NAS OFFICERS WILL TALK AT NAVY DAY EXERCISES

Two Naval Air Station officers have been asked to make addresses in celebration of Navy Day on Friday.

Cdr. Walter E. Premo, Jr., Executive Officer of the Station, will be the principal speaker at exercises in Benjamin Parker High School on Friday morning at 1030.

Lt. Cdr. Henry M. Boucher, Officer-in-Charge of the Aerial Free Gunnery School, is scheduled to speak at 1200 on Thursday at Kahuka High School.

Lt. Samuel B. Gould of the Hedron Training Division has been chosen to represent the Fleet Air Wing Detachment, but the place for his address has not been announced.

There will be no formal observance of the day by officers and men of the station.

An observance is being planned by the Civilian Personnel Office, according to an announcement by Lt. Bernard D. Mintz, Officer-in-Charge, but the plans have not been completed.

Men who haven't voted the Federal Ballot may still do so if they contact their department voting officers and make special arrangements.

'Four Happy Hooligans' Show Is Set For Two NAS Theater Performances

One of the favorite liberty rendezvous for service men in this area is the Kailua USO Club which always offers a varied program of entertainment. The club this week will offer a Navy program in connection with Navy Day, Friday. Special displays have been arranged to show important role of the Navy in this war.

A small, compact, but extremely fine Hawaiian bit of entertainment has been booked for two shows at the main Station Theater Monday evening. All men who attend the 1730 and 2000 movie are invited to the special stage show.

The booking was made through the USO Camp Shows and the show is entitled "The Four Happy Hooligans." The Hooligans are Catherine Xavier, Samuel Koalohu, Joseph Kehanoa, and Sammy Kono.

You'll find that the Happy Hooligans will slap the bass, swing out on those guitars, sing their gay Hawaiian melodies, and dance the Hula like you've never seen it done before.

Men of the audience can expect to get in on the entertainment, too, for many will be called to the stage to give the funnier than usual assistance to the entertainers.

There will be no special tickets for the program, and regular theater tickets will serve as tokens for theater admittance. Those desiring to attend are asked to observe the usual theater rules and the first-there, first-served rule will prevail.

Kailua USO Club Planning Program For the Men of the Navy In This Area

If you haven't visited the Kailua USO Club, then now is really the ideal time to do so, for during this week an extensive program is being planned in observance of the Navy. Not only will it have a program on Navy Day, but programs also are being planned to include the entire week through October 29.

The USO Club's Managers, Violet Brandt and Virginia de Graffenreid, plan for the nautical atmosphere to be carried throughout the USO and are preparing special decorations, displays, and entertainment for the week-long affair.

Among the things to do will be chow, swimming, games, and such, plus a new State register; there will be free sundaes for the State having the largest register. You'll also have a chance to set down the list of your favorite songs, and they will be played at a band concert on Sunday, a week from tomorrow.

BETTY HUTTON BOOKED

That human dynamo, Betty Hutton, and her 4.0 troupe have been booked for one appearance at NAS Kaneohe on November 8. Time and actual scene for the show is still undetermined, but you can be sure that every man who wants to see the show will be able to be present.

The troupe features, besides Betty Hutton, an acrobat in Virginia Carroll; a three-piece band which features George Herbert, Tito Guidotti, and George Kosta; and a juggler, Val Setz.

Learning Is Means to an End, And Is Not an End in Itself

By PhM2c B. M. Bernstein and HA1c G. M. Ford

In our article last week, we discussed the significance of the individual in society. His importance makes it necessary to consider his needs now and in the future.

Let us keep in mind that the individual of whom we speak is not some mythical character, but every last one of us. That is why we should be concerned.

Many of us are going to return to civilian life with a great desire to continue our education because we have discovered that what we have is far from adequate. Our education too often ceases before we are aware of why we spent eight or ten years in going to school.

Education not only makes it possible for us to enjoy the good things of life, but it also makes us more valuable as citizens of our country. Through proper education we become aware of ourselves, of our obligation, and of our importance to the smooth functioning of our society. And we are happiest when engaged in the industry for which we are best trained and educated. It, therefore, behooves our government to make available the best education for its individuals.

