

Nonpartisan Policy

Our nonpartisan policy protects the good name of the League of Women Voters. The League as an organization does not support or oppose any political party, candidate for elective office, or any group that supports candidates. This applies whether a candidate is running under a party designation or in a non-partisan election.

The board of directors is responsible for carrying out the nonpartisan policy and seeing that there is member understanding and public awareness of the League's nonpartisan stance.

Board members may have party affiliations and should certainly carry out the responsibilities of every voter in exercising the franchise, including the responsibility to become informed about candidates.

Board members may contribute to political parties and candidates and attend political meetings on the basis of individual judgement. The LWVNPC president and Voter Services chair need to exercise particular caution in areas where their active participation may be publicized and bring to question the League's nonpartisan stance. Political activity of partner, spouse or other family member is separate and distinct from that of a board member.

Campaign literature is not distributed during League meetings. A board member must resign: (a) as soon as she/he declares an intention to be a candidate or (b) before working in a highly visible position for a political party or candidate. Please consult our bylaws for more information.

A board member may not hold elective political office during his/her term of office on the board of directors.

The board will deal with specific cases as they arise, on an individual basis. For guidance, refer to the Bylaws of the League of Women Voters and the League chapter on nonpartisan policy.

League Positions

Once League (local, state or national) takes a position on an issue, members may not identify themselves as League members in publicly expressing an opinion that is in opposition to a League position.

Representing League

Members representing the League in the community should be sensitive to their responsibilities. When acting in the public as League representatives, members must not allow partisanship to be discernible. These members should be fully aware of League positions.

Serving on Commissions

Members may serve on governmental commissions at their own discretion. If the appointment is League-related, the appointee should be fully aware of the League positions as they relate to the commission's responsibility. Delegates of the League may not make any binding commitments for the League on major issues without approval of the Board.

League Spokesperson

Only the President or a member designated by the President may speak for LWVNPC. Letters, press releases, speeches, etc. put forth in the name of the League shall be approved by the President before release.

League Meetings

Members in the leadership roles at unit and other public meetings have the responsibility to ensure the nonpartisanship of the meeting and its environment.

League Roster
