and broncho pneumonia 6 weeks and chronic rheumatic arthritis for years (certified). - Re: Kinkaid from Ireland b?d. abt 1912, By Robert Kinkaid April 19, 2005 at 05:50:05. In reply to: Re: Kinkaid from Ireland b?d. abt 1912, 10/04/00. The Kinkaid's from Iowa and Ohio are in relation as my Father and Grandfather told me. There were three brothers from Ireland that settled in Ohio and opened either a Lumber yard or steel mill maybe even a construction company, I will have to get back to you on that after I talk to my Father, Robert Charles Kinkaid. I do know I come from a long line of Robert Kinkaid's (we all having different last names of ancestry significance). My Grandfather was Robert Lee Kinkaid, my father, Robert Charles Kinkaid, I am Robert Marlow Kinkaid, and my Son is Robert James Kinkaid. It is a Name I take great pride in and apparently the Kinkaid's as so spelled were kicked out of Scotland because we sided with the British and migrated to Northern Ireland and to the USA. I will see what else I can find for you from talking to my father. Hope that helps.

Legnatraw , Ballylennon & Lettergull, Taughboyne parish

Legnatraw townland is in the middle of the parish and a tad south of its center. Legnatraw is only about 5km (3.15 miles) west/northwest of Magherareagh townland, Donaghedy parish, County Tyrone and about 9 miles southwest of the City of Londonderry. There is no evidence of Kincaids in Legnatraw before 1854. To the west of Legnatraw is the townland of Treansallagh (which itself is on the south side of Treantagh), Taughboyne parish where there was a Kincaid in 1850. On its north is Mongavlin and Castletown, then Kinnacally and then Clashygowan where there were Kincaids from Ardagh in the 1780s. Southwest of Legnatraw is Lettergull; on its east Burnthaw and Drumenan, and on its south Binnion and Ballylennon.

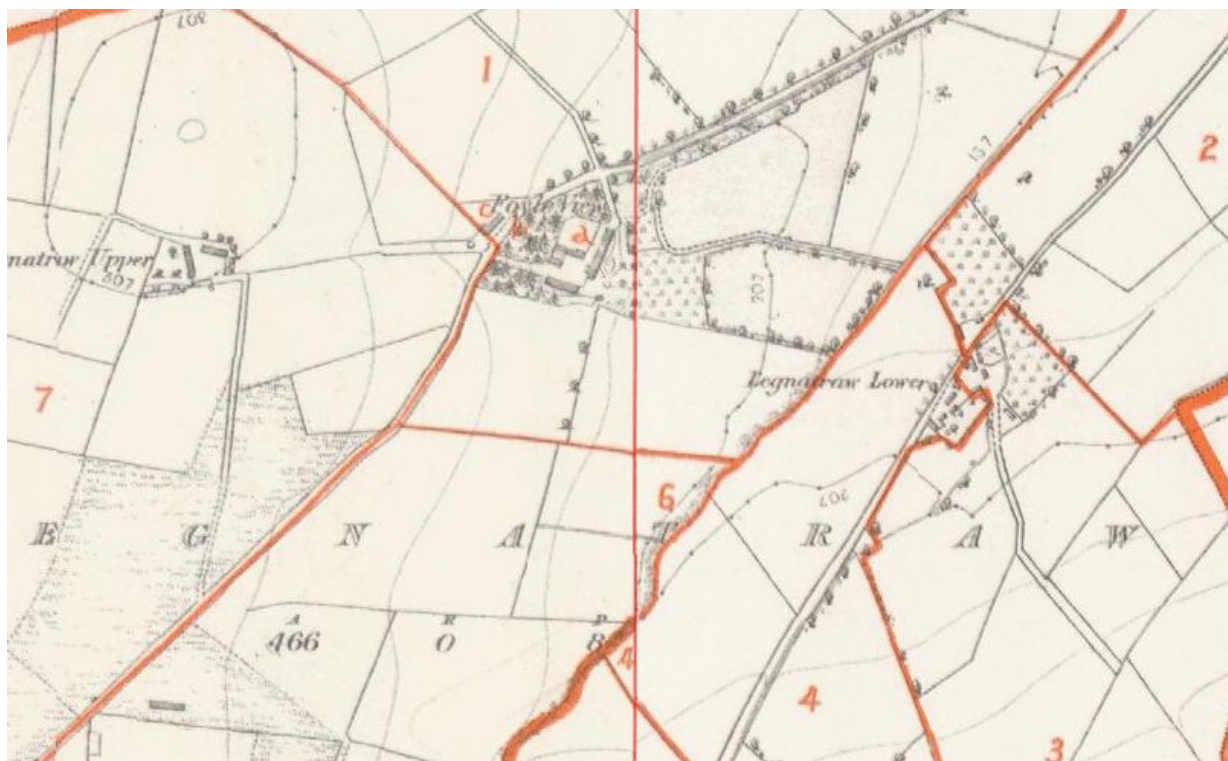

Perhaps the main connecting feature of Legnatraw is that, as noted above, the Kincaids of Ballyholey were married into the Hamiltons of Gortaquigley and close relations/friends with the Porters of Legnatraw as well as the Cunninghams of Castleton, the Alexanders of Drumenan, and the Rankins of Altaskin – all closeby. Robert Kincaid of Legnatraw was actually a tenant of Alexander Porter of Legnatraw. Alexander Porter, son of Joseph Porter, was successor to Hugh Stephenson [http://census.nationalarchives.ie/reels/vob/IRE_CENSUS_1821-

