Skyler Nicholas & Perrywater Dash Win $95,369 at Hooley Junior Patriot

By Tanya Randall

Skyler Nicholas and Perrywater Dash (“Jessie”), the 2022 National Junior High Barrel Racing Champions, left the Hooley Junior Patriot, held February 22 to March 5 in the Will Rogers Complex in Fort Worth, Texas, with an incredible $95,369!

The duo from Rockdale, Texas, won the Junior Patriot Finals for $35,000 and topped the Bonus Round for an additional $50,000. They also picked up $1,920 in the $20,000-added Patriot Open and $10,369 for placing third in the Junior Patriot Semifinals for total weekend earnings of $97,289!

The 15-year-old daughter of trainers Jeremy and Lisa Nicholas said her nearly $100,000 weekend hasn’t really sunk in yet. “Not really. No,” she said. “I couldn’t sleep that night. I was just in shock.”

Although she plans on training horses like her parents, Skyler said the money is going into her college savings.

“I’ve got to get a nursing degree because sometimes training colts doesn’t pay the bills,” she chuckled.

Skyler, a homeschooled Freshman, qualified for the Junior Patriot at the OKC Futurity in December. She and Jessie won the Jr Patriot qualifier and she also won the Amateur Futurity on the family’s homebred mare Two Stars Collided, by Dash Ta Fame out of her mother’s arena record setter Stoli My Guy, by Traffic Guy.

“We had kind of put (qualifying) off during the year,” said Skyler. “We didn’t see any qualifiers that we really wanted to haul to. We thought we might as well take Jessie and run the (OKC Futurity) qualifier. She’s starting to like that pen in Oklahoma City and she liked it well enough that run, but we thought if we didn’t make it, we had Kinder (Louisiana in February).”

In Fort Worth, they made their first run on Thursday, a 15.163 that finished fifth in the Open and third in the Junior Patriot Semifinals.

“The first go, I knew it was going pretty fast,” she said. “It was taking a .3 to make it back, and in past years, I’d made it back with a .5 and .6. I knew I needed to be fast and I just let her go in there and do her job. She was really liking the ground this year. They had it really good. She’s always loved that pen and worked good there.” In Saturday’s Junior Patriot Final, Skyler and Jessie got a smidge faster.

“Short go night, I was stressing about it all day,” said Skyler. “I didn’t eat all day. I was nervous as heck! She came in the short go and ran a 15.150. She worked really good that round and I didn’t think we could get faster than that.”

The victory made them eligible for the $100,000 Bonus Round, which took the top three contestants from each of the 19-and-under events. The goal was to beat the winning time from each event to win a share of the $100,000.

“To tell you the truth, my mom and I were considering not running,” Skyler admitted. There was less than an hour and half between the two runs. “She’s a consistent horse, but we didn’t know if she could beat that time. If she didn’t, she was running for nothing. We didn’t really want to run her that close in one night, but my dad was like, ‘This is our night. I feel this.’ So, we ran it and sure enough it was.”

THE RUNDOWN w/ Skyler Nicholas

Perrywater Dash (“Jessie”) 14.2 h., 1,100 lbs.

BIT: NHB (No Hit Bit) 6” Reverse Gag with three-piece smooth mouth-piece; warm up in a hackamore

HEADGEAR: None. She won the NJHSFR with a tiedown, but they took it off in January. “We had it on her when she was 4- and 5 because it gave me more control and I was able to hold her,” Skyler explained. “We are kicking ourselves for not taking that thing off five years ago! We took it and it sped her up like crazy! It was night and day difference.”

SADDLE: Double J

SADDLE PAD: Schneider Pad

LEG GEAR: Iconoclast

SHOES: Regular steel on all four

FEED: Purina Strategy Healthy Edge

HAY: Hay-Rite alfalfa cubes

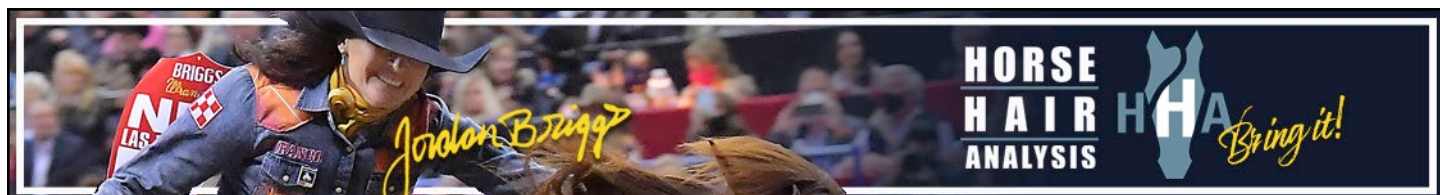

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP Exceed 6-Way, salt and starting three days before a run, CEP Vitality Plus

THERAPIES: Cloud boots for travel, Back On Track in the winter

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: “Every other day, she’ll get four minutes trotting each way and four minutes loping each way. That’s about two miles.”

