LETTERS TO WASHINGTON

FROM CAPTAIN CHARLES SMITH.

FORT LOUDOUN July y<sup>e</sup> 30th 1758

SIR/I Received Your favour July y<sup>e</sup> 25th by M<sup>r</sup>. Campbel's man, the Inclosed I have Sent Down by a Safe Hand, and According to your Directions I have Sent by the bearer Six plates and a dish, I received a Letter y<sup>e</sup> Date of y<sup>e</sup> 20th Ins<sup>t</sup> from the Governor of Virginia wherein he has Informed me that Lord Fairffax and Cap<sup>tn</sup> Rutherford has Wrote to him, Concerning y<sup>e</sup> 20 Rangers that was Stationed here which has Given Displeasure To the Inhabitants, But he Say's Let what measures will be taken it Gives Dis-satisfaction to one or another, for which he blames Cap<sup>tn</sup> Rutherford and his Officers Very much, and Say's he Can't See that they are out of their duty at all as they are Paid by the Province, he Immagin's they Can be Orderred To any part for the Good of the Country, & as there Is a Quantity of the Coun-try Stores at Winchester he thinks it Necessary that the Same twenty Shall Continue as a Guard, as it is not In his power to have them Reliev<sup>d</sup> by the Millitia or any Other Effective Men, Else he would Freely do it, he has also Wrote To Lord Fairffax & Cap<sup>tn</sup> Rutherford, and Says he is Informed that the Company is More out of their duty by being Stationed by Sixes and Sevens at Particular houses, as he Imagine's y<sup>e</sup> no person ought to be Indulged more than another, he Says if Lord Fairffax has Ninety miles of y<sup>e</sup> Frontiers Diserted, he Immagin's it to be his own Ground, and he may have as many Commis-sions as he pleases to Raise in his own County, of y<sup>e</sup> Millitia, but he Immagin's them all to be a Dis-satisfyed People, and no Person whatsSoEver Can please them, Cap<sup>m</sup>. Rutherford thinks it Necessary to Divide his Company into three parts, and order one of them to make this place their Randisvows, and Constantly Keep ranging Under the Mountains, and on the Watters of Cape Capon, and To return with what Inteligence they Can Get, In Every Two or three days, which I believe will be Greater Sat- tisfaction to the men, to have one of their own Offi- cers with them, it will answer the Intent of Guarding y<sup>e</sup>. Stores Near as well as to have them Constantly Garrisoned here, as their Return may be Every two days.

The Governor has Ordered me to Carry on the Well and Close the Buildings, and then to make a Return of what is Next wanting to be done, but has not mentioned one word about money, to Carry on those buildings it is not an Easie matter to Carry on So heavy Buildings without Subsistence, but Still I must be Contented & obey Orders, but Could wish times Better.

WINCHESTER 31th of July 1758

DEAR SIR

I Reçd your kind favour of the 29th in a Large Packet, the other Letters therein Contained, I have given mostly with my own hand, and shall take Particular Care that the remainder be delivered Punctually, also to make known to your friends in gen<sup>l</sup> how deeply you are Possess'd of Gratitude <sup>1</sup> —

Too Sensible of your Good intentions towards mySelf and Company as well towards the whole of the Distressd frontier Inhabitants, which has been clearly manifested in every of your actions; it was with the greatest reluctancy, that I urged you further on the Subject, as I was truly Conscious that nothing in your Power wou'd be wanting for the Common Good, but when you Consider the Strong incitements I had for so doing, I hope you will be good Enough to Pardon it in me —

I am Sincerely touch'd to find my Doubts of an inglorious Campain, (or an attempt of a Campain)

<sup>1</sup> Washington, as well as all in correspondence with him, appears at this time to have been greatly discouraged over the delay attending the expedition. As the season advanced this feeling increased, until even General Forbes himself despaired of reaching Fort Du Quesne in season. On the 11th of November a council was held at Loyal Hannon, over which the general presided, where it was decided that, on account of the lateness and severity of the season, it would not be expedient to proceed farther during this campaign. Information of the indefensible condition of Fort Du Quesne, brought in camp by three prisoners on the 13th, however, entirely changed their plans. On the 15th of November they set out, opening the road as they went. They arrived on the 25th, to find the fort, of which they took possession, destroyed by fire and deserted by the enemy. Washington, writing on the 28th to Governor Fauquier, says: "The enemy, after letting us get within a day's march of the place, burned the fort, and ran away (by the light of it) at night, going down the Ohio by water, to the number of about 500 men — from our best information."

FROM MAJOR FRANCIS HALKETT.

DEAR WASHINGTON

I Received your letter, & Returns from Fort Cumberland. — as to my giving you my advice about the covers for your locks, I think you are the properest judge what can be done at F. Cumberland, being immediately upon the Spot, and we can send you no assistance from hence, as many as can, I would provide, those you cannot, their is no helpe for, their Blankets will always be a great safety to them.<sup>1</sup> —

It is necessary the Troops from Virginia — should have a Brigade Major the same as Pensylvania, and the General expects that you will be provided with one against you join, it is intirely a Provincial affair, & to be of your own appointing, the recommendation General Forbes leaves to you, if it is to be Stewart, he must be as Captain to your Battalion, & Brigade Major, an other Officer must be appointed Captain to the Troop, he already holds two Commissions, both as Captain in your Battalion, & of the light Troop, his having more would be inconvenient. — Major Shippen has ten Shillings pr day extraordinary, allowd him by the Commissioners of Pinsylvania, for being Brigade Major.

<sup>1</sup> "DEAR HALKET, — . . . It is morally impossible to get at this place covers for our gun-locks ; having nothing but neats hydes to make them of, and an insufficiency of those to answer the purpose — The Commissarys ask 18/ a piece for them. Pray give me your advice on this case. . . . Yours most affectionately, GEO : WASHINGTON."

Make my appology to Captain Stewart for not being able to write to him at this time, he will send his Return of the Troop to me, the same as he did with General Braddock, as he is a distinct Corps, the detachment that he sent down to Lancaster, are all sent to Reastown. —

The General has been much afflicted with the Flux, he still is extreamly weak, but I am in hopes he will soon be able to set out for Reas town.<sup>1</sup> I am
Dear Washington

Your most obedient Servant and ever well wisher

FRANCIS HALKETT

On the site of old Fort Du Quesne stands to-day the rich and prosperous city of Pittsburg. To John Forbes, William Pitt (after whom Forbes named it), and to George Washington, with his Virginians, it is indeed a noble monument.

imagine it would be a good way to Relieve the Grass Guard <sup>1</sup> to morrow in place of next day, the waggons to come down with new Guard & to return Loaded with the old, which would save a Command for that purpose —

Many of the Boxes are in very bad order and some of the Ball lost by their own acknowledgment

I wrote by almost every opportunity that's gone to Winchester for these 3 weeks past for hair to Stuff our Saddles but could get none, by which many of the horses backs are almost ruin'd, our Jaunt to Rays Town added no less than six to that Number, the whole wou'd soon be hurt without I can remove the cause therefore sent off Serjeant Baltimore and Hensock last night to Winchester for hair and new Scabbards for the Swords which they are in great want off, this I hope you'll approve off as it's absolutely necessary —

Jenkins with a Corporal & 6 Horse set out from here highly pleas'd with his Escort I gave the Corporal orders to see him over Spring Gap Mountain and much farther as the old Gen<sup>l</sup> should judge necessary as there's no Signs of the Enemy lately discover'd I hope he'll get down save —

Last night Tom Join'd me without arms and destitute of every necessary, I have return'd M<sup>r</sup> Kenzie of Cap<sup>t</sup> Woodward's Comp<sup>y</sup> in his room but as M<sup>r</sup> Kenzie did not care to part with his Regimentals I'm at loss how to get a Coat & Jacket for Tom as many of our men must soon, one way or other be provided for I imagined a Coat and Jacket might be spar'd without any inconvenience to the Service —

The Intelligence of our affairs you are pleas'd to favour me with gives me the deepest concern — Our once well grounded hopes will too probably be Blasted and the Glorious Prospect that once appear'd so full in view will dread be intersepted by Clouds of Gloomy Disappointments But as Gen<sup>l</sup> Renchild told Peter the Great it is our Business to obey — I wish to Heaven it was possible you cou'd have a Conference with the General My heart Bleeds — I dare not

DEAR SIR

I have scarcely time to acquaint you That I was Yesterday at Mount Vernon to Visit M<sup>r</sup>: Patterson, who consulted me about taking up the upper Floors, as you gave him no orders about them, whereupon I had them clear'd in order to View them the better, and found most of them very uneven and several defective plank, upon which I made Patterson calculate the difference of Expen<sup>c</sup>e, between New laying them & intire new, which you'l see is too trifling to hesitate a moment provided you choose either.

Undoubtedly they may<sup>do</sup> with a little plaining, but that cant bring them even, or make them of a piece with the rest of the House. If you prefer a new Floor, their must be new Doors also, So that we beg you'l consider this matter and lett us have your directions — This word reminds me of breaking one of yours, which we hope you'l pardon, But it was upon seeing full imploy for the joiners, and that it would take too much of their time That I took the liberty to hire a hand to paint the House, which is suffering for want of it — I think the Chimneys above are too much contracted and would be better were they enlarged. For if you remember they are taken in but whether to prevent Smoaking or for a Stove you perhaps can best tell, and the only one that can direct us — I have the pleasure to acquaint you, That you have some of the finest Tobacco & Corn I have seen this Year and a pritty full Crop of both which I believe is more than any in this or the next County can say. But yett we want much rain to make it, and the Grass spring. for I have never seen so melancholy a Prospect. It is reported pritty confidently that our Fleet, has Landed a body of Troop under the Command of the Duke of Marlborough at <sup>Seven</sup> S<sup>t</sup> Maloa or near it, and taken ^Ships of War all the Privateers and many Transports, but I hope soon to see it confirmed and some further particulars

As the Colonel gives me a discretionary power to send one or two, one must be his lot; and that I think should be your Cornet, as Mr. Crawford is appointed to the Troop pro tempore only, he should be put to little inconvenience. — It will be scarcely worth your while to confine yourself to the other half of your troop; I should be glad, therefore, to have your company at this place, as I think you may trust to Mr. Crawford's care. However in this case, pursue your own inclinations.

Your letter to Major Halkett got to Raystown in less than 24 hours after you wrote it. REAS TOWN CAMP 10th Aug: 1758

DEAR SIR

Cap<sup>t</sup>: Possey's Company is marched upon the Road, and as the Small Pox broke out some days ago in your Reg<sup>t</sup>: I have Sent them all wth Col. Stephens over Allegheny Hill: The first Batt. of Pennsylvania will follow them and we shall have about 1200 Men in the distance of 36 miles.

The Road will be cut to morrow night to the foot of the mountain, where different Parties are to join to cut the Gap, and join the Division wth Col Stephens.

I have Sent you Provisions, and the Waggon Master has his Directions for his Load, I beg of you to give the necessary orders to expedite that Convoy,

Sir John has wrote you upon it and given directions for the forrage to be issued to the Waggoners.

Your men have lefft their Coats here, but as this Expedition goes on So Slowly, I am afraid the Winter will overtake us, before you can get your Cloathing again; for my Part I have Sent for the Coats of the R. A.<sup>1</sup> and make them wear them: Please to give your orders to L Col Stephens on that Subject. They could be lefft at Loyal Hanning our first deposite and would be at hand at all Events.

Besides the two Waggoners Scalped and the two missing, one of our Escorts was attacked the Same day had two men wounded, but lost none: another man riding down was shot thro' the thigh: but Saved by immediate assistance: I hope that Some of those rascals will fall in wth Some of our Parties.

We have lost 50 of our Indians, but I don't look on them to be of great Service if we are once over the Mountains, which will Shortly be the Case.

As our Troop of Light Horse is too much harassed by continual Service, I desire you will Send me half of Cap<sup>t</sup> Stuart's Troop, with one or two of his Officers, as you may think necessary to take care of them.

I expect daily the General or his orders to march my-Self to Loyal Hanning: We find happily less difficulty in opening the Road than we imagined. To this moment the choice of Roads has not contributed to retard the Expedition: The artillery horses are So harrassed that they can not move for 8 days.

5600 men under the Comand of Brig. General Stanwix are marched to the Carrying Place upon Mohawk River, to oppose a great Body of french coming down that Way.

Please to write to M<sup>r</sup>: Walker to Send us as soon as possible a Supply of Cattle: The Calculation upon Paper will Starve us.

If the Tools from Fort Frederic are Sent to Cumberland, Send them to us.

If you have any intelligence from Ticonderoga I should be extremely thankful for the account thereof. We have expected hourly to hear that Louisburgh is in our hands. Pray Heaven, we may not be disappointed at last." — Washington in reply, August 13.

DEAR COL<sup>o</sup>

This day the Waggons set off from Pearises and about five Hundred Beef Cattle are to set off tomorrow. I am surpris'd at Col<sup>o</sup> Bouquets Paragraph as I have Letters from M<sup>r</sup> Hoops of very Late Dates in one of which he writes that he has 600 Beef Cattle of 500 Each & in another that Yeiser has Sent up 400 That I need only send those gathered there not being an occasion for so much expedition, as he had before desired & I have no Orders for any further Purchase as yet. If I had timely Orders & money I am persuaded you need not fear Wanting Cattle Hogs & Sheep for six months from this time.

REAS TOWN CAMP 17th Aug. 1758D<sup>R</sup>. SIR

The Waggons are arrived safe to this Place, and the Detachm<sup>t</sup> of Light Horse.

As it is not impossible (between us) that a Body of Troops under your Command Should march by B—— Route, you will keep at Cumberland a Stock of Provisions for one Month, when your Convoy joins, and the Rest is to be forwarded to Reas Town.

As it is highly necessary to keep the Ennemy in doubt about our Roads, The General desires that you continue sending Strong Partys along, with orders to reconnoitre where the Junction of the two Roads could be made. I hear by Kelly who is gone from Loy: H—— to the Salt Lick that it is about 16 miles a cross from that Post to the End of Chesnut Ridge where this Path goes: and the Woods So open that without cutting, Carrying horses may easily go thro', all pretty level —

Every one of your Partys, (who are to succeed one another constantly) are to detach Small Partys to reconnoitre the Ennemys, take if possible a View of their Works, and if they could get a Prisoner, know What Reinforcement they either have received, or do expect.

I am impatient to know what Success your first Party has met with, as I can hear nothing from the Indians and all the Partys I have continually Sent out.

The Woods about us are full of little Partys of Indians, and I know that they have discovered our New Road, which go on pretty well. — To morrow or next Day, The Waggons will be at Edmunds Swamp 32 mile from here, and I hope the worste part of the Route. The rest to L—— H—— will not take 8 days, and I keep all our Carrying horses and Waggons constantly employed in Sending Provisions forward We have 1600 men over the mountains, and Several Partys out, besides one of 100 Men that Set out to morrow.

If the french have received their Reinforcements as I Suspect, They will not fail to Send white men out, and we Shall Soon hear of Some Skirmishes.

The Accounts of Louisburg are very good, and I make no doubt, that the Place is actually or will fall Shortly in our hands.

It Seems that the operations to the Northward are turned upon the defensive, a very bad Circumstance for us, as the Ennemy can Send any Number of Troops this way.

All the Vacancies at Louisburg and at Lake George are immediately filled up.

<sup>1</sup> "The taking of Louisbourg [July 27, 1758] was an event the most desired by all our colonies; that harbour had always been a receptacle convenient to the enemies privateers, who infested the English trade in North America. It was the most effectual blow which France had received from the commencement of the war. By the taking of Louisbourg, the last the only place from whence she could carry on the cod-fishery; and the only place she had in a convenient situation for the reinforcements that were sent to support the war in the other parts of America; and with Louisbourg fell the island of St. John's and whatever other inferior stations they had for carrying on the fishery towards Gasperie and the bay De Chaleurs, which our ships soon after this event entirely destroyed. It is incredible how much this success in America, joined to the spirit of our other measures, operated to raise our military reputation in Europe, and to sink that of France, and consequently how much it influenced our most essential interests, and those of our allies." — Annual Register, 1758. "The fall of the French stronghold," says Parkman, "was hailed in England with noisy rapture. Addresses of congratulation to the king poured in from all the cities of the kingdom, and the captured flags were hung in St. Paul's amid the roar of cannon and the shouts of the populace. The provinces shared these rejoicings. Sermons of thanksgiving resounded from New England pulpits. At Newport there were fireworks and illuminations. . . . At Philadelphia a like display was seen, with music and universal ringing of bells. At Boston 'a stately bonfire like a pyramid was kindled on the top of Fort

Tuesday the 15th We marched Very Early and Came in Ab<sup>t</sup> 3 miles from our camp to a large path that came from the Northward into the Old Traiding path in Which we saw the Tracks of a great many Indians going Both Ways: We imagine the guns that our Scouts heard yesterday were fired by a party that was going a long this Road. Several: horses some of Which were shod had been along this path yesterday toward F: D: The Way was good: the Ridges low & well timberd but all the Branches very thick With crab Trees & White Haws : 12 miles W : as the provision was Near spent the Indians this Night held a Council in which it was Determined that all Except my self a Serj<sup>t</sup> & five indians should Return.

Wednesday the 16th We sent Back those that were to Return & proceeded on our way being only seven in Number : We came to where a large party of Indians had been ab<sup>t</sup> 10 Days agoe I imagine from the size of their Encampment ab<sup>t</sup> 100. They had Cleared five or six feet Square Very clean & had left in five pieces of Bark with two or three pipe fulls of Tobacco in Each piece : It is Ab<sup>t</sup> 6 miles from our last Camp to this place the path But in different Crossing many Ridges & Course Ab<sup>t</sup> N 80 W — N B : the hills End at this place & it is a plain Country from here to F : D : We here left the Old Trad<sup>s</sup> path & went ab<sup>t</sup> 3 miles : N W : then turned : S W : crossed the path & kept a Course S 70 W till we Were within two miles of : F : D : then went to the N of W : & came to an Old indian Town on the Ohio Ab<sup>t</sup> 1½ m. Above the Fort We had a Very good View up & Down the River : We saw some Cattle grasing on an Island Down the River : We hid our selves in a thickett till the indians had conjured and painted after Which we Went Down The River Within ¾ of a m : of the F. then turned S. E. & went up on a stony Ridge where the Chief Warriour took his conjuring Implements & tyed them ab<sup>t</sup> the Necks of three young men indians & told them they could not be hurt : Round my Neck he Tyed the Otter Skin in Which the Conj<sup>r</sup>s Implements had been kept & round the Serj<sup>t</sup>s neck he tyed a Bag of Paint that had been kept with the Implements, he then told us that not one of us could be shot for those things Would turn the Balls from us — He then made us Strip ourselves of all our Cloaths Except our Breech Clouts & mocasons, then shook hands With us & told us to go & fight like men for nothing could hurt us. The first View had of the fort was from the Banks of the Ohio but a Great Distance : we saw one Batteau two Cannoes, there were indians in the latter fishing. We were there in a pasture fenced in With Trees sett one on another. We saw by the Tracks that this pasture, the farthest part of Which is only ab<sup>t</sup> ¾ m : from F : D : was much frequented by indians. from Which I Could make no Great Discovery Except of the Number of tents till Almost sun seting at Which Time I let the Indians know that I wanted them to Accompany me to the top of a Ridge that Run Down in the forks Directly towards the F: but they disliked the proposa<sup>l</sup> & refused as they were in great Expectations of geting a Scalp there — however When they saw that I was Determined to go & had proceeded on towards the place they followed me — from the top of this Ridge I had an extraordinary good View as it was considerably higher than the F & scarce half mile Distant from it, there were fifty or sixty tents pitched on the Ohio ab<sup>t</sup> 100 yards from the Fort & there are several houses on Monongahala. there were Neither Cannoes nor Batteaus in this that I Could perceive, nor Could I discover any New Works ab<sup>t</sup> the fort. I do imagine the men parade in the Fort as I saw them going in at Retreat Beating but from What I Saw I do not judge that they have above 300 Frenchmen, the Indians kept a continual Hooping but I Could not see their Camp unless the Tents I mentioned were pitched for them Which I judge were from the fires & the Appearance of the people at them whom by their looks, noise &c. I imagine to be Indians — I could see no Sign of a Camp or Buildings on the other Side of either of the Rivers — After Dark the Indians got to Singing & Dancing from their noise I judge them to be Ab<sup>t</sup> fifty in Number all which the Cherokees told me were Shawnese. As I have taken a plan of the place & Fort as well as I could upon a Separate paper, I shall make no mention of it here — — — —

This march had we kept the path would have been Ab<sup>t</sup> 12 miles the Course Ab<sup>t</sup> N : 80 W — The Ohio Runs near S : 20 : W : the monongahala at the mouth from Near : E : From the top of this Ridge I moved to another place nearer to the monongahala but could make no further Discovery From this place we went back to the Chief Warriour & after some consultion a greed to return home — upon Which we came ab<sup>t</sup> a mile & Near the Trad<sup>g</sup> path encamped — We heard the Indians singing & Dancing all night — — — —

Thursday 17th As soon as Day break we began our march which we continued Very fast till 1 °Clock in Which time we came about 30 miles & overtook our party that was ordered back We then made a short halt & refreshed our selves after which we continued our march together & came Ab<sup>t</sup> 12 miles Ab<sup>t</sup> 2 miles before we encamp<sup>t</sup> we came upon some fresh Tracks that came along the path Eastwards — — — — —

Fryday the 18th we continued on our Way pursuing the Tracks that we Came on last Night. The low grounds & Branches I mentioned in my Journal as I went towards F : D : are Very low & liable to be Overflowed & consequently Very moist & Soft so that I am a fraid a Road tho' them Will be Very indifferent for Carriages We followed the Tracks till night When we encamp<sup>d</sup> ab<sup>t</sup> 4 miles from the Camp at Quimahony Creek — — — — —

Saterday the 19th We marched Early in the morning & came to the camp Where we found that it was Ens<sup>n</sup> Allens party that we had tracked & that they arrived a Camp But last Night —

DEAR SIR

The Governors in America have no Comand of the Troops even of their own Province as soon as they are joined wth any other of his Majestys Forces :
unless they have a Comission from the Commander in Chief for that Purpose

I have commanded the Forces at Philada and at Charles Town, tho' the Governor was Cap<sup>t</sup> General in his Province, and was intirely independent from them.

Governor Sharpe will not expect to have the Comand as Governor, and as Lieut Col. he can not ;

I send Capt. Trent to bring here the Indians wth

FROM JOHN KIRKPATRICK, ESQ.

DEAR SIR / I am no less honour'd than entertained by your kind Letter of the 20th which has had a speedy passage hither — and gives me the wished for intelligence of your good Health, amid all your Anxieties, and Troubles — May it long continue — & improve with a full enjoyment of all your wishes — whether in the active attempts to Liberty and Honour — or in the passive paths of Virtue, peace and pleasure.

You have a large share of sympathy from me — could it avail to change the situation of affairs — or my ineffectual Wishes add any thing to the service of my country — which now, more than ever, calls aloud for Redress — In vain does your Generous Zeal, — oppose the Torrent of headstrong prejudice or attempt to clear the Mists of Mistaken Parties — It has long been the luckless fate of Virginia, to fall a Victim to the Views of crafty neighbours and yield her honest efforts to promote their common interest — at the expense of much Blood and Treasure — While her Sincerity Justified her measures — We now, can only bewail that Blindness — and wish for happier times — which seem at so remote a distance — that it is rather to be wished than expected

Your kind detail of the Delays and disappointments that attend You, are extremely acceptable — and we all acknowledge the favour — Coud it suit your leisure to give us an Account of the Road from Phil<sup>a</sup>. to Rays Town — thence to Du Quesne — their distance — and how passable for carriages — &c. — a better notion can be form'd of this surprising folly — when laid in Contrast to the old Roads — A particular list of Your Army woud likewise oblidge — and what other intelligence you are pleas'd to communicate — as we shall be better Judges of the Injustice offered by the Pensilvanians — who are all in all.

To drop the dull topick of politicks — and touch the subject of social entertainment — woud require a readier genius, to dress the insipid occurancies so as to yield you any degree of Satisfaction — but to take them according to your own Arrangem<sup>t</sup> — Love, reigns with gentle sway — and rarely in this Age warms the heart beyond the common degree of Fondness — hence, this defficiency of Romantick Lovers Knight Errants — &c. in short his influence is seldom seen. However as an exception I hear Charles' Eskridge intends to Batter down the Gates of Miss Guby's affections in a little time, The Surrender being suspended till Mons<sup>r</sup> Ramsay the commandant consent to the Terms of Capitulation — Charles' Colo. viz<sup>t</sup>, C——le resists the scheme with fruitless arguments. I am almost induced to believe our Friend B. Fairfax has some thoughts of softening his austerity in the arms of some fair Nymph — could he reconcile the Toying, Triffling, Billing Sports of Love to the Solemnity and Gravity of his Department — Amusements and joys unbecoming his Philosophic Temper — tho' I cant think he has any inherent aversion to what some esteem the end of Creation.

I am hurried to Conclude because Cowper who brought me yours carries this to Winchester — & waits for me. I have resolved on paying a visit to my native country & may probably take the first occasion in 3 weeks or a Month hence — however shall do myself the pleasure of writing You before I go — & give you a Direction for me — that when it shall please you to honor me with a Letter, I may not suffer a disappointment by miscarriage — I am not resolved to continue at home — but — there — here — or Wherever Fortune fixes me — I am extremely Yours in every respect — as in Duty I ought — & always will be dear Sir Your very much obliged &

It was Washington's practice to number, in each division of his four farms (Union, Dogue-Run, Muddy-Hole and River Farms), the separate fields or lots. By this means his overseers were enabled in his absence to follow closely his careful and minute directions regarding his crops and their proper rotation. Throughout Washington's life he took an active interest in and direction of his farms. He excelled in that art as in the other duties to which he was called by Divine Providence; and his tables of rotation of crops, etc., would serve to-day as models for the agriculturist. From no class of correspondence did he, in later years, derive more satisfaction than in that with Sir Arthur Young on topics relative to practical and scientific agriculture.

DEAR SIR

I had last night your favour of the 24th. 308 Beeves were brought here, and as 320 had been sent from Cumberland 12 must have been lost. They are extremely bad, and I hope we shall have no more such Cattle from the Contractors.

I expect to-day your Convoy with the Indians. I regret extremely the loss of poor Bullen which very truly is a great one at this juncture.

If there is any team fit for service in the Waggon that brought you the flour, I beg you will Keep them in the Service, and send them here, where we have employment for them.

The first division of the artillery is over the Allegheny, and had no Stop or difficulty to go over the Gap: the Road will be cut tonight to the foot of L. Hill and in three days Sir John promises to be over to Loy. H The second division will follow immediately and I expect wth impatience the arrival of the General to move on myself: We must shortly enter upon action, and I know that we have time enough to carry our Point, if we meet with no new difficulties.

The first Point to Settle is the disposition of your Troops, of which I shall inform you immediately — Please to keep constant Partys upon your Road. I am with great truth my dear Sir your most obed & humble servant

If Mr. Hooper Should want any Escort I beg you will furnish him one.

Mr. Fraser went to Cumberland for two days and I have not seen him Since.

In case you sent any Waggons this Way, he could take the opportunity of removing his family Which he told me was his Intention.

My compliments to Colo. Byrd, Am very sorry of his Indisposition.

there is one Christopher Hencely a Deserter from the First Virg<sup>a</sup> Reg<sup>t</sup>: I have taken up. he promises for the time to come to be a very Dutifull Soldier but did not Imagin any officer would a meddled with him, as he had been out of the servis so long he Left us with Six more from the Dunkers just before the Scrummage at the Great meadow.

we have no News here worth Relating as I Refaire it to the Papers sent up.

[Intelligence inclosed in Mr. Ramsay's letter.]

4th or 6th June The Highlanders landed at Philadelphia, Ab: the 25th or 28 July, part came to the Camp near Rays Town ab: the 10th. June, the train arrived at Philadelphia. Ab: the 1st Aug. At the Camp near Rays Town.

The Virginians open'd the Road from ab: 10 Miles this side of Shippys Town to Rays Town, 70 Miles.

N. B. — The Pensylvanians clear'd part of the road the Virginians were on, but it cost the Virginians three days labor to make the same passable —

N. B. By persons of undoubted veracity & in the imploy of Pensylvania, do publickly assert, that the new road from Shippys Town to the Camp, is worse than any part of the old road from Fort Cumberland to Fort Du Quesne —

The Crown pays carriage of Provisions from Philadelphia & I dare say costs Forty shillings ʒ hundred —

REAS TOWN CAMP 30th Aug 1758.

DEAR SIR

I have your favour of the 28th. and am very glad to have it in my Power to relieve you of that long inactivity which you so justly complain of.<sup>1</sup>

The Generals orders are that you march with the Virginia troops actually under your Command, by Braddock's Road, and that you take Post at the Salt Like,<sup>2</sup> that Strong natural Encampment described us once by S<sup>t</sup> John. Our advanced Partys on this Way will take Post beyond the Chestnut Ridge, and will look for the shortest Communication wth you.

I beg you will let me know what you may want in ammunition &c. Provisions you must have for Six Weeks from the day of your departure, including 3 weeks of fresh Meat or live Cattle.

<sup>2</sup> Salt Lick Creek, now known as Sewickly Creek. — JONES. Washington did not, however, repair to Salt Lick. He did not march from Fort Cumberland until the 21st of September. “If it were possible that I could march with carrying horses only, and those good, I could be at the place you mention in six days: But if I am encumbered with waggons it will probably be 10 days; and if the teams are bad, there is no guessing at the time. . . . I am very desirous of a conference with the General before I march as there may be many things necessary to settle, I shall lose no time in attending him when I have notice of his arrival.” — Washington's answer; from Washington's Letter Book, iv. p. 135.

I shall send you a Proportion of Intrenching tools and Compleat your Men at 100 Rounds each.

As we have no Waggons here, I cannot See that you will be able to march before the 8th of 7ber and if you could by your Interest procure a number of Waggons from Virginia they would be of great Service, were they 100: The last Teams you have had from Winchester are very good, but before I received Your Orders, I had Sent them to Carlisle. These 100 additional Waggons or Part of them could be loaded wth what flour cou'd be got in Virg<sup>a</sup>. The Rest with Indian Corn, proceed to Cumberland, where they would find further orders, according to Circumstances and either go to the Ohio by your Road or this as would be found most convenient.

The first good Waggons that will come up I shall Send you, with what you may want.

The General was to Set out yesterday from Shippys and I hope will be here in a few days. It will be very necessary that you See him; as soon as I know the day of his arrival, you will be informed. Prepare in the meantime your Queris &c

If you will have Pack horses to carry Provisions besides the Waggons, you may have any number of them, but they cannot easily carry Pork, Liquor or Tools, otherwise you would have had little occasion of incumbering your march with waggons.

Let me know in how many days you could be there, either wth Pack Horses only, or with Waggons.

The Ration is fixed at 7lb. flour and 7lb. fresh Beef per Week, and in lieu of Beef five Pounds of Pork and one Pint of Rice, or in lieu of Pork, four pounds of Bacon and also one Pint of Rice.

A Head of Bullock is given here for 5lb. and the Heart for two.

I write you in a great hurry, not to differ a moment informing you, of your happy delivery. I shall let you know, how the Fort is to be garrisoned. I believe it will be by 250 men of the Militia of Maryland, commanded by the Governor himself.

Your Sick Should be Sent to the Gen<sup>l</sup> Hospital here, or lefft at Cumberland, if they can be well attended there. Your sentiment upon that.

If you have any hopes of getting Waggons from Virginia, how could they be escorted to Cumberland without weakening you?

I have had the misfortune to have had One Express to the General intercepted last Week. I can hear nothing of the two Light Horse, the Carriers, whether deserted, killed or taken; and yesterday another Express from our advanced Post deserted with Letters; Therefore the French may pretty well be informed of our Proceedings: I am ashamed that they Succeed in all their Scouting Partys and that we never have any Success in ours.

My Compliments to Col. Byrd. I shall be very glad to see you here, and am with great truth D<sup>r</sup> S<sup>r</sup> your most obed<sup>t</sup> humble servant

HENRY BOUQUET

Our troops will be tomorrow at L—— H——n. Louisburg was taken the 26th We shall make a feu de joie, fire also at Cumberland. Keep the above disposition of your troops Secret till you hear more about it.<sup>1</sup>

Since my last nothing remarkable hath occur'd, only an Express by Col<sup>o</sup> Burd from the Mountains, is suppos'd to be gon to Fort Du Quesne. This may be of very ill consequence indeed, It seems this fellow was for sometime a Prisoner amongst them, & had the character of a great villain, yet was made one of the Pennsylvania Light Horse, & intrusted it seems with affairs of such moment; how imprud! this was, needs no comment. Another sent down to the Genl. is tho't, to be taken.

Amidst this gloom of ill fortune & delays, we have the strongest assurances of Louisburg being ours, that our Fleet ravages the Coast of France & that we may hope some important blow may be struck there, God grant this, for I'm affraid, as I hinted before, Loyal Hannan will be our utmost effort this year. The Gen<sup>l</sup> was to leave Shippenburg at yesterday, but I am affraid he neither is, nor will be able to get here this season. I cannot divine why Men born down with age & infirmities & thereby rendered incapable of action, should be employ'd in affairs of such mom<sup>t</sup> & in a Country that requires robustness to bear fatigue, resolution to execute with celerity this enterprise; especially as we have great reason to suppose, chief part of their force were employ'd to

FROM WILLIAM FAIRFAX, ESQ.

BELVOIR Sept: 1th 1758, (

DEAR SIR

I have this instant recd. yours of the 23<sup>d</sup> & 27th Ultimo. The first M<sup>rs</sup> Fairfax undertakes to answer, as I dont care to detain the bearer, and having several Culpeper People now waiting upon business — You may depend Sir. that M<sup>r</sup> Patterson shall have all the Assistance I am able to give him, and shall do all I can to forward his Work. But I begin to doubt whether it will be finished before we may reasonably expect you down. One very great reason for my thinking so is. The goods from York are not arrived, neither do I know when they will, altho' I have wrote to your Brother John & M<sup>r</sup> Ambler if possible to hasten them up. —

Your Overseer has housed some Tobacco and by the help of a late very soaking rain, I hope he will secure a good Crop of both Corn and Tobac<sup>o</sup>; which is more than any I hear can boast of. For I never Remember so very dry a Season, and 'till this late blessed rain, there was not a green blade of Grass to be seen on my Plantation, and every thing began to wither, indeed most of my Pear, and many of my Apple Trees are dead (and I am sorry to say your two Chestnuts before the House) But thank God the face of things begin to revive. But never so as to make in Gen<sup>l</sup> more than quarter Crops.

