

What's the purpose of the parent committees?

The purpose of the Asian/American Parent Committee is to bring Parents and Provo City School District (PCSD) together to accomplish goals that will enhance our district for the benefit of the children's needs and to build on relations.

Committee Goal:

- Provide parents to have the opportunity to participate in the school life of their children.
- Unite parents and district by fostering positive communication to help understand cultural differences.
- Nurturing community involvement by providing various cultural/social opportunities to help educate the various populations within the Provo City School District and celebrating the various cultures/differences in the City of Provo.

General objectives:

Establish a supportive relationship between parents/legal guardians of students and the Provo City School District. This relationship will be built through constructive discussions in which parents will discuss the challenges that students are having in any of the schools of the Provo City School District. In addition, the Asian/American Parent Committee will present possible solutions to those problems to the Provo City School District, Student Services Department. Furthermore, the Parent Committee will plan activities and create strategies to strength the relationship between, parents, students and the Provo City School District.

I. Objectives:

- a. To identify educational support and resources for Students in the Provo School District.
- b. To work in partnership with the Provo City School District in strengthening the services provided to students.
- c. Help foster a cooperative working relationship between the district and parents.
- d. Help increase more parent involvement in schools.
- e. Provide a forum for all parents to take an active part in the education and well-being of their children.
- f. Advise and present solutions to the Provo City School District in regards to the specific difficulties that students are dealing within the school district.
- g. Plan family and community events that will celebrate the various cultures/difference in the district and bring awareness to the community.