SPONSORS: Iconoclast, Hay-Rite, MVP and Double J.

Skyler and Jessie had to best their 15.150 to win a share of the $100,000.

"I told myself not to stress about it," she said. "No matter what, I'd already won my money back."

Running last, they posted a 15.134 to split the $100,000 with pole bender Emily McNeil. The reserve champion pole bender, Emily turned in a 19.640 to best Junior Patriot Champion Grace Myers' Finals' winning time of 19.754.

"(We) both had on blue shirts," she chuckled. "They asked her what her reason was for wearing the blue shirt and she said it was because it was The Patriot. The colors are red, white and blue and it felt good matching it. He asked me if that was my reason and I said, 'No, it was the only clean one I had!'"

Unfortunately, her mom missed out on seeing the big win in person just as she had the Junior High Championship.

"After we ran on Thursday we went home because we didn't think we had to be up there until Saturday," Skyler explained. "Later on, we found out we had to be up there for a mandatory meeting on Friday. We couldn't find anyone to feed on short notice, so she had to stay home. Thankfully, I was able to call her right afterward. We were both in tears!"

Skyler opted not to run Jessie the next day in the Open Finals, so her mare's spring break got started a little early. Her next big event will likely be the Texas High School Rodeo Finals in Abilene, Texas. The pair are the Region 9 Barrel Racing Champions.

In the meantime, Skyler will focus on her colts. She's got four out of Jessie, one of which she's riding now.

"I've got a 3-year-old by Tres Fortunes that I'm riding now that I absolutely love," she said. She also has that horse's 2-year-old full brother, who is for sale, and a 2-year-old Shawne Bug Leo and yearling Feel The Sting.

The Nicholas family had originally purchased Jessie as a yearling from Vickie Adams who raised the mare bred by Rod and Georgina Mattison. Jessie is by Adams' late First Down Dash, Mr Jess Perry son Stratospheric out of the Fire Water Flit mare Fire Waters Free, who is double-bred Slash J Harletta.

Skyler's dad broke the mare and heeled steers on her a little, while her mom trained her for barrels and took her to a few futurities. When Skyler needed a step-up horse, Jessie fit the bill. They started out winning in the 3- and 4D but gradually moved up the divisions. Now they've got two of the biggest junior championships on their resume.

Skyler wanted to thank her parents.

"They do so much for me I'm always grateful for it," said Skyler, who added, "All glory to God. We couldn't do this without Him."

Grace Hancock & Bullys Flash N Dash Sweep Patriot Open & Young Guns, Win $61,258

By Tanya Randall

Eight-year-old Grace Hancock of Waconia, Minnesota, dominated The Patriot, held February 22 through March 5 at the Will Roger Complex in Fort Worth, Texas.

Hancock and her 13-year-old mare Bullys Flash N Dash (“Molly”) won the $10,000-added Young Guns for riders 19-and-under, worth $4,784, and the $20,000-added Open for $21,385. She also finished third in the Hooey Jr Patriot, earning $34,989. Her grand total reached an astounding $61,158!

“It’s just unbelievable,” said Samantha Hancock, Grace’s mother. “She wasn’t concerned at all about the money. All she wanted was a buckle. I told her she had to get first place and she said, ‘Ok. That’s what I’m going to do.’ And she did!”

Grace confirmed, “Didn’t want the money, just a buckle.” She got her buckle and more. The precocious barrel racer followed her mother into the arena. Samantha herself fell in love with horses at a young age and grew up working in trade for rides and lessons. About seven years ago, she left the show worlds of dressage and western pleasure for barrel racing.

“Grace has really started winning a lot in the past couple of years and we really wanted to graduate to bigger events where she could earn more money,” said Samantha. They started their search for a suitable mount in the spring of 2022 but didn’t find Molly until mid-summer.