Knowing that you have the Philadelphia Papers more frequent and regular than we, I think it needless to recite the particulars of the reduction of Louisburg, and some advantages gained in Europe. And shall only rejoice with you and every Loyal and well affected Person, upon having the Dunkirk of America in our hands, and at so little loss of blood. I was going to Expatiate upon its Advantages, 'till I recollected it was needless to one of your knowledge of the Continent. And being called upon by an impatient Man at my Elbow, which I hope will be a sufficient Apology to conclude with all our Compliments, and to wish you and our Countrymen may return with Laurels sufficient to Perpetuate their Names to the latest Ages, I am Dear Sir

Your Most Obedient and very humble serv<sup>t</sup>

W<sup>M</sup> FAIRFAX.

P. S. As there is no dependence on Mr. Ballentine, I shall endeavour to get Plank for the Floors elsewhere, otherwise to see whether we can do without, and make the old look as well as possible. I am really sorry the Ladies wont dispense my going with them to Hampton, but I will put it off as long as I can in hopes of seeing the goods from York (which I believe will be about three weeks hence.

DEAR SIR, As soon as I despatched the People upon business, I thought it best to come over here to see whether anything was necessary to have your further advice upon, for indeed the Oftener I come over the more I think it really necessary. For with regard to the Garrett Stairs I am at a loss unless I know whether you intend that for Lodging Apartments for Serv<sup>ts</sup> If not the Stairs may be carried from the left hand room, which you design for Lumber, without making it publick. But if it is for Lodging 6 feet by 12 off from the old Store Room will make a retired Stair, and leave a Closet with the Window of 8 by 12 which if not sufficient you may make a good Room for the same uses above, and leave your Chamber entirely clear. If the Little Stairs (which will be directly opposite to you when you land from the other) will be an Eye-sore you may put a door which will make it uniform. The Landing you know is bad narrow & will be almost filled with Door, so that we shall be glad to know whether you intend only the small Vacancies between them to be Papered, or the part, supposing where ours is stocoid) to be also. I plainly see Mr. Triplett cannot do your work, before the Frost, for what with Poseys and Major Wests work, He has not begun with the underpinning, but shall write to him immediately, and if he dont come shall employ any I can get. SATURDAY MORNING MOUNT VERNON Sep<sup>r</sup> y<sup>e</sup> 2nd 1758

HONOURABLE SIR

I understand you have not rec<sup>d</sup> Letters that I wrote, its certainly by some bad management, for I readily comply'd in puting Letters in Col. Carlyle's Store, & directed to y<sup>e</sup> care of Lieutenant Smith &c. I asure you Sir its not true any negligence of mine, for as you are pleas'd to desire hereing how your building goes on, I think its a satisfaction more than otherwise. In my last I wrote y<sup>e</sup> outside of y<sup>e</sup> House being finish'd, y<sup>e</sup> Closets excepted, that by reason of not having flooring plank; which M<sup>r</sup> Balendine has got a Bill of. I shall have y<sup>e</sup> Old dineing room, with y<sup>e</sup> Room ajacent to it finish'd, about y<sup>e</sup> ninth of this Ins<sup>t</sup> I will have y<sup>e</sup> Doors ready at y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> time. The goods from York is not ariv'd, but Col. Fairfax informs me he will do his endeavor to procure them as soon as possible; that Gen<sup>t</sup> asits me with his advice, & every other article lyes in his power, for certainly I would be at a stop in laying floor if he had not supply'd me with flooring Bords as there were none to be had here about. For fear y<sup>e</sup> last letter has been miscarried M<sup>r</sup> Triplet cant do y<sup>e</sup> two Houses and Yard in all this year, as Bricks is to be made for them, & at y<sup>e</sup> same time having y<sup>e</sup> House to Plaster. And as your Hon. seem'd to be urgent in having them finish'd off directly, I inclos'd your letter to Col. Fairfax to know his opinion of it, he writes its best to have y<sup>e</sup> underpinning, & all y<sup>e</sup> outside work to be done first, But I imagine he does not include those two little Houses (for if so) y<sup>e</sup> Plastering of y<sup>e</sup> great House would not of consequence be done against your return, as M<sup>r</sup> Triplet cant even lath to Plaster on, having work elsewhere engaug'd; as he did not know of those Houses &c. sooner, and as he will direct y<sup>e</sup> Carpenters to lath it will be equally as well. He has finish'd y<sup>e</sup> top of y<sup>e</sup> Chimney's some time ago & when finish'd Major West's House intends here. I layd befor him y<sup>e</sup> disappointment that may accrue from y<sup>e</sup> Work not being finish'd, but he seems to be positive in compleating y<sup>e</sup> Plastering & underpinning against y<sup>e</sup> last of Nov<sup>r</sup>. Col. Fairfax advisd me to employ a person to paynt y<sup>e</sup> House, as I had as much Joiner's work as I could do in y<sup>e</sup> time, & with his consent agreed with a man for four Shill. ʒ day, & in my next will let you know how y<sup>e</sup> Paynt, & Paynting goes on.

As to my being positive in fixing a time to have y<sup>e</sup> whole finish'd, its not in my power, but may add without vanity its out of y<sup>e</sup> power of man to stick more diligent, & take all proper means I am master of to forward y<sup>e</sup> whole, & shall always make it my study, to Oblidge Your Honour & remain Your Honours.

Most Oblidg'd, Most Humble Serv<sup>t</sup>

P. S.

HONBLE SIR

I have Received yours of the 27th Ult<sup>o</sup> by w<sup>ch</sup> I find you have not received my last Letter to you, in which I have given an Acc<sup>t</sup> of the Crop both of Tobacco & Corn lest it shou'd miscarry I also send you an Acc<sup>t</sup> thereof. viz. — The Tob<sup>o</sup> is very Backward on Acc<sup>t</sup> of the Drought, as also the Corn, We have hous'd I believe about fifteen Hundred which I wou'd rather was still out, if it wou'd allow it, as it might have been better since the late Rain we have had on Thursday & Friday last what is out is much better since the late Rain.

In regard to the Oats, we have made but a very small Crop By Reason of the Drought also, not more I believe than about Twenty Bushels out of Ten Bushels Sowing. I cant get any one at present to Thresh the wheat without giving an Extraord<sup>ny</sup> price which is a penny half penny more than usual, & if you'l have it Thresh'd at that price I shall get it done, as I cant spare any of our own people to do it, the Tob<sup>o</sup> being so Latter that they can't be spared from it. I have sent the Mare & four Colts to Mount Vernon, we have lost no horses nor anything else since you have been gone, M<sup>r</sup> Smith has Employ'd the Waggon last Week at the Fort, & Employs it also this Week, I have wrote to M<sup>r</sup> Snickers ab<sup>t</sup> the Mares, his answer is that the Mare he sold you, had Bought of one Samuel Givens in Augusta County, to whom he wrote about her to make a strict enquiry for her and if found that he should be well rewarded, & says also that if the Mare you had of Cap<sup>t</sup> Lindsey is not stopt, she will come up to the Blue Ridge within about nine miles of where he lives, & if she does that he will secure her for you.

your Negroes are all well, except Adam & old Bland. Adam has had the fever & Ague & now is troubled with a Swelling in his Throat, but is getting better. We have two Oxen here, for which I dont see any use, More so as we have Horses Enough to do any Business we have to do, Also they are very troublesome to the Neighbours Destroying their Corn &c. &c. if you approve of it, I shall fatten them & make them fit for Market, as we have Six head more that I can make fit for the Market, since I have sent the Mare & Colts to Mount Vernon there has been one Pritchard with me who lays Claim to them, I asked him how he came by them last Winter, he told me they were brought to him by a Man whose Name he does not know, if you Remember I have told you that one of the Waggon Horses went off with them last Winter. I Desired the Man to write to you about them as the year & a Day was Expired in posting them, —

I have wrote to you always when I had any thing material to mention to you, & shall Continue so to do, —

Our last planting is Just the same since planted by reason of the long Drought we have had, 'till this last rain, & am afraid it will never come to any perfection — but shall do my Endeavours to make the most I can of it.

I am with due Respect y<sup>r</sup> most humble &

<sup>3</sup> Sir John St. Clair appears to have been so designated by Mr. Ramsay on account of his tempestuous disposition, which also showed itself in his attitude during the Braddock campaign. The Commissioners from Pennsylvania write of him to the Governor that he "stormed like a lyon rampant," and that he in his accusation that Pennsylvania was retarding the expedition, declared "that he would kill all kinds of cattle, carry away horses, burn houses &c. and that if the French defeated them in consequence of the delays of this Province, he would, with his sword drawn, pass through it, and treat the inhabitants as traitors to his master." In regard to this later quarrel between Colonel Stephen and himself, however, General Forbes writes to Colonel Bouquet, September 23, 1758, "Sir John St. Clair says that if I say he was in the wrong to Colonel Stevens, he will readily acknowledge it. I do not choose meddling, but I think Colonel Stevens might act, and trust to Sir John's acknowledgement." Sir John St. Clair was appointed in October, 1654, Deputy Quarter-Master General of all the forces in America, with rank of Colonel, and arrived in this country on the 10th of January, 1755. Sargent, in his Braddock's Expedition, says, "St. Clair remained for a long time in service in America. On the 20th March, 1756, he was made a Lieut. Col. of the 60th; in Jan., 1758, the local rank of Colonel in America was bestowed on him; and on Feb. 19th, 1762, he was made a full Colonel. He is said to have dwelt near Tarbet in Argyleshire. At the defeat he was shot through the body, under the right pap, but soon recovered."

right & will not be releasd without a publick justification, even Lieut Col<sup>o</sup> Loyd of the Pensylvaniās has taken the Command from the B——ly,<sup>1</sup> this has mortified him much, & probably may humble his pride. REAS TOWN CAMP 4th September 1758

DEAR SIR

I detained your Express in Expectation of receiving a Letter from the General which is just come to hand, he Sets out to day, and orders me to go to our advanced Post, where there is Some appearance of an attack, and as soon as their Intrenchm<sup>ts</sup> are raised, and the necessary dispositions made for the Communication I am to return here. It seems by his Intelligences that the French expects a large body of Indians from beyond the Lakes, and as it is not in their Power to keep them long, he judges that they could be prevailed upon to make a Push at our Head.

He desires me to inform you that the Militia of Maryland and Governor Sharpe himself will be the 10th at Cumberland, where you will leave no Body who is able to go upon the Expedition. That Militia is to be victualled, and to have some Liquor.

As we have no Accomodation here for your Sick, you will leave them in the Fort, where I shall Send a Surgeon and Medicines, wth furnitures of the General Hospital, Please to let me know their Number; and to order a Sufficient number of Women to attend as Nurses, they will be paid.

I cannot fix the day of your march as it depends on two things out of my Power, the arrival of the General, and a Sufficient Number of Waggons, to Send you from here Provisions, Tools Liquor &c.

I am sensible that your March would be more Expeditious had you only carrying Horses, but we have no Keggs for Pork nor Boxes for the Tools, therefore you must have at least 28 Waggons which will be chosen among the best, They will not make a long line.

Your march will be covered by our advanced Post and 300 of the best Woodsmen, and the Indians who are marched to day under Comand of L<sup>t</sup> Col. Dagworthy, and are to be advanced nearer to the fort, Keeping continually Spyes and little Partys about it to give Intelligence of the Enemy's motions: When you are upon your march, I will propose to the General to send 500 men from our Deposite to take Post at the Salt Like, and help you to fortify your Camp.

I hear that the most dangerous Place for an attack upon you would be from Lead Stone Creek, as the Enemy has boats and would go up Mononghehela, It would therefore not be improper to have that Side reconnoitred before you march by, and as it is at a great distance of the Roads, you would have time to make the necessary dispositions, and prevent a Surprise, the only thing I am in fear of with our new Soldiers.

Here is the Calculation I make for your Ammunition, and Provision 20 Rounds carried by Each man, and 80 in Reserve will require

24 Barrills of Powder in . . .	2 Waggons
53 Boxes of Musket Balls } . . .	4 do.
Flints . . . . . }
Tools . . . . .	2 do.
Liquor and Salt . . . . .	2 do.
20,000 <sup>lbs</sup> Pork for 4 Weeks . . .	16 do.
Rice . . . . .	1 do.
42,000 <sup>lbs</sup> of flour . . . . .	210 horses.
50 Heads of Cattle.

I make the Computation for 1000 Effective, including the Waggoners, Drivers, &c. and I propose 4 Weeks of Pork as I think live Cattle a very precarious thing.

If I have omitted any article, I beg you will let me know it. We are entirely stopped for Want of Waggoners, and if it is possible to get any in Virg<sup>a</sup> and Maryland, they would be of infinite service; We have a considerable quantity of forrage on the S<sup>o</sup> branches which they could carry to Cumberl<sup>d</sup><sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Edward Shippen, writing on May 28, 1758, from Lancaster, Pa., to his son, Major Joseph Shippen, states that he was "engaged to send off at six o'clock A. M. of Tues-

I am very sorry of Col. Byrd's Indisposition, I hope he will be able to march wth his Reg<sup>t</sup>: My best Wishes attends him

SIR,

I am favoured with Yours and have sent to collect all our Packhorses (for the Waggons are gone forward) and propose sending off forty, if so many are to be found, loaded with Flower —

<sup>1</sup> The remarkable postscript of Sergeant Wilper may possibly be interpreted as follows: "your horse and cow are not come this way, if they come up, we will not miss to take them up. I acquaint Your Honor that I took one, the County cow up, and the bull calf, her son. So soon as she has calved I will send her to you. It is a fine cow."

<sup>2</sup> Dr. Hugh Mercer was born and educated in Scotland. He entered the army during the French and Indian war, and served until its close. In the Revolution he again became a soldier, and rose to the rank of general. He was fatally wounded at the battle of Princeton. Congress, on the 8th of April, 1777, resolved that a monument be erected to his memory, and his son be educated at the expense of the government.

They will be at CumberL<sup>d</sup> on Teusday night, and a further suply, may be afterwards sent when the General's pleasure is known with regard to your march —

I could have wished to inform you of the Generals arrival here, We looked for him Yesterday, but understood in the Evening that he remained at Fort Loudon on friday Morning, with little probability of his disorder permitting him to march for sever<sup>1</sup> Days —

DEAR SIR /

Tho' I must acknowledge I had no right to expect it, a letter from you before you marched from Rays Town would have given me great pleasure and satisfaction;<sup>1</sup> and as I not only should hear of your own Situation but that of the Forces in general, and whether there was any real design of making an attack on Fort Duquesne this Season which we much doubt here, The Assembly met the 12th of September, and from the long delay of the March of the Forces, and the partiality they imagined shewn to Pennsylvania, were not in a very good humor, and not thinking any attempt would be made on Fort Duquesne so late in the Year, they passed an Act to withdraw the first Regiment from the Regulars after the first of Dec<sup>r</sup> and station them upon the Frontiers of this Colony for the Protection of the Inhabitants but upon some Letters that the Gov<sup>r</sup> received, ab<sup>t</sup> a fortnight after that Assembly broke up, assuring him that an Attempt would be made, He thought it proper to call the Assembly again, and they accordingly met on Thursday last, when he laid the Letters before them, which they immediately took into Consideration, and that no blame might be laid to this Colony, for the failure of the Expedition which they imagined some people would be glad of having an Opportunity of doing, they proceeded with a dispatch never before known, and in three days passed an Act to empower the Gov<sup>r</sup> to continue the Forces in the pay of this large Sums have <sup>been</sup> expended without any Advantage to the Common Cause, and so many brave men perish with cold & sickness who if led to the Enemy would have done their Country Service, I am perplexed and tried with finding out reasons for such unaccountable Conduct, for such it is to me, and shall endeavour to think no more of it, till I see the Event, which I am afraid will not be very favourable, I heartily pity our poor men who must be now very illy provided to stand the Severity of the Season, I wish they were all back, for I really expect nothing from their continuing longer there, that they

DEAR SIR,

In Answer to your Enquiry I can scarce say whether I am alive or dead: I have been so long disorder'd both in Mind and Body that I am really between both. Disappointments in Love & repeated Colds have reduced me much; however tho' I am sensible of the Follies of this Life I am no ways desirous of leaving them: I had rather bear the Slings and Arrows of outrageous Fortune than venture upon the unknown Regions of Eternity. The Prospect is gloomy even when viewed by a Mind that thinks itself prepared for the Journey; but how dismal it must appear to those who are unprepared for it! As this is Case there seems to be no Wonder why we are so unwilling to leave this World of Troubles and Anxieties.

I am concerned Sir to find you want Employment for from Experience I know a State of Idleness to be very disagreeable. Such a close Confinement and such a constant Round of Inactivity must prove very irksome to one capable of Action; and if you had complained more of the Follies of this Life and the Uncertainty of it's Enjoyments; in your present Situation Sir I should not have been surprised at it.

As we have <sup>now</sup> begun I shall be extremely proud to cultivate a Correspondence, and if you choose to give me your Sentiments on the Campaign whatever you desire to be kept secret shall remain so —

DEAR SIR

Your favour of the 12th inst<sup>e</sup>: I had the pleasure to receive last Night, and was sorry your last Messenger neglected so much of your business as to oblige you to send a second.

The detention of your goods is really a very great disapp<sup>t</sup>;, for nothing can be done (I mean finished) till the Glass is in, consequently you cant expect the Work can be done by the time you expected. But I will spur Patterson on to gett everything preparative for there coming — I am glad you approve of our

Plan for the Garret Stairs being diffident of our own in many cases — And as this may be the last Opportunity I may have, should be glad to have your positive directions about the Passage Floor, which seems to stand very well, but the Nail marks always will remain, — for in all things shall endeavour to make your Directions the Standard and follow them as near as Possible —

M<sup>r</sup> Triplett has certainly used you ill, for he might have put the work a good deal forwarder by doing only a part of his. But he promises to do better, and was the things but arrived from York, I should please myself with the hopes of seeing the whole carried on properly.

Your Brother Aug<sup>e</sup> kindly Visited me the other day, to advise me of his intention of Sailing with the London Flat the 24th inst. from York, and would have wrote to you, but was obliged to attend M<sup>r</sup> Chapman about business of importance, therefore hoped you would excuse him.

CAMP AT REAS TOWN 15th Sep<sup>t</sup> 1758

SIR

I have the Pleasure to inform you that General Forbes arrived yesterday at Juniata Crossing, and is looked for here by twelve OClock; It is but this minute I understood he had left Fort Loudoun; It seems the Generals health exceeds our Expectations, as he bears the Journey well & has proceeded with great expedition these two days past <sup>1</sup> — Your Letters were forwarded immediately on my receiving them —

Some live Stock will be sent by the Return of the Party of Virg<sup>a</sup> Troops from hence, & I propos'd conveying you a Quantity of Flour under the same Escort, but am prevented by an unexpected demand from our advanced Posts; Col Bouquets anxiety on account of supplies of Provisions obliges me to employ even the Artillery Horses for transporting the Flour — I mention this, that What Horses & Wag-gons can be mustered up at Cumberland may be sent here if you find a further supply necessary —

I am

Sir,

<sup>1</sup> General Forbes arrived at Raes Town on the 15th of September.

FROM GENERAL FORBES.

[A Copy.]

RAESTOWN 16 Sept. 1758

SIR,

I have the favor of yours of the 12th and I am told M<sup>r</sup> Rutherford's complaint is occasioned by Col Bouquet's having refused some cattle of M<sup>r</sup> Walker's, that really was not fit to be used in our way, and therefore Col B. gave orders not to purchase any more such.

I am extremely obliged to you for your good wishes of recovery which I now really stand in need of, being quite as feeble now as a child almost—however here I am and I hope profit daily—I am sorry to hear my poor friend Cl. Byrd has been very bad. I wish he were able to come here where I should hope to prove a better physician than he will probably meet with at Fort Cumberland. They tell me here that you threaten us a visit soon, which I should be glad of whenever it happens, being very sincerely

I have not returnd Col! Bouquet's Letter, as the Assembly w<sup>ch</sup> are not convened may perhaps call for it: but it shall be returned to you whenever you desire it.

Since it is determin'd to go by Loyal hanning, I hope the Difficulties attending that Road are not so great as apprehended, that the Army may reach Fort Du Quesne this year; otherwise I much fear whether the Ardor this Colony has shewn to support the War will continue for another Year, the Flame being a little stifled by the inactivity of this Campaign. But one glorious stroke will reanimate us. My Interest here can yet be of no Consideration, yet I will use my Endeavours wth the Assembly that our Troops may not be weaken'd for another year but I much doubt of my Success.

The Treasury is exhausted and I cannot yet say what the assembly will do to replenish it. Arrears must undoubtedly be paid; and you may be assured the first Money that comes there shall be applied to the Payment of the Army, that they may not have any Room for Discontent from that Quarter.

I have directed the Letters I have rec<sup>d</sup> from you and Col! Byrd to be laid before the Assembly as you will see by my Speech<sup>1</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> I send you herewith, and

I have deferred calling you together as long as the exigencies of Government would permit me, being desirous of accommodating your particular Affairs to the Concerns of the Public, as much as possible; and if these had not demanded it I should not must wait their pleasure in Relation to the Major of Brigade, as I have it not in my power to issue such a have given you this Trouble now, merely to notify you, in this Place, His Majesty's Appointment of me to succeed to the Honorable Robert Dinwiddie, Esq.; as Lieutenant-Governor of this his Colony and Dominion of Virginia, an Honor and Trust conferred on me to which it behoves me to pay the greatest Attention and Regard.

That I may, in some Measure, merit this Honor, and answer to this Confidence which His Majesty has most graciously been pleased to repose in me: it becomes equally my indispensable Duty to provide for the Prosperity and Well-being of this Colony, and to promote the Honor and Dignity of His Majesty and the Crown of Great-Britain in all its Branches and Appendages. If I, on my Part, steadily pursue the First, I make not the least Doubt, from the many great and recent Proofs you have given of your Fidelity and unshaken Loyalty, but that you, on your Parts, will heartily and cheerfully concur with me in all Measures which may tend to establish and strengthen the Last.

It is my earnest Wish that a perfect Harmony may at all Times subsist between us: and to this Purpose it shall be my constant Endeavour to consult the Happiness of the People committed to my Charge, by taking Care that effectual and speedy Justice be rendered to all His Majesty's Subjects in Virginia, as far as in me lies; and by all other means which may conduce to that desirable End. But whatever Assurances I may give of my future Conduct, I am very sensible that I shall be judged of by my Actions: These are the Tests by which you, as reasonable Men, will form your Opinion of me, and will hereafter either give me, or withhold from me your Confidence. To this Test I hope I shall always be willing to submit.

By Letters I have lately received from the Army, which I have ordered to be laid before you, it is doubtful whether the great End of our Wishes can be obtained this Year, but the Operations of this Campaign tend at least to prepare Matters for an early Attack the next.

Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

The Part you have so nobly taken in the present War, by granting the large Sums of Money you have done in Support of His Majesty's Arms, and the common Cause, has given great Satisfaction, and is worthy the Imitation of our neighbouring Colonies; but sorry am I to say, that the Sums already given, great as they are, are insufficient for the Purposes for which they were designed, and for the Services actually entered upon, and more will be necessary to make good the Deficiencies now subsisting from the Expences already incurred: I am confident that the bare mentioning these Circumstances will be a sufficient Inducement to you to have the greatest Attention to the Distresses of our Country; and I hope that what is necessary to be raised, will be done in the Manner the least burdensome possibly to the People.

Gentlemen of the Council, and of the House of Burgesses,

I would not willingly detain you long at this Time, yet my Inclinations to serve this Colony are so ardent that I cannot help recommending one Thing to you, which, from the many Representations that have already been made to me (short as the Time is since my Arrival here) appears to me to demand and merit your most serious Consideration, and in our present Situation not to admit of the least Delay, as the Defence of the Colony, the Protection of the Property, nay the very Lives of our People depend upon it; I mean the Revisal of the Militia Law, which, notwithstanding the many Alterations it has undergone, and Amendments it has received, still wants some great Commission the number of Officers being limited by the last Act of Assembly by w<sup>ch</sup> the second Regiment was raised. I shall always recommend it to them, to let you have everything that is necessary for the Service.

I have detained Jenkins till the House of Burgesses have taken the affair of the Regiments into Consideration and voted their Subsistence, for all the Money before granted was exhausted. I hope your Men are not uneasy but it was impossible for me to provide for their pay before. M<sup>r</sup> Boyd may have £5000 whenever he pleases to come or send for it as I have wrote to him this Day.

We are impatient to have frequent News from your Quarter in the present Situation of Affairs.

Your Letter of the 12th, came safe to Hand. According to Your Desire I Immediately sent the In-clos'd Down to hardwick —

---

Regulations to make its Use for the Defence of the Colony bear some Proportion to the Expence it creates. The Letters which I have received on this Subject, and my Answers to them, shall be ready to be laid before you whenever you shall call for the same.

Unanimity and Despatch give Vigor to all public Resolutions; on this Account I earnestly recommend them to you, and they will also most assuredly bring with them the additional Pleasure of your being able, by their Means, to return the sooner to your respective Counties, where your Presence, if not necessary will certainly, be acceptable.

I have Employ'd a man of Skill to Assist me in Doing the stone worke of y<sup>e</sup> Bastiane which I am affraid it will be a very Troublesom undertakeing as all the old work must be Taken away & new Pillars rais'd, you may be sure there is no Soldier here fit for Duty but what is kept constantly at Labour to keep things in Repair —

Now I have wrote to Sam<sup>l</sup> Givings for the Brand & markes of your Black Mare, & then will take Every Method, I can to get them. I will Advertise them at Every Publick Place, I can think off —

The Horse that Burris rode Down is a Light bay about 14 Hands high, favours a horse I have seen you have no brand's, only some white hairs Groing on the top of his Neck the Reason of my Stopping him — Burris first told me he was Your's & you Lent him & afterwards Offered him for Sale, hardwick says he Does not know him to be Yours —

Your Peter has mended very Little since my Last but is able to do some small Trifles in the Shop

Hardwick has been a Speaking to me that he is Realy Intended to Leave Your Inploy as soon as his time is up — Your Waggoner John behaves Extremely ill, & Consults his own Interest more than Yours —

I have got one of your waggons & Neagre [nigger] addam to Drive for the Publick, & some Imploy I get about Town that is when it can be spard from the Quarter —

As there is many of the officers Looses men by Desertion, Writes to me Desireing, to Advertise them at £2 Reward, I must Certainly pay Y<sup>e</sup> Money when any

Soldier Deliver'd to me as a Deserter, & they having my Advertisement I take a Receipt for the money I advance that I know, but I should be vastly oblig'd to you for your advice, in Letting me know, how I Shall be Repaid; as I have sent Advertisem<sup>ts</sup> to all Parts of Virg<sup>a</sup> & some to North Carrolina this I look upon to be my Duty when Requir'd for the good of the publick, I Receive one of the 1st Virg<sup>a</sup> Reg<sup>t</sup> Deserter from Lieu<sup>t</sup> King's Comm<sup>d</sup> of the 10th & 3 belonging to the north Carolina Detachment (that Scoundral) Hansley after being pardin'd Deserted Last night as I am in a Hurry, of writeing an answer to the Governour's Letter I hope you will Excuse my not sending you the weekly Returnes, but there is nothing happened Extraordenory Since my Last only Receiv<sup>d</sup> 4 Deserters, hansley Deserted & one Dead of the old Reg<sup>t</sup> —

it make our Duty Very hard to keep so many Prisoners I think it would be very Advisable to Clap them to Labour as there is a Necessity at this time —

M<sup>r</sup> Rutherford will have about, 30, or 40, Waggons Ready to start from this Place of the 22<sup>d</sup> Loaded with Flwor & Forrage, but is at a Loss what to do for a Guard of Men if you think Proper I can spare the 20 Raingers as far as pierce halls, but must have your advice in this Case —

Subsistence for — 6 Months, Past, I Did not know if it was Advisable or not to Put them in my Pay Roles or not, but have at the bottom — without you spake to M<sup>r</sup>: Boyd Concerning the men that is Join'd me sence your Departure he will not send whats Due to them —

As M<sup>r</sup>: Redeford<sup>1</sup> has Aplied to me for a Guard to go<sup>up</sup> with the Waggons as Lord Farfax denies sending One of the Militia & the teams Lying here at Expençe Loaded with forrage I thought its Necessary for the good of the Service to Send Express to You to know if I am to Send the 20 Rangers that is under my Command as far as Piercealls Or not I beg for an imediate Answer as the Waggons Lyes here upon Expençe

the 8th Sep<sup>r</sup> has afforded infinite Pleasure, as in a paragraph of a Letter you some time ago wrote to Col<sup>o</sup> Tayloe you mention'd my being unmindful of you, by not answering a Letter that you had wrote to me soon after I had the Pleasure of seeing you last, w<sup>ch</sup> I have never received therefore I must believe it has fallen into the Hands of the envious, I shou'd be pleased if I cou'd find out the person, & will endeavor to do it, tho' I am afraid it will be a difficult task.

Your kind wishes for my Happiness deserve my most thankful acknowledgements, mine you have, with unfeigned sincerity, and I am truly concern'd to find that the prospect of yours is so distant. I can only wish & that I will do most ardently that success may attend all your undertakings (& that soon) of w<sup>ch</sup> Happiness must be the consequence.

I wou'd write to you the resolutions of the House of Burgesses but none of them as yet are completed. I am inform'd that the Gov<sup>r</sup> detains Jenkins until they are, that you may be fully advised of them, and my Business obliges me to be absent for a few days, & lest he shou'd be sent off before my return, I shou'd have been wanting in my Friendship to you, if I was not to write, tho' it shou'd be nothing more than to assure you that I am with the greatest Truth

They would have been cut to pieces probably had not Captain Bullet of the Virginians, with 100 men, sustained the combat with all their power, until, having lost two-thirds of his men, he was driven to the shore of the river, where he found the poor Major. DEAR SIR

We have no News of late only repeated Acco<sup>ts</sup> of the King of Prussia's beating Count Daun, wch is generally believ'd. The 1st Virg<sup>a</sup> Regim<sup>t</sup> had like to have been broke by a Vote of the House, but the Old and Judicious, carried it against the Young Members by a Majority of five. however they have so far prevail'd, that unless the Regim<sup>t</sup> return into this Colony by the 1st of Dec<sup>r</sup> next & guard our Frontiers, they are to be no longer in the pay of this Colony. There is to be no Lieu<sup>t</sup> Col<sup>o</sup> Quarter Master, Adjutant nor Chaplain, & the yearly allowance for your Table is voted away. This is tho't, a meanpeice of Parsimony and condemn'd in general & indeed their whole proceedings relative to that Regim<sup>t</sup> —

They have voted 57,000 Pounds to pay of the Arrears & the Regm<sup>t</sup> till the 1st day of Dec<sup>r</sup> next.

Tis reported the Gov<sup>r</sup> has reciev'd advice, that the Cherokees are much irritated against the County of Bedford & are determin'd to be revenged for some men killed by those people, but tis tho't, shou'd they attempt this, the Creeks may be play'd upon them, who only want an Opp<sup>ty</sup> for they have been hardly restrain'd by the Gov<sup>r</sup> of S<sup>o</sup> Carolina from doing it some time ago — The Gov<sup>r</sup> is in general well Spoken off. M<sup>r</sup> Hite says, Mess<sup>rs</sup> Barr & Slough has disappointed me in 10 Hhds of Rum & 3 pipes of Wine I engag'd them to bring me from Philadelphia, this I am affraid will cause M<sup>r</sup> Hite & M<sup>r</sup> Hayton to labor under great difficulys, to supply properly, the Regim<sup>t</sup> so well as I wou'd wish — The great Cred<sup>t</sup> I was oblig'd to give, the Regim<sup>t</sup> being not duely paid, I hope will be obviated when the Cash arrives, your good offices so farr as you can, will be very obliging. My business down here I am affraid will not be attended with Success, no Money in the Treasury & making the New will be attended with delay.

FROM CAPTAIN ROBERT STEWART.

MY DEAR SIR

A Light Horseman was just setting out for Loyal hanna with an Acco<sup>t</sup> of what things could be procur'd here in a short time for our Men when yours of of the 21st: Ins<sup>t</sup>: by M<sup>t</sup>: Grant came to hand upon rec<sup>t</sup>: of it I immediately applied to the General for a Party to Winchester to Escort up the Necessaries but he told me it was impossible — therefore I gave the Returns to Speirs & Smith with Directions to send up what of the things could be immediately got by Cap<sup>t</sup>: Waggener and the rest which is expected in 5 or 6 Days to follow Maj<sup>t</sup>: Wells is to send them up to Stony Creek and the Commanding officer there to forward them — I wrote to Cap<sup>t</sup>: Waggener to give Speirs a List of Necessaries the Men of his Detach- m<sup>t</sup>: may want that they may be sent up at the same time — I have ordered Blue Duffils half thicks & Flannel for the Coats Jackets & Breeches & Leggins and 100 Shirts & 150 Blankets more than in the Returns — As we are just going to March I beg you'll forgive my hurry &c<sup>a</sup> & allow me to be on all occasions with unalterable Esteem —

By an Act of the last Assembly the Regiment under your Command was remanded back to Virginia to protect the Frontiers, and in that Case they were provided for; but if they were not permitted to return by the first of December their pay from this Colony was to stop from that Day. Some other saving schemes were obliged to be complied with, for fear the whole should be given up.

By a Letter I received from Col! Byrd I find the Army will be in the Heat of Action, and the Fate of Fort du Quesne depending at that Time, I have therefore summoned an Assembly to meet on Thursday the tenth instant, in order to prolong the Time for both the Regiments to remain in the Field in Conjunction with the rest of his Majesties Forces. This is the only Step I could take to prevent the Ruin of the whole Expedition, and save this Colony from the Censure They would lie under as being the sole Cause of the Miscarriage of the whole; If the Fort should not be reduced by that Day.

I make no Doubt but that the Resolves of this Assembly will be favourable to our Wishes; as they have always proved themselves strenuous Asserters of his Majesties Rights. Whatever they are, you shall have them by Express as soon as they are known.

