

WORD OF THE WEEK

How many times
can you fit 'Cajole'
into your work this week?

Other forms of the word: Cajolement and
cajoler (nouns)
Cajolingly
(adverb)

Definition: To persuade by using flattering or making promises

Cajole (verb)

Example sentence:
Jack has to be cajoled into being a good dog

When could you use this word?

This word could be useful in most subjects, including History, English and RE.

You can also use it
In everyday conversation.

Read the leaflet carefully and answer the questions on the following slide

Internet Safety

- Never send anything you wouldn't say in real life.
- Never give out your address, phone number, school or your parent's names without permission.
- Never send packages or pictures to people you've met online without your parent's permission.
- DO NOT share your passwords with friends.
- Never install programs on your computer without permission.
- Never agree to meet someone you've met online in person.
- If you find something online that makes you feel uncomfortable, talk to a parent.

Questions

1. Is it ok to share your passwords with your friends?
2. What information, according to the leaflet, should you not share without permission?
3. What should you NOT send to people you've met online?
4. If you are unhappy or uncomfortable about something online, who should you speak to?