Introduction

- Online verification tools are becoming an increasingly vital aspect of the evaluation process for international students. Many of these verification websites are run by ministries of education and are more reliable than any verification methods we have used in the past.
 - Together we will explore verification tools that deal specifically with secondary education and discuss how you can use these tools to improve the admissions process at your institutions.

Learning Outcomes of this session:

- Introduce types of verification tools that are available for international secondary education
- Examine a variety of online verification tools
- Discuss how you can use these tools in your job

Africa

Summary

- There are many types of online verification tools, including everything from diploma validation to digital reproduction of a complete secondary record.
 - When one of these tools works with our documentation, we should always try to check it.
 - These tools should be able to help you get authenticated documentation, where as before it may have been hard to even get original documentation.

Questions?

- Do you know of any other good secondary online verification tools?
- Do you think could help change documentation practices in your office?
- From the audience...

Thank You!