Most of us who are considering seriously returning to school feel, no doubt, that our first ten years of education merely has given us a number of precise instruments with which to work, but no one has pointed out to us how we can best apply them to the big job of living. We find that shortly after graduation we have forgotten too much of what we had learned. Our mathematics soon becomes rusty from lack of use. Our chemistry and physics are almost completely obliterated in a course of a few years.

This condition of mental decadence need not be tolerated. Part of our education should be devoted to teaching us how we can achieve happiness by the proper application of our various arts instead of leaving us hanging in mid-air with merely a mass of undigested academic knowledge which is ostensibly to prepare us for our future, but in reality leaves us in a quandry of what to do next.

Louis IX of France, who ruled from 1226 to 1270 and was known as "Saint Louis," introduced the title of "Admiral" into France. At that time, the rank of admiral was equivalent to a Marshall of France. The prerogatives of admirals became so great that Cardinal Richelieu, who held sway during the first half of the 17th century, took the title of admiral and suppressed it in others.

The bitter end of a line is the part that stays inboard, usually around the bitts, from which it gets its name.

"For we know that all things work together for good to them that love God." Romans 8:28

Obstacles and difficulties actually may become very valuable spurs to drive us toward achievement.

Glenn Cunningham, the man who became the world's greatest miler, was so badly burned as a child that the doctors thought that he always would remain in an invalid chair.

Walter Scott wanted to be a poet, but gave up because he could not equal Lord Byron. Ashamed of his failure, he wrote a novel secretly, and the world fell heir to "Ivanhoe."

Philips Brooks wanted to be a teacher, failed miserably, and lived to become one of America's greatest preachers.

Have your life plans been interrupted or broken up? With God's help you can make new and better ones.

NATIONAL WAR FUND CAMPAIGN HAS FINE START

TWO DEPARTMENTS BOAST 100 PER CENT DONATION

First divisions at Naval Air Station Kaneohe to report 100 per cent donations to the National War Fund Campaign were the First Lieutenant and the Chaplain's unit. The annual drive was opened Monday morning, and will continue through October 25.

Several of the larger departments are competing with each other in an effort to be the first to report 100 per cent participation. The opening deposit in the Public Works Department contributions was made on the second day of the drive.

Special emphasis will be laid on securing contributions from civilian personnel during the next week, although the campaign to complete the roll for naval personnel will be continued until the close of the drive.

All hands are urged to participate in the united campaign to help those less fortunate. This National War Fund Drive will be the only such money-raising campaign to be held this year, with the exception of the annual Red Cross Membership Drive.

HERE'S SOME STABLE DUST BY THE HORSE MARINES

All new men at the Marine Stables now have been properly inducted into the Horse Marines. They have all been drug from their sacks in the middle of the night and thrown into the water tank.

Pvt. Jessie Bonin is back on duty after a week's stay in the NAS Sick Bay as a result of his having been kicked by his horse.

There are two trends of thought where the stable's coming paint job is concerned. Sgt. Muddy Creek is hoping for good weather so that the work section can get to work and the work section is not only hoping, but keeping their fingers crossed for rain and more rain.

Pvt. G. A. Heyne is having a great deal of trouble with night mares of late, so he now sleeps with his bayonet under his pillow.

The only casualty of the passing week was Pvt. Charles McInturf who now strongly favors the removal of all swinging doors. The nasty cut that he received above his left eye is his constant reminder.—Pvt. W. Towsley

Here's the Answer to 'What Is a Seabee?'

(This is the first of two articles by CBMU's K. F. Duffy and both of them will attempt to enlighten you as to just what a Seabee is and why.)

What is a Seabee? The question is heard now and then around NAS Kaneohe, although the average station sailor is confident that he knows what a Seabee is and would never try to get it past the Censors. To those who frankly don't know, the question that occurs first seems to be, "Why is a Seabee?" Any attempt to settle the latter question usually leads to bloodshed.

One of the Seabee papers approaches the "what" angle by defining a Seabee as a soldier in a sailor's uniform with Marine training and doing civilian work at WPA wages. With due regard to the Navy, the Marine Corps, and the Army, most Construction Battalion men will decline graciously to be classed with any other outfit.