M<sup>r</sup>: Turner who brought me Letters from the Army carries five Thousand pounds up with him for the Payment of the Regiments. Whether this is sufficient I do not at all know, as I have had no Account either from M<sup>r</sup>: Boyd, or Major Peachey of what would be necessary: however it will serve to stop a present gap, and more shall be sent on the first Notice. But I desire you will give Orders to the paymasters to send down an Acc<sup>t</sup> of the Time to w<sup>ch</sup> the Forces are paid and what more will be wanting to compleat their pay to the first of December.

DEAR SIR

The Baggage arriv'd here the night before last but the horses so low and jaded as they could not proceed before this day I have sent Keating & two others to see it safe to the Quarter —

There's no place to receive the Sick and that there should be no Surgeon or Nurses to take care of the Sick & wounded appears shockingly Barbarous —

M<sup>r</sup>: Smith says there's no materials to finish the Barracks & no money to procure them, those that stays in the Fort must suffer greatly for want of Wood & water — As the men are in great want of Necessaries would you think proper to have the Shirts and Stock<sup>es</sup> in the Store issued to them —

M<sup>r</sup>: Boyd got here last night, he parted with our Troops at Reas Town, and says that before he left them eight or nine had Parished with Cold, and that the Sick Encreas'd fast —

My Fever still continues and nobody here that can give me the smallest Relief nor is it diminish'd by the Intelligence we had of the Assembly's Determination about our Reg<sup>t</sup> (if it now may be call'd one) the very name of Ranger is horrible. its Duty if well executed insupportable by at least 9/10<sup>ths</sup> of the Human Species, its nature inconsistent with order & Discipline and that Brave Corps equally Distinguish'd by their Discipline and Intrepidity before the Enemy will too probably dwindle to a Licentious Crowd — As I would willingly make every effort to secure some kind of Retreat from what I so much dislike I would (if it should not appear like an abuse of that good nature & disinterested Friendship so often Demonstrated in my behalf) Beg you would be so good as to use your Interest with the Governor to make me an Adjutant to the Militia this the late Governor often told me should be a back door for me in case I should be disappointed in my military expectations, which (he added) could not well happen I am told there is a Vacancy and a total ignorance of the Service must render some of those that enjoy them very unequal to the office — I know how disagreeable it is to ask a favour of a great man and nothing but dire necessity could induce me to beg your doing it — from the present Circumstances of Affairs and your Situation in Life I'm persuaded such a favour at this juncture would not be refus'd you I am really ashamed at my giving such great & frequent trouble indeed it seems odd I should give you the most who is best dispos'd to do for me, tho' that is natural cause

sign'd by M<sup>r</sup> Smith — I likewise take the liberty of Inclosing you a Copy of my acco<sup>ts</sup> relative to the Troop, if any thing can be done I hope you will Please remind the Governor and Assembly that I nor my Officers have never received any Pay, allowance for Horses, Bat or Forrage Money and the high Pay and Emoluments the Pennsylvania Horse Officers receiv'd tho' each of them Drew Pay in the Foot agreeable to the different Ranks, they therein held — Your placing the manifold Essential Services the Horse perform'd in the Course of the Campaign of which the Foot were incapable in a Just point of view to the Assembly might probably alter their Sentiments and produce the desir'd Effect.

The wretched Situation want of Cloathing, necessities, a long series of ~~uncommon~~ of uncommon hardships severe Duty and even want of needfull Food & rest has reduc'd your Regiment to makes no small addition to the horrible Impression the last Campaign has given the 2<sup>d</sup> V. Reg<sup>t</sup> of a Military Life, and as yet render'd our utmost Efforts in Recruiting any of them abortive — I humbly conceive that if any Recruits can be got it must be where they are Strangers to the melancholy Condition our men are in We yesterday had them under Arms and the miserable and shameful appearance they made was really moving It certainly would be for the Interest of the Country either to have them immediately cloath'd, properly equipt as Soldiers and render'd fit for Service or Disbanded as in their present deplorable Situation they are an Expence and can be of no real use, and Dejection, murmurs and Desertion must be the inevitable consequences of this unaccountable Neglect

I long till I know what you have or can do in that affair I solicited you for in my last by Miles, as the very thoughts of being a Ranger is insupportable, tho' I am creditably inform'd that these Compys are very beneficial and that some of the Ranging Cap<sup>s</sup> make more money than ever you did by the Reg<sup>t</sup>. But surely he that wou'd for the sake of money swerve from the Principles of Hon<sup>r</sup> does not merit the Title of Officer and for my own part I solemnly Declare I would rather serve in the Ranks than deviate from my Hon<sup>r</sup>. But as you are perfectly acquainted with my Sentiments, the Circumstances I am under and am fully satisfied with your Inclination towards me will add no more on this Subject —

If the Assembly sits soon I should be extremely glad to get Liberty to go down for a few days and in the meantime I beg leave to Subscribe myself With the most perfect Esteem

WINCHESTER Dec<sup>r</sup> 20th 1758

DEAR SIR

We arrived on saturday last after a fatiguing & most severe march — The men & officers both

suffer'd very much from hunger & cold — Many of our men <sup>were</sup> obliged to be left at Raes Town & other places on the road through sickness; numbers of which, I fear will never see this place — Great numbers are dayly flocking to the Hospital; and what is still more dreadfull not one medicine to give them for their relief — I heard when I came down the Surg<sup>n</sup> was broke — Yet rather than let brave fellows suffer — I have despatched an Express to Fridricksburg for some material things; at my own risk —

If the Troops are kept up medecines must be had for them — Therefore have inclosed a list of the most necessary Articles, And those will be immediately wanted — for what I sent for; were but few, & I doubt much if they can be got at Fridricksburg — As you are present; Remonstrating the hardships the men ly under when sick for want of proper Accomodations, such as beding, Barley, Oatmeal, Sugar &c) probably they might be redress'd — We are very anxious here to know the fate of the Troops, and who will be Commander. When the Regiment meets with that irreparable lose, of loseing you — The very thoughts of this lyes heavy on the whole whenever they think of it — and dread the consequence of your resigning — I would gladly be advised by you whether or not you think, I had better continue, if they choose to keep me untill my Medecines come from England; or whether I had better resign directly — for I am resolved not to stay in the service when you quit it — The Inhabitants of this place press me much to settle here — I likewise would crave your advice whether or not you think I had better except of their importunities — or settle in Fairfax where you was so kind as to offer me your most friendly assistance — I hope you'll pardon my freedom in giving you this trouble — For as I have experienced so much of your friendship, and received so much friendly countenance from you — I cannot help consulting you on this occasion as my most sincere friend —

I am extremely sorry to hear your bad state of health remain'd with you when here — However I flatter myself with the hopes that you are well — And that as the fatigues of war are now mostly over, you will recover dayly —

By M<sup>r</sup>: Boyd I have sent down all my Acco<sup>ts</sup> that were not settled, & hope now to clear off all old scores — If you <sup>don't</sup> expect to be up soon; would beg the favour of a line from you — I ever am with the greatest Respect & Sincerity

FROM CAPTAIN ROBERT STEWART.

DEAR SIR

Your affectionate and obliging Letter of the 18th
Ins<sup>t</sup> I with infinite pleasure received the very gen-

teel manner in which those fresh marks of your disinterested Friendship are therein given at once Demonstrate your refin'd Sentiments of that Celestial virtue so rarely found genuine in this world and your steady perseverance in the prosecution of it — If I know anything of myself I think no distance of time or place can ever diminish that gratitude with which my heart overflows for the particular manner in which you have long been pleas'd to take notice of me —

About 9 days ago L: Col<sup>o</sup> Stephens arrived here, I immediately waited on him, shew'd him your Orders and offer'd to give them up to him as Commanding Officer but he before several Officers said that as he understood that the Assembly had voted away the L: Col<sup>o</sup> he would no further be concern'd with the Command, only to Sign the Discharges of the Drafts upon which I retain'd the Command till yesterday he without giving me the least notice, order'd the Adjutant to make him a Return of the Regiment, and that Jenkins might be got ready to go to Williamsb<sup>g</sup> — as I knew him, was at no loss to account for this extraordinary Behaviour, and plainly saw his Intentions by Signing the Discharges and Transmitting the Returns was to make it appear to the Governor and you that he Commanded while I did the Duty, therefore I desir'd he would either take the Sole Command or no part of it, the former he made choice off, as his being reduc'd was not given out in Orders, and I suppose till then he will be entitled to his Pay — should be vastly glad to know from you what is done in that affair and whether he is an officer in your Regiment or not? or if he is what his Rank is?

The Inclos'd came here 2 days ago and as I knew the hand & that it could contain nothing relative to your private affairs I thought it better to open it and see if it was necessary to send an Express with it — if I have done amiss I beg you'll forgive me — my being formerly accustom'd to it in similar cases could alone have induc'd me to use that freedom on this occasion — no Letter came along with it except the Inclos'd for Doc<sup>r</sup> Hay; one of the Expresses that went from here proceeded no further than Reas Town where he found the Inclos'd Letters & forwarded those he had for the General by an Express he there met with going to Loyalhan<sup>n</sup>

It's whisper'd here that L<sup>t</sup> C. Stephens has receiv'd a Letter from one of the Council intimating the Governor's intention of giving him the Reg<sup>ts</sup> whenever you Resign — I need not tell you how alarming this is to the Corps but as I did not till Just now know of this opp<sup>y</sup> I'm oblig'd to write you in a great hurry but as an Express will set out in a few days with an address from the Officers to you <sup>will write you more at leisure</sup>  $\wedge$  The fear of losing you has struck a general Grief & Dejection in both officers and Soldiers the men have already begun to Desert — no doubt Col<sup>o</sup> Stephens has sent you an acco<sup>t</sup> of the Situation of affairs here I take the Liberty of sending the Inclos'd Advertisements

to be Publish'd and begs leave to subscribe myself

Regiment & Commander of all the Virginia
Forces —

The humble Address of the Officers of the Virginia Regiment.

SIR,

We your most obedient and affectionate Officers, beg leave to express our great Concern, at the disagreeable News we have received of your Determination to resign the Command of that Corps, in which we have under you long served.

The happiness we have enjoy'd, and the Honor
we have acquir'd, together with the mutual Regard that has always subsisted between you and your Officers, have implanted so sensible an Affection in the Minds of us all, that we cannot be silent on this critical Occasion.

In our earliest Infancy you took us under your Tuition, train'd us up in the Practice of that Discipline, which alone can constitute good Troops, from the punctual Observance of which you never suffer'd the least Deviation.

Your steady adherence to impartial Justice, your quick Discernment and invariable Regard to Merit, wisely intended to inculcate those genuine Sentiments, of true Honor and Passion for Glory, from which the great military Atcheivements have been deriv'd, first heighten'd our natural Emulation, and our Desire to excel. How much we improv'd by those Regulations, and your own Example, with what Alacrity we have hitherto discharg'd our Duty, with what Chearfulness we have encounter'd the several Toils, especially while under your particular Directions, we submit to yourself, and flatter ourselves, that we have in a great measure answer'd your Expectations.

Judge then, how sensibly we must be Affected with the loss of such an excellent Commander, such a sincere Friend, and so affable a Companion. How rare is it to find those amable Qualifications blended together in one Man? How great the Loss of such a Man? Adieu to that Superiority, which the Enemy have granted us over other Troops, and which even the Regulars and Provincials have done us the Honor publicly to acknowledge. Adieu to that strict Discipline and order, which you have always maintain'd! Adieu to that happy Union and Harmony, which has been our principal Cement!

It gives us an additional Sorrow, when we reflect, to find, our unhappy Country will receive a loss, no less irreparable, than ourselves. Where will it meet a Man so experienc'd in military Affairs? One so renown'd for Patriotism, Courage and Conduct? Who has so great knowledge of the Enemy we have to deal with? Who so well acquainted with their Situation & Strength? Who so much respected by the Soldiery? Who in short so able to support the military Character of Virginia?

Your approv'd Love to your King and Country, and your uncommon Perseverance in promoting the Honor and true Interest of the Service, convince us, that the most cogent Reasons only could induce you to quit it, Yet we with the greatest Deference, presume to entreat you to suspend those Thoughts for another Year, and to lead us on to assist in compleating the Glorious Work of extirpating our Enemies, towards which so considerable Advances have been already made. In you we place the most implicit Confidence. Your Presence only will cause a steady Firmness and Vigor to actuate in every Breast, despising the greatest Dangers, and thinking light of Toils and Hardships, while lead on by the Man we know and Love.

But if we must be so unhappy as to part, if the Exigencies of your Affairs force you to abandon Us, we beg it as our last Request that you will recommend some Person most capable to command, whose Military Knowledge, whose Honor, whose Conduct, and whose disinterested Principles we may depend upon.

Frankness, Sincerity, and a certain Openness of Soul, are the true Characteristics of an Officer, and we flatter ourselves that you do not think us capable of saying anything, contrary to the purest Dictates of our Minds. Fully persuaded of this, we beg Leave to assure you, that as you have hitherto been the actuating Soul of the whole Corps, we shall at all times pay the most invariable Regard to your Will and Pleasure, and will always be happy to demonstrate by our Actions, with how much Respect and Esteem we are,

Sir.

FROM CAPTAIN ROBERT STEWART.

DEAR SIR

In my last of the 29th Ins<sup>t</sup> by M<sup>r</sup> Smith the Interp<sup>t</sup> I inclos'd you a Letter from Col<sup>o</sup> Bouquet and inform'd you of some things which I beg leave to remind you off the afternoon of that day Col<sup>o</sup> Stephens went out of Town when he returns I don't know —

As the Season for taking the Field will soon draw near, there cannot be much time to loose in commencing the necessary preparations for what share Virginia may Judge necessary to bear in the operations of the next Campaign — There are many bad men in the Regiment and it will take a great many good ones to compleat it — the best of our men are greatly dispirited by their want of Clothes — Discontents and Desertion has already begun and how soon they can be effectually suppress'd without removing the cause is hard to determine; these added to the almost insuperable Difficulties of Recruiting and the sad pass that Service is arriv'd at may possibly require the attention of the Legislature to provide an expedient adequate to its exigency — Tents Bill of Arms, Camp Col<sup>rs</sup> Kettles &C<sup>a</sup> will be wanted — an Armourer to repair the number of arms that are here out of order would be necessary —

There is no money for Recruiting nor any Contingent Fund. No way of Paying Expresses, Defraying the Expences of Parties Detach'd after Deserters, giving Rewards for apprehending them, horse hire &C<sup>a</sup> without sending the Acco<sup>ts</sup> down the Country which greatly clogs and retards the Service — There was no Provision made for supplying the Hospital and Guards with Wood and this Garrison with Water those urgent wants would admit of no delay and I was indispensably oblig'd to hire a Waggon to draw Wood and a Sledge and 2 Horses to draw Water this I hope will meet with your approbation and be paid for by the Country you know the great distance we are now at from Wood and Water and the difficulty of carrying them at this rigorous Season by Naked men —

Some Comp<sup>ys</sup> had very few of the Drafts whose time of Service was limited others a great many of them, mine had by much the largest share of them some Regulation in this affair you may perhaps Judge necessary — Many of the officers have applied for leave to go down the Country for a few weeks to have a little Relaxation from Duty after the great Fatigues they have lately gone thro' and enjoy the Company of their Friends and Relations, But as my Command is so accidental and temporary I thought it would be taking too much upon me to grant their requests tho' they appear'd so reasonable Lieu<sup>t</sup> Buckner in particular begs to be indulg'd — Be pleas'd to favour me (or the Commanding Officer here) with your Orders on this Head —

You omitted to send up your Orderly Book I fear I shall not be able to collect the Orders from the time you spoke off — Poyne till within these two days has been disabled from writing by a Rheumatism if you think proper to have your Book brought up I will get it done in the best manner I can or if you please to have what of these orders can be got put in a Book by themselves it shall be done —

Last night Lieu<sup>t</sup> Gist, Sergeant Ostin (who Mr Gist got from the Indians) and three men on Furlough with Liberty to stay at this place only 3 days arriv'd here <sup>in 7 days</sup> from Pittsburg where Fort Barracks & Store Houses were erected, three Months Provisions laid in and three Months more on the Road — this Fort is 120 feet in the interior Square with four Bastions in each of which they have got a small Mortar Mounted — the Barracks Form the Curtains and the Bastions are Stockaded — the Duty there is hard and our Men suffers vastly for want of Clothes — The Indians informs our people that 150 of the French went down the River with the Cannon and 350 more (the remainder of the Garrison) went up to Venango where they now are and from whence (the Indians add) a Body of Troops will pay our Garrison a visit whenever the River is open — M<sup>r</sup> Gist says that night before he left Pittsb<sup>g</sup> an Indian came there to inform them that a Runner had just arriv'd at the Cuscuskus Town with an acco<sup>t</sup> that a considerable Body of the Twittwees had Attack'd a French Settlement near Fort Detroit, Burn't two small Villages to the Ground and put all their Inhabitants Men Women and Children to Death not sparing even one of those that Surrender'd So formidable a Nation's having heartily embarked in a war against the French will probably effect a happy exchange in that Quarter — and if we improve those advantages which Heaven has presented us with and act with proper vigour and Expedition What may not be done next Campaign?

I'm afraid I have tir'd you with the tedious length of this Letter which insensibly grew longer than I intended it — The absence of that immense pleasure of your constant Company and Conversation in which I have been so long happy and which I dread I will in a great measure be forever depriv'd off so sensibly affects me that I cannot refrain from indulging myself when I write to you — If we must be so wretched as to loose you I cannot think of remaining in this Service — That your highest expectations may be fully answer'd by a change of Life — that you continue the Darling of a grateful Country for the many eminent Services you have render'd her, that you may constantly enjoy new Scenes of Pleasure, Health, Prosperity all the Sweets of a Retired Life and every requisite that must necessarily concur in the completion of your Felicity are the most ardent wishes of him who is with the greatest and most unalterable Esteem & Regard

P. S. It was unanimously agreed on by all the Officers that at least a Captain ought to wait on you with our Address which is the reason of Cap<sup>t</sup> M<sup>c</sup>Neil's going down to you —

Should not our Address have its fervently wish'd for effect about which we are under the greatest uneasiness Col<sup>o</sup> Fitshaugh would be the most agreeable successor his Publick Character exhibits him in so distinguish'd a Light that he has already attract'd our attention and in him we believe we should have some small Reparation for the inexpressible Loss we should sustain by the Loss of You —

DEAR SIR

I had the extreme pleasure of receiving your very agreeable favour by M<sup>r</sup> Boyd and beg leave to present my hearty Congratulations on your happy union with the Lady that all agree has long been the just object of your affections — May you long enjoy all the Felicity you propos'd by it, or that Matrimony can possibly afford — Be so good as to offer my Complements in the most respectful and obliging Terms to Your Lady (a new Stile indeed) and tho' she has rob'd me and many others of the greatest satisfaction we ever had or can enjoy in this Service yet none can be more sollicitous for her happiness —<sup>1</sup>

The regret, dejection and grief your Resignation has occasion'd in the whole Corps is too melancholy a Subject to enter on at this Juncture will therefore wave it. —

I am at a loss for words to express the grateful sense I have for the particular manner in which you have been Pleas'd to Interest yourself in my welfare and your constant attention to its promotion, I know it to be so entirely the pure dictates of sincere Friendship, that acknowledgements are not only unnecessary but troublesome But how can I silence Gratitude? — The Gov<sup>rs</sup> answer was candid polite and obliging, tho I think from it we may naturally infer that long Service claims no particular exertion of his Power to reward it — You see with what freedom I write the secret Sentiments of my mind — I had concerted a Plan for resuming another way of Life had that you propos'd taken place, but it like all my other Schemes however apparently well laid is ren-der'd abortive — I have long been the sport of an adverse Fortune and dreads I must lay my acco<sup>ts</sup> with living and dying so —

On the 7th Ins<sup>t</sup> my appointment to a Lieu<sup>y</sup> in the Royal Americans was given in publick Orders at Carlyle by General Forbes and an Express sent next day with a Commission for me (but by mistake<sup>a</sup> of Major Halket's Blains was Inclos'd to me) with Orders to Join the Division of the first Battalion with which we did Duty last Campaign as soon as my Affairs will permit me — I need not inform you how disagreeable that Corps is to me, and that all my often well grounded hopes of Military Preferment is too likely to terminate in a pittance barely sufficient to keep Soul and Body together — It sometimes happens that when Provincial Officers gets inferior Commissions in the Service, that they are suffer'd to retain their Commands in the Provincial Pay, of this, I know two Instances viz<sup>t</sup> Col<sup>o</sup> Glazier of the N. York Regiment and Col<sup>o</sup> Parker of the N. Jersey Regiment both Lieu<sup>ts</sup> in the R. Americans; and as I will if Col<sup>o</sup> Stephen should not get our Reg<sup>t</sup> be a Field Officer in course, the Governor's Interest and yours would probably procure me an Indulgence of this kind, which would make me excessively happy, as I should thereby be not only freed from doing Sub<sup>s</sup> Duty render'd doubly disagreeable by being under the Orders of many I have long Commanded which would be grating to the last degree, But in time enable me with the Price of my Lieutenancy and a small assistance from my Friends to Purchass a Comp<sup>y</sup> the Summit of my present ambition — But if this or what I sollicited you for cannot possibly be obtain'd, what will you advise me to do? to enter at my time of Life, youngest Lieu<sup>t</sup> in His Majesty's Service and spin out the remainder of an unfortunate Life in want and Toils or search for an obscure livelyhood in some private Business — I have not nor wou'd not mention this to any other upon Earth. —

Six days ago General Forbes left Lancaster on his way to Philadelphia where General Amherst waits his arrival it's said to concert the Plan of operations for next Campaign — when the several Detachments of Highlanders, R Americans and Pensylvanians that are March'd for Pittsb<sup>g</sup> arrives there it's Garrison will consist of near 800 Effectives — There's nothing new here — We have lost 8 Men by Desertion — Jenkins goes down with a Letter from the Gen<sup>l</sup> to the Gov<sup>r</sup> I by him send his Hon<sup>r</sup> a Return of the Reg<sup>t</sup> in which there's little alteration from the last I sent you — I long to hear from you and ever am with the highest Esteem and most entire regard

 FROM JOHN KIRKPATRICK, ESQ.

DEAR SIR

I shoud come short of the duty I owe you, if I omitted to cultivate your correspondence by an opportunity now offering from Whitehaven — by w<sup>ch</sup> I make free to convey my warmest and kindest wishes for Your health and happiness —

Since my return I have been pretty much confin'd thro' the tenderness of my constitution and the inclement season of the year, which prevented me hitherto from enjoying that pleasure I promised myself amongst my friends and acquaintances — and cuts me short of that intelligence to be met with from Virginia and other Places relative to public affairs — however, we had a speedy and particular account of your success at Du Quesne<sup>1</sup> — which fell at length an easy prey — after the numberless risks your person happily escaped — let me give you joy on this occasion — and welcome the wishfull prospects of Peace that must undoubtedly result from this circumstance, to the Poor and oppresd inhabitants of Virginia — whose calamities and sufferings deserve Royal sympathy — however disregarded and misrepresented they have hitherto been I have not learn'd further particulars than the reduction of the place — and leaving Cap<sup>t</sup> Waggener in it with 300 Men — What the remainder of the forces are employ'd in — What your destiny and inclination leads you to — or what are intended by the General this ensuing summer I am quite unacquainted — As to your own dispositions, whether you incline to mix again in military matters, and share the honours & dangers of another Campaign — or prefer the peacefull enjoyment of that happiness you have helped to restore, to a retired life — Your are equally my concern — and my best prayers are ever attending you —

The favour of your Letter with accounts of the roads and forces was vastly acceptable and entertaining to many — Could you contine to oblige<sup>me</sup> with a letter now and then — it would be a great honour — and if I could contribute any thing towards your service while here — nothing would please more than to be employ'd —

I have not heard from Doct<sup>r</sup> Craik since I arrived, by this time I suppose he is sufficiently tired of Fighting, and no doubt has prudently pitch'd his tent — in some of his own tennements — where he can, have & hold it, to him and his, forever — He and some others of my friends promis'd me a Plantation, or two in the Plains of Pittsbourgh but I fancy they forgot me — The Pensilvanians I suppose will reap the fruits of this Harvest — which the Virginians have Long toild and Labourd for — I saw Plainly the whole Campaign, was favourd For them —

There is nothing new to tell you of — Preparations are making For large fleets and expeditions — Guardaloupe you wou'd hear is taken — and Martinico expected — The forces in Germany have not left Winter Quarters —

I conclude with Assurances of Real regard & Unfeigned esteem — Dear Sir

MY DEAR SIR

Yesterday about noon we arriv'd at this place where the loss of some Waggon Horses, want of Provisions for the Waggoners, and Forrage for the Horses oblig'd me to remain last night, I this morning sent to Reconnoitre Cedar Creek which is found immensely swell'd by the heavy Rains and deem'd impassable, so that we are likely to remain here at least for this Day.

I flatter myself that the Success of your excursion yesterday was such as to make up in some measure for the disagreeable Ride you must have had, I need not tell you how happy a Line from you after the Election is over would make me, and when you get to Mount Vernon I beg you'll be so good as to offer my Respectfull Complimt<sup>s</sup> in the warmest and most obliging Terms to Your Lady and my hearty Thanks for her highly valued present May Heaven Bless You with every thing you desire, or wish, & be assured that I am and ever shall remain with the most unalterable Esteem & Supreme Regard

You have a true Copy of the courses of Harrison's land from the record, we examined them when Copied, and have again, compared them, with the paragraph in your letter, the course is thence 70<sup>d</sup> w<sup>t</sup> 22 p<sup>o</sup> without mentioning whether it is N<sup>o</sup> or South, I hope this will come Safe, my fee for the Copies is not yet due <sup>1</sup> — I am with respect

I know you will excuse Me for addressing you on so coarse so com̄on Paper, when I assure you tis the best our Town affords.

<sup>1</sup> By a lease dated 30 July, 1708, Francis Spencer leased to William Harrison, 200 acres of land on Dogue River. Had your Favor reached my Hands a few Minutes later, I shoud have lost this Opportunity of acknowledging the Receipt of it; for my Express was already mounted.

You are not the first Person that has been deceived by the Gentlemen in Black,<sup>1</sup> but whoever gave you such Information must have done it with a premeditated Design to lye, or something as bad; for I really have not been at Prince William Court these three Years, nor have I even crossed the Blue Ridge since last June; but Sir I allow it a sufficient Apology for your not writing, as I coud say many Things to you that I cannot put upon Paper, & in particular concerning the Land.

Your Proposal concerning an Entry on the Ohio I am fully of Opinion will answer; indeed it is what I had before determined upon, and am much rejoiced that you propose to be a Partner in the Scheme. I had obtained Leave to be at Williamsburg on the Meeting of the Assembly in November, with no other View, than that of securing to myself so much Land as I was entitled to by the Governor's Proclamation;<sup>2</sup> which allowed Us such Terms that We cant possibly lose by it—and as I determined to go to England this Year, I thought it proper to settle that Point before I embarked. it must be of Service in Time to come—Lands on the Ohio will be valuable. You may bid Me do any Thing you think necessary till We meet at Williamsburg, no Doubt you will be there on the Assembly, then We may surely secure it to ourselves. Gist I believe knows the Country well, therefore woud be a good Partner. I have the Copy of all our Entries We made with Gist now by Me — he told me, he had entered Them for Us; but I know not whether it woud be of any Advantage to Us, if he has done it. As We shall meet at Williamsburg, we will leave no Stone unturned to secure to ourselves this Land,<sup>1</sup> I cant think of any previous Step that will be necessary, but shoud any occur to You, that I can execute pray inform Me of Them.<sup>2</sup> As to News —

All is well — and quiet on the Ohio — Single Persons come from Pittsburg down. The Savages come in to the General in great Numbers begging Remission of their Sins, and Forgiveness for past Offences. The General told Me, there were Sometimes 1000 there at once — The French, you certainly must have heard, have evacuated and burnt their Forts at Venango — Presque Isle, and Le Boeufe, and retired to Detroit.

We are going to build a very respectable Fort at Pittsburg, of Brick, to contain 4000 Men on Emergency, and capable of holding out against Shells — as 'tis to be covered —

Bullitt is immediately to appear before 12 & a President — as tis generally supposed poor Tom was intimidated (to use his own Word) when his Party was attacked — God knows whether he was or not

<sup>1</sup> Washington's land on the Ohio amounted to 32,373 acres. He describes these lands in 1794 as "the cream of the country in which they are, that they were the first choice of it, and that the whole is on the margin of the rivers [Ohio and Great Kenawha] and bounded thereby for fifty-eight miles."

<sup>2</sup> Colonel George Mercer was appointed surveyor of the lands on the Ohio November 10, 1759, and agent for the Ohio Company in London in 1763.

but he made his Escape — with a Guard for his sacred Person, in a most percipitate Manner, consisting of about 60 of his Men — The Remainder were almost cut to Pieces — there were only 60 of the Enemy, and Bullitts Cōmand consisted of 100 Rank & File — but he took Care of 60 of Them — 21 or 22 of the remaining 40 were killed, & tho they were so hotly engaged, Bullitt never returned to the Charge — notwithstanding the most earnest Entreaties of his Men — Thus the Story is told by the two Officers whom Bullitt left in the Scrape — I hope it will turn out better, but I always supposed Bullitt more capable of being cōmanded, than cōmanding — I have thought him brave — but this Tale tells badly —

I am much obliged to M<sup>r</sup> & M<sup>rs</sup> C — for their good Wishes, tho I must confess I am not sorry they were disappointed in their Expectations — I can, as Affairs have turned out, and I am safely recovered, offer no <sup>other</sup> Apology to Them for not being so complaisant as they expected — than as one of the Family had once deceived Me, I thought it was my Turn then to take the Advantage — tho I really cant charge myself with ever promising either of Them that I woud die — therefore they have nothing to object to Me upon the Occasion.

Pray Sir don't think for what I have said concerning them, that my Acknowledgements to you on this Head are less sincere, for I really am obliged to you here, as well as for your Compliments on my late Appointment — You wish Me much, when you desire I may derive as much Honor & Profit, as Fatigue and Anxiety from my Office. I shall do my utmost that the General may not be deceived in the Confidence he has reposed in me — but no Profit I can make, can equal the Trouble I am obliged to go thro — tis true I could not be deceived in the Affair, as I well knew the Duty — and I will say 'twas against my Inclination that I entered upon it but I found a Refusal would disoblige the General &c so I acquiesced, but never did my Mind war more against my Hands, than when I received the Commission — As I have got it tho, I must do the best — I'll take care not to err thro Neglect. Indeed I found if I would not concern myself that no Part of the Trade would come to this Colony. and I believe it was in Consequence of some Letters I had taken upon me to write the General concerning the Roads Travelled &c that I was ordered up to have a Conference with him.

If you have Wheat Rye Corn or Oats Cattle, Sheep or Hogs to dispose of there is a Ready & great Market for Them here, and will continue for two or three Weeks — Till We lay in our Winter Stock —

While I was on the S<sup>o</sup> Branch a Man brought in your grey Horse, and upon my Return here Yesterday waited on Me & offered to swear he was mine, nay even reminded of the Place & Time I bought him, and that I had paid so many Pieces of Money which I took out of my left Pocket with my right Hand for him; indeed I could scarce persuade him I had Transferred my Right & Title of him to you — I wanted him to take him down, but he would not, so I tipped the Fellow a Crown, & shall send him down to your Quarter to Day by a soldier, Cap<sup>t</sup> Waggener is here on his Way to Williamsburg, from whence he expects to return a Field Officer.

If I shoud write you often, & such long Letters, I believe you woud soon desire a Stop to Them, but I have wrote on many Points the next shall be shorter. Even here tho I must add one Line.

[mutilated] beg youl present your Lady with my [mutilated] and assure you as I have often before that I am

WINCHESTER

FROM CAPTAIN ROBERT STEWART.

MY DEAR SIR /

A few days ago I with inexpressible pleasure receiv'd your Affectionate & most obliging favour of the 30th July from Mount Vernon. — I'm sorry that the Noble Profession of Arms, so much rever'd in all Ages, is become the Subject of Ridicule to the most ignorant & foolish Tattlers & newsmongers amongst the Mob; tho' its no small alleviation of the intended Injury that these vain Speculative Arbiters of Military Actions, can neither add to, nor diminish from, their intrinsick value; which will always be ascrib'd to them by <sup>ye</sup> knowing & Judicious part of Mankind, and from them receive the grateful acknowledgements & just Tribute due to genuine Merit. — I flatter'd myself that our distance from the Inhabitants, would have prevented, Bullets Affair from being exhibited amongst them in that Light in which its generally beheld in this Army, where it's talk'd off in such a manner that some of our Officers have refus'd to Rank with him. A Court of Enquiry is soon to sit on it, which most imagine will only be a Prelude to a General Court Martial; I wish to God for his sake & that of the Corps it may turn out very differently from what many think it will —

We have here besides the Artillery, the 1st Batt<sup>n</sup> of R. A<sup>s</sup>, 656 R & F. of ours, part of our Artificers and the 1st Batt<sup>n</sup> of Pen<sup>s</sup> are daily expected; and by the great pains the General has taken, his indefatigable application to Bussiness & constant Regard to the Interest of the Service, we seem to run no risque of wanting, & will be able to maintain a respectable Garrison at this place in the Winter. The Troops here are incessantly employed on the Works, expediting which, engages the General's closest attention; he himself overlooks them every Day (sundays not excepted) almost from Reville to Retreat Beating; and as many Guards are now become unecessary, very few are Mounted, and these Reliev'd but once a week — This Fort, which is yet but in embryo, will when finish'd, be the grandest that has yet been in this new World, but it will require much Time, great perseverance and immense Labour: — The Engineers & indeed almost every body else, are so extremely Bussie that I cannot for some Time possibly procure a proper Plann of it, but that you may form some Idea of it I Inclose you a Rough Sketch, done with a Pencil & without Rule &c<sup>a</sup> and so soon as I can get a proper one, will do myself the pleasure of Transmitting it to you; it's hoped the three Bastions on the Land side and all the Barracks will be finish'd this year and the rest will be Stockaded till next Spring.