“We were looking for a horse for Grace before Little Britches Finals last year,” said Samantha. “We were really striking out. We had two we tried last year, but they didn’t vet check. We stopped our search for a while.”

Shortly after the Little Britches Finals, Samantha’s friend Jessica Demell, a Wisconsin transplant now living in Texas, called to tell her about Molly. Bred by Joe and Diane Finney, Molly was foaled at the Crawford family’s at M/3 Performance Horses in Uvalde, Texas. Molly is a daughter of CS Flashlight out of Bashful Bully, by Bully Bullion. Bashful Bully just happens to be the granddam of BFA World Futurity and NBHA Open World Champion HM Cornerstone and BFA Super Stakes Champion JK Reckless Lady. Demell had purchased the mare as a 9-year-old from the Crawfords and had her solid enough for a pint-sized rider.

“My friend Jessica called me,” said Samantha. “She said, ‘My mare’s not for sale, but I’d really love for Grace to have her.’ We didn’t even try her; we just had her sent up from Texas. We traded a horse and some money and that’s how we got her.”

Grace said that Molly isn’t the easiest horse to ride. It was a little challenging especially in the beginning, but now she says that Molly has made her a better horsewoman.

“I did not think I was ready at first,” said Grace, a third grader who one day hopes to make the National Finals Rodeo. “I had been riding my horse Shorty. He used to feel fast to me. Now Molly made Shorty feel really slow. Now when I run Molly it just feels like a normal speed.”

Once Grace and Molly started to click, the family made the last minute decision to travel to Amarillo, Texas, for a Hooey Jr Patriot qualifier.

“We drove 30 hours in four days to go to Amarillo because there were only two qualifiers left, and once it gets cold in Minnesota, it gets pretty hard to haul out,” Samantha noted.

At The Patriot, Grace and Molly made five 1D runs including the fastest time of the event, a 14.893 on their last run, to win the Open and Young Guns Finals.

“We knew she could do it, but did we figure she could win it? No way!” said Samantha. “I knew she could go down there and run in the 1D, meet some people and have some fun, but I didn’t know Molly and her were going to pull that out!”

SADDLE PAD: 5-Star

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine

FEED: Pro Elite Grass Balancer

HAY: Alfalfa, grass mix

SUPPLEMENTS: Succeed

THERAPIES: Acupuncture about every five to six weeks

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: “Grace rides her five days a week,” said Samantha. “For her it’s just a lot of small circles, gathering her up and keeping her hip underneath her. She’s more free running, so we’ll set one barrel or a cone in the middle of the arena and spiral her down and spiral her back out. We also do a lot of trail riding, especially in the summer time. We like to get her out as much as we can to keep her mind good.”

Samantha, who still competes herself, operates a real estate company with her husband Jay. The couple has four children, three of which compete. Grace is their second youngest. They’re extremely proud of what she has accomplished in such a short amount of time.

“Everyone wants to talk about the horse, the horse, the horse,” said Samantha. “Since she was 3, Grace was loping the barrels, not just hanging on—she rides.

“She’s had a chance to jockey a variety of really nice horses in Minnesota for different people. Every time she gets on one, she brings out the very best in that horse. Like the two she tried this last summer, jump riding them she had the fastest times that those two horses had ever run.

"I really don't want people to think she's a sensation just because of Molly. She's very talented. She comes home from school, and by her choice, no one is pushing her, she's in the barn. She's always trying to learn from people. I'm proud that she's that quality of horse-woman; she's not just another kid that can jump on a fast horse and hang on."

Grace, who is coached by her mother as well as Sue Ahlgren and NFR-qualifier and IPRA Champion Jane Melby, has big plans for the rest of the year including the BBR World Finals, NBHA Youth World and races in Las Vegas in December. She wanted to thank "God and Jesus" for everything.

"We're grateful to God for allowing this," added Samantha, "because we know that He has to be a big part of it—all of it."

AIRWAY EQ

"Air-Way EQ has helped maintain my horse's respiratory health, I've noticed clearer sounding airways and greater lung capacity. I use Breathe'O2 paste pre-race, he sounds great warming up and really fires without feeling winded."

London Gorham & Runnin With Wings Collect $17,200 at The Big League Open Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

High winds and the threat of tornadoes didn't stop the 200-entries from competing in J&J Production's The Big League open slot race, held Thursday, March 2 in the Somervell Expo Center in Glen Rose, Texas.