Among themselves, the Seabees call themselves the 4-F Navy, but they're kidding.

Smashed barrooms and broken heads from Providence to Peleliu prove that the Seabees demand respect from the other services and from civilians. Not that the Seabees are tough, they're just ingenious. They'll use anything that comes to hand for a weapon.

There is, incidentally, no truth to the report that a Seabee crawled ashore on Saipan before D-Day and planted a sign welcoming the Marines. It happened on Guam.

Formation of the Seabees took place early in 1942. Navy long had recognized the need of a branch similar to the Army Engineers. The plight of the civilian construction workers in the outer islands at the time of the blitz convinced the braid that the time had come to put the "bulldozer commandos" in uniform. They did.

They put him in more uniforms than the Radio City Music Hall Chorus has. The average Seabee has more changes of clothing than Adolphe Menjou, but they're not as well pressed. A CPO rating waits for the man who designs a baling machine to pack their seabags.

Klippers Blank Marines, 14-0, in Season Opener

FOWLER AND DURNELL GET ONE TOUCHDOWN APIECE

By John K. Pope

The battling Kaneohe Klippers started the 1944 grid season with an impressive 14-0 win over the strong Marine Base Depot eleven at Furlong Field last Saturday.

Over 10,000 fans witnessed the Klipper machine punch over two touchdowns in the second period. On the second play of that quarter W. S. (Monk) Fowler tallied on a quick-opening play from the four-yard line. Edgar Jones, All-American backfield star at Pittsburgh, split the up-rights for the extra point.

Several plays later L. L. Durnell, Klipper back, smashed through the Marine line for 22 yards and a touchdown. Bill Irwin converted for the extra point. The half ended, with the Klippers ahead, 14-0.

The game was marred by many fumbles which hampered the scoring of the teams. Dave Brasmer took advantage of one fumble to set the Klippers on their way to the first score.

The second half was scoreless, but the Marines fought gamely, out-charged the Klipper line, and used a sharp passing attack. H. Peeples of the Marines sliced off long gains on off-tackle bucks and end runs.

Klipper line stars were Ted Roberti, center; William Irwin, end; Don Walters, tackle; Dave Brasmer, end; and Darrell Palmer, tackle.

Durnell, back, for the Klippers showed terrific drive and ripped the Marine line to shreds with his head-on plunges. Fowler also shared honors in the offensive drives making several good gains that spelled defeat for the Marines. Edgar Jones sparked the Klipper passing attack and made good punt returns. Although the Klippers fumbled at times their deception was exceptionally good for early season playing.

SOFTBALL GAME

Hickam Field's Flyers of softball will invade NAS Kaneohe next week for a game with the Klippers All-Stars. Date of the game will be announced in the Daily Bulletin and at the station theaters, according to Ens. Robert H. Kranke, Station Athletic Officer. Hickam routed the Klippers, 13-2, in the first meeting of the teams, and K-Bay is anxious to gain revenge.

K-Bay to Face Barber's Point Eleven Tomorrow

Wilmax S. (Monk) Fowler (No. 22) is shown as he went over for the first touchdown of the Klippers in last Saturday's 14-0 victory over the Marine Base Depot at Furlong Field. Monk, after having been called back twice on scoring plays, finally made it on his third trip—this time from the four-yard line on a quick-opening play. His speed and drive were too much for the five (count'em) Marines who sought vainly to bar his path to the goal-line.

CECIL ALEXANDER TAKES UNPOPULAR DECISION OVER AL CALLAHAN IN BOUT AT NIMITZ BOWL

Even the overcast heavens couldn't send home a staunch crowd of 3,000 fans who witnessed ten great bouts at Nimitz Bowl Monday night although no knockouts were posted, the boys were willing to fight and the bouts were evenly matched.

One of the closest decisions came in the fight between Al Callahan of Aiea Receiving Barracks. This bout was easily the best on the program. Each fighter threw vicious punches. Alexander was given a decision which the fan booed and hissed for several minutes.