Our Camp at present resembles a Military Colony, where Labour, Industry and Arms, go hand & hand; you can't cast your Eye any where, without seeing, Tradesmen & handicrafts of various kinds at work, and often the same Men alternatively Soldiers & Mechanicks, this hight'ned by a view of three glorious Rivers, and the many Beauties Nature has been so lavish in adorning this place and it's Environs, forms a most delightfull Prospect, terminated by high romantic Mountains, which nearly encircle it! in fine the more I see of this Charming Country, the more I'm enamour'd with it, which leads me to enquire after what Steps have been taken in securing to us, those Lands which poor Cap<sup>n</sup> Gist was to have enter'd for us, I hope the needfull is done, they surely will soon be very valueable. —

The Indians not only of this Voisinage, but of several remote Nations beyond the Lakes, are of the best Disposition towards us, & sincerely inclin'd to enter into & cultivate a strict & permanent Friendship with us, they have already brought us near Fifty of their Captives & Promise to Deliver up the whole at a Grand Treaty to be held here in about three weeks — We find the Ohio Indians, (compos'd of Scatter'd & Detach'd Parties from different Tribes) to be much more numerous than they ever were thought to be, notwithstanding the great Loss they acknowledge to have sustain'd on our Frontiers, These call'd Delawares, are now eight hundred fight<sup>s</sup> men, which is accounted for by their Junction with the little Tribes, that at different Times went from the interior Settlements of our Province; the Shawaneese are likewise more powerfull than we imagin'd, tho' we cannot yet exactly ascertain their Numbers: Both those Nations are greatly incens'd against you, who they call the Great Knife & look on you to be the Author of their greatest misfortunes; the Delawares confess they had 50 of their best Warriors Kill'd and many disabled, the Shawaneese have also had a very considerable Loss, they have between <sup>them</sup> just Detach'd 64 Warriors ag<sup>t</sup> the Cherokees, which at this Juncture, may be productive of very desirable consequences. If it is true that the Creeks & Cherokees have enter'd into a League against us I tremble for our Southern Colonies! as from what the Ohio Indians have done, we may easily conceive, what the united Force of such Warlike & Formidable Nations can effect to our Prejudice. — In the mean Time we here enjoy Peace & tranquillity, and the Pen<sup>s</sup> ever attentive to Gain & tenacious of their Interest, carry on an extensive and most advantageous Furr Trade with the Savages, conducted under such prudent Regulations, as cannot fail of Success & producing immense Fortunes, so easy a Road to attaining which, is now so plainly pointed out, that I'm astonish'd our Province remain dormant & inactive, We certainly have many Public Spirited Gent<sup>n</sup> and some of them who must have an Inclination to advance the Interest of their Country by increasing their private Fortunes, What can be the reason that none of them embrace so favourable an opportunity of accomplishing so desireable an End?

On the 5th of this Month I wrote you a long Letter from Legonier, which I sent under Cover to Lieu<sup>t</sup> Smith and desir'd him to forward it to you by Express, But in case it has contrary to my expectations miscarried I beg leave to recapitulate the Heads, of the disagreeable Subjects on which it was wrote, & which are, That I was & still am under <sup>uneasiness</sup> great ^ about my own private Affairs for by the Regulations of the Army, I cannot without Purchass (which is impracticable) hope to arrive at a Comp<sup>y</sup> in less than Twenty or Thirty years — I'm already an old Fellow, and my Constitution impair'd by Fatigues and Sickness, and after the Rank I have so long enjoy'd, doing the Duty off and living on the scanty Pay of a Sub<sup>n</sup> for the remainder of my life, would make me extremely miserable, & involve me in insuperable Difficulties, the very thoughts of which, are mortifying beyond conception; on the other hand, to give up a certainty tho' a pittance, and live under the constant apprehensions of being sent adrift towards the Decline of Life, might be construed imbecility of mind & want of Prudence; therefore could your Freindly Interest in my behalf added to Col<sup>o</sup>

Byrd's which he is exerting to the utmost, procure me the vacant Adjutancy of the Militia it would effectually extricate me out of this sad Dilemma, & be a competency w<sup>t</sup> which I would contentedly live in a Country where my Freinds & connexions are too Dear to me to think of giving up, and (as I wrote you) if you could get me Commission for it, the Pay to Commence when the Reg<sup>t</sup> is reduc'd, it would make me quite happy, and I think I may without vanity venture to Promise, that I would execute the Duty with more propriety & skill than it has been done by most who have lately fill'd that Office; If this can possibly be obtain'd, I will not hesitate a moment in what step to take when Order'd to Join the Batt<sup>n</sup>, which I must soon expect; But if you have no well grounded hopes of my Success, I again entreat you, that you will not loose any Time in sending me your Advice (on which I rely infinitely more than on my own Judgment) what I shall I do?

Some Letters from General Amherst's Camp, says that three Regiments are to be rais'd in America, and Col<sup>l</sup> Byrd immediately offered his Interest with that General for a Comp<sup>y</sup> to me, But I have been so often amus'd with Golden Dreams of a similar Nature, that I look on every thing of the kind, in the same manner as I do on a Gilded Cloud, which affords for a moment an agreeable sensation but is soon eradicated by an overcast Horizon, and gloom and Disappointment naturally succeeds— I begin to wish sincerely that I had never aspir'd at Military Preferment But its now too late and making the best Retreat I can seems to be most eligible Expedient that remains for me to prosecute, and almost despair of doing it, tho' Covered by the constant & close fire of your Friendship — Pardon my Dear Colonel, the freedom I use, and the tedious length of this scribble which has insensibly swell'd beyond its proper limits. —

Inclos'd I remit you £16 10 — £15 of which is for your Tent and the rest for 3 Pack Saddles, there was five came up from your Quarter, but 2 of them belong'd to me, & were by mistake carried down there (when we return'd into Quarters) along with your Baggage. —

I am vastly oblig'd by your Lady's kind remembrance of me and your Joint Invitation to pass part of the Winter at Mount Vernon should I go down the Country I shall certainly do myself the pleasure of paying my Respects to you both at your Seat where in that Event I promise myself much pleasure from the enjoyment of your agreeable Company, I beg you will be so good as to present my Respectfull Complent<sup>s</sup> to M<sup>rs</sup> Washington and tell her that our Freinds at Mount Vernon is a constant Toast in this Camp — I ever am with the most perfect Esteem & unalterable Regard

When I rec<sup>d</sup> the Inclos'd I propos'd to have done myself the pleasure of delivering it with my own hands, and in person return'd my unfeign'd thanks for your Friendly & Affectionate Epistle by Finnie, which had taken the Tour of Fort Cumberland, Pittsb<sup>g</sup> Legonier & C<sup>s</sup> before I rec<sup>d</sup> it at Winchester, But deferr'd waiting on you at Mount Vernon till after I had visited this City for the two following reasons viz<sup>t</sup> 1st Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd was of opinion that your prior applications in my behalf back'd by his subsequent ones in the most pressing Terms would take place of any he had made in favour of Col<sup>o</sup> P—— 2<sup>d</sup> as Finnie for many reasons had little room to expect a continuation of his, he would take a small matter for it, tho' I had no opinion of the 1st, the 2<sup>d</sup> carried a shew of probability, therefore hasten'd hither, But found both equally ill grounded, and learn'd that I have no chance happen what will, as 4 oy<sup>rs</sup> besides P were mention'd as having a prior Right, so that after having spent much Time &

thought in concerting a thousand different difficult Plans for steering thro' the remainder of an unfortunate Life I find myself reduc'd to the sad alternative of being & continuing a Sub: (than which nothing can to me be more horrible) or running some risque of making my best Friends suffer by using their aid towards the Purchass of a Comp<sup>y</sup>, and as ten thousand concurring circumstances Demonstrates the Noble motives that actuated you to make me the Generous offer of your Friendly assistance, I concluded the last to be the most eligible I have therefore wrote to Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd & to Maj<sup>r</sup> Gates to give in my Name at Head Quarters for the Purchass of a Comp<sup>y</sup> or Cap<sup>t</sup> Lieut<sup>y</sup> and in cas either should come as low down amongst the Sub<sup>s</sup> as Ime [I am] to transmit me the earliest Intelligence of it, in which Event Col<sup>o</sup> Hunter has engag'd to negotiate the money part provided he can have proper Security of being soon reimburs'd. I have told them I would prefer the Cap<sup>t</sup> Lieut<sup>y</sup> as Rank is the principal Object of my ambition and as I could accomplish the Payment of it without the aid of Friends, But if good Fortune of which I have hitherto enjoy'd so small share should bring a Comp<sup>y</sup> as low down in the Line I beg you'll be so good as to Inclose me a Letter for Col<sup>o</sup> Hunter informing him that in case I can have an opp<sup>y</sup> of Purchassing a Comp<sup>y</sup> you will pay him £300 Ster<sup>s</sup> which my dear Col<sup>o</sup> is a great Sum But as my future Happiness depends upon it and when I solemnly Declare which I now do by every thing thats Sacred to a Christian and an Officer that no method consistent with Hon<sup>r</sup> will be unassay'd to reimburse you the Principle & Interest as soon as possible and to prevent your suffering in case I should fall I would fain hope you will not hesitate to grant this great favour of which and the manifold others you have conferr'd upon me I shall ever retain the most Just and gratefull sense — I would say much on these Subjects but my Heart is full — I fear I'm too unreasonable —

Please Direct for me at Petersburg where I Recruit — I'm told the Assembly will sit in about six weeks hence against w<sup>ch</sup> Time I shall be here to wait your arrival Be so good as to present my Respectfull Complem<sup>ts</sup> to your Lady and allow me to Subscribe myself

FROM CAPTAIN GEORGE MERCER.

DEAR COLONEL —

I have just received a Letter from Bullitt wrote in his own Style, concerning my Application for the Surveyor's Place on the Ohio, affirming that I was told, "when I applyed thro Washington to the Com̄issary, that the Place was engaged to him" this you know to be false, and I am sure he never heard so; you may well remember our Conversation on the Occasion, in going down to the Capitol,

We both guessed, there had been some Kind of Promise, but agreed that it was right for Me to wait on the Commissary again next Day as he had directed Me —

Bullitt has wrote Me the Place is to be divided and each of us to have a District; he has already fixed on his, & writes Me for my Approbation of it, tho at the same Time he says, “ this I believe you may readily agree to, as I have got an Order entered by the Society of the College nigh to that Purpose ” — I need write Nothing to convince you of the Modesty of a Man you know so well, yet if youl give Me Leave I’ll beg your Patience to read the Proposal he has made Me in his own Words — “ &c<sup>a</sup> as prior in Application expect for my Department all the Lands from a Line run from the Head of the Potomack, to the Head Spring of the Cheat River thence down the Channel of said River to Pittsburg, including all the Land from said Line & River to the Bound of the Northern Neck, Maryland & Pennsylvania — and on the North Side of the Ohio, to go the Channel of said River down to the Wabash, thence up that, to Lake Erie, including all the Land between said River and New England, then you have all the Land South West of Monongahela to Carolina and on the other side the Wabash, as far as Virg<sup>a</sup> extends, this I believe you may readily agree to, as I have got an Order entered by the Society of the College, nigh to that Purpose,” but by Way of Conclusion farther adds — “ In Case the British Plantations are not extended over the Ohio, these are not to be the Bounds of our Division ” Now Dear Sir I would beg the Favor of you to be my Friend on this Occasion, as Bullitt is to be down at the Assembly to direct them what to do, (Kennedy says) no Doubt he will endeavor to get the Affair settled as he thinks proper, indeed he has wrote Me that he expects Me down there for that Purpose. My Business calls Me to Phil<sup>a</sup>, it is impossible I can attend, nay could I, I woud still ask you for this Kindness on my Behalf — The least I think I can expect if the Office is to be divided between Us, that I should have a Vote on the Occasion, as well as Bullitt, for from the Acquaintance I have with that Man, I dont think his Abilities or any Thing else, entitle him to a Superiority over Me, indeed I shoud think myself capable of any Meanness, were I to submit to be under his Direction in any Particular — Stephen is to be down at the Assembly too, not only to direct Them, but also to back Bullitt — he rubs his hands, shrugs his shoulders, and says he knows if Tom gets the Place he will serve a Friend — Tho I was once very easy about this Affair, I cant say now but it woud give Me the greatest Joy imaginable to disappoint these mighty Schemers — they are to have all the best Land on the Ohio &c in Partnership — The Plan has been long concerted, and they already think Themselves absolute Proprietors — tho Ill be crucified if they'll leave the two Men to themselves, if ever they describe its Bounds and Situation by Chain & Compass —

I have wrote Bullitt that he may depend I'll do all I can, to have at least a Refusal of a Place, as well as himself, & that I shoud beg the Favor of my Friend

Washington's Assistance — It woud vex Me much to be disappointed in any Thing I attempted by him & his Friend Stephens. I shall also write the Comissary on this Occasion.

I beg Pardon for using this Freedom with you, and after so much upon my own Affairs, allow Me Sir to assure you, that it will give Me Pleasure to oblige You in every Particular, when my Situation in Life may afford an Opportunity. You may depend upon my utmost Care in executing the orders you have already favored Me with in Regard to your Man, I expect to be called from hence every Hour, and shall return again as soon as possible.

Do you not think it will be proper to put the Council in Mind of our Memorial concerning the Land; I coud wish the Point were settled.

There is a Report here of Montreal being taken by Gen<sup>l</sup> Johnson with his Indians, it comes from Pittsburg, and as We are told here was brought there by a Mohawk Indian whom Johnson sent with the News to General Stanwix.

My best Compliments wait on M<sup>rs</sup> Washington and I am

MY DEAR SIR

With a heart that overflows with Gratitude I return my most unfeign'd thanks for that fresh mark of your true Friendship and Noble generosity to me, so amply evinc'd in your's of the 20th Ult<sup>o</sup> which I yesterday had the infinite pleasure of receiving, But I should never forgive myself if I should by making use of your uncommon goodness, in the least degree embarrass, much less cause a material disappointment in the prosecution of your affairs, therefore my dear Sir let me entreat you not to think of being off any Bargain or do anything that might cause the most distant risque of a Bill's returning for I solemnly declare it would give me much more uneasiness to be instrumental in occasioning either, than to continue a Sub. for ever — besides there's but a very small chance for my procuring a Purchass supposing me possessed of never so much Money another reason is that by a Memorial we have given in to the Assembly (which is referrd to the next Session) we have great room to hope that we will when reduc'd receive Half Pay or an equivalent to it these reasons added to the strong Attachment I have to this Colony which a number of concurring circumstances obliges me to Love, has determin'd me to apply for Leave to Sell out, or, if that can't be obtain'd to Resign.

The Assembly has voted Twenty thousand Pounds to support the Reg<sup>t</sup> till next Novem — and 300 Men till the following April if the Govenor should

Judge it necessary to keep up that Num<sup>r</sup>, It's said the Assembly will rise in 4 or 5 days — We have no other News of any kind here that can merit your notice and as the Bearer (who assures me you will receive this in 3 Days) is just setting out have only Time to beg you that you will be so good as to render my Respectfull & most obliging Compl<sup>ts</sup> acceptable to your Lady and be assur'd that I am & ever will be With the warmest & most Gratefull sense of your vast Friendship

MY DEAR SIR

Next day after parting I got here, where I found Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd and Paddy is to join him in a few days; I hope 'ere now Bishop is with you, Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd says you must send the General a man in his room — Major Lewis by Express informs the Col<sup>o</sup> that on the 30th Ult<sup>o</sup> Cap<sup>t</sup> Gist was at Bryant's attack'd by a Body of Cherrokees which he by the advantage of some Houses that he avail'd himself off Beat ~~them~~ off and took a Scalp, the Maj<sup>r</sup> adds that 4 different Posts were attack'd in one day, at 3 of which the Enemy were repuls'd, but had not learn't the Fate of the 4th these incursions according to custom spreads much terror amongst the Inhabitants, and leaves us no room to doubt what part our old allies are determined to act. —

I hear that Gen<sup>l</sup> Morton is appointed to Command in this Quarter, that a Post is to be establish'd at Presque Ile and the Conquest of Detroit undertaken; But as it's fear'd (notwithstanding of what we hear'd) that Pennsylvania will do little if any thing; Maryland as usual nothing, and a great part of our Regiment (whose strength is vastly diminish'd by Death Desertion & Sickness) will probably be employ'd on the Fronteers I dread this Plan will be greatly obstructed if not render'd impracticable.

I'm extremely sorry to find the Regiment in so bad a situation Step<sup>s</sup><sup>1</sup> (whose gone to Pennsylvania to Buy Land) employ'd several of the Soldiers on his own Plantation, in driving Cattle &c<sup>a</sup> and many have had Furloughs of whose return there's little probability; Scarce a man has a Bayonet, Lock Cover, Hammer Cap, Brush or Picker; Order and Discipline much neglected, the Adjutant laid up with a broken Leg, the Serg<sup>t</sup> Maj<sup>r</sup> several Serg<sup>ts</sup> Corp<sup>ls</sup> and many private down with the small Pox — we have only 166 fit for Duty at this place, tho' we have 4 Comp<sup>ys</sup> & some from 3 more so that we must cut a very poor Figure both as to num<sup>r</sup>. & appearance. ^ I have since my arrival been constantly employ'd in exer'sing them seeing them Drill'd and in endeavouring to get things restor'd some Order But almost every Day adds to the disagreeable Prospect my own affairs present me with, since my arrival I had the mortification to learn that none of 8 Recruits which I enlisted at so great an Expen<sup>ce</sup> ever got to the Batt<sup>n</sup> nor can I hear that any of the 14 I sent from Virginia is got to the Regiment, those that undertook to Recruit for me spend a great deal of my Money without doing me any Service, and I'm well assur'd that Bouquet is determin'd to make a point of my Joining him immediately or giving up my Commission But for the reasons we talk'd over I will depend on my Virg<sup>a</sup> Half Pay tho' a disappointment therein and my late misfortunes would leave me quite destitute, in fine the Train of perplexing embarrassments I have long been and never more than now involv'd in would make an hon<sup>ble</sup> Passage to anoth<sup>r</sup> World not disagreeable.

I beg you will be so good as to present my Compl<sup>ts</sup> in the most respectfull and obliging Terms to Your Lady & allow me the pleasure of subscribing myself with unbiass'd Esteem & unalterable Regard

MY DEAR SIR

Three Days after I parted with you I got a Man to Inlist in the room of Allen, for about 50/. Expence, and wheneve[r] the Comp<sup>ys</sup> from Augusta arriv'd I found out Allen, but every argument I could use could not prevail upon him to engage for more than two years, nor would he take less than £20 — <sup>5</sup>/<sub>8</sub> ann. his Terms are so extremely unreasonable that I have not apply'd for his Discharge, as I'm persuaded you will not have him at such an exorbitant rate, I cannot hear of any other of the Profession in the Reg<sup>t</sup>: I shall write to Cap<sup>t</sup>: M<sup>c</sup>Kenzie to enquire for one amongst the troops at Pittsburg —

We are here to our great surprise inform'd that the Assembly is to meet on the 19th Ins<sup>t</sup>: in consequence of some Intelligence from S<sup>o</sup>: Carolina — Various are our Conjectures — We are all impatience! most are of opinion that the Reg<sup>t</sup>: will be compleated and [a] new one rais'd; should this affair whatever it may be, cause any considerable change in our Military Affairs, I hope you will be so good as to have an Eye towards me, if it should be judg'd necessary to have a Major of Brigade, surely my long Services and having acted already in that Capacity gives me an indubitable right to it, in preference to any other, and much more so to M<sup>r</sup>: Irwine —

Col<sup>o</sup>: Byrd writes to the Governor on the Half Pay Scheme, and from the opinion of the House last Session our hopes are rais'd high and very sanguine, It would be a vast encouragement for us to have some Provision made for our future support before we enter on a new S[c]ene of Dangers and Fatigues perhaps of the most horrible nature we have ever encounter'd — Col<sup>o</sup>: Byrd has taken upon him to prevent my obeying Orders for Joining the R As for 8 or 10 Days longer, and if it was possible for you in that Time or a few Days more to inform me what I may hope or fear from the Half Pay Scheme it would be of the last Importance to me — I am really asham'd to be so extremely troublesome to you, but when you know that my welfare or misery depends on the determination I must make I flatter myself it will appologise for it I ever am with the highest Esteem and invariable Regard

It was with great concern I was inform'd that you did not get timeous notice of the sitting of last Assembly as I am convinc'd beyond any doubt, how much the General Service and the Interest of this Colony in particular suffer'd in being thereby depriv'd of that salutary Advice which must naturally result from your Military knowledge and great experience which probably would have prevented the Planning of an Expedition<sup>1</sup> that a thousand Circumstances concurr in rendering impracticable, and tho' it does not become a person so short sighted and ignorant of Politicks to discant upon the proceeding of so august a Body yet as a Soldier I think I may presume to say, that to attempt with a handfull of raw undisciplined (I don't know what to call them) Men to carry on so long an Expedition and penetrate into the Country of so warlike and formidable people who from the Nature of the Ground in general their numbers & mode of warfare have so vast a superiority, and push headlong without establishing Posts, forming Magazines & no chance of securing a Retreat is contrary to all Military Rules & carries no probability of Success, tho' its miscarriage would be productive of the most alarming & fatal consequences — Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd has prudently refus'd the Command of it and told Ste:<sup>s</sup><sup>2</sup> as he was 2<sup>d</sup> in Command he might wait on the Governor about it, what his going down will produce I know not and as you so well know the man will not trouble you with any of my conjectures — yet I cannot help fearing much for its consequences, for if they go on I think there's

WILLIAMSBURG June 4, 1760.

SIR,

I arrived here yesterday and take the first opportunity of writing to thank you & M<sup>rs</sup> Washington for the many civilities I received at Mount Vernon. It gives me some concern when I consider the obligations I am under in Virginia to think how I shall be able to return them: indeed I am afraid it will only be in my power to retain a proper sense of them; which I always shall do.

I have the pleasure to acquaint you that your friends in these parts are all well. They enquire after you, particularly the Gov<sup>t</sup> and M<sup>rs</sup> Fauquier,

<sup>1</sup> The Rev. Andrew Burnaby, A. M., Vicar of Greenwich, was the author of a small publication which appeared in London in 1775, entitled, Travels Through the Middle Settlements in North America, in the years 1759 and 1760. With Observations upon the State of the Colonies. His descriptions of the country are quaint and original. In one of his notes he says: "In several parts of Virginia the ancient custom of eating meat at breakfast still continues. At the top of the table, where the lady of the house presides, there is constantly tea and coffee; but the rest of the table is garnished out with roasted fowls, ham, venison, game and other dainties. Even at Williamsburg, it is the custom to have a plate of cold ham upon the table; and there is scarcely a Virginian lady who breakfasts without it." Mr. Burnaby appears several times in the course of his travels to have visited at Mount Vernon.

and even to regret very much that M<sup>rs</sup> Washington & yourself are so far from Williamsburg.

We have little or no news — there having been no late arrivals either from Eng<sup>d</sup> or the Northward. The Speaker was married I believe last week: on which occasion nothing appeared but youth and gaiety. The new married couple are now gone to their seat in the country. As a counterpart to this, I find that M<sup>rs</sup> Burwell of James River was buried a few days ago; that Gen. Braxton has been dying of a pleurisy; but is now something better; I believe out of danger.

I arrived here the 15th past, after an Agreeable journey; and desire you will think me extremely obliged to you for the favour you did me in sending me to Annapolis, and by the letters you gave me to recommend me. I had not an Opportunity of seeing M<sup>r</sup> Sharp; but D<sup>r</sup> Macleane has behaved with the greatest Politeness to me, introduced me to General Stanwix by M<sup>r</sup>: Doe his Aid de Camp, and contrived for me to go on a fishing Party with about 15 or 16 Ladies & 8 or 10 Gentlemen to the Schuilkill. We dined Upon a Turtle &c drank Tea in the Afternoon & returned in the Evening. Philadelphia is beyond my Expectation; and when I consider that it contains near 20,000 Inhabitants of Many Nations and Religions; that it Employs one Year with Another 350 Vessels; that it has a well regulated Police; and is in beauty, Trade, Riches, not inferior to many <sup>cities</sup> in Europe, I am lost in Admiration of that Great Man M<sup>r</sup>: Penn, who by his Wisdom and vast foresight, has been able to accomplish such things. I believe I shall set out for New York either Wednesday or thursday, shall stay there about a Week, and from thence to Boston for about the same time, from Whence in about a Month I shall expect to see England, where I shall hope to have the pleasure of hearing from you very soon. — We have very little News here; the Seige of Quebec is certainly raised; and it is said we have taken about half a dozen store ships; from Whence it is hoped the Remains of the French Army must ~~certainly~~ be reduced to the greatest distress. The Merchants in this Place were much Alarmed the other day by hearing that Many of their flags of truce Ships to the Value of better than 100 000 £ sterling were taken in the West Indies; this Evening however they have recovered their looks a little, as a Vessel from Jamaica has brought them an Account that About Eleven are already Acquitted. - - - -

General Amherst has not yet left Albany, at least he had not, when the last accounts arrived; People begin to Wonder. One of the Miss Hopkinsons (perhaps you may know her) was married last thursday to M<sup>r</sup>. Duchè a Young Clergyman here. This I think is everything that can possibly come under the Article of News, Unless I was to tell you of a very violent thunder Gust which happened last Monday & struck two or three horses in Town here; though this to an American has very little Novelty in it;<sup>1</sup> for which reason, Sir, I believe I must desire you to make My Compliments to M<sup>rs</sup> Washington, & conclude by Assuring You that I am with the greatest respect

CAMP AT VENANGO Aug: 12th 1760

DEAR SIR

Though I have as small a Title as any Person whatever to the least Share of your Esteem, yet, by often observing with what Pleasure you seize all Opportunities of using your good Offices for the Assistance of others, I dare to address you and to sollicit your Interest in an Affair of the greatest Importance to me, which from your Benevolence alone I hope to obtain. —

My Relations in Europe have procured recom-
& have engaged Col<sup>o</sup> <sup>Robertson</sup> & Cap<sup>t</sup> Abercrombie, his first Aid de Camp, to present them, and to back them with all their Influence. They have desired me to send a Memorial to the Gen<sup>l</sup>, which I have accordingly done, & to apply to you for a Testimony of my Behaviour, while under your Command. This is the Favour w<sup>ch</sup> I have to request; and if my Conduct has ever merited your Approbation, I hope you will do me the Justice to declare it to Gen<sup>l</sup> Amherst, or in any other Manner, w<sup>ch</sup> you think will be equally conducive to my Interest — As soon as I can get Gen<sup>l</sup> Monctons Liberty I shall repair to the Head Quarters of the Army; & lest such a Step should hurt me in Virginia, I have wrote very fully to the Governor on the Subject, desiring to know what I may expect in the Colonys Service at the Reduction of the Regt; if Nothing, I have begged the Honour of a Letter from him to Gen<sup>l</sup> Amherst, & by a Memorial to his Council have solicited the same Favour from them. In every Thing I have acted agreeable to the Advice of my Friends, and though my Expectations are far from being pleasing, I am under a Necessity either to disoblige them, or to accept of whatever their Interest may procure for me. —

I am with Major Stewart, erecting a Post at this Place, which is to be a Block House, extended by a Ditch & covered Way — Col<sup>o</sup> Bouquet with 250 Pensilv<sup>s</sup> is doing the same at Presqu' Isle. The Indians are very passive, and except four Men killed and taken the other Day at the Lake, we have not met with the least Disturbance from them this Campaign —

I should be glad to hear from you as soon as possible under Cover to Major Gates; and shall esteem it a singular Favor to be ranked among the Number of Dear Sir

your Friends & very humble Servants

MOUNT VERNON NOV: 20th 1760

DEAR SIR,

Had your Letter of the 17th of August come to my hands before the 18th Inst<sup>l</sup>. I should not have given you the trouble of perusing my answer to it at this late Season. — I am sorry you should think it necessary to introduce a request that is founded upon Reason and equity with an Apology, to me — had you claimd that as a Right,

FROM CAPTAIN ROBERT STEWART.

CAMP AT VENANGO 2<sup>d</sup> October 1760

MY DEAR SIR

Since my last long Letter from this place I rec<sup>d</sup> Intelligence from the neighbouring Indians that they discover'd where a large Body of the Enemy had just passed about 28 Miles above us and seem'd to bend their course this way, a Delaware spoke to some of their Savages who told him they were off a large Party design'd for this place, I at 2 oClock this morning Detach'd an officer & 20 alert Virg<sup>s</sup> with some six nation & Delaware Indians to Reconnoitre the different Paths & Passes leading towards where the Enemy were seen & to Scour our Environs, they are just return'd without making any other Discovery than where a few Indians lay on the top of an adjacent eminance which overlooks our Camp nor can I conceive the Enemy to be now in con-

which you seem rather to ask as a favour I shoud have thought myself wanting in that justice which is the distinguishing Characteristick of an Honest Man to have with held it from you. —

But how to answer your purposes and at the same time avoid the Imputation of Impertinence, I am I must confess, a little more at a loss to determine. — That Gen! Amherst may have heard of such a person as I am, is probable; And this I dare venture to say is the Ultimate knowledge he has of me; how then shoud I appear to him in an Epistolary way and to set down and write a Certificate of your behaviour carries an Air of formality that seems more adapted to the Soldiery than Officers. I must therefore beg the favour of you to make what use you please of this Letter. —

For, Sir, with not more pleasure than truth, I can declare to you, and to the World, that while I had the honour of Commanding the Regiment your Conduct both as an Officer and Gentleman were unexceptionable; and in every Instance as far as discerning

I was capable of ~~judging~~ such, as to have merited applause from better judges. Since my time Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd has been witness to your Behaviour and his Letters Recommenda- tory must I am persuaded do you more service than my sanguine endeavours can — Altho he, nor no other Person, is more sensible of your worth, nor more Inclined to contribute their best Offices towards the Completion of your wishes than dition to undertake any thing serious or send out more than a few Scalping Parties, however we have got into a tolerable Posture of Defence against Musketry and ready for them come as soon as they will some of their Scalpers have been frequently about us at different Times but as yet have not been able to get the least advantage, tho the nature of this Service obliges me to have small Parties sometimes Detain'd a considerable distance from Camp nor have we sustained the smallest Loss except that of our Engineer poor Du Plesis who on the 2<sup>d</sup> Ult<sup>o</sup> Detach'd to Reconnoitre French Creek, he & the few that were with him have not been heard off for upwards of 3 weeks his Loss is more sensibly felt as the construction of Works cannot be carried with such propriety as they would have been under the direction of so able an Engineer, nor is it now in my power to have the pleasure of presenting You with Planns of our different Posts nor the Draft of this River which I Promised in my last —

You will undoubtedly receive the acco<sup>ts</sup> of the Success of His Majesty's Army (under the Orders of The Generals Amherst & Murray and the great probability there is in their succeeding in Enterprises still more Glorious which must terminate in the total Reduction of the French Territories in this part of the Globe) in a speedier Channel than I from this remote Post could convey them I will not therefore trouble You with a less perfect repetition of them —

We are here extremely impatient to hear something of our Virginia Expedition our last acco<sup>ts</sup> from that Quarter was in a Letter I rec<sup>d</sup> from Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd Dated at Campbell's Aug<sup>t</sup> 10th I cannot imagine he will proceed after he is inform'd that Fort Loudoun the principal Object of his Destination is surrender'd to the Savages, and I would fain hope that War will now attract some part of the Ministry's attention and that such measures will be concerted as that our ulterior Operations against them will end in their extirpation, than which nothing could more effectually promote Our General Interest with the Indians and give them the most tremendous opinion of our Prowess All the Savage Nations would then be convinc'd beyond doubt how carefully they ought to cultivate our Friendship and how much our just resentment was to be dread this Measure would undeniably cost an immensity of Blood and Treasure but the happy and permanent Good that would certainly result from it would amply repay all —

In the different Letters I had the Pleasure to write You from Pittsburgh & this place I inform'd You how happy we are under the Orders of so consummate an Officer & so fine a Gentleman as our General appears to be and the genteel Politeness of His Behaviour particular marks of which and indeed of real kindness he has been Pleas'd to Hon<sup>r</sup> me with of which unlook'd for lucky incident I avail'd myself to procure a continuation of both my Commissions notwithstanding that Col<sup>o</sup> Bouquet in the name of the Corps warmly solicited for my being Order'd to Join the Battalion but as I hitherto have been no Favorite of Fortune's I did not think it prudent to trust to any of Her superficial smiles and therefore I have applied for Liberty to sell and if I cannot be indulg'd therein to Resign being determined to attach myself solely to our own Reg<sup>t</sup> and rely upon the Generosity of the Colony which I have so long had the Hon<sup>r</sup> to Serve for a future Subsistence, tho' I with great regret observe that my Interest there declines, this declension is evinc'd by an Order M<sup>r</sup> Boyd tells me the Governor has given for my returning my Major's Pay for last Campaign when I did the entire Duty of that Office with such assiduity and punctuality as to give perfect satisfaction to the Col<sup>o</sup> of the Reg<sup>t</sup> and all my Superiors in the Line, this unexpected Stroke astonish me the more as it is most certain that Major Lewis drew Pay as Maj<sup>r</sup> from the Date of his Major's Commission tho' Major Stobo was in fact Major of the Reg<sup>t</sup> and that as Maj<sup>r</sup> Lewis was till his Imprisonment to Maj<sup>r</sup> Stobo what I was to Maj<sup>r</sup> Lewis during his detention with the Enemy, consequently if Major Lewis had then a right to Maj<sup>r</sup>s Pay the same reasons entitled me to it from the Date of my Majority till Major Lewis rejoin'd the Reg<sup>t</sup> which was all I did or desired to but another recent Instance in my favour places this (if possible) in still a stronger & more striking view viz<sup>t</sup> L<sup>t</sup> Col<sup>o</sup> Peachy drew Pay as Maj<sup>r</sup> from the Date of his Major's Commission in our Reg<sup>t</sup> till the Day of his Promotion in the Fronteer Batt<sup>n</sup> tho' he never did the least Duty nor even Join'd our Reg<sup>t</sup> as Maj<sup>r</sup> but notwithstanding the combin'd force of these (I hope) coercive Arguments I rec<sup>d</sup> the Orders of the Commander In Chief of the Colony Troops for it.

I would by no means desire You to ask a Favour from Gov<sup>r</sup> Fauquier because I know how disagreeable it would be to You but if I have a right to that Pay and that I have Imagine is obvious by the above State of the Affairs It cannot be deem'd a favour to procure Justice or to rectify a mistake to which I ascribe this Order therefore I doubt but your good offices will be us'd in obtaining a Countermand to it. When I applied for the Majority I endeavoured to represent the hardship of Major Peachy's having got it and told the Governor that Rank was what I chiefly regarded but that I should do the sole of that fatiguing Duty without Pay when there was two Precedents so clearly in my favour for drawing<sup>it</sup> I never imagin'd would admit of the least hesitation.