"We had this huge storm from the tip of Texas to the bottom of Texas roll through," said Jodi Robertson of J&J Productions. "They guys were prepping the arena when the winds hit. Timewise, it came through and blew through at the perfect time. It started at about 5:45 and blew through by 6:45. We started at 7:15 and were supposed to start at 7. Other than that, everything else fell into place and worked out really good."

The one-run, limited-entry race with $750 fees paid handsomely through three divisions, with a half-second split.

"You always want your jackpots to pay out really good," said Robertson. "You're always asking yourself, 'How can I pay out more?' When you actually see it on paper—we paid out $138,000 in about five hours!"

London Gorham and her 7-year-old gelding Runnin With Wings ("Homeboy") set the pace with a 14.533 on the same stakes as the regular Wednesday night Glen Rose jackpots to win $17,200.

"He ran his heart out as always," said Gorham. "That horse has so much try and such a big heart, if I keep the barrels up, he's very likely to be in the top three. The one thing I don't like about him is when I do hit a barrel on him, I know it's my fault!"

Bred by the late leading breeder Jud Little, Homeboy is by 5.8 million dollar barrel horse sire JL Dash Ta Heaven and out of Nicki Nick Bar, by Colonel Azucar. Nicki Nick Bar is out of the Dr Nick Bar, Pass Em Susie mare CD Nick Bar and is a maternal half-sister to KissKiss BangBang (LTE $444,423 QData).

"I just started running him last year," said Gorham. "We picked him out of Jud Little's pasture as a yearling, so we have had him since he was a baby. James Barnes trained him. It's so hard saying this because all my horses are my babies, but he's probably one of my favorites. He has the sweetest and cutest personality ever. He always licks me and follows me around like a dog."

Gorham wanted to give a special thank you to her mother Amanda Lyne for "doing absolutely everything for me to win."

Meet The Producer

Jodi Robertson started producing barrel races in 2016 as a means to make a living for her and her daughter Jayci.

"I was married and a stay-at-home mom," she said. "Then the dear Lord threw me a curveball. I had to come up with a way to provide for my daughter and I. In 2016, I moved back home with my parents in Graham. Graham has a pretty nice facility there and I got hired to handle the stalls and be the assistant arena manager."

The arena manager put her up to hosting some weeknight jackpots.

"I think the first one we had 18 entries and 45 exhibitions," she laughed. "I just grew from there. I was having one a week in Graham. At one point I was having two week night jackpots and working an 8 to 5 job just to make all the puzzle pieces fit to provide for Jayci. I was doing Stephenville on Tuesdays and Graham on Thursdays. I did that for almost two years. I still do a Tuesday night race and a couple of other races I've put together through the years."

She has since produced top tier events like the Lone Star Shootout Futurity & Derby and the Elder Dodge Shootout.

"I can do a lot of stuff myself, but if I don't have the crew that I have, I have nothing," she said. "From the announcer to the photographer, the office help and ground crew—I know I'm leaving people out—if you don't have a good team you're literally nothing."

Most recently, she hosted The Big League slot race.

"My decision to have it was very limited," she explained. "I contacted Glen Rose and they said this is the date you can get and there is nothing else. When I compared it to the dates of The Patriot, I thought it might just work out. A lot of people come from back East and down from the North, plus a lot of people are here for the winter rodeos. All the pieces kind of fit perfectly together."

The slot race, which was limited to 200 entries with $750 fees, filled within five days.

"It's a great thing for the barrel racing industry," she said of the open slot races. "I just hope that producers don't take too much advantage of it and wear it out. People kept asking me how many of these are you going to have a year, and honestly I think if we stick with one in the spring and one in the fall that will create some want to go to them versus the 'oh, you're having another one?' I just hope it doesn't get worn out or abused to where they don't fill. If they don't fill, it's not going to work."

Womens Rodeo World Championship Returns to Ft. Worth

--Tickets for the Championship Event On Sale Now--

This May, the Women's Rodeo World Championship (WRWC) will return to Fort Worth, Texas, for the fourth consecutive season, part of the Women's Rodeo World Championship Week held during the 2023 PBR (Professional Bull Riders) World Finals. The Women's Rodeo World Championship, the world's richest women's only rodeo, will take over the iconic Cowtown Coliseum May 18-20, as the world's preeminent women's rodeo athletes duke it out for the title of 2023 Women's Rodeo World Champion.

