Paraphrase: HB2643, by Rep. Jay Steagall, R-Yukon and Sen. Julie Daniels, R-Bartlesville, creates the Firearms Manufacturing Act of 2023. The bill defines applicable terms. The bill requires a firearm, firearm part, or firearm suppressor manufactured and sold in this state must have the words "Made in Oklahoma" clearly stamped on it. It requires, on written notification to the Office of the Attorney General of this state by a United States citizen who resides in this state of the intent of the citizen to manufacture a firearm, firearm part, or firearm suppressor, the Attorney General to seek a declaratory judgment from a federal district court in this state that subsection D of this section is consistent with the United States Constitution. It prohibits the State of Oklahoma, including an agency, department, commission, bureau, board, office, council, court, or other entity that is in any branch of state government and that is created by the Oklahoma Constitution or a statute of this state, including a university system or a system of higher education; the governing body of a municipality, county, district, or authority; an officer, employee, or other body that is part of a municipality, county, special district, or authority, including a sheriff, municipal police department, municipal attorney, or district attorney from adopting a rule, order, ordinance, or policy under which the entity enforces or, by consistent action, allows the enforcement of, a federal statute, order, rule, or regulation that purports to regulate a firearm, firearm part or firearm suppressor if the statute, order, rule, or regulation imposes a prohibition, restriction, or other regulation that does not exist under the laws of this state. It also prohibits those entities and any person employed by them or under their direction or control from enforcing or attempting to enforce any federal statute, order, rule, or regulation described by the bill. It prohibits the specified entities from receiving state grant funds if the entity adopts a rule, order, ordinance, or policy under which the entity enforces a federal law described by subsection I of this section or, by consistent action, allows the enforcement of a federal law described by subsection I of this section. It permits any citizen residing in the jurisdiction of the entities described to file a complaint with the Office of the Attorney General if the citizen offers evidence to support an allegation that the entity has adopted a rule, order, ordinance, or policy under which the entity enforces a federal law described by the bill or that the entity, by consistent action, allows the enforcement of a federal law described by the bill. It requires the citizen include with the complaint any evidence the citizen has in support of the complaint. It permits the Attorney General, if the Attorney General determines that a complaint against an entity is valid, to file a petition for a writ of mandamus or apply for other appropriate equitable relief in the district court of Oklahoma County or in a county in which the principal office of the entity is located. The bill permits the Attorney General to recover reasonable expenses incurred obtaining relief under this subsection,

Paraphrase: HB3386, by Rep. Charles McCall, R-Atoka and Sen. Greg Treat, R-Oklahoma City, requires the transfer of a student from one school site to another school site within the school district where the student resides to be approved at any time in the year, unless the grade level of the receiving school site has reached capacity. It requires that if the capacity of a grade level is insufficient to enroll all eligible students, the school district must select intra-district transfer students based on the preferences outlined therein and then in the order in which the intra-district transfer applications were received. It requires the school district board of education to determine the capacity of a school site. It allows a student to be granted a one-year intra-district transfer and may automatically continue to attend the school site where the student transferred each school year with the approval of the school district. It requires that by the first day of January, April, July, and October of each year, the school district board of education must establish the number of intra-district transfer students the school district has the capacity to accept in each grade level for each school site within the district.