I am extremely uneasy at your long and uncommon silence I have not been favour'd with a Scrape from you since the Date of the Letter you wrote me from Bulskin the Day after parting — I am certain that either your Letters have miscarried or which is infinitely worse the want of Health prevents your writing how happy it would make me to be assured that You and your Family are well for God's sake relieve me from my vast uneasie apprehensions on this Head —

I cannot even guess at where I shall be order'd to this Winter — I beg you will be so good as to present my Respectfull Complement<sup>s</sup> in the warmest and most obliging Terms to Your Lady & the Children and believe me unalterably to be With the most sincere & perfect Esteem & Regard

MY DEAR SIR

I arrivd here the 11th Ins<sup>t</sup> after the most severe and longest Campaign I ever Serv'd and the excessive pleasure I enjoy by hearing of your welware [welfare] rises in proportion to the great uneasiness
I from a dread of the reverse was long under, not only, by the uncommon Secession of your so much desir'd, till then uninterrupted, & truely valueable Correspondence, but, my not being able to learn any thing of you, and tho' I was very sensibly affected by this misfortune, an unalterable persuasion of your incapacity (without the clearest reasons) of dropping a Friendship which I esteem one of the greatest Blessings of my Life, would not suffer me even to suppose a possibility of its proceeding from any other cause, than the miscarriage of one of our Letters, and it is with inexpressibly satisfaction I find my opinion thereon so well grounded for our mutual Friend Craik tells me that you did me the favour to write to me which Letter he gave to Heath but Heath cannot recollect to whom at Pittsburgh he deliver'd it, I suspect the villainous curiosity of some mean Scound<sup>l</sup> for robbing<sup>me</sup> of the pleasure the rec<sup>t</sup> of it would have afforded me, nor am I free from apprehension of the many Letters I in the course of last Campaign wrote you, their having met with the same Fate, should that be the case, I flatter myself, that those generous Sentiments of Friendship, so eminently conspicuous in every part of your Behavior to me, for a space that fills a considerable share of Life, has render'd every Avenue to your Heart impregnable to every suspicion of neglect or Ingratitude in me, for it is with great Truth I assure you, that I never let slip one opportunity of transmitting you every occurrence which I imagin'd could in any degree entertain or amuse you —

I had resolv'd after a few Days rest to have waited on You at Mount Vernon, but I am informd that you are going to Annapolis, and is to be here soon, which frees me from the pain that would inevitably arise from asking for Leave of absence from Step<sup>s</sup> who I'm certainly inform'd is incessantly employ'd in traversing this County and with indefatigable pains practices every method of making Interest with it's Inhabitants for Electing him their Representative in Assembly, his claims to disinterestedness, Public Spirit and genuine Patriotism are Trumpeted in the most turgid manner; it's said he will reduce these shining Virtues to practice (for it's undeniable that if his pretensions to them had ever an existence it must have been in Idea) by Introducing various Commercial Schemes, which, are to diffuse Gold & opulency thro' Frederick, and prove (I suppose) as Sovereign a Remedy against Poverty and Want as Glen's red Root was in removing hunger and imbecility from our Horses in Campaign 58 when they were destitute of Forrage and Sustenance of every kind, But however strange & chimerical these non-entity's may appear to common sense, yet by his striking out of the beaten Road he has attracted the attention of the Plebeians, whose unstable Minds are agitated by every Breath of Novelty, whims and nonsense, yet with his speculative Wealth and an immensity of Flummery he has brought over many, which and some groundless Reports gave me extreme uneasiness till I was certain that the Leaders and all the Patrician Families remains firm in their resolution of continuing for You, But tho' there is every appearance of your going with a greater Majority at the next than you did at the last Election, yet as in affairs of that Nature it is difficult to form a certain Judgement from appearances, I conceive your own presence, as soon as you can conveniently come, would highly conduce to fix it beyond the most distant doubt —

I was astonish'd to hear that Jones is suspected of becoming an opposer, But in that Event (which I can hardly believe) it would appear that he is actuated by the most selfish motives, and I'm persuaded that the cause of his opposition will by shewing your watchfull care for whatever might affect your Constituents, promote in place of diminishing your Interest with them — I need not tell you how happy M<sup>c</sup>Neill and I are in arriving at a Juncture when the Flame of Burgessing kindles every Breast —

I hope to have the great pleasure of seeing you soon and I beg you'll be so good as to offer my Compl<sup>ts</sup> in the most respectfull and obliging Terms to Your Lady & the Children & believe me ever to be with the highest Esteem and most perfect Regard

WINCHESTER 12th March 1761 —

MY DEAR COL<sup>o</sup>

Agreeable to your desire I send you Inclos'd a List of such things as the Regiment is most and in immediate want off, I could not get an acco<sup>t</sup> of their cost but it may be known from the Commissioners examining the Regimental Acco<sup>ts</sup> who no doubt are poss'd of the original acco<sup>ts</sup> Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd gave<sup>in</sup> — I likewise transmit you my Sentiments on the affairs we talk'd off at parting, which I fear you'll think are exprest with more zeal and freedom than Judgement and discretion

On my return there I talk'd over the several things you mention'd to me with our particular Friends, and Craik Woodrow and Jacob Hight makes an excursion to the lower part of the County tomorrow S:<sup>1</sup> continues indefatigable and I'm inform'd intends to make use of every method to arrive at his point de vue but nothing can raise the most remote suspicion of your Interest's being immutably establish'd — I wish Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd was here — I shall be impatient till I have the pleasure of a Line from you & am unalterably

MY DEAR COLONEL

I on many acco<sup>ts</sup> am encourag'd to take the liberty of Inclosing You a List of several indispensably requisite Accoutrements and Necessaries for the Regiment, which are not yet provided, and which we ought to receive previously to our Marching, it is needless to inform you of who so perfectly knows their utility & how much the Men would be Distress'd by wanting them, which, and their small Expence consider'd, it's more than probable, that The Assembly will Order their being immediately furnish'd; there are several other things wanted, to complete us for the Field, particularly Tents and

Bayonets, but it's probable the Crown will supply us with Tents, and the Nature of the Service we are likely to be employ'd in, will in some measure dispense with Bayonets, we can make Lock Covers of Cow Hides, and Hammer Slatts of Deer Skines &c<sup>a</sup> —

It is with infinite concern I observe, that, various unfortunate circumstances seems to have concurr'd in rendering the Regiment incapable of making that Figure and doing that Service, which it has always been remark'd for, and which will naturally be expected from it. The mean unmilitary Cloathing provided for the non Commission'd and Rank & File, plain Hats, and Leggings of different Col<sup>rs</sup>, has caus'd a general murmur discontent and heartburning and greatly depress'd that spirit hitherto constantly exerted in eclipsing other Provincials, and even vying with The Kings Troops, in uniformity, in appearance, exactitude, regularity, firmness and Intrepidity in executing the most arduous essential Duties of Soldiers, hence it's evident, how much that Spirit ought to be encourag'd and cultivated, and with what care every thing tending to damp or diminish it should be avoided, as it's certain, that to it's happy effects, & to Discipline are owing that establish'd good Character of our Troops, which redounds no less to the C<sup>t</sup> of the Colony than the Hon<sup>r</sup> of the Corps — I believe its' allow'd that Rewards and Punishments are the principal Springs of human Actions, and Experience evinces their particular influence over the whole Rotine of a Sold<sup>r</sup>:

The number of our good Men are by Death, accidents and numerous infirmities vastly reduc'd, what good Men remains, under their present uneasiness and dejection mix't with Invalids and raw Recruits, cannot be suppos'd capable of doing much, and as its' a most incontestable Fact, that, a few good Men well Disciplin'd and properly equipt are infinitely superior to a much greater number of bad Men, or even to themselves, when mix't with bad Men, I think it follows, that Discharging all our bad Men would highly conduce to the Interest of the Service, and I have always thought that the number of raw undisciplin'd Recruits with which we commonly take the Field diminish, instead of increasing our real strength, as it is impossible, that even Officers of Address, application and Experience, can without Time, inspire the Peasant or Mechanick with knowledge of and Love for Arms, and so precipitate a transition from ease and plenty to the Toils and Hardships of the Field, makes them appear intolerable and induces them to seek the most infamous means of abandoning a way of Life which under these Dificulties seem insupportable; to that, and the encouragement they find in the misplac'd compassion of the Inhabitants are chiefly owing the great and scandalous Desertion peculiar to the Corps, such of them as do not Desert, in place of doing Service, require some of our nonCommission'd Officers and best Men to take care of them, and bring them up when they lack behind on a March bore down with the weight of Fatigues which till inur'd to them they are unable to bear, nor can that vigour, exact obedience, emulation and desire to excell, so requisite in Soldiers, be expected from such

Men, who in place of shewing an arduor for Action will dread it, and too probably communicate their fears to those in the Ranks with them, nor would such an Event be new or surprising, as we know that the Roman Legions have under the Orders of an able Officer retir'd in a confusion, which took its' rise from the timid Skreams of one private Soldier, probably a Recruit. History furnishes numberless instances of a similar nature, tho' not so striking yet sufficiently so, to shew the absolute necessity of taking every precaution to prevent Disorder in the Face of the Enemy, I therefore humbly conceive, that nothing can be more injurious to the Reg<sup>t</sup> than deferring the Recruiting Service till near the opening of the Campaign, which has always been the case, I know that in defence of this method its' alledg'd, that, as the continuance of the Reg<sup>t</sup> is always uncertain, fitting it up before its' continuance can be certainly known, would be run'ing a risque, of incurring a great and unnecessary Expence, but when its' consider'd that in case of our being disbanded, these Recruits could be turned over to the Regular Troops, for as much, or near it, as they cost the Colony, and that if the Colony should have occasion for them, they would be of more Service than double their num<sup>r</sup> pick'd up of any sort in a hurry, and Join'd Just at or before our taking the Field, these Objections would consequently be remov'd; and instead thereof, Beating Orders<sup>1</sup> were issued in the Fall, the officers employ'd in that Service would have Time to make a proper choice, and bring them to the Reg<sup>t</sup> in the Winter, and undoubtedly it is in Winter Quarters, that Recruits ought to be Drill'd and initiated into an exact habitude of doing their Duty, which the Service requires them to understand and not to learn when they Join the Line; practice would make it easy and familiar, and create a confidence in themselves, and would naturally facilitate their performing with alacrity (when mix't with Soldiers) what they were before taught even [in] the Face of the Enemy's Fire; whereas, by our present Method Recruits are instantly remov'd from Tilling the Ground and Tradesmen's Shops to the Camp, where Novelty disconcerts and Regularity appears to them impracticable —

We have a num<sup>r</sup> of Men quite wore out, and unfit for Service, and consequently of great disservice, as its' certain that they are as large an Expence as the same of good Men would be off, and a dead weight upon the Regiment by including them in it's Effectives —

The Gross of our Arms have from the Nature of our Service always suffer'd extremely in the Field of course in constant want of repairs, which have hitherto been neglected till late in the Spring when any Armourers that can be got are hir'd at an exorbitant rate, and as these Fellows are not Subject to the Articles of War and do not attend us in the Field, they may be suppos'd to be more anxious in getting Money than doing their Duty well; this misfortune which is productive of very great ones, might be easily prevented, by appointing a Soldier bred to that Bussiness Armourer to the Reg<sup>t</sup>, and supplying him with a Carriage anvil, Bellows and other necessary Implements, by which means our Arms would be kept in constant good Order, and at much less Expence to the Province. —

These things may to many appear too trivial to merit the notice of the Legislature, but you well know, that the good of the Service is more frequently obstructed by inattention to the small Details of it, than, by what appears to those unacquainted with its nature to be of the greatest consequence, that the most minute thing in it, becomes, important by viewing it's consequences, and that the neglecting the smallest affairs commonly produce Capital Errors —

But this Scribble has insensibly become longer than I intended, by setting down things as they occur'd, without regard to Order or conciseness, knowing that with you, Form or Dress makes no difference — Military Knowledge & approv'd abilities for instiling the most salutary Regimental Regulations uniting with the Senator in you, naturally points you out as the properest person to represent them to that House, which is the Source from which every advantage of that kind, we can reasonably hope for, must originally flow, and allow me my dear Col<sup>o</sup> to assure you, that, I do not propose these reformatations from any vain desire of Interesting myself in things however obvious in themselves may (perhaps with Justice) be deem'd above my Sphere, and would come with greater propriety from severals in the Corps whose Rank, Genius and knowledge of our Profession gives them a better title to represent them to you in your Publick Character, Zeal for the good of the Service, and a fear of their being omitted by them, alone have prompted me to hint them to you on the foot of that Intimacy that to my inexpressible pleasure has so long subsisted between us and than a continuance of which nothing can more effectually promote his Felicity who ardently wish you everything that can forward and accomplish the completion of yours & ever is with the highest Esteem and most perfect Regard

FROM CAPTAIN ROBERT STEWART.

WINCHESTER 6th April 1761 —

MY DEAR COL<sup>o</sup>

I have just had the great pleasure of receiving your agreeable Favour of the 27th Ult<sup>o</sup> and am glad that there is some prospect of the Regiment's being supplied with these necessaries —

Cap<sup>t</sup> M<sup>c</sup>Kenzie to the great Joy of the Corps has just rejoin'd us, by him we learn that Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd is appointed to Command the Expedition against the Cherokees,<sup>1</sup> and that a Demand of a thous<sup>d</sup> more Men is made upon Virg<sup>a</sup> if complied with, it will cause several changes in our Military Affairs and as

<sup>1</sup> The Cherokees at this time had become very aggressive. In May, 1760, the Virginia Assembly appropriated £32,000 for the fitting out of an expedition against them; and in the following October passed an act withdrawing the Virginia forces from the north, and concentrating the strength of the entire regiment upon this troublesome and powerful nation.

no doubt but Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd will have a Staff, a hint from you in my fav<sup>r</sup>: might [be] of great Service to me, I do not mean as to B Maj<sup>r</sup>: as Paddy<sup>1</sup> will have that, and I not envy it, but as the Gross of his Army will consist of raw Troops an Adjutant Gen<sup>l</sup> or an Officer to do that Duty will become the more necessary, and tho' the Colony will make no Provision for anything [of the] kind yet as all Contingencies are to be paid by the Crown the Officer Commanding in Chief could without any inconveniency make that matter easy — I have given the Col<sup>o</sup> a distant hint — he has been very kind by applying unask'd to Gen<sup>l</sup> Amherst for my remaining with him and succeeded —

There is vast uneasiness and heart burnings amongst our Officers on acco<sup>t</sup>: of a Report (which gains Credit) that Cap<sup>t</sup>: Van Braham<sup>2</sup> is to have Rank as oldest Cap<sup>t</sup>: in the Regiment notwithstanding that no Vacancy has been kept for him and that no mention was made of him, much less any exception made in his favour in any one of the many Promotions that were made since he left the Corps (if it can with propriety be call'd the same Corps) some of the Officers seem determin'd to leave no Stone unturn'd to retain their present Rank and its' too probable the consequences of his coming will prove fatal to some. I am vastly hurried & must beg you'll forgive the inaccuracy & C<sup>a</sup>: of the above I ever am w<sup>t</sup>: the most perfect Deference & regard

FROM THE REVEREND ANDREW BURNABY.

LONDON, April 14th 1761

DEAR SIR,

I should not have been so long in England without writing to you, had it not happened that I was undetermined whether I should not return to Virginia again: but as I am now come to a fixed determination to continue in these parts, I do myself the pleasure of writing this, to return you my sincerest thanks for all the favours you showed me in America, and with the hopes that you will give me the pleasure of hearing from you, when you may happen to be disengaged from any Affairs of greater consequence: for believe me, Sir, to the Obligations you have already laid me under, it is impossible you can add any greater, than by honouring me so far as to let me hear of <sup>y<sup>r</sup>.</sup> Wellfare and happiness. — — — The transactions of these parts are so little interesting to any Inhabitant of Yours, except in the Article of Politics, that I persuade myself you will readily Excuse my omitting to give you any Account of them. We talk much of a peace, and a Congress is appointed at Augsburg; but whether it will come to a ratification, must be left I believe to time to determine. The terms are said to be, in general, the keeping of N. America, and giving up Guadaloupe.

The Kings Marriage with the Princess of Brunswick, Sister to the hereditary Prince, is certainly Agreed Upon, and will be speedily completed. And it is said that the Lady Augusta is to have the hereditary Prince, supposing him not to be killed; which there is a report of. The Coronation is to be in October. Your Neighbour Col: Fairfax is in London I believe, as I saw him the other day: the Ladies are in Yorkshire. I don't think you will see them in Virginia of one while. — Col: Ludwell is, I think, in a declining way; he is at present in London. — When I was last at Mount Vernon, you told me of a Natural Curiosity Near Winchester, namely an Ebbing and flowing Well, I shall take it as a very particular favour, if when you go into those parts again you will make some observations upon it, as 1st how it is situated? Whether near any high Mountain? if there is any descent from the Well? to What height the Water May Ascend? if it rises and falls regularly? and at What Period of time? how long the time of the flux, and how of the Ebb? if there is any intermediate Space when it may be quite at rest? Whether the Well is some Natural Cavity, or dug for the Uses of any Plantation? Whether When it rises or falls, it begins Slowly and is Accelerated or how it proceeds? In short as exact an Account of the Curiosity as you can; and if you will be so good as to send me a detail of it, I shall think myself extremely obliged to you.<sup>1</sup> — You have probably heard before this that Col: Thornton is appointed of the Council. He had a promise of it some time<sup>ago</sup> which I believe I informed you of. L<sup>d</sup> Halifax is appointed to Ireland. L<sup>d</sup> Sandys to the board of Trade. What alteration this may make in the Colony Affairs, I will not pretend to say: though I should think not a deal: Any more than the Other Ministerial Changes, and Lord Bates being at the head of the Ministry, — — — I shall hope to hear soon from you, and if you should send me an Acc<sup>t</sup> of the Well, desire you will send duplicates of the letter. I desire you will make my best Compliments to M<sup>rs</sup> Washington, and all my friends you may fall in with, and believe me to be, dear Sir,

CAMP BEFORE FORT CHISWELL July 7th 1761 —

MY DEAR COL<sup>o</sup>:

I did myself the great pleasure to write you by M<sup>r</sup> Jo: Watson from the Camp near Staunton from which we mov'd the day following, and after a tedious and fatigueing March we arriv'd last week at this our most advanc'd Post, about three hundred Miles from Winchester —

As I was Sent out by You a Messenger, to Deliver Your talk to the head Men of our Nation, and to bring You in an exact Acc<sup>t</sup>. of The Disposition of The People in Regard to The present war, of all Their Transactions, & News Stiring among them, I am now Return'd for that Purpose and Shall be Very Open & Sincere in Telling You every Thing I know. Two Days before I set out two of our People came in from The Northward, where having talk'd with The head men of The Northern Nations gave us to understand, They intended to Strike the wite people again and were Desirous that all the Red people might unite, and as They Look'd upon Them to be Nothing, it would be easie to Distroy Them. — They Desir'd The Cherokees to be strong in The War and Not by any Means to listen to Peace, That They would join them heartily, and had sent word to all The French Down the River to Lend Their assistance.

That they would soon fall upon all The Forts which The white People had taken from The French, Not to Lurk about Them, but to Surprize and cut them off all at once, Then they would fall upon The Northern Colonies, while the Cherokees should Attack the Carolin's.

That they had sent Large belts of Wampum to Invite the Creek, Chekasaus,<sup>2</sup> Choctaws &c. to Ingage with them in falling upon The English. — I do not tell this as a truth but only as News which I heard and this is all I know from The Northward.

A man who had been in the Creek Nation and Lately Return'd Inform'd me, that the People of that Nation had Lately kill'd all their Traders, & had taken up The Hatchett.

N. B. Afterwards he said he believ'd This to be true ; but That Two Towns Nearest to Albany Remain'd Neuter, gave Shelter to The Traders that escap'd, and Did this by The advice of the French who Disswad'd them from entering into a war, as they were Not able to Supply them with Necessaries.

when I heard that Col. Grant was coming with a Number of

Warriors towards the Nation I went to Keowe to Meet him he was Not came up so far, and After I had Staid as Long as I Could to get home in The time Limitt'd for my Return, I Set out for Chota again.

Before I had got far I rec<sup>d</sup> a Message from Col. Grant, Desiring me to Stay untel he came up, as he had Something Materiall to say to me. I accordingly Return'd and at his talk he told me That he well knew my Attachment to the English, and the Service I had already Done them, on which Acc<sup>t</sup> he had The Greater friendship for me, and was so Desirous to see me that he Intended to Visit me in my Own Town this Summer to talk to The head Men, That he came as friend not as an Enemy, & that all the people might Remain in the greatest safety at home provid'd they would behave in The same amicable manner, Neither Molesting him nor any of the white people in Any Place whatever, if they Did he was Determine'd to kill them all and for that Reason Desir'd me to go back through the Towns immediately, Acquaint them of his talk'd [of] Resolution and then Return to Meet him in ten Days.

I accordingly went home and told Oconnerstota Otoseita The Standing Turkey and all the head Men who had been Active in The War what Col. Grant said to me, they were all Sensible of Their Error, Confess'd the English had always Spoken The truth to them, in saying That they Never should Ingage in a war against them, if they Did they would Loose all Their trade be Naked for want of Cloaths, and in fine be all Cut off, which They now saw would be the Consaquence, wherefore they were Determined to stay at home & Leave the Young Warriors to Themselves (they Refus'd) Though I prest Them to go with me to Col. Grant Alledging they were afraid. I then went of alone and the Second Day Met a Man who came from the Lower Towns Who told me I might save myself The Trouble of going Down for They had two Days before had a Battle with The White people. I immediately upon this Return'd & Determined Never to Interfere in The publick Affairs again, but Leave Every one to follow his Own Inclination.

I have since understood that it was Beemers Son in Law who Attac<sup>d</sup> The white People, That he took a Little Flower from Them which was on Horses, but upon the coming up of Col. Grants Indians Immediately Run away with the Loss of Four Men & two women Kill'd, I did not hear of his taking any white mens Scalps upon This all The Indians below the Valley betook Themselves to The woods whose Towns Col Grant Intirely Destroy'd, & all in The Valley Likewise went off except a few Old men and Women Beemer himself went with his gang to settle in a small Town Near the Creek Nation call'd Chota — Since this I have Not heard of Col. Grant, Nor have Seen The Least Appearance of War —

The People are so starv'd for Provision That Several have been found Dead in The Paths, & were Reduc'd to kill Their Horses for Subsistance.

While I was at Keowe a Northern Warrior <sup>Indian with Col. Grant</sup> took me by the hand, Said he esteem'd me as a friend & after some talk gave me a Twist of Tob<sup>o</sup> Saying all Your People are sick give Them this Tob<sup>o</sup> to Smoak, it is good Phisick, will Soon make Them well, bring Their Senses to Them again, and will make Them Think of The English as I do.

This is all I have to Tell You, believe it to be true, if it were Ten times worse I should Acquaint you with it. —

In Conversation afterwards he Mention'd That The great Warrior and Some Others had been to Visit The French talk'd <sup>Humourdly</sup> ~~Humorously~~ of Their Poverty giving Them Buffaloe Skins instead of Cloathing, That a French Govener (I Sopose Orleans) Advis'd Them as his Children to come & see him after but above all things not to War with either the English or them, and it was Their Interest to Remain in peace.

That Many of the Cherokees who came into Keowe Settled Their were treated very Friendly.

Desir'd to have a full talk from Col. Byrd whom The nation Genarally esteem'd a friend who always told Them The Truth, That when he Caried it home & gave it to the Head men he would go to Col. Grant & Offer his Service to carry any Letter The Col. would send by him & Return with <sup>it</sup> Immediately. — the above is the substance of the Carpenter's Talk which very incorrectly wrote my own Indisposition hav<sup>s</sup> oblig'd me to employ a Serjeant to set it down.<sup>1</sup>

CAMP AT STALNAKER'S ON HOLSTEIN RIVER 20th July 1761 —

MY DEAR COL<sup>O</sup>

Two days after the Date of my last. we March'd from Fort Chiswell (where Stephen, Woodward & their Comp<sup>ys</sup> remain) and after a March of six Days we Joind Maj<sup>r</sup> Lewis at this place where I understand a Post is to be Built —

On the 16th two runners from the little Carpenter came into Camp, the Day following himself with 42 of his Friends Encampt about  $\frac{1}{2}$  a mile without our advanc'd Sentries, on the 18th he, Willynawa,<sup>1</sup> the Swallow's Nephew & 5 others of some distinction waited on Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd and deliver'd a Talk a Copy of it as well as I can recollect you have Inclos'd. I think the Carp<sup>n</sup> shews some address in forming (by his Intelligence) an union of all the Savage Nations against us to deter us from leaving our own Fronteers, and the French Governor refin'd Policy in discouraging the Cherokees from carrying on the War from which the French can derive no essential advantage and may in Time terminate in the destruction of their Southern Settlements as being the surest method by which we can put an end to the Indian War — a Fever which has confin'd me some Days to my Tent prevented my hearing Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd's answer, but I learn he was very concise, gave them to understand that nothing but their making Peace with Col<sup>o</sup> Grant could prevent their destruction to accelerate<sup>wch</sup> he (Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd)

was Marching into their Nation, and as they valued their preservation seriously to prosecute the means of procuring Peace.<sup>1</sup>

We yet know nothing of the Num<sup>rs</sup> or Situation of the N. Carolina Troops, or whether they are to Join us — We hear that all our Recruiting Parties are got to Reed Creek with only fifty eight recruits.

We have twelve Officers, a number of the non Commission'd and near a hundred private out of the 8 Comp<sup>ys</sup> here ill with a Fever which seems to be Epe-demick and it's fear'd will go thro' the whole we have not yet got near the num<sup>r</sup> of Carriages or horses necessary to carry us on, nor one Grain of Forrage, our next Post is to be a Big Island and our last at Broad River forty Miles from the Imperial City of Chota. But how our small numbers are to make Roads, Construct Posts, furnish Escortes &c<sup>a</sup> &c<sup>a</sup> for so great a distance & with the trivial remains Conquer a formidable Nation is to me quite a Mystery! But the will of the Great be done —

It is with great difficulty I am able to write being excessively out of order which obliges me to conclude by begging you'll forgive the incoherency of the above Scrawl, that you'll be so good as to offer my Respectfull and obliging Compl<sup>ts</sup> to your Lady & believe [me] ever to be With the most perfect Esteem & unalterable Regard

MELTON-MOWBRAY } LEICESTERSHIRE, Dec: 16th 1761

DEAR SIR,

I received the favour of your letter dated the 27th of July, some time ago ; which would have given me much greater pleasure had it brought me a better account of your health ; I hope however you are perfectly recovered, and that if you come to England, which I can assure Dear Sir would be greatly to my wish, it will be upon some much better Errand than ill health. - - - I am much obliged to you for the Account you give me of the Cavern ; I think it very curious, and long to have the other particulars of it. - - - Since I wrote last to you, we have had many alterations in these parts. The Kings Marriage, Coronation, and M<sup>r</sup> Pitts resignation you have doubtless been informed of. This last, it is thought, will be attended with great consequences. The City seems to lament the loss of him, and probably will be backward in subscribing to the Supplies. The Spaniards are making prodigious preparations, but still profess great friendship for us ; However we are guarding agst them. Lord Bristol, it is said, is recalled from Madrid ; and Lord Tyrawley going in his stead. The Ministry here is still unsettled. The French talk high of invading us ; They are manning all their fleets ; but we think it is impossible to Escape us. The Nation seems to regret that we suffered Bussy to come to England ; Every thing is laid to his Charge ; It is thought even that the French had no intention of making peace ; and only sent him to make divisions amongst us ; He is said to have negociated a loan during his stay here for the French King, and to have made a great fortune himself in the funds. Whether this is true or not, I will not pretend to say : It is certain he is one of the Cleverest, most artfull Men in Europe ; but yet he was watched so strictly, that one would think it impossible he could do so much mischief in so short a time. - - - Our Armies in Germany are going into Winter quarters ; Nothing decisive has been struck in that Quarter. I don't know whether you ever saw Lord Downs<sup>1</sup> Character who was unfortunately killed there the last Campaign ; It is reckoned so just, and is at the same time so fine, that I shall make no Apology for giving it you whether you have or not.

Soon after our last very mortifying Parting I was attack'd with a Rheumatism which confind me till some Time after I had the infinite pleasure to hear of your being so much recover'd as to be in condition to return home — So soon as I got able to ride I went to Petersburgh where I put myself under the Direction of Doctor Jamison from whose skill I deriv'd considerable advantage and on the sitting of the last Assembly I returned to Williamsburgh where I had the further great satisfaction to hear of your being almost well —

this Day had the very great pleasure to receive and as you therein make no mention of your Disorder I would fain flatter myself with the pleasing hope of your being quite recover'd than a confirmation of which nothing could afford me more real Joy — I had not the good Fortune to receive that you was Pleas'd

Doctor Walkers I inform'd you of the several unforeseen accid<sup>ts</sup> that rob'd me of the pleasure of waiting on you at Mount Vernon there's nothing I wanted more than the pleasure of a Confab — I have many things to inform you off which I'm persuaded will surprise you but as nothing Travels on Paper in

The last Division of the Reg<sup>t</sup> will be Disbanded ab: the 18th of next Month, I then will go to the warm Springs (about 80 Miles from hence) to remove (if possible) the Rheumatism with which I have of late been much afflicted. I propose to be at Williamsburgh towards the last of April and should I not have the pleasure of seeing you there will certainly see you before I embark — I am asham'd of the above confus'd ill wrote Scrawl but when you know that I write upon my Knee, with Frosen Ink, in an open Smoaky Hut, crowded with noisy people you will forgive it — I beg my most obliging and Respectfull Complements to your Lady That Heaven may Bless you with Health and everything else that render you truely Happy are the most fervent wishes of

I did myself the pleasure to write you from Doctor Walker's, I have since from Fort Lewis acknowledg'd the rec<sup>t</sup> of your extreme Friendly and affect<sup>e</sup> Letter of the 31st December. —

A number of our Officers are by Orders assembled here to Settle some Regimental Affairs, which we have just finish'd, and now the Virginia Reg<sup>t</sup> exists no longer, I wish they have not been premature in Disbanding a Corps which might have been very Serviceable in prosecuting a War that does not yet seem to draw to a conclusion — I set out to morrow or next Day for the hot Springs in this County in hopes that the efficacy of their Waters will effectually readicate my Rheumatism & reestablish my Health I propose to stay three or four weeks at the Springs & will then proceed to Winchester on my way to Mount Vernon and as I can by no means think of leaving this Country without enjoy<sup>g</sup> the happiness of your Comp<sup>y</sup> for a few Days I would be much oblig'd by your sending me a Line to the next Winchester Court, informing me whether it is most probable I should find you at Home or at Williamsburgh about the latter end of April —

We have just receiv'd acco<sup>ts</sup> from Phil<sup>a</sup> that Sir Jeffry Amherst has made a requisition of a considerable Body of Troops (or rather Men) from all the different Colonies, if this should be true our Assembly will undoubtedly be call'd, and something may occur that will cause a material change in Affairs — I would gladly avail myself of any Expedient that could extricate me out of the very mortifying alternative of Joining The Royal Americans as a Sub: or quitting the Service — should a Body of Men be rais'd I imagine it would be no very difficult matter to get me Introduc'd into pretty high Rank, for I cannot think that Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd will Serve again, Step<sup>n</sup> makes sure of a Comp<sup>y</sup> in the Service and Col<sup>o</sup> Lewis has repeatedly declar'd that he never will Serve unless a permanent Provision is made for him, under these circumstances the great object of my endeavours must be to prevent M<sup>r</sup> Peachy's getting Superior Rank which for reasons that will instantly occur to you I could not Submit to — Whatever may cast up I'm well assur'd that you will have a Friendly Eye towards me — The Speaker who possesses a real regard for you would I conceive be the most certain Channel, for by a proper exertion of his Interest which is very prevailing at the Palace, any reasonable point might be carried. Should you not be at the Assembly yourself may I beg your <sup>writing</sup> by a certain opp<sup>t</sup> to him on this Subject —

There is nothing here new or entertaining — I most ardently wish you every thing that make you supremely happy and ever am with the most exalted and unalterable Esteem

CAMP AT STANSTID Novem<sup>r</sup> 15th 1762

MY DEAR SIR

Since parting with you I have view'd the Plan I laid before you with the closest attention, and the reasons for attempting the execution of it are so vastly corroborated by your approbation, that I am stimulated with the keenest fervour to essay the Success of the first essential step, previously necessary to my appearing at Head Quarters — In the event of our dissolution as a Corps I am perfectly convinc'd that, that Friendship so often employ'd in my behalf is now exerting it's best endeavours in accomplishing the primary Object, on which the Fate of my ulterior efforts must greatly depend — But should the Reg<sup>t</sup> be kept up till the King's pleasure relative to our being taken into His more immediate Pay can be known, do you think it impracticable for me to obtain the hon<sup>r</sup> of bearing the Despatches on that Subject to the Ministry? or if the first proposal is to be made at Head Quarters to go there, near which I think I have a Friend whose great Interest and powerful Connections would render his good offices very prevailing. This expedient has occur'd to me by a proposal made to me by severals of the Reg<sup>t</sup> for Detailing an Officer to London to prosecute with that assiduity which the pleasing view of Promotion would leave no room to doubt, the most spirited perseverance in representing our Sufferings and Services — Should the War continue the Difficulties in raising new Reg<sup>ts</sup> and Recruit<sup>s</sup> those whose Effectives have been so much diminish'd by severe Service will be so great and the advantages resulting from taking a Regiment, rais'd tolerably Disciplin'd and already in America, must appear so strikingly obvious, that the Ministry would on a proper Representation probably go into it, as a Measure highly conducive to the Interest of the Service, and at the same Time give an opportunity of obliging perhaps some of the Great Families in Britain by making Field Officers of some of their Sons, Brothers or near Relations who may now be Cap<sup>ts</sup> in the Army, for 'tis certain that no Provincial Officers will at once be exalted to the Rank of Field Officers in the Service —

If Sir Jeffrey should of himself take us into the Pay of the Crown I would immediately rejoin the Reg<sup>t</sup> — At any rate it seems to be pretty certain that the Colony will not retain us much longer in their Pay But supposing that we are kept up for the Winter I appeal to you or any other Military Judge whether the absence of L<sup>t</sup> Col<sup>o</sup> in Winter Quar<sup>tr</sup>s can be of any prejudice to the Service. If it cannot, if our standing even for that Time is doubtfull, if my going to London properly recommended may be of Service to the Corps in case the war continues and at all Events be of Service to myself, all which is very probable, I would fain hope the Governor may be prevail'd upon to hon<sup>r</sup> me with his Letters to the Secretary of State; I can assure you that my being absent on this Service would be so infinitely remote from giving any umbrage to the Officers that many of them earnestly desire it — As my going to the Metropolis this Winter (where I think I could thro' the means of the Earles Bute and Loudon and some others of distinction in the army and about Court form a tolerable Interest) is of the utmost Importance to me, I doubt not but you'll be readily induc'd to forgive my anxious sollicitude about this most Interesting and decisive affair on the Success of which, in all human probability will greatly depend my future welfare or Misery, and will certainly be my derniere resource for making a vigorous push in the Military, on which, my heart is so much set —

In the happy Event of your Succeeding I would be extremely glad to receive the Letters open or under flying Seals that the General may be the more easily prevail'd on — and that no Time may be lost McNeil or Weedon will immediately send a Servant or an Express with them —

May Heaven Bless you my dear Colonel and amply reward you for your steady and vivid Regard for

FROM CAPTAIN ROBERT STEWART.