51_007246881_00069.pdf] whose youngest daughter he married on 18 February 1853 [Swindley, Len. Porter Family Notes, Co. Donegal 1829-70. <https://cotyroneireland.com/surnames/porter.html>]. Joseph Porter was of Ballymoney, Burt parish which just north of Drumboy, Taughboyne parish – being only separated by the townland of Blanket Nook. There were perhaps Porter connections in Leckpatrick parish as well, with two James Porter and a William Porter each holding land there in the 1826 Tithe Applotment Books.

In addition to the above, two townlands to the east is Whitehill (in turn is bounded on the north by Upper Maymore and east by Maymore Lower and Mongavlin townlands). Whitehill was the home of the William Hazlet in the latter 1700s and his son Matthew came to hold farms in Sandville & Drumgauty townlands, Donaghedy parish, County Tyrone.

Matthew Haslett married Sarah McCrea daughter of Walter McCrea who operated the mill at Drumgauty. Her uncles were Robert McCrea of Leckpatrick townland who married Ann Jack of Lisnarrow, John McCrea of Magheraragh who married Mary Clarke of Grange; and James McCrea of Farmhill who married firstly Jane McCrea of Binnelly. Another son of William Hazlet, James, became a minister and lived at Creaghan Glebe while he was curate of St. Michaels Church of Ireland in Bunowen. Moving southwards along the Foyle there are two townlands separating Mongavlin and Porthall, Clonleigh parish of which the latter was home to William Gamble, son of Joseph Gamble of Eden, Donaghedy parish. Eden was the townland on the east side of Magheraragh. Porthall is opposite Drumenny Big townland, Donaghedy parish while Mongavlin is opposite Grangefoyle townland, Donaghedy parish.

 - Gordon Fendley provided the following information on Worldconnect.

It is not known how long she lived there with her parents and brother and sisters. At some time they moved to Londonderry, whether this was before her father died or not we do not know. Her mother, Rebecca, re-married to an Orr, first name not known and they lived at 40 Alfred St., Waterside. Later Maud Orr was born to Rebecca, the mother. When Sara was aged 23, she met a young soldier, Arthur, who was serving in the British Army at Eglinton Barracks in Londonderry. They fell in love and married in the Waterside Presbyterian church on the 8th June, 1922. Sara never knew her correct age as she could never find a birth certificate, she thought she was in 1901, two years younger than she was. Their first child was born on the 16th. Sept. 1922, a girl, Emily. Some time after this they moved to Parkstone, England where Arthur came from and they left Emily behind with her grandmother. The reason for this is unclear, maybe they thought that they could not support her until they had settled in. What ever reason Emily stayed there until the 1939/45 war. In the meantime, Sara had six more children, four boys and two more girls. The first was a boy and the last was a girl. By this time the war had started and Arthur was called up and left the family to fend for themselves. After about a year the Battle of Britain was in full swing and Parkstone was getting bombed, so Sara decided to move the family back to Ireland. They moved in with her mother in Alfred St, Londonderry and that was the first time that the children met Emily. Also living there was Maude, Sara's step sister. They were there for a little while and then they moved to Portstewart which is a seaside resort. It appears that her brother was a district councilor there and he found a job with accomodation for her. The job was cook for a YWCA boarding house and there was plenty of room for all the children and herself. This carried on right through the war with the children going to school in Portstewart and a couple became old enough to start work. In 1946 Arthur came back from the war and they all, except the oldest boy, who had joined the army, moved back to England. They moved in with Arthur's sister in Old Wareham Rd. for a while, then the local council gave them a council house in Rossmore Road, Parkstone. Sara stayed in this house until the children had all left and her husband died in 1963. She moved to a smaller house and outlived her husband by nearly twenty two years and filled her life with her church and her grandchildren. She was laid to rest beside her husband in March 1985 and was survived by her seven children, eighteen grandchildren and two great granddaughters. She is buried at Branksome Cemetery at Number 137 Section Z.

My father recalls Ellen's daughter moved to Canada but no idea of dates or what part of Canada... Ann's father was John Kincaid born 1833, died 1910. He married Eliza Dunn in 1859.// John's father was Robert Kincaid born 1805, we don't know who his wife was or how many children they had. As mentioned before his son John was born in 1833 and another son in 1822. It would be unusual to have had an 11 year gap between children but there possibly were deaths or we just don't know of them. Robert would be my GGG grandfather. Kincaids would have lived near where my parents are, dad is not sure exactly where their house was, there would have been a lot of small cottages but are long gone.// My mother and father both remember a Captain Kincaid, they think he was possibly from England and dad thinks he was a second cousin of his grandmother Ann Kincaid. Captain Kincaid stayed with various families as a lodger but no further info [Email from Glenna Bruce (glendab333@gmail.com)], daughter of Hazlett Long of Binnion, St. Johnston, County Donegal; to Peter Kincaid of Fredericton, NB, Canada; dated 28 March 2018].
