

1. Lemonwood/Tarata

Pittosporum eugenioides

A flowering tree found throughout NZ in a variety of places.

Leaves

Smell like lemon when crushed.
Glossy on top, wavy edges.

Bark

Textured and grey colour

Photo: Phil Bendle

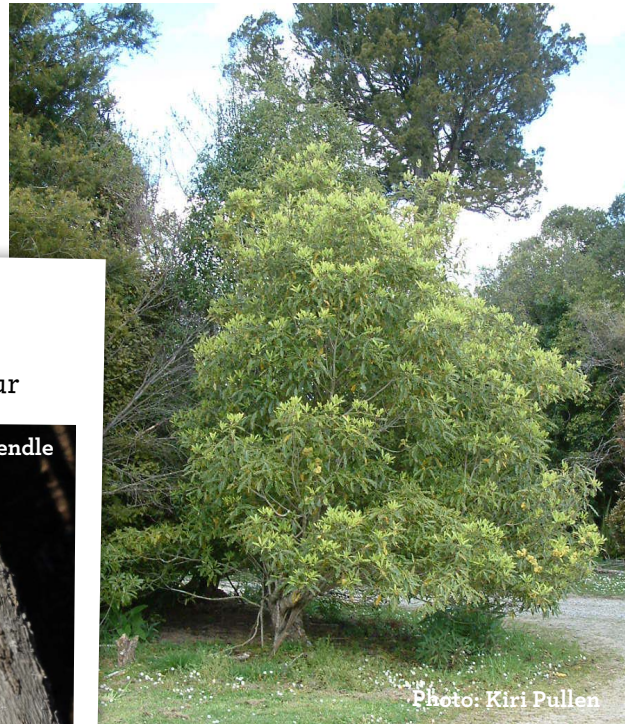

Photo: Kiri Pullen

Flowers

Cream, star-shaped, small flowers that grow in bunches. Smell sweet.

Photo: Kiri Pullen

Fruit

Green round berries in spring - summer.

Photo: Phil Bendle

Size
Up to 12m tall

Select 'current page' in the print dialogue box

For more information about kōtukutuku, see doc.govt.nz