LEWIS'S PLANTATION Decem<sup>r</sup> 14th 1762MY DEAR COLL<sup>o</sup>.

I a few days ago had the pleasure to receive your obliging favour from Hoe's Ferry and am under the greatest concern for the return of your Lady's Indisposition, I would fain hope that the skill of the Faculty, your return and the excellent Weather will effect her recovery and perfectly reestablish her Health an acco<sup>t</sup> of which would afford me immense Joy — After rec<sup>t</sup> of yours I lost no Time in endeavouring to procure some of the Disbanded Soldiers to undertake your work in the manner you mention but so intoxicated were they with their temporary Liberty and the enjoyment of a few Shillings they had just rec<sup>d</sup> & which they were squandering in riot and Drunkenness that they were quite deaff to all proposals of that nature — M<sup>r</sup> Lewis whose Plantation is within  $\frac{1}{2}$  Mile of the Ground on which we were encamp't could not for double Price prevail upon any of them to get a few Rails of which he was in great want, they swore they would not strike a stroke for any man till they should partake of the Christmass Frolicks, and then perhaps some of them would call upon you, however I with some difficulty prevail'd upon the Bearer Allen (who has been at Redstone Creek ever since Campaign 58) to wait upon you, in order to view the Ground in your Garden and propose the Terms upon w<sup>ch</sup> he will Serve you in Quality of Gard<sup>r</sup> But with this Preliminary article of not Settling till after the approaching Holydays —

I yesterday Evening by M<sup>r</sup> Posey rec<sup>d</sup> your extreme kind favour from Williamsburgh and am really at loss for words to convey adequate Ideas of that pure Regard & genuine Gratitude your firm and uninterrupted Goodness has indelibly impress'd in my heart which is replete and will over flow with the warmest sentiments of the most exalted Esteem for you my best of Friends & dearest of acquaintances, Your own Letter is drest in that Stile and exhibits that ease candour and energy that clearly evinces it's proceeding immediately from the heart and is perfectly adapted to answer the Intention in the most efficacious manner — there are two Expressions in the Govern<sup>s</sup> which I apprehend must take of the force and in a great measure destroy the end of a Recommendation, But as you Justly observe the Peace which will probably be concluded before I can make use of it will render every effort of this Nature ineffectual.

You no doubt have heard that the Assembly has given each Field Officer £100 — each Capt<sup>t</sup> 75 & each Sub: £50 for the Expençe they were at in Field Equipage & given all Six Months Pay — that they are to address The Throne in our Behalf & to grant a Sum to defray the Expençe of the Officers that may be appointed to present the Address. Public rewards of Military Services conferr'd in so in genteel a manner must in future Wars be productive of the most happy consequences — I am told that B—t<sup>1</sup> according to his wonted modesty deems himself a proper person to present the address — for my part tho' I had previously determin'd on going home, yet a conscious inability of conducting <sup>myself</sup> with that propriety and address the representative of a Corps should display deterr'd me from dropping the most distant hint even to my greatest Intimates in the Regim<sup>t</sup> — So many favourable Circumstances must concur to attract the notice of the Great so many difficulties to be encounter'd which I fear a Peace will make quite insuperable and leave no glimmering Ray of hope for getting any thing done for the whole — Major M<sup>c</sup>Neill is daily expected with the Cash whenever he arrives I will set out for Head Quarters & will soon be able to determine whether I shall continue a Soldier or recommence Mohair,<sup>1</sup> in the Event of a Peace, I think the latter will be the most eligible as then in the Military way even hope the unfortunate's last comfort will be cut off — I believe I need not say with how much reluctance I must leave the Country without enjoying even a single hour's Conversation with him I of all others esteem the most to prevent this misfortune I as long as I possibly could carefully avoided going to Fredericksb<sup>g</sup> at length the Col<sup>o</sup> S<sup>r</sup> illness at disbanding of the Reg<sup>t</sup> indispensably requir'd my going over 2 or 3 Times therefore would not run the most distant risque of a mere possibility of conveying the Infection to any of that Family whose happiness will ever be dear to me — God knows my dear Col<sup>o</sup> if ever we shall meet again but this I am absolutely certain off that the longest absence will not diminish that pure Affection & superlative Regard I have for you & I am too

FROM CAPTAIN ROBERT STEWART.

MY DEAR COL<sup>o</sup>

Two Days ago I arrived here, after a tedious Journey render'd doubly disagreeable by the excessive badness of the Roads & the extreme rigour of the weather, I was detain'd three Days at the River Susquhana, which was fill'd with such quantitys of driving Ice, as to make it impracticable for Boats, it at length shut up, and I at some risque cross'd upon the Ice. —

On my arrival at this place, I immediately waited upon Gen<sup>l</sup> Monckton, who I found the same warm Friend I left him, he prevented my application, by enquiring what my Plan was, regretted my being so long unprovided for, and in the genteelest manner offer'd his best offices in promoting the Success of whatever I might deem the most eligible, I therefore without reserve communicated my Intentions to him, which he approv'd off, and instantly applied in person to Sir Jeffery for his leave, for my going to London, where I shall carry G. M<sup>s</sup> warmest Recommendations: my Plan is, to propose to the Ministry (amongst whom I hope to find 2 good friends in Lord Bute and M<sup>r</sup> Charles Townsend) to raise in America at my own Expence a Battalion of 5 Comp<sup>ys</sup> on condition of being made Major Commandant & having the appointment of the Officers which of late have been the common Terms, and however aspiring this may appear, yet I am assur'd by the most knowing here that the great demand for Men (for all thoughts of a Peace seems now to have vanish'd) the insuperable difficulties of getting them at home, the powerful Recommendations I shall carry with me, my Rank in the best of Provincial Corps, long Services &c<sup>a</sup> so well attested and strongly enforc'd, will more than probably secure the Success of my Plan — You'll by this Time pronounce me too sanguine, But allow me my dear Sir to assure you that Series of Disappointments sometimes when my hopes were rais'd to the highest pinnacle by the most flattering Prospect of Success have convinc'd me beyond any possibility of doubt how incompatible with reason & repugnant to common Prudence it would be to place my happiness on any unattain'd terrestrial Blessing however alluring & near it may appear, yet as this yields a good probability I am willing to essay one vigorous Effort, and if I should not arrive at the summit of my views I may perhaps reach a Comp<sup>y</sup>

at the worst I can get a Purchass there with more facility than here; I am therefore getting in readiness to embark with the next Packet which will ('tis imagin'd Sail in about ten days) — I hope I need not tell you how happy you will make me by charging me with the execution of any thing you may have to do in London: I have tolerable knowledge of most things you can want from thence, and I am certain that none can take greater care in executing them well, as the immense pleasure of obeying the Commands of the Person I so highly revere, will infinitly more than compensate for any pains it's possible to be taken Your Letters will find me by the underneath Direction — I beg my warmest Compl<sup>ts</sup> & most hble Respects to Your Lady and Family, Could my most ardent Wishes or anything else within the utmost limit of my ability avail, nothing should be wanting to completion of your Joint Felicity, which will always promote mine God Bless You My dear Colonel & believe me ever to be with the most exalted Regard

MY DEAR COL<sup>o</sup>:

On the 18th of Jan<sup>y</sup> I did myself the pleasure to write you a long Letter from hence, which by Post I sent under Cover to M<sup>r</sup>: Ramsay at Alexandria, and which I hope has long since got to hand, In that I inform'd you of the Plann I had form'd for my Promotion, the encouragement I met with, and the high probability there was of Success ; for sometime thereafter my affairs under the auspices of Gen<sup>l</sup>: Monckton wore a very promising aspect, and the different Steps previously necessary and leading to the commencement of my Operations were by his good Offices so far effected that I would have been ready to have embark'd with the first Packet when the dire acco<sup>ts</sup> of the Cessation Thunder'd on my disconcerted Mind and at once annihilated my Plann and Blasted my well grounded hopes, an event the more alarming to me, as <sup>at</sup> that Juncture it was so unexpected that the most sagacious here made no doubt of our Serving at least another Campaign,<sup>1</sup> which would have done for me, But as despondency can be of no Service and is often the mark of a weak mind, I would be willing like the drowning man to exert the remains of my enfeebled Strength in strug-

ling against the stream of adversity and as I foresaw the impossibility of getting anything done for me here I persever'd in the resolution I had taken of going home where I am told I shall have a much better chance to Purchass a Comp<sup>y</sup> or if that should fail a Civil Employment, But my leave of absence has for various assign'd reasons been put off from Time to Time tho' that Gen<sup>l</sup> M<sup>r</sup> applied in person no less than three different Times — By my long detention here (where I am Subjected to an inevitable Expence I can very ill bear) I have not only lost perhaps the best opp<sup>y</sup> for applying at home, but lost an opp<sup>y</sup> of embarking on a Commercial Scheme, which my Mercantile Friends had a considerable Time ago concerted, and which I was either to have enter'd on or declin'd by the 1st of last Feb<sup>y</sup> You may perhaps think I ought to have Sold out or Resign'd — the 1st impossible as none will Buy in the Americans till their Fate is knowen and as to the 2<sup>d</sup> when you consider that what I expect for my Lieu<sup>y</sup> must constitute a very considerable part of the Pittance I have to depend on, I'm persuaded you will think that a measure repugnant to prudence, so that I am oblig'd to make a Virtue of a necessity & wait with Patience — I am assur'd that the next Packet (which is daily expected) will bring Orders for the arrangement of the Troops & C<sup>a</sup> & that I then will most certainly go home, where I will too probably stand in great need of that aid which you have often been Pleas'd to offer with that Polite candour and sincere warmth peculiar to genuine Friendship, which I with the less difficulty prevail upon myself to use as all Danger of Death (except in the common way) is now over & consequently yields me a much fairer Prospect of reimbursing you than I had in the war. But as I am not certain that I shall have reason for it the Favour I would now Beg is that you will be so good as to give me a Letter of Credit upon your Correspondent in London for Four Hundred Pounds Sterling in case I should want it,<sup>1</sup> You may probably be surpris'd at my now applying for more than I did 3 years ago, to remove which, I will only inform you that Cap<sup>t</sup>. Wood one of Gen<sup>l</sup>. M<sup>rs</sup>. aid de Camps who arriv'd from London a few Days ago says that the price of Comp<sup>ys</sup> rose £500 — before he came away and this you may absolutely rely on, that I will take up as little as I can upon your Letter & that no Expedient consistent with hon<sup>r</sup> will [be] left unessay'd to Pay you as soon as possible, But as all human affairs are precarious I would likewise beg that the Sum I may Draw upon you for may be so enter'd in your Books that in the Event of your Death (which I pray Heaven may long prevent) your Heirs would not have it in their Power to distress me, One Copy of the Letter of Credit to be sent by first Ship from Virginia under Cover to me

Both your favours of the 27th April & 2<sup>d</sup> May, Covering your Bills for £302 — — Ster<sup>s</sup> I rec<sup>d</sup> from M<sup>r</sup> Robinson last week and would have instantly acknowledg'd the rec<sup>t</sup> of them but that I knew the Bearer would set out for Virginia in a few days which is a better and perhaps a safer conveyance than by Post

the irregularity of which I have long since been convinc'd off — But where shall I find words to convey an adequate Idea of those emotions which your most Affectionate Letters has caus'd in a heart replete with the most lively Sentiments of genuine Gratitude or how can I sufficiently admire that exalted Friendship which absence the bane of common Friendships encrease, which is invigorated by difficulties, and shines with additional lustre when put to the severest trial? — the most pleasing reflections certainly result from viewing that uncommon Species of happiness I enjoy in having such a Friend, yet it gives me the deepest concern that my unhappy Situation in Life forc'd me to do what has Subjected you to many inconveniencies to lessen them in some degree I will leave no expedient unessay'd and will not use the Bills for myself till every thing else has fail'd

Since my last I have not been able to get any thing done I have been put off from the arrival of one Packet to another at length was told that I must remain here till the distribution and arrangement of the Troops arrives for which there is yet no Order tho' a man of war with them has been for some time expected — had Sir Jeff. told General Monckton when he first applied for me that I could not go home I would have sold out which I could then have done without much difficulty and in all probability would 'ere now have either been provided for in the Service or Settled in Business But by giving me hopes from Time to Time he has not only involv'd me in that perplexity inseperable from uncertainty but Subjected me to a very heavy Expence a great part of which I might have shunn'd by going into the Country could I have foreseen that my stay in this very extravagant place would have been near so long — my Recommendations grown obsolete, the Time for Military Promotion gone I fear never to return in my Time — a Commercial Plann my Mercantile Friends had concerted for me defeated by my not being able to engage in it at or near the Time stipulated for its commencement in fine I have too much reason to dread that his extraordinary procrastination will be productive of very fatal consequences to me But it seems Fortune is not yet tir'd of persecuting me I must therefore submit and endeavour to bear it with all the firmness I can, use all means and strain every nerve to extricate myself out of this accursed State of Attendance & Dependance worse than no Life —

We have nothing new or entertaining here — General Monckton has obtain'd his Majesty's permission to visit his native Country 'tis thought that he will soon return to relieve Gen<sup>l</sup> Amherst in the supreme Command who they say has likewise applied for leave to go home I wish to God he had been gratified in his desire some time ago — All the Officers of the Army here are extremely impatient for the arrival of the man of war, those of the old Regiments in a State of uncertainty with regard to their destination and those of the young Regiments as to their Fate — Whenever I know what is to become of me which a short time must now determine I will do myself the pleasure to write you and in the mean Time I beg you'll be pleas'd to offer my Respectfull

Complements in the warmest and most Obliging manner to your Lady and Family that Heaven may Bless you and them with every requisite of happiness are his most fervent wishes who is and ever will be with supreme Regard and Esteem

It is said that the Savages of some of the back Countries have cut off one of our small Posts near Lake Huron Garrisond by 15 R. FROM CAPTAIN ROBERT STEWART.

MY DEAR SIR

I had the extreme pleasure to receive your very Affect<sup>e</sup> Favour Covering your 2<sup>d</sup> Sett of Bills —

From the Date of my last I was kept in daily expectations of getting leave to go to England, and put off writing to you in hopes I should have been able to have wrote you something decisive with regard to my affairs, but Sir Jeff always found new reasons for my detention, I could not by any means obtain his Liberty, nor did he give me an absolute denial, but kept me in the most painfull suspence, and disagreeable attendance, from the middle of last Jan<sup>y</sup> till the latter end of last Month, at length when I little expected it he gave me his leave in writing accompanied by a heap of Friendly professions (which I set down for nothing) and as the place where I had suffer'd so much uneasiness had long since become perfectly disagreeable to me I embrac'd the earliest opp<sup>y</sup> of getting away, and arriv'd here yesterday to take my Passage in a Ship which I was told would sail in a few days for London but I find that none will sail from hence in less than three weeks, for that place where I still continue determ'd to make a vigourous effort for a Comp<sup>y</sup> I readily foresee the most insuperable difficulties with which the Peace has obstructed the road to Military preferment But as I think I can rely upon Gen<sup>l</sup> Monckton's Interest and some others of distinction and as the necessary Regulations for the due Government of the Conquered Countries will occasion a number of new Appointments both Civil and Military I would fain hope I shall be able to procure something genteel at any rate it is my last resource — should I fail the attempt will indeed be <sup>against</sup> me but in my situation I think it would be timidity rather than prudence not to make a Trial —

The Engineers Gordon and Basset are <sup>here</sup> and present their Compl<sup>ts</sup> to you they have both obtain'd leave to go home ; Basset acted as aid de Camp in that very fortunate Affair near Bussie Run<sup>1</sup> and extols the firm coolness uns[h]aken intrepidity and vast alacrity of the Highlanders which compos'd that little Army even to a hyperbole — certain it is that nothing could be more fortunate for these Colonies than the hardly to be hop'd for Success of that day, as the very existence of the back Country depended on the safety of that Convoy for ('tis said) that Fort Pitt and consequently all it's dependencies must have fallen for want of Provisions and Ammunition the consequences of which especially to the midle Colonies would have been dreadfull beyond description, there may be reasons for neglecting a Post of such vast importance which was the cause of the last war and which has cost Great Britain and Her Colonies so much Bloud and Treasure to acquire and maintain and on whose safety the Lives and Properties of so many Thousands of His Majesty's Subjects depended, But Success gives the most alureing gloss even to the most egregious Blunders<sup>2</sup> —

<sup>1</sup> Immediately after peace was concluded with France in 1763, there was a general uprising of the western tribes of Indians, who, after capturing nearly all the frontier forts, united in a fierce attack upon Fort Pitt. Captain Ecuyer, in command there, held the fort under an exhausting blockade for over a month. Colonel Bouquet, who was sent to his relief, was attacked by, but overcame, the savages at Bushy Run, within twenty miles of Fort Pitt, near the headwaters of Turtle Creek.

<sup>2</sup> " Things being in that situation I received orders to march with the above troops, the only force the General could collect at that time for the relief of this fort [Fort Pitt], which was in great want of provisions, the little flour they had being damaged.

" In that pressing danger the provinces refused to give us the least assistance. Having formed a convoy, I marched from Carlisle the 18th of July with about 460 rank and file, being the remains of the 42d and 77th regiments, many of them convalescents. I left thirty men at Bedford, and as many at Ligonier, where I arrived on the 2d instant. Having no intelligence of the enemy, I determined to leave the waggons at

The noble expedient they have fallen on in Virg<sup>a</sup> to employ the Militia in order to save Money and perform actual Service would do hon<sup>r</sup> to the most sublime Military genius and I think exceeds even the wise heads of the Assembly here — Some torgid accounts of the mighty Atchievements of S<sup>s</sup> 1 Parties have already reach'd this place, but his Letters do not make that impression they used to do —

I propose to go into the Country for a few weeks till the Ship gets ready in order to avoid Expences and need not say how happy you would make me by a Line by Post or otherwise, In the mean Time I beg my most Respectfull and Affect<sup>e</sup> Compl<sup>ts</sup> to your Lady and Family & ever am with the highest Esteem & most perfect regard that post, and to proceed with 400 horses, loaded with flour, to be less incumbered in case of an action.

“I left Ligonier on the 4th, and on the 5th instant, at 1 o'clock P. M., after marching seventeen miles, we were suddenly attacked by all the savages collected about Fort Pitt. I shall not enter into the detail of that obstinate action, which lasted till night, and beginning early the 6th continued till 1 o'clock when at last we routed them. They were pursued about two miles, and so well dispersed that we have not seen one since; as we were excessively distressed by the total want of water, we marched immediately to the nearest spring without enquiring into the loss of the enemy, who must have suffered greatly by their repeated and bold attacks in which they were constantly repulsed. Our loss is very considerable. Of the 42d: Captain-Lieutenant Graham, Lieutenant McIntosh, Rangers Lieutenant Randall killed. 42d: Captain John Graham, Lieutenant Dun Campbell wounded. 77th: Lieutenant Donald Campbell. Volunteer People: killed, 50; wounded, 60; in all, 110.” — Colonel Bouquet to Major Gladwin, August 28, 1763, Bouquet Papers.

On my return from the Country I happen'd to call at the Post Office to see if there was any Letters for me and to my great surprise found the Inclos'd which I sent upwards of 5 weeks ago by an acquaintance's Servant (for I have had none of my own these six months) to the Office, the Postmas<sup>rs</sup> boy insists it was only deliver'd a few days ago and as the Gent<sup>n</sup> and his Servant is gone to the West Indies I can make nothing of it — surely such infamous neglect (to call it by no worse name) would not pass with impunity in any other part of the Globe — Since writing the Inclos'd nothing material has occur'd in this Quarter but what you must be made acquainted with before this can reach you especially as it comes by our Acquaintance M<sup>r</sup> Watson who generally finds it difficult to part with his Friends, will not therefore Trouble you with a dry Detail of Stale News —

I am told by some Officers lately from Head Quarters that the Indian Commotions begin to be look'd upon in a more serious light and that the Great Skygusta has said at his own Table that the publick will soon be satisfied with regard to these Affairs I could on this occasion be almost tempted to borrow a phrase of old Glenn's but —

DEAR SIR,

Few things give a susceptible mind more real satisfaction, than to find Oneself remember'd by those one esteems. This satisfaction I had a few days ago by receiving a very kind letter from you dated the 14th of August past. I assure you Nothing could flatter me more, as it was a proof to me of the continuance of your friendship; and Nothing give me greater pleasure, as it brought me an Account of your and M<sup>rs</sup> Washingtons Welfare.

Give me leave to thank you both for the kind congratulations you make me upon my present situation; I find it extremely Agreeable; and have never had better health or better spirits than since I came here. I took the rout of France in my journey, and made some stay at Paris. I had an Opportunity of visiting most of the King's palaces, and of seeing the cheif curiosities; I passed through the following Cities; Boulogne; Montruil, Abbeville; Amiers; Lyons, Avignon; Nismes; Montpellier; Aix; and Marseilles. Here I embarked upon the Mediterranean, and came to Leghorn by Sea; My whole journey took me up near three Months. You must not expect a description of places, for it would take up a Volume: I shall only say of Leghorn; that it is a small, neat, pretty fortified city; containing about 40,000 Inhabitants, which consist of all Nations under the Sun. I have an Excellent house here, and a comfortable Appoint-<sup>with</sup>ment. At the same time I meet <sub>^</sub>every mark of Civility and Attention. I have an Opportunity of being absent about two Months Every Summer, which will find me occasion in a few years of seeing all Italy. This last, I went to Florence, Luca, Pisa, and Pistoya: the former of these places is magnificent, and stored with the finest Curiosities in the World.

We are at present in expectation of the Duke of York; he is now at Genoa. His arrival will make this place very gay; though gayety is a thing we seldom want here; for we have Opera's, Batledo's, Music, Balls, Masques, all the Year round. Some of these things I attend now and then; but in general am too serious to keep<sup>up</sup> with the Italians; the business of their lives is amusement and dancing;<sup>1</sup> they have lost all the Spirit of the Romans, and you cannot find the least traces of the Antient Italia, except in the quickness of parts which distinguishes its Natives. However the fine Climate, fine Arts, sweet language, and remains of Antiquity, make it upon the whole so entirely to my taste, that without something very extraordinary or extremely advantageous, I shall be perfectly satisfied to continue here great part of my life. What will still add to my satisfaction will be the pleasure of hearing from my friends in America now and then, for I assure you I shall never forget them; and there is None I shall remember with More Affection than yourself and M<sup>rs</sup> Washington; I wish you both Every happiness this life can furnish, and beg leave to assure you that I

<sup>1</sup> Mr. Burnaby, in his Travels in Virginia, describes the "jiggs" of the Virginians, and notes their similarity to the "trescone" of the Tuscans. "These dances," he says, "are without any method or regularity: a gentleman and lady stand up, and dance about the room, one of them retiring, the other pursuing, then perhaps meeting, in an irregular fantastical manner. After some time, another lady must sit down, she being, as they term it, cut out: the second lady acts the same part which the first did, till somebody cuts her out. The gentlemen perform in the same manner."

FROM CAPTAIN ROBERT STEWART.

LONDON Jan<sup>y</sup> 14th 1764—

MY DEAR SIR

I was detain'd at Philadelphia some time after Date of my last to you (by M<sup>r</sup> Jo: Watson) however we at length embark'd, on the 28th of October we lost sight of the American Coast and after a Passage of 35 Days in which we had very boisterous weather and two dreadfull Storms on the French Coast from which we with the utmost difficulty escap'd Shipwreck, we arriv'd at Dover, where we gladly Landed and found the Papers fill'd with accounts of the dire effects of these tremendous Hurricanes— On my arrival here I immediately set about forming an Interest that might enable me to procure a provision in some degree adequate to my long Services and manifold disappointments in America, resolving not to attempt Purchasing till every other Expedient should fail; I had the pleasure to find Gen<sup>l</sup> Monckton, Lord Loudoun and the rest of my American Friends perfectly well dispos'd towards me, I have likewise been able to add some others of Rank and distinction to them, But these unhappy Party heats and animosities of which all here seem more or less to participate has for a Time depriv'd me of the weight & Interest of some who could have been of the utmost Service to me, in the mean Time I am so far fortunate as to get included in a Comp<sup>y</sup> of 25 Gent<sup>n</sup> most of them Officers and severals of them Men of Fortune who have Petition'd for a Grant of the very valueable Island of S<sup>t</sup> Johns Situated in the Bay of S<sup>t</sup> Lawrence between the 46th & 47th Degree of N<sup>o</sup> Latitude; the Terms propos'd is that each of the Associators shall have Twenty Thousand Acres with all Mines and Minerals therein for themselves and their Heirs forever, free from Qu[i]t Rents for ten years in which Time we oblige ourselves to Settle thereon one person for every Two hundred Acres: We have had frequent hearings before the Lords Commissioners for Trade & Plantations & have been very genteely receiv'd: This Island was deem'd the most pleasant fertile and best Cultivated in French America, its Coasts abounds with immense quantities of Fish, has two very fine Harbours viz<sup>t</sup> S<sup>t</sup> Peters and Port Joy, is extremely healthy and a great deal of Land clear'd and laid out into fine Farms, the French having upwards of fifteen hundred Families who were Settled there for many years we propose that the environs of these Harbours on which the principal Towns must stand, Likewise all the improv'd Lands shall be equally divided amongst us — Some who are well acquainted with this Island seem quite extravagant in it's praises I have been assur'd that each of the propos'd Dividends by laying out a thousand Pounds Ster<sup>s</sup> Judiciously will in ten years yield two thousand  $\text{£}$  ann: and that this Calculation is rather under than over the mark however for my part I should be very well satisfied with a  $\frac{1}{4}$ th of that Sum — certain it is this Island is deem'd very valuable and our Comp<sup>y</sup> is oppos'd by severals of high Rank & Fortune but as we applied near twelve Months before the others, have some Interest and in general merit a little notice from former Services we are assur'd that we will have the preference and that the affair will in a few weeks be Settled to our Satisfaction God knows how this affair will turn out but at present it wears an aspect that merits all the pains and expence I am at about it.

Your Bill on this place is accepted & that on Liverpool I have sent there to be negotiated be assur'd that nothing but the most pressing necessity will prevail on me to use them on my own acco: —

For News even this Metropolis affords little at present; Last night arriv'd, the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, no less renown'd for the Glory he has acquired in the Field, than the amiable Princess to whom he will in a few Days be united is celebrated for her Beauty and Virtue, the approaching Nuptials of this exalted pair takes some place in the general Conversation here which till of late was solely engross'd by Political disputes — American Affairs is become a standing Topic — It is said I'm afraid from too good authority that the Colonies will be Saddled with a Tax of no less than three hundred thousand Pounds Ster<sup>s</sup>  $\text{£}$  ann: in order to support the Troops

Judg'd necessary for their Defence — the Conduct of the late Commander in Chief in that Country is severely handled by many here, his Errors, contempt of Indians, ill tim'd parsimony, rigour and unfeeling Severity to those who Serv'd under him is expos'd to the publick by some very keene and able Pens these who have the Interest of his Majesty's Service and the good of the Colonies at heart ardently wish he may be succeeded by General Monckton whose superior Talents and consummate Military knowledge added fresh lustre to the Glory of the British arms at a period when their prowess and hon<sup>r</sup> was thought to have arriv'd at their highest Summit, and who is universally acknowledged to be the most equal to the re-establishing the prosperity of our Colonies and restoring Peace and Tranquillity to the Fronteer Inhabitants who now Groan under a complication of the most shocking Miseries — But I fear that G Monckton will not easily be prevail'd on to accept of the Command as he has refus'd it once already —

I deferr'd writing you for some time in hopes that some Ship for Virginia or Maryland would Sail soon but as I cannot hear of any that will go soon I could no longer refrain from the pleasure I enjoy in writing to you therefore I send you this by a man of war for N. York

I beg you'll tender my Respectfull Complem<sup>ts</sup> in the warmest and most obliging Terms to your Lady and Family — Cap<sup>t</sup> Wat Stewart is just arriv'd by whom I had the great pleasure to hear of your welfare that Heaven may pour down it's choicest Blessings on you & y<sup>rs</sup> and grant the completion of your

I have sent by the first opportunity the little commission I received of yours executed in the best manner I was able the S<sup>t</sup> Froine seed has never been out of my cabbin since it came on board.

Cap<sup>t</sup> Boyes having persuaded M<sup>r</sup> Cary & Co to buy or employ a very large and old ship and <sup>being</sup> pretty well informed they had laid aside all thoughts of sending a ship this year into Potomack prevented my delivering your elegant recommendatory letter for which I shall ever have the most sincere and sensible gratitude I still continue my intention of leaving this disagreeable business as soon as I can conveniently my reasons for my coming now are that I thought it better than an unsettled precarious employ or staying at home sometime idle. Inclosed with this are bills of parcels for the things the bearer has to deliver you. I have taken the liberty to desire him to leave at your house a letter and a box of goods for M<sup>r</sup> Green. Please to present my best

LEGHORN April 29th 1765. — —

DEAR SIR,

Want of Opportunity alone has prevented me from answering your obliging letter of the 10th of Augst last sooner. Indeed we have so seldom any Ships bound from this Port to America, that I am necessitated to hazard this by a very round about way and send it first to London. Believe me it gave me real pleasure to find I was still in your remembrance, and I assure you it has recalled very Agreeable Moments to me, for I have frequently in fancy been sitting, or conversing, or walking with you at Mount Vernon, since the receipt of it. I wish the Vision could be realised; or at least that you could make us a trip to Leghorn, where we would shew you a new World, with nothing so magnificent as that fine View of the Potomac except a distant prospect of the hoary and indignant Appenines, but still with many beauties and much Welcome. I have got an Excellent house, and should enjoy it more than I have ever yet done, if I could have the satisfaction of your Company, and yet I have enjoyed it not a little. To say the truth I am much pleased with my situation, and have many agreeable prospects opening upon me; if it was not for Ambition, I possibly should never be induced to quit it; but that may in all likelihood recall me to England in a few years. These last six months I have resided entirely in this City, but in the Autumn I intend to be absent for a Couple of Months in order to go to Rome and Naples. The remaining parts of Italy will lye within the Compass of my journey home whenever that may happen. — —

At present we are making great preparations here for the Arrival of the Arch-Duke and Duchess. No expense or Magnificence will be spared Upon this Occasion. The Italians have a remarkable turn for Splendor and Shew; and the Tuscans who are much the most accomplish'd People of the Whole Country, will pique themselves upon this Occasion. They are to meet first at Inspruck, and so to come on to Florence, which we expect will be about September. — —

The Corsicans in this part of the World are a Subject of very interesting Conversation, though possibly in yours they may be as little talked of, as the Indians are except by the English in this. Paoli will have no intercourse with the French garrison, nor will suffer the Islanders to supply them with any provisions. The French common soldiers desert to him in great Numbers. —

I hope your back Settlements are delivered from their troubles, and that peace, both within and without, is fully restored again. — — I lately had the pleasure of seeing Governor Ellis late of Georgia here I found him exceedingly Agreeable, and of <sup>great</sup> very abilities as well as extensive knowledge. — — I have been lately much out of order, but am now grown better, though I can't say well. — —

I will not tire you however with any further accounts of Myself. Begging therefore that you will accept of my best thanks and wishes, and that you will be so good as to present my kindest respects to M<sup>rs</sup> Washington and the Family at Belvoir, as well as any friends who may do me the honour ever to inquire after me, I conclude with the regret of taking leave of you till some future Opportunity, dear Sir —

FROM CAPTAIN ROBERT STEWART.