Another good match was between E. W. Jones of Aiea Receiving Barracks and Bill McKewen of NAS Kaneohe. Jones gained a three-round decision, but McKewen bolstered his fighting stock in offering a splendid performance. Each man stood toe-to-toe, and threw lots of leather. It was McKewen's second appearance in the ring, and he gives promise of being one of the best fighters in 155-pound service circles.

Others results:

KLIPPERS BOXERS DIVIDE ON PROGRAM AT ROYAL

Two of Artie McCann's fighters broke even in the boxing smoker at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel on Thursday night.

Gilbert Brizeno, Kaneohe 145-pounder, lost a thrilling three-round decision to Tommy Foster. Foster had the advantage in weight and reach, but had a tough time in getting the nod.

The second Klipper and a newcomer to the McCann stables, Ernie Cortez, who scales 180 pounds, punched Ralph Roberts into submission for three rounds. Referee Fred Apostoli, former middleweight champion, raised Cortez's hand after three rounds.

HOSPITAL BOWLERS DIVIDE WITH K-BAY CONTINGENT

Aiea Hospital and Kaneohe Klippers broke even in bowling matches. Aiea won on its home boards, by 54-point total, but the Klippers came back with 143-point total on the K-Bay alleys.

Chief Mike Cox of the Seabees paced the Klippers in their victory, with a total-pin score of 582; EM2c Buck Buchanan won high-game honors, with 222. Moyer of the Marines matched Chief Cox's total-game score for the losers.

WRESTLING FOR OFFICERS

Officers who are interested in taking part in wrestling workouts may find ample sport and competition at the Officers' Athletic Area. Contact Jack Gwinn at 72043 or Lt. N. W. Deems at 72232.

KLIPPERS SEEK NO. 2 WIN IN LEAGUE BATTLING

Fresh from Saturday's 14-0 victory over the Base Depot Marines the Klippers will play host tomorrow to the strong Barber's Point gridders. The kickoff is slated for 1530.

The quality and power of the visitors is unknown, but it is rumored the Barber's eleven boasts a strong offensive attack. Last year the Barber's lost to the Klippers by 14-6, and the Klippers are going to do their best to repeat.

Aiea Receiving Barracks defeated Barber's Point by 26-0 last week, and the Klippers will be favored to win.

Coach Mike Brumbelow stated the boys received no real serious injuries and the team will be in full strength. Jones, Williams, Durnell, and Boudreau probably will start in the Klipper backfield, Fowler and Durnell, backfield stars, will also be ready to spark the Klipper running and passing attack.

Waddell led the victors, with nine. Creepers led by 8-0 at intermission, and were hard pressed to fight off the losers' closing spurt.

In another game, Masterson's Maulers came from behind for an 18-16 decision over the Five Bourbons. Maulers led at the half by 14-10, but with five minutes to go the Bourbons led by 16-15. ### MUSIC WHILE YOU'RE BREWING

The recent Public Address System installation in the Station Beer Garden was made by the establishment's manager, AMM3c O. F. Becker, and his assistant, F2c D. Davis. Next time you visit the brew parlor and listen to that music, why not make a request—the men might have your favorite record. The sound system is operated from the rear of the beer garden dispensing bar.

Then there was the sailor who, treated all his girls with wine. It seems he wanted a little port in every sweetheart.

Station Man to Have Organ Recital At Honolulu Cathedral Each Month

Servicemen and civilians alike are to have their chance to hear S2c Larry Sears tomorrow at 1600 when he will play his first of a series of noon recitals which have been scheduled on the next-to-last Sunday of each month. Tomorrow's recital will include selections by Bach, Franck, Vierne, Bossi, Dupre, and Reubke.

Larry's organ work at Naval Air Station Kaneohe has hit a temporary snag in that there is no organ on the Station. However, an organ has been ordered, and he anxiously is awaiting its arrival from the States so that he once again can begin his weekly popular song recitals in the Station Theater and his church work during the week and on Sunday.

The organ long has been Sears favorite musical instrument; his organ training was with DeWitt Pierson on the East Coast. He later was the student of Arnold Scold in New York City. One of his first musical ambitions was to become high school organist, and he was able to realize that ambition during his senior year at the Scott Senior High School at Coatsville, Penn.