For three nights only, the world's best women in rodeo competing in four disciplines will battle it out in one of the most exciting female-only live sporting events to witness, going head-to-head in team roping, breakaway roping, and barrel racing. A collective $750,000 will be on the line, with $182,500 being paid out in each discipline and each event champion leaving the Cowtown Coliseum with a minimum of $60,000.

The event will be the second of four Major rodeos comprising the 2023 WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) Triple Crown of Rodeo. Should the victor in any discipline at the Women's Rodeo World Championship also take the top spot on the podium at the subsequent two WCRA Majors, the athlete will be eligible to win an additional $1 million bonus.

In 2022, Texas Native Hope Thompson (Abilene, Texas) captured her second consecutive Women's Rodeo World Championship, making the 37-year-old the richest female athlete in the WCRA. Thompson claimed the 2022 WRWC All-Around Buckle to earn a $20,000 bonus on top of a $5,000 Heeler Challenger World Champion bonus. In 2020, Thompson logged the only qualified time in team roping with Yllie Smith (Whitsett, Texas) at the heels, to take home nearly $100,000. Combined, Thompson has earned more than $240,000 in WCRA competition.

Last year, Thompson was joined in the winner's circle by Breakaway Roping Event Champion Martha Angelone (Stephenville, Texas) along with Team Roping Champions Megan Gunter (McCammon, Idaho) and Kylie Mclean (San Tan Valley, Arizona). Hailey Kinsel (Cotulla, Texas) was crowned the 2022 Women's Rodeo Barrel Racing Event Champion. After making her WRWC debut as the No. 11-ranked barrel racer on the WRWC leaderboard, her jaw-dropping 13.384 push through the Cowtown Coliseum course propelled her to the top of the 2022 battle.

WCRA Announces Schedule for Triple Crown of Rodeo

The WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) today announced its 2023 and 2024 competition schedules for the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo presented by Lazy E Ranch and Arena, with the organization set to bring a near $5 million in prize money and bonuses to four cities as the WCRA readies to embark on its fifth anniversary season.

In 2023, the WCRA will celebrate its fifth anniversary since it was created to develop and advance the sport of rodeo by aligning all levels of competition. Since launching its trailblazing initiatives, the WCRA has grown into a nationally televised phenomenon while awarding more than $14.4 million in prize money. Most recently, RC Landingham became a millionaire, taking home the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo $1 million cash bonus.

The Triple Crown of Rodeo presented by Lazy E Ranch and Arena, is an annual bonus that pays $1 million to any one athlete or collection of athletes who win first place in any three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos.

Throughout the next two seasons, the Triple Crown of Rodeo will return to Corpus Christi, Texas; Fort Worth, Texas; Guthrie, Oklahoma; and expand its efforts east of the Mississippi to Mill Spring, North Carolina.

The 2023 TCR campaign will begin May 10-13 at Rodeo Corpus Christi during the Buc Days festival in Corpus Christi, Texas, followed by the 2023 Women's Rodeo World Championship held from May 17-20 in Fort Worth, Texas, at the Cowtown Coliseum in conjunction with the PBR World Finals.

The WCRA will then stop at the world-famous Tryon International Equestrian Center and Resort in North Carolina October 5-8. With a total guaranteed payout of over

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you ever wondered if Jesus rolled His eyes at what some people said? LOL! It's hard to imagine and even harder to picture it happening!

When I was little, sometimes my dad would just shake his head. We knew from that gesture we had asked a dumb question. Or pulled a dumb stunt. After one particularly trying day for my dad, he yelled this statement... "I swear to God I'm glad we don't live in Africa! You kids would bring home an elephant!"

I was trying to think how many critters over the years we had shown up with that we wanted as pets...in the house. Mice, garter snakes, a baby fox, an orphan foal, puppies and kittens too numerous to count, chicks and piglets. Dad stomped all the mice into the mud. Took care of that. He didn't care that we had named them all. Sigh. Back to Jesus.

Pastor Nate was reading this scripture this morning and that's what has given me the subject to write about today. Matthew 8:2 the leper asked Him, "if you are willing". Mark 9:22 the father said, "if you can do anything". Jesus' answer is always, "I will!" Jesus. They asked JESUS if He would heal. He's JESUS!

If I was Jesus I would roll my eyes. If I was Jesus I'd probably slap someone up beside the head. Thank God I'm not. Thank God He IS!

Receive what He has bought and paid for you to have. Total health! God is soooo good!