MY DEAR SIR

In my last which has distanced this much farther than I intended I gave you a circumstantial Detail of Lord Egmont's Plan,<sup>1</sup> the motives that induc'd us to Join him, and the various Causes that occasion'd it's overthrow; upon which, we resumed our original Claim at the Board of Trade, where it was intimated to us by the First Lord Commissioner that, had we stood upon our own Legs, we might probably 'ere then have been in possession of our Grants; But as the value and fertility of that Island, had made much noise in the Nation, and occasioned some heartburnings amongst the Great, it was indispensably necessary for the Board to proceed with Caution, and therefore, had determined to Recommend it to His Majesty that no Grants should be made till the extent and Contents of the Island could be exactly ascertained; for which purpose, they had sent out Cap<sup>t</sup> Holland (Surveyor general for America) with four Assistants to make an exact Survey of it, after which (by their Orders) the whole is to be laid off

<sup>1</sup> While men were taken up with the politics of the age, there was a Minister so smitten with the exploded usages of barbarous times, that he thought of nothing less than reviving the feudal system. This was the Earl of Egmont (John Perceval, second Earl of Egmont), who had actually drawn up a plan for establishing that absurd kind of government in the island of St. John. He printed several copies of his scheme, and sent them about to his brother peers. And so little were they masters of the subject, and so great was the inattention of the Ministry to the outlying parts of our empire, that his Lordship, in the following year, had prevailed with the Council to suffer him to make the experiment, if General Conway had not chanced to arrive at Council and expose the folly of such an undertaking, which occasioned its being laid aside. Lord Egmont was such a passionate admirer of those noble tenures and customs, that he rebuilt his house at Enmere in Sommersetshire in the guise of a castle, moated it round, and prepared it to defend itself with cross-bows and arrows, against the time in which the fabric and use of gunpowder shall be forgotten. — Walpole's Memoirs.

into Lots of twenty thousand Acres, as near in value with respect to soil and situation as it will admit of, and if practicable each to contain some part of the improved Lands and Sea Coast, as the Island is long and narrow, no part of it being 15 Miles from Navigation, and the French Inhabitants having settled in a very Detach'd manner these Instructions can with the more facility be in a great measure be obeyed, however to avoid every inconvenience of that kind as much as possible, Each Adventurer is to have a small Lot for Warehouses &c. either on Port-Joy or St: Pierre the principal Harbours, where Towns are to be built, the Lots to be mark'd and Number'd upon the Map, Cap<sup>t</sup> Holland is to make of the Island, and to be drawn for by the Adventurers or, their Agents, at the Board of Trade; the last acco<sup>ts</sup> the Board rec<sup>d</sup> from Cap<sup>t</sup> Holland he was in hopes to finish his Survey by the First of next Month so that by the last of October we may expect that this very tedious affair which has cost, so much Time, trouble, attendance and expence will be finally adjusted I flatter myself to our advantage and satisfaction —

I fear you will think it strange that I should so readily have engaged in a Land Scheme, and under a number of Difficulties so long persever'd in what must appear to you not only incompatible with my views in the Army to which I was almost an enthusiast, but, repugnant to my former Sentiments of Life, But some of my Friends here so clearly shewed the great and almost immediate advantages that must result from Settling in a Fertile Island water'd with fine Rivers which abound with Salmond and other excellent Fish, indented with commodious Har-bours, advantageously situated for an extensive Commerce, particularly with Europe and the W. Indies, near the great Fish Banks where many thousands are annually employ'd, and indeed it's own Coasts swarm with such quantities of Fish particularly Cod, that the New England Fishers resort thither in Crowds, and two Ships from this place have made a Successful Voyage there — When I began to consider this affair seriously and saw that it was not Ideal, but facts evinced by the strongest testimonials it attracted my attention very closely, and confess that, the more narrowly I view'd it, the better I was satisfied, notwithstanding my settled aversion to even the appearance of Scheming — Several have applied to be interested in my Lot, (to be), and as there are some Noblemen and several Flag and General Officers some of them very opulent become Adventurers they imagine that they have Interest enough to get it form'd into a separate Government in which Event I am promised a valueable Civil Employment at any rate I am to superintend the management of four Lots besides my own for which I am to have a genteel Salary — It is proposed to carry the Mechanicks from this Country, and the Fishermen and Peasantry from Germany, Scotland and Ireland — I lik'd every part of the Plan except the very tedious Time requisite to effect those steps Judg'd previously necessary to the Commencement of our operations, which very nearly exhausted my patience, and at some periods made me think seriously of relinquishing it, particularly when the Offices for Collecting the Stamp Duties were about to be filled up, it was hinted to me by a Friend in Power that he conceiv'd it would be no[t] very difficult to obtain one of them, as a compensation for my long Services in that Country, But when I reflected that it would be giving up my prospect in S<sup>r</sup>. John's entirely for perhaps an uncertainty and at best a subsistence, in an Office that would have render'd me disagreeable to a People amongst whom I had long liv'd, and for some of whom I always did and ever will retain the warmest regard and Esteem I declined applying —

I have been the more prolix on my own little Affairs not only from a firm persuasion of that Interest in which you have long been pleased to take in my welfare, but that I look upon myself accountable that no part of my conduct should merit a diminution of that Noble and disinterested Friendship for which I have so long and Justly admir'd you and which has impress'd my heart with indelible marks of genuine Gratitude

I long vastly for the pleasure of a Letter from you, and <sup>to</sup> know how the Draining &c. of your Lake goes on, and what hopes you entertain of Success in the completion of that truly great enterprise,<sup>1</sup> not less

Here the whole Political frame has for some time been strangely agitated, by the most unexpected Revolutions; the principals of the new Administration have been for some time appointed, and their Friends are by degrees taking possession of the inferior offices, occupied by those of the late Ministry; with respect to the Abilities, Parliamentary Interest and permanency of the present, people are so much and generally divided in their opinions that time can alone discover the rectitude or fallacy of their different Sentiments which are maintained with such heat on both sides; How happy My dear Colonel are they who indepe[n]dent of all Parties

GENTLEMEN

Inclosed is the Scheme I promised you for altering the method of replevying Goods under Distress for Rent: I thought it necessary to explain fully the Land-lord's Right by the common Law, to shew that our Act of Assembly<sup>2</sup> was a mere Matter of Indulgence, & that an Alteration of it now will be no In-croachment upon the Tenant: the first part of it has very little to do with the Alteration proposed, & only inculcates a Doctrine I was always fond of promoting, & which I cou'd wish to see more generally adopted than it is like to be: the whole is indeed much longer than it might have been, but that you will excuse as a natural Effect of the very idle Life I am forced to lead. I beg you will alter such parts of it as either of you think exceptionable.

If I had the Act of Assembly obliging our Vestry to pay for the Glebe<sup>3</sup> &c. I wou'd prepare a petition for Redress, & get it signed in Time.

Wishing the Families at Belvoir & Mount Vernon all the Mirth & Happiness of the approaching Festival, I am Gent<sup>m</sup>

The policy of encouraging the Importation of free people & discouraging that of Slaves has never been duly considered in this Colony, or We shou'd not at this Day see one Half of our best Lands in most parts of the Country remain unsettled, & the other cultivated with Slaves ; not to mention the ill Effect such a practice has upon the Morals and Manners of our people: one of the first Signs of the Decay, & perhaps the primary Cause of the Destruction of the most flourishing Government that ever existed was the Introduction of great Numbers of Slaves — an Evil very pathetically described by the Roman Historians — but 'tis not the present Intention to expose our Weakness by examining this Subject too freely.

That the Custom of leasing Lands is more beneficial to the Community than that of settling them with Slaves is a <sup>maxim</sup> that will hardly be denyed in any free Country; tho' it may not be attended with so much imediate profit to the Land-holder: in proportion as it is more useful to the public, the Invitations from the Legislature to pursue it shou'd be stronger: — no Means seem so natural as securing the payment of Rents in an easy & effectual Manner: the little Trouble & Risque attending this Species <sup>of</sup> Property may be considered as an Equivalent to the greater profit arising from the Labour of Slaves, or any other precarious & troublesom Estate. The common-Law (independent of any Statute) gives the Land-lord a right to distrain upon anything on his Land for the Rent due; that is, it puts his Remedy into his own Hands: but as so unlimited a power was liable to be abused, it was found necessary to punish the Abuse by penal Statutes, made in terrorem, to preserve Justice, & prevent the Oppression which the poor might otherwise suffer from the rich, not to destroy the Land-lord's Right, which still remained unimpeached, and has not only been exercised in this Colony from its first Settlement, but has obtained in our Mother-Country from Time immemorial. Uninterrupted life

& long Experience carry with them a Conviction of general Utility.

The fluctuating State<sup>of</sup> our Trade, the Uncertainty of our Markets & the Scarcity of Money frequently render it impracticable for the Debtor to Raise Money out of his Effects to discharge a sudden & perhaps unexpected Judgement, & have introduced a Law giving the Debtor a Right to replevy his Goods under Execution by Bond with Security (approved by the Creditor) to pay the Debt & Costs with Interest in three Months; which Bonds are returnable to the Clerk's Office whence the Execution issued, to remain in the Nature of Judgements, & final Executions may be obtain'd upon them when due by a Motion to the Court, with ten Days notice to the partys. The Legislature, considering Distresses for Rents in the same Light with Executions for common Debts, has thought fit to extend the same Indulgence to them; tho' it would not be hard to shew that the Cases are by no means similar, & that the Reasons which are just in the former do not hold good in the latter: by comparing the Laws there also appears such an Inconsistency in that relating to replevin Bonds for Rent as may render the Method prescribed difficult if not impracticable; there being no previous Record (as in the Case of Executions) the Bonds do not seem properly returnable to the Clerk's Office, nor is that Matter clearly express'd or provided for in the Act. This has not hitherto been productive of much Inconvenience; tho' contrary to the Course & Spirit of the common-Law, the Land-lord may thereby be brought into a Court of Judicature before he can get the Effect of a just & legal Distress; but in our present Circumstances it will occasion manifest Injustice.

If the Officer making a Distress, upon being offered Security, refuses to take a Bond for Want of Stamp'd Paper, the Goods of the Tenant must be immediately exposed to Sale, & he deprived of the Indulgence intended by the Act of Assembly.

If the Officer takes a replevin Bond as usual, the Land-lord will lose his Rent, the Tenant then having it in his power to keep him out of it as long as he pleases, for in the present Confusion & Cessation of Judicial proceedings the Land-lord will not have an Opportunity of applying to Court for an Execution when the Bond becomes payable, or if he does, the Clerk will not venture to issue one. In either Case there is such a Hardship as calls for the Interposition of the Legislature.

These Inconveniencies it is conceived may be obviated if the Tenant, instead of replevying his Goods by Bond, had a Right to Supersede the Distress for three Months by Application to a single Magistrate, who shou'd be empowered & required, upon the Tenants producing under the Hand of the person making the Distress a Certificate of the Rent distrained for & Costs, to take from the principal & good Securitys a conditional Confession of Judgement, in the following or some such Form.

“Virginia . . . . . County ss.

“You A. B. — C. D. — & E. F. of the s<sup>d</sup> County do confess Judgement unto G. H. of the County of . . . for the Sum of . . . due unto the s<sup>d</sup> G. H. for Rent, for which Distress has been made upon the Goods of the s<sup>d</sup> A. B. and also for the sum of . . . the Costs of the s<sup>d</sup> Distress: which said sums of . . . and . . . Costs with legal Interest from the Date hereof to be levyed of Your and either of Your Bodys Goods or Chattels for the Use of the s<sup>d</sup> G. H. in Case the s<sup>d</sup> A. B. shall not pay & satisfy to the s<sup>d</sup> G. H. the said sums of . . . and . . . Costs with Interest thereon as aforesaid within three months at farthest from the Date hereof — Taken & acknowledged the . . . Day of . . . before Me one of his Majesty’s Justices of the Peace for the s<sup>d</sup> County of . . . Given under my Hand the Day & Year aforesaid. — To J. K. Sherif — or Constable (as the Case is)”

Which Confession of Judgement should restore to the <sup>Tenant</sup> his Goods, & be return'd by the Officer to the Land-lord, who at the End of the three Months (giving the partys ten Days Notice) shou'd be entitled to an Execution thereon, to be awarded by a single Magistrate also.

This Method will protect the Tenant from Oppression by confirming the Indulgence the Act of Assembly formerly gave him, at the same Time that it secures the Land-lord in the payment of his Rent, & it can hardly be objected to as giving a single Magistrate a new & dangerous Jurisdiction, when it is considered that the Application to a Court on replevin Bonds for Rent was mere Matter of Form, in which the Court cou'd exercise no judicial power, and that an Execution might as safely be awarded by a Magistrate out of Court in the Case of Rents, where (as has been before observed) there was no original Record or Jurisdiction in the Court, but by the common-Law the sole power vested in the Land-lord; who, shou'd the proposed Alteration take place, will be as liable to be punished for the Abuse of it as he was before. If the Form of the Judgement recommended is objected to as subjecting the Body to Execution in a Case where the Goods only were originally liable; let it be considered that it is at the Tenant's own Request the Nature of his Debt is changed, that when the Land-lord sues for Rent, he may upon a Judgement order a Fi: fa: or a Ca: sa: at his own Option, & that he may do the same thing in the Case of replevin Bonds.

If some such Alteration as <sup>is</sup> here proposed shou'd be thought necessary, any little Errors or Deficiencies in this Scheme may be easily corrected in drawing up the Law. —

<sup>1</sup> Captain, afterwards Colonel, William Crawford was born in Virginia about 1722. He moved with his family to Fayette County, Pennsylvania, in 1766. Captain Crawford served under Washington all through the Forbes campaign of 1758; he also took an active part in "Dunmore's War" of 1774, and in 1776 entered the Revolutionary service as lieutenant-colonel of the Fifth Virginia Regiment. As a surveyor also he held many positions of importance. In 1782 he commanded the expedition to Sandusky against the Ohio Indians, by whom he was taken prisoner, and tortured to death. His aid-de-camp on this occasion, Major John Rose (Baron Rosenthal), in a journal of the expedition, describes Colonel Crawford as "a man of Sixty and upwards. . . . In his private Life, kind and exceedingly affectionate; in his military character, personally Brave, and patient of hardships. . . . As a Commanding Officer, cool in danger, but not systematical. . . . No military Genius & no man of Letters."

It must fall, of course, in a few years, especially when those Indians consent to our occupying the lands. Any person, therefore, who neglects the present opportunity of hunting out good lands, and in some measure marking and distinguishing them for his own, in order to keep others from settling them, will never regain it." — Washington to Crawford, September 21, 1767.

<sup>2</sup> Between the Washington-Crawford Letters (edited by C. W. Butterfield), including quotations from them used as notes elsewhere, and the present publication, there are some discrepancies, as The Colonial Dames are publishing verbatim copies of original letters.

<sup>3</sup> At this period, "the Maryland back line" was a subject of controversy between the provinces of Maryland and Virginia, depending upon the question of the location of the "first fountain of the Potomac," as the line was defined to be a meridian, extending from that point to the southern boundary line of Pennsylvania. The province of Virginia claimed all the territory west of the head of the south branch, while Maryland

DEAR SIR

With particular pleasure I acknowledge the receipt of your favour of the 21st Sept<sup>r</sup> but know not when it may meet with a Safe conveyance, I shall detain the letter a little, and if none appear, shall risque it by the way of Winchester or Philde<sup>a</sup>

Your Information that part of the Lands on the Yaughyaughgheny & Monongahela formerly conceived to lie within the bounds of y<sup>r</sup> Governm<sup>t</sup> is now likely to fall within the Limits of Pennsylvania may I think prove very true; but that part of it that respects the making of Entries or issuing Grants at Carlisle, is entirely vauge & without foundation, that Office being alwaies restricted to Philadelphia & kept by the Proprietaries Secretary (at present James Tilghman Esq<sup>r</sup>) who in extraordinary Cases consults the Governor & Board of Property — w<sup>ch</sup> Board are only Assistants to the Governor he being Sole Commissioner of Property, nor is the Governor himself as yet by any means at Liberty to grant any Lands insisted that her territory extended as far west as the head of the north branch. As in neither case would it be beyond "the mountain," Crawford could, with propriety, declare there was "nothing to be feared from it." — BUTTERFIELD.

<sup>1</sup> Major-General John Armstrong was born in Ireland in 1720, and died at Carlisle, Pa., March 9, 1795. He emigrated to Pennsylvania between the years 1745 and 1748, and settled in the Kittatinny valley. He was by profession a surveyor, and in that capacity rendered many important services to the Colony. In 1756 he entered the military life as a private soldier, and steadily rose, until, on June 5, 1777, he was commissioned Major-General and Commander of the Pennsylvania troops. Previous to the Revolution he performed many important services in expeditions against the Indians. In November, 1778, he was elected a member of Congress. A fort erected at Kittanning in 1779 was named in his honor, and in 1800 a new county was designated Armstrong County. He was the father of General John Armstrong, Secretary of War under Madison.

beyond the Aleghany Mountains until they are first purchas'd of the Six Nation Indians which purchase has been on foot for some time past & its said will be concluded by Sir W<sup>m</sup> Johnston this ensuing Spring or Summer, at which time 'tis<sup>also</sup> said Sir W<sup>m</sup> will make a Purchase on behalf of the Crown, of larger extent than the limits of Pensylvania, perhaps West of Virginia, but of this I have no certainty — so that<sup>at</sup> present Sir, you may firmly depend that nothing cou'd be farther attempted than a distant or conditional application to Governor Penn for a Tract or two on them Waters when the Purchase shall be confirm'd, which done in your Polite manner & under good pretensions too, I'm persuaded cou'd give no Offense, nor easily fail of Success — and if any Offices of mine either on the present or any other Occasion, may be of the least use I beg you wou'd freely command them, as they are now tendered and shall be chearfully employed as often as you shall give me leave. and perhaps on the first opportunity I have of going to Town I may take the Liberty of feeling his Hon<sup>rs</sup> Pulse at least assist the foundation for any application you may afterwards think proper to make

As to the mode of taking up or having Lands granted in our Province, it has been considerably loose — the general intention of the Proprietaries has been a Competant Plantation of 2, or 300 acres to each Settler more especially since the Government became populous; but their Rule for various reasons has not been generally adher'd to, nor cou'd it well be, and however just in itself as a general guide, has been much eluded especially of late when the Artifice of borrowing Names, or taking Out Warrants & Orders of Survey in the Names of other People as tho' they were for their use & afterward procuring conveyances from those whose names they had made use of, has so much prevail'd y<sup>t</sup> many & not the most deserving has ingross'd large quantities. this occasion'd some noise among the populace, has made the Governor and Agents very uneasy & indeed prevents the moderate gratification of many deserving persons to whom some distinction is due; for the cry is that we shall have no strong Settlements backward because of those ingrossers. In locating of Lands we generally describe the Spot as nearly as we can, and the Surveys are expected to be made as regular as the nature of the Land will <sup>way</sup> any<sub>Λ</sub> admit, that is by a four lin'd figure in order to prevent Culling, but our Mountanious Country Seldom admits a regular Survey, and the discretion of the Surveyor must take place.

As to the expence of our Proprietary Land the terms are now somewhat different from what they have been, £15.,10<sup>s</sup> Currency consideration Money  $\text{⌘}$  hundred Acres & one halfpenny Sterling  $\text{⌘}$  Acre ground Rent per Annum, has formerly been the price, but latterly they have fix'd the Consideration money per hundred Acres only at £5 Sterling & the yearly Quit Rent is rais'd to One penny Sterling  $\text{⌘}$  Acre — what the Next purchase beyond the Mountains may be I cannot tell but immagin it will be on the terms last described above, as landed people seldom come down Stairs, and indeed there are so many desirous of taking up lands, that they know very well that their terms will be comply'd with tho' so distant from trade & other conveniences of life. In regard to the line now running betwixt us and Mary-land — it will very probably be establish'd, but that in my opinion, must at least be pronounc'd by the Commissioners on each Side the question, or perhaps be confirm'd by the Partys on the other Side the Atlantick before it be a final boundary to these provinces, and how far y<sup>t</sup> consideration may happen to retard the grant of Lands near y<sup>e</sup> line may be questionable. I know a Certain Case depending near the line, where neither Province at present, seem willing to assume the Jurisdiction.<sup>1</sup> I'm sorry these Subjects had not happen'd to Occur when Hast the pleasure of seeing you — but here permit a <sup>Single</sup> remark flowing from Old friendship, and it shall be on the infatuating Game of Card-playing, of which on thirty years observation I am not able to say so much good, as a witty person once did of what he Censur'd as a Culpable & extravagant piece of Dress that it cover'd a multitude of Sins; but that game always unfriendly to Society, turns conversation out of Doors, and curtails our opportu-

MY DEAR SIR

In my last from London I gave you a detail of the various schemes I had form'd and of the great disappointments I had experienced in endeavouring to carry them into execution, I was at length appointed Comptroller of his Majesty's Customs in this place, an Office which I was inform'd was a very reputable one and worth at least a thousand Sterling £ ann : the first part of the information I found Just, but I have the mortification to find that the value of my Office is by the opening the free Ports in this Island and by some late regulations in the Revenues diminished near a half : however even what I enjoy would in some Countries do very well for a Batchelor in my way but in this extravagant and very expensive place where all the necessaries and most of the conven-

<sup>1</sup> In 1767-68, another savage war menaced the colonists on account of the dissatisfaction of the Indians in regard to the encroachments on their lands. At Sir William Johnson's suggestion, a great council was held at Fort Stanwix in the latter part of October, 1768, at which over two thousand Indians were present, besides the governors of several of the colonies. A treaty was here concluded on November 5, in which the Six Nations relinquished their claim to all the land within a boundary extending from near Lake Ontario, at the junction of Canada and Wood Creeks, to Owego on the Susquehanna, thence through Pennsylvania, Maryland, etc., to the mouth of the Tennessee. This was called the New Purchase.

SIR

I think myself much obliged to You for the flattering Preference given Me, in thinking Me a proper person to undertake the Direction of Master Custis's Education. And I will not hesitate to confess to You, that it wou'd mortify Me not a little to be deprived of so acceptable an Opportunity of obtaining some Credit to myself: which I flatter myself there wou'd be no Danger of, from so promising a Youth. — Yet I am under a Necessity of informing You of a Circumstance in my affairs which may probably lead You to look out for another Tutor for your Ward. — Preferments in the Church in Virginia are so extremely scanty, that I have for some time been endeavouring to establish an Interest in Maryland, where, I doubt not but You know, the Livings are much better. I happened to be in Annapolis, chiefly upon this Business, at the Time your Letter reach'd this Place: and tho' I have already met with two Disappointments, yet, I have received fresh Promises that I shall now soon be provided for. If This happens at all, as I have all y<sup>e</sup> Reason in y<sup>e</sup> World to believe that it will, the Parish I expect is That of Annap<sup>s</sup>, where also I propose to continue superintending the Education of a few Boys.

<sup>1</sup> Jonathan Boucher was born in England, March 12, 1738. In early youth he came to America as tutor to the sons of a Virginia planter, and in 1762 entered the Anglican ministry. He seems, however, to have had an especial fondness for his early profession, as he continued to practice it after taking orders, and carried on a boarding-school of from thirty to forty boys. John Parke Custis became his pupil in 1768, at fourteen years of age, and remained under his charge for several years. Dr. Boucher was an avowed loyalist, and so offensive were his tenets to the colonists that in 1775 he was obliged to return to England, where he was appointed vicar of Epsom. He died there April 27, 1804.

Now, Sir, it will be necessary for You to consider, whether in Case such a Change sh<sup>d</sup> take Place, it w<sup>d</sup> be agreeable to You that Mast<sup>r</sup> Custis shou'd accompany Me thither: for, otherwise I can hardly suppose You will think it worth his While to come down hither, probably, for a few Months only. For my Part, I cannot help imagining that You will think Annap<sup>s</sup> a more eligible Situation, as it is, I believe, rather more convenient to You, & a Post Town from whence You might have Letters, if necessary, every Week to Alexandria. But This is a matter on which You alone ought to judge, & in which perhaps it becomes not Me to give my Opinion. All I have to add, is, that sh<sup>d</sup> You resolve, at all Events, to trust the young Gentleman to my Care, either Here or in Maryland, I will exert my best Endeavours to render him worthy of Yours, & his Family's Expectations. And as He is now, as You justly observe, losing

Time, wou'd it be amiss to send Him down immediately, if it were only upon Tryal, as I presume He has never yet been remov'd from under the Wing of his Parents: You will then, from his own Reports of Me, & my Management of my Pupils, be better able to judge of the Propriety of continuing <sup>Him</sup> with Me. And tho' it be usual for Boys to find their own Beds, in this Case, that wou'd be unnecessary: I will furnish Him for the little Time He will have to stay before I know what my Destiny is to be. As to Terms &c, these may be sett'd hereafter: all I shall now say of Them is, that, from what I have heard of Coll<sup>o</sup> Washington's Character, They are such as I am well convinc'd He will not think unreasonable.

ago, yet as You seem'd desirous to hear from Me as soon as possible, & as Coll<sup>o</sup> Lewis now informs Me that He can furnish Me with an Opp<sup>ty</sup> directly to your House, I am desirous to convince You, that I have not been inattentive to the Matter of y<sup>r</sup> Request. In my former L<sup>t</sup>, I have inform'd You of my Expectations of removing shortly to Annap<sup>s</sup>, where I propose also to continue to take Care of a few Boys, & have left it to Y<sup>r</sup>self to judge whether, in that Case, it wou'd be agreeable to You & M<sup>rs</sup> Washington, that Mast<sup>r</sup> Custis sh<sup>d</sup> accompany Me thither, as, unless He shou'd, I imagin'd You wou'd hardly think it worth while to send Him abroad to a School, w<sup>c</sup> may probably be broke up in a very few Months. I added also, that sh<sup>d</sup> You approve of This, I shou'd be glad He might come down hither, in the manner You have propos'd, immediately; which, I suppose, He may easily do, as there will be no Occasion for his making much Preparation; since, if I sh<sup>d</sup> be so unfortunate as to be again disappointed in Maryland, & be obliged to remain still where I now am, it will be as easy for You hereafter to furnish Him wth any thing He may happen to want: and in the mean Time, it will be no Inconvenience to Me to let Him use one of my Beds &c — And This is all, or nearly all, I yet have it in my Power to give You for Ans<sup>r</sup>: I sincerely wish the Uncertainty of my present Prospects wou'd allow Me to speak more positively.

Ever since I have heard of Mast<sup>r</sup> Custis, I have wish'd to call Him one of my little Flock; and I am not asham'd to confess to You, that, since the Rec<sup>t</sup> of y<sup>r</sup> Letter, I have wish'd it much more. Engag'd as I have now been for upwards of seven Years in the Education of Youth, You will own it must be mortifying to Me to reflect, that I cannot boast of having had the Hon<sup>r</sup>: to bring up one Scholar. I have had, 'tis true, Youths, whose Fortunes, Inclinations & Capacities all gave Me Room for y<sup>e</sup> most pleasing Hopes: yet I know not how it is, no sooner do They arrive at that Period of Life when They might be expected more successfully to apply to their Studies, than They either marry, or are remov'd from School on some, perhaps even still, less justifiable Motive. You, S<sup>r</sup>: however, seem so justly sensible of y<sup>e</sup> vast Importance of a good Education that I cannot doubt of your heartily concurring in every Plan that might be propos'd for y<sup>e</sup> Advantage of y<sup>r</sup>: Ward: And what I am more particularly pleased with; is, the ardent Desire You express for y<sup>e</sup> Cultiva<sup>n</sup> of his moral, as well as his intellectual Powers, I mean that He may be made a Good, as well as <sup>learned & a</sup> sensible Man. ALEXANDRIA July the 20th 1768 —

DEAR SIR

I have received your favor of the 20th and am the more confirmed in the Opinion I had of Doctor Savage's being fully persuaded that his Wife really & sincerely desires the Relinquishment of the Bond, and therefore am not<sup>at</sup> all surprised that he should in such case desire it also. The Week before the last she sent to me desiring that I would make a demand for the money, and also that I would ~~make~~ meet her at Greenhill, and by the return of the Messenger I wrote to M<sup>r</sup>: Savage & in plain terms told him that his Wife was averse to the giving up the Bond, and that I informed him of it to save him any further trouble about it, and<sup>y<sup>t</sup></sup> I might not be under any Necessity of giving another Refusal; at the same time making a Demand for the Money due. When I met her on Thursday last she shewed me my Letter to the D<sup>r</sup>: and told me it had given her vast uneasiness, and gave me to understand that she was notwithstanding to ask me again for the Bond at that meeting; which must certainly in my opinion be her own proposal to him. I told her I wished the Bond was given up, being heartily tired of it, and again begged of her to be frank & candidly own her Sentiments, which she seemed to promise; but ~~in~~ the manner in which she proposed to declare her Sentiments, convinces me that she will not own her real Inclination, and moreover makes me doubtful whether she will not deny that she ever expressed her Desire to keep the Bond—I see nothing to blame in him about it, for it is very reasonable that <sup>he</sup> should join with her Desire to obtain it, but from some circumstances I am apt to think he looks upon me as interested, and for that reason if you have no Objection I should be glad if you would also satisfie him with regard to her real Inclination that we may be no more plagued about it. Upon proviso however that you believe with me that she is in no fear of her Life, which is the only thing which can excuse her present Conduct.

I shall be very glad of your Company at Towlston when it is convenient to spend three or four days or more — I can't say my hounds are good enough to justifie an Invitation to hunt, but out of that Regard I have always entertained & which I perceive encreases with Time I shall be extremely glad of your Company and we may then partake of that diversion or not as it may seem agreeable; in the former Case a change of dress would be very necessary. Since I wrote to you last I have <sup>reced</sup> a Letter from D: Savage wherein he says that his Wife acknowledges that she had once in a discontented Mood expressed a Dislike to parting with the Bond, but that she had fully convinced me at our last meeting of her earnest desire to relinquish it: At the same time M<sup>rs</sup> Savage also wrote to me begging a thousand pardons of you & me for the trouble she had given us, and mentions her Intention of going to Ireland immediately, and desires the Bond may be given up. St MARY'S August 2<sup>d</sup> 1768.

SIR

I do not recollect that Mast<sup>r</sup> Custis has had any Return of y<sup>e</sup> Pain in his Stomach which I told You I suspected to be occasioned by Worms: but as it is but too probable that He may have a little of the Ague & Fever in This or y<sup>e</sup> next Month, this Complaint, it is not unlikely, may return; and if it does, in any considerable degree, D<sup>r</sup> Mercer shall be consulted.

Mast<sup>r</sup> Custis is a Boy of so exceedingly mild & meek a Temper, that I meant no more by my Fears, than a Doubt that possibly He might be made uneasy by y<sup>e</sup> rougher Manners of some of his School fellows. I am pleas'd, however, to find that He seems to be perfectly easy & happy in his new Situation; and as the first Shock is now over, I doubt not but He will continue so. You know how much the Question has been agitated between y<sup>e</sup> Advantages of a private & a public Educat<sup>n</sup>: & this young G-man has afforded Me Occasion to reflect upon it rather more than I had done before. His Educat<sup>n</sup> hitherto may be call'd a private one; & to This perhaps chiefly, He owes that peculiar Innocence & Sanctity of Manners w<sup>ch</sup> are so amiable in Him: but then, is He not, think You, more artless, more unskill'd in a necessary Address, than He ought to be, 'ere He is turned out into a World like This? In a private Seminary his Passions cou'd be seldom aroused: He had few or no Competitors, and therefore cou'd not so advantageously, as in a more public

Place, be inured to combat those little oppositions & Collisions of Interest, w<sup>c</sup> resemble in Miniature the Contests y<sup>t</sup> happen in y<sup>e</sup> gr<sup>t</sup> School of y<sup>e</sup> World. And let our Circumstances in y<sup>e</sup> World be what They will, yet, considering the thousand unavoidable Troubles that human Nature is Heir to, This is a part of Educat<sup>n</sup> tho' seldom attended to, w<sup>c</sup> I think of more Importance than almost all y<sup>e</sup> Rest. When Children are taught betimes to bear Misfortunes & cross Accidents wth becom<sup>e</sup> Fortitude, one half of y<sup>e</sup> Evils of Life, wth w<sup>c</sup> others are dejected, afflict not Them. Educat<sup>n</sup> is too generally considered merely as y<sup>r</sup>. Acquisi<sup>n</sup> of Knowledge, & y<sup>e</sup> Cultiva<sup>n</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> intellectual Powers: And agreeably to this Notion, wth We speak of a Man well-educated, We seldom mean more than that He has been well instructed in those Languages w<sup>c</sup> are y<sup>e</sup> Avenues to Knowledge. But surely, this is but a partial & imperfect Acc<sup>t</sup> of it: & y<sup>e</sup> Aim of Educat<sup>n</sup> sh<sup>d</sup> be not only to form wise but good Men, not only to cultivate y<sup>e</sup> Understanding, but to expand y<sup>e</sup> Heart, to meliorate y<sup>e</sup> Temper, & fix y<sup>e</sup> gen'rous Purpose in y<sup>e</sup> glowing Breast. But whether This can best be Done, in a private or public School, is a Point, on w<sup>c</sup> so much may be said on both Sides, that I confess myself still undetermined. Y<sup>r</sup> Son came to Me teeming wth all y<sup>e</sup> softer Virtues: but then I thought, possess'd as He was of all y<sup>e</sup> Harmlessness of y<sup>e</sup> Dove, He still wanted some of y<sup>e</sup> Wisdom of y<sup>e</sup> Serpent: And This, by y<sup>e</sup> Oeconomy of my Family he will undoubtedly sooner acquire than at Home. But ~~then~~, how will You forgive Me sh<sup>d</sup> I suffer Him to lose in Gentleness, Simplicity, & Inoffensiveness, as much as He gains in Address, Prudence, & Resolu<sup>n</sup>? And I must assure You f<sup>m</sup> Experience, that This is a Dilemma by no means so Easily avoided in Practice, as it may seem to be in Theory. Upon the Whole, however, I can honestly give it as my Opinion, (& as it must give You & M<sup>rs</sup> Washington much comfort & Pleasure to hear it I hope You will not suspect y<sup>t</sup> I w<sup>d</sup> be so mean as to say so, if I did not think so) that I have not seen a Youth that I think promises fairer to be a good & useful Man than John Custis! 'Tis true, he is far f<sup>m</sup> being a brilliant Genius, but This so far from being considered as a Reflection upon Him, ought rather to give You pleasure. Parents are generally <sup>partial</sup> to gr<sup>t</sup> Vivacity & Sprightliness of Genius in th<sup>r</sup> Children; whereas I think, that there cannot be a Symptom less expressive of future Judgement & Solidity: as it seems thoroughly to preclude not only Depth of Penetra<sup>n</sup>, but y<sup>t</sup> Atten<sup>n</sup> & Applica<sup>n</sup> w<sup>c</sup> are so essentially requisite in y<sup>e</sup> Acquisi<sup>n</sup> of Knowledge. It is, if I may use y<sup>e</sup> Simile of a Poet, a busy Bee, whose whole Time passes away in mere Flight f<sup>m</sup> Flower to Flower, with<sup>t</sup> rest<sup>s</sup> upon Any a suff<sup>t</sup> Time to gather Honey.

He will Himself inform You of y<sup>e</sup> Accident He lately met with; and as He seems to be very apprehensive of y<sup>r</sup> Displeasure, c<sup>d</sup> I suppose it necessary, I w<sup>d</sup> urge You & his Mamma to spare Rebukes, as much as He certainly deserves Them. M<sup>rs</sup> Washington may believe Me that He is now perfectly well. He seemed to expect Me to employ a Doct<sup>r</sup>, but as He met wth y<sup>e</sup> Accident by his own indiscre<sup>n</sup>, & as I saw there was no Danger, I thought it not amiss not to indulge Him. The calling in a Physician upon every trifling Occasion, I think, is too likely to render Children needlessly timorous & Cowardly.