Following his graduation from Coatsville High, he began study at the University of Pennsylvania where he was for some months before beginning his Navy boot training at Bainbridge, Md.

While at Bainbridge, he served as the Catholic Chapel organist for three months. This duty was followed by five months as organist in the Pearl Harbor Area for Captain M. S. Sheehy, ChC. Sears has been at NAS Kaneohe since March of this year, and has been acting as choir-organist under Chaplain Daniel O'Brien, ChC.

organ recitals at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Peace, located just off Beretania, on Fort Street, in Honolulu.

Sears is one of the foremost organists in the Hawaiian Area and was hailed by Honolulu critics for his recitals last year in the Musician's Center of the Library of Hawaii, as "the youngest and one of the best exponents of organ music—is an excellent musician with a fine record of artistic achievement and he is an organist of talent, capability, and extreme sensitivity."

Tomorrow's recital is the first of Sears' own series of Sunday-after-

BUTTONS NOW ARE ISSUED TO THOSE DISCHARGED

To designate men and women honorably discharged from the Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard, the Navy Department now is issuing Honorable Discharge buttons to be worn by personnel returning to civilian status.

The design of the button is the same as that worn by the War Department for those honorably separated from the Army since 1939.

These buttons are to be distributed by Receiving Stations, Training Stations, and Navy Hospitals to anyone honorably discharged from the Navy during the current war. They may also be obtained by writing the Bureau of Naval Personnel in Washington.

In the event of writing for the button, former enlisted personnel must send their discharge papers as evidence of eligibility to receive the award. Officers must send the original or certified copy of the orders placing them on the inactive list.

Former Marines may apply in person to their Procurement Offices, or may write to the Commandant, U. S. Marine Corps in Washington.

IN CASE YOU'VE WONDERED

From time to time when you visit the Ship's Service Store, you're bound to notice that certain items have taken a sudden drop in price. These price changes on some articles often amount to as much as $50, but the reason for the price drop is a simple one. Ship's Service is allowed to make only 10 per cent profit from goods sold and Ship's Service often finds itself with a surplus cash profit—so sharp price reductions are made. In some cases the price of the article is below actual cost.

Semi-Weekly Rehearsals are Now Set As Catholic Choir Plans Programs

"We all won't touch an allotment until you all stahst using General Lee's pictuah on the Wah Bonds!"

WEEKLY DANCES HELD BY THREE USO CLUBS

To keep the record straight, there's no Saturday night dance at the Army-Navy USO Club. The club's Monday and Thursday afternoon dances last from 1430 to 1700.

The USO Victory Club still holds regular luncheon dances daily except Sunday. The Club also holds regular twilight dances on Tuesday and Thursday.

Dances are held at the Fort Street USO Club every Sunday afternoon and Wednesday evening. The times are 1330 on Sunday and 1830 on Wednesday.

The real reason that Veronica Lake changed her hair style was because she had a date with a sailor one night . . . she needed both eyes.

The Catholic Choir at Naval Air Station Kaneohe is preparing for an extensive Fall and Winter program, with semi-weekly rehearsals at the Beer Garden. They are held each Wednesday and Friday at 1930.

The choir of 100 voices is under the direction of Y3c James W. Summers and will sing the annual Memorial Mass at Block Arena, Pearl Harbor, commemorating the Third Anniversary of the Japanese attack. This broadcast will honor those who gave their lives then and since. The Mass will be celebrated on December 7, and will be shortwaved to the States.

Another important engagement will be the singing of the Navy Sunday Mass to be celebrated tomorrow at 1000 at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Peace, Honolulu. On this occasion, Capt. Maurice S. Sheehy, USNR, District Chaplain, will preach. In addition, several other engagements also have been scheduled, including civilian parishes downtown and various military installations throughout the island.

Besides the Wednesday and Friday evening rehearsals, the group chants Mass each Thursday morning at 0630 at the Power Plant Chapel, and the 0900 Mass at the Hedron Hippodrome on the last Sunday of each month.

Lawrence R. Sears, S2c, is organist for the choir.

After receiving the distinguished Service Medal, a Seabee was asked what his wife thought of the decoration.