I did not misunderstand y<sup>e</sup> Meaning of y<sup>r</sup> Request,<sup>1</sup> in y<sup>e</sup> Matter wherein You suspect I possibly might; being persuaded that You know as well as I do, that such p<sup>r</sup>ticular Attention is not only unnecessary, but impracticable. He will probably inherit a much more considerable Fortune, than any other Boy here; and I thought it by no means an improper or unreasonable Request that a p<sup>r</sup>ticular Atten<sup>n</sup>. sh<sup>d</sup>. be bestowed on a Youth of his Expecta<sup>n</sup>. But as any Partiality to Him in y<sup>e</sup> trifling Circumstances of his Diet, or other Accommoda<sup>ns</sup>. w<sup>d</sup>. be rather disservicable than otherwise, I have taught Him not to expect it. The only p<sup>r</sup>ticular Atten<sup>n</sup>. You c<sup>d</sup>. wish for, I also think Him entitled to; & that is, a more vigilant Atten<sup>n</sup>. to y<sup>e</sup> Propriety & Decorum of his Behav<sup>r</sup>., & y<sup>e</sup> restrain<sup>g</sup>. Him fr<sup>m</sup>. many Indulgences, w<sup>c</sup>. I sh<sup>d</sup>. willingly allow p<sup>r</sup>haps to ano<sup>r</sup>. Boy, whose Prospects in Life do not require such exalted Sentem<sup>ts</sup>. y<sup>t</sup>. allow<sup>g</sup>. Him more frequently to sit in my Company, & being more careful of y<sup>e</sup> Company of Those, who might probably debase or taint his Morals. — Had I my Choice, believe me, it w<sup>d</sup>. be more agreeable to Me to superintend y<sup>e</sup> Educat<sup>n</sup>. of two or three promis<sup>g</sup>. Lads, than to lead a Life of y<sup>e</sup> most voluptuous Indolence: but the Truth is, oblig'd as I was to engage in it by Necessity, & not by Choice, I have often found myself so ill requited, & y<sup>e</sup> office itself considered as so

Yet, whilst it continues to be agreeable to You to let Mast<sup>r</sup> Custis remain wth Me, it will be a Pleasure to Me to have y<sup>e</sup> Managem<sup>t</sup> of Him, nor can I indeed come to any decisive Resolu<sup>n</sup> as to y<sup>e</sup> other Matter, till I know more certainly y<sup>e</sup> Fate of my Expecta<sup>ns</sup> in Maryland.

I am much concern'd for Mast<sup>r</sup> Custis's Indisposition, w<sup>c</sup> yet I foresaw, & sh<sup>d</sup> have told You so, as I did Him, had I not been unwell at y<sup>e</sup> Time He left Us. He is fond of Fruit, &, w<sup>t</sup> is worse for Him, He is fond of Cucumbers; & to These, I doubt not, in a gr<sup>t</sup> Measure, He owes his bilious Complaints.

A better Air, & stricter Attention, I trust, will soon restore Him to his former Health.

I did intend to have dismiss'd my Boys a Week ago; but th<sup>r</sup> Parents & Friends hav<sup>e</sup> neglected to send for Them, Many of Them have had, & still have this vile Disorder. And both my Sister & Usher are also down in it, I see no Chance I have of quitting y<sup>e</sup> Place dur<sup>g</sup> y<sup>e</sup> sickly Season, w<sup>h</sup> was my chief aim. Thank God, the Fevers are not very obstinate this Year, & easily give Way to Vomits & Bark.

Unless You hear from Me again, I shall be glad to see Jack here ag<sup>n</sup> ab<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> latter End of this Month, if his Health will then permit Him: & I hardly expect He will be in a Capacity to leave Home much sooner. A very painful Disorder I labour'd under when Mast<sup>r</sup> Custis left Me, confin'd Me to my Bed a Fortnight, and now it is too late to set out, when I expect all my little Flock to return immediatly, as Some of Them already are. FROM CAPTAIN ROBERT STEWART.

I was some weeks out of Town for the benefit of my Health, which I seldom enjoy here, on my return to this place I had the immense pleasure to receive both your Affectionate and most acceptable Favors of the 5th August via Barbados and of the 1st Novem<sup>r</sup> under Cover from my Friend M<sup>r</sup> Jameison from Norfolk, breathing those Sentiments of real Friendship which I have on all occasions had the happiness to experience by which I think myself greatly hon<sup>d</sup> and which I will ever deem one of the most happy and valueable acquisitions I made in Life, the kind manner in which you are pleased to enter into my present situation and the fears you apprehend on my acco<sup>t</sup> from the nature of this Climate at once evince the warmth of your regard and the rectitude of your opinion, which from a great variety of instances in the course of that agreeable part of my Life in which I had the honor and very great satisfaction to Serve

under your Orders I ever found supported by those powerfull reasons that are the certain marks of real Genius and a solid Judgement which seldom unite in one person; The Physician who I have chiefly employ'd in this Island (where I in general have been Sick and at best rather enjoy the absence of pain than good Health) has given it as his opinion that a perfect Recovery from my Bilious Disorder with which I am so much afflicted is not to be hoped for but in a Cold Climate, I have therefore resolved to embark for England the first good oppor<sup>y</sup> after the vernal Equinox and tho my Constitution is much injured I have hopes given me that my native air exercise and a proper Regimen will in time effect the re:establishment of my Health, the deprivation of which in a great measure destroys the relish of most other enjoym<sup>ts</sup>: you see by my dwelling so long upon this disagreeable Subject how much an Invalid I am — I sometime ago wrote for leave to appoint a Dep<sup>y</sup> but should it not come in Time the Governor can on such an emergency grant 12 Months leave of absence and for that time appoint a Dep<sup>y</sup> who I hope to get confirm'd in London in which event I shall be able to save more from the part I shall receive than from the whole Emoluments of my Office if I continue in this very expensive & to me disagreeable place, whenever I get my Affairs settled in London I propose to return either to the Highlands of Scotland or to the South of France as the Physicians shall direct till I can recover my Health and get clear of the heavy Burthen my long and very expensive attendance unavoidably brought me under, this I hope to accomplish in about four years and then I flatter myself with the pleasing hope of passing the Even<sup>s</sup> of my Life with some degree of independence & comfort in that dear Country called Old England which I must confess I would prefer to all others — I observe with the utmost Gratitude that you have Drawn only for the Principal of the Money you was generously Pleased to advance for me! I really want words to convey the Ideas of what I feel on this Noble Act and fresh mark of your uncommon Friendship, I pray Heaven may one day or other enable me to demonstrate by actions what words can so imperfectly express in the mean time accept my dear Friend of my most Gratefull Thanks —

The acco<sup>ts</sup> you indulge me with of some of the Officers of the Virginia Regiment are very pleasing, I often think of that Corps who ow'd it's distinguished Character to your Military Talents with uncommon satisfaction tho blended with much regret from the situation of many of its brave Officers, who certainly have not been rewarded in any degree <sup>adequate</sup> to their Merit and uncommon Sufferings, I think without vanity we can assert that there never was and very probably never will be such another Provincial Regem<sup>t</sup>: I am truely glad that honest Weedon <sup>1</sup> (for whom I have a great regard) is well and still maintains the same happy flow of Spirits and Joyous turn for which he was always remark'd what is become of your Secretary M<sup>r</sup>: Kirkpatrick whose lively Conversation and very Elegant Letters have so often made me happy? I see Mercer is appointed L<sup>t</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup> of N<sup>o</sup> Carolina but I do not yet learn whether it's intended as a real advantage or a mere Feather — I observe with great pleasure that you prosecute your great and arduous undertaking on the Dismal Swamp, I most sincerely wish that your most sanguine hopes may be fully gratified which would produce the most desirable end of encreasing that Fortune which you so highly deserve & at the same time shew the Colonists what enterprise & perseverance can effect — The discontents and heartburnings which were some time ago rekindled in the Continental Colonies and were once likely to be productive of very serious consequences gave me great uneasiness, But as that Subject has been so much and so often handled by the most masterly pens it would be extreme presumption in me to say anything upon it, especially to so excellent a Judge who is so immediatly interested as you are, I hope and very earnestly wish that Parliament may hit upon some expedient that will put all right again.

I am astonish'd how my Letters to you from London could have miscarried I generally <sup>sent</sup> Jack (your old Courier) who still lives with me to the Virginia Coffee House with them, for I very seldom went into the City which I hate, and Mercer can tell you how often I lamented the great misfortune of not hearing from you, tho' by incessant enquires I frequently had the great pleasure to hear of you. To recapitulate the various Planns I form'd to continue a Soldier and the infinite pains I took at different times to get into the Service of the East India Comp<sup>y</sup>, of Portugal and at length of even Russia, the numberless incidents that concurr'd at different Periods to thwart my views and to destroy sometimes the fairest Prospects would fill a large Vol: that even to you who is pleased to interest yourself in so Friendly a manner would prove insupportably tedious and insipid, however as<sup>you</sup> shew an inclination to be inform'd how I was disappointed in my Expedition to the Island of S: John Please know that after reiterated applications, after the strongest assurances of Success, either a change of Ministers or Measures for in the course of our attendance there was no less than five different Lords presided at the Board of Trade constantly blasted our hopes for upwards of three years, in which time however the Island was Survey'd and laid off in Lots of Twenty thousand Acres each, a magnificent Plan of the whole on which each Lot was mark't & Num'd was sent by the Surveyor General to the above Board, and the Council at length determin'd that the Lots should be Drawn for by the different Memorialists at the Board of Trade & in presence of the Lords of that Board by way of Lottery, however they added so great a number to the original Claim<sup>ts</sup>, that very few got more than half a Lot and some not  $\frac{1}{10}$ th. — Cap<sup>t</sup> Allanby late of the Navy a Gentleman of considerable Landed Property in the N. of England<sup>1</sup> and I had the good Fortune to Draw one of the best Lots between us, lying on the principal Harbour, he, his Lady and Family goes over there next Spring, but I dread that my inability of setting my ten thousand Acres, and pressing demands to pay off old Scores will force me to Sell it for a trifle, the great number that were by Ministerial Interest admitted without any just claim disgusted several of Rank & Fortune for whom I was to have acted and made them relinquish their pretensions — I am one of those Officers who have commenced a Suit against the Great Rhansler of New York for a considerable part of his Estate in that Province,<sup>1</sup> where I understand it is given against us,

MY LORDS

Captain John Campbell late of his Majesty's 42<sup>d</sup> Regiment and several other Reduced officers of his Majesty's army, have presented Petitions to me, in consequence of the Royal Proclamation of the 7th of October 1763, Praying a Grant of Lands which lye within the pretended Bounds of a large Tract of Land claimed by one Renslaer. When the Petitions were laid before his Majestys Council, they were of opinion that it did not appear with sufficient clearness that the Lands were vacant, for them to advise me to grant them to the Petitioners. The officers resolved to abide in the suit they had commenced, & to carry their application to his Majesty, and at their desire, I inform your Lordships that I have seen the state of the Case which they have got drawn up by M<sup>r</sup> Kemp, the Kings Attorney General for this Province, which may be depended on.

I imagine One single Observation will set the dispute in a clear Light before your Lordships.

Ranslaers Indian Purchase & Pattennt extends from Hudsons River to a place call'd Wawaniaquasick which is therein said to be 24 miles from the River, Wawaniaquasick is a heap of stones erected by the [Indians] as a Monument of some Memorable Event, & has been known by the Christians from the date of M<sup>r</sup> Ranslaers Purchase down to the present time but is only nine Miles & three quarters from Hudsons River. It cannot be supposed that the Indians at that early Day, had any notion of English Miles, and even the Christians in computing distances thro' Woods, obstructed by Morasses Hills & Rivers have often supposed the distance double of what it was found to be when measured.

The Place & distance mention'd cannot both stand in construing the bounds given to this Tract; the Place is most certain, & by leaving out the Distance mentioned (24 Miles) and keeping to Wawaniaquasick, the Tract is clearly & distinctly bounded on all sides; whereas if we go beyond Wawaniaquasick, to the end of 24 Miles, no bounds are given for one very extensive side of the Tract, and that which Renslaer assumes gives him 170,000 acres. I am, my Lords, &c. (Governor Colder to the Board of Trade and Plantations.)

Although the governor of New York appears to have favored the suit of the officers, it was decided against them, and the estate remained intact in the possession of the Van Rensselaer family. Schuyler, in his Colonial New York, describes the entire tract as

which indeed we expected, but make no doubt of its being given in our favour by the King & Council, I was very active in this affair (in the course of which three Changes happen'd in Administration) however we with infinite pains got it passed the Board of Trade and afterwards the Council and at length got the Lords of the Treasury to agree that the Suit should be carried on at the Expence of the Crown a point of vast importance to half Pay Officers who had to Cope with a Man of vast Estate, which he and his Fore Fathers have long possess'd, We likewise obtain'd a Royal Instruction to the Gov<sup>r</sup> & Attorney Gen<sup>l</sup> of new York to prosecute the Suit with vigour & in the event of its being given against us to appeal forthwith, But procurings the Surveys, Copies of all the different Grants, Vouchers &c<sup>a</sup> likewise defraying the Expences of the Officers employ'd in that Service and an infinite detail of Contingences cost a great deal of Money each pays according to his Rank I pay as L<sup>t</sup> Col<sup>o</sup> and consequently in case of Success will receive five thousand Acres, My Rank tho' well known to be in your Regem<sup>t</sup> (I carefully avoided calling it a Provincial Corps) was never in the least objected to, either by any of those Great Boards nor by any of the Officers adventurers<sup>in</sup> this uncommon undertaking, the Lands are situated on the Banks of the River Hudson between the Cities of N York & Albany, and a great part of them highly cultivated—I have been often told in London that I was being "twenty-four miles north and south, and forty-eight miles east and west," and that "it contained seven hundred thousand acres," adding that "the present cities of Albany and Troy are within its limits."

Virginia mad, I fear you will begin to think that I am become Land mad, but even should we miscarry which is exceedingly improbable I will in a few years get over it, and in case of Success I shall soon be reliev'd from my present Difficulties —

Your old Acquaintance Doc<sup>t</sup> Cockburn has been Dead some time, his widow is in the Country but I on rec<sup>t</sup> of yours immediately waited on his Son and had the pleasure of delivering yours and your Lady's Message he herewith sends you a Letter —

Here we have nothing new or entertaining and as we have our News from the same Source with you it is almost impossible we can ever transmit you any. should no opport<sup>y</sup> offer soon from your River for this Island I beg you will do me the honor to write to me at London under cover to Lauchlin Maclean Esq<sup>t</sup> Queen Anne Street, Cavendish Square, Maclean is now become a Member of the British Senate and can in a very great degree enable us to carry on an uninterrupted Correspondence whatever part of Europe I may be in, than which nothing can be more agreeable to me —

I beg you will do me the honor to present my humble Respects to M<sup>rs</sup> Washington in the warmest strain of affectionate Gratitude where are her Children? if in England I beg to know what place? that I may have the pleasure of waiting on them and paying them every degree of Respect and attention in my power — I ought now My dear Col<sup>o</sup> to apologize for the tiresome length, inaccuracy and want of arrangement in the above Scrawl all I have to say is, that I cannot write you a short Letter tho' hurried and that I know, that I am writing to a kind indulgent Friend who has always cherish'd my intentions and overlook'd my weaknesses —

May Heaven Bless my Dear Col<sup>o</sup> with everything you desire or that can make you happy, even a Distant Acco<sup>t</sup> of which will constitute a very essential part of mine, I ever am with the strongest Regard and most Exalted Esteem

I have y<sup>r</sup> Favour of this Day, enclosing the Resolves of the Merch<sup>ts</sup> in philadelphia &c.. which I return by the Bearer, as I had before rec<sup>d</sup> Duplicates of them from our Friend the Doctor.<sup>1</sup>

I entirely agree with you that no regular plan of the sort proposed can be entered into here before the meeting of the Gen<sup>l</sup> Court at least, if not that of the Assembly; when a Number of Gentlemen, from the different parts of the Country, will have an Opportunity of conferring together, & acting in Concert; in the mean Time it may be necessary to publish something preparatory to it in our Gazettes, to warn the people at least of the impending Danger, & induce them the more readily & chearfully to concur in the proper Measures to avert it; & something of this Sort I had begun; but am unluckily stop'd by a Disorder which affects my Head & Eyes in such a Manner, that I am totally incapable of Business, proceeding from a slight Colds checking an Attack of an Erisipelas or S<sup>t</sup> Anthony's-Fire (a Complaint I am very subject to) so soon as I am able, I shall resume

it, & shall then write you more fully, or endeavour to see you: in the mean Time pray commit to Writing such Hints as may occur.

Our All is at Stake, & the little Conveniencys & Comforts of Life, when set in Competition with our Liberty, ought to be rejected not with Reluctance but with Pleasure: Yet it is plain that in the Tob<sup>o</sup> Colonys We can't at present confine our Importations within such narrow Bounds as the Northern Colonys; a plan of this kind, to be practicable, must be adapted to our Circumstances; for not steadily executed, it had better have remained unattempted — We may retrench all Manner of Superfluitys, Finery of all Denominations, & confine ourselves to Linnens Woolens &c, not exceeding a certain price: it is amazing how much this (if adopted in all the Colonys) would lessen the American Imports, and distress the various Traders & Manufacturers in Great Britain — This wou'd quickly awaken their Attention — they woud see, they wou'd<sup>feel</sup> the Oppressions We groan under, & exert themselves to procure Us Redress: this once obtain'd, We shou'd no longer discontinue our Importations, confining ourselves still never to import any Article that shou'd hereafter be taxed by Act of Parliament for raising a Revenue in America; for however singular I may be in my Opinion, I am thoroughly convinced that (Justice & Harmony happily restored) it is not the Interest of these Colonies to refuse British Manufactures: our supplying our Mother-Country with gross Materials, & taking her Manufactures in Return is the true Chain of Connection between Us ; these are the Bands, which, if not broken by Oppression, must long hold Us together, by maintain[ing] a constant Reciprocation of Interest: proper Caution shou'd therefore be used in drawing up the proposed plan of Association. It may not be amiss to let the Ministry understand that until We obtain a Redress of Grievances, We will withhold from them our Commoditys, particularly refrain from making Tobacco, by which the Revenue would lose fifty times more than all their Oppressions cou'd raise here. —

Had the Hint I have given with regard to the Taxation of Goods imported into America been thought<sup>of</sup> by our Merchants before the Repeal of the Stamp Act, the late American Revenue Acts wou'd probably never have been attempted. —

I am wth M<sup>rs</sup> Mason's Comp<sup>s</sup> & my own to Yourself & Family

Among the enumerated ~~Articles~~ Goods after the Articles Oyl & Fruit is added — Sugars — after Milenary of all Sorts is added — Lace of all Sorts — after the Article of Gauze is added (except Boulting Cloaths) —

In the fifth Resolve the Word — Slaves — in the second Line is struck out, & the word — hereafter — is added between the Word, any, & the Word, imported, — At the End of the Sixth Resolve after Tobacco-Debts, are added the Words — due to them

NB. the Reason of making this last Alteration is that at a time when the Government endeavours to call everything Seditious, it might be urged that the Subscribers took upon them a Sort of legislative Authority, in declaring they wou'd make Regulations relative to Tob<sup>o</sup> Debts, now they have an undoubted Right to make what Regulations they please in Debts due to themselves as the Option will still remain in the Debtors

The Merchants, Traders, Gentlemen, and other principal Inhabitants of the Colony of Virginia in general & of the County of _____ in particular, deeply affected with the Grievances and Distresses with which his Majesty's American Subjects are oppressed, and dreading the evils which threaten the Ruin of themselves and their posterity, by reducing them from a free and happy people to a Wretched & miserable State of Slavery, having taken into their Serious Consideration the present State of the Trade of this Colony, and of the American Commerce in general, observe with anxiety that the Debt due to Great Britain for Goods imported from thence is very great, and the means of paying this Debt in the present Situation of affairs likely to become more and more precarious — that the Difficulties under which they now labour as a Trading people are owing to the Restrictions prohibitions, & ill advised Regulations in several late Acts of parliament in Great Britain ; in particular that the last unconstitutional Acts imposing Duties on Tea, Paper, Glass &c.

First It is unanimously agreed on & resolved this Day of 1769. That the Subscribers as well by their own Example as by all other legal ways & means in their power, will promote & encourage Industry & Frugality & discourage all manner of Luxury & Extravagance. —

Thirdly That the Subscribers will not hereafter directly nor indirectly import or cause to be imported from Great Britain or any part of Europe (except such Articles of the produce or manufacture of Ireland as are brought hither imediately from thence, & Fruit & Oyl imediately from the Mediteranean & except also such Goods as orders have been already sent for) any of the

We need not remind you of the Acts of Parliament lately passed for raising a Revenue in America whereby the Liberty, Property and Trade of the Colonies are greatly Affected. We are sorry to inform you that from the latest accounts received from England there are little hopes of a repeal of those Acts notwithstanding the earnest applications that have been made for that purpose.

The Merchants and Traders of this City after mature deliberation, apprehending there is no way so effectual to obtain redress, as declining the importation of Goods from Great Britain untill the Acts are repealed, have entered into an Agreement for that purpose, a copy of which we enclose you. By this means, it is hoped that, the Traders and Manufacturers of Great Britain may be engaged to exert themselves in our favour. Experience has evinced the good effects of this measure in the case of the Stamp Act.

As it is of great importance that America should appear United and indeed as the good effects of this measure will depend upon such an Union, we are desired to apply to you and hope we need not use any Arguments to induce you to pursue a Similar Plan. It may appear hard upon individuals to give up their Trade and the present prospect of gain ; but by those who have a just sense of Liberty and love for their Country, no Sacrifice of that sort can be deemed great when those come in Competition.

We would just observe, that though the Merchants and Traders here have entered into this Agreement without any Condition, yet many will be very uneasy under it, if you do not come into the like.

As the Agreement now sent you is not intended to be put in the Public Papers, we hope you will be careful in that respect. We shall be glad to hear from you as soon as Possible and are

Agreement of the Merchants of Philadelphia
Entered into the 6th February 1769 —

That no orders shall be sent to Great Britain by any Vessel or Way whatever for any line of Goods before the 10th of March next — .

That all those who have sent forward any Orders for any Goods shall by the first Vessel to Sail send positive Orders to countermand them unless they are Ship'd before the first of April next ; that if in consequence of any Orders already sent, any Goods are Ship'd after the first of April, or if any Goods are sent by any Person to Us to be sold on Commission they shall be put into the hands of a Committee to be chosen by the Merchants or shall either Store or dispose of them as they shall think proper,

Provided always that the Goods shall not be delivered to the Person to whom they belong or to whom they are sent, untill advice is received that the late Revenue Acts against America are Repealed.

The following Agreement was entered into by the Merchants of Philadelphia the 10th March 1769.

The Merchants and Traders of the City of Philadelphia having taken into their serious consideration the present State of the Trade of this Province and of the American Commerce in general observe with Anxiety That the Debt due to Great Britain for Goods imported from thence is very great and the means of paying this Debt in the present situation of Affairs likely to become more and more precarious. That the difficulties under which they now labour as a Trading People are owing to the Restrictions, Prohibitions and ill advised Regulations in several late Acts of the Parliament of Great Britain in particular that the last unconstitutional Acts imposing Duties on Tea, Paper, Glass &c for the Sole purpose of raising a Revenue being injurious to Property and destructive to Liberty have a necessary Tendency to prevent the payment of old Debts or the contracting of New; & are of consequence ruinous to Trade. That notwithstanding the many earnest Applications already made there is little reason to expect a Redress of these Grievances. Therefore in Justice to themselves and their Posterity as well as to the Traders of Great Britain concerned in the American Commerce they have Voluntarily and Unanimously entered into the following Resolutions in hopes that their Example will Stimulate the Good People of this Province to be frugal in the Use & Consumption of British Manufacture and that their Brethren the Merchants and Manufacturers of Great Britain may from Motives of Friendship and Interest be engaged to exert themselves to obtain Redress of those Grievances under which the Trade and Inhabitants of America at present labour.

First Confirming the Agreement entered into the sixth of February last it is unanimously Resolved and Agreed. That the Subscribers will neither directly nor indirectly import from Great Britain nor any other part of Europe (except Linens & Provisions from Ireland immediately) any kind of Goods Ship'd after the first of April next except the following Articles, Tin Plates, Wire, Powder, Shot, Lead, Sail Cloth, Wool Combs, Wool & Tow Cards, Sheerman Sheers Drugs Medicines, Dye Stuff, Salt, Coal, Brimstone, School Books, Sugar Moulds, Chalk and Whiting untill the late Acts imposing Duties on Tea, Glass &c for the purpose of raising a Revenue are repealed.

Secondly That in all Orders which any of the Subscribers may send to Great Britain after the ninth instant for other Articles than those above enumerated they shall and will direct their Correspondents not to Ship them untill the above Acts are repealed.

Thirdly That if any Person, Strangers or others shall Contrary to the Tenor of this Agreement import any Goods the Subscribers will by all lawfull & prudent Measures discountenance such Persons and will not purchase any Goods so imported.

Fourthly That these Resolves shall be binding on all and each of the Subscribers who do hereby each and every Person for himself upon his Word & Honour agree that he will Strictly and firmly adhere to and abide by every Article of this Agreement from this time for and during the Continuance of the above mentioned Acts or untill a General Meeting of the Subscribers after three Days Public Notice shall determine otherwise.

ANNAPOLIS March 1769

GENTLEMEN

We are favor'd with a Letter from you of the 15th Current directed to us, in behalf of the Merchants and Traders of this place inclosing a Copy of an Agreement entered into by the Merchants and Traders of your City respecting the non-importation of certain Goods from Great Britain untill the repeal of the several Acts of Parliament laying oppressive and unconstitutional taxes on the American Colonies. Truly Sensible of the expediency of the measures recommended by you, we immediately on receipt of your Letter procured a meeting of all the Gentlemen concern'd in Trade in this City, and they having considered the Matter so far as the time and circumstances would allow, have desired us to communicate their sentiments to you on that Subject.

The Agreement entered into by you is approved of by the Merchants here and they have Unanimously resolved to pursue such a Plan, provided the importers of the Province in general or nearly so, can be brought into the like measure.

But the Importers of Goods in this City are so few in number when compared to those of the whole Province that it would be in vain for them to Attempt the putting such a Scheme in execution without a general Concurrence. To obtain which the Merchants here will exert themselves not only by shewing their readiness to enter into the proposed Measure, but by their communicating your Letter and forwarding therewith a Copy of your Agreement to the Principal Merchants throughout the Province. Which step at their last meeting they desired us to pursue with all convenient speed and is now in great forwardness.

You must no doubt be sensible from your knowledge of the different manner in which the Trade of this Province and Pensilvania is carried on, that such an Agreement as yours cannot be so readily entered into here as in your Province. The Importers in the one are chiefly if not wholly confined to the City of Philadelphia; but in Maryland the Merchants are Scattered all over the Province consequently their general Consent to any particular measure cannot be readily Obtained. However that Difficulty might be easily got over if the Importation of Goods was entirely confind to Merchants; But here every Gentleman and Planter Imports Goods more or less for their Family use by which means [I] may venture to say that not above                    of the Goods brought into this Province are imported by the Merchants & Traders. Such being the case not only the Consent of the Merchant importers is necessary, but that of all the Gentlemen & Planters who import Goods for their own use, otherwise the end proposed by the Agreement would be entirely defeated.

We must likewise observe that when the Agreement for not importing Goods is entered into here, many Articles must be added to those exceptions in yours which the circumstance of the Province will render absolutely necessary tho' they may not be so in Pensilvania.

But we shall Write you more fully on this Subject when we receive Answers to the several Letters which we have sent out, and in the mean time have only to Assure you that we have no reason to doubt, but that the Scheme will <sup>meet</sup> universal Approbation.

GENTLEMEN,

Last Sunday Morning several Letters were received from Boston, Philadelphia, and Maryland, on the most interesting and important Subject of American Grievances. The Inhabitants of Boston seem to be in a most piteous and melancholy Situation, and are doubtful whether they will be able to sustain the impending Blow without the Assistance and Cooperation of the other Colonies. By the Resolutions of their Town Meeting, it appears to be their Opinion that the most effectual Assistance which can be given them by their Sister Colonies will arise from a general Association against Exports and Imports, of every Kind, to or from Great Britain. Upon Receipt of this important Intelligence, the Moderator judged it most prudent immediately to convene as many of the late Representatives as could be got together,<sup>1</sup> and yesterday, at a Meeting of twenty five of the late Members, we took the Business under our most serious Consideration. Most Gentlemen present seemed to think it absolutely necessary for us to enlarge our late Association, and that we ought to adopt the Scheme of Nonimportation to a very large Extent ; but we were divided in our Opinions as to stopping our Exports. We could not, however, being so small a Proportion of the late Associates, presume to make any Alteration in the Terms of the general Association, and therefore resolved to invite all the Members of the late House of Burgesses to a general Meeting in this City on the first Day of August next. We fixed this distant Day in Hopes of accommodating the Meeting to every Gentleman's private Affairs, and that they might, in the mean Time, have an Opportunity of collecting the Sense of their respective Counties. The Inhabitants of the City were convened yesterday in the Afternoon, and most chearfully acceded to the Measures we had adopted.

<sup>1</sup> These letters and papers from Pennsylvania and Maryland Washington inclosed to George Mason, April 5, 1769, with an accompanying letter commending the "scheme," and asking Mason's opinion as to how and when it would be best to promote it in Virginia.

We flatter ourselves it is unnecessary to multiply words to induce your Compliance with this Invitation, upon an Occasion which is, confessedly, of the most lasting Importance to all America. Things seem to be hurrying to an alarming Crisis, and demand the speedy, united Councils of all those who have a Regard for the common Cause. We are, Gentlemen, your most affectionate Friends, and obedient humble Servants,

I have at last found leisure to peruse & consider the papers you left with me for my Opinion on the nature of your Interest in your Fairfax Lands.<sup>2</sup>

The deed of Settlement made by your Father on your brother Lawrence is long & complicated occasioned chiefly by an Intention to provide against the contingencie of the Prince W<sup>m</sup>. Lands which were the Subject of that deed & the Wesmoreland Lands Formerly Settled upon Augustine, from coming into the same hands by the death of one of your brothers without Issue, but as I take it for granted that your brother Aug<sup>t</sup> chose to keep the Westmorl<sup>d</sup> Lands, & not to give them up & take to the Prince William Lands as he had Power to do upon the death of Lawrence without Issue, great part of that settlement is of little consequence, as to the Point you Now want to be Satisfied in.

The Prince William Lands then are limited to Lawrence in fee simple upon the Contingencie of his leaving Issue at his death: He takes notice of a daughter in his will & if she survived him, your fathers Will has no operation upon the estate, but it must go according to the Will of y<sup>r</sup> brother Lawrence by which you take an estate tail, with a remainder to your brother Aug<sup>t</sup> in fee simple. For tho' the words of the devising clause would give you a fee, yet by a Subsequent one he directs that if you, Sam<sup>l</sup>, John & Charles or any of you, die without Lawful Issue such Land as was given you or any of you, would become the property of ~~you or any of you~~ his brother Augustine & his heirs forever, which changes your & their Estates in all the Lands Claimed under his Will into estates tail.

If indeed the daughter of Lawrence died before him, then as he left no Issue, The Land by the Settlement was to be subject to your father's disposition and by his Will, you have a fee simple in the Prince William Lands, under the Remainder limited to you if Law. died without Issue, since one of the contingencies upon w<sup>ch</sup> you were to have a fee, has happened, that of your arriving to full age, altho' you have no Issue. If this latter was the case, and you would choose to support y<sup>r</sup> fee simple, it might be proper to bring a Bill in Chancery to Perpetuate testimony to prove the fact of her dying before her father, as without testimony the presumption would be that she survived, being named in his Will; Nothing Further Occurs to me necessary to be mentioned. I hope it will not appear too high<sup>to</sup> You; it being just what I charged y<sup>e</sup> only Boy (M<sup>r</sup> Turner) I ever had living wth Me in y<sup>e</sup> same Manner He does. For my own Part, I must own to You, I charge his Horses merely by Guess, hav<sup>s</sup> never very nearly attended to y<sup>e</sup> Expence of maintain<sup>s</sup> a Horse: Those I have mentioned y<sup>e</sup> Matter to here, think it too low: You, probably, may have had Occasion to consider y<sup>e</sup> Matter, & therefore I beg Leave to refer it entirely to y<sup>r</sup>self. Unless therefore You object to it in Time, You must expect next Year to find your Son charged so too.

I have a Pleasure in informing You that I please Myself wth thinking We now do much better than formerly: You will rem<sup>r</sup> my hav<sup>s</sup> complain'd of Jack's Laziness, which, however, I now hope is not incurable. For I find He will bear driving, which heretofore I us'd to fear He would not. He has met wth more Rig<sup>r</sup> since I saw You than in all y<sup>e</sup> Time before, & He is the better for it. This I mean only as to his Books; in other Matters He is faultless. His new Boy too is infinitely fitter, for him than Julius; & if He be not spoil'd here, which, in Truth, there is some Danger of, You & He & I too will all have Cause to be pleas'd at his having made y<sup>e</sup> Exchange.

Miss Boucher was very intent on going to the Springs, but being now convinced that she cannot, consistent wth Associa<sup>o</sup> Principles, She is contented to drop it. On Considering the Will of Lawrence Washington Esq: I am of Opinion

<sup>5<sup>thly</sup></sup> That if the Debts can be paid out of the personal Estate & the funds appropriated out of the personal Estate and the Wife's Lands near Salisbury Plains the Heir at Law is not compellable to sell any of the real Estate for that purpose but may claim it by Descent

It appears to me that M<sup>r</sup>: Lawrence Washington intended what he devised to his wife, she should take clear of the payment of his debts, for after making provision for her, he devises all the rest of his Estates to his daughter after his debts are discharged, thereby fixing them on that part: The latter Clause that all his Estate shall be kept together til his debts are paid, I understand as respecting the same Estate, but on a <sup>which</sup> Supposition of his daughter's death, was to go among his other Legatees, but that distribution was not to take place til the debts were paid.

If the Funds particularly pointed out by the testator, were not sufficient to pay the debts, the Ballance must be paid by the particular Legatees in proportion to the value of their respective Legacies.