"She doesn't know that I got it," was the reply, "It isn't my turn to write."

Station Klipper Orchestra Is Big Hit At Honolulu High School Bond Rally

The Station Kaneohe Klipper Orchestra wowed the student body at the Honolulu McKinley High School when it played for an informal War Bond rally at assembly on Friday. The rally was given to create more student interest in the purchase of War Bonds.

This was one of many such programs being sponsored by the War Bond sales department of Honolulu to make the youth of this area War Bond conscious.

The Klippers were under the direction of Lon Saxon and featured many swing numbers that the band does so well. Saxon handled the vocals for "I'll Be Seeing You" and "Night and Day."

The stage was plainly set, but the flags of the United Nations furnished a colorful background for the band.

Besides the orchestra, Pfc. Pete Giser, a veteran of the South Pacific and Siapan battle spoke briefly; Major Iaea, a former graduate, said a few words; William Susuki, student body president, stressed the necessity of War Bond purchases; and the program was concluded with the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner."

GOLD-BRAID WILLIAM TELLS

It's the shooting eye which scores in combat. Many pilots and instructors in Gunnery School have been enjoying the archery facilities at the Officers' Club Athletic Area. It's a matter of record that the fellows who get the bull's eye with live ammunition also score when it comes to the bow and arrow.

CABLE FACILITIES

Cable facilities are available to officers and enlisted men in the old Bunk Room on the first deck of the Administration Building. The cable office is opposite the stairs. Cable office hours are from 1300 to 1545 each day, except Sunday. Mrs. Brian Bedford, in charge of the office, will be glad to help in wording the messages, handling money orders, or sending flowers.

KAILUA USO MAKES PLANS FOR MEN OF THE NAVY

To get to the Kailua USO Club, catch the Navy Liberty Bus, or public transportation bus to Kailua. Get off at the Kailua Theater and take the left turn down the Lanakai Road toward the ocean. In about three-quarters of a mile you'll come to the Kailua USO.

This program is being planned for you, the men of the Navy, so there is every reason for you to take advantage of the hospitality.

A romantic pair were in the throes of silence as the car rolled smoothly along an enchanting woodland path, when the lady broke the spell:

"John, dear," she asked softly, "Can you drive with one hand?"

"Yes, my sweet," he replied in ecstasy of anticipation.

"Then," said the lovely miss, her voice purring softly, "you'd better wipe your nose. It's running."

WATCH THESE EASY RULES WHEN YOU GO SWIMMING

Swimming at the NAS Kaneohe Beach can be fun if you follow a few very simple rules. The surf can be very dangerous, and when this condition exists the Beach is secured.

If you observe these regulations you should have little trouble.

1. Swim only between the red markers on the beach (guards on watch are not able to watch you if you swim all along the beach).

2. Don't swim out too far (watch yourself on this one, because it's easy to misjudge distance over water).

3. Swim only with a buddy, so that if you should get into trouble he can assist you and obtain additional help if it is needed.

4. When attempting to go beyond the breakers don't try to buck them, submerge and let the wave pass over.

5. If you get caught in an undertow swim diagonally across the current—not against or with it.

If these few easy measures are observed, greater personal safety and enjoyment will be achieved when you go swimming at the beach.

LADDER TENNIS MATCHES

Ladder standings of officers playing tennis at the Officers' Club now is being kept. A player may be able to challenge any other officer who is ranked two positions above the challenger. If the challenger wins the challenge match, he moves into the defeated officer's berth. Lt. John Gwin, officer-in-charge of tennis, reports that over 30 officers now are taking part in ladder matches.

NEW PAY DATES

Enlisted personnel of NAS Kaneohe will be paid on the fifth and 20th of each month, it has been announced by Lt. (jg) James D. McGuire, Disbursing Officer. The new dates will become effective November 1. Officers and nurses will continue to be paid on the 15th and last day of each month. Should a regular pay day fall on Sunday, pay day will be held the next day. Next pay day for enlisted personnel will be November 6.

Honolulu Waitress: "Ok, but you'll have to wait. Leilanni and me don't get through work until ten."
